Volunteers collect toys for missions

By Alice Gilroy
Prayers will be answered this Christmas when Roy and Neva Baxter pull their toy laden trailer and vehicles into the Cone Oasis Baptist Camp in LaFeria, Texas.

A project to collect 100 dolls for needy children, which began in April, has grown and filled up a trailer, pickup and vehicle with a variety of toys for boys and girls.

As volunteer members of the Texas Baptist Men Church Builders since 1984, Roy and Neva travel all over the state repairing buildings in church camps and adding on to church buildings.

"There are about 30 couples who volunteer their time to work on church buildings," said Neva. "We used to be a part of the Texas Baptist Men Church Builders which started in 1983. That group builds new churches. We formed this organization a year later and we mainly work at repairs and remodeling.

"The toy project was brought up last winter while we were working in the valley. We decided we would collect 100 dolls to take across the border into Mexico to stuff stockings. We started collecting in April.

"Everytime we would go to a different job throughout the year, the women in the group would bring me toys they had collected. Some of them were bought new, some were bought at garage sales, and some were donated by churches and individuals."

The Baxters will now carry to LaFeria, 430 hand made Christmas stockings, 170 small dolls, 225 cars, 100 bags of marbles, 175 small stuffed toys, 450 pencils, 97 hand made doll blankets and 75 boxes of crayolas.

Each stocking will contain a pencil, a Christian tract in the Spanish language, candy, bubble gum and a toy.

"We have at least 32 pounds of nice small toys, including jump ropes, girls combs, bracelets, tractors and trailer sets," said Neva. "There was so much I couldn't count it all."

Once the toys reach the Cone Oasis Baptist Camp (owned by the Rio Grande Baptist Assoc.) they will be placed in stockings and taken across the border to approximately 30 mission points in Mexico.

Married 36 years, Roy and Neva stay busy with the church building volunteer work. "Our volunteer group ranges in ages from 57 to 81 years of age," said Neva. "They come all the way from Gruver (near the Oklahoma line) and Baytown (near the Gulf Coast).

"We started out using our own tools and we now have a '20 ft. tool trailer.' We also carry a washing machine and dryer with us to our jobs. It makes it easier on the women when they don't have to find a public laundry."

The next job for the group after their delivery of the toys will be a trip to Escobares, Texas, on the border near Roma. "We will be building a 936 ft.

parsonage home there. We will be financing it ourselves. We hope it will enable them to have a full time pastor there."

Deciding which project to become involved in is always voted on by the group of volunteers. "If we have time and think we can handle it then we will do it," said Neva. "All the volunteers are notified when the job will start and they come and go as their business and personal lives allow. The men work 6 hour days five days a week and we are usually on the jobs for 3-6 weeks. We try to finish what we start.

"Anyone interested in volunteering for this kind of work should write our job coordinator, Don Orr, at 9708 Hwy. 307, Midland, TX, 79701."

The camp building ministry was helpful in building the Trinity Church in Floydada in 1985 and repairing seven roof tops at the Plains Baptist Encampment after a hail storm a few years ago.

"We also put new ceilings in the dorms in Lakeview Baptist Camp in Lone Star, remodeled a Baptist Student Union Building at East Texas Community College in Mt. Pleasant and built a new tabernacle at the Baptist Camp in Wellington."

Other projects included: helping with a new worship center at the Cordova Baptist Center in Memphis, rebuilding two cabins at the Chapparral Baptist Camp in Memphis, and a fellowship hall at New Hope Baptist Church in Gorman.

Floydada Whirlwinds and Littlefield Wildcats dominate 2-3A All-District

By Bill Gray
The Floydada Whirlwinds placed twelve players at eighteen positions on the two-deep All-District 2-3A grid squads, as selected by the district's coaches. League Champion Littlefield had ten players positioned at fourteen slots on the honors team.

Floydada's Billy Villarreal was chosen all-district quarterback. Leading the wishbone option offense, Villarreal carried for 419 yards on 82 carries (5.1 yards per tote), and rushed for six touchdowns. The FHS senior completed 45 of 83 pass attempts for 616 yards, nine touchdowns, and only one interception during the regular season. Under Villarreal's leadership, the Whirlwinds were the most prolific offensive unit of any South Plains 3A teams, as Floydada produced a total of 3,494 yards in ten games.

Two Whirlwinds were named to the first team backfield. Senior fullback Ruben Chavarria carried 94 times for 617 yards (6.6 average), and scored four touchdowns. He also punted 21 times for a 34.3 average. Chavarria was also a unanimous pick as a linebacker on the first team defensive unit. Junior Michael Henderson received first team selection at running back. He rushed 709 yards in 102 attempts and scored 76 total points. On defense, Henderson had two pass interceptions and a fumble recovery. He was selected to the second team all-district defensive unit.

The all-district offensive line had a definite Floydada flavor, as three Whirlwinds garnered first team honors. Junior Scott Crader is the elite team's center, with the "Twin Tanks" — Michael Gilliland and Todd Cage — at the offensive guard positions. Cage was also a consensus pick at lineman on the first team defense. Crader was named to the second team defensive line. Gilliland handled the place kicking chores this year for the 'Winds, and booted 24 extra points and a field goal.

Whirlwind Adam Gonzales was the only sophomore chosen to a first team position on either side of the ball. The "gentle giant" was selected on the first team defensive line, and was also named on the second team offensive line. Diminutive Quincy Johnson was chosen to the first team defense at cornerback. Often the smallest man on the field, the little senior picked off two opponents' passes and recovered three fumbles. Johnson also handled punt returns, and was a sparkplug as back-up running back. He scored two touchdowns and rushed 23 times for 151 yards.

Senior Jesse Rodriguez was selected to the second team offense at split end, and (in spite of missing three games due to a shoulder injury) Jammie Davis was named on the second team at running back. Senior Ramiro Rios was chosen for his outstanding performances at linebacker, and was named to the second team defense. Rios led the 'Winds in take aways, registering four fumble recoveries and four pass interceptions.

By The Way

By Alice Gilroy

My family and I went to the community wide Thanksgiving service at The First Baptist Church in Lockney on Sunday. It was a wonderful evening. My hats are off to the organizers and to those who gave testimonies and sang.

Brother Gabriel Ortiz, pastor of the Latin Assembly of God, did the preaching. He did a great job. I heard several people comment that this was the best community wide service they had been to in a long time.

Brother Ortiz did a great job of preaching in English and Spanish. I never lost my train of thought and I don't know how he kept from losing his train of thought.

His sermon, in a nutshell, was the importance of everyone being thankful every day for God's blessings and not just on one day out of the year.

What do we do with our blessings and our thanks? Do we just take - say thank-you and not give anything back?

It was a very special service. I appreciate it.

We are going to be off around here on Thursday and Friday. That means I can't go home late after work and tell my husband that I'm too tired to cook. That also means I have to cook a Thanksgiving meal.

The turkeys are getting a whole lot easier for me with the invention of brown-n-bags. When people start talking about basting and all day cooking I get cold shivers up and down my spine. I don't mess up my turkeys anymore, but the dressing is always a holiday surprise. Gravy is non-existent and everything else comes out of a can.

Doesn't this sound yummy? I know this may sound like I don't know how to cook a holiday meal but I have come a long way since my first Thanksgiving feast.

Before my first turkey, a chicken was the only bird I had ever cooked. The only chickens I ever cooked were already cut up. I tried hacking away at the stupid bird and all I ever got were chipped knives and chicken pieces that couldn't be identified.

I was living in Houston when I made my first turkey. My mom had written specific detailed instructions on how to fix a turkey. She kept telling me it was going to be easy, just put it in a brown and bag. I must have called her long distance ten times in one day.

The first call concerned the giblets and neck pieces. Her instructions told me they would be found inside the bird. I struggled with that stupid turkey for what seemed like an eternity, trying to get his legs popped out of that metal rod holding his legs together. I was exhausted when I finally picked up the phone and called.

I had the naked turkey in one hand and the phone in the other. I was breathing hard.

"Mom! I can't find the giblets," I said. "Well I can't understand that," said my mother. "Have you looked between his legs?"

"WHICH LEGS?"

There was a pause. Even my mom couldn't believe that question. "Well honey," she said (I could hear snickering under her breath), "a turkey only has two legs. Those other things are wings."

I wonder what a turkey would look like on four legs?

This story is for all of you who have ever had to teach Sunday School to a bunch of pre-schoolers. They know of course that the reason they are in church is to talk about God. Every question you ask will either be answered with God or Jesus. They are always easy questions guaranteed to get a right answer every time.

This story was told to me this week. It is supposed to be true.

A regular church service had begun. Before proceeding, the children were called to the front to sit in a semi-circle. They knew it was their special time to hear a very short children's sermon.

The woman who was going to tell the story, asked this very simple question of the children.

"What is small, grey, has a bushy tail and eats nuts?"

A small boy raised his hand and answered, "I know the answer is supposed to be Jesus, but it sure sounds like a squirrel to me!"

Speaking of Jesus. I have one more children's story.

District Attorney Becky McPherson told me this one on her kids.

No telling what the fight was about but she heard her youngest, J.W. (four years old), say to his older brother Matt, "You hurt Jesus!"

Becky asked him what he meant by that.

J.W. said, "He hurt my heart (referring to his feelings) and since Jesus is in my heart then he hurt Jesus."

Elmetia Hill, and Jimmie Bradley, son of Van and Cheryl Bradley.

Hill, a junior, set up shop this season at the post of tackle. His ability to create holes in defensive lines and secondaries insured his recognition.

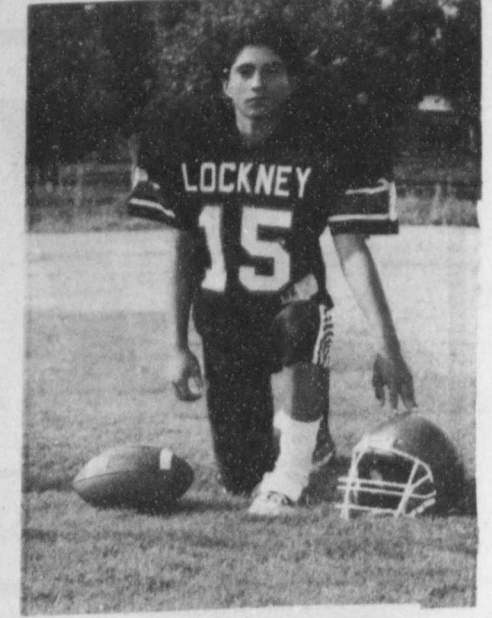

Bradley played outstandingly against both pass and run offenses as a defensive end to earn the praise accorded to him this season.

According to Coach John Lowe, the all-district selections are made by vote of the opposing coaches. Opposing team's players who make distinct impressions on the eight district coaches are the players who receive the votes at the end of the season.

Museum heads up Christmas lighting project for square

A new lighting project has begun in Floydada and with luck and cooperation the square surrounding the courthouse could be surrounded by white Christmas lights.

The Floyd County Historical Museum has started a drive to convince businesses around the square to put white lights along the top outline of your businesses.

"I believe the north side of the square will have the lights up," said Museum Director Olin Watson. "We have talked to a company that will hang the lights professionally."

"Beard Enterprises, of Graham, Texas, will be in Floydada the first week in December to put up the white lights at the top of the buildings. They will also do homes if requested.

"It will cost $62.50 per 25 feet. They will put up the lights and take them down. The lights will be given to you and next year you can put them up yourself. The lighting clips will be left in place to help you year after year."

Anyone interested in the professional installation of the lights should call the Floyd County Museum at 983-2415 before the first week in December.

Volunteers take toys to missions

Neva transferred to Floydada from Wheeler in 1955. She was working for the FHA at the time and continued with the FHA for 30 years, retiring in 1982.

The Baxters have no children and Roy is now retired. With a beautiful mobile home to travel in most people would assume the Baxters spend their leisurely time traveling and seeing the sights with a travel group, but the Baxters leisurely time is spent working and sharing.

"Most of the sights we see are highways to and from our work sight," said Neva. "We feel we have improved our quality of life by sharing the love of Christ Jesus through work."

The Baxters and their fellow volunteers will not only be improving the quality of their lives but they will also be making a difference in the lives of many children this Christmas, in missions across Mexico.

Keeping You In Stitches

By Kelli Reddy

The Keeping You In Stitches Quilt Guild met Tuesday, November 12, 1991 in the Fellowship Hall of Lockney First United Methodist Church. Cris Taylor served as hostess for the day. We quilted on Cris' peach and forest green quilt pieced from blocks she won earlier in the year.

Terris Mann reported on the Quilt Show held at the bank on Punkin Days. A list of winners is being compiled. We had many reports on people that enjoyed the show. A thank you goes out to the many people who helped make it possible. A big thank you to the First National Bank and several of the staff who helped set every thing up on Friday night.

The raffle quilt was won by Phyllis Smith of Floydada. The quilt raffle was a great success. Proceeds generated by this quilt will be used to promote the art of quilting in this area. We will use this money to hold classes, shows and other activities.

The blocks for the month were won by Shawnda Foster.

Our next meeting will be December 10, at Kay Brock's house. We will have our gift exchange and elect new officers.

Visitors for the day were Carol Vines, Zeffie Vines, Jamie Morris and Shelley Brock.

Members present were Cindy Belt, Kay Brock, DarLee Foster, Shawnda Foster, Brenda Heflin, Sidney Jackson, Anne Jones, Terris Mann, D'Lyn Morris, Kelli Reddy, Cris Taylor, Gay Terrell and Jill Graham.

Residents celebrate birthdays

November is a chilly month And just to make it warm... We'll have a birthday party Whether fair in a storm!

We welcome Mrs. Jameson Who counts from 1904... May every day be happy And cheerful as before.

Mrs. Greene we welcome... Her years are 82... She's done a "heap 'o living" With so much to pursue.

To cheer these lovely ladies Let's do the Birthday Song So join us in the singing And come out good and strong.

Thursday, November 21, was party time at the Rest Home with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosting. The Hesperian photographer came for the picture taking after which everyone was ushered into the dining room. The "honor" table was covered in a pink cloth with an arrangement of silk flowers in fall colors as the centerpiece. Places for the honorees were marked with special cards. We are sorry Mrs. Jameson was unable to attend the party. She had just returned from the hospital. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Jo Bryant gave a brief history of the life and times of the honorees followed by the reading of the poem. All joined in singing the Happy Birthday song. Each lady wore a fresh corsage given by Williams Flower and Card Shop.

Honorees, guests, home residents and employees were served a delicious chocolate cake or Angel food cake complimented by a tangy fruit punch. Mrs. Mary Miller had as her guest her daughter-in-law, Dianne. We are always happy to have you come and be with any of your friends and loved ones.

The next party will be Thursday, December 19, 2:45 p.m. You are welcome to join us.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

Hi! How is everything going with you? Time once again to let you know what is happening around here. Doesn't seem possible that we are in the last week of November.

Bro. Bill Wright came Monday to share the devotional and Irene Wexler played the piano. In the evening the residents celebrated Mickey Mouse's Birthday with a movie, birthday cake and Micky Mouse balloons.

Tuesday Bro. Richardson came and brought the residents bananas and shared the word and songs. Debra Lloyd's class of Food Science, Nutrition came and did a demonstration on making popovers, and they baked cornbread muffins for the residents to have to eat with their butter beans and ham. The ladies from the Companion & Caring came and did manicures. Ruth McIntosh played the piano for us, sang some songs.

Wednesday, Thelma Jones, Mrs. Clarence Guffee from the Sunshine Sunday School Class brought the residents cookies and crackers. Dolores Cannon, Evelyn Latta came and cut the men's hair. It was Bingo time again, Ruth Smitherman had the first Bingo. Bananas, candy and cheese crackers were the treats. Mary A. Davis came and assisted the residents. Thanks for the candy, Mary.

Thursday was the monthly birthday party. Our two honorees were Grace Greene and Dollie Jameson. The ladies from the City Park Church of Christ served, they were Ruth Walker, Wanda Smith, Beulah Baker, and Lorilla Baker. DeAnn Miller was the guest of Mary Miller.

Friday, Evelyn Latta came and shared the word on being "Thankful", shared Ps. 107, sang some songs and played the piano, then on to Plainview for the bus ride. McDonalds treated the residents to some ice cream. The residents going were Etoile Stanley, Nettie Adams, Audie Poteet, Peggy Young, Charles Breeding, Kermit Glover, Brooks Callaway, Henry Willis and Knox Jameson. Some went shopping at Wal-Mart.

The Martins Group came Saturday and played, we sang some songs. The residents always enjoy them. We also want to thank the different churches for coming on Sunday too!

Josephine Marie Luna won a smoked turkey. The employees will be selling chances on a nativity scene this week for .50 cents a ticket. Proceeds go for Alzheimer Research and activities.

Thanksgiving Poems and thoughts by 6th grade Floydada language students

Turkeys

By Bruce McHam, 6A

Turkeys with their feathers so bright,
Wobble and gobble to their hearts delight.

Some are happy, some are sad,
Some will poke you if you make them mad.

Turkey will be the Thanksgiving meal,
Covered with dressing and pineapple wheels.

There will be a parade later on in the day,
But everyone knows that sharing is the word to say.

Sing Praises

By Leigh Dawdy, 6A

Sing praises to the Lord,
for we have what we need.
Sing praises to the Lord,
for we have enough to feed ourselves and others, animals, too.
Lord, we shall sing praises unto you.
Sing praises to the Lord,
for we have enough.
Sing praises to the Lord,
for we don't have to rough it and eat stuff we don't want to, plus, we have clothes and shelter too.
Lord, we shall sing praises unto you.

Thank the Lord

By Japheth James, 6A

Thank the Lord
He has blessed us
Plants and animals.
Don't regret me
He loves us all.
Look around
See the things that
He has done.
The Lord made
The best world.
Do you love the World?

Thanksgiving

By Anthony Cruz, 6A

Thanksgiving for everyone special.
Happiness with your family.
And all your brothers and sisters and cousins.

November is when all leaves fall.
Kings and queens gather to celebrate.
Special thoughts about
Thanksgiving.

Give thanks to God for all He gives us.
In Thanksgiving nothing shall take us apart.

Very much people share.
I like Thanksgiving because you give.
Nothing is more honorable than Thanksgiving.
God bless you all.

What Is Thanksgiving?

By Michael Palacios, 6C

Thanksgiving is a time for love and joy
A time to thank God for all He's given us
To get together and have fun and play
So whenever your down and full of dismay
Turn on your lights and think Thanksgiving
Cause here it comes around the corner.
And remember, count your blessings and pass the dressing!

Thanksgiving

By Fernando Maldonado, 6B

Thanksgiving is a day of blessings, and
Thanksgiving is a day of thanks.

Give Thanks

By Amanda Fawver, 6D

Give thanks for all the things we have,
A warm and kind family to love.
A house to live in with a roof over our heads,
Beautiful trees, with leaves gold and red.

A soft bed with blankets warm;
Food to eat, pumpkin pie and corn.
Whenever you have time, it's always fun,
To go outside and play in the sun.

Your cousins and relatives come over to talk,
And during that time, you can go on a quiet walk.
But the best time of all is when you and your friends are sharing,
This beautiful holiday called THANKSGIVING.

Thanks

By Lisa Martinez, 6D

To be
Honorable to the beautiful
Autumn that makes
Nuts to eat and to Know how to
Share with others

Always Be Thankful

By Marty Herrera, 6E

On Thanksgiving I pray and thank the Lord that I'm still alive and with my family.

On Thanksgiving I like to be with my family and I will always be thankful for everything that everyone and the Lord has given me.

Thanksgiving is a day to be thankful for everything.

Thanksgiving

By Mario Nunez, 6E

Thanksgiving, Thanksgiving is almost here, with turkey and dressing piled up to your ears. When relatives come over to stay at your house, and don't leave enough food for a small church mouse.

But you have a lot of fun with your cousins and brothers and leave a big mess to clean for your mother.

Family And Friends

By Misti Cochran, 6E

Have you ever had a Thanksgiving.
Without family or friends, or ever have thoughts that someday, Thanksgiving would end.

Have you ever thought of how sad it would be, if we could not give Thanks as it should be.

As for me, I can't imagine how it would be, if I didn't have my family and friends.

I hope Thanksgiving will always be,
never to end.

And I hope everyone will have a good Thanksgiving Day. And if you don't have anyone that day, stop in our way.

Letter to The Editor

Letter to the Editor:

I am writing this letter, not for myself alone, but for many who have expressed their feelings in this matter, and I find them the same as mine. We all recognize the fact that we need doctors and a hospital, and in no way would we criticize or minimize the efforts put forth by city and hospital officials. They have "rolled out the red carpet, wined and dined," and coaxed in every conceivable way, but still we find no one "battering down the hatch" to come to our city.

Now for the other side of the coin: We have a young doctor who came to Floydada because he wanted to. He "rolled out the red carpet for us," having obtained a building himself and converting it into a beautiful clinic. At his opening he invited and fed the general public. Again recently fed 200 patients and other invited guests, buying all available supplies at local stores. Practically every week, residents from nearly every surrounding town and community, including Plainview and Lubbock can be found in his clinic. Doesn't this mean anything to our town?

Because the young doctor recognized limitations both in chiropractic and medical methods, he chose to take his training out of the states, where he completed both chiropractic and medical degrees. A host of us feel that he is certainly an asset to our community and will become even of more value upon completion of his residency, at which time he will be available for medical services as well as chiropractic.

I have written this without the young doctor's knowledge. He asks for no recognition or favors, and so far as I have been able to learn (but certainly not from him) has received few, if any. Think this over! Won't you agree that we have been a bit "tacky"?

Lois Jones

Dear Editor,

Senior Citizens are a sixty plus group of people, we are still able to take care of ourselves. We have decided to let our children take care of their affairs - and all we have to do is play with the grandchildren. I guess you could say we are living the life of Raleigh. But, we do have a small problem, we need more participants at the Senior Citizens Center. We are government funded, but this does not mean the government pays all of our expenses, only a percent we have to get the rest of the money through fundraisers.

Our expense includes payroll, utilities, workmans comp, building and equipment insurance, up keep of the equipment and building, auditor, and food necessary to serve our meals. We are not asking for donations, but we need more people sixty and over to take part. If only half of the people in Floyd County who are sixty plus would pay the $6 per year dues as of January 1, and eat with us once a month we would be able to handle our expenses without any problems.

With you joining our senior program, we will be able to have more activities at the center.

We are now serving lunch from 11:30 until 12:30.

Lockney students attend national leadership conference in Dallas

Seven members of the Lockney High School Chapter of Future Homemakers of America (FHA/HERO) recently participated in a weekend leadership training conference held at Loews Anatole in Dallas, November 22-24.

"Youth Action" was the theme chosen to highlight the activities and programs of this year's regional Cluster Meetings. The 3900 young men and women and their adult advisers dealt with such issues as the environment, volunteerism, professionalism, homelessness, self-esteem and peer pressure.

The meeting's program emphasis was on examining how teens can take action and make a difference. The "Youth Action" theme was reinforced by Friday's powerful general session multimedia presentation. The program, called "Harmony," dealt with teenagers' difficulties with conflict. Learning the value of acceptance and concern of others, peaceful conflict resolution and building unity were the main themes in this production.

Following Saturday morning's workshops, teens discussed contemporary youth issues and learned how to take action. In the afternoon they chose from approximately 12 different workshops designed to expand their personal leadership capabilities. Participants were shown how to use national programs to build support and enthusiasm and increase participation in their local chapters.

Leadership workshops covered such areas as quality chapter programs, community service, peer education, financial management, career exploration and communication.

In addition to motivational speaker Sandy Queen's keynote address, "Lighten Up!," Sunday's activities concentrated on officer training and use of the organization's highly successful Champions membership campaign.

The Dallas meeting was the last in a series of nationally sponsored training conferences, called Cluster Meetings, held this fall. Chapter advisers, Treena Aston and Julie Ellison accompanied the members to the Dallas meeting.

The members attending the meeting were Lila Booker, Region 1 Vice President of Records; Calixta Guerrero, Victoria Guerrero, Jared Mosley, Jennifer Anderson, Mandy Hunter, and Tiffany Ellison. These members gained added knowledge about Future Homemakers of America, life skills and got an opportunity to meet people from around the nation.

FHA/HERO is a national vocational student organization and has involved over eight million youth since its founding in 1945. It is the only in-school student organization with the family as its central focus and is unique among youth organizations because its programs are planned and run by members.

Through its programs, the organization helps today's young men and women prepare for multiple roles as wage earners, community leaders and caring family members. Participation in national projects and chapter activities helps members develop "skills for life" — planning, goal setting, problem solving, decision making and interpersonal communication—necessary both in the home and workplace.

ESMERALDA GLORIA SSTUDD Member of the Week

By Esmeralda Gloria
SSTUDD (Students Stand Together Until Drugs Die), is a community project to get teenagers involved in learning about the awareness of drug abuse. This campaign was brought to the attention of other teenagers by Melissa Salas. Our advisor is Michael Rushing and our co-advisor is Norma Pena. We are being sponsored by Sam Parker, who is the executive producer at the Floyd, Hale, Lamb Counties Council on Alcoholism & Drug Abuse Inc.

We would like to get more teenagers involved in this activity. The SSTUDD group has already had a dance for a fundraiser, in which all the proceeds went to the group. We would also like to have more fundraisers in the future.

This is an outside activity, we are not involved with the school. This will be a good chance for any teenager and adult to learn more about alcohol and drug abuse, that affects our society everyday.

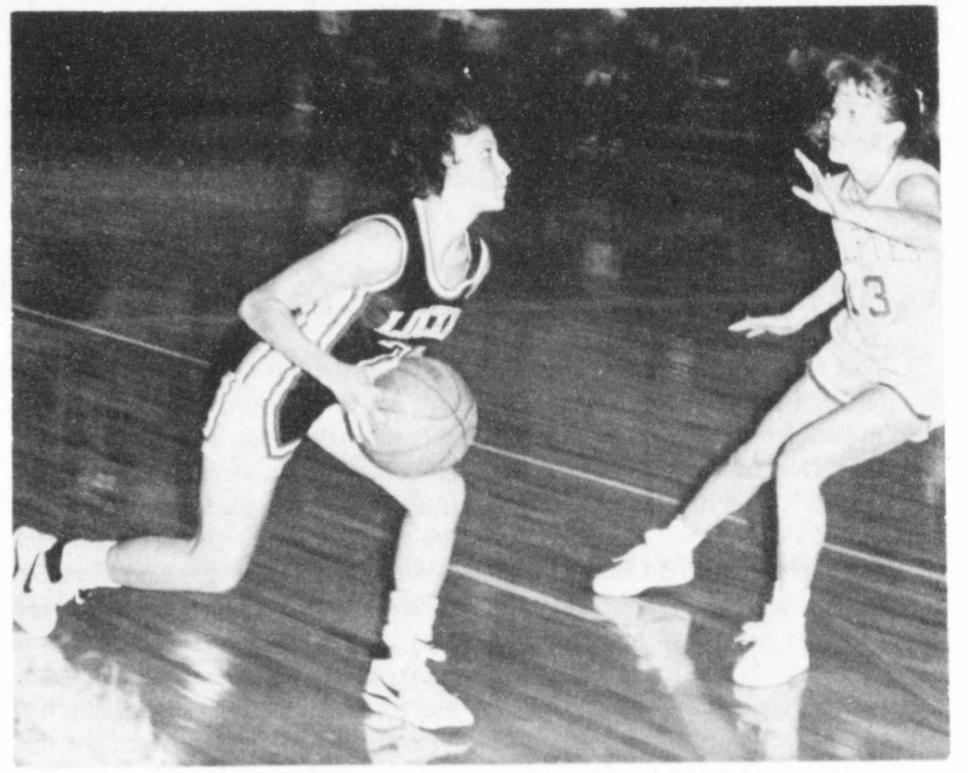

We want people who will cooperate and who are willing to do things for our community. There is no cost to enter the group, all you have to do is come to a meeting. We will have fun things going on so that everybody who comes can enjoy themselves.

SSTUDD members battle drug abuse

Anyone interested in joining please see one of our officers: President, Melissa Salas; Vice Presidents, Nicole McDonald and Renee Salas; Secretary, Anabel Camacho; Treasurer, Mary Luna; Assistant Treasurer and Secretary, Holly Ascencio; Reporter, Esmeralda Gloria.

Lockney students discuss Freedom at Thanksgiving

Freedom
What is freedom to me? Freedom is irreplaceable; I would not be able to live without it. I would miss seeing my friends. I couldn't live without my family either. I'd rather they take me than them. I could not keep from dying without my friends and family.
Frederico Cervantes
8th Grade

Freedom
Freedom is the main advantage of being an American. Without freedom, we couldn't worship the way we would like or do what we want at whatever time we feel like doing it. I personally would burst without this freedom which we have today. The American way is based on freedom. I feel ashamed that we often take it for granted.
Brady Marr
8th Grade

Freedom
I feel good about freedom because I can do whatever I want to do, like ride a bike, go outside and other things. When you do not have freedom, you just have to stay home. You can not go outside. I'm glad that in the U.S. there's freedom.
Jaime Cruz

What Freedom Means To Me
Most people in today's society could never imagine what it would be like not to go for a walk. Most people take freedom for granted.
Freedom to me is something I cherish. I am very thankful to the past generations for making it possible. People really should realize how big a role freedom is in their lives.
Freedom is something I plan to hand down to future generations.
Angela Hall

To me freedom is a luxury that most of us overlook. Let's think about it. What would we do if we woke up tomorrow and were taken prisoners and placed in concentration camps? I think most of us are too busy worrying about what has happened in the past or what is going to happen in the future to realize the value of what we have in the present.
If we don't "Wake up and smell the coffee, we just might lose it."
Shannon Veal
8th Grade

Freedom
Freedom is when you can do anything you want as long as it's not breaking the rules or laws. Everyone in our country should be proud of having freedom.

There are many things that would be hard for me to give up if I had to go and hide like Anne Frank. The most important thing though, would be my friends. They help me a lot. I think without the friends I have now my life would be miserable. To give them up would be painful.
Marcy Vasquez
8th Grade

Freedom
Freedom is very important to everyone. To me, freedom means having the right to do what you want and being able to enjoy the things that you like most. If I had to live somewhere with no freedom, the one thing that I would really hate to give up would be the right to make my own decisions, but most of all it would be my family that I would miss the most.
Kim Cumbie
8th Grade

What Freedom Means To Me
It's hard to say what freedom means to me because it has never been taken away. I think it's something we take for granted. Freedom means being able to do things that we want to without fear of punishment.
If I lost one freedom just like Anne Frank did, I think the hardest to give up would be the pleasure of going outside and enjoying the fresh air.
Randi Jo Henderson
8th Grade

Freedom
What freedom is to me is being able to do what I want. These things include able to go to a certain church, saying what you feel, and being able to do the same thing as other races. That's what freedom is to me. One thing I would hate to give up is freedom of speech.
Jarrod Clark
8th Grade

FLOYD CO. AG. UPDATE

BUSY AS BEES--Friends and neighbors helped Doug Bradley strip his cotton north of Lockney last week. Strippers, boll buggies and modules were manned through the

Cotton crop estimate increased

USDA raised the production estimate for the High Plains by 20,000 bales to 3.05 million bales in their November 12 estimate. General opinion is that the estimate fails to reflect accurately the severity of the October 28 freeze. Instead of receiving a light frost or two before the hard freeze, area temperatures plummeted below the freezing mark and stayed there for several days. The freeze apparently damaged many bolls before they were fully mature. Boll numbers had promised a good size crop, however the full extent of the damage will not be known until producers can get back in the fields. The majority of the bolls in question were in cotton fields planted late and already pushing the limits of available time before harvest. "From what we understand from discussions with people from across the area the majority of this year's crop was ready for the freeze unfortunately the southern portion of the High Plains had a good bit of late planted cotton that really needed another week to ten days of warm weather in order to put the final touches on the bolls they were carrying. "Indications at this time seem to be that many of these bolls were permanently harmed by the freeze and simply will not open up and produce any lint at all," notes Donald Johnson, PCG Executive Vice President. "Taking this into account many of the people venturing a guess about the eventual size of this year's crop are staying in the 2.6-2.8 million bale range. Most estimates are on the low end of that range."

Experiment Stations and Extension Services developing Bio-Intensive Integrated Pest Management (PM) system

C. Mark Brown
Extension Agent-Ento. (PM)
Crosby/Floyd Counties

In the future, public pressure for safe food and water and conservation of wildlife will continue to escalate. State and federal governments will continue to respond to this pressure with more laws that require foods be produced safely and water and wildlife be protected.

The number of pesticides available for all crops will continue to dwindle in the future. Already, chemicals for numerous food and specialty crops are considered "minor use" by the agricultural chemical industry and do not constitute a sound market investment.

More extensive requirements will be placed on the registration of future agricultural chemicals to ensure the public of minimal risk. Greater costs associated with chemical registration have forced the manufacturers of agricultural chemicals to carefully evaluate the markets. In many cases, a new chemical is shelved rather than being produced because development and registration costs exceed projected profits.

The U.S. agricultural producer will be caught in a squeeze to produce safer food and fiber with less pesticides. The Bio-Intensive Integrated Pest Management (PM) systems being developed by the State Agricultural Experiment Stations and the Cooperative Extension Service can help achieve this goal, said Dr. Ray Frisbie, Texas coordinator of IPM.

"A National Coalition on Integrated Pest Management was formed to support and advance integrated pest management (IPM)", Frisbie said, "as a biologically and environmentally rational approach for pest control. Integrated pest management is the correct approach for producing a safe and clean food and water supply, as well as conserving wild-life for the U.S. public."

"The National Coalition on Integrated Pest Management is comprised of representatives from the food processing, agricultural production, nursery, seed, fertilizer, private agricultural consulting and pest control industries, as well as environmental societies.

"The goals of the coalition are to improve dialogue with governmental agencies and public institutions by working with the National IPM Coordinating Committee. The primary objective of the coalition is to gain widespread adoption of IPM by U.S. agriculture."

"The coalition is highly supportive of IPM implementation through the Cooperative Extension Service. The coalition would like to form an industry government partnership to make agricultural producers and consumers aware of the positive benefits of IPM."

Texas Water Development Board begins area water resource study

The Texas Water Development Board has initiated a detailed study of the ground-water resources of the North Central Plains of Texas which focuses on the North Texas Alluviums and Paleozoic Formations.

The study area includes all or parts of the following counties: Archer, Armstrong, Baylor, Briscoe, Callahan, Childress, Clay, Collingsworth, Cottle, Crosby, Dickens, Donley, Eastland, Erath, Fisher, Floyd, Foard, Garza, Hall, Hardeman, Haskell, Jack, Jones, Kent, King, Knox, Montague, Motley, Nolan, Palo Pinto, Parker, Randall, Scurry, Shackelford, Stephens, Stonewall, Swisher, Taylor, Throckmorton, Wheeler, Wichita, Wilbarger, Wise, and Young.

The study is in response to the 1985 passage of H.B. 2 by the Sixty-ninth Texas Legislature which called for the identification of critical ground-water areas in the State. A critical ground-water area is one that is either currently experiencing critical ground-water problems or that is expected to experience critical problems within the next 20 years.

Major topics to be addressed in the study include the occurrence and availability of ground water, identification of present and potential water resource problems, and estimation of future demands that will be placed on those resources. Of special interest will be the determination of the occurrence of water quality deterioration, its extent, and the natural or man-induced cause of the change.

At the conclusion of the study, a report containing the Board's findings will be submitted to the Texas Water Commission. The report will be used by the Commission in its consideration of the creation of an underground water conservation district for the area. Such districts provide locally-controlled management of the ground-water resources of the area.

Information about this study or other ground-water related topics is available by writing the Texas Water Development Board, P.O. Box 13231, Austin, Texas 78711-3231.

Information set forth on loan deficiency payments

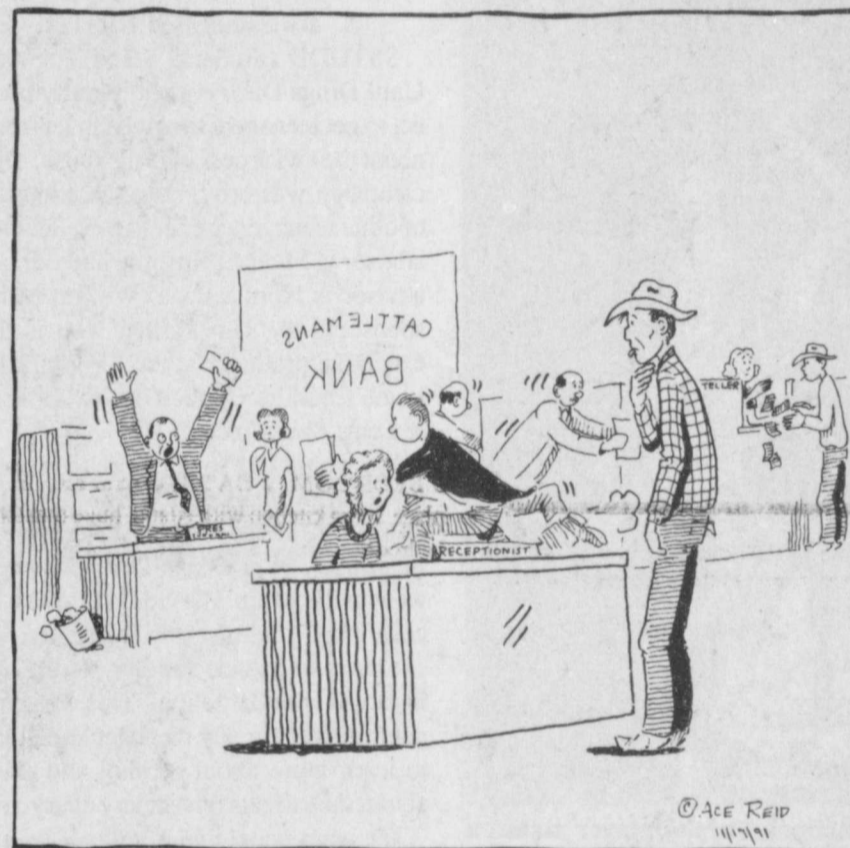

When the AWP (Adjusted World Price) for upland cotton falls below the loan rate, cotton becomes eligible for a loan deficiency payment. The AWP (Adjusted World Price) is announced each Friday.

The day the warehouse receipts are presented to this office and all signatures on the application are received, the loan deficiency payment (LDP) rate will be locked in. You will be required to furnish class cards before the LDP can be completed. Some general provisions are:

1. The producer must still have control and have a beneficial interest in the cotton.
2. Cotton receiving LDP (loan deficiency payment) will not be eligible for regular cotton loan. Warehouse receipts will be stamped "Not Eligible for Loan" when returned to producer. Producers are allowed to participate in or forego the loan deficiency payment (LDP) on a bale-by-bale basis.
3. Partial research and promotion fees apply.
4. Assignments will be honored when processing a LDP.
