Municipal governing body expanded by one member

Nancy Willson elected to city council position

Floydada City Council grew by one member following the Saturday election. As a result of the single-member district system, which was implemented with this election, the city governing body was expanded from five to six council members plus the mayor.

Nancy H. Willson joins the expanded council, which was sworn in Monday night.

Remainder of the city governing body remains intact: Mayor Parnell Powell and Council Members Don Green, Ginger Warren, Leroy Burns, Frank Breed and Wayne Russell.

In the lone contested race, Mrs. Willson was elected to the District Four Seat.

Election officials regarded the 388 votes cast as a "good" turnout. Obviously, some confusion resulted since the new system was being introduced and four polling sites were utilized.

Following were vote totals from Saturday balloting:

Mayor: Parnell Powell, 356
At-large: Wayne Russell, 329
At-large: Frank Breed, 270
District One: Don Green, 28
District Two: Ginger Warren 52
District Three: Leroy Burns, 146
District Four: Nancy H. Willson, 73;
Wayne Tipton, 23; Fred Thaxton, 41.
One hundred and 46 ballots were cast in District Three and 131 in District Four. Fifty-seven persons voted in District Two and 33 in District One, while 21 individuals voted absentee.

Under the new system, each individual is eligible to vote for a council member in the district in which he/she resides, plus making a choice for mayor and the two at-large seats.

In the Saturday election, places filled for two-year terms were mayor and districts two and three. Districts one and four and the two at-large seats were filled for one-year periods.

Serving as judges for the balloting were: Peggy Medley (District One), Sharon Quisenberry (District Two), John Key West (District Three) and Kathy Green (District Four).

COUNCIL CANVASSES VOTES, OATH OF OFFICE TAKEN

City officers elected in the April 4 election were sworn in by Floydada city secretary Jimmie Lou Stewart on April 6. The oath of office was administered following the canvassing and certification of the election results by the council at a short meeting Monday evening.

Council member Wayne Russell was appointed Mayor Pro Tem by a unanimous vote of the council. He will serve in the mayor's capacity should Mayor Powell be absent at any time.

Garcia, Hinsley named school board members

In the first election held under the new single-member district system, Adolfo Garcia and Michael Hinsley were chosen Saturday as trustees on the Floydada Independent School District board.

The pair will be sworn in during the regular board meeting next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. They succeed Harvey Allen and Bill Orman, neither of whom sought re-election.

Garcia was chosen to the Precinct Three seat. He polled 26 votes to 20 for Ruben Barrientos and 15 for Bob Phillips. Six persons had offered their services as at-large trustees. Hinsley was elected to this position with 203 votes. Other candidates and their totals: Cyndiann Williams, 135; Kenneth Pitts, 93; Amado Z. Morales, 62; D. Alan Benson Jr., 44; and Joseph Stepp, 13.

Officials regarded the 554 votes cast in the at-large race as "a little below average" and the Precinct Three turnout as "low."

Returns were canvassed Monday afternoon. Returns are unchanged.

Jack Stansell was judge for the election, held in the commissioners courtroom of Floyd County Courthouse. Different boxes were available for the at-large and Precinct Three voting.

Only individuals residing in a given district are eligible to vote for candidates in that district. All eligible voters living within the school district may cast ballots in at-large races.

Some thoughts on the situation, or situations, in Washington, Austin, and elsewhere; or the difference between Theory and Practice in politics and government.

First, Washington: Without doubt the Iran arms deal was a massive political blunder that ought never to have happened. It is ironic that Reagan, often accused by his opposition in the media and in Congress as lacking "compassion," could allow his compassion for American hostages to so cloud his thinking that he ends up with his presidency damaged and his original, laudable policy of establishing some sort of opening with future Iranian leadership in shreds.

To his credit the President has accepted responsibility in the matter. And to his credit he has done the right thing in trying to get the full story before the American people. It was he who appointed the Tower Commission and gave it carte blanc to examine the working of the National Security Council in this matter and report its findings to the American people. It was his Attorney General who gave us our first public disclosures as to the probably and possible ramifications of the affair. It was his Administration that first urged the appointment of a special prosecutor to follow whatever criminal leads might be uncovered. So the President can hardly be faulted for trying to cover up the story. But he can be faulted, in my view, for not understanding that the politics of the Mid-east is not the politics of Mid-America. With the politics of Mid-gain access to the Azteca Restaurant at 113 W. California. The burglary occurred "sometime during the night" last Wednesday and was discovered Thursday morning.

The restaurant was hit by yeggs on two different occasions late last year. Loss, estimated at $161 from the latest burglary, involved the theft of

"25 to 50" serving plates — valued at $150 — and $11 in cash. Sgt. Harold Snell of Floydada Police Department said the plates were pink and blue with "a leaf design."

Perhaps to avoid the possibility of leaving fingerprints, the burglar(s) took the Flex-O-Glass pane.

April 20 hearing to discuss prison

Floydada Development Company has scheduled a public hearing on the possible location of a minimum security prison in Floydada. The meeting will be held Monday, April 20, at 7 p.m. in the Massie Activity Center.

Bill Hale, president of the Floydada Development Company, said: "We certainly appreciate the large voter turnout on our recently completed survey and I hope we have really good attendance at our public hearing. After this hearing, Floydadians will have another opportunity to vote on this proposal."

"Everyone will have two weeks to cast their vote for or against at the Hesperian office, starting after the hearing."

"We hope those who did not vote last time because they did not feel they had adequate information, and those who voted on their gut feeling will come and hear the speakers at this meeting.

"I'm sure all questions will not be answered at the hearing, but we will have speakers who will give us some relevant information. I know I have learned a lot about prisons the last few weeks, much of it very surprising."

"Realizing that many will not be able to attend the meeting, the Hesperian will give detailed coverage in the issue, after the meeting."

Anyone desiring to be on the agenda at the April 20 meeting should contact Hale at Hale's Dept. Store. There will also be some time available for people who request it at the meeting.

AIDS forum scheduled next Wednesday for county leaders

Approximately 70 Floyd County government, school and civic leaders are being invited to an AIDS clinic, scheduled at 4 p.m. next Wednesday in A.E. Baker Auditorium at Floydada High School.

Texas Department of Health is sponsoring the April 15 forum.

An audio-visual presentation and a talk by Dr. E. Arnold Isaacson of Lubbock, a regional health director, will comprise the program.

According to information given to The Hesperian, city and county leaders from both Floydada and Lockney, school officials, civic organization heads and others have been extended invitations.

FmHA emergency disaster loans

Floyd and Briscoe counties have been declared eligible for Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) disaster emergency loans. Generally, that means that farmers who have lost at least 30 percent of their production due to the drought are eligible for FmHA loans.

Proceeds from crop insurance and the PIK program are taken into account when determining eligibility.

FmHA County Supervisor Becky Via is urging farmers who are interested in receiving an emergency loan to get their applications into FmHA as soon as possible.

"We hope farmers will get their applications in early rather than waiting until near the deadline, which is Nov. 17, 1987," Ms. Via says. "The longer they wait, the more chance there is for long delays in getting their checks. If the applications come in early, we can avoid backlogs and speed up the process."

The FmHA office is located at 107 W. California in Floydada. The telephone number is 983-2430.

Small business loan assistance

Small businesses and agricultural co-ops in Floyd County are eligible to apply for low-interest loans to help recover from flooding, excessive rain and hail on Oct. 1-3, 1986, according to information from the office of U.S. Senator Phil Gramm.

For those who cannot obtain credit through normal channels, the U.S. Small Business Administration will make loans available at below-market interest rates to small businesses and agricultural cooperatives. The county was designated as eligible for disaster assistance by the Farmers Home Administration, Gramm notes.

Applicants have until Nov. 11, 1987, to request loan assistance.

The Small Business Administration (SBA), which will supervise the loan program, is charged with providing loans to the victims of natural disasters in order to assist their economic recovery.

WRITE-IN VOTES

Under new laws, an individual seeking to win election as a write-in candidate must declare his/her intentions in advance. This individual must sign necessary declaration papers at least one day prior to the balloting.

Unless a person has taken this step, a write-in vote is regarded as a "mutilated ballot," this newspaper was informed.

Hospital board

William Bertrand, Donald Bean and Joy Assiter were chosen Saturday to two-year terms on the Caprock Hospital District board of directors.

Mrs. Assiter is succeeding Jo Wester, who did not seek re-election. Both Bean and Bertrand were incumbents.

Bertrand polled 353 votes, Bean received 352 and Mrs. Assiter garnered 344.

Five individuals each received a single write-in vote.

The trio joins Aldine Williams and Claude Weathersbee on the board.

Russian wheat aphids topic of meet Tuesday

County wheat producers are being invited to meet with Mark Brown during a Tuesday afternoon "turn-row meeting" to discuss the Russian wheat aphid in Floyd crops.

The session is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. April 14 at the Producers Cooperative Elevator in Floydada.

Brown is extension agent-entomology (pest management) for Crosby-Floyd Counties.

"This is the time producers need to be monitoring their fields because wheat is in a critical stage right now," Brown says.

The Tuesday meeting is sponsored by Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Crosby-Floyd Pest Management Program.

Floyd veterans receive $534,094 last year in benefits from VA

Veterans residing in Floyd County received monetary benefits totaling $534,094 from the Veterans Administration during fiscal year 1986, according to information received by Margaret Herrera, county veterans service officer.

"We feel that this...is an excellent barometer of the effectiveness of the valuable service you perform for the veterans, their dependents and survivors who reside in your county," Aubrey L. Bullard, executive director of the Texas Veterans Commission stated to Ms. Herrera in a letter.

Bullard continued, "As you are well aware, upon receipt, most of these benefits are placed in immediate circulation, thereby providing a significant economic stimulus to the economy of your county."

Benefits received by Floyd County veterans is broken into various categories:

Stringer finds contest balloon

Stinson Stringer, a Floydada area resident, spotted a flash of color along a fence line about a mile west of Barwise on Thursday, April 2. Going to investigate, he found...a deflated balloon.

Not an ordinary balloon. It had come from many miles away. Roswell, New Mexico, to be exact. The balloon was part of a Weekly Reader Writing Pals Balloon Contest. It was released by Fabian Vale, age 6, from Pecos Elementary School in Hobbs.

Stringer planned to contact the youngster and explain where he found the balloon which had traveled so many miles before coming to rest alongside a Floyd County road.

2. Report the incident to your local Child Protective Services worker in Floydada 983-2280, or on the toll-free Child Abuse hotline (1-800-252-5400). In either case the incident will be investigated promptly and confidentially.

This psychological trauma leads to the most long lasting damage to the child, not the physical trauma which may or may not occur. Help prevent sexual abuse of children

Sexual abuse of children is a serious problem in the United States. Sexual abuse may be defined as "anything sexual between an adult and a child in which the purpose is to gratify the sexual needs of an adult." Estimates of the incidence rate of sexual abuse vary, but many researchers agree that one in four girls and one in eleven boys have a sexual experience in childhood with a much older adult. While most sexual abuse victims are female, this may partially be due to the fact that males are much less likely to report sexual abuse. It is clear that the number of reported cases is just the "tip of the iceberg"; many children feel fear and guilt and do not report the incidents.

The popular image of the sexual offender as being a "pervert" or "molester" or "dirty old man" is not accurate. In from 60 to 80 percent of the sexual abuse cases the abuser is known to the child, either a relative, neighbor, or acquaintance of the victim.

Children need to be encouraged to report sexual abuse, for two main reasons:

1. Sexual abuse is not usually a single, isolated incident, but typically occurs repeatedly over a period of time, often years. If no intervention occurs, the abuse will continue for this particular child and may extend to other children as well.

2. The child may feel that he or she is to blame for the sexual episodes. The resultant guilt can have a devastating psychological impact on the child. This psychological trauma leads to the most long lasting damage to the child, not the physical trauma which may or may not occur. Therapy for the child needs to begin as soon as possible, to prevent lifelong psychological problems.

If a child reports a case of suspected sexual abuse to you, you should do the following:

1. Remain calm. The way in which the child's parents and involved professionals react are believed to be the most

Letter to The Editor

Editor - Floyd County Hesperian

Congratulations and kudos are certainly in order for Bill Hale and the Floydada Development Company in their efforts to secure a minimum security prison facility for Floydada. The overwhelming majority (almost 70%) of the 303 votes tabulated in the recent Hesperian survey clearly indicates a definite interest for such an undertaking in our community.

As the April 2 Hesperian editorial emphasized, agriculture has—and will continue to be—the economic base for Floydada and similar smaller towns in our area. As everyone is well aware, the agribusiness is in rather dire straits at the present time, and areas totally dependent upon agriculture are "hurting."

Even though the Lubbock area appears to have a fairly solid base, the city fathers there have elected to expand their already diversified economy by attempting to attract an awesome scheme known as the multi-billion dollar "Supercollider." There aren't a whole lot of projects or industries adapted for smaller communities. However, just as the Lubbocks and Amarillos will contend for the "Supercolliders," the Perrytons, Muleshoes, and Floydadas now have the chance to throw their hats in the ring in pursuit of opportunities such as the minimum security penal institutions.

There are those, with perhaps justifiable reservations, who do not want such a facility in our midst. At this point, none of us should be totally for or against the idea—with open minds, we need to consider the issue and the long-term ramifications of what such a project would mean to Floydada. When the questions are answered and the facts are known then we'll all have the chance to weigh the "good" vs. the "bad."

Mr. Hale and his progressive-minded associates on the development company have given us just that chance. An open forum has been scheduled at the Massie Activity Center at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, April 20. A large attendance at this meeting should provide a platform for enough input (and output) to see if the project warrants further study. If you are interested in the future of Floydada, BE THERE.

Four guidelines given for dealing with family stress

Stress is a family affair. One family member experiencing stress sends ripples through the entire family.

Often the most stressful times occur when a family experiences the pile-up of many stressful events. One farm family experienced a day piled high with stressful happenings — the farmer's hay was rained on for the third time, his truck's transmission went out, and his prize Holstein got sick. The entire family was affected by these events.

Serious, single stressful events and pile-up situations call for creative planning to master family stress. Family members display warning signals when they experience stress. Among them may be sleeplessness, irritability or physical symptoms, such as headaches, fatigue or backaches. Symptoms such as frequent parent-child conflicts, breakdowns in communications, fault-finding and sarcasm, or hostile behaviors among family members, also show up in the family. To recognize that your entire family is under stress rather than thinking that only one member has a problem is an important first step.

You can take four actions to deal with family stress. First, you can control some events. When surgery is planned for Mom, for example, Dad or another family member can learn to manage in the kitchen before she goes to the hospital.

Second, you can control your attitudes or how you look at events. A financial emergency can ruin a planned vacation or give a family the opportunity to relax and enjoy each other at home — it's all in how you look at it.

Third, you can control the responses you have to the stressful event. A distressed family does not need to treat each other with criticism that ends in angry conflict, or resort to over-eating or isolation, for relief. A family can even choose to play together in order to work off some tension that is building up.

The fourth way to take action is to recognize and use resources. Reaching out for help is not a sign of weakness. It is knowing your own limits and then asking for help when you are feeling pulled beyond those limits. Family members, the family unit and those outside the family unit are among the resources to consider for help.

Probably every family experiences stress. Learning to cope with it can help strengthen your family.

Communication key to parents dealing with teen depression

Recent highly publicized teenage suicides in other states have once again focused Texas parents' concerns closer to home.

"Like adolescents everywhere, many Texas youngsters are under a great deal of stress," says family life education specialist Diane Welch. "This stress may lead to distress and then to depression."

"Depression takes many forms and has a wide variety of symptoms. It can range in intensity from a case of the blues to a chronic and recurring state of despair so severe that outside help is needed to overcome it," she adds.

Many mental health professionals think adolescents experience masked depression or behaviors that are indirect evidence of their depression. Welch says. These indirect signs include low school achievement, school phobia, drug and alcohol abuse, anorexia nervosa, social isolation, sexual promiscuity and delinquency.

"While depression is associated with a wide variety of behaviors, it's not always clear whether depression precedes or follows the behaviors," she emphasizes.

According to the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist, parents may help reduce stress and the possibility of depression in their teenagers.

"Recognize that youngsters can be under stress even from daily school activities such as getting good grades, succeeding in sports or making friends," she says. "Major life changes such as the death of a parent, friend or family member, pregnancy, parents' divorce or starting to take drugs are even greater stressors."

The specialist advises parents to communicate acceptance to their teenagers. "Communication is a key to positive parent-teen relations. It is as important to listen as well as speak. Be willing to share your feelings as well as accept differences."

Providing clear guidelines is also important, says Welch. Even though teenagers may outwardly reject parental authority, they need clear guidelines and expectations. They will respect you for providing responsible standards and explaining the reasons behind the rules.

"Don't feel rejected," she says. "Accept the fact that teenagers turn to the peer group for emotional support and acceptance as part of growing up. The teenager is not rejecting you as much as reaching out for new relationships and independence."

Help is available in many communities for parents who want to improve their parenting and communication skills, the specialist emphasizes. Courses and workshops are offered through churches, community education and county Extension offices and other programs in most Texas communities.

"Parents who are concerned that their child is at risk of serious depression which may lead to suicide should not hesitate to call a local hospital, mental health clinic or suicide hotline for help," she advises.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Sara Coursey

Hello, let me introduce myself. I am the new Activity Director at the nursing home. My husband, Roger and I have moved back here from Amarillo. I grew up here, but things have changed during the years. We are adjusting to a small town. I have enjoyed becoming reacquainted with people that I have known all my life. We have felt very welcomed. With some heavenly guidance, I am going to be the best Activity Director possible!

Monday morning's devotion was given by Manfred Saunders. Our afternoon activity was ceramics. It was great fun!

Tuesday morning Bro. Neely brought our devotion. This morning the ladies enjoyed having their hair done by Dolores Cannon. They all looked so pretty! We had our afternoon Bible study.

Wednesday began with our usual coffee break. Our devotion was given by Bro. McAnally. The afternoon bingo game was fast and furious. Everyone seemed to bingo at once!

Thursday started with our devotion being led by Travis Curry. We had movies and popcorn in the afternoon. One movie was about the moon and the other was about a boy and his dog. We want to say a big Texas THANKS to Thompson Pharmacy for bringing out the wonderful Russell Stover candy today. The residents enjoyed it very much!

"Kiddie Kare" baby walker seat recalled

In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, the Service Merchandise Company of Nashville, Tennessee, has announced a voluntary recall of 49,000 Hi-Back Model 106 FLP, which were purchased in Service Merchandise Stores in 1984 and 1985. The models involved have a white vinyl binding tape on the edges of the crotch strap. The hazard involved slippage of the strap through the buckle which secures the front of the walker's seat to its deck. This slippage could result in infant entrapment or injury.

The Commission and Service Merchandise are aware of at least five incidents involving seat strap slippage, one of which was associated with an infant death.

Service Merchandise is offering a free replacement seat at no charge to the consumer and urges all owners of the Model 106 FLP walker to participate in the recall. The model number is located on the ID tag on the seat.

To obtain a free replacement seat call toll-free 1-800-251-1389. Tennessee residents may call toll-free 1-800-251-1212. Consumers may also write to:

Service Merchandise Company, P.O. Box 24600, Nashville, Tennessee 37202 and request a replacement seat for their walker.

Additional information may also be obtained by calling the Consumer Product Safety Commission toll-free hotline at 800-638-CPSC. A teletypewriter number for the hearing impaired is 800-638-8270.

The Bible Is True

The Bible is true and our faith doesn't depend on such information that I wish to share with you today...but it does make interesting reading.

A paper in Indiana presents the following question: "Did you know that the space program is busy proving that what has been called 'myth' in the Bible as true?" That is, what some thought to myth has turned out to be truth. Mr. Howard Hill, president of Curtis Engine Company in Baltimore and a consultant in the space program relates the development:

"They were checking the position of the sun, moon and planets out in space where they would be 100 and 1,000 years from now.

"They ran the computer measurement back and forth over the centuries and it came to a halt.

"The head of operations said, 'What's wrong?' The reply was, 'Well, we have found there is a day missing in space in elapsed time.'

"One religious fellow on the team said, 'You know, one time I was in Sunday School and they talked about the sun standing still...'

"He got a Bible and went back to the book of Joshua.

"There they found the story of Joshua...Joshua was surrounded by the enemy and if darkness fell they would be overpowered. So Joshua asked the Lord to make the sun stand still!

"The sun stood still...and hastened not to go down about a whole day." Joshua 10:13.

"There was still a missing day. They checked the computers going back into the time it was written and found it close, but not close enough. The elapsed time that was missing in Joshua's day was 23 hours and 20 minutes—not a whole day. They read the Bible and there it was—"about" a day.

"...They were still in trouble because if you cannot account for forty minutes you will still be in trouble 1,000 years from now..."

And after a search the scientists found 2 Kings 20:9-11. Hezekiah was on his death bed and was visited by the prophet Isaiah. Hezekiah said, "It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees. And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the Lord: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward..."

So it was. Isaiah spoke to the Lord and the Lord "brought the shadow 10 degrees backward." Ten degrees is 40 minutes, they calculated. Twenty-three hours and 20 minutes in Joshua plus 40 minutes in 2 Kings 20 make the missing day.

Joshua 10:13 "And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies...So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hastened not to go down about a whole day."

Pros and cons, some unusual events

Texas worth bragging about?

[Editor's note: Prepared for and presented to the 1934 Study Club on March 3, 1987, and also given for the Senior Citizens monthly luncheon and birthday party on March 19, 1987, by Mrs. Tom N. [Zula Mae] Emerit of Floydada.]

Texas is the third most populous state in the United States. The largest city is Houston, followed by Dallas. Houston is the third largest seaport.

Texas has 16 million citizens with millions of illegal residents.

Texas is third in agriculture.

Texas has 254 counties and 59 of these have an area larger than the state of Rhode Island. Texas has 71,000 miles of super highways and an airway system sufficient for its needs.

Texas has 68 state parks.

The highest mountains are the Guadalupe Mountains, which are 8,751 feet above sea level. They have 350 miles of coral reefs beneath them. American Airlines placed a monument atop these mountains as the highest peaks.

Eighty percent of the people in Texas live in the cities, surpassed by California and New York.

Texas is shifting from a younger people to older people state. Where have the young people gone? To the cities!

Texas has 3,700 streams of water. The largest rivers are the Red, Colorado and Rio Grande.

The name of Texas means "Friends."

In 1985 a TV program entitled "Made in Texas" was made, consisting of 10 shows transmitted by satellite to make us aware of the abundance of resources which we have.

Texas is described as a "land of contrasts."

What is the state flower? Bluebonnet
What is the state motto? Friendship
What is the state bird? Mockingbird
What is the state tree? Pecan (The pecan was reserved for Texas alone.)

What is the state dish? Chili (It was adopted in 1977.)

Texas has an average of 59 inches of annual rainfall on the gulf. El Paso received 8 inches annually.

Two men are making "Treks Around Texas."

Paul Pitts was asked to find the typical Texas city. He did not find one. He was impressed by the size of Texas. A 70 mile area around San Angelo makes Texas "come together." Pitts described it as a "melting pot or stew." Some things flavor this "Stew" more than others. San Angelo has more of these than others. He picked this as the most typical because this area has oil, cattle, farming, cowboys, roughnecks, wildcatters, football, old forts, mesquite trees, rivers, dozens of ethnic groups including strong Hispanic and German influences and good cooking.

Success in Texas: If at first you do not succeed try, try again for as many as 26 times. That is what the Texas Army National Guard did when they tried to place the refurbished "Goddess of Liberty" atop the 311 foot state capitol in Austin and then called the Mississippi Army National Guard. With the help of one Texas helicopter they succeeded on the first try.

State Representative Al Edwards is trying to get the bill to allow voluntary prayer back in our schools. We would be very proud to have this again.

Hill Country has grown 13 percent in the 80's in Fredericksburg, west of Austin. Lakes that first lured vacationing sportsmen now lure retiring sportsmen, mostly from Texas. Bill Ray, an engineer who lived and worked all over the world, including Hawaii and most recently Alaska, considered Hawaii but decided it was too costly. His family stumbled upon Fredericksburg while checking out Austin as a retirement spot.

Whooping cranes — Texas is proud of our whooping cranes which are protected under the Endangered Species Act. They stand about 5 feet tall and have a wingspan of approximately 7½ feet. In 1941 we had 15 and have rebounded to 175 or 178 in two flocks. The large birds fly south for the winter. Grays Lake National Wildlife Refuge in Idaho are experimenting to increase their flocks by gathering eggs from the endangered whooping cranes and putting them in sandhill crane nests. The adopted whoopers are raised by their sandhill parents.

Texas Braham cattle — A 747 jumbo jet headed halfway around the world in January. It was not filled with anxious vacationers from Houston. There were no in-flight movies, magazines, no complimentary drinks or flight attendants to assure a smooth trip for the 196 head of prime Texas cattle on the Cargolux Airlines from Houston International Airport to Bangkok. The Braham cattle found at ranches all over Texas by the Texas Department of Agriculture left Houston for Northern Thailand to be used for breeding purposes. The biggest problem was getting the pens specially built at the airport. The cattle were moved from the trucks into pens which were bolted to the floor on pallets. The bulls were put in front of the aircraft and the cows stayed in the back. The bulls were put in front because bulls do all their thinking with their eyes and noses. You don't want a bunch of frustrated bulls in an airplane. The cattle were expected to spend about 23 hours in flight. The fare for hauling them to Thailand would run $250,000.

"Texas" — Musical drama and its concessions in Palo Duro Canyon State Park have been assured of extension for another 25 years. In 1986 the amphitheatre averaged 94 percent capacity each night. Nearly two million people have seen the show. We are very proud of this. What is so unusual about "Texas" is that it has been put on in the Palo Duro Canyon floor for 21 years.

Can collecting keeps wolf from the door — In Odessa every day, grandmothers, Girl Scouts, residents of an Odessa home for mentally retarded, those down on their luck since the oil slump, elderly people and women wearing diamond rings and driving Cadillacs have cashed in aluminum cans at the metal company. The cans bring 20 cents for 24 cans. One grandmother has collected $3,000 worth for her grandsons' college fund. People have been laid off because of the bad economy. One man who had been laid off said the money went for bread, beans and soup for his family. Exercise motivates a few, small Social Security benefits, medical bills that Medicare doesn't cover, heart patients, people who have been laid off are most of the reasons for can collecting. This is a way to have an income with dignity. We are proud of these people who are too proud to ask for help or for giveaways. This income gives them pride and helps them cope with their situations.

High tech computer catches speeders — The county constables in Friendswood are taking traffic enforcement to a new electronic plateau. A radar using computer is an inconspicuous truck parked on a shoulder of Interstate 45 south of Houston triggers a camera that photographs speeders each half second, compared to a police officer's average of 14 tickets a day. Traffic violation notices are sent out to the owners of vehicles photographed which were traveling 65 miles an hour, 10 mph over the limit. Fines begin at $60. There were 548 violators on a four-hour period. All speedsters are caught and not one pulled over by an officer. Texas should be proud of the first equipment of this sort in America. Switzerland has one of these also.

Texas first-ever money printing plant — This will be built in Fort Worth on a 100-acre site on the northern edge of the city. This close proximity of the Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport played an important part in winning the bidding competition between 80 cities. The training program will produce highly skilled laborers earning high salaries. The printing plant is expected to be rolling $70 million in U.S. currency daily or 25 percent of America's currency. This will be a boost to Texas' economy. Texas is very proud to get this operation in its state.

Alligator season — We have bird, squirrel, deer, snake, and now alligator season in Texas. It is held September 5-12 of each year. Seven hundred and 49 alligators were bagged last year. An orientation is a must before a license and tags are issued. Dealers vie for the big alligators because the skins are used for shoes, bags, belts, etc.

Roadrunner '87 — The army invaded Brady, Tex., in a big way. The reason: Brady, population 6,000, hosted Roadrunner '87, the largest army exercises the past 20 years. One man said, "You can see the Army all over town, even at the Dairy Queen." The six-day operation spread over 16 West Texas counties more than 200 miles long and 70 miles wide. Nine hundred soldiers were involved, 1,700 trucks and jeeps and 90 helicopters. The maneuvers were designed to train commanders in moving troops in the field. Fighting troops were not involved. One man said, "I knew Texas was big but this is incredible." Roadrunner '87 is the USA's warm-up for Reforger in September, an annual joint NATO military exercise in West Germany.

Texas first — Texas was first in San Antonio to find that hair analysis can detect drug use. The method is fool-proof and can show the degree to which a person is a chemical abuser. As the hair grows it traps drugs such as cocaine, heroine, marijuana and amphetamines if they are in the bloodstream. This test is far superior to the urine test which is good for 2 or 3 days after usage.

Economy is bad in Texas — Authorities say a 20 unit apartment was built in Texas with stolen lumber, wiring, plumbing, carpeting and appliances and it did not cost a penny.

Texas surgery — The Malone Hogan Clinic is in Big Spring. It is an outpatient clinic approved by state and federal government. Several hundred procedures can be performed through the program. It will feature one-day surgery at about half the cost of a hospital stay. If you are anticipating surgery soon, West Texans will have a cheaper place to go.

SkYROCKETING business gets Texas family into jam — The Bill Day family had peaches too ripe for shipping but great for eating so Mrs. Day started making jam. Too much jam for the family increased and led to selling. The Roaring Springs jam factory opened in Roaring Springs. They have added cedar berries, onions, Jalapeno peppers, grapes, pumpkins, wild plums, mesquite beans, watermelon and others. They made some grass burr jelly as a joke but the concoction began to sell. A Lubbock store asked them to make some onion jelly. It turned out to be popular. The "Taste of Texas" label requires that 80 percent of a product must come from Texas. They have mesquite bean jelly to be the best-seller in growing markets stretching from Lubbock to Dallas. We are very proud of our jelly and jam making neighbors.

Texas citrus crop — Three years ago the freeze in the Rio Grande Valley wiped out $100 million in fruit and trees. The Texas Ruby Red grapefruit was the star product. This freeze caused the growers to have to start completely over. Now the Texas citrus crop has made a turnaround. You can't keep the proud Texans down.

Texas size move — You know you are in Texas when you see a 6,000 square-foot mansion being moved to a new site three miles away. It is the third biggest building ever moved in Texas. The Henry Strie residence is 81 years old and belongs to the late oil baron. It was moved to Sam Houston Park amid the dazzling modern downtown Houston. It is being restored by the Harris County Heritage Society and made into a museum. Five homes and a church have been restored by the group. Two other buildings in the state larger than the Strite's house have been restored by Texas. They are an office building in Denton and the Fairmont Hotel behind the Alamo in San Antonio. How do you capture third place? Have an access in money of $100,000, cut or move 35 electric lines, 29 phone lines, 5 TV cable lines, 19 traffic signals and several freeway lines, shut off a portion of the interstate highway and trim trees.

Green Berets — Do you know that Texas has 27 Green Berets in El Paso who are with the Border Patrol? They are being trained in the art of desert tracking. One skill is searching for illegal aliens, determining whether the footprints lead into the direction of the toes or if the person walked backward to confuse the trackers, read signs like an overturned stone or broken twig. USA 1987.

Texas hard time humor — We have had jokes about the tough economy in Texas. So many that Mike Cox of Austin decided to write a book. It was called "Texas Crude: Block Humor from Oil Patch." Some of the things mentioned were: 1. Things are so tough in Big Spring they are asking for references at the Dairy Queen. 2. What's the difference between the Titanic and the oil business? Both went down but the Titanic had a band. 3. In Houston, times are so hard you need collateral to lend money. 4. What is the fastest way to become a Texas millionaire? Start out as a Texas billionaire.

Senate Finance Committee — We are very proud of Lloyd Bentsen, chairman of this committee in Washington, D.C. He is from Texas and is working hard for Texas. What does that mean for Texas? He is trying to get the oil import fee passed. It cannot be passed without the White House support. Texas is in need now because of the bad economy. Bentsen is trying to destroy the biased formula that discriminates against Texas in handling federal funds. He says that Texas is a big state and we should get a big port.

Texas size dinosaur — A large dinosaur was found almost completely intact 95 percent. It was 30 feet long and was unearthed in a field by Jake Maxwell in February as he dug a water line on a 22 acre field. He thought it was a rock, then he saw a tooth sticking out. He took it to the house, washed it off with a hose. It was a part of the jawbone with all the teeth. It will be removed and taken to the Strecker Museum. This lizard-like reptile is believed to have died between 91 and 97 million years ago when large areas of present day Texas were covered by a warm, shallow sea and one continent united North

The worldwide warmth of spring

By Andrea Reed

Spring Fever is a global epidemic. The arrival of Spring marks more than just the end of winter; it's the season of rebirth, rejuvenation; and (for us humans) rejoicing!

In Thailand, for example, they celebrate spring by getting wet. It's time to rejoice in the return of the rains, nature's most important contribution to Thailand's most profitable export, rice. On April 13—midway through the hottest month—Thais celebrate Songkran, the Water Festival. The more they splash, the heavier the rains will supposedly be. To prepare for the event, the day before Songkran is dedicated to cleaning homes and the city, and people "make merit" by doing good deeds. Some who get wet together stay together; the waterworks are often followed by a deluge of weddings.

Springtime's most familiar fest in the West is probably May Day. You may remember dancing around the maypole as a youngster, but in rural sections of Europe this holiday was—and in some places still is—celebrated by young and old. Flowers and green branches are gathered to symbolize "bringing home the May" — bringing Spring to the village. Among young adults, a May Queen, and often a King, is chosen and crowned. Groups carrying flowers go door-to-door singing songs, and in some villages, the inhabitants choose a May tree, which is then decorated. The tree becomes the centerpiece of the celebration as families dance around it in a kind of "hop for the crops." In years past the queen, king, flowers, and tree were believed to bring new life and fertility to women, crops, and cattle.

In some parts of France, May Day tradition holds that a boy who's been jilted should lie in a field pretending he's asleep; if any village girl is willing to marry this faker, she "wakes" him with a kiss. The couple then goes to the village inn and leads the dance that announces their engagement. Thus the boy is called the betrothed of May.

Up in the land of the midnight sun the Swedes celebrate Valborgsmassaoften on April 30. They greet the new season by building bonfires all over the country and dancing around the flames as they sing spring songs. The ancient Scandinavians welcomed spring with mock battles between summer and winter (luckily, summer always won).

The Spanish welcome spring and the bullfighting season with a week-long celebration called the Feria de Sevilla. Decked out in traditional garb, people pour into the streets, ride horses, quench their thirst at curbside bars, and turn their cities and villages into one big festival.

If all this noise and activity doesn't appeal to you, then Japan might be just your place. There, Springtime brings Sakura Matsuri, the cherry-blossom festivals. The party begins in late March in the southern part of the country and moves northward as warmer weather opens the pink-and-white blossoms. The celebrants "do hanami" — literally, flower see. Families go to local parks thick with cherry trees, spread picnic blankets, feast on traditional foods, and watch the cherry-blossom petals fall gracefully to the ground.

Band Boosters discuss trip

The band will be competing in a concert contest Wednesday, April 8, at Sudan.

The annual festival is scheduled for May 16 and the spring concern has been set for May 17.

The nominating committee for officers for next year are Charlene Langley and Mary Shurbert.

The boosters next meeting is scheduled for May 4 at 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Fraternity honors Kenneth Mankins

Kenneth H. Mankins of Kempner was honored at the annual Founder's Day dinner of the West Texas State chapter of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity on Saturday, April 4, in Canyon.

He is a 1961 graduate of Floydada High School.

Mankins, a 1962 initiate, was recognized for 25 years of service and membership to the fraternity, according to Mark Young, alumni association president.

The affair commemorating the founding of the fraternity began at 4:30 p.m. with a reception at the home of WTSU President Dr. Ed Roach. An open house followed at the ATO Lodge east of Canyon at 5:30, with a dinner and awards ceremony at 6:30. Guest speaker was Bill Kasul of Alpha Tau Omega National Headquarters.

FHA-HERO hears nurse

By Kellie Van Cleve

Mrs. Gwen Reed, LVN of the Community Action staff, was guest speaker at the March 2 meeting of the FHA-HERO Club. President Josie Rosales conducted the meeting. Song leader Lisa Galvan led the group in saying the club creed. Secretary Rachel Boyd read the minutes of the last meeting. Marcus Riojos gave the financial report. Chapter advisor, Mrs. Joyce Williams, read the club's entry report in the community achievement contest. Mr. Jim Word sent a letter thanking the club for preparing bread sticks and salad for the Heart Fund bridge luncheon.

Mrs. Reed spoke to the club about individual responsibility in health. She showed a film on the VCR about a doctor talking to a group of teenagers. She also left booklets on teen-age health and problems, and one on women's protective services. Some of the girls said there was a need for this information so our teachers called the hot line number. The lady from the Lubbock women's shelter house, Miss Angela McGranaham, came over and told us about traits in abusive boy friends that predict abusive husbands. She said a jealous, possessive, critical boyfriend is the first step. Then comes the push or shove, often date rape, and then beatings. She said the girls often grew up in a family where the father physically or verbally abused the mother. The girl may not know how to get out of a bad situation that gets worse and worse. She told the class to love themselves enough to reach out for help to get away from an abusive person. Miss McGranaham told the class to be a friend to anyone we know in an abusive relationship, married or dating. She told the group to encourage them to leave him and get help. She told about many cases her office has helped. They give shelter to men, women and children. 95% abuse case victims are women and children. Shelter houses are in Lubbock and Hobbs, New Mexico but anyone in Floydada can call the Lubbock hotline number 806-765-8393 and they will get help. The meeting was then adjourned.

Texas worth bragging about?

America and Europe. The animal was really a monosaur in that it had the ability to swim. The monosaur was known to inhabit shallow seas and obviously swam here when this area was covered by water.

Texas merger — American Petrol Co. of Midland formed a merger with another company and summoned all the employees to a meeting. To be fair to all, slips A and B were passed out to each employer. A was a job offer and B was a form letter of dismissal.

Farm subsidies were plowed into Texas farms this year by the millions, but the biggest payment did not go to a Texas farmer. It was to the Crown Prince of Liechtenstein and International Paper Co., headquartered in New York, known as Farms of Texas.

Jim Hightower said, "Making large payments to institutional farms undermines the government's entire farm program." In 1985 the farms of Texas did not participate in the farm program but in 1986 they were forced into the federal subsidy program. The government started selling rice at half price. Dan Mathews, who manages the 90,000 acres said, "Either you join the program or go broke!" The prince, 41-year-old heir to the throne, owns half of the company which has 22,000 acres in Brazoria near Alvin, 17,000 acres east of Dallas in Hopkins County and 9,500 acres near Texarkana. The prince's own country is in Alpine Valley between Switzerland and Austria and covers 61 square miles. The newly passed legislation capping total subsidies to farmers at $250,000 goes into effect. "When people see payments the prince, King Ranch and J.T. Boswell empire of California, they question why have a farm program at all," said Hightower.

Three-for-one in Texas — After Eddie Cook of Fort Worth died from injuries suffered when hit by a car, three women showed up at the funeral home, claimed to be his wife and to make matters worse, insisted on riding in the funeral limousine.

Apparel Mart — Dallas Apparel Mart has eight buildings displaying wholesale merchandise. Recently, home furnishings, gifts, floor covering and toys were added. It is the second largest apparel market having 2,000 showrooms filled to capacity at each showing and holding five shows a year lasting a week at a time. The designer designs a garment, one dress is made. If not enough merchants want the model it is never manufactured. Designers like Oscar de la Renta bring ideas to Texas. Many Texas companies have made it big in western wear like Liz Claiborne and Ralph Lauren, who have taught the rest of the nation how make and wear western wear. It is beautiful denim and chambray which are new. New York really can show us nothing. "If it ain't Texas, we don't know what it is," one Texan said. The Justin Boot Company made 65 million last year and bought the Nocona Boot Company. Tony Lama made $79 million last year. The Resistol Company in Garland, a hat manufacturer, made $35 million last year. It makes the Tom Landry hats.

Texas makes its mark — The aliens have become a pain in the neck for businesses. They must have documented birth certificates, Social Security cards, driver's licenses and immigration papers establishing that they are citizens or authorized to work. If they do not have these, they face a fine or jail. Ninety-five percent of those who hire now take time to check and keep records and be sure the documents are not fake.

Texas has a cat pampering store in Dallas — They manufacture a non-alcoholic beverage called After Dinner Catnip Liqueur, specially prepared for cats. People can drink it but they get sleepy. It is costly. A 16 ounce decanter sells for $11.95. They have Feline Fashions. "Don't put your puss in boots" but outfit him in a motorcycle suit, velvet lined fur cape or turtleneck sweater. They have cat fashions for all four seasons. You can buy a bow tie for $9.95, a skunk or rabbit cape for $45, a bike jacket for $45. Comfort for your cat is stressed. They sell cat jewelry for the fat cat, rhinestone collars, silver for the Siamese cat and gold for the Calico. Gold beads for the cat are the best seller at $8-$15. We have Chanelle #5 perfume for ladies. Not to be outdone, they have made "Rappelle" for the cat. It is cedar based and repellent to fleas and if used on your cat she smells like a cedar chest. A high chair has been designed which boosts your cat to table level and sells for $85. A fashion show for cats called "Cat House Fashions" is held at the Dallas Convention Center each year with live cat models.

Texas banks — In 1986 we had 26 bank failures in Texas. This was not proud of. The year 1986 was a bad year. The year 1987 has been predicted to be very, very bad for the banks. 1986 had more failures in Texas than any state since 1933 when the FDIC came into existence. But mid-March of 1987 we have had 16 so far.

Big rock — Ray Whitstone of Longview had just gone through a very bad time financially. He decided to go on a trip. He went to Tucson, Ariz. While he was there he attended a gem and mineral show. He paid $10 for a rock resembling a potato. The rock turned out to be the biggest star sapphire ever discovered and worth $2.25 million.

Texas haven for sea turtles — We have a haven for them on Padre Island. Ila Leotscher, who is 80 plus years old, is called the "Turtle Lady." Twenty years ago she and a friend brought 2,000 turtle eggs of the Kemp sea turtle from Mexico to her home on Padre Island. They have a soft hide and people were eating them in Mexico and the turtle was in danger of extinction. Over 1,000 of these eggs hatched. Turtles were all over, even in the bathtub. Not all went out to sea. Two got stepped on and one just wouldn't go. She named these three "Wynken, Blynken and Nod" after the nursery rhyme. This lady has "Sea Turtles, Inc." and gives lectures daily. She supports research and preservation efforts for the world's seven species, all of which are endangered.

Doctor suffers from scrub fever suit — Houston's famed heart surgeon, Dr. Michael DeBakey, is a workaholic. He does not have time to change and ditch the scrub suit after he finishes operating. He forgets about clothes and shows up at parties, meetings or dinners in his royal blue custom made scrub suit with his initials embroidered on them. One man said he envisioned himself passing out and coming to find himself staring up at DeBakey's blue scrub suit.

Houses go flying by in Texas — Phillips Oil Company employees in Phillips were told that they must move. This settlement was established 50 years ago. They appealed to Houston's superlawyer, Richard (Racehorse) Haynes for help. He gave them a Texas-size promise to help them for free. He got busy with his slave ranch trial in South Texas and forgot all about Berger. The superintendent of schools in Phillips said, "By the year's end, we won't even be a ghost town but just a bunch of house foundations. I sit here all day in my office and watch the houses go by."

Proud Texans — Paul Pitts in his "Trek Around Texas," said he did not find a single Texan who was not proud to be a Texan or who wanted to be anywhere but in Texas. The "proud" tag fits Texans. What is it that makes Texans proud? It's Texas!

OUTSTANDING AGENT'S AWARD—The Insurance Company of the Prairie States announced that Dale Goen of Floydada has been presented with the company's "Outstanding Agents Award." Goen, shown accepting the award from Steve B. Stroud (right), was the fourth largest writer of crop insurance for the company. The Insurance Company of the Prairie States, which has approximately 1,000 agents in a 14-state area, insures crops against hail, drought, freeze and other natural disasters and is the fifth largest multi-peril writer in the United States.

Sunday night hit-and-run damages pair of pickups

Early this week, the police department was investigating a Sunday night hit-and-run incident which resulted in damage to two pickups. Both were parked in the 300 block of West Marivena and both sustained door damage.

The incident occurred "after dark" Sunday.

The intersection of Second and Missouri was the site of two minor accidents on consecutive days last week. Neither resulted in injuries.

About 11:30 p.m. on April 1, a 1984 Buick driven by Mary Hale and a 1979 Ford driven by Jose Alaniz were in

FFA horse judging team captures fourth place in Saturday contest

Paced by Shane Orman, the Floydada High FFA Chapter horse judging team placed fourth among approximately 30 groups entered in a Saturday contest at West Texas State University in Canyon.

Orman was the third high individual, according to vo-ag and FFA instructor Allan Akers. His teammates were Mark Thompson, Chad Quisenberry and David Christian.

The local livestock team claimed ninth place among "25 to 30 teams" in the WTSU contests on April 4.

Forming this team were Kelli LaBaume, Sharon Smith and Grant Stovall.

Akers says Floydada FFA Chapter teams will be competing this Saturday in district contests on the Texas Tech University campus in Lubbock.

Allen Rendon retires from Green Thumb

Allen Rendon, a foreman of Green Thumb for 17 years has recently retired from the organization.

Mr. Rendon, who is 87, has lived in Floydada for 43 years. He helped build the museum on the inside, the overhang on the outside, and has worked on several homes in town as well as the First Baptist Church.

"I have to resign now for health reasons," said Mr. Rendon. "I just want people to know I won't be taking on any more jobs. I don't know who will be taking over for me."

Sunday morning Lockney raid nets alcoholic beverage cache

A 55-year-old Lockney man was charged with possession of alcoholic beverages for sale in a dry area following an early Sunday morning raid in northeast Lockney by five peace officers. The search netted an estimated $350 (retail cost) in alcoholic beverages.

Confiscated were 17 cases of 16 ounces "tall boys" cans of Budweiser beer, seven one-half pints of whiskey, five fifths of whiskey, one fifth of tequila and one pint of vodka. A large quantity of sacks also were found.

The raid occurred about 1:30 a.m. Sunday. Participating were the Lockney Police Department, Floyd County Sheriff's Department and Department of Public Safety.

One source stated a significant amount of money was found in the house.

Teodoro Gonzalez Oviedo, 55, appeared Monday in county court before Judge William Hardin on the charge. He waived arraignment, and bond was set at $500.

"Here's a NEW TAX LAW tip"

The new tax law does not affect most 1986 tax returns. If you have any questions on 1986 changes, check your tax package, or order Publication 553, "Highlights of the 1986 Tax Law Changes." Call 1-800-424-FORM (3676) or the IRS Forms number in your phone book to get a copy.

Karate students take exams

Sharkey's American Kenpo Karate Studios held rank examinations Saturday, April 4th in Levelland.

Master Parker Leniken of San Diego, California representing the World Kenpo Karate Association was the official in charge. Guest black belts were John Horne, Tom Downs and Leslie Downs.

Students were tested on proficiency in self defense techniques, kicking, punching, blocking and art form.

Students from Floydada and Lockney collision at the intersection. Both vehicles were traveling south on Second Street, and Ms. Hale was attempting a left turn.

Each vehicle was able to be driven away.

At noon the following day a 1980 Ford Pinto drive by Maclovia Garza was traveling north on Second Street when it was in collision with a 1977 Mercury Cougar, being driven west on Missouri by Francis Aston. The Pinto struck the Mercury on the left back quarter. The Mercury was driven off, but the Pinto had to be towed.

receiving promotions were: Floydada: Joe Hernandez, Green III; Shane Derryberry, Green III; Monty Anderson, Green III; Chad Harmon, Green I; Darrell Gooch, Orange II; Laron Cheek, Yellow I. Lockney: Matt Workman, Green III; Tyson McDonald, Green I; Corbin Kellison, Green I. Students from Silvertown, Plainview and Levelland were also in the examinations.
