

Cops Raid Hollywood Home In Hunt For 'Tania' Hearst

ARRESTED — Joel Polinsky and Lisa Ingalls, shown at a rehearsal last week, were arrested Thursday night as they performed in "Sweet Eros" at a Cambridge, Mass., theater. Massachusetts State Police made the arrests on charges of open and gross lewdness. The pair, which performs a scene in the nude, was clothed when arrested.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police searching for Patricia Hearst conducted a pre-dawn raid on a Hollywood home, startling two women who were said to match descriptions of Miss Hearst and Symbionese Liberation Army fugitive Emily Harris.

LEVEL SHOTGUN
Two sleepy women in pajamas emerged as a force of 50 to 60 police leveled shotguns and tear gas rifles at the house, but police Sgt. Gene Ingram said the women had no connection with the terrorist SLA.

He said police had acted on an anonymous tip, and that one of the women matched a rough description of Mrs. Harris, who is being sought along with her husband, William, and the newspaper heiress.

Meanwhile in San Francisco, the parents of Miss Hearst are said to be outraged by the comments of law officers who in the past week have said the young heiress is an armed and dangerous fugitive.

Cecil Poole, a former U.S. attorney who met with Randolph and Catherine Hearst on Thursday, said the parents of Patricia, 20, were furious about "the excessive statements of law enforcement personnel, particularly statements by the Los Angeles district attorney."

Patricia. "Something happened to her and now they are calling her a fugitive on the run."

Meanwhile, police and FBI agents continued without success their massive search for Miss Hearst and two Symbionese Liberation Army companions. Pleas for her to surrender increased.

YOUNG GIRL
"She was a young girl who was kidnaped," said Poole of

Francisco Examiner. "If you just let yourself be killed it is going to be a waste; your whole thing is going to be a waste," said a taped plea issued by Patricia's two younger sisters, Anne, 18, and Vicki, 17.

Reterring to last Friday's fiery shootout in Los Angeles in which six SLA members died, Vicki said: "I just don't want that to happen to you." But she added: "I'm telling you right now the police and the FBI aren't all that sympathetic anymore. And they've taken a lot of trash from these guys (the SLA). And I just don't think they are going to sit around and take much more of it."

The search for Miss Hearst and William and Emily Harris is centered in southern California. But the rapid series of raids on suspected SLA hideouts which characterized last weekend's developments have subsided, indicating authorities may have lost the immediate trail of the three fugitives, all of whom face possible life in prison.

Felony charges including assault, robbery and kidnaping were filed Wednesday against Miss Hearst and the Harrises.

FORMER AD Arranged Sex Dates For Girl

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — After a long pause, Travis Raven responded, "Yes," when asked if he arranged for a 16-year-old Houston runaway "to sell her body."

The former Austin schools athletic director gave that answer under cross-examination Thursday in a jammed courtroom.

Raven and co-defendant Audrey McDonald are being tried on charges of compelling prostitution by a minor.

Raven, 51, took the witness stand in his own defense earlier in the day as the first defense witness.

Asked why he chose to associate with Mary Theresa Lindley, the girl whom the charge involved, Raven said, "It was a matter of helping a person in distress. Then it became a problem. It became a matter of habitual whining and habitual crying about her lack of money."

"So then," asked Dist. Atty. R. O. Smith, "you started getting her dates so she could sell her body?"

Raven hesitated. Then he said, "yes," in an even voice.

He had testified under direct examination in the forenoon that he never arranged sexual liaisons between the teen-ager and his friends.

Bombing Planes Are On Benign Mission

GARDEN CITY — Planes from the Mission federal project for dropping sterile flies to combat screwworms flew in an area west of Garden City Thursday.

County Agent Oliver Werst reported that three cases were confirmed on the Jack Cook ranch 12 miles west of Garden City.

"Any rancher who suspects a case should come to the county agent's office and obtain a sample bottle," Werst stated and added, "We did get immediate help this time."

Early Holiday Is OK With Most Now

Most of the general public has finally begun to accept the last Monday in May, designated as one of five government three-day holidays, as the official Memorial Day.

For the past three years, the last Monday in May has been set aside as Memorial Day rather than May 30 as it was observed for many years.

In Big Spring Monday, the Post Office, all federal offices, the banks, the state offices, the county courthouse and City Hall will be closed. Most oilfield companies, and industrial offices will be closed. It is an official chamber holiday with about half the local businesses complying.

Many individually owned stores and some chain stores will be closed but other chain stores will remain open.

The City Swimming pool in Comanche Trails Park, which opens for the first day Saturday, will be open on the holiday.

'Duke' Dies In Hospital Of Pneumonia

NEW YORK (AP) — Jazz bandleader and composer Duke Ellington died early today in Columbia Presbyterian Hospital after undergoing treatment for pneumonia. He was 75.

Ellington, who had been hospitalized for several months for a respiratory infection that developed into pneumonia, died at 3:10 a.m., according to a hospital spokesman.

Ellington had been unable to attend celebrations for his 75th birthday in New York last month. The celebration brought together 35 jazz groups and soloists in a tribute to the jazz master.

In February, Ellington had returned to Washington, where he grew up, and performed for several hundred inner city school children and Julie Nixon Eisenhower.

The President's daughter hailed Ellington as "one of my heroes" and brought a letter from her father addressed to "his excellency the Duke of Ellington." The letter from President Nixon proclaimed that "there'll never be another Born Edward Kennedy Ellington, the 'Duke' was known the world over and was the first jazz musician to receive the French Legion of Honor, an award he was presented in July of 1973."

Asked how many countries had given him awards, he replied: "I never count awards. I only enjoy. I don't even count the bars when I write, do I? Oh, I guess I have to."

Ellington, a tall, urbane, baggy-eyed piano player, wrote more than 1,000 compositions. Among them are some that almost everybody can hum—"In My Solitude," "I Let A Song Go Out of My Heart," "Don't Get Around Much Any More," and dozens more.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — While one House committee says federal expenditures reached $5.9 billion on former president Lyndon B. Johnson's property, another has promised close scrutiny for new presidential expenditures. The House Government Operations Committee said most of the funds for the Johnson properties were spent on security facilities. Meanwhile, members of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee told Roy L. Ash, chief of the Office of Management and Budget, that a bill providing for new presidential expenses faces rough going on the House floor.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — The superintendent of the U.S. Naval Academy, faced with what could be the school's greatest cheating scandal, blames the problem on what he calls antiestablishment youth. Vice Adm. William P. Mack appeared at a news conference Thursday after confirming reports of possible cheating by as many as 150 midshipmen on a final exam in a sophomore course on celestial navigation. Mack said he and academy officials have not concluded that cheating occurred on Tuesday's exam taken by about 900 of the 4,000 midshipmen at the academy.

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Resigned Premier Sanya Thammasak said today he will return to head Thailand's government because of "confidence given to me" by all sectors of the country. The 67-year-old lawyer and former university rector made the decision after he received overwhelming support from the National Assembly and almost all segments of the country's leadership and public.

Food Store Chain Prints Own Pennies To Offset Shortage

HOUSTON (AP) — A Houston grocery store chain is battling the penny shortage by printing its own.

The Eagle Grocery Stores here are using paper pennies, printed at the company expense and redeemable at all Eagle stores, to overcome a chronic shortage of the copper coins.

LITTLE CHOICE
"This was about the last thing that we wanted to do," says store manager Dick Gardiner, "but we really had little choice. We didn't want to cheat our customers, but we still had to make change."

Customers receive green slips of paper, printed with the company name, instead of pennies. Five of the paper slips, which are slightly larger than a business card, are worth a nickel.

"What else could we do," asks Gardiner. "We couldn't get pennies. And if we went through the store and rounded off all our prices the sales tax would still defeat us. We just can't do without pennies."

Gardiner said customers are cooperating and view the script as symptomatic of "just one more shortage to put up with."

Other businesses are rounding off prices to meet the shortage. As a result, the customer sometimes gets short changed.

"My lunch today cost me two cents more because they didn't have any pennies," noted a secretary who ate at a hamburger chain.

The federal reserve bank here says it is dumping as many pennies as ever into the market, but they just seem to disappear.

"We're getting as many pennies from the Denver mint as we ever did," says Vernon Barbee, the federal reserve operations officer here. "The main problem is the flow back from the banks."

Last year, he said, during a typical month, the federal offices here would receive $11,000 worth of pennies returned from the local banks for redistribution. Now, the fed gets only about $2,000 worth returned each month.

The difference, some 900,000 pennies, are apparently being held by people collecting the one-cent coins, he said.

As a result, Barbee said the fed is forced to cutback by about 20 per cent the amount of pennies supplied to local banks.

Commercial banks are having the same problem, says Larry Kamsteiner of the Texas Commerce Bank.

"Our only source of pennies now is the fed," said Kamsteiner. "Once we'd get $500 to $1,500 pennies back (from circulation) each week. Now we're not getting any back."

'PITFALLS OF PRIDE'

Ex-Nixon Aide Wages Campaign For Souls

OWOSSO, Mich. (AP) — Charles W. Colson is waging a new campaign, not for politicians but for souls. The former White House special counsel has turned evangelist.

Colson, who has been indicted for conspiracy in the Watergate cover-up and in the burglary of the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist, presided over a prayer breakfast Thursday before some 300 civic and business leaders in this central Michigan town.

PRIDE, EGO
He warned the overflow crowd at a local YMCA of the "pitfalls of pride" and said he'd abandoned his own "damnable pride and ego" to dedicate his life to Jesus Christ.

Of his alleged Watergate involvement, Colson said, "I know I am innocent of all charges."

"I don't feel sorry for myself. It's part of a Christian life to be tried. And down through the years, men who have professed their faith in Christ have found that this is a very difficult road we are asked to follow . . ."

Colson, 42, who was widely quoted during the 1972 presidential campaign as saying he would "walk over my own grandmother" to re-elect Richard Nixon, said he never imagined becoming involved in the "biggest political cross-fire in American history."

In edited transcripts of White House tape recorded conversations that Nixon released April 30, the President expressed concern over how deeply involved Colson might be in Watergate.

In an April 14, 1973, discussion between Nixon and two White House aides of the Watergate break-in, Nixon said, "Colson is closer to this crew of robbers than anybody else."

In another conversation the next day, Nixon said Colson could be tied in "up to his navel" in the cover-up.

Colson left the White House last year to return to private law practice.

He told the prayer breakfast: "Achieving is not sinfully wrong, but achieving only to gratify one's ego is to worship a false god." He added, "I was looking for the next highest mountain I might be able to climb so I could impress myself, my friends and my family with how good I really was."

Colson agreed to appear at Thursday's function after Sen. Harold Hughes, D-Iowa, suggested to an Owosso friend that the former Nixon aide be invited. Hughes himself has announced his devotion to religious work, saying he will not run again for the Senate.

Election Due On Liquor

LAMESA — Some 921 signatures were needed to call a wet-dry election in Lamesa. A petition bearing the signatures of 1,229 residents seeking the election to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages within the city limits was filed in the county clerk's office this week.

According to County Clerk Louie C. White, the petition forms appear to be filled out as required by law with most of the signatures being complete with the individuals full address and voter registration number. A spot check will be made with the petition to be passed on to the Dawson County Commissioners.

The commissioners have put it on their agenda for Monday to make a decision on calling the election.

The petition came in a day before the deadline. It was the third to be circulated in Lamesa, the first falling for insufficient number of signatures. The second petition had the wrong boundary lines and was turned back in to the county.

Errors in counting are not infrequent, though, Dean said.

'I FEEL BEAUTIFUL' The Weight's Over

NOTTINGHAM, England (AP) — "I feel beautiful. I'll never slip back to being fat," Shirley Turner said Thursday as she revealed that her jaws had been uncemented, ending a six-month slimming ordeal.

Doctors and dentists had installed a silver clamp to hold her teeth together last November to stop her insatiable nibbling and it was removed Wednesday, the 36-year-old housewife said.

'BIKINI TARGET'

Mrs. Turner, mother of two teen-age daughters, lost 101 pounds through the liquid diet she was forced to follow, dropping from 247 pounds to 146.

She said she still hopes to reach her "bikini target" of 135 pounds by the time she and her family go on vacation at the end of June.

"I know it," she said. "I'll never eat bread and potatoes again in my life."

"I would smile if I could, but it hurts too much," she said. "You have no idea how tender my jaws feel after six months being jammed together."

Doctors at Nottingham General hospital decided to remove the clamp after Mrs. Turner complained of agonizing pain in her locked jaws last week.

RED HOT PAIN

"The pain was red hot, my face felt swollen, I couldn't sleep," she said. "It appears that the silver plate holding my jaws together had slipped and was setting up an infection."

The doctor who examined her at the hospital said, "I think you've had enough."

An upper and bottom silver plate had been cemented to her own teeth and locked together by a clamp. The plates had been taken out for cleaning once or twice during the six months but she was not finally freed of the contraption until Wednesday.

Its removal took 45 minutes and she said "It was murder." What did her husband, himself a hefty 210-pounder, say when his wife told him her jaws were free.

Mrs. Turner forced a tiny smile and replied, "He said it was about time."

Famed Humorist Speaker At May 31 Banquet Here

The seventh annual awards dinner of Big Spring State Hospital will be held in the auditorium of the Allred Building at 7:00, next Friday.

Bob Murphy, a practicing attorney from Nacogdoches, will be the guest speaker. He is a well-known speaker who delightfully weaves some serious and worthwhile message into his humorous dialogue.

The award presentations include:

Five Commendation awards, Three Friends of the Hospital awards.

One Psychiatric Aide award, 65 Service awards. Two Memorials will also be presented.

Of that group, 34 have five years' service, 15 have contributed 10 years, 14 have worked 15 years while two have 20 years service.

This year's dinner is dedicated to the Medical Records Department of Big Spring State Hospital.

The theme is "People Helping People," motto of the hospital.

Murphy has often said that he speaks perfect East Texas...and fair English! He enjoys life on a small ranch in the Piney Woods region of East Texas where he was born and reared.

When asked for biographical information, Murphy usually replies that his background will stand anything but talking about. Or, he might add, "The less you use the handle, the longer the hoe will last!"

Actually, Murphy has had a varied and colorful background. A practicing lawyer by profession, he has looked at life and observed the American scene first as a Western Union messenger boy, then as a ranch hand, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Texas House of Representatives, Fire Chief, a war-time Merchant Marine officer, County Attorney, District Attorney and member of the Texas bar.

As Bob states it, "There ain't much to see living in a small town, but what you hear makes up for it."

Like the country woman who said she didn't enjoy spreading gossip, but didn't know what else to do with it, Bob has passed along his quiet humor, wit, and wisdom as a public speaker.

Murphy is in great demand as an after-dinner speaker, and his philosophy, humor and witty observations have been enjoyed by audiences throughout the United States.

Groups Are Seeking Help With Rodeo's Barbecue

The Howard County Sheriff's Posse and Howard County Youth Horsemen have mailed letters to area businessmen and individuals asking for help with the barbecue for visiting riding clubs and sheriff's posses at the Cowboy Reunion.

Because of inflation, feeding the visitors will cost more than ever, Mrs. Ruby Allred of the Sheriff's Posse said.

These colorful groups, often called "ambassadors on horseback," will be coming from West Texas and New Mexico.

But the rodeo parade is becoming a better show each year, too, Mrs. Allred said. "Last year was the biggest one in history," Mrs. Allred said. "We had more riding groups, of course."

The Howard County Sheriff's Posse has received invitations to ride at the Fort Griffin Fandangle at Albany, West Texas Fair Parade at Abilene, Andrews, Stamford, Roby, Seminole and Seagraves.

Jobless Vet Gets Raise In Payments

JUPITER, Fla. (AP) — An unemployed veteran who wanted his injured leg amputated so he could support his family says he will try a leg brace now that his monthly disability payment has been raised from $77 to $548.

"They told me not to worry. They said they'd take care of me," Donald G. Dagenhart, 23, a Vietnam veteran, said after a meeting with VA officials in Miami. He also had a job offer.

Dagenhart's case drew national attention after the former sailor said VA doctors refused to amputate his left leg, injured in a Navy football game in 1971.

He said seven knee operations did not end the pain and infections had made it impossible for him to hold a job. He said a disability rating of 30 per cent provided just $77 a month.

He said he had wanted the leg removed "because then I'd get 100 per cent disability, and at least my family wouldn't suffer." Dagenhart said he and his wife, Ann, faced eviction from their apartment and had even sold their infant son's crib for $10.

Dr. Phillip Kinman of the Miami VA hospital said a hip-to-ankle brace would be ready for Dagenhart in about two weeks.

"We just don't believe the amputation he wants is the answer," Kinman said.

Pat Hogan, a spokesman for the VA in Atlanta, Ga., said the 100 per cent temporary disability rating Dagenhart was granted after his release from the Navy would be reinstated.

Oil Flights Announced

DALLAS (AP) — Continental Airlines and Western Airlines announced Thursday three daily interchange roundtrips between Alaska and "oil country" centers of Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado.

A spokesman for Continental said the new service will begin on June 1 with the flights originating in Houston, Dallas-Fort Worth and New Orleans.

"Our schedule will provide much needed passenger and cargo capacity to the huge Alaska pipeline project now just beginning to the get underway," the spokesman said. "The petroleum centers of the Southwest and the Gulf will be the source for most of the material, manpower and expertise required."

At Least Two Tornadoes Pop Out Ahead Of Cool Front

By The Associated Press
A laggard cool front, nearly halted across the Texas Panhandle, kicked up more unruly weather today.

At least two tornadoes popped out ahead of the frontal system Thursday evening and a mixture of showers and occasionally violent thunderseast of Hale Center, which is between Plainview and Lubbock. There was no indication that either caused any damage.

Most of the forenoon turbulence persisted north of a line from west of Vernon to southwest of Wichita Falls and along the Red River, also reaching northward to around Shamrock in the Panhandle.

Meat Packers Hoarding Beef

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumers saved 33 cents a week on food in April from March prices...

CHEATING: Reps. Frank Benholm, D-S.D., and Lester Wolff, D-N.Y., said Thursday there is a record stockpile of 470 million pounds of meat in cold storage...

"We have a situation here that is wreaking havoc not only upon the American consumer but also upon the farmer. They are being cheated by those packers who are hoarding meat in cold storage warehouses and not releasing it into the market place," Wolff said at a news conference.

"A decline in food prices will remain only wishful thinking if market manipulation of this sort is allowed to continue."

"The consumers can scarcely pay more and certainly producers cannot take less," Denholm said. "The abnormalities of present circumstances are intolerable. The secretary of agriculture must do more to represent the interests of both the consumers and producers." An Agriculture Department spokesman said he doubted if he would call it hoarding, but he said, "We think the pipeline ought to be cleared. There's meat in the pipeline. While meat prices have declined a bit, they are nowhere near the drop at the farm level."

Relief from high food prices promised by the administration translated into a 1.1 per cent decline in retail prices of farm-produced food from March to April, the USDA said Thursday. It said that meant a $20 drop in a year's supply of groceries for what was called a typical 3.2-member household, or a savings of 33 cents a week.

The decline is the first since October.

Drop In Prices Has Prexy Edgy

WACO — Texas Farm Bureau President J. T. (Red) Woodson has expressed strong concern over rapidly declining farm prices.

"Together with steadily increasing production costs, the disastrous drop in farm prices since mid-winter has caught farmers and ranchers in a deadly cost-price squeeze," the farm leader said.

Woodson said farm prices for eight major commodities are down an average of 27 per cent from 1974 highs. He pointed out that production costs are up 16 per cent in the past year. The farm leader said that Farm Bureau, which has 2.3 million members nationally including 152,000 in Texas, is pushing strongly to keep world markets open to U.S. farmers and to prohibit price-depressing government-held food reserves.

To Mull Gambling, Booze, Right To Work Provisions

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Unable to resolve their bitter disagreements over the judiciary article, Constitutional Convention delegates begin debate today on the even more controversial general provisions article. General provisions includes such red-flag subjects as environment, gambling, garnishment of wages for child support, alcohol, interest rates and right to work, which opponents say is misnamed because it does not give anybody a "right" to a job.

The convention had just defeated for the second day in a row the judiciary article. The article was defeated 81-74 Wednesday, but a "compromise" was worked out between several delegates Wednesday night, and the convention voted 98-37 to reconsider the article.

of the opening lead, it seemed unlikely that the 12th trick could be developed in diamonds, so it appeared that the club finesse was declarer's best chance. However, declarer realized that there was a possibility of developing a throw-in play. If he cashed all his winners and West came down to a diamond and two clubs, declarer could tuck him in with dummy's fourth diamond and force him to lead into declarer's ace-queen of clubs.

Accordingly, declarer started off by winning the king of diamonds and running four spades, on which he discarded a club while West parted with two clubs. Next came three rounds of hearts. West, who was aware that he was in danger of being thrown in, smoothly discarded a third club, leaving his king unprotected. A diamond was led to the queen, and when East sluffed a heart, declarer knew that West's four remaining cards were three diamonds and a club. Since East clung to his three clubs while West seemed to be parting with the suit with gay abandon, declarer decided that East was more likely to hold the king. South therefore entered dummy with the ace of diamonds and led a low club to the queen. West gratefully took his bare king and two diamond tricks, for a two trick set.

Kissinger Meets Israeli Leaders

JERUSALEM (AP) — With government and have a two-seat majority in the Israeli parliament. To be included with the ruling Labor alignment are the Independent Liberal party—a traditional government partner—

A senior U.S. official said Kissinger would return to the Syrian capital later today or Saturday, hoping to wrap up an agreement separating the two countries' hostile armies in the Golan Heights.

Either way, the official said, Kissinger will go home on Sunday—the 28th day of his marathon shuttle diplomacy mission. The official said Thursday night that Israel and Syria were "considerably closer" to agreement on thinning their forces than they had been 24 hours earlier.

He said the progress came after Kissinger offered suggestions privately to Israeli Premier Golda Meir and later to President Hafez Assad of Syria in 4 1/2 hours of talks.

Kissinger also reportedly made progress on determining the size of the United Nations force that will patrol the thinned-out regions and a buffer zone between the armies. A cease-fire line reportedly already is set.

"It is my judgment that we have made good progress in the negotiations," Kissinger said at a luncheon in Damascus. "Even if we should for some reason not complete it in this session, we will surely bring it to a successful conclusion in the near future."

There was speculation that other U.S. negotiators might remain behind to keep talks going.

At the luncheon, which Kissinger gave for Foreign Minister Abdel Halim Khaddam and other Syrian officials, Kissinger described a separation of Israeli and Syrian forces as "a first step" toward a "just and permanent peace" in the Middle East.

While Kissinger was in Damascus, Israeli politicians signed a coalition agreement guaranteeing that Premier-designate Yitzhak Rabin will head a new

Handguns Ban Urged

BOSTON (AP) — Boston Police Commissioner Robert McGee has proposed a nationwide prohibition on handguns for everyone except police officers. The handgun is the tool of the violent criminal. It is made to kill. It has no constructive purpose," McGee told a civic club meeting Thursday night. His proposal, which he said was supported by eight of the 32 big city police chiefs who met in San Francisco last week, would ban the manufacture, distribution, sale, ownership and possession of handguns for everyone except police. "I am not so presumptuous as to believe that my voice will make a difference," the commissioner said. "But I will not stand silent when, since 1962, six of the 10 Boston police officers who have been killed have been murdered with handguns, and 16 of the 17 who have been wounded have been shot with handguns."

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Automobile Insurance Service Office predicted Thursday that the Memorial Day holidays would be the slowest and safest for Texas automobile drivers. O. A. Edgeworth, Austin, chairman of the Service Office, said there were 31 fatal automobile accidents that took 43 lives during the Memorial Day weekend of 1973, which lasted from 8 p.m. Friday through Monday midnight. "Texas drivers have been able to drop the highway death rate 29 per cent this year over last year," Edgeworth said.

Three short courses are being offered at Webb AFB by Howard College. Speed Reading (reading improvement), Conversational Spanish and News Photography will all begin Monday, June 3. WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury Department soon will press for interest payments on unused tax money, reversing a 37-year practice that has benefited the nation's commercial banks. The banks won't be happy about it, but "they see the handwriting on the wall," one Treasury official said. Since 1917 the nation's banks have been able to lend money they collected for the government and to earn interest on it until the funds were called in by the Treasury Department, usually a period of a week to 10 days for larger banks.

FUNDS IN BANKS
The amounts of money held by the banks have been substantial. When employers withhold money from their employee checks, this money is deposited in government Tax and Loan Accounts maintained by virtually all commercial banks. The practice has been controversial, since it meant banks were earning interest from taxpayers' funds. Critics in Congress have contended that if anyone should earn interest off this money, it should be the federal government. But until recently, the Treasury Department argued that taxpayers' money should be left in the financial system until it was actually needed. If re-moved too soon, it could upset financial markets, the Treasury argued.

Another argument was that banks' interest received by banks was compensation for services performed for the government, such as collecting the money in which banks collect federal tax money for the government. The Treasury Department is putting the finishing touches on a study of the problem and likely will recommend that banks be paid directly by the government for the services they perform, sources said.

Murder Nets Prison Term

HOUSTON (AP) — Robert Lacy Campbell of Milton, Fla., convicted of murder in the 1973 beating death of a Texas man, has been assessed a 52 year prison term.

A state district court jury deliberated only 40 minutes on the punishment verdict after earlier finding the defendant guilty of the crime following about five hours of deliberations.

The defendant was convicted of the Oct. 18, 1973 fatal beating of Robert Ray Campbell, 50, a Houston used car salesman who was to have been a government witness in a mail fraud prosecution in Arkansas. The two men were not related.

The prosecution contended that Campbell was hired to kill the victim and killing him in a Houston motel he transported the body to Hattiesburg, Miss., where the body was buried in a shallow grave.

Prosecutor Bob Bennett praised the jury for its work in what he termed a highly complicated trial that lasted six days.

Robert Ray Campbell was one of three men named in a federal indictment accusing them of bankruptcy fraud stemming from the collapse of a mobile home factory in Arkansas.

The other two men named were Thomas Burke and Dwight Parks, both of Waco, Tex.

Robert Ray Campbell pleaded guilty Aug. 1, 1972 and was assessed a three-year probation sentence.

Burke suffered a heart attack and the indictment was dropped against him. Parks was found innocent of the charge in a trial last January at Fort Smith, Ark.

Government attorneys said Campbell would have been "an essential witness" in the Fort Smith case.

Amnesia Victim

PALACIOS, Tex. (AP) — Matagorda County Sheriff's office investigators have lodged an apparent amnesia victim at a motel as they waited results of a search for the man's identity in fingerprint records.

Deputies said the man approached officers in this southeast Texas town Monday saying he could remember only the names of Dallas, Denver and Portland.

A doctor's examination revealed no bruises or contusions normally associated with amnesia victims. He had $120 cash and no laundry marks on his clothing, investigators said.

Deputies described the man as 5-foot-4, 130 pounds and between 26 and 30 years old. He is clean-shaven with long sideburns, medium length blond hair and dressed in a light blue and white sports shirt, grey trousers, white buck shoes and blue socks.

The clothing apparently was of expensive make. A reporter who interviewed the man said he does not have a Texas accent, appears to be from an upper middle class background and apparently is educated.

Deputies said arrangements were being made for the man to move into the sleeper facility at the Matagorda County jail. A routine police check turned up nothing.

IT'S THE DAY EVERYONE 'COMES HOME' TO INDIANA

Sights, Smells, Sounds Of Indy 500 Return Sunday

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The low-slung machines whine like a mortar shell as they streak down the concrete straightaway at better than 190 miles an hour.

At times, they're just as deadly.

The place reeks with the smell of methanol—the highly inflammable alcohol-based fuel that can turn the intricate collection of bolts and nuts and paper-thin steel into a blur at 50 yards.

The old brickyard that is the Indianapolis Motor Speedway wears a garland of decals—huckstering everything from oil additives to shock absorbers.

This is the week that it seems likely everybody comes back home to Indiana.

The band strikes up the nostalgic strains of the song and every Hoosier throat develops a choking frog in it and handkerchiefs are hauled out to dry moistened eyes.

The Indianapolis 500 is here again—No. 58 in the dramatic series—and everybody still is arguing whether it's sport or legalized mayhem.

Nobody questions that it is a show.

Traditionally a Memorial Day feature, the race was changed this year to Sunday to afford another day's grace in case of postponement. The Sabbath is always a good day to say a prayer.

A lot of prayers will be said—by mothers and fathers, wives and children of the 33 men in machines who for a little more than three hours will be playing this most dangerous game—a hide-and-seek frolic with death.

Auto racing buffs are offended when this macabre cloak is thrown over the colorful and exciting spectacle, but none can realistically deny that death always is waiting in the wings.

Who can forget last year's numbing horror of rain and fire? Salt Walther's sleek racer hit a wall in front of the grandstand and exploded like a bombshell. Miraculously, the intrepid driver lived to race again with hands almost half burned away by the flames.

But Art Pollard died in the trials and Swede Savage lasted only a month after his car disintegrated on the fourth turn. A pit employee was struck and killed by an ambulance. And since then handsome Peter Revson lost his life on a South African track at a spot callously labeled "Barbecue Bend."

"We don't perform on the edge of death, we perform on the edge of life," Scotland's Jackie Stewart once said of his racing colleagues. "It's very positive. Life is richer and more beautiful after you have raced and lived to talk about it."

They are unquestionably the most captivating of the world's sportsmen—admired and heralded by spectators everywhere, chased by movie queens and society's swinging jet set.

They are the world's darlings.

They are a rare breed. The imminence of danger—the knowledge that the slightest mistake could turn their intricate $100,000 lightning-fast bugs into flying debris and flaming ruin—keeps them on a constant high.

Johnny Parsons, who won in 1956, will be cheering for his son, Johnny Wayne Parsons, 29.

Two drivers, Bill Vukovich and Gary Bettenhausen, are offspring of famous racers who died in track accidents, the elder Vukovich after victories in 1953 and 1954.

The Unser brothers, Bobby and Al, will be rivals for the richest prize in racing, carrying on the tradition of a family reared in the tradition of the track. A brother, Jerry, died on this same track.

Sunday's race is expected to draw more than 350,000 people, the largest sports gallery in the United States. Fans begin queuing up tonight, loaded with provisions, waiting for the early morning opening Sunday.

A carnival atmosphere prevails. Arteries leading to the spacious racing oval are lined with gypsy merchants, hawking racing apparel, flags and souvenirs.

For untold thousands, the 500 is a giant spectacle which has become a yearly habit. One lady has occupied the same spot on the northeast end of the infield for the last 39 years.

The heartbeat is Gasoline Alley, rows of car sheds where the hand-built machines are pampered and tinkered with, handled like a patient in the care of great surgeons. Crews number from a dozen to two dozen for every car. The sheds and the cars are plastered with decals, each representing endorsement payments from various companies.

USAC Slates Indy Hearings

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The U.S. Auto Club has agreed to hear five car owners who want an extension to qualifications for Sunday's Indianapolis 500-mile auto race.

But Wright Hugas Jr., attorney representing the owners, said he doubts whether USAC will grant extra time trials. Hugas said Thursday night he talked with USAC competition director Dick King and was assured the hearing would be held "soon."

USAC reduced the time trials for this year's race from four days to two, and both were hampered by rain.

"They could say they'll have the hearing next Wednesday of June 20th, but Dick King promised he would call it soon," Hugas said.

The drivers had filed a lawsuit against USAC and the Speedway seeking a chance to qualify and if that failed an injunction against the race. But Superior Court Judge Frank E. Symmes Jr. dismissed the suit Thursday on a motion by defendants' attorneys. They contended the owners failed to exhaust all noncourt channels, including a full appeal to USAC, before seeking legal remedy.

"I filed the appeal with USAC at 9 p.m. and King said he would have an immediate hearing," Hugas added. "But I'm not sure what he meant by immediate."

He said USAC President Reynold MacDonal would "have to convene the appeals board" and that might take more time than is available.

"We tried the court route because of the time element," Hugas said. "We simply assumed that we would be turned down by USAC. Maybe they'll grant our appeal, but I doubt it."

Player, Curl Share Lead At Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — South African Gary Player admits he's looking beyond the Danny Thomas-Memphis Golf Classic to the U.S. Open three weeks from now.

Rod Curl is looking no further than the local weatherman.

"If it gets windy, if the wind comes up real good and blows hard, I've got a good chance of winning," Curl said Thursday after matching Player's course record 65 for a share of the first-round lead in this $175,000 event.

Curl, the diminutive Wintu Indian who scored his first career victory last Sunday in the Colonial National at Fort Worth, Tex., birdied his last three holes for a seven-under-par round on the 7,193-yard Colonial Country Club course.

"Hey, a man could get used to this in a hurry," the 5-foot-5 Curl said. "It's a wonderful feeling."

He and Player, the current Masters champion who's eyeing an unprecedented Grand Slam of golf, shared a one-stroke advantage over a group of four—two-time 1974 winner Hubert Green, Jim Colbert, Larry Ziegler and Bob Wynn—tied at 66.

Dave Hill, the defending titleholder and a four-time Memphis champion, was in good position at 67 — two shots behind—as the touring pros took advantage of ideal playing conditions to post exceptionally low scores.

HE JUST CAN'T LOOK — Gary Player closes his eyes and winces as his put rolls off the lip of the cup on the 14th hole during Thursday's round of the Memphis Open. Player and Rod Curl have the lead after 18 holes in the $175,000 PGA tournament, both with seven-under-par 65s.

Indy Lawsuit Ends; Rutherford Is Ready

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A Superior Court judge has settled one of the disputes at Indianapolis Motor Speedway, and Johnny Rutherford is making plans to dispose of another.

Judge Frank Symmes of Marion County District Court ended two days of hearings Thursday by throwing out a $1 million lawsuit against the Speedway, which could have held up the 38th running of the biggest event in motorsport.

The suit, filed by several owners of cars that were left at the line a week ago when qualifying trials ended, had sought to reopen qualifications. Symmes ruled, in effect, that the car owners must exhaust all avenues of appeals through channels of the U.S. Auto Club before they'll have grounds for legal action.

In effect, the court denied a temporary injunction that would have held up the race and, at the same time, allowed the claim for $1 million in damages to be carried over. With Symmes having opened the way for Sunday's 11 a.m. CDT start, Rutherford took to the 2½-mile oval Thursday and pumped his McLaren-Offy on a quick lap of 193.424 miles per hour.

Schoolboys Get Call To Races

Teams from all district 5-4A high schools have been invited to compete in a district championship Motocross race Sunday in Midland. A team will consist of four racers. Two eight lap heats will be run. The best three finishers from each school will be scored and the team with the most points will win a trophy.

Also, a full motocross race program will be run on the same day. The races will be run at 1:00 p.m. and are sponsored by the Westside Optimist Club of Midland. The following classes will race in the regular motocross program: Mini Motorcycle, 100 CC, 125 CC, 250 CC, Open.

Racing fees are $3 for junior and $5 for experts. The 250 CC and open classes will feature many professional racers from all over West Texas and Eastern New Mexico. Trophies and prize money will be awarded winners.

"I proved several things to myself and, I hope, to others," the 36-year-old veteran from Ft. Worth, Tex., said. "One is that I can run as fast as anyone here. The other is that I might have won the front row pole position if I had been given a chance."

One of the disputes at the Speedway this year involved a first qualifying day incident involving Rutherford and Al Unser.

The two veterans broke the engines in their cars during a morning practice session, and neither made it to the qualifying line in time to make rush at the pole position that day.

They were victims of a track rule specifying that all drivers must have their cars in line by 12 a.m. deadline for time trial, or forfeit any chance at the pole.

Rutherford and Al Unser, the 1970-1971 winner, protested strongly that there had been no prior explanation of the rule.

Webb, Cosden Golfers Clash

Golfers from Webb AFB and Cosden Refinery collide Saturday at the Big Spring Country Club in the first of two tournaments between the cross-town rivals.

A shotgun start is scheduled for 9 a.m., and all golfers have been asked to report at the BSCC clubhouse by 8:30 a.m.

Golfers representing the two teams will be matched according to handicaps, and points will be awarded to the winners. Cosden won last year's meeting between the two teams.

Tigers Make Their Move With TL Win Over Dodgers

The Harris Lumber and the Cardinals into a second place tie with the Rangers, both at 6-3.

Kip McLaughlin hurled the final four innings for the Cards and limited the Rangers to a hit. Ben Watson had a grand slam home run and a single to spark the Cards, while Scott Moore deeded a homer and a single. Cavin McMahon and Monte Rogers also starred for the Cards.

Diekie Wrightsil and Brocky Jones limited the Dodgers to three hits and Jimmy Carrillo led the Tigers' seven-hit effort with a home run as the two teams now share the league lead with 8-2 marks.

Carillo, who also had a single, had help at the plate from Jesse Villarza with a pair of singles and Jamie Renteria, who managed a double. Jones was credited with the Tiger victory. He and Wrightsil struck out eight Dodgers.

David Green took the loss for the Dodgers, his first decision of the year. Fred Escobedo slammed a home run and a double in the losing cause.

In other Little League play Thursday, the Colts slammed the Hawks 8-1 in the American League, the Cardinals outlasted the Pirates 9-6. Mark Law and Mike Robinson ripped two hits each in the upset, while Blake Rosson hurled the victory. Jimmy Marquez had a home run in the loss for the Pirates, who now stand 8-2.

Roger Kemper struck out 14 batters in leading the Angels to a 13-4 National Pee Wee

Lions Slip By Angels

Charles Vernon struck out 13 batters and stroked a pair of hits Thursday as the Downtown Lions trimmed the Saunders Angels 5-4 in a Big Spring Sophomore League clash.

Vernon, who gave up seven hits, had help at the plate from J. Wray Warren, who had a pair of singles, and Sammy Ortega and Hector Fernandez, who managed doubles.

For the Angels, Michael Gomez slugged a triple and Kyle Pfeiffer a double in the loss. Javier Hernandez, the Angels' losing pitcher, struck out five batters in the four innings of he worked and Pfeiffer had seven strikeouts in three innings of relief.

It was the first game of the year for both teams.

The Rangers raced to an unlikely 12-3 lead over the Cards in the first inning, but the Cardinals came up with a 12-run inning of their own in the third. The victory moved

High-Scoring 'Fly' Declared Ineligible

CARKSVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Austin Peay's James "Fly" Williams, one of the country's top five basketball scorers during his first two years of college, apparently won't be playing next season because of someone else's mistake.

Williams, who averaged 27.5 points a game last season and 29.5 two years ago, was declared indefinitely ineligible Thursday for intercollegiate competition because the Ohio Valley Conference had misinterpreted NCAA entrance requirements.

"He's being punished for the mistake of someone else," Austin Peay Athletic Director George Fisher said. Fisher blamed OVC Commissioner Art Guepe, and Guepe accepted the responsibility.

'Tough Terry' Puts End To Ranger Rally

CHICAGO (AP) — It's hard to picture Terry Forster, the hard-throwing, good-natured Chicago White Sox relief ace, as "tough Terry" but he certainly lived up to it Thursday night.

The big lefthander had to come in despite a sizeable lead in the seventh inning to check the Texas Rangers and preserve a 9-6 Chicago victory.

He also had to survive a shot off the bat of Mike Hargrove which all but shattered his shinbone, but he remained in the game and ended it by fanning pinch batter Rich Billings.

"I guess I shouldn't be so cocky," Forster said after the game. "I thought I threw the pitch past Hargrove."

The save was the eighth this season for Forster, who earlier in the campaign had his troubles and once saw his earned run average soar to an unbelievable 18.19.

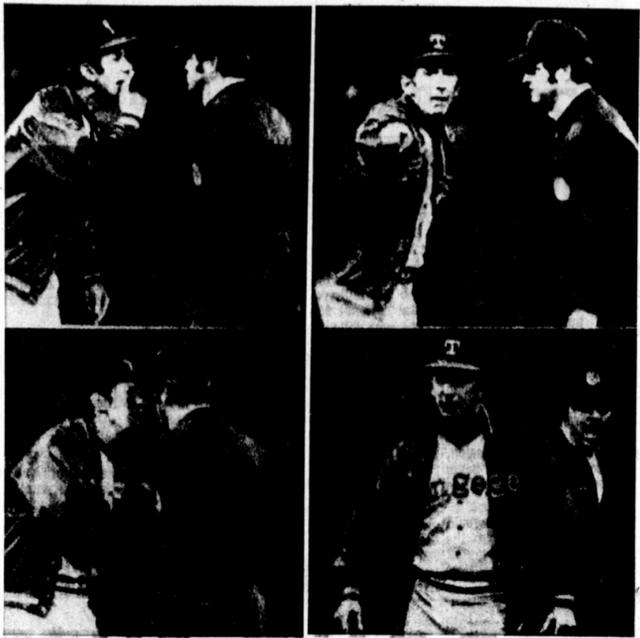

"Yes, I was worried at the time," he said. "I wasn't used to getting hit that hard. My fast ball wasn't popping and my curve wasn't breaking."

"But Chuck (Manager Chuck Tanner) never lost confidence in me and kept using me. Even when I'd get hit hard he wouldn't second guess me and come around and ask what I threw and why I threw certain pitches."

"So I just worked all the harder and gradually everything started to fall back into place. He showed faith in me so I just had to go out and do the job."

Tanner said he was worried seriously about Forster when he got hit on the shin "but the doctors told me it's just a bruise and nothing serious. Thank God, I'd hate to lose the best relief pitcher in the league."

The Rangers opened the game with a three-run burst but the Sox came back with three in the bottom of the first to knot it up. They went ahead to stay in fourth when Ed Herrmann tripled home a run and scored on a single by Bucky Dent.

THE LAST WORD — Texas Rangers Manager Billy Martin raises a point of contention with second base umpire Larry McCoy during Thursday night's game against the Chicago White Sox at Chicago. But, as fate will have it, the ump has the last word. Chicago beat the Rangers 9-6.

Pirates Use Fog To Get Even With Expos' Rogers

The Expos' hot-shot right-hander was mowing down the Pirates with ease Thursday night—six strikeouts with one walk and two hits in five innings—while his teammates were building a 3-0 lead for him.

None of the men on the Bucs' bench could cope with the Montreal flamethrower on the mound in the early going.

So the Man Upstairs stepped in.

In the top of the sixth inning, a dense fog which had been hovering over Jarry Park suddenly descended. And with its help, Pittsburgh finally got to Rogers.

With two outs and Ed Kirkpatrick on first base, Al Oliver hit a towering but playable fly ball to left-center field . . . or toward it, at least. It disappeared when it left the infield.

It finally reappeared, falling between outfielders Willie Davis and Boots Day. And by the time they retrieved it, Kirkpatrick was crossing the plate and Oliver was on third.

That was enough for home plate umpire John Kibler. He halted play for 56 minutes, waiting for the mist to clear. In the interim, the fans were entertained momentarily by a streaker who bounded over a railing, cavorted around the infield, then raced to the outfield . . . and vanished.

In the only other National League game, San Francisco edged Los Angeles 7-6 and San Diego nipped Cincinnati 5-4 in 13 innings. The Chicago Cubs' game against the Mets in New York was rained out.

Giants 7, Dodgers 6

Reliever Elias Sosa picked up his fifth triumph without a defeat this season, riding San Francisco's four-run seven inning burst to victory. Dave Rader's run-scoring single capped the rally.

Padres 5, Reds 4

Derrel Thomas drove in three runs including the game-winner with a 13th-inning sacrifice fly that gave the Padres their victory over the Reds Thursday night.

Chicago of New York, post-rain Montreal 5, Pittsburgh 4. San Diego 5, Cincinnati 4, 13 innings. San Francisco 7, Los Angeles 6. St. Louis (Siebert 3-3) at Chicago (Rausche 3-2). Juco Cinder Meet Tonight

PASADENA, Tex. (AP) — Four defending champions have won chances to repeat tonight in the National Junior College Athletic Association track meet at San Jacinto Junior College.

Essex County (N.J.) College half-miler Horace Tuitt advanced to tonight's semi-finals with a 1:49.4 clocking.

Other defending champions advancing in Thursday's qualifying rounds were Ken Morris of Allen County (Kan.) Community College, javelin; Mark Herman of Mesa (Ariz.) Community College, pole vault, and Lavaris Grisby of Lake City (Fla.) Community College, 100-yard dash.

Donald Merrick of Seminole (Fla.) Junior College and John McCallum of Mesa share the best 100-yard dash times, however, with 9.55. Merrick also was the leading qualifier in the 220-yard dash at 21.1.

Mesa is the defending team champion in the meet, which ends Saturday, and is a strong favorite to win its fourth title. Ranger (Tex.) Junior College and Essex will contend.

Lobo Second In Decathlon; Crane Trackster Injured

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — James Herron of Cameron (Okla.) College led the decathlon competition of the national NAIA track and field meet here Thursday, with the remaining five events of the competition to be held today.

The events are the 110-meter high hurdles, discus, pole vault, javelin and 1,500-meter run. Thursday's events included the shot put, long jump, 100-meter run, 400-meter run and the high jump. Mark Zukevich of Sul Ross (Tex.) State University was in second place with 3,608. His coach, Frank Krhut, was not present at Thursday's competition because he was with another player who is hospitalized at Little Rock.

Krhut said Steve Caldwell of Crane, Tex., was in serious condition Thursday night in the intensive care section. He was being treated for a possible brain concussion which he suffered Wednesday when he hit the rim of the pit area while practicing pole vaulting, Krhut said.

Bounding out the top five of the preliminary decathlon competition were Mark Salzman, Pacific Lutheran (Wash.) College, 3,604; Steve Alexander, Southern California College, 3,565, and Gary Batts, Minot College (N.D.).

In other activity Thursday, Lucian Rosa of Wisconsin Parkside broke his own NAIA marathon record with a time of 2:22:54.2 in the 26-mile course. Rosa, 30, set the record of 2:26:01 last year.

Rosa, who was fourth in the recent Boston Marathon, took the lead at the 15-mile mark and steadily pulled away. He finished about one mile ahead of Joe Catalano of Boston State College who clocked a personal best of 2:28.45.

Thirty-eight runners started the course at 6:30 a.m. in cool, foggy weather, but exhaustion and blisters eliminated several.

Rosa told newsmen afterwards that the only thing that bothered him during the race was a stomach muscle.

Tom Carr of Aquinas (Mich.) College won the finals of the hammer throw competition with a toss of 164.4.

Only 12 persons heaved the ball and chain during the hammer throw competition which was the first field event final of the meet.

Carr's toss was 15 feet better than his personal best and 5 feet better than second-ranked Warren Shank of Westmont (Calif.) College.

Danny Nugent of Oklahoma Christian was the meet favorite. He has swung the hammer 167-6 in qualifying and preliminaries this year.

Nugent, and most other hammer throwers, had trouble getting the ball and chain out of the cage which was smaller than regulation-size. He hit the wire structure several times in the six throws and hung the ball and chain on the top of the structure on the last throw.

In previous tosses this week, the hammer throwers have knocked out three power lines.

Last year's winner, Mike Keating from Simon Fraser College of British Columbia heaved the ball and chain 200-11 to set an NAIA record.

The NAIA Games Committee will issue a ruling today on the eligibility status of the Alabama State College team which missed the scratch meet Thursday.

Sam Houston Nips LCC In NAIA Area 2 Play

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sammy Monteau singled home the winning run in the eighth inning Thursday as Sam Houston State defeated Lubbock Christian 7-6 in the finals of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Area-2 baseball tournament.

The winner advances to the national tournament next week in St. Joseph, Mo.

Sam Houston opened the scoring with two runs in the top of the fourth but Lubbock Christian came back with two in the bottom half. Sam Houston went in front 3-2 in the fifth on a single by Bill Cheatham.

Lubbock added two in the fifth on a triple by Ken Burton and two more in the sixth.

Cheatham slammed a three-run homer in the top of the seventh for Sam Houston to tie the score, setting the stage for Monteau's hit.

Reliever Ray Burgess came on in the sixth inning to collect the mound victory.

Lubbock Christian defeated Adams State 4-3 earlier Thursday.

MILWAUKEE'S NEW DRAW Brewers Achieving Fame

By The Associated Press

The Brewers most famous these days in Milwaukee are the ones that play baseball, not make beer.

Long known as the stronghold of suds, Milwaukee's cup suddenly is running over in the American League East pennant race.

"Pressure is what baseball's all about—and we have a team that can keep the pressure on," said Milwaukee's George Scott after a 7-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers Thursday. "We have guys who can run, guys who hit for average and guys who hit for power. We should keep the pressure on all the time."

Particularly, Milwaukee's racehorse style has caught the fancy of the hometown fans. The Brewers have literally raced into first place in the East race with a running game. Against the Tigers Thursday, the Brewers stole a club record five bases and had 11 in the four-game series, which they won, 3-1.

In Thursday's other American League games, the Cleveland Indians blanked the Baltimore Orioles 2-0; the California Angels beat the Kansas City Royals 3-1 and the Chicago White Sox stopped the Texas Rangers 9-6.

Scott's blood triple capped a two-run seventh inning rally that lifted Milwaukee over Detroit.

Indians 2, Orioles 0

Gaylord Perry pitched a three-hitter and George Hendrick singled home the only run he needed, leading Cleveland over Baltimore.

Both Cleveland runs off Jim Palmer, 2-5, were unearned with Hendrick's sixth-inning single snapping a 21-inning scoreless string for the Indians.

Angels 3, Royals 1

Bobby Valentine hit a bases loaded sacrifice fly in the seventh inning, scoring Ellie Rodriguez and capping a two-run rally that gave Nolan Ryan and California its victory over Kansas City.

against Louisiana Tech's Eddie Holman (8-3) in the opener. Texas was set to place the nation's winningest collegiate pitcher, Jim Gideon (17-0), on the mound in the nightcap.

Pan American, owning a fine 50-9 ledger, has the top base-stealing squad in the country. The Broncos have stolen 153 bases with an NCAA record 81 of them by shortstop Ricky Brockway.

Louisiana Tech, UT, Pan Am Square Off

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Can the defense of Louisiana Tech and the speed of Pan American overcome the siege gun arms and bats of the second-ranked college baseball team in America—the Texas Longhorns?

Tech and Pan American hope to answer the question beginning today in the District 6 NCAA college baseball playoffs with the unsavory task of trying to bump off each other in the opener of the double elimination tournament.

The loser of the afternoon game was scheduled to tackle Texas at 7:30 p.m. in Arlington Stadium. The Longhorns, who own a gaudy 50-4 season record, drew a byline in the opener.

The powerful Longhorns, who have won 10 consecutive Southwest Conference crowns, were extended to the limit—14 innings to be exact—before they advanced to the College Baseball World Series last year with a 14-12 victory over Pan American.

The winner of this series again will play at Omaha, Neb., June 7.

The Saturday schedule has Texas meeting the winner of today's afternoon battle with the fourth game scheduled for Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Should a fifth game be needed it would be played at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Pan American's Bruce Wilson (10-1) was to take the mound

Cubs Lose As El Paso Challenges In TL East

By The Associated Press

El Paso's Diablos pulled within a half game of Texas League baseball west division leader San Antonio Thursday night by slapping the Midland Cubs with a 12-3 loss.

West division cellar dweller Amarillo stunned San Antonio's Brewers 7-4 during the night.

El Paso's win came behind four-for-five hitting by Dan Briggs who collected three runs batted in and a two-run fourth-inning homer.

The victory gave the Diablos a 6-0 record for the home stand which ended Thursday.

Amarillo toppled San Antonio by collecting four runs in the fifth inning on one hit and a San Antonio error. Combined walks by San Antonio pitchers Bob Grossman and Jim Moyer accounted for some of Amarillo's fourth-inning rally.

In other Texas League action, Arkansas swept a doubleheader from Alexandria 10-2, 5-2 to move up a bit on east-leading Victoria. However, Victoria remained at the top of the east record roster with a 2-1 triumph over Shreveport.

Backup catcher Tom Zimmer collected three hits in three trips to the plate to lead teammates in the nightcap Arkansas win. Included in the three hits were a run batted in and a trip to home plate for Zimmer.

In the first game, Doug Clark hit a three-run double in the fourth inning to overcome a 2-0 Alexandria lead. Alexandria never threatened after the fourth.

Texans Continue To Support President Nixon, Tower Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texans are continuing to support President Nixon, but not as strongly as they did in the 1972 election, Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said.

Over the past four weeks, a period taking the release of the White House Watergate transcripts, 57.4 per cent of Tower's mail about Nixon has supported the President and 42.6 per cent has favored his resignation or impeachment, he said.

LETTER WRITERS

The President received 69 per cent of the vote in 1972.

Two and three weeks ago, Tower told a news conference, 213 of the letter writers opposed Nixon and 144 supported him. However, the trend was reversed last week, with 118 opposing him and 237 backing him.

"I sense that a majority in our state is pro-Nixon, no matter how much it has diminished in the past few weeks," the senator said. "Initially there was the adverse reaction to the tapes."

Tower said he would not be affected by the mail if the House returns a bill of impeachment and a trial is conducted in the Senate.

CYNICAL SIDE

The senator noted that not more than 15 per cent of the mail he has received recently dealt with Watergate and impeachment.

He said he was not shocked by the material in the transcripts. "But that is not to say I have any sense of gratification" from it.

"This illuminates a cynical side which is disquieting," he said. "The President delegated away authority inordinately and was not in touch with what was going on."

However, Tower said that overall, "the administration has been of positive achievement," praising Nixon's foreign policy record.

MY GUESS

Tower predicted that if the House Judiciary Committee, considering impeachment, reports to the House by July 4, "the House couldn't finally act until the first of August."

If the House impeaches Nixon, sending the matter to the Senate, "we certainly would not have a recess," Tower said. "My guess is we'll go six days a week" until the matter is decided.

He refused to say when the Senate would begin deliberations or how long such a proceeding would last, but conceded that if it continues beyond Jan. 3, the date Congress begins a new session, the House may have to begin its impeachment consideration again.

"This is a matter that would ultimately be decided in the courts," said Tower, who taught constitutional law in a political science course.

Debt Ceiling Raise Voted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House voted Thursday to raise the national debt ceiling $19.3 billion to a total of $495 billion. Albert cast a tie-breaking vote.

The 191-190 vote sent the bill to the Senate.

Unless it is enacted by June 30, the debt ceiling will drop to $400 billion, which would be about $75 billion less than the actual national debt.

The vote followed a debate in which members generally denounced excessive spending, while Democrats accused President Nixon's administration of piling up record deficits and thus forcing big increases in the Treasury's borrowing authority.

Nixon had asked for a $505 billion ceiling through June 30, 1975. The House Ways and Means Committee cut the figure back to $495 billion and set the expiration date at March 31, assuring another congressional review of administration fiscal policies by that date.

Hamilton Journal-News Publisher Post Filled

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Charles H. Everill will take over June 30 as publisher of the Hamilton Journal-News, succeeding Tucker Sutherland.

Robert C. Marbut, president of Harte-Hanks newspapers, announced the selection of Everill to replace Sutherland, who has been named publisher of the San Angelo, Tex., Standard Times.

Everill, 31, has been assistant publisher of the Journal-News, and was a corporate director of marketing for Harte-Hanks before moving to Hamilton earlier this year.

Everill was graduated from Harvard College and the Harvard graduate school of business administration. He was a consultant for Coca-Cola and an officer in the Navy's submarine service.

"Since we purchased the Journal-News in 1971, it has been a pacesetter for our group in editorial excellence, production quality, community service and growth and I'm sure this outstanding performance will continue under Charles Everill," Marbut said.

Sutherland, 35, replaces a retiring publisher at San Angelo, which also is a member of the Harte-Hanks chain.

Also announced Thursday was the appointment of Journal-News assistant managing editor Ronald L. Reed as executive news editor of the Daily Mail newspaper at Anderson, S.C., another member of the Harte-Hanks group.

Reed, 37, will assume the position Monday, according to John Ginn, publisher of the Daily Mail and morning Independent at Anderson.

Reed joined the Journal-News as a reporter in 1969. He worked at a variety of positions there before being named to his present post in late 1973.

CAUSING CONCERN

Newsprint Producers Redirecting Supplies

NEW YORK (AP) — Newsprint producers have redirected eight paper supplies into a world auction in search of the highest bidders. And the move is causing concern in the newspaper publishing business.

In the United States, newsprint now costs $213 per ton, up from $175 per ton a year ago. A ton makes about 7,000 copies of a 24-page paper.

GOING UP Some major suppliers of the U.S. companies have already announced that the price will go up again this summer.

Harold Anderson, chairman of the American Newspaper Publishers Association (ANPA), says price increases already have upset the normal cycle of doing business and additional hikes would cause "enormous budgetary problems" for American newspapers.

The United States is by far the world's biggest consumer of newsprint, using 11 million tons annually. Japan, the No. 2 consumer, uses 2.4 million tons a year.

In Europe, producers are successfully charging about $300 a ton and more for newsprint this year, compared with $200 a year ago. In South America, the price averages about $350 a ton; in the Middle East and India, prices for paper range up to $500 a ton; and in East Africa, where publishers pay the highest prices in the world, Canadian and Scandinavian producers command $700 a ton while black marketbrokers do a lively business at up to $840 a ton.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES On July 1, Canadian and Scandinavian producers, the world's leading exporters, are raising their asking price as much as 20-25 per cent more worldwide.

What effect has the soaring prices had on newspapers? A number of American papers have had to boost newsstand and subscription rates.

In Brazil, Rio's O Jornal, once the flagship of Latin America's largest publishing empire, Chateaubriand Communications, closed in early May.

In Britain, the Beaverbrook publishing group, which includes the Daily Express, Sunday Express and London Evening Standard, says it is in serious financial trouble and recently closed the Glasgow Evening Citizen.

DOGS, HORSES Many of Hong Kong's tip-sheets on dogs, horses and local scandal have disappeared, correspondents say.

Executives of the world's troubled papers say sorting out the finances of a newspaper these days is getting more difficult and complex, and newsprint prices were only one of several factors.

Most newspapers have found that by raising newsstand prices and advertising rates — which has happened worldwide in the last few months — they can stay afloat and make some, if a diminished, profit.

While the 14 major publicly held U.S. newspaper companies showed substantial earnings increases last year, ranging up to the 47 per cent increase posted by the New York Times, earnings in the first quarter of 1974 were uniform as advertising volume dropped off with the downturn in the economy.

The outlook for this year is uncertain, according to John Morton, an analyst with Delafield Childs, Inc., institutional stockbrokers.

TACTICS After years of ample newsprint at stable prices, the sudden rise in prices has caused a storm of criticism from publishers accusing producers of strong-arm tactics, artificial shortages and excessive profits.

One angry Danish publisher says, "There's no doubt that the manufacturers are taking advantage of a shortage situation. Of course they have legitimate increases in production costs and they like to blame the Arab oil strikes for much of it. But in many ways, they are acting exactly the same as the shiekhs."

Does a shortage situation exist? In the United States supplies have held steady for the past few months after the big crunch brought on by strikes in Canada last year.

In most countries these days, though, unsold newspapers are carefully collected and sold to mills to be recycled into newsprint or other paper products.

Panel Told It Can't Rely On 'Edited Transcripts'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee has been advised by its two top lawyers that it can't rely on White House-edited transcripts in its impeachment inquiry.

Errors, omissions and deletions in the 46 conversations released April 30 by President Nixon make them unsatisfactory as evidence, say chief counsel John Doar and Albert Jenner, the chief minority counsel.

They told the committee Thursday there was "an absolute need" to get the tapes of the conversations if the impeachment verdict is to be based on the best evidence.

Nixon spurned a committee subpoena for 11 Watergate tapes Wednesday and said he would not respond to any other subpoenas it may issue for Watergate material.

He turned over the transcripts in response to an earlier subpoena for tapes.

In another Watergate arena, today is the deadline for White House response to subpoenas for papers left behind by two former Nixon aides when they still were working for the President.

U.S. District Court Judge Gerhard Gesell has said he might have to throw out charges against the five defendants in the Ellsberg break-in case if all relevant material is not provided.

The U.S. Court of Appeals ruled Thursday that the Senate Watergate committee had not shown sufficient need for five White House tape recordings it had sought in a 10-month legal battle.

WILL NOT BE FIRED In other Watergate developments: —Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe told the Senate Judiciary Committee that special prosecutor Leon Jaworski will not be fired.

Saxbe said the committee Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., that he will continue to guarantee Jaworski's freedom in the Watergate investigation.

—An Internal Revenue Service spokesman said IRS has declined to supply the House Judiciary Committee with information on Nixon's tax returns.

The spokesman said Treasury Secretary William E. Simon has referred to Saxbe the question of whether it would be proper to supply the information that the committee requested.

CONCERNED To be resolved is whether the committee's constitutional authority over impeachment is superior to specific statutory prohibition in the Internal Revenue code against giving out tax return information, the spokesman said.

After the House committee's session, Doar repeated the criticism of the White House tapes he had delivered to the members.

"I am concerned about their accuracy and about the judgments of the President and his counsel on matters of relevance," he said.

Doar's assessment of the White House transcripts is based on comparisons with transcripts produced by the committee from tapes of the same conversations it got from the special prosecutor.

Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr. said the comparisons disclosed numerous misstatements, omissions, misattributions and deletions that distorted the meaning of some conversations in the White House transcripts, though neither cited specific examples.

BEST EVIDENCE But Doar said he was especially concerned about the differences between the committee and White House transcripts of the March 21, 1973, conversation between Nixon and his former counsel, John W. Dean III, that has become a focal point of the inquiry.

Jenner, saying he and Doar had agonized over having to use the transcripts in the presenting of evidence to the committee, agreed with Doar's criticism of them. "There is an absolute need in this case to get the best evidence," he said.

Rodino has scheduled a meeting for next Thursday or Friday to deal with Nixon's refusal to comply with the subpoena. He said he would oppose efforts to seek court enforcement of the subpoena, which some members are proposing.

The Constitution gives the House the sole power of impeachment, Rodino said, and the courts have no role to play in the process. He said he would recommend that the committee proceed with its inquiry and, wherever necessary, issue more subpoenas for White House evidence it thinks it needs.

"Regardless of the President's position we will discharge our responsibilities," he said.

The committee is taking a brief holiday from the three-day-a-week sessions it has been holding. It will resume Wednesday and Rodino said he hopes to wind up the Watergate phase of the inquiry that day or the next.

Plans To Drill 120 Oil Wells

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Plans for drilling 120 exploratory oil wells the next 20 months by Shenandoah Oil Corp. of Fort Worth, Tex., were disclosed to shareholders Thursday.

The corporation held its annual meeting here as an accommodation to the large number of shareholders who live in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area.

B. J. Kellenberger, president, said the test wells will be drilled on 1.7 million acres of undeveloped leases throughout the Rocky Mountain, midcontinent, Gulf Coast and southeastern regions.

30 For Editor

LOGAN, Ohio (AP) — Robert S. Rochester, 65, editor of the Washington Court House Record-Herald for 18 years, died Wednesday. Beginning his journalism career in 1931, Rochester worked at numerous Ohio newspapers and the St. Petersburg (Fla.) Evening Independent before joining the Record-Herald in 1956.

He had agonized over having to use the transcripts in the presenting of evidence to the committee, agreed with Doar's criticism of them.

"There is an absolute need in this case to get the best evidence," he said.

Rodino has scheduled a meeting for next Thursday or Friday to deal with Nixon's refusal to comply with the subpoena.

He said he would oppose efforts to seek court enforcement of the subpoena, which some members are proposing.

The Constitution gives the House the sole power of impeachment, Rodino said, and the courts have no role to play in the process.

He said he would recommend that the committee proceed with its inquiry and, wherever necessary, issue more subpoenas for White House evidence it thinks it needs.

"Regardless of the President's position we will discharge our responsibilities," he said.

The committee is taking a brief holiday from the three-day-a-week sessions it has been holding. It will resume Wednesday and Rodino said he hopes to wind up the Watergate phase of the inquiry that day or the next.

(If You Can't Vote Then, Vote Absentee Now)

Open Letter To Our Friends

- We feel the only way we can have good government is to have two acceptable candidates running in November in the General Election.
- Glenn (High Taxes) Toombs has been our County Judge for almost 4 years. During that time, he has raised our taxes every time he got the chance during his entire term in office.
- A group of Borden County citizens averted a law suit between Borden County and the oil operators operating within the County by agreeing to reevaluate all property within the County except oil and gas properties. This amounted to about 50 per cent increase. We further agreed to stop increasing the oil companies taxes, which Judge Toombs instrumented each year he had been in office.
- Glenn (High Tax) Toombs is running on a platform which not only affects the landowners and homeowners, but also apartment dwellers and everyone who owns any property at all.
- Glenn Toombs wants to come into your home and have a disinterested appraiser appraise your dishes, your furniture, your car, etc. . . . and then tax them on the full market value.
- Accountants have estimated that this would quadruple the taxes throughout the 63rd Legislative District, whether you own any real property or not.
- Glenn Toombs did not carry one precinct in Borden County, including the precinct where he was raised and of course, was solidly defeated throughout the County.
- Glenn (High Tax) Toombs did not carry Scurry or Howard Counties where he ran not on his own merits but on the good reputation of his parents.
- We feel that a man who cannot carry his home County and his home precinct, among the people who know him best, does not warrant the vote or support of the other people throughout the district.
- Regardless of the pretty words of Glenn (High Tax) Toombs, the above facts are actually what he believes.
- We urge you all to get out and vote on Saturday, June 1st, so that you may select between two good candidates in the November general election.

'Parents' Plan Social Events

The local chapter of Parents Without Partners will hold a potluck supper Saturday at the home of Mrs. Mary Coppedge, 1906 Morrison, with Mrs. Bertha Matlock and Troy Durham as cohosts. There will be family bowling on Sunday. Members will meet to fold newsletters at 7:30 p.m., Monday at the Coppedge home with Ted Fields and Jim Grizzard as hosts. Preliminary plans are being made for the Pecos regional convention June 1-2 in Abilene at the Hilton Hotel, where registration will begin at 9 a.m. Local delegates will be Durham, Mrs. Dorothy Cross and Mrs. Estalene Rice. Eight chapters will be represented.

Committees, Chairmen Named By Mu Zetas

During the last meeting of the season for Mu Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, committees and chairmen were named for the 1974-75 year. The group met in the home of Mrs. David Smith, 94-A Ent, with Mrs. Kent Harrington as cohostess. The year's program award went to Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Stan Allen for their program on jewelry, and Phi Pal gifts were distributed.

The summer social meeting will be a German festival garden party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy King, 1108 Mt. Vernon, June 1. Members will work this summer on sale items for a fall bazaar and, also, will continue selling stationery. Plans are in the making to sponsor a youth dance at the start of the school year. Mrs. Bill Schraeder, president, said summer business sessions will be called if necessary.

Reception Fetes Mrs. G. Ellige

Mrs. Gladys Ellige was honored recently at a reception on the occasion of her retirement from Big Spring State Hospital.

Employees of the hospital hosted the affair and presented the honoree with a corsage and a money tree. Ms. Ellige began working at the hospital 13 years ago. She has worked on nearly all units, serving as charge attendant on several units. Prior to her retirement, she was working at the Community House.

Poolside Party For Graduate

Miss Cheryl Cannon, a graduating senior at Big Spring High School, was the honoree at a swimming party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Jerry Snodgrass, 2704 Crestline. Mrs. Buster Peek was cohostess for the event, and guests were other senior girls.

The refreshment tables, one inside and one at poolside, were decorated with gifts for each guest and centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums. Miss Cannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Cannon, 2204 Grace, will attend Howard College before transferring to another college to major in fashion merchandising.

Four Generations Are Represented

The birth May 15 of David Brent Elmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Ray Elmore, 404 Rummels, brought together four generations of the family. Here to see the infant were the grandmother, Mrs. Ray Elmore, Coahoma, and the paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Willie Adress of Haskell.

Honored At Pre-Nuptial Gift Party

A bridal shower was held recently in fellowship hall of Trinity Baptist Church for Miss Pam Patton, bride-elect of A. C. Neighbors. She was attired in a red and white ruffled floor-length dress and was presented a lavender carnation corsage.

Her mother, Mrs. W. H. Patton, and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Aubrey Neighbors, were presented white carnations. Hostesses were Mrs. Roy Shaffer, Mrs. Jack Shaffer, Mrs. Clay Ingram, Mrs. James Fuller, Mrs. Ray Rackley, Mrs. James Fitts, Mrs. Nathan Stalleup, Mrs. Elbert Long, Mrs. David Pope, Mrs. Billy Powell, Mrs. Jesse Majors, Mrs. Jim Newsom, Mrs. Wanda Jones and Mrs. Floyd Williams.

A white lace cloth covered the table, and the arrangement was of white and lavender flowers in a milk glass bowl flanked by milk glass candelabra. Miss Phyllis Shaffer registered guests. Miss Patton and Neighbors will be married June 8 at Trinity Baptist Church with Dr. Claude Craven officiating.

Children Feted At Patio Party

Thirty members of the Westside Center Choir were entertained at a patio supper Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Parham Jr., 434 Edwards. Cohosts were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dawes. Mrs. Charles Parham Sr. was a guest.

Awards for excellent choir attendance and participation were presented to 19 choir members by Mrs. Dawes, director of the choir. Those receiving awards for the first time were Allen Albiar, Angelica Albiar, Jimmy Carrillo, Pete Correa, Debbie Rodriguez, Jackie Rodriguez, Frand Salz, Becky Stephens and Mark Stephens. Second year awards were given to Jonny Abreo, Rachel Barragan, Suzanne Barragan, Suzanne Barragan, Bobby Kinman, Robin Kinman, Belinda Lopez and Sylvia Lopez. Receiving excellent participation awards for the third year were Debra Abreo, Russell Kinman and Sheila Kinman.

Trouble Ahead

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 23-year-old guy with a problem. I was married for less than one year, and it was a disaster. My divorce will be final in three weeks. I am presently in pretty deep with a chick who is hot to get married as soon as my divorce is final. She's okay to go with, but there is no way I could ever marry this gal. Besides, I want to play the field a while before tying myself down again. I've tried to explain this to her, but she says: "Don't be afraid of marriage because you had one bad experience. If a person falls off a horse, the way to overcome his fear is to get back on the horse and ride."

Abby, this may be true with riding, but does it apply to marriage? TEX: No. Marriage is a horse of a different color. If you want to horse around a while longer, tell that chick to cool it. And don't restrict yourself to one gal. There's safety in numbers.

DEAR ABBY: I have always wanted to make up a problem and sent it in just to see if it would get printed, but now I have a real one. About two years ago I started a pen pal correspondence with a girl in Japan. We are both 18 now. (I'm also a girl.) We exchanged pictures and became very friendly. I just got a letter from her which nearly knocked me over. She says she wants to come over here and spend A YEAR with me and my family! Abby, I would love to have her here for a month mabe, but I can't have her here for a year. I live with my parents in a crowded apartment, and it's out of the question. She says it's her lifelong dream to come to America, and I hate to disappoint her, but I need advice on how to tell her.

STUMPED DEAR STUMPED: Tell her, just as you've told me, that you live in a small apartment, and much as you'd like to have her visit for a year, you're able to extend your parents' hospitality for only one month.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old boy who is living at home — but I may not be by the time you get this letter if things don't improve at my house. I have a friend (another guy) who is studying to be a hairdresser. I asked him to bleach my hair and make it a golden blond. My natural color is a dull, uninteresting light brown. I repeat — I ASKED my friend to do this. Nobody

Contest Essays Read By Credit Women

Mrs. J. B. Apple was hostess recently for a meeting of Big Spring Credit Women when essays written by Big Spring High School students were reviewed. A contest is sponsored by the club, providing first, second and third place prizes in the amounts of $25, $15 and $10. The contest will be continued next year. The evening's program, given by the Hawk Players and Delta Psi Omega, featured an original composition by Kelly Draper entitled "Not My Problem."

A LOVELIER YOU Tinted Lenses Help Cut Down Squints

By MARY SUE MILLER The choice of sunglasses widens, not only in the shape and color of frames, but in the variety of lenses. Selection depends more and more on how well a lens performs its purpose to cut down glare. (The action cuts down squint lines too.) The crux of the matter is in the color of the lens. Gray tinted lenses, either of glass or plastic, are now believed by many authorities to provide maximum protection from sun discomfort. Available in medium and dark densities, gray tints meet their specified needs without distorting perception of colors seen through them.

When glare is a problem for you and you spend a great deal of time outdoors, polarized sun specs may be the solution for you. These lenses, in non-prescription glasses, are made of plastic. Following a prescription, they contain a film of polarizing material laminated between two glass lenses. Studies show their effectiveness in reducing glare. Photochromatic lenses, recently introduced, adjust automatically to changing light — from shade to sunshine and back again. A very handy idea for the porch-to-beach crowd. For the best results, a new wearer must subject lenses to a series of light to dark cycles before the changes are smoothly made. Ask your doctor's advice on the individually right sunglasses for you. That's using your Eye-Q. EYES OF YOUTH You are not lost to youthful beauty because of dark circles, puffiness, or

The presentation featured students singing, dancing and reading — individually and together. Tracy Cave illustrated the program with slides, accompanists were Mrs. Mary Skalicky, piano, and Nathaniel Jackson, vibraphone.

The performers were Jay Box, Elizabeth Arencibia, Lois Bair and Kelly Draper. The meeting was held at the Apple home, 419 Westover, where a salad buffet was served at quartet tables covered with black and white checked gingham cloths and centered with votive candles.

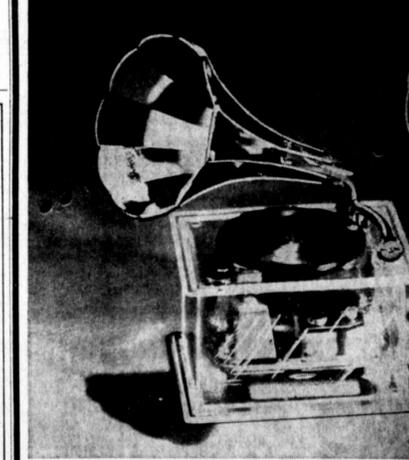

At the regular monthly luncheon meeting of the club at Hotel Settles Thursday, Mrs. Apple presided for the brief business session, announcing that the state convention is being held this weekend in San Antonio. There are no local delegates this year.

For the luncheon program, Mrs. Helen Mahoney, chairman, introduced Mrs. Eva Nail who told the history of establishing her health food store.

Vacation Church Schools Will Highlight Church Week Here

By MARI CARPENTER
Vacation Church Schools are springing up all over the city. Many of the churches hold this event as soon as public school dismisses while a few wait until later in the summer.

Vacation Bible School for Evangel Temple Assembly of God, 2205 Goliad, Big Spring, is scheduled for June 10-14 at 9:12 a.m. daily. (Mon.-Fri.)

Enrollment is open for children and youth from 4 to 14 years of age. Transportation is available by phoning the church parsonage (3-8871), or the church (3-1136). Transportation and VBS is free and a large enrollment is anticipated.

Classes and crafts will be climaxed each day by a refreshment period. Friday, June 14, is Commencement Day that will include a picnic during the day with open house for all parents at 7 p.m. with commencement exercises.

Superintendent of the Evangel Temple VBS is Mrs. Jane Bell and the Rev. Donald Calvin is pastor.

College Baptist Church will hold a vacation Bible School May 27-31 from 9-11:30 a.m. Will be for boys and girls ages 3 years through the 6th grade. If you need bus transportation please call the church office (267)7429. Call by Sunday, May 26.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL will begin at College Baptist Church Monday, May 27 and run through Friday, May 31. The school will be from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. each morning. Various Bible and mission activities will be featured. These along with games, songs, and refreshments will be added features to the school.

David Norvell, minister of music and education, will serve as principal. Dr. Jimmy D. Law is pastor. A complete and outstanding faculty has been enlisted to care for about 300 children. The school is open to all boys and girls 3 years of age through the sixth grade (those just completing the sixth grade in school). Bus transportation will be provided by calling the church office, 267-7429. Transportation is provided free of charge to these needing ways to and from the school.

Completion of a year of service to the San Angelo area, Catholic Community Services, located at 7 West Avenue N, San Angelo, moves into a second year of dedicated help to those in need. With a spirit of ecumenism where religion or ethnic background of the individual is not questioned requests for assistance range from need for food and clothing to transportation requests, medical assistance, rent assistance or utility payments.

In the first nine months of this fiscal year 183 requests for assistance affecting some 800 people were handled. A typical example of assistance, said Mr. Howard Drake, executive director of the organization, "is that of an elderly man who was ill, without funds, and required transportation to San Antonio where he could receive medical assistance. We paid his transportation to San Antonio."

Often," said Mr. Drake, "we assist in the purchase of food where hunger is a factor. We also purchase gasoline for transients who have become stranded in our area and have no money to reach their destination."

Church bus service will be furnished for the Midway-Sand Springs area. Call the Church (3-6274) if you need a ride. The Church is located 4 miles East on I-20.

Vacation Bible School director is Mrs. Weldon McAdams, Rev. Rufus Wilson is pastor.

Nazarenes Schedule Revival

"Because we are aware that the world needs to know Jesus Christ in a very real and personal way, we have scheduled a revival with one of the nation's top Bible expositors," stated the Rev. L. D. Holmes, Church of the Nazarenes.

Me'l Thomas Rothwell, evangelist and professor will be the speaker in the special services scheduled for May 26 through June 2. The services will begin each evening at 7:30 p.m. (except Sundays; 10:45 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.)

The Church of the Nazarene, locally, specializes in children, teen-age, young adult, middle age, and senior adult ministries. The church located at 1400 Lancaster, has doubled their attendance in the last 12 months.

Denominationally, the Church of the Nazarene is the second fastest growing church in the nation (of denominations over 500,000).

The entire community is cordially invited to "The Church in Action", 1400 Lancaster, for these special services.

Oral Roberts Summer Series Features Boone

Who can resist the fun of a county fair... the inspiration of an old country church... the open barrel of the almost-forgotten "general store"? Oral Roberts puts it all together in his "SUMMER '74" to create an hour of nostalgia that will warm the hearts of television audiences from coast to coast.

Pearl's previous appearance on an Oral Roberts special brought such overwhelming response the world-famous evangelist asked her to the "repeat" performance for "SUMMER '74". Actually, very little coaxing was required. The inimitable Pearl stated during her previous visit to the campus that it was one of the most thrilling experiences of her life and that she would be back "if anybody asks me."

On the condition of the country, Miss Bailey comments, "Oh, I tell you, there's a lot wrong with the country, but you have to travel far and go to other countries to realize there's a whole lot right with it, too." Poking fun at herself, she continues, "Isn't it funny that everytime I come here, I do the sermon?" What her "sermon" says adds a great deal of zest to her usual fine performance.

Pat Boone, too, is no stranger to the Oral Roberts University campus. He has appeared on several previous programs and is a member of the Board of Regents of the university. On "SUMMER '74" he shares some of his observations on the changing youth scene in America with university president Roberts, and follows up with a toe-tapping rendition of an old favorite, "Everybody's Gonna Have A Wonderful Time Up There."

Boone, a perennial favorite who seems to have the rare quality of captivating both the young set and their parents, has 13 gold records and 7 gold albums to his credit. Since he cut his first song for Dot Records in 1955, he has sold more than 45 million records - one of the all-time high for the industry.

Richard and Patti Roberts are on hand with the World Action Singers from Oral Roberts University and the Ralph Carmichael orchestra to add to the musical fare, weaving in "pop" and religious sounds in an equally delightful way. Oral Roberts' message, "You Can Have A New Life," is enmeshed in the conflicts of the highly relevant to a society's "new morality."

DR. ELTON TRUEBLOOD

Upper Room Gives Citation For 1974

Dr. D. Blon Trueblood, president of Yokefellows International and Professor-at-large of Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana received the Upper Room Citation for 1974. The presentation was made by Dr. Wilson O. Weldon, world editor of the Upper Room, at a World Christian Fellowship Dinner on Tuesday evening, March 12, at the Indianapolis Hilton before an audience of more than four hundred persons. Dr. Trueblood has spoken on several occasions in Big Spring.

and devotional life have "enriched Christian Fellowship around the world." Among other recipients of this award have been Billy Graham, Warner Sallman, Ralph Sockman, Sir Francis Ibiem and Alan Walker.

Dr. Landrum R. Bolling, executive vice president of Lilly Endowment Foundation, the speaker of the evening, cited Dr. Trueblood as "a many-sided man, teacher, author, preacher, rose-grower, brick-layer, tennis player, incorrigible committer of limericks, and indefatigable letter writer." He said when he recognized ministers, lay persons, and members of the world ecumenical movement and those whose contributions in the areas of art, literature person the task can be done.

time out for GOD

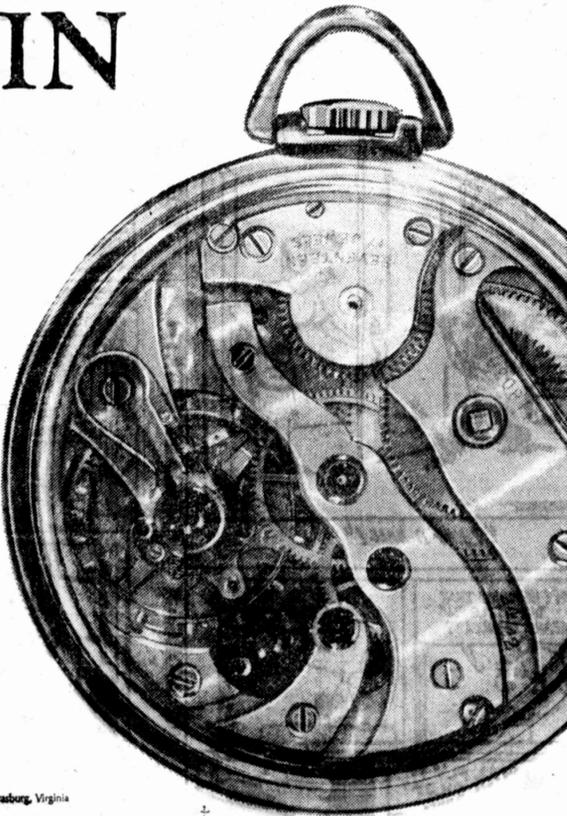

FRICITION-THEN RUIN

Packed into every watch are cogs and wheels, levers and springs. Varying in size and shape, each helps keep time. But look more closely. A thin film of oil adheres to many of the moving parts. Without it there is friction—then wear and . . . damage.

Within most towns, you'll find banks and shops, supermarkets and churches. They vary in size and purpose, yet each contributes to an orderly society.

Faith in God is essential to society. Without it there is friction—then distrust and . . . ruin.

In church people find faith that gives greater meaning to life in a complex and rapidly changing world. Is your life running smoothly? Why not attend church this Sunday?

PLANNING LEATHER PROJECTS - Daniel Valasquez, 13, a member of the Boys' Club, looks over some of the estimated 1,500 pounds of leather scraps donated to the club here. Bert Andries, director, said Lion Elmo Letbetter, Brownwood, gave so much to the Boys' Club the gift will be shared with Boy Scouts. Letbetter had the mass of leather scraps in a van when he attended the Lions district convention in Big Spring. He collects leather scraps to give to organizations like the Boys' Clubs.

ONE BIG SWALLOW
Jurors Convict Percy
Of Drunk Driving

HOUSTON (AP) - Famed criminal defense lawyer Percy Foreman, the victor in thousands of courtroom dramas, met defeat on a personal level Thursday as a jury convicted him of driving while intoxicated.

Foreman, 71, sat motionless as a jury of four women and two men returned the guilty verdict. He glanced briefly at them, gave one big swallow, then turned to face County Court Judge Neil McKay. JAIL, $200 FINE

A few minutes later, Judge McKay sentenced Foreman to 30 days in jail, probated for six months, and a $200 fine. The conviction will not endanger Foreman's license to practice law, the district attorney's office said.

After sentencing, foreman walked slowly from the courtroom and told reporters that he had not decided if he would appeal the verdict.

The DWI charge came after Foreman was involved in an accident on a Houston freeway Dec. 31, 1973.

At the time of the accident, Foreman told officers he had never held a Texas drivers license. Thursday he told a reporter he began driving before licenses were required, and may have at once held a license but does not now.

"I'm driving under the grandfather clause," he said with a chuckle. Later he said he has not driven since the accident.

Final arguments Thursday, like the five other days of the trial, were frequently interrupted by objections, arguments and charges of witness coaching.

COACHING
Foreman in earlier testimony accused Mike Maguire, a young assistant district attorney, of coaching witnesses to gain a conviction.

After the verdict, Maguire said he had not even prepared the case he tried, adding that the investigation and preparation had been handled in the usual manner. "I determined to handle this case just like a normal DWI case would be handled," he said. "I'm very happy that the jury saw through their defense. My faith in the jury system has been fulfilled."

In the trial, which defense lawyer Dick DeGuerin said was the longest DWI proceeding ever held here, Foreman maintained that witnesses who said he was drunk misread symptoms of a diabetic reaction he was having at the time.

He paraded three doctors to the stand who said persons suffering from the condition may stagger and have an alcohol-like odor on their breath.

11 Per Cent
LCRA Boost

AUSTIN (AP) - Mayors of cities in the Lower Colorado River Authority agreed Wednesday to a 11.2 per cent increase in rates. LCRA general manager Charles Herring said today. Herring predicted the increase in wholesale rates would increase household rates to consumers about 10 to 11 per cent. If the rate increase is finally approved by the LCRA board of directors it will become effective June 25 and show up for the first time on July 1 bills, Herring said.

WORKER SAYS:
'We're Not
Starving-Yet'

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) - "We're not starving- yet," said Neil, a victim of the crippling general strike by Northern Ireland's Protestant militants in its 10th day today. A Protestant, Neil is a craftsman in a Belfast factory. He said he has not been paid since the strike began.

"If the strike goes on for much longer there are going to be riots, looting and killing as people are forced to take what they can find or starve," he said.

NOT HIS NAME
Neil is not his real name. He asked not to be identified "because it could mean bad troubles for me and my family."

Protestant thugs have used strongarm tactics to enforce the strike, threatening men like Neil who would prefer to work. Neil was "asked to stay away" from his downtown plant last week. He wasn't threatened directly, he said, but he knows strikers have beaten up men who defied the shutdown or set afire their homes.

The strike, called by Protestant extremists to kill plans to give the predominantly Roman Catholic Irish Republic a voice in the affairs of Northern Ireland, a British province, has brought industry and commerce to a virtual standstill.

CRITICAL LAWS
Electricity and gas supplies have plummeted to critical lows. Food stocks, especially fresh meat and vegetables, are diminishing rapidly and the stores that are still open report panic buying of canned goods.

There was a sign of a slight letup in the extremist grip Thursday night, when leaders of the Ulster Workers' Council, coordinating the strike, agreed to let power plants continue operating at their minimal scale.
