New re-districting plan adopted

By Alice Gilroy

A special meeting of the Commissioners Court was held Thursday, August 29, for the purpose of adopting a new redistricting plan.

The re-districting plan adopted unanimously by the commissioners was the plan recommended by the Citizens Committee. The plan which was formulated by Margaret Herrera creates two majority minority precincts.

Plan Four would divide county population, placed at 8497 by the 1990 census, into four groups. Precinct 1 would have 2132 residents, 21% minority and 79% anglo; Precinct 2 would have 2099 residents, 31% minority and 69% anglo; Precinct 3 will have 2128 residents, 68% minority and 32%; Precinct 4 will have 2138 residents, 56% minorities and 44% anglo.

The percentages of voting age among the minority population are: Precinct 1, 15%; Precinct 2, 24%; Precinct 3, 62%; and Precinct 4, 48%.

The 1990 census shows the anglo population in Floyd County to be 4759 citizens; the Hispanic population to be 3381; the Black population to be 313; Asian population at 12 and "other" at 19 citizens.

The Citizens Committee was also responsible for considering two plans drawn up by the commissioners, and one plan submitted by the representatives of the Texas Rural Legal Aid organization.

The present precinct lines have 32.07% minorities in Precinct 1; 31.19% minorities in Precinct 2; 69.28% minorities in Precinct 3; and 47.25% minorities in Precinct 4.

A map of the new districts can be found elsewhere in today's paper.

In other action the commissioners approved farm contracts for: S.C. Burleson, Long & Klausung by Joe Cunyus, Keith Jackson, J.G. Strickland, W.F. Sauls, and David S. Battey, Jr. The court voided the contract of H.R. King estate by Keith Phillips.

The court approved the bid from Tipton Oil for diesel for Precincts #1, #2 and #4.

CED adopts new tax rate at 71.31 cents

By Juanita Stepp

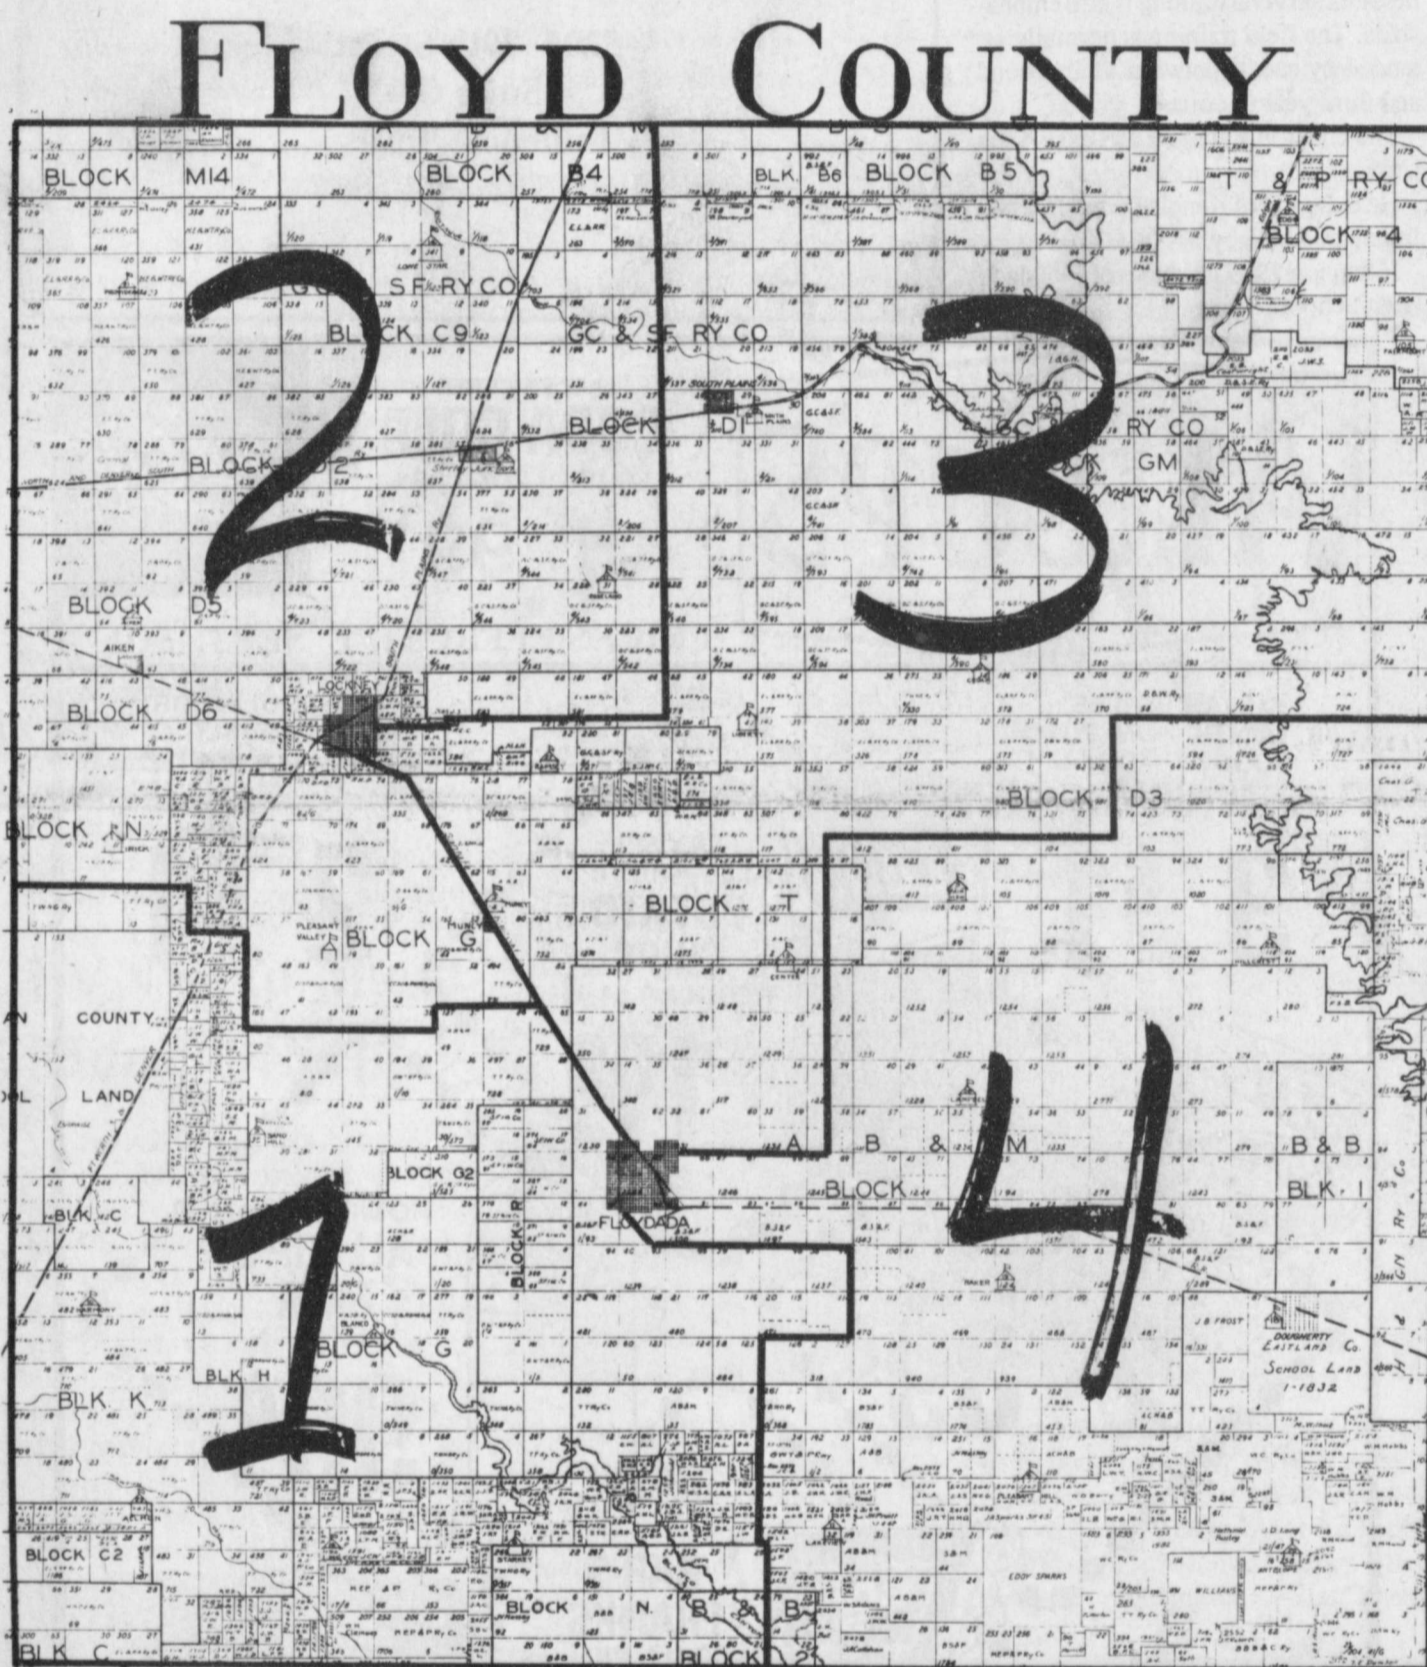

Based on state mandated figures dictating that the Floyd County Education District raise $1,336,041.00 from their tax levy, members of the board of trustees voted to set an ad valorem tax rate of 71.31 cents per $100 of valuation for the 1991 taxing year. This action was taken at a Wednesday, August 30, early morning session.

Meeting in the Floydada ISD board room, motion for the action came from Jim Martin with a second by Charlene Brown. The three board members present voted unanimously in favor of the 71.31 cent rate. Board member Dickie Lambert was not present at the session.

Jimmie Collins, administrative assistant for FUSD, told the board prior to their vote, "Based on a collection history of 94 percent, a rate of 71.31 cents would produce the required $1,336,041.00 in tax revenue the state mandates." He added, "Our CED lost $23,490,034.00 in tax base due to the exemptions approved by voters in the August 10 special election. This means that the taxes on the remaining tax base will have to be higher to raise the required amount of money."

Other business addressed at the brief session included the reading and approval of the minutes from past meetings.

Attending the session were CED board members Michael Hinsley, Jim Martin, and Charlene Brown, FUSD Superintendent Jerry Cannon, LISD Superintendent Dub Hallmark, FUSD administrative assistant Jimmie Collins and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

PROPOSED NEW FLOYD COUNTY PRECINCTS --
The map above depicts the boundary lines for the redistricted Floyd County Commissioners Precincts and Justice of the Peace Precincts. This proposed plan recently adopted by The Floyd County Commissioners must now be submitted to the Justice Department for approval before the new lines become effective. Maps detailing the changes within the city limits of Lockney and Floydada can be found on page 12 in this issue of the Hesperian-Beacon. Anyone with questions concerning the new precinct lines may obtain more information by contacting the Floyd County Judge's Office.

Commissioners discuss cutting Lockney JP salary

By Juanita Stepp

A group of concerned Lockney area taxpayers and residents met with the Floyd County Commissioners Court on Wednesday, September 4 at 8:30 a.m. Those attending included Precinct 2 & 3 Justice of the Peace Dottie Stansell, Pat Stansell, Glenna Orman, C. L. Henderson, Dorothy Merrill, Weldon Pruitt and Kendall Cummings. Also present were County Judge Bill Hardin and Commissioners Connie Bearden, Floyd Jackson, George Taylor and Howard Bishop and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

At issue during the short session was the proposed budget item cutting the salary of the Precinct 2 & 3 JP back to the lowest level allowed by state regulations. According to Hardin, the cut would save the county about $10,000.00 per year.

Stansell termed the cut "a vendetta against the City of Lockney" and said that it would be unfair herself and to the residents of the area as well.

Merrill asked the court if this was the only place they could find to cut expenses and suggested an across the board cut for all elected officials instead of singling out one.

Precinct 3 Commissioner Taylor told the court that he agreed that it was necessary to cut expenses but felt as if Stansell was being harassed and singled out in the effort. Suggested Taylor, "If we want to save some money, we could each eliminate one machine operator."

The second "Old Fashioned Saturday" is being planned for Saturday, September 14. The event is being sponsored by the Lockney Chamber of Commerce and will take place on Main Street in downtown Lockney. Booths will be set up on both sides of Main Street between Barker Brothers

Real Estate and Doucette Enterprises on the west side of the street and Jackson Tire and the Basket Shop on the east side of the street. Churches, clubs, school organizations and individuals will have craft items to sell, food booths and entertainment booths. Lockney ISD discusses new tax rate and approves budget

Lockney School Board members met in a special session, Friday, August 30, at 1:00 p.m., for the purpose of discussing 1992 tax rates and adopting a preliminary budget for '92.

The trustees seemed to generally agree to a rate of .2637, which will provide $4,542 per student in state and local revenues.

Superintendent Dub Hallmark explained the tax rates and the legislature statutes.

"The minimum rate that we can set to generate the minimum amount of dollars is a rate of .2326. If we don't raise a minimum amount of dollars the state takes away $2.50 for every $1.00 below the minimum requirement.

"The maximum rate that can be set before the rollback provision is triggered is .2637, however the maximum state tax rate at the local level for funding purposes is .45.

"New dollars in the amount of $276,760 would be generated with the tax rate of .2637. Counting your local and state taxes, $4,542 will be generated per student.

"If you add all the weighted formulas that are involved in the funding formula, the state contribution for each student may range from $2,000-$3,500."

Even though this years tax rate appears to be lower than the 1990 tax rate, the proposed LISD figure of .2637 combined with the .7131 rate set by the newly created CED will increase individual school taxes.

"We don't want to confuse or deceive the public," said Hallmark. "The tax rate

By The Way

By Alice Gilroy

I've got lots of bits and pieces of news and opinions.

Did ya'll remember that Lockney's Old Fashioned Saturday will be held in two weeks, on September 14.

This event went over great last year and it promises to be just as much fun this year.

Check out the story on the activities in this week's paper.

Lockney citizens are being asked to spruce up the streets downtown, for the out of town visitors that are expected. Trash needs to be hauled away and weeds need to be mowed. Fix up your downtown windows too!

I want to personally thank the Lockney businessman (who wants to remain anonymous) for his generous donation to the clean-up effort.

He contributed the manpower and materials needed to clean up the old movie theatre on Lockney's Main Street. I know everyone in Lockney appreciates it.

I got a call from Jessie Savage on Monday. He lives in Lockney.

He was trimming up his peach tree and just wanted me to know that it was blooming again.

He didn't think he had ever heard about one blooming in September. I don't know anything about fruit trees, but I do know that blooms are supposed to come in the Spring—not Fall.

I just thought I would pass it on.

The Punkin Days committee is planning events for Punkin Days, fast and furious.

Some new activities planned include a poetry contest for the older kids, a coloring contest for the youngsters, and a picture contest.

Since so many people will be running around with cameras on Punkin Days (or at least they should be), we thought we would come up with a contest.

The best picture taken on Punkin Days, October 26, will be framed and displayed at the Floydada Chamber of Commerce banquet.

The photographer will also win two free tickets to the banquet. The winning picture will be the one that best captures the community spirit exhibited during "Punkin Days."

I can't wait to see all the pictures.

I usually leave the political gripes in the hands of The Lamplighter, but I can't help myself this time.

I read a story in the Avalanche Journal about Governor Richards being upset with the way the budget was written.

The same woman that served as State Treasurer for so many years and bragged that she knew how state government was run, is complaining that the state legislators appropriated money in lump sums to individual agencies, instead of a detailed line for line request.

Sen. Montford said that it is done this way to enhance flexibility for the agencies.

In other words—you give them a million bucks and they can spend it anyway they want to.

Richards said she couldn't exercise her line item veto power because she would have had to veto all funding for the various agencies. (I did notice she was able to take away produce inspection fees from the Department of Agriculture).

She also said that the budget was a "complicated mass of mumbo-jumbo that prevents public scrutiny of state spending."

She said that the "budget hides more than it reveals," and that she wants to "exercise a more legitimate spending review in subsequent budgets."

Do you think she didn't know this was how the budget was going to come out?

Do you think that maybe, just maybe, our state representatives approve the budgets this way just so a governor can't line item veto anything?

Thank goodness our local school boards, city councils, etc., don't make out their budgets the same way our state and national representatives do.

Do you think that if the President of the United States started exercising line item veto, our national congress would make up budgets with lump sum appropriations?

I wonder if they do it already? I read somewhere that there is a push to get the President to start using a line item veto.

There are those who think that he already has those powers granted to him in the constitution, and that he doesn't have to wait for Congress to agree to it.

Some people want him to test it and see how it will stand up in the Supreme Court.

I personally wish he would go ahead and do it. I would like to see which congressmen scream the loudest.

I also think that the American people would be appalled at what the President might cross out of a spending bill.

I think once they saw the list of things that create the pork barrel spending, they would be very supportive of line item veto and would demand that their Congressmen abide by it, or go look for another gravy train to ride.

Lockney Police Report

Lockney Police were called to a fight in the parking lot of the Lockney Motel, on August 31, at 1:50 p.m.

When police arrived they were met by a woman that complained of a man pulling out a knife.

When police attempted to talk to the man, he ran away.

Back-up units from the Floyd County Sheriff's office were called to the scene and two people were eventually arrested for public intoxication. They were: Jonathan Torres, 17, of Lockney, and Carol Cork of Plainview.

Torres was also charged with evading arrest.

Southwestern Bell offers Lifeline Service

For some citizens of Floydada and Lockney, Southwestern Bell Telephone's new Lifeline Service will provide local telephone service at a fraction of its cost today.

As of Aug. 29, 1991, customers who are in a household with an income at or below the poverty level (as determined by the U.S. Office of Management and Budget) will be eligible for a $7 reduction in the monthly residential service charge of $11.65.

The Lifeline Program is a part of a negotiated settlement approved last year by the Texas Public Utility Commission. The settlement includes customers benefits of $1.2 billion over the next four years.

To be eligible for Lifeline Service, customers must be the head of their household, have income at or below the poverty level or qualify for an assistance program, such as Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), Food Stamps, WIC or Supplemental Security Income.

The discounted rate applies to all classes of residential local exchange service. No optional extended area service may be provided to a customer who qualifies under the discount.

Lifeline customers may subscribe to other telephone services such as Touch-tone and Custom Calling features, but the discount will not apply to those serices. The discount is good for one year after the customer qualifies and then recertification is required.

The $7 reduction is calculated by subtracting $3.50 from the local service charge and waiver of the current $3.50 subscriber line charge. The subscriber line charge was instituted after the divestiture of the Bell System in 1984 to compensate local exchange companies for loss of long-distance revenues.

Customers may obtain Lifeline Service eligibility forms by calling 1-951-2354.

Jackson, Commissioner of Precinct 2, and Bearden, Precinct 1 Commissioner, each emphasized the fact that they felt they could not do without a road hand.

Taylor asked "Have we ever tried?" He also told the group that the population in the county was lower and should

Merrill asked the court to remember that Lockney deserved county services as well as Floydada did and said, "This seems like nit picking to me. If this is the only place you can find to cut expenses and $10,000.00 is the only money you can save, you are in poor shape."

Judge Hardin attempted to explain the reason for the proposed cut saying, "The JP in Precincts 1 & 4 brought in $46,000 in fees for the county."

Stansell interrupted saying, "Revenue is coming here that should be coming to me and that is going to stop. I have talked to the JP Association and have been told that there is a law against offenses in my precincts being handled in another precinct."

Kendall Cummings expressed the view, "Discussion of her salary should not be held in connection with the fines brought in since the state took action several years ago to stop that because it resulted in speed traps."

Following the open discussion, no action was taken by the court on the matter. A vote on the proposed budget is scheduled for the September 9 regular session of the court. At this time, a decision will be made concerning the salary of the Lockney JP.

Other matters considered at the morning meeting included the approval of a farm work contract for Scott Simpson and the setting of a schedule of fees for serving legal papers by the Sheriff's Department. Fees under the approved schedule will range from $10.00 for citation by posting to $40.00 for most other items handled. This schedule of fees will be effective from January 1, 1992 to December 31, 1992.

AWARD PRESENTED — Nancy B. Bishop, an ASCS employee for 28 years, received a special commendation in recognition of her many years of service without sick time off. During her career, she has accumulated 1500 hours of unused sick leave. She currently serves as chief program assistant for Floyd County ASCS. Baxter-Leiferman exchange nuptials

MRS. MARK LEIFERMAN

Carla Baxter and Mark Leiferman, both of Pierre, S.D., exchanged wedding vows Saturday evening, Aug. 31, at the First Baptist Church in Hereford with Doug Manning, pastor of the Fellowship of Believers Church in Hereford, officiating.

Miss Baxter is the daughter of Waldo and Carolyn Baxter of Hereford. She is the granddaughter of Cecil and Rena Baxter of Floydada. Leiferman is the son of Bob and Avis Leiferman of Chamberlain, S.D.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. The altar was decorated with two multi-arch candelabra with commode and baby's breath surrounding the candelabra, unity candle and votive candles in the windows.

The church pews were decorated with white bows and lilies-of-the-valley.

Dede Washington of Hereford served as maid of honor and Monte Leiferman, brother of the groom, was best man.

Bridesmaids, who wore spruce green chintz princess style dresses with gathered dropped waist skirt and high-low hem, included Gwen Bryant of Amarillo; Karla Leiferman, sister of the groom, of Rapid City, S.D., and Julie Morris, cousin of the bride, of Pierre, S.D.

Serving as groomsmen were Collin Casey of Wichita, Kan.; Rex Baxter, brother of the bride, of Amarillo and Bryan Kindopp, Yankton, S.D.

Mike Brown of Gettysburg, S.D., Pat Witte of Grandledge, Mich., and Bruce Senger of Pierre, S.D., seated guests.

The bride was attired in a white, long, formal gown with attached chapel length lace train. The gown of embroidered chantilly lace featured a Sabrina neckline, appliqued with beaded schiffli lace, scalloped at the neckline.

The all-lace mermaid bodice was heavily appliqued with beaded schiffli lace and hanging cluster of pearls. Beaded lace appliques were featured throughout the long tapered lace sleeves with bridal point cuffs.

A softly gathered lace skirt was joined to the bodice with a band of schiffli lace and edged with scalloped beaded lace at the hemline.

Her halo fingertip veil was accented with white flowers and seed pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of gardenias, white Holland freesia, English ivy and stephanotis. The bride wore her great-grandmother's wedding band and pearl earrings.

Mark Willrodt of Chamberlain, S.D., served as scripture reader. Kerri Morris of Pierre, S.D., was flower girl. Ring bearer was Thalen Washington of Hereford.

Jan Walser accompanied Donna Sheppard as she vocalized, "A Time For Joy", "Everything I Do, I Do It For You", "The Lord's Prayer" and "God, A Woman and A Man".

Markay and Stacy White served cake at the reception held at Hereford Country Club. Vicki Baxter and Gayla Baxter sat at the registry.

The three-tiered red velvet cake featured ivory basket weave icing decorated with baby's breath, freesia and galax leaves, topped with a lace accented bride and groom.

Cathy Leiferman served the groom's cake.

Leaving for a trip to Colorado, the bride wore a two piece floral split skirt ensemble of spruce green, burgundy and white.

The bride is a 1983 graduate of Hereford High School and a 1988 graduate of West Texas State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in social work. She is employed as a social service advisor for the Department of Health for the State of South Dakota.

The bride's lace gown was Victorian-styled, featuring a high neckline descending to a fitted bodice accentuated with pearls and sequins. A chapel-length train, trimmed in accent lace, flowed from the floor-length gown. Her veil was custom-designed of satin roses with sprays of seed pearls on layered tulle. shoulder ruffled sleeves. The attendants' matching bouquets were freshly gathered pink and antique white roses, alstromeria, and white stock laced with peach and jade ribbons.

The groom's table featured a chocolate cake with fresh-frosted grapes and was served by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Larry Golden of Aiken.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

Hi, well, here we are back at work after three days off. Had a restful weekend. Do hope that you did too, now we can settle down until another holiday, which probably will be Thanksgiving.

Monday started the week as usual with Bro. Bill Wright giving us the devotional. If we could run away sometimes from our trials, problems, etc., but when we realize, return it teaches us to endure, preserve and to grow, depend more on the Lord for our needs. Irene Wexler played the piano for us. In the evening the residents had arts and crafts. They made an Autumn leaf for their door or room.

Tuesday was Hug Day, all day long. Jo Bryant read them a poem on "Hugs" and each time that they received a hug they got a star in a heart around their neck. Ruby Holcomb received the most hugs and stars. All the residents were acknowledged with a sticker of honor. It was fun and all of us enjoy a hug once in awhile, especially those of us who were used to hugs all the time. In the evening the residents helped fold the newsletter and calendar to mail.

Wednesday was regular Bingo day, Ruth Hammonds and Mary Alice Davis came and did the Bingo, as I was at a meeting. May Garrett had the first Bingo. Bananas, candy, cheese balls were the treats.

Thursday, the residents had popcorn and memory sharing. The ladies from the First Baptist Church brought the monthly Christian Magazine. Thanks we always enjoy receiving it. Also we want to thank all who have been bringing us cookies for the morning coffee.

Friday, Freida Simpson came and shared the devotional on songs in the Bible, how many verses speak on singing God's praising. She gave a history of several songs written by different people. It was very interesting and inspiring. Evelyn Latta came and played the piano for us too. At 1:30 the residents took a bus ride to Plainview with Wilma Payne driving us. McDonald's treated them to some ice cream. The residents saw the farmers harvesting the corn crop.

Eligibility is based on the desire to further a career in agriculture or agribusiness or in a profession which serves the rural area rather than on a financial need.

Chad, who carries a 3.0 grade point at Texas A&M University in College Station is planning a major in agricultural science. He is the son of Craig and Betty Edwards of Floydada.

The CA Foundation is a charitable and educational organization, funded through tax-deductible contributions

Applications being sought for 1992 Maid of Cotton selection

The search has begun for the 1992 Maid of Cotton.

The National Cotton Council, sponsor of the program for 54 years, is now accepting applications from young women interested in the opportunity to serve as the US cotton industry's goodwill ambassador.

The selection is open to young women between the ages of 19 and 23 who never have been married and are residents of cotton-producing states.

Dates for this year's selection are December 26-28 at the Westin Galleria Hotel in Dallas. The selection process in Dallas will include individual judging interviews, public speaking, luncheons, dinners and special events. The final selection will be at the beautiful Morton Meyerson Symphony Center in downtown Dallas. Judging is based on appearance, poise, personality and communications skills.

After the 1992 Maid of Cotton is chosen, she makes her first appearance at the Cotton Bowl Parade on New Year's Day in Dallas. She then begins an extensive six-month tour of the US and Far East where she will meet government leaders and business executives, participate in fashion shows featuring the latest in US cotton apparel and make appearances before civic clubs and important industry organizations.

In addition to her all-cotton wardrobe, the new Maid of Cotton will receive a $10,000 educational award from Ciba-Geigy Corporation which has supported the program for the past eight years with a grant to The Cotton Foundation.

Deadline for submitting applications is October 11.

Texas melons deemed safe by Ag department

Results of an independent analysis of Texas cantaloupes show no trace of salmonella, Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry said.

"We now have conclusive proof that Texas cantaloupes on the market today are absolutely safe to eat," Perry said, noting that nearly 100 cantaloupe samples from across the state were tested. "This should allay any fears consumers may have about our state's melon crop."

The testing — in which both the meat and rind were analyzed — was conducted by Silliker Laboratories of Texas Inc., a private independent laboratory in San Antonio.

"Unfortunately," Perry said, "reports on the salmonella outbreak have confused the public about the safety of cantaloupes now being harvested — an error that has devastated an industry whose success is rooted in public confidence. We're talking about people's livelihoods being damaged — from growers to farm workers to packers to shippers and retailers."

"Which is why these test results are so important," Perry said. "They underscore the safety of Texas cantaloupes now in your grocery stores."

The national Centers for Disease Control earlier this month said it had linked a series of salmonella food poisoning cases to cantaloupes that "apparently" came from the Rio Grande Valley, Arizona and California. The CDC's report was based on illnesses that had occurred in June and July.

However, the CDC failed to note in its report that the illnesses would have been caused by melons harvested during the first stages of the cantaloupe season in late April, May and June — and that the crop currently in grocery stores is not in question. Valley cantaloupes are no longer on the market, having been sold and either consumed or discarded.

Perry last week ordered an analysis of Texas cantaloupes in an effort to emphasize the safety of the current crop. A random sampling of the melons was collected by the Texas Department of Agriculture from growers in the Pecos, Comanche and De Leon areas, as well as in Collin and Maverick counties.

Children's earaches can be warning for other problems

Many young children develop earaches, and for most of them it is more painful than anything they had previously experienced. Although the problem is usually not serious, earaches are definitely a warning signal that something is wrong. It can mean that fungi or bacteria has invaded the ear canal or that an infection has erupted behind the eardrum in the middle ear and is causing pain.

Middle-ear infections, also known as otitis media, are common complications of colds or respiratory infections in children.

"Because a child's eustachian tubes are straighter and shorter than those of an adult, it is much easier for viruses or bacteria from the nose and throat to reach the middle ear and cause infection," said Patricia Evans, M.D., a pediatrician on Methodist Hospital's medical staff.

Acute middle-ear infection can be extremely painful and may be accompanied by ringing in the ear, fever and possibly some hearing loss.

Prompt treatment with antibiotics is mandatory for middle-ear conditions. Because of the danger of reinfection, it is vital that a child receive the entire course of medication prescribed, even though he or she may feel better and be without fever. If treatment for serious middle-ear infection is neglected or even postponed, some loss of hearing may result, said Dr. Evans.

"Whatever the cause, home remedies should be avoided unless the parents have checked with their physician. Such remedies may temporarily ease discomfort but it will not correct the problem. In fact, diagnosis is made more difficult by obscuring the doctor's view of the ear canal and eardrum," said Dr. Evans.

If earaches do not subside within 24 hours, a physician should be consulted. Of course, medical help should be sought immediately if the situation is obviously serious and there is extreme pain.

NOTICE OF COMPARABLE TAX RATES AND REVENUES

The legislature has enacted a statute on school funding to comply with a court mandate enforcing the state constitution. Under prior statutes (SB 1) the tax rate for last year provides $4168 per student in state and local revenues. Under this statute (SB 351) that same rate now provides $4431 per student in state and local revenues.

State law only requires a minimum tax rate of $.7131 for county education districts. State law does not require a school district to adopt additional taxes. Neither does state law require a school district to adopt a tax rate that maximizes the receipt of state funds.

The board of trustees of the Lockney I.S.D. School District hereby gives notice that it is considering the adoption of a tax rate of .2637 that will provide $4427 per student in state and local revenues.

National soybean checkoff

Pyle represents Texas farmers

The United Soybean Board, in its second meeting, discussed investment options and priorities for use of income from the newly created nationwide Soybean Promotion and Research Checkoff (SPARC).

Louis Pyle of Floydada represented Texas soybean producers in the three day mid-August meeting. Pyle, a native of Thalia, Texas, now farms in Floydada. His 5000 acres include soybeans, wheat, cotton and milo. He also raises livestock.

"We've entered a new era of global competition in agriculture," says Pyle. "In order to be competitive, U.S. farmers must develop a more aggressive promotion program and increase our emphasis on research to reduce production costs and find new uses for our product."

Pyle was named to the United Soybean Board by U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Ed Madigan in July. Pyle is a member of the Floydada Farm Bureau. He is a past member of his school board and Chairman of the Texas Soybean Association. Louis and his wife, Virginia, have four children and six grandchildren. Louis enjoys RVs and flying.

Pyle says the current situation for U.S. soybean farmers is like the farmer who takes on additional acreage with old equipment. In order to get the job done efficiently and profitably, the farmer must first invest in new equipment.

"We've been operating for nearly 20 years with a patchwork of 26 separate state checkoff programs that generated a total of $14-16 million annually to invest in soybean research and promotion," says Pyle. "Some states invested more than others and two major soybean producing states did not even participate, yet producers benefitted equally in the success of the program."

"The new nationwide checkoff known as SPARC (Soybean Promotion and Research Checkoff) puts everyone on equal ground - all producers invest at the same rate and at a level that should eventually generate $40 to $60 million annually," explains Pyle. "That's not a large amount when compared to investment in research and promotion by industries comparable in size to the $10 billion soybean industry. But it is enough to invest in some significant research work to reduce production costs and develop new uses for soybean products, all of which can make soybean farming more profitable," he continued.

Pyle says USB members have set broad guidelines for investing funds on a national level. Working with an estimated total income of $19.5 for nationally funded programs in 1991-92, the Board set a tentative budget of $6 million (31%) for promotion, $5 million (26%) for research, $2 million (10%) for consumer information, $2 million (10%) for industry information, $2 million (10%) for producer communications, $975 million (5%) for administration, $3 million (2%) for USDA and $1.225 million (6%) in reserve. The new checkoff was passed by Congress as part of the 1990 Farm Bill and calls for an assessment of one-half of one percent of value or 50-cents for every 100-dollars of beans sold. Half of the money will stay in individual states to fund projects of local concern. The other half goes to the United Soybean Board which will allocate funds to promotion and research projects.

Pyle is one of 63 farmer directors representing all soybean producing states and regions across the country. While collections begin September 1, Pyle says the Board will not receive its first funds until late November. They expect most new checkoff-funded projects to begin about January 1, 1992.

Pyle says the old voluntary checkoff served its purpose at one time, but increasing global competition demands U.S. soybean farmers increase their investment to promote and improve their product and profitability.

"Under the state checkoffs, which began 20 years ago, U.S. soybean farmers built a dominant position in the world oilseed industry," he notes. "But now, with the expansion of soybean production in South America and sunflower, rapeseed and soybeans in Europe, we're in a real battle to maintain and build market share. SPARC will give us the resources to be a dominant force in this competitive industry."

"The important thing Texas farmers should keep in mind, is that his is their program, says Pyle. "I welcome comments from friends neighbors and any farmer in the state, who has concerns or ideas about the use of checkoff investments."

"SPARC is for farmers and it's controlled by farmers," he stresses. "We're going to invest checkoff funds in those programs that will give us the greatest return. And sometime between January 9, 1993 and July 9, 1994, every soybean farmer across the nation will have the chance to show their support for the checkoff in a referendum required by the marketing order."

Tractor enthusiasts organize antique Two-Cylinder club

Area antique tractor enthusiasts met recently for the purpose of organizing a Two-Cylinder Club. Forty-two tractor collectors from Amarillo, Childress, Plains, Friona, Sudan, Kress, Hart, Olton, Springlake, Lockney, Floydada, Abernathy, Brownfield, Ropesville, Nazareth, Tahoka, Lubbock, Wolfforth, Woodrow, Plainview, Hale Center, Big Spring, Snyder and Wilson attended the meeting.

Officers elected were: president, Don Sarchet of Amarillo; vice-president, Jimmie Davis of Abernathy; secretary, Eddie Earnest of Plains; treasurer, Phil Gunderman of Lubbock, and reporter, Gale Davis of Abernathy. Membership is open to anyone interested in vintage tractors or engines.

Perry requests agriculture be major focus of Pantex environmental study

Noting the Panhandle's agricultural significance, Commissioner Rick Perry urged the U.S. Department of Energy to make agriculture a major focus of its environmental impact study of the proposed expansion at the Pantex plant near Amarillo.

The region's agricultural base, critical to the state and nation, should be a priority consideration as the federal government assesses the potential impact of an expansion at the nuclear weapons assembly facility, Perry said.

"As America's leading cattle feeding area and one of its most productive regions for corn, wheat, cotton and grain sorghum, the potential impact of the proposed relocation on agriculture is immense," Perry said in a letter to Energy Secretary James D. Watkins.

"This is underscored," Perry added, "by the location of the Ogallala Aquifer, which lies underneath the Pantex plant. The aquifer provides water for agricultural and other uses not only to the Texas Panhandle, but also to parts of Oklahoma, New Mexico, Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska."

Under the DOE's expansion proposal, Pantex would assume the plutonium processing functions now conducted at its Rocky Flats facility, located near Denver.

Some Panhandle residents have expressed concern about the safety of the proposed expansion and its possible effect on the region's agricultural productivity.

"We must give every consideration to agriculture — the economic mainstay of this part of the United States — and it is imperative that the DOE study reflect an awareness of the importance of agriculture to this area," Perry said.

Asana XL okayed for grain sorghum

Earlier this year, the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Association requested that the Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA) issue a crisis exemption for a synthetic pyrethroid insecticide for use in controlling sorghum headworms. On Aug. 23, TDA authorized the use of Asana XL on grain sorghum under Section 18 of the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act.

The use of Asana, XL, manufactured by E.I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., is restricted to those counties in the Panhandle, South Plains and Rolling Plains districts of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Counties in the Panhandle District are

Armstrong, Carson, Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman and Wheeler.

The South Plains District consists of Bailey, Borden, Briscoe, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Parmer, Scurry, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum counties.

Rolling Plains counties are Archer, Baylor, Childress, Cottle, Dickens, Fisher, Foard, Hall, Hardeman, Haskell, Jones, Kent, King, Knox, Motley, Shackelford, Stonewall, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger and Young.

According to TDA, the insecticide may be applied by either aerial or ground equipment at the rate of 4.8 to 9.6 fl. oz. of product (0.025 to 0.05 lb. a.i.) per acre per application. No more than two applications may be made during the growing season.

In addition, the use of Asana XL is prohibited in areas where spray drift or runoff is likely to occur to aquatic habitats or during weather which would favor runoff. It may not be used within one mile of public fish-bearing waters.

82nd annual field day set for September 10

The Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center will be holding its 82nd Annual Field Day and Open House at its Halfway facility. Activities will be held on Tuesday, September 10, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

A number of activities, displays and exhibits are scheduled. Some of the topics that will be discussed are irrigation and chemigation, conservation tillage, weed and insect control, and viticulture. The computer training and education center will also be open and instructors will be available for individual consultation.

Puncturevine weevils to be released across the area

Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers (PCG) reports that participants in the recently completed Puncturevine Weevil Population Enhancement Program will release a total of 28,100 of the beneficial weevils across the area.

The project, conducted by PCG, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, attracted a total of 75 participants.

The programs goal is to provide a rapid increase in current weevil population levels. A successful program will provide populations a healthy boost so the weevils are available in sufficient numbers to provide a natural weapon against the puncturevine, or "goat-head", as it is commonly known in this area.

"I'm pleased with the level of participation we've experienced with the program so far," notes Roger Haldenby,

PCG Boll Weevil Program Coordinator. "By releasing over 28,000 weevils at different locations across the area we hope to see a significant increase in the number of weevils found on the High Plains next Spring."

Haldenby adds that a second release program is planned for the Spring of 1992. Interested individuals who did not get to participate this time around are being encouraged to get involved in the next program.

1991 Football Forecast: "Week to week with the Whirlwinds"

Part 2

By Bill Gray

Last week we gave a glimpse of the personnel who will wear the green and white of the 1991 Floydada Whirlwinds. Now, let's take a week-by-week look at Floydada's opponents and my predictions as to the outcomes.

Crane (District 6-3A, here, Sept. 6): This year the Golden Cranes have the 220-mile trip to our house! The 'Winds and Cranes battled to a scoreless tie down in the "oil patch" last year, and this year's game could equally be as close.

Gone is their super linebacker Toby Guy, along with 20 lettermen off a 7-2-2 district championship squad. Coach John Burleson has eight starters returning, and the Cranes are picked by most to repeat as kings of 6-3A. Huge Ruben Gutierrez (6'6", 290-lbs.) will be a real test for Floydada's front, as will all-district Ricardo Garza who rushed for 1,200 yards a year ago. Except for Gutierrez, the 'Winds match up well in size in the trenches. Crane also has an untested quarterback.

Victory may come down to the difference in the kicking game, and here the visitors may have an advantage. Floydada doesn't lose many home openers, and I don't see the 'Winds dropping this one... Whirlwinds by a whisper — say two points!

Lubbock Roosevelt (District 3-3A, here Sept. 13): The Eagles lost a bunch to graduation off last year's 2-7 club, but have potential to improve upon that record.

Quarterback Carlyce Black has 4.4 speed, and is being touted as one of the better QBs in the area. The Eagles have fair size, but they'll be no match for Floydada's forward wall. Roosevelt should not be taken lightly, but it will be the easiest of the Whirlwinds' non-district games.

Floydada will prevail by a larger margin than last year's 28-7 romp.

Lockney (District 3-2A, here, Sept. 20): With the Floyd County Championship on the line, all eyes will be in Lockney this year as the 'Winds and 'Horns write yet another chapter in their 70-year rivalry. 1991's contest adds a new twist.

First-year Longhorn coach John Love was an assistant at Kermit under Earl Overton when Floydada's Dean Bates was the Yellowjackets' defensive coordinator. Both utilize similar coaching techniques and philosophy, but the battle will be determined on the field.

The Whirlwinds appear to have superior size and strength, but this is one game when all statistics and rankings are forgotten. Lockney lost some key people via graduation — especially at quarterback.

Senior Juan Vargas is a two-way starter, along with Jimmy Bradley, David Luna and Shawn Hill (6'3", 290-lbs.). They were on the 1990 squad that had the 'Winds on the ropes until the final moments.

The Whirlwinds will retain the county crown, but only after a bitter struggle. Look for it to be as ever bit as close as last year's 14-7 Floydada victory.

Canyon (District 2-3A, here, Sept. 27): The Whirlwinds have lost three of four to the Eagles by seven total points in the past three years. Floydada's lone victory was the 14-0 gem during 1989's regular season at Wester Field.

Now the 'Winds venture back to Canyon's home turf — the remarkable domed wonder known as Kimbrough Memorial Stadium on the campus of West Texas University. No... the "dome" doesn't refer to a lid over the field. It's the field itself... it's good for drainage, but not good for football (at least for the visitors). The field has such a crest running along the center that one cannot see the hashmarks or the yardage markers from opposite sides. It gave the 'Winds fits in the 14-12 loss in 1988.

After West Texas shut down its football program it was thought the two Canyon schools would play on their home fields, but Randall and Canyon renewed their agreement to play at Kimbrough. Get ready for passes to miss their marks and bandsmen on the flank to miss everything.

Folks may wonder why I keep harping on the shortcomings of the Canyon field, but it is a definite disadvantage to visitors. (With its football program cancelled, WT would do well to field a ski team — they certainly would have a good practice area with the arrival of the first snow). No need to give a rundown of Canyon players and what to expect. Kimbrough wins another for the home team (by less than seven points).

Slaton (District 3-3A, here, Oct. 4): Looking back at 1990, this was one the Whirlwinds let slip away from them. The Tigers scored twice in the last two minutes of the first half, which turned out to be the winning margin.

Joe Williams (6'2", 185-lbs.) is back for his senior year and will be the catalyst in Slaton's wide-open offense. Williams did most of the damage in last year's Slaton victory. The Tigers finished 6-4 in 1990, and were in their district race until the final week of play. Shaye Murphy is the projected Tiger QB, but most of the offensive firepower will fall on Williams' shoulders.

Slaton has several 200-plus pounders, but they'll not be able to handle the Whirlwind fronts. Floydada's key to victory rests with the ability to shut down Slaton's big plays and long gainers, and the Whirlwind secondary will handle that chore... 'Winds 27, Slaton 14.

Friona (District 2-3A, here, Oct. 11): Floydada clobbered the Chieftains 40-0 in 1990, but will face an improved club this year.

Runningback Curtis Bradley will be Friona's main offensive threat, although the Chieftains can count on a number of returning lettermen (23). Ismael Rocha also brings experience into the offensive, and all-district linebacker Chad Hamilton returns.

The Chieftains have good depth, but still must figure a way to get out of 2-3A's second division. It won't be as large a margin as '90, but the 'Winds will open district play on a successful note as they top Friona by over 20.

Dimmitt (District 2-3A, here, Oct. 18): The Bobcats have been rated above the Whirlwinds in most pre-season polls, but that was before Army Salinas moved on to Seminole.

The new 'Cat mentor is Bill Rogers — up from the assistants' ranks. He's a solid coach who at one time was on Greg Sherwood's staff at 5-A Plainview. Basketball is still the game at Dimmitt, although they have produced a very competitive grid program in recent years.

Eighteen lettermen return (including seven defensive starters), and the Bobcats may use their "dark horse" label to throw the district race into shambles at the end. The 'Cats are proud of their all-district punter Robert Ruiz, and veteran Armando Arce is one of the better returning runningbacks in 2-3A. The kicking of Ruiz will make the difference in a couple of games — but not this one. The Whirlwinds will skin the 'Cats on their home turf by nine points.

Muleshoe (District 2-3A, here, Oct. 25): Poor Mules... they come to Floydada just in time to help the 'Winds celebrate "Punkin' Days." Muleshoe didn't register a district victory in 1990, and were on the short end of a 44-0 blasting by Floydada.

Sixteen lettermen return from a 3-7 team which should be improved with the assistance of QB Galin Latham. He'll get help from halfbacks Ramiro Alacron and Brent Hernandez, but the Mules will need some of their younger players to quickly develop. Junior Olivarez (225-lbs.), Mike Friend (205-lbs.) and Timmy Hernandez (230-lbs.) give the Mules some size, but their quickness is questionable.

The Mules may pick up a district win or two, but it won't be at Floydada's expense. 'Winds 37, Muleshoe 13.

Tulia (District 2-3A, here, Nov. 1): Throughout the years, the Whirlwinds have had limited luck on Tulia's home field. The district lead and the inside track to number one seed in the playoffs will ride on this one.

Dan Pair's Hornets continue to run the L.G. Wilson-inspired Wing-T offense, which is perfect for All-State runningback candidate Mike Smith, a starter since his sophomore year. Twin 6'5" ends, Jacob Thompson and Tyson Willis, give Tulia protection on the corners on both sides of the line of scrimmage.

By this time into the season the quarterback question will have been resolved. If the Hornets have found the right trigger man... a district championship trophy should once again grace the Hornet trophy case. The Whirlwinds have had problems at Tulia, and Mike Smith will help insure this tradition... Tulia 27, Floydada 20.

Littlefield (District 2-3A, here, Nov. 8): It will be 1990 all over again on Nov. 8 when the Whirlwinds travel to Littlefield and Tulia ventures to Dimmitt. As has been the case for the last several seasons, the final night of regular season play will see at least three teams (Floydada, Tulia and Littlefield) going for the two playoff spots.

After a year's absence, Littlefield got back into the post-season picture with a 21-0 blanking of the 'Winds in the 1990's finale. Almost everyone who had a part in last year's 2-3A Co-Championship is gone, but tradition-rich Littlefield will find some way to try to get there again.

Michael Vaught is projected to direct Louis Boomer's "T" offense, with 185-lb. Darren Fletcher at tailback and all-district receiver Trevor Blair returning.

Historically, the Whirlwinds have had little to cheer about on the Wildcats' home field, but a gutsy, determined effort will give the 'Winds a four-point decision.

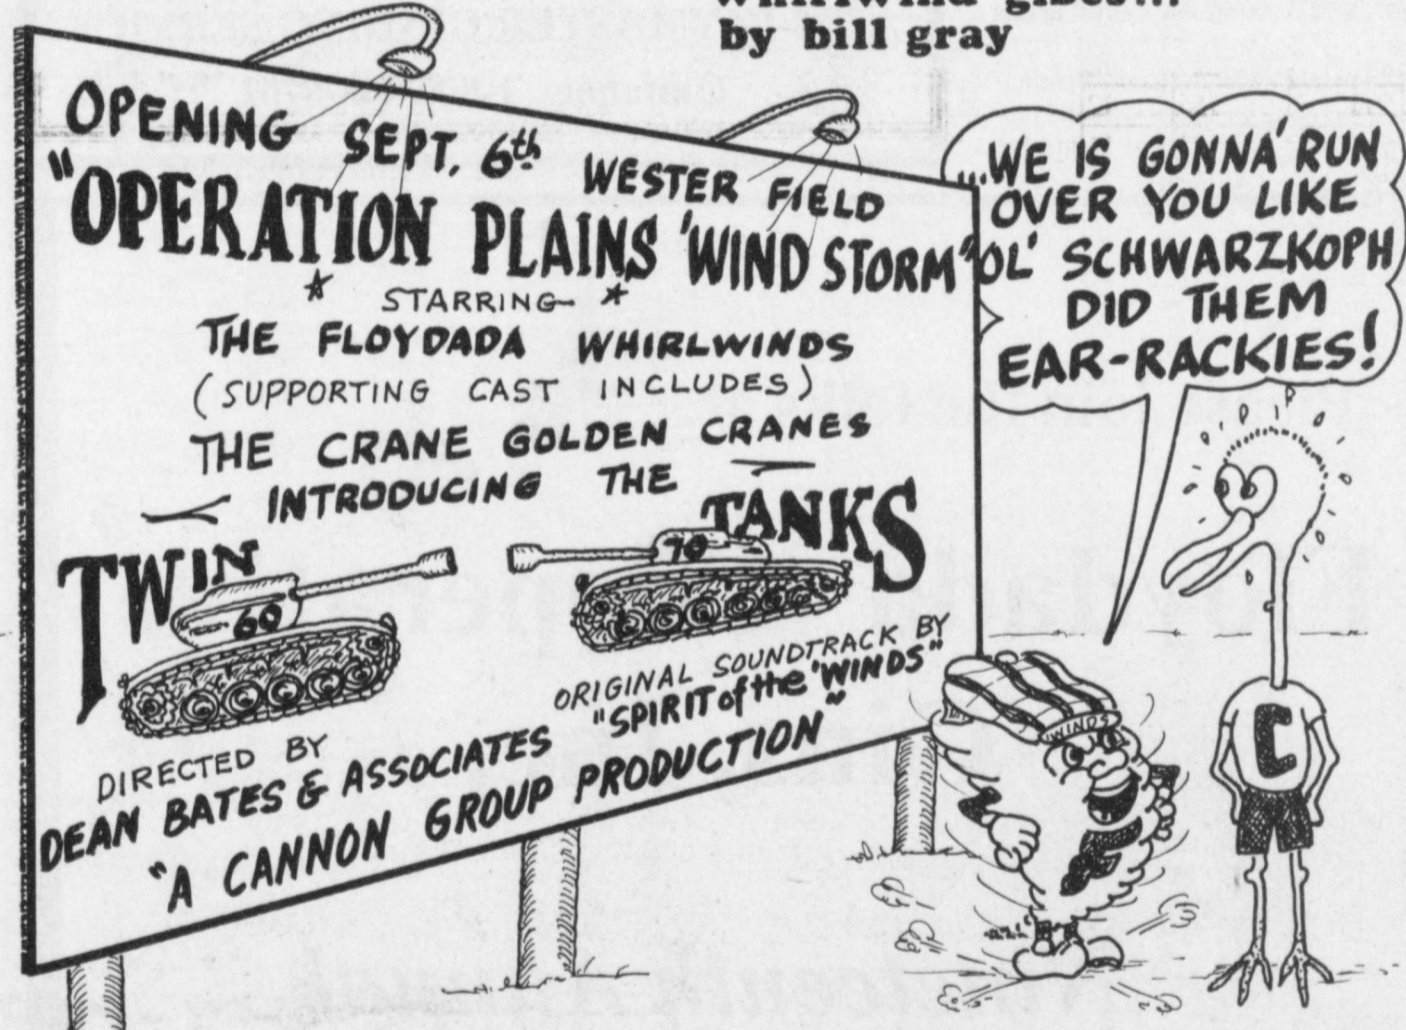

Instead of turning in pads and cleats on November 11 and focusing their attentions to basketball, the Whirlwinds will spend the week preparing for a bi-district tilt with Sanford-Fritch, the top seed from District 1-3A. The Eagles appear to be the class of the northern district, but don't rule out playoff-veteran Childress. Charlie Johnston's Bobcats will fight it out with Dalhart and Canyon for the right to face Tulia in the bi-district round.

All this sounds easy "on paper", but a lot of things have got to happen for the season to develop as I have just outlined. With luck in keeping key people healthy, and some of the quick-developing young folks coming through, the Whirlwinds will buck the odds and baffle most of the state's pollsters. The 'Winds will have what it takes to prove them all wrong and finish the regular season at 8-2.

Coach's Comments

By Coach Dean Bates

Our football team has improved a great deal since the beginning of fall practice. We have had two successful scrimmages against Post and Lubbock Cooper and will go into our opener against Crane healthy, with the exception of Rance Pernell, our tight end.

Rance suffered an injury the second day of practice and will not see action for several weeks. We look forward to his return later in the year. We are a young team that will improve week by week and we hope to be competitive in a tough district 2-AAA.

Crane will bring a big, quality football team to Wester Field Friday night. They are favored to win their district again and are ranked high in the region. We will have to play well in all facets of the game to compete with them. The game may compare to last year's game and that game was a hard-nosed football game, played to a 0-0 tie.

Our kids are excited about playing and I think they will give a super effort. They will be an exciting team to watch. We need to have a large crowd Friday night and get after the Crane Golden Cranes.

New coach, new season for Lockney Longhorns

By Isaac Cuellar

There's more than water in the Lockney skies these days, and if you have not noticed it's Football Fever. It's everywhere and if you're not careful it's going to get you.

The Fever is caused in part by the new head coach in town, John Lowe. Coach Lowe, a Texas Tech graduate and previous coach for LaGrange, Kermit and Justin Northwest, brings to the Longhorns a discipline beyond reproach and a strong desire to win. "I'm here until I get the job done or they fire me," he says. "I'm here for the long run."

Coach Lowe is not alone in bringing the Longhorns back to the playoffs. He has an arsenal of assistant coaches dedicated to just that. Lowe's assistants are: David Norwood, Phil Cotham, Eddie Fortenberry, Floyd Evans, Joe Pat Wright, Johnny Baxter and David Brewer.

The Lockney Longhorns are geared and ready for the 1991 football season. Back to play for the Longhorns are 11 returning lettermen and 8 starters (4 on each side of the ball).

The Longhorns feature sophomore Phineas Riddley (#8) at quarterback to run a sophisticated wishbone offense. The same offense that allowed Riddley a 70 yard TD run in a scrimmage, August 29, against New Deal.

Accompanying Riddley in the backfield are sophomore and fullback, David Luna (#7), and senior halfback Juan Vargas (#11).

On the other side of the ball the Longhorns employ a 5-2 defense which performed well through the first two quarters of last week's scrimmage (not allowing New Deal a single score).

Test #1 is this Friday, September 6, for the Lockney Longhorns, as they host the Ralls Jackrabbits in the 1991 season opener.

The key to the game as far as Coach Lowe is concerned is defense. "If our team performs on defense, we will have a great shot at the game."

With a new season, a new head coach, and a new wishbone offense, the Lockney Longhorns are coming down with one strong football fever.

SCRIMMAGE SCRAMBLE-- Lockney gridiron players were really scrambling as they faced New Deal in scrimmage action last Thursday. The Longhorns performed well and kept New Deal from scoring during the first two quarters of the scrimmage.

LISD approves budget

for LISD was .8620 in 1990. If the proposed rate of .2637 is approved and added to the CED rate of .7131, then the taxpayer will be paying .9768 per $100 valuation in 1992.

"Because of state mandates, more than likely taxes would have increased. One of the major reasons for the increase is the CED exemptions passed on August 10.

"In Floyd County, the actual loss in taxable value, to the CED, is approximately $23,500,000.00. All personal property exemptions (except business), the 20% homestead exemption, and the over 65 exemption caused a tax increase to supplement lost revenue.

"The total tax rate will be higher next year but because of exemptions it is unknown how much increase each individual will have to pay.

The trustees voted to schedule the public meeting to vote on the .2637 tax rate, for September 12, at 8:00 a.m., in the LISD boardroom, located at 416 West Willow.

School board members next reviewed and approved the '91-'92 proposed budget expenditures of $3,527,299, with the understanding that once the tax rate is set expenditures may or may not be amended.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:40 p.m.

Public Notice

On June 28, 1991, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Southwestern Bell) filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) to add a new optional service offering for business Private Branch Exchange (PBX) Trunk customers called Digital Loop Service. The application has been assigned Docket No. 10461.

Digital Loop Service provides digital transmission of circuit switched voice and data communications between the customer's premises and the central office. This service allows the customer to use a 1.544 Mbps facility capable of delivering up to 24 line terminations. Southwestern Bell will provide Digital Loop Service within the customer's serving central office where facilities are available.

If approved by the Commission, the rates for the Digital Loop Service facilities will be $445 per month for each digital transmission loop arrangement which provides a capacity of up to 24 line terminations, plus $5 per month for each line termination and $9 per month for each channel termination. The proposed rate for the unlimited use of the central office varies from $12.25 up to $18.00 per month for each line termination depending on the rate group classification, determined by the customer's location. Southwestern Bell estimates revenue of $2.1 million from this offering during the first year.

As proposed by Southwestern Bell, customers who currently receive digital loop compatibility through facilities installed under a special construction agreement will have the option to receive their current digital loop arrangements pursuant to the Digital Loop Service Tariff or continue to pay their current charges until they make a change of location or account. Any increase in the number of line terminations to a customer's current digital transmission loop arrangement will be provided pursuant to the proposed Digital Loop Service Tariff; however, the customer will continue to have the option of paying current charges for the existing digital transmission loop capacity. Southwestern Bell's proposal to "grandfather" existing digital loop facility arrangements is subject to review and approval by the Commission.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible, but not later than October 15, 1991. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256. The telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD) number is (512) 458-0221.

NOTICE OF VOTE ON TAX RATE

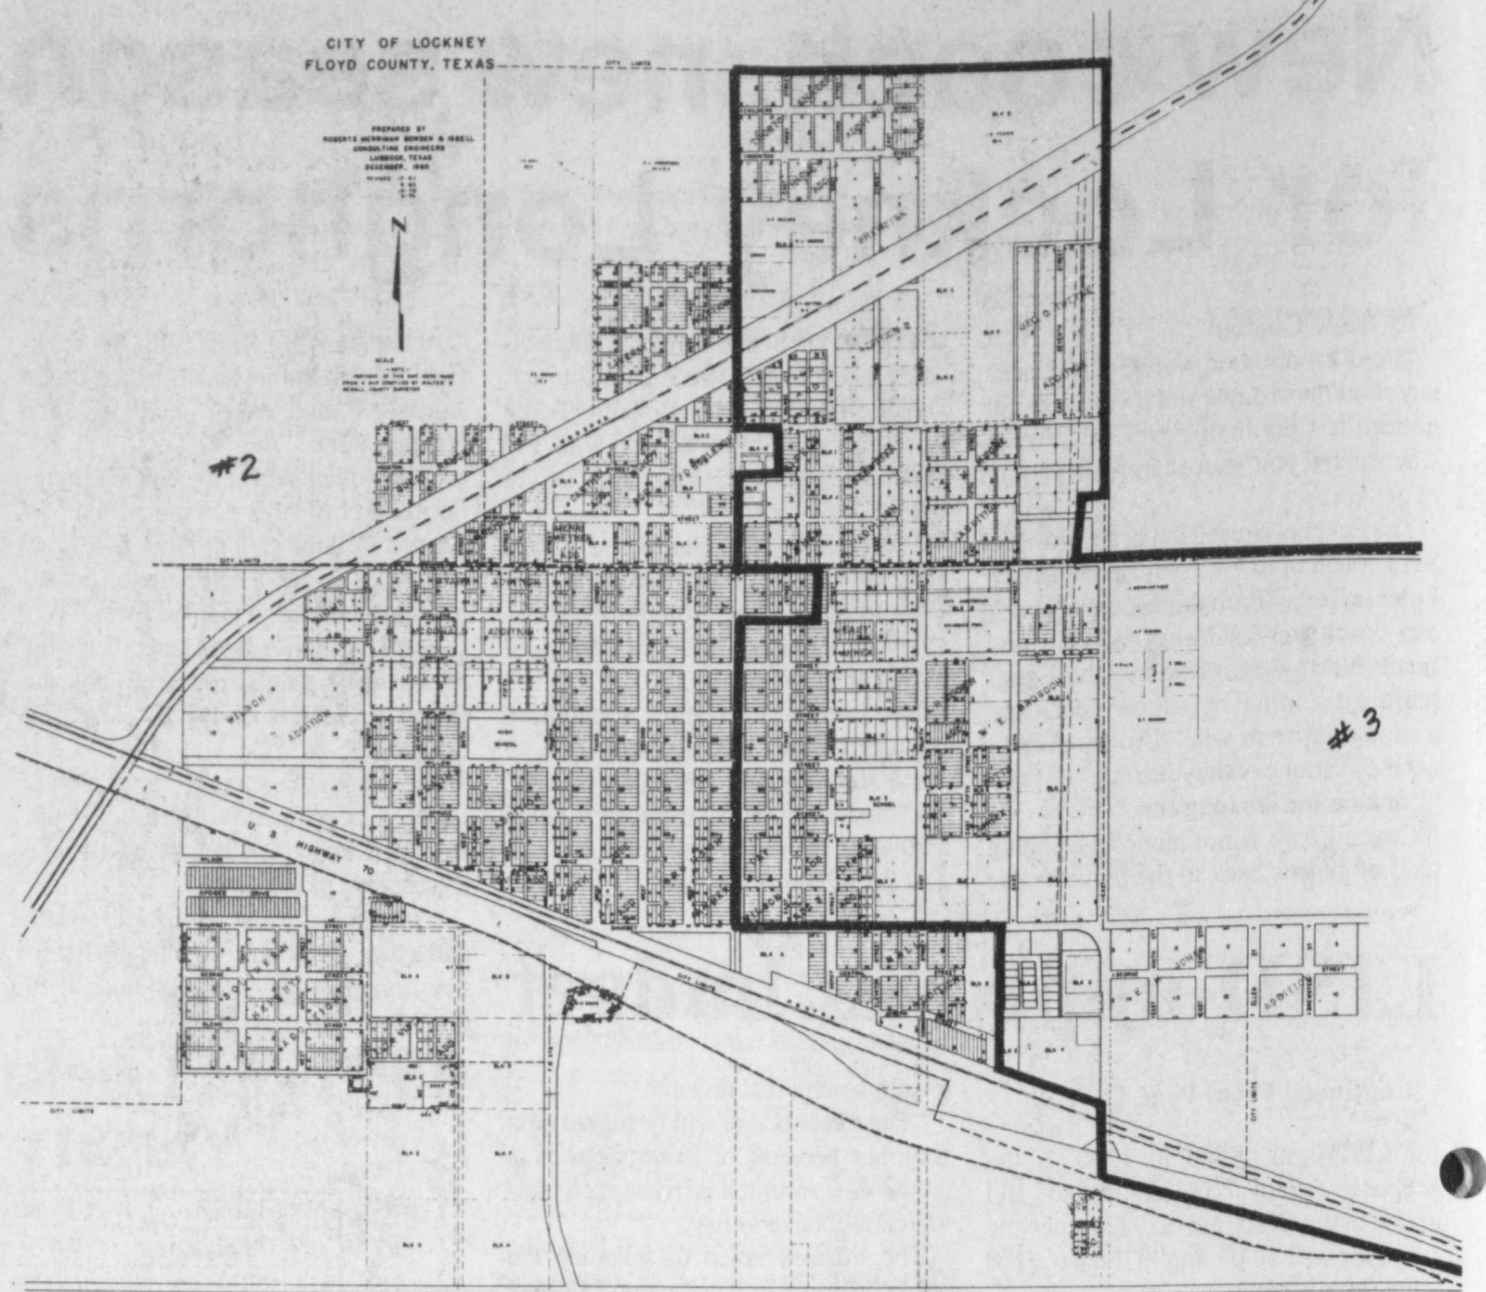

The Lockney Independent School District conducted a public hearing on a proposal to decrease your property taxes by 69.41% percent on August 30, 1991.

The Board of Trustees is scheduled to vote on the tax rate at a public meeting to be held on September 12, 1991 at 8:00 a.m. at the Lockney Independent School District Boardroom located at 416 West Willow in Lockney.

Truth in Taxation

FLOYDADA BOUNDARY LINES DETAILED -- Changes necessary to comply with the population equalization and the Voting Rights Act of 1964 included moving precinct lines within the City of Floydada. Those changes are illustrated in the map above.

LOCKNEY CHANGES DETAILED -- The Commissioners and Justice of the Peace Precinct boundaries recently adopted by the Floyd County Commissioners Court are detailed in the map above. Changes within the city were necessary in order to equalize the population between the four precincts and create at least one Minority majority voting precinct in the county. The plan adopted creates two minority majority precincts.

Rep. Warren Chisum sues budget board

Stating that the Texas Constitution has been ignored long enough, Rep. Warren Chisum joined 19 other Texas legislators in filing a lawsuit which would force elected officials to perform their legal duties regarding the state budget. "This blatant disregard of our state's constitution requires drastic action," said Chisum.

A petition for a writ of mandamus, which seeks to compel the enforcement of Article VIII, Sec. 22, of the Texas Constitution, has been filed with the Texas Supreme Court and will be handled as an emergency proceeding.

Under the law, the Legislative Budget Board is required to meet at a specified time and adopt a rate of growth for the state's economy for the following two years. This economic growth rate is designed to limit the growth of the state budget to an amount the people can afford to pay.

The board failed to meet and adopt this figure for the 1992-1993 budget. They also failed to comply with the law in 1985, 1987 and 1989.

Since last March, Chisum has been working to close up the legal loophole that has allowed this to happen. He said that some people are asking why they have waited until so late in the budget process to file this lawsuit. A better question, said Chisum, is "why has the LBB refused to obey the law in the past and is still refusing to do so today."

Because of Article VIII, Sec. 22, state spending above the rate of growth of the state economy is illegal. However, there is a process by which the state can spend more than this amount. The Legislature, by resolution, must declare that an emergency exists, identify the nature of that emergency and specify how much spending over the constitutional limit is necessary. "The law is clear. The constitution is the people's voice and there is absolutely no justification for ignoring it," said Chisum.

The enforcement of Article VIII is important as the state of Texas is preparing to spend over $1 billion more than the highest estimate of the state's economic growth for the two-year period ending August 31, 1991. Chisum said that he and other legislators have tried to solve this problem using every step of the legislative process and none have worked. "The LBB has yet to pay attention and perform their legal duty. Maybe this lawsuit will improve their hearing," said Chisum.

Floyd County Hesperian-Beacon FOOTBALL CONTEST

Football Contest Rules

Any subscriber or individual above the age of 7 years old who purchases a Floyd County Hesperian-Beacon is eligible to enter this newspaper's weekly football contest, except employees of this newspaper and family members living in the same household.

To play, circle on the official entry form, the numbers of the teams you believe will win this week's games. To indicate a tie, circle the numbers of both teams playing the game. In addition, write in the two tie breaker footballs your guess of the combined total points to be scored by the two teams listed in each tie breaker football. Also circle the team you believe will win. Circle both teams if you think the game will end in a tie.

The only entries which will be considered for prizes will be those on official entry forms which are brought to the Hesperian-Beacon office in Floydada or to the Hesperian-Beacon Office in Lockney by 5:00 p.m. on Friday. No photocopies will be accepted.

NO MAIL ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Three cash prizes are offered each week. In the event of ties - the same number of correct games and equal scores on the tie breakers - prizes will be shared by those involved in the tie.

The tie breaker scores will be utilized only in the event of a tie on the number of games correct.

Print your name and address plainly on the official entry form and double check your choices before clipping out the entry form and depositing it at the Hesperian-Beacon office before 5:00 p.m. on Friday.

Entries are limited to one per person per week.

Weekly winners are limited to one per household.
