Tornado Rips Homes At Sulphur Springs

By The Associated Press
Flooding struck hard at three Central Texas points Wednesday night and Thursday while a tornado hit Sulphur Springs and another did some damage near Clarksville.

WINDOWS SMASHED
As many as 100 homes were damaged at Sulphur Springs. Roofs were ripped off some, carpools smashed at others and numerous windows broken by flying debris when the twister hit about 4:30 a.m. Thursday.

Olin Petty, Sulphur Springs city manager, closed off two residential areas as workers sought to clean up the area.

No serious injuries were reported.

ASK FOR HELP
The Department of Public Safety said unidentified Sulphur Springs officials asked for state police help in securing damaged homes in the area. An undetermined number of troopers was dispatched to the town, the DPS said.

The tornado danced across the Northeast Texas city, including a portion of the business district in its path.

At Clarksville a little to the northeast of Sulphur Springs, what were described as tornadoes hit Bagwell and an area southeast of town, tearing up barns in each place. Clarksville was without power for about an hour.

Rain measured at 60 inches in about eight hours sent Nolan Creek on a rampage through Killeen and the neighboring communities of Harker Heights and Nolanville during the night and early morning. Police reported one of three soldiers swept off a bridge in a car was still missing hours later.

A helicopter was called in to aid the ground search for the missing lieutenant, identified as Charles May, who was stationed with the 2nd Armored Division at Ft. Hood. Two companions in the same car with May were rescued after clinging to three tops for an hour.

MUDDY WATER

Muddy waters surged up to five feet deep as the stream invaded two Killeen trailer parks, swept away four mobile homes and damaged a number of others, police reported. Rescuers used boats to rescue about 30 people in Harker Heights and up to 500 were evacuated there and at Nolanville, police dispatcher Robert Brinton estimated.

Four engines and three boxcars of a Missouri-Pacific freight train were derailed south of Denton when flood waters washed out the track embankment. The train's engineer and brakeman were rescued by a boat manned by Denton County Sheriff's deputies.

HOME FLIPS

A 35-year-old woman was injured when her mobile home flipped over during a heavy thunderstorm near McGregor in Central Texas. She was in satisfactory condition this morning in a Waco hospital.

In the Trading House Creek community south of Waco, high winds destroyed a barn, ripped off the roof of one house and overturned a mobile home. No injuries were reported.

Winds damaged numerous other mobile homes around the Waco area, authorities reported.

A flood warning was issued by the National Weather Service for Aquilla Creek in Central Texas. The creek was expected to crest about five feet over flood stage before falling this afternoon.

Several other tornadoes also were spotted between midnight and dawn, capping a night in which twisters dealt several hundred thousand dollars damage to the airport and light damage to a home at Georgetown in Central Texas, spun through the Gainesville area in North Texas to inflict about $100,000 in damage, and a pair of them hit near Cisco in West Central Texas, damaging a trailer home.

DRESSING UP THE SCENE — Helen Hembree dresses to remind Big Spring residents that All Saints Eve, or more properly Halloween, is close at hand. The pretty Mrs. Hembree is hardly the prototype of witches so often associated with spooks and goblins.

Burleson To Get Royal Treatment

Congressman Omar Burleson visits Big Spring Friday, a day proclaimed in his honor by Mayor Wade Choate, and will highlight the day's activities by addressing a luncheon hosted by the American Business Club.

The public is invited to attend, but those who are not ABC members are asked to call their reservations ($2 a plate) to the hotel in insure adequate food preparation.

During Friday morning, Cong. Burleson will be at the Holiday Inn and available to confer with community leaders and any other constituents on problems or various matters. Accompanying him may be Walter Grubbs, Abilene, and Dale King, Anson, field representatives.

The Downtown Lions Club will be holding its weekly meeting jointly with the ABC in honor of Burleson, who once was a Lions district governor in this area. Aubrey Bryans, president, urged a large turnout. But the ABC will lay some special claim on the congressman when he is made an honorary ABC member by Roy Reeder, one of the founding members of the Big Spring club.

Wayne Rock, president of ABC, will preside at the luncheon. Rev. Louis Moeller, pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, will work the invocation; and Morris Robertson will lead the pledge. Mayor Choate will present Rep. Burleson with the official proclamation, and Clyde McMahon Sr. will introduce the congressman. KBYG will pick up the program live at 12:23 p.m.

As Rep. Burleson arrives at the hotel, he will be met by the ABC "Big Hats," then by the Chamber's Ambassadors, and the ABC Red Shirts. These will flank him as Mrs. Marilyn Newsom sings "God Bless America."

Man Shot To Death

A young man with blonde-brown hair, estimated by police to be between the ages of 20 and 25, lay face up in the parking lot behind Bain Electric Co., just off East 2nd and Johnson streets about 10:45 p.m. Wednesday — victim of gun shot wounds.

Police were attempting to identify the victim this morning. He had been shot in the chest and in the head. Blood covered his face and there was a small pool of blood near his right hand.

This morning, police located a spent slug in the pool of blood and two shell casings about 15 feet away and said the weapon used was probably a .25 automatic. No weapon was found.

He had apparently been shot, police theorized, everything had been taken out of his back pockets, including all identification, after which he was rolled over on his back and left lying face up with his legs crossed. Around 75 cents in change lay near his head.

He was dressed in blue jeans, a blue knit shirt, Nocona western boots and a western belt. He was around 5 feet 10 inches tall. His belt buckle held the words "Ron" and Yvonne." The belt has the initials RRB. The boots had tar or asphalt on them and it was thought that he might be working for a roofing company or some type of construction.

Justice of the Peace Gus Ochotorena ruled death by gunshot wound.

Four witnesses have placed a suspect with the deceased in Mutt's Lounge earlier. The lounge faces Third street in the adjoining block. One witness claims he heard a man say "I shot him" as he drove away in a gold-colored late-model car.

Nixon Still 'Critical'

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon's doctor says it is too early to make a long range prediction on the health of the former president.

Nixon lapsed into vascular shock following urgent surgery for phlebitis on Tuesday. Doctors worked for three hours to restore stable blood circulation.

Nixon's former presidential news secretary, Ronald L. Ziegler, told newsmen, meanwhile, that the 61-year-old ex-president came very close to death during the postoperative emergency.

NODOUBT
"There is no doubt that we almost lost President Nixon yesterday afternoon," said Ziegler.

Ziegler said Nixon's condition grew so serious that "I think it's fortunate that President Nixon was in the intensive care unit."

Nixon's doctors, however, side-stepped questions on whether Nixon's life was in danger during the period of post operative shock and bleeding behind the membrane that surrounds his abdomen.

By Memorial Hospital Medical Center's definition, critical condition means vital signs are not stable and not within normal limits — "Indicators are unfavorable."

A hospital spokesman said that by keeping Nixon on the critical list, "it means the doctor still fears that Mr. Nixon may have further trouble."

UW Pledges Soar Nearer Objective

Contributions and pledges from employees at Corden oil & Chemical Company came into Howard County United Way headquarters Wednesday and the report gave the entire drive a shot in the arm.

Collections now amount to $109,441.86, which represents 89.8 per cent of the $121,777 goal.

UW chairman W. S. (Dub) Pearson was to meet with his division leaders over luncheon again today to discuss the improved outlook and remind them of the importance of closing out the drive on a successful note.

There is some indication the drive will be extended beyond Nov. 1, the original date for the campaign to end, if success has not been achieved.

The Big Gifts division, which is headed by Jimmy Taylor, is within sight of its $43,812 goal. Taylor reported collections and pledges totaled $38,696.10.

Dr. John C. Lungren said Wednesday that Nixon's vital signs have stabilized, although he remains on the critical list.

Other divisions, listed with captains and the amount raised by each, include: Out of Town, Paul Meek, $4,462.50; Employees, Dearl Pittman $26,472.84; School and City, Bob Butler, $5,899.53; and Women, Jeanette Snodgrass, $2,641.

TODDLER IS FOUND Searcher's Decision To Return Pays Off

By MARJ CARPENTER
A very cold, very small two-year old boy lay across the rocks a foot out of the water on Beal's Creek near the Sand Springs community early today — frightened and bewildered. Seven hours earlier, he had been playing about a half mile away.

In the intervening hours, he had been the object of a massive search.

It was 2 a.m. and Shane Halfacre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Halfacre of Carlsbad, N.M., had apparently cried himself to the point of exhaustion, given up and was in shock from the early morning cold.

Thoroughly wet, he had apparently half-waded, half floated and ended up in the normally dry creek.

Over 200 persons from Big Spring, Sand Springs and Coahoma, as well as Webb Air Force Base and the sheriff's department, had been hunting for the lad since dark, when a baby sitter reported him missing.

By 2 a.m., many of the hunters on horseback and motorcycles had given up the search, but some were still hunting through the night. This group included the boy's father, who had arrive from Carlsbad after midnight, and two sets of grandparents who had come from Odessa.

NEAR HYSTERIA
The mother, Joyce, who was visiting her sister, Mrs. James L. Brown on the Woody Robinson Ranch, was near exhaustion and had retreated into grief on several occasions.

Gary Grant of Midway had lived on that ranch. He searched the area past midnight, then gone home to discuss it with his father, Alfred, who also had lived on the ranch. The two men remembered a spot on the creek where it curved and thought it possible the boy was there.

Gary accompanied by Richard Nix went back to the spot. As they shined their flashlights down toward the creek, they saw a limp figure lying on the rocks.

'GET UP, SHANE'
"My heart was in my throat," Gary recalled and "I said, 'Shane, boy, get up.'" Grant then added, "It was a happy moment with that little fellow stood up and looked dazedly into the flashlight."

Grant said he picked the child up and covered him with his coat and the youth "clung to me shivering."

"They took the toddler back to the creek."

Absentee Votes Now Total 283
A total of 283 absentee ballots have been cast for the November 5 general election in Howard County, according to County Clerk Mrs. Pauline Petty.

The total includes 246 who have voted in person and 37 ballots that have been received by mail. An additional 60 ballots have been mailed, but are not back in the office.

Deadline for voting absentee in the election is Friday at 5 p.m.

Rainfall Tops Total For '73
It waited a long time to rain in 1974 but since September, Big Spring has now officially topped last year's complete rain record.

The rain in the early morning hours moved the year's total to 19.68. Last year's total was 19.40 according to the U.S. Experiment Station. The rain during the night was .36 and added to Wednesday morning's .28 brought the past 24-hour total to .64. The all-time rain record on Oct. 30 was .67 in 1953.

MILD
Forecast includes mild days and cool nights with a high today expected near 70, low tonight in mid 40s, high on Friday, low 70s. Winds from the southwest and west at 15-25 miles per hour, gusty. Clear to partly cloudy through Friday.

MACABRE CELEBRATION — Gaily festooned papier-mache skeletons are all smiles as they take part in the Day of the Dead celebration in Mexico City Wednesday. The day is held in honor of dead relatives and Mexicans mark the occasion by indulging in the bizarre handicraft. The tradition goes back to the days of the Aztecs.

WAR ON WORLD HUNGER

Baptists Will Be Asked To Skip Meal A Week

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Texas Baptists hammered out details of their war on world hunger and other issues today as they approached the end of their 89th annual meeting.

Messengers to the Baptist General Convention of Texas were expected to approve a resolution calling upon all members to skip a meal a week and donate a dollar weekly to meeting world hunger needs.

assume our Christian responsibility," the group's social justice arm said in an appeal to the membership.

"We plead with every Texas Baptist to reexamine critically his own lifestyle. We challenge every citizen to urge congressional representatives and senators to pass responsible legislation immediately."

"We call upon every church to reorder their economic priorities to provide a continuing support system for world hunger relief."

devoted much of their week-long effort to probing the international food shortage problem, linking American eating habits to hunger for others.

FAITH HEALING

While hunger was a continuing theme, the issues of abortion, women's rights and the charismatic movement emerged as potential areas of debate as the meeting moved to a conclusion.

A Dallas minister, the Rev. Billy Jaroy, introduced a resolution Wednesday urging the voluntary withdrawal of those who "express or imply an attitude of spiritual superiority by their misrepresentation of certain charismatic gifts, such as faith healing and glossolalia (speaking in tongues), thus disrupting the fellowship of our churches."

And a Plano woman, Mrs. Joe Applewhite, offered a proposal calling for the Texas Legislature to review its approval of the Equal Rights Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

She said she favors equal rights to women but that the amendment is too sweeping and raises the possibility of causing more problems than it solves.

The Baptists put the stamp of approval on a $20.6 million budget for 1975, re-elected the Rev. Ralph Smith of Austin as president and chose Carlos McLeod of Plainview as a first vice president.

Can't Get By On $1,000-A-Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Martha Mitchell still figures she can't get by comfortably on the $1,000-a-week temporary alimony she was awarded as a prelude to her separation suit against former U.S. Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell. Tuesday she asked to renew her original claim for $3,000-a-week.

Edward D. Jones & Co. was established in 1871 in St. Louis, and is the oldest New York Stock Exchange member firm established west of the Mississippi River. It deals in listed and unlisted stocks, bonds, commodities, limited partnerships, short term investments, and other financial services products.

Manhattan Supreme Court Justice Manuel Gomez agreed to hear a re-argument of her claim later this week. He originally pared down Mrs. Mitchell's $3,000 figure to $1,000.

In addition to membership in the New York Stock Exchange, the partnership also belongs to the American Stock Exchange, Midwest Stock Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade, and the Chicago Mercantile Exchange. The firm does business in a total of 31 states, with over 130 offices at present from the states of Florida to Washington, New York to California.

Mitchell currently is on trial in Washington in connection with the Watergate cover-up.

The Big Spring office is located at 113 West Second Street, in the Permian Building, Room 208.

Conscience Pains Eased

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — An East Texas college student's conscience apparently got the better of him.

Rep. Neil Caldwell, D-Alvin, said he received an unsigned, handwritten letter containing $6, which said: "Dear Sir—I am a student at Stephen F. Austin State University, Nacogdoches, Tex., and there is a considerable amount of construction here funded by the state. I stole numerous cinder blocks to make shelves with. I'm sorry for the act and wish this money to go to appropriations for more buildings on universities in Texas. Thank you."

Inside were a $5 and a $1 bill.

Caldwell, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said he would deposit the money in a trustee account and write a $6 check and send it to SFA University.

FIRST TRIPLE VETO Kill UN Resolution To Oust South Africa

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — South Africa is keeping its membership in the United Nations as the result of a triple veto by the United States, Britain and France. But even its savors demanded that the white South African government change its racial policies.

TO TO 3
The Security Council voted 10 to 3 Wednesday in favor of throwing South Africa out of the United Nations. The resolution was defeated only because the three Western powers who voted against it are permanent council members, and their negative votes count as vetoes.

Costa Rica and Austria abstained on the vote. It was the first vote on the specific question of expelling a member country in the 29-year history of the world organization and the first triple veto.

The Council president for October, Michel Njine of Cameroon, said South Africa "remains a member of this organization only because of the veto power." The General Assembly for the past several years has rejected the credentials of South Africa's delegation, but it cannot expel a member without a recommendation from the Security Council. On Sept. 30, the assembly voted 98 to 23 to reject the credentials and took the additional step — by a vote of 125 to 1 — of asking the Security Council to take up South Africa's future in the world organization.

PRESSURE
Speeches during the assembly and council debates made clear that the South African government will be under all kinds of pressure to get it to change its policies.

U.S. Ambassador John A. Scali said the South African policy of racial segregation, known as apartheid, is evil and ugly. He called on the ruling white minority to end it and create a society of equality. But Scali said expulsion was an "all or nothing

No 'Hot' Disclosures In Rockefeller Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP) — Confirmation committees on House and Senate say they have found no major disclosures in new FBI and financial reports that would block Nelson A. Rockefeller's confirmation as vice president.

House Judiciary Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., told newsmen Wednesday there is something new in a 2,300-page FBI report but refused to indicate what it is.

NO BOMBSHELLS
Other members said after a closed door briefing on the report that it has new details but no major new disclosures.

"There are no new bombshells," said Rep. Henry P. Smith, R-N.Y. Sen. Mark Hatfield, R-Ore., a member of the Senate Rules Committee, at the same time, said a comprehensive congressional report on Rockefeller's finances also has nothing in it that would block his confirmation. But Rodino said hard questions will be put to Rockefeller about his previously disclosed wealth and some $2 million in gifts and loans to determine that no improper financial influence was used.

NOT YET
Only 11 of the House committee's 38 members returned from campaigns at home for the briefing and they disagreed sharply on whether any disclosures so far will block Rockefeller's confirmation. "Not yet," said Rep. James R. Mann, D-S.C. "Not based on the information I have, which is sketchy."

But Reps. Walter Flowers, D-Ala., and John Conyers Jr., D-Mich., indicated they would vote against Rockefeller on the information they have so far, partly because of the former New York governor's wealth.

1,300 INTERVIEWS
Both Flowers and Conyers said Rockefeller is wealthier than all previous presidents combined and Flowers added: "There is a serious question whether a man like that should be President."

The FBI report consists primarily of 1,300 interviews by 350 FBI agents, with Rockefeller friends and associates.

Rodino said he hopes to begin House confirmation hearings this week. He said he could not estimate how long they will last.

The Senate Rules Committee has already begun its confirmation hearings.

Social Security Tax To Go Up Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Millions of Americans will pay higher Social Security taxes next year, with additional payroll withholding as high as $52.66 for employees earning $14,100 or more.

TAX RATE
The increase takes effect automatically under Social Security legislation enacted by Congress in 1972 and 1973. There will be no change in the present Social Security tax rates of 5.85 per cent each for employer and 7.9 per cent for the self-employed. However, the tax will be levied on the first $14,100 of each wage earner's income, up from the present $13,200.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare estimated Wednesday that about 19 million workers will be affected by the increase, which will mean an employee's maximum Social Security tax for 1975 will be $824.85, up from $772.20 in 1974. The self-employed will be taxed a maximum additional $71.10 each for a total of $1,113.90, up from this year's $1,042.80.

HIGHER BENEFITS
"In return for the increase in taxes, these affected workers will have greater protection because a larger amount of their earnings will be credited toward benefits than before," HEW Secretary Caspar W. Weinberger said in a statement.

"This will mean higher benefits for them and their families in the event of retirement, disability or death, than would have been possible without an increase in the base," he said. Weinberger noted that Social Security benefits were raised 11 per cent earlier this year. The larger wage base for taxes is expected to bring in an additional $1.8 billion next year.

Didn't Live In Lap Of Luxury

NEW YORK (AP) — John D. Rockefeller IV has disclosed he didn't exactly live in the lap of luxury as a university undergraduate.

While studying at the International Christian University in Tokyo from 1957 to 1960, he said, "my food allowance was $11 a month and I paid $2.75 a month rent in a rooming house."

DA Still Ousted

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Supreme Court affirmed a November 1973 judgment today ousting Jimmie Phagan as district attorney of Wichita County.

Phagan was disbarred in June 1973, and he appealed to the Fort Worth Court of Civil Appeals. After a Wichita County district court ordered him removed from office and declared the office vacant, Phagan appealed that judgment to the Fort Worth Court of Civil Appeals. He contended he could not be removed from office until the disbarment appeal had been completed.

The appeals court noted that at issue in his second appeal, on the ouster, was whether Phagan was entitled to salary as district attorney from the date of the November 1973 judgment until he resigned in March 1974.

The appeals court said the November judgment was based on the fact that a person has to be a licensed attorney to practice law, and Phagan had been disbarred.

"We will have eleven boys on the field against Cooper Friday," Coach Bob Burris promised today. Sickness and a sudden rash of injuries have made a big dent in the varsity roster which already was down to 25.

Ronnie Mullins, defensive free safety, is the latest member to be sidelined for the duration. He tore knee ligaments in Monday's drill and surgery was performed Tuesday.

Ray McCutcheon, offensive starting center, will not suit up this week. He jammed his neck in the Lee game and sat out the entire last half of play.

Frosty Reynolds, offensive tackle, has been out a few days from a fever and cold. His availability remains a big question. Besides these, the previous injury roll call revealed: Jesse Doss, sore ribs; Joe Mathews, sprained ankle; and James Coffey, sore knee. Doss, Mathews and Coffey should be well enough to go against Cooper.

Allan Partee and Randall Jones have been elevated to varsity status. Both have been with the JV. Allen was sent down a week ago to collect valuable experience but was recalled due to the sudden rush of ailments among varsity personnel.

Forsan again failed to impress State Class Top 10 selectors according to latest ratings. The Buffs have run up seven straight impressive wins. Only four schools in the select group can match Forsan's record. The remaining six teams of the "Top 10" have lost at least one. What gives?

Jack Woodley, head coach, remarked, "A big score, I feel, has a bearing where a team lands. Ratings don't bother me. At least as long as we win."

Texas, which boasts the nation's largest public school football program, will have 1,000 schoolboy varsity teams next season, UIL officials announced.

A tentative list for next year shows that Class 4A will have 242 teams, one more than this year; 3A, 146, same count this year; 2A, 208, one more than this year; Class A, 194, same figures; and Class B, 122, one more.

The number of eight-man and six-man football teams is expected to remain the same, at 27 and 62 respectively. Texas fielded 998 public school teams this year.

Big Spring High's open basketball drill will convene tonight at 7 in the Steer gym. Ron Plumlee, head coach, plans a drill each week at this time until the season starts. The Steers will usher in 1974-75 play Nov. 22.

Ali's Price Rising

KINSHASA, Zaire (AP) — Muhammad Ali's going price is rising — $10 million for starters and, would you believe, $20 million? — as indications grew that the heavyweight boxing championship may become a world-girdling road show.

"Rio de Janeiro is a hotly talked spot for the next big fight and, believe it or not, we've even heard suggestions of Tibet," said Don King, mastermind behind Wednesday's spectacular here in the heart of Africa.

"There are many foreign possibilities as well as New York's Garden and the Houston Astrodome. The best matchup now would be a third fight between Ali and Joe Frazier."

Ali became the catalyst in all future fight negotiations when he knocked out George Foreman and regained the title in a historic bout in the predawn hours at the Stadium of the 20th of May.

Despite its unique 4 a.m. local starting time, the bout apparently was a financial success. Closed circuit ticket sales were reported especially heavy in the United States and England with a $30 million gross anticipated.

Each fighter was guaranteed $1 million. The victorious Ali, who regained the crown taken from him because of his resistance in the draft in 1967, was up and moving a few hours after his sensational victory.

He gave a series of non-stop news conferences, starting at N'Sele and climaxing at the Inter-Continental Hotel, in which he teased inquirers over his original vow to retire.

PREFERS BENCH TO PULPIT — The Rev. Richard Connelly, a Catholic priest from Washington Court, Ohio, spends his Sundays on the sidelines with the Cincinnati Bengals of the National Football League. He's been swapping the spot for his pulpit for 19 years.

beginning with the original Cleveland Browns. "Football players have their problems, too. I let them lean on me," said the 65-year-old priest. Bengal players are, from left, Royce Berry, Chip Myers and Howard Fest.

Steers Schedule Next To Last Road Contest

By CLARK LESHER — Big Spring trips to Abilene Cooper Friday night for its next-to-last road engagement of the season. A 5-4A game is listed.

The Steers travel to Odessa High, Nov. 8 and close out the year at home, hosting San Angelo, Nov. 15.

Cooper sports a 5-2 overall total and is even up in the district, 2-2. The Cougars lost a hard-fought decision to state second-ranked Permian, 14-6 last Friday in Odessa.

The Steers have lost their last five contests and are 2-5 in the seasonal column. For information switching this year from the previously used Houston Year. The Cougars layout a 5-2 monster defense and on occasion place four deep in the secondary.

Scott Ritchey, Cooper senior halfback, is the team's leading point contributor. He has recorded 24 points on four TD's. Ritchey's forward-stepping of 81 times has netted 413 yards for a 5.0 average per carry.

Guard Jimmy Norris, left halfbacks Steve Barber and Mark Griffith and tackle Chuck Reed help boost Cougar talent.

Johnny Jones is the heart of the attack and is so fast that he can break open a ball game at any time.

Robert's said that it took the Bulldogs a couple of days to get over the controversial call which cost them the ball game last week, but that they will be up for the Hamlin game.

Game time is at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Earlier Gary Roberts was lost the Bulldog season when he suffered similar injury a couple of weeks ago.

"We'll really have to hit hard and hustle to win this game, because Hamlin is probably better than they were last year," said Norman Roberts, Bulldog head coach.

Hamlin has speed, size and are good enough to be unbeaten in District play. They are the defending district champs, but according to Roberts, they have a better throwing quarterback, better receivers and better depth than last year's team which beat Coahoma 18-7.

Hunter Wins Award

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Being selected as the top pitcher in the American League by winning the Cy Young Award hasn't troubled Catfish Hunter's relationship with his boss, Oakland A's owner Charles O. Finley.

Finley insisted in a telephone interview from his home in Hertford, N.C., after his Cy Young Award selection that Finley "still owes me $50,000 on this year's contract."

Asked about this and the possibility he might claim free agent status, Hunter said that and the salary matter would be discussed at a meeting between his attorneys, Marvin Miller of the Players Association and Bowie Kuhn, commissioner of baseball.

"They're going to decide what's going to happen on that," Hunter said.

When Finley was asked about the dispute, he declined comment. "Why ruin a great day for Hunter," he said. Finley said he was "very proud and happy" for Hunter whom he described as "one of the finest gentlemen in the game."

The 28-year-old North Carolinian appeared mildly surprised at his winning the Cy Young Award over Ferguson Jenkins of the Texas Rangers, who received 75 points of a 24-member panel of the Baseball Writers Association of America to 90 for Hunter.

Hunter said he learned of his selection Wednesday afternoon when his wife told him after he returned from a fruitless deer hunt.

"I thought Ferguson Jenkins might get it instead of me," Hunter said. He pointed out that both of them had 25 victories last season and that Oakland had won the World Series.

"His team was not as good, so he had to pitch a little better, maybe," Hunter said.

Hunter agreed that the Cy Young Award was the greatest honor to come to him during his 10-year career in the majors.

"I think when a pitcher comes into baseball the first thing he wants to do is win 20 games, the second is to win a World Series and the third is to win the Cy Young award," he said.

Hunter was the only pitcher named on each of the 24 ballots, and he received 12 firstplace votes to 10 for Jenkins.

The California Angels' Nolan Ryan came in third with 28 points and one first-place vote. Cleveland's Gaylord Perry got the other first place vote and tied with Luis Tiant of Boston with eight points. Baltimore's Mike Cuellar had six and reeve John Hiller of the Detroit Tigers had one.

Last year's AL Cy Young winner was Jim Palmer of Baltimore.

Cooper took care of Big Spring last year, 28-10.

AREA ROUNDUP

Forsan Meets Hawley Friday

The featured surrounding schoolboy gridiron attraction for Friday involves a close one to Big Spring. Forsan entertains Hawley at 7:30 p.m. in an all-important 3B match.

Forsan for some unknown reason is scratched from the State Class B Top 10, but shows off a classy 7-0 total.

In 3B, Forsan is tied for the leadership with state ranked Bronte and Jayton. All three present 4-0 slips.

Bronte and Jayton will match plays Friday. If all goes well this will set the stage for winner-take-all Nov. 15 management at Forsan.

The Buffaloes survived an acid test last Friday, stopping Sterling City, 13-7. Hawley 4-3 overall and 1-3 in the district squeaked by Sands, 6-0 last Friday.

Jack Woodley, Forsan coach, says he has been besieged with minor aches and pains this week. Wesley Thixton and Billy Banks came down with the flu bug. Billy Osborne bruised his shoulder, and Allar Hollingsworth is nursing a pulled thumb from the Sterling game.

All are expected to be available for duty at game-time Friday.

A capacity crowd is expected to witness this eye-catcher. The stadium can seat 1,000. Woodley notes people could park the cars around the field to view the game from that angle if bad weather sets in.

Hawley probably won't bring too many followers as the town is rated some 130 miles away.

Elsewhere around the area circuit for Friday:

Stanton, victim in its first 5A tussle, 30-22 to Seagraves, hosts Plains. The Buffs are 4-3 overall.

Lamesa still looking for a winning 3A combination entertains Estacado. The Golden Tornadoes have yet to win any of their four district games played. Lamesa, 3-5 overall and 0-4 in 3A was stopped by Brownsfield 8-7 last Friday.

Sands enjoys a home game with Lorraine. The Mustangs stand at 1-6 overall and winless in four 3B outings.

Garden City hooks up with a 1B eight-man battle on its home field against Klondike. The Barklarks lost out to Borden County last Friday, 32-12.

Borden County 4-3 overall, goes to Wellman in a 1B attraction. Dawson shutout Klondike 19-0 last Friday.

Grady, 0-6 after a two weeks absence from the scene, skips over to Whittrale.

Dallas Picked

Buffalo and New England, both 6-1 for the season, are causing problems again for the old Pro Pigskin Pickers as he looks over Sunday's National Football League games.

There was a two-point difference in Buffalo's favor two weeks ago. This time the oddsmakers favor the Patriots by 3½ points, which means that it would be virtually a "pick-it" game on a neutral field. It's tough to pick against either team, but the initial visceral feeling was Buffalo and we've ignored those too many times. So ... BILLS 32, PATRIOTS 24.

After that timid start, here's a soft whisper that last week's guess produced a miserable 7-6 showing. That left the over-all record at 61-29-1 for 678.

ST. LOUIS (7-0) at DALLAS (3-4): The pigskin picker is either going to sink or swim this week on these initial impulses. So, even though Dallas is favored, let's say ... COWBOYS 24, CARDINALS 21.

OAKLAND (6-1) at DENVER (3-3-1): This could be the year the Raiders get to visit the Super Bowl again ... RAIDERS 30, BRONCOS 24.

PHILADELPHIA (4-3) at PITTSBURGH (5-1-1): Would you believe that Pittsburgh is only favored by eight points? That shows you that Mike McCormack is doing a pretty good job with the Eagles. Anyway ... STEELERS 28, EAGLES 23.

MINNESOTA (5-2) at CHICAGO (3-4): The Vikings have lost two straight. Will the Bears make it three? No ... VIKINGS 21, BEARS 16.

WASHINGTON (4-3) at GREEN BAY (3-4): Either the oddsmakers aren't that impressed with the Redskins, or they are afraid of John Hadl. They made the "Skins favorites by only 3½ points. But George Allen is NOT ... do you hear us, George ... going to lose three times in succession ... RED-SKINS 19, PACKERS 17.

NEW ORLEANS (3-4) at DE-TROIT (3-4): A third straight victory by either team could get contagious. The Lions are favored, and this is no place for an argument ... LIONS 24, SAINTS 17.

CINCINNATI (4-3) at BALTIMORE (1-6): Virtually every team in the league except Baltimore has pulled off a genuine upset this year. Is it time for the Colts? Don't bet on it ... BENGALS 34, COLTS 17.

ATLANTA (2-5) at MIAMI (5-2): The Dolphins won 20-7 the only other time these two teams met in regular-season play. Why not try for the same score again? Thus ... DOL-PHINS 20, FALCONS 7.

NEW YORK GIANTS (1-6) at KANSAS CITY (3-4): Craig Morton should know a little more about the Giants this week and even though the Chiefs are favored by a touchdown, let's make this the Upset Special of the Week and say ... GIANTS 17, CHIEFS 16.

CLEVELAND (2-5) at SAN DIEGO (1-6): The Chargers were supposed to pull off an upset last week. They didn't. Maybe this time ... CHARGERS 20, BROWNS 19.

HOUSTON (2-5) at NEW YORK JETS (1-6): Do we really have to pick the loser here? Anyway ... OILERS 19, JETS 16.

LOS ANGELES (5-2) at SAN FRANCISCO (2-5): This one will probably be so one-sided that Howard Cosell may run out of something to say. Well, he'll probably have to talk even more than usual on Monday night ... RAMS 33, 49ERS 17.

McCloskey Ends Six-Year Wait For Tampa Franchise

NEW YORK (AP) — Tom McCloskey ended a six-year wait Wednesday when he was awarded the new Tampa franchise in the National Football League.

McCloskey was picked because of his close ties with Tampa, NFL Commissioner Peter Rozelle said. Yet, Tampa sports figures registered surprise that the expansion franchise went to an out-of-towner.

The league owners will award the Seattle franchise within the next month, Rozelle said, and both teams will begin play in the 1976 season.

The commissioner said the league will expand again, taking in two more teams, conceivably as early as 1976 but probably later.

"We feel McCloskey will make a very fine owner," Rozelle said.

McCloskey, the son of a former ambassador to Ireland and Democratic Party treasurer, Matthew H. McCloskey, tried to buy the Philadelphia Eagles when their then-owner, Jerry Wolman, went bankrupt. He failed when Leonard Tose purchased the team.

BATEMAN LEAVES Cowboys Land WFL Punter

DALLAS (AP) — In a mild dose of poetic justice as far as the Dallas Cowboys are concerned, they landed a World Football League punter Wednesday and sent three-year veteran Marv Bateman and his bad case of the shanks packing.

The troubled WFL signed seven Cowboys to various contracts this year.

The National Football League Cowboys signed punter Duane Carrell, who averaged 41.4 yards on 93 punts for the now defunct Jacksonville Sharks of the WFL.

Carrell, a Florida State product, will handle the punting chores Sunday when the Cowboys meet the unbeaten St. Louis Cardinals in Texas Stadium.

Bateman, who was from Utah, was averaging 36.9 yards per punt. He shanked one punt for only nine yards against the New York Giants last Sunday.

Valcano In Guatemala Cools It After Killing

GUATEMALA CITY (AP) — The 10,000-foot Fuego volcano ended its eruption after killing one person and virtually disrupting the Guatemalan economy, the Guatemalan president says.

The volcano, located about 24 miles west of Guatemala City, stopped spewing lava, hot ash, cinder and burning rocks Tuesday night after 20 days of continuous eruption. President Kjell Eugenio Laugerud Garcia said Wednesday night.

SPOILS SUGAR — But weather and seismological officials said the eruption could resume. They said the volcano may have stopped erupting only temporarily.

In a news conference Wednesday night, President Laugerud Garcia said the eruption affected a 3,000-square-mile area causing damages to coffee, cotton, apple and sugar crops of more than $35 million.

"We may not be able to recover from this, in terms of a virtual disruption of the economy, until late next year," Laugerud Garcia said.

Guatemala is a country south of Mexico with an area of 42,042 square miles and a population of 5.6 million. It had a gross national product of $1.9 billion last year and its economy is solely based on agriculture with sugar, bananas, and cotton.

The president also said that the ash and lava raised river flows and that heavy flooding may be expected during the winter rainy season.

KILLS CATLE — Meanwhile, the National Livestock Commission said the ash and burning rocks had killed off scores of cattle. The exact number of dead cattle was not revealed but a spokesman said 614,000 cattle head "were affected." He did not elaborate.

He said the eruption damaged thousands of acres of grazing land.

This was the first time the Fuego volcano showed volcanic activity in three years. A volcano eruption in 1773 destroyed the ancient Guatemalan capital of Antigua, which was rebuilt and now has become a major tourist attraction point.

This time, Antigua was spared because the wind, blowing in the opposite direction, carried away ash and burning rocks which otherwise would have fallen in Antigua, officials said.

BOY DIES — Early in the eruption this time, a six-month-old boy was killed when a burning rock struck him in the face as his mother carried him in her arms while fleeing from the eruption. It was the only reported casualty.

The ash almost buried the town of Yopocapa at the foot of the volcano. Most of its 12,000 residents abandoned the town and took shelter in Guatemala City.

Two earthquakes were felt in Southern Mexico, near the Guatemalan border, during the eruption but seismological officials declined to speculate whether the eruption and the earthquakes may have been related.

No injuries or damages were reported from the quakes that struck on Oct. 24 and last Tuesday. Officials said they could not immediately establish what caused the eruption.

Plywood Recovery?

HOUSTON (AP) — The president of the American Plywood Association has predicted a strong recovery for the industry in 1975.

William C. Smith of

Medford, Ore., said he bases his forecast on the likelihood of a national housing comeback starting next spring and on the continuing strength of plywood's non-housing markets.

"We are optimistic that all the efforts with Congress and the administration will result in a resumption of the mortgage money flow by December of this year," Smith told delegates to the association's fall meeting Tuesday.

He forecast actual mortgage commitments starting in late January and new housing starts by April 1975.

Two Men Are Foiled In Extortion Try

MIDLAND — Two white males who held the wife of a Midland bank executive hostage are being sought here by local, state and federal law enforcement officers.

Mrs. Robert L. Pendleton, whose husband is president of the Commercial Bank and Trust Co., was tied with a window sash to a chair in her bedroom, after which the extortionists demanded a sum said to be $400,000 from her husband for her safe release.

Pendleton obtained the money and was followed to his home by lawmen.

When he arrived, he found his wife in a bedroom closet, bound to a chair. She said the men started to gag her but decided against it because of her pleading. She was unharmed.

The two intruders had vanished. No money exchanged hands.

The men were described as being in their early 20s and about 5-8 in height.

Police theorized that a police siren heard in the area might have frightened the men away. The police car was chasing a vehicle accused of a traffic violation.

The Pendleton home is located at 2503 Humble Street in a fashionable section of Midland.

Pendleton said he received the call about 10 a.m., at the bank, shortly after he arrived for work. He added his caller demanded that he deliver the money in small denominations. He arrived at his home about an hour after receiving the call.

Roadblocks were set up around Midland as soon as Pendleton notified police.

Mrs. Pendleton told police she could not determine how long the men had been gone from the house before her husband and the police arrived.

Funeral Services Held For Slain Disc Jockey

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Funeral services were held Wednesday for Fred C. West, 21, shot to death last week by kidnapers in Deland, Fla.

Florida authorities said West was abducted last Thursday night and held for $10,000 ransom. Officers found West's body Saturday near a golf course in Deland.

Two Deland area men have been charged in connection with the kidnaping.

Mrs. Fred West said Wednesday her son had moved from here to Deland in Feb., 1973, to work as a disc jockey at a radio station owned by Tom Joyner, formerly of Kerrville.

Joyner said one of the men accused in the crime, James Terry Abbott Jr., 28, had been a casual acquaintance of West in Deland.

Law enforcement officials speculated that West was kidnapped because his abductors thought his father, who died in August, had left his son a large inheritance.

Mrs. West said her husband, a retired federal government management consultant, was a man of modest means.

West had attended Schreiner College here and Texas A&M in College Station before moving to Florida.

For The Birds

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — Secretary of Defense James R. Schlesinger's trip here was to inspect oil fields and deliver a speech on national defense. It also was for the birds.

The bidding: Seven of ♠. North East South West
1♦ 2♥ 2♣ Pass
3♦ Pass 3♠ Pass
4♦ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Seven of ♠.

Swiss internationalist Tony Trad is the organizer of several of Europe's leading bridge congresses. But his fame is mainly as a player, and in Europe, he is rated among the best defenders in the game, as this hand from a recent tournament demonstrates.

Trad's two heart overcall on the East cards is the intermediate jump overcall, popular with many European players. It shows a one-suited hand of opening bid strength. That action did not deter South from entering the auction, and when he rebid his spades North judged well to go on to game with his doubleton honor.

West led his top heart, and against routine defense South would have romped home with his contract. He was unlucky that, in Trad, he had to contend with a player of great ability. Even though the king and ace of hearts both stood up, prospects for the defense were not bright. The ace of spades would complete the defensive book, but the setting trick did not appear in sight. Since South almost surely held the ace of diamonds for his bidding, there were no tricks to be had in the minor suits. Thus, the only chance lay in promoting a second trump trick.

In pursuit of this plan, Trad continued with a third round of hearts. Declarer ruffed with the nine, entered dummy with the jack of diamonds and led a spade. Trad was tempted to rise with the ace of spades and lead a fourth heart, but he saw that this would not succeed—declarer would discard a club from hand while ruffing in dummy, return to his hand with a club ruff and draw trumps when the queen fell under the king.

The winning defense, therefore, was to play the queen of trumps. Declarer won the king and led a trump to the jack and ace. But now a fourth heart completed the trump promotion—if declarer ruffed low, West would overruff with the seven. Alternatively, if declarer ruffed with the ten, West's seven would be promoted to the setting trick!

PUBLIC STANDS ON CAMPAIGN ISSUES BEAR LITTLE IF ANY DIFFERENCES

Expensive Showdown In Congressional Race

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Two nonsmoking bachelors with armloads of university degrees are rolling toward an already expensive showdown to represent 50,000 square miles of mostly Texas brushland in the U.S. Congress.

"Fine, I'm glad that there are that many people who think I will be a good congressman," says Krueger, when he is asked about ranking third behind two incumbents in contributions and loans across the nation to congressional candidates.

"I think that nationally we won't rate in the top 10 when the final figures are in," says Mauro. "I think we'll be lucky—or unlucky—enough to rate in the top 25."

CONVINCED The issue appears to be which candidate can be an effective conservative. Both men's public stands on campaign issues bear little if any differences.

gages in the inconsistency of trying to call me a McGovernite and at the same time saying that as a conservative Democrat, I could not be effective in the Congress. You can't have it both ways."

Krueger had spent $226,000. Harlan spent about $19,000 in the Republican primary, which in Texas traditionally draws little attention.

A Washington, D.C., political action committee which Harlan says supports opponents of labor-endorsed candidates has sent Harlan $2,000.

To Seek Death Penalty

GEORGE WEST, Tex. (AP) — The state will seek the death penalty in the trial of two men charged in the shooting death of a state narcotics officer near here last week.

Dist. Atty. John Flynn said Tuesday he wanted to have the trial in Live Oak County because "we have had no trouble in getting convictions when they were called for."

Police arrested Doyle Edward Skillern, 38, and Charles V. Sanne, 41, both formerly of Corpus Christi, last Thursday morning in connection with the slaying of narcotics officer Patrick Randel, 46.

Authorities said Randel was shot six times last Wednesday night and his body was left at a roadside park near the intersection of Texas 9 and 59 where it was discovered early Thursday.

Law enforcement officers arrested Skillern and Sanne near Harlingen as they were driving a car allegedly stolen in Austin.

Live Oak County Atty. Bill Hardwicke said the search for the missing death weapon was called off temporarily. The police theorized that the weapon was thrown out somewhere between Beeville and Harlingen.

Authorities said Randel was on an undercover operation when he was shot. Skillern was released from state prison in May after serving two years of a five-year sentence for killing his brother, Milton, in their Padre Island home in 1971.

Sanne, who was a friend of both brothers, had testified against Skillern at his murder trial.

Bans Discrimination In Granting Credit

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill giving savers an additional $20,000 federal insurance on deposits in banks, savings and loans institutions and credit institutions has been signed by President Ford.

The bill boosted the federal insurance level to $40,000. It also bans discrimination based on sex or marital status in the granting or denying of credit. In addition, it provides new protection for consumers

Collin County Sheriff Named

MCKINNEY, Tex. (AP) — Jerry Burton, 39, police chief at Allen for six years, is the new Collin County sheriff.

He was chosen Tuesday by county commissioners to succeed interim sheriff Jerry Kunkle, who moved up from the chief deputy's job after Sheriff George Smith resigned Oct. 21. Smith said he was going to a better paying job with a Harris County security firm.

The commissioners said they made the final selection after reducing a field of 20 applicants to Burton, Kunkle and Deputy Sheriff Wilford Williams.

'The Godfather' To Earn Sky-High Ratings, Gripes

NEW YORK (AP) — Shows dealing with what networks call "mature subject matter" often start with brief, vaguely worded advisories which gently urge parents to decide if their impressionable kids should leave the room.

But with "The Godfather," which NBC will air in two parts on Nov. 16 and 18, the network is taking the discreet storm warning several steps further to make certain viewers realize strong fare is pending.

Bus Wreck Injures 21

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Authorities reported 21 school children were treated at hospitals today after a bus in which they were riding overturned on a wet road.

Although there were reports that two children suffered fractures, none of the children in the nearly-full bus were believed seriously injured.

The bus belonged to the Southside Independent School District. A school spokesman said the bus' brakes failed, hit a guard rail and overturned at Cambellton Road and Farm 1518. An undetermined number of children were treated for superficial injuries at the scene.

Authorities said 10 children went to one hospital and 11 went to another.

Storm Lashes Elbow Area

A menacing storm that struck Elbow shortly after 10:30 a.m. poured out half an inch of rain in 10 minutes, riddled the area with mostly pea-sized hail, shucked most trees, and hurled a few large hailstones that cracked the school cafeteria window.

Eastern Big Spring measured a quarter of an inch within a few minutes.

He said the amendment would provide "overly liberal salaries" to the hearing officers, who would be reclassified "regardless of their qualifications."

In another veto, Ford struck down vocational rehabilitation legislation on grounds it transferred the aid-to-the-handicapped program from one part of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare to another "for no good reason — indeed very bad reasons."

Put Herminio Traviesas, NBC's broadcast standards chief, on the "Today" show to discuss the film for anyone still unfamiliar with it, explain why it's being shown and perhaps how it's been edited.

Storm Lashes Elbow Area

Despite all the advance precautions, "The Godfather" showing undoubtedly will earn NBC both sky-high ratings and loud gripes from viewers who feel the movie belongs only in theaters.

Heavy Voting Guess

By The Associated Press

Heavy voting predicted by the Texas Election Bureau for next week's general elections is causing Democrats and Republicans to review their chances to win at the polls.

Republicans say a low turnout will help them and Democrats say a sizeable ballot will benefit their candidates.

Robert Johnson, veteran director of the unofficial vote gathering agency financed privately by Texas newspapers and radio-television stations, predicted Tuesday about 2.75 million votes will be cast Nov. 5.

Jim Granberry, the Republican nominee for governor, declared Tuesday night in Tyler that Gov. Dolph Briscoe, the Democrat he hopes to unseat, was the "unavailable governor."

He said Briscoe has moved the state capital to Uvalde or his South Texas ranch and spends only 10 per cent of his time in Austin.

"He is almost completely unavailable to the media except for a time six to eight weeks prior to an election," Granberry asserted.

Briscoe's office said Tuesday he would remain in Uvalde at the bedside of his critically ill mother at least through election day.

The American Party candidate for governor, Sam McDonnell, told employees at Ling-Temco-Vaughn plants in Dallas and Grand Prairie Tuesday that Texas needs "a governor with the guts and know how to protect you from takeover by those federal power grabbers."

Republican Nick Rowe, candidate for state comptroller, leveled charges of racism at his Democratic opponent, Bob Bullock.

At a San Antonio news conference, Rowe claimed Bullock, a former state representative from Hill County, had "voted for nine measures that were blatantly unconstitutional and racist."

"Today Bullock tells us he is the champion of the rights of blacks, Mexican-Americans and women," Rowe said.

Also in San Antonio, Bullock said the state comptroller's duty was to end harassment of business with "nitpicking examinations and audits" and to spend some effort helping independent businesses collect taxes right.

In Midland, Bob Holt, Republican candidate for treasurer, called for removal of the state treasurer from the State Banking Board.

He said the treasurers being in a position to pass on bank charter applications and control placement of state funds is a "cozy arrangement that is not good for the taxpayers of Texas."

Borrow Loot

Between Sept. 1 and Oct. 15, federal reports show, Harlan took in $27,000 more than Krueger in contributions and loans and the Krueger camp claims Harlan may pull even with Krueger in contributions and spending by election day.

Both candidates have borrowed heavily from a handful of individuals in the district who either guarantee bank notes or loan directly. Federal reports, which add loans to contributions, show Krueger borrowed $106,000 this year by Oct. 15 and Harlan $41,300.

Outside groups have a role in contributions to both candidates, although a study of campaign reports indicate it is not a major one. Harlan has received $12,000 from GOP campaign committees in Washington, D.C. and Krueger $3,000 from the Democrats.

PRICE IS WHAT YOU PAY - VALUE IS WHAT YOU GET... YOU BE THE JUDGE!

OH, BOY! I'VE GOT TO GET A NEW CAR AND 1975'S ARE PRICED HIGHER THAN 1974'S

YES, BUT THE THING TO DO IS GET THE BEST VALUE!

FOR EXAMPLE - THE PRICE OF SUGAR IS UP 201% BUT IT ISN'T SWEETER OR DOESN'T LAST LONGER. SHOES HAVE INCREASED IN PRICE MORE THAN 97.6% - YET THE LEATHER IN THEM IS NOT ANY BETTER.

SOME CARS HAVE AN INCREASE IN PRICE... BUT NOT IN VALUE. CHEVROLET, HOWEVER, GIVES YOU ADDED VALUE BY INCLUDING CERTAIN OPTIONAL EQUIPMENT AS STANDARD EQUIPMENT. IN CHEVROLET YOU GET THE CATALYTIC CONVERTER. AT NO EXTRA COST (HELPS THE ENGINE RUN LEANER, CLEANER AND SAVES YOU MONEY EVERY MILE.)

ALSO, THE HIGH ENERGY IGNITION SYSTEM (NO POINTS OR CONDENSER TO REPLACE... 4 TIMES THE LIFE SPAN OF SPARK PLUGS - WHEN YOU CHANGE AT 22,500 MILE INTERVALS) AND STEEL BELTED RADIAL TIRES FOR BETTER RIDE AND TRACTION.

NOW, THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE VALUE INCREASES THAT GO WITH THE PRICE INCREASE OF 1975 CHEVROLETS. I BELIEVE THE INCREASE IN VALUE OFFSETS THE INCREASE IN PRICE. SO... YOU BE THE JUDGE!

NEED A NEW 1975 CAR?
WE HAVE EVERYTHING FROM THE COMPACT VEGA TO THE LUXURIOUS CAPRICE!

NEED A NEW 1975 TRUCK?
CHOOSE FROM THE CHEVROLET LUV PICKUP TO THE HEAVY-DUTY TANDEM

NEED A USED CAR OR TRUCK?
WE HAVE OK USED CARS IN ALL MAKES AND MODELS. THEY'RE CLEAN AND READY.

IF IT'S TRANSPORTATION YOU NEED, WE HAVE IT...AND AT PRICES & TRADES THAT CAN'T BE BEAT!

FOR THE BEST DEAL POSSIBLE... CHECK WITH ANY OF THE TRANSPORTATION SPECIALISTS AT POLLARD CHEVROLET...YOUR ONE-STOP TRANSPORTATION CENTER

Child Care Hearing Scheduled

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) - Rep. Carlos Truan, D-Corpus Christi, has scheduled a Nov. 12 hearing of the House Human Resources Committee to consider proposals for taking care of children who cannot be cared for at home.

"Some children inhabit the wards of state institutions without having experienced any attempt whatsoever to improve their conditions and with little hope of ever obtaining real hope," said a draft of a report by the committee.

The report is based on a study initiated by Speaker Price Daniel Jr. after a Liberty County grand jury indicted the operator of Artesia Hall, a private child-care facility, for murder in the death of a 17-year-old patient there in June 1973.

"Average Texas citizens" must accept a share of the blame for the child-care "crisis," the report states, "for they did not watch closely enough to see that children and young people were being fairly and humanely treated, and those who did notice deficiencies did not raise any protest strong enough so that it could not be ignored."

Expenditures for child welfare in Texas ranked 53rd out of 53 states and territorial jurisdictions, the report said.

The report, made public Wednesday, recommended prohibiting construction of large child-care institutions by the state and reducing the size of or eliminating existing institutions.

It proposed establishing a new state agency, the Texas Department of Children and Youth Affairs, supported by the power of the governor's office, to replace the Commission on Services to Children and Youth.

Even if the new department is not created, the report said, the commission should be abolished as "Texas tax dollars can be better spent" elsewhere.

Other recommendations included: Extending an early health screening program to poor children not covered by federal assistance programs.

Revamping the licensing law of the 1940s under which the Department of Public Welfare licenses private child-care facilities.

Increasing state appropriations for care and treatment of children.

Authorizing care for dependent and neglected children who are not welfare recipients.

Studying the need for a children's bill of rights.

Guaranteeing most mentally retarded and mentally disturbed persons the same rights as others.

Prohibiting a former employe or board member of a state agency from representing a client before that agency. The prohibition should be extended to legislators if they are being paid for their service.

Providing state funds to finance a special education program in every public school district.

Removing the requirement that the state commissioner of mental health and mental retardation be a licensed physician.

TWO ASTROS PREDICT Fem Scientists To Fly Into Space In 1980's

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) - Women scientists will fly into space early in the 1980s and by late in that decade will be part of multinational crews on large space stations, two male astronauts predict.

The prediction reflects the views of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Dr. Joseph P. Kerwin, the first American physician to fly into space as a member of last year's Skylab I crew, and Dr. Robert Parker, scientist-astronaut for the Skylab program, made the forecast Wednesday at a conference here evaluating Skylab results.

"There's no question but that women will fly in the early 1980s if the space shuttle program remains on schedule," Parker said. The shuttle is a reusable rocket ship expected to ferry hundreds of researchers from many lands into orbit starting in 1979.

"There was a time when the public was not ready for the thought of men and women going to the moon together," Parker said. "But times have changed. I don't foresee any problem about men and women getting along together on space missions. We're not talking about dizzy blonde secretaries, but reputable women scientists."

Kerwin said the Skylab project, in which men worked in space for up to 84 days, proved that men and women researchers making space trips aboard the shuttle will not have to undergo rigorous physical training that has been required of astronauts.

"Anybody in a reasonable state of health, regardless of age, will be able to fly as an experimenter in the operational shuttle and space station programs," he said.

Louisiana Downs Racing Lures Crowd Of 12,585

BOSSIER CITY, La. (AP) - A crowd of 12,585 turned out to bet a total of $579,246 on the opening day nine-race program Wednesday at Louisiana Downs, the state's newest thoroughbred racing track.

It marked the climax to a seven-year dispute in which church groups led an anti-gambling battle to keep the track out of North Louisiana. But the $20 million facility was built after a Bossier Parish public vote narrowly approved it.

Despite the long planning, there were some last-minute hitches. Right up to post time workers were clearing crates from stairways and moving construction equipments from the infield.

Some carpet still was not laid, and the big glass enclosure for the stands was still in boxes.

As expected, the parking lot was full of Texas and Arkansas license plates, and cowboy hats bobbed in the crowd.

Gov. Edwin Edwards cut a ribbon for the big opening.

Despite daylong rain Tuesday and sprinkles Wednesday until near time for the first race, the track was in good condition although a little heavy.

Sure Landing and Mr. Jesse, running in separate divisions, shared the $10,000 Red River Handicap by touring the six furlongs in identical times of 1:15.3.

Sure Landing broke from the gate in the middle of the pack, challenged at the turn and took charge in the long straightaway. Mr. Jesse led from wire to wire.

Officials insisted on first-line horses, and the racing secretary found himself a little short of names to fill out the rest of the week's card for races based on Louisiana-breds.

"We will fill them out," a track spokesman said, "either by arranging for substitute races or by persuading owners to ship in some of their second-best horses."

He estimated all stalls would be filled within 10 days for the 77-day season.

Clyde Now Has Weekly Paper

CLYDE - The Clyde Journal, a weekly newspaper, begins publication here today.

Lanham also owns the Merkey Mail and is composing room foreman of the Abilene Reporter-News. The Clyde paper will sell for 15 cents a copy.

STERLING CITY - The Sterling City Lions Club will host a turkey shoot starting at 10 a.m. Saturday at the rifle range four miles west of town at the overpass.

The shoot will include a trap shoot and running deer shoot with frozen turkeys awarded in each category. The public is invited.

MS Drive Honduran Aid Success Plans Mixed

The various events of the Multiple Sclerosis fund campaign have yielded $3,819.27 to date, according to Mrs. Lou LaRochelle.

This includes amounts raised through the benefit dance sponsored by the Jayceeettes, the collection by members of the Big Spring High School Steer football team, the Work of Beta Sigma Phi, and the door-to-door canvass by scores of volunteers.

"We are thankful for all the many people who pitched in and gave so willingly of their time and energies," said Mrs. LaRochelle. "We hope they will have the satisfaction of knowing that we have helped in a battle to alleviate if not overcome one of our most tragic diseases."

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — El Salvador and Mexico have offered to send helicopters to Honduras to help an estimated 31,000 persons still trapped in flooded areas devastated by Hurricane Fifi.

The United States still had not decided to send helicopters requested by this Central American country.

El Salvador went to war against Honduras in 1969 over population and border problems, a conflict that cost 2,000 dead. The two nations still have not resumed diplomatic relations.

Health officials of Mexico and El Salvador flew over the affected region of 840 square miles in northern Honduras Wednesday aboard Honduran Air Force planes. Honduras has no helicopters.

Honduras appealed last week for helicopters to send emergency supplies to the refugees and pluck them off hills where they are trapped.

Honduras said the refugees faced possible starvation because it was next to impossible to send relief due to washed out roads and destroyed airports.

U.S. Ambassador Philip Sanchez said in an interview Wednesday night he had asked the State Department in Washington to send helicopters but that no decision has yet been made.

Sanchez, however, announced the U.S. Agency for International Development would make a $5-million donation to the Honduran government to rebuild the devastated region.

Meanwhile, a mobile hospital arrived in Tegucigalpa Wednesday from California, the Honduran Emergency Committee said. The hospital will be manned by 15 medics from the California Adventist Congregation, the committee said.

The Honduran government was still trying to fight off charges made earlier this month by a Florida couple that relief supplies were mishandled.

Jeb Sticks To Story At Trial

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Nixon campaign aide Jeb Stuart Magruder stuck by his story today that John N. Mitchell had approved a political intelligence plan that led to the Watergate break-in. But he described it as "never an enthusiastic approval."

Plato Cacheris, attorney for Mitchell, the former U.S. attorney general, questioned Magruder closely about the meeting on March 30, 1972, in Key Biscayne, Fla., at which Magruder — former deputy director of Richard M. Nixon's presidential re-election committee — has said Mitchell approved the political intelligence plan.

Under cross-examination by Cacheris, Magruder, the third prosecution witness in the Watergate cover-up trial, said that at first Mitchell asked: "Couldn't we delay the plan?"

Magruder said after he cited increasing interest in the plan from the White House. "I have a recollection of Mr. Mitchell saying to me, it was never an enthusiastic approval — something like, 'So ahead and give them the $250,000 and let's see what they come up with.'"

The start of today's session was delayed nearly one hour by a conference in U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica's office attended by prosecution and defense lawyers. None of the participants would say what the meeting concerned.

At the start of his cross-examination of Magruder, Cacheris asked the witness about times he has admitted lying under oath, including when he was a witness at the Watergate break-in trial in January 1973.

MONEY RECOVERED?

$4.3 Million Heist Charges Name Two

CHICAGO (AP) — Authorities on Grand Cayman Island in the British West Indies have arrested two men charged in connection with a $4.3 million theft at the Armored Express Corp. here, the FBI says.

An FBI spokesman here Charles Marzano and Michael DiFonzo were being held on Grand Cayman pending deportation.

MYSTERY

There was no indication whether any of the money had been recovered in the largest cash haul of any U.S. robbery.

In a complaint filed with the U.S. magistrate's office here on Wednesday, Marzano, DiFonzo and Marzano's cousin, William Anthony Marzano, were charged with bank burglary, bank larceny and illegal use of explosives.

The FBI said it did not know where William Marzano is.

Earlier, three other men, including an Armored Express guard, were charged with the same crimes in connection with the Oct. 20 heist in which thieves hauled away 800 pounds of small bills in a van.

A 1973 Lincoln Continental found Tuesday near an Executive Jet Aviation Inc. hangar at the airport in Columbus, Ohio, had been rented in Chicago by those charged, authorities said.

They said DeFonzo and Marzano evidently drove to Columbus the day after the burglary and leased a jet for $3,500. They said Peter Gushi, 47, also charged, and another unidentified man were believed to have flown as far as Miami.

Gushi, however, returned to Chicago, where he was arrested. He was held in lieu of $1 million bond after FBI agents testified he threatened to kill a federal witness.

The Chamber of Commerce is revising its SOS Telephone Alert System. This is a telephone chain set up to alert participating members, within minutes, of bad check schemes, shoplifters, unsavory itinerant salesmen or promoters.

Those in the chain call three others, passing the information along, until, in the space of a few minutes, the warning signs are up.

BIG SPRING HERALD Peace Efforts Jolted By Arab Summit Acts

SECTION B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, THURSDAY OCTOBER 31, 1974

READY FOR HALLOWEEN — Jenifer Fitzgibbon, of nearby Falls Church, Va., carries a pumpkin as she arrives for a Halloween costume competition staged in Washington by the National Park Service.

By The Associated Press
American peace efforts in the Middle East have been jolted by the Arab summit decisions at Rabat. But while this has revived talk of a new round of war as a distinct possibility, the outlook isn't necessarily all that black.

What can be done to avert the threat? After the Morocco summit, some observers are persuaded to speculate that perhaps the time has come for a put up or shut up challenge to the Soviet Union's policy of détente.

The argument is that there are only two alternatives: a new Arab-Israeli war with the concomitant disaster it could mean to the industrialized world or continued reliance on diplomacy.

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger now has some new problems he didn't need and the going is likely to be tough. But it would seem that this was as good a time as any for Moscow to demonstrate its genuine interest in a peaceful world.

Because the Arab leaders unanimously recognized the Palestine Liberation Organization as the only representative of the Palestinians, it's doubtful whether there can be a Geneva conference on a Middle East settlement.

There had been a possibility Israel could make a deal with King Hussein of Jordan to return to his control the West Bank territory his grandfather annexed in 1948 and Hussein lost in the 1967 war.

The Arabs say Jordan can still negotiate, but things are different now. Hussein would be doing so with the PLO, the Syrians and others looking over his shoulder, none of them his friends.

Arab statements give Israel good reason to be convinced that a PLO-ruled state would be just a first step. The Arabs proclaim a minimum goal of a secular state for all of what was Palestine before the 1948 war. That would mean no more Jewish national home.

Israel cannot tolerate the prospect of the West Bank in the hands of an entity pledged to her destruction, so even moderate voices speculate gloomily on a new round of war.

The speculation is quickened by the decision of the Arab oil rulers to lavish $2.5 billion on Egypt, Syria, Jordan and the PLO. The money will go to a war economy chest and the Arabs are likely to be seized with the idea that they cannot lose. To avert such a development, the Israelis might ponder a preventive war.

There are some indications, however, that the Arab rulers are being cautious. They seem at pains to note that the door is still open to the Kissinger step-step approach to some sort of settlement.

To sell Israel on any negotiations with the Arabs it would be necessary to persuade her she won't be asked to negotiate away her existence as a Jewish state. Only the two superpowers together could provide the guarantees.

Can the Soviet Union, in view of all this, now be tested? Is détente important enough to the Kremlin to persuade it to restrain its Arab clients and demonstrate its interest in a peaceful world by cooperating in a search for a way out of a highly perilous situation?

House Speaker Getting Use To Tight Security

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — "The little man said he'd been through this before. After the first time, I've sort of gotten used to it."

House Speaker Carl Albert, D-Okla., was on a campaign swing for other Democratic congressional candidates. To this city, he brought the Secret Service agents and the security measures for a person who is next in line for the Presidency in times when there is no confirmed Vice President.

At a news conference, security men checked reporters' brief cases and bags. They did not allow television coverage of Alberts airport arrival. In all, a source here said there were about 100 Secret Service and local police involved.

IN THE BOOKS
A source said a officer "a sniper" was on the hotel roof where the news conference was held. No outdoor appearances by Albert after dark were permitted. Agents opened paths for Albert as he walked through a small crowd.

"It's a little easier than before," said Albert, referring to the previous experience he had with security when Vice President Spiro Agnew resigned and former President Nixon was facing House Judiciary impeachment proceedings. "The first time was a rather traumatic experience."

Albert, 66, expects the security to continue for awhile with the anticipation that confirmation proceedings for vice presidential nominee Nelson Rockefeller will take longer than those for Gerald Ford.

The 25th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, establishing succession, is the reason for the security but Albert said, "I'd rather have another system."

"It's on the books. I was never enthusiastic about the 25th Amendment. But we've got to live with it," he said.

He said the congressmen and the state legislatures which passed the 25th Amendment "I don't think... contemplated a situation where the President and vice president are removed from office."

HIGHER PRIORITY
Albert appeared on behalf of Democratic congressional candidate Bob Krueger, who faces the Republican Doug Harlan in the 21st Congressional District in Texas to succeed retiring U.S. Rep. J.C. Fisher, D-Tex.

Flanking Albert was U.S. Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez, D-Tex., who was one of a relative handful of congressmen who voted against the 25th Amendment in 1955. Gonzalez has been reminding questioners recently of his opposition, noting Gerald Ford was not elected to the White House.

"I can't think of anything that should have a higher priority than repeal of the 25th Amendment," said Gonzalez.

He said he told Albert before the news conference of "my concern that there is no real sense of urgency to repeal the 25th Amendment and I consider it a continuing threat to the stability of our government."

Dear Friends —

I have been called out of the district due to the unexpected death of my father, J. E. Ezzell. It now appears that I will be unable to devote much, if any, time to the remaining days of my campaign to be your Legislator from the 63rd District.

I appreciate all that you many friends have done on my behalf, and humbly ask that you step into the traces in my behalf in these remaining critical days of the campaign.

Most of all, I appreciate your prayers and comforting words at this difficult time.

Some WIN buttons—displaying an acronym for the slogan "Whip Inflation Now"—arrived here in the mail and one resident noticed an upside-down button spelled out "NIM".

Conference On Aging Held Here Tuesday

A conference on aging was held Tuesday in the Senior Citizens Center on Howard College Campus. Planning coordinators for this activity were Miss Sherry Mullin, county extension agent, and Miss Bessie Love, Howard County Council on Aging chairman.

The morning program consisted of a tour of Big Spring State Hospital, focusing on the geriatrics section. The tour was conducted by Mrs. Nancy Lester, assistant volunteer coordinator.

Highlighting the afternoon session was a presentation by Mrs. Ruth B. Payne, assistant coordinator for staff development at the hospital. In a talk, "It's Up to You," she said, "Mental health is as important as physical health and must be cultivated and guarded in order to prevent the senility that is often associated with the aging process." Others appearing on the program were Mrs. Harlan Huijbregtse of Howard College who presented information on the community college and its role in providing assistance to senior citizens; Jan Reed, junior college aging project director from Midland College, who told of services she can provide in conducting education for senior citizens; and Dr. Lorraine H. Legendary Perfume Returns To Fashion

A legendary fragrance of yesteryear is playing a romantic leading role in today's fashion picture.

Amour Amour, created by Jean Patou for the exciting beauties of the 1920s, is now imported from France to this side of the Atlantic. The liberated lovelies of the 70s are so enamored of this sensuous scent, that it's coming over in new versions this fall. A dusting powder, purse spray and soap now makes Amour Amour a complete fragrance wardrobe.

In one of its most popular versions, this fragrance can tag along in a clutch bag or tote throughout a busy day. Its beautiful streamlined spray container is a fashion accessory in itself, specially designed to dispense only the purest of scents, without artificial propellants.

Carrying on in the fine French perfume tradition, the scent in all its forms is packaged and sealed in France. That's unusual in this modern age, when often ingredients come from France for assembling and bottling elsewhere.

Amour Amour is an American tradition as well. In the great days of Gatsby, young women visiting Paris bootlegged the perfume across the Atlantic. Modern college girls rediscovered the fragrance recently and urged the perfumers to offer it in this country, too. The company agreed and now the scent is on American shores 50 years after its creation.

With today's return to softly romantic feminine fashion, here is the perfect fragrance compliment. Seductively elegant, with a tinge of wildness, the fragrance flatters Gatsby-inspired chiffons, satin pajamas, liberated pantsuits and new longer skirts.

Wedding Performed In Odessa Saturday

Miss Charlotte Larissa Pierce and Rocky Craig Hale were married at 7 p.m., Saturday at the Crescent Park Baptist Church, Odessa.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Pierce, Odessa, and Mr. and Mrs. Walker Hale Jr., 2719 Central, Big Spring.

The Rev. Robert L. Bratcher, church pastor, officiated before an altar that was decorated with votive candles and garlands of boxwood greenery. Candelabra, trimmed with greenery and tied with satin bows, formed the background.

Mrs. E. W. Porter, organist, and Don McCall, pianist and vocalist, performed the wedding music.

The bride was attired in a floor-length gown of peau de soie and Venice lace. The fitted bodice featured a ring neckline finished with a ruffle, and the bishop sleeves had wide cuffs. Appliques of pearl-trimmed lace were scattered over the skirt and detachable train that was held by a bow at the waist.

The bride's bouquet was of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Don Patterson, Fort Worth, matron of honor; Miss Laura Rollins, Odessa, maid of honor; and Miss Stormy Hale and Miss Leisa Pierce, sisters of the bridal couple, bridesmaids.

The attendants wore floor-length dresses of floral chiffon in muted autumn colors of apricot, yellow and olive over apricot silk. They carried bouquets of yellow daisy mums.

Mike Schatz, Lubbock, was best man, and groomsmen and ushers were Gary Posey, Rob Lawlis and Larry Don Shaw.

Holli Dragoo, Houston, and Suzanne Narmour, Charlotte, N.C., were flower girls, and candlelighters were Miss Gina Horton and Philip Sorrells, both of Lubbock.

The couple is on a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M. and, on the return will live at 2828 E. 11th, Odessa.

The bride is a graduate of Permian High School and attended Odessa College for two years.

The bridegroom is an Odessa High School graduate and attended Texas Tech University at Lubbock, where he was a member of the Dolphin Club. He is employed by the National Bank of Odessa.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall where refreshments were served from a table laid with an apricot silk cloth and appointed with silver. The centerpiece was white roses, cushion mums and gypsophila in a crystal compote. Miss Carol Dove, Miss Rita Collins, Mrs. R. E. Dragoo and Mrs. R. F. Narmour served.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Mattie Redwine, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Winn and Walker Hale III.

Man, Not Gay, But Wants Sex Change

DEAR ABBY: I am a 23-year-old white male nurse. I love sports and excel in track. I was saved by the grace of Jesus Christ two years ago. I read my Bible daily and sing in the gospel choir.

Even though I am a born-again Christian, I am miserable. All my life I have wanted to be a woman. I would love to be on the U.S. Women's Olympic Track team. I can cook, sew and type. I have never cared anything about mechanics, engineering or any of the so-called masculine careers. I hate hunting and fishing. I never could kill a living thing.

Abby, this secret desire to be a woman is about to destroy me. I am not a homosexual, but I'd give anything to have a sex change operation. Where is this done? Is it against the law? I would go anywhere. I'd rather be dead than continue living like this.

Abby, if the Lord really loves me, why did He give me a man's body when I feel and think like a woman? I have been this way all my life. Please help me!

LAST MINUTE GOODIES — Easy to make candy apples, confections

Halloween Goodies To Make At Home Tonight

Get caught with Halloween here and no trick or treat goodies? You need something that is easy and quick to make.

Some suggestions are candy apples with a peanut coating, some choco-scotch bars or some muffins made with a favorite mix with a colorful topping. All of these goodies require very little effort but are sure to make a hit with the youngsters, whether they go Trick-or-Treating or stay at home.

PEANUTTY CANDY APPLES
 1/2 cup peanut butter
 6 to 8 eating apples
 3 cups sugar
 1/4 cup corn syrup
 1 cup water

Wash apples and insert a wooden skewer or lollipop stick into center of each. In a saucepan, combine sugar, corn syrup and water. Heat, while stirring, until sugar dissolves. Continue cooking to 240 degrees on a candy thermometer, (or when a small amount of the syrup dropped into very cold water forms a soft ball which flattens on removal from water). Remove from heat and stir in peanut butter. Dip each apple into syrup to coat. Stand apples skewer side up on a plate to cool.

Another easy to make confection that the children can join in making is Choco-Scotch Bars, or for tonight, Trick or Treat Bars. The recipe calls for:
 1 cup (6-oz., pkg.) semi-sweet chocolate morsels
 1 cup (6-oz., pkg.) butterscotch morsels
 1/2 cup peanut butter
 1 cup miniature marsh-

mallows
 5 cups oven-toasted rice cereal

Melt chocolate and butterscotch morsels together with peanut butter in heavy 3-quart saucepan over low heat, stirring constantly until well blended. Remove from heat. Add marshmallows and cereal, stirring until well coated with chocolate-butterscotch mixture. Press into buttered 13x9-in. pan. Let stand in cool place until firm. Cut into 48 bars, 2x1 inch.

High Cost Of Sugar Is Reviving WWII Recipes

The high price of sugar has brought most housewives to getting out those recipes of the 1940s when there was no sugar available except with the rationing stamp.

Mrs. D. S. Riley loaned this Low Sugar Chocolate Cake recipe clipped from the April 28, 1942, issue of The Herald.

LOW SUGAR CHOCOLATE CAKE

1 3/4 cup cake flour
 1 1/2 tsp. soda
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1/2 cup butter
 4 tbsps. sugar
 1/2 cup corn syrup
 2 egg yolks, unbeaten
 2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
 2-3rd cup milk
 2-3rd vanilla
 2 egg whites

Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift together three times. Cream shortening, add sugar and cream well. Add syrup gradually, beating well after each addition. Add one quarter of the flour and beat until smooth and well blended. Add egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each. Add chocolate and blend. Add remaining flour alternately with milk. Beat well after each addition. Add vanilla. Beat egg whites until they peak. Stir quickly but thoroughly into batter. Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate (350 degree) oven 25 minutes.

Ice with fluffy seven-minute icing or bittersweet chocolate coating.

PEANUT MIX For Nibbling

If you're looking for an easy to make and tasty nibbling dish, try this peanut mix that is seasoned with Parmesan cheese.

PEANUT MIX
 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter or margarine
 1/4 tsp. each salt, celery salt and onion powder
 6 cups whole bite-size shredded rice biscuits (omit crumbs)
 1-3rd cup finely grated Parmesan cheese
 1 cup salted peanuts

Melt the butter in a jellyroll pan (15 by 10 by 1 inch) in a 350-degree oven; stir in the seasonings; add rice biscuits and gently coat with the seasoned butter. Bake until top layer browns lightly — 8 to 10 minutes; turn biscuits with wide spatula; continue baking 4 to 5 minutes. Remove from oven. At once sprinkle with Parmesan, turning biscuits as you do so. Cool in pan. Mix in peanuts. Store in tightly covered container.

SEVEN MINUTE FLUFFY ICING

(Using Corn Syrup)

2 egg whites, unbeaten
 1/2 cup light corn syrup
 Dash salt
 1 tsp. vanilla

Combine egg whites, corn syrup and salt in top of double boiler, beating with rotary egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Beat constantly with egg beater, and cook seven minutes or until frosting will stand in peaks. Remove from water; add vanilla and beat until thick enough to spread. If frosting separates in the bottom of the pan before spreading, beat with beater.

BITTERSWEET COATING

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
 2 tsp. butter
 Melt chocolate and butter in top of double boiler and blend. Cool slightly and pour as coating over cake, letting it drip over sides.

 This recipe came from Mrs. Joe Hagins in the Abilene area.

SUGARLESS CAKE

2 1/2 cups cake flour
 2 1/2 tbsps. baking powder
 1/4 tsp. salt
 1/4 tsp. cinnamon
 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
 1/4 tsp. cloves
 1/2 cup butter
 1 tsp. grated lemon rind
 1 cup light corn syrup
 2 eggs
 1/2 cup milk
 1 tsp. vanilla

Sift flour once and measure. Add baking powder, salt and sift together three times. Cream shortening and lemon rind.

Rich Biscuit For Lunch

For a delicious lunch bread, bake these miniature drop biscuits made in small muffin pans. They are rich with butter and sour cream.

MINATURE DROP BISCUITS

1 cup unsifted regular (not cake) self-rising flour
 1/4 cup butter or margarine
 1/2 cup commercial sour cream

In a medium bowl with a pastry blender cut the butter into the flour until particles are invisible. Add sour cream; with a fork, stir just until flour mixture holds together — dough will be very stiff. With a tablespoon and small spatula drop into small muffin pans (2 by 1 inch) filling to top. Bake in a very hot (450 degrees) oven until browned — 12 to 15 minutes. Serve at once.

Cold Water On Minor Burns

Firs aid methods have changed considerably in the past few years. The most noticeable changes are in the simple area of first aid often needed in the kitchen. For instance, for minor burns, first aid experts now recommend immediate cold water applications. If the burn is on a finger, or part of the hand or arm, simply plunge the affected part in ice-cold water. Minor cuts and scratches, the kind you can so easily get using paring knives, graters and can openers, stay minor and are less likely to become infected when thoroughly washed with an antibacterial soap. Washing with mild, gentle soap cleanses the area immediately. Then the antibacterial soap continues to build up an invisible shield that keeps many bacteria under control. Keep soap in the kitchen for your first aid!

Walnut Sachertorte Is Tasty, Nutty Dessert

This dessert is more time consuming than some but the result is satisfying.

WALNUT SACHERTORTE

3/4 cup butter
 7/8 cup sugar
 6 oz. semisweet chocolate, melted and cooled
 8 eggs, separated
 1 cup flour, sifted
 3/4 cup ground walnuts
 1 tsp. unsweetened cocoa
 1 tsp. baking powder.
 Apricot Jam and Chocolate Icing

Cream butter and all but 1/4 cup of the sugar until very fluffy. Gradually and thoroughly beat in chocolate. Beat in egg yolks one by one. Beat egg whites and reserved sugar until very stiff. Combine flour, nuts, cocoa, and baking powder.

Gradually and lightly fold beaten egg whites into chocolate mixture, alternately with dusted-in flour mixture. Pour into buttered, floured 10-inch spring-form plan. Bake in preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) about 1 1/4 hours or until cake is done and shrinks from sides of pan. Cool. Remove from pan. Invert. When cake is completely cold, spread it with heated apricot jam (thinned with a little water if necessary). Or, in addition, slice cake through middle and spread with extra layer of apricot jam. Cover with Chocolate Icing. Serve with puff of whipped cream on each cake plate. This recipe is from "The Art of Viennese Cooking" by Marcia Colman Morton (Doubleday) and is used by permission of the publisher.

Versatile Dish With No Meat

Looking for something dramatic? Make it "Noodle and Onion Pie." This unusual recipe features a noodle and onion custard filling in a delightful cheese flavored crust.

You'll also find it a versatile main dish, economical enough for a family standby, interesting enough for an informal dinner. In either case, just a simple tossed salad and a fruit dessert make a memorable meal.

NOODLE AND ONION PIE

For Crust:
 1 cup grated cheddar cheese
 3/4 cup sifted all-purpose flour
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1/4 tsp. dry mustard
 1/4 cup melted butter

Combine all ingredients in bowl, mixing till smooth with pastry blender or fork. Knead (fold over and over) about 1 min. to soften. Use to line 9" pie plate, pressing firmly to bottom and sides; make fluted edges.

For filling:
 1 1/2 cup medium egg noodles, uncooked
 2 tbsps butter
 2 cups thinly sliced onions
 2 eggs
 1 cup scalded milk
 1 tsp. salt
 1/4 tsp. pepper
 1 cup grated natural cheddar cheese

Cook noodles as directed on package. Saute onions in butter until tender but not brown; remove from heat. Add cooked, drained noodles. Toss together lightly. Place in uncooked crust.

In bowl, beat eggs slightly; slowly stir in scalded milk, then salt, pepper and cheese. Pour over noodles. Bake 30 to 35 minutes (in 325 degree F. oven) until knife, inserted in center of custard, comes out clean. Serve warm, cut into wedges. Makes 8 servings. Average cost per serving: 10 cents.

STUFFED RELISH BURGERS

1 lb. ground lean chuck beef
 1 cup hamburger relish
 2 tbsps. minced green pepper
 Butter or margarine
 Salt and freshly ground pepper

Working meat as little as possible, and using a fractional 1/2-cup measure, divide it into 4 portions. Flatten each into a 4-inch wide patty. Spread 2 patties, but not to outer edges, with relish, then green pepper. Cover with remaining 2 patties; mold edges together with fingers to seal well. Thoroughly heat a 10-inch heavy skillet; add about 1 tablespoon butter and brown surfaces of burgers in it; reduce high heat if necessary and cook to desired doneness. (rare burgers are best!) Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Serve at once. Makes 2 large servings.

HAMBURGER CRUNCH is a new-type dish that not only is tasty but has a crunchiness that enhances the delight of eating.

Water Chestnuts Add To Texture Interest

Serve a hamburger casserole that features flavor, is easy to prepare and is sure to be a winner at the dinner table. All it takes is a few minutes to mix and about 20 minutes to make this delicious hamburger crunch:

1 lb. ground beef
 1 can French fried onions
 1 pkg. (1 oz.) onion gravy mix
 1/2 tsp. garlic salt
 1 1/2 cups water
 1-3rd cup regular rice, uncooked
 1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen peas
 1 can (5 oz.) water chestnuts (optional)

Brown ground beef and pour off drippings. Blend in gravy mix, garlic salt, water and uncooked rice. Bring to boil. Then reduce heat to low. Cover and simmer 15 minutes. Stir in thawed peas and water chestnuts. Continue to simmer until rice is tender (about 20 minutes). Stir in onions. Serve with soy sauce — and complement with tiny cups of Sake, tossed salad, hot rolls and your favorite dessert.

Frozen Vegetables

Frozen vegetables can be taken right from the wrappings without being thawed, put in foil with butter added, and cooked immediately on the charcoal grill.

Take a length of foil about the size of a breadboard. Put a good dab of butter on the center and then add your unwrapped block of frozen vegetables. Crumple up foil toward the top so it looks like a paper bag. The bag should be slightly open to let steam escape. Enough steam stays in to keep vegetables moist and juicy. Cook over low charcoal briquet heat or at the side of the fire to avoid scorching.

Plenty Of Beef Now

COLLEGE STATION — Beef is plentiful for now, and there are real bargains on some featured cuts — more often round steaks and steaks for broiling, one observer said this week.

"Liver continues to be a good value, and chuck cuts also are featured," Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist noted.

"Egg supplies are down a little from last year with prices some higher, while fryer prices are about the same as last week."

At fruit and vegetable counters, grapefruit and squash are two headliners.

"Texas grapefruit is gaining prominence with prices slightly lower than oranges, and squash is plentiful — with hard-shelled winter varieties taking the place of soft-skinned summer squash."

A sharply larger crop of dry beans and peas is expected, and prices should continue their current downward trend, Mrs. Clyatt predicted.

In selecting pumpkins this month, choose those heavy for their size. Rind should be hard and free of bruises or blemishes. Extra-large pumpkins may have stringy, coarse flesh with less flavor than small or medium sizes, the specialist said.

Additional fruit and vegetable economy centers on apples, grapes, dry yellow onions and potatoes. Also cabbage, carrots, broccoli, turnips, rutabagas, collards, mustard and turnip tops. Cranberry supplies are improving.

RESIGNS IN PROTEST — Israeli's only woman cabinet minister, Shulamit Aloni, resigned Wednesday to protest the return of religious politicians to Premier Yitzhak Rabin's coalition government. Mrs. Aloni's Civil Rights Movement Party is pledged to a program of separation of religion and state.

RAPS LABOR BOSSES Politicking In Dallas

Vote-heavy Dallas was the scene of politicking by at least four statewide candidates trying to garner as much support as possible in the final week of the Nov. 5 election campaign.

Democrat Bob Bullock and Republican Nick Rowe, vying for state comptroller, continued their race. Rowe asserted that his opponent, who was handpicked by labor bosses who want compulsory unionism in Texas.

Rowe said, "Bullock is in debt to the AFL-CIO and (its president Harry) Hubbard could call that debt due at any time."

Bullock said he wanted a new and closer partnership between the state and local government in Texas. He pledged to appoint an executive officer in his administration whose sole responsibility would be caring for the needs of cities.

Secretary of Agriculture Earl Buttz will be replaced by the end of the year.

FORD LINES

"There have got to be some policy changes in Washington," White said, "or we will have food lines for milk by the end of 1975."

White said that as spokesman for the Texas agriculture industry which is one of the nation's largest, he feels he should address himself to national and international issues.

In Austin, White's Republican opponent, Zack Fisher, claimed that White is not qualified to be agriculture commissioner since he has never been a farmer.

In the gubernatorial race, Gov. Dolph Briscoe remained in Uvalde with his critically ill mother.

BLASTS BRISCOE

Jim Granberry, the GOP nominee for governor, was in Galveston, where he blasted Briscoe for using personal wealth to support his re-election bid.

"Mr. Briscoe is having to rely on his great financial fortune to cover up his two-year trial of failure and broken promises with a massive and deceptive advertising campaign because the people of Texas will not contribute to another term of office for him," Granberry declared.

Sam McDonnell, American Party candidate for governor, predicted in El Paso that voters will reject the majority party candidates and their politics and vote for him.

TOO HIGH?

Bullock also said he wanted an honest accounting of what it costs the state to handle city sales taxes because, "if the current arbitrary two per cent gross fee charged by the state ... is too high, I want it cut."

Also in Dallas Wednesday, Republican candidate for state treasurer Bob Holt claimed that Democratic incumbent Jesse James could cost the state $1 billion over the next four years.

Holt said state funds could have earned at least $300 million instead of $51 million as James reported if the state had received a 5 per cent return on its money.

State Agriculture Commissioner John White predicted in Dallas that U.S.

EX-CAPTIVES IN 'SURPRISINGLY' GOOD CONDITION

Four Convicts Arrested, Hostages Released

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Dutch police and marines fired magnesium grenades early today to temporarily blind four convicts holding 15 persons hostage in a prison chapel, then captured the men and rescued the hostages unharmed.

"Several shots were fired in the air by the marines, but there were no casualties," Police Chief Albert Peijster said.

The operation was over in 15 minutes, officials said.

BURN AIRLINE

The hostages, who included two women, were taken to police headquarters, and then to their homes. They had been captives since Saturday night, but a police spokesman said they were in "surprisingly good condition."

The four convicts were hurried off to cells. One of them was a 23-year-old Palestinian guerrilla, Adnan Ahmad Nuri, serving a five-year sentence for helping to hijack and burn a British airliner last March. The other three were an Algerian and two Dutchmen, all serving terms for armed robbery.

The convicts had demanded a plane to take them to an undisclosed foreign country and also that Nuri's confederate in the March hijacking, Sami Houssin Tamimah, be allowed to join them. Justice Minister Andries van Agt told a news conference the government never intended to grant the demands.

DO IT AGAIN

Peijster and van Agt refused to give details of the rescue at Scheveningen prison "because we may have to do it again." But police sources gave this account:

The police waited until 4 a.m. because they thought some of the convicts would be asleep. Then they hurled magnesium grenades through the chapel windows and at the same time cut the lock on the chapel door with acetylene torches.

The latter process took about 10 seconds. Psychiatrists had advised the police that the noise of the exploding grenades and the glaring light of the burning magnesium would confuse, frighten and blind the convicts for at least that long.

SURPRISE

Fifteen marines and policemen wearing bullet-proof vests rushed through the door. The convicts, who were armed with two pistols and several spring knives, were taken completely by surprise. They did not fire a shot.

The hostages, most of whom were members of a neighborhood choir that performs regularly at the prison, waved to newsmen as they were driven away in a bus.

The four convicts took over the chapel Saturday night during Mass and held 22 persons hostage, including the priest, two prison guards, three women and four children. They released a 73-year-old man, a woman and the four children on Sunday and Monday and another man with heart trouble on Wednesday.

Better Gas Mileage Described

DALLAS — A handy brochure that describes 30 ways to achieve better gasoline mileage has been prepared for distribution by the Federal Energy Administration, according to Delbert M. Fowler of Dallas, FEA regional administrator.

"The potential for conserving fuel through energy-wise driving habits and fuel-efficient cars and trucks has enormous conservation potential," commented Fowler in announcing availability of the new booklet entitled "Tips for the Motorist."

"Energy saving measures by motorists and truck drivers can go a long way toward helping achieve the goal of President Ford, who has urged the nation to cut its oil consumption by one million barrels per day in the next year," Fowler noted.

"If every vehicle owner in the nation slashed fuel consumption by 15 percent, available supplies would increase by more than 23 million gallons per day which is over half of the announced goal," Fowler pointed out.

"Tips for the Motorist" notes a fuel economy conscious driver should be able to get at least 30 per cent better mileage than an average driver and 50 per cent better than a poor one, just by improving driving practices and keeping his car in top shape.

The illustrated brochure fits easily into purse, pocket or glove compartment and includes sections on how to improve driving skills, take proper care of a car, plan trips and what to consider in buying a car.

Either single copies or quantities for group meetings are available for writing. The address is Public Information Office, P.O. Box 35228, Dallas, Tex. 75235.

Monoxide Deaths

KILLEEN, Tex. (AP) — Army officials at Ft. Hood have identified the bodies of two military police, a man and his wife, who apparently died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

An Army spokesman identified the couple as Spc. 4 John Robert Gilbert, 24, and his wife, Pvt. E-2 Diane Vickie Gilbert, 19.

The two were found early Wednesday in a private car on East Range Road at the military base near here.

The Army's Criminal Investigation Division is continuing its probe of the death, the spokesman said.

An autopsy is to be held, but the preliminary cause of death is listed as carbon monoxide poisoning, he said.

The couple was assigned to the 502nd Military Police Battalion of the Second Armored Division.

Split Vote Is Permitted

Checking the name of an individual or writing in a candidate's name will qualify as an exception to a "straight-ticket" ballot even though the individual indicated is from another party, Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk, said.

In other words, a ballot may be checked for a "straight Republican" vote and also checked by the name of a Democratic nominee in one race. If so, the Democratic nominee checked would get the vote, not the Republican.

Mrs. Petty made the announcement after studying a state handbook for election judges and talking with an official of the Texas Secretary of State's Office.

TALK WITH FORD 'KIND OF PUBLICITY STUNT'

Texas Cattlemen To Meet With Fed Officials

STEPHENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Texas cattlemen and dairy producers were scheduled to meet with Agriculture Department officials today — just one day after a nearly two-hour White House session with President Ford that one cattlemen said produced "nothing concrete."

James Traweck, a dairyman and resident of a Texas beef and dairy producers group referred to the session between President Ford and livestock, dairy, and poultry producers as "kind of a publicity stunt."

Traweck said the group would meet at 10 a.m. today with undersecretary of Agriculture Phil Campbell who met with Texas beef and dairy producers last week in Stephenville.

DISAPPOINTED

Traweck expressed disappointment over the fact that the meeting was attended by about 35 different producers representing all segments of the nation's livestock industry.

Ford spent one hour and 25 minutes at the session with the livestock representatives joined by Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz, Rep.

Robert Price, R-Tex. and others.

Traweck recommended to Ford that the government take immediate action to end grain exports, increase milk price supports, and curtail meat imports.

Traweck said the President seemed more understanding than Butz, but did not make any statement on what he could do now.

CAN'T AFFORD IT

"I'm sure it had to do with the Nov. 5th election," the dairyman said, "he can't afford to stick his neck out for the farmers right now."

Horace McQueen of Troup,

Tex. said "nothing concrete came out of the meeting."

"We got our egos massaged, but my wife can massage my ego," he said. He said he had expected the President to give some hope that the industry would improve.

Glenn Deen of Amarillo, president of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association said he wasn't sure how much assistance Ford could offer, but said the primary help will come from controlling inflation.

Deen said he thought the meeting exposed representatives of the livestock and poultry industries to the views of others and allowed federal officials to give their views on trade and nation's balance of payments situation.

The president said he would consider all the recommendations concerning import restrictions on beef and limitation of grain exports.

FIGURES SHOW

McQueen cited figures showing that one of every nine pounds of beef sold across the counter to consumers is imported.

Dan F. Magdanz, of the National Livestock Feeders Association of Omaha, Neb., said the industry was in "a serious financial squeeze."

He suggested that labor union restrictions on the sale and packaging of beef at the point of slaughter be ended to cut middleman cost of almost eight cents per pound at retail levels.

Cattlemen and agricultural experts were expected to meet in Mineral Wells today for a beef seminar sponsored by the Palo Pinto County Agricultural Extension Service and other agencies.

The North Central Texas ranchers will meet with experts in cattle marketing, nutrition, and health.

Returns From California

Mrs. Eula Bell Bowen of Snyder, grandmother of Mrs. Garland Land, Big Spring, has returned from a three-month stay in California where she visited relatives in Talt and Bakersfield. While at the home of her son, the 95-year-old Mrs. Bowen went horseback riding for the first time in 74 years.

Ink $1 Billion Coal Contact

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A 25-year contract, totaling close to $1 billion, has been signed by the Austin City Council and the Lower Colorado River Authority with Decker Coal Co., Decker, Mont.

No Notice Decision

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Supreme Court ruled 5-4 today that a state district judge in Randall County correctly interpreted a procedural rule that allowed him to call a contested case for trial without notice to the defendant.

Ikkes-Braun Glasshouse, Inc., sued Plains Growers, Inc., on a promissory note for $16,342.

At 9 a.m. Jan. 7, District Judge E. E. Jordan set the trial for 10 a.m. the same day at the plaintiff's request. No notice was given to the defendant or its lawyer.

Four judges of the high court dissented from the ruling that the district judge would not be forced to set aside the judgment in favor of the plaintiff.

"At a time when respect for our system of law is called for from all sides and the lack of it too often evidence, no matter is of greater import to the people of this state than the proper functioning of our judicial system," wrote Associate Justice Price Daniel Sr.

"The very thought of a district judge, on the ex parte motion of one party, setting a contested case for trial without less than an hour; then conducting the trial without any notice whatever to the opposing counsel, thus denying him and his client the right to be heard; the loss of the right of appeal because of the clerk's failure to follow the rule for timely notice of the judgment; and then the trial court's refusal to grant relief from the judgment; is enough to shock the conscience and confidence of those who respect our system of justice according to law," Daniel said.

The majority interpreted the procedural rule in this harsh manner because of the placement of a comma, Daniel said, even though that violated the spirit of the rule.

Given Drugs By Police?

HOUSTON (AP) — State Dist. Judge Frank Price says he'll rule today on a defense motion that Marcia McKittrick's confession be barred from her trial on charges of helping kill Dr. John Hill in 1972.

Miss McKittrick claims she was given drugs by police before she signed a statement last September. Her attorney, Charles Caperton of Dallas, said Miss McKittrick was offered immunity and assistance in withdrawing from heroin if she made the statement.

Hill a plastic surgeon, was fatally shot at this home in the fashionable River Oaks section, Sept. 24, 1972.

Price earlier granted a motion which resets the trial of another defendant, Lila Paulus, to Feb. 18.

Basis For Needed Data

We note with interest that an analysis of enrollments is being undertaken by the Big Spring Independent School District.

This could and should present some interesting figures which could be useful in appraisal and in projections.

In glancing back over our records, we note that elementary school enrollment has declined 13.20 per cent between 1969 and 1974; secondary enrollment has dropped 10.13 total enrollment 13.58.

But there is more than meets the eye, for if we deduct the 365 now in kindergarten, because there was no kindergarten program in 1969, we show a 22.80 per cent decrease on the elementary level.

The secondary rate of decrease seems to track the elementary totals even when natural attrition is applied. But the loss at the senior high level is not the same as the 10.13 secondary drop, but rather 13.58.

In numbers, elementary enrollment has dropped 502 in the six-year period (867 if the kindergarten factor is added); secondary has dropped by 343 (292 of it in senior high). Because of change in policy and new programs, the hospital and homebound programs are up sharply over the old special education classification, but these are minor factors.

Why the decline? Population loss from the late 1960's is one factor; the "pull" is another. For instance, the first and second grade enrollment of six years ago amounted to 1299; today it is 944, a drop of 27.32 per cent. But the sixth and seventh grade comparisons show a loss of only 34 pupils at that level, or 2.92 per cent. And if the decline is so small at that level, why has it dropped so sharply at the senior high level?

We certainly don't know the answers. We scarcely know any of the basic questions, but this study with supporting information such as birth rates, population shifts, might give the basis for some helpful conclusions about our status, our cost curves, our needs, our projections for the future.

Up, Up It Goes--And Down

The United States Chamber of Commerce reports some fascinating, but painful figures. A man who received $10,000 salary in 1964 had $8,626 in take-home pay after income and Social Security taxes (which were 13.7 per cent of his gross earnings). Today, assuming average raises over the years, he gets $15,400 per year, leaving a takehome after taxes (17.33 per cent) of $12,755. But inflation has put its hand in his pocket, too, making his $12,755 worth $529 less than the $8,626 take-home dollars 10 years ago.

If inflation keeps going at its current 10 per cent (actually nearer 12), within 20 years a man will need to earn $113,000 to keep pace. His take-home of $57,300 would be worth only $7,800 of today's dollars, which are worth about 30 per cent less than 10 years ago.

Knows The Feeling

Around The Rim

Marj Carpenter

Have you ever wondered, "Now who in the world was that?" when somebody comes up to you, calls you by name and carries on a lengthy conversation without leaving a clue.

This year, since I no longer drive back and forth to Andrews, I hadn't been back over there since the Big Spring game and friends called and invited me over for the weekend. I stopped in a favorite store as I went into town and some woman came roaring up and said, "Marj, it's not fair for our poor little eighth graders to have to play both of your junior highs." I thought, "My junior highs, I don't have any junior highs, and then I decided she must mean Big Spring."

Andrews. "Of course," I added, "Even great coaches have a hard time convincing boys who appear to be outmanned that they can win if they believe in their heart that they can't."

"It's all those boys standing on the sidelines," she said, thinking of the junior high game while I was thinking of our varsity game. "Well," I added, "I'll be the first to admit that the one with the most players would win a gang fight, but not necessarily the game."

"Yes," she shrugged and then added her punch line. "But Big Spring brought both sets of cheerleaders and no junior high boy can concentrate with that many cute little cheerleaders hopping around," and she whisked out of the store.

I LAUGHED to myself and went on about my weekend. And that night after a great party, I went with friends to a cafe for scrambled eggs. Now, over there, there is only one cafe open late at night. They don't call it The Only Cafe but they could after 10 p.m. So I had been there before — after games, parties and sundry occasions.

So the friends each ordered what they wanted and the waitress turned to go. "Hey," says my friend, "She wants to order too" pointing at me. "Oh," says the waitress, "Marj wants scrambled eggs, hashbrowns, buttered toast and coffee." She was right, so I looked up to see who she was and then I suddenly remembered where I had known the woman in the first place. The eighth grade mother has long been a waitress in the Only Cafe. (That's kind of like The Last Picture Show.)

I came home to Big Spring to enjoy the rest of the weekend and enjoyed the Herald's Open House. I met many wonderful people for the first time as 1500 poured through the building. So, please, if I see you wonderful people again, give me a hint, huh?

My Answer

Billy Graham

A friend of mine, known for 25 years, just will not go to church. I have never known of his being inside a church. When I talk to him about Christ, he just shrugs his shoulders. It certainly worries me. Would you please give your opinion of a person like this?

J.M.

First of all, I've long since decided that I will not make moral judgments about anyone. The Bible tells us that in Matthew 7:1.

I can, however, have an opinion about the life-style of an individual. In this case, I consider your friend a deprived person. Anyone who cheats himself of the fellowship of the Christian church is rejecting one of God's greatest gifts. He is depriving himself of the only source of truth and hope.

But your friend is a mature person. Nobody has obliged him to assume this role of pagan and skeptic. The Bible says he has let the devil blind his eyes to the claims of Christ. (2 Corinthians 4:4). Hence, when you mention it, it is a subject concerning which he just pleads ignorance and displays apathy.

Of course, church attendance in itself is not to be equated with receiving the new life of faith. It is the result, not the cause of personal salvation. Once we believe, we want to be with others, so that in their fellowship we might mature into Christ's likeness.

McNEELY THE REFORMER'S LEADER. SPEAKS IN QUOTE-MARKS.

Senseless Dispute

Don't give up asking him to go to church — and don't give up praying for him. Miracles still happen, you know.

NEW YORK (AP) — Like the hands of a clock at the beginning or ending of Daylight Saving Time, the leading economic indicators sometimes mislead, but seldom totally.

The composite index of these economic indicators fell 2.5 per cent in September, the worst decline in 23 years, pointing to a sharp decline of economic activity the remainder of the year.

The indicators have been wrong before, and some of them cannot now be relied upon too uncritically. Stock prices, for example, are an indicator of future activity, but an unreliable one.

In fact, as the dismal report was being released, the Dow Jones industrial average soared 25.5 points. But the market was looking far into the future — not into next month.

As some stock analysts might observe, the market already had discounted the bad news for the remainder of the year and was looking into the middle of 1975, when economic conditions might be better.

Perhaps more indicative of the immediate future was the 6.4 per cent drop in durable goods orders during September, and the 8.4 per cent decline in building permits.

Steel Profits Set Record

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — U.S. Steel, the nation's largest steelmaker, was joined by the second-largest steel manufacturer today in reporting record profits.

Bethlehem Steel Co. reported a record net income for the first three-quarters of $220.4 million, 45 per cent greater than the same 1973 period. Third-quarter income also set a record, hitting $107 million, nearly double last year's earnings for the period.

U.S. Steel reported Tuesday that net income for the third quarter set a record and that its January-September income topped any full year in its history.

In releasing its income figures, U.S. Steel said a healthy steel industry was important to the nation's economy.

Dryness In The Nose

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Recently, I had a very nice article written about in the Big Spring Herald. It is a wonderful feeling to have someone praise you. However, the help given and credit was certainly not all mine.

Eddie Owens of the Sheriff's Department, Bill Priest, Ken Joyce, Jimmy Parks, all of the Texas Highway Patrol, took the time out to help in salvaging the toys, clothes and other personal belongings of the Hernandez family at the accident scene. Later, when we discovered the family had been released from the hospital without being examined by a doctor, I phoned Gus Ochotorina for assistance, and he responded immediately. Lewis Brown and Charlie Gonzales of the G.I. Forum came and gave a tremendous amount of help for this family. Also Mr. and Mrs. Lin Wallace of the Thrifty Lodge Motel who also went out of their way to help.

Alone, we could not have done very much to help the Hernandez family. Big Spring should be proud to have the fine citizens we have mentioned.

Sincerely,

Travis C. Floyd
2708 Carol

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am bothered with dryness in the nose. A specialist prescribed an ointment but I still have an occasional nose bleed.

I found that petroleum jelly has helped but how can I get more of it farther up the nose where the dryness really occurs? The doctor said not to use Q-Tips.

Is there some form of liquid or drops I can use? I also have a stinky smell that stays in my nose. Would this be sinus trouble? — D.H.

This dryness is called atrophic rhinitis. The surface cells in the nasal passages shrivel, normal secretions are reduced, crusts form, and you are experiencing the annoying results.

Mild ointments (as you know) help. Or petroleum jelly. But when you ask about a liquid (say, mineral oil) to get it higher in the nose, I have to say no. Your doctor has indicated that he didn't want you to get it higher in the nose and he had a good reason. Inserted too far, oily drops can descend into the lungs and do damage there.

The crusts that form break off and cause the bleeding you mention. The "stinky smell" develops from crusts, mucus or other material in the nose. The condition is called ozena.

There are things that can give you further relief. For one, check with your doctor about the use of nasal irrigations. And in some cases (women, that is) the use of estrogen, or female hormone, minimizes the dryness and the troubles that go with it.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I had dermabrasion approximately eight months ago. I was told at the time by my doctor that I shouldn't get in the sun for at least six months, but after that a little at a time wouldn't hurt.

I have been out in the sun a little and the area that was scraped will not tan. Is this normal? To me it looks like scar tissue. I have even used tanning cream which is supposed to tan with or without the sun. That doesn't work either. It just won't soak in. The area is white and slick-looking. Will the area eventually tan? There is a distinct line where the dermabrasion area stops. — Mrs. G.H.

It could be that the layer of skin containing melanocytes — the cells that are responsible for tanning — was affected. It would depend on how deep the dermabrasion went, and you give me no indication of what its purpose was.

The white, slick-looking tissue is scar formation and may never tan again if the pigment layer was affected. That's about all the "maybes" I can offer, but I do suggest that you return to the doctor who treated you. Knowing just what was done, and seeing you, he will be in the best position to tell you what if anything can be done to get you tan again. Lacking that, he can advise on special cosmetics so you won't have that distinct line where the Hemorrhoids can be cured! If troubled with this or other rectal problems, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of this newspaper for a copy of his booklet, "The Real Cure for Hemorrhoids." Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

What Really Happened

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — The trouble with Washington is that it is a very suspicious town which keeps jumping to the wrong conclusions. The other morning Arkansas' Rep. Wilbur Mills was involved in an altercation at the Tidal Basin with three women and another man. It was reported by police that Mills' nose was bleeding and he had scratches on his face. One of the women threw herself into the Tidal Basin and had to be rescued by the park police. She was identified as an Argentine-born go-go dancer.

Mills, who up until this moment had behaved like a perfect Southern gentleman, became angered and said, "I hold you both in contempt of Congress."

"You're going to have to catch me first," one of the go-go dancers said. And with that she threw herself into the waters of the Tidal Basin where she was rescued by the police.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Spurred by the energy crisis and the goal of Project Independence, a group of oil companies last year began planning a $450 million plant to extract oil in commercial quantities from shale deposits in Colorado. The companies recently announced that work on the project has been suspended after an investment of $40 million.

Thereon hangs a tale that has gloomy implications for the ability of the United States of America to get through the next couple of decades without a crippling energy shortage. Our battle for self-sufficiency in energy could be lost before it really begins.

The enemy is a familiar one — inflation. The shale plant at Rifle, Colo., which was supposed to cost $450 million is now on the drawing boards with a price tag of $800 million. By the time pipelines and other support facilities are added to the project, the cost could top $1 billion. This means that the plant could not pay for itself if the 50,000 barrels of oil a day it will produce goes on the market at $7 a barrel, the anticipated price. The oil would have to command $11 a barrel or more.

The sponsoring companies blame the impasse both on inflation and "energy policy uncertainties." It is difficult to project what it will cost to complete the shale plant, and what the oil it produces will be worth. This throws a wet blanket on all plans to develop the shale deposits in the Rocky Mountains which hold an estimated 600 billion barrels of high-quality oil.

It appears that inflation is not the only villain. We see again the absence of a comprehensive energy policy that would clarify how some of the extraordinary development costs for tapping new sources of fuel are going to be reconciled with government efforts to control fuel prices to the advantage of consumers.

Making America self-sufficient in energy is a goal, but it is not a policy. An energy policy must include specific plans for exploration, development and production of fuel from various sources. It would embrace prices, taxes, subsidies, demands for environmental protection and other factors that can stimulate or retard progress toward our goal. — WACO NEWS TRIBUNE

"A BIT UNUSUAL" — Mrs. W. R. Hansen, 90, sits in a wheelchair in a Fredericksburg nursing home and reads a story in The San Antonio News on the birth of quadruplets to her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hansen Jr., in San Antonio last week. Becoming a great-grandmother is not a new experience for Mrs. Hansen, "but," she said, "having four of them arrive at the same time is a bit unusual." The four bring the number of her great-grandchildren to 23.

LIMIT CONTRIBUTIONS

Candidates Throw Their Record Books Wide Open

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two years after the richest, most secretive political campaign in history, candidates are beginning to voluntarily limit the contributions they will accept and throwing their record books wide open.

In 1972 a group of men scurried about the country gathering huge secret donations for Richard M. Nixon's re-election campaign.

SPECIAL INTERESTS
In 1974 nearly 20 senators, representatives and a few challengers have told their campaign treasurers to refuse funds from special interest groups or personal contributions beyond specified limits, some as low as $100.

A few are listing every contribution they receive, although federal law requires that only contributions of $100 or more be itemized when contribution totals are reported.

So, for those who care to look, the $2 contribution of Rose Narberg, a Honolulu teacher, is recorded in the campaign records of Sen. Charles Mac Mathias, R-Md., along with thousands of other contributions.

In addition to opening up his records, Mathias is limiting contributions from individuals to $100 or less. However, he accepted contributions of $4,500 from the seafarers union and $5,000 from the marine engineers union. He received a total of $228,513 in campaign contributions as of mid-October.

Hawk, Rep. Gilbert Gude's administrative assistant.

Gude, a Maryland Republican, has refused to accept any contributions from beyond the borders of his suburban Montgomery County district or any of more than $100.

Limiting contributions can be a risky business for a nonincumbent, who generally lacks the public recognition and financial resources that go with holding office.

But Ramsey Clark, the Democrat challenging New York's Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits, decided to limit his contributions to $100 and is proving the exception to Wertheimer's rule.

OPEN RECORDS
Campaign officials and other political observers agree that the voluntary limits and open records are a direct result of Watergate.

"I'm certain that everyone knew this was a concern of the public," said Gordon

Javits has raised nearly $700,000 and previous New York campaigns have cost more than $1 million.

"The special interest group contributions have turned so many people off on the election process following Watergate," said Edward Murnane, campaign manager for Rep. Philip M. Crane, R-Ill. "It is a form of influence peddling the American people have indicated they will not tolerate."

Crane is refusing to accept contributions from special interest groups, except official Republican organizations.

CHALLENGE
A challenger running against a well-financed incumbent — Javits' current campaign has received more than $20,000 from the Rockefeller family alone can make political capital by stressing the self-imposed limits, and that is what Clark has done.

Entering the last week of the campaign, Clark had raised $513,000 from 24,000 contributors, an average of approximately $21 from each donor. He received $200,000 within a 10-day period as the race neared its closing days, an aide said.

Pedaling From Florida To Celebrate In Valley

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — why the major had written, a second letter was sent to Pensacola, Fla., and this South Texas city, a retired U.S. Marine Corps major is making his way by bicycle to attend the Marine Military Academy ball the corps in 1961 after an and birthday celebration.

Officials at the Marine Military Academy here said retired Maj. Byron G. Genung has long been a supporter of the private academy.

INVITATION
An invitation to the annual ball, which is to be held Nov. 10, was sent to Maj. Genung, but academy officials made the invitation more as a matter of form because of the distance involved. They were surprised to hear from him.

"I am looking forward to seeking all of you and celebrating the Marine Corps birthday with you this year. In fact, I will be making the 1,010 mile trip on my bicycle," the major wrote in accepting the invitation.

Not sure they understood years and in 1970 discovered bicycling and have ridden regularly since," the major told academy officials.

"I have made several long distance trips, the last one being to Hagerstown, in Maryland, a total run of over 1,400 miles from here (Pensacola, Fla.)," the major continued.

Speaking of his long trips, the major said he travels light, adding, "I keep it around 90 miles a day, sometimes more, sometimes less, to allow myself time for occasional rest and repairs, plus sightseeing along the way."

Odessans Vote On Stadium
ODESSA — The fate of a $3.5 million stadium bond issue will be at stake when voters in the Odessa Independent School District go to the polls here Friday.

If the issue is approved, an Ector county voter owning a $20,000 house will pay an additional $54.78 total in debt retirement school taxes over the next four years.

Currently, Ector County taxpayers are paying $1,748 per $100 assessed valuation in public school taxes.
