Time For Selecting Yule Cards Is Already At Hand

It's definitely time to pick out Christmas cards if you have not already done so. And if you haven't found the ones you want at a price you can afford, drop out to Highland Shopping Center and look over the selection at T.G. & Y.

While there, look over their Christmas decorations that have been put out for the holiday season. And all in one trip, go ahead and look at the toy selection and compare prices to other stores.

They also have a layaway service, so you might as well start that really serious Christmas shopping now. But first things first, those cards must be selected soon if you are going to have time to address them all, add the little personal notes that mean so much and get them mailed early enough to assure delivery. Start thinking Christmas if you wish to avoid that last minute rush. And drop by T.G. & Y. to do some planning.

Even During Holiday Season, Some Never Invite Guests Home

Some people never have the neighbors in . . . and it's understandable. Who wants to take a chance on the neighbor spotting a cockroach flitting across a counter, or down a drain? So it is that thousands of housewives, all over America, never join a Kaffee Klatch, because they know they can never take their turns having the girls in. Or can they? Of course they can. All they have to do is discover Johnston's No-Roach . . . the sure-fire answer to cockroach problems. Not to mention ants . . . and silverfish . . . and spiders . . . and so forth. No-Roach, the household insecticide that keeps the promise of its name. The seeming magic about No-Roach is the ease with which it is used. You just brush it on (No-Toach supplies the brush) anywhere that roaches or other crawling pests may assemble: across doorways, windowsills and baseboards; in cupboards and along the edges of kitchen cabinets. No-Roach dries to an invisible shield that is colorless and odorless. All the time you are serving coffee to the neighbors, No-Roach is killing cockroach eggs back in the nest . . . 'cause every roach (or insect of any kind) that crosses No-Roach, picks it up on its feet and takes it home. Do the neighborly thing. Serve the ladies on the block a cup of coffee in a roach-free kitchen. . . thanks to Johnston's No-Roach. Available at: Safeway, Furr's, Piggly Wiggly, Gibson's, Foodway, Giant Discount and all grocery stores. Distributed by Kimbell.

Judge Is Criticized For Lenient Terms

DALLAS (AP) — A federal drug official has criticized U.S. District Judge William Wayne Justice of Tyler for giving what the drug official says are lenient sentences to drug offenders.

Arthur Fluhr, deputy regional director of the Drug Enforcement Agency in Dallas, said Thursday the judge's sentences have frustrated law enforcement officers.

"Why am I putting agents on the street, where they put their lives on the line, only to have a judge let off a convicted heroin dealer with a sentence to urinate 520 times in a bottle?" Fluhr asked.

Fluhr said he received word this week that Judge Justice had given Dwayne Shane Thomas, 20, a five-year probation sentence for sale and possession of heroin. A condition of the probation was that Thomas give a urine sample to a medical official twice a week for the next five years. The urine test can detect heroin use.

"This is just an advertisement for other drug dealers that they're going to get a free ride in the courts for their first offenses," Fluhr complained.

He said that when Thomas was arrested in Sherman Dec. 19, 1973, he struck a female drug agent on the head with a gun and fired shots at two other agents.

"I can understand the need for compassion in handling the many problems brought before the court," Fluhr said, "but we believe the courts should provide punishment appropriate to the offense. We cannot have a revolving door and accomplish anything."

Fluhr said low bonds and light sentences handed out by judges and magistrates have been "demoralizing" the law enforcement officers "who have to keep catching the same offenders over and over again."

The drug official added: "I'm not bloodthirsty. But I can't help but get exasperated when I see ridiculous sentences like this."

Scouters Set For Banquet

A fast-moving program has been arranged for the annual Lone Star Scout recognition banquet Dec. 3, Bill Bradford, chairman, reported today.

While the program centers on recognition of adult leaders, particularly unit leaders, it will be developed around a campfire theme. Art Hyman, new field executive, will be in charge of citing the unit leaders, and Ben Johnson II will put the spotlight on boys who have attained Eagle rank during the year. Roundup awards will be handled by Clem Jones, commissioner.

Presiding will be J. Arnold Marshall, retiring district chairman, and the installation of new officers will be led by Steve Odom, executive for the Buffalo Trails Council. Bradford said there will be some special features, among them a brief Indian dance by the Order of Arrow.

Tickets ($3) may be had through the various units, or from Marshall (at H.W. Smith Transport), or Joe Pickle at the herald.

Among other chairmen announced were: Guy Griffith, physical facilities; Reeves Moren and Clem Jones, tickets; Rev. Lester Uitz, unit participation; Joe Pickle, publicity; Wm. T. McRee and Tom Locke, parade.

GM, Ford Furloughing Workers In December

DETROIT (AP) — At least 145,000 blue collar auto workers and thousands more white collar employees will be out of work part or all of next month because of mounting production cutbacks in the faltering automobile industry.

General Motors said Thursday it will shut nine car assembly plants for one or two weeks in December and lay off 30,000 workers because of declining sales.

Meanwhile, Ford Motor Co. said it is furloughing 3,000 white collar workers Dec. 1. Chrysler Corp. revealed plans to lay off white collar workers soon, but would not confirm reports that the number would be as high as 15,000.

In Windsor, Ont., Chrysler of Canada said 1,700 workers will be laid off starting today from Canadian plants which supply parts for the firm's U.S. operations.

The latest GM layoffs will mean more than 20 per cent of the industry's hourly work force of about 700,000 will be jobless next month, about 80,000 of them indefinitely. An additional 20,000 workers have been scheduled for temporary layoffs this month only.

Blue collar layoffs next month currently are estimated at 64,200 at Chrysler, 49,000 at Ford and 31,000 at General Motors.

GM, which currently has nearly 40,000 hourly workers on indefinite layoff, said workers temporarily furloughed next month will receive full holiday pay for the normal Christmas-to-

New Years shutdown. In other developments Thursday:

—Ford announced it has cut $66 off the base price of its subcompact two-door Pinto, which suffered a 37 per cent sales decline in early November.

Ford said the Pinto will now carry a base price of $2,769, making it the lowest priced American-made car. Ford also said it is using less expensive tires as standard equipment, reducing prices another $84.

—Toyota Motor Sales U.S.A. announced in Torrance, Calif., that its 1975 Corona and Celica models will be priced between $440 and $615 higher than comparable 1974 models.

Toyota said the increases, which range from 12.5 to 16.6 per cent, are the result of inflated production costs and the addition of new or improved standard equipment.

The Chrysler and GM production cutbacks come in the face of a 30 per cent drop in new model sales.

GM said its plants in North Tarrytown, N.Y.; Van Nuys and Southgate, Calif., will be closed for two weeks starting Dec. 2. Plants at Fairfax, Kan., and Willow Run, Mich., will be shut for the weeks of Dec. 2 and Dec. 16.

A food basket for a local family was prepared by members of Alpha Beta Omicron, Beta Sigma Phi, during a Tuesday meeting in the home of Mrs. Emily Phillips, 121-B Barksdale. Also, a Thanksgiving remembrance was sent to a nursing home resident who has been "adopted" by the chapter.

Mrs. Karen Frette, vice president, presided as fund-raising events were planned. A bake sale was slated Dec. 14 in Highland Center Mall, and donations are being accepted now for an event in which the prize will be a check for $50. It was announced that Mrs. Larry Harp won a coffee maker in the last fund-raising scheme.

The next regular meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 3 in the home of Mrs. Mary Brooks, Rt. 1, Box 119-C, and the chapter Christmas party will be Dec. 17.

AAUW Asks Support Bridge Of Rights Amendment Session

Any effort to repeal the Equal Rights Amendment in Texas will be opposed by the American Association of University Women, according to a statement made at Monday's meeting of the Big Spring Branch. Ms. Joey Grathwol, president, urged further study of the matter by members.

Locally, AAUW members will continue their support of efforts to secure a child protective worker in Howard County. Ms. Grathwol reported on the Commissioners Court held that morning regarding the prospects of securing such a worker.

The program, given by Mrs. Janelle Collier, dealt with promoting sharing, understanding and friendship among members.

Mrs. Thelma Carlile reported on the plans for an International Luncheon to be held Dec. 7 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of First United Methodist Church. Tickets are being sold for $2 each. Proceeds will benefit the AAUW Scholarship Program.

Mrs. Carolyn Reese placed first, and Mrs. Pearl Utz was second at the bridge game held Tuesday by the Newcomers Club at Pioneer Gas Flame Room. Bridge-o was won by Mrs. Fran Wyatt.

The hostesses were Mrs. Utz and Mrs. Rose Sparks, with Mrs. Barbara Williams being introduced as a guest.

Money was collected to provide a Thanksgiving basket for a local family. The next meeting will be a luncheon at 11:30 a.m., Dec. 3 in the Flame Room.

Sale Saturday

Home baked food will be offered at the bake sales sponsored by Boydston Parent-Teacher Association Saturday from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Locations are Furr's Supermarket, Highland Mall and Safeway on Gregg Street. Proceeds will go into a fund to buy a piano.

Mrs. Adkins Will Be Feted Sunday

Mrs. Nannie Adkins will be honored on her 90th birthday Sunday with a reception in the East Fourth Baptist Church from 3 to 5 p.m. All relatives and friends are invited to attend.

The affair will be hosted by Mrs. Adkins' children, Mrs. Winifred, Mrs. Bernice Micallef, Archie J. Adkins, Charlie Adkins, Lawrence Adkins and Mrs. Norma Awtry, all of Big Spring; and Mrs. Margaret Marion, Idalou. One son, Bob Adkins, is deceased.

There are 20 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren. Born in Ellis County Nov. 25, 1884, Mrs. Adkins came to Big Spring in 1919. In 1904, she was married to David Walter Adkins, who died in 1938. She maintains a home at 2103 Johnson. A long-time member of East Fourth Baptist Church, Mrs. Adkins is also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Rebekah Lodge 284 and the Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of World War. I. Her hobby is piecing and quilting quilts.

Mrs. and Mrs. Domingo Abreo will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary with a ceremony at 2 p.m., Saturday in Le Fe Baptist Church

Texas Bouquet Club Has Guest Speaker

The best methods of caring for African Violets were told by Dr. Paul Koshi Wednesday when the Texas Bouquet African Violet Club met in the Koshi home with Mrs. Koshi as hostess.

Dr. Koshi told how to plant, fertilize the soil, when and how to water and how to read the atmospheric temperature for African Violets. He also told the type of soil needed for growing the plants and said high humidity is an asset to growing.

It was reported the Cottonwood Park area cleanup by city crews will be started soon. The club plans to beautify the grounds by planting bulbs.

Also a report was made from those working with the greenhouse at Big Spring Nursing Inn. It has been cleaned and prepared for the winter. The outdoor garden flourished during the summer and is still being maintained.

Date of the placement show has been changed to April 9, 1975, in the home of Mrs. L. B. Edwards.

Mrs. Odell Womack named a nominating committee which will report at the Christmas luncheon at Big Spring Country Club Dec. 18.

The executive board requested the club meetings be held at 2 p.m. instead of 4 p.m., the matter to be voted on at the next meeting.

Thanksgiving Luncheon Held

The Airport Home Demonstration Club held its Thanksgiving luncheon Tuesday at Furr's Cafeteria then reconvened at the home of Mrs. V. L. Smedley.

Mrs. Smedley brought the devotion, and Mrs. Vern Vigar reported from the council.

Gifts were sent to residents at Big Spring State Hospital.

The covered dish luncheon Dec. 18 will be the Christmas party and will begin at 12:30 p.m. Each member is to bring a gift to exchange and also one for her secret "pal."

Garden Club Hears Speaker

Dr. Paul Koshi of the U. S. Experiment Station was guest speaker Tuesday for the After Five Garden Club in the nurses' quarters, Veterans Administration Hospital.

Hostesses were Mrs. Huey Rogers and Mrs. Charles Porch. Mrs. Fisher Tynes was a guest.

Drip irrigation was Dr. Koshi's topic. He explained this type of irrigation is excellent in semi-arid and arid areas since each plant or tree is individually watered instead of all the soil. This is accomplished by flexible hose with emitters spaced in the hose at whatever distance apart is desired. The emitters come in various sizes.

The Christmas party will be at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 17 in the home of Mrs. J. E. Smith, 2806 Navajo.

Hubby Should Quit Keeping Score

DEAR ABBY: I am 44 and Louie (my husband) is 49. I work in a laundry ten hours a day, and when night time comes I need a rest. Louie still acts like a teen-ager when it comes to sex. He can't get enough.

On weekends if we go for a drive in the country, Louie starts looking for an abandoned farmhouse or a secluded road. When we go for a walk in the woods, Louis looks for some bushes for us to crawl under. (We were nearly caught several times.)

I got so tired of being hounded for sex, I made Louie ask our family doctor how much sex was normal for people our age. The doc said three times a week was normal, so now Louis keeps a record. If it's less than three times a week, he says I owe him, and he adds it on to the next week.

I am falling behind, and dread the thought of going on a vacation trip with this man. Any suggestions?

I lost my teen-age son, Steve, in a motorcycle accident. He sang, played the guitar and had grown so tall and handsome. So many people loved him — and still do.

I will treasure some of the items he used in his everyday life. They were part of my life, too. I'm glad no one did me the favor of getting rid of all his belongings.

DEAR TIRE: The time for sex is when BOTH partners are agreeable. Louie shouldn't feel that he's entitled to a certain number of encounters, and you shouldn't be made to feel that you "owe" it to him. Tell him to quit keeping score — you'll tell him when you're ready.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me what to do with a 10-year-old boy who is such a coward he lets every kid in the neighborhood (some younger and smaller than he is) pick on him and boss him around.

He won't stand up for his rights. In fact, he will run away from a fight rather than try to defend himself. My husband and I have scolded him and even punished him, but it hasn't done any good. How can we get him to change?

He's not stupid. He loves sports, except boxing and wrestling. Or are some kids born to run from a fight?
ASHAMED

DEAR ASHAMED: What's so great about exchanging punches? There is a lot to be said for avoiding physical combat, so don't scold or punish your son if he chooses to go the nonviolent route.

I can understand that. Going through the

Mass Transit Ideas Carefully Screened

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A bus propelled by passengers pumping on a set of pedals. Put commuters into capsules and shoot them onto passing trains. Cushions on top of the trains would soften the landings. A string of electromagnets to propel vehicles. How do these ideas grab you as solutions to the mass transit problem? They are among more than 12,000 responses to a nationwide advertising campaign by Atlantic Richfield Co. of Los Angeles, asking for ideas on public transportation.

Some are fantastic suggestions from children and others are seriously thought out proposals by business and professional people. "There is some junk," said George V. Kriste, an Arco attorney who heads the team handling the mail. "But the percentage who take it seriously is very high—70 per cent to 80 per cent or more. The ideas may be obsolete, or far-fetched, but most are serious." Arco says it will publicize some ideas and pass others on to appropriate government agencies. A team of readers throws out ideas which are obviously impractical or already in use. Ideas that seem to have a glimmer of hope are forwarded to a second review board composed of graduate students in transportation and urban planning. The ideas that survive the second screening go on to a panel of professors of urban planning, architecture and transportation. Not all of the ideas are new. Robert E. Spaulding, a retired architect of Mount Prospect, Ill., sent in a drawing he did in 1930 when he was fresh out of college with no job. The drawing shows rail cars traveling high above city streets, suspended from guideways attached to building facades.

One man suggested that commuters use single-seat, wedge-shaped cars that could be rolled onto railroad flatcars from alternate sides and carried downtown. A woman suggested that buses be built so the seats were quickly removable, turning the bus into a cargo delivery vehicle when rush hour was over. Some letter writers are mainly interested in financing rapid transit. One suggestion was to use state lotteries to raise cash, while another was for the government to issue federal transit loans. A number of letters contained no suggestions at all. They were from government officials in California, Oregon, Arizona, New York and Washington, D.C., asking to see the ideas the public has come up with.

It's Still Not Known If Tapes Can Be Aired

NEW YORK (AP) — Although a House subcommittee has approved a Senate bill which in part requires public access to Watergate-related White House tapes, it's uncertain if this includes broadcasting of the tapes. "Frankly, this was a matter that just didn't come up," says Rep. John Brademas, D-Ind., chairman of a House Administration subcommittee which approved the measure this week. The bill is intended to nullify a Sept. 6 agreement between former President Richard M. Nixon and the government concerning control by Nixon of his presidential tapes and papers. It specifically requires access to provide the public "the full truth, at the earliest reasonable date, of the abuses of governmental power popularly identified under the generic term Watergate." But it doesn't spell out what public access means, although Brademas has said in a statement it would open Nixon's tapes and papers to "examination by scholars, journalists and the public." The congressman, asked later by phone if this means broadcast journalists could record the tapes for airing on radio and TV, said no one even had posed that question of him until now. "The bill provides that regulations (on access to the tapes and papers) be made by the General Services Administration, subject to congressional veto," he said. "In my view, it wouldn't be wise to try to spell out every regulation in the bill. But I think its language is broad enough to allow the GSA to propose regulations that would permit the broadcasting of the tapes."

Brademas, who said the measure would be considered next week by the full House Administration Committee, said he would have no objections to allowing the broadcast of the Watergate tapes. And, he said, "I don't think most members of the Congress would have any objection to the broadcasting of these particular tapes."

Union Thanksgiving Service Slated; Dr. Wilson To Be Honored Sunday

By MARJ CARPENTER
The traditional Union Thanksgiving services will be held at 8 p.m. Monday in the City Auditorium. "It's Cool in the Furnace" will be presented using 150 local children from children's choirs from Baptist Temple, College Baptist, First Christian, First Presbyterian, First United Methodist, Immaculate Heart of Mary School, St. Paul Lutheran, Trinity Lutheran, Wesley United Methodist, Westside Community Center.

Ken Sprinkle, director will be assisted by Dan McClinton, David Norvelle, Nancy Puckette, Jean Kuykendall, Charles Parham, Cathy Cosden, Ruth Frimmel, Paulette Schafer, Libby Ford and Susan Dawes.

Dramatics will be directed by John Gordon. The Howard County Ministerial Fellowship, headed by the Rev. J. B. Sharp, First United Methodist pastor, will be in charge of the first portion of the service. Gene Curry will direct the pit orchestra. Kim Thompson and Kelly Draper will be lead narrators. Other speaking parts are by Tammy Greenfield, Diana Matthews and Mike Franco.

Dr. Grady Wilson will be honored Sunday 2:30 p.m. in special services at the West Texas Ranch for Christ, 23 miles south of Sweetwater on Highway 70.

George Beverley Shea and Steve Musto head a list of special guests, including the 300-voice choir from Hardin-Simmons University.

Services will be in the big tent across from the Discipleship Lodge at the ranch. Those attending are asked to bring lawn chairs.

IN KEEPING with their annual practice the members of Trinity Lutheran Church, Virginia Ave. and Marcy Dr. will observe the Festival of Thanksgiving in their morning worship service on Sunday at 11 a.m.

The Pastor, the Rev. Lester M. Utz S.T.M. M.E.D. will use as his sermon theme for his Annual Thanksgiving Sermon, "For What ARE You Thankful For?" Special music will be presented and a display of autumn flowers will grace the altar and chancel. The public is cordially invited to the service.

Following Sunday the Pastor and Mrs. Utz will be spending the week in East Texas where he will attend a gathering of the ministers of the Texas-La. Synod at Luthertown, near LeGrange, for a two day conference with Dr. Robert Marshall, president of the Lutheran Church in America.

Beginning at 2:30 p.m. Sunday the general public is being invited to assemble at West Texas Ranch for Christ, 23 miles south of Sweetwater off the San Angelo Highway for an area-wide evangelistic camp meeting at which Dr. Grady Wilson will preach.

Immaculate Heart Celebrates Book Week

An interested by-stander might label it Project Newbery and Caldecott. But to the sixth graders at Immaculate Heart of Mary School under the guidance of their teacher, Mrs. Renee Rizzo, National Book Week has come to mean more than a project to be researched, submitted, then forgotten.

Though National Book Week was November 11-17, the sixth graders started the week before in preparation for their arrival. Each sixth grader was assigned a Newbery medal book and a Caldecott medal book. The Newbery medal is given each year to the author of the most distinguished book written for children. The Caldecott medal is given each year to the illustrator of the most distinguished picture book for children.

Each sixth grader then read both his Newbery and Caldecott medal books, prepared a written summary on 4x6 cards about the books' content, researched the author of the Newbery book and the illustrator of the Caldecott book for interesting facts about their lives, and designed one poster which depicted a scene from either their Newbery or Caldecott medal books.

When National Book Week arrived, each day a few of the sixth graders would present in the form of a speech their book summaries, author-illustrator information and poster to the class. The sixth graders were also scheduled to read their picture books every day, one reading to kindergarten in the morning, and one sixth grader reading to the first grade in the afternoon.

The sixth graders were also taken to Webb Air Force Library for National Book Week Open House on November 13. They were given a tour of the library and its facilities by Mr. Kennedy, base librarian, and Mrs. Redman, also a base librarian. National Book Week was discussed along with the various books the children had read. The sixth graders were treated to punch, cookies, pens, and bookmarks. This tour was one of many highlights of National Book Week, which explains why it has come to mean more than just another project to be researched, submitted, then forgotten.

Johnny Cash Film Set Sunday

The story is old, but the perspective is up-dated and brought into sharp focus by the film "The Gospel Road" to be shown on Sunday, November 24, at several Big Spring churches.

Among the local churches that will show the film are the East Fourth Street Baptist at 7 p.m., the First United Methodist at 6 p.m., the Grace Baptist Church at 7 p.m. and the First Baptist at 7 p.m.

"The Gospel Road," distributed by World Wide Pictures, was conceived and produced by Johnny Cash and his wife, June Carter Cash, whose desire was to tell the story of Jesus Christ in a realistic and meaningful way.

The film is a unique blend of scripture-based narrative, an abundant supply of specially written songs, and a series of in-depth character portrayals, with Israel itself as the mixing bowl.

You are there, walking beside the Jordan and the Sea of Galilee; you are there, seeing Him in many human situations that establish a practical and personal rapport with every viewer.

You are there, being introduced to the disciples, and gaining insights into their varied personalities. You are there, experiencing the highly charged emotional impact of the trial before Pilate, and becoming so personally involved that you feel sympathetic pain when Robert Elfstrom, in an outstanding portrayal of Christ, suffers the physical attack that precedes the Crucifixion.

Adding to the effectiveness of "The Gospel Road" is its endeavor to convey reality for this day are: the fascinating treatment of the Crucifixion, making this tragedy an event of significance that reaches from its own time across the years to take on meaning for all men of all ages; and the songs and background music of Johnny Cash and other outstanding musicians.

JOHNNY CASH

whose contemporary style is not out of keeping with the story... a story that reveals that His darkest day has become our brightest.

The invitation to attend the showing of this film is open to everyone in Big Spring and the surrounding area. There will be no admission charge but a freewill offering will be taken to defray expenses for the showing.

Bishop Due

The Rt. Rev. Willis Ryan Henton, bishop, of the Episcopal diocese of Northwest Texas, will make visitation to the Church of St. Mary the Virgin in Big Spring this Sunday. He will administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation and will celebrate at the Holy Eucharist.

The service begins at 5:30 p.m. The service will be followed by reception in the parish hall honoring the confirmands, the Bishop and Mrs. Henton. A parish dinner then follows at about 7 p.m. at the Howard College Cafeteria.

St. Mary's Thanksgiving service will be on Wednesday, November 27, at 6 p.m. The public is welcome to attend either or both of these services.

Lots Of Baptists Counted

A record 614,000 Texas Southern Baptists attended Sunday School last Sunday. The Big Spring Baptist Association contributed 4,015 of that.

A first High-Attendance-Day goal of 600,000 had been set by the Sunday School Division of the Baptist General Convention of Texas for 4,200 Sunday Schools around the state.

"This record high is perhaps the greatest single achievement in the history of the Sunday School program," said Dr. John Sisemore, director of the Texas Baptist Sunday School Division.

Traditions

It must seem strange to people in other lands that we regard the turkey with so much affection. But that old gobble stands for a great deal.

He evokes to most of us the triumph at Plymouth, when the faith of the Pilgrims sustained them against overwhelming odds. His wild forefathers were a star attraction at that first Thanksgiving dinner. Thanks were given to God for a harvest that meant the continuance of life itself.

Turkeys are a tradition in America, a symbol. Like many symbols, they are easy to understand once you know the full story about them.

There are many symbols and customs in the Church too, and sometimes they may seem strange. Yet they also become easily understandable once we have studied them.

The Church today is one of the world's greatest sources of history. But it is moving along with history—for even while the old customs are maintained, there are changes and new interpretations to keep pace with our changing world.

Keep pace with the Church.

production, directed by Robert W. Sadler.

Their choice of an opening play was perfect for their cast. The play, produced first by Brock Pamberton at the Forty-Eighth Street Theatre in New York City Nov. 1, 1944, is a comedy which depicts a man who lives with a six-foot imaginary rabbit which he wants all of his friends to know.

The theme underlying the comedy is that sometimes people who are off-beat are more likeable than the average adult.

Scott Sullivan does a good job in the roll of the amiable Elwood who goes through the play making the audience and everyone around him see his rabbit.

Kathi Spannus as Ruth Kelley the nurse, Sean Grathwol and Cindy Sheppard as Dr. and Mrs. Chumley and Lee Gordan as Dr. Sanderson add credibility with their portrayal of the psychiatric staff. David Wrinkle adds comic relief to the staff as an orderly, Duane Wilson.

Julie Gatts as Myrtle Mae and Jamie Petty as Veta Simmons, sister of Elwood, suffer through the play in grand style due to their "weird brother and uncle."

Tim Tow plays Mrs. Chavenet, James Williams, Judge Gaffney and Connie Gomez, the cab driver, in back up roles that are well done.

For those who have expressed an interest in more drama in Big Spring, a good place to start would be backing the efforts of these high school youths.

They expressed special appreciation to Carter's Furniture who furnished them with the necessary props. Cindy Sheppard is stage manager, Kena Long and Jeana Miller, ticket managers, announce that tickets are $2 for adults and $1.50 for students.

The stage crew includes Betsy Owens, Wini Burer, Julie Moorehear, Harold Sherman, and Johnny Brumley. Karen Karwedsky handles makeup, Chris Burnett and Ray Lee lighting and John Sanders and Celestino Correa, sound.

Ushers are Andrya Glaser, Sandy Spriggs, Janie Martinez, and Karen Hamm. — by M.C.

Depression Killer Bees Head North At 200 Miles Per Year

KENOSHA, Wis. (AP) — "There was worry, anger, joy and love all jumbled together, and I have a deep feeling of unhappiness when I try to recall the things I want to forget."

Those are the words of Gertrude Haltman, and they apply to the Great Depression of the 1930s.

They appear with the recollections of more than a dozen other amateur authors in a 22-page booklet on sale during a fund-raising fair at the Kenosha Senior Citizens Center.

Mrs. Martin Bach, program coordinator for the community activities center, said the pamphlet was a hot sales item.

Mrs. Bach said members of a creative writing class, many of them retired persons who recall the deprivation of the 1930s, "wanted to contribute something," and they put "Reminiscences of Depression Days," a collection of essays and poems.

Mrs. Haltman, for example, relates the frustration felt by her husband who was a meat department manager in a grocery store.

"At the beginning of the Depression," she writes, "the government passed some kind of wage scale that was supposed to help people. But the firm my husband worked for took unfair advantage of it. They changed his title from manager to clerk and were able to cut him exactly one-third of his regular salary."

Lillian Lundin compares her experiences with today's cost of living, recalling seven-cent bus fares and hamburger for 10 cents a pound.

"We saved pennies, and it seemed we bought everything with pennies," Mrs. Lundin said. "Once, when the pennies were exhausted, we sold dad's gold inlays from teeth that were extracted, and bought cherries to eat."

"We had company for dinner one evening, and Lois, 3, said: 'Daddy, are these cherries from your gold teeth?'"

"Wealth we did not have. But there was good health and lots of love in our home," Edna E. Veale recalls her brother's frantic search through dresser drawers for five cents with which to buy tobacco. Suddenly he remembered having accidentally tossed a nickel which disappeared through a gap in some doorway woodwork.

"Off came the woodwork and they found the wedged nickel, which meant another day of smokes," she writes.

SANDIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Man-killing bees are moving toward Mexico and the United States from South America at the rate of about 200 miles annually, a California state entomologist said Thursday.

The bees, hatred of humans is said to have developed over millions of years as a result of raids on their tree-top honey hives.

"The danger cannot be discounted," said Dr. Marius Wasbauer, chief of an insect identification laboratory in Sacramento.

The aggressive insect is known as the Brazilian honeybee, a species indigenous to Africa which was introduced into Brazil by a geneticist who hoped to develop a cross-bred strain of bees with the superior honey-producing quality of the African variety, Wasbauer said in an interview.

In 1957 swarms of half-African drones escaped with a dozen African queen bees from the scientist's laboratory in Sao Paulo. Brazie, he said, and have since killed more than 300 persons annually along with thousands of animals.

Wasbauer is a member of a research team assigned $10,000 in U.S. agriculture funds to find out how to identify the man-hating bees from look-alikes which are peaceful.
