The World At-A-Glance

NEW YORK (AP) — Airlines are losing a lower percentage of the luggage they handle but consumer complaints about bags lost or delayed have jumped more than 70 per cent in the first six months of 1974 over a year ago, government officials say. The Civil Aeronautics Board, the government regulatory agency overseeing airlines, says baggage complaints this year through June totaled 1,279, compared with 743 in 1973.

CALDWELL, Idaho (AP) — Some businessmen like to play golf or slip away to a beach home or relaxation. But not Malcolm Baldrige Jr., board chairman of the Scovill Manufacturing Co. of Waterbury, Conn., which employs 21,000 persons in making items ranging from appliances to thumbtacks. He relaxes by roping steers on the professional rodeo circuit. Baldrige, 52, competes in about 10 rodeos a year. He says he enjoys the change from business life. "I try to make as many rodeos as I can, but it's a little hard wedging them in sometimes," Baldrige said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. citizens will be able legally to buy, sell and hold gold as of Dec. 31 for the first time since 1934. President Ford signed legislation lifting the ban imposed during the worldwide depression of the 1930s, when the United States went off the monetary gold standard.

Hunt Strangler Of Two Girls

MONTVALE, N.J. (AP) — Bergen County Prosecutor Joseph Woodcock says two teenage girls whose nude bodies were found near a garden apartment here apparently were strangled. The bodies of Lorraine Kelly, 16, and Mary Ann Pryor, 17, north Bergen, N.J., were found Wednesday morning lying face down, side by side, in a wooded area. They had been missing since Friday.

Woodcock said it appeared the girls had been sexually assaulted. He said they apparently had been killed Monday night.

Police theorized that the girls were runaways. Woodcock said the girls were last seen together Friday afternoon at a bus stop in Ridgely, about five miles from their homes and about 15 miles from this residential community near the Rockland County, N.Y., border.

Lamesa Is Losing Chamber Manager

LAMESA — Art Roberts has resigned as manager of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce, effective Sept. 15, to become executive vice president of the Edinburg Chamber of Commerce. Roberts moved to Lamesa in July, 1971, from Odessa where he served on the Chamber of Commerce staff.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Clay L. Shaw died today at his home, 5½ years after a state court jury acquitted him of a charge that he conspired in the murder of President John F. Kennedy.

The 60-year-old Shaw, former director of the International Trade Mart in New Orleans, had been ill since February, when he was stricken while driving his car and underwent surgery for removal of a blood clot.

His death was announced by a funeral home.

Although Shaw retired in 1965, with plans to travel and rest, he had to go back to work when his legal fight against then Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's charges used up his modest fortune.

He resigned May 31 as manager of the renovation of the French Quarter's French Market, a tourist mecca project he had guided from inception in 1971 to actual construction.

Old Settlers' Program Opens At 10 Tomorrow

Fifty years ago men and women who helped settle Howard and Glasscock Counties gathered at the McKinney place near Coahoma.

Most of them are now gone, but their descendants gather once more Friday — this time for the Golden Anniversary reunion at Comanche Trail Park.

Activities begin at 9 a.m. when old timers (now considered anyone residing here 25 years or more; or a member of a family with such residence) begin together.

The formal program starts at 10 a.m. with an invocation, memorial service, a brief history of Howard and Glasscock Counties, old fiddler's contest, washer-throwing and horseshoe pitching, antique car joshing.

Other awards and recognition will be to the best dressed "old timer," a special Golden Anniversary prize to some participant, the Howard-Glasscock native having come the greatest distance, the eldest woman and man, the couple married the longest.

The Order of Arrow will put on authentic Indian dances, and Pete Jenkins and Dr. Gale Kilgore, with their Howard County Playboys, will furnish music. They also will play for the dance at the Old Settlers Pavilion from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

Private Citizen Nixon Summoned As Witness

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon was subpoenaed today to appear as a witness for John D. Ehrlichman in the Watergate cover-up trial.

It was the first legal action involving Nixon since he became a private citizen.

The subpoena was presented to U.S. District Court and was signed by Andrew C. Hall, Ehrlichman's lawyer.

NOT SERVED

It has not yet been served on the former president, who could send his lawyers to court to ask that the subpoena be dismissed.

The subpoena said: "You are commanded to appear in U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia ... on the 9th day of September, 1974, at 9:30 a.m. to testify on behalf of John D. Ehrlichman ... and to remain until called."

It was addressed to Nixon at the "Presidential compound, San Clemente, Calif.," where the former president has been since resigning his office last Friday.

A U.S. marshal will deliver the subpoena to the compound after it is sent to California from Washington, a lawyer in the case said.

CO-CONSPIRATOR

The federal grand jury that indicted Ehrlichman, Nixon's former domestic counselor, and six other former White House and political aides, also named Nixon himself as an unindicted co-conspirator in the cover-up.

There had been repeated subpoenas for Nixon's records while he served in the White House. Circumstances are different now because he no longer has the protection of the office as grounds for resisting such a call.

The cover-up grand jury has been meeting in recent weeks, and a big question is whether it will indict Nixon now that he is no longer president.

Spokesmen for the Watergate special prosecution force say no decision has been made on whether to seek an indictment, and that no action is expected in the near future.

Any party in a lawsuit may issue subpoenas for witnesses without prior court approval. However, the recipient may ask the court to dismiss a subpoena later.

Ehrlichman is one of six defendants scheduled to go on trial Sept. 9 on charges of obstructing justice by attempting to thwart the investigation of the Watergate break-in at the Democratic party's national headquarters in 1972.

RE-ELECTION

The other defendants are former White House chief of staff H. R. Haldeman; former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell; former Haldeman aide Gordon Strachan, former Nixon re-election committee aide and one-time assistant Atty. Gen. Robert C. Mardian; and Kenneth Wells Parkinson, a re-election committee lawyer.

Ehrlichman had attempted to subpoena Nixon, while he was still president.

That was in connection with California state charges against Ehrlichman, most of which have since been dismissed, growing out of the break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist, Dr. Lewis Fielding of Beverly Hills.

A California judge issued a subpoena in that case but before the Washington, D.C., Superior Court could act on it, the issue was made moot by dismissal of the charges.

Ehrlichman was convicted July 12 in U.S. district court on one count of conspiring to violate Fielding's civil rights and two counts of lying to a Watergate grand jury. He was sentenced to serve 20 months to 5 years in prison, but is free while appealing the sentence.

Turkish Invasion Forces Trying To Bisect Cyprus

By The Associated Press

The Turkish Cypriot radio said Turkish forces captured the eastern Cyprus port city of Famagusta today and the Greek Cypriot naval base in the Boghaz area 10 miles to the north.

It also said a Turkish assault for Lefka began on the western part of Cyprus, and Turkish forces launched attacks on the eastern and western approaches of Nicosia, the capital.

SITUATION DESPERATE

The moves against Famagusta, Nicosia and Lefka seemed to be further confirmation that Turkish invasion forces were trying to bisect Cyprus along an east-west line that would slice off the northern third of the island to create a Turkish autonomous region.

Famagusta, the second largest city on Cyprus and its most important port, is 35 miles east of Nicosia. Lefka is 20 miles west of the capital.

"We are in a desperate situation, ready to clutch at any straw to save ourselves or preserve as much as we can," a senior Cyprus government official said.

Associated Press correspondent Peter Arnett reported from Famagusta that Turkish tanks rolled into the outskirts of the city at mid-afternoon, firing a few salvos at a British outpost as they passed by.

SOLDIERS FLEE

He said the British evacuated the outpost without casualties. Arnett said the news of the Turkish approach apparently had gone ahead because many Greek soldiers were running through the streets, away from the advance.

The Turkish Cypriot broadcast said Turkish warships and jets joined the battle for Famagusta earlier in the day.

In Athens, Foreign Minister George Mavros said U.S. military bases in Greece are protected by bilateral agreements and expressed doubt that such agreements can be broken.

BRIEF LULL

The renewed fighting on Cyprus, which started at dawn, shattered a cease-fire agreed to by both sides Wednesday night. The lull lasted only through the hours of darkness.

The camp of the 950-strong Greek army contingent, permanently based on Cyprus, was one of the main targets of the assault, and fighting raged at midday.

The camp, known as the Eldyky, is on the main western highway to Morphou. It lies two miles outside the capital, about a mile from the perimeter of Cyprus airport, still in Greek hands.

Another area heavily hit was a five-mile string of factories on the east side of Nicosia, stretching between the main roads to Famagusta in the east and Larnaca to the south.

United Way Campaign Will Formally Begin Sept. 6

The 1974-75 United Way campaign got some traction Wednesday, when campaign chairman met with W. S. (Dub) Pearson, campaign chairman, for a Dutch treat luncheon at the Holiday Inn.

Those attending were reminded that the goal in this year's drive is $121,777, which represents an increase of 1.8 per cent over last year's objective.

Tom Locke will co-chair the campaign this year because of the business demands upon Pearson. The latter is publisher of The Big Spring Herald, which is converting to a new concept in printing.

CHAIRMEN LISTED

Broken down by division, these are the goals for 1974-75. The chairman of each division is listed in parentheses:

Big Gifts, $43,812 (Jimmy Taylor); Out of Town, $8,508 (Paul Meek); Employees, School, State, $6,128 (Bob Butler); Employees, County, State, $2,000 (Virginia Black); Employees, $27,863 (Dearl Pittman); Metropolitan, $1,489 (A. J. Stutzer); Special Gifts, $3,026 (Clayton Hicks); Area, $983, (M. A. Snell); Women, $3,718 (Jeanette Snodgrass); Combined Federal Campaign (CFC), $26,250 (Maj. John Grathwohl). The latter agency embraces all federal workers and military personnel.

The overall objective includes campaign and operating expenses, which are minimal, and allows for shrinkage (or non-payments).

Agencies which share in the money raised in the campaign had asked for a total of $173,146, as compared to $164,476 last year and $153,851 the year prior to that.

Division chairmen are in the process of naming team captains. Those captains will be with their divisional leaders for a "kickoff breakfast" at 7:15 a.m., Friday, Sept. 6, at which time the new drive will be launched.

ENDS NOV. 1

Pearson said he hoped the campaign could reach a successful conclusion no later than Nov. 1.

The chairmen themselves will gather again at the Holiday Inn at noon Wednesday, Aug. 28, at which time they will offer a progress report to Pearson.

The CFC workers will meet at Webb AFB Sept. 3 as a final preliminary to the drive.

A total of $119,573.18 was pledged in last year's drive, which exceeded the objective by $2,433.

A revised agency sharing in this year's campaign is the Webb AFB Youth Activities. That agency will receive $5,837, if the drive goes over the top as expected.

The function, in reality, replaces the Air Force Aid agency, which benefitted to the extent of $3,140 from last year's campaign.

Collections on last year's pledges, for the first nine months of the fiscal period, amount to $102,000, according to a report issued by campaign worker George Zachariah.

HOT CHANCE

Nearing 100 degrees again and rain chances fading. High today and Friday, upper 90s. Low tonight, upper 70s. Clear to partly cloudy sky with a 20 per cent chance of rain through Friday.

DRIVE HAS FINEST DAY

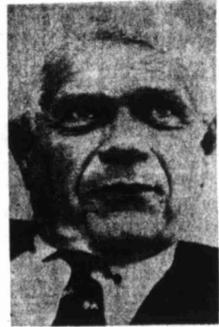

The Big Spring High School Bible fund began to take on notable growth Wednesday, when $430 was added to the aggregate. The sum raised thus far is $490.

Biggest of the donors Wednesday was $350 in the form of a check forwarded by East Fourth Baptist Church.

The money is used to defray expenses for a Bible course offered by the local high school. Tax money cannot be used under existing law to meet such an expense.

Those wishing to donate to the drive can forward their checks either to The Herald or the Howard County Ministerial Association. The latter is the sponsoring organization.

Among the latest donors: Mrs. Chester Rood, $10.00; Doris N. Peters, $5.00; Past Matron's Club, Memorial Dr., $5.00; D. O'Brien, $10.00; Past Matron's Club, $10.00; Lolla Baird Circle, Wesley Methodist, $10.00; East Fourth Baptist, $30.00; Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Creighton, $25.00; Memory of Dr. P. D. O'Brien, $1.00; Old Mae Williamson, $1.00; Previously acknowledged, $490.00; TOTAL, $490.00.

Issues Behind New Conflict On Cyprus

By The Associated Press
Here are the immediate issues behind the new conflict on Cyprus:
Greek Cypriots outnumber Turkish Cypriots on the Mediterranean island by about four to one, in round figures.
Turkey invaded last month, saying the Turkish minority needed its protection and expressing fear that the Greek Cypriots who took over the government from the ousted Archbishop Makarios would unite the island with Greece, then under military control.
After a cease-fire was declared on July 20, the Turks demanded an autonomous region along the north coast to be federated with a separate region for Greek Cypriots.

Greece rejected the proposal at a peace conference in Geneva, saying it would lead to eventual partition of the island.
Then, the Turks offered a settlement based on the establishment of six autonomous Turkish regions, covering about one-third of the island. More than half the territory in this proposal was on the northern coast around Kyrenia, the original Turkish invasion beachhead. The Turks said this was a "big compromise."

The Greek Cypriots objected that one-third of the island was too much for the Turkish minority and would involve a mass displacement of Greeks.
The Greek Cypriots then offered self-rule for the Turks in their present villages, but no separate state.
The Geneva talks reached a stalemate at this point. A 48-hour "cooling off" period was proposed by the British. But the Turks demanded an immediate yes-or-no answer to their "big compromise." None came. Fighting began again at dawn on Wednesday.

Six May Enter Second Class

The second Medical Assistants class will undertake a two-year program at Howard College when school convenes for the fall semester, Dr. Larry Key, dean of occupational education, announced this morning.
Indications are six students will be enrolled for one year of arts and sciences and one year of clinical work with local doctors.
The end of the first two-year course saw five persons graduating with Associate of Applied Science degrees. Each was offered employment with doctors and/or hospitals within the county and three accepted.

Those already accepted for the upcoming course are Fred Davis, Louise Gregg and Peter Jefferson. Three more will be screened for the course by a team of local doctors Aug. 29 and most probably will be approved. They are Allen Johnson, Ellen Keele and Karon Winn.

Local Firm Enters Suit To Recover Half Million

Big Spring Savings and Loan Association has filed suit in U.S. District Court in Abilene, seeking to recover nearly half a million dollars it claims to have lost by buying interest in student loans which it says were misrepresented.
The suit identifies three defendants: Surety Trust Co. based in Arizona; Hibbard, O'Connor and Weeks, Inc., an agent for Surety Trust, based in Delaware; and Fidelity and Deposit Co., Maryland.
Attorneys for the plaintiff offers four alternatives for recovering the money.

First BSSLA is claiming it was sold its interest in Federally Insured Student Loans, which were fraudulently represented. Surety Trust should make payment, the savings firm contends, since it had represented the loans as 100 per cent federally insured when they were not.
The second alternative names Hibbard, O'Connor and Weeks, agent for Surety Trust, as guilty of negligence in that the firm should have been aware that the FISL loans were not 100 per cent guaranteed.
A third alternative would call for a recession or cancellation of the sale and reimbursement of money if the defendant was "acting under... mistake of fact."

Crazy Playday Is Slated Saturday

The Howard County Sheriff Posse is sponsoring a crazy playday Saturday at its arena which is located three miles west on the Andrews Hwy., and the concession stand will be open for the events.
Registration begins at 7 p.m. with events starting at 8 p.m. There will be all types of events but will be operated differently from the regular way of operation.
There will be a charge of 50 cents per event with ribbons given as awards. The classes will be from peewee to adults.

The final alternative seeks to recover the $470,853.25 in damages from Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, which insured Big Spring Savings and Loan against fraud. This route will be taken if other methods to recover the money fail.
Jack Worsham, president of Big Spring Savings and Loan Association said he is hopeful the case will be heard in November. He also revealed G. Jones of Big Spring has been retained as attorney for the local firm.

Gunman Kills Wife Of Park, Choir Singer

SEOUL (AP) — President Chung Hee Park escaped an assassination attempt today, but his wife was killed, a presidential spokesman announced.
He said she died after a nearly six-hour operation at the Seoul National University hospital of a gunshot wound she suffered during the assassination attempt.

The attempt took place as Park was making an Independence Day address. A man opened fire, the president ducked down behind the speaker's desk and was not hit, but his 47-year-old wife was hit in the head.
Security guards wounded the gunman and arrested him.
A 16-year-old girl choir singer in the audience also was killed, possibly by police bullets.

The government said the gunman carried a Japanese passport, and the Japanese Foreign Ministry said it was issued in the name of Yukio Yoshii, 23, of Osaka. But Yoshii told a television interviewer in Osaka: "I am not the gunman. I am in Japan. Somebody must have taken advantage of my name."
Park was making an Independence Day address to about 1,000 persons in the National Theater to observe South Korea's 29th anniversary.

Witnesses said the man ran toward the stage and opened fire from about the third row. The government statement said the man's revolver misfired, then he fired twice. One bullet struck the desk that protected Park. Another hit Mrs. Park, who was sitting behind her husband.
The young girl was a member of a 200-voice girls' choir that was to perform for the celebration. She was sitting in the front row.
After Mrs. Park and the girl were carried bleeding from the auditorium and the wounded gunman was removed, Park said: "I will resume my statement." He talked for five minutes, then the girls' choir sang for a few minutes. The president received a standing ovation as he left the theater for the university hospital to be with his wife.

Those already accepted for the upcoming course are Fred Davis, Louise Gregg and Peter Jefferson. Three more will be screened for the course by a team of local doctors Aug. 29 and most probably will be approved. They are Allen Johnson, Ellen Keele and Karon Winn.

CLEARING THE DOCKET — County Judge A. G. Mitchell pulls his glasses off while setting cases at a docket call, which marked the beginning of efforts to dispose of pending criminal cases. "I do want to thank the bar association for answering the docket call for a change," Mitchell said. He promised to find attorneys who fail to appear in contempt of court and bond forfeitures for absent defendants. Defendants and friends sat in the gallery and attorneys behind the bar.

Judge Starts Clearing Out Backlog Of Court Cases

By JOHN EDWARDS
"Boy, somebody thought he was serious about this," Harvey Hooser, a local lawyer, said he joined a group behind the bar for county court docket call Wednesday afternoon.
"That's alright," County Judge A. G. Mitchell replied. "You will before I'm through."
Mitchell had announced his intention of holding court weekly, calling jury panels when necessary, because of the backlog of criminal cases.
The county judge threatened to forfeit bonds when defendants failed to appear for trial and to find attorneys in contempt of court when the attorneys did not appear.
PROSECUTOR AIDS
The Big Spring Herald published a series of articles seeking more active prosecution in county court of both appeals from lower courts and other defendants who did not agree to plead guilty.

Mitchell's announcement last week was the first indication the court itself, with the "100 per cent" cooperation of County Attorney W. H. (Bill) Eysen Jr., would hold jury trials regularly.
Saying "we've been a little lax," Mitchell read down a list of 78 defendants. He set 21 jury trials, one non-jury trial, heard that eight defendants would plead guilty and granted six formal continuances.
Also, five defendants pleaded guilty in county court Wednesday and a sixth today. Three driving while intoxicated cases were reduced to drunk in public offenses. The reduced cases brought fines and justice of the peace court fees roughly equal to the total charged defendants in driving while intoxicated convictions, $102.50 each.

On George Thomas' cases, I'm going to do with him just like I do with Hartman's," Mitchell said. "I'm going to pass them until he gets back on his feet." The two lawyers have been hospitalized.
Harvey Hooser said most of the cases for which he and his brother, Hartman, provided bonds were his brother's. And G. Ben Bancroft told the court many of the cases involving his firm belonged to Lanny Hamby, who was out of town, and Roger Brown, whom he said was handling a case in Municipal Court.
Lawyers Wayne Basden and Harvey Hooser wanted trials of some traffic citations appeals postponed until the defendants would not risk losing their drivers' license.

"These guys ought to know more than to get all these tickets," Mitchell said.
ON BONDS
To a representative of Ike's Bail Bond, Mitchell said: "I am not kidding about forfeiting bonds. I mean every word of it."
Mitchell called for forfeiture on bond held by one party, but accepted the county attorney's recommendation not to forfeit unless a defendant failed to appear for trial, not just docket call.
Several defendants bonded out of jail by Ike's were absent. Driving while intoxicated, speeding and possession of less than two ounces of marijuana were among the offenses listed for the docket call.

Rock-Throwing Youths Nabbed

Three juveniles were arrested and charged with assault and battery Wednesday afternoon, stemming from a rock throwing incident on Northwest 9th street.
The Snowcone man, making his rounds at about 4:25 p.m. reported to police that some kids were throwing rocks at him. When officers arrived, the kids were gone.
Less than an hour later, the police again received a call from the Snowcone man reporting the same thing.
This time, the three youths were caught and arrested.

WEATHER FORECAST — Cooler air is forecast today for most northern states and warmer air for southern states and most of the Midwest. Fair to partly-cloudy skies are expected for most of the nation.

'Sudden Religion' Ires Gossip Scribe

NEW YORK (AP) — Hollywood has Rona Barrett to keep track of that town's world-famous, near-famous and infamous. But who is on duty in Nashville? Georgia Twitty, that's who.

A cheerful, pleasant, pleasant lady of 40, she runs "Georgia Twitty's Music City Hotline," a radio gossip show that covers events and personalities in Nashville's pop and country music scene.

It's been on the air five years. By her count, it currently is heard on 104 stations. She tapes 18 one-minute shows per week.

FEW LURID YARNS

Miss Twitty, a native of Florence, Ala., who said she was educated at Randolph-Macon College in Lynchburg, Va., and at Memphis State, says she doesn't try to spice her show with lurid stories about the stars.

For one thing, it might anger the stars' fans. For another, she says, "I think the country music audience, even though it's pretty cosmopolitan nowadays, is tired of who is sleeping with whom."

She says the fans tend to prefer detailed reports on the more innocent aspects of life among country music performers — what they eat, what sports they like, how they dress at home and so forth.

STRONGER STUFF

But she says she also chronicles stronger stuff, such as Music City feuds or romances. The latter, she adds, always are handled obliquely when the parties involved in the romances are married to other parties.

Her pet peeve, she says, is a tendency of some country music performers to suddenly get religion amid much fanfare when they've gone without a hit record for several years.

In most cases, she says, this is purely a publicity play aimed at reviving a fading career. To the less sophisticated fans, she says, this approach "gets 'em in the gut every time."

How does she compare herself with Hollywood's Rona Barrett?

"I think we're both knowledgeable about our work," said Miss Twitty. "But she has a personality that differs from mine completely. I think she's basically a very cynical individual. I'm not cynical at all."

Schultz Buys Taylor Press

TAYLOR, Tex. (AP) — C. A. Schultz of Temple has announced his purchase of outstanding stock in the Taylor Daily Press.

Schultz said Monday he will be president of a new corporation assuming full control of the paper, Taylor Newspapers Inc.

There will be no change in policy or personnel, Schultz said. Bob Mathis will continue as editor and associate publisher of the Press, and H. L. Farrell will continue as business manager. Mathis will become a director and vice president of the new corporation, and Farrell will be a director and assistant secretary-treasurer, Schultz said.

Schultz, formerly associated with Frank W. Mayborn in operation of the Press, has been president of the Texas Daily Newspaper Association and of the Southwest School of Printing Management.

Schultz said he will continue to live in Temple, where he was associated with the Temple Daily Telegram for more than 40 years.

Tire Blow-Out Kills Three Men

WHEELER, Tex. (AP) — Two Arkansas men are in satisfactory condition in a hospital here today following a two-car collision that killed three men, the Department of Public Safety said.

Officials identified the men killed in the accident Monday as Andrew H. Battenfield, 23, and Alfred Reocyte, 26, both of Harrison, Ark., and Danny Lynn Beck, 21, of Elk City, Okla.

Authorities said the two injured men are Arlyss Battenfield, 20, and Jim Reocyte, 28, both of Harrison, Ark.

Officials said a tire blow-out apparently caused the mishap on Highway 152.

Fed Up With Seat Belts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted to eliminate a government requirement that new cars must be equipped with seat-belt interlock systems on this year's models and safety air bags by 1976.

The House acted Monday after congressmen said their constituents are fed up with mechanisms that require drivers to buckle up before they can start their cars.

The amendment, sponsored by Rep. Louis C. Wyman, R-N.H., would make both safety features optional rather than mandatory.

Managers of a new car and school bus safety bill, which passed with Wyman's amendment, said the new provision would result in no air bags. They said the bags would have to be mass-produced to carry a realistic price tag, and predicted that elimination of the mandatory regulation would make the bags an unpopular option costing around $700.

The House bill still faces a test in the Senate, where opposition could kill the Wyman amendment. The schedule for Senate action is uncertain.

The amendment would give motorists a choice only of the interlock, at an extra cost, or a seat-belt warning with a dashboard harness light signal if it is not buckled.

Nixon Exit Means Solons Can Push Campaigning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon's resignation as president, ending the prospect of long impeachment proceedings, apparently will enable members of Congress to do more campaigning for reelection in the fall.

Congress intends to maintain this week the momentum it built up trying to clear the decks for the expected impeachment debate, now canceled. However, the objective now is to make possible an abbreviated summer recess and earlier adjournment than had been hoped for.

The House plans to recess from Aug. 22 to Sept. 11, the Senate from Aug. 23 to Sept. 3. Some party leaders said Congress may be able to adjourn early in October.

However, the early adjournment depends on a number of factors. President Ford, who addressed a joint session of Congress, indicated additional legislation he wants considered.

Another factor is how quickly Congress acts on Ford's nomination of a vice president. Ford's own confirmation last fall, although nearly unanimous, took about two months.

The session also could be lengthened if efforts are made to pass tax, trade, health insurance and other controversial measures before the November elections.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La.; Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and Rep. Martha Griffiths, D-Mich., said on Sunday that Congress would pass the health insurance bill this year. The Senate and the House are

Gurney Again Asks Dismissal

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Sen. Edward Gurney, R-Fla., has filed a second motion asking dismissal of a federal indictment charging him with conspiracy, bribery and perjury.

Gurney, the first senator in 50 years to be indicted while in office, contended in a motion filed here that the indictment is vague and ambiguous and fails to allege an offense against the United States.

Demos Pick Fem For Campaign

BAKER, Ore. (AP) — State Sen. Betty Roberts has been chosen to replace the late Sen. Wayne Morse as the Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate seat held by Republican Bob Parkwood.

Parkwood, who is seeking reelection, unseated Morse six years ago. Morse, an early foe of American involvement in Vietnam, died last month in the midst of an attempt at a political comeback.

Sen. Roberts, a 51-year-old lawyer, won the nomination on the fourth ballot Sunday at the Oregon Democratic Convention. She ran a close second for the party's gubernatorial nomination in the May primary election.

Irish Novelist Kate O'Brien Dies

LONDON (AP) — Kate O'Brien, 76, Irish novelist and playwright, died Tuesday in a hospital near her Kent home. Miss O'Brien's first prize-winning novel, "Without My Cloak," was published in 1931. Her most popular book, "That Lady," was published in 1946 and was a historical novel set in 16th century Spain.

Increased GI Education Benefits Gain Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — Veterans attending school this fall under the GI bill would get a 23 per cent increase in their monthly payments under legislation approved by Senate and House conferees.

They also would be eligible for a new $1,000-a-year federal loan program and would get an extra year of regular benefit payments, 45 months instead of the current 46.

Ending a months-long deadlock, Senate conferees agreed to shelve until next year a provision to provide veterans with $720 a year in tuition grants, in view of adamant opposition by House members. Their main objection was that there might be abuses similar to those that occurred after World War II.

Chairman Vance Hartke, D-Ind., of the Senate Veterans Affairs Committee, announced the agreement and said he hopes the Senate and House will act quickly so the bill will be on President Ford's desk next week.

"I hope our new President will sign the GI bill as soon as it reaches his desk so the higher checks can start going out before the new school year starts," Hartke said.

The 23 per cent increase would mean a single veteran would get $270 a month instead of $220, a veteran with a wife $321 instead of $261, a veteran with a wife and child $366 instead of $298 and $23 instead of $18 for each dependent over two.

PLOW RAN OVER HIM

BALCO, Okla. (AP) — A neighbor found the body of Cecil R. Myers, 60, Wednesday in a field where he apparently was killed when a telephone pole struck him on the head and his tractor and plow ran over him.

Authorities said Myers had been plowing a field near his Panhandle city about 9 p.m. Tuesday when he apparently snapped a telephone guide wire.

The pole broke off, hit Myers on the head, knocking him off the tractor which, along with the plow, passed over his body.

Apprentice and on-the-job rates also would be increased 23 per cent and there would be improvements in some other education benefits.

The 23 per cent increase was offered by House conferees last Friday as one compromise for not accepting the tuition grants. The House earlier passed a 13.6 per cent increase and the Senate an 18 per cent hike compared with administration's 8 per cent proposal.

The $1,000 in loans was a reduction from the $2,000 figure in the Senate-passed bill.

The low-interest loans would be payable 10 years after the veteran finishes school, with interest rates set by the Veterans Administration. The loans would be made from the $7 billion National Service Life Insurance Fund which the VA invests in Treasury bonds.

With this bill, Hartke said, GI Bill rates have increased 65 per cent in less than two years.

He said the bill is expected in the next five years to give Vietnam-era veterans an additional $6 billion in direct educational benefits and from $1 billion to $3 billion in low-interest loans.

It would allow a single veteran to get up to $3,500 a year by the combination.

Other provisions of the bill would provide an expansion of the veteran work-study

Raft Again Is Denied Entry

LONDON (AP) — Actor George Raft has lost another bid to enter Britain on grounds "his presence in the country still would not be conducive to the public good."

The Home Office declined to say why Raft, 78, was denied entry permission. But Jenkins said in 1967 that eight American citizens had been declared "prohibited immigrants" during the previous 12 months because of their alleged connection with organized crime and gambling.

At the time he was ordered out in 1967, Raft was host of the Colony Club Casino in London.

Police Politics Facing Leaders

By The Associated Press

A new wave of criticism has been directed at police in several U.S. cities, and the reaction suggests precinct politics may be the most explosive issue now facing urban leaders.

In a number of major cities the police are on the defensive after liberal politicians and reform-minded police began chipping away recently at time-honored promotion and hiring policies.

RACIST ATTITUDE

The Detroit Police Department is undergoing painful changes to eliminate what the new black mayor calls "his whole goddamn racist attitude."

In Atlanta, City Council members tried once to impeach the chief of police, and may try again. The mayor says, "for a period of time there was an independent paramilitary organization" in the city.

The federal government is suing the City of Chicago, charging its police force discriminated against blacks, women and spanish-speaking persons in hiring and promotions.

Where many police forces have long operated in virtual autonomy, these are the subject of widespread public debate, and increasingly, civilian review.

IDEALISTIC

"The council has an idealistic concept of where the city is going, and that law enforcement would not be necessary," says Berkeley, Calif., police Capt. Darrell Hickman. "They favor programs that would make the police unnecessary."

Berkeley is a progressive community with strong student influences. Detroit and Atlanta are cities in transition. With increasingly large minority populations, both elected black mayors for the first time in 1973.

Reports from each of the cities indicate the influence of politicians on the machinery of law enforcement agencies is growing.

Atlanta Mayor Maynard Jackson recently said he was "astounded" at police over-reaction to a series of civil rights demonstrations in the southern city.

Detroit's Coleman Young, an anticrime decoy squad which critics said were responsible for a number of unnecessary shooting deaths. Jackson abolished a similar squad in Atlanta.

Perky Bidding Anticipated

AUSTIN — The Board of Control's 20th State of Texas surplus property auction will not suffer usual August doldrums, Homer A. Foerster, executive-director, state board of control, promised.

Aug. 24 is date for the auction at the Austin City Coliseum. Foerster reported he expected lively bidding on such items as a large office safe, miscellaneous snack bar equipment, an ice machine and an electric range from the Senate; metal storage cabinets, plus more than 155 automobiles (from pickups to passenger cars) pickup trucks, vans, carryalls, and a town wagon. Past auctions have attracted thousands of bidders and have returned more than $2.2 million to the State's use, Foerster said.

Equipment to be sold may be inspected prior to the date of the auction, Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by contacting the various agencies selling equipment. A list of these agencies, their location, and the type of items may be obtained from the Board of Control, P. O. Box 13047, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711. All items may be inspected beginning at 7:00 a.m. on the day of the sale. Bidding starts at 9 a.m.

When this deal was played in a national championship, most pairs reached a contract of three no trump, though there were quite a few in four hearts. For the most part, neither contract was successful. However, after the lead of the queen of diamonds, four hearts was virtually a sure-thing contract. Cover up the East-West hands if you like, or treat the hand as a double dummy problem and see if you can take ten tricks at a heart contract.

You have seven tricks going in, and the total rises to nine if the jack of hearts is guarded no more than twice. Most declarers ruffed the opening lead, drew three rounds of trumps, discovering that they had a loser in the suit, and then tried either to endplay or squeeze West in the black suits. But all their efforts were doomed to fail.

The key to the play is taking a trick with the nine-eight of trumps in dummy. Together, they are equal to the jack and represent a sure trick if they can be utilized. To accomplish this, declarer must play a dummy reversal, using his trumps for ruffing and dummy's to draw trumps. His aim is to take five ruffs in his hand, ace-king in both spades and clubs, and a trump trick in dummy.

If you have worked that out, move to the top of the class. You ruff the opening lead and enter dummy twice with the ace and king of spades, and ruff two more diamonds. Next, use the ace and king of clubs as entries to ruff dummy's last two diamonds. You have accomplished your purpose. You have won the first nine tricks and used all your trumps for ruffing.

Now you can exit with any card you choose. Dummy still has intact the nine-eight of trumps, and since these cards represent a sure trick, you have fulfilled your contract.

Tax Break For Drivers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reflecting the higher cost of gasoline, the Internal Revenue Service today announced increases in mileage allowances for the use of automobiles for business, moving and medical purposes.

All the increases are effective for the 1974 tax year.

The IRS said that, effective back to Jan. 1, 1974, it will allow an increase of 3 cents per mile, for a total of 15 cents, for the first 15,000 miles an automobile is used for business purposes.

It said it will allow an increase of one cent per mile, for a total of 10 cents, for each additional mile over 15,000 miles.

Persons using their automobiles for medical and charitable purposes will be allowed an increase of one cent a mile for a total of seven cents. The same increase is allowed for automobiles used in moving.

In addition, the IRS announced an 8% increase, for a total of $4, in the per-diem allowance for employees traveling away from home on business purposes.

The allowances for mileage and travel expenses can be included in deductions a taxpayer claims on his tax return.

WEDGE SEEMS TO SERVE SOVIET GOALS Mediterranean Roulette

By The Associated Press

Neither Greece nor Turkey would seem able to afford what it's doing, and they may place themselves in peril in the long term by knocking the props from under their own security.

What they do have the look of high-risk eastern Mediterranean roulette.

PEACE TALKS

Turkey pulls out of the Cyprus peace talks and resumes shooting on the island. Greece angrily withdraws from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's military structure because, she says, NATO can't control its Turkish member. Ankara and Athens make warlike noises, but even without going to that extreme, they generate great distress for the Atlantic Alliance, which faces possibly irreparable damage.

The two chose a poor time for all this, a moment of transition from the Nixon to the Ford Administration in Washington. The new President hardly needs more foreign commitments. He has to deal with several suspended wars that at any moment could break through porous truce arrangements. He has to worry about Arabs, Israel, Arab oil, a Communist military offensive in Vietnam, a mighty political uproar over South Korea, relations with the Russians and Chinese, arms, foreign aid — but to mention a few of the more visible problems.

GOOD REASON

As of now, the Soviet Union cooperates in the urgent quest for a cease-fire on Cyprus. It has good reason. But should the Greeks and Turks build their stubborn feud into something worse, both could find themselves at some future date uncomfortably exposed to Soviet pressures.

As of now Moscow cooperates in the U.N. Security Council because it wants for Cyprus neither Enosis — union with Greece — nor an outside permanent Turkish military presence. It wants restoration of the situation as it was under Archbishop Makarios, a Cyprus at least neutral between the Atlantic and Soviet blocs. As of now, that is — but what of some future time?

Greece has followed the example of France under Charles de Gaulle with regard to NATO and remained a political member. France aside, the rest of NATO hopes the military rupture will be temporary.

Now, if Greece makes her NATO withdrawal permanent, she will not only have torn an angry gash in the NATO flank, but will have left herself looking naked and lonely for the sake of what the West might regard as petty anti-American grudge.

The United States is likely to get blamed for just about anything unpleasant that happens anywhere, but its allies — including Greeks and Turks — are far from blameless and tend to act along narrow national lines while expecting the Americans to be wholly selfless.

TENSION

Yet both Greeks and Turks might do well to take a thoughtful look at their history since World War II. Their geography makes them highly vulnerable in times of tension. The Soviet Union reached out toward both Greece and Turkey, sponsored and armed a Communist rebellion in Greece, massed troops on Turkey's borders in times of Middle East crisis and frequently frightened both Mediterranean nations.

Moscow was willing to live with the status quo as it had been before the July explosion. Greece and Turkey, for all that they were unlikely allies, were the southeast anchor of NATO. A wedge has been driven in, and the temptation to drive it further will lurk in the Kremlin mind, since Greece and Turkey remain critically important to the West in the

PAINFUL EXPERIENCE

But it's been a painful experience. A few days ago there'd been a prospect of progress toward sanity on the island. There'd been a tentative agreement to cease-fire lines and buffer zones. Fighting had subsided. The two had a chance to make NATO a bit more secure on its southeast flank than it had been before the July explosion.

but it may be ebbing. Search for compromise is thwarted by a mutual hatred that has proven too durable, a mutual suspicion too deep after five centuries of hostility.

State Dinner Delays Moving To Mansion

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP) — First Lady Betty Ford has delayed her packing for the move to the White House because of preparations she must make for a state dinner Friday night for Jordanian King Hussein, a White House spokesman said today.

(AP WIREPHOTO)

FIRST LADY Betty Ford waves to photographers on the south lawn of the White House after touring the 132-room mansion which will become her home next week. The Ford family's present home is a seven-room brick and clapboard home in Alexandria, Va., where they have lived since 1955.

Her husband, President Ford, plans to be out of town moving day, addressing the national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Chicago.

Reporters noted that Ford is a pre-dawn riser and often fixes his own breakfast. That might not change, Mrs. Ford hinted; "All he needs is a toaster."

Broached about her views that President Ford was thinking about appointing a woman for vice president, Mrs. Ford replied that it was a fine idea.

"It would be very nice. I think it's time that women step up and take their place," she said. Nevertheless, she said her husband has not discussed with her who will be his choice for No. 2.

The First Lady, appearing in a bright green dress for her first full-fledged news conference at the Pennsylvania Avenue address, hedged on whether she called herself a women's liberation advocate.

"... Certainly on equal rights and equal pay," she said finally.

Replying to another question at the outdoor interview, Mrs. Ford says she favors abolishing the church bar, that prohibits women from becoming priests in the Episcopal church. The Fords are parishoners of the Episcopal Immanuel Church on the Hill in Alexandria. The parish has a woman, deacon, the Rev. Patricia Park, who has been fighting against the ban on women priests.

As First Lady, Mrs. Ford says she plans to keep up her active volunteer work in the arts and with retarded children.

The Fords do not plan to sell their modest brick home in Alexandria, where they have lived for almost 20 years.

Mrs. Ford says she doesn't plan to redecorate the White House but "there are some very minor changes" that might be made.

Weekend Reunion Of Families

The Byerly and Baker families, descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Byerly, held a family reunion over the weekend in the Homer Thorpe home and at Westside Community Center.

Daughters of the Byerlys are Tonybell Harmon, Midland; Lillie Dell Byerly and Mrs. Altie Thorpe, both of Big Spring; and Mrs. Donie Harris, San Antonio, the latter being unable to attend the event. One daughter, Mrs. Eva Baker, is deceased.

A barbecue dinner was served Saturday evening, and a covered dish luncheon was held at the center Sunday. During the reunion, the first for the family in 45 years, there was visiting, singing and games.

Interview With Beauty Queen

"I always liked to sleep. I was never an athletic girl, but I do take a cold wash every morning. I never used cream or cosmetics when not on the stage. Just washed with household soap. As for lipstick, my mother would never have allowed me to use it." Ruzena Brozova, 82, named Queen of Beauty in Paris in 1910, in an interview in Prague.

Mrs. D. Grant Addresses OES

The history of the Order of the Eastern Star was told by Mrs. David Grant to Coahoma Chapter 499, OES, Tuesday evening at the Masonic Hall.

The order was organized in the 19th century by Rob Morris for wives, daughters, mothers, sisters and widows of masons, said Mrs. Grant.

Mrs. Jim Swan, worthy matron, presided.

The initiation of Mr. and Mrs. Carvin Kellar was postponed until Aug. 27 due to illness.

The chapter's birthday party will be held Oct. 5 honoring the past matrons and patrons. The theme of the party will be "The Gay Nineties."

The couple has one other daughter, Dana, 2½. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Scott, Friendswood, and paternal grandmother is Mrs. J. C. Thackston, Roanoke, Va.

Wedding Performed Wednesday Evening

The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. David Roger Scott was held Wednesday evening in Crestview Baptist Church with the Rev. Jim Wilkerson Jr., pastor, officiating.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Max Spriggs, 1203 Mulberry, and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Scott, 306 Owens.

The altar was centered with a basket of pastel flowers flanked by candelabra entwined with greenery. Music was performed by Mrs. Ruby Fowler, organist, and Bobby Roger, vocalist.

The bride, carrying a bouquet of pastel-colored carnations and gypsophila tied with pastel ribbon, was attired in a white embossed knit gown styled with empire waistline, short flared sleeve and attached train. Her veil of illusion was held by a double Dior bow.

Miss Donna Brashears, maid of honor, was attired in a mint green crepe dress styled similar to that of the bride. Altar taper lighters were Miss Sandy Spriggs, sister of the bride, and Miss Debbie Scott, sister of the bridegroom. They were attired in identical orchid and yellow gowns.

Steve Ferrell was best man. The ushers were Johnny Bedford, Kenneth Platte, Pat Ray and Kenny Scott, brother of the bridegroom. The flower girl, Jennifer Shores, was attired in a pink crepe dress. The ring bearer was Jamie Scott, brother of the bridegroom.

The couple will reside at 1908 Runnels following a wedding trip to Fort Worth. The bride, who will graduate from Big Spring High School in the spring, is employed by Wackers.

The bridegroom, a graduate of BSHS attended Howard College and will attend Hardin-Simmons University as a music education major. He is presently employed at Gamco and the YMCA.

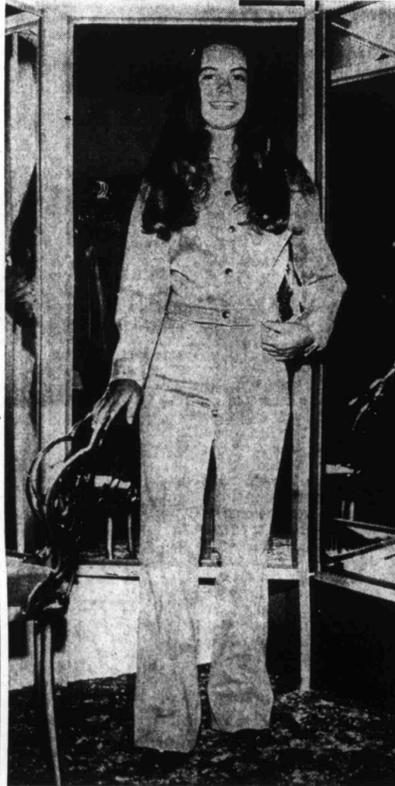

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church with Miss Helen Ray presiding at the register. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth with pink underlay. The centerpiece was a basket of gladioli and carnations in pastel colors, and crystal and milk glass appointments were used. The bridegroom's table was covered with a red lace cloth with centerpiece of greenery. Those serving

He Can Do It

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My ex-husband, Jess, is getting married again. Jess and I have three children—a girl, eight, and two boys, 16 and 17.

The little dummy who Jess is marrying evidently has never heard that when a person has already had one big wedding (and Jess has), the second wedding should be small and simple.

At least that's the way it is in Louisville, Kentucky. Anyway, Jess wants to use my kids in a big church wedding. He's asked my daughter to be the flower girl, and the boys to be ushers. He never mentioned inviting me, which is just as well, because if I get invited I will not come.

Three questions: Does Jess have the right to use my kids at his wedding? Should he even be having a wedding like this? Should I send a gift?

COURIER-JOURNAL FAN.
DEAR FAN: Of course Jess has the right to "use" your kids at his wedding. They're his kids, too. A bride who has been married before usually has a quiet, simple wedding, regardless of how many times the groom has been up to bat, so if this is her first, she's entitled. And if your sincere good wishes go along with a gift, send one. Otherwise, don't.

has been made in his favor, doesn't he speak up?

I balanced out short yesterday. VERY short ($1,000) as you can assume, the money went out the window to a customer. Can you answer my questions? No one else seems able to.

SHORT IN LUBBOCK
DEAR SHORT: John Q. Public is not one man — he is many men. Some Johns always count their money; some never do. Some will speak up on discovering an error has been made in their favor; some will not.

Since it's the teller's responsibility to balance out accurately, he should count all money twice before handing it over, and then insist that the recipient count it again in his presence. It takes a little more time, but it beats being $1,000 short, no?

PROBLEMS? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L. A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Square Shooter

At the end of this month, J.C. Roberts, who won't be recognized by many unless his name is listed as Jake Roberts, will retire as district engineer for the Texas Highway Department.

His successor undoubtedly will make his own record in his own way, but nobody is going to take the place of Jake Roberts. A peppery, crusty highway engineer of the old school, he has presided over an unparalleled program of road construction and improvement for this area.

He has been eminently fair with all parts of his district, and certainly Jake Roberts has given this end of the district more than a fair shake. Since he took the helm, something like $32 million in new road construction and upgrading has been accomplished in Howard County alone. Borden, Scurry and Mitchell Counties, also in this end of Roberts' district have had proportionately impressive records of road expenditures. Jake Roberts didn't always build roads where every individual wanted them built; rather he contended (and usually succeeded) in getting them built where he thought they ought to go.

In nearly every instance, time has proven him right. This, plus his openness in his dealings, has earned him a reputation as a square shooter.

And that, in our books, is better than being a darn good, far-seeing engineer — which he was.

Way Must Be Found

A recent congressional study shows why welfare sometimes becomes a way of life. When the net increase in income for welfare mothers who go to work averages as little as 20 cents for each dollar earned, there is little incentive to find employment.

And it is startling to realize, as the study showed that a non-working mother with three children received tax-free benefits worth about $400 more than the median wage of all women workers in 1972.

None but the most calloused would want the need to suffer, but a way must be found to add those in real need without making job-holding unprofitable. In so many words, the big challenge is to make enterprise rewarding, not penalize it, and not cripple compassion where it is warranted.

A Perfect Day

Around The Rim
Marj Carpenter

A few days out of a lifetime, time seems to stand still and you live through a perfect day.

The old song, "When You Come to the End of a Perfect Day" made it sound like it happens often, but this is a falsehood. Perfect days are few and far between and should be cherished.

Rarely does one of these perfect days come on a vacation, which often turns into a nightmare of getting where you are going and getting back to where you were.

BUT OLD FRIENDS in Uvalde took my son and me on a tour through Garner Park, over to Bandera and ended up on Wharton's Dock at Medina Lake.

For you rodeo buffs, that's Ray Wharton, a world champion a couple of times like that other Bandera product who moved to Big Spring — Toots Mansfield, who was champ more than a couple of times.

It was a Tuesday — not a big tourist day and as it wore along toward evening, Skip Shaw and Doug Livingston, who play at dances around Bandera, a San Marcos college youth named Jim Woodward and Bill Bowers, currently playing with a group in San Antonio, got to picking out tunes on their guitars and a banjo. Whoever wanted to try took a stint at the drums.

There were no microphones — no amplifiers . . . and no background music.

They simply played and sang — some of the old country westerns, some of the new country westerns and some original compositions. When asked why they didn't record some of the better ones, they told you in terse terms that it costs a $1,000 to cut a good record nowadays. Cutting records has become big business and the chances of the lesser known have diminished.

But even this inflationary thought failed to dim the beauty of the day. Money couldn't buy that day.

THE WATERS OF MEDINA Lake were still. The sky was blue and clouds floated lazily. Everybody that drove up kind of sat around quietly and listened to the music. They alternated between leads on the guitar and leads on the banjo.

Everybody laughed a lot. Even though it was the week before the resignation of the President, nobody mentioned it. Nobody mentioned Watergate. Or inflation, except for that one remark about recordings.

The entire group called each other by their first names and nobody knew or cared what the last names were. Or what troubles you might have had. It was that kind of day. A perfect day, and you felt like you ought to thank the old friends who provided it. Only they were feeling the same way. And there weren't any words to describe it . . . on a fisherman's wharf on a South Texas lake under blue skies — with the music. A perfect day.

Rodino-Rehnquist

William F. Buckley Jr.

L'ALLEGRO — Banners were flying from the Professor's house and a jubilant liberal group was shooting off firecrackers from his front lawn. Spying me, he gave me a neighborly "Hi!" — something he hadn't done since he learned I had voted for Goldwater in 1964.

"WHAT'S UP?" I asked. "A belated Fourth of July celebration — or is it the North Vietnam New Year?"

"Neither," he smiled. "It's for the Rodino Committee, whose non-partisan ruling must surely rank with Magna Carta. The days of the tyrant are numbered — Selah!"

"Are you that certain Nixon will be ousted?"

"No sweat," said the Prof. "We have a majority of 50 non-partisan Democrats in the House, and all we need are 9 GOP votes in the Senate.

"SING HALLELUJAH! The Washington Post will not need to be printed underground; the big three networks will be free to criticize any Republican; and we professors will be able to voice our opinions without fear of being awakened in the night by the OGPU and sent to the Bastille! Won't you at least concede that if Humphrey or McGovern were in the White House, we wouldn't be in this sordid mess?"

"I couldn't agree with you more," I said — and I meant it, because Demos are very selective about their indictments. What is a petty misdemeanor for the donkey becomes a high crime for the elephant.

MGOVERN IS TRYING to settle his campaign debts to airplanes, hotels, etc. for 50 cents on the dollar — which would make them involuntary contributors. And Hubert has a number of unresolved questions about allegedly illegal contributions to the extent of $200,000. It seems that his campaign manager has destroyed his records and taken the Fifth. That might make Hubert culpable were he a Republican — but he isn't — so shut up already!

IL PENSOROSO — The house up the street where some Republicans were meeting was more like a wake. Women were sobbing openly. The men were bitter — even those who didn't like some Nixon policies thought the hearings a travesty, a carefully-planned scenario whose motif was, according to one frank Virginian, "Never mind the facts — just get Nixon out!"

THESE FOLKS questioned Rodino's "scrupulous fairness." They recalled that the Demo impeachers had all voted against Jerry Ford's confirmation, though even Rodino conceded Ford's ability and integrity. And that Rodino had boasted, even before the hearings began, that he would deliver a solid Demo vote. He did, too, even if the ranks broke after the primary object had been achieved.

Seldom have so many crocodile tears been shed. Father Drinan of Mass. told of how he wrestled with his conscience over the indictments — but I doubt he put up a real fight, since he had been demanding impeachment for over a year. And ditto for California's Waldie.

MY THANKS TO attorney, R.M., for this apropos phrase from Pascal: "It is not permitted to the most equitable men to be a judge in his own cause." And allow me to salute the action of one whom Pascal would have approved: Justice Rehnquist of the Supreme Court disqualified himself from any decisions regarding Watergate because of his friendship with some of the potential defendants.

"When constabulary duty's to be done, to be done, the policeman's lot is not a happy one."
— Sir William Gilbert

Dramatic Shift?

Rowland Evans

WASHINGTON — A dramatic shift from the Nixon era of exclusionary politics to an "open door" Ford administration is now being plotted by Gerald Ford's intimates with this symbolic capstone: an offer to Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of a major post in the Ford administration.

HUMPHREY, THE 1968 Democratic presidential nominee, is mentioned by some of Ford's key advisers as the best possible Democrat for inclusion in Ford's new-style government. That new style will emphasize an open White House door, genuine bipartisanship in foreign policy and reconciliation within the Republican party. According to the talk, which is, simply talk.

Nevertheless, even the prospect is a death sentence for the royal attributes of the Nixon era with pervasive Oval Office political dominance and remoteness from both Republicans and Democrats on Capitol Hill. An offer to an old pro Democrat is seen by some Ford operatives as the obvious catalyst for reconciliation even if the offer were turned down.

NOW BEING eyed as high-level operatives in the Ford White House are a handful of experienced Republicans who, one way or another, ran afoul of the Nixon-Berlin wall.

One is Robert Ellsworth, the former Kansas congressman who was lounded off the White House staff in 1969 by H.R. Haldeman and only recently returned to Washington as assistant secretary of Defense for international security affairs. He may be brought back into a top job in the Ford White House, perhaps as director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). Others being eyed for top posts are former Sen. Charles Goodell of New York, whose campaign for reelection was sabotaged by the Nixon Oval Office; also Donald Rumsfeld (now U.S. Ambassador to NATO) who as presidential counselor had his troubles with the Haldeman-Ehrlichman clique.

SECRETARY OF THE Interior Rogers Morton is a strong possibility for White House chief of staff. He never has fitted emotionally into the weird political world of Richard Nixon.

The major objective of Ford's political friends now pressing for such sweeping changes is psychological: to end the Nixon era not with a whimper but with a bang. Each of these moves is designed to rehabilitate and broaden the dangerously weakened Republican party.

Nobody knows whether Ford will go so far as to actually bring in a Democrat. Also, extreme conservative Republicans, for example, are irrevocably opposed to Rockefeller.

But they oppose more than Rockefeller. They want cosmetic rather than dramatic political change between the Nixon and Ford eras, risking an ever-shrinking Republican party.

Tight Money Policy

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — While a tight monetary policy, such as exists now, is supposedly designed to bring down prices, a good many businessmen suspect it really adds to their expenses and therefore to their prices.

Could such a situation really exist? Is it possible that some of the nation's most respected economic minds could actually miscalculate so completely the impact of their decisions?

Perhaps there never will be a clear-cut answer. But some interesting observations are being made day after day by some perplexed non-economists.

The most common of them is this: If high interest rates are the enemy of inflation, why do these two aspects of our current economy seem to fit so neatly together, one rising with the other? Another: If high interest rates are supposed to discourage borrowing and spending, how long are we supposed to wait for this to happen? Shouldn't we be seeing the impact by now?

The fact is that business, rather than being discouraged, is continuing to borrow at the high rates. Some respected financial analysts now foresee the prime lending rate remaining close to 12 per cent for several more months.

One reason for this continued borrowing is that corporations have found the equity markets to be, temporarily at least, an unreliable source of funds. Stock market investors are inactive. Stock prices are depressed. Stock prices are depressed.

At least one reason for Wall

Street's anemia, of course, is the drainage of funds from stocks into debt issues, which carry those highly desirable high interest rates — a direct effect of tight money.

And so the corporations also have to go where the money is. They are forced to borrow, and at such high rates, some Wall Streeters point out, that the effect on corporations will last for years.

That is, those high rates that big companies are paying represent commitments for years ahead. They will be passed on as higher prices for years ahead. They will add to the cost of business for years ahead.

No wonder, then, that businessmen who pay these rates question the nation's anti-inflation policy.

Human Engineer

Art Buchwald

(Art Buchwald has gone off to Cape Cod, and we repeated some of his columns; by unanimous consent the House Judiciary Committee has agreed to his favorite columns. — Ed.)

There is a new science in this country which is called human engineering. The object of human engineering, as I understand it, is to fit human beings into inhuman conditions.

I MADE THIS discovery while riding on an airplane from New York to Washington the other day. Seated next to me was a man who was taking very careful measurements of the space between us and then writing it in a notebook.

I asked him what he was doing, and he said he was a human engineer, and it was his job to see how many more people he could squeeze on an airplane without doing permanent bodily harm to the passengers.

"We used to have five seats across," he said proudly, "but we've managed to put another seat in each row, and as you can see we can now get six people across."

"How on earth did you do it?" I asked him.

"WE CUT THE center aisle in half. The passengers have to walk sideways, but just think of what the extra seats mean to the company's payroll."

"Which, of course, is all that you're worried about."

"You can bet your sweet whistle on that," he said. "I'm very concerned, though, that there still seems to be room between your knees and the seat in front of you."

"Only about two inches," I said.

"WELL, IF YOU TAKE two inches away here and to inches away there, you can put another row of seats on the plane."

"Then my knees should be flush against the seat ahead?"

"Naturally, my dear boy. You can't expect legroom on such a short hop. One more thing. I was wondering how you feel about a reclining seat as opposed to a stationary one."

"I prefer a reclining seat. It gives me a chance to rest a little."

HE STARTED WRITING in his book: "Customer too tempted by reclining chair, so I strongly recommend stationary kind which will allow us two more rows in back."

He looked at me. "You came on board with a package. What did you do with it?"

"I put it under my seat."

HE WROTE AGAIN: "Customer can still get package under seat, which means we're wasting valuable space which could better be used for air freight."

"You people really think of everything," I said.

"We try to," he replied, "but it's a tough struggle. I'm having a devil of a time trying to get the company to remove the armrests."

"Say, have you ever thought of putting people in the baggage rack overhead? You've covered all bases."

"Not quite," he said, staring at the restroom.

What A 'Charleyhorse' Is

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What causes a "charleyhorse" as we call it, and can anything be done for it? I get it in both legs and it is very painful. — Mrs. L.S.M.

"Charleyhorse" is a good enough term — even gets in medical dictionaries—but I'm not sure that's what you have.

A charley horse is a muscle cramp from excess activity, but the specific problem may be a simple muscle spasm, a rupture of the muscle, or a strain.

If it occurs frequently, as perhaps it does in your case, and in view of your having it in both legs, I would suspect that poor circulation, rather than strenuous activity, might be the basic cause. The type of footwear could be a factor, too.

If it is a circulatory ailment, stripping of varicose veins, support hose, or occasionally some more specialized treatment may help.

horse that develops after too much exercise, rest heat and aspirin are the usual ticket-with emphasis on rest. If it occurs after some particular activity (tennis, swimming, etc.) the answer may be the obvious one: either give up that activity, or spend more time getting into shape for it.

Since you didn't say whether this is a daytime or night-time problem, I'll add a note that leg cramps after you have gone to bed are a somewhat different matter because these cramps come when you are at rest.

Medication, more calcium in the diet and a rather simple exercise to stimulate circulation are effective. You'll find that in my booklet, "How to Stop Leg Cramps," which I will send you in return for 25 cents and a stamped and self-addressed envelope. Send request to me in care of Big Spring Herald.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am a girl, 13 and wondering if it's possible of become pregnant by a male cat. — G.R.

Don't be silly. Not unless you are a female cat.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am astounded at some of the foolish questions you get in your mail. — L.E.B.

Well, sometimes I am, too. But if some of the questions sound dumb, they still are questions that somebody doesn't know the answer to. As somebody once said, "We're all of us ignorant — but about different things."

Although cholesterol has been implicated in heart attacks and other circulatory troubles, it is also vital to human life. For this reason Dr. Thosteson has entitled his booklet "Control Your Cholesterol Sensibly." For a copy write to him in care of his newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

How is it possible to be at peace in such a hectic world? And furthermore, with all our incessant activity, at times so aimless, how could we possibly conform to the fixed plan of God?

B. P.

It might seem impossible that man with all his false starts and halting ways, could ever be in tune with the perfect will of God. But there can be a meshing of purposes as God's Spirit oversees all things. (Isaiah 38:21.)

Consider for example this analogy. A man rigidly clutching a bowl of goldfish does not prevent the fish from moving unrestrainedly within the bowl. Likewise, there is often human latitude within the overarching divine will of God.

In the Upper Room, when the disciples were huddling with fear, and it seemed the authorities were closing in to apprehend them, Jesus appeared exuding His calm assurance. Their anxieties subsided, and they sensed an identity with His great redemptive plan for the world's salvation.

What we have to do today is to pray as the writer Whittier did in the famous hymn, "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind."

"Breathe through the heats of our desire
Thy coolness and thy balm.
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire,
Speak through the earthquake,
wind and fire,
O still small voice of calm."

A Devotion For Today . .

"Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap." (Galatians 6:7)

PRAYER: Christ, help me to cease from my self-defense and alibis and really face myself as You see me. It is painful but help me to know my faults, for I long to be made whole. Amen.

Portland Thumped By Stars

Dick Coury, coach of the winless Portland Storm, indulged in a little post-game analysis Wednesday night after watching his team absorb a 28-16 thumping at the hands of the New York Stars.

"They beat the devil out of us," said Coury. "We simply do not have a very good football team and we're not improving."

New York quarterback Tom Sherman got the Stars rolling early by throwing for two touchdowns and running for another as the Stars built a 30-0 halftime lead. Sherman shared Coury's opinion of the Storm.

Elsewhere in the WFL, Birmingham rocked Hawaii 39-0, Chicago shaded Philadelphia 32-29, Florida defeated Jacksonville 33-26 and Memphis whipped Detroit 37-7.

Southern California is at Houston in tonight's television game.

Sherman completed 11 of 18 passes for 144 yards for New York, including touchdown tosses of 20 and three yards to George Sauer. Sauer hauled in seven passes for 92 yards.

The Storm is 0-5-1 while New York has won four straight after dropping the first two. About 14,000 paying fans saw the game.

Birmingham 39, Hawaii 0 The Americans, scoring from long range, maintained their position as the WFL's only unbeaten team.

Willie Smith scored 81 yards on a punt return. Alfred Jenkins on a 95-yard pass and George Mira teamed with pass play for a pair of Birmingham TDs. The Hawaiians, who had four passes intercepted, failed to score.

A crowd of 43,297 (paid) watched the game in Birmingham.

Even an attempted suicide squeeze blew up in the Rangers' faces.

"That's the first time I've seen anything like that," said Milwaukee Manager Del Crandall.

Milwaukee catcher Darrell Porter was responsible for a lot of the Texas frustration. He threw out the three runners trying to steal home on a great throw from right-fielder Dave May.

Twins 1, Indians 0 Led by the combined four-hit pitching of Joe Decker and Bill Campbell, Minnesota blanketed Cleveland. The Twins scored their run in the top of the seventh when Glenn Borgmann hit a fly to deep left field, scoring Bobby Darwin from third.

Orioles 5, White Sox 4 Brian Downing's run-scoring single in the eighth inning lifted Chicago over Baltimore. Bill Melton, leading off the eighth, was hit by a pitch from Doyle Alexander, 5-9. He was sacrificed to second and scored on Downing's single.

Ken Henderson drove in the first three Chicago runs with a first inning single and a two-run homer in the sixth, his 14th.

Cardinals Gain Ground In East Division Race

Atlanta's Craig Robinson, hit in the jaw by a pitch from Montreal's Dennis Blair Wednesday night, had more than his mouth bruised by the ball.

Although X rays showed that Robinson's jaw was not broken and he was able to return to Atlanta Stadium to see the end of the Braves' 6-1 triumph over the Montreal Expos, he was a very disillusioned young man.

"When I was lying there on the ground, there wasn't a thing I liked about major league baseball," said Robinson. "If that's my major league baseball, I'm ashamed of it and don't want any part of it."

Immediately before Robinson was hit, Dusty Baker had slammed a three-run homer off Blair and Dave Johnson had hit a solo homer.

Then in the ninth, with the Braves holding a five-run lead and two out, Braves pitcher

Ashe Still Loves Game Of Tennis

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) - To Arthur Ashe, tennis is still one of the most funnol sports.

"You can take any two guys here and I can tell you eight of 10 times who will win before they play," said the top seed of the Buckeye Tennis Championships.

"You can go through the entire draw and predict almost every winner," Ashe said Wednesday after eliminating New Zealand's Jeff Simpson, 6-1, 6-4 in an opening round match.

"This is a darned concentrated $50,000 tournament. It's tough. But there are only six players who have a good chance of winning," the Miami

SURPRISE AT FIRST - Houston Astros' Wilbur Howard scrambles back to first base in the seventh inning Wednesday in Chicago, but Chicago Cubs' first baseman Andre Thornton has the ball ready to put him out. Play began when Chicago's Billy Williams grabbed Milt May's short fly to left center with a diving catch and threw to Thornton to double Howard off first. Chicago won, 6-5.

Rangers Lose Out 6-5 To Milwaukee Brewers

The Texas Rangers died with their boots on Wednesday night. They made a lot of base-running mistakes and lost a 6-5 decision to the Milwaukee Brewers.

Three of their runners were thrown out trying to steal second, another was out trying to go from first to third on a single and still another was nailed at home.

Even an attempted suicide squeeze blew up in the Rangers' faces.

"That's the first time I've seen anything like that," said Milwaukee Manager Del Crandall.

Milwaukee catcher Darrell Porter was responsible for a lot of the Texas frustration. He threw out the three runners trying to steal home on a great throw from right-fielder Dave May.

COLT VETERANS TURNED AWAY

Back To Bargaining Table In NFL Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was back to the bargaining table again today in the National Football League labor dispute. Negotiations were scheduled to resume in Washington this afternoon in the National Football League Players Association strike after veterans reported to training camps Wednesday under terms of a 14-day cooling off period. Player representative Preston Pearson led Pittsburgh's returning veterans with handshakes and smiles punctuating the atmosphere at the Steelers' training camp. "I don't think it got as emotional here as it did with some teams," said running back John Fuqua. In Baltimore, 18 Colts veterans showed up only to be turned away by Coach Howard Schnellenberger, who claimed logistical problems. "We can't handle this many players right now," he said. "We have to get rooms ready and things like that." The Colts were told to come back later in the week but that better than what happened to some other veterans, who were sent away for keeps. New England placed quarterback Brian Dowling on waivers, sold tackle Jim Callier to Chicago and purchased punter Dave Lewis from Cincinnati. Lewis had refused to report to the Bengals. Defensive end Carter Campbell of the New York Giants, who also said he wouldn't report until the strike was settled, was traded to Cleveland for tight end Chip Glass. San Francisco swapped tight end Dick Witcher and wide receiver John Isenbarger to Chicago for kick returner Cecil Turner. Cleveland also traded offensive linemen Bob Briggs and Bubba Pena to Kansas City. Wicher, Isenbarger, Glass, Campbell and Dowling all have signed future contracts with the rival World Football League. Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick, two-thirds of Miami's celebrated trio of WFL jumpers, showed up at the Dolphins' camp. The third jumper, wide receiver Paul Warfield, was the lone missing Dolphin. "The cooling off period indicates to me they've gotten pretty close to a settlement," said Csonka. "I'm looking forward to staying in camp. As it stands right now, I can see no possibility of a walkout in 14 days." Mike Phipps, quarterback of the Cleveland Browns, agreed. "I can't speak for any of the other players," he said, "but I'm here to stay. I think it's about time to play football." Quarterback Joe Namath was among the New York Jets reporting vets and no sooner had he declared himself ready for Saturday's exhibition against the Giants than Coach Charlie Weisner said Al Woodchall would be playing.

"It's not fair to expect him to be ready," said Winner of Namath. Houston General Manager Sid Gillman cut seven Oiler vets including linebacker Paul Guidry, who had driven 26 hours from Buffalo to report. Quarterback Edd Hargett, another WFL future, was told by Gillman not to work out with the Oilers and that he would be traded. Veteran defensive linemen George Seals of Kansas City and Mel Tom of Chicago and punter Bobby Joe Green of Chicago announced their retirements.

Wheel Grid Franchise Up In Air

YPSILANTI, Mich. (AP) — Whatever is going to happen to the Detroit Wheels franchise in the World Football League, Coach Dan Boisture wishes it would happen soon. He expects the change, when and if it comes, will be significant. "I'm sure the stability ... has to have an affect on our team," he said Wednesday night after Detroit's 37-7 setback to Memphis dropped the Wheels' record to 0-6.

"Are we going to stay? Aren't we going to stay? My job is to coach this football team and it's difficult to do when there are other things to tend to. I wish they'd reach a decision non what they're going to do."

It has been reported that the Wheels' 33 owners are considering an offer from a group of Charlotte, N.C., businessmen to move the franchise there immediately for a purchase price of $2 million—$800,000 to be paid right away and the rest over a five-year period. Wheels management has not confirmed the offer but has indicated changes will be made. Perhaps only a reshuffling of Detroit owners will be made so there are only a few principals. "You can just feel in the air something will develop for the club," Boisture said. "It will be for good, I'm sure. I know not what it is." "There is so much subterfuge and chicanery that I don't know what's going on. I know this franchise will be—but where, how, who and when I don't know." The Wheels haven't had the money to lure the big name players as have many other WFL teams. Detroit does not have one current National Football League player under contract for the future.

ON TV Houston Texans Eye Suns In Astrodome

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Texans, who have been the scourge of the World Football League defensively, hope to get their offensive afterburners going tonight in a nationally televised showdown against Southern California in the Astrodome. The Texans, despite a 15-1 tie last week against Portland, and Southern Cal, with its two-game losing streak, are the front runners in the WFL Western division. Houston leads with a 2-2-1 record and the Sun is second with a 2-3 record. The Texans acquired their standard with a veteran-laden defensive unit anchored by a front four with 41 aggregate years experience. The Texans lead the WFL in total defense, rushing defense and pass defense and are second in scoring defense. Through five games, the Texans are last in total offense, 11th in rushing offense and last in passing offense but Coach Jim Garrett hopes the addition of speedster Warren McVea will give the Texans an outside threat. "We can't be a championship team without a legitimate wide threat," Garrett said. Garrett said McVea could do a lot for the Texans' offense. "It was intriguing to watch the linemen's faces as all that speed whizzed by," Garrett said after McVea joined the team. "You could almost see their eyes widen. It was like the whole offensive line breathed a big sigh of relief." Garrett hopes the addition of McVea, obtained in a deal with Detroit, and leading rusher Jim Nance will add sparkle to Houston's lackluster offense. The Sun has more impressive statistics with a rushing attack led by Kermit Johnson, the WFL's No. 2 rusher with 378 yards on 100 carries. The Sun also has the No. 3 passer in the league in Tony Adams, who throws to James McAlister and Dave Williams, among the leading receivers. Texans quarterback Mike Taliaferro, off to a slow start with early season injuries, had his best game last week, completing 11 of 22 passes, one for a touchdown, against Portland. "We scored first and that made San Jose change its game pattern. After we took the lead they had to charge their conservative style and come out. That left the back open and we capitalized," Renshaw said. Tornado Coach Ron Newman said: "In a game such as this, when one side scores, the other must come out. They must sacrifice defense in hopes of catching up, and in doing so, leave their back open. We cashed in when they did. It was as simple as that." The Tornado now goes against Miami Saturday night in a semifinal match. A victory over the Toros would insure the Tornado of a host role in the championship game Sunday, Aug. 25.

Former Steers Make SWC Rosters

Four former Big Spring High School Steer gridgers have broken into the roster of Southwest Conference Football teams, according to the 1974 SWC Roster and Record book. Two of the four players are playing for Rice — Rondel Brock, a junior defensive tackle and Nathan Poss, a sophomore cornerback are on the roster. Brock will be wearing number 75 for the Owls this season while Poss will wear number 45. Dave Duncan, a starter last year for TCU, will again see regular duties as wide receiver for the Horned Frogs. Duncan, a senior at TCU, will wear number 88. Alan Davis, a sophomore, is to play for SMU this season as a punter. The 6-1, 187-pound former Steer will wear number 13. Both Brock and Duncan lettered with their teams last year while Poss and Davis saw action on the freshmen squads.

Rote Paces Tornadoes To Win 3-0

DALLAS (AP) — "This shoe will be bonzed," shouted Dallas Tornado veteran Roy Turner, catching the shoe he used for the goal that broke San Jose's back as the Tornado defeated the Earthquakes 3-0 in a North American Soccer League quarterfinal playoff match Wednesday. Turner's goal was only his second of the season and his performance was overshadowed by teammate Mike Renshaw's two goals, but when it came it shattered San Jose's game. The Earthquakes had come out fighting early in the second half after being stung by Dallas' first goal, a perfectly executed play between Renshaw and Kyle Rote. Renshaw stole a pass and flipped it to Rote who then returned it to Renshaw who, on the run, scored on a low kick from about 10 yards out in the 49th minute. Turner dissolved San Jose's furious attack with his shot in the 51st minute, a low bullet from 20 yards out. From then it was a Dallas show as the Earthquakes played catch-up while trying to stem the offensive penetrations of the Tornado led by Renshaw and Rote. Renshaw made it 3-0 when he outran a defender in the 64th minute and fired an angle shot past goalie Mike Ivanow. The San Jose goalie made several spectacular saves of shots by Rote. San Jose star Paul Child was effectively tied up by veteran fullback Dick Hall with a terrific checking game. "We scored first and that made San Jose change its game pattern. After we took the lead they had to charge their conservative style and come out. That left the back open and we capitalized," Renshaw said. Tornado Coach Ron Newman said: "In a game such as this, when one side scores, the other must come out. They must sacrifice defense in hopes of catching up, and in doing so, leave their back open. We cashed in when they did. It was as simple as that." The Tornado now goes against Miami Saturday night in a semifinal match. COAHOMA — The Coahoma Bulldog quarterback club will hold their annual Ice Cream Supper and membership sign-up Friday at the Elementary School Cafeteria. The Ice Cream Supper will begin at 7:30 p.m. and those attending are asked to bring either a freezer of ice cream or a cake.

Edd Hargett In A Class By Himself

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Houston Oiler quarterback Edd Hargett, a taxi squad understudy last season, was in a class by himself today at the Oiler training camp. Hargett, one of five Oilers who signed contracts with the rival World Football League, said Oiler Coach Sid Gillman told him Wednesday that he would be traded and not to work out with the other veterans. Hargett said Gillman told him at lunch Wednesday "We're going to trade you and it'll be over before the weekend. I asked him who to and he said he didn't know yet." The former Texas A&M star said he later reported to the practice field where he was about to put on his uniform to begin his first practice of the season. "He (Gillman) told me I could run on my own or do whatever I wanted to but he didn't want me to work with the team. I asked him if I could go home and he said no just to stay here in camp because it might look bad if I went home and wasn't in camp." Gillman said "All I'll say about it is that he'll be traded. Asked if the Oilers had any offers for Hargett, Gillman snapped, "I said I don't want to discuss it anymore, okay?" Hargett, obtained by the Oilers from New Orleans two years ago, said he figured his career with the Oilers ended when he signed a multi-year contract with the WFL Hawaii team. "I felt like the door already had been pushed shut on my chances here," Hargett said. "I knew that (WFL signing) would kind of put the seal on it." Hargett was used only to hold field goal and extra point snaps last season and spent most of his time on the taxi squad. Hargett said if he thought he would have had a chance to play for the Oilers, he might not have signed with the Hawaiians. "The NFL is a lot more stable than the WFL," he said. "The money is a little better but not so much better that I couldn't have stayed here and done as well." Other Oilers who have signed with WFL teams include cornerback Benny Johnson, linemen Levert Carr and Al Jenkins and running back Paul Robinson. With Hargett's apparent departure, all now are off the Oiler team. Johnson and Robinson already are playing for the WFL, and Carr and Jenkins were waived. Even before Hargett was segregated from his teammates, he must have suspected his days as an Oiler were limited. His picture and accompanying thumbnail sketch were omitted from the Oiler press book distributed prior to training camp.

Connors Elbows Way Into Lead In Tennis Open

TORONTO (AP) — Top-seeded Jimmy Connors elbowed his way through the second round Wednesday in the $100,000 Canadian Open tennis tournament. However, the elbow belonged to Nikki Spear, who was testing his chronic tennis elbow for the second tournament in three months. The 30-year-old Yugoslav won the first set against the American ace, 7-6, after trailing 0-4 in the tie-breaker that decided it. He then went ahead 2-0 in the second before Connors scored 11 consecutive points and took the next five games as Spear's elbow problem became more obvious and forced his withdrawal. Connors appeared relieved by his reprieve. "Nikki hit a lot of good shots. He was hitting a lot of no-pace ball," Connors said. Chris Evert, Connors' 19-year-old fiancee, had a much easier time in continuing her domination of France's Gail Chantreau, 6-0, 6-2. Miss Evert beat her, 6-0, 6-0, in the finals of last week's United States Clay Court championships at Indianapolis, and Wednesday night's result meant the loser was shut out by the Fort Lauderdale, Fla., whiz for 23 consecutive games. Before the match, Miss Chantreau complained she wasn't seeded, which meant she would have gone at least two rounds before facing Miss Evert. Connors' trail to the finals was made a little easier as Ismael El Shafei of Egypt and Marcello Lara of Mexico scored upsets over seeded players and will meet each other in the third round.

Connors appeared relieved by his reprieve. "Nikki hit a lot of good shots. He was hitting a lot of no-pace ball," Connors said. Chris Evert, Connors' 19-year-old fiancee, had a much easier time in continuing her domination of France's Gail Chantreau, 6-0, 6-2. Namath Reports To NY Jet Camp

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (AP) — Joe Namath sashayed into camp about the time he usually does. Late. But since more than 1,000 other players were also late reporting to their jobs, it wasn't such a big deal this time. Namath, accompanied by his chauffeur and his attorney, reported to camp at 1:15, EDT, Wednesday. No one asked about the health of the lawyer or the chauffeur. Namath, who said he had been working out twice a day at the University of Alabama, had conflicting thoughts during the National Football League Players Association strike. He said he thought about joining the Jet picket lines, but was dissuaded by his lawyer, Jimmy Walsh. Then he thought about splitting with the union and showing up at camp. "But I'm glad I didn't," Namath said. Now that the NFLPA has told its troops to report to camp, Namath expects to stay here, "unless something drastic happens. I'll do what the Association has ordered."

PLAYER STATES 'Man Who Wins Will Have A Freak Week'

VETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) — "The man who wins here," said Gary Player, "will have a freak week." Player, winner of the Masters and British Open and probably the No. 1 performer in pro golf this season, was assessing his chances in the $200,000 Sammy Davis Jr.-Greater Hartford Open. The 72-hole chase began today on the tiny, 6,553-yard, par 71 Wethersfield Country Club course with Player, PGA champion Lee Trevino and defending champion Billy Casper heading the strongest field this tournament has ever had. "In a national championship event, in one of the major tournaments," Player continued, "you can take the 10 best players and be pretty sure they'll finish in the top 10 positions." "Here, with the course so short, with the greens so good, you can pick a name out of the hat. Anybody could win. Any good player. "You're only going to be hitting wedges to the greens. The greens are the best we play on the tour. It's all going to come down to putting..." Despite the unusually pessimistic attitude by Player, the little racker from Johannesburg, South Africa ranked as a co-favorite with Lee Trevino for the $40,000 first prize. The veteran Casper, defending title-holder and a four-time Hartford champion, counts himself out of consideration this year because he says he has been playing badly. Trevino, on the other hand, ending the old-time confidence, is pumped up and full of enthusiasm after last week's victory in the PGA. Some other standouts include Hubert Green, a three-time winner this year, Jerry Heard, Tom Watson, Dave Stockton, Jim Colbert, Lee Elder and Bobby Cole, the young South African who challenged for the PGA crown.

Mihalke In Lead

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Michael Mihalke of Sour Lake grabbed the lead with a one-under-par 71 Wednesday in the second day of the 48th annual State Junior Golf Tournament. Mihalke's Wednesday score 68-71—139 for the two days of competition pushed him one stroke ahead of his nearest competitors. Jeff New of Victoria had a 69-71—140 total and Britt Harrison had 66-74—140. Two Dallas challengers, Sam Manning with 70-13—143 and Kirby Hall with 72-71—143 followed. The tournament ends Friday.

Homestead Tax Exemption Rule

HOUSTON (AP) — The City Council Tuesday approved a plan to allow persons over 65 to claim a $3,000 city homestead tax exemption at any time during the year.

A recent ruling by the Texas attorney general held that the exemption could not be denied because it was not claimed during the Jan. 1 to Feb. 28 property redemption period.

PIE IN THE SKY CYCLE

Cashing In On Evel

NEW YORK (AP) — Merchandisers and promoters are busy cashing in on Evel Knievel's Snake River Canyon motorcycle jump. They say millions will pour in whether Knievel lives through it or not.

Knievel says the launch will catapult him 2,500 feet in the air at 350 m.p.h. across the 1,300-foot wide Idaho canyon Sept. 8. He says his chances of making it alive are 50-50.

"Consumers react to the image Evel projects—the daredevil, the reckless adventurer, but a man who is truthful to his word," said Stewart Sims, division manager of Ideal Toy Co. in New York. "He will jump and the image of the honest man remains—and sells—whether he lives or dies."

EVEL DOLL

Ideal Toy Co. hopes to sell about $18 million worth of Evel Knievel items this year, including a new model of the Sky Cycle that is supposed to rocket Knievel across the canyon. The Knievel Stunt Cycle, complete with Evel Knievel doll, was Ideal's best selling toy last year.

"Kids think Evel is great and he's going to be great for our sales," said Nabisco's Jack Welch. He lined up Bobby Riggs with Sugar Daddy suckers for the much heralded tennis match with Billie Jean King. Now, for an undisclosed sum, Welch has made an arrangement with Knievel to promote Chuckles candies. Knievel will have the Chuckles logo on his white uniform, helmet and Sky Cycle as he blasts off into the air.

Knievel products—including T-shirts, watches, posters, commemorative coins—will make as much as $200 million for more than a dozen companies, according to Jeffrey Breslow of Marvin Glass and Associates, who bought the rights to Knievel's name.

Even the state of Idaho sees its pie in the Sky Cycle.

The State Land Board was going to charge Knievel $500 for permission to land on the other side of the canyon which is state and federally owned. But the fee was raised to $5,000 to match the amount the Bureau of Land Management is getting. The permit, issued on Aug. 13, was number 1313.

"GREAT WHITE HOPE"

Top Rank Inc. will be broadcasting the two-hour closed-circuit production and says it expects to make about $15 million from ticket receipts at 350 theaters, foreign rights and promotional items. Robert Arum of Top Rank, who is also presenting the Muhammed Ali-George Foreman fight in Zaire Sept. 25, calls Evel Knievel his "great white hope."

Promoters say 50,000 people who have paid $25 a ticket will watch the Snake River show which includes other daredevil events. Circus star Karl Wallenda is supposed to balance on a tight rope at the edge of the canyon to test the wind before the launch.

Knievel himself says he hopes to earn at least $10 million and possibly as much as $25 million from the jump, billed as "the event of the century."

Meanwhile, he's in Toronto preparing for a motorcycle jump over 13 Mack trucks on Tuesday.

Tools, Testing Gear Are Stolen

Approximately $4,000 in tools and testing equipment was reportedly taken by burglars Wednesday night from a metal building at 4300 West Highway 80.

Taken in the break-in were several socket sets, impact wrench, hand wrenches, a roll away tool box, gauges, tachometer and other automotive testing equipment belonging to Robert Lee Sawicki who discovered the loss at about 10:50 yesterday morning.

Entry was apparently gained through an evaporative cooler.

BIG SPRING HERALD

SECTION B

BIG SPRING, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1974

SECTION B

WHO SAYS Mother's Day comes once a year? Send Dad off with the family and spend a mid-summer day all to yourself. And when dinner time rolls around, serve a nutritious Potato Babka made with creamed cottage cheese that's the easy-to-prepare "one hot dish" to accompany a cold meat supper.

Relax! Refresh! Be A Liberated Mother

Who says Mother's Day comes only once a year? Send Dad off on the boat with the family or hiking in the hills — and celebrate a mid-summer mother's day doing just the things you've longed to do.

Maybe it's an all-day shopping spree, a long bike ride or a lazy afternoon curled up in the backyard hammock, but whatever your fancy, here's an excellent specialty item that you should reserve for your mother's liberation day menu. Potato Babka, a creamed cottage cheese combination that's a cross between a baked potato smothered in sour cream and a fluffy potato pancake, is the "one hot dish" you can whip together in minutes to turn a simple cold meat supper into a gourmet delight.

Because it's so easy to prepare — and goes so well with the roast or the chicken you fixed the day before — you won't feel as if your mid-summer mother's day celebration ended the minute your hungry family walked in the door. Start with the easiest potatoes of all — packaged instant mashed potatoes — and prepare them with a little less water and a little more salt than the directions require. Combine lightly-beaten egg yolks with the potatoes, and stir in cottage cheese, dill weed and pepper.

To make your Potato Babka fluffy and light, beat the egg whites into stiff peaks and fold them into the rich potato-cheese mixture. You're all set for baking, so pop this Russian-style favorite into a moderate oven for 40 minutes — until it's puffed and lightly browned.

Just wait! After the first bite of this unusual treat, you'll discover your family celebrating mother's lib with you again next week!

POTATO BABKA

Instant mashed potatoes for 4 servings

1/4 tsp. salt
2 eggs, separated
1 pint creamed cottage cheese

1/4 tsp. dill weed
1/2 tsp. white pepper

Prepare instant potatoes for 4 servings as package directs but reduce water by 1/4 cup and add 1/4 teaspoon additional salt. Beat egg yolks lightly. Stir a spoonful of hot potato into yolks, then combine with remaining potato and mix well. Stir in creamed cottage cheese, dill weed and pepper. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into potato-cheese mixture. Spoon into lightly greased shallow 1 1/4 quart baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 35 to 40 minutes, until puffed and lightly brown on top. Serve at once from baking dish. Makes 5 or 6 servings.

Eggplant Dish Created By Pennsylvania Dutch

Pennsylvania Dutch cookery is renowned for its tasty dishes created by resourceful, inventive homemakers who of necessity utilized the plainer foods.

CUSTARD CROWNED EGGPLANT CASSEROLE

1 large eggplant, peeled and cut into 1/4-inch thick slices

1 small onion, chopped
Shortening or salad oil
1 2 1/4-oz. envelope tomato soup mix

1 1/4 cups water
3 cups milk
4 eggs
1 1/2 tps. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
2 tablespoons soft bread crumbs

Saute eggplant and onions in small amount of heated shortening until golden brown, adding more shortening if needed. Meanwhile, empty tomato soup mix into a saucepan and gradually stir in water. Bring to a boil and simmer 4 minutes, uncovered, stirring occasionally.

Combine milk, eggs, salt and pepper. Beat well. Then, layer, 1/2 of eggplant and onion in a 2-quart casserole. Cover with 1/2 of the tomato sauce and sprinkle with 1/2 of the bread crumbs. Repeat layers. Gently pour milk-egg mixture over top. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 25-30 minutes or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. Makes 6-8 generous servings.

'Easy Does It' When It's One-Dish Dinner

"Easy does it" when it's a one-dish dinner. And here's a good recipe to prove the point.

This complete meal-in-one combines macaroni, ham and broccoli in a beautifully seasoned casserole that you can serve quickly and easily. Be ready for the calls for seconds.

HAM-A-RONI

2 cups elbow macaroni
1/4 cup chopped onion
1 can (8-oz.) tomato sauce
1 tps. chili sauce
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. dry mustard
1 cup water
8 broccoli spears, cooked
4 slices baked ham
1/2 tps. butter

Cook macaroni as directed on package. While macaroni cooks, saute onion in 1 tps. of the butter for about 5 minutes. Then add tomato sauce, chili sauce, salt, mustard and water; stir. Bring to a boil and simmer for 2 minutes. Turn macaroni into a buttered 8 x 12 baking dish (or 2-qt. casserole).

Place ham slices on macaroni; top ham with broccoli spears. Pour sauce mixture over all. Dot broccoli with remaining 2 tps. butter. Bake in 350 degree oven for 35 minutes. Sprinkle grated Parmesan cheese over top if desired. Makes 4 servings.

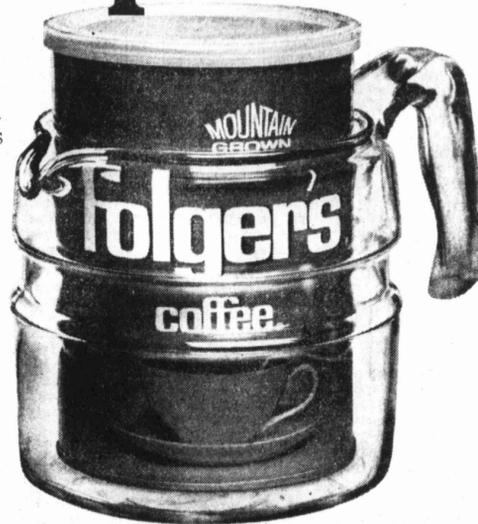

Bologna Given A Saucy Lift

Here's an easy, economical dinner suggestion that will add new appeal to an old favorite, bologna.

To prepare: place whole bologna in a shallow pan. Leave skin on but pierce it well all way around with a fork. Surround with canned sweet potatoes. Pour a 10-ounce bottle of Mandarin Sauce, a tangy new sauce with the flavor of sweet peppers and pineapple juice evenly over bologna and potatoes. Bake at 325 degrees until heated through. Baste bologna frequently with sauce.

FINAL DRAFT OF INQUIRY EVIDENCE SAYS: Nixon Directed Cover-Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The final draft of the House impeachment inquiry's report concludes that former President Richard M. Nixon "from the beginning... knowingly directed the cover-up of the Watergate burglary."

The draft House Judiciary Committee report says about the Watergate break-in and cover-up:

"The president adopted a course of conduct which caused illegal surveillance for political purposes, and the concealment of responsibility for that surveillance, obstruction of justice, perjury, destruction of evidence—all of which are crimes."

CONCLUSIONS

Galley proofs of the draft report were sent to the committee's 38 members Wednesday night and The Associated Press obtained a copy of the report's conclusions. The draft still can be changed before the report is adopted.

Nixon's disclosure Aug. 5 that six days after the Watergate break-in he approved an effort to steer the FBI away from his re-election campaign money's financing of it is inserted in the report as additional evidence.

Nixon said loss of congressional support after that disclosure forced his resignation. But the draft report contends the disclosure only confirmed the evidence the committee already had.

The report summarizes previously disclosed evidence supporting three articles of impeachment the committee voted against the former President.

38 ACTS

It says the evidence that Nixon directed the Watergate cover-up is "a pattern of undisputed acts." The draft lists 38 acts that it says cannot be rationally explained any other way.

In addition, Nixon's public statements for two years from the time of the break-in until last June 9 "deliberately contrived continually to deceive the courts, the Department of Justice, the Congress and the American people," the report says.

FAILED TO PERFORM

The section on evidence supporting proposed impeachment for abuse of power, including the burglary of the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist and misuse of the Internal Revenue Service and other agencies, concludes: "He violated the obligation that every citizen has to live under the law."

Saying the Constitution requires that the president not only live under the law but assure its faithful application, the draft report charges: "Richard M. Nixon repeatedly and willfully failed to perform that duty."

"He failed to perform it by authorizing and directing actions that violated the rights of citizens and that interfered with the functioning of executive agencies."

As for recommending the third impeachment article, for Nixon's defiance of committee subpoenas for Watergate tapes, the draft report says acquiescence by Congress this time might tempt any future president to ignore impeachment subpoenas.

HUSH MONEY

Although the report accuses

Nixon of a course leading to the illegal burglary and wiretapping of Democratic national headquarters in the Watergate office building, the 30 acts cited relate only to the cover-up that followed.

The report says the 30 include what it calls Nixon's instructions that $75,000 in alleged hush money be paid to Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt Jr. and that witnesses give false testimony.

BREAK-IN

The report says more than $400,000 was paid to the Watergate defendants. And it says that Nixon told former aide John D. Ehrlichman on April 17, 1973, "to give false testimony concerning (Nixon lawyer Herbert W.) Kalmbach's knowledge of the purpose of the payments to the Watergate defendants."

It lists as what it considers the first indication that Nixon already knew of the cover-up the fact that he decided not to attend a meeting of five top aides on the Watergate break-in three days after it happened.

The draft report also cites the famous 18½-minute gap on a taped discussion between Nixon and Haldeman three days after the break-in. It says the erasure occurred at a time "the President stated that the tapes had been under his 'sole and personal control.'"

The list also includes Nixon's firing of former special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox and his comments on containing the Watergate investigation and his praise of former White House Counsel John W. Dean III for "putting your finger in the dike every time that leaks have sprung here and sprung there."

$100 Million Loan Killed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $100 million loan agreement for production of the F14 jet fighter by the Grumman Aerospace Corp. has been killed by the Senate.

"It is time to put a stop to the corporate bailout syndrome," Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., said Tuesday in winning passage of a resolution voiding an agreement between Grumman and the Navy.

Proxmire said the Grumman-Navy relationship with Congress "has been characterized by concealment, deception, mismanagement of government programs and corporate bailouts."

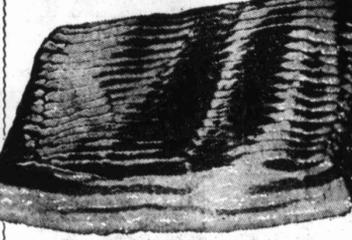

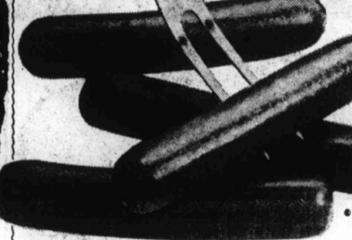

The resolution, adopted by a 53 to 35 vote, won the support of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., who said that although he believes the F14 is a fine aircraft, he wanted "to get this perpetual headache solved."

Federal law says loans to government contractors—in this case an advance payment agreement—go into effect unless either branch of Congress disapproves within 60 days.

Dry Fall Could Validate Predictions By Fryrear

Bill Fryrear, who directs the research program at the U.S. Experiment Farm here, predicted 79 sand or duststorms for this area in 1974. So far 39 have been recorded, and if it doesn't rain, November and December could validate the prediction.

And if it doesn't rain, Fryrear predicted that wind erosion in 1975 would make 1974 seem like a pleasant picnic.

In a talk to the Downtown Lions Club, Fryrear said his formula takes into account the amount of moisture in the upper six feet of soil, which usually approximates 12 inches. But now that is down to the equivalent of 1 1/2 inches, and it's mostly down in the lower depths and unavailable for most plant utilization.

It will take a lot more than last weekend's 1 1/2-inch showers, he said, for it to wet fields to a depth of five or six inches and the moisture will be quickly exhausted by present crops.

On the brighter side, he pointed out that timely September and October rains could mean ample cover crops, or tillage methods which would largely control severe blowing.

Outlook for the experiment station is precarious in that he believes that there must be some definite expandable need shown within the next two years. In his mind, there's no doubt of a burning need, for this is the only station in the USDA research program devoted to wind erosion problems characteristics to the Plains. The only other station researching wind erosion is at Manhattan, Kans., a wholly different situation.

This problem critically affects agriculture, and "if you eat, you're involved in agriculture at least three times a day."

He touched on current research programs. One has established that it required about one gallon of fuel to move a tractor and rig over an acre of ground. Add in other operation, maintenance and depreciation costs, and it becomes apparent that every trip over a field that can be eliminated means substantial money in the farmer's pocket.

Another has to do with methods of working land after rains; with the extent of plant survival in the face of severe wind, and what percentage of survival will still give a chance of reasonable yield. With cotton seed at $28 CWT and diesel and other costs about doubled, replanting needs to be avoided it at all economically feasible, he declared.

He touched briefly on experiments with sunflowers, which offer possibility as a vegetable oil crop, but these need to be an early crop, experience thus far shows.

Special guests for the day were the Lions, champions of the Sophomore baseball league, and their manager Tommy Walker, and coach Tom Vernon. Walker presented Dr. Wayne Bonner, presiding, with the championship trophy. The Lions had a 11-3 record to win the title, then won the first game of the bi-district playoffs.

Harris Poll On Cover-Up

NEW YORK (AP) — Before Richard M. Nixon revealed he had withheld some Watergate evidence, 74 per cent of the respondents in a Harris poll believed he knew of the Watergate cover-up while it was going on.

Only 16 per cent of a cross section of 1,552 adults surveyed between July 31 and Aug. 2 thought he didn't, according to the poll.

The same question in May 1973 showed only 50 per cent of respondents were convinced of Nixon's knowledge of the cover-up, while 34 per cent said they didn't believe he knew of it, the Harris organization said Monday.

The current survey found that by different groupings, the respondents concurred by majorities ranging from 60 to 69 per cent that Nixon was guilty of obstruction of justice in the Watergate case.

Those who differed ranged from 19 to 22 per cent, the pollster said.

The poll was completed three days before Nixon made public a taped conversation in which he ordered a halt to a 1972 FBI inquiry into Watergate.

SAFEWAY
SAVE EVERY DAY AT SAFEWAY

BIDDING GOOD FRIENDS goodbye is never pleasant, but you can turn the occasion into a farewell dinner that's informal and fun. Make a hearty and spicy tamale pie and serve it with a salad of crisp greens, avocado quarters, raw carrot strips and radish slices.

Greet New Neighbor With Hot Casserole

Moving, whether from block to block or coast to coast, is an increasing part of American family life. In the last two years, some 33 million citizens have changed residences — more than the entire population of many good-sized nations.

No matter how commonplace moving becomes, however, it's a frustrating, topsy-turvy experience, and doesn't leave much time for meal preparation. So, when that big van pulls away from your neighbor's house, the friendliest thing you could do is invite them to your house for a Harvest Tamale Pie — a deep-dish meal-in-one that will simplify their day without burdening yours.

Its cornmeal "crust" is made extra nutritious with three cups of good whole milk. And the tangy meat filling with a mild Mexican accent will help restore your friends' energy after this day's hectic pace.

Hearty, spicy and attractive, Harvest Tamale Pie can be done ahead of time (so you can even offer a helping hand to your busy friends). Everyone will want the meal to remain simple; but, of course, you want it to be especially appetizing, so round out the Pie with a salad of crisp greens and avocado quarters for additional South of the Border flair.

Bidding good friends goodbye is never pleasant, but your warm gesture will be a welcome treat that will help in saying the fond farewells. And if the moving van ever pulls up to your curb, maybe someone will have the same thoughtful idea.

HARVEST TAMALES

- 3 cups milk
- 1 cup yellow cornmeal
- 2 1/4 tps. salt
- 1/2 lb. ground beef chuck
- 3/4 cup chopped onion
- 1 tsp. oil
- 1 tsp. chili powder
- 1 (1 lb.) can tomatoes

Waffles And Chow Mein For Snacks

How about serving chow mein over crisp waffles as that "something different" for Sunday night suppers or a late evening snack? You can prepare the whole meal in minute with frozen waffles and a new Instant Chow Mein since all you need to do is add three and one-half cups of water to the can of ingredients and heat.

- 1 (8 1/2 oz.) can whole kernel corn, drained
- 1 (8 oz.) can red kidney beans, drained
- 3 tps. yellow cornmeal
- 1 tsp. butter, melted

Heat 2 cups milk to simmering. Stir 1 cup cornmeal and 1 1/4 tps. salt in remaining 1 cup milk; combine with hot milk. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and becomes very thick.

Turn heat low, and cook 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Cover and set aside while preparing filling. Brown beef and onion in oil. Add chili powder, remaining teaspoon salt, tomatoes, corn and beans; simmer 5 minutes. Sprinkle remaining 3 tablespoons cornmeal evenly over surface and stir into meat mixture; cook until thickened.

Line a greased shallow 1 1/2 quart baking dish with the cooked cornmeal, reserving a little for top of dish. Spoon in the next mixture and top with spoonfuls of the reserved cornmeal. Drizzle the cornmeal mounds with melted butter. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 30 minutes until thoroughly heated. Makes 6 servings.

Flavor Medley Means Music To Pocketbook

Your guests will try to guess what's in it.

HAM DANDY CASSEROLE

- 1 pkg. (12-oz.) rice pilaf frozen in a pouch
- 1 pkg. (9-oz.) diagonal-cut green beans frozen in butter sauce
- 2 cups cubed cooked ham
- 1 jar (2 1/2 oz.) sliced mushrooms, drained
- 1/2 cup slivered blanched almonds
- 1 can (10 1/2 oz.) cheddar cheese soup, undiluted
- 1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs
- 1 tsp. butter, melted

Cook rice and beans according to package directions only until thawed. In a medium mixing bowl mix together the rice, beans, ham, mushrooms, almonds and cheese soup; turn into a 2-quart casserole. Mix crumbs with butter; sprinkle over casserole. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven for 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

BAVARIAN MEDLEY

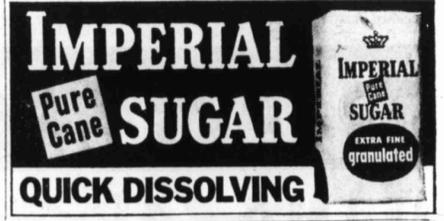

- 1 10-oz. pkg. pure egg

noodles

- 1 16-oz. can sauerkraut
 - 1 lb. frankfurters
- Cook noodles as directed on package. Cook frankfurters along with the noodles. Heat sauerkraut in separate pan. When noodles are done, drain, and immediately add the sauerkraut. Toss lightly to blend kraut with noodles and franks, and turn into large serving dish. Preparation time: 10 minutes. Serve with chilled apple sauce and ginger snaps. Serves six.

Jurors To View Video Tape Of Shootout At Huntsville

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — A Walker County grand jury planned to view a video tape today of the shootout in which convict Fred Gomez Carrasco, fellow inmate Rodolfo Dominguez, and hostages Elizabeth Beseda and Julia Standley died as the convicts tried to escape from prison.

The grand jury inspected the site of the Aug. 3 shootout Wednesday and said it would report on its tour today at 9 a.m.

said the grand jury members also talked to Ignacio Cuevas, the only surviving member of the inmate trio that at one time held 15 hostages in the prison library. The jury will consider indictments against Cuevas.

The grand jury earlier subpoenaed the video tape and planned to view it today if projection equipment could be found.

Prison hospital officials said Wednesday that the Rev. Joseph O'Brien, the prison chaplain wounded in the chest during the shootout, is in good condition. It is expected he will be called before the grand jury for testimony.

There had been widespread rumors that Cuevas had been severely beaten after he was captured following the shootout. Sandel said the grand jurors visited Cuevas to check on the reports and found him in excellent health.

State Sen. Chet Brooks, D-Pasadena, who earlier had called on Gov. Dolph Briscoe to check the rumors, said Wednesday in Houston he was "greatly relieved about the grand jury's visit."

Brooks added that he talked Wednesday by telephone with Jim Estelle, director of the Texas Department of Corrections, and was told that Cuevas had been examined by a physician and is in good health.

Estelle also assured Brooks that no attempt was ever made on Cuevas' life after his recapture, Brooks said.

"This will certainly help relieve the doubts of the public," he said.

Seizure Of $112 Million Heroin Shipment 'Bad News'

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal narcotics officials describe their seizure of a $112 million transatlantic heroin shipment as an ominous portent of what may happen if Turkish farmers resume full-scale opium poppy growing this fall.

"Normally, a seizure of this kind would be a happy event," John R. Bartels, administrator of the federal Drug Enforcement Administration said Wednesday. "This is not a happy event. The epidemic might resume."

Federal narcotics agents last week located a shipment of 75 kilograms of French-processed heroin packed in the hollowed-out recesses of $7,000 worth of Louis XIII furniture. Officials estimated the heroin could have supplied 4,800 users for a month. Four French citizens and an Argentinian were arrested after one of them tried to sell information about the smuggling scheme to narcotics agents for $400,000. On Wednesday, announcing the arrests at a news conference, U.S. Atty. David Trager of Brooklyn drew a parallel with the celebrated "French Connection" seizure in 1962 of $98 million worth of heroin, a case on which a book and popular movie were based. He said the new seizure

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Thurs., Aug. 15, 1974 9-B shows the traditional heroin smuggling route from Turkey through processing plants in the south of France is still usable, although it was supposedly destroyed a year and a half ago. Turkey declared a ban on opium poppy growing under a 1971 agreement with the United States, but Premier Bulent Ecevit has said his government intends to allow resumption this fall. Trager and Bartels both said they feared the new shipment means French processors already have begun unloading stockpiles of processed heroin which they kept while the Turkish ban drove prices up. Authorities said Maurice Schoch approached French authorities a week ago—two months after the heroin-packed furniture had been delivered to a Queens warehouse—and offered information about a major heroin shipment for $400,000.

Funnel Cloud In West Texas

By The Associated Press

Severe thunderstorms rumbled across portions of East Texas and the Panhandle Wednesday but the rain dissipated by today and only a few patches of clouds remained over the state.

Two funnel clouds, one in West Texas and one on the coast, were sighted Wednesday. No damage was reported. The most severe weather was in the east, where thunderstorm warnings were posted for Hardin and Chambers counties.

Other thunderstorm warnings were issued in Hockley and Lubbock counties in West Texas.

Skies were clear over most of Texas this morning although some cloudiness lingered over the middle coast and the Hill Country.

Winds were predominantly light and southerly. Temperatures ranged from 60 degrees at Marfa to 82 at Galveston.

Forecasters predicted generally partly cloudy and warm weather through Friday. They said there is a slight chance of a few thundershowers today in Northwest and Southeast Texas.

GOING AROUND THE WORLD — The Clair Smith family poses on the self-built trimaran, "Leisure Five," before leaving from Red City, Calif., on a planned around the world trip, which they estimate will take from three to five years. The family has left Redwood City on a trip down the California coast and plans to leave Nov. 1 from San Diego. Left to right: Mrs. Anne Smith, holding the mascot cat "Sailor"; Clair Smith, who quit his job as a Redding, Calif., constable to make the trip; Larry, 13; Frances, 11; and April, 14.

Six Marijuana Arrests Listed

EASTON, Conn. (AP) — Six men, including a Texan, were arrested Wednesday in two raids that netted authorities an estimated $30,000 worth of marijuana and controlled drugs, state police said.

Troops said Robert B. Ginsburgh, 24, of Walpole, N.H., and James H. Crowell, 25, of Del Valle, Tex., were stopped along Route 58 at 2 p.m. in a car containing 70 pounds of marijuana and amphetamines. Ginsburgh and Crowell were charged with possession of marijuana with intent to sell and possession of controlled drugs, state police said.

Authorities said four other men were later arrested on the same charges at a nearby house off Route 58. They were identified by officials as: Fred Harding, 27, and David Heriot, 23, both of Easton; Walter Gates, 29, of Harding, Pa.; and Andre Avedisian, 24, North Bergen, N.J.

The men were each held on $25,000 bond, state police said.

Galbraith Ideas At Least Can Serve As A Warning

OMAR BURLESON, M.C. WASHINGTON, D.C. — There was a time when it was insulting to call someone a Socialist. It was a smear word resented by true Liberals who advocated a system of government regulations and control, often referred to as "democratic economic planning." If one dared to refer to such a plan as "Socialism," he was often accused of dragging political discourse into the gutter.

It now appears that some of the intellectual liberals such as Pro. John Kenneth Galbraith of Harvard University and author of numerous best sellers, has taken to speaking and writing on the virtues of Socialism, making no bones about it. In many of his works he has not been far from writing and saying the same things he is doing. Prof. Galbraith is quite candid when he recommends government planning as to what should be produced and what should not and for government authority to make decisions over who gets what and how much. The basic thrust of the professor's opinions is clearly against private decision, urging the increase of Governmental power and the final embrace of a "new Socialism" as a cure for what ails us. This has been the evolution of nations which now have Socialist governments. When things got to the point of causing enough people to feel that they were being unfairly treated in their society, they were willing to accept an "alternative." If anything good can come out of the professor's ideas, it is that he gives us warning to strengthen our system by unfettering business which can give greater opportunity to more people to work, to produce goods and to pay taxes.

Americans Can Expect Higher Supermarket Prices Next Year

Associated Press Writer

Americans can expect higher supermarket prices next year because of smaller-than-expected farm harvests this fall.

That was the message that economists and food industry sources got from the Agriculture Department's report on Monday that the nation's corn harvest would be lower than at any time since 1970.

DISASTROUS

"It isn't a disastrous situation, but it's a serious one," said Richard Lyng, president of the American Meat Institute.

"It does mean in 1975 upward pressure on food prices. There's no question about that," said Dawson Ahalt, an economist for the Department of Agriculture.

Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz told a meeting of poultry producers in New Orleans that food prices may go up 14 per cent this year. That's 2 per cent higher than earlier estimates.

WAGE RATES

Butz said the exact increase would depend on "wage rates in the food processing and packaging industry."

The government market-basket for June, the most recent month available, showed that food prices rose 3 per cent in the first half of the year. The July figures for retail prices aren't ready yet, but a recent report showed wholesale food prices went up 3.6 per cent last month, indicating another boost at the supermarket.

Heavy rains during spring planting season, followed by hot, dry weather that reached drought proportions in much of the Midwest, cut sharply into the nation's harvests of corn and soybeans—two key grains used to feed dairy cows, beef cattle and poultry.

Butz repeated earlier claims that "the impact of the drought has been overestimated." He said it was serious, but noted that the wheat crop—harvested earlier—was better than last year's.

MEAT, MILK

Lyng and other experts said it was hard to tell just what impact the lack of corn would have on food prices. Most agreed that over the long run, the consumer can expect to pay more for meat and milk.

Last year's corn harvest was about 5.6 billion bushels. Early this spring, the Agriculture Department predicted a 1974 harvest of 6.4 billion bushels. That was lowered to an estimate of between 5.95 and 6.35 billion bushels.

Monday, the department said its best guess was that farmers

Alaskan Crash Kills Temple Man

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — A Temple, Tex., man was among four persons who died in a plane crash Tuesday night 200 miles northwest of Fairbanks.

L.Y. Hugh Knowles, 53, of Temple, Bechtel camp manager for Happy Valley Construction camp was one of three trans-Alaska pipeline employees killed in the accident.

The cause of the crash was under investigation by the National Transportation Safety Board, which sent an inspector to the crash site Wednesday.

Authorities said construction workers on the road witnessed the accident and rushed to the area but all aboard apparently died on impact.

would harvest 4.97 billion bushels—down 12 per cent from last year.

Rains that fell over the Midwest last weekend, too late to affect the current crop report, helped the later-harvested soybean crop. But much of the corn already was destroyed.

$2 BILLION

Gov. J. James Exon of Nebraska, where officials say the drought already has cost the state economy $2 billion, said the smaller harvests undoubtedly would push up food prices next year.

Glenn Kreuscher, Nebraska's secretary of agriculture, said the smaller harvest would mean higher corn prices and higher beef production costs. He said "livestock prices better go up pretty fast" or farmers will be forced to cut production. That could bring a beef shortage, and still higher supermarket prices, he said.

University of Missouri agriculture expert William Murphy agreed: "I can see high corn prices, a shortage of corn, a limit on exports a bit and less livestock bred because of this."
