Police, Troops Ring Guadalajara

Mexico Kidnaping

GUADALAJARA, Mexico (AP) — Police and troops searched through Guadalajara and Jalisco state today for the 83-year-old father-in-law of Mexico's president and the guerrillas who kidnaped him.

It put President Luis Echeverria in a tough spot since he has repeatedly said in the past year that the government would not negotiate with kidnapers. The guerrillas have killed several persons when their ransom demands were not met.

The police and the army set up roadblocks at major junctions and on the highways leading out of Guadalajara after Zuno was seized at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at one of the city's busiest intersections, a few blocks from the Jalisco state government headquarters.

Witnesses said four men armed with pistols and submachine guns pulled the old man and his chauffeur from their car, beat the chauffeur to the ground, bundled Zuno into another car and sped away, spraying the area with tear gas.

There was no comment from Echeverria. His wife flew to Guadalajara to be with her family as soon as word of the kidnaping reached Mexico City.

FORD'S ANTI-INFLATION ACTION Tax Increase In 1975?

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford is holding open the possibility of asking Congress for an anti-inflation tax increase in 1975 but won't seek higher taxes this year, Press Secretary J. F. TerHorst said today.

He added that "it would be very unrealistic" to expect Congress to act on tax legislation in these waning weeks of its election year session.

Noting Ford will outline his 1975 agenda in a January State of the Union Address to Congress, TerHorst said "it would be a little premature" to speculate on tax action now.

Asked if he could not rule out a request for higher taxes on philosophical grounds, TerHorst said there come times when higher taxes are needed regardless of philosophical feelings and "it's just a practical governmental matter."

Ford: Watch Every Penny

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford has signaled his readiness to accept congressional cuts in the defense budget while his administration seeks to prune spending by other agencies in the effort to curb inflation.

He also said he will make the final decision, and does not rule out the possibility of an eventual presidential pardon should Nixon be prosecuted. "It is an option and a proper option for any president," he said.

ORE BY HAND — Ray Kelly uses an old hand winch to pull up ore from his gold mine

LONG DAY AHEAD — Ray Kelly prepares for a long day as he sits inside his log cabin that he shares with his two cats, Cherry and Gary.

Last Of A Dying Breed

HOLY CROSS MOUNTAINS, Colo. (AP) — "It's a nice place to be if the bombs are dropped, Sonny."

That's what 74-year-old Ray Kelly thinks of his solitary log cabin in the Holy Cross Mountains southwest of Denver.

This rugged mountain man is well qualified to survive any crisis confronting him. Kelly is a self-supporting goldminer and one of the last of a nearly extinct breed who live off the land.

With $100 yearly income from his mining activities, a small railroad pension and innate resourcefulness, Kelly weathers 20-below winters. Sharing his frontier adventures are two cats, Cherry and Gary, who are fat enough to serve as doorsteps.

Kelly, clad only in his shorts, often has breakfast at tables outside his cabin. After all, says Kelly: "It's only me and Mother Nature."

Kelly, a veteran railroad man, is busiest during the summer months when he traps animals, cultivates vegetables and chops enough wood to last him through the winter.

Despite his small income Kelly says he would never consider moving from his outpost. He has made his own life and he likes it.

Workshop Upcoming

Librarians from a twenty-nine county area, including Larry Justice of Howard County, will learn how to be better borrowers at a one-day workshop to begin at 10 a.m. Wednesday, October 2, at the George and Helen Mahon Library in Lubbock, which serves as the Major Resource Center for this area.

Procedures for using the Texas State Library Communications Network more effectively will be discussed by Linda Schexnaydre and Kaylyn Robbins of the Texas State Library. Focus of the session will be upon procedures that librarians can use to insure that the users of their libraries get the materials they need from other libraries.

Since the network began operation in 1968, teletype and telephone communication have speeded request among libraries. Cost of operating the network have been paid by federal Library Services and Construction Act funds administered by the Texas State Library. During the present fiscal year telephone and teletype costs have been partially paid by Texas Library Act funds.

During the past year microfiche copies of the Texas Numeric Register have been made available to some 25 public and academic libraries whose materials are listed on the Register. The computer-generated microfiche list the Library of Congress catalog card numbers on more than two million volumes housed in these libraries. Like an individual's Social Security number, a book's Library of Congress Card Number is unique. Like a telephone number, it can be obtained from published lists.

Librarians attending the workshops to be conducted by Ms. Schexnaydre and Ms. Robbins throughout the state will learn how they can develop procedures to make the best possible use of both fast communication and information about what materials Texas libraries contain.

LIKES THE MOUNTAINS — Miner Ray Kelly says he would never consider moving from his mountain home.

Kelly 74, has made his own life and he likes it.

Progress Made In MD Program

Significant progress in the battle against neuromuscular disease is reported in the 1974 Annual Report of Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, released here today by Howard L. Dodd, president of MDAA's Midland-Big Spring Chapter.

In the report, Association president Henry M. Watts, Jr., heralds the completion of the important first phase of the voluntary health organization's new neuromuscular research center program — the establishment of six major university-based research centers.

The report places the Association's fiscal '74 National Office income at a record level of $24,806,541 — a 37 per cent increase over the previous year. A total of 81.1 per cent of the expenditures went to life-saving program services, 14.5 per cent for fund raising and 4.4 per cent for management.

Of total expenditures for the fiscal year $6,613,934 or 26.9 per cent went for research, this represents nearly a 52 per cent increase in funds expended for this purpose over the previous year.

While MDAA is spending more than ever before on research, the Association continues to maintain widening program of patient and community services said Watts. During the year, $13,358,926 or 54.2 per cent of total disbursements went to support the nationwide network of 136 free clinics, provide free orthopedic equipment for patients, summer camps for youngsters and adult strikers by neuromuscular diseases, and professional and public educational programs.

A major portion of the agency's annual income comes from the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon, which will be seen here on Sept. 1 and 2 over KWAB, Channel 4, youngsters and adult strikers by neuromuscular diseases, and professional and public educational programs.

Dope Rap Hits Kin Of Mayor

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The 29-year-old daughter of Mayor Tom Bradley has been ordered to stand trial on charges she tried to sell cocaine and possessed marijuana and amphetamines.

Phyllis Bradley was ordered to be arraigned Sept. 10 in Superior Court after a three-hour preliminary hearing on Tuesday before Municipal Court Judge Antonio Chavez. She was allowed to remain free on $1,000 bond.

Investigators testified at Tuesday's hearing that they found enough marijuana for 250 cigarettes when they searched Miss Bradley's suburban Baldwin Hills apartment.

Martin Gins First Bale

STANTON — The Stanton Farmer's Co-op ginned the first bale of cotton of the season for Martin County Friday.

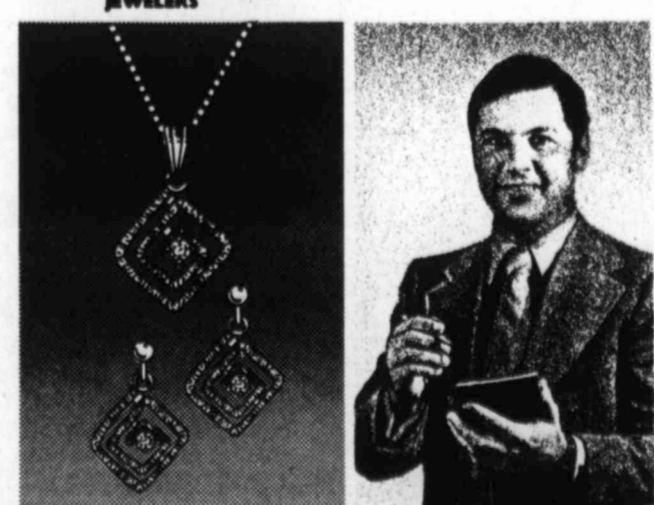

Martin County farmer Slim Hernandez, Jr., grew the cotton which took 1900 pounds of seed cotton to make the 418 pound bale.

The cotton was grown south of Stanton. The Stanton Chamber of Commerce awarded Hernandez with a premium check for growing the first bale of cotton for the 1974 season.

LPA Plan Conclave

District 8 of Little People of America will be holding a Convention in Abilene, August 31 through September 2 at the Ramada Inn. Approximately 80 members from the states of Texas and Louisiana are expected to attend.

Little People of America is a national organization of people who, for a variety of medical reasons, are classified in the area of dwarfism. There are over 2300 members nationally and around 120 in District 8, which comprises Texas and Louisiana. The Organization was founded in 1957 by Hollywood entertainer Billy Barty. The motto of LPA is "Think Big".

Members attending the Convention will visit Nelson Park and the renowned Abilene Zoo as well as historic Old Abilene Town. The highlight of the Convention will be a banquet Sunday evening, followed by a Fashion Show.

The main goal of LPA is to help Little People adjust to their short stature and give both Little People and Big People a better understanding of each other. Parents of dwarf children are encouraged to attend and meet other parents who have had similar experiences. People who attend this Convention will have the opportunity to meet Little People who despite their short stature, have become successful engineers, teachers, salesmen, secretaries, accountants and nurses to name just a few of the diversified occupations held by LPA members. For information about LPA, write Ronald Rockwood, 1010 Hilltop Dr., Apt. E 1, Grapevine, Texas 76051, or call Sandy Morris locally at 267-5095.

Wins Hearts Of The Crowd

PINE MOUNTAIN, Ga. (AP) — Irene Horton's hopes of winning a national water ski trophy ended with a splash as she dumped near the first buoy at Callaway Gardens.

She captured no prize on Thursday but she won the hearts of the crowd. Mrs. Horton is 71.

The Arcadia, Calif., grandmother has had her share of spills, but she philosophized, "It's better to take a few bumps than to stay at home out of trouble." It hasn't been all bumps. She won three third-place trophies this year in Denver and took a second-place cup in Kansas City for her slalom skills. She placed third in the Western Regionals in Seattle in July and picked up a master's rating at Newberry Springs, Calif., this summer.

The trim, gray-haired woman, who first put on skis 16 years ago, brought the whole family to Callaway Gardens for the 32nd National Water Ski Championships.

Tournament officials kidded her by saying the competition would be over in half the time if there weren't so many Hortons in it. Six of the Hortons are competing.

department in connection with the Aug. 14 raid on the apartment of Kenneth Miller.

Miller, a newspaper carriersalesman had claimed he was severely beaten during a raid of which Hyatt was in charge.

The four Fort Worth policemen, two others assigned to the Drug Administration and two federal Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms agency officers searched the apartment but found nothing illegal.

Miller said he and his roommate woke up with guns in their faces. "I was facing the wall and they kept kicking my feet apart. So wide apart I'd fall down. Then they'd kick me to get me back up," he said.

Miller said Armand grabbed his hair and kept hitting his head against the wall.

Doctor's removed Miller's spleen during surgery following the raid.

Police records show that neither Miller nor his roommate have prior conviction records. An informant had said Miller and his roommate were selling "large quantities of marijuana," according to the search warrant issued by Peace Justice W. W. Mathews.

Fire 'Cover-Up' Charge At Huntsville Officials

HOUSTON (AP) — A pathologist who performed an autopsy on two Texas convicts killed in an escape attempt has ruled they died from officers' gunshot wounds. He also expressed an opinion the shootings were justifiable homicide.

SHOT IN HEAD

Meanwhile, a Texas newspaper has editorially accused state prison officials at Huntsville of a "cover-up" in the incident. It said the affair was following the pattern of Watergate.

Dr. G. Shelton Green, a Harris County (Houston) assistant medical examiner, said Wednesday Fred Gomez Carrasco and Rodolfo Dominguez, who with two hostages died in an abortive escape attempt Aug. 3, were shot at close range.

He said Carrasco was shot once in the head and Dominguez twice in the head and once in the neck "by security forces."

However, Justice of the Peace J. W. Beeler of Huntsville, who originally said Carrasco and Dominguez committed suicide, said the autopsy report doesn't change his mind.

"I never said directly that they shot themselves," Beeler said. "I said suicide and by just coming out of that building would be suicide."

to an armored car they had demanded they were confronted by officers who used fire hoses to overturn a wooden shield within which Carrasco and his partners held four of the hostages. Officers said Carrasco and Dominguez shot hostages Elizabeth Beseda and Julia Standley and then shot themselves. Another hostage, The Rev. Joseph O'Brien was wounded.

FOUR TIMES

Authorities said the hostages were shot at very close range. Mrs. Standley was shot four times and Mrs. Beseda once.

Although Green's official written report listed the two convicts' deaths as justifiable homicide, this is only an opinion since only a court of law could issue such a ruling. Two inmates who said they were in the prison hospital, which formed one side of the courtyard where the shootings occurred, have charged officers killed the two men by kicking off their bulletproof helmets and executing them.

O'Brien, a Roman Catholic prison chaplain, has denied the two inmates were killed execution style.

Father O'Brien said Dominguez was shot by an officer 20 feet away after O'Brien called out that Dominguez was about to shoot the priest.

The San Antonio News charged in a front page editorial Wednesday "the cover-up by prison officials in the Carrasco prison seizure is a statewide scandal." The News called for an open hearing by "an unbiased board of inquiry."

TAPES POOR

It said W.J. Estelle, director of the Texas Department of Corrections, "and all responsible should have been suspended for assigning Carrasco to a job in the prison chapel that made the whole seizure of hostages possible."

The newspaper further stated "the disclosure of the latest cover-up makes it imperative that Estelle be suspended."

A Walker County grand jury, probing the incident, heard more witnesses and viewed additional videotapes of the shootout. Deputy Dist. Atty. Don Kraemer said the additional tapes were of poor quality.

Studying Muscles

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — A scientist astronaut says muscle properly nourished and exercised will function just as well in the weightlessness of space as on earth.

"The muscle system will be protected and we can make flights of any duration," Dr. William Thornton told a group of fellow scientists Wednesday.

He delivered four papers at a Skylab Life Symposium in the Johnson Space Center. The symposium was attended by about 450 scientists.

Thornton came to his conclusions after studying experiments run on the nine astronauts who flew the three Skylab missions for more than 171 days.

He said it "seems entirely possible" to design devices which will provide the proper exercise for bone and muscle during very long space missions.

"Bone, like muscle, when properly stressed and nourished, will in all probability retain its strength," said He said dietary standards must be revised to meet the metabolic requirements.

Officials Confident UW Drive To Succeed

The countdown has begun for the start of the 1974-75 Howard County United Way campaign.

UW president J. D. Nelson and chairman W. S. (Dub) Pearson met with divisional leaders for another Dutch treat luncheon at the Holiday Inn Wednesday, ironing out last details for a Sept. 6 "kickoff breakfast" at the Settles Hotel, which actually will get the drive under way. On that date, the drive principals gather at 7:15 p.m.

At that time, captains of the division leaders will meet for a final rally, get campaign literature and formally begin the surge. Objective of this year's drive is $121,777. A total of $119,573.18 was pledged in last year's campaign, which exceeded the objective by $2,433.

Pearson expressed every confidence that this year's drive would go "over the top," adding he was sure that this year's campaign could be ended no later than Nov. 1.

Division chairmen present for Wednesday's meeting, and the divisions which they head, included: Jeanette Snodgrass, Women; A. J. Stutzer, Metropolitan; Clayton Hicks, Special Gifts; Maj. John Grathwol, CFC; M. A. Snell, Area, and Tommy Hart, Publicity.

Indications were more than 60 division chiefs and team captains will attend the kickoff breakfast. Hicks issued a challenge to Stutzer that his division would realize success in its part of the campaign before the group led by Stutzer goes "over the top." The challenge was accepted.

Hicks heads the Special Gifts division, which is seeking $3,026. Stutzer is leader of the Metropolitan division, objective of which is $1,489.

Snell said no more than 35 to 40 ranchers and farmers in Howard County were personally contacted to take part in last year's UW drive. This year, he added, he would mail out 307 letters to rural families, asking them to help insure the success of the campaign.

Upwards to 40 women have been invited by Mrs. Snodgrass to attend a kickoff coffee at her home at 2704 Crestline at 10:30 a.m., Friday, Sept. 6. Team captains which will serve with Snodgrass on the Women's committee will be Mrs. Harold (Janell) Davis, Mrs. Tommy (Virginia) Ross, Mrs. Carol (Delores) Cannon and Mrs. J. D. (Pauline) Nelson.

The women participating in the drive hope to raise $3,718 toward the ultimate objective.

Many of those participating in the drive will do so through payroll deductions, which Pearson reminded the committee chieftains was a painless way to underwrite the success of the drive.

The CFC campaign at Webb and other agencies where federal employees are involved will get an early start, formally beginning Sept. 3.

Russians Abort Soyuz-15 Flight

MOSCOW (AP) — The two Soyuz 15 cosmonauts are back on earth, and Tass said today they are in good health after completing their mission. However, some observers believed something went wrong because the flight lasted only two days. The Soviet news agency reported that Salyut 3, the space laboratory that Soyuz 15 approached but did not link up with, is continuing to orbit the earth "according to the preset program." It was sent up on June 25, and two cosmonauts from Soyuz 14 spent two weeks aboard it last month.

NO HINT — Soviet announcements after Soyuz 15 was launched Monday night indicated that cosmonauts Gennady Sarafanov and Lev Demin would dock with Salyut 3 and go aboard the space lab to work as the Soyuz 14 men did. Their return without docking could be an indication of trouble either with the Soyuz ship or with the Salyut, foreign experts said. Tass gave no indication that anything went wrong.

After completing work in space, it said, the Soyuz 15 crew landed at 11:10 p.m. Wednesday — 4:10 p.m. EDT — about 30 miles from Tselinograd in Kazakhstan, Soviet Asia. Tass said Sarafanov, the 32-year-old pilot, and Demin, the 48-year-old engineer, carried out "scientific-technical experiments for developing the processes of maneuvering and rendezvous with Salyut 3 station." It added that techniques for the handling of night landings of spaceships also were developed.

Earlier announcements said the crew made many approaches to the space station but did not indicate whether Sarafanov tried to link up to it.

It was also assumed that the cosmonauts were testing equipment to be used in the joint Soviet-American space flight next July, in which a Soviet Soyuz ship and an American Apollo will join up in space to develop rescue procedures. But James C. Fletcher, administrator of the U. S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration, denied this.

Such a linkup has not been possible previously because the Soviet and American spacecraft did not have compatible docking equipment. Fletcher said the Russians told NASA that neither Soyuz 15 nor its predecessor last month had the docking mechanism to be used on the Apollo-Soyuz flight next year.

However, American astronauts training in the Soviet Union during the Soyuz 14 mission said at the time that they were briefed on the flight, and Soviet spokesmen said then that its main purpose was to test techniques and hardware for the joint effort.

$80,000 Watergate Trial Bail Set Delay Rejected

HOUSTON (AP) — Lee Otis Johnson, 35, a former civil rights worker, was held in lieu of $80,000 bond today after being charged with burglary. Johnson surrendered to police Tuesday night.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chief Justice Warren E. Burger has rejected a bid by former presidential aide John D. Ehrlichman for a delay in the start of the Watergate cover-up trial. Ehrlichman, one of six defendants in the case, had requested the trial be put off until after Jan. 1. He argued he needed more time to prepare his defense and that he could not get a fair trial so soon because of publicity.

DOUBTS

The trial originally was set to start Sept. 9 in U.S. District Court here but was postponed until Sept. 30 by Judge John J. Sirica at the suggestion of the Court of Appeals.

In denying Ehrlichman's request Wednesday, Burger said his decision was "not to be taken as intimating any view whatever on this issue presented by the order of the District Court or the action of the Court of Appeals."

BIG SPRING HERALD Guard Unit's Summer Training Nears End

SECTION B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1974 SECTION B

Mark Peters Is Lone Pledge Of Fraternity

Mark Peters, son of Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Peters, was named the national honor pledge of the Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity at the national convention in Knoxville, Tenn. last week.

Only one pledge in the nation receives this honor per year. There are over 200 chapters in the United States and Canada with each chapter eligible to submit one person as a candidate for selection by the national officers.

Mark attends Angelo State and is a member of the chapter there. The selection is made on a basis of leadership, involvement and personal character.

He is a 1972 graduate of Big Spring High School where he lettered in varsity golf. He attended Western Texas on a golf scholarship in 1972-73 and transferred to Angelo State in January 1974.

His brother, Frank Peters, who graduated from Angelo State this month with a Bachelor of Science degree, was president of the fraternity in San Angelo last year. He is presently employed at Chapparral Con-

Dream Comes True For Rocky

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President-designate Nelson A. Rockefeller, who has been seeking to be elected president for about 15 years, slept in the White House on Wednesday night.

The former New York governor and his wife were invited to stay overnight by President and Mrs. Ford following a party for Cabinet members.

FORT SILL, Okla. — More than 500 Texas Army National Guardsmen received on-the-job training and conducting classroom activities before moving into the field with their 8-inch self-propelled howitzers here.

The 3rd Battalion, 133rd Field Artillery, with headquarters in El Paso and batteries in Odessa, Lamesa, Big Spring and Midland, moved to the range Aug. 22 to begin familiarization with the huge howitzers.

The newly organized 8-inch howitzer battalion, commanded by Lt. Col. Johnnie P. Hooper, is being provided equipment and instructors by Ft. Sill's 2nd Battalion, 18th Field Artillery.

"We became a 8-inch self-propelled battalion in November, 1973, reorganizing from a 105mm towed howitzer unit," said Sgt. I.C. Robert J. Soltis, a full time technician for the battalion.

"Each of our batteries has fired the 8-inch howitzer one time on our range at Ft. Bliss, Tex."

The 133rd moved into the field for live firing during its second week of training.

The guardsmen are occupying positions in areas which include McKenzie Hill, Medicine Creek, Rabbit Hill, and Gruber Hill, where they will hold night marches and fire into the Signal Mountain impact area.

Representatives from the Readiness Region VII, VII, Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., assisted in training and providing advisors. Representatives from Ft. Sill's III Corps Artillery evaluated the guardsmen in their training.

"This is the first time we have been to Ft. Sill," Soltis stated. "We usually go to Ft. Hood or Ft. Bliss but because of the new type equipment we're using we came to Ft. Sill to take advantage of the expertise of the Field Artillery Center."

Cosmonauts To Visit Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — Russian cosmonauts Alexei Leonov and Valeriy Kubasov, prime crewmen for the joint U.S.-Russian space mission July 15, will make their third visit to the Johnson Space Center Sept. 9 for three weeks of training.

Six Russian backup crewmen will also make the journey, their second visit here, a National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said Wednesday.

Plans call for the Russian and American spacecraft to launch separately, attempt to dock in earth orbit, then return to earth separately.

Asks Amnesty

The Lone Eagle

Charles A. Lindbergh, who excited the admiration of America in his time as perhaps no other individual did, is dead.

When the obscure former Army pilot lifted his overloaded Spirit of St. Louis off the runway at New York and at last brought it down in Le Bourget Field in Paris, the nation erupted in joy and pride. Nor was it alone, for admiring Frenchmen thronged the field in anticipation of his arrival, and later packed the streets of Paris.

Back home, he received the Distinguished Flying Cross at the hands of the President and was made a colonel. New York gave him its greatest shower of ticker tape to climax a tumultuous celebration. Everywhere he went, particularly on a good will tour of the nation, multiplied thousands all but mobbed him.

His book, "We," became an instant sensation and was read by every red-blooded boy who thrilled to his battle against time, against a forbidding load of fuel, against weather, against the uncertainty of celestial navigation, against the numbing human frailty of fatigue.

Yet, in the face of all this adulation, he kept his head, his sense of decency, his 24-karat modesty.

Through great personal tragedy for him and his wife with the kidnap death of their first-born son, he maintained a great dignity.

While some took issue at his suggestion that some accommodation ought to be made in view of the rising power of Nazi Germany, none can dispute that his appraisal of the potency of the Luftwaffe was close to the mark. He became the target of sharp and stinging criticism, even at the highest level and stripping of his commission, he rallied at once to his place of service once the battle was joined. Under different circumstances his record of heroic military service would have been everywhere extolled, but it slipped by almost unnoticed. None of this stirred him to bitterness.

The "Lone Eagle" was, indeed, something of a loner in many respects, but mostly this was in his passion for privacy, upon which he insisted and which he maintained at all costs. In time, he may be regarded quite as much a hero for standing firm on the frontiers of his faith as he was for having conquered the forbidding frontiers of aviation.

Difficult Decision

Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski is moving on a prudent course in seeking to establish a course of action where former President Nixon is concerned in the Watergate affair.

There is little sentiment in Congress, as Sen. Edward Brooke, discovered, for a "sense of Congress" resolution to make the former President immune from prosecution. Someone aptly observed that this is proper, for the legislative branch has little business advising the executive and judicial branches on enforcement of the law. And while none is above the law, there is a general reticence to bringing a former President to the dock as witness or defendant. It may be, like a lot of other things connected with the matter, wiser to wait before arriving at a definitive answer. And sometimes commonsense and custom are more practical than a hard and fast statute. None can envy Jaworski in his decisions in the matter.

Pan Am Crisis

William F. Buckley, Jr.

Concerning the imminent bankruptcy of Pan American Airways, a few observations:

1. A DIRECT subsidy, by the government, is, or ought to be, excluded. It is always the easiest thing to do — to bail out an enterprise in economic trouble. It is usually the wrong thing to do. There are exceptions, mostly to do with the national defense. If the only company in the United States engaged in the manufacture of intercontinental missiles is faced with bankruptcy, obviously you bail it out. But the normal way to do this is to pay enough more for the missiles to keep the company afloat.

Pan Am is not entirely unconnected with the national defense. A country the size of ours needs a strong back-up civil air force. And the facilities of Pan Am are extraordinary, perhaps even unique.

2. PAN AM argues that it cannot effectively compete for two reasons primarily. The first of these is that the airlines against which Pan Am does compete are for the most part subsidized by foreign governments. Now — she asks — is it possible, let us say, to compete against Air France, when Air France receives a government subsidy greatly in excess of the subsidy Pan Am receives for carrying the mail?

It is true that foreign air carriers are for the most part permitted to continue to fly passengers at rates that disguise the real cost. However, it is also true that the International Air Transport Association sets uniform rates. So that Air France flying passengers from Paris to New York must charge the same fare as Pan Am charges.

THE SUSPICION is that having knocked off the private airlines, the public airlines would revise their fares upwards, to minimize the drain on the sponsoring governments. If Pan Am and TWA were knocked out of the skies, Air France would have a jolly time getting all American business to Paris from New York. For so long as it costs Air France more money than an American passenger pays out to make the trip, then in effect the French government would be making a gift of the difference to American passengers. But in fact, either the price would eventually go up, or, having knocked out the competition, the seats on Air France's planes would be so full that the line would become profitable.

3. PAN AM'S second complaint is against the institution of cabotage. She is not permitted to pick up a passenger inside the United States except to land that passenger in another country. She has, in a word, no feeder airline. Clearly, before asking the United States government for ten million dollars per month, Pan Am should be permitted either to merge with a U.S. feeder line (the first step), or to merge with our other principal world airline, TWA. There can be no plausible excuse for standing in the way of such a merger under these circumstances.

We are reminded, once again, of the awful distortions caused by the increase in the price of oil. Pan American has been losing money for about seven years. But things were beginning to look up when we were zapped by the oil cartel. In the 12-month period after the quadrupling of the price of oil, Pan Am would need to spend an extra 200 million dollars for its fuel.

THAT SUM, almost double the amount of the requested subsidy, reminds us of the great distortions that continue to be caused by the oligopolistic advantages of the oil exporting countries. And reminds us that we really have not developed a national strategy to protect ourselves against the ravages of that economic act of aggression. It is all very well to smile our way about the Middle East with the leaders of these governments. But meanwhile they are impoverishing the world, and bringing insecurity to great industrial institutions — like Pan Am.

We are talking here not economics, but politics. Oil is selling not at the price that would result from a free market bargaining situation; but at a price controlled by politicians. It is simply overdue for the United States Government to devise a formula for self-protection.

Pupils Draft State Laws

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Twenty University of Nebraska students are not only earning while they learn, but are getting their feet wet in government affairs. The 20 are participating in a state government internship program that pays them $600 and three credit hours for a semester on such jobs as helping draft proposed legislation and collecting data for reports.

My Answer

Billy Graham

In your column, you often suggest counseling when it comes to emotional problems. We have a situation regarding my daughter which now requires professional help. But how successful is this type of assistance?

M.O. Obviously, I can't predict the success of your counseling sessions, but I would certainly think it was worth trying. There is no reason why the Christian should be hesitant in airing emotional or mental problems with a competent counselor. God works through means, and that doesn't minimize His miracle-working power at all. I would think the success of your sessions would depend on several things: first, how much you really want the problem solved. Secondly, it depends on how patient you are in getting insights into the complexity of the problem. Lastly, there's the factor of how capably you and your daughter will be in making necessary changes.

You must understand that the aim of the counselor will not be to give you necessarily specific answers to specific problems. Rather it's to provide a relationship where people can understand themselves, and learn better ways of relating to each other. All of this ought to be done under the guidance of God's Spirit, and in connection with the teaching of the Scripture.

Forced To Borrow

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Everyone but some bankers and regulatory officials deplore high interest rates, but so far nobody in power is doing much about them.

Meanwhile — Americans are being forced to borrow heavily on their life insurance policies, which still carry an interest rate of only 5 or 6 per cent, versus double that for any other personal loan.

This low rate is made possible by the fact that the borrowers really own the money, it being the cash value built up in their whole life policies. Still, if it isn't paid back it reduces the value of the insurance.

At the end of June, the Institute of Life Insurance reports, loans totaled $21.32 billion, up 14 per cent from $18.71 billion a year ago, and the figure is still rising.

Since policy holders have first call on insurance company assets, the ability of insurers to invest in other areas is reduced by the rise in policy loans. And those other areas usually provide double the return.

There is another cause for concern by the insurers. Past history, they say, establishes as fact that those who borrow on their policies are more likely than nonborrowers to let their policies lapse.

—Small businesses are being put on the rack by high interest rates. Unable to pass on their added expenses as easily as can big business, proprietors and others are forced to absorb the sharp increases in money costs.

Short-term non-installment business loans of $10,000 to $25,000 rose in July to 11.47 per cent from 11.06 per cent a month earlier, according to the Federal Reserve Board. Additional charges also might be involved.

New business incorporations, as measured by Dun & Bradstreet, have fallen almost steadily since last September, one reason being the high cost or unavailability of financing.

WASHINGTON — Opposition by Nixon holdover officials to public-service employment, absolutely essential for both political and economic reasons, is fueling deep concern over President Ford's delay in building up his own economic policymaking machinery.

BUDGET DIRECTOR Roy Ash and economic counselor Kenneth Rush both have entered objections to the cost of providing public jobs in areas of high unemployment. Yet such a program is so necessary to soften the effect of draconian budget cuts that Mr. Ford undoubtedly will propose it for the September-October session of Congress.

INDEED, ECONOMIC prospects are so frightening that he may be forced to act with far greater haste. While seeking to ease out Nixon holdovers slowly in the interests of continuity, he may have to speed his changing of the guard and designate his lieutenant for the economy immediately.

The lack of a firm decision on public service employment is the present case in point. Besides deadening the liberal argument that budget-cutting tends to make the poor bear the brunt of anti-inflation programs, the plan would give Mr. Ford the essential initiative in developing an economic strategy of his own, not to mention strengthening his courtship of organized labor. Besides, it is strongly supported by both Dr. Arthur Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, and William Simon, Secretary of the Treasury.

SO, WHEN I found out we were in the same hotel and that he had come in very late the night before, I thought it only just that I wake him at 6 a.m. and tell him I was there.

The only hitch was that the hotel desk had his room and Bush's room confused on their registry. So I called the wrong room.

I tried to explain this to George Bush after I had waked him and he was really very nice about the whole thing. He didn't say a single deleted expletive — with or without tape. So I decided he was either a very courteous, cool, nice guy or else he was still sound asleep.

SO I REALLY WANTED him to end up as the vice president. Nothing against Rockefeller. I don't know what he says when awakened at 6 a.m. by the telephone and I doubt very seriously that I ever get the opportunity to find out.

As for my good friend, Jim Leonard, I don't know where he is at this time. But it might have been disastrous for him to become so close to the White House. Think what we could do with such a harmless incident in these troubled times.

"Aide steals press pass, uses false identification to obtain entrance, even sleeps in the wrong room." That was all a very funny back in 1964, but this is a decade later, and surely there might be some type of investigative committee for such a terrible cover up.

Decision

Robert Novak

BUT MANY OTHERS in the now formless economic policymaking machinery, including Ash and Rush, have been putting up conventional conservative objections. That will not prevent the scheme from being adopted ultimately, but it has blocked fast action.

Conversely, the absence of policymaking machinery led to what is widely regarded as the President's first blunder: the jawboning attempt on General Motors auto prices. Had they been consulted, Treasury officials would have informed Mr. Ford that the effort would unduly alarm Wall Street without succeeding in rolling back much of the GM increases. But neither Simon nor anybody else at the Treasury was consulted.

To prevent recurrences of that kind of madcap economic policymaking, the President is being urged to take two steps quickly.

STEP NO. 1 is the rapid jettisoning of the old Nixon aides, even at the cost of hurt and the image of continuity. According to mutual friends, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills has passed word that Ash must go. One powerful Democrat in Congress has urged Mr. Ford to get rid "of those incompetents" — meaning Ash and Rush, but not Simon.

STEP NO. 2 is to cut through the layers of economic officialdom and designate the President's top lieutenant. The transition report strongly urges that he be the Secretary of the Treasury, not an economic "czar" as President Nixon intended for Rush.

Balky Can Opener

Art Buchwald

Betty Furness in a recent speech revealed something that the average consumer has known for years. The warranties that come with most American products aren't worth the computer cards they're printed on.

THERE MAY have been a lot of changes in Washington, but one thing you can be sure of: The American consumer is getting a shafting by the free-enterprise system.

Not long ago I went to McCarthy, Swaine and Klutzknowlton, the appliance store, to return an electric can opener I had bought my wife for Christmas.

"Why do you wish to return it?" the man asked.

"Because it doesn't work."

"DID YOU fill out the Green Warranty Card that came with it?"

"Yes, I did."

"And what happened?"

"The can opener still didn't work."

"I see. Could you tell me how soon you filled out the Green Warranty Card after you got the electric can opener?"

"Maybe three days, a week. I'm not sure."

"BUT IT specifically says that the Green Warranty Card must be filled out 24 hours after purchasing the appliance."

"Yes, but since it was a Christmas present, we didn't open up the package until Christmas morning, and therefore we didn't see the Green Warranty Card and have a chance to fill it out for a few days as we were too busy trying to get the thing to work."

"But if you didn't fill out and mail the Green Warranty Card within 24 hours of purchase, it's hardly our fault that the electric can opener doesn't work, is it?"

"I wouldn't say that," I said. "I think I should get a new electric can opener."

"WE CAN'T DO that. The only one who has the authority to give you a new electric can opener is our warranty department, which is located in Leavenworth, Kan."

"Look," I said, "I should think you would be worried for the good name of McCarthy, Swaine and Klutzknowlton."

"But we're not owned by McCarthy, Swaine and Klutzknowlton any more. We were bought out by Federated Pumps and Warehouses, which is a subsidiary of Drinkwater Fire and Theft, which is owned by Sable Hosiery and TV Antennas, which merged last month with Moon Orbitino Platforms, Inc., Platforms, Inc."

"That's great, but what about a new electric can opener? Just give me one, and I'll be on my way."

"We can't. You see, we've discontinued making electric can openers. We made a lot for Christmas, but they didn't work."

A Devotion For Today . . .

"Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life." (Jude 21)

PRAYER: Lord of beauty and fragrance, my heart rejoices in Your provisions, for the breezes and warmth of Your love. I thank You, Lord, Amen.

Broken Nose Ends Plans For Wedding

DEAR ABBY: We drove 500 miles to attend the wedding of a relative. Our son was to be in the bridal party. The wedding was to take place at 4 p.m. on Saturday. On the Friday night before the wedding, the bride and groom got into a fight and the groom broke the bride's nose so the wedding was cancelled.

What do we do with the wedding gift we were going to take to the church? Who pays for the occasion our son rented for the occasion and never got to wear? And how about the motel bill?

I think the bride's parents who invited us here for nothing should help us out. Should we ask them to?

STUCK IN ILLINOIS DEAR STUCK: That's what you are. Stuck for the wedding gift—unless you can return it. You're stuck for sure for your son's rented tuxedo, and you're stuck for the motel bill.

And no, don't ask the bride's parents to help you out. They've got enough trouble trying to comfort a bride with a broken nose.

DEAR ABBY: My husband died very suddenly not long ago. It was a terrible shock as he had been in the best of health and had no warning whatsoever. We had 43 good years together, which is more than many couples have, but somehow, I still feel cheated.

I was in such a state of shock when this happened that my eldest daughter took me to her home where I stayed for three weeks. When I returned to my own home, I was stunned to find that every trace of my beloved husband had been removed. Not one thing belonging to him remained!

My two daughters and one son (all married) took it upon themselves to go through my house and dispose of all their father's clothes.

I broke right down and wept. They tried to explain that they thought they had done me a big favor.

Abby, wasn't it MY right to dispose of my late husband's things in my own good time? Perhaps I wanted some memories of him around.

It's too late in my case, but please print this for others who one day may presume to do what my children did.

CRUSHED DEAR CRUSHED: Please consider the motivation. They undoubtedly wanted to spare you what they thought would be an agonizing task. But you make a good point. Perhaps they should have asked.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 21-year-old male college student. I am being married in the near future. Both of us would like to have a big wedding and invite our many friends, but the cost would empty her parents' pocketbook.

My fiancée and I feel that the tradition that says her parents must foot the bill for the wedding is entirely outmoded, but I'm afraid her folks would feel hurt if my parents offered to chip in.

As it stands now, my future in-laws feel a bit inadequate alongside my well-to-do family.

If you can come up with a solution, it would be a most welcome early wedding gift.

DOOMED GROOM

DEAR DOOMED: Why not break with tradition in the interest of common sense? Perhaps your future in-laws wouldn't be as "hurt" as you think if your parents chipped in for the kind of wedding you want. Ask them. If they refuse, go the traditional route, and after you return from your honeymoon, your parents can throw a party for you and all your friends.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MARK: Lose her. She has a "gelt" complex.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Genealogy Viewed By Club Speaker

Genealogy was the topic of Mrs. Dale Smith when she was guest speaker for the Spring City Chapter, American Business Women's Association, Tuesday at the Permian Snack Bar.

Mrs. Smith, who qualifies as a "Daughter of the Republic," told the group, "The ancestral descent of a family is easier if you have some 'raunchy' characters. You cannot deal with relatives alone for your information as they tend to tell only the good things and not the bad."

The speaker pointed out that all information compiled must be verified and documented. She suggested using such records as birth and marriage certificates, wills, abstracts and deeds to property, family Bibles and military records to obtain helpful information.

Mrs. Smith discussed some of her most interesting ancestors and the historical events they were involved in, and also displayed and illustrated the documented records of her ancestral descent.

Other guests were Mrs. A. A. Graumann, Mrs. Terry Wegman and Ms. Mary Owens.

Mrs. Kay Bartlett, receptionist for Drs. Rogers and Smith, was vocational speaker. Prayers were voiced by Ms. Patti Goodman and Ms. Ramona Molina.

The chapter will host a silver Tea Sunday at Texas Electric Reddy Room in observance of ABWA's 25th anniversary. Plan were also made for an annual get-together at Lowake Inn Sept. 23.

The next dinner meeting will be held at La Posada, 7 p.m., Sept. 24, when new officers will be elected.

Tea To Honor H. P. Hineses

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hines will be honored on their 50th wedding anniversary with a tea Sept. 1 at the Golden Age Club Room.

The Hines' two daughters, Mrs. Lloyd Tiemann and Mrs. Joan Yaden, will host the affair which will be from 2 until 4 p.m. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Hines, a retired farmer, was born and reared in Westbrook and married Miss Elvie McCasland of Aspermont Sept. 1, 1924.

Guest Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeder have had as their guest their granddaughter, Julianne Cataldo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cataldo, Madison, Conn. Miss Cataldo, who also visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Orba Hamlin, left Monday to return to her home in Hawthorne, N.Y.

High Tallies At Bridge Announced

Five and a half tables were in play for duplicate bridge games Wednesday afternoon at Big Spring Country Club. Tied for first and second places were Mrs. Elmo Wasson and Mrs. A. Swartz, and Mrs. Morris Rhodes and Mrs. R. I. Tollett.

Mrs. Auriel Lafond and Mrs. G. E. Peacock tied for third and fourth places with Mrs. R. E. Dobbins and Mrs. Ward Hall, and fifth place went to Mrs. D. A. Brazel and Mrs. Ray McMahan. It was announced that the Beginner's Duplicate will resume at 10 a.m., Sept. 6.

Gift Shower Held Friday

Mrs. Terry Miles was the honoree at a baby shower held Friday in the home of Mrs. Linda Colosimo, 2612 Larry.

Mrs. Miles is the former Sherry Hudson. Guests at the party included her mother, Mrs. Alta Hudson, and co-workers at the base exchange, Webb AFB.

The refreshment table was covered with a pink and blue cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and blue carnations.

Xi Mu's Give Scholarship

A Beginning Day party for member of Xi Mu Exemplar Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Jerry Snodgrass, 2704 Crestline.

During the business discussions, announcement was made that Mrs. Ted Hicks will present a vocational nursing scholarship at Howard College when the students enroll.

Yearbooks will be distributed at the Sept. 10 meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Gerald Wooten.

A salad supper was served.

Faculty Ma'ams Plan Reception

Plans were made for the annual fall reception when members of the Faculty Ma'ams of Howard College met at the Student Union Building Tuesday afternoon.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Larry Key and Mrs. Tony Ortiz. The reception will be held on Sept. 6 at 6:30 p.m., in the SUB and will honor new faculty members along with members of the board of trustees.

Duties Defined For Club Membership

"What Is Membership?" was discussed by a panel for the Business and Professional Women's Club at Coker's Tuesday evening.

The panel was composed of Mrs. James F. Vineyard, membership chairman, and her committee, Mrs. Fred McGowan, Mrs. Cass Hill and Mrs. Delphia Gordon.

They pointed out that the member and the organization cannot exist without each other, a member being a constituent part of any structural or composite whole. The panel emphasized that B&PW membership stresses participation and responsibility — to each member and to the federation. The conclusion was that "society is realizing that when women help women the seemingly impossible can be accomplished."

The club contributed to a fund for furnishing and equipping new facilities at the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute. The expansion program is due to be complete in 1976. In the request for contributions, it was pointed out that more than 100,000 patients have been admitted since Anderson opened. The patients have come from 254 Texas counties, all states and 27 nations. Approximately one-third have been medically indigent Texans who received free care.

Members were reminded that the Texas Federation of B&PW-sponsored House Bill No. One for cancer research, was passed by the 51st Legislature in April 1950, making possible state appropriation for research and building of the Anderson Clinic in Houston.

The Big Spring State Hospital party, hosted by the club, will be Sept. 10 in Comanche Park, near the totem pole. Mrs. Bert Affleck, president, will attend a planning meet in El Paso Sunday in preparation for the District 8 convention at Rodeway Inn Motor Motel, Oct. 19-20.

Campbell Grabs Spotlight

AUSTIN (AP) — Roosevelt Leaks glanced at the muscular young freshman being interviewed by a host of writers on press day and said: "He'll walk out of here with the Heisman Trophy in his hand if he stays healthy."

Leaks, Texas' senior All-American fullback, was thought to have an excellent shot himself this year at the trophy symbolic of the country's finest football player. That was before he tore up a knee in spring training and underwent surgery.

Now the spotlight is on Earl Campbell of Tyler, the most sought after schoolboy back in Texas during the recruiting campaign. Campbell is running at fullback and his play in preseason scrimmages has excited Longhorn coaches.

"He's Coca Cola...the real thing," said one Longhorn assistant. "He sure keeps me entertained," said head Coach Darrell Royal.

"Earl makes me want to get well-quickly," said Leaks. Royal is pessimistic Leaks will play at all this year. "I have no reason to be encouraged," Royal said. "I never have felt that he was going to play."

Leaks is optimistic. "I have pain right now and I will probably have pain when I play," Leaks said. "But you have to play football with pain."

Leaks added "I'm ready for the doctors to give me an OK. But they have told me there is to be no contact until at least Sept. 14."

"I don't want to play this year unless I can play in at least seven games—that is the minimum."

What about professional ball? "I can't tell what will happen if I can't play this year," Leaks said. "It all depends on what happens in the next pro draft. It depends on what kind of contract I get. If I don't get a good contract, then I might come back if I have to sit out."

MATUSZAK STAYS HOME Texans Head For Hawaii

HOUSTON (AP) — The World Football League's Houston Texans headed out over the Pacific Ocean for a game with Hawaii today while the professional football future of defensive tackle John Matuszak remained in uncertain waters.

He became the eye of a hurricane-force controversy Wednesday when the Texans announced that Matuszak had declared his National Football League contract with the Houston Oilers void and had signed with the Texans.

"The most important aspect of my signing with the WFL was not to demean or undermine the NFL," Matuszak said as he dropped the bombshell that turned this city into a WFL-NFL battleground.

Matuszak, the No. 1 choice in the 1973 NFL draft, said his reasons for jumping were to "make professional football a form of employment where management recognizes its workers as individuals capable of communicating on an intelligent level."

He suited up to play for the Texans Wednesday night in Houston's 14-11 victory over the New York Stars but was taken from the game in the second quarter after the Oilers obtained a temporary restraining order pending a Sept. 5 hearing.

Texans owner Steve Arnold said Matuszak was able to sign with his club because of a loophole in his Oilers contract but he declined to elaborate.

Arnold said he hoped to get the temporary restraining order lifted in time for Matuszak to play Sunday against the Hawaiians.

The Texans also have signed Dallas Cowboys quarterback Craig Morton to a 1975 contract.

"We hope to build our offense around Craig and our defense around Matuszak," Arnold said. Texans Coach Jim Garrett likes the idea, but he wasn't in favor of the restraining order.

"Why did they have to serve it now?" Garrett asked. "Since Mr. Nixon is not being served with one, why do they have to come and find us tonight?"

John Matuszak is our president. He really picked us up while he was in there tonight," Matuszak said. He was not surprised at being served with the restraining order at the game. "I wouldn't be surprised at anything the Oilers might do," he said.

Oilers owner K. S. "Bud" Adams said there was no way Matuszak could get out of the remaining three years of his contract.

"We've looked it over closely," Adams said. "It's a standard player contract that we've been using for three years. Matuszak signed the same one everybody else has. I talked to his agent (Bob Wolff) and he said he just couldn't believe it."

Oilers Coach Sid Gillman set a noon deadline today for Matuszak to return to camp or be suspended.

Today the boys at the Ridgewood Country Club started the real test of stamina and nerves. Since Monday, the action has consisted of one match-play round per day. But fourth-round play was to be held this morning and the fifth round was to begin after a short lunch break.

On Friday, double rounds will be held again on the 6,754-yard, par-71 course. The two finalists will meet in a 36-hole match play contest on Saturday.

It's been hot and humid all week at the North Jersey tournament site. Many of the players feel the weather will be a major factor in the eventual outcome. But no one feels the weather can hurt as much as poor driving and putting.

Cowboys Working Harder

DALLAS (AP) — Tom Landry has always said he loves a challenge and he's got it this year, his 14th as the only coach the Dallas Cowboys have known.

He has worked rookies and veterans hard at the Thousand Oaks, Calif., training camp, starting daily with a dawn run over a small mountain dubbed "The Hill."

Assistant coach Mike Ditka leads the group and Landry tags along behind to tongue-lash stragglers.

Anyone not putting out gets the gate, like wide receiver Otto Stowe.

There are several reasons Landry is driving himself and his players harder than at any time Cowboy observers can remember.

Landry has five players on his team who are lame ducks, waiting to join World Football League clubs: Calvin Hill, Rayfield Wright, Jethro Pugh, D.D. Lewis, and quarterback Craig Morton.

Stowe and running back receiver Mike Montgomery are gone and must be replaced.

Landry is proud of his team's record of eight consecutive National Football League playoffs.

Landry felt the Cowboys had a good enough team to be in the Super Bowl last year but unraveled in the clutch.

"The key thing for us is to reach the performance level we had toward the end of last season," says Landry. "If we can start out that way in September and sustain it, we'll have an excellent chance of reaching the playoffs."

In the backfield will be Hill and veteran fullback Walt Garrison. The wide receiver is second-year man Drew Pearson, a free agent sensation last year after Stowe broke an ankle.

Bob Hayes is expected to hold down the other receiver spot but Golden Richards could change the ranking because of a tremendous preseason.

The offensive line is rated one of the finest in the NFL. Guards Blaine Nye and John Niland, tackles Wright and Ralph Neely and center John Fitzgerald provide Landry with consistency. Tight ends Billy Joe DuPree, Jean Fugett and rookie Ron Howard are solid.

Tutwiler Waves Goodbye

RIDGEWOOD, N. J. (AP) — Fifty-one-year-old Bill Campbell calls it "Black Thursday."

But young players like NCAA champ Curtis Strange, Florida Amateur titlist Doug Tate and Porter Cup winner George Burns consider it just another day.

Ed Tutwiler, 55, who called it "the Endurance Test," won't be around for today's doubleround action at the 74th U.S. Amateur Golf Championship — he said goodbye on Wednesday. So did veterans Dick Siderowf and Vinnie Giles.

Today the boys at the Ridgewood Country Club started the real test of stamina and nerves.

Since Monday, the action has consisted of one match-play round per day. But fourth-round play was to be held this morning and the fifth round was to begin after a short lunch break.

On Friday, double rounds will be held again on the 6,754-yard, par-71 course. The two finalists will meet in a 36-hole match play contest on Saturday.

It's been hot and humid all week at the North Jersey tournament site. Many of the players feel the weather will be a major factor in the eventual outcome. But no one feels the weather can hurt as much as poor driving and putting.

Tutwiler lost 1 up to Pate, a 20-year-old University of Alabama student from Pensacola, Fla.

Prep Star Finally Decides To Play Basketball In ABL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Moses Malone has finally signed a contract to play for the Utah Stars of the American Basketball Association, so sources say, ending a three-ring circus that began in Petersburg, Va., this spring, about the time the superstar was about to graduate from high school.

Malone, 19, who lingered on the threshold of indecision for several days before signing a grant-in-aid to attend the University of Maryland, again kept reporters by the hundreds guessing whether he considered the first youth ever to bypass college, going straight from schoolboy basketball to the pros.

Malone, according to an official of the University of Maryland who preferred to remain anonymous, late Wednesday affixed his signature to a lucrative contract offered by the ABA.

The timing and setting of the signing was every bit as dramatic as the months of maneuvering by hundreds of college coaches who had coveted the services of the lean, 6-foot-11, athlete.

The Maryland source said Malone was driven from Washington, D. C., into suburban Virginia for the signing. The reason: Malone is too young to sign a contract in the District, while Virginia's age of majority is 18.

According to the source, Malone was escorted across the state line by Donald Dell, a Washington attorney, and was accompanied by Mrs. Mary Malone, his mother, and an official of the Stars.

Neither Malone nor the Stars' officials were available for confirmation early today, but the ABA scheduled a news conference for 2:30 p.m. today at the Hotel Americana in New York.

It was presumed the signing of Malone would be officially announced at that time and that the young basketball star, compared with Kareem Abdul Jabbar and Bill Walton, would be present for the occasion.

Meanwhile, Jim Bucata, public relations director of the ABA, said Wednesday that Malone would come to New York today "for the final signature" on a contract with the Stars.

"It will be put on in New York," said Bucata. "I don't know at this point whether that means Malone's signature or the Stars' signature."

A short time earlier a source close to Lefty Driesell, the Maryland basketball coach who had recruited the 6-foot-11 Malone to a college grant-in-aid, quoted Driesell as saying Malone had finally decided to sign a contract.

A team spokesman made the announcement Wednesday, adding that reserve fullback Tom Bailey, who also has injured ribs, is another question mark for the game at Princeton, N.J.

BOSTON (AP) — Sugar Ray Seales, the 1972 Olympic champion from Tacoma, Wash., and Marvin Hagler, the 1973 National Amateur Athletic Union champ from Brockton, Mass., tapered off training Thursday for the 10-round middle-weight boxing bout Friday night.

Sports In Brief

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia Eagles free safety Bill Bradley, suffering from bruised ribs, is a doubtful starter for Saturday's National Football League exhibition game with the New York Giants.

A team spokesman made the announcement Wednesday, adding that reserve fullback Tom Bailey, who also has injured ribs, is another question mark for the game at Princeton, N.J.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia 76ers acquired forward John Tschogl from the Atlanta Hawks in a National Basketball Association deal announced by a 76ers spokesman Wednesday.

Tschogl graduated from the University of California at Santa Barbara in 1972 but in two NBA years has averaged only two points a game. Terms were not announced.

A team spokesman made the announcement Wednesday, adding that reserve fullback Tom Bailey, who also has injured ribs, is another question mark for the game at Princeton, N.J.

BOSTON (AP) — Sugar Ray Seales, the 1972 Olympic champion from Tacoma, Wash., and Marvin Hagler, the 1973 National Amateur Athletic Union champ from Brockton, Mass., tapered off training Thursday for the 10-round middle-weight boxing bout Friday night.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia 76ers acquired forward John Tschogl from the Atlanta Hawks in a National Basketball Association deal announced by a 76ers spokesman Wednesday.

Tschogl graduated from the University of California at Santa Barbara in 1972 but in two NBA years has averaged only two points a game. Terms were not announced.

Meanwhile, Jim Bucata, public relations director of the ABA, said Wednesday that Malone would come to New York today "for the final signature" on a contract with the Stars.

"It will be put on in New York," said Bucata. "I don't know at this point whether that means Malone's signature or the Stars' signature."

A short time earlier a source close to Lefty Driesell, the Maryland basketball coach who had recruited the 6-foot-11 Malone to a college grant-in-aid, quoted Driesell as saying Malone had finally decided to sign a contract.

NFL Raiders Essentially Same Squad

OAKLAND (AP) — Uninclined to tamper with success, the Oakland Raiders will field a 1974 team essentially the same as last season's ... just a year older.

Oakland is going after its seventh National Football League division championship in eight years. Whether the Raiders can get it with a minimum change in personnel is likely to depend on how much their opposition has been able to improve.

The Raiders were 9-4 and lost in the American Conference playoff final 27-10 to Super Bowl winner Miami. Oakland led the conference in total offense and defense, the only AFC team to out-gain foes by an average of more than 100 yards a game.

Only four players from last year's squad have departed — Jeff Queen, Steve Sweeney, Tom Maxwell and Bob Brown.

Newcomers include two league oldtimers — running back Leroy Kelly, who had 10 seasons with Cleveland, and punter Brian specialist Ron Smith, acquired from San Diego and in his 10th NFL season.

All this creates a problem for an unusually fine crop of Raider rookies this year, especially offense talent. It's not a new problem. Of the 1973 rookie crop only punter Ray Guy has survived as a regular.

What upset him most was the play of the returning ball players. "I was extremely disappointed in a majority of their performances," he said.

His main concern is the quarterbacking spot, which was vacated after three seasons by Danny White, who capped his collegiate career with seven National Collegiate Athletic Association records. The position is still up for grabs, according to Kush, whose teams have compiled a 132-34-1 record, second best win percentage among active major college coaches.

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — First it was the youngsters and now it's the oldsters that are causing concern for Frank Kush, who's beginning his 17th year as head football coach at Arizona State University.

The 1973 Sun Devils wound up ranked No. 9 with an 11-1 record, including a 28-7 Fiesta Bowl victory over Pittsburgh, the third straight year they had won that post-season bowl. Only nine starters returned this year.

Before departing for Camp Tontozona, ASU's preseason training facility nestled in the mountains northeast of Phoenix, Kush emphasized that while he had a bunch of talented freshmen, they would most likely see limited action this year.

Before departing for Camp Tontozona, ASU's preseason training facility nestled in the mountains northeast of Phoenix, Kush emphasized that while he had a bunch of talented freshmen, they would most likely see limited action this year.

After returning from the camp, Kush was faced with the possibility that he may have to rely on the freshmen more than he'd like.

"I was a little disappointed in our older kids," Kush said. "I don't think camp progressed as well as I hoped it would have from the standpoint of being prepared for the first ball game."

HOUSTON (AP) — The World Football League Houston Texans won a decision on the field and lost one on the sidelines in the circus atmosphere of the Astrodome Wednesday night.

The 10,126 fans didn't know which show to watch. Out on the field, the Texans shocked the New York Stars 14-11 on touchdown passes of 25 and six yards by quarterback Mike Taliaferro to snap a fivegame Star winning streak.

On the sidelines, defensive tackle John Matuszak, who earlier Wednesday had declared his Houston Oiler contract void and signed with the Texans, lost a second quarter contest with a temporary restraining order to prevent his further participation.

BOB ROGERS Production Manager
JOE AWTRY Composition Foreman
ALTON RINK DAVIS Press Foreman

Production Promotions Announced At Herald

With the completion of the conversion from hot-type to offset method of production at hand, the Big Spring Herald has announced the appointment of three department heads, according to publisher W. S. (Dub) Pearson.

The three named to head departments are Bob Rogers, production manager; Joe Awtry, composition room foreman; and Alton (Rink) Davis, press foreman.

Bob Rogers, elevated from composition foreman to production manager, heads the completely new offset production department, including the 28-page Goss Community press.

He began his newspaper career at the Herald in 1955, as an apprentice printer working in the old hot-type composition and worked his way up to shop foreman.

Rogers is active in community affairs, managing Little League teams since 1957 and coaching in three leagues in that time. He is a United Fund worker and works with the Boy Scouts. He and his family are members of the Berea Baptist Church.

He has attended Howard County Junior College.

Awtry, a veteran of 22 years in newspaper and commercial hot-type makeup work, heads a nine-person crew in the composition room. He has worked for the Herald for 20 months in charge of setting type, marking layouts and in page makeup. He has had experience on the Denver City Press and Hereford Brand in Texas and on newspapers in Duncan, Watonga and Poteau, Okla.

Alton 'Rink' Davis, who began his newspaper printing career in 1958 in Midland with The Reporter-Telegram, was appointed press room foreman in charge of the operation and maintenance of the new offset press.

Davis, who had 12 years experience in Midland and three years experience in Abilene, on the Reporter-News, a Harte-Hanks Newspaper, started out helping run a 96-page Scott press in Midland. He has worked with the Herald for four months and has two aides.

Kidnap Suspect Jailed In Hobbs

HOBBS, N.M. (AP) — Police say a man arrested in connection with a Hobbs liquor store robbery also is named in a warrant charging him with kidnaping a Southern California woman and her 14-month-old daughter.

Officers said the man is Lonnie Ray Booker, 23, believed to be from Lubbock, Tex.

Hobbs police said he is named in a warrant charging him with the abduction of Audrey Lee Gaines, 25, and her daughter Heather.

They were last seen Thursday in a Monrovia, Calif., parking lot entering a car driven by an unidentified man.

Booker and two brothers, Billy and Joe Booker, if he agrees, he'll be returned to California to face charges.

ARMED ROBBERY

"If he refuses to waive extradition, a hearing will be set in district court. We've got a lock on him. When we finish."

Chief of detectives W.P. Wright said all three have been arraigned on charges of armed robbery and they were lodged in the Lea County jail at Lovington in lieu of $2,500 bond on the state charges.

Lovington is about 20 miles northwest of Hobbs in extreme southeast New Mexico.

Wright said California authorities had asked that $100,000 bond be set for Lonnie Booker.

"I believe we are honoring that request," said Wright. "The way it works is that after we finish with Lonnie

There are some things about the offset system that are slower than hot-type, but there is a far greater flexibility in the things you can do," said Rogers of the new process. "It's an entirely different operation."

Davis noted that the new press is faster, cleaner and decidedly less noisy than under the old letter press.

Non-Stop Rains Hit Wet Spots

Non-stop rains hit already soggy areas in Texas again today, causing further minor flooding at some points across the central part of the state.

There was no immediate word, however, of conditions as grave as those in some places the day before, when a man drowned after an 8½-inch deluge at Killeen and 110 persons were driven from their homes. As much as 15 inches of rain fell at nearby Harker Heights.

Continuing downpours today drenched the countryside across the state's midsection from Red River to the Rio Grande. Some of the heaviest rain, often falling at rates of more than 1½ inches per hour, hit in several broad belts — from around College Station to Victoria, from near Hondo to south of Laredo and across the border into Mexico, and between Junction and Uvalde.

Another wet spot was Wichita Falls, where more than 3 inches of rain in about an hour and a half flooded low areas while the official moisture measurement was only .32 inch.

Numerous streams ran bankfull and overflowed into lowlands. One of the most troublesome was the Llano River, which climbed 11 feet out of banks near Junction.

While the near-cloud-bursts concentrated on broad areas through the central part of the state, lines of heavy thunderstorms also reached into Southeast Texas.

Lighter rains spread from North Central into Northeast Texas.

Harte-Hanks Agrees to Buy TV Station

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Agreement in principle has been reached between Harte-Hanks Newspapers, Inc., and a stockholders committee of TeLeVision 12 of Jacksonville, Fla., for Harte-Hanks to acquire controlling interest in TeLeVision 12.

The company operates the NBC affiliate serving Jacksonville, Fla., with the call letters WTLV.

The joint announcement was made by Robert G. Marbut, president and chief executive officer of Harte-Hanks Newspapers, and Farris Bryant, chairman of TeLeVision 12 and a former governor of Florida.

The acquisition is subject to the execution of a definitive contract and the approval of the Federal Communications Commission.

Harte-Hanks Newspapers owns and operates 21 daily and 25 non-daily newspapers in eight states and advertising publications in Orange and Los Angeles counties in California. It also owns KENS-TV in San Antonio, where the company is headquartered.

Spicy, Cool Salad Plate

Keeping meals cool and calorie-conscious is a seasonal goal for many cooks. When the weather is hot, the search for recipes to meet both requirements seems never ending.

Rather than look for ideas, why not prepare old summer favorites in a new way? The potato, for example, is a staple in the American diet. In the summer it comes calling itself potato salad. Cool, yes. Calorie-conscious — it can be!

The potato itself is not fattening. A medium size potato (3 per pound), peeled and cooked, is only about 80 calories. Potatoes taste good, satisfy hunger and are a source of vitamins C, B-1 and niacin, as well as iron, potassium, even a little high-quality protein. The calorie-culprit is the mayonnaise you put in your potato salad. It's time to try an alternative to your traditional dressing!

Herbs and spices are high in flavor, low in calories. Several of the more than 80 spices and blends on your supermarket shelf make excellent additions to the mild flavor of cooked potatoes. Spices enhance, not overpower, foods. You can tailor their use to your personal taste, adding more or less for variety. A dressing made from a tangy combination of seasonings can turn traditional potato salad into a low-calorie delight.

Racquet Club Potato Salad is a zesty main-dish version of the classic summer favorite. Strips of chicken and diced potatoes marinate in a special Vinaigrette Dressing to make a refreshing luncheon or picnic dish. Part of the secret to top-notch flavor is to add the dressing to the potatoes while they're still warm. They'll absorb the spicy tang as they marinate in the refrigerator. Leftover dressing can be stored and used on other salads. Garnished with greens and parsley, Racquet Club Potato Salad makes an attractive, nutritious addition to any table.

RACQUET CLUB POTATO SALAD

5 med. potatoes, peeled, cooked and diced
2 cups cooked chicken, cut in strips
1/4 cup finely chopped celery
Vinaigrette Dressing (see below)
6 hard-cooked eggs, halved
Lettuce leaves or watercress
Chopped parsley

In large bowl, combine hot potatoes, chicken and celery. Pour 3/4 cup Vinaigrette Dressing over potatoes. Refrigerate to chill and marinate. Meanwhile, remove yolks from eggs and mash. Add enough remaining dressing to mashed yolks to moisten. (Use remaining dressing for other salads.) Use to stuff whites. Chill. To serve, spoon potato salad into salad bowl.

Surround with stuffed eggs. Garnish with greens and parsley. Makes 6 servings, about 480 calories per serving.

VINAIGRETTE DRESSING

3/4 cup salad oil
1/4 cup white wine or cider vinegar
1/4 cup water
2 tbsps prepared mustard
3 green onions, chopped
1 tbsp. capers (optional)

2 tbsps. bacon flavor bits
1 1/2 tbsps. commercial season-all
4 drops hot pepper sauce
Combine all ingredients. Refrigerate in pint jar. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

Guests Get 'The Bird' At Picnic

A premium turkey, roasted unstuffed and chilled the day before the picnic gives a lavish touch to a picnic party menu.

The cold turkey is easy to carve in the kitchen and place intact in a portable cooler for carrying to the nearby picnic grounds.

It is wise to roast a turkey just the right size so that all of the meat is used right down to nibbling the bones.

The amount of salads should also be just the amount needed for the outing. That way, there are none of these foods to be kept cool on the return trip home.

The roasting time for the turkey can be reduced about 1/2 to 1 hour because the bird is not stuffed. Cool the turkey and refrigerate soon after removing from the oven. Shortly before leaving for the picnic, carve the turkey.

The meat will stay in place if a sharp knife is used and the slices are made vertical to the bones as shown rather than parallel to the breast bone and thigh. The drumsticks become finger food at the picnic and so are not carved. After carving, the turkey should be kept refrigerated until it is served.

Try this salad for the picnic.

CUCUMBER SALAD

2 pkgs. (3 oz. each) lime gelatin
2 cups boiling water
1/2 cup cold water
3/4 cup cold water
2 tbsps. lemon or lime juice
1/2 cup chopped cucumber
1/2 cup sliced celery
2 tbsps. finely chopped green pepper
2 tbsps. finely minced onion
Thin slices unpared cucumber

Thin slices radishes

Dissolve 1 package gelatin in 1 cup boiling water. Stir in 1/2 cup cold water and 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice. Chill until partially thickened. Add chopped cucumber, celery, green pepper and onion. Arrange overlapping slices of cucumber and radishes in the mold. Spoon gelatin over cucumber and radishes. Chill. While chilling dissolve second package of gelatin with remaining boiling water. Add 3/4 cup cold water and 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Chill until slightly set, then pour into the mold. Chill until set.

Toting Tip: This recipe makes a firm gelatin mold. It may be turned out into a deep plate at home. Invert the mold over the salad. Carry in a picnic cooler with other chilled foods.

Honey Energy

Honey is a good source of energy but otherwise its nutritional value is negligible.

Liverwurst Tops Best 'Burger'

The continental accent of liverwurst mixed with ground beef is an intriguing beginning — but the flavor clincher comes with the Best Wurstburger topping! Mushrooms sauteed with chopped stuffed olives and a bit of bacon make this sandwich far more than an ordinary hamburger.

A pleasant lift to late summer barbecue menus, the Best Wurstburger is an easy and quick combination of familiar ingredients which in total become something all new. Onions perk up the flavor and the liverwurst with enriched bread crumbs and an egg give ground beef a distinctly different texture. With good looks, new texture and taste, the Best Wurstburger also rates high in nutritive value. Hamburger and liverwurst make it protein rich. The enriched sandwich buns contain the B-vitamins — thiamine, niacin and riboflavin — plus the mineral, iron — all important nutrients recommended for daily consumption. Add sliced tomatoes, chips and milk to round out the meal.

BEST WURSTBURGER

1 lb. ground beef
6 oz. liverwurst, softened
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
1/4 cup enriched dry bread crumbs
1 egg
1/2 tsp. pepper
1/2 cup chopped bacon
1 can (2 oz.) mushroom stems and pieces, drained
1/4 cup chopped stuffed olives
6 enriched hamburger buns

In large mixing bowl combine ground beef, liverwurst, onion, bread crumbs, egg and pepper. Mix well. Shape into 6 large patties. Broil on grill to desired doneness. In small saucepan saute bacon, mushrooms and olives about 5 minutes. Split and toast buns. Place broiled patty on bottom half of each roll. Spoon equal amounts of bacon, mushroom and olive mixture over meat. Partially close and serve hot. Garnish with sliced tomatoes and sweet pickle fans. Yield: 6 sandwiches.

CONSUMER ALERT

COLLEGE STATION — Pork prices are up, and features are fewer, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt said this week.

Some features will be Boston butt roasts, quarterloin cut into chops, liver, smoked hams, bacon and frankfurters, the consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said.

"Fryer chicken prices continue at about last week's levels with budget features still on whole fryers.

"Turkey supplies are large, but consumers should buy turkey to meet specific family needs," Mrs. Clyatt advised.

"Dairy features include cottage cheese, yogurt and ice cream.

"Beef specials range from ground beef with soy protein, chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks and roasts to sirloin and rib steaks — consider feature items and evaluate choices on a cost-per-serving basis."

At vegetable counters, potato prices are down a bit, but head lettuce prices and quality show variation, Mrs. Clyatt noted.

"New-crop sweet potatoes are available at moderate prices — buy just enough to use in a week or ten days — they don't keep until they're cured.

"Beets, cabbage, carrots, celery, okra, dry yellow onions and squash are good buys, pricewise.

Fruit buys include cantaloupes, plums, bananas, oranges and grapes.

Clergymen Dispute Cops In Two Deaths

DALLAS (AP) — Seven Negro clergymen have challenged the police version of how two young Negro brothers were shot to death by an officer during an alleged holdup attempt. The victims' father, the Rev. George Johnson, is active in the West Dallas Ministerial Alliance. That organization announced Tuesday that the Dallas pastors have endorsed an investigation of the incident by a committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Police Chief Donald Byrd scheduled a news conference for 11 a.m. today. The ministerial group would neither endorse nor reject a threatened pupil strike announced by Don Sneed, secretary of the Committee for the Unification of the People. Sneed said the committee has 150 young Dallas blacks. The incident which triggered the controversy involved George Johnson Jr., 14, and Johnny Johnson, 13, shot to death after entering a steakhouse late Sunday night. Byrd said the shooting, in which multiple shots were fired at each victim by an officer who was eating dinner at the restaurant, was "defensible at this time." A lawyer for two other youths arrested in the restaurant after their companions were slain said they told him a story "quite different from the police account." The lawyer said the youths told him, "It had nothing to do with robbery."

Tattle-Tale Brassieres Will Record Temperature

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Tattle-tale brassieres will soon be tested by women here to see if they can detect breast cancer at its earliest and most curable stage. Special sensors in the bras will record the temperature of breast tissue. A malignant tumor may raise the temperature of surrounding tissue by one or more degrees, and a benign tumor or breast abscess may also raise the temperature, although usually not as much. Thus a warmer spot than normal in the breast would call for special examination to see if a tumor is present, explains Dr. Max L. M. Boone, director of the radiation oncology — cancer — division of the University of Arizona's Medical Center. Early detection of breast cancer could save the lives of anywhere from 13,000 to 30,000 women a year, Boone estimates. The deaths from breast cancer total 33,000 a year in the United States. The sensors are attached to printed circuits, which will be fastened to the brassieres. Heat sensors, or thermistors, will record temperatures and this information will in turn be converted into electrical readings. Five or six women volunteers were expected to start wearing the brassieres soon for a first analysis of its potential value in combating breast cancer. Each woman will wear her bra for about 72 hours, Boone said. About 100 women presumed to be cancer free will be compared with 20 or more women who possibly have early tumors. The special circuits were designed by engineers and physicists at the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory in New Mexico in cooperation with Boone and his staff.

School Money

AUSTIN (AP) — State aid payments to local school districts will be increased by $73 million September to help relieve their financial bind, Gov. Dolph Briscoe has announced. The plan amounts to an accelerated distribution of school maintenance and operating money that the districts normally would receive Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Thursday, Aug. 29, 1974 3-C in regular increments over the next 10 months. State aid payments in September will be $154 million, instead of $81 million. "This early payment by the state will allow the school districts to proceed in an orderly manner without having to resort so heavily to short-term borrowing in anticipation of later receipt of state and local revenues. This course, will save the schools the interest costs they would otherwise be forced to pay and will alleviate some of the borrowing problems caused by the present tight money situation," the governor said in a statement Monday. Briscoe said the districts will receive state funds for teacher salaries and transportation in the usual 10 equal installments. He emphasized that the plan will not provide the districts with more money but would only change the schedule for distributing funds the legislature has already appropriated.

Firemen Picket City Hall

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Fifteen members of the Texarkana, Ark., Fire Department picketed City Hall today and a spokesman said they would remain as long as necessary to establish a line of communication with the Texarkana Board of Directors. Junior Smith, president of Firefighters Local 502 of the International Association of Firefighters, AFL-CIO, said the union had presented its grievances and problems to City Manager Ron Copeland. Smith said in a letter to Copeland, "the meetings with management by members of the firefighters have not accomplished the desired goals."

Civic Center Fees Fixed

COLORADO CITY — The Chamber of Commerce will be offered a two-year lease, with a one-year cancellation notice proviso, in the city's new Civic Center.

In establishing use fees for the center the city council set the Chamber rental at $500 per month, but allowed $450 credit for the city's civic service and promotion, making a net of $50. Other fees ranged from $5 for a morning club meeting to $100 for a public dance. A motion to ban bringing alcoholic beverages on the premises failed 3-2.

Capital Move For Alaskans

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Three mountain ranges, the Gulf of Alaska, the Canadian border, and now much hard feeling separate most Alaskans from their state capital. But in 1980, the state may carve a new capital out of the wilderness somewhere north of here, possibly in the neighborhood of the Trans-Alaska Pipeline. The relocation project, approved by voters in Tuesday's primary election, is far more ambitious than one which brought the capital to Juneau in 1906. Then a territorial administrator and his secretary loaded their meager files onto a boat and simply steamed out of Sitka. But the volatile question will likely go to the voters at least twice more, and is sure to generate regional rivalries and influence politics and government for years to come.

Sterling Pay Seen

A possible completion of a re-entry project in northwest Sterling County is forecast for Sterling Company No. 1 Reed, which was acidized with 2,000 gallons from 7,301-174. The project, a mile and a half south of the Deck (Cisco) field, formerly was the Shanean and Sons and the Kins Resources No. 1 Reed, plugged at 7,200 feet in July 1969. Extension of the Breadlove South (Mulptipay) field 15 miles northwest of Tarzan in Martin County, was seen in BTA Oil Producers No. 7402 JVS Kent, 19 Kent CSL 264. The venture perforated 8,782-9,212 and 9,407-575. The field produces from the Spraberry Dean and Strawn Coquina No. 1 in Dawson County, was past 7,995, and Texaco No. 1 Anderson was at 3,867.

Moving costs, a major argument which defeated two previous initiatives in 1960 and 1962, were little emphasized this time because of the potential riches which will flow through the oil pipeline late in the decade. A state-commissioned study estimated the cost of a new capital could be as little as $110 million, compared with many billions of dollars anticipated in crude oil revenue.

Gov. William A. Egan will appoint a committee to select three potential sites for voter approval in two years. Juneau, the state's third largest city with 17,000 people, is relatively remote — no roads lead directly to the capital.

In Mitchell County, Majestic No. 1 Whiteside, one mile west of Westbrook, spotted 1,787 from the north and 467 from the west lines of section 46-28-1n. T&P, as a 3,500 foot test.

$26.5 Billion Farm Income

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite crop losses from late planting last spring and drought this summer, farmers are headed for their second-best income year on record, the Agriculture Department reports. In 1974, USDA said Tuesday, net farming may total $26.5 billion. Although down sharply from 1973's record of $32.2 billion, the new estimate is 5 to 10 per cent more than some analysts were saying a few months ago. At that time the department was counting on huge wheat and corn crops and generally lower prices for some key commodities.
