

Easing Tight Money Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford has launched his public search for a way out of the nation's economic woes and has received assurances from the Democratic Congress that it will stay in session as long as he has proposals for it to consider.

There was less agreement on how to moderate the wage-price rate. "NO QUESTION but that we will cooperate with the President," House Majority Leader Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., said in a telephone interview from Cambridge.

At the end of the day-long, televised session, about half of which he attended in person, Ford told the economists, "I couldn't agree more that we have to act on sound and responsible recommendations."

Congress alone cannot act on the economic problem. "The end of the day-long, televised session, about half of which he attended in person, Ford told the economists, "I couldn't agree more that we have to act on sound and responsible recommendations."

While they differed widely on particular proposals, the economists generally agreed that the way out of what has been called stagflation — simultaneous inflation and sluggishness in the economy — would not be simple, quick or painless.

national and international, that would have to be attacked separately. And, Arthur M. Okun, a former presidential economic adviser now on the staff of the Brookings Institution, said his colleagues, while not agreeing on a number, generally saw inflation, now running higher than 10 per cent a year, dropping below 10 per cent next year and falling somewhat more in 1976.

Move MIGs Near Border

WASHINGTON (AP) — North Vietnam reportedly has moved MIG jet fighters close to the South Vietnamese border in what U.S. intelligence calls the most active air threat so far.

without being spotted. At the same time, North Vietnam has extended its surface-to-air missile coverage across a belt of territory its troops control inside South Vietnam below the old demilitarized zone, intelligence men say.

U.S. officers say one of the basic problems is that the South Vietnamese air force was designed by the United States mostly to bomb and strafe ground targets in support of South Vietnamese troops.

Carmen Threat To Gulf Coast

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A rough, heavy surf along the Florida west coast threatened to cause beach erosion.

Forecasters said that rain over north Florida, Georgia and the Carolinas was caused by a cold front that moved into the area Wednesday.

grave local flooding conditions. Carmen had remained stationary off the coast of Campeche, Mexico, decreasing to tropical storm status, for several days before regaining strength on Thursday and beginning its slow northward drift.

Its pilots have virtually no experience in air-to-air combat, while North Vietnam's air force has seen action against U.S. bombers and fighters during the years of American strikes into the North.

Another rally by friends, including those in Marietta, Okla. and Waco, added $165 to the total, and several others have indicated they want to have a part. Gifts should be mailed or brought to the Herald for grateful recognition.

Truck Hits Nursing Home, Kills Director

At noon, the hurricane was at latitude 23.3 north, longitude 90.4 west or about 450 miles south of New Orleans. It was moving north at seven m.p.h. and was expected to pick up speed slightly.

Officers said the dead woman, Mrs. Barbara Dawson, 38, was standing in the hallway of the Keeneland Nursing Home when the truck crashed through the door and hit her.

Some U.S. experts estimate that MIGs could reach to within a few miles of Da Nang.

State Will Appeal Order To Close Reform Schools

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Atty. Gen. John Hill and the Texas Youth Council have decided to appeal a federal judge's order that would force the state to close two reform schools for boys at Gatesville.

Hill said the basic issue in the appeal would be whether a single federal judge has the "authority to mandate a specific, detailed, rigid program" of treatment for delinquent youngsters.

Serious Crimes Up 6 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI once again has told the nation crime is going up almost everywhere. But there are exceptions and Coal Township, Pa., is one.

over 42 square miles, encircles the town of Shamokin in a valley 120 miles northwest of Philadelphia. As described by Weaver, who has lived there all his 48 years, Coal Township is home for many who work in factories in nearby cities and for a high proportion of retired people.

extra activities to keep the young people off the streets. We don't have much marijuana and much heroin, none of that stuff," Weaver theorized.

Nationally, crime increased 6 per cent in 1973, according to the full-year figures released on Thursday by the FBI. More than eight million serious crimes were committed, one every 16 minutes.

Why is crime so rare in Coal Township? "Well, we do have police patrols out all night. Our churches have least once a week.

NO RAPES Murders were up 5 per cent, assaults 7 per cent, rape 10 per cent, and on and on.

Why, we haven't had a murder in Coal Township in 15 years," boasted Police Chief Jesse Weaver in a telephone interview.

MIAMI (AP) — It takes about as much common sense as it does sophisticated equipment to track a hurricane accurately, says the man responsible for the work, Dr. Neil Frank.

The World At-A-Glance

NEW YORK (AP) — A sampling of public schools from New York to Hawaii showed that the Watergate scandal, its implications and effects, will be discussed in many social science, civics, history and government classes.

Old Budget Still Good

When the county school board met Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Billie Barron, assistant county superintendent, made a statement few public officials can about a budget.

"It's the same as it was last year," Mrs. Barron told the board.

The county school board has few duties and little money. For example, the board met last in June and approved school bus routes, a routine matter. Board members were paid $6 each for this meeting.

Budget for the 1974-75 school year is $5,208,60, most of which pays salaries.

In his capacity as ex-officio county superintendent, County Judge A. G. Mitchell gets $2,070 yearly. Mrs. Barron, his assistant and secretary to County Commissioners Court, is due the same supplemental salary.

Investment of $18,608 is the board's responsibility. The Big Spring school system was given $611.96 of the interest last year. Coahoma schools received $96.74. And Forsan's district drew $36.98.

This year, Mitchell was authorized to reinvest $10,500 making $18,000 again the face-value of investments. He said he would see whether certificates of deposits were a legal alternative to treasury and school bonds.

President of the board is J. D. Gilmore, and R. L. Heith is vice president. Other board members are Alton Bagwell, Hayes Stripling Jr. and Mrs. Noel Harvell Jr.

Mrs. Hathaway Will Lecture TESCO'S Monahans Plant Is Shown

LUBBOCK — The South Plains Genealogical Society will sponsor Mrs. Beverly West Hathaway, professor of genealogy from Salt Lake City at a lecture at 7 p.m. next Thursday.

Mrs. Hathaway will speak at the Municipal Garden and Art Center, 4215 University Avenue, Lubbock, in two 40-minute sessions with an intermission.

Subject of her talk will be "researching Kentucky Records" in connection with the 200th anniversary of the state of Kentucky, founded in 1774.

The speaker is the author of four books on genealogical history in the South. The public is invited to attend the lecture, according to officials of the South Plains group.

By JOE PICKLE

Six years ago Texas Electric Service quarterbacks lofted a long bomb downfield, and today the West Texas wide receivers have found an ample energy ball waiting to be gathered in.

Some 250 area officials and civic leaders got a closeup Thursday of TESCO's new No. 6 unit at the Monahans plant, a towering 160-foot complex capable of generating 540,000 KWH power. This boosts the west anchor of the system to 707,000 KWH, or 18 per cent of the Texco capacity. In addition to the Permian Basin plant, TESCO operates six other gas-oil plants in Fort Worth, Graham, Wichita Falls and Colorado City.

power companies, it has completed the first of three lignite-fired plants in Northeast Texas at twice the cost of the gas-oil fired types. They have on the board their first nuclear plant which will turn out more than a million KWH in 1980 and two years later another will double capacity, furnishing more than Dallas can use. The atomic fuel will represent an annual saving of 25 million barrels of fuel oil, President Burl B. Hulse Jr., president, told the area group.

Planning started six years ago on the new Monahans plant to meet anticipated energy demands of today. As a result, there have been no brownouts or blackouts on the TESCO network. It's 130-ft. long generator has such a long shaft that it takes eight days to bring it from a dead stop to full spinning at 3,600 rpm. The boilers, heating water to supply steam at 2,600 psi, rise to the height of a 16-story skyscraper and gulp four million cubic feet of gas every hour.

For safety's sake, the company is installing storage for 3,000,000 gallons of fuel oil for peak or emergency periods.

Hulse told the crowd that this was another evidence of TESCO's confidence in the economic potential and development of West Texas. It is, however, but part of $600 billion demand for money by U.S. utilities for foreseeable capital needs. Besides the money problem, he regarded the threat of over-regulation as another major problem, thus expressed the hope that the state and national governments will not impose further restriction on operations.

Winston Barclay, Midland division manager, president, and Lynn Griffin, Monahans, plant superintendent, was host. Tom Locke, Big Spring division manager, headed a group from here included County Judge A. G. Mitchell, City manager Harry Nagel, James Gregg, Jimmy Taylor, Gary Bradbury, Ralph McLaughlin, president of the chamber of commerce, Edsel McCrea, Tom Fetters, Owen Ivie, Terry Hanson, Joe Pickle, Adrain Randle and Bob Goodwin, of Big Spring; Charles Parrish, W. A. Wilson, Bill Read of Coahoma; J. B. Anderson and G. L. Monroney of Forsan; M. B. Maxwell, Ackerly; and several from Lamesa and O'Donnell.

Anglos Now Minority

DALLAS (AP) — Loss of Anglo pupils from Dallas schools has declined to a "promising" degree, school administrators say while noting Anglos are now in a minority among pupils. School officials said Wednesday Negroes and Mexican-Americans account for 55 per cent of the total enrollment in the Dallas school district. Officials said Anglos number 65,458 or 44.75 per cent; Negroes number 61,416 or 41.99 per cent and there are 17,893 Mexican-Americans, or 12.29 per cent.

Supt. Nolan Estes said the district has been losing three to five per cent of its Anglos each year but there has been only a one per cent loss this year.

COLORADO CITY — An intensive search by law officials and individual citizens for a lost 81-year-old rancher had a happy ending late Monday when Les Terry, 81, was discovered unharmed in a creek bed. The prominent rancher had made a wrong turn down a country road and when he tried to turn his pickup around had gotten stuck. He tried to get the pickup out of the creek, but ended up spending the night in the cold. "I knew somebody would come," he said when discovered. He was treated at Root Memorial Hospital for exposure and released.

A fund raising campaign by Howard County Republicans for their local and area candidates will be combined with fun Sept. 27. They are planning a Country Caucus for Conservative Cowpokes. It will include a hayride from the courthouse to the Dora Roberts Community Center with their candidates riding on a buckboard. A dinner and band will be featured at the club with a chicken supper followed by music by Pete Jenkins band. Admission will be on a donation basis with the price set at "not less than $5 or more than $25." Republican women discussed preparing food for the event when they met at their monthly noon meeting in the Chamber of Commerce Thursday at noon. Mrs. Ben Bancroft outlined plans for the fund raising. Mrs. Mary Joy Cowper presented a paper on "What's Wrong With Equal Rights" Proposed Legislation." Other routine business was transacted.

BALCONY VIEW—Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller, left, and Mrs. Gerald Ford wave from the Truman balcony overlooking the south lawn of the White House when Mrs. Rockefeller paid a recent visit to the First Lady.

Non-Sexist Greeting Is Favored By Ms.

DEAR ABBY: A reader signed "Ms W." requests a non-sexist salutation for business letters.

Why is a salutation necessary at all? It should have been discarded years ago with such useless phrases as, "Beg leave to reply to your favor of the 15th instance," and "your most obedient servant."

"Dear Anybody" is both redundant and archaic, along with the traditional "Very truly yours," which, in a business letter, is the ultimate in hypocrisy. No?

MISS BRANIGAN: DEAR MISS B.: Yes. Many non-sexist salutations for business letters were submitted. For example: "Gentleperson," or the plural, "gentle-people."

Others suggested the bright and cheery, "Good morning!" (How about those who don't get around to reading their mail until 4 P.M.?)

Try, "Dear Person." (That's too impersonal, like "Occupant.")

Also, "Hi there," or would you believe, "Howdy!"

Come to think of it, "Dear Sir or Madame," or "To whom it may concern" are beginning to look better to me.

DEAR ABBY: After 13 years of marriage, my husband and I were divorced for the age-old reason. Another woman. We have two children, 10 and 12, which made it a very painful ordeal for me.

My husband married the "other woman." He has visitation rights, which are fair enough, but when he comes to pick up the children, he and his wife and her eight-year-old son come right to my door. I feel I have to invite them in, and then I have to ask them to sit down. Once they are seated they stay and stay until I feel compelled to offer them some refreshments.

Meanwhile, making small talk with them is sheer torture because I feel so uncomfortable in this woman's presence. I can hardly look at her at my husband's side without wanting to burst into tears.

It seems an eternity until they take my children and leave. They sometimes come back "early," and again they are all at my door, expecting to be invited in. These visits are a terrible strain for me. I can't help how I feel, Abby. Am I wrong? How should I handle this?

STILL HURTING: DEAR STILL: Ask your lawyer to write your husband a letter suggesting that he either pick up the children alone, or leave his wife and stepchild in the car. You're not wrong. There's no reason why you should be cast in the role of an unwilling hostess.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

AARP Officers To Be Named Oct. 1

High-Stakes Lottery Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a high-stakes match with the Justice Department, the states with lotteries have sent officials to defend the legality of their multimillion-dollar games.

Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe summoned representatives of the 13 states to a department conference today to discuss what he intends to do about possible state violations of federal antilottery statutes.

SPREADING

The session caps a three-month-long department review begun after a federal prosecutor threatened to file a lawsuit to halt the Maine lottery.

Department officials say the issue turns on the interstate aspects of state-operated lotteries. In creative revenue producers that began in New Hampshire in 1964 and spread gradually from the East to the Midwest.

The government lawyers have been concerned about the distribution of lottery tickets into neighboring states where gambling is illegal.

Some department officials say Saxbe has been motivated in part by his insistence that the department enforce the laws fairly and without special favors. To ignore an apparent state violation of federal law could appear to be unfair, these officials suggest.

Saxbe's attention to the issue also was viewed as an effort to force Congress to decide whether the federal statutes should apply to state lotteries.

13 STATES

Legislation exempting state lotteries has been introduced in Congress, but there has been no push for quick action.

The department said last week that Saxbe is considering "civil action seeking a permanent injunction against the lotteries... unless remedial legislation is passed by Congress."

Million of dollars are at stake for the 13 states.

Walker Aims At Area Market For Imports

James Walker, owner of J. Walker Imports and Exports in the College Park Shopping Center, came to Big Spring last September stationed at Webb Air Force Base, and apparently he liked what he saw.

Walker, who has 12 years experience as a purchasing agent in the Air Force, was looking for a place to open his own import and export business when he retired, and he chose Big Spring.

The native of Detroit, Mich., said, "There are a number of reasons why I decided to stay in Big Spring and one of them is that there appears to be a need for a retail and wholesale outlet for imported items in this area."

While in the service, he established several contacts in Taiwan, Thailand, and the Philippines with manufacturers of import items and decided long before he retired this month that he wanted to open a business of his own in that field.

He was recently elected the president of the newly formed Webb-Spring Lions Club and is a member of the Chamber of Commerce public affairs committee.

In Walker's shop are items from Argentina, Philippines, Thailand, Taiwan, Africa, Ecuador, and France; including ornaments, furniture, clothes and a great many other things.

In addition to his retail operations, Walker imports merchandise for several area stores, including Prager's, Hemphill-Wells, Zack's, Head Post and Rene's Imports.

Some of his merchandise is bought by personal contact, but still other items are bought through the International Trade Show in Las Vegas which he recently attended.

There he met with merchants from West Germany and Japan.

His main objectives here in Big Spring are to establish a wholesale outlet for imported items throughout the Permian Basin, also to operate a gift shop.

FW Weighs Big Money Offer

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The city pondered a multimillion-dollar proposal today to convert the 1,200-acre Southwest Airport property into a vast development project.

A newly created and little-known firm, Airport Properties Inc., submitted the lone bid for the land, appraised privately at $50 million.

The firm proposed a 99-year lease at $5.5 million per year with an option to purchase the entire property for $108 million. Payment would be over a 20-year period at 9 per cent interest.

AMUSEMENT PARK

City council members, who will make the ultimate decision, indicated previously they favored selling the property outright.

The proposal by Airport Properties outlined plans for a permanent world's fair pavilion, a dome-shaped amusement park and cultural center, a transit system, a sports coliseum, a world trade distribution complex and industrial park, a "new world financial exchange center" and office facilities.

As spelled out by Rick Williamson, president of Airport Properties, more than a billion dollars would be poured into the development over the term of the lease.

Weighing Medical Care Ban

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A three-judge federal court panel is weighing a decision in a suit claiming Texas unconstitutionally bans layman-controlled medical care organizations.

The suit was filed a year and a half ago by six persons and three organizations against the Texas Board of Medical Examiners and the Texas secretary of state.

U.S. District Court Judges D. W. Suttle and John H. Wood Jr. and U.S. Circuit Court Judge Homer Thornberry heard arguments Wednesday before taking the case under advisement.

The Mexican-American Legal Defense and Education Fund claims that Texas law will not allow a non-profit group to hire a doctor.

The state argues that the health organization wanted to direct the doctor's practice and are not competent to make such decisions.

Wood dismissed the suit earlier and an appeals court upheld his ruling but ordered a hearing by a three-judge panel.

All Of Us

Today marks the formal beginning of the 1974 United Way campaign. Most of the major agencies of the community are supported in whole or in part by UW, and we wish that virtually all would get under this umbrella.

But the bulk of our services that represent the humanitarian conscience of the community are wrapped up in the success of the UW appeal. These are the activities that make this a place you want to live in, and without them we would have a pretty miserable town and county.

Most every one will agree that these are "good things" for us. Good for whom?

For all of us—businesses and individuals.

Then who should support the United Way? All of us! And that means the clerk, the bank president; the man with a shovel, the business operator; the teacher and the preacher; the doctor the lawyer; the media family, the industrial and utility workers. Everybody!

There is a fair way to do this. Give an hour's pay a month—if you make a little more, you give a little more because of this blessing; if you make less, you still do your part, but on a lesser scale.

The temptation for some will be to duck the issue and grumble about being pressured out of a few pennies; or worse still, to salve their conscience with a miserable luck or two. These agencies so essential to a vibrant community can't exist on that sort of support; and we can't have reality unless there is a unity of spirit that is willing to share—and fairly.

Thesis On Theses

With 35,000 doctoral dissertations being written each year, it shouldn't be surprising that the obvious subjects have been pretty well raked over and that scholars are being forced to devote their attention to the fine details of human knowledge.

Still some of the dissertations for which, people are earning degrees are rather strange sounding. Consider, for example, a "Study of Some Physical Chemical Factors Affecting Shrinkage of Ice Cream," whose author was awarded a Ph.D. by the University of Illinois.

It's one of a number recently dug up by the National Enquirer from the massive "Comprehensive Dissertation Index." Filling 37 volumes and more than 35,000 pages—and selling for $2,495—the index lists virtually every dissertation accepted by American universities since 1861.

Other examples of forgettable research, the less-trodden paths of scholarship: Purdue University conferred a Ph.D. for "Flavors and Quality Attributes of a Pre-Cooked, Wet-Chilled and Dry-Chilled Fried Chicken."

My Answer

Billy Graham

What, if any, is the moral obligation of an elderly Christian landlady who finds that her young woman tenant is having a lover in the apartment upstairs?

From a practical standpoint, I suppose the terms of your rental contract might dictate how you would handle it. In some documents, there are moral stipulations, and these could be properly invoked.

But now, you had better be sure of your accusations. Immoral conduct is sometimes a difficult charge to substantiate, and you might even run the risk of a counter-suit if your allegations were untrue.

As a Christian you are right, however, in objecting to the premissiveness which winks at fornication and indulges adultery. It is causing our society to disintegrate. You certainly have a right to tell the tenant of your concern, and, of course, you can just not renew the lease when it expires.

Since the Bible says the Christian is to be the "salt" of the earth, there is an obligation to penetrate society with the Gospel. It, of course, carries its own corrective influence. But the assertion of God's righteous standards is always to be done in love and understanding, and obviously within the framework of the laws of your community.

Sting Of Inflation

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — The sting of inflation was greatly relieved last year for the top executives of America's leading corporations through the application of higher salaries, bonuses and other contractual amounts of cash or stock.

A survey by a management consultant firm shows that the chief executives of 581 of the largest U.S. corporations received total compensation averaging 8.5 per cent higher than the previous year.

No less than 76 per cent of the 504 chief executives in office during both 1972 and 1973 received pay increases, said McKinsey & Co., which has conducted the survey for 20 years. Fourteen per cent took pay cuts. Ten per cent received the same pay. McKinsey attributed the glittering figures to "the heftiest profit increases in more than 20 years." Profits of the 581 companies soared 29.1 per cent and sales rose 20.7 per cent over the previous year.

But the survey revealed also that companies reporting profit declines were reluctant to lower the compensation of their chief executives. Among 82 showing lower profits, only 31 reduced the top man's compensation, and 37 awarded increases.

The highest average salaries for the biggest companies—those with more than $1 billion in sales—were in the pharmaceutical industry, where total compensation averaged $316,000. Following in order were soaps and cosmetics, $309,000, alcoholic beverages $294,000, diversified companies $268,000 and tobacco $266,000.

The lowest average compensation for chief executives was found in the meat products industry, at $132,000, retail food chains, $144,000 and apparel makers, $167,000. The average for all billion-dollar-plus industries was $223,000.

The word compensation was used by surveyors because executive pay comes in many forms besides salary. Most of the companies involved in the survey have long-term stock programs under which executives are awarded bonuses or provided with the opportunity to exercise options.

The Snub

WASHINGTON — The danger of continuing factionalism over economic policy within President Ford's official family, with the Treasury Department still in a distinctly secondary role, was grossly dramatized last week when Pierre Rinfret, a leading business economist, was summarily disinclined from the President's economic summit conference by decision of his staff.

WHAT MAKES THE snub to Rinfret inexplicable is the fact that President Ford himself had offered the invitation in a telephone conversation he had with Rinfret Aug. 25.

Moreover, according to informed White House officials, the President not only intended Rinfret to be included in the preliminary summit conference session of professional economists to be held Thursday, but also designated his Chief of Staff, Gen. Alexander Haig, as the presidential aide with whom Rinfret should keep in regular touch.

YET, THREE DAYS later — on Aug. 28 — Kenneth Rush, Richard Nixon's economic coordinator just named by Mr. Ford as chairman of the new Council on Wage and Price Stability, informed Rinfret there would be no invitation.

Rinfret, the president of Rinfret, Boston Associates, Inc., of New York, was accepting no calls from reporters on this bizarre and disturbing sequence of events. Yet, the snub threatens the White House with unpleasant political repercussions.

THE ORIGINAL SUGGESTION that the President consult Rinfret, one of the most successful business consultant-economists in the nation, came from none other than Rep. Wilbur Mills, the influential chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. It was Mills who told Mr. Ford that Rinfret could be counted on to provide the "unvarnished truth" on the economy, no matter how disagreeable and no matter how much in conflict with the President's official advisers. He also is a close friend of Secretary of Treasury William Simon.

Indeed, the flamboyant Rinfret is widely regarded as the Peck's bad boy in the esoteric world of economists. His slashing critiques of administration economic policy have sometimes drawn blood—but his record, particularly in the hapless years of Nixonomics, scarcely suffers in comparison to Nixon's stable of advisers.

IT WAS RINFRET who issued a private warning about Nixonomics to his high-paying industrial clients in July 1969 in a manifesto titled "We Accuse." Despite Rinfret's bold charge that the administration was "totally and utterly underestimating the inflationary bias in the economy," he continued to be used as a frequent Nixon adviser. Now, he's on the outside looking in.

What Others Say

In support of the people's right to an unimpeded flow of information, California law (Section 1070 of the Evidence Code) provides that newsmen cannot be adjudged in contempt by any court, the Legislature, or any administrative body for refusing to disclose the source of information procured for publication.

So far as it goes, this protection of confidential news sources has proved eminently useful. But it falls short of its obvious purpose in that it applies only to information that has been published, and leaves the way open for compulsory disclosure of information that newsmen gather or receive, but which is not published. A proposed measure simply amends Section 1070 to confer on unpublished information the same protection already accorded published information.

Eating And Tests

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My sister just found out that she has diabetes. Her doctor says all her children, also her brothers and sisters, should have the test.

When her daughter went for tests, she was told to eat a big breakfast, including sweets. My doctor told me to come without breakfast. Why the difference? Which doctor is right? — Mrs. E.S.

No reason to say that either doctor is wrong, because both can be right, and both types of tests are used in searching for cases of diabetes. Since there is a strong hereditary influence that affects diabetes, it is wise to test blood relatives of anyone with diabetes.

Your doctor obviously has in mind a "fasting blood sugar" test for you — to see what your blood sugar level is after not having eaten anything overnight. He may — or may not — follow it with a "sugar tolerance" test, meaning that he would give you a measured amount of sugar solution, and then take a series of tests over a period of three to six hours, to visualize the pattern in which your blood sugar rises and falls.

Your sister's daughter's doctor, on the other hand, evidently intends to start out with the more complicated sugar-tolerance test. For that test, the patient very often is instructed to eat a diet high in carbohydrates (starches and sugars) for three days prior to the test.

The sugar tolerance test gives more information than just the fasting blood sugar and can give evidence of hypoglycemia if it exists, whereas the fasting blood sugar will not disclose hypoglycemia unless the patient happens to be having an attack of it at that particular time — which would be a rather long coincidence.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: There seems to be some controversy over immunization of breast-fed babies, particularly the polio vaccine. I understand that the baby is immune for as long as he is nursed, and that the vaccine is ineffective while the baby is still being nursed. In my case, the doctor gives the vaccine routinely beginning at three months. As I am nursing, I am quite concerned as to whether this or any vaccine should be given until the baby is weaned. — C.N.

Polio vaccine is usually given at from two to three months, breast fed or not, and I see no reason for you to worry. Just follow your doctor's immunization schedule.

It is true that breast-fed babies have fewer infections in very early life, being given some degree of immunity by the mother's antibodies, but that does not mean total, absolute immunity from any disease, nor does it mean the baby cannot start developing his own antibodies (as from vaccination).

Never take a chance on diabetes! For a better understanding of this disease, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of his booklet, "Diabetes — The Sneaky Disease." Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents.

It's Simmering

WASHINGTON — Simmering on asking for a total of $4.5 billion in the back burner as the hard-pressed American arms. If they get the cooks in the State Department try to package they will feel they are; get a brief end-of-summer respite is strong enough to win any war with the Middle East stew. It will not be the Arabs.

simmer long; events just ahead promise to bring a stern confrontation with the delicate balance between an uncertain peace and still another war.

A PARADE OF Arab foreign ministers has just ended with the visit of Omar Saqqaf of Saudi Arabia. He is minister of state for foreign affairs since King Faisal retains the title of foreign minister.

Next week comes Prime Minister Itzhak Rabin of Israel who will have some plain words to convey to President Gerald Ford and Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. There is the crunch with the question hovering in the air as to what concessions Rabin's government is prepared to make to get peace negotiations with the Arabs moving.

A deep suspicion among those coping with a high volatile condition is that Israel would prefer to have no negotiations at all. Or at any rate the longer the delay the greater likelihood that the Israelis can simply stand pat. The fact that Kissinger announced Rabin's visit for early September caused great annoyance in Jerusalem since the hope had been to postpone it until November.

IN THE GLOOMY view of responsible officials a stand-pat position by Israel is likely to result in still another war. The Israelis are sympathetic understanding of Rabin's position. Succeeding Gold Meir who held the government together if only by the force of his remarkable personality, Rabin heads a coalition with only 61 vote out of the 120 in the Knesset.

Pressing hard on the right, opposed to any compromise is the Likud party with 38 votes and others in opposition are almost adamant.

AMBASSADOR TO Washington, beginning in 1968, Rabin came with a proud reputation as a brilliant military tactician. He is credited with a large share of the lightning victory in the 1967 war. An able, aggressive ambassador, he is quite well aware of the relationship between the ardent friends of Israel in this country and the needs of a nation of 3,000,000 living in a sea of more than 80,000,000 Arabs.

Received a sports envelope on my desk from Florida State WU., Tallahassee. The special fourth class material bore no contents inside. What happened?

Sophomore Tommy Churchwell is reported resting well after surgery Tuesday to repair torn knee ligaments. Tommy suffered the mishap in Monday's drill.

Tommy's room number is 218 at the Medical Center. Bob Burris, steer coach figures Tommy will remain there four or five days. "His doctor was pleased with the outcome of the operation."

The Steer camp received an additional boost Wednesday. Mike Harris who moved from Big Spring to Missouri last summer, is back.

Harris, 6-3, 180-pound sophomore, who plays split-end and strong safety has enrolled at Big Spring High. Burris remarked that Harris has to sit out the 30 day waiting period as set forth by UIL rules.

This will place Harris on the active list for the first 5-AAAA district game, Oct. 4. "Harris participated in spring drills last spring so he's no stranger," Burris added.

Harris runs exceptionally well and can run the 100 somewhere around the 10.1 or 10.2 second mark.

Don Green, Big Spring District School assistant business manager relates that season ticket sales are still on the up-swing. As of Wednesday's tabulation, 614 have purchased home Steer ducats compared to 589 last year.

Green further added, "We still have roughly 300 seats available in the select area of Section C on the west side between the 40 yard lines."

I sure hope we can have a sell-out crowd for the Steer home opener, Sept. 13. Ideas anyone?

There seems not too much interest in the Andrews game at press-time. Only 70 reserve tickets have been sold. But then Green voiced, "It is too early to tell how many really will attend. Some wait late Friday before deciding, the weather, etc. being the factor."

Green stated some just wait to buy tickets at the Andrews game.

All pre-game home football tickets whether home or away can be purchased at the school's business office until 2 p.m. of the day designated.

Basketball practice started Wednesday at Howard College. Harold Wilder, head coach intends to spend the next couple of weeks working his team on basic fundamentals.

The team is practically new with only four returnees back. Wilder added, "We will evaluate the first year arrivals to see how they will work in."

The Hawks have 30 games on the docket for 1973-74. First game is Nov. 12, at Galveston College, and the home opener, Nov. 18, Cisco.

Hunter Baffles (T) Rangers 1-0

OAKLAND (AP) — "It may have been my best game of the season," said Oakland A's pitcher Catfish Hunter after he blanked the Texas Rangers 3-0 for his 22nd victory of the season.

Thursday's four-hit triumph was a personal high for Hunter, who has won 21 games in each of the previous three seasons.

"He's the best pitcher in baseball right now," said Oakland Manager Alvin Dark. "When you have to win a game, he's the pitcher you want to pitch it."

Hunter retired 15 batters in a row starting in the fourth inning, and he faced only 29 in all. The righthander said he threw fast balls almost exclusively.

"It was my best pitch, so I just kept throwing it," he said.

The A's got only six hits off losing pitcher Jackie Brown, now 11-11. Oakland scored two runs in the third inning on a single by Ray Fosse, a sacrifice and consecutive singles by Bill North, Bert Campaneris and Reggie Jackson. The final run came in the fifth inning on a triple by Campaneris and a wild pitch.

Manager Billy Martin of the Rangers gave Hunter credit for pitching a fine game, but felt his pitcher did a better job.

"They scored their runs on a checked swing, a wild pitch and a ball off the glove of our second baseman," Martin said. "We hit the ball harder but right at their fielders."

The game was enlivened by a scuffle between Campaneris and Texas first baseman Mike Hargrove.

Hargrove claimed Hargrove tagged him too hard as he was returning to first base. Hargrove said Campaneris spiked him.

"Campaneris is picking up the wrong man," Martin warned. "He better stay away from him in the future."

Martin said he would be happy with a split of the four-game series with Oakland.

"Then we play them in our park and things will be different," he said.

The victory moved the A's 8½ games ahead of the second-place Rangers in the American League West.

The teams play again tonight with Dave Hamilton, 6-4, pitching for Oakland against Jim Bibby, 18-16.

Buffaloes Start Year At Home

FORSAN — The Forsan Buffaloes of Class B will feature only six seniors but list 14 lettermen on the roster.

Head coach Jack Woodley enters his fourth season assisted by George White and Bob Evans.

Forsan opens season play at 8 p.m. here Saturday against Stanton "B".

Lettermen are: seniors — Wesley Thixton, back, 138;

Donnie Croft, back, 160; Tim Yeats, center & guard, 181; Chris Johnson, guard, 181; and Gage Mims, guard, 148;

Woodley rates district teams Jayton, Bronte, and Hawley as strong competitors. Sterling City could emerge as the darkhorse.

The key to Forsan's offense will come under the direction of sophomore Ralph Miranda. The strong 140-pounder has good knowledge of the game and displays good ability.

Miranda switches "to left back on defense. Forsan's other backs, Croft, Soles and Thixton look true to form and Medlin and Tidwell are planted at wing back.

Stevens and Yeats boost the line with Mims, Storen and Johnson filling out rest of the interior wall.

VICTORIA, Tex. (AP) — Victoria is one step away from capturing the Texas League championship in its first year since taking over from the departed Memphis team.

The Toros whipped the El Paso Diablos 4-1 Thursday night to take a 2-0 lead in their best-of-five playoff series. Victoria is the East Division winner and El Paso represents the West Division.

Dwight Bernard pitched a four-hit Thursday with last-inning relief help from Nardi Contreras. Bernard led 4-0 going into the ninth inning but El Paso loaded the bases with one out before Contreras retired the last two batters. The run scored on a groundout.

City Golf Tourney Saturday

Pro Charles Brantley announces that the fairways at the City Golf course should be unusually busy Saturday.

This will be opening day of the City Championship Tournament sponsored by the Big Spring Golf Association. Final cards will be recorded Sunday by the city committee.

The defending champion is Jimmy Newsom. So far 20 entries have been received with the list expected to climb up around the 60 mark.

Anyone that is a resident of Howard County may enter. Eighteen holes will be played Saturday and 18 on Sunday with the exception of the championship flight, 27 holes on the final day.

Entrants on opening day will be allowed to make up their own foursome and may choose any tee-off time. Closing time is 4 p.m.

The city course opens each day at 8 a.m. First day's score may be improved by not more than six strokes.

Flight pairings will depend on the number of entries. Last year's bracket featured a championship and four other flights.

Entry fee is $10. Merchandise will be awarded in lieu of trophies.

SPORTS SHORTS

CINCINNATI (AP) — Roger Johnson, project supervisor of the $16 million Cincinnati Coliseum, said the shape of the structure will be clearly visible when the steel skeleton is completed Tuesday.

Johnson toured the construction site beside Riverfront Stadium with officials of the Cincinnati Hockey Club Corp. Tuesday.

The firm, whose Cincinnati Stingers will play in the World Hockey Association in 1975, is financing construction of the arena.

When completed in June, 1975, the arena will seat 16,804. More seats will be available with bleachers, Johnson said.

The Stingers are assigning their players to other WHL clubs or minor league teams until the arena is ready.

The Stingers said Thursday they have signed two college goal-keepers and assigned them to the Vancouver Blazers training camp.

They are John Kiely, from the University of Vermont, and Ned Yetten, from Boston College.

JV Stops Andrews

The Big Spring JVs scored early and hung on to nip Andrews 13-6, in the first game for both teams here Thursday evening.

Rick Morrow receipted for the first Shorthorn score with a nine-yard jaunt off right tackle in the second period. Greg Spears booted the P.T.

Later in the round, Phil Barber lofted a pass to Spears good for 60 yards and Big Spring's second score. The drive covered 96 yards in six plays. The try for point failed.

In the fourth, Andrews got on the board when Jesse Milsap raced 18 yards around end.

Big Spring made eight first downs to four for the visitors and blunted three Andrews drives with interceptions.

The locals made 103 yards rushing and added 184 passing on seven of 16 completions. They lost three of four fumbles, however.

In penalties, the Dogies had 115 yards, Andrews only 35. They punted twice but had one blocked and wound up with a 15-yard average.

Andrews punted three times for a 22-yard norm. Spears and Steve Hughes proved hard to bring down for Big Spring. Spears gained 145 yards rushing, Hughes 42. Losses at crucial times reduced the Big Spring total yardage, however.

Score by quarters: Big Spring 0 13 0 0-13 Andrews 0 0 0 6-6

ULCA, Tennessee To Be TV Viewed

By The Associated Press

"Only a few months ago I felt our biggest challenges this year would be our schedule and ourselves," says Ara Parseghian, coach of Notre Dame's defending national champions. Having come out second best against themselves, Notre Dame is about to begin its schedule. The Fighting Irish, third in The Associated Press preseason poll, meet Georgia Tech in Atlanta Monday night in a nationally televised game (ABC-TV, 9 p.m., EDT).

The college football season actually gets under way Saturday with a slim schedule of 20 games involving at least one major team. The national TV slate opens at 4 p.m., EDT, with 12th-ranked UCLA facing 16th-rated Tennessee in Knoxville.

North Carolina State, No. 18, begins defense of its Atlantic Coast Conference crown at Wake Forest while 15th-ranked Arizona State entertains No. 11 Houston in a night contest. New Mexico State is at Wichita State for a Missouri Valley Conference meeting.

The remainder of Saturday's schedule: East Tennessee State at Appalachian State, night; Dayton at Drake; Cal Poly, Pomona at Fresno State, night; Kent State at Central Michigan; Memphis State at Louisville, night; Mississippi at Tulane, night; William & Mary at Mississippi State, night; Northern Illinois at McNeese State, night; Oregon State at Syracuse; Sacramento State at Pacific, night; Villanova at Richmond; San Jose State at Santa Clara, night; Arkansas State at Southwestern Louisiana, night; Tampa at UT-Chattanooga, night; Texas-Arlington at Western Michigan.

Notre Dame's biggest concern is the secondary, where only Reggie Barnett returns. Bob Zanot and Tim Simon were lost with knee injuries in practice while Luther Bradley, one of last year's sensational freshmen, was one of six players suspended from school for breaking dormitory rules.

Two other 1973 freshmen, defensive ends Ross Browner and Willie Gilliam completed 10 of 18 passes for 187 yards in the first half of the nationally televised game and then turned the helm over to Bradshaw.

Bradshaw threw a 20-yard touchdown pass and yet a third Steeler quarterback, Terry Hanratty, completed a 30-yard scoring toss.

The victory gave Pittsburgh a perfect 6-0 preseason—the first time that's ever happened to the Steelers franchise.

Dallas finished with a 3-3 mark. Gilliam has sizzled during the exhibition season, completing 11 touchdown passes, an NFL high.

He came out smoking. On the fifth play of the game, he mailed a 56-yard shot to Ron Shanklin and later nailed Rookie John Stallworth with a 31-yarder.

Bradshaw's scoring pass went to Larry Brown and Hanratty's found the hands of Dave Davis.

Rookie Clint Longley was all Dallas had to brag about, completing touchdown passes of 44 yards to Les Strayhorn and 47 yards to Jean Fugett.

The Texas Stadium crowd of 41,321 booted starter Craig Morton off the field in the third quarter. Regular Coowboys quarterback Roger Staubach sat out the game with rib injuries.

A disgusted Dallas Coach Tom Landry had warm praise for Gilliam, saying, "He came into camp early and is throwing the ball well."

Steelers Blitz Cowboys 41-15

DALLAS (AP) — Jefferson Street Joe has finally made it to the big top.

Joe Gilliam, the third-year Pittsburgh quarterback from Tennessee State who has dwelled in Terry Bradshaw's shadow, got the official word Thursday night after a 41-15 National Football League preseason blitz of the Dallas Cowboys.

Pittsburgh Coach Chuck Noll said, "I'll go with Joe in the (regular season) opener with Baltimore. I'm not displeased with anybody but Joe has just been tremendous."

"Nobody on this team is No. 1 or No. 2. All 47 players contribute." Gilliam, who got his nickname from the street he lived on where he grew up in Nashville, Tenn., was euphoric in the Steelers' dressing room after his spectacular performance, which included touchdown passes of 56 and 31 yards.

"Great, just great," said Gilliam when he heard what Noll had to say. "All I've ever wanted was the opportunity to be the starter."

First Round Tourney Tie

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — Veteran Jim Ferriell went back to his old swing while rookie Lynn Lot got into the swing for the first time as the two found themselves locked in a tie for the lead entering today's second round of the $100,000 Southern Open Golf Tournament.

"I've gone back to my old swing of last year," said Ferriell Thursday after shooting a three-under-par 67, which included six birdies and three bogeys. The 32-year-old Louisville, Ky., native, a touring pro since 1969, has earned just $12,000 this year in addition to missing the cut or failing to qualify in 17 of his last 21 starts.

Pepper Rodgers, Georgia Tech's new coach, isn't having any of that. "Notre Dame's losing those people is like the man with $10 million who lost a million dollars," Rodgers says. "He's still got $9 million left."

The Irish don't know too much about Georgia Tech, but they are well aware that Rodgers' UCLA team knocked off Nebraska, another defending national champion, in the 1972 open.

Five area churches are celebrating special events THIS Sunday. The Ackerly Methodist Church is celebrating a 50th anniversary and St. Paul's Presbyterian is planning a Fall Festival. Ackerly Methodist was organized May 4, 1924. This initial service was directed by the Rev. Aubry Ashley who served the church the rest of this conference year, this first meeting was held in an unfinished residence which became the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Greene. After this initial meeting the services were held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ingram, until the church was built in the fall of 1924. The building was erected under the leadership of Rev. Ashley.

Soapy and Suzie Now Eye Tour To Europe

Soapy and Suzie Dollar are taking another step in faith — a stride they hope will lead them to an opportunity of new Christian witness in Europe.

They have been visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Mel Murphree, 3202 Auburn. Mrs. Dollar, the former Suzanne Ward of Amarillo, is a sister of Mrs. Murphree.

The two Dollars are engaged in raising $6,000 for their preliminary four-months training, transportation, moving expenses, etc. to put them on the field in Brussels, Belgium. From there they will tour Europe for the next three years as part of "The Forerunners" singing group, evangelizing and then training converts.

They have been on the University of New Mexico campus at Albuquerque, N.M. for the past two seasons as part of Campus Crusade, an international organization created by Dr. Bill Bright of Lake Arrowhead, Calif., where they will take their pre-Europe training.

Their ministry there has been more than a witness to Christ — under the most unorthodox circumstances — for it has involved training of new Christians also to become winning Christians.

"We've seen young people accept Christ in every imaginable place, from the campus mall to restrooms," said Soapy. Once he and Suzie stopped at a service station and won the operator, who was a "fence" for stolen tape decks. When his sources showed up afterwards with a new supply, he turned them away.

While with Campus Crusade at the University of Michigan, Suzie got a frantic call from a young divorcee who had reached the end of her rope. In desperation, she ran down the phone directory and came on the words "Christ in Campus Crusade." What Suzie had to share was precisely what the young woman needed. When the Dollars were married two years ago Sept. 2, she sent a generous wedding present in gratitude.

"Young people are searching," said Soapy. "They're asking questions, but getting them to commit to the answer is the difficult thing. Still, what we have seen and felt is terribly exciting."

Soapy is sure he is the only full-blood Apache in the foreign mission field. Orphaned when a small lad, Newman F. Dollar got his name when he showed up at his first meal at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch with soap behind his ears. He became Christian there, graduated from West Texas State University in Canyon and was youth director at Fairview Baptist Church in Amarillo.

This was Suzie's home church, and she met him while visiting, and was attracted by his dynamic personality and dedication. Soapy had taken a group from his church to Campus Crusade's "Explo '72" in Dallas. He and Suzie felt this offered their greatest opportunity, and they launched out faith, each year raising enough for Crusade to sustain their ministry. Their needs in Europe are

Marathon Held

Marathon is a word which evokes a wide range of events in the mind's eye—from the famous Greek foot race to the dances of the twenties. One seldom considered, however, is a Bible-reading marathon. Two such Bible read-ins have been the subject of some interest in England in recent months.

A continuous public reading of the entire Bible took place at Easter in Millmead Centre in Guilford, England, from 9 p.m. Sunday to 5 p.m. the following Thursday. This Bible marathon was organized by the Guilford Baptist Church, which has an average congregation of 600 people and is known as Millmead Centre.

The Bromley Bible marathon was a launching point for an evangelistic outreach campaign begun the next day

Name Omitted

In the history of the First Methodist Church carried in last Friday's Herald, the historian inadvertently missed the name of the Rev. Ben Hardy as one of the pastors. The Rev. Hardy, who served between the Rev. D.B. Doak and Rev. M. Phelan, was here around and after 1920 and was one of the church's most beloved pastors. A son, Dr. W.B. Hardy, has been a resident of Big Spring since his father came here as pastor.

THE CHURCH OF ACTS 29:1
The Whole Gospel

time out for GOD

How embarrassing to recognize a person's face but be unable to recall his name! It happens to most of us occasionally. God always knows us. His eye is always open to see us. His ear is always open to hear us. We can enjoy His acquaintance daily.

We can enjoy the Presence of God in a special way when we attend church. When we turn our attention fully upon Him, when we elevate our thinking to those matters which hold eternal value, God speaks in the warmest of tones.

Yes, God knows us. He calls us by name. He never forgets.

Airborne UW Drive Not One Of Endurance

The 1974-75 Howard County United Way campaign is airborne and will seek a mileage rather than endurance record. Campaign chairman W. S. (Dub) Pearson, meeting with an estimated 35 division leaders and team captains for a "kickoff breakfast" at the Settles Hotel this morning, again reminded his listeners that he hoped the $121,777 goal could be reached before Nov. 1.

J. D. Nelson, the UW president, spoke briefly, underlined Pearson's statements, adding: "You know the job we have to do." Nelson also quipped: "You have seven or eight days."

George Zacharias, who coordinates the UW campaign from a downtown office, had pledge cards and campaign literature ready for the workers when they arrived.

Zacharias said workers would not be asked to attend periodic meetings but appealed to them to keep his office abreast of developments in the drive.

Pearson urged the workers to "hit the ground running. Let's wind this thing up in a hurry."

A United Way film, "Little Boy Lost," featuring David Jansen, Joan Pettitt and Greg Morris, was shown the group and will be made available to any group or service club requesting it. The movie short does not strain for credibility, since its leading roles were assumed by some of the television industry's best-known stars.

Women participating in the drive were to meet for a coffee at the home of Mrs. Jerry Snodgrass, chairman, at 10:30 o'clock this morning for a final briefing.

The money sought in this year's figure, when a boost of $4,637 over last year's figure, with $119,573.18 was pledged. That amounts to 1.8 per cent increase.

The Holiday Inn and First Federal Savings and Loan are among firms which have volunteered to make the public aware of the drive through signs on premises. First reports on the campaign are due to reach the UW office within a matter of days.
