SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Three weeks before Patricia Hearst was abducted, police found a Symbionese Liberation Army notebook containing cryptic references to her, the San Francisco Chronicle reported today. The code's father, newspaper magnate Randolph A. Hearst, told the Chronicle the notebook was "unquestionable proof" his daughter had "in no way" arranged her own kidnapping.

DETROIT (AP) — Stock market analysts predict the Big Three auto makers collectively will report their worst first-quarter profits in more than a decade. The analysts say January-through-March earnings for General Motors, Ford and Chrysler will range from very poor to terrible because of a severe sales slump coming on the heels of a banner year in 1973. Automakers attribute the drop to consumer uncertainty over the economy and the fuel situation.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is pondering what to do about a sweeping subpoena that orders President Nixon to turn over a mass of tapes and documents to be used in the Watergate cover-up trial of his former top lieutenants. The subpoena issued by U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica directs Nixon to give the Watergate special prosecutor tapes and documents covering 64 presidential conversations.

40 Shoot Way Out Of Prison

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Forty prisoners armed with submachine guns shot their way out of a downtown Rio prison this morning, and seven persons, including one guard and one military policeman, were wounded, police said. The convicts fanned out through the north and south of the seaside city and gun battles were reported in at least five locations as police threw up barricades and surrounded small bands of convicts. Police said eight prisoners had already been recaptured and appealed to the public over the radio to remain calm because the situation was being "brought under control."

Girl Search Continues

DALLAS (AP) — A 17-year-old Kansas detention home runaway says he was thrown from a truck here early Thursday while his 14-year-old female companion was forced to remain with the truck driver. Sheriff's officers said they would continue a search for the missing pair today. A Dallas sheriff's spokesman said Michael Stuart McNamara, 17, told deputies he left the detention home near Salina, Kan., and joined with Carol Young, 14, also of Salina. McNamara said he and the girl made their way to Norman, Okla., before hitching a ride with a truck driver McNamara said was Houston bound. The youth told officers he was hit on the head with a piece of pipe and dumped out of the truck in Dallas early Thursday. He was not seriously injured.

Inflation Fire Fueled By Higher Food Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sharply higher food prices and a record jump in nonfood commodities pushed the cost of living up 1.1 per cent in March as the worst inflation in a quarter of a century held its grip on the economy, the government reported today.

The Labor Department said last month's rise sent consumer prices 10.2 per cent higher than a year ago, the most in any 12-month period since an identical rise in 1948.

For the first quarter of 1974, consumer prices rose at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 14.5 per cent, highest in any three-month period since the first quarter of 1951 during the Korean War.

GLOOMY NEWS
The gloomy economic report was the second in two days. The Commerce Department reported Thursday that the Gross National Product — the nation's total output of goods and services — fell at a 5.8 per cent annual rate, the first decline in three years and the biggest drop in 16 years.

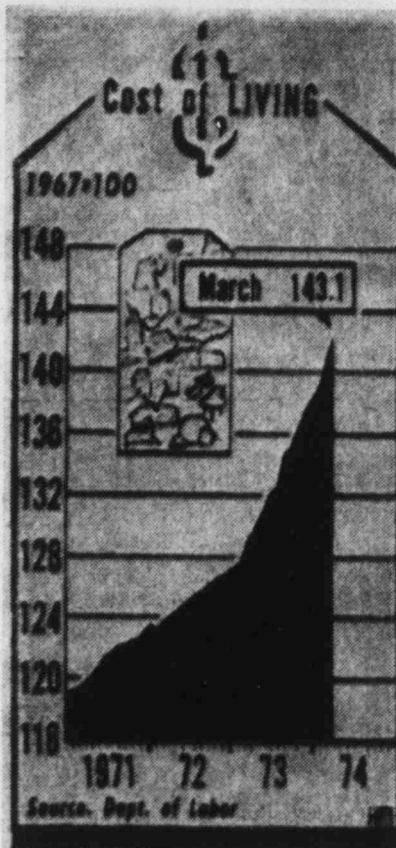

Although the Nixon administration says it expects the economy to turn around in the second half of the year, some government analysts predict the next three months will be as bad or worse than the inflation for the first three months of the year.

With inflation continuing unabated, the Labor Department said buying power of American workers fell nine-tenths of 1 per cent in March to a level 4.7 per cent below a year ago. It marked the biggest annual decline since the government began keeping that statistic in 1964.

The Consumer Price Index climbed last month to 143.1 of its 1967 average, meaning that it cost consumers $143.10 to buy the same variety of retail goods and services that $100 bought in 1967.

(AP WIREPHOTO CHART) COST OF LIVING UP — Chart shows rise in Consumer Price Index to 143.1 in March as cost of living rose 1.1 per cent, the government announced in Washington today.

This means it cost consumers $143.10 to buy the same variety of retail goods and services that $100 bought in 1967.

Two Groups Will Fly To Anson

At least eight Big Spring citizens will fly to Anson Saturday in two private planes to participate in Omar Burleson Day festivities. They include George Zachariah, Jack Worsham, O. H. Ivie, Joe Pickle, Ralph Brooks and Arnold Marshall. Ralph McLaughlin and R. H. Weaver will fly their own planes.

Wins Partial Victory With Couple Guns

HOUSTON (AP) — A gas station operator who barricaded himself in his station, defying constables ordered to evict him at the request of Mobil Oil Co., won a partial victory today.

Police said Art Ballard armed himself with a shotgun or high-powered rifle and said he would meet eviction notices with resistance.

But Harris County Constable Walter Rankin said a few minutes later that Mobil had decided not to push ahead with eviction at this time, but instead await a justice of the peace court jury trial next week.

Mobil had filed suit in justice court asking that Ballard be evicted after the company failed to renew the lease on the station he had operated for years. The eviction notice was filed before the jury trial because Mobil posted a bond of $10,000 with the court and Ballard said he could not afford to post a $20,000 cash bond as required by law for damages if he lost the suit.

Mobil officials could not be reached for comment on the action today.

AREA WELCOMES RAINFALL

Tornado Near Here Does No Damage

A tornado dipped out of the clouds at 7 p.m. Thursday and almost touched the ground nine miles southwest of Webb Air Force Base.

About the same time, Lamesa law enforcement notified the Big Spring police that strong winds, showers and hail had hit the Dawson County area and were moving toward Big Spring.

Around 7:30 p.m. the first real rainfall in 1974 hit the edge of Big Spring and raced across the city — much welcomed by residents tired of sand storms.

LIQUOR STORE BURNS
Lightning or an electrical short is believed to have caused a fire at Kent's Liquor store, East Highway, resulting in an estimated $15,000 to $20,000 in damage about 11:30 p.m. Thursday. Water and fire damaged the front end of the store, a store spokesman said.

Light hail fell throughout the city, heavier in some parts of town than in others. Some residents with rain gauges claimed up to an inch but the official measurement at the Big Spring Experiment Station measured only .18. They said that north of the station, the rain only measured .09 before tapering off. Luther claimed 2 as did Coahoma, and Forsan claimed only a trace.

Ackerly reported it only had a trace. Western Hills measured .45 and Leland Wallace, 10 miles north on the Snyder highway had 1.2. One rain gauge in a pasture north of town measured 1.4 but another trapped only .6. The eastern part of the city also measured .6.

THREE CAR WRECK
A three-vehicle wreck occurred at 11th and Goliad at 9:30 p.m. in the rain with Thomas C. Stuckwell, 1110 Runnels, Wynona J. Watson, 2903 Lawrence, and Juanice Key Anderson, 1109 E. 6th, were involved in a three-car pile-up with no injuries.

Winds followed the rain and peaked at about 10 p.m. at 41 miles per hour, according to the U.S. Experiment Station.

Syria Claims Missiles Down Seven Warplanes

By The Associated Press
Syrian and Israeli warplanes roared into action for the second straight day today as ground fighting raged for key positions on Mt. Hermon and along the 40-mile Golan Heights front.

DIRECT HITS
The Syrian command said its MIGs "scored direct hits" on Israeli positions, "causing heavy losses in men and equipment," but Israel reported no casualties in the air strikes.

The Syrians also claimed their missiles downed seven Israeli warplanes, but Israel said all its planes returned safely.

The Tel Aviv command said the Israeli jets attacked artillery and troop emplacements six miles behind Syria's front lines, hitting Syrian targets for three hours on the slopes of Mt. Hermon and on the southern Golan front.

In Lebanon, nine Israeli planes were seen striking a Syrian radar station on the peak of the Anti-Lebanon Mountains just east of the Syrian-Lebanon frontier. There was no immediate estimate of the damage or comment from the Syrian command.

Control of Mt. Hermon is sought by both sides because its 9,200-foot peak commands a view for miles into Lebanon, Israel and Syria, and possession could be used as a trading point in disengagement negotiations.

A Syrian communique said the downed Israeli planes were seen falling into Israeli-held territory on Mt. Hermon itself.

An Israeli military spokesman said "all our planes returned safely."

'NONSENSE'
Syria also claimed that Israeli planes had bombed their own positions "inflicting casualties on their own troops" at Tel Al Arayess in the Golan Heights during confusion created by the Syrian missile attack. Israel called the claims "nonsense."

Groundbreaking Ritual Scheduled For Clinic

Ground will be broken Saturday 2 p.m. to mark the formal start of construction on another increment of a major medical complex in Big Spring. It will be the new Malone & Hogan Clinic, adjacent to the 150-bed new hospital under construction by the Hospital Corporation of America.

The new clinic facility, designed to accommodate 30 or more physicians will be located immediately east of the new hospital, and, like the hospital, is expandable if and when the demand warrants. The clinic currently has 20 physicians.

Plans call for a one-story administrative-reception area, plus three stories on the medical center. Each of these floors will be connected by a 50-ft. corridor to the hospital floor which matches the type of practice on the same floor of the clinic.

SPEAK BRIEFLY

Members of the clinic board will be seated on the platform and following the invocation and official welcomes, Dr. P. W. Malone and Dr. J. E. Hogan, founders of the clinic that had its beginning nearly two score years ago, will speak briefly. Kasch Bros., Big Spring will build the structure.

Contained in the building will be some 50,000 square feet of space. The steel-frame and concrete-decked structure will have exterior walls of white marble impregnated in acrylic and sealed on bonding extended from expandable metal lath. Interior walls will be on vinyl covered sheetrock on steel studs.

No final figure has been put to the building, but it will cost considerably in excess of a million and a half dollars.

As mentioned, it will be on the east side of the hospital and will face north. There will be a circular drive under a canopy entering off the main driveway from Eleventh Place West. Entrance also may be had from the parking areas on the east side of the clinic. Employee and physician parking will be at the rear. There also is an emergency and a supply entrance from the east.

The first floor will include the reception and registration desk from which the elevator shaft will rise to the second and third floors. A separate corridor leads to the X-ray and radiology lab. Also contained in the space is the medical director's office and ancillary rooms, the administrative offices, a main supply center and lounges and restrooms.

FIRST FLOOR

In the medical core, the first floor will contain offices and examining room for general surgery (4) and orthopedic surgery (2) urology (2) and pediatrics (3). Here, as on each floor, there will be a waiting room, nurses station, restrooms, and in pediatrics separate well-baby and sick-baby waiting areas. Each specialist will have from two to five examining rooms, depending on the nature of the practice, plus his offices.

On the second floor the arrangement is similar with a department for (3) eye, ear, nose and throat (2), family practice (4), obstetrics and gynecology (3). The third floor houses dermatology (2) internal medicine (10), intensive care and cardiac care, which parallels the hospital facilities.

Other clinic staff members, housed in the hospital in order to be connected with laboratories, include radiologists (2) and a pathologist. When the need to expand comes, bays may be added to the east of the clinic. Other specialties may be added, but they will fit within the general framework mentioned.

MALONE & HOGAN CLINIC

NEW BUILDING TO START — Groundbreaking ceremonies Saturday at 2 p.m. will mark beginning of a new Malone & Hogan Clinic building which will be located east of the new HCA hospital building now under construction in western Big Spring. The clinic area is in the foreground; the hospital in the background.

'Deep Throat' Used By Solon To Raise Cash

By MALCOLM JOHNSON Associated Press Writer

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Other politicians hold fish fries and hot dog roasts to raise campaign money. Perry Bullard is showing an X-rated movie.

Bullard's showing of "Deep Throat" this weekend is in keeping with his unorthodox ways in the Michigan House since his election in 1972 by Ann Arbor's liberal student community.

"The Democrats are really upset," Bullard remarked. "But I should stress they had nothing to do with this."

It's not the first time the Democrats have been upset with the 31-year-old lawyer.

He has acknowledged using marijuana, and once smoked it at a public rally to urge the removal of criminal sanctions for the use of pot; he has been arrested for hitchhiking; and now he plans to show "Deep Throat."

"I approved the showing of this film by the group because I believe in the fundamental First Amendment right of any adult individual to see any movie that person desires to see," he said.

He predicted he might raise as much as $2,000 from the six showings of the movie at the University of Michigan Friday and Saturday nights.

But a ruling by university counsel Roderick Dean apparently bars the money from direct use in the Bullard campaign. Dean said Thursday that use of a public institution for political purposes might be illegal.

A spokesman for the Bullard's campus campaign organization said the money might be used for public purposes in Bullard's district office or on campus for his support.

No one is opposing Bullard in the Democratic primary this spring.

State Rep. Dan Angel, a Republican from Marshall, issued a news release calling the showing a "debasement" of the legislature. The statement said Bullard was "utterly without redeeming social value."

He said the energy crisis is made worse by Eastern and

Mahon Takes Verbal Swipe At Few Eastern Lawmakers

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — Rep. George Mahon D-Tex., attacked the viewpoints of some eastern lawmakers on the oil issue Thursday night and predicted the energy crisis will last up to 15 years.

Speaking at a dinner opening the 56th annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Lubbock congressman said the United States and the oil industry will not work out of energy problems for 10 to 15 years.

"The pleas from the oil and gas producing areas and their representatives cannot be very successful until the average American consumer from non-oil producing states has a better understanding of the energy problem and the oil industry," Mahon said.

He said the energy crisis is made worse by Eastern and Western states which compete with one another in trying to be the most critical of the oil and gas industry.

Mahon mentioned a statement last week by a Massachusetts congressman he did not name to illustrate some eastern views on oil. Mahon said the congressman stated the oil industry is so unpopular in his district that he wouldn't be willing to have his picture made in front of a gas pump.

Mahon said Congress must block "at all costs" a proposed windfall profits measure that he said includes the establishment of a federal oil and gas corporation and appears to be a first step toward nationalization of the oil and gas industry.

The congressman named nuclear power, geothermal energy and coal gasification and liquefaction as the best future sources of energy. He said nuclear power could furnish 43 per cent of electricity needs by 1990, geothermal energy could produce energy equivalent to one million barrels of oil per day by 1985 and coal gasification and liquefaction could be developed within five years.

He listed solar energy, tidal energy and nuclear fusion as future energy sources that are not understood enough at this time to make a projection as to their usefulness.

Saxbe May Have Endangered Prosecution Of Miss Hearst

By MARGARET GENTRY Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The president of the American Bar Association says Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe may have endangered the prosecution of Symbionese Liberation Army members charged with a San Francisco bank robbery.

ABA chief Chesterfield Smith said Saxbe also may have threatened the prosecution of Patricia Hearst if it turns out that criminal charges are brought against her.

CRIMINALS In an interview Thursday, Smith was questioned about the legal implications of Saxbe's statement on Wednesday labeling the SLA and Miss Hearst as a group of "common criminals" and Miss Hearst as a willing participant in Monday's robbery.

The FBI has issued a warrant for Miss Hearst as a material witness to the robbery and filed bank robbery charges against four others identified as previously associated with the SLA.

The SLA claims it seized Miss Hearst, daughter of newspaper executive Randolph A. Hearst, from her apartment on Feb. 4.

NOTHING TO ADD As criticism mounted, Saxbe said through a Justice Department spokesman he stands by his statements and has "nothing to add."

"The potentials for prejudice can only be weighed when you're trying to impanel an impartial jury," Smith said. "I would not be surprised if an ingenious defense attorney on the proper occasion would raise it as some type of evidence that she could not get a fair trial because of these statements," Smith said the prejudicial impart would depend on whether Saxbe's statements were widely read in the area from which a jury is drawn.

MANSON TRIAL "But certainly if everybody saw it and everybody was aware of it, there is a possibility that it could prevent any prosecution," he said.

Meanwhile, in Atlanta, Ga., FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley said the FBI would be "guided by facts and not by any opinion," when asked about Saxbe's comments about Miss Hearst.

Kelley said FBI agents are operating under the assumption "that she is the victim of pressure or coercion."

Smith, a lawyer in Lakeland, Fla., said Saxbe's accusation of President Nixon's statement that Charles Manson "was guilty, directly or indirectly, of eight murders" while the trial of Manson was in progress in

Tadpoles Vie In Rodeo Here

Tonight is the opening night of Big Spring's first Little Britches Rodeo, sponsored by the Howard County Youth Horsemen Club.

The action starts at 8 p.m. at the Big Spring Rodeo Arena tonight and Saturday night. Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

A little Britches Rodeo features boys and girls competing against each other in three age groups: pee wees, 11 and under; juniors, 12-14, and seniors, 15 and 16.

The contestants compete in six rodeo events including bareback bronc riding and bull and calf riding. The other four events are timed events in barrel racing, pole bending, flag race and ribbon roping.

Belt buckles are awarded to the winners in each event. Contestants placing 1-6 places receive ribbons.

In each age group, the youngster collecting the most points wins a pair of spurs.

Specialty attractions include a calf scramble for peewees tonight. Hank Snow and his Mounted Promenaders from Wichita Falls will perform a square dance on horseback Saturday night.

Concession stands will be open during both performances of the rodeo. The Youth Horsemen have been working hard for weeks to present a smooth-running, fun-filled evening and urge Big Spring and Howard County citizens to come out to the show.

To Implicate Connally?

DALLAS (AP) — Jake Jacobsen, Austin lobbyist indicted in the Watergate-milk fund controversy, is ready to implicate former Texas Gov. John Connally in the affair, Jacobsen's lawyer told the Dallas Times Herald today.

The lawyer, Charles McNellis, told the Times-Herald in Washington: "I will do whatever I can to get my client out of a bad problem."

McNellis said he could not deny a CBS News report that Jacobsen will testify he paid Connally $10,000 in Associated Milk Producers Inc. funds while at the Austin home of George Christian, a former aide to late President Lyndon Johnson.

Contacted about the report, Christian said: "I assure you, I haven't been the middle man in a bag job."

"To my knowledge nothing like that happened in my house. I have never been asked about any transfer of funds by investigators or anything of that nature," he said.

George Parr Is Due Sentencing

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — Longtime Duval County political boss George B. Parr, 73, convicted last month on eight counts of income tax evasion, is to be sentenced in federal court May 3.

The charges accused him of evading more than $129,000 income tax between the years of 1966 and 1969 and with understating his taxable income for the four years by more than $287,000.

Maximum punishment on the eight counts would be 32 years in prison and a fine of $60,000.

Parr spent nine months in a federal prison in 1926 after pleading guilty to an income tax evasion charge. The late President Harry S. Truman granted him a full pardon in 1946.

Clinical Training Meeting Slated By BSSH Chaplain

Two programs in the field of clinical training will begin at Big Spring State Hospital in June, according to Foy Richey, associated chaplain.

One will begin June 13 for all ministers in the area and will consist mainly of orientation in how the church and clergy can function in the community as part of the healing team where mental health is involved. It is, said Chaplain Richey, designed to increase their awareness and sensitivity to the mental health factors they encounter in their ministry. The instruction will be one day a week for 14 weeks, and both Chaplains Lee Butler and Richey will instruct. The second program is one in chaplaincy internship. Four interns will spend the summer here, working at the hospital under the supervision of Chaplain Richey. They will put in 40 hours a week at the hospital, and upon completion of the 12-week program, they will receive accreditation from the association for Clinical Pastoral Education, whose certification is accepted by the American Protestant Hospital Association. This course also is open to clergymen in this area, and the time factor will be extended for those who are not in a position to put in 40-hour

Impounded Funds Are Released

Impounded federal funds amounting to almost $1.8 million have been released to the Texas Commission on Alcoholism, according to Gov. Dolph Briscoe. The award of $1,797,395 for implementation of the Comprehensive Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism Prevention, Treatment and Rehabilitation Act of 1970 was received from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare regional office in Dallas.

It brings to a total of $3,412,203 the federal formula grant funds being administered by TCA in fiscal year 1973, covering the period July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1974. Of these 1973 formula grant funds, $1.5 million has already gone to communities throughout the state for alcoholism services.

Don Passos Works Awarded School

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — The widow of American writer John Dos Passos has given a large collection of the author's manuscript material to the University of Virginia's Alderman Library.

Dos Passos was writer-in-residence at the school in the mid-1960s and he made similar gifts to the library before his death in 1970.

The new material includes notebooks and proofs for his books "Prospects of a Golden Age," "The Head and the Heart of Thomas Jefferson," "A Tour of Duty," and "The Great Days."

Accused Of Using County Labor To Help Build Home

HOUSTON (AP) — County Judge Bill Elliott is accused in a civil suit of using county labor and materials to help build a summer home on Lake LBJ.

Elliott denied the accusations and said he plans to file a counter action charging libel and harassment.

Floyd E. Neeley, 47, a former employe in the county engineer's department, filed the suit which contained almost no details of his charge.

"If they had something they would certainly have come up with something a lot stronger than this," Elliott replied.

Dr. Salter Speaks At Reading Parley

Dr. Thomas Salter has been in Kilgore this week to speak on six topics in a right-to-read conference.

Joining Dr. Salter in the program was Stuart V. Forest of Gamco Industries. Forest is the General Manager of the Perceptual Development Laboratory Division.

The workshop, held in the Community Inn in Kilgore, is being offered by the Texas Education Agency and will continue through Friday.

The six topics presented by Dr. Salter are: Phonics training — wise of otherwise?; causes of reading difficulties; removing reading difficulties; developing a curriculum for the educationally deprived child; thinking, language, vocabulary, concepts, and critical reading; and linguistics.

Gamco, one of the country's largest manufacturers of teaching supplies, furnished demonstration equipment.

Neeley did not allege any criminal activity but said Elliott should be forced to pay back any money expended and also be required to pay $20,000 in punitive damages.

Elliott charged that suit was a political one. He is currently standing for re-election in the May 4 Democratic primary.

Neeley's lawyer, Larry B. Kerfoot, insisted he had not filed a frivolous or political lawsuit but a serious one based on a large number of statements made by present and past county employes.

He refused to release the statements, saying the employes' jobs would be in jeopardy.

Kerfoot said the suit concerned in part allegations that bunk beds and bar stools in the Elliott summer home were made in a Harris County workshop.

The county judge said he had employed county workmen who helped build their house on their own time, but that he had paid them.

Elliott said he has many cancelled checks used to pay for work and the house was built through a local contractor.

Pioneer's Gas Delivery Levels

Pioneer Natural Gas Company stockholders, at the annual meeting held at the company offices in Amarillo, reelected the present nine directors of the company. At a meeting of the board held immediately after the annual meeting the directors reelected the current group of officers.

K. Bert (Tex) Watson, company president, pointed out that the mild weather experienced early this year throughout the country had been helpful to the national energy situation, but it reduced deliveries of gas on the Pioneer system. However, during the past few weeks the extremely dry conditions has accelerated the use of gas for irrigation and the company is experiencing record deliveries for this time of year.

Watson told the stockholders that the company will add between 75 and 100 million cubic feet of new gas supply a day from the Anadarko Basin, east and north-east of Pampa. This new gas supply should be connected by the end of the summer.

E. S. Morris, senior vice president of Pioneer and president of Amarillo Oil Company, discussed the operations of Pioneer's producing subsidiaries, noting that Pioneer shared in multi-pay gas discoveries in Louisiana.

The directors returned to the board by the stockholders are J. Harvey Herd, Laurence R. Jones Jr., E. S. Morris, Maurice E. Purnell Jr., Burton P. Smith, A. C. Verner, W. E. Walker Jr.,

C. I. Wall and K. Bert (Tex) chief executive officer, announced that among officers reelected was Larry R. Shortes formerly of Big Spring.

"Cherchez la femme!" say the French. "Only if you can find no way to avoid the finesse!" retort the bridge experts.

When this hand was played in a recent team match, both teams reached six hearts on similar auctions. Once South opened the bidding with one heart, there was no doubt in North's mind that he was going to drive to slam so, after checking on aces and kings, he settled in a small slam.

At both tables, West led the jack of spades, won by dummy's ace. Both declarer led a heart to the ace, fetching East's queen. Here their ways parted. One declared a heart to the king, setting up a trump trick for the defense. Now, he had to find the queen of diamonds to make his slam. He led a diamond to the king, returned a diamond to the jack and went down one.

The second declarer abandoned hearts after winning the ace. First, he ruffed the queen of spades in dummy, and then played three rounds of clubs ending in his hand. Now, he led a trump to the nine, and was rewarded when it held the trick. After drawing the king of hearts, he led and ran the jack of diamonds, and when the finesse succeeded he made an overtrick.

What if the finesse of the nine of trumps had lost? In that case, East would be employed. All the defenders' trumps would be out, and East would either have to lead into dummy's diamond tenace or play a black suit, allowing declarer to discard a diamond from his hand while ruffing in dummy.

But, you say, playing three rounds of clubs had an element of danger—one of the defenders might have ruffed. True, but if that happened, the defender might have been employed at that point; and even if he wasn't, declarer would have been no worse off than our first declarer—he would have to find the diamond queen for his contract.

Greek Fems Can Open Businesses

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Greek women today gained another legal concession: they can now start a business without the approval of their husbands. The previous law, based on the Napoleonic code, did not allow a woman to so much as operate a small shop without the approval of her husband. Handing down the ruling, the court said "if the husband finds married life unbearable under the new situation he can always ask for divorce."

Prison Preacher Facing The Facts

DUNDEE, Mich. (AP) — "If you're not serving God, you're serving Satan," John McClish intoned to a small congregation at Calvary Baptist church. "Face the facts. There's no in-between."
McClish isn't just serving the Lord. He's also serving 25 years for bank robbery at the federal prison in nearby Milan. After four years, the 22-year-old from Des Moines, Iowa, says he has been saved, and has persuaded the warden to let him out evenings to preach at the church.
"God saved me from the rotten lust of the world and set me on a rock," McClish told the congregation this week. "But there is more to Christianity than being saved. Jesus wants to use us. When you wake up in the morning, your first thought should be: 'What can I do for God?'"
On April 9, 1970, McClish entered the home of the president of the Decatur County State Bank in Leon, Iowa. He forced the man to take him to the bank, from which he took $48,000. But he was soon tracked down and jailed.
McClish says he saw the light on Christmas Eve 1971 when he was visited by the Rev. Ronald Hodge of Ypsilanti. He decided to become a preacher. He wants to be an evangelist should his request for parole be granted.
"I want to get God's people steamed up, to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ," he says. "When a man goes through life searching — when a man does anything against the law — he is searching for fulfillment, searching for the freedom that Jesus Christ can give him."
McClish persuaded prison officials to let him visit the church this week, but they assigned prison guard Leslie Sapsford to accompany him.
Sapsford did just that — he brought along his trumpet and played, "My Savior's Love."

Changes In Penal Code To Be Topic

LUBBOCK — Changes in the Texas Penal Code, which recently underwent its first total revision in 117 years, will be outlined May 3 by two district judges and several practicing defense lawyers at a State Bar of Texas institute.

The institute, to begin at 8 a.m. at the Texas Tech Law School, is co-sponsored by the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association and the State Bar of Texas. It will concentrate on significant changes from the old Penal Code. Some of the complex areas to be covered will be juvenile laws, multiple offense problems, homicide and assault, and burglary and theft.

Eating Binge Pushed His Weight Up To 478 Pounds

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Mike Aprile says setting a world spaghetti-eating record started him on an eating binge that pushed his weight up to 473 pounds.
So instead of taking a trip to Rome, he had to use his $1,300 prize for a hospital dieting program.
"I was eating myself into the grave," Aprile, 23, said Thursday at Tampa Memorial Hospital. "It was suicide by the easy installment program. I just made up my mind to lose weight and here I am ... hungry but determined."
Last December the robust cab driver consumed more than 6 1/2 pounds of spaghetti at one sitting to capture the title, which will be included in the next edition of the Guinness

Book of World Records.
The previous record was a mere 2.1 pounds, set in 1970 by Tom Cresci at Dino's Restaurant in San P. ego.
He blames the contest for fouling up his digestive system. "Right after it, I was hungry three times as much. I started gobbling up things left and right."
"Two hours later I went home and had a steak," Aprile said.
Within six weeks, Aprile said he added 53 pounds to his already rotund 425-pound frame. His waistline expanded to 70 inches. At 5 foot 8, that made his girth greater than his height.
After consulting a doctor, who warned he was eating himself to death, Aprile decided to spend his prize money learning not to eat. In February entered the hospital for a three-month stay.

He is on a high protein diet, restricted to 400 calories a day, no carbohydrates and plenty of water and exercise.
"I'm down to 404 pounds today," says Aprile, proud of his accomplishment. His goal is a trim 220 — if he can avoid temptation.
At Easter he visited a relative and devoured five pounds of goat meat and a huge portion of his Uncle Jimmy's homemade sausage.
"It's a fight," he admitted. "I slip a little."

Thaye Lewis Up In Standings

Thaye Lewis, Big Spring, jumped to sixth place in the standings of the GRA barrel racing event during the past week, the Rodeo Cowboys Association reported.
With her earnings of $2,120, she is only $250 out of fourth place. Gail Petska, Tecumseh, Okla., continues to lead with $3,394, followed by Jeana Felts, Woodward, Okla., $3,365.
Other leaders in various RCA events were:
All-around cowboy — Tom Ferguson, Miami, Okla., $22,647, and Bob Ragsdale, Chowchilla, Calif., $11,567; saddle bronc riding — John McBeth, Burden, Kan., $10,324, and J. C. Botine, Hysiam, Mont., $8,477; bareback bronc riding — Joe Alexander, Cora Wyo., $14,548, and Chris LeDoux, Kaycee Wyo., $7,053; bull riding — Marvin Shoulders, Henryetta, Okla., $7,746; calf roping — Ferguson, $16,540, and Barry Burk, Duncan Okla., $9,178; steer wrestling — Frank Shepperson, Midwest, Wyo., $9,266, Mike King Toopenish, Wash., $7,136.

Enrollment Off

Homestretch attendance is whittling at the Big Spring school enrollment. There were six less in elementary schools, nine less in high school and two less in the hospital and homebound program, a total of 17 for the week. That left 3,302 in elementary schools, 1,772 in secondary schools and 164 in hospital-homebound programs, a grand total of 6,572. Five weeks of school remain.

IMPORTANT NEWS RELEASE

PASTOR-EVANGELIST EDWARD McABEE WILL BE PREACHING IN A SERIES OF MEETINGS AT CRESTVIEW BAPTIST CHURCH, BEGINNING ON APRIL 22 AND CONTINUING THROUGH APRIL 27 WITH SERVICES BEGINNING AT 7:30 NIGHTLY. THE PASTOR OF CRESTVIEW BAPTIST CHURCH INVITES THE GENERAL PUBLIC TO THESE GOSPEL SERVICES. Rev. McAbee has been preaching for 24 years, having begun while serving as an enlisted man in the Navy. He has pastored six Baptist churches and has preached in well over 250 revival meetings, Bible conferences, Mission conferences and special meetings, ranging from North to Alaska, South to the Caribbean, and from the Eastern Seaboard to the West Coast. Rev. McAbee has conducted meetings in Cuba, the islands of St. Thomas, St. Johns, in the American Virgin Islands; Tortola, Virgin Gorda in British Virgin Islands, St. Martin in the Dutch West Indies, Antigua, St. Kitts and Nevis in the British West Indies. He has preached more than 3,500 radio messages on a missionary radio station that covers the entire Caribbean area and reaches into South America. As a follow up for the radio evangelism there are hundreds of listeners who are enrolled in Bible correspondence courses. The radio program known as "Showers of Blessings" has been aired seven days a week for 11 years in the Caribbean area and in the Southeastern part of the United States on Sunday nights. Rev. McAbee has been pastor of Northside Baptist Church in Garfney, S.C. for 12 years. You are invited to hear Bible centered messages preached with concern and compassion. Bring your family and your friends and your Bible and participate in this effort to restore New Testament Christianity in this day of apostasy and apathy. Sharing your concern for our great Nation and the church for which Jesus died, the evangelist will be praying and preaching in this revival effort to exalt Jesus, expose sin and explain God's Word in simple language.

TALKING WITH THE COACH — Lynn Swann, left, the Pittsburgh Steeler number one draft choice, talks with head coach Chuck Noll after signing with the NFL team in Pittsburgh Thursday. Swann, 22, a three-year starter at USC, was the 20th player selected in the January draft, and the first wide receiver chosen in the NFL draft this year. The terms of his multi-year contract were not disclosed.

Viking Game Headliner For Cowboys

A rematch with the NFC Champion Minnesota Vikings and a Thanksgiving Day battle with the arch-rival Washington Redskins highlight the Dallas Cowboys' 1974 National Football League schedule.

The Vikings, who defeated the Eastern Division Champion Cowboys in the NFC title game at Texas Stadium last December, will return to the scene of their triumph on Sunday, Oct. 6.

The Redskins will spend Thanksgiving in Dallas just 11 days after hosting the Cowboys on Nov. 17.

The Vikings game and both Redskins games will be televised nationally, as will four other Cowboys games in '74.

Other home opponents include the New York Giants (Sept. 29), the Philadelphia Eagles (Oct. 20), the St. Louis Cardinals (Nov. 3), the San Francisco 49ers (Nov. 10) and the Cleveland Browns (Saturday, Dec. 7).

The Cowboys open the regular season at Atlanta on Sept. 15 and close it at Oakland on Saturday night, Dec. 14. In other road games, they visit Philadelphia (Monday night, Sept. 23), St. Louis (Oct. 13), the Giants (Oct. 27), Washington (Nov. 17) and Houston (Nov. 24).

Anti-Blackout Law Not Harmful To NFL Teams

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite dire predictions about the impact of the anti-blackout law last fall, the 26 National Football League teams suffered only minimal economic damage in televising home games locally, the government says.

In a 400-page report to Congress, the Federal Communications Commission said the big winner was the hometown fans who benefitted by having 109 of 180 home games televised in their cities, as opposed to only one in 1972.

"This means that the fans of home-team football were able to see their team play, which is what the law was designed to accomplish," said the FCC report, made public Thursday.

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., chairman of the Senate subcommittee on communications and one of the anti-blackout law's sponsors, said the FCC report supports what he has believed all along.

"I always felt, and felt sincerely, that the league was its own worst enemy in painting a pessimistic picture about lifting the blackout," he said.

In New York, NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said the league fears the long-range effects of televising home games in home areas. He said the league didn't expect any serious financial effects to be felt in 1973 because 90 per cent of the tickets had been sold before the law was passed.

"Several clubs, including the Super Bowl champion Miami Dolphins, have noticed such season ticket-sale erosion for the 1974 season," Rozelle said.

But the FCC said, "It is unlikely that season ticket sales will be adversely affected by the law because there seems to be an excess demand for tickets. In fact, 1973 was the best season ever for the NFL."

Jackson Looks For More Help From Mates

OAKLAND (AP) — "I love to watch Reggie Jackson hit," says Oakland A's Manager Alvin Dark.

Without Jackson's hitting, Dark might be in trouble already in his second term as manager of Charles O. Finley's baseball team. Jackson has six of the team's 11 home runs and 19 of the 41 runs batted in through the opening 11 games.

"I might have to carry the team for a while," says Jackson. "But I'll get help soon. We've got a great cast."

A slow start by the pitching staff has been the main problem of the A's, who take a 6-5 record into tonight's game against the California Angels, leaders in the American League West.

"We haven't had a complete game victory yet," noted Jackson.

Jim "Catfish" Hunter, 2-0, went eight innings for his last victory and will face the Angels' Bill Singer, 2-0, tonight. Ken Holtzman and Vida Blue, the other 20-game winners on the A's staff last year, both take 0-2 records into the weekend series.

Aaron Warming Up, Garr Is Steaming

By The Associated Press

Hank Aaron finally hit one... a single, that is.

"It's about time," the Atlanta superstar said Thursday night after getting his first non-home run hit of the baseball season.

Ralph Garr, meanwhile, was smacking everything in sight, getting three straight hits, driving in two runs and scoring twice to lead the Braves to a 7-

2 victory over the San Diego Padres.

In Thursday's other National League games, St. Louis beat Philadelphia 6-2, Montreal downed the New York Mets 8-5, San Francisco defeated Houston 5-2 and the Chicago Cubs edged Pittsburgh 1-0.

In other American League, the New York Yankees whipped Boston 6-1, Minnesota clipped California 3-2 and Baltimore's game at Detroit was rained out.

Braves 7, Padres 2

Aaron's only three hits going into Thursday night's games were, as if you hadn't heard, home runs, the 71st, 71st and 716th of his career. But in 21 other official at-bats he hadn't managed so much as a single.

Then, last Monday night, he hurt his shoulder making a throw. He'd been sidelined since then.

Against the Padres, he walked, struck out twice, then grounded a single up the middle, putting his average at .167.

"The shoulder hurts and I can't swing the bat," Aaron said. "It feels terrible and it keeps me from swinging freely."

AT COUNTRY CLUB Field May Top 1973 Turnout

All signs are "go" for the Taylor Implement Company Cup Matches, which serve as a prelude to the second annual Big Spring Championship Invitational Golf Tournament starting at the Country Club Saturday morning.

The cup matches get under way at 1:30 p.m., today, with 33 players (one third of them from out of town) involved.

Three pros will be competing — C. G. Griffin of the Country Club, Charles Brandley of the Big Spring Municipal Course and Lonnie Crosby Snyder.

The course benefited from 9 of an inch of rain last night, the first moisture of any consequence to fall in the area in several weeks.

Entry fee for the tournament itself will be $20. First prize in the 36-hole event will be worth $200 in merchandise, second prize $150. Prizes will go to at least five places and perhaps as many as 15, depending on the size of the registration.

The linksters tee off at 9 a.m., Saturday and at the same hour Sunday. That means the entire field should be winding up rather early both days.

Griffin said that 34 players had registered for the tournament this morning. If many of the players in the cup matches stay for the meet, the total should exceed last year's field, when 52 took part.

The tournament committee is competing with several meets in the area for talent. Running in conflict with the Big Spring tournament are meets at Midland and Brownwood.

Duncan Boyer, Abilene, is the defending champion. There has been no indication he will be back.

Winners will be determined by low gross scores. No handicaps will be allowed. And all the players will compete in one flight. The tournament committee reasons that all trophy hunters are eliminated in this type of tournament.

Jackie Thomas is tournament chairman.

Garr had gotten hits in his last four at-bats Wednesday night in a 6-1 loss to the Padres, then kept the streak going in his first three Thursday games.

He was so intent on making it eight in a row that he strode to the plate in the eighth inning without a batting helmet.

"I was just thinking about hitting the ball" he admitted sheepishly. "The umpire told me I'd forgotten the helmet, the fans told me... everybody was telling me." After he put on it, he grounded out.

It's been quite a turnaround for Garr, who went 0-for-16 at the start of the season but has hit at a 21-for-38 clip since then to put his average at .382.

Steers Tangle With Panthers

Big Spring High School seeks to salvage something from what, to date, has been a disastrous season in a 2 p.m. baseball outing with Odessa Permian in Odessa Saturday.

Permian, the first-half champion, has been having its own problems in the second half of play.

The Panthers have dropped two straight and are tied for last place (or fifth, if you prefer) with Big Spring, San Angelo and Odessa High.

When the two teams clashed in the first round, Ray Nunez threw a no-hitter at Big Spring and Permian rolled to an easy 9-1 victory.

Big Spring has won only four times this season and two of those victories came against league opponents.

The Longhorns will return home next Tuesday for a 4 p.m. contest against Midland, which has suddenly developed muscles and is slugging everyone in sight.

After Saturday's contest, Larry Horton's Bold Gold has only four games left on its 1974 schedule.

Permian, the first-half champion, has been having its own problems in the second half of play.

The Panthers have dropped two straight and are tied for last place (or fifth, if you prefer) with Big Spring, San Angelo and Odessa High.

When the two teams clashed in the first round, Ray Nunez threw a no-hitter at Big Spring and Permian rolled to an easy 9-1 victory.

Big Spring has won only four times this season and two of those victories came against league opponents.

The Longhorns will return home next Tuesday for a 4 p.m. contest against Midland, which has suddenly developed muscles and is slugging everyone in sight.

After Saturday's contest, Larry Horton's Bold Gold has only four games left on its 1974 schedule.

The Steers led Midland High by three runs going into the final inning here last Tuesday but fell apart defensively and lost, 7-6.

Jabbar Near Perfection But Bucks Have To Work

CHICAGO (AP) — Kareem Abdul-Jabbar was near perfection Thursday night but his Milwaukee Bucks teammates "made a lot of dumb mistakes" and instead of an easy victory over the Chicago Bulls they had to settle for a 113-111 decision.

Nevertheless, the Bucks took a 2-0 lead in their best-of-seven semifinal series. Game No. 3 will be played in Milwaukee Saturday afternoon with the fourth game scheduled for Chicago Monday night.

"I thought we were going to win it in the fourth quarter," said a dejected Dick Motta, coach of the Chicago Bulls.

Larry Costello, coach of the Bucks, tried to explain how his team, leading 77-57 well into the third quarter, came within an eyelash of defeat.

"We made a lot of dumb mistakes down the stretch," said Costello.

In an American Basketball Association game, the Indiana Pacers scored a 118-107 victory over the Utah Stars.

In NBA action tonight, the Boston Celtics host the New York Knicks.

The Bulls, playing without injured Jerry Sloan again, made a battle of it in the first quarter. At one point they led by four but fell behind 30-29 at the end of the period.

Jabbar scored 12 points in the first quarter and pumped in 15 more in the second as the Bucks rolled to a 62-51 edge.

The Bulls came back on the shooting of Norm Van Lier and Howard Porter and it was 91-77 going into the final period as Jabbar's total soared to 42 points.

Then the game turned around. Jabbar managed only two points the rest of the way and Chet Walker, helped by Rick Adelman, started to chop away at the Milwaukee lead.

The Bulls scored 10 straight points in one stretch and crept within six points at 93-87.

Pro 11s Getting $185 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission estimates the current total revenues of the National Football League are about $185 million a year.

In a report to Congress on the effects of lifting the television blackout of sold-out home games, the FCC estimated total gross ticket receipts at $124 million, television and radio contracts at $50 million and miscellaneous income the remainder.

The FCC said it could only estimate because the NFL has refused to provide the financial data to the regulatory agency.

The FCC said the NFL Players Association estimates the total payroll for the 1,200 or so professional football players working for the NFL comes to around $50 million a year.

COACHES Baird Tutor Bearden New

BAIRD — Bob Bearden, former Abilene High quarterback, has been named head football coach at Baird High School. He has been serving as an assistant at Abilene High.

ROSCOE — Vernon Townsend has quit as head football coach at Roscoe High School, without announcing future plans.

In his six years as coach at Roscoe, Townsend's teams won 34 while losing 25 and tying two. Under his tutelage, Roscoe won the district championship in 1969. He is a graduate of McMurry College.

Nelson Is Signed

Booker Wins At Lubbock

LUBBOCK — Booker's A team won championship honors in the Region I Golf Tournament here Thursday with a four-man, 36-hole total of 674.

Booker A beat out Bronte, the 11-B champion, in the race for first place by eight strokes.

Booker B was third with a score of 725 while Jayton wound up fourth at 732.

Forsan settled for a 798, good for 13th in the standings. Klondike was 14th and last in the field with a score of 888.

Brad Stevens led the Forsan team with a score of 175.

In the first round of Class AAAA competition, San Angelo assumed a one-stroke lead by posting a score of 293. Odessa Permian hovered near San Angelo with a 294 while Amarillo was third with a 303 and El Paso Coronado fourth, at 307.

Defending titlist Snyder was well back with a 314.

Fezler Is Playing Less And Enjoying It More

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Soft-spoken young Forrest Fezler says he's playing less and enjoying it more this season.

"I was putting too much pressure on myself last year," golf's heartbreak kid said Thursday after his five-under-par 66 had set the pace in the opening round of the $150,000 Monsanto Open.

"I was trying to play every week, just grind it out. I'm not playing near as much this year and it seems easier. There's not so much pressure. I'm more relaxed," Fezler said.

Fezler, who didn't win a title but collected more than $100,000 last season, held a one-stroke advantage over Lee Elder, Chuck Courtney and big Chris Blocker, tied at 67, with another group of seven tied at 68 after one round of this chase for a $30,000 first prize.

Homero Blancas, who won this tournament a year ago, headed the latter group. He said his play was "miraculous... I could have had a 76 real easy."

Busy Schedule Planned For Lions Convention

Two busy days are being planned for the annual Lions district 2A-1 Convention May 17-18, Schley Riley, chairman, told the Downtown Lions Club Wednesday.
Initial activities put the spotlight on the queen-nominees from the various clubs of the district who gather for a 11:30 a.m. luncheon. At 5 p.m., they will be feted at a pool-side supper, while delegates will take part in a 6 p.m. dip supper, which will be followed by the queen's contest at Big Spring High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m.
The Big Spring Downtown Club will be host at the 7 a.m. breakfast May 18 honoring Jim Lemons, candidate for district governor. This also will serve as the key-member breakfast.
The Midland clubs will sponsor the model luncheon at 11:30 a.m. at the high school cafeteria to spotlight Tom Nipp, Midland, district governor.
Voting begins at 4 p.m. at the Settles, convention headquarters, and at 6:30 p.m. the governor's reception will be at the Big Spring Country Club, followed by the governor's banquet at 7:30 p.m.
A golf tournament will be held the first afternoon, and during the convention, business sessions are scheduled for 9-11 a.m. and 2-4 p.m.

Open Meetings Trial Scheduled In EP June 3

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Trial is set June 3 in county court for El Paso Mayor Fred Hervey and alderman Ruben Schaeffer, who are accused of violating the Texas open meetings law.
County Court Judge Jack Ferguson set the date Wednesday in what is believed to be the first court test of the statute.
The complaint against Hervey and Schaeffer was brought by County Atty. George Rodriguez Jr., on behalf of former El Paso broadcast newsmen Richard Wheatley.
Wheatley's complaint contends that Hervey and Schaeffer conspired to bar newsmen from a meeting with a federal government official by deliberately meeting in numbers less than a quorum.
The open meetings law states that governmental bodies may not meet in numbers less than a quorum for the express purpose of barring reporters.
This is the second complaint brought by Wheatley against the two city officials.
County Court Judge Robert Galvan dismissed the first complaint, saying it failed to allege intent to circumvent the open meetings law.

Court Order Shuts Down Gold Firm

DALLAS (AP) — The nation's largest silver and gold investment firm, Pacific Coast Coin Exchange, has been ordered to close its business in Texas because of possible securities violations.

District Court Judge Judge Fred Harless issued on Thursday a temporary restraining order prohibiting PCCCE from selling or offering to sell unregistered securities in the state.

Representatives of the company, which has offices in 10 states, Canada, England and West Germany, also were ordered not to move funds of Texas investors in margin account contracts from the state.

A hearing on the state's request for a temporary injunction was set for next Thursday.

The company, based in Long Beach, Calif., had national sales of $273 million in 1973, President Louis Carabini said in court Wednesday.

A PCCCE lawyer, William King of Austin, testified his company's selling of margin contracts is comparable to selling a house on credit.

However said court-appointed interrogator Whitley Sessions, PCCCE does not permit investors to take possession of the silver or gold they buy on time payment until the full amount is paid. He said this indicates Pacific is selling securities under the definition in Texas law.

Yard Tractor More Popular

Growing recognition of the lawn and garden tractor's versatility has contributed to an increase in its popularity.

Industry sales of lawn and garden tractors have increased from $35 million in 1962 to more than $250 million during the past year.

The small tractor's primary market is in suburbs and outlying areas, among homeowners with a half-acre or more of property. Persons with small acreage also account for a substantial number of sales, which the company attributes to the "prestige" factor of owning a yard tractor.

Designed for looks as well as performance, today's sleek, streamlined tractor can handle more than 40 yard tasks ranging from lawn mowing to snow removal. With the variety of implements now available, the unit also is used for cultivating, plowing, harrowing, spading, planting, grading, backing and filling, fertilizing, spraying, aerating, sweeping, hauling and lawn rolling.

Rose Jar Was Popular; It Could Be Once More

By The Associated Press
Rose petals have a number of fragrant uses, including a rose jar, a popular item in the home in bygone days.

So let's find a handsome, old-fashioned jar and make one when the roses are blooming again.

Gather petals early in the morning, just about when the dew has dried, and spread them on absorbent paper on a table in the shade to dry a bit. Spread layers a half inch thick in a jar or dish, sprinkling each layer lightly with ordinary table salt.

Day by day add petals until they measure about two quarts when pressed solid. Stir thoroughly daily and 10 days after you make the last addition mix together in a dish one-fourth ounce each of ground mace, cloves and allspice; one-half ounce of ground cinnamon, two ounces of powdered orris root and one-quarter pound of dried lavender flowers.

We've read about other uses for rose petals. One was to prepare toilet water. Another gardener told about candying rose petals.

The fragrance will last longer if the flowers are picked before the sun's rays produce strong heat.

Here is another recipe we noted for potpourri: Ten cups of rose petals, three ounces of ground orris root, which acts as a preservative, and half ounce each of ground cloves, allspice and cinnamon. You may add other spices to suit your taste. Some add herb spices.

The container may be a ginger jar, small china crock or glass jar of unusual shape. Covers are needed to contain the aroma.

In making candied rose petals use only fresh petals in good condition. Use roses of strong color, rather than very pale.

Put several egg whites in a bowl. Dip each petal separately, permit it to drain and dip into sugar. Then spread the petals on absorbent paper for a day, dip again in sugar and when dry store in tight containers.

Mint leaves or violet flowers

Several Flowers Grow In Shade

One of the most often-asked questions among home gardeners is: "What can I grow in the shade?"

Most annual flowers grown from seed do prefer full sun, but there is a small group which will tolerate light shade, and a smaller group which even prefers shade.

Coleus, foxgloves, nicotiana, French marigolds, pansies, violas, vinca, petunias and ageratum all will tolerate light shade, but by far the best two kinds for shaded areas are the small-flowered fibrous-rooted begonias and impatiens.

Should you choose the first of these two — the begonia — it is best to grow the hybrids. These have larger flowers, sturdier plants and a greater tolerance for shady conditions. The seed is tiny and a packet will grow hundreds of plants.

Seed is best sown indoors as early in the spring as possible so that good-size plants can be transplanted to the garden after danger of frost.

Grass Area Helps Space Illusion

One home improvement that makes a delightful difference is the addition of gliding glass patio doors, opening a room to the outdoors. The generous glass area gives a sense of spaciousness to the room, easy access to the patio and an ever-changing view of nature.

When maintenance-free patio doors of vinyl-clad wood double-glazed with tempered insulating glass, are chosen, the best of the outdoors becomes part of year-round living, yet the cold is effectively barred by both the vinyl-clad wood and the insulating air trapped between two panes of glass.

Carefree Geraniums

Something really different...

Home gardeners have discovered that there is something really different for their garden. F<sub>1</sub> Hybrid Carefree Geraniums. These geraniums aren't like any other you've grown. They bloom midseason and last right up through late hard frost. Carefree comes from F<sub>1</sub> Hybrid seed, so they are more disease free. Anybody who has grown regular geraniums late in the season knows how disease can wither regular geraniums.

Carefree are the most floriferous geraniums ever. Planted in full sun (where they should be) they will grow eight or more blooms at one time. And since Carefree are base-branching, they require no pinching to get more branches. Really Carefree! For the most in a really lovely garden this summer, stop in for Carefree. They're really different!

Time To Study

Texas political campaigning has been low-key to this point. But with less than a month to go before the primary elections, the pace is bound to quicken.

There is good reason to consider carefully the candidates for statewide office every election year, but the need is particularly sharp this time. As approved by the voters in the last round of constitutional amendments, the chief statewide officers elected in November will serve not two but four-year terms. We will be choosing our first four-year governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general; there won't be a change, barring the unforeseen, until 1978.

Four-year terms will mean more than just a more comfortable existence for the office-holders. A governor elected to a four-year term will have much more opportunity to work his will on Texas government.

By not having to stand for election in two years, when members of the Texas House will, the governor gains considerably more political clout. Safe from election pressures, a four-year governor will be more able to steer, rather than follow, the legislature; an angered in-office governor could be a tough foe for a re-election-seeking legislator in the election of 1978.

Too, four years will give the governor much more opportunity to make appointments to boards and agencies, putting his stamp on them — and bringing about personal policies changes. The same advantages will accrue to the four-year lieutenant governor and attorney general in respect to their own fields of power and interest.

So as Texas voters ponder the choice between now and the May primary, they should keep in mind that the choice is a longer-term one, and that it will grant more real and political power to those picked. The choices made this time have an extra measure of importance.

Appropriate Occasion

something of the Jeffersonian notion that the least government is often the best government.

Omar Burleson is a man of integrity, and highly regarded by his colleagues in the House, who named him to the tremendously important Ways and Means committee.

For him and his wife, Ruth, the special day affords a chance for his constituents to say thanks for consistently doing a good job.

Friends of Congressman Omar Burleson are staging a day in his honor Saturday at Anson.

This is an over-due occasion in recognizing the contributions that Rep. Burleson not only has made to his (17th) district, but to the cause of sober, sound government.

His philosophy reflects the independent spirit of his upbringing in this area, and while he may be regarded as a conservative voice and influence, he is not insensitive to human needs. He has

John Edwards

"It's the old women and children that I care about," mused W. C. Jones, train brakeman.

THE DAY was March 27, 1967, the last day a regularly scheduled passenger train served Big Spring. Some of the train crew obviously were unhappy.

"The old women, some of them are crippled, and they can't ride the bus, and they are scared to fly. And the children just like to ride the train." "If they'd taken care of their business like they ought to, they'd have a full train right now," T. A. Underhill, conductor for the last passenger train, commented.

"THAT'S MY opinion of the thing," he said. "It's the opinion of the entire State of Texas."

"Big line railroads" don't want passenger service anymore, the conductor said.

"All they want is transcontinental freight," he said.

In 1929, railroads carried 77 per cent of intercity passenger traffic. Buses carried 15.4 per cent, and airlines had an "immeasurably small amount," according to information from Amtrak, the National Railroad Passenger Corporation.

An old timer remembers Big Spring was connected to the outside world by four passenger trains going each way then.

IN 1970, railroad passenger traffic dropped to 7.2 per cent.

"Airlines dominated the public carrier market with 73 per cent," according to Amtrak, "while buses, still in second place, held on to barely 16 per cent."

Automobiles accounted for 87 per cent of all intercity transportation in 1972.

But, with gasoline prices skyrocketing and Texas International Airlines trying to discontinue service,

Big Spring could benefit from the return of the passenger train.

CLAIMING COURTESY and improved service are its aims, Amtrak has purchased turbine-powered French trains for some routes.

Amtrak trains carry passengers through Fort Worth, Temple, Houston, Austin, San Antonio, Del Rio and to Laredo.

And, should the federally supported corporation decide to add a direct transcontinental line across the southern United States, Big Spring might be on the line. Big Spring stands on the Texas and Pacific Railway half-way between Dallas and El Paso. The Ft. Worth-to-El Paso route would provide another path for those going to Mexico.

DOES AMTRAK plan to send a train through Big Spring?

"For the time being, we have so many new routes and so little equipment that we must concentrate on the system we are already operating, rather than start a large number of new ones."

This information comes from James A. Bryant, manager of radio and television news releases for Amtrak in Washington, D.C.

THERE IS a section in the Amtrak Act that requires us to run trains where the state or states provide 2-3 of the operating costs.

"A number of states have expressed interest in doing this, but we are severely limited by a shortage of equipment, and it will be several years before we have enough new equipment to handle any more routes."

NEVERTHELESS, local Chamber of Commerce types, who are fighting to retain the airlines, also should consider promoting Big Spring as a possible future passenger train depot.

Special Elections

Marquis Childs

By WALTER R. MEARS (Substituting For Marquis Childs)

WASHINGTON (AP) — And now Bob Traxler takes his place beside John P. Murtha, Richard VanderVeen, Thomas Luken and Robert Lagomarsino.

Their collective clout in Washington doesn't add up to much. They are, after all, the most junior members of the House of Representatives.

But the way they got there will be a significant factor in shaping campaign strategy in both political parties for the congressional election season just ahead.

For they are the men who won the special House elections of 1974, all in what had been safely Republican districts. All but Californian Lagomarsino Democrats.

"NO REPUBLICAN should assume he has a safe seat any more," said Sen. Robert P. Griffin of Michigan, the Senate GOP whip.

Democrat Traxler's victory in the Saginaw, Mich., area made it four out of five for Democrats — and while the White House said President Nixon was not disheartened, some Republicans who will be running in November obviously were.

"It appears some Democrats are riding the President's coattail to Washington," said Republican Gov. William G. Milliken of Michigan, where VanderVeen earlier captured another traditionally GOP House seat.

In each of the five special elections, the issues raised had included national and area economic problems, Watergate and the President himself. Although Nixon spent a day campaigning for Traxler's Republican opponent, the White House maintained that the President had not become the big issue in Tuesday's election.

NO ONE CAN prove or disprove that Nixon's situation was behind the Republican defeats there and elsewhere. But each of the districts involved went Republican by a landslide margin in 1972, before the scandals unfolded.

Together, the five elections point to a protest vote aimed at the Republican White House.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., who is running for re-election this year, said he was concerned about a backlash against all Republicans because of Watergate.

VICE PRESIDENT Gerald R. Ford said the trend in the special elections pointed to an overwhelming Democratic majority in the House next year.

"One party control is not good for America," Ford said.

That, and the comments of other Republicans about the danger of damage to the two-party system itself, sound a good deal like the GOP comeback theme that followed landslide congressional losses in the 1964 presidential defeat of Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The special elections, the polls, and other indicators of the national mood, are likely to lead many Republican candidates to seek to put some room between themselves and the administration, particularly the President. Nixon was quoted weeks ago as saying privately that he understood some Republicans would find it necessary to do so. Democratic candidates are just as likely to do what Traxler did, and try to depict their GOP rivals as Nixon men.

Ford and other GOP leaders said the Democratic special election victories should have no bearing on House action on Nixon's impeachment.

OF COURSE, there are four more Democratic votes now.

But the political situation could have a more significant, indirect effect on Republican House members. The defeats, the polls, and in many cases, their own surveys of constituents, indicate that the President's political power has ebbed to the point at which it doesn't have to be a factor in their individual decisions on impeachment.

While politicians weigh the impact of their elections, Reps. Traxler, VanderVeen, Lagomarsino, Murtha of Pennsylvania and Luken of Ohio will have to start campaigning all over again.

The terms they won last only for the balance of this year. To stay in the House, they'll have to run and win again in November.

"O! heigh-ho, the derry-o! a-hunting we will go."

Backpacking Phenomenon

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Well before the energy shortage reached a critical level, millions of Americans were rediscovering the physical and esthetic pleasures of walking.

Government figures suggest there are more than 50 million recreational walkers who qualify for the category by walking for pleasure at least one-half hour a day.

Of these, there are probably six million who carry all their immediate physical needs on their back and who sleep out overnight.

Putting their cash behind their convictions, these backpackers now spend something like $400 million on equipment and clothing, judging from statistics gathered by securities analysts and Backpacker magazine. The magazine is further indication of the commitment to walking. Begun a little more than a year ago by a backpacker, William Kemsley, the quarterly worked itself into the black before its first anniversary and now has 60,000 subscribers.

Indicating that financiers feel the backpacking phenomenon is here to stay, some of the biggest names in American industry have been buying up many of the small, independent and highly successful equipment producers.

General Mills now owns the Eddie Bauer Expedition outfitter of Seattle, one of the best-known names in the business, with sales of $20 million a year. The Olin Corp. owns three subsidiaries which make equipment: Comfy, a manufacturer of sleeping bags; Trail Blazer, a tentmaker; and Seattle Quilt, which produces sleeping bags and apparel.

Still, some of the independents are thriving. L.L. Bean, the famous old Maine hunting-camping supplier, claims sales rise 25 per cent a year.

Kemsley feels that the rise in numbers of backpackers will be only moderate over the next five years, perhaps about 20 per cent. But sales might soar.

He believes makers of dress clothes are beginning to pick up some ideas from the hikers and he forecasts that the backpacker look in shirts and jackets will become obvious very soon, as it already is on some campuses.

Radio Drama On TV

NEW YORK (AP) — Thanks to a revived audience interest in more than music, news and sports, no less than four new radio drama or humor series are on the nation's airwaves these days. Now a fifth series is afoot.

It's the National Public Radio Theater, a dramatic effort that lasts an hour. Distribution of it began this month to the 163 public radio stations in the federally funded National Public Radio system.

NPR OFFICIALS say a total of 11 of the weekly shows will be sent the stations this year, with a minimum of 26 new ones ordered for 1975. All will feature original or adapted material written only for radio.

What prompted it? "One of the big things that moved us ahead was the success of the 'CBS Radio Mystery Theater,'" an NPR spokesman said, referring to the hour-long, weeknight series that made its debut in January.

"I think it proved the point that we've been trying to push," he said. "That there is an audience for radio drama if they, the audience, know it's there."

Other radio series now on the air are the Mutual Broadcasting network's "Zero Hour," a suspense effort; a National Lampoon comedy series and "Sounds of the City," a soap opera about a black family.

The radio plays are produced by EARPLAY, a joint project of the University of Wisconsin's extension school and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, at the University's radio station in Madison.

KARL SCHMIDT, a professor of educational communications, supervises the project. He says the show draws its thespian from New York, Chicago and the Minneapolis-St. Paul area as well as from the studentry.

How does he get his scripts? "Mostly, we work through drama agents in New York," he said, "but we also solicit manuscripts through ads in the New York Times, the Saturday Review and other publications like that."

Try Frequent Feedings

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have a married son, 28, who has had a very busy schedule for the last four years. He goes to school in the morning and to work in the afternoon full time.

I know he is overburdened because he stays up the biggest part of the night doing homework. The problem is his nerves, and I am afraid they might get worse. He'll be sitting, and off and on his head is moving up and down. I've sat next to him and the nerves in his legs are going all the time. What can be done to control this? Please help me so I can help him. — Mrs. M. G.

I admire fellows who work their way through school, who handle a job well and go to school so, eventually, they'll be able to handle a bigger job. But... but I don't want to see them doing it at the expense of their health, because health, as well as education, is going to be invaluable to them later on.

Your son evidently has passed the point at which he can do that much work (studying is work) without his body starting to rebel. Hence the nervous symptoms you notice.

Is there any reason why he can't cut his school schedule in half? Sure, it will take him longer to finish up, but isn't it better to take a little longer and wind up with sound nerves and body?

From his age, 28, I would judge that he may be in something of a hurry to finish his schooling, but slowing things down a bit now will pay off for him later on. If he has been carrying such a schedule for four years, he may think that he can keep it up forever. Many people can't.

Or maybe nobody has suggested slowing down — and he may be so busy that he never got around to think about it.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have a prolapsed or sagging uterus and at times, especially after I have been on my feet a lot, it is uncomfortable. My gynecologist has mentioned hysterectomy but is hesitant because of my age — I am only 30. I have been told that operation can be performed through the vagina and would like to know if that is true. Also is it possible to keep the uterus in place by any means other than surgery? — Mrs. L. P.

Hysterectomy (removal of the uterus) can be performed through the vagina or through the abdominal wall, but anatomical factors make it necessary that your gynecologist decide which way must be employed.

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

How can I trust my husband after he has been unfaithful to me? I have forgiven him, but I keep thinking about it, even though I never bring it up. Every time he is late, I have this feeling of anxiety. I love my husband very much. Please help me face this situation. V.A.B.

It is only human for past mistake to tease your confidence and your memory. But, if you let this haunt you, and dominate your life, it can easily ruin your marriage, whatever remains of it.

Faith is like good seed, it bears fruit. Suspicion bears its fruit too. So, since you say you love your husband, and I'm sure you do if you have forgiven him, don't give him the least hint of mistrust. Another infidelity, of course, is another matter.

It's important that he believes and sees that you have really forgiven him. Don't forget that while you have suffered in this experience, he has suffered also. The guilty party bears the heavier burden — for he not only knows your disapproval, but his own, through a guilty conscience.

If you really want your marriage to succeed, avoid a suspicious, condemnatory attitude. It could only cause further damage at this time. Jesus said "Whatsoever ye ask" in His name, He would do it (John 15:16). Pray specifically for this.

You didn't say whether you or your husband are Christians. In the happiness of marriage, and attended a wedding in marriage, and attended wedding in Cana of Galilee; it's a wise couple who invites Him into their home.

A Devotion For Today

(Jesus) appointed twelve, to be with him, and to be sent out to preach and have authority to cast out demons. (Mark 3:14)
PRAYER: O God, our Father, we are thankful that Jesus wants us to be with Him. Send us out this day to preach His love and to deliver and be delivered from demons that would enslave us. Amen. (From the 'Upper Room')

Coffee For Candidate Set Sunday

A coffee honoring Mrs. Mary Thomas, Democratic candidate for state representative, 63rd District, will be held Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas Jr., 400 Washington Blvd. The public is invited to attend.

Cohostesses with Mrs. Thomas will be Mrs. Larry Dudash, Mrs. Ray Thomas, Mrs. Wayne Burns, Mrs. Jack Watkins, Mrs. Mary Greenwood, Miss Sue Faulkenberry, Mrs. Richard Thomas, Mrs. Howard Salisbury, Mrs. Dave Faulkenberry, Mrs. Vinis Tibbs and Mrs. E. G. Patton.

Handwork Seen By Sewing Club

Mrs. T. T. Henry of Forsan was hostess Tuesday afternoon for a meeting of the Pioneer Sewing Club with 10 members present. During the afternoon, the group worked on individual projects and viewed an Afghan and flower garden quilt made by Mrs. Henry. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at 2 p.m., May 7 in the home of Mrs. D. L. Knight.

MRS. ELEA COATES

Retiree Is Honored At Hospital

A reception was held Wednesday honoring Mrs. Elea Coates on the occasion of her retirement from Big Spring State Hospital.

Mrs. Coates was employed at the hospital Aug. 15 1957, in nursing service. She began as an attendant and has spent the past 10 years as a unit clerk. The staff presented her with a money tree in appreciation for her service.

In the more than 16 years that Mrs. Coates has worked at the hospital she has seen many changes, all of which she considers for the better.

Mrs. Coates and her husband, Ralph, who live in Coahoma, have four children and 10 grandchildren. A son R. L. Coates, attends Angelo State University, and another son, Frank Coates will graduate this spring from Coahoma High School. A son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Rawson, reside in Tennessee, where he is studying for his Ph.D., and the other daughter, Mrs. Hazel Baker will soon complete LVN training.

Mrs. Coates plans to spend more time with her family and do some traveling, fishing and other leisure activities.

Deadline Is April 26 For Open Art Show

Entries for the open show being sponsored by Big Spring Art Association will be accepted April 26 at Howard College Library from 12 noon to 6 p.m. The show will be held at the college April 27. Further plans for the event were discussed at a meeting of the association Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Frank Hartley, 408 E. 6th, with Mrs. Robert Barnes presiding.

Appointed to handle the completion of the Big Country Art Exhibit currently being displayed at the college were Gary Grant, Mrs. Dalton Conway, Mrs. Walter Witte and Mrs. W. D. Duggan.

Officers elected for the coming year are Mrs. Jerry Harry, president; Mrs. Barnes, first vice president; Mrs. Matt Wagner, secretary; and Mrs. W. H. Crenshaw, treasurer. The club will continue monthly meetings through the summer.

Five Rebekahs Get Certificates For Lodge Work

Certificates of perfection were awarded to Mrs. Morgan Martin, Mrs. Elmo Martin, Mrs. Everett Hood, Mrs. LaVerne Rogers and Mrs. U. S. Beechley during Tuesday's meeting of John A. Key Rebekah Lodge.

Mrs. Charles Leek presided, and Mrs. Pauline Petty read a resolution of sympathy in honor of the late Jack Prescott. Mrs. Petty was installed as left support to the vice grand, upon the resignation of Mrs. Winnie Ralph. A detailed financial report was given by Mrs. Rogers.

A program by Mrs. Hood celebrated the 153 anniversary of the lodge, as she told the life story of Thomas Wilde, founder. Lodge instruction was led by Mrs. Irene Johnson, and appreciation was expressed to Charles Leek for his service to the lodge.

During the social hour, Mrs. Ralph was honored on her 87th birthday.

The charter will be draped next Tuesday and a program will be presented by Mrs. Ida Hughes.

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Here is the big argument between me and my mother. If I am home alone, should I have to answer the phone when it rings? I say only if I feel like it. She says I must, regardless!

Let's assume the phone rang, and I didn't answer it. If the call is for a member of the family who isn't home, he or she would not be home to talk anyway, so it's important, the caller would call back later, right?

If the call is for me, if I chose not to answer it that means I don't feel like talking, so that's my privilege, isn't it? That's my argument, and my mom disagrees. I see no reason why I should have to tear myself away from whatever I'm doing to answer the telephone. I am tired of being a secretary for my parents and taking messages for them when they're out. If messages are that important to them they should get a mechanical box that answers telephone calls with a prerecorded message.

I am curious to know your opinion on the matter.

TIRE D T E E N
DEAR TIRE D: I think your mother is right. It could be an emergency or an important message for someone in your family. Now, get off your duff and answer the telephone when it rings!

DEAR ABBY: In a few months we will be moving into our new home, and I'd like to throw a question out to you, and your readers.

We will have a swimming pool, and I want to enjoy using it; however, I've observed other pool owners having problems with uninvited friends who overstay their welcome. Also neighbors who get hurt if they are told: "No, not today."

Someone suggested the flag system (when it's out, come on over), but how do we keep the undesirables from joining in, too?

How can we ask people nicely to leave at a certain time without turning them off completely?

There it is. Am I making a mountain out of a molehill?

NEW POOL OWNER
DEAR OWNER: The flag system is the best. Who are the "undesirables" who "might" join in, too? If you mean strangers, ask them to leave. If they're neighbors who have been invited by you to "come on over" when your flag is out, when you want them to leave at a certain time make it plain beforehand, so they won't be surprised.

PTA Slate Announced

Four hundred dollars will be spent by the Kentwood Parent-Teacher Association to rebind books damaged by water recently at the school.

The expenditure was announced by Mrs. Max Moore, presiding officer at Tuesday's meeting of the PTA.

New officers elected were Mrs. David Hodnett, president; Mrs. Jerry Avery, vice president; Mrs. Whitney Reynolds, secretary; and Mrs. Betty Richardson, treasurer; Mrs. Tommy Rutledge, historian; and Mrs. Ferrell Felts, parliamentarian. The installation will be held at the May 14 meeting at 7 p.m. Mrs. Hodnett and Mrs. Felts plan to attend the district's spring conference.

Chaplain Lee Butler presented a program, "That is Love in Marriage?" The room count was won by Mrs. T. D. Allgood's fifth grade class.

Coahoma Presbyterians, Local Church Of God Schedule Meets

By MARJ CARPENTER
 The Coahoma Presbyterians and the Big Spring Church of God are among those scheduling revivals this next week. Church Women United will meet in Abilene. Trinity Lutheran's pastor is turning reporter and giving a post-resurrection series.

THERE'S A WIND blowing in Coahoma that has nothing to do with the sand. There is a revival spirit in the air which will be in evidence next week at the Presbyterian Church in Coahoma. This type of event has not happened there for many years, and is part of the church's efforts in different forms of outreach. These evangelistic meetings will be held April 21-26 at 7:30 p.m. each evening. The speaker is the Rev. Jack K. Bennett of

JACK BENNETT

First Presbyterian Church in Galveston. Prior to entering the ministry, Rev. Bennett was active for 12 years as an abstractor and title man for Pure Oil Company. The Rev. Bennett graduated from Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary in 1958 with a high degree of academic excellence. During his first pastorate in Homer, La., he was instrumental in the establishment of both Evergreen Presbyterian Vocational School for the mentally retarded and the Presbyterian Village of Homer, a nursing home. While serving as an executive of church extension, an evangelistic post in the Brazos Presbytery of southeast Texas, he helped establish and strengthen churches in Vidor, Sour Lake, Beaumont, and High Island.

The Rev. Charlie Murphy, the pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Coahoma, says, "Jack communicates well to laymen. He has an evangelist's heart, and has a beautiful balance between evangelism and social concern. This is the perspective the church needs so badly today. His preaching is meaty and not just warmed-over hot air. Those who visit us this week will be taught as well as inspired."

The services will be led by Louis Loveless, a member of the church, who has lined up several musical highlights.

THE CHURCH OF GOD, 603 Tulane will join approximately 10,000 congregations around the world engaged in a revival effort at the same time of year. This would mean perhaps one million persons will be joined together in a joint effort to win souls for Christ, according to the Rev. O. D. Robertson, local pastor.

The church here will use local persons to minister during this simultaneous revival. On April 22 at 7 p.m., the speaker will be Mrs. Louise Gilstrap; on April 23, 7 p.m., Wes Pearce and "The Gospel Sound," April 24, Mrs. Ramona Herbert; April 25, Tim Schune, April 26, C. E. Neal, April 28 at 11 a.m., Earl Martin and at 6:30 p.m. Wiley Madewell.

THE POST-EASTER season of six weeks from the 1st Sunday after Easter to Pentecost will be observed at Trinity Lutheran Church, Virginia Ave. and Marcy Rd. with a series of sermons on six of the eleven Post-Resurrection Appearances of the risen Christ, at the morning worship service at 11 a.m. by the Rev. Lester M. Utz, S.T.M. M.Ed.

The unusual feature of the series will be the format of the presentation. The pastor will deal with each of six appearances from the point of view and personal experience of a newspaper reporter as he might have reported it to the Jerusalem Press each week as these most unusual "appearances" occurred.

The reporter's presentation will be factual, based on firsthand experiences and personal testimony, as well as on eyewitness and other reliable sources of this "News" obtained from responsible persons. It will, of course, be unusual and even shocking in its nature.

Members of Trinity are especially anxious to have others hear their pastor deliver these unusual sermons, and so are extending a most cordial invitation to anyone interested in the Post-Resurrection Appearances of our risen Christ to come and hear.

Sunday Is Some Day

"Someday everyone will come at once and we'll have the church full."

First Baptist Church is aiming to make "someday" this Sunday. Work through the Sunday School and other agencies, the congregation has as its goal everyone in attendance unless providentially hindered. This is a climax to a special week which has featured the sermons twice daily of Dr. Jaroy Webber, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Lubbock, also a family life conference to be held Saturday at the church.

Pinder Speaks To Group

Family life relationships and problems will be discussed by an expert in the field here Saturday.

The affair at the First Baptist Church is sponsored by the Big Spring Baptist Association but members of other congregations are urged to take advantage of hearing Dr. Robert Pinder.

Dr. Pinder, a former Southern Baptist minister to Argentina, relations division of the home is now head of the family and family department at Texas Tech University. The seminar begins at 10 a.m. and there is no charge, although there is a $1 plate fee for a catered lunch at the church.

Dr. Pinder, who pastored several churches in Texas, holds his Ph. D. degree from Florida State University in Family and Home Relations. He serves as a consultant to the Texas General Baptist Convention in the field of pastoral and church staff counseling.

TWO WEEKS BEFORE ELECTIONS Campaign Tempo Rising

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With two weeks of campaigning remaining before the May 4 primaries, Texas politics showed signs of picking up a little steam Friday.

All candidates for governor, Republicans and Democrats, were heating the war drums and increasing the tempo.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, fighting for his political life and a second term, made whirlwind tours of the Wichita Falls region. He dedicated a facility for the mentally retarded at Wichita Falls and then helped with the formal opening of Copper Breaks State Park, between Quanah and Crowell.

Briscoe's female antagonist, told a Plainview audience she considers mainly three issues in her race for governor. She named property tax reform, public school financing and utility rates protection.

While accusing the governor of appointing 17 lobbyists to state boards and commissions, she said she would be a "free agent" if elected to the governor's seat.

Mrs. Farenthold issued a 17-man list and said all had registered as lobbyists during the 1973 Legislature. Each of them, she added, was appointed to state commissions by the governor. She said the list included five oil and gas lobbyists who were named to committees of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission.

CARE TO BET?

Briscoe, who less than 10 days ago said he would not involve the office of governor in the pari-mutuel betting referendum, said at a news conference in Abilene that as a private citizen he would vote against the wagering.

The governor declined comment when asked if he would sign a betting bill.

Mrs. Farenthold earlier voiced opposition to horse race gambling, commenting that it would bring a "bad element" into the state.

Odel McBrayer, the Republican hopeful from Fort Worth, was in Austin Thursday. He told his audience that "Watergate has been no problem to me in my campaign."

Asked at a press conference if he would like President Nixon to campaign for him, the GOP candidate said he thought it "too late" to arrange for the primary. How about Nixon's help in the General Election?

McBrayer answers "it would not necessarily hurt or help."

AGENCY SHOP BILL

The Fort Worth lawyer added, "Texans don't seem to be interested in any race this year... They seemed to be turned off."

The other Republican gubernatorial candidate, Jim Granberry of Lubbock, spoke in Abilene at a luncheon sponsored by Taylor County supporters.

The former Lubbock mayor said Briscoe should take a stand on an agency shop bill which would permit labor and management to negotiate contracts requiring all employees of a firm to pay an agency fees or dues.

Granberry said he was against such a measure and would veto one if it were passed by the legislature.

Bob Bullock, candidate for state comptroller, campaigned in Orange, Port Arthur and Galveston during the day.

Bullock said the 2 per cent fee levied by the comptroller's office for processing city sales tax collections back to the cities is "unwarranted, excessive and an obvious back door scheme to pay for a large part of the comptroller's operations."

He added that the fee now runs about $4 million a year. He promised to lower the fee to the actual cost of collection if he were elected.

Litigation Over Service At Love Field Expanded

DALLAS (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge William M. Taylor Jr. has granted a motion by Braniff International for permission to become a party to Southwest Airlines' case against the City of Dallas, which wants to close Dallas Love Field to commercial airline flights.

Taylor granted on Wednesday Southwest's motion for a temporary restraining order preventing the city from enforcing against Southwest an ordinance which would close Love Field to commercial flights beginning May 1.

Braniff asked Taylor Thursday to extend the restraining order to also exclude Braniff from enforcement of the ordinance. Taylor had said in granting Southwest's motion Wednesday that he could not include Braniff in his order because it was not a party to the case.

Braniff said in its motion to the U.S. District Court that any restraining order which gave one airline an exclusive monopoly and would deny Braniff the right to also use Love Field would constitute unjust discrimination under federal law.

Meanwhile, the Dallas Morning News quoted "an authoritative source" as saying that Taylor plans to gather all interested parties for a showdown in hopes of settling the controversy.

The News said the federal judge will try to bring together attorneys for the airlines involved and the cities of Dallas and Fort Worth, as well as the Civil Aeronautics Board and Texas Aeronautics Commission.

The newspaper said Taylor hopes to set up the meeting before April 26, when a hearing is scheduled on whether to extend the 10-day restraining order.

Meet Jesus Week Set

Plans have been completed for "Meet Jesus" week at Midway Baptist, according to the Rev. Rufus Wilson, minister. Dr. Kenneth Patrick, First Baptist pastor, will be the evangelist, and Dan McClinton, Temple Baptist minister of music, will direct the music.

Services will be for Sunday, April 28, through the following Sunday, at 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. daily except 7 p.m. Sundays.

Museum Sets Party Date

Activities of the Heritage Museum were reported at the quarterly meeting of the trustees Thursday afternoon at the museum.

The date for the Spring Chuck Wagon Party for members and their invited guests has been set tentatively for the evening of May 23, said George Zachariah, vice president who was in charge of the meeting.

So far, the pioneer-days exhibit, carried on the theme of Shine Phillips' book, has drawn around 300 visitors, said Gerri Atwell, curator. She reminded that the museum is open Saturday and Sunday afternoons for convenience of those who can't visit during the week.

There has been a good response to membership invitations said Mrs. Clyde Angel, chairman, and the museum is operating within its budget, said Sidney Clark treasurer.
