Lockney hospital renamed

By Alice Gilroy
Lockney General Hospital will soon be boasting a new name along with their brand new building. According to Hospital Administrator Jeff Reecer, "In recognition of Dr. Mangold's 41 years of service to the people of the South Plains and this hospital, the Lockney General Hospital district will rename it's hospital W.J. Mangold Memorial Hospital."

The unveiling of the new hospital, featuring state of the art equipment, technology and facilities, will be Saturday April 3. Ceremonies will start with a ribbon cutting at 1:00 p.m. followed by an Open House from 2:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.

Tentative arrangements are being made for appearances by U.S. Representative Bill Sarpalus, Speaker of the House and District #85 Representative Pete Laney and State Senator John T. Montford.

Guests will be able to tour the facility during the open house and will be treated to door prizes, complimentary gifts and refreshments. "We will also be giving demonstrations of equipment," said Reecer.

Blood pressure and glucose screening clinics will be available to the public during the open house. The United Blood Services will also have their mobile unit on hand for anyone wishing to donate blood.

In an effort to educate children on doctor visits and to alleviate their concerns, a doll clinic has also been planned for the younger set. Children will be encouraged to bring their dolls to see a doctor or nurse and receive whatever care is needed to cure their dolls illness.

Lockney Hospital District begins sign-up for election as others end

By Juanita Stepp

The Lockney General Hospital District board of directors last week voted to set the annual election for Saturday, May 1. There are three seats on the board up for election this term. The incumbents, Hubert Frizzell, Ronnie Hardin and Jerry Johnson, have expressed their intent to seek reelection according to Reecer.

Anyone interested in being a candidate may pick up a petition from hospital administrator Jeff Reecer. Deadline for completing and returning the nominating petitions to place names on the ballot will be no later than April 6. Nominating petitions must be signed by 10 qualified voters who reside within the bounds of the Lockney General Hospital District.

Sign-up period for placing names on the ballots for the City of Lockney, the City of Floydada, LISD, FISD and Caprock Hospital District expired on Wednesday, March 17. Final slates of candidates following the registration period are detailed below.

FLOYDADA CITY COUNCIL HAS THREE CONTESTED RACES

Hulon Carthel is being challenged by Jon Nielson in the race for the mayor's position being vacated by current Mayor Wayne Russell.

Both incumbent council members have entered their names as candidates for reelection to council posts in the City of Floydada May 1 balloting. Leroy Burns, currently serving in District 3, will be opposed by Roxanne Cummings and Ruben Barrientoz, sitting council member for District 2, will face opponent Dale Lawson.

LOCKNEY CITY ELECTIONS

On the ballot for the City of Lockney will be the mayor's post and two at-large council members. Mayor Kenneth Wofford, who had indicated he would not be seeking reelection, entered his name in the race for reelection when it became apparent that no one was coming forward to seek the post. Council positions on the ballot this year are the seats currently held by Sam Fortenberry and Bil Anderson. Incumbent Anderson has placed his name in the running as a candidate for the spring election and Roger Stapp has signed up to seek election to the remaining council position in Lockney. Fortenberry chose not to seek reelection.

CAPROCK HOSPITAL DISTRICT ELECTION

Incumbent Caprock Hospital District directors Jim Word, Joy Assier and Jerry Thompson have announced they will seek reelection in the May 1 Election. Others seeking positions on the board include Harvey Allen, T. M. (Whitey) Whiteley and Tom Farris. This will place six names on the ballot for three positions.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE ELECTIONS

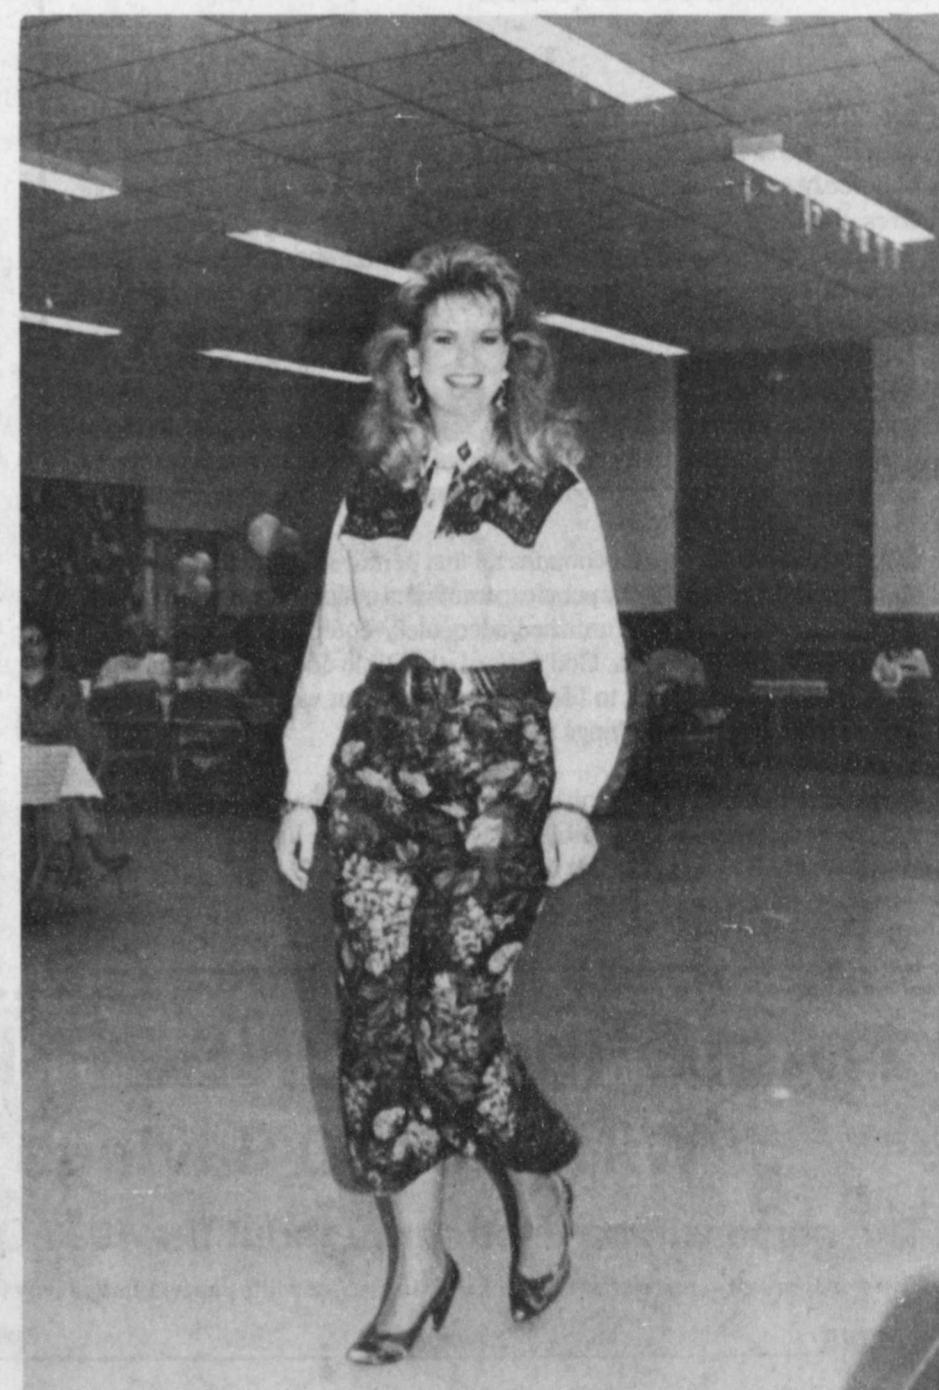

FISD board positions up for election this year are Precinct 3 and one at-large seat. Incumbent trustee Billy Joe Villarreal had signed to seek reelection in Precinct 3. Mitch Probasco has placed his name in the running for the at-large position. No other candidates sought a place on the ballot during the regular sign-up period.

LISD school board positions held by Gary Mangold and Mike Mathis are on the ballot for election this spring in Lockney. To date, Mike Mathis has indicated that he will seek reelection. Dan Smith and Aaron Wilson, have also signed up for a place on the May 1 LISD ballot, making three candidates for two board seats.

VOTERS NEED TO UPDATE REGISTRATION

All voters are reminded to make sure your voter registration is up to date. If you have moved since you last registered, you need to notify the voter registrar, Penny Golightly in the Floyd County Tax Assessor/Collector's Office at the courthouse in Floydada, before Thursday, April 1. Failure to do so may result in your not being able to vote in one or all of the spring municipal elections. Anyone who is not currently registered to vote may do so prior to Thursday, April 1 and still be eligible to vote in the May elections.

County Commissioners in need of county attorney

By Juanita Stepp

County Judge Bill Hardin informed Floyd County Commissioners that the county is once more in need of the services of an attorney to act as county attorney during a special session held on March 22. Hardin told the court that District Attorney Becky McPherson had informed him that her case load in the District Court will no longer allow her sufficient time to act as county attorney for misdemeanor prosecution in Floyd County.

Hardin also reported that local attorney Dena Reecer has expressed an interest in serving as special prosecutor for misdemeanor and juvenile cases in Floyd County. No action was taken on the matter at this time.

AUDIT REPORT

Floyd County Commissioners heard the annual audit report presented by Davis, Kinard and Co. during the Monday afternoon session. The report covered the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1991 and ending September 30, 1992. According to the documents submitted, the county has maintained a good record of financial responsibility during the period and was complimented on the manner in which the records are maintained.

Motion to accept the report as presented was made by Precinct 1 Commissioner Connie Bearden and seconded by Precinct 2 Commissioner Floyd Jackson. The vote was unanimously in favor of accepting the report.

FARM WORK CONTRACTS

A motion by Jackson, seconded by Taylor, was passed by unanimous vote approving farm work contracts for J. A. Welch, L. N. Johnson, C. Carthel Estate for Herschel Carthel by J. Aaron Wilson, McLaughlin Arms by Ronnie Thornton, Delton Jack by Ronnie Aston, Robert L. Daniels, and Wilson Farms by Floyd W. Jackson. All of the contracts were for the purpose of soil conservation and the prevention of soil erosion.

Previously approved contracts for H & T Farms by Dorothy L. Teague, Kenneth Wofford and Nathan Johnson were voided on the same motion.

OTHER MATTERS

Commissioners also authorized payment of properly presented and approved accounts against the county on a motion by Precinct 4 Commissioner Howard Bishop. The motion was seconded by Precinct 3 Commissioner George Taylor and approved by unanimous vote. A previously submitted claim from Sheriff Charles Overstreet for compensation for holiday and vacation pay during 1991 and 1992 was again rejected by the court.

Caprock approves bids for renovation, computer system

The board of directors of Caprock Hospital met for a regular meeting, Tuesday, March 23, to accept bids for hospital renovation and computers.

According to Hospital Administrator Ronnie Ammons, directors voted to buy an IBM computer and software capable of handling total hospital operations, including: inventory, accounts receivable and accounts payable.

"The cost of the program was approximately $50,000," said Ammons. "It was the only bid we received."

Directors also voted to accept the bid from Honeywell on upgrading the fire alarm system, and installing a new heating, air conditioning and ventilation system.

"It is a total turnkey job," said Ammons. "It will bring the fire alarm system up to current standards and operation and besides the heating and air conditioning, the job will handle other miscellaneous items," said Ammons.

"The cost of this project is $140,000."

Directors also added Yvonne Houndshell t the bank signature card. Houndshell is the business office manager at the hospital.

A financial report was presented to the directors and according to Ammons, $55,632.69 was dispersed in operating expenses from Feb. 18-March 22.

The hospital collected $33,800.73 during the same time period from patients accounts, interest on bank accounts and tax revenue. "Funds are available to open, but first we have to get the hospital ready," said Ammons.

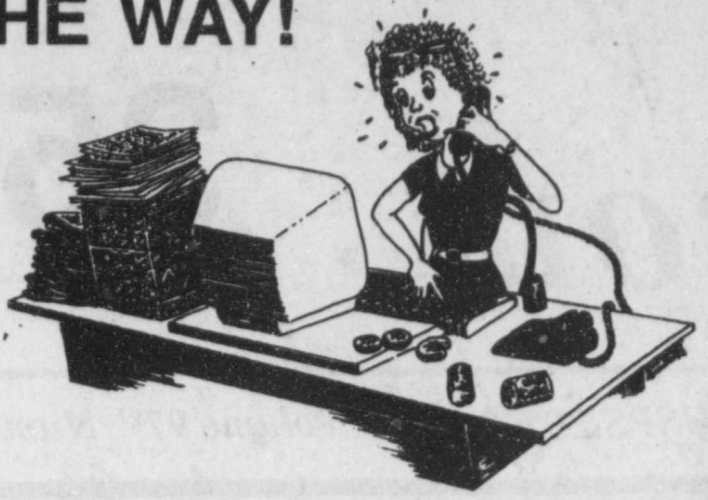

The hospital currently has a balance of $800,000 in the bank.

Ammons informed the directors that a handicap bathroom has been installed at the hospital.

On the agenda but tabled for later discussion was: employee insurance, Dr. Hoang's contract and South Plains Health Providers.

BY THE WAY!

BY ALICE GILROY

My hat's off to state representative, Rep. Warren Chisum, D-Pampa.

Chisum, who is president of the Texas Conservative Coalition, is sponsoring legislation in the House that would allow school districts to decide whether to offer sex education classes. If the local districts choose to teach sex education they would be required to offer a curriculum based on directive abstinence.

A directive abstinence curriculum stresses that abstinence is the only sure way to prevent pregnancy or sexually transmitted disease and is the only acceptable way to behave.

Chisum was quoted in the Lubbock AJ as saying, "We realize that there is a teen-age pregnancy problem in this state. We're not sticking our heads in the sand about that. We also realize that there are two ways to handle it, and that's to let the state do it or the parents and the local school district do it."

Sen. Jane Nelson, R-Flower Mound, is the Senate sponsor of the measure. She said the bill empowers local school districts to deal with teen-age pregnancy as they see fit.

"They should be the ones determining whether or not sex education in the schools is the proper methodology to use to attack the problem, not the people living in our ivory towers in Washington and in Austin," Nelson said.

The AJ story said, "the conservative proposals are counter to the Adolescent Pregnancy and Parenthood Advisory Council's (APPAC's) recommendations that school districts be required to teach an age-appropriate, scientifically valid sex education curriculum in kindergarten through 12th grade."

MEANWHILE.....OVER IN SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA....a judge threw out the "just say no" sex education program, on Thursday, March 18, saying it violated state laws against teaching religion.

A lawyer, Allison A. Jones, sued on behalf of Planned Parenthood. Jones said it was the first court ruling on the package of courses called "Facing Reality" and "Sex Respect", which is taught in 2,000 schools across the nation.

It seems Planned Parenthood doesn't like these programs because they are abstinence based.

The Louisiana judge, State District Judge Frank Thaxton, blocked the Caddo Parish School Board from using the program, which encourages teenagers to abstain from premarital sex.

Jones said, "This decision is a victory for the students of Caddo Parish who need sex education which is factually accurate and which is free from and does not reflect religious intolerance."

Well—there you have it folks. The fight goes on.

Planned Parenthood and Judge Jones are telling us that if you believe the only sure way to avoid getting pregnant, getting AIDS or contacting some other venereal disease is to abstain from sex—then you are religiously intolerant.

Planned Parenthood tells us that children need sex education that is factually accurate. What is more factually accurate than teaching abstinence as a means to avoid pregnancy and AIDS??

How accurate are they when they don't teach how ineffective condoms are in preventing pregnancy and AIDS? If condoms worked in preventing pregnancy, how come doctors don't recommend them to women who don't want children?

How come schools are handing out condoms in New York?

Is that factually accurate? Anyway—it makes me proud to know that Texas has some people like Chisum and Nelson fighting for us. If you agree with them—let them know you appreciate what they are doing.

Did You Know???

The average housewife will wash 2-1/2 million cooking and eating utensils during her lifetime. (Now you know why you feel so tired when you're standing at the sink).

Undertakers report that human bodies do not deteriorate as quickly as they used to. They believe that the modern diet contains so many preservatives that these chemicals tend to prevent rapid decomposition after death. (If that is true—and I am what I eat—my body is never going to return to dust. I'm going to be preserved forever).

Hiking trail to be featured on Trails Day

Hundreds of Texans are expected to witness the transformation of a former railroad line into the second longest hiking trail in Quitaque on June 5, National Trails Day.

The Caprock Canyons State Park Trailway dedication will feature a inaugural bicycle ride along the new 22-mile stretch of newly opened trail between South Plains and Quitaque, about 28 miles east of Plainview. Other activities planned include hiking opportunities, visiting saddle clubs, buggy rides, tours to see a historic tunnel on the trail, entertainers in period dress, hay rides, a barbeque and a country western dance.

"Converting unused rail lines into hiking, biking and equestrian trails makes sense," said Kathryn Nichols, trails planner with Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. "It's fun, it's healthy and the tourism it generates is good for the economy. This is the decade of conservation and the outdoors, and Texans are hungry for new trails to blaze."

Event organizers have invited the

Ronald Bremer to speak at genealogy workshop

Caprock Genealogical Society will be sponsoring an annual workshop on Friday, March 26, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the Floyd County Historical Museum. Genealogist Ron Bremer is scheduled to be the featured speaker.

Bremer is an experienced genealogist, author, lecturer and historian. His book, titled "Compendium of Historical Sources" is credited with being the How and Where of American Genealogy.

Born in South Gate, Los Angeles County, California, he has been involved in genealogy since the age of thirteen due to the influences of a mother who was a genealogist and teacher of genealogical research. His family traces their roots back for over one hundred years.

Educated at Cerritos College in California, American University in Washington, D. C. and Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, Bremer has perfected better methods and faster means of doing genealogy through the use of Terminators of trash are coming April 3

Thousands of Adopt-A-Highway and Keep Texas Beautiful volunteers around the state are expected to unite on Saturday, April 3, for the eighth annual "Great Texas Trash-Off".

In Floyd County, six Adopt-a-Highway groups will arm themselves with trash bags and safety vests to combat litter. The specific groups will be Cargill Hybrid Seeds, Trinity Lutheran Church and FHA-HERO Floydada High School. Cargill Hybrid Seeds has four different divisions that will be participating in the Trash-Off. Cargill Hybrid Seeds will coordinate the efforts of Keep Texas Beautiful.

The event, which is sponsored by the Texas Department of Transportation in conjunction with the "Don't Mess with Texas" antilitter program, is considered the largest one-day cleanup effort in the nation.

Last year's Trash-Off yielded an estimated 2 million gallons of roadside debris which—in addition to the usual beer cans and fast food wrappers—includes an uncashed check for $19,987.27 and several denominations of hard, cold cash.

Trash-Off sponsor Coca-Cola will provide 33-gallon garbage bags and special incentive prizes to participants.

Since the Texas Department of Transportation launched the Don't Mess with Texas and Adopt-a-Highway programs in 1985, the state has seen a 72 percent decrease in roadside litter.

Texas governor, various legislators and other state leaders to attend the ribbon-cutting ceremony for the new trail. Local leaders believe it will be an important force for economic development.

"We've already seen Quitaque become a travel stop for almost 150,000 people per year going to Caprock Canyons State Park," said Elgin Conner, mayor of Quitaque.

Quitaque's population, like others nearby, was hit hard by a depressed farming economy in the 1900's, but sales tax revenue in the area has been up for the last two years.

"I think that's directly tied to tourism," Conner said. "And the rail-to-trail project will provide a big economic boost to Quitaque, simply by having more people come through town. We are extremely excited by the possibilities."

National Trails Day is designed to focus public attention on building a system of protected trailways to link open spaces and natural areas across little know, but plentiful records often ignored in the past. He currently serves as editor for the Genealogy Digest magazine and contributes to numerous periodicals. Always in demand as a motivational speaker, he conducts an average of forty day-long workshops each year and has visited the major genealogical record centers in every state and in Washington, D. C.

America. The Caprock Canyons project involves a three-way partnership between a government agency, a nonprofit conservation group and a private business to make possible a new public trail.

The Rails-To-Trails Conservancy, a national profit group, was instrumental in acquiring the abandoned rail corridor from railroad company Burlington Northern. Money to buy the land, tracks and structures came from a salvage company that buys and sells salvaged rail materials.

"For the state park, I think it's going to be a tremendous drawing card. We'll now have almost 100 miles to trails in one location when you combine the rail-trail with our existing park trails."

The new trail will offer outstanding weekend trail rides for horseback riders. Mountain bikers will have extensive mileage where they can get away from it all into some rugged country. And Sargent said he's had numerous inquiries from Volksmarche walking groups.

Once complete, the entire trail will run about 64 miles from South Plains to Estelline, moving through the cultivated fields of the Texas high plains, dropping into the rugged canyons of the Caprock Escarpment and winding down into the famous Red River Valley.

A unique feature of the trail near the Caprock Escarpment is a 1000-foot abandoned railroad tunnel, which is on the National Register of Historic Places as one of only a few such tunnels in Texas.

The trail also moves through the Valley of the Tears, where Comanche Indians once traded white hostages, and it crosses the mighty F Ranch, one of the first great ranches on the Texas plains.

Once completed, the new Texas trail will be second in length only to the 118-mile Lone Star Trail at Sam Houston National Forest in East Texas. The trail head in South Plains is 73 miles from Lubbock and 95 miles from Amarillo. The eastern terminus at Estelline will be 127 miles from Wichita Falls.

For more information on the Caprock Canyons State Park Trailway dedication, contact the Quitaque Chamber of Commerce at 806-455-1439 or -1179.

LIFE

Life is a series of events that runs the emotional cycle of extreme highs to extreme lows. This is easily understood when we see the birth of one of our children or grandchildren... what joy these precious gifts of God bring to our lives. But there are still those other times of life when tragedy strikes, such as the unexpected death or disability of a loved one through a terrible accident. Life is quickly filled with great sorrow - even confusion, doubt and despair.

It does not always take a great tragedy to arrive at this condition of mind; it may be the loss of a job, a failed crop, rejection by a friend. But take heart dear friend, because if any of these things are troubling you, rest assured there are answers for your most troublesome and profound questions.

God's Word declares that it contains all that pertains to life and godliness. II Peter 1:3,4. God wants His people to know and understand His Will so that they may be thoroughly furnished/adequately equipped for every good work. II Tim. 3:16,17. Yes, God's Word, the Bible does have the answers to all questions pertaining to life and godliness. But we must examine the Scriptures to see if these things are so. Acts 17:11.

If you have a pressing question or would just like some information about a Bible subject and want a Bible answer just drop a line to The Village Preacher, PO Box 546, Lockney, Texas, 79241.

May your soul prosper, Ed

Courtroom Activities

In county court March 18 the following cases were settled:

The March 3 Driving While License Suspended charge against Matthew Albert Aday was dismissed;

Danny Borum, 31, of Plainview, pled guilty to his July 29, 1992 charge of DWI. He was fined $500.00 and sentenced to six months in jail which was probated for two years. He was also ordered to pay court costs;

Gilbert Garza pled guilty to his June 25, 1992 charge of driving while his license was suspended. He was fined $100.00 and sentenced to 30 days in jail plus court costs;

A new bill, relating to the problem of stalking, was passed in the Texas Legislature March 10. "This was passed as an emergency statute," said District Attorney Becky McPherson. "It is effective immediately.

According to McPherson if someone is arrested the first time for Stalking, they could be charged with a Class A Misdemeanor which is punishable by a fine up to $1,500 and up to one year in prison.

A second Stalking offense would be a 3rd degree felony and a person could be charged up to $10,000 and receive up to 2-10 years in TDC.

"What I particularly like about the law," said McPherson is that if a person is on bond, parole or probation, conditions have been set where they can't communicate or go near the victim. If the conditions are violated they can be

Floydada Police Report

Floydada police were called to the junior high Wednesday morning, March 24, in reference to a burglary and vandalism that had occurred the previous night.

The investigation is still in progress and it had not been determined by press time how much damage had occurred or how much property had been taken.

According to Chief James Hale, "At this time we know that VCR's and money have been stolen."

Early in the morning March 24, at 2:30 a.m., Ismael Leal Hinojos, 41, of Floydada, was arrested for public intoxication.

March 23 police were called to the city park in reference to juveniles fighting. Two juvenile boys were referred to the city judge.

Also on March 23, police received a complaint on the actions of a perfume salesman. Police talked to the man and he left town.

A theft from a business in the 500 block of E. Houston was reported on March 22. Stolen from a tractor was a NH3 Filler valve, valued at $50.00 and a hose, valued at $200.00.

March 21, a homeowner reported that her home, located in the 700 block of S. Wall, had been burglarized while she was away for Spring break. Stolen from the home was a Mitsubishi VCR, valued at $490.00, costume jewelry, and a lock box with personal items valued at $40.00.

March 19, Matthew Albert Aday, 22, of Floydada, was arrested in the 100 block of E. Jackson on outstanding local warrants.

license was suspended. He was fined $100.00 and sentenced to 30 days in jail plus court costs;

Jose Guadalupe Gonzales III, 23, of Lockney, pled guilty to his February 9, 1993 charge of DWI. He was fined $100.00 and sentenced to 30 days in jail. He was also ordered to pay court costs;

Reginaldo Mata pled guilty to his September 3, 1992 charge of unlawfully carrying a weapon. He was fined $200.00 and sentenced to 60 days in jail. He was also ordered to pay court costs;

Carmen Suarez, 70, of Floydada, pled guilty to a lesser charge of reckless conduct which was reduced down from a February 5, 1993 charge of DWI. He was fined $400.00 plus court costs.

arrested.

"For instance if a defendant happens to go into a public place, such as a restaurant where the victim is eating, the defendant has the duty to leave the place immediately."

Legislators took similar Stalking laws already in effect in other states under consideration before enacting this statute. "The current Harassment law has been amended to include the offense of Stalking," said McPherson.

According to the statute, conduct that constitutes Stalking would include: on more than one occasion engages in conduct directed specifically toward the other person that is reasonably likely to harass, annoy, alarm, abuse, torment, or embarrass that person; or on at least one occasion by acts or words threatens to inflict bodily injury on that person or to commit an offense against that person, a member of that person's family, or that person's property.

The new statute states that a magistrate may require a defendant as a condition of release on bond not to:

"(1) communicate directly or indirectly with the victim; or

(2) go to or near the residence, place of employment, or business of the victim or to or near a school, day-care facility, or similar facility where dependent child of the victim is in attendance."

Have you had your vegetables today?

Submitted by Melissa Long, CEA-HE

The United States Department of Agriculture's Food Guide Pyramid recommends eating three to five servings of vegetables daily. Yet, despite these recommendations, vegetables seem to have disappeared from the daily diets of many people. For some unknown reason, they think vegetables are boring and yucky.

This misperception, and that's exactly what it is, is beginning to change. Vegetables are becoming an important part of a balanced diet. Vegetables come in many colors, shapes, sizes, forms, flavors and textures. They contribute interest and variety to meals in countless ways. They are fun to cook and to eat. Their versatility makes them an asset in most meals.

Vegetables score very high nutritionally. They contain a variety of vitamins, minerals and fiber.

COUPLE TO MARRY—Mr. and Mrs. Emrick Opiela of Karnes City, Texas, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Eva Ann, to Patrick Roland Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lloyd of Floydada. Ms. Opiela is a graduate of Karnes City High School and the University of Texas at Austin, where she earned a bachelor's degree in journalism. She is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority. Ms. Opiela is a writer in Dallas. Lloyd is a graduate of Floydada High School and the University of Texas at Austin, where he earned a bachelor's degree in accounting. He is a candidate for May graduation from the Texas Tech University School of Law, where he will receive a degree of juris doctor. The First Baptist Church of Floydada was the site of a wedding ceremony uniting Shelly Crissman and Kyle O. Smith at 5 p.m. Saturday, March 20, 1993. The couple pledged their vows before the Rev. Howell Farnsworth, pastor, in the same church that the groom's parents were married.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Crissman of Hydro, Okla., and Dr. and Mrs. W.O. "Dan" Smith of San Angelo.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, chose a Victorian candlelight white gown featuring a pearl beaded bodice with full puffed sleeves over long multi-buttoned sleeves. The back was accentuated with pearl strands draping the neckline down to the v-shaped back. A large beaded bow was at the back waist. The full-length train was inlaid with intricate lace designs and ended with a scalloped hemline. She carried a cascade bouquet of orchids and white roses.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was sister of the groom, Jennifer Smith. Bridesmaids were Stacie Buckmaster, Diana Crissman, sister-in-law of the bride; Jaree Bierig and Melody Morris. They wore teal iridescent tea length dresses designed with velvet bodices. Their full sleeves carried out the Victorian theme. Each attendant carried fresh flowers.

Megan Johnson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Acting as best man was Joel Browder. Groomsmen were Leo Waldinger III, David Sams, David Sweet and Tracy Turner. Seating guests were Greg Goen, Jon Malstrom, David Smith and Will Emmons. Male attendants were attired in charcoal tuxedos with teal cummerbunds and ties. The groom was dressed in a white tuxedo.

Jon Malstrom and David Smith also served as candlelighters.

Musical selections for the ceremony included "Doubly Good To You", "The Lord's Prayer", and "The Wedding Song", all vocalized by Teresa Johnson. Organist was Roberta Hardin, who had also played at the wedding of the groom's parents.

Presiding at the register book was Robyn Hursh.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the Massie Activity Center.

The bride's table was draped with a white cloth and overlaid with white net pulled up in love knots along the edges. Highlighting the setting was a white tiered wedding cake decorated with fresh flowers. A white bird cage, holding white doves, sat beside the cake. Silver and crystal appointments were used. Fresh greenery and flowers were placed at the focal points of a white lattice background.

The groom's table, covered with a teal over charcoal gray, held a variety of fresh fruits served from a stately cascade fruit centerpiece. Finger foods were also served. Silver appointments completed the setting. The table also stood before a lattice background.

Reception assistants were Paige Emmons, Laura Smith, Debbie Smith and Jennifer Smith.

The bride is a graduate of Hydro High School and attended Southwestern Oklahoma State University. She is employed by Agriculture Investment Marketing. The groom is a graduate of San Angelo Central High School and Baylor University. He is associated with Goen and Goen Insurance.

Following a wedding trip to Maui, Hawaii, the couple will make their home in Floydada.

They had each chosen three companion cotton prints for two skirts which were sewn prior to the meeting. One of the skirts was already placed in the stocking and ready to show and the other was prepared during the meeting by placing around a broomstick and into a stocking for drying. The third skirt, a six-tier design, was ready to assemble and this was shared by club members.

Refreshments were served to Sue Lovell, Gladys Widener, Lillian Smith, Barbara Willis, guest Crawford Sandefur and hostess Jonelle Fawver. The next meeting will be in the home of Gladys Widener on March 23.

Birthday party honors nursing home residents

By Lorilla Bradley
March brings some surprises
....Now and then it snows....
But much to our discomfort
She blows and blows and BLOWS!!!

Helene Holt we honor
For her 'tis 80 years....
She wears a smile of welcome
And fills our hearts with cheers!

We greet our Mrs. Backtell
On this her special day....
And may each one get better
All along the way!

Mrs. McCray we're greeting
....She dates from 1908....
She'd love to have you visit....
Come early and stay late.

Let's serenade these ladies
With the good old Birthday Song....
So join us as we sing it
And come out good and strong.

FLOYDADA — Thursday, March 18, was party time at the Floydada Rest Home with members of the City Park Church of Christ hosting. The Hesperian-Beacon photographer came for the picture-taking, following which, everyone was escorted into the dining room. Seated with Mrs. McCray was her husband Lloyd and Mr. Holt sat with his wife Helene. Jo Bryant gave a brief history of each honoree after which the poem was read and all joined in singing the Birthday Song.

Whirlwinds sweep first twin bill in baseball

By Bill Gray

Freshman Michael Mercado went five for seven, had four RBIs, and scored four runs, to help lead the Floydada Whirlwinds to a double-header sweep of the Lubbock Roosevelt Eagles at Watson Field on March 20. It was the first double-header victory for the 'Winds under second-year coach Jimmy Webster.

Mercado's bases-loaded triple to deep center field touched off Floydada's 7-run second inning as the Whirlwinds coasted to a 14-2 victory in the five-inning first game. Mercado was two for four, and catcher Rafael DeOchoa went two for three with two RBIs, as the 'Winds won the 7-inning nightcap 7-2.

Floydada's victories were the first over the visitors from Acuff in baseball, and avenged an earlier 11-1 loss to the Eagles. The Whirlwinds' record improved to 4-5 for the season while Roosevelt fell to 2-4. In the opener, Whirlwinds junior pitcher Mike Ochoa allowed five base hits and walked only two, and picked up his second win against three losses for the year. Micheal Gilliland tossed a 2-hitter and allowed but three walks in winning the 7-inning second game. Gilliland's record now stands at 2-1.

The Whirlwind defense was at its best in the opening game as Floydada played errorless ball, and had only two miscues in the second.

A happy Coach Webster stated, "We wanted a sweep and we knew we had to win the first one to put ourselves in that position. We came out ready to play!"

The key to both victories was the Floydada pitching. In the first game, (Mike) Ochoa kept the ball in the strike zone. He got ahead of the Eagle hitters and made them hit his pitches.

The coach commented, "When they put the ball in play, we made the plays." Webster noted, "When our pitcher throws well, we can concentrate on our offensive attack. It shouldn't be like that... but it is all in the pitching."

"I thought we did a better job of preparation," said Webster. "Offensively, (Michael) Mercado stung the ball! He went 3 for 4 with three runs and four RBIs - not a bad day! Mercado is proving he can hit high school pitching, and he belongs in the lineup."

The coach also praised Gabriel DeLaFuenta, who had two hits in the first game. "I thought we really showed some patience at the plate... the 'Winds drew 10 bases-on-balls," stated Webster.

"Pitching, pitching, pitching!", Coach Webster commented following the second game. "Once again Gill (Micheal Gilliland) set the tempo. We had the first-inning breakdown when Gill walked the first two batters (who both scored), followed by a single and an error. Then Gill settled down and pitched. After the first inning he faced only 20 batters in six innings (two over the minimum). He (Gill) got focused and got into a groove - and got the job done!"

Michael Mercado had two more hits in the second game to finish a fine day at the plate. Rafael DeOchoa went two for three with 3 RBIs. Webster said, "He (DeOchoa) can be a heck of a hitter if he'll make one change and use the whole field to hit - and not just the 3rd base line. He got both hits and all three RBIs on balls hit to the right side."

Coach Webster added, "We put the ball in play well all day and got some timely hits. We didn't leave too many on base at all. We made the routine plays defensively. If we throw strikes and make the routine plays, the game isn't nearly as difficult as it seems."

Webster summed up the team's success by stating, "We'll see this week if we got lucky or if we really are improving."

The Whirlwinds host Lubbock Cooper at Watson Field on March 23 and had a 5:00 p.m. game at Lockney on March 26. It will be the first of two scheduled outings with the Longhorns this season.

BILL'S NOTES

The Whirlwinds continue to show improvement with each outing - as evidenced by their gutsy performances against Roosevelt last Saturday. Younger people are really starting to come around. Freshman Michael Mercado's bat was sizzling against the Eagles. As a team, the 'Winds produced 17 hits and 15 RBIs in the two games. It was by far the best back-to-back showing for Jimmy's crew to date.

The youngsters are starting to hit in the clutch when it counts (example: Mercado's bases-loaded triple in the first game). Playing errorless ball helped limit the number of opposing base runners - also a big factor. The infield deserves a lot of credit for both wins as they committed only two errors in the 12 innings of play.

Gill and Ochoa had superb outings on the mound... the best Floydada hurling of the year. They were both in or near the strike zone (few passed balls and only five combined walks allowed). The combination of that kind of quality pitching, coupled with good defense and hot bats, will win a lot of ball games.

If they continue this obvious improvement and maintain their winning ways, the 'Winds could end up as legitimate playoff contenders during the district's round-robin schedule - which starts against Muleshoe at Watson Field in April. How the 'Winds fare against Lockney this Friday may be a good gauge as to just how far they have come in a year. It should be an exciting evening at the Longhorn diamond.

Crader and Gonzales shine at Wolverine meet

By Bill Gray

Whirlwind senior Scott Crader came within 2-1/4 inches of matching the Floydada High School all-time shot put record (56' 2-1/2"), set by state-qualifier Leslie Soto in 1976) in the Wolverine Relays at Springlake-Earth on March 20. Crader's toss of 56' 0-1/4" was his personal best as he captured first place by edging junior teammate Adam Gonzales' 55' 11" second-place finish. Gonzales' effort was also his personal best in shot put. Bryan Welps of Hart placed third in the event at 50' 8-1/4".

Welps won the discus with a 150' 11" mark, but Crader's 149' 9" toss held up for second place. Gonzales placed fourth in discus at 142' 8".

Due to inclement weather, the Post meet was cancelled last week. That cancellation made the Wolverine meet all the more important for the Floydada duo. Crader and Gonzales are front-runners for regional spots and the more experience each can get prior to the district meet later in the Spring will be beneficial.

Crader's 56-plus in shot put at Springlake-Earth should move him to the top of the event in the weekly "Boys' Track Honor Roll." Gonzales led the Amarillo Daily News listing through March 18 with a mark of 53' 7". Crader and Gonzales have now registered over 55-ft. marks, both of which should be tops among 3A distances in Region I.

The Floydada boys track squad returns to full action this week in the prestigious San Angelo Relays. The meet will attract a number of regional hopefuls. Crader, Gonzales, Jason Pyle and other top Floydada track performers will have the opportunity to see where the competition is for the coveted trip to May's state meet in Austin. The Lady 'Winds thinclads travel to Abilene this week where they will also be competing against some of the region's best.

BILL'S NOTES

Adam and Scott are to be commended for their excellent performances at Springlake-Earth. They continue to push each other, and each has profited from the fierce friendly competition.

They've been neck-and-neck in shot put and discuss throughout their high school careers. This is what high school amateur athletics is all about. It takes a lot of hard work and many sacrifices to reach the level of competition they have achieved.

Not only are they good athletes on the fields, but are good students in the classrooms... most importantly, they are good citizens - the type of young men who will be tomorrow's leaders.

The lessons of work ethics, dedication, and striving to be the best will remain with them long after their high school years. They, along with all their teammates and coaches, are a credit to their families, their school and community.

Support the FHS Track Teams!
The 'Varsity Winds will be competing in San Angelo and the Lady 'Winds will be at Abilene this weekend.

FHA members win first at regional

By Kathy Becker

Ten Floydada High School students from Kathy Becker's Future Homemakers of America Chapter attended the Region I meeting held in Odessa, March 12 and 13.

The meeting featured general sessions helping the teenagers relate and work with those around them in a more effective manner.

The delegates attended break-out workshops in many areas concerning nutrition, socialization, body language, positive attitude and others.

While at the conference Tamie Conanougher and Pepper Hinkle competed in the Star Event, Little Friends. They won first place and will advance to state competition in Houston April 16th. The project they presented included a display and a five to 10 minute presentation explaining the project which they are working on. The high school students are working with Early Childhood, Pre-Kindergarten, and Kindergarten classes at Duncan Elementary.

For the project, Pepper and Tamie first identified the problem as being a lack of concern or ability from some parents in teaching daily living skills and spending time with the children. Next we set a goal which was to provide support. Our plan was to develop relationships with these students. To act on our plan, we work with the Early Childhood, Pre-k, and Kindergarten students.

As we continue with the program we hope to improve the self-concept of all of the students and, as the title of the project states—All Become Closer.

Bluebonnet FHA-HERO class learns about body language

The Bluebonnet FHA-HERO chapter had two delegates eligible to go to the regional FHA-HERO meeting in Odessa. Pat Pancardo and Hilda Rodriguez got to go. They told about the meeting in the Holiday Inn at the March 22 meeting in the CVAE-Home Ec room at FHS. They attended two workshops on Body Language and Health and Exercise.

In class we are getting ready to sew. We are studying how to build a basic working woman or man's business wardrobe. Some we have on hand, some we can buy and some we plan to sew.

A lady from J.C. Penney has been invited to bring her show of a basic working wardrobe, which she takes to Home Ec. classes in the Lubbock area. We watched the filmstrip it is based on. Also we took measurements and recorded for buying patterns. We plan to do color analysis and make shopping cards of our most becoming colors.

Mrs. Joyce Williams, our advisor and teacher, told us about the eligibility requirements to get to the State FHA-HERO meeting.

Red Rose Chapter studies child care jobs

By Cookie Gonzalez

The Red Rose Chapter of FHA-HERO met in the FHS CVAE-Home Ec room. President Sarah Hernandez called the meeting to order. The creed was led by Susie Maldonado.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by Cookie Gonzalez. During the program our treasurer Laura Ochoa gave a report on the regional meeting at Odessa March 12 and 13. They traveled in the school suburban and stayed at the Holiday Inn with Mrs. Joyce Williams, our advisor. They learned group mixer games. The workshop were about Reading Body Language and The Study Body (Health). They ate at the buffet at the Holiday Inn.

In class we have recently finished studying about child care jobs. We observed at the Texas Migrant Council. It is federally funded. Workers are evaluated every six months and can get a 5% raise each time they pass. They also get family health insurance for only $20 a month, and 104 hours a year of vacation or sick leave time-off.

You must have a high school diploma or G.E.D., a TB test, drug-free test and in the future must take an HIV test to get hired.

Mrs. Riojas is the manager and looks for workers who are energetic, caring and get along with parents as well as children. Besides teachers, TMC also hires custodians, bus drivers and cooks.

There are no vacancies because everyone there likes their job, but in summer the J.T.P.A. sometimes hires teenagers to help in the office. Office skills would be useful to study in high school she said.

At the Floyd County Day Care, Mrs. Betty Fuller told us it is financed by parent's fees, community donations and the U.S.D.A. helps with food. The TMC is free and accepts only low income migrant agriculture children, but the Day Care is open to everyone.

A lot of working mothers enroll their pre-school children in the Day Care's education and play program for age 6 months to Kindergarten, and after school care.

Requirements for a job at Day Care are the same. Both places require from 15 to 25 hours of extra education for each employee yearly.

Mrs. Fuller told us to study nutrition, parenting and child development, Home Economics, art, music, recreation and physical education, record keeping and office skills. She said there is a lot of record keeping in running a Day Care. She told us she looks for a teacher who enjoys children, is caring and willing to continue education.

At Mrs. Charlene Brown's registered Home Care we learned how to start a registered child care business in our own home for up to 6 pre-schoolers. She also has to take 25 hours of child care training each year, along with CPR and first aid.

Educational and play equipment can be bought at garage sales and local stores, she said. She showed us how to set up record books for the parents and the IRS.

There is a lot more to running a child care business than just feeding them and letting them watch TV. Education, recreation, nutrition and safety are all important to the success of the business we learned.

Nearly everyone in our classes wants to work in education and pre-school care is a way to get started. We learned about working in one and starting our own. We also studied about babysitting in our home and the customer's home. Most everyone in class has done some babysitting. It is the basic step.

The Best That We Can Be In '93

By Criselda Valdez

The first FHS senior in the spotlight this week is Holly Lynette Henderson, who plans to attend Midwestern State in Wichita Falls, where her older sister, Heather, is now enrolled. Her parents are Bud and Donna Henderson, and she was born right here in Floydada.

Two things that Holly likes to do best are playing basketball and water skiing. She has been on the varsity girls basketball team for three years playing post. She has also run hurdles in track for two years. She is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She would love to be a veterinarian but is actually planning to major in business in college to become an accountant.

Holly spends most of her summers babysitting, which is very hard and takes a lot of responsibility. She attends First Baptist Church with her family.

What Holly likes best about F.H.S. is that everybody knows everyone else and the closeness between students and staff. Though she is a very busy person, she still finds time to listen to other people. She is a great and sweet person and is ready for any challenge in the future. Good Luck, Holly!

The next senior in our spotlight is Kristal Wilson, daughter of Phillip and Kay Wilson. Kristal has one older brother and sister.

She has attended school here in Floydada for 12 years. This year Kristal is on the spirit committee. Other activities Kristal has been involved in previous years include band, Future Homemakers of America, and debate. In the near future she plans to attend Texas A&M University and major in law.

In the summers Kristal works with her father, who is an electrician. Now she works at the radio station after school. If Kristal could do anything she wanted, she would help to achieve world peace and travel all over the world. What really makes Kristal happy, is seeing people smile. Her favorite Christmas was when the whole family spent it together.

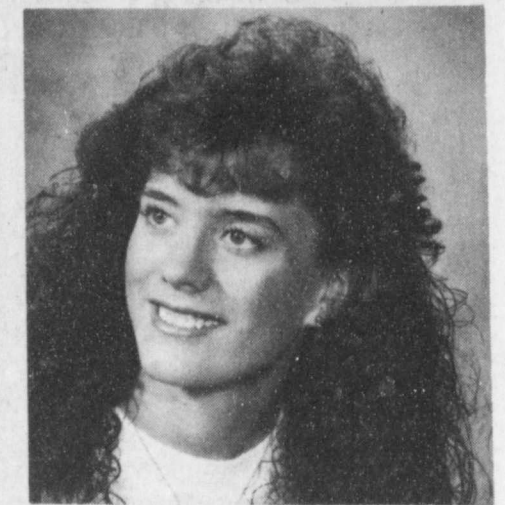

Kristal's favorite class is Mr. Lockwood's math class. In her spare time she likes to read or spend time with friends. This kind and understanding senior has our best wishes for the future.

The last senior to be spotlighted this week is Tara Vickers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Vickers. She has one older brother and sister and was born in Lubbock. She has attended several other schools including Round Rock and Georgetown.

Even though Tara has been in FHS less than two years, she quickly got involved in many activities. She plays the trombone in the marching band and jazz (stage) band, and is active in Theatre Arts. She plays basketball and golf. Her favorite subject in school is history. She thinks FHS is a very friendly school but feels that there is too much gossip here.

Tara's plans for the future are to attend Tarleton State University, but she hasn't decided on a major yet. With her usual great sense of humor she said that she plans to be a professional student.

The best thing about the seniors at FHS is that they have special talents, and interests and different views of their future. That's what makes this class "The Best That They Can Be In '93."

Edwards to interview prospective host families

Linda Edwards, Local Coordinator for the Academic Year in America program of the AIFS Foundation, has begun interviewing area families who would be interested in hosting an international student on the AYA program during the 1993-94 school year.

Edwards has the applications of several boys and girls who would like to live in this part of Texas next year. AYA students are between the ages of 15 and 18, have solid academic records, at least three years of English and the maturity and flexibility required for a year abroad.

A family can select a student from Germany, Spain, Brazil, or any one of 30 other countries around the globe. AYA students have their own spending money for personal expenses and full medical insurance. Their host families are asked to treat them just like their own son or daughter.

Students arrive next August to begin the school year with their American classmates. They attend the local public high school, carry a full course load and join clubs, sports and other activities.

The cross cultural learning is returned two ways. A student comes to understand how Americans really live, work and think. The host family discovers how holidays are celebrated in the student's homeland, learns a few phrases of his language and experiences a new way of looking at things they have long taken for granted. Families that decide to host now are invited to choose the student they would like to welcome. Letters can be exchanged immediately and the friendship begins.

Interested families should call Linda Edwards in Lubbock at 806-793-6789 or Regional Director, Doug Moran at the AYA national office in Connecticut at 1-800-322-4678.

Seek emergency exemption for propazine

Association pushing for Section 18

Grain sorghum producers on the High Plains are preparing for spring planting, and their job might be a little easier if they had access to propazine. The herbicide, which is specifically for weed control in grain sorghum, was used in this area for more than 20 years, said Gary Bright, president of the National Grain Sorghum Producers (NGSP).

"It was proven to be safe and effective, but because of the expense involved in the re-registration process required by the Environmental Protection Agency, propazine was removed from the market a few years ago," Bright said. "However, NGSP is working to get propazine back to the producers in time for this spring's planting."

Bright said that the Griffin Corporation has agreed to go through the re-registration process and bring propazine back as MiloPro 4L this spring, but that EPA must make a decision and make it very soon for that to happen.

"We were told by EPA that we should apply for a Section 18 Emergency Exemption for propazine if we wanted to use it this year," he said, "and we have done that. NGSP has submitted requests for Section 18 exemptions for Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas."

"NGSP is strongly encouraging EPA to approve our requests by April 1. If that's done, we feel very confident that some of the product will be available to our producers this spring."

"Grain sorghum producers on the High Plains need propazine," said Bright. "That is why NGSP has been working very closely with our legislators on this effort. They have been extremely helpful."

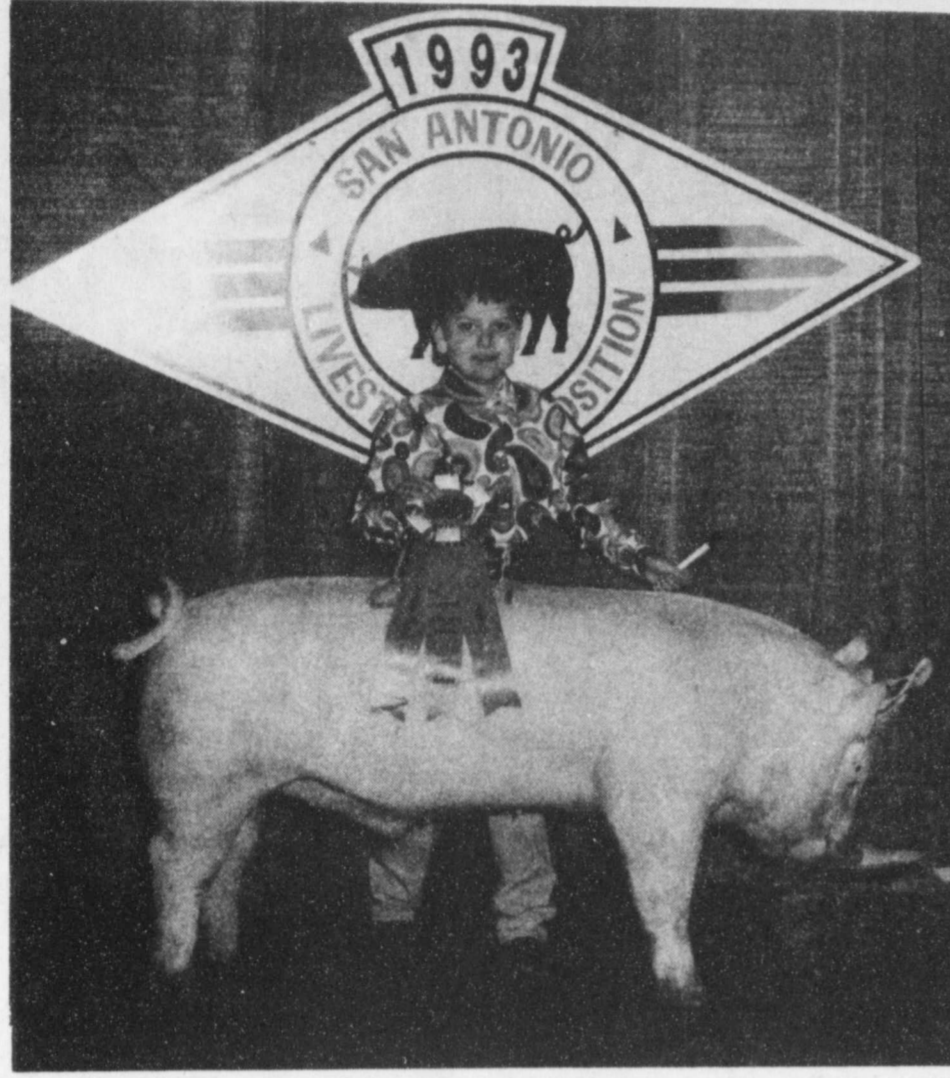

Bright said that NGSP had received invaluable help on this issue from U.S. Reps. Thomas Ewing of Illinois, Jill Long of Indiana, Pat Roberts and Jim Slattery of Kansas, Timothy Penny of Minnesota, Bill Emerson of Missouri, Doug Bereuter of Nebraska, Bill Richardson, Steven Schiff and Joe Skeen of New Mexico, James T. Walsh of New York, Charlie Rose of North Carolina, John Boehner of Ohio, Bill Brewster and Glenn English of Oklahoma, Mike Kopetski of Oregon, Tim Johnson of South Dakota, Larry Combest, Chet Edwards, Greg Laughlin, Bill Sarpalus and Charles W. Stenholm of Texas; and from former U.S. Reps. Mike Espy of Mississippi, Ron Marlane of Montana, Dick Nichols of Kansas, and Robin Tallon of South Carolina.

"We have also been aided by Senators Ben Nighthorse Campbell of Colorado, David L. Boren of Oklahoma, Robert Dole and Nancy Kassebaum of Kansas, Pete V. Domenici and Jeff Bingaman of New Mexico, Jim Exon of Nebraska, and Phil Gramm and former Senator Lloyd Bentsen of Texas," Bright said.

"Although the amount of active ingredient available this spring will be limited," said Bright, "there should be plenty available for 1994. We'll let our members know as soon as we have any news."

Research project provides good news

By Shawn Wade

A research project conducted at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES) in Lubbock on profitability and how it is affected by cotton variety provides good news for producers on the High Plains according to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers (PCG).

Two relatively new cotton varieties provided some of the most consistent results in the study. Those varieties were All-Tex Atlas and All-Tex Excess which can each trace their beginnings directly to the area's 100-year old Plains Cotton Improvement Program (PCIP).

PCG formed the Plains Cotton Improvement Committee (PCIC) in 1983 to provide oversight for the program. The PCIC funds the research of Dr. John Gannaway, a cotton breeder at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station north of Lubbock, through a voluntary assessment of ten cents per bale collected at area compresses.

The TAES study was conducted by Associate Professor Eduardo Segarra and Research Assistant Stacey Baker. It ranked 14 irrigated and dryland variety trials conducted at three separate locations using 1988, 1990 and 1991 experimental data.

According to the study both Excess and Atlas consistently ranked in the top six under both irrigated and dryland conditions at the three locations. The two All-Tex varieties took the number one and two positions when ranked by both irrigated and dryland net revenues.

"The results of this study prove that the future is bright for High Plains cotton farmers," says Myrl Mitchell, PCIC Chairman and cotton producer from Lenora, Texas. "It just goes to show that producers are indeed getting the most bang for their buck out of the Plains Cotton Improvement Program."

Mitchell also added that High Plains producers will soon be able to choose from more PCIP enhanced varieties as new varieties are introduced over the next few years.

Releases are planned for several PCIP enhanced varieties from a number of area seed companies. The weather problems experienced in 1992 delayed the release of some varieties by another year.

"This initial success by varieties developed from PCIP germ-plasm is definitely good news for cotton producers in this area," notes PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson. "They represent some of the early releases from the program and the future is sure to hold even more success as more PCIP developed germ-plasm makes its way to commercial seed breeders."

Texas A&M, USDA to help Russia beat food shortages

The Texas A&M University System and the U.S. Department of Agriculture have agreed to terms on a program to help Central Russia on its long road to agriculture self-sufficiency.

The university will offer a combination of educational programs, establish a model farm, and help identify new markets and marketing programs to improve agriculture. Improved agricultural production could help keep the Tatarstan region of Central Russia stable, said Dr. Bob Merrifield, deputy director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, an agency of the Texas A&M system. "It will also provide new economic opportunities for the United States," he said.

The program will include agribusiness courses for Russians in both Tatarstan and Texas. It also will use a Tatarian model farm, as a basis for developing and demonstrating updated agricultural production and marketing techniques.

The farm was started in the spring of 1992 and has been managed on-site by a consultant from Texas A&M. The farm is intended to serve eventually as the equivalent of a large U.S. agricultural research and extension center. The farm will produce, harvest, store, package and market agricultural products while evaluating new technologies and providing agricultural education to the region.

The importance of management education and training cannot be overestimated, Merrifield and other officials said. Programs in Tatarstan are scheduled to start in May, while those in Texas are scheduled to start in September.

While the USDA will provide $300,000 to the first year of the overall program, most of the money for the model farm will come from TATNEFT, a Russian oil amalgamation that intends to use part of its revenues to develop Tatarian agriculture. Texas A&M will provide expertise and technical assistance. The university envisions the program as a five-year effort. Funding must be renewed each year.

The entire project came about when Houston firm, Global Natural Resources initiated contacts between Texas A&M and Tatarian officials interested in improving food production and distribution. Global also helped sponsor travel by a Texas A&M agriculture team to Tatarstan in 1991 and assisted with set-up of the model farm.

The new program will also identify potential markets for U.S. ag commodities, meaning U.S. investment is negligible compared to potential returns from increased trade between the two countries.

"They can't produce everything they need there, even though their land can produce some of the finest grain I've ever seen," stated Wayne Showers, a member of the Texas A&M Board of

"Everything they've done is big and misshapen and was planned by central government. We've got to help them do things differently," he continued.

U.S. representative Jack Fields, who also so strongly supported the agreement, said of the Texas A&M program, "If we help the Russian people gain agricultural self-sufficiency, we're going to help them achieve greater economic and political stability also."

Captrans drivers compete in state Rodeo in Austin

Olga Enriquez of Floydada and Alberta Sedillo of Ralls were among Captrans drivers who competed in an area-wide Rodeo in Levelland in February. The two advanced to the state competition.

Thirty 16 passenger van drivers and 10 Citibus drivers from throughout the state competed in Austin on Sunday, March 14.

The drivers were judged on their ability to drive through a variety of skill courses, including left and right hand turns, backup skills, passenger pick-ups and drop offs, parallel parking and driving between barrels at a speed of 20 mph. In this event, the driver was to come to a stop within six inches of a marker, following a sudden brake.

A reception followed the competition for all participants and trophies were awarded.

Enriquez and Sedillo visited the state capitol before leaving Austin. While there, they met Gov. Ann Richards, who took time out to pose for a picture with the ladies. Both are employed by Caprock Community Action Association of Crosbyton.

March tax rebates decrease

By Juanita Stepp
March 1993 sales tax rebates made to Floyd County cities from the state comptroller's office have been received. Year to date totals displayed an increase from last year for both Floydada and Lockney. Lockney and Floydada figures each indicate increases in monthly rebates when compared to March of 1992 rebates.

Total rebates received in Floyd County this month totaled $10,732.25, a decrease of 12.76 percent when compared to the $12,301.94 received at this time in 1992.

Floydada's March check from the state comptroller's office was in the amount of $7,089.76 and showed a decrease of 11.29 percent from the $7,991.67 payment received in March of 1992.

Lockney displayed a decrease of 15.49 percent from the same period in 1992 in over all receipts. The March check received by Lockney was in the amount of $3,642.49 compared to $4,310.27 received in March 1992.

Area cities, their March 1992 rebates and percentage of change are listed below.

Quitaque; $943.81, +15.16%
Silverton; $1,221.91, -31.57%
Crosbyton; $6,277.69, +26.87%

Lorenzo; $1,335.49, +2.88%
Ralls; $4,716.99, +16.36%
Abernathy; $5,820.41, -15.29%
Hale Center; $3,033.27, +10.03%
Petersburg; $1,405.05, +6.64%
Plainview; $143,640.53, +5.99%
Idalou; $4,087.04, +18.81%
Lubbock; $1,164,720.99, +10.16%
Matador; $1,297.48, -16.27%
Roaring Springs; $2,006.76, +237.53%

Tulia; $16,957.14, +6.35%
Payments totaling $101.7 million in local sales tax rebates went back to 929 Texas cities and 109 counties this month, according to the state comptroller's office. This month's sales tax payments include taxes collected on January sales and reported to the Comptroller in February by businesses filing monthly tax returns.

Sales taxes are collected by merchants and forwarded to the state which retains a 6.25 percent share and returns the city sales tax portion to each city, county, hospital district or transit system. Neither Floyd County nor Lockney General Hospital District and Caprock Hospital District levies a sales tax at this time. No qualifying transit system, which could also levy a sales tax, operates within the county.

Healthy diet includes fruits

From Melissa Long, CEA-HE
Fruits, often called nature's sweet, are an important part of a healthy diet. According to surveys, most people eat fresh fruit for snacks; and the banana is the most popular fruit in America, followed by apples and seedless grapes.

The USDA Food Guide Pyramid recommends two to four servings of fruit each day. For most, that's easy to do because fruit is so popular and makes such a handy snack when eaten fresh. Because it's also naturally sweet, it can serve as a dessert, substituting for higher fat and calorie-laden desserts.

Fruit gives a quick source of energy in the form of carbohydrate. Fruits and fruit juices also provide important amounts of vitamins A and C and potassium. They are low in fat and sodium. Some fruits provide a good amount of fiber, including apples, berries, figs, pears, peaches and prunes.

Serving sizes are important when interpreting the Food Guide recommendations. A serving size is a particular amount of a food, not just the number of times it is eaten per day. For example, a serving size of fruit would be a small to medium range or banana, or half of a large banana; one-half cup chopped, cooked or canned fruit; and three-fourths cup juice. When selecting juices, only 100 percent fruit juice products are considered a serving. Other products such as fruit punches, ades or sodas contain only a little juice and added sugar. Fruit jellies also do not qualify.

Other tips for including fruits in the diet follow:

*Include many forms. Choose fresh fruit, fruit juice and frozen, canned or dried fruit. Go easy on fruit canned or frozen in syrup or sugar. Read the labels for content.

*Include whole fruits. They are higher in fiber than fruit juices.

*Include citrus fruits, melons and berries because they are rich in vitamin C. We need vitamin C each day because the body does not store it.

*Always wash fresh fruits before preparing or eating to remove any surface dirt, residue or bacteria.

Capitalize on the richness and versatility of fruits by including them in meals and snacks.

For more information on specific fruits contact Melissa Long, Floyd County Extension Agent-Home Economics, at 983-2806.

Sams travel to Big Springs

By Marjorie McElyea
A group of the club met at the Massie Activity Center Thursday morning and left under the direction of Trail Boss Mac McElyea, followed by the Adams and Gilbreaths. We were joined at Post by John and Christine Lyles where we had a coffee break.

We arrived at Big Springs just in time for lunch, where we were joined by the Weatherboses, Parkers, Hartells and Kendrick.

The afternoon was spent visiting and playing games and doing jigsaw puzzles.

Friday was more of the same except we ate at Furr's Cafeteria and went to WalMart.

Each morning we all enjoyed coffee and home baked breads and cookies at 9 o'clock, and then entertained ourselves as we pleased.

Saturday we had Bar-B-Que at the camp and the ladies went shopping in the afternoon.

Sunday morning after coffee and devotion we all left for home. It was a lovely and restful trip.

See you all at the chapter meeting.
