Possible homicide is under investigation by DA's office

The district attorney's office and the Floyd County Sheriff's office are investigating the death of Manuel Garza, Jr., 48, whose body was found Tuesday morning, January 2, in his Providence home. Autopsy reports state that Garza had died of multiple stab wounds to the upper body. He had apparently been dead for several days.

Mr. Garza was a farm laborer who had been employed by Warren and Mike Mathis since June of '89. He lived alone in a Providence farm house owned by his employer. His body was discovered by Mike Mathis, at approximately 8:30 a.m. Garza was pronounced dead by Justice of the Peace C.L. Mooney at approximately 9:00 a.m.

According to Ronnie Vandygriff, the investigator for District Attorney Becky McPherson, "The death is being investigated as a homicide. The autopsy showed that Mr. Garza had been killed sometime within 48 hours prior to the time he was found. The heat was on in the house and because of the warmth the body had begun to decompose."

The autopsy was being performed Tuesday night, by Dr. Ralph Erdmann in Lubbock.

Garza was born in Littlefield November 16, 1941. He grew up in Hockley County and attended Whitharral Schools.

He moved to Plainview in 1964. He was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

He is survived by an estranged wife Andrea Garza; three daughters, Mary Ann Garza and Sally Garza of Plainview, and Alice Chavez of Hart; one son, Ruben Tienda of Levelland; two brothers, Sam and Isaac of Plainview; three sisters, Seferina Saez, of Hammond, Indiana, Pauline Guerra, of Levelland, Virginia Delgado of Plainview; his mother, Juanita Garza of Plainview; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services, with Lemons Funeral Home in Plainview, are still pending.

Dottie Stansell announces for office of Prec. 2&3 JP

Dottie Stansell of Lockney has announced her intentions to seek the office of Justice of the Peace of Precincts 2 and 3.

"I feel my 5-1/2 years of working this office, gives me the experience and qualifies me to be a good and efficient officer to the people and able to work with City and County officials. I solicit your vote and will serve this office and the people to the best of my ability," stated Stansell.

Stansell assisted in the J.P. office in Lockney when Raz Ford was the elected Justice of the Peace.

Delfino Pesina seeks commissioner post

Delfino Pesina has announced his candidacy for the position of Commissioner of Precinct 4. This is the post being vacated by current commissioner Kay Crabtree.

Pesina stated, "I have held positions of responsibility as a crew leader, county jailer and migrant supervisor. If elected I will strive to serve the county to the best of my ability."

Edwards seeks second term as District Clerk

Barbara Edwards is seeking a second term as 110th District Clerk. Edwards first won election to fill the office upon the retirement of longtime clerk Mary McPherson in 1986.

Edwards served as secretary to the County Attorney Kenneth Bain for nine years before being selected as District Clerk.

FOURTEEN PASS EMT EXAMS--Fourteen persons finished Emergency Medical Technical classes which were held two nights a week since September at the Fire Hall in Lockney. Passing their exams were (L-R, Back Row) Monty Watson, Roaring Springs; Wade Phillips, Olton; Sam Latta, Crosbyton; Rick Kellison, Lockney;

All fourteen members of the Emergency Medical Technician classes were notified that they had passed the Written Course and Skills final examinations that were given at the end of their training.

Twenty five volunteers set out on September 4 to master the skills required to become a qualified Emergency Medical Technician (EMT). Classes were scheduled for four hours each Tuesday and Thursday night at the Lockney Fire Department and according to Berry Hooten, "Many Wednesday nights were spent practicing what we had learned that week and Saturdays were spent in Lubbock at the hospital emergency rooms or making ambulance runs."

Teaching the classes was Mark Beck of Abernathy and he was assisted by his wife Cindy. Beck is a paramedic with Lubbock EMS and is a volunteer with the Abernathy Volunteer Fire Department. His wife Cindy is qualified as an EMS Special Skills.

After several intense training sessions the class attendance dropped to fourteen. Members attending from Lockney were Zach Zachary, Archie Jones, Ricky Kellison, Jimmy Kemp, Darrell Rascoe, Lonny Hooten, Johnny Dorman, and Berry Hooten. All are members of the Lockney Volunteer Fire Department and Berry Hooten is Fire Chief. Others attending were Kelly Jarrett from Floydada, Monty Watson of Roaring Springs, Wade Phillips of Olton, Sam and Jan Latta of Crosbyton and Clyde Davis of Crosbyton.

According to Berry Hooten, "We would like to thank the city of Lockney for paying the tuition so that each of us could attend." He also stated, "When we made trips Lubbock for required classes each person paid for his own trip."

Hooten made the remark that, "when the people of Lockney pay their taxes they get what they are paying for as far as the volunteer fire department is concerned." "We go to fires, wrecks, make ambulance runs, watch the weather in the spring and anything else we are called on to do. When the fire whistle blows someone is there in a moments notice."

"We appreciate the help that the city has given the fire department and the equipment that the city has purchased to keep the ambulance up to date." Said Hooten.

Each person received a fifty chapter manual and were expected to read and review each chapter. The classes were divided into four interims and then tests were given on the lesson topics that had been studied in that interim.

After the third interim had been completed class member schedule time in the emergency room. One session had to be spent at Lubbock General, one session at Methodist and one session in the hospital of your choice. After the emergency room sessions are finished then eight hours are spent in labor and delivery. If you do not see two babies delivered in the first eight hours then a second or third eight hours is scheduled. The students are required to help in anyway needed, whether it be taking vital signs or making beds.

After the emergency room and delivery interim requirements are met then five runs with Lubbock ambulances must be made. Each student has to take part in one major medical and one major trauma run.

Classroom training take 132 hours to complete and 40 hours are spent in ambulance runs and the emergency room. By the time the students take their final exams they will have spent 200 hours in intensive training.

The lesson topics included The Scope of the Course, Roles and Responsibilities, Legal Responsibilities, General and topographic Anatomy, and Baseline Determinations;

Introduction to Patient Assessment, The Respiratory System, Basic Life Support and Airway and Ventilation, The Circulatory System, Basic Life Support: Artificial Circulation, Heart Disease and Stroke.

The fourth class was a CPR skills practice session. The CPR had to be done on a man, a woman and a child. According to Hooten, "CPR must be started within five minutes of the trauma to be effective."

An American Heart Association Basic Life Support written exam was taken by the class members during the fourth class.

Studied during the next classes were Ventilation Equipment and Oxygen Therapy, Control of Bleeding and Shock. A skills practice session on Mechanical Aids to Breathing, Vital Signs and CPR was held. In the next class the students had a situational review over legal aspects, Basic Life Support, Bleeding and Shock. During the skills practice session they covered CPR, Vital Signs, and Mechanical Aids to breathing.

On September 28 The first Interim Examination was given. The first part of

Love Fund for Ada Ellis begun at FNB

A love fund has been started for Ada Ellis at the First National Bank in Floydada. Mrs. Ellis, 81, lost her home and all of her belongings in a fire on December 23.

For anyone wishing to donate clothing, the following information has been supplied: shoe size, 6 or 7; slip, 36; panties, 7; dress, size 14. Any supplies can be dropped off at the home of Flora Parvin, 316 W. Mississippi, 983-2907.

"She also needs bed, bath and kitchen linen," said Ms. Parvin. "Kitchen appliances, utensils and canned goods are also needed. Anything would be helpful because she has nothing left."

the test was a written exam on the things covered in chapters 1-11 and 28 and 29.

The Skills part of the exams included CPR, Vital Signs, and Mechanical Aids to Breathing. Each member of the class had to do each skill correctly or he did not pass that segment.

Covered in the next classes were Ambulance Operation (Emergency Driving, Records and Reports, Communications, and Vehicle and Equipment Maintenance), Soft Tissue Injury, Bandaging, the Musculoskeletal System, Orthopedic Injury, Principals of Splinting, Fractures and Dislocations of the Shoulder and Upper Extremity;

Pelvis and lower extremity Injuries, Head and Spinal Injuries, Eye, Face and Neck Injuries.

After these classes Skills Practice Sessions were held on Bandaging and Splinting, Trauma Assessment Spinal Immobilization, and Traction Splinting.

The next series of classes centered on Chest Trauma, Abdominal Trauma, Genitourinary Trauma and Considerations in Managing Multiple Systems Trauma. A Situational Review on Trauma was held along with a Skills Practice Session on Trauma Patient Assessment, Bandaging, Splinting, Traction Splinting, and Trauma Assessment.

On October 26 the fourteen class members took their second interim examination. All passed the written and skills exams.

Studies were made on Poisons, Stings, Bites, and Anaphylaxis, Dyspnea and a review of Heart Attacks, Strokes, Diabetes, Acute Abdomin, Communicable Diseases, Substance Abuse, Overdose, Psychiatric Emergencies, Comas and Seizures.

A Lecture - Review and Skills Practice was held along with a Situational Review over Medical Emergencies, Obstetric/Gynecologic Emergencies, Emergency Childbirth, and Pediatric Emergencies.

The third interim examination was held on November 14 and again all class members passed the written and skills exams.

The third interim examination was held over chapter covered and the Skills exam was given over CPR, Mechanical Aids to Breathing, Vital Signs, and Patient Assessment.

The fourth series of classes included topics on Burns, Heat and Cold Exposure, Drowning and Diving Injuries and Patient Handling. A skills practice session was held on Patient Handling. The students heard a lecture on Extrication and Rescue and did situational practice on Extrication and Rescue.

The fourth written and skills interim examination was given on December 5. The skills examination was given over Bandaging, Splinting, Traction Splinting and Patient Assessment.

Hesperian in search of pieces for Centennial

By Alice Gilroy

Floyd County citizens will be celebrating their 100th birthday all through this new year of 1990. The Floyd County Hesperian and The Lockney Beacon will cover the numerous celebrations and will publish a special Centennial edition in the month of May.

Help will be needed from our readers all over the county, and beyond, to make this a special keepsake edition for hopefully another 100 years. There is no better way to preserve history than through the written word and the memories of those who have experienced it.

We hope to include stories of the founding and history of the town, including stories and pictures of the first settlers and pictures of all parts of the town at various periods in history.

Stories will be needed on the growth and history of county government, municipal governments, the fire department, police department, library, schools, utility companies, airport, railroad, road building and the growth of the use of the automobile.

We will want to include the history of all present stores and business enterprises, as well as stories and pictures of past businesses; including gins and grain elevators all over the county.

All clubs and organizations need to start now preparing a history of their growth and accomplishments. This will include organizations such as: DAR, Rotary, Lions, Masons, Eastern Star, American Legion, Chamber of Com-

Three sentenced in district court Carlton Shaw given 20 year prison sentence

Carlton Shaw, of Floydada, was sentenced on Wednesday, January 3, by Judge David Cave, to 20 years in TDC and a fine of $5,000, for possession of methamphetamine.

The methamphetamine was discovered after a search of his residence by Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms and the Floyd County Sheriff's office, on October 4, 1988.

Recovered at his residence was 4-6 grams of "speed", which has a street value of approximately $400 - $600. Shaw testified during the sentencing stage that he had traded his 1987 Firebird for the drugs, and that it would take him one to two days to use one gram of the drug.

Shaw's lawyer requested probation for his client, citing the fact that Shaw is employed and has not been in any trouble since his arrest in October. The

Duncan PTA plan dinner as fundraiser

The Duncan PTA will be sponsoring an enchilada dinner on Sunday, January 14 from 11:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. in the school's cafeteria. The menu will consist of enchiladas, beans, rice, salad, dessert and tea or coffee. There will be take-out plates available.

This will be the major fundraiser for this school year. In the past years the major fundraisers have been door to door sales with the students selling various items. If this dinner is successful there will be no need in sending the students on these door to door sales.

This is the goal that the PTA is trying to reach. The support of the community is desperately needed to make this successful.

Tickets for the dinner are available at the Duncan School Office, the Main Judgments on civil cases passing through his court have been upheld on appeal to higher courts in Texas. Says Cave, "I have made certain that proper preparation has been done prior to and during the trial. This allows litigants to have careful and correct jury trials which are free of error. I have had no reversible errors in civil cases."

Cave has maintained a perfect record in returning defendants released on bond to court for trial. He pledges to continue examining bond requests carefully and set bonds at a level which will ensure the presence of defendants for trials.

"In criminal cases under my jurisdiction," adds Cave, "I have refused to go along with some of the plea bargains. Since Mrs. McPherson has taken office, I have found all of the recommended plea bargains acceptable. I will continue to examine each plea bargain very carefully and ascertain that the punishment fits the crime."

Citing prompt reporting of probation violations, Cave says he has increased the speed of hearings and revocations. With this policy the probation department has collected in excess of $300,000.00 in fines and court costs which has been turned over to the commissioners courts in the counties of the district. This money can then be used to defray the cost of the criminal justice system.

"I would like to point out that the judicial system is virtually self-supporting, costing the taxpayers not a penny for it generates these sums to sustain it," said Cave.

Cave noted that he promised voters during the last election that a court appointed auditor would not be forced on any county. He states that he has kept that promise and this has saved Floyd County over $60,000.00 since taking office.

"When I first asked for your vote, I told you there were many things that needed to be done," said Cave. "I am now happy to say to you that it has been accomplished and that I will keep my responsibility to you, the voters, first and foremost. With your help at the March 13 primary election, I will continue to serve as your District Judge."

Life Forever presenting concert at First Baptist

Donald Webster, Minister of Music at First Baptist Church, Lockney, has announced a special concert of contemporary Christian music to be presented by LIFE FOREVER at the local church (401 S. Main), Saturday, January 6th, at 7:00 p.m.

Admission to the concert is free. A love (voluntary) offering ($2.00 suggested donation) will be received to help the group with expenses. A youth fellowship will follow the concert, refreshments will be served. All Jr. High and High School age youth are encouraged to attend. Adults are welcome.

Life Forever, consists of four young men in their early twenties, who have specialized in setting traditional Christian themes to contemporary musical styles, ranging from slow and easy to aggressive and bold. Instrumentation includes drums, guitars, electronic piano and several other keyboards. While their concerts are especially enjoyed by youth from 13 to 30, their music is appreciated by "young" people of all ages.

The four began singing together in their early teens for their home church in the Kansas City area. As they received invitations to sing for other churches and community functions in the vicinity, they gradually came to see a future together. Consequently, the group has toured widely over the U.S. and Canada, but only during summer months. Their '89-'90 tour, L.F.'s first extended tour during a school term, will run 5 months, from late August to late January, covering 20,000 miles with over 100 concerts in 19 U.S. states and 5 Canadian provinces.

During their first years together, Life Forever used only songs composed by

Courtroom Activities

In county court on December 28 1989, Jessie David Castillo, 18, of Floydada, pled guilty to his December 27 charge of DWI. He was fined $100.00 and sentenced to one year in jail which was probated for two years. He was also charged court costs of $152.50.

Robert Luna, 24, of Floydada, was charged with DWI and driving while his license was suspended. There was no disposition on this case.

In J.P. court Dec. 27-Jan. 2, there were 78 misdemeanor cases filed.

others. Then, while still in high school, the group began to compose its own music. Today, most of the material used in concerts is original, giving a unique freshness to its concerts. Three professional recordings of L.F.'s own compositions, have been produced and will be available at the concert.

Besides sharing similar musical interest, all the performers and technicians have attended Tabor College in Hillsboro, Kansas. And, while each musician is proficient both vocally and instrumentally, only one of the performers is a music major. Other majors include biology, youth ministry, and physical education.

The four performing musicians are Byron Funk, brother Russ and Steve Friesen, and Carson Richert. Sound is controlled by Brian Rempel and lighting by Neil Bontrager. The wives of Steve, Russ and Byron (Michele, Marilyn and Deana, respectively) also travel with the group, adding support in counseling, sales and financial management.

During a Life Forever concert, one can quickly see that all the members of the group truly enjoy what they are doing with their unusual talents. But beyond the music is a warmth and sincerity that reveals a love and concern for people, especially youth. In the words of one of the members, "Our mission is to bring out the best in people by helping them to make Jesus Christ a 24-hour-a-day part of their lives."

police have cleared ten Floydada burglaries and will possibly clear up three more burglaries.

According to police, a report was received on December 27, of a burglary of Scott Gin. The east door of the building had been kicked in to gain entry and police noticed a set of shoe prints outside the building. The prints were tracked for five blocks to a residence. A suspect at the residence was brought back to the police department for questioning.

"Since the suspect was not under arrest at the time, he decided to terminate the interview and ran out the door," said Chief James Hale. "However during the interview the suspect did implicate himself and another person in the burglaries. At this time a warrant has been issued for the arrest of George Sanchez Jr. of Floydada.

"We have discovered that the items stolen from these burglaries have been sold to Floydada residents. We are in the process now of finding out who bought the stolen items. If you suspect that you have unknowingly bought stolen merchandise in the past month, please contact the police."

A stolen bike was also recovered by law officers last week. On December 26, a 27" red Huffy 10-speed bike was parked out front of Allsups while the owner went inside to make a purchase. The bike was stolen. The next day, Deputy David Hart, spotted a man riding a bike that fit the description of the stolen bike. The man was stopped and questioned. The bike was identified by the owner and Joe Angel Falcon, 20, was arrested and charged with Class B Theft.

On December 28, between 7:50 p.m. and 7:55 p.m. two Peterbilt trucks were entered on the lot of Leatherman Trucking, at 4th and Houston. Lights were pulled off a roof of one truck and antennae wire was broken from another. The cabs were also entered. The owner of the trucks pulled into the lot while the burglary was taking place and scared off three male suspects. He observed them running from the scene.

On December 28, at 10:23 p.m., Officer Darrell Gooch observed a 4-door Ford leave the Allsups parking lot. The vehicle slid sideways across four marked traffic lanes at a high rate of speed, then slid back across two lanes before the operator gained control. The car continued to travel west on Houston at a high rate of speed. The driver, Robert Luna, 24, of Floydada, was stopped and arrested for DWI. It was also determined that he was driving while his license was suspended.

On December 29, at 10:50 p.m., police received a call from a woman who stated she had had an argument with a juvenile who had hit her and then stolen her car. The vehicle was stopped and a juvenile was arrested. He was charged with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, DWI, and possession of marijuana.

December 31, police received a report of a home, in the 700 block of W. Grover, that had been burglarized on December 30. Stolen from the residence was a Sears VCR, a Sony TV and VCR tapes. The total value of loss was estimated at $675.00.

On January 1, at 12:15 p.m., police received a report of a burglary of a business in the 100 block of W. California. Items valued at approximately $826.00 were stolen. There was no forced entry. "The building was entered with a key," said Chief Hale. "Two people, besides the owner, have keys to the business. Our investigation is continuing."

On January 2, between 4:15 p.m. and 4:45 p.m., an employee of Ince Oil, at 401 S. 2nd, reported a theft of gasoline to police. According to police reports, a customer pumped $10.00 worth of gas into his car. He tried to pay the gas bill with a $100.00 bill and the station could not make change. The customer said he would go make change and come back. He did not.

defense also stated that there has been no evidence that Shaw has been involved in the sale or distribution of the drug.

District Attorney Becky McPherson requested a sentence of 25 years in the penitentiary saying, "The family has been very supportive of Shaw. He has had his chances at rehabilitation many times and failed. It is now time to get the drugs off the street."

Judge Cave stated before sentencing that he was taking into consideration the commercial quantity of the unlawful substance and noted that he perceives an escalation of violence in Shaw's past behavior. For that reason he sentenced Shaw to 20 years and $5,000 fine.

David Chad Jackson, of Lockney, also appeared before Judge Cave. Jackson pled guilty to Burglary of a Motor Vehicle. He was sentenced to four years in TDC which was probated for four years. Jackson and a co-defendant, were also ordered to pay restitution of $1,524.54 on another case.

Also in district court, the probation of Oseas Torres Jr., 22, of Floyd County, was revoked. Torres was originally on probation for theft. He violated terms of his probation and he was sentenced to four years in TDC.

Lockney Police Report

The Lockney Police Department had a report on December 27 that a pickup had been broken into in the 200 block of NE 3rd Street. A Pioneer stereo, reportedly valued at $280, was stolen. The break-in could have occurred anytime during the previous two weeks.

December 28 at 8:45 p.m. a member of the Lockney Police Department was dispatched to the Lockney General Hospital to take a complaint from a 21 year old female who had been assaulted. The victim received a number of stitches to the forehead. The police questioned the victim and the suspect.

On January 1, 1990 the Lockney Police Department investigated an assault that occurred on north Main Street. The victim was treated at the Lockney General Hospital and released. He received approximately 30 stitches to his forehead. Police have taken a statement. No charges have been filed at this time.

The Lockney Police Department would like to remind those who received bicycles for Christmas or have a bicycle that is not engraved that they need to be. The bicycles need to be engraved with the initials TX and the drivers license number of a parent in several places on the bike. According to Chief of Police Lennie Gilroy, "It is not a good idea to put your initials on the bike because if it is stolen and found in another town then they have no way of knowing where it belongs. The drivers license number can be traced and the bike returned to its rightful owner."

Gilroy stated that if you will call his office and bring the bike by that he will be glad to do the engraving.

ALPHA MU DELTA DONATION—Alpha Mu Delta sorority this week presented the Floyd County Child Welfare Board with a $500 donation. The presentation was made by Shereese Covington, (right) sorority member, to Vikki Yeary, chairperson of the Child Welfare Board. The money for the donation came from proceeds of a bridge tournament that the sorority sponsored in November. --Staff photo merce, Sororities, Study Clubs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4-H, FFA, S.O.S., Salvation Army, and P.T.A. Organizations that are no longer in the area, but which helped in the growth and the development of the community at various stages of its history, will also be included.

Up to date histories of the present church's in the county, with pictures, and of churches that are no longer around will be included.

Of course no historical edition is complete without the "I Remember" columns. We will also need pictures and stories of memorable fire, floods, first settlers, etc.

Obviously the task of compiling all this information will be too great for the staffs of The Hesperian and The Beacon, so that is where our readers come in.

Every business, past and present;

every church, club, etc., will need to find someone in their group to update their history. The Floyd County Museum is full of information and the staff there will be glad to assist anyone in finding what they need. The newspapers will be glad to assist anyone with writing the story, as long as the information is turned in early.

All stories will be subject to editing for space.

School District Office, Our Place Drive Inn, Southwestern Public Service Office and from PTA officers. The PTA officers are: Debra Jo Fawver, Julie Duke, Jan Smith, Mitzi Nixon, Judy Lloyd and Erma Meyers. The prices are $4.00 for adults and $2.50 for children 10 years and under.

The proceeds from this dinner will go to the school for equipment and supplies for the benefit of the students at Duncan.

If anyone has suggestions or would like to volunteer to help they can call Debra Jo Fawver at 983-3218 or Jan Smith at 983-3954.

The PTA encourages everyone to buy their tickets and enjoy a good meal while at the same time supporting their children at Duncan Elementary.

Edwards...

Says Edwards, "Everyone has been so cooperative and easy to work with. I appreciate the support I received in the last election and ask that the voters support me as I seek election to the second term."

She is married to Roy Eugene (Bud) Edwards and has two sons, Rusty a student at Texas Tech, and Tyson, a student in Floydada. She is the daughter of Grigsby (Doodle) and Lillie Mae Milton. She attends the First Baptist Church where she is active in choir and music activities. She is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and has helped with registration for Old Settlers each May for several years, being in charge of it for the past three.

District clerks are required by law to have 20 hours of continuing education, each 24 month period in areas related to the performance of the duties of the office. Edwards has met the requirement by attending an annual school for county and district clerks sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service V. G. Young Institute of County Government near Texas A&M University.

"I will continue to do my job to the best of my ability and to the benefit of the voters in the 110th Judicial District," said Edwards.

Lockney Care Center News

By Jane Martinez

Hello! Sorry we did not get our newsletter in last week. But, here we are again. Hope everybody has had a good holiday, we sure have. We had a few of our residents go out with their families for Christmas. Our employees had their party on Monday, December 18, they seemed to have had a good time. We would like to congratulate Shelia McMurtrey for getting her L.V.N. license. Also, Diana Vallejo for getting her nurses aide test scores back, she passed.

Our residents have received lots of Christmas cards over the Christmas Holidays. We would like to thank everybody that has remembered our residents this holiday season. We also give thanks to the group of carolers from Silvertown, the 50 children and teachers that came from the Lockney Elementary School, the 4-H Club, the group of Valley, also the Youth and Childrens choir of Tem-plo Sinia of Plainview. We give special thanks to Dona Browning and Pearl Rattan for all the things they do for the home. I would also like to give my thanks to Jack and Inez Gibson for taking the chairs back for us. Thanks to Hopie Luna for letting us use her truck. We also want to thank Maebella Francis for donating the pretty sweater, and the Aribba Club for giving their time to help put decorations on our residents doors.

I would also like to thank everyone that has given their time for our residents. They are very grateful to you all for everything that you do for them. And now for the year 1990 we decided that we will have a resident of the month and employee of the month. So as for January, resident of the month is Grace Foster, employee of the month is Betty Jordan an L.V.N. at the home.

Let you know more next time, I'm short on time this week. Until next week.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

Hi! Do hope this finds everyone well and happy. It seems as if there is a lot of flu, colds going around. We wish for those who are down a speedy recovery. We have had two holidays around here, but now we are in full swing again.

Tuesday we took down all the decorations, sang songs and had popcorn.

Wednesday the residents played Bingo. Lennie Willis had the first Bingo. Mary Alice Davis came and assisted the residents. She brought some cookies too. They also had fresh fruit for a treat.

Friday, Nettie Adams came and shared a Bible story with the residents. We always enjoy her. Letha opened the devotion with a prayer. Evelyn Latta played the piano for us. In the evening the residents went on the bus ride to Plainview. McDonald's treated them to some ice cream. It was a pretty, warm day. They enjoyed going as they have missed two Fridays going.

Our sympathy and prayers go out to the family of Lucy Pettit and also to Otis Johnson's family on the death of his mother, Zella Johnson, she was nearly 97 at a nursing home in Lufkin, Texas.

We want to welcome a new resident, Andres Pena. He is Rudy Comacho's (a nurse's assistant) grandfather.

Thanks go out to the F.H.A. boys for the fresh fruit.

This week's visitors were: Pauline Robertson, Glen Johnston, Myria Dade, Artie Webb, Tina Wolford family, Willie Mae Smith, May Sue, H.C. and Marge McElyea and Rebecca Johnson.

Carl Lemons' News and Views from Cedar Hill

It is a mad-house, that eternal struggle to bring together the news of ALL those EARTH SHAKING events that repeatedly occur in the ACTION CENTERS of the county like this place called CEDAR HILL. Locating those news gems, carefully uncovering them, and finally bringing them out into the full light of day is only half the battle.

Of even greater importance is the need to serve that delectable fare to John Q. Public while it is still in a state of pristine freshness, glistening wet, as it were, with the morning dew.

Now that freshness part is not such an easy thing when the news medium is a weekly publication. So a writer is tempted to resort to some distinctive style of delivery, a unique phrasing, a degree of wordiness, or any special maneuver that will, in effect, compensate the reader for the fact that the writer's news is old news. All of those subterfuges are time consuming; thus it is that many a writer stays glued to his keyboard, hammering away, until his article runs into that nemesis of the written word, the printer's deadline.

Not many weeks ago your writer became absorbed in the writing of his column one Tuesday morning. Oblivious to all about him he pecked on and on until it was finished. Now it only needed to be printed from computer disk to hardcopy, then off to town! A quick glance at the clock! Unbelievable! How time had flown! It was now five thirty p.m. and the deadline had been two o'clock!

Crestfallen and by way of apology, the Hesperian office was called and advised to release any space reserved for N&V, it wouldn't make it this week. Their reply was surprising, "Our layout work won't start until in the morning. If we had your article bright and early we might work it in!"

The next morning when Nita Marble left home to go to work she found The News and Views lying in the seat of her car and she carried it into the Hesperian with her, bright and early. So N&V made print that week! Now that was good; in fact so very good that it got to be a habit! Thus it was that before the sun rose on Wednesday morning, December 27 the last N&V column for '89 was wheeling westward for a rendezvous with Nita Marble's car when the right front tire let go with a bang! A Blowout!

Seventy years of experience went into mounting that spare; it only took a minute. In another minute the tools had been replaced, and that was when a final check revealed the spare tire had been practically flat, too flat for travel. An hour later the Hesperian confirmed that the layout was virtually complete! Too late! Now you know why N&V 12-28 was not in last week's paper.

WEATHER

The following is an excerpt from the "casualty column" that was never printed in last week's paper. "This column must admit to a degree of apprehension as we move through these first days of winter '89 and '90. Toby and I were issuing a cloaked warning a week ago when we wrote the following, "This issue will reach it's readers on Thursday, December 21, the first day of winter, so take special heed! Will that first day of winter '89 be a lamb or a lion?"

Well, at no point could that Thursday ever have been considered a lamb, but it didn't turn really bad until up in the afternoon after the mail was delivered out on the rural route where Old Man Winter lived. First off, old M.W. turned through the Hesperian to the N&V column, read a paragraph or two, then he jumped up and hollered, "Jehoseph! This is the first day of Winter! I gotta get goin'!"

Get going he did! By a little before dawn the following morning he had the temperature down to a minus four here at the Listening Post. Twenty hours later, soon after midnight Friday, your sleepy-eyed writer read his thermometer at a MINUS FOURTEEN! A strong north wind was sifting powdery snow through minute cracks around the door, and tiny thumb-sized drifts were piling up on the floor! Your writer was almost back to his warm blankets when disbelief turned him around and sent him back across that cold, cold floor for a second look at that thermometer; there had to have been a ten degree mistake, you know. Nope, it still read minus fourteen degrees! Now how about fifteen? Come on, stretch it a little! Make it a minus fifteen! Sorry, couldn't be done! It was ONLY FOURTEEN BELOW!

The one to two inches of snow was gone by sun-set on Christmas day, the temperature had been above sixty, and the honey bees had been out flying. In fact, on Christmas day, the bees carried in another big quart, 37 ounces to be exact, of their medicated syrup and stored it in their hives.

Monday, January 1, 1990: The first day of the New Year, also the first of a new decade, came in with lamb-like meekness. It featured brilliant sunshine all day long in a sky that was cloudless. True the temperature dropped to the high teens Sunday night but that seemed mild compared to the sub-zero weather of a few days earlier. The wind, very light in the early morning, continued to rise as the temperature climbed, and by late afternoon, when the temperature reached 60, the wind was sweeping honey bees from their landing boards as they attempted to alight. Compared to the howling, frigid ferocity of our first day of winter our year began with a beautiful beautiful day.

CRP FIRE

Someone let a cigarette get away from them on New Years Day and started a fire on the highway shoulder that swept northeastward into Junior Taylor's CRP grass five eighths mile east of Cedar. The wind was blowing only moderately and the grass was not too rank. The Floydada Fire Department was called, however the Cedar Hill Sack Brigade, Jerry Lackey being the sole brigadier at the time, had already gained the upper hand, when other local reinforcements arrived ready to go on line with him. Just at that moment the Floydada Fire Department arrived and the locals stepped back to watch the professionals perform. It was a joy to watch that special equipment wipe out the remaining flames. Another ten miles per hour added to the wind velocity and the Sack Brigade would have been swamped, the burn would have been a half mile longer when the city equipment arrived. Warning! Be careful! Your smoking can be hazardous to CRP grass, could even claim somebody's home or life!

A LESSON LEARNED! Jerry Lackey was fighting that fire with an old pair of levis. They looked to be twice as effective as the customary tow sack both in the force of the blow and in accuracy. If you are one of those who have started carrying two fire-fighting buckets in the back of your pickup, put a pair or two of old levis with the sacks in the sack bucket, think you'll finally discard the sacks! A cup or two of anti-freeze mixed with the water in the water bucket might mean you would have liquid to fight fire with instead of a chuck of ice.

PEOPLE

Todd and Melissa Hodges, the sailor son of Phyllis Harris, who is presently stationed at the navy base in San Diego were here for a very brief visit on Tuesday Dec. 19. They visited and broke bread with his mother and siblings at Cephus and Imogene's home. They had flown back to Texas to get the car that Melissa left with her folks at the time they were married.

Despite the biting cold weather a goodly number of people showed up for the Mexican supper at the Assembly of God Church Friday night. No small boost to their numbers was the arrival of two of the pastor's daughters with their families, an instant gain of eight people.

One of Pastor Dewey's daughters, Joy Contreras, her husband, and daughter are here from Columbus, Ohio. Based over a longer period they came from Barcelona, Spain where they served four years as missionaries. They are now on stateside leave, but will return to Spain possibly this coming April. Another daughter, Melody Clairmont, her husband and three children are here from Louisville, Ky.

Tue. Jan. 2nd: The Dewey's third daughter, Arlene, and her husband, Professor Bratlien, of College Station were here briefly just before New Years. They had to hurry back since she teaches public school music and he is a professor at A&M.

Tuesday morning, Dec. 26: It's rough collecting news the day following Christmas. Everybody has rushed off to town to sell a few more bales of cotton, parley with the banker, or whatever it takes to calm those waves on the troubled sea of finance which normally tends to get a little choppy towards the end of the year. Maybe you should ignore the foregoing, and we'll say what they really went to town for was to exchange that shirt for one the right size, or perhaps that perfume "didn't match my personality."

Peat Kelley became ill with her chronic respiratory trouble on Tuesday, Dec. 19, but, like a typical old-timer, she refused to become bedfast for another two days. By that time she was more than just a little sick. On Christmas Eve Norma Welch felt her mother could be no worse and still be with us. She was some improved late Tuesday, prone to get up when left alone a for few minutes, and then not able to get back to bed by herself. Tue. Jan. 2, Mrs. Kelley is still far from well, but here has been some mending.

Connie and Steve Pritchett were at the Welches over Christmas and, with Mrs. Kelley sick, they were really needed. Connie kept the home fires burning at headquarters, while J.A. gave Steve got a hands-on review of what it was like to chop holes in lake-ice so livestock could water.

It was not a bountiful Christmas at the Cecil Arredondos, but they were together; and the Christmas tree and mexican supper at the church stood tall among their holiday events.

The Sylvestre Arredondo family were happy that Sylvestre, although still confined to this wheel chair, has had no health crisis for the last several months. In fact he is well enough that granddaughter Lupe, the family's most versatile member, has gone to be with her mother in Roswell, N.M. She feels that her mother, terminally ill with a malignancy, has greater need for her help than grandfather Sylvestre.

Stanley C. and Lou Jean Burleson had both of their daughters and their families at their Cedar Hill ranch headquarters during the holidays. During a short discussion of grandkids, Teen mentioned how his middle grandchild would crawl to the screen door last summer to meet him when he returned from work. It soon became apparent that the little tyke had a crush on granddad. Now that is typical of what grandkids will do to you;

they have so many ways of slipping up on one's blind side and before you know what has happened you have been captured in the tiny web of their adoration; and you, you are left defenseless, without recourse, nothing on earth you can do but reciprocate.

D.M. and Jonnie Delle Cogdell had their daughters, Connie Cogdell of Lubbock; Carol and John Courtney and ten month old John Cogdell Courtney of Houston; and Jonnie Delle's mother, Mable McCain of Eastland for guests this Christmas. Both Mrs. McCain and Connie brought along their fancy lap dogs, but Carol brought John Cogdell and he was the family's stellar attraction. John Cogdell arrived on wobbly legs and had his share of abrupt sit-downs at first, but by the time they left on New Year's Day he had become amazingly sure-footed, and would explore the house from end to end with nary a tumble.

Cephus and Imogene Fortenberry had daughters Melba Jean and Phylis visiting with them this Christmas. Jean's Troy had to work but Wes and Rodney came from Dumas with her and they stayed overnight. Phylis' Terry from Floydada and Mychelle with her boy friend, Marshal Holcomb, both from Paducah, were also here for Christmas.

The Edna Gilley Clan met at Edna's home the evening of Christmas Eve for supper and their package opening. Present were the following: Craig, Trudy, Amy, and Tara Gilley from Cedar Hill; Mark, Lori, Emory, and Jessica Gilley from Floydada; and Johnny Harrison and his daughter Cassandra from Plainview. Deliece and Christi Harrison remained in Plainview due to the flu and Christi's slow recovery from the girl's auto accident at Thanksgiving.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 27, the Floyd County Gilleys visited with a number of relatives who were ex-residents of Cedar Hill, in the home of Gurtrude Gilley Hammit in Plainview.

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as a result of breast cancer. Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate. The cost is only $100. A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

News and Views from Cedar Hill

Guatrude had the following guests: her son Charles and Bobby Bybee Hammit and their children, Renay and Chad, of Hugo, Colorado; and her son Larry and Sunny Lawson Hammit of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

Donnie and JoAnn Hammit and their son, Ryan, of Holly, Colorado, visited Edna Gilley on Friday, Dec. 29. Donnie is the son of Gene and Darla Hammit of Holly, Colorado. They carried back a selection of Cedar Hill's EXCEL-built equipment to sell in a fledgling dealership they are developing.

The home of Clint and Dara Ware was the focal point for relatives and friends of the Cedar Hill Wares this year. Dara's parents, the Garvin's from Silverton, were there along with her brother and his girl friend. Brent Marble and his wife dropped by in the afternoon. Grandpa Raz, from his place on the corner, and Aunt Lisa with her new husband, Guimmy Baldwin, of Plainview, came to admire Cody and Clay in their new red boots, fuzzy chaps, in fact complete new cowboy regalia. MINUS THE HATS. Ten gallon hats and West Texas winds are a hazardous combination when you live on the lip of a canyon. Retrieving a hat might require the skills of a mountain climber there at the old Ware headquarters. After all the boy's old hats were still fine. The boys' SOCK had also included an electric powered jeep plenty big for BOTH BOYS to ride in.

Your writer, a rootless bit of flotsam, was taken in tow by daughter-in-law Linda Fay and steered into the warm fellowship of her family's Christmas supper and package opening at the W.T. Cooper home in Lockney. Look! Things could get so good you'd hate to give up being a rootless bit of flotsam!

Here's an amusing twist! Carl Lemons got a box of frozen fish fillets for Christmas so he lost no time in tucking it into his deep freeze. He wrote of his treasured fish fillet fingers in the "Lemons Family Newsletter" he mails out from time to time and, after a few days, there was a feed-back that said perhaps he ought to check that package of frozen fish fingers. Well when removed from the deep freeze the fish fillet package was found to contain a beautiful plaid flannel shirt by American Standard and a 210 page writing tablet, both of them very nice and very cool. It would have been double the fun if he had not been warned and had fired up the old fry daddy with cooking oil and everything before he looked inside that package.

Extension office to offer computer workshop in Floydada, January 16-18

A computer workshop will be held January 16-18 on the spreadsheet program, LOTUS 1-2-3 and a management or record keeping program entitled Quicken. These workshops will be held from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. each day at the County Extension Office in Floydada. You are encouraged to bring your own computer, if possible, so that you will learn to run the programs on the same computer you will be using each day. There will be a couple of computers available if you cannot bring yours.

The LOTUS 1-2-3 portion of the training will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, January 16 and 17. LOTUS is a spreadsheet program with endless possibilities of keeping figures and all types of data. Jackie Smith, Extension Economist, will be leading the workshop. He will start with the very basics of LOTUS and work his way up to making your own spreadsheets or working with spreadsheets that are already prepared. You will be receiving a notebook with a full explanation of terms and functions.

LOTUS will work with any IBM compatible computer. You will be amazed at all the capabilities of this program. If you do not have this program currently, Jackie will have a copy you can use during the training.

On Thursday, January 18, Jackie will be teaching a workshop on Quicken. Quicken is a new record keeping program that is ideal for keeping budgets, checkbook balances, etc. You will be introduced to the numerous capabilities of this program. This is an excellent program for homes and small businesses. It is really "quick" and easy to learn and easy to adapt to fit your situation. If you do not have this program, you may borrow a copy to be used during the training. You will be receiving a booklet on this program that will explain the terms and functions.

The cost for the two workshops is $20.00 ($15.00 for the LOTUS 1-2-3 workshop and $5.00 for Quicken). The money will be used to pay for the booklets you will be receiving. This is an excellent opportunity to learn more about your computer and be able to use it more efficiently! If you are interested in this workshop, call the Extension office today at 983-2806. Space is limited, so be sure to call as soon as possible.

Varsity girls win two, lose two in Slaton Invitational Tournament

The Floydada Varsity Girls team lost first round play to Perryton, 55-44 at the Slaton Invitational Tournament last weekend. Meeting Perryton, the girls were out scored by "a much taller team," according to Coach Gregg. "We had a good effort and had a 42-41 lead when we missed a lay-up and then the front end of two 1 and 1's. We could not come back after that."

Leading scorer was Kerrie Pitts with 12 points, followed by Amy McCormick at 11. Tonya Powell made 6 points and 5 each went to Angie Glasscock and Heather Henderson. Trish Pernell made 3 and Amy Hinsley hit 2.

The consolation quarter final competition pitted the Varsity Floydada feds against Abilene High in a late game on December 28. The girls pulled through overtime play to emerge with a 63-60 victory. Leading scorers were Glasscock and Pernell with 17 points each while McCormick made 15. Powell added another 9 points with Henderson netting 6 and Pitts making 2.

"Abilene High had a very tall and quick team," said Coach Gregg. "We came out and hit 5 three point shots in the first quarter and pulled them out. Abilene hit a three pointer at the buzzer to send it into overtime. We again built up a lead in overtime and Abilene missed a 3 pointer from half court as the overtime ended. We needed this win against a good ball club as we approach district."

Consolation semifinals matched the Floydada girls with the Post lady round ballers. The outcome found Floydada the victor by a score of 59-52.

Coach Gregg stated, "We were very inconsistent in this game. We had a good game from the free throw line, hitting 22 out of 27. We had a very inconsistent game from the field and made several defensive mistakes that kept allowing Post to stay in the game. This was the third time we had played post this season and we had some trouble being motivated for them."

Pitts was the high point player with 19 points. Glasscock netted 13 and McCormick made 12. Pernell and Henderson each had 4 while Powell made 3 and Hinsley and Branda Breed each made 2.

The Floydada Fems lost the consolation game to Tulia as the Hornet ladies steamed over them 71 to 32. According to Coach Gregg, "We had a very poor game in all phases. We did not move well in our offense and had a cold shooting night. We had a good second quarter but could not keep it going in the third."

McCormick was the leading Floydada scorer with a total of 9 points. Pitts made 8. Hinsley and Henderson each had 4. Glasscock netted 3 and 2 each were made by Kalli Hicks and Powell.

The team now has a 7-12 season record. Next opponents will be Hale Center at Hale Center on January 5.

Varsity boys earn third place in Canyon holiday tournament

The Floydada varsity boys won third place in a holiday basketball tournament hosted by Canyon. The Whirlwinds beat Dumas and Hereford, but lost to Abernathy, the first place finisher in the event.

Playing Dumas on December 27, the team racked up 72 points to 66 for their opponent. Leading scorer for the team was Frank Suarez with 24 points. Mike Aleman netted 16 and Grant Stovall made 11. Kenneth Collins had 9 points, Joe Cisneros made 8 and Chad Williams scored 4.

In second round competition the Floydada boys were defeated on December 28 by Abernathy. The score at the ending buzzer was 72-61. Suarez again lead the scoring with 21 points. Aleman made 15, Collins had 10, Stovall 9, Cisneros 3, Williams 1, and Ryan Burns had 2.

Meeting Hereford on December 29, Floydada edged a 52-51 victory out of the match. Collins scored 18 points with Aleman making 13 and Suarez netting 10. Stovall had 9 points and Cisneros rounded out the score with 2 more points.

Floydada's varsity boys defeated Motley County 84-73 on January 2, bringing their season record to 8-6.

Suarez was the high point man making 27 points. Cisneros had 14. Stovall and Collins each made 13 points while Williams had 8. Aleman made 7 points and Burns contributed 2.

Gonzales and Vasquez receive President's Award

Mario Gonzales and Abel Vasquez received the "President's Award" at Texas Schools, Inc. in Lubbock, Texas. This honor is awarded to students achieving perfect attendance and an 85 percent or higher grade point average. An award dinner was held December 11, 1989 in honor of these students in which Larry Williams - Associate Director addressed those in attendance and congratulated them on their achievements.

Mario is enrolled in the Diesel Mechanic Technology program at T.S.I. and will graduate in April. Abel is enrolled in the HUAC program at T.S.I. and will graduate in January.

After graduating, Mario plans to work as a diesel technician. Abel plans to work as an HUAC technician.

Mr. Gonzales feels that being a diesel technician is a profession that he will be proud to be a part of.

Mr. Vasquez stated that, "in the beginning I thought it was difficult, but the instructions are very helpful and they help you learn."

Texas Schools, Inc. is located at 524 E. 40th in Lubbock, and maintains an enrollment of between 300 and 500 students. Courses of instruction include:

Automotive Technology, Welding Technology, Diesel Mechanic Technology, Collision Repair Technology, Refrigeration, Heating, and Air-Conditioning Technology.

DANGER - CAUTION - HELP

It has been brought to our attention that a serious problem exists in the form of student safety!

State law requires all of us to stop for any school bus that has flashing red lights. This law is being ignored by some.

Please don't be the individual that has to explain to some parent why you hit or ran over their child.

Student safety is everyone's responsibility. We need your help! Report all violations. Passing a stopped school bus deserves a heavy fine.

What price are you willing to pay for a child's life.

"Well, if I had three trillion dollars to spend, I'd be irresponsible too!"

Council allots $1.2 million

The Texas Beef Industry Council (TBIC) board of directors Dec. 6 approved spending more than a million dollars in 1990 to spur demand for U.S.-produced beef in Mexico, Japan, Korea and both eastern and western Europe.

The total of $1,233,000 is the largest amount ever spent by one state's beef industry council to develop foreign markets.

The funds will be administered by the U.S. Meat Export Federation, a trade group that represents the U.S. meat industry in international market development. TBIC's contribution will be supplemented by $2,418,200 from additional industry funds, USDA's Targeted Export Assistance (TEA) program, and overseas third party contributions. The total budget will be $3,651,200. Because of the additional funding, each dollar of the Texas beef industry's contribution will have the impact of three dollars.

"In Texas, beef is big business," Clark Willingham, TBIC president-elect, said in announcing the board's action at a press conference held today in Austin. "As the largest beef producing state in the nation, our industry realizes that the world has to be our market. The lessening of trade and political barriers opens the door for many new opportunities. At the same time, the rest of the world now can share in the great taste and nutrition of our premium product."

In approving the budget, the TBIC board allocated lump sums for each country to fund a series of activities.

The largest fund allocation of $523,000 will help strengthen and develop markets in Mexico, a country that has ancient ties to the Texas beef industry. The money will help promote beef consumption in Mexico and encourage at stronger trade of live cattle between Mexican and Texas producers. The industry will also place a fulltime marketing director in Mexico to administer U.S. programs that will range from a market study to promotion of U.S. beef for Mexico's booming tourist trade.

A total of $340,000 will help fund six programs to educate the Japanese about U.S. beef. Willingham said this is an important expenditure because Japan is liberalizing its market. In addition, $50,000 will help conduct a market study in Korea, a new but growing customer of U.S. beef.

The board also approved $265,000 for Europe. Most of these dollars will go toward educating consumers within the European Economic Community about the wholesomeness and quality of American-produced beef. However, $40,000 will explore the potential of meat markets in the eastern bloc Communist countries. These had been considered closed to the U.S. beef trade until recently.

Finally, $55,000 has been budgeted to make preparations in this country for visits of foreign trade teams.

The approval of the budget was praised by Bruce Berven, MEF vice president of industry relations.

"This proposal will allow the U.S. beef industry, through MEF-conducted activities, to move forward and be positioned in a competitive stance," Berven said. "The Texas beef checkoff funding will allow MEF to escalate its promotional efforts abroad and continue this momentum in the critical years ahead."

The funds budgeted by the TBIC board includes no current checkoff dollars. They came from a special escrow account set aside for refunds prior to the checkoff referendum in May 1988. When beef producers voted to make the program permanent, fewer beef producers than projected requested refunds. As a result TBIC had $1 million in an interest-bearing account.

"We considered investing this money in several projects," Willingham said, "but of all of them, foreign market development made the most sense. Establishing reliable foreign markets for our product will help our industry for years to come."

Willingham said beef exports contribute to a stronger domestic market for U.S. cattle producers. Exports in 1988 contributed $6.80 per hundredweight to the value of U.S. beef cattle, or about $75 per head. The gain to the entire industry was approximately $1.5 billion.

Youth are first in 4-H program

Youth always come first in 4-H, and one way of putting them first is with the child-centered approach.

This approach focuses on the needs and interests of the youth, said Brent Crossland, county 4-H program leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Project and organization leaders and parents found this approach helpful when working with 4-H'ers. Youth set their own goals, make plans to achieve them and carry them out. Also, they assess their own progress in reaching these goals.

The child-centered approach does not mean that children should do whatever they want, said Crossland. Four-H is a youth program with guidance by adults. Leaders and parents help youth achieve through understanding, encouragement and recognition.

This approach encourages the child's natural curiosity, enthusiasm, inquisitiveness, energy and willingness to perform tasks.

It helps adults to consider individual needs and desires of youth, listen to them, try to see things as children do, accept children for what they are and make them feel wanted and respected.

Leaders and parents using the child-centered approach for the first time may need to change leadership style, noted Crossland. Different styles of leadership are appropriate at different times.

Six file for ag commissioner spot

The announcement and official filing Friday, Dec. 29, of six farmers and ranchers who will seek the Democratic nomination for Commissioner of Agriculture in the March 13 Primary election, "is very positive and encouraging news for Texas agriculture," said Vernie R. Glasson, treasurer of the Texas Farm Bureau Friends of Agriculture Fund, Inc., the political action arm of the state's largest general farm organization.

"The fact that six highly-qualified farmers and ranchers are willing to challenge the incumbent in the primary election is testimony to the fact that Jim Hightower is not well thought of by the agricultural community, and that the industry that he is supposed to represent wants him ousted," said Glasson.

"Many Texas newspapers, public opinion polls, and the Legislature have told us that we must elect the Commissioner of Agriculture, and that is what we will do," the official said.

"Voters of Texas will learn that qualifications and willingness to do the job that the Commissioner is sworn to do are the two primary issues in this race and that the six men who filed today or those who have announced for the Republican Primary are highly qualified and willing to promote Texas agriculture," Glasson said.

"The incumbent Commissioner has no practical farming or ranching experience and is qualified only because of a special 'grandfather clause' provided him by the Texas Legislature," Glasson said. "As we see it today, it is an anybody-but-the-incumbent campaign."

The six candidates who filed with the Democratic Party on Friday are: Neal Burnett, a cotton and grain farmer from Plainview; Dan Pustejovsky, a cotton and grain farmer from Hillsboro; Dan Krenk, a cotton and cattle producer from Rosenberg; John Earl Smith, a cattle and hay producer from Quemado; Paul McDaniel, a cotton farmer from Weslaco; and Clyde Chandler, a cattle and grain producer from Rosebud.

"These candidates are all men of integrity, are dedicated to promoting Texas agriculture, are real farmers who will have invested their every dollar as well as blood, sweat and tears in farming, and anyone of them will make an outstanding Commissioner of Agriculture," Glasson said.

Grain Sorghum Producers name new executive director

The National Grain Sorghum Producers Association (NGSPA), Grain Sorghum Promotion Federation and Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board (TGSPB) recently announced Jack Eberspacher, of Lubbock, Texas, as the new executive director for all three grain sorghum organizations. He officially assumed his duties on December 18.

The three organizations are in a unique position, in that they share an executive director. NGSPA is charged with serving its members in the areas of market development, research and education, and the continued effort to assure fair treatment for sorghum producers in legislative circles at state, national and international levels. NGSPA is currently dealing with issues concerning the 1990 farm bill, GATT, and grain quality.

The federation is a joint effort between the checkoff programs of Kansas, Nebraska and Texas to identify opportunities and confront problems in production, market development and research. The cooperation between the three checkoff groups is designed to benefit the three states and facilitates better grain sorghum utilization domestically and internationally.

Of specific interest to Texas producers, Eberspacher will oversee TGSPB's efforts of research, education and market development, and to communicate the results of these efforts to producers. One such example of TGSPB's work is a recent grant, in the amount of $250,000 funded over a five year period, to Texas A&M University. TAMU will implement the five year research project to develop and identify strains of sorghum that would have their own genetic resistance to midge, greenbug, soil insects and others.

Eberspacher is a Beaver Crossing, Nebraska native and attended University of Nebraska-Lincoln, where he earned a B.S. in Animal Science in 1976. He also received a certificate in management skills from the American Management Association in 1985, and completed course work toward an MBA at Texas Tech University.

The new executive director brings with him 10 years of experience in management, public relations and development. His most recent experience has been with Professional Cattle Consultants of Weatherford, Oklahoma, a management marketing firm in the cattle feeding industry. Prior to that he served as general manager for Quercus Farms, Inc., a 3,200 acre cattle and timber operation located just south of Atlanta, Georgia. Eberspacher can claim additional experience as manager of the Purebred Beef Cattle Center at Oklahoma State University, in Stillwater, Oklahoma, and as a cattle buyer for Sunflower Beef Packer, Inc., in York, Nebraska.

When asked about his outlook for the sorghum organizations, Eberspacher said, "Commodity checkoff dollars and association membership fees are vitally important. Today, producers have an opportunity to provide valuable input in shaping their future in agriculture as a result of these three organizations."

Contaminates more dangerous than additives

Many groups concerned with food safety are pointing the finger in the wrong direction—toward food additives instead of microbiological contamination.

According to Dr. Sanford Miller, director of the University of Texas Health Science Center in San Antonio, our food system is under attack.

This attack is coming both from within the United States and from abroad, but few of the attacks are really aimed at food safety.

"The EEC (European Economic Community) ban on hormone-treated beef is really just a non-tariff trade barrier that has no scientific basis," he said. "And these bans are not going to stop unless the United States stands up to them."

Miller said that rather than being concerned with whether a food is "natural" food, or pesticide residues, Americans would be better off worrying about microbiological contamination of food, which is a much larger threat.

"The major problem in our food supply is not a chemical problem, but a microbiological problem," the health scientist said. "Some bacteria are adapting to refrigeration, which is our last line of defense."

However, because public attention is focused on chemical additives and pesticide residues, money is being taken away from the microbiological work.

Additional problems in food regulation in this country are caused by having three agencies involved in food safety, Miller said.

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA), the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) are all three responsible for some aspect of regulation.

"If the heads of the agencies all get along, then everything is OK; if they don't, then you have total confusion," said the former official of the Food and Drug Administration.

For example, a cheese pizza is regulated by the FDA, but a pepperoni pizza, because of the meat, is covered by the USDA, Miller said.

Miller said that the best response the public can talk is to lobby hard for the funding and support needed to satisfy the demand for a good food supply into the next century.

Absentee voting for water district election is underway

Absentee voting for Floyd County voters residing in District Director's Precinct Five of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 begins Tuesday, January 2, 1990, and will continue through January 16. Registered voters may cast their absentee ballots for a Director and County Committee members prior to the Saturday, January 20th election.

Floyd County voters may cast their absentee ballots at the High Plains Water District office, 108 W. Missouri, Floydada, Texas 79235, (806) 983-3728. Verna Lynne Stewart is the election clerk.

Gilbert Fawver of Floydada is the incumbent Precinct Five Director seeking re-election to a four-year term. District Director's Precinct Five consists of the portions of Floyd and Hale Counties within the Water District service area.

The Board of Directors meet monthly to consider Water District business. They oversee all Water District activities, including legal, financial and business matters. Board members set long-range goals and direct staff activities through the Water District manager.

Members of the Water District's County Committees are elected from the County Commissioners' Precinct in which the voter lives. In Floyd County, John Lee Carthel of Lockney has announced for the County Committee member at large position.

Announced candidates for County Committee positions include Danny Nutt of Floydada, Precinct One; Charles Huffman of Lockney, Precinct Two;

Joey Davis of Floydada, Precinct Three; and A.C. Pratt of Floydada, Precinct Four.

County Committees meet regularly to recommend approval or denial of applications for water well permits and agricultural water conservation equipment loans. Committee members help keep Directors advised on water-related needs of their county. Also, they serve as a local contact person for water conservation problems or opportunities in their community.

Candidates for a Water District Board member of County Committee member must be at least 18 years old, a Texas resident and a resident of the Precinct for which they are seeking office for at least six months. Qualified candidates may obtain an application to have their name placed on the ballot from any county Water District office, beginning November 30 1989. Completed applications had to be returned to the District headquarters by December 29, 1989. For more election information, contact Becca Williams at the High Plains Water District, 2930 Avenue Q, Lubbock, Texas 79405 or call (806) 762-0181.

9-1-1 fees being collected by telephone companies

Beginning in January, seven telephone companies across the South Plains will begin collecting 9-1-1 fees from their subscribers. Each telephone customer within the region covered by the South Plains Regional 9-1-1 Emergency Communications Plan will be charged a 9-1-1 Service Fee and a 9-1-1 Equalization Surcharge.

The 9-1-1 Service Fee is a fifty cent ($0.50) assessment that will remain in the region to help fund the 9-1-1 system. The 9-1-1 Equalization Surcharge is a two-tenths percent (0.2%) addition to intrastate long distance charges. The surcharge will be collected throughout most of Texas and be used to help finance 9-1-1 systems in sparsely populated areas. The South Plains will receive close to $600,000 from the surcharge fund to offset the implementation costs not covered by the 9-1-1 Service Fee.

The South Plains Association of Governments has been designated by the 16 participating counties and 38 cities as the agency to administer the regional system. SPAG officially begins the administration in January. During the next 24 months, SPAG will coordinate the implementation of the twelve 9-1-1 systems in the region.

The Public Safety Answering Points (PSAP) for the 9-1-1 system are anticipated to be operational in Floyd and Motley County in August, 1991.

Any person having questions regarding the South Plains Regional 9-1-1 Emergency Communications Plan should contact Mike Pedigo at 762-8721.

Cargill Foundation sponsors 200 scholarships for youths

The Cargill Foundation will fund 200 scholarships this year of $1,000 each to high school seniors from U.S. farm families.

To qualify, students must be from a family whose livelihood is derived primarily from farming. In addition, students must have plans for full-time enrollment next fall at an accredited two- or four-year college, university or vocational-technical school. An independent national scholarship-service organization will manage the selection process, which is based on academic records, leadership, extra-curricular accomplishments and financial need.

The Cargill Scholarship Program for Rural America, established in 1986, recognizes and encourages the academic achievements, accomplishments and talents of America's rural youth.

Information and application forms can be obtained at any Cargill office, or by writing Gladys Tripp, Community Relations, Cargill Office Center, Box 9300, Minneapolis, MN 55440. The application deadline is March 15, 1990.

The Cargill Foundation is a philanthropic arm of Cargill, Incorporated, a Minneapolis-based agribusiness company.

Lockney sales tax rebate drops 7.71%

The sales rebate check that the city of Lockney receives back from the state as their share of the one percent sales tax collected in Lockney was down 7.71 percent from the amount of taxes received in 1988 at this same time.

The check was written in the amount of $3,037.53 and reflects taxes collected in the month of October, 1989.

According to the state comptrollers office sales tax rebates to Texas cities in 1989 topped one billion dollars for the first time in the states history, which means that people are spending more money. In turn this tax money will be returned to the cities to be used for police protection, fire fighting, ambulance runs, etc.

The check Lockney received in December of 1988 was in the amount of $3,291.28.

To date Lockney has received a total of $66,862.19 which is up 36.83 percent over the $48,864.22 that was received in 1988.

Floydada received a check totaling $8,556.82 which is up 17.69 percent over the $7,270.71 that they received in 1988. To date they have received $115,787.98 which is up 8.63 percent over the $106,593.54 that they received in 1988.

Other cities in the area and the amounts they have received are:

Crosbyton received a check in the amount of $4,113.36, which is up 15.98 percent over the $3,546.54 they received in 1988. This brings their total to $53,133.31. They are down 6.63 percent over the $56,904.44 received in 1988.

Silverton received a check in the amount of $1,097.87, which is down 17.41 percent over the $1,329.33 that they received in 1988. To date they have received $17,417.50. This amount is down 13.14 percent over the $20,052.69 they received to date in 1988.

Plainview received a check for taxes collected during the month of October in the amount of $151,511.06, which is up 23.54 percent over the $122,639.47 they received for the same pay period in 1988. To date Plainview has received $2,098,953.04, which is up 21.40 percent over the $1,728,914.82 that they received in 1988.

Matador received a check in the amount of $886.88, which is down 6.03 percent from the $943.84 that they received for taxes collected in the month of October in 1988. To date they have received a total of $22,082.32 which is down 4.89 percent over the $23,217.94 that they received in 1988.

Tulia received a check in the amount of $16,331.26 for taxes collected during the month of October. This is a 33.65 percent increase over the $12,219.44 that they received for the same pay period in 1988. To date they have received a total of $210,868.69, which is up 14.05 percent over the $184,887.74 that they received in 1988.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,
The Floyd Co. Day Care Association would like to thank the community for their support of the Day Care.

We will be having our annual general public meeting at 7:00 p.m. on January 9 at Della Plains. We encourage parents to attend and anyone else who has an interest in the welfare of our children. We elect a board of directors to serve the needs of the children. Our past record of attendance at these meetings has been extremely low. The Day Care is a very much needed part of our community. Without this service where would our children be. So parents, please try to play an important role in your child's care giving.

It is very important people realize the work involved in day to day child care. The employees must attend workshops, work at special fund raisers and attend meetings plus their regular duties for a minimal salary. That takes love and dedication for children—something we take for granted.

Support your Day Care by volunteering your services and attend the general meeting Jan. 9.

Mrs. Layne Kirk

Extreme cold weather causes severe problems in Floydada

The extreme cold weather around Christmas caused the Floydada water department to put in lots of cold hours. The problems began to show up on Friday the 22nd, as water meters and pipes began to freeze. The water department worked most of Friday night, all day Saturday, Saturday night and most of Sunday and Christmas day. By noon the 29th, all water had been restored.

It is felt that part of the problems could be prevented, if citizens would help the department. All citizens need to look and make sure that the lids to their meter boxes are in place. When the lid is in place, this lessens the chances of the meters freezing.

If a person or family is going to be gone for a few days, they may call the city and make arrangements to have the water to their house shut off. When they return home, the water will be turned back on. This will prevent a person from coming home to discover their yard or house has become a wading pool.

In the winter time, caution with water may keep you from turning blue. A little effort at preventing pipes from freezing may save gallons of water.

Now all your questions about cancer can be answered by calling a toll-free number.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Lucy B. Pettit would like to thank family, friends and neighbors for their prayers, visits, cards, calls, flowers and food, for each act of love, care and concern.

Special thanks to Floydada Nursing Home, Caprock Hospital and to Dr. Hale, to the ladies who served the meals in our home and lunch at church, we are grateful. You have made our time of sorrow so much easier to bear.

We want to thank Brother Hal Farnsworth for his message and the music brought by Bill Smith and Roberta Hardin, and for the courtesy of the Sheriff's Department.

Please remember us in your prayers.

Dear Friends,
To those who expressed their sympathy in so many ways during our recent bereavement in the loss of our son David, we express our heartfelt thanks.
It all reminded us once again how important it is for us to love and be loved and to keep our priorities straight as we go on living this life. May the Lord bless all of you.
