The First National Bank of Floydada and the First National Bank of Lockney (along with the Floydada branch of Lockney's FNB) revealed accumulative 1990 deposits of $88,153,000.00. This represents an increase of $11,990,000.00 over the $76,163,000.00 in total deposits at the close of 1989.

The First National Bank of Floydada alone, had $59,026,000.00 in deposits at the end of 1990, compared to their 1989 closing of $51,052,000.00. This is an increase of $7,974,000,00 in deposits.

The First National Bank of Lockney (including their Floydada branch), had a total deposit of $29,127,000.00 at the close of 1990, compared to $25,111,000.00 at the close of 1989. This represents an increase of

The two banks had loans totaling $26,200,000.00 at the close of 1990. This is a slight increase of $292,000.00 over 1989 total loans of $25,908,000.00.

The First National Bank of Floydada alone had loans of $15,248,000.00 at the end of 1990. This is up slightly from 1989's total of $14,875,000.00.

The First National Bank of Lockney and its Floydada branch, had total 1990 loans of $10,952,000.00. This is down from last years figure of $11,033,000.00.

Tom Farris, the president of the First National Bank of Floydada attributed the high increase in deposits to the exceptional 1990 cotton crop.

"We had good yields and a good price," said Farris. "We haven't had both in several years.

"I don't think we'll see this again for awhile. That was a lot of money coming into this county. The day after the first of the year it increased even more because of the cotton that was sold after the first

"While our nation may be in a recession, our county had a good year in 1990. We may feel the effects of the recession this year, but our county is economically in sound condition."

"I agree that the good crop this year is the biggest reason for our increase in deposits," said Ronnie Hardin, President of the First National Bank in Lock-

"Floyd County is lucky in that both banks are in good shape. We here so much about banking problems in other places. Thank goodness we don't have those problems here," said Hardin.

"It's hard to predict what the future will hold for the banks in the county, since we are dependent on agriculture. You can't predict what the weather and the market will do to agriculture and the

I covered a rodeo one year and the same thing happened to me.

First off, they let me in free because of the media coverage. Then I ran all over the arena in front of everybody taking pictures and dodging bulls and horses.

There were some really great shots. Everybody in the stand saw me take them. Then when it came time to develop them, I found out the film never advanced in the camera.

I felt really stupid. I thought that maybe the rodeo folks figured I only brought the camera to get in free.

I want to take this space to personally thank all those volunteers who worked so hard for the local stock shows, the county show, and the sale on Monday.

I know there were a lot of exhausted people by the end of the sale.

Those of us who just go to the show to watch or take pictures just take for granted that everything will be taken care of. And it always is.

There are workers to feed us, register animals and kids, keep track of records, announce, supervise, judge, help wrestle unhappy animals, set up pens and equipment, take down pens and equipment, weigh animals, help load and unload animals-and the list goes

Severe Weather Seminar set

The annual South Plains Severe NWS of the future. Weather Seminar will be held Saturday, Feb. 23, at the Anton School Auditorium in Anton. In cooperation with the City of Anton, the National Weather Service is inviting area severe storm spotters, and anyone else with an interest in tornadoes and severe weather, to participate.

This year's lineup promises to be informative and entertaining. The headline speaker will be Mr. Gary Woodall, Warning and Preparedness Meteorologist at the NWS Forecast Office in Lubbock and a former member of the Oklahoma Storm Intercept Team. Mr. Woodall's presentation will cover the concepts of storm spotting from the inner workings of thunderstorms to the operational concepts of observing tornadoes. Additionally, Mr. Woodall will review some of the more significant tornadoes to strike West Texas during the 1980's.

Mr. Loren Phillips, a forecaster at the NWS Office in Lubbock, will discuss the upcoming modernization and restructuring of the National Weather Service. He will illustrate the tools (radar, computer systems, etc.) curently used by the NWS to generate warnings and forecasts for the South Plains and will preview the new instruments and technology to be used by the

Commissioners Court Correction

It was erroneously reported in the Hesperian last week that The Floyd County Commissioners Court authorized payment of $150.00 in transportation costs for a load of diesel fuel. This was not the case. No transportation costs were paid on the fuel purchased from Cornelius Conoco. The Transportation cost was part of a bid from Brooks oil which placed the cost of the fuel at "one cent over cost plus $150.00 transportation fee."

The Hesperian wishes to apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

BRIDGE FOR HEART

American Association's "Bridge for Heart" is set for 10 a.m. Feb. 8 in the Massie Activity Center, Floydada. A meal will be provided, as well as door prizes being given. Cost is $10 per person. Men are welcome to participate. For more information, call Anne Jones at 983-2838.

CANCER SOCIETY

The American Cancer Society, Floyd County Unit, will meet at 5 p.m. Monday, Feb. 11, in the community room of First National Bank, Floydada.

MAMMOGRAMS

Caprock Hospital will be offering mammograms on Feb. 8. The cost will be $65.00. Please call 983-2875 for an appointment.

CHAMBER ASKS FOR PICTURES

The Women's Division of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce will be using patriotic decorations at this year's Chamber banquet, set for Feb. 23. In carrying out the theme they would like to display a special table with pictures of all the men and women from Floydada, who are currently serving in the Middle East.

Everyone is asked to bring your photos to the chamber office, 105 W. California, before Feb. 22. You may pick up the photographs after the banquet or at the chamber office.

Mr. John Cole, also a forecaster at the NWS Office in Lubbock, will discuss severe weather preparedness. He will outline the NWS watch and warning system, the various methods of warnings dissemination available across the South Plains, and the safety tips to protect life and property should severe weather threaten.

Registration will begin at 9:00 a.m. with the seminar scheduled to start at 10:00 a.m. The seminar should end around 4:45 p.m. The seminar will be conducted with the use of slides, movies, and videotape. Question and answer periods, note-taking, open discussion, and personal tape/video recorders will be encouraged. As in the past, there will be no charge for participation in the seminar. A schedule is included.

If you are a severe storm spotter, or if you have an interest in tornadoes and severe thunderstorms, you are encouraged to attend. Although many other spotter training and preparedness seminars will be held across the South Plains this spring, only in Anton on February 23 will this comprehensive seminar

CITY OF FLOYDADA PROCLAMATION

"Whereas, diseases of the heart and blood vessels this year will kill almost one million Americans, which nearly equals the total number of deaths from all other causes combined, and

"Whereas, such diseases are the number one killers in Floydada claiming the lives of many of our Floydada citizens during 1990, and

"Whereas, over 23,000 Texans died last year from heart attack, and "Whereas, cardiovascular diseases will cost our country more than $94.5

"Whereas, the American Heart Association is the only volunteer health agency whose sole mission is to reduce disability and death from cardiovascular diseases and stroke, and "Whereas, the American Heart Association is funding a nationwide research program, as well as improving health care in the community through professional and public education as well as community service

"Now, therefore, I, Wayne A. Russell, Mayor, proclaim the month of February as American Heart Month and urge all citizens to support the lifesaving mission carried out by the American Heart Association volunteers during the month. Contributions of time and money will help in the fight against heart disease, stroke and other related disorders. During 1990 Floydada raised nearly $8,500.00. I urge citizens to help the American Heart Association of Floydada to meet their goal of raising $9,000.00 during American Heart Month."

JUDY SCHACHT February Bank Artist

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I hope you or someone else can help me with a small problem.

Many years ago, (sometime in the '70's) I saw a letter to "Dear Meg," published in the Santa Monica, California, paper.

The letter was from a reader that always had to buy two pairs of shoes to get one pair that fit. She was forced to do this because her feet were not the same size or even close.

The writer was told that there was a national organization that would match you with a person who has the same problem with the opposite foot. They would send you a form regarding size, shoe type, color, etc., and then would find you a satisfactory trade.

The address of the organization was: National Shoe Exchange, 1415 Ocean Front, Santa Monica, California.

This place is no longer around and I need help. Does anyone know of any organization like this around?

Do you think any businesses around here would be interested in starting up a program like that?

If anyone has any suggestions I would appreciate it if they would contact me. Sincerely, Mary Poteet

Judy Schacht is February artist at Floydada's FNB

The First National Bank of Floydada is proud to present the works of Judy Schacht during the month of February. Schacht's paintings will be on exhibit throughout the month during regular business hours.

Schacht began painting in 1976 after moving to Lockney to teach school. She started out by taking lessons in oil painting from Elfie Sherman and says she thoroughly enjoyed the experience.

"What with teaching and later, children, taking lessons was the only way I had time to paint," said Schacht. She has since taken several years of instruction from Ruth Barnett of Hale Center and has participated in workshops with Jean Green, Georgia Bartlett and Ricky Davis.

"One of the most enjoyable things about painting and taking classes," says Schacht, "is that I have gotten to know several people I normally would not have had the opportunity to know."

Schacht began painting in a new medium, china, after moving to Floydada in 1986. "The technique is quite different, but just as enjoyable," stated Schacht. "Besides, it has given me a whole new type of Christmas present to

Painting mostly for her own enjoyment, Schacht accepts commissions to paint upon request and has sold some of her works to people who expressed interest in them. Her main venue is landscapes and she says that her style is mostly her own.

Both Schacht and her husband Clar, the local Farm Bureau manager, are active in community activities in Floydada. Currently, she is a Girl Scout Leader for Troop 299, fourth through sixth graders, serves as president of the 1956 Study Club, vice president of the R. C. Andrews PTA, member of the Women's Chamber and co-director of the Adult I Sunday School at First Baptist Church. The Schacht's have two children, Meredith, age 9, and Spencer,

Of the future, Schacht says, "I hope to continue painting until they have to pry the paint brush away!"

Everyone is urged to take this opportunity to see this talented lady's work in local exhibition at FNB Floydada this

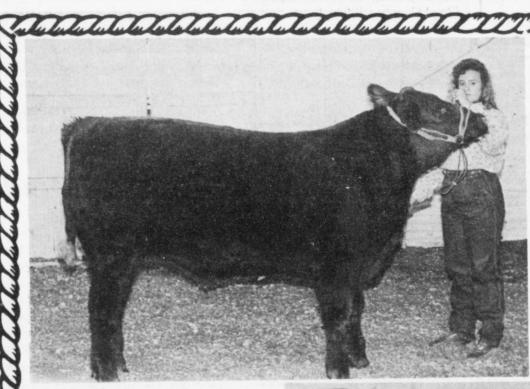

I will be closing my Floydada practice on February 7 and relocating to Houston.

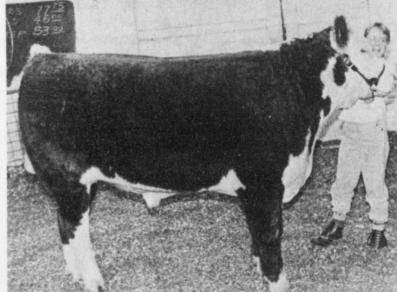

All patient records will remain at the Cogdell Clinic.

I would like to thank all my patients for their support throughout the year.

Coleman and Jackson exchange vows in double ring ceremony

Shirley Coleman and the Rev. Ralph Jackson were united in marriage January 20 at 2:30 in the home of Ruth McIntosh in Floydada. The Rev. Leon Anderson of Lubbock officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Attendants were Sylvia Coleman of Longview. Fort Worth, daughter of the bride, and Willie Craver of Floydada. The bride, wearing a floral dress with white lace collar, was given in marriage by her brother, Manuel Jones of Amarillo.

Brandi Coleman played piano selections before the ceremony and sang

"Always" as a tribute to the couple following the vows.

Other family members present were Jerry Coleman of San Angelo, son of the bride, and another daughter, Triss Bradley, and her son, Aaron from

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Floydada, where the Rev. Jackson is pastor.

Hi everyone once again, good to come again and let you know what is going on. We have been busy and having fun too.

Monday started the week as usual with coffee and juice. Bro. Bill Wright came and gave the devotional, on having trust as little children, and faith, and God will take care of us, replace fear with faith and that God is in control. Irene Wexler played the piano. In the afternoon the residents had current events and popcorn.

Tuesday, the residents had exercise, and all joined in to a sing-a-long.

Wednesday was Bingo day once again. Brooks Calloway had the first bingo. Mary Alice Davis came and assisted us, we appreciate her. Treats were bananas, candy and cheese crackers. We had a full house playing, also Ruth Hammonds came and helped us. Thanks.

Thursday, the residents had arts and crafts, made some valentine cards and decorations for their doors and room.

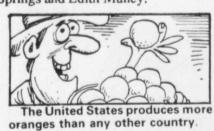

Friday, Mrs. Ila Hammonds came and gave the devotion on Being a Witness, wherever we are, we don't have to go to foreign lands to be a witness, but bloom where you are planted. Evelyn Latta played the piano for us too. Then on to Matador for the bus ride. It was a good day to go. Our Place treated us to some ice cream, thanks.

Sunday, the First Baptist Church did the devotion with Bro. Hal Farnsworth. In the late evening, Mrs. Bob Hambright played the piano for us and William and Faye Bertrand sang and Faye also played the piano. It was Knox Jameson's birthday, so we sang happy birthday to him and Vickie Smith and her husband and children came and visited him. Daniel Axlender of Roaring Springs played some classic music for us.

We welcome a new resident, Esther Peck. We hope that you will enjoy being

Our sympathy and love go out to the family and friends of Iva Benson.

This week's visitors included: Faye and William Bertrand, Mrs. Redwine, Ruth Hammonds, Lucille Custer, John Jones, Frances Hambright, Margaret Holmes, Vickie Smith, husband and kids, Daniel Axlendar of Roaring Springs and Edith Muncy.

TransAmerican Diagnostic services accredited by Radiology program

The Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit of Odessa which services Floydada has received the certification of the American College of Radiology Mammography Accreditation Program.

Mammography is an x-ray examination of the breast, which the American Cancer Society and other medical experts see as the best means for the early detection of breast cancer.

The program is voluntary and is designed to insure that women receive optimum quality mammographic examinations. The process is done through a peer review evaluation of the facility's staff qualifications, equipment, quality control and quality assurance programs, image quality, and breast dose. The accreditation must be renewed every three years.

The accreditation program was instituted because of the concerns of radiologists, other national medical organizations, and the public that qualified personnel perform and interpret mammograms and that dedicated mammographic equipment be used. The American College of Radiology received an American Cancer Society Control Grant which was used to pilot test the Accreditation Program.

Breast cancer will strike one in 10 American women. The American Cancer Society predicts that about 41,000 women will die of breast cancer this year. As there is no way to prevent the disease, early detection and treatment offer the greatest hope for survival.

The American Cancer Society recommends that women do monthly breast self-exams and have regular physical breast exams by a doctor. It further recommends mammography on the following schedule.

A baseline mammogram (for reference) between age 35 and 39.

A mammogram every one or two years between age 40 and 49.

An annual mammogram from age 50. The Breast Cancer Detection Unit will be in Floydada on Friday, Feb. 8. You may call 983-2875 for an appoint-

Senior Stars of '91

By Becky Porter

Our first senior star this week is Angie Briones, who has lived here in Floydada all of her life. Born June 28, 1972, she is the daughter of Janie and Juan Briones and has two younger brothers, Johnny and Jesse.

Angie attends Primera Mission Bautista where she is vice-president of their youth group, youth associational reporter and a member of the church choir. This past weekend she attended the Dawson McAllister Conference in Lubbock with other youth from her church.

One thing Angie remembers about kindergarten: "On the first day of school, Mrs. Jones put me in the hall for talking."

In FHS Angie has been in tennis and was photographer for the yearbook staff. She has been a library aide for two years and worked in the Floyd County Library last summer. After high school, Angie plans to attend Wayland Baptist University, majoring in photography. Good luck and God bless you!

Kenny "Slick" Reed was born in San Diego, California, on January 18, 1973. He is the grandson of Gene and Donna Reed and has an older sister, Andrea. Before coming to Floydada, Kenny attended schools in Norfolk, Virginia, and Pensacola, Florida.

Kenny has been very busy in Athletics these seven years at Floydada. He became 1st string varsity in football last year and maintained that position this year. Kenny is also involved in track and has a summer job in farming.

Kenny attends City Park Church of Christ.

When asked, "If you had one wish what would it be?"

Kenny responded, "I would be a millionaire."

After high school, Kenny plans to attend Texas Tech University and major in Atmospheric Science, then marriage and a family.

To be a millionaire in today's world takes patience, hard work and time. We wish you the best and may God Bless

PUBLIC NOTICE

This notice is to advise of an increase in Texas intrastate Directory Assistance rates by AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc. Effective March 2, 1991, AT&T will increase its Directory Assistance rates from $0.40 to $0.50 per call. In addition, AT&T will no longer provide free Directory Assistance calls. Currently AT&T provides two free Directory Assistance calls if the customer places at least two AT&T intrastate long distance calls during the same billing period.

Handicapped customers who qualify for exemption from local Directory Assistance charges under Local Exchange Company Tariff(s), or in the absence of a local Directory Assistance charge plan, receive special rates on other Local Exchange Company Services, are exempted and will continue to be exempted from AT&T's intrastate Directory Assistance charge. This exemption applies only to calls to Directory Assistance which are billed to the handicapped customer's residence telephone number.

"Here are two reasons we decided to move to this area from California."

"This is a great place to raise a family. We particularly like the school system and how the adults take part — no matter how busy they are.

"Our decision to move here was made with our eyes wide open. Since I was born and grew up here, then spent over twelve years in California. we were able to weigh one area's advantages against the other. And we decided to come here. It has turned out to be a smart move.

"You know, I kind of feel like I never left."

Cotton futures and options workshop set have created substantial price risk for producers. With target prices frozen and the new planting flexibility in the 1990 Farm Bill, the cotton farmer's income and financial survival is highly market dependent.

To help farmers become better marketers and deal with the new marketoriented farm program, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will hold a 2day, in-depth futures and options workshop February 19-20 at the Ollie Liner

Uncertainties in the cotton market Center in Plainview. It will include 12 Service in Hale and Swisher Counties hours of training and will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. The registration fee is $50, which covers the workshop materials and two meals. All area county agents have registration forms. Spouses are encouraged to attend.

> Dr. Carl Anderson, Extension Economist-Cotton Marketing Specialist from College Station and Dr. Jackie Smith, Extension Economist from Lubbock will be teaching the workshop. This workshop is sponsored by the Extension but is open to any interested area producers.

Many area grain producers are trying to decide if they should plant a part of their grain bases to cotton as permitted under the new farm bill. Shifting acreage among crops will likely lead to greater price variation than in the past.

The cotton that is planted on grain flex acres is eligible only for loan and does not have target price protection, as no deficiency payments will be made on any of the acres flexed to another crop. Anyone planting cotton without deficiency payments will be making that decision based on expected market

A year-round marketing plan has suddenly become essential to reach top income. The economic incentive to price ahead using forward contracts, futures and cotton options is strong. The uncertain market environment strongly suggests a flexible plan to take advantage of favorable prices yet cover downside market risk.

The Plainview workshop will provide introductory training in the futures market as well as discussions of market information and price prediction tools that can provide valuable assistance in timing pricing decisions and in marketing and production planning. The workshop will also include an in-depth examination of the 1991 Farm Program provisions and the participation decisions involved.

Cloud seeding potential to be studied precipitation in the High Plains/West the role of the cloud-seeding as a water Texas area.

Is the seeding of summertime convective clouds with silver iodide an effective tool for producing additional rainfall in the West Texas area?

Since 1970, numerous cloud-seeding operations have been conducted in West Texas in an attempt to produce extra rainfall through precipitation enhancement. The results of these cloud-seeding operations and other precipitation enchancement practices will be discussed during a day-long weather modification conference to be held February 14, at 8:30 a.m. at the Holiday Inn Civic Center, 801 Avenue Q, in Lubbock.

All interested persons are invited to attend and there will be no registration fee.

The Texas Weather Modification Committee of the Texas Water Commission is the primary sponsor for the conference. The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. and the Texas Tech University Water Resources Center will serve as co-hosts.

Carl Lemon's News and Views From Cedar Hill

So you wondered what happened to the News and Views column last week. It was one of those things from which there is no escape.

The scythe of the Grim Reaper struck the family of your writer on Wednesday, January 23 when Owen Clark Gayley, the father of two of the Lemons grandchildren, was claimed by a deadly combination, pulmonary occlusion, and cardiac arrest at his apartment in San Antonio.

Clark was born February 21, 1940 in Kane, Pennsylvania, and he fell short by 29 days of reaching his 51st birthday.

Clark's life was almost wholly devoted to the teaching profession. He finished his secondary education in Kane, and was a student/professor at Texas Tech in Lubbock when he and Carla Grace Lemons were married at Cedar Hill on August 21, 1965. After a stint working with the Calgon Corporation in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the Gayleys returned to Lubbock in 1969 where he completed his Masters Degree in chemistry. After graduation Clark accepted a professorship with San Antonio Jr. College and they moved to Bexar County. In spite of wavering health and constant medication Clark continued to fill his chair as Chemistry Professor at S.A.J.C. for 20 years, even held class there the day before his death.

Perhaps Clark's greatest pleasure was derived from his work with the Boy Scouts of America. As a teenager Clark attained the rank of "Eagle Scout," scouting's highest rank. In May of 1990 Clark had the satisfaction of seeing his own son, Andrew, awarded that same Eagle Scout honor. In more than twenty years of Scout leadership Clark never failed to escort a group of scouts to one or the other of the two National Scout Jamborees held annually in both New Mexico and another site near the eastern seaboard.

Angela, his daughter, has finished 1 1/ 2 years at San Antonio Junior College, where her father taught. At mid-term she switched to A&M, and had lived in College Station less than ten days before her father's death. She loved it at A&M and returned there Sunday, January 27.

Andrew, recently voted "Mr. High School" or was it "Outstanding Student" by his school's student body, will graduate this spring. He has a wall filled with blue ribbons earned in swimming competition. Princeton University has extended him an invitation to apply there for admission to their curriculum. all in Texas; SMU, A&M, and Texas

In San Antonio I witnessed one of the greatest outpourings of concern, sympathy, and support by neighbors, associates, and church-folk I have ever seen. Carla and her family are bountifully blessed in that respect.

WEATHER

Watch out! That groundhog, Puxatawny Phil, was frightened by his shadow on Feb. 2 and they say that bodes us ill! Six more weeks of winter! that day's sun was superbly brilliant; February certainly came in like a lamb.

Did you know that by bending the rules just the slightest we could call groundhog day "mid-winter?" If you want to be picky the exact middle, winter's 45th day, actually falls on Feb. 4th, leaving us another 45 cold days to go.

THE DORMANT CEDARS

Now that is somewhat misleading, Cedars don't really go dormant, they just slow down. Slow down and worry; there is one persistent burr in most Cedar Hill blankets that makes null and void any thought of complete and peaceful hibernation. The name of the burr is "Income Tax Return" and there is nothing like it to stimulate a detailed review of the past and send citizens to seriously contemplating their crystal-balls as they attempt to fathom the future.

Health-wise Cedar Hill's run of good luck continues. As far as is known none of us are hospitalized. Call a neighbor these days and a strange voice often answers; raspy throats and feeling lousy seems to be the normal thing.

After a few days at home Imogene Fortenberry was called back to Lubbock last week to the bedside of her hospitalized nephew, Eldon Love. Eldon's aged mother, at Cedar we knew her as "Miss Lottie Easly, teach," extremely impaired visually, and worn to a frazzle by constant concern for her son's wellbeing, is a prime candidate for the hospital herself. It is deplorable indeed when a critically ill person, long beset by excruciating pain, becomes irrational to a degree, and lashes out with cutting venom at those whose only desire is to aid and comfort them.

We see wonderful pictures, in our minds eye, here at the listening post! The County Stock show over, we saw young exhibitors donning clothes Tuesday morning with pockets weighted with proceeds from the sale of their animals. We saw total release from the constant chore of animal care, saw eager young shoppers making plans to "gain the most mileage" from their hard earned money.

A dream, it was! A dream of adolescent abandon where the cake crumbs had been meticulously separated from the icing and dutifully disposed of; now nothing remained but the icing, the essence of the cake, that portion to be savored, to be imbibed slowly, each tiny morsel rolled on the tongue, to be enjoyed to the fullest!

Foolish dreamer, your writer! He had to factualize his dreams, contact participants, get that all-important personal reaction and in so doing a horrible thing happened! Max Yeary answered the Max was not particularly brutal in laying out the facts pertaining to the operation of modern 4-H/Future Farmer shows but when he had finished the poor Presently his top three college picks are fairy, in my fairy-land dream, was wearing bows of red tape where her wings used to be.

"Naw," says Max, "the kids didn't get any money at all! In fact some of the buyers have not paid in yet. First comes this 4-H banquet Tuesday night. Then after that the nice kids write thank-you notes before they go to claim their money. It don't come easy, but they will probably have their money before school is out! They always have!"

Death of a dream! There goes another one down Santa Claus lane!

I'll never forget the Sunday-dinner cake we had when I was eight years old. Luckily February first wasn't his day for I had eaten all my layer part and was using my knife to press the moist icing into a neat "chocolate kiss" pyramid when this bigger, meaner, cousin sitting beside me, reached over, picked up my prize, and popped it in his mouth. The whole thing!

PUBLIC NOTICES

Last week's request for bids was incorrect and has been withdrawn. This is the corrected request for bids.

I. General Instructions and Information to Bidders

RFB.

1. Floyd County hereby requests bids for the equipment listed All equipment bid must meet the specifications described in this

- 2. All parts of the RFB must be completed as requested. Incomplete responses will not be considered. Floyd County will provide all vendors with information needed to prepare the proposal. Requests for additional information must be in writing. It is vendor's responsibility to request clarification of terminology used in this RFB.
- 3. The acquisition of any hardware, software, service or any other element of this RFB is subject to the approval and funding by the Floyd County Commissioners Court. Floyd County reserves the right: (1) to award bids on the basis of individual items, or groups of items or on the entire list of items; (2) to reject any or all bids or any part thereof; (3) to waive irregularities and/or technical details in the proposals submitted; and (4) to accept the bid that is in the best interest to the County.
- 4. The competitive proposal procedure shall be as allowed under the Alternative Competitive Proposal Procedure, County Purchasing Act, Local Government Code, Subsection 262.021 et seq.
- 5. Price is not the most important factor. The most important factors that the County will consider are the flexibility, reliability, and age of technology of the hardware; the vendor's demonstrated commitment to provide overall service and support to Floyd County; and the stability of the vendor. The award of the contract shall be made to the responsible offerer whose bid is determined to be the lowest evaluated offer resulting from negotiation taking into consideration the relative importance of price and other evaluation factors.
- 6. The bids shall be opened to avoid disclosure of contents to competing offerers and kept secret during the process of negotiation. Discussions may be conducted with responsible offerers who submitted bids determined to be reasonably susceptible of being selected for award. Revisions may be permitted after submission and before award for the purpose of obtaining the best and final bid.
- 7. It is the vendor's responsibility to be familiar with the County Purchasing Act. The Floyd County Commissioners Court will be the sole judge/evaluator of the bids as allowed under the County Purchasing Act.
- 8. All bids must include a statement that no obligation or commitment is incurred by Floyd County from the receipt of any bid documents, materials, presentations or any part of the bid or negotiation process.
- 9. In responding to this RFB vendor must conform to the following instructions. Failure to supply any information requested in a timely manner is cause for rejection of the bid as noncompliant.
- 10. All bids must be typewritten. Four (4) copies of the bid response must be submitted.

- 11. Vendors shall indicate any exceptions to any paragraph of any part of this request for bids; otherwise, acceptance is assumed.
- 12. Vendor's response to the RFB shall be organized in the same reference sequence as the RFB and shall note the applicable paragraph number for which the response is prepared.
- 13. All proposals must be signed by a duly authorized officer or employee of vendor. Vendor must complete and sign the attached vendor's statement.

14. Bids must be delivered to: Janie McAnnally Floyd County Courthouse Floydada, TX 79235

> No Later Than Feb. 8, 1991 4:00 p.m.

Bids arriving after the stated deadline cannot be considered.

Bids will be opened Feb. 11, 1991.

II. General Specifications

- 1. All equipment proposed must be new. Refurbished or reconditioned equipment will not meet RFB specifications.
- 2. Vendor must be able to deliver and install the equipment proposed within 30 days of the contract award. Delivery lead time will be a consideration in the evaluation of the bids.

III. Bid Specifications for the following items:

2 Computers

1 Portable computer and printer

1 Laser printer

3 Fax machines (2 thermal and 1 plain paper)

May be obtained through the office of Janie McAnnally, Budget Finance Clerk, Floyd County Courthouse, Floydada, TX

All equipment must be installed and in working order with all necessary cables and connectors.

IV. Pricing Information Instructions

- 1. Quotes must be for items that meet RFB specifications. Prices entered must be a total price. Do not include sales tax. Floyd County is a tax exempt government entity.
- 2. Pricing for all equipment, software and services proposed must be summarized. Pricing must be itemized in detail for each item or services proposed. Provide prices for each item based on purchase and installation for the hardware, license fees and software products. Vendor may use own prepared forms to describe pricing information or give additional details; however, this information must be summarized onto the attached format.

V. Procedure for Evaluation of Bids

1. In order to be considered proposals must meet all minimum requirements. Proposals that do not meet minimum requirements will not proceed beyond the initial review.
