

'The Old Man' Born Only 34 Years Ago

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — "The Old Man" was born only 34 years ago.

Although his nickname belied his age, it was a tribute to Fred Gomez Carrasco's standing in the violent narcotics underworld of South Texas where the Mexican connection for heroin and cocaine is first joined.

Violence and Fred Carrasco have been like hand and glove, despite Carrasco's statement once to reporters that "I'm a farmer and rancher."

The first entry on his police record is an arrest at age 15 for misdemeanor theft. Four years later, he graduated to murder and was sent to prison.

In and out of prison since then both here and in Mexico, Carrasco chose to fight again Wednesday. He was identified as being the leader of a group of convicts at the Texas Department of Corrections in Huntsville who Wednesday seized guns and hostages.

How he got to Huntsville this last time was by way of violence. He was serving a life term for assault to murder of a police officer in a bloody shootout a year ago at San Antonio's El Tejas Motel.

The capture ended a manhunt which had continued as Carrasco's underworld associates kept turning up dead. One theory was that Carrasco triggered the violence as revenge for the associates' trifling with his empire before he escaped a Mexican prison in late 1972.

"This man is rocking the hell out of the boat," said one investigator during the apparent purge.

His actions were more a proof of violence than Carrasco's chubby appearance, choirboy face and soft Spanish voice in the courtroom.

Narcotics agents familiar with his operations disagreed on how big his empire was but they were unanimous on his severe temperament. One said he hated "gringos" and dealt only with his own race.

"In fact," said a U.S. Customs agent, "he fancies himself as a bandito; the Machismo thing is big. He's done his own killing."

Jailing him last year didn't stop his operations, according to a federal indictment which charged him and eight others with operating his dope ring from behind bars in county jail. There were some who said the last words had not been written about Carrasco when he pleaded guilty in January to assault to murder and was whisked to Huntsville in an apparent bargain for his wife to remain free.

Owing to the turmoil in the prison library Wednesday in Huntsville, they were right.

Texas Cons Threaten To Kill 10 Hostages

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Prison officials prepared to meet a midday ultimatum today of armed convicts holding 10 hostages, while denying reports one of the hostages already has been slain.

DAMAGED WEAPONS
The prison rebels, led by former narcotics chieftain Fred Gomez Carrasco, demanded more arms and ammunition by noon, but did not say what they would do if they were refused.

Ron Taylor, a prison system spokesman, denied a San Antonio report that one of the armed convicts, Ignacio Cuevas, said by telephone that one of the hostages had been slain.

San Antonio News reporter Gloria Delgado related details of a telephone conversation in Spanish with Cuevas in which she quoted Cuevas as saying, "We already have killed one. We are going to continue to fight until they have killed us."

"If our demands are not met, we are going to kill more. We might as well kill them all at once. Why drag it out?" Miss Delgado said Cuevas told her from the prison library.

Informed immediately of the report, Taylor denied there had been any killing. He said there were rumors earlier in the day of a shooting inside the library but "we're assuming it was a bluff."

Taylor said the arms and ammunition sought by the convicts has been assembled "to meet these demands if the decision to do so is made." He said the prisoner demands included "free world clothing."

Early today prison guards began taking inside the downtown prison compound three gas generators, gas mask boxes and what appeared to be a supply of weapons.

The situation at the Walls Unit had remained quiet through the night. It remained unclear whether six or seven convicts were holding the hostages.

Dr. Don Kirkpatrick, assistant director of the Texas Department of Corrections, told newsmen about midnight that Carrasco had asked for enough bedding, liquids and some medication for the convicts and the hostages, who are civilian teachers and librarians except for one guard. Seven are women.

Carrasco demanded six bullet-proof vests, three bullet-proof helmets and visors, three walkie-talkie radios, three M-16 rifles, five magazines of ammunition and 100 loose rounds for each rifle and "suitable clothing for the three of us."

He threatened to execute the hostages if his demands were not met.

"Mr. Carrasco is not pushing us for any time deadline," Kirkpatrick said. "It is also interesting to note there have been no transportation demands."

He said several of the convicts had talked to their lawyers.

A prison spokesman said early today that a recheck showed there were still six other prisoners with Carrasco instead of only three as officials had believed for hours.

WILD BUNCH
He identified the others as Rudolfo Dominguez, from San Antonio, serving a 15-year term for assault to murder; Ignacio Cuevas, a Mexican national serving 45 years for murder; Stephen Ray Robertson, 26, from Dallas, 16 years for rape; Florencio Vera, 29, from San Antonio, 10 years for burglary; Martin Cuero, 27, from Houston, two years for possession of cocaine; and Henry S. Escamilla, 40, from San Antonio, five years for shoplifting.

Kirkpatrick said that while Robertson remained with the others, he was not believed to be taking an active part in the attempted escape.

The demands were delivered to officials by the prison chaplain, Father Joseph O'Brien, who was in and out of the library several times Wednesday night conferring with Carrasco. Carrasco has served as porter in the prison chapel.

There originally had been 11 hostages, but one of them, Glenn Johnson, 51, suffered an apparent heart attack about 9:30 p.m. and Carrasco agreed to let him go.

Johnson was reported in stable condition at a Huntsville hospital.

Carrasco took control of the library about 1 p.m., armed with three handguns. It was not known where he got the weapons, since the correctional officers do not carry arms.

Republican Member Says It Is All Over

WASHINGTON (AP) — Winding through day and night debate, the House Judiciary Committee heard more members today declare their positions for or against the impeachment of President Nixon — with no surprises in the emerging lineup.

A Republican pleaded for fairness to Nixon; a Democrat urged his ouster for "open and notorious defiance of the law"; a Republican expected to be a key swing vote merely listed his tests for an impeachable offense.

EPIC DEBATE
As an opening round of speeches given in order of seniority neared its halfway mark, there had been no indications of change in any member's anticipated vote.

The epic debate is expected to culminate in voting this weekend that would send the impeachment question to the House of Representatives for a vote on whether Nixon should stand trial in the Senate for Watergate and other charged offenses.

Only once, a century ago, has a President stood trial in jeopardy of his job.

Opening the second round of the nationally broadcast colloquy, began Wednesday night,

Rep. Charles E. Wiggins, R-Calif., declared Nixon "is entitled to a presumption of innocence."

Later, Wiggins was given additional time by fellow Republican Hamilton Fish Jr. of New York to continue a detailed recitation of why various charges against Nixon should not bring impeachment.

PROPER BALANCE
Rep. John Conyers of Michigan confirmed he will vote for impeachment, declaring that Nixon must be removed "to restore to our government the proper balance of constitutional power and serve notice to all future presidents that such abuse of conduct... never again be tolerated."

Fish did not say how he will vote. But he concluded a listing of philosophical and legal considerations by declaring: "If the evidence is clear, then our constitutional duty is no less clear."

Confirming past indications, Reps. Joshua Eilberg, D-Pa., and Jerome R. Waldie, D-Calif., said Nixon should be impeached.

I WINCE
At specific issue was a two-article resolution of impeachment charging Nixon with ob-
Wiggins' plea for fairness came despite Tuesday's claim from other GOP defenders of the President that a committee decision against Nixon is assured.

Wiggins has frequently been characterized as Nixon's most articulate defender on the committee, but he told the committee's second session of formal debate that "I wince" at that label because he believes struction of justice and other abuses of the presidency including contempt of Congress.

simply that the case should be decided according to law.

The committee opened its historic debate Wednesday night before a nationwide television and radio audience that heard Rep. Charles W. Sandman Jr., R-N.J., claim "There are sufficient votes here for an impeachment resolution."

"Everyone knows that. There is no use kidding ourselves about it," he said.

Wants Nixon To Free Data Quick Like

WASHINGTON (AP) — Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski asked U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica today to order President Nixon to turn over within the next two to 10 days the 64 Watergate tapes and documents the Supreme Court said Nixon must surrender.

In a motion submitted to Sirica, Jaworski presented a proposed time schedule for compliance with Wednesday's historic Supreme Court order.

Jaworski said failure to comply quickly would prevent the start of the Watergate cover-up trial Sept. 9.

HEMPHILL-WELLS CHANGES Hickson Is Transferred; Ralph Wyatt New Manager

R. E. (Bob) Hickson, manager of the Hemphill-Wells store in Big Spring since 1968, has been chosen to manage the two Hemphill-Wells stores in San Angelo.

Ralph Wyatt, Lubbock, who was with Hemphill-Wells here from 1946-49, is returning here as store manager, according to an announcement today by Bill Collins, Lubbock, president of the Company.

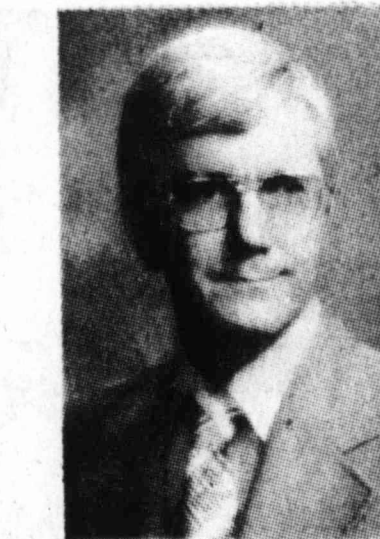

Both Hickson and Wyatt are directors of the company, and Hickson this year had been made treasurer.

The new assignments were occasioned by the notice of retirement by Scottie R. Johnson, who has managed the San Angelo operations since 1967, and Guy Rutherford, assistant manager of the San Angelo stores. Rutherford plans to retire Aug. 10, and Johnson will leave his managerial position Sept. 7. Both, however, will continue their roles as directors of Hemphill-Wells.

BEGAN IN 1959
Hickson was reared in Big Spring and graduated from high school here prior to serving in the U.S. Army (1945-47). He then earned his business degree in the University of Texas, and was engaged in retail accounting work here for a number of years.

Hickson began his association with Hemphill-Wells here June 1959 and became store manager May, 1968. He was elevated to the board of directors in 1974 and this year became treasurer. He will go to his new post around the middle of August.

He has been active in numerous community affairs, including the Chamber of Commerce, Air Force Association and the American Business Club, which he headed. He also led the Big Spring Community Concert Association, led the Howard County United Way as campaign chairman and president, was vice chairman of the Red Cross chapter, a director in the Texas Retail Federation, Chamber of Commerce and Permian Basin Better Business Bureau. He is a member of the Goals for Big Spring panel of the Chamber.

R. E. (Bob) HICKSON

He also was chairman of the board of trustees for the First Church of God and president of the Jack & Jill Kindergarten and Nursery School. Hickson and his wife, Margaret, have a son, Donald E. Hickson, Dallas, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Lacy, Arlington.

NEW MANAGER

Wyatt is a native of Munday, attended Texas Tech University and joined Hemphill-Wells in 1941 as shoe salesman in the Downtown store at Lubbock. From 1946-49 he managed the ladies, children's and men's shoe departments here, then returned to Lubbock to a similar assignment. Wyatt was made divisional merchandise manager for the ladies and children's shoe departments of the two Lubbock stores in 1960, a position he currently holds (although the Monterey store was replaced by South Plains (See CHANGES, Pg. 2-A, Col. 4)

Supreme Court Rule On Busing

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a decision likely to have strong impact on future school desegregation, the Supreme Court today threw out a cross-district school integration plan for Detroit and 32 suburban districts.

The court ruled 5 to 4 that the late U.S. District Judge Stephen Roth erred in ordering a desegregation plan embracing both Detroit and its suburban districts and ordered the lower court to devise a desegregation plan for Detroit only.

The court said multidistrict integration plans may be imposed only where there is a finding that all district involved failed to operate integrated school systems.

The Supreme Court said there was no evidence that the Detroit-area suburban district was not integrated.

Following today's decision, which wound up its business for the current term, the court adjourned until Oct. 7.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, speaking for the court, said federal courts may not impose multidistrict desegregation plans where there is no finding that all the school districts included had failed to operate integrated school systems.

Justice Thurgood Marshall, the "only black member of the court, dissented, saying: "We deal here with the right of all of our children, whatever their race, to an equal start in life and to an equal opportunity to reach their full potential as citizens. Those children who have been denied that right in the past deserve better than to see fences thrown up to deny them that right in the future."

Also dissenting were Justices William O. Douglas, William J. Brennan and Byron R. White.

Besides its impact in Detroit, the decision could affect schools in Louisville and Jefferson County, Ky., which were ordered by a federal judge Tuesday to merge in order to achieve better racial balance.

It will have more indirect affects in many other cities.

Roth's decision had called for busing of pupils in a three-county area around Detroit. It was appealed by Michigan officials and by suburban school districts, but not by the Detroit district, which is about 64 per cent black.

The same question came before the Supreme Court last year in a case arising in Richmond, Va.

The court deadlocked 4-4 in the Richmond case, with Justice Lewis Powell, a former member of the Richmond school board, abstaining.

The tie vote had the effect of upholding the lower court order for cross-district busing in the Richmond area but did not establish any precedent for future cases.

To Send Same Package Back To Redrafters

AUSTIN (AP) — The Submission and Transition Committee voted 13-0 today to send the same package proposal to the Constitutional Convention floor that fell 25 votes short of approval Monday.

The convention meets at 2 p.m.

The package includes a proposal to be submitted to the voters separately on whether to put the law against labor-management agreements on union or agency shops in the constitution.

Rep. Carl Parker, D-Port Arthur, a leading candidate for speaker of the 1975 legislature, said he tried in vain Wednesday night to find some middle ground on the antiunion shop proposal.

"I witnessed last night an Alamo drawing of a line and stepping across," he told the committee.

Without naming names, he said he spoke with "the leadership of this convention."

Hot Afternoons

Cloudy, but continued hot afternoons through Friday. Temperatures today and Friday expected to be around 102 degrees with low tonight near 70. Winds from the south at 8-19 m.p.h. No rain.

WOMAN TRICKS POLICE Unfold 'Hearst' Hoax In North Hollywood

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A woman tricked police into believing she was fugitive heiress Patricia Hearst and was willing to surrender, bringing 150 policemen to a North Hollywood apartment.

Police officials called off their operation early today after the hoax unfolded: —Miss Hearst's parents and sister flew anxiously to Los Angeles from San Francisco. Her father was very disappointed, and the family quickly returned home.

'UNCLE GEORGE'
—Officers surrounded an apartment building, blocked off streets and negotiated by telephone with the hoaxer, who said she wanted to surrender to "Uncle George." Rumors later buzzed that Miss Hearst had been in the apartment building but had escaped.

—A police spokesman said officers raided an apartment but found only a cat, a .22-caliber rifle and an automatic shotgun. Three persons who were in the apartment, including a 13-year-old girl who bears a strong resemblance to Miss Hearst, said they were grabbed by detectives and questioned.

Police said the girls had a legitimate owner with no connection to the Symbionese Liberation Army, which kidnapped Miss Hearst at Berkeley, Calif., on Feb. 4. The hoaxer wasn't found, and a police spokesman said later "we had no evidence that Miss Hearst or any SLA member was ever there."

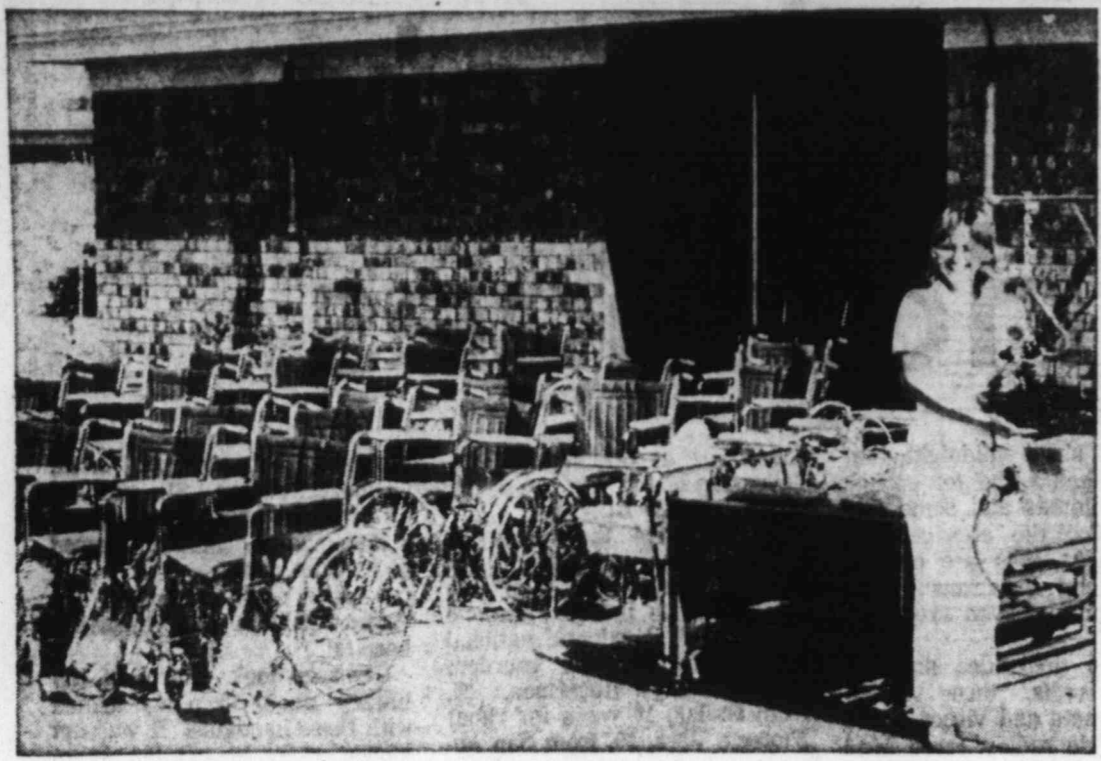

After all the excitement, Police Chief Ed Davis summed up the Wednesday night operation as "a good command exercise." Lt. Dan Cook, the police spokesman said it was "a practice in futility."

DESCRIPTION

It all began when three persons called police between 6 and 6:30 p.m. and said a woman fitting the description of Miss Hearst, who after her abduction renounced her family and said she was joining her terrorist captors.

Police said the three called said the woman who entered the building was followed later by a black man carrying a rifle.

Equipment Prescription Started By Rest Home

Equipment prescription is being instituted here as a new service of Mountain View Lodge, Inc., under Part B of the Medicare program. A large supply of specialized items in usual use was received Tuesday at the lodge. Thus, when a physician may prescribe a wheel chair, walker, inhalator or some other specialized equipment for a patient, the lodge will immediately issue it. The equipment belongs to the patient, who may take it with him or her if and when leaving the nursing home. Included in the stock of which the lodge received as initial inventory were air mattresses (to help prevent bed sores), high-low beds, trapeze bars (attachable to any hospital bed) for patient aid, 27 wheel chairs, eight walkers, 51 bed rails, suction machines, inhalators, mobile toilets, etc. Billy Hendrix, administrator, said that the items would be furnished without charge to patients when prescribed under the Part B plan by physicians.

Discovery's Companion Well May Be Producer

MFG Oil Corp. No. 1-A Armstrong, companion well for the discovery of the Modesta North (Penn) field in northwestern Howard County, has indicated for production. The venture ran a test from 9,042-59 with gas surfacing in seven minutes and recovered 4,500 feet of oil and 10 feet of salt water. Gas-oil ratio was 466-1, and the one hour and final pressures were 3,364 and 3,287 pounds. Pipe was set at 9,067. Location is 330 feet south of the Desana No.1 Armstrong, the opener of the field 20 miles northwest of Big Spring.

In southern Glasscock County, Westland Oil Development No. 1-29 William Noward Estate, has been completed as an outpost to the Calvin North (Dean) field in Glasscock County. Until now the field has been in Reagan. The venture made 68 barrels of 39.7-gravity oil and 23 of water through a 14-64 choke from perforations at 7,867-990, treated with 50,000 gallons of frac. Gas-oil ratio was 3,125-1. Location is 660 from the north and east lines of section 29-35-5S, T&P. Seven miles northwest of Garden City, MacDonald Oil Corp. No.1 E.F. Bucknell has been scheduled as a southeast offset to the Blalock No.1 Powell, the lone producer in the Balock East (Wolfcamp) field. It is a mile east and six miles northeast of a recent Spraberry extender. Location is 660 from the north and 467 from the west line of section 13-35-30, T&P, and contract depth is 8,100. Drillings in Glasscock are Adobe No.1-11 Zant, which is at 3,067 in sand and anhydrite; also Amoco No.1-C Powell at 3,187. Adobe No. Blalock fractured an unidentified lime at 3,569-99 after recovering 50 per cent oil in 10 barrels of fluid from the formation. In Sterling County, Amoco No.1 Clark was at 5,825; Dorchester No.1-13 Foster was plugged back to 7,795 and running casing. One drillstem test from 8,450-532 returned 1,260 feet of drilling mud, another from 8,470-560 was unreported. In Martin County, Amoco No.1 Strain set the 5 1/2-in string at 9,500 and was waiting on completion rig.

Kidnaped Girl Returns Home

AUSTERLITZ, N.Y. (AP) — Eight-year-old Mary Losaw is back at her rural upstate home, nearly three months after she was abducted.

The fourth grader was reunited with her family at the Albany County Airport shortly before midnight Wednesday when she arrived with her mother on a flight from South Dakota. Mary began sobbing when she saw one of her sisters at the airport. Most of the family was crying as they embraced the girl.

She was abducted May 1. Authorities found her in a cafe in Nistland, S.D., after they traced Edward Spencer, of Spencertown, N.Y., walking along a road nearby. Spencer was charged with kidnaping. He was in a Rapid City, S.D., jail on $50,000 bond, pending his return to New York State.

Stars' Gamble On Oil Paid Big Dividends

"When Bob Hope and Bing Crosby invested in oil in Scurry County back in 1949, they came out here to look over their project and be sure it wasn't a hoax," one old time worker in the area oilfields recalled here Wednesday. A news story in an area paper pointed out this week that Bob Hope says that their successful venture near Snyder with two Texas oilmen 25 years ago may have lured other stars into less successful ventures. In recent Associated Press article, Hope is quoted as saying, "A guy came to us with an oil deal and it sounded pretty good, so Bing and I put in $105,000 apiece."

The Howard County oilman recalls that Hope also came out to see what it was all about and didn't just take somebody's word for it. Hope, in the AP story, said, "Well that property produced 28 flowers that proved to be worth $20 million and Bing and I had a quarter interest apiece."

A number of Hollywood celebrities recently lost money in an alleged swindle of the Oklahoma-based Home-Stake Production Co. Hope blamed their losses partially on his own success. Scurry County, at this time is the leading producing county in Texas and one of two locations in the state that is still cut back from 100 per cent production.

Hope said that his and Crosby's widely publicized success proved enticing to those with highly taxable incomes. One area oilman in Abilene commented this week, "Those stars have a lot to learn about the oil business. They don't know that we never comment on such things."

The original investments were tax deductible, according to one story on the subject and if revenue from the wells came in, there was the oil depletion allowance. Some of those who reported to have lost money in Oklahoma were Jack Benny, Andy Williams, Liza Minnelli, Bob Dylan, Buddy Hackett, Barbara Streisand and Tony Curtis.

"But, they didn't come see what they'd bought," the Big Spring oilman who knew Hope back in 1949 persisted. "They bought a pig in a poke."

Bizarre Mexican Jail Escape Being Filmed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Some melodramatic news events evoke the immediate response, "That sounds just like a movie." An American businessman's helicopter escape from a Mexican prison is one.

Now it is being filmed as "Breakout," with Tom Gries ("The Glass House," "QB VII") directing Charles Bronson as the daredevil pilot who masterminds plucking the American out of jail. The actual figure was Victor Stadter of Glendora, Calif. SPENT $1 MILLION

The real event happened shortly before midnight August 18, 1971, while most of the inmates of the Santa Maria Acatitla Federal Prison were watching a movie. A helicopter swooped into the prison courtyard, collecting Joel David Kaplan, 42, serving a 28-year term for murder.

Kaplan was transferred to a light plane and flown to the United States, where he remains. In the wake of the bizarre escape came a flood of rumors and accusations, among them, that Kaplan worked for the CIA, that he had been railroaded to prison by a relative who wanted his inheritance.

"The reason the script works is the absurdity of the whole thing," says Gries. "The story would be unbelievable, except for the fact that it happened. "We're sticking as close as possible to the story, changing only the names and certain relationships. The uncle, whom Kaplan accused of trying to keep him in prison, is played as a grandfather. The sister, who spent a reported million dollars to get Kaplan out of Mexico, becomes his wife."

NOT POSSIBLE The wife is played by Jill Ireland, Bronson's own wife. The prison escapee is Robert Duval, the Mafia lawyer of "The Godfather."

"Breakout," which Robert Chartoff and Irwin Winkler are producing for Columbia, started filming this week in Los Angeles. "The downtown Bank of America tower is doubling for the Texas headquarters of the scheming grandfather. Then the company takes off for Spain and France to shoot the Mexico City and prison sequences. Why not shoot in Mexico? "Not possible," said Gries. "Working in Mexico is always difficult because of the censorship, and we ran into problems with this script. "They don't care about the way we would portray the prison system, but they wouldn't allow us to show bribery of the judges."

Elmer Newton Hurst, 64, died suddenly this morning while working for Ralph Neal in the Green Acres Subdivision on a plumbing job. Hurst was threading pipe and had a sudden heart attack, according to Justice of the Peace Walter Grice who ruled death by natural causes. The body was removed to Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home, where arrangements for rites are being completed.

Friends have set up a memorial fund at Security State Bank for those who would like to help with the extreme expenses in seeking to save Jonathan Kirk's life. He was taken to Children's Hospital in Dallas for specialized treatment.

Mrs. Mary Welsh Blomshield, 77, widow of Carl S. Blomshield, died 6:55 p.m. Wednesday in a Temple hospital. Services will be held either Friday or Saturday morning at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Harland B. Birwell, officiating. She will be buried in Trinity Memorial Park beside the grave of her husband, who died Dec. 21, 1962. Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home will be in charge of arrangements. ### Suit Filed Over Bonds

LAMESA — A $150,000 lawsuit against Dawson County Sheriff's officers was filed this week in United States District Court in Lubbock by Milton Lozano Sr. and Milton Lozano Jr., father and son doing business as local bail bondsmen.

The lawsuit against Sheriff Guy Kinnison and deputies, Jim Nance and Base Lambert, stems from the department's refusal to accept bail bonds from the two men.

The suit alleges violations of the plaintiffs' constitutional and civil rights and was filed by Lubbock attorney F. B. Godniez Jr. on behalf of the Lamesa plaintiffs Monday. For some reason, Chief Deputy Bill Horton was not included in the suit.

A preliminary hearing is scheduled for Thursday, Aug. 15 to determine whether or not a temporary injunction should be issued against the law officers in connection with the allegations.

The lawsuit, which alleges that Dawson County's sheriff's officers refused to accept bail bonds from the two men because they were Mexican Americans, seeks $115,000 for compensatory damages and $35,000 for punitive and exemplary damages.

IMPEACHMENT DEBATE Dull Midsummer Night's Dream

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Well, it seemed a good idea. But aside from a phony bomb scare, the historic, live national TV view of the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment debate appeared a dull midsummer night's dream.

The start Wednesday of the long-awaited debate, televised by ABC and the Public Broadcasting Service, generally had all the drama of a talk on the news. CBS-TV covers it live today and NBC has it Friday.

Profuse with lengthy congressional picaresques, history lessons and now-familiar arguments, the prime-time opening round was a far cry from the fascinating Senate Watergate hearings seen last year on national TV. But those proceedings were investigative while these are argumentative.

ABC, whose coverage was intelligently anchored by Howard K. Smith and Harry Reasoner, could have let the two comment a bit during the longer stretches of rhetoric. But it chose not to, ABC says.

A pity. It resulted in an unrelieved view—save for the bomb scare—of 11 congressmen, each firing away, one by one, amid sporadic reaction shots of the packed committee room. And there wasn't much reaction. When the bomb threat occurred one hour and six minutes into the three-hour proceedings, PBS reporter Carolyn Lewis had the news first; ABC's Sam Donaldson and Frank Reynolds had it about 30 seconds later.

The committee room was cleared for 47 minutes. Both PBS and ABC used the delay to analyze the day's impeachment events and buttonhole committee members as they strolled by.

ABC's corridor committee nabbed four Republicans, two Democrats, and a stray presidential defense lawyer and inquired as to their views on both the debate and the bomb threat.

'This Is Hottest Story In Town'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joe "Chili Man" De Frates spiced up congressional proceedings by serving his world champion chili in Capitol dining rooms.

And although the chili was created in Illinois and contained beans, it won plaudits even from Texans.

"I don't know how Texas could beat that," said Rep. Jim Wright, D-Tex., after his first spoonful. "It has character, flavor and authority."

Columnist Art Buchwald popped into the office of Paul Findley, R-Ill., where De Frates was ladling out chili, and announced: "I got the word all the way up on Pennsylvania Avenue and hurried right over."

Added Buchwald: "This is the hottest story in town." De Frates of Springfield, Ill., won first prize this year in the annual Chili Appreciation Society International Cook-Off in Terlingua, Tex.

The chili he brought to the Capitol Tuesday—National Chili Day—wasn't quite the same as his prize-winning batch, though.

"Texans frown on beans in chili," he said. "One year they disqualified me for the beans so this year I left the beans out and I won." De Frates will go no further than that in discussing his recipe.

Asked if there is any one special thing that makes his chili so good, he replied: "Know-how."

De Frates said he got his recipe from his father, who became interested in chili when he worked as a bartender at the Hotel Adolphus in Dallas.

"I've been perfecting it for the past 45 years," De Frates said.

Record Budget Is Approved

ODESSA — Odessa College trustees have approved a record $4.4 million budget for the 1974-75 school year. The tax rate will go up a penny to 16 cents per $100 valuation, based on 49 per cent of actual value.

The budget represents an increase of $297,727 over the 1973-74 budget. Faculty members will receive a $600 annual raise.

Sales Tax Vote Slated Sept. 17

MONAHANS — The Monahans City Council has called a city sales tax election for Sept. 17.

The council called the election after approving a budget, which will have a $40,000 deficit. Mayor Richard Hoyer said the only possible sources of revenue to erase the deficit were an ad valorem tax increase or a city sales tax.

If the tax is approved, it would be July 1975 before Monahans would receive any income from it.

UTPB Mobile Unit Coming

The UT Permian "Jornada," a mobile information unit, is coming to Big Spring Aug. 1.

It will be stationed on the Texas Electric Service Parking lot at 5th and Rannels, according to Charles Lusk of TESCO, coordinator.

Faculty members from UT Permian's three colleges will be on hand to discuss degree plans, course offerings and orient visitors with the concept of an upper-level university. Students can be accepted on the spot if a transcript can be presented for evaluation by the registrar representative present.

Any student with 54 or more hours from any accredited junior college, college or university can attend UT Permian. Whether individuals want to take one course for fun, complete a degree program or just improve chances for advancement, they can apply, be admitted and be advised concerning your courses, on the spot.

A slide show will be presented so the visitors can see the progress of this new university. The 10-minute show will feature the Phase I campus, utilizing the new mesa design, and also slides explaining the self-paced instruction based courses offered at UT Permian. Refreshments will be served, and discounted tickets for Midland Cub baseball games will be available.

Oil Profits Remain High

NEW YORK (AP) — Several oil companies say rises in crude oil prices on domestic and foreign markets helped to sharply boost their profits during the second quarter of this year.

Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, the nation's sixth largest oil firm, reported on Tuesday that after-tax profits for the three months ended last June 30 were 131 per cent more than the earnings in the same period of 1973.

Shell Oil Co., seventh biggest, said its second-quarter earnings rose 39 per cent. Cities Service Co., 14th in size, reported a 76 per cent gain and Tenneco Inc., a conglomerate with significant oil operations, said its net more than doubled.

For the latest quarter, Indiana Standard registered earnings of $280 million on revenues of $2.47 billion. In the comparable period last year, $121.3 million was earned on revenues of $1.53 billion.

Its profits during the first six months this year totaled $499 million, compared to $242.5 million in 1973.

Shell earned $124.5 million in the latest quarter, compared with $99.5 million in the like period a year earlier. First-half profits of $246.4 million outdistanced the $169.3 million earned in the first six months of last year.

Cities Service, which retails as Citgo, said second-quarter profits this year totaled $53.8 million on revenues of $674.2 million. Last year $30.5 million was earned on $464.1 million in revenues.

Half-year profits were $122.6 million for 1974 and $67.3 million last year. But Citgo said its 1973 profits excluded an extraordinary gain of $11.3 million realized from the sale of its agricultural chemicals business.

Triple Slaying In Drug Store Leads To Charge

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Reginald Leroy Johnson, 19, remained in jail today in lieu of $100,000 after being charged in connection with a triple slaying in a drug store.

Johnson, recently discharged from the Army, is charged in the death of Verma Lee Harris, 54, a clerk at Donegan's Terrace Drugs, a court spokesman confirmed.

In the incident, a gunman or gunmen also took the lives of George Tatum, 49, the store owner, and Andy Anderson, 54, a deliveryman. A total of $2,954 in cash was left strewn on the floor.

No charges have been filed in the Tatum or Anderson deaths. Witnesses said they saw the men fleeing.

Detective David Keene said Johnson was to have been married Monday night. However, police held him earlier Monday for questioning and then booked him.

Keene said Johnson was seen twice in the store the day of the shootings. The San Antonio News quoted sources as saying Johnson's name was in a log book in the store which recorded purchasers of a cough syrup which contains codeine.

Embezzlement Hits Ex-UT Exec

AUSTIN (AP) — Edward L. Carpenter, 40, former director of the University of Texas student financial aids office, was named Tuesday in an embezzlement indictment returned by the Travis County grand jury.

The former UT official was formally charged last December after his abrupt resignation and disappearance. He later was arrested in Pennsylvania, and placed under $25,000 bond.

UT officials said an audit showed $24,505 missing from grant and scholarship funds.

Tests Of Water Supplies For Anthrax To Continue

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The state health commissioner says tests of water supplies in Marlin and Falls County for anthrax will continue as a precaution even though there are no recorded cases of human being contracting the disease from water-borne spores.

Dr. J. E. Peavy said here that recent tests have indicated there are no anthrax bacteria in either treated or untreated water in the Central Texas city of Marlin. About 300 cattle have died from anthrax in Marlin and Falls County since June 28.

meat or handling infected carcasses. He said tests have been made of the Marlin water supply about once a week, and additional tests were conducted Sunday and Monday, all with negative results. But he added, "Even if anthrax bacteria were to be found it would not present a health hazard." The commissioner said the tests will continue as a precaution, but if anthrax bacteria showed up in samples, "regular water treatment would take care of it." Peavy said the State Health Department's chief engineer has been sent to Marlin to help assure that treatment plants continue to operate efficiently.

LBJ'S BOYS RECALL ADRENALIN SHOTS

'Yeasty And Wonderful Years When Johnson Was President'

Editor's Note: Close friends of Lyndon B. Johnson will meet at his ranch on his birthday, Aug. 27 to reminisce about the late President. The gathering, the second since his death, may become an annual affair. Here's a preview — based on interviews — of the type of stories those friends might tell.

By JACK KEEVER Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Presidential speechwriters Bob Hardesty and Will Sparks had just gotten to the office, drowsy from a late night of framing words for Lyndon Johnson's "Great Society," when the President called.

Nearly burned out by Johnson's major-bill-a-day pace, they had finished their second speech of the night about 3 a.m. "It was just terrible and we knew it," Hardesty recalls.

NEED SOME HELP "You know," the President said in a very low voice, "I've got ambassadors going all over the world trying to get peace, and I've got a potential strike on my hands and inflation's getting out of hand, and I've really got more to worry about than a speech—I can't write my own. I need some help."

"Now, do you think you can take this draft back and do something with it?" "Yes sir!" they chorused. "It was," Hardesty remembers, "just the little shot of adrenalin that we needed."

LBJ's little shots of adrenalin will be one of the topics when his friends gather on the banks of the Pedernales Aug. 27 to celebrate the late President's birthday.

Johnson died Jan. 22, 1973, and approximately 20 of the "Johnson boys" swapped LBJ stories over breakfast at the Federal Building here last Aug. 27.

Johnson's successors in Congress, Homer Thornberry and J.J. "Jake" Pickle, were there, as well as former White House press secretary George Christian; aide Tom Johnson; LBJ Library Director Harry Middleton; Dean John Gronouski of the LBJ School of Public Affairs; former Air Force One pilot Jim Cross; and Hardesty, who became Gov. Dolph Briscoe's press secretary.

"JOHNSON GIRLS" This year the "Johnson girls" will be invited—presumably Johnson's former secretary Mary Rather, archivist Dorothy Territo, Mrs. Johnson's former press secretary Liz Carpenter; and Mary Kaltman who was the White House housekeeper.

Christian and others are interested in putting Johnson stories on paper while memories are fresh.

Johnson once half-jokingly told a Texas audience that he seldom thought of politics "more than 18 hours a day"—and at that rate in 37 years of politics he left a treasure-trove of stories.

In recent interviews, several of Johnson's friends reminisced about what Middleton refers to as the "yeasty and wonderful years" when Johnson was President.

BATTLE STRATEGY Middleton recalls the first time he met Johnson. It was in the Oval Office.

"He had some plans out on his desk, and I assumed that this was something to do with battle strategy or something like that, and I had really walked in at a historic moment. It turned out they were floor plans of the basement of the west wing of the White House. They were tearing out or putting in a ladies rest room."

Cross, Johnson's military aide as well as pilot, remembers how Johnson's penchant for saving on electricity affected him. Although Cross headed a staff of more than 600, "my desk (at the White House) had one light over it—the rest of the room was dark."

MY FRIEND Cross recalls that after John Kennedy was assassinated he raced to the Washington airport to greet Johnson. "As vice president he was my friend, and I had never been denied access to him—but there I was—he was President—and I couldn't get close even to where the plane was going to land."

On March 31, 1968, when Johnson told the world he would not seek nor accept another term, Cross remembers, "I just about fell out of my chair." The next morning the red button on his office phone flashed and Cross was summoned by Johnson to his second-floor bedroom.

YOU EARNED IT After flipping through newspapers, Johnson got to the point: Col. Cross was being promoted to general. "I said, 'Mr. President, I appreciate that.'"

"He said, 'Oh no, goddamn it, you earned it on your own.'"

"I said, 'Well, all right sir'—of course I knew no military assistant to any president ever gets promoted except by direction of the president. That's just the way it is, and so I thanked him."

Cross' preparation included combat in Vietnam, and while he was there Johnson woke him up with phone calls "a couple of times" to check on his welfare.

A military aide also called several times, Cross recalls, "expressing the President's concern about my health, saying, 'Goddamn, don't you go get killed over there, don't you get shot down.'"

BURIAL PLAN Even after he retired from the military, Cross kept a plan for Johnson's funeral and burial which had been prepared while he was Johnson's military aide.

On Jan. 22, 1973, Cross recalls, he was on his 30-acre farm at Garfield, near Austin, when "My wife summoned me with a horn. I hustled back up to the house. She said there had been an urgent call from the LBJ Ranch. She said, 'I'm worried.'"

Cross phoned Secret Service agent Mike Howard, who told him Johnson had died.

Cross, Mrs. Johnson, executive assistant Tom Johnson, and another friend, Austin lawyer Frank Erwin, sat up most of the night planning, Cross says, "How to let the American people share in the family's grief of losing President Johnson."

Cross' final duty was to hand Mrs. Johnson the folded American flag that had been draped over the casket.

Off Johnson, Cross says, "I came to consider him all things to me—a brother, father, leader, boss man."

John Gronouski, outgoing dean of the LBJ School of Public Affairs, was Wisconsin tax commissioner when he and others invited Johnson to speak at the 1962 Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner.

"A lot of people howled and cried in horror—they looked upon him (Johnson) as a Texan from another country," Gronouski says. "Well, Johnson came to that dinner, and he did an extraordinarily good job of selling himself . . . on a one-to-one basis no man in history could sell himself better than Lyndon Johnson."

Gronouski says Johnson seldom came to the classes at the LBJ School because he didn't want to leave the impression he was trying to run it. In December 1972, however, when former Connecticut Sen. William Benton visited, Johnson spoke extemporaneously to the students for 45 minutes.

They gave him a standing ovation. "He was the school's No. 1 resource—had he lived he couldn't have stayed away," says Gronouski.

Cain Remembers Pulling Trigger

DALLAS (AP) — A year ago Wednesday policeman Darrell Cain placed his pistol to the head of 12-year-old Santos Rodriguez and pulled the trigger. It was a shot whose echo is still heard.

In an interview with the Dallas Times Herald published Wednesday, Cain tearfully recalled those minutes that cost young Rodriguez' life.

And forever changed his own. "There's not a day I don't relive those moments. It's on my mind almost constantly," Cain said.

Cain, 31, now living elsewhere with his wife and two children, works as a handyman. His five-year prison term is on appeal while he is free under a $20,000 bond.

In the early hours of July 24, 1973, Cain and another policeman, Roy Arnold, sat in a parked squad car questioning young Rodriguez and his brother, David, about a gas station burglary.

Cain calls it "impulse." The state called it wilful, deliberate murder with malice.

Whatever, Cain said he emptied his gun then placed it to

Righted Wrong Done To Wright

TRENTON (AP) — The New Jersey Supreme Court has righted the wrong done to Harry Wright's "Write-in-Wright" election campaign by voters who wrote in Wright wrong.

The highest court unanimously upheld on Tuesday an Appellate Division of Superior Court ruling that restored 294 of Wright's votes in a Sparta Township council election. The ballots had been declared invalid because voters wrote only "Wright" without a first name.

A trial court judge had ruled that there was no way to be certain that those voters meant Harry Wright, rather than one of the eight other Wrights in the small Sussex County community, even though all the others said they didn't want the job.

The shooting sparked a Mexican-American demonstration marred by downtown violence. The Times Herald said the boy's death had left the Rodriguez family filled with hatred and bitterness.

"Attack is the best means of defense" is an old cliché, but often true. This applies to bridge as well as to other endeavors, as East demonstrated so ably on this hand.

South's jump overall is the weak variety that is proving increasingly popular in tournament play. While South's hand might not qualify by strict text-book standards, the vulnerability was in his favor and the seventh heart gave him a measure of safety. North could do no less than raise to game with his strong hand and excellent trumps.

West led the queen of clubs, East played the ace and caught South's king. It was obvious that the setting trick would be hard to find for the defense. Two diamond tricks seemed certain, but in taking them East would set up dummy's long suit for all the discards declarer needed.

To neutralize the threat of dummy's long suit, East realized he would have to knock out dummy's side entries. That would involve sacrificing a potential spade trick, for East would have to lead away from his king of spades into dummy's ace-queen. However, he reasoned correctly that he would not be able to score his king of spades anyway, for it was extremely unlikely that his partner could get on lead to play a spade through dummy.

Thus, East made the devastating shift to a spade, and declarer had no recourse. If he tried to set up diamonds immediately, East would play a second spade when he won the first diamond trick and the king of spades when he won the second diamond. Dummy would be forced to ruff with a heart honor, and West's jack of hearts would take the setting trick. It would be no better for declarer to draw trumps before trying to set up the diamonds. He would have no entry to the suit and, by the time East won the second diamond trick, his king of spades would be established for the setting trick.

Harte-Hanks Income Up

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — For the 10th straight quarter, Harte-Hanks Newspapers Inc. has reported an earnings growth.

Robert G. Marbut, president of the communications group, announced here earnings of 40 cents per share for the second quarter of 1974, a 21 per cent hike over the same period last year.

Net income was $1,757,000, up 23 per cent over the same quarter in 1973, Harte-Hanks reported.

Advertising lineage for the group increased 3.7 per cent over the second quarter of 1973, Marbut said.

Harte-Hanks also announced that it is in a good position as far as newsprint is concerned despite industry wide shortages.

"... We are fortunate to have accumulated a record high inventory, so we don't anticipate any insurmountable problem," Marbut said. Harte-Hanks said the regular quarterly dividend of five cents per share was paid June 20 to shareholders of record June 1.

IN TEXAS FOOTBALL POLL

Permian, San Angelo, Cooper Top 5-4A Teams

Odessa Permian got the nod as the preseason favorite to take the District 5-AAAA Grid title, according to the "Texas Football" magazine, the much quoted and much cussed guide to the state's number one schoolboy sport.

However, San Angelo and Abilene Cooper are able and more than willing to take the district trophy home for the 1974 grid wars.

District 5-AAAA, called the "Little Southwest Conference" has placed their district champion in the AAAA State title game six times in the past nine years, winning state three years and taking runner up for three years.

The rest of the pack, was analyzed by the magazine, but as usual, they were not picked in order of finish.

Big Spring, who finished with a 1-9 record for last year and a 1-6 conference record, has more starters back from last year's team than any of the others as they will be expecting nine defensive and five offensive starters back. Most of the Steers losses were close ones and with an almost intact defensive unit from last year, a few of those other schools could be surprised.

The District 5-AAAA outlook, according to "Texas Football":

DISTRICT 5-4A

"They call this district the Little Southwest Conference — and when Odessa Permian coach John Wilkins says, 'we will be competitive,' it probably means bad tidings for someone — although San Angelo, which shared the 1973 crown with the Panthers, also comes well stocked to contend again. And no one is ready to count Abilene Cooper as an also-ran."

ODESSA PERMIAN

"Permian puts its hopes on 17 lettermen (two offensive and three defensive starters) from a 19-2 team. Super tables may be attached to end — LB Dary Hunt (6-3, 200 — 'a definite blue chip prospect for 1974,' says Wilkins) and FB Travis Howard (5-10, 190, 4.8 speed), who rushed for 92 yards and caught passes for 321 more last year. Strong hopes also surround tackle Mike Holden, guard Steve Marshall and QB Kris Howard, who are other people schooled in a winning tradition."

SAN ANGELO

"San Angelo surveys some supers itself and the adjectives start with HB David Fielder (5-11, 165) — 'I would rate him right up there with the best I have coached and this includes Cotton Speyer,' declares Smitty Hill of the swift (4.6 speed) youngster who missed a 9-1 campaign of 1973 because of a broken leg — FB-LB Marvin Williams (6-0, 191, 4.6 speed), QB Rudy Izzard (6-2, 182) and guard David Hill (190). Among 3 offensive and 3 defensive holdovers, Freddy Davis, center Jeff Herd, tackle Floyd De Witte (6-4, 215) and guard Kelly Norman, Danny Monk and Ronnie Rodgers, safeties David Richards and Larry Thompson and LB Burks Titus are other fine prospects swelling playoff hopes for the Bobcats."

ABILENE COOPER

"Count Abilene Cooper, perennially near the top and 1974 should be no exception, with blue chip tackle Tommy Lawler (6-1, 210) and WB Dee Flamming (175) heading up a superbly schooled group. Among 3 offensive and 2 defensive starters who return from a 7-3 machine, guard Jimmy Norris, QB Trey Deen, LBs Steve Baber and Mark Griffith and tackle Chuck Reed (215) are other highly promising talent."

MIDLAND LEE

"Midland Lee expects to rise again to something approaching its fine 1972 campaign, listing three offensive and eight defensive regulars back from a 3-7 club of 1973. Tackles Keith Bishop (6-4, 218, 4.8 speed) and David Sledge (6-3, 230, 4.8 speed) join FB Milton Jones (6-2, 206, 4.7 speed) in an awesome display of muscle, while end Jim Kreuz (6-4, 185), WB Blain Murray, guard Roger Linton, LV Steve Degenfelder, and Gary Bowman and defensive backs Hector Prieto, Terry Nelson and Lane Posey are other operatives who could spark strong move upward."

ABILENE

"Added ability in the yardage and points departments appears likely at Abilene where eight offensive and five defensive veterans return from a 3-7

MIDLAND

"Moving Midland from the first division may not be easily managed, with FB Mike Gaddy (6-0, 200, 4.7 speed) and end Sam Hubert (6-2, 196) two immovable objects. Other mammoth talents among three offensive and two defensive holdovers from a 6-3-1 team include LB Tom Dunlap (207), guard Bruce Smith, QB John Webb and Safety Sam Jordan, while valuable contributions are certain from end Rufus Johnson, LB Randall McCleskey, center Bill Newberry, tackle Bill Rhotenberry and HBS Kim Madden, Sam Zachery, Derrick Michaels, Mike Hudspeth and Dusty Hicks."

ODESSA

"Odessa, which must replace all-state QB Rodney Allison thinks five offensive and six defensive holdovers can help eclipse last season's 6-4 record. TB Woodie Shepard (6-0, 180, 4.3 speed) and FB Monty Thorman (190) will lead the offensive charge and center Charlie Myers (6-0, 205), tackle Jim Cagle (6-1, 210) and guard Ramerio Sanchez are the prize linemen. Tackles Dean Blair (220) and Arturo Vasquez (240), ends Gary Pierson and Steve Proppitt, guard Ronald Richardson, LB Mike Kelly and safeties Mike Price and Chuck Soules are other keys to climb in the standings."

BIG SPRING

"Big Spring gushes an unusually large fountain of talent, with five offensive and nine defensive starters returning from 1-9 team. Tackle James Coffey (6-2, 220) and Stan Partee (6-2, 205) are prime prospects indeed, and guard Kyle Neighbors, QB Mark Moore, FB Lonnel Banks and HB Danny Ferrell are considered highly promising. Guard Ed Pekowski, ends Joe Rains and Casey Lovelace, LBS Ricky Watkins, and Lawrence Byrd and safety Andre Hurrington are others who would trigger a move upward."

Johnny Unitas Retires After 18 Years In NFL

SAN DIEGO (AP) — "I hate to quit playing football, said Johnny Unitas. "I'd like to play for another 30 years. Your mind is willing but your body wears out."

With those words Unitas, the quarterback who completed more passes and gained more yards through the air than anyone else in pro football history, announced his retirement Wednesday.

Unitas pulled out of the sport at the age of 41 as he was going into his 19th season.

Playing another season, he told newsmen, would be "too much to ask of a pair of 98-year-old legs" suffering from arthritis.

"I'm taking up time on the field when it could be used for better purposes for the younger people," said Unitas, who was starting his second year with the San Diego Chargers since he left the Baltimore Colts.

The National Football League star said he offered to stay and coach, but Coach Tommy Prothro declined. The Chargers picked up Unitas a year ago when the Colts benched him as a starter after 17 years. San Diego paid $150,000 for the rights to negotiate with him, then signed him to a two-year contract reportedly paying $500,000.

Unitas said Chargers' owner Eugene Klein "said my contract will be honored." Klein issued a statement that made no mention of the contract but praised Unitas as "the best quarterback in the history of the game."

"I tried to workout four or five times but my knees swelled up and popped and were sore," he said. "It would be foolish for me to try to do things I once tried to do."

For the things he used to do, the NFL, on its 50th anniversary in 1969, named the ex-University of Louisville player its greatest quarterback ever.

The records set by Unitas which still stand include the most passes attempted by a pro quarterback, 5,186; the most completed, 2,530; the most yards gained passing, 40,239, and the most touchdowns through the air, 290.

When the Chargers opened their training camp here this year, Unitas was the only veteran to cross the picket line of the NFL Players Association. Chargers veterans picketed outside the camp as Unitas announced his retirement inside.

"Football has given me every opportunity I've ever had," Unitas said.

Local Man Lands 534 Pound Fish

An otherwise routine vacation in Hawaii turned into a once in a lifetime experience for Mr. and Mrs. Gary Turner, Big Spring, as Turner's first try at deep sea fishing was a big success.

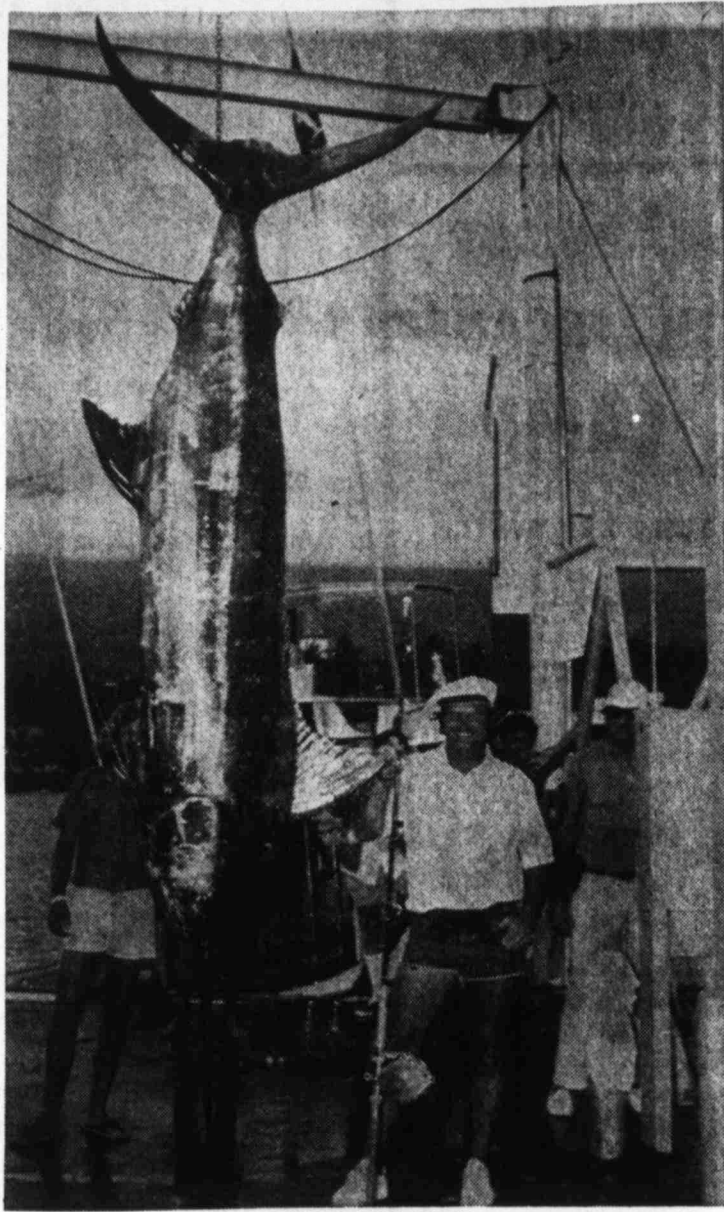

Turner, who had never been deep sea fishing before, landed a 534 pound blue marlin as he fished about five miles out in the Pacific Ocean off Kailua-Kona, Hawaii on July 17. It was his first strike of the day.

The 13 foot, six inch fish fought for one hour and 50 minutes before Turner finally brought him aboard the boat. His hands were covered with open blisters and he was nearly as exhausted as the fish when the fish was landed.

A foot long artificial lure was used to catch the fish, which was packed in ice and shipped to Florida where the Turners will have it stuffed and mounted.

Back at the dock, the fish was the catch of the day and a good crowd witnessed the weighing and the picture taking ceremonies.

The Turners were vacationing with the Rick Chamber, Big Spring, who persuaded the Turners to try deep sea fishing.

WFL ROUNDUP Americans, Fire Remain Undefeated

By The Associated Press

Jacksonville can't kick ... not enough, anyway.

And Gary Davidson certainly can't. Not after the World Football League commissioner saw his "action and entertainment" dream explode into reality in football-mad Birmingham.

The Sharks set a WFL record Wednesday night — not a hard feat considering the league's only a few weeks old — when they kicked four field goals in the first half of their game against Southern California.

Grant Guthrie booted three-pointers of 23, 29, 27 and 42 yards. It turned out to be three points too few — or perhaps the game turned out to be seven seconds too long for Jacksonville.

On the last play of the game, rookie quarterback Tony Adams from Utah State heaved a 40-yard touchdown pass to Dave Williams and the Sun came up shinning with a 22-19 victory that shocked the 46,780 Sharks fans.

In Wednesday night's other WFL games, the Birmingham Americans clobbered Memphis 58-33, the Chicago Fire turned back Portland 29-22 and the Florida Blazers beat Houston 15-3. The New York Stars are in Philadelphia tonight for the WFL's nationally televised game against the Bell.

Americans 58, Southern 33

As a WFL-record 61,319 fans at Legion Field shrieked their approval, veteran George Mira and rookie Matthew Reed of Grambling decimated Memphis' secondary with 37 aerial yards and five touchdown passes — three to Alfred Jenunbeaten.

Mira threw 38 and 74-yard scoring strikes to Jenkins and one to Dennis Homan for 12 yards. In the third period, Mira bowed out with a sprained ankle.

Fire 29, Storm 22

Virgil Carter of the Fire had a hot night in the air, too. He threw touchdown passes of 50 yards to Mark Keller, one yard to Cyril Pinder and 69 yards to James Scott too as Chicago took advantage of Storm mistakes to stay tied with Birmingham atop the Central Division.

Miss Softball Minor All-Stars In State Meet

Abilene will be the host for the 1974 Miss Softball America Minor League State tournament which gets under way at 5:30 p.m. Friday with opening ceremonies at Eastern Little League field.

The Big Spring all-stars, 17 girls selected from the local league, will be up against fourteen other teams in the state meet including last year's champions, Abilene North.

Abilene South will field two teams as will Midland, Odessa and Dallas while single teams will be in action from Albany, Denison, Breckenridge, Big Spring, Snyder and Sweetwater. The opening games are slated for 6 p.m. Friday at Eastern, Northern and Lone Star Little League fields. There will be two games each night — Friday and Saturday — with the championship game slated at 2 p.m. Sunday.

TEXAS LEAGUE Cubs Homers Beat Toros

By The Associated Press

Wayne Byrone flexed his homer-hitting muscles Wednesday night as the Midland Cubs clobbered the Victoria Toros, leaders in the Texas League East.

Tyrone hit solo blasts in the second and seventh innings, giving him 26 homers for the year. Midland teammates Jerry Tabb and Bill Bright also connected, as the Cubs used their power to take an 8-3 victory despite being out-hit 10-9 by the Toros.

In other Texas League games, Shreveport outscored Amarillo 14-8, Alexandria tripped West leader El Paso 4-2 and San Antonio edged Arkansas 3-2.

El Paso's West lead over San Antonio dropped to five games as Alexandria, which has the worst record in the league, won its third straight game. Dave Wehmeister pitched a seventh-inning heroics with the only two runs he allowed coming in the third inning on Ron Jackson's triple. Dave Turner led the Alexandria attack with two hits, a run scored and one RBI.

Shreveport was out-hit 16-14 by Amarillo but the Captains' six-run ninth inning made the verdict a runaway. Rick Oliver socked a two-run homer and Dave Lindsey a three-run homer for Shreveport.

San Antonio broke a 2-2 tie with Arkansas in the seventh inning with some erratic fielding plays by the Travelers. After Larry Isaac singled, Rob Belloir's apparent double play grounder took a bad hop over Arkansas' second baseman Rudy Kinard's head and Isaac tried for third.

Stanton Girls Coach Resigns

STANTON — Head girls basketball coach, Pam Bass, has resigned to take the top coaching job for girls at Sonora, athletic director Bill Young said Tuesday.

Young said Stanton High School is seeking a woman to fill the vacant position who can also teach English and physical education.

Applicants should contact Stanton High principal Wayne Mitchell, 915-756-2410 or 915-756-3328.

Baseball Teams Resume Pennant Dashes Today

By The Associated Press

Now that the All-Star Game is history, all the stars can get back to the business of settling the four division races in the remaining 10 weeks of the baseball season.

That's just what they will start to do today as the major leagues resume where they left off Sunday with two new managers and a whopping 17-game schedule that includes five twilight-night doubleheaders.

Jim Marshall debuts as manager of the Chicago Cubs when they entertain the Philadelphia Phillies in an afternoon contest. Marshall replaces Whitey Lockman, who resigned Wednesday to devote full time to his other duties as vice president in charge of player development.

Under the lights in Atlanta, Clyde King takes over as manager of the Braves against the San Diego Padres. King once managed the San Francisco Giants and has been a special assistant to Eddie Robinson, vice president of the Braves, for two years.

Marshall, who managed for six seasons in the Cubs' farm system, was a Cub coach this year and was Lockman's own choice as his successor. Lockman was in his second full season after succeeding Leo Durocher in mid-1972.

The Cubs, who traded away a number of veteran stars last winter, have a 41-52 record and are fifth in the National League's East Division, seven games out of first place and just one-half game out of the cellar.

Marshall was given a contract until the end of the season.

King's contract also is until the end of the season. Robinson said that if a change is made next year, "Hank Aaron would be considered."

Aaron, who has often said he doesn't want to manage, expressed resentment at the All-Star Game in Pittsburgh Tuesday night that the Braves had summarily ruled him out along with his brother, Tommie Aaron, manager of the Braves' Savannah, Ga., team in the Southern League.

The Braves are fourth in the NL West, 14 games behind the Los Angeles Dodgers, who have a 5 1/2-game lead over Cincinnati. Oakland leads the American League West by five games over the Chicago White Sox.

RANGERS DRAW MORE Baseball Attendance Shows Increases

By The Associated Press

Winning isn't everything—but it sure helps attendance. The Los Angeles Dodgers have been living by baseball's "golden rule" for some time and now the San Diego Padres, Texas Rangers and Cleveland Indians are finding it to be true.

Attendance in the major leagues is up over last year by 150,000 with the dramatic help of those teams, who are winning more games this season and concurrently more fans.

The Padres have made the most dramatic attendance leap, according to an Associated Press survey. By the All-Star break, the Padres had drawn 783,930 fans, compared with 434,468 last season.

Last year, the Padres had a 33-65 won-lost record in the National League West. This year, (605,073), although still last, they have improved to 43-58.

The Rangers also have helped push major league attendance to 17,701,547 by mid-season. Last year at this point, the total attendance figure was 17,551,406.

Involved in a pennant race for the first time, the Rangers have drawn 775,120 into their stadium so far.

Promotional gimmicks have helped the Indians, but the fact that they are in the American League East race is the main reason for better attendance there, club officials feel.

In 1973, the Indians were out of contention in last place and drew only 400,907 by All-Star time. This year, they're fighting for the East Division lead and have produced 657,046 fans so far—more than Cleveland drew all of last season (605,073).

Johnny Unitas Retires After 18 Years In NFL

SAN DIEGO (AP) — "I hate to quit playing football, said Johnny Unitas. 'I'd like to play for another 30 years. Your mind is willing but your body wears out.'"

Unitas a year ago when the Colts benched him as a starter after 17 years. San Diego paid $150,000 for the rights to negotiate with him...

"I tried to workout four or five times but my knees swelled up and popped and were sore," he said. "I would be foolish for me to try to do things I once tried to do."

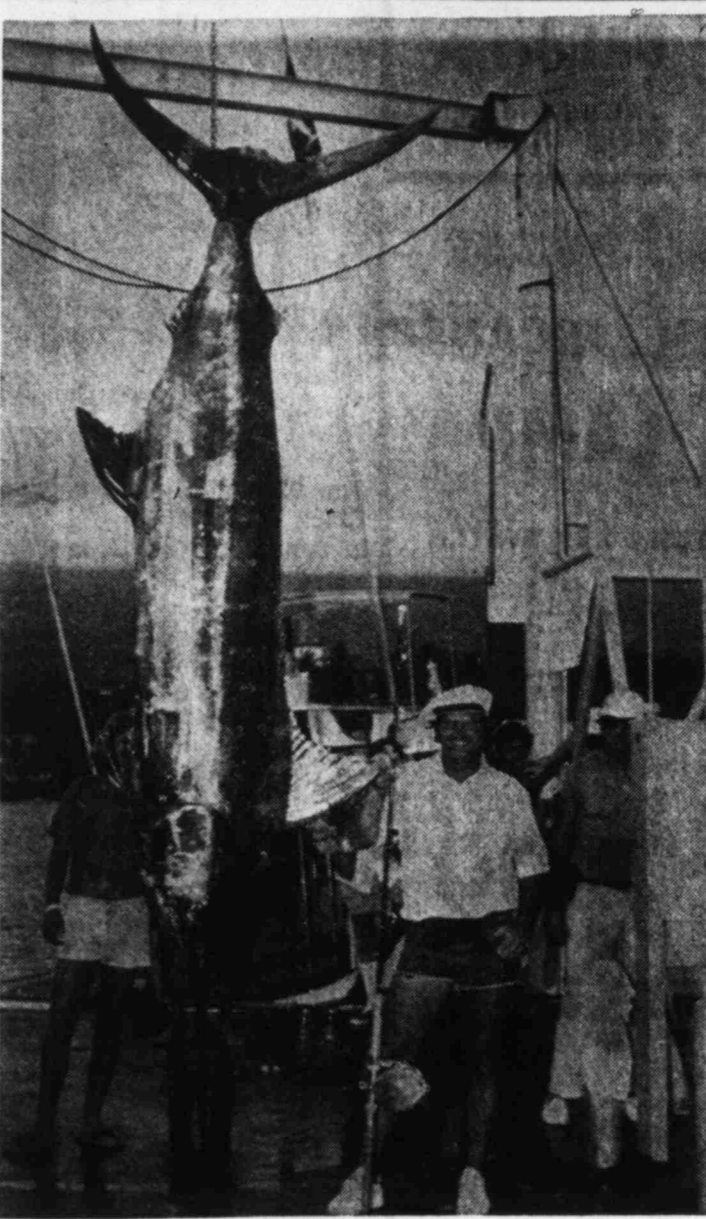

completed, 2,830; the most yards gained passing, 40,239, and the most touchdowns through the air, 290.

Unitas pulled out of the sport at the age of 41 as he was going into his 19th season.

Playing another season, he told newsmen, would be "too much to ask of a pair of 98-year-old legs" suffering from arthritis.

"I'm taking up time on the field when it could be used for better purposes for the younger people," said Unitas, who was starting his second year with the San Diego Chargers since he left the Baltimore Colts.

The National Football League star said he offered to stay and coach, but Coach Tommy Prothro declined.

Local Man Lands 534 Pound Fish

An otherwise routine vacation in Hawaii turned into a once in a lifetime experience for Mr. and Mrs. Gary Turner...

Turner, who had never been deep sea fishing before, landed a 534 pound blue marlin as he fished about five miles out in the Pacific Ocean off Kailua-Kona, Hawaii on July 17.

The 13 foot, six inch fish fought for one hour and 50 minutes before Turner finally brought him aboard the boat.

A foot long artificial lure was used to catch the fish, which was packed in ice and shipped to Florida where the Turners will have it stuffed and mounted.

Back at the dock, the fish was the catch of the day and a good crowd witnessed the weighing and the picture taking ceremonies.

WFL Roundup Americans, Fire Remain Undefeated

Jacksonville can't kick enough, anyway.

And Gary Davidson certainly can't. Not after the World Football League commissioner saw his "action and entertainment" dream explode into reality in football-mad Birmingham.

The Sharks set a WFL record Wednesday night — not a hard feat considering the league's only a few weeks old—when they kicked four field goals in the first half of their game against Southern California.

Grant Guthrie booted three-pointers of 23, 29, 27 and 42 yards. It turned out to be three points too few—or perhaps the game turned out to be seven seconds too long for Jacksonville.

On the last play of the game, rookie quarterback Tony Adams from Utah State heaved a 40-yard touchdown pass to Dave Williams and the Sun came up shining with a 22-19 victory that shocked the 46,780 Sharks fans.

In Wednesday night's other WFL games, the Birmingham Americans clobbered Memphis 58-33, the Chicago Fire turned back Portland 29-22 and the Florida Blazers beat Houston 15-3. The New York Stars are in Philadelphia tonight for the WFL's nationally televised game against the Bell.

Americans 58, Southern 33 As a WFL-record 61,319 fans at Legion Field shrieked their approval, veteran George Mira and rookie Matthew Reed of Grambling decimated Memphis' secondary with 378 aerial yards and five touchdown passes—three to Alfred Jenunbeaten.

Mira threw 38 and 74-yard scoring strikes to Jenkins and one to Dennis Homan for 12 yards. In the third period, Mira bowed out with a sprained ankle.

Fire 29, Storm 22 Virgil Carter of the Fire had a hot night in the air, too. He threw touchdown passes of 50 yards to Mark Keller, one yard to Cyril Pinder and 69 yards to James Scott too as Chicago took advantage of Storm mistakes to stay tied with Birmingham atop the Central Division.

Miss Softball Minor All-Stars In State Meet Abilene will be the host for the 1974 Miss Softball America Minor League State tournament which gets under way at 5:30 p.m. Friday with opening ceremonies at Eastern Little League field.

The Big Spring all-stars, 17 girls selected from the local league, will be up against fourteen other teams in the state meet including last year's champions, Abilene North.

Abilene South will field two teams as will Midland, Odessa, and Dallas while single teams will be in action from Albany, Denison, Breckenridge, Big Spring, Snyder and Sweetwater.

The opening games are slated for 6 p.m. Friday at Eastern, Northern and Lone Star Little League fields. There will be two games each night — Friday and Saturday — with the championship game slated at 2 p.m. Sunday.

TEXAS LEAGUE Cubs Homers Beat Toros

Wayne Byrone flexed his homer-hitting muscles Wednesday night as the Midland Cubs clobbered the Victoria Toros, leaders in the Texas League East.

Tyrone hit solo blasts in the second and seventh innings, giving him 26 homers for the year. Midland teammates Jerry Tabb and Bill Bright also connected, as the Cubs used their power to take an 8-3 victory despite being out-hit 10-9 by the Toros.

In other Texas League games, Shreveport outscored Amarillo 14-8, Alexandria tripped West leader El Paso 4-2 and San Antonio edged Arkansas 3-2.

El Paso's West lead over San Antonio dropped to five games as Alexandria, which has the worst record in the league, won its third straight game. Dave Wehrmeister pitched a seven-hitter for the Aces, with the only two runs he allowed coming in the sixth inning on Ron Jackson's triple. Dave Turner led the Alexandria attack with two hits, a run scored and one RBI.

Shreveport was out-hit 16-14 by Amarillo but the Captains' six-run ninth inning made the verdict a runaway. Rick Oliver socked a two-run homer and Dave Lindsey a three-run homer for Shreveport.

San Antonio broke a 2-2 tie with Arkansas in the seventh inning with some erratic fielding plays by the Travelers.

After Larry Isaac singled, Rob Belloir's apparent double play grounder took a bad hop over Arkansas second baseman Rudy Kinard's head and Isaac tried for third.

Stanton Girls Coach Resigns

Young said Stanton High School is seeking a woman to fill the vacated position who can also teach English and physical education.

Applicants should contact Stanton High principal Wayne Mitchell, 915-756-2410 or 915-756-3326.

Dodgers Trades Pave Road To The Top

The Los Angeles Dodgers not only have the best record in baseball, they're also tops in the trading circuit.

While the farm system continues to turn out good young ballplayers, two of the main reasons for the Dodgers' 5 1/2-game lead in the National League's West Division are center fielder Jim Wynn and relief ace Mike Marshall.

In 1973, Wynn was in his ninth full season with the Houston Astros while Marshall, who previously toiled in the majors for Detroit, Seattle and Houston, was setting a major league record by pitching in 92 games for the Montreal Expos.

On Dec. 5 the Dodgers acquired Marshall in exchange for Willie Davis, their long-time center fielder. The next day, they got Wynn for pitchers Claude Osteen, a veteran left-hander, and rookie Dave Culpepper.

The results should be fair warning to other general managers who deal with the Dodgers' Al Campanis to keep one hand on their wallet and the other on their roster.

Wynn is hitting a solid .290, leads the league with 21 homers and has batted in 69 runs.

Meanwhile, Osteen, who won 147 games in nine years with the Dodgers, is struggling at 9-7 for the Astros.

While the Dodgers traded an every-day player in Davis, who has been in 89 games for Montreal, they acquired something of the same sort in the tireless Marshall, who already has relieved 66 times, winning 11 and saving 14. He recently set a major league mark by relieving in 13 consecutive games.

Marshall's numbers tend to cloud the fact that Davis is hitting .308 for the Expos and has driven 55 runs home.

The St. Louis Cardinals also appear to have gotten the best of two separate deals with the Boston Red Sox.

On Oct. 26, they shipped pitcher Rick Wise and outfielder Bernie Carbo to Boston for outfielder Reggie Smith and pitcher Ken Tatum. Tatum is no longer with the Cards, but Smith has been among the NL's leading hitters all season. His current average is .321 with 13 homers and 63 RBI, plus 22 doubles.

Carbo is batting .257 for Boston with 10 homers and 46 RBI while Wise has been plagued by arm trouble and has pitched in only eight games with a 3-4 record and 3.91 ERA.

The Cards struck again on Dec. 7 when they traded pitchers Lynn McGlothen, John Curtis and Mike Garman from the Red Sox for pitchers Reggie Cleveland and Diego Segui and infielder Terry Hughes.

Curtis has been a disappointment with a 4-10 record and Garman has shown flashes of promise in the bullpen, but McGlothen alone had made the deal worthwhile. He has a 12-6 mark and 2.88 ERA and has been among the NL's top winners all season.

Segui has been Boston's bullpen ace despite a 5-4 record and 4.23 ERA, but Cleveland is mired at 7-8 with a 5.12 ERA while Hughes has warmed the bench most of the time.

NEW MANAGER WATCHES WORKOUT — Clyde King, who replaced Eddie Mathews as manager of the Atlanta Braves, watches his team take batting practice Wednesday. Mathews was fired Sunday after two years at the helm.

ICEBERG COOL IDEA

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP) — When they start building artificial icebergs, you can be sure hot weather really has arrived.

That's just what they finished doing Monday, however, at the unincorporated town of Ingram, 6 miles south of here in the torrid Southwest Texas Hill Country.

Tongue-in-cheek sponsors called it outdoor air conditioning and invited one and all to guess how long the 10,000-pound heap of ice will take to melt. There'll be a cash prize for the nearest estimate.

Merchants joining in the project trucked 33 cakes of ice, weighing 300 pounds each, from San Antonio and piled them atop each other. At the pinnacle they balanced a 100-pound chunk of ice.

They raised the icy hillock on a grassy plot beside the main intersection in Ingram, where the temperature went as high as 105 degrees only Friday.

Shultz Could Help Secure IRS Audits On McGovern?

WASHINGTON (AP) — John W. Dean III says President Nixon told him in 1972 that Secretary of the Treasury "to be some sort of candy ass" and would have to help get tax audits on Sen. George S. McGovern's campaign contributors.

Former White House counsel Dean's testimony, released today by the House Judiciary Committee, shows he also said Nixon did not order an alleged $75,000 hush money payment, but "the President felt it was desirable."

Dean's closed-door July 11 testimony was released along with that of former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell.

Dean testified Nixon made the comment about Shultz when he reported to the President Sept. 15, 1972, that then Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Johnnie Walters had refused Dean's request to audit a list of then Democratic presidential candidate McGovern's contributors.

"He (Nixon) said something to the effect, well, if Shultz thinks he's been put over there to be some sort of candy ass, he is mistaken, and if you just come tell me and I will get it straightened out," Dean quoted the President.

Rep. Tom Railsback, R-Ill., said at the committee's opening deliberations on impeachment Wednesday night that Nixon's alleged comment on Shultz is among evidence that could cause Railsback to vote for recommending impeachment.

Shultz had become head of the Treasury Department, which also includes IRS, three months earlier, June 12.

Dean said that when he went back to IRS with Nixon's backing, Walters still refused to audit the McGovern contributors. Dean said he did not know if Nixon told Shultz to have the audits made.

He testified the President launched a long discussion "about the IRS and not using it effectively and from there we immediately went to the fact that we were not using the entire apparatus of the government effectively and the changes that would be made after the election."

On the alleged hush money, Dean testified he did not feel after the now famous March 21, 1973, meeting that Nixon had told him to arrange the $75,000 payment—but that Nixon did feel it was desirable to pay the money.

Children With Behavior Problems Attend Class

Ann Mary Anderson, a therapist for the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, is directing a class for four children aimed at correcting behavior problems. The children range in age from seven to ten. They are attending "sessions" because they have trouble getting along in the regular classroom.

"Their problem is not that they are bad or delinquent. They are children who react to classroom situations differently than other children and therefore tend to disrupt the normal flow inside the classroom," states Anderson.

What are they learning at the Rehabilitation Center? "They are learning to be more amiable by becoming more aware of the consequences of their behavior," Anderson said. She continued by stating, "By learning to control their own behavior the children will have an easier time relating to the community that surrounds them. This is the reason that the project was started."

The children are not the only ones undergoing a change in attitudes. The parents of these children meet once a week and learn how to continue the learning process in the home. They are instructed in how to relate to what the child needs and wants. "It isn't easy for a parent to change the language, method they have been using to raise their children, even if it's wrong," Anderson said.

At the weekly sessions, the parents receive material to use with their children at home plus typical examples to help them with their assignment, Anderson said, "I talk to them about their kid."

The examples the parents receive are taken from the sessions with the children. "The attendance of the parents, according to Anderson, has been "tremendous." "The parents are really turned on by the ideas as well as the positive results we as a team are getting."

One of the parents was quoted by Mrs. Anderson as asking, "Why doesn't the PTA have something like this? I go to all the meetings and I don't want to hear what my child has done right in great detail and did wrong. I want to know how I can help him in specific terms, not vague generalities."

Will the time and effort that has been spent pay off? "Yes," says Mrs. Anderson. "I'm thrilled out of my head with the progress and potential of both children and parents." "The parents are the key to any lasting change in the children's behavior."

The classes started June 5 and will end the first week in August. Ron Coborn, PH.D., Director of Outpatient Services at the State Hospital, has been

Fifth Victim Of Explosion

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — A fifth victim of last Friday's explosion and fire in the Decatur rail yards has died, hospital officials said today.

Francis Ensign, 44, Decatur, died in Springfield Memorial Medical Center's burn unit Wednesday, the hospital said. He suffered burns over more than half his body.

Meanwhile, the Norfolk & Western Railway Co. said Wednesday that the explosion in its Decatur yards occurred after a rupture in a tank car carrying liquefied petroleum gas.

The cause of the rupture is still being investigated, a railroad spokesman said.

More than 130 persons were injured by the blast, which caused several million dollars damage to railroad and nearby residential and commercial property.

It's A 'Good Morning' When You Start With Breakfast

By JO BRIGHT

Is it really smart to eat breakfast? There's only one answer — yes!

It can well mean you or your husband will be more alert on the job. The kids will probably get better grades in school. And you'll be able to get through your housework with more energy and in less time.

Daily caloric requirements vary among individuals. But, whatever they are, nutritionists tell us breakfast should furnish a quarter of your food needs for the day. It should provide energy to "get you rolling" and carry you through a good part of the day.

If you sometimes think nothing short of a derrick will get your clan out of bed and to the breakfast table, try some new recipes or use your imagination. Vary the way you fix eggs, meats and cereals. Let them get a good whiff of coffee cake baking while fragrant coffee is brewing. It is a skillful way to lure sleepyheads.

A breakfast of maple-flavored sausage patties, browned and fried in a slow skillet, and hot maple cornbread would please even a fussy Vermonter. The maple aroma arouses appetites and the sweet flavor brings on calls for second helpings. A hint of the maple in the hot cornbread compliments that in the sausage patties.

HOT MAPLE CORNBREAD

2 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 cups cornmeal
2 tbsps. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
3/4 cup maple syrup
1 cup melted shortening
4 eggs, slightly beaten
Sift flour, cornmeal, baking powder, and salt

HOT MAPLE-FLAVORED CORNBREAD

together into a large bowl. Add maple syrup to melted shortening in saucepan. Gradually stir in eggs. Add fat-syrup-egg mixture to dry ingredients and stir until well mixed. Do not beat. Turn into a greased 9 by 9 by 2-inch baking pan and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) 25 minutes. Cut and serve while hot.

A HOT PLATTER of spiced applesauce toast and brown 'n serve sausage links makes an elegant breakfast. While the sausages are simmering, make buttery toast and sprinkle generously with a sweet, cinnamon-sugar mixture. Top it with ample dollops of applesauce and flank it with the sausage. Hot coffee or cold milk completes the menu.

Highlight Breakfast With Bran Muffins

A moist, tender muffin can make any breakfast a real joy for the bread lover in the family. These muffins will readily prove this point. They are rich tasting but not too rich because of their small amount of fat.

Mashed banana contributes moistness. Dieters, in fact, will find they can be savored without spreading with butter or jelly.

BANANA BRAN FLAKE MUFFINS

1 1/2 cups sifted flour
2 tps. baking powder
1 tsp. salt

1/2 cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
1/4 cup melted shortening or oil
1/4 cup milk

1 cup mashed bananas
1 cup bran flakes
Combine flour, baking powder, salt, and sugar; sift into mixing bowl. Add egg, shortening, milk, and bananas; stir just until dry ingredients are moistened. Fold in cereal. Fill greased muffin pans (2 1/2 x 1 1/2 inches) 3/4 full. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) until done. Yield: 12 muffins.

Eye Opener: Bananas With Savory Bacon

This summer season, make a unique breakfast dish. Baked Bananas, coated with graham cracker crumbs, sugar, allspice and grated lemon rind.

After baking, pour maple syrup, honey or cream over warm bananas and serve with bacon curls and steaming coffee. You'll need:

BAKED BANANAS
1/2 cup of Graham cracker crumbs
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. sugar
1/4 tsp. allspice
1/2 tsp. grated lemon rind
6 firm bananas, peeled

and sliced in half lengthwise
1 beaten egg
6 tbsps. melted shortening
Mix together crumbs, salt, sugar, allspice and lemon rind; place in shallow plate. Dip bananas into beaten egg and then into crumb mixture.

Brush shallow baking dish with a small amount of melted shortening and place bananas in dish. Drizzle with remaining shortening. Preheat oven to 450 degrees and bake bananas for 7 minutes, or until tender. Baste once with shortening. Serve warm with bacon curls. Yield: 4 to 6 servings.

THIS MOIST muffin takes to jellies or stands on its own as a good way to start the day. They're not too rich, but full of flavor.

Wake Them Up For Eggs Rolled In Ham

Change those old brunch habits with a hefty innovation — cheese-topped eggs cloaked in ham.

In this version, ham slices are wrapped jelly-roll style about hard-boiled egg halves, then covered by a margarine-milk sauce spiced with parsley flakes and mustard. Crest with handy sharp cheese slices, bake, and serve hot.

CHEESE-TOPPED EGGS ROLLED IN HAM

1/4 cup margarine or butter
1/4 cup flour
2 cups homogenized milk
1 tsp. dehydrated parsley flakes
1/2 tsp. dry mustard
1/4 tsp. salt
6 hard-cooked eggs,

shelled
8 thin slices boiled ham
8 slices (one 6-oz. package) pasteurized process American cheese

In a medium-size saucepan, melt butter or margarine over medium-low heat; gradually blend in flour. Remove from heat. Slowly add milk; stir constantly. Return to heat. Cook mixture over medium heat about 5 minutes, or until thick and smooth; stir constantly.

Remove from heat. Stir in parsley flakes, mustard and salt; set aside. Slice each egg in half lengthwise. Place two halves with narrow ends touching, cut side down, on the shorter end of a ham slice. Roll

LET THEM sleep late, then ring the breakfast bell for a brunch they'll remember — a three flavored treat of ham, eggs and cheese.

each jelly-roll fashion. Place rolls in a shallow 1 1/4-qt casserole. Pour sauce evenly over rolls. Top with cheese slices. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 30 minutes. Serve hot as a luncheon or supper dish, or for brunch. Makes 6 servings.

Rise, Shine And Cook Outdoors

Breakfast cooked out of doors is one of the great things in life. Rise and shine early for a robust, healthy breakfast. Fix Breakfast Hash and Eggs. It's easy . . . and you only use one skillet. Just mix canned corned beef hash and tomato sauce in the skillet. Eggs go atop the savory base.

Serve it piping hot from the skillet, with golden brown toast and slices of ripe melon. Add mugs of steaming coffee and, for the kids, mugs of cocoa.

American Diet Better Quality

The diet of affluent Americans has decreased in quality during the last 20 years, but the poor may be eating more nutritiously. The reason is Food Assistance Programs, including commodities and food stamps, Sally Springer, foods and nutrition specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, reported.

Old Game, New Twist

One of the greatest con games going on in this country — the selling of worthless real estate to people who let the vision of dollar signs cloud their better judgment — has taken a cute twist.

Disproving the old saying that once burned is twice shy, the smooth-talking muggers in white shirts, some of whom sold the subdivided desert or swampland in the first place, have come up with the idea of resale listing services. For a measly $100 or $200 (payable in advance), they will include your lot(s) in a list which they will publish and distribute to potential buyers.

As they tell it in their high-pressure spiel, there are all kinds of investors eager to snap up real estate for maybe double what you paid for it. Many of them, they say, are foreigners who, because of the devaluation of the dollar, are lusting after U.S. land.

But, of course, you must act now! For thousands of lot owners, feeling that throwing a little good money after a great deal of bad may be the only way they can ever recoup their "investments," the bait has been irresistible — never mind that no ethical real estate salesman expects a fee before he produces a sale. Apparently, not much can be done about it.

Must Be Stabilized

Cyprus, like some other nations, appears fated by history and geography to be a perpetual trouble spot.

The present trouble on that Mediterranean island between Greek and Turkish Cypriots and the nations of Greece and Turkey is but another of the age-long battles over control over the island nation.

Like Poland, Cyprus is a strategically situated country that often has been overrun by its more powerful neighbors. As in Ulster, its population sharply divided along religious and ethnic lines. Some wonder that the island has been able to maintain its shaky independence for the past 14 years.

Last week's military coup overthrowing Archbishop Makarios' government and the fighting because the con men do not actually promise to sell the lots. They do just what they say they will do, and that is to list them for resale.

between Turkish and Greek military forces over the weekend have thrown Cyprus into the center of attempts for outside domination of that nation. The initial coup was led by Greek officers, to which Turkey invaded the island claiming it was doing so to protect Turkish Cypriots. Then Greece got into the act and naval battles emerged. Finally, a cease-fire was effected.

Any settlement of the Cypriot conflict obviously will have to involve both the Greek Cypriot majority and the Turkish Cypriot minority. More important, it will need the cooperation of both Turkey and Greece in allowing Cyprus to maintain its independence.

Yet, it is vital that Cyprus be rescued from its role as a pawn between Turkey and Greece.

Around The Rim

Marj Carpenter

A few weeks back, Albert Cooksey died over in Pecos at the age of 87. I'm sorry he didn't make it another couple of years. He wanted to see the United States reach 200.

HE USED TO say, "This country isn't so old. It isn't 200 yet, and I'm going to be around when it's 200. You might say this country is just as old as two real old men."

He said a lot of things and sometimes, it would make people cringe. He used to irritate a lot of the oldtimers around Pecos by accusing them of setting the rodeo back a year so that it would be the oldest one in the world. Cheyenne, Wyo., laid the same claim and Pecos is supposed to have beaten Cheyenne by a year.

ALBERT WAS born in Reeves County in 1886. His memories were vivid of those early days. He used to tell his own version of the Miller-Frazier gunfights which occurred in the streets in the 1800s. He ought to know. One time, he was sitting in the street playing marbles, and warring factions held one of their famous fights right over his head.

But Albert's claim to fame came with the fact that he never really agreed with anybody. If everyone around him was an oldtimer and remembering the good old days, he'd say, "Oh, they weren't really that good. Remember when you had to kick a mule to get him started to get to town? Remember when you had to boil your clothes in a washpot? Remember when you had to hear those longwinded loud sermons?"

IF EVERYBODY around was young and telling about how much better modern times are, Albert would say "Oh, I don't know about that. Hand-frozen ice cream was the best. Songs around a piano were the prettiest.

Courting a girl in a buggy was the most fun."

If somebody would say, "This is a mean town. I never saw so much fighting and fussing. You get to wondering if you are safe," Albert would counter with, "Nobody around here ever shoots anybody. They threaten each other a lot but never shoot each other. The last murder was when an epileptic had his finger stick on the trigger of a gun, and he accidentally shot somebody."

ON THE OTHER hand, if people laid claim that Pecos was a kind and friendly town, Albert would say, "No it's not. They get up every morning and choose up sides and start a new fight. You can't even tell from day to day which side you are on."

Good old, kind, and cantankerous Albert. I'm sorry he didn't make it until 1976. But he might have said, "They don't really have any proof that America is exactly 200 years old."

EVEN NOW he may be telling St. Peter what kind of hinges he needs on his gate, or sitting on the edge of the Golden Streets because he can't find any angels to have a good argument with up there.

If the weather's the same every day in Heaven, that may upset Albert because he liked to argue about that too.

If you said, "This is the hottest day I ever remember," he'd say, "You can't remember much. Why I remember when it got so hot, the coyotes quit howling at night and just laid around and panted — even at midnight."

NO SIR, discussions just won't be what they used to be — with Albert Cooksey.

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

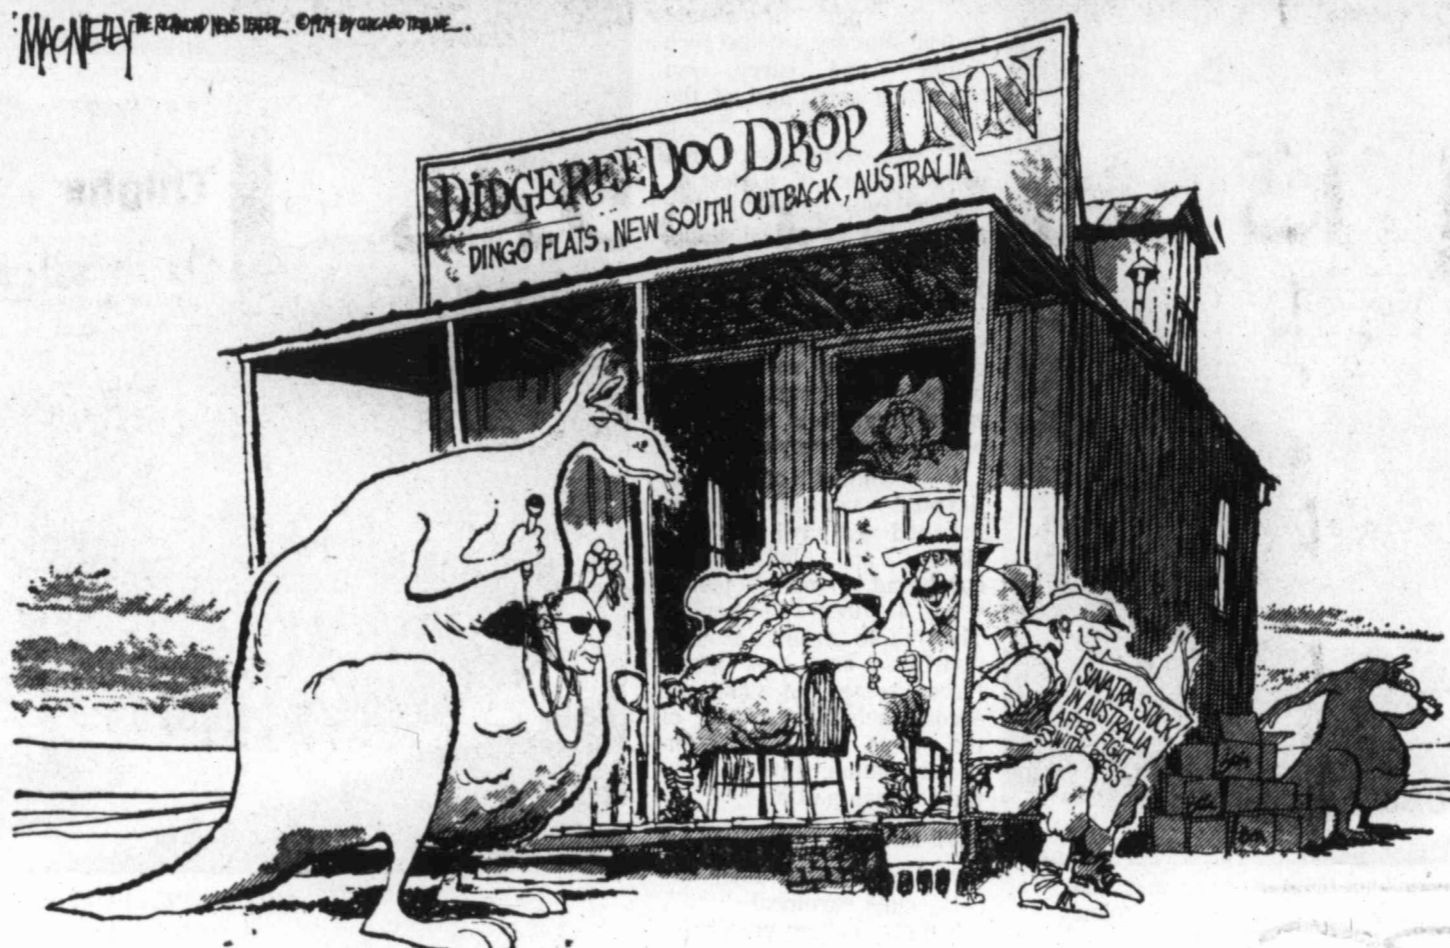

I am convinced that Christians should take a more active role as the nation's moral conscience. Yet how can the individual Christian openly voice disapproval, and at the same time not set himself up as a judge? (Matthew 7:1.) C.D.

The original language of the Bible text you mention helps us to understand the meaning. It should be translated "do not be always judging." In other words, the Lord opposes the censorious spirit.

The hypocrites believed themselves righteous and despised others. Making a great show of their own supposedly good deeds, they glibly passed judgment on their neighbors.

Actually, the Bible tells the minister of God to "reprove, rebuke and exhort." The old prophet Isaiah said, "Woe to them who call evil good and good evil." So there is a responsibility to be the "salt of the earth" in serving as an agent of God to disseminate truth and to offset evil.

Sometimes it is indeed our duty to judge others. When it is, we are safe if it is done with pity for the wrongdoer and grief for the dishonor done to God. There's great need for prayer and self-examination, however, lest we usurp the prerogative of God — the great Judge.

Many Fear Bank Failures

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — The failure of the administration to develop an effective program against inflation has so demoralized Americans that it could plunge the nation into a deep depression, a consumer pollster said today.

Albert Sindinger, whose research is widely circulated in the White House, the Treasury, the Federal Reserve and Congress, said public nervousness has reached the point where growing numbers fear bank failures.

While the administration continues to say the economy is recovering, Sindinger said in an interview, the public, worried about its falling buying power and rumors of layoffs, believes the opposite.

Daily telephone interviews with householders throughout the country show, he said, that millions fear that government doesn't understand the seriousness of inflation and is content to talk it away.

Specifically cited by those polled, he said, was the comment by Herbert Stein, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, that the American people themselves are to blame for inflation because they have declined to accept higher taxes.

Based on past experience, Sindinger maintains, correlations can be made between levels of confidence and future economic conditions.

So alarmed did he become over what he said was a precipitous drop in the public confidence about future buying power, jobs, the stability of banks and the economy in general, that he personally pleaded his case at the White House.

As a result, a White House representative visited Sindinger & Co.'s Swarthmore, Pa., office to monitor the responses coming in on the firm's battery of telephones.

Following that meeting, he visited Arthur F. Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board; William E. Simon, Treasury secretary; Paul W. McCracken, former chief economic adviser; Vice President Gerald R. Ford, and influential members of Congress.

His campaign reached a climax July 13 at Camp David, Md., where he said he spoke with various cabinet undersecretaries in meetings that extended into Sunday morning.

Many shared his fears, he said. While some congressmen also share his view, Sindinger said, he believes certain advisers around the President would rather believe that the worst is behind us rather than face the facts.

Since then, the Senate voted for a conference on inflation among business, labor, congressional, Federal Reserve and administration representatives.

Sindinger's surveys are conducted independently and sold to clients, many of them businessmen, for use in measuring and forecasting attitudes that might have an effect on sales or general economic conditions.

Ellsberg Profile

William F. Buckley Jr.

So now, in the course of exercising our Right to Know, we have access to the "psychiatric profile of Ellsberg" prepared for the White House by the Central Intelligence Agency, and it is spread out before us presumably on the grounds not that we, as plain citizens, have the right to know the psychic secrets of Daniel Ellsberg, but that we have the right to know the kind of thing being done in Washington under President Nixon after Ellsberg gave the secret Pentagon Papers to the New York Times et al.

WELL, WHAT did the CIA say about Daniel Ellsberg?

I am not at home in the lingo of the psychiatrists, having harbored a purely intuitive suspicion that a great deal of it is stuff and nonsense, but here is a drastic truncation of the 2,500-word report.

Ellsberg, the CIA author concluded — carefully specifying that he had had to proceed only on the basis of public and second-hand information — is a very brilliant man who suffered a great jolt during his childhood. This may have led him on the one hand to a kind of exorbitant individual assertiveness of his own, combined with a search for, and then a resentment of, a father figure. There were apparently a lot of these in Ellsberg's career, and their names are given, but always, after a little too much exposure to Ellsberg, they started pushing him away from their field of operations — or maybe Ellsberg got fed up with them.

CONCEIVABLY, — the profile continues — this pattern was reflected in the relationship between Ellsberg and the Chief Executive, the Presidency. That Presidency Ellsberg turned away from as exercising too much power — like his own father; and, like other father figures, for falling sufficiently to honor Ellsberg. Even his psychiatrist (the celebrated Dr. Fielding) either dismissed Ellsberg after two years, or was dismissed by Ellsberg. The report concludes that conceivably Ellsberg might become more normal "if he were to return to psychiatric treatment, perhaps a modification of analysis. If he were to return and participate wholeheartedly, it is possible that his destructive energy could be contained and even used to effect some change in his repetitious behavior."

NOW THE lady on CBS whose job it was to report on this aspect of the Watergate development the other night said it matter-of-factly that the purpose of commissioning the CIA profile of Daniel Ellsberg was to "smear" him. Another dirty trick — pure and simple. Perhaps James St. Clair will get around to doing it, but meanwhile a few observations, different in nature:

1) TO GET to the business they will raise most often — the paragraph in the profile about the sex life of Ellsberg, which is said to be "blatant" and variegated. A lot of "stable" people have "blatant" and variegated sex experiences. But, on the other hand, a lot of people who have blatant and variegated sex experiences are unstable.

2) THE UNITED STATES government, at the time this profile was commissioned, considered itself in some kind of war with Ellsberg. The other war we were fighting was against North Vietnam. Along comes Ellsberg, and gives a whole collection of secret papers to the New York Times to publicize.

Control For Hypoglycemia

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Enclosed are 25 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for your booklet, "Help For Hypoglycemia (Low Blood Sugar)."

I am wondering if this ailment can be cured. Our granddaughter, is 22 and has been told by doctors that she has it. Does this ailment cause convulsions? — M.D.

Let's be cautious about using the word "cure." Hypoglycemia usually can be controlled by proper meals, sometimes medication, and quite often, in addition, by the passage of time.

That last may be more important than you think because, in a good many cases, these unpleasant episodes of low blood sugar bother people who are of the tense type. As time passes, they learn to roll with the punches, to take things easier emotionally, and that helps a lot.

With such folks, it is probably more accurate to say that their disorder disappears, or stops bothering them, rather than to say they are "cured." You might compare it to someone with a nervous stomach who, while not really being "cured" of the irritable stomach, still learns how to control it so it isn't bothersome. (I don't mean that low blood sugar and nervous stomach have anything in common, however.)

A severe drop in the blood sugar level can cause convulsions, but this is not usual in such cases. Rather, they are spells of sudden weakness, hunger, semi-blackouts or visual disturbances, and that sort of thing. So if there are repeated convulsions, I would recommend a thorough examination looking for other possible causes, for which treatment might be quite different than for the hypoglycemia.

Another tip (which you'll find repeated in the booklet) is that sometimes hypoglycemia can be a forerunner of diabetes, so if there is any history of diabetes on either side of the family, your granddaughter should be tested periodically for that.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have been bothered with a sun rash when I go in direct sunlight and wonder if it is a lack of a vitamin or something. If so what vitamin should I take? Or would a suntan lotion help? — J.F.

There's no vitamin deficiency which causes that. You evidently have developed a sensitivity to the ultraviolet rays, a problem shared by quite a few others. A suntan lotion, if it is one that contains a "sun screen" ingredient which filters out some ultraviolet, can help within limits, but your best course is to avoid the amount of sun that brings on the rash.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I had a hysterectomy a year ago and had my ovaries removed, after which the doctor gave me hormone tablets. They made me vomit, although we tried several strengths. Now I am having an injection every three weeks. Th's helps some. I have friends who have had hormone pellets put in their arm and they say it is wonderful. I would like your opinion. — Mrs. D.M.

Such pellets have been tried in the past but to the best of my knowledge are not in use now. Stick to the injections.

Are you bothered with ringing in the ears? If so, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald, for his booklet, "Ear Noises — Their Causes and Cures." Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 15 cents.

Despair In Israel

Robert Novak

TEL AVIV — Deep depression over the future has replaced the thin layer of hope here that followed Israel's troop disengagement agreements with Egypt and Syria, leading to top-level private forecasts of another war within six months — and massive despair.

REFERRING TO Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's shuttle diplomacy last spring, one of Israel's highest officials told us with a hint of deprecation: "We appreciate what he did in testing the willingness of the Arabs to negotiate. We would not forgive ourselves if we had not tested. But now everything is going the wrong direction."

In short, at the highest levels of Israel's new-generation government of Prime Minister Itzhak Rabin, it is now taken as gospel that Egypt, instead of concentrating with Israel on a settlement of the Sinai, is trying to force the West Bank issue on Israel.

EGYPT'S PRESIDENT ANWAR

Sadat is accused of conspiring with Jordan's King Hussein and Palestinian leader Yassir Arafat to compel Israel to come to immediate grips with the Palestinian issue, regarded by Israel as insoluble at this time. Israel wants to "satisfy itself" that the Arabs really want peace — with implicit recognition of Israel as a permanent fixture in the Middle East — before dealing with the explosive Palestine-West Bank question. Egypt holds the key to that door, as the Israelis see it.

A BASIC problem, as perceived from this embattled land where the world is viewed through a different lens, is that the West Bank cannot be settled by the salami tactics of successive Israeli withdrawals from the Jordan River. A heavily populated area, the West Bank has no definable military lines. Rabin told us that Israeli withdrawal, if ever, can only come in a single package and only after the prime minister submits his eventual withdrawal plan for specific approval by Israeli voters.

New Price Policy

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Safeway Stores has just announced a new pricing policy. It says it will only stamp one price on a box or can of food and will not change the price while it's on the shelves.

WHILE SOME people consider this a breakthrough in supermarket shopping, there are others who feel this will take the thrill out of grocery buying.

My friend Milton Wallach was highly critical of the Safeway proposal. "The thing I like about going to a supermarket is that it was like going to a casino in Las Vegas. The big gamble was to get out of the store before they changed the price on you. You only had a half-hour to do it and the excitement for me was running down the aisles pushing my cart, with a stockboy chasing after me trying to stamp my goods with a new price before I got to the checkout counter."

WALLACH, who has spent a lot of time in supermarkets, said that in recent months there have been so many prices on food packages you could hardly read the labels. "I would go into the store and ask the clerk, 'Where are the baked beans you advertised for 40 cents?' He would reply, 'Oh those must be the ones we raised to 55 cents this morning. They were marked down from 62 cents, 57 cents and 45 cents last week. You better get them right away because I think they're going up to 70 cents in 10 minutes.'"

IN HIS observation Wallach discovered that in every supermarket the manager makes his own decision on what to charge for an item. "I was in one store and I saw a box of crackers with 65 cents stamped on them. "The manager happened to walk by and saw one of his clerks perspiring. 'Is it hot out?' he asked the boy. "It's 92 degrees," the clerk replied. "So the manager took out a rubber stamp and marked 92 cents on the crackers.

EVERY STORE, says Wallach, has a different method of raising prices. "Some send their stockboys down the aisles every 15 minutes stamping everything they can see. A few get carried away. In one store I was wearing white shoes and one of the lads had stamped $2.50, $4.50 and $6.50 on them. I complained to the manager who apologized and gave me a free can of white shoe cleaner which was marked 67 cents, 89 cents and $1.50."

A Devotion For Today..

"There is neither Jew or Greek, there is neither slave nor free; there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus." (Galatians 3:28)

PRAYER: Lord, make us one in Christ and help us to reconcile our differences. For His sake — and ours. Amen.

Winners, Alternates Chosen At Annual 4-H Dress Revue

"Every Fashion Under The Sun" set the scene for the 1974 Howard County 4-H Dress Revue Tuesday in the county fair barn. Girls had been judged earlier on the over-all appearance of their outfit, suitability of the design, color and texture for the girl, grooming, posture, attitude, poise, personality, construction and 4-H records.

Judges were Mrs. Jane Blay, extension agent from Terry County; Mrs. Janis Choate, extension agent from Mitchell County; and Mrs. Jean Martin, extension agent from Yoakum County.

Senior winner was Dana Westbrook, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Westbrook, Gay Hill, who won with a three-piece outfit of red, white and blue checked polyester knit made into a jacket with white collar and lapels. The gored skirt and cuffed pants made the suit interchangeable for various occasions.

Judged outstanding in the junior division was Carmen Holman, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Holman of Coahoma, who modeled the pant look she had created in a navy denim overalls and jacket combination.

Dana will represent Howard County Aug. 6, in district competition at Lubbock. Carmen will participate in the style show but juniors do not compete past district. A noon luncheon will be held at Lubbock Country Club by Plains Cooperative Oil Mill for the revue participants, their mothers, extension agents and news media representatives.

The top four senior girls in the district competition will be eligible to compete in the state 4-H Dress Revue which is slated during the State Fair of Texas at Dallas this fall.

Also named Tuesday night were alternates in the junior and senior divisions. They were Darla Harrington, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Ray, Vincent, senior division, and Jaylene Saunders, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Saunders, junior division.

In the junior divisions, blue awards went to Paula Allen, Shelle Peterson, Olga Cantu, Antoinette Nichols, Lisa Gale Fryar, Terissa Rene Mainard, Rebecca Ann Fryar, DeAnn Cannon, Robin Ethridge, Kristi Franklin, Ruby Jenek, Sherri Lynn Callihan, Karen Earls, Irma Franco, D'Ann Hall, Tammy Peugh, Jana Long, Stacy Parker, Jaylene Saunders and Carmen Holman.

Seniors receiving blue awards were Darla Harrington, Dana Westbrook, Tricia Jackson and Donna James.

In the new division, for garments only, red awards went to Paula Adams, Kayla Gaskins, Wanda Louise Shive, Cindy Brasher and Tonya Shortes. Lesli Guitard won a blue award.

The 4-H clothing program in the county was led by sixteen 4-H adult leaders under the direction of Miss Sherry Mullin, county extension agent.

There were seventy 4-H members enrolled representing five 4-H clubs. The leaders work with the girls with certain objectives in mind. These are to help the 4-H members build self-confidence and poise through developing and understanding of "self" in order to select and construct clothing which is becoming and expressive of the personality, develop skills necessary to plan and select a wardrobe, and help them to develop charm, good posture and habits of good grooming.

Approximately 150 4-H members, parents, leaders and friends were served refreshments following the revue.

Committees responsible for conducting the dress revue were decorations, Gay Hill 4-H Club; program covers, Just for Fun 4-H Club; refreshments, Coahoma 4-H Club; and script and narration, Lynn Hopper and Patty Peugh, Knott 4-H.

200 Women Formed B&PW Clubs In 1919

A skit "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" was presented by members of the Business and Professional Women's Club at their monthly dinner meeting at Coker's Restaurant Tuesday. The play depicted the four-day meeting of July 15-18, 1919, at St. Louis, Mo., where 200 delegates from 45 states met to organize the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. Dr. Lena Madesin Phillips, founder of the national federation, presided and expressed her philosophy on women's rights. She stressed the necessity of organizing nationally and pooling resources to advance the interests of women and provide a stronger legislative tool to better pursue their cause in future efforts. The play characters were dressed in the fashions of their period, and all their remarks can be found in the minutes of that 1919 convention. Participating were Mrs. Bert Affleck, Mrs. Cass Hill, Mrs. Mamie Roberts, Mrs. Oneita Hardy, Mrs. Garland Morrison, Mrs. James F. Vineyard and Mrs. Willard Sullivan.

Finance projects were discussed, and support was given for Mrs. Barbara Culver, Midland for appointment to United States district judge.

Mrs. Alfred Reynolds, a former member, was a guest. Mrs. Affleck presided over the business session.

Mrs. Vineyard, membership chairman, and her committee will host the next meeting which will be held in the Texas Electric Reddy Room, Aug. 13 at 7 p.m.

Food Freak

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Maybe others have this problem and your answer will help them and me, too.

I have a 14-year-old baby-sitter I'll call Jane. She lives in the neighborhood and her mother is a good friend of mine.

When my husband and I go out for an evening, we tell Jane what she may have to eat and drink, but when we come home, we find that she has raided the fridge, cupboards and even the freezer.

She has eaten a quart of ice cream, with a pint of chocolate sauce, a pound of nuts, and she's cleaned out the cookie jar and candy dish in one evening. This is plus three or four bottles of soft drinks. She has even gone so far as to bake a cake with mix, and packaged frosting, and eat the entire thing herself.

Jane's parents have spent a fortune sending her to doctors for her acne and weight problem. She seems to be getting worse. I've dropped hints, but to no avail. My husband says I should just asking her to baby-sit, but I'm afraid if I do her mother will wonder why.

Jane takes good care of the children and I like her. How should I handle this?
STUMPED

DEAR STUMPED: Jane is a compulsive over-eater. It would be a kindness to tell her mother that Jane needs help with her problem. If there is an Overeaters Anonymous in your area, I would urge Jane to get in touch with them. They have helped many a Jane. (And John, too.) If they aren't in your phone book, write to me.

DEAR ABBY: What's with women? They claim that they want to be individuals, but it isn't true.

Before my wife and I go to a party, or to join another couple or two, she calls the other women and asks: "Are you wearing a long dress or a short dress?" or "Are you wearing pants or a dress?"

Men never care what the other men are wearing. Please print this, maybe someone else can explain it to me if you can't!

INDIVIDUAL (MALE): Most women feel more comfortable (and less conspicuous) if the other women in their party are dressed in similar attire. Most men couldn't care less.

DEAR ABBY: Does this problem have a solution? We have a neighbor who gives us no privacy whatsoever when we want to relax outdoors to enjoy a quiet barbecue supper, or just sit and visit.

The moment she sees us outside, she "joins" — even when we're entertaining guests. And she stays until we go inside.

I realize she must be lonely, but must we suffer her presence whether we like it or not? I might add, when she is in the group she dominates the conversation.

DEE LEMMA
DEAR DEE: You have two choices. Suffer her presence, or come right out and tell her that you'd like a little privacy. It seems unkind, but that may be your only salvation. It's up to you.

After the games, ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Marshall Byrom of Brenham and Mrs. Lucille Jacobs were guests.

Brazos Beneficiaries Are Asked To Ante Salt Funds

Interests in the Brazos River basin have received some jolting news from the U.S. Engineers. The over-powering salt problem for the Brazos can be alleviated, but local interests ought to share in the costs, the engineers reported over the weekend. Why not split the estimated $50,285,000 cost 75 for federal and 25 local, the Engineers suggested. That would mean that political subdivisions and others along the river would be asked to raise $13,571,000. So far, they had been pushing for a project funded totally by the federal government. Drainage from some 1,500 square miles of the river's watershed in Crosby, Dickens, Garza, Kent, King and Stonewall counties contributes some 2,000 tons of dissolved salts daily to the Brazos River flow. About two thirds are chlorides (like table salt) and one-third sulphates (gyp). Besides sharing in the costs, the Engineers also recommended that Brazos beneficiaries also assume the $216,000 estimated annual operating cost of the system. Responses are invited until Aug. 30.

170 Defenders Missing After Outposts Captured

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Khmer Rouge insurgents captured two government outposts north of Phnom Penh, and 170 of the government defenders are missing, military sources said today. Tuk Hol, in Kompong Chhnang province, about 60 miles north of the capital, was lost Wednesday after six as-sources. They said 70 of the government troops were not accounted for. The post was established at Peam Longvek to try to keep insurgents from attacking food convoys coming down the river to Phnom Penh. In Saigon, the South Vietnamese command said its air force on Wednesday had its busiest day since the cease-fire 18 months ago. It said more than 210 strikes were flown and claimed 350 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed.

House Votes To Ban Strip Mining Close To River Beds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted to prohibit strip mining in or near river beds in the west, adopting an amendment environmentalists said strengthened proposed regulations to control surface coal mining.

The vote Wednesday on an amendment by Rep. John Melcher, D-Mont., brought the House nearer to final action on the strip mining legislation after five days of floor debate. The House was expected to take a final vote on the bill Wednesday but because of other legislation and continued delaying tactics by opponents, was unable to devote more than about an hour to it.

Melcher's amendment, adopted 84 to 2, would ban mining in the proximity of the beds of rivers and streams in arid and semiarid areas. It also would ban mining in these areas where the water table lies so close to the surface that it supports extensive vegetation.

Melcher said the amendment would apply almost exclusively to the West, where millions of tons of strip minable coal underlie dry prairie and grazing lands.

Sponsors of the strip mining bill claim they have enough votes to pass it and send it to the Senate, which has already passed similar legislation.

Penetrate Tight Security To Plant Bomb On Airliner

LONDON (AP) — The Irish Republican Army said today it had penetrated tight security at British airports to plant a gelignite bomb aboard a civilian airliner and warned it will do it again.

An anonymous caller claiming to speak for the Belfast brigade of the IRA's Provisional wing telephoned news organizations and said a two-pound bomb discovered aboard a British Airways Trident on Tuesday was not meant to explode.

Police officers reported that Tuesday's bomb, planted aboard the Trident flying from Belfast to London with 92 passengers because the timing device did not work.

Northern Ireland's police sengers and crew, failed to chief, James Flanagan, three Ulster police heroes of the battle against terrorists in the province, and top Protestant politician James Molyneux were among the passengers on the plane which made an emergency landing at Manchester.

DEMO LEADER SAYS: Only Miracle Can Save Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite President Nixon's decision to turn over more Watergate tapes, a House Democratic leader says only a miracle can save Nixon from impeachment and Republican leaders made no move to delay the impeachment proceedings.

The assessment about the need for a miracle came from Rep. Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., House Democratic leader, who predicted the Judiciary Committee would recommend impeachment and that the full House would vote impeachment by at least 60 votes.

"And it could well be that a tidal wave would hit the House and he'd be impeached by over 100 votes," O'Neill said.

Vice President Gerald R. Ford said he thought Nixon's compliance with the Supreme Court order would help the President fight impeachment by swaying public opinion in his favor.

BIT CLOSER

However, Ford conceded the question of whether the House would vote impeachment has "become a bit narrower" since when Ford first predicted the House would reject impeachment.

He also urged Nixon to turn over to the impeachment inquiry all relevant parts of the tapes. The Supreme Court order requires the President to furnish tapes to the Watergate special prosecutor.

Several Republicans on the House Judiciary Committee spoke of the need to delay the impeachment inquiry in hopes of getting the new tapes. However, they made no formal move to win delay during the committee's opening session of public debate.

The initial reaction to Nixon's decision to comply was almost uniformly favorable, although there were reservations that the White House would take considerable time to prepare the tapes, thus drawing out the Watergate saga.

Both Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., and Rep. Ogden R. Reid, D-N.Y., called for speedy presidential compliance. Percy suggested that the White House turn over the tapes "recording by recording, conversation by conversation, just as quickly as they have been processed for delivery."

AVAILABLE

A spokesman said special prosecutor Leon Jaworski likely would arrange a meeting with U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica today to ask that the tapes be ordered turned over within a few days.

The spokesman said the prosecutors knew at least 33 of the transcripts to be "readily available."

Archibald Cox, the original Watergate prosecutor who was dismissed by Nixon, said the Supreme Court decision "reaffirms two cornerstones of liberty: One, that the law applies to all men equally, and two, that the executive is under the law."

But White House aide John McLaughlin said the nation would face a year-long "parade of horrors" if the House votes to impeach Nixon.

Louisiana Gas To Bolster Pioneer System

BOSTON, MASS. — Pioneer Natural Gas Company executives, appearing before groups of security analysts this week in Boston and New York, announced that the company's new Jennings Townsite Field in Louisiana will generate approximately $15.5 million in cash flow (before federal income tax) for the company in the next three years. Available geology and geophysics indicate a possible additional before-tax cash flow of approximately $9.5 million during that period, even if the field does not expand.

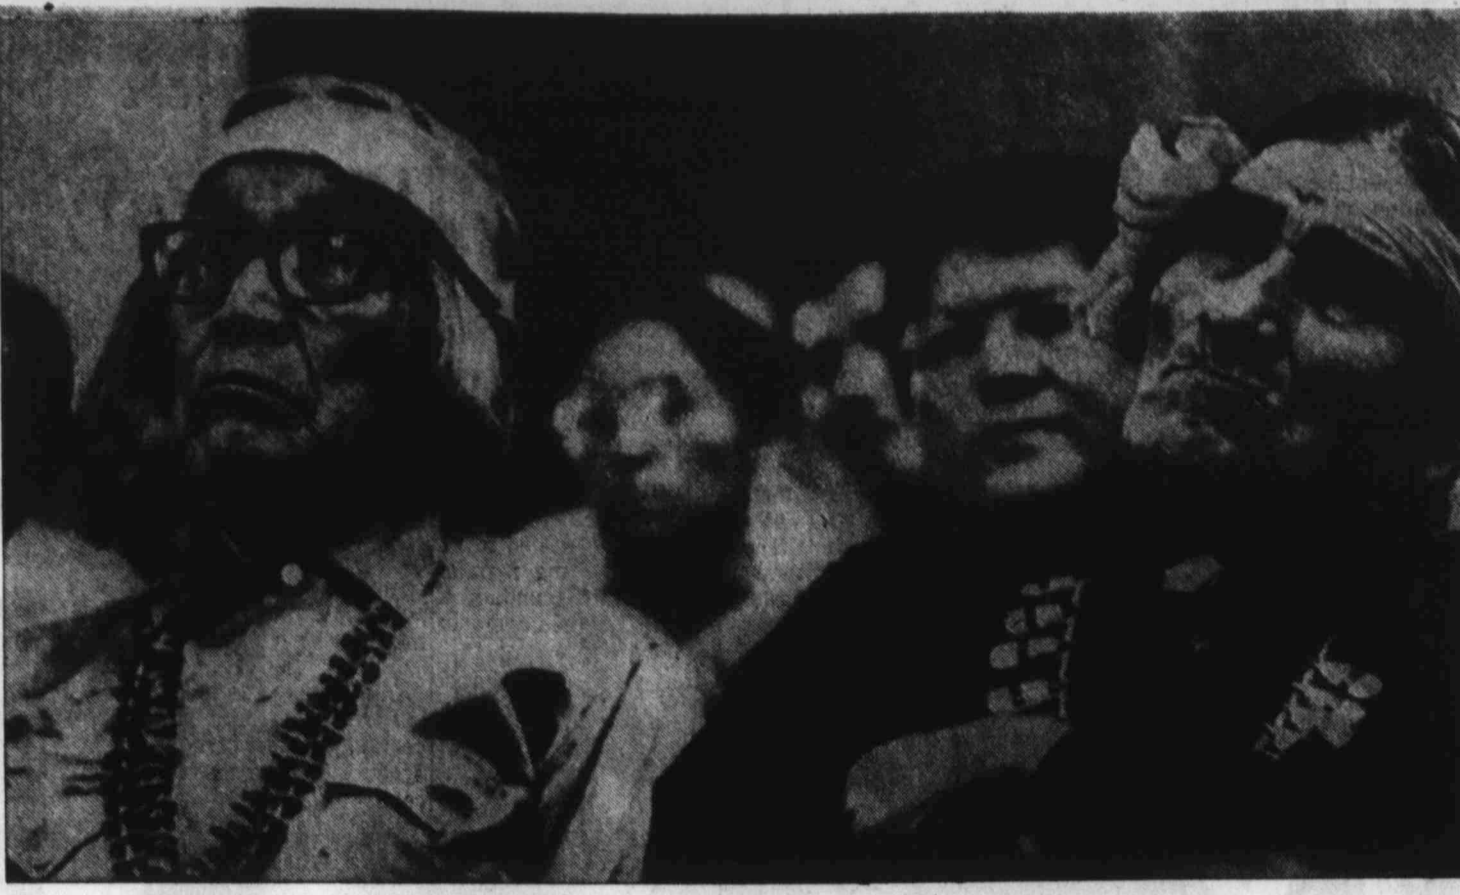

K. B. "Tex" Watson, Pioneer president, said the company anticipates "good improvement" in second quarter earnings this year adding that planned capital additions for 1974 are $43 million, a record amount for the company, to be financed by previously arranged bank credit.

E. S. Morris, Pioneer vice president and president of Pioneer's producing subsidiaries, said "We anticipate an initial production rate of 25,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day from four wells (in the Louisiana field). But after some preliminary testing, we will increase this rate to 40,000,000 cubic feet a day."

Before Nixon's decision to obey the court was announced, members of the Republican party's conservative wing voiced their concern about the possibility that the President would fail to comply and about what one senator saw as impeachment politics being played by the White House.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., had predicted that any refusal by Nixon to obey would "have a very bad effect on his chances of surviving impeachment."

Later, when the Nixon decision was announced, Goldwater sounded relieved. Asked whether the move would stem the impeachment tide, Goldwater responded, "There's no way of knowing."

WILL NOT LEAVE LAND — The Senate Interior Committee held hearings in Washington Wednesday on the Navajo-Hopi reservation boundary dispute. A spokesman for the Navajos said they will not comply willingly if Congress orders them to leave land their tribe has occupied in Arizona for generations. These two Hopi elder councilmen were among several Indians attending the hearing.

Fireman Pays To Fight Fires

EASTLAND, Tex. (AP) — Volunteer fireman Gordon Stirling loved to fight fires. He pleaded guilty Wednesday to setting three grass fires then racing to his fire station so he could ride the fire engine back to douse the blazes.

Stirling was sentenced in district court to a three-year probation term.

Dallas Audit Report Looms

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas County auditor George Smith said Wednesday he will make a formal report next week to county commissioners of his completed audit of the sheriff's bail bond section.

Smith began the audit two months ago after it was revealed more than $3.3 million in bail bond forfeitures had not been collected by Sheriff Clarence Jones' office.

The commissioners also hired the national accounting firm of Ernst and Ernst to conduct a separate audit and analysis of the bail bond system.

A progress report from Ernst and Ernst is expected to be delivered to the commissioners Monday.

Smith said his report will trace the flow of money through Jones' office and make recommendations on the operation of various county departments.

Smith added the report will set up in general terms how an efficient bail bond system can be operated.

When you have 2,520 days of nothing to do, the trick is to organize each day's activities.

That was his way of survival, Lt. Col. Arthur W. Burer told the Downtown Lions Wednesday of his seven years as a prisoner of war in North Vietnam.

This was particularly true of two years, in two hitches, he spent in solitary for refusal to admit that the United States might be wrong.

TAPPING MESSAGES

One device was to day-dream, but he had to limit himself to a certain number of hours to this activity lest he lose touch with reality. Then he switched to mental mathematics, exercise, or recalling books, plays, tirelessly observing ants, frogs and rats. Once he trapped a big rat in his room for company. At times he almost wished for interrogation just for someone to talk to.

One reason given for solitary confinement (in a 5x5-ft. concrete cubicle) was to keep him away from "hardened criminals." From this he deduced they must be other American POW's, so a system of wall tapping began.

First it was like an unknown tongue until the POW in the next cell discovered Col. Burer knew a few letters in the Morse code. Laboriously he taught him the rest of the alphabet, then another code.

This was going on all over the camp, long before anyone met the others face to face. They knew everyone by name, rank, serial number, had established a chain of command and fixed a mission: "Come home with honor."

INGENUITY
When finally POW's were permitted to group, they organized classes (he taught a six-months course on the Civil War), reconstructed movies, organized socials (they even had a makeshift Las Vegas night).

American ingenuity, iron personal discipline, constant exercise, and undying determination helped them realize that goal in 1973. Toward the last they were dismayed by invitations to talk with Americans such as Jane Fonda and Ramsey Clark "come to take you back home." Ninety-five per cent of the men never gave an inch on their code, and when it was over the North Vietnamese grudgingly admitted: "You're the toughest nuts we ever tried to crack."

These and a thousand other experiences deepened his conviction that there's no comparison between a democracy and a dictatorship such as communism, he said. There's only stark contrast.

ONE VIEW - OFFICIAL

In North Vietnam there's only one view, the government's; no press but the government press; no freedom of movement; only one channel on the radio.

"When they speak, they always read," he recalled. "When we were interrogated and got them to talk, they got off the track and were lost. They had to go back to the script and pick it up."

With whatever faults it might have, democracy, with its ideal of liberty, is so far better for individuals that there's no comparing.

"I came back with Patrick Henry's 'give me liberty or give me death' ringing, and determined to contribute what I can to my country and to die preserving those liberties if necessary," he said.

"GREATEST CONFIDENCE"

"We have gone for 200 years and are going through a time of testing, but I have the greatest confidence that 200 years in the future, democracy will still be around for more testing."

At Wednesday's meeting Tom Vernon, coach, and Tommy Walker, manager of the teenage league baseball team sponsored by the Downtown Lions, presented the trophy won by the Lions who now compete in regional play-offs. President Aubrey Bryans set a directors meeting for 6:30 p.m. today at the Country Club.

Famous Bull Finally Ridden

DENVER, Colo. — Oscar, one of the most famous bucking bulls in rodeo, was successfully ridden for the first time, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said.

The snappy, cross-bred Brahma, owned by Rodeo Stock Contractors, Inc., of Clements, Calif., has been out of the chute approximately 150 times over the last several years, and threw off each rider. John Davis, Homedale, Ida., one of the top riders in the country, managed to stay atop Oscar for the required eight seconds, and was scored 79 points — a good score in rodeo — to win first at the Salinas, Calif., rodeo for $1,290. The bull is featured in the Academy Award winning movie "The Great American Cowboy."

The Salinas rodeo was the largest to end over the weekend, paying cowboys better than $46,000.

However, Don Gay, Mesquite, Tex., pocketed $1,147 at Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Ida., after scoring a remarkable 91 points on Bull No. 17 of Bentler Bros. and Cervi. In this same rodeo, Scott Hudson, Colorado City, Tex., got $919 in splitting the steer wrestling pit with Bill Duvaill, Checotah, Okla.

Event leaders are: All-around cowboy — Tom Ferguson, Miami, Okla., $40,579, and Leo Carmillo, Oakdale, Calif., $25,900; saddle bronc riding — J. C. Bonine, Hysham, Mont., $16,796, and John McBeth Burden Kans., $16,708; bareback bronc — Joe Alexander, Cora Wyo., $25,435, and Chris LeDoux, Kaycee, Wyo., $15,300 (and Jack Ward Odessa, Tex. fourth with $13,019); bull riding — Don Gay, Mesquite, Tex., $16,131 and John Davis Homedale, Ida., $15,913; calf roping — Tom Ferguson $25,877, and Jeff Copenhaver, Long Creek, Ore., $16,289; steer wrestling — Frank Shepperson, Midwest, Wyo., $17,517, and Tom Ferguson $14,506; GRA barrel racing — Jena Felts, Woodward, Okla., $9,947, and DeLysa Trotter, Midwest City, Okla., $7,547 (and Thaye Lewis, Big Spring, Tex., $3,388 for 12th).

DECLARED ILLEGAL — The one-cent token which pretty Ramona Ballew, a coed at Southwestern State College, is pointing to has been declared illegal by U.S. Treasury agents. The Weatherford, Okla., Chamber of Commerce had planned to issue the token for merchants to use as change to ease the critical penny shortage, and now is looking at alternative plans. The proposed token is surrounded by five of the real things, which are mighty scarce in the western Oklahoma City

To Raise Price Of Newsprint
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Southwest Forest Industries has announced price increases of 15 and 21 per cent in its newsprint and linerboard products. A spokesman said here the increases are in keeping "with an industry trend." "We're just following what other companies have done in the West," a corporate official said. "It will increase South-West Forests profit but I have no way of knowing what the profit margin will be." Southwest Forest said the price of its 30-pound newsprint will go from $213.50 per ton to $245 effective Aug. 1. The company said its 42-pound linerboard price will be raised immediately from $185 per ton to $200.

Low-Grade Lint Contains Slicks
LUBBOCK — Cotton wasties are a drag on the market. Oil spills are a plague to an industrial society. Now it appears that, combined, a new cure for the oil spills could provide a good market for the wasties. Cotton wasties are the lowest market grade of the fiber, selling for about a third of a good grade. But these short staple, weak, spotted fibers criss-crossed over an oil slick have a peculiarly superb quality for forming capillary bridges which pick up the oil and hold it, according to a research team at Texas Tech University. The three-man team includes two chemical engineers and a textile engineer who began their research with the support of Cotton, Incorporated, and now have an $89,000 grant from the U.S. Coast Guard to pursue their studies. HIGH ABSORBENT They have discovered that cotton can pick up 50 times its own weight in oil and still stay afloat without any apparent loss because of wave action. This, they say, is far superior to any other system used to pick up oil slicks. The trick, according to the team, is to spread a very fine gauze-like layer over the oil slick and then sweep up the entire mass. It recommended a layer seven-thousandths of a foot thick, the width of "a gnat's eyebrow." The team includes Dr. George F. Meenahan, chairman of the

Sentences Delayed
TYLER, Tex. (AP) — Sentencing of three men found guilty of kidnaping and robbing a Georgia businessman has been delayed indefinitely. U.S. District Court Judge William Wayne Justice delayed sentencing of the trio here to give defense lawyers time to prepare an appeal. Justice said a recent ruling by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans in another case could affect the Tyler case. He said the ruling involved mention to jurors of the competency of the defendant to stand trial. The subject of competency was mentioned twice in the Tyler trial Justice said. The three defendants, Wayne Barfield, Larry Fortune and Peter Kaiser, all of Tyler, were convicted June 28 of the kidnaping, robbing and shooting of James O. Hoover. Hoover was abducted from Columbus, Ga., and driven to Texas where the attack occurred.
