

Norman Langhoff AFS student for 1988-89

German lad to reside with Rainers

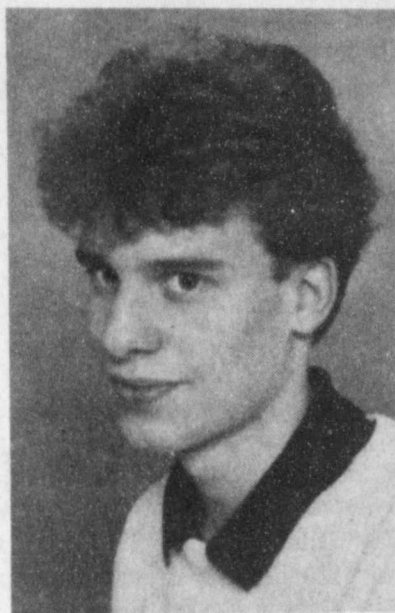

Norman Langhoff, a lad from West Berlin, Germany, has been selected as the A.F.S. student to reside in Floydada during the 1988-89 school year. The 16-year-old is expected to arrive "around Aug. 19."

Host family for the 1988-89 school year will be Noma Lou and Bobby Rainer.

Rainer says Langhoff is to remain in Floydada "almost a year" before returning to his home next summer.

The Rainers plan to attend the marriage ceremony of Anne Marie Jouault, a French A.F.S. student they hosted during the 1982-83 school year, in France. While there, they hope to visit other friends in Germany and then fly to West Berlin to meet Langhoff, his parents and younger brother.

The A.F.S. student, who will be a senior in Floydada High School during the next school year, enjoys playing the guitar and the flute. He likes sports, reading and listening to music. His favorite rock star is Bruce Springsteen.

NORMAN LANGHOFF

Langhoff enjoys soccer, which he often plays, and basketball, which he hopes to improve while he is a guest in the U.S.A. He also likes ice hockey.

The lad's father, Juergan Langhoff, is a professor and his mother, Marianne, is a housewife. The family also consists of a younger son, Helge, who is 12.

Independence Day activities told

Monday events planned at Pay 'N Save and country club

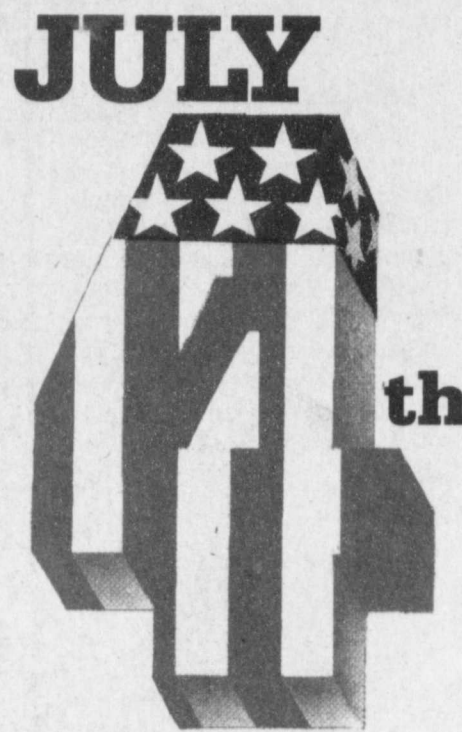

Floydada's Independence Day activities will be centered around Pay-n-Save and Floydada Country Club.

Elsie, a mechanized cow from the Borden dairy products company, will make her public debut in Floydada on Monday. Johnny Summers, local Pay-n-Save manager, says the "new" Elsie will appear inside the store while the popular Alf and Big Bird will be on the firm's parking lot from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. to greet youngsters and their parents.

Free Cokes and hot dogs are to be given by Pay-n-Save during the same hours.

Plainview vocalist Gail Veach and the Slow Motion Band are to present country-western music on the store's parking lot from 12 noon until 5 p.m. on July 4. Two members of the well-known band, Earl Brosch and Keith Owens, were reared in the Lockney community.

Other than the Pay-n-Save event, which Summers says has become a tradition as a means of expressing appreciation to the community, no downtown activities are scheduled for Independence Day.

"We'd love to have anyone come out and play" in a golf scramble at the Floydada Country Club, according to Butch Mitchell. The scramble gets underway at 2 p.m.

The public is also invited to watch the traditional country club fireworks display "as soon as it gets dark" Monday. This will be about 9:15 or 9:30 p.m.

Swimming and picnicking also are on tap at the country club on Independence Day. Persons must be members or guests to use the swimming pool.

Sites are available for picnicking.

What drought? . . . County again welcomes rain

What drought?

While much of the nation is sweltering in hot temperatures and drought conditions—extreme in many areas—Dame Fortune again smiled on Floyd County as moisture beginning Saturday left crops "in excellent condition."

Rains appear to have blanketed virtually all, if not all, of the county. During a spot check Tuesday afternoon, amounts ranged from two inches up to "four and five inches" in the McCoy community.

The only hail damage, according to information secured by this newspaper, was south and southwest of Floydada. Mark Whittle reportedly sustained crop damage, although the area covered seemed to have been small.

Onion harvest, which was expected to start early this week, was delayed. Also delayed was the completion of wheat harvest.

Mr. Thomas at McCoy reported the heaviest rainfall, four to five inches. Another heavy area was near Aiken, where Larry Golden received "about 3-1/2 inches."

Jesse Pernell at Darty Gin said two inches fell south of that community while Dougherty proper and north of there had approximately three inches.

Barwise Gin recorded "about two inches."

Ray Ford in the Liberty community gauged 2.8 inches.

In Lockney, Billy Joe Turner reported 2.3 inches. Lone Star was said to have received 2 to 2-1/2 inches.

Floydada caught 3.27 inches, according to the sheriff's department.

Heavy rains also were reported in the Cone area, although exact amounts were not available.

A small funnel cloud was reported at 2:40 p.m. Sunday, four miles north of Ralls.

"Our county was right in the middle of the rainfall," one individual told The Hesperian. "We're mighty lucky," he added.

Social Security rep here first Wednesday

Beginning in July there will be a new schedule for the Social Security Administration's periodic visits to the Floydada community. The representative will visit the Floyd County Courthouse Annex on the first Wednesday of each month to assist the public with social security matters.

Appointments can be arranged for those wishing to file for benefits.

Persons in the Floydada community can also receive assistance by calling the office in Plainview, Texas. The telephone number is 806-293-9623.

Unsigned letters taboo

Several unsigned letters have been received by this newspaper in recent months. The Hesperian's policy is that no unsigned letters shall appear in print. In certain situations, a signature may not appear on a letter but the original copy must contain a name and it will be shown to anyone requesting this information. Letters to the editor are welcome if they are signed, are not libelous and are not excessive in length.

Bill Staniforth's logo selected for Punkin' Days promotional

Bill Staniforth has designed the logo which will be utilized by Floydada Chamber of Commerce to promote Punkin' Days. The logo will appear on T-shirts, caps, signs and other promotional material.

Chamber Secretary Nettie Ruth Whittle anticipates that material bearing the logo will start appearing "by late July or early August."

Staniforth's design was selected from seven entries. CofC directors served as the judging panel. The designer receives a $50 savings bond.

The second annual version of Punkin' Days unfolds Oct. 28-29.

Mrs. Whittle points out that the committee to plan the event "has been working several months."

(Editor's note: Bill Staniforth's Punkin' Day logo is orange and black, but is being reproduced in red and black.)

Police solicit public's assistance in helping solve trio of burglaries

$300 rewards offered for information

The Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in securing information about three recent business burglaries. Some individual could have observed something which could provide officers with a clue into one or more of the burglaries.

A $300 reward is being offered for information into the June 18 or 19 burglary of Don Green Auto Parts and into the June 23 or 24 burglary of The Resale Shop. To claim these rewards, individuals should supply information to the police, phone 983-2834.

An estimated $1,400 to $1,500 was taken Thursday night or Friday morning from The Resale Shop at 213 East Missouri. The missing money was reported to police about 10 a.m. Friday.

Entry to the building was gained through a window on the east side of the building. A screen reportedly was "pulled out" and a window was raised.

The money allegedly was taken from a cash box, which contained a gold bank bag with black lettering.

Police was notified Monday that a blue transmission floor jack, valued at $500, was taken from Adams Well Service. Persons working in the firm's shop reportedly noticed Friday that the jack was missing but thought it had been borrowed. After checking with the people who occasionally borrow the jack and learning that it had not been borrowed, the theft was reported.

A domestic violence call was received at 4:30 p.m. Friday from the 300 block of West Crockett.

A woman alleged that a boy friend had forced her to his residence but that she left and returned with a sister. At this time, she told officers, she was assaulted.

She was taken to Caprock Hospital for medical attention and kept overnight for observation.

A 32-year-old Hispanic male was charged with assault.

Reynolds is leaving Floyd County to accept a position with the Tulia Herald. Everyone is urged to take this opportunity to say "Thank You" for the good job he has done here and wish him well in the future.

Initial cancer 'Survivors' Day' held Sunday on courthouse lawn

The sun came out Sunday afternoon long enough for an interested group to meet at the pavilion on the courthouse lawn for the first "Survivors Day," sponsored by the Floyd County Chapter of American Cancer Society.

The group released 15 helium-filled balloons, one for each survivor identified by the local American Cancer Society.

Refreshments were served.

The renter of a house at 907 South Leonard which sustained extensive damage in a June 19 fire is Wilhelmina Verone. Another name was listed in the article appearing in last week's Hesperian.

Women invited for aerobics sessions

"We are having a ball," Rilla Sue Woody, manager of Floydada Swimming Pool says of the women's water aerobics sessions. She invites all area women to "come join us."

Mrs. Woody points out that the lessons are not strenuous, and "everyone works at her own pace." One person is using the water aerobics for therapy.

Beginning after July 4, the sessions will be held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings. Pool admission and lesson are $2 per morning.

Following Independence Day, the city pool is to be closed each Monday.

SLOW MOTION BAND

Veach and Slow Motion Band at Pay 'N Save on Independence Day

Gail Veach and the Slow Motion Band will be featured entertainment for the third straight year on Independence Day at Pay-n-Save in Floydada. The group will be performing "old favorites as well as current top country hit songs" from 12 noon until 5 p.m.

Johnny Summers, local Pay-n-Save manager, invites the public to hear the band perform on the firm's parking lot. Ms. Veach recorded her first album in 1982. It received "good reviews and national airplay."

One cut from the album earned her a Grammy Award nomination in the Best Performance by a Gospel Female Artist category in 1984. She released her first country single in summer 1987, which charted in the top country charts, "Cash Box" and "Billboard."

Her second single has just dropped from the charts. Ms. Veach has recently returned from Nashville completing work on her next release.

She has performed for churches, Southern Gospel Music Association conventions, civic organizations, Pioneer Round-Up, Business and Professional Women's Association conventions, winners convention, West Texas Opry, television and area jamborees.

"Gail recently was the opening act for popular country group Sleep at the Wheel and MCA's hottest new act Skip Ewing," according to her agent.

STARTED IN COLLEGE
Slow Motion Band began at Clarendon College five years ago as the Clarendon College Cowboy Band. "We played school functions and an occasional club or dance during our first years," the performers relate. "We continued playing together after graduation from Clarendon even though we all attended different schools. Although we have changed some band members since our start, we still have the same dedication to music and desire to succeed in the music business."

Two of the band members were reared in the Lockney community: Earl Brosch and Keith Owens.

Sally Daniels of Plainview, a song writer, is the newest band member.

Other Slow Motion Band members are: Owens, drums; Becky Webb, keyboard and vocals; Brosch, guitar and lead vocals; Daron Brown, bass, fiddle and vocals; Don Bode, guitar and vocals; and Larry Webb, sound technician.

Letters to the Editor

As an outstanding, professional citizen of the community, I would like to express my anger and humiliation to the member of the Lubbock Avalanche staff who approached me at Allsup's store June 26th about noon.

I was leaving the newspaper rack with one paper and was approached by a carrier asking me if I knew it was a felony to take more than one newspaper. I said, "I only have one paper and never had the need for more than one paper." The carrier said "You have two papers" and I showed her I only had one paper.

At this time, I was very angry and decided after getting home that I didn't even want to read the paper, which is one of my daily activities.

Of all the years I have spent here, there has never been any occasion where I've been down-right accused or guilty of any offense to the public law.

It hurts a person's pride and feeling of well being to be approached in such manner.

In fact, a couple of weeks ago two friends of mine were asked to show identification to a law officer while visiting outside of her home. There was no apparent cause for this.

We as a community must stop these actions before the situations get out of hand. Life is centered in this community. I've contributed too, but not to racism.

Letter to The Editor:

I agree with Mrs. Charles Tyer's "Letter to the Editor" in the May 26th issue of the Hesperian, as I was sitting near the unhappy child. In the last paragraph of her letter she also stated that baccalaureate and graduation services are "always" pleasant, happy occasions, and that we want to share them with parents and friends of the students. I want you to know that for several of the Seniors in the class of 1988, it was not a pleasant, happy occasion. The family and friends that arrived for this joyous event were greeted with tears of unhappiness. You ask, "Why?" Semester finals were scheduled on Monday and Tuesday, the last 2 days of school. This does not give the teachers enough time to get the grades averaged and ready for diplomas. I believe this problem can easily be alleviated with different scheduling. The Texas Public Education Handbook under the Texas Administration Code, Subdivision Section 105.71 states, "The last two days of each semester may be set aside for the purpose of giving final examinations in grades where classroom instruction is on a departmentalized basis provided a formalized examination schedule is established." NOTE: It says, "may be set aside," not "must be set aside."

Some of the seniors found out, the last 2 days of school, that they were on the borderline of perhaps not receiving a diploma. One teacher in particular told the students that were in doubt, "Do not come to school 'knit-picking' me about grades." Did this teacher have a caring attitude? After all, these were seniors on the brink of graduation. Those seniors, from that point did not know for sure if they had graduated or gone through a ceremony until Friday morning, after graduation on Tuesday night. You say, "Friday morning, but didn't they graduate on Tuesday night?" At the graduation ceremony when the school superintendent said, "Seniors, prepare to tained "heavy" damage and a 1979 Ford Thunderbird two-door received "moderate damage" in a traffic at 7:27 p.m. Sunday.

The Thunderbird was eastbound on West Price and the Datsun was northbound on North Second. The Ford reportedly stopped at a stop sign at Second and Price and then pulled in front of the Datsun, which struck it in the right rear, "causing both vehicles to spin around."

Driver of the Ford Thunderbird was cited for failure to yield right of way. The driver of a 1984 Oldsmobile Delta '88 was cited for "following too close" in connection with a 5:45 p.m. Friday mishap. Both the Oldsmobile and an '82 Ford F150 pickup were westbound on West Houston Street in the right lane. The pickup was turning right into his driveway when the Oldsmobile "turned slightly at the last minute and struck a pole sticking out of the open bed of the pickup."

Both vehicles were damaged.

Thanks... Floyd County folks

America is a mobile society, and moves are frequent for many families. But I have yet to learn to like job changes and moves. And I despise "good bye."

Rather than using that terminology, I prefer to say "thank you" to hundreds of Floyd County folks who have been helpful and encouraging during my association with The Hesperian and The Beacon. Obviously not everyone fits into that "helpful" category, but the vast majority do.

Although we acknowledge shortcomings, co-workers and I have put forth the effort — and countless hours — to give worthy readers quality newspapers.

I would be greatly amiss to not begin the "appreciation" list with Ken and Louise Towery, owners of Floyd County newspapers as well as being friends. They have afforded me complete flexibility and they have frequently used personal finances — when the newspapers' bank accounts were embarrassingly short — to provide the resources to move forward. On countless occasions, Ken has given the green light to print a greater number of pages than advertising revenue would normally allow.

Then there is Alice, who has been a joy to work with and who has always been receptive to fresh ideas to improve the quality of the newspapers.

Also, a special thanks to fellow employees for their efforts and generally cooperative attitudes. I won't attempt to name them because I would be unsure of the correct order. So, a blanket "thanks" to the crews of The Hesperian, The Beacon and Blanco Offset Printing.

On more occasions during the past couple of years than one could count on one hand Beth and I have decided against invitations to accept different positions and relocate. We weren't looking...but the opportunity to become managing editor of The Tulia Herald just seemed "right." As Ken and Wendell realize, it was no snap decision, taking weeks to reach a final verdict.

It would be impossible to list all the super Floyd County people who made my association with the Floyd County newspapers generally a pleasant experience. Your friendship is cherished and will not soon be forgotten.

I ask for your continued support of Floyd County newspapers. Trade with the merchants who advertise in these pages — the revenue which keeps newspapers afloat, be considerate of the staff because it takes countless hours (starting over again each Wednesday afternoon) to produce a newspaper and get your copy in early.

Because the road of life contains unexpected curves, I'm not about to say a permanent "good-bye." So long for now...and come see us when you're up Tulia way!

15 sheep killed when struck by two vans north of Floydada

Fifteen sheep were killed Tuesday night of last week when they were struck by two vans.

According to DPS Trooper Chris Ray, a van northbound on state highway 207 struck approximately 10 sheep which were on the highway at the junction of 207 and Farm Road 786. The site is approximately four miles north of Floydada.

As the van turned to seek assistance, a second van struck five more sheep.

There were no injuries to occupants of the two vans and only minor damage to the vehicles, but 15 sheep were killed,

Trooper Ray says.

In an earlier accident that night — approximately 9:30 p.m. — a Crosbyton woman was driving south on a dirt road four miles west of Price Street in Floydada. She came upon a T intersection and plowed into a cotton field.

The driver left the scene but her car later died. The accident was reported by the public.

The woman sustained a "busted lip" but refused medical attention. Her vehicle had front end damage, according to Trooper Ray.

Fireworks pose serious vision threat to adults and children

Don't let a Fourth of July fireworks accident rob you or your children of the glorious sights of summer. Last year the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission estimated that more than 9,000 people were treated in hospital emergency rooms for fireworks-related injuries.

"We are particularly concerned with the increasing percentage of eye injuries," says William M. Carpenter, Texas Society to Prevent Blindness President.

Too many fireworks-related injuries strike children, often resulting in a permanent vision disability. An American Academy Ophthalmology (AAO) study found that 40 percent of the cases reported caused permanent eye damage and almost 25 percent of the injured — mostly children — either had an eye destroyed or lost some vision.

There are many misconceptions about fireworks. One is that fireworks-related injuries occur only in non-regulated states. In fact, enough fireworks find their way into regulated areas to account for 45 percent of the eye injuries.

Another fallacy is that children are safe if they don't use fireworks. Actually, 25 percent of the eye injuries were to bystanders.

Finally, don't be fooled into thinking that there are "safe" fireworks. Even the widely available sparklers burn at 1,800 degrees, a temperature almost hot enough to melt gold. Particularly dangerous are bottle rockets, which accounted for well over a third of the eye injuries noted in the study.

Carpenter warns against the use of fireworks. Unfortunately, the range of state laws and illicit market make fireworks readily available. If you are going to use fireworks, the following safety guidelines are recommended:

— Before using any type of fireworks, check state or local laws.

— Children should never be allowed to discharge fireworks. Even "safe" fireworks (i.e., sparklers) are danger to children.

— Read and follow all instructions and warning labels. Wear eye protection.

— Fireworks should only be used outdoors in a clear area away from homes, buildings and combustible materials.

— Be sure others are out of range before lighting fireworks.

— Keep water nearby for emergencies and dousing malfunctioning fireworks. Never handle or attempt to relight a firework that does not go off. Soak it thoroughly before discarding.

— Never ignite fireworks in a container; glass and metal containers can easily shatter.

Rather than expose oneself and others to the hazards of handling fireworks, find a seat and safely watch the fireworks displays conducted by trained professionals.

For more information on preventing blindness and preserving sight, please contact the nearest Texas Society to Prevent Blindness branch. They are located in Amarillo, Austin, Dallas, El Paso, Ft. Worth, Galveston, Houston, Midland, San Antonio and Tyler.

Commencement exercises for graduates of Methodist Hospital's School of Nursing were held recently at the First United Methodist Church of Lubbock. Eighty-two graduates received diplomas during the school's 70th graduation ceremony.

The Rev. Dot Thompson, associate chaplain at Methodist Hospital, was the keynote speaker for the event. Paul Schilder, executive vice president of Methodist Hospital, presented Gina Havens and Melissa Pearson, both of Lubbock, with awards for the highest and second highest academic standings in the 1988 class.

Graduating from Floydada was Jennifer Walding.

The School of Nursing is the oldest school of professional nursing on the South Plains. The school offers the largest diploma program in the Southwest. Students receive comprehensive academic training and clinical experience in many specialty areas at Methodist Hospital.

'The Day Is Hot'

By Roberto Cavazos Jr.

The day is hot. We must put cool water absorbed by rags underneath our sombreros. They become dry and hot by the time we get half way down the cotton fields. Little brother cannot understand why we cannot pray for an excess of rain during the working season. He likes the rain.

The day is hot. Father, see how our skin is burnt brown even though we wear your shirts with the long sleeves. They stink with the dry sweat from our bodies. Little sister wants to be home playing with her friends and enjoying her break from school.

The day is hot. There is a hole in my shoe. I can feel the hot dirt burning my feet as it enters the hole. There is no cool breeze. The earth here stands still. It feels as if the earth is being taken in by the sun. Mother is strong, but she has been worn down by the years of a heat inflicting sun.

The day is hot. Five hours down...five hours to go and we can then go home and rest until tomorrow. There are plenty of weeds in the fields. We may have enough work to pay for our things at the pawn shop and perhaps even buy some new ones.

The day is hot. The family slowly continues to walk along the long rows of cotton. Father begins telling us about the nice house we are going to buy this summer and the nice furniture we can buy the next summer. We ask about college. He pauses, then he says, "God will provide. For college is a good thing. It will be a blessing on our family." Sweat trickles down his forehead. He takes out his dirty handkerchief and wipes the sweat from his face. Father then continues talking of the family dream, every now and then, stopping to wipe the sweat from his face...and reminding us of how much...the day is hot.

Rebekahs celebrate birthdays of members

Floydada Rebekah Lodge met for their regular meeting Tuesday evening, June 21. Lodge was opened for business and the sick were reported.

Ruby Davis has been sick with a summer cold, but is improving. Bob Gilliland and Fay Hart both reported not feeling well. Dorothy Reeves reported her brother is improving following foot surgery.

Following the business meeting, the lodge closed in preparation for a birthday party.

To start the party off, Artie Webb,

So everybody ready
And sing out good and strong!

Thursday, June 16, was party time at the Rest Home with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosting. The Hesperian photographer came for the "picture taking" after which everyone was ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor" table.

The table was laid with a white cloth and a floral arrangement of silk flowers in shades of pink accented with tiny blue flowers adorning the table. Special cards marked each birthday lady's place and each wore fresh corsages, compliments of Williams Flower and Card Shop. We are very sorry Mrs. Lyles was unable to attend and we hope she will be feeling better very soon.

The poem was read and all joined in singing the Happy Birthday song.

A delicious refreshment plate of iced birthday cake and angel food cake, along with a very tasty fruit punch was served to the honorees, other home residents and the employees.

Noble Grand, read the list of birthdays from January to December.

A big birthday cake with Happy Birthday written on it and decorated with red roses was served along with sherbet, ice cream, snack crackers, apple juice and lemonade.

Everyone enjoyed the refreshments and the fellowship throughout the evening.

Recognize the early signs of a heart attack victim

Heart attacks can happen without much warning, and they happen anywhere, any time. Do you know how to help someone who is having a heart attack? The Texas Medical Association says that you can help save a life if you recognize the signs of an attack and take action immediately.

Severe chest pain usually is the first sign. The pain often is described as pressure beneath the breast bone. It can become severe, and can move into the neck and jaw area and the left shoulder or arm.

Any kind of exertion makes it worse. The pain will be continuous, but may subside.

Other early warning signals of a heart attack that accompany the pain include nausea, sweating, difficulty in breathing, and dizziness.

The first step to helping a victim is to call an ambulance immediately. Then, make the person as comfortable as possible, which is usually sitting, with the legs up and bent at the knees. Loosen ties, collars and any tight clothing around his or her upper body.

Another way you can help is simply by being prepared for all types of emergencies. Know what the emergency number is in your area. Know where the closest hospital is. Learn CPR. If the victim loses consciousness, and has no pulse or stops breathing—you may not have time to wait for medical help to start CPR.

Knowing all of these things also will help you remain calm and reassure the victim.

The Texas Medical Association is a professional organization with more than 28,000 physician and medical student members. It is located in Austin, and has 116 component county medical societies around the state.

Carmen Sue Turner-Moran recite nuptials

MRS. SCOTT ANTHONY MORAN

Nuptials were exchanged at Town Hall Garden in Addison on June 5 between Carmen Sue Turner of Dallas and Scott Anthony Moran of Farmers Branch. The Rev. Tim Payton read the recitation of vows.

Parents of the couple are J.R. and Wanda Turner of Floydada and Roy Glenn and Betty Moran of Cedar Falls, Iowa.

For her wedding, the bride was attired in a formal length gown of white crystalline. The gown was highlighted with a chapel length train with the sheffli lace border and ruffled inset. The bodice featured leg-o-mutton sleeves with sheffli lace appliques and a sheer neckline overlaid with beaded sheffli appliques. The bride's veil was chapel length with a bluish veil held in place by a beaded headpiece.

Honor attendants for the ceremony were Carol Smith of Atlanta, Georgia, maid of honor, and Rich Taber of Marshalltown, Iowa, best man.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony on the terrace of the Addison town hall.

Mrs. Mick Putnam and Mrs. Carl Smith, sisters of the groom, served at the bride's table, which featured a three-tier wedding cake and bellini punch.

Ms. Debbie Godley and Ms. Lisa Holladay presided at the groom's table. They served fudge chocolate cake, coffee, and a fruit and cheese buffet.

Music for the wedding and reception was provided by the La Musica String Quartet.

The couple will be residing in Farmers Branch, Texas.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

How beautiful is the rain,
After the dust and heat.
In the broad and fiery street,
And in the narrow lane,
How beautiful is the rain.

Longfellow

Don't think I could have said it any better, we are grateful for the rain. It came at the right time. Monday Irene Wexler came and played the piano for us, and we sang some songs. We shared from Rev. 21: "A New Heavens and a New Earth." In the evening the residents enjoyed popcorn and discussed "Do you remember when?" about the good old days.

Tuesday, Bro. Neeley and Zelma came and brought bananas and sang some songs. He shared from the book of Jeremiah 2. At 2 p.m. Mary True from the home ec. came and showed the residents how to make hand lotion. They colored it pink, blue, yellow or white. It was very interesting and fun to make your own hand lotion. Also the ladies from Companions 'n' Caring came and did manicures, they always enjoy that.

Wednesday morning juice and coffee break as usual and at 10:30 Bro. Sammy Rodriguez came and shared from the book of Hebrew, "Jesus, is the same today, yesterday and forever." At 2 p.m. the residents played Bingo, Iva Wells, had the first bingo. Mary Davis came and helped us, thanks. Apples, oranges and bugles were the prizes. Everyone is always a winner. The residents playing were Lennie Willis, Myra Hall, Iva Wells, Oda Birchfield, Della Halencak, Lena Withers, Ruth Smitherman, Thelma Hoffman, Maude Galloway, Brooks Callaway, Ottis Johnson and Charles Breeding.

Thursday, Helen Lipham came and played her banjo, she has a new, beautiful banjo. We sang some songs and shared. At 2 p.m. the ladies from the First Baptist Church came and had a "Sing-a-Long." Songs like "She Will Be Coming Around The Mountain When She Comes," and "Ole MacDonald Had A Farm," etc. They really enjoyed the old songs. Those serving the ice cream were Pat Rucker, Arlis Daniel, Freida Simpson, Margaret Word, Genevieve Evans, Charlene Alldredge. They are the Friendship Sunday School Class.

Friday, Nettie Adams came and read the story about Moses. We always enjoy her stories from the Bible. Letha and Evelyn Latta came too. At 1:30 the residents went on a bus ride. Wilma Payne took us to Crosbyton and the park. Our Place treated them to some ice cream.

We want to welcome a new resident, Ray Cook. Also we wish a speedy recovery for Mrs. Nola McCravey and Floyd Starkey, who are in the hospital at this time.

Must say that we all enjoyed the staff picnic at the park. The hot dogs and hamburgers were delicious. Thanks Steve for cooking them for us. Some of us played softball, some of us were out of shape, but we had fun.

This week's visitors were: Ann Thompson, Bessie Wilson, Shirley Vamer, Sabrina Emert, Dorothy Neff, Ola Smith, John and Christine Lyles, Max and Marge McElyea, Jettie Moss, Minnie Smart, South Africa; Edna Foster, Phillip Wilson, Frances Badgett, Floy Graham, Lucille Sisson, Hazel Bradley, Ethel Meador, Jettie Moss, Margaret Holmes, Irene Wexler, Pearl Emert, Artie Webb, Opal Kratzer and Letha Lightfoot.

also feted with a surprise birthday party.

Side trips to shopping malls, a fish hatchery and a boat ride down the lake were sandwiched in between going to shows and "eating ice cream." On Sunday, June 11, all attended Sunday services at a Baptist church in Branson.

The Adams and Weathersbees were called home due to the illness of their sister. They went by Tulsa, picked up Mrs. Adams, and proceeded on to Memphis. Departure day saw the group "going in many directions," with the Feuerbachers leaving for Illinois, the Lawsons and Weathersbees going on to Lake Texhoma and the McElyea's and Lyles continuing on to Bentonville, Arkansas. It was a consensus opinion that "it was a good trip and enjoyed by all."

The next club function will be the annual July "cookout." It will be held this year for the first time at Floydada's new RV Park on July 4.

Bettye has put forth a lot of effort to attain her goals and we are very proud to have her as a part of our staff here at Caprock Hospital. She is very capable and does well at everything she attempts.

We want to thank all of those who continue to give to the nurses station fund. We will be meeting with Janet Lloyd and Kathy Becker of the 1956 Study Club this week to make some plans for improvements in the lobby. Thanks to all of you for your kind support and also the many words of encouragement that you give us.

HEALTH TIP

Most sunburn victims do not need a physician's care. However, a doctor visit is in order if any of the following symptoms appear:

- Difficulty with vision - a rare occurrence in persons with sunburn.
 - Severe pain.
 - Extensive blistering - an indication of second degree burns.
- Sunburn's pain is worst between six and 48 hours after sun exposure. Injured skin layers start to peel later, between three and 10 days after the burn.

Whirlwind Sams travel to Missouri

On June 9, ten rigs of Floydada's "Whirlwind Sams" RV Club left for an eventful trip to Branson, Missouri. Those on the trek to the well-known tourist spot in Missouri included Claude and Francis Weathersbee, H.C. and Marge McElyea, Milton and Jo Harrison, Floyd and Queen Annie Lawson, Boone and Ruth Adams, Wayne and Roberta Russell, Blanton and Ruby Hartsell, John and Christine Lyles, Bill and Norma Feuerbacher and Paul and Dartha Westbrook.

The caravan spent the first night at the KOA Kampground in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and arrived in Branson on Friday, June 10. After an afternoon rest, the group attended the first of eight shows they would see in a seven-day stay, which included performances by The Codys, Mel Tillis, the Bob O Link Show, Box Car Willie, Ballknobbers, Plummer Family, and Foggy River Boys. They also took in a Saturday matinee at the Brashlers Religious Songfest.

On June 11, a surprise birthday and anniversary party honored the H.C. McElyeas. On June 16, John Lyles was

Hospital Happenings

We have been very busy at the hospital this past week. Many of our community have virus infections. The much needed rain has been very welcome on the grounds at the hospital. They have all been mowed and trimmed and look really good. It takes a lot of constant work to keep them well groomed. Alan Roy and Adrian Pleasant spend several hours each day working on the yards at Caprock Hospital.

Jean Jarrett, Dietary Supervisor, is back to work after a week of vacation time. Peggy and Rodney Hill are vacationing in Red River, N.M. Leroy Schaffner, administrator, and his family are vacationing in California this week. Molly and Bill Stringer are enjoying some vacation time in Ruidoso this week also.

This week's long time employee is Bettye Baker.

Bettye came to work at Caprock Hospital when the new hospital opened in 1967. She began here as food service supervisor. While in this position, Bettye was very active in the state and national organization of food service workers. She serves as president of the Texas Hospital Association of Food Service Supervisors. She also served as secretary to the organization. She was chairman of the National Food Service Organization. During this time she traveled to Washington D.C. and Las Vegas at the expense of the organization. She served in this capacity until 1977 when she took a leave of absence from the hospital to go to LVN school in Plainview.

She graduated in 1978, was licensed by the State Board of Nurses and came back to a 7-3 LVN staff nurse position at Caprock Hospital. During this time Bettye worked in surgery and helped out some on the ambulance. She also began some college hours working toward being a Registered Nurse.

She took another educational leave of absence in 1984 and went to R.N. school in Amarillo. She completed all requirements and passed her State Boards and returned to Caprock Hospital as 3-11 shift supervisor in 1986. This past March she was promoted to day supervisor.

Kelli LaBaume chosen for scholarship based on community service

Kelli D. LaBaume, a May graduate of Floydada High School, was one of only 33 recipients from over 400 applicants throughout the state to have been chosen for a $1,000 scholarship from Beneficial Texas Inc., in recognition of her volunteer service to the community.

The scholarship entitled Beneficial Community Service Scholarship, can be applied to Miss LaBaume's choice of college or university. She plans to continue her studies at Abilene Christian University. Home Economics Education will be her plan of study.

Recipients and their parents were honored by Lieutenant Governor William P. Hobby at a May 27 reception given by Beneficial in the Blue Bonnet Ballroom of the Guest Quarters Hotel in Austin. Lt. Gov. Hobby announced the scholarship winners to the media.

Miss LaBaume was unable to attend the function due to end-of-school activities and final examinations.

The Floydada scholarship recipient has "devoted numerous hours as a volunteer," according to information from the sponsoring firm. "Her volunteer services include the 4-H Club, FFA, Floydada Chamber of Commerce and City Park Church of Christ. She also spends time visiting senior citizens.

KELLI LABAUME

There's always a person that needs food or a get-well card or a visit to cheer them. My family and I redecorated the church nursery, that was rewarding to me. I strive to set a good example for the youngsters in our church as well as in the community.

"As a teenager, I realize it is hard to live a Christian life.

"When I became 'Miss Floydada' I immediately asked the Chamber what I could do for them. Our city population is around 4,000, a small farming community, and the chamber is constantly trying to find ways to promote Floydada. I stopped by their office regularly to see if they needed me. My persistence paid off as I was able to participate in numerous activities for them.

"4-H and FFA go together hand in hand as they strive to teach the same principals. I became a member of 4-H when I was 10 and of FFA when I was 13. In FFA, the project I am proudest of is the Christmas decorations we made for our community to enjoy.

"I have devoted the most time to serving my community through 4-H. Space will not permit me to go into detail but some of the projects I have been a leader for or done on my own are: Myasthenia Gravis patient, Cystic Fibrosis victim, Special Olympics, Senior Citizens, Friends of Floyd County Library, Westview Boys Home, summer youth workshops and summer youth camps.

"What have I gained from these experiences? The hundreds of people that I've come in contact with through working with these organizations have touched my life in a positive way. I've learned the value of a friendship. I feel that I have built up my self confidence and self esteem. Because of the leadership and public speaking skills I've received through 4-H and FFA, I have the ability to speak to all ages. This has increased my self confidence. I've learned the importance of giving compliments and having enough self-esteem to accept one."

APPLICATION

"Motivation requires a conscious effort, it just doesn't happen. People have to plan to succeed or plan to fail, and the choice is up to each individual. I PLAN TO SUCCEED!

"As a young child, I remember my Mom baking pastries to take to a sick person, someone with a new baby or to a neighbor. This example very definitely 'rubbed off' on me. I began cooking at an early age, and guess what? I found myself wanting to share my 'goodies' with others. The first person I remember sharing with was my neighbor, Mrs. Crabtree. I loved going to see her because we had long, interesting talks about her childhood. I was fascinated by her stories.

"While Mom was helping with activities at the nursing home, I discovered the elderly love visits from young people. As I matured, I found myself thinking of ways I could make their lives happier. I especially enjoyed making things for them on special holidays, such as decorated cupcakes and Halloween Jack-o-lanterns.

"I was taken to church from birth, so it's always been a part of my life. In Bible class, we were always taught to be a 'helper.' At church, if you only look, it is easy to find ways to serve others.

Pfc. Joseph S. Kemp ends Marine Corps training for recruits

Marine Pfc. Joseph Shelton Kemp, son of Sammy and Glenda Kemp of Floydada, recently completed recruit training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif. His training began on March 28, 1988.

During the 11-week training cycle, Kemp was taught the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment, and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by the Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills including rifle marksmanship, first aid, and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle. He became a Pfc. in a graduation ceremony on June 17. Stationed now in 29 Palms, Calif., he will study electronics communications for six weeks. To qualify for this profession a recruit must score in the top percent of his class.

A 1986 graduate of Floydada High School, he joined the Marine Corps in Aug. 1987.

Firms receive appreciation plaques

Five local businesses who assisted of the Floydada school system have Chapter 805, general mechanical repair, been awarded plaques of appreciation from the state organization. Teacher Al Galloway presented the plaques and expressed appreciation to the sponsors.

The five firms are: Brown Implement Co., Steve Brown; Floyd County Implement, Inc., Jerry and Tommye Perry; Walter Davis Construction, Walter Davis; Oden Chevrolet-Olds, Stephen Fyffe; and Don Hardy Race Cars, Don and Sue Hardy.

"You people put Floydada schools of Vocational Industrial Training on the map of Texas," Galloway told the individuals. "This gave me a feeling of pride and boosted the self-worth feeling and attitude of each student."

The instructor said that Buck Johnson stated in his presentation at the state convention this spring that "from a small town in West Texas comes the unselfish backing and encouragement for a job well done, by those in industry."

"Your support of my classes — help of the individual student — in fact, helped students in vocational education across the state," Galloway stated. "Only time will tell just how much this will mean. Some of my students are employed by you now, some have worked for you in the past.

"Only people like you will undergo the efforts of a teaching program like we have. My thanks to you for the gains my students are making. It is with pride that I present these plaques."

Social Security News

By Terry J. Clements

There are special provisions in the Social Security law designed to encourage blind and disabled supplemental security income (SSI) recipients to try to work. These provisions allow recipients to attempt to work without fear of losing all their SSI checks or Medicaid coverage.

Also, recipients whose SSI checks were stopped because their earnings made their income too high to receive checks may be able to receive checks again if they find they no longer are able to work.

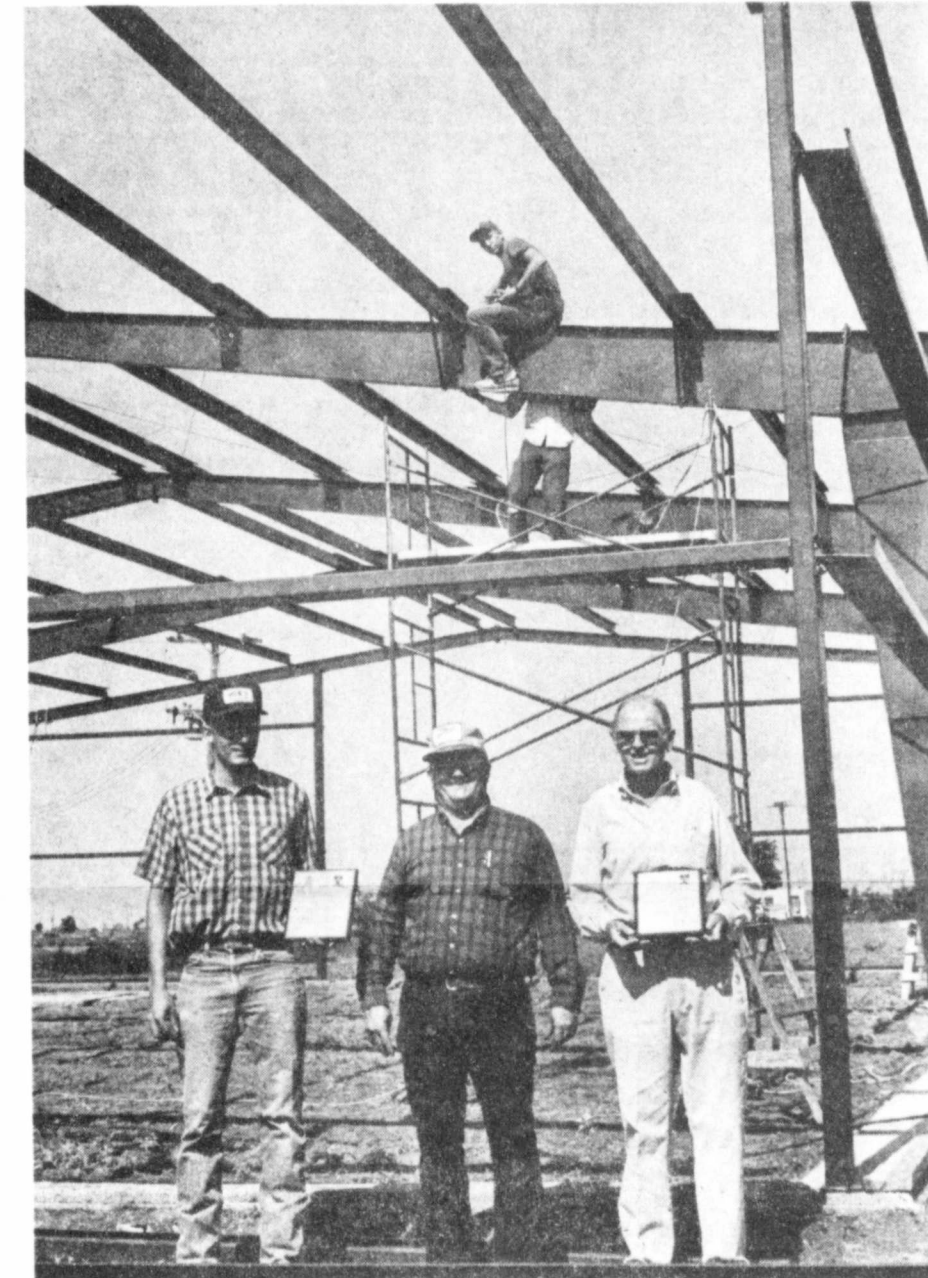

Recognizing that a disabled recipient's return to work may not follow a steady progression, the law allows the recipient to use SSI as a stepping stone to employment. Recipients may continue to receive some money from SSI while testing their ability to work. The amount received depends on the amount of earnings — as earnings increase, the SSI payments decrease or stop. A recipient who finds his or her work attempt is unsuccessful, however, may have payments started again — often without filing a new SSI application.

In addition, many blind and disabled recipients can keep their eligibility for Medicaid coverage even when their checks stop because their earnings make their income too high to continue receiving checks. To keep Medicaid coverage, a recipient must continue to be blind or disabled, meet all other non-earnings SSI eligibility requirements, depend on Medicaid coverage to continue working, and be unable to purchase similar medical care.

Blind or disabled recipients who work also are encouraged to develop a "plan for achieving self-support." This plan allows them to set aside income and/or resources for a work goal and can mean an increased SSI payment. Some examples of work goals include education, vocational training, starting a business, or purchasing work-related equipment.

Haying, grazing allowed by USDA

After extensive prodding from producers, the USDA has announced plans to allow farmers in Floyd and 97 other Texas counties to use hay from other lands set aside for conservation use in a USDA project to provide assistance to drought-stricken farmers.

According to Bob Lotspeich, Floyd County ASCS county executive director, producers may hay or graze their conserving use acres for pay (CU) and their set-aside acres (ACR). To qualify, a producer must request haying or grazing at the ASCS office in Floydada.

Lotspeich received information about the approval on Thursday.

To remain eligible for program benefits, participants who request emergency haying or grazing of approved cover on 1988 ACR and CU acreage shall not:

1. Remove cover to the extent that the land is not adequately protected from wind and water erosion;
2. Permit grazing or haying of wildlife food plots or wildlife habitat;
3. Charge for the value of growth hayed or grazed, when used by another producer. Charges are permitted for normal and reasonable costs for services such as installing temporary fences, pumping water, cutting, raking, baling or other steps in haying, green chopping or ensiling.

CRP ACREAGE

Haying of Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) acres will be permitted if producers agree to the conditions listed below and make a request no later than July 5, 1988. All requests must be made at the Floyd County ASCS office.

Conditions for special haying of CRP acreages include:

Floyd County has also been approved for haying of CRP (Conservation Reserve Program) acreage. Cover, on land subject to a CRP contract, may be cut for hay if ALL the following conditions are met:

- A. Program participants shall:
1. Request, in writing, permission to make hay. The request must be filed within 10 calendar days of the date the county is approved for haying of CRP. Must be filed by July 5, 1988.
 2. Receive written approval before making hay on the CRP land.

B. Harvesting of hay is authorized for a 30-day period only, beginning with the date the CRP participant files the request.

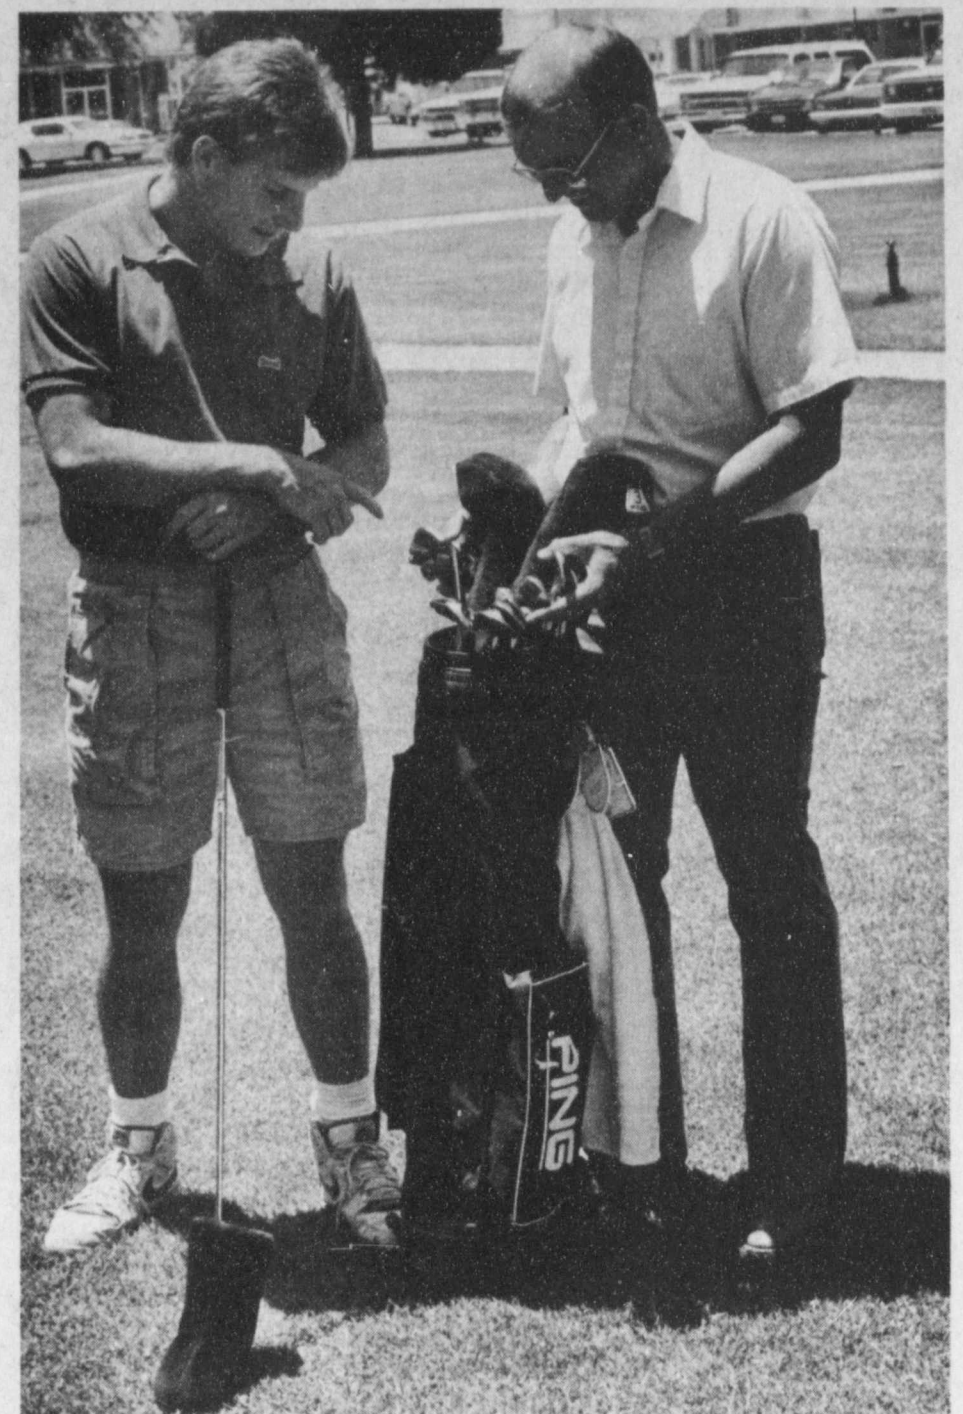

C. The next payment under the CRP contract shall be reduced by the number of acres hayed, times 25% of the CRP per acre rental rate regardless of whether the hay is used by the producer, sold, or donated.

D. The CRP participant:

1. May sell the hay for any price to any livestock producer (Cannot sell to hay traders.)
2. Must sign DF-21 which states to whom the hay will be sold.
3. With a CRP contract, shall agree to leave at least 3 inches of stubble.
4. Shall sign an agreement that, if the cover is damaged or destroyed by this haying, the participant will incur all cost of reestablishing the cover on the CRP acreage.
5. Must agree to leave uncut buffer strips through the field for wildlife of at least 16.5 feet wide and not more than 330 feet apart, but not less than 10% of the field.

E. Grazing of the CRP acreage is prohibited.

F. Harvest of any seed or grain crop is prohibited.

FUTURE NMJC GOLFER--Ty Stovall looks over his clubs with his high school golf coach, Lee Hurt. Stovall has accepted a golf scholarship from New Mexico Junior College in Hobbs. He has been the District 2-AAA boys golf medalist the past two seasons. --Staff photo

NMJC golf scholarship accepted by Ty Stovall

Ty Stovall, a sterling whirlwind athlete for the past four years, has signed a letter of intent for a golf scholarship at New Mexico Junior College in Hobbs. He received a two-year scholarship.

Coach Jesse Blackwelder has established a nationally-recognized junior college golf program during his 17 years at NMJC. He is regarded as "a great teacher of the game."

The NMJC golf team placed third in the national junior college finals this year and a player from the team was the national medalist.

Stovall, who ranked ninth scholastically in the Floydada High School Class of '88, will be a pre-engineer major at NMJC. After completing his two years there, he plans to continue studies at a senior college.

Two former NMJC golfers are Dr. Andy Hale of Floydada and his cousin, Kent Hale, a Lubbock attorney. Kent is one year older than his cousin, but the two played together one year on the First National Teams for Coach Blackwelder. Dr. Hale was a New Mexico Junior College student-golfer during the 1971-72 and 1972-73 school years.

Dr. Hale contacted Blackwelder and strongly endorsed Stovall as a NMJC golfer. The coach then contacted the Floydada lad, who visited the campus recently and decided to cast his lot with the Thunderbirds.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stovall, Ty was district golf medalist during both his junior and senior years. He placed fourth in regional this spring.

Stovall owns four varsity golf letters for the Whirlwinds and lettered three years in both football and basketball. He was chosen to the all-district squads in both basketball and football during his senior campaign.

Texas Centennial Block singled out in 1936

How many people remember that Floydada had a "Centennial Block" in 1936? Also designated were a "Centennial Street" and "Centennial Homes."

"Centennial Block" was the block bounded by West California on the north, by South First on the west, by West Mississippi on the south and by South Second on the east.

This block, where Pay-n-Save is now located and from which the Snodgrass residence was recently moved, had a sign designating the honor. The sign was situated on the northeast corner of the block, adjacent to the Snodgrass house, according to a reader.

"At that time this was probably the nicest block in town," The Hesperian was told.

Families and individuals who had dwellings in this block were: D.W. Fyffe, Henry Cox, Glad Snodgrass, W.M. Dorsey, J.H. Myers, Troy Leonard, Mrs. Lola Gallaway and W.U. White (owner of White Drug). The officially recorded block number was 88.

South Main Street was recognized as "Centennial Street" for the balance of the Centennial year of 1936. Judging was conducted Aug. 6 by three Matador women.

Homes of R. Fred Brown, E.P. Nelson and Mrs. A.J. Welch won first, second and third place in the "Centennial Homes" small home owned category. Awards of first, second and third places in the small owned homes division went to B.K. Barker, L.J. Welborn and W.U. White. Top three places in the rented homes division went to Paul Conner, J.M. Gamblin and G.L. Kirk.

The event was sponsored by 1922 Study Club, 1929 Study Club and 1934 Study Club to promote the town's appearance.

"Scoring was done on the basis of attractiveness of premises and also on general appearance and condition of streets and alleys between curbs," according to a 1936 Hesperian article.

The Centennial designations made a lasting impression on the community as several persons still remember the project.

Where's the fire ...

By Mike Reeves
Eleven men and three trucks were dispatched about 2:45 p.m. Sunday to watch threatening clouds which were approaching.

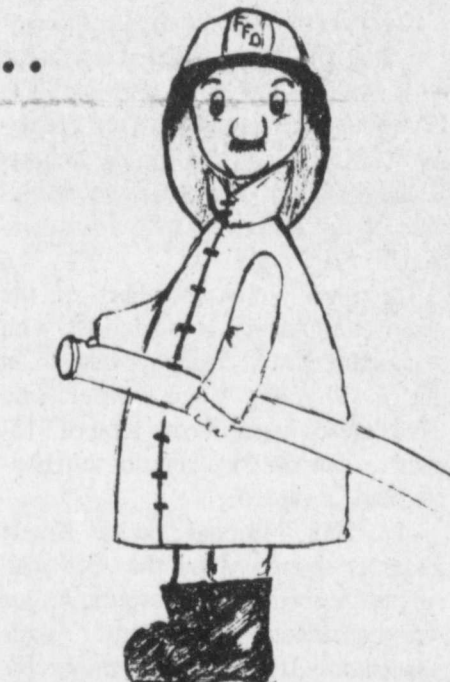

Tuesday of last week, June 21, 10 men and two trucks were sent to 505 East Tennessee to combat a grass fire caused by lightning. The time was 4:11 p.m. Only a small spot of grass was burned.

Six firemen and their families attended the State Firemen's and Fire Marshal's Association annual convention, held last week in Beaumont.

Four men met Monday night at the fire hall to work on the rescue van.

FIRE TIP

Popping fireworks is an Independence Day tradition for Americans. However, please remember that shooting fireworks within the city limits violates a city ordinance and is a Class C misdemeanor.

Exercise extreme caution around fireworks to avoid injury to your child, yourself or other persons.

Council opts for Hartford employee insurance plan

Following a special session of the Floydada City Council, a new insurance plan has been selected for group hospitalization and life insurance coverage for city employees. The decision was made after a detailed comparison of the five proposals submitted at the June 13 regular session.

According to city manager Gary Brown, "The decision was based on dollar cost compared to benefits received. Other considerations were the immediate coverage, length of time current rate quotes were guaranteed and the total coverage package."

The contract for insurance coverage was awarded to The Hartford Company through the Texas Municipal League. Their proposal offered "basically the same coverage" as the existing insurance under Blue Cross/Blue Shield. Rates under the current plan were due to increase by "35%" said Brown, "but under the Hartford proposal, we get virtually the same insurance for about $11 less than the Blue Cross/Blue Shield."

Other companies submitting proposals were Floyd County Insurance, Mutual of Omaha and Goen and Goen.

Brown and the city council expressed their appreciation to all submitting bids for the time and effort it took to present their bids. "A special thanks must go to local insurance agents David Cates and Kyle Smith," said Brown. "Each presented a proposal from their firm then worked closely with Sharon Quisenberry in our offices to correlate the information contained in the five proposals so that we could make an intelligent decision for our city employees."

Bill Gray gives research paper on Tom S. Lubbock

Tom S. Lubbock — Texas patriot, Texas Ranger, Civil War hero and the man for whom Lubbock county and Lubbock were named — was the subject of a paper presented over the week-end at the quarterly meeting of the Texas Lodge of Research, AF&AM, in Lubbock. Host for the meeting was Yellow-house Lodge No. 841D.

More than 70 Masons from throughout the state gathered in Lubbock for the session.

One of the papers presented during the public portion of the meeting was "Thomas S. Lubbock: The Texas Mason Who Couldn't Say 'No!'" by Bill Gray of Floydada, a deacon in the research lodge and past master of the Floydada Lodge No. 712. The other, "The Very Ancient Mysteries," was by Dr. Howard R. Stewart past master of South Plains Daylight Lodge No. 1443.

Gray, whose interest in Lubbock stemmed from an earlier paper on the 1841 Texan Santa Fe Expedition, prefaced his presentation with misconceptions about Lubbock, including the false belief by some that Lubbock had founded the city even though he had died in the Civil War more than three decades earlier.

Also proved wrong — for the same reason — were Masonic records that cited Lubbock's service as a district deputy grand master in 1885. And, it was his brother, Francis, who was governor of Texas.

Title for the paper outlines the Lubbock character, as Gray's extensive research determined: "A man who dedicated more of his life to Texas than well-known Texas heroes...anytime they asked for volunteers, there he was."

Once, when asked to command the Texas cavalry group that he organized with B.F. Terry, Lubbock refused command in favor of Terry and became its leader "only after Terry went down," but was terminally ill and never assumed command of Terry's Texas Rangers.

In 1843, he refused to accept command of the Snively Expedition; however, at the request of Texas President Sam Houston, he organized a group which was designed to retaliate at Mexico after the Mexicans stopped trade on the Santa Fe Trail. He also turned down command of a ranger company in the mid-1850s when Texas Rangers supplemented federal troops on the frontier.

All other times, he was foremost in the ranks when Texas needed volunteers.

Lubbock was the first man to volunteer for the New Orleans Greys to "follow old Ben Milam to San Antonio" in 1835 and the youngest, at 18, in the successful battle for the town. Because he was too ill with fever to move south with the army, Lubbock was not among the many Greys who died in the Goliad massacre.

At the time of the massacre, Lubbock was serving on the steamship Yellowstone that carried Sam Houston's forces across the Brazos. After the Texans successfully thwarted Santa Anna's attempt to use the Yellowstone and after victory at San Jacinto, the steamship ferried the Texas leaders to battle site.

In 1839, Lubbock volunteered for the Texas Rangers headed by Capt. John Coffee "Jack" Hays and, in 1841, answered President Mirabeau Lamar's call for volunteers to accompany a group of merchants to Santa Fe.

Lubbock was commissioned a lieutenant for this duty which tested his mettle with deprivation enroute and capture and mistreatment on a 1,000-mile march to prison in Mexico City. He was one of the few who escaped to spread the word of the Mexican atrocities.

Lubbock avoided imprisonment again in 1843. As a member of the Somervell Expedition, he obeyed orders to turn back at the Rio Grande. The Texans who entered Mexico made up the Mier Expedition, which saw its members captured and participating in the "Black Bean Death Lottery."

During the Mexican War, Lubbock was back with Hays' Rangers — serving as the 1st Regiment of Texas Mounted Volunteers — which, due to their unconventional warfare methods were called "Los Diablos Tejanos" (The Texan Devils) by the Mexicans.

Gray found Lubbock to be a successful businessman who also made his mark in politics. It was as a member of the secessionist convention that he was inspired to ride to the battlefield with Terry and participate, as volunteers, in the first Battle of Manassas. Afterward, he and Terry were commissioned to return to Texas and raise a cavalry company.

In addition to discovering the man for whom Lubbock was named, Gray also learned that the fate of the group hinged on betrayal of the company by a Mason who "swore on his Masonic faith" that he spoke the truth while tricking the Texans into surrendering their guns.

ARTICLE PUBLISHED

"Masonry Behind the Footlights" by Gray appeared in the spring issue of The Texas Freemason magazine. It deals with "tent shows," which were a West Texas tradition.

Gray grew up in the tent repertoire business and was one of the last "tent show babies." His parents, Erman and Thelma (T.O.) Gray, were performers on Fred Bunk's Comedians, and Bill was born during the company's stop at Tahoka in 1937.

The family later toured with a number of the large show companies and were on the 1962 Farewell Tour of the nationally famous Neil and Carline Schaffner's "Toby and Susie Show." Although an actor and musician for years, Gray has been off the road since 1962.

He is associated with Russell Equipment and Supply, Inc.

AT&T ANNOUNCES UPCOMING PRICE CHANGES FOR SOME TEXAS INTRASTATE SERVICES

AT&T announces the following price changes for some of its Texas intrastate services. These changes, which more closely reflect the actual costs incurred by AT&T in providing these services, will become effective on August 1, 1988.

- SDN (Software Defined Network) Schedule A prices will be reduced 1.5% during the initial 30-second period. Schedule B prices will be reduced 16.4% overall. Schedule C prices will be reduced 4.2% overall.

- WATS 80 service prices for both the initial 80-hour usage period and the additional usage period will increase 5%.

- The monthly prices for some of AT&T's Analog Channel Services will increase between $7.05 and $25 per channel termination for Analog services.

- The monthly prices for some Dataphone Digital Service (DDS) will decrease up to $9.65. Other DDS monthly prices will increase up to $18.35. Overall, AT&T's DDS monthly prices will increase less than 1%.

The combined effect of these price changes is expected to produce approximately $3.4 million in annual revenue, which is approximately 0.3% of AT&T's annual revenue for all Texas intrastate services.

If you have questions regarding these price changes, please call your AT&T Account Executive, or our business consultants toll-free at 1-800-222-0400. 24-hour pesticide emergency line

By Rita L. B. Parson

Texas residents who suspect they have been exposed to pesticides and who are unable to get local medical treatment can now turn to a statewide pesticide poisoning emergency phone line for help.

Bilingual assistance is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, by dialing 1-800-TDA-REGS (1-800-832-7347).

"TDA first became involved with efforts to prevent pesticide exposure three years ago when it adopted the first pesticide regulations to protect human health. Although the regulations have helped reduce the incidents of pesticide poisonings, we have found that a number of people are still getting hurt," Commissioner Hightower said.

"Just as alarming, we have discovered that some of the people who have been exposed have been unable to receive proper medical attention because of the distance to migrant clinics or other medical centers, the lack of medical personnel with specialized training in treatment of pesticide poisonings, or their inability to pay for such services."

"Short term effects of pesticide poisoning include irritation of eyes, skin or throat, itching, rash, headaches, blurry vision, dizziness, excessive sweating, vomiting and chest pains," said Olga Moya, TDA's farmworker liaison. Some pesticides are suspected of having long-term effects which include tumors or cancer, birth defects, reproductive problems, skin problems, and injury to the liver or other organs.

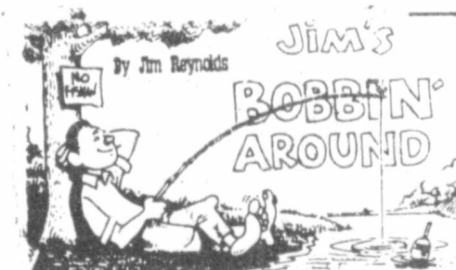

"The emergency line is answered by TDA staff during regular business hours. During evenings, weekends and holidays, calls are forwarded to a bilingual answering service that will immediately refer human exposure cases to TDA staff, who have a statewide list of clinics, physicians and laboratory services for testing, diagnosis and treatment," Moya said.

More information about TDA's new emergency response line is available by calling TDA's Emergency Response Coordinator Ruperto Garcia at (512) 463-7003 or the nearest TDA district office.

"This new toll-free emergency line is designed to help save lives by giving people access to the treatment they need in a timely manner," Hightower said.

AIDS SEMINAR RECOMMENDED

Having had an opportunity to hear Dr. Arnold Isaacson present a seminar on AIDS, we would highly recommend this informative program to the public. It is termed "AIDS Information and Prevention Principles."

The video, slide presentation and statements from Dr. Isaacson are quite frank. With the AIDS scare sweeping the country, everyone needs to learn more about the subject, although most people are certainly not in the "high risk" group.

Take time tonight (Thursday) to attend the 7 p.m. seminar in the elementary school cafeteria.

When you're hot . . . you're hot!

Tips offered to combat summer heat

Texas summers lend a new definition to the term "hot," and this summer will probably be no exception. Although summer does not officially begin until Monday, June 20th (10:57 pm CDT, to be precise), experienced Texans know that it really begins as early as March and can stick around until well into October.

Summer heat increases the number of people taking part in outdoor activities, and this leads to a rise in heat-related deaths and injuries. Few people realize it, but nationally there are more deaths each year from heat than from floods, hurricanes, lightning, and tornadoes combined.

Texas Safety Association, in cooperation with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) and the National Weather Service, offers this easy rule-of-thumb: When the temperature goes up, slow down! Remembering a few safety rules will let you enjoy your Texas summer activities without risking your health.

*Take it slow! Heed your body's early warning and reduce your activities. Stay in cool, shaded areas as much as possible.

*Drink plenty of non-alcoholic liquids. A glucose replacement is excellent if you are outside for more than an hour or two, but plain water is a good substitute.

*Wear lightweight, light-colored, and loose-fitting clothing appropriate to hot weather to help maintain normal body temperature. Your head is a prime target for the sun's rays, so wear a hat and sunglasses, too.

*Heatstroke tends to develop quickly and with little warning, with victims becoming ill in less than 24 hours. Go slow the first few days to let your body become accustomed to the heat.

*For a few hours each day, get out of the heat as much as possible. Air-conditioned areas or those equipped with ceiling fans are best, but any well-ventilated, shady area will do.

*Sunburn cuts down the body's ability to dissipate heat, and prolonged exposure may cause long-term health problems. Use of a good suncreening agent is recommended.

*It's not the heat, it's the humidity" is not just an old saying. Perspiration is your body's natural way of cooling off, and works best when the humidity is low. Air movement helps to evaporate perspiration and cools your skin. Under high humidity, the cooling process is lost, leading to a higher danger *Never leave children or pets in your car! Even with the windows down, the temperature inside can quickly rise to lethal levels. Legislation passed during the 1984 Special Legislative Session made it a criminal offense to leave "a child under age seven unattended by a person less than 14 years old in an automobile for over five minutes. The offense is a class C misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of up to $200.

*And speaking of pets: remember that they are subject to the same heat-related dangers as we humans.

APPEARANCE CHANGE—Wording on the Floyd County Historical Museum building has been restored from a 1926 black and white photograph by Ace Sign Co. of Lubbock. The only change from the photo is that the museum name now appears on the building, according to museum board chairman O.M. Watson Jr. Large lettering spells out "C. Surginer & Son" and "P&O Implements" with various panels advertising buggies, wagons, piping, windmills, linoleums, stoves, binders and oils. The sign painter told Watson that this was his first and probably last time to paint the words buggies and wagons on a sign. C. Surginer and Son Hardware moved into the building "about 1915," and the Surginer family gave the structure to the museum approximately 20 years ago. The photo sequence depict the building after the sign painter first began his work, mid-way through the project and the completed sign.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank the ambulance staff for being so sweet and the emergency staff and nurses for their good care during my hospitalization. Thank you to Dr. Jordan for finding my trouble in a hurry.
Mrs. Wayne Bennett 6-30c

With deep appreciation, the family of Helen Solomon would like to express Thanks to our friends for their expressions of love, concern and sympathy. Thanks go to Dr. Jordan and the nurses at Caprock Hospital and to the doctors and nurses at Methodist Hospital, for their loving care.

For your encouraging visits, cards, prayers, phone calls, flowers, memorials, food and all the little things you did for our loved one, you are remembered. We are grateful for the memorial service at the Methodist Church of beautiful music by Bobby Rainer and Penny Oden, and the inspiring message by Bro. Bill Wright and Bro. Francisworth. We love and thank God for such wonderful friends.
