Today we would like to visit briefly about three items, all of which relate directly to our community.

The first is to express our appreciation to the people of the community for coming through with flying colors on the Caprock Hospital Ambulance Fund. At last account the fund stood at nearly $92,000, thanks to $31,620.47 in individual contributions and a generous $60,000 contribution from the Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust.

The gift from the Cogdell family trust fund put the fund drive over the top, well over the top, of that needed to purchase the new ambulance. The extra money, and money that may yet come in, should assure that this area will be well served with emergency medical services in the years ahead. It is another indication what a community can do when a need arises, and when the community responds to that need. Our thanks to everybody, and our thanks especially to D.M. and the folks who direct the affairs of the Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust.

Next we want to urge the entire community to turn out and support the third annual world famous Floydada Punkin Days festival this weekend. The event has generated a good bit of attention over the state, even across the nation, and we don't want to slow down now. We're on a roll, so let's keep it rolling. It can only get bigger and better, if the community spirit that got it started continues to manifest itself this year and in the years ahead.

The next item is a little more involved. As about everybody in Floyd County now knows, one of our City Councilmen here in Floydada ran afoul of the law and paid a fine, but his name did not show up in our paper. Quite a few people were perplexed by this, and some probably thought we were playing favorites, or were somehow afraid to run it, or something. Please be assured this was not the case.

First, the facts of the case. The Floyd County Sheriff's office received a call from a lady on Oct. 16, at 3:45 p.m., asking for police assistance. The caller gave only an address.

The call was relayed and Police Chief James Hale responded. The address turned out to be the residence of Councilman Ruben Barrientos. Upon arriving at the councilman's home, Hale took the wife outside, away from her husband, to get her story. She claimed that an argument had ensued over her desire to go to Lubbock to play bingo, and that as a result of that argument her husband had struck her, etc. Hale says he observed that she had broken glasses, and a cut on her face that could have resulted from the broken glasses, that she had other bruises about her face and arms, some of which she claimed were the result of previous altercations.

Hale then escorted the City Councilman, after some words were exchanged, to the offices of Municipal Court where misdemeanor charges were filed. And

All-School Pep Rally set Friday

School will be released early Friday, October 27, so all students can have the opportunity to attend the all-school pep rally.

The undefeated Whirlwinds will face arch-rival Littlefield on Friday, October 27, at Wester Field. Show your spirit and support for your team by attending the pep rally, starting at 3:10 p.m. at the junior high gym.

The rally is also a great way to kick off two days of Punkin festival activities. Be sure and get in your costume after the rally and come to the square for the costume judging contest.

Punkin Days festival kicks off tomorrow

Friday, October 27, will be the start of Floydada's third annual 'Punkin Days' festival. You will have two days to prove to the world that Floydada is truly Pumpkin Capital, U.S.A.

Decoration Contest

Judges will be in town Friday checking out decorated businesses and yards. A first place prize of $15.00, $10.00 for second place, and $5.00 for third place will be awarded in the business and yard division.

People outside the city limits can enter, but they should enter their name and location with the Chamber of Commerce office so the judges will be sure and find you.

If your decoration is inside your business and you want to be sure the judges see it, you should also call the chamber office. If no one is in the office at the time, just leave your name and address on the phone.

The winners will be announced at the end of the costume judging contest.

Business Activities

Downtown is the place to be on Friday and Saturday.

Besides viewing the decorated windows, be sure and stop in at the Floydada businesses and see how your local merchant will be dressed on Friday.

The second floor of the courthouse, The Hesperian, Sue's Gifts and Sunbelt Savings will be serving refreshments to visitors on Friday. The Floyd County Historical Museum will also be open all day Saturday.

Photography once again has a special for those dressed in costumes. Stop in from 1:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. and check out their special Halloween rates.

There will be good buys downtown. Be sure and check the ads inside this week's paper for all the specials.

Costume Judging Contest

Registration for the costume contest will start at 4:30 p.m. near the courthouse pavilion. There will also be a table set up to register for the Saturday morning races.

The costume contest will hopefully start at 5:00 p.m.

Age categories for everyone include: infant-kindergarten; 1st-3rd grade; 4th-6th grade; 7th-8th grade; 9th-12th grade; adults and group theme.

SATURDAY ACTIVITIES

Races
The 5K Run and Fun Run will kick off the activities on Saturday starting with the 5K at 10:00 a.m. and the Fun Run and Stroller Race at 11:00 a.m. See the separate story explaining details of the races and outlining the route.

Contest Entries

All contest entries must be submitted by 10:00 a.m. Entries include: smallest pumpkin; largest pumpkin; ugliest gourd; prettiest corn; best painted pumpkin, 13 & over and under 13; best carved pumpkin, 13 & over and under 13; best pumpkin pie.

Home Grown Pumpkin

The pumpkins grown from the seed donated by the Chamber of Commerce must be entered for the contest by 10:00 a.m.

Plenty of entries are expected by Duncan and Andrews Elementary students. The winner of the largest pumpkin will win a 20" dirt bike, donated by Johnny Summers, manager of Pay-N-Save.

Guess The Weight

Be sure and register your guess for the "Guess The Weight of The Pumpkins" piled in the trailer. All guesses have to be submitted by 11:00 a.m., so we can use the pumpkins in our games.

The winner will receive $25.00, donated by Hulon and Gary Carthel of Heptad Vegetables and pumpkin grower Scott Faulkenberry.

Races will begin day's activities

The first Punkin Day 5K and Fun Run and Stroller Race will kick off the activities Saturday, October 28.

Entry fee into all races is $10.00 for adults. Entry fee for children riding in the strollers is $7.00. Everyone who enters will be given a Floydada, Pumpkin Capital U.S.A. T-Shirt.

The 5-K Race will start the Punkin Day festivities at 10:00 a.m. If you have not pre-registered you must be at the race sight (the N.E. corner of the courthouse by 9:00 a.m. If you have pre-registered, be at your race 30 minutes prior to the beginning.

The starting line for the 5K race will be the northeast corner of the courthouse (between Farm Bureau and City Auto).

The route will be: east on Missouri, south on the inside lane of the Silverton Highway, west on the inside lane of Highway 70, south on 8th street (by Duncan Elementary), west on Hallie Street (one block), south on Main (one block), west on Ollie, north on third, come back east on the inside lane of Highway 70, north on Wall Street (in front of Shop Rite) and to the finish line in front of Farm Bureau (northeast corner of courthouse).

The city police and the Texas Highway Department will have cones out to mark the course.

5K runners will be divided into three categories: 0-18 years, 19-29 years, and 30 and up. First place trophies will be presented in each age group. Ribbons will be awarded to second and third place winners.

Immediately following the 5K will be the Fun Run and Stroller Race. It will begin in front of the Courthouse, across from Sears. The route will be south up Main Street, left on the inside lane of Highway 70, left on Wall (by Tipton's), and back to the finish line by Farm Bureau.

The five age categories for the Fun Run are: 0-12 years; 13-16 years; 17-25 years; 25 & over; Stroller Race. First, second and third place ribbons will be presented.

Health Fair set for Saturday

Finger printing youth will be one of the several services set for the Health Fair that will be held Saturday in conjunction with "Punkin Day". The Health Fair will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the County Extension Office located on the Southeast corner of the square.

"It is incredible to most parents that their child might be kidnapped or missing", says Mary True, County Extension Agent for Home Economics, "but it can happen. Finger printing is a way that you can be sure you identify our child."

The Floyd County Sheriff Department will be finger printing any youth free of charge. They do not keep a copy of the print, but rather give them to the parents to keep. It is suggested that the print be stored between sheets of typing paper or in plastic to prevent tearing of the print.

There will be other services offered as a part of the Health Fair. Blood pressure will be tested free of charge. Glucose and blood cholesterol levels will be tested for a minimal fee. A computerized health risk appraisal can be run free of charge. There will also be educational displays set up by the Department of Public Safety and The Health Fair Store among others.

Be sure to take some time during the

"Punkin Day" festivities to visit the Health Fair. This Health Fair is being co-sponsored by the Extension Home Economics Committee and the Extension Program Council. Educational ac-

Miss Floydada will be awarded scholarship in excess of $200.00

The Women's Division of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce has announced that a scholarship will be given to the winner of this year's Miss Floydada Pageant.

The amount of the scholarship will depend on the gate proceeds collected at the Holiday Happenings Style Show. The Women's division will give 50% of the gate proceeds, and the regular chamber will also give 50% of the gate proceeds. The women's division, which sponsors the style show each fall, is anticipating the amount of the scholarship to be in excess of $200.00.

The scholarship is the first offered to the pageant winner since its inception. Holiday Happenings will be held this year on Nov. 13th, and the Miss Floydada Pageant will be Nov. 18.

Applications for the pageant are available at Williams Florist, Floydada High School or the Chamber of Commerce office. To participate in the Miss Floydada contest you must be a student in Floydada High School during the 1989-90 school year. An entry fee of $25.00 is also required.

Your application and recent photo must be turned in to the chamber office by November 14.

The Miss Floydada Pageant will be held in conjunction with the Little Miss Floydada Pageant. The pageants are co-sponsored by the Floydada Chamber of Commerce and the Women's Division of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce. Besides the scholarship, other prizes will be donated by area businesses.

For more information on the Miss Floydada pageant contact pageant coordinator Cyndi Williams at 983-5013. Ginger Warren is coordinating the Little Misses pageant.

District Attorney also to be County Attorney

Beginning November 1, district attorney Becky McPherson will be serving as county attorney for Floyd County. McPherson will be handling the duties of county attorney for Floyd County on a temporary basis until necessary legislation can be introduced and passed by the state legislature making it possible for her to prosecute misdemeanor cases in Floyd County.

McPherson already does double duty as district attorney and county attorney in Briscoe and Dickens Counties under the auspices of previous legislative action. Her territory as district attorney for the 110th District also includes Floyd and Motley Counties.

The proposal submitted by McPherson would save the county more than $6,000 of the money budgeted for the operation of the county attorney's office this year.

According to county judge Bill Hardin, "Including benefits, the county budgeted $36,084.62 for the operation of the county attorney's office. This includes his salary, the secretary's salary, supplies, liability insurance and travel money. McPherson's proposal asks for $23,165.04 to be used at her discretion, but not as a supplement to her current state paid salary."

McPherson says she would use the money to purchase "camera equipment, surveillance equipment, drug testing kits, computers, software and books." She also expressed the desire to utilize part of the funds to supplement the salary of her staff who would be called upon to handle an increased work load.

The books referred to by McPherson would include back issues of the South-

Stay Out of Jail

If you want to be sure and stay out of the 'Punkin Day Jail' on Saturday, the jailer will take a bribe of $3.00. For $3.00 you will be given a pass that enables you to stay out of jail. You have to purchase the reprieve first thing Saturday or else you may have to pay $5.00 to bail yourself out later on.

Absentee voting continues until Nov. 3

Floyd County Clerk Margaret Collier reminds county voters that absentee ballots will continue until November 3 in the County Clerk's Office of the Floyd County Courthouse in Floydada. Votes are being cast concerning the constitutional amendments on the November 7 election ballot.

Anyone wishing to cast an absentee ballot should bring their voter registration card and see Collier in her office during regular hours before 5:00 p.m. on Friday, November 3. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 12:00 noon and from 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m.

Collier reports nine ballots cast as of October 24.

Letter to the Editor

EDITORS NOTE:

The staff of the Hesperian would like to thank S. M. Yates, a subscriber from Sinton, Texas, for the thoughtful gift recently received at our office. A tiny 'Punkin Man' has joined Pete Floyd on the front counter. We appreciate the gift and hope you will continue to enjoy our publication for many years to come.

Dear Editor,

I was interested in the letter from Vicki Webster (Oct. 12 edition) regarding Hallowe'en. Although much of what she said was true (references to scripture, etc.), I believe that she has some misinformation concerning the meaning and origin of Hallowe'en.

In the first place, the name, itself came from Allhallow's Eve", Allhallow's being another name for All Saints' Day, which is celebrated on November 1st. The evening before All Saints Day (i.e., Allhallow's Eve) was a time when the evils of the world supposedly were loosed, prior to the advent of the saints' holy day. Christian people of the world dressed in costume and carried out various types of pranks in the way of a reminder that evil does, in fact, exist in the world. The coming of midnight, which marked the beginning of All Saints' Day, banished the evil spirits for another year.

Granted, the idea has gotten grossly out of hand in recent years. Witness the Hallowe'en movie series. However, we still need to be reminded that evil is a powerful force in our world, one that doesn't wait until Allhallow's Eve to invade our lives.

Perhaps, rather than banish the tradition of Hallowe'en, we should stress the following All Saints' Day and its inherent quality of goodness overcoming evil. Rather than shield our children from the presence of evil, perhaps we should strive to teach them ways to overcome it in their lives, by means of faith and trust in our loving heavenly Father.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sara Probasco

Challenges have already started coming in for the races. For instance, Clar Schacht has issued a challenge to all fat men in Floydada. (See inside box for specifics on challenge).

Moms, dads, grandmothers and grandfathers all need to participate in the fun run and stroller race. The track team should appear to show off for the "I don't care when I get there runner."

An awards ceremony for the winners will be held under the courthouse pavilion after the last runner is in.

The Floydada Boy Scouts will help during the race by passing out water at the halfway mark. The Brownies will pass out fruit to participants at the end of the race.

People who have pre-registered can pick up their packets before the race or at a table which will be set up on the courthouse square, Friday, from 4:00 p.m.-6:30 p.m.

Entry forms can be obtained from many downtown businesses including The Hesperian and the Floydada Chamber of Commerce office.

It doesn't matter if you are a serious runner for these games. All the chamber of commerce wants is your participation to make the events enjoyable.

BILL STANFORTH'S PUMPKIN STORYTELLER

Carnivals continue Punkin Day festivities

'Punkin Day' fun is not over with Saturday after Floydada's downtown festivities. Children and adults can continue with their games at the Lockney PTA sponsored Pumpkin Patch Carnival.

The carnival kicks off at 6:00 p.m. and lasts until 9:00 p.m. The PTA is encouraging kids to dress as pumpkins, favorite super hero's, cartoon characters, story book characters, clowns and hobos. Scary costumes are being discouraged.

The following booths will be available and everyone can participate: color walk, sponge throw, face painting, hillbilly wedding, ring toss, balloon pop, hot shot basketball throw, spill art, Bozo's grand prize, football throw, cake walk, pin the tail on the longhorn, divorce booth, bowling booth, and a concession stand will be provided.

You can even enter a pumpkin carving contest, but your pumpkin has to be entered between 4:30 and 5:30 p.m. Pumpkins must be carved.

There will also be a Hallowe'en carnival in South Plains on Saturday, from 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. in the South Plains Community Center. There will be a cake walk, games, nachos, frito pies and lots of family fun.

Cancer support program available

The American Cancer Society has announced another support program available to cancer patients, families, and friends. "Dialogue" is an informal discussion group designed to help deal with the many challenges that cancer may present.

Group sharing is a great way to get help and to give help. It is an opportunity to share common experiences, problems and solutions.

The "Dialogue" group most available to Floydada and immediate area is one that meets every 4th Thursday in the month in the board room of the Central Plains Regional Hospital in Plainview. The director or facilitator of this discussion group is Mary Lou Reams, and the time of meeting is 7:00-8:00 p.m.

There is also a Dialogue group which meets every Wednesday in Lubbock at the Hodges Cancer Center at 3:00 p.m.

For further information on either group meeting, call 1-794-5808.

First place winners receive $15.00; second place receives $10.00; and third place winners receive $5.00. Kacie Lackey and Laura Hale will both receive $5.00 in their tie.

Prize money is being donated by: Lighthouse Electric Co-op, Producers Cooperative Elevator and Floydada Co-op Gin Incorporated. The money can be picked up at The Floyd County Hesperian for convenience.

Judges for the contest were: Penny Golightly, Jo Goen, Roseanne Bishop and Bill Gray.

All winning entries will be on display in The Hesperian window. Other entries are being displayed on downtown windows, courtesy of Bobby Gilliland's hard work.

Indian art inspires new pumpkin use

As fame spreads of Floydada's status as "Pumpkin Capital USA," new uses for the familiar orange globes will, no doubt, evolve.

While pies and jack-o-lanterns account for almost all current consumption, Bill Staniforth has found another creative use for locally-grown pumpkins.

Staniforth, the son of Billy and Frances Staniforth of South Plains, has introduced a line of Southwestern and Indian-inspired designs utilizing a combination of jacks, pie and mini pumpkins.

Enthusiastically received in both West Texas and New Mexico markets, these designs will be available next fall in shops and galleries, as well as on a custom-order basis.

Attracting the most comment in Staniforth's "Pumpkin Storyteller," a unique interpretation of the popular Indian figurines. The original "Storyteller," so legend goes, was cast in honor of the artist's grandfather who was constantly surrounded by boards of children, captivated by his stories and songs.

Today's storytellers vary widely, using elderly women and animals (bears and turtles, especially), in addition to men. Each Indian pueblo has developed its own representative style, with each individual artist adding her personal touch.

Storyteller figurines traditionally are made of kiln-baked clay and then hand-painted. Recent works have also been executed using dried gourds and wood. Staniforth's, however, is the first known use of pumpkins.

It seems entirely appropriate that Staniforth would develop a new use for Floydada's new cash crop. Last year he designed the official "Pumpkin Capital USA" logo now in use on t-shirts, jackets, caps and post cards.

Since graduating from UT Austin in 1971, he has been active in advertising, graphic illustration and design. While back in Floyd County in 1987-88, his creative touch was evidence on numerous local projects, including the creation of the Floyd County Hall of Fame and Friday Night Preview Party for Old Settlers, and the Floyd County Art Association's memorable production last spring of "The Mousetrap."

His color photography was awarded blue ribbons at both the Floyd County Art Show and the Floyd County Fair and was featured, along with his graphic designs, in the FHS Exes Art Exhibit at the First National Bank during the 1988 FHS Homecoming.

west Reporter and Texas Digest. The books would satisfy the needs of the district judge as well as McPherson and others who require them for reference purposes. The books would be the property of the county and would be updated and cared for at county expense.

"Unless otherwise specified, other purchases would be the property of the district attorney's office, but would be used to benefit Floyd County," said McPherson.

Approval of the proposal was made by unanimous vote on a motion by Precinct 1 commissioner Connie Bearden and seconded by Precinct 2 commissioner Floyd Jackson. The motion was made following an approximately one hour executive session during which the commissioners discussed five applicants for the post.

Others considered were Denette

Vaughn and Ruth Cantrell, both attorneys in Lubbock, Sharon Sutton Pigg, county attorney for Briscoe County, and John R. (Randy) Hollums of Floydada. All were seeking a pro tem appointment to the position rather than a full time post as county attorney.

The court adjourned after passing a motion to pay retiring county attorney Kenneth Bain through the entire month of October even though his retirement became effective October 18. The court also approved waiving the October rent Bain paid each month for private use of a county office facility. These actions were taken on a motion by Jackson, seconded by Precinct 4 commissioner Kay Crabtree.

Attending the Monday morning session were Judge Hardin, Commissioners Bearden, Jackson, Crabtree and George Taylor. The Hesperian reporter was present during the open portion of the meeting.

Jail

The Punkin Day committee has had a change of heart and decided not to subject people to a dirty stinky stock trailer.

To hold the crowded and unsanitary lawsuits to a minimum, the jail will now consist of stock panels set up near the lawn. (There will be no color T.V. or meals provided).

For $5.00 the jailers deputies will arrest anyone at the festivities or nearby (you can run, but you can't hide), and bring them before the jailer.

You will then be sentenced to hard labor at carving a pumpkin, or you can pay the jailer $5.00 and be paroled.

The jailer will also be happy to divulge the name of your accuser for another $5.00.

The committee is offering an alternative to going to jail. If you pay the jailer $3.00 at the beginning of the day, she will give you a stay out of jail pass. When the jailers come for you, all you have to do is show them your pass, and you're free.

All money goes to the chamber of commerce.

Arts & Crafts

Many handmade arts and crafts booths will be set up under and near the pavilion. The booths must be in place by 10:00 a.m.

There will also be food booths available, so there is no need to leave the square at lunch time.

Carving Contest

Beginning at 11:30 a.m., or after the race awards ceremony, children under 13 will be provided with a black magic marker and given one minute to draw a face on a pumpkin. The best face wins.

The Lamplighter...

It has been the policy of this paper that Class "C" misdemeanor charges, those normally handled by municipal court, are not carried as routine. Class "C" charges involve lesser offenses, such as traffic violations, simple assault, public intoxication and the like. Class "A" misdemeanors and Class "B" misdemeanors are normally referred to County Court, and are routinely carried in these papers, and felony charges are referred to District Court, and are also routinely carried in this paper.

So the question arose. Should we make an exception in this case, since it involved a City Councilman, and since we should normally hold elected officials to a little higher standard than the general citizenry, or should we stick to our policy and make no exception. Publication deadline was upon us and the decision was made, correctly we believe, to stick to our policy until a public announcement could be made of any change.

So for good or ill, our publisher (and editor) has decided that in the future our policy will be to reflect proceedings that involve Class "C" misdemeanors, along with Class "B", Class "A", as well as felony.

When we review the matter we find no fault with the way it was handled, except for the fact that perhaps we here at the paper did not foresee this particular kind of situation arising. And we hope it does not arise in the future. But if it does, you, our readers, can expect it to be covered promptly.

After the small kids are through, those 13 and over will be given a knife to carve a pumpkin. Three minutes is all the time that will be allotted this year for carving. The best face wins.

Pumpkin Race

After lunch, at 1:00 p.m., the world championship Pumpkin Race begins. People who pride themselves on their grace and dignity should not enter the race. Grace and dignity only get in your way.

There will only be two categories in this race: under 13, and 13 and over.

Wheelbarrow Race

Following the pumpkin race will be the first wheelbarrow race. Only those over 12 years old will be allowed to enter.

A team of two will race the clock. The passenger in the wheelbarrow, loaded with pumpkins, will navigate a blindfolded driver through an obstacle course.

Those people famous for their back seat driving advice would make good passengers.

Prizes Awarded

After the wheelbarrow race, around 2:00 p.m., ribbons will be awarded to those who entered pumpkins, etc., in the contest.

The $25.00 for the "Guess The Weight" contest will be awarded, and the dirt bike will also be awarded.

Jam Box Dance

The day does not have to end for everyone after the money is handed out.

FM99 has graciously agreed to entertain the crowd with their famous Jam Box. They will set the Jam Box up near the square for entertainment during the day.

If there is enough interest shown after the days activities are over, they have agreed to stay and let the music play.

The pavilion will be cleared after the festivities are over and the Jam Box could move to that location for dancing.

A schedule of events is provided elsewhere in the paper in a form you can clip out and carry with you during Punkin Days.

Everyone knows that the people participating makes the party a success. Your friends and neighbors from all over the county and hopefully the south plains will attend this festival.

Come out and support those who will be working to make this party a success. The "Punkin Committee" will be assisted by the Floydada Cheerleaders, Boys Scouts, Webelos, Brownies, all the talented people bringing their arts and crafts, people providing the food booths to feed us, and numerous other volunteers.

This is the perfect weekend to do something together as a family. Instead of going in different directions this weekend, bring the kids and yourself to town.

The RV park is booked up and visitors continue to call seeking information on the festivities. Be a good neighbor and come help us entertain them.

'Fat Men' You Are Being Challenged

Clar Schacht has issued a challenge to all fat men of Floydada to participate in the one mile fun run "Ha - Walk Maybe."

Examples of fat men: Bobby Gilliland, Coach Bates, Shorty Turner (oops!), Bill Smith, Connie Bearden, Bill Hale and Tommy Assiter.

come to join our special day. Please consider this your invitation to attend our pumpkin celebration. There'll be games, food and so much more. Fruits of our harvest in colors galore. Each Duster signed his name. Staff Photo

Burglary of business reported to police during past week

Police took a report on October 23 that a business on Highway 1956 had been burglarized.

The business was secured on Friday night, October 20. When it was opened on the morning of October 23 it was discovered that someone had gained entry by breaking a window.

Approximately $200.00 in cash was stolen and a $30.00 radio was also stolen.

On October 22, at 5:44 p.m. police received a report of subjects drinking at Annie Taylor Park and relieving themselves in public. Police responded and found the car. Julian Ramon Moreno, 30, of Mexico was charged with DWI. Mr. Juan Manuel Torres, 31, was issued a citation for consuming alcoholic beverages in public and also for making alcohol available to minors.

Police also investigated an accident on October 24 at 4:10 p.m. According to police: a 1985 Chevrolet Cavalier was heading west down the alley south of the Fina Station (on 2nd Street) when it struck a 1973 Chevrolet Pickup, which was pulling out of the Fina Station, in the left rear quarter. There were no injuries.

Dr. James Dobson
 in a Powerful New Film on the Fight Against Pornography and How It Can Be Won

Your community is not immune to the tragic effects of pornography. After 14 months with the Attorney General's Commission on Pornography, Dr. James Dobson became convinced that obscene material is having a devastating impact on a surprising number of families. In this major new address, he explains why pornography is addictive, how it affects homes, and what can be done to stem the tide of obscenity.

Carl Lemons' News and Views from Cedar Hill

WEATHER

A hard freeze struck Cedar Hill and our portion of the State Wednesday, October 18. The temperature dropped to 28 DF and held steady at that point for several hours. This year's killing freeze arrived two days later in the month and was not quite as severe as the hard 24 DF that nature dealt us on Sunday, October 16, 1988. On Wednesday morning it took a second jab of the finger to punch through a sheet of ice that had formed on a bucket of water here at the Listening Post. Nature had proven her brute strength with the Wednesday freeze so she returned Thursday morning in a lighter mood to display her ARTISTIC ability. On that same bucket of water she used thin spears of ice that crisscrossed the surface of the water from many directions to create a icy lacework of delicate beauty.

Had the killing freeze held until the average date of November 1, it would have given us exactly two more weeks for our growing plants to develop and mature, a period that would have been of inestimable value to our farmers.

It is our nature to complain loudest about the hurt we feel from the place where we were pinched last, so this freeze, two weeks early, is being blamed for too much of our troubles. Even more damaging than the early freeze was the two to three weeks of growing time that was lost at the beginning of the planting season due to the heavy rains and subsequent seedling diseases we experienced at that time. All things considered, we are lucky that things are as good with us as they are. Lets just awh another hole in our belts, cinch then a little tighter, and make do!

CROP COMMENTS

Clint Ware took Cedar Hill's first bale of '89 cotton to Quitaque's Paymaster Gin on Thursday, October 19. It was also the first bale to be ginned in Quitaque this year and Clint was informed that he would receive the annual one dollar per pound bonus paid by Quitaque's Chamber of Commerce.

HIS bale weighed a little over 500 pounds and was stripped from a field southeast of the old Ware Headquarters five miles east of Cedar. It was gathered a little green; Clint sacrificed some turn-out percentage in his rush to attain first bale status.

While farmers are waiting for the cotton to get dry enough for harvest, they are giving full rein to their tendency to worry about the condition of the crop. Are there enough worm damaged locks to spoil the grade? Will the little, knotty boles open up and contribute enough sorry cotton to lower the staple length? Or, worst of all, will the greener, water-filled, bolts stay wet until the lint becomes tinged with yellow?

Some three weeks have elapsed between our last rain and the time of the freeze so the ground has dried enough to help hasten the maturing and desiccation of the crop. There are many less "water-filled" bolts out there than you would expect to find on the average year.

CRP grasses and cover crops are rapidly drying down following the freeze and the potential fire hazard is increasing daily. Those fields that have been shredded short will not stop a fire that is weeping cross-country, but they will certainly slow the flames' progress, allowing more time for fire fighters to get in their places.

The harvest of milo that had been planted for the commercial market began locally on Wednesday, October 18, when a load was delivered to Producers' Cedar Hill collection point from the Jay Lackey & Muncy farm 2 1/2 miles southeast of Cedar. The 24,700 lb. load tested 13.5% moisture and was threshed by the Clint Ware-Shannon Shurbet harvesting team.

There are numerous tiny five acre plots, sometimes smaller, of milo in the community that belong to seed companies producing the foundation seed from which hybrid seeds are grown. These plots were cash leased from our farmers and the crop is wholly owned by the leasing companies. Harvest on many of these plots has already been completed and that crop has been moved directly to the company plants.

WHEAT stands range from excellent to some very ragged stands that were seeded in newly listed furrows where irrigation is planned. The ragged stands are expected to fill in after the first rain. A few growers, not at all interested in pasturing their wheat, still hold back on their seeding, waiting for the next rain and also hoping to avoid a battle with the various winter weeds that usually emerge during the early fall.

TOMATOES that were growing very close to the ground and were sheltered by a fairly thick canopy of top-growth, especially the riper ones, are still harvest quality. They are fine for canning, some of the slicers are still table grade.

CATTLE & HAY COMMENTS
CATTLE in a few rare instances are already receiving supplemental feed while ranchers are waiting for rains to bring on the wheat pasture. The '89 hay is being will accepted by the cattle, in fact severe rationing will be required unless rain gives the wheat a boost.

HAY has virtually all been swathed and most of it has been baled: A lull in labor requirements before cotton harvest begins is allowing much hay to be moved to the stack-lots. Baler operators are losing a lot of sleep, getting up in the small, we hours of the morning to see if there has been enough dew to toughen the leaves of the hay and prevent their loss through crumbling. Many of those nights just isn't any dew.

PEOPLE

A rare danger and excitement was experienced by Bud Taylor and his stripper mounting crew last week.

While they worked at the mounting, the tractor's motor started spontaneously, and, of course, unexpectedly. Starting in an unconventional manner, the tractor naturally refused to be killed in a conventional manner. Imagine! A tractor running amok, and no way to kill it! Someone present made a lightning fast decision that the tractor's Achilles heel might be it's electrical system and began ripping off wires in strategic places. It worked! The monster was subdued, but it required a service man from the dealership to come out and re-do the tractor's wiring! No one was hurt, property damage could have been much worse, it is just fall again, and you got-tawatchit!

The grim reaper has struck again! Albert Seay fell dead from a chair in his home in Carizzozo, New Mexico, at 9:08 a.m. Thursday, October 19, 1989. Many friends and relatives of the Seay family gathered at the First Baptist Church in Lockney last Saturday, October 21, at 11:00 a.m. to honor the memory of Albert as his funeral services were conducted. Albert's family roots reach deep into the early settlers of both Floyd and Motley Counties. His maternal grandparents were J.C. (Uncle Ceph.) and Aunt Ann Fortenberry who first came to Floyd County in 1890. Albert's paternal step-grandfather was the widely known Al Barton who was foreman on some of the areas largest ranches in Motley and eastern Floyd County in the early 1900s. A extensive record of Al Barton and his activities is on display in the Floyd County Historical Museum.

Albert moved with his family from Cedar Hill to New Mexico about 1935, married, and raised his son there. He had been involved in ranching, construction work, farming, and during his last few years he stayed active as a dealer in antiques. Although still quite active, he had been aware that his demise could occur without warning, and he had made plans with his wife accordingly. Evelyn, Albert's widow, stated Saturday, "I will be back on my regular job at the Post Office Monday morning. Al and I decided, not long ago, that would be best for me. After all work will be the best cure for bereavement."

Cecil Whitehead was in your writer's plans. She was to have been interviewed just before her birthday so this column could give you a update on happenings at the J.B. Whiteheads. Cecil was born on October 17, 1917, or maybe it was a year or two before 1917, any way this item is one week late. Highlight for 1989 has been and extended stay for both of them in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital. Both J.B. and Cecil spent part of August and most of September in the hospital recovering from operations. J.B. is mobile now, using a walker, sometimes a crutch, while recovering from the installation of a new joint in his hip (he had his first hip done five years ago); Cecil has had some foot trouble and now she temporarily wears a foot brace. So now she, too, must use a walker to move about. She had much trouble with her feet which doctors determined was caused by a nerve problem in her back and corrective back surgery was performed. A lady comes and helps them three hours each morning and again in the afternoon for one hour. Ethyl comes from Lubbock each Saturday and prepares things so they can make it through Sunday by themselves.

It was a banner service at the Assembly of God Church Sunday. Two or three families with numerous children gave their attendance a boost up to 36. Brian Fortenberry, Durrell's son, spoke to the congregation at the time of the preaching hour. From time to time Brian has been speaking to various groups in the Hereford area, and he made a very good impression on his hearers Sunday morning.

Edna Gilley has her blood pressure in much better control now. She hinted it might be because she stayed home and took care of herself all this week. Her granddaughter, Aimee rode to Lubbock with a school chum and took in the Lubbock-New Orleans football game Saturday.

Rest Home residents observe Birthdays

By Lorilla Bradley

A lovely month, October
When it gets all "dressed" in gold...
It tucks away ole summer...
Brings hints of winter's cold!

We welcome Mrs. Turner
...Her years are 92...
She is a lovely lady
And very friendly, too!

Mrs. Hall we're greeting
She likes to keep "in touch"
With her telephone so handy
She never misses much!

To Mrs. Oda Birchfield
...Whose years are 93...
We wish a HAPPY BIRTHDAY
With many more to be!

Our "cheers" for Mrs. Halencak
...Her years are 98...
She still is spry and happy...
Now isn't that just great!!!

Our "best" to Mrs. Smitherman
On this her special "day"...
She always loves to visit
So friends please "make her day"!

It wouldn't be a party
Without the Birthday Song

So everybody ready
And sing out good and strong!

Thursday, October 19, was party time at the Rest Home with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosting.

After the "picture taking" by the Hesperian photographer everyone was ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor table." It was laid with an aqua blue cloth and centered with a fall arrangement of pumpkins, leaves, etc.

Jo Bryant read a brief history of the life of each honoree after which the poem was read and all joined in singing the Happy Birthday song. Each one wore a fresh corsage compliments of Williams Flower and Card Shop.

A delicious refreshment plate of chocolate and angel food cake enhanced with a tasty fruit punch was served to guests and employees as well as other residents of the home.

Seated with Mrs. Smitherman was her husband, Ernest. Guests of Mrs. Halencak was her sister, Alice Cook and niece, Faye Cook. Mrs. Turner's guest was her son, Nolan. We are always happy to have family members and friends to make a special effort to be with their loved ones at this time.

The next party will be Thursday, Nov. 16, 2:30 p.m. You are invited.

Square Dance News

By Vera Jo Bybee

October has turned out to be everything we thought it was going to be, BUSY! Saturday night was a good dance with Sid Perkins from Plainview calling. He is our club caller. Jerry and Andy Ford, Robert and Jane McDonald were host. We were happy to have six couples from the Plainview Promenaders visiting us.

Our workshop dance tonight, Thursday, October 26, is cancelled!! This will give everyone more time to plan our B.G Friday night Halloween dance. Everyone is to come in costume or in black and orange. Potluck salad supper will be served at 7:00 followed by a dance called by Troy Ray from Mabank, formerly of Lockney.

Saturday night, October 28, all the area dancers are invited to the Plainview Promenaders Anniversary dance to be held at the Old YMCA Building with Jimmy Gauge and Sid Perkins calling.

Wayland and Margaret Jones visited recently with their son and daughter-in-law, Greg and Julia in Stanton. The next night they went on to the Shannon Ranch and visited with their daughter, Amy and her husband, Johnny and twin boys, Jacob and Joshua. Friday they took Margaret's mother, Frances McClure to Wichita Falls to stay with her sister, Elsie Vaughan. Wayland and Margaret went on to Dallas to visit their son, Steve and wife Kristi.

Herman and Bonnie Graham were guests of Emma Newman, Bonnie's mother, at the Floydada Nursing Home for an ice cream supper, honoring the residents and their families. Monday, Bonnie returned home from a visit with her aunt, Polly Fuqua of Stamford. Bonnie and Aunt Polly also visited with Aunt Meta Wienke in Kerrville. Meta and Polly are sisters.

Euna Bradford and Notie Fawver were in Lubbock recently for a doctors appointment and finished the day shopping. Raymond and Vonceil Colston of Plainview visited with Euna and Floyd. They had homemade ice cream and cake to celebrate Euna and Vonceil's birthdays.

Visiting with Lura and Buddy Brown was their daughter, Belinda and Dustin of Lubbock. Belinda's husband was at a sales meeting in Dallas.

Betty and Robert McPherson's granddaughter's, Taber and Jade McPherson of Lubbock visited with them last week. Betty and Robert went to Amarillo this week for a grandparents lunch at their granddaughter, Courtney Hollaway's school.

Danny McAnally was in California at the time of the earthquake, but he was in the rural area nearby, therefore, wasn't injured.

Carol and Jim Huggins were in Red River last week-end for the Octoberfest. They danced to the calling of Gary Smith of Lubbock, Buddy Jones, Albuquerque and Troy Ray of Mabank, Texas.

Annabelle and Wayne Bramlet went to Happy to attend Annabelle's 40th Class Reunion. They had a great time and Annabelle won the "prize" for being the one who "Mother Nature was kindest to" yea Annabelle!

June McDonald received word from Johnsonburg, Arkansas, of the death of a nephew, Kenneth Thornton, son of June's oldest brother, Louis Thornton.

Our sympathy is with June and her family.

Donald and Ronald Reecer were deer hunting in Antonita, Colorado recently. They brought home an elk.

Paul and Zora Reecer and Virginia and Fred Byrd are in Branson, Mo., this week. Paul and Zora are going on to St. Louis to visit their daughter, Robin and family. Virginia and Fred are staying at Branson visiting Virginia's sister who lives there.

Visiting with Donnie and Vera Jo last week-end was their daughter, Dara and husband Gary Faries and Kara and Clint of Spearman.

I am real excited for Kara who is 13 now and is already 5'3" tall. She's taller than her grandmother, mother or Aunt Becky. That's not saying much cause this is a family of short women. Maybe she's going to be tall like her father's family. She's also going to die when she reads this. Everything about family seems to embarrass her these days. Dora, Gary, Kara and Becky went to the "Running Water Draw Craft Show in Plainview and visited with Cynthia Bybee, who had a booth there. Donnie and Gary helped Steve McPherson, Saturday and Sunday on the ranch at Claude.

Thank you Margaret Ann Bartram for reading this column. I couldn't believe it when Barbara Cunyus told me about her Washington trip and that you mentioned enjoying reading the Square Dance News. That's great! It makes calling all these people worth while. We still miss you Lockney guys up there in Washington.

Remember, all you Whirlers and area dancers, Friday night, October 27, at the Massie Activity Center, 7:00 for dinner, 8:00 for dancing. Spectators are always welcome, so come on out and enjoy the food and fun.

See you "Round a Square".

Club to host dance on 'Punkin Days'

Whirlers Square Dance Club is proud to be a part of Punkin Days. They will cap off the Friday festivities with a square dance at the Massie Activity Center at 8:00 p.m. The caller for the evening will be Troy Ray from Mabank, Texas, (which is near Dallas). This will be the fourth year that he has called the Whirlers' big October special dance.

One year everyone dressed in Halloween costumes. Last year was the first year that the dance was held during Punkin' Days. Ray was presented with an official Floydada Punkin' cap, which he says he wears when he plays golf.

This is one of the biggest dances of the year for the Whirlers and they are expecting visitors from Amarillo and Childress to Lubbock and Plainview. Dancers will be served a meal beginning at 7:00 p.m. and the square dancing will start at 8:00 p.m. Spectators are especially invited to come out and watch the dancing. Who knows — there may even be a surprise or two in store for them.

50TH ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harrison of Floydada will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary October 29, 1989 with a reception from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the community room of First National Bank of Floydada. Hosts will be their daughters and husbands, Elsie and Jim Black of Floydada, Jason, Amber and Justin Griffith of Dimmitt and great-grandchildren, Heather and Carrie Kate Black of Dimmitt, Jake, Johnna and Joshua Reed of Dumas. The former Lorraine Cruce and Harrison were married Oct. 28, 1939 in Jack County. All friends and relatives are invited. Mr. Harrison retired from Farmers Home Administration of Floyd County.

Senior Citizens News

By Thelma Jones

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Reed visited Myria Dade Monday afternoon. Several old time friends were here over the weekend for the funeral of Harvey Tardy.

The senior citizens offer their sympathy to Mrs. Harvey Tardy, Lanelle and the Dale Tardy's in the loss of her husband, Harvey and father.

Bro. Hal Farnsworth, Ethel Warren, Mary Wilson, Myria Dade and Don Gowen attended a conference in Matador last Thursday evening.

The senior citizens also offer their sympathy to Mrs. Levis Gilliland and the other members of the Vickers family in the loss of their sister and brother-in-law.

Mrs. Elizabeth Armstrong spent Wednesday with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rogers in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Si Medley have as their guest this week their four-year-old granddaughter, Ashley Medley from Denver, Colorado.

L.D. (Britt) Britton and Rebecca Smith spent the weekend in Eastland, Texas, and attended a cousins reunion of Rebecca's.

Happenings at Caprock Hospital

By Molly Stringer

Leroy Schaffner and Molly Stringer presented a program on health careers to each 8th grade class of Mrs. Teresa Hollums at junior high last week. The group was made aware that the health field offers a very wide variety of careers. By the year of 2000 one third of all jobs will be health career related.

The Board of Directors met on Friday morning of last week for their regular monthly meeting. Those attending were: President William Bertrand, Fred Thayer, Joy Assiter, Kenneth Pitts and Melba Vickers. Also attending were Leroy Schaffner, Molly Stringer and Nell McClung.

Through our Quality Assurance Program at the hospital, we have initiated a study by each department supervisor. Each will visit five patients each month and briefly discuss the services rendered by their department. The results of these visits will be reported at the monthly Quality Assurance meeting. We are anticipating this will improve the quality of patient care by spotlighting problem areas as they emerge in visits with different patients.

We have also begun a program to encourage staff to write 'Notes of Recognition' for individuals who go over and beyond what is required of them in their job. This will be added to these individuals files and reviewed at evaluation time.

Employees who have been recognized so far are: Helen Teeple, Adena Widener and Mary Simmons.

Helen Teeple attended a diabetes class in Lubbock at Methodist Hospital last Saturday. She wishes to remind everyone that our diabetes class meet this week on Thursday night at the hospital.

Mary Vickers is vacationing this week in Arkansas. She is driving up through the Ozarks and other points of interest.

Clara and Jim Vickers attended the funeral of Jim's sister and her husband in Groom, Wednesday of this week.

Our sympathy goes to Marie and Lanell Tardy and family on the loss of their husband and father. Marie worked here at the hospital for many years.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

Greetings from the nursing home, staff and residents. Another week has passed and time to start another week. Hope this finds everyone well and happy.

Must say that the family ice cream supper turned out all right. The residents were served ice cream and cake at our family ice cream supper. Members of the Companions 'n' Caring came and served the residents and also family members. We appreciate and thank you very much.

Bro. Bill Wright came Monday morning and gave the devotional taken from Phil. 3:1 about not looking back. Irene came and played the piano for us. Dolores Cannon came and did all the ladies hair for us.

Tuesday was beauty shop day again and the Companions 'n' Caring came and did manicures. The ladies were: Leona Neff, Shirley Varner, Ola Smith and Sue Hoogstra.

Wednesday Bro. Sammy Rodriguez came and shared the word with us, about asking, and just make a wish and Jesus would grant it. Otis Johnson lead the singing.

Bingo was played in the evening and Knox Jameson had the first Bingo. Mary Alice came and assisted us.

Thursday was the annual monthly birthday party. We had five having birthdays in the month of October, Myra Hall, Della Halencak, Oda Birchfield, Annie Turner and Ruth Smitherman. Sitting as guests of Della were her sister, Alice Cook, Abernathy, and Faye Pope, Abernathy. Sitting with Annie Turner was her son, Nolan and Ernest was with Ruth. The ladies that helped serve the cake and punch were Agnes Baker, Lula Teague, Vernola Hanna and Eunice Hardy.

Friday, Frieda Simpson came and played the piano for us and Letha Mulder opened with a prayer for the devotion. In the evening the residents went on a bus ride to Plainview. McDonald's treated them to some ice cream.

Our love and sympathy go out to the family of Millard Millett.

This week's visitors were Rev. Sammy Rodriguez, Abgela Faye Pope, Alice Cook, Abernathy; Vel Croper, Artie Webb, Lisa Barns, Willie Mae

Smith, May Sue, Hope Coleman, Fanny Vera, Chris and Wanda, Plainview; Mamie Bradshaw, Mel and Marjorie Holcomb, Irene Wexler, Sue Hoogstra, Leona Neff and Shirley Varner.

Next Tuesday will be the Halloween party for the residents. Staff come dressed in your costumes. We invite staff children, family and friends to bring out the children for trick or treating. The residents love to treat the children.

Egyptian ruler topic of 1934 club program

By Elizabeth Armstrong

The 1934 Study Club met in regular session in the home of Mrs. J.R. Turner, with Mrs. Allen Bingham as co-hostess on October 17.

The president Mrs. J.R. Turner called the meeting to order and conducted a short business meeting. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved.

Mrs. J.M. McNeill expressed her thanks and appreciation to the program committee for their help in getting the yearbook together and a special thanks to Frieda Simpson for her help.

Club collect was led by Mrs. Garland Foster.

Mrs. J.R. Turner had charge of the program, she gave an interesting account of "Romses the Great." He was the Egyptian ruler in 1200 BC, at the time the Jews were lead out of Egypt. An exhibition of some of his most cherished possessions were on display at Dallas State Fair.

Mrs. Turner saw them and brought a VCR film to show us.

Romses had eight wives and 90 children.

Refreshments were served to 12 members.

Fortenberry presents denim program

By Tami Wofford

The 254th meeting of Alpha Mu Delta was called to order October 17 at First National Bank in Floydada. Cindy Fortenberry had the program for the evening. We were shown many pretty denim jean jackets with sweatshirt sleeves and bands. Kay Brock will have the program November 7.

The bridge tournament will be November 13. Deadline for sign-up is November 9. All proceeds will go to the Floyd County Child Welfare Board.

Hostesses for the evening were Dora Ross and Sherese Covington. They served green bean casserole, cheese grits, ham, bread and chocolate dessert.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned. We all joined hands for the Mizpah.

Members present were: Melanie Beedy, Sherese Covington, Cindy Fortenberry, Brenda Hefflin, Sidney Jackson, Gayle and Morgan Marble, Dana Pyle, Dora Ross, Mendy Shurbet, Dara Ware and Tami Wofford.

Alpha Sigma Upsilon hear program on cholesterol

By Sara Coursey

Alpha Sigma Upsilon met Oct. 17 at 7:00 at Lighthouse Electric. The meeting was called to order with members standing for opening rituals. Roll was called and minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Jodie McGuire gave the treasurer's report.

We received a letter from Jan Nichols and a thank you note from Allison Robertson. The chapter received information on the state convention. It will be held in Amarillo June 22 and 23.

We want to welcome Darolyn Snell and Donna Webb as new members. Judy Covington and Tonya Evans come to us as transferees from other chapters. We are pleased to have all of you and look forward to a great year.

Karen Elliott was hostess for this meeting. She gave a program on "Cooking To Lower Your Cholesterol." Karen served a meal of chicken salad casserole, broccoli corn salad, oatmeal cookies and iced tea. The meal was delicious, thanks for an informative program.

We will have a booth on the square Punkin Days, Oct. 28. We will be selling drinks, frito pies and brownies on the food table. We will also have a table of ceramic jewelry. It will include pumpkin pens, earrings, shoe charms, ceramic buttons, novelty necklaces and earrings and much more. Make plans to stop by and pick up some good food and great Christmas gifts for your family and friends.

The meeting was adjourned with members repeating closing rituals and Mizpah.

Local doctor recertified as family practice specialist

Dr. Samuel Andrew Hale Jr., MD of Floydada has been recertified as a diplomate of the American Board of Family Practice (ABFP) as a result of passing a recertification examination offered by the ABFP. The physician thus maintains a specialist status in the medical specialty of family practice.

ABFP diplomates must continue to show proof of competence in the field of comprehensive, continuing care of the family by being recertified every six years. The family practice specialty was the first to require diplomates to be recertified on a continuing basis.

The written examination is designed to prove the candidate's continuing competence in the basic components of family practice—internal medicine, surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry and neurology, and community medicine.

To qualify for certification initially, a physician must have successfully completed three years of residency training in family practice and passed an intensive certification examination. There are some 380 residency training programs in teaching hospitals and university medical centers across the United States.

Nearly 37,000 family physicians have now been certified in the specialty. Most are members of the American Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors. The Academy was the first national medical group to require members to take continuing study, and was chiefly responsible for securing specialty status for family practice.

PERFORMING AT TRINITY CHURCH—R.W. and Donna Blackwood will be singing gospel music at Trinity Church in Floydada on Thursday, Nov. 2, at 7:30 p.m. They have sung with the Blackwood Singers and many major country music singers. They use their music and the Word to minister to a hurting and dying world. Everyone is invited.

"Great Day in the Morning" is Sunday at First Baptist

This Sunday is "Great Day in the Morning" at First Baptist Church, Floydada. First Baptist is working towards a goal of 425 people in Bible Study at 9:45 a.m. along with some very special activities planned for the rest of the day. In addition to the attendance goal, First Baptist has special music planned for both the morning and evening services with the Sanctuary Choir singing in the 11:00 a.m. service and a concert by Luke Garrett during the 7:00 p.m. service.

Luke Garrett is a nationally known Christian Music Artist from Dallas, Texas. He has been recognized for his music and vocal talent through out the music industry and was the recipient of the 1st Prize Popular Vocalist, and the Frank Sinatra Performance Award in 1980 while attending UCLA. Luke has two albums, his first entitled "Luke Garrett", which was nominated for the Dove Award of Inspirational Album of the Year and his newest release "Ever Constant... Ever Sure".

As an extra feature to the day the film "A Winnable War" by Dr. James Dobson will be shown in the church's Sanctuary at 6:00 p.m. This film is based on the work of Dr. Dobson with the Na-

Organ concert set at First United Methodist Church

Randy and Peggy Stevens will be featured in concert on Sunday evening, October 29, at 7:00 in the sanctuary of First United Methodist Church. The program, about 45 minutes in length, will include some classical music by Bach, contemporary Christian music by Sandy Patti, and some favorite hymn tunes.

The instrument is an Allen Digital Computer Organ, Model ADC 3160. It has two 61-note manuals and a 32-note AGO specification pedalboard. The organ has 32 speaking stops. Using state of the art digital technology, the Allen organ produces authentic pipe organ sound. It is provided through the generosity of Tarpley Music Company. Everyone is invited and welcome to this program.

Peggy Stevens is a native of Waco, Texas. She attended Baylor University, where she was a member of the Chamber Chorale. While studying voice at Baylor, she was a winner in the National Association of Teachers of Singing Regional Competition and recorded on the Word label. After transferring to McMurry College her junior year, she was active in the Chanters concert choir and Morning Star, a small select musical touring group.

After graduation from McMurry with a B.M. in voice, she earned a Master of Music in Vocal Performance from Indiana University, Bloomington, where she studied with Gianna D'Angelo. In Lubbock, she is active as a soloist and private teacher. She currently teaches first grade at All Saints Episcopal School. She is employed part-time as associate Choirmaster at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Randy Stevens is a native of Winters, Texas. He attended McMurry College on the Chapman-Donham Organ Scholarship, studying with Francis Hinkel. While at McMurry, he was active in Chanters, Morning Star, and Indian Band, where he served as president. Stevens has a Master of Music degree in Organ Performance and Church Music from Indiana University, Bloomington, where he studied with Oswald Ragatz.

In Lubbock he is active in performing in the Summer Carillon Recital Series at Texas Tech University, and currently serves as the chairman of the Performing Arts Division in the Lubbock Arts Festival. He is employed by Tarpley Music Company, and also serves as Minister of Music at Westmont Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

Peggy and Randy are the parents of two children: Matthew, 6 years; and Skylar, 3 years. The Stevens are members of Lubbock's First United Methodist Church.

tional Coalition Against Pornography. In an article about the film Dr. James Dobson states "Your community is not immune to the tragic efforts of pornography. After 14 months with the Attorney General's Commission on Pornography, I've become convinced that obscene material is having a devastating impact on a surprising number of families". In this major new address, he explains why pornography is addictive, how it affects homes, and what can be done to stem the tide of obscenity. The showing of this film is not recommended for children due to the nature of the issue.

First Baptist Church and it's staff invite you to join them for this "Great Day", and to join as we worship the Lord through Bible Study at 9:45 a.m., Worship at 11:00 a.m., "A Winnable War" at 6:00 p.m. and with Luke Garrett at 7:00 p.m. (and by the way, don't forget to move your clocks back Saturday night).

Locals competing in karate invitational

The West Texas Invitational Championship Full Contact Karate tournament will include two Floydada residents. The event will begin at 8:00 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 28, at the Levelland Boys Club in Levelland.

Shane Derryberry will be competing against Michael Rhoades of Lubbock.

Sharkey LeCroy will be going up against Steve "Pitbull" Goen of Dallas in a special exhibition match.

Plainview Community Concerts begin Saturday

Plainview Community Concerts Association's first concert of the season will be presented by the Slovenian Mastersingers of Yugoslavia Saturday, Oct. 28, at 8 p.m. in Herral Memorial Auditorium on the Wayland Baptist University campus.

Concert Association members are reminded to attend. Membership cards have been mailed. For inquiries or information, contact Membership Chairman, Mrs. Vera Ott, 1103 Ennis, 296-7933, or Thanet Kramer of Lockney, 652-3794.

Yugoslavia has been called "a nation of singers." The Slovenian Mastersingers are the leading vocal ensemble of Slovenia, the northernmost republic of Yugoslavia.

The first American tour of the Slovenian Mastersingers during the 1986-87 season was a tremendous success. The 1989-90 American audiences, even Plainview, will again have the opportunity to hear this remarkable ensemble.

The Mastersingers were founded in 1951 and have performed continuously with full touring seasons in five continents ever since. The same high standard has been maintained even though personnel changes have been made.

Critics have commented on their degree of personal communication between singers and audience. Their success is due, also, to their mastery of every style and range of the best vocal writing from all time periods.

Their concerts consist of at least four different groups of varying types of repertoires, usually beginning with Elizabethan and Madrigal selections, followed by the Baroque and Classical period, (Mozart, Schubert, Brahms, Mendelssohn,) then Romantic selections including the Russian school (Tchaikowsky, Rachmaninoff) and ending with a light group of international folksongs in interesting arrangements and American Spirituals.

In the annual world-famous Dubrovnik Festival, a regular event is the midnight concert in the atrium of the cathedral by the Slovenian Mastersingers. The standing room only candlelight concert is one of the outstanding events of the Festival and is sold out weeks in advance.

For the past five years the artistic director of the Slovenian Mastersingers has been Anton Nanut, celebrated as Director of Yugoslavia's leading orchestra, the Slovenian Radio and TV Orchestra which has twice toured America. He has received virtually every musical award his country offers and is considered one of Yugoslavia's foremost musicians in both the orchestral and vocal field.

Be sure and be at the square on Friday afternoon in your costume for the judging.

Then on Saturday attend all the pumpkin contests and activities, along with visiting all the arts and crafts booths and eating at the food booths.

Duncan Kids Can!

GREETINGS

We have had a great start for the 1989-90 school year! We are excited to once again be working with you, our parents, and our kids! We have acquired several new teaching methods for the new year. We are expecting a very successful year.

We would like to invite you to visit Duncan at anytime. We would like for you to experience our wonderful worlds of small ones. It is super.

Please find below a list of essential elements that we will be teaching for mastery, for this second six weeks.

We so appreciate your help and efforts at helping us make our little ones successful. We so appreciate your concern and support.

Sincerely,

Bobbie Weir, Principal

No Comparison In All-Around Use For Service

Newspapers are increasing their overwhelming leadership in media . . . because they have the best formula for service. Failure to recognize the effectiveness of newspaper advertising has destroyed many a business.

THE FACTS:

- 1) 8 out of 10 adults read a newspaper on an average weekday
 - 2) Newspaper readership increases with income
 - 3) Newspapers are read page-by-page
 - 4) Newspaper ads are rated by the public as the "most helpful and most trustworthy"
 - 5) People "look forward" to newspaper ads more than they do all others combined
 - 6) Newspapers outperform broadcast media 2-to-1 in influencing sales
 - 7) Most leading retailers carry their main messages in the newspaper
 - 8) Newspapers are alone in delivering massive coverage and having something important to say to-and-about all income groups, all education groups, all occupational groups and all age groups.
- . . . and each of these facts has been documented over-and-over by an endless variety of surveys.

Floydada's Whirlwinds overpower Muleshoe, 27-7

By Bill Gray

The Floydada Whirlwinds took their show on the road to Muleshoe on October 20 and blew past the Mules, 27-7. The victory moved Floydada into first place in District 2-3A as the 'Winds extended their 1989 unbeaten streak to 7 (2-0 in district). Muleshoe dropped to 1-5-1 (0-1-1 in league play). It is the first time in many years for the Whirlwinds to win their first seven games of a season.

Unlike their patented, second-half comebacks through the first six games, this time the Whirlwinds put three touchdowns on the board in the first half. Muleshoe managed a scoring drive, capped by a pass from Larry Gonzales to Michael Hardwick in the second quarter, to narrow its deficit by 13-7. However, the dependable and resilient Floydada defense stymied the frustrated Mules the remainder of the evening.

So dominant was Floydada's stopper unit that Muleshoe could only register three first downs and forty-eight total yards in the second half. The Harris poll favored the Whirlwinds by 19 points, but the scrappy and spirited Mules gave Floydada's coaches reasons for concern — especially in the early stages.

Floydada had no turnovers for the first time this year, but penalty flags against the Green Gang kept the score close in the first 24 minutes. The Whirlwinds were assessed 70 yards in penalties, while the hosts were flagged only twice for 15 yards.

A pass interception by Brian Teeple on the third play of the game gave Floydada possession at its own 41 yard line. A five play, 53-yard drive put the 'Winds in scoring territory - where Frank Suarez carried across from six yards out. Kenneth Collins tackled on the PAT and the 'Winds were on their way 7-0. A key play in the march was a well-executed 19-yard pass from Grant Stovall to Jesse Suarez.

Muleshoe failed to garner a first down following the kickoff and punted back to the 'Winds. Fifty-six yards and eight plays later, the Whirlwinds again cracked Muleshoe's end zone, as Stovall connected for a 21-yard TD toss to his favorite receiver, Kenneth Collins. The kick failed on the conversion attempt as Floydada increased its lead to 13-0.

Aided by thirty-five yards in penalties against Floydada, Muleshoe punched across for six points midway through the second quarter. The conversion was good, and the Mules tightened the contest at 13-7. Floydada quickly regained the momentum with a 9-play, 74-yard drive for a touchdown shortly before intermission. Grant Stovall swept to the right on the option from the Muleshoe 12 to end the scoring in the first half. Stovall's pass attempt to Frank Suarez for the PAT was picked off by a Mule defender, and the scoreboard read, "Floydada 19, Muleshoe 7" as the halftime drew to a close.

The Whirlwinds went to the locker room at the break with some impressive statistics. Floydada amassed over 240 yards offense in the first 24 minutes, while the Green Gang's stopper unit limited the hosts to only 55 total yards. It was the most productive output by Floydada in a first half in 1989.

The entertainment by both bands at intermission was very enjoyable. The "Spirit of the Winds" Band of FHS continues to improve weekly, and they presented their best halftime performance of the year. The youngsters have had a difficult two weeks, preparing for U.I.L. marching competition as well as the weekly football extravaganzas. The "Mighty M" marching band of Muleshoe presented a clever Walt Disney theme show that was well received by the large crowd.

The Whirlwind defense took control early in the third stanza and limited the Mules to only one first down. Late in the quarter Frank Suarez brought the Floydada fans to their feet with an electrifying 52-yard sprint down the right sideline to give the 'Winds first-and-go at the Muleshoe 2-yard line. "Uncle" Jesse blasted through on his first touch of the year on the next play. With Jesse's two-point conversion run, Floydada upped the margin to 27-7.

Muleshoe gamely attempted to get back into the contest in the fourth quarter, but its offense couldn't penetrate any deeper in Floydada territory than the 43-yard line. Coach Dean Bates "cleared the Floydada bench" during the last several minutes as Brian Teeple, Kenneth Davis and the other back-ups were sent in to run out the clock.

It was a good overall team effort by Floydada and set the stage for a crucial game this week at Wester Field. It was anticipated that Littlefield would also be sporting a 2-0 league mark when they come calling on October 27. However the Dimmitt Bobcats took away that scenario by their 14-6 upset of the Wildcats at Littlefield on October 20.

Littlefield's defeat drops it into a third place tie with Tulia in the district race. A loss to Floydada this week will just about eliminate the 'Cats from the playoff picture — or so it would seem. District 2-3A has the notoriety of deciding its playoff representatives on the last day of the regular season. It is up to the Whirlwinds to determine their own fate. A victory over Littlefield on Friday will go a long way toward placing them in the "driver's seat" for the post-season party.

BILL'S NOTES

The Whirlwinds are now in the final countdown for their most successful campaign in a number of years. An undefeated season is now well within their grasp, but they have a major hurdle to overcome this Friday.

The Muleshoe game gave Coach Bates and his staff a lot of concern because it was a game that Floydada should have easily won. At this point of the season — in the thick of district play — Muleshoe was the type of team that could have been overlooked. But, the 'Winds' discipline and conditioning once again were in command. The 'Wind offense had its largest output of the year (370-plus yards, with almost 250 in the first half). This was made possible by the outstanding execution and blocking by the 'Winds' offensive line. Kenny Reed and Adam Cates turned in their best performances of the year in the trenches.

The only breakdown came a couple of times in the kicking game, but a fierce Muleshoe charge had a lot to do with that. Flags flew more than the coaches wanted to see, but it wasn't the first time that the Whirlwinds have drawn unfavorable calls over at Muleshoe.

Although there were two "roughing the kicker" violations called on the 'Winds, the

Coach's Comments

The coaching staff's concerns entering the Muleshoe game were confirmed last Friday. According to Coach Bates, "We played well at times, but still had a lot of errors - especially in the kicking game. We had major breakdowns in every phase of the kicking game, which had been pretty solid up until then.

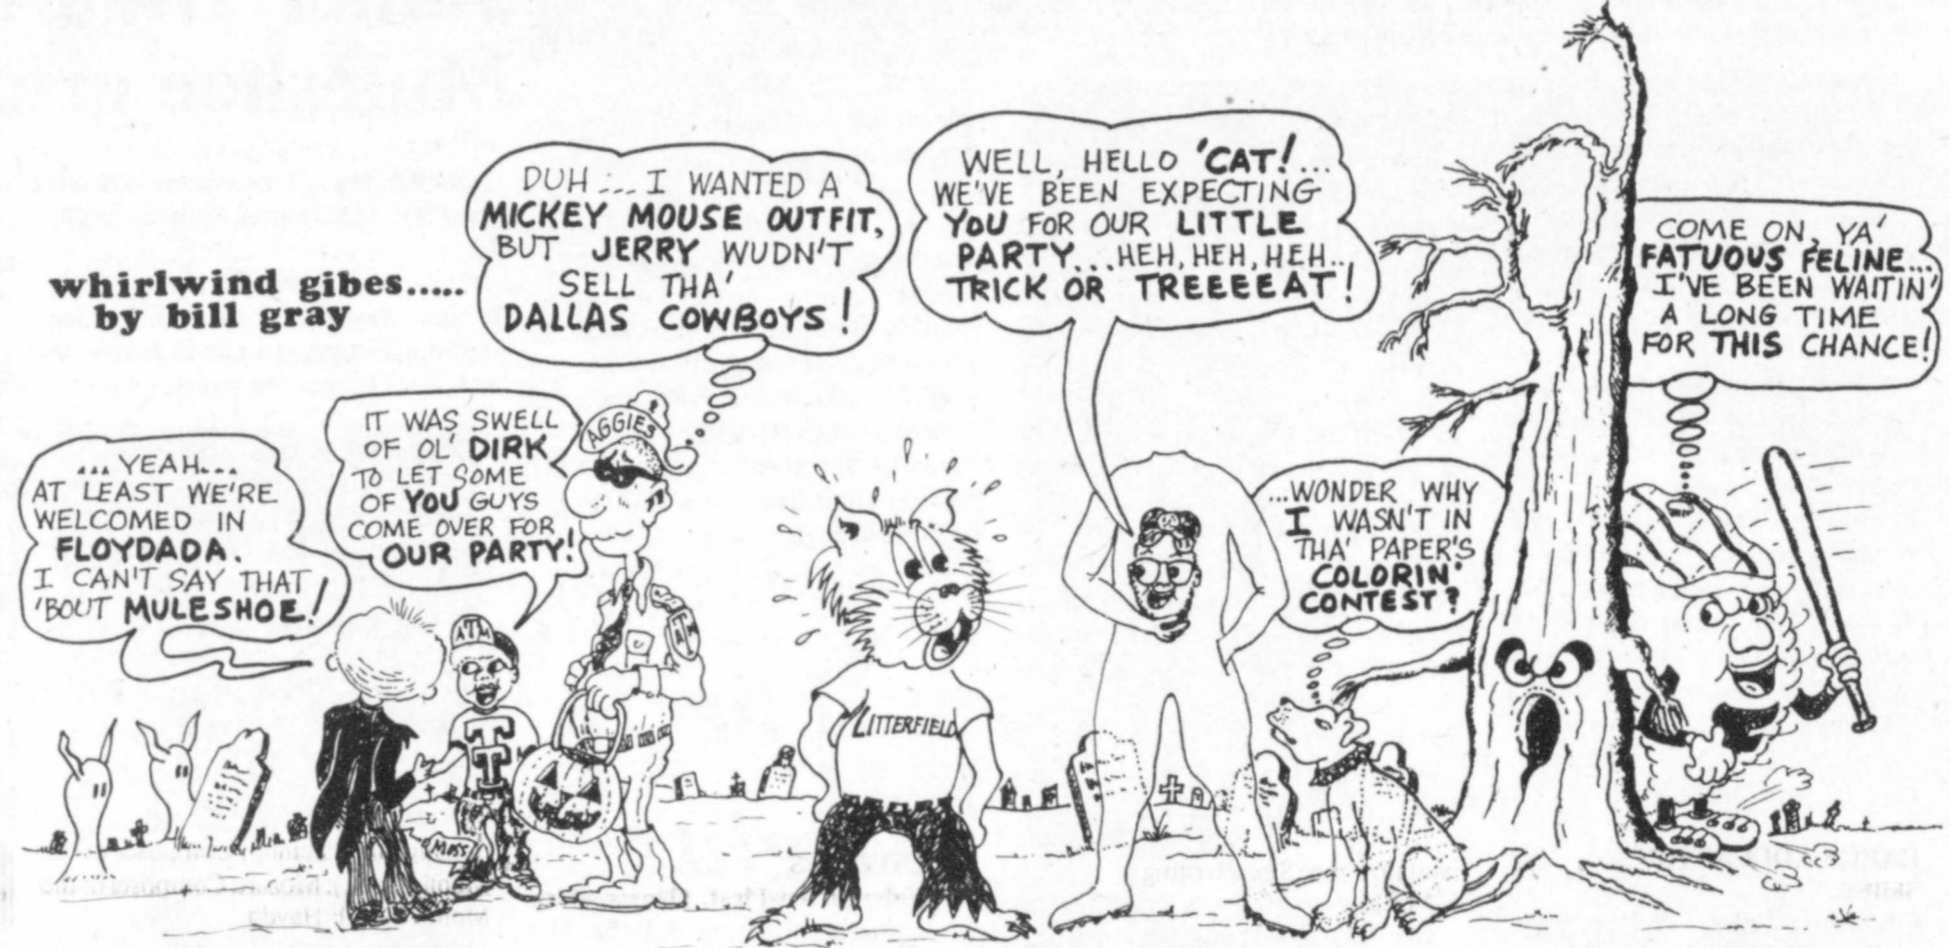

The coach said, "Muleshoe played with a lot of emotion and really got after us in the early going. We kind of let up after our two early scores, and they came on strong. After we answered with a touchdown before halftime, we regained the momentum.

Bates was pleased with the play of Jesse Suarez and the "added dimension" he (Suarez) gave to the offense. The coach also singled out Frank Suarez and Grant Stovall for their offensive performances. In addition, Bates noted that Lalo Delgado and Adam Cates had one of their better games on the offensive line. The coach also cited Ruben Chavarria, Jay Mendoza, Brian Teeple, Adam Cates and Victor Chavarria for their defensive play.

Bates feels that Littlefield will be up for Friday's game. He noted, "With their loss to Dimmitt, it puts them in a must win situation." He closed by saying, "It will take our best game of the year to get by Littlefield. We expect a full house for this last home game...the crowd has been so important to us all year."

Floydada JV roars past Mules 40-8

The JV 'Winds rolled up their biggest victory margin on October 19 with a solid 40-8 thumping of Muleshoe. The JV's season record now goes to 8-1, and they will play Littlefield's JV there on October 26.

Jamie Davis scored on touchdown runs of 7 and 45 yards; Ramiro Rios had a 15-yard TD rush; and Billy Villarreal scored on a 30-yard sprint. Michael Henderson blocked and recovered a punt in the end zone and added a 2-point conversion.

Other 2-point conversions were registered by Ramiro Rios, Billy Villarreal and Jamie Davis. Standouts on offense were Villarreal, Davis, Todd Cage and Quincy Johnson. Michael Henderson, Rios and Todd Cage were named the defensive players of the game by their coaches.

JESSE IS BACK — Jesse Suarez (24) is off and running on a long gainer against Muleshoe last week. Just four weeks after undergoing knee surgery, Suarez returned as an active player to assist the 'Winds in soundly defeating the Mules, 27-7 in Muleshoe last Friday.

1989 WHIRLWIND SENIORS — These 1989 Whirlwind seniors will have an extra incentive to defeat Littlefield on Friday night. Floydada has not beaten Littlefield since these 'Winds were first-graders in 1978. A victory on Friday would be a feather in their caps.

Junior High football squads split with Muleshoe gridders in Thursday games

The 8th grade Breezers lost a heart-breaker to Muleshoe on October 19, 22-16.

The defense scored two safeties against Muleshoe. Tate Glasscock tossed a 25-yard TD pass to Rod Vela and Tony Hernandez scored on a one yard run.

The 8th Breezers record is now 2-3-1 for 1989. They will host Littlefield's 8th graders on October 26.

The 7th Breezers ran their season record to 5-1 with a 6-0 defensive shut-out of Muleshoe on October 19. Bruno Mendez scored on a 3-yard run in the second quarter for the only points of the game.

The coaches noted that it was an outstanding defensive effort by the entire "D" unit. The 7th Breezers will meet Littlefield at Wester Field on October 26.

EYES ON THE BALL — Kenneth Collins (35) displays steely-eyed determination as he prepares to gather in a pass thrown by quarterback Grant Stovall during the Muleshoe game last Friday. Collins, one of the leading receivers on the South Plains, has helped propel Floydada to a 7-0 record for the first time since 1972.

FHA-HERO makes trip

By Elvia Huerta

The Future Homemakers of America - Home Economics Related Occupations Club (FHA-HERO) of Della Plains campus in Floydada took our first field trip of the 1989-90 school year Saturday, Oct. 14. We visited the Home Economics department at Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Our guide was former Miss Floydada, Kellie La Baume, who is on the Home Ec. Council at Tech. Misses Christine Kennedy and Mitzi Welsh also helped show us around the huge department. We visited the restaurant, hotel, institutional management lab, where students were cooking food for the homecoming brunch. All wore black and white full dress uniforms. Also the foods, clothing, financial management, child development departments and the center for study of addiction were visited. Our Home Ec. department has much of the same equipment as used at Tech, we noticed.

We watched the Homecoming parade from in front of the Home Ec building. We then went to Target to eat lunch and shop.

After lunch we went to the Garden and Arts Center to look at the Heritage '89 and the Scottish Highland games. We saw people dressed in costumes of different countries performing dances and work of long ago. They sold food from different countries. We got our picture taken with a Scotsman wearing the kilt of the Buchanan clan. We looked at clothing for sale from different countries. Elvia Huerta played a Scottish game, tossing a telephone pole. There were knights in armor, U.S. Cavalry men, frontiersmen and many others there.

We went to the mall to shop. When we met at the bus we all had lots of experiences and sights to tell each other about. After a stop at the Bernina store to have a machine checked, we started home and arrived in Floydada at 6:30 p.m.

To be eligible to go on the trip we had to have paid our dues, be passing in all subjects, be started on our sewing, and be in good standing with the school. Those who went on the trip were Rosalind and Rebecca Gonzales, Elvia Huerta, Maria Lopez and Yolanda Ledbetter. Others were also eligible but did not make the trip. Our advisor, Mrs. Joyce Williams, drove the bus. We are selling boxes of M&M candy to pay for our dues, club pins and to save for other trips. We are cooking for the Day Care Spaghetti Supper this week.

constant pressure on the Mules' kicker contributed to good Floydada field position for the most part. I give the coaching staff the honor for the "defensive play of the game." The scouting report on the unorthodox kicking scheme, deployed following the Mule touchdown, was heeded by Coach Bates' staff.

With the momentum leaning toward Muleshoe following its score, the 'Winds were up by the slim 13-7 margin. Had Floydada's receiving unit not been ready for such a bizarre formation...anything could have happened. This was a prime example of the poise of this team and the total preparedness by the coaching staff.

Brian Teeple gets my nod as the "defensive player of the game" due to his two pass interceptions. The first theft set up Floydada's initial score. Once again Frank Suarez is singled out for the "offensive play of the game" with his 52-yard scamper in the third quarter, which paved the way for the 'Winds' final score.

Although he didn't gain as many yards as his nephew (Frank), Jesse Suarez gets my vote as the "offensive player of the week." Four weeks after knee surgery, Jesse's early-in-the-game long gainers really "pumped some juice" into the multi-dimensional Whirlwind offense.

It may be another week before the real showdown exists for the district championship (at Dimmitt). Friday's game against Littlefield is vitally important. Adam, Jay, Grant, Frank, Jesse and all the other seniors on the squad are reminded that the Whirlwinds haven't defeated the Wildcats since their bunch were first graders. That fact is incentive enough to handle the task as far as the school is concerned. As far as the 1989 Whirlwinds are concerned — any teams with post-season aspirations know they'll have to get past Floydada if they are to reach the 2-3A throne room.

The Whirlwinds will be up for the challenge and will take out eleven years of frustrations as they go 8-0 with a solid thumping of the Wildcats to the tune of: Floydada 27 Littlefield 14

0/92 deadline set for November 1

Applications for the 1989 Disaster Program will be accepted through April 2, 1990. Application (CCC-441) must be signed no later than April 2, 1990.

An application can be filed for any crop grown in Floyd County.

Producers will be required to purchase 1990 FCIC Crop Insurance if their 1989 losses exceed 65 percent of their expected production. Late-filed insurance applications for fall planted wheat, barley, oats and rye will be accepted by FCIC up to 15 days past the date ASCS advises the producer that Crop Insurance must be purchased. In no case, will they be accepted past November 30, 1989.

Production records for the disaster affected crop will be needed as well as for any "ghost" acres planted after the failed crop. Production from "ghost" acres and program crop acres must be kept separate.

If you had 1989 Insurance, that information will be needed. This includes appraisals, net indemnity, etc.

Producers whose gross income exceeds $2,000,000 are ineligible for disaster benefits. There is a $100,000 limitation on total 1989 disaster payments per producer.

Producers must file an ASCS-574 prior to the destruction of any crop that

Pesticide storage needs checking on regular basis

With the onset of Fall, now is a good time for homeowners and producers alike to check workshops and barns to be sure that pesticides have been properly stored. Proper storage will prevent potential hazards around the home, and will increase the shelf-life of the pesticides.

The best way to store small amounts of pesticide is in a locked cabinet, located in a ventilated area. The pesticide should always be stored in the original container, displaying a legible label. The pesticide should also be protected from extreme temperatures. Dusts and wettable powders may cake when subjected to wide variations in temperatures. At 32 degrees F. or below, liquid formulations may crystallize out of solution and lose their effectiveness. Pesticides should also be protected from direct heat sources. Any chemical with a flash point of 140 degrees F. or less is a possible fire hazard involved...

Producers storing more than a few gallons of pesticides should check with local fire protection authorities and public health officials concerning legal ordinance. Under the Texas Agricultural Hazard Communication Law, producers and other entities that store pesticides in an amount in excess of 55 gallons or 500 pounds within one-quarter mile of a residential area composed of 3 or more private dwellings shall provide to the fire chief having jurisdiction over the storage area, in writing, the names and telephone numbers of knowledgeable representatives who can be contacted for further information, or in case of an emergency. The 55 gallon or 500 pound threshold amount shall be based upon the sum of all covered pesticide chemicals normally stored.

When storing a significant volume of pesticides, producers should adhere to the following rules:

- * Keep chemicals in a locked storage area, well ventilated and clearly posted at all entry points.
- * Date all containers.
- * Keep a log of pesticides and amounts in storage.
- * Check containers periodically for leaks, tears, etc.
- * Do not locate storage area near feed or seed.
- * Always store "empty containers" in the storage area pending disposal.

Properly dispose of all empty pesticide containers. Generally, a homeowner can dispose of an empty container by wrapping it in newspaper and/or a paper bag and placing it in a dumpster to be disposed of in a sanitary land fill. Producers are required to dispose of the container properly, according to the pesticide label directions. For further information, you can contact your local Extension Service office.

is failed. This includes "ghost acres". All failed program crops, soybeans, and sunflowers, including "ghost acres", must have an appraisal before being destroyed.

0/92 producers who designated failed acreages of program crops as CU for pay may redesignate the acreage as the crop for disaster purposes. Deadline for this redesignation is November 1, 1989.

Producers who previously had elected not to receive advance deficiency payments may not elect to receive these payments. Advance deficiency payments will be forgiven on losses up to 35% of the expected production if the final deficiency payment is less than the advance payment. November 1, 1989 is the final date to request advance deficiency payments.

ACR & CRP

ACR and CRP must be protected from erosion and the weeds controlled throughout the calendar year. Failure to do so may cause reduction or loss of program benefits.

1990 WHEAT PROGRAM

The 1990 wheat program has been modified to allow a producer to plant more than 95% of the 1990 wheat base, but no more than 105% of the base.

There will be no ACR (leave out) requirement for wheat for that farm. For each acre planted in excess of 95% of the base the acreage used in determining deficiency payments will be reduced by one acre. 0/92 is not applicable to this modified option. This modification will not allow you to build future wheat base acreage on the farm. Producers have the option of using this modification or the regular program which includes a 5% required acreage reduction and 0/92 provisions.

1990 PROGRAM PROVISIONS

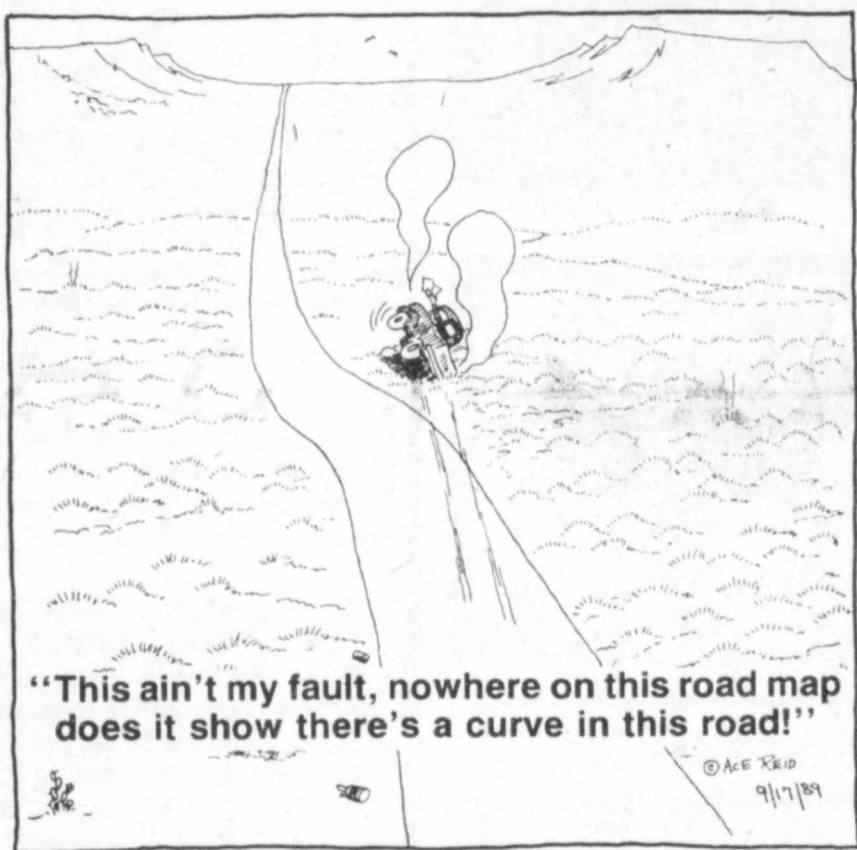

Signup for the 1990 Program will be from January 16, 1990 through April 13, 1990. During the signup producers may request 40% of the estimated deficiency payment. Limited cross compliance will be in effect for all 1990 crops except oats. 0/92 will be available for wheat and feed grains. 50/92 will be available for upland cotton.

CRP WEED CONTROL POLICY

All CRP contracts entered into during signup 1 through 5 will be limited to cost shares on four weed controls. All contracts entered into during signup 6 and subsequent signups will only allow cost shares on 1 weed control after the grass is seeded (within 12 months).

Proposition 18 will continue water equipment loan program

Texas voters will have the opportunity to vote November 7, to continue the agricultural water conservation equipment loan program, by approval of Proposition 18, which provides low interest loans to irrigators to upgrade irrigation equipment to reduce water losses during irrigation delivery and application.

Under the program, groundwater conservation districts and soil and water conservation districts throughout the state can borrow money from the Texas Water Development Board and then lend the funds at the same interest rate to qualified borrowers within their service areas.

The 15-county High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 has been a major participant of the program. During the past three years, approximately 150 irrigators have benefited from the pilot agricultural loan program. They have used the funds to purchase equipment which upgraded their irrigation application efficiencies. This improved efficiency has resulted in groundwater savings of more than 25,000 acre-feet—enough water to support a city of 150,000 for about one year.

Deep percolation, evaporation and tailwater runoff have historically resulted in high water losses for irrigators. A typical borrower under the pilot loan program has used proceeds from the loan to upgrade from furrow irrigation to a more efficient LEPA center pivot irrigation system, saving annual water losses of more than 150 acre-feet—enough water to serve the needs of a town of 800 people for a year.

The loans are secured by a first lien on the equipment purchased, plus a lien on the property where the equipment is installed. After three and a half years with more than $4,000,000 loaned, there have been no late payments or defaults.

In addition to the groundwater savings, District officials credit the pilot agricultural loan program with three major benefits. First, interest in more efficient irrigation has been stimulated by the availability of low-interest funds. Second, low-interest rates have encouraged qualified irrigators to purchase more efficient irrigation equipment; and third, those irrigators that have upgraded their irrigation systems have demonstrated to their neighbors that increased water use efficiency is possible, along with a reduction in energy and labor costs which occurs as a part of the improved water use efficiency.

A Constitutional Amendment approved by Texas voters in November 1985 provided for the sale of up to $200,000,000 in bonds to fund the agricultural water conservation equipment loan program. Voter approval of Proposition 18 on this year's November 7 ballot will remove the expiration date on the program by repealing subsection (e) of Article III, Section 50-d of the Texas Constitution.

Texas legislators originally set a two-year evaluation period (1985-1987) for the pilot agricultural water conservation equipment loan program. However, the evaluation period was extended until August 31, 1989. During the 71st Texas Legislative Session, satisfied with the results of the pilot program, Senate Joint Resolution 44 was passed to remove the time limitations on the agricultural water conservation loan program upon voter approval of the proposed Texas Constitutional Amendment.

Texas Farm Bureau sets 56th meeting

Texas Farm Bureau, the state's largest farm organization will hold its 56th annual meeting, November 26-29 at the Tarrant County Convention Center in Ft. Worth.

More than 1,300 voting delegates from 216 organized county Farm Bureaus will adopt state policies for 1990. Approved resolutions on national issues will be forwarded to the 71st annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation, January 7-11, at Orlando, Florida.

Scott McKain, a motivational speaker from Washington, D.C. will be the keynote speaker Monday morning, November 27. McKain is owner of a firm that specializes in seminars, speeches and consulting on a national basis. TFB President S.M. True also will deliver his annual address that morning.

TFB Executive Director Vernie Glasson will deliver his administrative report on Tuesday morning. TFB Secretary-Treasurer Steve Bearden of Harlingen will present the financial report at the same session. The business session also will begin that morning and conclude on Wednesday afternoon with the election of state directors and a president.

A Young Farmer and Rancher breakfast will be held at 6:30 a.m. November 27. Awards and recognitions will be made at that time.

There will be six special conferences and eight commodity conferences on the afternoon of November 27, beginning at 1 p.m.

Topics of the special conferences include: Prospects for the 1990 Farm Bill; Political Outlook and Involvement by Farm Bureau members; Agriculture's Environmental and Food Safety Concerns; Texas Agricultural Communications System; Market Master; Economic Services; and Animal Welfare Update.

The eight commodity conferences, beginning at 2:45 p.m. and concluding about 4:15 p.m. include beef and swine; dairy; hay and forage; forestry and pecans; rice and soybeans; sheep and goats; poultry; wheat, feed grains and cotton; and peanuts and wildlife.

Youth activities competition will include Miss Texas Farm Bureau, Talent Find and Free Enterprise Speech. State finalists represent the 13 districts across the state.

The speech and talent find contests will begin at 7 p.m. November 26. The Miss TFB contest begins at 7 p.m. November 27. Announcement of the Young Farmer & Rancher Awards will be made during the Miss TFB contest.

The speech winner receives a $4,000 scholarship; the runner-up gets a $2,500 scholarship, and each of the four finalists will receive a $1,500 scholarship. Each district winner is assured of at least a $1,000 scholarship.

The talent find winner receives a $2,000 scholarship. The runner-up gets a $1,500 scholarship. Each district winner is assured of a $600 scholarship. The newly-crowned Miss TFB will receive a $2,000 scholarship, plus $500 towards the purchase of an all-natural fiber wardrobe. The runner-up gets a $1,500 scholarship. Each district winner is assured of a $600 scholarship.

The Outstanding Young Farmer & Rancher Award winner, and Outstanding County YF&R winner will each receive one year's free use of a half-ton 1990 Ford pickup, compliments of Bird-Kultgen Ford Co. of Waco. Additionally, the state OYF&R winner gets an expense-paid trip to the AFBF annual meeting at Orlando, Florida.

All three finalists in each of the YF&R activities will attend the TFB Legislative Development Seminar next April at Washington, D.C.

Agricultural lenders require better records and planning

The days of farmers walking into their banker's office and borrowing thousands of dollars on their signatures alone are becoming a thing in the past.

Fewer bankers are basing their loan decisions solely on their knowledge of the borrower's past repayment record, financial position and the adequacy of collateral, said Dr. Danny A. Klinefelter and Dr. Gerald C. Cornforth, management economists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

In the past, the formal loan policies of lending institutions were often much tougher than those actually followed in practice. Recent experience and stricter regulation are accelerating the movement toward commercial business standards, the two economists said.

For example, as the trend in agriculture moves toward many part-time farming operations and a few large-scale commercial farms, agricultural lending policies reflect these changes.

"Farms relying primarily on off-farm income for repayment ability will have loan requests treated like consumer loans with a standard set of rules based on percent of income devoted to debt servicing, overall debt-to-asset ratios and specific collateral margins," Klinefelter said.

Commercial farms will be treated like agribusinesses and will be subject to more information and documentation requirements with increased emphasis on repayment ability, longer-run economic outlook and specific enterprise analysis.

Lending is becoming more complex as the commercial operations become vertically integrated, Cornforth said.

"A premium will be placed on risk management by both lender and borrower with more controls and performance monitoring required after the loans are made," Cornforth said.

One of these changes is the move toward consistently prepared information based on generally accepted accounting principles. In too many past cases, agricultural credit analysis has been based on data that can be fairly described as "garbage in-garbage out," Cornforth said.

According to Klinefelter, another change needed in the system are standards for evaluating key financial position and performance indicators for different types of farms.

"Rules of thumb that now exist are generic and the fact remains that one set of standards is no more applicable to comparing a poultry operation and a grain farm than it would be for comparing a jewelry store and a manufacturing firm," the Extension management economist said.

The two economists point to another, more subtle shift in lending practices that has occurred in response to legislation providing for more borrowers' rights.

Liberalized bankruptcy laws and the rising threat of lender liability lawsuits are forcing lenders to be more selective in who they finance.

Youth comes first in 4-H Clubs

Youth always come first in 4-H, and one way of putting them first is with the child-centered approach.

This approach focuses on the needs and interests of the youth, said Brent Crossland, county 4-H program leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Project and organization leaders and parents found this approach helpful when working with 4-H'ers. Youth set their own goals, make plans to achieve them and carry them out. Also, they assess their own progress in reaching these goals.

The child-centered approach does not mean that children should do whatever they want, said Crossland. 4-H is a youth program with guidance by adults. Leaders and parents help youth achieve through understanding, encouragement and recognition.

This approach encourages the child's natural curiosity, enthusiasm, inquisitiveness, energy and willingness to perform tasks.

It helps adults to consider individual needs and desires of youth, listen to them, try to see things as children do, accept children for what they are and make them feel wanted and respected.

Leaders and parents using the child-centered approach for the first time may need to change leadership style, noted Crossland. Different styles of leadership are appropriate at different times.

Public Notice

On October 18, 1989, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (SWB) intends to file an application with the Public Utility Commission (PUC) of Texas to add a new service offering for business customers, called Consolidated Billing (CSB). The proposed effective date for this offering is December 4, 1989.

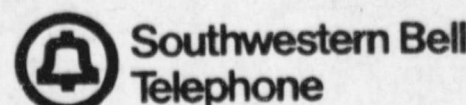

Consolidated Billing allows the business customer to combine an unlimited number of accounts within a single Revenue Accounting Office (RAO). Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's RAOs in Texas are located in Dallas, Houston and San Antonio. This service will establish a common billing date for each of those accounts so that they may receive one bill each month. Each customer account is tied together for billing purposes, but retains its own identity and level of detail.

PROPOSED RATES

There is no monthly rate associated with Consolidated Billing. However, a nonrecurring charge of $15.00 will be applied to establish a Consolidated Billing arrangement. An additional $15.00 nonrecurring charge will apply for each account which is incorporated into the Consolidated Billing arrangement.

Consolidated Billing (CSB) has been forecasted to generate an increase in first year annual revenues of approximately $581,733.

Persons who wish to comment on this application should notify the Commission by November 24, 1989. Requests for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, or you may call the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Remember to turn clocks back Sunday

Individuals who fail to turn their clocks back one hour before retiring Saturday night may arrive at church or at the local coffee shop an hour early on Sunday.

Sunday, October 29 will no doubt be the longest day of the year. Twenty five hours long to be exact. This is brought about as daylight savings time takes its leave early Sunday morning and will not return until next spring.

That hour lost during the spring with the entry of day light saving time will be tacked onto Sunday. - Thus October 29 is the only 25 hour day of 1989.

The adage pertaining to time changes is "spring forward in the spring" and "fall backwards in the fall."

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company hereby gives notice that on August 29, 1989 the Company filed an application with the Public Utility Commission (PUC) of Texas to revise its Texas intrastate Digital Link Service Tariff. This application proposes to restructure the rates for MICROLINK IISM - Packet Switching Digital Service to establish uniform rates for the service in each of the market areas where it is offered within the State and to expand the service to an additional nineteen (19) Primary Market Areas (PMAs).

MICROLINK IISM - Packet Switching Digital Service is for business customers with interactive data transport requirements who are located within the Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, Midland, San Antonio, Waco, or Wichita Falls Local Access and Transport Areas (LATAs). This service utilizes several existing network services in combination with packet switching capabilities. A MICROLINK II Primary Market Area is the service area from which subscribers may reach public dial access to the service by dialing a local seven digit number. The twenty-four (24) PMAs that will be affected by this filing are: Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Brownsville, McAllen, Harlingen, Corpus Christi, Victoria, Dallas, Fort Worth, El Paso, Houston, Galveston, Laredo, Longview, Tyler, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa, San Antonio, Waco, Temple, and Wichita Falls.

The PUC has assigned this matter to Docket No. 9034. It is estimated that the proposed rate changes and the addition of the nineteen (19) Primary Market Areas will increase the Company's annual revenues during the first year the proposed changes are in effect approximately $140,000. For additional information regarding MicroLink II Service or this filing, please contact Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's Marketing Organization on 512-222-5808.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. The Commission has established an intervention date of November 27, 1989. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the PUC Public Information Office at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf.

Hearing tests set for senior citizens

Floydada - Electronic hearing tests will be given at the Senior Citizen Center on Thursday, November 2 from 9:30 a.m. until 11:00 a.m.

Randy King, Licensed Hearing Aid Specialist will be present to perform the tests.

Everyone should have a hearing test at least once a year - even people now wearing a hearing aid or those who have been told that nothing could be done for them. Only a hearing test can determine if you are one of the many that a hearing aid can help.

The free hearing tests will be given Thursday, November 2 from 9:30 until 11:00 a.m. at 301 East Georgia. If you can't come in, call 983-2032 for in-home service.

PETITION FOR DISANNEXTION

TO: CITY OF FLOYDADA

I, Bill Hicks, dba Caprock Meat Company of Floydada, Texas do hereby request that my property located at Huckaby Division, Block 2 of the City of Floydada be disannexed from the City of Floydada.

The area to be disannexed is marked on the attached city map. This property was annexed into the city limits in 1971, and the city has failed to provide me with all the city services. There is no sewer line to my property.

According to the Local Government Code under Section 43.056, the service plan of a city should provide and complete construction on all municipal services within 4-1/2 years of annexation. In my opinion, the City failed to provide all services to this area within this specified period.

Therefore, I feel that I have every right, as sole land and business owner of this property, to request and receive disannexation from the City of Floydada.

Clayton appointed new judge

Assistant City Attorney Donna Cates. Clayton will move behind the bench at the end of the month as Amarillo's new municipal court judge.

Amarillo city commissioners last week named Clayton to replace Judge Pam Oglesby, who recently resigned to return to private practice.

Clayton, who received her law degree from Texas Tech University in 1981, became an assistant attorney for Amarillo in August, 1985.

She has worked in the 47th District attorney's office; the Potter County Attorney's office; and the Walker County district attorney's office in Huntsville.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Cates of Floydada.

Anderson takes money in seventh week of annual football contest

Mike Anderson, Sheree Cannon and Deneen Marricle took the top honors for the seventh week of the Hesperian football contest. The trio of intrepid contestants each incorrectly guessed four games out of the possible 22 for the week.

Anderson earns the check for $10.00 as the first place winner by virtue of his tie-breaker score of 35, one point off of the true total Floydada-Muleshoe score of 34. The check will be waiting in the Hesperian Office on Friday.

Second place goes to Cannon who posted a combined total score of 28 points, six away from the actual score. Her check for $6.00 will be ready on Friday.

Marricle will receive a check for $4.00 on Friday. Her total score was 42, eight points over the true total score.

Earning honorable mention this week with five misses were Jane Pruitt, Franklin Harris, Susan Simpson, Clay Simpson, Dwayne Wilson, W. O. Newberry, Irma Vasquez, Elisha Morris, Sammy Bradley, Carl Lewis, the Turner Twins, Duncan Woody, Hugh Miller and Laura Hale. Another sixteen entries had only six errors and fourteen persons missed seven games this week.

CONTEST STANDINGS

Brent Sanders continues to lead the race for the Cowboys-Eagles tickets for Thanksgiving Day. He has accumulated a total of 112 points over the seven weeks the contest has been running. With another three weeks of the contest to go, there is the possibility that one of the close contenders will overtake and pass Sanders.

Mike Anderson is really hot on the trail with 11 points. Next is Sheree Cannon with 109 points and Jack Robertson with 108 points. Susan Simpson and Deneen Marricle are closing fast with 107 points and Sarah Sanders, Sherry Hale and Andy Hale each stand at 106 points. Hugh Miller, Suzanne Wyrick and Jean Hale each have 105 points.

Pam Tipton, Wes Campbell and Laura Hale each have 104 points while Amy McCormick and Clay Simpson have 103. Bob Alldredge is alone at 102 while Kevin Tipton, Franklin Harris, Ricky Mosley and Gene Lowrance each have 101 points. Glenda Wilson, Sammy Hale, Robert Redden and Lucio Vasquez all stand at the century mark, 100.

Rounding out the field of current close contestants are Joseph Henderson, Sammy Bradley, Johnnie Mosley and Duncan Woody at 99 points and Mike Reeves at 98.

SPONSORS

The Hesperian urges everyone to check out the local sponsors of this annual contest and try to shop with them whenever you need a service or product they might be able to provide. Their continued support makes this contest possible. Let them know you appreciate their efforts.

Sponsors this year include: Floydada Implement, Floyd County Implement, Don Hardy Car Wash, Floyd County Seed, Floydada Co-op Gin, Floyd County Farm Bureau, City Auto, Thompson Pharmacy, Pay-N-Save of Floydada, Lighthouse Electric, First National Bank of Floydada, Producer's Co-op Elevator, Brown Implement, Floyd County Hesperian, True Value Builder's Mart, Our Place, KKAP Radio, Hale Insurance, Dixie Dog, Don Green Auto Parts, Cornelius Conoco, Quality Body Shop, Script Printing, Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company, Nielson's Restaurant & Catering, R Photography and State Farm Insurance, Nick Long Agent.

Max Crawford pens new novel

Max Crawford, 1956 Floydada graduate, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crawford, has recently had his seventh novel, Can't Dance, published.

Crawford, who is also known for his novel, Lords of the Plains, now lives in London. He is considered by many to be a leading Texas novelist.

The latest novel, Can't Dance, tackles the dirty underbelly of Texas football. It is set in the late '50's and early '60's and follows three All-State high school stars from their final All-State fame in Vernon through their dissolute college careers. The boys end up prey to gambling, game-fixing, murder and revenge.

The suspense in Can't Dance reportedly hangs high in the air, page after page. For those who like to recall sports history, Crawford also has fun picking on Darrell Royal and the invention of the wishbone at the University of Texas in the early '60's.

Thomas Zigal, literary critic for the Dallas Morning News, says of Can't Dance, "the new novel is a gripping tale of friendship, betrayal and murder in the grim underworld just below our native soil."

GO WINDS!

tempt to stay together despite significant odds. The play runs thru November 11.

Galloway, a graduate of Floydada High School, recently directed the Floyd County Art's Council's winter production of "The Mousetrap." He has appeared in numerous stage and television productions, most recently appearing on "All My Children" and "One Live to Live." Attending the premier will be his parents, Al and Sally Galloway.

Warren combine hobbies to create thread painting

Jo Warren, wife of Randy Warren, of Lubbock, has combined two hobbies of sewing and painting to create thread painting. Jo's husband, Randy, is the grandson of Bud Warren of Floydada.

Warren's technique involves painting a picture's basic structure on fabric with acrylic-based paint or fabric dye and then adding details with thread, yarn or fabric by using freestyle machine stitching techniques.

Little paint is used in her machine embroidered pictures. Just enough paint is used to provide a simple outline of the picture to give the finished piece depth. The rest of the picture's details are created by threads, yarns, fibers or fabric fabrics are used to add texture - giving it a three dimensional look.

Sometimes the basic outline is sketched on paper first, but often the project begins right on the garment without a sketch.

"It has become magic to me," said Warren, "to mix sewing and painting together and see what I can come up with. "I've mixed my two hobbies that I enjoy the most - sewing and painting - and combined them into one I like better than either one of them by themselves." pieces. The threads also provide color and clarity.

Lake Mackenzie Fishing Report

According to lake officials, the water temperature on October 24 was 68 degrees and the depth of the lake stood at 110.2 feet.

Recent catches reported include an 8 pound walleye. The fish was caught by Mule Grantham and Jerry Baird of Silverton using minnows. The catch was made on October 11 on Williams Creek.

A seven pound, four ounce channel cat was caught by Rodney and Debbie Brock of Tulia on October 15. The couple was using rabbit liver as fishing up Deadman Creek.

Jim Smith of Dimmitt had the thrill of landing a 20 pound yellow cat on October 21. He hooked the large fish on waterdogs while fishing up Deadman Creek.

Mason Becker of Floydada and Brent Ramsower of Plainview used minnows to catch a 4 3/4 pound channel cat on October 22. The duo was casting up Tule Creek.

Lake officials report that crappie are doing well up the creeks. Catches are reportedly running from 3/4 pound to a full pound and most are being made on minnows and worms.

Cactus Cove Marina will be closing for the winter months, effective October 29. Bait will remain available at lake offices.
