

Texas Demos Cash In On Voter Discontent

By The Associated Press
Gov. Dolph Briscoe and the Democratic ticket held sweeping election victories today, riding a wave of national discontent and the Texas political tradition.

ANTI GOP
Jim Granberry, the chief loser to Briscoe, put it this way: "Apparently there was a strong anti-Republican trend all over the nation that was difficult to overcome."
Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex., whose term did not expire this year, had a different view, including the national one.
"The American people are fed up with high interest rates, tight money and a deepening recession."

Democrats capped their efforts by ousting a Republican U.S. House member, Bob Price of Pampa, and holding on in the 21st district with Rep. Krueger succeeding retiring Rep. O. C. Fisher, also a Democrat.

At the legislative level, the GOP lost two House seats with a Republican Senate seat in doubt.

PERSONAL VICTORY
Gov. Briscoe saw his personal victory this way: "I consider this election a vote of confidence in (my) record... a record of integrity, compassion and sound fiscal management."
The governor made the fact that no new state taxes were imposed his major campaign point.

The total vote was an estimated 1.6 million out of 5.4 million registered, pointing up pre-election findings of serious voter apathy. Educated pre-election forecasts were for a vote total of 2.75 million.
The latest totals, with Democrats listed first, Republicans second and others designated:
Gov.: Gov. Dolph Briscoe 970,078, Jim Granberry 492,061, Ramsey Muniz (Raza Unida) 87,030, Sherry Smith (Socialist workers) 7,138, Sam McDonnell (American) 18,842.
Lt. Gov.: Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby 989,558, Gaylor

Marshall 390,943, Dan Fein (SW) 12,108.
Atty. Gen.: Atty. Gen. John Hill 1,028,610, Tom Cole 332,122, Pedro Vasquez (SW) 26,150.
Comptroller: Bob Bullock 960,508, Nick Rowe 371,627, Sas Scoggins (SW) 13,021.
Treasurer: Treasurer Jesse James 898,047, Robert Holt 488,870.
Land Comm.: Comm. Bob Armstrong 1,002,938, Mary Lou Grier 338,854, William Rayson (SW) 10,457.
Agric. Comm.: Comm. John White 988,254, Zack Fisher 365,026.
Railroad Comm.: Comm. Jim Langdon 909,698, Joe Cain 364,323, Fred Garza (Raza Unida) 68,244, Rick

Congress (SW) 8,289.
Railroad Comm., unexpired term: Comm. Mack Wallace 946,503, Dale Steffes 361,211.
The temper of the voters was shown in the governor's race when Briscoe obtained more than 60 per cent of the ballots. Two years ago against Republican Hank Grover, Briscoe won with 47.9 per cent of the total vote, which included 214,000 for Ramsey Muniz of the Raza Unida party.
Granberry was able to win only five counties, including his own county of Lubbock. The others were Midland, always a GOP power, Ochiltree, Randall and Smith.

HAPPY COUPLE — Texas Governor and Mrs. Dolph Briscoe beam with happiness after election returns indicated Briscoe won an easy reelection as governor of Texas. The pair are shown in Briscoe's Uvalde campaign headquarters Tuesday night.

'VETO PROOF' CONGRESS 'This Is A Mandate,' House Speaker Declares

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats cashed in on voter discontent with Republican scandals and the nation's deepening economic ills and headed for a two-thirds bulge in the House, an expanded margin in the Senate and a near-record total of governorships.

DEMO GAINS
They gained at least four seats in the Senate, at least 38 in the House and elected more governors than either party has held since the Democratic landslide in the elections of 1958.

Their precise margins, however, depended on a half-dozen extremely tight races, including a tangled Ohio governor's contest in which Republican James Rhodes conceded defeat to Democratic Gov. John J. Gilligan, then shot into the lead.

The victors included some new national Democratic stars, potential candidates for national office: Gov.-elect Hugh L. Carey of New York and Edmund G. Brown Jr. of California, and Sens.-elect John H. Glenn Jr. of Ohio and Dale Bumpers of Arkansas.
And the losers included a half-dozen Republicans who had been among the loudest and longest defenders of former President Richard M. Nixon: four members of the House Judiciary Committee who stood by Nixon during last summer's hearings and Reps. Dan H. Rostenkowski of Tennessee and Earl F. Landgrebe of Indiana.
Though the Democratic gains Tuesday were a bit below some pre-election forecasts and in line with the normal off-year pattern of opposition party success, Democratic spokesmen hailed their victory as a signal to supplant Ford's economic policies with measures of their own.

"This is not just a victory, this is a mandate," declared Speaker Carl Albert of Oklahoma, scheduled to preside over the first House in a decade with a two-thirds Democratic margin, theoretically the "veto-proof" body Ford warned might block his programs.
Other Democrats cocked their eyes towards 1976 and the presidential contest they hope will restore them to White House control.

HC Helped Demos Pile Up Edge

Democratic candidates for state offices who had opposition in yesterday's general election could take pride in the majority Howard County voters helped give them.
In the lieutenant governor's race, incumbent Bill Hobby garnered 5256 votes, compared to 1258 for Gaylor Marshall, the Republican. Don Fein, the Socialist standard-bearer, managed only 18 votes.
Democrat John Hill picked up 5411 votes in the attorney general's race, compared to 1026 for Republican Tom Cole and 61 for the Socialist candidate, Pedro Vasquez.
Howard County voters helped Democrat Bob Bullock achieve a big win, giving him 5355 votes to 1098 for GOP Nick Rowe and 15 for the Socialist Party entry, Sam Scoggins.
Jesse James, the veteran Democrat, registered 4816 votes in the state treasurer's race, compared to 1739 for the GOP challenger, Robert G. Holt.
The county solidly backed Democrat Bob Armstrong in the land commissioner's race, giving him 5352 votes. Republican Mary Lou Grier rallied 1073 votes, Socialist William Rayson only 13.
It was "no contest" in the Agriculture Commissioner's race, either. Democrat John White pulled in 5263 votes, GOP Zack Fisher only 1158.
Democrat Jim Landon was supported by 5128 county voters. Republican Joe P. Cain could count 1109 who supported him. Raza Unida candidate Fred Garza inspired 157 voters to check his name while Socialist Rick Congress could manage only nine.

Binion Has 4-1 Margin

Incumbent Democrat James Binion, Abilene, won his bid for re-election to the District 17 seat on the State Board of Education by a four to one margin over Republican Challenger Mary Joy Cowper, Big Spring.
With 29 of the 33 counties reporting, unofficial results showed Binion with 53,992 votes to Mrs. Cowper's 13,116.
Binion carried all the counties reporting, including Howard County, home county of his opponent.
Binion is a retired insurance agent, county agent, and teacher and has served one two-year term on the board, and is scheduled to become chairman of the board's vocational committee.
Mrs. Cowper is a former fifth grade teacher and a long-time member of the Big Spring School Board.

MONEY CAVITY UNFILLED Just Wasn't Good Day At Polls For GOP

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — It just wasn't Jim Granberry's day at the polls.
The Republican's defeat at the hands of Democratic Gov. Dolph Briscoe pointed up three political facts of life:
—Briscoe had more money to spend for a campaign.
—Briscoe was better known.
—And as far as Tuesday's voters were concerned, Granberry belonged to the wrong political party.

The same was generally true for all other statewide GOP candidates and for a number of legislative candidates.
"Apparently there was a strong anti-Republican trend all over the nation that was very difficult to overcome," Granberry said in a statement of understatement.
He had hinged his hopes on the proposition sold him by Texas Republican leaders that in recent years the GOP had grown strong enough to swing close to 45 per cent of the vote any time the total voter turnout dropped below 2 million.

Granberry figured that if he could get 44 or 45 per cent the third party candidates could pick off maybe 10 or 11 per cent and that would leave Briscoe only 44 to 45 per cent.
DIDN'T WORK
But it didn't work out that way for the Lubbock dentist.
Briscoe's supremacy in the race appeared several weeks ago and his contributions picked up appreciably. Many of Granberry's pledges suddenly forgot they had a candidate in the governor's race. Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., came to Texas and "leaned" on GOP gift promoters without much success. Preliminary reports showed that Briscoe spent more than $1 million in the campaign and Granberry about half that.
Granberry was hurt particularly in the closing weeks when Briscoe stayed off the campaign trail, to be near his critically ill mother, but was able to saturate the radio-TV market with pre-recorded ads.
Last Sunday many Texas newspapers carried an opinion poll (Belden) showing that 62 per cent of those questioned wanted Briscoe re-elected. What's more 94 per cent of them knew Briscoe but only 36 per cent had heard of Granberry.

Tune To Serve As Next Judge

The hotly contested county judge's race went right down to the wire here Tuesday night with candidates carefully counting down to the final box. Bill Tune, Democratic nominee for the post, will be the new county judge, totaling 3,120 votes on a simple plurality victory.
Jerry Worthy, Republican hopeful, tabulated 2,572 votes and the incumbent judge, A. G. Mitchell collected 947 on a write-in campaign.

BILL TUNE

Total vote for Tune's two opponents was 3,519. Judge Mitchell stated after the tabulation Tuesday night, "I consider 947 write-ins amazing and I want to thank my supporters."
The last three boxes to be turned in were Boxes 1, 2 and 3. With both 2 and 3 traditionally conservative boxes, Worthy expressed hope to the end that he might pull out front.

Solon's Name Is Ignored

One of the minor surprises in Tuesday's election was the fact that more than 1,000 persons who went to the polls didn't bother to check off Cong. Omar Burleson's name in the 63rd congressional race although he had no opponent.
Burleson polled exactly 5,800 votes whereas 6859 persons exercised their voting options. Burleson's name was first on the ticket in Howard County.

Mrs. Cowper is a former fifth grade teacher and a long-time member of the Big Spring School Board.

Few Coast Tuesday

Eight unopposed candidates won election to their offices in the Tuesday election, however, there will be two new faces in the courthouse on January 1.
Peggy Crittendon won election to the District Clerk post, to replace M. Fern Cox, incumbent. She defeated Cox in a controversial primary vote by only one ballot. She gained 5,803 of the 6,879 votes cast.
Margaret Ray won election to the County Clerk office, after the retirement of incumbent Mrs. Pauline Petty. She polled 5,591 votes in the election.
Other unopposed candidates were re-elected to their offices.
District Judge Ralph Caton picked up 5,606 votes of the 6,879 cast in the county to win re-election to his post.
Frances Glenn won re-election to the County Treasurer office with 5,834 votes.
C. R. Crim polled 5,680 votes in his bid for re-election to the County Surveyor post; Jack Buchanan won election to County Commissioner, Precinct Four with 1,213 votes; Lula Adams won election to Justice of the Peace, Precinct Two with 651 votes and Gus Ochotorena Jr., won re-election to Justice of the Peace, Precinct One, Place One, with 4,537 votes.

Farabee Records Impressive Win

Ray Farabee carried every county in the 30th State Senatorial District and carried every box in Howard County as he swept past Mrs. Mary Virginia Kirchoff, Republican hopeful by a total of 29,324 to 7,353.
Both candidate garnered their largest totals in Howard County with Farabee collecting 4,773 and Kirchoff a total of 1,752.
Farabee also had his largest vote in the district in Howard County during the May primary when he defeated Charles Fennell.
When Farabee was in Big Spring for the opening of the Democratic headquarters here, he especially thanked the party workers in this county for his support here. He stated at that time, he began his campaign in Big Spring when he first announced that he would seek the office. Farabee's home is in Wichita Falls, Mrs. Kirchoff's in Plainview.

RETURNS POINT TO QUICK DIVORCE Ford May As Well Forget About 'Happy Marriage'

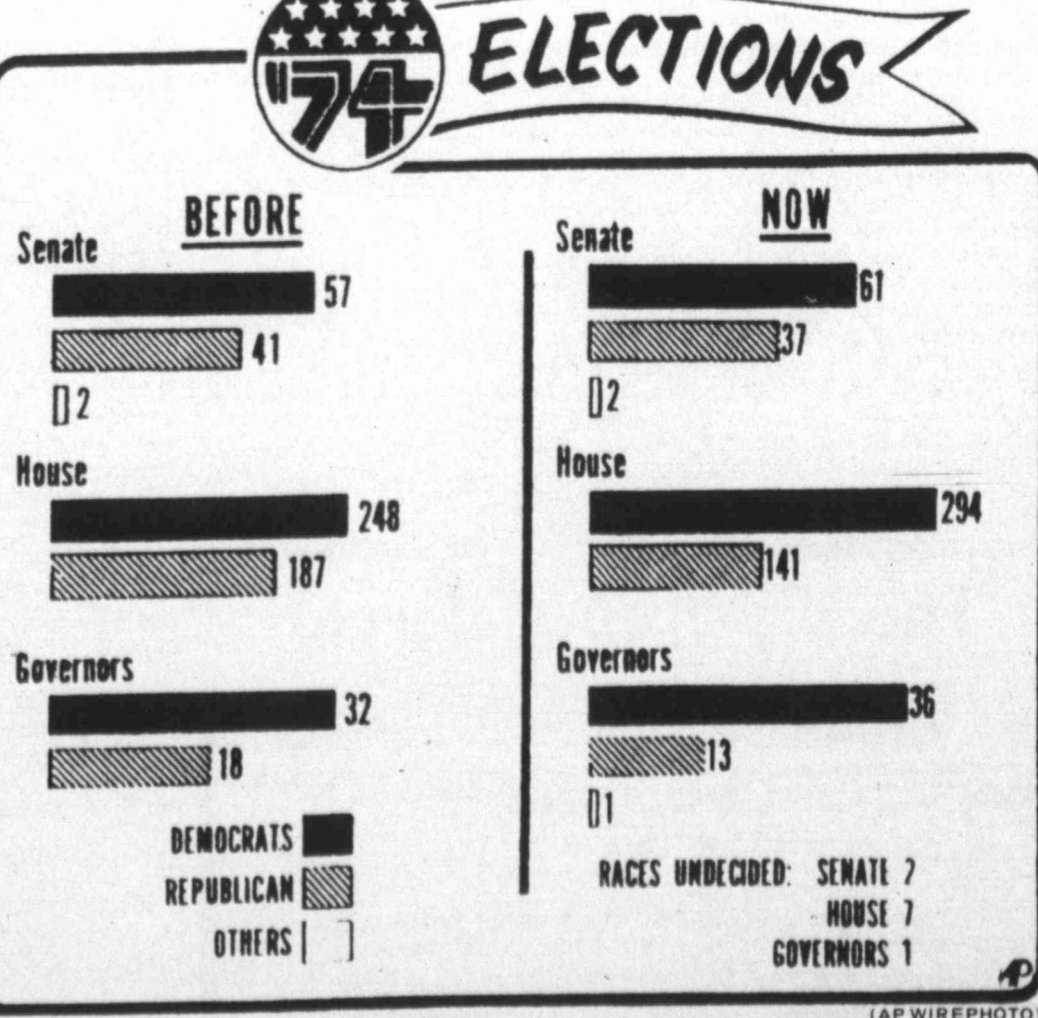

WASHINGTON (AP) — That good marriage President Ford proposed to Congress may be headed for a quick divorce. The election returns point to incompatibility as the likely grounds.
The voters have confronted the Republican President with the most heavily Democratic Congress since Lyndon B. Johnson's landslide election a decade ago.
And while Ford said he is confident he can work with the new Congress to deal with inflation and the economic slump, all the signs signal a heightened struggle over economic measures.
GET READY
Against the background of Tuesday's election outcome, it is likely to begin almost immediately, when the current 93rd Congress returns for its lame duck session beginning Nov. 18.
For one thing, any slim prospect that Congress would act this year to give Ford the middle and upper income tax surcharge he proposed as an anti-inflation measure appears to be gone now. And given the shape of the new Congress that will convene in January, if Ford ever gets the surtax through, it likely will be altered so as to apply only to high income brackets.

TAX REFORM
The new Congress will be more aggressively liberal, more likely to challenge Ford on foreign and defense spending, more attuned to domestic programs.
House Speaker Carl Albert of Oklahoma, an old friend of Ford's but a Democrat first, said his party had a mandate, not just a victory.
Albert said the Democrats now can move with more confidence on such programs as national health insurance, tax reform and public service employment.
He also said the White

House had focused on inflation while neglecting the problem of recession. "We believe we can meet both problems simultaneously," Albert said.
NO. 1 ISSUE
Ford said there was no argument that inflation was the No. 1 issue.
"The mandate of the electorate places upon the next Congress a full measure of responsibility for resolving this problem," he said. "I will work with them wholeheartedly in this urgent task which is certainly beyond partisanship."

But other politicians put inflation squarely in the partisan arena. Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., who is virtually certain to seek the White House in 1976, and who said the election outcome will push up his timetable for an announcement, argued that the voters are fed up and want action now.
BETTER CHANGE
Another Democratic prospect, Sen. Lloyd M. Bentsen of Texas, said Ford had better change some of his economic policies. "If he doesn't we will win the White House in 1976," Bentsen said.
The economic argument can only escalate as the maneuvering begins for presidential campaign position in 1976.

RAIN
A slight shower this morning may be followed by additional thunderstorms tonight and Thursday according to the U.S. Weather bureau. Probability of rain is 40 per cent today, and 50 per cent tonight and Thursday. High today near 60, low tonight in mid 40s and high on Thursday in upper 50s. Winds from the east at 10-20 miles per hour.

DEMOCRATIC GAINS — This chart shows trends in Democratic gains in the U.S. Senate, U.S. House of Representatives and of governors, as of 10:30 a.m., EST, following Tuesday's elections. Still undecided were two races in the Senate, seven in the House and one for governor. The trend is figured by adding the number of races in which each party has won or is leading, plus office holders not subject to election this year.

Soviets Show Their Muscle

The person who isn't aware of the fact that the Russians have expanded and modernized their navy to such an extent that it must now be regarded on a par or superior to any other sea power on earth, the United States included, hasn't been reading the newspaper.

A chilling picture of the expansion of Soviet muscle seems to be ignored in Washington. Perhaps this avoidance is evidence of a wishful policy that if we don't notice the spread of the Muscovites' thrust for world domination, it will go away.

Neglect of U.S. seapower has opened the way for the Russians to become dominant in the Mediterranean. This blind neglect also has combined with political events to give the Russians entry to the Atlantic via a new leftist regime in Portugal and Red pressure for Norway to acquiesce in a Russian naval facility in the Sea of Norway.

A well-known columnist, Ernest Cuneo, describes the ominous situation in these words:

The only Atlantic bulwark is the U.S. Navy. For example, a Russian flotilla coolly and impudently stationed itself in British waters and there was absolutely nothing the British admiralty could do about it.

To convey the message further, the Russian Navy sent a whole fleet down as far as the 40th parallel, in full wartime maneuvers. What this appears to mean is that the Soviet fleets based in the Baltic and at Murmansk are already projecting their strength into the Atlantic.

Add to the lifting of the U.S. embargo on Cuba, due this November, to the Communist political domination of the Azores, the recommendation of Secretary of State Kissinger that the United States yield sovereign powers over the Panama Canal and one need not be an alarmist to note that it outlines the tracing of a Soviet naval encirclement of the United States. That is, unless the U.S. Navy can be brought up to its former unquestioned superiority.

New Code Is Tough

The new code requires that every judge file his federal income tax returns with the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, a constitutionally-created agency assigned to enforce disciplinary rules for the judiciary.

Restraints also are put on judges' involvement in business enterprises and political affairs outside of their own campaign.

Unlike several states Texas' judiciary has been scandal-free over the past years. The new code of ethics makes it even less likely that the unscrupulous persons can maintain a position in the state's judiciary. It is comforting to know that Texas' judges not only imposed a stronger code of ethics on themselves, but that they did so on their own without the need for the stimulation of public outrage brought by scandal.

Glorious Thailand

Around The Rim

Barbara Lord

Glorious Thailand! I like it more each day. I didn't know how deeply entrenched in American suburbia I had become, and it is taking me a while to realize most "necessities" aren't really necessary. I know now that it is possible to keep house without my electric can opener, washer and dryer or vacuum cleaner. The "inconvenience" of no telephone or TV is a refreshing quiet.

Ken and I came to Thailand with slightly over 300 pounds of household goods. We have about 9,000 pounds, so there are 8,700 pounds in storage. The only thing we've missed is the stereo.

MY ELECTRICAL appliances consist of a skillet and hair dryer, neither of which I've been able to use because Thailand is on a different voltage cycle, and I haven't bought a converter. I'm elated when I glance around my small kitchen without being faced with a maze of cords that collect greasy dust and get tangled. I always despised having cords all over the counter, but it was the price one paid for "indispensable" items like blenders, slicing knives, percolators, broilers, toasters and roasters.

Thailand is semi-primitive. We live in Udorn, and its 70,000 people make it the third largest city. By "western" standards, I'd have to say it's dirty, underdeveloped and predominantly a slum area. But it has its charm.

Electricity is a "sometimes" thing. It goes out almost daily for varying lengths of time. At first it irritated me. Now I've realized even hamburgers can be eaten by candlelight with an air of romanticism.

I fear there's no way to make the water situation romantic. Local water is unfit for most uses. We're allowed to shower but not bathe in it. We can't even brush our teeth in it for fear of contracting hepatitis or some other exotic Asian disease. Consequently, we haul our water from the air base, about a mile and a half.

I'll only cook at home a couple of times a week. There is no grocery store at the air base, and eating local foods is precarious. The local open-air markets look dangerously dirty to us antiseptic Americans.

ALL FRUITS and vegetables must be soaked for 30 minutes in a water and Clorox solution. It purifies the food, but doesn't do a lot for the taste. My meat purchasing expeditions are cautious. I used to think a cow was a cow, but over here a cow may be a horse, or a dog, or a water buffalo.

Every morning I awaken to the high-pitched voices of the apartment housegirls, gathered on a cement area out front to do the laundry. Clothes are washed in large plastic tubs of cold water from the hose. They are meticulously scrubbed with hard bristle brushes, then hung to dry. The procedure is rather hard on fabrics, but there is no alternative. My housegirl is charming. She comes from 8 a.m. until noon, three days a week, and does everything from making beds to polishing shoes. Her pay is $1.50 a day. If I try to lift a hand to do any housework, she says, "Oh no, madamie. I do it. You sit and read." Not being one to argue, I comply (and love every minute of it).

Transportation is hazardous from all aspects. Driving on the left side of the road is the legal way, but in reality it's a first-come-first-served basis for both sides, the middle and the shoulders. The horn is a most valued accessory. Drivers must go through several dozen during the lifetime of a car.

I TOOK a taxi to base and thought bicyclic type rickshaws, and the hard working driver will pedal you all over town for between one and five baht. One day I got real brave and hopped on a city bus, a rickety vehicle with a floorboard so thin I could see the pavement going by underneath. Cargo included people, produce and even a few small animals like chickens and pigs. I rode it about three miles to the local Wat (Buddhist monastery), and it cost 75 satangs — that's about 3 1/2 cents.

I'm trying to respect the few Thai customs I know, but there must be thousands I don't know. My first hour in Thailand, I got on a crowded bus at the airport and sat down next to a monk. I was immediately accosted by an excited Thai girl who pulled me out of the seat with an excited "No, no, madamie! Mustn't sit there! Bad! No can sit!" That's how I learned monks are not allowed to ever touch or be touched by a woman.

As a matter of fact, Thai women don't command much respect from anyone in their country. They readily accept their inferior roles and try to keep as humble and inconspicuous as possible. Betty Freidman and Gloria Steinam would have a challenge on their hands. Space has run out and there is so much more to tell. I'm in a completely different culture that's hard to describe. After three weeks, I've developed a deep respect for Thai and for Thailand. But Americans still win out, and America remains the greatest country. We'll be here nine more months, then return to hustling and bustling suburban America. Perhaps even to Texas — not quite as hustling and bustling as other parts.

My Answer

Billy Graham

Just how forgiving is God? Here's why I ask. A man, a member of the church council, spent 36 of his 64 years of marriage in an adulterous relation with his wife's sister. The wife never said a word about it, but after his death, revealed that he had many remorseful hours in prayer about it. Could such a person be forgiven?

I assume the point you're making is that with such prolonged repetition of that sin, the forgiveness of God might have limits that would exclude this man.

Do you know that the whole theme of forgiveness is the high point of the ethical teachings of Jesus? One occasion, when Peter thought he was being especially generous in proposing forgiveness of someone seven times, Jesus suggested rather seventy times seven.

This was not to infer a specific limit, but rather infinity — an unlimited number of times. God does not wink at sin, but His heart of love is always open to the cry of the penitent for pardon.

Probably nobody knows a man better than his wife. If she evaluates his "remorseful" prayers as genuine, then perhaps the adultery was a "besetting sin" from which he had to ask repeated forgiveness. (Hebrews 12:1).

We just don't know what happens

Deadly Conflict

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Businessmen are not by instinct ecologists, but neither are they totally insensitive to the arguments of the environmentalists and others who claim industrial society is in deadly conflict with nature.

The distance between the two is seldom bridged, however, because neither speaks the language of the other. David Brower, president of Friends of the Earth, believes the attempt is worthwhile.

Business believes in efficiency, he observes, and so do the ecologists. Both believe in conserving, avoiding waste, recycling where possible. They have a mutual interest in long-range planning.

The radical difference seems to be in emphasis. The industrialist measures efficiency and productivity in terms of the greatest return for the least investment. The ecologist measures efficiency in terms of obtaining the greatest use from the environment with the least amount of damage.

To an ecologist, Brower comments, "inflation is running out of something."

Brower fears the current rate of population growth leads to disaster if unchecked. His fear is great enough, he states, for him to willingly forego the pleasures of being a grandfather, although not without anguish.

Brower believes also, as almost everyone believes today, that energy must be saved, but he isn't convinced the world understands what it means. The sun, he says, "puts into the earth in a few days as much energy as is contained in our fossil fuels." Nevertheless, architects continue to fight the sun and the wind. "We must learn to live and work with them," he states.

When Brower tells business it must practice staunch conservatism, he seems to reflect the credo of business itself. Efficiency must be paramount, he states. "If you have to waste to live in business, get out of the business."

He believes the world's economies must learn to develop mass transit because it is energy-efficient. Yes, it would cut auto production and jobs, he agrees, but he foresees a vastly greater number of workers in maintenance. This would be so, he continues, because we must eliminate planned obsolescence. Cars must be made to last longer. Indeed, all products must be produced with longevity in mind, and then kept in repair — for efficiency's sake.

Transportation isn't the only offender, Brower says. "Slow down the building of housing that becomes quickly obsolescent. Learn from other nations and build houses to last — houses that need little paint or air conditioning."

Brower isn't impressed by the enormous productivity of American farms, arguing they are inefficient in terms of energy usage. He claims we use five times more energy in wet rice agriculture than we get out of it.

Moreover, he observes that intense use of soil eventually depletes it, polluting the water in the process and leading to deserts. Inevitably, he claims, it leads to higher food prices.

Israel's Move

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — One deep irony of the Arab summit conference in Rabat last week is that, from Secretary of State Henry Kissinger on down, no one here was slipped even a clue that the entire Arab world would unit behind the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), including that long-time, steadfast ally of the U.S., King Hussein of Jordan.

INDEED, THE pledge from Saudi Arabia's King Faisal of an annual $300 million subsidy to Hussein from his pyramiding oil treasures, plus military and other aid, was not considered a practical possibility. Its effect is to drastically reduce the already waning American influence over Jordan at a worsening time.

There was, moreover, a strong implication in the Rabat communiqué that Hussein's sovereignty over the east bank of the Jordan River — the half of his kingdom not in Palestine proper — has been given some sort of guarantee by the major Arab powers, a guarantee he needs.

The implications of this, together with the PLO's emergency as uncontested claimant to this historic Arab territory of the west bank, are stupendous: either Israel finally decides to run the risk of serious west bank negotiations with the PLO and its three bargaining partners (Jordan, Egypt and Syria) or a war infinitely more dangerous than 1967 or 1973 will become unavoidable within six months.

Ever since it seized the west bank in the six-day war of 1967 Israel has filibustered all efforts by Washington to push it into negotiations with Hussein over returning the territory (which is packed with Palestinian Arabs Israel could never absorb). Now the bitter fruit of that policy has ripened.

ISRAEL'S REFUSAL to engage in good faith bargaining with Hussein became the underlying reason by itself for Hussein's backdown — under pressure from major Arab states — from his long proclaimed insistence that only he could attain territorial concessions from Israel. After seven and a half long years, he got nothing.

Now, Kissinger faces particularly ugly choices. Unless the U.S. agrees that the PLO does indeed represent the west bank, and compels a similar, radical policy switch in Israel, the deadlock on Kissinger's efforts to negotiate piece meal settlements of the Egyptian Sinai and the Syrian Golan Heights will continue indefinitely.

But continuing diplomatic progress at this stage can lead only to military conflict, and this time all American experts agree that it would take a miracle to prevent involvement by the U.S. and the Soviet Union.

"WE HAVE begged and implored and warned the Israelis for years to negotiate a return of the west bank with Hussein," one of these policymakers told us. Indeed, some diplomats even considered exacting a price from Israel for the airlift of American weapons during the first week of last October's war: a commitment by Israel to return most of the Arab territory conquered in 1967.

Now, however, Kissinger's area for diplomatic maneuver has been dangerously shrunk by the new unity of the whole Arab world on the west bank question. Now there seems no possible way to avoid putting the issue to Israel in stronger terms than ever before.

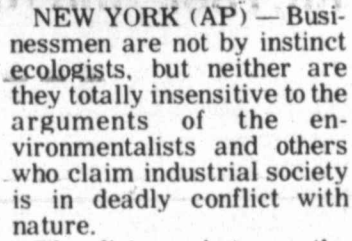

That issue, as perceived by specialists here, has nothing to do with selling out Israel, as Western Europe sold out Czechoslovakia in 1938 to Hitler's Germany. Rather, the issue is whether Israel, by acknowledging the new reality on the west bank, will make it possible for Kissinger to continue to negotiate a return of the Arab lands still under Israeli military occupation.

He Gets The 'Shakes'

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: A friend of mine is sincerely motivated toward solving his drinking problem. It seems to me (and to him) that he has two choices: either to "taper off" or to stop suddenly and completely.

With the later course he has a serious problem with "the shakes," and that makes it impossible for him to work.

Another friend who had a similar problem claims he took large doses of vitamin B during the drying-out period and it helped him tremendously. Can you give me any idea of the approximate time it should take for my friend to feel halfway human again? — A. J. S.

An estimate of the time? No, because it is so variable and depends on each individual's response.

Substantial dosage of vitamin B-complex is important, and is used in such cases, but it isn't the whole answer.

It is my advice that he (or anyone with this problem, should quit cold turkey. The tapering-off method is too uncertain, too likely just to revert back into the old drinking problem.

I do strongly urge that he should be under the supervision of a physician during the drying-out process, because the physician can give him tranquilizers or other sedatives to suppress the shakes.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have been told I am a borderline diabetic. Kindly let me know what my diet should be. I am much overweight — 198 pounds. — Mrs. A. A. L.

Didn't your doctor give you diet instructions? In brief, you should avoid sugar entirely, be careful about carbohydrate foods in general — and cut down on fatty foods and the amount you eat, because you must lose some of that excess weight. My booklet, "Diabetes, The Sneaky Disease," will help you. For a copy send a long, stamped, self-addressed return envelope and 35 cents in care of the Big Spring Herald. But I feel you should go to your doctor for more specific instructions on how to change your diet.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: How far should a 14-year-old boy run each day to keep in shape? I run a mile every day in about seven minutes, but since this is the only exercise I get all day I am not sure if it is enough. — T. F.

Run as much as your endurance, feet and legs tolerate. But I suspect that you are getting ample exercise. However, some bending exercises and similar calisthenics will help your abdominal and back muscles.

Non-Rat Catcher

Robert E. Ford

Called Fido the Wonder Cat into our lap the other evening to issue a stern warning about Secretary Butz, the rat population and particularly about his eating all his dinner and not leaving any.

WE CALL HIM Fido because when the neighbors gave him to us he was just a little ball of fur and for all we knew he was a baby Doberman Pinscher.

So we named him Fido although after a few weeks it became plain that we'd been fooled again. The threat to Fido from Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz came in a little tiff Butz had with Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota.

Sen. Humphrey suggested that Americans eat one less hamburger each week to help feed the world by increasing the amount of available grain.

The theory seems to be that if we raise less cattle to be made into hamburgers, less grain will be needed to raise the cattle we didn't raise. Truly, it is a little complicated.

FROM THE AMOUNT of meat we've been getting in our hamburgers at the corner drive-in, we don't see much saving.

Humphrey set Secretary Butz off on an oratorical skyride that even the silver-tongued Williams Jennings Bryan would have approved.

"I wonder if some of those fuzzy-thinking do-gooders who suggest that we eat one less hamburger per week to release more foodstuffs for the world are really serious," said Butz, who wants farmers and ranchers to get good prices.

"IF SO, they could make the first onslaught on this noble goal by reducing our dog and cat population by 50 per cent, which likewise would suddenly release more grain for the world.

We could also make very substantial progress increasing grain supplies by reducing by 50 per cent our horse population — which no longer pulls the plow or the dray.

"Now, I am not out to limit horse numbers or the cut down on the number of pets. I do not advocate such a thing. On the other hand, if some people are really serious about proposing that we cut back on hamburgers in order to feed the world, then I want to know how they feel about the horses and the dogs and the cats they own."

PRESIDENT GERALD Ford has not been heard from on the subject so far.

He owns a Golden Retriever, presented recently by daughter Susan and White House photographer David Kennerly.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir: During the next year my dog food bill will be $60.00. I am matching this amount for human needs and challenge other dog lovers to do so if you possibly can.

I am giving $20 to the Boys Club of Big Spring, $20 to the Salvation Army through the United Fund and $20 to Partners for Peru to help feed a Peruvian child.

Hooray for humans and hooray also for the joy that canines bring into many homes.

Very truly yours,

Rev. Reinhold Schmidt, Mrs. M. Rodriguez, Mrs. George Foster, Mrs. Mildred Ward, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. R. L. Tiehan, Mrs. Louis Casillas and Bishop Stephen Leven.

Diocesan Convention Draws Delegates From Area Towns

"Abortion is man's idea, not God's", said Mrs. Duane Eberhardt of San Angelo who addressed the San Angelo Diocesan Council of Catholic Women at a meeting Monday in the Sacred Heart Youth Center.

Mrs. Eberhardt, one of several speakers on the program, is associated with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Her talk concerned PLEA (Protect Life-Egd Abortion). According to the speaker, "We find ourselves in the midst of a nationwide blood bath because of the present attitude toward motherhood, and abortion is a logical outcome of this attitude."

She went on to say that there has been a breakdown of moral standards and family life, noting that pro-abortionists are using "scare" tactics by saying the world is over-populated and that many people will starve.

In rebuttle, Mrs. Eberhardt said that those opposed to abortion think the problem can be solved by helping the needy countries produce more food. Also, she said that countries such as Japan, which "have been pushing for abortion" now find that abortion causes "physical and psychological after effects which can scar a woman."

Too, she said, Japan is now having the problem of being "a nation of older people."

In conclusion, Mrs. Eberhardt said that in New York, in 1973, there were 28,000 more abortions than live births.

Other speakers were Mrs. John Moore, Waco, province director, whose topic was "The Challenges and Opportunities of DCCW and NCCW," and Mrs. J. P. Raney, Midland, who discussed "Marriage Encounter."

Over 150 persons attended, representing Abilene, Brownwood, Big Spring, Midland, Sweetwater and San Angelo. During registration, donuts and coffee were served by St. Thomas Altar Society, and luncheon was served by the Sacred Heart Guadalupanas.

Mrs. R. L. Tiehan, Sweetwater, president of San Angelo DCCW, presided at the opening session, and the invocation was by the Rev. Robert Kelly, moderator of San Angelo DCCW. Mayor Wade Choate extended the welcome from the city, and a welcoming address was by the Rev. Reinhold Schmidt, Stanton, Mrs. Gerald Young and Mrs. Henry Carrasco gave the response. The roll was called by Mrs. Jose Esparza, Imperial, secretary of San Angelo DCCW.

Following the president's message, the nominating committee report was given by Mrs. George T. Foster, president of Big Spring Deanery, DCCW.

During the luncheon, organ music was performed by Mrs. Leslie Green, Big Spring, and a group of 11 children from Odessa performed Mexican dances. An address by Bishop Stephen A. Leven preceded the afternoon workshops.

Highlighting the afternoon was the presentation of a Mother of the Year award to Mrs. Lydia Alvarez of Colorado City, mother of 17 children.

The Rev. James Delaney of the host parish said the closing prayer, and at 3:30 p.m. there was a consecrated mass in Sacred Heart Church with the installation of officers.

Mrs. Louis A. Casillas served as general chairman for the meeting, with Mrs. W. R. Ward as co-chairman. Their committee workers included Mrs. Fred Hyer, Miss Mary Sue Brewer, Mrs. L. D. Jenkins, Miss Wanda Anderson, Mrs. M. Rodriguez, Mrs. L. G. Tonn, Mrs. Keith Thompson, the Rev. Stephen White and Sister Mary Eva, O.L.V.M.

The convention theme, "Reconciliation: A Time for Healing," emphasized a healing of human relations and renewal of faith. The part that women play in the church in other parts of the world were discussed by Rev. White, Abilene; Rev. Warren, Snyder; and Rev. Nisson, Ballinger. The Rev. Lois Moeller spoke in Spanish.

Diocesan officers are Mrs. Tiehan, Sweetwater, president; Mrs. W. B. Block, San Angelo, vice president; Miss Mary Sue Brewer, San Angelo, secretary; Mrs. Knollie Senner, Abilene, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Thomas McCurdy, Midland, historian. Chairmen include Mrs. Mildred Ward, Big Spring, international affairs.

Educator Talks On 'Special Ed'

"In 1969, we had 4,000 special education teachers, and now we have 15,000," said Dr. Robert A. Montgomery of Austin when he spoke Monday at Moss Elementary School to the Howard County Association for Retarded Citizens. Dr. Montgomery is assistant commissioner for special education in Texas.

"We are spending approximately 150 million a year on special education classes," continued Dr. Montgomery, "and at the rate of which learning disabilities are being included in the program, this could run as high as a quarter billion a year. We need to get laws tightened concerning children that are categorized as learning disabilities. Those children and retarded children should be in separate programs if they are to receive maximum benefits."

A program of songs was presented by the children, and the next meeting was planned for 7:30 p.m., Dec. 2 in the association's house in Comanche Trail Park. At that time, initial plans will be made for a Christmas program and party.

Mrs. Hayes Party Hostess

Mrs. Marion Hayes was hostess for Monday evening's meeting of the Coahoma Bridge Club, and high score went to Mrs. B. E. Dodson. Other winners were Mrs. Jan East, low, and Mrs. Jodie Sorey, bingo. The next meeting will be at 7 p.m., Monday in the Sorey home.

Dear Abby

Fish Can Feel So Have A Care

DEAR ABBY: I know this sounds like a silly problem, but your answer would mean so much to me.

A friend and I often fish together and we both enjoy it. That is, I do until it comes time to clean the fish. My friend then proceeds to fillet the fish while they are still alive and wiggling.

This bothers me, but my friend assures me that fish have no feelings. I think they have.

Who is right?

SORRY FOR FISH

DEAR SORRY: I checked with the Fish and Wildlife Department of the University of Minnesota, and their spokesman, Dr. Thomas Waters (so help me) said: "Since fish do have nervous systems, they also have feelings. However, it's impossible to say whether the pain a fish feels is the same kind of pain humans experience."

So tell your impatient friend that you aren't buying his fish story, hook, line and sinker, and he should wait until the fish is dead before he fillets it.

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have been married a year. We were very happy until last week.

It all started when she bought a pants suit for $150. (I make barely $100 a week.) I told her to take it back. We argued a while and she refused to return it. The next day I took it back.

That evening when I came home for dinner, my wife was standing in the kitchen naked, preparing supper.

I asked her why she was naked, and she said, "Because I don't have anything to wear." Then it dawned on me what she was trying to get across, but I just ignored her.

I never said another word about her being naked, which bugged her. All during the meal she would bump my arm. When she got up to get the coffee she shoved my chair. Finally she "accidentally" hit me in the head with the coffee pot. That's when I turned her over my knee and gave her a good spanking on her bare fanny. I figured if she was going to act like a child, I'd treat her like one.

She's not talking to me now. Was I wrong?

THE SPANKER

DEAR SPANKER: Yes. Fighting fire with fire won't solve anything, so knock off the spanking, and tell her to cut out the bumping and knocking. Your wife needs to learn how to live on your salary. And if it's insufficient for her extras, maybe she should get a job.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a middle-aged man who wants to marry for the first time in his life, but can't tolerate his beloved's children? She's a wonderful woman but the thought of sharing her with those kids turns me off. Don't get me wrong, they aren't "bad" —

Hayes Wants Crown

NEW YORK (AP) — "We're going after the Big Ten championship."

No, the speaker wasn't Ohio State's Woody Hayes or Michigan's Bo Schembechler. That was Michigan State's Denny Stolz sounding a warning to the two Big Ten giants after his Spartans beat Wisconsin last Saturday.

"Don't give me any of that Big Ten and Little Eight business," Stolz snapped. The Spartans are only 3-1 in Big Ten play to 5-0-0 for Michigan, Ohio State and Michigan, but they're taking dead aim at Ohio State this weekend at East Lansing.

"We're gonna be ready for it," Stolz promised. "We're gonna be there. Then we'll see what our chances are."

For those who think the Spartans have two chances slim and none — remember that Ohio State's last regular-season loss was to Michigan State ... in 1972 ... at East Lansing.

But, snorts Ohio State's Woody Hayes: "Jinxes don't belong in football. I've broken jinxes wherever I've been." It says here Woody will come home a 31-14 winner Saturday.

Last week's score was 44 right, 19 wrong and two ties for '69. Two of the three Upset Specials came through — Florida over Auburn and Washington over UCLA. The season count is 372-144-14-721.

Upset Special of the Week ... Georgia 24, Florida 17: "We can't be stopped now," says Florida fullback Jimmy DuBose. But Georgia has only been held under 24 points once all season and Florida's coming off that emotional win over Auburn.

Oklahoma 34, Missouri 7: "Missouri is the best football team we've played since Texas," says OU Coach Barry Switzer.

Alabama 28, Louisiana State 14: "I think our team is just beginning to get good," says Bear Bryant, coach of the 8-0 Crimson Tide.

Michigan 27, Illinois 10: Illinois' Bob Blackman is president of the American Football Coaches Association. Oh, well, it's been a bad year for presidents.

Texas A&M 24, Southern Methodist 14: Aggie's offense is banged up but their defense is one of the best around.

Texas 34, Baylor 9: Longhorns must keep winning to stay in the Southwest Conference race. So, for that matter, must Baylor.

CAMPBELL ASSUMES DUTIES

Brocklin Ousted As Falcon Coach

ATLANTA (AP) — Norm Van Brocklin, generally regarded as a technical football genius with a volatile personality, was fired as head coach and general manager of the Atlanta Falcons Tuesday.

Van Brocklin, 48, had built the expansion team into a legitimate playoff contender last year but was forced out of his job by public pressure after the Falcons staggered to a 2-6 start.

The clamor for change reached its peak Sunday when the Miami Dolphins gave Atlanta its worst defeat in 40 games, 42-7.

The announcement of the firing came in a terse statement from club owner Rankin Smith at the dinner hour Tuesday night. Smith said Marion Campbell, 45, will assume the coaching duties immediately.

Campbell had served as Van Brocklin's defensive coordinator since 1969, building a unit that was respected throughout the National Football League.

"I had no inkling of anything like this," said Campbell. "I've just been trying to get the defense going ... That's all that has concerned me."

"I appreciate Rankin's faith in me, but my heart goes out to Norm Van Brocklin. We were together for nine years. He let me coach the defense and never second-guessed me. We talked today at the stadium after the change was made."

Campbell said.

"When Norm left, he wished me well. I didn't solicit the job and he knows it."

Campbell said Smith told him there would be no discussion of whether he would be the coach next year until after the season is over.

"But I'm not concerned about that," he said. "I just want to do the job for Rankin, the Falcons and the assistants. As for next year, we didn't sit down and talk about promises."

Dodger Hurler Named

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike Marshall, the tireless relief pitcher who helped the Los Angeles Dodgers win their first pennant in eight years, was named the National League's Cy Young Award winner today.

Marshall collected 17 of 24 possible first-place votes to outscore teammate Andy Messersmith, 96 points to 66, and became the first relief pitcher in history to win the coveted prize.

The only other reliever to win a major award from the Baseball Writers Association of America was Jim Konstanty, who was the National League's Most Valuable Player during the "Whiz Kid" days of the Philadelphia Phillies in 1950.

The Dodgers took three of the first four places as Atlanta's Phil Niekro finished third with 15 points and Los Angeles' Don Sutton was fourth with 12.

Messersmith, along with Niekro the only 20-game winners in the National League this year, received five first-place votes; Niekro and Sutton had one each. Pitchers from the National League champion Dodgers thus gained 23 of the 24 first-place votes.

The remainder of the field included Al Hrabosky of St. Louis with nine points; Cincinnati's Jack Billingham, eight; Cincinnati's Don Gullett, five; Clay Carroll of Cincinnati, two, and Pittsburgh's Dave Giusti, Buzz Capra of Atlanta, and Lynn McLoughen of St. Louis, all one.

A total of 24 writers voted, two from each National League city, and the point total was decided on a basis of five for first place, three for second and one for third.

Marshall appeared in a record-breaking 106 games this past season, an achievement that bettered his own National League standard of 92 set the year before with the Montreal Expos.

PACKING UP — Carla Koplin, Atlanta Braves personal secretary to Henry Aaron, packs his office memorabilia for his new office in Milwaukee, Wis. The accumulated souvenirs from Aaron's 22 years with the team filled a truck. Aaron was traded to the Milwaukee Brewers of the American League.

3 Berths Remain In WFL

By The Associated Press

The World Football League, the ultimate equal opportunity employer, has gone through 18 weeks of its 20-week season already, and the only teams that have been eliminated from the playoffs are the ones who have ceased operation.

Half of the league's 10 active teams — Southern California, Memphis, Florida, Birmingham and Charlotte — have clinched playoff spots and the other five are still fighting it out for the remaining three berths. And, as luck would have it, the five have taken on the five havenots in this week's action.

Southern California visits the Hawaiians, Birmingham hosts Philadelphia and Charlotte is at Shreveport tonight while Memphis entertains Chicago and Florida hosts Portland Thursday night.

The Hawaiians, 7-11 but revived with the acquisition of quarterback Randy Johnson, can virtually clinch a playoff spot by upsetting the Southern California Sun. Johnson has been aiming most of his passes at Tim Delaney, the WFL's leading receiver.

The Sun, 13-5, has a passing game of its own with rookie Tony Adams doing most of the throwing. Adams leads the league with 254 completions in 461 attempts for 3,646 yards and 22 touchdowns.

Birmingham, 13-5, will probably start George Mira at quarterback but rookie Matt Reed will be available for relief. Reed came off the bench to lead the Americans past Florida last week. Al Jenkins, averaging a remarkable 21 yards a reception, provides Birmingham with a long-range threat.

Television Runner-Up

Big Spring's Bill Carter was defeated by E. R. Carter, Lubbock, 247 to 202, in a pro-style Midland Lane one-game final $1,000 championship bowling contest Sunday.

The West Texas Classic was shown on Channel 2 TV. Bill's effort netted him $500. Midland Lanes' Mike Carmichael donated the prize money. Seventy-eight bowlers competed from 10 cities.

Bill was the qualifying leader after 14 sanctioned games. He averaged 210.

Other results: first game — Kenny Hostetter, Odessa, dined David White, Midland, 184 to 178; second game — James Butler, Odessa beat Hostetter, 201 to 191; third game — E. R. Carter stopped Butler, 204 to 157.

The next tournament held at a different site each month will come to Big Spring, Dec. 7-8. West Texas play has been in existence for six months.

Secrets Flying Real Fast Like

By The Associated Press

Secrets are flying faster than rumors as the nation's college football bowls rush to line up post-season opponents.

Notre Dame reportedly will meet Alabama in the Orange Bowl in a rematch of last year's national championship battle. Nebraska and Florida will face each other in a Sugar Bowl clash while Penn State will take on the Southwestern Conference champion in the Cotton Bowl.

Miami of Ohio, which has a bid to the Tangerine Bowl, says its wants to meet Miami of Florida in the Dec. 21 clash.

And Oklahoma State will meet Pittsburgh and Tony Dorsett in the Sun Bowl Dec. 28.

Until this year, the first day a bowl invitation could be extended was the third Saturday in November. But the National Collegiate Athletic Association rescinded its rule when it found it impossible to enforce.

The bowls then agreed among themselves to wait until Nov. 16. But, as usual, early bids have apparently been offered and leaked.

The Orange Bowl collision between Notre Dame and Alabama will match the two teams that fought for the national championship in the Sugar Bowl last New Year's Eve when the Irish edged the Crimson Tide 24-23.

Notre Dame is ranked eighth with a 7-1 record while Alabama, 8-0, is third behind Ohio State and Oklahoma. A Notre Dame spokesman said "no decision would be made before Nov. 16," although Frank Rentz, president of the Orange Bowl Committee, said official announcement of the Notre Dame-Alabama matchup could come Saturday following the Alabama-Louisiana State game.

Penn State Coach Joe Paterno said his team has voted to go to the Cotton Bowl against the winner of the Southwest Conference

SCHOOLBOY ROUNDUP

Lee Vaults Into No. 8

By The Associated Press

Of the 50 teams ranked in The Associated Press Texas schoolboy football poll, 49 escaped defeat last week but that is little consolation for Odessa Permian.

The Panthers, ranked No. 2 in Class 4A, suffered their worst defeat in 81 games when district-rival Midland Lee scored a 34-7 victory and knocked Permian down to a tie for 10th this week.

Meanwhile, Wichita Falls Rider, first in Class 4A, jumped Class B kingpin Big Sandy as a unanimous selection for the No. 1 spot.

Cuero continues to lead in 3A, Hamshire-Fannett has the 2A lead and Aledo remains the Class A ringleader.

Midland Lee's big victory vaulted the Rebels into a tie for eighth place this week with Bryan, which moved up from ninth a week ago.

Lufkin, alone in 10th last week, whipped Texarkana 27-7 but has to share the ranking this week with Permian.

Cuero, defending 3A state champion which edged past Beaumont South Park for the No. 1 spot last week, widened its lead slightly this week by a 176-16 point margin.

Unbeaten Jacksonville polled 12 votes and would have been the 11th-place team in 3A with its 9-0 record and playoff berth.

Firm Faces Challenge, Hulsey Tells Employees

Burl B. Hulsey Jr., president of Texas Electric Service Co., told company employees at a meeting here Tuesday night honoring Quarter Century Club members that TESCO is in a strong position today and although it has solid, long-range plans for the future, carrying out those plans will be a big, tough job.

Hulsey said that TESCO is just beginning a major transition from using natural gas for virtually all its generating plants to using lignite coal and nuclear fuels.

"This transition is the most far-reaching and most expensive in the company's history," he stated. "To use these more abundant fuels, we must build new, more expensive power plants at a time when continued inflation increases their cost daily. This means hundreds of millions of dollars will have to be invested in new facilities. Our total investment is now approaching one billion dollars, and it will increase by more than $700 million dollars in just the next five years."

"We have to depend on investors to supply most of this money we will need for new facilities in a fiercely competitive money market at very high interest rates," Hulsey said, "and we have to have earnings that are adequate to attract and to pay the cost of this additional money."

TO SELL MORE

TESCO sold $70 million in new securities at a rate of about 8 1/2 per cent in April, he said, and plans to sell $60 million of new bonds in December, expecting to pay about 10 per cent for this money.

Hulsey said that several major utilities recently had been unable to find buyers for their bonds and stocks which forced them to make major cutbacks in their construction plans.

"It won't take long for these cutbacks to result in poorer service to customers," he said. "There is one basic reason why these

Ezzell Has 2-1 Edge

Michael Ezzell, Democrat, Snyder, handily outpolled Republican opponent John R. "Rich" Anderson, Borden County, to win election to the state Legislature from the six county 63rd District.

Ezzell polled a total of 8,628 votes to Anderson's 4,743 votes, nearly a two-to-one margin.

Ezzell will replace Rep. Renal Rosson, Snyder, who chose not to run for reelection after narrowly beating Anderson two years ago.

Ezzell held a solid lead, as expected, in his home county of Scurry, outpolling his opponent 2,033 to 809 and Anderson carried his home county, Borden by a 221 to 128 margin.

The biggest surprise, however, came in Howard County as Ezzell won by a substantial 4,253 to 2,328 margin. Two years ago, Anderson was a solid favorite in Howard County, winning by more than 1,000 votes.

Anderson, a 45 year old rancher, said he thinks this will be his last time to seek office. He has run for office twice before, including his try for the legislature.

Martin Nixes Drink Option

STANTON — Martin County voters in precinct 2 turned down a liquor by the drink option and the opportunity to develop one of their oldest historical attractions into an expensive restaurant.

The vote in the precinct was 202 against and 105 for the issue. The incumbent commissioner in the precinct, M. D. Coggins, successfully fought off a write-in campaign which appeared in recent weeks.

Coggins totaled 160 votes to 125 for Bob Benson, also running as a Democrat on a write-in.

The county also backed Kent Hance for the state senate with 625 votes as against Robert Garner, with 84.

Briscoe Has 3-1 Edge Over Jim Granberry

The incumbent, Democrat Dolph Briscoe, piled up a better than three-to-one edge over Republican Jim Granberry among Howard county voters in the 1974 governor's race.

Briscoe, who didn't campaign anywhere during the last two weeks of the campaign, piled up 4,929 votes, compared to 1,458 for Granberry.

Rupard Is 2-1 Winner

Democratic nominee Ikie Rupard outpolled the Republican nominee Paul Shaffer more than two-to-one to win election to the County Commissioner's post from Precinct Two.

Rupard carried each of the six boxes in precinct two for a 1,710 to 679 victory.

Rupard will replace incumbent Commissioner Bill Bennett, who failed to win the Democratic nomination for the post in the primary.

Shaffer made his best showing in voting precinct 15, Wesley Methodist Church, where he gained 243 votes to Rupard's 395 votes.

J. Robinson Is Elected

GARDEN CITY — John Robinson won as justice of the peace in Glasscock County on a write-in campaign totaling 134 votes.

Pete Underwood was the incumbent JP and was not seeking re-election. He collected one vote anyway. Other write-ins showed Tony Parsons with 23, Larry Wheat with 21 and James Teelwith 3.

An unexpected write-in was tallied in the county and district clerk's race, but the incumbent, Vena Lawson, went back into office with a big majority of 209. One of her deputies, Joyce Wheat polled 46.

Others elected on uncontested ballots included G. R. Pearce, commissioner precinct 2, 74; Curtis Palmer, commissioner precinct 4, 60; Jonnie Cyfert, treasurer, 25; and County Judge D. W. Parker, 250. Ralph Caton was running unopposed for district judge.

Glasscock County voted 304 for Dolph Briscoe and 50 for Jim Granberry and voted Democrat all the way across the board.

Few Leads In Robbery

"We have not yet been able to locate a suspect in the armed robbery of the Highway 87 Grocery at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday. However, we do have several leads which we are following up at this time," Sheriff A. N. Standard stated here today.

"A report that the suspect might have entered Webb Air Force Base after the incident is apparently unconfirmed, as far as any evidence that we have received," Sheriff Standard stated.

The lone bandit reportedly escaped with $500, taking off across a field with at least one pursuer giving chase.

The bandit was described as having a beard and long hair and possibly driving a motorcycle. He was between 18 and 20, wearing a blue denim shirt and trousers and tennis shoes.

Area lawmen combed the area for over an hour with no arrest.

Secretary Authorized To Add To Water Bills

By JOHN EDWARDS

The woman who recorded minutes of the contested water district board Coahoma City Council meetings in Feb., 1959, was not present at the meetings, testimony in 118th District Court revealed Tuesday.

Mrs. Mattie Miller, secretary for both the city and the Howard County Water Control and Improvement District, No. 1, told the court that she never attended board or council meetings.

"They (the council minutes) came from one individual member?" G. Ben Bancroft, attorney for the city, asked.

"Yes sir," Mrs. Miller said. The late Mayor W. C. Hutchins was that individual member, she indicated.

Minutes of the joint city-water board meeting show that a member of the board made the motion and a member of the council seconded a motion that Mrs. Miller be authorized to add enough to Coahoma water bills to pay for bonds and operating expenses of the district.

Supplemented Before that date, a contract and then a supplemental written contract specified exactly how Coahoma water bills would be figured, Mrs. Miller said.

But Mrs. Miller testified excess amounts were charged Coahoma, the district's only customer, anyway.

When Bancroft first asked if excess sums were charged before 1959 without contractual authorization, Mrs. Miller replied:

"Well, I don't know how to answer that, because I was working for the mayor, and, if anything was due, I had to pay it."

"So the truth is the city overpaid, under the contract, for the whole year of 1958," Bancroft summarized. "Yes sir," Mrs. Miller said.

Bancroft had looked through a series of bills and pointed to how the formula used to figure the bill varied from month to month.

Mrs. Miller later told the district's lawyer, John Burgess, the mayor instructed her how to compute bills, and the mayor signed bills.

Bancroft asked about successive mayors "I wouldn't instruct them," Mrs. Miller said. "I'd tell them how it'd been paid."

NOT LEVIED Taking another tack, Bancroft asked Mrs. Miller: "Taxes were not levied and assessed until 1962. Is that correct?"

Mrs. Miller: "Yes sir." District Judge Ralph W. Caton recessed the trial for lunch at this point.

Tuesday afternoon, Bancroft read part of the 1955 resolution to issue bonds, which called for financing from "net revenues" and taxes.

Also, the 1955 bond ballot specified revenue and tax bonds, Bancroft showed.

Only water bills, and subsidy from Coahoma, were utilized until 1962, witnesses said. Taxes assessed starting in 1962 went toward payment of a second bond issue.

In May, 1974, Mrs. Dorothy

Baker, present secretary for the water district alone, said $101,707 was used to repay 1962 bonds through 1969.

Starting in November, 1973, Coahoma failed to pay the additional amount, Mrs. Baker said. The district, consequently, counts $29,414.39 in unpaid bills, Mrs. Baker said.

Teddy Joe Fowler, a council member who agreed he had been instrumental in obtaining water for Coahoma in 1955, was on the council in 1959.

He told Burgess that the city was actually running the water district.

"The water district had no money, and the city had very little," Fowler said.

Fowler told the defense, however, that the only thing he remembered was what the minutes said and he remembered that only because he had read the minutes recently.

A discussion without the jury present was suggested late Tuesday afternoon when the defense tried to introduce two letters. Dated April and May, 1974, the letters were from Oscar Cagle, board chairman, to Coahoma City Hall.

Instead of sending jurors to their room once again, Caton recessed the trial until today.

Coahoma Mayor Jack

Cauble testified this morning about the events that led to a suit filed by the Colorado River Municipal Water District against the City of Coahoma in 118th District Court.

Cauble said that in January, the District said that it was moving its offices out of city hall where it had been for 18 or 19 years. "All we could see was an increase in our expenses," Cauble testified. "This caused us to question the move and this brought about the whole suit," he continued.

The district filed suit to recover some $29,414 in back payments.

"We could not find out why we had been paying for all these years, this particular amount," he said.

Cauble, mayor for the past four or five years, was asked if he had learned about the arrangement upon taking office.

"It sounded reasonable, I didn't check for any contract or any minutes that indicate this was wrong," he answered. "At this time, we were forced to consider a rate increase without the move and these expenses are going to come on top of that," he concluded.

Students Await Newsprint Holiday Friday

Big Spring school children have a holiday Friday. School will dismiss at the regular time Thursday with classes resuming Monday. Teachers will attend the district meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association, to be held in Midland.

Up, Up, Up

NEW YORK (AP) — Bowater Sales Co. said today it would increase its price of 30-pound newsprint by $35 a ton to $270 a ton, effective Jan. 1. Other newsprint producers in the United States and Canada previously had announced increases to $260 a ton, also effective Jan. 1.

Bowater President B. R. Pryde said the company "deliberately delayed any announcement until the four Bowater North American mills had prepared their manufacturing cost estimates for next year."

Steelman Cools McKool In Congressional Race

STUNNING POLITICAL VICTORIES

By JIM BRIGANCE
Associated Press Writer

All of Texas' Democratic U.S. House incumbents basked in the sunshine of stunning political victories today.

The icing on their cake was the upset of one of the state's four Republican congressmen and the near defeat of another one.

"This is a gratifying victory. The returns speak for themselves," summed up House dean Wright Patman, an 81-year-old Democrat who has served 24 terms.

SIX-TO-ONE
In nearly all House races, Democrats leaped to impressive leads in early returns and then sat back and watched their margins balloon in some instances as much as five-and six-to-one over Republican opponents.

Two Republicans, Jim Collins in the 3rd District and Bill Archer in the 7th District, were swept to reelection with unquestioned leads. Alan Steelman narrowly won his race in the 5th District over Democrat challenger Mike McKool.

But in the 13th District, GOP Rep. Bob Price slipped under the waves of Democrats who voted their challenger Jack Hightower to a sensational victory. With vote counting near complete, Hightower held a vote margin of about 17,000 ballots. It was a victory many court-house observers predicted, saying Price could not overcome among Panhandle voters the controversies of Watergate.

draft dodger amnesty and the economy.

In the 21st District race, a seat vacated by retiring Democrat O. C. Fisher, Democrat Bob Krueger and Republican Doug Harlan ran neck and neck throughout the evening but at a late hour Krueger pulled ahead with an unquestioned lead.

It was a race which pitted two highly educated candidates against each other with American party contestant Ed Gallion siphoning off but a handful of the votes.

OMAR RETURNED
These Democrats, all incumbents except for Hightower and Krueger, were sent to Washington: Bob Poage, Ray Roberts, Olin Teague, Patman, Dale Milford, Barbara Jordan, J. J. Pickle, Bob Casey, Jim Wright, Bob Eckhardt and Jack Brooks.

These Democrats, unopposed for re-election, were automatically: Reps. Charles Wilson, 2nd Dist.; John Young, 14th District; Eligio DelaGarza, 15th District; Richard C. White, 16th District; Omar Burleson, 17th District; George Mahon, 19th District; Henry B. Gonzalez, 20th District; and Abraham Kazen Jr., 23rd District.

Latest House returns—Democrats first, Republicans second, others designated by districts:

1. Rep. Wright Patman 46,076, James Farris 21,683.

3. Harold Collum 30,400, Rep. Jim Collins 58,175.

4. Rep. Ray Roberts 42,017, Dick LeTourneau 13,293.

5. Mike McKool 26,280, Rep. Alan Steelman 28,054.

6. Rep. Olin Teague 43,684, Carl Nigliazzo 12,127.

7. Jim Brady 16,167, Rep. Bill Archer 60,752.

8. Rep. Bob Eckhardt 28,360, Donald Whitefield 10,394.

9. Rep. Jack Brooks 54,779, Coleman Ferguson 32,419.

PICKLE VICTORY

10. Rep. Jake Pickle 73,967, Paul Weiss 18,244.

11. Rep. Bob Poage 46,916, Don Clements 13,135, Laurel Dunn (independent) 746.

12. Rep. Jim Wright 6,563, James Garvey 1,938.

13. Jack Hightower 52,506, Rep. Bob Price 38,326.

18. Rep. Barbara Jordan 33,044, Robbins Mitchell Jr., 5,756.

484. Jack McCarthy (independent) 0.

21. Bob Krueger 48,630, Douglas Harlan 43,146, Ed Gallion (American) (A) 2,125.

22. Rep. Bob Casey 44,629, Ron Paul 18,543, Jill Fein (SW) 717, James Smith (A) 629.

24. Dale Milford 23,800, Joseph Beaman Jr. 5,582, Earl Armstrong (A) 953.

All things considered, Republicans didn't fare as poorly as many Democrats predicted. The GOP lost only one House seat.

SURPRISING

The race between Price and Hightower was surprising at its conclusion. Price, a four-term Republican, was popular among his constituents.

Homicide Ruling

SIERRA BLANCA, Tex. (AP) - A ruling of justifiable homicide has been returned by a Hudspeth County grand jury in the slaying of an escaped convict by a state trooper.

Edsel W. Heslip, who was awaiting sentencing for a murder conviction at the El Paso County jail, escaped the jail Oct. 27 and was shot to death at a roadblock 48 miles east of El Paso, police said.

A hostage taken during the escape, Frank Lowry, 63, said earlier that Heslip had thrown away his guns and was crouched in the floor of a pickup truck pleading for mercy when shot.

Heslip was shot 10 times in a short burst of automatic carbine fire from Department of Public Safety Patrolman Randall Messick.

Messick said he did not see the convict discard his weapons and believed he was armed and a threat to other officers.

Firm's Income Nears Record

ROCHESTER, N.Y. - W. R. Grace & Co. expects 1975 earnings to exceed the company's record in 1974 and capital spending will approach $250 million next year, Charles E. Erhart, Grace executive vice president and chief financial officer, told the Rochester Society of Security Analysts here recently.

Erhart commented that inasmuch as even the normally slower third quarter of the year set a record and became the eleventh consecutive quarter in which improvements in sales and income took place, "I am confident that results for the full year will put us well over the $314 billion mark in sales and I expect our net income to be about $140 million, or about $4.50 a share. This would represent," Erhart continued, "an increase in per share earnings for the year of over 50 per cent - far in excess of the 16 per cent average annual growth rate we have had over the last five years."

Erhart pointed out, "We are clearly optimistic as to our prospects despite the economic uncertainties facing the U.S. and the world."

The Grace firm maintains an ammonia manufacturing plant in Big Spring.

ASSOCIATES VOICE SHOCK AFTER DAD CHARGED

Trick-Or-Treat Candy Death

PASADENA, Tex. (AP)—A father charged with murder in the Halloween trick-or-treat poisoning of his own son stoutly claimed innocence Tuesday and neighbors and friends were stunned "with shock and disbelief" at his arrest.

Ronald Clark O'Bryan, a 30-year-old optician from neighboring Deer Park, was charged early Tuesday with the cyanide poisoning of his 8-year-old son Timothy.

PASTOR PUZZLED

The boy died Halloween night after eating a trick-or-treat candy which had been laced with cyanide.

The elder O'Bryan, jailed in lieu of $100,000 bond, was described by the pastor of his church as "very torn up and puzzled."

According to a source, O'Bryan was charged after he took a polygraph test Monday and after officers discovered he recently took out a $20,000 to $38,000 life insurance policy on his son.

O'Bryan was very active in the Second Baptist Church and friends described him as "a good, Christian man—an above average father."

"We're a very close church," said the Rev. Mr. Jones. "The members have reacted with shock and disbelief."

W. C. Gill, a friend who lived next door to the O'Bryans for four years, said he couldn't understand the charge.

"Until I hear his own statement that he did it,"

said Gill, "I'll never believe it."

FOULUP

"There has to be a foulup somewhere," said E. W. Parrish, another neighbor. "I don't feel that he could do that at all."

The O'Bryans recently sold their house next door to Gill and moved into a Deer Park complex of duplexes.

Their new residence was dark Tuesday. The mailbox was stuffed with what appeared to be sympathy cards.

The sidewalk still bore the traces of Halloween, with a childish scrawl of chalk-carrying pranksters. A unit across the courtyard still had windows decorated with Halloween skeletons and goblins.

A next door neighbor, Yvonne Murray, said the O'Bryans "seemed like a very fine family."

FINE FAMILY

"Tim (the poison victim) was always playing with my daughter, Emma, who's 9," said Mrs. Murray. "On Halloween night she wrote 'I love you' on the back of a school picture and took it over. Mr. O'Bryan met her at the door and said he would give it to Tim."

A few hours later Timothy was dead.

O'Bryan told police he took Tim and a daughter, Elizabeth, 5, trick-or-treating with friends in the Bowling Green subdivision of Pasadena.

After returning home, O'Bryan said, Tim was permitted to eat one piece of candy. According to the father, the boy chose a Pixie Six, a plastic container of powdered candy. Shortly he suffered convulsions, vomiting, and then lost consciousness. Within an hour he died at a Pasadena hospital.

Green subdivision. They found five other Pixie Six containing poison among the candy collected by Elizabeth and the children who went with the O'Bryans.

Bowling Green residents said the investigation aroused a great deal of suspicion in the neighborhood and police said residents were subjected to harassment.

Pasadena Police Capt. R.E. Rhodes praised the cooperation given by

Bowling Green residents and said the arrest should assure them the poisoning was not caused by "a sick Halloween prankster, seeking out some random victim."

Friends said they knew of no indication O'Bryan was having financial difficulty. But a former employer said he had a history of changing jobs often.

O'Bryan had worked as a dispensing optician at a branch of a large optical chain since last February.

Hospital In Mexico Is Under HCA Direction

Hospital Corporation of America has signed a management contract for a hospital in Mexico City, it has been announced. This is the second contract by the International Division, the first being in Saudi Arabia. This becomes the 6th unit in the HCA group, consisting of 64 operating hospitals and 2 under contract for development and management.

Under terms of the contract, HCA will manage the existing hospital while developing and coordinating design and construction of a new facility and will manage the new hospital once it is completed. The contract is effective November 1, and has a duration of approximately 5 years.

John C. Neff, president of the world's largest hospital management company, said he expects "this initial contract in Latin America will lead to other agreements for additional hospitals."

The existing facility, Hospital Frances, was acquired by Banco Nacional, Mexico's largest financial institution, approximately 1½ years ago. It is the bank's intention to replace the structure, built in 1915, with a modern new hospital, which project HCA will now manage and coordinate.

HCA will consult and advise the owners on architecture, construction, and systems for the new facility, while managing the existing hospital.

"We are very pleased to be associated with Mexico's largest bank, and to have a part in developing this new hospital," Neff said. "We believe this contract is further evidence of the potential which exists for us to export hospital management all over the world."

"It is our intention to significantly upgrade operations of the existing hospital while developing the new facility," Neff continued, "through installation of new equipment, additional training for employees, attracting more physicians to the medical staff, and adding

HCA will furnish a resident executive consultant for the hospital, plus additional specialists in various fields as needed.

HCA is building a $7.5 million hospital in Big Spring.
