GOOD REASON FOR TRIPLE CELEBRATION
George Starr, 90; Florence Lidren, 81

Two Celebrations Call For Another

SEATTLE (AP) — George Starr will turn 90 Wednesday. Florence Lidren turns 81 the same day. They're celebrating by getting married.

Starr, who retired 14 years ago as chairman of the King County Democratic committee, was supposed to be guest of honor at a birthday party thrown by his old friends.

"I laughed when they told me," Starr said. "I said 'I'm going to get married.'" So the party was switched to Tuesday.

Starr and Mrs. Lidren met briefly 26 years ago. Mrs. Lidren, a widow, wanted a job in the postal service. Starr, who was Seattle postmaster at the time, got her a job at a post office contract station.

But they didn't see each other again until about three months ago, about a month after Starr's second wife died. He initiated the romance by calling Mrs. Lidren to ask if he could pay her a visit.

"I thought about it for a little while and said I guess it couldn't hurt anything," she said.

He began visiting once a week. Each time, they sat on her large davenport and talked. She said that each time they sat a little closer.

A month ago, he popped the question.

"I was shocked," she said.

He wasn't all that sure himself. He said he thought it might be a little soon to remarry a third time, only five months after his wife's death.

But the reservations didn't bother one of Mrs. Lidren's sons, the Rev. Clay Cooper of Spokane.

"Well, you're not kids anymore," he said. "This is the third time for both of you."

The honeymoon will be in Tahiti.

Some Canned Food May Be Hard To Find

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government market experts say consumers will have no trouble finding relatively large supplies of meat at supermarkets next month but warn that a little searching will be needed to find canned vegetables and some other food items.

Generally, says the Agriculture Department, shoppers will have enough of most items to go around during May shopping trips. The preview of next month's grocery store situation was announced today in a "Food Marketing Alert" by the department.

The brief report was confined only to what USDA experts see as the food supply situation and did not include predictions on prices or over-all grocery costs.

Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz told a news conference last week, however, that consumers already have seen two-thirds of this year's food price increase occur. Prices are expected to go up "a bit more," he said, but not at the rate of recent months.

Butz said he thought an earlier prediction by his department that 1974 grocery store food prices most likely would go up 12 per cent from last year's average still was valid. The 1973 increase was 16 per cent from the previous 12-month average.

The alert report, distributed to large-volume food buyers such as hotels and restaurants, said beef and pork production in May is expected to exceed year-earlier levels. Broiler chickens, turkeys and eggs also are expected to be in larger supply.

"Canned vegetable supplies stay well below normal," the report said. "Early March canners' stocks of snapbeans, sweet corn and green peas... were 9 per cent less than a year earlier. Frozen vegetables, while moving faster than last year, are generally adequate."

Potatoes, which have soared to record prices the past season, will continue to be "lighter than normal" in store supplies, the report said.

Zebra News Forthcoming

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mayor Joseph Alioto temporarily has left the campaign trail to confer with aides about a new, undisclosed development in the Zebra street shootings.

Bill O'Brien, Alioto's press secretary, said the mayor could have a major announcement today concerning the random shootings that have left 12 people dead and six wounded in the last five months.

The mayor abruptly canceled a series of weekend appearances in his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor and returned to San Francisco before dawn Saturday. He said his return here "is Zebra related," but refused to elaborate.

Syrians, Israeli Slugging It Out

By The Associated Press
Israeli and Syrian jets battled above Mt. Hermon today in what the Tel Aviv command described as the biggest air battle since the October war. The Syrian command said two Israeli F4 Phantom jets and two Syrian MIG21s were lost in the battle. Israel said all four downed warplanes were Syrian.

Witnesses in southern Lebanon said a Syrian helicopter flew into Lebanon to rescue the pilots of the downed MIGs. Lebanese sources said a search was underway for other fighter jets that might have crashed into Lebanon's western Bekaa valley.

An earlier report from Damascus said Syrian antiaircraft missiles destroyed an Israeli jet raiding Syrian positions on Mt. Hermon, but Israel denied the report.

The dogfights developed after Israeli and Syrian jets bombed and strafed the crest of the strategic 9,200-foot-high mountain.

Loud sonic booms shook Damascus and residents rushed to the rooftops to watch the battles. Villagers in south Lebanon said they saw Syrian and Israeli jets firing missiles at each other.

The air battle was the second in the post-October fighting. On April 19 Israel claimed downing two Syrian MIGs and losing two Phantoms to ground fire over Mt. Hermon. Syria claimed downing 17 Israeli planes.

Syrian patrols raided an Israeli forward position on the Golan Heights before dawn today and "captured arms and ammunition left behind by fleeing enemy soldiers," the Syrian command reported.

Move On To Rid Cars Of Controls

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Environmental Protection Agency has joined forces with liberal Democrats in the House to fight a proposed amendment that would take exhaust controls off roughly two-thirds of the nation's automobiles.

The measure by Rep. Louis C. Wyman, a conservative New Hampshire Republican, has gained support since it first was introduced last December.

Opponents privately concede that it has a chance of passing if Wyman goes through with his plans to offer it as an amendment to environmental legislation scheduled for floor action this week.

Rains Up To 2.8 Inches Fall In Big Spring Area

Early-morning thundershowers punched a hole in the drought in scattered areas Monday, and overcast skies gave hopes that more of the parched area would gain relief.

Reports ranged from .40 of an inch up to 2.80 inches, the latter in the Luther area of north-central Howard County.

A trip from central Martin County eastward through most of Howard County appeared to have received sufficient moisture for planting. In southwestern Borden County, the Colorado River ran and a number of stock tanks received urgently needed water.

At Big Spring, the fall approximated three-quarters of an inch and it was lighter to the south.

HALF AN INCH

The Colorado River Municipal Water District reported the river was flowing 5 1/2 feet at the upper end of Lake J.B. Thomas, but no heavy inflow was anticipated.

Garden City and Glasscock

County mostly received about half an inch. This was true for .40 at Forsan in southeast Howard and for Otischalk which had .55. Lomax, in southwest Howard County had .9 but north of there the intensity picked up steadily. Elbow, southwest of Big Spring, had 1.20 inches.

Sufficient rain for planting appeared on hand for he Tarzan-Lenora areas of central Martin County eastward through Knott, in northeast Howard, where reports ranged from 1.7 to 2.0 or more.

From Fairview, eight miles north of Big Spring, east and northeastward, the fall ranged from 2.0 inches up to 2.4 at Luther. Mrs. O. R. Crow reported 2.4 at one part of the farm and 2.6 at another. The Smith place had 2.8, and the Webb Mix farm reported 2.4 inches.

HEAVY FALL

On the Howard-Borden line, the Wilson Ranch reported 2.3 to 2.75 inches with the fall heavy enough to fill stock tanks. Further to the west, the Rich Anderson Ranch in southwest Borden had 2 inches or more, and here again needed stock water was caught. Gail had 1.4 inches but the fall lightened to the north with about .80 inches northeast at Fluvanna.

In southeastern Dawson County, Ackerly reported 1.5 to 2.25 inches and the fall appeared fairly general.

The U.S. Experiment Farm reported .69 of an inch and at Sand Springs, the total was only .40 and Coahoma, half an inch.

Reports from the CRMWD showed 1.0 inches at the office here, 1.5 inches at the south end of the dam and 1.7 at the north end of Lake Thomas. Snyder had 1.6 inches, but there were no reports immediately downstream, and particularly at Lake E. V. Spence at Robert Lee.

Texas Electric Service Company reported .67 at the switching station at the east edge of town, .50 at Colorado City, 1.50 at China Grove and 1.2 at Cuthbert, both in northern Mitchell County, and .74 of an inch at Lamesa, in central Dawson County.

Approximately one-third of the farming area appeared to be in a position to plant. Ranches were given hope that the grass at least will come through, and, as mentioned, the stockwater in the northern areas was a boon. The fall in the southern areas buoyed hopes, but was too light to be significant.

IN TV TALK TONIGHT President To Disclose Watergate Decisions

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon will make a nationally televised and broadcast address at 9 p.m. EDT today to announce his response to a House Judiciary Committee subpoena and "to disclose other decisions in relation to the Watergate matter," the White House said.

Deputy Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren, in announcing plans for Nixon's prime time address to the nation, refused to say what Nixon's response would be to the committee's subpoena for 42 presidential conversations.

And Warren also refused to elaborate on what he meant by "other decisions" the President has made.

But his wording indicated

Nixon had settled upon a course intended to blunt further requests and subpoenas for White House tapes.

TWO ARE FREED OF ALL CHARGES Jury For Mitchell-Stans Started Out 'Screaming'

NEW YORK (AP) — A jury that started out "screaming and yelling across the table" has acquitted John N. Mitchell and one-time Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans of all charges in their criminal conspiracy case.

The nine men and three women came to unanimous agreement Sunday afternoon after 26 hours of deliberation that the former cabinet colleagues were innocent of conspiracy, obstruction of justice and perjury. Both were accused of trying to block a Securities and Exchange Commission investigation of financier Robert L. Vesco, in return for Vesco's secret $200,000 cash contribution to President Nixon's re-election campaign.

Referring to Vesco and his aides, Juror Clarence Brown said after the verdict: "They wanted to get something, but I don't think that Stans and Mitchell ever fell for it."

The jury's forewoman, Sybil Kucharski, said, "We were off in little groups screaming and yelling across the table" when the deliberations began. She said the jury was split even on the conspiracy count, so it turned to the six separate perjury counts against Mitchell and Stans.

"After looking through all the perjury charges, the rest was easy," Miss Kucharski said. "We figured there couldn't be any conspiracy if there was no perjury."

The verdict brought a smile to the face of the normally un-demonstrative Mitchell. But it brought no legal surcease. He faces trial in Washington at a still unset date on almost identical charges in connection with the cover-up of the Watergate break-in.

GLAD HAND FOR MITCHELL — John Mitchell, former U.S. attorney general, shakes hands as he leaves court in New York Sunday after his acquittal for charges of conspiracy and obstruction of justice, and perjury.

REBEL EMERGES FROM JUNGLE Like Chief Of State

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Khmer Rouge rebel leader who is treated as a government complete with ministers.

Although Samphan is war minister and chief of staff, he also has been equipped with a Chinese jet airplane and currently is visiting Albania, Algeria and Romania with two other high-level associates.

American officials say it is possible that at some later date Samphan may be the man who will negotiate a settlement of the Cambodian war with the Lon Nol government.

But Chinese Communist leaders now appear to be signalling to all concerned persons that someone besides Sihanouk speaks for the Communist areas of Cambodia.

There was a Communist uprising in Battambang province of Cambodia in 1967. After it was put down Sihanouk declared "I had 1,000 Khmer Rouge killed and never lost a night's sleep."

Samphan and two associates, Hu Nim and Hou Yvon, disappeared after the uprising. When they reappeared in the Khmer Rouge movement after Sihanouk was deposed, they became known as "the three ghosts."

Samphan has an array of titles — member of the Politburo of the Khmer (Cambodian) Communist party, acting prime minister, defense minister and chief of staff of the Khmer liberation armed forces.

He is part of a massive program estimated by U.S. experts to be costing Peking at least $500 million a year, furnishing the Khmer Rouge movement with arms, supplies and

ONASSIS-REFINERY — IV He Dabbled In Politics

By MICHAEL PUTZEL
Associated Press Writer
CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — When Olympic Refineries, Inc. unveiled plans for a $600 million oil refinery, the man who did most of the talking for the company was Peter J. Booras, a Greek-American businessman who has dabbled in politics.

NOT ON PAYROLL
Various described as a spokesman for New Hampshire representative for Aristotle Onassis' refinery company, Booras has been among the most active supporters of the proposal to build the complex on the New Hampshire seacoast. Both he and Olympic say he is not on the company payroll, has no financial interest in the project and is acting only as a citizen who believes the state would be well served by a refinery.

Booras heads a greeting-card manufacturing company in Keene, N.H., but spends much of his time shuttling between Olympic's temporary offices in Concord and Dover.

In 1972, he organized a New Hampshire primary write-in campaign for then-Vice President Spiro T. Agnew to counter what Booras perceived as pressure on President Nixon to dump Agnew from the ticket.

Booras also ran in that primary as a candidate for the Republican nomination for U.S. Senate. Although he outspent his competitors by a substantial margin, he lost the race.

TOP CONTRIBUTORS
Campaign records show the Booras campaign was financed almost entirely by $30,000 of the candidate's personal funds and more than $15,000 in contributions from outside the state.

One of the largest individual contributors listed by Booras was William Hammerman of 10 Light St., Baltimore, Md. who gave $1,500. That address is the office of the Hammerman Organization, Inc., headed by I. H. "Bud" Hammerman, identified by the Justice Department as an Agnew confidant who set up the cash payment scheme for illegal kickbacks.

A reporter telephoning the Hammerman Organization was told that no William Hammerman is associated with the mortgage banking firm.

New Hampshire Atty. Gen. Warren Rudman recently announced his office is investigating several apparent violations of the state campaign finance law in the Booras campaign.

available on the price paid for the land options, but from what is known, they probably cost several hundred thousands dollars.

'MR. GRATCO'
Booras said the real estate men were acting "on my behalf" but that he was actually spending "Mr. Gratsos' money."

Business associates of Onassis, however, say it is not his style to risk his own money so early in such a risky venture. They suggest the option money came from other sources who hoped to gain if the Olympic proposal went through.

One source in New Hampshire's Greek-American community said "Papanicolaou told me that Onassis was paying for the promotion, nothing else." Nicholas F. Papanicolaou is an Onassis protege and listed in corporate records as vice president, treasurer and a director of Olympic Refineries Inc.

George Pappademas, a Nashua real estate broker, helped Booras buy the land options, and town records show he bought a few parcels of land bordering the refinery area for himself.

RIDICULOUS
Olympic spokesmen say the company owns the options, but they remain in Pappademas' name in town records.

Since the town of Durham voted overwhelmingly against rezoning Durham Point, the options covered land on which the refinery cannot be built.

Olympic Refineries Inc. appeared to withdraw to Onassis' offices in New York after it lost the showdown in Durham. It announced the closing of its Concord, N.H., office, and refinery opponents began to drift back to their everyday lives.

Then, at a special town meeting in Newmarket just south of Durham, the townspeople voted in April to welcome a refinery proposal for their community.

Olympic sprang back to life. Engineers were summoned to redraw their plans, and meetings were scheduled with the governor.

"Of course we are going to make a proposal," announced Olympic President Gratsos. "It would be ridiculous if we didn't."

POTENTIAL SITE
Booras says he was responsible for getting Olympic President Constantine E. Gratsos interested in New Hampshire as a potential site for a refinery.

Booras did not elaborate.

Before Olympic announced publicly that it was looking at New Hampshire as a refinery site, several Greek-American real estate men began buying options for land on Durham Point and on the Isles of Shoals, small islands off the coast.

Eventually these options put together about 3,500 acres on the mainland, most of it farm and woodlands.

The options promised more than $5 million if the land is purchased. No firm estimate is

Seyse and Albin Attend Conclave

Two college instructors from West Texas attended the Great Plains Association of Chemistry Teachers Conference in Wichita, Kan., recently.

Representing Howard College at Big Spring was Dr. Robert Seyse. He was accompanied by Leslie Albin, chemistry instructor at Western Texas College at Snyder.

"The conference focused on the techniques of establishing an audio-tutorial teaching program for chemistry," Seyse said.

He says he is in the process of establishing such a program at Howard College.

Seyse says the audio-tutorial method allows the teacher to record each class session on tape, using either voice or video tape or both, and then placing these tapes on file for the student's subsequent use.

"That way the student can play the tape over and over until he masters the lesson," he concluded. "This allows the student to work at his own pace and frees the instructor for other educational activities."

WASHINGTON (AP) — After nearly 50 years, legislation is still pending to compensate Maros Rojas Rodriguez for the thumb, first and middle fingers blown off his right hand by an Army Air Corps bomb fuse. Now it appears a claim filed originally by his father finally may win approval.

Then a 13-year-old boy, young Rodriguez discovered the bomb fuse in a Texas potato field north of San Antonio's Kelly Field in 1925. Authorities later determined it had lain there for several years.

A board of officers at Kelly Field studied the case that summer and recommended that Juan Rodriguez, Marcos Rojas Rodriguez' father, be awarded $900 for his son — a figure to which he agreed.

In Washington, however, the secretary of war at the time was not sure whether the claim was for injuries to Juan Rodriguez or his son and did not forward the claim to Congress, according to a Department of the Army report.

Various bills were introduced to aid Rodriguez over the years but, according to the report, none of the private bills introduced prior to 1943 for his relief was enacted.

SFA Recruited Myers Illegally

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Stephen F. Austin will not be allowed to compete for the Lone Star Conference basketball title or play in post-season games for two years.

LSC faculty representatives put the Lumberjacks on two years' probation Saturday after receiving a report from Holloway and Associates of Dallas concerning the recruiting of guard Archie Myers.

SFA was charged with paying Myers' expenses to the NAA national tournament while he was still a student at Howard County Junior College, promising Myers the use of an automobile and other financial incentives and assisting him in obtaining automobile financing.

SFA has won five LSC basketball titles in the last 10 years. Myers, from Cleveland, Miss., averaged 22.2 points per game last season and was second team All-LSC as he finished a two year career for the Lumberjacks.

In other moves, the 10-member conference was divided into East-West zones for basketball play and Brownwood will be the site of the first post-season championship tournament Feb. 23-25 1975. The top three teams in each zone will advance to the tournament.

Steers Visit OHS Tuesday

ODESSA — The Big Spring Steers head into their final week of a not-so-happy season with new hopes Tuesday when they visit the Odessa Bronchos in their next-to-last game.

Earl Reynolds will be on the mound for the Longhorns, who added a touch of class to their 5-19 season mark and 1-4 Dist. 5-AAAA second half standing by belting league-leading Abilene Cooper 10-6 Saturday.

Odessa, 1-4 and 10-12, was busy pulling off an upset of its own Saturday, however, with a 8-7 triumph over Midland.

The last time Big Spring and Odessa met, the Bronchos took advantage of nine Steer errors and smacked 14 hits in an 11-7 triumph. Game time Tuesday is 4 p.m.

In other 5-AAAA action Tuesday, Abilene Cooper hosts Midland High, Odessa Permian visits San Angelo and Abilene High goes to Midland Lee. The two Abilene Schools still lead the second half with 31 marks, while Lee and Midland follow at 3-2. San Angelo is at 2-4, along with first-half champion Permian.

Yanks' Nettles 'Home Run Hot'

By The Associated Press Meet the new home run king, Hank Aaron? No, Graig Nettles.

Nettles has done something that even Aaron has not been able to accomplish yet. The New York Yankee third baseman broke an American League record and tied the major league mark with his 11th home run of April during Sunday's 8-5 loss to Texas in the second game of a double-header.

The Yankees, who beat the Rangers 11-2 in the opener, have the hottest long-bat hitter in the majors in Nettles. Some-

In the National League, the New York Mets beat the San Francisco Giants twice, 6-0 and 6-4; the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Houston Astros 7-3; the Chicago Cubs missed the Atlanta Braves 4-3; the St. Louis Cardinals routed the Cincinnati Reds 9-2; the San Diego Padres nipped the Philadelphia Phillies 5-4 and the Los Angeles Dodgers blanked the Montreal Expos 4-0.

Designated hitter Tommy Davis greeted Oakland relief ace Rollie Fingers with a run-scoring single in the eighth inning, lifting Baltimore over the Philadelphia A's.

Pressure Helps Celts Rip Milwaukee, 98-83

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Boston Celtics challenged the Milwaukee Bucks at their strength—superstars Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Oscar Robertson—and lived to tell about it.

Dave Cowens' outside shooting kept the 7-foot-2 Abdul-Jabbar away from the Boston basket Sunday, while pressure team defense wore down Robertson. The formula, plus 28 points by old pro John Havlicek, swept the Celtics to a 98-83 victory and a 1-0 lead in the National Basketball Association championship playoffs.

"If we had just let them do what they wanted to do, what would have killed us," said JoJo White, who teamed with Don Chaney to apply relentless pressure to Milwaukee's depleted guard corps.

"We wanted to make Oscar handle the ball as much as possible because he gets tired," White said, adding the Bucks can expect more pressure in Game 2 of the best-of-seven series on Tuesday here.

"We're going to press no matter what," he said. "There's nothing they can do about it. They can't hire a helicopter to bring the ball up."

Abdul-Jabbar, the NBA's Most Valuable Player, pounded in 35 points and grabbed 14 rebounds. But only two teammates, Bob Dandridge and reserve Mickey Davis, scored in double figures—managing 12 points each.

Dandridge, guarded most of the time by the 34-year-old Havlicek, sank only six of 17 shots and scored only eight points until the final minute. Robertson connected on only two of 13 shots.

Cowens, whose 19 points matched White's total, sank three consecutive baskets midway in the first quarter as the Celtics broke from an 11-11 tie to a permanent lead.

Cowens played much of the time near the top of the key or on the right side of what Boston Coach Tom Heinsohn called the Celtics' no-post offense. The strategy forced Abdul-Jabbar away from the defensive basket, opening the middle for drives by Havlicek.

Gilbert, NY Rangers Roll
By The Associated Press Rod Gilbert's hockey stick has scored more goals than any player in New York Ranger history. And now the same curved blade leads New York in influenced goals.

Gilbert influenced one goal and scored the other in sudden death overtime, giving the Rangers a 2-1 National Hockey League playoff victory over the Philadelphia Flyers Sunday. The triumph squared the best-of-seven semifinal series at 2-2.

Elsewhere in the NHL, the Boston Bruins whipped the Chicago Black Hawks 6-2 and gained a 3-2 lead in that semifinal series.

In the World Hockey Association semifinals, the Houston Aeros tripped the Minnesota Fighting Saints 4-1 and evened their series 2-2, and the Chicago Cougars shaded the Toronto Toros 3-2 to move to a 2-1 advantage.

The Rangers were down 1-0 late in the second period when Bobby Rousseau sent a slap shot flying toward the Philadelphia net. Flyer goalie Bernie Parent got his stick on the puck but it popped behind him, falling outside the goal line.

Aeros 4, Saints 1
Revitalized 46-year-old Gordie Howe, held to one goal in seven previous playoff games, recovered from the flu by scoring the winning goal against Minnesota.

'Confidence' Aids Miller

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — "Confidence is from ear to ear," said a grinning Allen Miller after nabbing his first Professional Golfers Association tour triumph and an $18,000 check in the Tallahassee Open.

The third-year pro from Pensacola, Fla., leader of the tournament from the start, had three bogeys and a one-over-par 73 Sunday on the 7,124-yard Killdeer Golf and Country Club course.

But he clinched the win with a 29-foot chip shot on the par-5 17th hole which stopped a foot and a half from the cup and resulted in a birdie.

"I really didn't have any shot at all," Miller said. "I just walked up, hit it and hoped I hit it the right way. It's one of the best shots I ever hit in my life."

Miller then watched playing partner Joe Inman, a tour rookie, miss an 18-foot birdie putt on the final hole which could have resulted in a sudden death playoff.

Inman's closing 71 tied him with veteran Dan Sikes and Eddie Pearce at 13-under 175, one stroke behind Miller, for $6,960 each.

T Of C Golf Title To Johnny Miller

CARLSBAD, Calif. (AP) — Johnny Miller wasn't expecting to win the Tournament of Champions. Not after that opening 75. And, as late as the last round he was pulling for Buddy Allin, a onetime teammate at Brigham Young.

"He's a gutsy little guy who's had a lot of problems. A real gentleman. I was pulling for him to win," Miller said, smiling, and added: "But I was trying to get in my licks, too."

Miller claimed his fifth pro golf title of the year Sunday with a clutch four-foot par-saving putt on the last hole that let him avoid a sudden-death playoff with Allin and John Mahaffey.

Miller, the U.S. Open champion and the sensation of the tour this season, was the only man in the elite field of 25 tournament winners who broke par in the windy, pressure-packed final round. He had a 69 and a 280 total.

Allin and Mahaffey, now a runner-up three times this season, each had a share of the top spot until they bogeyed the 72nd hole. They tied for second at 281, Mahaffey with a final 70, Allin with 71.

Cardinals Edged By Snyder In 11

SNYDER — Julius Malone stroked a run-scoring single in the bottom of the 11th inning Sunday to hand the Snyder All-Stars a 2-1 decision over the Big Spring Cardinals in semi-pro baseball action.

Orlando Obague went the distance for the Cards, who slipped to 0-3 with the defeat. Tom Arista, Obague, who had a triple and Oscar Cervantez, who drove in the Cardinals' only run, sparked the Big Springers' plate attack.

LITTLE LEAGUE Rangers Smack Devils; Dodgers, Colts Triumph

The Rangers were the most offensive team in Big Spring Little League baseball Saturday night, pounding out a 23-2 National League victory over the Devils.

The Dodgers blanked the Red Sox 6-0 in a Texas League bout and the Colts earned a 6-0 decision over the Cabots in American League play Saturday in other local action.

Mike Douglas and winning pitcher Gary Burgess slammed home runs to spark the Rangers' 14-hit effort, which included seven extra base hits. Douglas, Victor Millenger and Russell Bledsoe all had three hits for the winners, with Millenger getting a pair of doubles.

Harold Danford suffered the loss for the Devils.

The Dodgers took advantage of the hitting of Fred Escovedo and the pitching of James Magers in running their season mark to 2-0, keeping them in a tie for the Texas League lead with the Tigers. Greg Jones, Mike Herrera and Carl Trevino all had doubles in the Red Sox' losing cause, and Trevino took the defeat at the team fell to 1-1.

The Pirates are tied with the Sox at 1-1 in the TL, and the Cardinals and Cubs stand at 2-2. The Colts stayed even with the Stars in the American League Saturday by bouncing Cabot, with Mike Workman tossing a two-hitter and Greg Henry and Mike Christian leading the plate attack. The Cabots, who dropped their third game without a win, had Mark Vassar on the mound.

Following the Stars and Colts, both at 3-0, in the AL are the Pirates at 2-1, the Jets with a 1-2 mark and the Cabots and Hawks at 0-3.

60 Wins BSGA Louisiana Draw

The fivesome of Bobby Smith, Burl Dennis, Hershel Harris, Tom Mills and Bill Barton fashioned a 60 Sunday and captured first place in the Big Spring Golf Association's Louisiana Draw tournament at Municipal Golf Course.

Finishing second at 61 were Bob Waters, Ronnie Jones, Avery Falkner, Willie Graham and R. M. Oliver, while the team of Jerry Barton, David Hanson, Hal Rosson, O. A. Madison and Earl Archer came in with a 62 for third-place honors.

Fifty-five golfers competed.

Pre-Crisis Habits In Evidence Again

Motorists looking for gasoline this weekend found plenty of fuel and officials said it looked like the end-of-the-month shortages that plagued the country were over. But they warned that the long lines could be back.

"The panic is gone," said Harold P. Murphy Jr., president of the Bay State Gasoline Retailers Association. People are able to get fill-ups.

Murphy and others stressed, however, that unless people continue conservation measures, the long lines, closed stations and short supplies would reappear. They said the end of the Arab oil embargo did not mean an end to the gasoline shortage and expressed concern over drivers who have gone back to pre-crisis motoring habits.

The automobile association in Utah checked 50 gasoline stations and found that all planned to stay open until Saturday evening. Thirty-nine of the stations reported they would be open on Sunday.

"None are limiting their purchases," said Woody Dunn, manager of the Utah branch of the AAA. He also said prices seem to have stabilized—52 cents a gallon for regular gas on the average and 57 cents for premium.

"There definitely is an improvement," said Dunn. "Sun-

Probation Is Given Three

Guilty pleas in three separate 118th District Court cases have resulted in 10 years of probation for each of the three defendants.

Theodore Diaz, 18, 1003 N. 2nd St., Friday afternoon pleaded guilty to participating in the Sept., 1973, robbery of Larry Sanders.

Also Friday afternoon, James Leon (Jamie) Hanes, 24, Hugo, Okla., pleaded guilty to theft of a 1970 luxury car belonging to Robert Snow Griffin on April 16.

Hanes was arrested and the car recovered near Donaldsonville, La., April 18.

Earlier this week, Delores Wrightsil, 22, 506 N. Lancaster St., pleaded guilty to forgery and passing.

An indictment charging Frank Dutchover with forgery has been dismissed. Dutchover died April 19.

Quayle, Hopkins Sparkle In QB VII Tuesday Night

NEW YORK (AP) — During the good old days at Cape Kennedy, the aerospace folks had a fine definition of an elephant: A mouse built to NASA specifications. The concept is revived tonight on ABC-TV.

Substitute "Hollywood" for "NASA" and you've a fair idea of the first part of "QB VII," a mammoth TV movie adapted from Leon Uris' novel. Tonight's effort is generally a three-hour epic in a boat.

However, don't miss the second installment Tuesday night. It's vastly superior, with particularly brilliant performances by England's Anthony Quayle and Anthony Hopkins.

"QB VII," a nickname for an English court, is about a libel suit that actually was brought against Uris in 1964.

The man filing the suit is a distinguished Polish-born doctor accused in a book by a Jewish-American author of performing criminally-experimental operations on fellow inmates at a Nazi concentration camp in Poland during World War II.

The Uris book, despite its 426-page length, at least had the virtue of being tautly written and direct. Not so in the case of the first three hours of the film version. It seems to take forever in telling the separate pretrial stories of the writer, portrayed by Ben Gazzara, and the doctor, played by Hopkins.

Instead of setting the stage, it nearly demolishes it, especially in chronicling the writer's post-war rise from hero to best-selling novelist to famous, successful and disillusioned Hollywood script-writer.

The movie's scribe is the sort of sored writer who offers his mistress such lines as: "Everything I write turns to junk. I'm going to be the best junkwriter there is — and that's awful."

So is tonight's opening episode, save for its closing scene.

At issue is whether the doctor collaborated with Nazi physicians in removing healthy reproductive organs from thousands of Jews — without anesthetics — as part of medical "experiments" at the camp.

But not all the retold horror is in court testimony.

Service Station Course Due Again

Howard College at Big Spring has scheduled its unique service station equipment repair course for two weeks this summer.

Takes More Than Words

Tuesday has been proclaimed as a day of national humiliation, prayer and fasting.

The word humiliation requires some definition, for in the popular sense it has been equivocated with "a painful loss of dignity" or to be mortified. Perhaps a better appreciation comes from the preferred meaning of the root word, humble, which is to be not proud or arrogant, or to lower in pride.

It would seem therefore that the sense of humiliation is not one of acute loss of self-respect and deep personal embarrassment, but the act of humbling one's self before God.

Certainly it always is well for man to regularly acknowledge his own lack of self-sufficiency before God, to rid himself not of all pride but of false pride, and to reaffirm an ultimate need of utter dependence upon God.

But proclamations — no matter how noble or beautiful the words — mean little unless they are heeded, and the special day will contribute nothing special to your life or that of the nation unless you take time out to renew your own spirituality.

All We Need Is —

Once more the reports from Howard County banks affirm that last Autumn blessed us with that rarest of coincidences — a record crop and a record price.

Deposits gained at about two and a half times the rate of inflation, and this in the face of huge bites for income tax purposes by farmers who never before had such major worries.

So the economic health of our community apparently still is vigorous, a fact further attested by the continuing brisk trade for most local businesses.

There appears little to stand between us and another great year except the West Texas axiom: Nothing but what a three-inch rain wouldn't cure or help.

More Sophisticated

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

Now that our Leader in Washington has taken the initiative in the drive that lowered the automobile speed limit, look for that American institution called the speed trap to become more sophisticated and more oppressive.

SUCH SNARES are usually set up in hick towns where a wily sheriff or constable, together with his lackeys, conspire with an equally cunning justice of peace to put the arm on every unsuspecting person who tools through their domain at speeds exceeding 25 miles an hour.

The money such watchdogs of the law extract from their hapless victims is supposed to go into the public treasury, if for no other purpose than to guarantee the salary of another hired hand for the team. Not infrequently, it has been invested in schnapps or Scotch on the rocks and has even been known to go into "retirement" funds.

THE SPEED dragnet, of course, is a sure-fire, can't-fail method of heisting easy money from unwary strangers. It has worked so well in the past, some of the law types in the biggest communities are finding it increasingly easy to lean on alien motorists and, quite often, freeholders in their own precincts.

Many traffic officers, whether they admit it or not, have ticket quotas to meet and instructions for meeting such quotas usually come down from Olympus.

WHEN YOU put an abundance of money raised in such a way in the hands of the cops, and such funds become essential to the operation of a governing or regulatory body, what evolves is a zeal for over-enforcement of our canons. Under conditions where too strict an application of the statutes exists, outright extortion lurks right around the corner.

DON'T TELL me American industry can't make an automobile which is capable of consuming far less fuel than the present run-arounds. Columbus traveled great distances on just three gallons.

If you've come to the conclusion that no one cares whether you live or die, just miss a couple of car payments.

NOW THAT Christmas has long since come and gone, why don't we subscribe to a novel idea — form a club to pay for last year's gifts?

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

What do you think of the idea of their taking the Lord's Prayer and making a rock and roll record out of it?

R.L.L. Forgive me for correcting you, but I don't believe you put that song in the right category. It's more a folk tune than rock and roll.

In any event, it brings up the whole matter of the media by which spiritual truth is communicated. To some people, if the statements of Scripture are not heard in a monotone within the four walls of a sanctuary, it lacks authority. To others, however, if the Gospel does not come to their ears and heart in a medium of communication that they welcome, it doesn't come at all.

To have a preference is one thing. To have prejudice, so that we almost dictate to God's Spirit how He shall do His work in the world — is presumptuous and wrong.

It's natural that the contemporary sound, with its appeal to the young, would become a vehicle for sharing religious ideas. The lyrics of this song you mention actually stick closer to the original text of the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6, than perhaps many an accepted hymn.

Why not breathe a prayer whenever you're reminded of this song — that the Lord will use it somehow for His glory, and for the salvation of the lost.

Consumer Pessimism

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — If you share President Nixon's view of the economy you believe this year will be "a good year," next year will be "very good" and 1976 will be "the best in history."

That assessment, the first since the President assumed the additional, pivotal role of economic coordinator, was made last Thursday in a speech at Jackson, Miss.

If you share the President's optimism you are also in a minority as measured by the surveys, which have their limitations but which certainly can not be ignored.

The Survey Research Center's latest findings come with this bleak, broad and very bearish commentary from its economists, who operate the facility as part of the University of Michigan's Institute for Social Research:

"The consumer pessimism measured in the latest survey derives not only from the financial pressure consumers felt because of inflation, but also from psychological stress of uncertainty about the future brought about by adverse news concerning inflation, shortages, unemployment, and what many people view as failure of the government and its economic policies."

An important reason why consumer pessimism increased so rapidly, the economists said, was "the pervasive and growing lack of faith people have in their government."

In the strictly economic area, a good many prominent economists, bankers, union officials and businessmen have declared themselves uncertain of the future. They know the nation still has stamina and knowhow and that it continues to fight for economic goals, but they aren't certain they can be reached.

Arthur Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, has recently been emphasizing his fears rather than his hopes, maintaining that inflation threatens to undermine the economy if it isn't contained.

One of the biggest setbacks to the battle of prices was being announced by the Labor Department almost as the President spoke. Worker productivity, it said, took a nosedive in the first quarter of 1974.

Output per manhour of work—a more descriptive way of saying productivity—fell by 5.5 per cent, boosting employers' unit labor costs by 11.3 per cent and putting further pressure on prices.

There is probably not an economist alive who would argue that increased productivity isn't the basic, long-term solution to rising prices. But if it costs more and more to produce an item, it can't be sold for less, or even for the same price.

While everyone hopes the President is right, there's reason to be skeptical. If 1974 is to be a great year, the base for it must be forming now. So far it isn't that obvious.

Reinecke Plight

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke of California, campaigning for governor by inciting the hard-core Republican faithful against special prosecutor Leon Jaworski, in fact has carried on a calculated deception of the party faithful since mid-February.

JAWORSKI'S prosecutors first warned Reinecke on Feb. 11 that he would be indicted in the ITT scandal. That warning came long before the March 8 filing deadline for governor. But Reinecke hid the news even from his own key supporters and entered the race for governor, thereby compounding Republican miseries in California.

The Republican hard core until now has believed Ed Reinecke, just as it did Spiro T. Agnew six months ago. Although under federal indictment for perjury, he has convinced Republican true believers that Jaworski is conducting an anti-GOP "witchhunt." This week's Field poll, incredibly, still gives Reinecke a 4-percentage-point lead over his rival for the nomination, highly respected State Controller Houston Flournoy. Once again, the combination of unprincipled politicians and gullible followers with a persecution complex could prove lethal for the Republican party.

REINECKE WAS an obscure conservative Congressman in 1969 when Gov. Ronald Reagan selected him to be his lieutenant governor and heir apparent. Although early polls showed Reinecke leading all other Republicans for governor in 1974, his future was clouded by Watergate. Did he commit perjury in 1972 by telling a Senate committee he had not discussed with then Atty. Gen. John Mitchell an International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. pledge to finance the Republican national convention until after settlement of ITT antitrust suits? If he were indicted, advisers warned Reinecke, he should not run for governor for the party's sake.

BY EARLY 1974, Reinecke was pressing Jaworski to accelerate his case and inform him whether he would be indicted or not. On Feb. 11, the telephone call came from Jaworski's men in Washington: the prosecutors had developed a strong case against Reinecke, and he surely would be indicted. On a quick trip to Washington Feb. 13: "I feel more optimistic than ever that the decision will be speedy and that I will be cleared."

ON FEB. 14, in Washington, Reinecke and his lawyers met with the prosecutors to dissuade them from seeking indictments. They failed. But Reinecke publicly gave the impression he was unable to get advanc word one way or the other.

REINECKE THEN sought a lie-detector test to establish his innocence before the March 8 filing deadline. Unable to get quick results, Reinecke filed for governor anyway on Feb. 26. Arrangements for a lie-detector test, finally administered by the FBI in Sacramento March 14, did delay an indictment. The indictment, when it did come April 3, was hardly the shock Reinecke professed. He added: This is a purge of the entire Republican party, not just one man."

Gold Miners Learned To Ski

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lost Sierra is an isolated corner of north-eastern California that the '49ers penetrated for gold. In the beginning, most of them abandoned their diggings with the first heavy snowfall and retreated to the protection of the lowlands and valleys.

The Scandinavians jumping ship in San Francisco to join the gold rush taught them to make skis, and the miners conquered a region that was snow-bound for seven months of the year, with drifts as high as 40 feet, snowbound for seven months of the year, with drifts as high as 40 feet.

No Horsepower

NORWICH, England (AP) — A high court judge on circuit in Norfolk has denied his traditional ride to court in a horse-drawn carriage because of the gasoline shortage. It would have used too much precious gas to bring the horses 200 miles by truck.

Oops! Those Pesky Boborygmi

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I don't have most of the problems people ask you about but I have one question. I realize it is comic relief, but here is a limerick that always tickled me:

As I sat by the Duchess at tea
It was just as I thought it would be.
The rumbles abdominal
Were simply phenomenal
And everyone thought it was me!

What makes these audible rumbles in our innards? Whence the actual noise? — Mrs. G.H.R.

The noise is called borborygmus (plural borborygmi) and it is the cascading of fluid contents and-or gas through an overly active bowel. Remember that when food has left the stomach it has reached a fluid or at least semi-liquid consistency.

In its course through the small intestine and then the large colon (bowel) this fluid moves down, up, across and down again, some of the time in a spiral course.

If it moves along gently and smoothly, that's fine. But if the bowel is somewhat overactive, it can cascade from one segment of the bowel into another with the gurgling sound the Duchess produced.

Many times the victim may be an air-swallower, without realizing it. (Air swallows rarely do.) So bubbles of air do their part.

In some instances some genuine disorder may be involved, too, celiac disease, or the "dumping syndrome" after gastric surgery, or some other

Timber Wolves Get New Home

NEW YORK (AP) — The often maligned timber wolf will be reestablished in the Huron Mountain area of northern Michigan if a conservationist project works out.

Experimenters are trapping a pack of five wolves in northern Minnesota, the one area south of the Canadian border with a comparatively healthy wolf population. After getting emedical checks, rabies and distemper shots and after being fitted with radio transmitters so that their movements can be followed easily, the wolves will be released.

The project is sponsored by the National Audubon Society, Northern Michigan University and Huron Mountain Wildlife Foundation.

digestive disorder. And various colon disorders we lump together as "colitis" are notable for causing hypermotility (overactivity) of the colon.

But I would say that tenosion is probably as frequent a cause as there is.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you explain what the "morning after" pill is? When is it taken? How long after intercourse? Where can they be obtained? Do you recommend use? Is it effective? — N.G.

This is a high-estrogen medication, started 24 to 48 hours after intercourse and continued for five days. It is used as an emergency measure to prevent pregnancy but is NOT recommended as a substitute for accepted birth control methods. The possible consequences of continued use are open to suspicion. It is strictly a prescription medication, not an over-the-counter drug store item.

Troubled with gout? To learn of new treatment for this cruel and painful disease, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of his booklet, "Gout — The Modern Way To Stop It." Please enclose a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Lost And Found

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — It received hardly a mention in the newspapers, but the Pentagon last week just happened to "find" $266 million it didn't know it had.

IT SEEMS that the Defense Department had asked for $1.96 billion for aid to South Vietnam, but Congress had voted only $1.2 billion. Instead of the Pentagon getting upset by the cut in funds it announced that it had "found" $266 million which could make up the difference.

How did the Pentagon find the money? It's a very interesting story.

TWO WEEKS ago, two cleaning women in the Pentagon were working late at night in the basement of the building. One of the ladies was a new employee and she opened what she thought was a broom closet. Instead of brooms and mops she saw neatly piled stacks of brand-new $100 bills.

She and her colleague, Henrietta, brought into the supervisor back. He peered into the closet and became angry. "If I told them once I told them 100 times the only thing I want to see in broom closets is brooms. I'm going to get the duty officer."

THE DUTY officer, a colonel, was asked to come to the basement. When he showed up he couldn't believe his eyes. "How much money do you think there is in that closet?"

"Bout $266 million," Henrietta said. "Now what about our mops?" The colonel rushed off to call his superior at home. "General, the cleaning women just found $266 million in a broom closet in the basement."

THE GENERAL was furious. "Why are you bothering me at home at this hour about $266 million? Turn it over to Lost-and-Found."

"Yes, sir," the colonel said. The next day the Lost-and-Found officer put out notices on all the bulletin boards in the Pentagon which read: "If anyone has lost $266 million in new $100 bills, kindly pick it up as soon as possible at Lost-and-Found. If the money is not claimed within the week, it will be turned over to the South Vietnamese government." And so, there you are!

Johnny Ringo Gets Tombstone

TOMBSTONE, Ariz. (AP) — Nearly a century after his death in the mountains east of here, the unmarked grave of gunfighter Johnny Ringo was adorned with a six-foot marker.

Ringo was one of the most feared gunfighters in the 1880 boom days here. His body, with a bullet hole in the right temple, was found propped against an oak tree on July 13, 1882.

Historical records indicated a coroner's jury ruled the death suicide, but 10 years later another gunman boasted of killing him.

The monument was built in late 1973 by Arizona highway employees and other area residents who became interested in the gunfighter's life.

'Pool It'

NEW YORK (AP) — Going to a shopping center in carpools is becoming the neighborly thing to do.

The idea is being encouraged by the International Council of Shopping Centers through its 5,000 members from coast-to-coast. Its "Take a Neighbor with You to a Shopping Center" program aims at saving 20 billion gallons of gasoline a year by doubling the 1.2 average number of passengers per auto.

The program includes the organization of one-stop shopping energy committees to create interest in car pool, mall displays, public service broadcasts and literature distributed to shoppers.

Caution And Negligence

Alex dutifully halted his car at the stop sign. At that point, which was about 30 feet back from the corner, his vision of the intersection was blocked by some high bushes. Nevertheless, he moved briskly into the crossing.

RESULT: a collision with a car coming along the other street.

Was Alex guilty of negligence? He insisted that he was not, pointing out in a court hearing that he had brought his car to a full stop at the sign.

"That's all the law requires," he said. "I stopped, looked and listened at the designated place."

BUT the court found him guilty of negligence anyhow. The court said a "blind" corner imposes an extra duty on motorists — regardless of stop signs or traffic signals — to proceed with caution.

The law does recognize, however, that caution is a matter of degree. For example:

Another man also entered an intersection that he could not see because of shrubbery. But this time, the man edged forward at a snail's pace, glancing in both directions. Even though he still got in the way of an oncoming car and caused a collision, a court ruled afterward that he could not be held legally liable.

"THE LAW does not require the impossible" said the court. "One cannot be held guilty of negligence because he is unable to see through impenetrable objects or to bend his vision around them."

What about the responsibility for making the intersection blind in the first place? Unless a special statute so provides, the local government ordinarily cannot be held liable for this kind of hazard.

HOWEVER, courts have occasionally placed the blame on a private property owner who has brought such an obstruction into existence. Liability has been based on the theory that the condition of his premises could foreseeably cause some luckless motorist, some day, to get hurt.

A Devotion For Today

Behold, I make all things new. (Revelation 21:5)

PRAYER: Dear heavenly Father, the Lord of every tomorrow, we pray that Your renewing power may move in our midst today. Use us as renewing instruments. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Wants Love

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: How can a man come back to life at 33 after 13 years of life without life?

My wife died recently after a long illness, and I've been out of circulation for so long I don't know where to begin making a new life for myself.

I may sound cold and heartless, but now that she is gone, I feel a sense of freedom. You see, she left my bed 13 years ago and never showed me any sign of affection after that, so in my view our marriage ended there. (She thought a man over 40 didn't need a woman to sleep with.)

My ego has been ground down to a pulp publicly and privately more times than I can count. My only source of satisfaction is in knowing that I stuck with her until the bitter end without cheating on her once, although I often was tempted.

Now I am free to find a woman who can compensate for all that emptiness. Abby, I am so full of love, and so eager to give it to someone, I can hardly stand it.

Somewhere there must be a woman who is willing to take on a steady assignment like that. But where do I start looking? I need it now. Thirteen years is long enough. I ask only for one with stamina. Thanks.

GEORGE
DEAR GEORGE: Call your friends — married and single — and let them know you are interested in dating. You'll be swamped! Find out what your church and community have to offer in the way of social programs. Get into volunteer work. (That's a good way to meet

DEAR ABBY: How can we thank you? Because of a message in your column telling runaways about a program called "Operation Peace of Mind," our runaway son let us know that he was alive and well. He is only 16 and had been gone for nearly a year.

Abby, please publish that toll free telephone number again so other runaways can let their parents know they are alive. It meant the world to us to hear from our son.

GREATFUL IN SEATTLE
DEAR GRATEFUL: With pleasure: Runaways, call this toll-free number: 1-800-231-6946. An operator will telephone your parents anywhere in the United States and convey a message to them from you. There will be no lecturing or counseling. Your call will not be traced, and the only question asked of you: "Do you and anything?" If you do, you will be told where you can obtain it free of charge. I repeat, no one will attempt to contact you or bring you home regardless of your age.

Runaways, please forget the past and send that message to your parents now. They will sleep better tonight, and so will you. God bless. (P. S. This wonderful program is staffed entirely by volunteers in Houston and was aided by Gov. Dolph Briscoe of Texas.)

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box 63700 Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif., 90212 for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."
