

Happy Thanksgiving

The Pilgrims had a custom of putting five kernels of corn on each empty plate before a dinner was served. In many old Plymouth families, the custom is still followed today. It is done Thanksgiving Day, or on December 21 (the anniversary date of the Plymouth landing).

The five kernels were chosen because prior to the first harvest, things were so bad that the daily ration was five kernels of corn per person per day. Before you eat your Thanksgiving meal, think about this custom of the Pilgrims and reflect upon your blessings.

There may be some confusion in the body politic about exactly who the "rascals" are, but evidently the recent public mood of "throw the rascals out" is still alive and well.

New York now has a new mayor, New Jersey has a new Governor, as do the people of Virginia. All, for one reason or another, call themselves Republicans. In the case of New York we might quarrel with that designation, but nevertheless that's what the new mayor calls himself, and that's the ticket he ran on.

Both the President and Hillary campaigned heavily in New York and New Jersey, but they were asked not to come to Virginia. It didn't seem to matter. They all went down.

Mr. Clinton's spin doctors were quick to point out that the vote was not a referendum on the President's policies, and in the case of New York we tend to believe him. That city is so Balkanized, so fouled with ethnic, racial, and religious enclaves, so devoid of common civility that it is difficult to pinpoint a reason for it going one way or the other in politics.

Still, the local politicians thought it important that the President and Hillary come in and shore up the flanks. White liberals, mostly Jewish, were showing signs of flaking off on account of the crime issue. The sizeable, and influential, New York homosexual community was being courted heavily by Mayor Dinkins' opponent. Drastic measures were called for.

Down in Washington, the day before the election, there was a highly publicized presentation of 17 "gay and lesbian" presidential appointees to high public office, including Assistant Commerce Secretary Bruce Lehman and Assistant Housing Secretary Roberta Achtenberg. The group praised the President highly, and in return the President sent a warm congratulatory message, noting that "you are making a real difference in our struggle to create a world in which everyone is free to leave his or her own legacy to society."

The Associated Press moved the story nationwide, complete with pictures. The AP noted that Mr. Lehman praised Mr. Clinton, saying the President would "go down in history" for his efforts on behalf of gays and lesbians. Probably so.

In politics, at least in politics at that level, things don't "just happen." Clearly the "presentation", and its timing, was planned. And it must have been planned with the thought it would be helpful in those elections scheduled for the next day.

Obviously, it didn't work. It may have done some good in some quarters, but we suspect the maneuver lost more votes than it gained.

We suspect, also, that the message will be lost on both Mr. Clinton and the homosexual community.

Future physician to sign contract

Caprock Hospital to reopen January 9

Ronny Ammons, administrator for Floydada's Caprock Hospital, has announced that the board of directors for the Hospital have set January 9, 1994 as a definite date for a Grand Re-Opening Ceremony for Caprock Hospital. In a special called board meeting, November 20, the board also agreed to hire a doctor of internal medicine who will be available for full time work to the community in March of 1995.

"We are planning a ribbon cutting ceremony and open house at 2:00 p.m. on January 9," said Ammons. "The guest speakers are still being lined up and the final schedule of events will be announced at a later date."

"The hospital will open with two doctors, Dr. Swate and Dr. Albert and we are very excited about Dr. Twiladawn Lovett who will be joining us later."

"Dr. Lovett is currently in her 2nd year of residency at Texas Tech University Health Science Center in Amarillo.

She specializes in Internal Medicine and will be board eligible when she graduates in March 1995.

"She will start coming on weekends in 1994 to work in the emergency room," said Ammons. "She wants to come as soon as possible and start meeting people and helping out. She also wants to possibly start helping out in the clinic on her days off. She will be able to go to work full time in March of 1995."

"We are very excited about Dr. Lovett coming here," said Dr. Swate. "We are going to have an Internist in our community who could have gone anywhere. Any metropolitan hospital would have been proud to have her, but she chose Floydada because she wanted a rural practice and rural setting.

"Both she and her husband, Todd want to be a part of the community. She liked Floydada because of the people, the schools, and the quality of life."

According to Swate and Ammons, Dr. Lovett and her husband attended Floydada for the first time on Punkin Days. "Besides the cold weather," said Swate, "she was very impressed with the town and the people."

"She will really be an asset to this community," said Ammons.

Ammons is also eager to show off the hospital during the open house January 9. "We have made a lot of changes. People who have seen it in the past will see a different facility."

Mangold Memorial slates "Holiday Health Fair"

LOCKNEY — W.J. Mangold Memorial Hospital announces a "Holiday Health Fair" to be held on Saturday, December 4th from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. in the Lockney Elementary Cafeterium.

Admission to the Health Fair will be a donation of canned goods or a new toy. The canned goods and toys will be donated to the Salvation Army Christmas Cheer Program.

This event is designed to be informative and fun for the entire family. There will be a registration for prizes donated by area merchants, give away items from sponsors, and a children's play and learn center.

Santa and Mrs. Claus will be on hand to have their picture taken with your child for a small charge. The money raised from the pictures will be donated to charity.

The exhibitors for the fair include: Lonctree Recovery Center, Floyd, Hale, Lamb County Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse, Catholic Family Services with HIV/Aids Education, Texas Rehabilitation Commission, Hospice of the Plains, Health Star Medical Equipment, Total Home Health Care, and TRS Rehab Center.

Also manning booths will be: Floydada EMS, CCH Home Health, Lockney Lions Club, Lockney Police Department, Lockney High School

Anatomy Class, Lockney High School PTA, Lockney Fire Department, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts. The physicians' wives also plan on having a booth related to children's fitness.

Employees of W.J. Mangold Memorial Hospital will have booths dealing with infection control, childbirthing classes, dietary services, well baby awareness, CPR, and Allied Pharmacy Management will also have a booth. Harrington Cancer Center will have their mobile mammography unit at the fair. If you would like to schedule a mammogram, it would be best to call the hospital and set up an appointment time before fair day by calling 652-3373.

You can have your blood pressure checked, blood sugar checked, and find out your height and weight at no charge. Also, we will again have the popular Doll Clinic with children bringing their sick doll or stuffed toy to see the nurse. Il Penseroso Study Club will have a childrens activity center for ages 2 to 5 while the family is at the fair; and for older children, there will be a children's craft center. Food booths will be manned by Lockney 4-H and Lockney Band Boosters.

"Since we are becoming a more health conscious society, W.J. Mangold Memorial Hospital wants to help in this endeavor by presenting health fair to you that the whole family will enjoy and learn from," stated Marsha Allen.

Lockney group sings in 'Harmony'

By Alice Gilroy

LOCKNEY—The Lockney community has been boasting about the musical talents of a group of their friends and neighbors for quite some time and now the reputation of the five "Harmony" singers is beginning to spread around Texas. However, spreading their talents can prove to be very difficult for a group of people who have very strong convictions to their church, family and professions.

The singing talents of "Harmony" consist of Phil Cotham, Lisa Mosley, Zeldia Ellison and Amy and Travis Thornton. Although not in the front lines getting the applause, the Harmony crew is quick to point out that their group is a family affair.

"We take the family with us when we go anywhere," said Lisa Mosley. "My husband, Ricky, hauls all the sound equipment and gets us all set up. Cindy Cotham (Phil's wife) sells tapes, and Terry Ellison (Zelda's husband) is our transportation organizer and official greeter—Terry knows everybody!"

"Actually," said Zeldia, "everyone has a part in everything. No one has just one job."

Excluding Travis Thornton, who manages Higginbotham Bartlett in Plainview, all the Harmony members are Lockney teachers or administrators.

It was school ties that eventually got them all singing together. "Dub Hall-mark (who was school superintendent at the time) is the one that really got us singing together," said Amy Thornton. "He had heard us singing at different places and asked us to get together and show off the 'faculty talent' at a Faculty Christmas Party in 1989. Phil was not singing with us at the time because nobody knew he could sing!"

"A short time later after Hallmark and others heard Phil do a solo at church we asked him to come sing with us. The 1990 Faculty Christmas Party was the first time that Phil joined us and we've all been together ever since."

All of the Harmony vocalists, except for Cotham, have a history of singing either professionally or for churches, banquets, weddings etc. Cotham just recently took the step forward into solos and surprised even those who had known him all of his life.

"My mom heard me sing for the first time at the Lockney Chamber Banquet in 1991," said Cotham.

"I lived with him for five years before I knew he could sing," said Cotham's wife, Cindy.

"I had sung in junior high choir and then in the church choir when I moved to Lockney, but I had never performed singularly for anyone. I was in the choir at church practicing for a Christmas special when the choir director pointed at me to sing the solo part. I did it once and then I was asked to do more and more."

Cotham was born and raised in Brownfield, graduating from

County towns plan festivities to keep Christmas shoppers at home

Floydada and Lockney are gearing up for Christmas celebrations designed to please any and all discriminating shoppers. Activities are being planned that will keep everyone busy in downtown business either buying, winning door prizes, snacking or visiting with Santa. Floydada will entertain shoppers on Dec. 3 and Lockney will follow on Dec. 4.

For the second consecutive year, Lockney will observe "A Holiday Affair." The Athena Study Club and the Lockney Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring the event.

Visitors to the last year's event in Lockney found themselves thinking of the famous movie, "It's A Wonderful Life", as they visited on the streets or inside the numerous shops open until late at night.

Lockney will feature downtown Christmas music, lights, super buys and Santa Claus will be hearing wish lists at the First National Bank in Lockney. For a fee of $2.00 one of Santa's elves will take a picture of your child on Santa's lap.

Stores will be open in Lockney until 9:00 p.m.

This is the first year Floydada has had the event entitled "Come Home For Christmas." Floydada businesses will also stay open until 9:00 p.m.

Beginning at 2:00 p.m. Christmas music will be broadcast at the courthouse square. Santa will arrive at the square at 4:45 p.m. Your youngster can also have his picture taken with Santa.

Carolers will begin singing and traveling the sidewalks at 5:00 p.m. and the yearly Christmas Tree Lighting ceremony will start at 6:00 p.m.

Have A Safe and Happy Thanksgiving

BY THE WAY!

BY ALICE GILROY

A whole lot of hard work by a whole lot of people has paid off! Caprock Hospital will open January 9.

There has been a lot of planning to achieve these results and I hope the community will get behind their hospital board and the doctors and show that you can help out by supporting your hospital.

If it doesn't get used we'll be running stories about the loss of another rural hospital—again.

Ronny Ammons, the hospital administrator, says the biggest problem facing them right now is the lack of housing. Most people coming in right away want to lease at first and then look around for a home to buy. There just aren't any homes to lease.

There are people who will be on staff at the hospital and they have no place to live. If you've got a home for sale and would consider leasing it (either in Floydada or Lockney) the hospital needs your help. It could turn out to be a good investment for you!

I saw an interesting story in the Herald last week. It said the record for the length of time before claiming prize money from a lottery ticket was 27 days. Some woman had won $15.4 million in a drawing held on July 14 and did not pick up her first payoff check until Aug. 10.

The primary reasons for delaying collecting money were excuses such as had to make legal and financial arrangements. Some folks were getting divorced and had to figure out how to divide up the money.

Other folks had won the money in a lottery pool and had to decide how to divide the winnings among several of them.

But the most common reason cited was—"I couldn't get off work."

We all got a very big laugh out of that last reason around here. Everyone who works here put me on notice that if they win, the only thing I'll ever see of them again is their dust as they race out of town.

I would at least turn out the lights and lock the door.

I hope everyone has a wonderful and safe Thanksgiving this week.

There are so many things that I'm thankful for that it often overwhelms me.

I'm thankful for the parents I have and the upbringing they gave me. I'm thankful that I was born in the United States where I'm free to worship God and travel wherever and whenever I choose. Even though America has its problems—it's still the best place in the world to live.

I'm also thankful for the people who have risked their lives or lost their lives fighting to keep America the country that it is.

I'm thankful the Pilgrims figured out that the communism system of everybody sharing from the community pot wouldn't work and devised a system where everybody had their own piece of land to make a living off of.

I'm thankful for the friends I have made in my lifetime and the town in which I live. I can't express how lucky I feel that God has blessed me with a son and a loving husband.

For those of you who have lost loved ones and really start to feel the loneliness at this time of year I'm always at a loss of words. I've been so blessed that I can't say I know how you feel. I've never experienced the loss of a child, husband or parent.

But I do know that when I'm overwhelmed with any kind of sorrow I turn to prayer. You may not have anyone else in the world but prayer will remind you that you are never alone and that you are loved with a perfect love that can't ever be put into words. When you feel that love—you'll have something to be thankful for too.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Brownfield High School in 1977. He graduated from West Texas A&M in 1982 with a Physical Education Major and a minor in Health, Math & History. He moved to Lockney in 1982 to teach math and coach for junior high. In 1989 he became the assistant principal for LISD and then the elementary school principal in 1992. Married in 1982, the Cothams have two children, Todd, 9, and Landon, 6. They are members of the First Baptist Church in Lockney.

Lisa Mosley got most of her voice training in her church. The first time she remembers singing was in the 5th grade. "I was on the stage singing with some friend and I was playing a little ukelele."

Born and raised in Floydada, Lisa graduated Floydada High School in 1973. She attended McMurry University in Abilene for 1 1/2 years and married Ricky in 1974.

"We moved to Lockney after we were married so Ricky could farm and I started back to college at Tech in 1988." Graduating in 1990 with a BFA in Art Education, Lisa then started teaching art at Lockney Junior High and High School.

The only formal music training Lisa has had was piano lessons. She trained her voice by singing at church, weddings, banquets, etc.

The Mosley's have three children, Nicole, 11, Johnnie, 14, and Jared, 16. They are members of Lockney's West Side Church of Christ.

Zelda Ellison comes from a musical family and can't even remember when she wasn't singing or performing in some way.

Born and raised in Farwell, Zelda began playing the piano when she was three years old. At the age of 11 she started singing with her sisters. "We were known as the 'Donaldson Sisters,'" said Zelda.

"I sang with them until I was 13 and they graduated from High School. That ended my singing for awhile but I continued to play the piano for my brother's band."

Zelda graduated from Bovina High School and then attended Hardin Simmons University. She graduated in 1971 with a double major in Business and English. She married her husband Terry (who is now the principal at Lockney Junior High) and they lived in Dimmitt until 1985 when they moved to Lockney.

Zelda started teaching at Lockney Junior High and then in 1993 she started teaching business.

Zelda credits her 8th grade students in Dimmitt with convincing her to sing solo. "They asked me to sing at a banquet and I told them no. Then at the banquet they introduced me and said I was going to sing. I was totally unprepared and didn't have any music with me, so I just sang Amazing Grace."

From there she continued singing solo. From 1977-1984 Zelda made three albums, some gospel and some country.

Zelda's singing talents have taken her many places and at one time she had to make a decision between Nashville and small town married living.

"I have sung with a lot of groups," said Zelda. "Justin Wilson asked me to travel with him and sing. Jerry Clower and Bill Mack offered to help me in Nashville if I wanted to come. I decided against it. I did not want a part of that lifestyle."

Settling down to life as a wife, mother and teacher, Zelda continued to sing but confined it to her church and special occasions.

Members of First Baptist Church in Lockney, Zelda and Terry have one daughter, Tiffany, 16.

The remaining two members of Harmony, Amy and Travis Thornton live in Plainview and travel back and forth for regular practice sessions. Amy, the music teacher at Lockney Elementary, commutes daily.

Amy and Travis also had a taste of Nashville and decided against it.

Born and raised in Plainview, Travis started singing in the 7th grade. Travis and his singing partner, Keith Longbotham, had one guitar and an amplifier. Little by little they accumulated more equipment and in 1973 they started an 8 piece band, known as Travis Thornton and Friends.

"We got our big start when we sang for the Junior Service League Folies," said Travis. "Everybody started telling us we needed to make a tape, so we went to Lubbock and cut a single. "We also sang one year for the National Farmers Organization in the coliseum. There were over 3000 people there."

Over a period of time the band disbanded and Travis eventually needed another singer for 3-part harmony. So in 1977 he recruited his future wife, Amy. "We had met at Wayland when we were both going to school," said Amy. "He knew I could sing so when he needed someone he looked me up."

Amy was born in San Antonio but moved around quite a bit with her family. She graduated from a high school in Hawaii and then attended college at Texas Tech University. She finished her college years at Wayland Baptist University in 1975 with a major in voice and piano.

She began teaching music at Lockney Elementary in 1975 and has been there ever since.

In 1980 Amy and Travis were married and in 1981, Travis, Amy and partner Keith Longbotham went to Nashville and started work on an album. "We did not like the way things were done there and we came home. We went to Amarillo and made our own. In 1983, Keith left the group and we quit singing."

Longbotham went to Nashville and the Thorntons stuck with singing for pleasure, teaching, construction work and raising their two children, Jarrett, 10, and Rebekah, 6.

Members of College Heights Baptist Church in Plainview, the Thorntons, like the rest of Harmony, did most of their singing in church until coming together for the first faculty Christmas party.

"I tend to look back to those Nashville days and think—What if?" said Travis. "But I know things are different now. You have to have a lot of money or know somebody to get anywhere in Nashville. I have too many responsibilities here now that I couldn't leave."

The rest of the group agrees with Travis. "There are a lot of fish out in the big ocean," said Amy. "We (Harmony) are as busy as we want to be right now. We can still pick and choose how busy we want to be."

"Our roots are here," said Lisa. "I don't want a part of that life."

"The hardest part for us now is adjusting schedules so we can practice and make engagements. With all our children at different ages there is always something going on at different times, and we have 6 engagements in the next three weeks. This Saturday we will be singing at the West Texas Opry in Lubbock. We expect over 2000 people there."

With a lot of encouragement from friends and family, Harmony finally released their first cassette Oct. 23. Entitled "If There Hadn't Been You," the tape is a combination of gospel and country.

"This tape was a learning experience for us," said Phil. "We didn't do it to make money. It was a non-profit project."

"We want to do music that appeals to everyone," said Lisa. "We want it to be positive music with a good message."

"Something that makes you feel good," said Amy.

"We are all thankful to God," said Zelda. "We believe that our talent is a gift from God and we want to give it back to him."

Carmel Eastham appointed to Caprock Hospital District Board

By Juanita Stepp

FLOYDADA — Carmel Eastham of the Dougherty Community was appointed to serve on the board of Caprock Hospital District during the regular monthly board session on November 17. He was appointed on a motion by Tom Farris with a second by Kenneth Pitts. The vote was split with Farris, Pitts and board president Fred Thayer in favor and Joy Assiter dissenting. Assiter voted in favor of her nominee, Bill Harbin. Eastham will fill the remainder of the term left vacant by the untimely death of Jerry Thompson.

A date was officially set for the opening of the hospital. According to hospital administrator Ronald Ammons, everything will be in place and ready to open the facility on January 2, 1994. Due to the proximity of that date to the New Year's holiday, the board elected to set the opening date for January 9, 1994. Pitts made the motion and Assiter seconded. The vote was all in favor.

Following an executive session to discuss personnel, the board appointed Dr. Tommy Swate as a staff physician with full privileges. Motion for the action came from Farris and was seconded by Pitts. The vote was unanimously in favor.

Board members instructed the administrator to solicit quotes and estimates for workers comp insurance coverage for the district.

Ammons asked the board for permission to complete the renovation of more ceilings in the hallways of the hospital. The patient wing had been done earlier. The renovation will include replacing the lights and tiles in the other areas and adding insulation between the concrete roof and the ceiling tiles. Estimated cost of the project is between $4,000.00 and $5,000.00.

Board members approved the leasing of office space to Dr. William Dean, DDS. Dean will bear the cost of any office modifications and pay the monthly sum of $600.00 for use of the space on a temporary basis for an estimated period of 12 to 18 months.

... Sale of a sheriff sale tax property to Donna Garcia was approved by the board. Garcia had offered $300.00 for Lots 13 & 14, Blk. 31, Original Town of Floydada located at 409 E. Lee. The sale will become final only after all taxing entities involved have approved it.

... Action on a proposed personnel manual was tabled until legal counsel has reviewed the document.

... Payment of monthly bills was authorized following the review of financial statements and monthly reports.

... Minutes of the previous meetings were read and approved by the board.

Working Miracles Every Day

Nearly 900,000 disaster victims — plus emergency workers, volunteers, and others — received assistance from The Salvation Army last year.

Sharing Is Caring

Seven WARNING SIGNS of ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE

1. Asking the same question over and over again.
2. Repeating the same story, word for word, again and again.
3. Forgetting how to cook, or how to make repairs, or how to play cards—activities that were previously done with ease and regularity.
4. Losing one's ability to pay bills or balance one's check-book.
5. Getting lost in familiar surroundings, or misplacing household objects.
6. Neglecting to bathe, or wearing the same clothes over and over again, while insisting that they have taken a bath or that their clothes are still clean.
7. Relying on somebody else, such as a spouse, to make decisions or answer questions they previously would have handled themselves.

The above list was developed by the National Eldercare Institute on Long Term Care and Alzheimer's Disease. The purpose of this list is to alert the public to the early warning signs of one of the most devastating disorders affecting older people—Alzheimer's Disease.

If someone has several or even most of these symptoms, it does not mean they definitely have the disease. It does mean they should be examined by a physician.

Easter honored on birthday

By Lorilla Bradley
A changing month November ...
To Winter from the Fall ...
And a time we call Thanksgiving
When loved ones come to call.

We welcome Mrs. Easter
... Her years are 83 ...
And such a lovely lady ...
As nice as she can be!

Let's do the birthday "duty"
To cheer this one along ...
So join us as we sing it
And come out good and strong.

Thursday, Nov. 18, was party time at the Rest Home with members of the City Park Church of Christ hosting. Everyone was ushered into the dining room for the festivities and we are very sorry to report that the honoree was unable to attend the party.

Jo Bryant gave a brief history of her life and times and the poem was read. All joined in singing the birthday song. A delicious refreshment plate of chocolate cake and angel food cake, along with a delightful fruit punch was served to the residents and employees.

As of now there is no one in the "home" with a December birthday. If someone comes in we will have a party, if not, there will not be a December party. Through all the years of our hosting this party this is only the second time we have had a month without a birthday "person."

This 'n' That hosts spouses with dinner

FLOYDADA—The This 'n' That Club met Monday night, Nov. 15, for their monthly meeting at the Lighthouse Electric party room.

A bountiful turkey dinner with all the trimmings and a dessert buffet with three kinds of pies and chocolate cake were served.

Special guests were husbands of members. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baker, Johnnie Cates, E.M. Jackson, C.O. Lyles, J.B. Sue, Glen White and T.L. Holland, also, Winnie Beedy, Thelma Crawford, Jonelle Fawver, Queen Annie Lawson and Dorothy Reeves.

Following the meal everyone participated in games of 84.

Working Miracles Every Day

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant
FLOYDADA—Hi! Once again it's time to share with you what is going on. Must say that we are busy and have the holidays approaching soon. This will be a short week due to Thanksgiving.

Monday started the week as usual with morning coffee, juice, cookies. Bro. Clark Williams came and shared the word with us. Irene Wexler played the piano for us. At 2:30 the residents painted ceramics.

Tuesday was current events and popcorn. At 2:00 the ladies from the Companions 'n' Caring met and did manicures and made placemats for the Thanksgiving dinner.

Wednesday was Bingo once again. Mary Alice Davis assisted the residents. Otis Johnson had the first Bingo. Candy, cheese crackers, bananas were the prizes.

Thursday at 10:30 the Home Ec class of Billie Peden came and shared their homemade bread, biscuits, muffins, pumpkin bread with the residents. It was Homemade Bread Day. The students visited with the residents also.

Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. the Sunday School class of Primera Mision Bautista G.A.'s came and brought the residents a fan which they had made with scripture verses on it.

Thursday at 2:30 was the birthday party for the month; we had one birthday, Minnie Faye Easter. The ladies from the City Park Church of Christ were the hostesses. They served delicious cake and fruit punch.

Friday, Joe Jones came and gave the devotion and Joyce Lipham played the piano for us. We went on the bus ride with Josie Lopez driving. We drove around town. Dairy Queen treated them to ice cream.

Just to remind you that if family wants to eat with their loved ones at 12:00 noon Thanksgiving Day, be sure to notify Dorothy Kerr, dietary supervisor, ahead of time.

We welcome two new residents, Allen Rendon and Minta King. Ruby Holcomb and Kermit Glover are in the hospital at this time. We wish for them a speedy recovery.

Giving Thanks

Lord of all bounty and goodness. How can we thank you adequately enough for all you give us? As the Psalmist, we remember your faithfulness throughout this past year, and all generations.

Psalm 92: "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High."

With a spirit of gratitude and love we thank and praise you for the many blessings and gifts that we have received. Help us to share with others what you have given us. Thank you for freedom.

1990 Club challenges community

By Tracy Campbell
FLOYDADA—The 1990 Study Club met at Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc., on Nov. 10, at 7:00 p.m. Denise Holcombe, president, opened the meeting introducing special guest, Brenda Clappitt of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce.

She spoke to the club about the beautification project she is heading and told us what we as a community can do to beautify our town. She announced a meeting on Nov. 23 with a company that can help get grants to beautify communities and anybody interested in this project was urged to attend. The meeting was set for 9:00 a.m. at Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc. Brenda hopes to get grants to work on medians going into and out of town, paint murals on buildings, and renovate old buildings in town.

Roll was called by Tracy Campbell with members answering to what they are most thankful for and the minutes from the previous meeting were read. Denise then called for officer reports.

Jan Beedy, vice president, gave a report on the Punkin Days cake walk, which was a big success. Extra cakes and pumpkins were taken to the Floydada Nursing Home for the patients and a motion was made by Jeanine Helms and seconded by Gayla Marble to donate the proceeds from the event to the Dustin James Love Fund.

Betty Ann Fortenberry gave the treasurer's report. Deanna Logan, Sunshine Girl, read thank you notes from Tracy Campbell for the picture frame, and a letter from Janet Thornton withdrawing from the club. November birthdays and anniversaries were also recognized by Deanna. With no other officer reports Denise called for unfinished business.

Kayla Johnson volunteered to be the chairman for the Service Committee and the February meeting will be held at Denise's home. Denise called for committee reports and Betty Ann Fortenberry gave the Santa committee report. The committee met and came up with the idea of a mini Santa Land. A tent, provided by Moore-Rose-White Funeral Home, will be set up on the courthouse lawn where Santa will take pictures with children. We still need decorator lights for the walkway and small electric heaters. If any member would like to lend the club these items, call Sherese Covington.

Dara Ware gave the Social committee report which included the Holiday Happening trip on Saturday, Nov. 13. New business was called for and Kelly McCormick discussed the need for clothing for her brother-in-law who lost all of his and his two children's belongings in an apartment fire in Lubbock. If any member has anything to give they would be grateful. The club donated any clothing that would fit the family that night at the meeting.

The club then had discussion on the December service and Jan Beedy moved to donate $200 to Child Welfare and Dara Ware seconded. Holly Lee brought up discussion on our making a donation to the Spirit of Sharing in November and challenging the community in December. Let's come together as a community and donate all we can to make it a better Christmas for everyone. The SOS will take any kind of clothing, household items (pots, pans, etc...), and toys that anybody has to offer.

The monthly program was given by Holly Lee who taught members how to make a wreath and tie bows. Holly gave us a background on design and decorating and gave hints on crafting. Names were drawn on who got to take home the things Holly made which included a wreath, won by Betty Ann Fortenberry, a door hanging won by Jeanine Helms, and a centerpiece won by Stefani Shortes.

The meeting was then adjourned and members ate a meal made by hostesses Holly Lee and Libby Campbell consisting of taquitos, rice and green chili casserole, salsa, and cheese dip, and fruit for dessert.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Jan Beedy and members are reminded to bring a Christmas tree ornament and a gift for their secret sister.

Those members present were: Jan Beedy, Robin Bowden, Libby Campbell, Tracy Campbell, Betty Ann Fortenberry, Jeanine Helms, Denise Holcombe, Connie Hurt, Kayla Johnson, Holly Lee, Deanna Logan, Delinda Lucke, Gayla Marble, Kelly McCormick, Tammy McDonough, Sandra Schwertner, Stefani Shortes, Regina Smith, Shelly Smith, and Dara Ware.

Agriculture and related activities are big business in Floyd County

From Kerry Siders, CEA-Ag. Agriculture and agriculture-related activities are big business in Floyd County, affecting more than just farmers and ranchers. According to data compiled by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Texas A&M University, agricultural cash receipts in the county will total $165 million in 1993. Agriculture is one of the most important industries in Texas and the United States. Many businesses, financial institutions and individuals are involved in providing supplies, credit and services to farmers and ranchers in processing and marketing commodities, said Kerry Siders, County Extension Agent. To recognize the contribution that agriculture makes to the United States and its interdependence with urban communities, National Farm-City

Week will be celebrated on November 21-27. The Texas Farm Bureau and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are taking part in activities in this state. "With an increasing demand for food and fiber worldwide, and because of the importance of agricultural exports to this nation's trade balance, agriculture is destined to play an even greater role in the future," he said. Cash receipts from farm and ranch marketings and agriculturally-related activities in Texas totaled more than $12.5 billion in 1992, down slightly from the year before. Prices for most major commodities declined and a record acreage of cotton was destroyed by adverse weather. Texas remains in second place behind California among states in farm receipts. "A large area of productive soils and excellent export and transportation facilities favor farming and ranching operations in the state," Siders said. This state ranks first in the sales of cattle and calves, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cotton, the value of farm real estate, the number of farms and ranchers, and the total amount of farm and ranch land. In Floyd County, the leading crop produced is cotton, contributing $65 million in estimated value, he said. Total value of agricultural crops are $98 million not including CRP. Livestock contributes $44 million to the county's economy, with the most important commodity being beef cattle.

Proclamation declares November 19-25 as National Farm-City Week

A proclamation signed this week by Floydada Mayor Hulon Carthel and Floyd County Judge Bill Hardin has declared November 19-25 as National Farm-City Week.

Floyd County Farm Bureau, a sponsor, is involved in Farm-City Week because of the crucial importance of this connection between urban and rural American. We have a food and fiber miracle here in the U.S.A. It takes the combined effort of researchers, farmers, agribusiness and consumers to produce the abundance we often take for granted. For this, we can think the hard work and dedication of our nation's farmers and ranchers, and the equally important labor of our partners in the city. Less than two percent of the U.S. population lives on the farm, yet our food needs are met with room to spare. We have enough surplus to sell in many foreign lands. One American farmer produces enough food and fiber for about 128 people here at home and overseas. The agriculture production system in Texas is estimated to have an economic impact of about $40 billion dollars. Businesses related to agriculture employ more than 20 percent of the work force. Across the U.S., that's one job in five, making agriculture the nation's top employer. Thanksgiving Day is our annual celebration of the bounty our nation enjoys. Abundant food is something that is a rarity in the history of the world. That is a blessing for which we should be truly thankful. Rural and urban folk must continue working together for our future and that of our children.

Producers elected to board

Texas grain sorghum producers recently elected seven producers to seats on the 15-member Texas Grain Sorghum Board. In this year's election, two directors were elected from the West Texas district and from the East Texas district, while one director was elected from the Panhandle district, one from the Upper Coast district and one from the South Texas district. In the West Texas district, sorghum producers elected Jim Boston of Roscoe and Pat George of Tulia. Boston was elected to a six-year term on the board, while George will serve a two-year term. Producers in the East Texas district re-lected two incumbents to the board. Dale Spurgin of Allen will serve for two years and Wilbert Vorwerk of Taylor will serve for six years. Dale Artho of Wildorado was elected to represent producers from the Panhandle district for a six-year term. Jess Person of Mathis was elected to a six-year term by producers in the Upper Coast, and Richard Kotzur of Edingburg was re-elected to a six-year term on the board. Under state law, grain sorghum grown in Texas is subject to an assessment of .008 cent per hundred weight. The funds generated by the assessment are used for research, education and promotion of Texas grain sorghum.

1993 Crosby/Floyd Pest Management accomplishments

By David Kostroun Extension Agent-Entomology (PM) Crosby/Floyd Counties The Crosby-Floyd Integrated Pest Management Program is one of 22 programs throughout Texas, each located in an area of intensive agricultural production. This program is a cooperative effort between Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas Pest Management Association, and Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. Integrated Pest Management assists producers in maximizing economic returns, while minimizing adverse impacts upon the environment. Information was distributed to all county producers concerning the Waste Pesticide Collection Day and the pesticide container recycling program conducted for the South Plains area in July. This event was co-sponsored by Texas

Water Commission, Texas Department of Agriculture, and Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Two problems have come about in recent years for sorghum producers concerning greenbug management. Greenbugs are one of the ten most economically damaging pests in Texas. Insecticide resistance has been documented within a portion of the greenbug population in Kansas and the Texas High and Southern Plains. Simultaneously, a new greenbug biotype has been documented in our area that has overcome the genetic resistance bred into current sorghum hybrids. Greenbug populations in both counties were sampled for insecticide resistance and biotype I identification. Data, however, was not obtained due to shipping and handling problems. Certain noxious weeds present an annual economic problem for county producers. Research-type weed control demonstrations for mintweed and woollyleaf bursage were conducted in Crosby-Floyd Counties. A tour of the mintweed control demonstration was held in September (32 attending). The woollyleaf bursage control demonstration site, located in Floyd County, will be an ongoing site to monitor weed control over a period of several years. Presentations concerning Integrated Pest Management were given throughout the year at various meetings. These included a presentation on cotton plant monitoring at the Beltwide Cotton Conference in New Orleans, Cotton Development and Plant Monitoring presentation to 71 participants at the High Plains Cotton Production Conference, a presentation on Weed Control Around Grain Bins to 94 participants at the Lubbock Stored Grain Workshop, a presentation on beneficial insects in IPM to a sophomore biology class, a presentation on beneficial insects at the High Plains Insect Scouting Workshop in Plainview, and presentations on the current insect situation and field scouting techniques to county producers at various turnrow meetings in Crosby and Floyd Counties (4 meetings, 86 total participants). Agricultural result demonstrations continue to be an effective educational tool within county programs. Research demonstrations conducted through the IPM program in 1993 included: cotton plant monitoring, cotton seedling disease control, cotton bollworm and tobacco budworm pheromone trapping and insecticide resistance monitoring, southwestern corn borer pheromone trapping, mintweed, control test, woollyleaf bursage control test, cotton foliar thrips control test, and bollweevil population monitoring.
