We see by the papers that Mr. Rostenkowski is finally going to trial for his part in the Post Office scandal. The former (we can now say former) Democratic Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, finally got caught up with.

We are not at all surprised by some of the charges brought against him. We are a little surprised at some of the others. We have suspected, from day one, that an honest look into his operation would find him engaging in such things as ripping off the taxpayers via the stamp route. And that he probably engaged in such things as putting "ghost employees" on the government payroll, (with part of the money finding its way back to his own operation) with taxpayers picking up the tab. But the extent of the charges, and the petty nature of some of his activities, boggles the mind. They are indeed an indication of the arrogance that finally besets some people in Washington when they have been there too long, when they finally become judged by their constituents not for their honesty, but by how much bacon they bring home.

In a strict political sense, we believe the Congressional Democrats have been too smart by half in all this. Our readers will remember that this business about the House Post Office, along with the scandal in the House "bank" broke a long time ago. House Republicans tried, on many occasions, to force a Congressional investigation into both matters. They weren't trying to name names, or at least they said they weren't, but rather to delve into the systems itself, a system that allowed entrenched committee chairman and their cronies to operate outside the rules. And it must be said that they, the Republicans, were evidently more interested in making an issue of the Post Office scandal than the House "bank" scandal, probably fearing that some of their own might be implicated in the latter.

But the House Democratic leadership resisted all efforts aimed at Congressional investigation of both matters. In this they could count on nearly straight-line support, including the vote of our own Rep. Bill Sarpalus. Time after time the Republicans forced a vote on the matter. Time after time they were defeated. The Democratic majority simply didn't want all the rabbit trails laid out for public exposure at a time when the Administration was having many other problems. And Mr. Sarpalus, anxious to please his party leaders, gave them his vote.

Now the Justice Department has completed enough of its own probe to bring charges against Mr. Rostenkowski. The staff head of the Post Office has already pled guilty to related charges. He implicated others. Rostenkowski has paid back something like $80,000 he cheated the taxpayers out of. And Justice says its investigation is continuing. That means that the whole thing will still be front and center when voters go to the polls in November. That's why we say we think the Democratic leadership was too smart by half. By trying to cover it up as long as they possibly could, they forced the whole thing into a time frame they are likely to regret.

In fact, the issue has now surfaced in the congressional campaign between the incumbent Mr. Sarpalus and his Republican challenger, Mac Thornberry, for the 13th Congressional District seat. Mr. Thornberry chided Mr. Sarpalus, calling on him to "reconsider" his votes in support of the Democratic leadership concerning the Post Office investigation. We have seen no record of the Congressman responding, but his "aide", a Mr. Phil Duncan, whom we assume is paid by the government, was quick to respond. He said Mr. Thornberry was engaging in a "shameless" attack. That, it seems to us, is a pretty weak defense for a series of votes to cover up rather shameful behavior.

Mr. Duncan has had a good bit of experience in this sort of thing. He used to be with Congressman Jim Wright, and we all know what kind of an operation Mr. Wright had, and what happened to him. In fact, Mr. Wright, in his latest

CHD approves settlement offer in lawsuit

FLOYDADA — Following an executive session, the Caprock Hospital District Board of Directors authorized a tentative settlement to conclude all matters regarding litigation in two lawsuits the district is involved in. A negotiated settlement offer was approved on a motion by Joy Assiter with a second by J. R. Turner. All present including Assiter, Turner, Rob Heflin and Tom Farris, voted in favor. Board member Carmel Eastham was not present.

According to attorney Tom Riney, the settlement was negotiated between attorneys for both sides, the district's insurance company and the court appointed bankruptcy trustee. The settlement must be approved by the bankruptcy court in Houston.

Terms of the settlement call for payment of $28,333.00 to the bankruptcy court, ending litigation in the cases of Swate vs. Caprock Hospital District and Caprock Hospital District vs. Swate. CHD will be responsible for contributing $10,000.00 toward the total settlement payable to the bankruptcy court.

SWATE CONTRACT TERMINATED

Also approved by the board was the termination of an agreement for physician's services between CHD and Dr. Swate. Motion for this action came from Farris and was seconded by Assiter. All voted in favor. The action followed a modification of the automatic stay order in Chapter 11 Bankruptcy proceedings of case #93-49292-85-11, styled in regard to Tommy E. Swate, Debtor, which was issued on June 6. The stay order had prevented any board action.

The board's attorney noted that taking the action to terminate the contract at this time did not indicate an admission of wrong-doing in terminating the contract during a December 7, 1993 meeting. He told the board that the action now would limit the liability to this point if, at any time in the future, a court were to find the December 7 action to be invalid.

Riney summarized information

Swate had not disclosed before he was hired. Included in this information was his previous operation of methadone clinics, U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) problems, involvement in and judgement liability for malpractice lawsuits, and contractual relationships with other hospital facilities. Other factors contributing to the board's decision included his unprofessional conduct after being hired, his failure to practice medicine in Floydada on a full time basis, and the fact that he no longer resides within 15 minutes of the hospital and clinic.

STAPP ADDRESSES BOARD

Joe Stepp, a resident and taxpayer of CHD, met with the board to present copies of the open meetings handbook published by the Texas Attorney General's Office. He suggested that the board members might want to familiarize themselves with the short, simple law, as well as read the attorney general opinions included in the publication to avoid threats of lawsuits in the future.

Stepp then asked if he was permitted to ask a few questions. Farris indicated that this was permissible. Stepp asked

Field Day treats landowners to tips on pheasant management

High Plains landowners will see and hear about good management practices for pheasants and waterfowl in a Management Field Day on Saturday, July 9 in Floydada.

Biologists from the Texas parks and Wildlife Department, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Soil Conservation Service, and the Texas Forest Service will show and demonstrate management techniques for playas, roadsides, shelter belts, and CRP sites. Any of these can provide excellent habitat for pheasants and waterfowl, for viewing, recreation, or profit for the landowner.

A tour of sites in Floyd County is part of the Field Day.

Co-sponsors of the field day include the Texas wildlife Association, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, the High Plains chapter of Pheasants Forever, Soil Conservation Service, and Carthel Brothers of Floydada.

The registration fee of $10.00 per person for the field day and tour includes lunch and refreshments. Phone registration may be handled by calling 800-TEX-WILD during business hours.

Hukill hired to serve as Floyd County Attorney

The Floyd County Commissioners Court reconvened on Wednesday, June 15, at 2:00 p.m. following a recess on Monday. The court then reviewed a proposed contract between Floyd County and the law firm of Lyle, Owen, Voss, and Owen in Plainview for the services of Kregg Hukill to act in the capacity of county attorney for Floyd County. The contract becomes effective June 15.

A motion by Precinct 4 Commissioner Howard Bishop authorized the county judge to sign the agreement. The motion was seconded by Precinct 1 Commissioner Connie Bearden and approved by unanimous vote.

According to the contract, Hukill will be in an office at the courthouse one day a week to serve as the prosecutor for the county on misdemeanor criminal cases and certain civil matters. He will also serve as advisor to the county on points of law.

In return, the county will pay $1,250.00 per month and provide an office as well as liability insurance coverage for the attorney. The county is

Services for Mr. Pope will be held Thursday, June 23, 1994, at 2:00 p.m. in Moore-Rose-White Funeral Home Chapel. Jay Henderson, of Plainview Church of Christ, will officiate. Pope will be buried at Lockney Cemetery by Moore-Rose-White.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Cecil Wayne Pope, of Floydada and Clarence Pope, of Canadian; and one grandchild.

The family suggests memorials to Cowboy Crisis Fund in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Spills and thrills to be featured at Floydada Rodeo

Action packed rodeo performances are scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday night, June 24th & 25th.

The 37th Annual Rodeo, sponsored by the Floydada Rodeo Association, will feature all the crowd favorites including a Kid's Calf Scramble each night and a Slack Run Friday night after the Rodeo.

Adult rodeo events include: bare back riding, saddle bronc riding, novice saddle bronc, bull riding, calf roping, bull dogging, break away roping, girls barrel race, single steer roping, team roping and county ribbon roping.

Maverick Rodeo Co., of Tulia, will provide the stock and Don McCandless, of Floydada, will continue with his traditional role of rodeo announcer.

After the Friday night performance there will be a dance on the slab at the rodeo grounds with music by a DJ. Saturday night's dance will be to live music by "Country Nites", of Plainview.

Admission to the events is $5.00 for adults and free for children under 12 years of age.

Pay-N-Save July 4th celebration postponed

Because construction work around the Floydada Pay-N-Save will not be completed before July 4, the traditional 4th of July Celebration held each year in the Pay-N-Save parking lot will be postponed.

"We are very sorry for the inconvenience we may have caused citizens," said store manager Johnny Summer, "but we look forward to having this expansion project completed soon. As soon as the work is done we will have a delayed celebration and invite everyone to come view our newly expanded store and enjoy the food and festivities."

Nurse practitioner joins staff

Dr. Albert welcomes clinic assistant

Dr. Albert is now being assisted at Floydada's Cogdell Clinic by Family Nurse Practitioner Linda McClead.

"I'm very happy to have her join us," said Albert. "She is going to be a big help. We have been so busy we have had to turn people away."

According to McClead, a Family Nurse Practitioner is a registered nurse with advanced education in learning to diagnose, prescribing medicine and planning the care of a patient. "The nurse practitioner works in collaboration with the physician with the main focus being in preventive care and teaching," said McClead. "I consult with the doctor on anything I feel is complicated."

Linda Brown McClead was born and raised in Crosbyton. She graduated Crosbyton High School and then attended the School of Nursing at the University of Texas in Fort Worth. She graduated in 1974 and went to work at Methodist Hospital.

"I worked at Methodist for 18 years, five years in ICU and the rest of the time as head nurse in ER," said McClead. "I really enjoyed the ER work."

McClead then returned to school and received her Master of Science in Nursing from Texas Tech. She also completed further nurse practitioner courses.

It was then that she went to work at the Ralls Family Clinic alongside Dr. Albert. After six months Dr. Albert returned to Floydada's Cogdell Clinic and McClead once again has come to his aid.

McClead resides in Lubbock with her husband Charles, who is a State Farm Insurance Agent. They have two sons.

"I am very excited about being here," said McClead. "It is a very nice clinic and it makes you feel good to have everyone happy that you're here."

Other additions to the staff at Cogdell Clinic include a registered nurse, Betty King, of Floydada, who will join the staff in July, and Maybelle Enriquez, of Floydada, who has been employed as an office assistant.

Susan Green, of Floydada, has also been employed as a Lab/X-Ray Technician making much of the lab and x-ray work available to Dr. Albert and McClead on the premises.

Cities turn on wells in effort to conserve water level at Mackenzie

Floydada and Lockney have turned to their city wells for daytime water use in an effort to ease the demand on Lake Mackenzie and conserve future water supplies.

As of Friday, June 24, Lockney had started up two of their three wells and by the end of the week the city expects to have the third well operating. Floydada is now using four of their six wells. The city of Tulia has also joined in the effort to help the water supply.

The city wells are in operation in the Floyd County cities Monday-Friday, from 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Lake Mackenzie continues to supply the water in the evenings and on week-ends.

The cities had earlier been contacted by Lake Mackenzie's General Manager, Roy E. Garris, requesting voluntary assistance on the part of the cities. According to Garris, "The level at the lake continues to fall at a rate of about a foot per month. With the member cities making use of their wells during the work week, we can slow the lake drawdown and conserve this valuable water supply as long as possible."

According to Lockney's Water Superintendent Dickie Lambert, "Lake Mackenzie had a six inch rise in the water level after recent rains but the lake is already down again to 80 feet."

"We are just trying to conserve. They are still drawing water out of the middle gate at the Lake so it is not considered very bad yet."

"We don't need to ration now," said

BY THE WAY!

BY ALICE GILROY

I'm waiting for Hertz Rent-A-Car to jump on the hysteria bandwagon and to put out a new commercial to subsidize all the Simpson coverage on TV.

In the commercial O.J. Simpson can be seen running through the airport jumping over luggage with the police in hot pursuit (they won't be running too fast because they don't want O.J. to hurt himself). O.J. can grab the keys to the car from the Hertz clerk and run out of sight. An announcer can end the commercial with, "Hertz rent-a-car—for when you're REALLY in a hurry."

It would be really funny if it wasn't so tragic. What's almost as sad as Simpson's murdered wife, Nicole, and her friend, Ronald Goldman, is the feeding frenzy of the media and the sick reactions of some Californians.

Viewers were treated to non-stop coverage of a 45 mile per hour chase (lasting over one hour) with police behind Simpson. It wasn't really a chase—it was a follow.

Since newscasters don't really need to describe what is obvious on the screen (there is a Ford Bronco in front and at least 15 police cars behind)—the broadcasters kept the camera rolling and filled in with drivel and absurd conversation.

We were treated to "newsmen and women" wondering out loud if this made O.J. "look more guilty" — WELL DUH!

One helicopter ran out of gas and while he returned to base to fill up we had to watch Connie Chung and Dan Rather discuss the situation and give a play by play of the police cars following the Bronco.

Peter Jennings and Barbara Walters (on 20-20) were treated to a "live" phone conversation with a man who called in and told them he had a great view of what O.J. was doing (after O.J. had stopped at his home). The "newsmen" went to work and asked very pertinent questions—"What is O.J. doing now?"

The caller told them stuff like, "I can see O.J. with a gun to his head," and "Now he is putting it down. He has his head down and he is crying. Now he is wiping the tears away. Now he is holding the gun to his head"—etc., etc.

What a scoop. After the guy hung up somebody in the "newsroom" traced the call. Surprise—it was a fake. The fellow was calling from Ohio.

I thought it was unfair for Jennings and Walters to label him a fake. He could have been psychic. That would have made a better story.

I was watching CNN when they brought O.J. to jail. They put a news-woman on the air who literally babbled. I almost felt sorry for her. There was nothing to say—but once again the news had to be created to fill up time. This newswoman told us her name and the camerawoman's name. She asked if there was a "legal expert" in the studio. They told her No. She said she wished she had a legal expert with her to tell us all what O.J. might plead when he gets inside (It went downhill from there).

The poor broadcaster continued, "He might plead insanity—I don't know. I mean it's obvious he's not in his right mind. I mean—uh—uh—the things he has been doing is crazy. I wonder what he is going to plead.—I—"

Mercifully for her, and us, the station cut her off.

Meanwhile crowds have gathered wherever Simpson is to cheer him on. His fans are still proud of him—except for the feminists.

The feminist advocates are mad at the cheering crowds who rooted for Simpson's escape. The African-American activists are mad because Simpson is being treated unfairly by the white media.

One fan encourages everyone to be faithful to O.J. even if he is guilty, "He just needs help," says the fan. "He is just like anybody else." (Speak for yourself.)

The normal person with any common sense and half a brain is never heard from.

The "respected and real" news media acting like TV Tabloids was a spectacle to behold.

Will we ever swing back to common sense and decency. Let me rephrase that—Will the major networks ever swing back to common sense and decency?

Oh well—it will make a great commercial.

book credits Mr. Duncan with getting him in trouble over his famous book deal. You no doubt remember that deal, gentle reader. It was one more thing, in an accumulation of things, that caused the illustrious Speaker to quit his post in Washington and go back to Fort Worth. The scheme involved certain friends and/or friendly interests purchasing vast quantities of a much-ignored paperback book the speaker had "written", which was little more than bound copies of speeches he had made over the years. It was a way of (1) making a few bucks, and (2) getting around the "honorarium" thing, they thought. Even some Democratic Congressmen were embarrassed. So the Speaker quit.

We hesitate to give advice to people in government, as our readers know, but we think it would be better if Mr. Sarpalius defended himself, rather than having a government-paid flack to do the job. He is, after all, the congressman, and we don't think voters throughout the District are particularly impressed with the idea of a staff aide, even a highly paid one, constantly acting as if his thoughts and his Congressman's thoughts are one and in the same. There in lies trouble for the Congressman.

Oh well. In time Mr. Rostenkowski will have his day in court, if he doesn't cop a plea before it's all over. And if he doesn't cop a plea, we have the feeling that he will not be the only one embarrassed before the final verdict is rendered. Mr. Sarpalius may yet wish to "reconsider" his votes on the matter. Not that it can change anything. But one ought never be afraid to say "I was wrong" when he sometimes casts a wrong vote. Unless, of course, he truly believes he was right.

Floydada's FNB awarded 5-Star Rating

Bauer Financial Report, Inc., a Coral Gables, nationally recognized bank research firm, has announced that the First National Bank of Floydada has earned another five-star rating. This prestigious award places First National Bank of Floydada at the top level of banking for safety, strength and performance.

The most recent award is based on an analysis of financial data filed by First

First National Bank of Floydada's five-star rating, the highest rating awarded, indicates that both its tangible capital ratio and risk-based capital ratio, the two ratios most watched by regulators, exceed two times federal regulatory requirements. In addition, First National Bank of Floydada's delinquent loans and repossessed assets are manageable, it is soundly invested and it earned a profit in the period ended December 31, 1993.

"First National Bank of Floydada has earned a five-star rating in each of the last 21 reporting quarters," said Paul A.

Floydada City Manager Gary Brown. "We just have to be rational in how we use our water. We have already worked out a watering schedule for the schools where they will rotate watering of the different campuses. That will help the city quite a bit."

According to Brown Mackenzie is licensed by the Health Department to treat 3 million gallons of water per day. As long as the cities are using more they will need to supplement that usage.

"Floydada is allowed approximately 780,000 gallons of Lake Mackenzie water a day," said Brown. "We have been exceeding 1 million gallons a day—which is normal for summer months."

"Even though the water authority is still drawing out of the middle gate, as the water goes down the surface area for pumping decreases and the drawdown increases on a per foot basis. Making use of our wells will stretch out the life of the lake."

The commissioners reviewed departmental requests for budgetary considerations for the coming fiscal year. No significant increases were noted and further discussions will be during future meetings. The commissioners stated that they do not anticipate any tax increase above the rate which will be necessary to create the same tax revenue they estimated for the current year.

Attending the session were County Judge Bill Hardin, Commissioners Bearden, Jackson, Taylor and Bishop, County Treasurer Glenna Orman, Justice of the Peace for Precincts 1 & 4 Tim Burge, Margaret Herrera and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

City council approves ordinance banning yard waste from landfill

FLOYDADA — Members of the Floydada City Council approved by unanimous vote, an ordinance banning yard waste from the Floydada Municipal Landfill during the regular June 16 meeting. Ordinance #775 becomes effective July 1, 1994 on a motion by City Councilman Clar Schacht and seconded by Councilman Albert Hill Sr.

The ordinance prohibits yard waste from being deposited in the landfill. It also makes it unlawful to place yard wastes in undesignated dumpsters. A violation of the provisions could result in a fine of up to $200.00.

This ordinance does not affect the current program to separate grass clippings and tree limbs as part of the Floydada recycling programs. Residents may still deposit grass clippings in the green dumpsters as they become available and grass clippings and tree limbs will continue to have a designated place at the landfill. They cannot be dumped in the pit.

According to City Secretary Sharon Quisenberry, the ordinance was enacted to provide for enforcement of violations if someone puts yard waste in trash dumpsters or otherwise disposes of it in an improper manner.

Cindy Dudley, manager of the Floydada Housing Authority, came before the council during the June 16 regular session to report that funding has been received for the remodeling of the original forty units of public housing in Floydada. Dudley also reported that the housing authority is applying for funding to renovate an additional 18 units built.

Included in this application for a Comprehensive Improvement Assistance Plan grant is a request for funds to build a 3000 square foot community building which would contain a full kitchen and conference room according to Dudley. The facility would be available for use by residents of housing authority units as well as the public. Dudley asked the council to consider donating the necessary lots to the housing authority for the building of the center as the cost of lots for the structure have to be included in the grant request.

The issue divided the council after a motion was made by Councilman Leroy Burns and seconded by Schacht. The motion stated that the city would sell the lots to the housing authority for $500.00 each. Council members indicated a reluctance to donate the lots at no cost. Councilman Wayne Tipton joined the pair in voting for the motion.

Voting against the motion were Councilmen Eric Cornelius, Dale

Lawson and Hill. Mayor Hulon Carthel broke the tie, voting against the motion. He expressed the opinion that $500.00 per lot was too much to ask of the housing authority.

Schacht then made a motion to sell the lots for $250.00 each. This was seconded by Hill and approved with a vote of five to one with Burns opposing the motion. Further discussion may be held after the housing authority examines the offer and makes a decision on the matter.

Plans for the expansion and renovation of City Hall are progressing, and bids will be taken for the main building structure. The estimated cost is in excess of the amount which may be obligated without taking bids. This is the first of several steps to be taken in completing the work with the city acting as its own contractor on the project. Motion to advertise for bids was made by Burns, seconded by Tipton and approved by unanimous vote.

Floydada will be more aggressive in seeking demolition of dilapidated structures under city ordinances in the future. The city demolition and beautification projects had been on hold until the reopening of the landfill. With it now in operation, structures in violation will once more be on the agenda.

The first to be addressed is the building at 501 1/2 West Virginia, north the old Exxon station. The building belongs to Selia Dias who has volunteered to allow the city to tear it down. The city will advertise for bids on a motion by Burns with a second from Hill. All voted in favor.

... Action concerning an emergency management ordinance was postponed as the documents were not yet ready for discussion.

A written complaint from Monte Williams addressed what he considered to be the operation of a mechanic shop out of a residence at 128 West Crockett, across the street from his home. Williams indicated that he felt conditions around the house, such as cutting torch storage and customers double parking, equipment left in the open, vehicles up on blocks, and a module truck in the driveway, detract from the neighborhood and present a hazard to children. He asked that the council enforce the existing zoning ordinance to clear up the matter.

Carlos Trevino, who resides at 128 West Crockett, was present at the meeting and stated that he did not operate such a business from his home. He told the council that he ran an insulation business from his home, but that he often was paid in cars rather than cash. He said that he did work on vehicles belonging to himself and that people often came to ask his opinion or advice concerning their vehicles.

Council members instructed the city building inspector, Jesse Morales, to inspect the premises and bring a report back to the council. A motion by Burns, seconded by Hill, tabled the issue until the report is received. All voted in favor.

... City Manager Gary Brown asked the council to authorize a second application to Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission (TNRCC) in an effort to obtaining a grant toward the purchase of a chipper/shredder to be used by the city and to support local solid waste management plans and programs. The original grant was unfunded, but more funds are now available. A motion by Cornelius, seconded by Tipton approved the request by unanimous vote.

who owns the ambulance utilized by Floydada EMS. Farris replied that the title to the ambulance is held by CHD.

The next inquiry concerned the contract between Dr. Albert and CHD. Stepp asked why the board had included a provision in the contract whereby in addition to paying Dr. Albert $125.00 per hour for his services, the district also agreed to give Albert the "profits", if any, from the clinic at the end of the year. Farris replied that the clinic is not supposed to be a profit making business and that it was decided that this type of an incentive bonus would encourage the physician to generate enough business for the clinic to ease the tax burden in the future.

Stepp indicated that he felt the board should have considered reinvesting the profits, if any, in equipment or services to benefit those seeking care at the clinic.

The final item Stepp addressed was the operation of a hospital. He asked if there were any plans to open the hospital in the future. He based his question on the fact that the enabling legislation specifically states that the district is created to provide a hospital or hospital system for the care of the indigent. Farris replied that there are no plans to open the hospital.

The attorney stated that the primary duty of the district is to provide care for the indigent and that other state statutes offer alternatives to providing a hospital. He added, "Just looking at the enabling act does not provide a clear view of the duties of a hospital district."

EMS MATTERS DISCUSSED

Farris told the board he would like to see them consider purchasing another ambulance for use by the Floydada EMS. He indicated that he would like to see the present unit, which has 30,000 miles on it, relegated to backup status and a new unit used as the primary ambulance.

According to Farris, there have been situations in which the ambulance was in use or out of service and Lockney had to provide backup assistance for the Floydada EMS. He stated that Floydada is one of the few communities in our area that does not have two ambulances.

No action was taken on the issue at this time.

The second EMS item on the agenda was discussion and a decision concerning an addendum to the previously approved EMS agreement providing a monthly subsidy to the service and funding for erection of a permanent facility for the emergency medical service. Under that agreement, the building and equipment reverts to the ownership of CHD if the EMS ceases to operate.

No provision was made for the land which was deeded to Floydada EMS by the City of Floydada and by the Hollums family. The addendum specifies that the land will pass to CHD if it is no longer used for the purposes set forth for EMS. According to Farris, this addendum would need to be approved by the board and by the board of Floydada EMS.

Motion to approve the addendum was made by Heflin and seconded by Assiter. All voted in favor. The document will now be sent to EMS for approval.

INDIGENT CARE DISCUSSIONS

Indigent care claims in the cost of almost $60,000.00 have been reduced to less than $30,000.00 which the district will be obligated to pay according to Clinic Administrator Bob Ericson. Working with the Texas Department of Health and the care providers, appropriate deductions and adjustments have lowered the three qualified applications to that amount.

Ericson stated that the three eligible claims stem from a gunshot wound, surgery and treatment for a jail inmate, and an arm injury. Heflin asked, "What would make a gunshot victim and a jailbird eligible?"

Ericson explained that eligibility is calculated on the basis of residency, income and age. The applicant must live in CHD. Applicants must meet certain income guidelines and be of legal age, or be a dependent child. He added that the residency requirement is fairly easy to meet, but the income guidelines are rather detailed and strict, making it difficult to meet all three requirements in most cases.

Turner asked if there is a way to determine what claims have been paid in the past. He said that a former board member had told him that he checked with Austin and found out that the district had never paid an indigent claim. Turner wanted to know if this was the case. Assiter told the board that she believed some had been paid since she had been a board member.

Ericson replied that the district is responsible for paying indigent claims, but is not required to report the payments to any state agency. He did not have information about the payment of past claims at this time. He suggested that the board establish a policy designating approved providers for indigent care. No action was taken concerning indigent care at this time. Final figures for payment of the three pending claims should be available at the July meeting and action could be taken then.

He also reported that hiring of clinic staff has also been completed, with Susan Green now on staff as lab technician, Betty King coming on July 11 as registered nurse and Maybelle Enriquez due to arrive July 27 as office assistant. The nurse practitioner is also scheduled to begin working in the clinic this week.

Ericson reported that efforts are underway to get equipment exchanged to downsize to appropriate machines for CHD use. The equipment now on lease is more suitable for a major hospital. Also underway are efforts to clean up the x-ray equipment which was never properly cleaned and shelved in December.

... Board members approved the sale of tax title Lot 9, Block 8, Original Town (729 E. Thornton) to Patricio Mendoza Jr. for $150.00. The sale will be final when all taxing entities involved have approved it.

Floydada Nursing Home recognizes June birthdays

by Lorilla Bradley
With June we're promised summer
And seems it's almost here
With showers and flowers abundant
Let's all rise up and cheer!

Mrs. Galloway we honor
...Her years are 94....
She is a lovely lady
As we have said before!

We greet our Mrs. Fulton
At this her special time...
You'll always find her smiling
Come rain or snow or shine!!

Mrs. Hobbs we honor
On this her special day...
May every one be better
All along the way.

We welcome Doris Hillin
Who came to make this home....
And with these lovely people
She'll never feel alone!

We welcome Mrs. Reynolds...
...Someone nice to know....
You'll find she is a "jewel"
Through years that come and go.

Another one we welcome
...Her name is Thelma Jones...

Her hobby is her quilting and
Each square has lovely tones.

To cheer these lovely ladies
Let's do the Birthdat song
So join us as we sing it
And come out good and strong!

Thursday, June 16, was birthday time at the rest home with members of the City Park Church of Christ hosting. The Hesperian photographer came for the picture taking followed by everyone being ushered into the dining room.

The honorees wore fresh corsages compliments of Williams Florist and Card Shop and their places were mared with special cards at the "honor" table. A brief history of the life and times of each honoree was read.

Then came the reading of the poem with all joining in the singing of the Happy Birthday Song.

A delicious refreshment plate of iced birthday cake and angel food cake complimented with a delightful fruit punch was served to the honorees, guests, home residents and employees.

The next party will be Thursday, July 21, at 2:30 p.m. You are invited to visit with your friends and loved ones at this special time.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

by Jan McMarrian
We have two new residents in our nursing home, Thelma Jones and Hershel Hammonds. They were given a basket and welcomed to the facility by the residents welcome wagon.

We had a very nice birthday party this month. We missed Mrs. Holcomb being there but she had a doctors appointment so we understood. But she enjoyed her cake after she returned.

First day of summer the 21st we had a very good time. We had a picnic at the facility and we would like to thank the residents from Lockney's facility who came and helped us make it such an enjoyable day.

Senior Citizens Rockins

by Gene Newton
There were 51 present at the last meeting and everyone enjoyed a delicious meal and fun games. The tickets are now on sale for a quilt hand made by the senior citizens. If you would like to sell or buy some tickets contact Geneva Barclay. Listen folks, on June 30 (Thursday) we will have a pot luck with homemade ice cream so if you can make ice cream please do so. Barbee and Glasscock exchange wedding vows

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Barbee of Tyler and Mr. and R.C. Glasscock of Lindale are proud to announce the marriage of their children, Shayla D'Lee Barbee, and David Ray Glasscock. The double ring ceremony was held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, June 4, 1994, in the auditorium of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church of Tyler, with Pastor Sherman Mayfield officiating.

Cousin of the bride, Misty Barbee Mims, served as Matron of Honor, and Shannon Straley was bridesmaid. They each wore mauve and rose spring floral tea-length dresses with puffed sleeves, fitted bodice, and crisscrossed backs. Each carried bouquets of mauve and rose miniature roses with mauve and rose satin streamers. Each also wore gold heart and pearl drop earrings, given to them by the bride.

Mr. Randy Morgan, served as Best Man, and Mr. Bob Chapman was the Groomsman. Mr. Shannon Barbee, brother of the bride, and Mr. Buddy Mims served as ushers. All were attired, as was the father of the bride, in black tuxedos and tails, with mauve detail. Each wore ivory rose bud boutonnières.

The bride, escorted by her proud father, wore a tea-length ivory off-the-shoulder satin, with lace overlay, fitted gown. Something old was her mother's first wedding band, sewn in the hem of her dress. Her wedding attire was something new. Something borrowed was her mother's diamond drop necklace, and something blue was on her garter. She carried a bouquet of mauve, rose, and ivory miniature rosebuds that belonged to her Matron of Honor, Misty Mims. She also wore pearl drop earrings, given to her by Misty.

The mother of the bride and the mother of the groom each lit a candle of the unity candle as they were escorted to their seats. After guests were seated "I Cross My Heart" was placed and then vows were exchanged before the bride and groom lit the unity candle in conclusion of the ceremony. A reception followed, after which the bride and groom left for Shreveport, Louisiana.

Among numerous friends and family in attendance, special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Bennett, and Mrs. Velma Warren, all of Floydada, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Ollie Luce, of Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Glasscock, and Taylor Nicole, daughter, will reside in Mineola, Texas where the groom is employed with Entex. The bride is employed with Kinsey Pharmacy in Tyler.

Floydada students make USAA All-American Scholars list

FLOYDADA—The United States Achievement Academy has announced that Michael Palacios, Maria Rangel, and Kylan Sanders have all been named an All-American Scholar.

The USAA has established the All-American Scholar Award Program in order to offer deserved recognition to superior students who excel in the academic disciplines. The All-American Scholars must earn a 3.3 or better grade point average. Only scholars selected by a school instructor, counselor or other qualified sponsor are accepted. These scholars are also eligible for other awards given by the USAA.

Palacios, who was nominated in science, attends Floydada Junior High School. He was nominated by his teacher, Mrs. Deanna Logan.

Rangel and Sanders, who attend R.C. Andrews were nominated by Mrs. Jones teacher at R.C. Andrews Elementary school.

They will appear in the All-American Scholar Directory, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in American history. Certainly, winners of the All-American Scholar Awards should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects All-American Scholars upon the exclusive recommendations of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors. Once awarded, the students may be recognized by the USAA for other honors.

Chadwick to coach at Stephen F. Austin

by Bill Gray

Royce Chadwick, a 1976 graduate of Floydada High School, has been named head basketball coach of the Stephen F. Austin Ladyjacks at Nacogdoches, Texas. He is the son Mrs. Jackie Chadwick of Floydada, and Kelly Chadwick, a coach at Central Arizona Junior College (and former girls' coach in Floydada).

Chadwick, a successful coach at every level of women's basketball, graduated from Southwestern Oklahoma State, Weatherford, Oklahoma. After securing an accounting degree, he returned to college to pursue a coaching career. It was a wise choice.

His first stop was at Olton High School where he guided the Fillies to a 21-5 record and a district championship. Chadwick was named District 5-2A Coach of the Year in 1983. He moved to the collegiate ranks in 1985 and twice led Panhandle State (Oklahoma) to the NAIA National playoffs.

In five seasons at Big Springs' Howard College, Chadwick compiled an enviable 148-21 record while building the Lady Hawks into a national power. The Lady Hawks were ranked No. 1 in the nation for most of the 1993-1994 season. Chadwick has an impressive 231-91 overall career record as he becomes the sixth coach at Division I Stephen F. Austin.

The Ladyjacks won their seventh-straight Southland conference Championship last season and finished with a 23-7 record. They lost to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA tournament. They reached the "Sweet Sixteen" of the NCAA tournament in 1992 and 1993.

In 1993, the year of Texas Tech's Championship Campaign, Stephen F. Austin was defeated by Vanderbilt 59-56 in the semi-finals of the NCAA Midwest Regionals. A week later Tech's Lady Raiders turned back Vanderbilt 60-46 in the semi-finals of the national tournament in Atlanta, Georgia.

With his appointment to the post at Stephen F. Austin, Chadwick becomes the first graduate of Floydada High School to be a head coach of a Division I team.

Potential for weevil infestation equal to or greater than last year

by Roger K. Haldenby BOLL WEEVIL ALERT
Current data indicate that the potential for a heavy boll weevil year in 1994 is high. Boll weevil infestations during the 1994 season could be equal to, or greater than, the infestations of 1993.

Although this past winter was somewhat colder than the winter of 1992-1993, extended periods of cold weather needed to cause high boll weevil mortality did not occur. This makes the fourth winter in a row that was quite mild from the overwintering boll weevil standpoint.

The mild winter seems to have overridden the benefits of last year's early fall. CRP acreage is probably making a contribution to the problem and providing more overwintering sites, especially during these mild winters. Ideal growing conditions over the past few weeks are bringing on the 1994 crop very quickly. Our current fore casts indicate that around 13% of the total emerging population will fall into the effective emergence category.

Overwintered boll weevil emergence is expected to continue past mid-July. Much of this crop is now squaring. Weevils emerging now are able to survive and reproduce in this crop.

Producers in the following counties should be especially aware of the need to monitor their fields for boll weevils: Andrews, Crosby, Floyd, Hall, Lynn, Motley, Borden, Dawson, Gaines, Howard, Martin, Scurry, Briscoe, Dickens, Garza, Kent, Midland, and Terry.

Earlier planted fields will soon be producing squares at, or approaching, pencil eraser size. This is the minimum size square required for a weevil grub to complete its development.

If you are running traps and are averaging more than four weevils in a trap the week prior to the appearance of match head sized squares, you will probably need to spray for weevils when squares are pencil eraser in size. Trap catch numbers between 2-4 would indicate the probable presence of significant weevil infestation potential, even though numbers may not be sufficiency later on to cause economic losses.

It may still be advisable to treat these early weevils to prevent the buildup of large overwintering numbers by this fall.

Alliance formed to promote knowledge and information

Recently a Texas Cropland Improvement Alliance (TCIA) was formed to unite individuals and entities in an effort to promote knowledge and information of crop residue management and other conservation practices that enhance and protect soil and water resources.

One project that TCIA introduced in Texas for the 1994 growing season was called "Farming for Maximum Efficiency", or "MAX". The MAX project was developed by Successful Farming magazine and the conservation Technology Information Center, but has picked up other sponsors, including High Plains Journal, Delta Farm Press, Southeast Farm Press, Southwest Farm Press, and Monsanto Agricultural Group.

The MAX project gives farmers the opportunity to compare the efficiency and economics of different tillage systems, pesticide selection, and fertilizer programs. Such information will allow the participant to evaluate new management techniques that can help their profitability.

The Great Plains Residue Management Conference will be held August 15-17 at the Harvey Hotel in Amarillo. Residue management techniques being used by farmers in the 10 Great Plains states will be emphasized.

Conservation Reserve Program regional meeting will be held in Amarillo on August 23, 1994. These meetings are geared to provide information to CRP contract holders concerning opportunities of keeping the CRP acreage in grass when the contracts expire.

For more information about the Texas Cropland Improvement Alliance contact your local Soil Conservation Service, Highway 70 East, Floydada, Texas or call 983-2352.

Texas Farm Bureau to host Texas Farm Truck Showdown II

Final preparations are underway for Texas Farm Bureau's Texas Truck Showdown II, set for July 7 in Kerrville. The head-to-head competition will pit Ford, Chevrolet and Dodge 3/4 ton, 4X4 turbo-diesel trucks against each other in a series of rigorous trials simulating farm and ranch conditions.

The Showdown will highlight Texas Farm Bureau's 1994 Summer Commodity Conferences, which will begin at the YO Ranch Hotel on July 6 and conclude on July 8. Texas Truck Showdown co-sponsors are DTN (Data Transmission Network), Farmer's Grain Company, Kerrville, and Continental Belton.

James Gohlke, TFB advertising manager and coordinator of the event, said the manufacturers have narrowed the field of 125 applicants wanting to drive and evaluate the trucks to 16 evaluators and 6 alternates.

"These 16 TFB members will compare the trucks in situations that farmers and ranchers run across every day out there on the farm—smoothness of ride, acceleration and power," Gohlke explained.

Gohlke recalled that the first Texas Truck Showdown was in July of 1991, when Chevrolet, Dodge and Ford half-ton and three-quarter ton gas-powered pickup trucks went head to head at Six Flags in Arlington.

"There's a lot of interest out there in Texas concerning the turbo-diesels because that's really the power truck of the manufacturers as far as farm and ranch is concerned," Gohlke added.

Showdown activities will run from 1-6 p.m. in the Louise Hays Park on the banks of the Guadalupe and will be free of charge to spectators. Concessions will offer hamburgers, hot dogs and soft drinks. Spectators are advised to bring lawn chairs as seating is limited.

Each manufacturer will have three to four trucks on display at the park during the truck competition, according to the TFB Showdown coordinators, and KRVL radio station will be doing a remote broadcast throughout the event.

COTTON NEWS

The irrigated, and parts of the country that received scattered showers on rain fed cotton, continues to make excellent progress as the continued hot weather speeds crop development along. Plant monitoring data puts our country cotton at 2.69 inches tall, 3.4 total nodes, 4.26 node of 1st fruiting branch and 100% square set. No fields have been observed that were losing plants to desiccation, many acres are water stressed but still alive. Cotton can tolerate severe water stress during seedling-early square stage and still recover when rains arrive though it does decrease yield potential.

The thrip pressure has been moderate to high but has now declined to almost nothing the past 10 days. Watch for flea-hoppers on squaring cotton.

Where soils are drying, LEPA and sprinkler irrigation should be initiated now that most irrigated fields are squaring. Even furrow irrigated fields may be ready for an alternate now irrigation, if a full profile was not provided at pre-irrigation and the days to water one field exceeds 10. Squaring is also an excellent time to apply nitrogen, either in the pivot water, or soil applied.

On the economic side, contracts for 1994 cotton at $0.20 over loan have been offered by some smaller merchants.

Some legislative news would be that the Farm Service Agency concept is moving through Congress, largely intact, with SCS under a separate Natural Resources conservation Agency. Prospects look very dismal for ag appropriations over the next few years, due to the constantly diminishing importance of agriculture compared to urban concerns, in the eyes of Congress.

If you eat, you are involved in agriculture!

Now that we know you are involved, we encourage you to get even more involved by !. Learning what agriculture has, is and will continue to do for you; 2. Finding ways that you can help insure that we continue to have the safest and least expensive food and clothing supply in the world; and 3. Educating those around you concerning the importance of a viable agricultural industry to you and yours.

 the bid for construction of the sewer line project in the recently annexed area on the Ralls Highway. The bid for the work was $51,712.50 and accepting it was recommended by McMorries and Associates, the city's consulting engineers. Work will not begin for several weeks as it will take time to get the sewer lift station to be installed. Motion was made by Tipton, seconded by Cornelius and approved with Burns abstaining.

the bid was made by Tipton and seconded by Hill. The sale will not be final until all taxing entities involved in the sheriff sale property have approved the bid.

... Minutes of the previous meetings were approved and the payment of monthly bills was authorized.

The city managers report touched briefly on the fact that the city is supplementing the water supply from city wells during periods of peak usage. Mackenzie Water Authority capabilities are stressed during these times and the city must provide for the additional water needed from its own resources.

Brown also reported that the support, participation and cooperation of city residents in implementing the recycling programs has been very satisfactory. He also said that long term plans for the city need to include a return to handling their own trash pickup and waste hauling to the landfill. Getting the system up and running could take a year or more, but would benefit the city by keeping the money at home.

The council entered an executive session for the purpose of discussing the purchase, exchange, lease, or value of real estate as provided for by the local government code and the open meetings legislation. No action followed the more than an hour long closed session.

Attending the Thursday evening session were Mayor Hulon Carthel, City Councilmen Dale Lawson, Albert Hill Sr., Clar Schacht, Leroy Burns, Wayne Tipton and Eric Cornelius, City Manager Gary Brown, City Secretary Sharon Quisenberry, City Attorney Karen Houchin, Monte Williams, Riddley Gibson, Jim Doucette, Carlos Trevino, Jessie Morales, Sudy Cochran and Cindy Dudley.

DPS tips for summer travel

It's vacation time and time to start thinking about our summer travel plans. Major Lamar Beckworth with the Texas Department of Public Safety says, "With a little bit of forethought, our summer travels can be made easier and a lot safer."

Basic planning includes a vehicle safety check of belts, hoses, fluid levels, lighting, treadwear and air pressure of tires, cooling and ventilation system and safety belts. Drivers should be rested and free of alcohol and strong medications. Drivers should be familiar with highway numbers and speed zones they will be traveling.

When traveling, be sure to use your safety belts, be alert for dangerous drivers and road conditions. Major Beckworth encourages motorists to use headlights day and night to see and be seen. Frequent breaks are also recommended to relieve stress.

Motorists entering large cities should plan their trips to avoid rush hour traffic and watch for farm implements and other slow moving machinery in rural areas.

Major Beckworth reminds Texas motorists that many people lose their lives within 25 miles of departure and/or destination. This fatal fact is due in large part to excessive speeds and not wearing safety belts. Remember to buckle up, be alert and have a great vacation this summer.

Have a nice day!
