(Editor's note: The following column was written when "pro-democracy" students and workers were camped in Beijing's square. It got sidetracked and delayed in order that comment could be made on a situation closer to home. While it is not now as timely as it should be, perhaps it may prove of some interest to some of our readers.)

What in the world is going on in China, and why should we care about it one way or another?

Perhaps we ought to struggle with the last part of the question first, admitting we see it all through the glass darkly.

From a purely objective viewpoint what happens in China is likely to affect what happens in all of Asia, both in the short run and in the long run. In the short run it could well have a bearing on our own lives and the lives of our children. In the long run it will without doubt affect the lives of our grandchildren.

One small example may illustrate the point. After the Communists took over China that country underwent a period of regimentation under Mao that rivaled the reign of the First Emperor some three thousand years ago. In ruthlessness and brutality it compared favorably with that instituted by Stalin during the same period. All aspects of Chinese life were ordered by the state. Government decreed when people would be married, how many children they could have, where they worked and how many hours they worked, where they lived and how long they lived there. Production of goods and services were determined and regulated by the Communist Party, which was also the Government, which was also the state. In short, from the standpoint of those liberals and leftists around the world who believe in and struggle for a centralized society, it was an ideal society. In theory.

The results were predictable and in the end, obvious. Production of goods and services plummeted, and China effectively entered another of those dark ages which dot its long history. Finally Mao died and his successors took the opportunity to loosen the screws a little. Not for any ulterior reasons hinged on a belief in liberty and freedom for the people, but for purely utilitarian reasons. They wanted more production from the people, and they determined that the only way to get it was to give the people a little more incentive in the work place.

And as every cotton farmer in Floyd County knows, it worked. China went from a net importer of cotton to a net exporter of cotton, on a massive scale. The world price of cotton is determined by the world supply and demand of cotton. And it affects, in a very real way, the income of cotton farmers here in Floyd County, which also influences the income of a lot of other people in Floyd County, which also influences the income of people in Detroit and other places.

And that's just for cotton. In short, even from a practical standpoint, what happens in China is of concern to all of us.

It can obviously be argued that we would be better off in this country if both Russia and China were still controlled by Stalin and Mao. Communism is such a bankrupt practice that it could never pose a threat to us from an economic standpoint. But the military threat is something else. Heavily militarized and regimented societies, viewing the material wealth of their neighbors, are always a threat. It is a threat the West has had to meet with heavy defense expenditures of its own.

Deng Xioping's effort to increase China's material wealth while keeping the lid on political freedom was doomed from the outset. Political freedom and economic freedom go hand in hand, as the long history of the human race will attest. When people depend on the government (or a political party) for their

Sarpalius slates town hall meeting

Congressman Bill Sarpalius will be having a town hall meeting on Thursday, July 6, from 12 noon to 1:00 p.m. in the community room of Lighthouse Electric in Floydada. He will be available to answer questions.

Planning for 100th anniversary is underway

Thirty-two members of the Floyd County Centennial Commission met on Thursday, July 6, from 12 noon to 1:00 p.m. in the community room of Lighthouse Electric in Floydada. He will be available to answer questions.

Chairman; J.D. Copeland, Lockney — Vice Chairman; and Bill Hardin, Floydada — Secretary.

The first order of business was to adopt the official name of the commemoration: "Floyd County Centennial, 1890-1990." The official logo, prepared and presented by Chairman Gray, was adopted. The logo will be used on caps, signs, letterheads, promotional materials and other articles yet to be determined.

Gray then detailed the organization of the county for Centennial activities. Under his direction the county has been divided into sectors, each with a sub-chairman. Activities throughout the county will be coordinated by the several sector chairmen. The sectors and chairmen are: Northwest — Albert Scheele; Northeast — Virginia Taylor; Southeast — Betty Jean Campbell; and South Central — Joyce Williams. Presently, a chairman has not been named for the Southwest Sector.

Some of the proposed events and activities were discussed on a month-to-month basis. In addition to the annual events such as the County Stock Show, Pioneer Reunion, Floyd County Fair, Rodeo and "Punkin' Days" in Floydada, a number of new projects are being proposed to be incorporated into the year-long celebration.

The first major event will be a "Centennial Kick-Off Breakfast" on Saturday, January 6, which is tentatively planned to be held in Lockney. A three-day softball tournament centered around a Cinco de Mayo theme is being proposed for the first weekend in May.

Negotiations are underway with Mursener Consultants and Productions of Mitchellville, Iowa, to possibly bring the last of the old-time tent repertoire companies (tent show) to Floydada as part of the Pioneer Reunion Week in late

Emergency farm loan applications being accepted

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by flooding and severe storms are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration office, FmHA County Supervisor Becky Via said this week.

Floyd County is one of many in the state of Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Richard E. Lyng as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from flooding and severe storms.

Becky Via said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 4.5 percent.

As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Ms. Via said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until February 15, 1990, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possible over into the new farming season," Ms. Via said.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U.S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations, or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Floydada is open from 8 to 5 Monday through Friday.

Floydada PD warns against fireworks

The Floydada Police Department wants to remind citizens that it is illegal to set off fireworks in the city limits. Violators could face up to a $200 fine.

OFFICIAL LOGO of the Floyd County Centennial, adopted by the Centennial Commission on June 19. Depicting a cross section of Floyd County's history from the days of the marauding Comanche and the historic Montgomery House to today's Floyd County Courthouse, the logo will appear on caps and other articles connected with the 1990 commemoration.

daily bread they are likely to do the government's (or the party's) bidding. When they are free to conduct business between themselves, when private contracts are honored among men, and enforced in the courts, they are much less likely to accept unquestioned the dictates of government, simply because they are in position to do so if for no other reason.

When Deng allowed the Chinese people a smattering of economic freedom, it followed naturally that they would of necessity increase their contacts with people who also had different political ideas, including the ideas of freedom of expression. Anyone who knows the people of China will know that the yearnings for freedom of expression are as deep rooted there as anywhere on the globe. But anyone who understands the working of a totalitarian state, as was the situation under Stalin and/or Mao, also knows just how completely that expression can be stifled, or channeled.

This writer spent more than three years in China during World War II. Not as an ivory-towered academic, or a conquering soldier, or as a visiting journalist or even a missionary, but as a prisoner of war among a conquered people. In short we were the lowest of the low. We worked the fields, the factories. We built buildings. We laid railroads and loaded boxcars. We buried our dead. We worked on a daily basis with the Chinese peasants. We learned a smattering of their language and a little of their thought. Both we as prisoners and the Chinese, as a conquered people, had to bow low in the presence of our captors, the Japanese. It was an experience in survival and learning.

Among the Chinese there exists, among the common people, a deep and,

I believe, abiding admiration and respect for Americans and things American. Even the Chinese name for America was "Mei-gwa," or "beautiful land." This, naturally, is troubling to those who rule.

So what will happen now? Unlike those instant analysis folks on national television, we would have to say we honestly don't know. Particularly in the short range. Our own thoughts, expressed to those who have asked, are that the Army will move to clear the square when push comes to shove. (In China there is a saying, "You kill the chicken to frighten the monkey." They will to kill the chicken in Beijing to frighten the monkey out in the countryside.) The Communist Party can do nothing else if it wants to remain in power. The Party came to power through the barrel of a gun. It is not in power by virtue of a vote from the people. But, no matter what Western intellectuals may aver, effective state power is political power no matter how acquired. And as long as the Communist Party controls the Commanders of the various armies throughout China, the Communist Party will control the government and ultimately the lives of the people of China.

Therein lies the rub. We, or at least I, do not know where the loyalties of the various commanders lie. One of the first acts of Deng when he took over was to shuffle the commanders, retire some, promote others. The reasons were obvious. He wanted to assure loyalty among the commanders for his own reign. But Deng is now 84 years old and not far from the grave. Whether those commanders will look to the future or to the past, in terms of loyalty, is the question. We look for a period of turmoil in China. Deng will not last long but others in the hierarchy are certainly as rigid as he in terms of party doctrine. How they will fare in the struggle for succession is something only time will tell. The outcome of that will determine the command of the armies. And that will determine the direction of China.

There has been a great deal of talk in this country that "the genie can never be put back in the bottle" in China. That does not square with the history of China. The desire for freedom may not be able to be put back in the bottle, but in terms of its practical application it most certainly can. It has happened before.

For the moment at least George Bush is playing it right. We hope he maintains his cool in the face of Congressional mouthings that he begin throwing America's weight around in China. We are not dealing with the Philippines here.

Floydada offering 4th of July activities

There will be no need to travel out of town to view fireworks or enjoy 4th of July activities. Floydada will have their own lineup of fun for the whole family.

Start your day on Tuesday, at Pay-n-Save's traditional 4th of July bash, with free cokes and hot dogs, beginning at 11:00 a.m., and lasting until 6:00 p.m. If your kids have not been introduced to Uncle Sam, or if you haven't sat down and talked things over with him in quite a while, he will be on hand at the Pay-n-Save parking lot. Rodeo clowns and Donald Duck will also be on hand at the parking lot to entertain the family.

Musical entertainment will be provided by Gail Veach and the Slow Motion Band, from 12 noon until 5:00 p.m. The Slow Motion Band consists of Keith Owens and Earl Broseh of Lockney and Daron Brown of Lubbock. Owens and Broseh have been playing together in school band since the 5th grade. They were instrumental in organizing the College Cowboy Band while at Clarendon College and have been playing together since. Owens is the drummer and Broseh plays lead guitar and does lead vocals. Brown plays bass as well as fiddle and does some vocals.

Country recording artist, Gail Veach released a gospel album in 1982, which received fine reviews and national airplay. She was nominated for a "Grammy Award" for best performance by a female gospel artist. Gail has been the opening act for the Grammy Award winning Asleep At The Wheel and also Skip Ewing. She works with her producer Don Goodman, who is also known for his songwriting, such as "Feelin's", "Dixie Road", "Starting Over Again" and "Jones on the Jukebox." Gail's next, soon to be released single, is "I Wish I Could Be With You Tonight."

The shoppers in the family should also check out the specials inside of Pay-n-Save for the 4th of July. A preview of the specials appears in the colored Pay-n-Save ad inside this paper. While shopping in the store, be sure to stop and speak to Elsie The Talking Cow who will be on hand to greet guests.

GOLF FUN

For those who want to work off the free cokes and hot dogs from Pay-n-Save, the Floydada Country Club is sponsoring a Scramble Tournament. The tournament is open to the public and starts at 1:00 p.m.

The charge is $10.00 per person and if you are not a member you will be required to pay a green fee of $8.00.

FIREWORKS

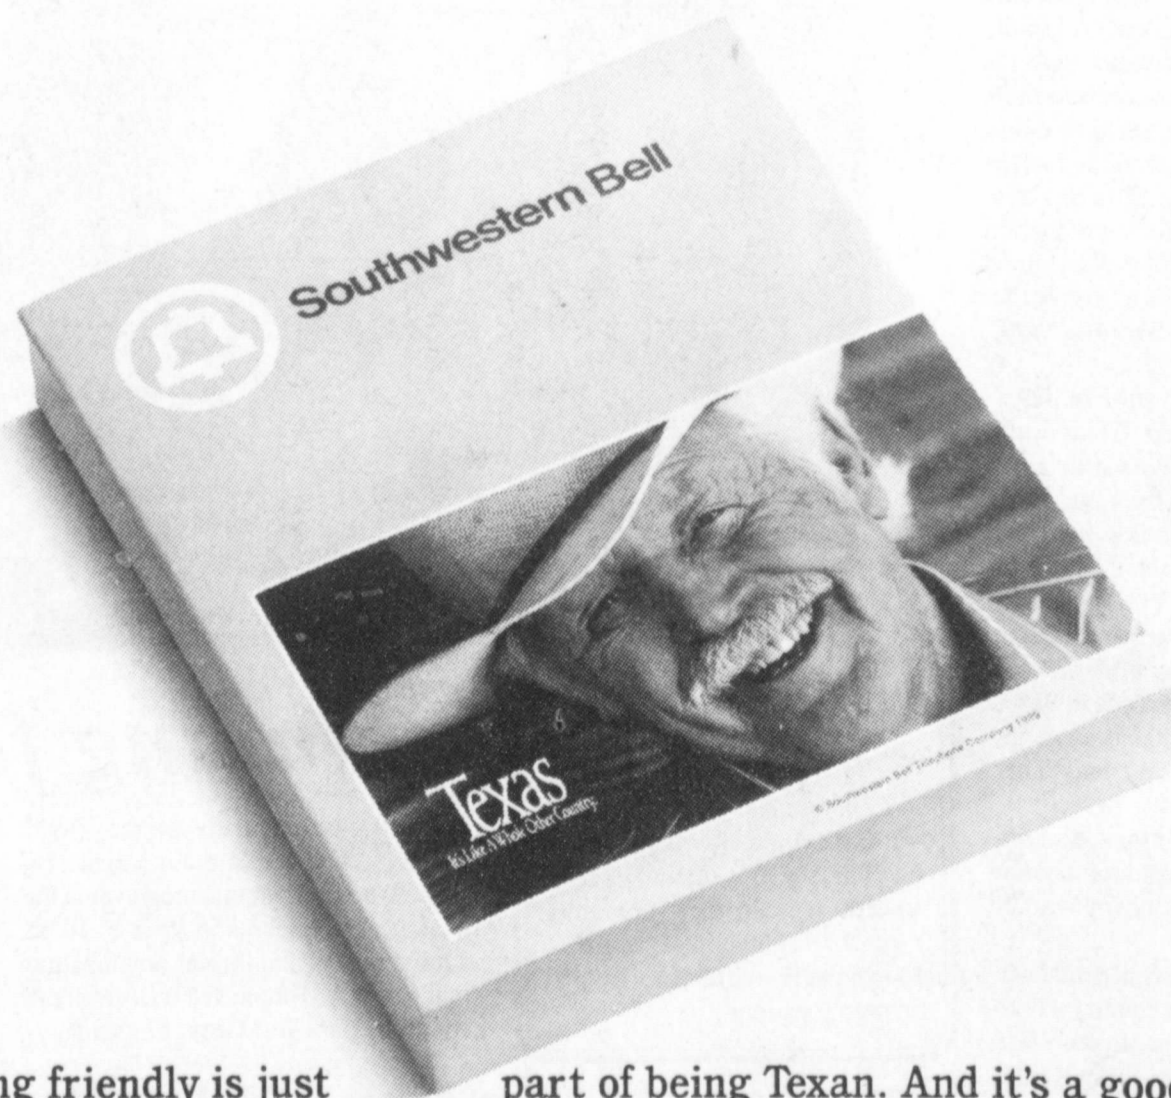

If you are one of those people who leave every year to find a nice firework show, you need travel no further than Blanco Canyon. The Floydada Country Club will once again sponsor a firework show, which will start at dusk. You can get a good view from the highway, at the top of the canyon, or you are welcome to come sit at the club and view it from there.

WE COMPILED A LIST OF THE FRIENDLIEST PEOPLE IN TEXAS.

Being friendly is just part of being Texan. And it's a good thing. Because the friendlier we are to our out-of-state guests, the better it is for our economy. And at Southwestern Bell, a healthy Texas economy is something we strongly support. That's why our directories feature a "Texas Friendly" face from the state's tourism advertising effort. And why we helped underwrite the Texas Department of Commerce, Tourism Division's hospitality training program, now being offered statewide. After all, we'd like to see our list of the friendliest people in Texas continue to grow.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor,
In answer to Betty Goen's letter to the editor in last week's issue. Several Hispanic citizens and I didn't approve of the way she stated her point. Although she did make a good point.

First of all Councilmen Morales and Barrientos case had nothing to do with illegal aliens and crossing the border. Their case involves fairness and equal justice to Hispanic citizens of this county.

Second she compared Hispanics to flies. Then she said, "Give us a break, we're only human!" What does she mean by that? Does she mean Mexicans or Hispanics aren't humans. Everyone knows "flies" are insects. At least I thought everyone did.

We "Hispanics" are not only human we're also Christians. And a good Christian would see it that way.

Carmen Alvarez

Editor,
To all of those who may feel the same way as Mrs. Betty Goen, if you wish to put aside every hint of jealousy, then why do you call them (us) "Mexicans" and not "Hispanics"?

A mute question - at what point does a honky become white? Is it not the same question you ask of us or is it? Mrs. Goen I am appalled to the thought of you calling us flies. "We're only human." We may be hispanics, blacks, even whites, but we are children of the same God, and he does not see us as you see us. Thank God.

Mr. Powell once told me "your grandfather was one of the first Hispanics in Floydada and he has helped build this town to what it is today. Like - Floyd County Museum." So yes let's put all of this discrimination aside shall we.

Rhonda Rendon Barrera

Editor,
What is friendship?
Well as for the letter written to the Editor in last week's paper I don't believe that Betty Goen knows.

My definition of friendship is being friends with someone no matter what the color or race is. I don't understand why this town has fallen so deep into being prejudiced. I lived in this community a long time ago and I was friends with everyone, no matter what. Anyone that calls themselves a Christian, should know better than to judge others if they don't want to be judged themselves. I am Hispanic and proud of it. I also speak for myself as one, because I come from a very good family, and I know that they themselves are proud of being hispanic.

As of now, I'm glad that I no longer live here, because where I live now, I am looked upon as a Hispanic and no one really cares of what race I am and if they did, I would no longer associate with such a person. Because we were put on this earth together and one day someone will need the help of a hispanic and no one will be there to help.

My life has been great the last five years, because I don't live in a prejudiced community, I now live in the state of Pennsylvania and moving back to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, and I have yet to meet one prejudiced person. Please don't get me wrong, because I like all races, I have friends of all kinds and I'm really proud that I can really call myself a Christian, because I don't look away from someone because of their race, I see the person from the inside and not the outside, and that's all that counts!

Elsa Notgrass

Dear Editor,
"I've always thought that when one goes to live in another's house, one lives according to the rules and regulations therein."

This is a quote in last week's paper as quoted by Mrs. Betty Goen. That may be true in reference to a home, but I am afraid it is not the case when it comes to a city, state, or country.

First of all she was obviously referring to all Hispanics as coming from Mexico. I did not, I was born in Washington State. But if, I was born in Mexico I would be just as proud. The issue here is prejudice and White vs. Mexican or Hispanic, or whatever name one chooses. Personally, "Mexican" far from disturbs me.

I grew up in Floydada, I graduated from FHS (yes, I did, Mexican and all), and I can account too many instances where white was first. I don't deny that alot of this came from "our" feelings towards the anglo community, but there was very little to change these feelings.

Mrs. Goen said, "We as Christians," and then proceeded to make such comments as "Would arm bands help, so that we don't accidentally misname you?"

I sense a deep rooted prejudice all throughout her letter, and with all due respect I feel the need (not to defend all Mexicans or Hispanics), but myself as a human being.

I resent being looked at as a thief when I walk into an expensive clothing store, I don't appreciate being judged on the basis of my color because "alot" of Hispanics steal, cheat, or lie. I am an individual who works hard to make a living and I expect to be looked at as such.

No longer reside in Floydada, but the area I now live in is so respectful and appreciative of my background and my bilingual ability and I actually don't mind the positive attention. Where is this attitude in Floydada?

One more issue I would like to address is "Respect in a community is earned by the attitude one displays in all areas of life over a long period of time." What attitude is that? That of the Anglo? That of which a Hispanic works for the Anglo, lives middle to lower class, and follows rules enforced by (up until recently) an all Anglo council?

I am not pro Hispanic, or pro Anglo or pro any nationality because I respect anyone who respects me. I am simply pro freedom of speech, freedom to want to go forth in life by being judged individually on my own merits or failures. I'm sure I speak for alot of Hispanics on that.

Fix the streets that need to be fixed (east or west Floydada). To hell with good and bad; black, brown, white; or up or down! "Thou shalt not judge!"

Sophia Roy

To The Editor,
An Open Letter to Floydada:

First of all I would like to say that I think Mrs. Goen and Mr. Hicks' letters in last week's paper show the courage to speak up. We all should profit by their and Mrs. Liphams' example. They have done what I have been trying to get everyone to do. You should never think your opinion doesn't matter, because it does. Enough people of similar opinions can change things. If we are not careful, our attitude of non-involvement will sweep our proud Texas way of life into oblivion.

I think the foolish idea to disband the police force is a laugh. That's like drilling holes in a sinking boat to let the water out. The Sheriff and the Chief of Police may not see eye to eye but I believe they are both good men. I am angered by the verbal attacks by the Mexican councilmen on the police force. What do they want cops they can buy off like in Mexico. I stand by James Hale.

As for the so called farm boys, I think they would agree with this cowboy. It is up to you councilmen. If you disband the police force you might as well do the same with the sheriff's department. You see when civil law breaks down, law abiding citizens will be forced to form vigilante committees for the protection of the peace. We farm boys and cowboys have a more effective deterrent than currently in use. It is called the law of the rope. Criminals have no appeals, no parole, no light sentences and there are no repeat offenders. Yours is the choice, law officers, or the law of the rope.

If the Mexicans here don't like our way of doing things, they can go back to Mexico. Learn our culture, customs and language and you may be accepted. If you continue to live off our hand outs, hide in your alien culture and language you will never be accepted.

Remember also your livelihood depends on the farmers, without them you would starve to death.

If those words don't phase the anti-whites in the Mexican contingency, armies of white American farmers drove the armies of Mexico into the ground in two wars, in 1836 and 1847. Then in 1916 sent that scum of a bandito Pancho Villa hunting a hole.

You may retaliate for what I have written here. You all know me. I don't want you to mistake me for someone else. I am the big Pope you see about town afoot and mounted. My ancestors fought many wars for Texas. If I must endure pain and death for Texas, so be it.

Signed,
Cecil Pope

NICOLETTE GRILL, granddaughter of Loweida Myrick Bunnell, was a photo contest runner-up and June "Baby of the Month" in the Johnson & Johnson "Adorable Babies" calendar. Nicolette lives in Inglewood California. Loweida was raised in Floydada and now lives in Los Angeles, California.

Granddaughter of former Floydada residents wins baby photo contest

A baby with lots of Floydada connections has won a $10,000 college scholarship from Johnson and Johnson. Nicolette Grill was one of 11 runners-up in the 1988 Johnson & Johnson "Adorable Babies" photo contest.

Nicolette is the daughter of Millie and Nick Grill of Inglewood, California, and the granddaughter of Loweida Myrick Bunnell and the late Dick Bunnell. Grandmother Bunnell was the daughter of the late Dena Myrick, and was raised in Floydada. She now lives in Los Angeles, California.

Loweida Bunnell is the sister of Joyce Lipham and Clovis Myrick, both of Floydada.

Nicolette is also featured as the June "Baby of the Month" in the 1989 Johnson & Johnson "Adorable Babies" Calendar. Explaining the picture that won the scholarship for Nicolette, her mom said, "Shar-pei are very gentle dogs, and we'd decided to keep 'Little Baby' as a family pet. Nicolette likes to play with her toy iron, and she always tried to 'iron' our cats. I thought a picture of her trying to iron out the Sharpei's wrinkles would make a cute photo. I never dreamed it would give her such a head start on her college savings program!" The Grills also won a $500 shopping spree at Von's, the Barstow drugstore where they obtained the contest entry blank.

Carl Lemons' News and Views from Cedar Hill

Weather:
A few drops of rain fell at Cedar Hill this past week, they were felt, they made spots on the sidewalks, but none got inside the rain gauges. So we had no measurable amount of rain. Wind had the tree branches swaying and scrubbing together to the extent that some fruit was knocked off, no loss really, because what was left will now grow a little bigger. A few days had temperatures that were just right for cotton but a day or two's slip back to the low fifties kept it from being the best kind of cotton-growing weather.

While doing some shovel work on wheat ground, it was noted, with amazement, that some 6 to 8 inches beneath those delicate v-shaped tracings that mark where the large dry-weather cracks used to be, the old crack is still down there, open, gaping, and ready for more rain. After getting at least eight inches of rainfall, after our lakes have ample water, our old land still cries for water. It is insatiable.

Crop Comments:
COTTON has perked up some, cultivators have been hard at work and the resultant breaking of the crust and soil aeration has been of immense benefit to the crop. Now that its roots are finding themselves in honest to goodness soil that affords a little air contrasted to its earlier tank-like, waterlogged existence it is showing more promise. Farmer appraisals run all the way from "doing better" to that occasional optimist who says his crop is "really booming."

Some foliar feeding has been done, anything to get the crop up and running. Of course, once the decision has been made to spray, it actually costs very little more to include an insecticide and wipe out the thrip population.

CRP grass seeding has resumed in a limited way now that cotton planting, wheat cutting, and assorted plowings are mostly behind us. Conditions continue to be the best for the developing grasses. Native weed-grasses have emerged in huge numbers with the advantage of summer temperatures so the newly sown introduced grasses will encounter stiff competition. A herbicide will likely be required to kill these competing grasses before the permanent grasses are seeded.

ONIONS, with their tremendous, late growth appetite for water, have already required another irrigation since the last rain. There has been an explosive increase in their size, and the fields are at the brink of harvest. Field equipment is being readied, that slight pre-harvest dry-down has already been started in some fields. Packing sheds will be in operation immediately following the 4th of July if not sooner.

WHEAT harvest is over but nobody is bragging. Top reported yield was 13.5 bushels. This field, four miles west of Cedar, experienced a heavy hail Monday, May 15, but showed surprisingly little damage. Without that hail the 15 bushel goal would have been reached easily. Lindsey Lackey had a field 4.5 miles north of east Cedar that approached very near 15 but it was mingled with wheat from other fields so there were no accurate figures.

Of the wheat which was not grazed out nor plowed early, that very best part which the farmer finally decided he would attempt to harvest, fully one third was either too weedy or was on lakey ground and was bypassed by the combines. Next year will be better.

From over in Fairview came rumors of several 15 bushel yields and one, possibly from further south, purportedly hit a whopping 27.

Fruits and Vegetables:
A yellow spot was on the ground under my apricot tree Friday, hardly more than a seed covered by its yellow skin, otherwise it was perfect, and it prevented a zero for '89.

Peaches are growing, their hail spots are healing, and a cotton shower would do them good. The daughter-in-law dropped off a half dozen tree ripened peaches Monday. She probably acquired them somewhere along the caprock.

Home grown squash are being served at community tables, and county grown squash will be on sale by the time you read this.

Beans and peas are showing great promise, should be available by mid-July.

Peppers are having a little harder time, their growth habits are too much like cotton. They are expected to recover and do well a little later.

Sweet corn has been in tassel for ten days now. County grown roasting ears will be ready by July 10, maybe earlier.

Cattle and Hay:
Cattle are doing well, are being tormented by hordes of mosquitos. A flying service advises that some lake-sites have been sprayed by air to eliminate the mosquitos.

The dry spring has lowered hay reserves to an uncomfortable level. As a result some farmers are planning to have some seed in the ground early this year, possibly by July 4.

People:
Edna Gilley's cattle got to see the boss last Sunday! Deleice Harrison and Ruthie Bell Clark, Edna's daughter and mother respectively, went through channels and got Edna a week-end pass from her stint at St. Mary's therapy Center. She spent Saturday night in Plainview at her mother's home, then, on Sunday, was taken for a drive to inspect her holdings at Cedar Hill. Various pastures with their cattle were checked, as well as those rooms of her house that had doors wide enough to accommodate her wheel chair. If all continues well another two weeks should see her home again.

Ruth Hall, whose stay in Central Plains Regional Hospital in Plainview was further complicated by a speech-inhibiting stroke on Saturday, June 17, was transferred the distance of a city block to the Heritage Home on Monday. She was still smiling on Saturday, June 24, but visitors no longer received the hand-pressure response of previous visits.

Those attending services at Cedar Hill Assembly of God Church last Sunday were disappointed that the preacher they were expecting was not able to be there. A previous commitment had him in a service in Mexico that day, but he will be at Cedar Sunday, July 2. Two of Alpha Fortenberry's grandsons, Chris and Douglas, left Monday for a week of religious activity at the Assembly of God Youth Camp on the Ben Dillard ranch near Roaring Springs.

Last week Charla Yeary received three days of intensive training a 4-H leadership workshop located at Levelland Junior College in Levelland. The course was offered Tuesday through Thursday.

Craig Douglas has been working with a three-machine fleet of combines since the '89 harvest began. They ran out their Floyd County corners, hauled in their last load on Tuesday. A call Monday found Craig on the telephone lining up work that will send their men and machines hopping into Colorado as harvesting shifts on to the north.

Due to an overload of paperwork the Federal Crop Insurance people have asked Gayle Dubois to help them catch up. She is working back at the same job she was doing a year ago. Hopefully that work will be finished in time for Gayle to enroll for her classes at WTU.

Miss Casey Lackey is home again after spending a week visiting with an uncle and his family in Texhoma.

Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising ever time we fall.

Eastern Star installs 1989-90 officers

More than 50 members and guests attended an impressive candlelight ceremony as Floydada Chapter No. 31, Order of the Eastern Star, conducted the installation of 1989-1990 officers on June 17 at the Floydada Masonic Lodge. The principal officers for the new year are Mrs. Dell Gray, Worthy Matron, and Bill Gray, Worthy Patron.

The installation was performed by: Mrs. Beulah Speer, Abernathy, Past Grand Matron - Installing Grand Officer; Mrs. Dortha Conn, Abernathy - Installing Grand Marshal; Mrs. Myrna Davis, Abernathy - Installing Grand Chaplain; Mrs. Polyanna Heath, Hale Center - Installing Grand Secretary; Mrs. Judy Allen, Lubbock - Installing Grand Organist; and Mrs. Peggy Glascock, Amarillo - Mistress of Ceremonies.

Following the invocation by Harold Heath of Hale Center, the Bible and Square and Compasses were placed on the altar by Adam Kohler, Lubbock, and Tiffany Savage, Desdemona (grandchildren of the Grays and great-grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Russell).

The installation was then conducted by Mrs. Speer. The other officers for Floydada for the new year are: Sherry Colston, Associate Matron; M.J. McNeill, Associate Patron; Flora McNeill, Secretary; Roberta Russell, Treasurer; Noma Lou Rainer, Conductress; Joy Assiter, Associate Conductress; Ruth Daniel, Chaplain; James Griffin, Marshal; Kaye Orman, Organist; Geneva Griffin, Adah; Jean Kendrick, Ruth; Melba Vickers, Esther; Ruth Trapp, Martha; Bess Carr, Electa; Bobby Rainer, Warder; and Wayne Russell, Sentinel.

Others assisting in the installation included the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gray. Trina Nance, Desdemona, attended the guest book, and Dorna Kohler, Lubbock, attended the serving table at the reception. Jeanine Helms, Floydada, and Tammy Vickers, Lubbock, were candlelighters. Wayne and Roberta Russell, parents of the Worthy Matron, presented the traveling jewels to Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

A gavel was presented to the Worthy Matron by her mother. It was made for Mrs. Russell in 1955 by Frank McNeill of Amarillo, for her first term as Worthy Matron of Floydada No. 31. It has been used by not only Mrs. Russell for three terms as Worthy Matron, but the Worthy Matron, Dell Gray, will now use it for the second time.

Mrs. Gray's two daughters, Dorna Kohler and Trina Nance used the gavel for their terms as Worthy Advisors of their Rainbow Assembly in Las Cruces, New Mexico. A special tribute was given to Mr. Frank McNeill, who was able to attend the installation with his wife, Reva. Mrs. Bess Carr was presented in the East to honor her as the Active Chapter Mother. Her loyalty and support of the Chapter was mentioned in this tribute. The Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron dedicated their year to Mrs. Carr. Roberta and Wayne Russell then approached the East to present Mrs. Carr with a beautiful bouquet of red roses.

Hope and Kay Crabtree of Floydada furnished musical selections, with Mrs. Crabtree singing in a capella rendition of "The Lord's Prayer" for the benediction. A reception, hosted by the Past Matron's Club, followed in the dining hall.

South Plains News

By Ruby Lee Higginbotham
The past week the weather has favored the farmers who were hailed, washed and blown out earlier. Most of our farmers have replanted their crops to milo, soybeans or sunflowers. There is a lot of hard work ahead of all of us. We hope and pray for favorable weather conditions and a good crop this fall.

The Breakfast at Mamie's on June 21, as usual, was interesting and beautiful as ever. Virginia Taylor presented a very interesting program on ladies hats. She has quite a selection of hats, some dating back into the 18th century. All the ladies wore hats, some very unusual and beautiful. In her demonstration and showing of the hats she chose Judy Beedy, Bobbie Kinnibrugh, Carlene Johnson and Bonnie Graham to model the hats. The ladies were cute and pretty doing a superb job of modeling.

We must certainly mention Gertie Smitherman as the best dressed lady wearing a blue silk linen, knit dress she had made, accented with a beautiful blue silk pelated pillbox hat. Gertie looked cute as ever in the 25 plus year old dress and hat. She can wear them anytime and be well dressed.

Breakfast of chili cheese eggs, with sausage and ham, coffee, blueberry muffins, jelly, melons and fruit of all kinds was served to Mary McPherson, Frances Staniforth, Laura Fryman, Madge West, Polly Cardinal, Veda Wilson, Oleta Wilson, June McDonald, Kathleen Thornton, Edythe Clark, Gleyann Earle Cummings, Virginia Taylor, Gertrude Smitherman, Judy Beedy, Bonnie Graham, Bobbie Kinnibrugh, Annelda Staples, Lulu Teague, Margaret Calahan, Denise and baby Cameron Calahan, Carlene Johnson and hostess Mamie Wood, Ruby Lee Higginbotham, Mildred Hamm, and Dot Cummings. Thanks to all who helped make the 1989 Breakfast at Mamie's a wonderful occasion.

Friday, June 23, Ruby Lee Higginbotham, her sister Edith Guggenheim of Amarillo, were in Abilene for the weekend reunion of the Higginbotham's reunion.

Louise (Higginbotham) Crump was the hostess for the reunion of her nephews and nieces. The reunion was held at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Abilene. There was 47 descendants of the late B.W. (Bud) Higginbotham. Louise is the last survivor of the family of 11 children. She is the sister-in-law of Ruby Lee Higginbotham.

Mamie Wood traveled to Tucumcari, N.M., Friday for the weekend visit with a friend of many years, Winnie Stratton. Also visiting with Winnie and Mamie were friends from Nara Visa, Bill and Lelia Rhinestone. Mamie returned to her home Sunday evening. Monday Mamie and Jane McCulley enjoyed the day in Lubbock having lunch and shopping.

This Tuesday morning, we have overcast skies and cool temperatures.

Prayer for the Week
O Father, light up the small duties of this life: May they shine with the beauty of thy countenance. May we believe that glory may dwell in the commonest task. For the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord we ask it. Amen.

Wisdom is knowing what to do
Skill is knowing how to do it
Virtue is in doing it well.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

June 27:

Monday started the week as usual with morning coffee and juice. At 10:30 we had the devotional time. Bro. Wright couldn't be with us, so we shared Ps. 27:11-12, "Teach me Lord what you want me to do and lead me in a safe path." At 2 p.m. the residents had current events and a smell test, smelling different types of spices which they used to cook with. It was fun.

Tuesday we shared from Matt. 5, gospel on the Beatitudes and dwelled on, if we are peace makers, we shall be called children of God. We all said the prayer of peace by St. Francis of Assisi. Lord make us your instruments of peace, peace in ourselves, family, the home and where we work. At 2 p.m. the ladies from the Companions 'n' Caring came and did manicures. They were Shirley Varner, Leona Neff, Dolores Cannon and Sue Hoogstra.

Wednesday Bro. Sammy Rodriguez from the Spanish Assembly of God came and shared the rest of Ps. 91 and at 2 p.m. the residents played Bingo. Georgetown Smith had the first Bingo. Everyone are winners. Mary Alice Davis came and assisted the residents, had a full house. Sixteen residents played.

Thursday, Helen Lipham came and shared an hour with us, with song and praise. We shared 2 Peter 3:10-18, "And so my friends, as you wait for that day, do your best to be pure, and faultless in God's sight and to be at peace with Him, using the wisdom that, that God gives." At 2 p.m. the residents saw a film of my daughter's wedding Paula in Brainerd, Minn. They also enjoyed popcorn and cookies and sand tarts brought to them by the First Baptist Church Vacation Bible School children. The children also had some paper cups that were decorated with hearts, flowers and scrolls of scriptures were rolled up in the cups. Thanks children that was very thoughtful and kind.

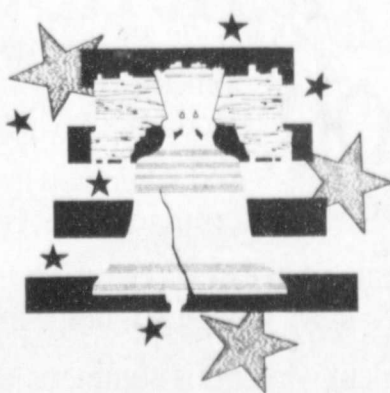

Friday, the ladies from the First Baptist Church came and gave the devotional and Letha Mulder brought a guest, Ernestine Pleasant to sing some specials. The songs were beautiful and inspiring. Come again, Ernestine, we enjoyed it very much. Evelyn played the piano and also closed with a prayer. The residents went on the bus ride to Crosbyton. My-T-Burger treated them to some ice cream. Delma drove the bus. They enjoyed seeing the corn crop and the cotton and the feed.

We want to thank the Farmers Home Administration for the fruit that they sent, watermelons and the cantaloupe.

The weather changes when we age,
Or so I have been told;
We only have two seasons then,
Too hot or else too cold.
Virginia Mock

We want to thank the Church of Christ for coming out Sunday to share with song and the world.

This week's visitors were: Angelina Reynolds, Scott Faulkenberry, Lucille Sisson, Mel and Marjorie Holcomb, Mildred Wylie, Ossie Lee Brown, Jan-

Happenings At Caprock Hospital

by Mollie Stringer

The warm dry weather has been very welcomed by us all. Most families around are trying to get crops started again. Others are busy planning vacations or family gatherings for the summer. Several of our group at the hospital have already taken vacations and others are scheduled.

We had an excellent response to the mobile mammogram unit. Twenty-three ladies had mammograms done. We thank you for your support. We will be offering this service again on August 9th.

The report of your mammogram will be mailed to your physician within two weeks. You will not receive a copy of this. Your physician will be able to answer any questions you may have after he receives your report.

We had a birthday luncheon last week to celebrate the birthdays of Betty Baker, Joyce Smith, Linda Brewer and Patti Miller. The food and fellowship was excellent.

The Board of Directors had their evening meeting and enjoyed a delicious meal of Mexican food, salad and chocolate pie. Those present were: William Bertrand, president; Fred Thayer, Melba Vickers and Joy Assiter. Others attending were Leroy Schaffner, Mollie Stringer and Nell McClung.

The clinic is getting a new roof this week. This very urgent need was evident after the recent large rains we received.

Ralph Jackson, who works in our maintenance department, spent last week in Las Vegas at the Southern Baptist Convention.

Bill and Molly Stringer enjoyed having Melody from Lubbock, and Christy and Paul Newberry from Dallas visiting during the weekend.

Diabetes class meets tonight in the hospital dining room. Weigh-in is at 6:30 p.m. and class at 7 p.m.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY Be Positive

How often have you heard people bemoan their failure to take advantage of past opportunities. They are foolish, for the present offers the greatest opportunity for all of us.

Courage and faith in oneself and the future are fundamental to success.

There will always be temporary economic and personal bad moments. However, if you are positive, they will have a way of turning out for the best.

The best time to plan and forge ahead is when others are afraid.

The world is full of perpetual pessimists; be very careful following their advice.

Have continued faith in your associates, yourself and your beliefs. Be forgiving. You will be glad you did.

A Message From...

The Texas Historical Commission

A young boy, at the impressionable age of eight or nine, shovels with practiced ease, working with his father. They are robbing a pre-historic grave.

Excited by the pots being uncovered, relic collectors destroy a centuries-old cemetery where pre-historic Indian villagers once buried their dead. The remains of the village have already been bulldozed into meaningless heaps of earth in the determined search for the "good stuff," the burials.

Ancient paintings, recounting the myths of long-vanished Indians, are spray-painted over with initials and obscenities. The graffiti are the calling card of a collector who came looking for something valuable to carry away and found only priceless art on the walls of a rock shelter.

Other relic hunters pursue more recent prey, digging where a Civil War soldier lies buried. They are looking for a handful of silver buttons.

Bronze monuments marking important places from our honored past are ripped away or stand scarred by rifle bullets.

Are these scenes from a novel about the breakdown of society's values? Are these emotional scare stories made up by some self-interested archeologist who just wants to save the sites for himself? Or are these actual scenes from everyday life, today, in Texas?

All of these are real stories, and we hear them recounted and visit the sites where they happen week after week, year after year. And these are only the stories that disturb us most, that stir our deepest feelings about the sacredness of final resting places and respect for the religious practices and beliefs of all peoples.

Other stories are casual, commonplace, daily occurrences of the disturbance of burials of a different kind. All we will ever know about thousands of years of the Texas past lies on and beneath the ground, in places called archeological sites. The history the sites will reveal has not yet been written in any book, is not yet known to any living person.

The thieves of this buried past strike by night and by day, and the activities of these casual collectors and commercial relic hunters take place with the unspoken and indifferent consent of their fellow Texans. The laws that protect a few sites—those on public lands—are openly ignored. Lack of understanding of the damage being done, indifference, and greed all play their part in the destruction of thousands of archeological and historic sites in Texas every year.

What can we do about the desecration of burials and the loss of irreplaceable information about the past? There are not enough law enforcement officers in Texas, big as it is, to solve the problem statewide. There are not, and never will be, enough preservationists, archeologists, or historians to solve the problem in even one region of the state. More laws can be written—and are needed—but only the consent of all Texans to abide by and enforce those laws can make the laws work.

There is only one solution to the problem of the careless destruction of our heritage. Each of us, native Texan and naturalized Texan alike, must care.

Each of us must show respect for human burial sites, regardless of whether those sites are isolated, unmarked burials or recognized cemeteries—and regardless of whose remains lie buried there. Each of us must be convinced that knowledge about the human past has a greater value than the price of a pot sold at an auction or a framed collection of arrow points hanging on a collector's wall. Each of us must act on these convictions, in whatever ways are appropriate, meaningful, or possible for us.

When we do this, the vandalism will stop. The heritage of Texas will then be honored as all Texans daily proclaim it is. Or else, the vandalism will be stopped in another way—there simply will be no more sites left to destroy.

Burial was in the Floydada Cemetery under the direction of the Moore-Rose-White Funeral Home.

Mrs. Bullard was born April 25, 1902 in Odell, Wilbarger County. In 1917 she moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Austin, and nine brothers and sisters to Floyd County. The family settled in the Fairview Community. On February 3, 1924 she married Ed Bullard, and they began their married life on a farm in the Fairview Community where their first two sons were born. In 1931 they moved to a farm near Mountainair, New Mexico. There five more children were born. In 1945 they moved to Anthony, New Mexico, where Ed worked at La Tuna Prison. In 1950 the family again moved, this time to Dell City, where Ed became one of the first farmers in the newly opened irrigated farming valley. After Ed's sudden death in 1954, Glennie made her home at Dell City and Lubbock until she moved to Hitchcock in 1980.

Survivors include four daughters, Stella Pritchett of Hitchcock, Helen Norwood of Richmond, Sherri Williams of Pomona, Calif., and Norma Spain of Oroville, Calif.; three sons, Gary of Abilene, Don of Dell City, and George of Gardendale; one brother, Truett Austin of Lubbock; 20 grandchildren; and 26 great-grandchildren.

Two sisters who preceded her in death were Anna Wilson of the Fairview Community and Sally Reeves of South Plains.

Use the right appliance for the job.

Sometimes it gets hot enough to fry an egg on the sidewalk. But on an electric iron? There are better things to use. And when you need to cool and heat your home, there are better things to use than a heat pump.

A heat pump can't cool your home in summer, as well as a high-efficiency air conditioner. And it can't warm your home in winter as well as a natural gas furnace.

Think of winter this summer. For comfortable efficient heating in your home, the most effective appliance ever made is a natural gas furnace. Period.

Don't mess with your furnace.

DOUBLE COUPONS
Wednesday & Saturday

Weekend accident hospitalizes several

A two vehicle accident on Saturday, June 24, led to injuries of four members of a Floydada family. Seat belts were credited with the probable saving of one life.

The accident occurred at 8:15 p.m. on FM 1958, 4.7 miles S.E. of Floydada. A 1978 green Pontiac, driven by Nellie DeLaFuenta, 26, of Floydada, was southbound on FM 1958. A 1987 grey Chevrolet, driven by Chad Pernell, 19, of Dougherty, was westbound on an unnamed county road. According to Trooper Marty Lucke, who investigated the accident, "Mr. Pernell ran a yield sign and struck the Pontiac broadside.

There were four people in the Pontiac besides Mrs. DeLaFuenta. Her husband, Miguel, was in the passenger seat and her two children, Evette and Sulema were in the back. All of the DeLaFuenta's were transported to Caprock Hospital and treated for cuts, bruises and lacerations. Pernell, who was wearing his safety belt, was uninjured.

"Both cars are totaled," said Lucke. "The front left quarter panel and the drivers door took most of the impact on the Pontiac and the front of Pernell's pickup is totaled. Pernell was probably saved by his seat belt."

Pernell was issued a citation for failure to yield right of way, and DeLaFuenta was cited for no insurance. "Neither speed or alcohol were contributing factors in this accident," said Lucke.

Because the Floydada ambulance was on another call, and unavailable, the Lockney Ambulance was summoned to the scene. "I want to thank everyone who assisted me," said Lucke. "I was helped out by the Floydada Police Department, off duty nurses and off duty Floydada ambulance crew members as well as the Lockney Ambulance Service."

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

Hi, well, another week has gone by, and summer begins June 21st. It's time for vacations, picnics, swimming and a time for having some fun.

Monday Irene Wexler and Bro. Bill Wright from the First United Methodist Church came and shared the devotion. Bro. Bill spoke from Mark's gospel about Jesus calming the storm. He spoke on how Jesus calms us when we have to go through a storm. All of us have experienced the storms in our life. At 2:00 p.m. the residents played some games, and we discussed the circus which was coming to Lubbock. They shared some memories about the circus when they were kids.

Tuesday Dianna Galvan and I attended an Activity Directors Seminar in Lubbock to receive our hours for continuing education which we need. Dr. Jeffrey and his wife Elizabeth Eliss spoke to us on Alzheimers Disease. June Irons from Knox Village Home gave us a program on Reality Orientation. She was chosen the "Activity Director of the Year" and given a plaque for her accomplishments.

Wednesday Bro. Sammy Rodriguez

came and shared Psalms 91 with us, about God being our defender and our protector. He will cover you with his wings, you will be safe in his care. Bingo was played as usual, and Della Halencak had the first bingo. Mary Alice Davis came and helped the residents play. I must say that we had a full house, about 15 or 16.

Thursday was our monthly birthday party. The ladies from the Church of Christ came and served the cake and punch. The ladies serving were Eunice Hardy, Beulah Baker, Ruth Walker, Elva Blum, and Lorilla Bradley. Al and Sally Galloway were guests of Mrs. Ellen Galloway, and Wayne and Mary Holcomb were guests of Mrs. Ruby Holcomb. They live in Buffalo, Missouri. The residents having birthdays were James Taylor, Pauline Faulkenberry, Jura Roberts, and Ellen Galloway.

Friday Ernestine Pleasant came and sang some special songs for us. We really did enjoy them, come again. Letha Mulder opened with a prayer, and Evelyn Latta played the piano for us. The residents went to Plainview on the bus ride, McDonalds treated them to some ice cream. Those going on the bus ride were Billy Probasco, Charles Breeding, Edward Jameson, Brooks Calloway, Iva Wells, Florence Curry, Georgeita Smith, Icy Weathers, Margaret Lowell, and Burmah Probasco.

We want to welcome a new resident, Mrs. Lucille Whitehurst, she is the mother of Lucy Eastman.

This week's visitors were: Phillip Wilson, Willie Belaska, Rev. Larry Perkins, Elsie Thacker, Grace Shelton, Leona Mayo, Frances Badgett, Mildred Wylie, Wayne and Mary Holcomb, Buffalo, Missouri; Alma Rape, Willie Mae Smith, May Sue, Winnie Neil, Artie Webb, Angelina Reynolds, Gladys Gray, Helen Smith, Billy Lawson, Loretta Chapman, Wayne and Sue Childress, Myria Dade, Ethel Warren, Viola Wise, Dave and Frances Willis, Paducah; Mel and Marjorie Holcomb, and Irene Wexler.

First Christian Church sets revival

Jack K. Garrett, Senior Minister of First Christian Church, Brownfield, will be the revival speaker for First Christian Church, Floydada, July 9-11.

Mary Kathleen Stripling, May graduate from University of Texas, Arlington, and resident of Fort Worth, will be the director of music and special singer for the revival.

Preaching services with special music will be held nightly at 7:00.

Garrett comes highly recommended to the Floydada congregation having served the Brownfield church for over 28 years.

The revival speaker was born in Harrogate, Tennessee, attended public schools in Cisco, Texas; spent a year at Riverside Military Academy, Gainesville, Georgia, before entering the U.S. Army. He served in Europe during WWII.

Following the war he returned to Cisco and entered the Junior college of that city in the fall of 1946. There he met and married Robbie Jo McNeely, also of Cisco.

The visiting evangelist received his bachelor's degree from TCU in 1949 and his wife received her degree the year following. Garrett continued studying for the ministry at Brite Divinity School, TCU, and received his Master of Theology degree in 1952.

While a ministerial student he served churches at Rochelle, Blooming Grove, and Wellington, Texas. After graduation he became pastor of Christian churches in Seminole, Fort Worth and Center, Texas.

Garrett was called to become pastor of First Christian Church, Brownfield, in March 1961 where he continues to lead that congregation in a growing way.

Mr. Garrett was given an outstanding Achievement Award by the Christian Church in the Southwest (Disciples of Christ), regional office in Fort Worth, in 1967. He was also honored as the Outstanding Citizen of Terry County in 1975. His own church honored him by naming the newly constructed and enlarged church fellowship hall after him as "Garrett Hall."

In the 1970's the Brownfield congregation relocated from a downtown location, east on the Tahoka highway where they have experienced rapid growth and completed two new building programs.

The Garretts have three daughters, Anne, of San Antonio, Jean of Corpus Christi, and Barbara of Lubbock. They also have two granddaughters.

Kathleen (Stripling) as she is called by her family and friends, was born in Burley, Idaho, to the Reverend Dale and Mrs. Mary Harter, pastor and wife of First Christian Church, Floydada. She is the second youngest child of a family of four daughters and one son.

The visiting singer grew up in Texas, attending public schools in Canyon, Borger, Alice and graduated from high school in Stephenville. She was an outstanding choir member in high school, and won a position on the T.E.M.A. all-state choir in 1973.

Her college education included Tarrant County Junior College, Fort Worth, Texas Wesleyan College, Fort Worth, and the University of Texas, Arlington, where she graduated with a BS degree in Music education. She is qualified to teach choirs of all levels, K-12, and will be teaching in the Crowley schools this fall.

At UTA she sang in the A Capella choir; performed Verdi "Requiem" at Lincoln Center New York City in 1987, and the polenc "Gloria" at Carnegie Hall, New York City, in March of this year.

Church music is no stranger to the visiting singer. She sang in church choirs as a youth and many times being the church soloist. She was popular in singing for weddings and was called upon frequently to sing for funerals.

Professionally she lead all the church choirs for Genesis United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, and served as church soloist. She was also choir director for First United Methodist Church of Benbrook, working with all choirs and was church soloist.

For the past two years she has taught music in the UTA upward bound student program in Arlington on Saturdays.

Mrs. Stripling, upon her graduation from UTA in May received the Arlington Association of Texas Professional Educators award.

Kathleen is married to Keith Stripling of Fort Worth. He works for General Dynamics Corp. The couple have two sons, Brian and Ted.

A revival task force, headed by Ed Wester, general chairman, "has been working hard for this meeting." Other task force members include: Pauline Pierce, food and fellowship; Martha Farris, worship and special music; Floriene and Glenn Jamagin, prayer vigil; Jo Wester, attendance; Don Barrow, breakfasts; Pauline Pierce, telephone tree; Martha Farris and Dale Harter, publicity.

Garrett will speak not only at the 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 9, 10 and 11th, but also at the luncheons on Monday and Tuesday.

The luncheons will be served at 12:00 noon and the breakfasts at 7:00 a.m. The schedule will permit working people to get to work before 8:00 a.m. and eat lunch during their one hour lunch break.

The public is cordially invited to hear Jack K. Garrett and Mrs. Kathleen Stripling, revival preacher and singer, at First Christian Church, for all scheduled meetings, July 9-11.

Board okays school air conditioning

Meeting in a special called session on June 21, the board of trustees of the Floydada Independent School District reviewed bids for proposed air conditioning of four district school buildings. Four representatives were present to explain their bid and answer questions concerning the proposed project and its completion. The four included representatives from Quality Plumbing and Heating of Plainview and the Rheem heating and cooling equipment factory.

A motion by Andy Hale, seconded by Adolfo Garcia, was passed unanimously by all board members present. The motion accepted the bid of $259,402.00 dollars as the low bidder for the project. Air conditioning and heating units will be installed according to specifications at A. B. Duncan Elementary, R. C. Andrews Elementary, Junior High and High School. This does not include the Della Plains facility, nor does it include the High School auditorium. Structural limitations preclude installation of the type of units being used for this project in these locations.

The project will be financed by a lease purchase plan over a period of 6 years. All units should be installed and fully operational by school opening on August 28, 1989.

Attending the Wednesday evening meeting were board members Charlene Brown, Michael Hinsley, Cyndiann Williams, John Campbell, Adolfo Garcia, and Andy Hale. Also present were school superintendent Jerry Cannon and administrative assistant Jimmie Collins.

We Salute..

Things they never told you about a heat pump.

Fact #2

You'll pay more if you cool your home with a heat pump.

Why? A heat pump costs more than a high-efficiency air conditioner to begin with.

It costs more than an air conditioner to have it installed.

It costs more to maintain.

It takes more electricity to operate.

When you read or hear that a heat pump saves money, consider the source.

Floyd County 4-H'ers get awards at State Roundup

Nine Floyd County 4-H members competed at State 4-H Roundup held at Texas A&M University during the month of June. These youth were among the over 2,000 4-H'ers from across the state to compete.

Two Floyd County teams placed in the top three in their competition category and were afforded the opportunity to walk across the stage in front of that group of 2,000 to receive their awards.

The first team that placed 3rd out of 24 teams was a Focus on Health team consisting of Janet Himes and Tiffany Gentry. These two girls mostly coached themselves with some help from Mary True. They did a demonstration entitled "Fun and Fitness" where they gave information on how to exercise safely and how to exercise in a way that the cardiovascular system will be benefited. These girls worked hard perfecting an exercise routine which they did at the beginning of their demonstration. Between practicing that routine and the exercises they demonstrated showing appropriate exercises for warming up, cooling off, etc., these girls were really fit!

The other team which placed 3rd in their category of Electric Energy was made up of Lance Patridge and David Turbeville and was coached by Susan Patridge and Mary True. These boys gave an illustrated talk entitled "The Hot Facts." This talk was on electrical safety and told how to use circuit protectors to protect the electric circuits of a home or business. These boys began their talk by role playing the parts of a fireman and a "girl" whose house had burned. Their point was to protect circuits and not take electrical safety for granted.

Other Floyd County 4-H'ers competing in the state contest were Shawn Hill, Grant Cage, Christie Rowan, Phillip Glasson and Heath Rexrode. Shawn gave an illustrated talk in the Cooperative Contest entitled "Years of Light". He placed fifth and received $20 prize money from the contest sponsor, Texas Agricultural Cooperative Council. Grant, Christie, Phillip and Heath were members of the rifle team. This team, coached by Warren Mitchell, placed 19th out of 28 teams with some very close and tough competition! Grant placed 46th high individual out of 104 in competition.

DUO PLACES THIRD AT STATE — A demonstration entitled "The Hot Facts" earned Lance Patridge and David Turbeville of Lockney a third place award at the recent roundup activities. The pair competed in the Electric Energy Demonstration category of the annual 4-H event.

STATE THIRD PLACE WINNERS — Floyd County 4-H members Tiffany Gentry, daughter of Travis and Geraldine Gentry, and Janet Himes, daughter of S. D. and Kathy Himes, teamed to earn third place in a state Focus on Health Contest at the 1989 roundup at Texas A&M University. "Fun & Fitness" was the title of their presentation.

Local students attend Farm Bureau seminar

Attending the Texas Farm Bureau's 27th annual Citizenship Seminar in San Angelo June 12-16 were Phillip Glasson, Lockney; Heather Henderson, Floydada; Anita McCormick, Floydada, and Tim Nelson, Lockney.

Sponsored by the Floyd County Farm Bureau, they were among approximately 400 high school junior and senior students from 162 counties across the state.

Purpose of the seminar is to provide the students with a better understanding of their American heritage and the capitalistic free enterprise system, according to Phil Dunavant of Floydada, county FB president.

Speakers at this year's seminar and their subjects are as follows:

Jack Jackson of Fort Worth, president of Jackson, Associates, "Price of Free Enterprise"; Dr. Lynne Thibodeaux of College Station, an Extension 4-H specialist, "Becoming a Winning Citizen"; Dr. Calvin Kent of Waco, director of Baylor University's Center for Private Enterprise, "Free Enterprise and You."

Also, Steve Pratt of Washington, D.C., national field director for the Center for Constitutional Studies, "Freedom in the Nineties"; Basilio Bachor, a Polish immigrant now living in Corpus Christi, "Selling America"; Michael Broome of Charlotte, N.C., "You and America—Two Great Champions."

S.M. True of Plainview, president of Texas Farm Bureau; and Vernie R. Glasson of Waco, TFB executive director, will also address the students.

LEADERSHIP CAMP PARTICIPANTS — Five Floyd County youngsters attended a South Plains Leadership Camp held on the Levelland Campus of South Plains College, building leadership skills through participation in many types of recreation, project groups, tournaments, folk games and leadership workshops. Local 4-H'ers involved included (left to right) Michael Mercado, Mark Todd Terrell, Adam Muniz, Mandy Hunter and Charla Yeary.

Tech honors list cites four from Floydada

More than 2,000 Texas Tech University students qualified for the academic honors lists at the end of the 1989 spring semester.

Four Floydada students earned the honor of being named on the honor lists. Included on the Dean's List were David Bryan Beaty and Holly Beth Farnsworth.

Beaty, a senior Finance major, is the son of Doug and Linda Brewer of Floydada. Farnsworth, a senior Biology major, is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Howell E. Farnsworth Jr., Floydada.

The President's List named Roger Kyle Alldredge and Kelli Lynn Whitten of Floydada.

Allredge is a senior Agricultural Engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Alldredge. Whitten, a junior Family Studies major, is the wife of Randy Whitten.

Students on the President's Honor List earned a perfect 4.0 (A) grade-point-average while enrolled in 12 or more semester hours of class work. Students finishing 12 or more hours with a grade-point-average of 3.5 to 3.9 qualified for the Dean's Honor List.

Bradshaw receives degree from Tech

Anna Leta Bradshaw was awarded a Bachelor of Science in Education degree from Texas Tech University during 1989 spring commencement exercises.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bradshaw of Floydada, was among 1,400 students who received their degrees during spring commencement.
