Our Congressman, with the help of a San Antonio financial contributor, and evidently with the help of a staff member to former House Speaker Jim Wright, (and who is now on the Congressman's staff) has gotten his tail in a crack.

The story, as best we can piece it together from various news accounts, began soon after Mr. Sarpalius took office back in 1989. The Congressman was sworn in during the month of January, 1989. That same month he was invited by a San Antonio moving company (the now-defunct Sherwood Van Lines) to attend a gathering in Las Vegas, Nevada, for which he received a $2,000 "honorarium." He neglected to report the income until December 17, 1993, when Leslie Albert Taber, the company's founder, was indicted on federal charges of illegally funneling money into the campaigns of 10 Democratic House members and candidates, including those of Sarpalius, Rep. John Conyers of Michigan, Reps. Charles Wilson, Pete Geren, Jim Chapman, Chet Edwards, Greg Laughlin, and Albert Bustamante of Texas.

Sarpalius, Laughlin, Chapman, and Bustamante, all of whom are alleged to have received illegal contributions from Taber, later showed up at the Las Vegas meeting hosted by the moving company. It was for this meeting that Sarpalius received his $2,000 "honoraria," and which he evidently neglected to report on official forms. The other three Congressmen attending the event did report the income, thereby making their presence public information.

One other person attending the Las Vegas gathering was Phil Duncan, then the deputy chief of staff to then Speaker Jim Wright, of Fort Worth. Mr. Duncan evidently had an on-going relationship with Taber, of Sherwood Van Lines, having attended "four or five" previous conventions of the company. Duncan reported receiving $1,000 from Sherwood on his 1989 reporting forms. Duncan had used Sherwood for his own move from Fort Worth to Washington, (at a cost of "roughly $5,200" for a 16,000 pound move, he said) and it was Sherwood who moved Jim Wright back to Texas after he abandoned his post as Speaker. After Wright left the Speaker's office, Duncan went to work for Sarpalius.

Sherwood also moved Sarpalius and Laughlin to Washington. Sarpalius told Roll Call, a paper in Washington that covers happenings on Capitol Hill, that he chose Sherwood after consulting with Laughlin, but Laughlin says it was Wright's aide Duncan who suggested Sherwood to him. Laughlin says he never received a bill for the move, and didn't pay it ($2,500) until January, 1994, some five and one-half years after the move. He says he was "totally unaware" of the bill until called by a San Antonio newspaper following the indictment of Taber on charges of illegal campaign contributions.

Sarpalius, on the other hand, did receive a bill from Sherwood for $1,736.23, for the moving. The disposition of that bill is uncertain at this time. At the time, Sarpalius refused to pay, contending that some items were either lost or damaged.

At any rate, there was, and is, a good deal of scurrying around in Washington in an endeavor to cover tracks and put the best spin on things. Aides to all those Congressmen who allegedly received illegal campaign contributions told the Washington newspaper they are now looking for ways to give the money back.

That seems a little strange to us. That should be about the easiest thing in the world to figure out. Why not just send it back to the person who sent it in, in the first place? That decision ought to be easy, if one really wanted to get rid of tainted money. (After some initial hesitation, and after announcing that they were going to ask the Federal Elections Commission what to do about the situation, Mr. Sarpalius' office said they have given the money back.)

But there's another aspect of the story that troubles us even more. That is the element of candor, or lack of it, with the

Martha Ann Cogdell Trust donates $15,000 to CHD Ambulance Fund

FLOYDADA--Acting on behalf of Caprock Hospital District, Board President Tom Farris accepted a check from the Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust in the amount of $15,000. D.M. Cogdell Jr., chairman of the board of the Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust presented the check to Farris on October 3.

The money is to be donated to the Caprock Hospital District Ambulance Fund.

The Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust was created by the Cogdell family in 1953 in memory of Martha Ann Cogdell who passed away at the age of 13.

Since the trust was formed, all of the income from the trust has been used to make donations to religious, educational and charitable institutions in the State of Texas.

Donations have been made to institutions in various parts of the state including the Scott and White

Hospital in Temple, and Cogdell Memorial Hospital in Snyder.

In the last 20 years most of the donations have been made in this immediate area. Funds from the trust were donated to build the Cogdell Clinic in Floydada, the Cogdell Clinic in Lockney and the Briscoe County Clinic in Silverton.

"Mr. Cogdell said that the board of trustees for the hospital trust recognizes the importance of good ambulance service in these rural communities," said Farris. "He is also aware that Caprock Hospital District is in the process of purchasing a new ambulance and this money will go toward that purchase."

The Cogdell Hospital Trust also made similar donations to Silverton Ambulance Service, Quitaque Ambulance Service, Claude Ambulance Service and Briscoe County Clinic Association.

Volunteers needed for Punkin Days

Punkin Days and pumpkins bring area media coverage

The phone calls and inquiries into Floydada's Punkin Days and the Floyd County Pumpkin crop are coming in fast and furious.

Punkin Day organizers and the Chamber of Commerce are kept busy every year promoting not only the city's festival but the colorful crop of Floyd County's pumpkin producers.

Because of a tremendous amount of advance publicity which is mailed and faxed around the United States (including promotional pumpkin packages), the Punkin Day celebration is not the only thing that benefits from the coverage.

Stories on Floyd County's crop and Punkin Days has already appeared in the Amarillo Globe News, Amarillo T.V., Lubbock A.J., Texas Events Calendar, Texas Historical Commission Magazine and Austin American Statesman.

A recent phone call from a Japanese T.V. station in New York inquiring about the festival and where to go for "good pictures" may end up giving this area T.V. coverage in Japan with an audience of 20 million people.

Many area school children have also made the trip to Floydada to get a first hand look at how pumpkins are grown and harvested.

PUNKIN DAY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Punkin Day committee is finalizing plans now for the yearly festival and needs all their volunteers to show up for a meeting, Thursday, Oct. 13, at 7:00 p.m. in the Lamplighter Inn.

The games are already planned and now the chairmen could use some help. If you enjoy the festival and want to help, please contact Roxanne Cummings at 983-3035 or come to the meeting.

Also needed are auction items for the Punkin Day Auction. One item, a lovely "Lil Punkin" doll is now on display at The Lamplighter Inn.

Court ties up fiscal year '93-'94

The Floyd County Commissioners Court met in a special called session on Wednesday, September 28, to close out the fiscal year of 1993-94 which came to an end September 30. A motion by Precinct 1 Commissioner Connie Bearden ordered the payment of all accounts against the county which had been properly presented and approved. The motion was seconded by Precinct 2 Commissioner Floyd Jackson. All voted in favor.

One farm work contract was approved on a motion by Precinct 3 Commissioner George Taylor with a second by Precinct 4 Commissioner Howard Bishop. The contract, #1506, for the purpose of soil conservation and the prevention of soil erosion, was for Imogene Stansell. All voted in favor.

Precinct 1 will advertise for bids concerning the proposed purchase of a new motor grader. This was approved after a motion by Bearden with a second by Bishop. The motion carried unanimously. Specifications and bid information will be published within the next few weeks in anticipation of taking bids.

The annual report from the Veterans Service Officer, Ralph Jackson, was not presented to the court at this time. He was not available to make the report.

Bearden was unanimously reappointed to the Ambulance Board of Floydada EMS. He will continue to serve as the county representative on the organization board. Motion for the reappointment was made by Bishop with a second by Jackson.

The commissioners approved a bond at the request of Shelia Faulkenberry, Chief Appraiser for the Floyd County Central Tax Appraisal District. Motion was made by Bishop and seconded by Taylor. All voted in favor.

Volunteers continue Senior Citizen building renovations

An army of volunteers have been busy at the Floydada Senior Citizens building, painting, cleaning and repairing.

Money has been raised, for the much needed renovations, through donations and memorials. More money is still needed to continue the work.

James Lovell donated time and equipment for the outside painting jobs. He was assisted by William Bertrand, Bob Goodnight, Jim Word, Faye Bertrand, Lorene Newberry, Jerry Bradford and Margarette Word.

Volunteers will now proceed to the inside of the building for paint and many repairs.

As of September 30, $1,518.00 had been raised for the center, however more will be needed for the improvements.

"We were able to get started making improvements because of the money which has been donated already," said Margarette Word. "The center is a wonderful place for the elderly who are unable to cook anymore, and for those who live by themselves, to come to the center and eat a good hot meal and visit with their friends."

Anyone wishing to make a donation should send it to Floydada Senior Citizens, Box 573, Floydada, TX., 79235.

Voting procedure explained

Penny Golightly, Floyd County Voter Registrar, would like to remind voters about the procedure used in voting.

"Everyone who votes signs a form called a Poll List, signature roster" says Golightly. "This form just verifies your certificate number and your permanent residence."

When a person marks their ballot at the November 8 election or during Early Voting, the person's name and certificate number is not placed on the ballot. The ballot is secret.

The ballot is then placed in a locked ballot box. The ballot is confidential.

"This is a safeguard of our election process which enables everyone to vote for the person they choose, without anyone knowing who they voted for" said Golightly.

Explicacion de procedimiento para votar

Penny Golightly, de la oficina de votacion en el condado de Floyd, recuerda a los votantes de el condado el procedimiento que se usa en las elecciones.

"Al votar todos firman su nombre en una lista de votantes," dice Golightly "Esto nos da a saber su numero de certificado que se encuentra en su tarjeta de votar junto con su permanente direccion postal."

Cuando una persona marca su boleta en la eleccion del 8 de Noviembre o en caso de que vote temprano antes de la eleccion, su nombre o numero de certificado no esta puesto en su boleta. La boleta es mantenida en secreto.

Despues de llenar su boleta pongala en la caja designada que esta con llave. La boleta es confidencial para su beneficio.

"Esto es una manera segura en que nuestro proceso de eleccion nos deja votar por la persona que escoja sin que alguien se de cuenta por quien voto," dice Golightly.

GRAND PRIZE WINNER -- Winning the big prize in a chain-wide drawing celebrating the anniversary of Lowe's Pay-n-Save was Lockney resident Wanda Moats. She received a check for $1,250.00 from Lockney Store #16 manager Nick Muniz. Moats' name was drawn by company owner Roger Lowe. Other winners came from Store #85 in Lubbock and Store #7 in Sudan. Said Moats, "I never won anything before. I just dropped my entry in the box on the last day and forgot it. I was really surprised when Nick called me to tell me I won. It is a wonderful surprise." -- Staff Photo

There may be a real problem here. EPA wants gas-free cows—and they want the farmer to keep cows from eating underbrush and weeds.

So if you spray to kill the underbrush and weeds to have a methane free cow—will the EPA get mad at you for using poison on the field?

If we eliminate cows so we have no methane burps contaminating our land—the animal rights activists will be mad at us.

We could make the cow sacred like they do in India—that would make the animal rights folks happy. But then we are back to the methane problem and a worried EPA.

It's too much to comprehend. I'll just leave it to the experts to figure out. I don't guess I have to worry about it too much, because at $500,000 a study—we probably won't be getting answers too soon.

I'm just waiting for the day I can look out over a field of cows and see them all wearing little gas masks.

people. We are not upset that Mr. Sarpalius got an illegal campaign contribution. Those things can happen in a campaign. But the matter of the $2,000 "honoraria" is something else.

Why did Mr. Sarpalius wait so long to report the $2,000 "honoraria," the very first such gift the Congressman had received after being sworn in to office? And for a trip to Las Vegas? That seems to be something a new Congressman would remember, maybe even frame.

His aide, Mr. Duncan, says it slipped Mr. Sarpalius' mind, until his memory was jogged by the news story in San Antonio concerning the indictment of Mr. Taber, nearly five years later. That would be entirely possible, though implausible since it was a "first" for a new Congressman, and $2,000, to most of us, is not an insignificant amount.

But wait. The news story broke on

Fall Foliage Tour slated at Caprock Canyons Trailway

The Quitaque Chamber of Commerce invites you to attend the Second Annual Fall Foliage Tour along the new Caprock Canyons Trailway on October 22.

Again this year a motorized tour will take visitors up the scenic Caprock route. You will travel along-side spring-fed Quitaque Creek and pass through the only railroad tunnel in Texas. On the bridge that spans Los Lingos Creek you will hover five stories above gigantic golden cottonwoods, where wild turkey, deer, and other wild game can often be seen in their natural habitat.

Work has now been completed on the 22 bridges, and tours will be available all the way to the top of the Caprock, a climb of approximately 700 feet. Above the railroad tunnel the scenery is absolutely gorgeous, and it should be at its peak on October 22.

There will be a number of other activities in Quitaque throughout the day, which includes the historical tour of homes from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Lunch will be served by Roye Pigg at the Quitaque Community Center beginning at 11:00 a.m., and there will be a delicious soup and salad lunch with hot rolls and fresh home-baked pumpkin desserts. This should be a real treat for everyone.

There will be a place to relax and enjoy a cup of coffee or soft drink all during the day at the Senior Citizens Building, and down the street at the First National Bank the Quitaque Lions Club is sponsoring a Health Fair that should be interesting and beneficial for those who attend.

Visitors are also invited to stroll up and down Main Street and view Quitaque's unique Sidewalk Museum. Sometime during the day you'll want to visit beautiful 14,000 acre Caprock Canyons State Park, which is located just three miles north of town on Highway 1065.

Mark you calendar now to attend the Fall Foliage Tour in Quitaque on October 22—for it will be an exciting day for everyone.

December 19, 1994. Mr. Sarpalius "amended" his 1989 filing two days earlier, before the story broke. His actions in amending his earlier report could not possibly have been caused by a news story that had not yet appeared.

Mr. Duncan, who has emerged as a spokesman for Sarpalius, told Roll Call, "We may have gotten word of it beforehand."

Indeed. They probably did. But by whom, and why?

Who thought to give Mr. Sarpalius the "heads up"? And why did they think it necessary that he be advised?

At any rate the matter has been injected in the current battle over who is going to represent the 13th Congressional District in the next Congress. Mac Thornberry, who is challenging Sarpalius for the seat, has called for an investigation of the matter. Mr. Sarpalius, evidently figuring that a strong offense is the best defense, or that a smokescreen can be useful as a political tool, has responded by charging Mr. Thornberry with all sorts of political crimes and misdemeanors, claiming that Thornberry has received illegal support from his law firm, among other things. Thornberry has denied it, saying he received money from the firm, where he is a partner, only for work performed during the early stages of the campaign, and that since he began campaigning full time in May, he has received "not one dime."

Quite frankly, we can't see what's wrong with receiving income from one's private business while campaigning for Congress. Does Mr. Sarpalius give up his Congressional salary of some $130,000 while campaigning to keep his seat? Why should Mr. Sarpalius be entitled to a public payroll while his opponent is denied a salary from a private business in which he is a partner, even if he did receive it?

In point of fact we can't see that any major crimes have been committed on either side in all this. Mr. Sarpalius evidently received an illegal campaign contribution from someone outside his district. And he got moved from Amarillo to Washington at a rate ordinary citizens probably couldn't have gotten. And he got $2,000 for a trip to Las Vegas and didn't report it, as he should have. Wrong? Sure, but no great crime. But then his office lied about it, as they should not have. That is what troubles us most.

Have A Good Week!

Warren art exhibit on display through October

FLOYDADA--Jill Warren will be the featured artist this month at the First National Bank of Floydada. Her paintings will be on display during regular banking hours.

This show will include both landscapes and still lifes. Having always lived in a rural community, Jill enjoys painting country scenes or still lifes of simple, familiar objects. After careful planning of composition, value, and color, she begins each painting on a specially prepared canvas. Using first bristle brushes and then finishing with sable brushes, she creates the softly blended colors and detail that signify her style.

Mrs. Warren received a bachelor's degree from Texas Tech University. She has developed her art training through carefully chosen workshops with some of the finest artists available and through self study. The Country Framer in Lubbock and the Sagebrush Gallery in Amarillo carry her work.

This year she was accepted into the Oil Painters of America and is currently being juried into their regional exhibition. Two of her paintings were accepted into the Running Water Draw Gallery Exhibition, sponsored by the Plainview Rotary Club. In December, she will be having her second one-man show at the Caprock Winery in Lubbock.

Through her paintings, Jill would like to share with others what she appreciates in life. Perhaps one of her still lifes will stir memories of Grandmother's kitchen; or a landscape will recall a quiet time when one marveled at the beauty of nature. These reflections of the good times in one's past are what motivates Jill to paint.

Mrs. Warren's art exhibit may viewed at the bank during regular banking hours throughout the month of October.

Araujo and Kirschner exchange nuptials

MR. AND MRS. JEFF KIRSCHNER
(nee Anna Araujo)

Temple Shalom in Dallas was the site for the exchange of wedding vows between Anna Araujo and Jeff Kirschner. Rabbi Roseman performed the ceremony at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 1, 1994.

The chapel was decorated in cream colored calla lilies with floral greenery. Parents of the bride are Arcadio and Clara Araujo of Lockney. The groom is the son of Saul Kirschner and Brenda Kirschner, both of Dallas.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white and cream colored silk shantung gown flowing to a chapel length. Short sleeves and a sweetheart neckline accentuated the bodice, which was embellished in lace, sequins and pearls. She carried a bridal arrangement of cream calla lilies with floral greenery.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Margie Araujo. She wore a floor-length dress in wedding navy with a cream organza collar. She also carried a bouquet of calla lilies with greenery. Serving as best man was Sol Kirschner. Larry Kirschner seated guests.

RECEPTION

A reception following the ceremony was hosted by Sol and Jill Kirschner in their Dallas home.

A full catered dinner was served in the garden, which was decorated with tropical flowers. An open bar and hot hor d'oeuvres were also available.

Musical selections at the reception were presented by Carol Sage.

Following a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will make their home in Dallas.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of Texas Tech University and is currently employed in Professional Relations with Phymed Diagnostic Imaging Center. The groom, a 1982 graduate of the University of Houston, is president of Kirschner Securities.

We really have a good time. Please come join us.

Please remember to pray for those who are ill, lost loved ones recently, for those in our nursing and retirement homes.

Thanks to James Lovell for all the volunteer work he is doing and for the use of his equipment. His helpers (volunteers) have been William Bertrand, Bob Goodnight, Jim Word, Faye Bertrand, Lorene Newberry, Jerry Bradford and Margarette Word. We finished painting the outside Friday, Sept. 30th. It was a lot of hard work but well worth it. Now we have to clean windows and make plans to start painting the inside. Only through your generosity, that you have made, is making this possible.

FLOYDADA--We have had a good week here at the home.

Tuesday we had our morning coffee, after lunch we played dominoes. I would like for you all to know I have learned a little bit on how to play dominoes.

Wednesday we played Bingo after lunch. We had a good crowd playing Bingo this week. We had lots of Bingo's and we had three residents with black-out. The residents received apples, bananas, candies and some of the mini Ritz sandwich crackers. I would once again like to thank the ladies that come and help with Bingo.

Thursday we left at 9 a.m. to the fair in Lubbock. The residents that attended the fair are Doris Hillin, Irene Sherrill, Ruby Holcomb and Ruby Hobbs. They really enjoyed the ride up there. On our way over there we saw the farms that are decorated with the pumpkins. They really looked nice.

The residents had a good time at the fair. We looked at all the booths they had. At noon some of the residents had corn dogs with lemonade and the others had footlong hot dogs with lemonade. They enjoyed their meal. We would like to thank Clara Porter for going with me and Wanda to help with the residents.

Friday we went on our bus ride which took us to Matador. We went and saw some sites. Matador is a pretty little town. We want to thank Grace for taking us up there.

Well this is about all I have for you this week. Until next week, stay safe and happy.

Lockney 7th graders tie home opener

By The 7th Grade Coach
LOCKNEY — The Lockney 7th grade Shorthorns played an aggressive football game last Thursday against the Olton Mustangs. The offense moved the ball fairly well in the first quarter but they were held short of a first down inside the 20-yard line, stopping the drive.

The Olton offense was inspired by the successful defensive stand and attempted to move the ball late in the second quarter. The Shorthorn defense, lead by Robert Bartlett and Brandon Prather, stopped the drive to end the half on a scoreless not for both teams.

As the second half began, the Shorthorns fought to hold the Colts, but were unable to capitalize on the offensive side of the ball. Both teams tried desperately to move the football, but in the end, the game was a 0-0 stalemate.

"I was extremely proud of all the kids because I knew they never doubted that they were going to win the game," said the coach. "I thought Jordan Lambert held his composure well as did kids like Rolf Sherman who played extremely well on offense. I really think the group has turned the corner and I expect us to win against Morton on Thursday night."

LHS prayers answered by Johnson scramble

By Mark Todd Terrell
 Quarterback, Tanner Johnson decided to take a chance. From the starting buzzer to the ending whistle, it was an all-out battle. "I'm exhausted," said Coach David Sutterfield. This echoed the feelings of not only the players and coaches, but the fans in the stands.

After receiving the opening kickoff, the Horns drove seventy yards, but were unable to capitalize with a touchdown and were forced to punt the ball.

But the Mustang were met by a fierce defensive effort by Longhorns Matthew Raisseze, Mikhael Durham and Devon Phillips, and had to punt the ball back to the Horns after only three plays from scrimmage.

The stage was set for a seesaw battle that was fueled by outstanding offense of Longhorns Johnson, Joe Marks and Shannon Veal. The Horns became their own worst enemies when a penalty negated a 20-yard run by Marks, forcing the Longhorns to boot a punt that was returned for touchdown by Olton's leading rusher, Michael Wilborn. The extra point attempt was blocked by Durham.

In the second quarter, the Mustangs got the ball back, but a bad pitch recovered by Raisseze set up a 92-yard run by freshman running back, Devon Phillips. But disaster struck again as a face-mask penalty on Olton and an unsportsmanlike conduct call on the Horns, negated the run and forced Lockney to punt.

Olton proved too much for the Horns as Wilborn pushed in for another score. But the fate of Olton's extra points rested in the hands of Longhorns Tim Mitchell and Lalo Chavira as they held Olton on a two-point conversion attempt.

The kickoff return went in the air with 1:22 left to play in the half. Charles Van Zandt returned it to the 48 yard line, which set up a Phillips run. Johnson connected with Senior receiver, Michael Hernandez for a 20 yard touchdown, and the Horns went into the locker room at halftime facing a 12-7 Olton lead.

After the second half kickoff, Olton was held and forced to punt. It was partially blocked by a barrage of Longhorn players to put the Horns in good field position.

Shannon Veal grabbed a 50-yard pass, setting the Horns up for a one yard dive by Johnson that gave the Longhorns their first lead of the game, 14-12.

Olton was quick to answer with another Wilborn touchdown, followed by a successful two point conversion.

Despite 50 yard in penalties and one interception, Johnson's 80-yard quarterback sneak gave the Longhorns the needed points to pull them ahead of the Mustangs by a score of 21-20.

With under a minute left in the game, Olton drove all the way back into field goal range, but were unable to make what would have been the game-winning score.

The fans went wild as did the players and coaches.

"It was a hard fought ballgame. Thank the Lord the good guys came out on top!" said Coach Moerbe.

For his outstanding efforts, Johnson was named the Player of the Week, by the Plainview Herald.

LJHS 8th grade Shorthorns fall to Olton Colts

By The Lockney 8th Grade Coach
LOCKNEY — The home opener for the 8th Grade Shorthorns was expected to be a tough one. The Olton Mustangs proved to be very talented and big in size, but the Shorthorns never gave up and showed a lot of heart in a 33-8 loss to Olton.

Olton came out strong and scored early in the first quarter. The Shorthorns came out moving the ball fairly well, but were plagued by mistakes. Olton was able to capitalize on the errors, but the Lockney boys kept coming back. The halftime score was 20-0 in Olton's favor.

The Shorthorns played very well defensively in the second half, but were unable to get anything going until late in the fourth quarter. Chris Rodriguez was able to take a pitch around the right end and get in for the score.

Said the coach, "I was very proud of the kids for the way they played, not giving up. It is hard when you get down and very difficult to come back and continue playing. The boys never gave up and I was pleased with their efforts."

"Defensively, Thad Lusk and Frank Guerrero played well and Chris Rodriguez played well offensively."

The team will play in Morton beginning at 5:00 p.m. today, Thursday, October 6.

LHS Coach's Comments

By Coach Malcolm Moerbe
 What a big win!

We were down at various times in the game but our kids refused to lose. When you have a group that wants something as bad as the Longhorns wanted victory Friday night, it is awfully hard to keep them from achieving it. But we can't be satisfied.

Morton comes to town with a much improved team over last year. Their quarterback and running back are as good as we will see this year.

We need to play intense, fanatical, hard-nosed football this week. Offensive leaders for this week were the whole offensive team.

It would be too hard to single one particular person out. They did an excellent job of putting the ball in the end zone when they had to.

Defensive point leaders:
 Game: Mikhael Durham, 46; Joe Marks, 42; Matthew Raisseze, 38.
 Season: Joe Marks, 188; Lalo Chavira, 153; Carlos Peralez, 137.

Remember this Friday nights game is parent's night.

Finally, a big congratulations goes out to the athletes, teachers and assistant "Daddy Coaches." Due to their combined efforts, no high school athlete failed a course for the 1st 6 weeks grading period.

Whirlwinds edge Eagles

By Bill Gray
FLOYDADA--Floydada defender Pete Cooper batted down a Lubbock Roosevelt two-point conversion attempt, with eight seconds remaining in the game, to preserve a 36-34 come-from-behind Whirlwind victory at Acuff on September 30. The exciting finish enabled Floydada to improve its non-district record to 2-3 prior to the Whirlwinds' 2-3A opener at Dimmitt tomorrow night. Dimmitt was pounded 34-0 by Slaton last week in the Bobcats' fourth loss of the year.

In a see-saw game of big plays and big breaks, Floydada's opening kickoff foretold the theme for the evening - to expect the unexpected. Zach Abshier's opening kick was mishandled by an Eagle receiver, recovered by Rance Barnett, and the Whirlwinds were in business at Roosevelt's 7-yard line just seconds into the game. Following a delay penalty, Floydada quarterback Sammy Rodriguez scored on an option play from nine yards out - while many in the partisan Homecoming crowd were still standing in the ticket line outside the stadium.

Roosevelt fullback Jerry Orta brought the Eagle faithful to their feet with a 55-yard touchdown scamper to knot the contest at 6-all with four minutes remaining in the opening stanza. Pete Cooper's 56-yard return of the ensuing kickoff moved the Whirlwinds deep into Eagle territory to set up his own eight-yard scoring romp on the first play of the second quarter. Pete also added the two-point conversion as the 'Winds surged ahead 14-6.

Following an exchange of punts, and aided by a late-hit penalty assessed against Floydada, Roosevelt mounted a four-play, 49-yard scoring drive. Eagle tailback Johnny Zaragoza carried for 33 of the 49 yards in the drive and crashed across the double stripe. Castaneda added the two-point to again deadlock the score at 14-14.

The Whirlwinds responded with a scoring march of their own in the waning moments of the second quarter. Rodriguez went to the air, hitting Barnett and Abshier for 26 and 20 yards, respectively. Sammy ran an option play to perfection and scored from the Roosevelt 18-yard line. Abshier's second PAT kick of the evening was wide, but the Whirlwinds took the narrow 20-14 lead into the locker room at halftime.

The Eagles capitalized on Floydada's first turnover and opened the third period with an 82-yard drive, highlighted by a 76-yard pass-and-run combination from Castaneda to lanky receiver Robert Brown. Brown outran the Whirlwind defenders to bring the third tie of the evening. Castaneda ran the two-pointer to give Roosevelt a 22-20 lead with 4:59 left in the third period.

Roosevelt's only lead of the game lasted for just three minutes. Rodriguez directed the Whirlwinds for most of a 58-yard drive, but was forced to leave the field with the 'Winds positioned at the Eagle 7. Abshier took control and regained the lead for Floydada on a one-yard quarterback sneak. Pete Cooper added the two-point conversion with 1:51 showing on the third quarter clock. The Eagles kept a determined drive alive in the final seconds of the third period with a 32-yard Castaneda-to-Brown pass on a fake punt. The gamble paid off as Zaragoza hit Brown with an 18-yard scoring strike on a halfback pass. Jerry Orta's two-point run attempt was stopped short, and with 8:36 remaining in the game the score was tied once again.

Floydada countered with a five-play, 72-yard drive, helped along with a 44-yard Rodriguez-to-Barnett aerial and Barnett's 12-yard run to the Roosevelt 12-yard line. Rodriguez carried across the double stripe on the following play, but a holding call nullified the touchdown. However, Rodriguez hit Ken Cummings on a timing pattern for a 20-yard TD and converted the two-point attempt to put the 'Winds up 36-28.

Roosevelt was unable to move following the kickoff, but the Whirlwinds' second turnover, with 1:33 remaining in the game gave the Eagles one last opportunity. The Eagles gamely moved from their own 16-yard line, on the strength of passes to Brown and the running of Kwasi Taylor. Castaneda brought the Eagles to within two points of a tie with a two-yard touchdown, which set the stage for the dramatic finale on the two-point conversion attempt.

BILL'S NOTES

When! The 700+ total yards of offense by the 'Winds and Eagles would make it appear that neither team's defenses bothered to appear. That was not always the case. Both teams hit some big offensive gainers, and as Ed Henderson said during the game broadcast, "it was like the Acuff track meet."

Roosevelt's Robert Brown had a super night with 159 yards on eight pass receptions and two touchdowns. However, his most important non-reception (the two-point conversion attempt at the end of the game which would have brought the final score to 36-34) was made possible by Pete Cooper's stellar defensive coverage... that gets my nod for the defensive play of the game and also earns Pete my vote for the game's best defender.

Sammy Rodriguez had a great night passing (6 of 8 for 136 yards, 1 TD and NO interception). I feel he is deserving to be named the offensive player of the game. Zaragoza's halfback TD pass for the Eagles caught the 'Winds napping and was the best of offensive play - in a night of big plays.

I normally don't think of an offensive ball carrier - especially the quarterback - as a candidate for my "headhunter" award, but I'm making an exception this time. During the 'Winds' touchdown drive late in the second quarter, Rodriguez carried eight yards for a key first down. The Eagle tackled paid the price because Sammy really "squared away" at the point of impact. I don't think that Roosevelt defender was quite ready for Sammy's POP.

Had the Whirlwinds lost the game and I had made comments about the officiating, it would have appeared to be a bad case of "sour grapes." Well, the 'Winds didn't lose, but I am still going to make a comment... for whatever it's worth. That crew down at Acuff made a number of blunders when it came to "mechanics." There are times I'll differ with a judgement call, but I'll never complain about a judgement call. But, mechanics... that's another case... such as when there should have been measurement at the end of the third quarter. It was rightfully requested by the Whirlwind bench, but ignored.

Also ignored were the at least three times the Eagles had 12 men on the field. Also ignored was the question by a Floydada coach as to who had committed an error. We hear all about the courtesies that should be extended game officials by the players, coaches and fans... but it is a two-way street. If a coach has a legitimate question, he should be given an explanation. And what about the "crack-back" blocking and other illegal blocking? It is a wonder and just plain luck that the 'Winds didn't suffer any serious injury. We've had some excellent officiating crews in the first four games, but I hope this one doesn't draw another Floydada assignment!

Hello, Dimmitt Bobcats! It will be tough up there tomorrow night. We've seen some good backs this year (Solis in the Slaton scrimmage, Post's tandem tailbacks, etc.). There will be another good one wearing a Bobcat uniform as the 'Winds and 'Cats open district play. Derrick Thomas and Pete Cooper had quite a duel a year ago at Wester Field, and it will be the second chapter tomorrow night.

However, the Bobcats got skunked 34-0 by Slaton last week just as Floydada was really finding all its offensive tools. It will be a good one, as most Dimmitt-Floydada meetings have been in recent years. I look for the 'Winds to be just a little bit tougher as they continue to turn around their season. Floydada 27, Dimmitt 14. Bill's other picks: Friona 19, Shallowater 15; Littlefield 34, Muleshoe 8; Lockney 30, Morton 13; Hart 31, Hale Center 21; Texas Tech 38, Rice 31; Texas 23, Oklahoma 21.

Breezer Football Report

By Bill Gray
FLOYDADA--The 7th and 8th grade Breezers' split squad defeated Roosevelt's junior high "second teamers" 16-0 at Acuff on September 29. James Johnson scored from 12 yards out and then added the two-point conversion in first quarter action. Johnson also scored the conversion after Gilbert Garza's six-yard TD run in the second period.

In regular game action, the 7th Breezers and Roosevelt's 7th graders battled to a 6-6 tie. Darryl Henderson scored Floydada's only points on a 10-yard sweep. According to Coach Hayden Merket, "Our offense is starting to come around. We moved some people around on offense that seemed to give us a spark."

The coach added, "The kids are starting to get excited about playing. Defensively, we did an excellent job." Darryl Henderson and Ty Hendrix were cited by their coaches for the performances at linebacker.

The 8th grade Breezers didn't fare as well as they dropped a 22-8 decision to the young Eagles. Roosevelt held a 14-0 halftime lead, but Floydada got on the board in the 4th quarter on the strength of a Cody Stovall-to-Cory Kirk pass to the Roosevelt 1-yard line. Stovall carried in on a QB sneak on the ensuing play and added the two-point PAT.

The coaches were "pleased with the effort in the fourth quarter" and cited Keith Collins and Chad Turner for their defensive performances.

Whirlwind freshmen team tops Lubbock Roosevelt 8-6

By Bill Gray
FLOYDADA--Floydada hosted Lubbock Roosevelt on September 29 and came out on the top end of a hard-fought 8-6 defensive struggle. Trailing 0-6 with 2:21 left in the contest, QB Richard Casillas tossed a TD strike to Tim Simpson from the 8-yard line. Casillas not only scored the ensuing extra point to break the tie, but intercepted a Roosevelt pass with :36 remaining in the game to seal the victory.

Floydada's lone touchdown was set up by a 50-yard pass-and-run combination from Casillas to Blake Bramlett. Coach Lee Hurt named Casillas, Bramlett, Simpson and Tyson Whittle as the game's outstanding offensive players.

According to the coaches, the outstanding defensive players were Casillas, Kyle Pierce, Jason Campbell and Jason Henderson.

FHS 'Wind Junior Varsity bombs Lubbock Roosevelt

By Bill Gray
FLOYDADA--The Whirlwind JV'ers had their biggest offensive outing of the season as they soundly defeated the visitors from Lubbock Roosevelt 42-0 at Wester Field on September 29. Omar Eguia started the Floydada scoring avalanche with a 48-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first period. Monty Anderson passed to Joe Sanchez for the conversion.

his second extra point kick. Eguia scored from 18 yards out in the second period to extend Floydada's halftime lead to 28-0.

Floydada continued the runaway as Eguia scored on a 12-yard run in the third quarter. Hernandez added a 2-pointer on a fake kick for the conversion. Emilio Guzman ran for a five-yard TD in the final period.

According to Coach Craig Cook, "There were no great individual performances in the game... it was really a good, solid team victory."

Anderson added a 53-yard toss to Sanchez and Julian Hernandez kicked the extra point to extend the first period lead. Anderson capped off Floydada's opening period scoring with a 52-yard TD scamper. Hernandez was good on

FHS Coach's Comments

By Coach Bryan Davis
FLOYDADA--We were happy with our win against Lubbock Roosevelt last week and we were very pleased with our offense.

We are still not doing too good on defense but we are working on getting better every week.

This week we will be moving our Junior Varsity up to play with the Varsity for the District opener against Dimmitt.

We hope to see everyone at the game Friday night as we strive for our first District win.

President Mandy Hunter called the meeting to order and Jeffrey Hunter and Lindsey Mathis led the Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H motto and Pledge. Inspiration was given by Lacey Aston. Following the introduction of guest and recognition of new members, the roll call was taken, as well as each 4-Hers favorite event of the fair. The minutes were then read and approved and the treasurer's report was given. Gretchen Quebe gathered money to buy apples for the teachers as this month's Community Service project. 4-Hers told of their exhibits in the fair.

The program consisted of reports from various 4-H members on the summer activities. A report was given on Electric Camp by Leslie Hickerson. Mark Terrell told the group about State Roundup. State 4-H Congress was reported on by Tim Mitchell and Tyler Phillips shared about Leader Lab. The business meeting was then conducted by Mandy Hunter. Mark Terrell reminded 4-Hers of upcoming events, including: National 4-H Week, Heartfest, 4-H Achievement Banquet and the foods workshop for senior 4-Hers. It was announced that the 4-H booth, educational exhibit, and float all won first place at the fair, and a special thanks was given to Marsha Phillips, Charlotte Mitchell, Betty Hayes and Sharon Bartlett for their help on these projects.

As for new business, members were asked to sign up for projects or groups that they had an interest in. A booth at the Halloween Carnival was also discussed and a cake walk and love meter were decided on. Mandy reminded everyone that next month's meeting will be the food auction, and all 4-Hers were asked to bring homemade baked items to be auctioned off. The door prize, donated by Kristin Abney, was presented to Lacey Aston who correctly guessed the number of peppermints in the jar. The meeting was adjourned for recreation, led by Tim Mitchell, and refreshments.

On September 20, 1994 Energas Company filed Statements of Intent to change its gas rates and service charges with the Texas Railroad Commission and each incorporated city listed below. The proposed changes will take effect no sooner than 35 days after filing.

The Company proposes to increase its customer charge by 89 cents per month with no other changes to its gas rate schedules. The change would apply to General Service (residential and commercial) and Small Industrial Service. The Company also proposes the following increased service charges:

Turn on new service with meter set	$23.50	$35.25
Turn on service (shut-in test required)	19.00	28.50
Turn on service (meter read only required) and miscellaneous service calls	10.50	15.75
Reconnect delinquent service or service temporarily off at customer's request	29.50	39.00
Dishonored check charge	25.00

The proposed changes are expected to increase the Company's annual revenues by approximately 1.9% and therefore do not constitute a "major change." The proposed changes could affect approximately 217,000 gas consumers in the following communities and surrounding rural areas:

Family and Community Education Week observed

NATIONAL FCE WEEK--Sue Lovell (left), president of the Homebuilders FCE Club, and Karen Miller (right), president of the Harmony FCE Club, make plans for FCE Information Day "Lunch & Learn" program on Thursday, Oct. 13, at the County Extension Office meeting room during the noon hour. A Christmas decoration demonstration will be presented and a door prize will be given. Call 983-2806 for more information.

--From Melissa Long, CEA-HE Homemakers in Floyd County are celebrating Family and Community Education (FCE) Week October 9-15. The mission of FCE is to work with the Extension Service to strengthen and enrich families through educational programs, leadership development, and community service.

FCE is affiliated with the National Association for Family and Community Education (NAFCE), which has over 300,000 members whose priority is strengthening families and working with other national groups who have the family as their focus.

Associated Country Women of the World (ACWW) provides the international link in the focus-on-families chain. It involves over seven million women who are working to improve the lives of families with projects such as nutrition education via the "Women Feed the World" program. This helps strengthen the global perspective of local members.

In Texas, approximately 12,000 members are working to strengthen families through various educational programs and projects. The United Nations declared 1994 as the International Year of the Family and local clubs have been studying ways to build and strengthen families. Programs have included ways for families to celebrate, studying traditions and folkways from their ancestry, and discovering roots via oral history, artifacts, documents, pictures, and foods.

Another initiative has been the involvement of individuals and clubs to help improve the literacy of our state. Currently one of three Texans cannot read. FCE members have served as tutors for one-on-one training, distributed books at low-income health clinics, and donated books to head start programs, libraries, and to new parents before they took their babies home from the hospital. One club gave a personally inscribed book to each of the 65 children in pre-kindergarten classes in their town.

Last year the state organization gave scholarships totaling $7,000 to 4-H'ers and $2,000 to their own members who are seeking further education. In addition each of the 12 Extension districts is the recipient of $375 for use in the district 4-H program.

In celebrating FCE week, there will be a "Lunch & Learn" program during the noon hour on Thursday, Oct. 13, at the County Extension Office meeting room. Bring a brown bag lunch and come learn about the Family and Community Education Clubs in Floyd County. A holiday decoration demonstration will be presented by County Extension Agent Melissa Long and a door prize will be given.

Membership is open to anyone regardless of socioeconomic level, race, religion, sex, color, disability, age or national origin.

If you are interested in joining one of the local club or organizing a new club, contact the County Extension Office at 983-2806.

Goldsmith returns to Lockney to share the gospel through song

Fred Goldsmith, of Lubbock, will return to Lockney this weekend after popular demand, sharing his message of Jesus Christ through word and song.

A popular singing evangelist, Goldsmith has been heard in the past at the Lockney Fair. Those who have had the fortune to hear him in person will be happy to know of his return. Those of you who were not able to attend his concert will have another chance this Saturday.

Goldsmith will be accompanied by Carolyn Oliphint on the piano. He will be singing the very popular hits, "Crazy Christians", "We've Got The Power", "Mercy Seat", "Rise Again", "Boundless Love" and "One Day At A Time."

Goldsmith truly demonstrates the love of Jesus Christ. His day job is working at Saint Mary's Hospital but in his heart of hearts he loves to share the Gospel of Jesus and does it best with his gospel music. He has completed his first album.

His gospel music began when his voice came back following a successful struggle with alcoholism. "I used to be a 24-hour-a-day, seven-day-a-week drunk," he said. "After coming out of the drinking and finding some truth and some reality, it's a way of putting something back."

Fred Goldsmith believes he is a living testimony to the transforming power of Jesus.

Since his transformation he has become an avid student of the Bible and the great writers and saints. One of his favorites being Oswald Chambers. "The reason I study is that the Scriptures say, 'know the truth and the truth will set you free' and 'set your sights on things above and not on things below,'" said Goldsmith. "I believe there is going to be another time, and that I ought to look up for the other time we are going to have. There is going to be a new heaven and a new earth."

Fred Goldsmith believes he is now investing in eternity by singing gospel music and living the Christian life in the present.

Cancer patients offered free workshop at St. Mary's Hospital

Floyd County Chapter of the American Cancer Society representative Martha Farris encourages interested persons to make arrangements to attend a free workshop dealing with cosmetic challenges due to cancer treatment. The luncheon event is scheduled for Saturday, October 15, and will be held in the Arnett Room on the sixth floor of St. Mary's Hospital. "Looking Good" is being sponsored by the hospital and Harrington Cancer Center.

Items to be addressed at the 11:30 am to 2:30 pm workshop include a fashion show and beauty consultations. The program is designed to assist cancer patients in looking good and feeling better as their treatment progresses.

Participating in the event will be Stein Mart, Intimate Apparel, Malouf's, J. C. Penney, Dunlap's, Command Performance, Wig Trends, color consultant Dana Weber and European Touch.

Space is limited and reservations are required. These can be made by calling 796-6506.

"If even one person can be helped to feel better about themselves while they fight cancer, this would be a successful program," stated Farris.

SEPULVEDA joins Army under Delayed Entry Program

LOCKNEY--Chris L. Sepulveda, a senior at Lockney High School, has joined the U.S. Army under its Delayed Entry Program. The Delayed Entry Program enables a student to delay reporting for training for up to a year so that he can finish his studies.

Staff Sgt. Thomas A. Bores of the Army's Recruiting Station in Lubbock, who recruited Sepulveda, says he is scheduled to report June 15, 1995 to begin basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Sepulveda has committed to three years' service and asked for advanced individual training as a Combat Engineer.

Sepulveda is the son of Santos and Frances Sepulveda of Lockney.

Beginning smooth for boll weevil control program

By Shawn Wade
September 27 marked the first day of field operations for Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers (PCG) High Plains Boll Weevil Diapause Program. After three days of operation PCG Boll Weevil Coordinator Roger Haldenby called the 1994 program start one of the smoothest ever. PCG began treating cotton acreages in the northern portion of its 15,500 square mile "Control Zone" which runs along the Caprock east of Lubbock. Control operations will then move southward into portions of Dawson, Martin and Howard Counties. The purpose of the program is to reduce boll weevil populations as they are preparing to settle in for the winter. At this point the weevils have shifted from a reproductive form to what is known as a diapausing weevil that has the ability to build fat reserves and survive until the following spring. Only a fraction of the weevils that enter winter quarters usually survive. The prolific nature of the insect, however, means only a relatively small number need survive to initiate the next season's population. By reducing the number of weevils entering winter quarters the PCG program has successfully decreased, with the help of cold winter weather, the number of weevils able to survive the winter months. The PCG effort has successfully kept the weevil from becoming firmly established above the Caprock for 30 years using this low cost strategy. Producers inside the PCG control zone are also doing their part by making every effort to get their crops out of the field as quickly as possible. By doing so they help the situation in two ways. First, they remove the weevils only food source before they have a chance to build an adequate fat stores to survive all winter. Second, the harvested cotton acres no longer require control applications on them allowing efforts to be concentrated more effectively at a lower cost. "We are encouraging producers across the southern High Plains to make every effort to get their cotton out of the field as quickly as possible," says Haldenby. "We feel that by doing so the producer comes out ahead in two ways. First they are able to take advantage of the excellent harvesting conditions we now have to maximize the quality of the crop they harvest. Second, they are helping reduce the weevil's available food supply, maximizing the effectiveness of the PCG control effort." Haldenby adds that the combination of harvesting the highest quality cotton possible and the potential to reduce future weevil populations equates to a win-win situation for growers. "The past three mild winters have definitely been much better for the boll weevil than they have for cotton producers," explains Haldenby. "It is in everyone's best interests to conclude this year's crop as quickly and leave as few weevils as possible adequately prepared to make it to 1995."

Tips given for storing pesticides

By David Kostroun
Extension Agent-Entomology (PM)
Crosby/Floyd Counties
With the onset of Fall, now is a good time for homeowners and producers alike to check workshops and barns to be sure that pesticides have been properly stored. Proper storage will prevent potential hazards around the home, and will increase the shelf-life of the pesticides.

The best way to store small amounts of pesticide is in a locked cabinet, located in a ventilated area. The pesticide should always be stored in the original container, displaying a legible label. The pesticide should also be protected from extreme temperatures. Dusts and wettable powders may cake when subjected to wide variations in temperatures. At 32° F. or below, liquid formulations may crystallize out of solution and lose their effectiveness. Pesticides should also be protected from direct heat sources. Any chemical with a flash point of 140° F. or less is a possible fire hazard. Producers should not attempt to store sodium chlorate because of the extreme fire hazard involved.

Producers storing more than a few gallons of pesticides should check with local fire protection authorities and public health officials concerning legal ordinance. Under the Texas Agricultural Hazard Communication Law, producers and other entities that store pesticides in an amount in excess of 55 gallons or 500 pounds within one-quarter mile of a residential area composed of 3 or more private dwellings shall provide to the fire chief having jurisdiction over the storage area, in writing, the names and telephone numbers of knowledgeable representatives who can be contacted for further information, or in case of an emergency. The 55 gallon or 500 pound threshold amount shall be based upon the sum of all covered pesticide chemicals normally stored.

When storing a significant volume of pesticides, producers should adhere to the following rules:

*Keep chemicals in a locked storage area, well ventilated and clearly posted at all entry points.

*Date all containers.
*Keep a log of pesticides and amounts in storage.
*Check containers periodically for leaks, tears, etc.
*Do not locate storage area near feed or seed.
*Always store "empty containers" in the storage area pending disposal.

Properly dispose of all empty pesticide containers. Generally, a homeowner can dispose of an empty lawn and garden pesticide container in a dumpster to be disposed of in a sanitary landfill; but if possible, the container should first be triple-rinsed. Glass containers should be triple-rinsed, and have the lid removed. Metal containers not under pressure should be triple-rinsed and opened at both ends. The rinsed containers should then be wrapped in newspaper and/or a paper bag.

Currently, properly rinsed agricultural chemical containers are not classified as hazardous waste. However, due to limited capacity and more stringent state regulatory requirements, many landfills no longer accept agricultural chemical containers.

In Texas, open burning of pesticide containers is illegal. Burying these containers may lead to serious environmental consequences, and is not recommended.

Because disposal options have become so limited, both government and industry are currently promoting alternatives such as recycling. This past summer, opportunities were available in our area for recycling properly rinsed plastic and metal containers. Recycling efforts will continue annually.

Once the container has been either triple- or pressure-rinsed, according to label directions, dispose of the rinsed lid and rinsed, hinged handles with other household waste. Store the clean, punctured containers in a dry, secure area away from any food, feed or water supplies until they can be recycled or re-conditioned.

Corn variety trial results

By Kerry Siders

The irrigated yellow field corn variety trial was harvested last week September 28 on the Eddie and Monty Teeter farm just south of Lockney. Nine varieties were planted on April 19 into a test block with four interdispersed checks.

The planting rate setting was approximately 30,000 kernels per acre in plots that were 6 rows by 28 chains; 300 lbs. fertilizer; 1 quart atrazine at-planting; previous crop cotton; prewatered plus 7 irrigations; and Capture and dimethoate insecticides were used for borer and mite control.

The table below has the yield, moisture and population results. Producers can use this data to assist in making variety selection decisions.

National 4-H Week celebrated

--From Melissa Long, CEA-HE

4-H members from all across the nation are celebrating National 4-H Week this week, October 2-8. National 4-H week celebrates the accomplishments of the many youngsters involved in the nation's largest youth organization. This year's theme, "4-H... More Than You Ever Imagined" reflects the variety of 4-H programming and the diversity among its members. Young people from 9-19 years of age develop leadership, citizenship, and interpersonal skills through their program involvement. 4-H is the youth development phase of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service available in 3,150 counties across the United States.

To show you how far the 4-H program has come since its beginning in 1903, there are about 50 million 4-H alumni throughout the U.S. One out of every six persons has participated in some type of 4-H activity. In Texas, 4-H began in Jack County in 1908 with the Boys Corn Clubs and the Girls Tomato Clubs. In the South Plains district, there are 17,000 4-H'ers and there are 450,000 4-H'ers in Texas.

The 4-H emblem, a four-leaf clover design, appeared around 1908 with the H's representing "Head, Heart, Hands and Hustle." Head, trained to think, plan and reason; Heart trained to be true, kind and sympathetic; Hands trained to be useful, helpful and skillful; and the Hustle to render ready service, to develop health and vitality. In 1911, it was suggested that the H's stand for "Head, Heart, Hands and Health," and it has been used universally ever since.

In Floyd County, there are two community clubs, one in Lockney and one in Floydada. Clubs meet once a month and have programs and participate in community service activities. Various projects are offered throughout the year and from past years those have included rifle, electric, child care, archery, entomology, consumer education, swine, bicycle, sheep, food and nutrition, beef, horse, recreation, clothing and many others.

Floyd County 4-H'ers participate in a wide variety of activities such as providing programs for the libraries in Floydada and Lockney, assisting with the trick or treating at Punkin Days, hosting a booth at Old Fashioned Saturday, the Health Fair, the Floyd County Fair and Old Settlers, hosting a Horseless Rodeo at the Floyd County Fair and leading a bicycle safety project at an elementary school.

Summer activities offered through 4-H include county 4-H Camp, District Junior Leadership Camp, Electric Camp sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Company, Texas 4-H Congress, State Roundup, camping at the State 4-H Center and many others.

Recognition programs through 4-H are numerous. In Floyd County a new program has been initiated this year to increase overall participation in all activities. By participating, 4-H'ers accumulate points toward a 4-H jacket or blanket. Qualifying seniors will receive a $200 scholarship. The Gold Star award is the highest award given in a county, is annually awarded along with a $500 scholarship. 4-H'ers applying for state 4-H scholarships can be awarded anywhere from $500 to $12,000 scholarships toward their education for their academic and 4-H involvement.

Floyd County has a 4-H Interstate Exchange Program and in the past, have travelled to Kentucky, Georgia, Missouri and Washington, D.C., among others. There are also international exchange programs offered for older 4-H'ers and 4-H alumni.

The best aspect of the 4-H program is the involvement of the entire family. All members can participate and work together on a variety of projects. Youth involved in 4-H will learn to set and achieve goals, become leaders in their communities and develop useful organizational skills as well as life skills they will use throughout their lifetime. The 4-H slogan is "Learn By Doing" and the 4-H motto is "To Make the Best Better" and in 4-H, that is exactly what we hope is instilled in each and every 4-H member.

So as you can see, 4-H really is more than you ever imagined. For more information on 4-H and how you and your family can get involved, call the County Extension office at 983-2806 or go by the Courthouse Agriculture Building. Educational programs of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are open to all citizens without regard to race, color, sex, disability, religion, age or national origin.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK--(L-R) Judge Bill Hardin signed a proclamation declaring the week of Oct. 9-15 as Fire Prevention Week, as Floyd County Farm Bureau President Mark McCormick looks on. The Floyd County Farm Bureau, in conjunction with all fire departments in the county are working together to emphasize fire prevention and protection throughout the county. The Proclamation states that more than 4,000 people die from smoke inhalation and fire each year in the U.S. and some 78% of all U.S. fire deaths occur in our homes. The Proclamation calls upon the people of Floyd County to participate in fire prevention activities at home, work and school, and to heed the message: "Test Your Detector For Life." Staff Photo

Il Penseroso reviews activities

By Victory Stewart
LOCKNEY—At their bi-monthly meeting last week, members of the Il Penseroso Junior Study Club happily reviewed their successful activities during the recent Floyd and Surrounding Counties Fair.
 Headed by Char Dowell, the club's Education Booth at the fair won a 1st place ribbon. Codee Owens directed the club members in building a float for the parade and all their hard work resulted in another 1st place ribbon. The lemonade stand sold a seemingly record number of glasses of lemonade. Directed by Michealle Stennett, it received a 2nd place ribbon.
 Members gathered at the home of Pam Fulton and dined on chicken spaghetti, salad and chocolate dessert. The meal was prepared by co-hostesses

Heather Stowe and Kim Teeter. Members present were Lori Caballero, Char Dowell, Pam Fulton, Codee Owens, Ruth Reed, Shelley Roberts, Lori Satterwhite, Robin Sherman, Michealle Stennett, Victory Stewart, Heather Stowe, Kim Teeter, Jean Anne Williams and Tami Wofford. Also present were new members, Shana Gonzales and Shana Hallmark and guest Dana Cunyus.

The Floydada Chamber is currently seeking donations of candy or money to be used in the city wide trick or treating on Punkin Days.

Fire Prevention Week proclaimed

County Judge William D. Hardin has proclaimed the week of October 9-15, 1994 as FIRE PREVENTION WEEK in Floyd County.

The Floyd County Farm Bureau, in conjunction with all fire departments in the county are working together to emphasize fire prevention and protection throughout the county.

Fire Prevention week is always the Sunday-through-Saturday period in which falls October 9, date of the Great Chicago Fire of 1871. The Chicago disaster killed 250 people and destroyed more than 17,400 buildings.

In a Fire Prevention Week proclamation, Judge Hardin has called upon the citizens of Floyd County to participate in Fire Prevention Week activities such as locating and eliminating fire hazards; developing a home escape plan; and as the 1994 theme suggests -- "Test Your Smoke Detector For Life."

Mark McCormick, President of Floyd County Farm Bureau said, "Fire is both friend and foe. We can't live without it, but its destructive power is a threat we must control." "Protect yourself by keeping fire a friend:

- *Regularly inspect your house and out-buildings for fire hazards. Check the electrical system, electrical appliances and equipment, fuel storage, heaters and heating system. Make needed repairs or replacements without delay. Avoid overloading circuits or bypassing fuses/breakers.
- *Remove trash, stacks of paper and other unneeded combustibles that could feed a fire.
- *Read and follow instructions with portable heaters. Place them where they - won't ignite combustibles or be tipped over. Never use gasoline in a kerosene heater, and make certain gasoline and kerosene containers are clearly marked to avoid a mix-up. Never use a kerosene or gas-fired heater in a closed area - have ample ventilation. Be certain you use the correct grade of fuel for your portable heating equipment.

- *Check your heating system prior to the heating season. Install and use wood-burning stoves as directed in the manuals or other literature. Screen fireplaces. Keep chimneys and flues free of obstructions and creosote buildup.
- *Keep matches and lighters out of children's reach.
- *Never smoke in bed and avoid the easy chair when drowsy. Avoid smoking how to call for help. Have a water supply available to fight fire.

- *Choose and regularly inspect fire extinguishers that are the right size and type for the fires that might occur
- *Consider installing a sprinkler system in all new construction.

For the hearing impaired a bright flashing light provides success in gaining attention. Use 110 candela when placed approximately six feet from the floor and connected with a smoke detector. Always consider variables. For more information call 301-463-0278.

 Consider a separate locked building on a concrete pad (slab) engineered for spill containment, for storage of all pesticides, herbicides and other farm chemicals. Locate the building, if possible, to avoid toxic smoke reaching surrounding homes, shops, or businesses.

Romero joins Army under Delayed Entry Program

LOCKNEY—Robert Romero, a senior at Lockney High School, has joined the U.S. Army under its Delayed Entry Program. The Delayed Entry Program enables a student to delay reporting for training for up to a year so that he can finish his studies.

Staff Sgt. Thomas Bores of the Army's Recruiting Station in Lubbock, who recruited Romero, says he is scheduled to report July 25, 1995 to begin basic training at Fort Benning, Georgia. Romero has committed to two years' service and asked for advanced individual training as an Infantryman. Before enlisting, Romero assured himself of a $20,000 fund for college after his service is over by qualifying for the Army College Fund as well as the Montgomery GI Bill.

Romero is the son of Teresa Romero of Floydada and Miguel Romero.

CARD OF THANKS

Willis and Bernice Reynolds, along with their family, express sincere appreciation for the friendship expressed by so many persons who remembered them with a card shower on their 60th wedding anniversary. Certainly, friends are one of life's most cherished gifts.

10-6c

I simply do not have the words to truly express my gratitude to my friends and neighbors for their outpouring of love and concern during my hospitalization and now my recovery and future treatments. The beautiful flowers, cards, food, visits, calls, and prayers, especially your prayers, mean so very much to me and to all my family. To say thank you is not adequate, but never the less, thank you so very much.

With love and appreciation,

We want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for all the cards, flowers, and visits received at the recent passing of my (Mary's) mother. Your phone calls and prayers during her hospital stay touched us deeply. All your acts of kindness during this difficult time were very much appreciated.

Words seem so inadequate at a time like this, but hopefully these will give some measure of how we feel during this time of loss and heartache.

Our thanks to the EMS people and the great job they do and for the help they gave and the compassion they showed, to the nurses at the Lockney Hospital, to the expert treatment and help we received from Moore-Rose-White Funeral Home, and to the people who came, helped, brought food for our meal at the church and to our home during this time.

We were so proud and honored by the wonderful service conducted by Reverends Clark Williams and Hal Farnsworth and the way they depicted our husband and father. Our thanks for the genuine love and comfort they gave us and to Lee Battey for taking the time to sing. It was beautiful.

To all our many friends and loved ones who sent flowers and called and were there when we needed them, there has not been a word created to tell you how much we appreciated these gestures. Having you there to share this with us has meaning beyond description.

We just pray that in your time of need you will be as blessed as we have been and that we, along with the spirit of our Lord, can be there to give you the feelings we have experienced. May God bless and keep you all.
