A view from The Lamplighter

Oh dear. Sen. Carriker just doesn't know when to leave well enough alone.

Faithful readers of these deathless columns will remember that the last time we visited this subject, we said that as far as we were concerned the matter of his blocking our nomination to the Texas Judicial Council was over and done with, that we had no wish to prolong the story.

Really, while we would have been happy to serve on the Council, and while we felt we might have something to offer to the Council's deliberations, it was no great big deal. About the only power the Council really has is to make recommendations and reports to the Legislature and the people of Texas, and everyone knows how much weight recommendations to the legislature carries, unless, that is, the People weigh in.

But the good Senator is back in action. Evidently stung by the reaction to his original comments, in which he said the reason he blocked the nomination was that he was no longer a journalist, and that we were merely a newspaper owner and the position called for a journalist (and all that), he has been fogging out a new and different explanation to capitol reporters. His new story is that he decided to oppose our nomination after receiving complaints from Floydada people about outrageous things we have written (The Houston Post of Sunday, June 16) about Governor Ann Richards. Carriker says he got "excerpts" from some of the columns and showed them to other Senators. He implies that the other Senators were appalled, shocked. He ignores the fact that the Senate's own nominating committee unanimously recommended confirmation.

He goes on... "He assails Gov. (Ann) Richards as a 'drunk' and makes dark and unseemly insinuations about her divorce. He even went so far in one column as to characterize the governor as kissing a homosexual 'smack on the lips', a fiction calculated to offend the sensitivities of a rural paper's readership."

Well now. The Senator must have been hurting. Either that or he has certain problems, like being uninformed, or not recognizing the truth when he sees it, or spreading untruths when it serves his interest. The event described in the column Mr. Carriker complains about took place exactly as we described it. When Carriker says our report was "fiction" he is simply wrong. Anyone who doubts this may call Rep. Glenn Maxey and ask him. He's the guy who got kissed, in front of television cameras and a large crowd, which obviously did not include Mr. Carriker. We don't know Mr. Maxey, but we take him to be an honest man, a man of some courage, and we believe he will verify what we said. He may wish we had written it a little different, but we don't believe he will quarrel with the facts.

Now about the business of "assailing" the Governor as a drunk. I do not believe we have ever said the Governor is a drunk. We have said, probably, that at one period of her life she was a drunk. The Governor readily admits that at one period in her life she had problems with alcohol, that she was an alcoholic, and is now a recovering alcoholic. More power to her. In that respect we are proud of her. In fact, very proud of her. We've lived a long time, but we've never seen someone become an alcoholic without occasionally getting drunk. It is quite possible for one to

Community wide reception planned to welcome doctor

By Alice Gilroy

Floydada will be hosting a community wide reception for Dr. Michael France, on Friday, June 28, at Lighthouse Electric. The reception which has been planned through the joint efforts of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce, Methodist Hospital, and the citizens group "Friends of the Caprock", will be held from 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m.

Everyone is urged to come out and meet Dr. France, who is being shown the hospital and the city of Floydada in the hopes he will decide to bring his family practice here.

Dr. France, 33, and single, currently has a family practice in Beaumont. He also practiced family medicine for two years in Walden, Colorado.

He has served as assistant instructor of Histology at the University of Colorado School of Medicine and has also been a clinical instructor of family medicine at Southern Illinois University.

He graduated from the University of Colorado School of Medicine in 1984 and took his residency at Southern Illinois University in Decatur, Illinois from 1985-1988.

He is licensed to practice in both Colorado and Texas.

Many activities have been planned for

Dr. France while he is in town. Besides the community wide reception France will be entertained with an afternoon of golf, a private dinner with civic leaders in the home of a Floydada citizen, and an overnight stay in Floydada's new bed & breakfast, The Lamplighter Inn.

The community is urged to come to the reception at Lighthouse and show France that he would be supported if he chose to bring his practice here.

A similar type reception and festivities are being planned for another doctor's visit on July 14. Details will be published at a later date concerning this event.

FLOYDADA POST OFFICE ANNOUNCES NEW HOURS

Floydada Postmaster Tommy Rice has announced new window service hours and dispatch times for the Floydada Post Office. The changes will be effective as of July 1, 1991.

"Due to changes in scheduling for the trucks which pick up the mail in Floydada, we have had to make changes in our window service hours and the times of our mail dispatches," said Rice. "We regret the inconvenience it may cause anyone and hope that everyone will understand the necessity of the change."

New window service hours will be from 9:00 A.M. until 4:30 P.M. Monday through Friday. The last dispatch each day for outgoing mail will be at 4:45 P.M.

According to Rice, "There will be no trucks after this time each day. Any mail needing to meet outgoing dispatches needs to be deposited inside the post office or in the drop boxes outside the office by this time."

FNB Lockney and Floydada Branch receive high honors

The First National Bank in Lockney and the Floydada Branch received a rating of "outstanding" from National bank examiners. The examination, conducted May 23, 1991 by the office of the Comptroller of the Currency, was to evaluate the performance of the bank in regard to the Community Reinvestment Act and not the financial condition of the bank.

The Community Reinvestment Act of 1977 encourages financial institutions to meet the credit needs of the entire community including the low and moderate income neighborhoods. To receive the outstanding rating, it is required that the lending institution meet the credit needs of the community consistent with safe and sound operations of the institution. For an institution to receive an outstanding rating, the examining force must determine that the institution has an outstanding record of, and is a leader in helping to meet the credit needs of the entire community, in a manner consistent with its resources and capabilities.

First National Bank president, Ronnie Hardin, gives credit for this rating to current ownership, directors, officers, and employees of the bank. Hardin also indicated that it is unusual for a bank to have the community involvement and documentation required to receive a CRA rating of Outstanding. Chairman of the Board, Jim Doucette, stated that management and employees are aware of the fact that, "We owe the success of our bank to the community. The community has made it possible for us to be a sound financial institution; therefore, we have committed ourselves to support the community."

The Community Reinvestment Act Performance Evaluation report is available for review by the public. Hardin extends an invitation to those who may be interested in reviewing the report to contact an officer of the bank.

Floyd County Education District holds first meeting

By Juanita Stepp

The first session of the Floyd County Education District Board of Trustees was held on Monday, June 24 at 8:00 A.M. in the board room of the Floydada Independent School District at 226 W. California in Floydada.

Each appointed trustee took the oath of office and was sworn in by Floyd County Judge Bill Hardin. Serving on the board will be Dickie Lambert and Jim Bob Martin from Lockney Independent School District. Michael Hinsley and Charlene Brown will be representing Fisd. Signed Oaths of Office were notarized by Darlynn Hambright and will be recorded with the necessary state agencies.

The first order of business was the election of officers. Hinsley was chosen for the position of County Education District (CED) chairperson. Martin was selected as the vice-chairman and Brown will serve as the recording secretary.

Next on the agenda was a brief discussion of the responsibilities of the entity. The main objective of the CED is to set the countywide tax rate each year. Under the state law mandating the formation of a CED, the entity carries the same authority as the local taxing districts.

ELECTION SLATED AUGUST 10

The board unanimously adopted a resolution calling for an election on August 10, 1991. There will be two items on the ballot from the CED ballot concerning homestead exemptions and taxation of non-income producing personal property.

Absentee voting for the CED will begin on July 22 and end on August 6. Any eligible registered voter in Floyd County may vote absentee in the election by going to the County Clerk's Office in the County Courthouse at Floydada during regular business hours throughout that time period. County Clerk Margaret Collier will serve as the absentee election judge.

The CED will seek permission from the Justice Department to combine voting boxes with Floyd County. This would allow voters to cast ballots at the same location in both the County Election on two constitutional amendments concerning taxation and student loan bonds and the CED election on the two tax items. There will be two ballots, one for the county election and one for the CED election.

OTHER MATTERS

Among other matters discussed at the initial session were the traditional discounts for early payment of taxes. The CED will offer the same discounts that have been offered by the local school districts. Payment in October would result in a 3 percent discount, November payments would receive a 2 percent discount and December payments would get a 1 percent discount. This action came on a motion by Brown with a second by Lambert and a unanimous vote in favor by the board.

Board members of the CED set a projected tax collection rate of 94 percent for budget making purposes. This is the average amount of taxes collected without becoming delinquent. When delinquent taxes are added along with penalties and interest, collections are virtually 100 percent according to county tax appraiser Shiela Faulkenberry.

Faulkenberry was present at the session to discuss the possibility of the Floyd County Central Tax Appraisal District handling the appraisal of property and the billing and collection of taxes for the CED. This would be done

By The Way

By Alice Gilroy

I want to thank all the hardy souls that showed up on Saturday to "clean up Floydada." It was very hot and I'm sure they were very tired by the end of the day.

I couldn't believe as some of the tasks they undertook. You could barely see them in some of the lots they were supposed to clean up. I thought they would need some tractors, but they went after it anyway.

I was hoping that when people saw these industrious citizens out there chopping and mowing lots that didn't belong to them, that the owners will be shamed into cleaning them up.

Betty Marquis, the chamber manager, said that about 25 people showed up to help. That is quite a lot of people. I was very impressed.

I was also impressed that Methodist Hospital had three men out to help clean up the hospital and clinic lawns.

Simpson Trees donated some real pretty flowers to help spruce up the area around the hospital sign. It sure helped. The Hesperian-Beacon is also going to donate a tree to the hospital to spruce up the landscaping. Maybe we can start a trend.

Don't leave the county for the 4th. We are going to have fun on the Pay-N-Save parking lot in Floydada. There will be a street dance, free food and cartoon characters for the kids. Most important will be the ceremony to honor the Desert Storm veterans and their families at 9:00 a.m. Come on out and make them feel appreciated!

Oh and by the way—in case you were wondering—the country club will not have a fireworks display this year.

I'm here to dispel a nasty rumor going around town.

Perry's is not going to close! Thank Goodness!

But I was told by a clerk that if it wasn't for the business they got from the towns that surround Floydada, Perry's would close. She said, "If we had to depend on the support of just this town we wouldn't make it."

That's kinda sad—don't you think?

If you hadn't planted your pumpkin seeds for your kids, you better get it done this week! You've made it to the deadline, don't wait any more.

I'm excited about this doctor coming to visit Floydada this Friday, and about the second doctor coming to visit in July.

Everybody needs to understand though, that this does not necessarily mean the doctor will decide to stay.

It also doesn't mean the Caprock Hospital board will decide to ask him to stay.

It just means he is coming to look us over and we will look him over.

I've been told that the receptions and other activities are just being planned to make him feel welcome. The people hosting these events do not have a say-so in the hiring of the doctor.

The board of directors want to make sure that the "right kind" of doctor comes to our community. He won't want to come and live somewhere where he doesn't feel welcome and we of course want to be appreciated by him too.

Anyway—come to the reception, at Lighthouse, on Friday and make him welcome.

occasionally get drunk without becoming an alcoholic. But it is very difficult to become an alcoholic without getting drunk quite often along the way to becoming an alcoholic. Mr. Carriker, being from Roby, may not understand that phenomenon, but if he stays around Austin long enough he will.

Mr. Carriker in his missives to reporters, said a lot of other things as well, which we will ignore in the interest of space. But one interesting aspect of this whole thing is that one of the reporters, having received the Senator's revised version, called to say he couldn't really figure out whose side Carriker was on. The way that particular reporter saw it, Carriker was now claiming to be doing all this to defend the governor. But how can it help the governor? She's got problems of her own, without taking on Carriker's burdens. With friends like that, who needs enemies.

Generally speaking a statehouse politician who is short on backbone must be long on smarts to survive for long. Sometimes they have both, backbone and smarts. Sometimes they have neither.

Oh well. Onward and upward, gentle reader.

By the way, where does someone from Roby get off casting aspersions—as in "calculated to offend the sensitivities of a rural paper's readership." Please be advised, Senator, that people in rural communities are aware of what goes on in the world beyond their own community. They are not exactly backward, despite the way they may be treated sometimes, by some people.

And we're still ready to drop the matter, anytime the Senator is.

Doctor makes plans to come to Lockney

The Lockney General Hospital Board met in regular session on June 18th and heard an update on the doctor who has verbally committed to coming to Lockney and joining those already on the staff.

Dr. Kevin Stewart is completing his residency in family medicine at John Peter Smith Hospital in Fort Worth. The board and Stewart are finalizing a written agreement and he anticipates his arrival in Lockney will be around the last of November. A formal announcement will be made at a later date.

The board approved the purchase of a new computer and software that will meet the hospital and clinic accounting and billing needs. The board had heard recommendations from several systems and had narrowed their choice down to two. After some discussion Hubert Frizzell made the motion and it was seconded by Ronnie Hardin to purchase the Phoenix system. The board voted in favor of the purchase.

Discussion was held on sponsoring an LVN through the Registered Nurse Program. Sheila McMurtrey had expressed an interest in the program and they agreed that she would be a good candidate and the board voted to sponsor her. The motion was made by Jerry Johnson and seconded by Hubert Frizzell. She will continue to work at the hospital during her studies and after she has received her degree.

It was reported that the "send out lab work" is done by National Health Labs in Dallas and that the lab has installed a phone line and computer printer at the hospital so that test results automatically print out as they are completed on the equipment in Dallas.

The board reviewed the executive committee minutes, statistical reports, financial and comparative statements, budget and cost analysis reports, accounts receivable and accounts payable reports. After discussion a motion was made by Les Ferguson and seconded by

Lockney banker aids man injured in boating accident

By Jim Reynolds

An Amarillo man who is two months shy of his 19th birthday "may lose his left foot" as the result of a Sunday afternoon boating accident at Mackenzie Lake. The victim, Joel Luther, also sustained two broken legs and lacerations.

He is receiving medical attention in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. Luther and a companion were floating on an air mattress "out in the middle of the lake about 3 o'clock" when they were struck by a boat, according to Game Warden Julius Stevens.

"The people in the boat (driven by a Plainview man) said they didn't see the boys" and Luther's companion claimed he did not spot the approaching craft, Stevens said.

The driver told the Tulia Game Warden that he "didn't know he hit anybody." His boat died and he found the air mattress in the prop. It was then that he spotted the two Amarillo lads in the water.

Stevens said the impact apparently threw Luther on top of his companion which caused him to be struck by the prop. Both "went completely under the boat," Stevens was told by the other lad, who sustained bruises but no cuts.

Luther's greatest injuries were "between his left knee and ankle." Apparently there were no eye witnesses to the accident. "Some people heard it, but nobody saw it."

A Lockney banker, Dub Dipprey, drove his boat to the injured men. "They held on to the side of his boat, and he took them over to shore, on the beach,"

Albert Scheele receives honors as Republican Volunteer of the Year

Albert Scheele, Floyd County Chairman of the Republican Party for nine years, has been named Republican Volunteer of the Year for Senatorial District #30, by the Republican Party of Texas Chairman, Fred Meyer.

Honored at a luncheon in Austin, at a quarterly meeting of the State Republican Executive Chairman, June 8, Scheele was named the Floyd County Volunteer of the Year 1990 and was also recognized for his service to the State of Texas and the Republican Party as the Republican Volunteer of the Year for Senate District #30.

As the county chairman from 1981-1990, Scheele was responsible for setting up the county's primary. While chairman, the participation in the Republican primary more than doubled in Floyd County.

"Volunteers are the not-so-secret weapons in all of our successful campaigns, and the Republican Party traditionally relies on tens of thousands of volunteers throughout the state in every election year," Chairman Meyer said.

"The fact that the Republican Party is able to count on many willing and dedicated volunteer makes being selected as volunteer of the year an even more significant honor," said Meyer.

"Selecting only one volunteer of the year is a most difficult decision," said Jacques Allen, a State Republican Executive Committee member. "But the time and dedication given by Scheele stood out."

"The Republican Party believes that people power can match the power of the big-money special interest groups, and this is one way that we can reward the people who mean so much to our candidates and the Republican Party," said Meyer.

Scheele and the volunteers of the year in each of Texas' 31 senatorial districts were honored at the luncheon.

"We were allowed to observe the morning and afternoon session of the executive committee," said Scheele. "The most interesting thing to me was the discussion about the re-districting. The new districts look like an outline of a Chinese dragon or a turkey. It's done for political reasons and not democracy. It's done to preserve incumbents and it's not good government. It will very likely be challenged all the way to the supreme court. The ethnic groups will also challenge it because of their lack of representation."

Scheele has been farming in the Providence community since 1946. He is now living in the same home in which he was born, Dec. 30, 1923.

Scheele served in the Merchant Marines during WWII, enlisting in 1944. Working in the engine rooms of oil tankers, Scheele was a fireman, oiler and water tanker. After 18 months of duty and the war ended, Scheele returned to Providence to farm.

He has been married to his wife, Oter since May 26, 1944. They have six children: Linda Stutts, of Brenham; Davi Scheele, of Midland; Dian McCormick, of Galveston; Rebecca Duckworth, of Longmont, Colorado; Lisa Peckenpaugh, of Farnsworth; and Ralph Scheele of Rockwell. Albert and Oter also have 13 grandchildren.

Scheele has also served on the Texas Grain Sorghum Board (West Texas Region) for 12 years. He is the chairman of the congregation and church council of the Trinity Lutheran Church and is also active in a barbershop quartet, "The Provisionals," of which he sings harmony.

President Bush nominates federal judge for local judicial districts

President Bush has formally nominated state District Judge Jorge Solis of Abilene as a federal judge for the sprawling, 100-county judicial district that serves most of North and West Texas, including Floyd County.

Solis, currently the judge of the 350th state district court in Abilene, has also served as a district attorney and a prosecutor specializing in anti-drug work.

"Judge Solis' legendary legal talent, experience and commitment to battling drugs will make an outstanding federal judge," said U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm, who originally recommended Solis for the post last year.

The President's nomination now requires confirmation by a vote of the full U.S. Senate.

Solis earned his law degree in 1976 from the University of Texas Law School.

Solis and his wife, Rebecca, have three children.

Residents celebrate June birthdays

By Lorilla Bradley
June the "month of roses"
And happy summer ways...
It's just the time for parties, so
We'll celebrate some days!

Our Mrs. Jura Roberts
...Her years are 92...
Can tell so many stories
Of things she used to do!

To Mrs. Faulkenberry
...She's counting 84...
We wish her happy birthday
Like those she's had before!

We salute our Mr. Taylor
...Who counts from 1905...
He loves a birthday party
For fun he'll always strive.

Mrs. Ellen Galloway
...Is a lady we all know...
For years she's boasting 91
And still she's on the go!

Let's do the same old greeting
...The Happy Birthday song...
So join us in the singing
And come out good and strong.

Edwards and Morren say nuptials

First Baptist Church of Tulia was site for the evening ceremony uniting Angela Dawn Edwards and Robert Wayne Morren, both of Tulia, on Saturday, June 22. Bro. Charles Davenport, pastor, officiated the exchange of nuptials.

The couple recited their vows as they stood before an altar adorned with two heart shaped brass candelabras, two spiral brass candelabras, both decorated with greenery, and arrangements of fuchsia, purple and white gladiolas. Brass candle markers with bows marked the pews leading to the altar.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Dave Edwards of Tulia and Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Morren of Floydada.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal off-the-shoulder gown of white matte satin. The fitted bodice was accented with hand beaded and iridescent sequins, a princess line sweetheart bodice featured extended illusion and lace Sabrina neckline. Multi-puff satin sleeves separated by beaded lace insets extended to full length Renaissance sleeves of illusion and lace. The satin skirt fell from a basque waistline to form a full cathedral length train enhanced by handbeaded illusion and lace insets with multi-satin ruffles. The entire gown was accented with embellished lace motifs handbeaded by the bride's mother.

Her headpiece was of double layers of illusion featuring a self ruffle attached to a double braid band of satin, forming self fabric flowers trimmed with pearls, clear beads and iridescent sequins, attached to sprays of clear beads that framed the side of her face.

Her cascading bouquet was designed with magnolias, roses, ruffled edged lillies, orange blossoms and English ivy accented with sprays of lily of the valley and pearls, gracefully flowing to the floor with delicate ribbons and roses.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Michael Smith of Camas, Wash. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Penne King of Tulia, Mrs. Lezley Stephens of Blanchard, Okla., Mrs. Micki Woodman of Dumas, Sharie Taves of Lubbock and Karri Damron of Tulia.

Lindsy Bales of Lubbock was flower girl.

Bridal attendants wore floor length dresses of purple matte satin fashioned with flared skirts with back tiered ruffles. The close fitted bodices featured a sweetheart neckline with a low cut back and above the elbow puffed sleeves. They carried bouquets of long stemmed fuchsia bougainvillea and purple delphinium laced with green ivy accented with large white satin bows.

Candlelighters were Kandi Keltz of Roaring Springs and Nadine Juvenal of Tulia. Train bearer was Jordan King of Tulia.

Acting as best was brother of the groom, David Morren of Lubbock. Groomsmen were Patrick Lloyd of Lubbock, Robert Pratt of Lubbock, Randy Hutchins of Corsicana, Jim Burks of Bastrop and Clay Rosenbaum of Luling. Jeff Pair of Tulia was ring bearer.

Scott Edwards of Tulia, Bruce McCain of Alvin, Texas, and David Carr of Plano seated guests.

Musical selections during the ceremony were presented by organist, Mrs. Sue George of Tulia. A trumpet solo was played by Cody Myers of Dumas and a duet was vocalized by Penny and Kelly Keltz of Roaring Springs. Soloists were Scott Edwards of Tulia, Greg Manius of New Castle, Okla., and Brad Holmes of Tulia.

A garden reception followed the ceremony at Single Tree Country. Assistants for the reception were Jean Petty, Vonda Kiker, Yvonne Nevins, Freida Altman, Linda Bradley, Cindy McDowell, Wynelle Roberts, Orvilla Tucker, Pat Evans and Joyce Childers.

Guests were registered by Missy Evans.

A lighted pathway, accented with bows, led guests to the reception area. The yard was adorned with beautiful plants, flowers and bows. The multi-tiered traditional white cake was the centerpiece on the bride's table. It was decorated with fresh purple iris and fuschia astroemeria around a white Victorian bird's cage with two white doves tying a bow of purple French silk ribbon. Other flowers floated in crystal dishes around the cake.

The groom's table was highlighted with a football shaped red velvet cake surrounded with greenery. A silver coffee service was accented by ivy in a footed silver vase.

A beautiful fruit cascade was the centerpiece for the hors d'oeuvres table. Shaved ham and ruffle lettuce in heart biscuits were surrounded with colorful fresh vegetables. A leafy, red cabbage served as an unusual container for cream dip. Chick puffs and a spherical collection of hors d'oeuvre kabobs were also served. A separate table hosted punch served from a silver punch service. Displayed with a spotlight was a bridal portrait.

Amy Scott, Greg Manius, Scott Edwards, Cody and Starla Myers entertained at the reception.

Following a wedding trip to Santa Fe, New Mexico, the couple is residing in Tulia.

The bride is a 1984 graduate of Tulia High School and graduated Magna Cum Laude from Wayland Baptist University in 1988. She is a member of Alpha Chi National Honor Fraternity, Omega Phi Alpha National Service Sorority, and International Association of Personnel in Employment Security. She is employed by Texas Employment Commission in Plainview.

The groom is a 1984 graduate of Floydada High School and was graduated from Texas Tech University in 1987. He is a teacher and coach with the Tulia Independent School District.

PRE-NUPTIAL COURTESIES

Pre-nuptial courtesies extended to the couple included the rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom's parents, in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church in Tulia.

A bridal brunch in the yard of the bride's parents was hosted by aunts of the bride, Mrs. Margaret Barnhill and Mrs. Colleen Scott.

A miscellaneous shower in Tulia was held in the home of Mrs. Pat George. In Floydada, the home of Mrs. Al Galloway was the site for a bridal shower.

A couple's grocery shower was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tim King of Tulia and a welcome aboard outing was hosted by the Tulia ISD coaches' wives.

Bond Chair funded at Hardin-Simmons

Hardin-Simmons University has established the W.D. and Hollis R. Bond Chair of English as a result of a half million dollar gift to the university from a late donor who was "a champion of correct English—spoken and written."

Dr. Lanny Hall, president, said the chair has been funded from the estate of the late Mrs. Bond, Hollis Bond of Floydada. She left $500,000 in her will to HSU to begin the chair in English, Hall said. "We are deeply appreciative of the gift from the late Mrs. Bond, honoring the memory of her husband and her brother-in-law, 'Prof' Bond, whose influence spanned four decades on the Forty Acres," said Hall. "This gift represents a wonderful expression of love for Hardin-Simmons and will be used to endow the academic program of the university."

Richard M. Styles, senior vice president for advancement, added, "Mrs. Bond was an articulate and well read person who greatly enjoyed reading. She and her husband collected an impressive library during their lifetimes and she enjoyed showing it to visitors. "Some select books from their library were given to Hardin-Simmons University before her death. She was a champion of correct English—spoken and written. It is fitting that the bulk of her estate be used to further the teaching of English."

In 1986 Mrs. Bond committed funds to establish the chair in honor of her late husband and his brother, the late Professor W.D. Bond, who taught English at HSU for nearly 40 years. Mrs. Bond, the former Kathryn Gardner, died last year in San Angelo.

The late Hollis Bond was a farmer and businessman who lived in Floydada. President Hall said that a professor in the English department will be selected in the near future to occupy the newly created chair.

Pitts appointed to Caprock Hospital Board post

The board discussed the future formation of an ambulance committee which will be comprised of representatives from the county, city and hospital district. Assiter was selected to represent the hospital district on this committee.

May's financial statement accounts receivable and accounts payable reports were reviewed by the board. The accounts receivable report reflected a current level of $155,849.87.

An amended operating budget including ambulance operations was presented to the Board by the administrator.

"This budget represented a reduction in ambulance expense of $17,520.00 annually. Jerry Thompson made a motion, seconded by Joy Assiter, to adopt the amended budget as presented. The motion carried.

Ron Rives from Methodist Hospital presented to the Board the addendum to the Methodist Hospital Affiliation agreement. After going over the addendum and a brief discussion, Joy Assiter made the motion and Jim Word seconded that the addendum be added to the original affiliation agreement.

The addendum reads as follows: "Lubbock Methodist Hospital System (Hereinafter referred to as "System") resources shall be available to Caprock Hospital District (Hereinafter referred to as "Hospital") to assist in the recruitment of physicians. This assistance can include a physician needs assessment which includes interviewing the current medical staff to determine the need for and support of additional physicians in the Floydada community. When directed by the Board and Medical Staff, System will pay for the recruitment fee and income guarantee up to $150,000 for the first year for two (2) physicians."

The Cogdell Clinic roof damage and repair was discussed. The cost of repair of the roof (which was damaged in the June 5 and June 10 storms) totaled $2,100.00. Estimates are being obtained for replacement of the insulation, ceiling tiles, carpet and wallpaper.

Bids were presented on the extermination of termites from the clinic. Five companies were called to give bids with only four submitting estimated costs. Terminix gave an estimate of $3,000.00; Orkin, $2,165.00; Care Pest Control, $2,019.50; and Texas Exterminating $1,982.40. A motion by Jim Word and seconded by Jerry Thompson was made to accept the Texas Exterminating service. The motion carried unanimously.

The board also unanimously agreed to engage Durbin & Co., CPA firm from Lubbock to prepare a closing cost report and an audit compilation.

The board authorized the administrator to reimburse travel and lodging expenses of Joy Assiter for her trip to Austin. This trip was in regard to HB 2855 which was before the Senate Committee.

Terry Keltz, hospital administrator, reported that a prolonged search for someone to purchase the pharmacy inventory has resulted in minimal success. The only pending offer for the inventory is from Tom Aday, R.Ph., retail pharmacist from Plainview, for $4,000.00.

Following a brief discussion, the Board agreed to accept Mr. Aday's offer of $4,000 for the inventory. Approximately $6,600.00 in pharmacy inventory has been returned to FoxMeyer for credit.

Ron Rives presented plans for bringing prospective physicians to Floydada next week. Tentative plans call for two physicians to visit the hospital and clinic on Wednesday, June 26.

Michael France, M.D. is scheduled to visit the hospital facilities and city on Friday, June 28. Mr. Rives is coordinating with the board and citizen committees regarding these visits.

The board discussed a concern which Jim Word had previously expressed regarding his position on the Board of Directors of the hospital and appraisal district review board.

Fred Thayer reported that the Secretary of State's office in Austin had been contacted regarding this issue as well as

Letters to The Editor

June 14, 1991
Dear Editor:
Last week a letter appeared in the Floyd County Hesperian-Beacon critical of me and the Texas Senate in failing to confirm one of Governor Clements' lame duck appointments, a Mr. Ken Towery of Austin. It is the duty of the Senate under the Constitution to "advise and consent" in gubernatorial appointments.

The position for which Mr. Towery had been nominated is one specifically set aside for a "journalist", which Mr. Towery certainly was at one time in the past. Long ago, however, he crossed the line from objective journalism to become a crusader for his own political agenda through negative propaganda.

My only action in regard to his consideration before the Senate was to ask for a postponement in order to reproduce and distribute to the Senators excerpts from recent columns he had written in the Floydada Hesperian which he owns.

His writing, far from being objective journalism or even editorial advocacy, is blatant character assassination in the style of a tabloid tattle sheet. He assails Governor Richards as a "drunk" and makes dark and unseemly intimations about her divorce. He even went so far in one column as to characterize the Governor as kissing a homosexual "smack on the lips!", a fiction calculated to offend the sensitivities of a rural paper's readership.

After reviewing Mr. Towery's current "journalistic" endeavors, no member of the Senate chose to make the routine motion to confirm his nomination. The Senate concluded the position could be better filled.

The Constitution worked.
Sincerely,
/s/ Steven A. Carriker
State Senator

Dear Editor-
What happened back then that makes us do what we do now? What do we need to do now to make things happen later? These are two questions that have been running through my mind for the past four or five years. Since I have been back to Floydada to run the store, I have seen some disturbing events. The railroad lines, bus lines, and freight office are all but gone. A general downturn in the local economy has driven farmers into bankruptcy and many retail businesses have dwindled to eventual sell-out or auction. Furr's pulled out of town. The hospital closed and all the doctors left. Taxes and insurance rates have consequently skyrocketed. Are these things happening now because of things we did years back, or is it just the pendulum of life swinging to one extreme?

Daddy used to tell me of times here when he was a young boy. His father, grandfather, and uncle all made a living for their families out of this one store. Floydada was a busy little town with many people shopping and visiting with many and various businesses around town. Sixteen grocery stores, eight lumber and hardware stores, eight dry good stores, four drug stores, three walk in movie theatres, and a service station on nearly every corner.

But I don't have to go back that far. I can remember in the sixties when I was a boy. Riding in the back seat of the car while mama would drive around the block once or twice to get a parking space. I remember eight grocery stores and a meat market. There were three big dry good stores, four drug stores, two jewelry stores, two lumber yards, two hardware stores, three furniture stores, and I don't remember ever seeing a vacant service station. Saturday was payday and the biggest business day of the week. You could spend some of that paycheck on two walk in theatres or the drive-in theatre or the bowling alley.

Now as I sit here listening to the crickets chirping, I notice the vacant buildings around town. The only days of the year its hard to get a parking space are Old Settlers and Punkin Day. We have one grocery store and two convenience stores, no jewelry stores. There are still two lumber yards and two hardware stores. (Hmmm.) Only one furniture store and six service stations remain. I don't count the convenience stores that sell gasoline. Most of these businesses either close all day or half a day on Saturday, which now is the slowest day of the week. You can spend what's left of your paycheck after taxes and insurance on the drive-in theatre or rent a video.

WHAT HAPPENED?!
Is Floydada shrinking because the people are not being offered as much here or is it because the people are not offering as much to Floydada? Have we gotten so affluent that we actually "live" in Lubbock and Plainview but only come to Floydada for a good nights rest at home? Have we gotten so poverty stricken that we can't afford to live or work here anymore? Have the technological advances of the twentieth century caused this dilemma? Seems like people had a lot more to do before television was invented. Are the increasing government budgets the culprit? Seems like the town was a lot busier when the state sales tax was only 2%. What did we all do back when that caused our situation now?

Is there something we all can do to change Floydada for the better? I like to read these "Letters to the Editor" so if any of you reading this letter has a more thought-out analysis of why these things have happened to Floydada or a simple solution to our problems, please write. I personally would like to see others viewpoint.

Floyd County Education District meets under contract just as it is with the other taxing entities in Floyd County. Board approval of this was unanimous.

The board also approved seeking bids for a financial depository institution. As a taxing entity, the CED will have funds coming in to be distributed to the local school districts. They must have a designated depository institution to hold these funds.

Under the rules set up by the state in creating the CED's, regularly scheduled meetings are not required. A CED only has to meet when necessary. The Floyd County CED board therefore scheduled the next session for August 13 at 8:00 P.M. The meeting will be held in the FID board room and will be for the purpose of canvassing the votes from the August 10 election.

Attending the first meeting of the CED were school superintendents Dub Hallmark and Jerry Cannon, board members Michael Hinsley, Charlene Brown, Dickie Lambert and Jim Bob Hambright, Shiela Faulkenberry, Arlene Bearden, Jimmie Collins, Darlynn Hambright and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

"This budget represented a reduction in ambulance expense of $17,520.00 annually. Jerry Thompson made a motion, seconded by Joy Assiter, to adopt the amended budget as presented. The motion carried.

Ron Rives from Methodist Hospital presented to the Board the addendum to the Methodist Hospital Affiliation agreement. After going over the addendum and a brief discussion, Joy Assiter made the motion and Jim Word seconded that the addendum be added to the original affiliation agreement.

The board discussed a concern which Jim Word had previously expressed regarding his position on the Board of Directors of the hospital and appraisal district review board.

Fred Thayer reported that the Secretary of State's office in Austin had been contacted regarding this issue as well as the Attorney General's office. Previous opinions similar to this issue were obtained and reviewed.

Following consultation with these offices and in consideration to the common law doctrine of incompatibility, it is felt that an incompatible position may exist. Mr. Word reported that he plans to resign his position on the appraisal district review board in view of the possible conflict.

The following offers were presented for property acquired by the taxing entities by Sheriff's sale:

1. Lot 1, Block 57, Original Town and Lot 9, Block 55, Original Town, at the corner of Virginia Street and Eleventh Street, from Rudy Camacho, 214 W. Tennessee, Floydada, for $250.00 each, totalling $500.00.

2. Lot 1, Block 35, Original Town and Lot 3, Block 35, Original Town, at the corner of East Lee Street and Eleventh Street, from Tommy Collins, PO Box 24, Floydada, for $200.00, totalling $400.00.

A motion by Joy Assiter and seconded by Fred Thayer duly carried approving the two property requests contingent upon payment of hospital bills owed by these persons.

Present at the board meeting were: Fred Thayer, Joy Assiter, Jerry Thompson, Jim Word, Terry Keltz, Ron Rives, Bud Crump and a group of concerned citizens.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Company), in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission), hereby gives notice of the Company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas for residence Custom Calling Services, effective August 1, 1991, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Company has filed an application with the Commission to restructure and change the rates for certain residence Custom Calling Services.

The Custom Calling Services affected by the Company's application are optional telephone service arrangements that provide the following features: Call Waiting, Call Forwarding, Three Way Calling, Speed Calling 8 and Speed Calling 30.

The Company's proposal would increase the monthly rate for the individual Call Waiting feature from $2.10 to $3.10 for residence customers. Also, the rates for certain combinations of Custom Calling Features (Call Waiting, Call Forwarding, Three-Way Calling and Speed Calling-8) would increase or decrease depending upon the combination of features. In addition, the company proposes to obsolete the optional Custom Calling Service feature Speed Calling 30 for residence customers except for existing customers at their existing locations. Following are the feature combinations and their current and proposed rates.

One Feature Per Line	Current	Proposed
Call Waiting	$2.10	$3.10
Call Forwarding	2.10	2.10
Three-Way Calling	2.10	2.10
Speed Calling-8	2.10	2.10
Two Features Per Line	Current	Proposed
Call Waiting, Call Forwarding	3.75	4.50
Call Waiting, 3-Way Calling	3.70	4.50

Call Waiting, 3-Way Calling and Speed Calling-8	5.30	5.90
Call Forwarding, 3-Way Calling and Speed Calling-8	5.30	4.90*
Four Features Per Line	Current	Proposed
Call Waiting, Call Forwarding 3-Way Calling, Speed Calling-8	6.90	7.30
Speed Calling 30	3.20	3.20

* denotes rate decrease
 Southwestern Bell's application proposes to obsolete residence Speed Calling 30 except for existing customers at their existing locations.

Most of the Company's residence customers in Texas who subscribe to one or more of the Custom Calling Service features will be affected by the proposed rate restructuring. It is expected that the proposed rate restructuring of Custom Calling Services will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.9 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. The restructuring will result in an increase in the Custom Calling Services rates for approximately 2.5 million residence customers and rate decreases for approximately 15,000 residence customers. Also, the obsolescence of the optional feature Speed Calling 30 will affect approximately 156,000 residence customers.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Gospelheirs to sing at Grace Fellowship Church on Sunday

The "Gospelheirs", a southern Gospel group from Amarillo, will begin their tour June 30 at Grace Fellowship Church in Lockney.

The group has been together for approximately three years, singing in the Texas panhandle, western Oklahoma and eastern New Mexico.

The gospel group consists of three brothers Don Waters, bass, Mark Waters, baritone, and Tony Waters, lead; and Latayne Velasquez, alto-tenor.

Don and his wife Kay have been singing together in church for a number of years prior to the formation of the Gospelheirs.

Don's brother, Tony, has been singing professionally for a number of years, beginning with the Crusaders, the Gloyland Quartet and the Disciples out of Fort Smith Arkansas.

Although their style is southern gospel, their variety is plainly seen in songs like "Going in Style", by the Cathedrals, to "Daddy Sang Bass," by Johnny Cash.

Their comedy always brings laughter from the audience, which is paralleled only by their heart-felt convictions as demonstrated when singing such songs as "When He Was On The Cross."

They will be singing in Oklahoma, Arkansas, Tennessee, Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana and Chicago.

The public is urged to attend this uplifting and heart warming concert at Grace Fellowship Church, in Lockney, June 30, at 11:00 a.m.

Residents name Superstars at Lockney Care Center party

by Barbara Hill

Residents of the Lockney Care Center were hosts for a staff party to honor superstar employees. Superstars are those special people who go above and beyond the call of duty showing special consideration to residents, families, other staff and visitors to our home.

The Superstar program was initiated in late 1990 when Training Coordinator, Myrtle Gibson, wanted recognition for certain staff members who were always willing to quietly give extra time and ability to make our home a better place. They come in after their scheduled work hours and shampoo, set residents hair, take residents outside for a walk, set up tables and chairs for residents parties, decorate rooms and halls, help with crafts and the Floyd County Fair booth. The staff also worked for another member whose house burned.

These same Superstars also give extra consideration while on the job. To be on the Superstar list the staff has to be recommended by supervisors, residents, families or visitors. Our greatest delight is a compliment from a family or visitor - then we know our job is worth the effort and we are making a difference.

Pins presented were silver stars with light blue stones for 1991. The pins presented to the 1990 Superstars had orange stones.

Since October 1, 1990 when the O.B.R.A. laws took effect our rules and regulations have required big changes for the staff. Now nurses aides have to pass an 80 hour course and a state competency test and be registered on the state registry for nurse assistants. This has required much time, effort and patience. To honor these people each of them were given a nurses assistant pin in appreciation for their dedication.

Refreshments were served and the new Activity Director, Barbara Hill, was welcomed. Everyone is invited to come by and meet her.

We Salute . . .

At our first meeting, there was fifteen couples present, we elected our officers. At the end of the first year we had 28 rigs. During these nine years we have had fifty six different couples. During this time we have had lots of exciting trips, also some sad times, we have lost four in death, they are Glenn and Lillian Lindsey from Silverton; W.H. (Willie) Bunch and Floyd Lawson. At the present time we have twenty five rig members and two associate members.

Those attending the pizza party were the Adams, Bensons, Cates, Cockrells, Gilbreaths, Harrisons, Hartsells, Kendricks, Lyles, McElyeas, McPhersons, Millers, Newburgs, Parkers, Patzers, Pyles, Reeses, Russells and Weathersbees.

After a good meal and lots of visiting we had our birthday cake that was baked by Charlene Langley, that was decorated in green and white.

Alan Benson led the group in our chapter song "Happy Trails" then we dismissed.

enjoyed playing games and visiting. Friday the Thaxtons, McElyeas, Norrells and Millers joined us. We played some games during the afternoon. Friday night all except one couple went to see "Texas".

Saturday everyone doing what they wanted to until 5:00 p.m. we all loaded in to our vehicles and went into Canyon to the "Railroad Crossing" for a steak dinner. Vernon and Eva Parker joined us for dinner. After returning to our R.V. Park all enjoyed different games or just visiting.

As usual Sunday morning is a special part of our campout, it is devotional time. We were pleased to have The Silver Sreak Travel Club from Ft. Worth-Dallas join us. J.W. Gilbreath led group in two songs, W.B. Cates led us in opening prayer. Faye Benson had our devotional titled, "Prayer" and closed with Alan Benson singing, "The Lord's Prayer." After singing "Happy Trails" we had coffee, cookies and cake furnished by the Thaxtons and Gilbreaths. Fred and Yvonna Thaxton, trailboss, thanks for a well planned weekend.

Social Security News

By Mary Jane Shanes

Many young people in the area will take a summer job this year, many for the first time. If you are one of them, there are some things you should know about Social Security.

First, of course, you need a Social Security card. I imagine almost all of you have one already. But, if you do not, just call us at our toll-free telephone number, 1-800-234-SSA (1-800-234-5772). For best service, call between 7 and 9 a.m. or between 5 and 7 p.m.

While you work in 1990, a little over 7-1/2 cents is deducted for each dollar of your pay for Social Security taxes. Your employer pays a matching amount. These taxes help finance monthly retirement, survivor, and disability benefits for about 40 million Americans, as well as the hospital insurance part of Medicare for most older people as well as those with long-term disabilities or permanent kidney failure.

Someday, benefits may also be paid to you and members of your family if you have credit for enough work under Social Security. In 1990, you earn 1 Social Security credit (called a "quarter of coverage") for each $520 of your annual earnings, up to a maximum of 4 credits for the year if your annual earnings total $2,080 or more.

All of your covered wages and self-employment income are recorded under your name and Social Security number on a lifetime earnings record. Your entitlement and the amount of your future benefits will depend on the accuracy of that record.

About every 3 years, you should request a Personal Earnings and Benefit Estimate Statement (PEBES) to make sure your record is correct. You can get a free PEBES request form by calling Social Security.

There are special rules that apply if you receive cash tips in your job. They must be reported in writing to your employer within 10 days after the month ends if they amount to $20 or more.

For more information about this or anything else about benefits or taxes under Social Security, call 1-800-234-SSA (1-800-234-5772). The people there will be glad to help you.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Company), in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission), hereby gives notice of its intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas for Directory Assistance Services, effective August 1, 1991, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Company has filed an application with the Commission to restructure and change the rates for Directory Assistance Service.

To help recover its costs, the Company is proposing to increase the rates for Directory Assistance calls from $.30 to $.40 per call (after the three-call allowance). Southwestern Bell is proposing that there be no change in the number of free Directory Assistance calls allowed each month (currently three) and that customers who qualify for exemption of Directory Assistance charges because of visual or physical handicaps continue to be exempt from these charges. The company also proposes to begin charging $.25 per call for Directory Assistance from pay telephones.

If approved by the Commission, this proposed rate change for Directory Assistance will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.4 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. This proposed rate change would affect approximately 900,000 residence customers, approximately 155,000 business customers, approximately 500 private pay telephone owners and all customers who make Directory Assistance calls from public pay telephones.

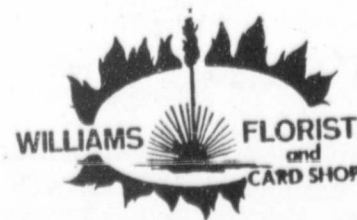

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible.

A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221 tele-typewriter for the deaf.

Overhaul needed in farm credit system

Timeliness and efficiency were key points of testimony given by Larry Nelson, current President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. (PCG). Nelson's testimony centered on the current state of the Farm Credit System and the operations of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA).

Nelson presented both oral and written testimony at a hearing, conducted by members of the House Agriculture Subcommittee on Conservation, Credit and Rural Development, in Lubbock, Monday, June 17.

House members present were Subcommittee Chairman Rep. Glenn English (D-OK), Rep. Larry Combest (R-TX), and Rep. Bill Sarpalius (D-TX). The subcommittee will use the information to conduct a complete review of current agricultural credit programs, including the FmHA.

"In our area FmHA plays a major part in the farm credit system," explains Nelson. "What we would like to see, and what we feel will be most effective, is a major overhaul of the system when there is enough time to do the job right."

"From a producer's point of view it seems that the only time we hear about the need for improvements to the system are when there is a shortage of funds or some other equally pressing crisis," he adds.

Texas sorghum producers to elect directors

Texas sorghum producers will vote by mail later this summer to elect directors to fill five seats on the 15-member Texas Grain Sorghum Board (TGSB). Elections will be held in four of the five TGSB districts this year. Directors will be elected to represent producers in the Panhandle, West Texas, South Texas, and Upper Coast districts.

TGSB administers the funds collected by the statewide assessment on grain sorghum. The assessment is collected on a refund-only basis and is used to fund programs of research, disease and insect control, education and promotion.

Those eligible to vote are persons who are subject to the assessment collected by TGSB, including producers of grain sorghum and owners of land on which grain sorghum is grown. Any eligible voter may be nominated for a seat on the board.

Nominations forms are available from the TGSB office at P.O. Box 560, Abernathy, Texas 79311. The forms must be signed by the nominee and ten eligible voters and returned to the TGSB office no later than July 31, 1991.

TGSB will provide ballots to eligible voters prior to the election. Ballots will also be available at county extension offices and at grain elevators. Ballots must be mailed to the TGSB office by September 10, 1991.

Nelson stressed that FmHA can provide two of the three things necessary for an adequate farm credit system: fund availability and cost effectiveness.

Problems, he points out, seem to exist in the procedures for loan approval and the transfer of the funds to the producer.

"A timely decision as to whether his financing will be available or not will be of the most immediate benefit to a producer," notes Nelson. "Put simply, a farmer needs to get a prompt yes or no answer."

In addition Nelson made several suggestions for changes to the way FmHA operates. The changes could possibly decrease the turnaround time for FmHA loan applications.

His suggestions involve FmHA making better use of the people who man the local FmHA offices in order to speed up the decision-making process. Nelson suggested that local officers be better trained to make wise and prudent lending decisions, given the authority and opportunity to make key decisions, and given responsibility for the outcome of the decisions they make.

Nelson points out that by doing this FmHA could reduce loan processing times and producers could receive the timely answer they need.

When each case is reviewed by district and then state offices, Nelson notes, there is a critical break in the normal cycle of business transactions. The result is that credit lines which span more than 60 days become a liability for the businessmen who offer them.

With a responsive-credit system in place the usual 30 to 60 day credit lines should be adequate for the most situations, adds Nelson.

11th CRP sign-up scheduled

The 11th CRP sign-up will be July 8-19, 1991. This will be the only opportunity to offer 1992 CRP bids. Farmed wetlands or wetlands that may be farmed under natural conditions, are ineligible for entry into CRP.

There will be only one national bid pool of which only 1,100,000 acres will be accepted. Emphasis will be placed on areas needing wellhead protection. Other factors taken into consideration include surface water quality, ground water quality, soil productivity, conservation compliance assistance, and tree planting.

For more information regarding the 11th CRP sign-up, contact your local Soil Conservation Service, USDA Building, Hwy 70 East, Floydada, Texas, phone number 983-2352.

Programs and services of the Soil Conservation Service are offered on a nondiscriminatory basis without regards for race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, marital status or handicap.

Texas ranches serve as classroom for nineteen national food editors

Four legendary Texas ranches, each more than a century old, helped communicate modern beef's message to 19 national food writers on the beef industry's "Word From The Herd" Tour.

The food writers specialized in health, fitness and consumer food writing. They hailed from New York City, San Diego, Chicago, Salt Lake City and Austin.

They visited Double U Ranch, Post, Pitchfork Land & Cattle Co., Guthrie, The Four Sixes Ranch, Guthrie and Lamshead Ranch, Albany. Each ranch originated in the late 1800s, and each is still a working operation run by descendants of the founders.

The "word" that these ranches and industry speakers conveyed to the food editors came in many parts. The editors became more aware that beef is an essential component to healthy, active lifestyles. They understood that beef producers constantly try to improve their product. And they observed that beef producers have families themselves and are dedicated to producing safe and wholesome products.

"I found the tour helped put a human face on an industry most of us take for granted," Allen Sheinman, food editor for New Choices, said. "It was interesting to see how beef gets to our table. I also found it interesting how the beef industry responds to health concerns of Americans. I appreciate their fight against negative vibrations and their willingness to deal with consumer concerns."

The tour was sponsored by the Beef Industry Council of the Meat Board and the National Cattlemen's Association. Tour host was the Texas Beef Industry Council.

"It's a super idea to get the major influencers out into the country side," Don Smith, National Cattlemen's Association president and a tour speaker, said. "The industry shows them an actual operation at the ground level so that they understand what the industry is all about. It's a tremendous opportunity for them and for beef producers."

The tour began at Double U Ranch where two chuck wagon cooks prepared beef meals out of Texas BIC's consumer cookbook entitled "Yesterday and Today: The Best of Chuck Wagon Cooking." The food editors also toured Double U and observed the ranch's Hereford cattle.

The next day, the group traveled to Pitch Land & Cattle Co. for a cowboy's breakfast. At Pitchford, the food writers heard industry speakers discuss the modern ranching industry, biotechnological and research developments, procedures to assure a safe and wholesome beef supply, and the necessity to conserve natural resources.

From the Pitchford, the group took a short trip to The Four Sixes Ranch for a working cowboy's lunch. They learned that because a cowboy's labor is so strenuous, his caloric intake is high.

They learned how a cowboy cook chooses his beef, and how variety promotes balance in a working man's diet.

That night, the food writers took another look at beef at Perini's Ranch, a restaurant near Abilene. A team of celebrity chefs prepared a nutritious, low-fat meal centered around beef. The chefs prepared the beef over an indirect fire to show the food editors how persons with concerns about grilling can still enjoy the great taste of outdoor cooking.

On the final two days, the writers toured Lamshead Ranch at Albany. On the ranch, the editors visited with Watt Matthews, 93, who manages the operation for his family, and with his sister, Mrs. Lucille Brittingham, who will turn 101 this July.

"The Western hospitality exhibited by each cowboy, rancher, and Beef Council member was exceptional," said Linda Gunn, associate food writer for Good Housekeeping. "The knowledge that I gained about beef production and technology was very impressive. It's comforting to know that the regulations imposed by the beef industry are so strict that we can feel safe feeding beef to our families while we are contributing to their good health at the same time."

The tour will help those food editors who participated understand the beef industry more fully, Carol Guthrie, food editor for Working Mother, said. "It is good to meet the people and the faces behind the product, because that conveys the commitment they have to produce a safe product," Guthrie said. "For food editors, this will help us scan headlines a little differently, and dig to get the other side of the story from those involved when we see something negative."

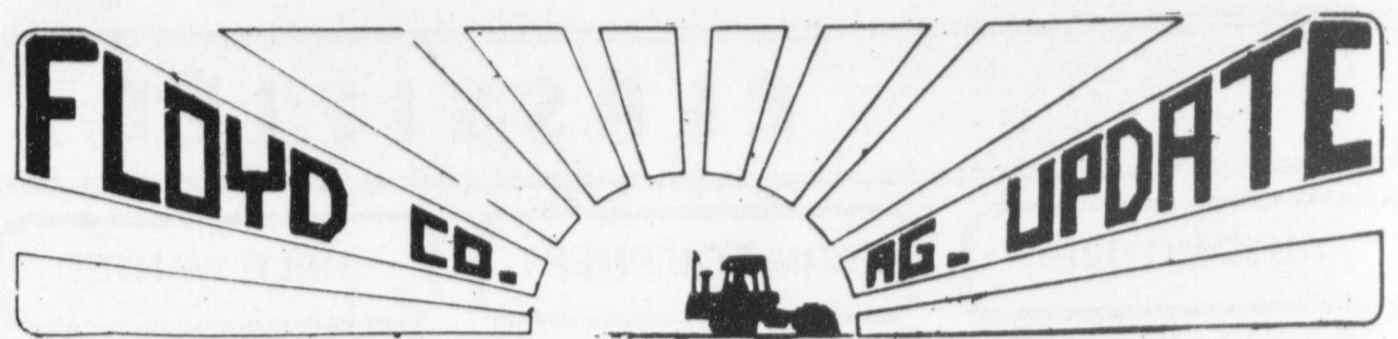

Sorghum growers set convention site

Kansas City, MO., has been selected as the site of the 1992 National Grain Sorghum Producers (NGSP) convention. The Hyatt Regency Crown Center will be the headquarters of the two-day meeting on February 16 and February 17.

"Our convention will be in Kansas City in 1992 to make it easier for producers from the major sorghum states to attend," said Jack Eberspacher, NGSP executive director. "Kansas City is readily accessible for producers from surrounding areas where much of the U.S. sorghum production takes place."

For more information on the convention, contact the NGSP office at P.O. Box 530, Abernathy, Texas 79311 or call (806) 298-2543.

National Grain Sorghum Producers is the national membership association for sorghum producers. NGSP is a policy-making organization primarily concerned with legislative issues that affect the profitability of its members.

Good bugs released on Hinton farm to hunt down Russian Aphids

By C. Mark Brown
Extension Agent-Entomology (PM)
Crosby/Floyd Counties

There are certain insects that producers appreciate seeing in their fields. These include beneficial insects that actually attack crop pests.

One of the components of IPM (integrated pest management) is biological control, often referred to as biocontrol. Biocontrol is the use of predators, parasitoids, competitors, and pathogens to control pests. There are several different types of biocontrol, including: 1) conservation-conserving or encouraging existing natural enemies to help regulate pest densities, 2) augmentation-releasing natural enemies into areas where they are absent, or exist at densities too low to provide effective biocontrol, and 3) classical biological control-importing natural enemies from abroad in situations where foreign pests become introduced into a new area.

Classical biocontrol procedures are currently being conducted in this area by the Crosby-Floyd Pest Management unit, which is operated by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Pest Management Association.

The Russian wheat aphid is a serious pest of wheat that was first documented in the U.S. in Bailey County, Texas, in 1986. This aphid is indigenous to southern Russia, countries bordering the Mediterranean seas, Iran, and Afghanistan. It was recorded in South Africa in 1978, and in Mexico in 1981. There are currently few beneficial insects present in the Texas High Plains that adapted to feeding upon the Russian wheat aphid. Therefore, beneficial insects are being imported from countries in which the aphid originated, and are being released in our area.

Natural enemies from abroad are first placed in quarantine at the Biological Control Quarantine Laboratory at Texas A&M University, where each species undergoes stringent quarantine tests before any releases are allowed. Those natural enemies which are considered the most promising for release in the U.S. are sent to the Animal Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) Biological Control Laboratory in Mission, Texas, for mass rearing and production.

A shipment from the TAMU Quarantine Laboratory of six different species of insects was released on May 16, 1991 in NE Crosby County on a farm operated by James Hinton of Dougherty. These insects were reared from collections made in countries such as Brazil, Pakistan, and Morocco. Some of these parasites will attack the Russian wheat aphid, as well as the greenbug.

Releases of beneficials received in 1990 from the Mission Biocontrol lab were placed north of the South Plains community, and near the Owens community on farms operated by Nathan Johnson and Kenny Chance. These 1990 releases were imported from Czechoslovakia, Pakistan, France, and Jordan.

Similar releases have been made in other counties of the High Plains. Normally, species released in this manner require 3 to 5 years for successful establishment. Hopefully one or more of these species will be well-adapted for our area, and will provide producers with another IPM tool to manage the Russian wheat aphid, thus reducing needed insecticide applications.

FHS Class Of 1931 holds reunion

By Flora McNeill

The Great Depression was a crucial time in the lives of 72 seniors who graduated from Floydada High School! Times were difficult even before the "bottom fell" out of the Stock Market in 1929, but important practices had to be altered for these young people who were experiencing the most important time in their lives.

1931 was the first year that the school officials decided that there would not be an Annual published because of the economy; therefore, some Juniors did not have their picture in the 1930 edition thinking they could have this privilege as Seniors. Many students were from rural schools where the eleventh grade was not taught. Some drove from the country while others either stayed with families and "worked for their room and board" or did "light house keeping" with other family students or with friends who stayed in homes and shared kitchen and bathrooms. Walking to school was a common practice and many students went home for lunch. There were some who had cars but they were mostly those driving in from the country.

For a student who had just reached their 12th birthday, Floydada High School really looked huge! In fact, this is the school that carries the name of Floydada Junior High School now. We used the auditorium as our home room or study hall. The Superintendent and Principal both had offices in the high school building and the faculty our Freshman year consisted of 12 teachers. Subjects taught were: Science, History, Mathematics, English, Spanish, Home Economics, Agriculture and Algebra. Our Sophomore year brought us 15 teachers which included a Librarian and a new subject, Latin.

Our Junior year we had the same number on the faculty with some changes both in personnel and subjects. We had clothing, Commercial Art, Mathematics, Foods, History, General Science, Latin, English, Spanish, Vocational Agriculture, Physics, Chemistry.

Without the Hesper, I am not sure if we had additional subjects offered our Senior year but we did have a new English teacher, Mrs. Lon V. Smith was such a pleasure to study under and for, because she was known for her fairness to both "town" kids and "country" kids. She knew her subject and loved her students which with her wonderful smile and great personality made English and even Hamlet interesting.

During the years in High School, we had other native teachers. Gladys Collins taught English in 1928 and A.D. Cummings taught History. In 1930 Hazel Tyson taught Foods and added Chemistry the new year — when she also changed her name and became a native! She and Richard Stovall married and lived in Floydada many years, raising their family here. She also was a wonderful teacher both in Foods and Chemistry.

The old white frame school building, known as North Ward, was School for many of us, but several of this graduating class started to school together. Those Seniors were Gwendolyn Snodgrass, Winona Felton, Ruth Rutledge, Hazel Probasco, Carl Marshall, Herwin Strickland, Charles Brown, Fred Fondy and Jim Terry. Many will remember that North Ward was located near where the Coop Gins are now. This building burned in the early 20's and our next school was East Ward which was a two story red brick building located in the Southeast part of town. The only teacher I remember was a Mrs. Thornton and another outstanding memory was the barrel like fire escape that we had to come down during our fire drills. This was also in the day when there was "outdoor plumbing" or we didn't have indoor plumbing - which way you choose to express it.

Taken from the Hesperette, the High School News, we find that Mildred Welborn was President and Hazel Probasco was Vice President as Freshman year. Sophomore class officers were President, Donley Stephenson; Vice President, Roxie Norton; Secretary, Helen Hay; Treasurer, Mildred Welborn.

Miss Mary Emma Rosson, Miss Hazel Tyson and Mr. Odus Stephen were our Junior sponsors and under their leadership, we accomplished a feat that no other Junior class of F.H.S. had ever done; we won three popularity contests. The most popular boy was Chester de Cordova, the best all-round boy, Ballard Wilkinson and the best all-round girl was Ruth Rutledge.

From the Hesperette "Our Senior year has been by far our biggest and happiest year. Our hopes for greater things have been realized through the help of our loyal sponsors, Mrs. L.V. Smith and Mr. Odus Stephen and our capable class officers. Members of the Senior class were recognized as the best in football, basketball, the interscholastic league meet and in state typewriting and home economics contest. More honors we won were two of the three popularity contests. Our best all-round girl and boy were Ruth Rutledge and Donley Stephenson; our most popular girl and boy were Hazel Probasco and Chester de Cordova. Although we were keenly disappointed because we were not allowed to have an annual, we undertook an even greater project, an athletic field, and successfully completed our proportion of the work on it. There are 72 members in the Senior class of '31; this is the largest graduating class in the history of Floydada High School."

"Another happy and enjoyable event of our Senior year was the picnic at Silver Falls Lake. Everyone had a wonderful time and will always remember it. The Senior Class of '31 has the distinction of being the first graduation class to have class day and we hope all other classes will follow our example. We are proud of our achievements and although the thought of parting with our classmates makes us sad, we are happy in the thought of the many pleasant memories we shall be able to recall when we go into the world to accomplish greater things, of fun, dear association and work to realize high ideals in our class of '31."

The address for the evening of graduation on May 22, 1931, was delivered by Dean Gordon of Texas Tech and addresses were also given by Thelma Crawford, Valedictorian, and Roxie

Norton as Salutatorian. The honor boy of the class was W.E. Dooley.

As president, members of this class did go out to become outstanding citizens, tho' we are not aware of all those who graduated - some became successful as teachers and other fields of education, some married doctors, some married ministers, some were successful as farmers and ranchers, some had children who were authors, some were artists, some were active in politics and there are many facets of business that many others have been involved in with success.

The class of '31 reunion was held on Thursday, May 23, with registration at 10:00 a.m. at the museum after which we proceeded to the Community Room of Lighthouse Electric Coop to visit, reminisce with old pictures, annuals and other articles, taking NEW pictures and eat!

Since this was our 60th anniversary, our members' ages ranged from 75 to 79 years old which indicates that many have died. To our knowledge there are only three of the boys living and they are Buddy Bell of Texarkana, W.A. Amburn of Tulia and Dr. J. Rex Johnston of Amarillo.

Girls that we know their whereabouts are: Bessie Mae Brown Bell, Thelma Crawford Crawford, Alma Edwards Rape, Daisy Eudy Calvery, Winona Felton Stewart, Lucille Hammack Estridge, Johnnie Johnston Sheperd, Pattye Looper Simpson, Clara Luttrell Redd, Doris Manning Snodgrass, Helene Hayes Holt, Amy McRoberts Patton, Roxie Norton Thomas, Maxine Norris Booth, Hazel Parker Swepton, Hazel Pendleton Sherrod, Ruth Rutledge Mast, Bessie Sherrill Wilson, Mabel Thornton Blankenship, Gertrude True Fuller, Mildred Welborn Shurbet, Christine Trowbridge Kirkpatrick, Launa Cosby Latham and myself, Flora Day McNeill.

Thirteen classmates of '31 registered along with a number of family and friends who helped us enjoy a wonderful day of fun, food and fellowship to long be remembered by those present.

!!REMEMBER!!
The Hesperian-Beacon will have an early deadline the week of July 4. All advertising, news and etc. must be in by 3:00 P.M. on Monday, July 1.

There were a total of 49 ex-students and one sponsor with 32 spouses and guests registering.

Polly Cardinal, guests, Floydada.

The graduating class of 1941 has been the largest to graduate from Floydada High School. There were 111 pictures with superintendent, principal and two sponsors.

This was an exciting time as some remember how much rain we had. You may not have lived very far from town but you may have had to travel 15 miles to get around lakes that were over the roads.

There were very few paved roads at the time. Some of the students were unable to walk across the stage to get their diplomas.

The program opened at 6:00 p.m. with Henry Barber leading the prayer. Doyle Walls was master of ceremonies, he called on each student to introduce themselves and their spouse or guest and tell some of the things that have happened to them in the past 50 years. This proved to be very funny.

Virginia Morrison Cage was in charge of the memorial service to take a few minutes to pay tribute to class members that have gone to be with the Lord. These included: Maudell Hinton, Norman Goen, Jannett Bratton, James Turner, J.W. Grigsby, H.C. Love, David Kirk, Bennie Crawford, Joe Arwine, Billy Asher, James Burke, Wilda Ruth Finley, J.P. Jester, Verna Lynn Olson, E.L. Tyler, Carl Parrish, Tommie Griffin, Russell Patterson, Betty Jo McClesky, Corene Moore, L.H. Smith, Jess Michael, Berle Bishop and Margie Duncan; Mr. Walter Travis, Superintendent; Robert Linder, Principal, and Lois Wren, Sponsor.

Our dinner, with the theme "To Build A Mountain", was a delight prepared and served by the local classmates, along with tea and coffee and desserts galore. We have lots of good cooks.

The rest of the evening was spent listening to Nelda Fagan Sims playing the piano, good old songs of the '50s and singing, along with lots of visiting. Arlene Fyffe Burrus sang a solo, she still has that very special talent.

After a short business meeting, a few awards were presented: first to the one looking most like their high school picture, Phil Steen and Helen Ring Womack; second to the one traveling the furthest, Imogene Woody Duncan, 1430 miles; third to the one with the most grandchildren, Evelyn Fortenberry Winn, 15.

After singing the school song the evening closed with Mr. Barber leading everyone in prayer. This is always the sad time for all to say goodbye until we meet again.
