Brandt's Resignation Sparks Postwar Crisis

BONN, West Germany (AP) — West Germany's ruling Social Democratic party nominated sharp-tongued Finance Minister Helmut Schmidt today to succeed Chancellor Willy Brandt after Brandt's unexpected resignation.

Brandt, 60, whose "Ostpolitik" policies for East-West détente won him the Nobel Peace Prize during his 4½ years in office, fell victim to a spy scandal on top of state election setbacks for his socialist party.

NOMINATED
Foreign Minister Walter Scheel, Brandt's vice chancellor and the leader of the junior partner in the coalition government, took over the caretaker cabinet left by Brandt. He will serve until Schmidt's election by the lower house of parliament.

Heinz Kuehn, deputy chairman of the Social Democrats, told newsmen Brandt himself proposed the 55-year-old finance minister as his successor.

Schmidt was nominated by the party's presidium and a caucus of its members in parliament was called for later today to approve the nomination.

Kuehn said Brandt would retain the chairmanship of the party, despite his retirement from the government.

NO OPPOSITION
The Social Democratic spokesman emphasized that the party would continue its alliance with the Free Democrats, whose 41 seats in the lower house give the government a majority of 46 instead of leaving it 36 seats in the minority.

Word of Schmidt's nomination was immediately sent to a Free Democrat caucus, and no opposition was expected there.

The chancellor's resignation letter to President Gustav Heinemann Monday night said Brandt took "political responsibility for negligence" in appointing a spy for East Germany, Guenther Guillaume, to an important post in the chancellery.

THE WORST

Political experts said Brandt also resigned because of the recent setbacks in state elections and opinion polls that showed support for his policies had dropped to about 30 per cent, down from 43 per cent as late as last October. And one senior American official in Washington, said Brandt's customary vigor and enthusiasm had been replaced in recent months by a puzzling and alarming apathy.

The political crisis caused by Brandt's resignation was considered the worst in West German history and was expected to have repercussions far outside Germany's boundaries, especially among its partners in the European Common Market.

West Germany is the market's economic giant, the chief counter to the persistent French drive to dominate the group, and the strongest advocate of close-cooperation with the United States.

The market already is going through a period of extreme uncertainty because of the French presidential elections, the British government's demands for renegotiation of its membership terms, disruptive Italian import controls and unresolved strains in the trans-Atlantic alliance with the United States.

West Germany had enjoyed relative political stability under Brandt, but escalating domestic problems could hinder Bonn's efforts toward solving European and trans-Atlantic problems.

FREE DEMOCRAT

Scheel called a cabinet meeting today to discuss the implications of Brandt's resignation. Spokesmen said the Social Democrats and the Free Democrats also would start talks to agree on a new government program by the weekend.

The Bundestag, the lower house of parliament, will meet May 17 to elect the new chancellor. Schmidt's election was considered virtually certain.

Scheel has been planning to seek the mostly ceremonial presidency when Heinemann, 74, resigns this month.

U.S. officials in Washington expressed hope there would be no slipup in the succession of Schmidt, considered a friend of the United States. He volunteered to challenge French Foreign Minister Michel Jobert on behalf of the U.S. government at the February conference of oil-consuming nations, and in March he said in an interview that there would be no permanent split between the United States and Western Europe despite current differences.

Brandt's shock resignation came after mounting pressure on the government by the opposition Christian Democratic Union over the Guillaume affair, the biggest spy sensation since World War II in a country which is a major target for Soviet Bloc espionage.

HEADING HOME — Syracuse University undergrad Lloyd Flaun couldn't leave school without his favorite chair and lamp, so he packed his books and headed south . . . to Jersey, on Rt. 81 near Syracuse, N.Y. The student was finally successful to flag down a ride for a moving van trip to his home in Clifton, N.J.

'Sissy' Insists Powerful Ignore Plight Of 'Poor'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Frances Farenthold of Texas says the United States is going its routine way, with the powerful keeping their power and wealth, ignoring the plight of the disadvantaged.

"How honestly do we admit the inertia of the 'haves' and the inertia of the power in America?" she asked.

Mrs. Farenthold spoke Monday at the sixth annual awards luncheon of the Robert F. Kennedy Journalism competition for work probing problems of the disadvantaged.

HE'S BURNED

She said her loss Saturday in a bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in Texas "burned it into me" that "if you don't have the tools of corporate America you don't have the power."

She said the nation is poorer for the loss of the late Sen. Kennedy's concern for the poor and use of power to try and help them.

"We don't have that combination in America now," she said.

The majority of Americans "really do not know the weight of the disadvantaged," Mrs. Farenthold said.

RIPPLE OF HOPE

As starvation faces the world, she said, this most wealthy of countries determinedly ignores its own poor.

Deadline At Hand For Nominations

Deadline for nominating seniors in four local high schools for the annual Zale's-Herald Youth Achievement awards comes tonight.

Anyone may nominate any senior in Sands (Ackerly), Forsan, Coahoma and Big Spring High Schools. These nominations must reach the Herald no later than Wednesday. A nomination form has been appearing daily in the Herald and if not sufficiently large, may be supplemented with additional pages.

Finalists, together with their dates, and the parents of finalists will be guests at an awards dinner 6:15 p.m. May 15 at the Big Spring Country Club. Jethro Pugh, all-pro NFL tackle for the Dallas Cowboys will be the speaker. Awards will be presented to finalists.

MOTORIST DIS-CREDITED

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — An Austin motorist with no cash and little gas stopped at a service station and asked for $3 worth.

After the gasoline was pumped, he offered a credit card but was turned down by the attendant.

The motorist protested that he had no money and the attendant replied by sipping out the $3 worth already pumped in the car. Arrival of a police car stopped threatened fistuffs.

The motorist left still with no cash and very little gas.

Building Permits Are Soaring Again

The foundation building permit for the new clinic and several new residences being constructed in Big Spring made the building permits for the month of April again soar over the previous year.

April's total this year is $277,720 in comparison to $148,400 last April. Total to date is a whopping $5,042,847 compared to $1,654,664 for last year at this time.

The foundation permit for the clinic is $75,000. New residences include Jim Little, 4040 Vicky, $26,500; Dave Smith, 4021 Vicky, $27,000; Robert Beall, 2800 Crestline, $35,000; Heize and Little, 9 Glenwick Cove, $32,500; and Dr. Nardone, 2 Glenwick Cove, $31,500.

Other permits listed are for signs additions, storerooms, re-modeling, workshop, fence, reroofing, garages and carpents.

Rattlesnake Problem Does Exist Locally

The rattlesnakes have been out the last few weeks. Although the National Audubon Society has been worrying about protecting the rattlers, a lot of other people are worried about protecting the people.

Morris Robertson reported killing three at his home at Lake Thomas. One of them he accidentally picked up in his hand as he gathered dry leaves under a honeysuckle bush.

Jon Snider reported running over a big rattler on the highway. He said he either had to hit the snake or ram into another car.

Two rattlesnakes have been reported in recent weeks on vacant lots in the south portion of the city. Residents are reminded by experts to caution their children that snakes are particularly dangerous in the spring.

'A Shabby, Disgusting, Immoral Performance'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott said today President Nixon's Watergate transcripts reveal "a shabby, disgusting, immoral performance" by all of those involved.

SHARP JABS
Scott, who has defended the White House and said portions

They Raise Big Top Wednesday

Want to watch the big top go up?

Then roll out of bed a little earlier Wednesday morning and you can see the King Bros. Circus canvas rise for the two shows Wednesday.

The rigging goes up at the rodeo grounds in western Big Spring and anyone interested is invited to witness the tent being erected and the circus unfolding. Two shows — sponsored by the Boys Club of Big Spring — will be given at 4 p.m. and at 8 p.m. There will be the traditional cavalcade of circus acts with wild animals, elephants, acrobats, gymnasts, trapezists, and, of course, the clowns.

of the transcript he saw last winter showed Nixon's innocence, gave reporters some sharp comments on them based on reading about 800 of the 1,300 pages.

"I think it's a shabby, disgusting, immoral performance," the Pennsylvania Republican said. Asked if he meant by the President, he replied "by each of those persons according to what he said."

Scott said "I am enormously disturbed that there was not enough showing of moral indignation."

However, he declined to say anything further and, when asked if he still thought the transcripts "exculpate" the President, said he stands on a statement he made last Friday.

NEEDS TAPES

Meanwhile, the Senate Watergate committee said it still needs five subpoenaed White House tapes, despite President Nixon's release of edited transcripts of the conversations.

At the same time, White House lawyers were given five more days Monday in which to stave off a showdown with the Watergate special prosecutor over 64 tapes sought for use in the Watergate cover-up trial.

The Senate committee, in papers filed with the U.S. Court of Appeals, called Nixon's transcripts "suspect" and "neither complete nor accurate." The court had asked the senators what stake they still have in the court fight in light of disclosures already made, including the transcripts.

CORRUPTION

The committee sought tapes covering five presidential conversations in a subpoena issued last July 23. Monday it said the tapes still are needed if the committee is "to inform the public of the extent of corruption in the executive branch."

The committee said that even the complete versions of the conversations covered in the transcripts vindicate its claim that the tapes are needed. The committee said it is essential that it have a complete and accurate account of the conversations.

"The committee should not have to perform its legislative missions on the basis of transcripts that are suspect," the committee said. "The public facts demonstrate that the edited versions provided the public are neither complete nor accurate."

County Canvass Grows Bit Warm

Controversies surrounding the Democratic Primary grew a little warmer this morning in the county courthouse.

Democratic officials prepared a list of persons from whom the recount committee will be chosen to check returns in the close race for nomination for district clerk.

Lee Porter, Democratic County Chairman, told those meeting for a canvass he would contact the prospective recount committee members and find three willing to serve.

Saturday, unofficial returns showed Peggy Crittenden gained one more vote than incumbent District Clerk M. Fern Cox.

Today at noon, Porter said the canvass in this race was not complete.

Democratic party and elected officials learned a tally sheet for one election box showed three scratch marks rather than the customary five used in counting.

This could mean Crittenden was due two more votes, putting her ahead of Cox by three.

Meanwhile, in the district clerk's office County Judge A. G. Mitchell and Porter argued about whether state law required the County Commissioners Court to canvass Democratic returns Monday, May 6.

Mitchell said he had not put the election canvassing on the agenda, because Porter indicated the Democratic Party here was responsible for all canvassing of the primary.

The county judge said Porter conveyed this information to him through Margaret Ray, chief deputy county clerk.

Little Warmer

A gradual warming trend is predicted by the National Weather Bureau through Wednesday. A 20 per cent chance of showers today and tonight. Temperature this afternoon and Wednesday in the lower 80s with the upper 50s predicted for tonight. Winds from the south at 10-20 miles per hour with gusty winds predicted if rain falls.

MACHINE GUNS USED Goldwyn Studios Razed By Flames

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "I grabbed everything I could and jumped," said actor Robert Conrad after fleeing flames that ravaged nearly half the Samuel Goldwyn Studios in a real-life Hollywood spectacular.

Scores of actors and film workers ran to safety Monday after fire erupted on the set of a children's television show and quickly spread.

'STAR OF INDIA'
Only one person, 29-year-old studio employe Mike Graslke, was seriously injured. Two others had minor injuries.

Police used machine guns to help cut holes in the studio's fortress-like walls so fire trucks could get through.

Conrad said he and his co-workers leaped through a window just before a wall caved in on the set of "Star of India," a movie Conrad was coproducing. They were unharmed.

Fire and smoke damaged three buildings covering half the studio lot. Fire officials estimated the loss at well over $1 million. Other reports placed it as high as $10 million.

Samuel Goldwyn Jr., son of the late studio head who died last January, also fled the flames.

The fire broke out on the set of "Sigmund," a Saturday morning children's show on NBC. Firemen said set employes, filming at the time, reported the blaze erupted when they turned on an electric current for the stage lighting.

'THE TOWERING INFERNO'
One of the sea monster's fiberglass "caves" burst into flames that raced through the high-ceiling set with its mazes of catwalks, frames and sidings—all made of wood.

Among actors at the scene was Steve McQueen, who plays a fire chief in "The Towering Inferno," being filmed by two other studios renting a portion of the 10-acre lot. He and wife Ali MacGraw were among thousands of spectators who watched smoke that billowed to an altitude of 3,000 feet.

The aged 10-acre facility on Santa Monica Boulevard was the site for such great films as Oscar-winning "The Best Years of Our Lives" and Goldwyn's last movie, "Porgy and Bess" in 1959.

The World At - A - Glance

NEW YORK (AP) — An early indication of how well incumbents will fare in this year's elections may be supplied today in state primary elections including races involving two governors and two senators seeking nomination to new terms. The incumbents are Governors George C. Wallace of Alabama and John J. Gilligan of Ohio, and Sens. Howard Metzenbaum of Ohio and James B. Allen of Alabama, all Democrats. In addition, North Carolina voters were selecting nominees to run for the seat of Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., who is retiring. In other races, voters were nominating candidates for 52 House seats, most of their state legislatures and various other state officials.

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko were meeting in Cyprus today. Kissinger was asking the Russian to get the Syrians to restrain their troops battling the Israelis on the Golan Heights. Gromyko has been meeting with Syrian leaders in Damascus since Sunday, and Kissinger spent Monday talking with Israeli leaders about their terms for withdrawing from some of the Syrian territory captured in the last two Arab-Israeli wars. Kissinger was to return to Israel later today, meet again with the Israeli leaders and go to Damascus Wednesday.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Herbert L. Kalmbach is said to have testified that a dairy cooperative leader was asked for confirmation of a $2 million Nixon campaign pledge before milk prices were raised, and House impeachment investigators want to know more about it. Informed sources say Kalmbach swore he took part in a midnight meeting in 1971 in which the dairy-farmer cooperative leader was told that the administration was going to raise milk price supports, and that the White House wanted confirmation of a promise of $2 million in campaign donations.

PULITZER WINNER — Gil Spencer, editor of the Trentonian, relaxes at his Trenton, N.J., office after hearing that he has won a Pulitzer prize. Spencer received the award for his editorial writing at the paper.

Tracing Heroin Traffic Snares Pulitzer Prize

NEW YORK (AP) — Pulitzer Prizes for national reporting have been awarded for stories that revealed President Nixon's comparatively small income tax payments and a secret $200,000 contribution to his campaign fund.

James R. Polk of the Washington Star-News was honored for stories on the secret contributions by financier Robert L. Vesco.

NIXON'S TAXES — Jack White of the Providence Journal-Bulletin won for his reporting on Nixon's taxes. The President since has made back tax payments.

Newspaper of Garden City, Long Island, won the gold medal for meritorious service by a newspaper. It was honored for a series of stories tracing heroin traffic from Turkey to the New York area via France. Newspaper's Emily Genuer won the Pulitzer award for art criticism.

Associated Press photographer Slava Veder won the feature photography award with a picture of a former prisoner of war, Air Force Lt. Col. Robert L. Stirm being greeted by his family on his return to the United States.

Anthony K. Roberts, a freelance photographer whose pictures of a shootout in a Hollywood parking lot were distributed by The Associated Press, won the spot news photography award.

MEDICAID ABUSES — Hedrick Smith of The New York Times won the prize for international reporting for his coverage of the Soviet Union and Eastern European nations.

William Sherman of The New York Daily News won the Pulitzer for investigative local reporting for a series of stories on abuses in the Medicaid program.

No prizes for drama or fiction were included in the awards announced Monday by the trustees of Columbia University, who have final say in the selection of prizes. The Pulitzer advisory board declined to make recommendations for 1974 prizes in the two areas.

EJECTED FROM PLANT Daily News Publishing Without Union Printers

NEW YORK (AP) — The Daily News, the nation's largest circulation daily newspaper, began publishing without its union printers today after ejecting them from the plant in a showdown over automation.

The first copies of an edition from which 32 pages of advertising were cut rolled off the presses at 5 a.m., some 9 1/2 hours late.

On an average day the tabloid prints 2.1 million copies. Today's one-edition run was "only a few hundred thousand," said Managing Editor Michael O'Neill.

LOCKOUT? — As the presses rolled, pickets from New York Typographical Union No. 6, AFL-CIO, marched outside. Their leaders called it a lockout, and management called it a strike.

The printers marched without strike sanction from their parent union, the International Typographers' Union, and without support of 10 other unions at the News.

Eight of the local unit's officers, headed by President Bertram A. Powers, were charged with criminal trespass for remaining in the News plant after management ordered the 200 printers out. The printers had refused to handle type set by automated equipment and the confrontation followed.

EQUIPMENT CONFLICT — It was the equipment that was at the center of the conflict

— a conflict in which the News has the expressed support of the city's other major morning daily, the New York Times.

Both the Times and the News have acquired automated equipment with which to set type in a computer-aided system. They have been unable, however, to reach agreement with the printers' union on terms for its use, with the disagreement centering on guarantees of job security.

Talks to replace a contract that expired 13 months ago have deadlocked on the issue, and pay levels also remain in dispute.

The base printers' pay has been $251.82 a week. The union rejected a proposed wage increase of $13.55 in each year of the contract.

Meanwhile, the Washington Post and the Washington Star-News, the only general-circulation daily newspapers in the nation's capital, threatened to cancel their labor agreement with the printers union in a similar dispute.

The Washington Publishers Association, which represents both newspapers in negotiations with craft unions, said it would cancel the agreement with Columbia Typographical Union No. 101 if an alleged work slowdown at the Post and "job actions" at the Star-News continued past midnight tonight.

Press runs at both newspapers have been delayed in recent weeks, sometimes by several hours.

UNION BUSTING — The labor contract between the publishers association and the printers' union expired Sept. 30 but the printers have continued to work under its provisions during negotiations for a new contract. Either side can cancel the agreement.

The printers' union called a story in today's Post on the threat to cancel the work agreement "a cynical lie by a liberal newspaper to prepare the public for the most reactionary sort of union busting."

The printers' union has scheduled a vote May 15 on whether to strike the newspapers.

As in New York, the principal issue is automation.

Among the literary prize winners were Daniel J. Boorstin for his historical work, "The Democratic Experience." Robert Lowell for his collection of poetry, "The Dolphin," and Louis Shafer for his biography, "O'Neill, Son and Artist."

Other winners in journalism were F. Gilan Spencer of the Trentonian in Trenton, N.J., for editorial writing, Edwin A. Roberts Jr. of the National Observer for commentary, Paul M. Szep of the Boston Globe for editorial cartooning and Arthur

M. Petacque and Hugh F. Hough of the Chicago Sun-Times for general local reporting.

Other arts awards went to the late Ernest Becker for "The Denial of Death" in the general nonfiction category and Donald Martino, who won the music award for "Notturno," a chamber music composition. Composer Roger Sessions, 77, received a special citation for his life's work.

The awards, each accompanied by a $1,000 prize, were established by the late publisher Joseph Pulitzer and first presented in 1917.

Juries in each category first make recommendations to the advisory board, composed of the president of Columbia University and distinguished newspaper editors and publishers.

The last time no drama award was presented was in 1972; the last year in which there was no fiction award was 1971.

Three Injured In Garden City

Three musicians were injured in a two vehicle wreck this morning as they turned into the Garden City Cafe to eat breakfast around 7:30 a.m.

Terry Randy Badger, 22, driver of the car, received a severe head gash and cuts on his back and W. W. McDaniel, 30, of Houston, was admitted to Medical Center here with a broken back and other injuries. The driver's father, Warren Badger, was suffering from severe cuts and loss of blood and also was hospitalized. The two Badgers are from Snyder and McDaniel lives in Houston.

Their car collided with a McClatchey Bros. truck loaded with pipe, driven by Willie Donald Taylor of Beaumont. Taylor was not injured.

Sheriff Royce Fruit of Garden City said he brought Warren Badger to the hospital in his car, "due to the severity of the bleeding." Alert Ambulance transferred the other two injured to Malone-Hogan clinic.

Bill Jennings, investigating a state trooper, was still questioning those involved in the wreck here this morning.

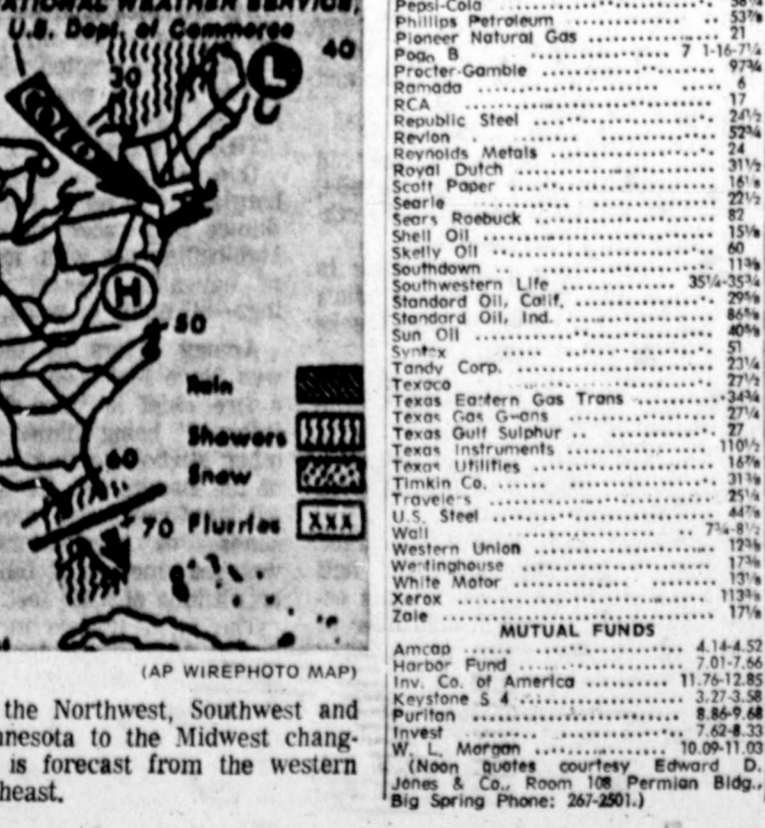

The trio had played for a dance in Big Lake Monday night, stayed overnight and were returning to Snyder.

Pressmen Out For Fifth Day

DALLAS (AP) — The pressmen's strike against the Dallas Times Herald and the Dallas Morning News entered its fifth day today.

Neither management of the newspapers nor the union announced any dates for renewal of negotiations.

Negotiations broke late last Thursday. The two newspapers have continued to publish.

The Morning News said that "although certain economic issues remained unsettled, we believe the union struck the News and the Times Herald because management has firmly resisted the continuance of the 'managing' provisions of prior agreements."

The provisions of prior agreements dictated how many men should be stationed by each press as it operated.

Management of the two newspapers argued that the managing provisions call for more pressmen that are needed to operate a press.

Perjury Trial Of Duval County Judge Continues

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The perjury trial of Duval County Judge Archer Parr, who claims he worked for the $121,500 a county water district paid him, enters its second week today.

UNAWARE — Parr, 48, who is running unopposed for re-election in the South Texas county his family controls, is accusing of lying to a federal grand jury when he said the money was for legal fees.

Federal prosecutors concluded their case last week, banking on the testimony two former water district directors and the district office manager.

The three men said they were unaware of any legal work Parr did for the payments, which testimony showed were made between 1968 and 1970.

The men, all acquaintances of Parr, conceded that Parr could have dealt with a now deceased director without their knowing it.

However, these admissions were not enough for U.S. District Court D. W. Suttle to acquit Parr without the case going to the jury.

Falling in his motion for acquittal, defense lawyer James Gillespie brought five character witnesses forward to testify that Parr's reputation for truthfulness was good.

Junior Auxiliary To Host Meeting

Twelve members of the American Legion Junior Auxiliary met Saturday in Mrs. Troy Melton's home to discuss dates for flying the flag and the juniors' president's upcoming attendance at a Legion banquet.

Leilani Thomas, the 1974 president, will attend the American Legion Girls' State banquet as a special guest Friday. The juniors' sponsor, Mrs. Melton, and the co-sponsor, Mrs. Marvin Whitehead, will also attend.

An auxiliary district meeting will also be held June 15 here with about 50-75 girls from across West Texas attending. Local junior will host and entertain the guests. The next local auxiliary meeting will be 2 p.m. May 25, again in Mrs. Melton's home. Cakes were served to guests and members at this latest meeting and will also be available May 25.

Scholarships

Texas State Scholarships have been awarded to a number of individuals at South Plains College at Levelland and included are two from this area: Richard Kitchen, Big Spring, and Dick Beccora, Colorado City.

DEATHS

Mary Patton — Pallbearers for Mrs. Mary Patton's funeral 4 p.m. today at Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel, (with the Rev. C. R. Perry, pastor of Phillips Memorial Baptist Church, and Ralph Beistle, minister of Coahoma Church of Christ, officiating) include Alvie Harrison, Clifton Harrison, Asa Tindol, Wayne Gibbs, Bill Tindol, Wesley Miller, John Sullivan and Clinton Harrison.

L. Q. Rudicil — L. Q. Rudicil, 51, died 2:17 p.m. Monday in a local hospital. Services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at Hubbard-Kelly Funeral Home chapel in Odessa with Dr. John S. Rasco, pastor of Odessa's First Baptist Church, officiating.

Interment will be in Sunset Memorial Gardens in Odessa. The family requests memorials be given to the L. Q. Rudicil Heart Memorial Fund, care of Hubbard-Kelly.

Born June 19, 1922, in Obion County, Tenn., he married Margaret Barrett Nov. 19, 1944 at McCamey. He was employed by Sid Richardson Carbon Company as the shipping supervisor. When the Odessa plant closed, he transferred to the Big Spring plant as office manager in August 1971. He worked for the company for 24 years, and he lived in Odessa 27 years prior to moving here.

He was a First Baptist Church member and a World War II veteran. His remains were transferred to Odessa Monday night from Nalley-Pickle.

Survivors include wife Margaret, of the home, three daughters; Mrs. Raye Smith of West LaFayette, Ind., Miss Wanda Rudicil of Dallas and Miss Brenda Rudicil of Big Spring; three brothers, Howard Rudicil of Muskegan, Mich., Hubbard Rudicil of Grand Haven, Mich., and Raymond 'Unintelligible' Gaps Caused By Swerping?

WASHINGTON (AP) — At least an explanation for some of those "inaudible" and "unintelligible" gaps in the White House transcripts of President Nixon's Watergate conversations.

SLAMMING DOOR — Swerping caused them. Swerping? — According to White House lawyer J. Fred Buzhardt, swerping is the noise on the tape during the time it takes an automatic recorder to start and get to recording speed.

The White House taping system was actuated by sound. The microphones pick up a noise—a voice, a slamming door, a clock ticking loudly—and the reels begin to turn.

Buzhardt is a lawyer, not an audio specialist, but he was one of the first and one of the few to listen to the tapes.

He offered his explanation in an interview with Westinghouse Broadcasting Co.

"Probably the most predominant cause of inaudible or unintelligible is the voice actuator system on which the system operates," he said. "When there is a hesitation or interruption in speech the gain (volume) control usually moves from the lowest point of sensitivity to the highest point of sensitivity."

STILL WITH US? — Still with us? — "At the same time the tape reels, which have stopped turning with the interruption, then accelerate and pick up to playing speed. The combination of the gain control movement plus the acceleration of the tape through the recorder produces a swerping noise which normally obscures the first few syllables spoken after the interruption of speech."

Buzhardt also said that there is a relationship between how deep the voice is and the fidelity of the recording. The lower the voice, the more distortion.

He said the President has a lower voice than John W. Dean III and therefore the former White House counsel comes through more clearly.

FLAT TONE — Dean, he said, has a higher-pitched, rather flat tone of speech.

"The President has, relatively speaking, a more bass voice than does Mr. Dean," Buzhardt added. "I guess Mr. (John N.) Mitchell has the basest of the voices in any of the tapes that were recorded and he is almost impossible to hear on the recordings."

For the record, it should be noted that there are about 1,670 portions claimed by White House transcribers to be inaudible or unintelligible. In 1,075 of them the President was speaking.

There is no count yet on how many were caused by swerping.

Perjury Trial Of Duval County Judge Continues

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The perjury trial of Duval County Judge Archer Parr, who claims he worked for the $121,500 a county water district paid him, enters its second week today.

UNAWARE — Parr, 48, who is running unopposed for re-election in the South Texas county his family controls, is accusing of lying to a federal grand jury when he said the money was for legal fees.

Federal prosecutors concluded their case last week, banking on the testimony two former water district directors and the district office manager.

The three men said they were unaware of any legal work Parr did for the payments, which testimony showed were made between 1968 and 1970.

The men, all acquaintances of Parr, conceded that Parr could have dealt with a now deceased director without their knowing it.

However, these admissions were not enough for U.S. District Court D. W. Suttle to acquit Parr without the case going to the jury.

Falling in his motion for acquittal, defense lawyer James Gillespie brought five character witnesses forward to testify that Parr's reputation for truthfulness was good.

Volunteer Cited By Magazine

Mrs. Theo (Tup) Ferguson, Midland, is featured in the current issue of Impact, the monthly magazine about activities of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

She is given the spotlight in the section for volunteers and is cited for not only her 8,200 hours plus of service, but for her service on all units of the hospital campus. One of the founders of the Midland Volunteer Auxiliary, she has been making the 84-mile round trip from Midland to the hospital each Friday (and sometime oftener) to perform a myriad of services for the residents.

"Mrs. Ferguson was one of the first volunteers permitted on a locked (the campus now has an open-door policy) unit for severely regressed women. Her concerted effort to make the ladies care about their appearance resulted in great improvement. Free to move from unit to unit throughout the hospital, Mrs. Ferguson is secure in the knowledge the residents respect and are protective of her. Instinctively they must know that hers is true labor of love..."

Five specialists are being brought here by county extension service to instruct gardeners.

YOUTH GROUPS Encouraged

Youth groups are being encouraged to participate in the climax of Clean Up-Fix Up Week May 18.

Boys and Girl Scout troops, Cub packs, Brownies, classes and other groups are urged to pick up some area of the city which they wish to tidy a week from Saturday morning. They will be furnished plastic bags to put trash in, and will be treated to hot dogs and soda pop at the Comanche Trail Park pavilion. They will meet there at 9 a.m. for supplies, then disperse and recongregate there for the treat at noon. The City of Big Spring also will furnish free swimming to all who take part.

The Clean Up, which starts March 13, is being pushed by the Big Spring Council of Garden Clubs with Mrs. C. Y. Clinkscales, president, and with the council with Mrs. O. S. Womack, chairman. The Chamber of Commerce, led by Clyde McMahon Jr., and Mrs. Floyd Mays, beautification chairman, is joining in the effort.

City trucks will be available to pick up additional trash gathered during the week. A call to 263-8311, ext. 15, will help insure prompt pickup.

County Is Ahead On Bond Quota

This district and Howard County are running slightly ahead of quota in sale of U.S. Savings Bonds.

The District 4 report by Larson Lloyd, chairman, showed sales of $85,639 in March, a cumulative total of $43,714 for the first quarter, or 34 per cent of the year's target.

In Howard County, said Jimmy Taylor, chairman, March sales were $60,843, making $219,056 for the quarter, or 37 per cent of the year's goal.

Other county sales for March (cumulative total in parenthesis) and per cent of quota, were: Andrews $2,776 ($10,568) 13; Borden $582 ($1,842) 9; Dawson $46,165 ($67,036) 56; Fisher $3,188 ($11,482) 19; Gaines $8,180 ($27,053) 30; Martin $1,088 ($15,997) 53; Mitchell $13,407 ($74,199) 49; Nolan $24,383 ($53,767) 22; Scurry $24,827 ($57,414) 36.

Area I sales amounted to $1,422,109, or 34.465,000 for the year, 31 per cent of goal. For the year Texas sales have been $19,563,000, or 26 per cent of the goal.

RUNNING FOR A RIDE — Commuters run to catch their bus — a mode of transportation many residents of Los Angeles are discovering after 25 years of depending heavily on the car. The change came on April 1 when the 25-cent ride started. Many motorists are finding the bus the cheapest and easiest method of transportation.

Kennedy Admits He'd Like To Be President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., says he will have to face questions about Chappaquiddick if he runs for president in 1976. But he says he already has given all the answers.

Kennedy said Monday he would like to be president and would make a decision on the race by late next year and possibly earlier.

"If I was asked today, I'd just run for re-election to the Senate," he said.

Asked, "Would you, deep down, like to be president?" Kennedy replied: "Yes."

MARY JO KILLED

Appearing on "Washington Straight Talk," a national public affairs broadcasting program, Kennedy also was asked about the 1969 Chappaquiddick accident, in which his car ran off a bridge and Mary Jo Kopechne was killed.

Interviewer Paul Duke asked if Watergate meant that more attention would be focused on this if Kennedy were the Democratic presidential nominee.

"There will probably be those, if I were a candidate, that would raise it," Kennedy said. If he runs it is something that will have to be faced, he said.

"But people finally and ultimately are going to have to make judgments about my views, my record in the Senate," he said.

HAVE TO EXPLAIN

"Wouldn't you have to explain certain things, for example why it took you seven days to offer an explanation for what happened at Chappaquiddick?" Duke asked.

Kennedy said the record "has been really laid out.... There's not going to be any more facts that are going to come out. They've been out...."

"To try and sort of give a re-hash in terms of attitudes or views, if people would feel that that would be necessary, I think is—would be questionable," he said.

"But, in any event, we'd have to deal with it when it came," Kennedy said.

More's The Pity, This Interview Was By Phone

NEW YORK (AP) — In the news trade, a "phoner" means a telephone interview. When an interview with Julie Andrews was arranged recently, a "phoner" was suggested as the best way to handle the chat.

This is because Miss Andrews lives in London. All things considered, I'd rather be in London calling Miss Andrews in New York, but as W.C. Fields so eloquently put it once, "Drat!"

Miss Andrews had just finished taping her fourth ABC-TV special of the current season, a one-hour show featuring Jackie Gleason and scheduled to appear on the telly here May 22.

She was slightly hoarse, but sounded extremely chipper and relaxed. This wasn't always the case during the 1973-74 season, when she was doing a weekly hour-long music and variety show on ABC.

"When I took it on," she said of those days, "I thought it'd be about, oh, 60-40 in terms of work versus home and children and being a wife and mother."

"I guess it was about 98-2 when I got done. So of course, I prefer this kind of existence," she added, referring to the business of doing an occasional special instead of a weekly show.

"It also gives me much more of a chance to polish things off and have things a little more well done."

Miss Andrews, whose performances always have struck me as those of the complete professional, rushed or not, was asked if there was that much less pressure involved in taping her shows in London.

"To a degree," she said. "There are very strict union laws. One can't work longer than a certain amount of hours and one usually works until about eight in the evening."

"If you wish to extend that, you may be fortunate to work until eight-thirty."

"In America, I was working until all hours of the night and day. Of course, it was a series then and not the specials, but

Interesting Results

Saturday's primary elections produced interesting results although they also yielded one of the lightest turnouts in years. Only about one in three eligible voters bothered to get to the polls.

Thus, one of the most striking results might be the reflection of apathy by the electorate and results may be quite as significant as to who did not vote as to voting patterns of those who did. However, we have a feeling it was not so much apathy as a great weariness of the political scene that influenced the light turnout.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe defeated his chief challenger, Sissy Farenthold, as generally expected, but the margin by which he accomplished this surprised even his most ardent backers. He turned the trick by a 3-1 margin, far beyond the two-thirds majority he said he wanted. In the process, he captured control of the party machinery, which means that the usual blood-letting for which Democrats are renowned, will be missing or certainly minimized. Moreover, his margin is such that opposition or factions will feel obliged to go along in support of his candidacy. His position in his bid to become Texas' first four-year-term governor in a century, if not insurmountable, is certainly formidable.

Locally, there were several close races, among them the county judge contest in which Bill Tune unseated incumbent judge A. G. Mitchell for the Democratic nomination, and the legislative race which sees Glenn Toombs pitted against Mike Ezzell in the runoff. Ike Rupard led the field to gain the runoff with incumbent Precinct 2 commissioner Bill Bennett. But nothing in memory of seasoned observers matched the intensity and closeness of the district clerk's race in which, on the basis of unofficial returns, gave Peggy Crittenden an one-vote margin over incumbent Fern Cox. Even if official returns substantiate this, there is a likelihood of efforts to recount. In the meantime, as has been observed, we have a brand-new case history of how much one vote can mean. So when you think your vote won't make any difference anyhow, just remember this year and this primary.

Detente And Reality

The American people apparently have no clear idea of just what "detente" with the Soviet Union is — its dimensions, limitations, advantages and pitfalls. And this is understandable for President Nixon's penchant for hyperbole has given detente an aura which reality argues it doesn't possess.

We have not struck a peace endurable for all time with the Kremlin. We have made progress, to the point where we are not lashing sabers loudly at one another. But the "detente" that exists is viable only so long as our two national interests coincide; it is possible largely because we share more common interests, the interests of Big Powers in a world of pygmies.

This is good, but it is only a tentative beginning. We are not so much cooperating with the Russians and they with us as we are not opposing one another when our national goals do not conflict. Where these goals diverge, the competition is just as stiff and likely to remain so for the foreseeable future.

So it is that we can proclaim "detente" while the Russians back Arab states imposing an oil boycott on us. Likewise, we give recognition to governments, such as in Chile, which come to power by seizing it from Moscow-oriented regimes.

Detente, then, has its limits. They are what they've always been — the national interests of our two countries or what those interests are perceived to be. This is not necessarily the beginning of a "generation of peace," but rather the beginning of the beginning of conditions which may, hopefully, some day make that dream possible.

Roaming The Range

Around The Rim

Jo Bright

Sooner or later the persuasive literature gets to you — usually, just after all the other things have — so I've saddled up the Mustang and we're going to roam the range for a few days. Maybe I'll find a mountain top or pretty beach. It doesn't matter as long as there are no clocks or telephones.

You may be planning a get-away, too. If so, we'll check the Texas Calendar of Events again for the coming week.

AT SULPHUR SPRINGS, the Dairy Festival will continue through May 9, the same day an "Odyssey" is slated in Odessa. The Playhouse of Design Art Show will be at Kingsville May 8, and the Lion's Club Rodeo is at Jasper May 8-11. The East Texas Music Festival is on tap May 9-11 at Longview, while the Helotes Cornyval will be May 9-12 at Helotes, wherever that is.

Houston's Open Golf Tournament is May 9-12, and the following day the Lion's Club Circus will be at Brownfield. At Brackettville, the sixth annual Frontier Fair, May 10-11, sounds like fun, or if that's not your dish, maybe you'll enjoy the 84th Maffest at Brenham. All on May 10-11 are the Junior Rodeo, Marble Falls;

FFA Rodeo, Whitney; and Rodeo, Wintersboro.

Slated May 10-12 at Brownsville is the Tip of Texas Bird Show and, on those same days, the Fiesta Zaragoza at Goliad, and an Antique Show at Lubbock and the opera at San Antonio.

Four events on May 11 are Annual Outdoor Art Fair, Brazosport; Panola County Quarter Horse Show, Carthage; Fiddle Contest, Groesbeck; and 46th Pioneer Roundup, Plainview.

TWO-DAY EVENTS, May 11-12, include Creative Arts Festival, Beaumont; Historical Tour and Antique Show, Cleburne; Texas Snipe Championship (boat races), Canyon Lake; Annual Wildcat Show, Gatesville; Village Square Fair, Granbury; Helotes Cornyval Art Show, Helotes; Village Fair, League City; Parade of Homes, Paris; and Randolph Area Spring Fair, Universal City.

There will be horse races at Uvalde May 11-12 and May 13-19. On May 12, there will be Keel Boat Races at Canyon Lake and, at Houston, the Bayou Bend Museum Open House.

If that's not enough to keep you busy, you're on your own.

Parts Of Firearms Found In Hideout

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Chronicle said today pieces of firearms were found in the Symbionese Liberation Army hideout discovered by authorities last week.

The newspaper said the evidence indicates the apartment was used as an armory.

The newspaper also said neighbors were reported to have heard drilling and other sounds coming from the apartment. The newspaper speculated that "work with weapons was in preparation for new and unexpected action."

BOMB FACTORY
Authorities, asked about a report that a SLA bomb factory had been found, said they were unaware of such an operation.

Meanwhile, unverified sightings of heiress Patricia Hearst, whom the SLA says it kidnapped, continued pouring into FBI offices here and in other cities as the case moves into its fourth month.

Sightings in North Carolina and Tennessee of a red car containing SLA members and Miss Hearst have not been confirmed, FBI agent Jim Kelly said Monday.

The half-ton of clothing, paper, bedding and trash taken by FBI agents Thursday from the last known refuge of the SLA has yielded no clues as to Miss Hearst's whereabouts, the FBI said.

SLA members are thought to have hidden in the roach-infested dwelling after robbing a local bank of $10,690 April 15. The apartment was vacated the last week of April.

Tennathon Draws Well

The Tennathon, a March of Dimes event, grossed $650 in two days of competition at the Big Spring Tennis center last weekend.

Seven young people played more than 100 games each, and they were presented with special certificates as well as prizes for the winners.

Carl Caton took the award for the youngest boy; Prissy Mann for the youngest girl; Woody Mann for the oldest man; Tony Mann for most money raised ($150) followed by Dori Crooker ($128.85) and James Easterling ($110).

Most games played was shared by Vickey Murphy and Dori Crooker with 151, with Tony Mann one game behind. Jay Box played 116 games and James Easterling, Marcia Michols and Taffy Brown each had 100 games.

These firms posted awards: Pizza Hut for the oldest player; Novice Kniften to youngest boy and girl; Cotton Mize Miniature Golf to most games played and most money raised.

TRIGGER ANXIETY ATTACKS 'Coffee Nerves'

DETROIT (AP) — Unrecognized "coffee nerves" could lead you to a psychiatrist and months of useless treatment with calm-down drugs, a psychiatrist said today.

Too much caffeine in coffee, tea or cola drinks can bring on all the symptoms of an anxiety state, said Dr. John P. Greden of Walter Reed Army Medical Hospital in Washington, D.C.

Doctors should routinely ask patients about their caffeine intake, Greden suggested to the American Psychiatric Association.

Over-doses of caffeine can bring such symptoms as nervousness, irritability, tremulousness, occasional muscle-twitching, sensory disturbances, attacks of diarrhea, insomnia, irregular heartbeat, drop in blood pressure and even circulatory failures, he said.

HEADACHES
A doctor could interpret it all as an anxiety attack. Greden told of reviewing records of 100 psychiatric patients, 42 diagnosed as having anxiety, with no question ever having been asked about caffeine consumption.

He cited a new case of a woman, 27, suffering attacks of headache, lightheadedness, tremulousness, and irregular heartbeat two or three times daily. The symptoms developed over a three-week period.

Rejecting a diagnosis of anxiety reaction to something in her life, she did her own detective work, tracing the symptoms back to her purchase of a fresh-drip coffee pot.

"Because this coffee was 'so much better,' she had begun consuming an average of 16-12 cups of strong, black coffee per day, more than 1,000 milligrams of caffeine."

DIZZY
That's four times the 250 milligrams considered a large dose. When she reduced coffee consumption to normal, her symptoms disappeared.

An Army officer took calm-down drugs for 14 months without effect. His dizziness, "butterflies in the stomach," diarrhea and other complaints went away when he cut back from consumption of as many as 14 cups of coffee daily, interspersed with three or four cola drinks.

He had been consuming 1,200 milligrams of caffeine daily.

"Three cups of coffee, two over-the-counter headache tablets, and a cola drink consumed in one morning approximates 500 milligrams of caffeine intake," said Greden. Many Americans exceed that.

Investigate Mishandling Of Money For Army Ads

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has begun a preliminary investigation into alleged mishandling of funds by an advertising agency that holds a $33 million contract for enticing new military volunteers to enlist.

Reports of the initial inquiry first appeared in the trade magazine Advertising Age. It could not be determined how large a dollar amount the alleged mishandling of funds involved.

One official source who asked not to be named said an employee of the Ayer agency reported to the Army the government was being overcharged for some magazine ads. The Ayer employee reportedly said rebates from various publications were not reported as called for in the Army contract.

Officials say Army investigators will be reviewing the records of N.W. Ayer & Son, a Philadelphia agency that writes the volunteer Army ads that appear in magazines, newspapers and billboards.

In a statement released Monday in answer to questions, the Army said: "As a result of certain allegations made concerning the Army advertising account for recruiting and related matters, the Army Criminal Investigations Command is conducting an inquiry into the matter."

A spokesman said results of the inquiry would determine whether a full-scale formal investigation was warranted.

THANK YOU

These bright ideas will help you light your home more efficiently.

It makes sense to use adequate lighting for reading, working or for security, and it makes sense to do it efficiently.

Locate table lamps so they provide the most light and fewest shadows.

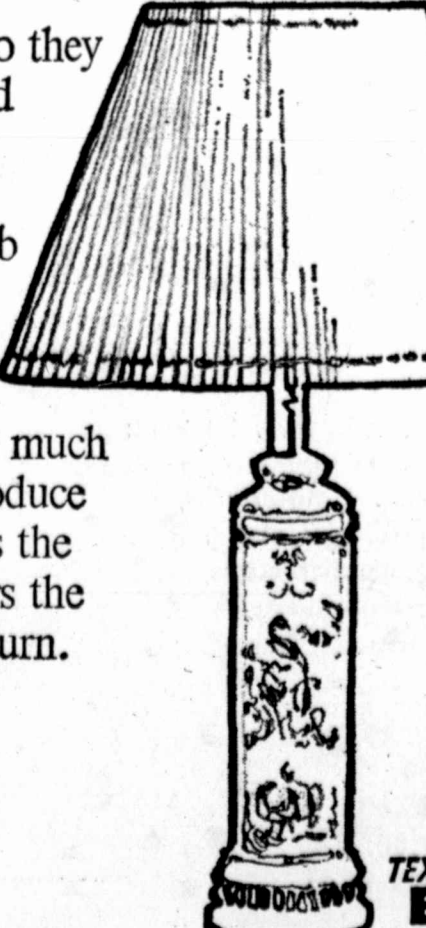

When buying light bulbs, choose the right bulb for the job. Remember that the lumen rating tells you the light output of bulbs. Watts tell you how much electricity is needed to produce that light. And bulb life is the estimated number of hours the bulb can be expected to burn.

Where bulbs are difficult to change, choose a "long life" bulb which may have less lumens for its wattage, but will last longer.

Decorative lights call for less lumens and lower wattage. A photo electric cell or timer will regulate the use of security lighting.

And it's always a good idea to turn lights off when they are not needed.

For more ideas on how to use your electric service wisely, call us. We'd like to help.

Occasionally, you have a choice of establishing two different suits. Counting your tricks will often give you a clue to the right one to tackle first.

The auction followed standard lines. Since his response of two clubs might have shut out a four-card heart suit in the South hand, North correctly introduced the major suit at his second turn rather than rebid clubs. South indicated a stopper in the unbid suit, and North decided that his six-card suit and outside entry should offer play for game.

West led a spade, and declarer had to decide where to win the trick and which minor suit to tackle. It seemed tempting to win the first trick with the king and go after clubs, but declarer stopped to count and saw that, since he would have to render a trick in the suit, he would come to only eight tricks—five clubs, two spades and one heart. As soon as he gave up a club, the defenders would knock out his remaining spade stopper, and they would have their suit established before he could set up a diamond for his ninth trick.

Therefore, declarer won the first trick in dummy and led a diamond to the jack. Had West won with the ace, declarer would have had to bank on the suit dividing 3-3. However, since East held the ace, the jack won. Note that East cannot win the ace of diamonds without setting up five tricks in the suit for declarer.

With an extra trick in, declarer could now be satisfied with five club tricks, so he switched horses. He led a low club and ducked it in dummy. East won the seven of clubs and returned a spade, forcing out the king. A club was led to the king and, when both opponents followed, declarer was home. The ace of clubs picked up the remaining card in that suit, allowing declarer to score, in all, five club tricks, two spades and a trick in each red suit.

Barney's Beat, the annual final concert of the band year in Big Spring, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the high school auditorium with tickets $1 each.

All four bands will perform at the 10th annual event with the Steer Band, directed by Bill Bradley. The second high school band will be directed by Gene Currie and Runnels and Goliad junior high bands also will perform. Goliad band is directed by Lois Pace and Runnels band by Jerry Gowler.

Among the selections by the high school band will be "The Water Is Wide," "Old McDonald's Farm" and "The Blue and Grey," and several others.

Pioneer Reunion Slated May 25
LAMESA — The annual Dawson County Pioneer Reunion will be held May 25 at Forrest Park Community Center.

Theme of this year's celebration will be "Western Hospitality."

The shindig will get underway at 10 a.m. May 15. There will be visiting, gifts, door prizes, a noon meal and a lot of reminiscing, according to Gene Truitt, president of the reunion organization.

Says Do Not Expect Relief From High Interest Rates

WASHINGTON (AP) — But Shultz, who leaves office Wednesday, says interest rates may about have reached their peak.

BORROWING
Shultz commented after the interest rate for government short-term borrowing—in the form of Treasury bills—hit a record 9.036 per cent Monday.

Shultz said interest rates, especially long-term rates, are being kept high by inflation.

He indicated he agrees with policies of the Federal Reserve Board to moderate the growth of the nation's money supply and keep a tight rein on the supply of credit, actions designed to restrain inflation but that also help push interest rates upward.

ON HORIZON
Meanwhile, Labor Secretary Peter J. Brennan said Monday he does not see "on the horizon any immediate solution" to the inflation problem.

After meeting with President Nixon at the White House, Brennan said: "I don't think there is any clear program" within the administration to quickly curb inflation.

Shultz, 53, will leave the Nixon administration Wednesday when William F. Simon is sworn in as his successor at a White House ceremony.

The last member of the original Nixon Cabinet still with the administration, he has been secretary of labor, director of the Office of Management and Budget and, since 1972, secretary of the Treasury.

GOOD OFFER
He told newsmen at a reception that, after careers in education and government, he expects to make his third—and probably last—career in business.

He said he has not made a final decision but has received a number of good offers, including proposals from oil companies. Shultz did not say whether these were the ones he was considering.

He said he wants a job that will allow him flexibility to continue some university work. He was dean of the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business when he joined the administration as Nixon's first secretary of labor in 1969.

To Graduate
Donna J. Parks, Big Spring, is among those who are due to graduate Thursday, May 16, from Kilgore College. Dr. Charles L. Allen, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Houston and widely read author, will be the graduation speaker.

Expectant Mother Class Scheduled

The Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center will offer a class for expectant mothers beginning at the Center on May 14.

Each class will be held on Tuesday 1 p.m. and will run for three weeks. At the end of each three week period a new class will begin. The mothers must be enrolled in the class before its beginning, but no applicants will be accepted into that particular class once it begins.

The class is a special prenatal and postpartum exercise program emphasizing proper body mechanics and muscle strengthening. It will be taught by a licensed physical therapist, and a physician's referral will be required. Any interested mother should contact her physician who can refer the mother to the Center. Those expectant mothers who are interested should call the Center for registration and information.

Totals Steady

Heading down the homestretch, enrollment in Big Spring schools held steady last week. The total of 8,538 was off only four from the previous week. This included 3,386 in elementary levels, down four; 3,004 in secondary levels, down four; hospital and homebound 168, up four. This is 46 less than a year ago.

Rodeo Team Prospers In Its First Year

Kay Proctor, Howard College, shared first place honors at the final rodeo of Southwestern competition of the Inter-collegiate Rodeo Association last weekend and nailed down the regional championship in barrel racing.

She also continued to lead in national standings and has a good chance to capture the title at the national finals in Bozeman, Mont., June 22.

Her two teammates, Tona Pettigrew and Carolyn Roan, shared in team honors which earned a second place in the region and a trip to the national finals. Rawleigh McCullough, who had a broken wrist in his ride a week ago, did not try to compete in bull riding at Las Cruces, N.M., last weekend. Consequently, he could not advance beyond his second-place standing, which will entitle him to compete at Bozeman.

In the final rodeo of the season, at New Mexico State, these were results:

James Ward, Eastern New Mexico University, bareback bronc riding; Tuti Garnett, ENMU, calf roping; John Gass, Western Texas, saddle bronc riding; Alan Hennigh, ENMU, ribbon roping; also steer wrestling; Woody Burns, Clarendon College, bull riding; Kay Proctor, Howard College, and Colynn White, ENMU, tied for first, and Tona Pettigrew, HC, third in barrel racing;

Betty Gail Cooper, ENMU girls goat tying; Jennifer Haynes, NMSU, break away roping; Alan Hennigh all-around cowboy; Betty Gail Cooper, all-around cowgirl. ENMU won first in both boys and girls team competition.

Final standings for boys in the region showed Tarleton State University first with 2,463 points; and ENMU second with 1,964; for girls team competition, ENMU first with 1,360, and Howard College second with 891.

Event leaders in final standings were: James Ward, ENMU, bareback bronc; Roy Cooper, Cisco Junior College, calf roping; John Gass, Western Texas, saddle bronc; Jim Fuller, Tarleton, ribbon roping;

Robert Blandford, Tarleton, steer wrestling; Kay Proctor, Howard College, barrel racing; Betty Gail Cooper, ENMU, breakaway roping and goat tying; James Ward, ENMU, bullriding.

Byron Hedges, coach of the Howard College team, said he was proud of his team's showing, especially since this was the first year for HC to compete in the sport. There are some 25 teams in this region.

'Nation Of Strangers' Is Studied By AAUW

"Nation of Strangers" by Vance Packard was the topic of study Monday when members of the AAUW met at the home of Mrs. Neil Willoughby, 1708 Alabama.

Mrs. Joey Grathwohl, president of the local AAUW, told of a recent visit by state and district officers and reported they stressed the challenges and goals of the national association.

Announcement was made of the annual AAUW dinner that will be on May 13, 7-30 p.m., at Howard College Student Union Building. Dinner reservations should be made with Mrs. Ethel McCanness at 263-2457. Entertainment will be by the Westside Chorus.

Mrs. Paul Kionka, study leader, presided for the program given by Mrs. James Morrison and Mrs. Alan Somicic.

SOCIETY'S PROBLEMS

The book stresses the torn roots of our society and points out that our rootlessness increases our anonymous state. The individual yearns for freedom but still has need for a sense of belonging, self-esteem and a need of a feeling of continuity and community. According to the author, there is great fragmentation of the family through constant moving about the country and from broken homes. It also may be caused indirectly by the continuous transferring by the government of their employees. It is estimated that the average worker

Study Club Installation

Mrs. Jack Woodley was installed as president of the Forsan Study Club when members met for the final session of the year in the Patio Room of Holiday Inn.

Mrs. Raymond Moore served as toastmistress for the luncheon and meeting and Mrs. Don Murphy read the club collect. Mrs. Woodley was announced as the club woman of the year and was presented a charm from the club by Mrs. Hamlin. Door prize was won by Mrs. Delmar Hartin.

Mrs. Clyde Angel was a guest and installed the officers, using foliage to represent each office.

In addition to the president, other officers are Mrs. Garner Thixton, vice president; Mrs. Lee Yarbrough, recording secretary; Mrs. Bill Cregar, corresponding secretary; Mr. Herb Smith, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Edmon McMurray, historian.

moves 14 times in his lifetime. Based on census and telephone records, the age group between 25 and 34 years is the most mobile group.

While this mobility often has a negative impact on our society, there are positive impacts also such as mobility creating a broadening of the persons, educationally and travel-wise and also brings the immediate family closer together and more dependent on one another due to loneliness.

NEGATIVE SIDE

On the negative side it was noted that mobility creates nomadic tendencies and causes people to no longer commit themselves to long-term contracts. People become hedonistic, only interested in today's pleasures and material possessions with no thought of the future.

The author believes that this style of living will create educational problems and may also create social problems in adults. It was suggested that community colleges could help in bringing these young mobile families together through participation in educational fields.

One guest, Mrs. Richard Nagel, Killeen, sister of Mrs. W. A. Riley, attended.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hendrickson Jr., 4107 Parkway, announce the birth of a son, Heath William, on May 3 at 9:06 p.m., at Medical Center Memorial Hospital. He weighed 7 pounds, 14 1/2 ounces.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Grady Gaskins of Knott and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hendrickson Sr., of Hicksville, Long Island, New York.

Miss Myrtle Jackson Is Honoree For Tea

Miss Myrtle Jackson, bride-elect of Mike Alexander, was complimented with a tea recently at the home of Mrs. Jack Alexander.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Alexander, Miss Jackson, her mother, Mrs. Joe Jackson of Dallas, and her great-aunt, Mrs. H. E. Heaton.

Miss Jackson wore a peach-colored dress and was presented an orchid corsage. Corsages for the mothers were fashioned of daisies.

Still Lies

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: To begin with, my husband has always been a big liar. Last summer I found a pair of nylon panties under the seat of his pickup truck, and when I asked him where they were doing there, he said they were probably mine and he was using them for car rags. I told him I didn't wear that kind and they didn't make very good car rags and I gave him something else to use.

I forgot all about it until yesterday when I came across another pair of panties in the glove compartment of his pickup. This time I knew for sure they weren't mine because this pair had "Wednesday" on them. Abby, I know he can't be that desperate for car rags.

What do you suppose is going on? I hope you print this because I'd like that hussy my husband has been fooling around with to know she forgot to pick up "Wednesday."

NOT FOOLED IN STAUNTON, VA.

DEAR NOT: If your husband intends to continue picking up in his pickup, he

Tree History Is Devotion Topic

"The Kilmer's Tree," a history of the Joyce Kilmer poem tree, was brought as a devotion by Mrs. Alton Underwood Monday for members of the Home Demonstration Council.

The meeting was held in the office of the agent with council officers as hostesses. Guests were Mrs. R. D. Soles, Mrs. J. S. Skalicky and Mrs. L. A. Griffith.

Officers were elected and Mrs. Underwood will serve as chairman; Mrs. John Couch, vice chairman; Mrs. E. A. Williams, secretary; Mrs. Waymon Etchison, treasurer.

Announcement of the Leader's Training meet was made. It will be held at 2 p.m., May 20 at the agent's office and the title is "Woman, The Financial Wizard."

should tell his friends to pick up after themselves — and that means Monday through Sunday!

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who claims she can analyze a person by his physical characteristics.

For example, she says a high forehead is a sign of superior intelligence and a low forehead is a sign of average or below average intelligence. (She has a high forehead. Mine is low.)

She also says that people with long, narrow thumbs have a natural advantage over people with short stubby thumbs because long narrow thumbs mean you are dependable, friendly, and easy to get along with, but short stubby thumbs mean you are irresponsible, unfriendly and hard to get along with. (Her thumbs are long and narrow. Mine are short and stubby.)

I would like to prove her wrong about her thumb pronouncements but don't know where to find proof, so I am writing to you.

DISBELIEVING

DEAR DIS: Since she made the "pronouncements," ask her to prove it. As I see it, the only natural advantage the narrow long thumb has over the short stubby thumb would be in hitch hiking.

Miss Pittman Is Given Gift Party

Miss Londa Pittman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Allen, was honoree for a gift shower Saturday at the Wesley Methodist church parlor. Miss Pittman will be married to Gary Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bradley on June 22.

Miss Pittman received with her mother, Mrs. Allen, her grandmother, Mrs. Nite Bradley and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Bradley.

Miss Kay Daughtery presided at the registry. The tea table was covered with a white linen cloth accented with four-inch Belgium lace. A permanent arrangement of pastel flowers was the centerpiece and was given to the bride-elect.

Miss Pittman was attired in a full-length, backless pink dress with A-line skirt. There were 18 hostesses.

Coahoma Bridge Winners Told

Mrs. Charles R. Parrish was hostess for the Coahoma Bridge Club for the Monday meeting with three tables in play.

Mrs. Marion Hays was highest scorer, Mrs. Billy Jack Darden was low and Mrs. Lee Guidroz bingood.

The May 13 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. B. E. Dodson.

Guest Speaker Tells Council Of Senior Center Problems

Activities for the Howard County Council on Aging were planned Thursday when the members met at the Senior Citizens' Center. Members also heard a report from the Permian Basin Regional Planning committee.

Miss Bessie Love told of the mini-conference on aging held last week in Midland where Mickey Siovall and Alex Guerra of the Governor's Committee on Aging, Smith and representatives of senior projects in Peco, Monahans, Lamesa, Odessa, Midland and Howard County were present. In addition to Miss Love, John Clancy, Sherry Mullin, Nancy Easley, Mrs. Harlan Hulbregtse and Mrs. Doug Williams attended.

Miss Love said quilting is being enjoyed by both experts and beginners on Monday afternoons each week. Hobbies are featured on Thursday at 2 p.m., with these programs scheduled: a nostalgic look at soap-making by Mrs. June Williamson of Pioneer Gas Co., May 9; indoor gardening by Mrs. A. C. Moore, May 16; liquid embroidery by Ms. Sue Slough, May 30.

POT LUCK MAY 15

The monthly activity day and pot luck luncheon on May 15 will feature a slide program on "Historic Howard County" by Mrs. Floyd Mays and special events acknowledging May as Senior Citizen Month, May 30.

Allocation of state funds that aid senior centers in this area was discussed for the council by Bill Smith, assistant executive director of the Permian Basin Planning Committee.

Smith explained that state funds helping senior centers in Lamesa, Midland and Monahans are being severely curtailed and reallocated to areas with large senior populations. This area ranks 22nd in priority for the state funds for aging programs.

The speaker pointed out that the Permian Basin would benefit if the state had more discretionary funds available for non-target area projects. By such flexibility, the state would acknowledge the fact that there are residents of non-target areas who are as much in need as residents of high priority areas.

MORE ATTENTION

Programs for the aging should be commanding more attention regionally, Smith said, as virtually all Permian Basin cities have senior populations that have increased noticeably since the 1970 census.

The Regional Planning Commission, Smith reported, is encouraging each of its 17 counties to develop plans for aging programs and to establish local priorities. The commission will then develop a regional plan embracing the local ones.

The Senior Center is open from 1-5 p.m., Monday through Friday. All older residents are invited to visit at any time to enjoy activities, table games and fellowship. The Center is located on Adams Drive on the Howard College campus in the building marked Adult Education.

For What It's Worth

Jack Cowan

Big Spring senior Doug Smith has been chosen to play in the Greenbelt Bowl, a north-south all-star football game Aug. 10 in Childress. Smith's value to the North squad in the annual clash will probably be his versatility, since he can play both offense and defense as well as handle punting and place kicking duties.

The Greenbelt Bowl is mainly for players who haven't signed scholarship agreements with NCAA schools, but who are likely to end up playing NAIA ball. Smith, for instance, is a small college prospect in both football and track.

Ex-Steer baseballer David Carter has had a big hand in the success of the Lubbock Christian College Chaparrals, who last weekend won the NAIA district meet in Arlington. Carter, playing right field, is hitting .400 for the Chaps, winners of the Texoma Conference. LCC advances to the Region II tournament in Phoenix May 23-25.

I wish Milwaukee's Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (the old Lew Alcindor) would let somebody measure him. I get tired of him standing 7-4 one day and 7-0 the next.

Here are a couple of tidbits pirated right out of The Sporting News. Reggie Jackson says he could never break Henry Aaron's home run record. "If I played that long and got that good, they couldn't afford to pay me."

And this one was interesting. It seems as though the NFL was trying to pull the pistons over our unsuspecting eyes the past season when it kept spouting figures about no-shows resulting from Congress' television blackout ban. The Federal Communications Commission says there was virtually no effect on attendance at games televised, despite cries from the football folks that such a move would, could and is killing their sport.

It's likely that the Dist. 5-AAAA Executive Committee will take some kind of action to change the existing rule concerning intra-district playoffs when it meets again next fall. At present, the rule says that if two or more teams tie for the title in one of the two halves - providing one of the teams didn't win the other half outright - then a coin flip must determine which team gains a spot in the playoff for district honors.

That's one rule that caused many coaches to gnash their teeth, and while it hasn't happened in a long time, if ever, it's come close this year in both the 5-AAAA baseball and basketball chases.

A couple of other 5-AAAA notes. Odessa Permian and Abilene Cooper begin their best-of-three baseball series today in Abilene, and the final action is set for Friday in Odessa. General consensus is that whoever wins won't go very far in the state playoffs.

Permian's victory over Odessa High gave the Mojos the Odessa American All-Sports Trophy by a half point over Cooper. Big Springer Barry Canning, despite an 0-for-4 effort in the season finale against San Angelo, finished high among the league's batters, hitting over .400. He's a junior.

Local riders Craig Hodnett and David Guinn scored Senior Division victories and Timmy Swanson won in the Junior Class to highlight action in the monthly Hi-Noon Optimist Club Motocross races here Sunday.

Hodnett won the 100cc competition, while Guinn took the 125cc run as over 75 riders participated in the day's action. Swanson captured the minibike honors.

San Angeloans scored several wins, as Kirk Bonner won the Senior minibike run and Steve Floyd won the Open race, and Rutledge took the 250cc event.

Other winners were John Poor of Abilene in the Senior 250cc run, John Bailey of Midland in the Junior 125cc action and Tar Rawls of Marfa in the Open Junior event.

In a special event Sunday, Debbie Cole won the Jayceettes Powder Puff race, with Treca Stewart second, Dixie Leonard third and Linda Faulkner fourth.

SENIORS

Herman Wadell, Odessa; 5. Robert Poor, Abilene; 250cc — 1. Tar Rawls, Marfa; 2. Paul Linder, Big Spring.

Sunday's victory regained the home court advantage for the Bucks. Winner of tonight's nationally televised game (8:30 p.m. CDT) can clinch the best-of-seven series by winning at Boston Friday night. A seventh game, if needed, will be here Sunday.

Davis repeatedly took White to the baseline Sunday and scored eight points in the first quarter. Celtics' Coach Tom Heinsohn later used Chaney, Paul Westphal or forward John Havlicek on Davis, but the shifts took pressure off Robertson and Buck forward Bob Dandridge.

Athletic Banquet Scheduled At 8
The Garden City High School All-Sports banquet will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the high school gymnasium.

The meal will be catered by Al's Barbecue of Big Spring. Athletes in various sports will be recognized and Player of the Year certificates presented annually by the Big Spring Herald will be passed out. Tickets will be available at the door to the general public at a cost of $2.50 each.

Buddy Allin Hangs On To Win Nelson

DALLAS (AP) — "Those were probably the best three holes of my life," sighed Buddy Allin, the freckle-faced mighty mite and winner of the $150,000 Byron Nelson Golf Classic.

"It was close at that point and that kind of got me ahead of the field... I played about as good as I could play."

The tough little Vietnam veteran swept away from a trio of challengers with three clutch birdies on the home stretch Monday to capture his fourth tour victory and the $30,000 top prize.

He closed with a three-under par 68 for a record 72-hole total of 269-15 under par. "I was hoping I could hang in there...but I wouldn't have bet my life on it. Anytime you win it's a great feeling. I think I feel more inside me than I show outside," he grinned.

The 5-foot-9, 130-pound sharpshooter grabbed a four-stroke victory over at 273 over Tom Watson, Lee Trevino, Charles Coody and Homero Blancas.

Watson posed the major threat of the still, sultry afternoon, overtaking the third-round leader Allin at the 13th before crumbling with a double bogey at the 14th, where he dumped his tee shot in the water.

Kermit Zarley, whose course record 64 tumbled Saturday under Allin's incredible 63, seized sixth place money of $5,408 with a 66 for 274.

Bob Charles, 69, and Jim Simons, 70, shared seventh, good for $4,619, while Butch Baird, 65, Bob Wynn, 68, and Bruce Crampton, 72, were a stroke back at 276.

Allin, 29, whose bachelor status is in jeopardy—he's engaged—left Dallas Monday night for a vacation in Las Vegas, saying he would skip the Houston stop this week and rejoin the tour at Colonial in Fort Worth.

WATCHES IT ROLL — Bud Allin of Santa Barbara, Calif., watches his putt toward the cup on the 18th green of yesterday's Byron Nelson Golf Classic in Dallas. The young pro went on to win the tournament and pocket $30,000 for his four-day total of 269, 16-under par. The tourney was delayed one day by rain.

LITTLE LEAGUE Tigers, Rockets Register Wins

The Tigers claimed the Pirates, 13-1, in Texas Little League play here Monday night. Dickie Wrightslit hurled hitless ball to notch the mound victory.

Jessie Ybarra and Wrightslit had two-base hits for the winners.

Brocky Jones banged out two doubles for the Bengals while Jessie Ybarra and Wrightslit each accounted for one.

Wrightslit, also had a triple, as did team mate Ernest Jara. In all, Ybarra collected four hits. The win was the fourth in five starts for the Tigers.

The Rockets battled back to topple the Starfighters, 8-7, here Monday night. The game seasawed back and forth and ultimately was decided in an extra inning.

The Rockets put the game on ice but unloading for four hits in the first extra inning. Chris Smith led the winners' attack with a home run, double and single. Ron Hovda smashed a home run and a double for the winners while Mike Domino tore into Starfighter pitching for two doubles and a single. Mike Salazar had two singles while Keith Wilson, Rudy Jimenez and Mike Witt each had singles, all for the Rockets.

Gonzales had three hits for the Starfighters, as did Stallings. Coffey and Justice each drove out one.

Chris Smith also did a creditable pitching job for the winning in the six innings he worked. Gregg Smith and Coffey divided time on the mound for the Starfighters. The Rockets are in first place in league standings with a 4-0 record.

The Colts roared from behind to tip the Jets, 4-3, in American Little League action here Monday evening.

Brent Odom tripled in the final inning and scored on a fielder's choice to complete an uphill fight for the Colts. Pitcher Mike Workman benefitted from the late fireworks, running his won-lost record to 2-1.

Mike Christian had three hits for the winners and it was his fifth inning hit that tied the game. Odom's triple was his second hit of the contest.

On the year, the Colts are 4-1.

The Rebels fashioned a 7-3 win over the Cardinals in National Little League play here Monday evening.

Eleven hits came off the Rebel bats. Byron Harris had a double for the Rebels while Mike Warren duplicated the feat for the Birds.

Weldon Nichols struck out eight and yielded only four hits in an accounting for his second mound victory in three decisions.

The Rebels are 2-2 in the standings while the Cardinals slumped to 2-3.

Nichols, Harris, Robbie Reeves and Wes Hart, all of the Rebs, each had two hits.

The Cardinals oppose the Yankees Thursday while the Rebels clash with the Devils Friday.

The Cardinals measured the Cubs, 13-5, in Texas Little League competition here Saturday, making the most of 11 hits.

Domingo Rubio notched the mound victory. Nathan Lemon was the loser.

Sammy Lara had two doubles for the Red Birds while Rubeen Hernandez, Johnny DePorto and Edward Vela of the Cards and Eddie DeLeon of the Cubs each had one.

Domingo Rubio smashed a triple to help his own cause, one of four hits he drove out.

The Cards had lost three games going into the contest. The Cubs are now 1-3 in the race.

The Sports scored in every inning to topple the Mustangs, 12-5, in American Minor Little League play here Monday.

Tony Shortes was the winning pitcher. Ronald Nusz the loser. Lester Pruitt and Wesley Beauchamp of the Sports each had two hits.

Shortes set the Ponies down without a hit. The win was the first in three starts for the Sports. The Mustangs are now 1-1.

Webb's Scene Of Scrimmage

The public is invited to watch a Big Spring High School football scrimmage, which will take place on the soccer field at Webb AFB starting at about 5:30 p.m., Wednesday.

This is the second of three weeks of spring workouts for the Steers and Coach Bob Burrus is enthusiastic about his club.

He says the competition is fierce for some of the positions. Only minor injuries have cropped up, a sign that the boys reported in good physical condition.

Burrus and his aides will split the squad as evenly as possible and will identify them as the Gold and White units.

Mark Moore will quarterback one team, John Russ the other. The workout will continue for about an hour and a half.

The Steers will work as close to game conditions as possible without using kickoffs and punts.

A total of 105 players have been working out, including junior varsity candidates. Fifteen of those are lettermen.

Danny Ferrell, Andre Huntington, Lionel Banks and Soph-to-be Jesse Doss, a 205-pounder, are among backs who have impressed Burrus.

The best baseball trade is supposed to be one that helps both clubs. For the time being, then, the recent seven-player swap between the Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees is a good one.

Fritz Peterson, who went from New York to Cleveland, yielded eight hits but only three runs in six innings and notched his second victory since the April 26 deal as the Indians whipped the California Angels.

COSTLY ERROR
The Yankees won when Jim Fregosi, who batted Texas back from an early four-run deficit with an RBI single and a three-run homer, committed a two-base throwing error in the seventh inning that led to a pair of unearned runs, driven in by Bobby Murcer's single and Ron Blomberg's infield out.

Padres 7, Phillies 6
Fred Kendall drove in three runs with a home run and double and Nate Colbert knocked in three with a single and double to help Freisleben, who needed help from Rich Troedson in the seventh inning and Vicente Romo in the ninth.

Tigers 5, White Sox 4
Pinch hitter Dick Sharon drove in the tying run with a grounder in the seventh inning, then stole second and scored the winning run on a single by Jerry Moses, ending Chicago's five-game winning streak.

Orioles 6, A's 3
Brooks Robinson rapped out four straight hits and drove in a pair of runs and Paul Blair hit a two-run homer to help Baltimore snap a five-game losing streak and give Mike Clellan his first pitching victory of the season.

Two National League games were rained out—Los Angeles at Montreal and San Francisco at New York.

Peterson blanked the Angels until the fifth when Dave Chalk doubled, Bobby Valentine singled and Frank Robinson homered. He gave way to Milt Wilcox at the start of the seventh.

"Technically, I think the Indians have a better team than the Yankees put on the field. I think the trade helped make this team," he said.

The Indians are 7-2 since the deal, with Peterson winning twice, Steve Kline once and

Busy Time Of Year Ahead For Big Spring Students

The beginning of the end is in progress at Big Spring High School with multiple activities scheduled between now and the end of school.

Commencement will be Tuesday, May 21, and baccalaureate on Sunday, May 19. The week prior to that is "dead week" for exams and the school tries not to schedule events at that time.

The student council will work one day on the citywide spring cleanup on May 16 but will not be able to devote the time to it that would have been allotted if it had not been set in dead week.

May 10 will see the final band concert with Barney's Beat at 7:30 p.m. The high school choir will present its spring concert, May 13 at 8 p.m. and the Goliad Junior High School plans one for May 18.

The American Legion award will be presented at senior assembly at 3 p.m. May 10. The junior-senior prom is Saturday, May 11, at 9 p.m. at the high school cafeteria.

The band gave up finding a date for its all night banquet, dance, games and breakfast and finally scheduled it after school ends May 23 and 24.

DECA Club Has Meet

Jack Nelson, assistant dean of student life at Angelo State University spoke at the DECA Club banquet at the Big Spring Country Club last weekend.

Distributive Education students and their dates also honored the members of their advisory board, including Mr. and Mrs. Al Stephens (Gibson's), Mr. and Mrs. Cum Grigsby (C. R. Anthony's), Mr. and Mrs. Keith Swain (school administrator), Herman Bauer (Woolworth), also Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowlings (Sound City), and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Robb (R & R Theatres), and Mr. and Mrs. Cotton Mize.

John Bagnall, vocational advisor and the club sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bigham and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rosson and Craig Fischer, assistant high school principal, were also special guests.

Ken Walton gave the invocation. Carol Mize, club secretary, introduced the special guests. Club President Lonnie Gary presented the club sweetheart, Debra Williams, with a club gift of a bracelet.

Following the banquet, a dance was held with Sweet Vicky's Boys presenting the music.

Remedial Class May Be Held

Classes in remedial reading and math will be offered this summer if enrollment justifies.

Those who are interested are asked to fill in a form furnished by the Big Spring Independent School District and return it to the principal of the school which the prospective pupil attends.

The courses are scheduled for Moss Elementary School at Kent and Fordham, with reading from 8-10 a.m. and math 10-12 noon.

Registration will be May 24 at the school, and classes will begin May 27, closing July 3. Tuition will be $30 for the six weeks for each course. Additional information may be had from Mrs. Mary A. Hefley, (7-8248).

Film Firm Here Is Burglarized

Keaton Kolor reported a burglary Sunday night with over $2,900 worth of equipment stolen.

Entry was gained through a window. An inventory showed that numerous cameras, projectors, and film were missing from the store on South Gregg.

On the same night, College Heights Elementary reported a burglary with around $100 worth of assorted items taken, including a record player and a plifier.

BY GEORGE, SHE'S GOT IT — The realization dawned for Karen Ann Morris, left, of Cheyenne, Wyo., at Mobile, Ala., Monday night as she becomes 1974 Junior Miss. Applauding her selection are Donna Maria Alexander, center, of East Orange, N.J., and Sheila Wynne Tippins of Brookhaven, Miss.

Pick Daughter Of Wyoming Rancher 1974 Junior Miss

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Karen Ann Morris, daughter of a Wyoming rancher, is America's 1974 Junior Miss.

"I just don't know, it's unreal. I can't believe it. But it's beautiful," the tall, blue-eyed blonde said after she was named the nation's ideal high school senior Monday night.

Miss Morris is the daughter of a Wyoming rancher John N. Morris.

His daughter works on the ranch but plans to be a speech pathologist after attending the University of Wyoming.

"I was just lucky," she said of her victory, "all of the 50 girls had a chance to win... I was just lucky."

Susan Stephenson, 18, of Lincoln, Neb. was the 1st runner-up, receiving a $6,000 scholarship.

Second runnerup was Miss Nevada, Lily Hamamura, 17, of Las Vegas. She received a $4,000 scholarship, plus $1,000 for being named Miss Personality by the other 49 girls in the competition.

Miss Florida, Susan Walden, 17, of San Rafael was fourth runnerup, receiving a $2,500 scholarship.

Miss California, Sharon Fox, 17, of San Rafael was fourth runnerup, also receiving a $2,500 scholarship.

Others among the seven finalists were Miss New Jersey, Donna Alexander, 17, of East Orange, and Miss Mississippi, Sheila Tippins, 17, of Brookhaven. Both girls were awarded $1,000 scholarships.

Among the ten semifinalists were Miss Arkansas, Holly Henley, 18, of El Dorado; Miss Maryland, Cathy Holz, 18, of Ellicott City; and Miss Texas, Donna Bullock, 18, of Athens.

ICT Students Win Awards

Three ICT students from the vocational department of Big Spring High School received superior or first place awards at the state contest held in San Antonio over the weekend.

The three were Cynthia Torres, on a student selected job as a dental assistant at the Veterans Administration Hospital; Dennis Churchwell, student selected job with Big Spring Tire; and Danny Lewis, a student auto mechanic at Jack Lewis Buick.

Winning a fourth place rating was Rodney Ferrell, motorcycle mechanic at Lee's Rental, and Mark Fort, placed fourth in a job of aircraft mechanic which he holds down at Big Spring Auto Repair. The students offer reports on their respective jobs.

Weapons Charge Filed By Police

Two separate charges of carrying a prohibited weapon were filed by city police over the weekend.

Henry Dominguez, 27, of 1302 Grafa is out on $500 bond on a charge of carrying an unlawful weapon. He was arrested at 12:10 a.m. today at 21st and Goliad and bond was set by Sheriff A. N. Standard.

Rudy Garcia Gutierrez, 28, of 408 S. Benton was arrested on May 5 for carrying prohibited weapon. His bond was also set at $500.

Tech Regents Study Budgets

LUBBOCK — Financing Texas Tech University Complex operations will claim the attention of the Board of Regents when it meets today with budgets totalling $67.2 million and bond sales totalling $25.2 million due for consideration.

In addition the regents will hear a report of the Bernard Johnson, Inc., representatives of Houston-based firm has undertaken. The survey relates to current and future traffic flows of the university complex and community areas relating to it.

Regents will be asked to consider bids on a new social sciences Building, designed as an attachment to Holden Hall, which served for many years as the museum at Texas Tech.

A $30 per semester increase in residence halls room and board rates will be considered following the board's review of increased operating costs which are expected to go up $483,000 next year.
