Floyd County votes against 'Robin Hood' amendment

By Juanita Stepp

When the local polls closed in Floyd County on Saturday, May 1, the county voters had cast 796 votes against the first constitutional amendment on the ballot, the so-called "Robin Hood" amendment for school funding. 533 county voters cast ballots favoring the amendment. Statewide, the results were more decisive with voters defeating the proposition nearly two votes to one.

Proposition 2 for a constitutional amendment to prevent the state from mandating programs in local schools without providing state funding was approved by Floyd County voters 759 to 527. Statewide, the proposition was defeated with about 51 percent of the voters against and 49 percent in favor.

The third constitutional amendment on the ballot, concerning the bonds for school construction, was voted down 772 to 501 in Floyd County. Statewide, it was supported by 44 percent of the voters with 56 percent voting against.

SENATE RACE

The twenty-four candidate field running for U. S. Senator was narrowed considerably for the upcoming runoff election. Top vote getters in the county were Kay Bailey Hutchison with 426 votes and interim senator Robert Krueger with 304 votes.

Throughout the state, the results were closer with Democratic candidate Krueger and Republican candidate Hutchison to face each other in a runoff election after each garnered approximately 29 percent of the votes in the

May 1 Election. The run-off is expected to be scheduled for late May or early June.

In Floyd County, Jack Fields followed with 209 votes and Joe Barton had 203. Richard Fisher had 58 votes and Jose Angel Gutierrez got 24. Stephen Hopkins received 20 votes and Gene Kelly had 6. Earning four votes each were Roger Henson and Don

Commissioners canvas May 1 election votes

By Juanita Stepp

Meeting in a special called session on Monday, May 3, 1993, the Floyd County Commissioners Court canvassed the votes from the May 1 Election concerning three constitutional amendments and the senate race. The court found no errors in the tally and approved it as presented.

Farm work contracts were approved for Glen Wood, James Cage and J. R. Belt on a motion by Precinct 1 Commissioner Connie Bearden. The second was provided by Precinct 3 Commissioner George Taylor and the contracts were approved by unanimous vote.

A contract submitted by Bobbie Hamilton was not approved as the work requested has already been performed by a private contractor.

Richardson.

C. (Sonny) Payne and Thomas Spink each got 2 votes in the Saturday balloting. One vote apiece went to Clymer Wright, Herbert Spiro, Lou Zaeske, Rose Floyd, Lottie Bolling Hancock, Maco Stewart and Louis C. Davis.

Billy Brown, Rick Draheim, James Valester, Charles Ben Howell and Chuck Sibley received no votes in Floyd County.

LOCAL MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

Voters were also out to cast ballots in city council, school board and hospital board elections in both Floydada and Lockney.

CARTHEL IS NEW FLOYDADA MAYOR

The major contested race in the county was the Mayoral race in Floydada. With no incumbent, Hulon Carthel and Jon Nielson each sought the post. Voters selected Carthel, casting 551 votes in his favor. Nielson received 137 votes in the balloting.

Seeking a return to office as the council representative in Floydada's District 2 was Ruben Barrientoz. Opponent Dale Lawson defeated the incumbent 125 votes to 87.

The District 3 race for city council was between incumbent Leroy Burns and his challenger Roxanna Cummings. Burns was reelected 136 to 94.

WOFFORD REELECTED MAYOR IN LOCKNEY

Lockney voters returned Mayor Kenneth Wofford to office for an additional two-year term, casting 164 votes in his favor. He was uncontested.

Earning council seats were incumbent Bil Anderson with 135 votes and first time candidate Rodger Stapp with 152 votes. The two were the only candidates for the two positions open this spring.

HOSPITAL DISTRICT ELECTION RESULTS

Hospital board elections in both Lockney and Floydada were contested. Lockney General Hospital District voters returned the three incumbent members to office for another term. The three candidates with the highest totals won the three board posts.

Jerry Johnson received 355 votes in the at-large balloting and Ronnie Hardin got 316. Hubert Frizzell garnered 286. Other candidates were Phil Cotham who received 149 votes and Jack Covington who got 128 votes.

Caprock Hospital District voters in Floydada reelected two incumbents and placed one new member on the board. Returning to office will be Joy Assiter with 383 votes and Jerry Thompson with 588 votes. The new member will be Tom Farris who received 446 votes. Leaving the board is Jim Word who got 345 votes. The remaining candidate, T. M. (Whitey) Whiteley, received 155 votes in the May 1 balloting.

Former Justice of the Peace named assistant city judge

By Juanita Stepp

FLOYDADA -- Meeting in a special called session on Tuesday, May 4, the city council of Floydada voted unanimously to appoint former Justice of the Peace Lowell Bilbrey as the new assistant municipal judge. Bilbrey will serve as city judge on an hourly basis while Judge Frank Breed recuperates from surgery and will then be available if needed.

Motion for the appointment was

DR. AND MRS. WILLIAM NGO

Caprock Hospital negotiating contract with fourth physician

By Juanita Stepp

Dr. William Ngo (pronounced "no") has tentatively agreed to accept a position in Floydada as a member of the staff at Cogdell Clinic following an interview with the board of directors of Caprock Hospital District. Board members instructed hospital administrator Ronald Ammons to pursue contract negotiations with Ngo on a motion by Jerry Thompson with a second by Joy Assiter. The vote was unanimous with Jim Word and Fred Thayer joining the two in making the offer to Ngo. Board member Kenneth Pitts was unable to attend the special called session on Monday, May 3.

The physician, a native of Vietnam, has studied in the United States for the past several years and is a Doctor of Osteopathy. Stated Ngo, "This gives me the added capability of doing manipulations in addition to treating a patient with drugs."

Ngo began his medical training in Vietnam where he attended six years of medical school. Fleeing his native land, he arrived in America with no educational records and had to begin again. He graduated from medical school in California four years later in 1990.

Since that time, he has served a one year internship in California and has done 18 months as a resident in an OB-GYN program. He also has some training in orthopedic medicine, but wishes to concentrate mainly on primary care as a family physician.

"It was very difficult to learn the language, adjust to the cultural differences and perform well in medical school," says Ngo. "Where other students had to study an hour, I had to devote two, three or four to achieve the desired results. The struggle was worth the effort, as I value the freedom I have here in America very much. I am also very grateful that there is a place for me to practice my medicine here in this country."

Ngo indicated that he had been raised in a rural area of Vietnam and preferred to practice in a rural area. "I am a country boy and I do not like the noise and pollution in big cities. I want to be in a quiet area to live and work," added Ngo. "I want to work in a place where the people really need the help and I want to work as part of a team to provide care for patients and work toward reopening the hospital."

Ngo and his wife Christina, also a native of Vietnam, will be coming to Floydada from Midway City in California. Ammons stated that he hoped to have the new physician settled in Floydada and ready to see patients in a month or two. The exact time frame is dependent upon final acceptance of a contract by the local board and upon licensing arrangements with the State of Texas.

Ngo and his wife met and married after leaving their native country and arriving in America. She is very supportive of her husband and his career, preferring to assist him in every way possible rather than pursue a career of her own. She has trained in English and general education and was contemplating seeking a degree as a chiropractor, prior to this job offer for her husband.

"I am happy to be coming here with my husband," said Mrs. Ngo. "I want to do all I can to make his career a success and help him build a practice. I may return to school part time in the future if I can arrange it, but right now, this is more important."

The couple have no children, but Ngo's parents and several siblings are also in the United States. Mrs. Ngo has a brother who lives in America although her parents are still in Vietnam.

The family attends the First Baptist Church and Ngo credits the church in California with assisting him in learning the English language. "Bible study in the evenings helped me to practice my English and was good for me in other ways as well," said Ngo. "I am looking forward to being a part of the church community in Floydada."

Both Ngo and his wife were interested in knowing what plans were being carried out to reopen the hospital and to attract patients to the clinic. They were told that the clinic practice was using advertising and community involvement to try to expand the clinic practice. The Ngos asked what the community would expect of them. Board president Fred Thayer told them that the community would first expect quality care and communication.

Ngo expressed the attitude that the art of listening to a patient was as important as using medical means to diagnose ailments. "Listening to the patient and taking the time to talk to patients to see what is going on in their lives can often be more helpful than medicine. Many times they need friendship and communication more," said Ngo.

Tree Street closed Saturday

Tree Street in front of Floydada High School will be closed to thru traffic on Saturday, May 8, to help accommodate visiting bands who will be attending the annual band festival slated at the school.

Annual Lions Club broom and mop sale is today

The Floydada Lions Club will conduct their annual Broom and Mop Sale on May 6 to sell quality Blind Made merchandise to residents and local businesses. All of the items are manufactured by blind and visually-impaired workers in the Lighthouses for the Blind.

In addition, the Lions Club's earnings from this sale will be used to help the Lions worthwhile community projects.

The entire membership of the Lions Club has been organized to supply friends and neighbors with these quality items. The Broom and Mop sale will be located at Floydada's Pay-N-Save parking lot, where citizens may purchase directly from the Caravan truck, or you may contact any Lion's member (if they don't contact you first) to have your order delivered.

The sale will begin at 8:00 a.m. and a variety of quality cleaning aids for home, business and industry will be on display. Products on sale at the parking lot will include: warehouse and household mops, both cotton and rayon; dust mop handles and refills for household and commercial, all shapes and sizes of brooms and dusters, cleaning brushes, household and utility sponges, dust cloths, pot holders and oven mitts, dish cloths and dish towels, mesh washing bags, dust pans, grass mats and tire link mats and other assorted cleaning supplies.

Floydada schools dismissing for staff development training

All Floydada schools will be dismissing at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, May 7, for local staff development training. Also, Monday, May 10 and Tuesday, May 11, all school teachers, administrators, and teaching assistants will be involved in staff development workshops in Plainview.

No classes will be conducted Monday or Tuesday. Classes resume at their regular times on Wednesday, May 12.

County gears up for May 29 pioneer reunion

"Progress Reflecting Pioneer Tradition" is the theme of the 1993 Old Settlers Reunion to be held May 28 and 29. New entertainment is slated for Friday May 28, and many popular events will return Saturday.

Floyd County Museum will have their annual open house, Friday beginning at 1:00 p.m. A rope making demonstration will be featured at the museum. Bill Barrett, of Sweet Home, Oregon, has crafted the rope-making machine patterned after the machines which have been in his family for many years. Special tour times may be arranged through the museum.

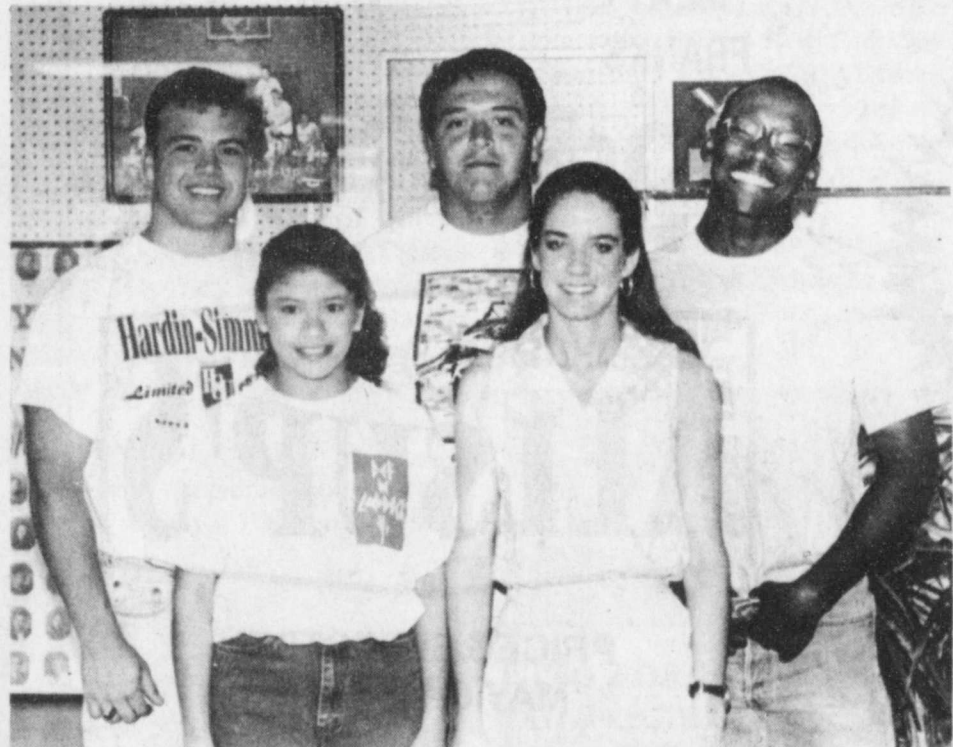

The Museum Open House will end at 7:30 p.m., just in time for an 8:00 "Tent Show" in the Pioneer Pavilion. The "Salute To Tent Shows" will be presented by The Floyd County Historical Commission.

Saturdays activities begin with the registration at 9:00 a.m. at the north end of the Ag Building and a band concert under the pavilion.

Boy Scout Troop 357 will raise the flag during a 9:30 a.m. ceremony which will be followed by a business meeting.

Traditional events such as a wild-flower show, a beard contest, a washer pitching contest, and an arts and crafts auction will return to the square. Cow Patty Bingo will be played north of the square, on Main Street. The winner of the Bingo will be announced at 3:20

STATE QUALIFIERS—Five Floydada High School students qualified for state competition in field and track events during last week's regional meet in Odessa. Those who will be traveling to Austin on May 13-15 are (l-r) Scott Crader, Elisa Suarez, Adam Gonzales, Tian Younger and Michael Henderson.

Five athletes qualify for state

By Bill Gray

FLOYDADA—Three Whirlwinds and two Lady Winds have qualified for the Class 3A State Track Meet in Austin on May 14 and 15. Seniors Scott Crader, Michael Henderson, Tian Younger and Elisa Suarez, along with junior Adam Gonzales, gained the rights to advance to the State meet as a result of their performances at the Region I meet in Odessa last weekend.

Lubbock Dunbar won the Region 1-3A boys track title at Ratliff Stadium with 55 total team points. Floydada wasn't expected to be a factor in the boys' title chase, but strong individual finishes by Crader, Gonzales and Henderson, enabled the 'Winds to tie 2-3A member Tulia for second place with 42 points apiece. Tulia had been a heavy favorite for the team championship with ten individuals and entries in the 400 and 1600 relays.

After qualifying for discus at 161'-9", Crader threw 164'-0" to place second behind the 165'-6" winning toss by Crane's Cody McGuire. Brandon Pshigoda of Perryton took third at 161'-7". Adam Gonzales had an off-day in discus. He finished second in the qualifications at 153'-10", but placed 12th in the finals with a throw of 141 feet — far short of his season's best effort of 165'-4".

However, Gonzales rebounded with a first place shot put toss of 55'-10 1/2". Canyon's Andy Holt, who also had his troubles in discus, placed second in shot put at 54'-2 3/4". Crader, competing with a pulled hamstring, could manage only 52'-3 1/4" for a third-place finish in the event. Gonzales and Crader will be the first tandem from Floydada to compete for state titles in shot put and discus in a number of years.

Although Michael Henderson qualified for State in only one event (second in triple jump at 43'-10"), his third in the 100 meters (10.70) and fourth in the 200 meters (22.05) helped the Whirlwinds finish in a tie with Tulia for the runners-up in team honors. Tulia was paced by Cory Sanders, who won the 100 meters (10.57), placed fourth in triple jump (43'-7 1/2") and was part of Tulia's mile relay team which finished in fourth

BY THE WAY!

BY

I just found out that Floydada got their landfill permit!

Congratulations to everyone who worked so hard to make this happen—especially City Manager Gary Brown. It's been a long five years.

Gary found out about the permit being approved while I was out of town. The news got out to the TV stations around here, but I still didn't know about it until too late for this week's paper (that's right—I'm making excuses).

We will be doing a story soon on all the work that has gone into getting the permit. There were plenty of times that I really believed the EPA would never give it to Floydada—that they would just keep changing the rules and hope Floydada would give up.

Anyway—as unromantic as it sounds—it's great that the county residents will not have to haul their trash to Lubbock or Plainview and pay the costs to do so.

Clar Schacht is once again in charge of the Beard Growing Contest and wants us to tell all the men who will be attending Old Settlers to start growing their beards. I think he also wants us to start putting the beard growing announcement in the paper so everyone will know what that grungy stuff is that's growing on his face.

Now that T-Ball has started in Lockney I need to tell all the parents to be nice to the umpires. My life depends on it.

You see—I volunteered someone for the job. I thought Deputy Greg Pierce needed something to do to fill up any spare time he might have. He also likes kids and they like him. It's the parents he is going to have to worry about.

When I told him I had recommended him for the job he told me that I had just found a way to make everyone in Lockney hate him—not just the ones he puts in jail.

I think all the parents need to remember that they are the example their children learn by. If you act like a bad sport—your kids will too.

Greg just better not EVER call my kid out of the game!

Floydada ISD hires two basketball coaches

By Juanita Stepp

FLOYDADA — Floydada ISD board members accepted the recommendation of Superintendent Jerry Cannon and voted unanimously to hire two new head coaches for basketball. The new coaches will be on staff for the 1993-94 school year in both the boys and the girls programs following action at the May 3 regular session of the board.

Employed as the head coach for the boys basketball program was Hayden Merket. Merket comes to Floydada from Menard, Texas, where his team won the 1992-93 district championship. Hired to head the girls program was Mike McCann. He has been coaching at Levelland for the past five years.

Cannon told the board that there had been a number of applications for the boys coaching job, but the choice was limited on the girls coach. He also pointed out that no women had applied for the position.

Motion to hire the two was made by John Campbell and seconded by Steve Lloyd. The vote was all in favor with the exception of board member Don Hardy who was not present for the meeting.

Board members also accepted the resignations of four during the Monday evening meeting. Among those submitting resignations was Regina Smith who resigned as a coach and asked to be reassigned as a classroom teacher. Ruth Reed, high school Spanish teacher, resigned that post and asked to be reassigned to an elementary school teaching position. Leaving the system will be Kelly McCormick (high school government teacher) who wishes to stay home with her family, and Nikolyn Williams (R. C. Andrews teacher) who will be moving to Hereford.

Motion to accept the resignations came from Lloyd and was seconded by Campbell. All voted in favor.

again be the board secretary.

PEDICULOSIS POLICY

A. B. Duncan principal Bobbie Weir, head of a group assigned to formulate a new policy to deal with head lice, reported to the board. She presented a plan which she called, "the best of two worlds," saying, "This will allow us to control the situation in school and change the situation at home."

Weir told the board that the new policy calls for routine monthly screening at school. If head lice are found, screening of those involved will be on a two day rotation basis. All students eight years and older will be taught the proper manner for shampooing their hair and combing to remove nits. All infected students will be shampooed at school.

Parents will be notified and must pick up their infested child at school. They will receive information about the problem and how to solve it in both English and Spanish at this time. They will be required to return the child to school the next day and to have a 45 minute session including a film about the problem. A continued problem with lice in the same child will result in a 45 minute session every day for the parents added Weir.

A new part of the policy is the fact that parents who do not meet their responsibilities in handling the matter will be referred to local authorities who will pursue an investigation into charges of child neglect and possibly child abuse if the head lice problem continues unchecked.

Campbell made a motion to adopt the new policy for implementation in the 1993-94 school year. This was seconded by Probasco and approved on a unanimous vote.

SCHOOL CALENDAR CHANGED

Cannon asked that the board approve changing the bad weather day scheduled for January 31, 1994 to January 24. This would allow the day to coincide with the local stock show as is the usual practice.

Lloyd made the motion to approve the change and Billy Joe Villarreal seconded. The matter was unanimously approved.

OTHER MATTERS

Board members approved the minutes from the previous meeting and authorized payment of monthly bills during the session. Collins reported that FUSD has received $254,905.00 from local taxes and $904,025.00 from CED taxes. He also said that tax collections are now 95 percent complete. This compares to collections in 1992 which were 94.65 percent complete at this time.

Collins also asked board permission to include FUSD in a food purchasing cooperative for Region 17. This would allow the district to meet state guidelines for purchasing cafeteria food supplies and should save local money. The school would have to place orders on a six month basis, but payment would be due on a weekly basis as supplies are delivered locally.

A motion by Lloyd with a second by Villarreal was approved unanimously to include FUSD in the cooperative effort.

Commissioners canvas votes

School board posts in Lockney Independent School District featured three candidates running for two seats. Voters again placed incumbent Mike Mathis on the school board. Mathis got 272 votes and Dan Smith earned 261 votes to take the remaining board position. Aaron Wilson received 224 votes in the balloting.

Floydada Independent School District had no contested races. Billy Joe Villarreal was returned to his post in Precinct 3 with 60 votes and first time candidate Mitch Probasco was elected to the at-large board seat with 738 votes.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

I am so excited to write this letter to the editor. I firmly feel we need to dwell on the good things. Phil. 4:8 says "... good, pure, lovely, if there be anything worthy of praise think on these things."

You may already know but if not I am happy to spread the good news. Crisis Pregnancy Services is going in. I am so happy to hear this because one thing we hear in the media all the time is if pro-life people really care about the unborn, why don't they do something to help them.

This is a fantastic way for us to team together to show our love by our actions for these people. I have heard it said many times before that people don't care how much you say until they see how much you care.

Crisis Pregnancy Services can be

Dear Editor,

What kind of a "Christian" country is this that would allow a woman and her doctor the option to murder her baby before it's born (and be applauded because she is "practicing safe birth control of unwanted accidents") — but a few months later a person could be awarded two 99-year concurrent sentences for "injuring" a child?!

It matters not whether that life was conceived two months or twelve months ago, nobody, and I mean nobody, has the moral right to murder that tiny, defenseless individual.

CAREER LADDER TEACHERS FUNDED

An executive session held before the meeting adjourned, discussed the career ladder and funding for several local teachers not included in state money. About two dozen teachers were present for consideration of the matter. According to Cannon, FUSD has 23 teachers on Level 3 and 22 on Level 2. These receive career ladder funds from the $90.00 per ADA FUSD receives from the state for career ladder pay. Another 15 local teachers have qualified for Level 2 on the career ladder, but there are no state funds to pay them.

Following the discussion in executive session, Brown made the motion to pay these fifteen the career ladder supplement from local funds. Lloyd seconded and all voted in favor.

ELECTION CANVASSED

A canvassing committee headed by administrative assistant Jimmie Collins and comprised of Trena Simpson and John Campbell reviewed the results of the May 1 school board election. Finding no errors, the committee recommended that the results be declared official and accepted as presented. Motion to approve the results was made by Simpson and seconded by Campbell. The vote was unanimously in favor of the motion.

Following this, the two board members elected last Saturday, Billy Joe Villarreal and Mitch Probasco, signed their oaths of office and these were notarized by school secretary Darlynn Hambright to be sent to the Secretary of State in Austin. Board members then elected officers for the coming year. Charlene Brown will remain as president and Steve Lloyd was chosen for vice president. Trena Simpson will

HABITS THAT LEAD TO WRATH

Socially, politically, and even religiously we have developed habits that are helping tremendously in the destruction of our own nation.

Socially, some have the habit of considering themselves better than others and therefore practice shunning and, in some cases, complete rejection. This leads those shunned and rejected to anger, hatred and open hostility - not the unity Jesus prayed for in John 17:20,21. Sometimes apathy becomes the social habit. When you see evil or hear evil and you don't stand against it, you also will bear the wrath. Lev. 5:1.

Politically, some have the habit of straight ticket voting, that is, voting only for those of their party persuasion. This may have worked years ago but today in both parties, we have politicians who are truly anti-God; that is, those who favor abortion, homosexuality, euthanasia. When we vote for the wicked we are helping the wicked and, therefore, bring God's wrath upon ourselves. II Chronicles 19:2, cf II John 7:11. Vote on the side of Christian morality every time.

Religiously, many have developed the habit of allowing their authoritative guide for religion to be their feelings, or some influential or dynamic person or some other form of teaching. The Christian faith is filled with wonderful feelings and emotions, but yet its authoritative standard is objective and not subjective. Feelings are important, but our feelings must be guided and directed by God's authoritative guide, His Holy Word. Remember, Jesus came to earth to bear witness of God's truth. John 18:37 of John 17:17.

Eddie Fortenberry. Fortenberry, who has guided the Lady 'Horns to the threshold of the playoffs the past two years, has accepted the position of head girls mentor at Hereford.

Longhorn athletic director John Lowe also announced the hiring of Bryan Gerlich as a junior varsity basketball coach and varsity assistant in football and track. Kirkland and Gerlich are engaged to be married on June 5, following Krista's graduation from Texas Tech. Gerlich has served as an assistant coach at Andrews this past year.

While it might appear that Gerlich was added to the coaching staff as part of a "package deal" to secure the services of Krista Kirkland, according to Lockney ISD Superintendent Dub Hallmark, that certainly was not the case. "Bryan Gerlich stands on his own merits, and the expertise he brings will be a very positive addition to our staff... we are equally fortunate to have Bryan at Lockney as we are to have Krista," stated Hallmark.

Kirkland, the 1989 class salutatorian at Spearman High School, was named All-State in track and basketball during her school days. Her freshmen and sophomore years were spent at Sudan, where her father, Jim, was the girls' coach. After winning the state title in 1987, the Kirklands moved on to Spearman, where the teams went 28-3 and 26-6 (reaching the area finals both years). Krista was a regional track qualifier all four years in high school (state runner-up in the 1600 meters her senior year) and a regional qualifier in golf one year.

One of Kirkland's accomplishments this year was becoming the Lady Raiders' All-Time leader in assists, and places second in Southwest Conference circles with 552. She started the final 96 games of her collegiate career and is one of only 11 Lady Raiders to have played in more than 100 career games. Krista played in 126 of the 128 games (she missed two during her freshman season), including 110 straight that Texas Tech has played since the 1989-90 season. In her Tech days, Kirkland made 219 of 525 3-point field goal attempts (both of which are career marks in the SWC).

During Tech's championship run in 1993, Kirkland was named to the All-Tournament teams in the Red Raider Classic, Miami Church's Classic, the SWC Post-Season Classic, NCAA West Region and the NCAA Final Four. She was also named to the Co SIDA District 6 All-Academic Team in 1993 and received Honorable Mention All-America status by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association.

Bryan Gerlich is a 1987 graduate of La Vernia High School, where he was a multi-sport letter winner, and was

MUSEUM RECEIVES ARTWORK—Following the April art exhibit at the First National Bank of Floydada, the artist, Siva V. Chambers, presented a watercolor painting to the Floyd County Historical Museum. "Floydada and the country around it has so much to offer: the canyon and all the beauty of nature, historical values, the crops in all their variety and bounty... and the many wonderful people! I love Floydada." These are the expression of Chambers, and her reason for painting this, her conception of some of Floydada's most valuable assets. Receiving the gift for the museum was friend of the artist, James H. Word, avocational archaeologist, and a dedicated and longtime member of the museum board. The two worked together at the Lubbock Landmark site. "Mr. Word was actually the first person I met from Floydada," said the artist. She is the wife of Dr. Clint Chambers, Lubbock. —Staff photo

Economic development program presented to Lockney chamber

Members of the Lockney Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors met Tuesday morning at Stricklands Restaurant and heard a program on economic development. The program was presented by Mary Blendenman, a member of the Economic Development department of the Southwestern Public Service.

This department has been created at SPS to promote the region served by SPS and to assist cities and towns find new industries or upgrade existing businesses and industry. She explained to those present how to promote the local community and gave references and resources that could help attract new industry.

The Texas Department of Commerce and the Texas Department of Agriculture sends criteria from businesses interested in locating in this area to SPS and they in turn send it on to the cities and towns that are working on development and that are suitable for the company wanting to relocate.

Blendenman stated, "There are many resources and grants available, it is just a matter of finding them and applying for them. Also you must be able to write convincing proposals. There are many committees out there wanting the same piece of pie."

She recommended that a committee of interested people from the community be appointed. Blendenman related that the group from SPS would meet with the committee and work on goals and projects that would fit the needs of Lockney.

"You need truly dedicated people on the economic development committee," stated Blendenman. "If the group is not willing to put in a lot of hard work then there is no need in starting."

She suggested that a commitment from the group was the first object and that a town hall type meeting was a good way to pull in ideas and interest.

"Surveys need to be conducted to show the strengths and weaknesses of the community. After that a development incentive package can then be created," she stated.

She also told the chamber members that "Sometimes it is more practical to work first with businesses in your town who want to either start up or upgrade. One of the themes that I keep hearing from all over the area is that the local businesses are not appreciated. We must all support our local businesses first."

Students exhibiting art

In a continuing effort to bring interesting unusual, and a variety of beautiful visual art to the community, the First National Bank of Floydada is happy to display the talent of Floydada High School students through the month of May. The following article includes the thoughts of Rozanne Bishop, the art instructor, and emphasizes the importance of cultural studies in the life of a well-rounded student.

"I appreciate the opportunity to display student art because we have many talented young people in high school and junior high. Sometimes we overlook a chance to honor students that have excelled in the classroom, and our young people need to be recognized for their accomplishments.

"The bank exhibit is the result of one high school class and I believe the work is as good as might be found in a larger high school or city. I wish we had two or three high school classes so other talented or interested students could take art, but I am thankful for the one class! High school students are enjoyable and, if interested in art, make all the extra time, planning and learning on my part worthwhile," said Bishop.

"Some people still have the idea an art class is just a place to color, or free time on Friday afternoon or they even wonder why art is part of the curriculum since I hear remarks such as 'not everyone grows up to be an artist'. Art has essential elements and objectives just like math or language, and, if taught correctly, should enhance other subject areas. When a young person produces a piece of art he has planned, followed a sequence of steps toward a finished product, has improved perceptual skills and solved problems that may have occurred," continued the teacher.

"People often say to me, I can't draw a straight line, etc. but art education is not about drawing a straight line. Art education is about expression, using imagination, working in groups or sharing, building confidence, becoming aware of one's environment and learning to appreciate works of art. The art class is not intended to make every student an artist but should be included for a well-rounded education. Art offers the opportunity for success, and yes, the opportunity to lead the dedicated student toward a career or scholarship in art.

"It is my goal that class members will look into the reasons they put thought/ideas on paper, learn to accept or appreciate the ideas of others, to accept constructive criticism and to realize that just because we do not like something (a style of art, technique, etc.) does not mean it does not have some value.

"I have received wonderful support from the administration, and many improvements have taken place. It takes several years to build a program to fit the teaching styles of a teacher and to fill the needs and learning styles of individual students. Central office, the school board, Mr. Bramlett and Mr. Christian have provided materials and equipment to give our young people varied experiences in art."

Students with work on exhibit are: Lourdes Chavez, Lionso Cisneros, Rene Coronado, Ricky Coronado, Tyson Edwards, Amy Gilly, Rey Gomez, Adam Gonzales, Jessie Gourdon, Frankie Luna, Brian Nichols, Mike Ochoa, Maria Segura, Sammy Segura, from Art I class; and Linda Dagley, Jammie Davis, Ismael Vega and Luis Ybarra, from Art II class.

A zoning variance was granted for Dale Griffin. He had asked to obtain a permit to build a garage on his property. The proposed structure would stand on the property line between his lot and his neighbor's. The adjacent property owner had approved the plan as did the local planning and zoning commission. City officials granted the variance on a motion by council member Clar Schacht with a second by Tipton. The vote was all in favor.

Whirlwind Sams travel to Abilene for Spring Samboree

By Betty Gilbreath

On Thursday morning, April 22, the Gilbreaths, Adams and Thaxtons met at the Massie Center and departed for Abilene at 8:45. Rufus and Ruth Lusk joined us at the roadside park south of Post for coffee and donuts. We arrived at the Taylor County Exposition Center about 12:45 where John and Christine Lyles joined us.

After getting registered and assigned parking spaces we had lunch and rested a little. We all loaded into two vehicles and went to Cahoot's Catfish and Oyster Bar for a delicious catfish dinner Thursday night.

About 7:00 p.m. was the general meeting of all chapters and there was a parade of chapter flags. There were 670 trailer rigs registered, this included several out of state Good Sam members.

On Friday the president and secretary attended the meeting and the rest of our group went shopping, we had two that were lucky on door prizes. These were John Lyles and Rufus Lusk. We all went to Joe's BBQ for lunch, sure was good.

Saturday there was an arts and crafts show in the display building. At lunch we all went to the mall and ate at Luby's then did some shopping or just looking.

After returning to our trailers we rested awhile then sat out and visited until time for the general meeting and drawing for prizes, of course John Lyles was lucky again. We had good entertainment Saturday night, the "Cloggers" from Amarillo and a quartet from Seymour sang lots of Statler Brothers songs.

Sunday morning we all left for home so we could attend the golden wedding anniversary reception for Bob and Jean Kendrick.

County residents volunteer for Texas Master Gardener program

Recently Floyd County residents Carolyn Marble and Virginia Taylor participated in the Texas Master Gardener program, which is an educational/volunteer program conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Mrs. Marble and Mrs. Taylor of South Plains both received thirty-two hours of intensive training at the district Extension office in Lubbock. Their training included pest control, fruit and nut tree care, xeriscape, turf management, vegetable garden care, and many other horticulture subjects. They will now provide fifty hours of volunteer work in the county.

The objective of the Master Gardener program are to assist in disseminating horticulture information to individual and groups, and develop and enhance community programs related to horticulture. The volunteer aspect of the program will allow these individuals to dedicate their time and talents to enhance, improve and beautify their local community utilizing their science and art of horticulture.

For more information contact the Floyd County Extension office.

Senior Citizen Rockins

By Gene Newton

There were 77 members of the Lockney Senior Citizens who enjoyed sandwiches, chips, dips and ice cream at the Thursday night get together.

At the beginning of the evening Dub Hallmark spoke to those gathered on the school amendments and we want to thank him.

We were real proud to have Cap and Wanda Carthel. Their guest was Wanda's sister, Willie Mae Cox.

Junior and Theta Brotherton had as their guests their daughter, Renee Armstrong and her son, Nolan.

Lozell Keeter's guest was her granddaughter, Heather Graham.

Gene Newton was surprised with a birthday cake from her husband, Arvie and daughter, Tori.

The hosts, Edna and Katheryne, did a good job with all who helped in the kitchen this month.

Next month the hosts will be Jody, Martha and Carmen.

We are real proud to be a member of our organization. If you are eligible to be a member and haven't joined us - you should, this is your community and what you put in it you will receive. It is so nice to see each other every week. Check on the sick of our community and fellowship with each other.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

by Jo Bryant

Hi, on this warm, beautiful spring day. Aren't the flowers, trees, and grass just lovely? The residents have enjoyed going for a stroll outside and enjoying the warm sunshine.

Monday started the week as usual with Rev. Clark Williams sharing the Devotional and Irene Wexler playing the piano for us. Coffee, juice, and cookies were enjoyed at 9:30 at 2:30 the residents had arts and crafts, making spring flowers.

Tuesday they had a program on when the library started and some history about the library. Sandra Crawford is the Librarian here, and she shared that the library is funded by county and state. The library first started in 1950's. We are fortunate to have a good library and have access to it.

Wednesday was Bingo Day. Mary Alice Davis assisted the residents. Otis Johnson had the first Bingo. Fried pies,

We offer sympathy to the Vicki Pitts family, Jackson and Jarboe families, the family of Clara Mize, the Wilson families, and Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Ramsey and family on the loss of her mother in Oklahoma. We also offer sympathies to Betty Baker on the loss of her sister.

We are sorry to report Ruth Snell Hale had a stroke. She is the sister-in-law of Elizabeth Armstrong and a sister-in-law of J.S. and Sammy Hale.

Mrs. Deota Odam was visited over the week-end by her grandson Gerry and wife of Amarillo and other grandchildren.

Mrs. Odam also went to Amarillo on Tuesday and attended the funeral of Mrs. Waits. Mrs. Odam came home Thursday.

Margarete Belos, of Lubbock, spent one day last week with her mother, Mrs. Alma Dunn. A grandson from Houston also visited her.

We will not have the birthday luncheon on Saturday, May 8 because of Mother's Day. We will have the luncheon May 15.

Mrs. Mary Wilson's daughter and husband from Las Cruces, N.M., is visiting with her this week.

Senior Adult Day was observed at First Baptist Mission, on Sunday, May 2nd. All adults, 50 years and older, were honored. We had a combined choir of the younger adults who prepared the music.

The Senior Adults were recognized a presented with gifts from their children and grandchildren during the morning service.

The youth, led by Rev. and Mrs. Lupe Rando and Joe and Thelma Martinez, presented the special music during the evening service. This was followed by homemade ice cream and home made cookies.

This event was planned by Janie Rando.

Earl Aspen and Auten Teague from Keller visited over the week-end with Lula Teague. Lula was also visited by Tammy Teague and friend Sylvia.

candy, and cheese crackers were the treats.

Thursday the residents enjoyed current events, we have a new machine which we can view film strips. They watched the Waco Film.

Friday Joyce Lipham played the piano for us. Jean Williams assisted and visited with our residents. Jo Bryant gave the Devotional on Freedom. On to the bus ride to Plainview, McDonald's treated the residents to ice cream.

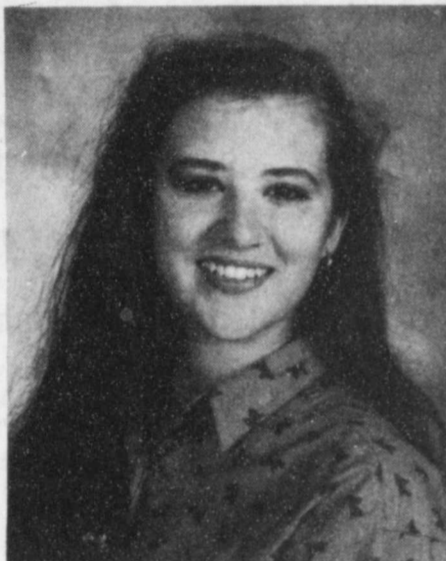

Thanks to the children's choir of the First Baptist Church who came and sung for the residents, assisted by Joyce Lipham. We thank all our churches for their sharing and time.

Our love, sympathy goes out the family of Vicki Pitts, daughter of Flo Ella Jarboe, our resident here.

All enjoyed a delicious cake, tea a soda pops. The cake was made by Billye Webb and decorated with the couple's name written on top of the cake.

After eating, everyone retired to the living room where everyone had brought gifts for a Bingo game. There was much laughter and fun. All enjoyed the celebration of their grandparents.

The grandsons then presented them with a ceiling fan for their bedroom and a big jar full of money to have it installed.

A wonderful wedding celebration was enjoyed by all attending the wedding anniversary and get together of all the Webb clan. They enjoyed greeting each other and especially seeing their grandparents celebrate 70 years of happiness.

The Best That We Can Be In '93

By Christy Garcia

This week's senior spotlight has three individuals getting ready for graduation. JoAnna Mendez, 17-year-old daughter of Bruno and Pibra Mendez, has attended FHS for the past 4 1/2 years, coming here from Mathis Jr. High School.

JoAnna plans to attend college in Austin and pursue a career in becoming a psychiatrist.

Among some of JoAnna's favorites are TV show: "Martin"; Movie: "Eye of the Tiger"; musical group: Megadeth and Nirvana. Her favorite subject in school is math.

When asked what her favorite thing about FHS is, she said her friends and her favorite teachers. She said if she could change one thing it would be the spirit committee and the colors.

When we asked JoAnna who she admired the most, she said her sister, Betty. She enjoys spending time with her dog, Cassy, and hanging out with friends.

The best to you, JoAnna!

The second senior in this week's spotlight is Therese Rechelle Sims. She is the daughter of Carroll and Elizabeth Sims and has one brother, Randall. Therese has attended Floydada for the past 13 years.

This past year Therese has been active in band, flags, and Girl Scouts, in which she is working on getting her gold award.

Therese's favorite subjects in school are English and Government. Her favorite foods are pizza, hamburgers, pastas, and veal. Her favorite hobbies are reading, writing and being with friends. Her favorite vacation trip was when she went to the Bahamas.

The people Therese most admires are Magic Johnson and Drew Berrymore.

When we asked Therese if she could travel to any country or place in the world, she responded that she would like to travel to France, and she would take her friends and family.

Therese's plans for the future are to go to college in Abilene at ACU, to become a lawyer for the blind and deaf, and in other cases as well. She would also like to become a Supreme Court Justice.

The best thing about attending FHS for Therese is the teachers and the friendly people. One thing Therese would change at FHS are the priorities of other people. Good luck to you.

The last senior in our spotlight this week is Rhonda Garcia. Rhonda is the daughter of Jimmy and Yolanda Garcia. She has two brothers and two sisters, and she has attended Floydada schools for 12 years.

Rhonda was involved in basketball her freshman and sophomore years. She served as class president her sophomore years. She served as class president her sophomore year.

If Rhonda could travel anywhere in the world, she would like to go to the Bahamas and take her fiancée, T.O., with her

Some of Rhonda's favorite things include: TV show: "Melrose Place"; movie, "The Hand That Rocks The Cradle"; subject, Math; song, "November Rain"; and hobby, collecting ceramic masks and trolls.

Rhonda hopes to attend Wayland Baptist University and study secretarial courses or elementary education.

Keep on soaring for your goals. Good luck to these three seniors who are striving to be the "Best That They Can Be in '93."

Hartis granddaughter named USAA winner

Keila Harbour, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hartis of Floydada, has been named as a United States Achievement Academy National Award Winner.

The 15-year-old daughter of Keith and Janace Harbour of Columbus, Neb., is a sophomore at Lakeview High School in Columbus. She is also the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harbour of Cotton Center.

She was nominated for the award by her Spanish teacher, Debra Kennedy.

This honor is one that less than 10% of all young people can ever attain. Miss Harbour's picture and biography will be published in a USAA yearbook. This also makes her eligible to apply for a USAA college scholarship.

LITTLEFIELD 10, FLOYDADA 6

FLOYDADA—The Whirlwinds scored five runs in the top of the third inning to take a 5-2 lead, but Littlefield rallied with eight runs in its final two innings to turn back the 'Winds 10-6 on April 27. Floydada collected nine base hits, but committed eight errors, which opened the door for the Wildcat comeback.

Micheal Gilliland had a good day at the plate as he went 3 for 4 with 3 RBIs, and Ken Cummings, was 2 for 4 and scored a run.

According to Coach Jimmy Webster, "We came out and did a fairly good job of hitting the ball. We had 5 runs on 5 hits in the third (inning), but our defense let us down late in the game. We can't make all those errors and expect to stay in the game!"

FLOYDADA 12, MULESHOE 5

The Whirlwinds rebounded from their narrow loss at Littlefield with their first-ever victory at Muleshoe on May 1. In spite of the wind and sleet, Floydada had one of its best outings of the season as the 'Winds bombed the Mules 12-5 for their second district win of the year.

Rod Vela returned to the pitching rotation, picked up his first victory, and struck out 10. Vela also had a good day at the plate, going 1 for 3 with 2 RBIs and scored two runs. Vela struggled in the early innings, and the coaches considered pulling him on a couple of occasions. He settled down and threw an exceptional game, giving up only two earned runs.

The "Brothers Gilliland" had good games also. Brandon was 1 for 4 with 2 RBIs and scored twice; Micheal drove in 3 RBIs while going 1 for 4 and scored a run. Errors were the big difference in the outcome as the Whirlwinds committed only three - while the Mules had eight miscues.

A happy Jimmy Webster stated, "This was a big win for us. The conditions were horrible for baseball. I think we were sort of blocked it out and went after a win. It was a great change to see us compete like that - we were in the game from start to finish. I couldn't be more pleased with our efforts."

Floydada hosting band festival

This Friday and Saturday the halls of Floydada High School will once again be alive with the sound of music. Approximately 2,000 junior high, fifth and sixth grade students from around the West Texas area will be in attendance at the annual Floydada Band Festival.

This year there will be 38 bands playing concerts at the high school auditorium from 22 different schools. These schools are as far away as Jim Ned Junior High and Portales Junior High and as near as Petersburg Junior High. The concert competition will begin at 1:55 Friday afternoon until 7:45 that evening and begin again at 8:25 Saturday morning and continue until 5:35 Saturday afternoon. Students will also be competing with solos and small ensembles.

Judges for this year's festival are Mr. Les Ross from Lockney and Mr. Gene Currie from Childress. These two gentlemen will be judging the concert portion of the contest. In the Sightreading room will be Mr. Charlie Cross from Slaton. The solo and ensemble judges will be Mr. Grant Hambright of Floydada, Mr. Rodney Parker of Hale Center, Mr. Craig Hambright of Smyer, Mr. Jimmie Exline of Slaton, and Mr. Harold Buffe of Abernathy.

Floydada band students will be working as room monitors, stage crew, sightreading workers and office workers. The band boosters will have a concession stand in the high school cafeteria. Hamburgers, cheeseburgers, nachos, frito pie, soft drinks, and ice cream will be sold.

The Floydada Sixth Grade band will be in concert at 4:50 Friday afternoon. They will play as their selections Blue Ribbon March and Chant for Percussion. The seventh grade band will play at 7:20 Friday evening and perform Kittyhawk March and Atlantis. The Eighth Grade Band will play at 2:20 Friday afternoon and will play March of the Irish Guard, Sea Song Trilogy, and Theme from The Andy Griffith

Show. The Floydada bands are under the direction of Mr. John M. Odom and Mr. Ben Hill.

Everyone is invited to listen to the bands play. There is no admission charge to the concerts.

Public invited to special education awareness meeting

On Tuesday, May 18, 1993 at 1:30 p.m. the Caprock Education Coop Advisory Committee will hold their annual meeting. The Caprock Education Coop served the needs of special children in Floydada, Lockney, Petersburg, and Jayton. The Advisory Committee meeting will be held in the Vocation Homemaking Department located in the Caprock Ed Coop building on the Floydada High School campus.

The Caprock Education Coop Advisory Committee helps provide for public participation from those in the communities concerned with educational programming for the handicapped. The purpose of the Advisory Committee is to advise on matters relative to the existing services, specific needs, and service priorities for handicapped students.

The staff of Caprock Education Coop invite all interested parties, especially of handicapped children, to attend this meeting.

Five athletes qualify for state meet

place. Jason Pyle, the fourth Whirlwind to qualify for the Region meet, failed to reach the finals in pole vault and 110 hurdles.

The Lady 'Winds placed fourth in the girls division with 34 points. The Breckenridge Lady Buckaroos won the team title with 65 points, followed by Canyon's 52 and Abilene Wylie's 46. The Canyon girls, second last year with 57 points, had nine individual entries and two relay teams, and had hoped to move up this year.

Floydada was led by Elisa Suarez's first place in the 400 meters with a time of 57.76. Dimmitt's Kim Thomas placed second at 58.33, and Bowie's Terra Rife was awarded third with a 59.02 clocking. Rife won the 200 meters with a time of 26.04.

Tian Younger, a two-time state qualifier for the Lady 'Winds in 300 hurdles, finished a disappointing fourth in the event and failed to qualify for the Austin showdown.

However, Younger gained a state berth in the 800 meters with a time of 2:21 to finish second behind the winning time of 2:18.7, posted by Aledo's Laura Bailey. Rebecca Green of Muleshoe finished third at 2:23.2. Although it failed to qualify for advancement on to State, Floydada's mile relay team won third place with a time of 4:06.98 in the 1600 meters to complete the Lady 'Winds' total scoring toward the team championship.

BILL'S NOTES

A special "tip of the hat" to Floydada's state qualifiers. It was gutsy performances by both squads who placed higher in their divisions than a number of teams with a lot more entries.

The best of the best will be in Austin in two weeks for the "big dance" and Floydada has a golden opportunity to bring back a state title or two in both boys and girls divisions.

Good luck, folks... we are all proud of you!

WAITING?

ARE YOU WAITING FOR HAIL SEASON TO END BEFORE HAVING YOUR ROOF INSTALLED?

There are a few disadvantages to this that might apply to you.

1. If your interior sustains additional damage, are you covered?
2. If moisture gets into your built-up (flat) roof it may cost much more to repair than you were paid.
3. It is early in the roofing season, meaning that most roofers have their prices as low as they are going to get. Your roof may cost more, later in the season.

Most insurance companies and adjusters are very good at deciding which roofs can wait and which ones cannot. If your agent or adjuster recommended that you wait, you should feel safe in waiting until the hail season is over.

IF YOU WANT TO WAIT UNTIL HAIL SEASON IS OVER, BUT DO NOT WANT TO PAY HIGHER PRICES FOR YOUR ROOF, WE CAN HELP. WE CAN GUARANTEE IN WRITING THAT WE WILL INSTALL YOUR ROOF AFTER THE SEASON, AT TODAY'S PRICES. NO PRICE INCREASES.

Hester West Moore recalls WWII prison years in new book

Hester West Moore, sister of John Key West of Floydada, can still describe in detail her escape from the Philippines 48 years ago, after being held by the Japanese for more than three years.

Moore is now telling her story in her autobiography, "Kept In His Care." She will be signing copies of her book during an autograph book sale at Floydada's First United Methodist Church, May 16, at 3:00 p.m.

Moore was released from Japanese internment, Feb. 23, 1945 after American paratroopers dropped into the compound where she and more than 1,200 other prisoners were held.

Mrs. Moore was a Methodist medical missionary in China from 1932 until 1937, arriving in the U.S. on home leave the day the Japanese invaded China.

Since the U.S. and Japan were not at war, she was allowed to return to Shanghai. But, when relations between the U.S. and Japan deteriorated 2 1/2 years later, she left China and went to the Philippines.

Missionaries were called together and given the choice to go home, go to some other place in China, go to another country or stay where they were.

Moore's decision was to continue her missionary work as a nurse in the Philippines. She was working in the Mary Johnston Hospital in Manila when she learned of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941.

She has vivid memories of seeing bombs fall on Manila Bay and Corregidor, easily visible from the hospital. Then bombs fell on Clark Field, a major U.S. military installation.

After the fall of Clark Field the Japanese surrounded the islands and began rounding up prisoners. Hospital personnel were rounded up and taken to nearby University of Santa Thomas. After seven days Moore and co-workers were returned to the hospital where they were kept under house arrest for three years.

After the tide of war began to turn against the Japanese, the missionaries were hurriedly moved by train to another location on the island of Luzon. They were kept in prisoner built shacks at the University of Philippines agricultural experiment station.

The compound had only one permanent building—the shanties were constructed of poor grade lumber, bamboo and woven grass.

Not only were physical conditions poor but there was very little food for the European and American prisoners.

Relief came suddenly, on Feb. 23, 1945, when American paratroopers dropped out of the sky, battled the Japanese guards and transported 1,264 persons across Laguna de Bay and a strip of land to a former provincial prison where the Red Cross waited for them.

After her return to the U.S., Mrs. Moore earned a master's degree from George Peabody University. She studied nursing at Baylor University School of Nursing before she entered the Methodist mission field.

Although she and her husband, William Ian Moore, had no children, they cared for 28 foster children through the Department of Human Services.

Her book is the result of some effort. She dictated part of it and wrote some in longhand. The text has been placed on a computer.

Mrs. Moore says that the book isn't about just her World War II survival but about her entire life.

Happy Mother's Day
May 9

Local fire poster winners named

Several Floydada students have been named winners in the local Fire Poster contest. Students were asked to design a poster depicting a Fire Prevention theme.

Winning first place in the High School division was Chad Guthrie.

In the Junior High Division, the first place winner was Victoria Cummings; Daniel Herrera was second place; and Ruben Barrientoz was third place.

Winning in the Intermediate Division were: Amanda Williams, 1st; Mandy Emert, 2nd, and Jody Bueno, 3rd.

Winners will receive ribbons and cash prizes. First place winners received $15.00, second place winners received $10.00, and $5.00 was awarded to third place winners.

The posters of the local winners will be submitted to judges at the Panhandle Fireman's Convention in May. The winning posters there will then be taken to Waco for the Fireman's State Convention in June.

Trophies will be awarded to the winners of the Regional and State competition.

Sams discuss safe travel ideas

by Marjorie Elyea

The meeting was called to order by president J.W. Gilbreath and the invocation was given by Jerry Livingston.

Birthdays celebrated were Mae McElyea, Ruth Adams, Milton Harrison, Harold and Carol Reese, and Claude Weathershee.

Wagon Master Kenneth Willis called on Harold Norrell to report on the trip to Roaring Springs. The program chairman Keith Patzer introduced the guest speaker James Hale and he gave an interesting and informative program on safe travel and self protection in traveling.

Refreshments were served by Betty and Kenneth and Barbara Willis.

Betty Gilbreath gave a report on the Sanboree at Abilene. There were 670 rigs represented and 155 of those were first timers.

We had 20 rigs and 1 guest at our meeting and adjourned with singing "Happy Trails."

Cancer Society ending crusade

The local Floyd County unit of the American Cancer Society is in the final phase of this year's crusade for funds. If you have not been contacted, or if you are still wondering whether to contribute, here are a few facts concerning the importance of your contribution and its use.

WHERE DO THE DOLLARS GO?

* To date, the Society has spent over $1.4 billion on research.

Briscoe 4-H'ers plan Mother's Day lunch

Briscoe County Sr. 4-H'ers will be serving lunch on Mother's Day to raise money to pay for attending the State 4-H Roundup.

The fajita lunch, catered by Roye's of Quitaque, will be served at the Silverton school cafeteria on Sunday, May 9, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

For ticket information, contact the Briscoe County Extension Office.

* In fiscal year 1992, the Society spent over $97 million on research—approximately 27% of its total budget.

* The National office of the Society spends over 60% of its budget on research.

* The Society has funded 25 scientists who went on to win Nobel Prizes.

* Research funded by the Society has resulted in new prevention knowledge, accurate screening techniques, and refined treatment modalities for different types of cancer.

* The basic science research funded by the Society has led the way in the "genetic revolution," starting with the elucidation of the structure of DNA in the 1950s.

Your dollars do make a difference! Don't overlook this opportunity to join the fight against cancer!

DON'T TOUCH--Officers from various fields of law enforcement in the Lockney area, visited Lockney Elementary last week to teach a program of the dangers of guns. Children were taught with the use of an "Eddie The Eagle" video and workbooks about the danger of picking up guns. Officers told the children to "Stop--Don't Touch--Leave The Area--Call An Adult." Officers seen here reviewing a workbook are: (l-r) Constable Ray Macha and Lockney Police Sgt. Jerry Edwards. Courtesy Photo

BIDDING FOR PASTRIES--Approximately $6,500 was raised during Saturday night's cake auction in Lockney. The money which was raised will be divided between the Lockney Baseball Association and Boy Scouts. The Boy Scouts in turn will divide their share with the Cub Scouts. Auctioned off by Sam Fortenberry Auctioneer and his lively crew were assorted items of cakes, pies, peanut brittle, cookies, cinnamon rolls and other pastries. All the sweets were homemade by father and son or father and daughter teams. Besides Lockney, donations also came in from Floydada and Plainview. Organizers credit their continued success of this auction with the "wonderful support of the community." Courtesy Photo

Kirkland and Gerlich join Lockney coaching staff

 named All-State in football in 1986. He was a four-time All-District in basketball and a three-time football All-District. Bryan was a four-year letterman at Texas Tech, and in 1991 received the Highest GPA Academic Award.

Gerlich was a member of Tech's 1989 All-American Bowl champions and was named Defensive Player of the Week for the 1991 Tech vs. Houston game. His coaching duties at Andrews, where he also taught World History, included varsity defensive line coach, junior varsity defensive coach, varsity baseball assistant coach, and junior varsity baseball coach.

According to Lockney athletic director, John Lowe, "Bryan's credentials are outstanding and we're just as happy to have Gerlich as Krista." The teaching fields for Kirkland and Gerlich are mathematics and history, respectively. Kirkland's coming to Lockney has an unusual twist — her collegiate coach at Texas Tech, Marsha Sharp, began her coaching career in 1975 at Lockney. According to Kirkland, "I think it's just a really neat coincidence."

Use of Milo-pro 4L is approved

By Kerry Siders, CEA-Ag
The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) exercised its Section 18 specific exemption on April 27, 1993, to authorize the use of Milo-Pro 4L Herbicide in grain sorghum to control weeds on the High Plains and other portions of Texas.

However, the use of Milo-Pro (propazine) is subject to some conditions and restrictions. The product may be applied with either ground or aerial equipment at a maximum rate of 1.2 pounds active ingredient (2.4 pints of product) per acre per application. A minimum of 5 gallons of water per acre is required for aerial application, and 10 gallons for ground application. For banded treatments use a proportional volume. Do not make more than one application of product per crop growing season.

Milo-Pro 4L herbicide shall be applied only by certified applicators or licensed applicators or by persons under the direct supervision of a licensed applicator.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, contact Kerry Siders at the Floyd County Agricultural Extension Service at 983-2806.

Now is proper time to control pine tip moth

By Kerry Siders
Floyd County Extension Agent-Ag.
The pine tip moth can be a serious pest of young pine trees planted by homeowners on the South Plains. And right now is one of the few times homeowners can effectively fight back, says Kerry Siders, Floyd County Extension agent for agriculture.

The larvae of this moth bore into the growing tips of pine trees, causing them to turn brown. Severely infested trees develop a bush appearance over time.

The tip moth passes the winter as a pupa within the injured terminals and twigs of the tree. Moths emerge in March and April, and begin the first of several generations which will occur during the summer months. This year, indications are that May 1 plus or minus a couple of days will be peak period for treatment.

Properly timed application of an insecticide is the best way to reduce pine tip moth populations and damage, the Extension agent said. "Since this pest spends most of its life cycle protected inside the pine tip, foliar sprays are most effective when the young larvae are just hatching from the egg," he said.

Foliar-applied insecticides recommended for homeowners include Orthene, Dursban, and dimethoate. Adding a small amount of liquid soap to the spray solution will improve control because it helps the insecticide adhere to the treated trees, the Extension Service agent said.

"Always read and follow label instructions when applying insecticides," he stressed. For more information contact the County Extension office.

Planting complete on cold tolerant breeding program

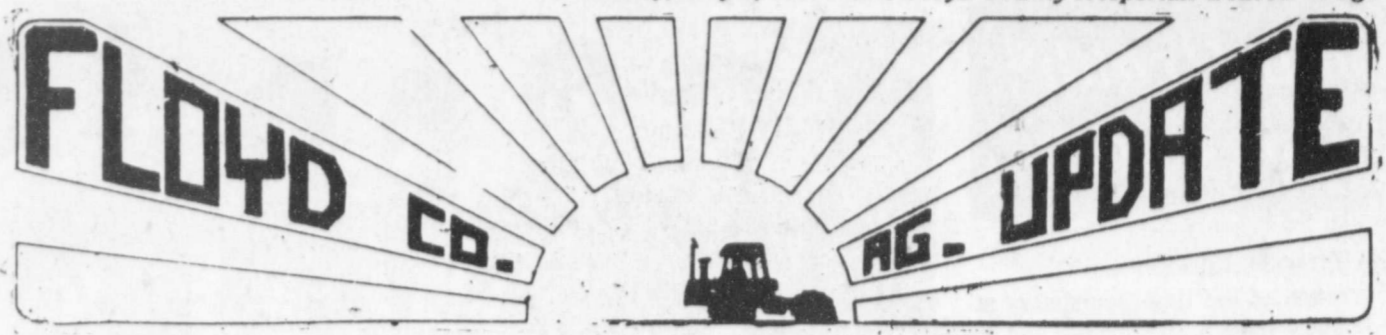

According to Dr. John Gannaway, cotton breeder at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES) north of Lubbock, planting has been completed for the 1993 Plains Cotton Improvement Program (PCIP) cold tolerance nursery.

In 1992 the PCIP nursery was initially planted with over 200 experimental lines. Only seventeen lines survived until harvest. In order to take advantage of their ability to withstand cold temperatures these lines have been put on an accelerated release schedule to get them in the hands of commercial breeders as soon as possible. The 1993 nursery was planted April 30.

Douglass named conservation winner

Mr. G.E. Douglass was named the runner-up wildlife conservationist for region 1. Region 1 consists of 51 Panhandle and South Plains counties. Douglass, who lives in Plainview owns a farm in Floyd County located northwest of Floydada. The Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District submitted the entry for judging.

G.E. Douglass readily remembers the "Dust Bowl" days and the erosion that still can occur on cropland today.

"Dust Bowl" wind erosion rarely occurs today, but on November 15, 1988 a "dirt" storm occurred across the South Plains area.

The "dirt" storm was traveling 50-60 mph and in a few seconds, visibility was nearly zero.

The sun was "blotted out" for awhile on that day to remind all of us that erosion can still occur.

Douglass always wanted to buy land and conserve the resources on it, he operated a retail and wholesale gasoline and diesel supply company for many years in Plainview, Texas, and he still lives there after his retirement. Retirement only means from the gasoline business because he stays busy on his Floyd County farm located northwest of Floydada.

He bought a 640 acre Floyd County farm in 1987. The farm had been put into the Conservation Reserve Program, but no work had been completed on the farm. Douglass changed the species of grasses on the 420 acres of CRP land that would benefit both pheasants and quail. He seeded 50% blue grama, 20% sideoats grama, 15% plains bristle grass, and 15% Green Sprangle top.

Wildlife needs water, Douglass drilled one new well and repaired a second one for livestock water and wildlife water. Troughs are connected by drain lines and the last drain line flows into a earthen pond. The pond is fenced off when livestock is grazing the rangeland. Douglass planted several species of trees that benefitted wildlife, a fence has been installed to protect trees from livestock.

Some of the trees were planted by the earthen ponds to provide additional food and cover.

Douglass installed net wire around the bases of the trees to protect them from rabbits and other large rodents.

He also planted wildlife habitat windbreak tree seedlings from the local conservation district to improve his wildlife program.

Old gas lines were converted to a drip irrigation system for all his trees plantings, a fence was installed to protect the young trees.

Eight feeders have been installed to provide additional food for pheasants and quail. Brush has been stacked close to the feeders to provide cover and protection.

The feeders hold several pounds of grain and are adjustable to flow slow or fast. Douglass bought over 5000 pounds of corn last year for the feeders.

All the feeders were made by Douglass, he has done all the work himself to improve the farm. He has spent hours upon hours building feeders, water supplies, seeding grass, and repairing fences.

Douglass built his own drip system to water some of the trees. A flow pipe from water trough furnishes the water.

The water is turned off or on by valves which are protected from freezing in the winter.

One of the water troughs flows into earthen pits in a playa lake, the pits had been in use for many years, he cleaned out and maintained the original size and depth for waterfowl and livestock water. During periods of grazing, the pits are fenced off whereby livestock cannot drink directly from the pits.

The pits provide outstanding waterfowl habitat for Mr. Douglass' conservation program.

Douglass became a member of the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District as soon as he bought the farm. He is one that believes in conserving our natural resource bases while at the same time enjoying hunting and other outdoor activities. The show case farm for wildlife is divided by a major U.S. highway, many people can see the results of his conservation wildlife work.

Attending the banquet and awards program with Mr. and Mrs. Douglass were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ferguson, Jon J. La Baume and Kerry Siders.

*Your Health*
*Our Care***

By Trina Wilson RN

So much of the time, legislators attempt to compare rural hospitals and the problems of rural healthcare with city hospitals. The two simply cannot be compared. For instance, since 1980, Texas has seen the closure of 70 rural facilities. In 1991, the numbers began to stabilize, and 1992 saw the closure of just one rural hospital. The new challenge for rural hospital boards is to retain adequate funding to support hospitals which are still providing services.

Here are a few more facts about Texas rural hospitals which might be of interest to our readers: Of Texas' 254 counties, 205 are considered rural. Rural Texas covers 82% of the state and is home to 3.1 million Texans. Only 9.9% of Texas physicians practice in rural counties. As of January, 1993, 56 Texas counties had no hospital. In 1990, 25 rural counties had no primary care physician and 80 had no in-hospital obstetrical care. An additional 22 counties had only one physician providing care for their entire county. In rural Texas, there is one physician for every 684 individuals. In rural Texas, 6.6% of 1990 births were to mothers under the age of 18. This compares with 5.2% of urban births to mothers under age 18. In general, rural mothers are less likely to receive early prenatal care than urban mothers.

A review of the above statistics makes one realize what a unique and challenging situation rural health care is today. In the past, rural hospitals have carried an inordinate burden where "health care reform" was concerned.

If you are concerned, as we all should be, about YOUR health care in this rural community, express your views. Write to our elected officials. Tell them what YOU expect from YOUR tax dollar. We cannot allow our elected officials to forget as they have in the past, the health care needs of rural areas.

Goen visited by English relatives

Jack Kenward, the 78 year old brother of Barbara Goen of Floydada, arrived in Floydada April 17th after over nine hours of flight from his home in Wales.

It was the first plane trip for this Englishman and according to his sister Barbara, "a long time coming."

"I've been trying to get him to come visit for many years," said Barbara. "When he finally said he was coming and he got his passport, I still didn't believe him. I wasn't going to be sure he was coming until he got off the plane."

Jack was accompanied on the trip by his daughter Josie Powell, also of Wales. Their flight left from Gatwick, London and took nine hours before landing in Dallas. Changing planes in Dallas the couple then flew into Lubbock International.

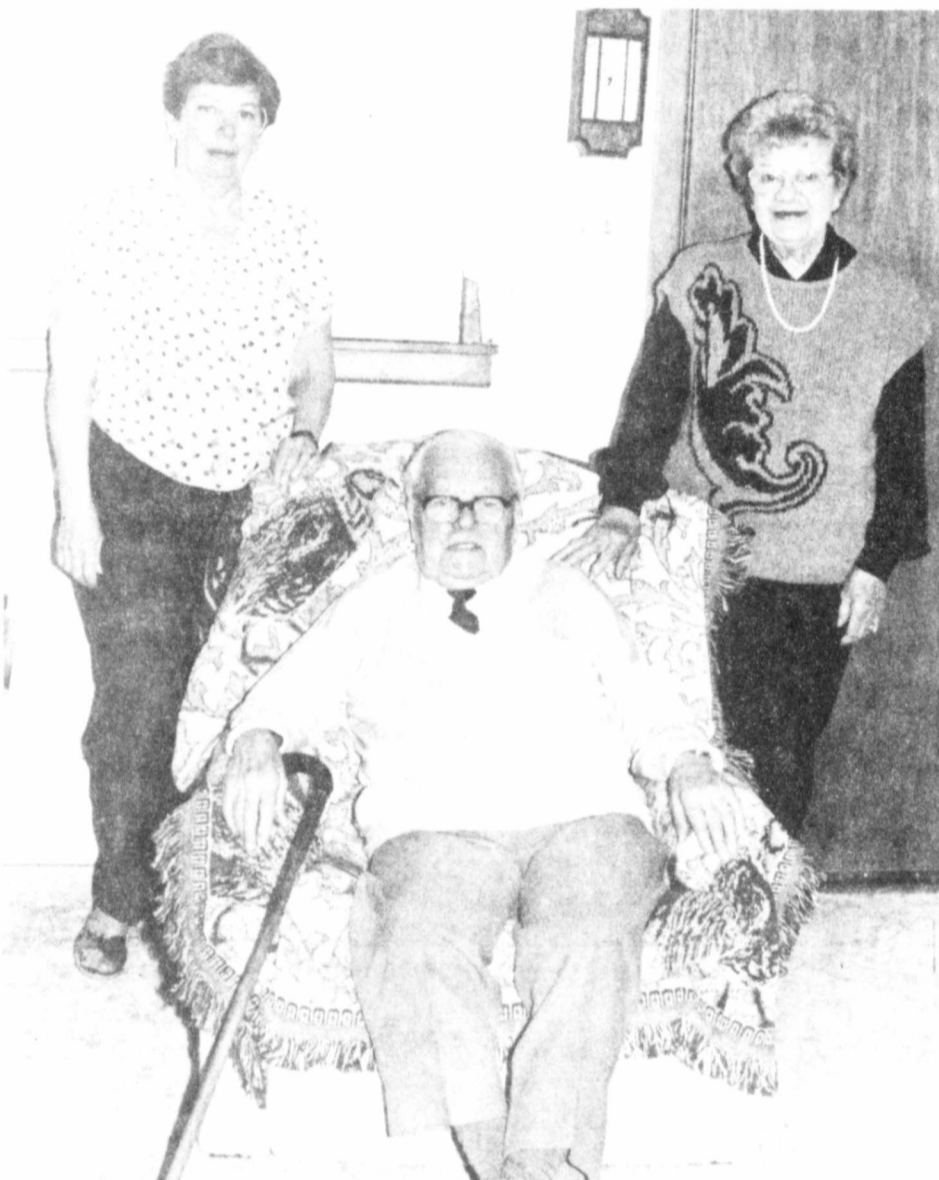

When asked if he was ever worried about his first plane trip, Jack answered in his entertaining English accent, "Not at all. It was very good and the food was wonderful. They did us proud."

It has been five years since Barbara has been able to return to her home in Great Britain. "If it weren't for the jet lag and customs I would go more often," said Barbara. According to Barbara and Josie the jet lag going to Wales is much worse than coming to Texas.

Jack, who lives with Josie and her husband, describes Floyd County as "vast and flat." The countryside they come from is lush green on rolling hills and the coast is only 1 1/2 miles from the village in which they live.

Jack and Josie both made it very clear that they were English not Welsh. "The Welsh have a separate language called Celtic. They are very protective of their language and their brogue."

"Wales is divided into counties and we live on the coast in a village between Cardigan and New Quay," said Josie. "The people are lovely there—very much like here. Quite a few English people (like us) live there. They have sold everything they had in England and retired in the village. That is what we did."

Jack retired to Wales after 18 year in the Insurance business and moved in with the Powells. "My husband has a taxi service in the village," said Josie. "We have our own cars and a mini bus. We also have the school contracts. He picks up kids around the county and delivers them to the village schools. We don't have any secondary schools, so my husband picks all the older children and takes them to another bus which takes them 12 miles to the secondary schools.

"You also have to travel 12 miles for hardware and groceries," said Jack. Although bothered by a bad hip, Jack and Josie hope to see the sights during the three weeks they will be in Floydada. If they don't make all the rounds maybe they will come back. It only took 78 years to get Jack here the first time—maybe it won't take so long the next time.

Il Penseroso Study Club holds annual fund raising auction

By Cris Taylor

Il Penseroso Jr. Study Club met in the home of Dena Reece on Thursday, April 22. The annual club auction was the night's program. This, along with many other projects, is one of our biggest money-makers for the community. Co-hostesses for the evening were Diane Lowe, Lori Satterwhite, Karla Stapp and Dana Wright.

Club members, along with auctioneers from Sam Fortenberry Auctioneers, were treated to BBQ sandwiches, two kinds of chips and a relish tray overflowing with mouth watering goodies. Tea was served and strawberry shortcake topped off the meal.

The auction then followed with a wide array of items ranging from homemade baked goods to wind chimes. Members and guests spent the evening being entertained once again by the delightful antics of our home-grown auctioneers. Everyone had an enjoyable evening.

Members attending were Amy Brice, Cindy Cotham, Julie Ellison, Rise Ford, Terri Fortenberry, Shawnda Foster, Pam Fulton, Tracy Long, Diane Lowe, Dena and Chloe Reece, Lori Satterwhite, Pat Schwab, Sammie Setliff, Karla Stapp, Michealle and Keenan Stennett, Heather Stowe, Victory Stewart, Cris Taylor, Kim Teeter, Melody Wiley, Tami Wofford, Dana Wright and Kathy Young.

Guests were Darlee Foster, Sydney Jackson, Laura Wilson, Kim Lambert, Pat Frizzell, Cheryl Teeter, Robin Sherman, Jean Ann Williams, Charlotte Brock, Charlotte Dowell, Patty Hull, Katherine Conner; and auctioneers, Eddie Fortenberry, Ronnie Thornton, Billy Joe Turner and Jimmy Kemp.

Next club meeting will be on May 13 in the home of Shawnda Foster with Melody Wiley and Cris Taylor as co-hostesses.

Lighthouse hosts 700 during annual meeting

The 54th annual membership meeting of Lighthouse Electric Cooperative was held Thursday, April 29, at the Cooperative headquarters in Floydada.

Approximately 700 members and guests were in attendance for the meal, entertainment, and business meeting which followed. This was the largest attendance at the annual meeting in several years, representing an increase of around 180 from the 1992 meeting. Close to 100 of those present had earlier attended the Member Health Fair, which has become one of the highlights of the meeting.

Stations at this year's Health Fair ranged from informational booths manned by volunteers from the American Cancer Society, American Heart Association, and Lone Tree Recovery Center, to diabetes screening, cholesterol testing, glaucoma testing, courtesy of Dr. Stewart Webb of Plainview, and many more tests administered by health care professional volunteers from the Floyd County chapter of the American Red Cross, Texas Department of Health, and W.J. Mangold Memorial Hospital of Lockney.

Prior to the business meeting, the crowd was entertained by the 3M Company of Matador, a talented group of musicians and vocalists from Motley County, whose performance was enthusiastically received by the audience.

Following the meal and musical entertainment, the youngsters present adjourned to the community room to be entertained by "Magic by Russell", a magic show performance by Russell

Scoggin of Lubbock.

Cooperative President Louis Lloyd of Floydada called the business portion of the meeting to order and welcomed members and guests. He expressed the Cooperative's thanks to the volunteers who manned the Health Fair booths for contributing their valuable services to the success of the fair. He then called on Reverend Clark Williams of the Floydada First United Methodist Church for the invocation.

Lloyd then introduced Kathy Becker of Floydada, member of the Annual Meeting Planning Committee, who served as emcee and conducted the first of three prize drawings. Board Secretary Gaylor Groce of Petersburg was in charge of roll call, the reading of the minutes of the 1992 meeting, and the reading of the Official Notice of Meeting.

Cooperative attorney Harry Jung presented the Nominating Committee Report, introduced the director nominees, and conducted the election of directors. Incumbents J.W. Jackson of District 1, Don Bean of District 3, and Ronald Mullin of District 4 were re-elected for three year terms.

Board member J.W. Jackson of Crosbyton introduced special guests in attendance. Emcee Kathy Becker then introduced Bob Beam of the Cooperative's accounting firm of Bolinger, Segars, Gilbert and Moss, who presented the report of their audit of the Cooperative's 1992 business.

Becker next introduced Golden

Spread Electric Cooperative General Manager Bob Bryant, who gave a report on the activities of Golden Spread in the area of wholesale power supply, including the resolution in late 1991 of the rate increase case filed by Southwestern Public Service Company in 1984.

Bryant also reported that the rate case filed by SPS in 1985 is again back for review by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission after their initial ruling and the subsequent appeal of that ruling to the Federal Appeals Court by SPS. Bryant stated that the case is very important to Golden Spread because it is very important for wholesale rates to Lighthouse be as low as possible so that Lighthouse can in turn keep its rates to its members as low as possible.

Bryant also touched briefly on the rapid changes which are happening in the electric utility industry. He characterized these changes as generally good, and stated they are creating competition and opening up new opportunities for Golden Spread and for others who are low cost suppliers of wholesale power such as SPS.

Bryant also stated, "We're working with these things to help keep wholesale costs low to you, the Cooperative member. We're also working on some new innovative things for managing irrigation peak loads. These are the kinds of things we're doing as wholesale power supplier for Lighthouse Electric Cooperative and the other ten member systems who own Golden Spread."

Next on the program was Lighthouse General Manager Bill Harbin, who expressed his appreciation for the attendance of those present, "particularly the members who show your interest in the business of your Cooperative by being here." He then introduced the Lighthouse directors and their wives, had all employees stand for recognition, and presented an engraved watch to Cooperative serviceman Rodney Hill for "25 years of loyal and dedicated service to Hall County and Lighthouse Electric Cooperatives."

In his business report to the membership, Harbin stated that the Cooperative made a substantial margin in 1992, "although we didn't have a good year.

As you know, because of the wet year we had and the early season hail last year, irrigation sales were very low compared to a normal year, if there is such a thing as a normal year in West Texas. Despite this, our rate structure is such that it will support adequate revenues even in year's such as we had in 1992."

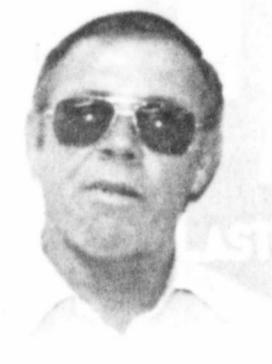

"On the other hand, although we have fairly good early season soil moisture in the area this year, our irrigation sales are substantially higher than they were for the same period last year. We look forward to a good year for Lighthouse and hopefully a profitable year for each of our members."

Following the second prize drawing, Cooperative Member Service Advisor Larry Ogden recognized this year's Member Services Committee who helped plan and conduct the meeting. Members of the committee were Barry and Linda McGaughy of McAdoo, Kevin and Terri Nelson of Floydada, Joey and LaTona Davis of South Plains, Steve and Brenda Johnson of Providence, Chad and Kerry Byrd of Petersburg, and Stephen and Kathy Becker of Floydada.

The youngest and oldest members present were also recognized. There was a tie for the youngest member present between Sandra Schwertner of Floydada and Brenda Johnson of Providence, and the oldest member present was Mrs. J.R. Kelley, 89, of the Cedar Hill community.

The last item on the agenda was the third prize drawing and the drawing for the grand prize, $500 cash, which was won by Kristi Hopper of Dougherty.
