

Daylight saving time departing

Change due Sunday

What is the longest day of the year?

That has to be Sunday, Oct. 25, which will technically have one extra hour. This is brought about as daylight saving time takes its leave early Sunday morning until its return next spring.

That hour lost during the spring with the entry of daylight saving time will be tacked onto Sunday. Thus Oct. 25 is the only 25-hour day during 1987.

Individuals who fail to turn their clocks BACK one hour before retiring Sunday night will arrive at church or the coffee shop an hour early Sunday.

The adage pertaining to time changes is "spring forward in spring" and "fall back in fall."

City of Floydada to seek imminent domain ruling

The City of Floydada will invoke the doctrine of Imminent Domain when a condemnation suit is filed in District Court later this week. The suit asks that the 48,999 acres of land which city officials have long sought to purchase from Mrs. Helen Hammonds be condemned and turned over to the city for use in expanding the sanitary landfill operation.

Just compensation would be decided by a panel of three citizens appointed by the district judge to appraise the land and set a value on it. The city would be required to pay this amount before utilizing the land.

This resolution, #108, was passed at a special session on Monday, October 19. The motion was made by Council member Don Green, seconded by Nancy Willson and approved unanimously by all present.

Charles White, a Plainview attorney representing the city in this matter said, "I anticipate filing the suit later this week. This resolution serves to describe the suit and the land in question."

White also stated that the city should "seek an appraisal of the land prior to any court hearing which might be scheduled. This appraisal should include both the value of the property to be condemned and set the value of any damage which might result to adjacent property from the condemnation."

A motion by Frank Breed, seconded by Wayne Russell appointed local real estate professional Sammy Hale to undertake this appraisal. The motion was approved unanimously by the other council members.

Also discussed at the noon meeting was a transportation franchise agreement with Energas Company which was passed by the City of Canyon last Wednesday, October 14. At issue was whether Floydada should pass the same resolution or wait until such time as both an actual franchise agreement and a transportation agreement are ready to be approved.

After being told by engineering consultant Bill McMorries that "Energas has indicated to me that the Canyon ordinance will be tested in court," council members elected to table this issue rather than act on it at this time. The motion came from Leroy Burns and was seconded by Don Green.

Present at the session were council members Russell, Burns, Breed, Green and Willson. Council woman Ginger Warren was not present. Also attending were Mayor Parnell Powell, city manager Gary Brown, city secretary Jimmie Lou Stewart, city attorney Steve Hale, attorney Charles White, consulting engineer Bill McMorries and the Hesperian reporter.

Okha weighs 5,941 pounds

Okha, owned by Franzen Bros. Circus and one of the largest performing elephants in the United States, weighs 5,941 pounds. The weight was learned when The Hesperian staff opened a sealed envelope from circus officials on Monday afternoon.

Okha will be one of the featured animals in the circus, which is to present two Sunday performances at the Floydada Rodeo Grounds.

This newspaper offered in its previous edition to give family passes to the three individuals who guessed closest to Okha's weight.

The winners are: Dorothy Turner, Floydada, 4,241 pounds; Margie Cisneros, Floydada, 3,900 pounds; and Terry and Sande Reeves, Slaton, 8,000 pounds.

Other guesses varied from 2,000 to 13,999 pounds. The three closest, regardless of whether they were under or over the exact weight, were declared winners. They may pick up their passes at The Hesperian office.

Wishing Jessica well

Floyd County residents are being given an opportunity to send their wishes for a speedy recovery to Jessica McClure, the 18-month-old Midland miss whose rescue from an old water well captured attention throughout the United States.

Sheets of paper are being placed at The Hesperian office in Floydada and The Beacon office in Lockney for well-wishers to sign. These will be placed inside a giant card and forwarded to the youngster.

Contributions also will be forwarded from persons wishing to assist financially.

There is no charge for signatures, which will be mailed in about a week.

Joe Hinkle is the producer of Floyd County's first bale of 1987 cotton. The crop was grown on land "15 miles northeast of Floydada."

The 544 pound bale was ginned "about 8:30" Thursday morning at Floydada Co-op Gins, Inc. The seed cotton arrived at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 14. It was machine harvested.

Turnout was 21.9 percent.

Hinkle planted this plot to Paymaster 145 seed. It was on irrigated land.

Soon after Hinkle's first bale was ginned, it was taken to the courthouse square. He receives the Floydada Chamber of Commerce's $100 premium paid each year for the first bale, according to CoC manager Nettie Ruth Whittle.

The '87 first bale was almost two weeks earlier than the previous year, when Drew Lloyd brought in the initial cotton on Oct. 27. Heavy rains delayed the '86 harvest.

Edwards chosen county 4-H Gold Star recipient

Approximately 164 4-Hers, their parents, other adult leaders and special guests attended the Floyd County '87 Achievement Banquet in the Duncan Elementary School cafeteria in Floydada.

Owner of the grand champion steer at the county show in February and of the top grading steer in the Houston Livestock Show, Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Edwards. He also receives a $500 scholarship.

Michael Hinsley, president of the Floyd County 4-H Adult Leaders Association, made the presentation to Edwards.

Revealing of the Gold Star 4-Her, highlight of the banquet each fall, is normally the final award. However, a special award, a plaque, was presented to Mary True, county Extension agent-HE, by the county council to conclude the banquet. "We love you!" council chairperson Kelli LaBaume said while making the presentation.

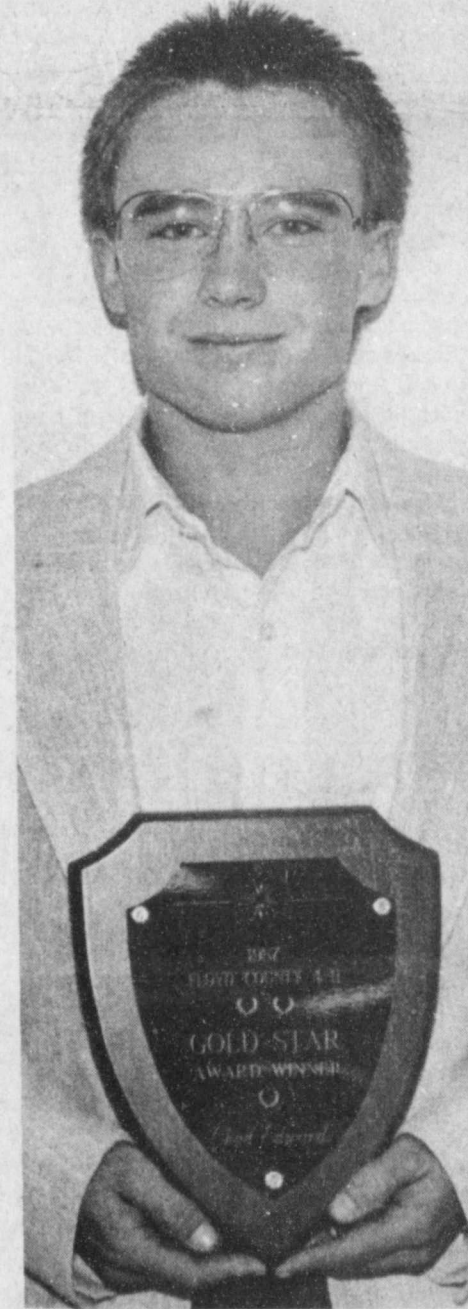

OUTSTANDING LEADERS

Elaine LaBaume of Floydada and John David Turner of Lockney were cited as Silver Spur Award winners. This coveted award is presented each year to outstanding woman and man 4-H leaders.

Buster Terrell presented the Silver Spur Awards, which are sponsored by Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc. These awards come in the form of a pendant for the woman and a tie clip for the man.

"I Dare You" awards went to Kelli LaBaume of Floydada and Joel Mitchell of Lockney. This recognition fetes 4-Hers who dare to excel. Kenneth Holt made the presentation.

Selected by the 4-H Council as "Rookies of the Year" were Chelsea Patridge, Lockney, and Neal Nelson, Floydada. Both have established out-

Interest mounts for 'Punkin Day'

It's a new activity known as "Punkin' Day" and its primary purpose is to focus attention on Floyd County as "Pumpkin Capital, USA."

A variety of events for the Friday, Oct. 30, funfest have been arranged by the sponsor, Floydada Chamber of Commerce. It will begin about 4:30 p.m. at the courthouse pavilion.

One of the highlights will be judging of Halloween costume awards. First, second and third place ribbons are to be awarded to winners in each of the five age categories: 2-4 years, 5-6 years, 7-10 years, 11-13 years and over 13. The later category includes adults.

Floydada merchants are encouraged to "dress up in Halloween garb to set the tone for the day." Businesspersons also are encouraged to decorate their windows featuring pumpkins.

Youngsters and oldsters alike are invited to bring carved jack-o-lanterns or painted jack-o-lanterns. Each will be a separate division with two classes - 13 years and over and under 13 years - in both painted and carved divisions.

Winners in the jack-o-lantern categories receive ribbons, as do owners of the largest pumpkin, smallest pumpkin, prettiest corn and ugliest gourd.

Chamber officials point out that the event is scheduled to allow youngsters time to change into costumes after school and also to allow persons to prepare for the Floydada-Littlefield football game here that night.

Absentee balloting continues next week

Eligible voters wishing to cast absentee ballots in the general election must do so by next Friday, Oct. 30. Absentee balloting is handled in the office of County Clerk Margaret Collier.

Tuesday, Nov. 3, is election day.

Floydada misses brass ring

State prison will not be located here

Floydada receives an A+ for effort, but doesn't get the brass ring.

Bill Hale, chairman of Floydada Development Co. (FDC), was informed during a Wednesday morning phone conversation from a Texas Department of Corrections (TDC) official that Floydada did not make the "short list" (finalists) for a regional (minimum-security) prison.

The list of finalists for two maximum security and four regional prisons in Texas was announced Wednesday morning. Unsuccessful candidates were notified in advance of the public announcement.

Winds seek third 2-AAA win

"We're in a position right now where every week is a crucial game. Every win makes the next that much more crucial," Coach Earl Overton said early this week as his troops prepare for their third district outing against Dimmitt.

Fightin' Whirlwinds and their fans make the long journey to Dimmitt on Friday, for a 7:30 contest.

Currently deadlocked with Littlefield for the District 2-AAA race, the Green and White will be seeking their third league win. They own a 6-1 season record.

"We're going into the last three weeks and four teams have a shot" at the championship and the two playoff spots, Coach Overton points out.

"Dimmitt has some quickness," the Whirlwind mentor says. "One of the problems we'll have is recognition because they run so many sets." The Bobcats not only operate a multiple offense, but have a "50" defense "with multiple alignments out of the 50 front."

The Cats have good size with players weighing in at 250, 240 and 240.

Asked about the Dimmitt passing attack, Coach Overton says "They've been throwing some, probably 12-14 times a game."

Dimmitt's 2-5 record is deceiving because the Bobcats have held several strong teams close. They were nipped 16-6 by Slaton, which currently is leading the rugged AAA district to the south; took out a good River Road (Amarillo) team 16-14; fell 16-7 to Abernathy; knocked off Olton 16-14; and last week played Tulia to a 6-16 score.

PLEASED WITH INTENSITY

"We were real pleased with the way we executed and with our intensity, particularly in the second half," Coach Overton says in reviewing his squad's 29-7 victory over Muleshoe after trailing early in the contest. "Muleshoe has a solid, physical football team. Number 44 (195 pound tailback Michael Dunham) and number 42 (185 pound fullback Armando del Toro) are hard runners."

The Fightin' Whirlwind mentor adds, "I feel like we are getting some real good leadership, which is allowing us to play with such intensity." He adds that his troops continue to come up with "big plays." He says, "Chad's (Pernell) interception was a big play Friday night." With Muleshoe leading 7-0 and owning the ball at the Floydada 13, Pernell pulled off his second quarter interception.

With no new injuries suffered in the Muleshoe encounter, Coach Overton believes "We ought to be ready" for Dimmitt. Leonard King returned to drills Monday and could see duty this Friday. Rolando Cisneros, who suffered a non-football related ankle injury, also is working out but his status for the next game "all depends on how well he can move."

"In behalf of our kids, we appreciate the support we're getting," the coach says. "It means something to them."

Torrez will appear Saturday with Marty Haggard in local concert

Marty Haggard, a rising star in the country-western music field, will appear on stage with his band Saturday evening for a concert in the A.E. Baker Auditorium at Floydada High School.

Floydada native Alex Torrez is the drummer in Haggard's band. He is a son of Ernie Torrez and Amanda Loudermilk, both of Floydada.

No seats are reserved for the concert. General admission tickets, priced at $6 are on sale at Thompson Pharmacy and First National Bank in Floydada.

The curtain rises at 8 p.m.

KKAP AM-FM and Brady Productions are sponsoring the event.

Being the oldest son of a famous entertainer is a double-edged sword, according to Marty Haggard, who resembles his father — renowned singer Merle Haggard — only physically, but also vocally.

"The name gets you in the door," he explains, "but once you get in there, people expect more than they do from other singers. I know comparisons will be made, but I sing like myself. If I sound like him, that's OK. If I don't, that's OK, too. The bottom line is, I'm real proud of my dad."

In the same sense of pride that made the lanky young man determined to enter show business on his own merit, rather than on his father's coattails. "I don't want nobody hiring me as a favor to him," he says earnestly. "I don't want to be just a clause in a contract."

With his signing to MTM, Marty Haggard is free to be himself and sing songs of his own choosing, in his own style.

During an interview last year, Torrez commented that Haggard is extremely close to his band and is "just one of the guys."

Growing up in an entertainment-oriented family, young Haggard learned the ropes of life on the road at the tender age of 13, when he left his hometown of Bakersfield, Calif., and joined his father's entourage as a roadie.

completely that he truly wanted a career in show business for himself.

CAREER DECISION
"I just clicked," he recalls. "I just suddenly knew what I wanted to do for the rest of my life."

In addition to singing, Marty has also tried his hand at acting, landing a part in the television series, "The Fitzpatricks," and a role in "Comtac 303," a film about the first black air squadron.

It was during this time that the younger Haggard had an experience most people only read about in newspapers — he was shot by a hitchhiker that he was kind enough to offer a lift.

"He wanted to rob me," says Haggard, "and he shot me at point-blank range with a .22 Magnum. It went all the way through me. I was in the hospital for a week, then went to work on the TV series. The first day on the job, I spent 14 hours in the Hollywood High School swimming pool." It must be that tough Haggard constitution!

These days, Marty lives in Nashville with his wife and two young daughters, thanks to a liaison with producer Billy Strange, who encouraged the move, which eventually led to the signing with MTM.

A man of strong convictions, Haggard refuses to perform "drinking or cheating songs unless the lyrics put those habits down."

"I want to be careful about how I influence somebody else," he says. "I think music is the most powerful tool in the world. If I can affect a couple of people in a good way, my career will be worth it, whether I sell one or ten zillion records."

MONDAY INTERVIEW
During a telephone interview Monday afternoon, Haggard came across as a friendly and concerned individual. He stated that "the decision to perform in Floydada was made last year" as the group returned from a performance in the area.

"Alex was concerned that his hometown did not get much outside entertainment and we just talked it over and decided to add Floydada to the tour," said Haggard.

Haggard apparently values both the talent and friendship he has found with Torres. He indicated that Alex "has turned out to be probably a permanent addition to the group for as long as he wants it. I sure wouldn't trade him for anyone. He has become a good friend."

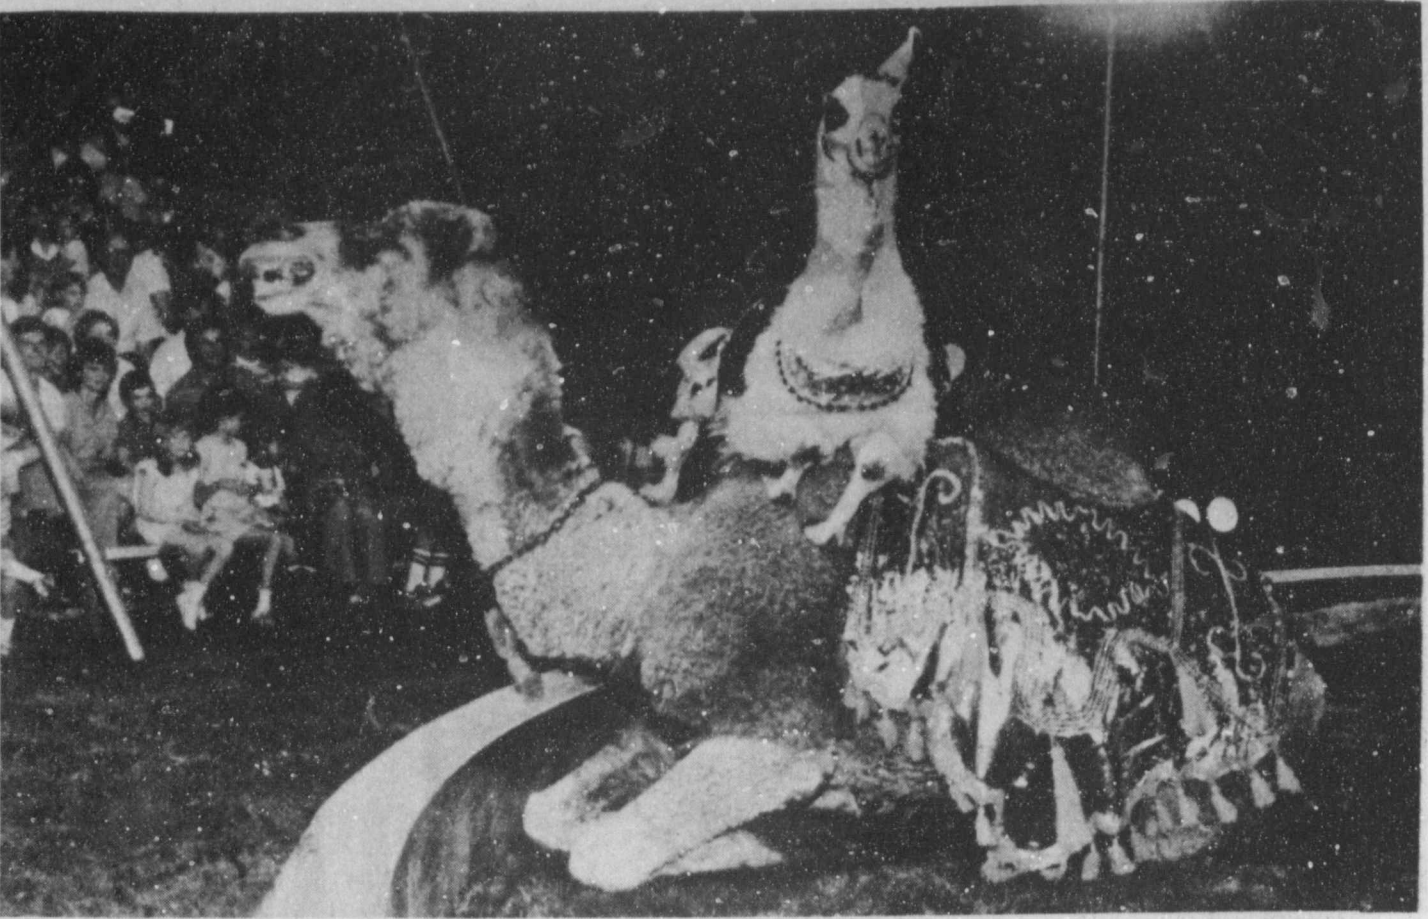

Speaking of the group as a whole, Haggard said, "We all get along very well. We work well together and are all friends. Touring on the road is at times very uncomfortable and in the year and a half we have been together, I don't think we have even raised our voices at each other."

Making up the remainder of the band are Rik Wilson on lead guitar and Roger McVay on bass.

Haggard, originally from Bakersfield, California, will be coming to Floydada from Nashville, Tennessee. The current itinerary calls for the band to double back to Jacksonville, Mississippi, for the next road show.

The next release anticipated by Haggard is "Trains Make Me Lonesome." A release date has not been set at this time. Stated Haggard, "We are just now finishing up on it and I am not sure when it will finally be available."

"I am looking forward to performing in Floydada," noted Haggard. "I was very impressed by the many friendly people I have come in contact with from Floydada. I hope everyone will come out and see the show and give us a chance to entertain them with our music."

UNUSUAL COMBINATION—Clyde the camel and Chico the llama work together in the Franzen Bros. Circus, billed as "America's favorite show." The circus will present 2 and 4:30 p.m. performances Sunday at the Floydada rodeo grounds.

Jungle world's creatures featured in Sunday circus

Circus day is rapidly approaching. The public is invited to watch Sunday as the rodeo grounds are transformed "right before your eyes into an enchanting land of make believe."

At approximately 8 a.m. the Franzen Bros. Circus trucks will be arriving. Each truck is designed to function at an unusual task, or to transport unique cargo. Part of the crew goes to work immediately, stretching canvas across the grounds, as a separate crew begins to unload, feed and water the circus menagerie.

What kind of animals does the circus have?

"Well, don't get too close as Wayne Franzen, owner of Franzen Bros. Circus, begins to unload Okha, one of the largest performing circus elephants in America," according to circus officials. "Have your camera ready, because once Okha steps out of the elephant truck Kosti and Megu, the playful baby elephants won't be far behind."

The circus is now carrying 15 trained horses. Princess Moonbeam and her 12 Appaloosa ponies are considered "America's number one horse act today."

Onlookers will also be able to see camels and llamas as they exit the trucks onto the circus grounds. Lions and tigers will also be there.

The spokesperson adds, "Once you have an eyeful of the circus zoo, you might enjoy watching as the massive tent poles begin to push the canvas high into the air. Hey, I know who that is helping those men with that tent pole. It's Okha, the circus elephant. Helping to put the circus tent up, is one of Okha's jobs. This is definitely something you don't want to miss."

CHURCH SPONSORED
St. Mary Magdalen Church is sponsoring the Franzen Bros. Circus' visit to Floydada. The two Sunday performances are scheduled for 2 and 4:30 p.m.

During each performance, Nubion lions and Royal Bengal tigers — natural jungle enemies — will be brought together in one steel arena. Trainer Franzen opens the steel door and steps into the arena with the jungle beasts. He puts the animals through their paces: rolling globes, walking on their hind legs and jumping through flaming hoops and other routines.

"You can help St. Mary Magdalen by buying tickets in advance and save $1 per ticket by doing so," according to information from the circus. Advance tickets are available at Azteca Cafe, Gloria's Cleaners, the Hesperian and from St. Mary Magdalen members.

Advance ticket sales, which conclude this Saturday, are: family (two adults and up to four children), $15; adults, $4; children 13 and under and senior citizens, $3; and children under two, free.

COLORING CONTEST
Youngsters attending Andrews Elementary, Duncan Elementary and Texas as Migrant Council are participating in a coloring contest. They are painting pictures of a clown, which were taken to schools by the sponsors.

Bring entries to the circus, where prizes will be awarded.

FREE ELEPHANT RIDES
Registration is underway at six Floydada businesses for 20 free elephant rides, given by the circus. Persons may register through Friday at Hale's Department Store, Perry's, Gloria's Cleaners, Pay-n-Save, The Hesperian and KKAP studios.

Drawings of names of the 20 winners will be conducted after business hours Friday.

Each winner is to receive a ticket which can be presented at the circus gate Sunday for an elephant ride.

APPEARS WITH SISTER

Although Merle never pressured his offspring to follow in his footsteps, Marty found himself giving in to the entreaties of his sister, Dana, and began performing with her as "Marty and Dana Haggard and the Driftwood Band." After three years, Dana's motherhood put an end to that stage of the reluctant minstrel's career.

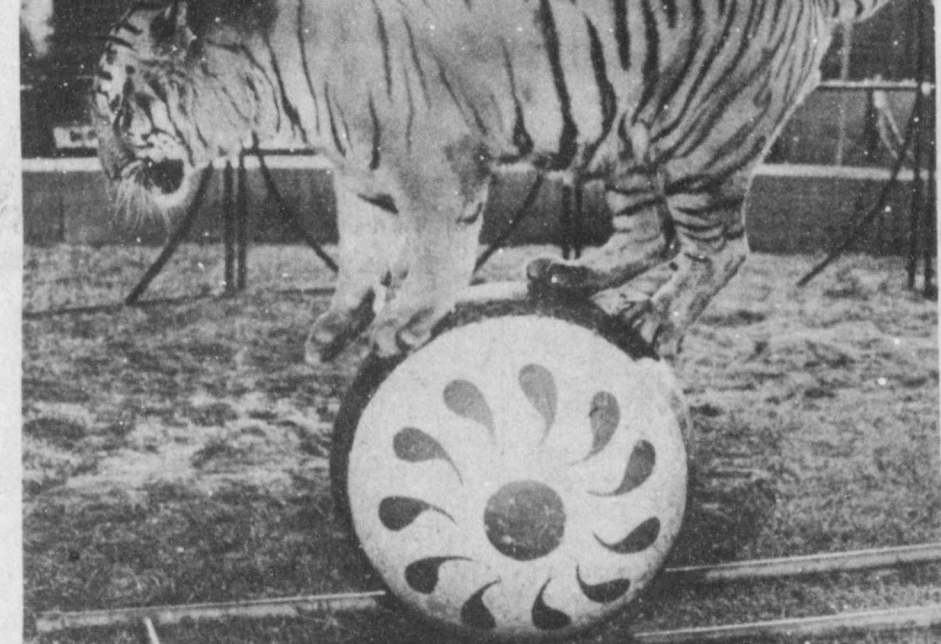

After a brief stint as a solo performer, Marty traded his stage attire for a blue collar and became a hydro-blaster for the Getty Oil Company.

But a call from Merle lured him once again to show business. Soon, he was promoting dates for Merle on the West Coast, and before he knew it, he was back on the stage singing backup and playing rhythm guitar for his father's band, "The Strangers."

Despite all of Haggard's road and performing experience, however, it wasn't until one auspicious evening in 1984, when he was performing with his dad at the Kern County Fair in Bakersfield, that he realized fully and

Man suffers broken collar bone in early Friday wreck

Alfonso Garza, 51, of Floydada suffered a broken collarbone, Friday, Oct. 16, after losing control of his vehicle around 6:30 a.m., four miles north of Floydada on TX 207.

Garza failed to make a curve, ran off the road and lost control which caused the vehicle to overturn 1 1/2 times. The vehicle cleared a fence and came to rest upside down in a field on the west side of the road.

Garza who is still in the hospital was cited by DPS troopers for driving on the wrong side of the road, no seat belt, and no liability insurance.

Early Saturday morning at approximately 3:00 a.m., Trooper Arnold stopped for a motorist assist. While talking to the motorist, Arnold discovered that the vehicle had been stolen just two hours earlier from Vernon, Texas. The owner of the vehicle, a 1973 Dodge, had not even discovered that his car was missing yet.

Trooper Arnold arrested Pedro Cantu of Slaton, for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and took him back to Vernon for charges to be filed.

Sunday afternoon, at 2:10 p.m. Floyd County Sheriff's Office and DPS investigated an accident 1 1/2 miles east of Floydada on EXT FM 784 by the labor camp. Kevin Helms, driving a Chevrolet pickup, lost control of his pickup after hitting a chuck-hole on the dirt road. The vehicle skidded sideways off into a ditch which caused the left rear tire to break down off the rim. The vehicle then rolled 1/2 time, ending up upside down. There were no injuries.

MISSES CURVE—Alfonso Garza, of Floydada, was driving this vehicle, Friday morning at approximately 6:30 a.m. when he failed to make a curve 4 miles north of Floydada on TX 207. Garza suffered a broken collarbone after his vehicle flipped 1 1/2 times. He remains in Caprock Hospital at this time. See related story. —Staff photo

Vandals break stained glass church window

Vandals broke the top portion of a stained glass window in the southwest corner of the First Baptist Church sanctuary on Friday night. The incident was discovered and reported Saturday.

Sgt. Harold Snell of Floydada Police Department places replacement cost at "around $75."

He says an unknown object broke the glass, and the building was not entered. This was the only significant criminal activity reported in the past week.

A Matador trucker, Steve Burns, was charged with leaving the scene of an accident after his '76 Peterbilt truck-tractor struck the door of a shop and a '76 Mack truck inside the building.

The garage doors of A.T. Thrasher, a mechanic, sustained an undetermined amount of damage. Thrasher leases a portion of the Fuller Trucking barn in the 300 block of East Houston.

The '76 Mack truck, which sustained minor damage, belongs to Sam Green of Floydada.

Several other minor accidents have been investigated recently by the police department.

A hit-and-run driver caused minor damage to a 1980 Chevrolet four-door which was "legally parked in the center median" at Shop-Rite. Julie Yandell owns the vehicle, which had damage to both doors on the driver's side.

Sgt. Snell says the hit-and-run vehicle is believed to have backed out from the east curb at the food store.

A 1977 Mercury four-door, driven by Betty Gilbreath, backed into a '78 Pontiac four-door, driven by Johnny Marley. Damage was "very minor."

A 1982 Subaru two-door had to be towed away from a Second and Missouri collision. Kalah Burrow Tinney was driving east when an '82 Chevrolet Silverado 30 one-ton truck allegedly was traveling west on Missouri and turned south on Second, striking the front center of the auto.

The truck, which was able to be driven away, belongs to Clifford Wayne Hacker Jr. of Knox City, who was temporarily residing in Floydada.

A 1977 Ford Econoline van, driven by Luis Gomez of Floydada, backed out and struck a UPS delivery van, which was parked in the street while the driver was making a delivery. This occurred at Fifth and California. Both vehicles could be driven away.

No major crimes

No major criminal offenses were investigated during the week-end by Floyd County Sheriff's Department.

Sheriff Fred Cardinal says two DWI (driving while intoxicated) arrests were made.

Grain good yield, small acreage

Grain sorghum harvest will not take long to complete since the government's mandatory cross compliance restrictions have lowered the area's milo acreage this year.

"If we receive 50 percent of what we did last year I'll be surprised," one elevatorman says.

Quality and yields have been "outstanding to this point," despite the drop in acreage.

The same holds true of seed maize, "ninety-nine percent" of which has been harvested.

Some grain sorghum was planted to land on which cotton was hailed out. This, obviously, is late and needs, in one opinion, "two or three more weeks of good weather."

One individual believes that the government CRP or crop reserve program "will have a great impact on wheat acreage, beginning next year." The person believes that wheat will be affected more than other commodities by the CRP.

Wheat sales have lagged this fall.

Parents and 4-H

By Elaine LaBaume

Parents and 4-H'ers came together this past Saturday for the biggest event of the entire 4-H year, the "4-H Achievement Awards Banquet." If you were an invited guest or a 4-H family and you were unable to attend, you missed one of the largest and most rewarding banquets that has been held in several years. You also missed barbequed brisket and beans prepared by the ABC Cookers of Floydada and all of the trimmings prepared by "Parents and 4-H'ers."

Each 4-H'er that returned their projects/activities form back to the agents office, received a certificate and year pin. Parents that turned their forms in were also recognized. Top awards are then presented to the 4-H'ers that have excelled and achieved throughout the year. In the words of Billy Colston from Floydada, "These awards are 'earned,' not 'given.'" The 4-H'er has to work as an individual, with the agents, the leaders and parents. If your child was an award winner, then you and your 4-H'er are to be congratulated.

We have begun a new 4-H year. Let's, as parents, vow to ourselves now that we are going to get more involved and help our Floyd Co. 4-H'ers have an even more successful 4-H year.

Call or drop by the agents' office and ask them what you can do. Sit down with your 4-H'er/4-H'ers and help them choose projects and set goals.

Don't forget — Lockney 4-H Meeting - Monday, Oct. 26, 7:30 p.m.

More next week.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

After reading Mr. J.D. Ritche's letter, I must take a pen in hand, the first time in my life other than for family and friends, and give my side to the issue of the new format at KKAP.

I applaud and extend my congratulations to Mr. Bob Alldredge for having the good sense of non-interference in the programming of Mr. Steve Langston. Mr. Langston has my backing for going against what must be popular opinion, because he knows there are people like me out there in radio land.

I am a true child of the West Texas Plains, my Father being a Methodist Minister made us true travelers of the Plains. All my life people were either partial to "Country Music" or as we called it in my day "Pop Music." There were of course crossing over of that line to a certain extent by both sides, but nothing strayed very far from home base. I developed my preference in "Pop Music" here on the South Plains especially the years at the end of World War II when I was about 8 years old. That was the age of Big Bands and they were in full swing. Also the wonderful music of the 30's and 40's.

Contrary to what people believe this music lasted well into the 50's. I never heard of Buddy Holly until the 60's, after he was long gone and Elvis was just someone that got his Cadillac torn up by fans when he came to Lubbock.

I had my 50th birthday this year and received a collection of 4 tapes with the big band sound. I have my fingers crossed that they will not wear out before I do. I had given up all hope of ever hearing my kind of music again and you can't imagine the joy I felt when KKAP made their announcement. So I beg all the good people of Floydada please by all means listen to the music of your youth (there are other stations) but let us have KKAP it is our last hope. We have no other choice.

Sincerely,
God's blessing on everyone,
Judy Howard

Dear J.D.,

Thanks for your concerned citizen letter last week to the Hesperian concerning the All-New KKAP FM&AM, BIG BAND/LIGHT JAZZ/EASY LISTENING format. We all need to be reminded from time to time that many different kinds of music appeal to various listening audiences. And though I myself enjoy most all music except hard rock, I realize some persons enjoy only country music, rock music, or "whatever."

The last few days, I have personally had 62 people tell me they "love" the All-New KKAP FM&AM. J.D., come by to see the list, I'll be happy to show it to you. And I will also be happy to tell you about our poll. Maybe I can answer your other questions while we visit.

Sincerely,
Bob Alldredge
Owner-KKAP FM&AM

Dear Jim:

I want to thank you and your fine staff at The Hesperian for your promotion and coverage of our Heart Association's Food Festival Week. Your interest and cooperation helped make this project a big success.

Sincerely,
Tom Farris

Floydada misses brass ring

Commerce had worked jointly on the attempt to have a minimum security prison located two miles south of town. Numerous hours went into the project.

Doyle Walls, chairman of the fund raising committee, told The Hesperian that the drive for pledges was incomplete due to Floydada being eliminated from consideration before the drive was completed.

Walls expresses appreciation to volunteers who worked on contacting pledges and to "the citizens of Floydada" who pledged financial assistance to purchase land had Floydada's proposal been accepted. Although Floydada will not be the home of a state prison, Walls believes the project was successful in that community residents worked together diligently. He believes that if this attitude continues Floydada will be successful in a future endeavor to attract additional employment.

Lake report

Glenn Maddox and Rod Haseloff of Amarillo brought in three nice bass on Monday, October 19. They caught two 1 1/2 pound and one 2 pound black bass using a pig and jig, crank bait and a black worm in the main part of the lake according to lake spokesmen.

Have a good week!

Eastern Star bestows pins for membership

In its regular meeting, Floydada Chapter #31, Order of the Eastern Star met at the Masonic Hall with the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, Flora and M.J. McNeill, presiding.

Plans were discussed concerning Grand Chapter of Texas, O.E.S., which will be held in Dallas this month. Also the officers and membership were reminded of the School of Instruction to be held in Plainview Nov. 19.

On Wednesday, Nov. 18, at Arch Keys Masonic Lodge, and informal dinner will be served honoring the school officers which include: Mrs. Sherrill Cain, Worthy Grand Matron of Colvert; Mr. B.J. Hulson, Worthy Grand Patron of Brownfield; Mrs. Faye Murphy, Grand Examiner of Abilene; Mrs. Sara Crowder, District Deputy Grand Matron of Abilene and Mrs. Belinda Goode, Deputy Grand Matron of Happy.

A special event for the evening was the recognition of members who had been members of the Order for 25, 35, 40, 45, 50, 60 and 70 years. Mrs. Katie Johnston of Missouri was recognized as a 70 year member but was unable to attend. Mrs. Cleo Goins received a 60 year pin which was presented to her by her daughter, Mrs. Jo V Bingham while Geneva Griffin was given her 50 year recognition when her husband pinned her with the 50 year pin. Those receiving 45 year pins were Hazel and Hershaw Swepston and Mr. J.A. Colston's pin was received in his absence by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sherry Colston.

Flora and M.J. McNeill received 40 year pins while others unable to be present were: Mrs. Frankie Berry, Mrs. Marjorie Davis, Mr. P.L. Hart, Mrs. Dorothy Lowe and Mrs. B.A. Robertson.

25 year pins were to be presented to Mr. Lyndal Carey, Mrs. Martha Carey and Mrs. Elaine Forbes.

Mailbox vandalism - everyone loses

Through rain, sleet, snow, or dead of night the U.S. Mail gets delivered to postal customers across the nation. The elements of nature don't stop letter carriers from getting the mail into a customer's mailbox, but sometimes mailbox vandalism does.

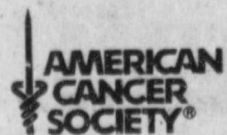

Mailbox vandalism comes in a variety of shapes and sizes from the placement of objects inside the mailbox to the actual theft or destruction of the mail receptacle. Letter carriers and customers have reported finding bottles, snakes, snails, food, trash, and even small animals inside their mailboxes. These items are usually easily removed and do not disrupt the delivery of mail. On the other hand, firecrackers, shotgun pellets, baseball bats, rocks, and even an occasional pickup truck usually do enough damage to cause an interruption in mail service until the box is repaired or replaced. Beyond the damage to the boxes, which costs the postal customer time and money to repair or replace, mailbox vandalism sometimes causes the loss or destruction of valuable and important mail.

U.S. Mail receptacles and the mail inside are protected by Federal law from theft, damage, and destruction. The violations are felonies which carry penalties of between three to five years imprisonment and/or fines between $1,000 and $2,000.

Through the years it has been discovered that the vast majority of incidents of mailbox vandalism are the result of juveniles playing pranks. Juveniles, those under the age of 18, cannot be prosecuted in Federal court, so frequently, even though vandalism is a Federal offense, the local sheriff or police are called upon to investigate. They can respond quickly and usually have a good idea which individuals are most likely to be involved. In addition, juveniles can be prosecuted for vandalism of mailboxes under the State law concerning criminal mischief.

The best way to prevent the destruction and vandalism of mailboxes is through education. Parents with young children should take a few moments to explain the importance of an individual's mail to them. They should also let their older children know that what may be intended as a harmless prank is actually against the law and that everyone involved loses; the prankster who can end up in jail; the customer who has to pay for the repair or replacement of the damaged mailbox and mail; and the community who pays the local sheriff or police to investigate the incident.

It's your mail - protect it. Any act of vandalism or information concerning vandalism of mailboxes should be immediately reported to the local sheriff or police and to your local postmaster.

35 year members are Mrs. Ruth Daniel and Mr. Wayne Russell.

At the conclusion of the meeting a memorial service was conducted for Charley Berry who passed away on October 6. Assisting the Worthy Matron was Mrs. Geneva Griffin, Marshall and Mrs. Ruth Daniel, Chaplain with Bobby Rainer presenting special music.

A bountiful refreshment table was served by the hosts for the evening: Bill and Dell Gray, Jimmy and Mary Ann Kelley and Jo Davis.

Anne McGhee observes 90th birthday Oct. 11th

Anne Marble McGhee celebrated her 90th birthday Sunday, October 11, 1987 in Plainview.

Anne Marble was born October 13, 1897 at Farmersville, Texas. Her parents were Frederick Lee and Elizabeth Ford Marble.

Brothers and sisters Leon, Hugh, Horace, Ruby, Velma, Faye and Feddie moved in 1921 from Farmersville and settled in the Roseland community, east of Lockney.

Anne married Cleveland Jones McGhee on August 17, 1924 in Plainview.

They raised two children, William Frederick (Bill) and Cleve Ann. Cleve died in 1957 and Anne continues to live in Plainview.

Family and friends gathered at the Holiday Inn in Plainview Sunday. The room was decorated in pink and white

Harmony meets in Murry home

By Maye Williams
The Harmony Home Extension Club met October 12 in the home of Imelda Murry for the regular meeting.

Vice president Arvie Schulz called the meeting to order in the absence of the president. The hostess read the scripture from Psalms 19:8.

Roll call was answered by "A talent I wish I had developed."

In announcements, council was postponed until the fourth Thursday. Community meeting was Oct. 15 with a potluck supper and election of officers.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The club decided to sell pecans at $3.50 per lb. If anyone is interested call a member of Harmony Extension Club.

Vivian Curtis made a report on the State meeting which was in Fort Worth. Anna Maude Hopper gave the pro-

Triple L Club officers recognized

The Triple L (Live Long and Like It) Club of First Baptist Church met for October in the fellowship hall for their monthly luncheon.

The tables were beautifully decorated in a harvest motif by Wanda Turner, Peggy Medley, Dorothy Holland, Letha Mulder and Myria Dade who also served as hostesses.

Bill Smith, minister of music and youth, led in prayer of thanks for the food, after which a delicious meal was enjoyed.

Pat Ford, minister of education, and Triple L Club coordinator, then conducted a short business session. He recognized the new officers for the coming year: President Peggy Medley, Vice President Alma Rape and Secretary Frieda Simpson.

Reports were called for from the various committees and these were brought by Thelma Jones, Nettie Adams and Beulah Denison.

Mary Wilson, birthday chairman, read the names of those having birthdays this month, and "Happy Birthday" was sung to Ethel Hambright, Beulah Denison and Nettie Adams. Mary then read a delightful poem, "Be Cheerful."

HELEN LIPHAM

Indian heritage shared by Lipham

Floydada Senior Citizens heard a program on Indian heritage last Thursday at their regular monthly luncheon. Program chairman, Peggy Medley, introduced Mrs. Fred (Helen) Lipham of Floydada, half Choctaw Indian, who told of her father and his kinsmen's early day life in eastern Oklahoma, where she was born.

Mrs. Lipham said she was one of 11 children born to Willie Wall Thomas and Joe Lee Thomas. Her mother, who now resides in Plainview, is author of a book, "Lyrics, Willie's Songs in Poems Fashion." The talent was evidently passed along to Mrs. Thomas' daughter, because she is now writing songs. Several of these were presented during the program by Mrs. Lipham, accompanying herself on the banjo, another music fete she has just recently undertaken.

The songs written by Mrs. Lipham are mostly of her love of God. She does a lot of mission work, her most recent was a trip to the Orient including communist China. She is a member of Bible Baptist Church in Floydada.

The speaker said she has kept up with the traditions of the Choctaw Indians and will always be proud of her heritage, a knowledge she has passed down to her children and grandchildren.

After the program, those present viewed family pictures of the Thomas family displayed by Mrs. Lipham, as well as her Indian attire and jewelry and the rattlesnake headband made by her son, Arnold, who was killed in a car accident several years ago.

Prior to a bountiful meal, Elizabeth Armstrong, newly elected president of Senior Citizens, presided over a brief business session. Prayer was voiced by Nettie Adams. Birthday honorees for October were named by Rebecca Smith.

All senior citizens and guests are extended an invitation to join those at the center each third Thursday of the month, bring a dish for the luncheon and enjoy a good program and a time of fellowship.

School counselor speaks to club on self-responsibility

The 1956 Study Club met in the home of Rosemary Finley Tuesday, Oct. 13. Co-hostesses for the evening were Suzanne Wyrick and Cyndi Williams.

Sheree Cannon, Floydada Independent Schools counselor, presented the program on self-responsibility with an emphasis on teenage pregnancy. She gave several statistics concerning this problem and shared some ideas she hopes to incorporate in the schools.

During the business meeting, plans were discussed concerning the Tater Bake to be held Oct. 30. Members will offer chili, ham, cheese, broccoli and cheese, sour cream and butter toppings, salad, bread sticks and homemade pies will accompany the meal. Tickets are $3.50 for adults, $2.00 for children and are available from any 1956 club member or at the door.

Members present for the meeting were: Kathy Becker, Rozanne Bishop, Sheree Cannon, Judy Dunlap, Rosemary Finley, Jeanie Ford, Penny Gies-ecke, Sherry Hale, Darlynn Hambright, Donna Henderson, Janet Lloyd, Patti Miller, Judy Schach, Treva Simpson, Jan Thompson, Cyndi Williams, Suzanne Wyrick and Leora Younger. Guest for the evening was Lou Ann Schaffner.

Six residents observe birthdays

By Lorilla Bradley

October's bright blue weather
With lovely, pleasant days...
Just makes us want a party
For some very special days!

Our Mrs. Powell we're greeting
...Her years are 84...
And let us say she's ready
For many, many more!

For Mrs. Hall we're wishing
A very happy day...
She always is so friendly...
...But then, that's just her way!

Salutes to Mrs. Birchfield
...Her years are 91...
But don't let numbers fool you...
She is still for having fun.

Mrs. Della Halencak
...She counts from '91...
Is still a spritly lady
She'll beat you "on the run"!

We greet our Mrs. Morrison

Who wears a friendly smile...
And she will visit with you
So stop and chat awhile.

We welcome Mrs. Smitherman
At this her special time...
Though she has slowed a little
A party is always fine!

Let's serenade these ladies
With the good old Birthday Song...
So everybody ready
And sing out good and strong!

Thursday, Oct. 15, was party time at the Rest Home. Ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosted the occasion.

The Hesperian photographer came for the "picture taking" after which everyone was ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor" table. Their places were marked with special cards and each lady wore a fresh corsage compliments of Williams Flower and Card Shop. Some of the ladies "sporting" an extra corsage given by a friend or relative. The table was laid with a white cloth with a centerpiece of silk flowers in a brass urn. The poem was read and all joined in singing the Happy Birthday song.

These ladies boasted a total of 507 years and they are still "counting"! A delicious refreshment plate of pineapple and/or apple upside-down cake and angel food cake along with a tangy fruit punch was served to the honorees, home residents, guests and employees.

Visiting with Mrs. Hall were Delsey Bradford, Edna Patton, Dee Owens and Mrs. Beady. With Mrs. Halencak were members of her family, Julia Connell, Alice Cook, Faye Pope, Jo Bryant, Nila Ball and sons, John and Brian. Mrs. Morrison welcomed her daughter Virginia Cage. Ruth Smitherman was joined by her husband Ernest, Joe Wester visited her mother Mrs. Powell and Jessie Stewart with Bennie Wilson. We were very happy to have had our guests and we invite you to join your friends and loved ones when their special time is being celebrated.

The next party will be Thursday, Nov. 19, 2:30 p.m. You are invited.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

I guess that you have noticed all the decorations floating around at the Nursing Home this week, some remarked that it looked like an October Fest. The pumpkins, gourds, etc. have been extra good and pretty this fall. The residents enjoy seeing the pumpkins and squash, that are sitting around.

Monday was beauty shop day, as Dolores came to do the ladies' hair, especially all the birthday girls, we had six with birthdays in October. We had our usual morning juice and coffee break and at 10:30, Mrs. Nettie Adams came to visit Mrs. Iva Benson, so we asked her to share the word with us, so she shared the story about Jonah and the whale. We enjoyed it very much. At 2:00 the residents had art, they made paper pumpkins to put on their doors or in their room.

Bro. Neeley couldn't make it Tuesday and I took that day off too. Wednesday Bro. Earl Blair came for the devotion. He spoke on Phil. 4:6 about joy and strength of the Lord. At 2:00 p.m. the residents played Bingo. Angelina came and called out the numbers. Those playing were: Oda Birchfield, Myra Hall, Della Halencak, Ruth Benson, Iva Wells, Charles Breeding, Maude Galloway, Thelma Hoffman, Opal Morrison, Brooks Callaway.

Friday was "Happy Boss Day." Think that we all surprised Steve with the message. We would like to welcome a new resident, Carrie Cline.

A thought: "Worry is like a rocking chair, it gives you something to do, but gets you no where."

Thanks go out to the Alpha Sigma Upsilon Club and the Companions 'n' Caring for the ceramics funds. A surprise birthday party was given to Doug Wolford by Tina Verone, Angelina Reynolds and Myra Hall. Guests present were Kaye Christian, John Burns, Wanda Prescott, Chris Bretas, Angelina Verone and Michael Verone.

This week's visitors were: E.P. Smitherman, Alice Cook, Faye Pope, Abernathy; Julie and Melton Connell, Waco; Nila Ball and sons, Plainview; Lucille Daniel, Quetha Roberson, LaJuana Turner, Bessie Wilson, Willie Smith, May Sue, Frances Badgett, Cole Paschall, Paducah; Ola Smith, Alan Benson, Mel and Marjorie Holcomb, Jon and Christina Lyles, Lucille Sisson, Rudolph McCurdy, Myria Dade and Hazel Bradley.

Friday we had our usual coffee and juice break. At 10:30 we had our devotion. The ladies from the First Baptist Church came and shared, Mrs. Letha Mulder, Evelyn Latta and Mrs. Lillian Ross. Thanks ladies we appreciate you. At 1:30 the residents went to Plainview on the bus ride. Those going were: Iva Wells, Opal Morrison, Maude Galloway, Della Halencak, Florence Curry, Charles Breeding and Brooks Callaway. McDonald's treated the resident's to ice cream. We want to thank B.A. Robertson for the sack of turnips he brought in.

Friday was the monthly birthday party. The dining room was decorated with orange and black crepe paper, balloons and Autumn harvest colors. The ladies of the Church of Christ served the honorees, cake and punch. Those having birthdays this month were: Oda Birchfield, Myra Hall, Della Halencak, Opal Morrison, Maude Powell and Ruth Smitherman. Those visiting Myra were: Edna Patton, Mattie West, Beady Owens, Della's daughter Julie and Melton Connell of Waco, Alice Cook, sister, Abernathy, and her daughter Faye Pope, Abernathy, Nila Ball, granddaughter, and her two sons of Plainview, Johnathan and Brian, and daughter, Jo Bryant; Opal Morrison, her daughter, Virginia Cage, Maude Powell, her daughter, Jo Wester, Ruth Smitherman, her husband, Ernest. A lot of visiting, picture taking were enjoyed by all the families present. Mrs. Jessie Stewart visited her sister Bennie Wilson. Thanks everyone for coming out to the party.

Cedar Hill News

By Carl Lemons

Monday, October 19:
CROP COMMENTS: Hay work has been the big field activity this past week. A few soybean samples have gone to the elevator, but full soybean harvest is still a week to ten days away. Pinto beans are showing a few snaps now but most are smaller. Wheat fields are greening rapidly and a good settling rain would anchor roots so that grazing could begin. Open boles are climbing higher and higher on the cotton stalks, some can be seen by just looking across the fields.

I must apologize for my 24 hour miss on the frost forecast. I can only say that I am quite new in the forecasting business, but hindsight tells me that buds on the broomweed that Junior Taylor brought on August 16 were cracked just enough to make out the color of the petals. They would have been fully open the next day, so naturally that threw my forecast off 24 hours. Albert Mize would not have made that 24 hour mistake. We youngsters could have learned a lot sitting at the feet of masters such as Albert.

The arts and crafts show in Plainview's Ag-Building was attended by local residents Imogene Fortenberry, Edna Gilly, and Martha and Junior Taylor on Sunday afternoon.

Fifty-five people showed up at the church hayride and weiner roast last Friday night. It was definitely jacket and sweater weather with adults standing near the huge roasting fire and turning themselves more than the weiners were being turned, discussing crops and the gyrations of the Dow Jones. Young people and small fry were too busy with volleyball and the playground equipment to be aware of the chilly weather.

On Monday, October 12, Junior and Martha Taylor joined other weed district directors for a trip to a weed control symposium on Galveston Island. The schedule allowed time for a tour of the island's outstanding features. From being a strong hold for early day gulf pirates the island has progressed so that it is now protected from Gulf hurricanes by a tremendous seawall. Land in the low lying portions of the island has been raised as much as eight feet with sand pumped up from the ocean floor.

Junior Taylor testifies that air hijackings and terrorism would disappear from the face of the earth if all airport security was as thorough as that at Houston's International Airport. Even though he passed the metal detectors in Galveston without incident he was repeatedly called back for re-checking by Houston's airport personnel. On his last trip through the regular detector, this time without cast or belt, the device still classed him as suspect. With amazing speed a security guard had him in custody, a thorough frisking was performed, and special sensing equipment was brought in and used for further checking. Tests, using the new equipment, indicated that Junior was "clean" and he was released to rejoin the flight to Lubbock.

In order to keep people like Junior around maybe we should all enthusiastically support Floyd County's minimum security prison program. However some computer or other high-tech device would probably class Junior as a hard case, not eligible for minimum security.

Sylvia Yeary from the Lockney Care Center was in charge of the grocery cart as she and daughter-in-law Wilma were shopping Lockney's Pay-n-Save last Saturday. A short visit with her and you get a new taste of the dry humor of Sylvia Yeary and her ability to turn a clever phrase.

Preston Vick, along with grandmothers, Patsy and Gladys, was on his way back to his family, Paula and brother, Patrick Vick in Fort Worth Monday morning. He visited here and in Plainview for the last ten days.

Walton Wilson brought daughter and son-in-law, Mary Ann and Jim Mallard, on a renew acquaintance trip to Cedar Hill last Tuesday. They have been teaching in a Kentucky school that is affiliated with the Baptist denomination.

Even if you are on the right track you will get run over if you just sit there.

Great Pumpkin is coming to town!
Oh, you better not shriek, you better not groan,
You better not howl, you better not moan,
Great Pumpkin is coming to town!
He's going to find out from folks that he meets,
Who deserves tricks and who deserves treats,
Great Pumpkin is coming to town!
He'll search in every pumpkin patch,
Haunted houses far and near,
To see if you've been spreading gloom
Or bringing lots of cheer.
So, you better not shriek, you better not groan,
You better not howl, you better not moan,
Great Pumpkin is coming to town!

Pumpkin Wonderland
Screech owls hoot, are you list'nin'?

device would probably class Junior as a hard case, not eligible for minimum security.

Sylvia Yeary from the Lockney Care Center was in charge of the grocery cart as she and daughter-in-law Wilma were shopping Lockney's Pay-n-Save last Saturday. A short visit with her and you get a new taste of the dry humor of Sylvia Yeary and her ability to turn a clever phrase.

Preston Vick, along with grandmothers, Patsy and Gladys, was on his way back to his family, Paula and brother, Patrick Vick in Fort Worth Monday morning. He visited here and in Plainview for the last ten days.

Walton Wilson brought daughter and son-in-law, Mary Ann and Jim Mallard, on a renew acquaintance trip to Cedar Hill last Tuesday. They have been teaching in a Kentucky school that is affiliated with the Baptist denomination.

Even if you are on the right track you will get run over if you just sit there.

Beneath the moon, all is glist'nin'
A real scary sight, we're happy tonight,
Waitin' in a pumpkin wonderland.
In the patch, we're watching for Great Pumpkin.
We've been waiting for this night all year,
For we've tried to be nice to everybody
And to grow a pumpkin patch that is sincere!
Later on, while we're eating, what we got trick-or-treating,
We'll share all our sacks of Halloween snacks,
Waitin' in a pumpkin wonderland!

I'm Dreaming of The Great Pumpkin
I'm dreaming of the Great Pumpkin
Just like I do this time each year;
When he brings nice toys to good girls and boys
Who wait for him to appear.

The Twelve Days of Halloween
On the twelfth day of Halloween
My true love gave to me - Twelve bats a-flying,
Eleven masks a-leering,
Ten ghouls a-groaning,
Nine ghosts a-booming,
Eight monsters shrieking,
Seven pumpkins glowing,
Six goblins gobbling,
Five SCAREY SPOOKS,
Four skeletons,
Three black cats,
Two trick or treaters,
And an owl in a dead --- tree!

Pumpkin Bells
Dashing through the streets
In our costumes bright and gay,
To each house we go
Laughing all the way.
Halloween is here
Making spirits bright
What fun it is to trick or treat
And sing Pumpkin carols tonight!
Oh, Pumpkin bells, Pumpkin bells,
Ringing loud and clear,
Oh what fun Great Pumpkin brings
When Halloween is here!

Deck The Patch
Deck the patch with orange and black,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Take along your goodie sack,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Don we now our gay apparel,
Fa la la , la la la, la, la,
Troll the ancient Pumpkin carol,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

See the Great One rise before us
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
As we sing the Pumpkin chorus
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Follow him as he ascends
Fa la la, la la la, la, la, la,
Join with true Great Pumpkin friends
Fa la la la la, la la la la!

Oct. 22:
The Howard Bishops, Pete Calloways and the Bob Teals of Lubbock all met at Floydada Saturday evening for a fish dinner at Pizza Gold. The three ladies, all sisters, had a nice visit as well as all enjoying a good meal.

Mrs. Buell Neff has a new set of license plates on her car after someone helped themselves to her Texas Sesquicentennial front plate. The Lubbock paper reports people are getting their plates stolen over there too.

Charlie Wright has been dismissed from his physical therapy treatment sessions, after his heart surgery, some weeks ago. He has been able to attend church and enjoys seeing friends and week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Monte Williams visited the men's mother, Mrs. Q.D. Williams, Thursday evening at Lubbock General Hospital after her knee surgery that morning. Other relatives who visited along with Q.D., included her father and sister from Truscott, Edgar Jones and Mrs. Clara Brown. A niece, Miss Lou Lee, came by to visit after her classes at Spade school were over. Mrs. Elizabeth Wright taught Mrs. Williams classes during her hospital days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams took flowers to the family of Van and Andy Branson, father and infant son, who were killed in a car wreck near Wolforth Tuesday evening. The mother and another son were also at Lubbock General Hospital with serious injuries. Mrs. Cyndi Williams attended the funeral services at Sudan on Friday. Her sister, Mrs. Jill Branson, is sister-in-law to the deceased. The 26-year-old father and his year old son were buried together in the same casket. The young mother was allowed to attend the funeral service but is still receiving treatment at the hospital. The family's automobile was demolished by a speeding drunk driver.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mooseberg attended a monthly fellowship Sunday evening after services at the City Park Church of Christ.

David and Warren Bishop spent Friday night with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bishop. Their father, Mike, brought them out for the visit.

Lakeview Junior High football players have enjoyed good scores this season. Our Lakeview players include: Nathan Whittle, Brandon Harrison, Jeremy Foster, Jason Pyle, and Rance Gollightly. Good luck, boys.

Mrs. Georgia Mae Smith Erickson will be honored Friday, Oct. 23, as a distinguished alumni of Texas Tech University, at a reception at 6:30 p.m. followed by a dinner at 7:30 at the University Center Foyer and ballroom. All friends are invited to attend and wish her well.

Congratulations to Charley and Flukie Smith upon their 50th wedding anniversary. The couple was honored at Amarillo Sunday by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Choise Smith, Dean and Hunter, Floydada, and Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, Tal and Tiki Jackson of Spearman. Flukie is a grandson of the late Hank Smith, pioneer of Blanco Canyon. The Flukie Smiths lived at the historic Rock House in Blanco Canyon for many years. Since retirement, they now live in Lubbock.

And to the newest generation of the Hank Smith descendants, best wishes to little Zachery Cole Green, son of Kathy and Jerry Green of Lubbock. Zachery Cole's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Hambricht of Floydada and Mrs. Leora Green of Veelmore. Mrs. Viola Brown and Mrs. Ethel Hambricht, both of our community, are the great-grandmothers.

Stocker cattle operators offered help

Ideas and information to help stocker cattle operators improve their economic opportunities will be presented by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in a seminar October 27 in Crosbyton.

Operators in Crosby and neighboring counties will meet October 27 in the Pioneer Memorial Building in Crosbyton. The program will begin at 9 a.m. The program is free and lunch will be provided, said Dr. John McNeill, Extension beef cattle specialist and seminar coordinator.

Vaccination recommendations for stocker cattle will be discussed by Dr. Dee Griffin, veterinarian with Pioneer Hybrid International. He will cover diseases to vaccinate against, use of modified live or killed products, and reasons some vaccinations fail.

Effective use of antibiotics will be the topic of Dr. Larry Hollis, veterinarian with Syntex Animal Health. He will cover treatment of shipping fever, antibiotic sensitivity tests, and extra label drug use.

Tips on cattle buying and selling will be provided by Ed Wright, Amarillo cattle buyer, and John Kuker, of Cann-Roach, Amarillo. They will explain use of forward contracting, kinds of cattle feedlots and packers want, and condition.

After lunch, McNeill will discuss cost effective management techniques. Among these will be parasite control, implement programs, supplement feeding on wheat pasture and bloat control.

Griffin and Hollis then will explain what can be learned from a necropsy.

Technical service personnel from several companies then will discuss products available from stocker operators. They will conduct a live animal demonstration on proper use of these products.

District maintains policy to plug abandoned wells

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 maintains an open hole program to plug abandoned wells in an attempt to avoid accidents like the one in Midland where 18-month-old Jessica McClure fell 20 feet into an uncovered water well.

While Midland is not in the High Plains Water District's service area, there have been two such accidents reported in the water district since 1951. Luckily, both children involved emerged unharmed.

"We strongly urge anyone who may have an abandoned well on their property to make sure it is properly covered. In many cases uncovered or improperly covered wells may have been abandoned for some time or forgotten," officials say.

Open well holes pose a danger to humans and animals alike. Open holes can also provide a direct route for pollution to enter the Ogallala Aquifer, which supplies domestic, municipal, industrial and irrigation water to much of the High Plains.

Both state law and High Plains Water District rules require abandoned wells to be properly covered at all times.

For information concerning abandoned wells and regulations for plugging them, contact the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1, 2930 Avenue Q, Lubbock, Texas 79405, or call (806) 762-0181.

Smiths finalists in Farm Bureau state young farmers competition

Dan B. Smith and wife Reeda Cay of Lockney have been selected from 13 district winners as finalists, along with two other couples, in the 1987 Texas Farm Bureau Outstanding Young Farmer and Rancher Award competition. Nominations are submitted by county agencies and are then passed on to the state level.

The other two finalist couples include Charles and Janyth Bowers of Pampa (Gray County) and Clyde and Patricia Chandler of Rosebud (Falls County).

All three finalist couples will be attending the 1987 Texas Farm Bureau Convention in Lubbock, November 29 through December 2, where the state winner will be announced.

The state winner will receive one year's free use of a half ton Ford pickup, compliments of Bird-Kultgen Ford Co. of Waco. Also the winner and his wife will attend the American Farm Bureau Federation's annual meeting January

Williams delegate to Angus meeting

Jerry D. Williams, Lockney, has been elected as a delegate to the 104th Annual Meeting of the American Angus Association, November 15-17 in Louisville, Kentucky, reports Richard Spader, executive vice president of the American Angus Association.

Williams, a member of the American Angus Association with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri, is one of some 275 Angus breeders who have been elected by fellow members of their state association to serve as a representative at the Annual Meeting. At this time, the state delegates will participate in the business meeting and elect a new president, vice president and five directors to the American Angus Association Board.

The Annual Meeting is held in conjunction with the Annual Convention and Banquet, and the 1988 National Angus Show 10-14 in New Orleans.

All three of the finalists will receive an expense-paid trip to a leadership seminar in Washington, D.C., in March of 1988. Each of the 13 district winners, which include the Smiths, receives a plaque and $100 toward the purchase of a pair of new boots.

Smith, who has been farming since he was 20 years old, manages a 1500 acre operation which is centered in the Lone Star/Sterley community area. Included in his operation are crops of cotton, seed milo, wheat, and corn. At the time of the nomination he also had 50 head of ewes and lambs and 100 head of feeder cattle.

In addition to his farming interests, Smith who is 33 years old, is an active member of Texas Farm Bureau. Locally, he is the president of Floyd County Farm Bureau, an office he also held during the 1982-83 year. In 1985, he served as the chairman of the Young Farmer and Rancher Advisory Committee, and he served on the TFB Resolutions committee. And in 1986 he was appointed to the TFB Blue Ribbon Goals Committee. Smith's involvement in the Farm Bureau organization dates back some 10 years.

He also serves on the Agriculture Advisory Committee for Congressman Beau Boulter.

Smith is also active in the Lockney community. He is presently the mayor of the City of Lockney, elected to this office in April of this year. Previous to his election to the mayor's seat, he was an alderman for the city, a post to which he was elected in April of 1986. Additionally, Smith is a long time member of the Lockney Rotary Club. In the past he served as the vice president of the club and he currently serves as the president of that civic organization.

Smith is a 1972 graduate of Lockney High School and a 1976 graduate of Texas Tech University with a degree in Agriculture Economics with an emphasis on management.

Reeda Cay Lawson Smith is also active in the Lockney community. She presently serves as an officer of the Lockney P.T.A. and she assists with the Lockney Girl Scout organization. She is also an active member of Pi Pi Pi Sorority Study Club.

Mrs. Smith was graduated from Lockney High School in 1973 and later graduated from Texas Tech University with a degree in secondary education. She is a substitute teacher in the Lockney school system.

Dan and Reeda Cay were married in 1976 and they have two daughters, Tikka and Michelle. The family are members of the Main Street Church of Christ in Lockney.

Dan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Smith and Reeda Cay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reed Lawson, all of Lockney.

FAIR coalition adds new members, Boulter states

Twenty-two farming, mining and banking associations have joined forces to push for passage of Congressman Beau Boulter's Foreign Agricultural Investment Reform Act (FAIR) legislation.

Boulter's FAIR legislation, which would eliminate the federal government's practice of subsidizing foreign competition, has recently gained the support of thirteen additional organizations.

"In brief," Boulter said, "we are working together to stop government-supported international banks from lending U.S. tax dollars to foreign nations for the purpose of producing commodities already in surplus on world markets."

Joining the original nine members are six new farm associations: U.S. Beet Sugar Association, National Corn Growers Association, National Wool Growers Association, American Dry Pea and Lentil Association, Northwest Horticultural Council and National Sunflower Association.

In addition five mining and two banking groups have joined the FAIR Coalition, including Northwest Mining Association, Coeur d'Alene Mines, Homestake Mining Association, Asarco, Inc., and Hecla Mining Company as well as the Kansas Independent Bankers Association and the Independent Bankers of Minnesota.

"I am quite pleased by the number and diversity of our FAIR coalition," Boulter said, noting that virtually every area of agriculture was represented in the coalition.

Boulter's FAIR bill was overwhelmingly adopted by the U.S. Senate as an amendment to the Trade Bill, which is currently in a House-Senate conference. "I will be working hard to see that my bill is included in the final version of the Trade Bill," Boulter said.

The original nine members of the FAIR coalition are: American Association of Meat Processors, American Farm Bureau Federation, American Soybean Association, American Sugarbeet Growers Association, Fertilizer Institute, National Association of Wheat Growers, National Cattlemen's Association, National Grain Sorghum Producers Association and Women Involved in Farm Economics.

The House Agriculture Committee in Washington October 15 reported what it considers an appropriations measure that fulfills the demands on agriculture to do its share in meeting requirements of the Gramm-Rudman deficit reduction law. The full House is expected to consider the committee's work within ten days, possibly in the week of October 19.

Congress is struggling to pass, either in sections or in one omnibus action, a budget reconciliation bill before November 20, a date many are referring to as "drop dead day." If the House and Senate fail to agree on a budget bill that's acceptable to the President before that time, the Gramm-Rudman law will force an automatic, across-the-board spending cut of about 8.7 percent.

Of the $23 billion total budget reduction required by Gramm-Rudman, agriculture is expected to come up with savings of just over $1.2 billion. To achieve that goal the Ag Committee is proposing five actions it calculates would save about $1.5 billion. Lawmakers reason the extra $300 million is needed as a cushion against loss of one or more of the committee's proposals in subsequent legislative procedures.

The committee bill seeks to reduce advance payments, tighten the application of payment limitations, institute a "0-92" program for wheat and feed grains, mandate the sale of a billion bushels of Commodity Credit Corporation corn for non-traditional uses, and authorize a referendum to expand funding under the Cotton Research and Promotion Act.

The latter action earlier was deemed germane to budget reconciliation by the Congressional Budget Office after the National Cotton Council provided data showing the additional funds would effect government savings of $3 million in 1989 and $5 million each subsequent year. The referendum would give cotton producers the opportunity to vote on amending current law to allow collection of the cotton research and promotion assessment on the cotton content of textile imports and to repeal the refund option for all assessments.

The committee proposal for savings under the $50,000 payment limitation would deny payments to foreign farm owners and to such federal and state agencies as universities and prison farms, refuse payments to persons not "actively engaged" in farming, and limit or stop payments to some units of farm reorganizations designed as devices to avoid the limit. Significantly, the Secretary would be authorized to waive application of the new rules to the 1988 crop if necessary to ensure an orderly transition.

Under the committee bill's 0-92 proposal, producers of corn and wheat could collect 92 percent of deficiency payments without planting any of their program acreage.

While it is well known the Secretary of Agriculture doesn't intend to make advance deficiency payments in 1988, the committee proposal would require that 30 percent of grain and 20 percent of cotton payments be made in advance. Advance payments in 1987 were 40 percent for grain and 30 percent for cotton.

What goes around comes around

When you understand what soil really is—inorganic minerals plus recycled organic material teeming with active microscopic organisms—you can see why it needs feeding to stay healthy and grow healthy plants.

Compost supplies these nutrients. It also supplies organic matter that improves soil texture and drainage, helps aerate soil and replenishes the organisms that give soil its life.

Fall is a good time to start making compost for your spring garden. Keep in mind that compost doesn't just happen once you put all the right ingredients together. It is an ongoing process requiring some forethought and patience. But the results are predictable, and the final product will be your garden's best friend.

On Your Mark. A well-designed, well-built bin makes compost-making orderly and efficient. Bins can be store-bought or homemade. Whichever you choose, your compost bin should be a minimum of three feet across, round or square. Old lumber, chicken wire, clean 55-gallon drums or wooden pallets are good choices for building materials. Depending on how large a part of your life gardening is, you may want two or three bins for maximum production: one finished, full and ready for use; one partially full waiting in the wings; and one you've just started.

Compost bins need plenty of ventilation. That's because composting is like a slow-acting bonfire that turns biodegradable waste into nutrient-rich humus instead of ashes. Like flames, the billions of bacteria that break down the organic material in a compost bin need oxygen to live. Compost gets hot, too—up to 160 degrees in the middle of the bin.

Get Set. Your compost bin doesn't have to be the focus of your garden, but it should be positioned carefully. A sunny, exposed spot is best, so the bin will get light, air and water. The bin should also be easy to get to from your house, so you'll find it a convenient place to put kitchen wastes. And since you'll be using the finished compost all around your garden, a central bin location means less hauling later.

Go. A compost pile is built in layers, like a club sandwich. Start with a six-inch layer of vegetable matter (non-meat kitchen scraps, grass clippings and other green garden debris). Then add a two-inch layer of materials that aren't green (soil, dried leaves, straw or sawdust). Keep alternating layers until the bin is full. This takes time. There are no overnight successes in the world of homemade compost.

When the bin is full, turn the contents once every week or two to help speed decomposition. Don't let the contents dry out. Without moisture, the bacteria die and the composting process stops. Excess moisture is bad, too; it keeps bacteria from doing their work.

A full, moist bin, regularly turned, will biodegrade and be ready for use in 10 to 12 weeks.

Be Resourceful. The average homeowner has an endless supply of ingredients to cook up a batch of compost. Besides the usual yard and garden debris, you can add fruit and vegetable scraps, eggshells, coffee grounds and filters, paper plates, black-and-white newspapers (shredded ones break down faster), moldy bread, and leftover food. Meat products aren't recommended, because they tend to smell, attract animals and break down slowly. You should also try not to put diseased leaves or plants into your compost bin. They may come back to haunt you next season.

Critters Are OK. Compost bins attract bugs and worms. These are desirable and speed decomposition. Regular turning helps keep pest problems in check, because heat in the middle of the pile kills many seeds, insect eggs and disease organisms. Worms move naturally away from the hot center and continue their beneficial work on the edges.

Homemade compost has a sweet, earthy smell, a light and crumbly texture, and a rich brown color. It can be used as a mulch or worked directly into the soil around plants each planting season. With regular application of compost, year after year, the depth and fertility of your soil will continue to increase, along with your crop yield.

Investment program and lunch slated for Tuesday

What are investments? How will you be able to finance your child's education? What will you live off of when you retire? Where are the answers to these questions and so many others you may have about savings and investments?

The Extension Home Economics Committee is sponsoring a "Lunch & Learn" Investments Program. It will be Tuesday, October 27 from 12:15 to 1:00 at Lighthouse Electric. Bring a lunch, drinks will be provided.

Terry Woods from A.G. Edwards in Lubbock, will be in Floydada to show you some different options you can take that will help you make your savings work for you. He will show different ways you can make savings of any amount grow - the risks you may be taking and the possible outcome.

Take a look at how you can invest for your future and ways that you can get the most out of the money you are earning.

Extension programs are open to everyone regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

Hearing tests set for senior citizens

Floydada—Electronic hearing tests will be given at the Senior Citizens Center on Thursday, October 29, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Arthur Weibusch, licensed professionally trained Hearing Aid Specialist will be available to perform the tests.

Everyone should have a hearing test at least once a year—even people now wearing a hearing aid or those who have been told nothing could be done for them. Only a hearing test can determine if you are one of the many a hearing aid can help.

The free hearing tests will be given Thursday, October 29, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. at the Senior Citizens Center at 301 E. Georgia. If you can't come in, call 983-2032 for in-home service.

Winds start slow, finish fast, win 29-7

Seldom does one play win or lose a football game. But some sure change a contest's complexion.

Early in the second quarter Friday night at Wester Field, visiting Muleshoe owned a 7-0 advantage and was driving at the Floydada 13.

The talented Mules went into shotgun formation and quarterback Johnny Garcia tossed a pass. But the play misfired as a green shirt grabbed the pigskin for an interception. Chad Pernel, a heady player in anybody's book, not only made the interception but grabbed Old Mo (momentum) by the hand and guided him to the home side.

Pernel returned the ball to Muleshoe's 40 but a clip moved the ball back to the Floydada 23.

The starting point was not important to the Fighting Winds who shoved their hitherto sluggish offensive machine into high gear.

Ty Stovall, who was nursing a virus, gained first downs on runs of 12 and 11 and then carried for another to the Muleshoe 44. Quarterback Corey Bates kept for 11 steps and another new series at the 33. Halfback Kenneth Collins burst through a hole and rambled to the 10. Frank Suarez gained 5 1/2, Stovall was halted for no gain. Collins powered to the 1 1/2 and, on fourth down, Stovall took a pitch from Bates and dashed across the double stripe from the left side. Bates' PAT kick was true.

With 7:38 remaining in the half, it was deadlocked, 7-7. Moments before it appeared that the Muleshoe could have owned the scoreboard by a 14-0 count.

This was all the first half scoring, but the final two quarters were dominated by the Green and White enroute to a 29-7 victory, their second in district competition.

MULES START STRONG

Muleshoe, which controlled the ball on all except eight first quarter snaps, lined up and ran at the Whirlwinds.

They gained one first down and punted, but regained possession three snaps later as a Whirlwind pass was intercepted and returned to the Muleshoe 46.

With 195 pound tailback Michael Dunham and 182 pound fullback Armando Del Toro carrying the mail, the physically strong Mules began to roll. They posted first downs at the Floydada 42, 31, 16 and 4 before Dunham accepted a pitch from Garcia around left end on a 4 yard run which put the visitors in front with 2:02 left in quarter number one. The 15-play drive covered 54 yards. The PAT kick made it 7-0.

Halfback Stovall's 25 yard run around left end moved the Winds to the enemy 42. However, a holding call moved them back before the white shirted visitors claimed another interception, this time at their 27.

Going 62 yards in five plays, advancing to the Floydada 11, the Mules were threatening to take a commanding lead. They had dominated the favored Whirlwinds. Dunham, who was virtually unstoppable to this point, was hit hard after a 1 yard advance and Bates' shoeing tackle caused a 3 yard loss.

It was now third-and-12 as Muleshoe line up in the shotgun. But Pernel's interception turned the tide.

After the tying TD and PAT, neither offense could garner a first down in the final four minutes of the second stanza.

QUICK SCORE

The Whirlwinds, who appeared early to be a bit flat following their upset of Tulia seven days earlier, were wide awake to open the second quarter as they held Muleshoe and took a punt at the Muleshoe 46. Stovall returned 8 steps to the 38.

Fullback Johnny Taylor powered his way for 6 and Stovall gained a first at the 25 with a 7 step advance. Collins was wrapped up for no gain before David Medrano outmaneuvered a defender to grab a Bates aerial for 22 yards. He dived to the 3.

There was no stopping Taylor on the next play as he plowed through a hole by his line — center Adam Cates, guards Roel Cisneros and Greg Lawson and tackles Dana Cooper and Shane Orman — up the middle to send the Whirlwinds in front for the first time. Bates again kicked true and it was 14-7 with 8:40 to play in the third quarter.

Muleshoe, one of several strong District 2-AAA squads, was far from ready to throw in the towel. Collins ensuing kick was returned to the 31. In six snaps, they advanced to the Whirlwind 34 following an 11 yard run by Dunham. Del Toro made 0, Dunham gained 2 and Taylor hit the big tailback for no gain. A fourth down pass fell incomplete, thanks to Taylor's coverage.

The green shirts took control at their 32 and were ready to roll. Frank Suarez gained 13, Bates kept for 5, Stovall ran for 13 and Suarez made 2 more before a clip — the Winds had several devastating penalties and Muleshoe was charged with one — moved the ball back to the 46. But who cares?

After an aerial went awry, Pernel received a Bates pass and moved 27 yards to the 19. Collins garnered 10, Suarez made 2 and Stovall took a pitch 7 yards around left end for the third Floydada TD. For the third time, Bates' PAT kick was true to give the home team a 21-7 edge with 11 seconds left in the third period.

Collins, who kicked off, dealt the Muleshoe return man a mighty blow. This was typical of the Whirlwinds ferocity in the second half.

Four snaps later, the Mules called on big Dunham on a fourth-and-one. He was swarmed by green shirts and Floydada gained possession of the pighide at the Mule 36.

HOLDING PENALTIES

Despite three holding penalties during the series, the Whirlwinds drove for their fourth TD as Taylor caught a pass for 9. Bates kept for 20 yards on a beautifully executive play which went to the 13. Pernel, who deserved the game ball, worked totally free up the middle and caught a Bates pass for a 20 yard TD.

A high snap on the PAT kick attempt caused Bates to pick up the ball and scramble before spotting Pernel all alone in the end zone for two more points. It was now 29-7 and 8:15 was left in the contest.

After taking Collins' kick, Muleshoe tallied one first down. Daniel Medrano and Jason Brown — two of many defensive standouts — high-logged Dunham for a 4 yard loss, a pass fell incomplete and Daniel Medrano racked up another runner for no gain. The Mules punted to the 32 and Pernel returned 17 yards to near midfield.

First downs were gained on a 13 yard keeper by Bates, a 17 yard Bates-to-David Medrano aerial and a short gain by Collins to the 9. Floydada was in motion, then moved to the 4.

Rather than calling time out to try for six more points, the Winds let the clock wind down.

As usual, the Green and White defense shined, particularly in the last 2 1/2 quarters. The offense matched their "D" counterparts as Floydada's record for the campaign went to 6-1, assuring the guys in green their first winning season in several years.

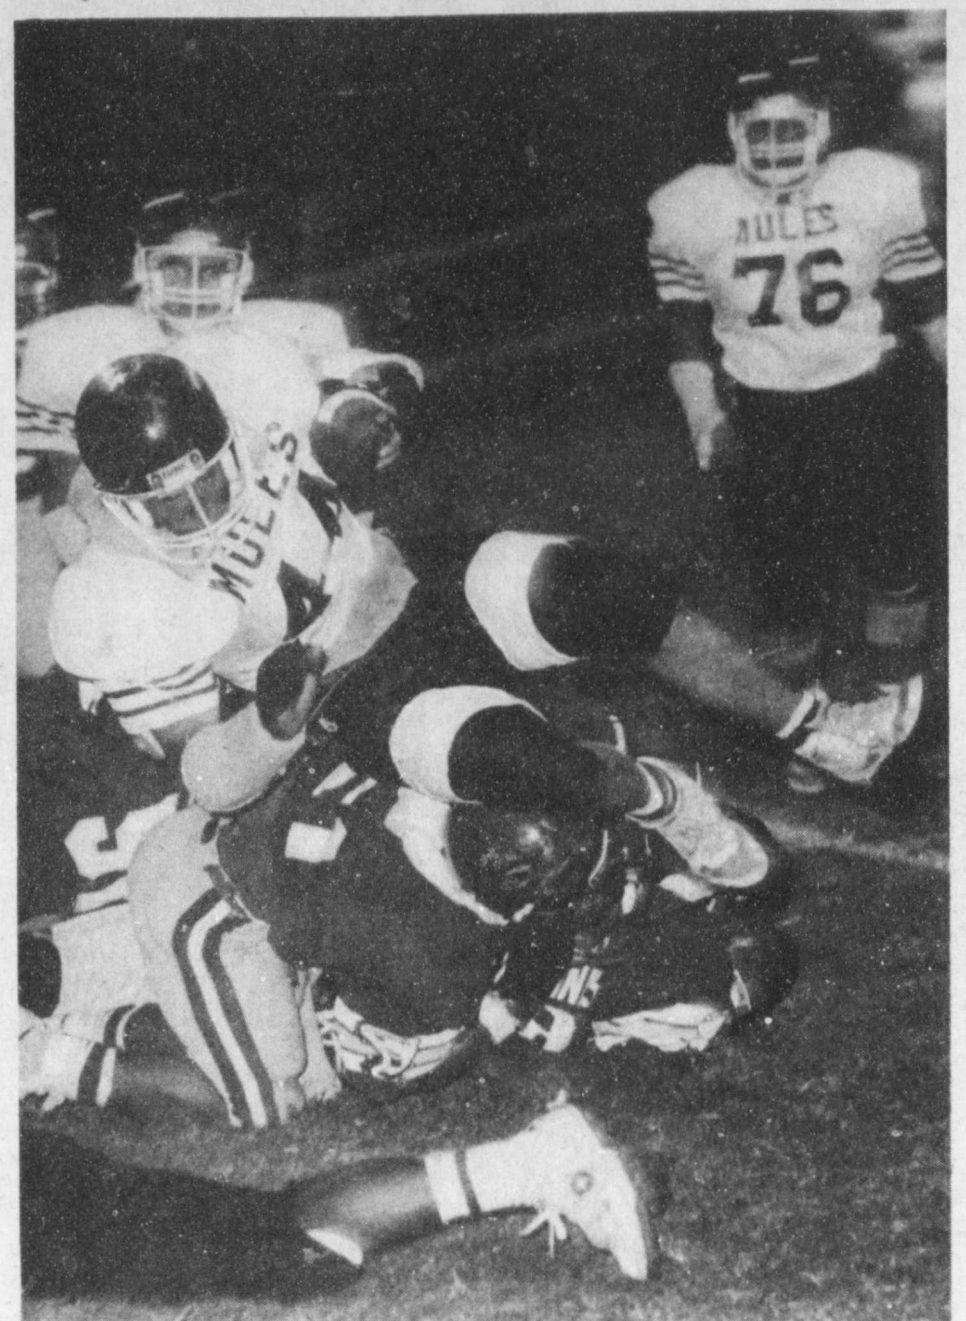

HANG ON — A Whirlwind hangs onto leg of Muleshoe's powerful Michael Dunham as other green shirts move in to secure the tackle.

District runs Saturday

Whirlwind cross country runners will head for Lubbock on Saturday morning to participate in the District 2-AAA meet. Junior varsity competition begins at 10 a.m. in Mae Simmons Park, with varsity races following.

The park is located at 19th and Quirt Avenue.

Coaches Gail Gregg and Regina Smith say that the top two teams and the top five individuals at district advance to the regional meet, which will be held Nov. 7 at Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock.

The top three teams and 10 individuals at regional earn the right to compete in state trials.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

CONTEST RULES

Any Hesperian subscriber or individual above the age of 7 who purchases a Hesperian from a newsrack is eligible to enter this newspaper's weekly football contest, except employees of Floyd County newspapers.

To play, circle on official entry form the numbers of teams you believe will win this week's games. To indicate a tie, circle both teams playing a particular game. In addition, indicate in the tie-breaker football your guess on the total number of points to be scored by the two teams listed.

The only entries considered for prizes will be those appearing on official entry forms and those brought to the Hesperian office by 5 p.m. Friday.

Three cash prizes are offered weekly. In the event of ties - the same number of correct games and equal scores on the tie breaker - prize money will be shared among those involved in the tie. The tie-breaker score will be utilized only in the event of a tie on the number of games missed.

In the contest to determine the season winner and the recipient of the two tickets to the Nov. 22 Dallas Cowboys-Miami Dolphins game in Dallas, each contestant will receive one point for each correct game selected on an official form throughout the season.

Print name and address plainly on official entry form and double check that your choices of winners have been circled.

Enter one entry per person per week. Weekly winners are limited to one per household.

Entry Deadline: 5 p.m. Friday

SEASON WINNER Earns:

2 Tickets to Cowboys-Dolphins Game on November 22!

Recipients of first and second year pins and certificates were announced by Wesley Teeter and Angie Bertrand with Kay Crabtree, county commissioner in Precinct Four, and Clar Schacht, manager of the Floyd County Farm Bureau Insurance Agency, making the presentations. The latter two men also handed pins and certificates to third through ninth year 4-H members, who were announced by Grant Cage and Loretta Turner.

Following the meal, catered by ABC Cookers, mistress of ceremonies Kelli LaBaume called on Tiffany Gentry to offer the invocation. Pledge of allegiance was led by Sharon Smith, and Gwen Lane led in citing the 4-H motto and pledge. Joel Mitchell introduced special guests.

Phillip Glasson worded the benediction. Amy Turner, Zach Nutt, Kip Holt and Chad Edwards presided at the registration table.

HONOREES RECOGNIZED

Following are statements made during introductions of special award winners:

GOLD STAR BOY

"We are now down to the final and most prestigious award that will be presented tonight. The Gold Star Award is presented each year to the 4-H members in the county who have not only been involved in a wide variety of projects and activities in their local clubs, but now have also provided leadership and made a significant contribution of time and energy to the overall county, district and statewide events that occur each year. These 4-H members are the individuals that our younger 4-H members look to for leadership and that our 4-H leaders and parents depend upon and respect for they are our nation's young leaders of tomorrow."

"Last year was the first year that a scholarship was given along with the Gold Star Award. The recipient of this award tonight will receive a $500 scholarship also."

"Our Gold Star winner has been in 4-H for eight years and has been involved in many areas of 4-H. This individual has been a leader in beef, recreation and foods projects. He has

Sherry Hale misses only three to dominate contest

Sherry Hale missed only three games in last week's Hesperian football contest to far outdistance her opponents. She receives the $10 first place check.

A half dozen contestants missed six games, and the tie-breaker again was necessary to determine winners. Floydada and Muleshoe scored 36 points.

Darbie Brooks guessed 33 as the tie-breaker score, only three points away from the exact number. This earns her the $6 second place check.

Carrie Davis and Andy Hale dead-heated for the third place money with guesses which were four away from the exact number. Ms. Davis guessed 40 points and Dr. Hale predicted 32. However, since his wife won first and rules stipulate that only one member of a household can win prize money in a given week, Ms. Davis receives the third place check.

Others with six incorrect winners and their tie-breaker scores were: Layne Kirk and Jean Hale, 28 each, and Amy McCormick, 21.

Receiving honorable mention with entries bearing only seven incorrect winners were: Gloria Vargas, Weldon Fannon, Wes Campbell, Anthony Caballero, John Campbell and Juan P. Martinez.

NEW CONTEST LEADER

Sherry Hale's outstanding entry not only gave her first place in the weekly contest but also propelled her into the season leader's role. She has 109 points.

Others remaining close include:

- Franklin Harris — 106
- Andy Hale — 105
- Deneen Marricle — 103
- Jean Hale, Travis Gentry — 102
- Wes Campbell — 101
- Mike Anderson, Amy McCormick — 100
- Paige Cannon — 99
- Dolan Hanna, Duncan Woody — 98
- Keith Marricle, Anthony Caballero — 97
- Terry Turner, Jeffrey Marler — 96
- Sammy Hale, T.L. Holland, Robert Redden — 95.

Junior Winds on Bobcat hunt today

Whirlwind junior varsity and freshmen teams will be merged during the final three weeks of their season. The combined squad will host Dimmitt in a game at 6 p.m. Thursday (today).

Local junior high teams travel to Dimmitt for two contests today, starting with the seventh grade match at 5 p.m.

MULESHOE FROSH WIN

Whirlwind and Muleshoe Mules Freshmen battled on fairly even terms for almost three quarters before the Mules broke the contest open, winning 40-14.

The homesteading Mules scored in both the first and second quarters to gain the upper hand, 12-0. Floydada closed the gap as halfback Harvey Espinoza scored the touchdown and Pete Billegas passed to Martin Ponce for the two bonus points to narrow the gap to 12-8 at half.

Muleshoe took a 20-8 edge before Espinoza added the second Floydada TD. The PAT failed and it was 20-14. After that, it was all Muleshoe.

EIGHTH BREEZERS BEAT MULESHOE 14-0

Eighth grade Breezers earned their first district win Thursday night here against Muleshoe, 14-0.

The game opened with neither team able to score during the first quarter. In the second period the Breezers managed to add 6 points to their total with a TD coming "on an excellent punt return by Speedy Cervera that covered 95 yards." The two-point conversion came up short, leaving the score 6 to 0 at the half.

During the third quarter the Mules took the opening kick and were unable to move the ball and had to punt. The Breezers took over the ball at their own 30 yard line and on runs by David Johnston, Kenneth Davis and Ruben Chavarria moved it down the field, using up the third quarter on the same drive.

Chavarria took it in for the TD on a 7 yard run around the right end. Billy Joe Villarreal passed to Johnston for the two-point conversion.

Neither team was able to put the ball in the end zone the rest of the game. Breezers won 14-0.

"I was real pleased with the kids effort," says Coach Tim James. "We are improving more and more each week."

Eighth grade Breezers own a district record of one win, no losses and one tie. Their season record is 4-1-1.

David Johnston and Quincy Johnson intercepted passes to stop Muleshoe drives.

SEVENTH GRADE WINS

Seventh grade Breezers lived up to their namesake Thursday in their second district game, winning 34-8. This brings Coach Rex Holcombe's crew to a 5-1 season and a 1-1 district mark.

Breezers held Muleshoe on downs during the first series and Floydada took over the ball. The first play from scrimmage Michael Henderson carried the ball 47 yards around right end for the opening score. The point-after attempt was good by Henderson.

The second touchdown came on a run up the middle by Scott Chatman for about 37 yards. The extra point attempt was good by Ronnie Hernandez.

With 16 seconds left in the half the Breezers' defense held and regained possession on the Floydada 1 yard line. Henderson ran around right end 99 yards for their third touchdown before the half. The extra point attempt failed. Receiving the second half kickoff, the Breezers soon scored another touchdown. Jammie Davis ran about 44 yards up the middle for the score. The final touchdown of the game was scored by Henderson. The point-after attempt by Jason Pyle fell short.

Muleshoe's long score came during the last minutes of the ball game.

"The Breezers played a good game on both sides of the ball," Coach Holcombe says.

Floydada cross country teams win championships in Saturday races

Both Floydada varsities claimed first place honors Saturday in a cross country run at the Plains Baptist Assembly, located in the canyon south of Floydada.

Seven full girls teams and four boys squads, plus individuals from other schools, participated. One hundred and 81 runners vied.

Whirlwind varsity girls scored 46 points to nip runner-up Abernathy by 5 points. Abernathy scored 51 and Dimmitt's 82 gave that school third place. Other girls scores were: fourth, Tulia, 85 points; fifth, Sudan, 126; sixth, Cooper, 130; seventh, Hart, 173; and eighth, Lockney, 214. Crosbyton and Idalou also sent runners but did not have a full team.

Tara Irlbeck of Tulia was the first to finish in the girls varsity division with a time of 11:55, and runner-up was Harmon of Dimmitt ran a 12 flat.

Angie Bertrand of Floydada placed third with a time of 12:38. Other Whirlwind varsity girls and their times: 5th, Tricia Pernell, 12:51; 7th, Blanca Medrano, 13:01; 17th, Deanna Watson, 13:15.5; 18th, Lori Christian, 13:19; 27th, Gloria Vargas, 13:28.4; 48th, Kerri Pitts, 14:22.

VARSITY BOYS

Floydada's 28 points in the boys division made it an easy victor. Runner-up Lockney had 51, third place Cooper had 67 and fourth place Crosbyton garnered 108 points. The lower score is more desirable in cross country totals.

David and Daniel Medrano crossed the line first and second to hand the Whirlwinds a strong lead. Their times were 16:24.3 and 16:24.5, respectively.

Other Wind varsity boys performers: ninth, Harvey Espinoza, 17:10; 14th, Jesse Suarez, 18:13; 20th, Jr. DeHoyas, 18:51; 24th, Carlos Riojas, 19:12.8; and 33rd, Richard Gonzales, 20:28.9

JV GIRLS

Abernathy captured the girls junior varsity division with 44 points. Other teams were: 2nd, Tulia, 82; 3rd, Cooper, 98; 4th, Sudan, 114; 5th, Floydada, 126; and 6th, Lockney, 171.

Junior high runners competed in the JV division. Coach Regina Smith points out that had the Floydada junior high girls competed as a team, rather than for individual points, they would have placed second with 75 points.

"Our junior high girls did extremely well," Coach Smith says.

Following are Floydada girls who participated in the junior varsity division (* designates junior high runners): 3rd, *Linda Suarez, 14:01; 4th, *Elisa Suarez, 14:08; 10th, *Tian Younger, 14:26.6; 11th, Angie Glasscock, 14:28; 19th, *Amanda Watson, 14:46.4; 29th, Tana Turner, 15:09; 32nd, Tiffany Gentry, 15:18; 43rd, Tonya Powell, 16:21; 44th, *Charity Arwine, 16:23; 45th, *Jo Dee Breed, 16:28; 46th, Kim Perry, 16:39; 47th, Shayla Barbee, 16:42; 49th, Pam Woody, 16:43; 51st, Noella Ysasaga, 16:44; 52nd, Jamie Morrison, 16:46; 54th, Angie Hinsley, 17:18; 55th, Shelby Ogden, 17:20; 56th, Libby Anderson, 17:21; 57th, Becky Porter, 17:30; 66th, Heather Henderson, 18:19.8; 67th, *Cindy Marley, 18:31; 68th, *Christy Rowan, 18:32; 69th, Amy Hinsley, 18:33; 70th, *Melanie Covington, 18:46; 71st, Sylvia McComas, 18:48; and 72nd, *Nickie Luna, 18:48.

All boys participated in the varsity division.

Volunteers assisted and "the meet went off smooth," Coach Gregg says. He commended Coach Smith for her work with the runners.

Scrubby Bear presents health tips at school

Scrubby Bear, in the person of Principal Bobbie Weir, presented a health program to Duncan Elementary School students Wednesday and Friday. Twenty classes, some combined, in early childhood and pre-kindergarten classes through third grade, participated in the program.

Cleanliness, including the proper way to wash one's hands and not putting hands or objects into one's mouth, was the program topic.

By staging the program early in the school year and making students aware of cleanliness hopefully will cut down on the incidence of illness, according to school nurse Billie Jordan, R.N. She points out that good habits developed in childhood frequently are retained throughout one's life.

The Center of Disease Control in Washington, D.C., "worked up the program." Included were the Scrubby Bear suit, smaller bears for use in classrooms and a variety of material, including charts for students to keep individual health records. Youngsters also received a sheet for coloring which stated: "Scrubby Bear likes clean hands, because handwashing prevents infection."

A miniature Scrubby Bear poster was given to students to wear on their clothing.

Spooky Spirits Remembered

By Marti Jo Stepp

"My favorite Halloween memory happened about five years ago in Kermit, Texas. A few friends of mine, and I got together and decided to throw water balloons and eggs. The best part of throwing the eggs and water balloons wasn't just to see if we could hit anything. It was the thrill of getting chased. We got chased about ten times that night, and never got caught. After we ran out of the eggs and balloons, we decided to dress up in scary costumes and scare the little kids to death," says varsity quarterback Corey Bates.

Around Halloween, people start to think of things in the supernatural area more than usual. One of the memories, as told by senior class representative, Andrea Reed, is a tale of a group of children experimenting with a Ouija board. "The most vivid Halloween memory I have is that of when I was in the sixth grade, and instead of going trick-or-treating like most other kids, a gang of friends and myself decided to try out a Ouija board. We were at this old house, that was supposedly haunted, down the road. We all gathered around the game board, which was centered in the used-to-be living room of the ancient house. The wind was blowing and there was an eerie chill in the air. There was no light anywhere. My friend, Rachel, and I were trying the Ouija board out by asking it questions. All of a sudden, a cat shot through the window, and scared us so bad that we ran from the house, and never went back. You could say that we were pretty scared."

Her memory brings up another point of the whole Halloween mystique. FRIGHT! Just the thought of all the stories the older kids used to tell me about Halloween when I was little is enough to give me the chills. One of the stories was always that if we weren't back home by nine o'clock, the witches and goblins wouldn't let us go home ever again. That used to get me every time.

To prove that not only little kids get scared on Halloween is the story of a group of girls that spent a Halloween evening together. Angie Hinsley, Angie Bertrand, Amy Burns, Joey Thayer, and Amanda McDaniel. "We all were in Angie Hinsley's car, and we were going to Chattams Dam. Some people egged the car on the way out there. Then we went through some trees, and some old houses. As we entered one hallway, a bat flew out and scared us enough that we got out of there and left."

National Honor Society President Pamela Lockwood tells of her favorite Halloween, "My favorite Halloween was a carnival my church did when I was in the sixth grade. We had a kissing booth, prize booths, and a haunted house. The little kids would walk down the dark hall, and Dracula, witches, skeletons, and spiders dove out at them. They screamed so loud you couldn't hear the spooky music."

FHS band member and twirler, Ludstia Leatherman remembers her favorite Halloween fondly. "My most memorable Halloween was when I attended a Haunted House set up at the First Baptist Church. After we went through the haunted house, we stayed for a meal. It was much better than the regular trick-or-treating."

Although most of the memories that were told to me involved frightening each other, or little kids, some of the better ones were fun memories.

I do not think that we should stop the little kids from having their fun on Halloween, even if that means trick-or-treating. But, I think that we should all watch out for them, and try not to let them get hurt. If you haven't thought about what you can do to keep that from happening, then, let me give you some ideas. You could sponsor a haunted house, where the kids would be allowed to stay and play with their friends, and have a safe Halloween, or you could just be sure that anything you give in the candy bags is still in the wrapper you purchased it in, and has no holes in it. Do not give homemade treats. But, to be safest in what you give to children other than your own, is to give gift certificates. If you let your children go out trick-or-treating, be sure to look through all their candy, or, if the hospital near you offers it, take your child's candy down, and have it x-rayed.

Whatever you do, I hope you all have a happy, safe Halloween.

Courtroom Activities

Three people pled guilty in county court on Oct. 19 to DWI.

Francisco Rodriguez, 31, of Floyd County, pled guilty to DWI and was fined $350 plus court costs of $88.50 and sentenced to 90 days in jail which was probated for two years.

Jose Ruiz, 33, of Cotulla, pled guilty to DWI and was also fined $350. He was sentenced to 120 days in jail which was probated for two years. Ruiz was also ordered to pay court costs of $90.50.

Robert Montoya Torres, 39, of Floyd County, also pled guilty to DWI. He was fined $400 plus 90 days in jail which was probated for one year. Torres also has to pay court costs of $88.50.

Several older cases were cleared up last week in county court.

Charles Bradley Bullock had filed a speeding appeal on 1-30-87. On 10-13-87 the defendants motion to quash was granted.

Joy Parvin Arwine had two cases disposed of. On 3-16-87 Arwine was charged with riding unsecured by a seat belt and also appealed a speeding charge. On 10-13, the seat belt charge was dismissed. Arwine pled guilty to the speeding charge and was fined $45.00 plus court costs.

Also on 10-13-87, Ernesto Torrez Jr., 27, of Floydada, pled guilty to his 8-5-87 charge of DWI. He was fined $300 and 100 days in jail which was probated for two years. Torrez was also ordered to pay court costs.

On 10-20-87, Jim Rivera Jr., 38, of Post, pled guilty to his 4-21-87 charge of DWI. He was fined $350 plus court costs of $90.00. Rivera was also sentenced to 120 days in jail which was probated for two years.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids addressed to the City of Floydada, Texas will be received at the City Hall until 7:30 PM, November 10, 1987 and then publicly opened and read for furnishing all plant, labor, material and equipment, and performing all work required for dredging two oxidation sewer ponds.

Bids shall be submitted in sealed envelopes upon the blank form of the proposal attached hereto and marked in the upper left hand corner.

All proposals shall be accompanied by a cashier's check or certified check upon a national or state bank in the amount of five (5%) percent of the total maximum bid price payable without recourse to the City or a bid bond in the same amount from a reliable surety company, as a guarantee that bidder will enter into a contract and execute performance bond within ten days after notice of award of contract to him. The bid security must be enclosed in the same envelope with the bid. Bids without check or bid bond will not be considered.

If the City so elects, successful bidder must furnish performance and payment bonds upon the forms which are attached hereto in the amount of 100% of the contract price from an approved surety company holding a permit from the State of Texas to act as surety or other surety or sureties acceptable to the Owner.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids and to waive any informality in bids received. The project is planned for award at 7:30 PM, November 10, 1987 meeting.

Plans, specifications and bidding documents may be obtained at the office of Bill R. McMorris & Associates, Inc., 6300 Canyon Dr., Amarillo, Texas 79109, upon deposit of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per set which sum so deposited will be refunded, provided the prospective bidder complies with one of the following requirements: (1) If no proposal will be submitted: All documents will be returned to the office of the Engineer not later than 48 hours before the time and date of receiving proposals; or (2) If proposal is submitted: All documents are returned in good condition at the time and date of receiving proposals. Provided the prospective bidder complies with neither of the two above requirements, the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars shall become the property of the Engineer.

Screening clinic set

Caprock Hospital District is sponsoring a screening clinic October 29 and 30th.

Included in the screening will be cholesterol, triglyceride, blood pressure, colon cancer screening and hearing test by Miracle Ear of Lubbock. The screening will be conducted from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

For current and enrolling Value Care members there is no charge for this screening. All other participants will be charged $10.00.

Caprock Hospital District staff and employees would like for you to participate in this program. The first screening in June, 1987 was a big success and Caprock Hospital District would like to continue this service to the community.
