BURNED VICTIM — One of 11 workmen hurt Wednesday in a fire and explosion at a 15-story Pillsbury Co. grain elevator in Memphis, Tenn., nears the ground on a rope harness. Hospital officials said Wednesday night that three of the men were in critical condition from burns. Four of the workers spent nearly one hour atop the elevator while firemen figured out a way to get them down.

STAMPS STEALER Judge Orders Ex-Rep. Knapp Released

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — A federal judge has ordered former state Rep. Walter Knapp released on a writ of habeas corpus and full release from custody if a new trial is not started within 90 days.

Knapp was convicted of stealing $1,200 in state stamps by applying them to his own use in buying a used pickup truck.

U.S. District Court Judge Hall Woodward issued the order Wednesday.

The order was issued after a hearing before magistrate Bill H. Bert in Lubbock.

One of the defense points was that the stamps were received in Amarillo, the legislator's home city before he received the stamps.

Said the magistrate in his report: "Had the state presented evidence of theft on any date after the $1,200 in stamps had been received by Knapp, the proof in this case would have sufficed for conviction. This evidence is totally lacking and there is no evidence to support a crucial element of the offense charged."

Potter County officers were in touch with prison officials in Huntsville regarding Knapp's release on the writ of habeas corpus.

Knapp had exhausted all his state court appeals. Therefore the federal petition was on constitutional grounds that Knapp was denied due process of law.

Cite New Grounds For Impeachment

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's refusal to comply with a House Judiciary Committee subpoena for 11 Watergate tapes is providing new grounds for impeachment in the view of some members.

IT'S HURTING

"It means the cover-up continues," said Rep. George Danielson, D-Calif., after Nixon notified the committee Wednesday he would not comply with the subpoena or any other it issues for Watergate material.

New Building For CRMWD?

A new headquarters building for the Colorado River Municipal Water District may be in the offing.

District directors, in a meeting here today, authorized P. C. Harbour, Odessa, president, to name a committee to begin investigations toward a possible site, and otherwise initiate planning.

It may be that such a structure would include up to 10,000 square feet of space. On that basis, this would approach a quarter of a million dollars. However, no definite plans have been formed.

The district presently is housed in leased quarters at 1318 East Fourth Street, but D. H. Ivie, general manager, said that space is becoming a problem both from the point of view as well as storage and auxiliary space.

There are ample funds in the Improvement and Extension Fund for such a project, Ivie reported. The committee is expected to report back to the board within 60 days.

"It's hurting him with the committee," said Rep. Tom Railsback, R-Ill., one of a number of Republicans who expressed disappointment at Nixon's action.

Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., calling Nixon's refusal "a very grave matter," scheduled a committee meeting for next week to deal with it.

There was some talk of citing Nixon for contempt of Congress and of seeking court enforcement of the subpoena, but a majority appeared to favor taking the President's action into account when considering whether he should be impeached.

EVIDENCE

The committee staff has advised that it is proper to infer that anyone possessing and refusing to provide subpoenaed evidence is withholding material that could be incriminating.

In a letter to Rodino saying he would not produce the tapes, Nixon said the committee's request, and others it is getting ready to make, amount to "a massive invasion into the confidentiality of presidential conversations."

"More fundamentally, continuing ad infinitum the process of yielding up additional conversations in response to an endless series of demands would fatally weaken this office, not only in this administration but for future presidencies as well," Nixon added.

NO WAY

Rodino rejected Nixon's argument, saying the committee's requests were narrowly drawn and related specifically to the impeachment inquiry.

"There is no way the presidency will be weakened by the constitutional process we are conducting. The republic will be strengthened."

Rodino said the committee will issue more subpoenas if it decides the White House is withholding evidence it needs. The next one likely will deal with the dairy funds and ITT controversies.

DIG DEEPER

The committee has requested tapes of 66 conversations in these two areas and Nixon's lawyer, James D. St. Clair, told it Wednesday it would get only one partial transcript.

The committee delved deeper into the crucial March 21, 1973, stage of the Watergate cover-up Wednesday, adding secret grand jury evidence to its tapes of Nixon's conversations dealing with hush money payments.

Trio Charged With Theft

Steven Bradford Stewart, Michael Eric Wiggins and Walter Bumbulis, all Webb airmen, were arrested by city police here Wednesday, charged with theft over $200, a felony.

Corporation Court Judge R. Coffee set Stewart's bond at $15,000, Wiggins and Bumbulis at $10,000 each and they were transferred to the county jail shortly before lunch. A fourth man is being sought by law officials in connection with the charges.

Charges were filed on a complaint from Stonewall Insurance Co in connection with a check made payable to Stewart and the Webb Credit Union for $3,050 for a car reported stolen in December 1973 and discovered burned in Roswell, N.M.

Two of the men were charged in connection with taking the car to Roswell and returning to Big Spring on a motorcycle, leaving it with the fourth man, who is still being sought by law officials.

'Victim' Hearst Suddenly Faces Possibility Of Life In Prison

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Patricia Hearst faces the possibility of life in prison as she is hunted as kidnap suspect rather than kidnap victim.

In a further dramatic turnabout since her kidnapping by the Symbionese Liberation Army Feb. 4, Los Angeles County Dist. Atty. Joseph Busch lodged 19 felony charges against her Wednesday.

"She faces life imprisonment," Busch said. "In my opinion, Miss Hearst was acting on her own free will," he said in outlining the charges, which included four counts of robbery, five of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder and two of kidnapping. They were filed against Miss Hearst and William and Emily Harris.

SURRENDER PLEA

Busch called again on the three to surrender, but expressed doubt that they would and said there would be "no deal." He said he believed it was the first time a kidnap victim had become a kidnap suspect.

Miss Hearst, 20-year-old coed and heiress to a publishing fortune, and the Harrises, a white couple who police say comprise the remnants of the SLA, were charged with 18 counts each. A 19th charge, of aiding and abetting assault, was filed against Miss Hearst, and it raised the possibility that police believe she may not be with the Harrises.

MORE TESTIMONY

The assault charge accuses Miss Hearst of being with two black men who tried unsuccessfully to slash a Los Angeles landlady last Sunday when she denied the three a room. Some depositions returned against seven former White House and Nixon re-election campaign aides March 1, the Watergate grand jury said a $75,000 payment was made to the lawyer for convicted Watergate burglar E. Howard Hunt Jr. the night of March 21.

In a taped conversation earlier that day, Nixon appeared to be ordering his former counsel, John W. Dean III, to make the payment.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Court of Appeals turned down the Senate Watergate committee's long-standing demand for five White House Watergate tapes Thursday, ruling that the material would be "merely cumulative."

The committee, chaired by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., has been trying to get the tapes since last July 23.

The World At-A-Glance

NEW YORK (AP) — Faced with rapidly increased costs for fuel and a continuing need for money to expand, some of the nation's major electric utilities have run into a serious lack of funds. The weak financial position some face was dramatized recently when Consolidated Edison, New York City's power supplier, omitted its regular 45-cent quarterly dividend. Con Ed said it needed cash for escalating expenses and heavy capital spending this year, and so did not pay the normally guaranteed dividend. The consumer may ultimately have to pay even higher electric bills, or face brownouts.

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Vice President Gerald R. Ford says he hopes President Nixon will give the House Judiciary Committee any additional material relevant to impeachment, and "the sooner the better." However, Ford didn't define to a Republican rally here who would decide whether the material is relevant.

Dr. Andrew Para Is Voted Honor

Seventy-one year old Dr. Andrew W. Para was recently voted into honorary membership of the Texas Medical Association (TMA) but he didn't know about it.

"I haven't been notified yet, and I just attended a TMA meeting in Houston's Shamrock Hotel May 9. I hope they" soon send me a notice too, otherwise I'll just have to read it in your paper. But I've been in Austin the last three weeks, and maybe I've missed my mail," the retired doctor said Thursday.

Dr. Para has been a medical man more than 40 years. To be eligible for honorary TMA membership, a physician must have at least 40 years experience. Dr. Para was elected in the recent 107th annual TMA meeting in Houston which attracted more than 5,100 participants. He is now one of 48 Texas physicians elected to honorary status this year in the 12,500 member TMA.

Dr. Para has worked in private practice and as a commissioned officer in the United States Public Health Service at diverse locations ranging from Brownsville to San Francisco and Vietnam to New York. He put in 21½ years with public health — then came to Big Spring Jan. 1, 1967 to work at the VA Hospital. He retired last June as chief of the out-patient clinic because of his age. But the word retirement must be used carefully with Dr. Para, because he's certainly not stopped working.

"I work part-time in Austin in the city-county clinic. That's what kept me busy most of those three weeks, I work there three days a week, and the traveling back and forth between Austin and Big Spring keeps me occupied," he added.

Dr. Para practices general, family medicine at the Austin clinic and plans to expand his work schedule.

"I don't intend to stop working. I plan to move down to Austin and concentrate on my clinic practice," he insisted.

Dr. Para is also a fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians. He now lives with his wife, Margeret, at 1903 Choctaw.

Recalling Presidential Assistant For 'Prayer'

BOSTON (AP) — The Rev. John McLaughlin, the Jesuit priest and presidential aide who recently defended President Nixon's use of profanity, has been called to Boston by his religious superior for "prayer and reflection."

The Rev. Richard T. Cleary, provincial of the Jesuit Fathers of New England, said Wednesday there was a possibility Father McLaughlin could be asked to leave his White House post, or be dismissed from the order, which would not necessarily affect his status as a priest. Father Cleary, who noted Father McLaughlin was living in the Watergate apartments in Washington, questioned whether the priest was living up to his vows of poverty and obedience.

MORAL LEADER

Father McLaughlin recently spoke out in defense of Nixon, saying he was a great moral leader and that his use of curse words was a necessary release mechanism.

Father Cleary, asked if he would agree with Father McLaughlin's defense of profanity, said, "I would be standing up against Moses if I did... 'Thou shalt not take the name of thy Lord and God in vain'." He said Father McLaughlin was not speaking for the church.

Father Cleary also said he had no record of Father McLaughlin being given permission to live in the exclusive Watergate apartments.

"Speaking for myself, I would not live there," he said, adding that Jesuits usually are required to live in Jesuit communities.

"I will be asking him to take a brief time away for prayer about his situation and reflection with me," Father Cleary said, adding he was asking Father McLaughlin to come to Boston as "soon as he can get time to do it."

NOT HIS

Father Cleary said, "I do not intend to hurt him... I am not saying he is not in good standing as a Jesuit priest."

He said no actual permission had been given for McLaughlin to work in the White House, although he said some encouragement was given.

"I understood it as research writing and special assignments for the President," Father Cleary said. "He has made recent statements on his own. It is my understanding this is not what he was originally hired for..."

In Chicago, McLaughlin, told of Father Cleary's statements, said he did not intend to speak for the church. He said he had conducted a survey of 9 of the 10 Jesuit provinces in the United States and said he found only 36 letters and 6 telephone calls inquiring about his actions or protesting them.

Father Cleary said he is asking Father McLaughlin to make an eight-day retreat, required annually of all Jesuits.

Regarding Father McLaughlin's attitude toward the controversy over his status at the White House, Father Cleary said, "He likes to feel it's a political question. I do not feel it is. The question at issue is a religious one."

PREJUDICED

In Chicago, Father McLaughlin urged Rep. Jerome Waldie, D-Calif., to disqualify himself from the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment investigation.

"Waldie quite clearly has convicted President Nixon in his head and in his heart, and has severely prejudiced the impartiality of the committee," McLaughlin said.

McLaughlin previously has urged two other Democratic members of the committee—Robert F. Drinan of Massachusetts, also a Jesuit priest, and John Conyers of Michigan—to disqualify themselves from the inquiry.

YES, IT WASN'T 'TANIA' HEARST IN MIDLAND

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP) — As the Patty Hearst saga continued in California, Midland officers were given a turn Wednesday when a report circulated that the newspaper heiress and a black man were seen here.

The couple was "captured" at a bus depot and it was learned that they were Midland residents.

The first report went to the Department of Public Safety (DPS). It said a white woman and a black man were seen in Midland in a Pontiac with California license plates and that the woman was Miss Hearst.

There have been reports in California that Miss Hearst might be with two black men and that a Pontiac was one of the cars for which officials were searching.

Officers of the Highway Patrol, Texas Rangers and Midland Police rushed about searching for the car.

Officers descended on the couple at a bus station, finding only a harmless pair which was considerably confused by all the uproar.

'Tootlers' In Dispute With CBS, NBC, ABC

NEW YORK (AP) — "Tootlers' Union Strikes Webs," says the headline in Variety, the show biz bible. Translated, it means the American Federation of Musicians is in a contract dispute with CBS, NBC and ABC.

The tootlers, says an AFM spokesman, have been "withholding their services" from the three networks and some production companies since April 30, when the union's two-year pacts with the firms expired.

NO KIDDING

As millions of "Tonight" show viewers know, it's the reason Johnny Carson hasn't been kidding the boys in the band of late.

They aren't there, but neither are they and their colleagues out picketing in the first AFM strike against the networks since 1968. No strike lines have been set up.

The reason, says the AFM spokesman, is that "we're only withholding services for people who do not sign the new contract."

"Now, if an independent producer signs the contract and does his show at a network facility — it happens all the time — we're not going to put up a picket line to keep that guy out of there."

'EQUAL PAY'

"We want him to use our people under our contracts. We can't put up a picket line only to take it down when he goes in, then put it back up when he leaves. That's ridiculous."

An end to the 24-day-old dispute with the networks isn't in sight, he says. He said joint talks with them broke off shortly before the strike began, none have been held since and none are scheduled.

Spokesmen for the networks declined to comment on what AFM says are the key issues in the dispute — a ban on so-called "runaway" overseas recording for certain network shows and "equal pay" provisions.

Regarding the first, the AFM spokesman said the union wants all original scores for domestic shows the networks own or control recorded in either the United States or Canada by the union's members.

'HOUSE BANDS'

However, he said he had no figures on hand to show how much of that recording now is done overseas and whether it has significantly increased in recent years.

The second demand, he said, would require the networks to pay as much as outside producers for musicians' overtime, holiday work, labors on daily shows and for those called on to "double," or play more than one instrument during a show.

The spokesman declined to say how much this would be, but said the networks were given more favorable rates than outside producers during the era of network "house bands," staff musicians who were paid each week whether they played or not.

But under the last contract, all network music staffs were phased out as of Jan. 31. And, the AFM official says, "we take the position the networks should meet the same conditions" as outside producers.

Former Editor Faller Dies

SAN ANTONIO, Texas. (AP) — Funeral services for Bernard A. Faller, former editor and vice president of the Longmont, Colo., Times-Call Publishing Co., will be here today.

Faller, 73, died Tuesday. He had lived here since his retirement nine years ago.

Faller worked for The Associated Press, United Press and newspapers in Denver. He served as city editor and news editor at Longmont before becoming editor in 1957.

At the Times-Call, Faller wrote and coordinated dispatches for The Associated Press in the 1955 explosion of a United Air Lines plane that killed 44 persons. Because of the coverage for the news service, the Times-Call received an Associated Press Managing Editors Association citation.

After the plane tragedy, Faller campaigned for inspection of airline baggage.

Faller was an infantry officer in World War I.

Survivors include his widow and a son, Bernard A. Faller Jr., of San Antonio.

Over-The Hill Gang Out To Get $3 Million In Back Pay

CHICAGO (AP) — An over-the-hill gang of former Chicago policemen is out to get $3 million in back wages from the city. But there doesn't appear to be much hope.

"Our bunch numbers about 1,500 and we think the city owes us about $3 million it took out of our pay checks in the Great Depression years of the 1930s," said Abner Bender, ringleader of the over-70 group.

"If we are going to get the money it had better be soon — a lot of us won't be around much longer," he said. "Maybe we should be called the under-the-gun game."

Chicago police force from 1922 until retiring in 1950. His group has hired attorney John Cusak Jr., to push its case.

"Back in the Depression the city simply didn't appropriate the money to meet the full paychecks, it didn't have the money to give," Cusak said. "There isn't too much hope of getting it now, but we are researching the entire legal question."

"Almost every payday the city would withhold $10, $15 or even $20 from our paychecks," Bender said. "They said we would get our money back later, but we never did. In those days patrolmen got $99.21 every two weeks. We didn't quit and get another job because there weren't any."

STILL ALIVE

He figures those still alive — including widows — are entitled to about $2,150 each.

Henry Weber, Chicago corporation counsel, shudders at legal problems involved.

"For instance, the heirs of dead policemen might sue the city for money," he said. "They could contend Chicago was discriminating against men who had died before it decided to pay."

Weber and Cusak agree the case comes under the doctrine of laches, which holds that a lawsuit must be filed within a reasonable period of time. But Cusak adds:

"I think the old timers are getting kick out of the whole thing. But it is typical at this juncture to try to get them something or put the matter to rest for always."

Opening lead: Five of ♣

Faced with a choice of finesses to make his game contract, South's decision was predicated not on which finesse would win, but which he could afford to lose.

After South opened the bidding with one no trump, North could have probed for a 4-4 major fit. However, his hand was perfectly balanced, with no ruffing value whatsoever. Therefore, he rightly decided that a nine-trick contract might be easier to make than a ten-trick one even if opener held four hearts.

West led the five of clubs, and declarer captured East's ten with the jack. The play to this trick made it virtually certain that both the ace and queen of clubs were in the West hand.

Declarer could now count eight running tricks, and the ninth trick could be established in either red suit. However, declarer could not afford to let East gain the lead, for once that defender got on play, South's king of clubs would be under the axe. So, declarer ruled out the diamond finesse, since that could be taken only into the danger hand, in favor of the heart finesse — for the heart finesse could be taken with complete safety.

Declarer crossed to dummy's king of spades and led a low heart to his jack. He did not care much whether this won or lost. If it lost, dummy's ten of hearts was set up as the game-going trick and, with West on lead, declarer's weak spot was safe from attack. If it won, South would have his ninth trick there and then.

Note that, if the heart finesse loses and West shifts to a diamond, declarer cannot afford to finesse. To guarantee the contract, he must rise with dummy's ace of diamonds and take his tricks in the correct order lest he block himself out of a winner.

Sees Possible Chess Tourney

Clarence Calloway, president of the Texas Chess Association, said the TCA plans to hold more additional tournaments in this area.

And, if interest in Big Spring seems to merit it, the next TCA state tourney could be held here, the Irving resident said.

This information comes from Mike Craddock, a local member of TCA, who attended the TCA Region IV Tournament in Midland last weekend.

Persons interested in promoting a chess tournament here should contact Craddock.

Stanley Shanks, Big Spring, tied with Robert Corley, Austin, for class A recognition at the Midland meet. In class competition, winners are awarded $25 and a trophy.

First place in the tournament went to Paul Kuroda, Fayetteville, Ark. Nathan Cypert, Odessa took second. And Bob Baskins, Little Rock, Ark., won third.

Winning class B was Carl Rutz, Midland; C, Andy Lattu, Midland; and D, Tom Yantis, Monahans.

KENNEDY CITES AREAS OF AGREEMENT

National Health Insurance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy says there are broad areas of agreement between the Nixon administration and Congress on the essentials of a national health insurance plan.

He told the nation in a radio address Wednesday "a new spirit of compromise and progress is in the air" that may make it possible to enact such a program this year.

Kennedy, D-Mass., said the health insurance bill he is sponsoring with Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., is better in many respects than the Nixon proposal.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Kennedy's speech was delivered as the Democratic congressional majority's reply to an address on the same subject by Nixon Monday.

The President spoke of compromise, too, but said he would not yield on the basic principles of his plan.

One of the principles, he said, was that the program must operate through private insurance companies and not "a costly, federal-dominated structure."

The Kennedy-Mills plan would be financed through and operated by the Social Security system.

The senator said among its advantages, including elimination of what he described as large profits made by the private companies, coverage of the individual from job to job or between jobs or when he was retired, and a tax that would be higher for persons well-off and lower for the poor.

PREGNANT FEMS

Kennedy said the basic coverage of hospitalization and physician services in the two bills was about the same.

But his measure contains benefits lacking in the Nixon bill, such as medical care for pregnant women and small children and greater protection against catastrophic illness.

One major hurdle to enactment of a far-reaching national health insurance plan this year is the jammed schedule of the House Ways and Means and Senate Finance committees, which must act on it.

Each panel is holding public hearings on the subject, but they also must consider this year such important measures as tax reform, international trade, tax increases for oil companies and an increase in the national debt limit.

NO CHANCE

Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., a Finance Committee member, says he sees no chance for enactment of health insurance in 1974 if the House votes to impeach President Nixon and the Senate conducts a trial on the charges.

In testimony prepared for the House Ways and Means Committee today, a spokesman for the nation's private health insurers said his industry supported a government-private partnership but strongly opposed an all-government insurance plan.

goals. We are arguing about means," said Fredrick E. Rathgeber, executive vice president of the Prudential Insurance Co. of America, who was representing the Health Insurance Association of America, the American Life Insurance Association and the Life Insurers Conference.

He said a partial or total government takeover of health insurance would be "inefficient, inflexible and an unnecessary use of taxes urgently needed to deal with other domestic needs."

Judge Received Warnings Of Bond Irregularities

DALLAS (AP) — A national accounting firm nearly four years ago warned Dallas County Judge W. L. "Lew" Sterrett of irregularities in Sheriff Clarence Jones' bail bond office, the Dallas Times Herald said Wednesday.

In a copyright story, the newspaper said the irregularities mentioned by the accounting firm Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co. involved faulty land collaterals and lax administration.

LOOKED BAD
The newspaper quoted documents it said it had obtained that stated the accounting firm conducted a regular audit and reported to Sterrett in September 1970. The accountants' report said they had found matters in the bond department that "warranted consideration."

Jones at that time was acting sheriff because of the illness of Sheriff Bill Decker.

Irregularities in bond handling also had been pointed out by another firm as early as 1960, the newspaper said, quoting reports issued by another firm, Haskins and Sells.

The newspaper said that Haskins and Sells indicated in 1960 that "bondsmen have been allowed to make bonds in excess of their approved amount" and that land should be checked to certify the bondsmen indeed owned it.

Haskins and Sells recommended that the procedures be reviewed and changed to give the county better control over forfeitures.

COURT OF INQUIRY
The bond department is currently under three different scrutinies.

On Monday the Commissioners Court ordered an audit by an outside firm. County Auditor George Smith said earlier he was conducting an investigation, and Judge Dee Brown Walker has set a court of inquiry into the matter for May 28.

Dallas County now holds more than $2.3 million in uncollectable bail bond forfeitures.

The Times Herald said the 1970 audit listed four areas in which bond procedures should be corrected.

DUTY OF AUDITING
—Limits of bond affidavits are not being posted to the bond ledgers on a current basis.

—Some sureties are being allowed to issue bonds in excess of the limits set by their affidavits.

—Affidavits were noted which were signed in blank and contained no documentation of property to cover bonds.

—Bonds are being accepted from sureties who are in default on bonds previously issued.

The newspaper said a copy of the report was marked for the Commissioners Court.

Sterrett said that he does not believe the county judge or the commissioners should take the load of auditing. "That is the constitutional duty of the auditor," he said.

Gaither Decides To Take Offer

THOMPSONVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Angus Gaither, 18, says he has decided to attend Harvard University even though it means not running the family farm.

Gaither has operated the 400-acre farm in southern Illinois almost single-handedly the past two years. He also is valedictorian of Thompsonville High School.

His father is dead; his mother suffered a stroke a month ago and is bedridden; and his 32-year-old brother suffered a stroke two years ago that left him partially paralyzed.

But Gaither said here: "I talked it over with the superintendent of the high school, and he felt I should go."

Y Directors Okay Budget

Budgets to be presented to the United Way screening committee were approved by YMCA directors for the Central Y and the Lakeview branch.

Sidney Clark, treasurer, presented the proposed budget of $89,760, which was approved, along with an outlay of $7,550 for the Lakeview branch.

Citations for the youth members of the month went to Cathy Mays, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Mays, and Mark Sheedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Sheedy.

Leadership certificates for volunteers went to Dr. Floyd Mays, Paschal Odum, Bill Towery, Mrs. Sidney Curtis and Jim Cahill, who have served as scuba diving instructors.

Mrs. Pete Rhymes, for the building and grounds committee, said talks were underway with Susan Thomas, city traffic engineer, relative to a loading and unloading zone in front of the Y. Also the committee is considering additional landscaping.

Sam Dawson, Lakeview branch director, said the average daily attendance for the past month was 106.

The board adopted a non-discriminatory clause for participation in the United Way. Mrs. O. S. Womack, president, was in charge of the meeting, which also saw Pat Owens, program director, outline the summer activities.

Onassis Eyes Port Arthur For Oil Refinery Site?

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (AP) — The search by Greek tycoon Aristotle Onassis for a U.S. oil refinery site is expected to move to the Port Arthur area.

Chris Mayo, spokesman for the Port Arthur Chamber of Commerce, said Wednesday representatives of Onassis Olympic Refineries have set no date as yet but will be in the area soon to inspect possible sites.

After encountering site problems during a search in the New England area, spokesmen for Olympic said they would check possibilities along the Gulf Coast.

Olympic had hoped to build a $800 million refinery near Durham, N.H. but a town referendum defeated the plan. The proposed refinery would have required an offshore tanker terminal.

Olympic later was reported to have checked potential sites near Newmarket, N.H., and Newport, R.I.

In late March, Louisiana and Mississippi officials announced they would welcome Olympic to their states.

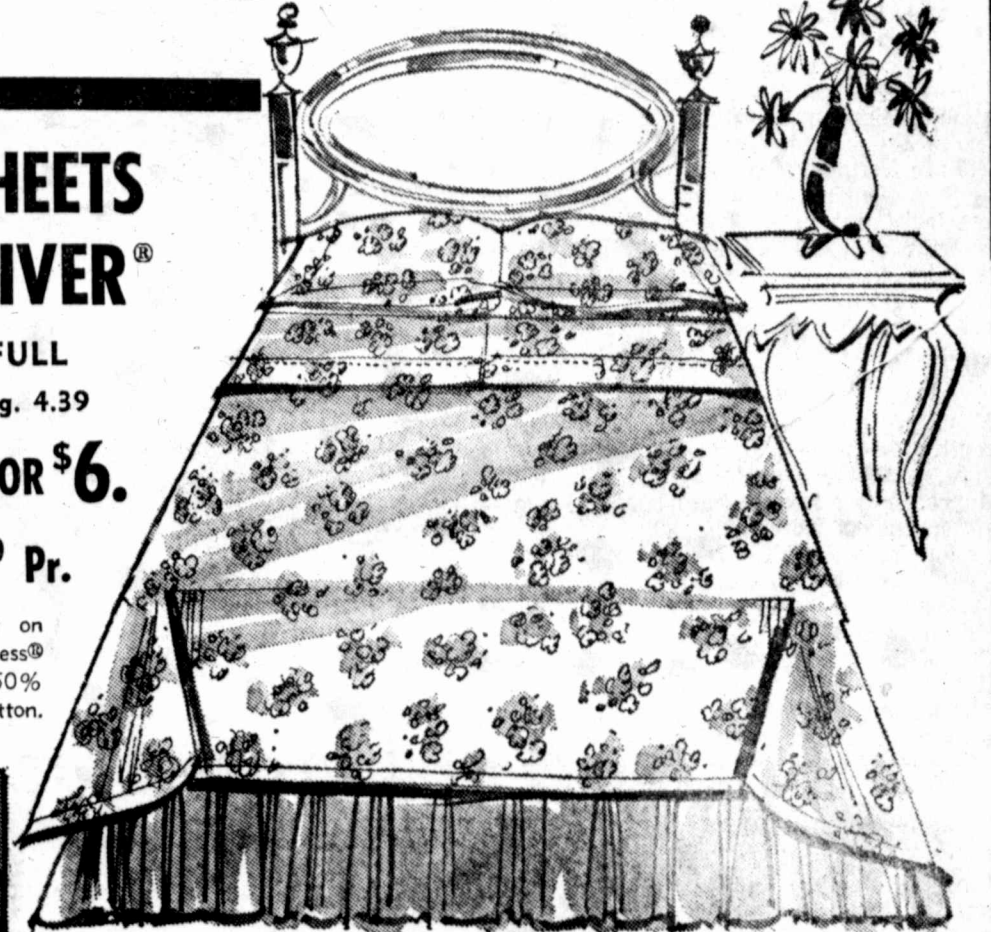

Mayo said he understood that Olympic officials now are in the middle of planning a trip to the Texas coast.

Earl Weaver Will Pilot AL In All-Star Contest

BALTIMORE (AP) — Manager Earl Weaver has more important things to think about at the moment, but two months from today he'll be managing the American League All-Star team for the fourth time.

The Oriole skipper was named by league president Lee MacPhail Wednesday to direct the American League team in the annual All-Star game against the National League July 23 in Pittsburgh.

Since Baltimore was the runner-up to Oakland, Weaver was named as the replacement for Williams.

Weaver managed the American League in 1970-71-72. He was criticized several times for his pitching selections, notably for leaving relievers off the pitching staff. Shortstop Campy Campaneris of the A's once rapped Weaver for not being used in the game.

"Just once," Weaver said, "I'd like to hear someone say 'thanks.'"

Although Weaver has directed only one American League victory, the 6-4 decision at Detroit in 1971 is the only loss dealt the National League in the past 11 years. Both losses suffered by Weaver's teams were in extra inning games.

Red Sox Defeat Orioles, 6-2

The Red Sox measured the Orioles, 6-2, in Sophomore League competition here Wednesday.

Paul Spence, on the mound for the Sox, rationed out only two hits to the Orioles. One of those was a triple by Ken Coffee.

Spence also contributed at bat, driving out two hits. James Dunbar also smashed two safeties for the winners.

Spence fanned 12 Orioles. Paul Dunbar crossed the plate three times for the Red Sox. In all, the Sox smashed seven hits.

The game opened the season for both teams.

Beer Shower Spurs Horton Retaliation

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Willie Horton gave Milwaukee fans mud in their eye Wednesday night because they got beer in his.

The Detroit Tigers' slugging left fielder was the target of some naughty words the previous night when he hit two home runs. Wednesday night he was showered twice with beer after hitting a two-run homer that powered the Tigers to a 6-4 decision over the Brewers.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Baltimore Orioles edged the Cleveland Indians 1-0 in 12 innings, the Boston Red Sox extended their Fenway Park hex over the New York Yankees 6-3, the Oakland A's downed the Minnesota Twins 7-

May's Negative Attitude May Change At Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston catcher Milt May may have a negative attitude about the Astrodome but he's certainly getting positive results there.

May beat the San Diego Padres Tuesday night with his first home run of the season in a game that ended the Astros' 10-game losing streak.

May whipped the Padres again Wednesday night with a grand slam homer in the ninth inning that broke a 1-1 tie and gave the Astros a 5-1 victory.

"I have a negative attitude in this ball park," said May, obtained in a trade with Pittsburgh for pitcher Jerry Reuss during the off-season. "The Astrodome is such a large ball park. I never know whether or not it's going to go out."

The ball went out Wednesday night to break the deadlock. Roger Metzger's single and Bob Watson's double gave Houston one run in the first inning off loser Randy Jones.

Immunity For Testimony Offered Former LBJ Pal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Watergate Committee on Wednesday authorized immunity for prosecution in an attempt to get testimony from Texas lawyer Jake Jacobsen about an alleged bribe for John B. Connally, sources said.

VOTE 5-0

The committee voted 5-0, with two members absent, to authorize so-called use immunity for Jacobsen, which would prevent prosecutors from using against him any testimony he gives to the committee. The Watergate special prosecutors may delay

Informed sources say they expect Jacobsen to be re-indicted on the same charge. The final grant of immunity for up to 30 days, and are expected to do so.

Jacobsen has previously given testimony clearing Connally of taking $10,000 from Associated Milk Producers, Inc., which was one of Jacobsen's law clients and the nation's largest dairy-farmer cooperative. Connally has denied taking the money.

However, a Watergate grand jury accused Jacobsen of lying and handed down a perjury indictment, which was recently dismissed on technical grounds. Jacobsen actually has to say.

Pollster Discusses Federal Secrecy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pollster Louis Harris told a Senate panel Wednesday the public is no longer willing to accept the traditional arguments for preserving secrecy in Congress and the federal government.

"The people are willing to give pitifully little in the way of blank checks to their leaders these days," said Harris, who testified at a government operations subcommittee hearing on legislation curtailing congressional and governmental secrecy.

USING POWER

Harris said the public generally suspects that those elected or appointed to high federal positions "are using their power for their own rather than the country's benefit."

"This in turn leads most people to conclude that a substantial amount of monitoring by the citizenry of those vested with responsibilities of running government is very much in order these days," said Harris.

PUBLICITY TESTED

John W. Gardner, head of Common Cause, said the problem of government secrecy is most clearly exemplified by the Federal Power Commission. He cited an instance in which a Senate committee tried to obtain from the commission last year reports on natural gas reports submitted by 79 producers. He said the reports were needed to determine whether certain gas prices should be regulated, but the commission said the reports were confidential and could not be released. The reports are used by the commission to set prices.

"Critics charge that the gas producers underestimate how much natural gas is available and thereby induce the FPC to set higher prices," said Gardner. "Given the FPC's devotion to secrecy, such charges can never be publicly tested."

Judge Sets May 31 For Vote Hearing

District Judge Ralph W. Caton Wednesday scheduled the trial over the contested Democratic district clerk nomination for 10 a.m. Friday, May 31.

Judge Caton said he plans to ask the administrative judge to appoint another judge to sit in his place for the trial.

John R. Coffee, a local lawyer and municipal judge, was appointed district clerk pro-tem in connection with the petition filed by incumbent District Clerk M. Fern Cox.

And Coffee is keeping documents filed in connection with the case locked in a courthouse room. He is awaiting the answer Mrs. Petty Crittenden's attorney will file to Cox's original petition.

The canvass by the Democratic Executive Committee and later the recount gave Mrs. Crittenden the nomination by one vote. Then Monday, a ballot marked for Cox was found among absentee ballots in the county clerk's office.

Cox is asking that this ballot be counted, causing a tie.

Tried To Kidnap Princess Anne

LONDON (AP) — Ian Ball, a 26-year-old former mental patient, pleaded guilty today to attempting to kidnap Princess Anne and was ordered confined indefinitely in a mental hospital.

Lord Widgery, England's Lord Chief Justice, said he had considered sentencing Ball to life imprisonment but decided against this in view of medical evidence proving that Ball is mentally ill.

Ball, an unemployed drifter, also pleaded guilty to four other charges in connection with the incident that occurred two months ago.

He was accused of attempting to murder the princess' bodyguard, a policeman, Anne's chauffeur and a journalist.

Open Letter To Our Friends

- We feel the only way we can have good government is to have two acceptable candidates running in November in the General Election.
- Glenn (High Taxes) Toombs has been our County Judge for almost 4 years. During that time, he has raised our taxes every time he got the chance during his entire term in office.
- A group of Borden County citizens averted a law suit between Borden County and the oil operators operating within the County by agreeing to reevaluate all property within the County except oil and gas properties. This amounted to about 50 per cent increase. We further agreed to stop increasing the oil companies taxes, which Judge Toombs instrumented each year he had been in office.
- Glenn (High Tax) Toombs is running on a platform which not only affects the landowners and homeowners, but also apartment dwellers and everyone who owns any property at all.
- Glenn Toombs wants to come into your home and have a disinterested appraiser appraise your dishes, your furniture, your car, etc. . . . and then tax them on the full market value.
- Accountants have estimated that this would quadruple the taxes throughout the 63rd Legislative District, whether you own any real property or not.
- Glenn Toombs did not carry one precinct in Borden County, including the precinct where he was raised and of course, was solidly defeated throughout the County.
- Glenn (High Tax) Toombs did not carry Scurry or Howard Counties where he ran not on his own merits but on the good reputation of his parents.
- We feel that a man who cannot carry his home County and his home precinct, among the people who know him best, does not warrant the vote or support of the other people throughout the district.
- Regardless of the pretty words of Glenn (High Tax) Toombs, the above facts are actually what he believes.
- We urge you all to get out and vote on Saturday, June 1st, so that you may select between two good candidates in the November general election.

MOTHERHOOD ON WHEELS — Bernis Jongetjes, almost totally paralyzed from the neck down, has enough arm movement to cuddle her second child, Vicki, two months. Bernis requires help in caring for Vicki and Dawn, 3, but can feed the infant from her wheelchair. Husband Larry is a former cook, and feeding the rest of the family is his job.

Paralyzed Mother Of Two Daughters

In their research, Dr. Edward Sessler and Dr. Kyoung Kim said they received information from the British Royal Society on Medicine covering 19 cases of quadriplegics who had given birth.

On Feb. 27, Mrs. Jongetjes became a mother for the second time, and now is at home with daughters Dawn, 3, and Vicki, 2 months.

She can prepare the baby's bottle and feed her. For more complex chores, such as changing a diaper, the baby's grandmother can be summoned by an intercom system from her farm house about 100 yards away.

The grandmother, Mrs. John Sikma, does a variety of chores while Bernis' husband Larry is at work at a Bigland salvage yard.

The Jongetjes family lives in a new trailer home on a farm in this southwestern Minnesota community. The trailer has wide passages and doors to accommodate Bernis' wheelchair.

Nixon Problems As Seen By Chief Lieutenant

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Gerald R. Ford says that if moves to impeach President Nixon are defeated, the President then would need success in foreign and domestic policy to recover lost public support.

"I think if the President and Henry Kissinger are successful in the Middle East . . . and I think the prospects are fairly encouraging, I think that would be most helpful," Ford said in an interview with The Associated Press.

He said the public's views "move back and forth very quickly and there still is no better issue for any President than peace, particularly if they have the impression that he is the principal architect of it."

Dramatic success in domestic issues would be more difficult "because you don't turn a spigot and end inflation," said the vice president.

But, he added, "If the economy stays strong, if unemployment doesn't go up, if people

Memorial Services Are Planned Here On Monday

American Legion Post 355 will host Memorial Day Services in front of the Howard County Courthouse at 10 a.m. Monday. Gold Star Mothers, World War I Barracks, Disabled American Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legionnaires will be among participants. Everyone is invited, Rocky Vieira, Legion post commander, said.

Legionnaires will leave the post at 9:30 a.m. in a police-escorted convoy. Webb Air Force Base will send a color guard. And Chaplain Major Neil Daily will deliver the eulogy.

Post Chaplain Buck O'Neal will give the memorial sermon. Gold Star Mothers and American Legionnaires will place wreaths by the Memorial Stone. Refreshments will be served at Post 355 after the ceremony.

Construction Strike Ends

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Construction workers returned to work Wednesday after the last of six striking unions reached agreement with Associated General Contractors.

The holdout union, Laborers International Union of North America Local 83, agreed Tuesday to a two-step 70-cents-per-hour wage increase. They originally demanded 95 cents per hour.

Five other unions who struck earlier agreed to the 70-cents increase but refused to cross picket lines while the laborers continued bargaining.

The strike began April 30. It affected 30 construction sites where projects worth $300 million were going up.

Plans Wildcat In Glasscock

Amoco No. 1 R. McDaniel will be an 8,900-foot wildcat in southwestern Glasscock County.

It will be located 1,395 from the north and 1,980 from the west lines section 13-35-4S, T&P, which puts it eight miles south of Garden City or three miles southwest of the Garden City (7,850 Wolfcamp) field.

Texas No. 1 Sterling Williams, a mile and a half northwest of the recently reopened Aplark (lower Spraberry) field three miles southwest of Gail, has been completed for 18 barrels of 38-gravity oil and 249 barrels of water. The venture had a gas-oil ratio of 607-1. Production was from perforations at 6,658-72, treated with 24,000 gallons and 60,000 gallons. The hole east bottomed at 7,129. Location is 660 from the north and west lines section 45-31-45N, T&P. Borden County.

Another Borden completion is James P. Dunigan No. 1-J Miller, 2 1/2 miles south-southeast of the Fluvanna (Southwest Multipart) field, four miles southwest of Fluvanna. Production is from the Ellenburger from 8,313-615. Through a 5-64th choke the well flowed 118 barrels of 40-gravity oil. Location is 1,980 from the south and east lines section 512-97, H&TC.

In Howard County, six miles southwest of Big Spring, Amco Quinn was running logs at 7,900. Three miles southeast of Big Spring, Fowler No. 1-C Morgan Ranch drilled below 7,815 in time and shale.

Lovely No. 1 Humble, shallow venture in Sterling County was installing a pumping unit. Amoco No. 1-B Foster, north sterling test, was below 7,100.

SHAPE UP WITH A SUMMER SALAD OF SHRIMP
Eye-appeal goodness helps shed pounds

Plan To Get Into The Swim? Better Shape Up Right Now

Probably you, like many us, are in a dilemma because the last time you looked in a mirror, the message came through loud and clear — "It's later than you think!" You have decided to lose those few extra pounds before summer officially begins, but the immediate problem is that you must entertain at a luncheon party.

Most of us shudder at the thought of offering diet fare to guests, but there is a solution. Appetites cry for simplicity at this time of year, and you can always count on the National Marine Fisheries Service for a little help. That is why they chose spring and summer 1974, to present a new recipe, Shrimp and Asparagus Luncheon Salad, for your enjoyment. Now is the time to enjoy shrimp because, for the first time in years, the tasty little crustaceans are in very good supply.

Whether your guests are counting calories or not (and many people are, without talking about it), everyone loves shrimp. Shrimp has a reputation for excellence in taste, but not everyone knows how superior this shellfish is in the nutrition department. Shrimp has high-quality, easily-digested protein, is an excellent source of many essential minerals, and has small amounts of the B vitamin group, while being low in fat and calories.

In the easily-prepared but delicious-to-eat salad a tangy marinade is used to blend the flavors of the shrimp, asparagus, water chestnuts and celery together into an out-of-this-world combination.

After the marinating and chilling (about an hour's time), the vegetables and water chestnuts are arranged on crisp salad greens, and the shrimp are perched on top. Circle with hard-cooked egg slices, and garnish with pimiento. Presto — this gourmet salad is ready to serve to guests or the family. This is so elegant, no one will ever guess that it is a shape-up salad at the same time — so enjoy!

SHRIMP-ASPARAGUS LUNCHEON SALAD
2 cans (4 1/2 ounce each) shrimp, rinsed and drained
1 cup sliced celery
1 can (8 ounce) water chestnuts, drained and sliced
1 1/2 lbs. fresh asparagus spears, or 2 packages (10 ounce each) frozen asparagus spears, cooked and drained
1/2 cup salad oil
1-3 cup lemon juice
2 tps. finely chopped onion

1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. crushed rosemary
1/2 tsp. basil
1/4 tsp. paprika
1/4 tsp. dry mustard
Crisp salad greens
4 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
Pimiento strips

Combine shrimp, celery, and water chestnuts in bowl or refrigerator dish. Place asparagus spears in shallow dish. Combine salad oil, lemon juice, onion, salt, rosemary, basil, paprika, and dry mustard; mix well. Divide oil mixture evenly between shrimp and asparagus; cover. Chill at least 1 hour. Arrange drained asparagus on salad greens on salad plate. Top with drained shrimp salad mixture and egg slices. Garnish with pimiento strips or pieces, as desired. Makes 6 servings. Cut Shrimp in half lengthwise, if desired.

NECTARINE SPECIAL
Vanilla pudding-filled cake

Nectarines Star In This Dessert

The nectarine, delightfully with us in plenitude during the summer, comes in a number of varieties. Some nectarines have a deeper blush than others, but all belong to the rose family!

Most often served to eat out of hand, nectarines are also delectable in "made" desserts. Try them in fruit cups and compotes and in cake-and-pudding combinations. Here's a recipe for one of the latter.

PUDDING CAKE
1 pkg. (3 1/4 ozs.) vanilla pudding and pie filling
9-inch square sponge cake
Confectioners sugar
3 or 4 nectarines
1 can (6 ozs.) frozen pineapple-raspberry concentrate, undiluted
1/4 cup granulated sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
3/4 cup cold water
2 tps. cornstarch
Make up the vanilla

pudding according to package directions but use only 1 3/4 cups milk. Cool to room temperature, stirring occasionally. Split cake horizontally to make two layers. Spread pudding on bottom layer; top with other layer. Sprinkle top with confectioners sugar. Chill for 1 or 2 hours.

Rinse and slice enough nectarines to make 2 cups. In a saucepan stir together the undiluted pineapple-raspberry concentrate, granulated sugar and salt; add 1/2 cup of the cold water; bring to a boil. Add sliced nectarines; boil gently for 2 or 3 minutes. Add the cornstarch (mixed until smooth with the remaining cup cold water); cook and stir constantly until sauce is thickened and clear; cool. Cut cake into squares and serve with sauce. Makes 9 to 12 servings.

Sugary Pastry Tops Apple Pie

Here's a version of one of America's favorite desserts that's perfect for that big crowd that gathers 'round the summer barbecue. Can you imagine pie that will make 20 servings? And, too, think how easy this would be to transport to the club or company picnic! Our Apple Pie is a tasty, old-fashioned type dessert, much like a huge pie or turnover, made in a jelly roll pan. The two layers of pastry encase a spicy, fresh apple-raisin-walnut filling. The glaze is drizzled over the top of the pastry while it's still hot, but this excellent dessert may be served warm or cold, with or without whipped cream or ice cream.

Try the Washington Winesap or Golden Delicious varieties for this recipe.

Texture, Color Help Appetites

Remember, texture and color are important in balancing a meal. A crunchy vegetable salad on the same menu as mashed potato or squash adds good texture contrast. You certainly wouldn't serve poached fish with creamed onions and braised celery, and have vanilla ice cream for dessert. A pale horror, and definitely unappetizing!

Now picture roast chicken (or poached fish) with fresh peas, broiled tomatoes, a salad of crisp greens, sliced radishes and cucumbers, with a fresh fruit pie for dessert. There's lots of color and texture interest in such a meal.

Planning meals that are attractive to look at also means that you are giving your family good nutrition. For as you strive for variety to keep them interested and satisfied, you are giving them balanced helpings of the vitamins, minerals and bulk they need daily for vitality and blooming good health.

Both are excellent pie apples as well as good bakers. And the Washington Golden Delicious is sweet-meated and juicy enough to be a perfect partner for cheeses as a simple dessert.

FLAT APPLE PIE FILLING

10 medium Washington Golden Delicious or Winesap apples, pared, cored and sliced (about 10 cups)
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. cloves
1/4 tsp. mace
3 tbsps. flour
2 tbsps. lemon juice
3/4 cup raisins
1/2 cup finely-chopped walnuts
1/4 cup butter

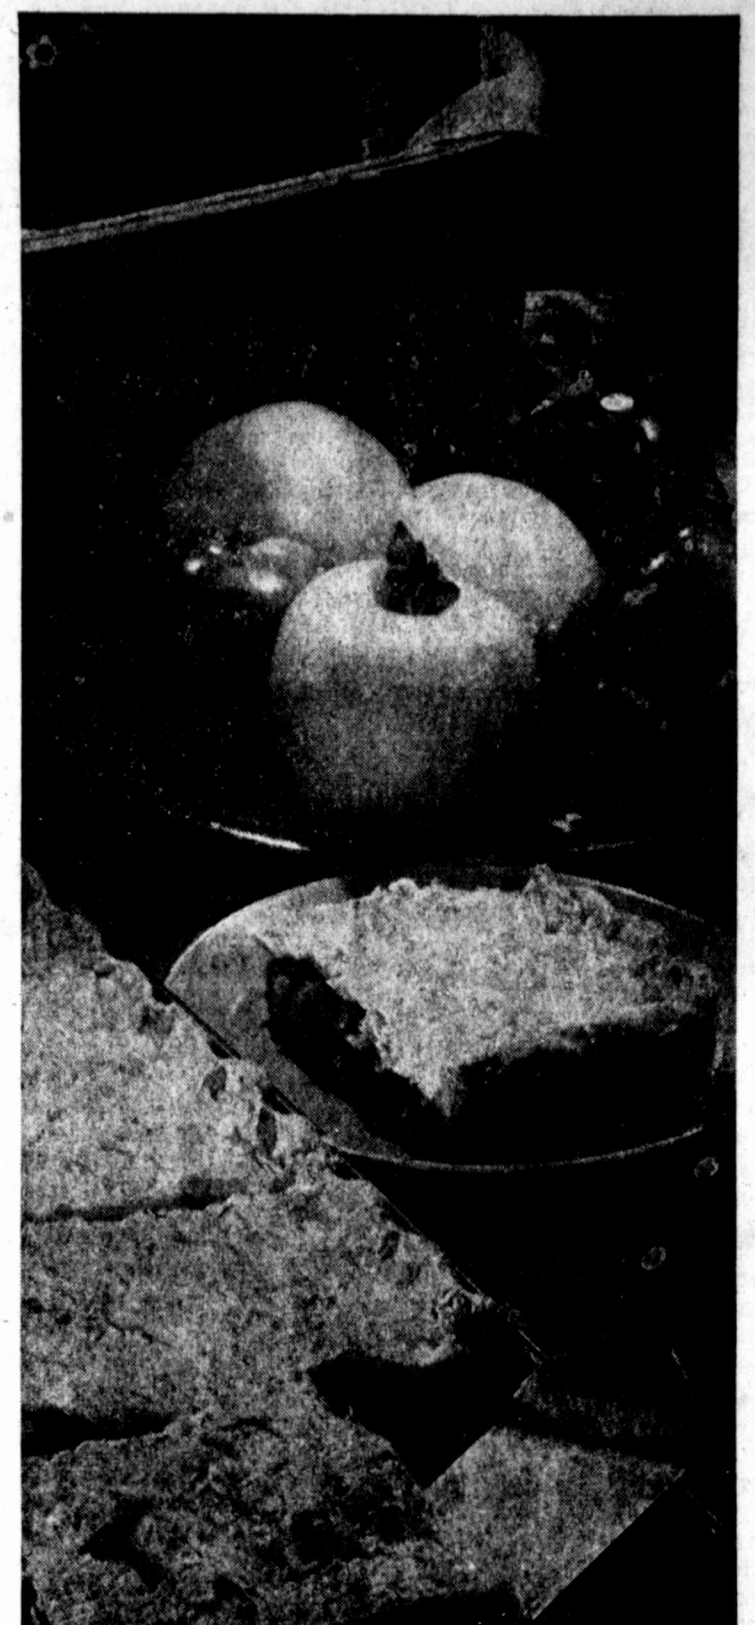

Pastry
1 cup shortening
3 cups flour
1 tsp. salt
1 egg yolk
1/2 cup milk

Topping
egg white, stiffly beaten
1 tbsps. granulated sugar mixed with 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

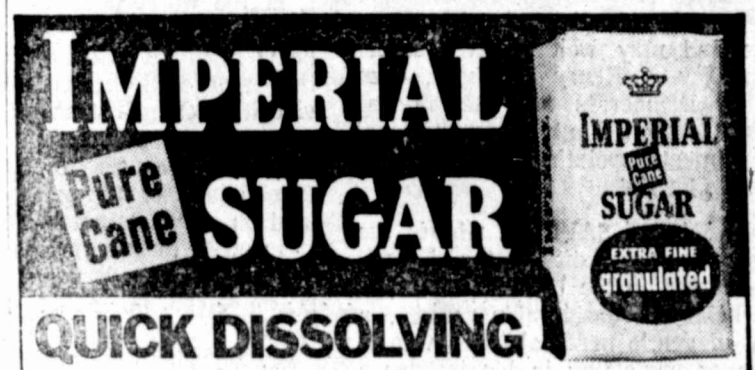

Glaze
1/2 cup powdered sugar
Milk (about 2 tps.)
Prepare apples and toss with remaining filling ingredients, except butter.

For Pastry: Cut shortening into flour and salt. Beat egg yolk with milk and stir into flour mixture, mixing until ball forms. Divide dough in half. Roll one part to fit into bottom of a 10 x 15-inch jelly roll pan. Top with apple mixture. Dot with butter. Roll out remaining dough to fit over top. Seal edges. Combine stiffly beaten egg white, sugar and cinnamon. Brush over top of pie. Bake at 375 degrees for 50 to 60 minutes.

For Glaze: Combine powdered sugar with milk to make a thin glaze. Drizzle over pie while still hot. Serve warm or cool cut in serving-size pieces. Makes 10-20 servings.

Patty's Hard Decision

The Patty Hearst case has taken another bizarre, weird turn with the shootout in Los Angeles and death of six Symbionese Liberation Army comrades. Apparently, with William and Emily Harris, she left the showdown site before officers closed in. Apparently, also, she was the woman who had fired a volley of shots to cover the escape of the Harrises as they fled after robbing a sporting goods store.

In consequence, the FBI has put a "dangerous" label on Patty promising in the same breath to handle her with due regard for safety of life as with any other suspect, also to shoot her down as it would any other fugitive who opens fire upon agents.

That should be a pretty sobering thought to reenforce the memory of six dead and charred companions. Whether she heeds her parents' pleas to surrender, or chooses a violent end for her incredible career is her decision, claims of brainwashing and mind control notwithstanding. For all the rationalizations of her behavior after her alleged kidnapping, she comes through clearly as a participant in unlawful acts. She will have a challenging time to explain that away, if, indeed, she has the good judgment to live and try to explain.

Well, Whatdaya Know?

That little bit of money you didn't know you had around. With a little luck, you find it at just the right time. Always amazing.

But what do you say when the government rummages around in its files and comes up with $266 million it didn't know it had?

Denied its request for a raise in the ceiling for arms shipment to South Vietnam from $1.26 billion to $1.6 billion, the Pentagon says it just happened to find another $266 million, and if no one minds very much, it'll see to it that money gets to Saigon for arms aid.

No one knows just how that $266 million hadn't been spent . . . or even what it was originally intended for. Just a little something extra left over from last year.

Now the interesting question is — would that money ever have been "found" if Congress had not said "no" to additional funds? And if it had been found, do you suppose it would have been sent back to the Treasury? Questions. Questions.

Too Many Rules

Around The Rim
Marj Carpenter

When you stop to consider what regulates your life, it can get a little funny.

If asked, what rules do you go by with your life? — we think first of highly religious and moral issues, and then of our love and respect for our families, and then of laws and legislations.

and if a bill says, read before licking, I lick fast.

I hate zip codes and area codes and the day that we changed over to the new postal system and each postmaster was allowed to send out the first stamp on an envelope to some citizen, the Andrews postmaster sent his to me addressed Marj (Zip Code) Carpenter.

BUT THESE aren't the only things that regulate our life. A recent movie pointed out just how much time we spend chasing pieces of paper such as report cards, diplomas, marriage licenses, warranty deeds and contracts, just to name a few.

I never stop at a red light late at night (without any cars in any direction as far as you can see) but that I think of the time a drunk pulled up beside me about 2 a.m. and stopped and said, "Aren't we seven kinds of a dumb fool to sit here just waiting that little old light bulb is red?"

I accidentally pulled into the exit lane of the Post Office parking lot the other day. I discovered very quickly that I had goofed so I pulled over to the side to let everybody by until I could get out of there.

En masse, everybody that passed me looked at me just exactly like I had just killed my poor old grandmother and chopped her up with an ax. And all I was wanting was out of there.

I DIDN'T drive in the wrong lane deliberately, although I have been known to do contrary things like filling in the space on a form that says, do not write here.

It just gets to seeming like everybody is telling you what to do

One time they had told me to put a zip code on a package and I looked up the regulation which said, "You should encourage patrons to use the zip code on packages." I asked for encouragement, but got none. At that time, I still received some mail at a Pecos box number and sent a package from Andrews to a friend in Pecos with my Pecos box number as a return. I had paid to send the parcel and then the clerk reminded me there was no zip code. And contrary as I am, I said, "Well, then send the package back to the return address and my daughter will get it and take it across town in Pecos."

IT HASN'T been too many months ago that I placed a long distance call to my daughter in London. I gave the operator her London number and asked to call station to station. She asked for the area code and I said, "Somehow they manage without them." You know what . . . I got that call through quicker than the last one I made to Tarzan.

I hate to be such a pain, but when you think about all of the goals, morals, laws, ordinances, lights, numbers and pieces of paper that regulate your life — much less the clock and calendar — you feel kind of tired . . . and ornery.

Unrealistic Idea

William F. Buckley Jr.

The strides Henry Kissinger has apparently made in bringing Syria and Israel to the bargaining table suggest the persuasiveness of the man, and also the exhaustion — emotional and military — of the situation. It has been remarked that military encounters do in fact give change; so might it be said that the school children who died in last week's holocaust may have induced a sense of disgust and, in turn, a slight motion, by both parties, in the direction of Mr. Kissinger's cease-fire line.

BUT THERE are very great difficulties ahead. It is significant that President Sadat of Egypt declined to criticize terrorists. Significant not because this suggests that Sadat is at this moment of high hope encouraging terrorist activity, but because, clearly, he finds it imprudent to criticize the Palestinians. Their problem will survive the cease-fire; and may well survive the incumbency of Henry Kissinger, even if the Democrats and Republicans were to join in a constitutional amendment appointing him Secretary of State for life.

DR. FAYEZ SAYEGH, who is the principal consultant to the Kuwait government in the United Nations, is a scholar of considerable renown, a man of gentle personal habit who is however unyielding in his insistence on the point that nothing can be done of any permanence in the Middle East without taking into account the settlement of the Palestinian problem. This everyone knows more or less abstractly. Dr. Sayegh and others know it, or think they know it, most concretely. And the notion that the cease fire having been arranged in the Golan Heights, and in the Sinai, peace is finally at hand, proves of course to be premature.

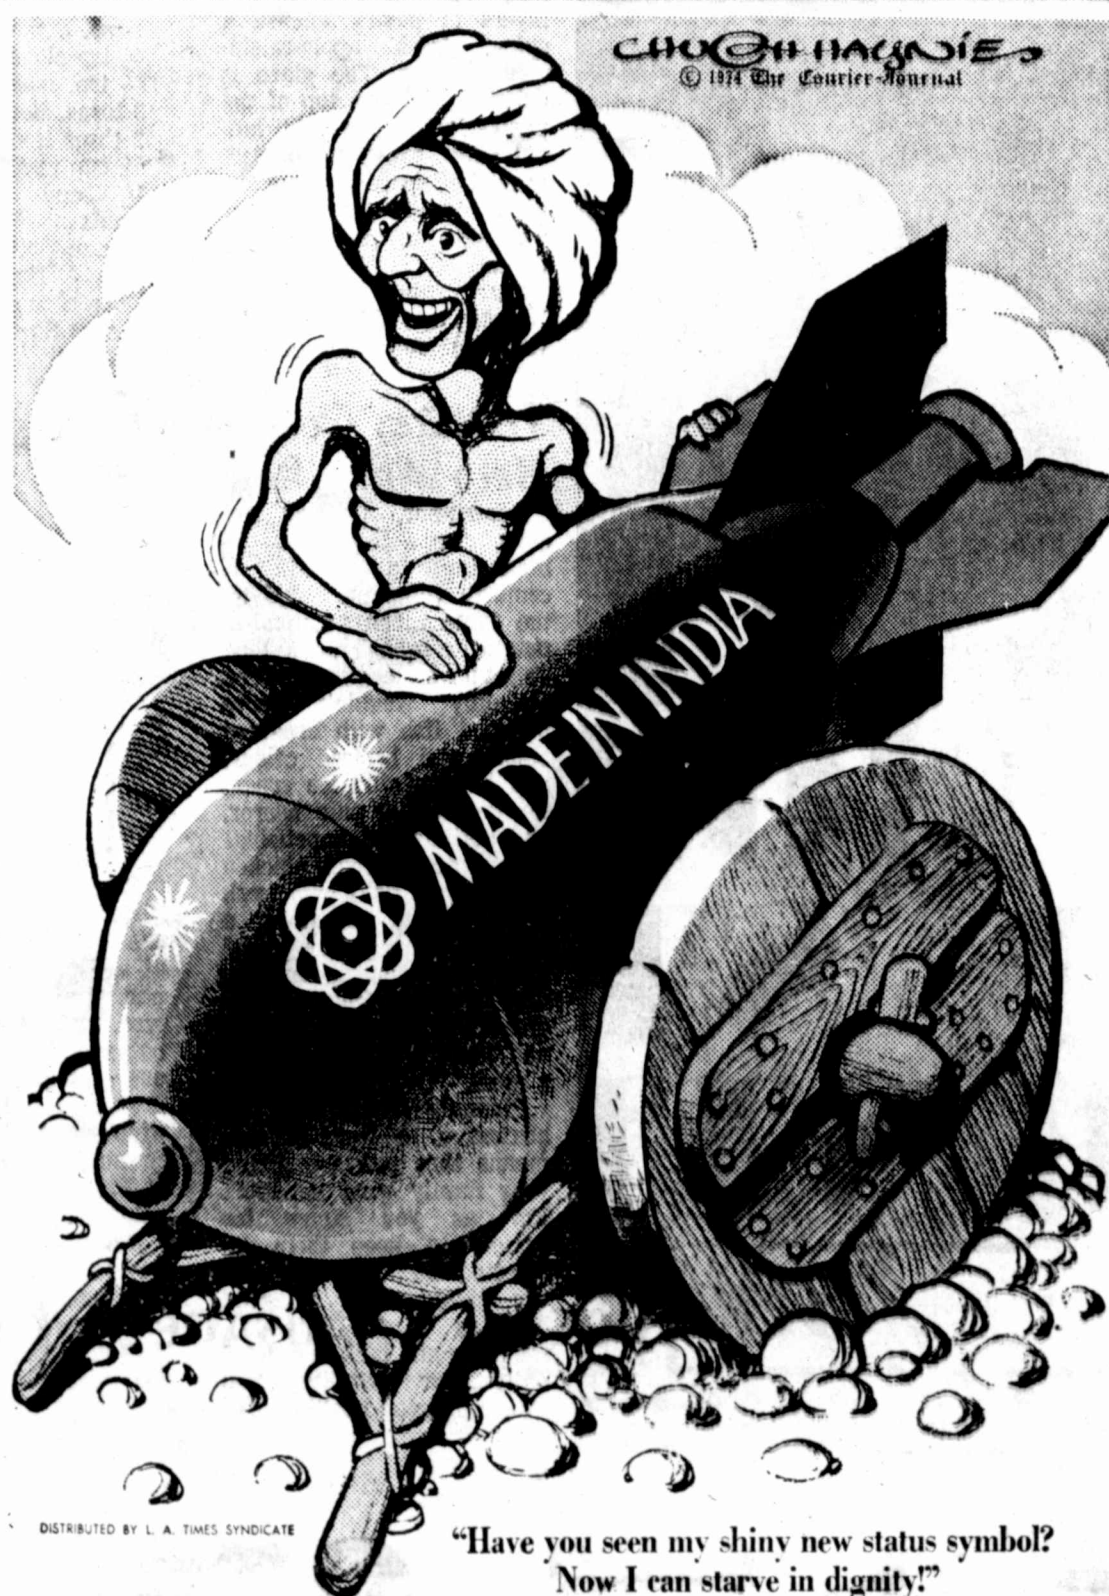

This is, as I say, widely known in the abstract. Year after year United Nations has voted resolutions demanding a settlement of the Palestinian refugees. But, says Dr. Sayegh, "the Palestinians cannot live by United Nations resolutions alone."

Here Dr. Sayegh gets most rigorous, and at the expense of what we call Israel. "Israel is, because Palestine is not; and Palestine is not, only because Israel is. The being of Israel is therefore an act of elimination: it is the non being of Palestine." Dr. Sayegh, though trained in existentialism, speaks metaphysically.

AND — Dr. Sayegh goes on — the Arab states can negotiate as such as they like respecting their own frontiers, but not at all respecting the rights of Palestinians, which are not theirs to trade off. "The Arab states have not been empowered by the Palestinian people, and therefore they lack the competence and right to decide in its absence or on its behalf matters affecting its country and its state."

THIS IS a point of some merit, both historically and politically. But it is the worst point to stress at a moment when progress is apparently being made. It is only necessary for the Israelis to become totally convinced nothing short of a whole restoration of Palestinian "rights" — defined here as the return to Palestinians of 95 per cent of the land on which Israel is now situated — in order to become convinced that to bargain at all is to participate in an elaborate ritual of national suicide.

Dr. Sayegh's dream of a pluralistic state in which the Israelis and the Arabs exercise power on a democratist one-man one-vote basis does little credit to Dr. Sayegh's appreciation of life as it is. The notion of a new state of Israbia where now Israel is cannot reasonably be proposed. It may have been wrong in 1947 for the countries of the world to sanction the partition of Palestine, but sanction it they did. It may be true that that sanction was contingent upon the full protection of Palestinian rights and that those rights were not thereafter protected; but the state of Israel was formed, it was — however imperfectly — the consummation of a vision, and it came at the end of a decade of heartbreak and genocide.

"Have you seen my shiny new status symbol? Now I can starve in dignity!"

70th Year In News Business

NEW YORK (AP) — Lowell Thomas, who joined the fourth estate as a newspaper boy in the rowdy Colorado mining town of Cripple Creek, now is in his 70th year in the news business, by his estimate.

Although the 82-year-old CBS newscaster hasn't regularly worked on a newspaper since the early 1900s — with the Chicago Journal while in law school — he still considers himself a newspaperman.

"That's the way I started," said Thomas, who still does a Monday-through-Friday news show for CBS Radio. When Sept. 29 rolls around, he'll have logged his 44th year on the network.

ODDLY ENOUGH, the veteran globe-trotter, author, chronicler of World Wars One and Two and friend of some of the most famous names in modern history, isn't the gabby sort of man-about-town.

Asked about an old friend, the late Gen. Henry "Hap" Arnold, head of the Army Air Forces in World War II, he recalls him thus: "Knew him a long time. We used to fly together when he was a young lieutenant. "Crashed together once out near Coffeyville, Kansas. Pieces just started flying off the plane. Nobody was hurt, though."

Thomas isn't the kind of veteran journalist, either, who is known for strong public opinions, particularly those involving political jousts.

FOR EXAMPLE: The Teapot Dome scandal had Congress and the White House in an uproar in 1924. So how'd the mood of the country and its newspapers then compare with the uproar now over the White House tapes and by the House Judiciary Committee?

"That's pretty hard to compare because it's so far in the past that it's difficult to remember," he replied. "Very difficult."

Thomas, who lives on a 500-acre farm in Pawling, N.Y., 60 miles from Manhattan, was asked how he got into broadcasting. He said it was indirectly due to his celebrated travels with British Col. T. E. Lawrence — "Lawrence of Arabia" — during World War One.

HE'D WRITTEN a best-selling book about the man and was on a world tour, retelling the story, when he finally got fed up with speaking engagements and settled down to write other books.

But a man from the new Columbia Broadcasting Co., called and talked him into auditioning as a replacement for the company's newscaster, war correspondent Floyd Gibbons.

He was met by the company's owner, William S. Paley, now CBS board chairman, and led to a microphone in a studio here. Three musicians, whom broadcasters then always kept on just-in-case duty, also were there.

"MR. PALEY SAID, 'If you don't mind, we'd like to have you talk for about 15 minutes,'" Thomas recalled. "I said, 'What about?' And he said, 'It doesn't make any difference. Talk about anything.'"

He decided to hold forth on matters in Burma and India, among other places. Before starting, he said, he told the musicians: "I wonder if you'd play some soft music." I suggested some Oriental thing . . . The rest is broadcasting history.

Housing Recovery Dies In Cradle

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — While the future of housing may already seem as forlorn as an abandoned cellar excavation, still another dismal report has been issued by an important mortgage banker.

The nearly impossible situation faced by the industry is exemplified by a massive outflow of funds from mortgage lenders, by rising mortgage rates, and by materials costs that are rising at an unpredictably swift rate.

But a report by Advance Mortgage Corp. of Detroit suggests that still another factor adds to the pummeling being administered to housing. In spite of pay increases, that is, customers are literally unable to buy.

Advance Mortgage summarized the predicament this way: "Home-buying costs have been rising some 3½ times as fast as their customers' income." This indicates that, even if they can borrow, many customers won't do so.

"In the past 12 months," the report continues, "average new home prices have increased at least 18 per cent, and mortgage interest rates on a 90 per cent mortgage are now in the range of 9½ per cent where usury laws permit, compared to 5 per cent a year ago."

"That adds up to a 28 per cent increase in the monthly payments on a typical home mortgage — compared to an 8 per cent increase in average personal income."

And the sales prices might go higher still. Irving Rose, president of Advance Mortgage, a subsidiary of the First National City Corp., notes that while raw land costs have leveled off, total development costs have risen.

Cost increases are said to be especially severe in petroleum-based components such as asphalt paving and shingles and plastic pipe, and metal items such as sewer pipes and reinforcing bars.

"Builders are complaining they don't know what their houses will cost," Rose relates. "In Florida, some single-family home builders are completing entire tracts in advance of any attempt to sell so they will know their complete costs before setting a price. Others are pre-selling but with escalation clauses."

Advance Mortgage concludes: "The housing recovery projected for this year has died in its cradle."

The Jewel Crisis

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — "Dick, where is my matched set of emerald and diamond necklace and earrings? The last time I saw them they were here in the safe."

"Uh, uh, uh. I think they are over in the chief of protocol's office, Pat."

"What is my jewelry doing over there?"

"WELL, I DON'T know how to tell you this, but they're not your jewels." "You didn't sell them to pay our taxes did you?"

"No, Pat. You see those jewels were given to us by the Saudi Arabian royal family."

"But you told me that you gave me the necklace and earrings for my birthday."

"I did not. I distinctly remember saying that I could give them to you for your birthday — but it would be wrong."

"That isn't what you said at all, Dick, and you know it. You said that someone had offered to sell you the set for $52,000, and you could raise the money without any trouble at all. You said if it cost you more than $52,000, it would be wrong."

"I DON'T CARE what I said, Pat. I still knew the jewels were given to us by the Saudi Arabians."

"Why didn't you tell me that in the first place?"

"National security. I couldn't let anyone know the Saudis had given us jewels. If I did, the Swedish would start giving us jewels and there would be no end to it."

"You know, Dick, that's the only jewelry you ever gave me."

"Now, Pat, stop crying. I remember the days when you were happy to wear a cloth coat."

"It isn't the jewels, Dick — it's the fact that you misspoke."

HERE COMES Father McLaughlin, my Jesuit priest. Let's ask him. Father, do you think I did anything wrong in not telling Pat the jewels I gave her came from Saudi Arabia?"

"Bless you, Mr. President. You did the right thing. It would have been immoral to tell her the truth."

"The Good Book says 'He that deceiveth his wife is innocent of all deception, amen.'"

"You see, Pat, even the church supports me."

Touching Floor Exercise

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My 14-year-old son enrolled in a gymnastic group at school and came home to tell me some of the exercises the instructor has them do.

One is touching the floor without bending the knees. It seems to me that I read somewhere about this damaging leg tendons or some such thing. And that while we used to do it years ago, doctors now frown on it as causing more harm than good. Could you clear this up? — A.R.

I can't agree that bending the back with the legs straight is harmful. Of course most of us can't do it without practice and conditioning, because our muscles are too tight. But the hamstring (thigh) muscles can be loosened and conditioned if we keep at it.

To reassure you — look at the ballet dancers, skaters, stampe, self-addressed envelopes, and the acrobats and other athletes who bend that far with ease — because they've gotten into condition. I say don't object to your son's gymnastic program.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you give me some information on emphysema? I had a test that showed I had a mild case. Is there a cure? Can it get worse? How can I control it? — M.D.

Emphysema, a loss of the "balloon action" of the lungs, is not curable, but beginning with giving up smoking (if you smoke) there are various ways of controlling it, to prevent it from becoming markedly worse.

Since you have a "mild case" now, now is exactly the right time to start taking care of it. I suggest that for fuller details you send 20 cents and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

To reassure you — look at the ballet dancers, skaters, stampe, self-addressed envelopes, and the acrobats and other athletes who booklet, "How to Control Emphysema."

Let's not give anyone the idea that allergy is a common cause of rapid heart beat because there are more predictable causes. But your letter is a vivid reminder of the curious and sometimes deceptive ways allergy can assert itself. You are so right in saying that each patient is different. It could well be that your observation will help someone else who has been similarly baffled.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I had my sinuses cleaned out about five years ago and I have never been bothered again. My friends said one should never have their sinuses cleaned out as it causes the tissues in your head to deteriorate. How much truth is there in this? — C.L.M.

None. Sounds to me as though something had deteriorated in your friends' heads.

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

I enjoy your articles very much, and I have one of your Bible dictionaries. However, I disagreed with you recently. You inferred Paul never married. But now, if Paul was a member of the Sanhedrin, and you had to be married to be in that group, there you are. Could it be that when Paul became a Christian, his wife and family disowned him? J.O.A.

The best evidence I suppose of Paul's single state is in the 7th chapter of 1 Corinthians. Here's the Living Bible paraphrase: "I'm not saying you must marry; but you certainly may if you wish. I wish everyone could get along without marrying just as I do."

Paul had been endowed with the gift of continence — as all need who consider celibacy. The rationale was perhaps that in the expected nearness of Christ's coming, marriage would be rendered needless.

Some great scholars like Clemens of Alexandria and Luther considered Paul a widower, while others like Tertullian and Jerome said Paul just never married. In any event, I don't think his relationship to the Sanhedrin would oblige his having a wife.

We cannot, in any case, make Paul to speak against marriage generally, for that was instituted of God. Later (Ephesians 5) Paul even selects marriage as an object lesson of Christ and the church. Paul knew marriage as a basis of all societies' institutions and would say "Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind."

Remember too, he is speaking especially to the Corinthians — wallowing as they were in moral laxity. Some may have thought of marriage as obligatory, or others as something evil, hence these remarks.

A Devotion For Today . . .

(Christ's congregations in Judea) heard it said, "Our former persecutor is preaching the good news of the faith which once he tried to destroy"; and they praised God for me. (Galatians 1:23-24)

PRAYER: Grant me, O Lord, so to love Thee as to enable me by Thy grace and power to love my neighbor as myself. Amen. (From the "Upper Room")

FISHY SOLUTION — Mrs. Delores Tisil of Elmhurst, Ill., checks chinook salmon in her home after par-boiling the fish in her dishwasher. Many homemakers are using this trick (suggested by well-known chef) to conserve energy while, at the same time, cooking their fish just right. Smaller fish are seasoned and enclosed tightly in plastic bags before being put through the dishwasher cycle.

Trouble Ahead

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Maybe this is none of my business but I'm worried about my 14-year-old granddaughter. She's a beautiful child and very mature for her age. That's the trouble, I'm afraid. She's growing up too fast for her own good. She turned 14 last Christmas and her boyfriend (he is 21) gave her a suede coat trimmed with real fur. He also gave her a portable TV and stereo set with maybe two dozen albums, plus a ten-pound box of candy.

I don't think a girl that age should be allowed to accept such expensive presents from a man, do you? The girls' father (my son) wasn't too pleased, but the mother thought it was just wonderful, and she even bragged to all her friends about it.

I can't talk to my daughter-in-law because she thinks I'm an old fogey, but I'd like to know what you think about this. I'm so afraid that the child is headed for trouble. What can I do?

GRAM
DEAR GRAM: Nothing, unfortunately, since her mother thinks it's "wonderful." Let's hope your granddaughter doesn't have any rough sledding before she finds out there isn't any Santa Claus.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a senior in high school. Lots of the kids at this school get drunk, smoke grass and have sex. They think it's cool.

I don't do any of these things, and they call me a square. It's not that I'm better than the others; I just don't want to participate in unlawful or immoral activities. Are there many other kids who don't follow the crowd and try to be cool?

LONER AT S.H.S.
DEAR LONER: Plenty. Those "cool" characters usually end up in hot water up to their necks. In your case, square is smart.

DEAR ABBY: I am having a difference of opinion with my mother. I just started dating and my mother says that when my date comes to pick me up I should be "upstairs, dressing," and keep him waiting about ten minutes.

I think that when my date rings the doorbell I should be the one to answer it. My mom says that if I do, it will make me look too eager. What do you say?

CANDI
DEAR CANDI: I say that at the sound of the bell, come out smiling. I once knew a girl who kept her date waiting half an hour every time he came to pick her up because she didn't want to appear too eager. She'd send her kid sister to answer the door and entertain her date while he waited. (P.S. He married the kid sister.)

Committee Chairmen Announced

Committee chairmen were named when Xi Mu Exemplar Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, ended its season with a meeting in the home of Mrs. Gerald Wooten, Chaparral Road, with Mrs. Wooten presiding.

Heading the committees will be Mrs. Harry McMullen, social; Mrs. Gene Adams, ways and means; Mrs. Ted Hicks, service; and Mrs. Lamar Green and Mrs. Larry Stockton, telephone. The yearbook will be compiled by the executive committee.

The Girl of the Year award was presented to Mrs. Green, chapter president, and Phi Pal names were assigned for the next season. It was reported that the chapter attained a three-star rating for 1973-74.

The program, on giving and receiving, was presented, with all members participating.

The announcement was made that Mrs. Eldon W. Marsh, recording secretary, will have her biography published in the 1974 edition of Personalities of the South. Dates for summer activities will be announced.

CLUB PLANS VEGAS PARTY

"Las Vegas Night" will be held at Big Spring Country Club Saturday evening, with "happy hour" to start at 7 p.m., according to an announcement by Auriel LaFond, social chairman. The event, for members and their guests, will feature Las Vegas-type games, and LaFond promises that Lady Luck will be at the club. Also, there will be a cold-cut buffet. Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Thomas are chairmen for the party.

Club Continues Paint Project

The St. Paul's Lutheran Couples Club has adopted a project of painting the church's folding chairs and is well along.

The club also decided to honor new members with a dinner or some other event at the end of each quarter. In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Leighrene Kohl, Harold Bentley, and Ms. Sandy Mahan. The first of these has been set for June 30.

At the club meeting (an ice cream social) last week, Pastor Carroll Kohl presented a devotion on the "Ascension of Our Lord," which is celebrated today. The next meeting will be a hot dog supper and swimming party hosted by Craig Fischer and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Mahan.

Webb Women Hold Ceremony Tuesday

In a ceremony Tuesday, Mrs. Eldon Marsh, Mrs. Darrell Fellows and Mrs. Mark Davis were installed as leaders of Webb Women of the Chapel for the coming year. Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Fellows will serve as Catholic co-president and Protestant co-president, respectively, and Mrs. Davis will be secretary. The installing officer was Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Jimmie Baggett.

Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Jimmy Townsend acted as hostesses of the salad luncheon preceding the installation. Mrs. Jim Elwell led a devotional. In a brief business meeting, the members heard committee reports on the VA Hospital monthly coffees, Church Women United projects, and the birthday party at Westside Community Center hosted last week by WOC.

Mrs. C. J. Lamb presented gifts of appreciation to outgoing officers Mrs. Dennis Howard, Mrs. Doug Williams and Mrs. Dennis Vander Ven. Mrs. Williams expressed appreciation to committee chairmen, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Elwell, Mrs. J. E. Hodges, Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Fellows, Mrs. Joe Shafer, and Mrs. Bill

Reynolds. The membership was thanked also for their work and co-operation in all the year's activities.

Welcomed as visitors were Mrs. J. K. Metzger, Mrs. W. E. Blackwell, Mrs. E. J. Johnfroe, Mrs. R. H. Lueneburg and Mrs. Townsend.

Farewell gifts were presented to Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Elwell, Mrs. Jim Carnell, Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. Eldon Scott and Mrs. Robert Craig.

Bill To Boost Educational Benefits For Vets Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Veterans Affairs Committee has approved unanimously a bill to boost educational benefits for veterans by 18 per cent and extend the maximum duration of schooling assistance from 36 to 45 months.

The measure, adopted Wednesday, also would provide a tuition payment of up to $720 a year directly to veterans so they can have more of a choice in deciding which schools to attend.

The 18 per cent cost-of-living increase is more than the 13 per cent voted by the House and the 8 per cent proposed by the Nixon administration, but less than the 25 per cent originally proposed in the Senate.

The Senate bill would raise monthly payments for a single veteran from the current $220 to $260, from $261 to $300 for a married veteran and from $298 to $352 for a veteran with two dependents. The rate for each additional child would go from $18 to $21.

Similar increases are provided for those covered under the war widows and orphans act.

Both the administration and the House Veterans Affairs Committee oppose the increase in schooling time and the provision for direct tuition payments to veterans.

They also oppose another provision in the Senate bill that would provide low-cost loans from the Veterans Administration up to $2,000 a year, with the VA administrator to set the interest rates.

In addition, the measure contains a provision to extend from eight years to 10 years after leaving service a veteran's eligibility for education benefits.

Toxic Industrial Wastes Study Money Initiated

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Water Quality Board has initiated a one-year scientific and engineering study to help it decide controversies over the disposal of toxic industrial wastes.

It awarded the University of Texas a $25,000 one-year contract to develop the data necessary for determining whether might leak and eventually contaminate the city's drinking water.

A public hearing on the Three Rivers permit will be held in Corpus Christi June 21.

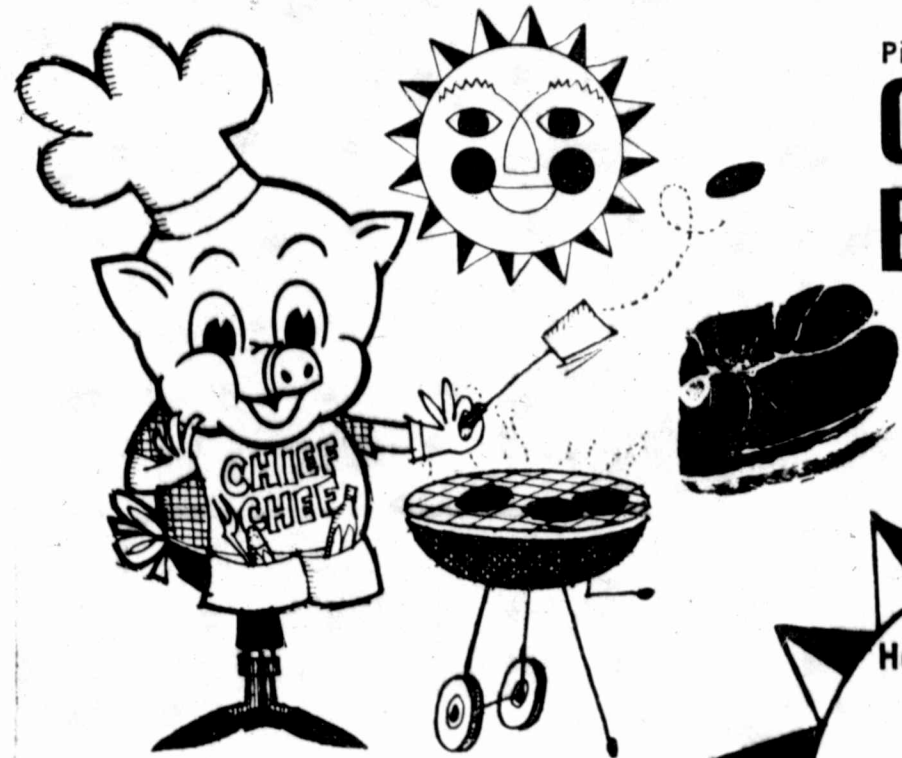

Other current controversies over burial of industrial wastes concern landfills proposed in the Cleburne and Groesbeck areas.

Bob Kemp, representing the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, suggested with a grin that another approach "might be a sociological study to find out where these things might be accepted."

TWO FORMER MEMBERS OF NIXON'S CIRCLE PULL TRIGGERS New Watergate Subpoenas Fired At White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — New subpoenas for Watergate evidence have been fired at the White House, this time by two former members of President Nixon's inner circle.

The subpoenas were signed by U.S. District Court Judge Gerhard Gesell at the request of lawyers for John D. Ehrlichman, formerly Nixon's chief domestic adviser, and Charles W. Colson, ex-presidential counselor.

TIMES UP

Gesell gave the White House until 2 p.m. Friday to respond and said he would grant no more time.

He added that the case might have to be dismissed if the government refuses to turn over evidence deemed necessary for the trial.

"If the court rules that material is relevant to the defense of anyone charged" in the case and are not produced, "the prosecution ends," Gesell said.

The subpoenas include a demand for top secret documents connected with the 1971 Pentagon papers case. They also ask for personal papers left at the White House by Colson and Ehrlichman.

The latest subpoenas were issued in connection with the plumbers case, scheduled for trial in Gesell's court Sept. 9.

Ehrlichman, Colson and three other defendants are charged in the break-in at the California offices of Dr. Lewis Fielding, psychiatrist of Daniel Ellsberg, who leaked the Pentagon papers on U.S. involvement in the Vietnam war.

SECRET FILES

Among the subpoenaed papers was a damage assessment executive privilege.

The White House has retained some of the papers of staffers who left during the Watergate controversy and referred to them as presidential papers.

Earlier Wednesday, Gesell had said he would not allow the government to withhold material from the trial on a claim of

The White House has retained some of the papers of staffers who left during the Watergate controversy and referred to them as presidential papers.

Ehrlichman and Colson had complained that preparation of their defense was hindered by the fact that access to their papers still at the White House was limited.

"I don't recognize any executive privilege," Gesell said in a hearing on pretrial motions in the case. If anything is relevant and material, it is going to be produced by the United States.

"There is not going to be executive privilege or national security," the judge said. "We must proceed with what is relevant in this case. I am not going to start having a secret trial of public matters."

COVER-UP

Nixon has under appeal an order that he turn over tapes subpoenaed by the Watergate special prosecutor's office for the Watergate cover-up trial scheduled to start in another court here Sept. 9.

The subpoena signed at Ehrlichman's request Wednesday asks for his personal papers from January 1971 through April 30, 1973, the date he resigned from the White House staff in the heat of rising Watergate scandals.

A separate subpoena requested by Colson asks for his handwritten notes covering conversations he had with Nixon June 14, 1971, and Sept. 15, 1971. The Fielding break-in occurred Sept. 4, 1971.

In another development at Wednesday's hearings, defense lawyer Daniel Schultz read into the record a memo written by David Young, a top lieutenant in the plumbers unit, in which he said Ehrlichman told him: "You don't want to address the question of whether I discussed this (the break-in) with the President."

NATIONAL SECURITY

The plumbers unit was created at the White House to end leaks of defense secrets.

Schultz, attorney for Bernard L. Barker and Eugenio A. Martinez, quoted the memo in arguing his right to plead his clients acted legally because the break-in was ordered by Nixon in the name of national security. Nixon has denied any prior knowledge of the break-in.

Gesell also denied motions by four of the defendants to have their trial separated from the others. The fifth defendant is G. Gordon Liddy, former White House and Nixon campaign official.

Pulp Strikes Curtailing Deliveries

By The Associated Press

Strikes against three major newsprint producers are curtailing deliveries to newspapers in the western United States.

The walkouts have closed down the Fort Alberni, B.C., plant of MacMillan Bloedel in Canada, Boise Cascade's newsprint plant at Stilaocom, Wash., and Garden City Paper's recycling plant at Pomona, Calif.

The Fort Alberni plant, shut down May 6, produces 400,000 tons of newsprint a year, mostly marketed in the western United States.

The Stilaocom plant, closed last Saturday, produces 130,000 tons, and the plant in the Pomona markets more than 100,000 tons of newsprint recycled from old newspapers.

At the Vancouver, B.C., headquarters of MacMillan Bloedel, industrial relations director Clare Alcott said the strike by United Paperworkers International Union violated a contract with a year yet to run.

He said the plant's 1,200 workers are demanding a wage increase to compensate for cost of living increases even though the contract contains no cost of living escalator clause or a wage reopening.

Alcott said the industry's Pulp and Paper Industrial Relations Committee would meet today in Vancouver with a joint union committee on the issue. The union side will include the United Paperworkers and the Woodworkers of Canada.

In Boise, Idaho, Boise Cascade's corporate spokesman Bob Hayes said bargaining was at a stalemate in negotiations covering five of the firm's mills in Oregon and Washington.

In Pomona, Garden City Paper's corporate spokesman John Loza said federal mediator Samuel Franklin of Los Angeles was seeking to renew negotiations.

He said the International Paperworkers Union struck there on May 11 after rejecting a company contract offer.

'Coal Stoker' Might Replace Your Gas Guzzler

SEATTLE (AP) — You could drive a "coal stoker" instead of a gas guzzler under a program the federal government is considering.

A government energy expert said Tuesday that the coal-produced fuel methanol would cost about 12 cents a gallon, but because it takes about twice as much methanol to produce the same energy as gasoline, its effective price is doubled. But it still remains about half the price paid for gasoline.

Dr. Alexander Mills, chief of the Division of Coal Energy Research for the U.S. Bureau of Mines, said in a speech the government was considering underwriting two-thirds of the cost of a methanol production pilot plant, half of a demonstration production plant and one-third of the automobile engine testing.

Mills said 70,000 barrels of methanol a day are being produced at present in the United States. That's about one per cent of the production of gasoline.

More Women To Join Police

HOUSTON (AP) — Police Chief Carol M. Lynn says he plans to employ an additional 100 women officers in a year or two.

Although many of them will be assigned to desk jobs at headquarters and substations, Lynn said recently he hopes to assign women in increased numbers to other divisions, where, at present, they constitute small minorities.

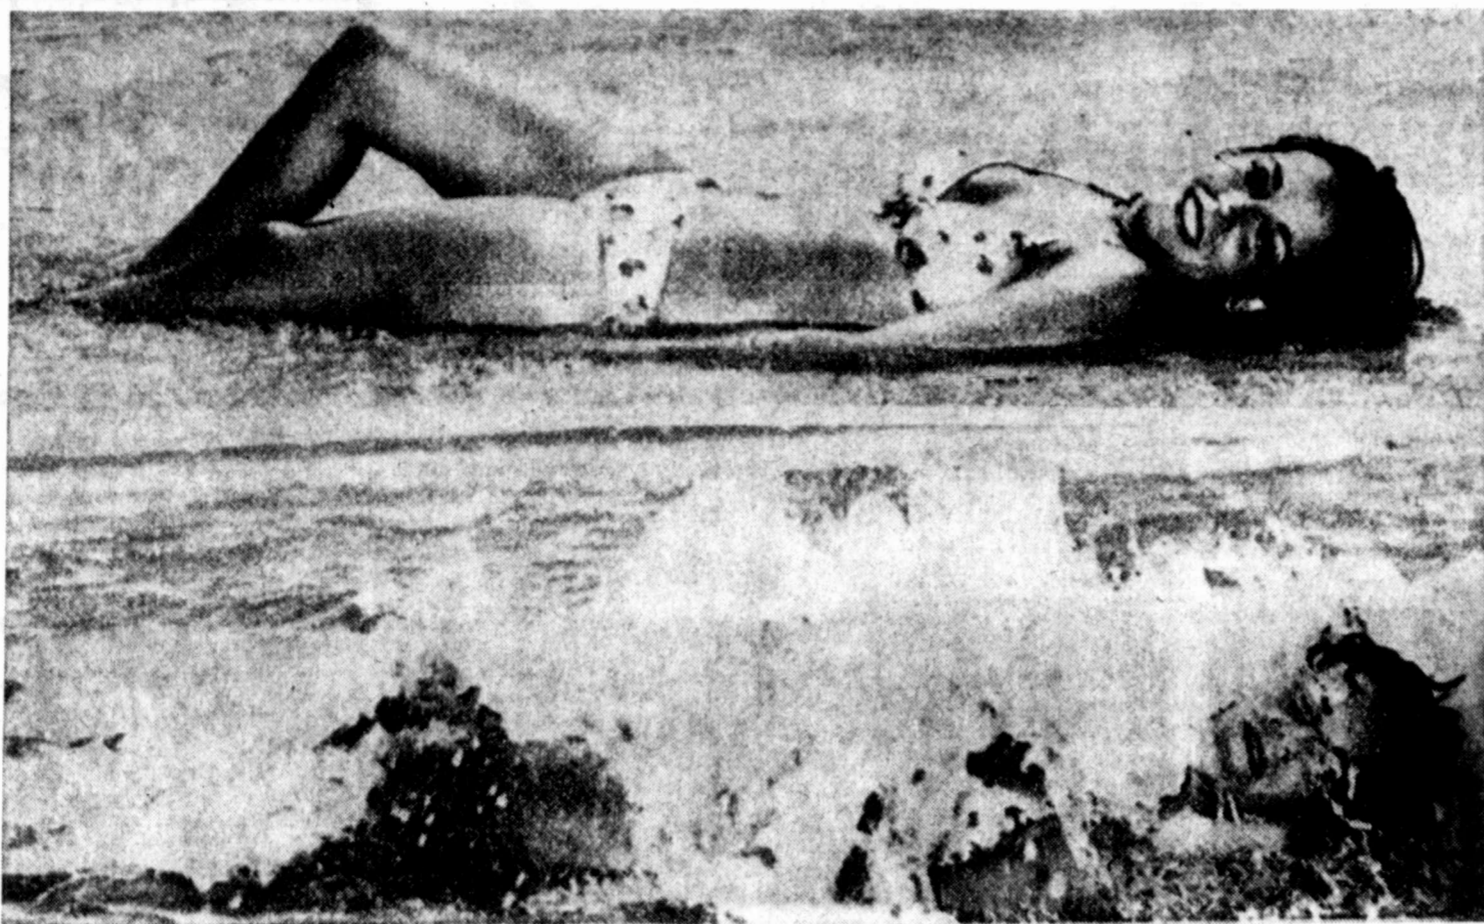

Presently there are 59 women on the force with the vast majority assigned to the jail division as matrons or to the juvenile division.

Ate 236 Ants, Victory Is Sour

SEATTLE (AP) — Gary Moss would like to know if there are any side effects associated with eating ants.

He ate 236 of the little bugs over the weekend at the "World's Second Freestyle Ant Eating Contest," a competition held at a camping and back-country fair.

"I wasn't tasting anything until it was all over," the champ said. "Then I swallowed for a final time and wham. It was like I'd been drinking vinegar for three minutes."

Border Patrol To Observe Its Fiftieth Anniversary

Oscar D. Stevens, chief Border Patrol agent, has announced that they Marfa Sector Headquarters, located at Fort D. A. Russell in Marfa, Texas, will host an open house on Sunday 2.5 p.m. in celebration of the Patrol's 50th Anniversary.

William H. Hickey, the Marfa Station supervisory agent, will have on display equipment the Patrol uses daily to perform its tasks including demonstrations of the portable electronic intrusion devices. Senior Border Patrol Pilot Robert Walker will also display one of the patrol's light observation aircrafts and be available to explain the role of the air corps.

REPLACE 'MOUNTIES' In 1924, when Congress provided for the establishment of the Border Patrol, the Marfa Sector came into being, and replaced the two "mounted guards" stationed in Presidio.

Marfa Sector Headquarters is located in available buildings of Fort D. A. Russell in Marfa, Texas, until 1935 when it was forced to relinquish its space to the U.S. Army. The Marfa Sector then became the Alpine Sector for 14 years, not returning to Fort Russell until 1949.

In 1924, the sector had stations in Alpine, Marathon, Sanderson, and Presidio. In the late 1920's Valentine and Pecos stations were added. By 1933, three additional stations, Big Spring, Ft. Stockton and Lubbock, were added. However, these three stations plus the stations in Valentine and Marathon were closed, but with the exception of Valentine and Marathon — were later reopened and subsequently stations in Amarillo and Van Horn were added. The Marfa Border Patrol Sector is responsible for one of the largest geographical areas in the United States, covering 77 West Texas counties and 18 counties in western Oklahoma.

EXCEEDS ESTIMATES After a brief re-opening in the early 1950's, Big Spring was reactivated on Feb. 11, 1969. Staff officers — when recommending the re-opening of the station — predicted four officers would apprehend one thousand aliens a year. However, three officers during the first four and one-half months located and arrested 935 deportable aliens, and have been averaging over 3,000 arrests a year in their 10-county area of jurisdiction.

The Big Spring office is located on the second floor of the new Federal Office building. Kermit D. McKnight is the senior patrol agent in charge, and is assisted by agents William C. Wilson, Charles E. Hensley, and Franklin E. Bell.

Repair Course Has Demand

A unique course, which in its first round offered four jobs for every participant, is to be given again at Howard College. It is the two-week course in service station equipment repair and is scheduled to begin June 17, said Theron Lee, director of continuing education at the college.

There is a critical shortage of people who are knowledgeable in this type of service, said Lee. Howard College is the only college in the nation currently offering this type of training he explained.

Cost for the summer course is $100. Those interested should contact the office of Continuing Education at the college by calling 267-6311, ext. 77 or 78.

Watergate Might Diminish GOP's Strength In 'Dixie'

By THOMAS C. COTHRAN
Associated Press Writer

Some Southern Republicans say Watergate and related developments may diminish the GOP's growing strength in the South.

The area has shown a strong trend toward the Republican brand of conservatism in recent years, and President Nixon has received warm welcomes in Southern cities.

CHANGING TIME

But the possibility that Watergate may have changed all that has some Republicans worried.

"We would have advanced further; we may have moved along more easily if we didn't have Watergate," said Jerry Thomas, Democrat turned Republican who is expected to run for governor of Florida this year.

U.S. Rep. David Treen, R-La., said he thought Watergate "will have the effect of temporarily retarding the growth of the party in Louisiana. But I don't think it will weaken it."

"If it had not been for Watergate, we would have had some very prestigious switchovers in Florida," added state chairman L.E. "Tommy" Thomas (unrelated to Jerry Thomas). But he added, "I think it'll pick back up. Most people in Florida are conservatives."

'THRILLING'

Few will say so for the record, but several Republican leaders admit they would feel more comfortable entering the 1974 general elections with Vice President Gerald Ford in the White House rather than President Nixon.

One leading North Carolina Republican, requesting anonymity, even said it would be "thrilling" if Nixon stepped down and Ford became president.

Another North Carolina party spokesman, state chairman Thomas S. Bennett, said it "is difficult to say whether Ford would help us... In light of the transcripts, I'd say the President has many more minutes than Ford has, but I'm not in a position to speculate on who I'd rather see as President."

A prominent Georgia Republican, who also asked not to be identified, indicated he was embarrassed by the transcripts.

RED-FACED

"I was chagrined, red-faced about the whole situation," he said. "I was shocked by the language. The shame of the whole thing is that if he had laid all the cards on the table to begin with, people would have accepted it."

"I'd say yes," the Georgia Republican continued. "The (Ford) is more acceptable politically than President Nixon."

But others disagreed.

"We have to look to who's there," said Jerry Thomas. "Richard Nixon was elected overwhelmingly by the people of Florida and he's carrying out what he considers to be a mandate the best way he can. If the election were held today between Nixon and McGovern, Richard Nixon would win again."

WILLING TO DUMP

Clarke Reed, chairman of the Mississippi Republican party, said he is "more comfortable with Nixon. Nixon is a more known quantity."

Bob Shaw, Georgia GOP chairman, says the Watergate image "may be found in all camps. And many incumbents may bear that image and the public may be willing to dump them this year in both parties."

His Democratic counterpart, Charles Kirbo, agrees. He says Watergate "has created a climate in which the people want a change but they want a change for the best."

In this respect, Watergate seems to run against all incumbents.

But Republican congressmen are in especially difficult positions. While Democrats can follow party lines when the time comes to vote on impeachment, Republicans are faced with a problem.

IMPEACHMENT

If they vote for impeachment they turn off loyal Republicans who still support Nixon. If they vote against impeachment, many independents and Democrats who vote split tickets will go the other way.

"I'll lose 25 per cent of the vote whichever way I go on impeachment," says Rep. James G. Martin of North Carolina's 9th congressional district.

"I don't expect to be able to campaign on the issues I'd like to: defense, inflation, energy," he adds. "But since Archibald Cox was fired, I've made speeches about those things and it doesn't matter. The press always asks a question on impeachment and that's what the stories are about."

IT'S OBVIOUS

But Treen said he feels that "where you have an incumbent, the issue is his record... I took office in January 1973, and, without implying anyone's guilt, it's obvious that I did not have any involvement with Watergate."

Republicans have steadily gained strength in recent years in the South, but in most states the political scene is still dominated by the Democrats.

One exception is Tennessee, where Republicans in the State legislature are mapping strategy aimed at taking over three more seats in the House to gain a majority.

But most Tennessee observers feel Watergate will not hamper the state party, partially because Sen. Howard Baker's role on the Senate Watergate Committee has served to remove the state GOP from being tied in with Nixon.

IN ALABAMA

In Alabama, observers say the GOP could be hurt by Gov. George Wallace's campaign against his Republican opponent, former state Sen. Elvin McCary of Anniston, and perhaps generating a straight ticket Democratic vote.

Republicans in South Carolina may pick up one more seat in the U.S. House and could take the governor's office, which is being sought by retired Army Chief of Staff Gen. William C. Westmoreland, according to political theorists on the scene.

Republicans already hold two seats, and are expected to take a third when Marshal Parker runs for the 3rd District post being vacated by W.J. Bryan Dorn, a Democrat who is running against Westmoreland.

HOUSTON (AP) — Billy Reagan, newly hired general superintendent of the Houston Independent School District, has been given a three-year, three-month contract with a $48,500 annual salary.

The school board voted unanimously on the contract recently.

His salary is $1,000 a year more than his predecessor, Dr. George G. Garver, who was fired in February.

NOON TIME TREAT — "Pirate Queen" Shermaine Lucas, left, and "Miss Buccaneer Days" Beth Pharris, right, pass out boiled shrimp to persons walking along a street in Dallas at noon time Wednesday. The girls, from Corpus Christi, were in Dallas to help promote the Gulf Coast city as a vacation spot this summer.

Charges Of Cattle Theft Returned Against Man

COLORADO CITY — A grand jury returned 15 indictments Wednesday, including two against Manuel del Real, 52 of Colorado City, for theft of cattle. Del Real is charged with the theft of five head of cattle from Harold Hester and 12 from Waddell Strain. Other indictments included three persons charged with

$300,000 Art Theft

DALLAS (AP) — Belgian-born owner Raymond Verveckken figured Wednesday that it took thieves no more than 15 minutes to haul away sculpture and paintings worth $300,000 from his Gallery d'Arts. City detectives said there were no signs of forced entry and this supported Verveckken's belief that the burglars were hiding in a display room when he closed the place Monday evening. "They knew exactly what they wanted," said the owner. He had moved the gallery to a new location 10 days earlier and was waiting for a burglar alarm to be installed. Verveckken said a bronze statuette by Italian sculptor Alberto Giacometti probably was the costliest item he lost.

Refuses To Hike Military Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's effort to boost military aid to South Vietnam has lost what may be its last hope in Congress. The House refused Wednesday either to raise or lower present Vietnam aid in a $22.6-billion weapons authorization bill it passed 358 to 37 and sent to the Senate. A similar bill awaiting Senate action would cut the present $1.126 billion Vietnam aid to $900 million.

REJECTION
At the same time, House-Senate conferees reported out a separate $769 million supplemental military bill recommending rejection of the Pentagon's request to increase Vietnam aid by $266 million through a bookkeeping transfer. The House also rejected amendments to phase out 100,000 U.S. troops overseas and to cut the $22.6 billion weapons bill by $733 million across the board.

An amendment by Rep. Robert L. Leggett, D-Calif., to cut the Vietnam aid to $1 billion was rejected 211 to 190. But Chairman F. Edward Hebert, D-La., abandoned his House Armed Services Committee's proposal to boost the aid to $1.4 billion because of heavy House opposition and moved instead to keep the aid at the present level.

VOICE VOTE
Hebert's motion was approved by voice vote. The amendment to phase out 100,000 of the 435,000 U.S. ground troops overseas in 18 months was proposed by House Democratic leader Thomas P. O'Neill Jr. and rejected 240 to 163 after a debate that split Democratic leaders.

Opponents, including Speaker Carl Albert, said the House would not vote to cut 100,000 troops overseas without knowing where they would be withdrawn or what the consequences might be.

Blast Damages Paris Landmark

PARIS (AP) — An explosion early today heavily damaged a dome of the Sacre Coeur basilica, one of the landmarks of Paris. The French press agency said callers claimed to have set off the blast to protest the election of Valery Giscard d'Estaing as president. The agency said the callers also said the blast was to mark the anniversary of the Paris Commune 103 years ago, when citizens joined in a bloody uprising against the regime.

Lupe Gavan Jr., 23, Lorraine, was indicted for possession of more than four ounces of marijuana. A joint indictment of intent to commit theft was returned against William and Tommy Emerson and Jack Samuels, now being held in Oklahoma a penitentiary on another offense. James Bender, 37, Colorado City, was charged with assaulting James Hall with a pocket knife.
