We have a modest proposal for balancing the federal budget, which we herewith submit to what will undoubtedly be a grateful nation.

Our proposal is not at all complicated. In fact, it is very simple. And like many simple solutions to major problems, this would have far-reaching, beneficial effect in other areas. We could not only balance the budget with very small program cuts (comparatively speaking), we could also improve our creditability around the world.

We propose that the State of Israel be made the 51st state within the United States.

That could save the American taxpayers more than $120 Billion in "foreign aid" over the next twenty years. And there could be many billions more in ancillary benefits.

We realize Israel will resist this idea, and history teaches us that the Government of the United States will follow whatever path the government of Israel wishes it to follow. Still, there comes a time when a great and powerful nation, like the U.S., must stand up for itself. This is one of those times.

Our own legislative body (the U.S. Congress, not the Israeli Knesset) is tied in knots over what programs to kill, cut, or continue. Some unthinking Republican Congressmen had the audacity to suggest, for instance, a cut in foreign aid. That might have an impact on the amount of money flowing to Israel. And that brought down the wrath of AIPAC, the American-Israeli Political Action Committee. It also brought down the wrath of President Clinton and those Congressmen who benefit from AIPAC's largesse.

The Congressmen who suggested the cut evidently haven't gotten the message. Senator Jesse Helms, having narrowly escaped a beating at the hands of AIPAC back in 1984, and having scurried off to Israel after the election for pictorial "kiss and make up" sessions, has announced that cuts in aid to Israel are "off the table." In short, AIPAC made a believer out of Jesse. Senator Helms is a smart, if hypocritical, politician. That means, no doubt, that the usual $3 Billion stipend (plus another $3 Billion in interest free loans, grants, etc.) will be automatically forwarded this year, as it is for as long as all but the very oldest among us can remember.

In 1993 the American taxpayers shelled out $6,321,000,000 (that's $6 Billion, plus another 321 million) to the tiny state of Israel, enough for $1,800 for every man, woman and child in the Israeli population. That means that a family of four in Israel was subsidized to the tune of $7,200 from the American taxpayer, via the Israeli government and Israeli politicians. And President Clinton has assured Israel that the 1995 level will be held at that same level, no matter what they do about the settlements. Needless to say, the people of Israel did not pay taxes (to the U.S.) on that income.

Congress is now wrestling with a five year budget. At the moment it is arguing with Clinton over a matter to some $16 Billion in "rescissions", or cutbacks in programs previously authorized. The matter is deemed so important that Clinton has threatened to veto the cuts.

Think about it. During that same time frame the money going to Israel will equal more than $30 Billion, twice as much as the amount over which the Congress and Administration are arguing about in domestic "rescissions". And the specific subject of aid to Israel will not even be discussed.

While our own government wrestles with the idea of reforming the welfare state in this country, it perpetuates the welfare state of Israel with continual, never-ending subsidies. Very strange.

There appears to be only one politically practical solution. Make Israel a state in the Union.

If they resist, we would merely need to cut off their annual dole from the American taxpayer. Within a few months they would be clamoring for admission. Or, we could treat them like they treat non-Jewish inhabitants of that land. We could send in the troops, bulldoze their homes and erect high rise apartments for those Americans now

Knox City girl critical after tragic accident

A tragic accident in Floyd County, Saturday night June 10, resulted in serious injuries to an 18 year old Knox City girl, Jodee Homestead. A 35 year old Floydada man, Rudy Valadez suffered face and chest injuries.

The accident occurred at approximately 10:00 p.m., 2.3 miles west of Floydada on FM 784.

According to DPS reports, three pickup trucks were parked in a line facing east in the eastbound lane of FM 784. The first pickup was a 1993 Chevrolet S-10, driven by Chris Lee Hacker, 19, of Knox City; the 2nd pickup was a 1993 GMC driven by Chad Guthrie, 17, of Floydada; the 3rd pickup was driven by Nicholas Neal Nelson, 17, of Floydada.

Witness statements indicate that Hacker, Melissa Cologne, of Knox City, Jodee Homestead, and Shane Derryberry, 16, of Floydada, were standing on the roadway. Homestead was near the driver's door of the 2nd pickup at the time of the accident.

The first pickup was not occupied. Other occupants in Guthrie's vehicle were Amanda Ogden, 18, Todd Hinsley, 16, and Joe Hernandez, 20.

The third pickup was occupied by Nelson, and Tara McCandless, 17, of Floydada.

Reports are that a 1961 Mercury Comet traveling west on FM 784, driven by Rudy Valadez, swerved out of his lane and sideswiped the first pickup.

The Comet continued down the side of the pickup and then struck the front headlight and front left fender area of Guthrie's pickup, pinning Homestead between the Comet and GMC pickup. The other teenagers were able to get out of the way in time.

Shane Derryberry escaped injury by jumping onto the tool box in the back of the first pickup.

The force of the impact shoved Guthrie's pickup into the front of Nelson's pickup. Nelson and McCandless were not injured.

Todd Hinsley suffered a possible broken nose but the other occupants of Guthrie's pickup were not injured. After striking Homestead, the Comet appeared to bounce off the pickup and continued west on the highway crossing back over the center line to the right and then back left across the center line before running off the road, hitting a new telephone pole lying on the ground, and finally stopping on the back side of a bar ditch on the south side of the road.

Floydada Police and EMS responded to the accident.

Paramedic Mike Reeves requested the immediate dispatch of AeroCare, however because of the estimated arrival time of 20 minutes, the decision was made to try and meet AeroCare halfway by transporting Homestead and Valadez to Petersburg.

Because of water on the highways the travel of the ambulance was slower than expected. AeroCare spotted the ambulance on the way to Petersburg and radioed for them to stop on FM 37.

AeroCare landed on FM 37 and Homestead was moved from the ambulance to the helicopter. She was then flown to Methodist Hospital where she underwent surgery to remove the left leg at the hip. Homestead remains in critical condition.

Valadez was discharged from UMC Hospital June 12.

DPS Sgt. Fant said a blood alcohol test is being run on Valadez to determine if alcohol was a factor in the accident. The results of the test will not be available for approximately one month.

A FAMILIAR T-BALL SIGHT--In the T-Ball game the hardest things for the children to learn is usually not hitting, throwing or catching the ball, but how to keep their attention on the game. There is never a season go by that parents and coaches don't get a good laugh at the antics in the outfield. Cartwheels and handstands are always a favorite among the youngsters. This 2nd baseman at the new Lockney T-Ball field seemed unconcerned about the hitter up to bat and decided to burn off a little energy with a few quick handstands.

Track facility being considered for LISD

By Alice Gilroy

LOCKNEY -- In a regular monthly meeting, June 8, the Lockney School Board voted to meet with an architect to develop plans and get cost estimates for the construction of a new track.

"We have been talking about building a track for a long time," said Superintendent Raymond Lusk. "We decided it was time to take some action on it and decide if we could even afford a track."

"We have not decided to take on the project yet," said Lusk. "We will first get the estimates."

The architect will report to the board on two different possibilities for the construction of a track.

A cost estimate will be made on the construction of a track at the football stadium. The existing bleachers would have to be moved back to put in the track and the trustee will have to decide if this will be cost effective.

Another possibility would be placing the track behind the elementary school. Bleachers, fences, restrooms and lights would have to be erected in this area.

The preliminary budget was also discussed by the board. According to Lusk the budget shows an increase of $120,000 over last year's budget.

"The increase is almost all salaries," said Lusk, "and the increase will hopefully be offset by state revenue. However we are not sure yet."

"We are still waiting for final interpretations on the new salary scale."

The total budget for the 1995-96 school year will be $4,376,428.00.

Lusk gave the financial report to trustees. He stated LISD has an investment balance of $1.8 million and a bank balance of $606,000.00. "We will receive only one more state payment in July," said Lusk. "June and August bills will be paid out of what is in the bank and we still have to pay approximately $175,000 to finish out the new library."

School principals presented campus TAAS reports.

Twenty eight students were tested at the High School for the TAAS Exit Test and 89% passed Reading, 73% passed Math and 96% passed Writing. The 1995 scores were up 13% in reading, 12% in Writing and down 2% in Math.

The number of students failing to meet the minimum expectations of some portion of the test in Reading were: 3 sophomores, 2 juniors and 1 senior.

In Math, 8 sophomores and 3 juniors failed to meet minimum expectations.

In Writing, 1 sophomore and 1 junior did not pass.

The high school students who did not pass certain portions of the TAAS Exit Test will have to retake the part of the Test they did not master, before they can receive their diploma.

At Lockney Elementary the percentage of students passing the TAAS tests showed an increase in all areas, except for 4th grade writing.

In the 5th grade: 78% of the students passed the Math portion of TAAS, which is an increase of 21% over last

County hears views of Precinct 2 residents

By Juanita Stepp

Several residents of Precinct 2 were at the regular June session of the court on Monday to present views concerning the maintaining of a road in their area. Kenneth Brosech told the court on June 12 that County Road 110 in Precinct 2 is "in pretty good shape and we would like to keep it that way or better."

The statement was heard by Commissioners Connie Bearden, Lennie Gilroy, George Taylor and Jon Jones. Judge Bill Hardin was also present for the meeting. Among others attending were Kenneth and Juanita Brosech, Mr. and Mrs. James Pinner, Rudy Zachary, and Jim Roberts.

According to Brosech, the road has been partially graveled and those who frequently use the road do not want the ditches deepened. Former Precinct 2 Commissioner Floyd Jackson also addressed the court, saying that he had devoted a lot of time and effort to getting the road into shape and planting grass in the ditches to make runoff water flow better when he was commissioner.

Current Precinct 2 Commissioner Lennie Gilroy asked if there was a reason why anyone thought that the condition of the road would change. Brosech replied, "If you start maintaining those ditches, it will get worse."

Jackson added that if the area gets a big rain, it will wash out the road. He also asked Gilroy why the grass had been pulled out of the ditches. Gilroy responded that to his knowledge, the road had only had minimum maintenance on the roadway surfaces due to recent rains, and that the ditches had not been dug out since sometime before he took office in January.

Jackson told those present that he had spoken with the state engineer in Lubbock about the problem when he was still in office and that if the county secured easements, the state would maintain the waterway for the runoff from the adjacent state road. He said that this is the way it is handled on several other intersections along the state road. He indicated that his attempt to obtain easements had not been successful due to the location of power poles in relation to the county road.

Gilroy stated that no one had spoken with him about the problems they appear to feel are present in the area. Both Jackson and Brosech said that they just assumed that someone had talked to Gilroy and that he had not responded so they came to commissioners court to present their views.

Gilroy stated that he would contact those who came to court and discuss the situation with them in an effort to deter-

FLOYDADA — Producers Coop Elevator Manager Bob Vickers reported that the local grain facility had received the first load of wheat for the 1995 harvest season on Friday, June 9. Vickers stated that the truck bearing the initial wheat harvested arrived at the elevator about 8:30 a.m. It was harvested by Curtis Sanders of Sanders and Son.

The wheat was grown on land belonging to Melvin Lloyd. Test weight on the grain was 58 pounds to the bushel and the moisture content was 11 percent.

FISD approves gym contract

By Juanita Stepp

FLOYDADA — The low bidder on the mechanical package for the new FHS gym appeared before the Floydada Independent School District Board of Trustees to air views concerning the bypassing of their low bid in favor of accepting the third from the lowest bidder.

Board members heard the vice president of Wardrup and Associates state that the bid had been made in good faith by a company that has more than 30 years in the business. He added that he felt it was unfair to reject the lowest bid because the contractor, who has about 15 years of experience in electrical work, has only been contracting jobs on his own for about a year.

"Why go through the bid process if you are not going to take the low bid. You are protected since the job is bonded and insured and the contractor is properly licensed," said the company representative. "I feel that you are just wasting $11,000.00 of the district's money by passing not only the low bid of a young contractor, but also the next highest, in favor of another established firm."

Architect James Robison asked the contractor, if he was correct in his knowledge that the sheet metal work and the plumbing work involved in the bid package would have to be subcontracted by Wardrup and Associates. The reply was affirmative.

Robison explained that as the architect, he would be more comfortable working with a contractor that could handle all aspects of the job, as well as

BY THE WAY!

BY ALICE GILROY

Things are slowing down. Well actually things are slowing down at home—they are just slowing down at work. Summer baseball is keeping us busy at our house and I know it is keeping lots of other parents busy too. I'm helping coach this year. Well, OK—I'm not really coaching. But I am sitting in the dugout. I have a title. I'm the "mean mommy" in the dugout. The other coaches tell the kids what to do on the field and I tell them what to do in the dugout. Nan Howard is our "Head Coach". She is so organized. When she was assigning jobs to the different parents offering their help I don't think she quite knew what to do with me. She was real excited when I offered.

The first job she gave me was at practice. She said, "Do you want to play short stop, while the kids hit?" I was excited. I said SURE!" I went to my position. In a minute, Nan came up to me and asked very kindly, "Do you want to know where short stop stands?" I dug my toe in the dirt. "Yes, please," I said. The next job they gave me was farther out in the outfield. After I stopped one with my shins I didn't want to play that position anymore. So one day before the games really began, Nan said, "Alice, I'm going to need a parent in the dugout to keep the kids in line. I don't want them crawling all over the fence and throwing their gloves and stuff down the fence. I want them sitting down and paying attention to the game." I CAN DO THAT!! Being a mean mommy is a gift. Not all mommies have it, but I excel. Nan found a place for me—just like she and the other coaches have found places for all the kids enjoying summer baseball this year. Every once in awhile I get tired of being the mean mommy glaring at the team, instead of the fun coach who gets to give "high fives" to the hitters on the field.

Maybe by next year I'll understand the rules and positions and I'll get to stand outside the dugout. By the way—I want everyone to know. I have gotten great ideas for some very funny columns from remarks I've heard from kids out there on the field—but since they can all read I've decided not to print them.

If you want a good laugh or just a good time in general—check out what time the Little League and T-Ball games start in Lockney and Floydada. You can go and write your own funny stories!

From Floydada's First United Methodist Church newsletter:

A Holiday For Atheists
An atheist complained to a friend because Christians had their special holidays, such as Christmas and Easter; and Jews celebrated their national holidays, such as Passover and Yom Kippur. "But we atheists," he said, "have no recognized national holidays. It's unfair discrimination."

His friend replied, "Why don't you celebrate April first?"

COURTROOM ACTIVITIES

There were no cases filed in county court.

In J.F. court, A charge of Issuance of Bad Check filed against Karlton Noland, on April 17, 1995, was settled after Disposition was made on April 21, and Noland paid fines and court costs of $85.00 and restitution on the check.

Lockney Police Report

LOCKNEY—A local Lockney man was charged with assault. This case is still under investigation.

The Lockney Swimming Pool was broken into and approximately $80.00 worth of candy was taken. The theft is still under investigation.

Citizens are reminded that a crime such as the break-in at the swimming pool is Criminal Trespass and charges will be filed on the perpetrator.

If you have not contacted the police department on becoming a part of the Neighborhood Watch program you are encouraged to do so. Group meetings will be held to get the program underway.

mine the exact nature of the problem and what should be done about it. No court action was taken concerning the matter at this time.

Leticia Torres of Southwestern Bell Telephone met with the court to present a proposal for installation of a service enhancement Plexar System to serve Floyd County offices using the 983 exchange numbers. Her proposal was for a five year contract covering eleven incoming/outgoing phone lines and 31 phone stations with inter-office communication capability.

The estimated cost was $613.00 per month compared to the current phone charges for basic services of $641.30 now paid by the county. An implementation fee of $1,118.55 would be amortized over the length of the contract, resulting in a savings for the county as well as more efficient telephone usage and service.

Commissioners asked that the SWB representative return with new calculations after the offices of the district attorney, the district judge, and the appraisal district were removed from the list of offices to be served. It was explained by Judge Bill Hardin that the phone bills for these offices are not paid by the county and should not be included in the plan.

Commissioner Gilroy asked that she present plans of varying length, not just 60 months. He suggested two, three, and four year proposals be formulated.

Torres agreed to return with altered plans based on the requests made by the commissioners. She will be placed on a future agenda.

Payment of monthly bills was authorized on a motion by Gilroy with a second by Jones. All voted in favor.

Three farm work contracts were approved by the court for Precinct 3 landowners. They included: #1531 for J. A. Welch 1 mile north and 1/2 mile west of Cedar Hill Elevator to bury old improvements and return land to cultivation; #1533 for Rex Yearly 1/4 mile east of the tunnel to work a feed road; and #1562 in northeast Floyd County to work a ranch road for Jim Byrd.

Motion to approve the contracts was made by Taylor and seconded by Bearden. All voted in favor.

A motion by Gilroy with a second by Jones called for approval of budget amendments to transfer funds between budget accounts. All voted in favor.

Amendments made included: moving $140.00 to district clerk equipment account from her travel account; transferring $300.00 from general surplus to treasurer's travel account; $500.00 from general surplus to extra labor for the tax assessor/collector; moving $1,500.00 from sheriff's supply/cust. 1 to sheriff office supply; $1,500.00 from sheriff supply/cust. 1 to prisoner care/hygiene; $100.00 from general surplus to law library; $1,675.00 from road and bridge surplus to liability insurance; $2,000.00 from Precinct 2 parts and repairs to Precinct 2 Material supply; and $324.50 from library equipment to library supply.

County Treasurer Mary Shurbet presented her monthly report detailing the financial status of the county as of May 31, 1995. She indicated that the county began the month with $503,787.65 in funds and took in $437,227.98. Transfers in were $97,734.94 and transfers out totaled $101,088.89. Disbursements were $378,154.69, leaving $559,506.99 in county accounts at the end of the month.

The report was accepted by unanimous vote on a motion by Jones with a second by Taylor.

A transfer of $40,000.00 from road and bridge funds to the precincts with each of the four precincts receiving $10,000.00. Motion for the transfer was made by Bearden and seconded by Jones. All voted for the motion.

Approval was given for the county to advertise for the sale of county surplus property. Bids on the items will be opened at the July 10 session of the court.

Monthly reports from elected officials who collect fines and fees were reviewed by the court.

Floydada's Spring TAAS scores show improvement over last year's scores

By Kathy Jahay, FISD Counselor

In March of this year and again during the second week of May, Floydada along with other schools in the state of Texas participated in the state mandatory testing program, TAAS. In March, grades four, eight, and ten took the writing sections of the TAAS. Grade ten also took the reading and math portions of the TAAS. The second week of May grades three through eight took the mathematics section and the reading section. The eighth grade was also required to take the social studies and science portions of the TAAS. Floydada ISD is pleased with the gains made this year in the TAAS testing and feels it is headed in the right direction to meet the state requirements for gains in TAAS scores.

The third grade had 51% of the students mastering the reading section and 51% of the students mastering the math portion of the test. They are proud of their gains in math this year with an increase of 17% more of the students mastering. The fourth grade this year basically maintained the same percent of students mastering as last year's fourth grade. They had a 1% increase in reading and a 3% decrease in writing. The fourth grade did however raise the percentage of students mastering the math section from their third grade year by 8% more students mastering. Fourth grade, 61% mastered reading, 41% math, and 73% writing.

The largest gains in the district were made by the 5th grade students. They had an increase of 23% in reading, 26% in math, and a 26% increase in the number of students mastering both tests. Fifth grade had 80% mastering reading and 59% mastering math. The sixth grade also had increases in both tests; 7% increase in reading and a 5% increase in math. Sixth grade had 78% mastering reading and 62% mastering math.

Jr. High was also proud of their TAAS scores. They have an increase in all areas except one. In reading the 7th grade increased the number of students mastering by 6% and the 8th grade increased the number by 1%. On the mathematics test the seventh grade gained 13% more students mastering and the eighth grade had a decrease of 2%. The eighth grade also made gains in writing. Seventh grade has 75% mastering reading and 69% mastering math. Eighth grade had 69% mastering reading 64% mastering math, 69% mastering writing, science 67% mastering, and social studies 62% mastering.

The exit level test, a requirement for high school graduation, is tested at the tenth grade level. The exit level students also made significant gains in all areas. The percent of students mastering reading rose 7%, math rose 6%, writing increased 16% and the number of students mastering all tests taken was increased by 10%. Of the six schools in Floydada's district, Floydada had the highest percent of students passing the writing test and the math test. Floydada also had the highest percentage of students passing all three sections of the tests. Floydada tied with Friona for the highest percentage of students passing the reading portion of the test. 95% of the students mastered the writing portion. 86% of the exit level students mastered the reading section. 77% of the students mastered the math portion and 70% of the exit level students mastered all tests taken. Floydada is well above the preliminary state averages for 1995. Also tested by the state May 16 and 17, were students enrolled in Algebra I and Biology I with end-of-course tests. Those results are due later this summer.

classified as homeless. That way American tax dollars would be going to help American citizens.

Just think of the potential savings. Israel would have two Senators in Washington, rather than the 98 or so they have now. They would have only four or five Congressmen (about what Dallas has), rather than the 300. So they have now. They would have to pay taxes into the U.S. Treasury, which they do not do now. They would be protected by the armed forces of the U.S. (which, in the final analysis, they are now), they would have to compete with all other Senators and Congressmen for Israeli domestic pork projects, which now are decided in Israel but paid for in America, by American taxpayers.

It might even mean that the Palestinians, the indigenous inhabitants of that country, could vote in national elections. Peace might prevail.

It's a great idea, a money-saving idea, one we probably should have thought of long ago.

There's probably only a couple of minor groups that might have problems with the idea. One, of course, is the government of Israel. The other would be the political establishment in Washington. The present situation is just so cozy, comfortable, and profitable for both. And what's a few billion, especially if it's built into the system, and if we say it real fast?

Ah, you ask. How could making Israel a state, thereby saving only $6 Billion or so each year in "foreign aid", balance a budget that runs many billions in deficits?

Well, look at it this way. If Israel were a state, there would be no need for AIPAC (the American-Israeli Political Action Committee.) They just might fold their tent and go away.

AIPAC, with all its influence over millions in campaign contributions, was and is very much opposed to a balanced budget amendment. They don't want the budget balanced, fearing that might hurt Israel. They don't want term limits, fearing that might hurt many supporters of Israel. They aren't hot about the line item veto either, fearing some future President might use the veto to Israel's detriment. In short, supporters of unlimited foreign aid to Israel are also generally supporters of profligate spending by the American government, feeling that in such an environment Israel will fare better than would be the case with a government concerned about living within its means.

With AIPAC out of the picture our Senators and Congressmen could concentrate on what is best for Americans. Even Jesse Helms might go back to being Jesse Helms.

Oh, well. Just a thought. A harmless thought. We might as well relax and enjoy the ride. There's no need, gentle reader, to go out and get geared up for a battle that will never take place.

New playground planned for Duncan

FLOYDADA -- If all goes well--by next summer Duncan Elementary students will be enjoying brand new and thoroughly modern playground equipment, courtesy of Duncan Elementary PTA.

A fund raising drive is in progress in an effort to raise $10,550 needed to replace the old equipment at Duncan Elementary.

"We are already halfway there," said PTA President Dee Leatherman. "We have already had very generous donations, but we would still appreciate any donations from individuals, businesses or organizations."

The PTA will continue with their fund raising activities throughout the rest of the year and has set Dec. 15th as their deadline.

The PTA has found a commercial playground which is designed to provide "maximum fun for up to 50 children." The playground features six fun filled decks, a spiral ladder, monkey bars, horizontal crawl tub, vertical crawl tub, an arch climber, fireman's pole, turbo tube slide, 10' cool wave slide, cool wave slide and a corner bench for the kids or adults to rest on.

"If we are unable to raise enough money by Dec. 15th to buy the materials for this playground, we are still going to use the money to purchase as much new equipment as we can," said Leatherman.

Already donating to the effort are: the 1990 Study Club, the First National Bank of Floydada, Floydada Co-Op and Floydada Lions Club.

Anyone interested in making a donation should call Leatherman at 983-2651, or PTA Treasurer Vickie Norrell.

Letter to the Editor

On June 5th we were wondering at Dougherty whether we would come out of the cellar and have anything left. We were very fortunate! We were out of electricity for several hours, but thanks to the men at Lighthouse we had our lights back on long before any of us expected. These men worked extra long hours, even though they could have let it wait until the next day, so that we would be able to have our lights the next morning. I know "it's their job" and "they get paid" to do this but they also have lives and families who are concerned about their safety.

Lots of these men showed up to help without having to be called. This makes me realize how lucky we are to have such a devoted group of men working for us not only because "it's their job" but also because they care.

Thank you!
Thanks, too, Dougherty Volunteer Firemen for keeping us aware of what's going on with the weather and for sounding the sirens to let us know to get somewhere safe. You are all very special.

Sincerely,
Kristi Hopper

The Floydada High School Class of '45 began their 50th Class Reunion at the Massie Activity Center May 26th at 2 o'clock. It was great fun meeting old friends... some for the first time since graduation. The laughter, hand shakes, hugs, picture taking...some brought their video cameras...lasted until 4 o'clock.

Jo Powell Wester worked as treasurer to distribute the books that were compiled from classmate's letters with highlights of their life since graduation and including newspaper clippings and pictures.

Table decorations consisting of Floydada School Buses (one with athletes in windows) and colorful male and female cut-outs with our faces were the work of Jean Covington Mayes and Patsy Parkey Skrabanek. Neilsen Restaurant catered the banquet and served a delicious meal of ribeye steak, vegetables and cobbler and drinks. Georgeann Huckabee Kattner presented "If You Were Born Before 1945". Local volunteers sought for host families

American Intercultural Student Exchange is seeking local families interested in hosting foreign exchange students age 15-18 for the upcoming school year.

Each year, AISE places thousands of students with families across the USA. This year, students from 40 countries are available from Scandinavia, Western Europe, the former Eastern Bloc, the former Soviet Union, Asia, Japan, Indonesia, Australia, and Central and South America.

Families may select their students according to country, sex, age, religion, hobbies, grades and family background.

Local Area Representatives are available to show student profiles and help families select the student that best suits them.

Host family duties are simple: room, board and love. All AISE students have their own spending money and medical insurance.

If you are interested in reading some of the many student profiles AISE has on file, please call 1-800-SIBLING. Placement for the 1995-1996 school year has already begun.

LOCKNEY—There were 40 people attending the June 8th meeting at the center. Everyone enjoyed visiting, fellowship and playing various games after a good meal. Some of us who were not there need to get in the groove.

To All Our Patients and Friends:

The past few years have seen dramatic changes in the practice of medicine in this country, and Plainview certainly has been no exception. Our local hospital has undergone three changes in management. In addition, terms such as "HMO", "PPO" and "managed care" have become almost household words in recent months, dramatically changing the manner in which our office does business.

Throughout this time, our office has been able to meet the challenges brought about by change and has continued to provide each of you with the quality family health care you have come to expect from us. The changes have, however, placed an increasingly large burden upon my office staff, my family and myself. This has led us to pursue alliances with other health care institutions in order to ensure our survival in this "new market" and best position ourselves to meet your health care needs.

As a result of lengthy discussions, we are proud to announce our association with St. Mary Family Healthcare Centers effective July 1, 1995. We believe this association will ensure our ability to continue to provide health care to all our established patients as well as others whom we have not been able to serve in the past. We feel our alliance with St. Mary—one of the region's most trusted health care providers—will give our patients, my office staff, my family and myself the greatest security and assurance of continued quality medical care into the 21st century.

This change will only affect the business portion of our office operation. Daily patient care, hospital care and/or referral patterns will remain the same, and we will continue to work to strengthen and stabilize Plainview's medical community.

For the next several months we will continue to conduct business as usual at our current location at 2222 West 24th Street, Suite 1. We will, however, be moving our offices to the new St. Mary Family Healthcare Center at 3409 Olton Road this fall. We greatly appreciate your ongoing support and anxiously await the opportunity to be of continued service to you.

Sincerely,

Larry R. Karrh, M.D., D.A.B.F.P., D.A.B.Q.A.U.R.P.

Floydada ISD approves final gym bid

one who has had experience working on a project of this size. "This job is more than ten times larger than any he has attempted before," said Robison.

No representative was present for the second firm bypassed.

Following the hearing, the board voted to accept the bid from Armstrong Mechanical. Motion was made by Amado Morales and seconded by Charlene Brown. Voting in favor were Morales, Brown, Mitch Probasco, Trena Simpson, and Steve Lloyd. Jack Robertson voted against. Billy Joe Villarreal was not present.

Robison then told the board that the total cost of the project would be $2,000.00 below the originally approved total due to cuts that were made after speaking with the mechanical bidder following the deletions and adjustments the board had specified at the June 1 meeting. The mechanical bid will be about $231,740.00 according to Robison.

Mid-term graduation and honors status was next on the agenda for discussion and action by the board. The board has been considering a request to alter the policy determining eligibility for honors designation for several months.

A student who will be eligible to graduate in December and would probably be eligible for honors status had asked the board to change the current policy allowing her to retain honors designation and go through graduation with her class in May. The student had stated that she would like to attend college during the spring semester and return for graduation if allowed to retain the honors designation based on her grade point average at mid-term.

Motion was made by Lloyd and seconded by Brown to leave the existing policy as is. This means that all requirements for honors status must be met by a student, including the provision that the student be enrolled in Floydada High School for the entire school year preceding graduation in order to be eligible.

Voting in favor of the motion were Lloyd, Brown, Simpson, Probasco, and Robertson. Morales abstained as he is related to the student making the request.

Board members listened to a report concerning the TAAS scores for Floydada students from the spring 1995 tests. Counselor Kathy Jahay told the board that scores in all areas had improved and in many instances, the local scores were above the state averages as well as above those of other area districts. An article concerning the test scores is being published in the Hesperian-Beacon this week.

... Tax collections for the 1994 taxes now stand at $1,548,731.35 according to administrative assistant Jimmie Collins. Collections from delinquent CED taxes are $6,025.00. The taxes collected to date represent 96.52% of the taxes due as compared to 96.19% collected at this time in 1994.

... Payment of monthly bills was authorized on a motion by Brown with a second by Morales. All voted in favor.

... Minutes from meetings held May 11 and June 1 were read and approved as presented by the board.

... Resignations were accepted from John Bernard, history teacher at the alternative school, assistant football coach David Carr, A. B. Duncan 3rd grade teacher Sheri Carr, junior high math teacher Suzanne Wyrick, A. B. Duncan PE teacher Rebecca Geran, and junior high science teacher Bobbie Jenschke. Employment was approved for Jim Knight as head boys basketball coach, Linda Reagan as computer information teacher at junior high, and Dalene Burns for junior high science.

Transfers were also approved for Regenia Smith from junior high math to PE at A. B. Duncan and for Susan Kirk from special ed to 3rd grade at Duncan. Motion for accepting resignations, employing personnel, and approving transfers was made by Brown and seconded by Lloyd. All voted in favor.

... Collins passed out copies of building principal's budget requests for the coming school year to board members. This is the first step in the annual budget process which will get underway in earnest next month said Collins. Board members were asked to review the requests and present their opinions at the next session.

Collection of assessments for 1995 crop adds responsibilities

By Shawn Wade

Collection of the High Plains boll weevil eradication assessment on the 1995 crop adds a new set of responsibilities for both producers and landlords.

According to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. (PCG) the recently passed assessment mechanism will take some getting used to, at least until producers get accustomed to the system and some of the bugs can be worked out.

For now, PCG officials say, there are two main concerns being expressed by producers. The first is how assessments paid early will be affected by the loss of a crop before the July 15 final certification date. The second is how to inform landlords of the amount of their boll weevil assessment and when the assessment is due.

The goal of the Boll Weevil Eradication program is to eliminate the boll weevil as a threat to High Plains cotton production. In order to make the program successful it is in the best interest of everyone involved to develop whatever mechanisms will guarantee a smooth running, effective program.

"The problem that we seem to be having is that many producers are reluctant to pay the assessment until they have a better feel for what this year's crop is going to do," explains PCG Executive Vice-President Donald Johnson. "Unfortunately, this increases the chances of a producer inadvertently missing the final due date of July 15."

Johnson explains that the boll weevil assessment is due at the time that the crop is certified and is calculated according to the producers planted acreage. The last day a producer can certify 1995 acres is July 15.

"The trickier part is making sure everyone who needs to be notified of their assessment amount is informed so they can avoid missing the July 15 due date," adds Johnson.

In order to address this issue, before it becomes a significant problem for both the Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation and individual producers and landlords, several alternatives are being discussed.

Producers who pay their assessment when they certify and then lose their crop before July 15 can request that their current year's assessment be carried over and credited toward their assessment for the following year. All request of this nature must be made in writing to the Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation in Abilene.

All assessments can be paid at the county Consolidated Farm Services Agency (CFSA) office at the time of certification or before July 15. Assessments can also be paid directly to the Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation in Abilene. Individuals who make their payment directly to TBWEF should include with the payment the county from which the assessment originates as well as the appropriate CFSA farm number(s).

LAWN CARE

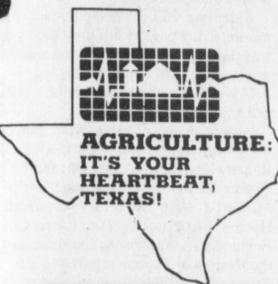

Most lawn care experts agree that many of our lawn care problems are a result of not mowing at the proper height ... and not keeping our lawnmower blade sharpened throughout the season. Mowing to keep grass at its best growing height will increase the lawn's density and attractiveness, and reduce lawn care problems.

No matter what kind of grass you have, there is a simple "rule of thumb" to follow when mowing your lawn. NEVER REMOVE MORE THAN ONE-THIRD (1/3) OF THE LEAF SURFACE EACH TIME YOU MOW. Cutting below the optimum height impedes root development which is a key to having a dense, healthy lawn. Follow this chart:

Type of Grass	Height	Best Mowing	Mow When It Reaches
Bluegrass	2"		3"
Perennial Ryegrass	2"		3"
Tall Fescue	2"		3"
Fine Fescue	2"		3"
St. Augustine	2"		3"
Buffalograss	2"		3"
Bermuda	1.5"		2.25"
Zoysiagrass	1.5"		2.25"
Centipede	1.5"		2.25"

NOTE: Increase the mowing height 1/2" for shady areas immediately following a drought period, and when the lawn has been weakened by insect or disease injury, or high traffic.

Lockney council approves seal coating bid

By Neta Marble

LOCKNEY—The Lockney City Council met in regular session on Thursday, June 8 to discuss seal coating of streets, a proposal for free long distance calling, and several other items.

Jamie Johnson, engineer for the city of Lockney, met with the council to discuss sealcoating of several streets. He explained that he had done the soliciting for bids differently this year because of a new state law. The law reads that cities doing work such as this and costing less than $15,000.00 do not have to advertise for bids as in the past. Quotes can be solicited from companies instead.

He stated that he had sent out letters asking for quotes from paving companies and had received only one reply. The quote was from Appian Corporation of Hereford for 64.9 cents per square yard or a total cost of $14,930.89.

"The price is acceptable for the amount of sealcoating that we have to do. If it were a larger job the price would come closer to 61 cents but there are not too many companies doing small jobs. Most of the companies are working on roads for the state. I have no problem with Appian. We have worked with them in the past and their work is satisfactory," Johnson said.

He explained that he had driven over the streets in question and that it is not imperative that they be done this summer. "The work could wait until next summer if you need for it to."

Johnson continued, "We did our first job in 1991 for a cost of 56 cents and we estimated that it would take five to six years to do all the streets. Now with the escalation of prices we estimate that it will take eight years instead."

Bill Anderson stated that he would like to see the city stay on course with the street repair and made the motion to accept Appian's bid and go ahead with

Graves completes CID special agent course

Army Staff Sgt. Russel C. Graves has completed the criminal investigation division (CID) special agent course Fort McClellan, Anniston, Ala.

Course subjects were problem solving, investigative support, management functions, training management, and career development. Other topics included fingerprinting, photography, crime prevention, and fraud and terrorism investigations.

Graves is the son of Ronnie C. and Diane M. Graves of Post.

His wife, Lonna, is the stepdaughter of Jackie Duke and daughter of Edna Duke of Floydada.

The sergeant is a 1986 graduate of Post High School.

the sealcoating. The second was made by J.D. Copeland and all voted for.

Alderman Richard Zavala said that he had received several questions from persons living on North Main street about why the street was not paved to the city limits.

Paul Lyle explained that all streets were paved by the persons who owned the property not by the city.

Marr stated that several years ago grants were available for street paving and that Lockney had been able to pave some streets but that the grants were no longer available.

Johnson commented that the grants were now being used by cities for water projects.

The council discussed several unpaved street locations that are in need of repair and Mc Carty said that as soon as they dried up that they will be worked on.

Joe Buck, representing Safe Ag of Crosbyton, met with the council to discuss the city joining his company in a plan to make all long distance calls within a fifty mile radius local calls.

He explained that congress had passed Senate Bill 632 allowing communities of less than 10,000 in population to set up local calling areas and that his company was trying to put together a cooperative of several small towns for a calling area that would include free calls to Plainview and Lubbock.

Buck told the council that if Lockney became a member of the cooperative that a percentage of the money that is now being paid for long distance calls would come back to Lockney and could be used for community development.

"We are working on an agreement with NTS to be the carrier and we (Safe Ag) will be the marketing arm. It will take 102 persons to petition for the project and 70% of the citizens will have to vote yes before it can come into effect. $3.50 per month would be added to the phone bills for the service. If Lockney comes in then we will have a third of the towns within a fifty mile radius of Lubbock who have shown interest," stated Buck.

After hearing the proposal the council tabled the proposal for further study.

The resignation of Shane Dollar from the Lockney Police Department was read. He stated that he is going to work for the Floyd County Sheriff Department. Bill Anderson made the motion to accept his resignation and the second was made by J.D. Copeland.

Lockney Police Chief, Jerry Edwards met with the council and explained where they are in hiring an officer to replace Dollar. "I have received several applications from the ads that we placed in the papers and I'm in the process of interviewing each of them. I will have a recommendation ready in the next several days," he stated.

It was reported that the pump in the city well has been lowered to within ten feet of the bottom of the hole. Johnson stated that "Since the well is gravel packed we can put it further down than if it were not."

The council decided to see what the cost of water from the city wells was going to run before adopting summer water rates.

Discussion was held on buying bulk fuel in order to save money. The fuel would still be purchased from local vendors but would cost less.

They decided to discuss the matter with members of the school board to see what all it would entail and how it was working for them before making any decisions. Charlotte Hooten asked the aldermen to be thinking about items from each department that needed to be added to next years budget so that she could include them. She said that a budget workshop would be held at a later date.

Bill Anderson commented that something needed to be done about the intersection at Locust and 8th Streets. He reported that several accidents have occurred there and that a light of some sort needs to be installed. He will get with Commissioner Lennie Gilroy and they will contact the state and see what can be done.

In regular business before the council the minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read and the financial statement reviewed.

The council voted to pay all the current bills except the bill from Glasscock River Rock for the repair of the area around the swimming pool. Dickie McCarty, Utilities Supervisor, said, "When I called them and told them that they would have to come back, they told me that it would be all right, and it isn't. I don't know what the problem is. In places it is too thick and in other places it isn't thick enough."

Alderman J.D. Copeland made the motion to not pay the bill until the work was done satisfactorily and the second was made by Bill Anderson.

Mayor Gary Marr said that he would call and have them come back.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Gary Marr; Aldermen J.D. Copeland, Richard Zavala, Bill Anderson, and Tina Graves; City Utilities Supervisor Dickie McCarty, City Secretary Charlotte Hooten; City Attorney Paul Lyles; City Engineer Jamie Johnson; Joe Buck, and the Hesperian-Beacon reporter.

"To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded."

—Ralph Waldo Emerson
From the family of Joyce Lloyd, we would like to express our heart felt appreciation for those of you that had the opportunity to share in her "successes" during her life. We have been very touched by the cards, food, visits, and many prayers during our loss, from the same people who brought so much joy to her heart. Thank you.
