Murder Charges

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The Walker County Grand Jury has indicted seven men on capital murder charges stemming from the Aug. 3 attempted prison escape that took four lives.

Three of the men indicted are prison inmates. Inmate Ignacio Cuevas, was indicted Wednesday as principal in the shootout which left two women hostages and two prisoners dead. Cuevas was the lone survivor of the inmate trio that held the hostages in the 11-day seige preceding

The jury named six men in a separate indictment as parties to the escape attempt.

They are Lawrence Hall, Fred Perales, Adolfo Alonzo, Pedro Alonzo, Benito Alonzo, and George Cisneros. Cisneros remains at large. The Alonzos are brothers.

The indictment against Cuevas charges that he was a principal in the death of librarian hostage Julia Standley. Another librarian-hostage Elizabeth Beseda was killed also.

The second indictment accused the other six of being parties to the escape attempt by Fred Gomez Carrasco, Rdolfo Dominguez, and Cuevas. Carrasco and Dominguez died in the violent confrontation with law officers.

The indictment charges that the six acted as parties to the rebel inmate trio during their escape attempt from the Huntsville prison and thus caused the shooting death of Julia Standley.

A prison source said Wednesday that one of three guns smuggled to Carrasco was hidden in a ham from which the bone had been removed. The source said ammunition for the three guns was hidden inside cans of peaches. The ham and peach cans were taken to the prison commissary inside the prison by an inmate, according WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford appears to have used the American foreign policy establishment as a refuge for people whose past identification with Richard M. Nixon could embarrass the White House. Two of three major diplomatic appointments announced Wednesday fall in this description, according to U.S. officials and some foreign diplomats posted here. These were the naming of Nixon's chief economic adviser Kenneth Rush as ambassador to France and of Republican national chairman George Bush, who helped defend Nixon on Watergate, as envoy to China.

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Ford's nomination of a new Army chief of staff will complete a nearly total turnover in the nation's highest military body over the past 13 months. The death of Gen. Creighton W. Abrams on Wednesday created a vacancy in the post of Army chief of staff. Pentagon sources regard Gen. Frederick C. Weyand, Army vice chief of staff under Abrams, as most likely to replace him. Top level retirements since early August last year have brought new faces to the jobs of chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, Air Force chief of staff, and chief of naval operations. Only the commandant of the Marine Corps remains as before.

WASHINGTON (AP) - Environmental Protection Administrator Russell E. Train says President Ford wants to work directly with agency heads on major policy decisions "and not be shielded by his staff or by option papers." Train, who never met privately with former President Nixon, discussed environmental issues with President Ford for 45 minutes Wednesday in the White House Oval Office. Delighted at the result, Train reported in an interview: "He said he expected me to see him personally whenever had a major issue to discuss ... He also expected me to have a regular appointment with him every month or two.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Governors and other delegates from the 13 original states reconvene the First Continental Congress here today, and their goals are much the same as that original meeting 200 years ago. Among the draft resolu-tions to be put before the delegates today are a recommendation that the Constitution be amended to guarantee the rights of personal privacy and a proposal for a "broad declaration reaffirming our faith in the American system." The two-day meeting, hosted by Pennsylvania Gov. Milton J. Shapp, launches the nation's bicentennial celebration, which reaches a climax on the 200th birthday of Independence, July 4, 1976.

CHICAGO (AP) - Whites who smoke have less ability to tolerate pain than white nonsmokers, a California study has found. But no significant difference was found between black and Oriental smokers and nonsmokers. The study involved 66,410 subjects examined in the Kaiser-Permanente health screening program at Oakland, Calif. The authors of the study wrote that explanations for the differences in pain tolerance "are not clear at this time."

Artist Job Takes Local Woman To Fiji Islands

By MARJ CARPENTER Lurae Biffar, daughter of Mrs. Elva Biffar of Big Spring, has successfully combined her artistic talent and her love for her church into a successful career with the Baptist General Convention of Texas. She loves art, loves her job — and feels it's where the Lord wants

This summer, her job as a staff artist for the convention took her all the way to Hawaii along with other members of Forest Meadow Baptist Church in Dallas, of which she is a member.

Nineteen members of that church joined in a crusade effort with Prima Methodist Church in Sigatoka, Fiji. They went armed with letters, proclamations and keys to the city from the governor of Texas and Mayor Wes Wise of Dallas. These led them to the prime minister. the governor general, the Mayor of Suva and the Mayor of Sigatoka

STAFF ARTIST This was only one of many interesting projects for the Big Spring girl who graduated at North Texas in 1967 and went to work for the art department of the Baptist organization.

As staff artist for the Baptist executive board, she designs art for brochures. letterheads, posters or whatever they request.

In July, Texas Baptists held a youth evangelism conference in Dallas, and Lurae designed both the poster and the program. Last year, she designed a foreign imission poster that was used by Baptists throughout the state.

She said that each day the group would go to one of the Hawaiian or Fiji schools and 'share our testimonies singing songs or telling Bible stories to the children.

The group ate lunch at a different village daily, but food always seem to have Indian curry. However, the ladies also brought some 'wonderful fresh fruits.'

"In Fiji they have a national drink called Kava that looks like dirty dish water," and, laughingly, she said, to her "it also tasted like dirty dish water.'

Call Is Out For Dancers

The 1974-75 season for the Permian Civic Ballet Association will get under way this week with the call to dancers for the opening work-shop and choreographic sessions. These begin Friday at Rodenheiser Hall at the Midland Airport, Terminal.

The dance activities will be under the direction of Bill Martin-Viscount, the Ballet Association's artistic director. All elegible dancers in the Permian Basin are urged to take advantage of this opportunity for special training, in addition to performing at the twice-yearly productions. There are openings in both junior (10)12) and senior (13 and up) categories. All should have several years of previous dance training, and be recommended by their dance teacher. Those interested may call Mrs. Mary Lipscomb (694-1260. Midland).

Staff Changes Are Revealed

Two staff changes have been announced by the Buffalo Trail Council, which serves this area. Ross Moore, former resident of Midland, has returned from Austin to his home city to become associate district executive of the Chaparral district. He holds a masters degree in education from the University of Texas in Austin. Harold Drummonds, who has been district executive for the Comanche Trail district serving Odessa-Andrews, resigned to become field director of the 16-county Eastern Arkansas

Water Under The Gate

It may all be water over the gate to most weary Americans, but historians, and certainly future Americans, are going to be "wallowing" in the subject for generations to come. The way things are going, they will have whole libraries devoted to it.

The first issue of "Bookletter," a new review published by Harper's Magazine Co., lists a partial Watergate bibliography of 46 titles. Those swelling the 'W'' card catalogue file include:

"Watergate by the Numbers," Watergate: Chronology of a Crisis," "Watergate and the White "Watergate: Crime in the Suites," "Watergate Hearings," "Watergate Portraits," "Watergate, the View from the Left," "Watergate and the Myth of American Democracy" and simply "Watergate."

Interested researchers will also find such intriguing titles as "Fireside Watergate," "Watergate Cookbook,' "Watergate Follies" and something called "Watergate Girls."

That's just the W's. Other titles include biographies of Richard Nixon, Sen. Sam Ervin and other Watergate personalities, examinations of the impeachment process and the doctrine of executive privilege, the over here and work, replacing Agnew scandal and the constitutional and historical people over here who apparently implications of Watergate in general.

This is not even to mention all the memoirs that are expected to flood upon us.

Neat Solution

William F. Buckley, Jr.

There are two meetings imminent, competition of the non-skeds. Here one in Washington before the Civil are some interesting figures. Last Aeronautics Board on Sept. 10, one year, 11 million people flew across in Tijuana, on Sept. 7, between the the Atlantic. This year, rates are up scheduled and non-scheduled 25 per cent and are about to go up carriers. The first is to reconsider again; and — naturally — air travel the preposterous overweight is down. airlines when they are down, but the two deficits do not necessarily make practice of charging as much for one post-nuptial profit. It is left to excess luggage as for human beings Pan Am to perish, or to try of roughly the equivalent weight is an anachronism which the CAB should quietly but firmly dispatch. Pan Am earned over $7 million dollars last year from overweight charges, and concedes that at current rates, the sum charged is about eight times the cost to the airline. I sympathize with Pan Am's loss on carrying live flesh; but it is no excuse for permitting it an 800 per cent profit on inert matter stuffed into a black, pressurless hold. If the victory is won, it will be owing to the public-interest efforts of a young lawyer in Miami, Donald L. Pevsner, to whom the entire frustrate class that has had to pay extortionary fees at the airport, heavily depleting reserves of cash and morale, should feel grateful. AT TIJUANA, the skeds are going to try to protect themselves from the The problems of Pan Am are

> WILLIAM F. RICKENBACKER, economics writer, has what is easily the most fascinating proposal, and he made it 10 years ago.

The problem, obviously is the empty seats. Filling them up adds practically nothing to the airlines' expenses, and a great deal to their coffers. As a purely hypothetical matter, if you could get those five million empty seats for a dollar apiece, the airlines would let you have them on the straightforward grounds that five million dollars are more dollars than no dollars.

The fear is of course that there would be a demoralization of the rate structure.

WELL, IT DOESN'T WORK that way necessarily. There is true value in being transported to Europe.

I was wondering the other day if a believer in Christ who committed suicide could enter J.H.

With suicide now the leading cause of death among young people, your question has a very current application.

The Bible gives only one qualification for going to heaven, and that is a personal and sincere faith in Jesus Christ. This simplicity of God's plan of salvation is a marvel, in view of how many specifications and requirements there might have been.

Now, suicide is certainly wrong. It pre-empts the plan of God for a life, and sets up the individual as the sole determinant of one's life span. No special law is found against this crime in the Bible, although it would be included in the prohibition against killing.

The Hebrews had such a high regard for human life, they held suicide as something abhorrent. In the Scripture, it seems only the remorse of the doomed could drive one to it, as with Saul (1 Samuel 31:4) and Judas (Matthew 27:5).

I realize that mental derangement in the flesh (Romans 2:6). The can lead to suicide. But this only suicide may gain heaven's door by emphasizes the need to let God help his faith - but his act of selfus achieve and maintain mental violence will carry a certain health. Don't forget also that the penalty.

Woman Harrassed By Jealous Wife

I've never had an experience like this in all my life that's why it's so upsetting to

It all started when a coworker, who must be in his late 40's, started kidding around at work and calling me his "girl friend." There was nothing to it. It was just a joke. He recently had a 25th wedding anniversary and I sent him and his wife a card. When I was out sick last year, he sent me a card. Well, one evening last week, out of the blue I get a phone call from his wife. She started yelling and hollering and accusing me of having "an affair" with her husband. I was shocked. Then her husband took the phone away from her and apologized, saying she was having one of her "spells." I avoided him at work. Last evening, she called again. This time my husband answered, and again she ranted and carried on about me and her husband.

Finally, my husband hung up on her. Abby, she sounds like a crazy woman. She could even kill me. I love my job

Football Roundup

Steers Open Season Friday Night

TRAVEL TO ANDREWS

By TROY BRYANT High School Football will once again make its appearance in the Big Spring area as the 1974 grid season begins Friday night. Most of the local schools will join the Big Spring Steers with road trips for the first week. Lamesa will travel to Carlsbad, N.M., hoping for a repeat of last year's 39-6 win over the Cavemen.

Coahoma will travel to Big Lake, looking for their first win in what will likely be their best season in years. The Bulldogs are rated in the top ten in state in pre-season schoolboy polls.

Stanton will make their debut in Class A after several years in AA as they travel to Tahoka for a bout with the AA Bulldogs.

Colorado City, will also be making a debut, but in Class AA after several fruitless years in AAA. They will host the Slaton Tigers.

The Sands Mustangs will take a trip to Garden City Bearcats. Garden City will muster an 11-man squad for the game, though they normally play eight-man. Klondike will travel to Whitharral in their season opener in District I-B (8man). Although all their games are with district opponents, actual competition will not begin for several weeks until South Zone play begins. The Snyder Tigers will travel to Monahans in a battle between two top flight

AAA teams. On Saturday night, Forsan will play host to the Stanton B team, hoping to start their season off right with a repeat of last year's win. Borden County is the only area school not seeing action the first week because they have an open date scheduled. Their season will begin next Friday night when they host

Compliance Date Sought

The Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. is joining the Texas Association of Cotton Producer Organizations in urging "a more reasonable compliance date" for Occupational Safety Health Administration (OSHA) farm machinery changes PSHA's proposal calls for protective devices on all machinery made after Jan. 1, 1975, but regulations are not final even though only five months remain for redesign and retooling.

The regulation requiring a revision of existing machinery after Jan. 1, 1976 is equally realistic, the groups said. They cited types of cotton strippers. A 1966 model has gears, belts and chains on the outside and may cost more than the original value of the machine to modify. A 1962 model stripper may take $500 to come in compliance; and 1974 models will require $264 to $316 to comply. These changes would cause economic hardships, they contended.

SOLDIER'S BURIAL

Dies In Windowless Cell With No Jailer Present

 Pfc. Roland Salmons was buried with military honors.

An Army honor squad fired three volleys and a lone bugler played taps over the flag-draped casket before it was lowered into the ground beside the Community Church of God.

Frank Salmons says he is satisfied with the way his son was buried, but not with the way he died. "I've been told so many things I don't what to believe, know he said before the burial Wednesday. "Some say he yelled, some said he didn't.

"But the Army investigator told me my boy yelled and, cried and hollered for help and nobody came."

Young Salmons was on leave from Ft. Eustis, Va., when he was picked up on a drunk charge early last Sunday morning in the community of Kermit, some 15 miles from here.

He died three hours later in a windowless cell with no jailer in attendance.

"I asked them why they left him alone," the elder Salmons said.

"They told me it was because they were shorthanded. Why, I don't know yet what killed him. I don't even know if he was alive when they put him in there. I didn't even find out until eight hours after his death that he was dead. The authorities never even notified us, it was a man who owns a restaurant in Kermit that came by and told me.'

According to State Police Trooper Gene Whisman, who investigated Salmons' death, the 25-year-old Vietnam veteran died of natural causes, although an autopsy report is still pending.

Whisman said he in-

Magician Will Give Show Here

"I want to do for magic what Ziegfield did for the girl," said magician Fred

Story describes his show "FANTASY ON PARADE" as "a jigsaw puzzle in 30 crates, put together on a different stage every night."

Story produces a 10-pound live duck out of thin air. He produces $300 worth of silks in 20 seconds. He performs the trunk escape made famous by Houdini.

He saws a woman in half. The feat, originally performed on Broadway, is considered by Story to be "the most famous illusion ever performed.'

"Most people think it's two girls," Story said. "It's not." The floating silver ball is one which has amazed Story's audiences around the world. "It's a sphere with a mind of it's own," said Story. His goal, he added, is "to entertain.

tertain through the means of baffling the mind and eye." Fred Story will perform his show, "FANTASY ON PARADE" live at the Big Municipal Auditorium. Performance will be on Saturday Sept. 7, at 10:30 A.M.

The program is an annual project sponsored by the Big Spring Police Reserves. Tickets will be available at the door at a cost of $2.00.

Fun Affair Saturday

Septemberfest, the annual fun affair of Museum of the Southwest in Midland, will be held Saturday, fortified by a Kinderfest for the children. Starting time is 6

There will be four serving places, one for the Wurstplate or its smaller version the Wurstbasket; one for the Wurstwich or make-yourself sandwich; sausage-on-a-stick; and strudel. All have beverages to go with foods.

Entertainment includes the Felix Pehl German oomband Fredericksburg; Midland "Big Name Band;" a Polka dance band from Wall; the Tall City Twirlers; and strolling bands and instrumentalists. Artists and craftsmen from Texas and New Mexico will present a showcase, plus a flower show, camera club display, arts and crafts exhibit. The Kinderfest includes clowns, magicians, singing, games, pony cart rides, Pickwick players.

Two children belong to Richard DeVries, 35. He lives in Harper because his parents are nearby. He has a lot of stories to tell because three days a week he is a copilot for United Airlines on Washington, D.C., and New York City runs.

Sun Ju, 16, is in the James Wignall family. Wignall is a master sergeant in the Army and is home only weekends because he commutes to Fort Sheridan near Chicago, about 125 miles away. KOREAN GIRL

Wignall and his Korean wife will make Harper's population rise to 30. After two years of waiting, an adopted 6-year-old Korean girl will join the family in December. Barbara Mathiott, 31, operates a beauty shop in her home and has 45 regular customers from the area, three from Harper. Pilot DeVries is her brother.

Framed on the wall of her shop is her proudest possession.

"It's a big hair wreath," she said. "It was finished in 1881 and is made of hair collected from the head of great-greatm v grandmother."

The hamlet's youngest couple is Rita and Paul Jones, both 28, with a 6-yearold son, Matthew. Jones drives 24 miles a day to and trom a factory job in Freeport.

"We were looking around for an older home we could afford and found one in Harper," he said. "You might say we just stumbled onto Harper. We think it has a lot going for it."

UTPBHas Good Gain

Permian Basin enrollment hit 1,122 at the end of registration Saturday, exceeding last year's total registration figures. The unofficial count, taken at the end of regular registration at noon Saturday, represents an approximate 10 per cent increase over the 1,012 students who had signed up at the close of regular registration for the Fall, 1973 semester. Late registration, set for Sept. 3-17, is expected to bring in more than 100 additional students for an estimated total of 1,250, according to university officials. Were it not for a tight housing situation, several hundred more might have enrolled. UTPB has moved into the first phase of its new plant. Remaining on South Campus are the library and business offices, but the remainder are in the new buildings which are designed on a "mesa" concept. Services and utility functions are at ground level, and pedestrian traffic on sweeping con-courses 22 feet above. Landscaped earthen beams mold the buildings into the landscape.
