Locals act in God's Country

Floyd County folks attending this year's God's Country production will see quite a few familiar faces on the stage.

The popular and original prairie drama, held in the beautiful Blanco Canyon amphitheater, features the talents of many local Thespians including: Connie Bertrand, Jaynette Harrison, Gary Brown, Jon Jones, Jurahee Jones, Linda Jones and Mabry Greenhaw.

Bertrand had landed the lead, playing the part of Elizabeth Smith (Aunt Hank). Jaynette Harrison is Mrs. Dumont, a traveling seamstress who repairs the uniform of Texas Rangers.

Jon Jones has multiple roles, including singing in two duets and in a group sing. He plays a Quaker and is an outlaw in another scene.

Gary Brown just recently joined the ranks (after only a couple of nights of rehearsal) as Judge George Swink.

Jurahee Jones is the Lavender cowgirl, a Quaker child in a school scene and also a stand-in for the dizzy woman in the revival scene.

Linda Jones plays the wife of Captain Roberts, of the Texas Rangers.

Until an illness this week Mabry Greenhaw played the part of Capt. Roberts.

"The cast and crew has had several obstacles to overcome this year," said Connie Bearden.

"First the character of Mr. Murry fell of his old timey bicycle and sprained his ankle. Then during a technical rehearsal, Mark Teel and Jon Jones fell off of a horse galloping away in a robbery scene. Jon was shaken up but Mark broke his cheek, and ended up having to have reconstructive surgery.

"We made a banner for him which said, 'Mark—we said 'break a leg', not your face!'"

The cast has been further shaken with the recent illness of Mabry Greenhaw, the local manager of Production Credit. Greenhaw, who has a major part in the play, suffered a heart attack Tuesday and is hospitalized in Lubbock.

But the show must go on. Once again the cast and crew went into overtime filling spots with actors playing more than one role or with actors who have performed in the past. "Everyone has done a great job taking up the slack during these emergencies," said Bertrand.

Gary Brown is one of the recent arrivals who stepped in when the "Judge" became ill. His first performance was only the 3rd time he had practiced the part either in rehearsal or during a live performance. Other than some acting in local dinner theaters this is Brown's first time on stage.

Connie has been with "God's Country" for six years and played the part of Aunt Hank for five years. She has also performed in local productions of "Harvey", "Catch Me If You Can" and "Mouse Trap".

Linda Jones is another "old timer" with the play and is returning for her 5th year in the same part.

This is the 4th year at "God's Country" for Jon Jones and is joined by his niece, Jurahee, in her first year.

Jaynette has participated in the local productions of "Steel Magnolia's", and "Opal is a Diamond", but this is her first year with

Morales attorney seeks hearing in federal court

Paul Holloway, an attorney representing Amado Z. Morales, filed a notice July 20, to have the recent misdemeanor cases filed against Morales in Floyd County Court moved to federal court.

Holloway contends in his motion that Morales cannot receive a fair trial in Floydada because the defendant believes his rights under the "First, Fifth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments.... will be violated" by this prosecution.

Holloway further contends Morales' rights could not be enforced in Floyd County because, "the State of Texas by statute, custom, practice and usage supports and maintains a policy of racial discrimination."

Amado Morales, 42, a trustee with the Floydada ISD, and a former city councilman, was indicted June 21, by Floyd County Grand Jurors, for violations of the Election Code, Class B and Class C misdemeanors.

The case was presented to Grand Jurors by Adrienne M. McFarland, Assistant Attorney General and a Prosecutor Assistant in the Special Investigations Division.

Floyd County's District Attorney Becky McPherson had requested assistance from the AG's office, and after an investigation by local and Attorney General investigators the case was then presented for consideration to the Grand Jury.

The Grand Jury probe resulted in the Class B misdemeanor charge of "Unlawfully Acting as Agent", and a Class C misdemeanor or "Purportedly Acting as a Volunteer Deputy Registrar", both violations of the Election Code.

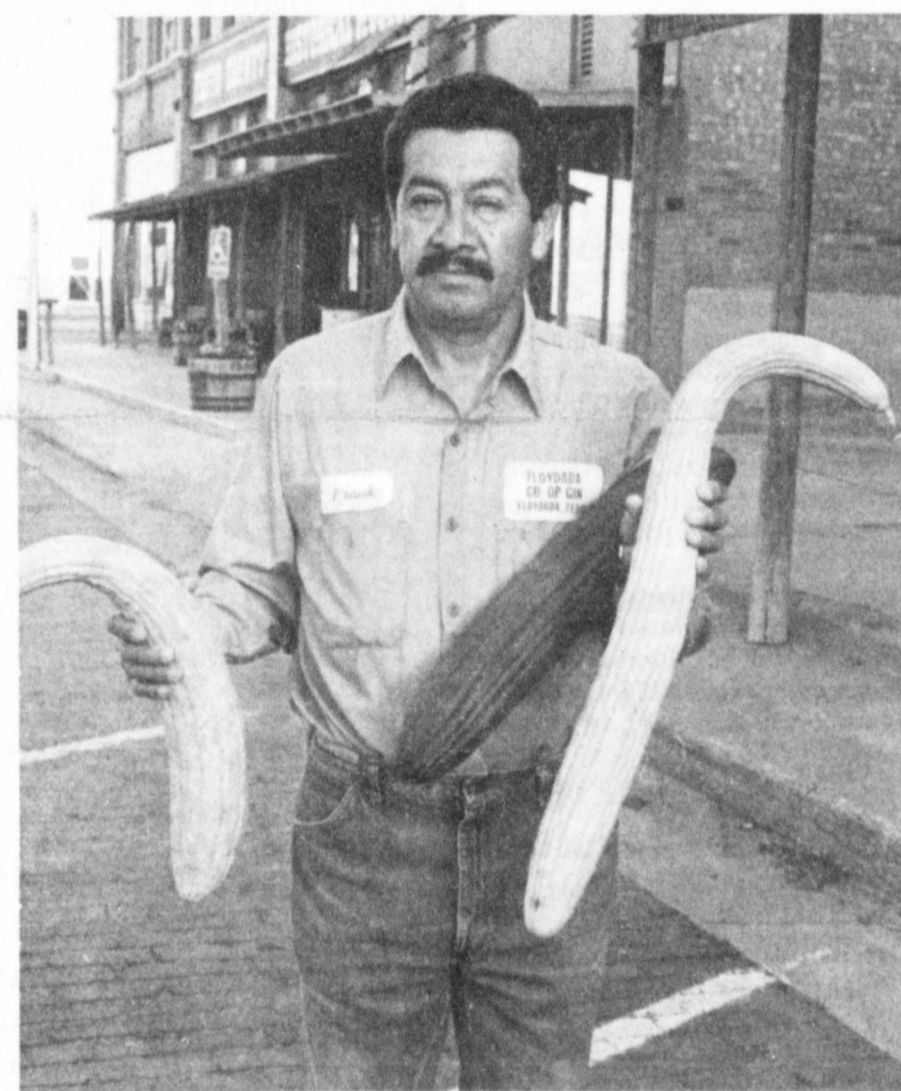

Although Grand Jurors normally return only felony indictments, they can, as was done in this case, order the District Clerk to transfer indictments to the County Court.

According to McFarland, "the election law states that an agent has to be either the applicant's spouse, parent or child. The agent can then complete and sign voter registration applications and submit them."

"To act as a deputy registrar you must have an application on file. The actual duties of the registrar are to distribute voter registration cards, and/or to receive actual registration applications and return them to the registrar."

Holloway's petition lays the groundwork for what he and his client perceive as a history of civil rights

Annual Chamber breakfast slated for Friday morning

FLOYDADA—A Traditional Path To The Future, is this year's theme for the Floydada Chamber of Commerce Membership Breakfast.

The annual breakfast will be held Friday morning, July 28, at 7:00 a.m., in the Massie Activity Center.

Special awards will be presented during this year's breakfast and participants will also have a chance to win numerous door prizes, including the grand prize of a weekend trip to Ruidoso, N.M.

The promotional film about life in Floydada, which was produced by the City of Floydada, will be shown during the breakfast.

"Every table in the hall will be decorated by a different organization within Floydada," said Chamber Manager Brenda Meyers. "Each one will promote their organization and what they offer to the community."

The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors will cook the meal, however the famous biscuits and gravy will once again be prepared by Bill Hardin.

There is no charge for the meal. All members of the Chamber of Commerce, their guests, and employers and their employees are invited to the meal.

Lockney residents to hold National Night Out

LOCKNEY—Lockney will participate in its first national night out against crime August 1.

Thousands of communities and citizens are being urged to take this night and make it special as a message to the criminal element that they are not wanted in our communities and neighborhoods.

"From the hours of 7:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. citizens are urged to leave their outside lights on," said Lockney Police Chief Jerry Edwards. "Have neighborhood parties and visit with your neighbors outside. Show these criminals that you own your own neighborhoods and you have the right to use the outside areas without being in fear of life and property."

The police department will be patrolling the streets as usual on this night and all officers will be encouraged to stop off at any block party, visit with the residents, and discuss crime problems in our community."

If you would like for one of the officers to come and visit with your party during this period call the dispatcher at 652-2416 and request an officer come and visit briefly with you.

"We are sorry to say that because of the number of calls we hope to generate our visits will have to be brief," said Edwards.

The Lockney Police Department, supported by the Mayor and the Aldermen of Lockney, will sponsor a free dance for the youth at the Lockney Community Center.

Clyde Shannon of Entertainment, Inc. of Lubbock will be the D.J. and will furnish the music and lights.

"This should be a fun time for the youth and police officers will be on hand for security," said Edwards.

There will be no smoking, drinking or drugs allowed in the building or on the grounds around. Violators will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

"We would like to urge everyone to take part in this night out with us by turning on your lights, having a barbecue and showing your support of the police department."

Lets show the criminal element that someone besides the police is interested in our community."

BY THE WAY

BY ALICE GILROY

The Floydada Chamber of Commerce Breakfast sneaked up on me this week. I'm sure it has done the same to everyone else.

Try not to forget it. A lot of people have gone to a great deal of trouble to make this event very enjoyable for everyone.

A story which ran in the Hamilton Herald-News, this month was recently brought to me. The story has been run elsewhere (Duncanville, Plainview, Longview and Post) but no one seems to know when it was first printed.

The man that is quoted, Harold Hill, has been dead for approximately 12 years. I know that because I called his place of employment and asked for him.

I've since found out that Hill was also an author of several books.

I read the story in church last Sunday and many of the folks had already heard it. Since I had never heard the story—I thought maybe there were some more of you who had never heard it. So I'm reprinting it too.

The Missing Day

This story concerns a missing day in time discovered and related by Harold Hill, president of the Curtis Engine Co., in Baltimore, Md., and a consultant in the space program.

Mr. Hill stated that he thought one of the most amazing things that God has for us today happened to our astronauts and space scientists at Green Belt, Md. They were trying to determine the position of the sun, moon and planets 100 years and 1,000 years from now. In order to do this, they had to plot the orbits through past centuries.

They ran the computer measurement back and forth over the centuries and suddenly it came to a halt. The computer signaled that there was something wrong either with the information fed into it or with the results compared to the standards.

They called in the service department to check it out and found nothing technically wrong. The computer still came up with the same discrepancy....a day was missing in space in elapsed time. The scientist were dumbfounded. There was no answer.

One of the team remembered a reference to the sun standing still in the Bible. Upon checking, they found in the Book of Joshua a pretty "ridiculous" statement for anybody who has "common sense."

According to the scripture, Joshua was concerned because he was surrounded by the enemy and if darkness fell they would overpower him, so Joshua asked the Lord to make the sun stand still. "So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day." (Joshua 10:13). There was the missing day!

They checked the computers going back to the time it was written and found it was close but not close enough. The elapsed time that was missing back in Joshua's day was 23 hours and 20 minutes...not a whole day. They again read the passage and there it said, "about (approximately) a whole day."

This still did not account for the other missing 40 minutes. The 40 minutes had to be found because in projecting spacial orbits, it would be multiplied many times over.

Again the man remembered somewhere in the Bible that it said the sun went backwards. In 2nd Kings, Chapter 20, Hezekiah, on his deathbed, was visited by the prophet Isaiah who told him that he was not going to die.

Hezekiah did not believe him and asked for a sign as proof. Isaiah said, "shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?"

Hezekiah replied, "It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees." (2 Kings: 20:9-10). Ten degrees is exactly 40 minutes!

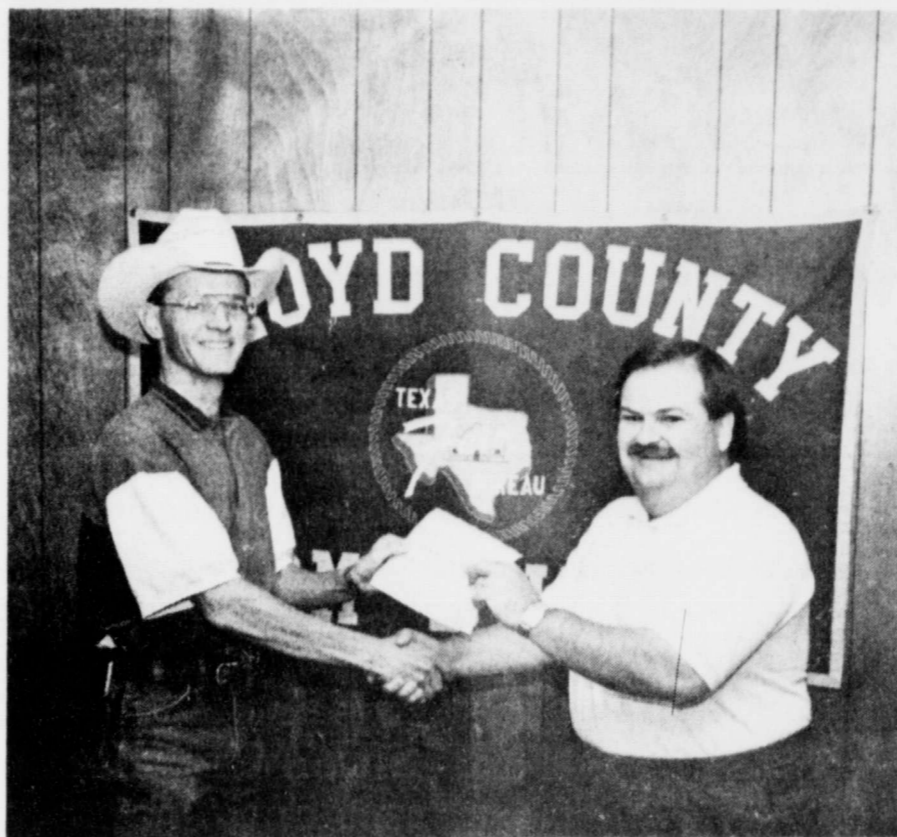

Twenty-three hours and twenty minutes in Joshua, plus forty minutes in 2nd Kings make the missing 24 hours the space travelers had to log in the log book as being the missing day in the universe.

Being a reporter I felt compelled to check out this story before I ran it.

As I mentioned before I tried to contact Harold Hill, only to find out that he was deceased.

I have no idea where to start at NASA, and don't even know if it occurred at NASA. The story only says, "astronauts and space scientists at Green Belt, Md."

It makes a great story but I couldn't verify it. I was only concerned about verifying that the incident actually took place with the space scientists. I wasn't worried about making sure it actually happened to Joshua and Hezekiah. If you worried about verifying stories from the Bible you wouldn't be living by faith—would you?

FRIENDS OF FLOYD COUNTY--Randy Rainwater, (left), of Floyd County Farm Bureau, presented Nick Long (right), president of the Friends of Floyd County organization, with a contribution of $250 from the Farm Bureau. The money will be used, according to Long, to send four of the organization's members to grant writing school. The skills they learn will be used to try to obtain grants for the county in their pursuit of a Multi-purpose facility.

Federal hearing sought in Morales election fraud case

violations against Amado Morales, 42.

Holloway states that Morales' father, Francisco Morales, headed the movement to desegregate Floydada schools in the 1960's and was also the plaintiff in the redistricting lawsuit in Floydada.

The petition outlines several encounters Morales has had with the Floydada Police Department including the June 1989 proposal (while he was a City Councilman) to eliminate the Floydada Police Department; an investigation concerning a charge of assault by Morales (which was later determined to be false); and a 1989 criminal investigation of alleged violations of the election code (which was no-billed by the Grand Jury).

Morales was elected City Councilman in 1988. In January 1994 he announced his intentions to seek the position of County Commissioner Pct. #4.

He defeated incumbent Howard Gene Bishop in the March 8, 1994 Democratic Primary.

With no Republican contender to face in the November election, Morales resigned his position on the city council, May 1994. However, a successful write-in campaign, by Jon Jones, defeated Morales in the November general election.

It was during the 1994 campaign that these election code violations were allegedly made.

Holloway states in his petition that, "a pattern of significant political gains by Hispanics followed by criminal investigations and prosecutions is clear: In 1988, investigations and a threatened prosecution followed the first election of Hispanics to City Council; and in 1994, the current prosecution was prompted by the possibility that Hispanic participation would be extended to the County Commissioner's Court."

Assistant Attorney General McFarland was out of her office and could not be reached for comment.

Lockney police chief warns consumers to beware of 900 number scam calls

LOCKNEY—Lockney Police Chief Jerry Edwards would like to remind the citizens of Floyd County that if they receive letters that state..."Call 900... to make an immediate claim to receive a voucher which guarantees a grant of up to (big bucks) in cash or prizes, you are instructed to call this grant fulfillment line - call 1-900-bla, bla at $3.98 per minute/7 minute average call (which would be about $30.00).

Or another letter which says: You have been selected for a first round cash award - it is really yours free and clear; no fees or charges to claim your award. Just call 1-900-bla-bla, $3.98 per minute average call 7 minutes, (which again is about $30.00).

have $30.00, $40.00 or more added to your phone bill?

Edwards would also like the public to know that all 800 numbers are not free. Often when you dial an 800 number and the company you are calling is not on the up and up the call is transferred to a 900 number and is then added to your phone bill.

Have a good day!

Court approves 1995 tax roll

By Juanita Stepp

The Floyd County Commissioners Court reviewed and approved the 1995 tax roll as presented by Chief Appraiser Shelia Faulkenberry. The total taxable value of the 1995 tax roll was placed at $264,698,209.00.

Motion to accept the tax role as presented was made by Precinct 1 Commissioner Connie Bearden. It was seconded by Precinct 4 Commissioner Jon Jones. Voting in favor were Bearden, Jones, Precinct 2 Commissioner Lennie Gilroy, and Precinct 3 Commissioner George Taylor.

Based on the new tax appraisal figures, the county will have an effective tax rate of $0.3786 per $100.00 of valuation. This rate would generate the same tax revenue as the $0.40 per $100.00 did for the 1994 tax year. No action was taken concerning the tax rate at this time.

The commissioners also discussed the intersection where FM 378 and FM 97 cross. Several accidents involving personal injury and property damage have been investigated by the Lockney Police Department, the Floyd County Sheriff's Office and the Texas Department of Public Safety Troopers. At least one fatality has occurred at the intersection according to Commissioner Gilroy.

He presented a resolution for approval by the court. The resolution asks that the current traffic control of two way stopping on FM 378 be changed to a four-way stop or four-way flashing lights. The resolution making the request will be forwarded to the Texas Department of Transportation for possible action based on the heavy traffic at the intersection and the high speed limits on the two highways at the west edge of Lockney.

Motion to approve the resolution was made by Gilroy and seconded by Taylor. The motion carried unanimously.

Commissioners approved all properly presented accounts and authorized payment to settle the accounts.

... One farm work contract was approved, #1566 for Norma D. Welch. Motion was made by Taylor and seconded by Gilroy.

... Commissioners also conducted a work session concerning the upcoming budget for the 1995-96 fiscal year. No action was taken at this time. A formal presentation of the proposed budget is scheduled in August.

... Election Judges and Alternates for all 1995 elections were appointed on the recommendations of Floyd County Clerk Margaret Collier. No election judge has been found for the Northeast Floydada Precinct #24, although Sara West has agreed to serve as the alternate.

Listing judge followed by alternate, others appointed included: Precinct 1, Southwest Floydada, Jeffrey Johnson and Roger Poage; Precinct 5, East Lockney, J. D. Copeland and Elton Wylie; Precinct 7, Providence, Mary Turner, Helmuth Quebe; Precinct 9, South Plains, Mamie Wood and Carolyn Marble; Precinct 11, Cedar Hill, Neil Langley and Mrs. Neil Langley; Precinct 16, Harmony, Mrs. Phil Dunavant and Phil Dunavant; Precinct 17, Goodnight, Mrs. Jack Pigg and Mrs. Artie Gilbert; Precinct 18, West Lockney, J. T. (Buster) Terrell and Mrs. Kenneth Wofford; Precinct 20, Dougherty, Sammy Bradley and Carmel Eastham; and Precinct 23, Southeast Floydada, Louis Lloyd and Jonelle Fawver.

Appointed to the special canvassing board were Charles Holmes, Sammy Hale, Richard Hale, and Bob Vickers. Motion to make the appointments as recommended by the county clerk was made by Bearden and seconded by Jones. All voted in favor.

... No action was taken concerning a proposed class action lawsuit filed by several Texas taxing entities against two manufacturers of asbestos related products. The suit alleges that the manufacturers were negligent and should make reparations to taxing entities who utilized their products in good faith and who now face complications due to asbestos related problems. According to the wording of the lawsuit, the county will continue to be listed in the class action suit unless they specifically vote to remove Floyd County from the court action.

Motion was made by Taylor and seconded by Bearden to adjourn the meeting following the completion of the session. All voted in favor.

COURTROOM ACTIVITIES

In county court, July 20, the following cases were filed: Ismael Cansino was charged with Assault;

Gregory Stephen Rowe, 32, of Plainview, was charged with DWI; Maunuel Julio Soliz, 22, of Lockney was charged with DWI; Benjamin Thomas was charged with Theft.

There was no disposition on any of these cases.

In district court the Appraisal District filed the following judgments against:

Sammie Lou Tracy, of Albuquerque, N.M.;
 H.B. Alexander Estate, of Belton, Missouri;
 Argie M. Blaylock, of Dallas;
 Jeff Butler, of Floydada;

LOCKNEY SENIOR CITIZEN NEWS

The attendance at our Thursday night meetings has been fluctuating quite a bit this summer but we had 47 in attendance Thursday, July 20. We hope it will get better when vacations are over and our sick ones are better.

Wanda Carthel was taken to the local hospital as she continues to have heart problems. They are trying to keep her with medication and are having trouble getting her medicine adjusted.

Inez Johnson, Wanda Smith's mother, was in the local hospital for several days but will be returned to the Care Center soon.

Tina Rexrode will be home before this is in print, since she is scheduled to come home on Monday. She is improving.

Leslie Ferguson had a cataract removed from his eye and he is doing well from it.

Shorty Hartman continues in therapy at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock. His leg was just cracked so they put pins in it.

Georgia Galloway is still in serious to grave condition in Lubbock. They need all of our prayers and thoughts at this time.

Jim B. Bobbitt had gall bladder surgery in Lubbock but is home now and recuperating nicely.

Jimmy and Theresa Stennett had as their guests in their home Theresa's sister, Rosa Lee Jungman and her daughters, Pat Peoples and Sylvia Berlin, of Houston. Rosa Lee was an employee of Dargans in Plainview for many years.

Motley County to hold first Chamber of Commerce banquet

Motley County will celebrate their first Chamber of Commerce banquet with motivational speaker Reagan Brown. "Mr. Community Improvement", will headline the banquet on Thursday, August 3, 1995, at 7 p.m. in the High School Auditorium in Matador.

Brown has made over 7,000 community building speeches in his career. An articulate and vigorous advocate of the free enterprise system and self-reliance, he has been honored as one of America's most forceful ambassadors for agriculture. Holding three degrees from Texas A & M, Brown's training is in sociology and psychology, allowing him insight in solving human problems.

As a World War II Captain in the 69th Division, Brown earned the Purple Heart and other decorations. He was named Texas "Man of the Year" in 1968 by Progressive Farmer, and has been honored twice by the Freedom Foundation of Valley Forge, Pa. As Special Assistant to the Governor, he helped 40,000 people get jobs by helping create the Texas First Program and Job Fairs.

The newly organized Chamber of Commerce for Motley County is aggressively seeking the ways and means for improving the community and enhancing the business environment of the county. The banquet will honor new members and supporters while providing inspiration through the speaker's vibrant and humorous message.

The public is invited to attend and receive a chance on the two $100 bills to be given away as door prizes. Tickets at $10 each are available at local businesses or from any Chamber of Commerce member. Casual or western attire is suggested.

For more information on the Chamber of Commerce or the banquet, contact President Jeff Thacker (348-7546) or Secretary Charles Keith (347-2283).

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Janie Martinez

As for happenings here at the home, we are doing well. On Mondays we have our coffee in the mornings. We then have devotional, then I have the walking exercises. At 1:00 pm. we have our one on one room visits. At 2:00 p.m. we have crafts. For crafts we have been stringing beads. The residents enjoy doing this. We have a nice time stringing beads. We always have something to talk about while working.

On Tuesdays, we sometimes have gospel music or we watch the Price is Right on television. After lunch, we play dominoes or have manicures done. We try to keep busy.

On Wednesdays, we have our coffee, then we have devotional. After lunch is the fun part. We play Bingo, which is one of our residents' favorite activity. They really enjoy this past time activity. They get lots of goodies when they Bingo.

On Thursdays, we have coffee, devotional, our walking exercise, our one on one visits, then we have dominoes or popcorn, or our residents birthday party.

As for Fridays, we have our morning coffee, devotional, walking exercise, and at 1:00 p.m. we have our bus ride, which we travel to Plainview. We have also been to Matador and Crosbyton. We have even traveled to Lone Star. We do not have many of the residents that go, but the ones that do go enjoy themselves. I am hoping on getting more residents to go with us on the bus ride. I will continue to ask other residents to come with us.

I also want you to know that I have a young girl helping me with activities. She is Amy Garcia. She has volunteered some time to us before she goes off to school. Our residents seem to be enjoying her company. I know I am glad to have her. She is a lot of help to me. She will be able to help with reading, or if any of the residents want a letter written, she will be able to write it for them. We hope she enjoys her time with us.

Well as for this week, this is all I have for you. Until next time!

Take care of yourselves,
From the Residents and Staff of Floydada Nursing Home

Residents enjoy birthday celebration for Sherrill

By Lorilla Bradley

When July pays her visit
We're sure to have some sun...
When people take vacations
And go for lots of fun!

We greet our Irene Sherrill
Who used to "curl" our hair...
But now she takes it slower
In her favorite easy chair!

Lets cheer this lovely lady
With the same old Birthday song...
So join us as we sing it
And come out good and strong!

Thursday, July 20, was party time at the Rest Home with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosting. The Hesperian photographer came for the picture taking followed by everyone being ushered into the dining room. The honoree was seated at the "honor" table, her place being marked with a special card. Her guest, Grace Jarrett, was seated with her. Irene wore a fresh corsage presented by Williams Florist and Card Shop. The table was laid with a pink cloth and centered with a floral arrangement in shades of pink.

The poem was read and all joined in singing the Happy Birthday Song. A delicious refreshment plate of pound or angel food cake, accompanied by a tasty fruit punch was served to the honoree, guest, home residents and employees.

The next part will be Thursday, August 17, at 2:30 p.m. You are invited to attend.

Be Beary Healthy.
Please Don't Smoke.

Have a good week!

Wood and Smith report to Rotary Club on Camp Ryla

LOCKNEY—Leigha Wood and Tikka Smith met with the Lockney Rotary Club on Friday, July 21 and reported on their experiences at Camp Ryla. The girls, who will be seniors at Lockney High School this fall, spent a week in New Mexico at Rotary's Camp Ryla.

They reported that the days were filled with speakers and learning experiences. Miss Smith said that they learned the Rotary 4-Way Test and how you can use it as a guide to develop a better life.

They worked at the camp on giving speeches. They commented that one of the speakers had said that people were not good listeners and that you had to organize your thoughts carefully in order to get your points across.

Two of the speakers were a wife and homemaker and another a wife and job holder. They related to the students the favorable and unfavorable points of each occupation.

The students took part in a teen court mock trial. Both served on the jury, listened to the evidence, and then made their choices of guilty or not. The teens that were found guilty were given a sentence of community service. The program leaders explained how such teen courts could be established in home towns.

They had classes in leadership, cultural awareness and personality traits.

The girls enjoyed arts and crafts each day and had rope climbing classes. Miss Smith stated that you had to have complete trust in those working with you when you were climbing. Both she and Miss Wood agreed that it was hard to rely on someone that completely. Their goal at the end of the session was to climb a telephone pole and jump and ring a bell. "It was hard to jump even knowing that the rope would hold you," stated Miss Wood.

Both related that the friendships they made were the best part of the camp and that they would keep in touch with many that they had met.

Approximately ninety girls took part in the camp.

R.G. Dunlap spent last week in Harlingen visiting his daughter, Becky.

Jonni and Jessi Keith of Idalou have been visiting their grandmother, Irene King, a lot this summer.

Alvie Jackson turned 85 years old last Friday, July 21. He and Kacky flew to Dallas to their grandson, Bryan and family's home. Those attending the celebration were Joy Smitherman of Floydada, Floy Bishop of Uvalde, Bob Jackson of Grand Prairie and Lynn Jackson of Duncanville.

My son, Greg, Mona, Bethany and Michael spent several days with us this past week. They live in Waco. Thursday I took Mona and children to Lubbock so she could be with her family, Wayne and Marjorie Dean. They had a Dean family reunion on Saturday, July 22. Greg stayed here til noon Friday and then he went to Lubbock so he could also attend the reunion.

Olin and Lena Mae Watson of Midland, Brent and Lou Ann Barker, Britany and Jeff of Midland, Opal Guffee of Floydada and Corky and Janice Guffee of Floydada and their grandson, Jason Hamilton of Brookings, South Dakota, attended the W.P. and Lou Moody family reunion held at Paradise, Texas in the new high school building. There were 100 there.

Mamie Bunch is at home now after a long absence due to a broken arm and hip. She was staying with her daughter in Midland but now is able to be back in her own home.

The Lakeview, Blanco, and Pleasant Community reunion was held last Sunday, July 23, at the Lighthouse Electric building with about 35 in attendance.

The Emert family reunion was held at the Floydada Senior Citizen building this past weekend. I have been unable to talk to any member of the family, but I'm sure they had a large gathering.

Cora Hartline has been ill. Her son has taken her to Levelland to help her get to feeling better.

Ethel Warren has been in the hospital at Canyon. Her son who lives near Amarillo has taken her home with him until she gets stronger.

There are some of our loved ones who are very ill and having a rough time healthwise. They are Lucy Eastham, Ed Wester and Polly Cardinal. Please remember these in your prayers. I'm sure there are others who are very ill, who are lonely, who have problems of some kind that also need our prayers. This is just a reminder that we need to pray for one another and do what we can to make life a little bit more enjoyable for them.

Glenn and Ila White are home too. Glenn has had a lot of health problems recently and has been in and out of the hospital a lot. Please remember them in your prayers.

Our roofing fund is coming down a little bit each day. We just about have enough in the bank to pay for it. Those who have contributed this past week are as follows: Frances Gunter in memory of Jettie Moss; Jewell Martin; Mary Alice and Willie b. Eakin in memory of Jettie Moss.

As of Monday, July 24, the balance needed is $190.00. Walter Davis' crew will be starting in a few days in putting on the new roof. Anytime you wish to make a memorial and just donate money to the center would be very much appreciated. We need new linoleum in the kitchen and pantry area. It seems there is always something that needs to be replaced or repaired. The mailing address is: Floydada Senior Citizen Center, P.O. Box 573, Floydada, Texas 79235.

Our sympathy to Ramon Peralez on the loss of his brother, Jose Angel Peralez of San Benito, Texas.

Whirlwind Sams attend Harley Sadler Show at Post

By Betty Gilbreath

On Friday, July 21, Wayne and Roberta Russell, Bob and Jean Kendricks, Darrell and Nancy Mayo and two of their grandchildren, Megan and Hunter Mayo from Grandbury took their RV's and went to Post Vue RV Park to spend the night.

Later in the afternoon the McElyeas, Norrells, Gilbreaths and Thaxtons met the group at the park. At 6:00 we all went to the Chaparral Restaurant for a delicious meal. We were joined at the Garza Theatre by Bob and Evalene Goodnight and Debbie Guffee to see the comedy show, "Rose of the Rio Grande". Our own Bill Gray portrayed the sheriff along with the rest of the cast.

The Garza Band included Dell Gray on piano, Bill Gray on drums, Jimmie Exline on trumpet, and Todd Caldwell on saxophone. The music was enjoyed by everyone. There was other entertainment that was very special.

All of our group that was unable to attend surely missed a fun time and fellowship.

The Southern Gospel Group is a favorite of the Lockney Church and of churches all over the United States. They are a full time ministry singing new and old time Southern Gospel.

Members include Janna Lancaster, Mark Waters, Tony Waters, singers, and Mama Lou Waters operating the sound.

"We are increasing our tours from two per year, to four tours per year," said Tony. "God has been so good. His blessings keep raining down, and as long as God wants us to sing his message in song, and people want to hear, (even some that don't) we will keep singing. I believe we have a twofold ministry. The first and foremost is to win souls for the Kingdom of Heaven, through our Lord Jesus Christ, the second is to make our fellow Christians smile. It's okay for a Christian to laugh, and smile." (Job 8:21 "He will fill your mouth with laughter, and your lips with shouting").

The Gospelheirs have just completed a 7500 mile tour of the East Coast, Canada, and are working on a West Coast and Alaska tour. When not on tour, they sing within a 500 mile radius of Amarillo. They have 5 tapes currently out, and another one coming. Tony said, "We are always looking for new songs to sing, and if any of you believe we would be right singing one of your songs just let us know."

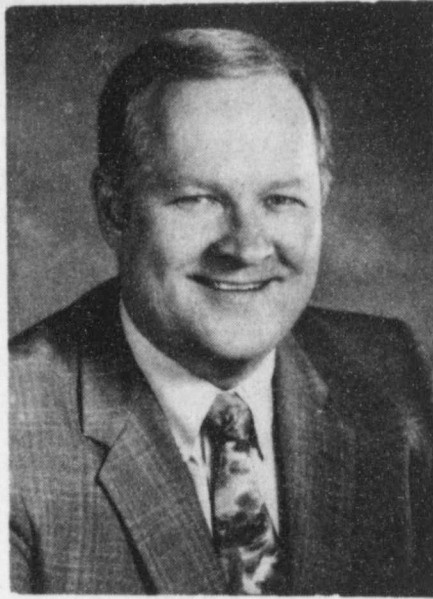

Services at Grace Fellowship Church begin at 10:45 a.m. A fellowship meal will follow the service.

Trinity Church hosts gospel singer

FLOYDADA -- Pastor Glenn Wachob and the congregation of Trinity Church invites the community to enjoy an evening of country gospel music with Christian recording artist Jackie Stone from Lubbock.

Stone has served the Lord in the ministry for many years and has pastored several churches throughout West Texas. He now travels the area sharing his talents through gospel music. His rich baritone voice along with the anointing of the Holy Spirit is a blessing to people everywhere.

The concert will begin at 6:00 p.m. this Sunday evening, July 30. Trinity Church is located at 500 W. Houston in Floydada.

Floydada's First Methodist church slates tent meeting

FLOYDADA - On Sunday Morning, July 30, First United Methodist Church, 203 West Kentucky in Floydada, will hold camp meeting worship services under a tent in the parking lot. The service will begin at 10:50 a.m. and will feature special music by Lee Battey, congregational singing of "good old gospel songs", testimonies, and a message by pastor Clark Williams.

This service will conclude a month-long camp meeting series during which the congregation has dressed casually, prayed at the altar, and enjoyed informal singing and worship. Evangelism chairman Kenny Chance says, "The people have responded real well to the services. I think everyone will enjoy the tent service."

Sunday School classes will meet inside at their regular 9:45 a.m. hour, and may participate in carrying chairs across the street for the worship service. Prior to Sunday School, around 8:30 a.m., church members will enjoy a cowboy breakfast cooked by the men of the church. Those who eat will have opportunity to make donations.

The congregation wishes to thank Cargill for providing the tents. Please join us as we worship God in the great outdoors.

Council discusses possible improvements at airport

Dr. Charles Craig, a member of the Airport Board who was present at the meeting said, "We have a fine airport, but I think it would be wise to at least express an interest in the improvements and see if we could secure it. Otherwise they will just let somebody else have the money."

"These improvements could make a difference in the type of aircraft that could come in. A wider runway would help with cross wind landings and a longer runway would bring in larger aircraft."

"Very little money is generated for the city by the airport, but I still think we ought to try," said Carthel. "It might help later on in attracting some businesses. We are being considered now because we have been on the list for several years and we have finally worked our way up the ladder."

A vote was taken on the resolution and all councilmen present voted in favor of pursuing the project.

Brown also reviewed his ongoing discussions with the Floydada/Plainview Railroad. "I told the railroad representatives that I would have a deed prepared if they would just sign it," said Brown. "They have not responded."

Brown has been acting on behalf of the city to urge the Floydada/Plainview Railroad to clean up the weeds and trash on the railroad property that comes through the city.

"I also want to make the same offer to Burlington-Northern Railroad," said Brown.

"I think we should send them strongly worded letters to begin with," said Schacht. "and get this ball rolling. I'm tired of this mess. They need to clean it up. It is dangerous."

After discussion the councilmen agreed to authorize City Attorney Karen Houchin to pursue any legal alternatives the city might have.

Kyle Minnix, representing the Floydada Baseball Association appeared before the council and presented them with a financial statement from the baseball association. The statement listed the associations budget this year compared to previous years and also listed the income and expenses.

Minnix showed the councilmen that the ending cash in the bank at the close of the season was $5,125.53 compared to $6.45 in 1994, $202.76 in 1993 and a loss of $55.59 in 1992.

The net income for the association was $5,119.08 in 1995, a loss of $196.31 in 1994, a profit of $258.35 in 1993 and a loss of $1,393.79 in 1992.

Minnix was also joined at the meeting with other association leaders, Bart Greer and Kevin Tipton. The three thanked the city for their contribution to the baseball association and then asked the city to consider doing something about the lack of restroom facilities at the field.

Brown told the association that the city was currently working with the school district to add on to the concession stand and open up bathrooms.

Minnix also stated that the association would like to have a uniformed officer walk through the grounds on game nights. "Parents turn their kids loose and expect the field to be a babysitter," said Minnix. "Maybe a uniform officer appearing occasionally would help keep fights from starting."

The councilman asked Minnix to speak to Police Chief James Hale about the request.

Minnix also presented several other requests to the city asking for help in field maintenance. Brown and the councilmen agreed to use the city resources in whatever way was possible.

Brown reported to the councilmen that the cable company that services Floydada will be rebuilding and upgrading their service soon. He also told the council that he believed the cable company would be interested in a proposal that would allow the city to service the cable and collect the fees for service at the city office.

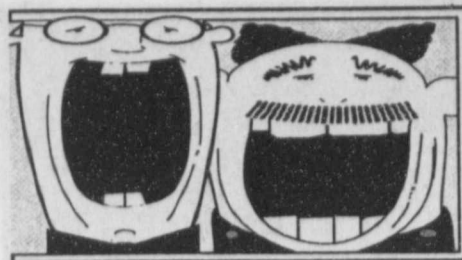

Brown also reported to the council about a visit with Carol McDonald, a representative from SPS, concerning Floydada Power and Light generating ability. Brown was told that FP&L was better able to meet our generating needs than other cities whom S.P.S. services.

FP&L must supply electricity on days when SPS's generating capacity is loaded. This usually occurs when temperatures exceed 100 degrees.

There was no one present for the public forum and that item was passed over in the agenda.

The council set August 3, at 7:30 p.m., as a date for the 1995-96 Budget Workshop.

Councilmen agreed to the sale of Lot 7, Block 73 to Floyd County for $10.00.

"God's Country."

God's Country is the musical drama depicting the first years of Crosby County. The production, by the Rio Blanco Heritage Foundation, began July 21. Performances will be held July 28, 29 and August 4 and 5.

Community based talent depicts the life and local history including the joys and hardships faced by the early settlers.

The drama takes place in the Blanco Canyon where much of the original story took place.

The musical portrays the tension felt in Quanah Parker's camp as he and his fellow Comanches agonize over the decision to lay down their arms. A narrator provides a continuous thread of history while the early years of Crosby County between 1872 and 1887 are highlighted.

The Blanco Canyon amphitheater is an outdoor facility designed, built and maintained by volunteers.

As you wait for the performance you can look toward the Northwest, up the White River. You will also be able to see the remains of the "Hank Smith" house, the first structure on the South Plains.

You can see Mt. Blanco, a weathered caliche outcrop close to which Col. Randal S. Mackenzie fought the Comanches in the battle of Blanco Canyon in 1871.

Show time is sundown or 8:30 p.m., whichever is first.

Tickets are $7.00 each. The 750 reserved seats are permanent benches without backs, so stadium seats are suggested.

There is a concession stand at the site, which is run by the Crosbyton Volunteer Ambulance Service. The menu consists of hamburgers, hot dogs, frito pies, chips and candy.

A Bar-b-que dinner is also served at the Pioneer Memorial Auditorium, from 6:00 p.m.-7:45 p.m., before each performance of God's Country. The Memorial Auditorium is located at the corner of U.S. 82 and FM 651.

For more information on reservations for the Bar-b-que dinner, or for ticket information, call 806-675-2906.

Blanco Canyon Amphitheater is 101/2 miles north of Crosbyton, on FM 651, 14 miles south of Floydada on FM 651.

Burleson Memorial Roping benefits college

This was the eleventh year for the Burleson Memorial Roping at Flomot to benefit Clarendon Jr. College's Ranch and Feedlot Operations Course. The 1995 scholarship recipients were Gait Taylor of Spur; Le Mar Shaw of Alamogordo, N.M.; and Jake McCorkell of Hatch, N.M.

The Team Sorting and Team Penning competitors assembled Friday evening to begin the activities.

Cowboy Sorting consists of three riders who are given a number between 0-9 and they begin cutting out the cattle in consecutive order in a two minute time limit. Todd Beedy and Brent Brownlee of Floydada, and Time Washington of Roaring Springs cut the most cattle in two runs.

The Team Penning, a repeat event, drew eighteen teams with the skilled team of Lisa Martin, Marion Martin and Marty Martin from Tulia with a time of .51 seconds to cut and pen their three head of cattle.

The most anticipated event began early Saturday morning with the youth horse events consisting of three divisions, Pee Wee, Junior, and Senior. The six place winners in the potato race were: Clay Ware of Floydada, Bo Preston of Andrews; Jerry Whitaker and Perry Whitaker of Matador; Taylor Brock of Lockney; and Tye Jones of Levelland. In the Junior division the six places went to: T.C. Long of Andrews; Christopher Hartline of Floydada; Tyler Phillips of Lockney; Cody Ware of Floydada; Trey Holmes of Floydada; and Velvet Johnson of Lockney. In the Senior division, winners were Lindsey Reddy and Laura Lotz, both of Floydada.

In the Barrel Race the six place winners were: Clay Ware, Kody Porterfield, Bo Preston, Jerry Whitaker, Jacob Reddy, and Perry Whitaker. In the Junior division, T.C. Long, Velvet Johnson, Christopher Hartline, Trey Holmes, Tyler Phillips, and Lana McCandless. In the Senior division, Laura Lotz, first, and Lindsey Reddy, second.

Clay Ware and T.C. Long tied with high points and had to have a flip of the coin to determine the top youth. Luck of the flip gave Clay Ware the trophy and headstall. Clay Ware was riding the family horse, "Speedy" and after the pasture roping events on Sunday "Speedy" became the "All Around Horse" winner of the weekend.

While the youth events took place in the arena, repeat winners of the washer pitch took shade under the hay barn to "pitch" it out for the winner buckles. Third time winners in the eleven years were Frank Hollabaugh and Steve Nail from Amarillo.

Saturday afternoon gave team ropers their chance to compete in three categories. Saturday team roping winners were Clinton Ware and Andy Wheatley in the number seven; AV Hindley and Andy Wheatley in the number five; and Tim Massey and Steve Jones in the number four.

Sunday morning provided an opportunity for the novice team ropers to compete; Joe Brice and Brent Whitaker were the roping winners before the team ropers moved to the pasture for the challenging "pasture roping".

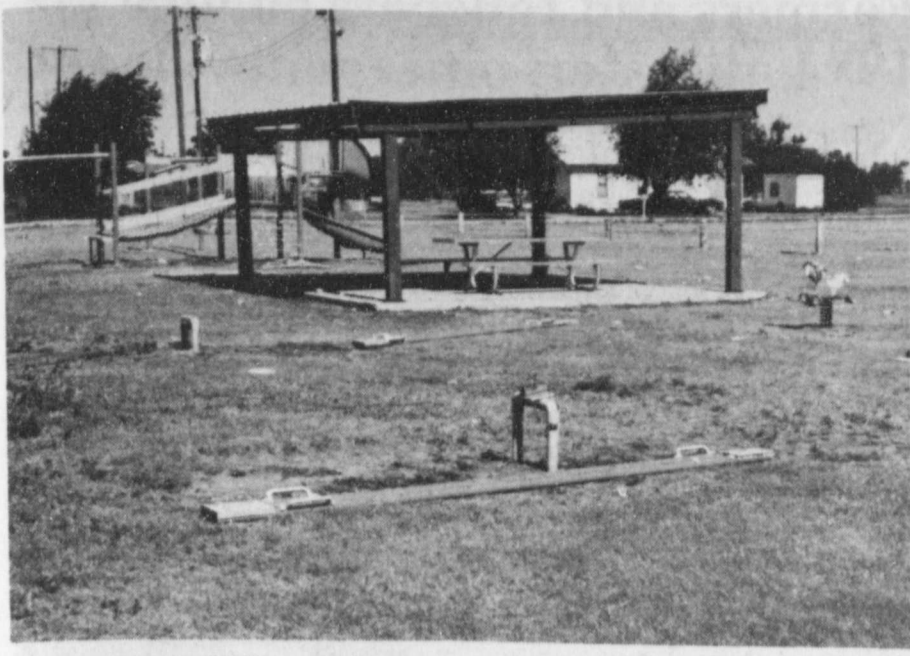

Floyd Hardin of Childress, and Sam Fortenberry of Lockney have introduced the ropers for the Burleson Memorial for the past eleven years. They donate their time keeping the spectators entertained while waiting for the next team to rope. Jamie McNeil and Joel Kirkpatrick, of Crosbyton were the winning team in the first pasture roping and Kevin Hudleston and Wade Jewel were winners of the open pasture roping.

Wayne Dollar, of Hereford, made the spurs that were presented to high point roper in the team roping events. Wayne also donated buckles auctioned for the scholarship.

Cattle for the events has been provided by Carl and Johnnie Alford of the Circle A Cattle Company in Hereford.

CITY PARK VICTIM OF VANDALISM--The newly refurbished Annie Taylor Park was the recent victim of vandalism. Police are asking for citizens help in stopping vandalism in their neighborhoods by calling police if juveniles with spray paint are spotted. Annie Taylor Park suffered broken teeter-totters, broken glass, dumped trash, painted graffiti on tables and posts, and obscenities scratched on tables with knives.

LETTER TO HOUSEHOLDS (MULTI-CHILD)

NATIONAL SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM/SCHOOL BREAKFAST PROGRAM

Parent/Guardian:

The Floydada School serves meals each school day. Elementary Children may buy lunch for $1.25 and breakfast for .40 cents. Children may also get meals free or at a reduced price. For Secondary, Children may buy lunch for $1.35 and breakfast for .60 cents.

If you now get food stamps or AFDC for your children, your child gets free meals. If your total household income is the same or less than the amounts on the Income Chart below, your child can get free meals or reduced-priced meals. A foster child may get free or reduced-priced meals regardless of your income. The reduced price is .40 cents for lunch and .30 cents for breakfast.

HOW TO APPLY

If you now get food stamps or AFDC for the children you are applying for, the application must have the children's names, a food stamp or AFDC case number for each child, and the signature of an adult household member.

If you are applying for a foster child, the application must have the child's name, the child's "personal use" income, and an adult signature.

If you do not list a food stamp or AFDC case number for all children you are applying for, then the application must have the children's names, the names of all household members, the amount of income each person got last month and where it came from, the signature of an adult household member, and the adult's social security number or the word "none" if the adult does not have a social security number.

Verification: Your eligibility may be checked at any time during the school year. School officials may ask you to send papers showing that your children should get free or reduced-price meals.

Fair Hearing: You may talk to school officials if you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the results of verification. You may also ask for a fair hearing. You do this by calling or writing:

Name Jerry Cannon Phone (806) 983-3498
Address 226 W. California, Floydada, Texas 79235

Reporting Changes: If your children get free or reduced-price meals because of your income, you must tell the school if your household size decreases or your income increases by more than $50 per month or $600 per year. If your children get meals because you get food stamps or AFDC, you must tell the school when you are not getting AFDC or food stamps for them. You may then fill out another application giving income information.

Confidentiality: School officials use the information on the application only to decide if your children should get free or reduced-price meals.

Reapplication: You may apply for meals anytime during the school year. If you are not eligible now but have a change in status, like a decrease in household income, an increase in household size, becoming unemployed or get food stamps or AFDC for your children, you may then complete an application.

Handicapped: Meal substitutions at no additional cost for children who meet the definition of "handicapped" will be served, provided a physician has submitted a statement attesting to this fact and prescribing a substitute.

IN THE OPERATION OF THE CHILD FEEDING PROGRAMS, NO CHILD WILL BE DISCRIMINATED AGAINST BECAUSE OF RACE, SEX, COLOR, NATIONAL ORIGIN, AGE OR HANDICAP. IF YOU BELIEVE YOU HAVE BEEN DISCRIMINATED AGAINST, WRITE IMMEDIATELY TO THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE, WASHINGTON, D. C. 20250.

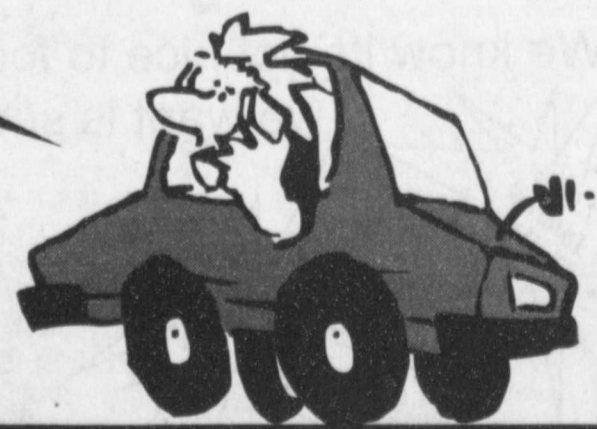

We will let you know when your application is approved or denied.

Floyd County Ag Update

Wasp tests on boll weevils set to begin in SRP cotton fields

The old saying, "Fight fire with fire," is being tested in the cotton boll weevil eradication program. More correctly, it's "fight insects with insects."

The first large-scale tests of fighting the boll weevil with a small, parasitic wasp are under way in the Southern Rolling Plains. The wasp, Catolaccus Grandis, is a natural predator of the boll weevil.

"It has a life cycle somewhat similar to the boll weevil," said Randy Coleman, an entomologist with the United States Department of Agriculture Research Service. Coleman works in the Subtropical Agriculture Research Laboratory in Weslaco.

Coleman explained that the female adult wasp seeks out boll weevil larvae growing and feeding inside cotton squares (young cotton bolls, or fruit). The adult female wasp "stings" the boll weevil larvae through the wall of the square. She then lays an egg on or near the larvae. The egg hatches after about a day and the wasp larvae attaches itself to the boll weevil and feeds as it grows. After the wasp larvae pupates, it eats its way out of the cotton square and repeats the life cycle.

Coleman said the parasitic wasp has been effective on a smaller scale, but it remains to be seen how well it will do on the larger scale. The wasp will be released in the SRP on 134 acres of organic cotton. To keep its certification, the organic cotton can't be sprayed with chemicals, thus the wasp experiment.

The wasp study will take about 8-10 weeks with thousands of wasps being released. The study will release 250 female wasps per acre, per release. The wasps will be released on each acre twice a week, that's 67,000 wasps each week. But, don't worry, Coleman said the wasps are small and don't sting anything but boll weevils.

With this many wasps released over several weeks, where does the study get all the wasps?

The wasps are reared by the USDA Mission Biological Control Center in Mission. Leeda Wood, the entomologist who oversees the wasp rearing, said production of the insects has quadrupled in preparation for the releases in the SRP.

The center is rearing about 105,000 female wasps per week. The wasps are reared on boll weevil larvae shipped in from a lab in Starkville, Miss. The boll weevil larvae are placed in parafilm sheets where female wasps lay their eggs, much like a cotton boll.

Once the wasp larvae begin to pupate, they are removed and shipped to the Texas A&M center in San Angelo where they are prepared for release.

The overall field study will help show how effective the wasp is against the boll weevil compared to the program insecticide applications, which use ultra low volume Malathion.

"These (organic) fields will be compared against regular program fields," Coleman said. "We'll monitor the weevil numbers in the release fields and an appropriate number of program fields."

The Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation will provide boll weevil traps and staff to monitor the traps in the wasp release and regular program fields.

Endangered Species Act next

By Mark McCormick

Now that the state has guaranteed property rights protection, local farmers are turning their attention to the national scene and the Endangered Species Act.

"The interpretation and over zealous enforcement of the Endangered Species Act is a major threat to property rights," said Mark McCormick, president of the Floyd County Farm Bureau.

McCormick said many farmers and ranchers have lost use and value of their land because it has been designated habitat for some endangered species.

"We need an Endangered Species Act that recognizes the rights of property owners and emphasizes voluntary species management," McCormick said. "We do not want to repeal the Act, but reforming it is very important to us."

The Endangered Species Act, first passed in 1973, expired in 1992, and has been extended by Congress. A new version of the Act is scheduled for debate during this session.

McCormick said that farmers and ranchers fear the discovery of endangered species or habitat on their property because many of their operations can be shut down. He said compensation for losses would help, but agricultural families would prefer less interference from government.

"I believe the government and environmentalists would be more successful if they make landowners partners in species protection," McCormick said. "Right now, we farmers and ranchers are victims of the process."

McCormick has suggested the creation of a Critical Habitat Reserve Program, modeled after the successful Conservation Reserve Program. In CRP, farmers set aside certain lands that meet conservation goals and receive payments for lost productivity. McCormick said important endangered species habitat could be treated much the same way.

Farmers and ranchers eligible for 1994 disaster emergency loans

Floyd County farmers (and ranchers) may be eligible for emergency loans to help cover losses they sustained as a result of the (drought/late freeze/flood, etc.) during 1994, according to Becky Rainer, Rural Economic and Community Development Supervisor.

insurance for the 1994 crop might be eligible for a loan since the crop insurance requirement for 1994 has been waived by the agency.

"Any farmer (or rancher) in that category who is interested in a loan should visit the RECD county office as soon as possible," Mrs. Rainer said. "In any case, they must apply no later than August 25." However, no application may be accepted after the 8-month termination date for the particular disaster.

Mrs. Rainer said that any farmer who denied an emergency loan or discouraged from applying for a loan because he or she did not have crop
