

CHARLES D. JENNINGS

Native Texan Named Webb NCO Of Year

A 27-year-old Texas native has been named Noncommissioned Officer of the Year for the 78th Flying Training Wing at Webb, T. Sgt. Charles D. Jennings, 78th Supply Squadron, was named recently by Colonel Robert G. Liotta, wing commander.

Jennings has lived in Big Spring for more than two years. He and his wife, Charlotte, and their two children live in the Chaparral Trailer Park.

As the outstanding noncommissioned officer of the year the wing, Sgt. Jennings will be considered for the Air Training Command and possibly the Air Force title.

In his nominating letter, Col. Liotta said of Jennings, "Your on-the-job ability and high standard of conduct reflect credit upon you and your organization and will serve as an inspiration to fellow airmen with whom you associate."

The sergeant is a supply systems specialist, and responsible for analyzing new computer products and troubleshooting the system. In addition to his regular duties, Sergeant Jennings has also participated on councils and in the Noncommissioned Officers Association and Club locally. Jennings has been in the Air Force for eight years.

Misses' Event Draws Entries

Four entries have been received for the Tiny-Little-Junior Miss Contest, set for March 23 under sponsorship of the Choir Boosters.

Little Miss contestants will be Karla Lynn Stephens, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Stephens, sponsor Gibson's Discount, and Tymi Kaye Brooks, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brooks, sponsor Hester's Office Supply. Those for the Tiny Miss event are Karen LaVelle Stephens, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Stephens, sponsor Bryant and Casey Auction, and Ginger Ellen Brooks, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill D. Brooks, sponsor Faye's Flowers.

Other entrants are urged to call Mrs. Nelda Colclazer (3-6177) or Mrs. Leon Pettit ((7-7821). Each Tiny, Little or Junior Miss needs a sponsor, business or individual, who pays a $10 entry fee. Deadline is March 7 to get in the program; and March 1 for those who wish to enter ($5) the Miss Photogenic contest.

Mrs. Colclazer has called a meeting Monday 7 p.m. at First Federal Community room to talk with any prospective entrants or parents.

Judges will be from Odessa — Tylene Osborn, co-owner of Columbian Business College, George Deusler of KOSA-TV, and Frank Childs of KOSARadio. Emcees will be Andy Harvey and Bob Noe.

McDonald Goes On ACC Board

ABILENE — Seven men, including two from Abilene, were named to the Abilene Christian College Board of Trustees Monday, according to Willard Paine of Lubbock, president of the Bank of the West and ACC board chairman.

The seven men named to the 45-man governing body of the college are Herbert R. Gibson Jr. of Dallas, Dr. Jack Griggs of San Antonio, J. Oliver Jackson of Austin, William K. (Bill) Johnson of Amarillo, L. Chesley McDonald of Sterling City, Tommy A. Morris of Abilene and Dr. Roy Willingham of Abilene. McDonald is a 1940 graduate and has been a vice president of the alumni association.

Al Valdes Files For Place On Local School Ballot

Al Valdes, veteran Couden employe and resident of Big Spring for 25 years, filed Friday for a place as trustee of the Big Spring Independent School District.

"Big Spring, as has this country, been wonderful to me since I came here in 1949, and I feel a debt of gratitude to offer my service."

Valdes, who came here originally as a player on the Big Spring baseball team, added: "My experience in sports, as in other activities, has taught me the value of teamwork, and that's the spirit in which I ask for the honor of being one of your trustees. I want to help continue maintaining a good school system, balanced and effective. I may differ from time to time with others on the board, but it will be because of my convictions on issues at hand, but with a right spirit. I want to be constructive, not obstructive."

Valdes has been with Couden for 20 years and is a No. 1 operator on the Rexformer. He pledged to attend board meetings whenever humanly possible.

He and his wife, the former Lillian Diaz, have two children, Albert Jr., student at Howard College, and Cathy, a freshman in Big Spring High. They are members of First United Methodist Church where he is on the administrative council. Valdes has been active in many affairs, including coach and league official in PeeWee and Senior Teen Age League, and recently as co-captain of the Big Spring Quarterback Club. Mrs. Valdes serves as a teacher's aide in one of the special programs, drives a school bus, and finds time to instruct in conversational Spanish at Howard College. Jerry Jenkins and Tom Fetters, incumbents, have filed for re-election for two of the three places.

Area Grain Producers Are Cited For Big Production

Several producers in this vicinity have been named to the 1973 Carload Sorghum club by Northrup-King & Company seed breeders. Each of those named produced at least 100 tons of grain from a single K sorghum hybrid.

Among them are: Dr. J. V. Sanders produced enough grain sorghum to fill over three hopper cars last fall. He seeded at five pounds per acre in 40-inch centers to 150 acres; the crop averaged 4,250 pounds per acre.

From the St. Lawrence community were: Fred J. Hoelscher, three types of hybrids, yielding 1,078,850 pounds for a average of 2,179 pounds.

A. C. Hoelscher harvested over 100 tons, seeding four pounds per acre in June and harvesting in September, averaging 3,000 pounds per acre.

David Hoelscher planted seeded three pounds per acre on 40-in. centers in May, harvested 2,503 pounds per acre in August, a total of 375,000 pounds.

Floyd J. Schwartz planted 2 1/2 pounds per acre on 40-in. centers, averaging 5,150 pounds per acre, or a 2,000:1 ratio.

George Schwartz seeded 2.2 pounds per acre in 40-in. centers harvesting 380,000 pounds, an average of 1,700 pounds.

At Lamesa, Edward Richards, despite low rainfall, had 4 1/2 hopper carloads from 750 acres. He seeded in June at three pounds per acre on 40-in. centers, averaged 1,200 pounds per acre.

Stanton reports included Darrell Quaind with 483,000 pounds from seeding four pounds per acre in July on 40-in. centers, averaging 1,207 pounds.

Also Buster Haggard who seeded at six pounds per acre on 40-in. centers to average 7,812 pounds per acre, yielding 500,000 pounds of grain from a section of land.

NO CUB — Smokey the Bear, the symbol of forest fires prevention whose picture has appeared on posters for more than 20 years, walks in his cage at the National Zoo in Washington. Smokey will be 24 years old this spring.

Smokey Eclipsed By Giant Pandas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Smokey the Bear, his brown eyes dimmed by time and the fur around his nose fading to a pale brown, is spending his last years in quiet near-solitude. No longer the celebrity of years past, his popularity has been eclipsed by the more-recent arrivals at Washington's National Zoological Park — China's giant pandas. Smokey, the symbol of forest fire prevention who has been pictured for more than 20 years wearing blue jeans and a forest ranger's hat, will be 24 years old this spring.

RATHER STIFF

He is approaching the average life span of a bear in captivity, 25 years, and an adopted heir, Little Smokey, has been moved into an adjoining cage in preparation for the old bear's eventual demise.

Little Smokey, like his adoptive father, is from New Mexico's Lincoln National Forest.

Smokey has been "arthritic and rather stiff in the hind quarters" for many years, said Zoo Director Theodore H. Reed.

He's been eating well and his coat still shines, but zoo officials say that soon they may have to destroy him "if he reaches a point in which he is in obvious discomfort and pain," according to Billie Hamlet, the zoo's public information officer said.

OVER THE HILL

"There's no sense in beating about the bush... He's way over the hill... It's just one of those things that has to be faced. He's not a cub anymore."

A sign at the front of his cage

Brinson Is Nemed To Succeed Wells

ABILENE — Dr. Harold T. Brinson has been named superintendent of schools at Abilene, succeeding A. E. (Polly) Wells, who is retiring. Wells formally steps down Aug. 31.

Over 50 persons from seven states were interviewed for the position. Brinson has been an assistant superintendent within the Abilene system.

Brinson, 44, received a one-year contract at a salary of $28,089. His pay as an aide to Wells was $19,294. In addition, he will receive $2,500 for traveling expenses.

For eight years, Brinson was a coaching assistant in the Abilene schools. He is a native of Arkansas.

Elect Credit Union Chiefs

Mrs. Doris Hulbregtse was re-elected president of the Big Spring Educators Federal Credit Union at its annual meeting during the past week.

Other officers named were Harold Bentley, vice president; Mrs. Corrine Buckner, secretary; and W. A. Wilson, treasurer. Other board members are Mrs. Elizabeth Schattell, Mrs. Mary Vaughn and Russel McMeans.

Names to the credit committee were L. L. Lewis, Ted Hicks, and Mrs. Geraldine Dietz; to the supervisory committee were Dan Conley, Mrs. Lena Davis, and Wilbur Cunningham.

The meeting drew 225 members with prizes going to Rod Tiller, Nadine Horton, Martha Teicher, Lena Davis, Donna Danford, Don Green, Jean Puckett and Eleanor Slaughter.

The Educators Credit Union last year made 1,375 loans to its members in the amount of $1,603,259 and paid $50,772 in dividends on $1,866,978 in member shares.

VA Counselor To Visit Webb

Bill Blankenship, VA counselor for St. Mary's University in San Antonio, will visit Webb AFB on Tuesday, Feb. 26.

He will be in the education center, building 803 starting at 8:30 a.m. He will be here to confer with anyone interested in attending St. Mary's, especially veterans and servicemen.

Anyone desiring additional information may call the Webb education office by calling 7-2511, extensions 2464 or 2404.

Engineer Title Goes To Mayor

Ernest Angelo Jr., Midland was named "Engineer of the Year" for 1973 at the Permian Basin Chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers annual dinner at the Midland Country Club in Midland.

Speaker for the banquet was John D. (Jack) Jackson of American Airlines' Academy of Flights, who spoke on the theme "What Hath the Wright Brothers Wrought?"

Angelo received his B.S. degree in petroleum engineering from Louisiana State University, joined Gulf Oil Corporation at Crane, and in 1958 was transferred to the company's Midland office. He joined Sohio in 1962 and established an independent petroleum engineering firm in 1964.

Angelo is past president and state director of the Permian Basin Chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers. He has been active in civic organizations in Midland for 16 years and is currently a member of the state Republican executive committee and mayor of Midland.

Library Has Tax Guides

Anyone doing his own or other peoples tax returns may benefit from the new "CCH Federal Tax Guide Reports" now available at the Howard County Library.

Regular weekly revisions are made in the work so that all tax information is kept accurate and current.

Any questions related to federal taxes are answered in very readable form in four completely indexed volumes. As a part of the service, all official tax forms are available to be Xeroxed and used to file reports to the federal government. A weekly news report points up pending legislative and administrative changes in tax regulations.

Other new items in the Howard County Library include one book which bears directly on the tax situation, "The Rape of the Taxpayer," written by Philip M. Stern, attempts to explain why the tax system seems in his view, to favor the rich.

Civil War buffs will be interested in another new addition to the library, "Gettysburg: The Final Fury" by Bruce Catton.

The two best selling books in the country are also now available at the library. Number one is Gore Vidal's "Burr," a historical novel about the roguish, almost traitor, who duelled with Alexander Hamilton. The other is "Come Nineveh, Come Tyre," another great political novel by the author of "Advise and Consent," Allen Drury.

Several patrons have been awaiting the arrival of Lonnie Coleman's bestselling "Beulah Land," a historical novel of the Old South which is now ready to check out, said library officials.

COACHES PICK CAST TODAY

Region V Selections Due

ABILENE — A committee of coaches will gather in Abilene today to decide the cast for the 1974 Region V NJCAA basketball tournament in Brownwood, and the Howard College Hawks are expected to head up the list of teams.

In all, eight schools will be represented at the tournament, set for March 7-9 in Brownwood Coliseum. The teams will be chosen from the Western and Northern conferences, plus independent teams.

This year's tournament is expected to be one of the strongest ever, and the Western Conference should dominate the bracket. At least five WC squads and possibly six are expected to make the trip, with the other spots going to Northern loop teams.

Howard College, which can wrap up the WC title by knocking off South Plains Monday, is the likely No. 1 seed after rolling up a 32-5 mark and a 12-3 league record. The Hawks have been among the top 20 teams in the NJCAA most of the year, ranking 16th in the most recent poll.

Amarillo College and defending champion McLennan Community College of Waco are the other highly-regarded teams, while Clarendon, Odessa College and Western Texas of the WC and Hill Junior College of the Northern league are others who have apparently clinched spots in the meet.

Other teams fighting for a Junior College, Weatherford JC berth include New Mexico JC and Schreiner Institute. Only Frank Phillips, South Plains and New Mexico Military Institute of the Western Conference are out of the picture.

Winner of the Brownwood tournament will advance to the national tournament, set for March 19-23 in Hutchinson, Kan.

Howard College finished third in the region last year, beating Cisco for the honor. The Hawks whipped Hill JC in the opener, then bowed to McLennan in the semifinals.

McLennan returns all but one player from last year's team.

back from Albuquerque, N.M.; Randy Eggemeier, a tackle from El Paso; and Frank Burgo, a defensive end from Brooklyn, N.Y. Poss is a receiver and Brock plays defensive tackle. The six will meet several Owl teammates in El Paso this weekend before going to Ruidoso.

For What It's Worth

Jack Cowan

I learned a lesson Friday, and it wasn't a very easy one. It was one of those kind you learn at someone else's expense. In this particular instance, F. M. White paid a pretty high price for me to continue my education — his life, as a matter of fact.

All my life I've hated eulogies, wakes and laments. I wondered why people couldn't say good things about people BEFORE they died, to their face, when it can do some good. It always seemed so ridiculous for people to tell each other what good things they admired about a person as they stood over his coffin.

Very few of us bother to tell anyone when and why we appreciate them. Unfortunately, it usually takes a tragedy for us to realize it.

F. M. had been sports editor at the Odessa American for about four years, and he was a writer for the O-A a year before that. He died Friday in Medical Center Hospital at the age of 38, just about 19 hours after I had visited with him in his room, totally unaware that his life was in any kind of danger.

He was a big man — too big, probably around 350 pounds — and he was due to undergo surgery known as an "intestinal bypass" to relieve the weight problem. He had told me about it at the Big Spring-Odessa Permian game in October, and I was under the impression it was relatively uncomplicated. It might have been a simple operation, but F. M. never made it to the knife. He died while receiving the anesthetic prior to the operation.

Our chat Thursday, other than the fact that it occurred in such an unlikely place as a hospital, was so unbelievably normal that when I heard the news of his death the next morning I thought it was a joke. It had to be.

We had talked about different things, but mainly football. Any time you talked to F. M. the conversation always had to get around to football, the unshamed love affair in his life. He always joked that any sport played with a round ball should be put on the amusements page.

"I really do like basketball and baseball OK," he told me. "But I like GOOD basketball and baseball, just like I like GOOD football. I can't stand to watch a poor exhibition of any sport."

At Odessa, F. M. covered the best football — Permian Panther football — and he lived and breathed it so much that he became the Black Beasts' biggest fan, as well as their most sincere critic. The Panthers inspired him to write his best column before a state championship game — it dealt with the things that ran through a person's mind at that kind of occasion — and it earned him an award for best column of the year in Texas Associated Press competition.

F. M. really knew his football. He played at Odessa High in the 1950s, and then at the University of Texas. He could write intelligently about the technical aspects of the game — which is more than a lot of us can do — and his stories were often spiced with the kind of jargon normally confined to the coaching ranks.

But what I admired most about F. M. was his unbelievable wit, one that I've hardly seen matched. Every time I got around him I ended up giggling like some kind of nut — that is, unless it was at a football game. That, he would tell you, was serious business.

During my first year as a sports writer for the San Angelo Standard-Times three years ago, I came to look forward to his help every time our paths crossed. I usually followed him around like a little puppy or something, because I figured he knew where he was going and I probably should be there too.

I'm sorry now I never told F. M. that I enjoyed his wit, although I'm sure he could tell by the way I laughed. He probably also knew that I appreciated his help, but I never told him that either. I thank F. M. now for the lesson he taught me. I don't think I'll ever forget it.

Steerettes Notch Second Loop Win

MIDLAND — The Big Spring High School volleyball team pushed its season record to 9-4 and lifted its district mark to 2-0 Friday with a 15-9, 15-13 triumph over Midland High.

Helen Ray shined for the Steerettes in the opener, scoring six points, while Sallie Graves, Cynthia Dennis and Debra Woods battled at the net. Woods led the way in the second game, also serving for six points.

Doing the work up front were Ruth Knight, Lisa Pipes and Debbie Nikolai.

The Steerette Junior Varsity suffered its first setback of the year after eight victories, bowing to Midland's JV by a 17-15, 15-2 margin.

Denise Burchell led the effort with five points, while Sherry Spraberry, and Janice Banks and Jodi Grant helped at the net. In the second game, Julie Hagen and Danise Way each managed a point while Diane Pipkin, Spraberry and Banks were up front.

The Steerettes play their first home district game Tuesday in the BSHS gym when they host powerful Midland L. e. e. Winner of this battle will stand atop the district slate.

Game time is 6:30 p.m. for the JV tilt and 7:30 for the varsity action.

TEEN BASEBALL MEETING SET

The Big Spring Teenage Baseball League will hold an organizational meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Pioneer Natural Gas office at 501 Runnels, according to league president Ray Perkins.

Anyone wanting to coach, manage or sponsor a team is welcome to attend. Perkins said mothers and fathers of prospective players are also asked to attend.

The league is for boys 13-16 years.

College Baptist Cagers In Playoff

STERLING CITY — College Baptist Church will meet Park Heights Baptist of San Angelo today at 2:30 p.m. in the Sterling City High School gym for the regional Royal Ambassador basketball championship.

Winner of the game advances to the state meet, set for March 8-9 in Dallas.

ABC Relays Set Saturday

Big Spring's ABC Relays, cancelled a year ago because of bad weather, tries for a better ending this weekend when seven schools compete for honors in the one-day meet.

The Big Spring Steers will host runners from Abilene High, Canyon, San Angelo, Midland High, Midland Lee and Snyder. The meet, set to get under way at 10 a.m. Saturday, will be held at Memorial Stadium.

Finals will begin at 3 p.m.

Runners will be shooting a some relatively young records, since the meet wasn't held for several years after its beginning and the first of the "recent" meetings was 1972. Twelve records from that year still stand, mainly because last year's event wasn't held.

In addition to the varsity division, there will also be a class for sophomores. Trophies will be presented the championship team and the top individual performer at the end of the meet.

The Big Spring American Business Club is sponsoring the event.

Wedding Performed In Goldsmith Church

MRS. NOBE RONALD COOK

T. Sgt. and Mrs. Nobe Ronald Cook are on a wedding trip to El Paso and Juarez, Mexico following their marriage Saturday in the First Baptist Church at Goldsmith, with the Rev. Donald Forrester officiating.

Sgt. Cook, who is stationed at Webb Air Force Base with the 78th Civil Engineering Squadron, is the son of Mrs. Lucille Hedrick of Lexington, N.C. He is a graduate of Lexington High School.

The bride is the former Janet Ruth Cloud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cloud of Goldsmith. A graduate of Odessa High School, Odessa, she is employed at the Webb AFB Federal Credit Union.

The wedding party stood before an arch of greenery accented with white doves and wedding bells. Branched candelabra were decorated with orchid carnations and bows. Mrs. Jimmy Linton, organist, accompanied the vocalists, Mrs. Mike Buckles and Monroe Kimbrough.

The bride was attired in a princess-silhouette gown of silk organza and Chiny lace. The ruffled lace filled the high, stand-up neckline circled the cuff of the fitted lace sleeves and outlined the lace yoke. Seed pearls traced the lace designs on the yoke and sleeves. Venise lace motifs enhanced the flared skirt which swept into a chapel-length train. A lace tiara held her tiered silk illusion veil, edged in matching lace, and she carried a cascade of white carnations, orchid rosebuds and lace leaves showered with satin ribbons.

ATTENDANTS

Mrs. Troy Greenfield of Perryton attended her sister as matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Leo Cloud, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Tina Greenfield, Perryton; Miss Karren Cloud, Odessa; and Miss Missie Cloud, Odessa. They were attired in floor-length gowns of deep purple velvet, styled with stand-up collar and leg-o-mutton sleeves. Their headpieces were of orchid camellias, and they carried matching nosegays of camellias with lace backings.

The bride's brother, Leo Cloud of Odessa, served as best man, and Troy Greenfield of Perryton was groomsmen. The ushers were Jimmy Banks, Snyder, and LeRoy McGuffey, Midland. Dina Greenfield, Perryton, was flower girl, and the ring bearer was David Cloud, Odessa.

The couple was honored at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church where refreshments were served by Mrs. Rick Zellers and Mrs. Willie James, both of Odessa; Mrs. Donald Forrester, San Angelo; and Mrs. P. A. Ware and Mrs. O. H. Bell, both of Snyder.

The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth and appointed with silver. The centerpiece was a white Bible placed near the wedding bouquets.

Relatives attending from out of town were Mrs. Josephine Evers and Mrs. Bessie Bowen, both of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Way, Colorado City; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Way, Sweetwater; and Mr. and Mrs. Guy McGuffey, Phillips.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by the bridegroom, was held Friday evening in the Steak House at Goldsmith.

After returning from their honeymoon, Sgt. and Mrs. Cook will reside at 1511 Bluebird.

A LOVELIER YOU 'Combination' Skin Problem To Many

By MARY SUE MILLER

A lovely writes: My skin is oily around the nose and chin. But it is flaky dry on the cheeks. When I work on one problem in other gets worse. Is there any way you can treat both problems at the same time?

The Answer: The condition, known as "combination" skin, responds to combination treatment. Each area is treated differently, but within the same time span. Here's how:

1. Wash oily areas three times daily, dry areas only at bedtime. Keep within oily boundaries by using a maneuverable sterile gauze pad. For both areas, liquid or bar soaps with a normal pH tend to normalize the skin's balance. Always rinse well and pat dry with a fresh towel.

2. To a cleansed face at bedtime, apply two treatments: a) Light moisture product to dry areas. b) Liquid formulated for control to oily areas.

3. Weekly washes with cleansing grains benefit nose and chin.

4. Makeup has a part to play, too. Its corrective possibilities should not be missed. Designed for oily skin, medicated foundations are suited for use on the entire face. Applications discourage oil and bacteria, but formulas are not so strong-as to irritate dry areas.

It's a promise, if you take double-trouble, the effort soon remedies your skin problem.

OILY SKIN

An oily skin can be improved. Just send for my leaflet, "Relief For Oily Skin." Advice covers corrective treatments and makeup; such special problems as pimples, blackheads and enlarged pores. For your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 15 cents in coin to cover handling.

Beginner Spanish To Be Free

A free course in Spanish will begin at 7 p.m., Monday at the Knott Community Center, with the instructor being Charles Hensley of the U. S. Border Patrol.

The course, which is open to all interested persons, will be presented in two-hour sessions once a week. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Eugene Long, 353-4532, or Mrs. Jean Roman, 353-4518.

To get to the Knott Community Center, go north on Highway 87 about 14 miles to the Knott cut-off. Turn left, and drive about 3 1/2 miles to the old Knott School gym, where the classes will be conducted.

Add Oregano

Add oregano to tomato sauce about 10 minutes before the sauce has finished cooking. This method gives fullest flavor.

TO MARRY — Mrs. Albert Grantham, 401 E. 10th, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her granddaughter, Leslie Faye Murphy, to Jerry Don Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Allen, 1208 Main. The future bride is the daughter of Mrs. D. Y. Bowlin, Lamesa, and the late Cecil Murphy of Corpus Christi. The wedding is scheduled May 27 in Big Spring.

WILL WED — Mrs. Jo Ann Turner, Garden City, is announcing the engagement and forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Pamela Jane, to Ryan Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walker, Rt. 2, Big Spring. The wedding will be an event of May 31.

Takes Position At Vanderbilt

Miss Kathy Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Shaw, 2709 Rebecca, has accepted a position as therapeutic dietitian and teacher at Vanderbilt University Medical Center Hospital at Nashville, Tenn.

A graduate of Big Spring High School and Texas Tech University, Miss Shaw served her internship at Vanderbilt. For the past 1 1/2 years, she has been employed by John Peter Smith Hospital in Fort Worth.

Zip Your Lips

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My 19-year-old daughter is getting married in the spring. We are planning a large formal wedding which will take place in our synagogue. All the girls in the wedding party are tall, beautiful girls.

The problem is on the groom's side. He wants his 13-year-old brother to be an usher. This brother is very short and looks to be about 11 years old. I am afraid if he's an usher he will ruin the wedding.

I certainly don't want to cause any trouble between our families over this, but don't you think since we are going to a lot of expense to make this wedding perfect in every detail, we are within our rights to suggest they don't have this boy in the wedding party? I just know everyone will laugh because he will look like a midget.

PROBLEM IN BROOKLYN
DEAR ABBY: If you are Jewish, you should know that a 13-year-old male is considered a man, no matter how short he is. Let the groom select his own ushers and keep your lip zipped.

DEAR ABBY: I'm no kid. I'm 36 and a divorcee.

Howie is 40, also divorced. We've been seeing each other regularly for six months and have a beautiful relationship. He is the man I'd like to spend the rest of my life with, but there is one problem. He doesn't mention marriage, and very carefully avoids saying: "I love you." He says: "I care for you, I adore you," and "You're the greatest," but he won't say those three little words. I want to hear most. I say: "I love you," to him, but he still won't say it to me. There must be a reason for this. How do you interpret it?

LOVES HIM
DEAR ABBY: Howie is carefully avoiding the commitment that usually accompanies an admission of "love."

After a man says: "I love you," repeatedly, most women expect to hear: "Will you marry me?"

Howie could be allergic to orange blossoms. Before you invest any more time in the relationship, if that's what you have in mind, ask him.

Webb Chapel Scene Of Nuptial Ceremony

Miss Irene Carrasco and Airman I.C. James Michael Norman were married Friday afternoon in the Webb Air Force Chapel with the Rev. Louis Moeller of Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church officiating. Mrs. Polly Settles was organist.

The candlelight ceremony was performed before an arch of greenery.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Carrasco, 1616 Mesquite, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Norman of Jacksonville, Fla. After returning from a trip to El Paso, Juarez, Mexico, and Albuquerque, N.M., the couple will reside at Chaparral Trailer Courts.

The bride, carrying a bouquet of azares, was attired in a formal gown of silk overlaid with lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with long lace sleeves, a bow at the empire waistline and a single row of tiny pearls edging the rounded neckline. The chapel-length train was attached at the shoulders. Her lace-trimmed veil, extending past the shoulders, was attached to a tiara of azares.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Grace Carrasco, and bridesmaids were another sister, Miss Lydia Carrasco; Miss Luz Bretado; Miss Anna Gonzales, Sgt. (Miss) Emily Ojeda, Houston; and Mrs. Raul Hernandez. They were attired in floor-length dresses styled with pink bodice and white skirt. Bolero-style ruffles trimmed the bodice and u-shaped neckline. Their headpieces were pink bouquets, and they carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Sgt. Danny Diaz of Webb AFB was best man, and the groomsmen were Noel Nieves, Gilbert Munoz, Raul Hernandez, Elisio Gracia, Midland; and Tomas Carrasco, Albuquerque, N.M., brother of the bride.

Attired in all-pink dresses, the cushion maids were Miss Sylvia Ann Hernandez and Miss Linda Leos.

Prior to leaving on the wedding trip, Airman and Mrs. Norman were honored at a reception in the American Legion Hall, where refreshments were served by Mrs. Albert Smithwick, Mrs. Vivian Fuentes of Pecos and Mrs. Eva Yanez.

MRS. JAMES MICHAEL NORMAN

The table was covered with a white silk cloth and centered with a tiered wedding cake.

Relatives attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Guardiola, Albuquerque, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fuentes Jr. and Richard Fuentes, all of San Antonio; A. Q. Carrasco, Mrs. Lupe Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cushman and Estela Carrasco, all of Fort Stockton; Frank Carrasco, Van Horn; and Vivian Fuentes, Mrs. Barbara Fuentes and Mr. and Mrs. Melchor Chavez, all of Pecos.

Smooth Scallops For Neat Look

To bind scallops so they will be smooth and not puckered, sew a bias strip along the scalloped edge, bringing the stitching lines close together to form a point between the scallops. Clip the seam right up to the point, then press the fullness of the bias strip towards the point, and work in as you stitch. Scallops look best when they are finished by hand.

Marcel Marceau, the famous pantomime, will present two performances of "the art of gesture" Feb. 25 and 26 in Austin at the University of Texas Hogg Auditorium.

General admission tickets are available for $3, $4 and $5 at the Cultural Entertainment Committee Texas Union 346, University of Texas, Austin, 78712.

This is Marceau's 10th tour to America from Europe - where he has completed recent record-breaking appearances. He has written children's books, helped revive the ancient performing art of pantomime and will soon appear in a Hollywood film, "Shanks."

Popular demand has forced the Naylor company into a second printing of "A Yankee in German America," an amusing, informative book on Texas German culture by Vera Flach of Comfort. Write to Naylor Company, 1015 Culebra Ave., San Antonio, for information.

The 24th Annual High School Piano Concerto Contest sponsored by Tyler's East Texas Symphony Orchestra will be Saturday, March 2, at Tyler's Caldwell Auditorium.

The entry deadline is Wednesday, Feb. 27 and write the East Texas Symphony, Box 3323, Tyler, 75701. First place winner will receive $100 and a spot as guest soloist with the East Texas Symphony April 23. Joseph Kirshbaum has conducted this orchestra for 24 years.

Second prize is $50 and third $25. Contestants may play the first movement of any standard concerto for piano and orchestra except the works of Chopin and Tchaikovsky.

Tryouts for the Howard College production of "Lion in Winter" by James Goldman will be at the college Monday at 7 p.m. and Tuesday from 3 to 4 p.m. There are five men's and two women's parts to be filled, along with the stage workers needed. Anyone may apply. Call Tracy Cave at the college for more information.

A two-week exhibit of fine art by well-known artists and owned by people in the Big Spring area, is scheduled at Heritage Museum March 11-23. Daryle Hohertz, president, said that there are many outstanding works of art owned locally, and the museum is urging owners to share these treasures briefly with people here.

This calls to mind once more that the early schools exhibit, an outstanding collection by Bill Dawes and his committee, will come down after March 6. After that, the art exhibit will be staged, followed by a painting of the museum's interior. In early April, Lorin McDowell III, chairman, and his committee hope to have the exhibit, "Shine on Big Spring," using Shine Phillips' biography of Big Spring as the theme, ready for viewing. Among members renewing during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Winifred R. Campbell, Irma Deason, Mrs. R. V. Middleton, added to the roll were Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cowden, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Womack, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Duff.

Miss Lipscombe On Deans List

Elizabeth Lipscombe has been named to the Deans List for the fall semester at H. Sophie Newcomb College, Tulane University, New Orleans, La. with a 3.65 average. A junior, majoring in history and theater, she was recently initiated into Phi Alpha Theta, national historical society, and Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society.

She is one of 40 Tulane Choir members selected to go on a choir tour to Hawaii in May. The group is sponsored by the Tulane Alumni Association and the Tulane Admissions office.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Lipscombe, 2404 Allendale

Treat Skin Like Baby

For evening wear sleeves are out, backs are down, fronts are low and legs have returned once again. Now more than ever before, your skin will really be in the fashion limelight.

Sometimes, however, it's not so easy to keep skin its prettiest in frosty months. Skin has a way of reacting to cold, dry air by chapping, flaking and drying out.

There's a solution, however, but it takes a second or two extra and calls for a helping hand from baby.

Every night after you bathe or every morning before you get dressed, douse yourself generously with delicate, baby powder.

The baby powder will soften everywhere it touches, and the subtle fragrance will leave people wondering what delicious new perfume you've discovered.

BRIDE-ELECT - Mr. and Mrs. James Billingsley, Rt. 1, Ackerly, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jessica Jayne, to David Earl Tidwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tidwell, Sand Springs. The couple will be married March 30 in the Ackerly Church of Christ.

Camera-Toting Skier Should Take Care

Skiers planning to take camera equipment to the slopes should load film while in the lodge and, once on the slopes, wear the camera inside a parka next to the body to keep it warm.

These practices are a must because "low temperatures can make camera shutters sluggish, slowing down shutter speeds," said Robert Spangler, consumer affairs director for Honeywell Photographic Products.

Spangler said spare rolls of film should also be carried inside the skier's parka because film tends to dry out in cold weather and may break when the camera's shutter is reset.

"Start out with a fully charged fresh battery, since camera batteries also lose efficiency in low temperatures," Spangler added. "Be sure to clean off battery contacts with a pencil eraser as a precautionary measure, just in case there is any corrosion."

When taking a series of photographs that require fast and slow shutter speeds, Spangler recommends shooting the shorter exposures first, before the shutter speeds slow down as the camera becomes colder. Snow reflects quite a bit of ultraviolet light, he said, causing a great deal of lens flare. It is impossible to cut out all of it, but Spangler recommends a lens hood to cut flare and minimize condensation on the lens.

Be careful to advance and rewind the film slowly to avoid static markings, he added. Don't be concerned when moisture condenses on the camera's cold lens when returning to the lodge. Just be certain to wait until that moisture evaporates before taking more pictures, Spangler added. - (ap)

Dinner Success Includes Beef

Beef stroganoff, in addition to flavor, has another appeal. It may be prepared ahead and heated again when the guests have arrived. Sour cream folds in quickly right before service.

Served over rice or noodles with green beans, Parmesan, citrus salad, rolls, grenadine fruit sundae and coffee, beef stroganoff for a party dinner is a delicious success.

Art Association Sets Membership Show

The Big Spring Art Association discussed rules for the March 2 Membership Show during a meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Robert Barnes, 4211 Hamilton, with Mrs. Corna Stovall as cohostess.

The closed show will be held in First Federal Community Room, with Don Stroud, associate professor of art at South Plains College, Levelland, serving as judge. Stroud will present a lecture on painting techniques and originality at 3 p.m., to which the public is invited. There will be no admission charge for the lecture, however, reservations must be made before March 1 by calling Mrs. Barnes, 263-3332. Paintings will be on display after the judging, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Committee members for the show are Mrs. J. H. Holloway, Mrs. Frank Hartley and Mrs. Bismarck Schaefer.

The annual spring art show, open to the public, will be held the latter part of April; date and location to be announced soon. A committee consisting of Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. W. H. Crenshaw and Mrs. Matt Wagner was appointed to formulate rules and to conduct the show.

The next meeting of the association will be in the home of Mrs. Jerry Harry, 2730 Larry Drive.

Miss Hirt Marries Gary Herbert Jacob

Miss Dinell Elaine Hirt and Gary Herbert Jacob exchanged wedding vows at a nuptial mass Saturday afternoon, in St. Lawrence Catholic Church, with the Rev. Augustina Lucca officiating. The bride's brothers, Wayne Hirt and Kevin Hirt, served as acolytes.

Baskets of daisies and white roses stood on either side of the altar with two candabras behind each one.

A prelude of nuptial music was provided by Miss Laurie Lange, organist. Soloists were Miss Cathy Batla and Miss Linda Batla. The choir, consisting of Miss Roxanne Hirt, Miss Lisa Hirt, Miss Becky Hirt, and Miss Jacque Frerich sang during the mass.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hirt, St. Lawrence, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jacob, Route 2, Winters.

The bride wore a formal-length gown of white organza rising to a high neckline, with beaded embroidered Chantilly lace above a sheer yoke of organza. Pearled lace motifs were scattered over sheer Victorian sleeves, A-line skirt, chapel-length mantilla and headpiece, with beaded lace bordering the mantilla and hemline. She carried a cascade of daisies and white roses.

Miss Jan Hirt, sister of the bride, was maid of honor; bridesmaids were Miss Kay Donna Halfmann, Miss Mary Beth Jacob and Miss Janet Jacob, both of Winters, sisters of the bridegroom; and Miss Kelly Strube of Wall was flower girl. They wore identical floor-length dresses of valvet, each a different color of royal blue, cranberry, moss green, deep purple, or antique gold. The high-waisted dress featured Victorian sleeves and stand-up collar accented with bodice and cuffs covered with white lace. Each carried a single daisy with white picot streamers.

Lynn Halfmann served as best man and groomsmen were Ernie Schwartz, Barry Hirt and Chris Hirt, brothers of the bride. Wendell Halfmann was ring bearer.

Serving as ushers were Darryl Weishuhn, Wall; Mike Batla, Jody Schwartz and Mike Kozelsky, the latter of Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob were honored at a reception in the St. Lawrence Hall, where guests were registered by Miss Linda Kadlacek and Mrs. Steven Kadlacek, both of Wall.

Crystal and silver appointed the serving tables which were covered with white eyelet embroidered lace cloths. Centerpieces of daisies were fixed in swans around a candle holder containing five thin tapers; one on either side of the white tiered wedding cake. The centerpiece on the bridegroom's table was a miniature tractor and plow, with the cake decorated like a terraced field. Serving at the tables were the couple's cousins and friends.

MRS. GARY HERBERT JACOB

Dinner was served, followed by a dance. Among those assisting were Mrs. Lawrence Jost, Mrs. Lester Jansa, Mrs. Leon Halfmann and Mrs. A. W. Schraeder.

Following a wedding trip to Cloudcroft, N.M., the newlyweds will live on Rt. 1, Winters, where he is engaged in farming. He is a 1960 graduate of Winters High School and a 1971 graduate of Texas State Technical Institute, Waco. Mrs. Jacob is a 1973 graduate of Garden City High School.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hirt of Wall and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kadlacek of Eola, the bride's grandparents; and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Michalewicz, Ballinger, and Mrs. Herman Jacobs of Winters, the bridegroom's grandparents.

Sewing Methods Seen By 4-H'ers

Sewing equipment was demonstrated by Phyllis Johnson, president of St. Lawrence 4-H Club, during its February meeting. Junior members took turns learning to use the equipment, under direction of senior members. Prior to the county 4-H dress revue, there will be six demonstrations. Refreshments were served by Miss Johnson and Jan Hirt, secretary.

Forum Has Program On Birds

"Bird Watching as a Hobby", a program by Mrs. Hubert Stipp, was presented at last week's meeting of the Woman's Forum in the home of Mrs. T. H. McCann, 702 Highland, with Mrs. Charles Sweeney as cohostess.

Mrs. Stipp described species of birds in the West Texas area, detailing their habits and telling how they benefit humans. In conclusion, she encouraged members to study birdlife and invited interested persons to join the local group which is endeavoring to organize a bird watching society.

Mrs. Paul Kionka, reported that the Forum has been contributing $20 per month to the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center for the past year. Two members, Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas and Mrs. Clyde Johnston, do volunteer work each week at the Westside Community Center, teaching a craft class. The materials are supplied by the Forum, which also has provided a youth membership to the Lakeview YMCA.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Cecil McDonald, March 15, with Mrs. J. H. Stewart as cohostess.

ABWA Meeting

The Spring City Chapter, American Business Women's Association, will meet at 7 p.m., Tuesday at the Permian Snack Bar for its regular business session.

TELLS PLANS — The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Rebecca Pauline Strickland to Charles David Williams is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert L. Strickland of Forsan. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, 2705 Lynn. The June 1 wedding will be held in the Highland Church of God with the Rev. Arnold Denny of Longview officiating.

Lodge Helps Pay For Insurance

Big Spring Rebekah Lodge 284 met at the IOOF Hall Tuesday evening, with the 21 in attendance reporting 17 visits to the sick. Mrs. Robert Wilson, noble grand, presided. It was reported that the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows shared the cost of insurance for the lodge building. The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday in the lodge hall.

Duplicate Play Held At Club

Six tables were in play for duplicate bridge games held Friday afternoon at Big Spring Country Club, with first place going to Mrs. Harold Hanson and Mrs. Garner McAdams. Other winners were Mrs. Auriel LaFond and Mrs. George Peacock, second; Mrs. Ike Robb and Mrs. Harold Davis, third; and Mrs. Paul Shaffer and Mrs. Jim Bill Little tied for fourth and fifth places with Mrs. Pete Cook and Mrs. Clarence Peters. Players were reminded that the regular monthly luncheon for Ladies Golf Association members and their guests will begin at 12 noon, Friday, at the club, with bridge games to follow.

KITCHEN-TABLE TOUGH.

Our exclusive Tell City Formica®-top tables.

Once upon a time, Formica was for kitchens. Tough enough so you didn't have to worry about dents and scratches, hot pans, forgotten cigarettes. Today's Formica is as tough as ever. But it has acquired a satin-soft polish and wood-grained beauty that make it welcome in the finest dining rooms.

So what's wrong with beauty that lasts? Even under the onslaughts of an active family? Come see our wide selection of tables topped with a Formica-brand plastic developed exclusively for Tell City. You'll agree. They're twin sisters to the solid hard rock maple bases.

Card-and-games table is ideal for tête-à-tête dining.

Miss Cindy Turner Weds Nathan Kirby

Miss Cindy Ruth Turner and Nathan Andrew Kirby, both of Austin, were married at 7:30 p.m., Saturday in the First Baptist Church at Garden City, with the Rev. H. C. McPherson, pastor, officiating for the nuptial service.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jo Ann Turner of Garden City, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ina Jo Kirby, Lometa, and the late Mr. Kirby.

Ryan Walker, pianist, accompanied the vocalists, Bobby Horton, Miss Glenda Ables and Miss Debbie Ables.

Carrying a bouquet of red Sweetheart roses, carnations and babies'-breath, the bride was dressed in a formal gown of bridal satin and Chantilly lace. Venise lace marked the empire waistline and adorned the short, puffed sleeves and chapel-length train. A matching headpiece held her veil of illusion.

Miss Pam Turner attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a princess-style gown in a pink print fabric, styled with long, full sleeves, ruffled bodice and self-fabric tie belt. Her nosegay was of pink feathered carnations tied with pink and burgandy streamers.

The bridegroom's brother, Alan Shelton of Austin, served as best man, and ushers were Joe Wooten and Stuart Wooten. The bride's brother, Jim Turner, lighted the altar tapers, and another brother, Corky Turner, was the ring bearer.

The bride, a graduate of Reagan County High School, Big Lake, attended Angelo State University for one year and graduated from LVN School of Nursing in Midland. She is employed by an Austin hospital. The bridegroom graduated from Lometa High School and attended Tarleton State College and Midland College. He is now associated with Providence Insurance Company in Austin where the couple will reside.

Prior to returning to Austin, the couple was honored with a reception in the church parlor where refreshments were served by Miss Debbie Ables, Miss Glenda Ables, Miss Patty Gill and Mrs. Michael Hoch. The bride's bouquet was used as the centerpiece on a refreshment table covered with a white linen cloth and appointed with crystal and silver.

Among those attending from out of town was the bridegroom's mother.

ENGAGED — The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Paula Elizabeth Anderson to Clifford J. Hobbs is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Anderson of Ackerly. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hobbs, Kingsland, formerly of Big Spring. The couple will be married June 1 in the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. Jim Mosely officiating.

BSP Told Approach

Mrs. Dennis Howard, who presented a program on art Thursday evening for Beta Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, said, "Art can have several facets for everyone. We can be appreciators, collectors or practitioners. Understanding is a part of any approach, and the understanding of art conveys a great deal of understanding of life."

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Bowen, 62-B Chanute, with Mrs. Bill McIntosh presiding. Reports were given on all aspects of the Valentine Ball, and it was announced that chapter members served refreshments at the Veterans Administration Hospital Wednesday.

Plans were made to invite chapter rushees to future meetings.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. John Denton, 188-A Hunter, at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 23. Mrs. Denton will give the program, "To See and To Know".

Piano Teachers Forum Presents Recital Today

Lions Auxiliary Has Luncheon

The Downtown Lions Auxiliary held a luncheon Wednesday in the home of Mrs. D. S. Riley, 505 Hillside, with Mrs. Dan Conley as cohostess. The table was accented with a spring floral arrangement. Mrs. Jim Holmes presided as plans were made to assist with the regional Lions convention slated here in May. The auxiliary members will decorate tables for banquets and will provide a hospitality room for women guests. Guests at the luncheon were members of the newly-formed auxiliary to the Webb-Spring Lions Club, as well as Mrs. Cecil Bridges and Mrs. James Jones, both of Stanton. The next meeting will be a luncheon March 20 at the Spanish Inn.

'Quotable Women'

Here are some quotable quotes from women during the week:

"I'm somewhat spoiled as a photographer, with a decided advantage in trying to photograph important men. They would prefer to see me rather than a normal paparazzi." Actress-turned photojournalist Gina Lollobrigida, commenting on her new assignment to photograph important men for Ladies' Home Journal.

"I'm not standing primarily to win votes. I'm standing to bring the stark warning to the working class about what will happen if the Conservative government is returned to power. They have already laid the grounds for a dictatorship."

Actress Vanessa Redgrave, who is running for Parliament as a candidate for a Trotskyite group that considers the British Communist party a counter-revolutionary mob that has sold out to the capitalists.

"I know she said I wore a dark dress. I have a bright, pretty dress I can wear when Patty comes home. I just hope it'll be tomorrow." Mrs. Randolph A. Hearst, referring to comments in her daughter's last taped message.

"I thought the movie was ready and I waited a long time for this. It's the finest thing I have ever done." Actress Connie Stevens, speaking about her new

Club Plans Trip To San Angelo

The Mary Jane Club of Coahoma will meet at 9 a.m., March 21 at the home of Mrs. Marshall Day to travel to San Angelo for a day of sight-seeing and shopping. The plans were made during a Thursday meeting in the home of Mrs. Donald Hale. At that time, revisions were made in the club's constitution. The treasurer reported a balance of $79. The next meeting will be at 9:30 a.m., March 7, in the home of Mrs. Donald McKinney. It will be a guest day, and a book review will be presented by Mrs. Duane Clawson.

Bride-Elect, Honored At Shower

Miss Kathy Newcomer, bride-elect of Euel Blocker of Stanton, was honored with a bridal shower Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Bill Hambrick, Ackerly. The honoree, attired in a brown print dress, received guests with her mother, Mrs. Earl Newcomer; and her fiancée's mother, Mrs. Earl Blocker of Stanton. They were presented corsages of white carnations accented with lime green ribbon. The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth edged in lace and centered with a green floral arrangement. Serving were Mrs.

Teri Nichols and Mrs. Janette Brown. Guests were registered by the honoree's sister, Miss Kay Newcomer. The table was adorned with two lime green carnations with matching ribbons. Hostesses with Mrs. Hambrick were Mrs. Bill Wallace, Mrs. Curtis White, Mrs. Leon Bodine, Mrs. Jake Harry, Mrs. Joe Gillespie, Mrs. Covie Williams, Mrs. Jerry Hall, Mrs. Jack Hopper, Mrs. Joe Mac Gaskins, Mrs. Larry Shaw, Mrs. Bill Etchison, Mrs. Porter Motley, Mrs. Edgar Herrin, Mrs. Auda Vee Graham, Mrs. John McGregor, Mrs. Howard Armstrong, Mrs. Robert Nichols, Mrs. J. D. McGregor, Mrs. John Martin and Mrs. J. E. Peugh. Among guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. G. Newcomer; her great-aunt, Mrs. Simp McElroy, both of Big Spring; and the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. T. D. Barnhill, of Stanton.

Chinese Flavor

Chinese recipes sometimes call for star anise seed; but if this is not on hand try adding regular whole anise seed.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Here's one I'd like to share with homemakers who find their family growing smaller.

Rather than cutting our favorite cake or bun recipe in half, which often does not give desired results, we go ahead and bake the same as usual, and frost it when cool.

We then cut the cake into desired servings, and place them in the freezer at once, without wrapping.

The next morning, I cut enough pieces of foil to wrap each piece individually. With a wide spatula, I lift the frozen pieces out and wrap them. Once frozen they can be stacked, so they take up less room in the freezer.

Before mealtime, or for company, we remove the number of servings we need from the freezer. (Unwrap at once, so the icing does not stick to the foil.) This eliminates stale or wasted baked goods at our house, now that there aren't enough of us at home to eat a whole pan of baked goodies in one day. Mrs. E. L. Hyatt

Hi! Heloise:

I do the heavy housework for my wife because she is a heart patient and should not do anything to make her blood pressure go up.

I am 6 feet 2 and the short handles on mops, brooms, etc. make me bend over too far.

Could you get the manufacturers to make some handles longer for tall guys who love their wives? Thanks. Hartman Scott

Dear Heloise:

Makeshift spatter shields for the frying pan can be made from aluminum pie plate with a small nail or ice pick.

If you want the steam to escape, pierce from the inside out. Or, if you want the moisture to drip back onto the food, pierce from the outside in. Mrs. H. L. Davies

Dear Heloise:

This is not the most pleasant subject in the world, but it is so important, especially where children are concerned, I have been meaning to send in this helper for years:

When children have the "up-chucks," take a large grocery sack, and fold down a couple of inches at the top to form sort of an outside cuff.

Crumple up several single sheets of newspapers enough to fill the bag about one-third full. Punch down the center to form a little well, and have the sick one keep it close at hand at all times.

This really works. The newspapers are absorbent, and the whole mess can be disposed of most neatly. This is one of the very few things I burn.

Even a tiny toddler can be taught to carry around his "oopsie bag" and to use it. It's especially helpful to put next to the bed at night.

We have eight children, and I couldn't count far enough to record the number of mop-ups I've been spared! Helen Campbell

This column is written for you... the housewife and homemaker. If you have a hint or a problem write to Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald. Because of the tremendous volume of mail, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will, however, answer your questions in her column whenever possible.

SETS DATE — Mr. and Mrs. David L. Newton, South Rt., Coahoma, are announcing the engagement and future marriage of their daughter, Carol, to James H. Ditmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard H. Ditmore, 2807 Lawrence. Vows will be exchanged May 24 in Prairie View Baptist Church.

Named Delegate For Gold Stars

The American Gold Star Mothers named Mrs. Huey Rogers as delegate to the Department of Texas convention in Corpus Christi April 8-10 during a meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. Herbert Smith, 901 Scurry.

Mrs. S. R. Nobles, hospital chairman, reported that she and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moody served refreshments at the Veterans Administration Hospital Wednesday.

Attending the meeting was one guest, Mrs. E. L. Perkins, who made application for membership.

The next meeting will be at 9 a.m., March 21 in the home of Mrs. Felton Smith, 1409 Runnels.

Sugary Fondant Covers Candy

"Bonbon" is French superlative for "good good" candy. The name may seem to cover other types of small sweet goodies but traditionally bonbons are made of variously flavored sugar fondant.

Centers are molded sometimes with nuts or fruit then dipped in melted fondant to coat. As they are placed to dry a quick twirl makes the characteristic twist on the top of bonbons.

Cookie Glaze

Delicious glaze for cookies: Heat 1/4 cup maple-flavored syrup with 2 tablespoons of butter until the butter has melted; remove from heat and gradually blend in 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar.

Female's Personality Revealed By Wigs

Results of the first motivational research on women's wig buying commissioned by one of the country's wig manufacturers, reveals new clues to the female personality. The Rubicon report found that wearing a wig allows a woman to fantasize that she is a different person than before, that married men like to see their wives in a variety of wigs — like "a different wife every night," — that women who wear wigs in colors and styles very different from their own hair tend to be more confident of their attractiveness, that her children's disapproval sometimes deters a woman from buying a wig, and that a woman is more apt to buy a wig if she feels her sexual relationship with a man is secure.

According to the report by Motivational Programmers, Inc., which surveyed women between 18 and 40 in the New York metropolitan area, in Los Angeles, and Chicago, "Some women feel like a wholly different person wearing a wig."

It reports that a significant percentage of women who wear blonde or red wigs "feel and act sillier, or, according to one young girl, "flighty — spaced out." Other women report that they wear wigs to parties to feel "kicky" and "playful."

Natural Berries For Good Relish

This should appeal to natural-food fans!

HONEY CRANBERRY RELISH

1 lb. (about) four cups fresh cranberries
1 medium navel orange, unpeeled and quartered
1/2 cup raisins
3/4 cup honey
1 1/2 tps. ground ginger
Wash and dry cranberries and orange; put through food chopper using fine blade. Mix with remaining ingredients. Cover tightly and refrigerate; allow flavors to blend at least overnight before serving. Will keep, chilled, for weeks. Makes 3 1/3 cups.

Fennel Flavor

Apple sauce, flavored with fennel seed, is interesting to serve with roast chicken.

IS THE CHURCH PART OF YOUR LIFE?

Not much of a world—when you consider all its human imperfections. Yet it's the world we are giving our children—the world in which they must grow up and find their destiny. And we keep hoping that theirs will be a finer generation—one able to improve this world.

What our children eventually do with the world depends upon our spiritual resources and how we share these truths and ideals with them. By encouraging faith and showing them right from wrong, our children can become the finest generation, destined to change the world—for the better.

Is there a church in your life? There should be!

LAWRENCE WELK

Welk, Son Of Farmer, Is Awaited In Abilene

ABILENE — Lawrence Welk, who has become a tradition in his own life-time, was born in a sod farmhouse in North Dakota. While a youngster, he was fascinated with the old-fashioned button accordion his father had brought from the old country. Lawrence fingered the shining instrument as his dad played, and gradually learned to play it himself. As he grew older, he studied every evening after chores, his father accompanying him on the family pump-organ. Local celebrations soon found Lawrence and his accordion in demand. When a mail-order accordion has dad bought broke down, he pleaded with his father to buy him a strong instrument. Welk pledged to remain a farmer until his 21st birthday and pay his father all his earnings to pay for the accordion. Striking out on his own after his 21st birthday to Aberdeen, S.D. he joined one band after another. Later he formed his first band, playing dances and community celebrations throughout the entire nation. The group gradually developed a "style." A bouncing aftereffect which made toes tap "a want-to-dance-beat," he called it. Today, its bubbling quality is known as Champagne Music. Welk and his Champagne

Decision Due Soon On Bono Video Show

NEW YORK (AP) — Today is Miscellany Day. First up: The question of whether CBS' top-rated "Sonny and Cher Comedy Hour" will survive the marital split of its two stars this week.

Sonny Bono, 37, said through a spokesman he's seeking a legal separation from Cher, 27, the singing partner he married in October 1964. He cited irreconcilable differences as the reason.

According to CBS-TV's programming chief, Fred Silverman, the couple only has one more show to tape for the current season. But he said he didn't know yet if it'll be back next fall.

He added that a decision will have to be made by the end of March because "we're going to set our programming schedule" for the 1974-75 season in the week beginning March 18.

"The Sonny and Cher" show, now in its third season, first aired in August 1971 as a summer replacement series on CBS-TV.

Paul Duke, an NBC News correspondent in Washington for 10 years before taking the plunge into public TV three weeks ago, says the transition is going well, generally speaking.

and Christi Miller. Seated on the ramp are Chris Davis, Barbara Dirks, Pam Smith, Jane Stoker and Janis Gregg. They're waiting for Nellie Forbush to "wash that man right outa her hair." Performances are scheduled Feb. 28, March 1 and March 2. Tickets are available through the school choir hall.

'I Love' Scribe Strickly C & W

By MARY CAMPBELL AP Newsfeatures Writer

If it sounds country, it's country. Tom T. Hall grew up in Olive Hill, Ky., listening to blue-grass music. That, he explains, "is a very basic, clean kind of music. You have to know what you're doing to play it. It's five instruments and they are all acoustic and that is it."

But country music, which he writes, picks guitar to and sings, is a broader category and Hall likes Kris Kristofferson's definition that if it sounds country, it's country. "I've never really been into fiddle and steel guitar music that much. I've always used a piano and acoustic guitar, kind of a mellow country instead of hard country, I guess."

A major magazine last year called Hall "easily Nashville's most talked-about songwriter." He wrote "Harper Valley PTA" and there haven't been many weeks in the last nine years when at least one of his songs wasn't on the country best-selling chart.

"I LOVE" This year one he wrote and sings, "I Love," went to No. 19 on the pop chart Feb. 16. Last week it was No. 1 on the country chart. If it does as expected, it'll be Hall's first million seller as a performer. But at first he wanted only to be a writer. He went to Roanoke College in Virginia on the G. Bill, hoping to be a journalist or novelist. He says, "Before it was in style I was going around in old Army clothes because I didn't have any money. Those clothes last a long time and the Army made some of the greatest combat boots. I'd really have been a hit on campus today."

"I was making some money as a songwriter and my publisher called and told me I could afford to move to Nashville because he could put me on a draw — an advance on royalties. Being a bachelor, I could go where I wanted to, so I went. I arrived in Nashville Jan. 1, 1964. I was hoping someday somebody would ask me when I came to Nashville, so I remembered the date. I came with optimism, as you can see."

"HARPER VALLEY" The "Harper Valley PTA" record was made in 1969 and Hall cut his own first records as few months before that. "I was offered several recording deals but I desperately wanted to be a writer of some kind. I had a real obsession about it. After I'd established myself pretty well as a songwriter, I had a lot of good times I couldn't get recorded. Jerry Kennedy of Mercury asked me to record them, so I did. How to succeed without really trying, I guess." Hall now has nine LPs, all on Mercury.

About "Harper Valley PTA," he says: "That was an incident that happened when I was a kid. A lady had read off the PTA for spanking her child. She pointed out several of their indiscretions. I was always amazed she would confront the town's aristocracy with their sins. It always impressed me. The story was with me a long time, since I was a kid. I wrote the song and changed the story a little bit. JEANNIE LAUNCHED "I had the song a year and a half before anybody would record it. They'd say, 'That's a great song and really clever but it's too far out in left field for me.' Jeannie C. Riley was a part-time secretary in Nashville, making $35 a week. I read later, and there was a disc jockey trying to help her get into the music business. He took her to Shelby Singleton, who liked her but said he didn't

Runner Enters Pageant

Miss Deborah Hurrington, 18, who runs track at Big Spring High School, is in the race for the Jaycees' Miss Diamondback. Deborah runs the 60- and 100-yard dashes and in the 440-yard relay. She was one of four girls nominated for basketball queen.

"She recorded on a Friday night and by Tuesday it was a monster record. They mastered it that night and air-mailed them to several key radio stations. They had a hit record before there were any for sale: the plant was still trying to get the parts together to start pressing."

TOP SELLER "I've been told it's the biggest selling single record of all time by one artist in one year. I've heard estimates of five or six or seven million. I met one old fellow in West Virginia who bought it and he didn't even have a record player. He just wanted a copy of it. I think that explains the phenomenon of the record business. People can buy a little recorder and hear a song on the radio and record it, but they don't. They want the record: they want to get involved. It keeps everybody in the record business alive."

Playboy To Print Novel By Agnew

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Vice President Spiro T. Agnew's literary agent says a novel now being written by Agnew will be published by Playboy Press.

Scott Meredith, the agent, said publication is tentatively set for early 1975. Meredith said Agnew would be paid more than $50,000 but less than $250,000 for the novel, said to be a story of international political intrigue involving a vice president of the United States.

Playboy Press is the book division of the Chicago-based Playboy magazine publishing empire.

LOSE 10-20-30 POUNDS! Easy To Lose Lbs. Fast With New Vitamin 'E' Diet

HOLLYWOOD (Special) — New scientific discoveries have produced a Vitamin E diet that quickly works wonders on overweight people, and reportedly is gaining great popularity across the country with growing reports of easy weight loss "while still eating almost as much as you want."

Those who follow the simple Vitamin E diet report an average loss of at least a pound a day and even more without exercise or starvation. Nutritionists' files are bulging with happy testimonials from formerly overweight people who are now trim and slim again. Best of all, you can still eat almost as much as you want of the "forbidden" foods" like steak, chicken, fish, sauces, gravies, bacon & eggs and still lose weight.

Chevable (candy-like) vitamin E tablets, as used in the diet plan, contain a new scientific combination of ingredients that quickly curbs and controls the appetite, while also giving the wonderful benefits of Vitamin E which is so essential to good health.

The use of the new Vitamin E Diet tablets and foods prescribed in the plan will, through natural action, act to help your body use up excess fat. According to recent clinical test, a person who is deficient in Vitamin E or Protein "will double the speed of fat utilization" with the use of Vitamin E.

E-DIET AVAILABLE To get a copy of this highly successful diet and E Tablets, send $5.00 for 10 day supply (or $7.00 for 30 day supply) to: Vita-E Diet, Dept. No. VI, 11526 Burbank Blvd., North Hollywood, Calif. 91601 (Unconditional money-back guarantee if not satisfied.)

Outer Space Affected Ancient Civilizations

"Chariots of the Gods?", the motion picture adaptation of the international best-seller, will open a limited engagement at the Ritz theatre Wednesday. A winner at the 1973 Atlanta Film Festival, the film explores von Daeniken's controversial theory that many ancient civilizations developed as the result of advanced knowledge brought to the earth by extraterrestrial visitors.

Besides such physical evidence, von Daeniken cites Biblical passages and other ancient writings to support his theory.

The book and film have produced great curiosity and interest around the world. A number of noted scientists, including Dr. Herman Oberth father of the rocket, have substantiated part of von Daeniken's ideas.

While many of the "establishment" archeologists tend to ridicule von Daeniken, the iconoclastic author predicts that resistance in the scientific community will lessen as new knowledge is developed about the history of man — and the sources of his knowledge.

Pentagon Probably Will Delay Shutdowns At Military Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon probably will delay any major new shutdowns and reductions at military bases until at least late this year.

This change apparently stems from growing concern about a possible economic recession and may have been suggested, if not ordered, by top Nixon administration officials.

TEA LEAVES

"We read the tea leaves," said one Pentagon source in acknowledging the delay.

But he stressed "there are going to be some reductions" in the base structure because of a number of reorganizations, headquarter staff cutbacks, and other streamlining actions being taken by the Armed Services.

Putting off major base closings until late in the year would give Pentagon officials time to see how Congress treats the record $85.3 billion Defense budget. Relatively light cuts in that budget might ease the urgency for stringent economies.

Furthermore, officials are hopeful that the economy will regain its health and that jobs will become more plentiful by next fall. If that happens, base closings might be less difficult politically, particularly if they come after the November congressional elections.

A new round of base actions has been in the works since last summer when the Pentagon acknowledged that it expected "to produce a significant base closure package within the foreseeable future." At that time, the Pentagon indicated it would act this winter or spring.

As recently as a month ago, defense officials still were actively considering base closings and reductions to be announced within the first few months of 1974 and were projecting cost savings of about $500 million a year.

Then, early this week, Budget Director Roy L. Ash told the House Appropriations Committee that the administration planned no new base closings in 1974.

Foxx Resting

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Comedian Redd Foxx is resting at his home from a nervous condition, and there is no indication when he will return to NBC's "Sanford and Son."

Foxx returned to his home last Saturday after a two-week rest in an undisclosed foreign country, his attorney, Jim Tolbert, said.

Sex Photos In Jail Cell

HOUSTON (AP) — A state judge says he has written a San Francisco lawyer who has photos taken in a jail cell of one of the defendants in the Houston mass murders.

District Court Judge William Hatten said he sent the letter at the request of the district attorney's office here.

John Holmes, an assistant district attorney, said it was learned that the pictures of Elmer Wayne Henley, 17, were taken during an investigation that led to the firing of jail guard Robert Weidner and his indictment on charges of committing sodomy with a prisoner.

Weidner smuggled a photographer, who has not been identified, into the jail and assisted him in taking the pictures, Holmes said.

Holmes said Kennedy got the pictures from a client who received them by mail in California from either the photographer or Weidner.

Holmes said he had not seen the pictures but apparently Henley cooperated. Weidner could not be reached for comment.

Holmes said Kennedy confirmed by telephone that he had both the negatives and prints but would not return them without a legal order.

The assistant district attorney said no criminal laws were violated by the picture-taking episode.

'Non-Political Firefighter' Selected By Houston Mayor

HOUSTON (AP) — Mayor Fred Hofheinz has picked a former Houston fire chief to come out of retirement and head the department again.

W.O. Hunter, 62, who retired from the department in 1972 to go into farming near Waco, was selected by Hofheinz to come back to the $33,000 a year post.

Hunter spent 29 years in the department and was fire chief from 1964 to 1968.

Hofheinz called Hunter a "totally non-political firefighter" and said he had to "lean heavily" on the former chief to persuade him to return.

"He will be instructed by me to operate the Houston Fire Department independently of political patronage and cronyism," Hofheinz said. "He is the one man who can do this job."

Hunter joined the department in 1942 as a pipe and ladderman trainee. He worked his way up to deputy chief and then assistant chief in the administration of former Mayor Roy Hofheinz, father of the present mayor.

Former Mayor Louie Welch named Hunter chief in 1964. However, Welch replaced Hunter with C.R. Cook in 1968. Cook, now an assistant chief, was indicted on charges of conspiracy to commit theft but was acquitted of that charge last Oct. 4 in Fort Worth. He also was charged with conspiracy to solicit a bribe in connection with alleged kickbacks on fire truck purchases. His trial on that charge has been transferred to Wichita Falls.

Hofheinz said he would present Hunter's appointment to the city council for approval in two weeks.

Hunter's appointment met with approval from acting Fire Chief Fred Hooker and Joe Perino, president of the Houston Professional Firefighter's Association.

Hooker said he had been considering retiring but would stay on now as assistant chief.

Perino, who had been considered one of the top candidates for the chief's job, pledged his full support to Hunter.
