

Six arrested for cocaine delivery now out on bail

Lockney Police arrested another individual in connection with last week's "drug bust" operation. After indictments were handed down by Floyd County Grand Jurors, 11 individuals were arrested at their homes Tuesday night September 29, for Delivery of a Controlled Substance. A $10,000 bond had previously been set by District Judge Randy Hollums before the arrests. Although not indicted by a Grand Jury, Maria Ascencio, 55, of Lockney, was arraigned in J.P. Court, Wednesday morning, September 30, for Delivery of a Controlled Substance. She was also arrested and placed in the Floyd County Jail. Bond was set at $10,000.

Although the money bondsmen require varies, a standard 15% of the bond set by the court is usually required by a Bail Bondsman. According to a Floyd County Jail spokesman six of the 12 individuals who have been charged with Delivery of a Controlled Substance have already been released on bond.

After paying $1,550, Jesus Ascencio, 57, Maria Ascencio, 55, and Isaias Estrada-Torres, 40, all of Lockney, bonded out of jail on September 30.

October 1st, Minnie Camacho, 35, and Juan Camacho, 34, both of Lockney, also bonded out after paying $1,550.

Thornberry votes in favor

House approves "90-10" tax relief

With the House of Representatives convened in a special Saturday session, September 26, U.S. Rep. Mac Thornberry voted for a plan that would set aside 90 percent of the federal budget surplus to saving Social Security, and the remaining 10 percent to lowering people's taxes.

"For the first time since 1969," Thornberry stated, "America will run a budget surplus this year. That's something we should all be proud of. It's also something we don't want to waste. That's why it's so important that we deep the surplus from being spent on new federal programs in Washington. The money belongs to the American people, and it should be returned to them."

"The plan approved today will do that by making sure that 90 percent of the surplus is devoted to protecting Social Security, and the remaining 10 percent is put back into people's pockets by cutting their taxes and letting them keep more of what they earn. Now, the President and many others in Washington oppose this plan and claim we can't protect Social Security and lower taxes at the same time. Well, Continued On Page 3

WELCOME TO PUMPKIN LAND--The home of Joe and Ann Jones, on the Matador Highway, 10 miles east of Floydada, is once again decorated in the familiar decor of Floydada's claim to fame--pumpkins. The Jones' home has become a favorite spot for visitors looking for a variety of pumpkins and gourds to purchase and they are also a welcoming sign to people traveling the highway. Staff Photo

PUMPKIN PRETTIES--A beautiful display of pumpkins and gourds west of the intersection of Hwy. 70 and 207, is a great way to greet people entering Pumpkin Capital U.S.A. The Floydada Chamber of Commerce is urging citizens to follow this example and decorate their yards and businesses to show off their city to the many visitors who will be town for Punkin Days, October 31. Volunteers are still needed to help out with the festivities and items are currently being collected for the Punkin Day Auction. For more information on the Punkin Day celebration, call the Floydada Chamber of Commerce, 983-3434. Staff Photo

BUILDING A NEW DAY CARE--Some of the children from Floyd County Day Care took a trip to the site of their new Day Care Center which is being added on to the First Christian Church in Floydada. Work has already started preparing the ground for the foundation. Joining the kids at the site were Day Care Employee Carrie Davis, Board Members Dixie Smith, Gerry Summers, Jill Graham, Day Care Employee Aurora Johnston, and Board Member Denise Doucette. ### "Lights of Unity" benefits Unity Center

In an effort to support the goals of the Floyd County Friends Unity Center the 1990 Study Club of Floydada and the Il Penseroso Jr. Study Club of Floydada are sponsoring the "Lights of Unity" fund raiser.

The goal is to sell enough lights that will stretch along Highway 70 and connect Floydada and Lockney on Saturday, November 21st.

For a donation of at least $5.00 per light a glowing tribute to friends or family will be placed along Highway 70 for a nighttime view.

Names of those remembered in the lights will be read over KFLP-FM during a special broadcast as spectators make the drive.

Everyone will be invited to a special ceremony of "Unity" to be held at the site of the Unity Center in Muncy, at 7:00 p.m.

Proceeds from the light sales will benefit the Floyd County Friends Unity Center as they work towards their Phase One construction cost of $600,000.

The deadline for purchasing a "Light of Unity" will be 12:00-noon, November 21st.

Each memorial will be recorded and the name placed in the Unity Center.

Call for more information, or to mail in your contributions, contact: Shanna Jackson, RR 1, Box 123, Lockney, TX 79241, 806-296-2713; Becky Ross, RR 4, Box 97, Floydada, TX 79235, 806-983-3289; and Floyd County Friends, Box 58, Floydada.

Make checks payable to Floyd County Friends.

Floydada enrollment drops by 38 students

Enrollment figures have been released by FISD and show a drop of 38 students compared to the 1997 enrollment.

The A.B. Duncan campus had an increase of 5 students and Andrews Elementary also showed an increase from a 1997 total of 255 to this year's total of 259.

Floydada Junior High School enrollment dropped by 20 students to a total of 150.

Floydada High School showed a decrease of 27 students to a total of 299.

The CCLC campus stayed the same at 15 students.

Ethnic breakdown of Duncan Elementary is 4.36% Black, 27.35% Anglo and 68.27% Hispanic.

R.C. Andrews population is 6.56% Black, 23.93% Anglo, and 69.49% Hispanic.

Floydada Junior High School enrollment is .66% American Indian, 6.66% Black, 36.66% Anglo, and 56% Hispanic.

Floydada High School shows an ethnic breakdown of 6.02% Black, 38.79% Anglo, and 55.18% Hispanic.

Trunk-or-Treat Volunteers Needed

The Floydada Chamber of Commerce is in need of volunteers for the city wide Trunk or Treating, October 31st.

Children are encouraged to do their Halloween trick or treating at the High School Park instead of door to door.

The chamber needs volunteers to hand out candy and is also in need of donations of candy, or money to buy candy.

Jack Yeary's collections advance from Maytag washers to antique tractors

By Page Tumlison
(Editor's note: Research for the following article, by Texas Tech journalism student Page Tumlison, was made possible by a grant from the Reader's Digest Foundation.)

If you've seen one John Deere tractor, you've seen them all, right? They are green with some bright yellow here and there; gazing across a circle of cotton, they look just like the next, and don't they all seem to sound alike?

Ask Jack Yeary, a collector of John Deere tractors, and he's likely to tell you otherwise. In fact, Yeary's 1925 John Deere Spoker, his personal favorite, is unique in that it was only made from 1923 until 1925, thus making it the oldest and rarest tractor in his collection.

So how does one start his own John Deere tractor collection, you ask? Why, first you start collecting Maytag washers, of course! Besides his tractors, Yeary has a collection of four Maytag washers that he has restored, as well as at least six Maytag motors that he has restored. Now those were the days...stepping on a pedal to crank the motor to your washer!

After mastering the art of rebuilding washers, you eventually look to other challenges. You figure you should restore a tractor or two for the grandchildren, as Yeary did. Then comes the "domino effect," as Yeary refers to it.

"After you find and rebuild a model A, you start looking for a model B. Three years down the road, you find yourself combing the area for models G and H. Before you know it, you're looking for more storage places!"

Yeary has found his "place" on Lockney's Main Street. Yeary and his wife Wilma bought the former Ford dealership in June and have since transformed it into a storage place for their collections. The John Deere you see in passing is his 1941 model, unique in that it came from Gatesville, the furthest place Yeary has gone to bring home a tractor.

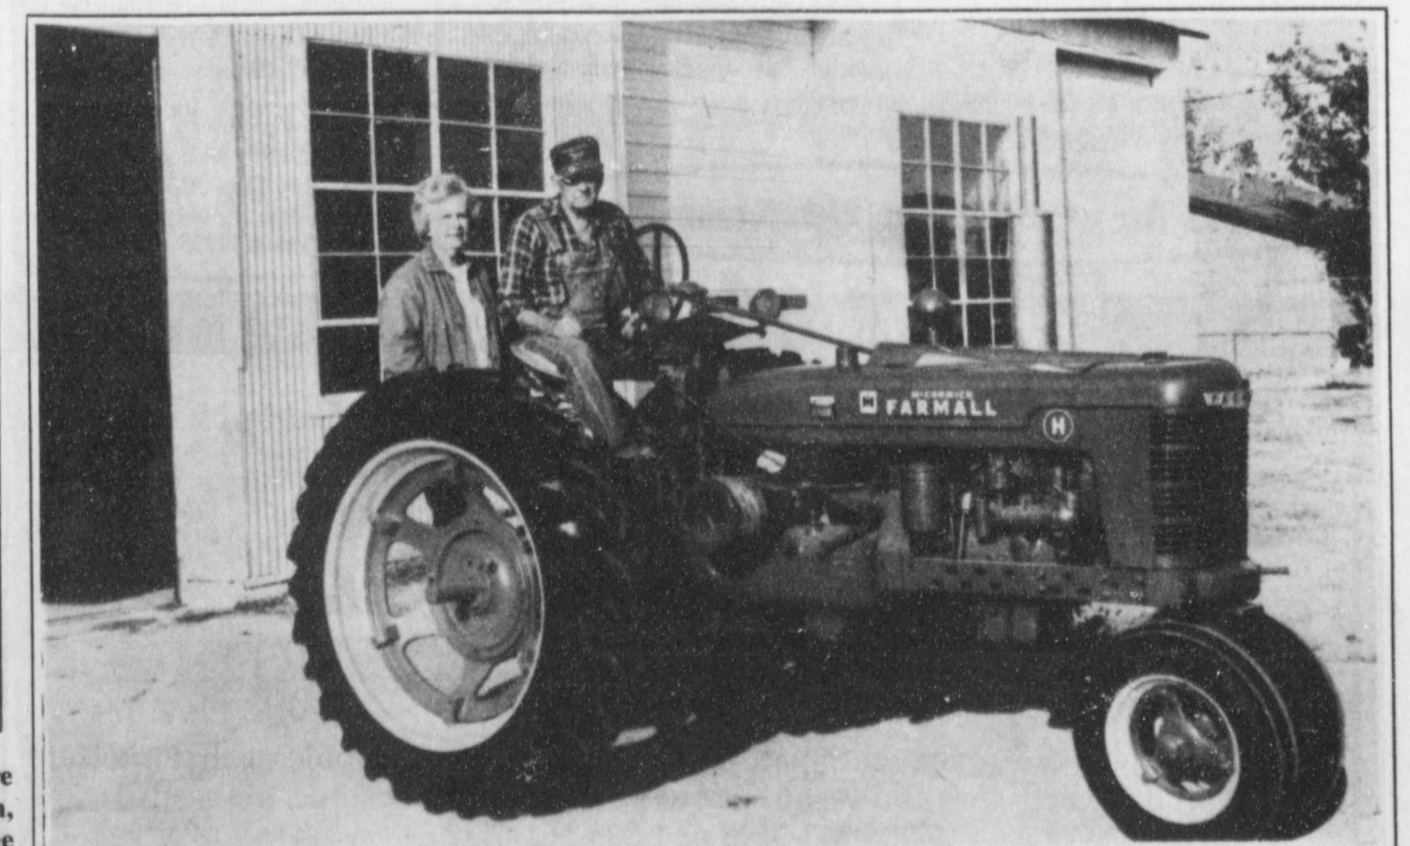

But perhaps you have been to the Farmer-Stockman Show in Lubbock, or maybe even the Bob Wills Day Parade in Turkey, and seen the antique tractor shows and wondered just how many of these beauties Yeary has. Not only does Yeary have John Deeres, but he also has two Farmalls and a 1938 B Allis Chalmers, to make a total of 13. And there's more...just ask him about a 1928 Model A Ford truck, or even a 1928 Model A Ford Roadster. He's got those, too!

So just what else is Yeary hiding in that warehouse of his? For starters, he's in the midst of creating what he temporarily calls a "cowboy bunkhouse," complete with a bed and all. Yeary's wife Wilma is also in the collecting business and uses the former office as a space to display her antique Coke bottles, figurines, tables and chairs. Other items that can be found in their collection include family heirlooms such as a sewing machine, a Victrola, an ice cream table set, a buffet, and an icebox.

As for Yeary's plans for his collection, they don't include sales of any kind. "I'm not in the collecting business for sales, only as a hobby. I feel a sense of accomplishment when I'm working on the tractors, but I don't want to make any money off what I enjoy doing," Yeary says.

"I'll be happy to show my collection to anyone who's interested, but as for making it into a museum, I just don't want it to turn into a business."

WILMA AND JACK YEARY

BY THE WAY

By
Alice Gilroy

This came off of the Internet and was written by Michael Hodges of the Texas Press Association.

It speaks for itself.

Dad--Son, come in here, we need to talk.

Son--What's up Dad?

Dad--There's a scratch down the side of the car. Did you do it?

Son--I don't believe, if I understand the definition of "scratch the car", that I can say, truthfully, that I scratched the car.

Dad--Well, it wasn't there yesterday, and you drove the car last night, and no one else has driven it since. How can you explain the scratch?

Son--Well, as I've said before, I have no recollection of scratching the car. While it is true that I did take the car out last night, I did not scratch it.

Dad--But your sister, Monica, has told me she saw you back the car against the mailbox at the end of the driveway, heard a loud scraping sound, saw you get out to examine the car, and then drive away. So again, I'll ask you, yes or no, did you scratch the car?

Son--Oh, you mean you think you have evidence to prove I scratched it. Well, you see, I understood you to mean did "I" scratch the car. I stand by my earlier statement, that I did not scratch the car.

Dad--Are you trying to tell me you didn't drive the car into the mailbox?

Son--Well, you see sir, I was trying to drive the car into the street. I mis-handled the steering of the car, and it resulted in direct contact with the mailbox, though that was clearly not my intent.

Dad--So you are then saying that you did hit the mailbox?

Son--No sir, that's not my statement. I'll refer you back to my original statement that I did not scratch the car.

Dad--But the car did hit the mailbox, and the car did get scratched as a result of this contact?

Son--Well, yes, I suppose you could look at it that way.

Dad--So you lied to me when you said you did not scratch the car?

Son--No, No, that's not correct. Your question was "Did I scratch the car?" From a strict legal definition, as I understood the meaning of that sentence, I did not scratch the car...the mailbox did...I was merely present when the scratching occurred. So my answer of "No" when you asked "Did I scratch the car" was legally correct, although I did not volunteer information.

Dad--Where did you learn to talk like a complete idiot?

Son--From the President of the United States.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

As a Whirlwind fan, member of the FHS faculty, and coach's wife, I was overwhelmed by the support shown at Friday night's football game in Roosevelt. The stands were full and many of the Whirlwind supporters were on their feet for the majority of the third and all of the fourth quarter.

The legend of the 12th man was alive and well at Roosevelt on Friday, October 2. We were willing to give of ourselves in any way to see that our team won. The band, cheerleaders and football team received benefits as a result of the participation of the fans. As part of the FHS faculty, I have been working to emphasize the legend of the 12th man and our theme for the year, which is SUCCESS (Our word for the year is SEIKO, which means SUCCESS). I have encouraged my students to be a part of making a difference. The crowd at Friday's game made a difference. It is very important for the young men on the field to know that the fans are supporting their efforts, win or lose.

As a coach's wife, I was especially encouraged by the Whirlwind fans support. It is refreshing to see fans support the team rather than sit on their hands and let whatever happens happen. Supportive fans can and do make a difference. There have been games this season that I believe would have ended differently if the crowd had been more involved.

I am excited about the enthusiasm Floydada is showing for the Whirlwinds. If we believe they can win, they will believe they can win and anything will be possible. Thank you to all of you who support and encourage all of the Whirlwinds, on and off the field. Without you there would be no SUCCESS.

Sincerely,
Rita Kennedy

Floydada Police Report

FLOYDADA--September 12, 1:08 a.m. police stopped a car for speeding on Hwy. 62 South. According to Police Chief Darrell Gooch, officers also found drug paraphernalia and alcohol. The driver, Lawrence Villalobos, 17, of Vernon, was charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and Alcohol By A Minor.

September 14, at 2:40 a.m. police answered a panic alarm at Friends Convenience Store. "The clerk told the dispatcher that a man had stolen some merchandise," said Gooch.

"En route, officers observed a man fitting that description and when they started to approach him he ran away.

"Police officers gave chase and caught him. Eduardo Garza, 19, of Floydada, was charged with Evading Detention and Theft. The merchandise was recovered.

A fight which had occurred on September 12 between juvenile girls was reported on September 16.

According to Gooch two girls (ages 15 and 16) assaulted two other 15 and 16 year old girls. The suspects were arrested and taken to the PAC.

September 15, police were called to the Labor Camp in reference to a fight. Pablo Mena, 53, of Bovina, was arrested and charged with Disorderly Conduct, and Public Intoxication.

September 15th, Juvenile Probation Officer Bruce Ballou called police to the PAC. "Ballou had placed two juveniles under arrest for fighting earlier," said Gooch. "This family member was protesting the arrest and he refused to leave after Ballou told him to do so." Keith Collins, 17, was arrested for Interfering With Police.

September 18th, at 9:23 p.m., police observed a vehicle fail to maintain a single lane. The driver, Mack Wayne Lees, 33, of Lubbock, was ultimately arrested and charged with DWI.

The passenger, Stanley McCarty, 32, of Plainview, was arrested for PI.

Both subjects were transported to jail

Birth of baby leads to spot on Osmond Show

Former Floydada resident, Kathy Battey Ford, daughter of Jerry and Pat Battey of Floydada, and her two children will be featured on the Donnie & Marie Osmond Show Oct. 15th.

Ford was asked to be on the show after the unusual birth of her baby, September 3rd, made headlines.

A resident of Boyd, Mrs. Ford delivered her baby, a 6 pound 5 oz. son, in her car on the way to Denton Regional Hospital.

She was assisted in the delivery by her only passenger, her four year old son Foster.

According to Ford, Foster remained calm, followed instructions, and helped his mother with soothing words and comforting touches. He also summoned the nurses when Mrs. Foster arrived at the hospital.

The family is all doing well and Mrs. Ford and her husband, Steve, named the newborn, Forest.

After the story appeared on a Denton news show, it was noticed by Los Angeles TV news. The producers of the Donnie & Marie Show saw the Los Angeles story and contacted the Fords.

Foster and his family will be flown to California, all expenses paid. They will also be given tickets to Disneyland.

The show will be taped Thursday, October 8th and is scheduled to be aired on October 15th, on the Fox Channel, 10:00-11:00 a.m.

Ted Bell art on display at First National Bank in Floydada

An exhibit of special interest to the Floydada community and the surrounding area is on display through October in the lobby of the First National Bank of Floydada. "The Art of Ted Bell - in Retrospect" is a fitting tribute to a man who was dedicated to preserving pioneer heritage through painting and who died twenty years ago this month. The exhibit, carefully planned by Carol Bell Reese, will feature historic homes with a descriptive paragraph accompanying each of the 30 paintings.

TED BELL

Ted Barnett Bell, born in 1921 in Silverton, came to Floydada in 1925 with his parents, Fred and Antoinette Belle, and a brother, Floyd. He had no formal art training, and began experimenting with art by accident. His roommate at Texas Tech moved out, leaving his drafting supplies, and Ted began to draw and copy from "Ford Times" magazines. From then until his death, he sketched and painted enthusiastically.

Of his first efforts, Ted said, "I copied exactly, stroke for stroke, over and over again." Little did he realize as he painted for a hobby the tremendous and perpetual influence his painting would have.

In 1952, Bell's father returned from his mail route, and he took over as carrier for the Star Route. During these years, he developed his favorite hobbies, sketching and watercolor painting.

Bell would drive the hundred miles of his daily route and sketch or take photos of old houses, windmills and barns he knew would disappear in time. At home after work, he transferred these images into paintings.

In later years, he began to use acrylic and water with watercolor technique which enabled him to achieve the brilliant, warm, crisp colors of the West Texas sky, foliage and flowers.

"Ted's distinctive style, developed without formal training and honed through dedication to detail and love of the area, led to an increasing demand for this work," said Carol Reese. "It always surprised Ted that people were willing to pay for his paintings and would commission work from him."

His work is found today in homes and businesses all over Texas, in other states, and in some foreign countries.

The first public exhibit of Ted Bell's art was at the Floyd County Library in July, 1963. The first painting purchased at that show by Billy and Frances Stanforth was "The Hartman House."

Viewers of the current exhibit at the FNB this month will relive memories as they see images of old homes beautifully displayed. A few to look for are: The Osborne House, Plainview; The Burleson Headquarters; Willson and Son Lumber Co.; The Cunningham House, Lockney; The Dorrell House; and the Baker Home.

Some prints are for sale, with the proceeds benefiting the Wayland Scholarship program, and there are a few paintings which Reese and her children have consented to sell. There will also be photograph books and sketch books of interest to look through.

Ted Bell loved this West Texas area and contributed his unusual talent to help keep alive its history. The First National Bank of Floydada urges friends and citizens of the community and area to view the exhibit during regular banking hours through October.

The lobby will also be open on Saturday, October 31st, 10 a.m. - noon, for visitors to the Punkin Day festivities, who may wish to enjoy the exhibit.

I disagree. I think we can do both. "We passed the Taxpayer Relief Act last year at a time we were running the deficit. If we can pass a major tax cut when we have a deficit, we can certainly pass a modest tax cut when we have a surplus. Most importantly, we can lower taxes and protect Social Security, which is what this plan will do."

The plan is called the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1998, or the "90-10" plan for short. Approved today by a vote of 229-195, the plan would set aside 90 percent, or approximately $1.4 trillion, of the projected $1.6 trillion budget surplus until Social Security can be saved. The remaining 10 percent, or around $80 billion over five years, would be devoted to lowering people's taxes. According to Thornberry, the "90-10" plan would provide tax relief for a wide range of Americans, including:

*Married Couples--According to the Tax Foundation, over 48 million individuals nationwide--and over 3.2 million individuals in the State of Texas alone--currently pay higher taxes because they are married and their joint filing status has pushed them into a higher income tax bracket. The "90-10" plan would provide relief from this "marriage tax penalty" by increasing the standard deduction this way. Thornberry stated, "married individuals will receive an average tax cut of $243 per tax return."

*Farmers, Ranchers and Other Small Business Owners--The "90-10" plan includes several provisions that will benefit producers and other owners, including: increasing the exemption from inheritance taxes to $1 million dollars immediately, making income averaging permanent (it was set to expire in three years); increasing the deductibility of health insurance costs to 100 percent for self-employed individuals; extending the net operating loss carry-back period for farmers to five years from two; and, providing an immediate $25,000 per small business expense deduction.

*Senior Americans--Senior citizens who want to work are currently penalized for doing so by a reduction in their Social Security benefits. The "90-10" plan would provide some relief in this area by increasing the earnings limit for seniors to $30,000 effective January 1, 1998. For every increase in the earnings limit, Thornberry said, working seniors will be able to keep $333 in Social Security benefits which otherwise would have been removed from their benefit checks.

*Small Savers--Under this plan, taxpayers would be able to exclude the first $200 in interest and dividends they receive. A married couple filing a joint return would be able to exclude their first $400 in interest and dividends. According to the Tax Foundation, 68 million taxpayers would benefit from this provision--or 3.7 million in the State of Texas alone. Thornberry added that this provision would not only lower taxes, but make tax filing easier, as well.

HATS OFF TO READING DAY--Susan Kirk reads to Duncan students on Tuesday, as part of the Hats Off To Reading Day. All classes enjoyed a full day of reading activities, supplied by parents, teachers, and citizens in the community.

Cannon wins first in 5th week of football contest

First place and a check for $25.00 this week goes to Sheree Cannon who missed only four games out of the 28 on the contest. Second place and $15.00 goes to Tyler Bybee of Lockney who missed five games this week.

Third place was determined with the help of the tie-breaker scoring due to the fact that two people missed seven games. Russell Harris and Alvin Hayes, both of Lockney, chose Floydada to beat Roosevelt.

Harris earned the $10.00 by selecting a combined total score of 42, six points under the actual combined score of 48. Hayes chose 30 to earn an honorable mention.

Prize checks will be mailed to the winners on Friday.

Missing eight games were Edward Sanchez, Robert dela Fuente, Gene Lowrance and Beth Tye, all of

CURTIS NEWTON JAMES AND MISTI LEIGH BAINUM

James and Bainum

Jackie and Susan Bainum of Dalhart, Texas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Misti Leigh Bainum to Curtis Newton James, son of Louis and Elaine James of Nara Visa, New Mexico. The couple will wed December 19, 1998 at Central United Methodist Church in Dalhart.

The bride-elect is a 1998 graduate of Dalhart High School and is currently attending West Texas A&M University in Canyon, where she is pursuing a degree in elementary education, specializing in reading.

The prospective bridegroom is a 1994 graduate of Logan High School in Logan, New Mexico. He attended Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Oklahoma and Clarendon Junior College in Clarendon, where he received a degree in ranch and feedlot operations. He is currently employed on the Coldwater Division of the Freeman Ranch, located east of Stratford.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Pat and Anne Northcutt of Amarillo, Texas; Mrs. Mary Lou Campbell of Canyon; Danny and Glenna Bainum of Amarillo and Hurl and Florine McCoy of Lockney.

The prospective bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. Inalve James and the late Newton James of Nara Visa, New Mexico, and Mrs. Eudora Harris of Portales, New Mexico.

Lockney Health and Rehab News

By Rebecca Rodriguez, A.D.

Hello to everyone once again from all the residents and staff of Lockney Health and Rehabilitation Center.

We would like to thank everyone who came out to meet Tom Haywood. He is running for re-election to the Texas State District 30. He came out to visit us on Monday, October 5th. We really appreciate everyone's cooperation and donations that were given to help fund Senator Haywood's campaign.

We would also like to recognize the Lockney High School teens who came out on Monday October 5, to help decorate the residents doors. We want to thank all of you who participated!!! We have a poem we would like to share with you:

A SIMPLE PRAYER

Oh, Father who art in Heaven
As I kneel down to pray
Please grant me the courage
To make it through this day.
As I set about my labors
Let me love my fellowman,
Be fair in everything I do
An' do the best I can.
If I become offended by
My brother or a friend
May I not hold a grudge
When this day comes to an end.

Whirlwind Sams Travel To Fredericksburg

The Whirlwind Sams were led by October trailboss, Dr. Keith/June Patzer as they left from the M.A.C. Thursday, for a campout at the Oakwood R.V. Resort in Fredericksburg, located in the beautiful Texas Hill Country.

Leaving with the Patzers were Mac and Marge McElyea, and Hollis and Jo Payne. A coffee break was taken at a rest area outside of Post. John and Christine Lyles joined the group at this site. They all stopped in the San Angelo area for lunch.

When the group arrived at the campsite, Gordon and Darlynn Hambricht, George and Betty Miller, and Harold and Charlene Norrell were there, having arrived earlier in the week.

After supper that evening we enjoyed visiting. Friday, we toured the Dulcimer Factory. The Appalachian Dulcimer is the earliest of all stringed instruments to play. A traditional North American folk instrument, it has a quiet, sweet sound, making it a favorite of folk players around the world. It has a subtle bagpipe tone and unusual tunings, which bring back fond memories of mountains, wood smoke, peaceful and quiet living. The dulcimer is perfect for RV owners because of its size.

At lunch time we ate at the Gallery Restaurant. Some of our group enjoyed shopping while others returned to the R.V. Resort. That evening the Oktoberfest celebration was opened. Visitors were greeted by three musical stages, 22 German bands, 55 craft booths, and 18 food vendors. Topping the list of entertainment were the Sauerkrauts, the German band featured at Six Flags Fiesta Texas in San Antonio. Wood, pottery, clothing, glass, jewelry and lots more was offered.

Since its founding in 1981, Oktoberfest has supported arts programs through the non-profit Pederiales Creative Arts Alliance. We ate lunch Saturday, at Biggardis. That evening our devotional time was in the rec room. Hollis and Jo Payne directed beautiful group musical selections. Jo sang a solo and Hollis gave the inspiring devotional and the benediction.

"Happy Trails" was sung by the group. The Patzers served coffee and refreshments. Sunday morning the Hambrichts, Norrells, Paynes and Patzers returned home, while the others stayed for a few more days of vacation. We are appreciative to the Patzers for hosting a very enjoyable campout at this beautiful resort.

The minutes were read by Yvonne Thaxton in the absence of secretary Betty Miller.

Whirlwind Sams

By Darlynn Hambricht

FLOYDADA--The chapter meeting of the Whirlwind Sams was called to order by president, Randy Hollums Monday, October 5, 1998, 7 p.m. at L.E.C.

The invocation was given by Darlynn Hambricht. Harold Temple and Herb Wallace have birthdays this month.

Recognized for celebrating an anniversary in October are Wayne and Roberta Russell, Louis and Virginia Pyle, Darrell and Nancy Mayo and Keith and June Patzer.

Songs were led by Henry Russell to honor all of these. Refreshments of bar-b-que, chips, dips, soft drinks, fruit salad, cake and cookies were provided by Esther Wallace, Virginia Pyle and Jean Kendrick. The tables were beautifully decorated with pumpkins and other fall foliage arrangements.

The minutes were read by Yvonne Thaxton in the absence of secretary Betty Miller.

ing family members in Cisco, Marquez and Dayton. When they got home they told me they extended their trip to visit another brother of Tom's, Ernest Emert of Lone Oak, and they drove on to Deer Park and visited the schools, teachers and other personnel where Tom used to work. They continued on to Clear Lake and visited, NASA Aeronautic Space Center where Tom had previously worked.

Saturday, September 26, thirty people from the First Baptist Church Senior Adults left on a trip to the night. Then on to Santa Fe, New Mexico, where we attended the First Baptist Church Sunday school and church service. At noon Joe Appling's cousin Betty and her husband, Ed Brown of Albuquerque, New Mexico met us for lunch, then on to Pagosa Springs where we met a brother-in-law of Travis Jones, Johnny and Jeanette (Gene) Roberts. Then we went on to Durango, Colorado.

Just out of Las Vegas, New Mexico, we also met Mike Holster's in-laws, Don and Joan Smith.

We rode a bus to Silverton, Colorado and then a train going back to Durango. While in Silverton, Jim and I ran across Jim's grandson, David and Michelle Carr from Georgia. We even rode the same train back to Durango with them.

On Tuesday, several of the men went fishing and all the others went shopping in Durango. Wednesday was spent on the road for home. We went over Wolf Creek Pass and Cimarron Canyon enjoying the fall foliage.

Those going on the trip were Joe and Jean Appling, Gene and Louise Hawkins, Bob and Charlene Alldredge, Virginia Cage, Effie Foster, C.E. and Loretta Leatherman, Juanita Holster, Margaret Soudeiler, Dallas and Gale Ramsey, Tom Pierce, Bill Hendrix, Donnell and Wilma Gowens, Millard and Glenna Watson, Thomas and Marie Warren, J.R. and Wanda Turner, Jim and Margarette Word, Travis Jones, A.C. Pratt, Bud Henderson and Mike Holster.

Thank you for your donations and memorial contributions. We are still in need. A new month with new bills. We appreciate your help. Those making donations the past two weeks are Irene Wexler, Queen Annie Lawson, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burton. Memorial donations were Lorella Bradley, Elizabeth Armstrong, John and Geneva Cockrell, J.R. and Wanda Turner, Wilma and Randy Payne, Gladys Widener, William and Faye Bertrand, Eva Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jo Smith, and Jim and Margarette Word, all in memory of Greg Patzer.

In memory of Lucy Eastham, were Alta Smith, Frieda Dunn, Don and Gayle Daniels, Fern Hartsell, and Jim and Margarette Word.

In memory of A.G. Tyler were Joe and Pat Jones.

In memory of Morella Hobbs was Edna Gilley.

Floydada Rehab and Care Center

By Patricia Hill, A.D.

Hello again, from all the residents and staff at the Floydada Rehab and Care Center. Hope everyone has had a good week.

Thursday was Senior Citizens day at the South Plains Fair. I would like to say thank you to Donna Shubaud, D.O.N., and Thelma Garcia, Therapy office manager, for going with me to take the residents to the fair. The residents had a good time. They ate corn dogs and drank cokes. After that we ate lunch at Kentucky Fried Chicken.

The staff is really working hard trying to get the Halloween and fall decorations up. The residents and staff would like to thank Mr. Travis Jones for their pumpkins and gourds that he donated. They are greatly appreciated.

FRCC is raffling off the World's largest Halloween stocking. The tickets are $1.00 and the proceeds will go toward the residents X-mas fund. To purchase your ticket, see a staff member or call 983-3704. All donations are appreciated. God bless. Until next time.

Lockney Senior Citizen News

By Gladys Ragle
LOCKNEY--Well, we finally had some much needed rain. Not as much as we really needed but what we got was greatly welcomed and appreciated.

This morning (Monday) we had a norther blow in and cooled us off so we probably will not have any more real hot weather.

Our sick ones, James Hill, Elton Wylie, and Leona Watson seem to be holding their own right now. We all wish them well.

Thanks to Lavirn Carthel for the pumpkins he brought us so we can decorate the Center for fall.

Harmony F.C.E.

By Maye Williams
The regular meeting of the Harmony F.C.E. Club was held in the club room September 28. The meeting was called to order at 11 a.m., by the president Karen Miller.

Roll call was answered by "My Favorite Way to Serve Potatoes." Minutes of the last meeting were read by Juanita Pool and hostess, Arvie Schulz read a poem of autumn as the thought for the day.

The President read a note of appreciation from the Kings for our being in their home She also reported that there were lots of entries in the South Plains Fair from the Floyd County 4-H members with several winning first place ribbons and Tasha Powell won the Sweepstakes with a jogging suit she had constructed.

Anna Maude Hopper and Ruth Scott who were co-hostesses gave factual material on the origin and history of potatoes both Irish and sweet, as well as yams. In 1845 Ireland had a crop failure of potatoes and many people died, but some migrated to the United States and this was the big popularity of the potatoes in our country. The plain baked potato has few calories, no fat and provides vitamin C and potassium.

Following the program, we enjoyed a luncheon of baked potatoes with various toppings, a Mexican meat pie with potato crust, oven fried potatoes, sweet potatoes with orange and pineapple, chicken salad, fresh tomatoes, vegetable plate, cake, coffee, tea and punch. Juanita Pool voiced grace.

After lunch we shared "Show and Tell" and then had a silent auction of handmade articles, home canned fruit, honey, and jams, cinnamon bread and fresh fruit and vegetables hand painting and other articles.

Foursome tables were decorated with fresh flowers and dried arrangements.

Recreation was directed by Karen on autumn.

Members attending were: Lucille Miller, Imelda Ramsey, Juanita Pool, Karen Miller, Maye Williams, hostess Arvie Schulz, Ruth Scott, Anna M. Hopper and one guest, Sharon Bussey.

Recipe of the Week

TEXAS STRUDEL
6 green onions, finely chopped
2 Tbsp. butter
4 c. chicken breasts, cooked, cubed
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 Tbsp. fresh parsley, chopped
2 tsp. ground comino (cumin)
1 tsp. garlic, minced
2 eggs
1 1/2 c. Monterey Jack cheese, shredded
2 c. green chilies
1/2 c. black olives, halved
1/2 c. golden raisins
1/2 c. almonds, chopped
20 sheets filo pastry

1/2 c. butter, melted
Garnish: Sour cream and black olives; or fresh sprig of oregano or cilantro Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Saute onions in butter until tender. In a bowl, combine the sauteed onion, chicken, salt, pepper, parsley, comino, and garlic. Stir in the eggs, cheese, chilies, olives, raisins, and almonds. In a 9x13-inch baking dish, brush butter on the sides and the bottom. Cut filo pastry flat in the dish. Brush melted butter onto the dough. Repeat this process until 10 layers have been buttered. Spoon the filling over the layers and spread evenly. Lay a sheet of filo pastry over the filling and brush with melted butter. Repeat this process until 10 or more layers have been buttered, including the top layer. Cut into desired serving sizes before baking.

Bake for 35 minutes, or until the crust is golden brown. Garnish with a dollop of sour cream and a black olive, or with a fresh sprig of oregano or cilantro. Serves 8-10.

Floydada 4-H meets at activity center

By Laura Miller
FLOYDADA--The Floydada 4-H Club had its regular meeting Monday, September 28th at 7:00 p.m. at the Massie Activity Center.

President Bonnie Dunlap called the meeting to order. Landon Lackey led us in the Pledge of Allegiance, Kindra Covington led us in the 4-H Motto and Pledge and Katie Gooch read the inspiration.

Meredith Schacht did a mini demonstration on how to make a rosette. Erika Miller had the Project Report about the South Plains Fair. Alissa Bennett told us about our community service which will be candy for Trunk or Treating. Door prizes were brought by Brenna Dawdy and gift bags were handed out to all the new members. The parents in charge were the Hugh Miller's, the Sammy Bradley's and the Eric Cornelius'. After the meeting, we split up into groups and went on a scavenger hunt. We had a lot of fun! There was also a parent information meeting for all new 4-H parents. The next 4-H meeting will be held Monday, October 25th. See you then!!

Floydada JV bests Roosevelt

By Coach Lightfoot
FLOYDADA--Quarterback Zach McNew ran for one touchdown, passed for another, threw a 2-point conversion, and added an interception on defense for good measure to lead Floydada's junior varsity to its first victory of the year, 22-6, in a storm-shortened contest against Lubbock Roosevelt.

After Roosevelt took an early 6-0 lead by returning the opening kickoff for a touchdown, the Whirlwinds mounted a 60-yard drive that was capped by McNew's 25-yard scoring run. He put FHS on top 8-6 when he found Trey Holmes in the end zone for the extra point conversion.

McNew's first-quarter interception stopped a RHS drive near midfield. On the Eagles' next advance into FHS territory, Jermaine Wickware stripped the ball from the Roosevelt runner. After a lengthy offensive drive, Wickware bulled into the end zone from 9 yards out for a score. Edward Porter ran in the conversion for a 16-6 lead.

An interception by Sean Holster near midfield set up the final score of the game, a 30-yard pass-and-run from McNew to Porter that gave Floydada a 22-6 lead.

With just over a minute remaining in the half, play was suspended due to lightning. After a wait of nearly an hour, the second half was canceled, and the score was made final.

Floydada is now 1-4 on the year. The junior varsity travels to Ralls for the opening District 7-2A play Thursday at 5:30 p.m.

8th grade Breezers edged out

By Bill Gray
Turnovers and costly penalties spelled the difference as the 8th Grade Breezers were edged by Lubbock Roosevelt 8-7 last week. The Breezers' record is now 1-2-1. Both Breezer squads travel to Ralls this week to enter district action. Kickoff time for the 7th grade game is 5:00 p.m.

The 8th Breezers' Andrew Arvizu carried 23 times for 178 yards and a touchdown to almost equal Roosevelt's entire offensive output. Arvizu's 48-yard TD scamper in the second quarter was set up by a Dustin Covington pass interception. Tyler Helms then connected with his first kicked conversion of his junior high career.

Larry McNew's first-quarter fumble recovery and Brady Rainwater's pass interception in the second period helped halt Roosevelt drives. Arvizu had a 60-plus yard touchdown called back due to a holding infraction in the second period. It was one of several questionable calls that plagued Floydada throughout the contest.

Trailing 7-0, Roosevelt opened the second half with 57-yard, 90-play scoring drive. They ran the two-point conversion, which turned out to be the difference in the game. The Breezers fought back. With time running out, Helms connected with Covington on a fine fade-route pass, which covered 22 yards, but the buzzer sounded with the Breezers at Roosevelt's 13 yard line.

Shorthorn 8th grade improves

By Coach Todd Hallmark
Petersburg 12 Lockney 8
LOCKNEY--The Shorthorns traveled to Petersburg last Thursday and had some chances to win the game but turnovers were costly. The score was 12-8.

Offensively, we are getting better each week. We had several opportunities to put the ball in the endzone, but the drives were killed by turnovers. Our lone score came in the fourth quarter with Michael Cuellar scoring from 15 yards out. The score was set up by hand running of Marcus Thornton. Joe David Luna and Michael Cuellar. Cuellar was able to cap the drive.

This could not be done without the offensive line of Eric Reyes, Todd Cotham, Garrett Mathis, Landon Schumacher and Miquel Gonzales. We are getting better every week offensively. I think the kids are catching on to what we are trying to do.

Defensively, we are improving each week also. We have some kids that are really stepping up on defense to help us. Cody Bayley, Matt McPherson, Aaron Blanco all had good games defensively. There were a couple of times we needed big plays from our defense and they were able to deliver, creating one turnover. I was proud of the effort these young men gave defensively.

I can't say enough about how much these young men have improved. We have lots of areas to get better at, but we are going to take it one game at a time. We play here Thursday, against Abernathy following the 7th grade game.

'Winds blow through Roosevelt homecoming

By Bill Gray
Floydada's Dusty Anderson hauled in a 15-yard TD pass from Cody Stovall late in the 4th quarter to spark the Whirlwinds to a 29-19 conquest of Lubbock Roosevelt at Acuff on October 2. The win closed the non-district portion of the Whirlwinds' schedule as they improved to a 3-2 for the season. It also marked the first road victory for the 'Winds since their 1996 decision over the Eagles on the same field, and was the third time in ten years for Floydada to put a damper on a Roosevelt Homecoming celebration.

Roosevelt capitalized on an early Floydada turnover to take a 7-0 lead mid-way through the first period. A 34-yard halfback pass from Chad Hardy to Jared Taylor ignited the Eagles' 6-play, 76-yard scoring drive. Jeff Jackson carried the final 18 yards to score the first of two touchdowns, and Jose Saucedo added the conversion.

Floydada was unable to take advantage of the excellent field position provided by Darryl Henderson's 71-yard return of the ensuing kickoff. The 'Winds gave the ball over on downs at Roosevelt's 11, but held the Eagles deep in their own territory, forcing them to punt. Dusty Anderson scored from 31 yards out on the first play of the second stanza. Operating at quarterback, Dusty was attempting to pass. Finding no receivers open, he scrambled into the end zone for his first touchdown of the evening. Gabriel Rodriguez added the conversion to tie the game at 7-all.

Josh Sherman's 21-yard pass to Bobby Chiles was a key play as the Eagles responded with a 9-play, 63-yard drive. 250-pound Robert Hartfield bulled for 9 yards on a 4th-down attempt to set the stage for Jackson's second score, a 17-yard romp with 6:49 remaining in the half. Shane Lloyd crashed through to block Saucedo's kick attempt.

Justin McGuire brought the Floydada crowd to its feet with an electrifying 83-yard return of the kickoff for a touchdown. Rodriguez added the conversion, and the 'Winds climbed back into the lead at 14-13. The Eagles mounted an impressive drive in the final moments of the first half. Although the Eagles held possession of the ball for all but 42 seconds of the second quarter, they were denied another score by the Whirlwinds' defense. Even a 20-yard field goal attempt by Saucedo sailed wide to the right as the first half came to a close.

Roosevelt took up where it left off at intermission with a time-consuming scoring drive to open the third period. Whirlwind defender Clay Horn saved a possible touchdown by stopping Eagle quarterback Josh Sherman on a 34-yard scramble. Roosevelt's drive stalled at Floydada's 11, and Saucedo was called upon to attempt a 27-yard field goal attempt. A questionable roughing-the-kicker penalty against Floydada gave the Eagles new life. Two plays later Sherman scored from 2 yards out, the two-point conversion attempt failed, but Roosevelt forged ahead 19-14.

Justin McGuire broke into the open for "touchdown territory" on Floydada's next snap, but the long gainer was called back due to a holding infraction. Three plays later McGuire's 55-yard punt pushed the Eagles back to their own 12. Whirlwind linebacker Lonny Nelson (who registered 14 tackles for the game) broke through to spill Sherman for an 8-yard loss, forcing the Eagles into a punting situation. Floydada's defensive momentum suddenly shifted to the offense as the 'Winds produced their game-winning drive with 9:52 remaining in the fourth period.

Dusty Anderson's 18-yard run for a key first down kept the 11-play drive alive. The 'Winds moved down to the Eagle's 15. On 4th-down-and-8, Stovall lined up at split end and took the hand-off from Anderson on the reverse. Scrambling and retreating almost back to midfield, Cody found QB Anderson all alone in the end zone and hit him with a perfect strike. Anderson then added the two-point conversion and Floydada climbed back into a precarious 22-19 lead.

Nelson, Brandon Wickware, David Lightfoot, Artemio Diaz and Darryl Henderson all turned in huge defensive plays in Roosevelt's final attempt to pull out their second win of the year. These defenders also played important roles in stopping the Eagles' scoring threat at the end of the first half. Coach Lee Hurt noted, "We had our backs to the wall and made a great goal line stand just before the half. It had to help us mentally going into halftime."

Defensive coordinator David Kennedy agreed. "If they go in right there, that puts them up by 6 or 7. We stopped them and gained a little momentum going into the half. It's just a credit to the kids...they did a great job when they needed to at the critical time."

Floydada's final defensive stand produced the defensive play of the game - Henderson's 12-yard sack of Josh Sherman almost in the Eagles' end zone. It also set up an insurance touchdown by Justin McGuire, a 2-yard blast with a little over a minute remaining in the final period.

The offensive play of the game, which turned the tide for the 'Winds was the reverse pass from Stovall to Anderson. McGuire's 83-yard touchdown return certainly gains the nod for defensive/special units play of the game. Dusty Anderson's 102 yards on 12 attempts and a score garners him the offensive player of the game. This week's "headhunter" is shared by Henderson and Nelson for their QB sacks.

Roosevelt opens District 2-3A play this week at Lubbock Cooper (a 7-0 victor over Slaton last Friday). The Whirlwinds open District 7-2A play at home as the Ralls Jackrabbits come to Wester Field for the first time in over 25 years. Ralls fell to Tahoka 17-14 last Friday to finish at 1-4 in non-district action.

Coach Tim Daughtrey was very proud of the Roosevelt victory. "It's the first time in 5 years that Floydada has won two in a row," said Daughtrey. "Most importantly...we won in spite of our mistakes. We made some critical errors, but still hung in there and didn't give up. The mark of a play-off caliber team is to overcome adversity and still manage to pull out the win."

Cross Country Lady 'Winds Report
By Coach Gleghorn
FLOYDADA--The Lady 'Winds cross country team traveled to Lubbock, Saturday, October 3 to compete in the twenty-fourth annual Lubbock Invitational Cross Country meet at Mae Simmons Park.

The ladies did very well with most improving their times and all competing well. Jenna Payne finished 25th in a large field of about 400 A, AA, and AAA runners. The team of Payne, Tara Williams, Lana McCandless, Jessica Casteneda, Gracie Dela Fuente, Trisha Coursey and Bridgette Burleson finished 19th out of 51 teams. Competing for the J.V. were Erin Ralston and Joanna Johnston. The ladies will travel to Petersburg next Saturday, as they continue to prepare for the district meet October 24th.

JV Horns shutout Petersburg

By Coach Bobby Ventura
LOCKNEY--Well, the farmers of Lockney and Petersburg would like for us to schedule next year's football games in June or July! It seems to be the only time it rains in this area is when these two schools meet in a football game!

After a late start, the Lockney J.V. went to work quickly. Mo Collins ran the opening kick-off for a 77-yd. touchdown, behind some great blocking! The rest of the 1st half became a defensive battle. After a short half-time, Lockney went to work driving the ball to Petersburg's 7 yard line. D. Martinez scampered for the 7-yd. touchdown on the next play that brought the score to Lockney-12 and Petersburg-0.

Mo Collins capped off the last score with a 21 yard run off the left side bringing the final score to Lockney-18, Petersburg-0! The team has really been playing good football on both sides. Our offensive line is doing a great job of blocking, creating big holes for the backs to score.

Defensively, we are really starting to hit and wrap-up opponents! We are becoming better fundamentally each week. Our kids are determined to win the District on the J.V. level for the 4th time! We really appreciate their hard work and determination.

LJHS 7th grade beats Petersburg

By Coach David Fairchild
LOCKNEY 34 - Lockney 0
LOCKNEY--The seventh grade traveled to Petersburg. Petersburg jumped out to an early lead of 12-0 in the first half.

Defensively, the kids played well the first half. The second half, fatigue set in on the Shorthorns and Petersburg lead increased to 34-0.

Offensively, we had some tough runs by Kirk Wilson and Jeran Butler, but were unable to get into the endzone. The Shorthorns are now 0-3 and will play Abernathy here at 5:00 p.m. Thursday.

Behind the Sidelines

Lockney Longhorns buffalo Petersburg

By Kurt Ashmore
LOCKNEY--Friday night's annual game between the Lockney Longhorns and the Petersburg Buffaloes was a hard fought battle. Although pregame predictions called for a toss up, Lockney came out with a decisive 27-0 victory improving our overall record to 3-2.

During the first quarter, the Buffaloes drove the ball down the field inside the Longhorn twenty before Brett McQuhae recovered a fumble lost by Petersburg's quarterback, Tanner Robertson. Brett's fumble recovery stopped what turned out to be Petersburg's only drive of the night.

The defense stiffened from this point on stopping the Buffaloes from completing even one pass and allowing only five first downs and 121 total yards offense. Playing good games defensively were junior defensive end Kevin Auful, senior linebacker Frank Guerrero, senior linebacker Thad Lusk, sophomore tackle Chris Ascencio, senior tackle Brett McQuhae, and senior cornerback Daniel Banda.

Offensively, Lockney started off slowly, but once we got it rolling in the second quarter, the Longhorns put together some great drives that kept the ball in our hands and kept the clock running. As a result, the first two drives of the third quarter resulted in touchdowns.

It was great to see the Longhorn running game get on track and control the line of scrimmage. Three of our backs had good games, senior tailback Calvin Collins, junior quarterback Jordan Lambert, and senior fullback P.J. Leal. Each of these young men rushed for yards 124, 65, and 54 respectively.

To enable these backs to find holes and open lanes, the offensive line had to do a great job of making their blocks and staying on them. The linemen responsible for these open lanes were senior tackle Marc Wilson, senior guard Brett McQuhae, sophomore center Brandon Hennagan, junior center Adam Pachiano, junior guard Jessie Ledesma, sophomore tackle Tyler Bybee, and senior tackle Hank Henderson.

The ends' jobs are to make both downfield blocks and blocks on the line of scrimmage. Senior tight end Thad Lusk, senior tight end Ryan Graves, junior wingbacks Josh Quebe and Eddie Amaya, and senior split ends Cooter Durham and Daniel Banda each accomplished their assignments well.

Specialty teams continue to improve in areas. The kick-off and punt coverage teams are doing extremely well, and the punt and kick-off return teams are getting better; however, we must still improve and do a better job of fielding the ball to get better field position. In addition, consistency is something the extra point team has got to accomplish. We must become automatic in this area. Working on each of these areas weekly will continue to get us where we want to be on special teams.

These first five weeks have served as important preparations for Friday night's district opener. Playing the tough non-district schedule has given us valuable experience that will help us in close ball games as well as when we play teams that are physically larger than we are.

To start district play, the Longhorns will travel to Abernathy to play the Antelopes. Kick-off time is 7:30 p.m. I think this game and each of the following district ball games will be hard fought dog fights. The Longhorns must play aggressive and mistake-free ball to get that first district win.

Singing Women of West Texas to present concert at First Baptist Church in Lockney

LOCKNEY--The Singing Women of West Texas, under the direction of Donna Chambers, will be presenting a Christian concert on Sunday, October 11, at the First Baptist Church in Lockney.

The group is made up of women who are members of various churches in the Lubbock area. They sing in churches around the South Plains once a month, as well as the South Plains Mall during the Christmas holidays.

The past two summers the Singing Women went on tour. In 1997 they traveled to the West Coast where they sang at churches and other places around Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle.

This past summer they traveled to Europe and sang at churches and in public places in Germany and Austria. They also sang for the European Baptist Convention's Conference at Interlaken, Switzerland.

Among the members of the group are ladies from Floyd County. They are Margaret Jones, Jane McCulley, Brenda Parker, Janet Lloyd and Barbara Edwards from First Baptist Church, Floydada; Kathy Ross and Kay Abney from First Baptist Church in Lockney.

The concert will begin at 6:00 p.m. and is open to the public. The host church invites the community to join them in this time of worship through music. A nursery will be provided.

"Kids...Get Out and Push"

One of the highlights of my boyhood days, living in West Texas, was the times the family would all get in our car and head for the hill country. We called it going down off the cap to gather wild plums, and maybe some grapes. It was east going down, but the real test came coming back up the hill. Daddy told us ahead of time, "This old car probably will not be able to get up that long hill without everybody helping push." He gave it all the gas it had, but sure enough, it finally came to a stop. We all knew what was expected of us. Everyone jumped out, including our mother. With everybody doing their part, we soon topped the hill, climbed back in, laughing and talking again, we were proud to have been a part of "fixing the problem." Before long, we were home and had no regrets of the trip or...getting out to push.

It's so easy to become critical when our churches seem to grind to a halt. When things are not moving as we feel they ought to. Our first thought is... "It's probably the driver's fault. Or, it must be the church. Maybe I need a new one. This is the easy way out, but not necessarily the best answer. My guess is, your driver has already at least suggested that he needs some extra help. The long hill seems to be getting steeper. He's put his heart into getting all the family to their home. The car is doing it's best, but not designed to have everybody just ride along and enjoy the trip.

The prophet Joel must have felt this. Listen to his cry for people to get out and push. "Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breast: Let the bridegroom go forth out of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priest, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, spare thy people, O Lord." (Joel 2:15-17) It seems to me he was saying, "Kids all of you, get out and push." It worked. If you read the whole chapter, God honored it and made them great promises.

So, if your church is among the thriving growing ones, we're glad. But if it seems things are slowing down, if we would listen, we might hear our Heavenly Daddy, say, "This is it. Everybody out into the highways and the hedges, compel them to come in, that My house might be full.

Could it be that all most of our churches need is, "It's time now...all you kids get out and push!"

The War is Over

By Ron Truster

I know people who fought and survived the Vietnam War. They were trained to fight and to survive. Even though that war has been over a long time, they still occasionally have "flashbacks" and begin thinking or behaving like they are in Vietnam again.

For example, one of my brother-in-laws was involved in severe combat in Vietnam. He operated a machine gun on a helicopter that went in and pulled out wounded soldiers. It was his job to protect others while they were being evacuated for medical help.

A couple of years ago, he and some of his family were attacked by some gang members in Denver, Colorado. After the gang members were fought off, leaving my brother-in-law and others with knife wounds, he began yelling to his wounded son-in-law, "Hang on! Medic-Vac is on the way!" He yelled it over and over again but does not remember it. Later, he did remember feeling like he was back in Vietnam.

The parallel to the above example isn't as dramatic but it does have application to some relationships.

Some of us still think and live, now, like we used to. However, it may not be necessary anymore. If you had a less than healthy situation in your past (childhood, marriage, etc.), you learned certain things to make it through. You have learned how to "fight and survive." You had to. There were no other good options.

However, now your life is different. You are in a different situation or relationship. If you are not careful though, you will find yourself, at times, "flashing back" to your old way of thinking and acting. It may not be the best for where you are now. In fact, it may hurt your present relationship.

It's hard to stop or retrain yourself from some things in the past-but the war is over. Those tactics you had to use in the past to survive are no longer needed.

Don't feel bad about what you had to do in the past. Even though the old way may be out-of-place now, it doesn't make it bad for back then. In fact, you are to be honored-You Survived! Congratulations.

A&M Extension Service says drought may have impact on the livestock industry for years

By Edith A. Chenault
Texas A&M

Without rains in August, Texas cattle ranchers could face losses worse than the devastating drought of 1996 - a blow that likely will put some ranchers out of business and leave the rest struggling for years to overcome.

Dr. Ernie Davis, agricultural economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said the drought since May has already cost livestock producers $451 million in losses.

An estimated $126 million of that total involves direct revenue losses, as ranchers have had to liquidate their herds or sell lighter-weight cattle. The other $325 million is the estimated extra feed bill that producers have had to pay just to hang on to the cattle they are keeping.

Dr. Larry Boleman, an Extension beef cattle specialist at Texas A&M, suggests that this year's loss figures could double if it doesn't rain in August.

"There's no doubt, as I talk with ranchers and farmers, that they are in the greatest despair I've ever seen," said Boleman, who heads up the annual Beef Cattle Short Course now under way at Texas A&M University. The short course draws more than 1,200 ranchers to learn more about beef cattle production and this year, how to manage drought.

A doubling of this year's loss figures would exceed the $794 million that the 1996 drought cost Texas livestock producers. Thus far the drought this year has cost farmers and ranchers $1.75 billion in direct losses--very close to the $1.9 billion in losses producers suffered two years ago.

With 5.4 million animals, Texas is the top producer of beef cattle in the nation and is usually the No. 1 hay producer as well. But the state probably will drop to nearly last place in hay production this year because it has made only 10 percent to 15 percent of its usual crop of dryland hay, according to Dr. Don Dorsett, Extension agronomist. In normal years, producers cut 3.5 million to 4 million acres of hay, producing 7.5 million to 9 million tons, he added.

Less hay is available for livestock producers, and the hay that can be found is more expensive. Normally, the price for small 40-50-pound bales would be from $4 to $5. It is $7 per bale now, Dorsett said. Also, Boleman said, the price for large round bales was $75 to $85 per ton; it now $125 to $185 per ton because of added transportation costs.

If the drought continues, Boleman said, ranchers also may face the additional expense of buying or hauling water to keep animals alive. As stock ponds dry up, ranchers face the additional safety concern of cows getting bogged down in surrounding mud.

Shorter bouts of pestilence - things such as grasshoppers or disease - can be dealt with, Boleman said. There is little ranchers can do about the drought except buy more feed just to keep cattle going, he added.

Tom Stewman of Maryneal, a purebred Limousin cattle producer attending this year's short course, said the 1998 drought has gotten worse than anyone thought. Dry, hot weather, bad cattle prices, dismal oil prices and poor row crops in the area have added up to a gloomy picture.

"We're in a depression out in West Texas," he said. "The money lenders are getting real concerned."

If his area does not receive rain soon, Stewman said, "we'll have to sell out and there will be lots of people going broke. There will be lots of real estate on the market."

John Dudley of Comanche, a purebred cattle producer and second vice president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, said ranchers he has talked to are still retaining their optimism. They are hoping it will begin raining again in the fall, just as it did in 1996. "To stay in the cattle business, you have to be an eternal optimist," Dudley said.

Producers are concerned about how they will manage cattle through the fall and winter if they do not get rain. They also are beginning to have problems with stock tanks drying up, he said. The drought of 1998 came too soon, he said.

"The drought of '96 was a killer. Ranchers haven't had time to heal up, get money in the bank and get debts paid off. It's going to really work a hardship for some people."

Davis, the economist, said the drought will impact consumers very little. In the short run, it will increase the number of cattle going to market, depressing prices.

"However, it takes nearly a year of prices being lower (at that level) for the savings to be passed to the consumer," he said. Eventually, because of the drought and market trends in other parts of the country, cattle supplies will be tighter, possibly driving prices up, he added.

One of the biggest impacts to the general public, Dorsett said, is to people who keep one or two horses in the country. With hay prices up, these people will be looking for alternative feed. He cautioned them to remember that all animals need fiber that hay normally would provide. Some substitutes could include cottonseed meal or rice hulls, he said.

Boleman expects it will take at least two or three years for ranchers to recover from the drought. Ranchers have lost potential income from the cows they have culled because they have lost the future reproductive capacity of those cows, decreasing next year's cash flow.

If ranchers stay in business, they eventually will have to buy $600 or $800 replacement cows for cows they sold at perhaps $250 to $350, Boleman said. Even the cattle that producers keep--creating a higher-than-normal feed bill--will be in poorer condition because of the drought and probably will not reproduce as well in the future.

"I speculate it's going to take our very best producers a minimum of 24 months to actually get back into a situation where they are restocked and they have their normal cash flow," he said. "That's exclusive of their losses and expenses in getting back to that point."

For other producers, it may take 30-36 months, he said.

Additionally, many producers have lost years of genetics they have built into their herds.

"That's a much greater loss than a commercial cow selling for $300 and replacing her at $600. These people may have thousands of dollars in genetics. They may feel the cow they are selling at $300 is worth $2,000."

Wayne Hamilton, director of the Center for Grazingland and Ranch Management at Texas A&M University, said he is doubtful that some of the state's rangeland will recover from the drought. About 71 percent of the state is either improved pasture or rangeland.

As of August 1, he said, an estimated 97 percent of the state's rangeland was reported to be in fair to very poor condition, making it difficult or impossible for livestock and wildlife to survive without supplemental feed.

Hamilton cited studies from the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station near Sonora that showed significant declines in rangeland production during the droughts of the 1930s and 1950s. Moreover, rangelands weren't able to reach pre-drought production levels even after it began raining again, he said.

Severe droughts, along with overgrazing, caused permanent changes in a region's vegetation, Hamilton said. The vegetation that moves in is that which can survive more arid, stressful conditions, he said.

Loan deficiency payment triggered

By Shawn Wade

Loan Deficiency Payments (LDP) have been triggered and cotton producers need to remember that in order to qualify they must retain beneficial interest at the time of application.

A producer retains beneficial interest in the commodity if all of the following remain with the producer: control of the commodity; risk of loss; and, title to the commodity.

Producers requesting LDP's are cautioned that they need to make sure they do not inadvertently relinquish their beneficial interest in the crop when entering into an option to purchase contract with a buyer.

Language in an option to purchase contract should specifically state that beneficial interest is retained by the producer (seller) until such time as the buyer exercises the option to purchase.

The contract should also provide the seller maximum flexibility in terms of delivery periods so that they have the opportunity to request the LDP at a date other than the date of ginning if they feel the payment rate is likely to move in a favorable direction.

For cotton that is forward contracted or cotton sold on a cash basis the producer or gin needs to make sure that application for the LDP is made before beneficial interest is lost.

Gins are a key component in this process since they are usually the agent involved when an LDP is requested on the date cotton is ginned.

For more information about LDP's and the steps necessary to retain beneficial interest in the cotton for LDP purposes producers can contact their local Farm Service Agency Office.

Crop insurance committee meets

By Shawn Wade

Members of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. Crop Insurance Committee met on Tuesday, September 29 to discuss the status of the cotton crop insurance program and to identify priority issues regarding changes in the program.

The committee met with Michael Hand, Assistant Administrator of the USDA Risk Management Agency from Washington, D.C. who provided an overview of proposed changes in the program for 1999. Hand also provided the committee with a better understanding of what types of changes would be possible through administrative action and what changes would require changes to the basic provisions that govern the program.

During the meeting the PCG committee agreed to submit comments on the proposed 1999 FCIC rule changes to the effect that coverage for prevented planting and quality adjustment be made optional.

The committee agreed that a better situation would be for a producer to have the ability to make an individual decision about whether they would like to utilize these types of coverage. Additional comments will be formulated over the next week.

Copies of the Federal Register notice containing these rules can be obtained from the Plains Cotton Growers or the National Cotton Council. The comment period ends October 13, 1998.

Farm Bureau proposes drought legislation

Floyd County Farm Bureau President has urged state lawmakers to endorse a seven point plan proposed by the Texas Farm Bureau to help farmers and ranchers weather the current drought.

"With continued dry weather and low commodity prices, producers statewide are in trouble," Bart Greer said. "This plan needs consideration if producers are to stay in business."

Noting that proposed legislation floated by State Sen. Steve Ogden of Bryan to aid farmers and ranchers is helpful, Greer said additional steps must be taken to deal with issues that threaten Texas agriculture.

*Instruct state banking regulators to recognize the impact of the drought and allow banks to extend credit based on the payment history of producers impacted by the 1996 and 1998 droughts.

*Provide additional funding in the new biennium for market development of Texas' major agricultural commodities to help build foreign and domestic markets.

*Provide assistance to continue the boll weevil eradication program to keep Texas competitive with states who have eradicated the boll weevil.

*Support the development of a more accurate test and improved testing procedures for detecting aflatoxin in corn.

*Consider ways to get feed to livestock producers, such as emergency feed programs or some type of assistance in moving and shipping hay.

*Provide additional funding for agricultural research, earmarked for water conservation and development of drought tolerant plants.

*Provide funding for cost share assistance for agricultural conservation measures.

Williams elected alternate delegate to Angus Assoc.

LOCKNEY--Ty T. Williams, of Lockney, has been elected as an alternate delegate to the 115th annual meeting of the American Angus Association, November 16 in Louisville, Kentucky, reported Richard Spader, executive vice president of the American Angus Association.

Williams, a member of the American Angus Association with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri, is one of 310 Angus breeders who have been elected by fellow members to serve as an alternate state representative at the annual meeting. Representing 44 states and Canada, the state delegates will participate in the business meeting and elect a new president, vice president and five directors.

The annual meeting is held in conjunction with the annual convention and banquet, and the Super Roll of Victory National Angus Show, November 15-17, during the North American International Livestock Exposition.

Thornberry to be honored by Texas Ag Council

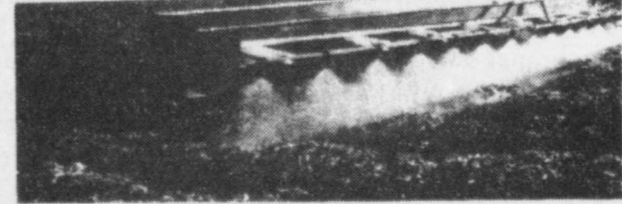

By Shawn Wade

The Texas Agricultural Council has scheduled an event to express agriculture's appreciation to Congressman Mac Thornberry for his efforts in Washington.

The event will take place October 14, 1998 at 10:00 a.m. in the speakers tent at the Texas Farmer-Stockman Show in Lubbock. The speakers tent is located in the Info-Plaza on the southwest corner of the exhibit field.

A number of commodity organizations, including Plains Cotton Growers, will participate in the program. Everyone connected to agriculture is encouraged to attend and show their support for Congressman Thornberry's hard work and dedication to ag issues.

Contest Rules

Any subscriber or purchaser age 7 or older is eligible to enter this contest. Only one entry per week per person.

To play, circle on the official entry form, the numbers of the teams you believe will win this week's games. To indicate a tie, circle the numbers of both teams playing the game. Also write a guess of the combined total points to be scored by the two teams listed in each of the tie-breaker footballs. Circle the team you believe will win. Circle both teams if you think the game will end in a tie.

Only entries on official entry forms brought to a Hesperian-Beacon office in Floydada or Lockney no later than 5:00 p.m. on Friday. No photocopies will be accepted and no mail entries will be considered.

Three cash prizes are awarded each week. In the event of ties (the same number of correct games & equal scores on tie-breakers) prizes will be combined & shared by those tied. The tie-breaker scores will be used only to break a tie on the number of games correct.

Print your name & address plainly on the official entry form & double check your choices before clipping out the entry form & depositing it at a Hesperian-Beacon office before 5:00 p.m. on Friday.

Entries limited to one per person per week. Weekly winners limited to one per household.
