Money offered for decorating

The Floydada Chamber of Commerce going to make it well worth your while ## and the Punkin Day Committee are to devote a little extra time to the decorating of your home or business. County continues debate Three hundred dollars in prize money will be divided up between winners in

Once more the major topic of discussion at the Floyd County Commissioners Court meeting was the payment of as yet unknown county expenses anticipated in the construction of a highway proposed in northeast Floyd County. Precinct 3 Commissioner George Taylor made a motion that the county retain $4,000.00 each month ($1,000.00 per precinct) in the road and bridge fund to pay the expenses should it become necessary. The motion died from lack of a second. Taylor based his motion on a 1963 resolution passed by the Floyd County Commissioners Court which states that expenses related to highway construction and maintenance of paved roads in the county will be paid out of road and bridge funds, not individual precincts. He also pointed out that reserving the money did not mean it was spent, only that it was there and the commissioners would have to decide how it would be spent when the time came.

Taylor asked those present, Precinct 2 Cor missioner Floyd Jackson and Precirct 4 Commissioner Howard Bishop if they considered that resolution applicable to the present. Jackson and Bishop each indicated that they did not feel that their precincts should help finance a road in another part of the county even though other precincts have helped fund such projects in their precincts during the past thirty one years. "Would it be worth investing $125,000.00 of county money in order to get a three million dollar paved state road in the county," asked Taylor.

Bishop responded that he felt like the cost to the county would be over $300,000.00 when the project was finalized. "I might feel differently if we had revenue sharing funds like they had back in 1963," he said.

Taylor pointed out that he thought revenue sharing did not begin until the late 1960's, so the county had agreed to fund paved roads and maintenance from road and bridge without having revenue sharing funds to assist.

Jackson said, "This road is going to benefit that park at Quitaque. How Continued On Page 12

Council discusses repairs to community center

LOCKNEY - The council discussed the possibility of making necessary repairs to the Community Center. Minor items like painting and mending on the center will be done as usual by the city. The suggestion was made that the center really needs to have central heat and air installed in order to make it more useful to city residents.

Also proposed was the purchase of new tables and chairs for use at the center. Both projects could be quite expensive. The heating and air conditioning is estimated at $5,000.00 or more and tables cost about $100.00 each in addition to the cost of chairs.

Council members discussed the possibility of starting a community wide project or getting a civic group to spearhead the drive to get the heating and air conditioning and the tables and chairs. City Attorney Paul Lyle offered to make a $500.00 donation to such a project. Council member Richard Zavala suggested that private donations might be rewarded with a memorial plaque at the center if the project proved workable.

No action was taken on the proposals at this time, but the matter will be discussed again at future meetings.

The council voted unanimously to hire Leandra Hernandez as the new city billing clerk. She is to begin work on November 1, 1994. Motion for the action was made by council member Rodger Stapp and seconded by council member Bil Anderson. All voted in favor. In addition, the motion specified a starting salary of $850.00 per month for the position.

... The city will check into applying for a grant from South Plains Area Governments (SPAG) for the purpose of erecting a new water storage tower. The public water supply approval sign has been withdrawn from the city due to the inadequacy of overhead water storage available for fire protection according to City Secretary Charlotte Hooten. This does not reflect any type of problem with the city water supply quality, only storage capacity.

... A decision concerning a request to allow David and Donna Guerra to move a new mobile home onto a lot belonging to Hubert Davis at 619 E. Houston was postponed until a later meeting. Lyle suggested that the council research the current ordinances in order to determine if this is acceptable before granting permission. He also suggested that any necessary notification to adjoining residents be made before the council gives approval.

.. Jaime Silva's bid for $300.00 on a tax title lot located on Lot 25, Block 2, Tuttle Addition, was unanimously approved on a motion by Gary Marr with a second by Bil Anderson. The sale will not be final until all taxing entities involved in the Sheriff's sale property have approved the bid.

... Payment of monthly bills was authorized on a motion by council member J.D. Copeland with a second by council member Gary Marr.

... Financial statements for the previous month and for the past fiscal year were reviewed by the council. Budget amendments were approved to close out the 1993-'94 fiscal year which ended September 30, 1994.

... Minutes from the previous meetings were read by Lyle and approved as

.. Department reports included brief discussion concerning purchasing boots for city meter readers and handling street vendors in the downtown area. No action was taken on any items dis-

Early Voting Begins

Be sure and bring you voter registration card with you when you vote.

Day Care Center begins fund drive

The Floyd County Day Care Center has started a fund raising drive and are halfway to their goal of $10,000. Businesses in Floydada and Lockney are being contacted and individuals are asked to contribute also.

Businesses who have made donations up to the present time are the First National Bank in Lockney, First National Bank of Floydada, Floydada Branch of the First National Bank in Lockney, Lockney Lions Club, D & J Gin, Marble Brothers, Doucette Enterprises, Floydada Ford, Payne Pharmacy, Floyd County Hesperian-Beacon, Ray Lee Equipment, Hale's Department Store, Floydada Co-op Gins, Producers Cooperative Elevator, Clar Schacht Insurance, Kirk and Sons.

According to Director Betty Fuller, the Day Care Center opened on December 1, 1969 and is fully licensed by the State of Texas. The Center is located at 601 East Ross in Floydada.

She stated, "Any child in Floyd County, from infant to the age of 10, is eligible to come to the Center.

Mrs. Fuller reported that the average enrollment at the Center is 70 and the average daily attendance is approximately 38 children. Attendance is down when school is out for the summer, holidays and spring break.

Rates are based on family monthly incomes. Families making between $450.00-$499.00 per month pay $5.22 per day for 1 child, $9.22 for two, $11.22 for three and $15.50 for four. Families making $2800.00 and over per month pay $9.50 for one child, $13.50 for two, 12.22 for three and $16.50 for four. For $2.00 per day children up to the age of 10 can come to the Center after school.

The Day Care Center can also be used as a baby sitting service for those who need to drop off their children for the day. The cost is $8.00 for one child.

Mrs. Fuller stated that a record of up to date immunizations must be brought the first time the child comes to the Center.

"The only government support we receive is from the USDA Food Allotment and the support of local businesses, churches, clubs, organizations and individuals," Fuller said.

Besides the much needed monetary donations, Fuller says there is always a need for baby bed sheets, towels, washcloths, games, and toys.

Children at the center work according to their age level and play both inside and outside on a large variety of playground equipment. In a very clean and orderly atmosphere the youngsters take afternoon naps and always receive hot meals and snacks.

The Center is overseen by a board of directors. Ralph Jackson is president and the directors include Keith Marricle, Velma Windom, Julie Lackey, Gerry Summers, John Campbell, Denise Doucette, Tiffany Billegas, Dana Pyle, Sandra Swertner, Hope Warren, and Becky Sharp.

Donations to the fund drive can be made to the Day Care Center at 601 East Ross, Floydada

FUND RAISER HALFWAY TO GOAL--Claude Brown, representing the First National Bank in Lockney and the Floydada Branch of the First National Bank in Lockney, presented Denise Doucette with the first donation to the Floyd County Day Care Center fund raiser. The day care center has set their goal at $10,000 and have raised approximately $5,000. Donations are being accepted from businesses and individuals. Mrs. Doucette is a member of the board of directors at the child care center.

Long-time Floydada businessman dies River Youth Camp.

FLOYDADA—Longtime Floydada resident and businessman, Willie Royce Bradshaw, died Friday, Oct. 7, at the age of 65. Bradshaw, along with his son, J. Royce Bradshaw, owned and operated Caprock Motor Parts and Hardware Store in Floydada.

Caprock Motor Parts and Hardware originally began in 1961 as Caprock Cotton, Incorporated. It was formed by a group of twenty farmers and established so the farmers would have a greater selling power in the cotton market. Eventually the group branched into the motor parts busi-

In 1962, Willie Bradshaw moved to Floyd County from Turkey, Texas after he was asked by the group of famers to come manage the business now known as Caprock Motor Parts.

In 1963, Bradshaw bought into the group as a stockholder. Also in 1963, Thomas Hardware was purchased by the group and all together it became Caprock Motor Parts and Hardware.

In 1967, along with a partner, Bradshaw bought out all the other stockholders and in 1969 the business was moved to its present location at 114 W. California.

In 1978, J. Royce bought out the partner and joined his father as owner

I'm at a loss of words over what to get on a soap box about.

This column writing business is not easy. It's hard to be creative every week!

I worry that there are those of you who get bored reading stories about my family. Then there are those of you who, I'm sure, don't want to read about what I think on certain hot topics. You just wish I'd keep my opinion to myself. Then there are those of you who, I'm sure, only want funny stories and don't like my sense of humor. Anyway—I must have worried any kind of creativity right out the window this week because I have writer's block. I didn't use to know what writer's block was. Now I do.

A normal writer—one that writes when he feels like it-doesn't really have to worry about writer's block. If he gets it-nobody knows. A person who writes a weekly column can't hide the fact they have succumbed to writer's block. So they take up a lot of room talking about writer's block.

******* I do have a short story to tell you about a very nice man. I was told Jack Fuqua was asked to take care of organizing groups and individuals into decorating the highway medians.

He has decided to decorate the areas himself. He will make sure it's looking pretty by the time visitors arrive on Punkin Days and the money that would have been spent on getting people to decorate those areas will be added to the prize money for home and business decorations.

I thought that was pretty nice of Mr. ******

Do you ever wonder where stupid statistics come from?

Who makes them up and why doesn't anyone ever check on them?

Well-I've got a statistic to pass on and I hope someone checks up on it and passes it on to me.

I read recently that if you subtract 40 from the number of times a cricket chirps in one minute, then divide by 4 and add 50 to the result, it will give you the temperature in degrees Fahrenheit.

If anyone checks it out let me know. I won't pass it on to anybody if you don't want me to-just in case you don't want everyone to know you had nothing bet-

Floydada Police Report

In two separate incidents within two weeks, two Floydada women have been threatened by men who have broken into their homes through locked doors.

September 25 at 2:50 a.m., police responded to a 911 call at Friends Convenience Store.

According to the report, as the officer was pulling up to the store he noticed a woman inside the store with blood on her clothes. A man standing nearby (who the police recognized) ran away as the police pulled up to the store.

The man, later identified as Ricky Olivarez, 20, of Floydada, was chased and subdued after a struggle.

The woman at the store gave police a statement in which she stated that Olivarez had come to her home "high on paint or drunk." She refused to let him in Allegedly, according to police, Olivarez then broke the glass on the door reached inside and unlocked the door, cutting his hands in the process. Police reports state the woman ran

After his arrest, Olivarez was taken to W.J. Mangold Memorial Hospital where some of his cuts received stitches. October 2, police investigated another incident involving a man breaking into a home and threatening a woman. At approximately 4:26 p.m., police issued a Trespass Warning to Rudolfo Martinez, 35, of Petersburg, after a woman expressed her concern about him coming to her home. She told police she did not want Martinez near her house anymore.

According to police reports, Martinez again came to her house, on E. Hallie, at approximately 5:49 p.m. and kicked in the front door. The woman told police she ran out the back door to a neighbor's yard, while being pursued by Martinez. The neighbor, a man, demanded that Martinez leave. According to reports, Martinez then fled the area in his car. Warrants have been issued for his arrest.

In other police activity: October 8, police began investigating

Letters To The Editor

Dear Alice,

As many people have begun to realize, the Wall of Pride is finally in its final stage. I know there are some who wondered if it would ever get totally finished, and now I'm happy to say that that will be a reality before the year is

The new sidewalk poured by Fierros and Sons makes viewing the tiles much easier, and I appreciate the Rotary Club for making it possible.

A special thanks needs to go to Jerry Paul Cooper for donating the brick that surrounds the mural, and to Tommy and Susan Beck, Randy Henderson, Danny Lambert, and any others who helped lay

When we locate the metal that coordinates with the brick, the top part of the wall will be protected from the weather and the mural should withstand the tests of Mother Nature.

The last portion of work to be done is the landscaping, and again, I am so grateful to have a volunteer who is willing to spearhead this last phase. Laura Wilson, who recently took a course in landscaping and horticulture has developed several plans for the final layout. Working with Chris and Lana Reecer of Reecer's Lawn and Garden in Plainview, flowers, shrubs, and a red oak tree will soon be planted so that the entire area will be one of beauty.

I appreciate very much the city employees' maintenance of the grass. When next spring arrives, there will be a wonderful small park where everyone can sit and enjoy The Wall of Pride.

Several individuals and organizations have approached me during the past year to ask about the need for more dona-

Sometimes I have been overwhelmed by the amount of man hours that it took to make the wall a reality. But each time that I pass by and see someone looking at it, I know that the eighteen hundred people who worked on it have left a legacy of a town with a proud past and a generous, caring spirit.

Thanks to everyone who has made it all happen.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jane Martinez

FLOYDADA--This week at the home has been a good week. On Tuesday, Oct. 4, we had our morning coffee. We had our exercises and after lunch we had our Companions 'n' Caring meeting. Present at the meeting were Jo Wilbanks, Dolores Cannon, Shirley Varner and myself.

We talked about new news and we did not have much old news to discuss. These ladies will be helping us with our activities at the home this month.

One of our activities is our Family Potluck Dinner on Oct. 13 at 6 p.m. We will also be having our resident birthday party on Oct. 20 at 2 p.m. On Oct. 27 we will be having a pie social at 2 p.m. and on Oct. 31 we will be having a Halloween Carnival for the public at our home at 6 p.m. until about 9 p.m. Please feel free to bring your children. We will have some treats on that day.

Thursday we saw a movie on Vietnam. The residents really enjoyed the movie. We learned things about Vietnam that we didn't know about. It was an interesting movie.

Friday I was not able to come to work, but they got along well without me.

Monday we had our morning coffee with donuts, then we had our devotional. After lunch we had crafts. Two ladies from Lockney came to do crafts with our residents. They made fans and then decorated them. The residents were really pleased with these two ladies and we all want them to come back.

We are still needing volunteers if anyone is interested. We would also enjoy anyone who would like to come and do some entertainment for us. If you are interested just call the home or call me here from 9 a.m. til 3 p.m.

Until next time!

Angina is temporary pain or tightness that starts in the chest and sometimes radiates to other parts of the upper body. It comes on suddenly and usually lasts only a few minutes. It most often occurs when there are extra demands on the heart, such as during exercise, emotional stress, and exposure to cold or win. Some people also develop angina after eating a large meal, which requires increased blood flow to digest.

In severe cases, angina occurs at unpredictable times, and attacks are increasingly difficult to control. This is called unstable angina, and it is often a forerunner of a heart attack.

Angina is caused by a shortage of oxygen and other nutrients reaching the heart muscle. This occurs most often when the coronary arteries, which encircle and nourish the heart muscle, become narrowed or clogged with deposits of fatty plaque (atherosclerosis). The actual pain of angina is produced when the heart muscle is starved for oxygen, a condition called ischemia.

Some people experience angina when they are not exerting themselves, perhaps even while sleeping. Scientists think this form of angina is caused by a spasm or constriction in the coronary arteries, usually at the site of atherosclerosis. This is referred to as resting or variant angina.

The symptoms of angina include chest pain behind the breastbone. Pressure, tightness, or burning in the chest. Pain radiating to the arm, neck, jaw or back. Chest pain that occurs during exercise, after a heavy meal, on a cold windy day, or when under stress. It is imperative that you see a doctor as soon as possible if angina attacks become more frequent or severe. Such changes are often a warning sign of an impending heart attack.

Angina is diagnosed on the basis of symptoms, physical examination, and tests such as an exercise stress test or coronary angiography, a special x-ray study of the heart's circulation.

Many people can control angina by making lifestyle changes that lower the heart's workload and reduce stress. To do this it is important to stop smoking, since smoking makes the heart work harder. Lose excess weight and start an exercise program, but check with your doctor first. Lower your blood cholesterol by eating less fat. Eat several light meals a day rather than fewer large ones, and rest after eating. Do not go out on extremely cold days.

Decrease the risk of an angina attack by identifying and controlling factors that trigger chest pain. For example, avoid running up stairs or racing to catch a bus or being outdoors on cold, windy days. Anger and stress also provoke an-

A medically supervised exercise program can increase tolerance to physical activity, improve heart function, and help build collateral circulation to the heart muscle.

Recurrent chest pains, shortness of breath, and other symptoms of angina warrant prompt medical attention. If the pain does not subside quickly or you have other symptoms that may be associated with a heart attack, go to the nearest hospital emergency room. Contact your family physician for more infor-

Carthel family gathers for annual reunion

The annual Carthel reunion was held on Saturday, October 1 in the Lockney Community Center. Over 110 relatives and friends of J.M. and Catherine Carthel enjoyed lunch and visitation.

President John Lee Carthel conducted the business meeting during which officers were elected for the next reunion. Those elected to offices were Lindan Morris, president; Ronald Carthel, vicepresident and Bettye Jackson, secretary-

The oldest member present was John T. Carthel, 93. Traveling the greatest distance was Kelly M. Harrison of Falls Church, Virginia. Shelby Vick, one year old daughter of James and Dana Vick of Lockney, was the youngest family member present.

Heads of each family introduced themselves and their family members. Families of six of the eleven J.M. and Catherine Carthel children were represented. The W.A. (Babe) Carthel family had the most family members present with a total of 45.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the family enjoyed the second auction of handmade items. The auction was conducted by John Lee Carthel and Ronald Carthel.

The next Carthel reunion will be held the first Saturday of October, 1995. Another auction of handmade items will be held at that time.

Gate to home games opens at 6:00 p.m.

FLOYDADA--Floydada I.S.D. reminds Whirlwind fans that the last home football games, on Oct. 14 against Littlefield and Nov. 4 against Friona, are District ball games and will start at 7:30 p.m. For your convenience, all gates at Wester Field will open at 6:00 p.m. on those two nights.

FHS Freshmen battle Dimmitt to scoreless tie By Bill Gray

FLOYDADA--Floydada's 9th grade Whirlwinds and the Dimmitt freshmen squad fought to a 0-0 tie at Wester Field on October 6. According to the coaches, "It was a good effort by both teams defensively.

Named by the coaches as outstanding offensive players were Kyle Pierce (line), Tim Simpson (end) and Adam Perales (back). Cited for their defensive performances were Michael Palacios and Jason Campbell. Richard Casillas was especially praised for his three pass interceptions.

There was no junior varsity game scheduled against Dimmitt.

Bobcats roar past Whirlwinds

FLOYDADA--The Dimmitt Bobcats opened District 2-3A action by scoring 21 unanswered first half points and held on to defeat Floydada 27-6 at Bobcat Stadium last Friday. It was the first Dimmitt victory over the Whirlwinds since the 1979 season as the Bobcats improved to 2-4 on the year and 1-0 in district action. Floydada slipped to 2-4 overall and opened district play with a loss for the first time in eight years.

The Whirlwinds, who had outscored Dimmitt 46-0 the past two years, opened the game with a 12-play drive. A 22-yard run by Pete Cooper moved the 'Winds into Dimmitt territory on only the game's third play and it appeared that Floydada was on its way to another decisive roll over the Bobcats. That was not to be the

A stout Bobcat defense, coupled with an intentional grounding penalty, stopped Floydada's only sustained drive of the first half. The Bobcats took possession on downs at their own 33-yard line and moved 67 yards in only eight snaps. Tailback Derrick Thomas carried the final five yards, Emilio Nino added the PAT kick, and the Bobcats were on the scoreboard with 4:04 remaining in the first quarter.

Late in the opening period, Stephen Villanueva's 67-yard punt return set up the Bobcats' second touchdown. Following the ensuing kickoff, the Whirlwinds committed the first of four turnovers. However Floydada's Peter Luna recovered a Dimmitt fumble on the first snap of the second quarter.

Whirlwind quarterback Sammy Rodriguez hit wideout Ken Cummings with a 45-yard aerial of a "waggle" play from the Floydada 16-yard line. The 'Winds moved deep into Dimmitt territory, but stalled on a fourth down attempt at the Bobcat 11.

The Bobcats consumed six minutes off the clock as they drove 91 yards in 11 plays for another touchdown before intermission. A key play in the scoring

FLOYDADA--According to head

coach Bryan Davis, "We were pleased

Dimmitt. We were only two or three drive was Jason Wooten's 22-yard run of a fake punt. Wooten also hit Brandon Smith with a 17-yard pass to keep the scoring drive alive. Wooten carried the final three yards and Nino added the extra point to put Dimmitt in command

The second half turned into a defensive struggle as Floydada battled to get back into the game. The Whirlwinds' opening drive stalled at midfield, and Zach Abshier's punt pushed the 'Cats back to their own 15-yard line. Dimmitt managed one first down before attempting its first punt - which was partially blocked by Michael Mercado.

The Whirlwinds capitalized on Mercado's defensive gem and scored four plays later on a Rodriguez-to-Vernon Cooper pass from the 17-yard line. Floydada sophomore Monty Anderson, making his first appearance in a varsity game, saved a sure touchdown by Villanueva on the ensuing kick-

Fullback Dagan Newton sealed the Bobcat victory with a 53-yard touchdown romp late in the third quarter, but Vernon Cooper's interception early in the final stanza gave the 'Winds another opportunity. However, on third down, backup quarterback Monty Anderson was blind-sided and gave up the ball on another Floydada turnover.

Following an exchange of punts, an Anderson pass was picked off by Dimmitt's Dagan Newton. The Bobcats were unable to pick up a first down to run out the clock and were forced to punt. Anderson completed his first varsity pass, a 49-yard pass-and-run combination to Pete Cooper, but the 'Winds were unable to move any closer than Dimmitt's 27-yard line as time expired.

Dimmitt travels to Shallowater this week in the Mustangs' home opener in District 2-3A. Shallowater and Friona fought to a 14-all tie last Friday. The Whirlwinds host pre-season district favorite Littlefield, a 54-6 victor at Muleshoe last week.

BILL'S NOTES

It was a tough loss to the Bobcats, and it doesn't get any easier with league favorite Littlefield coming to Wester this week. But, as Coach Bryan Davis said, "The kids have put it (the Dimmitt loss) behind them and are preparing for the Wildcats."

In spite of the rather one-sided loss to Dimmitt . . . there were many bright points. A bunch of sophomores up from the JV got in some valuable Friday night experience . . and several made a real contribution. Monty Anderson played well defensively, and, at times, displayed great promise at QB. The Whirlwinds haven't scrapped the season and said, "Wait 'till next year!" just yet. There is a lot of football yet to be played, and some of those sophs are going to help a lot in the coming weeks.

The defense did an outstanding job containing Derrick Thomas - especially in the second half. The talented back had 100 yards rushing in the first 24 minutes, but the 'W inds held him in check throughout the final two quarters. Thomas is the top runner in this district, and rates right up there with Slaton's Oskar Solis in the area.

Sammy Rodriguez gets my nod for the second week in a row for his "headhunter" shot he put on Derrick Thomas . . . again when Sammy was carrying the ball. I made my pick after reviewing the film . . . it happened on the third play of the opening drive of the second half. 'Way to pop, Sammy!

My choice for the offensive play of the game goes to Sammy's "waggle" pass to Cummings, and it was easy to name Derrick Thomas as the offensive player of the game. The defensive "gem" that stands out for me was Michael Mercado's partial punt block which set up the Whirlwinds' only score. No outstanding individual defender comes to mind, but the entire defensive unit deserves praise for shutting down Thomas in the second half and giving the offense more than one chance to get back into the game.

Here come the Wildcats, and it promises to be another battle-royal. They bombed Muleshoe last week and will do the same to the Winds if Floydada fails to turn it up a couple of notches. The "ice" game last year was probably closer than it should have been due to the weather. The weather conditions won't be around tomorrow night to equalize things, so that will be up to Floydada's de-

The 'Cats will rightfully be favored by about 24 points, but I can't see that. They are well-coached and disciplined and don't make many mistakes. If there was any time in recent years that the ol' Whirlwind pride could surface and propel us into an upset, it could be this week. A victory over Littlefield and Floydada is right back into a playoff possibility. The 'Cats should prevail, but don't bet the pumpkin p

Your local and regional cotton cooperatives offer a vertically integrated system that takes your cotton from the field to the textile mill. It's a system that adds valuable income to your farming operation. Ginning, warehousing, marketing, textile manufacturing, and cottonseed processing all work to increase the value of your cotton crop every step of the way. For the 1993 cotton crop, combined cash payments from the local and regional cotton cooperatives averaged $51.62 per bale, over and above the value of your lint cotton. Thus, the more cotton you send through the cooperative system, the more you can add to your net profits. Consider the cooperative advantage for your cotton crop. ## Lockney Longhorns and Morton tie, 8-8

By Mark Todd Terrell

Lockney — It seemed as though the Lockney Longhorns and Morton Indians were on a seesaw. The opportunities were there, but neither team could capitalize due to penalties that stopped their offensive drives short.

Despite several penalties, the Horns got off to a strong start. Carlos Perales booted a 55-yard punt late in the first quarter to start the Indians off at the 2yard line. Then Matthew Raissez and Ramon Padilla combined to down the attempt was unsuccessful. Morton quarterback for a safety.

After the kickoff, the Longhorns

"Daddy Coaches" help create a winning team in class and on the field

LOCKNEY--A new approach to academics in athletics has given the Longhorn athletes unprecedented success in the classroom as well as on the football

Implemented by new head coach and athletic director, Malcom Moerbe, the "Daddy Coach" system is paying big dividends for LHS with record success being recorded at the end of the first six

For the first time in many years, no football player failed any course.

"It's one way we can really keep track of how the kids are doing in class," said

Coaches inform the teachers of the six to eight athletes that they are responsible for. In turn, the teachers contact the coach if a student begins to lag behind in their studies or if they create any sort of discipline problem.

"It has made a tremendous difference in the atmosphere in my classes," said Lisa Mosley, art teacher. "The athletes know that if they mess up, they will be held responsible.'

Moerbe knows that it has to be a combined effort between the coaches, the players, and the teachers. "We have that there in Lockney, and that's what's making it work so successfully."

seemed to be stampeding. Charles Van Zandt returned the kick to the Morton 40-yard line and Devon Phillips proceeded to run it in for a 40-yard touchdown. The PAT failed.

An interception by Tanner Johnson punctuated the roll the Horns were on, as did good runs by Phillips and Lalo Chavira. A 30-yard pass to Shannon Veal put the Horns on the 6-yard line. Morton was able to hold and the Longhorns were forced to kick. The field goal

After the half, it seemed as though the tide had turned and Morton was taking over. The Indians pushed their way down field to score on a quarterback sneak, evening the score at 8-8.

Lockney received the kickoff and the Horns were once again in charge. Lalo Chavira ran the kick back to the Morton 38. Lockney got within scoring range only to be halted on penalties once more.

Morton took the point and was running forcefully for several plays until Devon Phillips intercepted a halfback

A 25-yard pass got the Longhorns back on track and in scoring range. However, it seems the Horns were not meant to break the 8-point barrier this

Both teams had the opportunity, but after reaching an 8-point tie, no one could get into the end zone in what proved to be a seesaw battle.

The Horns have moved into 4th place in the district and now face Number 2, Hart, this Friday night at Hart.

With the exception of Springlake, Hart is the best team we have seen this year. They play a very physical type of game. Their offensive and defensive lines are excellent, they have a very capable passing game and their backs are extremely tough. We will have our hands full, but I fully believe we are ready. Our skin is beginning to rub a little raw from having our backs up against the wall so much this year, but 156.

Lockney 7th grade ties Morton, 14-14

By Coach Rodney Dowell LOCKNEY — The seventh grade Shorthorns clashed Thursday night with the Morton Indians in Morton. The bus ride to Morton must have taken a toll on the Shorthorns as they practically slept through the first quarter.

The Indians struck hard in the first quarter with a fourteen to nothing lead. After the Shorthorns had their backs to the wall, the offense, led by Elias Saucedo, came out swinging.

The second quarter was dominated by the Shorthorn defense. Brandon Prather returned a 60-yard interception late in the second quarter to tie the score. However, the play was called back. Nonetheless, it sent the Shorthorns into touchdown by Elias Saucedo, but the Shorthorns were unable to capitalize on the two-point conversion. The remainder of the game was a defensive struggle Defensive standouts were Brandon Prather, Jordan Lambert, Josh Quebe. and Robert Bartlett. Offensive standouts were Jordan Lambert, Elias Saucedo, and Rolf Sherman.

Cummings rolled out and hit David Hernandez on a 20-yard strike. Carson Johnson's PAT was good, making the score 13-0. Morton then drove down the field to make the score 13-8 at the half. The second half was a scoring frenzy nez, David Hernandez, and Tyson PAT was good. Later, Anthony Poole McDonald. Outstanding defensive perbullied his way into the endzone from five yards out, but Johnson's PAT failed. Willie Luna scored on two punt returns, the first a 50-yard explosion up the field. The second was a 30-yard touchdown. He made on a shoe string grab and spun off of a would-be tackler, then received a crushing block from Bryan Bybee to free Luna into the endzone. The final score was 38-14.

from 6-yards out and Carson Johnson's Lockney 8th graders lose to Morton

By Coach Todd Hallmark LOCKNEY - The Lockney 8th graders traveled to Morton and played well, but lost due to penalties and fumbles. The Indians scored early when the Shorthorns fumbled on their own 30yard line. Three plays later, Morton was up by 6 points. A successful two-point conversion made the score 8-0. The Shorthorns came firing back, driving the ball down the field, but penalties stopped the drive. Defense played well, keeping us in the ball game.

The second half went back and forth until Morton got on the board early in the fourth quarter. It became a defensive battle with the Shorthorns having a couple of opportunities to get on the board but could not punch it in.

Said the coach, "I was proud of the way the guys played, but we just hurt ourselves with mistakes. We had a couple of opportunities to score, but could not get the ball in the endzone. We are ready to bounce back and play better

The team will play again here on Thursday against Hart.

Hey All You Longhorn Fans..

This week the Lockney Longhorns will be taking on the Hart Longhorns. This game promises to be a "doozie". Starting on Thursday there will only be two games. The 8th grade game will start at 5:00 p.m. and the junior vasity game immediately after. Both games will be in Lockney.

On Friday the Varsity will be traveling to Hart and the game will begin at 7:30. Come out and support your Longhorns and bring all the noisemakers you can!

Only the Strong Survive in '95

By Jennifer Harbin

FLOYDADA--The class of 1995 is off to a great start this year. We've held class and Student Council elections. The seniors who hold class offices this year are Joni Smith (President), Shea Sanders (Vice-President), Olga Sanchez (Secretary) and Jennifer Harbin (Reporter). Our senior Student Council representatives are Salina Shorter (President), Angie Bueno, D.G. Hollums, Olivia Huerta, Olga Sanchez, Juan Valdez and Brian Nichols (Reporter).

At open house our National Honor Society Chapter, composed of all seniors, helped direct traffic for parents and visitors. Seniors also ordered their caps and gowns. Fall activities the Seniors of '95 are involved in are band, football and cross country.

In the future we hope to provide the reader with an inside view of our senior class. Every week we will feature two or three seniors and their roles as students in Floydada High School.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED GAS RATE CHANGE

On September 20, 1994 Energas Company filed Statements of Intent to change its gas rates and service charges with the Texas Railroad Commission and each incorporated city listed below. The proposed changes will take effect no sooner than

The Company proposes to increase its customer charge by 89 cents per month with no other changes to its gas rate schedules. The change would apply to General Service (residential and commercial) and Small Industrial Service. The Company also proposes the following increased service charges:

	During Business Hours	After Hours
Turn on new service with meter set	$23.50	$35.25
Turn on service (shut-in test required)	19.00	28.50
Turn on service (meter read only required)
and miscellaneous service calls	10.50	15.75
Reconnect delinquent service or service
temporarily off at customer's request	29.50	39.00
Dishonored check charge	25.00

The proposed changes are expected to increase the Company's annual revenues by approximately 1.9% and therefore do not constitute a "major change." The proposed changes could affect approximately 217,000 gas consumers in the following communities and surrounding rural areas:

Abernathy	Hart	O'Donnell	Southland*
Amherst	Hereford	Olton	Springlake

Youth Livestock Projects

In some parts of the United States, it is becoming more difficult for families involved in 4-H and FFA livestock projects to continue because of protestors from animal welfare and animal rights groups at stock shows. The animal welfare and animal rights groups use these projects as prime examples why their causes should be accepted.

We must understand that detractors of any segment of society pick out an activity which involves a small portion of the population which has been successful and tries to create the perception that it is bad and the cause of societal problems. The youth livestock project is the perfect cause celebre.

Some clear distinctions can be drawn between welfare and rights of animals. Animal welfare deals primarily with the proper care of animals. Farmers and ranchers have historically been strong supporters of this concept, because they believe animals raised under humane conditions and practices will be the most productive and profitable. Yet the animal rights philosophy goes beyond the belief of protecting the physical wellbeing of animals and seeks to establish that animals have inherent legal and ethical rights like those of humans. To follow this belief means the complete elimination of all uses of animals for food, clothing, leisure or research. This philosophy, if carried out, would lead to total destruction of animal agriculture.

While most in the general public still hold farmers and ranchers in high regard, we must not take this good will for granted. It is important to emphasize that the goal of agriculture producers is to feed the hungry both here and abroad. As our culture becomes increasingly urban, fewer people have contact with agriculture or understand what agriculture entails. Further, misinformation in this age of "perception is reality" have fostered distorted notions concerning the role of animals in serving humanity and what animals needs may be.

There are however, less than one percent of the people involved in the youth livestock projects who should not be. Not only are they teaching their children poor ethics and unscrupulous tactics, but are hurting the agricultural industry as a whole. It is those with poor ethics that are capable of doing anything "to win", that these animal rights groups use as examples. Animal agriculture, mainly beef production, is a very important segment of our county's ag income and the 4-H and FFA livestock projects help in the continuation of that segment. We don't have protestors at our county show, like you might see at some major shows, but we don't want to either.

If you would like more information on youth livestock projects, animal rights and welfare, and the importance of animal agriculture give me a call here at the Floyd County office of the Texas Agriculture Extension Service at 983-

Private property rights was a major rights or agricultural production. issue addressed by approximately 1,000 soil and water conservation district directors who attended the 54th annual meeting in Austin on Sept. 26-28.

Attending from the Floyd County Soil and Water Conservation District were directors Leslie Nixon, J.O. Dawdy, and Leon Ferguson along with SCS district conservationist Jon J. LaBaume. Others attending were Mrs. Dawdy, Ferguson and LaBaume.

Key speaker for the first morning session was Governor Ann Richards speaking on the Endangered Species Act. Other program speakers included Soil Conservation Service's Washington Chief Paul Johnson.

Members of the Association of Texas Soil and Water Conservation Districts passed several resolutions including the protection of private property rights. Other resolutions passed addressed the USDA/Soil Conservation Service progress reporting system and the need for additional funds for district person-

The resolution urging the protection of private property rights was submitted by the Nueces-Frio-Sabinal SWCD and the West Nueces-Los Moras SWCD. The resolution states that soil and water conservation districts strongly oppose any legislation or regulatory interpretation that adversely impacts property

"We want it understood that legislative acts and regulatory mandates such as the Endangered Species Act, the Clean Water Act, and the National Biological Survey which regards the environment, water quality and quantity, food safety, animal welfare and other related issues are getting out of hand," said P.H. Coates, member of the West Nueces-Los Moras SWCD headquartered in Bracketville.

"Pressures to enforce these acts and mandates will continue to burden private property owners and affect their right to engage in their individual agricultural operations. Everyone is concerned about the loss of property values as well as their ability to realize a livelihood," added Coates.

Conservation district officials attending the annual meeting maintained that regulation without compensation is like stripping owners of freedom of speech, due process and other fundamental liberties set out in the Bill of Rights.

Soil and water conservation districts directors also supported a resolution seeking changes in the current USDA/ SCS progress reporting system. This resolution was proposed by the Toyah-Limpia SWCD and the Menard County SWCD.

According to Dick Runge, chairman of the Menard County SWCD, decisions eration of field offices are being made on the basis of the current reporting system. It appears these decisions tend to favor areas where cropland is most

Following are some of the items considered in the current evaluation system: acres of agricultural land, size and number of agricultural operating units, population, and degree of erosion.

The USDA/SCS Office of Management and Budget used this criteria to develop a list of field offices for closure in November of 1993. A large percentage of offices selected for closure were in sparsely populated districts consisting of mostly rangeland.

The resolution adopted by the ATSWCD directors calls for revisions in the reporting system to evaluate the "effect of technical assistance" on humans and their natural resource system that includes soil, water, air, plants and

Texas soil and water conservation district directors also resolved to work in cooperation with the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board to seek additional funding to assist districts in providing technical personnel to better address the conservation needs of individuals, cities, counties and the state.

Soil and water conservation districts through a Memorandum of Understanding with the USDA/SCS depend on personnel of the USDA/SCS to provide technical assistance to individuals concerning conservation and environmental quality programs mandated by law. According to Joe Hargus, chairman of regarding technical assistance and op- the Marion-Cass SWCD, budget cuts have reduced the (USDA) SCS personnel and closed field offices in some areas leaving districts without the technical assistance needed to handle the workloads. In addition to the uncertainties of raising funds locally, the directors of soil and water conservation districts also face budget reductions on the state level making it difficult to employ a full-time professional to handle technical respon-

-- From Texas and Southwestern water treatment. Cattle Raisers Association

The Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association and the Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners Association will conduct seminars on land use and environmental issues affecting both cattle and oil producers Tuesday, Nov. 1, in Amarillo and Pampa. The purpose of the joint seminars will be educational, but the meetings are also billed as a possible first step toward a unified approach to environmental and land use legislation next year. The morning meeting will be held at Boatmen's First National Bank in Amarillo at 701 S. Taylor from 10 a.m. to noon. The afternoon session will be held at the Pampa Chamber of Commerce at 200 N. Ballard from 2-4 p.m.

Chaunce Thompson, TSCRA first vice president, will discuss how enforcement of the federal Endangered Species Act in Texas is adversely impacting cattle producers. Of local interest will be his comments on the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's proposals to protect the Arkansas River shiner and the swift Thompson also will focus on other environmental land-use issues affecting agricultural landowners. He will provide an outlook for property rights and environmental legislation at the state and federal level. FCE members are celebrating nationally this week and are promoting membership in this county with an information Lunch and Learn program October 13 during the noon hour. Bring a brown bag lunch and learn how you can get involved.

Club members make new friends as they learn about literacy, television and it's impact on children, new nutrition research, family economics, community leadership, international issues and other life skills. Learning takes place through trained club leaders who reteach lessons they've attended, workshops, resource people, field trips, district, state and national meetings.

Membership is open to anyone regardless of socioeconomic level, race, religion, sex, color, age, disability, or national origin. FCE clubs are partners with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Texas A&M University System and draw on that resource for program support.

County members are part of 12,000 members in Texas and 300,000 members nationally. Their goal is strengthening families through continuing education, leadership development and community service.

The United Nations has declared 1994 the International Year of the Family and clubs have emphasized ways for families to celebrate this year. Some of their recommendations include starting a family journal, celebrating family heri-

Cards of Thanks

Dear Friends,

I just want to let each of you know I appreciate your cards, calls and especially your prayers in my behalf in recent days. We are each blessed in many ways and I consider each of you a blessing. Thank You!.

Sandra Bradley

We wish to thank each of you for all the kindness shown during our stay in the hospital and now my recovery at home. The beau tiful flowers, cards, visits, calls, and, most of all, your prayers are greatly appreciated. Thanks again,

Joe and Alta Thurston 10-13p

The administration and staff of Floydada High School would like to thank the following people for their help in making the FHS Fall Open House a tremendous success: FHS National Honor Society (registration, ushers), Student Council (refreshments), Cafeteria Workers (refreshments), and Custodians; and Floydada Merchants who contributed door prizes. Perry Brothers, Inc., Hale's Department Store, Payne's Family Pharmacy, Feature Attractions, Our Place Drive-In, Lowe's Pay-n-Save Marketplace, Tipton Oil & Butane, and Floydada ISD.

Over 185 students were represented by their parent (s) or guardian (s), making this the largest group attending a FHS Open House in the past several years.

Thanks Parents, and come again!

Joe Christian, Principal Floydada High School 10-13c

At sorrowful times, words seem so shallow and small, to try to convey the heartfelt appreciation and love in our hearts to the community of Floydada. In our darkest hours, you supported us with your prayers, food, flowers, visits, and memorials. We will never forget the sacrifice you all made to help our family. We are once again reminded of all the reasons Mother loved living in this

God bless you all and please remember to pray for us in the days ahead.
