Floydada will seek paving grant

By Juanita Stepp

Submission of an application for grant funds to be used for paving in Floydada was approved by the Floydada City Council during the regular monthly meeting on August 19. Approval of the grant application was by unanimous vote following a public hearing concerning the matter. A standing room only crowd was present.

The public hearing was opened at 7:35 by Mayor Wayne Russell and conducted by Kay Howard, a consultant from Gary Traylor and Associates of Lubbock. The firm specializes in seeking grant funds and takes payment for services only if the applications are successful.

Eight blocks included in the Texas Department of Commerce (TDOC) Community Development Block Grant Program are: Henry Street from Lee to Grover; First Street from Ross to Price; Leonard Street from Ollie to Burris; Crockett Street from Main to 8th (two blocks); East Mississippi Street from 11th to 12th; and Virginia street from

The New Texas marches on. If we didn't know better, we would think it sounds a good bit like the old. The Legislature met, raised our taxes, spent more money than ever before, then the Governor bragged about how she and they saved us from an even worse fate.

The new tax bill will stack an additional $2.1 billion on top of the taxes Texans already pay. That will amount to an extra $130 per year for each and every Texan. Obviously there will be those who pay less and those who pay more. You will pay an extra 5 cents for your gasoline, for instance. If you don't own a car, and/or don't buy gasoline, you can get by without paying that particular tax, but you will be caught elsewhere, no doubt. The new taxes will provide for a 20 percent increase in state spending over the next two years. It will allow our state government to spend a record $59.5 billion during that time. Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock said it was merely a stop gap measure, that more would be needed later

Governor Richards looked at her labors, and the labors of the Legislature, and called it good. The tax bill, she said, "was not all that painful." She claimed that she and the legislature were looking at a "$5 billion shortfall" when they met, that they had pared that down to a mere $2.1 billion. Obviously this is hogwash, just as the initial claims of a $5 billion shortfall were hogwash. How is it possible, a rational person might ask, to see a $5 billion shortfall, ostensibly needed just to continue essential services at their current level, transformed into a $2.1 billion "shortfall" that ends up providing a 20 percent increase in state spending?

Possibly it could have been worse, although it is difficult at this reading to see how. The hodge-podge of Texas tax law was made even more contradictory and burdensome. The middle-class and working poor, already carrying the lion's share of taxation, will be called upon to pay even more of the load. From where we sit it appears our statehouse "leaders" are determined to make the tax structure so obnoxious that the people will cry out, sooner or later, for both a personal and corporate state income tax as a way to rid themselves of the tax structure laid upon them over the years by a Legislature responding to a variety of special interests. That would provide more money to satisfy those clamoring for more from the taxpayers, to satisfy

Church celebrates Centennial

Past and present members gathered at the First Baptist Church in Floydada to celebrate "100 Years of Service to Our Lord". The Centennial event was held on August 16, 17 and 18, 1991.

A historical marker was dedicated on Sunday at 12:00 p.m. in front of the church which is located at 401 South Main Street, Floydada. Those lifting the cover from the historical marker were members of families who have been members of the church since it's beginning. Those uncovering the marker were Claudene Halstrom, Mrs. R.B. Rosson, Mrs. Garnet Goen, Nancy Marble, representing the Floyd County Historical Muncy and Nelda Fagan Sims.

The marker reads: FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF FLOYDADA. On July 19, 1891, The Rev. I.B. Kimbrough and a small group of worshipers met in the dugout home of Joe Arnold to organize the Floyd City Baptist Church. The congregation conducted early worship services in the North Side School building and at the local Methodist Church. After the town's name was changed to Floydada, the church was renamed First Baptist Church of Floydada.

Lockney School Board hears explanation of taxes

The Lockney School Board met Monday night in special session and heard an explanation of the school taxes from Superintendent W.H. Hallmark.

Hallmark reported to those present, "Taxes have never been a popular topic but the citizens deserve an explanation as to what is happening to them.

"In Thursdays paper you will see a quarter page ad telling you that your local school district taxes are going down. That is true, but you will be taxed by a new taxing entity called the County Education District (CED) which was created by the State legislature.

"By State law the County Education District must collect a minimum amount of dollars. By law to do that in this County Education District that tax rate will be somewhere between 72 and 74 cents per $100 evaluation. The exact rate cannot be set until it is determined how much loss the recent passed exemptions totals.

The congregation completed its first frame sanctuary at this site in 1908. Over the years additional property was acquired and larger structures were built to serve the growing membership.

Throughout its history, the First Baptist Church has served the community with a variety of worship, educational and outreach programs. The members and pastors have placed an emphasis on both foreign and home mission activities. The church continues to play an important role in Floyd County history.

The Rev. Howell E. Farnsworth, Jr. is the present pastor. Bill Smith is the Music/Education Director and Todd Keller is the Youth/Singles Director.

The Centennial event opened with entertainment by the "Singing Men of West Texas". They were directed by Ty Morris Jr. A history review of the church was given by Frieda Simpson. Mrs. Simpson is credited with researching the history of the church. She was helped in this endeavor by Roberta Hardin, Mae Muncy, Nell Swinson and Beth Pratt.

Saturday morning events were kicked off with a golf scramble held at the Floydada Country Club. At noon a free barbeque lunch was served. Travis

Lockney woman beaten and robbed

By Alice Gilroy

Two Lockney men have been arrested, by Lockney Police, in the August 14 assault and robbery of an 86 year old Lockney resident and business woman, Mary Hutton, better known as "Aunt Mary."

Pedro Molina Jr., 31, was arrested on Monday and Manuel Bueno, 19, was arrested on Tuesday, August 20. Both were charged with Aggravated Robbery and bond was set at $50,000 for each

According to Lockney Police Chief Leonard Gilroy, "Mrs. Hutton was found at her store (in the 200 block of E. in to buy cigarettes.

"She was bleeding around the nose and mouth and incoherant in her speech. The men did not speak English, but they went for help.

"Mrs. Hutton was then taken to Lockney General Hospital."

Hutton suffered multiple bruises about the face, arms and body, and also received a broken nose. She was still hospitalized on Tuesday, August 20.

Hutton is known around Lockney for cashing checks for people who have nowhere else to go. She has operated the convenience store for 51 years.

"That man was a customer of mine," said Hutton, referring to Molina. "I Locust Street), Wednesday, August 14, don't know why he would do this, I have around 8:00 p.m., by two men who came always tried to help him out."

Lockney schools out early first eight days

All Lockney schools will turn out at 3:30 p.m. for the first eight days of school (Aug. 21-30). Busses will run at 3:30 p.m. School will be out Sept. 2

Classes will resume regular hours on Sept. 3. School will be dismissed and busses will run at 4:00 p.m., according to W.H. Hallmark, superintendent.

County Commissioners consider redistricting

By Alice Gilroy

Floyd County Commissioners met during an open meeting Monday, August 19, for the purpose of approving the new commissioners and Justice of the Peace precinct districts.

The redistricting is necessary because of the changes in population recorded in the 1990 census.

By law, the court is obligated to create one majority minority district in which 65 percent of the population is minority (if the minority population of the area is more than 20 percent).

known to the commissioners through a letter read to the court Monday night, that even though the commissioners will be meeting the Voting Rights Act of 1964 with one majority minority district, the case law in the supreme court calls for a voting precinct for every 20 percent of the population that is minor-

Therefore with a 44 percent minority population in Floyd County, TRLA felt two precincts should be created with a 65% percent minority population.

By The Way

By Alice Gilroy

The community of Lockney is in shock and very angry over the vicious attack of 86 year old Mary Hutton last Wednesday. Ms. Hutton, known around Lockney as Aunt Mary, runs the little store (old Texaco Station) across from Lockney's City Hall. She has run the store for 51 years.

She sells odds and ends like cigarettes, candy, canned goods, etc. and also cashes checks for people with no place else to go.

Wednesday evening someone came into the store and beat her up and robbed her. They beat her so bad she has been in the hospital ever since and was in a great deal of pain. She is feeling better now but is still black and blue all over. It took many days before she could talk to police and I can't comment on anything she has said because I don't want to mess up the investigation, but you can be sure that there is nothing more important to police than finding the cowardly man, or men, that did this.

After I went to see Mary in the hospital on Tuesday, I had to rewrite the beginning of my column a little bit. When I first wrote this I was full of anger at whoever would hurt her. For those of you who feel that way, and if it's eating away at you, you need to go visit Aunt Mary. She will set you straight.

She has identified one of the men who hit her and was telling me all about him and his family. She said she had done a lot for him in the past. I said, "It must break your heart to have him hurt you like this."

She said, "No, I don't hold any malice toward him. I hope Christ can help him get his life straightened out and give him the strength to endure what he is going to have to endure."

Mary didn't imply that he shouldn't be punished for his crime, but she made it very clear that she forgave him.

I told her that the people in the community were very worried about her and very upset about what had happened. I said there are prayers being said in churches everywhere on her behalf.

This brought tears to her eyes and she told me that she loved everyone very much.

It was a very humbling experience talking to her. I went in there to try and cheer her up and I came out impressed by her strength and love. I'll never forget it.

VanHoose art continues on display at FNB

Oil paintings by Florence VanHoose will continue on display through the month of August at the First National Bank in Floydada.

Mrs. VanHoose is a resident of Floydada and has been painting many years. Her choice of mediums is oils, although she does paint some in acrylic and soft pastels.

She also teaches painting on Thursday evenings and does commission work

Everyone is invited to come by the bank during regular business hours and view the works of this local artist.

Courtroom Activities

In county court, August 14, Efren Munoz, 34, of Floydada, was charged with DWI. There was no disposition on this case.

August 19 in county court, Carol Tafoya Garcia, was charged with possession with intent to sell. There was no disposition on this case.

Also on August 19, Robert Camacho was charged with possession with intent to sell. There was no disposition on this case.

Ken Towery Owner Alice Gilroy Publisher & Editor I got to experience something new last Friday when I was included in the countdown for the underground nuclear weapons test outside of Las Vegas.

I had called the Department of Energy the day before to try and get a story on why the test was code named Floydada. I talked to a very nice man named Jim Boyer, who said that he would include me in the countdown.

I called ten minutes before 11:00 a.m. (9:00 a.m. their time), and got on the open line with a bunch of other reporters from around Nevada, the Associated Press and some radio stations. When the other reporters heard where I was calling from, they spent the next ten minutes asking me questions like, "How do the people in Floydada feel about this test being named after their town?", "What kind of town is Floydada?", "What are the people like?", "Where does Floydada get its name (I got that one wrong)?"

It was great fun and I felt very important. I told them that people were enjoying the notoriety and no one was demonstrating against the test.

I also told them I felt that Floydada was chosen as the test's code name because of "our dynamite personality." I explained that there were some other small towns in Floyd County and we would be glad if they named some more test after us!

Anyway, precisely at 9:00 a.m. their time, the detonation took place. Mr. Boyer (who was in the control room) said that it was a successful test in that there were no injuries and there were absolutely no radiation releases.

The test was supposed to have a yield between 20 kilotons and 150 kilotons, but it ended up being under 20. (I think it was kind of a dud). It was the 4th test conducted this year and the 711th since testing began January 27, 1951.

Boyer said he could feel a gentle sway in the control room. He said that the shock waves would travel 10,000 feet per second and if they felt the shock in Las Vegas it would arrive in 25 seconds after the detonation.

A reporter for the Las Vegas Sun told me that she never felt it and she has felt some doozies in the past! As glad as I am that they named the test after Floydada, I'm sure glad the tests are 1600 feet below Yucca Flat instead of here.

I've come up with an idea that I'll explain in a minute, but I first want to explain why I've come up with this idea.

I have been getting my blood pressure all worked up reading all the good things the Texas legislature has done for us and about the country's fine leaders in Washington's Congress.

Other stories about the Pee Wee Herman rallies (where they carry Pee Wee dolls and praise Pee Wee for exposing himself) are making me sick. (I wonder what Pee Wee dolls do?)

Recently I've heard another story that made my day. Do ya'll remember about 6 years ago, a guy in Lubbock killed his wife and cut off her head and hands.

He buried her head and hands in their back yard and threw her torso off into the canyon. Some guys driving by at the time saw this man throw a gunny sack over into the canyon and they wrote his license plate number in the dust on their dashboard (they thought he was a poacher)

Anyway they reported this to the police and when the sack was opened the body part was found. If those alert fellows hadn't written down the license plate, the man would probably never have been caught.

The murderer was sentenced to 50 years and was released last week. In a newscast last week authorities were attempting to locate him. Feel better? I know I feel like justice has been served.

So here is my idea. I think I should start a national weekly newspaper called Good News. I would print only happy stories that I found in newspapers from all over the country (kind of like Paul Harvey). Of course this would leave out covering the legislature from Texas or Washington- but that's OK it doesn't seem to matter what we think about what they are doing anyway.

It would also be up to me (and happy staff members) as to what we considered Good News.

The Boy Scouts forming their new separate program for girls, gays and atheists would not qualify. Nor would the United Way's not funding the Boy Scouts, because of their discrimination, qualify for our Good News paper.

I think that sounds fair. I wonder if it would sell and I wonder if someone is going to steal this idea from me before I have chance to do it.

FISD proposes 15.9 cent tax rate

By Juanita Stepp

The Floydada Independent School District met in a special called session for the purpose of discussing and proposing a tax rate for 1991 ad valorem taxes. The session, held at 8:00 a.m. on Thursday, August 15, was attended by all members of the board.

According to administrative assistant Jimmie Collins, "The best information available at this time indicates that our roll back rate would be 15.94 cents. I am therefore advising that the board propose a tax rate of 15.9 cents for the coming tax period."

Discussion of the matter revealed that seven cents of the 15.9 would be devoted to the payment of bonded indebtedness this year and next. That would see the end of current bonded indebtedness for FISD.

Also addressed at the session was the confusion concerning the recent special election and it's outcome. Collins explained that the local school district would continue to tax non income producing personal property and to offer the same exemptions it has in the past. The special election only affects the actions of the Floyd County Education District which will meet separately to determine the tax rate it will require to raise the mandated amount of money for Floyd County schools.

Motion to propose the ad valorem tax rate for FISD at 15.9 cents per $100 valuation was made by Michael Hinsley and seconded by Don Hardy. The vote in favor of the motion was unanimous.

Publication requirements for truth in taxation will be met with the publishing of the necessary information to propose a tax rate. In the case of FISD this year, that information will notify taxpayers that the district is proposing a decrease in taxes from the previous year. The decrease will be from 78 cents to the proposed 15.9 cents.

The difference will more than likely be made up by the setting of a tax rate expected to be above 70 cents per $100 valuation by the CED.

Attending the meeting were superintendent Jerry Cannon, Jimmie Collins, Charlene Brown, Michael Hinsley, John Campbell, Don Hardy, Steve Lloyd, Trena Simpson, Billy Villarreal and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

BUDGET ADOPTED

The FISD budget for the 1991-92 school year was adopted at a later meeting, held on Wednesday, August 21 at 7:50 a.m. in the school library at A. B. Duncan Elementary School. The meeting was attended by Cannon, Collins, Brown, Hinsley, Campbell, Lloyd, Simpson and Villarreal as well as the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

Weight Loss Surprises Researchers

WASHINGTON --A nutrition organization was hopeful that a nutritionally complete "hi-tech" food tablet would help erase world hunger problems, until a study revealed that one of the ingredients could cause significant weight loss.

Although other studies and scientists may not agree, researchers in Europe found that the ingredient, a natural plant colloid, actually caused people to lose weight, even though specifically instructed not to alter normal eating patterns, according to one study published in the prestigious British Journal of Nutrition. Researchers in an earlier study had speculated that the weight loss was due to a decrease in the intestinal absorption

While the development of the product called Food Source One, a project of National Dietary Research, would not be used to successfully fulfill its original goal, the formula which has since been improved with other natural colloids has been a windfall for some overweight people. A Daytona Beach, Florida woman fighting a weight battle for 12 years used the product on the recommendation of her physician and lost 30 pounds. She stated, "Not only have I lost 30 pounds but my cholesterol has dropped from 232 to 143. I have two closets full of clothes which have not fit me in two years that I can now wear." In a separate report, a telephone interview revealed that a Wilmington, North Carolina pharmacist lost 14 pounds in 3 weeks on the product and was never hungry.

Food Source One tablets are part of National Dietary Research's comprehensive plan to bring a rapid end to obesity in this country. A variety of nutritionally sound diet plans, specially prepared by NDR, accompany each bottle and provide a natural, drug free alternative for confronting the problem of obesity.

Available in Floydada at: THOMPSON PHARMACY 200 S. Main 983-511 Motion for adoption of the budget was made by Hinsley and seconded by Villarreal. The vote on the matter was unanimous and the budget was adopted as presented at the August 12 regular board meeting.

The budget as presented totals $5,727,929.00, an increase of more than $500,000.00 over the 1990-91 budget which topped out at $5,216,857.00. Nearly one fifth of the amount, $1,020,265.00, is earmarked for FHS operation during the year. Junior High expenses are tabbed at $491,428.00. Duncan expenditures total $706,812 and Andrews will need $585,494.00.

Expenses to be shared by all schools total $586,451.00 and transportation expenses are pegged at $190,239.00. Building maintenance has been estimated at $553,360.00 and administrative expenses total $580,803.00. Debt retirement on the bonded indebtedness will need $97,375.00 in funds.

Salaries make up the bulk of the entire budget with $3,420,208.00 set aside for that purpose. Supplies and materials for all areas of the district amount to $303,323.00 and utilities will take an estimated $210,000.00. $156,000.00 is designated for repairs and maintenance.

$103,000.00 will be paid out in worker's comp and unemployment insurance. Other insurance expenditures include $15,000.00 for student insurance for UIL participants and $49,500.00 for other insurance needs such as building and contents and liability coverage as well as $10,000.00 for vehicle insurance.

Furniture and equipment expenditures throughout the district add up to $93,951.00 and travel expenses in all areas are estimated at $54,530.00. Payments on the air conditioners, a lease purchase agreement, total $60,000.00 this year and substitute teachers will receive about $35,600.00 this school year. Capital improvements will take $100,400.00 and miscellaneous expenses are estimated at $14,150.00. Transfers from the administrative budget to athletics will be approximately $85,625.00 and to the cafeterias will be $3,500.00.

The FISD budget is available to any citizen and can be obtained or reviewed at the FISD administrative Offices.

Collins also informed the group that the notice to be published in this weeks newspaper (by the appraisal district) detailing the proposal to decrease taxes will have a higher figure for the rollback rate than was previously indicated to the board. The preliminary calculations available from the state placed the rollback rate for FISD at 15.94 cents.

Final figures received on Monday of this week show the actual rollback rate to be 19.4 cents. Collins informed the board that they could consider amending their proposed ad valorem tax rate from the previously proposed 15.9 cents per $100 valuation to the maximum without encountering any difficulty. He also recommended that they consider doing that to provide a small financial cushion for the district in the year to come.

the dictates of federal and state judges, and coincidentally help perpetuate themselves in power. That formula has proved successful in our national Congress, and the Texas Legislature is getting to look and act more like the national Congress every time it meets.

It is important to note however, that not all members of the Legislature rolled over and played dead. A determined little band of conservatives in the House, both Republicans and Democrats, held the line as best they could. Fifty-two of the House's 56 Republicans voted against the tax bill. They were joined by 15 Democratic members, including our own Warren Chisum. They did not fall for the "$5 billion shortfall" gimmick being banded about when the Legislature met. And to her eternal credit, our Treasurer Kay Bailey Hutcheson had the courage to point out that no such money was needed now, that the state would have more in revenues during the next two years than it has ever had. Her leadership in this area was sorely needed, and it was forthcoming. It was in Bob Bullock's Senate, home of the special interests, where the people of Texas lost.

And while the new Texas was marching along, a member of the Legislature from Houston died in his apartment from cocaine reaction, with drug paraphernalia and porno literature lying about. The medical examiner said he didn't really die from cocaine use, just his body's reaction to that use. That's kinda like saying a man really didn't die from knife wounds, just the loss of blood caused by the knife wounds. Oh, well. Our state's leaders, led by the Governor, the Lt. Governor, the State Attorney General, and even the Speaker of the House, took time off from less weighty matters to eulogize the member as a champion of his people, a fighter for the oppressed, a role model for his people, one who fought to help people who would not help themselves. We would not suggest that the speeches were politically motivated. No doubt the words were well intentioned, but they hardly make the job easier for those who encourage youngsters to take a different

In case you missed it: The new Governor's "trouble shooter" got in a little trouble of his own. It's all cleared up now. He repaid the money, after, of course, it came to light. When Ms. Richards became Governor Richards one of her first acts was to bring her old buddy from County Commissioner days, Richard Moya, on board as her highly paid "trouble shooter whatever that is. The Texas Department of Community Affairs bought him a $700 cellular phone, which evidently intrigued him greatly. He used it frequently, more than frequently, one might say. In fact, 176 of his calls went to Ms. Delores Ortega-Carter, Travis County Treasurer, who was having some credit card problems of her own. They have been described as "friends." When the Dallas Morning News began a review of his phone bills, Mr. Moya wrote a check to the state to repay those personal calls that had previously been billed to the taxpayers of Texas. It was merely an oversight. He's still "trouble shooting" for the Governor. So if you have troubles, gentle reader, you may wish to write Mr. Moya in the Governor's office in Austin. We're sure they will forward your letter to him, wherever he happens to be. He may even contact you on his cellular phone.

Teacher remembered with drawing

By Alice Gilroy

The greatest honor a student could pay to his teacher would be to prove that he had learned well and had applied the teachings in an honorable way. Jeff Smith recently paid his highest tribute to his high school art teacher, Dewane Franklin, when he presented Franklin's widow, Pat Franklin, a picture Smith had drawn of her husband.

Dewane Franklin, an art teacher in Floydada for 21 years, was killed in a motorcycle accident May 28, 1990, in Miami, Oklahoma. Franklin was on his 86.20 per $100 evaluation.

"What does all this mean? The state has shifted more responsibility to the local level.

"It needs to be understood that the County Education District has its hands tied. The legistlature mandate tells them what they can and cannot do.

"The local school district does have more flexibility on setting their tax rate.

"The problem facing the local school boards is that state funding is tied to local effort. Do your part locally and you will be rewarded. If you don't you will be penalized.

"Very simply put - for every dollar generated locally the state contributes two dollars. For every dollar not generated locally at a minimum level the state cuts the funding accordingly.

"Our intent is not to confuse you - but we do not intend to deceive you.

"When you add the two tax amounts together you will be paying more than you paid last year."

The school board voted to set a public hearing on the proposal to decrease the taxes. The meeting is set for Friday, August 30 at 1:00 p.m. in the Superintendents Office at 416 West Willow.

Board members present were Jim Bob Martin, Paul Glasson, Mike Mathis, Bernie Ford, and Carlton Johnson.

the rally," said Pat.

One of these students, 21 year old Jeff Smith, said, "Mr. Franklin meant a lot to me. He was a great teacher. It was unreal what I could do after his teachings, compared to what I could do when I storted."

So Smith decided he wanted to do something for Pat Franklin, in memory of her husband of 26 years. Last week he presented Pat with a colored pencil portrait of Dewane.

"It's hard to believe how much this looks like Dewane," said Mrs. Franklin, who is office manager of Goen and Goen Insurance. "Dewane always said that Jeff was one of his better students. Dewane always tried to inspire creativity in the students. He refused to do the work for the kids."

Smith studied art under Franklin in junior high in '82-'83, and in high school in '87-'88.

"This is the first time I have ever done anything like this," said Jeff, who makes his living at Script Printing. "I just draw for a hobby. I've never sold anything. I always give them away."

8th annual Agro Rescue school deemed a success

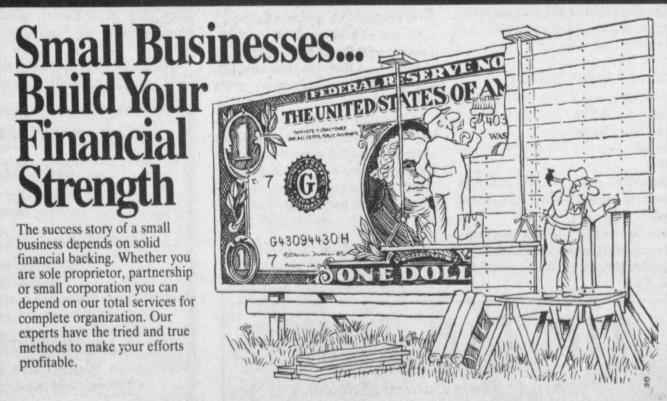

The Floydada Fire Departments annual Agro Rescue School was held the weekend of August 16 and 17. There were 312 registrants at this years school. Those registering came from all over the state.

With the early morning rain, many of those involved were asking, "What are we going to do?" One of the veteran instructors answered, "We go, we teach, we learn. All rescues may not be in perfect weather." A special thanks goes to Ray Lee Equipment, Brown Implement, Floydada Implement, State Highway Department, Dougherty Fire Department and the Floydada Fire Department Auxiliary for helping make the school a success.

Anyone with old unusable equipment that would like to donate it to the Floydada Fire Department for the use of teaching purposes at the agro rescue school, please contact a fireman or Floydada City Hall.

Thayer and Ray exchange marriage promises

Joey Thayer and Chris Ray were united in holy matrimony Saturday, Aug. 17, in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church in Floydada. They are the children of Jan Thayer of Floydada and Sharon and Jake Ray of Claude.

The chancel area was highlighted by a pair of candelabra holding ivory tapers and decked with palm branches, baby's breath and burgandy bows. A large basket of gladiolas, burgandy carnations, burgandy alstromeria lilies, baby's breath and greenery stood behind the altar table. A second pair of brass candelabra stood on each side of the altar in front of the altar rail. Large burgandy bows marked the pews.

Candlelighters were Denise Dempsey, cousin of the bride, and Katie Howard, cousin of the groom.

After being escorted to the front, both the bride's mother and groom's mother ascended the altar steps to light white hand-carved tapers flanking a large white hand-carved unity candle, a gift to the bride and groom. Todd Keller, soloist, sang "Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee."

Attending the bride as her matron of honor was Jamie Thompson of Dumas, sister of the bride. Other attendants were Tana Bates of Lubbock and Trish Hanna of San Angelo. The bridal attendants wore matching tea-length suits of forest green chintz, featuring short tucked sleeves, princess seams, slightly flared skirts and gold buttons. Each carried a cluster of burgandy alstromeria lilies, miniature carnations, baby's breath and greenery tied with burgandy ribbon.

Ring bearer and flower girl were Seth and Brittany Adcock of Lubbock. Seth wore a black tuxedo and black bow tie. Brittany wore a floral dress of rose, burgandy, forest green and navy with an ivory lace collar and burgandy sash.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her brother, Josh Thayer of Floydada. Her gown, an original design by Ilissa, was borrowed from her sister, Jamie Thompson. The fitted bodice of schiffli lace was encrusted with seed pearls and irridescent sequins. Long, tapered sleeves, beaded and sequined, formed a point at the wrist. Tiny taffeta buttons accented the bodice back, also highlighted by seed pearls and sequins. The full skirt of traditional white bridal taffeta, edged with beaded Alencon lace, swept to a full cathedral train. The bride's headpiece featured a beaded band which formed a soft V with sprays of tiny seed pearls and silk flowers framing her face. The fingertip veil with filament edging fell from a pouf of illusion attached to the beaded band. The bride carried a bouquet of burgandy sweetheart roses, pink alstromeria lillies, baby's breath and greenery.

Richard Ray of Amarillo, brother of the groom, served as best man. Other groomsmen were Darrell Gooch of Floydada and Dude Speed of Matador. They were attired in traditional black Parisian tuxedoes with black cummerbunds and black bow ties. The groom wore black Parisian tails, white bow tie and white vest.

Ushers were Greg Thompson of Dumas, brother-in-law of the bride; Darin Smith of Childress and Trent Anderson of Plainview.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Earl Blair, District Superintendent of Plainview District's of the First United Methodist Church and former pastor of Floydada's First UMC.

Following the reading of scripture from I Corinthian's love chapter, the couple repeated their vows and exchanged rings. The bride and groom faced each other as Todd Keller sang "I Will Be Here". After the couple lit the unity candle, the marriage was blessed and the soloist sang "The Lord's Prayer". The Rev. Blair introduced the newlyweds to the congregation.

Guests were registered by Katrina Gooch of Floydada.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of First Methodist Church. Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Bill Orman, Eddie Smith, L.D. Simpson, Scott Faulkenberry, Choise Smith, Don Hardy, Fred Cardinal, Jim Dempsey, W.H. Bunch, Jerry Thompson, Robert Stovall, Raymond Irby and Ms. Sue Crow. Servers at the bride's table were Jill Smith, Amy Burns and Kim Hardin. Servers at the groom's table were Bunny Speed, Karen Sweat and Mrs. Kenny

Langley-Vick exchange marriage promises

The First Baptist Church of Floydada was the site for the evening ceremony uniting Cathy Annette Langley of Floydada and Stuart Alan Vick of Metairie, Louisiana. Bill Smith of Floydada officiated the exchange of nuptials.

The bride is the daughter of Neil and Charline Langley of Floydada. The bridegroom is the son of Jan Vick of Metairie and Wade and Jean Vick of

The couple recited their vows as they stood before an altar adorned with white lattice centered between grecian marble columns topped with large baskets of fern. Waves of candles set in springeri adorned the front rails of the altar and along the stairways on either side. Two contemporary arrangements of burgandy and mauve flowers decorated seven-foot spiral candelabras in front of the altar. Tall, white candle markers decorated with back bows and greenery marked the pews from the front to the back of the church.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal off-thehoulder gown of white satin. The basque bodice with a sweetheart neckline dropped to the waist in the back. It was detailed with imported Italian alencon lace accented with pearls and irridescent sequins. The long sleeves of English net to the wrist with shoulder puff of white satin were given a finishing touch by white satin bows at the elbow centered with white drop pearls. The back neckline was gathered with strands of pearls forming a group of drop pearls at the center of the back.

The satin skirt fell from under a large satin bow at the waist to form a long chapel train detailed with a large applique of English net embellished with alencon lace, pearls and sequins in the center and set off by three smaller appliques also detailed with pearls and sequins. The dress was a design by Mori Lee Bridals of New York.

Her fingertip veil was made from imported English net decorated with pearls and sequins, adjoined with a rouche connected to a pearl headband that dropped to a point in the front with a single pearl drop at the center. She carried a bouquet of white roses, bear grass and pink stargazer lilies mounted 8-9, dis. 8-17 on a bride's Bible belonging to her mother.

Maid of honor was Denise Morren of Lubbock. The bridesmaids were Ginger Robinson of Lubbock, Tana Pirkle of Plainview, cousin of the bride; Julia Anderson of Lubbock and Ange Armstrong of Amarillo.

The bridesmaids wore tea-length dresses of black, irridescent, brocade 8-11, dis. 8-13 satin with black imported alencon lace overlaying a sleeveless sweetheart dis. 8-13 neckline dropping to the waist in the back. The bodice came to a point at the waist in the front and back edging a draped pouf at either side. The contemporary look was finished off with a split, straight skirt. They carried arm bou- 14, dis. 8-17 quets of pink stargazer lillies, American beauty roses, springeri and irridescent continues care black bows.

Flower girl was Whitney Langley, dis. 8-17 niece of the bride of Pampa. She wore a miniature style of the bridesmaids' while the groomsmen wore black tuxes and burgandy accessories. Best man was Wade Vick, father of the groom, of Addison. The groomsmen were Stephen Vick of Metairie and Jeff Vick of Germany, brothers of the groom; David Stalcup of Metairie and Bruce Beal of Lubbock. Ring bearer was Dusty Langley of Pampa, nephew of the bride.

Musical selections during the ceremony were presented by pianist Pam Lockwood of Lubbock and soloist was Sheldon Sue of Floydada.

Andy Langley of Pampa, brother of the bride, and Jayson Ferguson of Abilene, cousin of the bride, seated guests. Jason Thompson of Austin, nephew of the groom, was the candlelighter. Guests were registered by Jill Thompson of Austin, sister of the groom.

The traditional something old was a handkerchief belonging to the bride's great-grandmother, something new was her dress, something borrowed was a bride's Bible belonging to her mother and a necklace belonging to her aunt and something blue was her garter made and given to her by Atha Sue.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Massie Activity Center in Floydada. A sit down dinner was served. The buffet table was centered with a palm tree of pineapple surrounded by fruit pieces and trays of salads, meats, bread and vegetables. The table was also decorated with silver appointments.

The bride's table was covered with a white floor length satin cloth overlay with a battenberg lace cloth. The corner and center of the cloth were tied up with metallic gold rope and tassels. A fivetiered wedding cake covered with rolled

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

Hi, what does this find you doing? Some of you must be getting ready for school, some for reunions, last rip, or picnic before Fall begins. Anyway, we come to share with you some of the things that are going on around here.

Monday, started the week as usual with morning coffee, juice and cookies. By the way, we want to thank all the ladies from the First Baptist Church who have been making homemade cookies for our morning coffee. They have really been enjoying them. Also, thank you for your donation too. Bro. Bill Wright came and did the devotional with Otis Johnson leading the singing.

It rained last Tuesday so we were kinda disappointed about our cook-out, never-the-less, we ate inside and still had our brisket, etc., and all the trimming. We want to thank all those who prepared and brought the food.

Wednesday, was our Bingo day. Ruth Hammonds, Mary Alice Davis came and assisted us. Ruth Smitherman had the first Bingo. We had a full house.

Thursday, Charles Bradford and Cecil Pope came and shared a Psalm with us. We sang some songs. Frances Hambright played the piano for us. In the afternoon, was the monthly birthday party. We had four honorees, Mary Miller, Charles Breeding, Sue Thompson and Etoile Stanley. The ladies from the City Park Church of Christ that served cake and punch were Ruth Walker, Funice Hardy and Lorilla Bradley. Thanks ladies.

Friday, Jan Thayer and Sue Crow came and shared the word and song with us. At 1:30 the residents went on the bus ride to Plainview. McDonalds treated them to some ice cream. The residents going were Nettie Adams, Peggy Young, Etoile Stanley, Audie Poteet, Charles Breeding, Kermit Glover, Knox Jameson, Brooks Callaway and Henry Willis. They always enjoy the bus ride. Some did some shopping at Wal-Mart.

We want to welcome two new residents to our facility. They are Viola B. Riddle, she is the mother of Mary Poteet and Otho Callaway of Matador, brother of Brooks Callaway.

Jim Clover and Hattie Jones are still in the hospital in Lubbock. We wish for you a speedy recovery.

Thursday, we will be selling breakfast burritoes. You may call your order in and we will deliver. The proceeds will still go for our large screen TV for the residents.

Thought I really don't mind living alone, But at times when I'm in pain, It would be nice to have someone near To hear me as I complain.

Breakfast important start of school day

School is just around the corner, and parents are beginning to shop for supplies. But a nutritionist at the Children's Nutrition Research Center in Houston says one obvious entry on the annual checklist is often overlooked - break-

"It is the most important meal of the day, especially for children," said Janice Stuff, a research instructor at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. "Breakfast supplies 1/4 to 1/2 of the recommended daily allowance of vitamins and minerals. If you skip breakfast, it is hard to catch up during the day."

Mastering the three Rs requires a lot of energy. Without breakfast, children are usually hungry by midmorning. A hungry child is too cranky and too tired to concentrate on schoolwork, Stuff said.

"Breakfast gives a child an energy boost improving his or her behavior, attitude and physical and mental performance."

Healthy breakfasts draw on several of the basic food groups. Parents can fortify their mini-scholars by serving a dairy product, a protein, a bread or cereal and a fruit.

However, it is okay to vary the menu and offer foods that do not fit the traditional breakfast ideal.

Stuff suggests the following alterna-

- * peanut butter and jelly sandwich
- * yogurt and toast with jelly * fresh fruit and cottage cheese
- * cheese and crackers

Discretion is urged when selecting breakfast meats as well. "A number of breakfast meats are marked lean or lite. They may have fewer calories, but 70% of those calories may come from fat," Stuff said.

To add protein to the morning meal, she recommends either Canadian bacon or ham that has been prepared in a nonstick skillet or microwave oven. Only 45% of the calories in Canadian bacon or ham come from fat.

Despite good intentions, parents may undermine efforts to start their child's day on a healthy note. According to Stuff, children's food choices and eating habits are influenced by the preferences of their parents.

"Parents must set a good example, and Mom is an especially important role model. If she sips coffee and munches on a doughnut, what kind of message is she sending her child?"

When possible, parents should also include the child in menu planning, shopping and meal preparation. The entire family should practice the ABCs of good nutrition.

VA cuts loan cost to veterans

American veterans will have an easier time buying homes for their families, thanks to a decision by the Department of Veterans Affairs to cut mortgage rates to 9 percent.

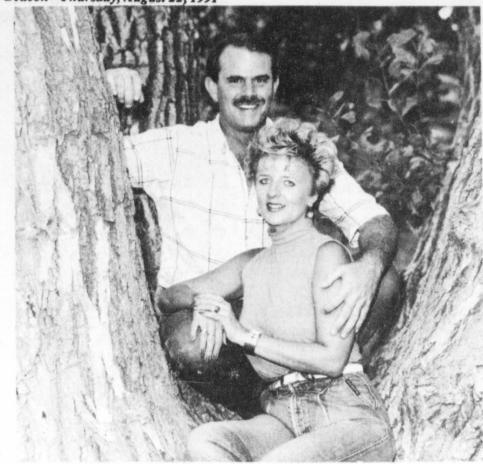

"The VA made it possible for nearly 200,000 veterans to buy homes last year," noted U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm. "With lower interest rates, even more may find a home - often their first home — affordable for the first time."

The senator also pointed out that the .5 percent reduction marks a specific reversal of VA rate trend. As recent as June, the department had been raising the mortgage rate.

"Every dip in the VA mortgage rate makes it possible for thousand of people to buy homes, creating a wave of prosperity that buoys the entire economy," the senator said. The current rates for other types of VA loans also were reduced, moving graduated payment mortgages to 9.25 percent, home improvement loans to 10.5 percent and loans on manufactured homes to 11.5 percent.

On Wednesday, Aug. 7, the Whirlwind Sams of Floydada met at the Massie Activity Center for their departure to Ruidoso, New Mexico. Those present included the Benson's, McElyea's, Norrell's, Parker's, Thaxton's. Trail boss George and Betty Miller joined the group at Lubbock.

The group arrived at Circle "B" R.V. Park about 3:30 p.m. They were greeted by the Cates', Cockrell's, Gilbreath's, Feuerbacher's, McPhearson's, Russell's and Weathersbee's. The Patzer's came later in the afternoon. Boone and Ruth Adams arrived Saturday after lunch.

On Thursday, Bill and Estelle Gilbreath arrived to spend the weekend with J.W. and Betty. Also the Benson's had as their guests their children from Euless, John and D'Alan Bates and children, Megan and Daniel.

At 10:00 a.m. most of the group departed for Alamogordo for lunch at K-Bob's and at 1:00 p.m. to the OmniMax Theater at the Space Center to see the show "The Blue Planet". This was enjoyed by all. Some went through the Host families sought for international high school students

Host families are being sought for high school exchange students from Sweden, Denmark, Spain, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Brazil, Ecuador and Turkey for the school year 1991-92 in a program sponsored by the American Intercultural Student Exchange (AISE).

The students, age 15 through 17, will arrive in the United States in August 1991, attend a local high school, and return to their home countries in June 1992. Students are fluent in English, have been screened by their school representatives in their home countries, have spending money and medical insurance.

Host families may deduct $50 per month for income tax purposes.

Families interested in host family program should call Toll Free: 1-800-SIBLING.

Residents celebrate August birthdays

By Lorilla Bradley August brings hot summer days And how they make us lazy! With Indian summer in the air The skies are often hazy!

Mrs. Miller we now greet ... Her parents named her Mary... Though she has slowed her steps a bit She still is bright and cheery!

We have a lovely lady ... She counts from 1902 ... A friend she is to everyone... You know her name . . . it's SUE!

Mr. Breeding we salute ... His years are 68 ... And party time is just his "dish" He wouldn't DARE be late! ****

We welcome Mrs. Stanley On this her special day . . . May life for her be happy In every sort of way!

To cheer these lovely people Let's do the Birthday Song . . . So get your "vocals" ready And sing out good and strong.

Thursday, Aug. 15, was party time at the Rest Home with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosting.

The Hesperian photographer came for the picture taking after which everyone was ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor" table. It was laid with a rose colored cloth and centered with an arrangement of silk flowers in shades of pink.

Each honoree wore a fresh carnation compliments of Williams Flower and Card Shop and their places were marked with a special birthday card. Jo Bryant read a brief history of the life and times of each of the honorees after which the poem was read and all joined in singing the Happy Birthday song.

A delicious refreshment plate of pink birthday cake and angel food cake along with a delightful fruit punch was served.

Seated with Sue Thompson was Dolores Cannon and Mrs. Hall had as her guests, Margie and Sharon Reynolds and Karyn Cardor. We are always delighted to have guests and invite you to be with your friends and loved ones on their special day. The next party will be Thursday, Sept. 19, 2:30 p.m.

AUGUST BIRTHDAYS--Floydada Nursing Home residents celebrated their August birthdays with a party Thursday, August 15. Residents being honored this month

ROSA CAMDEN

Services for Rosa Jane Camden, 94, of Slaton, sister of Pernie Leatherman of Floydada, will be at 3 p.m. Thursday, ug. 22, in First Baptist Church with the Rev. Kenneth Winchester officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery in Floydada under direction of Englunds Funeral Service.

Mrs. Camden died at 11:35 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 20, 1991, in St. Mary of the Plains Hospital after a brief illness.

JOHN FARMER

Funeral services for John Henry Farmer Jr., 80, of Floydada were at 10 a.m. Friday, Aug. 16, in Moore-Rose-White Funeral Home with the Rev. Howell Farnsworth, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Floyd County Memorial Park.

Mr. Farmer died at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 14, 1991, in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock after a lengthy illness. He was born Aug. 30, 1910 in Clay County and moved from Dickens County to Floyd County in 1928. He was a farmer and stockman for 56 years in the Lakeview, Baker and Campbell communities. He was a member of Floyd County Sheriff's Posse and First Baptist Church.

Survivors include a sister, Winnie Neil of Floydada; and a brother, Homer of Floydada.

Pallbearers were G.L. Fawver, A.C. Pratt, Floyd Bradford, Travis Jones, Roy Baxter and Jerry Thompson.

MARY COLLIS GOODE

Memorial services for Mary Collis Goode, former longtime resident of the Sandhill Community, were at 10 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 15, in the Garden Room of First Baptist Church with F.L. Montandon officiating. Mrs. Goode died July 24, 1991 in California, where she was living with her daughter. Her body was cremated. Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. David (Billie) Blair of Temecula, Calif.; one granddaughter, Whitney Blair of Canada; and three sisters, including Edna Goode of Plainview.

FRANCES HALL

Graveside services for Frances Hall, 95, of Plainview were at 11 a.m. Friday, Aug. 16, in Floydada Cemetery with Dr. Fred Meeks of Wayland Baptist University, officiating. Burial arrangements were by Lemons Funeral Home.

Mrs. Hall died at 12:05 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 14, 1991, in Heritage Home after a lengthy illness.

She was born Frances Smith on Oct. 18, 1895, in Wolf City. She grew up in Wolf City and moved to Floydada in 1915 and to Plainview in 1927. She had worked at the Rose Shop. She moved back to Floydada in 1942 and returned to Plainview in 1957. She was a home-

A Bus Driver's Prayer

(Editor's Note: The following was submitted to The Hesperian-Beacon by Annelda Staples, a bus driver for the Floydada Independent School District. Mrs. Staples clipped it out of an area newspaper a few years ago. We thought now would be an appropriate time to publish it with the new school year beginning.)

Please, Lord, watch over me this day. Please help me remember to watch all five mirrors, two dozen windows, eight gauges, six warning lights, six dozen faces, three lanes of traffic and to keep a third eye open for wobbling bicycles and day-dreaming pedestrians, especially teenagers wearing headsets who are in another world.

Please, Lord, help me hear all train whistles, truck and automobile horns and police sirens. Please, Lord, give me a hand for the gear lever, the steering wheel, the route book, the radio and the turn-signal. And, Lord, please grant me the self-control to keep my hands away from Johnny's neck. And one more thing, dear Lord, please don't let Mary be sick all over the bus. And finally, Lord, please watch over us all so that we can do it again next year.

Texas Lions Camp serves handicapped

The Texas Lions Camp, formally known as the Texas Lions League for Crippled Children, operates as a nonprofit organization dedicated to serving the handicapped children of Texas. Emphasis is placed on providing a summer camp for children with disability at no cost to them or their parents. The organization is funded by Lions and other caring individuals.

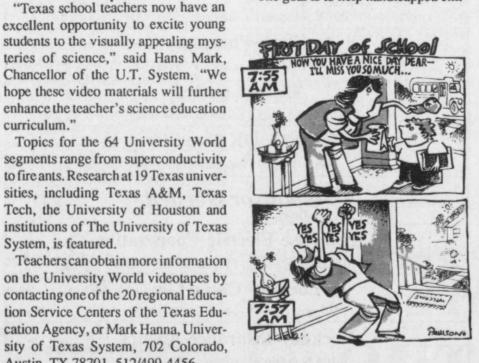

WHO MAY ATTEND

Visually impaired, hearing impaired, and physically handicapped children between the ages of seven and 16 are eligible to attend the camp. Children with disabilities such as absence or amputation of limbs, albino, arthritis, asthma, blind or visual impairments, birth defects, burns, cancer, cerebral palsy, progressive muscular atrophy, cystic fibrosis, deaf or hearing impairment (50% or more hearing loss), dwarfism, epilepsy, Erb's Palsy, heart condition, hydrocephalus, Legg Perthes, Lupus, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, phocomelia, polio, rickets, scoliosis, sickle cell anemia, speech impairment, spina bifida, spinal cord injury causing paralysis, partial paralysis, or muscle impairment have attended the camp in the past two years. This is only a partial list — children with many more disabilities are eligible to attend. A special diabetes education camp is also offered for insulin dependent diabetic children between the ages of seven and

Last summer, Texas Lions sponsored 1077 campers to participate in six camping sessions. This included 424 orthopedically impaired children, 210 hearing impaired children, 75 visually impaired children and children with various other handicaps. Insulin dependent campers numbered 368 for two sessions. The Texas Lions Camp has provided over 40,000 handicapped children with an opportunity to learn from and enjoy the outdoors since it was founded in 1949.

In 1949, a new Lions Club, led by Jack Roe, conceived the idea that the Lions of Texas should sponsor a summer camp for handicapped children. The camp was designed for children, who because of their physical limitations, could not participate in the activities at camps for other children. A camp designed for handicapped children was in great need during these times due to the large number of children who were crippled by the polio epidemic. The summer of 1953 was the first summer children attended the camp. The total population the first summer was 326 children. Today, over 1,000 children who are blind, deaf or have physical disabilities attend each summer.

Camp activities are supervised by a trained staff at a ratio of one counselor to every three campers. The activities are adapted so every child may participate, regardless of his or her disability. Children participate in such activities as swimming, horseback riding, fishing, nature study, tennis, field sports and even an overnight campout. These activities are presented in an outdoor setting on 500-plus acres of beautiful hills and woodlands in the Texas Hill Coun-

In 1971 a camp for insulin dependent children with diabetes was added to the programs offered by the Texas Lions League. The Camp for Diabetic Children is a medical education program that focuses on teaching young diabetics how to care for their special health needs. A medical team of physicians, nurses, and dietitians join the camp staff during the diabetic camping sessions. The medical team holds educational classes each day to help the diabetic youngsters learn about their unique medical needs. In addition, the parents are invited to a special program to instruct them on what their children learn Allowing churches and other groups to lease the facility year-round helps the camp to continue serving disabled children throughout the summer. This year the Texas Lions Camp is initiating another experimental program for senior adults called New Horizons in the Hill Country. New Horizons in the Hill Country is a three-day residential educational and recreational program. Participants will take part in such activities as medical and health insurance workshops, genealogy, stress management and relaxation techniques, nature crafts, arts and crafts, and video camera photography. Many recreation opportunities are available. The participant can select from many offered activities or just sit back and relax.

In 1957 a partnership between the Texas Commission for the Blind and the Texas Lions League joined together to serve blind individuals at the League's facilities from September through May. The Adult Blind Program was in operation from 1957 to 1984 and served more than 1,600 visually impaired individuals. In 1984 the Texas Commission for the Blind continued the program at their Criss Cole Rehabilitation Center in

Currently, the League is one of the largest educational and recreational programs in the United States available to disabled persons. The facility has served as a worldwide model. The League is a charitable organization funded by Lions, Lionesses and others who are interested in providing therapeutic programs for handicapped individuals. Children attend the summer camp at no cost to the family. Executive Director Glenn Crawford says, "The programs give campers a chance to succeed with happiness and dignity."

Smith attends Lions Camp

Shonda Smith, 10-year-old daughter of Victor and Stacey Smith of Floydada, recently attended the Texas Lions Camp in Kerrville. Sponsored by the Floydada Lions Club, this camper had the opportunity to ride horses, study nature and participate in sporting events between classes designed to teach insulin dependent children to manage and understand diabetes.

A team of doctors, nurses and dietitians from the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston taught campers about exchange diets, blood sugar level testing, the effects of exercise on blood sugar levels, and how to give their own insulin injections. NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON TAX DECREASE

The Lockney Independent School District will hold a public hearing on a proposal to decrease total tax revenues from properties on the tax roll in 1990 by 69.41 percent. Your individual taxes may increase at a greater or lesser rate, or even decrease, depending on the change in the taxable value of your property in relation to the change in the taxable value of all other property.

The public hearing will be held on Friday, August 30, 1991, at 1:00 p.m. at the Lockney I. S. D. Superintendent's Office at 416 W. Willow Street in Lockney.

> FOR the proposal: Jim Martin, Paul Glasson Mike Mathis, Bernie Ford and Carlton Johnson

AGAINST the proposal: None

PRESENT and not voting: None

ABSENT: Gary Mangold and Richard Lambert

The statement above shows the percentage decrease the proposed rate represents from the .8675 effective tax rate that the unit published on August 22, 1991. The following table compares taxes on the average home in this taxing unit last year to taxes proposed on the average home this year. Again, your individual taxes may be higher or lower, depending on the taxable value of your

	Last Year	This Year
Average home value	16,170	16,390
General exemptions available (amount available on the average home, not including senior citizen's or disabled person's exemptions)	5,000	5,000
Average taxable value	11,170	11,390
Tax rate	.8620	.2637 (proposed)
Tax	$96.29	$30.03

Under this proposal taxes on the average home would decrease by $66.26 or 68.81 percent compared to last year's taxes.

Comparing tax rates without adjusting for changes in property value, the tax rate would decrease by $66.84 per $100 of taxable value or 69.42 percent compared to last year's tax rate. These tax rate figures are not adjusted for changes in the taxable value of property.

School districts compared to averages

By Juanita Stepp

According to figures received from the Texas Research League in Austin, Texas, the two school districts in Floyd County spent more per student than the calculated state average in the last school year. The Texas state average for current operation during the 1990-91 school year was $3,7775.00 per student plus $316.00 for repayment of debt and $433 in capital outlay per student.

The Floydada Independent School District (FISD) budget for the 1990-91 school year allotted $4,447.22 per student for current operations, $123.78 per student for debt service and $198.13 per student for capital outlay. These figures, which are not finalized at this time, were based on the 1255 students enrolled in the district during October, 1990.

The Lockney Independent School District (LISD) budget for the same period alloted $3,845.29 per student for current operations, $3.21 per student towards debt servicing and $163.24 for capital outlay. These figures were based on the 811 students enrolled in the district in October.

The average base salary for classroom teachers paid by FISD in October, 1990, was $25,705.00 while Lockney paid an average base salary of $25,531.00. Career ladder supplements are extra. The last year with complete figures, 1989-90, shows the state average to be just over $28,000.00.

Administrative salaries in FISD averaged $40,641 while administrators in LISD earned an average of $44,350.00. Support personnel such as librarians, counselors, nurses, etc., were paid an average of $28,988.00 per student in LISD. FISD support personnel averaged $31,304.00 in salaries for the last school year.

Four out of every five dollars spent on education goes to pay salaries according to the bench mark report. The statewide payroll expense average per student was $3,087.00. FISD averaged $3,488.37 in salary expense per pupil enrolled. LISD averaged $3,030.67 per pupil. Payroll expense is determined by salary levels and staffing patterns within each individual district.

Taxpayer funding provided one teacher to every 16.4 pupils over the state. The pupil teacher ratio in the Lockney ISD for the year was 14.5 to one while the ratio in Floydada ISD was 13.7 to one. The existence of small classes, especially at the high school level, and abbreviated teaching schedules leaves many classes with a higher than average number of students.

The average school district property tax was imposed at a rate of $1.088 per $100 of appraised value. This value averaged 98 percent of the market or selling price of the property. The "true tax rate" was $1.066 ($1.088 times 98 percent) statewide.

Locally, FISD imposed a tax rate of 78 cents while property was appraised at 116.6 percent of its market value, making the true tax rate $0.909 per $100 of market value. LISD imposed a tax rate of 86.2 cents with property appraised at 105 percent of its market value, making the true rate 90.5 cents per $100 of market value.

The bench mark report points out that the calculation of a true tax rate based on market value rather than on appraised value is necessary to make a valid comparison of tax levels with other schools.

By way of example, the tax on a house that would sell for $80,000.00 located in FISD during the past year would be a total of $571.00. If the homeowner were eligible for a homestead exemption, the tax would have been $532.00 and if owned by a person 65 years or older, the tax on that same house would have been $454.00 or less, if subject to a tax freeze. This compares with a statewide average tax bill of $871.00, $771.00 and $586.00, respectively for an $80,000.00

Lockney ISD rates on the same $80,000.00 home would have been $572.00. With a homestead exemption, the tax would have fallen to $529.00 and to $443.00 for an owner age 65 or older.

Last year, the FISD revenue from property tax increased by 9.1 percent as compared to 8.7 percent statewide. LISD revenues from property tax increased by 17.8 percent for the same period.

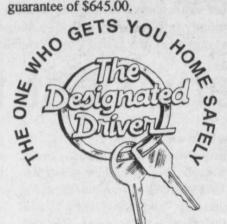

whirlwind gibes

Local property taxes plus state aid totaled $3,962.00 in FISD and LISD property taxes supplemented by state aid totaled $3,981.00. The statewide average was $3,661.00.

Under the new school finance system, the state and the newly created county education districts will fund the total cost of the foundation school program, which averaged $2,458.00 per student last year. The FISD average for the base program was $2,964.00 and the LISD average was $2,971.00. Local school districts can levy property taxes to enrich the foundation (mandated) pro-

Enrichment last year averaged $995.00 per pupil to which the state added an average $207.00 per student to guarantee a tax yield in property poor

Enrichment funds in FISD were $400.00 with the state adding a guarantee of $598.00. Enrichment funds in LISD were $364.00 plus the state added guarantee of $645.00.

Ascensio and Luna commit to Army with delayed entry

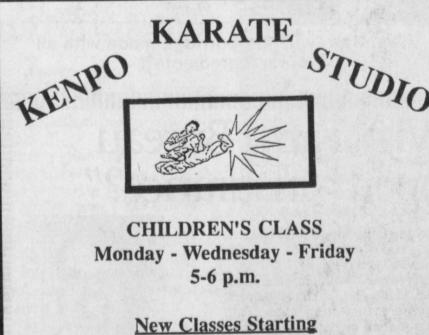

Two new seniors at Lockney High School have joined the U.S. Army under the delayed entry program. Tony Ascensio and Ignacio Luna will each report for active duty after their scheduled May graduation from High School.

Luna, son of Avaristo and Alice Luna of Lockney, joined the Army in late June with plans to become a combat engineer. He will receive both his Army basic training and technical combat engineer training at Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri.

Ascensio, son of Gloria Ferrios of Lockney, reserved job training in the medical field. He will receive basic training at Fort Jackson in South Carolina and then transfer to the Academy of Health Sciences on Fort Sam Houston near San Antonio for training as a medical specialist.

Each young man has qualified for the Army College Fund which will allow them to accumulate up to $17,000.00 for college or vocational training during their two year enlistments.

Final results of the Texas Certified Producer Organizations Caucus, held August 2, in Dallas, resulted in nominations for positions on the Cotton Board, the addition of two delegate positions to the National Cotton Council (NCC), and the addition of one Texas position on the Cotton Incorporated (CI) Board of Directors. Besides the new positions a number of NCC and CI positions were also up for renewal.

Nominations for two places on the Cotton Board were made at the caucus. Nominations will be submitted to the Secretary of Agriculture who has final say over the appointed positions on the Cotton Board. The Texas caucus nominated two individuals for each member and alternate position available in 1991. Nominations to Texas position #2 were: Daniel Hirt, Garden City and Clifford Hoelscher, Garden City, for CB member; for the alternate position Bob Bickley, Pecos, and Gerline Frysak, St. Lawrence, were nominated. For Texas position #4 the nominations were: Ferdie Walker, Stamford, and David Stubblefield, Stamford, for CB member; Woody Anderson, Colorado City, and Mike McQuire, Snyder, were nominated for the alternate position.

CI Directors and alternates chosen to serve until 1994 are: O.L. Leissner, Needville, and his alternate Donald F. Swann, Taft; C. Weldon Rodgers, Paducah, and alternate Mark W. Lundgren, Avoca; and Gary Ivey, Idalou, and alternate Eddie Smith, Floydada. Ivey and Smith were selected to replace Daniel Hirt as alternate position. M.G. "Newt" Dyer, Harlingen was selected to replace Daniel Hirt as alternate to Joe A. Pennington, Raymondville, on the CI Board.

NCC Delegates and alternates chosen to represent Texas until 1994 are: Delegate Morris Light, Snyder, and alternate Ray Ritchey, Colorado City; Delegate Frank B. Jones, Lamesa, and alternate Don Langston, Lubbock; Delegate Ron Craft, Plains, and alternate Andrew P. Gannaway, Haskell; Delegate James Ray Adams, Odem, and alternate James Kainer, El Campo; and Delegate Larry Schwertner, Ballinger, and alternate Ralph Matschek, Ballinger. Schwertner and Matschek fill one of two new delegate positions. The other new position, set to be reappointed in 1992, was filled by Delegate Ray Sawyer, Hillsboro, and alternate S.R. Tye Company host to dealers and reps details on what they do.

The Tye Company of Lockney was host to six of their dealers and three of their manufacturing representives on Friday, August 16. The dealers and reps flew in from Indiana and Ohio to get a first hand look at the manufacturing plant that builds the Tye drill.

The visitors were able to meet and visit with the Tye Company staff, "that we talk to over the telephone". The meeting allowed everyone to update on what is going on. The dealers get ideas from the farmers in their area and they in turn pass it on the representatives and the manufacturer.

The visitors and Tye Company staff ate lunch with the of the Lockney Rotary Club. They introduced themselves and told where they came from and a few

ML Cattle Company elected to association

M L Cattle Co., Lockney, has been elected to membership in the American Angus Association, reports Dick Spader, executive vice president of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri.

The American Angus Association, with over 24,000 active adult and junior members, is the largest beef cattle registry association in the world. Its computerized records include detailed information on nearly 11 million registered Angus.

The Association records ancestral information and keeps records of production on individual animals for its members. These permanent records help members select and mate the best animals in their herds to produce high quality, efficient breeding cattle which are then recorded with the American Angus Association. Most of these registered Angus are used by the U.S. farmers and ranchers who raise high quality beef for U.S. consumption.

10th to 12th (2 blocks). The application must be submitted by August 30 to qualify for consideration this year.

Howard explained that the application requested funding in the amount of $188,850.00. The TDOC portion of the proposed project would be $164,217.00 and the city would contribute a financial match of $24,633.00. The overall funding would cover the estimated cost of the project including engineering, administrative and construction costs.

Criteria upon which approval is based centers on the number of lower income persons who will directly benefit from the proposed project. Preliminary approval in the competition for funds is made after each project submitted from the 15 county area overseen by South Plains Area Governments (SPAG) has been reviewed and scored on a point system. Those selected by the SPAG committee are forwarded to the state and final approval comes from TDOC.

Discussion from the people in attendance at the hearing was not confined to the grant application. Most of the discussion was from two differing factions in the city requesting other paving projects. One group was asking for paving on Ninth Street and another asking for paving on Tenth Street. Neither area qualifies for grant funds, so the discussion was irrelevant to the public hearing and was halted by Mayor Russell when it became apparent that no progress was being made towards constructive input concerning the grant application.

Following the closing of the hearing, a motion was made by Councilman Amado Morales to approve the grant application for submission. The motion was seconded by Councilman Wayne Tipton and the vote in favor was unanimous.

MACKENZIE REPORT

John Simpson, manager of Mackenzie Municipal Water Authority, presented the annual budget to the council. He detailed revenues and the costs of operation for the water authority which serves Floydada, Lockney, Silverton and Tulia. Floydada's share of the funding for the water facility will be payable in monthly installments of $22,932.00 during the next year.

Simpson asked that the council consider approving the establishment of a reserve fund designated for the purpose of replacing the water treatment equipment and instrumentation in the future. The estimated cost of the project is placed at $300,000.00. He requested that the water authority be allowed to utilize interested collected on the bond reserve fund toward this goal.

According to Simpson, The eventual replacement of this equipment is going to be necessary and will have to be funded by the cities served. This plan would allow the cities to accumulate a fund for this expense instead of having to make the entire allotment at one time. The council will consider the matter on another agenda.

HOUSING AUTHORITY REQUESTS WAIVER

Cindy Dudley, manager of the Floydada Housing Authority, came before the council to request a waiver allowing the housing facility to forego the voluntary payment of their PILOT (payment in lieu of taxes) for the tax years 1983, 1984, 1990, 1991 and "all future years until our reserves reach 40 percent."

She explained that the federal government required the payment of PILOT, but would honor a waiver. PILOT is calculated on the rent taken in by the facility during a year less the utilities the facility pays.

The council approved a motion by Councilman Wayne Tipton that the city agree to waive the payment of PILOT for 1983, 1984, and 1990 then review the matter on a year to year basis since Dudley was unable to specify what the reserves would have to build up to in order to meet the 40 percent level. A second for the motion came from Councilman Ruben Barrientoz and the vote was unanimous.

ORDINANCES APPROVED

The councilmen approved the signing of Ordinance #740 approving a 3.7 percent rate increase by Energas. According to Percy Edwards, local office manager, the increase will average $1.69 per month per residential customer. There has been no rate increase for Energas since 1984. Approval was unanimous on a motion by Councilman Clar Schacht with a second by Barrien-

Approval of Ordinance #741 authorizing the updating of service credits and annuity increases for city employee retirement authorized the annual procedure. This ordinance will negate the need to do this each year. The credits and annuities will only have to be redone if the city opts to increase the city portion of the contributions.

Zoning Ordinance #742 was on the agenda for the second time and was approved on a motion by Councilman Eric Cornelius with a second by Schacht. The ordinance provides for penalties in the event of a violation of the zoning ordinances of the City of Floydada. The vote in favor of passing the ordinance was approved by unani-

DEMOLITION PROJECTS

Bids were opened and awarded in the proposed demolition of the dilapidated structure at 615 E. Jackson Street. Two bids were received, $900 from Vernon Wickware and $600 from Kevin Nelson. The council awarded the bid to Nelson on a motion by Councilman Leroy Burns with a second by Morales.

The council opted to pursue demolition procedures against the property at 621 W. Jackson belonging to T. U. Linch. Linch had previously told the council he would see that the property was cleaned up and the council had granted him 60 days (from June 17, 1991) to show a bonafide effort to clear up the situation.

At this time, no serious effort has been displayed, so the council authorized the continuation of demolition procedures.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS

City manager Gary Brown presented a list of capital improvements he wanted to include in the proposed budget for the coming year. The list was based on major expenditures the city needs to consider for the year as well as requests from various departments for items they deemed necessary.

Several items which will involve especially large funding were placed on reserve status and Brown asked the council to consider designating funds to be held in reserve this year and in future years to allow accumulation of sufficient funds to complete the projects.

Among the items authorized for reserving funds were City Hall improvements (for a proposed expansion and renovation project estimated to cost at least $135,000.00) in the amount of $40,000.00. Brown also asked to place $20,000.00 in reserve toward the purchase of a new street sweeper, $25,000.00 in reserve toward the purchase of a new garbage truck, $24,000.00 for a new sewer machine and $20,000.00 in reserve for city street

Other items on the list for inclusion in the proposed budget, but not on reserve status were the purchase of a pickup ($12,500.00), a police vehicle ($8,000.00), park improvements ($10,000.00), electric distribution line improvements ($85,000.00), and water improvements ($20,000.00). These items will be addressed in the coming budget year if the appropriations are approved in the final version of the

The total devoted to capital improvements and included in the proposed budget for the coming fiscal year was $269,500.00. Motion for approval of the list and authorization to include the items in the proposed budget came from Schacht and was seconded by Cornelius. The vote on the motion was four in favor (Schacht, Cornelius, Burns and Tipton) and two against (Morales and Barrientoz).

The two desenting votes came because those councilmen wanted the proposed budget to include $68,000.00 designated to paving a section of Tenth Street in northeast Floydada. They were not satisfied with the plan to begin setting money aside each year towards paving city streets which would not qualify for grant funds.

Mayor Russell reminded the pair that "up to now, paving has been paid for by the residents of a street or has been done with grant funds. Now you want to pave at city expense."

A public hearing was scheduled for the purpose of hearing citizens comments and views prior to the adoption of the proposed budget. The hearing will be on September 16, 1991, at the next regular session of the council. Any interested city resident or taxpayer is urged to attend and let their feelings be

OTHER MATTERS

Council members voted to amend the regulations for the use of the R. V. Park and Pavilion by individuals or groups. The change is the addition of a fee for short term usage. Rental will be $10.00 per hour or $50.00 whichever is greater. All other regulations remain the same. Motion for the change was made by Tipton and seconded by Morales.

Brown requested that the council consider amending the policy concerning utility deposits. Brown asked the council to authorize the connection of a second location in a customer's name for a reduced rate of a $50.00 deposit. Heretofore, the deposit has been $100 for each location.

The council approved the matter adding the stipulation that the customer have a three year proven history of on time payment. Motion was made by Morales and seconded by Schacht. The vote in favor of the motion was unani-

A motion by Cornelius, seconded by Barrientoz, was passed unanimously approving the advertising for sale of a 1979 Chevrolet police vehicle. Also approved at the session were the minutes from the previous three meetings and the payment of the monthly city

The session ended with the city manager's report which concerned one subject, the landfill permit application. Brown told the council that the revised landfill application had been taken to Austin and delivered to L. D. Hancock, the person in charge of solid waste disposal for this area.

Brown indicated that Hancock was not optimistic about the permit or the feasibility of a city the size of Floydada operating a landfill. He told Brown that the costs of the environmental protection aspects of the landfill might be prohibitive.

Brown said, "I did not come away with a good feeling about the matter. I think we will definitely get a permit. I don't know when and I don't know if the restrictions placed on it will allow us to financially operate it."

Present for the extended session were Mayor Russell, Councilmen Morales Barrientoz, Schacht, Burns, Tipton and Cornelius, city manger Brown, city secretary Jimmie Lou Stewart, city attorney Karen Houchin, approximately 40 additional people and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

County considers redistricting

The letter from TRLA was also accompanied by a map with their redistricting proposal.

"What we have here is TRLA telling us we need two majority minority districts and our attorney, Harvey Morton telling us we only need one," said Judge Hardin.

The commissioners also had several plans before them that had been created by a citizens committee, including Plan I which was recommended by the committee. This plan created districts with 32.07% minority population in Precinct #1; a 31.19% minority population in Precinct #2; a 69.28% minority population in Precinct #3; and a 47.25% minority population in Precinct #4.

Hardin asked for comments from anyone present and Jack Ochoa stated, "Judge, I agree that the plan presented by the TRLA is not workable but we all know that you are going to have a fight on your hands if you don't create two majority minority districts. "I think you ought to look at another plan that is a compromise and everyone can live with." Hardin then told the commissioners the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

that Margaret Herrera, had drawn up another redistricting plan that did create two majority minority districts. The commissioners agreed to look at the Herrera's plan altered from plan one of the citizens committee in that Precinct #4 would be 57.4% minority. "All I'm saying," said Herrera, "is that it can be done if you want to. I think that the commissioners should create the two majority minority districts."

"Was this plan approved by the citizens committee," asked Commissioner

"No, I did it myself," said Herrera.

The commissioners then agreed to present Herrera's plan to the citizens committee and then wait for their recommendation. Another public hearing will be held at a later date to consider whatever plan the citizens committee brings forth.

The citizens committee consists of: Margaret Herrera, John Campbell, Jeff Johnson, Jessie Garza, Fidel Martinez, Kelton Shaw and Alex Wall.

Present for the public hearing were: Commissioners George Taylor, Connie Bearden, Floyd Jackson, Howard Bishop; Judge Hardin, Margaret Herrera, Jack Ochoa, Raynell Bearden and

DONATION TO AMBULANCE -- Rhonda Guthrie (left) monitors Jerry Thompson's blood pressure and pulse with the new automatic device the local pharmacist donated to the Floydada EMS Ambulance. The device will allow EMS personnel to monitor blood pressures and pulses as they travel with patients. This was not possible with older equipment. Said Guthrie, "We are very grateful for this donation. It means better care for those who need our services." She also expressed the gratitude of the ambulance service for the memorials and donations which are still coming in. "We need all the help we can get and we are very appreciative of each and every donation to our cause."

Public Notice

On July 22, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas for approval of two new optional services, Exchange Connection Service and Customer Alerting Enablement. Exchange Connection Service will permit a customer of the Telephone Company to provide voice messaging service, telephone answering service, or other services to itself or to patrons of the customer. Customer Alerting Enablement will permit residence and business lines to receive an alerting tone (intermittent dial tone) transmitted by an Exchange Connection Service customer. The proposed effective date for this offering is September 23, and will be available statewide where facilities permit.

The calling party's telephone number and other originating network call information will be delivered to the Exchange Connection Service customer when the calling number and the called number are served by the same switch. Additionally, the caller's telephone number and other originating network call information may be recorded and stored by the Exchange Connection Service customer. Custo the caller before the call is answered. All Exchange Connection Service customers will be required to sign a non-disclosure agreement prior to being provided service. In the agreement the customer agrees not to disclose the calling party's telephone number unless the customer has written permission from the calling party.

The Telephone Company estimates these new services will increase its annual revenues during the first year by approximately $1.2 million. Providers of voice messaging service and telephone answering services and their subscribers are the types of customers likely to be affected by approval of these services.

Exchange Connection Service is provided to customers in two parts: Local Serving Arrangement, which provides access to the exchange network; and Optional Service Features. The proposed rates, for both Exchange Connection Service and Customer Alerting Enablement, including installation charges, are as

1991 Property Tax Rates in Floydada ISD

This notice concerns 1991 property tax rates for Floydada ISD. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express adequately the love and gratitude we feel and have felt during these past years in Floydada. Thank you to all of our friends and church family for the party given for us. A special thank you to the parents and friends who have taken Joel under their wing and for the going away party's given for him. We are not moving far and will always hold each of you in our hearts forever.
