YUGOSLAVIAN IMMIGRANT WITH RECORD OF SEX OFFENSES JAILED

Nab Suspect In LA Bombings

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Yugoslavian immigrant with a record of sex offenses has been arrested for investigation of murder, and police say he is the "alphabet bomber" whose deadly charges have killed three persons.

Police and the FBI said Muharem Kurbegovic, 31, was taken into custody on Tuesday night after he planted a tape recording in a trash can in a rest room at a Hollywood take-out restaurant.

They said Kurbegovic was the man who identified himself in telephone calls and other tape recordings as "Issac Rasim," military leader of an organization

he called Aliens of America. He was called the alphabet bomber after threatening to spell out the group's name "in blood" unless immigration and sex laws were repealed.

William A. Sullivan, assistant director of the FBI in charge of the Los Angeles office, said Kurbegovic was apparently acting alone and "at this time it would be my opinion that there is no such group as the Aliens of America."

Police said Kurbegovic, who had been employed until this week at a blueprint company in Los Angeles, was unarmed and offered no resistance when he was arrested.

Kurbegovic, who has light, curly, short hair, was marched past newsmen at police headquarters and booked in connection with an Aug. 6 blast at Los Angeles International Airport that killed three persons and injured 35.

EXPLOSIVES

Last Friday night, in response to a warning from the man who called himself Isaac Rasim, police found a 25-pound bomb planted in a locker in a downtown bus station. The device was disarmed.

After Kurbegovic's arrest, police aided by bomb-sniffing dogs searched his Hollywood apartment and hauled away what they described as a large cache of chemicals and explosives.

They said the haul included numerous bottles of clear liquids, several cans of gunpowder, a large spool of electrical wire, a cassette tape recorder, a gas mask and a number of books on how to make bombs. Police would not say what the clear liquid was, but they said all of the material found could be used in making a large quantity of powerful explosives.

'MILD LOOKING'

Sullivan said it was not known where the explosives were obtained. A police spokesman said plainclothes officers and FBI agents had been following Kurbegovic for more than 18 hours before his arrest at the restaurant, Carl's Jr.

Witnesses at the restaurant described him as "mild looking." He was dressed casually. Sullivan said the Immigration Service sifted the records of aliens living in the Los Angeles area, while police searched their records for aliens with records of sex offenses.

He said Kurbegovic was an alien with such a record, although Sullivan declined to give any details.

Kurbegovic has been a resident alien in the United States since 1967, Sullivan said.

He said the tape found Tuesday night when Kurbegovic was arrested "reiterated political philosophy" espoused earlier by Rasim and did not contain a bomb threat.

Police Cmdr. Peter Hagan said investigators also had linked Kurbegovic to a firebombing at the home of former Police Commissioner Emmett C. McGaughey and to another attempted firebombing at the home in the last six months.

Rasim demanded in one of his messages that McGaughey and George Milemore, former captain of the police commission's investigative unit, be arrested for murder in the 1970 slayings by police of two Mexican aliens.

STAGE RAID

The two were killed accidentally as officers raided an apartment looking for a murderer.

Seven officers later were exonerated of wrongdoing. Police said McGaughey and Milemore had nothing to do with the shooting.

On Saturday night, a powerful explosion leveled a warehouse in a nearly deserted industrial district, injured five persons and caused damage estimated at $5 million to $8 million.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford declared through a spokesman today that he "probably will run" for the nation's highest office in 1976.

VANDALISM CASES ARE SOLVED, CHISUM SAYS

After several weeks of investigation, the Big Spring Police said they solved a long string of vandalism cases with the arrest Tuesday of Monte Ray Woods, Jr., 18; Billy Don Whittington, 17; and a 16 year old juvenile.

Police Chief Vance L. Chisum made the announcements. Investigation was conducted by Detective LeRoy Spires, Juvenile Officer C.P. Ward and District Attorney Investigator Guy Talbot.

The youths are suspected of breaking several auto windshields and school windows during the past several weeks.

In J.P. Walter Grice's office, examining trial was set for Woods and Whittington who are charged with criminal mischief, a felony, for the breakage of plate glass windows in Moss Elementary School on August 12.

Consumer Price Index Rises

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of living rose eight-tenths of a per cent in July despite an easing in the increase in food prices, the government said today.

The July report marked only the second time this year the monthly increase in the government's Consumer Price Index has been less than 1 per cent.

The July increase would amount to an annual rate of inflation of 9.6 per cent, still ahead of last year's 8.8 per cent inflation rate.

Prices as of July 31 were 11.8 per cent higher than in July 1973, the government said. That is the biggest 12-month jump since the year ending September 1947, when the increase was 12.6 per cent.

The Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics said, however, workers managed to gain ground last month in their race with inflation. Spendable earnings, after taking account for inflation, moved up by two-tenths of 1 per cent.

But since it was only the second monthly increase this year, real spendable earnings were 5.3 per cent less than a year earlier.

The major factors pushing up prices in July, the department said, were higher interests costs for home buyers and higher prices on cars, medical care and restaurant meals.

Two Hurt In Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. Augustin Ontiveros, Coahoma, are both listed in fair condition today after suffering injuries in a two car accident about six miles northeast of Big Spring about 3:40 p.m. Tuesday.

The accident occurred when the car M. Ontiveros was driving collided with an auto driven by Mrs. Linda S. Sims, at the intersection of County Road 28 and an unnumbered county road.

Mrs. Ontiveros, 75, suffered abrasions and contusions while Mr. Ontiveros, 70, complained of respiratory problems.

Mrs. Sims was not injured in the mishap.

Highway Patrolmen R. D. Bates and Jimmy Parks investigated the accident.

MD Weekend Proclaimed

Mayor Wade Choate has proclaimed Aug. 31-Sept. 1-2 as "Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Teletthon Weekend" in Big Spring.

"This event provided major support for the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, which sponsor a world wide program of scientific research into neuromuscular diseases," he said. "In addition they maintain a network of 135 free clinics to serve patients throughout the country suffering from these crippling illnesses."

Mayor Choate called upon Big Springers to support the MD appeal generously.

Tempo Eases In Campaign

Although the tempo eased somewhat, Tuesday was another good day for the high school Bible Fund, pushing it to the $2,000 mark. This represents nearly 40 per cent of the goal.

Thus, if you can help, please send your gift to the Herald so it can be recognized as being a part of providing this adventure in the bible for numerous young people.

BECAME ALCOHOLIC Embezzler Fleeced 'Very, Very Rich'

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Thomas Bates' attorney said his client took money from the bank accounts of the "very, very rich" who "really didn't know how much they had."

Bates, 27, stood before U.S. District Court Judge D.W. Suttle Tuesday, who sentenced the college graduate to three years in prison for embezzlement.

Marital problems, alcoholism and bad investments in the stock market led Bates eventually to embezzle $127,000 from Alamo National Bank, his attorney told Suttle.

The attorney, A. L. Hernden, said that his client "went further in, further in, further in," trouble.

"He knew there was a day that he was going to get caught. And he was relieved somewhat when it (embezzlement) was discovered," the attorney said.

The longer Bates got away with the embezzlement of funds, the more he drank and he "squandered some of the money and became more of an alcoholic," Hernden said.

Braniff Returns To D-FW Airport

DALLAS (AP) — Braniff International has decided to leave Love Field here and consolidate its Dallas-Fort Worth service at the two cities' new regional airport.

Braniff President C. Edward Acker said the Tuesday decision to stop 13 intrastate commuter flights from Love Field Sept. 1 and add 10 flights at the regional facility was the best way to serve the greatest number of travelers in the Southwest metropol.

Acker said Braniff now will fly to Houston from D-FW every 30 minutes during peak traffic periods. Flights departing on the hour will go to Houston Intercontinental Airport and on the half-hour to Houston Hobby Airport, he said.

A Braniff spokesman said the change will mean a net gain of one flight to Houston, including 17 to Intercontinental and 10 to Hobby.

Braniff will add one daily flight to San Antonio from D-FW but drop two Love-originated flights for a total of 16.

Austin will have a total of six flights with Braniff adds one D-FW flight and drops three from Love Field.

Braniff's decision to leave Love Field withdraws the airline from commuter flight battle with Southwest Airlines and Texas International at that airport.

Spokesman said his airline would have no comment on the Braniff pullout.

A spokesman for Texas International said at the company's Houston headquarters that service to Austin from Love Field would continue as long as that field is open for commercial flights. The company does not fly from Love Field to either Houston's Hobby or San Antonio.

The spokesman had no comment on any expansion of TIA's service from Love Field.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a victory for President Ford, the House has voted to cut a $20 billion mass transit bill down to the $11 billion he requested. The House sent the bill to the Senate Tuesday after the funding authorization was reduced by a 257-125 vote. The bill would authorize the first federal operating subsidies to hardpinched mass transit systems, as well as money for buying new equipment.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford planned to sign today a $25 billion education bill extending Great Society school aid programs and imposing new busing curbs. In what was viewed as a peace-making gesture, major education organizations were invited to witness the bill signing. Many had battled with former President Nixon over his not infrequent vetoes of education money bills.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government plans to re-examine all publicly financed items installed in Richard M. Nixon's Florida and California homes with an eye to recovering what it profitably can, according to the head of the General Services Administration. Arthur F. Sampson said his agency will "look at every item" installed while Nixon was President, and then decide what should be done with them now.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford has pledged to seek wage-price controls, saying recent experience makes it clear that compulsory controls would be most undesirable. Ford's statement came as Congress completed action on his request to re-establish a wage and price monitoring agency.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Overwhelming praise except from some longstanding Republican foes virtually guarantees Nelson A. Rockefeller's confirmation by Congress as vice president. The question is how soon. Chairmen of both House and Senate confirmation committees declined to set any target date, and House Judiciary Committee Chairman Peter J. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., did not rule out confirmation after the November elections.

TEMPERATURES RISING — It was hot enough Tuesday for a person resting under the shade of a tree but for these highway workers stabilizing a segment of Interstate 20 east of town the temperatures were way up there. The chore calls for lots of patience and thick-soled shoes.

WOUNDED REMOVED FROM JAIL

Gunfire Ends Standoff In Amarillo

BULLETIN

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — A one-time policeman turned criminal died in a burst of gunfire today in the jail atop the Potter County Courthouse.

The dead man was identified by Sheriff's Capt. Art Fields as Darwin "Red" Meharg, 39, leader of the inmates who took over the jail just before midnight Monday.

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — The standoff by five inmates seeking freedom collapsed in bursts of gunfire today in the jail atop the Potter County Courthouse with possibly one dead and three others wounded.

Authorities said a man taken from the courthouse on a stretcher fully covered was dead. He was not identified.

'IT'S OVER'

Three others, believed prisoners, were taken earlier from the courthouse to ambulance.

Stan Snitker, 32, a jail guard and the lone hostage, was the first person out of the courthouse. He apparently was uninjured.

The sheriff's office did not reveal any details immediately other than to say, "It's over."

One of those taken on a stretcher was a woman, believed to be Barbara Thiel, one of the inmates who was reported helping the four men inmates, although her mother said she was an unwilling participant.

FACE-TO-FACE

The shooting followed several hours of face-to-face confrontation on the seventh floor between the inmates and Sheriff T. L. Baker and one of his captains, Don Smith.

Until this morning the officers went to the jail, negotiations had been carried on by intercom between the jail inmates and officers on the ground floor.

The four inmates using the butcher knives stolen from the kitchen, took over the seventh and eighth floors near midnight Monday.

They took two jail guards as hostages, but released one who had suffered a severe hip injury.

The leader of the rebel convicts was identified as Darwin "Red" Meharg, 39, a former Wichita Falls policeman and ex-convict who once escaped from the Wichita County jail. Meharg was held here on a charge of aggravated robbery.

He was spokesman for a group that included James E. Quinn, a federal prisoner held after an escape; Kenneth Oliver, facing a murder charge; James E. Petty, sentenced to eight years for robbery; and Barbara Ann Thiel, 40, charged with Meharg in the robbery case.

Montelongo Is Winner

The Big Spring State Hospital's award for outstanding instructor for the past six months went to Juan Montelongo, Unit 6 attendant.

Montelongo was recognized at the semi-annual covered dish supper held recently in the Staff Development Center at the hospital.

Anne Couvillion, coordinator of adult education, made the award to Montelongo. Thirty persons attended the supper.

The recipient was nominated by other teacher-attendants.

David Duggan, 17, came in to police headquarters at 11:28 p.m. Tuesday to inform the police that there had been a theft at the Ritz Theatre.

An investigation followed. The police ultimately arrested and charged him with theft. The police report states that some of the stolen merchandise was still in his possession.

Water Deliveries Up By 24.39 Per Cent

Through July, water deliveries by the Colorado River Municipal Water District are up 24.39 per cent, yet revenues were up by less than four per cent.

The July revenue statement of the district shows 12,006,838,000 gallons delivered to all customers for the first seven months of the year, up 2,352,000,000 gallons. Revenues for the seven months aggregated

LITTLE OPPOSITION

Bill To Protect Pension Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) — Early enactment seems assured for a bill designed to protect workers' pension rights. The House passed the compromise measure Tuesday with only two dissenting votes.

In the Senate, where a vote is scheduled for late today, one of the sponsors, Harrison A. Williams Jr., D-N.J., said he knows of no opposition. Republicans predicted that President Ford will sign the measure promptly.

CREDITS

The bill would assure workers they will get benefits based on credits they have built up during their employment, even if they leave their employers before normal retirement time. It contains safeguards against pension plans lacking the funds to pay off.

The bill approved by the House 407 to 2 also provides enhanced tax breaks for more affluent self-employed persons, such as doctors and lawyers, who set up their own retirement plans.

For the first time employees not covered by company plans would be allowed to set up tax-favored pension plans of their own. The bill would not require companies to establish pension plans, but would regulate those in existence and any set up in the future.

While some critics continued to term it inadequate, sponsors hailed the bill as a landmark achievement in protecting workers' rights.

A key provision relates to vesting, the right of an employe who has participated in a plan for a given number of years to take his right to future benefits with him if he quits early or changes jobs.

BANK DEPOSITS

Employers would have options: Full vesting after 10 years, 25 per cent vesting after 10 years increasing to 100 per cent after 15, or 50 per cent when age and years of service total 45

Dawson County Gains Wildcat

Dawson County has gained a wildcat venture four miles northeast of Lamesa, and Borden County has a dual completion in the Hood (Pennsylvanian) field.

Dorchester No. 1-A Woodul is an 8,000-foot prospecter 1,980 from the north and 660 from the east lines of section 1-35-6n, CCD&RGNG.

James P. Dunigan Inc. is asking for discovery allowable for its No. 2-527 Miller, which previously completed as the re-opener of the three-well Hood file in northeast Borden, eight miles northwest of Fouvanna. It pumped 147 barrels of 40-gravity oil and 68 barrels of water with gas-oil ratio 250-1 from perforations at 8,152-56. In June it had potential for 152 barrels of 40-gravity oil, gas-oil ratio of 818-1, through perforations at 8,097-101. Originally it was drilled to 8,596 in the Ellenburger. Location is 1,890 from the south and 2,170 from the east lines of section 527-97, H&TC.

In Glasscock County, Adobe No. 5-11 Zant continued testing the Grayburg through perforations at 3,664-67 after fracturing with 5,000 gallons. Recovery was five barrels per hour, cut 2 per cent with water and the remaining fluid unidentified.

Lario No. 1-A Oldham, northeast Howard wildcat, was below 6615 in lime and shale.

Texaco Inc. No. 1 Fort Worth National Bank, 1,320 from the north and 1,285 from the east lines of section 32-38-1n, T&F, 17 miles west of Stanton, extended Spraberry pay three-fourths of a mile southeast. It pumped 224 barrels of 39.8-gravity oil and 36 water with gas-oil ratio of 1,040-1. Production was from perforations at 8,368-9,264.

Belco No. 1 Barclay, Mitchell County wildcat, drilled 4,100 in shale.

Oppose Amnesty

CHICAGO (AP) — The Veterans of Foreign Wars national convention has voted unanimously to oppose amnesty for draft dodgers and deserters.

About 4,000 delegates approved without dissent on Tuesday a resolution opposing amnesty.

The vote came one day after President Ford chose the VFW convention to announce a review of policy toward the estimated 50,000 Americans living abroad because of draft resistance or desertion.

The VFW resolution urged that deserters and draft evaders be made to face the judicial process. It read in part:

"We sustain total opposition to general and selective amnesty for draft dodgers and military deserters. And they should be required to stand trial for their crimes and shall pay such penalties as the laws prescribe."

The resolution declared the VFW will continue to pursue its non-amnesty doctrine without amendment.

Ann Mary Anderson, audiologist for the Center, said the trailer will be used for the screening of school children and employees of industry where noise may cause damage to hearing.

The trailer has already been used to screen employees of Cosdens. The trailer was taken to the plant and employees were tested for hearing disorders. Mrs. Anderson stated that the results of the tests will be kept and follow up testing will taken to check for further hearing loss.

Davis, quoting the Cosden management said, "Cosden is very pleased to have been instrumental in providing the trailer to Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center as a service to the entire community."

Rehab Center Given Trailer For Testing

Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center has received a trailer for the testing and diagnosis of hearing disorders. Jack H. Davis, director for the Center, pointed out that the new acquisition was made possible through Cosden Oil and Chemical Company.

The 38 foot, self-contained trailer is equipped with the necessary measuring devices to be taken to locations away from the center and used to help the local community as well as surrounding areas.

Ann Mary Anderson, audiologist for the Center, said the trailer will be used for the screening of school children and employees of industry where noise may cause damage to hearing.

'Walking Tall' Hero Killed

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Buford H. Pusser, 36, the former sheriff of McNairy County whose brushes with violence and death were made into the motion picture "Walking Tall," was killed early today in an automobile accident, authorities said.

Highway Patrol Trooper Paul Ervin said Pusser was killed when his 1974 Corvette ran off U.S. Highway 64 near his home town of Adamsville, Tenn., and struck an embankment. Ervin said Pusser was thrown from the vehicle and apparently was killed instantly.

FOUL PLAY? The Tennessee Highway Patrol said there was no evidence of foul play.

The accident occurred hours after Pusser had told a news conference in Memphis that he would play himself in a sequel to "Walking Tall." Filming for the sequel, which was to have been called "Buford," had been scheduled to start Sept. 20 near Jackson, Tenn.

Because of his attempts to clean up McNairy County, the 6-foot-6, 250-pound Pusser was the target of killers seven times during his six-year tenure as sheriff, which ended four years ago. He was wounded several times and his wife was killed in an ambush assassination attempt on his life.

Ervin said Pusser had attended a fair at Selmer, Tenn., and was returning home at the time of the accident at 12:55 a.m.

He said Pusser's daughter, one of his three children, was following Pusser in a second car filled with young people and witnessed the accident.

Barron Office In Courthouse

The recent closing of the local draft board office has caused some confusion among 18-year-old men as to where they should register.

All young men are still required by federal law to register with selective service within 30 days before or after their 18th birthday.

They may register in Howard County with Mrs. Billie S. Barron at the county judge's office in the court house or with Sgt. Douglas Hedges, National Guard Armory.

ACC To Offer 4 Courses

COAHOMA — Abilene Christian College's Department of education will offer four graduate level courses in Coahoma and Haskell this fall to meet the needs of public school teachers, administrators and supervisors in this area.

Two teams of two professors will provide the graduate level classes which are acceptable on a master's degree or on a certification program.

The courses will count on programs for public school principals, superintendents, supervisors, elementary and secondary teachers, educational diagnosticians, reading specialists and school counselors.

Classes begin on September 2 in Coahoma and will meet subsequently on each Monday night from 6 to 9 p.m. The course will be for three semester hours of graduate credit.

Dr. Milton Findley, ACC associate professor of education, will offer

A Different Style

When John F. Kennedy moved his family into the White House, the atmosphere around 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue took on a livelier mood than had been evident during the Truman and Eisenhower administrations.

Then came the family of Lyndon B. Johnson with its special Texas flavor, warming the hearts of many although some of Washington's social elite thought it uncouth. Followed by the Nixon family, again the White House took on a remote sense of regality.

With the family of President Gerald Ford taking up residence in the White House, the nation better be prepared for another change in the mood of the first family's home. And if indications prove anywhere correct, it will be a good one.

The family of President Ford is probably one of the most refreshing things that has happened to America in quite a while. The new First Lady and her children appear to have been relatively unscathed by Ford's "ing life in elected office. Homespun, friendly, independent and outspoken, the family generates a feeling of freshness and warmth.

In a television interview, the President's teen-age daughter Susan gave Americans somewhat of a forecast of happenings around the White House. Asked if she was going to give up wearing blue jeans in public, she said she wasn't. She also said she hoped her boyfriends weren't too scared to come courting at the White House.

Obviously the Ford family is a close-knit unit; loyal to their father but allowed to express independent thoughts. That's nice.

And it's refreshing, too, that the head of the house, on the very day he became president of the greatest nation in the world, thought it was only routine to get up and fix breakfast himself.

You Can Help

Police have been besieged by numerous reports of vandalism, but the real statistic is those people whose property has been vandalized. Counting what happened to one school building, the damage runs into the thousands of dollars. Moreover, in several instances, it was by the sheer good fortune that injuries to people from rocks hurled through residential windows has been missed by inches.

This sort of thing is senseless as it is cowardly, and it must be stopped. You can help by reporting to police any suspicious cars or characters in your neighborhood at night, particularly late at night or any other information. Jot down a car number; get whatever description you can of cars or strangers at odd hours. You may not think it important, but it just may be the thread that will unravel the mystery. You'll be performing a great public service.

The Same Sun

Around The Rim

Joe Pickle

Energy, available now for ready utilization, is less than the demand for it. The crisis appears most to be in the field of hydrocarbons — oil and gas — notwithstanding seeming plenty at the pumps at the moment.

PONDEROUS USERS of energy, such as power generators, are therefore turning to other sources, such as coal and lignite, and to atomic fuels. All of these are more costly, and each has some drawbacks from the point of danger to people or atmosphere and environment. But the demand is there, and the percentage of our energy from these sources will increase sharply. Part of the reason will be because of research.

FOR INSTANCE, atomic plants now use the fission process, drawing on the energy released when atoms are split apart. This requires the expensive processing of ores to come up with uranium 235, plutonium, etc. Research, however, is being pressed — to a great extent by private utility companies — toward using heavy water as a source for a fusion process which generates vastly more energy when atoms are forced together. This would, in time, be more economical, cleaner and would offer an almost inexhaustible source of supply. Some genius may someday find away to convert atomic power directly into electric power without intermediate steps.

SOME GENIUS also may someday come up with an economic way to efficiently harness the most plentiful of all energy sources — the sun.

Solar heat is nothing new, but it has somehow taken on the onus of a curiosity of a plaything for crackpots. Yet, it seems to me that there is a tremendous amount of logic for stepping up serious research in this direction. The government, it is true, has appropriated $9 million for solar energy research. At the same time, it has earmarked $2 billion for atomic power research.

IN MANY areas of the country, solar heat units are in use and have been for a generation or two. Most of them are homemade, but still work. Alden Elstrom, writing from North Fort Myers, Fla., tells how he developed a solar system for heating, air conditioning, and domestic hot water — all at a cost of about $2,000. Mass produced, such a system might be brought down within the range of heavy home appliances, he says.

Perhaps these would not be the total answer for home energy needs, but in this area they might well relieve our degree of dependence on conventional sources such as oil and gas, which certainly will be needed urgently in other areas.

IT SEEMS to me that it makes sense, as Mr. Elstrom puts it, "to take advantage of the fact that very sun that is making the need for air conditioning is the same one supplying the power to cool our homes." Even as a supplement to conventional electric power, this offers tremendous potential not only in energy conservation, but also in saving homeowners money. But it's going to take serious research to do it, and private power makers are to occupied with more practical matters of the moment to tackle it.

'What's New, Chum?'

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Snidely Foon, the noted television critic, returned tanned and fit the other day from Camp Rerun, a summer study facility set aside for TV critics by the three networks.

He was sighted staggering down the boulevard under a load of network press kits for the 1974-75 season. The CBS kit, the largest of the lot, tilted him far to starboard. It weighed four pounds. "What's new, chum?" he gasped as he set the kits down.

"HAVEN'T you heard? NBC is allowing prereviewing this season."

"Godfrey Daniel," breathed Snidely. "What is that?"

"Prereviewing means you get to review the shows in print before they're on the air. ABC and CBS have allowed it for years."

"Why not NBC?"

"They wanted to surprise the audience. TV critics have been fighting NBC about this for years. They say it violates the constitutional system of checks and balance."

"Besides, everyone knows a program's no good unless a critic says it is."

"So WHY'D NBC give in?" asked Snidely.

"Some Chicago critics wrote nasty stuff about the old policy and a reader sent NBC an angry post card. Under this kind of pressure, NBC couldn't really do anything else but give in."

"We have that kind of power, hey?" said Snidely, a wicked glint in his eye. "Think I'll rap 'The Waltons' this year. Always wanted to do that."

"But that's a CBS show."

"The network is unimportant. The show is what counts. I learned that at Camp Rerun."

AND SNIDELY added: "All the critics at the camp had to learn how to spell 'profoundly moving.' And that wasn't all."

"On the last day, a feller from New York came up and showed us what to do when we couldn't figure out, say, an original drama with three dams and a nude scene in it."

"What'd he tell you?"

"He said you always write, 'With this production, television comes of age.'"

With that, Snidely Foon picked up his network press kits and lurched off to NBC to put the knock on "The Waltons."

What Others Say

Given that nearly eight million children are involved, the $7.2 million allocated by the U.S. in fiscal 1974 to improve life for the children of South Vietnam is peanuts. But it is almost $6 million more than last year and is an overdue, if parsimonious, recognition of this country's responsibility to innocent war victims.

U.S. voluntary agencies working in that country estimate that about 800,000 South Vietnamese children lost one or both parents in the war; another 15,000 to 25,000 were fattered by American servicemen, now departed. Children of black fathers suffer doubly, from poverty and social ostracism.

Money to help needy Vietnamese children was previously channeled from the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID) through the South Vietnamese government. Private agencies charged that a pitifully small amount trickled down through official hands to the children. Now AID promises to work with private voluntary agencies instead.

MILWAUKEE JOURNAL

Burns Is Back

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — Dr. Arthur Burns, relied on for economic advice by President Ford during his first week in office, in three confidential Oval Office chats, has painted a bleakly realistic picture not faintly resembling the soothing fantasies of administration pollyannas.

BURNS, INDEPENDENT of the administration as chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, has minced no words with the new President. He warned that this country is moving toward financial collapse. Mr. Ford can prevent calamity, he said, but may have no more than 60 days in which to act.

Such blunt talk breaks what one administration policymaker derisively calls "the good news syndrome" — high government officials disguising a worsening economic malaise with deceptively rosy statements to both the public and the President. Even with Richard M. Nixon gone, the syndrome persists with budget director Roy Ash and, to a lesser extent, Treasury Secretary William Simon talking about sunlight around the corner, some five or six months ahead.

WITH HIS Cassandra prophecies unwelcome to a Watergate-obsessed President, Burns got nowhere near the Oval Office during Nixon's last year. It is, then, highly significant and reassuring that Mr. Ford has given so much time in these crowded transition days to Burns' bad news. "The most positive thing to come out of Washington during the first week was the relationship between Ford and Burns," one astute Wall Street observer told us.

BURNS HAS long preached reduced federal spending and fervently supports Mr. Ford's promise of a balanced budget as the essential anti-inflationary weapon. But he privately conceded last week the difficulty in achieving the immediate $10 billion cut he has proposed. Thus, Burns realizes that budget-cutting is not enough and is pushing new economic proposals — many of them contradicting dogmatic administration officials.

PROPOSALS BURNS would like Mr. Ford to embrace include business tax incentives to increase industrial capacity, fighting inflation by increasing supply and satisfying demand. Those economic analysts who view Burns as an economic stand-patter with a bias against capital investment are simply unfamiliar with his current thinking.

Beyond budget-cutting and tax incentives, Burns inclines toward schemes sure to be opposed by free enterprise stalwarts inside the administration. One is government rationing of credit. Another is a revived Cost of Living Council with the power to subpoena evidence and actually defer price and wage increases.

THE BURNS package, in sum, is a sharp departure from what had been the Nixon administration's intention to practice the "old-time religion" — keeping hands off the economy and cutting the budget — while playing pollyanna. Moreover, besides drawing fire from the free enterprise dogmatists, it will be attacked by liberals and organized labor because of tax advantages for corporate business.

Indeed, Mr. Ford would have no chance to sell such tax incentives to the heavily Democratic Congress were it not for expected help from a figure who was the hairshirt for the previous two Presidents: Rep. Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. Mills still is the most formidable ally or antagonist a President could have in Congress. Mr. Ford and Mills get along well.

"It may be a Jerry-built rig, but it moves, by golly... it moves..."

Can't Afford It

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — According to a popular saying, many of us could not afford to buy the house in which we now live, because its market value has risen so much faster than our paychecks.

In January 1972 the average price of a standard single-family house was $24,700, according to the Department of Commerce. In March of this year the same category of housing had a price tag of $35,800.

The more than 40 per cent increase in housing compares with roughly a 10 or 11 per cent increase in median family income during the same period, thus making it much more difficult for prospective homebuyers.

A similar situation is developing in regard to automobiles.

In 1955 the average retail selling price of all new cars was $2,830, and median family income was $4,421.

From that high mark, the percentage of income needed to buy a car fell fairly steadily, reaching a low of 32.6 per cent in 1973, when the average car price was $3,931 and median income was $12,051. That meant a new car cost 64 per cent of a year's income.

Now, however, the swiftly accelerating prices of cars seems to be forcing a reversal of the trend, according to Goldman, Sachs & Co., the securities house.

It estimates that the percentage will reach 33.7 for 1973, with median family income around $13,000 and new car prices averaging $4,380. In 1975 it foresees a percentage of 34, based on income of $13,900 and an average car price of $4,370.

Timely Message

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I wish you would write about the benefits of sleep for young children, not only for my daughter but for other young competitive mothers in her neighborhood.

My daughters' children, both girls, to my thinking never get enough sleep. When they were babies they were wakened and kept up all hours of the night to be shown off to guests.

At 18 months to two years they were never put down for naps and were kept awake not only all day but until 9 or 10 o'clock at night with stimulating play, shopping trips, etc.

Now they are at kindergarten age, beautiful, talented children but also extremely nervous and high-strung. They still get no daytime naps but go from kindergarten to dancing class to birthday parties to rehearsals, etc.

They have poor appetites (except for candy, cookies, ice cream) and generally meals end up with crying tantrums and spankings and "go to your room until you can behave." Many times I have gone to their room to check and found them sound asleep on the floor.

Then shortly their mother will wake them to practice dancing or tumbling or entertain guests or whatever. The slightest work, or sometimes nothing at all, seems to bring on a flood of tears. Am I wrong about their needing more sleep? —Mrs. K.H.

There's nothing I could write that would say it half as well as you have.

Of course parents want their children to excel—but perhaps your letter will help some of them to see themselves as others see them. I predict—well, hope, at least—that some tired children will have reason to bless you for your letter.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: In 1968 I had hepatitis which caused enlarged liver. The point is I need a birth control method and would like to know if I could take "the pill." In '68 the doctor told me never to take the pill but I've had several doctors tell me I could take it now, six years later.—Y.

The hormones in the pill are changed chemically by the liver, and if liver function is impaired, the pill should not be used.

But with good care your liver should have returned to normal after six years. I would say it would be a wise precaution for you to have a few liver function tests taken, and if they are normal you could resume the pill.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am a new reader and haven't seen my problem in your column. What are the pros and cons of a young man having circumcision performed? My husband's mother did not have this done when he was born. I insist it should be done for sanitary purposes, but he says there is no need because he says he keeps himself immaculately clean. Please give the facts.—R.A.

There should be some definite reason for doing it—not "just because." Difficulty in keeping it clean or irritation are the principal causes. Best way to settle your argument, it seems to me, would be for your husband to agree to see a doctor (urologist) and both of you agree to abide by his decision.

My Answer

Billy Graham

Six months ago, I never would have written to you. Now, I know what it is to believe in God. I've seen His work in action. The trouble is I don't seem sorry enough to make a commitment myself. I try to pray—but not hard enough—just not enough. Please help me.

You've probably heard the Bible story about the rich young ruler. He was a very religious person, and he knew all the steps to meeting and knowing God. Luke 18 reveals that even though he seemed morally earnest, there was a problem that blocked his real commitment to Christ. It was greed. Jesus then by reference to the law exposed his goodness as superficial and inadequate. Unfortunately, he was not fully ready to make a commitment — and went away sorrowful.

You say you now understand how to become a Christian, but something blocks the consummation of faith. May I suggest it lies in your will power. That's where the belief on Christ is confirmed. God's spirit initiates our salvation, but it is an act of our will that completes it.

Remember also that Jesus said unless you become like a child you can't be converted. How hard does a child try to win an ice cream cone? Why there's no "trying" at all — the desire is blurted out and action follows. If you want to make Christ your Savior and Lord, tell Him so. Then proceed by prayer and daily Bible reading to cultivate the new life. Don't trust your emotions at all to either confirm or deny faith.

A Devotion For Today . .

"Truly, I say unto you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 18:3)

PRAYER: O Father of all, guide us out of our jails of place and circumstances into the freedom and harmony of Your kingdom. In Christ's name. Amen.

Will 'Forgetting' Pill Be Good or Bad?

By Abigail Van Buren
DEAR ABBY: John and I have been married for 14 months. He had a 3-year-old son by a previous marriage. We had no trouble getting custody of the boy because his mother didn't want him. (She hasn't come to see him once.)

I am 29 and John is 35, and I want to have a child of our own. John's son, whom I honestly couldn't love more if I had given birth to him, would dearly love a little brother or sister, and I desperately want one, but John says no. His excuses are lame. ("The world is in such a sorry state, we shouldn't increase the population now. We have one healthy, normal child now, why press our luck?")

I am on the pill, and could conveniently "forget" to take it a few mornings, but I hate to be dishonest. If I were to get pregnant, he couldn't force me to have an abortion, and I'm sure that after the child was born he would grow to love it like he loves his son.

Please help me sort out my feelings, Abby.

TORN IN CHICAGO
DEAR ABBY: About your scheme to "conveniently forget" the pill: Forget it. (The scheme, not the pill.) Ideally, you and John should get some counseling together. Most clergymen are well equipped; also Chicago has many expert marriage counselors. If John refuses to go, you can't force him, but do go alone. You need some sound, objective counseling to help you resolve this knotty problem.

DEAR ABBY: A writer was unhappy about her flat chest and asked you whether breast implants were considered deceitful and therefore sinful in the eyes of the Lord.

I suggested that she ask her clergyman for a ruling. I disagree. Every clergyman cannot keep abreast of new developments in plastic surgery; some clergymen are big bust as advisers on these points.

The writer should look behind her breast — where her heart is — for the answer. Whom is she trying to deceive or please?

"Capping" one's teeth for cosmetic reasons has been an accepted practice for years. Are teeth more important to beauty than breasts?

Rites Held In Killeen

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Stephen Dew are on a trip to the Texas Coast following their wedding Saturday at Ft. Hood.

The bride is the former Teresa Renee Tomlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Tomlin, Killeen, and granddaughter of Mrs. Leola Davidson, Rt. 2, Big Spring. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Dew, Killeen.

The newlyweds will reside in Ruston, La. where they will attend Louisiana Tech. The bridegroom, a sophomore, is a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and the Air Force ROTC. The bride will be a freshman student.

The officiating minister was the Rev. Donald Robinson of Lake Belton Baptist Church, and music was by Robert Rose, organist, and Miss Elizabeth Aston, soloist.

The bride was attired in an empire gown of white chiffon over bridal taffeta with bodice overlaid with rose patterned lace. Matching lace trimmed the entire gown which featured a scooped neckline with sheer fabric extending to a ring collar. The skirt formed a chapel-length train. Her 'satin and rhinestone' headpiece held her lace edged veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations and gypsophila.

Miss Patsy Chafin was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Judy Walker, El Paso; Miss Shawnette Tomlin, sister of the bride; and Miss Sherry Ogle.

Paul Fellows served as best man, and groomsmen were Terry Robinson, Rey Santiago and Steve Tomlin, brother of the bride. Ushers were Wade Walker, El Paso, Eddie Safady, Randy Safady and Freno Worley. Brad Wadsworth, Big Spring, and Johnny Brewer were ring bearers, and the flower girls were Toni Wadsworth, Big Spring, and Kelly Brockman.

Completing the bridal party were the candlelighters, John Walker, El Paso; Rodney Davidson and Kevin Davidson, both of Big Spring; and Stuart Tomlin, brother of the bride.

The reception was held in the Red Room of the Hideaway Supper Club, and the rehearsal dinner was held at Bonanza Restaurant. Local residents attending the wedding, other than those mentioned, were Mrs. Joyce Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davidson, Grant Davidson and Mrs. Jen Lou Davidson.

Earns Degree At California State

WESTBROOK — Mrs. C. L. (Sue) Sengstock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell, recently graduated from California State University at Long Beach with a B.A. in home economics. Also, she attended North Texas State University in Denton and was a member of the home economics honorary fraternities at both universities. Mr. and Mrs. Sengstock have returned home after a weeks visit with her parents.

With her in Galveston were her children and their spouses, the Curtis Clemmers, Colorado City; the Donald Andersons and the Dale Andersons, all of Fort Worth; and Phil Anderson, Plainview.

Mrs. A. C. Moody has been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. N. L. Fuson, and family, Big Lake.

Discharged Vets Advised On Jobs

"Apply for a job immediately at your local state employment service office," the Veterans Administration advises veterans recently separated from military service.

Jack Coker, VA Regional office Director, noted the Department of Labor has primary responsibility for jobs, and gives priority to veterans. State employment service offices refer veterans to available jobs, or allow them to apply for unemployment compensation, Coker said.

Unemployment compensation, designed to assist the unemployed for a limited period during job-seeking time, varies from state to state. Most benefits are in the $49 to $139 weekly range, and run from a few to a maximum of about 39 weeks. A few states pay additional allowances to veterans with dependents.

Angelo State Signup Dates

Registration and the start of classes for the fall semester at Angelo State University in San Angelo are right around the corner with classes scheduled to get under way Tuesday, Sept. 3, following the long Labor Day weekend.

The registration for the new term begins Wednesday, Aug. 28, and will continue through Friday, Aug. 30. On Thursday, Aug. 29, upperclassmen and graduate students will sign up for their classes.

Representing Howard County in the Talent-Find will be Sally Echols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Echols of Coalhoma. A coke party and rehearsal for the contestants will be held at the coliseum at 3 p.m.

Finds Trouble In Big Doses

MARFA - Robert Trevino of Levelland, pleaded guilty Aug. 15 in the United States Magistrate's Court in Pecos before Judge J. M. Preston to two counts of conspiring to aid and abet aliens to illegally enter the United States. Trevino was fined $400 on the first count, and was sentenced to six months imprisonment suspended for one year on the second count.

During the first part of June, 1974, Trevino received a telephone call from a Mexican citizen in Ojinaga, Chihuahua, Mexico, requesting Trevino's help for himself and four other citizens of Mexico to illegally enter the United States. Trevino had met the caller in Florida in 1973, had given him his telephone number and offered his assistance when needed.

Trevino explained to the caller he would be unable to go himself, but would arrange for someone to meet them in Ojinaga; Trevino then imposed on Lupe De Los Santos of Levelland, a man who rented one of Trevino's houses and who was several months behind in his rent payments, to go to Ojinaga to contact the group of aliens, and make arrangements with them to be transported to Levelland.

De Los Santos did as Trevino instructed, authorities said, and was en route back to Levelland with the aliens when he was stopped by a Ft. Stockton, Texas, Police Officer during the early morning hours of June 13. The city officer, recognizing what he believed to be an alien smuggling case in progress, arrested De Los Santos and the aliens and contacted the Ft. Stockton Border Patrol Agents.

De Los Santos appeared for sentencing before Judge Preston on August 14, 1974, also, and was sentenced to six months imprisonment suspended for one year.
