Congressman's Ex-Wife, Dallas Man Shot Down

VETERANS SALUTED — Lucy Piper, 18, and her step-grandfather, a "Doughboy" during World War I, salute veterans from all wars. A. E. (Preach) True and Lucy are posing on the steps of the Veterans Administration Hospital where the local observance was held. Federal employees celebrated Veterans Day with a holiday.

DALLAS (AP) — A 65-year-old Dallas man was expected to be charged with two counts of murder today in the shooting deaths of Lucille Lynn Alger, the ex-wife of former Dallas congressman Bruce Alger, and another man.

Mrs. Alger, who divorced her husband in 1961, and Kenneth Ray Steele, 40, were shot to death at Steel's home early Sunday. Mrs. Alger, 52, was shot three times in the face and neck with a .25 caliber automatic pistol.

$30,000 BONO

The man arrested was described by police as a friend of Mrs. Alger. He was arraigned and held in lieu of $30,000 bond.

Police said Mrs. Alger, a former model, and Steel were sitting in the living room watching television with Steele's daughter, Theresa, 19, and Glen Miller,

The man being held and a friend of his W. W. Bobo, were admitted to the home about midnight.

Miss Steele told police Mrs. Alger and the man began arguing. Miss Steele said she was going to call police and left for a neighbor's home to use the telephone.

SURRENDERS

Police quoted Miller as saying the man then pulled a pistol from his pocket, walked across the room, leaned down and shoved the gun into Mrs. Alger's face, firing three times.

Miller said Steele jumped up and tried to run for the kitchen but the man turned and fired two shots, killing Steele.

Bobo told police he then knocked the gun out of the man's hand. The man left the house and later surrendered at the Dallas County sheriff's office.

'A POLITICAL WIDOW'

Mrs. Alger was granted an uncontested divorce from her husband who was first elected to Congress from Dallas in 1954. For years he was the only Republican congressman from Texas. Alger was defeated for reelection after serving 10 years.

At the time of the divorce, Mrs. Alger described herself as "a political widow."

"Mr. Alger has said many times that he would give up his family before he would give up his job in Washington," she said at the time.

Their marital problems stemmed from the fact that Republicans were grooming her husband for the vice presidency, she said, and party leaders "didn't think I had enough education and family background to be a vice president's wife."

The couple had three children, but one of them, 15-year-old David, died in 1964 in an auto accident in Bethesda, Md.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP)— The political trust run by the AFL-CIO has spent $1.4 million on politics this year, its latest campaign finance reports show. The national trust run by the American Medical Association has spent $792,697 in the same period, and its 38 state committees have spent additional sums. The United Auto Workers union has spent $763,395 this year for political donations. These were the largest totals spotted in a review of the latest campaign finance reports, which arrived in Washington last week. The reports cover the period between Sept. 1 and Oct. 14, and give totals for the year so far.

ABOARD AIR FORCE ONE (AP) — President Ford says an embargo on foreign oil imports might be necessary to help solve the nation's energy problems. But he says it would take "an international crisis of major proportions" to convince him that wage and price controls were needed for the economy. To improve national morale, Americans must overcome "self-destruct" feelings, Ford said. The President spoke for an hour in an exclusive interview with AP Special Correspondent Saul Pett a week ago tonight on the return trip from his visit to Mexico.

WASHINGTON — Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says wage and price controls will be needed before the nation's economic problems are solved, but Treasury Secretary William E. Simon says improvement will begin to show by spring. Both were interviewed on separate television news interview programs Sunday.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford is being urged to scrap the maze of federal public-assistance programs in favor of a proposed new welfare program guaranteeing poor families a minimum annual income of $3,600. Named the Income Supplement Program, the plan was developed over the last year in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and has been circulating within the President's Cabinet the last three weeks.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Indira Gandhi gave Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger a frosty reception at the start of his visit to mend relations between the United States and India. But both agreed today that those relations are "on the way up."

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — An impasse over the rival claims of Jordan and the Palestine Liberation Organization to future control of the West Bank of the Jordan river is blocking discussion of other matters at the Arab summit conference. No compromise appears likely.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon will probably undergo surgery for his plebeitis if tests scheduled this week show new clots forming in his leg, the former president's physician says. Dr. John C. Lungren also told a news conference here Sunday that Nixon eventually will be available to testify in the trials of his former aides charged in connection with the Watergate affair.

Convicts Largest Grab Of Bogus Keep 17 Hostages Money In U.S. History

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Police today installed a field telephone link with a prison chapel where four armed inmates held 17 persons hostage. The Dutch cabinet met in special session on the case, but a lengthy ordeal appeared in prospect. The rebellious convicts, who include a convicted Palestinian airplane hijacker, asked for and were given coffee and a coat for an 11-year-old boy hostage. But the Justice Ministry said there were no real negotiations under way more than 40 hours after the drama began.

On Sunday, the four released a man, a woman and three children from the 22 hostages they took when they interrupted a Saturday night Mass at the chapel of Scheveningen Penitentiary. Dutch authorities were holding out on negotiations until the convicts released two more women and the boy, leaving as hostages only male members of a volunteer civilian choir.

Prison officials already had delivered food, mattresses, pillows, blankets and three decks of cards into the chapel. They said most of those inside appeared to have slept until 5 a.m. today, when the convicts asked for the coffee and clothes.

A Justice Ministry spokesman said it appeared from radio contacts that relations among the convicts were good despite language difficulties. In addition to the Arab, they are two Dutchmen and an Algerian.

The gunmen had complained of poor reception on walkie-talkie radios they took from two captive wardens. At one point, police used a megaphone. They also were supplied with Dutch newspapers.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Secret Service agents have confiscated more than $8 million worth of bogus but realistic $100 bills in what they called the largest seizure of counterfeit money in U.S. history.

Four men were arrested Sunday and booked for investigation of manufacturing and possession of counterfeit money, said Robert E. Powis, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles office of the Secret Service.

ROCKY FACES QUIZ

Loaned $507,656 To Personal Friends

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President designate Nelson A. Rockefeller said today he has made loans of $507,656 to personal friends, business associates or relatives over the past 17 years.

Rockefeller disclosed the information in letters to Chairman Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., of the Senate Rules Committee and Chairman Peter W. Rodino, D-N.J., of the House Judiciary Committee.

The former New York governor is scheduled to testify before the Senate committee Nov. 13 on his earlier disclosures of nearly $2 million in gifts to public officials and staff aides during his 15 years in Albany.

The Judiciary Committee is to conduct hearings on President Ford's vice presidential nominee after the Senate panel has completed its probe.

The committee chairmen had requested a listing of Rockefeller's loans between 1957 and 1967 but Rockefeller said he was including all loans made from 1957 through Oct. 1, 1974.

"Virtually all of these loans were made to close personal friends, associates or members of my family," Rockefeller said.

Susan Hayward Out Of Hospital

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Academy Award-winning actress Susan Hayward has been released from Emory University Hospital and is returning to her home in California, a hospital spokesman says.

Miss Hayward, 55, has been hospitalized since early October and sources say she has been undergoing non-surgical treatment for a brain tumor. Her physician, Dr. George Tindall, has refused to disclose the results of a brain biopsy last July.

Ford Salutes Silent Heroes

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford, in a Veterans Day address today, saluted "the silent heroes" of Vietnam and urged Americans to "strengthen our resolve to always walk the extra mile for peace ... strong and unafraid."

Without amighty America no peace can long survive," Ford said in wreath laying ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery.

STANDING near the Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers and looking over a green hillside dotted with white markers bearing the names of war dead, Ford said, "Let us make sure the debt we owe to so many is honored."

He singled out Vietnam veterans, saying, "they served in spite of the most difficult psychological pressures ... at a time when many of their peers and elders were denouncing service to one's country as immoral."

"They served while some avoided service," the President continued. "They served without the full moral support that this nation has usually given its fighting forces."

PLEDGE

"They are the silent heroes of their generation ... I intend to see that the silent heroes, the more than 6 1/2 million Americans who served their country in the Vietnam era with quiet courage, are not forgotten," Ford said.

To the families and friends of men still missing in action, Ford said, "I make this pledge: I will do everything possible to resolve the uncertainty of their status."

REAL PROBLEMS

The President said important progress is being made in reducing the number of Vietnam veterans without jobs. He said a governmental task force has proposed an action plan to hire into the government at least 70,000 Vietnam veterans during the current fiscal year.

He said he has studied a report to him on Veterans Administration hospitals made public Saturday "and I am frank to admit that real problems exist."

Ford drove across the Potomac River to Arlington on what was, for him, a relatively quiet day.

Tower Jumper

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — University of Texas campus police reported today that a man jumped from the school's 27-story administration building.

No other details were immediately available.

Eight persons have died in jumps or falls from the building since its construction in the 1930s.

Charles Whitman used the 231-foot-high observation deck of the tower from which to shoot most of his victims on Aug. 1, 1966. Counting Whitman, slain by police after 90 minutes, 17 died and 31 were wounded in that tragedy.

More Rain Soaks Area, Keeps Lakes Gaining

More belated autumn thundershowers added to bountiful moisture reserves Sunday and early Monday.

They also kept many streams running, increasing storage in major reservoirs.

Big Spring reported amounts ranging from .60 to .70 with the U.S. Experiment Farm reporting .54 of an inch to be added to .24 for the previous 24 hours. Southwestern Big Spring had .60, but Bill Cregar measure 1.1 inches at Elbow from Sunday afternoon and evening showers. To the southeast of this point, Forsan Well Service measured 1.5 inches.

Mrs. J. T. Couch reported .6 at Luther and the Rich Anderson ranch in southwestern Borden measured .5 of an inch. Ackerly had .5 of an inch. Across Howard County on the north line, the Wilson ranches measured .9 of an inch.

Texas Electric Service reported .60 of an inch at Big Spring, .87 at Lake Colorado City, 2.0 at its substation in eastern Colorado City and .94 of an inch at Sweetwater.

In eastern Howard, Coahoma reported 1.0, and Walsh & Watts oilfield unit 1.3 inches and Moss Creek Lake an unconfirmed 2.0 inches.

Snyder had .51 of an inch in relatively slow showers.

The Colorado River Municipal Water District reported .70 at its pump station at the north edge of town. Lake Thomas, with .80 of an inch, remained constant at elevation 2222.56, a .75 of a foot gain for the week, but the Colorado River was running a foot deep at the Big Spring-Gail crossing and was slowly rising.

The river was up at the diversion works at Colorado City and was spilling. Downstream, Lake Spence reported 2.0 at the dam and .80 at the Big Spring intake four miles upstream. The lake was at elevation 1864.81, an increase of .78 over Sunday. It contained 160,400 acre feet, and is due to increase this since officials figured it is bound to go past 1865.00. In the past seven days, the lake has come up 2.31 feet.

WATCHING PRESS RUN — These were a few of the more than 1,500 people who visited the Herald's open house Sunday. The plant has been completely remodeled and renovated and the production department has been converted from the hot-type process to modern offset with computerized, electronic photographic-type machines. There was a constant flow of people from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. W. S. (Dub) Pearson, publisher, said

"We are overwhelmed by the response to our invitation. It is both a satisfying experience and a challenging one to know so many people are interested in the Herald and its role in area affairs. As in the past 70 years, we pledge to live up to our responsibility as a community and a family newspaper."

CAMPUS CAPERS

Rice Owls To Chase Birds?

HOUSTON (AP) — Rice University may use owls — the bird-type, not the football team — to scare away the hordes of crows due back at the campus soon for winter roosting.

Johnson became interested in the mystifying crows last winter and began trying to find out why hordes of them — two to five million in some years — chose the Rice campus for a roost.

Other projects planned for the winter in an effort to get rid of the birds include the pruning of campus oaks to discourage roosting and the use of a helicopter to drop plastic nets over about 20 trees so the birds cannot alight.

$4.3 MILLION

Charge Guard In Big Heist

CHICAGO (AP) — A security guard was to be arraigned today on bank robbery charges in the theft of $4.3 million in cash from a Chicago security firm.

He had been sought by federal and local authorities since Friday when a federal warrant was issued for his arrest.

Ralph Ronald Marrera, 31, an employee of the Puroator Security Co. Inc., parent firm of the Armored Express Corp., allegedly failed a lie detector test in connection with the robbery. He was arrested Sunday by Chicago police in a suburban home of relatives.

Marrera was the only guard on duty when thieves took more than $4 million — weighing about 700 pounds — out of an Armored Express vault Oct. 20. Another $21 million was left behind because the thieves apparently lacked either the manpower or the time to remove it, authorities speculated.

Cops About To Get Out Of Bell Phone Inquiry

DALLAS (AP) — It is unlikely that Dallas police will probe further into the Oct. 17 death of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. executive T. O. Gravitt, Lt. Charles Burnley said Sunday.

Gravitt, 51, was found dead of carbon monoxide poisoning at his North Dallas home while a sweeping internal audit was being made of financial and other records at Bell's offices in Dallas and San Antonio. A top level San Antonio executive has been suspended.

"We went out to his neighborhood later and conducted an investigation," Burnley said, adding that the inquiry was routine. Gravitt was vice president in charge of about 30,000 Bell employees in Texas. He was transferred to Dallas from San Antonio in May 1973 as the latest in a series of promotions.

Although a formal medical ruling on the cause of death still is awaited, the officer said investigators are convinced that the death of Gravitt, head of Bell operations in Texas, is considered a case of suicide.

"I'd say there isn't much chance his (Gravitt's) death is anything but a suicide," said Burnley, who acknowledged police had entered the investigation late. "Our investigation may have been affected a little by that (late arrival) but not much."

Bell officials have had little to say of their investigation except that a team of auditors from the company's St. Louis headquarters is probing financial records and taking statements from Bell employees regarding what they say are irregularities in expense accounts and kickbacks on contracts.

Burnley said the body of Gravitt, found in his closed garage with the engine of a car running, was taken to Presbyterian Hospital and the incident was recorded there as a "sick person."

Police subsequently were notified by firemen that Gravitt had died at home under unusual circumstances.

Answer Claims Court Lacking Jurisdiction

The City of Big Spring, Howard County and the Big Spring Independent School district claim that federal court lacks jurisdiction on the lawsuit filed against them by Flato Realty Investments in connection with the tax value set on the Permian Building here.

The original complaint of the defendant's has been sent to federal court by James M. Gregg, city attorney. The answer claims that the court lacks jurisdiction because the amount actually in controversy is less than $10,000.

They're Mining Streams Again

MARYSVILLE, Calif. (AP) — Californians seeking their fortunes in the streams of the Mother Lode Country are growing in numbers.

California's first industry has now become its newest hobby. So far this season the state has issued 4,400 permits to use gasoline-powered suction dredges on its streams, nearly twice as many as issued last year.

Most of the present-day gold miners work the gold-bearing gravel deposits called "placers" that accumulate in slow parts of mountain streams.

Fight Looms Over Proposed State Utility Commission

FORT WORTH (AP) — Delegates to the Texas Municipal League's annual meeting are warming up for a fight on whether Texas needs a state utility commission.

knowledge, telephone companies are faced with a curtailment of construction programs.

—Support for the state commission is based on the assumption that such a commission would result in better service and lower rates.

The TML resolution committee approved 31-17 a resolution Saturday opposing such a commission. It was proposed by the City of Midland. It will be presented to the membership Tuesday.

—Good utility services depends upon efficient operation and the ability to raise money and expand facilities.

—The trend in states with regulatory commissioners has been a lowering of utility bond ratings and a decrease in utility stock value due to unnecessary and unrealistic restrictions imposed by such commissions.

The committee voted down by the same margin a resolution calling for state regulation on a local option basis.

General Telephone has offered and will continue to offer what it thinks is a reasonable solution to part of the problem, Beck said.

—That is after we have made a presentation of our request to repeal our services, that we be allowed to put these rates in under bond and then when the matter has been finally resolved between the company and the regulatory body and resulting differences ... would be refunded to the customers."

TML directors tabled 21-8 a similar resolution calling for state regulations with local option. It was offered by Houston Mayor Fred Hofheinz.

—The internally generated funds are just not enough to maintain the level of these programs.

The approved resolution opposing state regulation on either a mandatory or local option basis noted that:

Joe Pirtle, chairman of Concerned Citizens for Utility Regulation (CONCUR), heavily criticized the TML resolutions committee and the directors for their actions on the resolutions.

Howard College girls won second place in team standings at the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association competition at Sul Ross University during the weekend.

Lisa Jo Mann won barrel racing with a 17.5 record, Carolyn Roan was second with 17.8, and Kay Proctor third with 18.2. Eastern New Mexico, however, won first place in over-all events, as did the ENMU boy's team.

CONCUR consists of the cities of El Lago, League City, Nassau Bay, Seabrook, Stafford and Webster—all south of Houston—and seeks to enlist support for a state commission.

Raleigh McCullough with a 66 placed sixth in bullriding, and Olen Rust captured sixth place in steer wrestling.

Pirtle said support for state regulation is building, and listed Gov. Bill Hobby, House Speaker Price Daniel Jr., Common Cause and organized labor as on his side.

But, Beck said, it will oppose any legislation that would "be oppressive and stifle the viability of utilities."

"There is no way that a utility can maintain its viability without adequate rates. Unfortunately, as long as we're in a period of high inflation and tight money, it means that the telephone utilities will have shorter and shorter intervals between rate case applications.

To Equalize Oil Prices

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — A program to equalize oil prices throughout the country will be announced by the Ford administration on Tuesday, according to Rep. Robert H. Steele.

The Connecticut Republican said that Treasury Secretary William E. Simon told him that the new program will go into effect Dec. 1.

Steele said utility customers in states that are dependent on high-priced foreign oil have higher bills because of that dependence.

Under the new system, he said oil importers can purchase tickets to buy price-controlled domestic oil at $5.25 per barrel. The tickets can be sold to domestic oil refiners who are now dependent on either high-priced domestic or foreign oil, he said.

The system would enable refiners to buy some oil at between $2 and $3 less per barrel than the current price, he said.

El Paso Escapee Slain By Police, Hostage Hit

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — A convicted murderer, who along with two others escaped the El Paso County jail late Saturday, was slain by state troopers less than 24 hours later.

A hostage was wounded. A Department of Public Safety spokesman said Edsel Venice Heslip, 26, of Detroit, Mich., was shot and killed early Sunday afternoon trying to elude a roadblock on Interstate 10 about 30 miles southeast of this border city.

ROAD BLOCK
The DPS said Heslip and his hostage, Frank Edwin Lawry, 64, of El Paso, approached the roadblock in an old pickup truck driven by Lawry.

As the truck came in sight of the roadblock, it suddenly made a U-turn across the median and sped away.

State troopers gave chase and caught it about two miles away. In the ensuing gunbattle, Heslip was killed and Lawry was wounded in the knee, the DPS said.

Lawry was reported in fair condition at an El Paso hospital.

Heslip, James Robert Haines of Denver, Colo., and Frank Eugene Gannage Jr. of El Paso, escaped from the maximum security portion of the county courthouse complex about 4:25 p.m. by threatening a guard with a knife fashioned from a screwdriver. Heslip had appeared in court only a few days before and had civilian clothes in his cell, officers said.

The prisoners apparently hoodwinked the jailer on the first floor into opening the necessary doors and the trio walked out with the jailer.

The escapees left the bewildered jailer outside. At that point, Haines left the other two and was captured shortly thereafter. Gannage and Heslip tried to rob two men in a parking lot about a block from the jail and the four struggled.

News of Big Spring Business and Industry

4-A Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Mon. Oct. 28, 1974

It's A Good Time To Save; Call Big Spring Savings Now

If there ever was a time when savings was important, it is now. Big Spring Savings officials join the nation in stressing the importance of individual savings at this time.

Jack Worsham, president, reminded customers and prospective customers that Big Spring pays as large an interest rate as is permitted by law.

Big Spring Savings is a home-owned operation and is particularly interested in Big Spring. They suggest that you contact them when you want to build or improve your home or business.

Worsham stressed the importance of systematic and regular saving but commented that spasmodic saving is better than none at all.

"The important thing is to remember in these days of economic frustration is that any type of savings program will be of immense benefit to the individuals."

Because they are interested in the betterment of Big Spring and Big Spring citizens, the staff at Big Spring Savings urges you to drop by their business at 604 Main and begin a savings account today. Or add to your present account.

Or call them at 267-7443 and ask for information on their savings plans.

Bit Lighter Toll Of Violent Deaths

By The Associated Press

Although mild weather encouraged motor travel, Texas counted a somewhat lighter toll of violent deaths during the weekend.

A late report put the tragic count at 17 fatalities, including 10 in accidents on streets and highways, plus seven homicides.

The toll was recorded between 7 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

These were among the victims:

The ex-wife of former Dallas congressman Bruce Alger, Lucille Lynn Alger, 51, and Kenneth Ray Steele, 40, were found slain in Steele's Dallas apartment early Sunday. Both were shot in the forehead. A 65-year-old man was taken into custody.

BANGS BRIDGE

State troopers shot and killed Edsel Venice Heslip as he tried to run a police roadblock southeast of El Paso. Heslip, convicted of murder, and two other prisoners escaped from the El Paso County jail Saturday afternoon.

Rollie D. Cannady, 53, of Huffman was killed Sunday when the van he was driving hit a bridge near Houston.

Jesse Ramirez, 23, was stabbed to death Sunday outside a Houston lounge. Police said the stabbing climaxed an argument.

George Logan, 17, of Dallas, was killed early Saturday when the car he was driving was in collision with another car.

Wesley Glen Ridges, 57, of Henderson, was killed Saturday when his car crashed head-on with another vehicle on Texas 322 12 miles south of Longview.

Kenneth R. Crawford, 38, of Pasadena was found dead Saturday night in the Houston area. Police said he was beaten and run over by a car, and robbery may have been the motive.

SHOT TO DEATH
James Earl King, 27, and Larry King, 17, both of Houston, were killed late Friday night near Freeport when they were struck by a car as they cast nets from a bridge.

Ignacio Rubio Jr., 28, of Houston was found shot to death on a street Saturday. Police said a witness told officers he heard a gunshot about five minutes after Rubio left his home with another man.

The bodies of Donald Lynn Hamner, 23, of Galena Park and Gene W. Gibson, 26, of Houston were pulled from their overturned pickup truck in Hunting Bayou Saturday. Police said both men had been in the water several hours.

A head-on collision of cars two miles west of Bellville Friday night killed the drivers of the automobiles, Gene Hervert Hegemeyer, 32, of Houston, and Fred Thielemann, 65, of Industry.

WILD PARTY

Douglas Roberts, 28, of Tyler died at a Dallas hospital Saturday after he was fatally wounded in what police said was an accidental shooting at a party.

A Dallas man, Wendell Hart, 33, was shot to death by a bandit early Saturday when he refused to hand over his money.

Veterans Day--When, Why?

By federal law, today is Veterans Day. But not everyone's heart will be in it.

As the Associated Press says, it is still caught in a pull between those who celebrate it and those who make money from it.

Since 1971, Veterans Day has been one of four federal Monday holidays, giving workers a three-day weekend. It is celebrated on the fourth Monday in October, which falls on the 28th this time.

Other such federal holidays are Memorial Day, set the last Monday in May; George Washington's birthday and Columbus Day.

Veterans organizations are lobbying Congress to move Veterans Day back to Nov. 11 once Armistice Day, marking the end of World War I. It was renamed Veterans Day in 1954.

Senate hearings to change the date were held this year. In the hearings, the chief opponent of a switch was a group formed for just such an occasion: the National Council for Monday Holidays.

The council is composed of associations representing major and charter airlines, bus and sightseeing companies, hotels, motels and the AFL-CIO restaurant, hotel and bartenders union.

A spokesman for the American Hotel-Motel Association, Jim Gaffigan, said: "Monday holidays are beneficial to industry. It's not in the best interest to switch back."

In the 23 years between World War I and World War II, Armistice Day was a widely celebrated and deeply felt national holiday. There have been three wars since, and the rank and file American cannot recall the closing dates of any of them.

V-E Day, ending hostilities in Europe, was May 7, 1945. V-J Day, ending the war with Japan, was Sept. 2, 1945, through Japan surrendered Aug. 14, 1945. The Korean armistice was signed July 27, 1953. The Vietnam cease-fire was signed Jan. 27, 1973.

Obviously, not all these armistices can be observed. Hence it was appropriate to designate one Veterans Day honoring those who served in all wars.

Nov. 11 comes closest to filling the latter requirement. And it seems a bit crass to contend for a different date that means nothing except to provide long and profitable weekends.

Shoe's On Other Foot

For weeks, that racially troubled city of Boston has been a state of upheaval as both black and white citizens have battled over whether their children should be bused in order to achieve racial balance in the city's schools.

While the idea of busing students past their nearest school for integration purposes is repugnant to many Americans, the great opposition to this practice has come mostly from residents of northern states during the past five years. While there was vocal and violent opposition throughout the South during the 1950s and 1960s, today integration is a real and accepted thing. It is unfortunate that while those necessary achievements were being made below the Mason-Dixon line, officials were not putting the same pressure on the rest of the nation to achieve similar balances.

It's ironic too, that Boston, once the cradle of abolition is the battleground of integration.

Mr. Nice Guy

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — minutes after President Ford's economic speech to Congress Oct. 8, a leading Republican summed up with this devastating inuendo the growing complaint about Mr. Ford's infant presidency:

"If only he had come up here acting like a President, instead of like just a former Congressman."

INDEED, THE criticism now besetting former Congressman Jerry Ford arises in large part because he is a power-hater bent on restoring the legislative branch to parity with the presidency. Almost everything he has done since taking office is calculated to end dangerous centralization of Oval Office power which reached its peak under Richard Nixon.

The new President is, therefore, in an agonizing dilemma. Critics want him to meet the national crisis with muscular leadership, which both contradicts his own instincts and runs counter to the easy-going style that won euphoric approval his first month in the White House.

GOING BEFORE a House Judiciary subcommittee to explain the Nixon pardon is a striking example. His decision was based partly on his abhorrence of Nixon's use of executive privilege to protect the White House from Congress. Yet, however noble the motivation, that decision is privately ridiculed in some quarters as demeaning to the presidency by the very same congressmen so affronted by Nixonism.

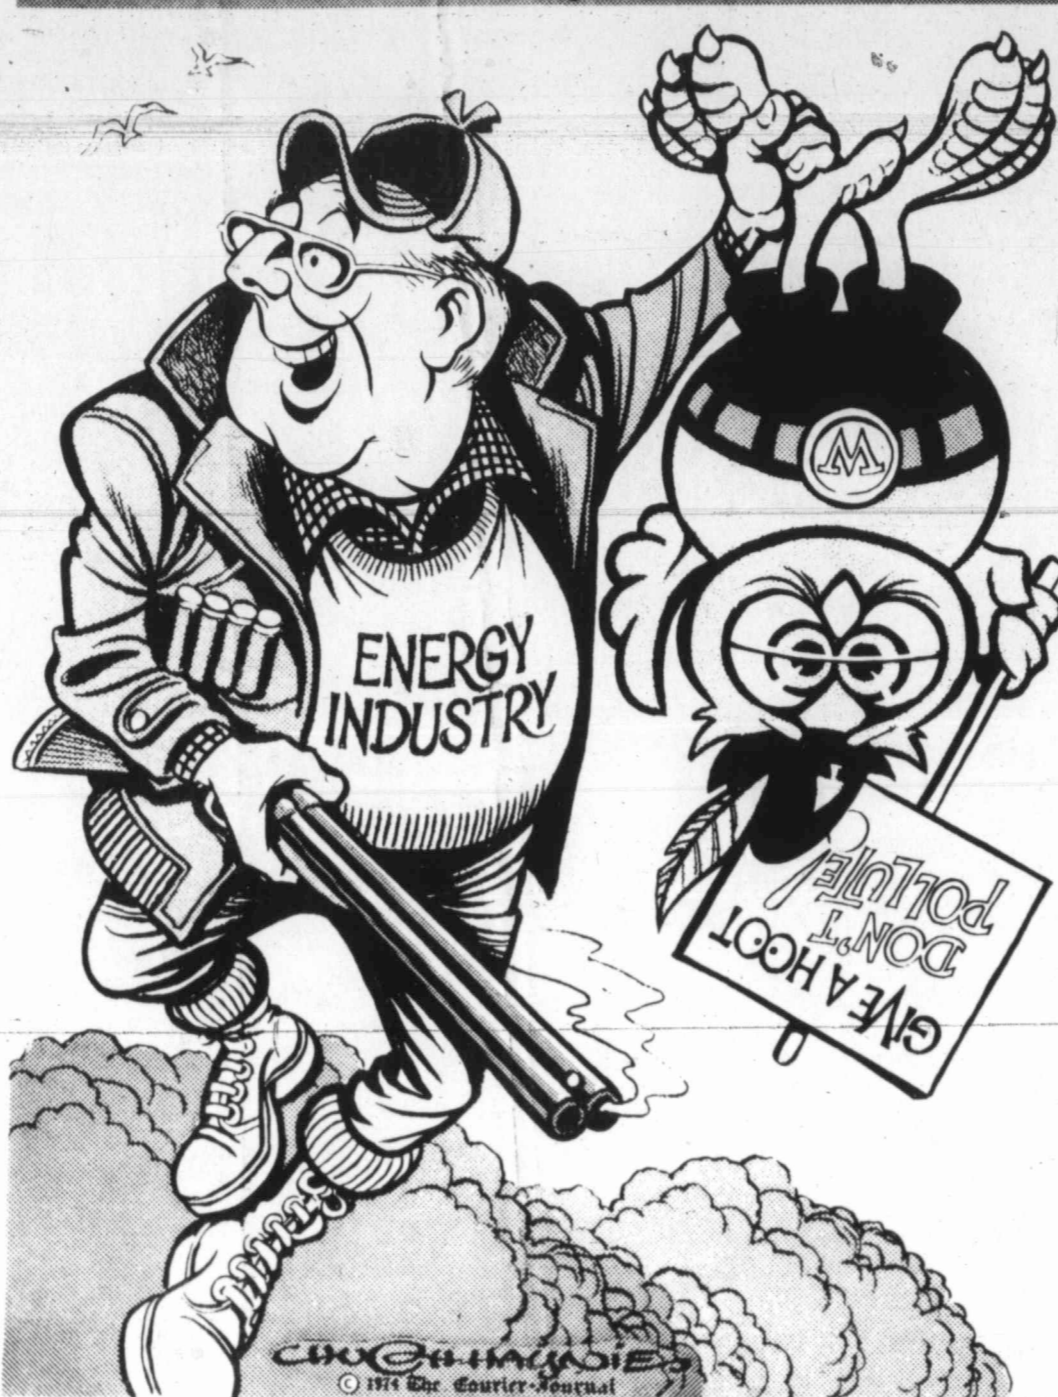

SIMILARLY, THE PRESIDENT'S extraordinary self-control in handling rough press conference questioning stems from that same decent desire to reduce the presidency to human dimension after Nixon royalism.

His harshest test—in turning the other cheek, he has said privately, came when reporter Clark Mollenhoff questioned his pardon of Nixon as "a lifelong friend and your financial benefactor." Controlling his impulse to lash out, he replied no, the pardon was "to heal the wounds throughout the country." Old friends wish the President had shown some anger.

HIS CLOSEST Republican allies now fear Mr. Ford may be reading national politics backwards. With the Western world on the edge of catastrophe and the U.S. facing its worst economic crisis since the Great Depression, voters want confident leadership able to make tough decisions, not a "Mr. Nice Guy" image in conscious contrast with a ruthless Nixon.

Even Republican candidates running behind today are questioning Mr. Ford's political wisdom in campaigning through 20 states. They feel he might do more for a lost cause by hard-nosed leadership from the Oval Office. Some of his own aides seem to agree.

But Mr. Ford sees his job as doing everything in his power to avoid calamity for his party (a motivation that seldom bothered Richard Nixon). Besides, he added, "I like campaigning."

Well off to the of taxidermist.

What Other's Say

In a hopeful footnote to Watergate, the Fair Campaign Practices Committee reports only half as many "dirty tricks" complaints in this election year as at the same time in 1972. The new United States campaign law omits a specific ban on dirty tricks. But politicians appear to be getting the message anyway, and from those who mean most to them—the voters.—CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

President Ford has given two reasons—one disingenuous and the other irrelevant—for justifying the subversive activities of the CIA in Chile.

Disingenuously, the President suggests the CIA money was given to opposition parties and newspapers because they were threatened by Allende's government. Yet opposition parties and newspapers, having flourished under Allende, disappeared under the military junta which followed. His second reason is even more lame—that Communist nations do it, so why shouldn't the U.S.

The purported reason for attempting to isolate Cuba has been because of Castro's support for subversion overseas. Now the U.S. has been caught in the same act, on a much grander scale, and against a democratically elected government.—THE GUARDIAN (England)

As a matter of fact, "gnu" is out, nowadays. The authors of crossword puzzles have given up on it. It's too trite even for them.

However, they have contrived to fill their little squares with enough words, mostly unknown in ordinary vocabularies, to make a monkey out of the English language. Indeed, so far out are many current definitions that whole dictionaries of crosswords are being published.

These books tell that Cleopatra's maid was Iris, that a Philippine buffalo is an anoa, that a Japanese sash is an obi, that an old card game was loo, and that an Indian is an Erie, a Ute, or Oto or Otee or even a Ree. One who has learned the lingo knows when to put in oboe, elmi, alo, ereca, emir or ameer, anil, aril...

Puzzle addicts just have to learn the new language. As in opening a safe, it's not hard when you know the combination.—BOSTON GLOBE

'Rhoda' Gets Hitched

By JAY SHARBUTT

NEW YORK (AP) — Backed by lots of hype, hoopla and promotional gas, Rhoda Morgenstern and boyfriend Joe finally got married tonight in a special one-hour "Rhoda" show on CBS.

The union may prove the highest-rated betrothal in TV history.

The show is importing from Minneapolis almost the entire cast of the "Mary Tyler Moore" show as wedding guests—Miss M., crusty Ed Asner, whimsical Gavin MacLeod, Cloris Leachman, the feine landlady, and Georgie Engels, Ted Knight's dim, but lovely, girlfriend.

LAUGHS

Alas, Ted won't be on hand, possibly because he laughs at weddings. Good Ted.

This wedding has a few laughs—or at least the prelims do—but 60 minutes is a long time to wait for occasional mirth. In the short form, "Rhoda" is crisply funny. In this form, it's a soggy, soggy do.

It starts with Rhoda—Valerie Harper—and Joe—David Grob—thinking of a quiet City Hall wedding. But as viewers know by now, Rhoda's mother—Nancy Walker, while tiny, is overbearing. And she changes the wedding plans, of course. She tells Rhoda she'd like the wedding held at her apartment and in fact already has invited some people over for a get-together.

"Before or after the wedding, mother?" Rhoda asks.

FUNNY LINES

Mom: During how many were invited?
 Mom: Not counting musicians—79.

All this leads to predictable last-minute tumult, heightened by the arrival of Miss Moore and Miss Engels, who were expected, and Asner, MacLeod and Miss Leachman, who weren't.

The only really funny lines come from Carlton, the spaced-out, never-seen doorman, and towards the end of the show from Rhoda, who is forced to take the subway to her wedding because of a friend's forgetfulness.

Most of the show seems strained, padded, or other. It's not up to the standards set in its previous 30-minute versions. After all the buildup, it seems a letdown.

"You're looking at somebody who's going to get an 'E' for effort in this marriage," Rhoda assures Joe the night before the big day.

Okay, we also give the show an "E" for effort, but no more.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Last week's bomb scare at Providence Hospital turned out to be apparently a cruel, cruel hoax but the hospital authorities had no choice but to evacuate the patients overnight. They couldn't take the risk that the threat was not genuine.

We want to say two things:

1. The cooperation and teamwork between the three local hospitals and between doctors, nurses and volunteers under pressure and with no advance notice can only be called superb. The whole gassy experience proved once again that the strength of this community is the ability of its citizens to work together when necessity arises.

2. All the local communications people, radio, television and newspapers, cooperated fully with the law enforcement agencies in staying out of the way of the investigation and its details. This is responsible journalism of the finest kind.

It is a federal offense to make a bomb threat on an airliner. It ought to be a federal offense to make any sort of bomb threat anywhere any time and we need better detection procedures to ferret out these sick, warped, twisted individuals who make such threats or carry them out.—WACO NEWS TRIBUNE

Bankruptcy Penalty

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — American industry now is in a cyclical phase that requires the utmost in managerial performance by both small and large business, with bankruptcy being the penalty for incompetence.

When times are good, it has been observed, a business can coast along while violating every credo of good management, but such companies disappear after the first test.

Eugene Jennings, management professor at the University of Michigan and consultant to business, comments that many managers know how to exploit good times but few can handle the downturns equally well.

There are few clearer illustrations than the fast food franchises that proliferated in the 1960s, when almost any concept could attract money, and their disappearance in the 70s, when people began counting pennies.

The well operated business, such as McDonald's and Kentucky Fried Chicken, managed their way through the critical period during which Americans assessed this new phenomenon and debated whether or not to support it.

The fast food concept was accepted, despite the seemingly contradictory evidence of thousands of failures, but it was the relatively few well-managed companies that proved the point.

A comparable situation prevailed on Wall Street, where the Merrill Lynchs and some smaller, less known but equally well managed brokers continued to make money while scores of others fell into bankruptcy or liquidation.

An examination of the failure of 64 firms in the process of liquidation during 1972 showed these causes:

Poor books and records, noted in the failure of 44 firms; misconduct, 26; high operating costs—poor controls, 21; mismanagement, 28; lack of knowledge of securities conditions, 18; dealing in highly speculative issues, 29.

The study, by the Securities Investor Protection Corp., found that in only 10 instances could "adverse market conditions" be singled out as a cause. All the other reasons qualify under the heading of mismanagement.

The Bank of America maintains that more than 90 per cent of business failures are due to managerial incompetence and inexperience.

Legge-Perthes Condition

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Could you please inform me on Legge-Perthes disease? I have a daughter who has been in an "A" frame cast for 16 months.

I have talked to other parents whose children have had the same thing. Some have been cured in two months. What exactly causes it? Is it hereditary? My brother had the same thing, only in the knee.

Is there anything I can do to help her get back on her feet? The orthopedic surgeon takes X-rays every second month and I'm scared—all those X-rays may do some other damage.—Mrs. S.F.

Perthes is a rather common ailment affecting children, usually in the 3- to 8-year age bracket. It involves a disturbance of blood supply to the end of the long bone of the thigh. Its exact cause is still not known, but in most cases it corrects itself.

But in the corrective period, unless care is taken, much permanent damage can be done, and so braces are usually used to prevent placing pressure on the affected bone. The disease is more common in boys than in girls by a 3 to 1 ratio.

So far, no conclusive evidence exists that it is hereditary, although, as in many diseases, it is possible to find more than one case in a single family. "Cure" in two months is not common. It usually takes longer.

Children who have Perthes tend to be smaller than normal, but after a successful period of correction, they lead healthy, normal lives. In fact, in most other aspects of health, the victims seem to be quite normal.

Another, similar condition, called Osgood-Schlatter disease, affects the knees instead of the thighs. This is probably what your brother had.

There is no medicine that will help, but in recent years surgical procedures have been successful in cases where the disease is detected early, before any damage has been done to the bone endings.

"You Can Stop Sinus Trouble" is the title of Dr. Thosteson's newly revised booklet, explaining what sinus trouble really is and what can be done about it. For a copy write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

In their back yard, the Martins kept a pet coyote on a chain. Although they considered him harmless, they warned youngsters in the neighborhood to keep their distance. But one day a boy ventured too close and got bitten.

SUED AFTERWARD for damages, the Martins insisted in court that the coyote had never bitten anyone before. Nevertheless, the court held them liable. The court said the law is less interested in the characteristics of the individual animal than in the characteristics of the species.

MOST COURTS AGREE that the keeper of a wild animal, even if it is seemingly tame, carries a heavy responsibility in case of an injury. (Of course, there may also be a local ordinance forbidding such pets altogether.)

Where is the dividing line between "wild" and "tame"? Generally considered wild are such animals as lions, tigers, bears, and wolves. Generally considered tame are such animals as cattle, sheep, horses, dogs, and cats.

THERE are assorted animals near the borderline, like deer, mules, and monkeys.

To some degree, the law's classification depends on the customs of the community. The elephant, held tame in Burma, was held wild in Ohio. The camel, held tame in Australia, was held wild in California.

EVEN IF THE animal is classified as wild, the keeper will usually not be blamed for an injury to someone who was guilty of deliberate provocation or recklessness. In one case a youth disregarded both a barrier and warning signs to approach a leopard in a cage.

Slashed by the leopard, he later demanded damages from the animal's owner. But the court threw out his claim. The court said, in effect, that the victim had gotten what he had asked for.

My Answer

Billy Graham

I'm sure you've been asked this before. But I need to know. What possible reason could there be for sickness and suffering in a world that an all-powerful God controls? C.L.

Perhaps Veteran's Day is a good time to answer this—because today we remember the thousands who suffered and died that our American freedom might be preserved.

But the answer to your question was well given in a paragraph in the book "Hiroshima" by John Hersey. He wrote about a Miss Sasaki, an East Asian tin works clerk who was at her desk when the Hiroshima atomic bomb exploded. Six months later, she was still in the hospital when a mission priest, Father Kleinsorge visited her. Unshamedly, she asked of the priest, "If you think God is so good and kind, how can He let people suffer like this?" and she made a gesture which took in her shrunken leg and other patients. "My child," said Father Kleinsorge, "Man is not now in the condition God intended; he has fallen from grace through sin."

Those are the facts as the Bible presents them. Let's always remember that the beginning of human history in Genesis was a perfect one. Man himself introduced evil through disobedience, and now all men endure this miserable state which only Christ's mercy can correct.

A Devotion For Today . . .

"Hast thou not known? Hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God . . . fainteth not neither is weary? There is no searching of his understanding." (Isaiah 40:28)

PARAYER: Your ways are mysterious and wise, O God. Help me to know Your plan for my life and use others to show me Your saving grace. Amen.

EDSEL LOSES AGAIN Heslip Gives Low Slip For Last Time

Edsel Vennice Heslip, 26-year-old black inmate at the El Paso jail, escaped one too many times Saturday. He was shot fatally Sunday during an exchange of gunfire with law enforcement officers at the El Paso-Hudspeth County line.

Last year in September, he escaped the Pecos jail, kidnaped W. F. Daniel in Pecos and forced him to drive him to Toyah, where he caught the train back to Monahans, killed Marian Eugene Power, 50, and stole his car.

He was given a life sentence for a felony in Monahans and was in the El Paso jail awaiting trial in connection with a 1973 murder of Harry Corby in Sierra Blanca.

Palo Pinto Jailbreak

PALO PINTO, Tex. (AP) — Authorities set up roadblocks and used bloodhounds today as they searched for three prisoners who escaped after overpowering a Palo Pinto County jailer.

Heslip then went from Monahans through Odessa, Midland, and Big Spring (Sept. 16, 1973) and was arrested in a high speed chase near Trent.

After the escape, officers were checking both cars and trains, trying to keep him from fleeing again.

More Cars Coming

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite higher prices for cars and gasoline, auto registrations are expected to reach a record high of 105.3 million this year, says Donald S. Knight, executive director of the Road Information Program.

Peace Justice Walter Grice set $10,000 bond for one suspected of two counts of auto theft, and that particular defendant remained in county jail. No formal criminal complaints, however, were filed, and there was no explanation why not.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Chadwell set $10,000 bond for the 20-year-old, who then posted bond.

Kennedy Hoped For Hours Mary Jo Had Survived

BOSTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy says that after Mary Jo Kopecchick drowned at Chappaquiddick, he hoped for several hours that she had somehow survived.

Another suggestion is to subdivide churches with a "winter tent" of transparent material erected in the nave. This would be comparatively simple to heat, leaving the rest of the building at a lower temperature.

A letter to the weekly "Church Times" suggests men might be permitted to wear "some decent and discreet head-covering" in church as one way of keeping warm.

Hold Theft Suspects

ST. ALBANS, England (AP) — A churchgoing kit of specially warm clothing for men and women has been suggested to a Church of England panel considering how congregations might be kept warm in winter.

Another proposal was reintroducing spats for men, once a fashionable male adornment but nowadays unseen.

Panel chairman J. R. Kell, who has advised on heating Canterbury, Durham and St. Paul's cathedrals, said that rising fuel costs are straining church finances, while the warm air rises to the high rafters leaving worshippers cold in the pews.

Unless $1 Million Paid 'J. Hawker' Threatens To Damage City's Water

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Mayor Neil Goldschmidt has refused comment on a published report that an extortionist named "J. Hawker" has threatened to damage the city's water system unless he is paid $1 million. Earlier, a letter signed "J. Hawker" threatened destruction of area power lines unless $1 million was paid.

Peace Justice Walter Grice set $10,000 bond for one suspected of two counts of auto theft, and that particular defendant remained in county jail. No formal criminal complaints, however, were filed, and there was no explanation why not.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Chadwell set $10,000 bond for the 20-year-old, who then posted bond.

Nobody Wants That Water

A long discussion about drainage problems occupied Howard County Commissioners Court this morning.

The newspaper said it learned of the threat the night the letter was received but withheld the information because it wanted to give authority to contact or apprehend the sender.

City officials have taken emergency precautionary measures to guard the entire water system, in spite of the apparent threat only against Bull Run.

Arkies Going To College

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Enrollment at Arkansas colleges and universities rebounded this year after dipping last year below 1972 levels. The Department of Higher Education counted 868 more students this year than last year. There are 39,344 students enrolled in the state's higher education institutions this year compared with 38,406 last year.

Glenn Tatum is a son of Mr. Tatum.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hattie W. Caraway, Arkansas Democrat, was the first woman elected to the United States Senate.

Gallop Polls Point To Democratic Landslide

By The Associated Press
Separate Gallup Polls point to a Democratic landslide in next week's congressional elections and fading support for the nomination of Nelson A. Rockefeller as vice president.

Tuna Sub For Beef

Most of us can feel food budget pinch regularly these days. Instead of fresh meat, frequently we have to fill in with staples on our kitchen shelves. One staple that most of us have, mainly because of its nutritious value, and just because it is so versatile, is tuna.

A well-seasoned and attractively served casserole can become a family favorite. In this tuna-chip casserole for example, the ingredients are staples and can be found on most kitchen shelves.

POTATO CHIP TUNA TETRAZZINI
1 Tbsp. Butter or margarine
1/4 cup chopped onion
1 (10 1/2-oz.) can condensed cream of mushroom soup, undiluted
1 (6 oz.) can or 2-3rd cup evaporated milk
1-3rd cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese
1 (3-oz.) can sliced mushrooms, drained
1/2 cup chopped ripe olives (optional)
2 tps. lemon juice
1/4 cup chopped pimiento
3 cups crushed potato chips
Grated Parmesan cheese
1 (6 1/2-7 oz.) can tuna, drained
Paprika

Melt butter or margarine in pan. Add onions, and saute until tender. Add soup, milk, sharp cheese, and heat through, stirring constantly. Add tuna, mushrooms, olives if using, lemon juice, and pimiento. Pour a thick layer of crushed potato chips into bottom of 2-quart casserole. Divide the tuna-mixture into thirds and pour the first third over bottom layer of chips. Add another layer of crushed chips, another layer of tuna, then chips and repeat until finished. Sprinkle top of casserole with grated cheese and paprika. Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven for 20 to 25 minutes. Serve while piping hot. Makes 8 servings.

Dear Abby

She Needs To Face Problem Squarely

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago, after 26 years of marriage, I found that my husband had been unfaithful to me. He is a very special person — kind, honest, friendly and very active in our church. He travels some and this infidelity occurred when he was away from home.

Sincer this happened, I haven't been myself. I feel like a zombie. I am playing-acting instead of saying the things I really want to say to him.

I love him very much and thought he loved me, too, but if he did, how could this have happened? I've searched my thoughts trying to understand where I failed him, but I haven't been able to come up with an answer.

When I see him praying in church every Sunday, I wonder how he can be such a hypocrite. Please help me.

STILL HURTING
DEAR STILL: You say that you "know" your husband was unfaithful. How can you be sure — unless he admits it? Have you asked him? If you haven't, do. If he denies it, believe him. If he admits it, then ask him why he felt the need to stray, but don't be disappointed if he can't answer that question.

We don't always know the reasons for our actions. Clear the air. Quit torturing yourself with doubts. And don't prejudice him. A church isn't a museum for saints — it's a hospital for sinners. (Let he who is without sin cast the first stone.)

DEAR ABBY: I am planning my wedding and need an opinion from outside my family. My parents are divorced and I have lived with my mother since early childhood. She has been a wonderful mother not only to me but to my brothers and sisters. She always thought of her children first.

My father contributed nothing to my upbringing. Not even the child support the court ordered him to pay. I didn't respect him when I was a child, and I still don't.

Although I think the tradition of the bride's father "giving away" his daughter is beautiful, I want my mother to give me away instead.

What do you think of such an odd switch? Do I dare suggest it?

MAMMA'S GIRL

DEAR GIRL: It's your wedding and I see no reason why your mother shouldn't give you away if that's what you want. Tell whomever will officiate at your wedding about your wishes. It makes sense to me. (P.S. I once attended a lovely wedding where, in response to the clergyman's question, "Who gives this woman in marriage?" the mother and father replied in unison, "We do!")

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L. A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please. For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Little Quarrels Gain Momentum

COLLEGE STATION — Have you ever stopped to think about the real cause of a quarrel, Dorothy Taylor, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, asked last week.

"Most quarrels start over petty, unimportant matters. But before a truce is finally declared, all sorts of accusations are made by both parties."

"Money, sex, in-laws, premarital or postmarital promises and lack of competence are introduced into a quarrel. When the battle is over, both parties leave nervous and tense, but begin immediately to store new ammunition to make the next quarrel even more vicious," she said.

Little things — or petty thinking — cause quarrels. It follows that to eliminate quarrels, eliminate petty thinking. But it's easier to read about than to practice, the specialist noted.

"When bringing a quarrel to a successful or profitable end, one must have positive, good feelings. There is almost always some appreciation of what you resent most. If you can discover this appreciation, and bring it into the forefront, you will be much more balanced in outlook and aware of both sides of a difficult situation," she said.

If resentment remains very strong, it is often more useful to work it out first in dialogue with yourself in fantasy. When you are less confused and conflicted with yourself, you can settle the quarrelsome points with the other person easier, she advised.

"The real world of contact sometimes has pain, conflict and other unpleasantness. But it can also have pleasure, satisfying activities, joy and participation. Rejecting reality because it isn't perfect adds pain and loss of pleasures. Loss without gain is a bad quarrel," Miss Taylor said.

Turn On SWC Lights

By The Associated Press

Turn on the lights. The Southwest Conference football masquerade party is over—The Texas Aggies are the team to beat in the rush to the Cotton Bowl.

Following Saturday's combat, the muscular Aggies who haven't allowed a point in the last eight quarters emerged at the head of the class.

"A&M is as strong physically as any team we've played and that includes Oklahoma," said Baylor Coach Grant Teaff after the Aggies whipped the Bears 20-0 before 50,000 fans on homecoming.

Teaff added, "They have a great ball club."

A&M clearly dominated the game although two touchdowns came on unusual plays—a fumble and an interception return.

"It's about time...we've had a lot of cotton-pickin' breaks go against us," said A&M Coach Emory Bellard.

And it's going to be "Cotton Pickin'" time for the Aggies unless someone derails the Maroon Express soon—Arkansas gets the chance Saturday, traveling to Kyle Field.

A&M is 3-0 in SWC play and 6-1 overall.

Texas, the defending champion and seeking an unprecedented seventh consecutive title, defeated Rice 27-6 Saturday and hosts Southern Methodist this week.

The Longhorns, Texas Tech and SMU are at 2-1 following Tech's narrow 20-17 victory over the Mustangs.

Tech is at Rice Saturday.

In other games Saturday involving SWC clubs, Alabama thrashed Texas Christian 41-3 and Arkansas dropped Colorado State 43-9.

IN FOR SIX — New England's Steve Schubert falls over the goal line for six points during the second period Sunday in Bloomington, Minn., after taking a pass from quarterback Jim Plunkett. Defending for the Vikings are Terry Brown (24) and Jeff Wright.

COLLEGE ROUNDUP

Status Seems Quo In Major Activity

By The Associated Press

Although the college football season has been chock full of upsets, the status seems to be quo in most of the major conference races.

To be sure, Texas A&M leads the Southwest Conference, Maryland tops the Atlantic Coast Conference, Yale and Harvard share the Ivy League lead and surprising VMI heads the Southern Conference, but elsewhere the old, old standbys are still in the driver's seat.

Ohio State, the No. 1 team in The Associated Press ratings, and No. 3 Michigan are atop the Big Ten and heading toward another showdown Nov. 23 while the same holds true in the Southeastern Conference, where fourth-ranked Alabama, 3-0, and No. 5 Auburn, 2-0, tangle Nov. 29.

Oklahoma, runner-up nationally, is the only unbeaten team in the Big Eight; sixth-ranked Southern California, despite a sluggish start, is leading the Pacific-8; Arizona State, 14th nationally, is No. 1 in the Western Athletic Conference; Miami of Ohio, rated 19th, tops the Mid-American Conference; San Diego State heads the Pacific Coast Athletic Association and Tulsa leads the Missouri Valley. All won or shared their conference titles last year.

In weekend action, Ohio State buried Northwestern 55-7 as Archie Griffin ran for 173 yards on 19 carries and tied the all-time college record of rushing for 100 yards or more in 17 consecutive regular-season games set by Oklahoma's former Heisman Trophy-winner, Steve Owens.

Steve Davis and Joe Washington led Oklahoma to a 35-0 half-time bulge over Kansas State and the Sooners demolished the Wildcats 63-0, their second triumph this season by that score.

St. Louis was able to penetrate the Nets' defense for only 14 points in the second period while New York, behind Julius Erving, center Billy Paultz and forward Larry Kenon, rolled to a 60-37 advantage at halftime.

Erving ended up with 20 points and 13 rebounds to take game scoring honors. Rookie Marvin Barnes scored 24 points, high for St. Louis.

The Los Angeles Lakers slapped a tight defense on Phoenix for the first five minutes of the third period, running off a 13-0 spurt to increase their advantage to 21 points.

Laker Defense Shuts Off Sun

By The Associated Press

The scores might go over the century mark most of the time, but any pro basketball coach will tell you defense is the key to victory.

"We have been playing our best defense in our last few games," said New York Nets' coach Kevin Loughery. "In our last couple of games, we had held teams to under 30 points at the half."

The Nets gave up only 37 points in the first half enroute to a 109-91 American Basketball Association victory over the Spirit of St. Louis. In the only other ABA action Sunday, Utah stopped San Diego 95-80.

In the National Basketball Association Sunday, Los Angeles defeated Phoenix 123-116 while Portland crushed Seattle 120-94.

Loughery said St. Louis mistakes and poor shooting can be attributed partly to inexperience, "but we have a quick defense and like to force those mistakes."

Raiders Run Past Rockets

In seventh grade football action, Rannels Raiders stung the Rannels Rockets, 14-6, Saturday on Blankenship Field.

Raiders' first six-pointer came on a first quarter 40-yard run by Kevin Davidson. In the fourth, Raider Gilber Rubio crossed Rockets' end zone from the five. Rubio passed to Eddie Uranga for the PAT.

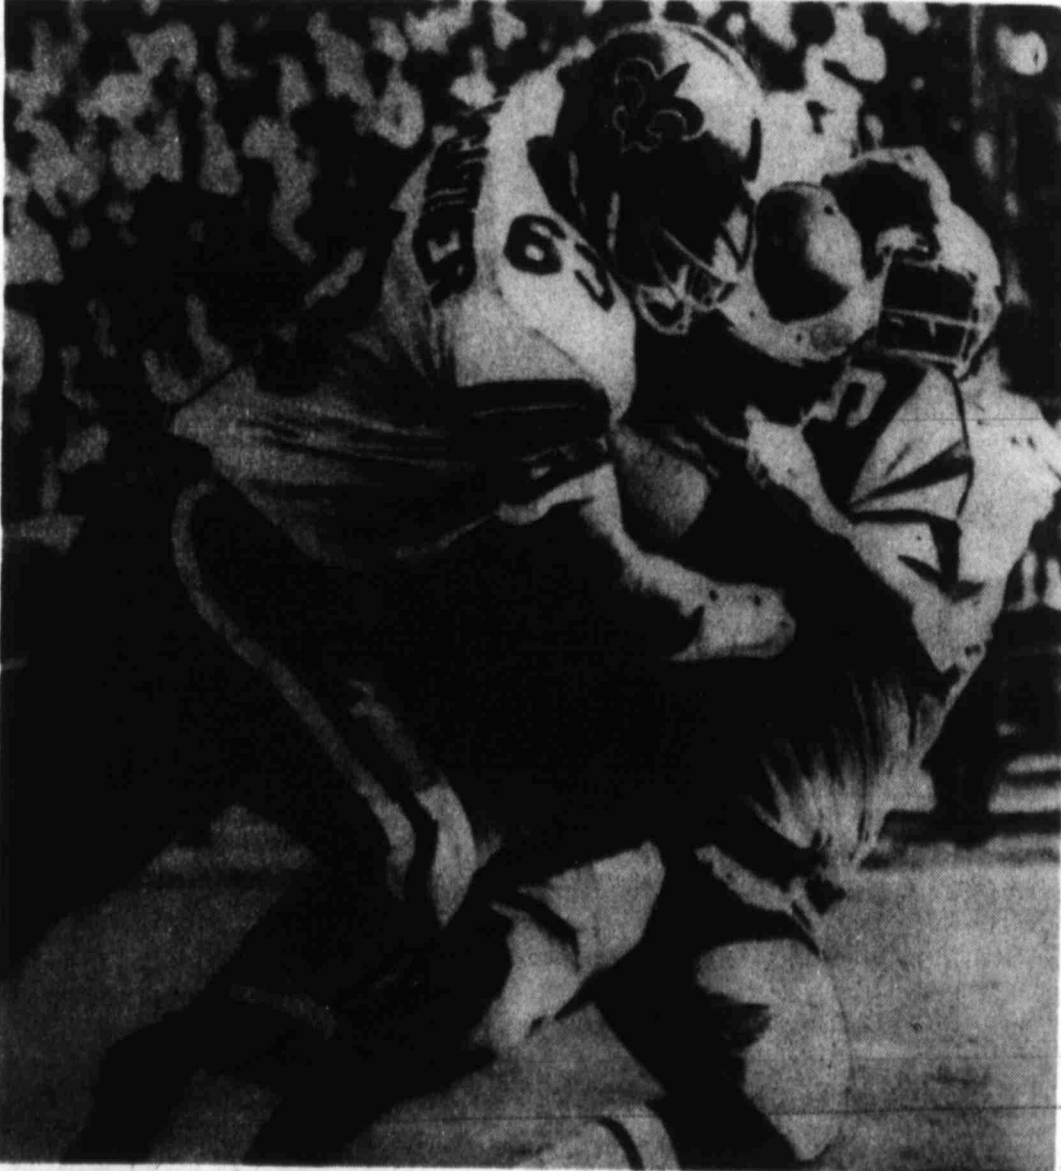

The Rockets returned the immediate kickoff following Rubio's marker and sent Joe Jones sprinting through for a 75-yard TD. The Raiders are 4-1-1 for the season and face Golliad Saturday.

QB Talks Tuesday

Big Spring and Coahoma quarterback following will talk over at their respective locations at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Steer admirers are scheduled to convene at the high school cafeteria. Bob Burris and his staff will present a film on Midland Lee and review a scouting report on Friday's opponent Abilene Cooper.

Coahoma's controversial loss call to Ballinger will no doubt be the main topic of conversation. Norman Roberts has scheduled a Ballinger film and what to expect from Hamlin, Bulldogs' fifth 6AA opponent. Room 204 of Coahoma high school is the meeting site.

PUTTING THE SQUEEZE ON ROMAN — Philadelphia Eagles' quarterback Roman Gabriel feels the pressure as he gets caught between two new Orleans Saints 260-pounders Steve Baumgartner (left) and Billy Newsome on a play called rush the quarterback. It was a third down play and the Eagles were forced to punt. The Saints won out 14-10 in New Orleans, Sunday.

Cardinals Still Look Like Supermen In NFL

By The Associated Press

The Pittsburgh Steelers, leaders in the American Conference's Central Division, meet the Atlanta Falcons tonight in the weekly televised game.

Rams 20, Jets 13

Lawrence McCutcheon scored two touchdowns 31 seconds apart in the fourth quarter to power the Rams over the Jets. New York led 13-6 going into the fourth quarter before McCutcheon scored the gamewinning points for Los Angeles, the NFC's Western Division leader.

Patriots 17, Vikings 14

Jim Plunkett threw a 10-yard pass to Bob Windsor with three seconds left to give New England a 17-14 lead over Minnesota. Plunkett led the Patriots on an 86-yard drive in the closing minutes. A 55-yard pass from Plunkett to Randy Vataha, his onetime teammate at Stanford, set up the winning score.

Bills 16, Bills 6

Substitute Larry Watkins ran one yard for a touchdown and John Leyboldt kicked three field goals to propel Buffalo past Chicago. Buffalo's O. J. Simpson was held to just 62 yards, one of his lowest days in the pros.

Dolphins 17, Colts 7

Benny Malone and Don Nottingham, a pair of little-used running backs, took charge in the second half and helped Miami beat Baltimore. Nottingham replaced injured fullback Larry Csonka late in the first half and scored on a two-yard plunge in the third period to give Miami a 10-7 lead. Malone roared 23 yards in the fourth quarter for the score that put the game away for the Dolphins.

Raiders 35, 49ers 24

Oakland turned two San Francisco fumbles into touchdowns, with rookie Harold Hart running 40 yards to score on one recovery, as the Raiders beat the 49ers.

Oilers 34, Bengals 21

Dan Pastorini's passes ripped apart Cincinnati's defense and Houston, a loser in 32 of the last 35 games, jumped on every Bengal mistake to pull off an upset.

Broncos 23, Broncos 21

Quarterback Brian Sipe, who entered the game in the fourth quarter, scored two touchdowns to lead Cleveland to a comeback victory over Denver. Sipe, making only his second appearance of the season replacing Mike Phipps, scored the winning touchdown with 1:55 remaining in the game.

Cowboys 21, Giants 7

Drew Pearson, the NFL's leading receiver, caught one TD pass and threw another to help the Cowboys beat the Giants.

Lions 19, Packers 17

Errol Mann, who had a 27-yard field goal blocked with 1:58 remaining, kicked a 41-yarder with nine seconds left to propel Detroit over Green Bay.

It Doesn't Score Easy

KINSHASA, Zaire (AP) — Mama Odessa Clay says her boy, Cassius, always has been a josh — even when he was a tyke beating everybody at marbles — but it's not good to cross him when he gets mad.

"He always was doing things to make people laugh but underneath he could be very moody and serious," added Mrs. Cassius Marcellus Clay, Sr., of Louisville, Ky.

"I think he is very serious now, in spite of all that spoofing you see in the ring. He wants to win bad. I think he will win."

Mrs. Clay, a pleasant, pillowy woman in her late fifties, and her husband, a dapper sign painter and commercial artist, have traveled to darkest Africa to see what looms as the climax of their son's tempestuous career.

They will be at ringside in Zaire's big soccer stadium at 4 a.m. local time Wednesday (10 p.m. EST Tuesday) when the handsome fighter they christened Cassius Marcellus, who has taken the heavy weight boxing championship which authorities stripped from him because he wouldn't go to war.

His foe is the reigning champion, George Foreman, a brutish monster of a man who has virtually destroyed every fighter he has faced the last three years.

"George looks very big and mean and he has been knocking out everybody he's met," Mrs. Clay said. "But Sonny Liston was big and mean looking, too, and he didn't scare my boy none."

Ali won the title from the now deceased Liston in a staggering upset in Miami Beach, Fla., in 1964 and repeated the triumph 15 months later with a first round knockout in Lewiston, Maine.

Three and a half years of idleness in 1968-70 — brought about by Ali's failure to enter military service — dulled his skills but he seems to have whipped himself back into razor trim at the age of 32 for the greatest test of his life.

Some bookmakers in America are reported making the younger Foreman a 3-1 favorite but the more realistic odds are the 11-5 quoted by the London shops.

Each fighter has been guaranteed $5 million, a record purse, for the evening's work.

A conglomeration of sponsors and money lenders, including the Zaire government, is hoping for a $20 to $30 million gross, largely through worldwide theater television.

Government spokesmen predict the live gate will bring in $600,000 from a ticket scale ranging from $250 for choice ringside to $10 for the more remote of the 100,000 seats.

Both Ali and Foreman planned to wind up training with light workouts Monday and then engage in the long wait for the unique 4 a.m. bell. Never before has a major fight been staged at such an ungodly hour, dictated to meet American closed circuit TV commitments. That's where most of the money will come from.

KENT WALDREP

Doctors Wait For Results

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Doctors waited for test results today to determine the extent of permanent paralysis caused by a football injury to Texas Christian running back Kent Waldrep.

Waldrep suffered a broken bone in his neck in Saturday's TCU-Alabama game. He underwent surgery Saturday night.

A University Hospital spokesman said the patient was in serious condition. He said the fifth cervical vertebra in Waldrep's lower neck was fractured.

The resulting spinal cord injury, he said, would result in some permanent paralysis.

Waldrep, 20, a TCU junior, was in the hospital's surgical intensive care unit.

Granberry Says He Is 'Still The Underdog'

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Republican Jim Granberry said today he is "still the underdog, still the challenger" in the governor's race but he thinks he still has a chance to win.

"If my grass roots support continues to grow the way it has in the last few weeks I believe we will win," Granberry told a Capitol news conference.

The GOP candidate said he sincerely regretted the fact that Gov. Dolph Briscoe, the Democrat candidate, had been forced to cancel his campaign schedule because of the critical illness of Briscoe's mother.

"But because he has intensified his advertising I have to get out and work harder than ever to counteract it," he said.

Granberry said he was still hopeful of getting full statewide coverage of his television advertisements during the last few days of the campaign.

"Lately the expenditures of my campaign have been running ahead of the collections," he said, "but we are putting the squeeze on donors and are hopeful to have them even by the end of the campaign."

Granberry said he had received no cash contributions from either the state or national party.

Mars Dust Gives Tip On Control

CHICAGO (AP) — A perennial dust storm on Mars has provided a clue on how to provide cleaner air in some industrial plants.

In a study which grew out of research on the Mars storms, Prof. Stuart A. Hoening of the University of Arizona found that extremely fine dust particles normally acquire a negative charge as they are rolled and tumbled by the wind. The study is being partially financed by the American Foundrymen's Society.

In laboratory tests, dust samples have been ground into extremely fine particles, of a size that can enter the human lung. After having been blown into a dust chamber, their rate of settling has been measured.

By introducing a fog of positively charged water droplets which seem to attract the negatively charged dust particles, researchers have been able to increase the rate of dust fallout from the air.

Sugar Shortage

NEW YORK (AP) — Price rises in sugar have been caused by a spiraling increase in demand for sugar that far exceeds available supply, according to experts at the Sugar Assn.

The reasons for this escalating demand include: 1. Sharply increased consumption of the carbohydrate in the newly emerging countries, which formerly were relatively small consumers of sugar; 2. heavier consumption of sugar in Russia, China and Japan; 3. speculation in the commodity by cash-rich Middle East nations; 4. weather problems that have put a crimp in sugar crops and further shortened supply.

The United States consumes far more sugar than it produces. Therefore, vast quantities of raw sugar must be imported at prices established in worldwide commodity markets to supply the much-wanted commodity. One of the stable factors in the situation is that consumption of sugar in the U.S. has remained virtually unchanged over many decades at about 100 pounds per person annually. This includes sugar used in preparation of foods as well as sugar consumed at table.

Briscoe Axes Campaigning

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe cancelled his last week of campaigning for reelection in order to remain at Uvalde with his critically ill mother, Mrs. Dolph Briscoe Sr., 86.

Dr. Sterling H. Fly Jr., Uvalde, said Sunday there had been no significant change in Mrs. Briscoe's condition. She entered the hospital Oct. 18. Briscoe has cancelled all campaigning since Oct. 20.

Briscoe had been tentatively scheduled to visit Houston today, a number of Central Texas cities on Tuesday and Wednesday and be in the Dallas-Fort Worth area Thursday and Friday.

U.S. To Send Mexico Beans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Exports of U.S. beans to Mexico are expected to jump sharply this season, the Agriculture Department indicated today.

Officials said Mexico has "a very tight edible dry bean situation" because of poor weather in some areas and early frosts this fall. As a result, USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service said, Mexico expects to import 70,000 metric tons of beans in 1974-75, compared with 10,000 last year.

The United States is the major foreign supplier. The U.S. dry bean harvest is at a record level, up 31 per cent from last year.

Pampa Convict Ropes Crown At Pen Rodeo

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Judges awarded George Huff, a Pampa convict serving 10 years, the champion cowboy crown Sunday in the 43rd Texas Prison Rodeo.

He also took the bareback bronc riding title and with it an engraved belt buckle at the final performance, which drew a crowd estimated by officials at 28,000.

Among those in the audience were 23 Russian space flight controllers who are rehearsing with U.S. personnel at the Johnson Space Center near Houston for a joint mission.

Roger Cook, serving five years from Pottsboro, and Leonard Harris, doing five years from Grand Saline, tied for first in saddle bronc riding.

Cid Artecona, a native of Paraguay, serving 15 years, was chosen champion bull rider.

Dirie Winters of San Angelo and Justine Garner of Monroe, La., both of the Goree unit for women, were judged best in the women's competition.

Eddie Holland picked up top money of $225 in an event where convict cowboys try to pluck a small bag from between a bull's horns.

'IT'S NOT HONEST'

Watergate Burglar Summoned To Stand

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite defense objections, U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica summoned Watergate burglar E. Howard Hunt Jr. to the witness stand in the Watergate cover-up trial today, with neither prosecution nor defense willing to vouch that he will tell the truth.

Hunt, who headed the Watergate burglary team, was the second witness called in the trial of H.R. Haldeman, John D. Ehrlichman, John N. Mitchell, Robert C. Mardian and Kenneth W. Parkinson, all former White House or campaign aides to ex-

President Richard M. Nixon. All are charged with conspiring to obstruct justice in the Watergate investigation.

As the Watergate cover-up trial entered the fifth week defense lawyers strenuously objected to using the court witness procedure to obtain what they contend will be unreliable testimony.

Haldeman's lawyer, John J. Wilson, was especially vehement about instructions to the jury on the procedure of calling court witnesses.

"I have never read such a startling charge in my life," Wilson said. "It's deceptive. It's not honest."

Plato Cacheris, one of Mitchell's attorneys, said he would object to the procedure an "improper influence on the jury. I therefore resist it and resist it vigorously."

Richard Ben-Veniste, an assistant prosecutor who

Hunt claims tried to get him to commit perjury, said there are numerous instances before the grand jury when Hunt lied and that the court witness device would permit leading questions to bring out Hunt's motivations to testify falsely.

David G. Bress, representing Mardian, said what the prosecution was proposing was to "say they have a witness who will make out their case but that witness is a liar."

And chief prosecutor James F. Neal said that the government's theory in the case is "that the defendants approached the grand jury to tell what he knows." He said it was necessary to probe exactly what it was that Hunt knew.

At that point Sirica said he would allow Hunt to testify as a court witness.

TI Cuts Revealed

DALLAS (AP) — Texas Instruments will lay off 2,500 to 3,000 employees beyond its normal attrition during the last quarter of this year. The company says a declining backlog of sales is responsible for the cutback.

A quarterly report to stockholders Sunday said the cuts would be made in TI's operations in North America, South America and Europe.

"We believe incoming orders will continue to be below sales billed for the balance of this year," the report said. Employment this month was reduced by 2,250 in Singapore and Taiwan, and by 490 in other locations.

TI's worldwide employment fell from 78,000 at the end of June to 73,800 at the end of September, the report said. Most of this cutback was through attrition.

Sales for the quarter ended Sept. 30 were $374.9 million, a 30 per cent increase over the third quarter of 1973. Net income declined by four per cent, however, to $18.5 million, with per share earnings down five per cent to 81 cents.

Sales for the first nine months of 1974 were $1,153,782,000, up 26 per cent from the same period a year ago, the report said.

Rezone Decision

EASTVILLE, Va. (AP) — Scarcely noticed by its neighbors in Maryland, this small rural community is on the verge of the biggest zoning decision ever made along the Eastern Shore, and may set a pattern for development in the wake of the rush for offshore oil in the Atlantic Ocean.

Brown & Root, Inc., a Houston-based subsidiary of the Halliburton Co., has asked for 1,762 acres of farmland encircling the town of Cape Charles. The company fabricates structures, decks and pipelines for offshore oil and gas production.

Prospects are for offshore leases and drilling in the Atlantic off the Delmarva coast, and officials for Brown & Root, Inc., say they want to be part of the venture.

But Northampton County is zoned entirely for agriculture and doesn't even have an industrial category in its zoning ordinance.

Brown & Root, Inc., already has purchased 2,000 acres bordering Chesapeake Bay for $5 million.

The decision whether to rezone this land for heavy industry will be made by the Northampton County Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors after the completion of a three-month environmental impact study.

News Exec Dies

MIAMI (AP) — James M. Cox Jr., 71, board chairman of the Cox Enterprises newspaper publishing firm and Cox Broadcasting Corp., died Sunday after a long illness. The company owns newspapers in Florida and Ohio. Cox became chairman when his father died in 1957.

Former Ohio Governor Dies

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Thomas J. Herbert, 79, former Ohio governor, state Supreme Court justice and state attorney general, died Saturday. In 1946 he upset incumbent Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche, but was defeated by Lausche in his bid for re-election two years later.

Safety Seminar Is Set

A seven-week 21-hour course on the provisions of the William Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) of 1970 will be conducted at Howard College beginning Nov. 5, 1974. Theron Lee, director of Continuing Education at the college, said. The course is jointly sponsored by the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce and Howard College.

The classes will meet from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in ADE 1 each Tuesday from Nov. 5 through Dec. 17.

OSHA regulations pertain to all places of business from large industrial plants to the small businessman. Penalties for non-compliance with the law are stringent. All businessmen not familiar with the law are urged to attend.

Instructor for the course will be Mike Dixon, an instructor with the Big Spring Schools and who received training in the provisions of the OSHA law at a school conducted by the Department of Labor held in Chicago this past summer. Dixon also has industrial experience.

It is expected that OSHA representatives will be on hand at the first and the last meetings to supplement Dixon's presentation and to attempt to clarify any questions concerning the law.

The registration fee is $25. For additional information and pre-registration call the Office of Continuing Education at Howard College, at 267-6331 ext. 77.
