Concert encourages substance free life

LOCKNEY--Creed will rock the house at Lockney Elementary Cafeteria, Saturday night, to encourage youth to stay drug free.

The popular Christian band from Lubbock will be the star attraction at the "Freedom Through Jesus Youth Rally".

In fact, organizers promise a little something for everyone on Saturday night. Singing, drama, illusion and Creed's concert are planned to encourage youth to stay substance free.

The Rally will also feature the gospel ventriloquist and illusionist, Dave Dixon, of Lubbock, and singer Richard Miller, of Happy Union.

Evangelist Cliff Springwater, of Ship Rock, New Mexico, will speak to the youth and light refreshments will be served.

The rally is a musical concert and not a dance. Admission is free and open to anyone.

Adults will serve as chaperones and counselors will be available for youth wanting to talk.

The concert will be held in the cafeteria beginning at 7:00 p.m., November 8.

Volunteers need to be in the cafeteria by 6:00 p.m. For more information contact Debbie Wiley, 652-3361.

"There is a lot of excitement over the rally," said Wiley. "We have even generated a lot of interest from outside the community for this."

Lockney Mayor Gary Marr has opened a special account at the First National Bank in Lockney to help defray expenses from this rally and for future youth rallies. Donations are being accepted at the bank in the account of "Youth Action Against Substance Abuse."

Date set for holiday affair

LOCKNEY--The Lockney Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday morning to begin plans for their annual "Holiday Affair" in downtown Lockney. December 4 has been set as the date for the affair and the hours will be from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Stores will be open for Christmas shopping. The Lockney Library will hold a book sale, the band will play Christmas music and Santa will make an appearance so the children can give him their wish list and have their picture taken. Continued On Page 3

Love Fund

A love fund has been started at the West Texas National Bank for Allison Griggs. Allison is the 7 1/2 year old daughter of Kenny and Judy Griggs, of Floydada.

Afflicted with aortic stenosis, Allison is facing open heart surgery very soon. The family has no insurance and medical costs are overwhelming.

Bill Womack remembers Korean "conflict"

Korean war veteran Bill Womack says there are no heroes in wars--only those trying to "help a buddy or fight for their own self-preservation."

A Floydada native, Womack, was drafted into the army Oct. 3, 1950. "I was sent to Louisiana and attached to the 45th MP Company of the Oklahoma National Guard."

Museum recording veteran histories

The Floyd County Historical Museum is encouraging all veterans to go by the Museum and record their military history on a simple form provided by the Museum.

In June 1951 Womack's unit was sent to Sappora, Japan. "I was the town soldier in Japan. I lived in brick barracks with steam heat. Then in Dec. 1951 I landed in Chon, S. Korea with the temperature 20 degrees below zero."

Womack and his unit were delivered to Chon in beach landing craft. Dumped in thigh high water, the men rushed to shore with rifles ready. "We were cold and scared to death," said Womack. "We expected gunfire but no one was there. The enemy had retreated."

The Korean War had been waging for one year by the time Womack landed.

The first North Korean onslaught, in June of 1950, had thrown U.N. forces deep into South Korea.

A counter attack recaptured the South and passed north of the 38th parallel (the dividing line between North and South Korea).

A conflict arose between Pres. Truman and U.N. Commander Gen. MacArthur, after Truman ordered MacArthur not to cross Yalu River. The order came about from the fear of the U.N. that the Chinese would be brought into the conflict if threatened. (Chinese troops and supplies were being concentrated on the North Korean-Manchurian border.)

Against orders MacArthur approached the river, Oct. 26, 1950. Chinese "volunteers" then crossed into North Korea in force and stopped the U.N. advance. By the end of the year the Chinese had driven the U.N. troops back south of the 38th parallel.

In April 1951, Truman relieved MacArthur after MacArthur threatened the Chinese on the Manchurian border with air and naval bombardment.

"I think MacArthur was the greatest soldier there ever was," said Womack. "He knew how to fight a war. I don't know of any soldier that wasn't an admirer of MacArthur."

As a Military Policeman, Womack's main duty was moving convoys and receiving prisoners.

"I would stand in intersections and direct convoys," said Womack. "When prisoners were captured we would hold them no more than 3 days before passing them on down."

Four months before returning home Womack was detached from his unit and sent to Division Headquarters near Seoul. As an MP, Womack was assigned the duty to escort officers behind enemy lines for peace talks with the North Koreans and Chinese.

"There were four jeeps containing one PFC, one Corporal and one Sergeant," said Womack. "Two command cars had Majors in them."

"We went 5 or 6 miles through the Korean lines and then stood around outside the tents for 4-6 hours and looked at Chinese soldiers. I remember 12 MP's and 4 officers." Womack also vividly remembers being scared of driving that far back into enemy lines.

Womack does not remember which truce talk he was at. "There were a lot of them and a lot of cease fires. Nothing was accomplished at the one I was at."

History books record truce talks beginning on July 10, 1951. The battle always waged on and talks were called off on Oct. 8, 1952.

The talks were deadlocked on the question of repatriation of prisoners. The communists insisted on mandatory return of North Koreans and Chinese. The U.N. believed some of the prisoners had been forced into service and held out for voluntary repatriation.

June 8, 1953 an agreement was reached on the return of prisoners. According to the truce, prisoners who said they did not wish to return would be held up for 120 days--90 days of which they would be made available to political persuasion. If they refused to return they would be freed as civilians.

July 27, 1953 the Korean Armistice was signed and in September 90,000 Korean War prisoners were exchanged.

After the talks with delegates from their home country, many prisoners elected to remain where they were.

Of the prisoners held by the South Koreans: 15,000 Chinese and 8,000 North Koreans chose to stay.

Three hundred and thirty-five South Koreans chose to stay in North Korea. Twenty-three Americans and 1 Briton also chose to stay in South Korea.

South Korean guards were also ordered to "sanction the escape" of approximately 27,000 North Koreans who escaped over the border.

Womack returned home in Nov. 1952 and is grateful that no one in his unit was killed.

OLD PHOTOS TELL STORY--Bill Womack browses through his collection of photos telling the story of the time he served in the Korean War. Staff Photo

"We had some injuries but no casualties," said Womack. "Some Companies were wiped out."

Womack tells a story of one such company.

"There was not a lot of deep snow in Korea," said Womack. "But there was a lot of ice because it was so cold. The terrain would be covered in white and the sky would also be white. I was with a group standing on a hill overlooking a valley and we saw the Chinese, or North Koreans, crawling into the midst of the 180th Infantry--L Company."

"The Chinese were dressed in white snowsuits and you couldn't see them when they were crawling up on you. We watched the Chinese wipe out the L Company. We couldn't shoot down on them because we would have killed our own men. There was nothing we could do except call for reinforcements. By the time the reinforcements arrived, there were only about 7 men left from L Company and the enemy was long gone."

"It was guerilla warfare. They carried nothing but rifles and ammo. They could travel the hills a lot faster than GI's. "Sometimes it felt like all we could do was keep our heads down and our weapons dry."

The Korean War was fought by U.N. forces from 16 countries. The U.S. supplied the major number of men and Communist China aided North Korea with men and materials. The Soviet Union also supplied much material to North Korea.

By the time the war ended casualty figures were listed at:

U.S. and other U.N. forces--approximately 39,000 killed or died while prisoners; 500,000 South Korean civilians died from starvation, disease, or as war casualties;

Estimated Communist military casualties of all kinds (60% Chinese) was 1,600,000; and in addition about 400,000 of Communist forces died from disease.

"In the 50's wars were fought with masses of people," said Womack. "Now they are fought with technology."

Womack believes MacArthur should have been allowed to fight the Continued On Page 3

I want to put in a plug this week for the Youth Rally in Lockney this Saturday, 7:00 p.m., in the Lockney Cafeteria.

The organizers tried to get the Entertainment Building at the Fair Grounds but prior commitments for that building did not allow it.

The rally will feature a popular Christian band, Creed, from Lubbock. The band is geared more toward the older children, but the Christian illusionist and ventriloquist at the beginning of the show will appeal to all ages.

The theme of the show will be freedom from drugs through a relationship with Jesus.

A lot of hours have been put into organizing this event. I hope the youth come out to see what it is all about.

Any parent who wants to help should contact Debbie Wiley at the First Baptist Church in Lockney.

Kearney Edmiston brought me a newspaper clipping his daughter sent him. I wanted to run it closer to Punkin Day but didn't have room.

You Cow Patty Bingo players will still get a kick out of it. I don't know what paper it is from—but you should notice the garlic festival was named after me or my husband!

In July, the Nova Scotia Gaming Control Commission formally banned the popular charity fund-raiser, 'cow patty bingo', in which a promoter marks a field into squares, takes bets, and then releases a recently fed cow to "select" a winning square. The commission believed the game could be rigged by training a cow to use a particular spot in the field.

"The next day, incoming Nova Scotia Premier Russell MacLellan said the ban could be ignored. That same week, the district attorney's office in Santa Clara County, Calif., announced that a similar fund-raiser for the imminent Gilroy garlic festival, based on the famous Clydesdale horses' two-mile march through town, could not be held because it violated the state gambling law."

(Those cows in Nova Scotia must be smarter than the cows here—or else we just haven't figured out what it takes to make a cow take a dive).

From the Lockney FBC newsletter:
Hundreds of top scientists worked together to build the ultimate computer, a master brain with the intellect to answer questions and solve all the mysteries of the world.

Finally it was completed and ready for its first question. With trembling hands, one of the scientists fed in the question, "How did the world start?" Lights flashed, wheels whirred, tumblers clicked. Finally the machine answered: "See Genesis."

Lockney Police Report

LOCKNEY--At approximately 7:45 a.m. on October 20, Lockney Police and Lockney Volunteer Fire Department were summoned to a house fire in the 500 block of E. Houston. The home suffered extensive damage. The State Fire Marshall has been requested to conduct an investigation into this fire.

On October 22 Lockney Police responded to an accident with injury at the intersection of S.W. 1st and E. Spruce just after 4:00 p.m. Eldon Ray Dillard, 74, of Lockney and Lorenzo Salazar, 33, of Lockney had collided. Dillard was taken to W.J. Mangold Hospital by Lockney Volunteer Fire Department Ambulance.

Just before 10:00 p.m. on October 23, Lockney Police responded to a reported intoxicated driver on U.S. 70. The vehicle was reported to have struck several mail boxes on U.S. 70 in Hale County. The vehicle was found by the officer near F.M. 2883 and U.S. 70. The driver Daniel Pesina, 48, of Floydada was arrested for Driving While Intoxicated and taken to the Floyd County Jail.

Just before midnight on October 25, a Lockney Officer saw a vehicle traveling in the 100 block of N. Main without any taillights. The vehicle was stopped in the 300 block of N. Main and the driver was found to be intoxicated. Anthony Gonzales, 18, of Lockney was arrested for Driving While Intoxicated and taken to the Floyd County Jail.

On October 26 at about 3:30 p.m., a 14 year old Lockney youth was observed making offensive gestures toward a Lockney Police Officer. The youth was detained and issued a citation to see the municipal court judge.

On October 31 a resident reported to Police that while his son's vehicle was parked at the High School someone removed the lug nuts from the vehicle. When his son began to drive a tire fell off causing major damage to the vehicle. Anyone with information about this offense is asked to contact the Lockney Police Department.

Just after midnight on November 1, Lockney Police responded to a domestic disturbance call in the 500 block of S.W. 3rd street. A 16 year old Lockney youth was detained and taken to the Garza County youth detention center for Aggravated Assault.

Cotton Club will benefit "Friends"

By: Keri D. Lemon
(This is the fourth in a series of stories reviewing the beginning of the Floyd County Friends, their objectives, and their progress toward the ultimate goal of a multi-purpose center in Floyd County. The series is being written by Keri Lemon, a Texas Tech Journalism student. Her work is made possible by a grant from the Reader's Digest Foundation.)

The "Cotton Club" is the newest way to help support the Floyd County Friends as they raise money to build the multi-purpose/life enrichment center.

"Farmers will be able to sign the bales over to the Friends without being taxed for it; a bale of cotton is worth about $325," said Dora Ross, vice president of the Friends.

"One hundred bales is more than we make on the Gala," Ross said.

"I ran across another organization who used this fund-raiser successfully, so we are hopeful the producers will get involved," Ross said.

The Friends have raised $122,000 in cash and pledges locally and have applied to several foundations. Southwestern Bell has given a grant of $10,000 to the Friends.

"If we ever get a significant foundation behind us, a six figure gift, it would really get us going," said Long.

"Dora Ross, our first vice president, was the real backbone behind the writing of our grant proposal," said Long.

Harvest points have contributed to the fund-raising. Farmers who use American Cyanamid products such as Prowel or Thimet have harvest points. They have a choice to redeem those points for prizes or make contributions to approved community projects like the multi-purpose building.

The Benefit Gala which is a fund-raiser held by the Friends on the last Saturday in March. In 1996, the Gala netted $15,000 and in 1997 raised $18,000.

"With the growth of the Gala, we expect it will easily be capable of raising $20,000 to $25,000," said Long.

The Benefit Gala is a three course meal served at your table by the Floyd County 4-H, great musical entertainment, a chance at $1000 cash giveaway, and silent and live auctions.

The Friends are also taking pledges; they are nonbinding and confidential. The contribution will become reality when construction of the building begins. Locally the pledges have raised $62,000. Pledge cards are available from any Floyd County Friends board member.

Memorials are another way to contribute, the Friends will send a card to the family acknowledging the gift. All memorial names will be placed on a plaque in the building.

The Casino Night is held in August during the fair. Many different casino games are available, and at the end of the evening everyone has a chance to spend their "play" money in an auction on prizes.

Some of the other fund-raisers have included variety shows, aluminum can collection, the Fajitas Fiesta given by El Ranchero and sales promotion donations by Floydada Ford.

Based on figures from the Bailey County Coliseum, Floyd County Friends have estimated the operating expenses of the multi-purpose/life enrichment learning center to be approximately $25,000-$30,000 the first several years.

"These are only starting figures, once the use of the building increases so will the expenses," said Nick Long, president of Floyd County Friends.

There were four buildings that were researched for operating budgets, Olton 10,000 square feet and $5,000, Dimmit 25,000 square feet and $22,000, Littlefield 25,000 square feet, Plainview 60,000 square feet and $60,000 and Muleshoe 26,000 square feet and $65,000.

The Floyd County Friends have discovered many avenues to obtain funds for operating the multi-purpose/life enrichment center including: usage fees, Benefit Gala, Annual Supporting Members, building advertising, grants, harvest points, memorials, ATV hook-ups, and corporate donors.

The Friends said that they anticipate utilizing the inmates from the state prison 20 miles away to help clean up and set up for events. Contacts have been made with the City of Lockney, City of Floydada, and Floyd County Commissioners Court concerning using equipment when needed so no major equipment will have to be purchased.

war. "If you are going to fight--fight to win. Why waste 1/2 million lives and solve nothing. We still have the same conflict over there that we used to have. We never ended it. They are still threatening us.

"Politics are the worse thing that can happen to military operations. When you are over there--you're a long way from politics."

Womack, 69, and his wife, Margie, have been married since 1953.

Margie worked for FUSD for 26 years as an assistant migrant teacher. She retired in 1995.

After farming for 20 years Womack retired in 1983 and entered the construction business. He has now retired from that and turned his business over to his second oldest son, Joe.

The Womacks have three other sons: Ricky, the oldest, who is a superintendent in Matador; Jay, an assistant principal and Ag teacher in Nacona; and the youngest, Tracy, an Ag teacher in San Saba.

The Womacks also have 10 grandchildren.

Although the war is over and the 45th division was disbanded the men of the 45th are not detached.

Forming a bond, that only men who have faced war together can understand, the 45th division still gather for reunions.

They are so close that Womack missed his 50th High School Class Reunion to attend a reunion of the 45th.

"Our first reunion was held in Atoka, Oklahoma. The postmaster of Atoka had been our 1st Sgt. and he had the old duty roster. He was able to contact a lot of the division. We had so much fun at the first reunion that we keep coming back."

The 45th consisted of 180 men: 36 men from Texas, 80 from Oklahoma, and the remainder from all over the U.S.

Last year's reunion of the 45th attracted 75. One man comes from Australia, one from Brazil and another flew in from Greece.

"We are like a family," said Womack. "We have lost a few men and the widows still come.

"I enjoy going because we only remember the fun things. Our wives laugh at us because they say we fight a brand new war every three years."

Pollard is FNB artist for the month of November

FLOYDADA -- Plainview artist Ann Pollard returns to the First National Bank of Floydada this month for her third exhibition. Everyone is invited to come by during the month of November to see the works of this talented artist. The free exhibit is available during regular business hours each day at the bank.

Pollard works in watercolor, oil, acrylic, and mixed media. She specializes in still life, florals, landscapes, as well as abstraction. She says she is "interested in creating feeling," and states, "I want to evoke an emotional response in the viewer."

"I create mood through an adroit use of color which is often strong and bold," says the artist. "Moods are also fomented through the use of intricate glazes, interesting textures, and an occasional surprising glimpse of gold leaf."

The artist graduated from the University of Texas with a degree in interior design and received a correspondence degree from the Famous Artists School. She has also studied painting techniques through the Alexandria Art League in Alexandria Virginia and in workshops under Paul Milosovich, Janet Bybel, Jo Beth Gilliam, and Dominique Boisjoli.

Cover Girl Interiors of Plainview utilizes Pollard's talents as a special projects artist. She is also a member of the Plains Art Association, Lubbock

ANN POLLARD

Art Association, and the West Texas Watercolor Society.

Her works are included in public and private collections in Washington, D.C., California, Colorado, Massachusetts, Missouri, New York, and Texas. Her 1997 exhibitions include Art for Humanity in Lubbock, the Lubbock Art Association Classic, the Lubbock Art Association Membership Show, and the Plainview Art Association Spring Show.

Pollard and her husband Edward, who is retired from the United States Secret Service and serving as an international security consultant, reside in Plainview, the city of her birth. The couple has two grown children and are members of the Faith Family Church and the P.E.O., Chapter BL.

Floydada High School student recommended for Who's Who has been recommended again to receive honorary award recognition and have her biography published in Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1996-97. This is Meredith's second consecutive year to receive this award.

FLOYDADA--Meredith Schacht

Approximately 15,000 high school faculty members, youth groups and education organizations nominate students for this honor. Only five percent of all high school students receive this annual award and only 1/2 of one percent are honored for two or more years.

Miss Schacht is commended for her consistent commitment to excellence. Meredith is the daughter of Clar and Judy Schacht of Floydada.

Whirlwind Sams

By: Don and Sue Chesshir

Trail Boss Herb Wallace led a group to Amarillo on October 23 to the Texas Fall Samboree at the Tri-State Fairgrounds. Traveling to Amarillo were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hambricht, John Lyles, Mac McElyea, Herb Wallace, Harold Norrell, Randy Hollums, Paul Westbrook, and Boone Adams. The group enjoyed various activities and entertainment planned and presented by the Texas Fall Samboree.

The Whirlwind Sam's Travel Club held their regular monthly meeting on November 3, 1997 at the Lighthouse Electric meeting room. The meeting was called to order by president Gordon Hambricht. The invocation was led by Wayne Russell. Happy Birthday was led by J.W. Gilbreath for Jerry Livingston, Glenda Livingston, Harold Temple, and Fred Thaxton. The Anniversary Song was sung for Fred and Yvonne Thaxton. The Thaxtons have 52 years together. Refreshments were prepared and served by Audrey Temple and Esther Wallace. Trail Boss Harold Reese reported on plans for the November trip to Johnson City. Trail Boss Herb Wallace reported on the October trip to the Samboree in Amarillo. The program was presented by Ron Ross who is a professor of biology at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview. He talked about his time in Kenya and brought some items of Kenyan culture for the club to see. The program was introduced by Harold Temple. The Ladies' Coffee will be November 13 at Pizza Gold.

There were sixteen rigs represented at the meeting. Attending were Harold Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Boone Adams, Don Chesshir, J. W. Gilbreath, Gordon Hambricht, Randy Hollums, Jerry Livingston, Harold Temple, Harold Norrell, Herb Wallace, Bob Goodnight, George Miller, J. W. Gilbreath, John Lyles, Wayne Russell, Henry Russell and Fred Thaxton. The group sang Happy Trails at the conclusion of the meeting.

Bradford's celebrate birthdays

By Euna Bradford

The Bradford family celebrated four October birthdays and a going away party Saturday, November 1, 1997 at the home of Floyd and Euna Bradford.

Those attending were Myrtle Blair of Plainview, Billy Line of Fallbrook, California, Bobby Line of Lincoln, Georgia, Anna Kiesel of Hanford, California, Robert Bradford, Mary Emert and Jerry Bradford of Floydada.

Also attending were Tinnie Galloway of Idalou, Corryne Galloway of Arlington, Cindy and Marshall Thorp of Dalhart, Doug and Elaine Galloway of Floydada, Rusty, D'Nae and Ryne Galloway of Portales, New Mexico, Kenneth and Geneva Cook of Winters, Marcellita Lancaster of Batesville, Arkansas, Bob and Jean Logan of Weatherford, David, Connie, Jonathan and Micheal Lee of Lockney, Jim and Frances Wilson of Plainview and Floyd and Euna Bradford.

The going away party was for Myrtle Blair who is moving to Fallbrook, California to be close to her son, Billy Line and family.

The October birthdays were Mary Emert - October 6, Tinnie Galloway and Marcellita Lancaster - October 30 and Myrtle Blair - October 31. A beautiful cake was served. Everyone enjoyed a day of visiting, eating and pic-

Lockney Senior Citizens

By Gladys Ragle

LOCKNEY—My, oh my, we are having some wonderful fall weather these days and the fall music is going on. Gins are running, combines and cotton strippers are on the move, module trucks and grain trucks are on the highways and roads—everyone working so hard to get their harvesting done while this pretty weather lasts. We are truly blessed in many ways.

Cap Carthel was taken from the hospital back to the Lockney Care Center and hope he is doing better.

Arla Copeland is back at home after a short stay in the local hospital. She is doing better.

The Lockney Senior Citizens want to thank Clyde Baxter for a generous donation. Things like that are what will keep the center going.

Wampler hearing aid service will not be here in November since the 4th Thursday will be Thanksgiving. They will be in Plainview and Floydada, so if you need anything you can meet him there.

Jerry Edwards of the Lockney Police Department will be here November 6 at 6:30 p.m. to talk and show a film of the scams that are going around to swindle the elderly out of their money. I feel this will be of interest to all of us.

Our condolences to the family of Bertha Rolling. She passed from this life on Monday and we will miss her.

Floydada Rehab & Care Center News

By Jane Martinez
Hi. A lot has been going on around here. We are planning lots of activities for the months of November and December and we would like for everyone to come join in our activities.

Our residents loved all the trick or treaters. They also talked about the costumes the kids were wearing. We also enjoyed a day of hot chocolate with marshmallows. We savored a morning of coffee and donuts.

We actually start off our morning with a cup of coffee or juice around 9:30. If anyone would like to come and join us, you all are welcomed. We also have exercise at 11:00 if you want to come join in.

We have entertainment on Saturdays. If you need to relax, come and sit with us and enjoy.

We try to have lots of activities going. We also are interested in having any kind of entertainment, so if you know of someone who has any talents and would like to make good use of them, give me a call and I will schedule a day and time for anyone. The residents really delight in the entertainment.

We are still in need of volunteers just to come and visit with our residents. They appreciate the company. Also, if you play dominoes, we have some ladies that would play you a game or two.

On Thursday, November 6, we will be having a magic show; you can see him perform at 4:00 p.m. On Saturday, November 8, Mary Coleman will sing solo for our residents and visitors.

We would like to thank everyone that gives of their time to come visit and entertain our residents.

Well, this is all I have for you this week. Until next time, you all take care, 'cause someone cares.

Sudan student named to All-Region Choir

Sarah Quisenberry, a student at Sudan Junior High, competed against students from schools in the Lubbock area for the Texas Music Association Junior High All-Region Choir.

Out of the 104 altos competing, Quisenberry placed 4th in the competition earning her a spot on the All-Region Choir. The competition was open to students in grades 7-9.

Quisenberry will participate in a clinic on November 21 and a concert on November 22. The concert will be held at the Lubbock Civic Center and is open to the public.

Sarah is the daughter of David and Tammy Quisenberry of Sudan and granddaughter of Denny and Johnnie Quisenberry of Lockney.

UMC Harvest Festival date set

FLOYDADA--The Council on Ministries of Floydada's First United Methodist Church has set Saturday, November 15, 1997 as the date for their annual Harvest Festival. It will include the country store, arts and crafts, cutlery sale, silent auction, traditional turkey dinner and quilt drawing. Chairpersons for this year's festivities are Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Dav- enport.

The handmade queen/king-sized quilt is on display at the church. The pattern is Log Cabin Star in the Mountains done beautifully in colors of bur- gundy, cream, pink and green. Tick- ets for the quilt are on sale for $5 each at the church office. The drawing will immediately follow the dinner.

The delicious meal will include roasted turkey with all the trimmings with your choice of pecan or pump- kin pie. Dinner tickets are $6/adult and $4/children and are available from members or at the church office. Take outs will be ready at 11:00 a.m. through the alley and home delivery is available by calling the office at 983-3706.

The popular silent auction will be featured during the festival. Bids will be taken for items beginning at 9:30 a.m. One may make as many bids as necessary to win the item. Items will be awarded to the highest bidder when the bidding closes at 1:00 p.m. Already available for bid are: a 7-day summer vacation at the Staniforth's cabin in Cuchara, Colorado; an original photograph, a quilting frame, a Winnie Carthel original oil painting, a 1-day quail hunt, and a hand painted porce- lain coffee service.

Funds raised this year will go to support missions, the youth and to update the church kitchen.

For more information, contact the church at 983-3706.

Invitational show and sale set

The Lubbock Arts Alliance will present an Invitational Art Show and Sale November 7-9 at the Cap*Rock Winery on Woodrow Road east of Highway 87.

The show, featuring the work of 31 artists from Texas and New Mexico, including Jill Warren of Floydada, is sponsored by PNB Lubbock, Methodist Hospital, and St. Mary Hospital.

Hosts for the event include Lisa White, Cindy Snell, Sharon Prather, Jim Garrett, and Carole Collier.

By special arrangement with R.B. Ravens Gallery of Taos, New Mexico, the exhibit will include works by Taos founders Oscar Berninghaus, Albert Bierstadt, Irving Couse, James Howland, and Joseph Henry Sharp.

Deborah Milosevich, Executive Director of the Lubbock Arts Alliance, believes the show will offer visitors the chance to view a variety of art in different media and styles in a pleasing atmosphere. "Cap Rock*Winery has been gracious enough to let us transform their building into a gallery for the weekend. The Winery will form the perfect backdrop for both paintings and sculpture."

Artists whose works will be displayed include Toni Arnett, Sybil Dickey, James Eppler, Kathy Hinson, Laura Lewis, Lonnie Mason, Paul Milosevich, and Robert Rogers, all of Lubbock.

Other Texas artists to be featured include Carl J. Smith of Amarillo, Garland Weeks, Spider Johnson, and Lora Hunt of Mason, Gordon Fowler of Austin, Linda Jaynes and Glenn Lyles of Plainview, Terry Keltz of Slaton, and Larita Billups and Terry Gilbreth of Abilene. Artists from New Mexico exhibiting in the show include Carlos Gislimberti, Ray Vinella, and Susan Kohl of Taos, Woody Gwyn and Helenn Rumpel of Santa Fe, Martha Kellar of La Luz, and J. Chris Morel of Ranchos de Taos.

The show and sale will open with a "Meet the Artists" reception on Friday, November 7 from 6:00-9:00 p.m., and continue on Saturday, 10:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m., and Sunday, 12:00 noon - 5:00 p.m. The event is open to the public and free of charge. Lockney cross country teams are on the way to regionals

By Coach Schumacher

LOCKNEY--For the second year in a row, Lockney's Varsity Girls and Varsity Boys cross country teams are headed to Regionals. The event will be held November 7 at 12:00 noon at Mae Simmons Park.

The varsity boys team, made up of Abel Rosales, Nick Castro, Daniel Banda, Max Ramirez, Matthew Lerma and Fortunado Martinez, placed second at District missing the 1st place slot by 9 points. Rosales, Castro, and Banda also qualified as individuals, placing 3rd, 6th and 9th respectively.

The varsity girls team consist of Leslianne Hickerson, Cecelia Reyes, Susie Tambunga, Rocio Reyes, Dana Martinez, Lorena Bernal, and Cristina Amador. They placed 3rd, qualifying for Regionals, also.

Kenzie Stapp competed on the girls JV level doing a good job all year.

For the first time ever, there was a Cross Country Jr. High Division. We had four boys that competed all year long representing Lockney very well. Manual Ramirez placed 3rd over all at District, Cody Lass placed 4th, Armondo Pinales placed 6th and Andy Martinez placed 8th. We also had three Jr. High girls compete, Claudia Rosales, Jenna Ford and Liz O'Connell. We look forward to having some of these kids in high school next year.

The varsity boys and varsity girls will leave Lockney Saturday morning at 9:30 with a send-off downtown from Booster Club. We would love to have everybody come out and supporting our kids; they have worked very hard all year and would appreciate hearing from our community. They will be competing at 12:00 in Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock.

Brownfield downs Floydada, 20-13

Courtesy of KFLP Radio

FLOYDADA--Despite scoring the games first twenty points, Brownfield had to hold off a late Whirlwind rally to secure their second victory of the season and a 20-13 victory over Floydada in District 2-3A.

The Cubs scored on three of their five first-half possessions, with the first scoring drive covering seven plays and 91 yards. Eugene Reed capped the drive with a 54 yard touchdown run and Jay McHugh added the PAT. C.J. Campbell and Eric Martinez also scored for Brownfield on 1 and 33 yard runs, respectively.

Floydada got on the board in the closing seconds of the first half, when Cy Cowart connected with Mario Nunez on a 38 yard touchdown pass.

In the second half, Brownfield controlled the ball for most of the third quarter and failed on a 38-yard field goal. But the Winds responded by driving 80 yards on 15 plays and Richard Casillas scored on a one-yard run. Yet, the Whirlwinds couldn't capitalize on a fourth quarter Brownfield mistake. Lonnie Nelson recovered a Cub fumble at the Brownfield 19 yard line. Floydada took five attempts to put the ball in the endzone, but an Eric Martinez interception in the endzone ended the Winds last good scoring opportunity.

Floydada, who still had an outside opportunity to make the playoffs, needed to win in order to have any chance at a playoff appearance. In addition to winning, the Whirlwinds needed Littlefield to beat Seminole and Slaton to beat Cooper. Though Slaton almost pulled out the upset, they lost in overtime to the Pirates 27-21. Seminole crushed Littlefield 40-6, and Denver City secured the number one playoff seed by downing Roosevelt 42-7. With their win, Seminole claims the second seed in the playoffs and Floydada, Littlefield and Slaton have all been eliminated from post-season play.

Friday night's games will have no impact on the playoffs. Floydada (3-6-2-4) will host Seminole (8-1-5-1); Denver City (9-0-6-0) hosts Brownfield (2-7-2-5); Cooper (7-2-4-2) is at Littlefield (4-5-3-3); and Roosevelt (0-9-0-6) travels to Slaton (3-6-2-4).

Copeland wins first in weekly football contest

Earning the $25.00 first place prize check was Joe Copeland of Lockney. He was one of five who missed a total of eight games on the weekly contest. All five chose Lockney to win in the tie-breaker. It was necessary to use both tie-breakers to determine first and second place.

Copeland and Vickie Norrell each chose a total combined score of 49 in the Lockney-Hale Center clash. This was right on the money. Both selected Floydada to win in the second tie-breaker. Copeland earned the first place prize by selecting a combined score of 36 three points over the actual combined score of 33, in the Floydada-Brownfield game.

Norrell thus earns the second place prize by selecting a combined Floydada-Brownfield score of 28, five points under the actual combined total.

Gene Lowrance of Floydada gets the third place prize of $10.00 by being two points under the actual combined total for the Lockney-Hale Center game. Each winner will receive their prize check in the mail later this week.

Honorable mention goes to H. G. Graham of Lockney and Heather Arney of Floydada. Graham was three points over the actual combined score for LHS-Hale Center and Arney was five points under.

Lockney JV earns district championship

By Coach Ventura

LOCKNEY--Behind great defensive performances by Frank Guerrero, Tyler Phillips, Chris Angiano, P.J. Leal, A.J. Thornton and a host of other Longhorns, Lockney defeated Hale Center 18-0, who also was undefeated, for a District Championship.

"Championship Denied" was stamped all over the Owls of Hale Center by the mighty Longhorns of Lockney.

Every week, our goal was to help set the atmosphere for the varsity on Friday nights. This is a great group of kids who love to play the game and especially like to HIT!

Offensively, the Longhorns struggled at times, but with great effort and desire still managed to put 18 points on the scoreboard for the District Championship. Taurean McDonald put Lockney's first score on the board with a tremendous 95-yard touchdown run. Josh Quebe hit Daniel Banda with a perfect throw for a 35-yard touchdown. Taurean McDonald found the end zone one more time from 10-yards out. Our offensive line, Robert Bartlett, Heath Stoerner, Tyler Bybee, Adam Pachiano, Marcus Muniz, Primo Salazar, and Aaron Dietrich did a great job of blocking.

We are very proud of these young athletes for their great efforts this year. They will play their last game this week at Springlake-Earth at 7:30 p.m. Great Job Men!

Area youths compete in Punt, Pass & Kick contest

LOCKNEY--Forty-five participants took part in the NFL Gatorade Punt, Pass, & Kick competition on October 18 at Mitchell-Zimmerman Field.

These youngsters earned first place honors in their respective age groups. They are:

- GIRLS: Age 10/11 - Anita Nuncio, Lockney - 37'9"
- BOYS: Age 8/9 - Dahlen McCarter - Lockney - 188'4"
- Age 10/11 - Ty Arjona - Lockney - 268'5"
- Age 12/13 - Michael Rodriguez - 261'6"
- Age 14/15 - Kevin Hernandez - 332'4"

*Cumulative total of one punt, one pass and one kick.

These four winners will now move on to a Sectional competition, to be held November 8 in Lubbock. They could qualify for the Team Championship competition to be held at Dallas, in conjunction with a Dallas Cowboys game.

"Slave Days" The Lockney Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes will be participating in "Slave Days" in order to raise money for the organization. We will do yard work, rake leaves or just about anything else you can come up with. Contact Coach Sutterfield at 652-1419 and leave a message. Donations will be accepted and your support is appreciated.

Longhorns capture district championship

By Coach Moerbe

LOCKNEY--The Lockney Longhorns captured their second 3AA Championship in a row with a convincing 49-0 win over the Hale Center Owls Friday night in Hale Center.

Following a three downs and punt possession by the Owls on their first offensive series, the Horns marched 60 yards in five plays with Devon Phillips putting the first points on the board with a 26-yard run around right end.

The next Owl offensive series lasted only 3 plays again as linebacker Anthony Poole led the defensive charge with a sack on Hale Center quarterback Matt Thomas, which resulted in a near safety.

Following an Owl punt, Lockney set up shop near midfield and ended in the end zone moments later when Phillips crashed into the end zone from 1-yard out for a 12-0 lead.

Another Hale Center punt pinned Lockney deep in its own territory but it took the men in black only five plays to cover 86 yards as Adam Cummings found J.R. Walker on a 55-yard scoring pass to complete the touchdown drive. Phillips ran in for the two point conversion to up the score to 20-0.

After yet another strong stand by the Lockney defense, Hale Center was forced to punt again from their own territory. Longhorn tackle Tyson McDonald broke through the line and blocked the kick which Anthony Poole ran back to the Owl 16. Phillips 5-yard touchdown scoring run and Willie Luna's two point conversion concluded first half scoring with the Longhorns up 28-0.

The second half was only seventeen seconds old when Lockney had another touchdown. The fourth touchdown of the night by Phillips came from 70-yards out on the first play of the second half. Thad Lusk's conversion made the score 35-0.

A strong defensive effort featuring a sack by Longhorns Ryan Smith and David Hernandez set up another Lockney touchdown with Phillips doing the scoring honors again on a 75-yard run up the middle. Lusk's kick concluded the third quarter with the score 42-0.

An interception by Luna set up the Horns for the last touchdown of the night. Poole scored from a yard out to conclude a 10 minute drive. Lusk's kick ended the scoring at 49-0.

With the win Lockney clinched the Number 1 seed in the upcoming playoffs. The opponent is still undetermined as District 4AA concludes its season with a couple of games with playoff implications. The big game is between Post and New Deal. A New Deal victory would put the Longhorns with the Idalou Wildcats provided Idalou beats winless Crosbyton. If Post defeats New Deal the bi-district match would be against New Deal. District 3AA will also decide the runner-up to Lockney this week as Hale Center journeys to Hart with the winner receiving the Number 2 playoff seed.

Two from FHS advance to regionals in cross country

The District 2-3A Cross Country meet was held this past Saturday at Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock. The Floydada Lady Winds Cross Country team was represented by Senior Tara McCandless, Sophomores Nichole Hartline and Amanda Williams, and Freshmen Lana McCandless, Erin Ralston, Kelsy Pierce, and Jackie Lucio. The team placed fourth ahead of Slaton, Denver City, Seminole and Littlefield. The three top teams advance to Regionals and Brownfield, Roosevelt and Cooper will represent the district.

The top 10 individuals also advance to the regional meet and the McCandless duo qualified for the meet. Tara McCandless placed fourth overall with a time of 13:02 and Lana McCandless placed tenth with a time of 13:39. To compete in this type of race it takes a lot of conditioning and most of all, HEART!

We are extremely proud of each of these young ladies and they did a fine job of representing FHS and our fine community. The Regional Meet will be held this Saturday at Mae Simmons Park with the 3A girls competing at 8:30 a.m.

REGIONAL QUALIFIERS -- Floydada High School athletes Lana McCandless and Tara McCandless qualified for regional competition in cross country track.

Hey Whirlwind Fans

Come out Friday night at 7:30 p.m. and support the 'Winds as they battle the Seminole Indians in their final home game of the season.

Recognition for Senior football players, band members, and cheerleaders and their parents will be at 7:10 prior to the game.

There will be a Pep Rally at the new gym at 3:25 in the afternoon.

Lockney Police Department sets hunter education courses

LOCKNEY--The Lockney Police Department will again be sponsoring a Hunter Education Class in time to get those who have not taken the course certified prior to the opening of Pheasant season.

This course is mandatory for anyone born on or after September 1, 1971. In order to legally hunt in the state of Texas, anyone born in that time frame must have in their possession, besides their license, a certificate showing proof of their completing this course. Failure to do so can result in them receiving a citation from the game warden for not having this certification.

The cost of the course is $6.00 and it will be held in four sessions; three of these will be four hour class sessions and one will be a three hour day session, which, if the weather permits, will include some shooting.

Anyone can take the course, however, in order to be certified, you must be at least 12 years of age. Anyone under 12 must retake the course on or after they reach 12.

This course also meets all the requirements of other states where you may want to hunt and in some of these, everyone must have had the course before hunting, no matter what age you are.

The course will be held at the Lockney Firehall from 6:30 p.m. until 10:30 p.m. November 17, 18, November 23 (outdoor session) and November 24, 1997. Preregistration is encouraged as the room will only accommodate about 20 and after the class fills up, anyone else will have to hold until the class will again be held. We usually only have the time to do about one class a year.

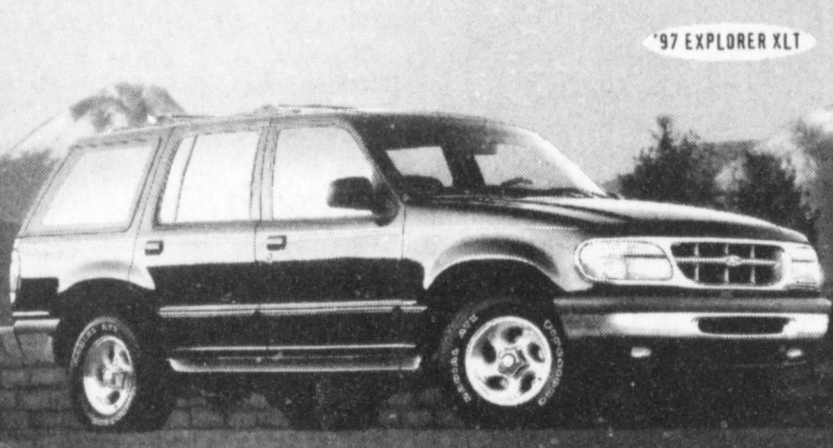

You may preregister by calling the Lockney Police Department at 652-3548 and furnishing the officer with the required information. If no one is there when you call, please call the dispatcher at 983-4901. Leave the dispatcher your name and a phone number where you can be reached. The dispatcher will get hold of someone to contact you and preregister you.

If further information is needed, please contact Chief Jerry Edwards of the Lockney Police Department and he will fill you in on anything you might need.

FJHS TMSCA Team wins awards

FLOYDADA--Over 200 Jr. High students competed in a TMSCA (Texas Math and Science Coaches Association) meet held Saturday, November 1, at Lubbock High School. Floydada Jr. High students competed in the small school division with Amherst, Brownfield, Crane, Klondike, Seminole, Shallowater, and Trinity.

Floydada ranked 4th overall in Science and 5th overall in Math. Individual awards in the 7th grade went to Janna Szydoski, 4th in Math and 4th in Science; Ruddy Casteneda, 7th in Science. Awards in 8th grade went to Sean Holster, 8th in Math and 4th in Science; Erin Houchin, 7th in Science. Other Floydada students competing were Courtney Clemens, Josh Van Hoose, David Rodriguez, Stephen Cuevas, Jessica Casteneda, and Matthew Kirk. These competitors deserve our congratulations for their excellent showing in this very large and very competitive meet.

Lockney Band Boosters plan big auction

LOCKNEY--Lockney Band Boosters will sponsor a community auction and hamburger supper on Thursday, November 13, in the Lockney Elementary School cafeteria. The hamburger supper and auction preview start at 5:30 p.m., and the auction begins at 7:00. Area businesses have donated merchandise, services and gift certificates, and Band family members have contributed many hand-crafted items for the auction, a Band Boosters fund-raising project, with proceeds to go to various Band projects and the Washington, D.C. trip planned for next summer. Everyone is invited to enjoy a good meal and join in the old-fashioned auction fun.

Have a good week!

Vacuum Cleaners, Sewing Machines:
Richardson Sewing Center Has 27 Year History Of Area Service

Do you have a sewing machine that constantly breaks your thread or needles? Does your carpet still look like it needs to be vacuumed after you run your vacuum cleaner over it? Do you have an older model of vacuum or sewing machine and can no longer find parts to use or repair it? Richardson Sewing Center can probably come to your rescue.

Mr. Richardson started his Sewing Center business in 1970 in the downtown Plainview area. It has been a family owned business in the same location, two blocks south of the courthouse on north Broadway, for almost 30 years (which is longer than any sewing machine and vacuum repair business in the Plainview/Lubbock area).

Featuring a convenient location with front door parking, Richardson Sewing Center services all makes and models of sewing machines and vacuum cleaners. Their friendly owner and staff make repairs quick and easy always keeping their customer in mind.

In their show room, Mr. Richardson features Riccar and Eureka brand vacuum cleaners. They will demonstrate and answer your questions when you visit the shop, and will help you assemble the vacuums at the time of the purchase.

They also feature the largest and latest display of embroidery Singer sewing machines in the state of Texas. These include models from the treadle sewing machine era to the latest computer sewing machines available anywhere. With machines from a wide range of prices and many accessory options to choose from, they will be happy to demonstrate the machines and assist you in assessing which machine would best meet your sewing needs. For the individual who does not wish to invest in new merchandise, Richardson Sewing Center also deals in reconditioned vacuums and sewing machines. The goal of Mrs. Richardson is to accommodate the needs of the customer financially and in workability.

In accessories for vacuum cleaners, Richardson Sewing Center carries a large variety of vacuum bags and belts for most makes and models. You will find more in stock in their store than almost anywhere else in the area.

Also, they carry many sewing notions such as good quality thread, needles, and machine accessories. If they do not have what you need for your sewing machine or vacuum in stock, they will do what they can to meet your repair and project needs.

A specialty item that Mr. Richardson carries is carpet shampoos. The shop carries all of the equipment and formulas necessary to facilitate you in your shampoo needs.

The mission at Richardson Sewing Center is to cover the service of as many makes and models of sewing machines and vacuum cleaners as possible. You, as the customer will leave satisfied with your repair or purchase. So, why don't you bring in those vacuum cleaners or sewing machines that are giving you trouble and let them have a look.

Tips given on storing pesticides safely

By: Ron Graves, Extension Agent-Entomology (PM)
Crosby/Floyd Counties

With the onset of Fall, now is a good time for homeowners and producers alike to check workshops and barns to be sure that pesticides have been properly stored. Proper storage will prevent potential hazards around the home, and will increase the shelf-life of the pesticides.

The best way to store small amounts of pesticide is in a locked cabinet, located in a ventilated area. The pesticide should always be stored in the original container, displaying a legible label. The pesticide should also be protected from extreme temperatures. Dusts and wettable powders may cake when subjected to wide variations in temperatures. At 32 degrees F. or below, liquid formulations may crystallize out of solution and lose their effectiveness. Pesticide should also be protected from direct heat sources. Any chemical with a flash point of 140 degrees F. or less is a possible fire hazard. Producers should not attempt to store sodium chlorate because of the extreme fire hazard involved.

Producers storing more than a few gallons of pesticides should check with local fire protection authorities and public health officials concerning legal ordinance. Under the Texas Agricultural Hazard Communication Law, producers and other entities that store pesticides in an amount in excess of 55 gallons or 500 pounds within 1/4 mile of a residential area composed of three or more private dwellings shall provide to the fire chief having jurisdiction over the storage area, in writing, the names and telephone numbers of knowledgeable representatives who can be contacted for further information, or in case of an emergency. The 55 gallon or 500 pound threshold amount shall be based upon the sum of all covered pesticide chemicals normally stored.

When storing a significant volume of pesticides, producers should adhere to the following rules:

- Keep chemicals in a locked storage area, well ventilated and clearly posted at all entry points.
- Date all containers.
- Check containers periodically for leaks, tears, etc.
- Do not locate storage area near feed or seed.
- Always store "empty containers" in the storage area pending disposal.

Properly dispose of all empty pesticide containers. Generally, a homeowner can dispose of an empty lawn and garden pesticide container in a dumpster to be disposed of in a sanitary land fill; but if possible, the container should first be triple-rinsed. Glass containers should be triple-rinsed and have the lid removed. Metal containers not under pressure should be triple-rinsed and opened at both ends. The rinsed containers should then be wrapped in newspaper and/or a paper bag.

Currently, properly rinsed agricultural chemical containers are not classified as hazardous waste. However, due to limited capacity and more stringent state regulatory requirements, many landfills no longer accept agricultural chemical containers. In Texas, open burning of pesticide containers is illegal. Burying these containers may lead to serious environmental consequences, and is not recommended. Because disposal options have become so limited, both government and industry are currently promoting alternatives such as recycling. This past summer, opportunities were available in our area for recycling properly rinsed plastic and metal containers. Recycling efforts will continue annually. Once the container has been either triple- or pressure-rinsed, according to label directions, disposed of the rinsed lid and rinsed, hinged handles with other household waste. Store the clean, punctured containers in a dry, secure area away from any food, feed or water supplies until they can be recycled or reconditioned.

Contest Rules

Any subscriber or purchaser age 7 or older is eligible to enter this contest. Only one entry per week per person.

To play, circle on the official entry form, the numbers of the teams you believe will win this week's games. To indicate a tie, circle the numbers of both teams playing the game. Also write a guess of the combined total points to be scored by the two teams listed in each of the tie-breaker footballs. Circle the team you believe will win. Circle both teams if you think the game will end in a tie.

Only entries on official entry forms brought to a Hesperian-Beacon office in Floydada or Lockney no later than 5:00 p.m. on Friday. No photocopies will be accepted and no mail entries will be considered.

Three cash prizes are awarded each week. In the event of ties (the same number of correct games & equal scores on tie-breakers) prizes will be combined & shared by those tied. The tie-breaker scores will be used only in the event of a tie on the number of games correct.

Print your name & address plainly on the official entry form & double check your choices; before clipping out the entry form & depositing it at a Hesperian-Beacon office before 5:00 p.m. on Friday.

Entries are limited to one per person per week. Weekly winners are limited to one per household.
