

THREE MODERATE REPUBLICAN SPEAKERS SPEAK OUT

GOP Must Change If It Is To Rebound

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three moderate Republican senators say the GOP must broaden its base and offer specific economic programs if it hopes to rebound from off-year election defeats that left its national strength at a 10-year low.

The statements from Sens. Lowell P. Weicker Jr. of Connecticut, Charles H. Percy of Illinois and Charles McC. Mathias of Maryland came as President Ford and Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield pledged cooperation Wednesday despite a general expectation of conflict over economic programs.

Democratic leaders, meanwhile, gave every indication they will set their own agenda, headed by national health insurance, tax reform and an expanded public service jobs program, when the 94th Congress meets in January.

"There is an inherent weakness in the entire structure of the Republican party," Weicker declared. "They are not going to win any election until they broaden the base of their party."

Percy, sounding a bit like the presidential contender he hoped to be before Ford succeeded Richard M.

Nixon, said, "The Republican party can rebound, but only by developing a distinct set of programs that realistically attack the problems, especially the crunching economic problems, that confront us all."

Mathias, saying that he had received support from blacks, labor and ethnic groups in his re-election, said he intends to see that the national GOP "does reach out" to such groups.

Turnout for this election was the lightest for any year since at least 1946, with an unofficial count showing 38 per cent of the voting age population cast ballots. Nearly complete election returns showed Democrats fell short of their predicted pre-election gains by the narrowest of margins, especially in the Senate, where Republicans led three Senate races by a total of less than 1,300 votes.

—North Dakota, New Hampshire and Nevada — would keep the net Democratic Senate gain to three, from 58 to 61. Democratic victories could swell the gains as high as six, to 64.

CLOSE RACES
In two other Senate races, one led by each party, the margin was less than 5,000 votes. And in five governorship contests, too, the unofficial margin was less than 5,000.

—This was the standing: —Senate: Democrats captured four Republican seats, in Florida, Colorado, Kentucky and Vermont, but trailed for one in Nevada they now hold. That left them with an assured 61 seats in the new Senate, the 11th straight under Democratic control.

—House: The net Democratic gains, exceeding pre-election forecasts, stood at 43.

meaning the new House will have at least 291 Democrats. Three races remained undecided. The Democratic total barely missed matching the 295 in Lyndon B. Johnson's 1964 landslide, the largest total won by either party since 1936.

—Governors: Democrats captured nine, while losing three to the Republicans and a fourth to an independent, in Maine. Another Democrat trailed, indicating the new standing would be 36 Democrats, 13 Republicans and one independent, surpassing the 35 Democrats elected in 1958.

The closest Senate contest was in North Dakota, where Republican Sen. Milton R. Young and former Democratic Gov. William L. Guy finished in a virtual dead heat. The Associated Press unofficial tally put Guy 14 votes ahead, while the News Election Service said Young led by 16, pending an official tally of the 229,000 votes.

the News Election Service said Young led by 16, pending an official tally of the 236,000 votes.

IN OKLAHOMA
In two other contests, the margins were a bit bigger, but not much.

In Oklahoma, Republican Sen. Henry Bellmon hung on to squeeze by Democrat Ed Edmondson by 3,250 votes.

In Vermont, Patrick J. Leahy became the first Democrat ever elected to the Senate by defeating Rep. Richard Mallary by a 4,042-vote margin.

In three other states, Democrats captured Republican seats by more.

New Revolt In Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Soldiers and civilians revolted today against the three-year-old dictatorial regime of President Hugo Banzer and were reported to have taken over the City Hall and police station in Santa Cruz, 330 miles east of La Paz.

Banzer's government claimed, however, that only part of a ranger regiment in Santa Cruz had rebelled. There were unconfirmed reports that the government dispatched air force planes to Santa Cruz.

It was not known if there was any shooting.

The joint military command in La Paz announced that the revolt was being led by Gens. Julio Prado Montano and Orlando Alvarez and former Minister of Public Health Carlos Valverde Barberi.

First word of the revolt came from a clandestine radio station, Voice of Liberty. A short while later, broadcasts indicated the rebels had taken control of Radio Montero 35 miles north of Santa Cruz.

Radio Panamericana, which also spread the word of the uprising, said it was staged by elements of the leftist Nationalist Revolutionary Movement and the Socialist Falange, a rightist group.

Radio Panamericana had joined other Bolivian radio stations in a "National Liberation Network" that accused Banzer of "maladministration" and said his followers were "lackeys."

The network said the rebels would revive nationalism in Bolivia, and that Barberi was their "undisputed leader."

The reported uprising was the latest in more than a dozen plots against Banzer's harshly anti-Communist regime.

Last January the country was plunged into economic turmoil and violence when workers struck to protest inflation that has doubled basic commodity prices.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration hopes that President Ford can balance the federal budget for the first time in seven years are fading fast, Treasury Department officials believe. They chiefly blame the sagging economy, which they feel will reduce the revenues the government would obtain in corporate and individual income taxes. In addition, they expect new spending pressures from Congress to ease recession and unemployment.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon is suffering from yet another medical complication: a slight case of pneumonia in his partially collapsed right lung. Known as pneumonitis, the condition was apparently not considered serious. Dr. John C. Lungren said his patient is exhibiting over-all "slow but gradual improvement" since his brush with death last week following phlebitis surgery.

ROME, Italy (AP) — Some delegates expect the World Food Conference to accomplish nothing, others expect concrete resolutions but caution that follow-up action will be necessary. French economist Rene Dumont is urging the 1,200 persons attending the conference from more than 100 nations to join him in a symbolic fast on Nov. 13 and dedicate the money they save to feed some of the hungry in Asia and Africa. Meanwhile, Canada pledged a million tons of grain annually for the next three years, or a tenth of the proposed minimum target of 10 million tons of food aid.

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Chancellor Bruno Kreisky, who leaves Saturday for an official visit to the United States, says Austria is determined to continue acting as a transit point for Jewish emigrants from the Soviet Union, despite the closing last year of the Schoenau transit camp. The flow of immigrants has never halted, the 62-year-old Socialist leader said in an interview. Instead other camps were arranged for them. But Kreisky said if the rate of immigration increases to 60,000 a year, it will be too many for Austria to handle alone and "other countries must take over a share of the burden."

PORT HARDY, B.C. (AP) — Can an isolated island community which has long complained of neglect from British Columbia and Canadian officials find happiness as part of Alaska and the United States? Even the leader of the secessionist movement in the Mount Waddington Regional District admits he doesn't know, but he says he is anxious to try. Last month the District Board voted to propose the move to the governor of Alaska, naming Port Hardy Mayor Brian Klaver as ambassador to the 49th state. Klaver said Wednesday there had been no reply to the letter, mailed about two weeks ago.

Argentine Terrorists Kill Major

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Argentine terrorists today shot to death an army major and burned military vehicles in the first reaction to the government's declaration of a state of siege.

Police said Maj. Hector Lopez was slain as he left his home this morning in Santa Fe, 300 miles north of here. The shots came from a house across from Lopez' residence, killing the major instantly.

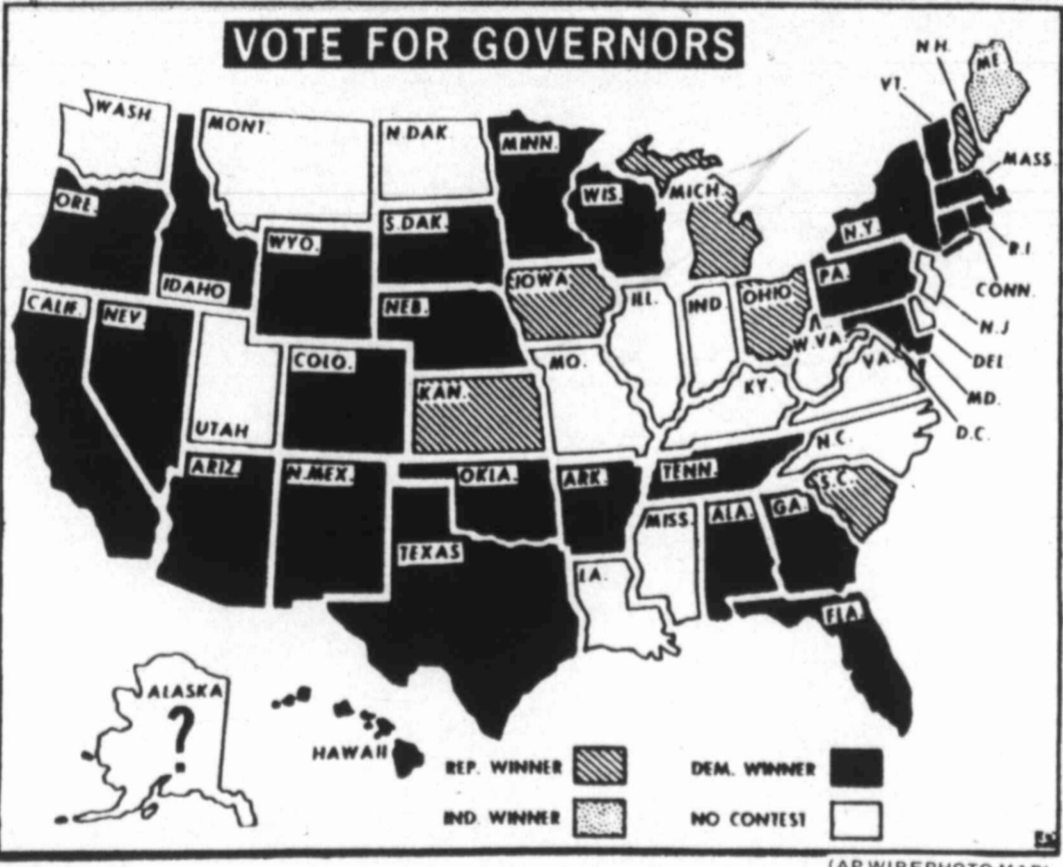

Terrorist groups set fire to about 20 military buses at a factory north of Buenos Aires, police sources said.

Other guerrillas briefly seized the railroad station at Avellaneda, south of Buenos Aires, painted revolutionary slogans and distributed literature of the outlawed People's Revolutionary Army — ERP — police said.

With political assassinations occurring at the rate of more than one a day, President Isabel Peron returned Argentina to a state of siege on Wednesday. Her decree enabled the government to hold anyone indefinitely without trial.

Anyone can be banished to remote corners of the country, and public meetings are prohibited.

The proclamation came as a surprise but caused little excitement. A state of siege has been in effect in Argentina for most of the past 40 years. Chile, Brazil, Paraguay, and Uruguay also are in a state of siege.

RESULTS OF GUBERNATORIAL RACES — Map shows the 35 states where Democrats won 27 gubernatorial races in Tuesday's election, including 18 in which they already controlled the statehouse. The GOP won six, and another state, Maine, went to an independent. The vote total in Alaska was too close to declare a winner yet.

Some Progress Reported In Coal Industry Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chief coal industry negotiator in contract talks with the United Mine Workers says an agreement could be reached by this weekend to keep short an expected nationwide miners strike.

Guy Farmer, chief negotiator for the Bituminous Coal Operators Association, said Wednesday he thought the two sides should be able to reach an accord "in two or three days," provided no new snags develop.

"I don't think we're that far apart. That's not to say we don't have some real knotty issues which need to be resolved," Farmer said.

UMW President Arnold Miller said there could be a tentative agreement before the current contract runs out at midnight Monday, but not in time to prevent at least a brief work stoppage. Miller would not comment when asked about the possibility of a breakthrough this weekend.

"What we do every day (at the bargaining table) will affect the duration of a stoppage," Miller said.

BULLETIN

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's visit to Turkey has been canceled, caretaker Premier Bulent Ecevit announced today. Kissinger was expected Friday.

Kissinger was to come to Turkey at the end of his current Middle East peacekeeping swing for discussions with Turkish leaders on the Cyprus question and the cutoff of U.S. military aid to Turkey.

Under the union's ratification procedures, it will take about 10 days for the membership to approve a tentative settlement.

Farmer said the negotiators were in the process of taking each other's proposals, starting at the beginning and comparing positions and "discussing how we might settle it."

Sources said that while major differences remained, the two sides were close in the economic area, including wage increases for the union's 120,000 miners.

The government has estimated that a month-long strike could force the layoffs of as many as 400,000 workers in the steel and other coal-burning industries. In addition, the auto industry, the nation's largest consumer of steel, says it would have to shut down within a few weeks for lack of supplies.

Typhoon Toll

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — Twenty-one fishermen were missing today after typhoon Gloria's 115-mile winds washed their interisland boat out to sea off southern Luzon, the Red Cross reported.

Gloria was the 20th typhoon to hit the Philippines this year and the sixth in 27 days, a 15-year record.

Rain Is Light Overnight

Rain fell again in Big Spring Wednesday night with the experiment station measuring .07. This brought the year's total to 19.75 getting closer to 20 inches, always considered a good moisture year in the Big Spring area.

Almost all of this moisture has fallen since Labor Day with the early showing a drier-than-average year.

Man Accused In Death Once Resided In BS

By TROY BRYANT AND MARJ CARPENTER

Ronald Clark O'Bryan, 30, of Pasadena and formerly of Big Spring, will face murder charges when his case is presented before Harris County Grand Jury Monday.

O'Bryan is charged with the Halloween trick-or-treat poisoning of his son, Timothy, who was a small child when the family lived in Big Spring.

Timothy, who was 8, died Halloween night after eating powdered candy from a Pixy Stix which medical examiners said also contained cyanide.

O'Bryan and his family moved to Big Spring in November, 1967, when he transferred to the Big Spring office of a large optical dispensing chain as a dispenser. He moved away about five months later in April, 1968, to go back to Houston.

While he and his family resided here, O'Bryan joined the Big Spring Police reserve, according to records kept by the department. The records show that he was 23 years old when he lived here and his son, Timothy, was 21 months of age.

Fellow employees remembered him as a very likeable, amiable young man who was a member of a local Baptist church. A nursery worker at the church remembers keeping the child, but never did get to know the family.

O'Bryan left in April of 1968, because of a terminal illness in the family. A letter of resignation to the Police Chief at that time, Jay Banks, reads, "I have to leave because my wife's father has a terminal illness. I am the only male left in the family and will have to be responsible for my wife's mother and little sister, who is still in school."

He also asked for a letter of recommendation, so that he could join the Houston Police auxiliary.

The manager of a local apartment complex where the O'Bryan family lived while it was here, at first had trouble remembering the family, but upon looking up records, discovered that it actually did occupy a unit in that complex. One tenant remembers the principals in the macabre story from when they lived there, but is so shook up about the incident, that he does not want to be associated with the story in any way.

Shortly after leaving Big Spring, according to a phone call made to fellow employees here, O'Bryan called back to get his wife's optical prescription. He revealed his father-in-law had died and they had moved to Baytown where they had a baby girl, Elizabeth, now five years old. They apparently moved from Baytown back to Deer Park, a suburb of Houston, where the poisoning took place.

Richard Harrison of Dallas, an attorney representing O'Bryan, filed two motions Wednesday in State District Judge Miron Love's court.

One of the motions asked that O'Bryan's $100,000 bond be reduced to a "reasonable amount." He also asked that all grand jury actions be recorded when the grand jury considers the case.

Authorities have stated they believe they have sufficient evidence to back the charges filed against O'Bryan after his arrest. Other than that, they refuse to discuss the case with newsmen.

O'Bryan reportedly took a polygraph test after it was discovered he recently had taken out one or more insurance policies on the boy.

RAIN

Expect considerably cloudiness this afternoon and tonight with a chance for more rain. It will clear somewhat and become warmer Friday. The high today will be 55, low tonight in the mid 40's, and the high Friday in the mid 60's. There is a 40 per cent chance of rain today and 20 per cent chance tonight.

Bellard, Davis Rally Support

Write-ins spiced the un-contested races in Howard County here Tuesday night. On a local level, Gus Ochotorena polled 4,537 for justice of peace, Precinct 1, Place 2. No write-in against him received more than one vote. They included Gilbert Martinez, E. Wayne Bursleson, Mike Alexander, Bob West, S. C. Neighbors, Adolph Garcia and Tom Ivy. Lula Adams had 651 for JP of Precinct 2, place 2 with no write-ins. Ikie Rupard handily defeated Paul Shaffer 1710 to 679 for commissioner of Precinct 2. The incumbent, Bill Bennett received five although he was not campaigning. Ralph White had one and Bill Green two in this race.

In the hotly-contested district clerk's race, which was won in the appeals court when Peggy Crittenden was placed on the ballot with a one-vote lead over Fern Cox, Cox received a smattering of write-ins totaling 64. He did not campaign on a write-in race.

The district judge's race won uncontested by Ralph Caton saw one or two write-ins each for A. N. Standard, George Thomas, Bob Moore, R. H. Weaver, Wayne Burns and Harvey Hooser.

The county surveyor's post held by C. R. Crim saw one or two write-ins each for Neal Barnaby, Mike Alexander, John Gary and Harold Bull.

Frances Glenn won unopposed as county treasurer with Don Reynolds and Ruth Wilson each getting a vote. Margaret Ray won unopposed as county clerk with her former opponent, Shirley White, receiving two write-ins.

In a constable's race, not on the ballot, John Edwards and Bill Westbrook, each had three and Lee Young, one, with nobody elected since

Raza Unida To Remain On Ballots

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Ramsey Muniz's vote totals in the Texas gubernatorial races assures his Raza Unida party a place on the Texas ballots in 1976 and he indicates there may be a court fight for the party to retain its state-financed primaries also.

Muniz was a distant third behind Democratic incumbent winner Dolph Briscoe and Republican challenger Jim Granberry, but his 93,000 votes was about six per cent of the total vote.

"It's two per cent to stay on the ballot and 20 per cent to have a party primary which is financed by the state," said Muniz on Wednesday in a telephone interview.

The requirement for state-financed primaries was passed by the last Texas Legislature. The Raza Unida party held its first primary in history this past spring.

Muniz, a Corpus Christi attorney, says Raza Unida will huddle to decide if they should file a suit contesting the 20 per cent requirement. He believes the new law was directed at the Raza Unida Party.

"I can understand the part about the ballot," he said, referring to the 20 per cent requirement for ballot appearances. "I can't understand the 20 per cent for party primary."

NAME OF GAME

There will be a strong effort in the Senate to conclude action this year on the foreign trade bill, which the House has passed and which was brought to the verge of Senate approval by a compromise on Soviet emigration policies.

DOUBTFUL

It was increasingly doubtful that Congress would conclude action this year on the nomination of Nelson A. Rockefeller as vice president.

Social Security Suit Hints Repercussions

SEATTLE (AP) — Social Security recipients may not have their benefits adjusted or reduced for overpayments without an opportunity for a hearing, Judge Morell E. Sharp of U.S. District Court has ruled.

His ruling in a suit brought by two Seattle women who are receiving social security benefits could have nationwide repercussions. Sharp also held that Social TAX REVISION SEEMS UNLIKELY Lawmakers To Mark Time?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The sweeping gains Democrats scored in Congress, especially in the House, could mean that the lawmakers will do little more than mark time in the lame-duck session that opens Nov. 18.

Major decisions on economic and social programs, most of which had little chance of enactment this year in any case, are more likely than ever to be left to the more Democratic, more liberal and younger Congress that will convene in January.

The Senate may finish its part, even though additional hearings have been scheduled. In the House, where the Judiciary Com-

Some senators also have promised to try to attach to any available House bill some version of the tax on oil company windfall profits, which has been stymied in the House.

But wide-ranging tax revision, a national health plan, strengthening of the unemployment compensation system and a big public service job program are issues likely to be left to a Congress where more sweeping solutions could have more support.

It was increasingly doubtful that Congress would conclude action this year on the nomination of Nelson A. Rockefeller as vice president.

The Senate may finish its part, even though additional hearings have been scheduled. In the House, where the Judiciary Committee has not begun hearings, it seemed likely that the final vote would come in 1975.

In the Congress that convenes in January, Democrats are assured at least 291 House seats, more than two-thirds, with three races still unsettled. In the Senate, they will have at least 61 out of 100.

President Ford and Democratic congressional leaders exchanged post-election statements pledging cooperation in solving the nation's problems, but the record gave no assurance they will see eye to eye on the methods.

HEALTH PLAN
Senate Leader Mike Mansfield told Ford, "I would hope ... now that the election is over we will be able to get together and work cooperatively. I know you want to, I know the Senate wants to and I feel sure the House wants to."

"Let me assure you that will be the case," Ford replied.

After a House leadership conference at which Speaker Carl Albert was reported to have urged that solving the economic problems be put ahead of partisan interests, an aide said, "The name of the game is going to be compromise."

"We may make suggestions, but if anything is to be done, Ford is going to have to agree."

Treason Charges

ATHENS (AP) — The Athens chief prosecutor today officially charged former Greek dictator George Papadopoulos and 49 other ex-officers with high treason and insurrection for their seizure of power in the April 1967 coup.

If found guilty, several of the men who served in the junta that ruled Greece for more than seven years could be given the death sentence.

Prosecutor Menelaos Koutsakos' charges came four days after a panel of 88 judges voted almost unanimously for a motion to try the group for "high treason."

Koutsakos also ordered that an investigation into the charges begin Wednesday. Investigating magistrate George Voltis will begin summoning witnesses and the accused, many of whom are then expected to be imprisoned pending trial.

Cotton Crop Estimate Down To 9,000 Bales

Howard County cotton crop prospects, plagued by drought at planting time and excessive moisture and cool temperatures during the maturation period, have diminished to an estimate of only 9,000 bales for the county, according to the November 1 estimate by the Lubbock Cotton Exchange and the Plains Cotton Growers Inc.

The 9,000 bale total is about ten per cent less than the October 1 estimate of 10,000 bales for the county.

The estimates for the 24 other counties in the Lubbock area is also down considerably from projected yields amounting to 1,188,800 bales, the lowest yield since the severe drought year of 1950 when only 858,480 bales were produced.

Cotton farmers now would like a freeze of sufficient intensity to kill the plants, without freezing developed but unopened bolls that still have considerable moisture in them, allowing them to dry out and permitting a once-over stripper harvest about two weeks later.

Even with the short crop, the price outlook for cotton is poor under weak demand in both domestic and export channels. October prices averaged 38 cents per pound, down from 42.5 cents a month earlier.

Cottonseed prices were well above last year's $100 per ton with the average

October price set at $120 per ton. Normally a bale of cotton will yield about 800 pounds of cotton seed.

Ex-Partners Are In Court

Walter Edwin Cox, Scurry County, Tuesday filed a 118th District Court suit against former partner, Bobbie Franklin Joplin, 2 June Cove, for a judgment on a debt, foreclosure of lien and sheriff's sale of property.

In March, 1973, the two became partners and purchased Minute Market No. 1, 611 E. 3rd St., Big Spring, and Minute Market No. 2, Snyder, from Mr. and Mrs. Leslie N. Brown, the petition claims.

The Browns secured a vendor's lien on a note with a principal of $33,000, the plaintiff states. The partnership was dissolved in December, 1973. The defendant assumed operation of the Big Spring store. The plaintiff assumed operation of the Snyder store. And responsibility for the note was divided, the petition says.

Texas' New Comptroller Believes In Partnership

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' new comptroller, Bob Bullock, believes in a new partnership between the state and cities.

"This is no high-faluting theory—it's just a simple recognition of the fact that 10 million taxpaying Texans live in cities," says the 45-year-old Democrat who has never been known for remaining silent when he could say something.

Speeding up payment of the cities' portion of the sales taxes collected by the state was a big portion of Bullock's campaign. He also stressed the need for the state comptroller to get away from Austin and be more accessible to regular voters and businessmen. Bullock replaces veteran Comptroller Robert S. Calvert, 82, who did not seek re-election. Calvert, a Democrat, joined the comptroller's department in 1930 and has been the comptroller since he was appointed by Gov. Beauford Jester in 1949.

Bullock first came into public life in 1956 when he was elected from his home town of Hillsboro as state representative. While in office he earned a law degree from Baylor University. He resigned the House seat to join the Tyler law firm of House speaker Byron Tunnell but was soon back in Austin, this time as general counsel for the Texas Automobile Dealers Association. After two years he again turned to private law practice.

In 1967 Bullock was named by then Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin to head a new an-trust and consumer protection division of the attorney general's office. He held the job less than a year before he joined Preston Smith's successful campaign for governor. In 1971 Smith named him secretary of state, where he was recognized as Smith's top staff fund raiser and political hatchman in addition to being the state's chief elections officer.

Before leaving office, Smith tried to appoint Bullock to a $27,000-a-year job on the State Board of Insurance but the Texas Senate blocked the appointment by a vote of 19-11, with two-thirds approval needed.

Since then Bullock has had a private law practice in Austin, campaigning for state comptroller for almost two years.

Gunmen Flee With Drugs

DALLAS (AP) — Two gunmen escaped with a large amount of narcotics and an estimated $3,000 in a robbery of a Dallas pharmacy, police said.

"This is a holdup. I'm not going to hurt anyone. I want all the drugs," one of the men reportedly told pharmacist Robert Witson, 32, after entering the store about 10 a.m. Tuesday. The men forced Witson, another employe and a customer to lie on the floor at the rear of the store, while the robbers fled with a cardboard box filled with drugs and cash. A delivery man, Sam Connell, was slugged by one of the armed men.

Police say they believe the men escaped in a red car with Oklahoma license plates.

SUSPECT GRILLED

Two Missing Missionaries

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A 42-year-old man questioned by police in the case of two missing Mormon missionaries has been charged before a U.S. commissioner on a firearms violation.

Robert Kleasen was charged with falsely claiming he was not under indictment for a crime punishable by more than one year imprisonment when he purchased a shotgun.

U.S. Commissioner Phil Sanders said federal alcohol, tobacco tax and firearm agents alleged Kleasen is under indictment in New York on a charge of felonious assault.

Sanders set $10,000 bond for Kleasen and said he would appoint an attorney for him.

Kleasen has 10 days in which to request a preliminary hearing before Sanders, at which time the government would be required to establish its allegations sufficiently to have Kleasen bound over to the federal grand jury.

Austin police have quoted Kleasen as saying the two missionaries failed to keep a dinner appointment with him Oct. 28.

Gary Darley, 20, of Simi Valley, Calif., and Mark Fischer, 19, of Milwaukee, Wis., were last seen a few hours before they were scheduled to meet with Kleasen. They reported they had eaten dinner with him each Monday night for several weeks.

Kleasen lives behind a taxidermist firm in the rugged hill country west of Austin. Police searched a creek below the Kleasen's residence Tuesday.

A convention-style name tag belonging to one of the missionaries reportedly was found in Kleasen's mobile home by officers armed with a search warrant. The tag had a bullet hole in it.

Coates Files Civil Action

Suit has been filed today in 118th District Court by W. "Dub" Coates against Brigitte Wisinger both of Howard County, for the recovery and possession of a registered quarter horse stallion.

Coates alleges that he purchased the horse, Bravo Bar Fly, from Wisinger in July for $4,000 and that Wisinger later took possession of the horse and is keeping him.

Coates is seeking a judgment for title and possession of the horse of $4,000 plus attorney fees.

NIXON'S TESTIMONY ON VIDEOTAPE?

Cover-Up Trial Comment

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica said today that former President Richard M. Nixon's testimony in the Watergate coverup trial may have to be taken on videotape in California.

Sirica made the comment after Nixon's attorney, Herbert J. Miller, reported to Sirica that it will be at least two or three months before Nixon can exert any substantial mental or physical effort.

Reporting on Nixon's health as required by Sirica, Miller said it will be an indeterminate time before Nixon can travel any significant distance.

Nixon, hospitalized in Long Beach, Calif., was reported Wednesday to have contracted a slight case of pneumonia, further complicating his condition. He underwent surgery last week for a blood clotting condition.

Miller said he spoke with Nixon's personal physician, Dr. John Lungren, who gave him a detailed description of Nixon's condition.

NIXON'S CONDITION
Miller said Nixon is likely to remain hospitalized for another 10 days or two weeks.

"Because of the patient's weakened condition," Miller said, "it is expected that the earliest time he could participate, without a serious danger to his health, in any activity requiring substantial mental or physical effort would be two to three months."

The report also noted that only members of Nixon's family are allowed to visit for only five minutes of each hour.

"The patient is very weak and easily fatigued," Miller said.

Based on Miller's report, Sirica said, "it may be that someone will have to go to San Clemente and take his deposition on videotape."

Sirica emphasized, however, that he had made no final decision on how to get Nixon's testimony.

Nixon has been subpoenaed by both the prosecution and by defendant John D. Ehrlichman.

The prosecution has indictated that it hopes to be able to make its case without Nixon's testimony.

Ehrlichman's lawyers have said the former president's testimony is vital to their case. The five defendants are unlikely to begin their cases for another month.

Sirica has indicated he will send his own team of three doctors to make an independent examination of Nixon. Today he called on prosecution and defense lawyers to suggest how to proceed as a result of Miller's affidavit.

SECRET SERVICE

A Secret Service employe testified Wednesday that Nixon's White House taping system had flaws that make it suspect as a complete record of his White House conversations.

Ask Kissinger To Back Canned Beef Feeding Plan

CLARKSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The Independent Beef Producers of America has asked Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's support for a plan to use canned beef to feed the world's starving people, particularly in Bangladesh.

A vice president of the group, Lee Perkins of Clarksville, asked Kissinger, whom he called "the world's most renowned salesman" to help sell the government on the idea.

"We ask this government be instituted immediately to save the starving of Bangladesh," Perkins said in a wire to the secretary of state Tuesday.

R.L. Moore, president of the group, said in an interview Wednesday that the beef producers have tried for about six weeks to get the government to start the canning program.

He said there is an overabundance of grass-fed steers and young cows that cannot be accommodated in the domestic market. He said the canned beef could be used in foreign aid, in international trade, and in disaster relief.

"We feel that if we're going to give food away to these starving nations, we should give them something we have plenty of," Moore said. "This program would help the grass roots farmer and rancher."

Moore said that in his travels through a five-state area he found that many beef producers are facing bankruptcy because of low demand for beef. He said some of the loss of demand results from increased beef imports.

Moore said the cattlemen are not seeking a subsidy, but only a "realistic, reasonable market for our product."

The cattlemen's group represents about 25,000 ranchers nationwide.

In NY Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — Aristotle Onassis has entered New York Hospital for a "routine physical checkup," the hospital says.

The hospital's administrator said Sunday that Onassis, husband of the former Jacqueline Kennedy, was listed in satisfactory condition simply because it was hospital practice to list a condition for all patients.

White Speaker For Program

U. S. Congressman Richard C. White will be the special guest Friday at an open house in the new Manpower Human Resources Center located in the Ector County Courthouse. The open house will host Odessa County and City elected officials and will introduce the new outreach office for Ector County. The reception will be at 2:00 p.m. in Room 218 of the Ector County Courthouse.

The office is one of four created in the Permian Basin region by local governments with assistance from the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission. The office is responsible for coordinating job placement, training, and on the job teaching activities for affected residents in Ector County. Operated by Ector County, the office began operation approximately one week ago.

Can't Even Get Folks To Look At New Autos

DETROIT (AP) — U.S. auto makers, saying they can't even get people into showrooms to look at new cars, have reported that domestic auto sales in October plummeted to a 10-year low for the month.

Chrysler announced new layoffs.

October sales were down 26.8 per cent from October of last year.

CONFUSION

"The problem is consumer concern and confusion about the economy," said a dejected industry spokesman. "People worried as hell about what's happening tomorrow. We can't even get them into the showrooms just to look."

With sales during the last 11 days of the month down 35 per cent from 1973, the four auto companies said October deliveries totaled just 627,521 units, compared with 857,070 the year before.

It was the worst October performance since 1964, when sales were 566,000 units. General Motors reported a 32 per cent decline from October 1973. Ford was off 17.1 per cent. Chrysler dropped 16.6 per cent and American Motors was down 52.5 per cent.

NO WORK

Shortly after reporting its sales drop Tuesday, Chrysler said it is eliminating second shifts at four car assembly plants later this month and laying off 7,100 hourly workers indefinitely.

Affected by the shift cutbacks are the Jefferson Avenue and Hamtramck assembly plants in Detroit; the Newark, Del. plant and the St. Louis facility.

The company also said it is closing the Hamtramck plant for two weeks starting Nov. 11, temporarily idling 8,800 workers.

The firm already had laid off 7,750 workers indefinitely.

Chrysler, whose sales fell more than 27 per cent during Oct. 21-31, said it was cutting

GLOOMY OUTLOOK

One Big Three spokesman said the gloomy economic outlook and consumer resistance to high car prices have driven off potential car buyers.

The Big Three each tacked on record model-introduction price increases in September that averaged $450 a car.

October was disastrous for GM, whose Oct. 21-31 sales were off 39.4 per cent from last year. Monthly GM sales of 327,146 were off more than 150,000 units from October 1973.

"If we don't show quick improvement in practice this week we are going to be beaten soundly," voiced Bob Burris, Steer head coach in reference to Friday's game with Odessa High.

Ray McCutcheon, Steer first-string center, will sit out his second game in a row. He jammed his neck in the Lee game and since has been experiencing headaches.

Jon Russ turned his ankle in Tuesday's drill, but should be at full strength for the Bronco stampede. Rusty Phillips has been elevated to Steer varsity status. He stands 6-0, weighs 170, and plays both ways at tackle.

"If I knew what develops a winning formula, I would patent it," Burris remarked still reminiscing about the 12-7 upset win over Cooper.

Big Spring came out of the Cooper game in good shape except for the normal bumps and bruises "nothing we can't live with."

The last time a Big Spring football team broke even was five years ago. David Duncan, (TCU starter) was a senior. Clovis Hale directed the Steers. Hale is now head grid coach at Lakeview, San Angelo.

Bob Zellars, head tutor for Goliad and Runnels grid forces is experiencing his first undefeated season since 1963. "This is the finest group of boys I have ever worked with."

Zellars, speaking at Tuesday's Big Spring Quarterback Club meeting, commented that in order to combine the two teams he had to receive the okay from the two junior high principals and the superintendent of schools.

Attendance at the QB meeting was its highest this year. The figure reached close to 300. Junior high players from Goliad and Runnels and their parents were present.

Burris, at the Quarterback Club meeting, had high praises on the juniors and to encourage esprit de corps voiced, "Good luck to the eight graders against Coahoma."

Zellars remarked he enjoyed working with the two junior highs as one unit for three weeks. "I'm sure we will hear from these boys in the near future."

Runnels and Goliad drew to a seasonal close tonight at 6 on Coahoma's Bulldog field. "We will have a tough game on our hands with this team located 10 miles east of us," said Zellars. "If you want to see a top notch junior high contest, come to Coahoma."

Coahoma has dropped only two games this season. The host team lost one to Runnels earlier in the year and the second setback to Colorado City.

One Runnels-Goliad lad bears notice. He's 5-5 130 pound Eddie Puga. For nine games, this quick-stepping halfback has chucked up 1,368 yards. Puga ran for 182 yards in the last game played.

Helmet decorations on Forsan players last Friday caused my utmost curiosity. "When a player receives six stars, he gets a helmet painted black a Mamba stamped on the front of it," explained Jack Woodley, Forsan coach. "This is a carry over from the 1965 season."

A star may be won by recording a pair of interceptions, fumbles, key blocks and returning a punt to the opponent's end zone.

Once again, this week's state schoolboy 3B poll refused Forsan's entrance, Woodley summed it up real well. "Schools have a better chance in the poll when they run up a big score against the opposition. I will never do that."

Ralph Miranda, Forsan quarterback, who suffered a hairline shoulder fracture in the Hawley game last Friday, returned to school Monday.

Woodley reports that Ralph's arm is contained in a sling, but not in a cast. Ralph undoubtedly will not play anymore this season. His doctor wants to keep the arm still as muscle ligaments were stretched.

WHAT'S IT WORTH DEPT.: Jim Rogers rolled a 300 practice game Oct. 29, at the Bowlamara. This was before Rogers' scheduled bowl appearance with Coors.

Veteran 49er May Watch It

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP) — Quarterback Norm Snead's sprained knee kept him from working out with the San Francisco 49ers Wednesday, and it was questionable whether the veteran would be able to start Sunday's National Football League game at Dallas.

If the former New York Giant isn't ready, Coach Dick Nolan will have to go with rookie Tom Owen again, because Steve Spurrier's damaged right shoulder needs more time to mend.

Spurrier looked much better in this week's practice, and there is a possibility he could play a little for the first time since his injury in the final preseason game against the Los Angeles Rams.

Falcons May Win Sunday

NEW YORK (AP) — Okay, you want action? No delays, just business. So, how about Atlanta over Los Angeles? And Houston over Buffalo?

Far fetched? Maybe — but over the years, a change of coaches in midseason often sets the stage for an upset. This could mean an Atlanta victory. But what about one for Houston?

While you mull over this for a moment, let's report that last week's effort by the Pro Pigskin Picker was 13-0, a perfect slate. It lifted the season's showing to 74-29-1 for '74.

Now back to Atlanta and Houston:

ATLANTA (2-6) at LOS ANGELES (6-2): The Falcons have never won in Los Angeles, but they have a chance to redeem themselves and provide Marion Campbell, Norm Van Brocklin's successor, with his first victory. So, in the Upset Special ... Falcons 21, Rams 20.

HOUSTON (3-5) at BUFFALO (7-1): There's no reason to expect that the Oilers, on their first two-game victory streak since 1971, will make it three. So let's not have an upset here and say ... Bills 31, Oilers 17.

SAN FRANCISCO (2-6) at DALLAS (4-4): And the Cowboys won't start thinking about Washington until Sunday night ... Cowboys 24, 49ers 15.

DETROIT (4-4) at OAKLAND (7-1): Guess who has the longest victory streak current in the NFL? Guess who still will have the longest victory streak in the AFC ... Raiders 30, Lions 19.

DENVER (3-4-1) at BALTIMORE (1-7): It's simply a case of the Broncos having more horsepower ... Broncos 35, Colts 10.

MINNESOTA (6-2) at ST. LOUIS (7-1): Quarterbacks Jim Hart and Fran Tarkenton will provide the fireworks for the Monday night viewers in a game that could be a preview of the opening match in the NFL divisional playoffs in seven weeks ... Vikings 28, Cardinals 26.

Steers Hope To Saddle Broncos In 5-4A Game

Big Spring, showing a late season flash of positive thinking and correcting mental errors, will be out to put its brand name on the Bronco Friday night in Odessa's Barrett Stadium.

Both Big Spring and Odessa have the number three in common: 3-5 seasonal records; 1-4 4A totals; and snapped five game losing streak.

Game time for this 5-4A involvement is 8 p.m. Both Big Spring and Odessa have the number three in common: 3-5 seasonal records; 1-4 4A totals; and snapped five game losing streak.

The Steers looked like an entirely new formation last Friday as they shocked the state schoolboy scene by upsetting Cooper, 12-7, in Abilene.

Odessa followed suit the same day as the Broncos moved the ball well in downing Midland High, 24-

16. The Permian basin area provided the win setting.

Dun Farris in his first year as Bronco head master, welcomed 11 lettermen back from a 6-4 record.

The Bronco offensive and defensive starting lineup features all seniors except for the quarterback. Odessa runs some but not all wish-bone patterns.

Odessa features the offensive charge of the Shephard brothers, Darrell and Woodie and Mike Price, Darrell, a sophomore, the lone underclassman to crash the starting lineup, is fast afoot, delights in running the ball, and possesses an outstanding passing arm.

Woodie excels in the foot racing department as he broke loose for an 88-yard touchdown against Midland High. Price also boasts quick speed. He placed third in last year's district 100 dash. Both Woodie and Price are seniors.

"Price ran off a quick six-punter against us last year," Bob Burris, Steer mentor noted. "We are quicker but I guarantee, (Odessa) will be a rough opponent."

Key Bronco linemen are seniors Charlie Meyers, Romero Sanchez, Rodney Clower, Arturo Vasquez, and Tommy Reneau. Clower is the lone Bronco who doesn't excel both on offense and defense.

Marichal, McAuliffe Seek Jobs

BOSTON (AP) — After longtime careers in major league baseball, pitcher Juan Marichal and infielder Dick McAuliffe are looking for work today following their outright release by the Boston Red Sox.

The move was part of a major revamping of the American League club which was in contention this year until a seasonend fadeout.

Also given their walking papers were long-timer reliever Bob Veale, infielder John Kennedy and designated hitter Derron Johnson.

And pitcher Don Newhauser and infielder Chuck Goggin were shipped off to the Red Sox' Pawtucket, R.I., farm team.

But Boston brass also did some promoting, bringing up from the minors pitchers Don Aase, Dick Kreuger, Jim Burton and Jim Wright, catcher Jim Merchant, first baseman Jack Baker and shortstop Steve Dillard.

A bad back hampered the high-kicking Marichal most of last season, which he finished with a 5-1 record and a 4.87 earned run average.

Boston had bought the 35-year-old right-hander from San Francisco of the National League. His 243 major league victories make him the second winningest active hurler behind Bob Gibson of St. Louis.

The 34-year-old McAuliffe had been second baseman for the Detroit Tigers for 14 years when he came to Boston in a trade. He lives in Simsbury, Conn., and reportedly is interested in managing Boston's Eastern League farm team at Bristol, Conn.

Stanton will be out to improve its 5-3 overall record tripping over to O'Donnell. The Buffs squared 5A district play (1-1) last Friday as they subdued Plains, 26-14.

Sands journeys to Roby in a 3B outing. The Mustangs salvaged something from what to now has been a lackluster season by flattening Loraine, 13-0, last Friday.

Sands for the season stands at 2-6 and in 3B, 1-4. Klondike hosts Borden County in a 1B (South Zone) eight-man encounter. Klondike defeated Garden City, 34-6, and Borden County bounced Wellman, 30-6, in games played last Friday.

Loop goes to Garden City for 1B eight-man encounter. Klondike defeated Garden City, 34-6, and Borden City for a 1B eight-man engagement.

Grady, playing football for the first time and winless in all of its games this season, travels to Southland. Lamesa has an open date. The Golden Tornadoes have yet to score a win in their five district games played.

Conlan, 75, of Scottsdale, Ariz., suffered a coronary occlusion Oct. 12 at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles before the first game of the 1974 World Series.

He underwent heart surgery Wednesday at St. Joseph's Hospital.

AREA ROUNDUP

Buffaloes Face Important Test

All but one surrounding Big Spring schoolboy gridiron team have two games left Friday before the regular season comes to a close.

Coahoma takes a week's breather. The Bulldogs are 6-2-1 overall and 3-1-1 in 6AA play. Big Red concludes its 10-game schedule Nov. 15 at home against Stamford.

The Bulldogs kept their slim title hopes alive last Friday. Coahoma stopped Hamlin, 13-7.

Forsan (8-0) runs into Jayton, three. Jayton is trimmed by Bronte (ranked third in the state, 28-0, last Friday. Bronte is at Sterling

Owners Looking For Replacement

CLEVELAND (AP) — Simon P. Gourdine says reports that he will become the first black professional sports commissioner are premature, but he's anxiously awaiting the outcome of the National Basketball Association owners vote on the matter.

The NBA owners were scheduled to meet here today for their annual fall board of governors meeting. The selection of a new commissioner may be on the agenda.

NBA owners are looking for someone to replace Walter Kennedy, who is set to retire June 1, 1975.

"I have heard the stories, and I am very conscious of it," said Gourdine. "My main concern at this point is that the story might be premature. You know the owners have to vote, which they presumably will do Thursday, and to that extent the story was a speculative piece."

"I hope that it's treated as such. I anxiously await the outcome of the meeting."

The 34-year-old lawyer said he had talked with some owners, "but I can't go into details."

Kennedy, who has been commissioner since 1963, announced his retirement two years ago. The owners met to choose a new commissioner in June, but no one reportedly received the required 14 votes for approval. The owners were believed to be considering two Los Angeles lawyers, Henry Steinman and Alan Rotenberg; in the June vote.

A spokesman for the league would neither confirm nor deny the report. The post of deputy commissioner has been in the BA bylaws for some time, but has never been filled.

It is believed that the person selected will be named to that post and then

Fire Through For This Year

By The Associated Press

The Chicago Fire says it is through for the year, Portland Storm players are refusing to play another game until they're paid and the Charlotte Hornets have literally lost their shirts.

It was just another day in the life and times of the World Football League.

The show must go on, however, and the WFL continued to struggle gracefully toward the conclusion of its first season Wednesday night with Birmingham beating Philadelphia 26-23, Shreveport topping Charlotte 19-14 and the Hawaiians whipping Southern California 29-8.

Tonight's schedule calls for Chicago at Memphis and Portland at Florida, but WFL schedules lately have been as dependable as subway gum machines.

Birmingham built up a 26-0 lead in the first half of its game with Philadelphia behind the running of Art Cantrelle and Paul Robinson, who scored one touchdown apiece, and then held off a Bell rally. The game ended in a brawl that took officials several minutes to break up.

The announced attendance was 22,963, about half of what the Americans have been averaging.

Jim Nance ran for 160 yards and Rocky Thompson added 105 to lead Shreveport past Charlotte. Nance scored the winning touchdown from two yards out with 5:11 left to play.

The game drew 10,697 fans in Shreveport.

Randy Johnson threw a pair of touchdown passes to John Isenbarger, and Al Davis and Vince Clements ran for two others in the Hawaiians' victory over Southern California before an announced crowd of 13,780 at Honolulu.

Kermit Johnson's touchdown in the fourth period averted a shutout for the Sun, now 13-6. The Hawaiians improved their record to 8-11.

Fire owner Tom Origer handed the stricken league another headache Wednesday when he announced that his club won't play its final game next week in Philadelphia and won't participate in the playoffs.

"We don't deserve to be in the playoffs and I'm against the eight-team thing, anyway," said Origer, whose team has lost nine straight games.

A league spokesman said WFL President Donald Regan will look into the Chicago matter Friday.

CONCERNED COACH — Don Shula, Miami Dolphin Coach, is shown as he talked with newsmen Wednesday in Miami about the possibility of having to suspend running Mercury Morris. Morris had walked out of camp following a talk with Shula, who had fined him $600 for missing two days of treatment to his injured knee.

Houston Joins List To Accept Bowl Bid

By The Associated Press

Ohio State, Oklahoma and Michigan are ranked first, second and fourth, respectively in The Associated Press college football poll this week. Only one will be going to a post-season bowl game this year.

Meanwhile, Maryland, Mississippi State, Houston and Oklahoma State have joined the rapidly-growing list of schools who have accepted bids to play in the year-end spectaculars while Pittsburgh is playing a wait-and-see game.

Maryland, 14th-ranked nationally, will play in the Liberty Bowl Dec. 16 at Memphis, Tenn.

Herbie Hunt, Liberty Bowl president, said said Liberty

Bowl representatives will be watching four games this weekend in an attempt to select an opponent for Maryland. The four games slated for scrutiny are Auburn at Mississippi State, Vanderbilt at Kentucky, Missouri at Oklahoma and Tennessee at Memphis State.

Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl officials said hometown Houston's opponent Dec. 23 will be either North Carolina State or North Carolina, with Pittsburgh an outside possibility.

However, North Carolina State reportedly headed for the Peach Bowl, which will be played Dec. 28 in Atlanta.

Oklahoma State, ranked 17th, has accepted a bid to participate in the Fiesta Bowl at Tempe, Ariz.

The Western Athletic Conference champion will oppose Oklahoma State Dec. 28. Arizona State, which has won all three previous postseason contests, Arizona and Brigham Young are still in contention for the WAC title.

Sun Bowl officials say they want Pittsburgh if the Panthers beat Temple this Saturday. But Pitt also is reportedly being courted by the Liberty Bowl and the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Mississippi State said it has accepted an invitation to play in the Sun Bowl Dec. 28 in El Paso, Tex.

Although bowl officials declined to confirm it, it is believed the Gator Bowl Dec. 30 at Jacksonville, Fla., will match Auburn against the Southwest Conference runnerup.

The Southwest Conference champion — either Texas, Texas A&M or Baylor — is slated to play in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1 against Penn State.

The Sugar Bowl Dec. 31 will pit sixth-ranked Florida against ninth-ranked Nebraska, while third-ranked Alabama and eighth-ranked Notre Dame is expected to clash in the Orange Bowl Jan. 1 in a rematch of last year's national championship battle.

Miami of Ohio, ranked No. 13, is headed for the Tangerine Bowl Dec. 21 at Orlando, Fla.

Proton and conference rules have cut down two of the nation's best teams. Second-ranked Oklahoma is banned from appearing in a post-season game by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

And the granddaddy of all bowl games — the Rose Bowl — will feature the Big Ten champion versus the Pac-8 champion. Since top-ranked Ohio State and fourth-ranked Michigan are both in the Big Ten, one will be watching the postseason festivities with the nation's other football fans — on television.

Billy Just Lucky

By The Associated Press

You really have to hand it to Billy Knight.

His Indiana Pacer teammates did Wednesday night — and it resulted in a 136-116 American Basketball Association victory over the Denver Nuggets Wednesday night.

"I was just lucky to get the open shots, and I was hitting them," said Knight, who crushed the Nuggets with 38 points in his first start for the Pacers. "I was just in the right place at the right time."

One of the Pacers who handed it to Knight was forward George McGinnis. He had 11 assists.

"George has been doing that all year," Knight acknowledged. "He's third in the league in assists and for a big, strong forward, that's incredible."

The Indiana victory stopped an eight-game winning streak by the Nuggets, leaders in the ABA West.

In the night's other games, the Kentucky Colonels stopped the Utah Stars 97-85; the San Antonio Spurs defeated the Virginia Squires 111-106 and the New York Nets walloped the Spirits of St. Louis 126-100.

George McGinnis scored 20 points along with his career-high 11 assists, and guard Billy Keller added 18 points, including two three-pointers.

Denver was led by Mack Calvin with 25 points.

Louie Dampier led a fourth-quarter rally that held off pesky Utah.

Dampier, who finished with 20 points, combined with substitute Bird Averitt in the fourth period barrage after Utah had wiped out a 19-point Kentucky lead and pulled to within three with 4:11 left in the game.

Ron Boone led Utah with 29 points and was the chief factor in the Stars' surge in the last half.

Clutch baskets by Donnie Freeman and Chuck Terry sparked a late rally that enabled San Antonio to outlast Virginia.

George Gervin led the Spurs with 30 points, while Rich Jones had 26 and Nater 23. George Irvine and Mike Jackson tallied 22 points apiece for the Squires.

Wilkins Pulls Prize Rookie From Contest

By The Associated Press

John Havlicek's light touch and Jim Ard's heavy muscle combined to knock out the Portland Trail Blazers Wednesday night.

Havlicek scored a basketful of points and Ard kept Bill Walton from doing the same as the Boston Celtics took a 128-110 National Basketball Association victory.

"Walton just wasn't playing well," said Portland Coach Lenny Wilkins, pointing out why he pulled his prize rookie from the game with seven minutes left.

The star of UCLA's powerhouse last year, Walton had less than a powerhouse performance against the irrepresible Ard. He only scored 12 points and had 11 rebounds.

Henry Finkel helped Ard bottle up Walton while Havlicek went wild. The veteran star scored 40 points.

In the other NBA games, the Cleveland Cavaliers tripped the Washington Capitals 107-99; the Detroit Pistons stopped the Kansas City-Omaha Kings 118-104; the Philadelphia 76ers ripped the Chicago Bulls 105-90 and the Buffalo Braves smashed the New Orleans Jazz 110-98.

Jo Jo White had 21 points and Paul Westphal wound up with 14 for the Celtics. Sidney Wicks led Portland with 24 points, and John Johnson had 18. Geoff Petrie had 17.

Bobby Smith scored a career-high 41 points to lead Cleveland over Washington. Smith, a six-year veteran, connected on 17 of 24 shots and made all seven of his free throws to top his previous high by four points.

Cleveland bolted to a 41-18 lead early in the second quarter and then held off the Bullets, leaders of the Central Division, for their sixth victory in seven games.

Wes Unseld led the Bullets with 21 points and 13 rebounds. Elvin Hayes added 16 points and 14 rebounds.

Dave Bing scored 30 points and Bob Lanier added 27 to power Detroit past Kansas City-Omaha.

The Pistons built a 64-48 halftime lead and coasted the rest of the way, pushing their lead to 93-67 at one point.

CONCERNED COACH — Don Shula, Miami Dolphin Coach, is shown as he talked with newsmen Wednesday in Miami about the possibility of having to suspend running Mercury Morris. Morris had walked out of camp following a talk with Shula, who had fined him $600 for missing two days of treatment to his injured knee.

Gillman Waits For Dan

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Oiler Coach Sid Gillman decided to wait 25 minutes for Dan Pastorini to catch the Oiler plane to New York last week but that was the only timing problem Pastorini had during the Oilers' visit north.

Pastorini, whose improved performance at quarterback has been a key factor in Houston's two-game winning streak and 3-5 record, had a flat time en route to the airport prior to Sunday's 27-22 victory over the Jets.

Gillman is glad he held up the plane's departure.

Pastorini had much better command of the clock when he flicked a 51-yard pass to receiver Kenny Burrough that set up Houston's winning touchdown in the final minute.

"We've never done fancy things well," Pastorini said. "We're just doing what we do well."

Pastorini, who never has criticized his sometimes inept offensive line during his bruise-filled previous seasons here, finally has a chance to talk about the offensive line.

"I've got to give credit for my success to the offensive line," Pastorini said. "I've been getting time to look defensive backs off, looking one way and throwing the other."

Pastorini out-dueled Jets quarterback Joe Namath in whipping the Oilers to the victory. This week he the Oilers return to New York state against Buffalo seeking a third straight victory.

"Pastorini has got it all," Gillman said. "We're not encouraging him to run because of his hamstring pull, but he's got tremendous talent."

Pastorini isn't encouraging himself to run either. "I was a little more aggressive person as a rookie," he said. "I'd put my head down and run then. It was a stupid thing to do, particularly for a quarterback."

Ex-Champion To Be Guest

HOUSTON (AP) — Former world heavyweight boxing champion George Foreman will be guest of honor Friday at a Wheatley High School alumni breakfast.

School officials said Foreman, who lost his title on an eighth round knockout by Muhammad Ali last week in Africa, will fly here from Paris Thursday night.

NORTH TEXAS STATE Athletes Now Stand In Line

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — Trainer John Porche used to have trouble getting injured North Texas State University athletes to come in for their treatments.

But now the athletes stand in line. They want massages when only their ankles need taping.

The reason is two female student trainers, who do everything for the male athletes from taping ankles and washing towels to giving massages and sound treatments.

Physical education majors Donna Ramsey, a Dallas junior, and Cheryl Lafitte, a Burkburnett freshman, starting working with NTSU trainer Porche this fall, learning about injuries, how to treat them and how to prevent them.

"I enjoy the work and I've learned a lot in the five weeks we've been working with John (Porche)," Miss Lafitte said.

The two women, who will travel with the NTSU women's athletic teams, have to undergo 1,300 hours training under Porche and then take a test to become licensed trainers.

"I have no trouble getting the guys to come in for their treatments now," Porche said. "I used to have to call them at the dorm, but now they stand in line."

"The male athletes treat us real nice," said Miss Lafitte. "At first they didn't like the idea too much—probably because they had to wear shorts."

Miss Ramsey said, "The guys kid us a lot. They realize what we're there for, though, and they know we're serious about it."

Porche said he plans for the two coeds to help also with the men's basketball team and in other sports.

This is the first year the women's teams will have trainers traveling with them. Before, if a player got hurt, she had to wait to get home and see a doctor, said Miss Ramsey.

"There's a shortage of women trainers," said Miss Lafitte. "It is an advantage for me becoming one; schools are looking for women."

Miss Ramsey said she had wanted to become a trainer "but there wasn't a chance until this year."

Sun Bowl Opponent Unnamed

STARKVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi State says it has accepted an invitation to play an unnamed football opponent in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex.

The Dec. 28 bowl appearance will be Mississippi State's first since 1963, when the Bulldogs beat North Carolina State 16-6 in the Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia.

That victory gave the 1963 team a 7-2-2 record. This year's team stands 6-2, with Auburn, Louisiana State and Mississippi still on the schedule. State lost to Alabama 35-0 last weekend.

Harrison Kohl, director of the Sun Bowl and head of the Southwest Sun Carnival, said State "has displayed the type of excitement, particularly on offense, that the Sun Bowl looks for."

"We are tickled to death to have such a powerful football team as Mississippi State to represent the Southeastern Conference in the Sun Bowl," Kohl said.

El Paso sources said Pitt or North Carolina appeared to be top bets for the other Sun Bowl berth but half a dozen other teams also were under consideration—Texas Tech, Baylor, Missouri, Vanderbilt, Tulane and Georgia.

PRICE IS WHAT YOU PAY - VALUE IS WHAT YOU GET... YOU BE THE JUDGE!

OH, BOY! I'VE GOT TO GET A NEW CAR AND 1975'S ARE PRICED HIGHER THAN 1974'S

YES, BUT THE THING TO DO IS GET THE BEST VALUE!

FOR EXAMPLE — THE PRICE OF SUGAR IS UP 201% BUT IT ISN'T SWEETER OR DOESN'T LAST LONGER. SHOES HAVE INCREASED IN PRICE MORE THAN 97.6% — YET THE LEATHER IN THEM IS NOT ANY BETTER.

SO, YOU CAN GO RIGHT DOWN THE LINE AND COMPARE THE INCREASES IN PRICE WITH NO INCREASE IN VALUE — BUT, WITH CHEVROLET, YOU CAN COME OUT AHEAD. MORE VALUE!

NOW, THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE VALUE INCREASES THAT GO WITH THE PRICE INCREASE OF 1975 CHEVROLETS. I BELIEVE THE INCREASE IN VALUE OFFSETS THE INCREASE IN PRICE. SO... YOU BE THE JUDGE!

SOME CARS HAVE AN INCREASE IN PRICE... BUT NOT IN VALUE. CHEVROLET, HOWEVER, GIVES YOU ADDED VALUE BY INCLUDING CERTAIN OPTIONAL EQUIPMENT AS STANDARD EQUIPMENT. IN CHEVROLET YOU GET THE CATALYTIC CONVERTER AT NO EXTRA COST (HELPS THE ENGINE RUN CLEANER, CLEANER AND SAVES YOU MONEY EVERY MILE.)

ALSO, THE HIGH ENERGY IGNITION SYSTEM (NO POINTS OR CONDENSER TO REPLACE... 4 TIMES THE LIFE SPAN OF SPARK PLUGS — WHEN YOU CHANGE AT 22,500 MILE INTERVALS) AND STEEL BELTED RADIAL TIRES FOR BETTER RIDE AND TRACTION.

NEED A NEW 1975 CAR?

WE HAVE EVERYTHING FROM THE COMPACT VEGA TO THE LUXURIOUS CAPRICE!

NEED A NEW 1975 TRUCK?

CHOOSE FROM THE CHEVROLET LUV PICKUP TO THE HEAVY — DUTY TANDEMS

NEED A USED CAR OR TRUCK?

WE HAVE OK USED CARS IN ALL MAKES AND MODELS. THEY'RE CLEAN AND READY.

IF IT'S TRANSPORTATION YOU NEED, WE HAVE IT...AND AT PRICES & TRADES THAT CAN'T BE BEAT!

FOR THE BEST DEAL POSSIBLE...

Vice Raid Near Big D

McKINNEY, Tex. (AP) — Six women, ranging in age from 18 to 29, have been arrested during raids on five massage parlors in south Collin County, police said. All were charged with prostitution and released on $200 bonds following arraignment Wednesday night before Peace Justice C. J. Prashaw. Authorities said they had warrants for the arrest of more women, but the women were not at the parlors on Preston Road north of Dallas. Only two customers were seen leaving the massage parlors during the raids. Officers said two of the women arrested were married, and another is a college graduate and former West Texas high school teacher. The women arrested faced fines of $200 if found guilty of the misdemeanor or prostitution charges.

Kissinger Gains Arab Oil Pledge

By The Associated Press
 Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger has received a Saudi Arabian pledge to try to keep the price of crude oil from rising or to get a nominal reduction at the meeting of oil-exporting nations in Vienna next month. Saudi Foreign Minister Omar Sakkaf gave Kissinger that promise after the American secretary of state met for 90 minutes Wednesday with King Faisal in Riyadh. He made clear, however, that Saudi Arabia would not break ranks and cut its prices unilaterally. "The policy of my kingdom and my government is that we keep the prices as they are (and) at the same time work for the lowering of the prices to bring them down, albeit symbolically," Sakkaf said. "And if we could bring them down more than symbolically we would."

It was the second oil-price promise Kissinger has received on his current tour. The Shah of Iran said last weekend he would propose that the posted price of crude oil - the artificial price on which part of the oil countries' take is calculated - be cut from $11.65 to $10 a barrel. But he indicated that he would do this only if the profits of foreign oil companies were drastically reduced and if the posted price was tied to the price of major industrial goods. Kissinger was meeting today in Amman with King Hussein of Jordan. After a stop in Damascus, the Syrian capital, he was to spend the night in Israel. He goes to Turkey on Friday to try to open the door to negotiations for a Cyprus settlement. Kissinger on his arrival in Amman said once more that the purpose of his whirlwind tour was "to get the judgment of various leaders about prospects for peace. "I want to reiterate that we attach greatest importance to Jordan," he added. Jordan's stake in a settlement with Israel was greatly reduced last week when the other Arab leaders at the summit conference in Rabat prevailed on Hussein to renounce Jordan's claim to the West Bank of the Jordan River.

BUILDING STARTS HIT BRICK WALL - Worker walks atop vast stockpile containing 12 million bricks in the yard of a brick factory in Stewartby, Bedfordshire, England. It is estimated that the pile contains enough bricks to build about one thousand private average-size houses. A faltering British economy with a 50 per cent cut in private building caused the brick surplus.

Appeal Lost By Mutscher, Two Of His Pals

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals denied today a motion by former Texas House Speaker Gus Mutscher and two of his lieutenants for a rehearing on their convictions for conspiracy to accept a bribe. The court upheld the convictions Sept. 24. Today's action leaves only the federal courts as a last appeal for the defendants. Mutscher, former state Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth and Mutscher aide Rush McGinty were convicted by an Abilene jury March 14, 1972, on a charge they conspired to accept a bribe from Houston promoter Frank Sharp. The bribe allegedly was in the form of loans from Sharp's bank with which the defendants purchased stock in an insurance company controlled by Sharp. The defendants sold most of their stock at large profits the day after the legislature approved two banking bills sought by Sharp. They had held the stock for only two months.

Webb's Credit Union Is Sixth In Assets

Of the 12,688 federally chartered credit unions in the United States at the close of 1973, Webb AFB Federal Credit Union ranked 76th in the nation and sixth in Texas in assets. The list, which was recently released by the National Credit Union Administration Quarterly, moved Webb AFB Federal Credit Union from its former position if 112th to 76th in the new listing. This gain in position was second only to the Air Defense Center Federal Credit Union in El Paso, Texas, which went from 146th in 1972 to 94th in 1973. The remaining 98 credit unions in the top 100 listed remained relatively close to the positions they held at the end of 1972. Of the five credit unions in Texas with assets exceeding those of Webb AFB Federal Credit Union, only Security Service Federal Credit Union in San Antonio, Texas, gained ground. It moved from its former 15th position to 14th on the list. The remaining four credit unions lost higher positions held at the end of 1972. The two largest federal credit unions are in Washington, D.C. Navy Federal Credit Union, which is the largest, was chartered in 1947 and has $350,803,000 in assets. Second ranked Pentagon Federal Credit Union was chartered in 1935 and has assets of $142,821,000. Both credit unions maintained their first and second positions held in 1972. Major airlines, which maintained their 1972 standings, completed the third, fourth and fifth positions. Hughes Aircraft Employees Federal Credit Union of Los Angeles, California, which was chartered in 1940, showed assets of $85,904,000 at the close of 1973. It was followed by East Hartford Aircraft Federal Credit Union, East Hartford, Connecticut. The 1935 chartered credit union reported assets of $73,416,000. Eastern Airlines Employees Federal Credit Union of Miami, Florida, completed the top five largest credit unions with assets of $72,097,000, and was chartered in 1937.

Judgment May Be Delayed In Case

Taxes or higher water bills appear to be the alternatives the water district serving Sand Springs and Coahoma residents faced.

They chose to increase the price charged the City of Coahoma, which distributes water to and bills city and rural homes.

But Coahoma wouldn't pay the higher rate, and, in fact, reduced its rate of payment, claiming a 1959 agreement void.

This is how it looked after three days of trial in 118th District Court.

LEGAL WITNESS

Part of about $30,000 in current and delinquent property taxes collected yearly by the water district could be used to help pay for 1955 bonds as well as 1962 bonds, Jim Gregg, Big Spring city attorney, told 118th District Court Wednesday afternoon.

But once taxes pledged to the 1962 bonds are placed in a fund for the 1962 bonds, none of this tax money may be diverted for retiring 1955 bonds, Gregg said.

Although the district could have taxed also to pay for the 1955 bonds, revenue from the City of Coahoma has been utilized, testimony showed.

And, with a $100,000 surplus established with revenue from the city, the Howard Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 prepaid through 1989 bonds dated 1962, a witness said.

BOTH REST

Both the plaintiff, the district, and the defendant, the City of Coahoma, rested their cases Wednesday afternoon.

District Judge Ralph W. Caton told the jury to return today. Caton will charge the jury with a list of special issues to decide, and attorneys will present closing arguments.

Once the jury decides questions of fact, Caton will rule on how law applies to these facts. The district judge may and may not enter a judgment immediately.

ONE SUIT FILED

The water district filed the suit for collection of $29,414 in claimed due bill payments and for termination of a contract.

Education Board Meets To Hear Book Gripes

AUSTIN — The State Board of Education will hold a two-day series of meetings keyed to the 1975 state textbook adoption in Austin Friday and Saturday.

Eight individuals and/or groups of petitioners are expected to present their complaints against books submitted by 10 different publishers at the State Board of Education textbook hearing set for 8:30 a.m. Saturday. Both sessions will be held at the Texas Education Agency, 201 East 11th Street.

A total of 213 titles approved by the State Textbook Committee in October will be submitted to the Board by Dr. M. L. Brockette, Texas commissioner of education.

One Book, a high school computer mathematics text, was removed from the committee's list by Brockette because it "failed to meet the State Board of Education" textbook proclamation.

The book, "Elements of Data Processing; Elements of Programming; Fortran; Computer Programming with COBOL," published by Delmar, was a vocational rather than a mathematics text, Brockette said.

Total value of the new book contracts is estimated at $14.7 million plus another $4 million for bilingual books and teaching systems to be purchased for kindergarten and grades 1 and 2.

Additional costs for regular kindergarten materials, servicing current contracts in order to maintain the supply for new

DOMESTIC ABSENT Houston Bus Strike Blamed

HOUSTON (AP) — a city-wide bus strike entered its second day today with bus riders apparently getting to their jobs by other means as no heavy absenteeism was reported.

As expected, however, the first day of the strike Wednesday seemed to hurt most lower-income persons such as domestics who do not have their own cars to get to their jobs.

One employment service owner said he received many calls from women saying their domestic help did not show.

The 800 HouTran drivers and mechanics began their strike Tuesday night in support of demands for pay increases totaling $1.35 over a two-year period.

The contract that expired Saturday night had a base pay of $3.70 an hour increasing to $4.45 after two years of service.

M.D. Hendrix, president of Transport Workers Local 260, said the union is determined to remain on strike until its demands are met.

Stanley Gates, HouTran manager, said the company has made its final offer.

The City of Houston, under provision of an ordinance ap-

Tech Professor Receives Grant

LUBBOCK — Bruce A. Bartholomew, M.D., associate professor of Medicine at Texas Tech University School of Medicine, has received a $9,800 grant from the Smith Kline and French Foundation for research of joint diseases.

"Basically the grant is for the purpose of developing new methods in clinical research and evaluation of patents suffering from inflammatory joint disease," Dr. Bartholomew said.

The research will focus on synovial fluid (the fluid that lubricates joints) and study will be done on enzyme activity in this fluid and the correlation of enzyme levels of activity with the degree of disease activity.

The goal of the research," Dr. Bartholomew said, "is to give us an additional and possibly more qualitative method of appraising the course of arthritis and its potential response to therapy."

The murder trial of Benjamin Thomas Tisdale has been tentatively set for January in a San Angelo District Court, according to 118th District Attorney Bob Moore.

Moore said that he had been attending hearings on pre-trial motions in San Angelo for three Wednesdays in a row.

Traffic will be routed through the construction; adequate barricades and warning signals will be prominently displayed. Motorists, however, should be extremely cautious in passing through the area as it will be heavily traveled by large highway construction equipment. Cooperation of the public is requested in obeying all traffic signals and warning signs.

Mexican Magic: It's Festive Fare For Families North Of The Border

TAMALE CASSEROLE

COCKTAIL TACOS

FRIJOLE MEXICANOS

FIRE AND ICE SALAD

The crisp autumn days mark the beginning of a whirlwind of activities for the woman who plays many roles in addition to that of homemaker. As Scout leader, party hostess, committee chairman, club member — her calendar is filled with occasions which often require her to plan meals beyond the twenty-one she serves her own family each week. She is creating and producing luncheons and dinners for groups varying in size from six to sixty or even several hundred. She must become a sorceress who brings forth from the oven an exciting meal which can be served in a glamorous setting, and often within a rigid budget.

Mexican cuisine is the bag of tricks that contains the answers to all her problems. These recipes adapt quite easily to a small or large group, are inexpensive and add the important ingredient of convenience packed frozen foods for sleight-of-hand preparation. The delicious aroma which emanates from the kitchen, where the tangy, tantalizing dishes are in preparation, creates appetites which cause platters to empty as if by magic.

In the table setting, she can allow her imagination and color scheme to run riot with the clear, vibrant hues that add so much zest to life in Mexico. Paper table cloths criss-crossed with bright green or red crepe paper, those fabulous Mexican paper flowers, straw baskets and mats, multi-colored candles, bright pottery and fruits and vegetables can be used in a myriad of combinations. Black wrought iron candlesticks and accessories are a perfect foil for the flamboyant colors.

This menu suggested by home economists at Patio Foods of San Antonio, is devised to allow for ahead-of-time preparation, meaning a minimum of last minute fuss. The finishing touch is added with baskets of tortillas and mugs of coffee or hot chocolate.

Quantities given here serve six, but they are all easily multiplied. A number of products are available at supermarkets in institutional size cans. One of these gallon-sized cans of tomato sauce can be used in preparing Tamales Con Pollo for sixty servings. One pound of cheese is equivalent to five cups of grated cheese. In planning the purchase of fresh produce, the cook can figure four medium-sized tomatoes to the pound.

TACOS CON SALSA AZTECA

(Tacos with Aztec Sauce)

The taco, crisp tortilla with a seasoned meat filling, is a taste-tempting appetizer, and even better spiked with a dash of this traditional Mexican sauce.

Salsa Azteca is a zippy blend that is almost invariably found on the table in every home and restaurant south of the border. It is prepared daily from garden fresh tomatoes, chiles and seasonings and spooned into soup and over beans, meat and vegetables.

The steaming tortillas that accompany the meal are also enhanced by a generous buttering and a sprinkling of Aztec Sauce.

1 pkg. of 24 cocktail size frozen beef tacos
4 firm, ripe, medium-sized tomatoes
1 4-ounce can chiles verdes (green chile peppers)
1 medium-sized onion
1/4 tsp. salt
dash of pepper
2 tbsps. cider vinegar
dash tabasco sauce

Chop tomatoes, chiles and onion very fine or pulverize in an electric blender. Stir in salt, pepper, vinegar and tabasco and let stand for several hours before serving to allow the flavors to mingle.

Heat tacos according to directions on package. Arrange on platter with bowl of Salsa.

FIRE AND ICE SALAD
The tomato is indispensable in Mexican cookery and makes its appearance in many guises. Quite often it is teamed up with another abundant product of the country, the aguacate (avocado). These

Boned Lamb Leg Can Be Broiled

If you have the shank end of a leg of lamb boned and split you can broil the meat. Place fat side up on the broiler rack about five inches from the heat source and broil about 20 minutes; brush with a marinade and turn and broil 15 minutes. Then turn the broiler setting low, or move the broiler rack low, and broil another half hour or until meat is tender, basting with the marinade.

two fruits of the soil complement one another in flavor and texture, as well as color.

6 large ripe, firm tomatoes
1 large green pepper
1 red onion, thinly sliced
1 cucumber
1 avocado

SAUCE
1/2 cup vinegar
1/4 cup water
1 1/2 tps. celery salt
1 1/4 tps. mustard seed
1/2 tsp. salt
4 tps. sugar
1/4 tsp. cayenne pepper
1/4 tsp. black pepper

Combine all sauce ingredients in a small saucepan and bring to a rolling boil. Boil for one minute and remove from heat. Peel tomatoes and cut into quarters. (Submerge tomatoes in boiling water for a few seconds and the skins will slide off easily.) Remove seeds from green pepper and slice into strips. Place tomatoes, pepper and onion rings in a bowl. Pour sauce over them. Refrigerate for at least four hours. The salad will keep quite well for several days in the refrigerator.

Just before serving, add cucumber, which has been peeled and sliced, and wedges of peeled avocado.

TAMALES CON POLLO

(Tamales with Chicken)

Mention Mexican food and immediately a picture of the spicy tamale comes to mind. This world renowned antojito or little snack is a delight to the crowds that throng the streets at fiesta or market time. Tamales are made of fresh-ground cornmeal, or masa, whipped until fluffy. The masa is spread on a steamed corn husk, filled with seasoned cooked meat or chicken, drenched in a piquant tomato sauce and steamed slowly.

This succulent treat is available today in the grocery frozen food section. Tamales Con Pollo, a hearty and zesty main dish, can be made hours ahead, refrigerated and popped into the oven thirty or forty minutes before mealtime.

12 frozen beef tamales
1 3/4 cups canned tomato sauce (1 No. 300 can)

1 cup sour cream
2 cups cooked white meat of chicken, shredded
salt to taste
1 cup grated cheese

Butter shallow baking dish. Thaw tamales and slice. Combine tomato sauce, sour cream, chicken and salt and blend. Alternate layers of sliced tamales and sauce. Top with cheese. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) until thoroughly heated. Serve at once.

TROPICAL FRUITS

FRIJOLE MEXICANOS

No meal served in Mexico is really complete unless it includes frijoles (beans) in some form. There are almost as many varieties of beans native to the country as there are methods for preparing them. Beans are served in every type of dish from cocktail snacks to candies and desserts. Most frequently they find their way to the table in soups or as a thick puree to spread on tortillas, tacos and enchiladas.

This basic recipe for frijoles makes a grand accompaniment to a spicy meat dish. As a variation on the theme, it can be served as the very popular frijoles refritos.

1 cup pinto or red kidney beans
1 tbsps. shortening
1 large onion, chopped
4 slices bacon, diced
Salt to taste

Wash beans thoroughly. Soak overnight in cold water to cover. Place in large pan with plenty of cold water, shortening, onion and bacon pieces. Cover and cook slowly over low heat for three hours. Add salt and continue cooking until beans are tender and juice is thick. If necessary, add a small amount of warm water during cooking to prevent beans from sticking.

FRIJOLE REFRITOS

Melt 2 tablespoons of olive oil or bacon grease in skillet. Ladle in cooked beans and mash them with a potato masher. Sprinkle on parmesan cheese liberally. Continue cooking over medium heat and mashing beans for about 10 minutes. Garnish with grated parmesan cheese.

FRUTAS TROPICALES

(Tropical Fruits)

The gift of the lush tropics of Mexico to the cuisine of the country is an abundant assortment of sweet and succulent fruits. Papayas and mangoes, bananas, pineapples and apples are delightful desserts; for comida, the leisurely main meal which is served at midday. Coconut in any form is one of the favorite sweets of the natives. Citrus fruits — oranges, lemons and limes — and cantaloupes and other varieties of melons are often used in cooking and in the refreshing beverages called horchatas.

A fruit tray is a colorful and welcome conclusion to a saucy Mexican dinner. Fresh fruits in season are especially good, but canned or frozen fruits may be substituted.

2 bananas, sliced diagonally
1 1/2 cups cantaloupe or watermelon balls, fresh or frozen
1 cup fresh pineapple, cut in bite-size pieces, or canned chunk pineapple, drained
3 oranges, sectioned, or 1 can mandarin oranges, drained
1 pint fresh strawberries, hulled, or frozen whole strawberries
Juice of 1 lime
1/2 cup shredded coconut
Arrange fruits on a platter or in individual dessert dishes. Sprinkle lime juice and shredded coconut over all.

Salt Subs Can Flavor Well

Chemically formulated salt substitutes add appetite appeal to foods prepared without table salt. In addition, creative cookery imagination leads to more generous use of nature's chemicals — fresh lemon juice, pepper, herbs, and spices — to flavor meats and vegetables so effectively that ordinary table salt isn't missed. The re-education of taste becomes a pleasant experience.

County Clubs Accept '75 Recommendations

The 1974-75 recommendations to home demonstration clubs were read and approved by the Howard County HD Club Council in a meeting Monday in the extension agent's office.

Ten areas were covered, and highlights of the recommendations are as follows:

Safety — Clubs are to practice home safety and study CATCH (Changing Attitudes Through Court Handling) and DIRE (Driver Improvement Rehabilitation Education).

Cultural Arts and Recreation — Clubs will study painting styles, techniques and media and visit exhibits, galleries, museums and historical sites. In addition, they will learn new hobbies and explore the cultural background and arts of Texas.

Personal Services — In case of illness or death of certain people associated with home demonstration club work, flowers, gifts or memorials will be provided.

Citizenship — Clubs will study and become familiar with the Social Security programs, local government and its support, and will study needs and problems of retirement age people in relation to physical and mental health, housing, recreation, income and leisure time.

Family Life — Clubs will study woman's responsibility to family and community and promote programs on needs of older adults.

Health — Clubs will study effective ways to maintain healthy hearts and will learn the facts about diabetes.

County Fair and Exhibit — Clubs will support the county fair with their skills and talents in exhibits and continue to work at the fair when needed.

4-H Clubs — Home demonstration clubs will continue to support 4-H and aid its expansion by providing resource persons, information and funds for scholarships.

Publicity — Reporters will report regular and special meetings to the newspaper and will tour the newspaper plant.

Yearbook — A meeting will be held in February with yearbook chairman from each club attending.

Budget — The proposed budget of $1,017.50 will be met with the cash on hand, donations from members and proceeds from the FFA and 4-H sale concessions.

Mrs. Alton Underwood, council president, announced that a leaders' training session on "Planning Meals With Care" will be held Nov. 18, place to be announced. On Dec. 7-8, the council will have a space at the 4-H Fair, featuring paintings, baked goods and crafts.

Committees were named for the Dec. 11 Christmas party. Duties were assigned as follows: City club, refreshments and tables; Coahoma and Fairview clubs, gifts and trees; Centerpoint club, music; Airport club, group singing; Elbow club, skit; and College Park club, program and devotion.

The Centerpoint club hosted the meeting, and the devotion was by Mrs. Bob Wren.

Dan Wilkins Is Club Speaker

Dan Wilkins of Edward D. Jones and Co. Inc., member firm, New York Stock Exchange, presented a program on bonds when the 1955 Hyperion Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. L. B. Edwards, 2703 Crestline.

Wilkins talked about the advantages of buying bonds, mentioning that some bonds can be bought in amounts as low as $100. He discussed government bonds, corporation bonds and municipal bonds, describing the different types of bonds that can be purchased and their attraction to individual investors.

The firm Wilkins represents, Edward D. Jones and Co. Inc., is located in 32 states and has over 150 offices.

During a brief business session, members agreed to contribute to the Christmas fund for residents at Big Spring State Hospital and to purchase a sustaining membership in the Heritage Museum. A projects committee, chaired by Mrs. Bill Wilson Jr., will present a project proposal at the Dec. 3 meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Morehead, 704 Highland.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Robert Penner and Mrs. Walter Wheat.

Ex-Resident Is Named To Post

Bill C. Clanton, Midland, has been appointed director of Columbia Secretarial College of Odessa, according to Galen O. Gilbert, president of the school.

Recently Clanton has operated an investment company, and has done consulting work in business and investments. He was associated with West Texas Office Supply prior to the sale of that firm earlier this year. Previously he served for eight years on the administrative staff of Midland Memorial Hospital.

Clanton graduated from Big Spring High School, attended Howard College and graduated from Texas Tech. He is past president of the Midland West Rotary Club, and the Midland Heart Association.

In his new job Clanton will have full responsibility for the operation of Columbia Secretarial College, a school specializing in training of secretaries.

Dear Abby

He's Still Paying For Leaving

DEAR ABBY: My husband has too much pride to ask his former wife to relinquish her alimony payments. We've discussed it and he is also opposed to taking the matter to court.

Based on the following facts, do you think my husband should continue paying alimony?

1. She received all the equity in the home, paid-up car, and all the furnishings as part of the original settlement.
2. Their children are now married, and financially independent.
3. His ex-wife is now in her forties, is employed full time, and earns a better than average income.
4. He has paid her alimony promptly for 14 years. I would appreciate your thinking.

HEADS AND GET OVER THE IDEA that you have something about which to be ashamed. Do not lie to your parents or anyone else. It may ease your burden to know that you have plenty of company.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "IN DEEP IN HIGHLAND PARK, ILL.": There are exceptions, but a good rule to follow is: Don't lend money to a person who owes you money unless he has made an honest effort to pay at least part of what he owes you.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L. A. Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail van Buren, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

SECOND WIFE

DEAR SEC: You've stated that you have discussed the matter with your husband, and he's content to keep the status quo, so my thinking is not likely to influence him.

Alimony has been appropriately called, "the high cost of leaving." Perhaps unconsciously your husband feels that it's not too high a price to pay for what he bought.

DEAR ABBY: For the last eight years I have been "engaged" to a married man. I know you've heard this story a thousand times, but he says we will be married as soon as he can get a divorce. Lately I am beginning to wonder.

He is 42 and I am 29. When I met him, he said he was separated from his wife. Later on he said he was trying for a divorce but she was contesting it.

He claims he lives like a gypsy, staying with one relative after another, and sometimes with friends. I have never had a phone number where he can be reached in case of emergency. And no address either.

He owns his own business and has given me some expensive gifts, but I want to get married and live a normal life. I used to tell my family and friends that I was too young to get married, but at 29, that's a ridiculous excuse.

How do you figure this, Abby? Am I just a slow learner? I promise to take any advice you give me. Please, help me.

TIRE OF WAITING

DEAR TIRE: I think you've been used. Don't waste any more of your valuable time on him, dear. Quietly relocate, and make sure he doesn't have your phone number or address.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is a lovely, 24-year-old college-educated woman who is in love with a man who absolutely does not believe in marriage.

They have been living together for three years, and now they want to start a family. We are heartsick and don't know what to do.

He has no family, but we have. My parents would suffer even more than we if they knew that their beloved grandchild (my daughter) had a child out of wedlock. Should we say they were secretly married, and try to carry it off, or forget it?

We have no one to ask advice from as we are too ashamed to have anyone know.

HEARTSICK

DEAR HEARTSICK: You are not responsible for the decisions of your 24-year-old daughter, so hold up your

A skit was presented by the teacher, Mrs. Gene Farley, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Ware and Mrs. Dale Byrd. Mrs. Royce Moore, class president, led the group in the class scripture and song. Mrs. Sidney Jones was a guest.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Farley.

PTA Continues Effort To Aid Abused Child

Continuing in its efforts to establish an effective child welfare program in Big Spring, the Parent-Teacher Association City Council, along with the guests from other organizations, heard a talk Tuesday by Calvin Davis of San Angelo, area program director of Social Services for the state.

Davis outlined the history of the state's Child Welfare Program from its inception in the 1930's when it was headed by the Board of Control. It was later placed under the Department of Welfare. Its services have existed, on a limited scale, in Texas since that time.

The speaker stressed that an agreement has to be negotiated with the county before such a program can operate effectively, but the program has been established in the majority of Texas cities.

NATIONWIDE
"Child neglect and abuse are a nationwide problem," said Davis. "In Texas, it is a misdemeanor if anyone with knowledge of child neglect or abuse fails to report such to the authorities. This year alone, funds were doubled to meet the requirements in Texas to finance this type of care. The funding consists of 75 per cent federal funds and 25 per cent state funds. Legislative appropriation is not very great. There are approximately 3,000 state workers on the payroll. In a 30-county area, approximately 28 workers staff the office of the Child Welfare Program."

Locally, there is a need for five workers on the staff of the Big Spring office. Two have been filled, with Ron Swift presently acting as social service worker in charge of the local office.

Davis noted that only limited protection can be given without county support. At present, only office space is provided by the county, and the state funds pay for staff expenses, travel and office equipment.

FOSTER HOMES
According to Davis, to establish an effective Child Welfare Program, it is of utmost importance to initiate a Foster Home Care Program. Boarding and medical expenses for child assigned to the Foster Home Care Program are paid with state funds with no expense to the county. He said anyone wishing to participate in the Foster Home Care Program and who is willing to meet the certification for child care in their home for neglected or abused children, may call the county office for further information.

The state office will children. The films will be available for clubs and other interested groups.

In conclusion, Davis emphasized that the Child Welfare Program is an added advantage to the community and that its success rests with the support of the county.

Guests attending the meeting were Dr. Wayne Bonner, director of Guidance and Counseling at Howard College; Ms. Joey Grathwol, president of the Big Spring branch, American Association of University Women; and Mrs. Sherry Wegner of the Child Study Club. Mrs. Wegner was elected second vice president of the PTA Council.

The devotion was by Ed Beasley.

The PTA Council will meet Dec. 10 at the Veterans Administration Hospital conference room instead of the first Tuesday of the month, as usual.

Local Trio Named To Zone Posts

Mrs. Odell Womack of Big Spring was elected chairman of the Southern Zone, Texas Federation of Garden Clubs, when the zone meeting was held Friday at Seminole in the Community Center. Other Big Springers taking office were Mrs. D. O. Gray, vice-chairman, and Mrs. D. S. Riley, secretary. The 1975 zone meeting will be held in Big Spring.

Mrs. C. Y. Clinkscales accompanied Mrs. Womack to Seminole, and the two women also attended a District 1 board meeting in Lubbock Tuesday at the Garden and Art Center. Mrs. Womack is Litter Control chairman for the district, and Mrs. Clinkscales is African Violet chairman.

Mrs. Womack said the local garden clubs are continuing their projects of city beautification and litter control.

Sewing With Knits Explained To Club

Sewing with knits was the subject of a program given by Mrs. Garner Thixton Monday evening for Forsan Study Club at the Elbow School.

The speaker said that knits can be tested for quality by gently pulling in each direction and releasing to check the amount of stretch and recovery. Good quality knit has a firm but resilient body and will spring back to recover its original shape. Ball point needles are best to use with knits.

"Doubleknit is the fabric that comes closer to a woven knit," said Mrs. Thixton. "It holds its shape well and does not curl. Jersey knit is a basic structure in all knitting. Loops are formed in only one direction giving the two sides of the fabric a different appearance. It is a single-welt knit fabric. Bonded fabrics are made of two or more already-constructed fabrics held together by wet adhesives to thin polyurethane foam."

Mrs. Bill Cregar and Mrs. Thixton were hostesses for the meeting, and the devotion was by Mrs. Ann Fairchild.

The next meeting will be Nov. 18 at the Forsan School. The program will be on cooking, and members are asked to bring a recipe in duplicate; one to share with club members and one to send to the Western District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

Opening lead: Ten of ♠.

It always seems right to ruff a loser with a low trump. However, it is not always wise to do this at the first opportunity. On occasion, you may need your low trump for more important duties.

North-South reached game with a minimum of fuss. The key bid in the auction was North's raise to two hearts with only three trumps. The alternative bid of one no trump would appeal to many, but this department prefers the raise with three trumps to an honor when the hand contains a ruffing value—as it does here in diamonds.

West led the ten of spades, and to declarer it seemed that the only problem lay in holding his diamond losers to one. That could be accomplished by ruffing the third diamond in dummy. With no further thought, declarer won the king of spades in dummy and led the king of diamonds. East took the ace and returned a spade. Declarer won in dummy, led a diamond to his queen, and ruffed a diamond low. Now, he cashed the queen of trumps, but when West showed out declarer realized that he would have to lose a trump as well as two clubs, for down one.

The 4-0 trump break was most unfortunate, but declarer could have overcome that had he not ruffed a diamond. After winning the first spade trick, correct technique is first to cash the queen of hearts. If both opponents follow, declarer knows trumps can be no worse than 3-1, and so he proceeds to ruff a diamond as before.

However, when West fails to follow to the first trump, declarer must put all dummy's trumps to work in picking up East's trumps. He cannot afford to ruff a diamond in dummy for that would leave dummy a trump short for this primary goal. Another method must be found to avoid the diamond loser.

The winning line is for declarer to continue hearts at trick three. East splits his honors, declarer wins, re-enters dummy with the remaining high spades and leads dummy's last trump, drawing East's trumps with the help of a marked finesse. Now all that remains is to lead a low diamond to dummy's ten, and when that forces the ace declarer is home.

Wedding Of 'Rhoda' Rang Ratings Bells

NEW YORK (AP) — The wedding of Rhoda Morgenstern in a special one-hour version of CBS' "Rhoda" series rang ratings bells last week. The show was the nation's most-watched program then, A. C. Nielsen statistics say.

The ratings, for the week of Oct. 28-Nov. 3, showed that the "Rhoda" nuptials were seen in an estimated 24 million American homes. The ratings were made public Wednesday.

Repeats of three other CBS programs, all of them specials, also did extremely well in last week's ratings. They were "It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown," "Dr. Seuss' On the Loose," and "The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman."

The Nielsen ratings showed them ranked third, fourth and 15th, respectively, of all evening entertainment rated that week.

The 20 most-watched programs on network TV last week, according to the ratings, were: "Rhoda" (CBS); "Sanford and Son" (NBC); "Charlie Brown," "Dr. Seuss" and "M-A-S-H" (all CBS); "Chico and the Man" (NBC); "The Waltons" and "Good Times" (CBS); "Little House on the Prairie" and "Walt Disney" (both NBC); "Hawaii Five-O" and "Mary Tyler Moore" (both CBS); ABC Wednesday Movie ("Death Cruise"); "Miss Jane Pittman" and "Bob Newhart" (both CBS); "The Rockford Files" (NBC); NBC Saturday Movies ("The New Centurions"); "Medical Center" (CBS), and NBC Sunday Mystery ("McCloud").

The least-watched program of the week, according to the Nielsen findings, was ABC's "Nakia."

Jerry Lewis Is Given Ticket

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Comedian Jerry Lewis was ticketed by police after he stopped to view a traffic accident and set off a three-car crash in which two persons were slightly injured.

The Nevada State Highway Patrol said Lewis told officers after the Saturday mishap he stopped after recognizing someone involved in the original crash.

LOCUST, N.J. (AP) — Simas Kudirka came to the United States expecting to find his new country wracked by starvation. That was what propaganda in the Soviet Union told him to expect, the 44-year-old Lithuanian seaman who was freed from a treason sentence said Wednesday, his first full day in the United States.

He said he wanted some firsthand information, so he went shopping to see if there was a shortage of food and to find out whether the quality of food in this country was poor.

interview conducted through an interpreter that the Russians were stopped twice from killing him when he attempted to escape to the United States by boarding a U.S. Coast Guard cutter from his Soviet fishing trawler anchored off the Massachusetts coast and asking for asylum.

TRIED TO KILL. When the Russians were permitted by the cutter's captain to come aboard and arrest him, they tried "to hang me with a telephone wire (electric cable) and a Coast Guardsman stopped them by separating them and trying to get them to stop it."

"After I was back on the Russian ship, they tried to kill me until someone screamed that they had to stop because I had to be brought back," Kudirka said.

He said he was shipped

HERE TO STAY — Simas Kudirka the Lithuanian seaman who tried to defect to the United States four years ago, shows a determined "V" for victory sign in Locust, N.J. Wednesday. Kudirka had jumped from a Soviet ship near the New England coast onto a United States Coast Guard cutter but had then been arrested and later sentenced to prison.

Death Penalty Imposed On Texan Flipped

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Saying it was not shown that the defendant waived his right to be sentenced by a jury, the Florida Supreme Court has overturned a death sentence imposed on a Texas man.

The court, in a unanimous opinion written by Justice Ben Overton, sent the case of Michael Paul Lamadine of Dallas back to a lower court Wednesday with instructions to impanel a sentencing jury unless — Lamadine "knowingly and intelligently" waives that right.

"Upon the sentencing jury making its determination, the trial court may then proceed to make its determination and impose the appropriate sentence in accordance with the law of the state," the high court said.

Florida law requires that a jury hold a separate session to recommend a penalty in capital cases unless the defendant waives that right. The judge is not bound to accept the jury's recommendation.

NOT THE CASE. "That certainly is not the case," said Kudirka, whose Soviet prison diet was such that his teeth began to rot. Soviet propaganda depicts the United States as gripped by massive unemployment and starvation and its workers as under the thumb of factory supervisors "who want to squeeze out the last bit of blood from workers for their personal gains and who, with automation ... want to get rid of workers," Kudirka said.

He attempted to escape to the United States four years ago only to be returned to the Soviets by the Coast Guard. He was declared a U.S. citizen while in a Soviet prison.

NEEDS JOB

He is temporarily staying with one of the families who worked for his release to the United States. Kudirka, his wife, two children and mother arrived Tuesday from Moscow.

Still groping with adjustment, he said he has to "find out what I'm going to do for a job, what my wife is going to do for a job, about school for my children and where we are going to live."

Airline Profits

DALLAS (AP) — Airlines in the United States face a bleak outlook for 1975, although profits may be up 65 per cent on an industry-wide basis this year, a spokesman for the Air Transport Association (ATA) says.

George W. James, senior vice president for ATA, an industry trade group, predicted here profits for the industry this year would total $325 million—$375 million, up from the $200 million of 1973.

But that's not enough, James told a meeting here of the ATE's materials management and purchasing committee.

"1974 is a better year than 1973, but not nearly as good yet as it should be," he said. "This year's profit would be less than the industry's 1967 peak."

"Profit margins will be about three per cent this year, compared to the U.S. manufacturing average of about seven per cent."

James attributed the gain to increased airline passenger traffic during the gasoline shortage early this year. Automobile traffic was diverted to the airlines, but with fuel becoming easier to find, this volume has declined again.

"Traffic this fall is flat ... about the same as last year," James said in an interview.

He said the outlook for 1975 is "bleak at this point. In broad terms it doesn't look as good as 1974."

James said the increasing costs of operating had more than offset the fare increases approved this year by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

United Way Total

Another $1,357 in pledges and cash donations have been added to the aggregate in the 1974-75 Howard County United Way campaign during the past few days, bringing the grand total to $114,155.01.

That means that 93.7 per cent of the $121,777 goal has been raised. The drive was recently extended for two weeks so that all captains would rework cards and contact those who might have been out of town when original contacts were made.

Ax Doctor's Contempt Rap

HOUSTON (AP) — A juvenile court judge has dismissed a contempt of court citation against a Houston psychiatrist who spent four days in jail last August for refusing to testify as an expert witness.

Dr. Gary J. Byrd, 32, was ordered jailed by Juvenile Court Judge W.H. Miller when he refused to testify about the mental condition of a 15-year old girl.

Monoxide Fumes In Van Kill Prof, His Daughter

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP) — Fumes of an unvented charcoal cooker in a closed van apparently claimed the lives of an unemployed psychology professor and his teen-age daughter, medical investigators said.

A rancher spotted the van, containing both bodies and four other members of the same family, parked Wednesday along U.S. 82 near Mayhill in southern New Mexico.

A deputy medical investigator, Dr. William A. Boehm, said preliminary reports on the bodies of William Thomas Orr, 48, of Pittston, Pa., and his daughter Annette, 13, indicated carbon monoxide poisoning.

Orr's wife Lillian, 44, and sons William, 12, Joseph, 11, and Gregory, 7, were taken to an Alamogordo hospital.

Doctors said they apparently hadn't eaten in several days and were suffering from exposure.

Deputies said Mrs. Orr told them her husband and daughter had been dead three days.

The van apparently had run out of gas. Officials said there was a charcoal cooker in the back along with an empty charcoal bag.

"Charcoal definitely puts out enough carbon monoxide in a small closed area like that to kill several people," Boehm said.

He couldn't tell whether the cooker had been fired to heat the van or for use in preparing food, he said.

"I have no doubt but that if they hadn't run out of charcoal, they'd all be dead," Boehm said.

The doctor said carbon monoxide poisoning may have prevented members of the family from leaving the van to seek help.

"The kids were weak and confused. Those things are compatible with carbon monoxide poisoning," Boehm said.

Temperatures in the area had dipped well below freezing.

The Otero County sheriff's office said earlier that Orr and the daughter had died of starvation.

District Atty. Norman Bloom and Sheriff Felix Work said an investigation will continue.

Work said Orr, who apparently held a doctorate in psychology, had applied for a job at the University of Texas at Austin.

The family, he said, "was just traveling through the country—they had been up in Utah, California, Arizona and Texas."

The van, found near an apple orchard, bore various inscriptions. On the left side were the words "Kichanou Nich-la-Wana-Pea-O."

Below that were the words "Servants of the Holy Family" and "Neuro Kinesis the Miracle Cure."

The back of the van bore the inscription: "We travel to aid the sick by charity. Will you help?"

And in the back window was a handwritten sign, "We have no money or means."

BS Students Invited To Attend Symposium

Plans for local student participation in the Birth Defects Youth Symposium Nov. 23 at Texas Tech University in Lubbock were firmed at the board meeting of the Cap Rock Chapter of the March of Dimes Tuesday night.

Big Spring area high school students are invited to attend the symposium in Lubbock on a school bus to be chartered by the local MOD chapter.

The symposium will be an in-depth look for youth into the causes and preventions of birth defects. It will be led by two authorities on birth defects, a pediatric surgeon from Dallas and the chairman of the Texas Tech School of Medicine Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Reservations to attend can be made through MOD board member Craig Fischer at Big Spring High School. Registration fee including lunch is $1.50.

Chapter chairman Vaughn Martin announced that the October MOD airlift, in which local pilots volunteered their time and planes, netted receipts of $643.

Local chapter projects like the airlift make possible the National Foundations' $8,000,000 per year in grants for birth defects research.

Martin noted that the Cap Rock Chapter sent four delegates to a regional MOD meeting in Dallas. They were Martin, Ann Lane, Vanessa Mancill and Helen Martin.

Chapter executive secretary Ann Lane reported that she learned at the meeting that with a return of 34 per cent on its Previous Givers' Campaign, Big Spring is surpassed in giving in this region only by the Dallas metro area.

New business included a chapter decision to purchase a nutrition and birth defect table exhibit to be used at local schools and public gatherings.

The chapter also voted to purchase "A Way of Life", a 26-minute film geared toward ways the average citizen can help in work against birth defects. This raises to five the number of March of Dimes films available free for community use. They are available through chapter executive Ann Lane, 263-3401.

Matthews Triumphs

COLORADO CITY Mitchell County will keep their office of county school superintendent.

Caddo Matthews ran on the platform of keeping the office open and collected 1,143 votes over Olson Sweatt, who was going to close the office as soon as he was elected. He totaled 526 votes.

Matthews maintained, "We have lost a lot of grass roots government and need to keep this office open."

The only other contested race in Colorado City and Mitchell County was the state senate race with the county joining the rest of the district in backing Ray Farabee over Mrs. Mary Kirchhoff.

Matthew's amazing win in the county was on a write-in vote.

Tough Talk Ruined Sawhill

John Sawhill has been shown the door as federal energy administrator because he was more realistic than his boss, President Ford, wanted him to be.

He knew he wasn't hired to win friends. He thought — and remains of the opinion — that the nation should face up to the tough energy conservation measures.

The United States simply can't afford imported oil at $11 per barrel. The elevated cost exacted by the Arab potentates (some think with a measure of encouragement from U.S. oil barons) is wrecking the economy of all industrial nations.

Domestic production at this time simply cannot supplant the foreign oil. There is no immediate relief in sight for American consumers, either. Winter is dead ahead and it could be a cold one, especially in some parts of the country.

Sawhill took the view that there was no better time to do something about the problem than now.

President Ford, however, wanted to soft-pedal the issue, at least until we could get the election behind us. Too many seats were at stake in both the House and the Senate to go around making anyone mad.

Then Sawhill made a tough statement about major oil companies' price gouging during the past year's oil shortage. That did it for Sawhill. He made the statement on a Monday. President Ford fired him the next day.

Somehow this sequence of events doesn't engender much confidence that the present administration nows

Lunatic Fringe Supported

Jane Fonda and Angela Davis, who between them do a lot of head-holding over the image the United States is casting in the world, don't have the Vietnam war to kick around anymore. They've now decided Puerto Rico needs its freedom from the United States, even though a lot of people down there feel the island country is not ready to go it alone.

Miss Fonda is a Hollywood actress of note who has made enough money to spend a lot of time with groups who profess to want freedom from something or other. Miss Davis is a Communist activist who professes to idolize the Russian people but who, for some reason, prefers to take her meals on this side of the Atlantic.

Recently, the two women, along with others who would like to see Puerto Rico an independent nation, told a crowd of 15,000 that they supported the bombings what it is doing. President Ford told the nation to "bite the bullet" and spend less and save more and so on to combat inflation. Sooner or later President Ford is going to have to face up to reality of his own responsibilities to the country.

The Bare Facts

The Bare Facts

Around The Rim

Marj Carpenter

That was an upset bunch of Cougars and Cougar fans up at Abilene Friday night. Personally, I enjoyed that game as much as any I can remember. So, go a Bronco, Big Steers.

Speaking of Cougars brings me to the subject of bears and reminds me of Jimmy Anderson's bear, which he killed up at Trinidad recently. Leonard Saint tells some kind of wild tale about a bear that was killed then placed inside an outhouse. That would be a shocker.

WE HAVE A lot of bear stories in our family. In fact, my teaching daughter, Carolyn, when she made a trip to Yellowstone and Canada and all of those "wilds" summer before last insisted, "Somebody rustle up a bear so I can have a bear story."

I had the first bear story in the family. When I went up to New York State years ago to visit a multitude of aunts, uncles and cousins, they took me raspberry picking. They gave me a bucket and put me by a clump of raspberry bushes with Cousin Rachel on the other side.

Those darn raspberries. When you pick them, they are hollow and it takes an absolute million of the things to fill a bucket. It wasn't as much fun as picking oranges in the Rio Grande Valley.

I was picking those darn berries and muttering to Cousin Rachel. She didn't answer. But suddenly, she made a strange sound and I looked up. Rachel had wandered off. In her place was a big bear standing on his hind legs and helping himself to the berries. I think that bear considered that his personal raspberry clump. I didn't argue the point. I tore a big hole in the underbrush as I ran screaming out of the woods.

THEN MY London-living daughter, Cathy, added a bear story. She was up in the Davis Mountains in West Texas. She went there with the A. W. Bingham family. She and Susan wandered into a cave and came face to face with a bear. They ran, rolled, slipped and slid down the mountain screaming, "Bear . . . bear . . . bear . . ."

Now my T.U. freshman son, Jim Bob, also added a bear story. He went to church camp at Cloudford, N.M. He was about 13 at the time and after supper wandered away from camp to explore. He also met up with a big "bar". He heard a sound and turned his flashlight on what he reported at the time was "the biggest bear in the world." The camp counselors thought he was exaggerating when he came tearing back into camp but when he took them to the location, there were huge bear tracks and the fence was torn down where the bear obviously ran the other way. The bear apparently didn't like the looks of the flashlight.

But poor Carolyn never did come up with a bear story. She said the fat, complacent bears at Yellowstone are simply waiting for a handout. She's still hunting her bear.

For a good bear story. That's the bear facts.

My Answer

Billy Graham

Our preacher recently said that you have on your staff members who do not believe in the virgin birth of Jesus. I know you believe it because I heard you say it. But is this accusation true?

Without fear of contradiction, I can say that nobody is on my staff — anywhere in the world — who does not believe in the virgin birth of Christ.

That is such a cardinal and primary doctrine that if someone didn't believe it, he would probably be out of sympathy with everything I was doing.

The question of the virgin birth of Christ involves the trustworthiness of the whole gospel. It affects the entire doctrine of the Incarnation. If Jesus was not virgin born, then our hope is in vain.

I do not get upset at questions raised about our orthodoxy. Even though your minister is wrong, he like others, serve as reminders to us to be every vigilant in the things we believe. Heresy can creep in so easily, and the caution of the Hebrew writer is valid today: "We must pay more careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away." (Hebrews 2:1).

Ford-Reagan Summit

Robert Novak

EN ROUTE WITH FORD — Although President Ford's final weekend of campaigning may have missed its public goal of expanding a late nationwide Republican surge, it did achieve one private goal: a start toward healing the rupture with Gov. Ronald Reagan of California which could threaten not only the Republican party but the two-party system.

THE MOST important part of Mr. Ford's visit to California was out of public view and not listed on his schedule. Before addressing a $500-a-plate Republican fund-raiser at the Century Plaza Hotel in Los Angeles, the President conferred secretly with Reagan. By asking his advice about personnel and policy, Mr. Ford tried implicitly to reassure the Governor that as leader of the party's dominant conservative wing his views would henceforth get priority treatment in the Oval Office.

That defrosted the long Ford-Reagan chill. But those close to Reagan scoff at such efforts to abort his 1976 presidential ambitions or even getting him to disown third-party speculation. Indeed, the President's lugubrious speech was so tepidly received in Los Angeles that Reaganites were bolstered in their conviction that Mr. Ford can be beaten for the presidential nomination. "I heard him," snapped one Reagan insider, "and he's still a turkey."

Seeking warmer relations with Reagan was, of course, not the justification for the President's six-state transcontinental swing last weekend. Political counselor Dean Burch justified it by informing Mr. Ford that recently improved Republican prospects could be traced to the President's previous campaigning, a dubious conclusion disputed by state party leaders.

BUT THE attempted Reagan rapprochement had long been plotted by holdover Nixon White House aides worried about the Ford-Reagan rift. In the euphoria of August, when platoons of politicians were ushered in to see the new President, Reagan was ignored. Nor did Ford intimate disguise their contempt for Reagan as a used-up relic.

Mr. Ford's post-pardon troubles ended that confidence. By keeping open the third-party door, Reagan created apprehension among senior Ford aides about an independent Reagan-George Wallace coalition which would shatter two-party politics.

What's Up?

William F. Buckley, Jr.

Suddenly we find out that Liu Shao-chi is dead. When did he die? We don't know. How did he die? We don't know. Where did he die? We don't know. You see, we don't really know anything about what is going on inside Chinese politics. Is that because, as Harriet Van Horne might put it, we were for 20 years trying to pretend that 700 million people didn't exist? No. Because even if you use that silly phrase, we haven't been ignoring the 250 million people in the Soviet Union, not since 1933 when we recognized the regime.

And what do we know about the inside of Russian politics? Nothing, I mean, not one blessed thing. What we have is a profession called Kremlinology, which, so far as one can tell from the record, has advanced our knowledge of what is going on inside the Kremlin with about the same statistical accuracy you could have got from consulting the local tea leaf reader. When Khrushchev was ousted, our Kremlinologists learned about it from the AP. When the last Ping-Pong player has visited China, we will still know nothing more about Chinese politics than we do now.

WHICH BRINGS ONE to the solemn warning, issued in New York on October 31 by Senator James L. Buckley. He is on his way to the Soviet Union, where, by the way, he intends to discover some non-Jewish victims of Soviet tyranny. He will go to the usual places and meet the usual people and observe — there is a great deal to be said for observing. But being a very intelligent man, he does not expect to return to the United States with a sophisticated idea of exactly what the Soviet military is up to. That kind of information we get only through the use of several devices. The least of these, at this point, is the Central Intelligence Agent, because CIA agents who poke about military laboratories in Central Asia are given a bad time. We get the best information we have from our missile technology. From photographs.

Now it was an important part of the SALT agreement that the partners should not engage in efforts to deceive these photographic monitors. In other words, if you were digging a hole for the purpose of putting in it a site which would contain an intercontinental missile, you must not put stray bits of straw around it so as to confuse our monitors and make them think you are storing grain.

SENATOR BUCKLEY SAYS that some insiders in and out of U.S. Intelligence have recently accumulated a number of grounds to believe that the Soviet Union has been systematically breaking this part of our agreement. This unhappy news combines with something about which there is no dispute, namely that we greatly underestimated the capacity of Soviet technology to MIRV their missile when we made the 1972 deal.

Under the circumstances, as we move toward the second SALT accord, we face a situation doubly dangerous: 1) An inexact knowledge of what is exactly that the Soviets have, and 2) a Soviet lead, accomplished by the Ford inertia, in technology which the Soviet Union is not going to be anxious to retrench from. It is Senator Buckley's point that in authorizing SALT I, the Senate specifically ordained that SALT II should look to "Equivalence", and that unless the White House comes clean now and confirms either a) that the Soviet Union is forging ahead; or b) that we have lost our power to establish whether the Soviet Union is forging ahead, Congress is incapable of acting intelligently when it is presented with a proposed agreement involving SALT II.

Money Management

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — As viewed by business and financial authorities, one of the biggest deficiencies in the American educational system is its failure to adequately prepare individuals in money management.

Only two states make consumer education mandatory. In many cities and states the courses are superficial. Millions of Americans, as a result, can't even maintain a checkbook properly.

Banks, savings institutions, finance companies and others have long sought to correct the situation with do-it-yourself educational materials. More recently the effort is aimed at providing materials for classroom use.

Continental Illinois National Bank offers a detailed, six-unit course, complete with texts, teacher's guides and student problem books. Now the New York Stock Exchange has sent its "Personal Money Management" guide to almost every high school in the country.

James Needham, exchange chairman, hopes to convince federal authorities to make such instruction mandatory for those school districts receiving government funds. Professionally, he feels it might help to keep individual investors interested in stocks. The Personal Story Is Longer.

"I was the oldest of three kids, age 5, when my father died. We had no life insurance and we ended up on welfare for a couple of years. It left its mark."

As an accountant, Needham saw otherwise intelligent people who either neglected or were incapable of handling their personal money affairs. One client was a national authority on money management, including wills. "He died interstate."

"I taught Accounting I and 2. I was dealing with accounting majors and they didn't even understand bank statements or how to write checks. It had a unique impression on me."

"As a member of the Securities and Exchange Commission I was horrified by what I saw — very sophisticated people in capable of handling their own affairs."

Perhaps, who knows, with stock customers in mind, Needham continued: "So many people get into serious difficulty because they can't handle money. We've got to prepare them to take care of themselves, and then they won't be looking for help from the government."

She Has A 'Foot Drop'

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My wife, a year and a half ago, started to have a problem with her left foot. It seemed to have a slight "drop" as she walked.

She fell and broke her wrist. It has healed up but since then her leg started to get weaker although she felt good, no pain at all.

After a check she was told she had a muscle problem, but not multiple sclerosis. Another doctor said he thought it was caused from her spine.

Our own doctor called it a "foot drop" which can be caused by many things. Tests showed she did not have a stroke, but now when she stands for just a few moments, she gets awfully weak. Are there any other ideas on this problem, any medicine or shots that might help? — T.R.G.

As you now know, there are various causes of "foot drop," and you have eliminated some of the more frightening ones.

The only additional one that occurs to me is a disorder called Charcot-Marie-Tooth disease. It involves the peroneal nerve which controls the peroneal muscle. As the nerve no longer actuates the muscle, the muscle, unused, loses its strength. It begins slowly, and progresses, as in your wife's case.

It occurs in families and is hereditary.

Unfortunately there is little that can be done for it; on the other side of the ledger, one authoritative reference text adds, "This disorder is the least incapacitating of the muscular atrophies and dystrophies . . . Patients remain active for years and may live an average life span."

Although there is no known medication or treatment, massage and exercises may help the functioning of the foot, but she probably will need a brace to stabilize her ankle. There may be numbness, tingling, or abnormal sensations such as prickling.

There is one other possibility which is remote but may be of interest to some other reader. Poisoning from heavy metals (including arsenic) can cause foot drop. However, it is rare outside of industry — and so far as I know, is disappearing in industry as the danger of such heavy metals is known.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am a woman past 75 and for the last 10 years have suffered with varicose veins and phlebitis. For the last four years I have also had neuritis.

My problem is this: one doctor tells me that to have these veins operated on (removed) while I still have neuritis, I would get any bad results from having neuritis. I am puzzled as to which is right. — Mrs. L.F.D.

All I can do is give you my opinion — I concur with the second doctor. In fact, removal of the veins could eliminate or decrease the discomfort attributed to the neuritis.

Arthritis sufferers can be helped. Dr. Thosteson's booklet discusses many types of arthritis and related joint diseases as well as effective treatments and medications. For a copy of "How You Can Control Arthritis," write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents.

Gambling Charges Hit Six

DALLAS (AP) — A federal grand jury has indicted six men who allegedly ran a Las Vegas-directed betting operation out of a Dallas restaurant.

The six were named Tuesday in a 10-count indictment on charges of violating federal gambling and racketeering laws in November and December, 1973. The indictment says bets were taken through a restaurant pay phone.

The indictment named John Eli Stone, Ruben Goldstein, Richard Carl Biggs, James Winningham, Anthony Paul Diadone, and John Dayton Ritter. Isadore Max Miller, was named as an unindicted co-conspirator.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Harold Jacquet said the grand jury has been investigating the gambling operation since January, 1974, relying primarily on information secured through wiretaps.

The indictment said the wagers, mostly on Dallas Cowboy football games, allegedly earned the gamblers $2,000 a day.

Goldstein, under indictment in Miami on gambling-related charges, is charged with providing Stone with betting odds set in Las Vegas.

Stone, owner of the restaurant at the time in question, was sentenced to 60 days in jail and fined $6,000, and placed on three years probation in 1964 for failing to pay gambling taxes and register as a gambler.

In the same case, Miller pleaded guilty to six counts of violating federal gambling and tax laws and was sentenced to 30 days in prison.

U.S. District Court Judge Sarah T. Hughes granted Miller immunity from prosecution in March in exchange for his testimony before the federal grand jury.

Private Club Must Pay Taxes

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — It was up to a Taylor County private club to account for large quantities of liquor on which taxes were not paid, the Texas Supreme Court ruled today in affirming a $6,814 judgment for the state.

Big Country Club, Inc., paid $6,814 in taxes under protest after the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission audited the club twice for the period, Nov. 4, 1970 through April 24, 1973.

The club had reported a tax on 55,123 drinks served during that period, but the auditors said they owed for 83,160 drinks.

The auditors based their count on "depletion analysis" by which the amount of liquor the club had purchased was added to the inventory on hand.

The club served one-ounce drinks, and the auditors allowed 25 per quart or 20 per fifth. They took possible spillage into account.

A trial judge withdrew the case from the jury and ruled in favor of the commission. The question, the Beaumont Court of Civil Appeals noted, was which party had the burden of proving the taxes were due.

No fraud was alleged, the appeals court said, but the commission contended that the club had the burden of showing what had happened to the merchandise that was unaccounted for.

"Any other rule, we think, would make it impossible for the state to collect the taxes owed it, in this type situation," the appeals court said in upholding the trial court ruling.

Manson Put Hex On Nixon?

VACAVILLE, Calif. (AP) — Charles Manson, convicted in the Sharon Tate murders, believed his own personal hex on former President Richard M. Nixon caused Nixon's Watergate woes, says an ex-prison psychologist.

Wesley Hiler, Manson's therapist at the California Medical Facility here, said Monday the former cult leader thought his powers of mental telepathy were actually getting to Nixon and hurting him.

"When he arrived at Vacaville he was actively psychotic," said Hiler in an interview. "He had a lot of delusions of influence. He believed he was responsible for Nixon's problems."

New Gas Reserves Brighten Outlook

NEW YORK — The board of directors of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, at their regular meeting held here Wednesday, announced that the acquisition of new gas reserves to be connected to Pioneer's system has been progressing favorably. In the first six months of 1974 Pioneer acquired new gas supply equal to about 130 per cent of sales during the same period and in the third quarter, acquisitions of an estimated 76 billion cubic feet were considerably in excess of sales for the period.

Late in September, a discovery well located on a six section unit in Wheeler County, Texas, was completed and potential for 34,000 Mcf of gas per day. The producer was estimating a daily delivery capacity to Pioneer of approximately 10,000 Mcf per day. It is estimated that an additional five wells will be drilled in the unit area, and Pioneer has 86 per cent of the potential gas production under contract.

In making the announcement, K. Bert "Tex" Watson, Pioneer president, said, "Gas from these new sources will start flowing into the system around the end of the year. We forecast that the average cost of gas to the company will remain level for the remainder of 1974. This would indicate that there should be no increase in the cost of gas served to Pioneer customers for this period as a result of the monthly adjustment based on gas costs.

The directors reported that Pioneer Natural Gas Company's subsidiary, Amarillo Oil Company, had a new multi-pay oil and gas discovery on its South Egan Prospect in Acadia Parish, La., approximately eight miles east of the Jennings Townsite field which was discovered in November, 1973, by Pioneer Production Corporation, another subsidiary. The new discovery, which appears important, tested oil and gas from five separate sands between the depths of 10,165 and 10,900 feet. A sixth zone is indicated to be productive but has not been tested. The well has been completed for production from the Hays sand, the deepest zone penetrated, and from perforations between 10,892 feet and 10,896 feet. On an eight-hour test it flowed gas at the rate of 2.2 million cubic feet and 52 barrels of condensate per day with flowing tubing pressure of 2,960 psig.

Amarillo Oil Company is completing its fifth extension well in the Jennings Townsite Field. Production from the field is now 20 million cubic feet per day and will be increased to 40 million cubic feet per day by the first of the year. A sixth extension well and seven in-field oil development wells will be commenced within the next sixty days.

Pioneer Natural Gas Company's consolidated net income for the third quarter was $6,030,433 compared to $2,864,860 for the same period in 1973. Consolidated net income for the first nine months of this year amounted to $14,804,693 compared to $8,835,259 for the same period in 1973. Earnings per share for the nine-month period ending September 30 were $1.99 compared to $1.19 for the same nine months of 1973.

Watson said, "The excellent results for the third quarter and for the first nine months of 1974 are directly attributable to the continued increases in the income of our subsidiaries. In addition, due to the very dry weather through mid-August, the company did experience record sales for irrigation gas in the third quarter. In August, Pioneer delivered 10.5 billion cubic feet of gas for irrigation engines, exceeding the highest monthly irrigation sales in 1973 by three billion cubic feet."

The directors declared a regular quarterly dividend of 24 cents on the common stock of the company, payable on December 4, 1974, to the stockholders of record on November 15.

Recalls Little Except Kidnaper Gave Him Milk

IRVING, Tex. (AP) — His eyes glued to a television set, five-year-old Robert David Lacy recalled only one thing of his harrowing abduction.

"He gave me milk, my favorite thing," young Lacy said of his abductor. That, along with a cheese snack and a bed in a cold attic are the boy's strongest impressions of the nine hours he was held Monday by a 15-year-old boy who demanded $10,000 ransom.

With help from the telephone company, Irving police traced the call to the youth's home because the lad was extremely talkative.

The 15-year-old could not be questioned by police because of his age and was turned over to the Dallas County juvenile authorities. Police will attempt to have the teen-ager certified and tried as an adult, they said.

A tape recorder recovered contained a message from the child saying "I'm OK mommy. We're camping out and having fun in a big tent. I love you. Bye Bye."

For David's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Lacy, it was an agonizing experience with telephone calls demanding ransom and the uncertainty of whether the child was alive.

Irving police found the boy shivering in the attic about three-fourths of a mile from the point of disappearance.

The Lacy child had taken the family dog "Sambo" for a walk about 2 p.m. and the dog, dragging his leash, returned to the house about 10 minutes later.

The elder Lacy said the abductor talked his son into sitting on the seat of a motorcycle and then apparently drove off.

The abductor's parents, home at the time of the telephone calls at first did not believe their son was involved.

"Naturally they didn't believe it, but when we recovered the child out of the garage attic and tapes out of the tape recorder there wasn't much they could say," a police spokesman said.
