Politics and war do indeed make strange bedfellows. We've just been treated to some of that in the recent mid-east conflict, and we're now about to be treated to a similar situation in Austin.

Gov. Bob Bullock, now that the election is over and he is safely ensconced in office, has come out for a state income tax, both personal and business. Those who have rushed to endorse his idea, and those who have rushed to oppose him, make for interesting reading.

Republicans, or at least those in the Legislature, were the first to condemn Bullock's proposals. They claim the problem is not that the state government needs more taxes right now, it needs more efficiency.

And among the first to jump to Bullock's defense was the Texas Trial Lawyers Association. They are the people who have waxed fat by taking hefty fees (30 to 40 percent) from the money juries award to people who have been injured in accidents and things like that. (They are afraid their legal fees are about to be included under the state's sale tax, in which case they would have to give the state about 6 percent of their fees, where, under the income tax, they would have to cough up only five percent of their net income.)

They, the trial lawyers, are about to be joined by some rather potent segments of the business community, which has long chafed at the unfairness of such things as the franchise tax, and heavy property taxes. Under Bullock's proposal those taxes would be reduced or done away with entirely. Under normal circumstances anything the trial lawyers are for, the business community is against, and vice versa. Indeed, the state's small businesses appear to be of mixed minds about the matter, although reports are that a majority of them are opposed to Bullock's proposals at this time.

We suspect that by the time all those strange bedfellows get their act together and conduct statewide campaigns, Mr. Bullock's proposals will be much closer to enactment than they are now. Our new governor, who is prone to tout her own "courage", is taking a hands off approach, at least for now. She won't really say she is opposed, or in favor, of the idea. But within a few months we suspect she will see the light, when her own constituency gets in the act. After all, the trial lawyers, Common Cause, the labor unions and a whole host of special interest groups, were responsible for her election. She can hardly turn her back on them when the chips are down. As for us, we'll hold our peace for now. Without doubt the Texas tax structure deserves a complete overhaul. It is unfair in any number of ways. But until we see exactly what comes out of the proposed shakeup (and shake down) we'll wait until our "leaders" give us a picture of what we might expect.

The new Guv has promised us a "new" Texas, and has set about keeping her promise. Nowhere was it more evident than when she swore in Glenn Maxey as the new legislator representing Austin's 51st District. Maxey, the first openly avowed and publicly proud homosexual to be elected to the legislature, received the full treatment. Usually a legislator elected in a special election gets sworn in by the Speaker of the House, or some special friend who happens to be qualified to administer the oath. But in this case the governor insisted on doing the honors, with television cameras rolling, of course. To a packed House gallery of Maxey's friends, Gov. Richards swore in her long time friend and then, overcome by emotion and to much applause, leaned forward and kissed him, smack on the lips. The new Texas had arrived.

Afternoon blaze destroys duplex

An afternoon fire, Thursday, March 14, destroyed half of a duplex located at 223 W. California in Floydada, and injured a woman inside the residence.

According to Carroll Sims, of the Floydada Fire Department, "Mrs. Seferina Guerra was hooking up a gas cook stove on a live gas line. The stove was next to a hot water heater which ignited the gas causing a flash and burning the face of Mrs. Guerra."

Guerra was taken to Caprock Hospital where she was treated for first degree burns and released.

"Guerra's daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Juan Segura, had recently moved into the duplex, which is owned by Darrell and Cindy Dudley. The Segura's were not injured in the fire."

Three units and 16 firemen responded to the fire which was quickly brought under control.

According to Mary Segura the family was able to save most of their belongings. The kitchen items which were lost have already been replaced with the help of family and friends.

Floydada firemen plan annual fundraising meal

The Floydada Volunteer Fire Department has its annual fundraiser scheduled for Sunday, April 14. This annual fundraiser meal will be served at Duncan Elementary School cafeteria between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Profit from this meal goes toward the equipping and educating of the volunteers. With better equipment and education, the volunteers are able to provide Floydada and surrounding areas with better fire protection.

Ticket cost is $5.00 for age 13 and older and $3.00 for age 12 and under. The meal will be barbeque with all the trimmings.

Tickets may be purchased from any fireman or at Floydada City Hall through April 10. Floydada firemen ask for your help so they may be better able to help in return when needed.

Volunteers encourage everyone to "come show your support!"

Electronic equipment monitors probationers

Floyd County's Probation Department (now known as the Community Supervision and Corrections Department, CSCD), is currently testing high technology computer monitoring on probationers.

The "futuristic" device which is worn by probationers 24 hours a day, seven days a week, keeps track of the probationer through a central control station in Lubbock.

According to Chief Probation Officer, Nathan Mulder, there are currently two people (one woman and one man) wearing the device.

The tamperproof transmitter (called Trak-Tech) weighs only 4 ounces and is worn on a person's ankle. The transmitter (which is also waterproof) emits a coded, pulsed signal every 20 seconds to the in-home or at-work receiver. Two bands secure the unit. Any attempt to remove the band will immediately send an alarm to the central station.

"There is a monitoring unit at the home which is hooked up to a phone or works off of electricity," said Mulder.

"The messages it transmits are sent to a main computer in Lubbock. The computer can tell if the person is at home, because you have to be within 150 feet of your monitor.

"If a person does not have a phone, then the monitor is brought into the probation office where it is plugged into a phone and then the information (which the monitor has stored) is downloaded into the main computer."

"If the probationer leaves home during a time he is supposed to be there, the monitor will send a message to the Lubbock office, and we will be notified within 10 minutes."

"If someone attempts to take off the

Annual Consumers meeting is March 26

The 65th Annual Consumers Stockholders meeting will be held March 26th at the Lockney Elementary Cafeteria.

The meal, which starts at 7:00 p.m. will be catered by Nielson's Restaurant. Two directors will be elected during the business meeting. Door prizes will be given out throughout the evening.

According to Bill Davis, manager, "Stockholders and patrons of Consumers are invited to the meeting."

NAME THE REUNION SLOGAN CHOSEN—Miguel Guerrero, a fifth grader at Lockney Elementary, was awarded a $50.00 Savings Bond on Friday after his "Name the Old Settlers Reunion" slogan was selected as the winner by a panel of judges headed by Nettie Ruth Whittle of Floydada. Guerrero's slogan, "New Century of Pioneer Spirit" was chosen from 182 entries. Shown here are (l-r) Gayle Reay, secretary of the Floyd County Pioneer Reunion Association; Miguel Guerrero; Marva Rascoe, history teacher at Lockney Elementary, and Virginia Taylor, president of the Pioneer Association. Nine file for Lockney positions

Nine candidates have filed for the positions on the Lockney General Hospital Board, Lockney Independent School District Board, Lockney City Council and the position of mayor.

LOCKNEY HOSPITAL BOARD

Three positions are open on the Lockney hospital board. The two year terms currently being held by Claude Brown, Jack Covington, and Hubert Frizzell are up for election. Claude Brown and Jack Covington have both served three consecutive two-year terms and may not run for a fourth term. Hubert Frizzell will seek re-election to the board.

Petitions have been filed by incumbent

Hubert Frizzell, Ronnie Hardin and Jerry Johnson.

The filing deadline for positions on the Lockney General Hospital Board of Directors is set for Friday April 5.

Petitions must be filed with Jeff Reece at Lockney General Hospital, 320 North Main or Jack Covington,

Municipal election signup reported slow

As of press time this week, signup for the May 4 municipal elections in Floydada has been slow. Deadline for the declaration of candidacy was after press deadline, ending on March 20.

CITY ELECTION

Three incumbents are running in the city election. Mayor Wayne Russell has signed up to run for the post of Mayor. City Councilmen Ruben Barrientoz and Leroy Burns will be seeking reelection to their respective seats in District 2 and District 3.

Clar Schacht has his candidacy for the unexpired one year term for the post of councilman at-large. No other filings have been made at this time.

A report on current filings for the Floydada Independent School District election was not available at press time as the administrative office was closed this week due to Spring Break.

Prior filings include the two incumbents, Dr. Andy Hale and Cyndiann Williams. Both are seeking re-election to their posts, Hale in Precinct 1 and Williams in Precinct 2. No opposing candidates had filed as of last week.

Floydada basketballers honored

Collins named M.V.P.

By Bill Gray

For the second consecutive year, Floydada's Kenneth Collins has been chosen "Most Valuable Player" of District 2-3A. The multi-talented senior heads the list of Whirlwind and Lady "Wind players selected for the 1991 All-District squads by the league's basketball coaches. Whirlwind seniors Chad Williams and Ryan Burns, and Lady "Wind seniors Trish Pernell and Kerrie Pitts, were given honorable mention recognition on the elite teams.

As the honors continue to mount for Kenneth Collins, on March 18 the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal named him "Player of the Year" on the boys' 3A All-South Plains team. It is believed that Kenneth is the first Floydada basketballer ever to receive this prestigious designation.

Joining Collins on the 2-3A All-District squad are Jermaine Williams, Sr., Dimmitt; Michael Smith, Jr., Tulia; Charlie Snead, Jr., Friona; Miguel Saucedo, Jr., Dimmitt; John Johnson, Jr., Tulia; Lincoln Stewart, Jr., Dimmitt; Trevor Blair, Jr., Littlefield; and Brian Bush, Sr., Muleshoe. Tulia's Gary Tipton was chosen as boys' Coach of the Year in 2-3A.

Collins re-wrote the Whirlwind record book in 1991, breaking two major school marks, while helping lead Floydada to a third place finish behind Dimmitt and Tulia. With 725 total points for the season, Kenneth surpassed Derrick Jenkins' 1985 total of 610. Collins' 45 points in a single game broke Joey Kemp's 1985 output of 44.

By The Way

By Alice Gilroy

I got a news release from the State Bar of Texas a month ago. It was titled, "State Bar President Travels to Soviet Union To Foster Understanding With Soviet Counterparts."

It said:
"With the many potential changes in the concepts of government and law that are occurring in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, the president of the State Bar of Texas views this as an ideal time for the bar to foster understanding with its Soviet counterparts and perhaps even positively influence the development of the Soviet legal system."

"Toward that end, State Bar of Texas President Jim Parson of Palestine and two other Texas attorneys will personally finance a two-week trip that will include meetings with the Soviet and Russian ministers of justice, the mayor of Moscow, the head of the USSR Union of Advocates (the Soviet national bar association), and local bar leaders..."

"The Soviet Union trip, which begins Feb. 24, will be the first phase of the State Bar's exchange program which is designed to contribute to better understanding among attorneys of the Soviet and American legal systems. During the second phase, the State Bar hopes to host 10 Soviet attorneys in June at the bar's annual meeting in Houston. During their trip, the Soviet attorneys will be given the opportunity to see how the American legal system works."

"Our purpose is to provide a tangible expression about the American system of the rule of law, not man, to our Soviet counterparts," said Parsons. "The restructuring of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe is a long-term and extraordinarily difficult process that must involve the legal profession."

I've been thinking.

Remember how you've always heard that the communists believed in taking over America from within instead of by conventional warfare. Well—here is our chance. We can do the same thing to them. Lets send them some of our greedy trial lawyers and ambulance chasers. They can show the Soviets our legal system in action and how well it works. They can teach them how to sue for things they never dreamed of—teach them how to get murderers off on technicalities and most importantly how to bog down the principle of a speedy trial.

They can teach them that victims rights are not as important as the criminals. They can teach them how to lobby and grind the government to a halt.

Isn't this great.
While they are over there—they won't be over here. Then when the fair minded and "restructuring Soviet Union", has gotten their fill of them, maybe they'll ship them off to Siberia to show them how to practice jail house law while they are freezing and starving.

Now don't get the wrong idea. My husband and I have some close personal friends who are lawyers (I love you Joe Boerner). But—they have ethics. I know there are fine ones out there, but we should keep them here to fight the good fight and send the other ones to Moscow.

There are more civil rights violations over there than a million lawyers could shake a stick at, and I'm sure Gorbachev is just waiting for our lawyers to teach his government how to be fair. The Russians probably just don't know they are violating anyone's rights. Lets send some lawyers to tell them.

My little boy is growing up. He can ride his bicycle without training wheels!

I've been wanting to teach him to ride his bike for awhile, but my husband resisted. He kept saying that Brandon was too little to ride that bike without his training wheels, but Brandon and I won.

Friday was the first day to take off the training wheels. I took Brandon out to a field behind our house and started pushing.

Brandon was more confident than I was and immediately started hollering at me to "LET GO MOMMY—LET GO!"

I was running behind, holding on and telling him that I would when he started going good.

Well he started riding so hard that I had to let go—and he took off like he had been riding that way forever.

I got so excited that I started clapping, jumping up and down, and hollering— "Yeah, Brandon! You're doing it all by yourself!"

Well—then Brandon had to look around to see what all the fuss was about and promptly fell over. HARD. The tears came of course, but they were over quick. Now he is Mr. Independent.

I've changed my mind about all this and decided my husband was right. There is something sad about your little one not needing training wheels anymore. I almost cried as he rode off leaving me standing there watching him go, and knowing that this was just the beginning of a lot more independence to come.

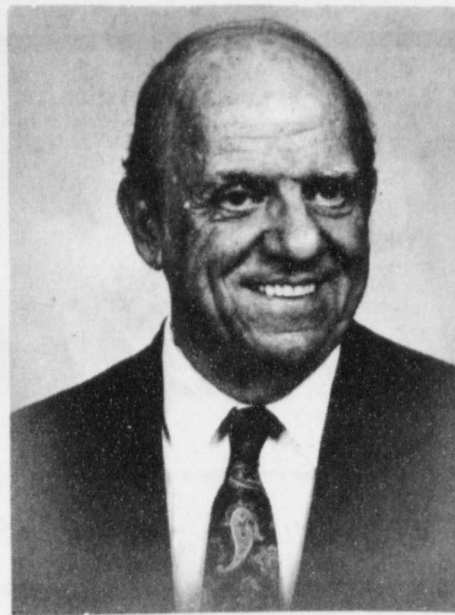

Court okays interlocal agreement

By Juanita Stepp

An emergency session of the Floyd County Commissioners Court met on Wednesday, March 13, at 1:00 p.m. for the specific purpose of considering a resolution to enter into an interlocal agreement with the Texas Association of Counties (TAC). The agreement will allow Floyd County to participate in seeking a storm water discharge group permit from the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

The county was recently informed that a permit to allow storm water to run off was necessary under the EPA's Federal Clean Water Act, storm water discharges 40 CFR Parts 122, 123 and 124. The fee for participation will be $500.00 for each entity in the group. The permit will allow storm water to run off of the two County Machinery Barns, one in Floydada and one in Lockney.

Motion for the resolution came from Precinct 4 Commissioner Howard Bishop with a second by Precinct 1 Commissioner Connie Bearden. Votes from Bishop and Bearden were joined by the vote of County Judge Bill Hardin for a quorum to pass the motion as these three county officials were the only attendees of the called session.

DR. SAM NADER

Letter to The Editor

Dear Editor,
I have sat back for two years now and watched as four boys of various ages have totally destroyed the junior high tennis courts.

I sat on my porch Saturday and watched as six climbed up on the railings and broke them loose and took knives and ripped up the green netting.

I have spent, over the two year span, making several trips across the road to get on to various ones for swinging on the tennis nets, flipping the lights on and off at 11:00 at night, destroying the first rule signs put up, etc.

I have gone out in my backyard and have gotten on to those, some weeks back, taking long metal rods and hitting very hard, our gas meter out in the alley.

Oh yes! I have phoned on many, many occasions these incidents to our local police "and they have responded" but as always, too late. For it seems, the very minute you phone and hang up, they are warned and clear ground very fast, nowhere to be found.

I have watched as those have gotten down in the trash bins to retrieve glass bottles, no not to redeem for 10cents but to bash on the alley road and in the yards and as usual the tennis courts.

What does one do? Take a picture for proof - I've thought of doing just that. I would love to video it! But would it do any good?

LISD TRUSTEE ELECTION

Incumbent Jim Bob Martin has filed to run for trustee along with Carlton Johnson and Libby Delgado. Bernie Ford is running for the one year position on the board.

Any eligible voter residing in the Lockney Independent School District who wishes to file for one of the positions should contact Jackie Lou Holt at the school office located at 416 West Willow.

The filing deadline for the offices of mayor, city council and school board is Wednesday, March 20. The filing deadline for the hospital board is Friday April 5. The general election will be held Saturday, May 4.

FUMC sets Holy Week services

Dr. Sam Nader will be the preacher for Holy Week Services at Floydada's First United Methodist Church. Services begin on Sunday, March 24. Evening services will begin at 7:00 on Sunday through Wednesday (24th through 27th). Breakfast will be served in fellowship hall at 7:00 a.m., Monday through Wednesday, followed by morning worship.

Dr. Nader was born December 8, 1919, in Beirut, Lebanon. He is the son of Greek Orthodox Priest, the late Reverend and Mrs. Anthony Nader. He and his wife, Esma John, are parents of five children.

Graduated from Byrd High School in Shreveport, Louisiana, Dr. Nader attended Centenary College in Shreveport before taking his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, in 1939. He received the Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Perkins School of Theology, SMU, in 1942. Dr. Nader did graduate study at Columbia University, New York.

Dr. Nader received his license to preach in the United Methodist Church at the age of 15. He served churches in Louisiana and Arkansas before coming to First United Methodist Church in Lubbock, the church from which he retired last year.

Known as an outstanding preacher of the gospel, Dr. Nader received The Churchman's "Sermon-of-the-Week Award" in 1947.

He has conducted preaching missions for the U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force, and was selected by the Air Force to tour SAC and NORAD Headquarters in 1971. He was the second Methodist Minister ever to preach in a Methodist church behind the Iron Curtain (Tallin, Estonia, in 1966). He conducted a spiritual retreat for chaplains in the Pacific Area in 1974.

He began broadcasting Sunday morning worship services over television station KCBD in Lubbock. He has been a Delegate to World Methodist Conferences in 1951, 61, 66, 71, and 76.

Dr. Nader is a member of Blue Lodge of Masonic Order, Scottish Rite of Masonic Order, Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobels of the Mystic Shrine for North America, and a member of Rotary.

He is the author of Sermons for the New Age, Morehouse-Gorham Co., New York, 1947. Articles have been published in The Christian Century Pulpit, The Pulpit Digest, The Upper Room

Pulpit, The Churchman, and Church Management.

Todd Sons will be the Youth and Music Minister for Holy Week Services at the church. Todd grew up in Lamesa and graduated from Lamesa High School in 1984 as valedictorian. He then went on to Texas Tech University in Lubbock, where he was on the Dean's List and graduated in 1989 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Psychology with a minor in Business Management.

During college Todd worked as a youth director for two years at First United Methodist Church in Littlefield and two years at Lakeridge United Methodist Church in Lubbock. After college, he served as an intern at the Texas Tech Wesley Foundation and worked as a youth director at First United Methodist Church in Childress for the summer.

In September, 1990, he went to Haiti, working for six months as a mission development coordinator. He is currently working at Texas Tech Wesley Foundation doing area outreaches to local organizations and churches.

"We extend an invitation to the community at large to join us in these special pre-Easter services," said Bill Wright, pastor. "We are looking forward to a great time of worship and celebration of the Gospel."

FISD and PTA plan patriotic program

The Floydada Independent School District and the Duncan P.T.A. would like to extend an invitation to the community and surrounding area to attend their Patriotic program on March 25 at 7:00 p.m. in the Duncan cafeteria.

They will be demonstrating their patriotic spirit through a program using different aged kids from throughout the school district.

Anyone interested in showing their patriotism is invited to be a part of this special night.

Today is the first day of Spring!

LISD approves additional classrooms

Trustees for the Lockney Independent School District, met in regular session Thursday, March 14, and approved the preliminary drawings of four additional elementary classrooms to be completed this summer.

"We will meet April 8 to view the final drawings," said Superintendent W.H. Hallmark, "and at that time we will call for bids for the first phase of construction. The target date for completion is no later than Aug. 24."

Hallmark also reported to the trustees that it appears at this time that by next Wednesday, March 20, the legislature hopes to have some type of plan for funding of public schools. "Right now," said Hallmark, "I know about as much as anyone else that reads the information from the paper."

Hallmark informed the board members that four people had signed up to run for school board positions. Carlton Johnson, Libby Delgado and incumbent Jim Bob Martin, will be seeking the two 3 year positions open. Bernie Ford has filed to fill the one year unexpired term that will be open. The new baseball program was discussed briefly by Hallmark. "Our first scrimmage was last Monday, March 11, with Plainview. The first home game will be April 9, and the first tournament will be in Plainview at the end of March."

Hallmark told the board members that two Lockney F.H.A. seniors, Kyle Zumwalt and Lila Booker, had been elected to the Region I office in F.H.A. This region covers an area from El Paso to the top of the Panhandle.

Office reorganization was also discussed by Hallmark and the trustees. "We are knee deep and drowning in paperwork in the principals offices," said Hallmark. "Because of the amount of information about students records which is required by PEIMS (Public Education Information Management Systems), it is hard for the staff we have to keep up with it. We may need to hire additional personnel."

The new textbook selections were all approved for adoption by the school board and all teachers were re-hired for the upcoming school year. Also re-hired was Jimmie Dee Whitlock, lunchroom supervisor, and David Frizzell, transportation director.

transmitter it will send a signal of tampering. The transmitters are placed loosed enough to allow you to roll your socks or stockings under it, but tight enough that they can't be slipped over the heel.

"We are just testing the program now," said Mulder. "We are using it to control curfews of felony probationers. Some offenders, such as DWI, tend to get in trouble in the evenings. We can tell the probationer that he can not leave the house after 9:00 p.m., and TraK-Tech will tell us if he does so."

"This does not replace jail," said Mulder. "We have to have good screening of individuals to make sure this system will work in their home. There are possible problems.

"Someday it could be expanded to include county arrests. The person could be kept in his home 24 hours a day instead of jail. It only costs $4.99 per day for each client participating in the program. That is a lot cheaper than housing some prisoners, but you wouldn't want to confine someone to his home where family violence occurs.

"This is not a cure-all, it is only used for better supervision," said Mulder. Before being equipped with a TraK-Tech transmitter, the probationer must agree to strict guidelines.

A weekly schedule is set up for the probationer that outlines what specific times they are allowed to leave the house and when they must return.

They sign an agreement stating they understand if they do not return to their residence within the prescribed time or leave the address without permission, such action will be deemed a felony escape. A warrant will then be issued, which will result in immediate removal from the Home Detention program and placement in a secure facility.

If a violation is received by the central station computer a verification telephone call is made to the offenders home. If the offender is home and they are verified, the problem causing the violation will be corrected and a note placed in the log stating there was a false violation.

If the offender fails the verification or cannot be reached by telephone, the escape procedures will be implemented.

Call will be made by the staff to all phone numbers associated with the offender. Additional phone calls will be made to local jails, police, sheriff departments, hospitals, etc., in an attempt to locate the offender.

Probationers agree that their phones will not be equipped with any custom calling features while participating in the home detention program. Extension phones are also not allowed.

All persons residing at the probationers home must be aware of his placement in the home detention program. They are also aware that random on-site visits may be made to the residence at any time.

As with other probation rules, no alcohol or drug consumption is allowed.

Since the receiver makes periodic calls to the central station, all personal calls must be limited to 10 minutes or less.

If the probationers equipment is ever lost or damaged he has to agree to pay for the total cost of repair or replacement ($1,180).

The funding for this program is provided through grant money from the Community Justice Assistance Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. The grant money did not have to be matched by the CSCD.

"The money was part of 50 million distributed throughout the state," said Mulder. "Our part for the electronic monitoring was $10,980.50. This will pay for units, supplies, travel and salary.

"We hope to have five units within a few weeks and next year, if the funding is available, we could possibly have 12 units," said Mulder.

Anderson and Rodgers pledge nuptials

Lisa Diane Anderson and Tracy Lee Rodgers were united in marriage Friday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Floydada. The Rev. Howell Farnsworth, pastor, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anderson of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Rodgers of Brownfield.

The altar was decorated with brass candelabra entwined with trailing plumosa fern interspersed with lavender and white gladioli, carnations, baby mums and babies breath tied with a large lavender satin bow. Centering the altar was a fifteen branch candelabrum flanked by a pair of seven branch candelabra alight with white tapers. The aisle had pews marked with large lavender satin bows with the parents' pews entwined with fern and babies breath.

Pre-wedding music was provided by Sue Crow, pianist. Bill Smith, soloist, sang the Wedding Song, Twelfth of Never and The Lord's Prayer.

Candlelighters were Todd Anderson, Dusty Anderson and Cory Kirk, nephews of the bride. They wore matching grey pants, white shirts with lavender bow ties and cummerbunds.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Nancy Kirk of Levelland, sister of the bride. She wore a floor length lavender taffeta and chiffon dress which featured a v-neck back, accented with a large bow. She carried a colonial style bouquet of lavender and white baby mums, carnations and babies breath.

Flower girls were Kassi Rodgers, daughter of the groom, and Robin Kirk, niece of the bride. They wore matching tea length dresses of lavender taffeta and lace accented by a large bow in back and matching hair bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered to the strains of the traditional Wedding March. She wore a white silk taffeta gown featuring a sweetheart neckline. The basque bodice of alencon lace was highlighted with short puffed sleeves and a taffeta bow and lace rosette with pearls on the shoulder. The full skirt edged in lace flowed into a cathedral train. The headpiece featured a satin beaded band coming to a soft V at the center of the forehead with tiny sprays of seed pearls and silk flowers in the back attached to a fingertip veil.

She carried a colonial nosegay of white baby mums, carnations and babies breath interspersed with lavender baby carnations and seed pearls.

Larry Kirk of Levelland, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man. He was attired in a silver grey tuxedo with lavender bow tie and cummerbund with white tuxedo shirt. The groom also wore a silver grey tuxedo with white bow tie and cummerbund and white tuxedo front tuxedo shirt.

Ushers were Mike Anderson and Steve Anderson, brothers of the bride. Guests were registered by Treva Chambers of Hewitt, Texas.

A reception was held in the Wall Street Parlor following the wedding ceremony. The houseparty included Susan Whited, Barbara Anderson, Donna Anderson, Eleanor Hendrix, Janiece Guffee, Jerry Pearson and Geneva Bennett.

After a wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple will make their home in Levelland.

Pre-nuptial courtesies for the couple included a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. C.E. Leatherman of Floydada and a shower hosted by friends in Levelland.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

Well the week started out as usual with our morning coffee and juice time.

Monday, another day to start over, I always tell myself it will be a good day, and a good week. It has been, and there are signs of Spring all around us, the fruit trees in bloom, plants blooming, Robins. Irene Wexler came and played the piano for us. Bro. Wright couldn't be with us, so we shared the word taken from John, about the man been born blind.

Dolores Cannon came and did the ladies hair, and cut the men's hair also. She comes every other Monday and Tuesday. In the p.m. the residents listened to some music, sing-a-long.

Tuesday, Bro. Neeley couldn't be with us, so we sang some songs. In the evening the residents made a Easter bunny. Ruth Hammonds came and assisted some of the residents.

Wednesday, was Bingo time as usual, Mary Alice Davis came and assisted the residents. Brooks Callaway had the first Bingo.

Thursday, was the St. Patrick's Day party. The ladies from the Companion & Caring came and were the hostesses for the party. Shirley Varner explained the reason for the celebration, and asked if anyone were of Irish descent. We sang some Irish songs. Green sherbet was served to the residents, guest and family. We welcome two new members to our volunteers, they are Freida Woody and Laura Garza. Then at 6:30 p.m. the residents and family joined in for the Family Fun Pic Supper. We had a good turn out and the pies were so good. Thanks Dorothy Kerr for baking all the different kinds of pies, also we want to thank Boone Adams for the ice cream to go with the pies.

Friday, Veda Wilson came and gave the devotion on John's gospel "God so loved the World that He gave His only begotten Son." Evelyn Latta played the piano for us too. At 1:30 p.m. the residents went on the bus ride to the country, Dairy Queen treated them to some ice cream, thanks a lot!

Thanks to my friends and family for making my birthday so special this year. The cards, phone calls, flowers and gifts, but most of all your love and thoughtfulness.

Cheryl Ward went and spoke to the Senior Citizens last Saturday, March 9, on Elder-Art, and will have a follow-up.

Thought They'll nod and smile when they're told.

Pletcher and Reynolds marry in Canyon

MRS. ROBERT RANDAL REYNOLDS

Post-nuptial shower held for Mr. and Mrs. Wiley

A post-nuptial shower was held Saturday night week in the garden room of First Baptist Church of Lockney as a courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Wiley. The bride is the former Debbie Robinson Mann of Lubbock. She and Mr. Wiley were married February 16, in the Smith House in Crosbyton. They are making their home in Lockney. Special guests for the event were the bride's daughters, Rita and Bobbie; the groom's mother, Mrs. Richard Wiley; his grandmother, Mrs. Grady Whitaker of Plainview; and his sister, Melody Cox, Codee and Caitlann. Mrs. Dale Gallaway and Mrs. Boyd

Lee assisted at the serving table which was laid with a tiered white lace cloth. The centerpiece was a mixed bouquet of silk flowers. Crystal appointments were used to serve cookies, miniature sandwiches and tiny sausages. Yellow napkins accented the table.

The gift from the hostesses was cookware. Sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Gallaway and Mrs. Lee were Mes. Junior Lee, Kenneth Holt, Kellon Shaw, Tom Moore, Claude Brown, Austin Beedy, Phil Cotham, Johnny Dorman, Keith Jackson, David Frizzell, and Pat Adams.

Miss Verna Jayne Pletcher became Mrs. Robert Randal Reynolds in marriage promises pledged at 7:30 Saturday evening, March 16, in the Faith Community Church in Canyon. The Rev. Marcus Adair of Canyon conducted the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Floyd and Judy Pletcher of Canyon. Jim and Beth Reynolds of Tulia are parents of the bridegroom.

Grandparents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Willis Reynolds of Lockney and Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLaughlin of Plainview.

Escorted down the aisle and presented in marriage by her father, Floyd R. Pletcher, the bride chose for her marriage a gown of ivory satin with delicate lace overlay. A drop point in center-front waist, a deep yoke of Alencon lace and three-quarter length lace sleeves complimented the bodice. The tea-length skirt was topped with a lace overlay ending in a short train, and highlighted by shorter side panels in a coordinated lace pattern. A large satin bow accented the back waistline.

To compliment her gown, the bride wore an ivory brimmed chapeau, covered with lace veiling at the back and enhanced with pearls, a large pouf and streamers of illusion. A blusher veil completed the headdress.

The bride carried a bouquet of silk roses in ivory and dusty rose highlighted with stephanotis and baby's breath, accented with greenery of eucalyptus and sprays of seed pearls.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS

Janis Sluder of Amarillo attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Lyn Dickerson of Redmond, Wa., and Gale Pletcher of Roseville, Calif., sisters of the bride, and Rhonda Boudns of Rowlett, sister of the bridegroom.

They were attired in teal dresses designed of moire' taffeta.

Flower girls were Paige Dickerson and Annie Dickerson, nieces of the bride from Redmond, Wa., who wore dusty rose rompers made of moire' taffeta.

Jace Sluder of Amarillo was ring bearer for his aunt's wedding.

Bridesmaids and flower girls carried heart-shaped willow wreaths decorated with dusty rose colored roses, petite white blossoms, burgundy berries and green eucalyptus, accented with baby's breath and seed pearls.

Jim Reynolds served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Kenneth Boudns of Rowlett, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Mark Walraven of Lubbock and Terry Wilson of Abilene.

Guests were seated by Donnie McLaughlin of Lockney, Scott Baughman of Canyon and Ritchie Thornton of Lubbock, cousins of the bridegroom, and Mark Ross of Lubbock.

Piano selections were offered by Steve Simpson, who also accompanied vocalists Mike Sluder, brother-in-law of the bride, and Ruthie Houser.

RECEPTION IN CANYON

The Hudspeth House in Canyon was the site of a reception honoring the couple following their marriage.

Refreshments were served by Susie Gurley, Rhonda Wood and Cheryl Gattis.

A graduate of West Texas State University, the bride is an elementary teacher in the Amarillo Independent School District.

Her husband, who was graduated from Crosbyton High School and Western Texas College, is a licensed electrician associated with Stover Electric.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will establish their home in Amarillo.

News from Caprock Hospital

By Molly Stringer

Several of our employees have taken family vacations this week during Spring Break. Susan Green and her family have been gone to San Antonio. Diane Emert took off a day to be with her children.

Molly Stringer attended the area director's of nursing meeting at Methodist Hospital last week. This group toured the aero-care facilities at the airport. This meeting is a service provided by Methodist Hospital monthly for the area hospitals that are affiliated with Methodist. Problem areas are addressed in these meetings, also input from other directors of nursing is very helpful and supportive to each nursing administrator.

Our EMS coordinator has developed some new policies concerning our ambulance service in Floydada. The following information will be helpful to our community in utilizing our ambulance service. It is the goal of this service to provide primarily an emergency service.

The policy states: "The Floydada EMS service is an emergency service. We can only transfer people with an emergency. We do not take people to doctor's offices or for doctor's appointments. We do not transfer patients to private homes for the convenience of the family. Insurance including Medicare will not pay for transfers except in a true emergency. For non-emergency ambulance service please call Plainview Ambulance Service at 293-3661."

This policy has been put into effect so that we will not be left without emergency coverage in Floydada while our ambulance goes out of town for several hours on a non-emergency transfer or office visit. It was felt by the director of our EMS that it is imperative that we have our ambulance available for emergencies in our community.

Please remember our Health Fair April 2, 1991 starting at 7:00 a.m.

HEALTH AND WELL-BEING Start The Day Right

Did you know that accidents are most likely to occur during the first hour of the workday? Maybe it's because so many people jump out of bed, skip breakfast, and fight their way through traffic to make it to the plant. By the time they begin working, they're tense, hungry, and unable to concentrate.

If this sounds like your usual morning routine, why not start the day right from now on?

* Prepare for the morning. Leave your keys, comb, and wallet together where you can find them right away. Make sure the clothes you plan to wear are clean and pressed. If you take your lunch to work, pack as much of it as possible ahead of time.

* Get up a little earlier. You may be thinking, "I'm usually tired as it is. Having to get up earlier isn't going to help the situation!" But having a few minutes to read the paper and have a leisurely breakfast will get you off to a great start. If you aren't getting enough sleep, go to bed earlier.

* Eat a good breakfast. You'll have more endurance and energy if you supply your body with the nutrients it needs. A quick cup of coffee will not do the trick. Take the time for a well-balanced meal.

* Avoid arguments. Now is not the time to criticize your roommate's annoying habits or find fault with a child's report card. You'll only make yourself (and them) tense and upset. Save these delicate discussions for another time.

With just a little extra planning, you can make the first hour of your workday as safe as the other seven. If you think it's too bothersome to make time for yourself in the morning, remember — you and your co-workers are worth the effort that will ensure a safer, more productive day.

FHS team shines at Levelland meet

By Bill Gray

Floydada was the only boys' Class 3A squad to enter a full track team at the Lobo Invitational in Levelland on March 15. Nevertheless, the Whirlwinds placed fourth in team competition in a meet dominated by Class 4A and 5A schools. The rankings and points compiled were: 1. Plainview 166-1/2, 2. (tie) Levelland and Andrews 78, 4. Floydada 67, 5. Hereford 65, 6. Midland 48-1/2, 7. Big Spring 32, and 8. Denver City 23.

The biggest surprise, and the major upset of the day, was Floydada's victory in the 400 meter relay. The "Wind sprint relay team of Kenneth Davis, Brad Emert, Freddie Portee and Michael Henderson won the event over Plainview (44.09) and Hereford (44.17). After a slow start, the "Winds made up the difference entering the halfway point. "Bullet" Portee ran a strong third leg to give anchorman Mike Henderson a slight edge in the home stretch. Henderson lengthened the lead to win going away, with a 43.91 clocking.

The Whirlwinds' winning time served notice to District 2-3A contenders when the district meet comes up in four weeks. Tulia registered a 44.48 to win the 400 relay at Friona on the same day. The "Winds and Hornets should be favored to grab regional berths in this event.

Floydada's freshman shot put and discus sensation, Adam Gonzales, placed seventh in both events at Levelland. His toss of 45'-5" in the shot put was one of his better efforts of the year. The event was won by Plainview's Rodney Shivers with a 52'-3" throw.

Gonzales will be a factor in district competition, along with Muleshoe's Mike Friend and Tulia's Hugh Farmer (who won at Friona on March 15 with a 50-foot toss). Tulia's Paul Oliveras placed first in discus at Friona with a distance of 127'-10", compared to Adam Gonzales' 127-foot, seventh place at the Lobo Invitational.

Jason Pyle and Aaron Harbin tied for third in pole vault at Levelland with 11 feet efforts. It was Pyle's best this year, as he and Harbin continue to improve in the event. Chad Williams missed a second place in the triple jump by only 1-1/2" as he finished third with a 40'-4" to Hereford's Leo Brown, who jumped 40'-5-1/2". Whirlwind Mike Henderson placed fourth in the triple jump behind teammate Williams. Williams and Henderson finished fourth and sixth, respectively, in the long jump (won by Plainview's Jeff Gonzales).

Plainview's Nigel Torres edged Whirlwind Jaime Suarez by less than three seconds in the 3200 meters, winning the metric two-miler at 10:33.1. Suarez again improved his time with a second place clocking of 10:35.71. Brad Emert finished fourth for the "Winds in the 300 hurdles, missing third place by half a second. Emert's fourth place time of 11.17 in the 100-meter dash can be favorably compared to fellow district competitor Ismael Rocha of Friona, whose 11.18 won the 100 at the Chieftain meet.

Although Mike Henderson ran a 22.5 in a 200-meter preliminary, his 23.4 was only good enough for fourth place in the finals. However his 22.5 can be compared to Tulia's Rickey White, who won the event at Friona with a clocking of 22.41.

According to Coach David Carr, "We were very pleased with our fourth place team finish, especially considering the level of competition. We were the only 3A school with a full team (Denver City only sent entrants in the field events). We were up against 4A and 5A schools; yet, we were very competitive. In two weeks we'll go to San Angelo where we'll again face larger schools. Then we go to Dimmitt the week before the district meet at Tulia. The tough competition we've been facing should put us in good shape for district."

Floydada girls' track coach Deanna Logan commented along those same lines. She said, "We're all proud of our kids and their hard work and dedication. We were very competitive against the quality talent of the larger schools at the Levelland meet. We know we can be a factor in our own class."

The Lady "Winds placed fifth overall in the team standings at Levelland. The field events were dominated by 5A Odessa Permian and 4A Borger and Levelland. The team standings and points scored were: 1. Odessa Permian 146, 2. Borger 144, 3. Levelland 126, 4.

Plainview 89, 5. Floydada 41, 6. Seminole 34, 7. Levelland JV 7. Floydada failed to finish in the top three in any of the field finals, but the Lady "Winds made a good showing in the running events.

It appeared that Floydada's Tian Younger finished second in the 100 hurdles, but she was judged fourth behind Levelland (1st and 3rd) and runner-up Permian. Younger placed second in the 300 hurdles with a 48.15 time, just a second and a few clicks behind Fine of Levelland (46.99).

Elisa Suarez ran a 63.12 for third place in the 400 meters, and Floydada's 1600 relay team clocked 4:21.09 for third place behind Levelland and Permian. The 1600 team of Elisa Suarez, Tian Younger, Leshla Black and Angie Maldonado, ran two full seconds better than their last week's time at the Roosevelt Relays.

After taking the week off for Spring Break, the Whirlwinds will travel to the San Angelo Relays on March 29 and the Lady "Winds will enter the Hart meet. Both squads will have the opportunity to test their district opponents at the Bobcat Relays in Dimmitt on April 5. The District 2-3A meet will be held at Tulia on April 12.

Moore recounts days in Persian Gulf War action

PFC Shawn Moore of Dumas was a part of the Persian Gulf war since last September. His ordnance unit supported the 11th Air Defense Artillery Brigade, which became famous for knocking Iraqi Scuds from the skies over Dhahran.

Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luis Moore of Dumas and the grandson of Mrs. Wayne Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore of Floydada.

A native of Lubbock, Moore grew up in Dumas and graduated from Dumas High School in 1985. He joined the Army in May 1989.

Moore's ordnance unit was stationed just outside Dhahran, near the main U.S. airbase.

"The closest call we had was when a Patriot destroyed a Scud some 500 to 1,000 feet over our head," said Moore. "That was a sight to see."

Moore also remembers the last Scud attack on Dhahran. The warhead from the partially destroyed missile struck and exploded in a warehouse where a U.S. Army Reserve Unit were housed. Twenty-eight were killed.

"You could hear it coming in," Moore said. "Everyone thought the Patriots had taken it out."

Moore, who has now returned home, said, "When the Iraqis began surrendering in large numbers, we knew the war wouldn't last long. The worst part was waiting."

Averaging 27 points and 11 rebounds per game, Collins paced all area 3A players in those categories. He also made 215 assists (an eight-per-game clip). He was 48% on two-point field goal attempts, 34% on three-point attempts, and 64% at the free throw line.

Collins, also an All-South Plains football selection the past two years, will enter Eastern New Mexico University at Portales this Fall on a football scholarship. When asked if he'll play basketball at Eastern, Kenneth gave his patented smile and replied, "They said I could try out for basketball if I wanted to... and I want to!"

Ryan Burns had his senior campaign abruptly shortened with a severe ankle injury. It was a crushing blow to the team, and may have contributed to Floydada's not repeating in the basketball playoffs. Nevertheless, Burns received an honorable mention selection. He averaged over nine points per game for a total of 227, while pulling down 155 rebounds on the year. Ryan was credited with 40 assists, and made 61% of his free throws. He was 44% on two-point field goal attempts.

Senior Chad Williams also received honorable mention. He pulled down 94 rebounds while scoring 186 total points (7 per game), and was 84% from the free throw line. Williams also contributed 65 assists, was 46% on two-point field goal tries, and 32% on three-point attempts.

Seniors Trish Pernell and Kerrie Pitts were honorable mention girls' 2-3A All-District. Pernell scored 202 total points (7-per-game average), and was a 57% free throw shooter. Trish was credited with 123 rebounds (4.2-per-game) and average two assists a game.

Kerrie Pitts scored 211 points for the Lady "Winds, hitting 30% of her two-point attempts. She made 21 out of 40 three-pointers for a 52% mark from the outside. Pitts also was credited with 28 steals and 30 assists, along with 69 rebounds for the season.

The Whirlwinds and Lady "Winds are proud of their All-District honorees. Even though basketball is a team sport, successful programs require strong individual efforts and leadership. These student-athletes have excelled on the court, and have been leaders on and off the field of play. As seniors, they all will be missed.

Life management retreats encourage students

Dedicated to education, committed to excellence!

With this thought in focus, the Floydada ISD has participated in the Life Management Skills Retreats for the past two years. The retreats have been held at the Plains Baptist Assembly.

Leadership for the retreats has been furnished by educational specialists from the Education Service Center - Region XVII. Bruce Roark, coordinator of migrant/bilingual education, Marilyn Vieregge, Antonio Saldana, Yolanda Sanchez and Maria Mora-Gamble have led a total of 27 retreats for area students who are at risk of failure or at risk of dropping out of school.

The retreats were first designed for migrant students, however because of their effectiveness, others have been included.

The first retreat was held for counselors, administrators, teachers and school personnel to train the sponsors for the retreat in April, 1988. Other retreats have been held for parents, the staff at R.C. Andrews Elementary and for the sixth grade at R.C. Andrews.

Through the retreat setting students begin to understand themselves and to become aware of their potential in a non-threatening developmental counseling setting. The activities are fast-paced and keep all involved. It is exciting, because it is evident that lives are changed.

Five to six local students are met by 25 students from area schools for the 48

The emphasis is on increasing the self-confidence, poise and life management skills. The aim of the program is for the participants to gain a strong sense of belief in themselves.

Students are made to become aware that they cannot change, for the most part, the life and world situations in which they live, but that they can choose to change their responses and decisions to these situations.

Students attending the retreats learn how to bond together. The students are exposed to strategies by which they can exercise their leadership potential, accept themselves with their strengths and weaknesses, make decisions about their lives, and change those attitudes and behaviors that will not be productive.

hour retreat for secondary students. Approximately 57 junior high/high school students have participated from Floydada.

One hundred sixth grade students, eight parents and 45 faculty and staff members from Floydada have participated in shorter retreats.

The motto is "Con Ganas" (with desire). It was adopted after a participant, Grace Munguia, a sophomore from Levelland High School, composed the following poem during one of the activities:

Con Ganas

I brought my life to the Retreat,
When I came here I was incomplete.
I had so many problems here and there,
And these people let me know they care.

People with problems like yours

and mine,
Made me feel like things would be just fine.

When I came here I felt like a nobody,
Now I know I am somebody.

"Con Ganas" is their motto.
And one everyone should follow.
For life is more than sorrow and pain
And now I know I have yet
More love and knowledge to gain.

I know that there are people who care,
And that these are people
Who will always be there.
So follow the "Con Ganas" motto,
So that you can look forward
To your next tomorrow,

And when your life
Seems to come to an end,
With this retreat
You'll always have friends.

Edwards participates in student spring mission trip

Forty-two students from the Baptist Student Union at Hardin-Simmons University will be taking part in a student mission trip on March 16-23 during their spring break.

Marty Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Edwards of Floydada, and a student at HSU will be taking part in this project.

Twenty-one of these students will work through First Baptist Church of Port Aransas, Texas. They will assist the Corpus Christi Baptist Association in several projects including house-to-house religious surveys and assistance in several building and repair projects.

They will also be spending time on the beach working with students from other colleges. Their responsibilities on the beach will include surveys, leading in nightly services, and working with a man who does religious sand sculptures.

Palmer McCown, Religious Activities Director for HSU, will be leading these students.

HOMESTEAD EXEMPTIONS

MAY LOWER YOUR HOME'S PROPERTY TAXES

A homestead exemption lowers the property taxes on your home by lowering its taxable value. For example, if your home is valued at $50,000 and you receive a $5,000 homestead exemption, your home will be taxed as if it were worth only $45,000.

You qualify for a homestead exemption if you owned your home on January 1 and used it as your primary residence on that date. It doesn't matter whether your home is a house, a condominium, or a mobile home.

Exemptions are available to all homeowners to lower their school taxes. Additional exemptions are available to homeowners who are disabled or age 65 and over. And, if you receive the over-65 exemption, you also qualify for a ceiling on school taxes. Other exemptions may be offered to homeowners by school districts, counties, cities, and special districts.

Who should apply? If you received a homestead exemption on your home in 1990, you won't need to re-apply for 1991 unless your chief appraiser requires it.

If you became 65 or disabled before January 1, file a new application to receive the additional exemptions.

If you haven't received an exemption on your present home, or if you've moved to a new home, make a new application for 1991.

File your homestead exemption with your local appraisal office at the address shown below.

The last day to file for applications is April 30, 1991. Contact your appraisal district before then if you need more time to file.

For more information, get a free copy of the pamphlet, Texas Property Taxes: A Taxpayers' Guide to Rights, Remedies, Responsibilities, at your appraisal district office or from the State Property Tax Board in Austin.

EXENCIONES DE RESIDENCIA

PUEDEN REDUCIR LOS IMPUESTOS QUE PAGA POR SU CASA

Una exención de residencia le ayuda a reducir los impuestos sobre la propiedad que tiene que pagar por su residencia reduciendo el valor que se utiliza como base para calcular sus impuestos. Por ejemplo, si su casa está valorada en $50,000 y usted recibe una exención de residencia de $5,000, usted va a pagar impuestos de residencia como si su valor fuese de $45,000.

Usted puede recibir una exención de residencia si usted era el dueño de su casa el primero de enero y la usaba como su residencia principal en la misma fecha. No importa si su residencia es una casa, un condominio o una casa remodelada.

Hay exenciones que cualquier persona que es dueño(a) de su residencia puede usar para bajar sus impuestos escolares. Exenciones adicionales se ofrecen a dueños de residencia que están incapacitados o tienen 65 años o más. Si usted recibe la exención porque su edad es más de sesenta y cinco años, usted califica para un límite en los impuestos escolares. Otras exenciones pueden ofrecerse a propietarios por distritos escolares, condados, ciudades y distritos escolares.

Solicite todas las exenciones que usted puede recibir en la oficina local del distrito de valoración en la dirección que se cita abajo.

Si usted recibió una exención para su residencia actual en 1990, usted no necesita solicitarla para 1991 a menos que el jefe de valoración pida que haga una nueva solicitud.

Sin embargo, si usted cumplió 65 años o quedó incapacitado antes del primero de enero haga una nueva solicitud para recibir exenciones adicionales.

Si usted no ha recibido una exención para su residencia actual o si se cambió de casa haga una nueva solicitud para 1991.

El último día para hacer su solicitud es el 30 de abril de 1991. Comuníquese con su distrito de valoración antes de esa fecha si necesita más tiempo para hacerla.

Para tener más información usted puede recibir una copia gratis del folleto Los Derechos, Recursos y Responsabilidades del Contribuyente de Impuestos en la oficina del distrito de valoración o puede pedirlo del Consejo Estatal de Impuestos sobre la Propiedad (State Property Tax Board) en Austin.

Ford and Perez bring home 2nd place trophies

The Lockney Math Team traveled to San Antonio to compete in the Texas Math and Science Coaches Association annual State Meet on March 16. The event was held on the University of Texas at San Antonio campus. Seminars in number sense and calculator were attended by the team.

Over 1000 students from over 100 1A, 2A, 3A, 4A and 5A schools competed in the 10th anniversary student tournament. Lockney students competed with other 2A schools in number sense, calculator, science and math.

Trophies were awarded to 2nd place winners in math, David Perez and in science, Rance Ford.

Angie Moya and Shawn Hill participated in calculator with Angie placing 7th.

In number sense David Perez placed 4th, Orlando Mondragon placed 6th, and Ryan Ford, Allen Martin and Rance Ford placed 8th, Ignacio Luna placed 9th. Other students involved in number sense were Lance Patridge, Debbie Pyle and Jerod Glasson.

Ryan Ford participated in science. All students participated in math. Places in math and science below 3rd place are not yet known.

Lockney student receives Outstanding Student award

David Perez, senior at Lockney High School, has received a certificate from the Tandy Company as an Outstanding Math/Science/Computer Science student.

The awards were presented by the Tandy Technology Scholars, a program to recognize academic excellence, especially in the areas of mathematics, science and computer science.

The program exemplifies the growing spirit of cooperation between business and education and the initiative of business to become involved in and to help resolve issues of national concern.

Miller advances in national poster contest

Lockney Elementary student, Lindi Miller, was recently selected for the final judging in the Philip Morris Company, Spirit of Liberty: 1791-1991 poster contest.

Lindi's poster was selected from nearly 10,000 students across the country. The posters should reflect a high level of creative expression and an understanding of America's Bill of Rights.

If Lindi's poster is selected as a regional finalist in her grade category, Lindi, her history teacher Mrs. Marva Rasco, and her parents, will travel to Washington D.C. to attend a special luncheon on April 22 at the National Archives.

The winning posters will also be on display at the National Archives, which is the permanent home of the U.S. Constitution, the Declaration of Independence and the federal copy of the Bill of Rights.

Regional winners will also receive a $500.00 U.S. Savings Bond, a plaque honoring their achievement and the return of their mounted poster.

One National winner from each grade category (4-6, 7-9, and 10-12) will be selected from the regional finalist and announced at the National Archives luncheon. Those grand prize winners will return to Virginia in December with their teachers and parents to participate in a gala event celebrating the 200th anniversary of the Bill of Rights.

In addition the top three winning students will receive a $1,000 U.S. Savings Bond. The national winners' schools will also receive up to $500 in computer software of their choice.

PREPARATION FOR POETRY CONTEST--The students at Lockney Elementary School were treated to a poetry reciting program before being turned out for Spring Break. The students participating are preparing for upcoming contests in which they will be competing with other school districts. Staff Photo

Perez earns honors at WTSU contest

Approximately 150 students from 15 area schools competed in the Ninth Annual Regional Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS) contest hosted by West Texas State University on March 9. Students took written tests in six areas — biology, chemistry, computer fundamentals, English, mathematics and physics — in hopes of qualifying for individual and team awards and a trip to the April 27 state finals at Texas A&M University.

David Perez of Lockney was a first place winner in the individuals Computer Fundamentals division.

Perez will advance to the state competition.

Others participating were Jennifer Fortenberry, Jessica Lemons, Ignacio Luna, Rance Ford, Ryan Ford, Debbie Pyle, Robin Marks, Angie Moya, Aimee Green, Danielle Maia, Kori Kellison and Orlando Mondragon.

Amarillo Tascosa High School won first place team honors in the large-school division, and Canyon High School took the top spot in the 500-999-student division. Groom High School and Stratford High School placed first and second, respectively, in the 1-499 division. All four teams will advance to the state contest.

Regional participants were welcomed and addressed by Dr. Vaughn Nelson, head of the department of mathematics and physical sciences and director of the Alternative Energy Institute at West Texas State University. Awards were presented by WTSU President Barry B. Thompson.

Juniors planning dinner theatre

A dinner theatre will be held Tuesday, April 2, at the elementary school cafeteria. The event will be sponsored by the Lockney High School junior class.

Dinner will be served at 6:00 p.m. and at 7:30 the one-act play "Threads" will be presented.

Members of the play cast are: Ignacio

Luna, Lila Booker, David Perez, Eric Humphries, Aimee Green, Kyla Zumwalt, Chad Cook, Cody Jackson and Jennifer Fortenberry.

Crew members include: Anna Cortez, Clay Golden, Tina Martinez and Tony Ascencio. Alternates are Max Green, Allen Martin and Cindy Perez.

Lubbock First Baptist presenting "The Passion: Beyond My Fault"

First Baptist Church, Lubbock, will present "The Passion: Beyond My Fault", March 29 (Good Friday) and Sunday, March 31, (Easter) at 7:00 p.m. in the Lubbock Municipal Auditorium on the Texas Tech Campus.

This promises to be a very unique dramatization in many ways. The 100 voice choir, full orchestra, and large drama cast will present the greatest story ever told in a way that the audience will be talking about it for weeks to come. The sets will be flown in from Dallas and the participants will be in full costume.

The dramatization/choir presentation is a gift to the City of Lubbock and all of the surrounding area during this the centennial year of First Baptist Church, Lubbock. There is no admission charge and no offering will be taken.

There is much emotion in the dramatization of the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus. This year's story is constructed around the curiosity of a visitor to the city of Jerusalem on that fateful day and is surrounded with drama and excitement. The music is woven around the events lending more pathos or more force to the scenes.

Produced and directed by Minister of Music, John Lee, this year's Passion presentation promises to depict a vivid portrayal of the man known as Jesus.

Plenty of parking is available in the parking lots and if you have difficulty making the steps on the front of the building, go to either of the doors on the north or south side of the building and someone will be there to assist you without difficulty (no steps). There are spaces for wheelchairs.

Dr. Hayes Wicker, pastor of First Baptist Church, Lubbock, and all of the congregation invite all who will to attend these special presentations. There is no admission charge.

Public Notice

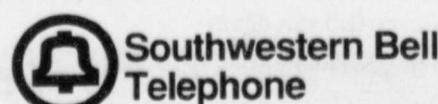

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company ("Southwestern Bell") submitted an application on January 4, 1991 to the Public Utility Commission of Texas ("Commission") requesting that the central office-based PBX/type service market be declared subject to significant competition pursuant to the Commission's Substantive Rule §23.27. If this proposal is approved, Southwestern Bell intends to provide service to this market segment via its PLEXAR-Custom service, which provides for contractual rates and charges to be based on an individual customer-specific basis.

PLEXAR-Custom is a central office-based service which provides switched voice and/or data communications similar to a customer-premises PBX. PLEXAR-Custom service is currently being provided on an individual customer-specific basis via Southwestern Bell's Customer Specific Pricing Plan Tariff for central office-based telecommunications systems of 200 stations or more. If Southwestern Bell's application is approved, the PLEXAR-Custom service tariff will be revised to also include central office-based telecommunications systems which require between 75 and 200 stations.

Centrex and Plexar-II services are currently priced according to a standard tariff regardless of the customer's geographic location in the state. If this application is approved, customers needing 75 to 200 stations will be able to obtain this service priced on an individual customer-specific basis rather than under a standard tariffed rate.

Southwestern Bell's application proposes that the service market for PBX/type systems of 75 stations up to 200 stations be declared subject to significant competition statewide in all of the exchange areas served by Southwestern Bell and in which the central office capability to provide the service exists and/or can readily be made available.

Persons who wish to intervene, protest, or comment on this application should notify the Public Utility Commission of Texas by June 21, 1991 at 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. You may also call the Commission's Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256, or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf. Please refer to this matter in all correspondence as Docket No. 9960.

Floyd County Extension Homemakers

Floyd County Extension Homemakers council met March 14, in the council room at the agriculture building, with the President Vivian Curtis, presiding.

For opening, Ruth Scott read a newspaper article by Sara McLaughlin, English teacher at Texas Tech, called "Chronic Worriers Worry About." "Nothing Else To Worry About," A game "Old St. Patrick" was led by Ruth Scott.

Blanche Williams, secretary, called the roll, seven members were present. Ruth Trapp, treasurer, gave the financial report.

Maye Williams, President of Harmony Club gave a report of the club meetings since the council meeting in January.

Ruth Trapp, President of Homebuilders Club gave her club report.

Karen Miller, TEHA County Vice President reported on a meeting she had attended in January at the Extension Service building at New Deal.

She said we may not get new Extension agents, for awhile, as there has been a freeze on hiring agents, due to the state of economy.

She announced the District II meeting will be in Seminole April 26. The state meeting will be in Austin September 9-11.

A discussion was held on what crafts we could take to the district meeting for exhibit, several suggested things we could take.

Present from the Harmony club were Maye Williams, Blanche Williams, Vivian Curtis, Karen Miller and Ruth Scott.

Present from Homebuilders was Ruth Trapp and Jonelle Fawver.

As there was no old or new business, the meeting adjourned.

GOOD NUTRITION—Working with the American Cancer Society's program of good nutrition, Mary Muniz, Supervisor of Foods for the Floydada Independent School District, will help implement menus to be used in the school cafeterias during the week of March 25-29. Research indicates that modifying diets may reduce the risks of several diseases, including heart disease and cancer. Offering healthful food choices can help the children and young people who eat school meals develop good eating habits. "We know we can't change habits overnight, or in a week, but we can show how healthful food can be delicious and appetizing. We can give some good ideas that they may not have thought of," said Mrs. Muniz. Pictured planning with her are (l-r) Winola Galloway, junior high cafeteria manager; Mary Muniz, head supervisor; Doris McLain, education chairman of American Cancer Society; Carmen Starkey, Duncan supervisor; and Ruth Payne, high school manager. —Staff photo

Courtroom Activities

In county court on March 19, the following people were charged with failure to appear:

John Cleavinger, Richard Fuller, Garrett Hacker, David Lee Kilgore, Gary McBride, Lamar McBride, Gregory West, Willie Williams. There was no disposition on these cases.

Also on March 19, John Lescuer, 74, of Floydada, was found guilty of his December 13, 1990 DWI charge, after a trial without a jury. Lescuer was fined $500 plus court costs and sentenced to 180 days in jail, which was probated for two years.

In J.P. court there were 68 misdemeanor cases filed for the week of March 12-19.

SPRING '91

Carl Lemons' News and Views from Cedar Hill

SPRING IN WEST TEXAS

It was to be another "mother of battles" according to the weather man! The forces of Winter had been routed and Summer's most maneuverable unit, the Southwest's own "Windy Battalion", had pursued them far to the north and impressive positions had been made secure. Even Montana had posted new highs for February and March! It was unreal! Could it be that '91 would go down as the year that had no spring? Certainly it seemed there would be only a token break in our switch from winter's cold to the discomfort of summer's heat.

Rumors of change surfaced from time to time but were taken lightly, then suddenly full-blown headlines burst upon us! WINTER STAGES MASSIVE COUNTER ATTACK! Blizzards rampant in the Mountain States! Heavy rains alleviate drought on the West Coast! Ski resorts rejoice at record snowfall! Commerce halted by snowdrifts in the nation's mid-section! Winter-kill feared by nation's wheat farmers! Rooftop rescues reported along swollen streams in the Southeast!

Our weather man figured it was a "can't miss" situation and he promised us the moon! We, the civilian population of the Southern Panhandle, would experience substantial moisture in a wide range of forms; even that most rare of combinations, thunder booming while snow was falling.

When it was over and sunshine had returned, the Listening Post gauge had filled up all the way to .04" (four one hundredths; 1/25th of one inch). That took three drops, maybe four! To counter any suspicion that your writer might have some trace of bitterness about this near-miss we hasten to point out that ten times that amount, a whole .40" fell at Lone Star just south of the Briscoe County line. A neighbor had just closed a pasture gate up there when that "deluge" began and he wanted to enjoy it to the fullest. Afraid he would miss the treat if he drove away, he just sat there and drank in the sound of rain drumming on his cab. Now and then the sharp click of a grain of sleet could be heard. Before he left a pool had formed and he got to see Jamacians dancing in the puddles.

Please note! If this column sometimes tends to be somewhat pessimistic, perhaps intimating that rains will never come again, be assured it is no accident. The weather man will stop at nothing to prove that your writer is a master of ineptness when it comes to predicting and that your writer knows absolutely nothing about the weather. This is my belief and it has become entrenched to the extent of paranoia. If I state in adamant terms that Floyd County will soon rival the Sahara Desert for dryness then the weather man is likely to open the spigots and set county lakes to overflowing. Here's hoping that reverse-psychology isn't like a bazooka; open at both ends and prone to backfire now and then.

Now hear this! The temperature will be down to 20 DF when you get up Sunday, morning March 24 and it will stay below freezing until some time Tuesday. That will be the last freeze and the only freeze in the Spring of '91. Let's not call that a prediction, but it did happen exactly that way 12 months ago following the first day of Spring 1990. Today, March 21, is the vernal equinox, and days and nights are of equal length. Today the center stripe on east-west highways will aim straight at the heart of the sun at both sunrise and sunset. After March 21 the sun rises and sets farther to the north than we are and the sun shines on the north side of houses that "set square" with the world for a few fleeting moments at both sunrise and sunset. The interval of early/late "north side exposure to direct sunlight" increases daily until finally, during the whole month of June and much of July, the rising and setting sun, unless prevented by blinds or curtains, actually comes shining through our north windows and lights north rooms at something like a 15 degree angle. Due to the wobbly way the world spins the sun at mid-day still hangs far to the south of us and noon shadows are still quite long.

It does not make one feel particularly smart to write these things about a commodity as abundant as sunlight, especially since it has been around quite a spell, ever since God said, "Let there be light." The truth of the matter is I must have been more than fifty years before I became aware that the sun sometimes shone directly through our north windows.

Tom Fortenberry was more than 80 years old and totally blind when he made that discovery. His voice was a mixture of chagrin and wonder as he told of that learning experience. He had become aware of feeling an unusual warmth while standing near the north wall in his living room late one summer afternoon. Thoroughly mystified he began to grope everywhere trying to locate the source of that mysterious warmth; a warmth that would disappear every time he stepped away. His mind was ranging between panic and the doubting of his sanity when Gladys stepped into the room and he told her of the strange phenomenon.

"Tom! You are just standing in the sunshine!" she informed him succinctly.

CROP COMMENTS
ONIONS setting at Cedar Hill has come to a halt on the earlier varieties with a little more than 50% still to go in. Later maturing onions are targeted to be in by April 1.

WHEAT continues its rapid seasonal growth, perhaps slowed a little, but not yet presenting the twisted, blue colored leaves that are characteristic of drought stressed wheat. Lack of rainfall coupled with the hail hazard and low prices are causing more and more wheat producers to choose the graze-out plan over conventional harvesting. The ever sensitive futures market is already aware of these conditions and prices have actually firmed a tad.

THE MINIFARM FRONT
As far as gardening goes Trudy Gilly has become a liberated woman; liberated from dependency on farm equipment to till her garden plot. Her new tiller was hardly broken in properly last season; and this year, even before equinox, Craig had gone through the pre-season cranking ritual. Now onion sets, seed potatoes, and a few onion plants scrounged from the turnrow of Craig's commercial patch are in the wings, just waiting the touch of the mistress' hand.

THE LEANING CEDARS
Mar. 18: As of Monday morning J.D. Busby was still at home, his condition unchanged to weaker. Mrs. Busby, near exhaustion herself, reports that J.D. will return to St. Marys for evaluation later this week; he has already received his maximum number of radiation treatments.

THE DRY CEDARS

Mar. 15: After weeks spent in helping care for their terminally ill nephew, Eldon Ray Love, in Lubbock, the path of Cephus and Imogene Fortenberry has made a sharp turn. Eldon Ray passed away last Friday. Services for him were held Sunday, March 17, at 2:30 P.M. Interment was in the Rest Lawn Mausoleum in Lubbock.

Now of almost equal concern to Cephus and Imogene will be Eldon's mother, Lottie Oswald.

Mar. 15: Edna Gilly visited in Plainview with her sister-in-law, Gurtrude Gilly Hammit last Friday. Also visiting in Gurtrude's home were Darla Hammit, and Donnie and Joann Hammit, and their two sons of Holley, Colorado.

Mar. 15: Supper guests in the J.A. and Norma Welch home Friday evening were Evelyn Seay of Carrizozo, Dexter Seay of Silver City, Jo and Chick Sellars of Tularosa, and Mary Dorris of Clovis, all from New Mexico. The group had come to Lockney bringing a tombstone for the grave of Albert Seay, husband and father of Evelyn and Dexter Seay. Mary stayed overnight with the Welches and rejoined the group at the cemetery Saturday morning.

Mar. 17: Mrs. Ester Langley returned home Sunday from a visit to El Reno, Oklahoma. She accompanied daughter, Celia and Jim Higdon of Lake Mackenzie to make the acquaintance of a new great-grandson. The young man, born in November, made medical history by being one of very few who survived a birth weight of approximately 1.5 pounds. Now weighing in at 7.5 lbs. his doctors say he has no problems; is normal in every way.

Mar. 17: Guests in Edna Gilly's home last Sunday were Donnie and Joann Hammit and their two sons of Holley, Colorado; also Gurtrude Hammit of Plainview.

Lockney Care Center

Good Morning - Lockney Surrounding Area! We are alive and kicking!

During the past two weeks we have enjoyed many events. The Rock Creek Church of Christ led devotionals on Mondays and the Main Street Church of Christ led on Tuesdays. The Methodist Church led us on Wednesday's and we appreciate Lawson Rowell who represented the First Baptist Church. On Sunday, March 3, the West Side Church of Christ and the Spanish Assembly of God led our devotionals. We appreciate all of our fine churches in Lockney and the surrounding area.

On the 5th of March we all enjoyed an old fashioned "Pie Social". We gave our "order" of our favorites to Annie Campbell who provided delicious pecan, apple, cherry, pineapple chess, buttermilk, pumpkin, coconut cream and lemon meringue which was enjoyed by the residents, staff and visitors.

We still enjoy our weekly bus trip to Plainview and we appreciate our volunteers that ride the bus weekly. We especially want to thank Annabel Bramlet for agreeing to ride the bus on such short notice March 18, 1991 and McDonalds Restaurant for providing refreshments to the residents, bus driver and volunteer.

On the 6th of March we held a residents birthday party sponsored by Main Street Church of Christ.

We had an ice cream social on the 14th and a St. Patrick's Day party on the 15th and everyone enjoyed the green cake and punch in honor of "wearing of the green".

On the 19th, Grammy & Pop, John and Maebelle Frances entertained us and Maebelle performed her a special routine. A big Thank You to this lovely couple!

We have discussion group several times a week. One of the most interesting subjects recently we discussed the war in the Middle East and all of us are very thankful that it is over! Betty Counts shared a little "ditty" from World War II that gave us a laugh. "Kaiser Bill went up the hill, to take a peek at France. . . Kaiser Bill ran down the hill with bullets in his pants!"

We've enjoyed popcorn, movies and table games the past few weeks. Future events include an Easter egg hunt to be held for pre-school age children on the 29th. We have the incorrect date listed for the Easter egg hunt and for the egg coloring which will be done on the 27th at 2:00 p.m.

An imaginary trip - compliments of Willetta Isom and a Spelling Bee and Scramble game were held by Valeta Wisdom who was visiting from the Dallas area during Spring Break from school. We plan to have Valeta Wisdom continue to volunteer more during her visit and have the Spelling Bee added to our calendar on a regular basis. We found that we have excellent spellers in our group and would like to make this a regular activity - any takers?

A special thank you to the Volunteer of the Month for April will be Annabel Bramlet and April's Employee of the Month, Betty Jordan, L.V.N. and Resident of the Month is Zerah Meriwether. A special thank you to the Senior Citizen's Center who donated 27 lap robes to the residents. Thanks! We appreciate these so much!

A special thank you to Myrtle Gibson for volunteering to do exercise with music and music hour with the residents several times recently and for the sewing she does for the residents.

Remember, we always welcome new volunteers. Everyone of our current and past volunteers tells us they came originally to "give" to our residents, and found they "received" more than they gave. Please join our volunteer team - join today! Everyone has a talent to share even if it is just listening, or visiting. Won't you share your time with us today? We promise you will be enriched as well as enrich the lives of those of us you share your time and talents with.

Volunteers Needed - Mondays 2:00 p.m. til 4:00 p.m. to go on weekly bus ride any afternoon to play "42", Dominoes, Scrabble, etc. . . Volunteer - You name the activity, you set the time, we bring the residents. This can be scheduled one time, one time a week, one time a month to fit your schedule.

Oh yes, Faye Sams received a dozen red roses — WOW?

Alpha Sigma Upsilon

By Donna Webb

Alpha Sigma Upsilon, chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, met in the First National Bank's community room. Meeting was called to order by President Robbie Odom with all members standing for opening rituals. Roll was taken with seven members present and two excused absences.

Rituals were held for new member, Tammy Dorris, and Rituals of Jewels were held for three members, Anna Rivera, Darolyn Snell and Donna Webb.

Minutes from the February meetings were read and approved. Old Settlers will be on May 25 and the motion was made to sell homemade ice cream frozen in cups for convenience this year. The motion was seconded and passed. A work night for mid-May was discussed but a date was not set. Each member was asked to bring three freezers of ice cream, one of each vanilla, chocolate and strawberry.

The upcoming schedule and calendar were discussed and set as follows:

March 25: Next regular meeting at Hope's.

April 9: Regular meeting at Darolyn Snell's.

April 11: Mother's Day Brunch.

April 29: Easter Egg Hunt.

May 5: Regular meeting at Beth's.

Date unconfirmed: Worknight.

May 25: Old Settlers.

May 30: Founder's Day.

There being no further business, the meeting closed. Robbie then laid out a buffet of sandwiches, chips, dip, iced tea and fruit covered with cream for dessert. The evening ended with closing rituals and mizpah.

Homebuilders Extension Club

Homebuilders Extension Club met at the Senior Citizen building March 12. The meeting was called to order by Ruth Trapp, after enjoying the noon meal with other diners. Roll call was answered with "Something I can do to recycle items." A game of "Rock Collection", led by Jonelle Fawver was our recreation for the meeting. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Gladys Widener, and approved. Future programs and available material were discussed, since we do not have an agent.

The program of Reduce, Reuse was given by Jonelle Fawver, we should reduce our amount of garbage going into the landfills, which do not meet new federal or state standards. These landfills are threatening health, safety and environment causing high cost. Some hints to reduce garbage is to check your items you purchase for excess packaging, to use cloth napkins, cloth towels, cloth diapers (5 million tons of dirty diapers go to landfills in U.S. every year). Pamphlets were passed out for home remedies to be prepared that will save money and reduce costly disposal of household waste. Ingredients consists of vinegar, salt, soda, borax, lemon juice and water used mostly for these cleaners.

Items for recycling were listed as paper (newspapers, high grade, regular) corrugated cardboard, can (aluminum and steel) glass, plastic, motor oil, organic waste (grass clippings, leaves, etc.) and scrap metal to name a few.

There were 35 to 50 items named for reuse (in homes, churches, schools, and nursing care homes) as well as you, an individual, could find many more.

1990 Study Club

The 7th meeting of the 1990 Study Club was called to order on March 11 at 6:00 p.m. at Lighthouse Electric. There were 16 members present and four absent.

Additional plans for the annual May home tour and Old Settlers Dance were discussed. It was proposed to donate part of the proceeds to the Children's Miracle Network in Lubbock.

For the March service project Sandra Schwertner wrote and sent a letter to all of the local families who have had troops in the Middle East. All members signed the letter wishing the families a safe journey home and a happy reuniting with their loved ones, as well as to reiterate the honor and pride our community feels for them.

The meeting was adjourned and 10 members attended the Ladies Chamber of Commerce Spring Style Show and Salad Supper for our monthly program.

Members present were: Lori Battey, Shawnda Brown, Christina Chesshir, Sherese Covington, Cindy Fortenberry, Brenda Hefflin, Traci Helms, Julie James, Pam Lewis, Vanell Littlefield, Deanna Logan, Gayla Marble, Dana Pyle, Sandra Schwertner, Mendy Shurbet, Dara Ware, Tammy Wilson and Tami Wofford.

Shawnda Foster served as hostess for the day. We quilted on a Tree of Life and a scraped heart quilt pieced by her sister-in-law, Shelley Brock.

Guests for the day were Sherese and Colton Covington, Shelley Brock, Libby Campbell and Carol Vines.

Members attending were: Cris Taylor, Brenda Hefflin, Anne Jones, Kelli Reddy, Cindy Belt, D'Lyn Morris, Kay Brock, Dar Lee Foster and Shawnda Foster

Floyd County fields will need from 4 to 10 inches of water to bring the five-foot soil profile to field capacity before planting . . .

Floyd County producers within the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 will need from four to 10 inches of water to bring the five-foot root zone soil profile to field capacity before the start of 1991 spring planting, according to soil moisture survey data released by the Water District and the U.S. Department of Agriculture-Soil Conservation Service (USDA-SCS).

"The annual soil moisture survey results are meant to inform irrigators about general soil moisture availability and deficit conditions across the Water District's 15-county service area," says Wilfred E. "Willie" Crenwelge, USDA-SCS Soil Scientist.

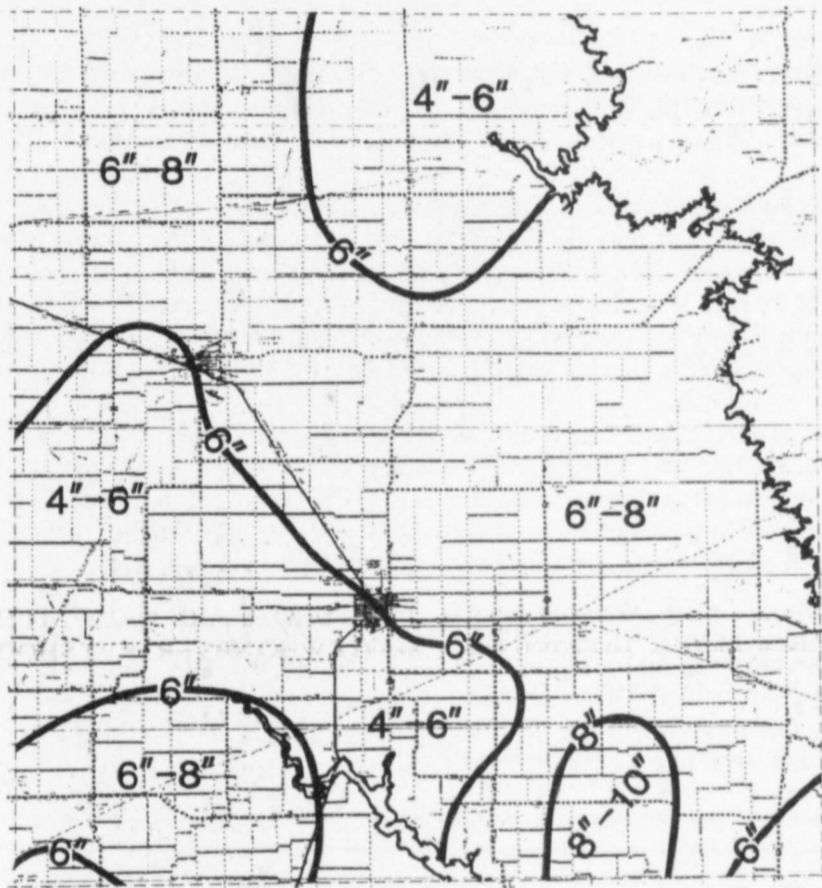

"Using this information, irrigators can estimate the amount of water needed during pre-plant irrigation to bring their soil to field capacity without over-irrigating or under-irrigating."

Soil moisture conditions within the Water District were tested from November 12, 1990, through January 15, 1991 at 249 soil moisture monitoring sites. Soil moisture readings are taken by lowering a neutron probe into a permanently-installed aluminum access tube at each site. These sites are chosen based upon the soil type, the crop produced, and the saturated thickness of the Ogallala Aquifer, which influences water well yield variations. Each soil moisture monitoring site represents typical field conditions near the location.

Pre-plant soil moisture conditions play an important role in determining crop yields. Historical data indicates that above-average crop yields are produced in the Texas High Plains area when the root zone of the soil is near field capacity at planting.

Any precipitation received and/or irrigation applied between now and planting season will improve soil moisture conditions and enhance crop yield prospects.

Copies of the regional or Floyd County soil moisture survey maps are available through your local USDA-SCS field office or the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 2930 Avenue Q, Lubbock, Texas 79405 or call (806) 762-0181.

Comments pertaining to regulations submitted

Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. (PCG), recently submitted comments pertaining to new regulations from the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) resulting from interpretation of the Food, Agriculture, Conservation and Trade Act of 1990. The new regulations are to be applied by ASCS during 1991-crop year.

The comments were submitted on behalf of producers in the 25 counties represented by PCG. For many of these producers the late release of the new regulations and the numerous unexpected changes that accompanied them threaten to cause problems. Some had already begun their land preparation activities, following the same guidelines that were applicable to the 1990-crop.

The recommendations made by PCG covered a wide range of subjects. Those recommendations are:

- 1) That the size requirement for acreage in Conservation Reserve (ACR) and/or Conservation Use (CU) for Pay be amended to allow producers to continue to use non-uniform terrace tops and skips as ACR or CU for Pay;

2) That blank rows found in 2-in-1-out cotton be considered eligible for CU for Pay status, at least for the 1991-crop year so that producers who have already prepared land for planting in this manner are not adversely effected;

3) (A) That the Texas High Plains be designated an arid area and therefore exempt from the 50 percent ACR cover requirement,

(B) That the June 1 deadline for having the 50 percent cover planted on ACR be relaxed,

(C) That volunteer wheat be allowed to qualify as an approved cover on ACR and CU for Pay acres.

4) That the proposed regulation making land designated as ACR for five years ineligible for such a designation for another five years not be adopted;

5) That the proposed reduction of the tolerance level for acreage measurements not be implemented;

6) That the Secretary allow the State Committee authority, in areas where practices warrant, to determine that the entire acreage of a field is planted in strips of two or more rows and the strips of idle land between them is less than 64 inches in width.

Submission of these recommendations preceded an announcement by the Texas State Committee, which ruled that the entire state will be considered an arid area and therefore not subject to the 50 percent cover requirement on ACR.

In addition to these comments PCG also prepared comments on proposed Payment Limitation Regulations. These regulations if implemented could severely affect some High Plains producers.

PCG made the following recommendations:

- 1) That the addition of a payment eligible spouse be considered a bonafide and substantive farm operation change in the same manner as provided for other family members;

2) That advance payments be made while State Committee plan considerations are being made;

3) That plans referred to the State Committee be accompanied by a county committee recommendation acquainting the State Committee with detailed plan knowledge and expediting the ultimate determination; and

4) That the State Committee be instructed to apply the initial review requirement only on a farm number basis when the farm involved more than five qualified payment entities.

Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. (PCG), announces the guest speakers for their 34th Annual Meeting. They are J. Nicholas Hahn, President of Cotton Incorporated (CI), and Keth Henley, a Director of Cotlook Ltd. and its parent company Liverpool Cotton Services. The PCG Annual Meeting is scheduled to be held on April 11, in conjunction with the Texas Cotton Ginners Annual Convention and Trade Show, in Lubbock.

Texas farmers attend convention

Joe Rankin of Ralls, President of Texas Farmers Union, attended the 89th anniversary convention of the National Farmers Union (NFU) held in Philadelphia, March 3-6, 1991.

Other Texas Farmers Union representatives and delegates to the NFU convention were Bob Girard, Waco; Norbert Schlegel, Shamrock; Mr. and Mrs. H.R. Pruett, Decatur; A.J. Priesmeyer, El Campo; Dale Laminack, Ralls; and Freeland Rea, Troy.

Delegates to the NFU convention called for both legislative and administrative changes to the 1990 farm law to improve farm income for the nation's family farmers. The convention urged that commodity loan rates be increased for wheat and feedgrains and the price support levels be improved for milk, cotton, rice and oilseeds.

The Farmers Union members are asking the new Secretary of Agriculture to use the authority given to him by the 1990 farm law to improve farm prices. The farm organization is also asking Congress to amend the 1990 farm law to correct the inadequacies of that law.

During the convention, state organizations delivered nearly 40,000 signatures which were then taken to Washington, D.C. and presented to the chairmen of the Senate and House Agriculture Committees and to the White House. The farm organization collected over a thousand signatures per day during the petition drive.

National Farmers Union President Lee Swenson announced the farm group would continue to find ways to call attention to the deepening economic crisis in rural America. He promised the convention the organization would continue to pursue farm program improvements until the nation pays attention to the misdirected and mismanaged policies that are destroying rural America and family farm agriculture.

The NFU convention adopted an extensive program of policy and action for the coming year. The 160-page document sets the objectives and guidelines for the farm organization's positions for the coming year.

In addition, the farm group adopted special orders of business calling for reopening the 1990 farm law, repealing the fast-track approval system for trade agreements, establishing an inventory-management system for dairy producers, and funding for the Green Thumb program.

Over 700 individuals were in attendance at the farm group's convention. In addition to the convention activities, the farm organization held two nickel-a-loaf bread give-aways in downtown Philadelphia to illustrate the farmer's share of the food dollar to consumers. A similar demonstration was held in Washington, D.C. in conjunction with the delivery of the Petition for Rural America.

Marketing workshop set

By C. Mark Brown
Extension Agent-Ento. (PM)
Crosby/Floyd Counties

A three-county marketing workshop has been scheduled for April 2-3 by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The intensive, two-day training will be held at Lighthouse Electric Cooperative from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. each day.

Producers from Crosby, Floyd, and Briscoe counties are invited to participate. A registration fee of $50 will include two meals, as well as training materials. Participants must pre-register so that catering arrangements may be made.

Extension economics specialists will discuss marketing options for commodities such as cotton, grains, and livestock. For further details concerning this workshop, contact your local county Extension office or contact Jackie Smith, Extension economist at the Texas A&M University Center at Lubbock (806-746-6101).

Permethrin exemption issued for winter wheat

A Section 18 crisis exemption was issued by the Texas Department of Agriculture on February 18 to allow the use of permethrin (sold as Ambush and Pounce) to control army cutworms in wheat. The original notice stated that wheat treated with permethrin could not be grazed. However, on March 6, 1991, the Environmental Protection Agency amended the grazing restriction to read: "Grazing of permethrin treated winter wheat by domestic livestock is authorized to begin seven (7) days after the latest application of permethrin products." All other provisions and restrictions listed in the February 18 notice still remain in effect.

References made to trade names is for educational purposes only, and is made with the understanding that no discrimination is intended and no endorsement is implied. For further information contact your local Extension Service office.

WANTED

City Swimming Pool operator for summer program. See Gary Brown, City Manager at the City Office, 114 W. Virginia St., Floydada, TX.

3-21c

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids addressed to the Cities of Childress and Floydada, Texas will be received at the City Hall in Childress until 2:00 p.m. April 2, 1991 and then publicly opened and read for furnishing all plant, labor, material and equipment, and performing all work required for Seal Coating, marking, fencing, and miscellaneous work at the Municipal Airports.

Bids shall be submitted in sealed envelopes upon the blank form of the proposal attached hereto and marked in the upper left hand corner.

All proposals shall be accompanied by a cashier's check or certified check upon a national or state bank in the amount of five (5%) percent of the total maximum bid price payable without recourse to the City or a bid bond in the same amount from a reliable surety company, as a guarantee that bidder will enter into a contract and execute performance bond within fifteen days after notice of award of contract to him. The bid security must be enclosed in the same envelope with the bid. Bids without check or bid bond will not be considered.

The successful bidder must furnish performance and payment bonds upon the forms which are attached hereto in the amount of 100% of the contract price from an approved surety company holding a permit from the state of Texas to act as surety or other surety or sureties acceptable to the Owner.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids and to waive any informality in bids received.

Seal Coating is not to begin before May 1, 1991.

Plans, specifications and bidding documents may be obtained at the office of McMorris & Associates, Inc., 6300 Canyon Drive, Amarillo, Texas 79109, upon deposit of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per set which sum so deposited will be refunded to all general bidders.
