

Two Brothers Survive Crash, Four Killed

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Doctors at Aspen Valley Hospital worked late into Monday night in an effort to save the life of one of two young brothers who survived the crash of a twin-engine propeller plane here.

Hospital officials in Aspen said Mark Godfrey, about 11, was undergoing surgery for multiple fractures and possible internal injuries. His condition was listed as critical.

Mark and his brother Andrew, 8, were the only survivors of a crash which killed their parents, William G. Godfrey, 41, of Houston and his wife Dineen, along with another brother and a sister.

Godfrey was executive vice president of the Capital National Bank of Houston and was a brother-in-law of Sen. Lowell Weicker, R-Conn.

BACK TO JAIL — Mrs. William A. H. Williams sits in the car of a U.S. marshal Monday after she and her husband were continued held under bond on charges against them in the abduction of Atlanta newspaper editor Reg Murphy. A U.S. magistrate reduced the bond from $500,000 to $100,000 for the 26-year-old Mrs. Williams. Her husband is held under $1 million bond. Both were bound over to a federal grand jury in Atlanta.

FIVE RESCUED Flying Filling Station Blast Kills Airman

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — One man was killed and another was missing and presumed dead today in the crash and explosion of an Air Force KC135 tanker known as a flying filling station, officials said.

Five other men aboard the plane were rescued and were in satisfactory condition, they said.

The plane had just taken off from McConnell Air Force Base on what was described as a regular mission in support of the Tactical Air Command, when it crashed, 2,000 feet beyond the end of the runway. The 17,000 gallons of jet diesel fuel aboard exploded, in a ball of fire.

The identities of the dead and missing men were not immediately disclosed.

Two Incumbents Are In Race

STANTON — Two incumbents have filed for re-election to the board of trustees for the Stanton Independent School District.

They are Delbert Dickenskin and Rufus Tom, whose places 6 and 7 expire in April.

Trustees set April 6 as the date of the election at the Junior High School, with James Jones, the election judge.

Deadline for filing is March 6.

Meeting Could Be Hive Of Activity

The bees are demanding equal time at City Hall. Word is circulating that at least one bee owner has made tentative plans to bring his bees to the meeting before the final reading of the ordinance banning bees from the city.

Purpose of the demonstration will be to show how safe the bees really are. Nobody was sure whether the council plan to wear hats and nets to keep from having a bee in their bonnet.

Dog's Appetite Is Costly To Resident

In recent weeks, several citizens have expressed anger at local dogs, including one man this week who reported that a stray dog had bitten his little girl.

But at least one resident has a different reason to claim that the world is going to the dogs.

A citizen who called city police Monday to tell them that his income tax refund check had been stolen later called back to tell the lawmen that his dog had eaten his check.

The two boys, who spent two nights in freezing weather, were rescued from the wreckage of the light plane Monday. The crash occurred Saturday in timbered mountain country. Skiers at a nearby resort reported seeing the craft disappear in bad weather.

A snowstorm moved through the area Sunday, keeping search planes grounded.

Also killed in the crash were the pilot, Bernard Gallaher of Houston; Ellen Godfrey, 15, and William Jr., about 14.

Gallaher was an official of Federal Capital Corp., a parent company of Capital National.

Searchers spotted the wrecked plane about 10:30 a.m. Monday after they saw Andrew, who was waving. A Civil Air Patrol helicopter dropped to the site and found Mark pinned inside the plane.

The boys were flown to the hospital, where Andrew was reported in satisfactory condition Monday night. He suffered primarily from frostbite.

Kissinger Says Arabs Slated To End Embargo

WASHINGTON (AP) — Complete removal of the oil embargo against the United States with supplies at pre-October war levels is the optimistic expectation of authoritative sources in advance of next Sunday's meeting of Arab oil ministers in Libya.

Prices are likely to drop to about $7 a barrel from the current $11.65, it was learned as Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger returned from an eight-day trip to the Middle East and Europe.

Restoration of production, coupled with conservation measures taken during the recent squeeze, will bring about a plentiful supply of oil for Americans, according to estimates.

At the same time, U.S. officials are concerned that the political crisis in Israel could set back Kissinger's scheme for having Israel and Syria begin to negotiate through him in Washington a disengagement in the Golan Heights.

Israeli diplomatic and military representatives were due in about two weeks, to be followed within the next two weeks by a similar Syrian mission. But now, officials say, the plan could be derailed if Prime Minister Golda Meir's Labor party has to join forces with the opposition likely to form a government.

BIG DEAL

Meanwhile, the president of the Balex Oil and Gas Corp. of Malakoff, Tex., said that his firm had a deal for 30 million barrels of Saudi Arabian oil. W. Page Ballard said the oil would be shipped each month for five years to the United States.

Ballard said he contracted for the oil through a bank in Malaysia and had no direct dealings with Saudi Arabia.

The price of oil before the Arab-Israeli war was about $3.01 a barrel. Since then, production has been cut about 25 per cent and an embargo imposed against the United States and the Netherlands for their support and friendship for the Jewish state.

U.S. experts consider $7-a-barrel somewhat high, but they also are concerned that a lower price could discourage development of alternative sources of energy. Kissinger and his aides will say nothing publicly about the Tripoli meeting.

But Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Algeria and other Arab states are not understood to be united in wanting to have the embargo removed and full production resumed. Until now, there have been reports of a phased step-up of production once the embargo is lifted.

Grover Gets Out Of Race For Governor

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Former Sen. Henry Grover, who lost to Gov. Dolph Briscoe by less than 100,000 votes in 1972, has dropped out of this year's race.

OWED $400,000

Grover, 46, said Monday that the Republican party leadership in Texas has decided not to make any effort to win the gubernatorial race.

He identified the leaders as Anne Armstrong, special adviser to President Nixon, and Sen. John Tower.

Grover said he owes "slightly more than $400,000" in campaign expenses and that politics had personally cost him $200,000 to $250,000.

He will return to his job as fund raiser for Houston Baptist College, he said.

Grover refused to say which of the GOP candidates for governor he would support, Jim Granbury of Lubbock or Odell McBrayer of Fort Worth.

THERE'S GOT TO BE A WAY — Helen Nobles, an employe at Gasow Veterinary Hospital in Birmingham, Mich., struggles to boost Lord Wellington, a 90-pound sheepdog, onto a table for grooming. Seven Die In Sonora Prison Riots HERMOSILLO, Mexico (AP) — Seven prisoners died in separate disturbances in two Sonora state prisons Monday, authorities said.

Six inmates died from inhaling smoke here after they set fire to their mattresses and bedclothes in a five-hour riot. The prisoners were protesting alleged denial of visiting privileges for some, bad food and poor medical attention and demanding to be moved to a new prison.

At Nogales, 170 miles north on the Arizona border, one prisoner was killed and six other persons, five of them convicts, injured in a shootout during an escape.

Nogales Police Chief Rafael Torres said 21 of the 35 prisoners who escaped had been recaptured by midnight Monday.

The Hermosillo inmates started fires about 3 p.m. on the second floor of the three-floor building and refused to let firemen onto the floor. At 8 p.m. the state ordered army troops to start moving the convicts to a new prison.

Seven other prisoners became ill from smoke inhalation and an eighth suffered a minor bullet wound when he tried to scale a wall and escape, authorities said.

The prison where the inmates rioted dates back to the 19th century, authorities said. Its original capacity was 250 prisoners. At the time of the move Monday it housed 718, authorities said.

Authorities said the prisoners had not been moved to the new installation at a faster pace because each was being given a psychiatric test first to determine his educational level and how dangerous he was.

Prison director Antonio Murrieta Ruiz denied that any prisoners were not allowed visitors.

Dr. K Reported Target In Assassination Plot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry A. Kissinger escaped an apparent assassination attempt in Syria because his talks with President Hafez Assad ran late and kept him from sightseeing at a famous mosque, U.S. officials said.

In Damascus, a Syrian government source said the report was "unfounded" and "seems designed to upset the diplomatic process that has been begun between the United States and Syria."

Like the U.S. officials responsible for the report, the Syrian source refused to be quoted by name.

Despite the Syrian denial, U.S. officials stood by their account.

Kissinger had a visit to the Omayyad Mosque on his schedule last Wednesday in Damascus, but he was up until almost 4 a.m. conferring with Assad about a possible disengagement with Israel and then returned to see the Syrian leader after a few hours' sleep.

As a result, the officials said, Kissinger canceled the stop at the eighth-century shrine near the heart of a crowded market area. Instead, he drove to the airport and flew to keep an appointment with Israeli leaders in Jerusalem.

But he planned to visit the Mosque Saturday morning when he returned to Syria with Israel's proposals.

PLAYS IT SAFE

Kissinger was flying back to Damascus Friday night when word first came to him about the plot, the officials said. He decided to play it safe and avoid the shrine on his second visit.

Palestinian terrorists apparently were behind the reported attempt to slay the secretary. Kissinger and his aides declined to supply details.

It was not clear whether the plot was detected by the Syrians or by U.S. intelligence.

The secretary has made four tours of the Middle East since last fall, each time under tight security conditions.

Observers in Damascus said Kissinger's security men may have become nervous about the presence of young men in civilian clothes carrying submachine guns who were stationed on the roofs of buildings near the Omayyad Mosque.

The World At-A-Glance

THETFORD, VI. (AP) — Thetford residents have voted at their annual town meeting to urge the House of Representatives to initiate impeachment proceedings against President Nixon. With only 15 minutes of discussion, the townspeople voted 160 to 130 on Monday night to ask the House to start impeachment proceedings against Nixon "so that he can answer charges in trial before the U.S. Senate." It was believed to be the first town referendum in America to consider formally the possible impeachment of the President.

HILLSBOROUGH, Calif. (AP) — A massive food distribution program demanded by the long-silent kidnapers of Patricia Hearst is set to resume today. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph A. Hearst had hoped a weekend televised appeal to the abductors would result in a response. So far there has been no word, the family said.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former presidential aide H. R. Haldeman says he is innocent of all Watergate cover-up charges. Tanned and smiling, Haldeman told a news conference on the lawn of his Tudor-style home Monday that he has done "nothing illegal or improper." President Nixon's former chief of staff said he is confident he will be cleared of conspiracy, obstruction of justice and perjury charges.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee is meeting to decide what to do about its eight-day old request for evidence from the White House for its impeachment inquiry. The committee, still hoping to hear from the White House on its request, will try to decide what to do in case the request is denied.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A hearing will be held Wednesday on what to do with the secret Watergate report produced by a federal grand jury.

WELCOMED HOME — Secretary of State Henry Kissinger is welcomed home by State Department personnel Monday night after returning to Andrews Air Force Base from his trip to the Middle East. U.S. officials said that Kissinger was the target of an apparent assassination attempt in Syria last week that was averted because his conversations with President Hafez Assad ran long.

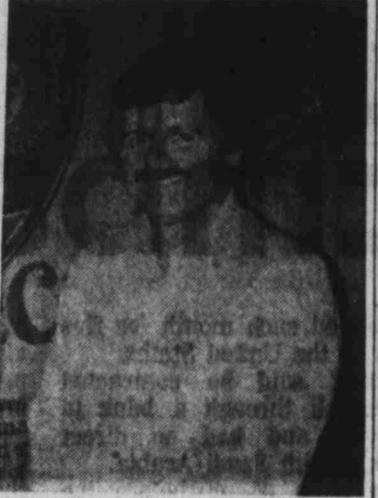

Jaycees' Highest Award Is Won By Ben Faulkner

The highest award that can go to a Jaycee member was presented to Ben Faulkner of Big Spring at the district meeting in Abilene Saturday by Rick Clayton, national president.

The JCI Senatorship award went to Faulkner for his many years of sincere dedication to the Jaycee cause. "I believe in Jaycees because I think that it prepares young men for community leadership," Faulkner stated.

This is the first time that the award has ever been presented to a Big Spring Jaycee and there have been very few in West Texas.

Faulkner will reach the age of 35 in June which makes him ineligible for Jaycees. However, during his years with the local chapter, he has won a pace setter award for bringing in over 100 members. He has held every local office and has also been a state director and vice president.

BEN FAULKNER

Faulkner, born at Kilgore, moved to Big Spring when 11 years old and finished high school and junior college here and then graduated from Texas Tech. He then went to work for West Texas Roofing.

He and his wife, Linda, love sports activities and originally met on a skiing trip. They both like to scuba dive and they are both airplane pilots.

They are members of the First United Methodist Church and have two children, Scott, 6 and Terry, 4.

Road Easement Is Accepted

County Commissioners Court accepted a road easement from C. W. Phillips Monday morning. The county assumed responsibility for 0.86 of an acre northeast of Big Spring.

The lowest of two bids won Industrial Office Supply, Dallas, county money for a $315 fee for the district clerk's office.

But the court decided to buy a $495 typewriter from IBM, rather than a $437.45 model from Graham Office Machines, for the district judge's secretary.

Mrs. Bob Wegner In School Race

Mrs. Bob Wegner, 37, Box 192 Gail Route, registered as a candidate for the school board Monday. Wednesday is the final day for filing.

Thus far, seven candidates are vying for three posts. Two incumbents are running including Jerry Jenkins and Thomas Fetters. Other candidates in the order filed include Al Valdes, Mrs. V. Williams, Don Reynolds, Don De Leuw and Mrs. Wegner.

Hearing Will Be Resumed When Cattleman Appears

A hearing over the motion to revoke probation being served by James Ray Black, 19, San Angelo, was recessed in 118th District Court Monday afternoon. The hearing will resume again when Earl Byrd, owner of some cattle shot in Tom Green County, appears to testify.

District Attorney Bob Moore introduced a statement signed by the defendant over the objection of Wayne Basden, defense attorney.

"All three of us shot the bull and the black cows using both my rifle and the pistol that we borrowed," Black was quoted telling Ernest Haynes, Tom Green chief deputy sheriff.

Incidents of cattle being shot numerous times near Three Rivers Lake and the north shore of North Concho Lake were described.

Musical Drew Big Crowds

The big Spring High School choir department's production of "South Pacific," this last weekend, with a cast and crew of more than 80, was very successful, said choir director Jack Bowers Monday.

"We averaged around 850 persons a night. We were real pleased with everything. People seemed to enjoy all the performances, we had not problems to speak of, and we had good audiences. We'd like to thank the people that came out. They were very responsive, and the kids enjoyed it tremendously."

"We'd also like to thank all the people across Big Spring that helped us," Bowers added. The choir department will produce no more musicals this spring but "we have some concerts coming up, and we'll be in the University Interscholastic League music contest March 20-21 in Midland," Bowers said.

Farabee To Speak To Civitan Club

Two Democratic contenders for the 30th state senate seat being vacated by Jack Hightower, Vernon, will be busy campaigning this week.

Ray Farabee, Wichita Falls, will be here Friday to address the Civitans concerning industrial development. Friday evening he will speak to the Texas Public Employees Association at 8 o'clock in the Alred building on the Big Spring State Hospital campus, according to Royce Johnson, program chairman. This will be his fourth visit to Big Spring.

Cycle Accidents Hospitalize Two

Two men were hospitalized here after motorcycle accidents in the Optimist Motocross races Sunday afternoon.

Will Parkes, 17, Fort Stockton, was in fair condition and under intensive care at Medical Center Memorial Hospital this morning. He suffered chest injuries.

James Dunne Jr., 28, Big Spring, was in Cowper Hospital this morning with a sprained leg.

Undergoing Tests

Harry Nagel, city manager, is in Lubbock today running medical tests in connection with a recent light heart attack.

Glenda Brasel, deputy district clerk, testified about records in the district clerk's office.

Garvin Ford, identified as a participant in the cattle shooting, gave confusing testimony about the incident.

As the deputy sheriff had testified before, Peace Justice Gus Ochotorena Jr. spoke of telling the defendant at arraignment about rights.

"Once they tell me it's understood, I go from there," Ochotorena said.

The Tom Green deputy said he told Black about his rights when the statement was taken in San Angelo.

The chairman of the Little Miss Big Spring Pageant, Mrs. Nelda Colclazer, said Tuesday the Pageant needed Junior Miss (age 13-17) entries "desperately."

"I now have 41 entries in all three categories Tiny Miss (3-6), Junior Miss and Little Miss (7-12), and I'd like to have 100. Our deadline for entries is through March 21, but for the girls to get in the program, they must enter by March 3," Mrs. Colclazer said.

"This Pageant gives the girls confidence, poise and much experience in competition. They get sweeter and cuddlier," she added.

Cable TV Operators Gain Copyright Fees Immunity

By MARGARET GENTRY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court Monday gave cable television operators immunity from copyright fees for programs imported from distant communities.

In a 6 to 3 decision, the court held that copyright laws do not apply to cable television (CATV) broadcast of network programs lifted by microwave from commercial television stations.

ESCAPES
The cable operators merely acts as a transmitter and not as a performer and thus escapes liability for copyright fees to the program producers, the court said.

In other action Monday the court:

—Ruled that Congress may lawfully withhold veterans education benefits from conscientious objectors, even though they perform alternative civilian service.

DEMO HASSLE
—Agreed to review an Illinois court threat of contempt proceedings against Chicago dele-

—Refused to hear an appeal from black militant H. Rap Brown that he deserves a new trial on a federal firearms charge because of alleged illegal electronic surveillance by the government.

The television industry had called the 10-year copyright battle significant for millions of television viewers. The decision came in a suit brought against Teleprompter, the nation's largest cable television system, by the Columbia Broadcasting System Inc., and three production companies which sell programs to the network.

CBS and the producers argued that cable operators should pay copyright fees on programs imported by cable into communities which could not normally receive them.

Bond Sales Diminish

Although four counties exceeded their goal, six others did not by such margins that they pulled District 4 of the U.S. Savings Bond division below its quota for 1973. Belated reports from the treasury department's saving bond division show that district sales of $1,399,865 were only 94 per cent of the target for the year. Andrews, with sales of $85,186 achieved 142 per cent of its quota. Gaines, with $11,035, was 123 per cent. Fisher with $66,209 and Howard with $587,218, were 110 per cent of quota. Others however, did not do so well. Borden with $6,695, made only 33 per cent of its goal, Dawson with $98,506 made 82 per cent, Martin with $20,943, made 70 per cent, Mitchell with $131,174, made 87 per cent, Nolan with $178,383 made 66 per cent and Scurry with $114,516 made 72 per cent, said Larson Lloyd, district bond chairman.

The Cycle Turns Again

There's increasing evidence around that today's young people are coming to a point they no longer regard their parents as holdovers from the dark ages.

In fact, the cycle may have made a complete swing, and the high school, college and young married crowd consider many of the things that were in vogue, say away back in the 1920s and 1930s, are quite modern and enjoyable.

Several national magazines and nationally circulated newspapers have been carrying stories that told of the comeback of such dances as the waltz, the fox trot and mad as the cheek-to-cheek steps that mom and dad danced to under soft lights of a ballroom and to the "big-band" sound of Glenn Miller, and his numerous contemporaries.

And there are other indications that some portions of the "good ole days" are on the way back.

Out in Los Angeles, Groucho Marx was the honor guest of 500 of his fans. Included were University of California at Los Angeles students who were to promote an organization known as CRAC on the UCLA campus and — the pending formation of chapters on other college campuses. To promote the re-release of the famed Marx Brothers film, "Animal Crackers."

The young people say there's little humor in anything that's coming from today's motion picture sets. They want a return of the old comedians.

Strange world, isn't it? Almost any day now we expect to open a Sunday paper and find the Lawrence Welk Show among the nation's "Top Ten".

... Maybe Back To Urban Life

The energy crisis has many faces. It may transform the inner city and its urban hub and stop the flight to the suburbs for the indefinite future.

The revolution, though, is not likely to be a rapid one. The first impediment is the lack of a mass-transit system. A number of years and massive amounts of money — much of it will be needed to buy buses, get them delivered and send them on routes.

Mass transportation for some residential areas at the far reaches of the city limits probably cannot be served economically. Parking areas can be established where commuters leave their cars and board buses for the journey to their jobs.

Americans probably will feel put upon by the changes forced upon them. But the benefits for society should outweigh the difficulties.

Urban life may come into its own again. Abandoned areas, or rundown sections of the city's business and residential core, can be renewed. New communities can arise within reasonable distance of jobs and shopping areas. The old satisfactions of urban living can be restored.

Job Advice

Around The Rim

Jo Bright

Work, for most people, is not only necessary for physical survival; it is essential to emotional well-being and personal happiness. The person who finds joy in his job is better equipped to deal with frustrations that lie beyond the boundaries of the business world. Or so say the researchers.

IF THIS IS so, how happy are you with your present job? All things considered, are you doing the best you can for your employer — and is he providing the opportunities for you to assume more responsibility, rewarding you accordingly?

If not, you might do well to consider making a change.

Last night, I ran across some advice to persons preparing job resumes. Perhaps it will be helpful.

1. Don't put a date anywhere on the resume. You may wish to use it later. A letter of transmittal will contain the current date.
2. Don't put your address or phone number on resume. These can possibly change. Again, the letter of transmittal will contain these items.
3. DON'T USE the personal pronoun "I" in writing the resume. Use forms of sentence construction to avoid using "I" such as "was employed by XYZ Company and assigned the duties of, etc." instead of saying "I went to work for XYZ Company, and I was assigned the duties of, etc."
4. Salary information and reason for leaving are not included in the resume. This information must be dealt with, but is done separately.
5. The resume should not be slanted toward any particular job; it should be a factual history of the work you have actually done. If the resume is sent in response to a particular job order, certain of the background information can be called to the reader's attention and given emphasis, again, through the letter of transmittal.

6. The resume should be written in the rough at least once. Go back over it with your blue pencil, correcting spelling and grammar. Check your sentence structure to make sure nothing appears awkwardly stated, and be sure your thoughts are going to be clear to the reader.

7. Type the resume in its final form with a typewriter having a carbon ribbon, if possible. This kind of type print makes excellent photo copies. If you cannot get a machine with a carbon ribbon, make sure the ink ribbon is in good shape and prints dark enough to make good photo copies; also, make sure the type face is clean and prints crisply.

8. TRY NOT to exceed two pages with your resume.

9. Normal salary increase to expect in making a change is about 10 percent. To ask an amount greatly exceeding this figure might give you out of the market.

10. If you are dealing with an employment service, you have an obligation to cooperate closely with the agency. Answer promptly all correspondence and calls directed to you. Advise in advance if you expect to be out of touch or out of town for several days.

Jenner Under Fire

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — A mailing received a few days ago by all 17 Republicans on the House Judiciary Committee climaxed a campaign to undercut Albert E. Jenner Jr., as their special impeachment counsel, and their attempt to impeach Nixon, widening a serious internal split over impeachment among House Republicans.

THE MAILING was sent out by the committee's Republican staff. It contained a brief, advocating a limited view of what constitutes an impeachable offense. Also in the envelope, added gratuitously and without comment, was a magazine article describing Jenner as a tough prosecutorial type bent on prosecuting the cumulatively effect of the mailing: intentionally anti-Jenner.

Indeed, the situation is so serious that Jenner, a prestigious Chicago lawyer and former president of the American Bar Assn., might quit rather than suffer further indignities.

A CLOSED DOOR this week would likely aggravate the deepening split among the 17 Republicans. A minority consider themselves performing a quasi-judicial role, weighing evidence against President Nixon; a majority view themselves as the President's defenders. This distinction, especially crucial with the grand jury's sealed presentment concerning Mr. Nixon now in the hands of Judge John Sirica, is all about.

The battle started when the committee's two Illinois Republicans, Reps. Robert McClory and Thomas F. Rallsback, proposed super-lawyer Jenner as minority counsel for the impeachment. A young lawyer on the minority staff named Sam Garrison unsuccessfully protested. He could do the job himself, he said.

JENNER THEN committed two blunders. He took the post without informing his new employers that he had raised funds for the re-election of a liberal Illinois Democrat, Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III. Later he went on a Chicago television talk show on a broadcast his belief that Mr. Nixon is legally responsible for the actions of his aides.

The two blunders were the foundation for an anti-Jenner column by William Safire, the former Nixon speechwriter now with the New York Times. The Safire column, in turn, became the basis for a letter-writing campaign to Judiciary Committee Republicans complaining about Jenner. This campaign coincided with the hardening White House line about the impeachment proceedings.

IN RESPONSE to this tone, Rallsback told a recent session of the committee's Republicans that he for one would not act as counsel for the defense. Those who strongly agree with Rallsback include Reps. McClory, Henry P. Smith III of New York, William S. Cohen of Maine and perhaps others — clearly a minority among the 17 Republicans.

THUS, RECENT meetings of the 17 have been punctuated by blunt criticism of Jenner, led by Reps. David W. Dennis of Indiana and Lawrence J. Hogan of Maryland, for working too closely with committee impeachment counsel John Doar. But a minority is equally bent on defending Jenner.

Protestant Disaffection

William F. Buckley Jr.

Those who despair of America have been for the most part left intellectuals or young poseurs who find Weischmerz the prettiest gal in town. Always, of course, there were the angelists, the reformers of faith who could never possess their perfection in any society organized around secular precepts. These were always a minority, of reclusive bent. Through the crisis of the sixties, the principal religious groups in America, Protestant and Catholic, were — well, pro-American. It is the thesis of a Brown, that in the past period, there were great erosions in Protestant support of America.

VOLUME 1, NUMBER 1 of the evangelical journal Post-American depicts the suffering Christ, crowned with thorns, and draped in the American flag. And the legend, "They crucified him." That kind of corporate self-flagellation is not unique. Dr. Brown remembers that Rembrandt went in for it. Painting his own face on a Roman soldier standing by the Cross, and that during the Second World War a Swiss artist scandalized his countrymen by doing a Crucifixion in which the soldiers wore Swiss army helmets. But the evangelicals who edit the Post-American seem to be saying that America is uniquely guilty. And among them there are those who go so far as Editor William Stringfellow, who has written hysterically that the United States is the modern Babylon, comparing us to Hitler a generation ago.

THE DISAFFECTION is interesting at three levels, theological, historically and politically. Theologically, it would appear presumptuous to suppose, proudly, that the American people are the primary sinners. Historically, there is much to be said, and Whittaker Chambers said it best 10 years ago, for the thesis that the great test of America was to exercise the leadership to put down the greatest assault ever mounted upon the human spirit, to quote the galvanizing phrase of Henry Kamm of the "New York Times." Having failed — Communism has waxed stronger during the American stewardship of the West, and the Christian ethos of the individual has fared badly — it could plausibly be contended that as a historical fact, our failure is the momentous fact of the century.

POLITICALLY, the potential consequences of a substantial defection from Protestant America are extraordinarily grave. If the moral consensus defending this country and its institutions evaporates, then there is nothing left to hold it together other than violence. Billy Graham is probably the supreme symbol of Protestant evangelical harmony with what are thought of as conservative American positions. Nothing more greatly offends the evangelicals of whom Dr. Brown writes than the close identification of Billy Graham with Richard Nixon, both men speakers at Billy Graham Day in 1971. Nothing — except Billy Graham's participation in Honor America Day the year before.

IT IS DR. BROWN'S conviction that three events of the recent past have done the most to cause the erosion. Not so much the visit, as Nixon's behavior in China, his camaraderie with the most conspicuous tormenters of Christian missionaries of the century. It would of course have been different if Nixon had succeeded in midwifing freedom of religion in China.

Trying To Fleece Uncle Sam?

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — An indicator of the nation's mood that will be watched closely over the next few months is the amount of deductions taxpayers claim on their federal income tax returns.

The belief is widely held that taxpayers might have turned that bit cynical because of rising prices and the realization that the President of the United States, no less, paid smaller taxes than some working people.

One former Internal Revenue Service commissioner, Johnnie M. Walter, has been quoted as saying that disgruntled taxpayers may deprive the government of as much as $1 billion in revenue by adding to their deductions.

While government officials have named no such precise figure, they are prepared for a situation in which more returns will be weighted in the taxpayer's favor.

So far, however, the nation's biggest tax preparer, H & R Block, maintains that the tempo of taxpayers is being kept within bounds.

Said Henry Block, president: "In spite of everything we've heard and read that says this year's taxpayer is out to fleece Uncle Sam, we see no such movement and don't expect it."

In his opinion, fear and publicity about such an eventuality is snowballing, but not the event itself. However, he says it's taking longer to make out taxpayers' returns than it did a year ago.

And, he concedes, the reason is that there is "a heightened interest by millions of individuals to get what is legally theirs."

Block said he disagreed that taxpayers were seeking questionable deductions. "People are telling us 'I want to take as much as I can, but legitimate' and they're pressing for every proper item, but our interviews confirm the honesty of the American public."

While it is too early to determine with finality what the impact on revenues will be, if mass disillusionment does result it could produce a very nasty situation.

It could, in fact, lead to further disillusionment if a taxpayer attempts to obtain what he feels is a legitimate deduction and is overruled by the auditors.

Might Be An Irritant

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: For several years now I have been bothered with chapped lips, not only in the winter but in summer also. Our family doctor recommended drinking more water but that has not cured the problem. Could you make any recommendation? — Mrs. W. M.

The could be a variety of conditions and should be seen to be evaluated.

However, drying, crusting and cracking the year round suggests that there may be an irritant that is continually present.

Cosmetics sometimes are the offenders — lipstick is an obvious possibility. Nail polish or other preparations that touch the lips only secondarily can't be neglected as suspects.

So think back. Have you cosmetics any change in your cosmetics dating to about the time the trouble started?

Stopping all cosmetics for a time may be useful. It may not, right off the bat, show cosmetic is guilty, but if the trouble stops it narrows things down a good deal.

Irritation from toothpaste or dental materials sometimes proves to be the cause of the trouble.

Sensitivity to the actinic rays of the sun can be involved.

You also might try one of the lip balms available in the drug store. These are colorless but serve as protection against external irritants.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: You had an article on post-nasal drip. Would you please rerun this article, and do you have a booklet on treatment — Mrs. P. J.

over again, but I do have a booklet that discusses post-nasal drip, causes as well as treatment, in a good bit of detail. The same booklet also discusses sinus trouble, so send 25 cents and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of The Big Spring Herald and ask for the booklet. "You Can Cure Sinus Trouble." It will include the information you want on post-nasal drip.

Birth control is a much-discussed and highly relevant topic in today's society. Find out all you should know about birth control in Dr. Thosteson's easy-to-read booklet, "The Twelve-Birth Control Methods." For a copy, write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing 25 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope (include zip code).

Getting The News

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — There is an old saw here that if you just give the people the facts they will rise to any situation. This theory is now inoperative.

A GROUP of us were lined up here in Washington, D.C., the other day waiting to get gas from a station located in McLean, Va., when somebody yelled from his car, "I just heard on the radio that the Shah of Iran says we have more than enough gasoline in this country."

There were shouts of joy and everyone started tooting their horns in a V for victory in Morse code.

BUT AN HOUR later someone passed down the road that William Simon, the energy czar, had just made a statement that the shah didn't know what he was talking about. People stopped tooting their horns and sat gloomily, inching along toward the pumps.

Another bulletin was then given by the man in front of me. President Nixon has just announced that the crisis is over, but the problems still exist. Pass it on.

I told the lady behind me who broke into tears of joy.

"Thank God for the President," she said.

THEN FROM WAY back in the line we heard cries of anguish. Someone had heard on the radio that the National Petroleum Council has just issued a report that unless new stiff conservation measures were instituted there would be mandatory rationing by spring.

"But," said the lady who had just blessed the President, "Nixon said there wouldn't be any need for rationing."

"That was 10 minutes ago," a colleague said during an energy crisis.

"There isn't any crisis," a mother with two children interjected. "We've just got problems getting gas."

WE ALL GOT back into our cars and moved up one foot.

A man came running down the line. "Bill Simon just told a Senate committee the lines for gasoline will be reduced by April!"

We all whooped and started slapping each other on the back.

A TRUCK DRIVER had a crowd around him. "I just heard on my two-way radio that 14 oil tankers are 100 miles off the coast of New Jersey," he said.

"Yeah," said another man, "but they just turned around and are heading back to Europe because they can get a dollar a barrel more for it there."

A LITTLE OLD lady who had been in line for three days told me, "I'd like to get just one full tank before I die."

We all moved up another foot. Then someone started a volleyball game.

OYSTERS Change Their Sex

WASHINGTON (AP) — Oysters change their sex. Most oysters from America's East Coast waters start life as males, but enough later become females to maintain an even balance. English oysters change back and forth during their lifetime, the National Geographic says.

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

Kindly tell me if the Bible says anything about the cremation of the body at death. I'm thinking about the expense of transporting a body back 1200 miles to our hometown, as against a simpler and cheaper method of ashes. The money saved could be used then for the benefit of the living.

First of all, I'm not so sure that cremation is cheaper. Heretofore you had to buy the casket anyway, and in cremation it is consumed with the body.

But as to the theological view of the practice, the Scripture is comparatively silent. Cremation was the customary practice of the ancient Greeks, but was not the ordinary mode of disposing of the dead among the Hebrews. When Paul speaks in 1 Cor. 13 of giving his body to be burned, he simply accommodates his language to the customs of the city of Corinth.

At times of pestilence, it is generally conceded that bodies were burned (see Ezekiel 39:11-16). There is, however, in the New Testament no instance of cremation. I think among Christians, cremation has never been particularly popular. This is partly due to the example of the Jews, the indisputable fact that Jesus was buried, and the hope of the resurrection at Christ's return. At that climactic event, however, it won't matter one bit how the body of the departed was handled. It shall surely rise again.

We can say cremation is not anti-Christian. And there may be sanitary reasons in some countries for its use. Generally, however, it is unlikely that it will become the prevailing practice in Christendom.

A Devotion For Today

"You will be victorious for me." (Acts 1:8)
PRAYER: Lord, may my life be acted upon by Thy grace. May I be forgiven, cleansed, healed, renewed and have Thy divine fellowship so that I may witness for Thee. In the spirit of Jesus, the Christ. Amen.

DAR Awards Medal To Mrs. Anderson

Mrs. Richard Anderson of Gall was the recipient Sunday of the Medal of Honor authorized in 1922 by the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution.

The award is granted to an honor to a native-born adult who is not a member of the Society and has exhibited qualities of "outstanding leadership, patriotism, service and trustworthiness contributing to the betterment of their communities."

Mrs. Anderson was chosen by the Colonel Theunis Dey Chapter, DAR, of Midland as its first nominee for such an award. The presentation was made by Mrs. F. Hastings Pannill of Midland, state regent for the Society, during a reception honoring Mrs. Anderson Sunday at the Borden County Museum.

Mrs. Anderson, the former Barbara Clayton, is the daughter of a prominent New Mexico rancher and now resides on the Muleshoe Ranch, Borden County, operated by her husband. When the one paper serving her area had financial troubles, Mrs. Anderson realized the only means of local newspaper communication in Borden County would cease. She counseled a group of women to join her in purchasing the depleted assets of the paper and, to gain their support, she agreed to serve as editor, which she has done since 1971.

The name of the paper was changed to The Borden Star, and it is published weekly. The editor and staff contribute their services freely as a means of public communications to link families on ranches in the area.

Mrs. Anderson's other activities include school-parent programs, health programs, parish duties of St. Mary's Episcopal Church of Big Spring, American Cancer Society and Borden County Historical Society and Museum. Also, she is interested in political events from area to national level. She was selected for "Who's Who in Texas" for 1973-74.

James McLeray, superintendent of schools, welcomed guests and introduced DAR members attending the program and reception, which was sponsored by the Borden County Historical Society, with Mrs. Bert Dennis as chairman. Other committee members were Mrs. Billy Willis, Mrs. Vivian Clark, Mrs. Frank Beaver and Mrs. Larry Smith.

Included in the DAR members from Midland attending was Mrs. Anderson's sister, Mrs. W. C. Hubbard. Also present were the Anderson's children, Mrs. Buddy Geter, Stillwater, Okla.; Mary Anderson, Texas Christian University; and John Robert Anderson and Martha Anderson, both of their home in Lovington, N.M., were Mrs. Anderson's father, Jerry Clayton and Mrs. Clayton. Other family members were among the guests for the medal presentation.

During the program, Mrs. John P. Butler of Midland gave a resume of the purposes and objectives for which the National Society was founded in 1890.

Local Couple Announce Birth

Lt. and Mrs. David F. Kirt, 90-B Ent, announce the birth of a son, Adam Michael, Feb. 23 at Medical Center Memorial Hospital. The infant weighed 8 pounds, 10 ounces. The maternal grandparents are Mrs. Glee Ryan, Monterey, Calif.; and Daryl Ryan, Eagle Grove, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Kirt, Tulsa, Okla., are the paternal grandparents. The child's maternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Babcock, Clarion, Iowa, and the paternal great-grandmother is Mrs. Dave G. Harris, Memphis, Tenn.

Sorority Entertains Rushees

Seven rushees attended a model meeting held last week by Alpha Kappa Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, in First Federal Community Room. The rushees were Mrs. Albert Carlisle, Mrs. Donnie Payne, Mrs. David McGrueger, Mrs. Ronald Tucker, Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Frank Clark and Mrs. Jan Sims.

A display table was arranged with sorority literature, jewelry and other chapter paraphernalia. During the brief business session, a Girl of the Year and Pledge of the Year were elected and will be announced at the Founder's Day banquet April 25 at Big Spring Country Club. At that event, Alpha Kappa Omicron will be in charge of entertainment, with Mrs. Gary Huckaby and Mrs. Clay LaRochelle as co-chairmen of the committee.

Mrs. Kenneth Gafford, guest speaker, discussed decorating and told different ways to use accessories and color in the available space. She said walls, carpet and drapes make up 60 per cent of the space; furniture and accessories the remaining 40 per cent. Starting with the basic wall, decorating should be done from left to right, using odd numbers in groupings.

"Accessories are to the home what cosmetics are to a face," said Mrs. Gafford. "The colors in a room tell much about what kind of person you are." She noted that orange is said to denote intelligence; blue stimulates the appetite; and yellow signifies a vibrant person. In conclusion, she said every room should have some wood.

The next meeting will be March 12 in the home of Mrs. Vic Keyes.

Weekend Guests At Westbrook

WESTBROOK (SC) — Weekend guests of the W. A. Bells recently were the Don Taylors, Dallas; Tommy Sloanes, Bracketville; and Larry Bells, Midland.

Women Gain Choice: Life Styles Changing

"Women's Life Styles," past and present, was discussed Monday morning at the monthly meeting of the American Association of University Women day study group, held in the home of Mrs. Preston E. Harrison.

Mrs. C. R. Wiley, co-chairwoman of Monday's program with Mrs. Paul F. Klonka, spoke of the dramatic changes which have taken place in women's life styles over the past 300 years, starting in 1647 with the first formal petition for suffrage, to the present day when over 3,000 women in the United States are seeking political offices on state and national levels.

Mrs. Wiley had statistics to prove her contention that women have "indeed, come a long way, baby." Current statistics show that 81 per cent of professional librarians are women; 70 per cent of health technicians, 64 per cent of therapists and 63 per cent of social workers are all women. However, when the list of professions turned from the "women's" job opportunities for women to those usually associated with men, the percentages distinctly changed. From a whopping 58 per cent of women who are religious workers (not clergy), the next category listed photographers as only 14 per cent and then went on down to pharmacists at 12 per cent, lawyers and judges, 5 per cent and finally engineers at 2 per cent.

In order to point out the depth of change, Mrs. Wiley read a newspaper article which described the plight of a woman teacher in 1923 who, in order to get a job, could not marry, leave town, loiter at the ice cream parlor, drink, smoke, play cards or dance.

Today, 40 per cent of women hold jobs, and the courts have ruled that a woman can not be laid off for pregnancy, much less marriage. At the same time, women often find themselves in the untenable position of having to be "all things to all men", dedicated to profession, husband, children and society with equal enthusiasm, and Mrs. Wiley said, "they often spread themselves too thin." But, if they want to — and this was one of her main points — there's really nothing a woman can't do today.

Mrs. Klonka shared with the group her reading of the book, "The Transparent Self", by Sidney Jourard in which the author explores the question each person must ask himself or herself: shall I permit my fellow human being to know me as I truly am or shall I choose to remain an enigma and be something I'm not? Mrs. Klonka pointed out that this is often a real dilemma for women especially because they have so many different roles to fulfill.

In addition to the discussion of women's life styles, the AAUW study group talked about the upcoming election of officers at the general night meeting March 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the First Federal Community Room, and all members were urged to attend this meeting since a quorum is required. A program entitled "AAUW Looks at Education" will be presented that evening.

The next day study group meeting will be held April 1, with the program, "Meaningful Relationships," presented by Mrs. Dennis Vandever.

Girls' Class?

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband insists that because boys will be boys, every boy should have his first sexual experience with a prostitute. He has several reasons: She can teach him about sex, there are no repercussions from the encounter, and it's preferable to learning with some Mama's girl in the back seat of a car.

I didn't know whether to laugh or hit him but on recovering, I informed him that the boy could wind up with V.D., and as for learning about sex in a house of prostitution, that was tantamount to learning about good food in the town sewer.

I also asked him if he thought that when our daughters reach their late teens, they should go to a male prostitute, to learn all about sex, 'cause "girls will be girls," just as boys will be boys. He didn't think that was funny, and said to ask Abby. So I'm asking you.

DEAR M. C.: If prostitutes offer educational courses for inexperienced, it's news to me. Perhaps your husband knows some who do. (Is he a graduate?) And what if a student develops such a ferocious loyalty to his "alma mater" that he keeps going back for graduate courses?

I'm on your side, Mother. And I'll bet the prostitutes are, too.

DEAR ABBY: I am nearly 90 years old and have a question which I hope you can answer for me as it has troubled me for a long time. A relative of mine has the one and only picture of my dear departed mother and her first child — my dear sister, who is also now dead. I know that it is possible to have pictures copied. I imagine they simply take a picture of the original, which should do no damage to the original.

My problem is that this relative refuses to let that original picture out of her sight. She is now convinced that it will do the original no harm to have a picture taken of it, but is there any place where this can be done while a person waits? She will not hear of leaving it overnight anywhere. She lives in Chicago. Thank you. SIGN ME "OLD"

DEAR ABBY: There ought to be a photographic studio in Chicago that would produce a copy of the original while you and your relative wait. Ask around.

DEAR ABBY: Here's how I have succeeded in getting my name off "junk" mailing lists: I simply cross off my name and address, and write "REFUSED—RETURN TO SENDER" on the envelope. Then I drop it in a mailbox.

It costs the company money to receive this piece of mail back, so they seem eager to drop my name from their list. Of course, you must refuse the mail without opening the envelope, but I've gotten off numerous lists this way.

MRS. C. B.: LOMITA, CALIF.

DEAR MRS. B.: THANKS for the tip. Some of those folks who impose their junk mail on people are going to hate us!

CONFIDENTIAL TO PORTLAND VIEWPOINT: I'm with you. Anything that breeds jealousy, misunderstanding and hostility between husband and wife should be done away with. And the Company Christmas Party which excludes spouses heads the list!

Center Point HD Club To Help With Stock Show Concession

The Center Point HD Club at its last meeting, held March 14-16, with each HD club providing two workers and three pies for the concession stand. A report by Mrs. Nanny Garrett concerned the new yearbooks and a program on dairy foods.

Further plans were announced for the THDA spring meeting April 13 at First United Methodist Church where approximately 30 counties will be represented. Each local club is to provide four dozen cookies.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Jordan.

The program speakers were Mrs. W. L. Eggleston and Mrs. C. T. Lindley who discussed clothing. They advised buyers to select clothing for durability, practicality, suitability and wearability. Flamability should be considered, especially in children's clothing.

The March 12 meeting will be held in the Eggleston home, 1307 Main, where the hostess will be joined by Mrs. Fred Eakers and Mrs. Florence Rhotan in showing slides taken on their trips to Jamaica. There will also be a "bake, make and grow" exchange.

It's the year of self-locomotion, the year to take in the scenery anywhere looking beautifully bright afoot. In strappy, airy sandals that put you right in step with the times, the climbs, the window shopping from here to there. From $20.

For What It's Worth

Jack Cowan

Big Springer Robert Dennis has been dubbed "Super Aggie" for his dedication far and beyond the call of duty at Texas A&M. Way far and beyond, as a matter of fact.

Dennis, a varsity football linebacker, coached the Army defense for the Elephant Bowl last Saturday, and his Corps of Cadets Army team shut out Air Force, 14-0. It was considered quite a sacrifice, because later in the day Dennis, a junior education major and Company I-2 cadet, was to be married.

But the Aggie showed his real stuff later that evening when he and his new wife, Suzanne, attended the Aggie Longhorn basketball game with Mrs. Dennis wearing her wedding dress.

This week's plans for the Howard College Hawks prior to Thursday's Region V tournament opener in Brownwood will be a hard workout today and then a day off on Wednesday, according to coach Harold Wilder.

The team will leave Thursday morning, and will be staying at the Holiday Inn. Wilder said the Hawks, No. 1 seeds for the meet, had good workouts both Saturday and Sunday.

Speaking of the Region V tourney, things might get a bit crowded in the radio section, as two local stations are planning to make the trip.

KBYG radio, which won a bid last fall and has had exclusive rights to Hawks games this year, will be there and so will KBST. The latter contends that the bid, awarded by the Howard College board of trustees, is not binding on games outside of Big Spring and is planning full coverage of Hawk action in the tourney. KBYG is not taking any court action.

Putt Choate of Coahoma has been named to the Prep All-America Football program for 1973-74, and is now eligible for judging in the Prep All-America Football National Awards — Prep 100 Squad, Super Eleven Team and Cum Laude. The National finalists will be announced in the March issue of Coach and Athlete.

Nominations for the Honor Roll were made last fall by high school coaches and athletic directors, college recruiters and sports writers across the country. They were asked to nominate candidates having the best record of local achievement on their teams or in their areas. The players were nominated for outstanding athletic ability, sportsmanship, leadership and service to team and community.

Choate, a junior, led Dist. 7-AA in rushing, with 1133 yards, and in scoring, with 78 points, and he also starred from his linebacker position on defense during the Bulldogs' 7-3 season.

Ex-Big Spring Coach Clovis Hale made such a good impression during his first year at San Angelo Lake View that the school board recently decided to extend his contract two years, making it a five-year pact. Hale's Chiefs finished with a 4-6 record and took second in Dist. 3-AAA, the school's best showing in more than a decade.

Big Spring's John Thomas Smith might be on his way to becoming Dist. 5-AAA's first three-sport all-district selection. None of the "oldtimers" around the league can recall a player making three all-star squads, and Smith has already impressed by making two, football and basketball. If he has the same kind of year for the Steer baseball team this spring, he should be in.

Local Volleyball Teams In Slump

Big Spring junior high and freshman volleyball teams had a rough time in the Snyder tournament last weekend, failing to win a match, then returned home Monday only to be thumped by Snyder and Lamesa squads.

Snyder Lamar trimmed the Freshman Black team 15-9, 15-9, while the Gold unit dropped a 15-12, 15-4 decision to Lamesa. Gollad bowed to Lamar, 15-3, 15-12, and Runnels fell to Lamesa 15-10, 4-15, 15-8 in the "A" team game.

Debbie Scott, Ann Blackwell and Karen Thomas sparked the Black effort in the loss to Lamar, while Mary Churchwell and Vicky Hartley topped the Gold Cause.

Runnels was paced by the serving of Eva Rich and Ruby Backs, while Susie Hernandez was the top set and Rose Majers led the way at the net. The team now stands 4-5.

The Runnels B team dropped a 7-15, 15-2, 15-8 game to the Lamesans, despite the work of Kim Smith, Selina Jones and Rhonda Metcalf. The B squad is 1-2 on the year.

Suzanne Johnson topped the Gollad scoring effort with seven points as the team slipped to 0-7 on the year.

In the Snyder Tournament, Denver City captured both the eighth and ninth grade crowns, while the Big Springers were being eliminated. Three locals made the all-tournament team, Majers of Runnels and Cassandra Green of Gollad on the eighth grade unit and Vern Williams of Big Spring Black on the freshman squad.

Travis dropped the Gold squad into the freshman consolation bracket with a 15-4, 15-10 setback, and the team then fell in the consolation finals to Lamar 15-10, 15-8. The Black team was bounced by Lamesa 15-11, 10-15, 15-13, and then lost to Lamar 15-13, 7-15, 16-14.

In the eighth grade bracket, Gollad bowed to Lamar 16-14, 4-15 15-8 in the opener, and the team then fell to Lamesa 15-2, 15-11. Greene and Laura Allen were the top servers for Gollad, while Johnson and Gay Weber starred at the net.

Runnels, playing without three starters, was dropped by Travis 13-15, 15-11, 16-14 in the first round and then bowed to Lamesa in the consolation finals 15-5, 15-12. Rosa Franco, Majers, Rich and Metcalf were the top performers.

The teams return to action Thursday in Snyder. Runnels plays Lamar in the opener, and the Black unit takes on the Lamar freshmen at 5 p.m. The Gold unit vies with Travis at 6 p.m., and Gollad meets Travis in a spinituit.

Twins' DH Oliva Might Receive 'Part-Time' Pay

Tony Oliva, the Minnesota Twins' designated hitter, is trying to avoid a designated salary cut and the issue is whether a designated hitter should be designated a part-time ballplayer.

He met with Twins' President Calvin Griffith for 45 minutes Monday at the team's Orlando, Fla., spring base and continued to demand the $91,000 he received last season when he batted .291 with 16 home runs and 92 runs batted in. Griffith, meanwhile, refused to raise his $94,000 offer. "The designated hitter is something new," Griffith said. "No one knows what they're worth. I feel, however, they are part-time players and should be paid accordingly."

Naturally, Oliva has a different view. "I had a good year," he said. "I deserve at least as much as I made last year. Other designated hitters like Orlando Cepeda and Peron Johnson received raises and I'm only asking for the same as I got last year."

'GREATEST WIN,' SAYS FLYER COACH DONOHER Dayton Stuns Second-Ranked Irish

By The Associated Press

"I won't get any sleep tonight," crowed Dayton Coach Don Donoher after his Flyers upset mighty Notre Dame 97-82 Monday night.

"This is just the greatest win we've had in the time I've been here."

Dayton, egged on by an enthusiastic home crowd of 13,528 screaming, partisan fans, roared off to a 13-point lead in the early going and the Irish never caught up. Notre Dame, ranked No. 2 nationally, crept to within four points, 82-68, five minutes into the second half, but the Flyers refused to fold and won going away. In other top games, No. 8 Providence whipped Brown 92-77, No. 10 South Carolina defeated No. 19 Creighton 78-69, No. 12 Alabama beat Auburn 97-84, No. 18 Louisville outlasted Illinois State 117-107 and Tulsa shaded No. 20 Oral Roberts 85-84.

Senior guard Donald Smith was the top man for Dayton with a season-high 32 points, 20 in the second half. Johnny Davis added 18 for the Flyers, who closed out the regular season with a 19-7 record.

John Shumate paced the Irish, who wind up 26-2, with 29 points.

Both clubs are headed for NCAA playoff games Saturday. The Irish go against Ohio Valley Conference champion Austin Peay and Dayton faces Pacific Coast Athletic Conference representative Los Angeles State.

Senior Marvin Barnes powered Providence past Brown with 37 points and 23 rebounds. The Friars, 26-3, broke it open midway through the second half and cruised home.

Brian Winters pumped in 29 points and Nate Davis added 18 as South Carolina finished its regular campaign with a 22-4 mark. Doug Brooks led Creighton with 23 points. Both clubs have accepted NCAA bids.

Charles Russell scored 26 points and Ray Odums added 22 as Alabama raised its record to 22-4, the first time ever the Crimson Tide has won 22 regular-season games. Southeastern Conference scoring leader Eddie Johnson collected 28 points for Auburn.

Louisville had to overcome a 38-point effort by Illinois State's Rick Whitlow to notch its 20th victory of the year, against five losses. Bill Butler topped the Cardinals with 24 points and Allen Murphy added 20.

Tim Carson's 25-footer with 48 seconds left gave Tulsa its upset over NCAA-bound Oral Roberts. Ken Smith and Sam High led the Golden Hurricane with 22 points each.

In other notable developments, Tennessee subdued Georgia 97-89 to close out the regular season with a 17-8 record and earn a spot in the Commissioners Conference Association tournament which begins March 14th in St. Louis; Canisius sharpshooter Larry Fogle, the nation's leading scorer among major schools, scored 28 points before fouling out with just over two minutes left in a rousing game against Marhall.

Canisius, leading by three when Fogle left, wound up losing 71-64. Fogle had to be pulled away from a referee after the game and the entire team left town under a police escort.

Hawk Stats Impressive As Region Meet Nears

When the Howard College Hawks spring into action this weekend during the Region V Tournament in Brownwood, they'll be carrying with them an impressive list of credentials.

The Hawks finished the regular season with a 102.8-point per game scoring average, fifth best in the Nation, and they also hit 48 per cent of their shots from the field during the 33-5 year. From the free throw line, they sank 65 per cent. Thomas Bledsoe and Taylor Williams, a pair of 6-7 Mississippi Delta region cagers, are leading the team in scoring and rebounding. Bledsoe is getting 21.8 points and 15.1 rebounds a game, while Williams is scoring 20.8 points and pulling down 16.2 rebounds per outing.

Bledsoe also tops the team in field goal percentage, as he has hit on 62 per cent of his shots. Williams has made good on 51 per cent as has guard Leroy Lumzy, who is averaging 16.6 points a game.

NIT Names Seven Teams Steers Drop 1-0 Verdict To Tigers

NEW YORK (AP) — Maryland-Eastern Shore, Cincinnati and Utah head a list of seven schools that have been added to participate in the National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden March 16-24.

The NIT committee now has invited and received acceptances from 11 schools. Five more will be chosen to complete the field of 16.

Also named Monday to the NIT were Rutgers, 18-7; Boston College, 18-8; Fairfield, 17-8, and Connecticut, 18-7. Previously chosen were Manhattan, Massachusetts, Hawaii and St. John's.

Meanwhile, in St. Louis, the inaugural Collegiate Commissioners Association basketball tournament filled five of eight berths by naming four conference runners-up — Arizona State 19-6, from the Western Athletic Conference; Bradley, 19-7, from the Missouri Valley; Southern Methodist, 15-11, from the Southwest; and Toledo, 18-8, from the Mid-American; and Tennessee, 17-8, in the Southeastern. The Vols finished third in their conference but got the nod over second-place Alabama, ineligible because it is hosting NCAA regionals.

Big Eight Commissioner Chuck Neinas said the remaining three clubs would be named by the end of the week.

TRY PECOS TODAY Steers Drop 1-0 Verdict To Tigers

SNYDER — Doak Witherspoon twirled a one-hitter and the Snyder Tigers pushed across a run in the third inning for a 1-0 victory over the Big Spring Steers Monday.

The loss was the third in a row for the Steers after a season-opening victory over Lubbock High last Friday. The Big Springers get a chance to pull out of the skid today at 4:30 p.m. when they host the Pecos Eagles at Steer Park.

"I thought we played real well," Coach Larry Horton said after the game. "We played much better defense, obviously, and we didn't hit the ball that bad — it was just right to them most of the time."

"John Thomas (Smith) did a super job pitching for us, I thought. He had real good stuff for his first time out." Smith, who allowed five hits, was tagged for three in the first

Steerettes Host Snyder Tonight

The Big Spring Steerettes host Snyder tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Steer Gym in district volleyball action.

The Steerettes carry a 3-1 district mark and a 10-5 season standing into the tilt. A 6:30 p.m. junior varsity bout will precede the varsity game. The Steerette JVs are 2-2 in loop action and 9-2 on the season.

USC Climbs To 7th Spot

By The Associated Press

Southern California, heading for a Pacific Eight Conference showdown against UCLA Saturday night, is on the rise in the Associated Press' college basketball poll.

The Trojans, 23-3 for the season and 112 in the Pac-8, jumped from No. 10 to No. 7 in this week's poll of a national panel of sports writers and broadcasters. Southern California beat Stanford and California last week.

The Trojans face their major test of the season against the mighty Bruins with the league title and an NCAA Tournament bid at stake. UCLA, also 23-3 and 112, remained third in this week's poll. UCLA beat Southern California 65-54 in their first meeting earlier this season on the Bruins court.

North Carolina State held the top spot with 25 first-place votes and 770 total points. The Wolfpack recorded victories over Atlantic Coast Conference rivals North Carolina and Wake Forest, raising their record to 24-1.

Notre Dame, also 24-1 after beating Ball State and Villanova, stayed a close second with 15 first place votes and 750 points. No. 3 UCLA got the other first-place vote and 658 points.

Maryland, 21-4, advanced one spot to No. 4 after topping Wake Forest and Virginia. Vanderbilt, 232, moved into the No. 5 spot after beating Mississippi and Kentucky.

Howard College now stands 9-11, and the team plays two more games before entering the district tournament.

Howard College (9-11) — Winters 16(27), Jones 1-1; Jones 1-1(3) totals 23-5-1.
WEATHERFORD (5-1) — Dickey 6(4); Hole 8(20); Proctor 3(17); Sheets 5(24); Moore 3(17); Conway 1(4-2); Totals 23-5-1.

HC Finale Nets Defeat

Weatherford spoiled the Howard College women's basketball team's home finale Monday, hanging a 54-51 setback on the Hawkettes.

Hale hit 20 for the winners and Dickey added 12, while HC was led by Sylvia Montana, the game's leading scorer with 21 points. Marian Hobson tagged on 11 for the hosts.

Venture Noted West of BS

Amoco No. 1 Katherine Welsh Quinn will be an 8,400-ft. wildcat venture eight miles west of Big Spring. It is 1 1/2 miles northeast of depleted San Andrews pay and is located 1,820 from the north and east lines of section 15-34-15, T&P. The San Andrews venture, Tom Brown No. 1 Quinn, was originally drilled to 9,820 in 1967, then plugged back two years later and completed 3,287-93.

In northeastern Howard, Texas International No. 1 Cuffee appeared as a confiner in the Ruwwe-Cobb area when it flowed 3-4 barrels an hour through 10-64th choke. Pay was from 7,446-458, 2 1/2 miles east of Vealmoor.

Dorechester Exploration No. 2 Foster-Conger 400 from the north and west lines section 7-21, H&TC, was completed as a gas distillate discovery in the WAM Southfield 15 miles southwest of Sterling City. Originally drilled by Champalin to 8,792, the venture was plugged back to 7,850 and then perforated 7,217-41 for an open flow of 1,295,000 cubic feet per day, plus 30 barrels of 68-gravity distillate. Dorechester No. 3 Foster-Conger, 990 from the south and west lines section 19-13, SPRR, was previously rated at 1,975,000 cubic feet per day plus 20 barrels of 71-gravity distillate from 7,118-7 feet.

Sterling will get yet another wildcat, a 1,750-ft. test, the No. 1 W. Lovelady No. 1 Humble which is near a 3,575 ft. fracture. Location is 2 1/2 miles from the south and 990 from the east lines of section 31-11, SPRR.

Martin County gained a deep wildcat in Williamson No. 1 Juliette Wolcott, slated 1,980 from the north and 3,060 from the east lines of Ward CSL. It is to go to 9,600 feet and is less than a mile north-northeast of depleted Leonard pay and near a Wolfcamp discovery.

LIFE AFTER 65

A Fountain Of Youth: Intellect

By JACK GOURLAY

The search for the Fountain of Youth continues. The Chinese thought they had discovered it in the roots of ginger, and the French laid claim to it in tincture of aloë. No one really knows the formula for the "elixir of youth."

But most psychologists and gerontologists agree that there is a formula for keeping young: an active intellectual life.

Many of us look for poor, inadequate substitutes in our rebellion against aging. We try through the way we dress, the use of beauty aids, the search for "miracle" drugs, all in vain attempts to look 35 at age 65. If we let this concern for lost youth become an obsession — and it's all too easy to do — we may be headed for severe emotional problems when we come face to face with old age.

It would be much wiser were we to live with reality and enter the later years on a more stable program of intellectual growth and development.

Keeping young in spirit by exercising the intellect is the answer. Solon, the Athenian statesman, put it this way when asked his secret of long life: "Learn some new thing every day."

There is much wisdom in this because what we don't use we lose, and it is only by using our brain that we will be able to preserve our mental functions which are so necessary to the enjoyment of life.

It is never too late to learn. The records of our adult education centers and our colleges and universities show that millions of people age 65 and over have acquired new knowledge and skills which they are parlaying into greater enjoyment of leisure time. The idea that older people cannot learn new things, according to psychologists, is a myth perpetrated on older people by themselves. They claim that older people feel that since they have been around, have seen, felt, and experienced "everything" there is to experience they have developed a "know-it-all" attitude. What they really mean, according to the experts, is that they are afraid of competing with younger students in our youth-worshipping society. Older people also have deep-rooted fears that they won't be able to retain newly-acquired knowledge and that they have no real interest in learning something new. Given sufficient interest, motives and self-confidence, the experts are convinced that the older person can continue to learn and stimulate his intellect if he really wants to, no matter what his age.

Dr. Jean Palus, the Belgian psychologist, believes that as we mature and receive motivation, we enjoy a corresponding gain in learning capacity and insight. He said: "The 40s and 50s and later years, when correctly entered, open the way for the well-balanced individual to new kinds of experiences, meditations — and — accomplishments which are entirely beyond the possibilities of young persons."

But, Dr. Palus pointed out, many older people fail to make anything of their later years. He blamed American society in particular for its callous attitude toward older people.

How we use it, with our family, friends, or our community depends entirely on us, a philosophy expressed by Grandma Moses in her autobiography, in a deceptively simple statement:

"I look back on my life like a good day's work, it was done and I feel satisfied with it. I was happy and contented. I knew nothing better and made the best out of what life offered. And life is what we make it, always has been, always will be."

The bidding:

East South West North

2 ♠ 2 ♣ Pass Pass

Opening lead: Six of ♠

Games and slams are the blood and thunder of contract bridge. However, even quiet part score contracts often provide the opportunity for declarer or a defender to exhibit his skill.

In the pass-out seat, North's balancing bid of one no trump is not like a no trump overall in the direct seat—it shows 11-15 points. East's heart rebid showed a better than minimum hand with probably a six-card suit, and South felt he had the values to compete. His bid of two spades ended the auction, and as the cards lay this was the only contract that could be made without help from the defenders.

The fact that West's heart lead was a singleton was soon revealed when East won the king and continued with the ace. West discarded a club. It seemed automatic to give West his ruff, but East paused to review the situation. West was unlikely to hold anything in the way of high cards, so two heart tricks and a ruff and East's two black aces were not going to be enough to set the contract. The only place to hope for another trick seemed to be via a club ruff, which was a distinct possibility, since East controlled the trump suit.

Accordingly, East shifted to ace and another club, won in dummy. Had declarer routinely led a trump, East would have "hopped up" with the ace and the defenders would have scored their ruffs for a one-trick set. But declarer was aware of East's designs, and found an elegant way to foil the defenders.

Before touching trumps, he cashed the king and ace of diamonds, and then led the jack of diamonds. East covered with the queen, and declarer discarded his jack of hearts!

This loser-on-loser play cut the enemy communications. East had no way to reach West to obtain a club ruff, and the defenders had to be satisfied with two heart tricks, a diamond and the two black aces.
