Lockney man dies in auto accident

The "crime" bill has now passed both houses of Congress. As this is written it awaits only the President's signature to become law.

David Balderas Jr., 32, of Lockney was tragically killed Saturday, August 27, when the vehicle he was driving, rolled over and burned on FM 378, six miles southwest of Lockney.

Police and the Fire Department were called to the scene of the one-vehicle accident at 12:30 p.m.

DAVID BALDERAS JR.

Under the cover of a "crime" bill, Mr. Clinton and his friends in Congress have succeeded in resurrecting and placing into law many of those social spending programs previously turned down by Congress. Early in Mr. Clinton's administration, many similar programs were advanced as "economic stimulus" measures, without which, the President said, dire consequences would be visited upon the American economy. In truth, they were nothing but legislative devices by which vast amounts of money could be transferred from working people to those "inner city" constituents who helped elect Mr. Clinton, along with many big city mayors and Congressmen. With almost solid opposition from Republicans, and with sufficient help from discerning Democrats, the programs were turned down, happily. The economy, which had been heading upward for many months, continued its upward climb, without the defeated "stimulus" package.

Balderas was driving north in a 1987 Chrysler when he failed to negotiate a curve. According to Floyd County Sheriff Charlie Overstreet, "It appeared the vehicle left the road, flipped over and burned."

Balderas was pronounced dead at the scene. He was born Aug. 5, 1962, in McAlester and married Teresa Arellano on May 19, 1984, in Tahoka. The couple has three children, a nine-year-old daughter Analisa, an eight-year-old son, David

III and Benjamin, who is 10 years old. Balderas was very active in his church, the San Jose Catholic Church, where he was a member of the Men's Sacred Heart Class and president of the parish council. He was also a past den leader with the Lockney Boy Scouts.

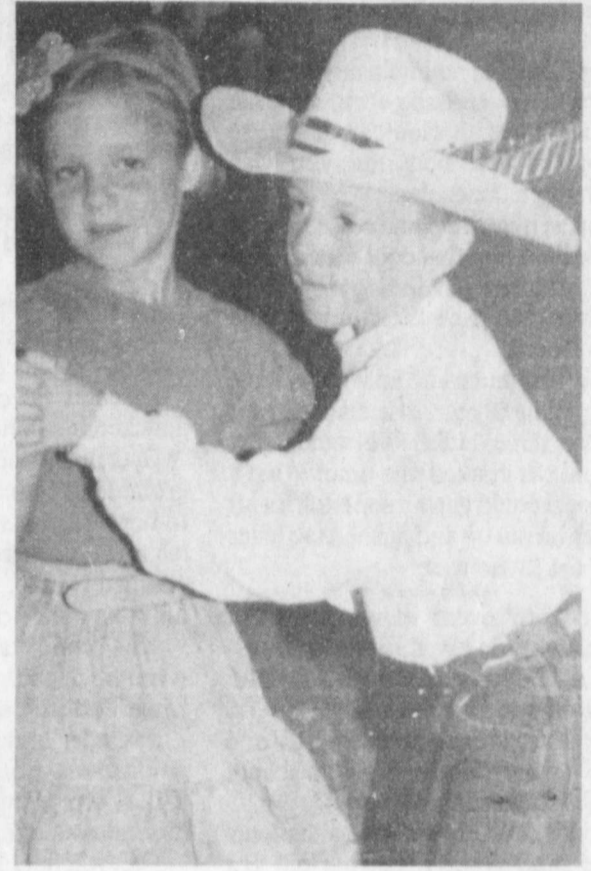

He was first assistant manager at the McDonald's restaurant in Plainview, where he had worked for 10 years. Balderas was also a salesman for Primerica Insurance.

Rosary for Balderas was recited at 7:30 p.m., Monday, August 29, in Moore-Rose-White Funeral Home Chapel.

Services were at 10 a.m. Tuesday, August 30, 1994, in San Jose Catholic Church. The Rev. Tim Schwertner, pastor, officiated. Burial was in Idalou Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife and children; his parents David Sr. and Guadalupe Balderas of Lubbock; four sisters, Blanca Rodriguez of Lubbock, Ninfa Ochoa of Lockney, Yolanda Gonzalez of Lawton, Okla., and Rosa Elia Savala of Corpus Christi; and two brothers, Manuel Sr. of Plainview and Alberto of Lubbock.

One-Two-Three-Turn-Two-Three

LOCKNEY'S STREET DANCE during Old Fashioned Saturday provided entertainment for people of all ages. J.W. McPherson was a very popular partner for the young ladies, but Avery Aston appears as if she wanted to make sure both of them were going to start off on the same foot. Once the talking stopped and the dancing began the two of them made a very handsome couple. Staff Photo

Sarpalio speaks at town hall meeting

Congressman Bill Sarpalio appeared to a full house at a town hall meeting in the Floyd County Courthouse, Tuesday morning, August 30.

Sarpalio said he was traveling throughout the 13th Congressional District and speaking at about 4-5 town hall meetings a day. He is currently on the campaign trail while Congress is recessed. Sarpalio faces a Republican challenger, Mac Thornberry, in the November elections.

Sarpalio reviewed the bills that had passed the House of Representatives in the past month, such as the Congressional Accountability Act, which he co-sponsored.

"This bill would basically say that members of Congress must abide by any law that is passed by Congress," said Sarpalio.

"We also passed a bill (in the House) that would downsize the Federal Government. It will reduce 272,000 federal employees by the year 2000. By the year 2000 we should have the same number of federal employees that we had in 1966."

Sarpalio also praised the HR6 Bill, or "the education bill which is the federal funding for elementary and secondary education." Sarpalio said the bill set up 130 different programs and the school districts could pick and choose which programs they want for their district. "Local districts will make the decisions on what programs they want," said Sarpalio.

Sarpalio said the only "mandates" in the bill are that no school can receive federal funding if they do not allow for voluntary prayer in the school. "It also mandates," said Sarpalio, "that no school can receive any federal funding if they teach any type of homosexuality or have any obscene material in their books."

"For this district it amounts to 35 million dollars coming into our schools," said Sarpalio. "I was very pleased to see this bill come about."

"The House and Senate have also passed a Crop Insurance Bill which is going to conference committee as soon as we get back," said Sarpalio.

This bill, according to Sarpalio, will have the farmer paying "$50.00 per crop per county for crop insurance. If you have two sections of cotton it will cost you $50.00. For that $50.00 we were also able to include hail damage."

If you have over 50% loss of your crop you can be reimbursed 65% of the value of that crop. "You will also have the opportunity to buy up and get more coverage," said Sarpalio.

"We will be debating the GAT agreement when we get back," said Sarpalio. "The GAT agreement will increase cotton sales about 1 million bales, wheat 17%, corn about 10%. The unique thing about GAT, if we are successful in passing it, is that it will pay a vital role in the future farm program."

In the area of future CRP allotments, Sarpalio said, "The GAT agreement requires all of the countries that participate to reduce their subsidies by 25%. GAT agreement gave credit to the US for the land that we had already taken out of production, which was basically the CRP program. So if the GAT agreement is approved this year, next year

Floyd County couple suffers injuries in two-car accident

A Floydada couple, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston, were injured in a two-vehicle accident, Wednesday, August 24, on FM 651, three miles south of the Mator Highway (Hwy. 70), when their 1993 Suburban collided with a pickup driven by Louis Bearden, 54, of Floydada. Bearden was not injured.

According to Trooper Marty Lucke, Bearden was headed east on County Road 280 and failed to yield the right of way at the intersection. The Thurston's were northbound on FM 651 and hit the passenger side of Bearden's 1988 Chevrolet Pickup.

Floyd County Sheriff's Deputies, Floydada EMS and the Highway Patrol were called to the scene of the accident. Mr. and Mrs. Thurston were both transported to the Crosbyton Hospital. Mrs. Thurston was later taken by helicopter to Lubbock.

Mr. Thurston, 78, suffered a bruised heart and broken ribs. Mrs. Thurston, 77, received a fractured sternum.

FISD tax rate set at $1.146

FLOYDADA — Trustees for the Floydada Independent School District voted 3 to 1 to set the tax rate for 1994 at $1.146 per $100.00 valuation. Voting in favor of the motion by Mitch Probasco and seconded by Charlene Brown were Probasco, Brown, Trena Simpson, and Steve Lloyd. Board member John Campbell opposed the motion. Don Hardy and Billy Joe Villarreal were not present for the vote.

The newly approved rate represents an almost 8 percent increase from the prior year. Even with the increase, the district is predicting a deficit budget requiring the use of $147,000.00 from reserve funds.

According to administrative assistant Jimmie Collins, the 1994-95 budget expenditures are estimated at $6,086,310.00. Revenues from all sources are placed at $5,938,926.00. The remainder of the funds necessary to finance the school year will have to come from funds now held in reserve.

The proposed budget was approved on a motion by Steve Lloyd with a second from Campbell. The vote was taken before the tax rate was addressed and all voted in favor. A copy of the budget is on file at the administration offices and is open to the public for inspection during regular office hours.

Attending the 1:00 p.m. session of the board on Monday, August 29, were board members Charlene Brown, Steve Lloyd, Trena Simpson, John Campbell and Mitch Probasco, Superintendent Jerry Cannon, administrative assistant Jimmie Collins, Jan Thompson and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

Lockney City Council keeps current tax rate

In a regular meeting, August 26, Lockney City Council voted unanimously to leave the new tax rate the same as last year's tax rate, .39519 per $100.00 valuation.

Alderman Bill Anderson made a motion to raise sewer rates for residential and commercial customers $3.00 a month, which will make residential rates $8.00 a month and commercial rates $9.00 a month. All councilmen were in favor of this motion.

Alderman Stapp made a motion to accept Manuel Solis' bid of $365.67 for lot 40, Block 2, Tuttle addition. Anderson seconded the motion and all were in favor.

Members present at the meeting were Mayor Wofford, Alderman Marr, Stapp, Anderson, Copeland, Zavala and City Secretary Charlotte Hooten.

BY THE WAY!

BY ALICE GILROY

I sure enjoyed Old Fashioned Saturday in Lockney, even if I was subjected to the "Dunkin Booth".

As much as I dreaded the first time the board dropped out from under me, the water actually felt pretty good on that hot day.

It sure is hard to maintain any shred of dignity when everyone gets to see what you look like with clothes sticking to every part of your body that you wish would remain concealed.

As hot as it was and since I seemed to really be enjoying that cool water, I had several children (including my own) who wanted to take their turn on the Dunkin Board.

So my husband came up with an idea. He thought next year, instead of paying $1.00 for three balls, kids could pay $1.00 and get dunked one time! What a good idea. I could get my son back for all the times he ran up and pushed the lever to drop me in the water.

There were several news stories that really caught my eye this week.

Two of them made me very grateful once again that I live in a Lockney.

In Sonora, Texas some moms and dads are angry because of a high school skit for their freshmen orientation.

The skit for the incoming students told the story about a 13 year old girl who uses a coat hanger during an abortion on herself.

And to think—all we had at our orientations were explanations of irrelevant things like what kind of courses will be taught to our students and how parents can get involved in helping their students excel in class.

How boring—compared to abortion skits.

Oh—By The Way—parents wanted the drama teacher and the counselor in charge of the orientation fired.

The superintendent said they wouldn't be fired since the skit wasn't meant to offend anyone.

Oh well, I guess it's OK then.

In Snellville, Georgia, a teacher, Bryan Brown, has been suspended when he refused to go along with the mandatory moment of silence in his class.

The moment of silence came and the teacher kept lecturing.

One teenage girl bowed her head and prayed. Others said they wanted to but were bothered by the teacher talking.

Some students didn't want to pray but they thought the teacher was rude.

Most of the students paid attention to the teacher.

This case will go further in the courts so keep your eyes open for it.

I did find one piece of news that made me laugh.

Remember Michael Fay—the Singapore Vandalizer and cry baby?

Remember his dad, George Fay, milking all that publicity for all it was worth. Everytime you turned around there was dad telling us how wonderful and innocent and undeserving of punishment his son was.

Well—son moved back to America and into his dad's house after the lashings.

He was recently arrested again—but not for vandalism. This time it was for assault—on his dad.

It seems he came home drunk and attacked his father.

Dad made the mistake of trying to ground his intoxicated son. According to news reports, Michael threw down his cigarette, screamed, "Let's go" and charged Daddy. Pop held down his son until the police came.

This "child" is 19 years old. I wonder when he is going to grow up. I wonder when Dad is going to grow up.

I wonder how much money they are going to make off their movie. I wonder if they are going to include this latest misunderstanding in the movie.

I bet Michael Fay was really shaking in his shoes when he went off to the American jail. No doubt he has really learned his lesson and will probably move off to another country because he's afraid of the punishment here.

August 20, at 2:13 a.m., Floydada Police stopped a vehicle at 2nd and Mississippi after they observed the vehicle cross both lanes of traffic and hit a curb. The driver, Sergio Luis Guerrero, 20, of Floydada, was subsequently arrested and charged with DWI.

Sarpalius speaks

when we take up the farm bill we have a great argument that we have to keep the CRP program intact to meet the qualifications of the GAT agreement."

Sarpalius also discussed the controversial crime bill, which he voted against.

Sarpalius said when the crime bill passed the House, the cost was 26 billion dollars, and after it came out of conference committee the cost was 33 billion.

"A lot of pork and gun control was added in conference," said Sarpalius.

"Some of the pork was taken out and it was reduced to 30 billion."

Sarpalius expressed concern over the gun control provisions. "They claim it's 19 assault rifles that have been banned, but the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (the agency which will enforce that bill) put out a list of 180 guns that will be outlawed. ATF claims it will affect 50% of the gun owners in this country."

Sarpalius said, "Washington D.C. has the toughest gun control laws in the nation. It is a felony to own any gun in D.C., yet that city ranks number one in the nation in murders, in drive-by shootings, assaults and rapes."

"The only one you are affecting (with gun control) are law abiding citizens."

Sarpalius also said he was concerned with the way the formula worked (in the crime bill) for getting more law enforcement officers. "I doubt this district will get any more officers."

Sarpalius also said he felt more money should be spent on education and rehabilitation of juveniles instead of building more prisons.

Sarpalius once again defended his vote last year of the budget bill which increased taxes. He credited that bill with creating low interest rates, higher home sales, and creation of new jobs.

Reviewing the budget, Sarpalius said the last time the budget was balanced was in the last part of Pres. Johnson's administration.

Sarpalius said Congress had reduced the deficit three years in a row.

Showing charts reflecting the federal budget, Sarpalius said that 52.5% of the budget is taken up with Entitlements and Mandatory Programs, amounting to 844 billion dollars; Defense Discretionary is 17.0%, or 274 billion; Net Interest is 13.2%, or 212 billion; International Discretionary is 1.3%, or 21 billion and Domestic Discretionary is 16.0% or 257 billion.

"We have to change the laws on the entitlement programs, which are mandatory, before we can cut them and balance the budget," said Sarpalius.

Included in the Entitlement programs is: Social Security, 39.7%, or 335 billion; Food Stamps, 3.1%, or 26 billion; Medicaid, 11.4%, or 96 billion; Medicare, 21.0%, or 177 billion; Unemployment Compensation, 2.8%, or 24 billion; Other Retirement & Disability, 8.8%, or 74 billion; Other Programs, 4.5% or 38 billion, and Other Means Tested Program, 8.7% or 73 billion.

"Health care and Welfare are the two entitlement programs that Congress needs to go in and control costs," said Sarpalius.

"Health care is expected to take up 35% of the budget. This is what is driving the health care debate."

Sarpalius said he felt Congress needs to zero in on the abuses within the system which is driving the cost up. "I don't feel we need to develop new bureaucracy within the government."

Sarpalius said he felt Congress should also look at tort reform and insurance reform. Sarpalius said he had already sent a letter to the President saying he would not vote for any bill which included subsidized abortion and he pledged to those gathered in the courtroom, not to sign any health care bill which he had not read.

Several people expressed their concern with mandates in health insurance and with abuse of emergency rooms by people without insurance.

Don Marble said that at one time he required employees to pick up half of the insurance to cover their families. "In no time," said Marble, "they dropped their insurance because it didn't cost them anything if they just went to the emergency room for treatment."

"I think we also have to do something to shock these doctors," said Marble. "Maybe they should have a $50,000 a year limitation. Farmers know what a $50,000 limitation is. Something has to be done to shock these doctors out of their million dollar houses and Rolls Royce's."

Sarpalius said that Parkland Hospital they had an experiment where they charged everyone who came into the emergency room, $1.00. "Emergency room visits declined by half," said Sarpalius. "People were going in there just to get aspirin because it was free."

Sarpalius gave Pres. Clinton the credit for forcing Congress to deal with the health care problem.

Masons to lay cornerstone at state capitol

FLOYDADA--Jimmy Willson of Floydada will join other officials of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Texas as they lay a cornerstone for the recently completed extension of the Texas State Capitol building in Austin on Saturday, Sept. 17, 1994, at approximately 2:45 p.m. Grand Master, Billy W. Tinsley of Houston will officiate assisted by his Grand Lodge officers. Since the annex is an underground structure, the ceremony will take place at the northeast corner of the area designated for donor stones.

This will mark the second time the Grand Lodge has laid a cornerstone at the capitol, the first having been for the original building in 1888.

For years, masons have symbolically laid cornerstones honoring the great works of architects and builders, pointing with pride to Independence Hall in Philadelphia where Grand Master Benjamin Franklin laid a cornerstone in 1732 and to the National Capitol in Washington, D.C., where George Washington officiated in 1793, as well as to many others.

The public is cordially invited to join the Masons of Texas for this historic and symbolic ceremony.

Ernestina Martinez earns promotion

The 1991 graduate of Lockney High School joined the Marine Corps in November 1991.

CORRECTION

In the first paragraph of an August 25 story about Donald Hardy competing at the National Motocross Championships, a typographical error said Hardy competed in the WMA Nationals in Ponca City, Okla. The story should have said Hardy competed in the NMA Nationals in Ponca City, Okla. We regret the error.

improves upon what we have, rather than throwing the baby out with the bath.

We have long thought that the single most important improvement that could be made in our health delivery system would be in the field of cost containment. If ways can be found to bring down that cost, the coverage (and portability) would take care of itself. Government, per se, cannot, and will not, improve the quality of health care in America or anywhere else. That quality is determined, and will be provided, by those who deliver the health care.

However, government policies impacting the health care system in America can have (and do have) a bearing on the cost of that system, and any attempt to make even modest changes will be fraught with difficulty. The plaintiffs attorneys (those lawyers who make their living by suing doctors, hospitals, drug companies and just about anybody else on behalf of injured or aggrieved parties) will resist any changes affecting them. And, as a practical matter, the plaintiffs attorneys are among the most politically potent groups in Washington.

Liberals and civil rights organizations will resist, bitterly, any attempt to curtail medical benefits now flowing freely to aliens fortunate enough to elude the Border Patrol. (Two-thirds of all births recorded in Los Angeles County in 1993 were to women in this country illegally.)

In short, there are a number of government policies that have contributed to the skyrocketing cost of medical care in America, just as there are a number of governmental policies that have contributed to the overall increase in crime. When, and if, those policies are addressed, we may see some relief. Throwing additional billions of tax dollars into the fray will do little, in our opinion, in solving the underlying problems.

Southwestern Bell to benefit local high schools

Students attending Floydada and Lockney High Schools and 43 other schools in central and western Texas will benefit from an educational support program of Southwestern Bell Telephone.

Beginning September 1, every time a customer in the program's selected area subscribes to a new Southwestern Bell Call Forwarding, Call Waiting, Three-Way Calling or Speed Calling-8 service, Southwestern Bell will donate $2 to the local high school. Each high school stands to receive a maximum of $1,500 during the program, which runs through April 28, 1995.

"We know that our customers who live in the largely rural areas of central and western Texas want their own communities to benefit when they purchase goods and services," said Irasema Velasquez, area manager-external affairs. "This has been demonstrated by research as well as personal contacts with customers. Southwestern Bell is already well-known for its commitment to high-quality education in the communities we serve. We view the program as an opportunity to extend our past support for education while introducing valuable telecommunications services."

The new services -- called EasyOptions<sup>SM</sup> -- are designed to help busy customers more efficiently manage their time and keep in touch with friends, family and business associates.

Customers who buy any of these services from September 1, 1994, through April 28, 1995, will assist their local high school automatically--there's no need to mention the contribution when buying services and no paperwork to complete. To buy the services or obtain more information, customers simply call 1-800-234-Bell (1-800-234-2355) toll-free.

Purchases by customers in each high school area will be continuously tracked during the program's eight months. In May 1995, final figures will be totaled and each high school's board of trustees will receive a contribution check. While Southwestern Bell Telephone requests that the funds be used by the local high school, the money may be used for any educational program, equipment or capital improvement.

"High schools have no shortage of worthy projects," Velasquez explained. "We're glad that Southwestern Bell Telephone is in a position where we can have an impact on education. When high school students receive better educations, everyone in Texas benefits."

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,
I want to thank the many people who were concerned enough to help look for my dog after he got out of my mother's yard last weekend. He was finally found the following Monday morning and I was so relieved. Thank you so much to Rosemary at the Hesperian-Beacon office who had seen him and led us to the area of town where he was found, to the City Police who kept an eye out for him and the many friends and neighbors who also watched for him. It is so hard to lose a pet, but to know that he was in an unknown town, lost and scared made it even harder. Thank you again for all of your help.

Candlelight ceremony joins Mallett-Stapp

Cassidy Laine Mallett became the bride of Andy Ray Stapp in a candlelight ceremony at the Main Street Church of Christ in Lockney. Ed Hull, minister, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mike and Connie Mallett of Lampasas and the granddaughter of Thomas and Janese Lancaster of Lampasas and Odell and Sue Mallett of Burnet.

The groom is the son of Rodger and Belinda Stapp of Lockney and the grandson of Elmer and Maxine Griffith and Dorothy Stapp and the late Louis Ray Stapp of Lockney.

The couple repeated their vows before an altar of candles and fresh flowers. A fifteen-branch candelabra with white tapered candles and an arrangement of assorted purple flowers, fuchsia roses, and rubrum lilies centered the altar. An arrangement of candles and a bed of purple gladiolas, delphiniums, and statice set in ivory tulle provided a backdrop. Arrangements of candlesticks spiraled down each side.

The bride entered beneath a canopy of white tulle and a spray of parchment flowers. Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of bridal satin and organza. Pearls and sequins adorned the bodice and edges of the short off-the-shoulder sleeves and train. Beaded roses designed a soft scalloped effect across the straight neckline in both front and back while organza roses accented the shirred drape across the sleeve. The cathedral length train was adorned with motifs of sequins and pearls and accents of organza roses. A bow in the back edged with pearls draped softly from the waist.

The bride chose a hairpiece of tulle and cascading pearls and carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and mauve stargazer lilies, accented with white Monte Cassino and exotic greenery.

The groom was attired in his Marine dress blues.

Tara Mallett served her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Shana Hallmark, sister of the groom; Mandy Hunter, Angie Clark and Mary Lindsey Poole, all of Lockney. Megan Stapp, cousin of the groom, served as flower girl.

The maid of honor wore a straight fitted floor length dress of purple faille. The sleeves were pleated at the shoulder coming to a tailored fit above the elbow. The dress featured a straight neckline in front with a pleated purple satin strap draped across the shoulder and down the neckline of the low V in back. A wide satin bow finished the dress in the back. The bridesmaids' dresses were identically fashioned in fuchsia. They carried nosegays of fuchsia roses and rubrum lilies with touches of purple statice.

The flower girl wore a tea-length dress of white organza. The dress featured a fuchsia cummerbund and a large bow in back. She carried a basket of rose petals.

Todd Hallmark, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen included Mark Hernandez, Ryan Ford, Bryan Griffith, and Jeff Griffith. Scott Stapp, cousin of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Candlelighters were Jeremy Stapp and Tyrell Stapp, brothers of the groom. Britt Lancaster and Brandon Bills, cousins of the bride, served as ushers. Jenny Phillips of Garden City registered guests.

Special acappella music was provided by Trent Lancaster, Dale Lancaster, Zane Lancaster, and Tom Lancaster, uncles of the bride, and Clint Lancaster and Brandon Lancaster, cousins of the bride. Selections included "As The Deer" and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You". Favorite love songs were played prior to the wedding ceremony. The bride entered to the song, "After All."

RECEPTION

A garden reception followed the ceremony on the church lawn. Members of the houseparty included Chelsa Istre, Melia Lancaster, Lindsey Lancaster and Britten Bills, cousins of the bride, and Misty Watson of Lampasas. Rice bags were distributed by Riley, Aspen and Alicia Lancaster, cousins of the bride.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the West College Church of Christ fellowship hall.

COURTESIES

A miscellaneous shower was given in the home of Mary Louise McCarter in Lockney and by the First Street Church of Christ in Lampasas. The bride was also honored with a shower at Kline Whitis Elementary. A kitchen shower was given in the home of Sylvia Eddy, and a personal shower was hosted by the bridesmaids.

Other pre-nuptial parties included a bridal luncheon in the home of Ginger Mathis of Lockney and a "rice" bag party in the home of Sue Mallett of Burnet.

After a trip to Colorado and other western states, the couple is at home in Vista, California. The groom is stationed at Camp Pendleton, while the bride is a student at Palomar College.

Fortenberry descendants gather

By Carl Lemons

The 43rd Fortenberry reunion was held August 12 and 13 at the Massie Activity Center in Floydada. One hundred and 20 registered Friday evening and several failed to register. First came the evening meal of hamburgers and cake, then oodles and gobs of homemade ice cream. Next, many games and much visiting was enjoyed.

The oldest person attending Friday night and all day Saturday was Thomas Levi Fortenberry, 84, from Duncan, Oklahoma. He was born Aug. 8, 1910 and is the grandson of Thomas Fortenberry, and J.C. (Uncle Ceph's) oldest brother. The youngest that evening was Abigail Elizabeth Smith, seven-week-old granddaughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Vance Mitchell of Floydada.

Levi was still the oldest at Saturday's morning breakfast and Kelly Renea Breckenridge was the youngest. Fifty-five people enjoyed a wonderful wake-up meal.

The family program started at 10:30 a.m. and began with a short memorial followed by a business meeting. Due to changing school schedules the traditional reunion date, second Saturday in August, was changed to the first Saturday in August for 1995, still to be at Floydada's Massie Activity Center. John Sherman Fortenberry, the featured speaker, delivered a wit-sharpening mixture of scriptures, horse-sense, and tomfoolery, both entertaining and worthwhile, not to be missed.

One hundred and 21 people had signed the register before the noon meal was served and, as customary, the number expanded substantially at plate-filling time.

Jackie and Chloe Dell (Fortenberry) Dowd from the tobacco country of Laurel, Indiana, traveled the greatest distance. Chloe Dell is the youngest daughter of the late Jack and Robbie (Conner) Fortenberry and a granddaughter of J.C. and Ann Fortenberry.

Trevor Don Austin Taylor, Oct. 6, 1991, a three-year-old law-enforcer from Las Vegas, Nevada, was Saturday's youngest. Blue-collar worker, Kelly Renea Breckenridge, Oct. 1, 1991, of Rogers, Clinton-state, lost the distinction of being youngest by only five days.

Better Business Bureau warns of gemstones and cash sweepstakes promotional scams

By Nan Campbell, President

The Bureau has received many inquiries on a sweepstakes promotion offering cash prizes and "free genuine gemstones" from Lindenwood Fine Jewelers, out of Canton, Ohio. The offer states there is no purchase required to claim your cash prize and goes on to explain that cash prize winners are entitled to receive two genuine mined diamonds and a genuine ruby red garnet "free". The gemstones have already been mounted in a lady's evening ring by DeVoorst, another division of Lindenwood.

The gemstones are free, however the winner must pay a mounting fee of $19.62. Lindenwood is one of at least 15 different trade names of Suarez Corporation that has marketed jewelry, publications and general merchandise through various promotions since 1971. The Canton BBB reports that the company has responded to complaints which allege confusion over conditions of winning or receiving cash merchandise. This company has so many divisions that they have their own zip code. If you receive something from 44767 zip, it's Suarez Corporation!

Floydada Senior Citizen News

By Margaret Word

FLOYDADA—Last week my sister and her husband, Ella and Cecil Oglesby from Hereford and a sister, Lizzie Mae Reynolds from Amarillo, Jim and myself all went to the Durango, Colo., area and Red River, New Mexico, for a week of visiting and sightseeing. We had a good time.

Irene King attended the Owens family reunion which was held at the Floydada Country Club last weekend. 75 attended.

Irene King, the center's director, attended a workshop on dietitian August 30, Sept. 1 and 2 in Lubbock.

Our sympathy to Frances Weathersbee and Ruth Adams on the loss of their brother, L.H. Gilbreath of Lubbock.

Lillie Dee Perry was a faithful member of our center. Everyday she was there for lunch. Her funeral was held Friday, Aug. 26. We will miss her.

A memorial service for Frances and Billy Staniforth's son and Oleta Wilson's nephew, Bill Staniforth was held Tuesday, Aug. 30. Our sympathy goes out to this family.

Remember our center stays open till 4 p.m. each day, Monday through Friday. However, Monday, Sept. 5, they will be closed due to the Labor Day holiday.

Donations are coming in toward fixing up the center. If you would like to help, please send your donation to the Floydada Senior Citizens Fundraising Project, P.O. Box 573, Floydada, TX 79235.

Espy announces modification to extend first CRP contracts

Secretary of Agriculture Mike Espy has announced that producers holding Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) contracts expiring Sept. 30, 1995 will have the option to modify their contracts to extend the expiration date for a period of one year.

All participants with 1986 CRP contracts will be notified by their local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office of the dates when they may apply to modify their contracts, Espy said. About 2 million acres of cropland were enrolled in the 1986 CRP contracts.

Secretary Espy is utilizing authority provided in the Food Security Act of 1985 to authorize the contract modification.

"Today's action will enable producers whose contracts would have expired in 1995 to continue to keep this highly erodible and other environmentally sensitive cropland out of production, the secretary said. Espy said he is announcing his decision now so that producers can consider this extension option while making long-term decisions concerning this land.

The continuation of the CRP and the extension of contracts will be one of USDA's top priorities during the 1995 Farm Bill discussion. "We plan to work closely with the Congress to continue the CRP in order to achieve our conservation, wildlife and agricultural objectives," Espy said. "However, these first CRP contracts will likely expire prior to passage of the 1995 Farm Bill. To provide the maximum flexibility in continuing the CRP and extending contracts I am offering producers whose contracts expire Sept. 30, 1995 the opportunity to modify their contracts to extend the expiration date."

About 36.4 million acres have been enrolled in the CRP, a program Secretary Espy described as "tremendously beneficial for producers and the general public." He said the CRP has saved soil, expanded wildlife habitat and populations, improved soil, air and water quality, enhanced wetlands, and encouraged tree plantings. "At the same time, it has reduced deficiency payments, strengthened farm income, and helped balance the supply and demand of agricultural commodities," he said.

COTTON UPDATE

In the past few weeks, we have seen a significant boll shed in cotton. This is due to the carrying capacity of these fields being exceeded by boll load. This is a natural compensation and generally not pest related. Small plants with aging, stressed leaves could not hold on to the bolls that were set and heavy square and young boll shed occurred. The plant monitoring program would indicate that we have 4.36 bolls per plant; with an average of 65,000 plants per acre; and 400 bolls per pound. This would be around 1.25 to 1.5 bales per acre. Some dryland cotton is beginning to prematurely pop open due to hot temperatures and dry conditions placing plants under severe stress. Bollworms and aphids are erratic and will likely cause only minimal damage to this mature crop.

Current recommendations to producers would be to discontinue surface irrigation, while some pivot irrigation may still be done where immature bolls still exist. Do not put additional water on, unless you know the soil moisture status. Drying down the soil is necessary to avoid late season quality and harvest problems. Start a harvest aid program with low rates and low cost materials. If the weather stays warm, the 1994 crop should be easier to defoliate and bolls should open just as rapid as the 1993 crop, due to this year's short plants. The percent open boll technique will probably be an imprecise method to time defoliation in most fields. Use the sharp knife - seed inspection method (lack of jelly, seed coat tan, cotyledons dry and tan to yellow) in combination with the Nodes Above Cracked Boll technique.

According to the National Cotton Council's "Cotton's Week" newsletter, the farmer's right to save seed for own use was assured in the House version of Plant Variety Protection Act (H.R. 2927), which was passed on voice vote. Because the Senate version is similar, quick passage into law is expected. Under transition provisions, producers are permitted to save and sell seed varieties already registered. Legislation is necessary to bring U.S. law into conformance with provisions of the International Convention for Protection of New Varieties of Plants. Intellectual property for breeders is protected by requirement that all seed users receive permission from the certificate holder to sell seed for reproductive purposes (known as "brown bag" sales). Prohibition on "brown bag" sales applies only to varieties registered after enactment of new legislation.

Equipment using tax exempt dyed diesel fuel cannot use highways

By Gene Hall
Farm Bureau Director of Information

Agriculture producers beware: if you drive any farm or ranch machinery powered by tax exempt and dyed diesel fuel on the highways you will be subject to penalties administered by the Internal Revenue Service as provided by the Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, advises Ned Meister, director of Texas Farm Bureau's Commodity and Regulatory Activities Department.

Diesel fuel for agricultural (off road) use is exempt from excise and sales tax. Fuel for this use is dyed to distinguish it from diesel sold for "on road" use.

"IRS officials have informed Texas Farm Bureau that the law as now written says no untaxed, dyed fuel can be used by farm or ranch vehicles on the road. If an IRS enforcement officer stops a farmer and draws a sample of diesel containing dye, that producer would be subject to a fine of $10 per gallon or $1,000, whichever is greater," Meister stated.

Texas Farm Bureau, along with the Texas Oil Marketers Association, is sponsoring diesel fuel seminars across the state to inform farmers and ranchers about the tax regulations. The seminars will be conducted by the IRS and the State Comptroller's office.

Meister said there are undoubtedly agriculture producers who are unaware of these regulations and could be fined should they drive a piece of agricultural equipment on a road for any reason. "The state regulations allow for movement of equipment within a ten-mile radius of the farm. The federal rule has no allowances for moving equipment from field to field or farm to farm. We hope to convince the IRS that these regulations are not reasonable," Meister said. "Until then, producers could be fined."

Seminars have been held at Hockley (Harris County) and Archer City (Archer County). Future seminars are planned at Plainview (Hale County), September 8; Waco, September 27; Robstown, (Nueces County), September 29 and Tyler, October 3.

"Farmers and Ranchers for Property Rights" group formed

A group of 29 farm, ranch and agricultural organizations announced the formation of a new property rights coalition -- "Farmers and Ranchers for Property Rights" (FRPR) -- to reaffirm the right of Texans to own and manage their own property. Their efforts will include activity in this year's elections and passage of legislation in next year's state legislative session.

Bob Stallman, President of the Texas Farm Bureau and spokespersons for the coalition, said, "The widening circle of state and federal regulation has put every landowner at risk, particularly those in the agriculture community who use their land to make a living. It is a constitutionally guaranteed right to own and manage private land. Our group intends to be center stage in the effort to reaffirm that right."

Recently, the Federal Fish and Wildlife Service, in its efforts to protect the endangered golden-cheeked warbler in 33 central Texas counties, has proposed mandates that will dramatically curtail what activities can take place on private property. According to a FRPR press release, these mandates could impose serious financial hardship with compliance and curtail activities such as brush control and construction of firebreaks for the purpose of home and land protection.

Tom Beard, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, another spokesperson for the group, stated, "The inability to make range management decisions will adversely affect aquifer recharge and reduce the carrying capacity of land below economic viability. Even private homeowners could be affected if they chose to chop down a cedar tree or build a new fence in their own backyard."

Currently, state and federal governments make no provision to compensate property owners for lost income or property value resulting from these government mandates.

"For the members of this coalition, sustainability of the land is a matter of economic survival," Stallman said. "Often we find agencies of the federal and state governments at the forefront in attempts to restrict the use of the property on which we depend for our livelihoods."

"This is an issue that is do or die on our community. We intend to lead the fight over private property rights and we encourage all Texans who own land to recognize that they too are at risk in the present political environment."

Coalition members of FRPR are: Texas Farm Bureau, Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, Texas Cattle Feeders Association, Farm Credit Bank of Texas, Associated Milk Producers Inc., Texas Poultry Federation, Texas Pork Producers Association, Texas Wildlife Association, Texas Cotton Ginners, Texas Citrus & Vegetable Association, Texas Ag Industries Association, Texas Cotton Producers, Independent Cattlemen's Association, Exotic Wildlife Association, Take Back Texas, Trans Texas Heritage, Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers Association, Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Association, Texas Irrigation Council, Texas Cottonseed Crushers, Texas Grain & Feed Association, Texas Agricultural Cooperative Council, Texas Quarterhorse Association, Texas Association of Dairymen, Rio Grande Valley Sugar Growers, Lumbermen's Association of Texas, Texas Forestry Association, Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association and Range Management.

Longhorns and Whirlwinds meet in '94 season opener

By Bill Gray
The Floydada Whirlwinds and Lockney Longhorns have much more in common in 1994 than just being the only football teams in Floyd County. Both barely missed the post-season playoffs a year ago. Both have new head coaches. Both are short on returning lettermen and returning seniors. And, both are picked to be also-rans in their respective districts.

When these two squads meet this Friday at Lockney, they will resume one of the oldest and most storied rivalries in Texas schoolboy football. Lubbock has the "Battle for the Silver Spurs" (Lubbock High and Monterey), the Permian Basin has the annual "Mojo" versus Midland Lee affair, and the Dallas Kimball - Dallas Carter game usually draws national media attention (plus dozens of college scouts). Thousands will attend those games, but the 2000+ at Lockney this week will generate as much enthusiasm, relatively speaking as any of the aforementioned contests. And, the Floydada - Lockney series is older than any of them.

Floydada's new coach is not unfamiliar with the Longhorns. As top man at Olton, Coach Bryan Davis has faced the "Horns in district play the past four years. But, he will see an entirely different breed of Longhorns when they get the Whirlwinds in their corral. It matters little that the "Winds have prevailed for a while now, at least by the final score. Yes, there have been some "blow-outs," but the "cliff-hangers" have been more common through the years. The Longhorns had the Whirlwinds on the ropes at Wester Field a year ago, only to have Floydada rally in the final minutes for a 14-13 victory.

The seniors on both teams were in elementary school the last time that Lockney won the Floyd County Championship. That point alone gives both squads their own special incentives. For the Whirlwinds, they don't want to be the ones to lose after all these years. For the Longhorns, especially the seniors, it would be great to be the ones that finally knocked off Floydada (after several close attempts in recent years).

Lockney also has a new head coach. Malcolm Moerbe, however, is very familiar with the Longhorn-Whirlwind series, having been a former assistant at Lockney. Moerbe inherits a team that missed the 1993 playoffs due to late-season losses to Shallowater and Springlake-Earth and is projected as a low finisher in District 3-2A for the upcoming season. Nothing could turn things around better for the "Horns and start them on a possible successful campaign than a victory over the "Winds tomorrow night.

Moerbe has retained the wishbone attack, but promises an offense with a lot of different looks. Senior Tanner Johnson takes over at quarterback after receiving post-season honors at split end a year ago, and will be joined in the backfield by veteran halfback Lalo Chavira and fullback Joe Marks. Senior Matthew Raisse (center) and 235-pound tackle Rowdy Boggs will anchor the rebuilt front offensive wall.

The Longhorns' 4-3 defensive unit will also have a lot of new faces filling important slots. Johnson, Chavira, and senior Michael Hernandez are the only returning starters on the stopper unit. Mikhael Durham, all-district a year ago at defensive end, has been moved to line-backer, where he is expected to excel.

The Whirlwinds will counter with a more experienced offensive attack, although their alignment has a new look. Quarterback Sammy Rodriguez returns for his final season and I-Back Pete Cooper is positioned in an ideal spot to take advantage of his speed and agility. Both were named to the All-District 2-3A squad a year ago. Joining them in the explosive backfield are sophomore speedster Vernon Cooper and junior Rance Barnett. Senior Terry Harris and Frankie Luna will also see action in the "Multiple I" offense, as will junior full-back Michael Mercado.

With the loss of center/defensive end D.G. Hollums, the lines on both sides of the ball have been altered. Neal Nelson will more than likely get the nod at center, although others have been used at the spot during the pre-season drills. Receivers Zach Abshier and Ken Cummings and linemen Anthony Emert, Peter Luna and Lionso Cisneros are the only up-front people with varsity experience. 265-pound junior Tim Rando will see extensive line duty on both sides of the ball, as will seniors Chad Hinsley and Sammy Segura. Rangy sophomore Angel Aleman has been used quite a lot as split receiver and defensive end in pre-season drills, and is expected to contribute to the depth at those positions.

Floydada's defensive power lies in its secondary with all-district Pete Cooper manning the strong safety post, along with returning cornerback Sammy Rodriguez. Abshier, who had an outstanding sophomore year at defensive end a year ago, will again be counted on at that key position. Abshier, also the back-up quarterback, will handle the punting and place-kicking chores.

The Whirlwinds and Longhorns have many similarities, in that a lot of untested people are going to be called on to fill key roles. The underclassmen who have never been in a Floydada-Lockney varsity game, will be much better ball players after tomorrow night; coaches will be a little older and players will be a little wiser. To the winners will go the bragging rights of Floyd County for another year. To the losers will go the memories of playing their best in a truly classic high school contest.

BILL'S NOTES
Two-a-days and conditioning drills are over... it's now "Showtime," and who could think of a better way to kick off the '94 season than the spectacle at Lockney tomorrow night? It's gonna be thrilling... it's gonna be fun, and it's gonna be the Whirlwinds' name once again on the County Championship trophy... but it sure ain't gonna be easy!

Floyd County championship is at stake

By the Lockney Quarterback Club Reporter
LOCKNEY — What better way to start the '94 football season than with the Whirlwinds coming to town this Friday night. Football just doesn't get any better than the Horns and "Winds going at it! There have been some great ball games over the years between these two clubs, including last year's 14-13 "burner" in Floydada. Some people believe that this season's contest could be another close one.

Both teams share many similarities such as new head coaches and a year of rebuilding. It has been said before and it is still true, when these two teams get together, you can throw the record books out the window.

It has been nine years (1985) since the Horns brought home a victory over Floydada. Coach Malcolm Moerbe remembers well because he was an assistant coach under Bob Pursler the last time Lockney won the big game. He knows what it takes to beat Floydada and I am sure he will have our boys ready to go this Friday.

Nothing would suit this crop of Longhorns better than a victory over Floydada to start off a new streak of Lockney wins. As usual, Lockney goes into this game an 18 point underdog by one forecaster. The Horns don't mind the underdog role.

The Horns looked much improved during the Farwell scrimmage when compared to the Lorenzo contest the week before. The defense is really coming along well, led by linebackers Mikhael Durham, Joe Marks, and Carlos Perales. Shannon Veal is doing a good job of putting the pressure on the quarterback. The rest of the defensive line did a good job of stopping the run. The secondary, led by Tanner Johnson, stole a couple of passes.

The offense is building up a little slower. The players are having to learn a new offense and it is going to take a while to get their timing down. Joe Marks had some nice runs from scrimmage as did Charles VanZant. Lalo Chavira had some nice blocks from his halfback spot. The ends are starting to catch the ball a lot better, too.

Stated Coach Moerbe, "Overall, I was pleased with the performance against Farwell in the Scrimmage. Obviously, there are some things we need to work on, but we made great strides from the previous scrimmage against Lorenzo."

Lockney scored once to Farwell's none.

"We are ready to start the season," says Moerbe. "The spring training, the summer workouts, and two-a-days are all behind us and it is time to start playing for keeps. We expect a great effort against Floydada."

The JV team also did well in their final scrimmage, but they were outscored 1 to 0.

The JV actually kicks off the '94 season this Thursday at 5:30 down in Floydada. The annual bonfire will follow the JV game at about 8:30.

In the JV Horns' mind, a victory over Floydada would really start the season off with a big bang!

Pirates edge Whirlwinds in final season scrimmage

By Bill Gray
FLOYDADA--Lubbock Cooper's Manuel Delacruz rushed for 115 yards, including a 61-yard touchdown scamper, to lead all ball carriers in a combined "controlled and running-clock" scrimmage against Floydada at Wester Field on August 26. Pirate quarterback Will Truby added a 51-yard scoring strike to Tim Stewart in the closing minutes as the visitors edged the Whirlwinds by a touchdown. It was the final tune-up for both squads before their season-openers on September 2.

The Pirates accounted for 253 yards in total offense (161 yards rushing, 92 yards passing). Floydada's offensive output totaled 184 yards (135 yards rushing, 49 yards passing). The Pirates were penalized 65 yards, while the Whirlwinds had 40 yards stepped off due to infractions. Each team turned over the ball once. The Whirlwinds won the battle of first downs 14-10.

Sophomore I-Back Vernon Cooper led all Floydada runners with 40 yards on nine carries, and scored the Whirlwinds' lone touchdown. Senior quarterback Sammy Rodriguez carried nine times for 30 yards, and completed four passes for 37 yards. Rodriguez had one pass picked off by the Pirate defense. QB Zach Abshier also had one pass completion for 12 yards.

Vernon Cooper hauled in two aeriels for 18 yards, and Ken Cummings had two receptions for 19 yards. Terry Harris was on the receiving end of Abshier's 12-yarder. Running back Rance Barnett carried 3 times for 34 yards and fullback Frankie Luna added 18 yards on four attempts.

good pre-season -- as have Zach and Ken. Neal Nelson has improved daily at line-backer and at center. Too bad losing Brady (Anderson) for a while, but he should be back by district and will be a contributor.
