A view from
The Lamplighter

By Ken Towery

We were introduced to the ways of Washington thirty years ago. In January of 1963, in point of fact. When we arrived there in our nation's capitol, to begin a stint of learning that lasted (with mixed results) for many years, the leader of the tiny Republican contingent in the Senate was one Everett Dirksen, of Illinois. JFK was President, Bobby K was Attorney General, LBJ was Vice President, Teddy K was an inexperienced Senator and experienced skirt chaser from Massachusetts, a decent, pipe-smoking (but extremely pliant) Mike Mansfield of Montana was Senate Majority Leader, and Camelot was loosed upon the land.

Things were different. Senators and Congressmen had not yet become comfortable with speech involving "billions" of dollars. Dirksen once quipped, alluding to the propensity of liberal politicians to spend other people's money, that Congress ought to pay a little more attention to such matters.

"A billion here and a billion there, and pretty soon we are talking about real money," said Dirksen.

Everyone laughed. The phrase was picked up by the press, which also thought it was funny, and it stuck.

Would that our lawmakers still approached the spending of a billion here and a billion there with a little more apprehension. Now its the tens of billions, or the hundreds of billions. And its all done with a straight face.

Mr. Clinton has forwarded his budget proposal to the Congress, complete with his emphasis on where he wants more money spent, and where he wants less money spent. If he has his way, for instance, there will be substantial cuts (about $3.6 billion) in agricultural programs and substantial increases in various social programs. Actually, he proposes a cut of seven percent in the overall agriculture budget (practically all of which will come from farm programs) and an increase of $41 billion, or seven percent, in the budget for social welfare. (The budget for "social welfare and health" is $673 billion. The budget for the Department of Agriculture is $60.3 billion, but $38.5 billion of the Agriculture budget, more than half, goes for such things as food stamps, school lunches, and things like that. In fact we've never understood why those expenditures end up in agriculture's budget anyway. Logically they ought to be included in the "social welfare" budget.)

But that would reduce Agriculture's overall budget to $21.7 billion, and increase the "social welfare" budget to $711.5 billion, which wouldn't look good.)

Mr. Clinton also proposes that spending on AIDS be increased by seven percent, the same percent by which he proposes to reduce Agriculture. And while federal spending to support American agriculture is slated for a $3 billion cut, there is no comparable reduction in federal spending to support the tiny state of Israel. That remains essentially where it has been for many years, at $3 billion. Plus, of course, another billion or so for "security assistance." There is likely to be a good bit of argument in both the Senate and the House over such things as the level of spending for welfare, or for defense, or for agriculture, but there will be little mention of spending on foreign aid, since that might open up for debate the annual stipend of about $1,000 for every man, woman and child in Israel.

We suspect the Clinton budget will survive pretty much intact. There will be much argument, and many votes, but in the end it won't be increased by any substantial amount, and it certainly won't be decreased. There may be some chairs moved around, but that will be about it.

Needless to say, if we were shaping the budget it would be somewhat different. We have never been a big fan of "foreign aid" in general. There was a time, when the U.S. Treasury was in good shape, and when we were locked in a world-wide struggle with the old Soviet Union, that foreign aid made at least a little sense. Now, with our Treas-

Dallas Cowboys announcer providing laughs for banquet

The Dallas Cowboys will supply the laughs at the Floydada Chamber of Commerce annual banquet, Saturday, February 26. The team won't be there to tell the stories themselves but guest speaker Ray Stone, radio announcer for the Cowboys Football Report, will be. Ray travels the U.S. each year speaking about the many humorous stories and encounters he has had during his 19 years of providing coverage of America's team and the NFL.

Stone has been producing his radio show for almost 20 years. His radio network includes over 200 large and small market radio stations in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana. Over the past 14 years, Stone has spoken on the Dallas Cowboys throughout the Southwest. "Ninety percent of my talk is centered around clean humorous stories on the players," said Stone, "and ten percent is directed toward the need within a community to support the local Chamber of Commerce and local businesses."

Stone also produces the nationally syndicated "Inside the NFL", hosted by Roger Staubach and airing coast to coast on 740 radio stations. Other programs include coverage of the six major football conferences in the country plus "Inside the NBA" with host Bill Walton.

Ray's ability to provide in depth coverage of the happenings at Valley Ranch in a professional, positive manner have earned him the respect of the players and coaches, both past and present.

Other highlights of the chamber banquet will include the presentation of several awards, including: Citizen of the Year, Employer of the Year, Extra Mile Award and Citizen Through The Years. The Citizen Through The Years award is a special award that has only been presented one other time.

Traffic light to be retired

FLOYDADA—The traffic light at Main and California Streets, Floydada, will be retired (at least temporarily) on Friday, Feb. 25. This change is being made in an effort to allow traffic to move in a more timely manner. The City of Floydada will make this intersection a four-way stop, the same as the intersection on the northeast corner of the square.

Motorists are asked to use courtesy toward anyone walking across Main or California Streets. Cross walks will be painted at a later date.

If the four-way stop does not prove to be satisfactory the regular traffic light will be reinstalled.

Early voting continues

The early voting period for the March 8 primary elections has been going on for a little more than a week and Floyd County Clerk Margaret Collier reports that 152 people have taken advantage of the opportunity to vote at their convenience.

Early voting for the March 8 Democratic and Republican Primary Elections continues through March 4. Any Floyd County voter who wants may vote early in the Floyd County Clerk's Office, Room 101 of the Floyd County Courthouse in Floydada from 8:30 A.M. until 5:00 P.M. The office is closed Saturday, Sunday and legal holidays. Early voters are asked to bring their voter registration card to facilitate the process.

Judge to hear lawsuits against Caprock

District Judge John Forbis, of Childress, agreed to hear the civil suit and Writ of Mandamus against Caprock Hospital District on April 25 in the Floyd County District Courtroom. The two suits have been consolidated and will be heard as one, as Cause #8648.

Derek Walls, a former hospital employee, filed the suits after he was terminated from Caprock Hospital. He was terminated on Dec. 21, along with 17 other employees. Walls claims he was illegally fired.

In his suit, Walls claims the board violated the open meetings act, in that meeting, when they voted to "abandon all efforts to reopen the hospital."

Dr. Tommy Swate, who also has a suit against the hospital, pending in a Houston federal court, is representing Walls. Swate, who is also an attorney, was terminated from Caprock Hospital on Dec. 7, 1993, because of alleged contract violations. According to Caprock Board members, Swate was dismissed after an altercation between him and a vice president from St. Mary's Hospital.

A preliminary re-opening date for the football and can also be purchased at the door of the banquet.

Tickets to the banquet are $12.50 and are currently on sale at the Chamber office. The banquet will be held at Duncan Elementary, at 7:00 p.m., and will be catered by Nielson's Restaurant.

Lockney banquet is March 5

Lockney—The annual Lockney Chamber of Commerce Banquet is scheduled for Saturday, March 5 at 7:00 p.m. in the Lockney Elementary School Cafeterium.

Speaker for the event will be western and religious artist Kenneth Wyatt. The theme for the 1994 banquet will be "Color Me Lockney".

Those who will be honored at the banquet include the Citizen of the Year, the Extra Mile Award, two local businesses and the Fireman of the Year.

The speaker, Kenneth Wyatt, is a humorous speaker with a motivational theme. He is a former Methodist preacher and an accomplished western and religious artist. He is well known for his pewter sculptures and books of poetry as well as his paintings.

His paintings of Jesus and the twelve apostles hang in churches all over the world. Models for his paintings and sculptures are quite often people who live in this area.

Tickets for the banquet are ten dollars per person and can be purchased at the First National Bank in Lockney, the Lockney Cooperatives, Caprock Feed-yard or from chamber directors, Judy Jackson, Tina Graves, Karen Hooten, Neta Marble, Jack Covington, Charlie McQuhae, Richard Larsen.

Spring municipal elections slated May 7

Annual municipal elections have been scheduled for May 7, 1994. The period during which candidates for Floydada and Lockney City Council and for Lockney and Floydada ISD Board of Trustees may sign up will run through March 23. Anyone who is not registered to vote has until April 7 to do so in order to be eligible to vote in the May 7 election. Any voters who have recently moved should notify the voter registrar in the Floyd County Tax Assessor/Collectors Office before that date in order to vote in the election.

FLOYDADA CITY COUNCIL
Up for election this year from Floydada City Council are two council members at-large as well as council members from District 1 and District 4. Currently holding the offices of council members at-large are Eric Cornelius and Clar Schacht. The serving member for District 1 is Amado Morales and the current member for District 4 is Wayne Tipton.

Any person interested in being a candidate for one of these offices may obtain more information by contacting City Hall at 214 W. Virginia during regular business hours through March 23.

FISD BOARD OF TRUSTEES
Seats of two members are on the ballot for FISD Trustee this spring. They are Steve Lloyd in Precinct 1 and Trena Simpson in Precinct 2. The sign-up period will run through March 23. Anyone who would like to run for one of these trustee positions may obtain more information by contacting the Administration Office at 210 W. California during regular business hours.

LOCKNEY CITY COUNCIL
With the switch from at-large voting to single member district voting, citizens of Lockney will notice changes in the process. It will be important for citizens to contact City Hall to determine the district they reside in for voting purposes in this election. Only those who live in Districts 1, 2 & 3 will vote in the May 7 City Election for Lockney. Anyone who is not sure of their district should call 652-2355 to find out.

Districts for election this year for Lockney City Council are 1, 2 & 3. Currently holding the offices are J. D. Copeland, Gary Marr and Terry Jones.

Any person interested in being a candidate for one of these offices may ob-

Price of Hesperian-Beacon increasing April 1

Effective April 1, 1994, the newsstand price of this newspaper will increase to 50 cents per copy. Subscription rates will increase by $1.00 per year, or about 2 cents per copy.

A year's subscription for in-county subscribers will cost $16.00, out-of-county and surrounding counties subscription cost will be $18.00 and out-of-state rates will be $19.00. Senior citizens will continue to receive a $1.00 discount on their own subscription.

"We have not had a rate increase of any kind, either in advertising or subscriptions, since 1988," said Alice Gilroy, Editor of the Floyd County Hesperian-Beacon.

"We have absorbed many postal increases over the years and are expecting more next year. We have maintained our rates longer than most community newspapers in the face of rising costs, but it has come to the point where this move is necessary. We know that rate increases of any kind are hard on the public, no matter how modest, and we have taken that into consideration in keeping any price increase to a minimum."

Floydada City Council proposes curfew ordinance

(Editor's Note: Research for the following article, by Texas Tech journalism student Sandy Price, was made possible by a grant from the Reader's Digest Foundation.)

By Sandy Price
FLOYDADA—Mayor Hulon Carthel officially called for a second public hearing of the proposed curfew ordinance during Thursday night's City Council meeting.

An increase in juvenile violence, crime and juvenile-related gang activity perpetrated by individuals under the age of 17 is the reason cited by the City Council for the proposed curfew.

If the proposal is passed, curfew hours will be 11 p.m. through 6 a.m. Sunday through Thursday and from 12:01 a.m. until 6 a.m. on Friday and Saturday.

Under the proposed curfew, "A person under the age of 17 violating the curfew will be told to go home for the first offense, taken home by the officer for the second offense and will be given a citation for the third offense."

"Right now we are real fortunate we only have one or two that are perpetual problems you might say. They're out to two, three, four o'clock in the morning," James Hale, Floydada Chief of Police, said.

Plainview will begin enforcing a curfew April 1. Other cities in the area are expected to adopt curfew ordinances in the near future.

The members of the City Council and the Chief of Police agree the curfew will prevent problem juveniles from surrounding towns from creating mischief and trouble in Floydada.

The City Council also heard and discussed options concerning the playa lake that will become city property in the near future.

David A. Haukos, Ph.D., representing Texas Tech University's department of range and wildlife management, presented the council with four options that will offer the city assistance in maintaining the playa as a wildlife habitat.

No action was taken on the four proposals, and the council agreed to continue looking into options concerning the playa.

The mayor opened 28 sealed bids for the sale of two city vehicles: a 1981 Chevrolet pickup truck and a 1987 Chevrolet four-door car.

Wayne Tipton was awarded the pickup for the high bid of $1250 and the car was awarded to City Auto for $975.

The council unanimously awarded three bids for city improvements: Waterworks Improvements, Texas Community Development Program number 702199, was awarded to Rhodes Construction for $126,509.50; Electric Distribution System Upgrade was awarded to Gill Electric for $72,700.40; and Lipham Construction was awarded the bid for Seal Coat at $41,480.

The council took action on two summer programs affecting the community's youth.

The swimming pool operator position was awarded to Ann Assiter.

Assiter told the council the admission

Carthel brothers bestowed Land Stewardship Award

Gary and Hulon Carthel, owners and operators of the Carthel Brothers Farm near Floydada, received the Texas Chapter of the Wildlife Society's Land Stewardship Award for 1994 at the Society's annual meeting in Nacogdoches on February 11. The award was presented by David Haukos, a wetlands biologist with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, which shared the costs of enhancing 200 acres of playa wetlands and 800 acres of upland habitats on the 4,000 acre farm, about 45 miles northeast of Lubbock.

"The Carthels have led the way in integrating wildlife concerns with farming and other agricultural practices on the High Plains," said Haukos. "Their work has served as a model, prompting other landowners in the region to include wildlife considerations in their farming operations."

The Wildlife Society is a national organization of professional wildlife biologists with chapters in 50 states. Only one Land Stewardship Award is presented each year in Texas.

Since 1988, the Carthels cooperated with the Department of Range and Wildlife at Texas Tech University to conduct research on their property and since 1991, worked with the Fish and Wildlife Service to manage eight playas and adjacent upland habitat on their farm. They were also instrumental in forming the first chapter of Pheasants Forever on the High Plains, involving additional landowners in projects for

BY THE WAY!

BY

For those of you who haven't read the announcement on the front page—I'll be the bearer of bad news.

Effective April 1st—the newsstand cost of this newspaper will go up to 50¢. Go ahead gripe at me—I can take it. It won't make any difference—but I can take it.

But—Have we got a deal for you!!!! Our subscription rates will only increase by $1.00. So technically we haven't raised our rates—we are saving you money! If you bought the paper off the rack every week and didn't have a subscription—it would cost you $26.00. So we are saving you $10.00 per year with a $16.00 subscription. What a bargain!!!!

The senior citizens will still get $1.00 off their subscription rate which will make their subscriptions cost $15.00 per year beginning on April 1.

We haven't raised our rates since 1988 so we really aren't evil, money hungry and insensitive. We've absorbed many postal increases and a few printing increases. We can't absorb anymore.

If you have just renewed your subscription you can still add another year on to it at the old rate if you just renew by April 1. We are giving everybody plenty of time to get ready for the rate increase.

We are also going to have to go to a different way of selling Lockney papers off the newsstands. We are losing over $1,100 per year in stolen newspapers off the racks in Lockney.

That doesn't mean we have more thieves in Lockney—it just means we have a better system of selling papers in Floydada. Instead of honor racks in Floydada, the merchants have agreed to sell them over the counter.

Whatever changes we make in Lockney—we'll try to make it convenient for as many people as we can.

I thought about wiring the racks to electrocute people who forgot to put in their money before removing a paper—but we could go to jail for that and then we would have to put our name in the paper.

Don't forget the Chamber of Commerce banquets coming up this weekend and next weekend.

Floydada Chamber of Commerce is hosting Ray Stone as guest speaker, this Saturday February 26. Stone will be telling some very funny "inside" stories (I've read some of them) about the Dallas Cowboys.

I'm not going to be able to attend this banquet and it feels strange not going. I don't think I've missed a chamber banquet in Floydada since I moved here.

Lockney's banquet will be March 5th and you won't want to miss this one either. Kenneth Wyatt will be the guest speaker. I've never heard him speak but I've heard wonderful things about him.

Just remember the chambers depend on these banquets to help them raise money to carry on activities for the rest of the year. If you want your chamber to be active, then you better support it with your attendance!

Letter to The Editor

Dear Mrs. Gilroy:
The time has come for answers to be given to the public concerning the status of our hospital and the status of our tax money. We have not been given a lot of answers so far and the clock is still running. To date all we have received is the blame being placed on someone else.

Our hospital is ready and shining better than it has ever been. Not only is it a shame to have it in the condition we have, but to literally shut it down after all the money, time, and work have been put into this facility is a crime.

I realize there are several taxpayers in the county that want this to happen. They want the taxes to stop, but we are going to be paying taxes on the hospital for a while longer. If the district votes to dissolve the district, the taxes don't stop there. We will be paying to take care of patients in other area hospitals the county will be responsible for paying. This will cause the taxes to be raised.

We have all felt the crunch of the taxes. But, what about the taxes we have been paying all this time while the hospital was closed? What about the taxes used to remodel the hospital? What about the taxes that are being used for the litigation? We have not been given a choice about this expense, have we? We have not been given a choice about the time involved in delaying the court hearings, have we? Why not get the court hearings in Houston going and resolved so we can talk to more prospective doctors? Is there another reason why the court hearings are being delayed that we are not supposed to know about? No one is going to consider Floydada and the Caprock Hospital as a place to live and work if the residents of Floyd County sit back and allow the current situation to continue.

What we need now is to have our questions answered. We elected the board members to serve and open the hospital. I don't recall a time limit being placed on the opening. In my personal opinion, at the December board meeting, the decision to close the hospital was made before the board arrived at the hospital that morning. We need an evening meeting of the board with room for the public to attend and ask the questions we have been asking each other. If the public can ask questions and receive answers from the board members, I believe we can get the ball rolling again and we can have a hospital and a clinic with doctors to attend to the needs of the taxpayers. It is our responsibility to tell the board we will not sit still any longer and be dictated to by them. I realize the board is an elected group serving without compensation, but remember they are spending our money.

There will always be persons electing to go out of town for hospitals and doctors, but that is their decision. They are not being forced to do this. If we sit back and allow ourselves to be forced to accept this decision, we deserve the taxes we will have to pay.

Thank you,
Sue Hardy

Health Department offers variety of services

A variety of preventive health services are available to all citizens of Floyd County through the Texas Department of Health, at 711 Main Street in Ralls.

An immunization clinic, for children and adults, is also available in Floydada at the Della Plains School, 601 E. Ross, the 1st Monday of every month.

Texas law requires your child to be immunized and the Department of Health strongly recommends that immunizations be started when your baby is 2 to 3 months of age. Immunization can provide protection against diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis (whooping cough), polio, measles, mumps and rubella.

Regular clinic hours in Ralls are Monday thru Friday, 8:00 a.m. - 12 noon and 1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. The clinic offers a variety of services including, maternity, family planning, child health, and adult health.

Preventive health care especially for women includes: breast exams, pap smears, family planning/birth control, pregnancy test and mammogram referrals.

The only requirements for an individual is to call 253-2502 for an appointment and if the appointment is for your child, you must bring his immunization record if he or she has had previous immunization. If your child is on Medicaid, bring your Medicaid card.

Walk-ins are welcome at the clinic although some services require an appointment so it is best to call for information. Cost is determined according to your income. No one will be refused services because of inability to pay and Medicaid is accepted.

Floydada Police Report

Floydada Police received a report, February 21, or criminal mischief which occurred at Oden Chevrolet. According to the report, one pickup was scratched with damages estimated at $250.00 and hood ornaments from two Cadillacs were stolen. The ornaments were valued at $35.00 each.

Also on February 21, at 1:01 a.m., Juan Ramirez Martinez, 35, of Floydada, was arrested for DWI. According to reports, police followed Martinez on Hwy. 70 and observed that the vehicle did not maintain a single lane of traffic. Martinez was stopped in the 900 block of N. 2nd and arrested for DWI.

February 20, police stopped a black GMC pickup at 2nd and Missouri after the driver failed to stop at stop light. The driver Darolyn D. Williams, 28, of Floydada, was arrested for DWI. The passenger, Franklin Leon Williams, 53, of Floydada was arrested for Public Intoxication.

COURTROOM ACTIVITIES

In county court, February 18, Adolfo Bernard Chavez Jr., 22, was charged with DWI. There was no disposition on this case.

price would have to be raised from $1.50 to $2.50 because the price increase was created when she was required by law to use gas chlorine in place of chlorine pellets.

The council resolved to subsidize Assiter $75 a week to enable her to set admission price at $2.

Edd Henderson Jr., representing parents concerned with the summer baseball program, presented a request to the council that a committee of parents be allowed to manage the funds supporting the program.

"The funds will be used to buy equipment, pay umpires and for field maintenance. This will allow us to have a more quality league," Henderson said.

The council granted the request unanimously.

In other action the council resolved Southwestern Public Service Company's request approving the lower rate change which has already been placed into effect, and authorized an ordinance to be drawn up concerning Cable TV rates and CATV of Plainview.

The council also approved the Order of Election for the Floydada General Election May 7.

Gary Brown, Floydada City Manager, was given the authority to continue pursuing the possibility of the city purchasing the railroad's right-of-way.

Also Main St. and California St. will become a four-way stop. The council approved this motion unanimously in hope of relieving traffic congestion at this location.

The council voted to accept all offers on taxing entities' properties that were presented before them Thursday night.

The City Hall Expansion Project was discussed, but no action was taken.

"Danny McLarty has the blueprints and needs to make changes in them so we can rebuild it (the Expansion Project)," Brown said. He suggested using a contractor who would sub-contract the construction. Sub-contracting will enable more Floydada businesses to participate in the project and possibly lower construction costs.

A motion passed unanimously to change the date of the next council meeting to 7:30 p.m. March 21.

THIS WEEK

SALVATION ARMY DONATIONS

The Salvation Army in Lockney is currently accepting donations. The store is open on all days except cold days.

ELECTION BOXES

Election boxes will be ready to be picked up by judges on Monday at the County Clerk's office.

D.W.I. CLASS

A D.W.I. Education Class will be held in the Floyd County Courthouse in the District Courtroom on March 24, 25 and 26 from 5:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. each night. Cost of the class for all three nights is $50, which must be paid in advance. Pre-registration will be held in the District Courtroom on Thursdays, March 3 and March 17, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. This class is a required probation condition for first time conviction of Driving While Intoxicated. If not completed within 180 days of conviction, the person's drivers license will be suspended by the Department of Public Safety for one year.

TUTOR WORKSHOP

Floyd County Library Board will sponsor a workshop to train tutors in the Lubach Way to Reading/English if there is community interest. Trained volunteers can then tutor adults who need help learning to read. If you are interested in being trained as a tutor for this program, or if you know someone who is interested in learning to read and would like to participate in the program, please call 983-3570 or 983-3578.

Hunter Safety Education course scheduled in March

Constable Ray Macha and the Lockney Police Department will be instructing a Hunter Safety Education course March 2 and 3, 9th and 10th.

The location of the class will be Trinity Lutheran Church on mile south of Providence on FM 2301. Cost of the class will be five dollars. This fee pays for the student's book and test.

Minimum age to be certified is 12 years old. Students younger than 12 may attend, but cannot be certified by the state. Many adults take this course with their children or to be eligible to hunt in other states that require Hunter Safety certification to obtain a hunting license.

The hours will be 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. each night. One three hour afternoon will be set aside for a trap shoot and survival course. The time for the afternoon class will be announced after classes begin.

There will be many videos and hands on experience for the students. We try to make this course as interesting and informative as possible by changing instructors often and giving the students a short break each hour.

If interested in attending this class, please arrive 7:00 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, March 2nd, or call Ray Macha at 293-7413, Lennie Gilroy or Sgt. Jerry Edwards at the Lockney Police Department.

wildlife.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS) provided funding through its Director's Challenge Cost Share Award program to share the costs of the project with the Carthels. The work contributes to the goals of the Playa Lakes Joint Venture, a partnership of state and federal agencies, conservation groups and corporations to protect and enhance playays in a five-state region on the Southern High Plains. Joint venture projects benefit millions of waterfowl that winter in the region, plus countless more migratory birds that pass through every spring and fall, and an abundance of resident wildlife.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department both have "Partners for Wildlife" programs to share the costs of restoring and enhancing wildlife habitat on private lands with landowners that would like to enroll in such efforts.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

FLOYDADA—Hi! How are you this foggy day? Fine is our wish for you. Kinda feels like Spring is in the air.

Our main event this week was our birthday party. The ladies from the City Park Church of Christ always host a good party. Ladies helping were Betty Baker, Lula Teague, Lorilla Bradley and Eleanor McCurdy. Ophelia Sanders, Luis Arrendondo and Icy Weathers celebrated their birthdays. Several visitors came and shared with loved ones and friends. Thanks to all who come and visit during the weekend also.

Mary Alice Davis and Ray Beaty came and assisted the residents with Bingo. Ottis Johnson had the first Bingo. The residents enjoyed Valentine candy, cookies and cake. What a treat, all homemade.

The staff had their monthly meetings. Snacks were enjoyed by all. They viewed a film. Wanda Gibbs presented a gift certificate and a ceramic gift to the following: Fay Self, Allen Hoogstra, Thelma Garcia, Hope Mendoza, Angela Hernandez and Salinda Ruff, who all had birthdays in February.

The residents had ceramics, manicures, beauty shop, coffee and the devotional.

Donna Thiebaud and Jo Bryant ate lunch at the Senior Citizens in Silverton. They shared about the Floydada Nursing Home and passed out the pamphlets. Saw several familiar faces there.

Wanda Gibbs, administrator, and Jo Bryant took Mabel Redwine to eat at Floydada Senior Citizens on Thursday.

The bake sale last Wednesday at Payn-Save turned out well - sold out of everything. Thanks to all who purchased the baked goods. The funds were for the activity fund.

Horned toads topic of club program

By Patricia Schwab

LOCKNEY—Il Penseroso Jr. Study Club met in the garden room of the First Baptist Church in Lockney on February 10. Lori Satterwhite was hostess and co-hostess was Patricia Schwab.

Taco salad and soft drinks were served by the hostess and co-hostess. The table was decorated with a tablecloth that had hearts on it and matching napkins were used. A basket with a bear and Valentine candy in it was the centerpiece.

President Michealle Stennett brought the meeting to order. Lori Satterwhite gave the minutes from the previous meeting. Old business was also discussed. Plans are being made for the upcoming bridge tournament on Monday, March 7. It was also mentioned to the club that the fair board will be having a dance on Feb. 26.

A program was done on the Horned Toad Society. Heather Stowe presented the club with an interesting program. The type of lizard we would see in our area would be the phrynosoma modestum. Horned toads (horned lizards), of which there are three forms in Texas, now are protected by a law almost identical to the one which protects the Texas Tortoise.

The three forms are known as the Texas Horned Lizard, Phrynosoma Cornutum (Harlan); the Mountain Short Horned Lizard, P. douglassi hermandes (Girard); and the Bleached Horned Lizard, P. modestum (Girard).

A meal was served and secret pal gifts were exchanged. The meeting was then adjourned.

Members present were: Deanna Brewer, Alice Carthel, Char Dowell, Rise Ford, Shawnda Foster, Pam Fulton, Diane Lowe, Codee Owens, Ruth Reed, Shelley Roberts, Lori Satterwhite, Patricia Schwab, Robin Sherman, Karla Stapp, Regina Orr, Michealle Stennett, Victory Stewart, Heather Stowe, Jean Anne Williams and Tami Wofford.

Senior Citizen Rockins

By Gene Newton

There were 56 present on Thursday night and everyone enjoyed the evening meal, entertainment, and games afterward.

We want to thank Terrie and Cecil White from Lubbock for our afternoon of singing. They brought good gospel music our way.

We want to thank Johnnie for the vest lining lesson she taught on Monday at the center.

I believe everyone will be happy with our new quilt that is to be quilted. For those who came on Monday, we thank you.

Our sympathy goes out to the Pinner and Wylie families on the passing of Annie Pinner.

Please remember to pray for those who are ill in our community, including Violet Cooper, Jimmy Stennett and Jeremy Stapp.

MENU
Monday, Feb. 28: Pork steak, two vegetables, salad and dessert
Tuesday, Mar. 1: Chicken, two vegetables, salad and dessert

Wednesday, Mar. 2: Chicken fried steak, two vegetables, salad and dessert
Thursday, Mar. 3: Pork chops, two vegetables, salad and dessert

Friday, Mar. 4: Fish, two vegetables, salad and dessert.

Mooney hosts El Progreso Study Club

By Doris Thacker

El Progreso Study Club met in the home of Merle Mooney on Wednesday, February 9.

The meeting was called to order by Vice-President, Elaine Gibson. Arla Copeland called the roll and those present answered with a Bible verse on love.

The nominating committee gave their report on officers for 1994: President, Elaine Gibson; Vice-president, Doris Thacker; Secretary, Merle Mooney; Treasurer, Kathleen Thornton; Parliamentarian, Hazel Johnson; Reporter, Alice Mitchell.

The program was turned over to Merle Mooney. She brought a poem on friends, by Helen Steiner Rice, and a story, "The Awe - Some Power of Love Between a Father and a Son" by Keith Leenhauts.

Refreshments were served to members as they arrived. Those attending were Edythe Clark, Arla Copeland, Fay Ferguson, Elaine Gibson, Bobby Kellison, Alice Mitchell, Merle Mooney, LaVerna Sams, Doris Thacker and Kathleen Thornton.

The next meeting will be held on March 9th in the home of Doris Thacker. The UIL students will bring the program. They will be accompanied by their sponsor, Linda Terrell.

Lockney Girl Scouts and Dad's share in annual box supper

LOCKNEY—Lockney Girl Scouts recently held their 3rd Annual Father-Daughter Box Supper. Twenty-six Father-Daughter teams were registered which was a very good turnout.

The boxes were all very interesting. Each team put a lot of work into their box.

The elementary cafeteria was decorated in a Valentine's theme with pink and red streamers and pink, red, and white balloons. The refreshment table held a large decorated cake and punch bowl with red punch.

Following supper, which the girls and their dads had brought in their boxes, everyone enjoyed playing games and getting to know each other better.

During refreshment time, the winners of the decorated boxes were announced. They had been judged by Robin Buckner, the Field Representative for this area. Isaias Lerma was the winner of the M&M guessing contest—his guess only 2 M&M's short.

Girl Scout leaders this year are: Carol Huggins, Cris Taylor, Marlana Tharp and Vicky Schaeffer.

Derryberry named Sweetheart

By Dalia Arvizu

FLOYDADA—Our 1994 Valentine Sweetheart is Vicki Derryberry of the Alpha Sigma Upsilon. The social events for the evening included dining at the Golden Corral. After a delicious meal we exchanged secret sister gifts and crowned our new sweetheart.

Making time for a fun evening, we played a few games of bingo with winners taking prizes.

Afterwards we went out dancing at Mr.'s, in Plainview.

Our next meeting will be on March 7, with Erma as hostess and Rhonda Lagunas has the program.

Kendrick and Rodgers joined in marriage

MRS. ROY EUGENE RODGERS
(nee Christina Danielle Kendrick)

Christina Danielle Kendrick of Pottsboro and Roy Eugene Rodgers of Euless were united in marriage at Hagerman Baptist Church in Pottsboro by Derek Witt, youth pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Byron and Ilene Kendrick of Pottsboro, formerly of Floydada, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Daniel and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Kendrick, all of Floydada. The groom is the son of David and Alice Rodgers of Bedford and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rodgers, all of Trenton, Florida.

The bride wore a candlelight satin gown with a fully beaded bodice and an open back which was accented with beads. The train was ornate with lace cutouts which were beaded. She was escorted by her father.

Maid of honor was Renee Gambordella of Dallas. Bridesmaids were Kathy Peterman of Dallas and the bride's sisters, Lara Kendrick and Nicole Kendrick of Pottsboro. Corrie Witt, daughter of Derek and Sharla Witt of Pottsboro, was the flower girl. They wore tea-length dresses in a hunter green floral print with a hunter green floral print. The dresses were accented with a sweetheart neckline, a fitted bodice and full skirts.

Best man was Shane Rodgers of Bedford, brother of the groom. Grooms-men were Bill Sikes of Fort Worth, Murry Wilson, uncle of the groom, of Trenton, Florida, and Steve Weeks of Sherman. Ring bearer was Andy Weeks, son of Steve and Beth Weeks of Sherman. Ushers were Bob Caudle, Jason Brown, Justin Caudle and Danny Lacey, all of Pottsboro.

Candlelighters were Heather Fullen and Wesley Wilson, cousins of the groom from Trenton, Fla. Handing out programs and birdseed roses were Micah Witt of Pottsboro and Ashley Weeks of Sherman. Nikki Covington of Pottsboro registered guests. The photographer was Danny Daniel, uncle of the bride.

Danny Lacey of Pottsboro presented the prelude and sang "Never Say Goodbye", which he wrote. "Household of Faith" was sung by Steve and Beth Weeks. The groom had written a song "Until the End of Time" for the bride which he had recorded and was played during the ceremony. Charles Ashley, music minister from Sandy Lake Baptist Church of Coppell, lead the congregation hymn. Margaret Daniel, Roy Rodgers and Rubylee Rodgers, grandparents of the bride and groom, read selected scriptures.

RECEPTION

The bride's parents hosted a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's cake was adorned with a fountain and cascading flowers. The top on the cake was the top which the bride's parents used when they married. Serving at the bride's table were Gwen Ford of Dallas and Ashley Daniel, cousin of the bride of Plainview. The groom's mother had made a cross stitched marriage license which was displayed on the bride's table. Behind the table was a quilt in which each block was made by members of the wedding party and pieced together by the bride's mother.

The groom's cake was designed by the bride and her mother as a trap set of drums. Servers for the groom's table were Laura Fullen and Cynthia Wilson, aunts of the groom from Trenton, Fla. Other members of the houseparty were Linda Franzee, Beverly Lacey, Wilma Overby, all from Pottsboro, Sheryl Daniel, aunt of the bride, from Floydada, and Jeanie Beedle of Bedford.

The Streetlight Band composed of Chuck Ross, Steve and Beth Weeks and Craig Williams played praise courses during the reception.

The groom's mother put together pictures and memorabilia from the bride's and groom's childhood and it was displayed at the rehearsal dinner and the reception.

The groom's parents and grandparents were hosts to a candlelight rehearsal dinner at the church on Thursday night.

The bride and groom are at home in Euless after a trip to Disney World in Orlando, Florida.

COUPLE ENGAGED—Ralph and Linda Shiflet of Roanoke, Texas, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharlyn Renee Ruebush, to Chad Ashley Pernell, son of Rick and Donna Pernell of Dougherty. Miss Ruebush is a graduate of Northwest High School and is currently attending Texas Tech University. Pernell, a Floydada High School graduate, is also a student at Tech. He is employed by Agriculture Research Service in Lubbock. The couple plan a May 14 wedding in Hurst. --Photo by R Photography

Phernetton and Carthel recite nuptials

Cathi Phernetton and Rusty Carthel were united in marriage at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 12, 1994, at West Side Church of Christ in Lockney. Frank Duckworth officiated the ceremony, which took place beneath a brass heart shaped arch adorned with greenery, baby's breath and rose moire ribbon.

The bride is the daughter of Pat Richardson of Big Spring. The groom is the son of Charlie and Barbara Carthel of Lockney.

The bride's gown was a Victorian tea-length of ivory crepe satin with an old fashioned round neckline accented with a band of pearls. The bodice had an inset of Schiffl embroidery outlined in pearls. The sleeves were puffed to the elbow with layered cuffs to the wrist. A short train dropped to the floor from the belted back. Her shoulder length headpiece was gathered layers of bridal illusion with filament edging, iridescent sequins and pearls and silk lily of the valley. The bridal bouquet consisted of ivory lace and moire ribbon entwined in grape leaves, pink, white and red gypsophila, pink and red tea roses, pink bell spike, ivory seed pearls and Queen Anne lace.

Following tradition, the bride had as something old their rings which were family heirlooms; something new was the bride's dress; borrowed was a handkerchief that belonged to Rusty's great-great-grandmother and blue was the traditional garter.

Bible Baptist Church hosting Missionary Sunday Feb. 27

Missionary Greg Smith from Old Mexico will be preaching in the 11:00 a.m. worship service. Bro. Smith is a veteran missionary having started churches in El Salvador and Cancun, Mexico. He and his wife, Linda, studied Spanish in Guadalajara, Mexico. Bro. Smith went on his first missionary trip into the mountains of Chiapas, Mexico, with Pastor Robinson in 1976. At that time, Pastor Robinson was starting churches in southern Mexico serving as a missionary there for over 11 years. Bro. Smith is supported monthly by Bible Baptist Church, along with seven other missionary families and mission projects. Sunday night at the 6:30 p.m. service, all eight missionary families and projects will be highlighted and recognized. The sermon title by Pastor Robinson will be "The Rapture of the Church" in the Revelation Series. Color slides of Indian churches in Old Mexico will be shown following the message Sunday night. Everyone is invited to come to all the missionary services.

World Day of Prayer planned at First Baptist Church March 4

The World Day of Prayer will be held March 4 at 10:30 a.m. at the Wall Street Parlor of the First Baptist Church in Floydada. The program, "Go, See and Act", is written this year by Christian Women of Palestine. WDP is sponsored by Church Women United and this will mark the 107th year of this ecumenical service which is celebrated around the globe in over 170 countries. Women from several local churches will present the program and special music. Preceding the WDP program, there will be coffee, juice and cookies at 10:00 a.m. child care is available and the public is invited.

party on Thursday, Feb. 17. The Hesperian photographer came for picture taking after which everyone was ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor" table.
We are sorry Mrs. Weathers was unable to attend the party. The table was laid with a white cloth and adorned with an arrangement of silk flowers in shades of pink. The honorees wore fresh corsages given by Williams Florist and Card Shop. Jo Bryant read a brief history of the life and times of the honorees followed by the reading of the poem and singing the Happy Birthday song.
The refreshment plate contained a most delicious pineapple cake, angel food cake and a delightful fruit punch. The next party will be Thursday, March 17, 2:30 p.m. Please come and be with your loved ones and friends at their special time.

USDA announces common provisions 1994 deficiency payment set

By Shawn Wade

USDA announced the final components of the 1994 Acreage Reduction Program (ARP) Thursday beginning with a sign-up period from March 1 through April 29. According to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers the information will help farmers across the High Plains finalize plans for the 1994 crop.

In addition to the sign-up period several other provisions were also announced. One of the most important was the setting of an estimated 1994 upland cotton deficiency payment of 12.9 cents per pound.

Unfortunately, producers were left in the dark concerning the percentage of the estimated payment rate that will be available at program sign-up. The estimated payment rate for 1994 is 10 cents below 1994's maximum possible payment rate of 22.9 cents.

According to PCG officials the 1990 Farm Bill stipulates that, if the Secretary of Agriculture determines a deficiency payment is likely to be made, an advance payment for upland cotton producers will be available at program sign-up.

The 1990 Farm Bill also sets parameters for the advance payment at not less than 340 percent or more than 50 percent of the estimated payment rate. This means upland cotton producers can expect an advance payment somewhere between 3.87 and 6.45 cents per pound at sign-up.

"The announcement of the sign-up period and the estimated upland cotton deficiency payment means producers can finish some of the preliminary work that needs to be done to set up financing and finish land preparations for the coming year," says Donald Johnson, PCG Executive Vice President.

Johnson notes that much of the information needed to prepare for the 1994 is now available.

In addition to those already discussed the following provision were also announced:

50/85/92 Provisions - Upland cotton producers that report at least 50 percent of their Maximum Permitted Acreage (MPA) planted to the crop may devote acreage in excess of 15 percent of the MPA to Conserving Use (CU) for payment and be eligible for deficiency payments if the sum of the acreage does not exceed the MPA.

50/85 Exceptions - Producers that report at least 50 percent of the MPA as planted to the crop shall be eligible for deficiency payments on any designated acreage above 8 percent of the MPA that was: (1) planted to an IOC (industrial and experimental crops), or (2) if the rice or upland cotton crop failed or was prevented from being planted and the acreage was subsequently devoted to CU for payment.

Failed Acreage Reports - Acreage reported as failed or prevented planted must be in excess of the 50 percent planting requirement.

ACR/CU History Requirement - Land may be designated as ACR or CRU for payment if all other eligibility requirements are met and the land was planted, prevented from being planted, or designated as ACR or CRU for payment in either: one out of the last five previous years; or any year between 1985 and 1993.

Qualifying Acres - If only CU for payment is designated to a crop 15 percent of the MPA is required as qualifying acres. If both CRU for payment and an exception to the 50/85 provisions applies a total of 15 percent of the MPA is required as qualifying acres. If only an exception to the 50/85 provision applies that only 8 percent of MPA is required as qualifying acres.

IOC's - Industrial and experimental crops includes any of the following: castor beans, chia, crotalaria, cuphea, guar, guayule, hesperaloe, kenaf, lesquerella, meadowfoam, milkweed, and plantago ovato.

Insecticide could cause cattle deaths

By David Kostroun
Extension Agent-Entomology
Crosby/Floyd Counties

We are likely to see some insecticide applications for aphids in wheat as we move into late winter and early spring. If wheat is drought stressed at the time these applications are made, we could experience a situation with systemic insecticides similar to that in Oklahoma. Disulfoton and dimethoate are the only two organophosphate (OP) systemic insecticides labeled on wheat. According to label directions, disulfoton does not allow grazing whereas dimethoate has a 14 day no grazing interval.

There have been numerous reports in Oklahoma of cattle feeding on wheat pastures treated with OP insecticides and becoming sick or dying. Most reported poisonings are from areas of the state in which the wheat is drought stressed. Also, many of the reports indicate that cattle were not withdrawn from the wheat as required by the insecticide label or were put back on the wheat before the label requirements permitted.

Wheat which is being grazed with the proper stocking rate will generally have few to no greenbugs present because the cattle kill the greenbugs. Therefore, such fields very seldom require insecticide treatments to control greenbugs. All wheat fields should be inspected for the presence of greenbugs before any insecticide treatments are applied. When wheat fields are sprayed for greenbugs, the grazing statement on the insecticide label must be followed. It is both the applicator's and producers responsibility to follow the label.

Regardless of product chosen for aphid control, erratic results can be expected on drought stressed wheat. Improved control will not be seen until beneficial moisture occurs and wheat resumes growth.

If a producer believes cattle have been poisoned or died as a result of an insecticide application, the producer needs to contact a veterinarian to obtain the appropriate samples for confirmation. Cattle do die from other causes such as lead poisoning from batteries, magnesium toxicity, pneumonia, etc.

Organophosphate insecticides act in a way causing inhibition of a chemical, cholinesterase, that is responsible for the breakdown of acetylcholine. Acetylcholine is a chemical that acts at nerve endings to transmit nerve impulses.

Without cholinesterase, transmission of nerve impulses are continuous hence the organism undergoes a breakdown of the system. This breakdown usually results in death. This mode of action is true for insects, cattle, and even man at high enough doses.

If cattle are in a weakened state for any reason or have been weakened from feeding on insecticide treated wheat, do not allow cattle to feed on the insecticide treated fields for 3-5 weeks after the last insecticide application. This is about the period of time it takes for cattle with suppressed cholinesterase to recover. Producers need to verify level of recovery by having a veterinarian take unclotted blood samples for cholinesterase level determination before returning cattle to treated fields.

Dr. Bill Edwards, a veterinarian associated with Oklahoma State University Animal Diagnostic Lab, has reported 25-30 cattle deaths associated with OP poisoning. It is suspected that the OP is dimethoate, and the deaths have come as a result of not adhering to the grazing interval of 14 days for dimethoate. Dr. John Halliburton, toxicologist at Texas A&M Veterinary Diagnostic Lab in Amarillo, indicated no cases of OP poisoning have occurred in the Texas Panhandle area, but the College Station lab has reported cases.

The most important thing to keep in mind is to always follow the directions on the label. For more information about aphid management in wheat and/or reentry of cattle, contact the Extension Office.

COWPOKES

By Ace Reid

"I wish whoever prayed for this snow would go to prayin' for next spring's cattle market!"

Fighting insects with cultural management delays resistance

Every time cotton producers use a chemical pesticide, they are increasing the chances that insects will develop a resistance to it. Dr. Patricia O'Leary of Cotton Incorporated says farmers can manage their crops to avoid — or at least delay — resistance.

"Part of the recommended management for resistance procedures are cultural, the primary one being to manage a crop for earliness." According to O'Leary, this includes an early planting date, to get a head start on the insects.

O'Leary says growers should try to avoid using over-the-top herbicides on their cotton, because these can delay the crop. "Also avoid excessive rates of nitrogen and, if possible, terminate irrigation. This should be done as soon as possible without affecting yield."

O'Leary says that the sooner a crop is planted and the sooner it's harvested, the easier it is to avoid insect infestations and the need to use a lot of pesticides. "As the season progresses, the insects build, and by the late season, for the bud worm, that's third generation. It can be quite a heavy population. When it comes to fighting insects, cultural management is far better — and more economical — than chemical management."

Scientists gain upper hand on the boll weevil

The fight is far from over, but cotton producers and their allies in the scientific community seem to be getting the upper hand on the boll weevil. New techniques for controlling the boll weevil have been adopted in recent years, and more are on the way.

Dr. Patricia O'Leary of Cotton Incorporated says one of these new techniques is a parasite that's now being tested. "The parasites would be mass-bred in the laboratory and then released into the field. If it's a successful release, the population would reproduce in the field on the boll weevils present there."

In some parts of the country, the battle against the boll weevil is still raging. But in other areas, the weevil has been all but wiped out, thanks to a variety of management strategies and the cooperation of growers in a unified program of eradication.

O'Leary says that in those areas, cotton has made a remarkable comeback. "For those states where eradication has been successful, such as North Carolina, cotton farmers are back in the business of producing cotton."

O'Leary says it's far too early to declare victory, but farmers and scientists are eventually going to win the war of the weevil.

No iron cotton shirts available by Father's Day

Today's movement to wrinkle-resistant slacks and shirts is not merely a recycling of the durable press and wash-and-wear products of yesteryear. These new fabrics are newly engineered with advanced technology, some of which was pioneered by Cotton Incorporated.

An all-cotton, non-shrinking, durable-press shirt has been the Holy Grail of garment manufacturers for years... until now.

Japanese and American companies have engineered cotton shirts that require little or no ironing. These shirts should be available on retail shelves by Father's Day.

Like today's cotton shirts, the no-iron variety will be slightly more expensive than blends. However, the industry expects people who now wear blends to switch to the easier care, natural fiber.

'93 Round-Up is recognized for excellence

The Lockney High School yearbook staff has been recognized by Taylor Publishing Company with an Award of Excellence honoring its accomplishments in yearbook design and coverage.

The Roundup advisor is Lisa Mosley. Books published by Taylor between October 2, 1992 and October 1, 1993, were evaluated for excellence in one or more of these areas: cover design, theme development, page design and copy-writing.

"This Award of Excellence is given to a small percentage of staffs that sets high journalistic standards in coverage and design," said Alan Heath, vice president of marketing for Taylor. "It takes a lot of work to do any yearbook, and we are especially proud of these staffs and support their efforts."

Taylor Publishing, headquartered in Dallas, Texas, is a major publisher of yearbooks nationwide. The company provides training, computer hardware and software and printing services to junior high school, and high school and college yearbook staffs.

February sales tax rebates decrease in Floyd County

February 1994 sales tax rebates made to Floyd County cities from the state comptroller's office have been received and both Floydada and Lockney are displaying a sizable decrease in sales reported for December and the final quarter of 1993. Total rebates received in Floyd County this month were $19,732.94, a decrease of 11.52 percent when compared to the $22,304.59 received in February of 1993.

Lockney displayed a decrease of 12.56 percent from the same period in 1993 in over all receipts. The city's February check was in the amount of $6,033.87 compared to $6,900.91 received in February 1993.

Floydada's check from the state comptroller's office was in the amount of $13,699.07 showing a decrease of 11.06 percent from the $15,403.68 payment received in February of 1993.

Area cities, their February 1994 rebates and percentage of change are listed below.

Quitaque; $3,951.60, +13.79%
 Silverton; $2,667.65, +10.91%
 Crosbyton; $7,894.48, -12.18%
 Lorenzo; $2,755.65, -3.03%
 Ralls; $8,191.63, -11.18%

 Matador; $3,465.51, -3.26%
 Roaring Springs; $4,459.25, -4.31%
 Tulia; $25,935.38, -9.35%

Payments totaling $220 million in local sales tax rebates went back to 1,075 Texas cities and 111 counties this month, according to the state comptroller's office. This month's sales tax payments include taxes collected on December sales reported to the comptroller by businesses filing monthly tax returns. Also included in the rebates were sales taxes collected during the final quarter of 1993 by businesses that file on a quarterly basis.

Sales taxes are collected by merchants and forwarded to the state which retains a 6.25 percent share and returns the city sales tax portion to each city, county, hospital district or transit system. Neither Floyd County nor Lockney General Hospital District and Caprock Hospital District levies a sales tax at this time.

The family suggests memorials to Lubbock Children's Home or a favorite charity.

Hospice of Lubbock recruiting volunteers for training classes

Hospice of Lubbock, a non-profit agency that provides care for the terminally ill, affirms life. It exists to provide care and support for patients and their families during the last phases of incurable disease so that they might live as fully and comfortably as possible. Volunteers are a vital part of this care and support system and Hospice of Lubbock is currently recruiting volunteers for its spring volunteer training classes.

The training classes will begin on March 2 and will meet each Wednesday morning for 10 consecutive weeks from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The training consists of 30 hours of basic training and six hours of bereavement training. There is a $20 fee for the classes and scholarships are available.

Volunteers may work in direct patient care or assist in the Hospice office. The main role of direct patient care volunteers is to provide an atmosphere of warmth, understanding, sensitivity and support to patients and families who are experiencing the difficulties associated with life threatening illness.

"Volunteers are encouraged to do all the things they would for a friend or family member if they were in the same situation," said Mary Ann White, director of volunteers. "In offering their support, volunteers a vital part of the hospice team of care."

Typically, volunteers give two to four hours per week working directly with the patients and their families. Each volunteer works with one patient at a time. A volunteer's duties include:

- * Companionship — Companionship is undoubtedly the single most important service that the volunteer can provide to both the patient and his or her family. The volunteer's visit provides an opportunity for social contact, as well as a sympathetic ear.

- * Respite Care — Volunteers may remain with the patient during a brief absence of family members, allowing the family time for errands, a change of scenery or just time alone.

- * Care Planning — Volunteers are encouraged to attend team meetings in order to discuss the management and treatment of the patient and family.

* Bereavement — Volunteers may also choose to work with the bereavement team in making follow-up calls or visits with surviving family members.

Hospice volunteers are asked to provide one year of service to the organization. Men and women of all ages are encouraged to become involved. For more information or to register for classes, contact Mary Ann White at Hospice of Lubbock, 795-2751, before the new training session begins on March 2.

Hospice of Lubbock provides care through an interdisciplinary team that includes the patient's physician, hospice medical director, nurses, social workers, pastoral counselors, certified home health aides, training volunteers and others. The organization serves Crosby, Floyd, Garza, Lynn, Terry, Hockley, Lamb, south Hale and Lubbock counties.

Anyone may refer a patient to Hospice of Lubbock by calling the office at 795-2751. The staff will contact the patient's physician and determine if the patient meets the admission criteria.

FIFTY YEARS OF SERVICE—(l-r) Masons Tom Spears, T.L. Holland, Noman Hamilton, Lewis Eudy and Harold Campbell were presented with 50 year service awards, February 8, during a meeting of the Floydada Chapter No. 227 Royal Arch Masons and Floydada Council No. 163 Royal and Select Masters.

Card of Thanks

Dear Floydada Businessmen & Farmers, Thank you so much for buying our animals at the Floyd County Stock Show. We appreciate your interest and support of our FFA programs.

Sincerely,
Lezlie Warren
Rebecca Warren

Dear Lockney Businessmen & Farmers, Thank you so much for buying my lamb at the stock show. To everyone who contributed, a special thank you, because without your continued support there wouldn't be any money for the animals.

Sincerely,
Katrina Bartlett

Dear Floydada Businessmen & Farmers, I would like to thank all of you for purchasing my reserve champion lamb and my reserve breed pig in the premium sale. I greatly appreciate your support of the Floyd County Stock Show. Thanks again.

Sincerely,
Amy Waide
2-24p

Dear Lockney Businessmen & Farmers, Thank you so much for the add-on. Your dedication and support for the youth of Lockney means so much.

Sincerely,
Eric Bartlett

To Our Friends and Neighbors, Thanks for your prayers, food, cards, phone calls, contributions and flowers in the loss of our dear brother, Bud. God bless each of you for your love and concern.

Evelyn Queen and Edna Patton

I want to thank the many people in the Floydada Community and the First United Methodist Church for the many nice gifts of merchandise, clothing and gift certificates that will help me get my life back in order after the fire. Through Gods love and your caring it is making the task much easier. You people have given me the things I needed. Hopefully my memories and your continued friendship can supply me with the remainder.

Sincerely,
Keith Thomas

Masons receive 50 year awards

FLOYDADA—Floydada Chapter No. 227 Royal Arch Masons and Floydada Council No. 163 Royal and Select Masters presented five 50 year service awards February 8, 1994.

Meeting was called to order by Wes Campbell, High Priest of Floydada Chapter, and Kenneth Pitts, T.I.M. of Floydada Council.

District Deputy Grand High Priest R.E.R.V. Webster of the 39th Capital District and District Deputy Grand Master of 39th Cryptic District presented awards to: Harold Campbell of Matador, Lewis H. Eudy of Turkey, Noman Hamilton of Lubbock, T.L. Holland of Floydada, and Tom Spears of Matador. Each received a certificate and 50 year pin for their service to the two organizations.

Thirty members enjoyed a meal and fellowship discussing old times and thinking of the past as Masonry helped the communities of this area grow and support the activities of each community.

Other awards which have been given to Floydada Chapter No. 227 include the Achievement Award from the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Texas, for 1993. The award was presented to Wes Campbell at Grand Chapter in Waco. Campbell was representing Floydada Chapter #227.

Officers for 1993-94 are: Wes Campbell, Tommy Assiter, Randy Hollums, Doyle Walls, J.M. Willson, Kenneth Pitts, Bob Vickers, Mac Willson, Kenneth Polle, Boone Adams, Wayland Jones and Wayne Russell.

Andrews Elementary School Campus Committee meets

FLOYDADA—The R.C. Andrews Campus Improvement Committee met Tuesday, Feb. 15, at 2:30 p.m. in the family room. The next meeting will be held Friday, March 11, at 2:30 p.m. to avoid a conflict with spring break. All interested persons are invited to attend. Andrew's Activators representatives, Kylan Sanders and Erika Miller, presented ideas from Activator students concerning fun days at school such as "Boots and Jeans Day" and various fundraisers. "Dad's Day" will be February 24. Dads will be invited to visit for lunch, or stay as long as they like. Texas Public School Week will be Feb. 27 through March 4. There will be special activities throughout the week. Ways to evaluate progress on TAAS objectives were discussed. Ester Arellano suggested a "dry run" on the test to spot individual weaknesses that need to be targeted. Penny Taylor reported on the TAAS science objectives workshop she had attended. She felt it would be a very difficult test requiring much time and effort. After a discussion on teaching values in school, the meeting was adjourned at 3:50 p.m. those attending were Principal Ellen Enriquez, teachers Dolores Collins, Scott Greenway, Bettye Poole and Penny Taylor, community representative Lynn Marler, parents Ester Arellano and Karen Miller, student representatives Eric Arellano and Erika Miller (also representing the Andrew's Activators), and Andrew's Activator representative Kylan Sanders.
