CAUGHT BY BANK CAMERA — A warrant has been issued for newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst who the FBI says is shown in this hidden camera photo taking part in a bank robbery in San Francisco, Monday. Three women previously linked with the terrorist Symbionese Liberation Army were also identified from hidden camera photos. Authorities said Miss Hearst may have been forced into taking part in the robbery.

'Tania' Hearst Named As Robbery Witness

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The FBI is hunting newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst on a material witness warrant which identifies her as a member of a heavily armed gang that robbed a bank and shot and wounded two passers-by. Authorities said she may have been forced into taking part in the stickup. Three other women previously linked to the terrorist Symbionese Liberation Army were being sought on bank robbery charges after the holdup Monday.

According to automatic photographs taken inside the bank and to accounts given by witnesses, nine persons were in-involved — the four women and an unidentified man who entered the bank and four persons who waited in one of two cars outside. The SLA claims it kidnaped Miss Hearst on Feb. 4. Miss Hearst was identified from photographs taken by hidden cameras during the robbery. Pictures showed her with a U.S. Army carbine slung over her shoulder. A U.S. attorney recommended bail at $500,000 each for her and the three other women if they are caught.

$10,960 CAPER — The FBI said the bandits took $10,960. Two cars in which the robbers fled were recovered nine blocks away, but a search of a 20-block area by the FBI and police failed to turn up further clues. The material witness warrant was issued for Miss Hearst in the absence of specific evidence indicating she participated in the hold-up "of her own free will" and because she may have "been acting under duress and coercion," FBI Special Agent Charles W. Bates said. He told reporters, "We are not ruling out the possibility that she was a willing participant. On the other hand, there is evidence she was not." Bates said a photo showing her with a gun also showed that "there was a gun held by another person on her." U.S. Atty. James L. Browning Jr. said, "If she was involved and investigation shows that, we're going to charge her as a bank robber. It is clear from the photographs she may have been acting under duress." 'STAY AND FIGHT' — It was the first word of Miss Hearst since an April 3 taped message from the SLA in which she scorned her parents and said she had decided to "stay and fight" with her abductors. Randolph A. Hearst, president and editor of the San Francisco Examiner, was in La Paz, Mexico, with his wife and two of his five daughters and could not be reached for comment on Monday's bank heist and Patricia's part in it. The three others being sought were identified by the FBI as Nancy Ling Perry, said to be the writer of a lengthy communique explaining SLA philosophy and goals; Michelle Soltysek, also known as "Mizmoon," earlier identified as an SLA leader; and Camilla Christine Hall. Authorities said the four white women and an unidentified black man walked into the Hibernia Bank's Sunset Branch at about 9:45 a.m. Monday. Earlier, witnesses gave varying accounts on the number of persons involved. "They told people to lie on the floor and then they went to the tellers' cages and took the money... They were in and out within two minutes," said security officer Vincent Greely. Greely and other witnesses said the group moved with military precision and communicated with hand signals.

Very Heavy Vote Turnout In Michigan

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP) — Voters in Michigan's 8th District turned out in heavy numbers in sunny, cool weather today to choose their new congressman in a special election that could affect President Nixon's impeachment prospects. The two candidates voted early, Republican James Sparling Jr., 45, near his Saginaw home, and Democratic state Rep. Bob Traxler, 42, in Bay City. A very heavy early turnout was reported in Bay City, the Democratic stronghold of this normally Republican district. The turnout also was good in Saginaw and in the rural areas visited by Nixon last Wednesday.

GOP officials were hoping that the Nixon visit would encourage a heavy turnout that would benefit Sparling. Some polls have put Traxler in the lead and the result is expected to be close.

'Mass in G's' Set For 7:30

"Mass in G," by Franz Schubert, will be presented at 7:30 p.m. today in the First United Methodist Church sanctuary. It is a free public service of the Fine Arts Department of Howard College, and will feature the choir under direction of Kenneth Sprinkle, accompanied by Mary Skalicky, and backed by the Permian Basin Chamber Music Society, James Gambino, founder, Brass and timpani instrumentalists from the Big Spring High School band will assist in the prelude and recessional.

Mississippi Floods

HATTISBURG, Miss. (AP) — The rains ended today in flood-stricken southern Mississippi. Officials said the floods left between 8,000 and 10,000 homeless. Seven persons drowned in the floods after a 16-inch rainfall in some areas — more than three times the state's normal rainfall for April.

$50 MILLION DAMAGES — Gov. Bill Waller, urged President Nixon to designate 34 of the state's 82 counties disaster areas in order to speed emergency aid. Most of the flooding was concentrated in a dozen counties. The governor estimated damages at $50 million not counting agricultural losses. Other officials said it was too early to make reasonable damage estimates.

National Guardsmen and Civil Defense workers reported hazardous conditions resulting from snakes looking for dry ground and fire ants that clung to objects swirling through the flood waters. Rescue workers were pelted with rain through much of Monday. Scattered rain continued in the area late Monday night, but ended early today.

Three Young Women Slain

DETROIT (AP) — The bodies of three young women were found in a West Side apartment early today, apparent victims of an execution-style slaying, police said. They said nearby apartment dwellers reported hearing gunfire, and officers found the bodies when they arrived to investigate. The hands of the victims were tied behind their backs and they had been shot in the back of the head, police said. All the victims were said to be in their late teens or early 20s.

Police also said the 5-year-old daughter of one of the women was found in the apartment. She was unharmed. Officers said a 19-year-old boyfriend of one of the dead discovered three gunmen in the apartment about 3 a.m., and dived out a second-story window when the men began firing at him. The man suffered minor injuries from the fall and was not hit by the gunfire, police added.

Omar Burleson Day Nearing

"Friends of Omar Burleson Day" will honor the 17th District Congressman as he visits Anson Saturday during the Congressional Easter recess.

Thousands of people are expected in the Jones County Courthouse square 7 p.m. Saturday to witness the unveiling of a life-size bust of Burleson and for a 5 p.m. Western barbecue and musical entertainment.

The bust, sculpted by Lubbock artist Juan Dell, will be erected on the courthouse's north side. The Hardin Simmons University Cowboy band and the Albany Fandangle will perform at the barbecue. Gene and Bobbie Moore will also sing patriotic songs. Before the barbecue, a tea will honor Mrs. Burleson 2:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church and a coffee is scheduled for the Congressman at the high school cafeteria, also at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets for the barbecue are $2.50 and will be sold Saturday in Anson. The main street of downtown Anson will be roped off throughout the afternoon and early evening during the celebration which honors a Congressman with 28 years service.

Steering committee chairman R. J. Gist announced invitations had been sent to Washington and Austin officials like the President, Vice-President, the Texas Senators and many others.

The World At - A - Glance

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — The army chief of staff in drought-ravaged Niger says he deposed President Hamani Diori to relieve "the catastrophic situation" in the poor, black African country. Radio Naimey reported "We could not remain with our arms folded" when the people were no longer assured a meal a day. Lt. Col. Seyni Kountie said in a broadcast Monday from Niamey, Niger's capital. He said Diori's administration, "in office ever since the country achieved independence from France in 1960, was guilty of 'injustice, corruption, selfishness and indifference.' There were no reports of violence during the takeover. Radio Niamey said calm prevailed and the 2,500-man army was in "full control."

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Hundreds of North and South Vietnamese troops battled for six hours in the central highlands south of Pleiku Monday, and the Saigon command claimed 182 North Vietnamese were killed. A spokesman said government casualties were 21 killed, 58 wounded and six missing. The South Vietnamese government also announced it was suspending the political talks with the Viet Cong in Paris because of increased cease-fire violations. The talks are supposed to arrange for a Council of National Reconciliation and Concord and for national elections, but they have made no progress in the 13 months since they began.

CHICAGO (AP) — The suicide rate among American women physicians is three times that of women in the general population, a study by two Philadelphia medical researchers discloses. Among male physicians, the rate was 1.15 times higher than for men in general. The study was conducted by Dr. Robert C. Steppacher, assistant professor of psychiatry, and Dr. Judith S. Mausner, associate professor of community and preventive medicine, at the Medical College of Pennsylvania. It is published in the April 15 issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Operating under strict, post-Watergate guidelines, the White House is trying to encourage communication with outside groups that seek the ear of the administration. The guidelines are designed to prevent improper intervention with regulatory agencies. William J. Baroody Jr., a special consultant to President Nixon, has been at work for nearly two months as the top White House aide responsible for deepening contact with business, labor and other interest groups.

Big Spring Bucks Trend; Major Crime Down Here

The Dallas Police Chief this week reported that crime in that city was up 23 per cent in comparison to the same period a year ago.

However, Big Spring crime is down in comparison to a year ago. The only crime up in Big Spring is theft. Citizens have been inclined in the first quarter of 1974 to steal everything that's loose.

Crimes down during the quarter include all of the big crimes such as murder, rape, aggravated assault, robbery, burglary and auto theft. Even vandalism is down from the previous year at the same quarter. Dallas is one of several metropolitan cities being studied for the possibilities that many crimes go unreported.

Odds Even, Ford Claims

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Vice president Gerald R. Ford says the odds are probably 50-50 that the House Judiciary Committee will recommend impeachment of President Nixon.

But Ford says he believes the full House will defeat an impeachment resolution if one is adopted by the committee when Congress returns from its Easter recess. He contended there is no evidence now that Nixon is guilty of any impeachable offense, "and I don't think there will be any evidence to change that verdict."

Ford offered his assessment during a news conference Monday after dedicating a senior citizen center.

THEY WON'T HAVE HIGHER FOOD BILLS Seeking To Reassure Consumers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Cost of Living Council is seeking to reassure consumers that food bills will not rise sharply in the months ahead as a result of the end of economic controls on retail and wholesale food sales.

RETAIL LEVEL — The council lifted price and wage controls from both the retail and wholesale food industries Monday, two weeks earlier than it had to. All of the administration's waning price controls program is scheduled to expire on April 30.

But the council said that while some stores might increase prices, the decontrol would not have any over-all adverse impact on food prices during the remainder of the year. Actually many consumers might hope for lower prices on the food shelf, since the cost of many agricultural products has been declining at the farm level for several weeks.

But a decline in food prices at the retail level is not in the works either, council officials say. Kenneth Fedor, head of the council's food division, said retail prices probably will remain about the same as food stores seek to recover some of the profits lost in earlier months when farm prices were rising sharply.

PRICE CONTROL — Although food prices rose 20 per cent last year and strained many a family food budget to the breaking point, the council said the retail food industry was not responsible. It said the industry generally complied very well with the administration's price control programs of the past 22 years and that profitability of food retailers only began to recover last year after a general decline from 1969 through 1972.

The council said of the $18 billion increase in consumer food expenditures last year, $12 billion went directly to pay for rising farm prices, $5.9 billion for higher costs of such items as transportation, wages and taxes, with only $100 million of the increase going to the food industry. Still subject to the administration's price control is much of the food manufacturing industry, including bakeries, the dairy industry, the cereal industry and processors of frozen foods. The canning industry was decontrolled previously. Only a few major industries remain subject to controls with only two weeks to go in the controls program.

Horse Racing, Betting Jockey Into Campaign

The so-called "Sport of Kings" was in the thick of the Texas political picture Tuesday, weeks before the vying politicians begin their stretch run.

L. Gov. Bill Hobby, running for re-election to his post, endorsed pari-mutuel betting at a speech Monday before the Houston Chamber of Commerce.

At the same time, Frances Farenthold campaigning for governor, told audiences in West Texas she should vote against horse race betting in May 4's primary election referendum.

Despite her statements, Mrs. Farenthold said she did not intend to make a big issue of horse racing, but she said Briscoe has not taken a stand and she thought at least one candidate should.

Hobby did. He said the ban on pari-mutuel betting "breeds disrespect for the law." He added: "I think it's foolish to have laws against something people are going to do anyway."

The lieutenant governor said pari-mutuel betting would delay a need for a tax increase and would be a good source of revenue for Texas.

BIG SPRING NEXT
Mrs. Farenthold, touring West Texas the rest of the week, took time out to complain about Texas telephone rates and again called for a Public Utilities Commission.

She also claimed that the leadership in Texas the last two years came not from the governor, but from the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the House.

Briscoe did not campaign Monday. His opponent scheduled stops Tuesday in Abilene, Snyder, Big Spring and Midland. She invades the Panhandle country Wednesday with stops set at Clarendon, Pampa and Amarillo.

Bob Bullock, a candidate for comptroller, was in Wichita Falls Monday. He charged that Texas loses millions of dollars annually in unremitted sales taxes. He called current comptroller office operations "18th Century."

Until repairs could be made, officials said that meant the affected area of Jefferson County would be without water if supplies in storage tanks were exhausted. Workmen labored through the night, but the job was expected to take considerable time.

Port Neches public works director Elwin Graham said his city of about 12,000 people had only enough water stored to last about a day—provided no fires broke out.

City Manager B. R. Wallace in Groves said the big storage tanks there would see the more than 18,000 residents of Groves through two to three days before more would be needed.

The break occurred in a canal used by the Lower Neches Valley Authority to deliver the water. Its employees reported water in the canal undermined a big drainage pipe running at right angles beneath the canal.

They said earth supporting the drainage pipe washed away and that section of pipe separated from the rest of the line, causing a levee to collapse.

ISRAEL AND U.S. AMBASSADOR CONFER — Israel's ambassador to the United Nations Yosef Tekoah, left and U.S. Ambassador John Scali confer prior to U.N. Security Council meeting Monday in New York. Tekoah said at the meeting that "if the Lebanese government permits Lebanon to become a lawless gangland, it is obvious that its neighbors will treat it as a gangland," referring to the Lebanese-based terrorist attack at Oiryat Shmonah in Israel Thursday in which 18 Israelis were killed.

DEADLINE
In Jerusalem, Israeli President Ephraim Katzir's office said he has granted the Labor party more time to name a premier to replace Golda Meir, who resigned last week and is now heading a caretaker government.

The statement said Katzir asked the country's biggest party to name its candidate "as soon as possible." Some sources said the president had given the Laborites until April 24, while other reports said his deadline was April 28.

Labor's leading contenders for the premiership are Minister of Labor Yitzhak Rabin; Yosef Almogi, the mayor of Haifa, and Justice Minister Haim Zadok.

COMBAT
Meanwhile, Israeli and Syrian forces on the Golan Heights, after close combat and Israeli air attacks Sunday, returned to the artillery exchanges that have characterized most of the fighting there in the past month.

Both the Israeli and Syrian defense ministers visited their troops at the front Monday. While the Israeli minister, Moshe Dayan, was on Mt. Hermon, Syrian shells hit the area, but Dayan was unhurt, the Israeli command said. Two Israeli soldiers were wounded.

Radio Damascus said Syria's defense minister, Mustafa Tlas, also made a quick trip to Mt. Hermon.

CONTEMPT
Foreign Minister Fouad Nafa of Lebanon told the 15-member council Israel would react with "indifference and contempt" to a condemnation of Egyptian Foreign Minister Ismail Fahmy accused Israel of endangering the fragile Middle East truce by its actions in Lebanon and on the Syrian front.

Israeli Ambassador Yosef Tekoah replied that Lebanon must "prevent the use of its territory for attacks against Israel."

"If the Lebanese government permits Lebanon to become a lawless gangland, it is obvious that its neighbors will treat it as a gangland," he declared.

A spokesman for the United States, Israel's traditional ally, told newsmen that any condemnation of Israel must be balanced by a condemnation of Palestinian terrorism.

Claims Sheriff Unlawfully Rubbed Out His Business

DALLAS (AP) — Trial of a federal suit in which a massage parlor owner claims Collin County Sheriff George Smith unlawfully rubbed out his business has been moved from the Northern to the Eastern District of Texas on a change of venue.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge Robert M. Hill, a Northern District judge, agreed to the change of venue Monday after hearing case.

IT WAS
Wayne Nickelson, a massage parlor operator, testified that Sheriff Smith warned him that his business in Collin County would be closed down during its first week. It was.

Nickelson indicated during questioning that he got the impression from the sheriff that his business would be closed one way or another.

Lawyers asked Sheriff Smith about allegations by a former deputy, Lawrence Selman, that preferential treatment was given to some massage parlors.

Smith testified the deputy, "said I was protecting massage parlors."

RESIGNED
Selman, who resigned as a Collin County deputy, was to testify, but Judge Hill granted the change of venue before the former deputy took the stand.

Motion to transfer the trial was by Assistant Dist. Atty. Elliott Knott, who contended the case should be heard in the Eastern District where Collin County is located. The case now is expected to be heard in federal court at Sherman.

Nickelson owns three massage parlors: two in Garland and one in Collin County.

After Southwest won its battle to stay at Love Field, at least temporarily, Texas International and Braniff International went to court for permission to remain at Love for commuter flights. TI won a legal decision and started its flights Monday.

In Houston, a spokesman for Texas International said the Dallas council's action was not final in that the ordinance readings. "We have the situation under study... We plan to continue the flights," a Texas International spokesman said.

LEGAL HASSLE
The actions by the two cities' governing bodies, which still must be approved on subsequent readings, are an attempt to end a controversy surrounding Love and D-FW.

Both Fort Worth and Dallas have been in a legal hassle with Southwest Airlines, Texas International and Braniff International. It all began when Southwest refused to move from Love Field to D-FW.

Southwest was formed after the two cities and the major airlines signed agreements to move to the new airport and recently won a court battle to stay at Love.

Attorneys for Southwest met into the night Monday to "examine what possible routes they might take," a spokesman for the airline said.

PERMISSION
"We felt like the (Dallas) city council would go by the wishes of the public they serve and would take the action they did," the spokesman added. "We were very disappointed."

Ask Court To Let Texas Keep Dual-Box Elections

WASHINGTON (AP)—Texas Atty. Gen. John Hill has asked permission to continue dual-box municipal bond elections until the U.S. Supreme Court determines whether the system is legal.

The request, given to Justice Lewis F. Powell on Monday, seeks to block a portion of a decision by a three-judge federal panel last month which enjoined Texas from using dual ballot boxes.

Texas adopted the dual-box method to meet state constitutional requirements for a vote of property owners while trying to conform to U.S. Supreme Court decisions requiring a broader popular vote on the bond issues.

Justice Powell gave no indication when he might act, but asked other parties in the legal dispute to respond.

Under the Texas system, one ballot box is used by voter-property owners and another by voters who do not own taxable property. Both boxes must approve proposed bonds issues.

Hill said legality of bond elections held now will be subject to legal attack should the Supreme Court uphold the Texas system. That would mean that bond buyers, a very wary group, simply would not buy Texas' municipal bonds until the issue is settled, he contended.

The state has some 3,000 political subdivisions and two to four of them will authorize bond issues on any given day, Hill said.

City Manager B. R. Wallace in Groves said the big storage tanks there would see the more than 18,000 residents of Groves through two to three days before more would be needed.

The break occurred in a canal used by the Lower Neches Valley Authority to deliver the water. Its employees reported water in the canal undermined a big drainage pipe running at right angles beneath the canal.

PTK Inducts 32 Students

Thirty-two students from Howard College at Big Spring were recently inducted into Phi Theta Kappa this week.

Iota Beta is the local chapter of PTK, the national junior college scholastic honorary fraternity. Membership is by invitation only, and initiates are selected from the Dean's List at the College.

Instating officers for the ceremony, which was held in the Student Union Building Parlor, was PTK president Charles Lewis. Other students participating in the rites were Gayla Williams, Arthur Dehlinger, James Ditmore, Barbara Coates, Kay Lou Caffey, Debra Speaker, and Susan Mayo.

Those inducted are Gina Allen, Kate Bradshaw, Darla Buchanan, Jason D. Campbell, Susan Colgan, Kerstin Cicardo, Thomas Cuddeback, Don Davis, Nancy Graves, Scott Hatfield, Wayne Kennedy, John Loggins, Diana Kohanek, Frank Long, Kay Morehead, Roy Osborne, Rebecca Palmer, Janice Platte, Terry Percell, Thomas Ray, Rufus Rowland, Jamie Russell, Susan Russell, Debra Schmaus, Kenneth Schuelk, Stephen Smith, Teresa Stewart, Stephen Stone, Neal Tindol, Ruben Sanchez, Reed Whitley, and Margaret Williams.

Another induction will be held next Wednesday for those candidates who were unable to attend this week's ceremonies, Mrs. King said. The next PTK regular meeting is this Sunday.

Irish 'Breezes' In Marathon

BOSTON (AP) — There's an old Irish saying in wishing friends good luck: "May the wind be always at your back." Young Neil Cusack must have had it in the back of his mind in winning the 78th Boston A.A. Marathon.

Cusack, a 22-year-old East Tennessee State College student from Limerick, Ireland, realized he had victory in hand Monday after conquering "Heartbreak Hill," about five miles from the finish line in the 26-mile, 385-yard run from Hopkinton to Boston.

"After all, I had the wind at my back," he said with a grin after covering the rugged course in 2 hours, 13 minutes, 39 seconds, the second fastest winning time in the annual Patriot's Day event.

Cusack, running in only his second marathon, set a blistering early pace and pulled away from the field. With less than two miles to go, he was just 40 seconds behind the record pace.

"My muscles went a bit lax after the hills," he said. "If I felt stronger, maybe I would have had a go at the record."

MARATHON WINNER — Neil Cusack, 22, from Limerick, Ireland and a student at East Tennessee State University, wears the honored laurel wreath Monday after winning the Boston A.A. Marathon. Cusack covered the 26-mile, 385-yard course from Hopkinton to Boston in two hours, 13 minutes and 39 seconds.

Two 'Alive' In Chicago Hockey Play

Chicago's hockey fans have two things going for them—the Black Hawks and the Cougars—and there may be some rejoicing for both teams tonight.

The highly-popular Black Hawks of the established National Hockey League try to wrap up their quarter-final series on home ice against the Los Angeles Kings, who trail three games to one in the best-of-seven series.

Meanwhile, at Springfield, Mass., the New England Whalers and the Cougars, tied at three games apiece, battle for a World Hockey Association semifinal berth in the deciding contest.

The Toronto Toros grabbed a WHA semifinal berth Monday night by downing the Cleveland Crusaders 4-1 and clinch their series 4 games to 1.

No NHL Stanley Cup action was scheduled Monday night.

Black Hawks Coach Billy Reay is expected to come back with goalie Tony Esposito against Los Angeles. Esposito, the Black Hawks' No. 1 goaltender and one of the NHL's best, was rested Sunday night when the Kings scored their first victory over Chicago, 5-1, after losing the first three games.

Esposito had played four games in five nights and Reay felt he deserved the rest. The loss was the Black Hawks' first in 15 games, dating back to March 20 during the regular season. The Boston Bruins, who completed a four-game sweep of the Toronto Maple Leafs Sunday night, await the survivor.

At Montreal tonight, the Canadiens play host to the New York Rangers. The teams are tied at two games apiece in their NHL quarter-final competition. The Rangers are out again to stop Yvan Cournoyer, who collected a total of five goals in the second and third games, but was limited to two shots by the handing of Bruce McGreger in the last meeting.

The Philadelphia Flyers, who eliminated the Atlanta Flames in four straight Sunday night, take on the New York-Montreal winner.

Chicago's Cougars hope to bounce back after having the dubious distinction Sunday of being the first WHA team ever to be shut out in the two years of playoff competition. New England netminder Al Smith turned in the 2-0 whitewashing. The Whalers are the defending champions of the WHA World Cup.

The Toros got two goals each from Tom Simpson and Pat Hickey in ousting Cleveland.

Nets Rack Kentucky As Ladner Sparkles

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — Wendell Ladner looks familiar to the Kentucky Colonels... and then again he doesn't.

The Colonels saw Ladner, a teammate until last Jan. 25, do his thing Monday night and spark the New York Nets to a 99-80 victory and a 2-0 lead in the best-of-7 American Basketball Association semifinal playoff series.

The Utah Stars also gained a 2-0 in the other semifinal, beating the Indiana Pacers 106-102.

In the National Basketball Association semifinals, the Boston Celtics, with a 1-0 advantage over New York, will face the Knicks tonight at Madison Square Garden, and the Milwaukee Bucks and Chicago Bulls open their series tonight at Milwaukee.

Ladner scored 15 points, hauled down 14 rebounds and had five assists and five steals. So much for the Ladner the Colonels once knew and loved. The unfamiliar part is that there's less of wild Wendell these days—about 10 pounds less.

The weight loss—the 6-foot-5 Ladner is down to 220—began about three weeks ago, according to Wendell and in late February, according to Coach Kevin Loughery.

"I've cut down to just about one meal a day. I think I'm a lot quicker," said the Nets' super sub.

Ladner also did a super job defensively on Kentucky's Dan Issel, the ABA's third leading scorer and the Colonels' top man. Issel made only four of 14 shots and scored a season low of nine points, four of them before Ladner came off the bench.

Ladner is known for his hustle and diving over and through tables, chairs and water coolers is the stuff of which ABA legends are made.

Shortly after Ladner entered Monday night's game, Issel wound up several rows deep among the spectators—"I got a little help," he reported—and a few minutes later, Kentucky's Walt Simon had to untangle himself from a basket support stanchion.

Julius Erving topped the Nets with 27 points and he, Brian Taylor and Ladner paced a 16-8 burst in the fourth quarter that stretched a 71-65 lead to 87-73 with 3:21 remaining.

Taylor added 16 points and John Williamson had 14. Lou Dampier was high for Kentucky with 16, while 7-2 Artis Gilmore, who manhandled Carolina in an earlier series, was held to 13 for the second game in a row by Billy Paultz.

Stars 106, Pacers 102

Ron Boone and Willie Wise paced Utah's balanced attack with 20 and 18 points, respectively, while Utah Coach Joe Mullaney credited defense for the victory over Indiana.

The only Indiana player able to score with any consistency was All-League forward George McGinnis, who collected 30 points.

Dierker Tosses 3-Hitter At LA

HOUSTON (AP) — Larry Dierker says he doesn't want to be the main man in the Houston Astros' pitching staff.

"I don't want to put that kind of pressure on myself," he said Monday night after he hurled a three-hitter and beat the San Francisco Giants 3-1. It was his second victory against no losses this young baseball season.

"We have good pitching staff and we've all got to do the job—not just one man or two," he said. "I'd rather be just one of five starters and do what I can. I just want to win them one at a time and hope I can win them most of the time."

Dierker, on a comeback from arm and shoulder problems that kept him out of action most of last season, allowed the Giants two hits and a run in the first inning. The Giants managed just one more hit the rest of way—Mike Phillips' single opening the fifth. He got as far as third.

Lee May and Ollie Brown each slammed home runs for the Astros, both off Giant starter and loser Mike Caldwell.

The Giants' run in the first came on Gary Matthews' single following Bobby Bonds' single and a hit batter.

The Astros tied it in the third on Roger Metzger's single.

Brown's double and a ground-out.

May hit his home run, his second of the season, in the sixth and Brown followed with his first of season in the seventh.

Dierker retired 10 straight batters at one stage and 20 of 22. He struck out eight and walked three in his first complete game since Aug. 31, 1972, when he beat the Philadelphia Phillies.

BOWA MAKES IT, BROCK DOESN'T Phils Win On The Bases

Two opposing runners tried for the extra base Monday night. Larry Bowa made it; Lou Brock didn't.

Bowa scored from first base on Del Unser's single in the eighth inning. Brock didn't score in the sixth after stealing second and watching Philadelphia catcher Bob Boone throw the baseball into center field.

"Brock tries to intimidate you on the bases," explained Philadelphia second baseman Dave Cash, who threw Brock out at the plate after chasing Boone's errant heave. "I saw him go, but I knew he couldn't outrun the ball."

And with Brock off the basepaths, the Cardinals couldn't outscore the Phillies—dropping a 3-2 decision despite two home runs by Reggie Smith.

In other National League games, the Atlanta Braves blanked the San Diego Padres 6-0 and the Houston Astros trimmed the San Francisco Giants 3-1.

In the American League, the Detroit Tigers nipped the Boston Red Sox 1-0, the Milwaukee Brewers topped the Baltimore Orioles 6-1, the California Angels blasted the Minnesota Twins 8-1, and the Oakland A's defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-3 in 13 innings.

Brock's daring play may have inspired the 155-pound Bowa's attempt.

"I've always made it a habit to run hard," said Bowa. "It was a gamble. If I'm out, I'm the goat."

But Bowa made good his gamble. Cash was on second and Bowa on first when Unser stepped a single off second baseman Ted Sizemore's glove. As the ball skittered towards the right field foul line, Bowa scampered homeward.

Cash had scored easily to give the Phillies a 2-1 lead, but Bowa's run proved the winner, as Smith slugged his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to cot the margin to 3-2.

Braves 6, Padres 0

Phil Niekro befuddled the Padres on four hits with his flutterball, striking out 13 and walking three batters in leading the Braves to victory. He allowed only singles while his teammates jumped on Randy Jones for three runs in the first inning and another in the second.

Atlanta picked up three more runs in the sixth, with Niekro singling one run in himself.

Henry Aaron left the game after five innings with a stiff right shoulder. Aaron has three hits—all of them home runs—in 21 at-bats this season.

Tigers 1, Red Sox 0

Norm Cash hit his first home run of the season in the fifth inning, and Joe Coleman pitched a three-hitter to carry Detroit past Boston.

Coleman pitched a two-hitter in his last outing—a victory over the New York Yankees—and followed Monday by giving up only singles to Rick Miller, Doug Griffin and Mario Guerrero.

Brewers 6, Orioles 1

Clyde Wright, who couldn't even bend over last season because of severe pain in his back, pitched a four-hitter to help Milwaukee beat the Orioles.

A two-run throw by Pedro Garcia and a single by Bill Baltimore starter Mike Cuellar contributed to a five-run Milwaukee second inning.

Wright surrendered the Orioles run in the second inning, but didn't allow a hit after that inning.

Angels 8, Twins 1

The Angels had 12 hits and took advantage of five Minnesota errors in crushing the Twins. Bill Slinger cruised in with a five-hitter, striking out seven and surrendering only an unearned Twins run in the sixth.

Joe Lahud homered and singled, driving in two runs, while Lee Stanton, Frank Robinson, Sandy Alomar and Mickey Rivers also had two hits each.

The Angels, 7-2, are off to the best start in their 14-year history.

A's 4, White Sox 3

Gene Tenace lined a single to center in the 13th inning, scoring John Donaldson to give the A's their victory.

Donaldson, who needs only 49 more days in the major leagues to qualify for his pension, had opened the 13th with a checked swing single over shortstop. He moved to second one out later when Joe Rudi grounded to Bill Melton, then Tenace delivered his game-winning hit.

MSA Sets Registration

The Big Spring Miss Softball America League will hold its registration and membership meeting next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Howard College Student Union Building.

Girls from eight-18 years of age are eligible, and must be accompanied by a parent or guardian at the sign-up. Entry fee is $5, and girls must also bring their birth certificate.

There will be a senior league team for girls from 16-18, and children 13-15 will participate in the majors. Minor will be for girls 10-12, and this year there will be competition for girls 8-9, in the mini-minors.

The mini-minors and minor will begin practicing May 13 and open play May 28, while the majors and seniors start working out May 23 and play their first games June 3.

Lamonica, California Sun Said Close To Agreement

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — After playing out his option in the coming season, Oakland Raider quarterback Daryle Lamonica had agreed to terms with the Southern California Sun as denoted Monday night by an official of the World Football League team.

The San Francisco Chronicle said it had learned that Lamonica would announce signing a million dollar, multi-year contract in news conference Tuesday.

Sun General Manager Curly Morrison said Monday night, however, that Lamonica had not signed with the team although negotiations with the Raider quarterback were continuing and agreement could be near.

"I'll say this, we're fairly close but we still have some negotiating to do," Morrison said.

Lamonica, 33, would be the second quarterback to leave the Raiders for the WFL. Ken Stabler signed a million dollar contract with the Birmingham Americans starting in 1975 after completion of two years remaining on his Raider contract.

Lamonica would be free to join the Sun for the 1975 season.

EXPECT PRICE RISE

Coming Weeks Best Time To Buy Beef

LUBBOCK — The cattle feeding industry is experiencing its most severe financial crisis in history, but while it is losing there should be a buyer's market at the meat counter.

April and early May will be the best time in the foreseeable future to take advantage of lower beef and pork prices, according to Texas Tech University agricultural economist Willard F. Williams.

"Lower prices in the face of high feed costs and other costs have led to severe losses for cattle feeders, losses ranging from $50 to as much as $200 per head," he said.

"The total loss to the industry over the past six months probably ranges between $700 million and $1 billion," according to Williams who is a noted market analyst.

The smart shopper, he said, should look for the better cuts of beef and may even find that meat is a better bargain than combination dishes.

"Specials probably will be run on the better cuts of beef," said Williams, "and retail prices should be lower now than at any time during the remainder of the spring and summer."

Specials and general prices will not be as attractive as they were in earlier years, but they will represent advantages over prices which may be expected for much of the remainder of the year, the professor said.

The beef industry was still not fully recovered from the effects of shipping difficulties and the housewives' boycott of a year ago when it ran into a new nest of troubles this year. The trucking strike came along after cattle had been backed up in food lots by some packing house shutdowns. As the glut continued, the market on finished grades skidded, but principally at the producer, wholesale level and not much at retail levels. But producers can't hold cattle on feed too long; they're having to sell at lower prices.

Williams said that prospects are that producers will cut back on producing and feeding cattle to make supply match demand, hence advancing prices in the long run.

Convention Delegates For PTA

New officers were elected at a recent meeting of the Airport Parent-Teacher Association, with Mrs. Jerald Burgess accepting the presidency. Serving with her will be Mrs. John Branham, vice president; Miss Mary Echert, secretary; and Mrs. James Norman, treasurer.

It was announced that the 16th District will hold its annual spring conference and board banquet April 29 at the Ramada Inn. Reservations should be made by calling 267-5333, 263-4903 or 263-4933.

Two delegates were named to the national convention in San Antonio May 19-22. Headquarters will be the Hilton Hotel, and approximately 3,000 are expected to attend.

Room count was won by Miss Mary Eckert's sixth grade class, and the door prize went to J. L. Rankins' sixth grade class.

Single Parents Slate Activities For April

Social events for the remainder of the month have been announced for Parents Without Partners. An educational meeting for families will be held at 8 p.m., Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Leta Metcalf, 622 Tulane, with Tom Allen as cohost. Allen is in charge of the program, "Harmony, Happiness and the Home." Friday's event will be "family fun and games" at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Tommy Eason, 1200 Michael, and on Saturday, a family pot luck supper is slated to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Wanda Nichols, 1601 E. 5th.

Mrs. Brewster Reviews Book

Ministers in the early West faced their problems with "Gus in Hand, Bible in Pocket," which was the title of a book reviewed by Mrs. O. T. Brewster at the monthly meeting of St. Mary's Guild of the Episcopal Church.

As Mrs. Brewster told it, these early day preachers fought bravely and preached loudly. They were "feelers" rather than leaders, as they rode through the early frontier being sensitive to the needs of the people. They were often showmen, not very well educated or logical, but "to them we owe much of our present culture."

The meeting was held in the church parish hall with Mrs. Florence Lenox presiding and Mrs. John Hodges giving the devotion. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Everett Lomax.

The next meeting will be May 20.

MRS. M.L. ADAMS

Couple United In Marriage

Miss Sandra Jean Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Snyder of Lamesa, and Michael Leighton Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams, Big Spring, were married April 6 in First United Methodist Church, Lamesa. The Rev. Don Yarbrough, Levelland, officiated.

Adams is a student at West Texas State University. Mrs. Adams, a graduate of WTSU, is teaching in Lamesa. The couple will reside in Big Spring this summer and move to Canyon when classes resume in the fall.

The bride was attired in a white satin A-line gown with wide cuffs trimmed in lace. The bodice and sleeves were trimmed with small satin buttons, and the lace was repeated at the neckline, hemline and on the train of the gown. Her floor-length veil flowed from a headpiece of matching lace adorned with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Jimmie Williams, sister of the bride, was matron of honor; and bridesmaids were another sister, Miss Paula Jo Snyder; and sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Teri Adams, Big Spring, and Mrs. James W. Hill, Ft. Meade, Md. They wore dotted Swiss dresses in pastel colors, styled with fitted waistline and ruffles trimming the high neckline and sleeves. Their straw hats were adorned with bands matching their dresses, and each carried a white wicker basket filled with mixed flowers.

Lt. James W. Hill, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man, and groomsmen were Pete Shaffer, Big Spring; Mike McCormick, Cisco; and Steve Sydow, Canyon. Jim Bob Owens, Austin; Mark Walker, Canyon; and Jimmie Williams served as ushers. The ring bearer was Kevin Duane Williams.

Miss Brenda Railsback of Canyon provided music for a reception in the parlor of the church. Following the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to Dallas.

Roy Southards Announce Son

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Southard, 3611 Dixon, announce the adoption of their son, David Roy, April 11, 1974. David was born May 18, 1969. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wappler of Port Arthur, and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Southard of Topeka, Kans.

ABWA Has Meeting At La Posada

Mrs. Claire Conger was initiated into Cactus Chapter, American Business Women's Association, during a dinner meeting Monday evening at La Posada.

Mrs. Cecil McDonald, president, introduced two guests, Miss Nancy Plozman and Miss Carrie Byrd. The announcement was made that Mrs. David Walker has been chosen as the chapter's Woman of the Year.

Guest speaker was Mrs. F. D. Williams of the Hobby Center who spoke on hobbies, saying they provide relaxation. "Anyone with a hobby is a more satisfied person," she said. Members participated in the program by telling their hobbies, and Mrs. Williams demonstrated the art of quilting in which decorative items are created from rolled strips of paper.

The vocational talk was by Mrs. James Abbe, owner of Zeld's Beauty Shop.

Vasectomy

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married for six years, and I definitely have made up my mind that I do not want any children. My husband says if that's the way I feel about it, it's all right with him.

The problem is that I want him to have a vasectomy — an operation which will make him sterile. (My brother-in-law had one, and he says it is a breeze.) My husband says he doesn't want that kind of operation, and he thinks it's up to me to either take the necessary precautions or have an operation to make me sterile.

I would like your opinion.

NO CHILDREN THANKS

DEAR NO: Since it was your decision to have no children, I think it's up to you to take the precautions instead of insisting that your husband subject himself to a vasectomy. Be realistic. If you were to divorce your husband (or die) and he were to marry again, he and his next mate might want children. As for a vasectomy being a "breeze," one man's breeze is another man's gale.

DEAR ABBY: I am so heartsick this morning after getting very little sleep last night.

My sister-in-law informed me yesterday that my husband (her brother) plays golf just to get away from me!

I was so crushed I couldn't find the words to answer her. I've been married for 35 years and always thought I had a good marriage — and now this. Please tell me how to handle it.

MRS. M.

DEAR MRS. M.: Is there a possibility that she was joking? If not, she clearly meant to hurt you, and the only way to deal with someone who intentionally hurts you is from a distance, and as infrequently as possible.

DEAR ABBY: I've been dating this nice young man exclusively for seven months. He didn't ask me to go steady. I just don't care to go with anyone else. He doesn't go with anyone else either, so I guess you'd say we are going steady.

My problem is my mother. She has told me that she doesn't want me to date him anymore. Just like that! The reason: He's too short! (He's exactly my height — 5 foot 6.)

I'm not a child. I'm 20 years old, but I live at home with my parents; I'd move out, but they need the money I pay for my room and board.

This fellow is an outstanding person, Abby. He's an assistant professor, and although he doesn't make much now, he has a promising future. Besides, he is good to me, and I care for him. I'd appreciate your opinion.

NO NAME, PLEASE
DEAR NO: Your mother is short — on common sense. Tell her that her objections to the young man are not valid, and that you measure a man from his eyebrows up.

CONFIDENTIAL TO T.P.C.: Urge him to put his affairs in order. He may LIVE.

Student Named To Dean's List

Mrs. Kristi Brashear Sturdivant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brashear, Hale Center, and granddaughter of Mrs. Vernon Webb, Rt. 1, Big Spring, has been named to the dean's honor roll at the University of South Carolina, Columbia, S.C., for the fall term with a 3.5 grade average. She is a sociology major and graduate of Hale Center High School.

Mrs. Sturdivant and her husband, Lt. Charles Sturdivant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sturdivant, are now residing in England where he is assigned to a U.S. Air Base.

Sgt. and Mrs. Dennis Michael Polinske, 1502-A Lincoln, announce the birth of a son, Dennis Michael Jr., at 8:42 p.m., April 10, at Medical Arts Hospital. The infant weighed 9 pounds, 5 1/2 ounces. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Polinske, Milwaukee, Wis., and the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Schaefer of Coahoma.

Ritual Of Jewels Held By Sorority Chapter

The Beta Sigma Phi Ritual of Jewels was performed for Mrs. Kenneth Bowen, Mrs. Dennis Howard and Mrs. Robert Penner during a Thursday meeting of Beta Omicron Chapter in the Howard home, 2500 Morrison. A transfer ritual was held for Mrs. Gene Long and Mrs. Cecil Walton. Mrs. Bill McIntosh presided, introducing five guests, Mrs. Cipriano Rodriguez, Mrs. Gary Norsen, Mrs. Dennis VanderVen, Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. Ernie Martinez. The chapter donated $25 to the "Dollars for Danny" fund to assist a member of the sorority in another city.

It was announced that the chapter will have five pledges in the city-wide ritual slated this evening in First Federal Community Room. Coming events include the annual Founder's Day banquet April 25 and a "surprise" breakfast within the month. A called meeting will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Jesse Curry, 2715 Central.

A program on literature was given by Mrs. Tom Wall.

Now's the time to get your air conditioning ready for another summer.

At this time of year, your air conditioning serviceman can probably work your call more easily into his schedule. He'll get your unit ready to deliver dependable and efficient cooling all through the summer. A properly maintained air conditioning system cools with maximum efficiency and that's an important step towards efficient use of energy. Although Texas Electric does not service, sell or install air conditioning equipment, we do want you to get full value and top efficiency from your electric service. For more ideas on how to use your electric service wisely, call us, we'd like to help.

Patients Get Easter Treat

Patients at the VA Hospital here get an unexpected treat Sunday, when they were presented with eggs filled with dollar bills rather than candy.

The Disabled American Veterans chapter No. 44 of Lubbock supplied the treat.

Mrs. Ray Windsor passed out the eggs.

"It wasn't the dollar but the thought that counted. It was something really special for them — more than successful," Mrs. Windsor said.

The Lubbock group puts on a bingo game at the hospital each month, giving away small cash prizes. Since the bingo game fell on Easter Sunday this year, the group decided to go one step further and brought the bunny costume.

Money for the bingo games and Easter visit comes from dues and the forget-me-not drive, Mrs. Windsor said.

Diabetes Seminar Slated Monday

The second in a series of five seminars on diabetes will be held Monday, 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria of Midland Memorial Hospital.

The topic, "You and Your Diet," will be sponsored by the Permian Basin Dietetic Association and will be under the direction of Sister Aniceta Marie, R.D., director of dietetics at Midland Memorial Hospital. She also is president of the Permian Basin Dietetic Association.

The seminar will be a panel discussion, followed by a question and answer period. Members of the panel and their topics are: Mrs. Miriam Curry, R.D., who will speak on nutrition and the importance of good eating habits; Mrs. Sibel Spielman, R.D., on the use of prepared foods in the diabetic diet and how to read prepared and convenience food labels for their content; Mrs. Lorna Miller, R.D., on diet snack foods and diet soft drinks; and Mrs. Della Solis, R.D., on recent trends on the diabetic diet.

There is no admission charge to the seminar and all diabetics, their families, and any interested persons are invited to attend. Questions may be directed to Mrs. Linnie Davidson, secretary, (AC 915 682-0314), 900 W. Storey, Midland 79700.

Cactus Planted At Park Site

Members of the Clean-Up Shape-Up campaign and Big Spring's garden clubs planted 15-20 varieties of cactus this morning near the site of the Big Spring in Coamanche Trail park.

Dr. Paul Koshi tagged the cacti. Campaign members present included Odell Womack, Mrs. Floyd Mays and Johnny Johansen.

Mrs. Womack urged all Big Spring citizens, businessmen, etc., to participate in this (Clean-Up Shape-Up) litter control and beautification program.

"The city's been doing great work in this campaign, but we also urge all property owners to clean up their business locations," she added.

Mrs. Mays and G. P. Morrison, region co-chairmen of all clean-up committees, urged regional and district chairmen to report in on their litter control programs.

Group To View Sewer Liners

City Manager Harry Nagel, Harold Hall, councilman; Roy Crim, city engineer and Bill Brown, head of the sanitation department, left today for El Paso to study problems concerned with water infiltration problems here.

The group is to view a plastic line for sewer line in quicksand in the El Paso area, similar to the problems of infiltration here. The city is required to improve the problem by June, according to the water quality board.

Adult Leaders In 4-H Meet

Day-long training sessions this month in Mason and in San Angelo are expected to draw 4-H adult leaders from throughout the 20 counties in District 7 of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The training will be in different 4-H projects ranging from photography to minigardens. April 20 in the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at San Angelo.

BS People Give Sparingly To Entries In State Races

One contributor in Snyder gave more than everyone in Big Spring toward Democratic legislative and senatorial campaigns, the first campaign financial statements show.

Cullen H. Toombs, Snyder, gave Borden County Judge C. Glenn Toombs, candidate for the state legislature, $300.

All of the Big Spring contributions to Democratic legislative and senatorial campaigns totaled $125 on March 25.

LOCAL DONATIONS

John L. (Jack) Watkins, 1200 Pennsylvania St., gave the only local candidate for state legislature the only contribution she shows on the first campaign expenditure report. He contributed $50 to Mary Thomas.

Toombs, who spent more and received more than either of his two opponents, got $25 each from two local men.

The two were C. Roscoe Cone, 1716 Gregg St., and Halvard T. Hansen, 1004-11th Place.

Nobody from Big Spring was listed by Michael H. Ezzell, Snyder, as having contributed.

One Big Springer donated to a Democratic state senatorial candidate from the 30th District. Ray Farabee, Wichita Falls, reported $25 coming from Charles Bell.

Charles Finnell, the Democrat from nearby Holiday, did not show any contributions coming from Big Spring before March 25.

W. FALLS BACKING

Most contributors for both candidates came from the Wichita Falls area.

Contributions and loans to Finnell totaled $10,592. The only loan came from the First National Bank, Olney, and was for $802.44. All the rest was contributions.

The Political Action Committee of Texans for Better Transportation, Austin, accounted for the largest single donation, $300. Other donations from the organization totaled $100.

Of the contributions, goods and services given in lieu of money came to $168.

In the Farabee campaign, contributions and loans totaled $14,113, including $1,175 given in forms other than money. Expenditures reached $12,894.

BIG GIFTS

Of the contributions, 34 were for amounts larger than $100. This contrasts to the Finnell campaign which reported only a few contributions over $100.

Lake Finnell, Farabee concentrated his advertising budget on newspapers with some going to billboards. Two Abilene television stations and the Colorado City radio station profited from his advertising in three instances.

He purchased voting lists in a number of cities, but not in Big Spring.

A Colorado City radio station was the only broadcast media which had advertised for Finnell.

Basin History Unit To Meet

The Permian Historical Society's 15th annual meeting will be held Saturday in the newly constructed building on the west campus of The University of Texas at the Permian Basin.

According to John Dunagan, Monahans, President, the meeting is open to all past and present members of the society and the public.

During the morning session, presided over by James Orbeck, vice president, Cyril J. Perusek, Midland, will speak on "Surface Geology of Permian Basin" and Dr. Roger M. Olien, associate professor of history at UT Permian and executive director of the society, will talk on "History of the Republican Party in Midland County."

Afternoon speakers include Dr. Samuel D. Myers, El Paso, who will speak on "Writing a History of the Permian Basin," Hec Myers, Carlsbad, N.M., who will recall "Phoenix—Sin Town on the Pecos."

Other contributors included Hubert Walker, O'Donnell, $100; Dr. Harry Tubbs, Post, $100; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Connor, Lamesa, $100; and Dewey Everett $100.

REP RACE

In the legislative race, Ezzell reported spending $521.77. Graham Smith, Snyder, was the lone contributor, giving $25.

Likewise, Watkins was the only contributor to Mrs. Thomas' campaign.

She reported spending $678.51. Toombs spent $1,473.68 and received $750 in contributions plus $400 worth of services from Ralph Miller, Fluvanna.

Other contributors included Hubert Walker, O'Donnell, $100; Dr. Harry Tubbs, Post, $100; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Connor, Lamesa, $100; and Dewey Everett $100.

Jaycees Hear Candidate

Michael Ezzell of Snyder, candidate for state representative from the 63rd Legislative District, spoke to a group of 30 Big Spring Jaycees Monday during the group's regular weekly noon luncheon.

Ezzell talked on the Constitutional Convention, and some of the changes being made in the 100-year old Texas Constitution.

The Jaycees are preparing for election of officers next Tuesday, with 18 members already nominated. Eddie Cole is the only nominee for president, while Robbie Robertson and Mike Carey are running for External Vice President and Perry Culwell and Larry Miller are in the race for Internal Vice President.

Morris Molpus, Keith Nichols and Mike McCreary have filed for secretary and Travis Hunter, Jack Martinez and Jim Tucker are the nominees for treasurer. Five directors will be chosen from the group of John Gizzle, Don Doubleday, Q. T. Coats, Delvin Davis, Donald Anderson, Dr. John Key and Marvin Boyd.

Harlow winds up Government Job

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — Bryce N. Harlow has ended his job as White House counselor.

Harlow was officially off the job Sunday. He began working at the White House when President Nixon took office in January 1969, left in June 1970 and returned last June to help the President through Watergate and other problems.

He returned to the Proctor & Gamble Manufacturing Co. as a vice president.

Jean Shepherd Is Master Of Blue-Collar Nostalgia

NEW YORK (AP) — Radio humor, says Jean Shepherd, is an art "rarer than a five-winged butterfly." He should know. He's been at the art here since 1958. This year, he was set loose nationally on NBC Radio.

For those who've never heard him, Shepherd isn't your usual Manhattan wiseguy. He's more of a free association cross between Mark Twain and Herb Shriner.

It's a pity he's only heard a few minutes on NBC's "Emphasis" on weekdays and on "Monitor" weekends. He has an uncanny ability to bring genuine Americana into verbal bas-relief.

Born in Chicago, he was raised in a northern Indiana steel mill town he never identifies, apparently for fear the Chamber of Commerce will someday hire a hit man to say hello with a load of hot slag.

Although his NBC effort and most of his local radio work concern modern persons, themes and events, much of Shepherd's fame stems from his spoken and written observations about youth in a rotting town.

He spins magnificent yarns about crappie fishing in fetid ponds, men who drink lots of boiler-makers, life at Warren G. Harding School and mythical boyhood pals like Schwartz, Flick, Broder and Cosnowski.

He is considered a master of blue-collar nostalgia. He also considers this honor a bum rap. "I'm not a reminiscer," he grouched. "I'm no more of a reminiscer than Bill Cosby. No, I'm serious. I've often wondered why, when Cosby talks about his mythical boyhood friends, he's never called nostalgia."

Shepherd, who does a 45-minute show on a local station here each weeknight, finds his audience a bit weird. They usually seem to recall only his dissertations on growing up in northern Indiana.

"I don't know why that is," he said. "I've discovered that any time you mention anything to do with childhood on the air that's as powerful to people as sex."

"The next thing you know, they think that's all you ever talk about," he said, referring to childhood. "I'll do three shows of satire on Norman Mailer and never hear a word about it, except from out of town."

Coeds Capture Barrels Title

Kay Proctor of the Howard College rodeo team returned with first place in barrel races at Durant, Okla., and Southwestern State College at Weatherford Sunday.

Tom Pettigrew took second and Carolyn Roane, fourth, in barrel racing.

As a team, the girls are ranked second regionally by the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association. They placed second among the 20 teams at Durant.

At Weatherford and Durant the girls' team trophy went to Eastern New Mexico and Tarleton took the boys' team trophy.

Miss Pettigrew won pole bending and Miss Proctor was second in barrel racing in an American Junior Rodeo Association competition at Sweetwater.
