Eckert elected VP of state firemen's group

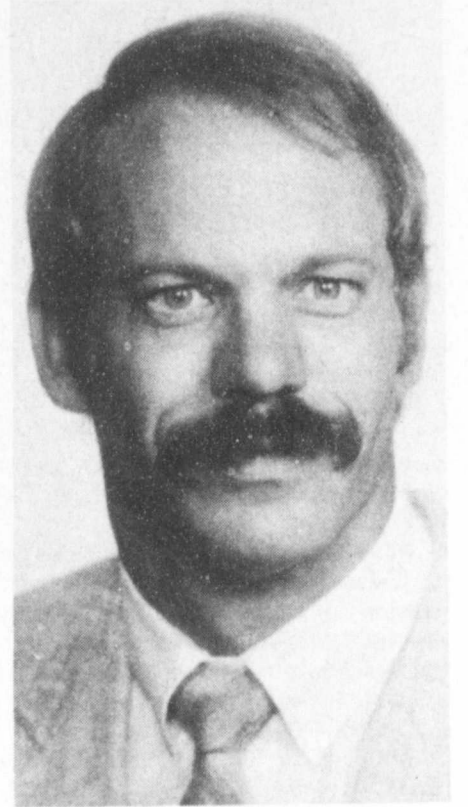

HER FAVORITE FELLOW—Adoration is visible in the eyes of 23-month-old Chelsea Kirk as she gives her dad, Layne, a big hug. Of course, her dad's expression reflects that the admiration is mutual. Special dads will be the focus of attention this Sunday, Father's Day. —Staff photo

After campaigning "almost a year to the day," a Floydada man was elected and sworn in Wednesday as fourth vice president of the State Firemen's and Fire Marshal's Association (SFFMA). The election and installation concluded the organization's 111th convention, held at the Amarillo Civic Center. Dinks Eckert is positioned to ascend the SFFMA chain of command and become the fifth Panhandle man to serve as president of the state firemen's association. His one-year term as president will begin in June 1991. Eckert was unopposed in his bid for fourth vice president. The 37-year-old Floydada man will conduct the memorial service during the '88 state convention in Beaumont. He is a member of the nine-member SFFMA board, which consists of the president, four vice presidents, past president, secretary, assistant secretary and chaplain. The new fourth vice president attended his first board meeting Wednesday afternoon.

was in the convention spotlight. In addition to Eckert's selection as a state officer, the department's 1940 Ford pumper was the official truck Saturday for pumper races.

The state conflagration opened Saturday and continued through Wednesday. The 20-member local department had five voting delegates, as well as several other members, their spouses and families in Amarillo. Approximately 2,000 members and

Floyd 4-Hers skim cream of State Roundup awards

Three first places, two scholarships among bounty

Floyd County's 4-Hers could have literally flown home from College Station...without benefit of a plane.

The talent of county youngsters shined through at the annual Texas 4-H Roundup as they racked up three first place awards, a second, a fifth and a twelfth.

"Most of our youngsters walked across the state to receive their awards," points out Mary True, county Extension agent-HE. Ms. True explains that the top three teams in each event were recognized on stage.

All six county teams placed.

The Floyd livestock judging team consisting of Chad Edwards, Shannon Barbee, Matt Williams and Darin Martinez bested 27 other teams for first place laurels. "It was real close between the first, second and third place teams," Ms. True explains.

The state victory qualified the local livestock judging team for the national finals, scheduled in November in Louisville, Ky.

HEALTH DEMONSTRATION

Kelli LaBaume and Becky Reeves teamed for the state's Elite Focus on Health demonstration. Entitled "Fry Now, Pay Later," it focuses on skin cancers.

Twenty-six teams competed in this demonstration. "The Space Zone," a demonstration on home environment educational activities by Sharon Smith, was also a state winner. It focused on "more kitchen room."

Angie Bertrand and Tiffany Gentry teamed on their "Home Grown Paradise" demonstration to capture second place in the Landscape Production Horticulture category. The demonstration dealt with "how to plant pineapple and grow them at home."

Both Miss Gentry and Miss Bertrand received a $30 check plus an engraved Cross pen-pencil set.

Ten teams vied for honors in this event. Hunter Smith and Zach Nutt presented a demonstration — "Cleaning the Catch — No Scales About It" — which earned them fifth place honors. One of 23 teams giving demonstrations in the Natural Resources category, Nutt and Smith demonstrated correct methods of fileting and cleaning fish.

Among "tremendous competition," the Floyd County rifle team placed twelfth. The team, which "scored higher than last year," was comprised of Matt Mitchell, Wyman Rexrode, Kim Zimmerman and Joel Mitchell.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS

A pair of Floyd 4-Hers, Matt Mitchell and Lisa Terrell, both of Lockney were two of three Texas 4-Hers who were recipients of $4,000 non-agriculture scholarships. Only 11 non-ag scholarships were among the 88 scholarships bestowed, totaling "over $600,000."

Mitchell received a C.J. Davidson Scholarship. The recent Lockney High School graduate plans to enroll in the Texas A&M University College of Engineering and major in computers.

Miss Terrell earned a $4,000 scholarship from Pioneer Hybrid Seed. She plans to study child development through the Texas Tech University College of Home Economics.

Sixteen Floyd County 4-Hers attended the Texas 4-H Roundup: Chad Edwards, Joel Mitchell, Matt Williams, Hunter Smith, Zach Nutt, Wyman Rexrode, Matt Mitchell, Kim Zimmerman, Angie Bertrand, Tiffany Gentry, Lisa Terrell, Sharon Smith, Becky Reeves, Kelli LaBaume, Darin Martinez and Shannon Barbee.

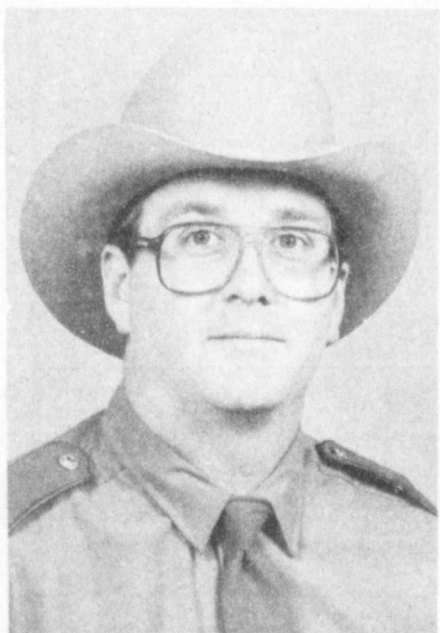

Accompanied by eight adults in addition to agents True and Crow, a portion of the 4-Hers left Sunday in order to participate in events the following day and the balance of the group departed Monday. They all returned Thursday night.

"Over 1,500" 4-Hers attended the Roundup.

DEMONSTRATIONS AVAILABLE

Ms. True points out that county 4-Hers will be glad to present demonstrations to clubs or organizations this summer.

Trooper Marty Lucke joins area DPS Drivers License Department

TROOPER MARTY LUCKE

Trooper Marty Lucke, 23, has recently been graduated from the Department of Public Safety (DPS) Training Academy and has been assigned to the Driver License Service in Floydada. His territory encompasses six counties: Briscoe, Crosby, Dickens, Floyd, Hale and Motley.

Last Friday was the trooper's first day in Floydada although he had earlier been on duty in other towns.

A native of Anson, Trooper Lucke is due in the Floyd County office — located in the courthouse in Floydada — each Friday and the first, third and fifth Tuesday of each month. He is available to assist the public from 8 a.m. until 12 noon and from 1-5 p.m. on these days.

Lucke, who has moved to Floydada, entered the DPS Academy on January 20 and was graduated on May 22.

The Anson native was graduated

Cable TV proposal accepted by city council

Ending a long-standing conflict, members of the Floydada City Council voted to accept the solution proposed by Floydada Cable TV in a dispute over franchise requirements at the regular June session of the council.

Joe McKinnis presented the plan to maintain the Floydada office of Cable TV from "8:00 a.m. until 10:00 a.m. with a serviceman who will live in Floydada." The office would remain open until noon with the secretary in attendance and reopen following a one hour lunch at 1:00 p.m., remaining open until 4:00 p.m. according to McKinnis.

Councilman Wayne Russell stated, "I think that if the office will be open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. that would suffice to meet our request if the serviceman lives in Floydada."

Councilman Don Green interjected, "The franchise requires a full time serviceman and a full time secretary. This is still not meeting the terms of the agreement."

Nancy Willson, the newest addition to the council, stated, "The last paragraphs of Cable TV's answer 'threatens' us with rate increases if they have to provide the service stated in the franchise agreement."

After extensive discussion of the franchise agreement and the proposed staffing offered as an alternative by Cable TV, a motion by Russell, seconded by Green, was approved unanimously accepting the cable company's proposal until such time as "they institute a rate increase." At that time, the council reserves the right to review the franchise agreement.

'Labor Camp' occupation underway

Housing complexes commonly referred to as the "Labor Camp" in Floydada were a beehive of activity early this week after 30 of the dwellings were opened Monday. It is being operated — at least for the present — by Floydada Housing Authority.

"We will be open 100 percent as soon as possible," according to Chuck Holmes, chairman of the housing authority. The facility consists of 78 units.

Candidates for rodeo queen being signed

Contestants for queen of the annual Floydada Rodeo are being registered by Kay Hicks at The Loft Western Wear.

All girls between the ages of 13 and 19, who are single and Floyd County residents, are encouraged to become candidates.

Rodeo queen entry deadline is July 1. Contestants will sell $1 chances on one-half beef. The contestant selling the greatest number of tickets is to be designated as the queen.

The annual Floydada Rodeo will be July 31 and August 1.

It was closed in "late January or early February."

Floydada Housing Authority attempted to deed the property back to Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), the federal agency which loaned funds for erection of the housing units, but it was not accepted.

Guadalupe Economic Service Inc., then stepped forward to assume management. However, "due to unforeseen circumstances," and paperwork involved, this authority has been unable to assume the title.

Since Guadalupe Economic Service, Inc., was unable to secure title, it could not open the housing complex as planned on June 1.

The title transfer, initially scheduled for May 15, is expected "as soon as possible."

"We received probably 100 applicants last week," Holmes told this newspaper. Families began arriving at that time to accept agricultural employment.

Holmes emphasizes that dwellings were opened as quickly as possible to accommodate these individuals.

Construction of "half" of the "Labor Camp" was completed and occupation began in 1975. Balance of the complexes were completed later.

LINE GROWING—The number of applicants for dwellings at the Floydada Farm Labor Housing mounted Monday morning as 30 of the units were opened. "Over 100" applications for housing were received last week.

guests, including some 500 delegates, registered for the convention. Featured speakers were Dan Baker and Carl Holmes.

Baker, a former Methodist minister, travels extensively throughout the country as a professional speaker at conventions, seminars, rallies and "gatherings of all kinds." The business consultant, teacher and writer makes his home in Bulverde. A former assistant Oklahoma City fire chief, Holmes operates a consulting firm in Oklahoma City and is an accomplished management expert, speaker and author.

LENGTHY CAMPAIGN

Eckert launched his campaign for fourth vice president as a candidate "from the floor" during the '86 convention in Austin. His late decision last year did not allow time for organization," although he received one-third of the vote.

He campaigned during training school at Texas A&M last July and accelerated his activities in the fall. "We were gone seven straight weekends" in September, October and early November, attending district meetings. On several occasions, he attended two meets during the same week-end.

The hectic schedule — leaving after work on Friday and returning home late Sunday night — was tiring. "It's a hard way to see the state," the fire official admits.

Quickly, he adds, "I wouldn't take for it. I've met more people and made more friends." In a pre-convention interview, he emphasized that "It's (campaign) been worth it, win or lose."

INSTRUCTOR

Although the Floydada fireman met a multitude of Texans during his 12-month campaign, he was already well-known throughout the state's fire-fighting circles.

Active in the SFFMA for seven years — "that's when I started attending state conventions" — this year will mark his tenth consecutive annual Firemen's Municipal Training School on the Texas A&M University campus in College Station. This will be his sixth year as an instructor for the event, held "the last full week of July."

He has served as instructor for the Lubbock Area School (April), Abilene Area School (August), Canyon Area School (September) and Andrews Oil-field Control Seminar (September). An annual participant in the Clute Area Seminar in October, he also is assistant field coordinator for the Floydada Agriculture Rescue School in August.

Although instructors receive no pay, "It's kind of an honor to be asked."

For four years, the local fireman served on the Texas Society of Fire Service Instructors' board. Designed to "help promote better training in fire services," this organization is not affiliated with SFFMA.

Eckert has been the Zone 12 representative on the state Certification Board.

Panhandle Firemen's and Fire Marshal's Association, which encompasses 32 Panhandle-South Plains counties, is one of 16 state districts.

The Panhandle district's last state president was Bill Barrett, then of Spur, who headed the SFFMA during the 1978-79 fiscal year.

TRAINING SCHOOL

One of the State Firemen's and Fire Marshal's best-known endeavors is sponsorship of the Firemen's Municipal Training School at Texas A&M. Under auspices of the same training umbrella are "about 37" area schools across the Lone Star state.

SFFMA consists of "about 40,000 volunteer and paid" firefighters who are members of the 1,100 SFFMA-member departments. "Approximately 90 percent" of these men are volunteers.

One of Eckert's concerns is that "individual memberships are down" to about 3,500. "The big thing right now is to get everybody to pay their individual memberships. That problem has been every president's goal for the last six or seven years."

He explains that SFFMA has intensified its "lobbying efforts to promote bills for fire service. That takes money."

Ag act provides for adjustments

It is unnecessary for producers to apply for the remaining 26.1 percent of their computed '86 disaster payment, according to Bob Lotspeich, ASCS county executive director. He points out that "Producers will automatically receive payments for this as it is figured from previous data that you have given us."

Lotspeich points out that "The Farm Disaster Act also provides for a quality adjustment for upland cotton." Due to the time and number of producers involved he asks that Floyd County farmers follow the following guidelines in applying for these payments.

1. Producers who qualified under the '86 disaster program for cotton and received a disaster payment (CCC-6) and all of their cotton was placed in the Form A government loan need not go to the ASCS office. "We have all the information we need to compute your quality adjustment," the executive director points out.

2. Producers who qualified under the '86 disaster program for cotton and received a disaster payment (CCC-6) and sold any part of their cotton must bring in settlement sheets from the buyer, Telcot Form G, showing weights, grade, staple, mike, average loan, etc.

JUNE 26 DEADLINE

Lotspeich points out that "This production evidence must be submitted before June 26, 1987."

He advises producers to check with their gin "if you can't find your settlement sheets. Make sure that you have all this information before coming in and that it matches the production that is on your ASCS-503 (cotton production card from the gin). For below grade cotton show price received."

QUALITY ADJUSTMENT

3. Producers who did not qualify under the '86 disaster program for cotton because they made more than 50 percent of their payment yield may be eligible for quality adjustment under "certain conditions."

The ASCS officials says "This will depend on how much you made over the 50 percent and the grade, staple and mike."

These producers must complete and sign the following forms:

*CCC-440 Certification on 1986 crop insurance and bring in all information on any cotton insurance received.

*CCC-441 Application for 1986 disaster credit

ASCS-574 Application for disaster credit

*ASCS-503 Cotton production card signed by gin. This may already be on file.

*Settlement sheets from buyer, Telin addition to Eckert, leaders of the State Firemen's and Fire Marshal's Association — which is headquartered in Austin and has a five-person staff — are:

* President — Dr. Ernest O. Reesing Jr., chief, Alpine Fire Department (doctor of veterinary medicine at Sul Ross University)

* First vice president — Gerald Matheaus, chief, Rosenberg Fire Department (in sixth year as first paid chief at Rosenberg after previously being volunteer fireman)

* Second vice president — W.F. (Windy) Acosta, Del Rio (volunteer fireman, past chairman and original member of Certification Board when established 12 years ago)

*Third vice president — Billy Ray Mize, Burkburnett Fire Department (volunteer fireman)

* Past president — Tommy Bledsoe, fire chief, Lone Star Steel (chief of industrial fire department at steel mill), Lone Star (near Gilmer).

Officers normally are "fairly evenly divided" between paid and volunteer firemen.

FIREMAN 11 YEARS

A veteran of 11 years service on Floydada Volunteer Fire Department, Eckert joined the department in May 1976, five months after moving to Floydada from Slaton. He is a customer service technician with Southwestern Bell Telephone, the firm he joined in April 1974, and worked here about a year on "temporary loan" status before being transferred to Floydada.

The new state fire officer was born in Lubbock and was a lifelong Slaton resident before coming here. He was graduated from Slaton High School in 1967, attended South Plains College three years, West Texas State University one year and Texas Tech University one semester.

He and his wife, Beth, are parents of one son, Robert, who celebrated his 11th birthday the day his dad was elected fourth vice president of SFFMA. Eckert served as captain of Floydada Volunteer Fire Department for two years before being assistant training officer one year and training officer the past six years.

How does he feel about his new responsibilities?

"Until two or three weeks ago it wasn't bothering me," Eckert says. "I think the butterflies are working now; maybe it's the reality setting in."

James Williams tabbed district officer of FTD

James Williams, co-owner of Williams Florist, was elected Saturday as vice chairman of District 9-B of Florists Transworld Delivery Association. The June 13 district convention was held in Plainview.

The Floydada man is to serve a two-year term and automatically ascend to chairman.

District 9-B involves FTD-member florists in a 50-county radius.

The organization provides industry updates and innovations, such as design shows, for its members and is involved in civic endeavors. District 9-B FTD provided, at no expense to families, casket pieces for funerals of Saragosa tornado victims.

Cable TV proposal accepted by city the council regarding warning in the event of severe weather.

Stated Mrs. Fuller, "We can not hear the tornado sirens when you test them and we have no other way to know if there is cause for concern at Della Plains."

City manager Bill Feuerbacher told the council that the closest tornado siren to Della Plains is "here at City Hall." He also explained that the warning is disseminated via cable TV on all channels and the groups housed at Della Plains could "use the TV to warn them in case of bad weather."

Gean Christopher, director of Caprock Co-op Special Education, also housed at Della Plains, stated that "we do not have a television at Della Plains and if we did, it would have to be turned on and audible in the event that a warning is issued since it is a verbal warning. This would disrupt the classes at special ed and the day care center and is not practical or acceptable."

Mayor Parnell Powell assured the group that "Emergency Coordinator Bobby Welborn will be instructed to work with you in setting up a plan to notify you of severe weather and safe guard the lives of yourselves and the children under your care."

The ladies also asked that the city begin spraying for mosquitos as soon as possible. Feuerbacher told the assemblage that "spraying began tonight." He and Councilman Green reported that in addition to ground spraying from a city truck, aerial spraying would also be conducted in areas where possible.

Percy Edwards, manager of the local Energas office, met with the council to present a franchise renewal request. The proposed franchise would become effective at the end of the current agreement on July 13, 1987. The agreement remains the same with the exception of length. The new franchise is requested on a 25 year basis.

Acting on the advice of consulting engineer Bill McMorries, the council voted to table a decision on the matter until they had sufficient time to study the franchise. A decision is expected at the July 14 session of the council.

A motion by Green, seconded by Frank Breed, was unanimously adopted during the Thursday meeting, repealing exemptions on sales tax for receipts from telecommunication services handling long distance calls. The approval of the measure means that any company handling long distance calls within the state of Texas will have to begin collecting the sales tax from customers in October. These collections will add "about $7,000 per year to city coffers," according to city secretary Jimmie Lou Stewart.

Mayor Powell reported to council members the hiring of attorney George Miller to represent the city at a Texas Water Commission hearing in Lubbock on June 16. City attorney Steven Hale will be out of town attending a school at the time of the hearing, which is in regard to a city application for standard change in the sewer lake permit now in effect. Also attending the hearing from the city will be Bobby Welborn and Bill Feuerbacher.

Demolition of a structure at 403 E. Jackson will be postponed until the project can be advertised for bids a second time. No bids were received from the first advertising for opening at the June session.

City officials approved the purchase of two 50 seat metal bleachers for installation at Annie Taylor Park. The bleachers will be set up adjacent to the baseball fields at the park. Approximate cost of the bleachers will be $2,000.

Construction of cabinets for a kitchen area at City Hall has been approved by the council. Bert Emert will undertake the project for a cost amounting to "around $1700."

Also approved by the council was the renewal of Blue Cross/Blue Shield coverage for city employees. The group medical insurance coverage has increased by $14.46 per employee this year and will cost $64.72 per employee per month.

The first payment to Currington Plumbing and Ditching was approved after inspection by engineer Bill McMorries of the work completed. The payment amounts to $21,855.75.

MARKERS APPROVED

A request from the Floyd County Historical Commission that the city pay for two markers to be installed by the Texas Highway Department noting "Historical Markers in City" was approved. The Chamber of Commerce has agreed to purchase another pair of markers, making each highway into Floydada marked with this information. The cost to the city will be $160.

A motion by Willson, seconded by Ginger Warren, approved the employment of Stephens and Stephens to codify city ordinances at a cost of approximately $6,000. This project would see the development of a standardized volume of current and applicable city ordinances regarding all areas under the jurisdiction of the city.

Ordinance #697 was passed unanimously authorizing the recreation of the West Texas Power Agency following the withdrawal of two member cities. In connection with this action, the council appointed Wayne Russell and Bill Feuerbacher as directors to serve on the board of the agency. The resignation of city manager Bill Feuerbacher was "accepted with regret" by the council. Feuerbacher will be retiring effective August 31, 1987. Meeting with the council Chuck

Holmes of the Floydada Housing Authority reported on efforts to reopen the labor housing in the near future. "There are already many families here looking for farm work who have no place to stay," said Holmes. "We had 30 inquiries yesterday and 40 today."

The housing facility will be operated under the management of Gino Valentino of the Guadalupe Foundation in Lubbock when it reopens. Holmes stated that the housing authority "hoped to have the facility open by Monday."

COMMUNICATION DIFFICULTIES
Floydada Police Chief James Hale appeared before the council to discuss difficulties in communication between city police department and the county sheriff's department. He was instructed to make "every effort to communicate with and cooperate with" the sheriff's department.

A motion by Russell, seconded by Warren, gave the Floydada Police Department a "vote of confidence" for a job well done. The council told Hale that he and his officers would be granted the full backing of the council as long as they continued to carry out their duties in a responsible manner according to their assigned authority.

Auditions announced for roles in 'God's Country'

Try-outs for approximately 25 roles for the 1987 production of "God's Country" will held at 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 26, at the Crosby County Pioneer Memorial museum auditorium, according to Jacque James, assistant director and casting coordinator.

"God's Country" is the original musical prairie drama created and produced by the Rio Blanco Heritage foundation, a volunteer non-profit organization, presented in the Blanco Canyon amphitheater, 10 1/2 miles north of Crosbyton.

Parts needing to be filled are those for J.W. Murray, the narrator; the Postal Inspector and Emma in the "Aunt Hank" scene; two cowboys in "Gettin' Ready"; Paris Cox, who appears in both the Quaker and courthouse scenes.

Nineteen new parts in two new episodes include five cowboys, two male outlaws, two male lawyers and approximately 10 male and female members of Quanah Parker's Comanche tribe.

"These try-outs won't be as formal as real auditions," declared Mrs. James. "We just want to find out who is interested in being a part of the show this year, and we will help find the right spot for everyone."

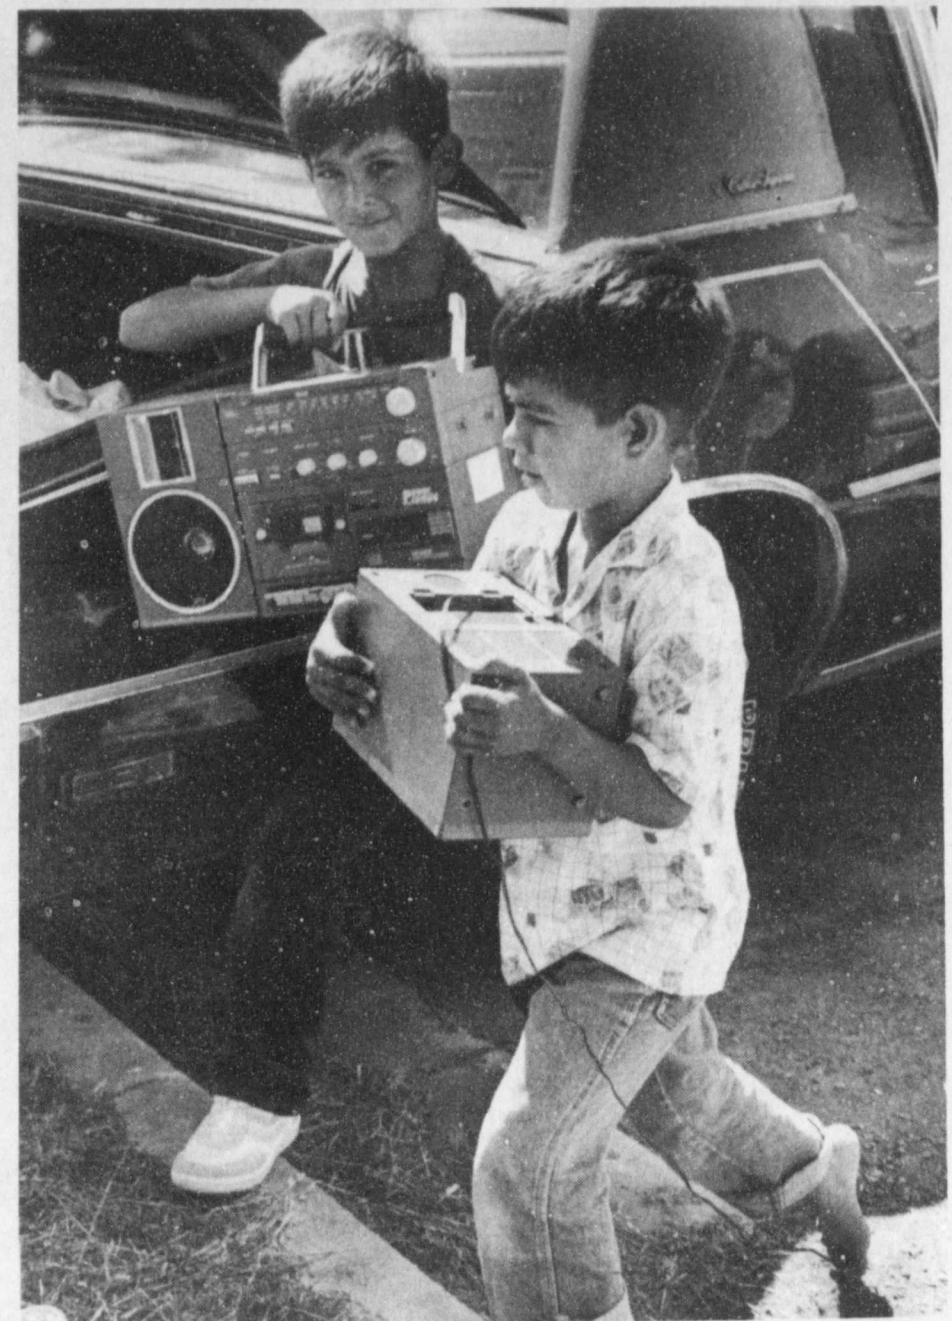

She added that she had been very successful in recruiting 1986 cast members to return to their former parts.

Rehearsals will begin the evening of July 20 at the museum auditorium. Cast members will be committed for six weeks going through the last performance Aug. 29.

The entire project has been accomplished by volunteers over the past three years. The first performances were given August 1986.

Dates for 1987 are August 20, 21, 22, 27, 28, and 29.

Tickets are $6 each. Barbecue plates for $7 each are available before the show. For reservations call 675-2331.

'Microwave Magic' featured at meeting

"Microwave Magic" was the demonstration given by the Extension agent, Mary True, in the home of Lucille Miller, June 18. The group met at 11:30 a.m. and Mary prepared the meal for the ladies. She prepared Texas gumbo, meaty macaroni, broccoli dip and cherry cheese cake. The hostess added salads and soft drinks with French bread for a delicious luncheon. She explained the process of microwave cooking and the different types of microwaves.

A business meeting was conducted after the luncheon. Roll call was answered by "My favorite quickie food in hot weather." The secretary read minutes of the last meeting and also the field trip to Abernathy and Lubbock.

Bess Carr gave the council report.

She stated Ruth Scott and Lillian Smith will go as delegates to the state meeting in Fort Worth. Mary announced the plaque that Floyd County received for having the largest percentage of members present at the District meeting at Post would be hung in the office and members were invited to come by and see it in her office.

Members voted to postpone the county-wide picnic until July 14 pending approval of the other club. Each member would take a picnic lunch and leave the agriculture building at 10:30 a.m. and go to Lake Theo.

Mary announced the 4-H teams that went to College Station did so well with their demonstrations winning several first places and won two non-ag scholarships.

Ruth Scott conducted an exercise game and Maye Williams read a "Food Fantasy Quiz."

Hostess served refreshments following a visitation period.

Members attending were: Vivian Curtis, Anna Maude Hopper, Ruth Scott, Imelda Murry, Arvie Schulz, Juanita Pool, Maye Williams, Bess Carr, Blanche Williams, Mary True and hostess Lucille Miller.

Receiving and registering gifts were Christy Prock of Lubbock and Tana Turner of Floydada.

A set of cookware, a canister set with matching salt and pepper shakers, spoon rest, holder with assorted tools and a set of bowls were presented as gifts from the hostesses.

Hostesses included Verna Lynn Stewart, Elaine Galloway, Geraldine Gentry, Kathy Mulder, Molly Stringer, Barbara Edwards, Pat Franklin, Nancy Mayo, Wanda Turner, Rena Turner, Loretta Leatherman, Doris Grammer, Carolyn Smith, and Shirley Morton.

NAMES OMITTED

The names of Connie Johnson and Ruby Lee Higginbotham were inadvertently left off the list for Darla Chappell's shower in last week's paper.

Floydada Nursing Home

By Sara Coursey

Hello, we had a good busy week at the nursing home. The week began with the morning coffee and juice time. Twelve residents attended. I gave the morning devotion. We talked about miracles. It was a good time for sharing. Tuesday's coffee was fun. There were fourteen residents this morning. They were Myra Hall, Addie Lindley, Mamie Bradshaw, Ruth Benson, Maude Galloway, Maude Powell, Pauline Faulkenberry, James Taylor, Iva Wells, Florence Curry, Vera Vickers, Mavis Willson, Gertrude Feuerbacher and Ruth Smitherman. Bro. Neeley Richardson and his wife came to lead the morning devotion. We appreciate the bananas they bring every week. The afternoon activity was Book Club. Dee Sanders read to the residents from Bill Cosby's book "Fatherhood." Thank you Dee for doing this, the residents enjoy books.

Wednesday we had the coffee break and the devotion for the morning activities. I led the devotion. The afternoon activity was bingo. I want to thank my niece Jamie McGuire for helping me pass out the snacks during bingo. The residents love children. Charlie Spence, Myra Hall, Faye McMahan, James Taylor, Opal Morrison, Thelma Hoffman, Oda Birchfield, Gertrude Feuerbacher and Iva Wells played today. It was lots of fun. We want to thank the funeral home and the family of Sheryl Bennett for the beautiful flowers. They are still pretty.

Thursday we read the Hesperian during our coffee time. We enjoy reading about what is going on in Floydada. Bro. Travis Curry of the Victory Baptist Church lead the morning devotion. The afternoon activity was two movies and popcorn. We had good movies. Thanks Sandra for choosing such good movies for us.

The morning coffee was fun and we had 16 residents. The morning devotion was given by the ladies of the First Baptist Church. Letha Mulder, Lillian Ross, Evelyn Latta and Virginia Cage

Local hospital sponsoring CHD health fair

Caprock Hospital District is sponsoring a CHD health fair June 25 and 26 from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Events include: Vital screen - blood pressure, weight, height, pulse (N/C); EKG ($5.00); Cholesterol and triglycerides ($8.00); American Heart Association pamphlets (N/C); Caprock Dietary Consultation (N/C). Everyone is invited to participate. A copy of your test results will be referred to your family physician for interpretation.)

Cholesterol is not all "bad." There is increasing evidence that correlates high density lipoprotein (HDL) cholesterol with low incidence of heart disease. A study of 2,450 people conducted in Farmingham, Massachusetts found that as the level of HDL cholesterol increased the incidence of Coronary Heart Disease (CHD) decreased.

Present evidence suggests that HDL works against CHD in two ways. It is postulated that the HDL functions as a transport mechanism for carrying LDL cholesterol from tissues and arterial walls to the liver. Secondly, it has been proposed that HDL competes with low affinity LDL for binding sites in the arterial wall cell. In both hypotheses, the higher the level of HDL, the lower the level of LDL within the arterial wall and therefore a reduction of the risk of CHD. Since HDL cholesterol levels are related to CHD it makes the measurement of HDL an excellent indicator of risk. The results of most tests used in the lab are reported to the physician in reference to normal ranges and with it an inference that the patient is healthy. But when reporting on the levels of HDL cholesterol the term "normal" can be misleading.

The average (normal) man in the United States has approximately 45 mg/dl of HDL in his serum and with it an one in four chance of developing CHD by the time he is 60 years old. The "average" man does not have a healthy level of HDL cholesterol. Risk factors provide more useful information to the physician and patient because they convey information about the probability of a disease. To obtain a risk factor for CHD, simply divide the total cholesterol by the HDL cholesterol.

The higher the number the higher the risk of CHD. Results with this kind of impact on the patient can encourage the patient to lower his risk through proper diet and exercise. Fortunately, a preventive approach can correct the conditions which cause coronary heart disease. Once this is known a patient can actually lower the risk of developing CHD. Factors that seem to increase HDL cholesterol, and lower the risk of CHD, include increased physical activity and a carefully planned diet to increase polyunsaturated fats and reduce saturated fat and salt. Another important step towards preventing CHD is an annual check-up by a physician. Using diagnostic tools such as testing the level of HDL cholesterol can help the patient to understand his role in preventing CHD.

Eastern Star installs new officers

By Flora McNeill

On June 6, at 8:00 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, a beautiful and impressive installation was held with Flora McNeill installed as Worthy Matron and Malcolm J. McNeill as Worthy Patron of Floydada Chapter #31, Order of the Eastern Star.

Using the chosen colors of the Worthy Matron, shades of pink and red flowers were used profusely throughout the meeting area. Large red candles were used on the outer edge officers stations with candle rings surrounding the single holders on each of the five star points. The focal point was the emblematic star in the east with a huge brass holder topped with a red lighted candle. On the secretary's desk was a gold five-prong candelabra, which was brought from Denmark by the McNeills. This was standing in an antique round mirror and was complimented with a mother-of-pearl bound Bible from Bethlehem. All stations were complimented by long stem red roses placed at the base of the candles.

Clara Fuqua of Lubbock acted as the master of ceremonies, announcing the lighting of the candles, Noma Lou Rainer; presentation of the Bible on the altar, E.M. Quebe of Plainview and presentation of the Square and Compasses, O.L. Damron of Hale Center.

After the retiring Worthy Matron, Joy Assiter, welcomed those present she introduced the installation of Grand Officer, Dr. R.O. Fuqua, Past Grand Patron, Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star. Dr. Fuqua, in turn, introduced those who were to assist him as: Grand Marshall, Anna Dell Quebe of Plainview; Grand Organist, Anna Pearl Armstrong of Paducah; Grand Secretary, Ruth Damron of Hale Center and Grand Chaplain, Dr. Tilden B. Armstrong of Paducah.

The officers installed for the ensuing year in Floydada #31, Order of the Eastern Star were as follows: Flora McNeill, Worthy Matron; Malcolm J. McNeill, Worthy Patron; Associate Matron, Noma Lou Rainer; Associate Patron, Keith Gross; Secretary, Bobby Rainer; Treasurer, Roberta Russell; Conductress, Sherry Colston; Associate Conductress, Mary Ann Kelly; Chaplain, Ruth Daniel; Marshall, Joy Assiter; Organist, Judy Allen; Adah, Polly Cardinal; Ruth, Fern Hartsell; Esther, Regi Gross; Martha, Ruth Trapp; Electa, Bess Carr; Warden, Noman

Hamilton and Sentinel, Wayne Russell.

Wendy Pierce was accompanist for Anna Pearl Armstrong who sang "Glory Be To God" and "The Lord's Prayer" followed by greetings by Mr. and Mrs. McNeill.

Mr. and Mrs. Assiter were presented past patron and past matron's jewels and in turn presented the traveling jewels to the new leaders and were escorted to the altar where they signed the Bible. Dr. Armstrong pronounced the benediction.

A reception hosted by the Past Matrons club was enjoyed by those present from Dimmitt, Plainview, Lockney, Hale Center, Petersburg, Paducah, Lubbock and Floydada.

Polly Cardinal presided at the guest book with Noma Lou Rainer, Sherry Colston and Mary Ann Kelly assisting by distributing programs.

Feuerbacher fiancee honored

A miscellaneous shower, honoring Brad Feuerbacher and his fiancee, Belinda Gonyea, was hosted in the home of Sally Galloway Saturday, May 23. Receiving guests were Brad, Belinda, Norma Feuerbacher, mother of the prospective groom, and Sally Galloway. Jo Wester presided at the guest register.

The serving table, covered with white linen cutwork embroidered cloth, was centered with a basket of silk flowers in the couples chosen colors of raspberry and shades of blue. Navy and raspberry colored napkins further enhanced the color scheme. Raspberry punch was served from a beautiful crystal bowl by Kara Copeland, of Lubbock. A variety of cookies and an assortment of nuts were also served.

Hostesses were Kara Copeland, Tiny Copeland, Sally Lyles, Linda Gayle Waller, Jackie Chadwick, Judy Beedy, Jo Wester, Carol Reese, Bell Vinson, Barbara Jackson, Jeanette Harrison, Audrey Spence, Betsy Dempsey, Janet Milam, Margaret Jones, June Patzer, Dale Tyer, Emmy Deardorf and Pat White from Plainview, and Sally Galloway.

Gifts from the hostesses were a set of stainless steel cookware, stainless tea kettle, and the flower arrangement on the serving table.

Dawdy places in competition

Teen suicide program to be on channel 2

First Baptist Church will be showing in their auditorium and broadcasting on channel 2 a program on teen suicide on Sunday, June 21 at 5:50 p.m. This program deals with the distressing problem of teenage suicide currently plaguing our society. Jimmy Hester, editor of Living with Teenagers magazine serves as host of this program and features Larry McGuire, Minister of Youth at First Baptist Church in Plano, Texas, a community severely struck with teen suicides; Dr. John Baucum, clinical psychologist and counselor, author of Fatal Choice; and Dr. Richard Ross who is a long time Youth Minister and current Youth Consultant with the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville, Tennessee and who deals with ministry to parents of youth in local churches.

First Baptist receives programs such as this over the Baptist Telecommunications Network from Nashville and uses the programs as part of their regular church programming and special studies. Each Sunday the local Baptist church broadcasts their services and other activities on Channel 2 at 10:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., 6:00 p.m., and 7:00 p.m. Howell Farnsworth, pastor at First Baptist, says, "We have a large number of people who faithfully watch our programming each week. We hope that many will see this special program both in person as well as over television because everyone needs to know more about this critical problem of teen suicide."

Three-county investigation leads to arrest of auto burglary suspect

An 18-year-old Plainview man, a suspect in the removal of a Roadmaster equalizer from Hunter Smith's 1985 Jeep on May 29, was arrested Monday at a Plainview labor camp by Plainview detectives. He was returned to Floydada by Police Chief James Hale, arraigned by Justice of the Peace Lowell Bilbrey, who set bond at $7,500, and incarcerated in Floyd County Jail.

Jesse Ramirez was charged with burglary of a motor vehicle. He reportedly was already on probation on an unrelated offense.

The alleged local theft occurred near Floydada High School on the final day of the 1986-87 school year.

A school aide reportedly observed two young men riding in an '81 Pontiac remove an object from Smith's Jeep. The FHS student and three companions confronted the pair near Floydada High, and Smith removed his property from the Pontiac.

The vehicle owner was arrested in Post on a DWI (driving while intoxicated) charge. He was questioned in Garza County Jail (Post) by Chief Hale, who was told by the man that he had loaned his '81 Pontiac to a Plainview man on that day.

This information proved correct, and the address of the man driving the vehicle on May 29 was secured.

The case was "a joint effort" of lawmen in Floyd, Garza and Hale counties.

MACHINES BURGLARIZED

A witness observed two Hispanic and two black males, "about 13 years old," as they burglarized two coin operated machines at a laundromat located at 121 South Wall. The four lads were seen running "east down California Street" following the incident about 8:30 a.m. Monday.

One of the machines was forced open. The other was opened with a key, which was left at the scene.

The loss was unknown Tuesday. Martin Garza owns the laundromat.

A policeman observed two vehicles run "stop" signs about 12:42 a.m. Monday on North Second Street. He stopped the pair and a woman driving one of the vehicles, Rosa Zavala Garcia, was "loud and abusive" to the officer.

After "repeated warnings," the woman continued her verbal attack and was booked into jail.

The man driving the other vehicle did not cause a problem.

STOLEN PICKUP

The search continued Tuesday for an 1984 Ford Super Cab pickup, which was stolen Sunday night from 308 W. Ollie. It belongs to Kevin Wayne Tipton.

Chief Hale says the pickup is a two-tone rust and brown color.

A Friday night assault, which occurred at My-T-Burger and involved "about six people," was still under investigation early this week. No arrests had been made Tuesday.

The altercation reportedly was "a continuation of a feud."

BICYCLE RECOVERED BEFORE REPORTED

In an unusual situation, a stolen bicycle was recovered before it was reported missing.

W.B. Eakin reported to lawmen that a bicycle was located near his business. It was carried to the police station, although no loss had been reported.

Chief Hale was in Pizza Gold when he overheard a mother mention her daughter's stolen bicycle. Hale asked her to describe the bike, which was then returned.

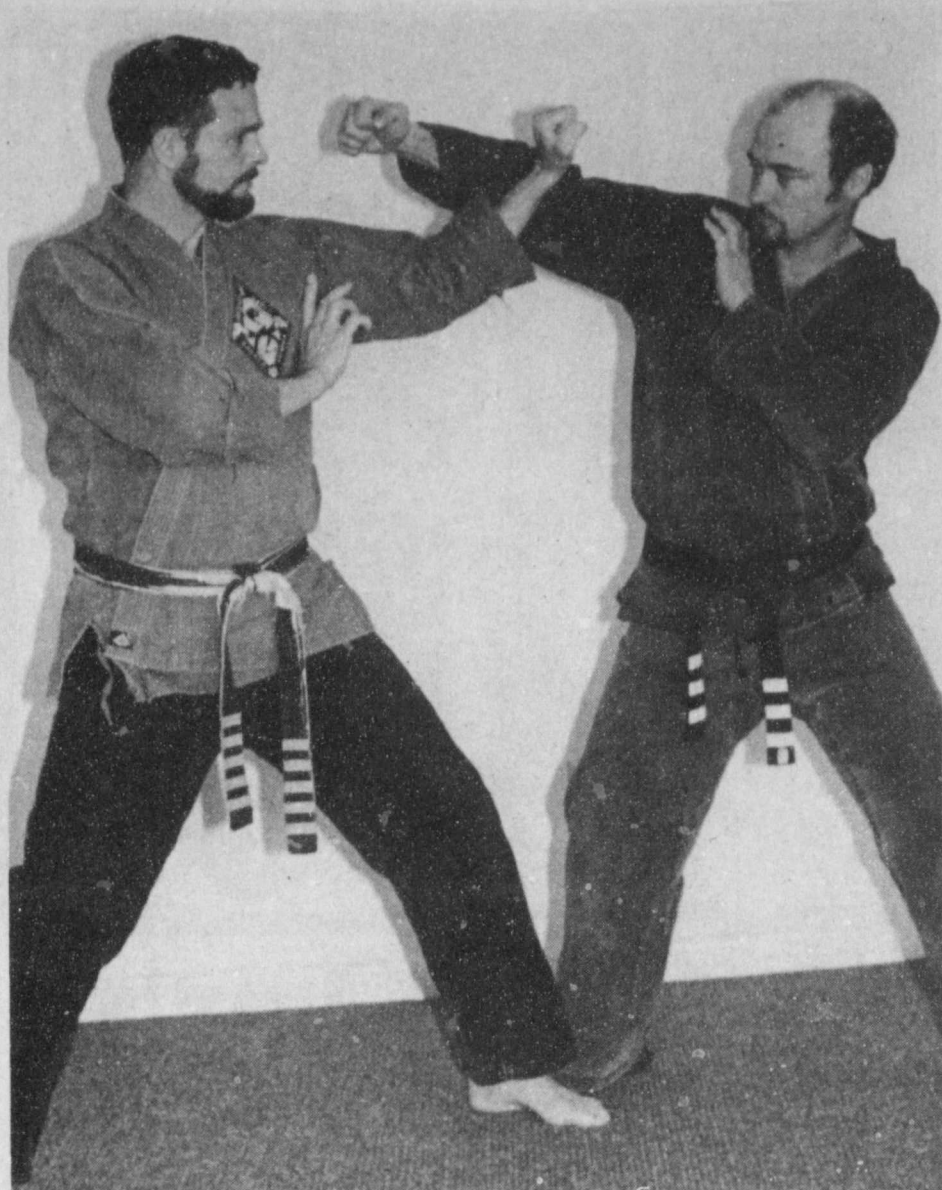

Traffic mishaps spoil vacations

Motorists should prepare themselves for summer driving, according to Major V.J. Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety. With summer approaching many people are preparing for their vacation and he warned drivers that accidents can and do spoil vacations.

"Texans and tourists from all over the world will be traveling throughout Texas to enjoy our parks, lakes, scenery, and the wonderful hospitality that Texas has to offer," he said. For the urban driver the expressway can become a bore, luring the weary into a false sense of security. "Drivers who normally drive on quiet country roads can panic in the confusion of the multi-lane mix of car and pedestrian city traffic," he cautioned.

He suggested for everyone to inspect your vehicle prior to leaving on the trip in order to eliminate the possibility of a minor breakdown miles from nowhere. Check out the tires, fan belts, hoses and cooling system, air conditioning, and electrical system.

Major Cawthon concluded, "Just one small accident can ruin a vacation for everyone. Make this summer and your vacation a pleasant experience to remember, not a bad one. To help insure this wear your safety belt, obey existing laws, and don't drink and drive."

Postmaster encourages owners to restrain pets and protect carriers

With the arrival of warmer weather, Floydada Postmaster Geary Reckling has asked dog owners to help protect letter carriers, utility workers and other citizens from the dangers of dog bites.

The Postmaster said that, nationally, more than 5,000 letter carriers were bitten by dogs last year. Reckling added that those statistics included injuries to one of Floydada's letter carriers.

"In recent years, the public has responded to our plea to keep their pets restrained, and we have seen a decline in bites nationally," Reckling said. "Nevertheless, much is still to be done to eliminate the hazard to our employees and other citizens who might be bitten."

Reckling said that all dogs are territorial by nature, and even the most gentle pet will bite if it feels its domain is threatened by the presence of a carrier or other person. "With a little care, a pet owner can not only protect our carriers, but his or her pet and pocketbook, too," he said.

Postmaster Reckling stressed that the Postal Service protects its carriers from dog bite hazards. Among remedies in situations when a pet owner fails to restrain a dog is interruption of home delivery to the residence or, in some cases, to entire neighborhoods. The Postal Service will also seek to recover worker's compensation damages and provides counseling to carriers who have been bitten and who wish to seek legal action against the dog owners.

Reckling said these policies underscore the Postal Service's commitment to protect its employees, and added that pet owners can easily meet their responsibilities to control their pets.

"We suggest that pets be kept away from the mailbox and areas the letter carrier uses for access to the property," he said. "If the pet cannot be kept behind a secure fence, the owner should restrain it with a secure leash or tether or at least keep the pet inside the house during the usual hours carriers are making their rounds."

Reckling added, "We try to do our part by stressing awareness of dog bite dangers to our carriers, but we rely heavily on the support and cooperation of the community to help us end these painful and costly injuries."

We Salute...

'Speeding through fat lane' warning

We all know the dangers of speeding on Texas highways, but speeding through fat diets can put you on a collision course with problems, according to Vivian Lipham, area director for Weight Watchers of South Texas, Inc. Out of desperation to lose those extra pounds, Texans often rush toward fad weight loss solutions without knowing the hidden dangers.

"Crash diets" put added stress on the heart, liver and kidneys of a healthy person," in the view of local physicians Harold Hyder, M.D., a specialist certified by the American Board of Preventive Medicine. "For those who unknowingly have potential heart disease or borderline diabetes, the 'take it off now' regimens can lead to severe medical complications."

If you are thinking about finding a weight loss plan, remember these Tips For Texans:

* Moderation—2,000 years ago, the Greeks said, "All things in moderation." This maxim still holds true today, including finding a well-balanced, flexible food plan based on the realities of your particular life style.

* Motivation—The three most common causes for a drop in motivation are: (1) Sheer boredom, caused by lack of variety in the low-calorie foods you have chosen;

(2) Disappointment over not losing all your excess weight in two days;

(3) Well-meaning people who say "You've lost enough."

* Mindset—so you rushed to the freezer and ate three frozen candy bars. It's a slip, but it's not equal to failure. Instead of making it the start of a binge, get back to your food plan with fresh resolve.

With the right plan and the above M&M's, you have every chance of enjoying the high road to success.

Ford pickup stolen Sunday night from Floydada site

An '84 Ford pickup with Super Cab was driven away from Main and Houston in Floydada "after 10:30" p.m. Sunday, according to Floyd County Sheriff's Department, which was still searching for the vehicle early this week.

Sheriff Fred Cardinal terms the case as "unauthorized use of a motor vehicle."

The pickup belongs to Kevin Tipton. "As far as the jail is concerned, we had a relatively quiet week-end," according to Sheriff Cardinal.

Help protect post office

Texas and Oklahoma continue to be the target of post office burglars, according to Postal Inspector in Charge D.C. Strader, Fort Worth. Strader, whose area of responsibility includes the northern half of Texas (north of Austin) and all of Oklahoma, said that over 50 burglaries will occur within the boundaries of the Fort Worth Division this year if the current trend continues.

Most of the burglaries have occurred at post offices that are located in rural communities that have limited or no local law enforcement available for routine patrols at night.

"A majority of the burglaries do not involve the loss of postal funds, because very little money is kept overnight in post offices and postal stations. Safes and security containers are used to secure the money and blank money orders which are kept overnight," stated Strader. "In addition to burglary-resistant security containers, we are continually adding and updating existing alarm systems where appropriate. However, we need for the residents of each city, town, and community to help us protect their post offices and stations from burglaries and vandalism."

Local postmaster Geary Reckling emphasized the need for citizen involvement. "Even though postal funds are secured in a safe, burglars who are unsuccessful in attempting to break into a safe will sometimes steal mail left in customers' post office boxes. Even when they don't steal mail, they sometimes just cause malicious vandalism. In either event, it does cost the Postal Service money to repair the damage incurred and for the Postal Inspectors to conduct an investigation. Our local tax money is also spent by our local law enforcement officers who incur expenses, because they are usually the first agency to respond, and they also provide valuable assistance in the investigations to the Postal Inspectors.

"But the most important reason for citizen involvement is because it causes a hardship to those whose mail is stolen or destroyed as the result of a burglary or a senseless act of vandalism," said Postmaster Reckling.

Residents can help reduce burglaries and vandalism by reporting suspicious activity at or around the postal facilities which occurs after business hours. This activity would include such things as automobiles or trucks with license plates from outside the local area, unfamiliar people asking suspicious questions about the post office box lobby or around the post office by groups of young people at night and on weekends when the post office is closed. This information should be reported to the local law enforcement agencies and to the postmaster or station manager.

Post office burglary is a Federal crime which carries a penalty of up to a $1,000 fine or up to five years in prison, or both. The Postal Service offers a standing reward of up to $5,000 for information and services leading to the arrest and conviction of any person responsible for the burglary of a post office. Any information about a post office burglary, or any crime committed against the Postal Service or its employees, should be reported to the local postmaster or the Postal Inspector in Charge in Fort Worth.

The 24-hour number for the Postal Inspector in Charge at Fort Worth is 817/885-1111. Postal Inspectors are also located at Dallas and Lubbock in Texas, and at Oklahoma City and Tulsa in Oklahoma.

"It's your community, your post office, and your mail," said Mr. Reckling "and we need the help of all our citizens in helping to reduce crimes against the Postal Service in our area."

Mrs. Duncan Again Heads The Pioneers Beautiful Day Sandwiched Between rains For Old Settlers Friday

563 register

Between rains and clouds the weatherman sandwiched in a lovely day last Friday for the Floyd County Pioneers to hold their 47th annual reunion in Floydada. . . .

Dancing Begins Early
The old fashioned square dancers started early in the afternoon for the benefit of those who wanted to have a part in all the fun before taking their departure, and the fiddling until late in the night for the late comers.

The parade had the air of old time days when scores of horsemen and horsewomen, senior and junior along with other reminders of a former day such as an old time surrey and a chuckwagon wound through the streets where block after block was lined with spectators.

Ralls health clinics

The Texas Department of Health, 711 Main, in Ralls will be offering the following clinics every month:

Monday: Adult health services, blood pressure screening and monitoring, physical examinations and blood tests and health risks profile;

First and third Tuesdays: Maternity clinic

Second and fourth Tuesday: Family planning

Wednesdays: Well child care clinic

Thursdays: Immunization clinic

Fridays: TB clinic and comprehensive day.

Services are available to the general public. The charge for the clinic is based on your income.

For information and appointments call, 253-2502.

The quilt show and display of antiques was an interesting added feature.

Mrs. Arthur B. Duncan, president of the pioneer association and resident of Floydada since the early nineties welcomed the pioneers to their 47th reunion; the response being made by Geo. L. Fawver, also a resident since 1891. . . .

R.E.L. Muncy reminded his hearers that the pioneer association was formed in 1915 instead of 1919, although its sessions were interrupted by the world war upheaval.

Throughout the day the old timers paraded to the platform or talked from their places when microphones were passed to them. Among these were R.C. Bennett, Lockney, Edgar Allen, Crosbyton, Mrs. J.D. Starks and Mrs. V.A. Leonard of Floydada, K. Walling of Duncan, Oklahoma, J. C. Cooper, Plainview, Mrs. Andy Sams, Lockney, J.S. McLain, Sandhill, J.L. West and M.W. Whitlow, Floydada. . . .

Street Parade

C.L. Anderson, chairman of the street parade committee gives the following report on it:

Alex Shipley, Clovis, John Cowart, Olton, and Lee Rushing, Fairview were named as the judges.

Floats: First prize: Hodel and Thornton Surrey, Lockney; second, Self-Serve Laundry, Lockney.

Pioneer Cowboys: R.C. Bennett, Lockney, Henry Randolph, Cedar Hill, P.M. McDonald, Lockney.

Junior Cowboys: first Marion Yeary, Lockney, second, Donald Cornelius, Floydada, and third, Joe Rushing, Floydada.

Junior Cowgirls: first, Lula Randolph, second, Mary Beth Bennett.

Clowns: Irving Bennett, Earl Smalley

Wagons: Randolph pioneer chuckwagon.

For the most attractive pioneer costume Miss Robertyne McIntyre tied with Olin Watson, Jr. for a special prize offered by Mrs. Arthur B. Duncan and the award was divided between the two.

Galloway nephew competes in International Sports Exchange

Kevin Dick, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby J. Dick of Crowley and a nephew of Al and Sally Galloway of Floydada, was invited to be a member of the International Sports Exchange track team that traveled to China in June. Dick, who is a member of the National Honor Society, finished fourth in the state track meet recently in the pole vaulting event. The team, made up of high school athletes from Texas, traveled by plane to the bustling city of Hong Kong located on the southern coast of China, where they spent several days and nights. They then boarded a large Catamaran Hydrofoil in Hong Kong Harbor and travel across part of the south China Sea and up the Pearl River to Canton, China, a city of five million persons. After competition and several days stay in Canton, they returned to Hong Kong by train. The train actually started in Peking and ends in Hong Kong.

The team departed Hong Kong and arrived in Hawaii where they spent two days sightseeing and touring, including snorkeling at the world famous Hanama Bay.

Dick and his teammates left the states on Monday, June 8, and returned Wednesday, June 17.

International Sports Exchange offers high school athletes an opportunity "that will probably only come to them once in their lifetime. Normally, the only athletes having the privilege of competing abroad are Olympic or national caliber."

Over the years, I.S.E. has made this experience possible for thousands of high school and college age athletes.

Cavalry and Comanches meet in 'friendly confrontation'

The U.S. Cavalry will once again confront the fierce Comanche warriors as Bill Neeley, historian and author of "Quanah Parker and His People," details the clash from the Indian's point of view. History buffs are invited by the sponsoring 4th Cavalry Memorial Regiment to Neeley's talk at the South Plains Electric Cooperative Community Room on June 25 at 7 p.m.

The meeting room is located at 110 N. Amarillo Road, north of the Mackenzie Park entrance, Lubbock.

One hundred and thirteen years ago on this date, 700 hand-picked Comanche, Cheyenne and Kiowa warriors attacked a buffalo hunters' outpost in the Panhandle. "The Battle of Adobe Walls," Neeley reveals how the Indians were defeated by 28 frontiersmen, their own medicine man, and a lucky shot from a buffalo gun.

The 4th Cavalry, a history reenactment group, is dedicated to promoting the colorful history of the Indian Wars period when Mackenzie's 4th Cavalry operated in this area. Besides educational talks, their activities include living history displays and demonstrations, training sessions, encampments, research and historical preservation, and sabre and shooting matches.

The general public is encouraged to attend this informative talk. Refreshments will be served. For more information, contact Larry Goldston: 806-745-0234.

Farewell party slated Sunday for AFS pair

The backyard of Pete and Wanda Hickerson, 815 W. Mississippi will be the scene of Floydada's farewell party for two Floydada students, Sunday evening at 8:00 p.m.

Everyone is invited to join the local chapter of the American Field Service (AFS) and Floydada High School Student Council to say "bon voyage" to Maria Edith Jativa and Joey Thayer.

Maria will be returning to her home in Quito, Ecuador, after spending this last year as a guest of Floydada and as a member of Keith and Regi Gross' family.

Joey Thayer, daughter of Fred and Jan Thayer will be leaving Tuesday on the AFS summer program. She will be spending two months with an AFS host family in Sweden.

Join the community in wishing these "ambassadors" a fantastic journey at the Hickerson's.

Matsler awarded scholarship

Jeff Matsler, a McMurry College student, was awarded a scholarship last week at the Northwest Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Matsler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Matsler of Floydada, will be a sophomore at McMurry in the fall. The Conference Merit Scholarship is given each year at the annual conference.

The scholarship is funded through a 10 percent rebate from the Methodist Student Day offering held each year at churches in the conference.

During his freshman year, Matsler was a member of Makona social club, Christian Life Fellowship and served as freshman class president.

Jeff Matsler of Floydada has been named to the Dean's List for the spring 1987 semester at McMurry College, according to Dr. Paul Jungmeyer, vice-president for Academic Affairs and Dean of the College.

A total of 226 students were named to the Dean's List for the spring 1987 semester at McMurry. A student must attain a grade point average of 3.5 or higher on the 4.0 scale and must be taking at least 12 semester hours to qualify for the honor.

McMurry is a four-year liberal arts college located in Abilene, Texas.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sirs:
Recently your paper ran an article about the Dougherty School closing. My mother-in-law, Mrs. G.C. Tiner, lives in Midland now and she gets your paper. As she isn't able to see to read, her son, Bob, or I read it to her. She enjoys it so much.

As she taught there and has so many pleasant memories of the school and people, I would appreciate it if you could print her address in the paper so she could maybe hear from anyone that wanted to write, and I'll reply for her since she is such a special mother-in-law.

Thank you,
Mrs. Trucie Tiner
(Mrs. G.C. Tiner's address is: 3207 Camarie, Midland, Tex. 79705.)

Outbuilding on South Fifth razed and furnishings destroyed by fire

An outbuilding behind a residence at 700 South Fifth and possessions owned by the C.O. Woody family, which was stored in the building, were destroyed during a Friday fire.

The blaze, of unknown origin, was reported by the house's occupant to the fire department about 7:20 p.m. Nearby residences were not damaged.

"Some family heirlooms were lost and you can't put a price on those," Mrs. Woody told The Hesperian. A-

FHS band students fare well in state competition

Six Floydada band members returned from Austin earlier this month with ratings ranging from a second division to a fourth division. Competing with several hundred other Texas band students, Floydada representatives made their marks in twirling, solos and ensembles and music theory.

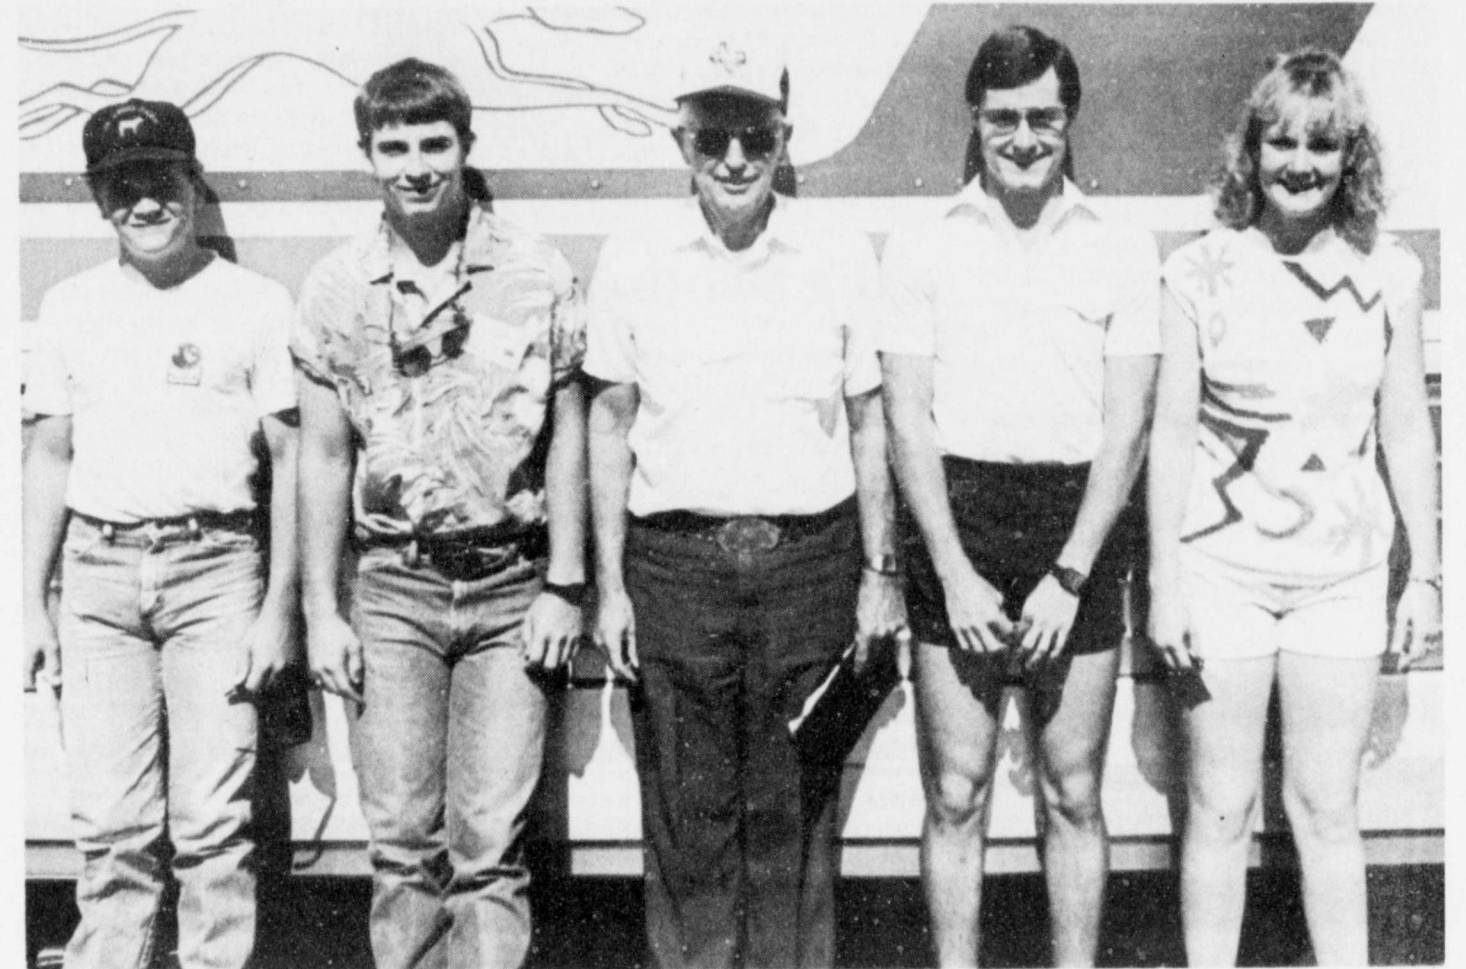

Jane Willson, solo twirler, earned a second division rating for her routine at the June 1 contest. Competing as a line, she and her two compatriots, Ludusia Leatherman and Lonna Batey, earned a third division rating for a twirling routine presented in the statewide competition.

Gabriel Mendoza garnered a third division rating for his French horn solo and Dawn Atteberry earned a fourth division with a bass clarinet solo.

Sabrina Stepp, taking the exam for a rating in music theory, was notified last week of her third division rating.

Accompanied on the trip by assistant band director Jett Cheek, twirling coach Kelly Whitten and Mrs. Nancy Willson, the students also had time for a bit of sightseeing and fun while in the Austin vicinity.

Baptist VBS June 22-26

Final plans and preparations are being made at First Baptist Church of Floydada for their Vacation Bible School scheduled for next week, June 22-26.

In addition to the many hours of Bible teaching and Christian training planned for the week, boys and girls who attend will also be participating in "many fun-filled activities. Each day will include arts and crafts, games, and refreshments."

Friday has been designated as Popsicle and Balloon Day. Each child present will participate in a giant Balloon Launch and then be served popsicles as refreshments.

More than one contest will be part of the week. Children who bring new friends with them during the week will receive a coupon for a free snowcone for each friend that they bring. The boy and girl each who brings the most new friends during the week will receive a special prize. The children will also be participating in a contest between the boys and the girls as to who brings the most mission offering according to weight.

A giant balance has been constructed with two large buckets in which the mission offering will be placed each day. Children will be able to win bonuses by answering review questions from the morning mission stories.

V.B.S. will conclude on Friday night at 7 p.m. with a Commencement Service and Family Night. All family members, relatives and friends of V.B.S. partici-

June 11:

Ashleigh and Amanda Williams came home from church with their grandparents Sunday. That afternoon the two cousins accompanied their grandmother to the Dougherty school where she tagged school pictures, trophies and other mementos to be given to the Floyd County Historical Museum. Mrs. Ken Campbell and Mrs. Randy Pernell and children showed her through the closed school building. The museum will display the donated items during homecoming years. The Dougherty gym will be used in the future as a community center in the role the school has served over the years.

The Williamses visited Mrs. Dee

Adams Sunday afternoon when they returned from Dougherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Choise Smith, Hunter and Dean, also the Flukie Smiths of Lubbock met in Amarillo Sunday with Scarlet Smith Jackson and family of Spearman. Scarlet's son, Tal Jackson, was leaving by plane from the Amarillo airport to fly to Virginia for Marine Officer Training. Tal, who graduates from Texas Tech in December, is enrolled in the Marine R.O.T.C. at the university. He will spend several weeks in summer training and return to classes in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mooseberg and other members of their Bible class at City Park Church of Christ were guests of the Young Adults class for a sandwich and ice cream supper Sunday evening after church. The fellowship was held in the backyard and patio area of the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlap. The Dunlap's trampoline was stretched to its limits as the host class' children, ranging in age from toddlers to teenagers, showed their skills in acrobatics. The kids had so much fun they didn't want to climb down to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston went to Lubbock Friday to pick up their grandchildren, Lance and Leah Ward, while the children's mother, Johnnie, went to Amarillo to take the teachers' TECAT test. She returned to Lakeview and spent Sunday and Monday here with her parents, and attended church with them.

Mrs. Choise Smith and son, Hunter, joined other Floyd County 4-H parents and members at Texas A&M this week for state contests. They left Monday and planned to return Thursday. Hunter and Zach Nutt are giving a demonstration talk on how to clean a fish. Hunter is working as bug man for the Department of Agriculture in fields over the county this summer. His brother, Dean Smith, is working with Wally Davis doing construction of steel buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Harrison attended Coronado High School graduation services in Lubbock Thursday evening for their granddaughter, Amy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bob Harrison. There were 500 seniors from all Lubbock schools to graduate that evening.

Grey overcast skies all week finally resulted in light rain Tuesday.

Bill Norris talked on the phone to relatives in Carlsbad, New Mexico Sunday night and they reported it was raining there, with a forecast of the clouds drifting on out to the plains, which they did. Wheat harvest is in progress below the Caprock, completed in some areas. The wheat here is ready if it dries up enough to cut.

Wood backyard site of breakfast

Mamie Wood's backyard was the scene for a breakfast gathering of friends Wednesday, June 10. The group gathered for breakfast served by hostesses, Mamie Wood, Dot Cummings, Ruby Lee Higginbotham, Margaret Kitchens and Mildred Hamm.

Following the sumptuous meal of egg and green chili casserole, sausage balls, blueberry muffins, cinnamon sweet bread, fresh fruits and jelly, Dot Cummings presented the program on rocks. She had a variety of rocks and explained the different types, where they could be found, how they were formed and uses for them. Many rocks can be cut, polished and used to make beautiful gem stones.

Those present were Pat Wood, Margaret Kitchens, Sue Farnsworth, Wanda Turner, Kathleen Thornton, Edythe Clarke, Helen Teeple, Louise Johnson, Nancy Marble, Ruby Lee Higginbotham, Neta Marble, Ann Hartman, Gleyann Earle Cummings, Bobbie Kinibrough, Maurine Parks, Denise Cates, Mildred Cates, Mildred Hamm, Georgie Brandes, Katherine Ball, Juanita Teeple, Nola Bishop, Thelma Crawford, Jo Y'Blood, Gertrude Smitherman, Mae Muncy, Dot Cummings, Jettie Moss, Kathy Mulder and the hostess Mamie Wood.

'Big Brother'

By Crystal Rowley

Hey big brother, although we can't be compared

We know just what needs to be shared

Sometimes we don't always see the light

But know in our own way each of us are right

Brother, you are often the first one to tell me which way to go

Maybe I need to realize that you do know

Sometimes you make me mad

But then I see you for what you are and it makes me glad

You are leaving in awhile

It's going to be hard, but I still have to smile

Although we'll be far apart

We'll be in each others heart

It's not time to cry or say goodbye

It's just the right time to know we'll be together 'til we die

Dedicated to my brother: Chuck Rowley who is in San Diego, Calif. in the Marines.

GARNER CARROLL WEEMS

Funeral rites for longtime Floydada businessman Garner Carroll Weems were conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday in First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Earl Blair, pastor, officiated and was assisted by the Rev. Russell McAnally.

Mr. Weems, 73, was claimed by death at 3:30 p.m. Friday, June 12, at Central Plains Hospital in Plainview after a lengthy illness.

Interment was made in Floydada Cemetery. Moore-Rose Funeral Home directed arrangements.

Serving as pallbearers were Joe Mack Holmes, Jerry Holmes, Larry Gee, Chuck Holmes, Hulon Carthel and Sam Green.

Mr. Weems operated Weems Texaco for a number of years prior to his retirement. He moved to Floyd County 63 years ago from Winnsboro.

A resident of 607 East Houston in Floydada, Mr. Weems was a World War II veteran and a member of First United Methodist Church.

He was born Oct. 26, 1913, in Winnsboro and exchanged marriage vows with Ruby Coldiron on Dec. 21, 1940, in San Luis Obispo, Calif.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Robert Weems of Arlington and Randell Weems of Floydada; one grandson, Christopher Weems of Dallas; one brother, Milton Weems of Port Aransas; and two sisters, Lurene Gee of Floydada and Buena Holmes of Richardson.

HUBERT HALL

Hubert Hall of Roaring Springs was claimed by death Friday morning in Caprock Hospital in Floydada following a lengthy illness. He was the father of Helen Emert of Dougherty.

Mr. Hall, 84, was a longtime Motley County resident.

Memorial services were at 2 p.m. Monday in the Assembly of God Church in Roaring Springs with the Rev. Edna Dillard, pastor, officiating.

Burial was made in Roaring Springs Cemetery.

A Navarro County native, he was a water superintendent and a Methodist. The former Josephine Masey and Mr. Hall were married Nov. 12, 1924, in Motley County.

Survivors include one son, Buster Sisson of Big Spring; four daughters, Helen Emert of Dougherty, Mary Bonin and Deice Haney, both of Houston, and Vivian Brown of Fort Worth; two sisters, Ruby Holcomb of Crosbyton and Nonie Masey of Roaring Springs; 26 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

THOMAS F. THAGARD

Funeral services for Floydada native Thomas F. Thagard, 62, of 3200 Seabard in Midland were at 2 p.m. Thursday in Chapel of Memories at Sizemore Funeral Home in Midland. Burial was in Resthaven Cemetery in Midland.

President of Seco Operation Co., Mr. Thagard was pronounced dead on arrival at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday, June 9, at Midland Memorial Hospital. He recently had undergone surgery.

He was born May 21, 1925, in Floydada and was married to sue Goddard on Aug. 20, 1945, in Portales, N.M.

Thagard served as pilot in the Army Air Corps during World War II. He was graduated from the University of Oklahoma with a degree in geology in 1951 and moved that year from Oklahoma City to Midland.

His church affiliation was Memorial Christian.

Survivors include his wife; one daughter Karri Ann Thagard of Midland; one son, John Gregory Thagard of Midland; one sister, Mrs. E.R. Henningsen of Stephenville; one granddaughter, Claire Taylor Thagard of Midland; and three nephews.

The family requests memorials to the Ronald McDonald House in Odessa or to Make A Wish Foundation of the Permian Basin.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Garner C. Weems wish to thank all the friends and relatives for the kindness, love and concern through the illness and death of our loved one.

For the beautiful flowers, food, telephone calls and cards.

A special thanks to Rev. Earl Blair and Bro. Russell McAnally for their support and prayers.
