'I'VE COMMITTED MY LIFE TO JESUS CHRIST'

Ex-White House Aide Colson Sentenced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charles W. Colson, once one of President Nixon's highest-ranking advisers, was sentenced today to serve one to three years in prison for obstructing justice.

U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell also imposed a $5,000 fine.

Maximum penalty on the charge would have been five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

"For 3½ years I worked day and night. I believed I was making a great personal sacrifice for my country," Colson said before sentencing.

PUBLIC EXPECTATION
"This experience has brought a complete re-examination of myself and I will spend the rest of my life regretting what I have done," he said.

After Colson's 12-minute statement to the judge, his lawyer spent a full half-hour asking that Colson be placed on probation rather than be sent to prison.

Attorney David I. Shapiro stated Gesell that Colson should not be sent to prison because of "public expectations."

BEATING DEAD HORSE
He said sending Colson to prison "would be, in my view, a most popular decision. It would also be a terribly shortsighted one."

The judge interrupted him saying, "You're barking up the wrong tree... you are beating a dead horse." Gesell said public opinion would not sway him one way or the other.

As he sentenced the defendant, Gesell said, "The court does recognize that Colson's public image was somewhat distorted" but that he had to send him to prison.

The sentence means that Colson must serve at least one year at an institution not yet designated. The judge gave him until July 8 to surrender.

Colson had been charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice and obstructing justice in the Watergate cover-up case and with conspiracy to violate the civil rights of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist in the plumbers case. Both those charges were dismissed today.

DEFAME, DESTROY
Colson pleaded guilty on June 3 to a newly drawn charge of obstructing justice.

In that plea he admitted that in 1971 he concocted and carried out a scheme to "defame and destroy the public image and credibility" of Daniel Ellsberg, then nearing trial in the Pentagon Papers case.

Colson said "the President on numerous occasions urged me to disseminate damaging information about Daniel Ellsberg, including information about Ellsberg's attorney and others with whom Ellsberg had been in contact."

LORD'S WILL

In the courtroom during the sentencing were Colson's wife, Patricia, and members of the prayer group he joined after his recent religious conversion. Among them was Sen. Harold

Hughes, D-Iowa.

Outside the court, Colson made a brief statement to reporters. "I just want to say one thing and that's all I'm going to say: I've committed my life to Jesus Christ. I can work for the Lord in prison or out of prison and that's what I intend to do," he said. "What happened today is the Lord's will and the court's will."

He said that people has misunderstood his guilty plea as an attempt to reduce a possible sentence.

The World At-A-Glance

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Three rare white Bengal tiger cubs were watched around the clock by anxious zoo officials today. There are only two other white Bengals in the United States and only 30 are known to exist, zoo officials say. The three plus and orange brother were born Thursday to 8-year-old Kesari, and orange descendant of the first white tiger brought to the United States.

POPULARVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Tractors made in Russia are up for sale in places where most farmers equate communism with the Devil. "I thought there might be a backlash, but so far we haven't heard the first whisper," said T. J. McBride, a tractor dealer from Bessemer, Ala., one of four dealers who have already signed up to sell the Soviet tractors. Others are from Pica-yune, Miss.; Bowling Green, Ky.; and Poplarville, Miss.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel says its search for peace in the Middle East will not prevent it from continuing to strike at Arab terrorist groups that kill Israeli citizens. A statement from the Israeli Foreign Ministry said Israel would continue efforts to speed the peace making process but would keep on striking against the terror organizations responsible for "the murder of Israeli civilians." A guerrilla spokesman in Beirut claimed that Israeli raids Thursday on five Palestinian refugee camps in Lebanon killed 27 refugees and wounded 94.

Briscoe Presents Award To Stanton

Stanton was presented the Texas Community Achievement Award by Gov. Dolph Briscoe at a luncheon in Austin culminating the Beautify Texas Council's annual meeting.

Briscoe made the presentation to Stanton Mayor Cecil Bridges, Mrs. Edna Linder, who put together the winning scrapbook and State Representative E. L. Short.

Nineteen other Stanton residents attended, going by a chartered bus. The win was for towns of 2500 or less. They were recognized for having done the most toward beautification and environmental improvement.

Attending from Stanton were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Corky Blocker, Mr. and Mrs. Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Neill, David Pinkerton, Roger Burch, Tom Ed Angel, Mr. and Mrs. Don Tollison, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. Linder, Mr. and Mrs. Paige Eiland and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hanson.

Knuckle Under To Briscoe

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Constitutional Convention delegates knuckled under to Gov. Dolph Briscoe today and voted 105-27 against enabling the legislature to call itself into special session.

The legislator-delegates had wanted this power, but they yielded to arguments that the governor's support was necessary to win voter approval of a new Texas Constitution.

"I am offering this amendment as a practical matter to gain support for the constitution," said Rep. Carl Parker, D-Port Arthur.

When the convention considered the legislative article the first time around several months ago, a sizeable majority voted to give lawmakers the power to call special sessions by means of a petition signed by two-thirds the members of each house.

Briscoe contended this would swing the balance of power among the branches of government too far in the legislature's favor.

Robbers Arrested

HOUSTON (AP) — Two East Texas men were arrested today in connection with the armed robbery of a Houston jewelry store. Police and Department of Public Safety intelligence agents recovered $40,000 in jewels.

The Department of Public Safety in Austin said one man was from Diboll, the other from Corrigan. Names were withheld pending the filing of charges. A sawed off shotgun, stolen in the burglary of a Houston department store last year, also was seized. The DPS said the men also were wanted for questioning about other robberies and burglaries.

Liotta Moving To Randolph

Col. Robert Liotta, wing commander at Webb AFB, is being transferred to Randolph AFB in San Antonio as assistant deputy chief of staff — operations of Air Training Command.

Col. Liotta has been ordered to report for his new duties July 20.

Col. Robert A. Owens, currently commander USAF Instrument Flight Center at Randolph, will assume command of the 78th Flying Training Wing here.

Col. Roy Ginder, formerly commander of the 83rd Flying Training Squadron; Col. Whitcomb Jones, Deputy of Logistics; and Col. Russell Knoebel, commander of the 78th Student Squadron, are also being transferred to Randolph this summer.

Col. Ginder will become the Assistant Base Commander of the 12th Flying Training Wing. Jones will inherit the job of Chief of Logistics, 12th Flying Training Wing, while Col. Knoebel will become Director of Operations Service, ATC headquarters.

Cowboy On Comeback Trail New Bronc-Riding Leader

By TROY BRYANT

Thursday night's Rodeo action was fast and furious, but marks were equalled or bettered in only two of the six events, in spite of the perfect weather and around 2500 fans cheering in the stands at the Rodeo's Webb AFB night.

Shawn Davis, a Montana cowboy with a winter home in Lewisville, Texas, scored a total of 81 in saddle bronc competition, to take the lead in the event while Donnie Bowles of Burkburnett downed a steer in 5.1 seconds equaling the mark set the night before by Eugene Smith of Talco, Texas.

Davis, former World Champion Bronc rider, is on the comeback trail after suffering a broken back while riding, and has worked his way back into the top ten money winners so far this year. The 81 score topped the high score of Wednesday night, a 74 scored by J. S. Bonine of Hysnam, Montana, and was one of the highest scores given to a bareback rider on the Rodeo circuit this year.

WEBB WINS
Webb Air Force Base's Supply Squadron took top honor in the Webb AFB Calf Dressing event, as they beat some six other units in putting a pair of drawers on a calf and taking him across a predetermined line.

The event will be held again during tonight's show, with the unit with the best combined time to take on a group of nurses Saturday night for possession of the traveling AFB Rodeo trophy.

In other events, Rusty Riddle scored the top mark for the night in bareback riding with a 64 score, not good enough to overtake Wednesday's best score of 70 by Chris Ledoux of Kaycee, Wyoming. Lloyd Robinson of Odessa scored a 58 and Bob Wilfong of Palo Pinto scored a 56. They were the only three to compete their ride on a bareback Thursday night.

In calf roping, Roy Burk of Duncan, Okla., wrapped a calf in a 10.7 time to move into second place in that competition behind Mike Pettigrew of Clovis, N. M. who had a 10 flat time Wednesday night.

Sam Brown of Adrian and Buddy Lytle of Addintion, Okla. moved into third place with identical 11.3 times in calf roping.

Jim Ed Brown and his troupe of musicians performed another great show for the Rodeo crowd, his last for this year as Barbara Fairchild will be the entertainment at Friday and Saturday night's Rodeos and dances.

LAMESAN WINS
Lynn Schmidt of Lamesa, turned in the best time in Thursday's round of the barrel racing event with a 17.45 time, just better than Wednesday's winner, Delyssa Trotter of Midwest City, Okla. who turned in a 17.96 time Thursday.

In Bull Riding, Bobby Ball of Lubbock and Jack Faulk of Carlsbad, N.M. each scored Thursday's night's best of a 69 in the bull riding event, as they tied for third place so far behind Butch Kirby of Greenville, Texas who scored a 76 Wednesday and Bo Ashorn of Houston who scored a 70.

Roy Burk of Duncan, Okla., is leading the first go-round of the roping with a 9.6 followed by a tie for second and third between Mike Pettigrew, Clovis, N.M., and Tooter Waite, Stephenville, with 10 flat and Milo Abercrombie of Richmond is fourth with a 10.3.

Leading in the averages on two calves is Waite with an 18.9.

Topping the first go-round in steer wrestling are Eugene Smith of Talco and Donny Bowles of Burkburnett tied for first and second with 5.1 with Rex Bland of McCaulley third with a 5.5 and Jim Middleton of Waco fourth with 6.3.

Tisdale Trial Opens Tuesday

Benjamin Thomas Tisdale, 48, is scheduled to go on trial in San Angelo Aug. 28 for participation in the Steve Currie murder of December, 1970.

Bond for Tisdale was set at $50,000 Thursday and the defendant was jailed in San Angelo.

Tisdale, who recently was released from a federal prison, also faces an indictment in Glasscock County's 118th District Court for the related ranch house robbery.

Judge Earl Smith will preside in the murder case, which was transferred to 31st District Court. Aubrey Stokes, a San Angelo lawyer, will represent Tisdale.

District Attorney Bob Moore said he will be prosecuting in the case with the assistance of District Attorney Frank Dickey, San Angelo.

Moore first became acquainted with the Currie cases while associated with Jones & Milstead, a local law firm which assisted in procuring Whitmer Jean Ballard. The Alpine district attorney and then District Attorney Wayne Burns also worked with the prosecution.

Ballard is serving a life sentence for the murder of Currie.

Lamesa Votes Saturday On Liquor Proposal

LAMESA — Some 601 absentee votes have been cast in the wet-dry election slated here Saturday, which is the largest number of absentees recorded in any election in Dawson County.

Big test is the highly emotional election to determine whether the sale of alcoholic beverages will be legalized within the city limits.

The polls will include four voting boxes in the courthouse and will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. The election judges emphasize that those listed on the voter registration list provided them by the tax office will be allowed to vote.

Box 1 is located in the Justice of the Peace office; Box 2 in the county agent's office; Box 3 in the tax collector's office; and Box 4 in the county superintendent's office.

The issue has failed twice here in recent years.

The proposal would allow Lamesa grocery stores to obtain a permit to sell beer. And package stores would be allowed with the city limits.

Dry factions organized efforts under the name "CALL" Citizens Against Legalized Liquor.

CALL has distributed bumper stickers which say "For the sake of my family, I'll vote dry."

The group has run advertisements in the Lamesa newspaper and has run about 250 radio spots this week.

All registered voters were contacted last week by CALL.

"We don't feel this proposal will bring any improvements to Lamesa," the Rev. Gerrold Lake, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Lamesa, said.

Israel Ybanez, who initiated the issue said Lamesa residents who want to buy liquor must go to Big Spring, Midland, Lubbock or Post.

"And since they have to go so far for one item," he said, "they go ahead and do a little extra shopping there."

Ybanez estimated that $75,000-$100,000 a year in liquor sales taxes are lost by Lamesa because liquor consumers buy elsewhere.

"If we allow liquor purchases in the city, then we will keep Lamesa money here. It will be great for our economy."

Ybanez said the wet movement is sponsoring radio announcements, newspaper ads and pamphlet distribution.

In January, the wet faction attempted and failed to get enough signatures on a petition to call an election.

The group began circulating petitions again in April and secured enough signatures to call Saturday's election.

Little Chance

High today and Saturday will be in the mid 90's. Low tonight about 70. Wind will be southerly from 10 to 20 m.p.h. It will be clear to partly cloudy with little or no chance of rain.

BRONC BUSTER BUSTED — Bob Doty of Abilene comes off the hard way in the bareback rodeo riding on the second night of the 41st annual Big Spring Rodeo. Quail Dobbs, rodeo clown, watches the spill from the background. There are two more performances tonight and Saturday at 8:30 o'clock at the rodeo arena.

WEBB COWBOYS — Two members of the Webb Hospital crew, headed by Lt. Mallory, get their calf down for the calf dressing contest at the rodeo here Thursday night. This particular animal played dead and drew a lot of sympathy from the stands and a lot of deleted expletives from the hospital crew before it got up and trotted off when it was all over. The supply squadron was the winner of the first round.

News Of Mexican Flights Bring Mixed Reactions

By JOHN EDWARDS
With one exception, local leaders interviewed today saw little connection between Texas International Airlines' attempt to add new flights elsewhere and petition to stop coming through Howard County Airport.

SUBSIDY DIVERTED
"This is another reason why Texas International is trying to drop points like Big Spring," R. H. Weaver, a local lawyer, commented.

Having begun with "communities like Big Spring," TXIA wants to discard these outlying areas "for international and large city points."

Texas International is subsidized by our government to serve areas like ours," Weaver said. "Now this subsidy goes to the West Coast and Mexico and Houston and Albuquerque," and the two U.S. Cities have adequate air service.

"I think it's unreasonable and unfair," Weaver concluded.
NOT BLAMED
"I don't blame them for expanding their system and getting new flights wherever they can," Robert J. Cook, a partner in Big Spring Aircraft Inc., said.

"I actually don't think it relates to Big Spring at all," Cook said. For these flights, DC-9s, large planes unlike the aircraft serving Big Spring, would be utilized.

VISITED MATZATLAN
"Well, I just came from Matzatlan. So all I can say is they need air carriers down there," Jimmy Taylor, president of First National Bank, said.

He said he could understand TXIA wanting longer flights but preferred they stay in Big Spring.

Ralph McLaughlin, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said he had a "question on why they started out serving Texas and now they're more interested in serving Mexico."

But McLaughlin saw little relevance of the application for new flights to the petition to discontinue Big Spring stops.

John Burgess, the local attorney contracted to fight the pull-out, thought it might indicate a trend of TXIA replacing east-west service with north-south flights.

"However, I don't think that application would affect this (petition for discontinuance) one way or another," Burgess said.

Coastal Points May Get Flights
HOUSTON (AP) — A request to supply new service to five resorts on Mexico's west coast was filed Thursday with the Civil Aeronautics Board by Texas International Airlines.

The Houston-based airline seeks an amended certificate to permit service to La Paz, Manzanillo, Mazatlan, Puerto Vallarta and Zihuatanejo. Texas International currently has service from Houston and other U.S. points to Mexico City, Monterrey, Tampico, and Vera Cruz.

In a separate application, Texas International also asked that it be authorized to provide non-stop service between Albuquerque, N.M., and Houston, a service not now provided by any airline.

Francisco A. Lorenzo, said the airline's successful development of traffic between the United States and Mexico "has contributed measurably to the dramatic financial turnaround of Texas International the past two years."

Yeager Moved To Lubbock

G. W. EASON

Patrolman Robert Yeager is in the intensive care unit at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock after being injured here Wednesday night while directing traffic at the rodeo.

He was struck down by a car at the intersection of W. 16th and Robin. A man in a car just behind the vehicle which struck Yeager jumped out, grabbed the police radio and summoned officers to the scene.

Police reported that the police radio suddenly said, "Break, break, break, somebody help. A police officer has been hurt here."

Yeager has never regained complete consciousness and is reported to be suffering from a concussion, hairline skull fractures. In addition, he was said to have been hemorrhaging late Thursday.

The police officer was transferred to the Lubbock hospital from Cowper Clinic Hospital here.

Reception Set For W. Eason

G. W. EASON

G. W. (Wyatt) Eason, a Big Spring octogenarian, will be honored with a reception at the TESCO Reddy Room from 2-6 p.m. Sunday on his 80th birthday.

He especially wants all of his Big Spring friends to know they are invited. "No invitation were sent out. I want a my friends to come and d want to overlook anyone."

Hosting the event will be his daughter, Mrs. Maurice Kerst of LaMarge, his granddaughter and his two great grandchildren. "That's my whole family," he stated.

Eason moved to Big Spring when a child on Jan. 1, 1903. He is an intricate part of Big Spring's early history.

He has a few firsts to his credit. He was driver of the first motorized fire truck in Texas, which was in Big Spring. He is shown here holding a picture of that truck.

He was the first traveling service man for Stokes and Walcott. His father had one of the first barber shops in Big Spring.

During World War I, Eason taught a mechanics' training course at the University of Texas to servicemen.

Eason brought a poem alone in announcing his 80th birthday reception. It's lengthy but the first verse is reprinted here:

"There's nothing whatsoever the matter with me. I'm just as healthy as I can be.

I have arthritis in both knees. And when I talk, I talk with a wheeze; My pulse is weak, my blood is thin, But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in."

"And I am awfully well for the shape I'm in and would like to see all of my friends. Sunday," the old time Big Springer added.

I have arthritis in both knees. And when I talk, I talk with a wheeze; My pulse is weak, my blood is thin, But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in."

UNCONTESTED DWI CASE

Hobby's Penalty: $100 Fine, Nine Months' Probation

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby has been fined $100 and given a 30-day jail sentence, probated for nine months, following his arrest on charges of driving while intoxicated.

Immediately after his court appearance Thursday afternoon here the lieutenant governor, accompanied by his wife, Diana, stood before newsmen and television cameras and asked Texans to judge him on his overall performance and not only on the arrest incident.

EXTREMELY SORRY
"Needless to say," Hobby stated, "I am extremely sorry about this incident. I hope the people of Texas will judge me on the basis of all my actions."

Hobby was arrested at 2:48 a.m. Thursday. He told officers he was taking Miss Ann Chisholm, 33, of London, England, back to her University of Texas lodging after a private picnic in the hills west of Austin.

COURT COSTS
Hobby appeared before Judge Mary Pearl Williams with his wife who had flown in from Houston early in the day. Mrs. Hobby smiled and chatted with reporters and positioned herself next to her husband as he spoke to reporters.

Hobby said he did not expect the incident to affect his political career.

Moments earlier, he stood with hands clasped behind him in front of Judge Williams' bench. His voice was barely audible.

Mrs. Hobby declined comment, except to say she thought Hobby's remarks adequately covered the matter.

Hobby paid the $100 fine in cash, plus $49 court costs and $90 probation fee.

Sheriff's officers took prints of all 10 of the lieutenant governor's fingers. There was considerable paperwork, including swearing to probation conditions such as "avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character," "drink no alcoholic beverages," and "work faithfully at suitable employment as far as possible." Hobby is president of the Houston Post.

He also had a 10-minute talk with his probation officer.

FRIEND OF FAMILY
The entire process, from the time the judge walked into the courtroom at 4 p.m. until Hobby left the courthouse, took 47 minutes.

Miss Chisholm, is a journalist doing research at the university for a biography of Nancy Cunard, the great-granddaughter of the founder of Cunard Steamship Lines. Miss Cunard died in 1965 at age of 68 after years of championing civil rights for blacks.

Hobby, 42, said Miss Chisholm was a friend of the family. She said she met him last week and saw him for the second time Wednesday. They left his Northwest Austin home between 8 and 9 p.m. for the picnic, she said.

A university student from Houston working on a master's degree in library science, whom Miss Chisholm identified as Kay Peters, lives in a garage apartment behind the Hobby home. Miss Chisholm said Miss Peters declined to go on the picnic.

REFUSED TEST?
Police say Hobby refused to take a Breathalyzer test, which would have indicated the amount of whatever alcohol he had in his blood.

A justice of the peace could suspend Hobby's driver's license if he determines Hobby indeed refused to take the test.

School Budget Workshop Attended By New Supe

Dr. Emmett McKenzie, new superintendent of schools, attended his first board meeting as a visitor Thursday night at a budget workshop at Supt. Sam Anderson's office.

Dr. McKenzie is moving into a home at 4300 Morrison, temporarily until a new home he is purchasing is completed. He officially begins duties July 1 with Anderson's retirement official August 1.

Don Crockett, assistant superintendent of business, told board members here Thursday that there are strong rumors that the governor may call a special session to consider upping the Average Daily Attendance per capita figure which would change the local school budget picture as much as $240,000 if it occurs.

He also informed the board that the paper shipment for next year has arrived early and is on a siding at the railroad. The $20,000 worth of paper will need to be paid for prior to the beginning of the budget year.

Roy Watkins, board president, asked the cost of the paper and learned that it was up from $13,000 to $20,000 for the same amount of paper.

Jim Bill Little, board member, quipped, "Are we using both sides?" Crockett added that "We may have to start seriously thinking about economizing on such things as paper, utilities and in other fields of the budget."

The board also discussed the board also discussed the Rannels, agreeing that they will try to absorb the program into their home economics program since the state would insist on costly improvements and equipment to keep the present program.

GUNS AT YOUR HEAD AS YOU LIE DOWN ON PAVEMENT It Is A Frightening Experience

(AP WIREPHOTO via cable from London)

SENTENCED — Christopher John Graham, 18, an unemployed laborer, received two concurrent life sentences Thursday after pleading guilty in Manchester, England, to rapping the secretary of Princess Anne and a doctor's wife and attempting to rape a third woman.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Driving down U.S. 101 south of Santa Barbara, Linda Lipsett, her husband Don and a female friend were trying to figure out why a Highway Patrol car had tailed them for 20 miles. Suddenly another patrol car appeared behind them and then a sheriff's car shot off a ramp, followed by another patrol car. Mrs. Lipsett remarked, "Boy! They're really after somebody." She was right. Officers thought the Lipsetts and their friend were Patricia Hearst and her two Symbionese Liberation Army captors-turned-comrades. Moments later, terrified and bewildered, the three were lying face down on the pavement, seven officers holding pistols and rifles on them. Mrs. Lipsett said they pleaded with the officers to explain what was happening but were told, "Be quiet." The explanation came minutes later. "We thought you might have been Patty Hearst and Emily and William Harris," an officer said. Their identities established, the Lipsetts and their friend, Katie Rowland, stood up and brushed off their clothes. "We were absolutely panicked," Mrs. Lipsett said. "We thought they were going to shoot us."

Other Californians have had similar experiences during the police search for the Harrises and Miss Hearst, the newspaper heiress who was kidnapped Feb. 4 and is now sought as an SLA terrorist. The FBI says it has no clues to the trio's present whereabouts. The last confirmed sighting was at an Inglewood, Calif., sporting goods store on May 16, the day before six other SLA members died in a fiery shootout with authorities in Los Angeles. Police say they don't know how many people they have stopped since. Some persons are merely questioned briefly and released.

Others are held at the gunpoint until police establish their identities. Steve Thorp, 25, who owns a van and lives in Los Angeles Topanga Canyon, said he was stopped twice, and the second time police "tore apart" the van looking for evidence. A Pasadena Star-News reporter was stopped by officers from three squad cars and four motorcycles after he and his wife, while in a coffee shop, showed interest in a newspaper headline about the three fugitives. Whether a police officer draws a weapon on a Patricia Hearst look-a-like "depends how strongly he feels she looks like Patty," said a Los Angeles police spokesman, Lt. Dan Cooke. "Once it's been established they're not who we're looking for, we try to explain the necessity for the guns. Some understand. Others are outraged." Cooke said almost everyone stopped has acknowledged the need for it. "We haven't received a single complaint," he said. Mark Rosenbaum, an attorney for the American Civil Liberty Union, disputed this, saying: "When the police say they don't receive complaints, that's nonsense. They complain, but not to police."

Bible School Signup Sunday

Pre-registration for Vacation Bible School at the Airport Baptist Church, 1208 Frazier, will be Sunday at regular Sunday School classes beginning at 9:45 a.m., according to Vacation Bible School principal Mrs. Shirley Ezell.

The Vacation Bible School is for youngsters from age two through grade six and will be held June 24-28 from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. each day. ALL BUCKLED UP AND READY TO GO — A group of student drivers getting in their driving time with instructor Sharon Green (left) receive such instruction as how to grip the steering wheel correctly, how to buckle the harness and how to check the warning lights before leaving for their driving session. Leann Mossholder, driver, is just about ready to go as Mary Griffin and Cindy Matthews look on.

THEY KNOW WHAT THEY'RE DOING Student Drivers Plentiful On Local Thoroughfares

By TROY BRYANT

Have you ever looked into your rear view mirror while driving down a city street to notice a driver's education car coming up behind you? If so, forget all you have heard about the risk involved in driving in the vicinity of a student driver; they are probably better drivers than you are.

That's what some 510 Big Spring youths are doing with some of their spare time early this summer as they prepare themselves for their driving test which may get them their unrestricted operator's license.

Driver's education classes at Big Spring High School are getting in their city driving time on local streets and highways as 12 cars of youngsters are undergoing instruction daily through the Big Spring driver's ed program, according to driver's ed coordinator C. W. Tanner.

OVERSEER

Tanner has the task of seeing that each of the 12 cars and 12 instructors each complete six driving sessions per day with a different group of three youngsters each day. A total of 510 students completed the classroom instruction portion of the Driver's Education program which is required for 16 year olds to receive their unrestricted operator's license.

Persons who do not complete driver's ed must wait until they are 18 to get their unrestricted operator's license.

Youngsters taking the driver's ed course range in age from 15 to 21, although those finishing the course before their 16th birthday must wait until they are 16 before taking their driving test.

The students have already gone through the driver's ed classroom instruction where they learned the traffic laws and basics of driving and on local streets and highways completed Department of Public Safety written signs and rules tests before they were allowed to advance to the driving instruction.

"In order to allow these students to get experience driving different autos, we shuffle the backup car into action now and then," Tanner said. "giving the students experience in driving different size cars as well as cars with different equipment." Classes begin each day at 7 a.m., with new driving classes beginning each hour on the hour until 2 p.m. except for the 12 to 1 hour when instructors go to lunch.

Each of the three students in the car at any one time gets 20 minutes of driving time and 40 minutes of observation time during the session.

SIX HOURS
Each student experiences a total of six hours driving time in order to pass the course. A total of one hour is spent on the parking lot practicing parking, two hours are invested in city driving, and two hours are spent on rural driving and on highways while one hour is used to cover special problems of the student driver.

After completion of the course, the students must still take a driving test administered by the Texas Department of Public Safety in order to get their unrestricted driver's license.

Cars used for driver's ed course are on loan from several local auto dealers including a backup car in case one of the regular cars breaks down.

The driver's ed program pays for insurance and upkeep on the cars, but local dealers loan the cars for use by the program at no charge.

Loaning cars this year are Pollard Chevrolet, Bob Brock Ford, Don Crawford Pontiac, Dewey Ray Chrysler, Jimmy Hopper Toyota, and Jack Lewis Buick.

For the driving portion of the driver's ed instruction, the students have been divided into three groups, the first group having finished the driving portion of the program already and the present group to finish on July 5. The final driving instruction group will finish on July 26.

House Overwhelmingly Passes $11.3 Billion Housing Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — As the nation experiences its worst housing slump in decades, the House has overwhelmingly passed an $11.3 billion housing and community development bill.

Thursday's 351-25 vote, the largest for any housing bill in recent history, showed a near-unanimous desire to funnel new money into hard-strapped cities and to get housing programs for the poor moving again.

Although the bill would leave dormant the subsidized construction programs the Nixon administration froze 18 months ago and would transfer the emphasis to leased housing for the poor, other sections in it were designed to stimulate the home financing industry and thus help the over-all housing industry.

'GOOD' BILL
"It's a good, modest bill," said House Speaker Carl Albert after the vote. "I think it's as good as we could get through that would be signed."

In a series of surprise votes on amendments offered by Republicans, the House attached two significant amendments to help the elderly and order the government to start spinning off its huge backlog of repossessed houses for "urban homesteaders" for rehabilitation.

BREAK FOR AGED
One amendment, by Rep. Robert H. Steele, R-Conn., would revive a popular direct loan program for construction of housing for the elderly. The Nixon administration stopped the program in 1969. Steele said the $1.5-billion revolving loan fund would provide for construction of 72,000 units specially designed for needs of the elderly.

When previously operated, the loans were offered to builders at 3 per cent interest. The Steele amendment calls for the interest to be adjusted to whatever the actual cost of the money to the government, which is at least double that.

Another amendment easily approved, offered by Rep. William M. Ketchum, R-Calif., would give the elderly a rent break by allowing them to deduct future increases in Social Security payments from the gross income.

The bill had provided for a minimum rent of 10 per cent of the gross income of elderly tenants in leased housing programs.

The homesteading amendment by Rep. Marjorie Holt, R-Md., was similar to one that Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez, D-Tex., had tried unsuccessfully to attach on the bill in committee.

HOMESTEADERS
It requires the Housing and Urban Development Department to resell repossessed homes for a token fee to urban homesteaders.

In some cities with experimental homesteading programs, the surplus houses are sold for as little as $1. In other, the sale price ranges up to $30,000.

The Holt amendment would require the homesteaders to occupy the single-dwelling houses for a minimum of five years and to bring them up to building code standards.

BURNING ISSUE Sugar Cane Growers, Union Workers Argue

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Air Control Board Thursday listened to opposing viewpoints from sugar cane growers and farm union officials concerning burning of sugar cane in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

The hearing officer indicated no decision will be reached until sometime next month on a request by the Valley Sugar Growers Cooperative for another one-year variance to state anti-pollution laws.

PICKET LINE
The sugar growers, who harvested about 25,000 acres of sugar cane during the past season, have requested permission to burn the sugar cane during the next harvest which will begin in early 1975.

Burning of the cane is actually a violation of anti-pollution laws unless the variance is granted.

Several members of the United Farm Workers Union set up a picket line outside Harlingen city hall Thursday during a break in the hearing.

Jack Nelson, general manager of the growers cooperative, said next year's crop cannot be harvested unless the variance is granted. He also asked the board to allow the growers to burn 100 acres at one time instead of the 70-acre limit imposed on them last year. He also asked that the local officials of the board be given more latitude in setting ground rules for the burning.

NUISANCE
Nelson also told the board that burning the cane in the field will not continue forever because machines will be available in about two years to harvest the cane without the burning to remove trash.

Jim Herrington, a lawyer for the farm union, objected to the granting of the variance because of possible damage to the environment and because the burning is reducing the number of jobs for farm workers.

Spot cards are awarded no value in the point count, yet they can be crucial in the play of the hand. One pip on a spot card spelled the difference between victory and defeat for South in his six heart contract.

Altho North was a passed hand, as soon as South heard a double raise from his partner, he was determined to go to slam. Why he checked on aces is something of a mystery, for the slam could be nearly ironclad if North was acesless, for that would place him with two missing kings and at least two queens, or a strong, trick-producing side suit. Since North was perfectly balanced, the slam depended on declarer losing no tricks in the diamond suit. This appeared to depend on a finesse, but declarer found a way to improve his chances considerably.

The key to the hand was the nine of diamonds. This potent card gave declarer a second chance to make the contract by means of a strip and endplay. In effect, it improved the odds from 50% — the diamond finesse — to a 75% possibility.

To prepare the ground, declarer won the first trick with the ace of spades, drew trumps in three rounds and eliminated spades by cashing the king and ruffing dummy's remaining spade. With the preliminaries completed, declarer cashed the ace and king of clubs, and then exited with a club.

Had East been forced to win this trick, declarer could have claimed the contract then and there, for that defender would either have had to concede a ruff-and-suff or lead a diamond into the jaws of dummy's king-jack. However, West won the trick. He was forced to return a diamond, since a black card would allow declarer to ruff in one hand and discard a diamond from the other, and now the nine of diamonds came into play. By allowing the diamond return to run to his hand, declarer, in effect, had an extra finesse — for the ten of diamonds. Had East produced the ten, declarer would have won and finessed West for the queen. As the cards lay, however, East was forced to play the queen, and declarer was home free.

John W. Wilbourns' Open House Monday

Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Wilbourn will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Monday, June 24. The couple will be honored with a family reunion at the Comanche Trail Park followed by an open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wells who reside at Hilltop Road and North Birdwell Lane. Friends and relatives are welcome to call Monday between the hours of 6 and 8 p.m. The event will be hosted by the couple's children.

John Wesley Wilbourn, son of Edward P. and Cora Ashury Wilbourn, was born July 10, 1904 in Garza County. He was reared in and around Post and Gail where his grandfather, the late J. I. Wilbourn, settled and built the first house and donated land for the cemetery at Gail, Borden County.

Several years later the family moved to the East Texas area, and there John Wesley met Miss Birdie May Pearce. They were married June 24, 1924 in Cash. Mrs. Wilbourn is the daughter of the late Jim Pearce and Myrtle Templeton Pearce of Brownwood. Mrs. Wilbourn was born and reared in Quinlan.

Eleven of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbourn's 12 children are still living. They are Wesley Elvin Wilbourn, Temple, Ariz.; Mrs. Lee Roy (La Fern) Pearce, Heavner, Okla.; J. I. Wilbourn, Mrs. Keith (Lois) Crawford and Mrs. Robert (Lola) Dale, all of Las Cruces, N. M.; Edward P. Wilbourn, El Dorado, Ark.; Jack Wilbourn, Midland; Merle

Pre-Nuptial Parties Continue

Two events this week climaxed a series of pre-nuptial events honoring Miss Karen Annette Coffee, bride-elect of Marvin L. Standerfer Jr.

Thursday's affair was a bridesmaids' luncheon hosted by Mrs. Ralph Caton and Mrs. Jimmy Ray Smith. Miss Coffee and her attendants were seated at oval tables appointed with china and silver and centered with arrangements of fruit, daisies and coral. Magnolia blooms and mixed bouquets were placed in other areas of the house.

Other guests were Miss Coffee's mother, Mrs. John R. Coffee; Standerfer's mother, Mrs. Marvin L. Standerfer Sr.; and Miss Coffee's grandmother, Mrs. John A. Coffee. Attending from out of town were Miss Fletcher Anderson, McKinney; Mrs. Louis Heinze and Miss Sarah Heinze, both of Arlington; and Miss Beth Piquet, Germantown, Tex.

An informal lingerie show was held Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Don Priddy, 2515 Ann, where hostesses were Miss Druanne Priddy, Miss Carol Boyd, Miss Kenda Harland, Miss Tonia Carol, Miss Kendra Dewesse and Miss Christi Miller.

The refreshment table was accented with an arrangement of colorful zinnias.

Men Gardeners Plan Convention

A discussion of the upcoming 42nd National Convention of the Men's Garden Club which will be held in Cortland, N. Y., Aug. 11-14, was held at the meeting of the Men's Garden Club at the home of Edward Cruz, 1907 Johnson.

The problems in Cruz's yard were discussed. The main problem was the lack of rain. Cruz showed slides of circus wagons in a parade in Milwaukee, the wagons can only be seen now in museums. The next meeting will be at the home of Bill Sneed, 3914 Parkway.

Rebekah Lodge Holds Initiation

Mrs. Loyd Arnold and Miss Darlene Reynolds were initiated as members of John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge 153 at Tuesday's meeting in the 100F Hall.

Mrs. Charles Leek, noble grand, presided, welcoming a guest, Miss Gladys Burnham of Freedom, Okla. Forty-six visits to the sick were reported.

Mrs. Jones Lamar presented a veteran's jewel to Mrs. E. A. Fiveash, marking 15 years of membership in the lodge.

Refreshments were served by a committee comprised of Mrs. O. L. Rodricks, Mrs. O. G. Burns, Mrs. Lee Thackrey and Mrs. Thelma Roberts.

Seventeen members having birthdays in June will be honored next Tuesday evening.

Lives It Up

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My 62-year-old mother who was recently widowed, has taken to running around with men. She joined some kind of "Senior Swingers Club." Her men friends have been seen by her neighbors and they have begun to talk.

I just can't understand what's come over my mother. She picks up men at the grocery store, at bingo, and at other social events.

She used to be a devoted Christian wife and mother, and my children adore their "Nana," but now she's disgracing our family. I spoke to her about this, and she said she figured she may not be around too many more years, and she wants to enjoy what's left of her life. Isn't this type of activity bad for a woman her age?

DESPERATE IN FORT PIERCE, FLA.

DEAR DESPERATE: A woman who has been a devoted Christian wife and mother doesn't become less of a Christian because she makes new friends and enjoys socializing. It could keep her young and healthy for many years. You are not "disgraced." A person can disgrace only himself. Mother is probably innocent of any wrongdoing, but some neighbors love to talk.

DEAR ABBY: I work days, so about six months ago I hired a nice middle-aged woman I'll call "Emma" to come in and look after my children.

The other day I noticed a long-distance call on my phone bill which neither my husband nor I had made, so I phoned Emma and asked her if she had made it. I stressed that I didn't mind if she had, I only wanted to know if there was a mistake on my bill (it was less than $4).

Emma said she knew nothing about it, so I called the telephone company and they took it off my bill. No problem.

Early the next morning, Emma's husband called to tell me that Emma was so upset over my "insulting accusation" that she couldn't work for me anymore.

Fortunately, I was able to replace her with no trauma to my children and very little inconvenience to myself, but I want to know if I did the wrong thing in questioning Emma.

CONCERNED
DEAR CONCERNED: If you're telling me like it was, you had every right to ask her, and she should not have regarded your question as "an insulting accusation."

DEAR ABBY: Our son recently married a girl in another city. None of our relatives or friends has ever met the girl, but many of them received announcements of the wedding and sent gifts.

Our son sent personal handwritten thank-you notes on behalf of both himself and his bride to all of the friends and relatives who sent gifts.

My daughter and her husband think it's the bride's responsibility to write all the thank-you notes.

His Dad and I (and some of the recipients) thought it was a nice gesture on our son's part. What is your opinion?

PUZZLED
DEAR PUZZLED: I'm with you. The bride usually writes the notes, but it's not necessarily HER "responsibility." It's THEIRS.

CONFIDENTIAL TO DIXIE: The way to get a boy is to make him a little jealous. The way to lose him is to make him a little more jealous.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 6790, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped self-addressed envelope, please.

The Only Commitment

With the resignation of Dr. Thomas T. Salter to accept an academic post at Weatherford College, Howard College trustees face the responsibility again of selecting a president for the institution.

As a line from the marriage vow put it, this is a matter not to be entered into inadvisedly. It is a matter of prime importance and calls for due consideration.

This post obviously calls for someone with adequate background, reasonable experience, ability and the promise of potential in the shaping and maintenance of a vigorous program.

This position should carry with it no commitment other than to make a dedicated effort to see that the college fulfills its mission to serve the people of this community in the best and most practical manner. Times and conditions may change, and so may the emphasis and programs, but the overall commitment to have here a tool for development of knowledge, skill and human personalities should be constant.

The college has experienced a growth during the past two years, also expansion of program. It is strong financially and otherwise. Priority, therefore, is not in compulsion of time but in finding the right person to fit this vital place of leadership.

Notions And Reason

Recently, Alger Hiss got a good, and you might say almost enthusiastic, reception at the A. J. Liebberg Counter Convention, a gathering of journalists who were of more than slightly liberal persuasion.

And this may point up that the arch-liberal suffers from the same malady as the arch-conservative. Both seem to be afflicted with a paranoid disregard for balance, logic and reason when any of these get in the way of preconceived notion.

Many may be too young to remember the Hiss case. An official in the state department, Hiss was accused of passing secrets via Whitaker

Chambers to the Soviet Union. He pleaded his innocence, but he was never able to shake the case against him. One backer who wanted desperately to believe in him said that "I felt a sensational press was stampeding our judicial processes, and that given his day in court, Hiss could prove himself a victim of a conspiracy headed by Whitaker Chambers. But my position crumbled before the facts."

In all the intervening years, Hiss has not been able to shed any further light in support of his claim, and after three decades of opportunity that certainly shouldn't make him the darling of rational people.

Deceptive Height

Around The Rim

John Edwards

Texas International Airline's attempt to terminate Big Spring from its schedule this week reminded me of my last trip on TXIA in September, 1973.

Having flown from Guadalajara to Dallas on a Mexican jet for $75, I paid about half that much for a TXIA flight to Big Spring from Dallas.

A man across the aisle looked out the window and wondered out loud how high we were. The mesquite and shinnery looked like trees, and I guessed 1,800 feet.

"No, you're wrong. It's closer to 18,000 feet," the middle-aged man in front interjected.

I used to jump out of airplanes at 1,250 feet while at Fort Benning, Ga., and I remember what that looked like.

"Let's ask the stewardess."

She didn't know. "Why don't you ask the pilot?" I said.

"Ask him yourself," the attractive brunette said and bounced off.

Later, she came back and told us 18,000 feet.

Annoying the stewardess seemed to be the most entertaining way to spend the trip. So I started asking her what she thought of not stopping at Big Spring anymore.

I forgot what she said. But she had not given it too much thought.

When we arrived at Howard County Airport, a deputy sheriff gave Roger Brown, who had been bird hunting elsewhere, and me free limousine service to downtown Big Spring.

Brown and I were the only passengers deplaning at Big Spring.

Write Your Column

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — The mailman keeps coming in every day delivering letters which indicate the country is polarizing on the impeachment issue. The Nixon supporters blame the whole thing on the press. The Nixon detractors say the press hasn't been tough enough. What to do?

AS SOMEONE who is always trying to please everyone, I believe I have a solution. I got it from the "unaudibles" on the presidential tapes. This column is the first one printed in a newspaper which will take care of both the pro-Nixon and anti-Nixon forces. You fill in the blanks any way you want to, which should satisfy everyone's desire for fairness.

RICHARD M. NIXON is probably the greatest — in American history. He began his political life as a —. When he was senator, Dwight Eisenhower chose him to be his Vice President. After working with Mr. Nixon for several years Eisenhower thought he was —.

Mr. Nixon ran for governor of California in 1962. When he was defeated he vowed he would —. In 1967 he ran for President of the United States on the Republican ticket. At that time he promised the American people to — and —. After being elected President he was able to — and —.

IN 1971 President Nixon decided to run again. To assure his re-election he told his staff to —. The staff members determined to show their loyalty to the President, took off after the Democratic hopefuls by —. They went so far as to —. Mr. Nixon was — of what they were doing. The organization set up to make sure Mr. Nixon would win was the Committee for the Re-Election of the President. It raised $ — million. Some of this money was given by —, some of it came from — and a lot of it was raised in cash by —.

AT THIS POINT in time, five men were arrested, breaking into Democratic headquarters at the Watergate. When President Nixon heard about it on — he was —.

Conflicting testimony by members of the White House staff led eventually to an impeachment inquiry by the House. The key evidence, as it turned out, did not come from John Dean, who is a —, but from tapes of conversations between the President and his staff. The President said these tapes were —, but the special prosecutor and the House Judiciary Committee said they were —.

UNDER GREAT pressure, the White House finally released transcripts of the tapes which showed the President to be — in the Watergate affair. They also indicated that President Nixon was a man of — character.

The President's lawyers announced that they would not provide a further evidence for the impeachment proceedings. This has led some people to think the President is — and other people to think he is —.

There is no doubt in anybody's mind that the President will be found — of the charges made against him.

NOW IF THIS column doesn't satisfy everyone, then I'm going to Paris.

"Actually, rumors of my being IN the doghouse are grossly exaggerated."

Renewed Interest In Dollar

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — That $2-billion surplus in the nation's balance of payments during the first three months of the year will likely contribute to an even further increase in the dollar's respectability.

In the eyes of foreigners, the dollar has been growing increasingly attractive in recent weeks, despite its frayed edges. Some of the petroleum exporting nations are becoming its big supporters.

Illustrating this, foreign bank deposits have been rising in recent weeks. Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. estimates that more than $1 billion poured into U.S. banks from foreign institutions in the 30 days to mid-June.

This increase, it said, brought the total second-quarter influx to about $3.5 billion. Among the reasons given for the renewed interest in the dollar was the high rate of interest offered.

The bank, which closely follows developments in foreign exchange, noted that the dollar now was firm against all other major currencies, and much stronger in relation to some.

The biggest gain noted for the period from May 13 to June 18 was against the German mark, about 4.75 per cent, and the Italian lira. Against the Japanese yen, the dollar gained 1.75 per cent.

In general, the improvement seems to indicate relatively greater confidence in the U.S. economy, despite its problems.

than in the economies of other industrial nations.

While serious imbalances exist domestically, they tend to pale when compared with the economic disruptions abroad. Inflation, for example, is at a lower rate in the United States than in many foreign nations.

Moreover, the wholesale prices of manufactured goods have been rising at a much greater rate in most industrial nations.

One of the reasons is the extremely high cost of energy in many nations that lack a domestic petroleum supply. Balance of payments deficits exist in Japan, France, Italy and the United Kingdom, partially because of higher oil prices.

Crazy Things About Warts

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My little girl has warts on her hands and face and they keep appearing. Is there a treatment, other than burning them off? She has so many that a doctor said he would have to put her under an anesthetic to remove them.

But what if they keep coming back? — Mrs. D.D.

Most treatment of warts involves removal by electrocautery or applying an acid to the warts, but warts are caused by a particular virus for which we have no preventive medication. So warts can come back after removal. Especially in children.

But there's a very curious thing about warts. For some strange reason, suggestion very often works — again, especially in children. I don't know why call it a manifestation of psychosomatic reaction if you wish, but putting a name on it doesn't explain it.

Anyway, touching the warts with some unusual object seems to have a happy effect. I have, for example, seen it work by rubbing warts at the same time each day with a shiny quarter. And the warts vanished.

No doubt almost anything else could be used just as well. Including the stump water and dead cat, or whatever it was that Huckleberry Finn used in Mark Twain's story.

Confessing as I do that I don't know the reason, I'd still suggest trying such a simple method before subjecting your little girl to more drastic procedures.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am planning a face-lift this year and have consulted two well-known plastic surgeons. One says he does a face-lift in his office (equipped like an operating room) and does the operation the first thing in the morning under total anesthesia, the patient going home late in the afternoon.

The second doctor does it in the hospital under local anesthetic and requires that his patients stay in the hospital three or four days.

The fees are about the same, but with the second doctor I would have the added cost of the hospital. I would feel safer with a local anesthetic but I am afraid to be "awake" during the surgery.

I am almost sorry I asked two opinions because now I am so confused. I hope you can help me make up my mind. — Mrs. J.H.

Don't know that I can give you a valid answer. Many qualified plastic surgeons have equipment and facilities in their offices; others prefer hospital facilities — and perhaps want to make sure a patient remains quiet for a few days until healing is well begun.

Diverticulosis is a bulge in the digestive tract. To learn more about it, write for Dr. Thosteson's booklet, "Don't Let Diverticulosis Throw You," care of the Big Spring Herald. Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

'Sugar-Coated' Wildlife

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A new television series, "Born Free," is what Joy Adamson calls a "sugar-coated" entertainment program on wildlife and conservation.

THE NBC SERIES is now filming in Kenya and is loosely based on the life of Mrs. Adamson and the cubs of Elsa the lion.

"We're concentrating on wildlife," said Mrs. Adamson, author of "Born Free" and "Living Free," and head of the Elsa Wild Animal Appeal.

"But it has to be sugarcoated to appeal to the public. It's not a documentary, it's entertainment. It's on conservation and will be as authentic as possible."

One reason it will have an air of authenticity is Mrs. Adamson. She has story approval, and on that score she is toughminded and demanding.

The series, from Columbia Pictures Television, stars Diana Muldaur and Gary Collins as Joy and George Adamson. Mrs. Adamson was here from a lecture tour for the Elsa Wild Animal Appeal but is now back in Kenya, where she moved from her native Austria in 1935 at age 25.

MRS. ADAMSON, 64, said all of the money from the series, as with profits from her books and the movies "Born Free" and "Living Free," will go into the Elsa Wild Animal Appeal.

Each episode will include material from her writings, fictional accounts of Elsa's cubs and work by the Adamsons in wildlife conservation. It will also include cultural aspects of the African people.

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

I am confused about what the Bible means in saying, "Our days are numbered." If so, how is that when some die, people claim whiskey or cigarettes killed them?

J.H. The Bible does not say exactly, "Our days are numbered." It does say that the "Hairs of your head are all numbered." (Matthew 10:30.) And then there's the suggestion, "Teach us to number our days." (Psalms 90:12.)

Since God knows all things, he is surely aware of the number of our days. To charge God, however, with the shortening or extension of life in every case is not warranted.

Of course, it is possible to hasten our death. For example, the Surgeon General's office has already pointed out how cigarettes may do this. In addition, many groups lately have been alarmed over the rise of alcoholism. It has become the nation's number one drug problem. The use of alcohol invites great misery and an early death.

Let me go back to that Psalm 90 reference and finish the statement. "Teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." Regardless of the number of days we have, the wisest investment of them is a life lived through faith in Christ — for the glory of God and in the service of our fellowmen.

A Devotion For Today . .

"Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep." (Romans 12:15)
PRAYER: Our Father, help us to love You and our fellow beings as Jesus loved. Teach us to believe that success in life consists in sharing the sufferings of others. In Jesus' spirit. Amen.

This dilemma concerning the NFL's player's strike probably deserves a column, or several, taking one side or the other and really ripping somebody up good for being greedy and unbending. I mean that's what a columnist is for, right, to kick up a lot of mess and make folks mad and all. And I'd probably get into it real good if I knew what it was all about.

As near as I can tell right now, and I wouldn't swear this is right, the players want more goodies and the owners don't want to give them to the players. That's pretty simple. The players, I think, want better pension benefits and better hospitalization coverage. In short, the players want "a bigger piece of the pie," as Tommy Hart explained it to me.

I guess that's understandable, a reasonably human response. After all, the owners certainly aren't having to go hungry these days. Still, it's hard for me to get all pumped up for either side right now. It's like picking sides between caviar and brussel sprouts.

If the players do decide to strike — and we won't know until mid-July, probably — then you can expect all sorts of spectacular things to happen. The most obvious is that there might not be a pro football season, at least not in the NFL.

That would tend to leave things wide open for the WFL, whose owners are seen snickering at any of the club offices across the country. If there were no NFL games to be lapped by the multitudes each Sunday, those addicted to the grid scene would flock to the new league like so many users trailing a junkie.

Not only that, but there would also be a noticeable resurgence at the college level, and I'd imagine that schools like SMU and Miami which have been suffering the last few years would find themselves suddenly rolling in fans — and money.

A few complications could develop: shaving commercials might have to turn to Billie Jean King and Little Current in the fall, and the sale of anti-pro football novels will tail off dramatically.

I confess, I'm sort of enjoying the predicament — I think every pro sport right now needs this kind of kick in the head. But alas, I can't say I really think it'll happen. I mean, those folks aren't going to let that kind of money slip away — on either side of the wall — not even for a principle.

The owners will give a little, and the players will give a little, and in the end the fans will give a lot because I'd imagine its just like everything else — the big guy is going to pass his loss on the consumer.

In a few weeks everybody'll get together in camp, a couple of weeks late but happy nonetheless and patting everybody on the back and saying good things about everybody. Besides, they'll all get a lot of publicity out of it. Nobody hurt, both sides just scared a little. And a lot of fans disgusted by the whole thing.

Kiwanis Nabs 8th Victory; Lions Roll

Dick Battle stined on the mound and Pat Carroll provided all the fire power needed as the undefeated Kiwanis rolled to an 11-3 decision over the Big Spring Hardware in Hi-Junior action Thursday.

Battle allowed two hits in claiming the victory, the Kiwanis' eighth of the year. Carroll slammed a home run and a double to spark the team's 12-hit effort, while Gary Roberts and Andy Anderson smacked three singles apiece and Kim Wrinkle added a pair.

Clarence Palmer, Phil Wood and Ray Don Box had good defensive efforts for the winners. Battle, who fanned seven, is now 4-0.

Mark Moore suffered the loss for BS Hardware as the team slipped to 3-6.

In the Sophomore League, the Lions rallied for seven runs in the last inning and scored a 10-3 decision over the Giants.

Phils' Schmidt Rips Mets; Rangers Thump Angels, 7-4

Jerry Koosman shook off Jerry Grote. Then Mike Schmidt shook up Jerry Koosman.

Picking on a Koosman curve ball, the Philadelphia slugger belted a ball to the base of the center field wall before Dave Schneck hauled it in.

That out preserved a 2-1 victory for the New York Mets Thursday night but left Koosman shaking his head.

"It was a tough, exciting game and I should have made better pitches," said Koosman after giving up 11 hits to the National League East leaders.

"There were pitches they should have hit and didn't. It was a struggle."

Koosman was in trouble down to the end, when the Phillies had a man on first and second base with two out and the dangerous Schmidt at the plate.

With the count three balls and one strike, New York catcher Clete called for a fastball and then a curve, but Koosman decided against both.

"If Schmidt is going to beat me, it's going to be with an

WFL Gets Good 'Exposure'

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Quarterback Norris Weese of Mississippi, lineman Paul Velano of Maryland, and Gary Baccus of Oklahoma see the 14th Coaches All-America Football game Saturday as a chance to put the spotlight on the fledgling World Football League.

"It's good for the image of the WFL that we are here on the same field with the National Football League players," said Weese, a quarterback on the East roster who will play for Hawaii.

"It's good exposure for the WFL," said Velano, who has signed a contract with the Orlando Blazers.

Orlando and Hawaii will clash July 10 on one of the WFL's Wednesday night openers with Weese and Velano as opponents.

"We started practice June 1 with 111 candidates and you would be surprised at the amount of work we accomplished," Weese said. "Of course, we won't be as polished as NFL teams the first year but it will come."

Baccus, a defensive lineman who disdained an offer from the New York Jets of the NFL, will also play for Hawaii.

"I was surprised how organized everything was in camp," Baccus said. "I didn't think it would be as smooth. Our coach (Mike Giddings) was hospitalized with a hip infection and that hurt some. All practice sessions are filmed and rushed to him at the hospital. He then relays messages on what we're doing wrong."

Baccus said, "I came here because I'm from nearby Brownfield, Tex., and I wanted to show America the WFL has some football players, too."

Baccus said everything hasn't been 100 per cent perfection in the WFL camps.

"We're at Riverside, Calif., and the smog is pretty bad," Baccus said. "Maybe, that's why Weese was issued lime man's shoulder pads when he showed up."

The East-West game featuring some of the finest graduated collegiate talent will be televised at 7:30 p.m. CDT Saturday from Jones Stadium, which has been an oven all week in 100-degree heat.

Johnny Majors of Pittsburgh is the head coach for the East while Barry Switzer of Oklahoma tutors the West. The West holds a 7-6 series lead. Switzer has introduced heavy doses of passing in the West practices, abandoning his Wishbone-T for a Slot I offense.

IN ALL-AMERICA GAME SATURDAY

Warren, Daryl Anderson and Ben Watson had doubles. For the Devils, Kenneth Owens had a pair of hits. Harold Danford was the losing pitcher. The Cards now stand 13-5 and the Devils are 1-16-1.

In the American League, the Hawks turned back the Cabots 8-3 but still remained in last place in the AL. The Hawks made three hits, by Blake Rosson, Mike Robinson and Gregg Franklin, go a long way in taking their third season win against 16 defeats. Stacy Reynolds was the winning pitcher.

The Cabots also had three hits, and fell to 5-14 on the year. Richard Moncus was the loser.

ABA Takes Over Tams

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The financially troubled Memphis Tams belong to the American Basketball Association again.

The league bought the club from Charles O. Finley Thursday, and reacted mildly to the rival National Basketball Association's seeming disinterest in league merger.

ABA Commissioner Mike Stoba said after the league trustees' closed-door meeting that he regretted Finley had decided to leave professional basketball. The league had controlled the Tams' operations briefly before Finley purchased the club two years ago.

Finley said he was unable to continue operating the team because of health reasons. He said, however, that he would continue to direct baseball's Oakland A's, two-time World Series champions. He sold his professional hockey team, the California Seals, after suffering a heart attack in August 1973.

OILERS LOSE TO MIDLAND; BLUE ANGELS GET VICTORY

The Big Spring Oilers dropped an 8-1 Miss Softball America Senior League decision to Midland here Thursday, despite a home run by Dale Johnson and the mound work of Kim Traiwick. Pam Peterman was Midland's winning pitcher.

In a Major League game, the Blue Angels toppled the Bill Wilson Oil Co. Streakers 16-8 with Tammy Webb taking the loss, and in the Minors it was Security State Bank Starlets 21, Ed's 66 Phillies 12; Al's Barbecue Texas Belles 9, Tommy Gage Fina Flashers 7; Perco Panthers 17, Dairy Queens 9; and Pioneer Gas Pioneers 9, Price Pavers Academies 4.

Elise Wheat outpitched Laurie Madigan in the Starlets-Phillies clash, and a grand slam home run by LaFern Motl helped the Belles and Valerie Jackson over the Flashers, who had Laurie Brock on the mound. Leslie Rogers was the Panthers' winner and Linda Bledsoe the loser for the Queens, while Shirley Shanks topped the Pioneers to their triumph.

Wife Helps Floyd's Golf

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — "I have more dedication, more devotion to the game of golf," Ray Floyd explained of his resurgence on the pro tour. He nodded his head toward a girl sitting a few feet away and added:

"And I owe most of that to my cute little wife over there."

Floyd, once the game's premier playboy but now a recent bridegroom, is trying to play his way out of a five-year slump.

He took a giant stride Thursday with a five under par 65—incubating a course-record 29 on the front side—for a one-shot lead in the $170,000 American Golf Classic.

Floyd, who once ranked among the game's most promising young players, led Buddy Allin, already a two-time winner who birdied two of his last three holes for a 66.

Jerry McGee had a 67, Jim Ferriell a 68, two under par, on the 7,190-yard Firestone Country Club course, one of the longest, toughest, most demanding layouts the touring pros encounter.

Those at 69 included Forrest Fezler, Gay Brewer, Jim Simmons, Ed Sneed, Larry Ziegler and host pro Bobby Nichols.

Arnold Palmer had a 70, Tom Weiskopf 71 and defending title holder Bruce Crampton of Australia a 72. Newly-crowned U.S. Open champion Hale Irwin blew to a fat 77.

Floyd has been in a deep slump since his banner year of 1969. As a 26-year-old that season he won three times, including the PGA National Championship and a record-setting 268 in this tournament. He collected $109,000 that season and was hailed as a coming superstar.

But he hasn't won since.

Crestview Baptists Delegation Returns From River Mission

PAUL DE LA TORRE and the Galileans

By MARJ CARPENTER
Crestview Baptist Church just completed a missionary trip to the Rio Grande River Vacation Bible School.

The local delegation helped last week in Presidio at the Mission Baptist Church. They painted the inside of the building, laid acoustical tile and hung curtains in addition to teaching vacation Bible school.

Those making the trip included the Rev. Jim Wilkerson, Bert Ferrell, Daryl Martin, Nina Carr, David Stevens, Kim Daniel, Pete and Mildred Horn, Ramona Walker, John, Martha, Diane and Donna Markle, and Linda, Loraine, Warren and John Stevens.

Christ Ambassadors, will be involved in the campaign, along with all of the church that want a part in simply meeting people and getting acquainted.

"We have a friendly, growing church," commented Pastor Calvin, "and we want to extend that friendliness and warmth to those outside the church also," he said.

A bus route will be established through the Friendship Campaign for all those who want to attend Evangel Temple with regular pick-up stops.

"We have a special interest in all age-groups," said Reverend Calvin, "and we are interested in getting acquainted with everyone," he said.

Evangel Temple just closed a very successful Vacation Bible School and are following up VBS with this "Friendship Campaign."

Baptist Temple Church met last Thursday with Mrs. E. T. White and Mrs. Nannie Garrett as hostesses.

New officers elected include Mrs. Olean Melton, president; Mrs. Ross Hill, outreach leader; and group leaders, Mrs. Ealy Jackson, Mrs. Ethel Simpson, Mrs. Gean Culpepper, and Mrs. Oren Martin, social chairman; and Mrs. Illetta Petersen, extension leader.

Mrs. Bob Wren opened the meeting in prayer with Mrs. Attie Hill giving the devotional on the power of prayer and presented a skit on Silver Threads among the gold.

Special guests included Mrs. Dottie Atock, and associate members, Mrs. Wren, Mrs. Mabel Kirkland and Mrs. Otto Couch.

Hostesses were Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. E. Jackson and Mrs. Winifred Wood.

'How Great Thou Art' Now Tops Favorite Hymn List

NEW YORK — "The Old Rugged Cross" is not quite so rugged anymore. It has been nosed out on the hymn hit parade by a song that is not even in most hymnals — "How Great Thou Art."

"The Old Rugged Cross" is still in there as No. 2, however, which was No. 1, and "How Great Thou Art," which was 2. In the most recent sampling of public opinion about a total of 492 hymns, "Amazing Grace" ranked third after "How Great Thou Art" and "The Old Rugged Cross." Next came "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "In the Garden." Another old favorite, "Rock of Ages" was sixth.

Of special note was the fact that while there is much "new music" in the church, none of it has set people to humming like the old-timers have and, therefore, none has turned up on the lists of individuals and church members who participated in the poll.

The popularity of "How Great Thou Art" was attributed by the editors of The Christian Century to the Billy Graham Crusades, which feature the song as presented by the choir and used in congregational singing over radio and television and during mass religious rallies.

EVANGEL TEMPLE Assembly of God, 2205 Goliad, Big Spring, will conduct their first "Friendship Campaign" beginning Saturday June 22.

"Our purpose in this friendship effort is a door-to-door ministry in simply making friends for our church," explained Reverend Calvin, Evangel Temple pastor.

GETTING CAUGHT!

When the jelly disappeared from the refrigerator, when a baseball shattered the window, when Mother discovered the stray cat sleeping in her washbasket . . . like a magnetic needle the accusing finger of my parents pointed toward me.

It's a crushing experience to get caught. But it can teach us a vital lesson. We soon discover a sense of responsibility and learn our obligation to others. Our true identity emerges.

The Church stands ready to help us learn responsibility. Through religious education youth today can still discover personal identity—while gaining a responsible view of man's obligations to God and to society.

Land-Use Plan Measure Fittingly Bites The Dust

OMAR BURLINSON, M.C.
17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Contrary to what some people may expect, a good thing happened in Washington last week. The so-called Land Use Planning Act was defeated on a procedural vote by 211 — to — 204.

This does not mean the end of the effort but it may be some time before it is tried again. The Senate had already passed the measure, and it may have a re-run if the sponsors feel they have a chance.

The land use planning act is much like the environmental protection act. This EPA measure came to passage as a "Mr. Clean" proposition. As stated here before, everyone is for clean air, clean water, and clean everything, but this Agency is violating basic human rights and under its rule-making power strikes at our free enterprise system and a takeover of local and State government responsibility.

The public's desire for a healthy environment and the intent of Congress to enact a reasonable approach has been twisted by rules and regulations into a bureaucratic overlord of individual citizens and whole communities.

It is almost unbelievable the dictatorial orders imposed by the Environmental Protection Agency against some areas of the country where it has found pollution the worst. The Houston Chronicle recently described the threat of this agency to impose economic sanctions against the whole city unless people formed into car pools and buses as a part of controlling pollution. The EPA ordered firms with 1,000 or more employees to reduce parking spaces and force workers to pay $1 a day fine plus a fee for driving to work.

Other major cities are confronted with an edict to eliminate downtown parking, denying license plates for automobiles with excess emissions, and to curtail construction of facilities of any kind which might contribute to air pollution. In other words, the agency acts as the policeman, the jury, and the judge with orders resembling a dictatorship.

While some cities such as Indianapolis, Ind. are trying to revitalize their downtown area, the EPA comes along and attempts to prohibit new construction, enforce anti-parking rules, and plow under downtown development, insisting it has the final decision.

The land use legislation could hardly do more to take away a property owner's rights than this. Like so many other

Child Care Change Urged

HOUSTON (AP) — A consultant with the Texas Department of Public Welfare says a time limit on licenses for child caring facilities allows better enforcement.

Carolyn Busch called the Texas law on licensing of the facilities "outdated, ambiguous in its scope and definitions."

She said Wednesday Texas is the only state that issues licenses that remain valid until it is revoked.

She suggested a new statute include provisions for temporary licenses and she recommended the addition of a penalty for operation of a day care facility without a license.

She was among those presenting papers during a Texas Day Care Licensing Forum sponsored by the DPW and the Governor's Office on Early Child Development.

The forum was the last of four held in different parts of the state to discuss what should be included in a new day care licensing statute expected to be introduced in the next Texas legislative session.

About 80 persons from Central and East Texas attended the Forum.

Joyce Wilson, on the governor's staff and a DPW consultant, noted that the present licensing law has no reference to private pre-school education facilities such as nursery school and kindergartens.

ACC Sets New Degree

ABILENE — Abilene Christian College will offer a degree in youth ministry for the first time during the 1974 fall semester, according to Dr. J. D. Thomas, ACC professor and head of the Department of Bible.

The youth ministry degree is part of the religious education program at ACC. It is geared to those interested in majoring in the youth ministry or to those who want to include a knowledge of youth ministry in their religious education program.

Dallas Pays For Cop Shots

DALLAS (AP) — The city of Dallas, after first refusing, has decided to pay a $50 bill for hepatitis shots given to two police officers exposed to the disease in the line of duty.

Tom Witt of the city's health and safety office previously had refused to pay the expenses. He said the city would not pay for medical expenses in hepatitis exposure in cases where officers washed their hands immediately.

He said immediate washing of hands removed the risk of "valid exposure."

Both officers, Donald McCarrell, 36, and Pat Bunge, 24, washed their hands following the March 8 arrest of a motorist who had infectious hepatitis.

The officers were ordered by their sergeant to a hospital for a check-up, a routine procedure. While at the hospital, doctors said the officers should get shots.

The Dallas Police Association (DPA) paid the $50 bill for the shots as a protest.

But late Wednesday, M. L. Norwood, director of fiscal affairs for the police department, was told the city would pay the bill, according to Lt. Charles Burnley, president of the DPA.

Norwood said the city's decision probably would be a precedent for any future cases.
