FORD ASKS STEELMAKERS TO ROLL BACK PRICES

Bleak Economic Picture

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's economy has turned in another set of distressing signals as more Americans are going to lose their jobs, paychecks shrank and the balance of payments deteriorated.

The gloomy economic indicators Wednesday were led by an announcement that the government was hit with the second largest deficit ever in the U.S. balance of payments in the third quarter, largely as a result of the high cost of foreign oil. The deficit of $3.6 billion compared with $2.5 billion for the second quarter and an all-time high of $3.9 billion in the first quarter of 1974.

In the midst of the new woes, President Ford appealed to steel producers not to boost prices as high as the 8 per cent hike announced by the industry leader, U.S. Steel. Acting under Ford's order, the Council on Wage and Price Stability has asked U.S. Steel to justify its price increase.

Some industry leaders say U.S. Steel may be forced to roll back at least some of its increase in light of the White House pressure.

Meanwhile, the government reported that 693,000 persons began filing new claims for unemployment insurance benefits during the first week of December. The claims, representing an increase of 169,500 over the previous week, were in addition to the 2,982,600 persons who already were receiving jobless benefits during the last week in November.

With more persons out of work, over-all personal income declined two-tenths of one per cent during November, or $2.2 billion at an annual rate, according to the Commerce Department. That compared with an increase of six-tenths of one per cent, or $7 billion, the previous month.

The Commerce Department also said that industrial payrolls fell 2.5 per cent last month, representing a $7 billion drop at an annual rate. The falloff was blamed on the coal strike and job layoffs in auto and other industries.

By the end of January about one-fourth of the blue-collar work force of the biggest automaker, General Motors, will be let go indefinitely. GM announced 6,000 more layoffs Wednesday, which will put 91,000 of its employees out of work by the end of January.

The number of hourly auto workers now set for indefinite layoff throughout the industry in January is at least 141,000. Their troubles are compounded by rapidly shrinking unemployment funds that will leave thousands of jobless workers with fewer benefits than expected.

The government's latest estimate of U.S. unemployment is for 7.5 per cent next year. But a group of Western economists predicted Wednesday that U.S. unemployment will hit 8 per cent by the end of the 1975 as part of a pattern of economic stagnation for most countries in the non-Communist world.

In another development, negotiators for striking coal construction workers and the industry reached tentative agreement on a new contract, which later was approved by a union bargaining council.

Picketing by the 4,500 construction workers, members of the United Mine Workers, has kept nearly half the nation's soft-coal miners away from their jobs.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nelson A. Rockefeller is headed for final congressional confirmation and then a televised inauguration today as the nation's 41st vice president. The House set aside six hours of debate but was not expected to take that much time before voting on Rockefeller's confirmation.

The inauguration was scheduled an hour later in the Senate chamber, with live television coverage permitted for the first time in the Senate's history.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress, acting to combat the unemployment that now affects nearly six million Americans, has passed a bill authorizing 330,000 public service jobs. The $5.5 billion bill cleared both House and Senate on Wednesday and went to President Ford for his expected signature. The bill also extends unemployment compensation to those not covered by existing programs, such as farm laborers, domestics and government employees.

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Many steel industry leaders say privately that they feel U.S. Steel Corp., in the face of White House anger, may have to roll back at least some of its average 8 per cent price hikes. And one insider said President Ford's angry reaction staved off — at least for the moment — similar price hikes planned by several other major producers, including No. 3 National, No. 6 Jones & Laughlin and No. 7 Inland Steel. So far, only 13th-ranked CF&I Steel Corp. of Pueblo, Colo., has followed top-ranked U.S. Steel in raising prices.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United Nations General Assembly has concluded its most controversial session in years, a session that demonstrated the voting power of the Arab and African bloc and climaxed with a great debate on the future of the world organization.

Assembly President Abdelaziz Bouteflika of Algeria closed the 1974 session at 10:06 p.m. Wednesday with a statement that he was glad to have helped bring about "new awareness of the United Nations" in a session that might prove to have been revolutionary.

MOSCOW (AP) — Leonid I. Brezhnev is 68 today, and Soviet sources say his health is good for a man of his age. They also reject any suggestion that the Communist party leader might step down soon. The exact state of his health and of the maneuvering for power in the Kremlin are closely held state secrets.

LAWYER SENTENCED Back-Dated Nixon's Deed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edward L. Morgan, a lawyer who illegally back-dated the deed turning Richard M. Nixon's pre-presidential papers over to the government, was sentenced today to four months in prison and 20 months' probation.

U.S. District Judge George L. Hart Jr., in passing sentence, said Morgan was a man "whose situation and circumstances cry out for mercy and decency."

But, the judge said, "I also find a lawyer who willfully betrayed his trust to the law and the public ... such an action cannot depart this court unlogged."

ADMITTED GUILTY

Morgan, 36, pleaded guilty on Nov. 6 to attempting to obtain more federal income tax deductions than were legally due former President Nixon and Nixon's wife, Pat.

A legal information, or charge, to which Morgan pleaded guilty said he misrepresented the date Nixon's papers had been donated to the government.

The purpose of the misrepresentation, according to the information, was to get around a new federal law which drastically reduced tax deductions permitted for the donation of such papers.

Nixon claimed a deduction of $95,298.45 for the papers on his 1969 tax return.

Just before handing down his sentence, Hart said, "I find a man who freely admits to making one terrible mistake in an effort to serve with misplaced loyalty a superior who held the highest office in the land."

Morgan could have received a maximum penalty of five years in jail or a fine of $10,000 or both. He pleaded guilty to a conspiracy to "impede, defeat and obstruct the proper and lawful governmental functions of the Internal Revenue Service."

Hart said he would allow Morgan to report voluntarily on Jan. 6 to the minimum security prison at Lompoc, Calif. to begin serving his four-month sentence.

Morgan lives in Los Angeles.

COMMENTS ON MEDIA EMPHASIS — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., who is leaving the Senate after 30 years, addresses the Wednesday meeting of the National Press Club in Washington. Fulbright said the news media places too much emphasis on personalities and not enough on policies.

James Van Ness Named Policeman Of Year

James Van Ness, patrolman for the City Police since June 1970, was awarded a plaque for policeman of the year Wednesday night at the annual Police Association Christmas dinner.

The plaque, presented by Detective Arven Henry, president of the association, was awarded for dedicated daily service on the job and also within the association. Runners-up for the honor were Patrolman Mike Pearson and Detective Alvis Jefferson.

The association conducts many projects during the year, including sponsoring two Little League teams, assisting police and their families when needed, holding a barbecue and dinner, providing drug abuse information for the public and the schools, furnish coffee at the police station, sponsor a flower fund and many other services.

The Rev. Gage Lloyd, who serves as chaplain for the organization, gave the invocation. Special guests included Police Chief and Mrs. Vance Chisum, Major and Mrs. Stanley Bogard, and Commissioner and Mrs. Harold Hall.

Following presentations and dinner, Joe Mollinary as Santa Clause presented gifts and sacks of fruit and candy to the children present.

As a deputy assistant to the president, Morgan was assigned in 1970 to help prepare Nixon's personal tax returns.

The new law covering charitable contributions of public papers carried a July 26, 1969, cutoff date.

While Nixon had not formally relinquished control of the papers, Morgan signed the papers included with the former President's tax return which said the gift to the government was made March 27, 1969, in time for the Nixons to claim the large deduction.

AT LAMESA Seven Policemen Quit By Request

LAMESA — Five patrolmen, three dispatchers and the chief of police are trying to man the entire police department after seven police officers and patrolmen resigned at the request of the chief and the city manager this week.

Chief J. P. Bobo issued a statement concerning the officers, who, Bobo said, either admitted participation or having knowledge of thefts at the school cafeterias during the past few months. Bobo expressed both bitterness and remorse that his officers had been involved.

City Manager C. A. Taylor requested that the chief "clean house" after law officials saw a patrolman and dispatcher come out of the Middle School cafeteria at 3 a.m. one night this week with cartons of milk and sandwiches.

The thefts had been occurring for several months and cafeteria personnel were being watched closely by school officials. Finally, a suspicion led law officials to set up a watch at night.

Thefts had occurred in both the middle school and high school. Some of the officers who have resigned are alleged to have been directly involved, while others had knowledge of the incidents.

Resigning were Capt. Fred Vera, Capt. Terry Brown, Sgt. Robert Irwin, Patrolmen Steve Vestal, James Newsom and A. L. Huckabee and Dispatcher Bruce Dotson.

School Kids Open 19-Day Vacation

Today was to be the final day of classes for Big Spring school students until Jan. 8. Teachers return Jan. 6.

Activities tonight for high school students include a concert of Christmas music in the high school auditorium, starting at 6:30 p.m. It is open to the public and the fee for admission is $1. Jack Bowser's BSHS Choir Department will offer the program.

A dance for high school students will be held in the school cafeteria, starting at 8 p.m.

Teachers report to all schools Friday for a teacher work day to work on semester grading and records.

The day after Christmas, the high school band will begin serious work on its Campus Revue 75, when Todd Laine arrives to assist Bill Bradley and Gene Currie with the annual event.

At Howard College classes will be dismissed Friday for the holidays and mid term with registration for the second semester beginning Jan. 20. Faculty members return Jan. 6.

In the area, Coahoma ends its semester at 2:30 p.m. Friday with classes resuming Jan. 6.

At Garden City and Sands High School at Ackerly, classes let out Friday and begin again Jan. 2. Stanton also dismisses classes Friday and resumes Jan. 6.

3 Youths Charged

A case involving an estimated $1,500 worth of turquoise jewelry missing from a local business firm was solved expediently Wednesday after a car bearing three youths was stopped near Vealmoor on the Snyder Highway by Sheriff A. N. Standard, Deputy Eddie Owen and two Snyder highway patrolmen.

City Det. Avern Henry said a search of the vehicle failed to turn up the missing jewelry.

Mrs. Vera McCloud, whose firm is at 500 Gregg, reported the incident to city police.

The car answered a description of a vehicle which had fled from the store at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. McCloud said one youth discussed "selling a fiddle" with her in the back of the store and the other two were near the front. As soon as they were gone, she discovered five necklaces to be missing.

The sheriff said one of the youths did not have a driver's license and there was a minor in possession of alcohol in the vehicle. The youths voluntarily returned to the police station.

Ernest Clifton Henry, 18, and Matthew Clarence Lyle, 19, both of Snyder, were charged with felony theft. Their bond was set this morning by Justice of the Peace Walter Grice at $5,000 each. They were still in city jail this morning. There was also a 16 year old juvenile boy in custody.

Deal Finalized For Station

Assignment of radio station KBYG's broadcasting license from Howard County Broadcasting Inc., to the Texarkana-based firm of TenTex Broadcasting Inc., for the consideration of $270,000 and the grant fee of $5,400 has been announced by the Federal Communications Commission.

Hugh D. Frizzell of Texarkana is president and principal stockholder of the new owner. TenTex also operates station KTFS in Texarkana.

Jim Baum will remain as manager of the local station. Negotiations for the sale of all properties of the station started the past summer. The former owners headquarter in Beaumont.

In other action reported by the FCC, involving station KJOE in Shreveport, La., owned by Dynamic Broadcasting Corp., assignment of license was granted to Coastal Broadcasting Corp., for $185,000 and a grant fee of $3,700.

Thunderbirds To Perform

The United States Air Force Aerial Demonstration team, more popularly identified as the Thunderbirds, will perform at Webb AFB Sunday, Aug. 3, 1975, according to the word received at Webb recently.

Local Girl To Spend Yule In Hospital

Ashley Lewis, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van Lewis of Big Spring, will probably spend Christmas in a hospital.

It may be the Children's Hospital or it could be the Scottish Rite Hospital, both are in Dallas. George Bair and Harvey Houser of the local Shriners were instrumental in getting her application approved by the Scottish Rite Hospital.

She was there only a little while when they transferred her to the Children's Hospital for kidney surgery. She will be returned to the Scottish Rite Hospital, when her condition warrants.

This alert youngster has been in hospitals her entire life, due to birth defects.

While still an infant she went to Lubbock Methodist Hospital for repairs to her spine and to put a shunt in her head, according to Mrs. Jimmy Parks of Big Spring, one of her grandmothers.

This later had to be redone due to complications causing drainage into her lungs. She also has had a fusion operation on her spine.

Ashley also underwent surgery to place her hip joints back into the sockets. She is paralyzed from the waist down.

Her grandparents are Texas Highway Patrolman and Mrs. Jimmy Parks, the late Charles Campbell and Juanita Campbell of Fort Worth.

UNNECESSARY X RAYS — Priscella Laws, associate professor of physics at Dickinson College, briefs newsmen in Washington Wednesday on her report that unnecessary X rays cost Americans an estimated $184 billion a year and may claim as many as 1,000 lives. She said 30 per cent of the 130 million medical and dental X rays taken annually cannot be medically justified.

COCKTAILS TOP TEA
'Woman Is No Longer The Hidden Alcoholic'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Unlike their grandmothers who left the room when men drank port, women today are indulging in a nip themselves more openly and more frequently, an Alcoholics Anonymous survey shows. The report released Tuesday to the North American Congress on Alcohol and Drug Problems also disclosed that the percentage of women members of Alcoholics Anonymous has increased steadily over the past few years.

SOCIAL DRINK
"When I was coming up, the acceptable social drink for women was tea," Dr. John L. Norris, chairman of the Alcoholics Anonymous board, told a news conference. "Now, it's cocktails."

The report said women accounted for 31 per cent of the organization's new members in the past three years. It said they make up 28 per cent of the group's membership, compared with 26 per cent in 1971 and 22 per cent in 1968.

Walter Murphy, a spokesman for the conference, said changing social customs have contributed to the increased number of women alcoholics.

"Always there were housewives who stayed home and no one knew they were alcoholics," he said. "Now since they are going into professional and executive positions, the woman is no longer the hidden alcoholic."

LOSES CONTROL
The survey is taken every three years among Alcoholics Anonymous groups in the United States and Canada. A total of 11,355 of the organization's estimated 285,000 members were polled.

Norris said it is difficult to define an alcoholic, but that there are about 5 million to 10 million people in America believed to be alcoholics.

"The nearest thing we have to a definition of alcoholism is when a person loses control of his drinking," he said. "In other words, when a person continually breaks his promises to himself, his family and his friends about cutting down on his drinking. At that point, he has more or less crossed over from social drinking to alcoholism."

Colleges Look To Arab Oil Countries For Gifts

NEW YORK (AP) — With dollars tight at home, American universities are beginning to look to Middle East oil producing countries for gifts and money to support special programs.

The University of Southern California recently received $1 million from Iran for a special professorship in petroleum engineering. George Washington University received $1 million from Iran for a professorship in multinational management.

EXPLORING
"Many universities are presently zeroing in on support from the oil-producing countries," said Charles Thompson, a development officer at Harvard University. "We are exploring the feasibility and possibility of support from certain countries over there."

Harvard has not received any money from the Arab countries, Thompson said. But faculty members with expertise in Middle East affairs are consulted regularly by countries there and "these consultations naturally lead to further discussions."

Multi-million dollar gifts from Japan and West Germany made campus fund raisers aware in recent years of the possibilities overseas.

The Japanese government gave $10 million for Japanese studies programs at 10 American universities. The Krupp Foundation of West Germany gave Harvard $2 million for European studies programs.

NO STRINGS
College presidents and professors now are dispatched regularly to capitals abroad. Private universities are doing most of the pitching, but public institutions are also looking for money overseas.

The University of Michigan sent a member of its Near Eastern Studies faculty to Kuwait and Saudi Arabia last summer. "It was just an exploratory visit to talk with people," said Michael Radock, vice president for university development — the term used now for fund raising.

Campus fund raisers looking for money from the Arab states say they are aware of the possible political ramifications of such gifts. All say that Arab money must come with no strings attached.

"What we are seeking is the kind of support that is not a propaganda-type activity," said Radock.

Another area of sensitivity which none of the fund raisers would talk about on the record is the possibility that accepting Arab money might turn off important Jewish or pro-Israeli contributors.

Only 5 Letters Sent To Santa

Times are so hard that Santa Claus hasn't been getting any letters. The local Post Office reports only five. Jaycees are interested in needy children who might not otherwise hear from Santa. If letters are sent to Santa Claus at the North Pole within the next two days, with proper return addresses and apparent real need, they just might get answered.

Letters that include requests for one toy per child are thought by Santa's helpers to be a little more humble and realistic, according to one of the local elves.

CC Workshop Set In Lamesa

The Big Spring Chamber of Commerce will be represented at a West Texas Chamber of Commerce Leader's Workshop slated for February 11 in Lamesa.

The conference will provide a one-day training opportunity for voluntary leaders.

Chamber presidents and directors from throughout West Texas will be attending the workshops, that are also scheduled for Amarillo, Brownwood and Graham.

Chicano Judge Request Made

ROBSTOWN, Tex. (AP) — The judge for a newly created judicial district in Nueces County should be a chicano, an official of Raza Unida party told Gov. Dolph Briscoe Wednesday.

The request was made in a telegram to Gov. Briscoe from Guadalupe Young blood, state chairperson of Raza Unida.

"In view of the fact that you will soon appoint a district judge for the county of Nueces and that there has never been a chicano district judge in a county with a chicano majority, it is only fitting that you comply with your campaign promises to deal fairly with our people," the telegram said.

It can be noted that they may not refer to themselves as "chicano," but there are elected Mexican-American judges in Cameron, Hidalgo and Duval counties in South Texas.

Santa, Couple Helpers Using 'Sexploitation'

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, where race and sex discrimination is a daily concern, some staffers spied "sexploitation" when two of Santa's helpers showed up this year strolling the corridors in scanty costumes.

A meeting was called to hear out the offended staffers Tuesday and Santa himself was put on trial, as one participant put it. The verdict after a tumultuous hour-long session was not guilty.

SCANTILY CLAD
HEW has a large contingent of hard-core feminists, and the wrath of liberated womanhood soon descended on Roberts. There were at least 15 complaints from the department's 130,000 employees.

"They felt I was using scantily clad women to entice men to contribute," Roberts said.

The department's Federal Women's Program demanded that the girls cover up, because miniskirt

Today, father and son will switch places with Doug taking his turn to argue a case and his father sitting in the audience.

Another son and his wife also have law degrees, as does the Rogers' daughter. The third son doesn't.

COPS SUFFERED IN HOT CARS

Police Grandmother Never Uses Her .38

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — Kay Petersen is not an average grandmother. For one thing, she carries a .38-caliber revolver.

Mrs. Petersen, who became the first woman detective in the history of the Wichita Falls Police Department in January, recently celebrated 25 years with the department.

When Mrs. Petersen was hired Oct. 10, 1949, there was only one other woman working in the department. Her first job was secretary to Chief C.C. "Bud" Daniel.

INFORMATION DESK
"I went to work for Chief Daniel six weeks after he became chief," she said. "I was in his office for 22 years. You don't work for someone that person pretty good. He is one of the most considerate persons of the other fellow that you'll ever meet. The knowledge I gained while working for the chief has helped me in my current job (juvenile detective)."

"After I left the chief's office, I went to the information desk where I worked for two years," she said.

"I guess one of my greatest thrills was when Wallace Beasley (former director of the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Education) presented me with my state (detective) certification," she said. "It was pretty nice when the top law enforcement man in Texas came."

KIND, COURTEOUS
"When I became a detective, my main concern was not knowing how I would be accepted by the men,"

she said. "But I must say the men have responded very favorably. They have been kind and courteous."

"I feel that the doors have been opened for a woman to pursue a career in law enforcement if she wants to," she said.

Mrs. Petersen and her husband, Sid, have two children, Bill and Sandy, and a grandson.

When asked how her daughter felt about her becoming the first woman detective, Mrs. Petersen responded, "I'd worked here so long she didn't think much about it."

the equipment used and the way cases are assigned," she said.

"I guess one of the best changes was when patrolmen got air conditioned patrol cars," Mrs. Petersen noted. "It gets very hot here in the summer. Those patrolmen really suffered in those hot cars."

Like on any other job, Mrs. Petersen has some problems. She and 13 other women have filed three suits against the police department because of some of the practices.

HUMAN RIGHTS
"We were making about $100 less per month as men who were doing the same job," she explained. "We just didn't think it was fair and it wasn't in compliance with the law."

"We started with 14 girls 17 years ago," she added. "When we won the suit last there were a total of three girls left. Some had died and some had quit."

Mrs. Petersen said she was not a women's libber but definitely for human rights.

She said she has no plans for retiring. "I have three more years before I'm eligible for retirement benefits," she said. "I just couldn't quit and do nothing. I've worked here too long to do that. I'll retire when I feel like doing other things."

On The Wagon Since Last June?

LONDON (A) — Actor Richard Burton and Princess Elizabeth of Yugoslavia deny their engagement is off.

"Everything is exactly the same between Richard and I. We will marry as soon as my divorce is through," the 38-year-old princess said Monday. She was staying at her London home, which is owned by her estranged husband, financier Neil Balfour.

The London Daily Mirror quoted Burton, who was in Geneva, as saying: "All this stuff about us breaking up because of my drinking is absolute cock (nonsense). We are still together, still in love."

Earlier, the London Daily Mail said the couple had broken up because of Burton's drinking. Burton, 50, former husband of actress Elizabeth Taylor, told the Mirror he had been on the wagon since last June.

Fords To Ski In Colorado

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford says he and his family will fly to Colorado Sunday for their annual skiing vacation.

Ford said his son Jack is in Aspen, Colo., and reports "there is skiing."

The President had originally hoped to leave for the resort town of Vail today or Thursday, but had to postpone the departure because of the continuing congressional session.

Seize Heroin, Arrest Three

DALLAS (AP) — Federal agents seized nearly $500,000 worth of Mexican-originated heroin Tuesday and arrested three men, officials reported.

Arthur J. Fluhr, deputy regional director of the Drug Enforcement Agency, said agents confiscated 60 ounces of "fairly high quality" heroin. He called the amount substantial and said the seizure "will definitely put a bite in the drug market here."

The three arrested were held pending $50,000 bond each.

Volcano 'Restless'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mauna Loa, the world's largest volcano, is "restless," and U.S. Geological Survey scientists are studying the Hawaiian volcano for any hints of an eruption.

The Geological Survey said these hints include tremors which have recently increased in frequency from about 60 a day to over 1,000 a day. The largest quakes came over the weekend and registered 4.5 and 5.0 on the Richter scale, according to Dr. Donald Peterson, head of the USGS Hawaiian Volcano Observatory.

Scientists at the observatory have also noted that the 13,677-foot volcano "seems to be in an early stage of 'swelling.'" This and the earthquakes are probably caused by molten lava pushing up from deep within the earth, the survey said.

Cops Built Own Devices For Illegal Wiretaps

HOUSTON (AP) — Communications specialists with the Houston Police Department manufactured a number of sophisticated devices which were later used by officers for illegal wiretaps, according to documented evidence available to the Associated Press.

The evidence indicates that employees of the Houston Police communications division acquired a device from out-of-state sources and brought it to the police headquarters here where it was disassembled.

Specialists, using the device as a guide, then made a number of additional wiretap devices.

The information indicates the original device cost $3,000, but was copied for about $20.

The documented evidence also indicates that M.L. "Joe" Singleton, former head of the Houston Police Department intelligence division, had a first hand knowledge of massive illegal wiretap by lawmen here, but took no measures to stop it.

Singleton is currently administrator of the municipal courts.

He appeared last week before a federal grand jury which is probing illegal wiretapping by policemen, but stayed in the jury room less than five minutes. Houston newspapers later reported that he took the fifth amendment protection against self-incrimination.

Singleton's attorney, Carroll S. Weaver of Houston, earlier in the week said he had seen a transcript of a conversation between his client and Houston Police Chief Carrol M. Lynn. The conversation was secretly recorded by Lynn, according to Weaver.

The attorney claimed the transcript showed Singleton had no first hand knowledge of illegal wiretapping.

Chief Lynn declined to comment. He has also declined to confirm or deny that he recorded conversations.

Last month, however, Lynn said that some Houston officers took part in illegal "sophisticated" wiretapping that required the help and cooperation of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. employees.

Bell has denied the charge.

The Houston Chronicle reported Wednesday that Joe B. Humbarger, a civilian employe in the police communication division where the wiretap devices were allegedly made, testified before the grand jury two weeks ago.

Santa School Not Contacted Missing By Agents For ACLU

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — For the first time since he retired from ranching six years ago, Harold Gibson won't be playing Santa Claus in the Oklahoma Panhandle this Christmas.

The 75-year-old Gibson opened the Yuletide season in Guymon each year when he flew into the Texas County seat in a local chamber of commerce-sponsored helicopter. Wearing a baggy red suit and his own full, white beard, he visited schools, hospitals and nursing homes in the area, handing out gifts and spreading warmth and good cheer.

Gibson let his beard grow out as usual this year, but had to cut it short when he underwent chest surgery in November.

He now is living in an apartment in nearby Midwest City while undergoing cobalt treatment for cancer.

Throughout the year, Gibson handed out cards, telling people to call or write to Santa Claus at Paradise Valley, and listing his name and address in Hardesty.

"I got letters from pretty nearly everywhere," he says, "and kids were liable to ring anytime of the day or night."

Dr. Charles Hays, president of Howard College, said this morning he had not been contacted by representatives of the American Civil Liberties Union after it was disclosed Wednesday that the ACLU was looking into claims that the civil rights of two former Hawk basketball players, Willie Young and Darren Hodges, had been violated.

Young and Hodges left school after a dormitory room they had occupied was allegedly searched and a substance believed to be marijuana was discovered.

The two reportedly are claiming that they were denied a hearing by college officials, but Dr. Hays said that Young and Hodges actually were encouraged to remain in school.

The school president said the college official "had reasonable cause to search" the youth rooms. The search, he added, was carried out by Don Christopher while the team was on a road trip into the Galveston area during November.

When informed they would not be able to play basketball at the college again, the two left the campus immediately, Hays stated. Regular room checks are conducted by college personnel but residents of the dormitory are always notified in advance of such action.

The American Civil Liberties Union reportedly is also looking into a report of a wire-tapped phone on campus.

According to the ACLU, a source told them that the only private outside line on campus is that of the food service director, Jack McCormack.

He was reportedly having trouble with his telephone and called a repairman from Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. When the repairman checked the phone, he reportedly uncovered a wiretap and traced it to the school's security office.

Hays, when asked about the wiretap claim, said that the campus police had merely plugged a phone into a jack in their office for use at night in case of emergency. Hays added they did not know that the phone jack also connected to the phone in the food service center.

According to Hays, after the connection between the two phones was discovered, the phone in the campus police office was taken out.

He added that no wiretapping was ever done through the campus police phone, saying, "This phone was used only at night."

Juvenile Arrested

MARLIN, Tex. (AP) — A juvenile charged with murder in the slaying of a woman is to be transferred to a Waco juvenile detention home today.

Falls County Sheriff Brady Pamplin and Falls County Juvenile Officer Larry Pamplin, his son, arrested Marvin Carroll at his Marlin home Wednesday afternoon. Peace Justice J.E. Powell said he accepted a charge of murder against the youth. Pamplin said the boy's age has not been verified but it was given as 14.

Fire Victims Are Identified

HOUSTON (AP) — Police are searching for anyone who saw two Bryan teenagers between their disappearance Dec. 6 and when their bodies were found in a burning apartment Dec. 8.

The two girls were finally identified Wednesday. They are Stephanie Dooley, 13, daughter of Linda Roland Dooley, and Beverly Cargill, 13, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cargill.

The girls, junior high school classmates, apparently ran away from home Dec. 4 and hitchhiked to Houston along with two teen-aged boys.

THE HOT DOG STORY

A man lived by the side of the road and sold hot dogs. He was hard of hearing so he had no radio. He had trouble with his eyes so he read no newspapers. But he sold good hot dogs. He put up a sign on the highway telling how good they were. He stood by the side of the road and cried "Buy a hot dog, Mister." And people bought. He increased his meat and bun orders. He bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade. He got his son home from college to help him. But then something happened. His son said, "Father haven't you heard the news? There's a big recession on. The unemployment situation is terrible. The energy situation is worse." Whereupon the father thought, "Well my son has been to college. He reads the papers and he listens to the radio, and he ought to know." So the father cut down on his meat and bun orders, Took down his advertising signs, And no longer bothered to stand on the highway to sell hot dogs. And his hot dog sales fell almost over night. "You're right, son," the father said to the boy. "We are certainly in the middle of a great recession."

Bride Faces Legal Action

FARMINGTON, Utah (AP) — The bride of Wayne Osmond of the singing Osmond brothers, Kathlyn, has been sued in 2nd District Court for her alleged refusal to return scholarship money she won in a Miss Utah pageant.

Mrs. Osmond, 23, gave up her crown and married into the Osmond family in ceremonies performed last Friday at the Mormon Temple in Salt Lake City.

She was named Wednesday as defendant in a suit filed by Miss Utah Scholarship Pageant, Inc.

The legal action charges she has refused to return a portion of a scholarship she received when she was selected Miss Utah.

Saved By The Bell

The Rules Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives has given the oil depletion allowance a new lease on life last week, but this does not mean the issue is dead.

It is just postponed until the 94th Congress, which will be more hostile to oil depletion than the 93rd, convenes in January.

The Rules Committee, which serves as the traffic cop for the movement of bills to the House floor, simply killed the Ways and Means Committee tax reform bill which would, among other things, have ended the depletion allowance.

The committee did not even hold a hearing on the bill's merits. It decided it was too late in the session to pass the legislation out for floor debate.

There was a mixture of opposition to the bill which portends a renewal of the battle in the new Congress. Some opponents were from oil-state forces who claimed the bill was too tough on the petroleum industry. Others were liberals who insist it was too weak and urged delay until the new Congress convenes.

The new House in the 94th Congress, with 75 freshman members of its 435 total, will be more anti-oil industry than the present body. The odds are strong that a more punitive oil tax reform bill than the one just killed will come out of the Ways and Means Committee and perhaps pass the House.

The new Senate will not be that prejudiced against the petroleum industry. Sen. Russell Long of Louisiana will continue as chairman of the Senate Finance Committee which would consider the legislation. Sen. John Tower of Texas had promised, if necessary, to filibuster against the bill which has just been killed. Presumably he would still do so. There are two possibilities. One is that a worsening energy situation would awaken the need for positive encouragement of the petroleum industry. The other is that there be a lot better job explaining to the nation the individual gasoline and fuel oil consumer's stake in an industry capable of responding to the energy challenge.

Capitalism Is Contagious

Is capitalism — or at least some of its sharper manifestations — really contagious? It appears so, as far as the Russians are concerned.

A year ago Russians quietly entered the grain market and bought up practically all the surplus wheat in the United States at bargain prices. We are still suffering from the shortages and high prices of that market operation.

Recently it was discovered that Russians have bought heavily in the sugar market, again, at bargain prices and again at the right time. Americans and other will wish they had some of that sugar before 1975 is over.

Men are supposed to learn from adversity. The expert Russian performance in commodities markets suggests a remedy: Why not recruit some Russian traders as teachers to give us a few lessons in free-enterprise, cold-blooded capitalistic dealing in the market?

Russian Chill

William F. Buckley, Jr.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Substituting for William F. Buckley, Jr.

The icy blast that is suddenly blowing out of Russia could mean rough weather ahead for Soviet-American detente. It might even mean that Soviet chief Leonid I. Brezhnev, although at the peak of his personal power, has received some sort of rebuke.

Belatedly, the Kremlin has unveiled immense outrage at an implied affront to Soviet sovereignty.

The Soviet leaders long had eagerly sought preferential treatment in trade with the United States. Last week the Senate attached strings to the deal, intending to insure a more liberal Soviet attitude toward emigration, especially of Jews.

THE PRICE was too big. The Kremlin now huffily rejects it. This announcement evidently hastened by the fact that the Senate completed its action Friday and the trade measure was headed for final Congressional passage at this session.

It's all quite mysterious. On Oct. 15, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., the champion of would-be Jewish emigrants, said a deal had been reached which would permit emigration of something like 60,000 persons annually.

The Russians didn't like what it did to their superpower image to seem to be a supplicant for American favors. The chauvinistic and intensely nationalistic military, in particular, would resent it. Much surprise was generated by the announcement.

QUESTIONED ABOUT the matter on Dec. 3 in the Senate

Finance Committee, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said if he reported there was a "formal" agreement, the Russians would repudiate it. But that seemed to suggest some sort of informal understanding.

The Vladivostok summit had taken place. The Ford administration hailed it as a "triumph." There was no hint then of an impending Soviet bomb on the trade-emigration issue that conceivably could alter the look of the summit results.

Yet a whole month before that summit Kissinger had received Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's harsh note denouncing Sen. Jackson and accusing Kissinger and Jackson of "distorting" the Soviet position.

If there was some sort of deal, even informal, Gromyko's Oct. 26 letter would seem to have nullified it. That would make it seem that Brezhnev was obliged to renege.

WHO WAS STRONG enough to bring this about? Maybe the military in league with the hard-nosed party conservatives. But why was nothing said publicly about it until three weeks after the latest summit?

The timing is interesting from many standpoints. The announcement came as the Soviet parliament was in session to rubber-stamp a new budget.

One of Brezhnev's claims to popularity derives from a detente policy that raises hopes of dividends for the domestic economy. But the Supreme Soviet became a platform for disclosure that for another year heavy industry, the source of military power, would again have the budget edge over the consumer side.

Gold Fever

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Muehlenberg dashed into my office yelling, "GOLD! GOLD! I've discovered gold!"

"Take it easy, Muehlenberg," I said. "You mean you've hit a gold mine?"

"NO, YOU fool," he shouted, his eyes blazing. "On Dec. 31 we're going to be allowed to buy gold. We'll all be rich."

"How can we be rich if we have to buy the gold?"

"Haven't you read the advertisements in the newspapers? Gold is going to go up to $400 an ounce. If we buy it at $190, we'll more than double our money."

"But, Muehlenberg, there is no guarantee that gold is going to go up. Suppose it goes down?"

"IT CAN'T go down," Muehlenberg cried. "Everybody wants gold. Now we can get our hands on it and stuff it in our mattresses and no one can touch us."

"You've really got the gold fever, Muehlenberg. But I think I better warn you. Owning gold isn't what it's cracked up to be. It breaks up friendships and marriages. It turns man against man, and woman against woman. If someone knows you have gold in your mattress they'll do anything to get it — including pillage and rape."

"RAPE?"

"I read that somewhere. In any case, gold turns people into animals."

"Don't worry about me," he protested. "When I get my gold I'm not going to change. I'll still be the Muehlenberg you knew before. I may not go out as much because I'm going to have to stay home at night to weigh it and count it to make sure I've got all of it. But outside of that you won't even know I have the stuff."

"I've read articles about this crazy gold-buying thing," I said, "and they indicate the only ones who stand to make money on gold are the dealers who sell it, the insurance companies who insure it and the banks who store it."

MUEHLENBERG SNARLED like Humphrey Bogart. "I might have known it. You're just saying this because you want to drive down the price of gold so you can buy my gold cheap. Well, you're going to have to kill me first before you get it."

"Muehlenberg, will you please put that gun down. No one is after your gold."

"Then why did you bring up the pillaging and rape?"

"I was just trying to warn you that people have done it in the past to get their hands on gold."

MUEHLENBERG put his gun back in his belt. "Well, there are other things in life besides gold. I'll tell you what. Because you were in on this with me from the beginning, I'm going to let you in on a good thing. ## Unfair, Disgraceful?

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) When investment money was plentiful and the stock market active in the 1960s a lot of privately held companies decided to go public — to sell their shares to the highest bidders.

In the process, the original shareholders often became wealthy. Their holdings soared in value as the public scrambled to get in on the action, sometimes doubling the market value in just a few hours.

Some of these same companies now talk about going private. With share prices badly depressed, the dominant shareholders seek to buy back the shares held by smaller investors and return the company to limited ownership.

In the process, the dominant shareholders again stand to make a profit, since the repurchase price today quite often is below book value. That is, the company could be liquidated for more than its current share value.

The owners who sold shares to the public at premium prices in the 1960s now find themselves in a position to buy back the shares for a fraction. And nothing apparently stops them from going public again, when prices and market activity are more to their liking.

"What is happening is, in my estimation," says A. A. Sommer Jr., a Securities and Exchange Commission member, "serious, unfair, and sometimes disgraceful, a perversion of the whole process of public financing."

Sommer is one of the few public officials who has spoken out strongly against the procedure, which sometimes begins with a letter to shareholders, "informing them: "The management of the company believes that it is in the best interests of the company and its stockholders to return the company to a privately held status."

The simplest way of doing this, Sommer points out, is to offer the minority shareholders a stipulated price, usually something a bit above the market price. It appears to be a fair, take-it-or-leave-it offer. It isn't.

Indigestion And Gas

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Being bothered for a year with indigestion and gas, I went to the doctor who ordered X-rays and a protoscope examination.

Everything was okay except he said I have an irritated colon, and I'll have to live with it. Will this heal in time, or is there danger of it leading to cancer? Would a diet of some sort help? — Mrs. P.L.

It's more a nuisance than a cancer threat, but it's a big family-size nuisance at times. Diet, within reason, will help, but there are other things that are important, too, one of them being a real attempt not to let your nerves run away with you.

The irritable colon is one of the important parts of my booklet, "Colitis and Kindred Complaints," and I recommend that you give it a detailed study. Send 25 cents and a long stamped self-addressed envelope, care of the Big Spring Herald, for a copy of the booklet.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: The girl who signed herself "In Pain" reminded me of my teen years. I had very painful menstrual periods and my doctor told me to stay away from salt 10 days before my period. No extra salt at the table, no potato chips or other salty foods.

I am now the mother of two and I still follow his advice. Several of my friends have tried this "no salt" plan and it works for them, too. As you said, exercise is important but so is a good diet. — Mrs. C.

Yes — and I have urged this salt limitation repeatedly. The explanation is that the female body accumulates fluid in preparation for the menstrual period. It can cause discomfort.

Well, salt causes greater accumulation of fluid, too, so limiting salt for a week or more before your period reduces the fluid accumulation and hence discomfort.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What effect does having X-rays taken during pregnancy have? I've heard so much about not having it done but never why. — K.J.

Remember that pregnancy begins when an ovum and sperm unite and form a single cell. Well, an X-ray exposure of a full-grown person may damage some of the billions of cells in the body, but those few cells that are harmed are of little if any detectable significance.

But if the rays strike the single cell with which a pregnancy begins, any damage at all is important. After all, the baby has to develop from the patterns contained within that single cell.

The single cell, of course, divides and divides again and again as the pattern of that tiny body begins to take shape.

Asking For It

Around The Rim

Marj Carpenter

Everything is "more so" at Christmas. Traditions are sadder and remembered longer, happiness is augmented and funny incidents are funnier.

Any person who has worked with children on Christmas productions can remember funny incidents. They have to laugh to keep from crying when they are putting together one of those Christmas programs.

I CAN REMEMBER one little innkeeper saying, "Don't knock so loud. There's no room in this here Motel." And I recall one little wise man wising off as he went down the aisle, stopping to tell his buddy, "There's really just marbles in this bag of gold."

But one of the funniest incidents I recall, in working with children at Christmas, was a Yuletide Parade. Each church in the city was invited to put a float in the parade and the Presbyterian Church decided to put its youth choir on a float, put a piano up there, decorate the float, and let the youths sing carols while going up the street.

I knew children well enough to predict a little trouble. The choir was dressed in white robes with big maroon bows and looked angelic. But I knew that some of their classmates were bound to hurrah the group from the curb.

So I put the biggest boys on the outside of the float. As I recall, that included Billy and Eric Avery, now a lawyer, and an intern, Billy Dale, later a UT fullback and now a business man; Drew and Ross Ligon, later champion swimmers; and Frank Fernandes, now a banker.

We opened with "Oh Come All Ye Faithful" and the first block was the worst. Some of their friends literally began to run right alongside of the float hooting and hollering.

THIS GOT TO BE a little much and as I looked over the piano and continued to play the beautiful carols, the view included: "Oh Come All Ye Faithful, Joyful and Triumphant" (Whack as Frank kicked one youth in the mouth.

"Oh come ye, oh come ye to Bethlehem," (Blomp) as Dale cracked another youth over the head with a hymn book.

"Come and behold Him, Born the King of Angels.

"Oh come let us adore Him, Oh come let us adore Him (followed by a loud scream as the oldest Avery youth came down on one boy's fingers with the heel of his boot) "Christ the Lord."

But by the time we got to the next block and swung into "Silent Night," it really was "All is Calm, All is Bright."

The float won a prize, but the youths involved won more than that. Up until that time, the group had always been a little bit leery when they donned their choir robes, but after that they wore them with greater pride.

This group stayed together for a number of years and until they were grown and left for college got together each year and sang for shut-ins on one of their favorite nights of each Christmas season.

They always ended with "We wish you a Merry Christmas, We wish you a Merry Christmas, We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

And I always used to smile and think to myself, "And you better believe it if you don't want your eye blacked."

Ford's Pique

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — Although his deeper purpose was concealed in the rhetoric, President Ford sent a red-hot message to his own top advisers in his speech to the Business Council here Wednesday evening.

THE MESSAGE: Stop committing the President to energy and economic programs that he hasn't personally approved.

Particularly annoying to Mr. Ford was a day-long banner headline in the Washington Star-News on Dec. 10 committing the President to a "bigger job plan" and indicating that he had decided to junk the "trigger" (6 per cent unemployment for three months) in his jobs program.

THAT HEADLINE grew out of a television interview with Secretary of the Treasury William Simon on Monday night, in which Simon said the administration was plotting an unemployment program "that deals with the economy and with unemployment the way it exists today, not the way it was forecast."

Politicians of both parties were highly gratified by that Simon statement, particularly Republicans growing more disenchanted every day with bland statements from the President which they feel vastly understate the economic crisis.

BUT MR. FORD was angry. He reacted with similar anger on several occasions the last two months when his energy aides, most recently Interior Secretary Rogers Morton, repeatedly talked of a new federal gasoline tax to conserve energy.

The key phrase in Wednesday evening's speech went this way:

"For a start let me say this: do not believe I have made any economic decisions unless you hear those decisions from me personally. There can be only one person that makes those decisions, and when I make them I'll announce them."

DESPITE THIS barely concealed warning to Simon, Morton and other high-level offenders, Mr. Ford has no intention of replacing either Simon or Morton in his cabinet.

Indeed, Simon was conspicuously invited by Mr. Ford to sit at the presidential table at the Symphony Ball on Dec. 6. Behind that select invitation was the President's desire to undercut harshly critical press. But Mr. Ford's intention to keep Simon as his chief economic spokesman does not exempt him from presidential anger when Mr. Ford feels he is being preempted.

THE LONG televised hearings into Nelson Rockefeller's personal and political past, far from doing him damage, increased his standing to the point of persuading one right-wing Republican member of the House Judiciary Committee to change his mind and vote to confirm him as Vice President.

Rep. Trent Lott of Mississippi confided to high-level Republican party operatives three months ago, soon after Mr. Ford nominated the super-rich Rockefeller, that he seriously doubted he could ever vote to confirm him as Vice President.

Rockefeller's performance, however, changed his mind. Many conservative Republican leaders agreed.

My Answer

Billy Graham

After 25 years of marriage, I awoke one morning to realize I was no longer in love. I have a good and faithful husband, and I don't want to hurt him, but I feel like he's a stranger. I'm in my early 50's, and want more happiness than I've had. Can you recommend some Bible reading to help me get back on the track? — E.C.

Your first sentence must be figurative speech. I find it hard to understand how such a serious rift could have occurred without earlier symptoms. Either you chose to ignore those warning signs, or naively hoped your disillusionment would correct itself.

I am not unaware of the fact that often in middle age you are tempted to slacken marital loyalties. Suddenly impressed that perhaps not too many years remain, married people foolishly seek in other affairs the excitement and challenge that once they knew together. Remember it's not wrong to be tempted. How you handle it is the real question.

But I'm encouraged by your desire to get "back on the track." Read Ephesians 5 for family life suggestions. Read Isaiah 40:31 to catch the promise of God's help when things slow up. Read Romans 12 for getting the right priorities, and read Ezekiel 37 for the exciting story of life reborn.

"God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved." (John 3:17)

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, we thank Thee that Thou hast revealed Thyself to us not alone in words or creeds, but in flesh and love incarnated. Help us to reveal Thee to our fellowmen in deeds of compassion and concern. In Christ's name. Amen.

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas Railroad Commission set the oil product allowable at 100 per cent Thursday for the 34th consecutive month. Chairman Jim Langdon said he could see "a few encouraging signs."

An exception to January's oil production order is East Texas field, which remains restricted to 90 percent production to avoid waste.

Major buyers of crude oil said they want to buy 4,075,065 barrels a day in January, up 33,764 barrels from December.

Eleven of the 14 major purchasers asked for same amount of oil in January as this month — Exxon — sought increase and two request less.

Exxon raised nomination by 12,000 barrels and when asked if company expected to meet the additional demand, spokesman said it did, with the additional coming from imports.

Langdon completes two-year term as commission chairman at the end of year. Commissioner Ramsey will take rotating chairmanship Jan. 1.

With a small audience of oilmen listening, Langdon delivered another of his blasts at federal energy policy. He said Texas is "are subsidizing the needs of other states" would have to rely on imported foreign supplies to extent of about $5 billion annually.

"This is brought about federally enforced crude entitlement programs, tiered pricing and various federal petroleum allocation programs," Langdon said. "He said there are "a encouraging signs."

"This year the Railroad Commission is processing drilling applications at a rate of over 1,700 per month compared to only about 1,000 per month last year. Currently the Hughes Count in Texas stands at 106 or 162 more rigs operating this year than last year," Langdon said.

Nominations by major buyers of Texas crude oil in January, in barrels per month, will change from 4,075,065 in November to 4,108,829 in Atlantic Richfield 180,000 and Chevron 77,800.

Bob, Bing Draw Top Ratings

NEW YORK (AP) — Two of show business' most durable veterans, comedian Bob Hope and singer Bing Crosby, each drew top ratings marks from the A. C. Nielsen Co. for NBC specials in which they starred last week.

Hope's special was the week's highest rated evening program and Crosby's Christmas special the week's third most popular national TV show, according to the ratings, made public Wednesday.

The Nielsen estimates showed wide audience interest in five other Christmas specials which were broadcast either by NBC or CBS the week of Dec. 9-15.

According to the ratings, the five shows exceeded the 30 per cent share of audience mark in their time period, which the networks usually consider a sign of success.

The programs ranged from an Andy Williams Christmas special on NBC to a repeat on CBS of Dr. Seuss' "How the Grinch Stole Christmas."

According to the ratings, the nation's 20 most-watched evening programs last week were "Bob Hope Special" (NBC); "Hawaii Five-O" (CBS); "Bing Crosby Special" (NBC); "All in the Family" (NBC); "The Waltons," "M-A-S-H," "Rhoda" and "Good Times" (all CBS); "Sanford and Son" and "Little Drummer Boy" (both NBC); "Made" (CBS); "UFO's: Do You Believe" and "Little House on the Prairie" (both NBC); "Barnaby Jones" and "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" (both CBS); "Andy Williams Special" (NBC); "Mary Tyler Moore" (CBS); "Flip Wilson Special" (NBC) and "The Rookies" and "NFL Monday Night Football" (both ABC).

Cops Kill Suspect In Many Slayings

DOUGLASVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Paul John Knowles, charged with seven murders in three states, was shot to death when authorities said he grabbed a gun and tried to escape from a police car. His lawyers claim he was executed.

Authorities said the 28-year-old Florida native was killed Wednesday as he drove with two officers to show them where he had disposed of a gun allegedly used to murder a Florida state trooper.

Douglas County Sheriff Earl D. Lee said he and Ron Angel, an inspector for the Georgia Bureau of Investigation, were escorting Knowles when their prisoner got free from his handcuffs. Authorities later said he had picked the lock, possibly with a paper clip.

incident with authorities.

"The least they could have done was to wait until he was convicted to execute him," said attorney Ellis Rubin.

"I can't believe he attempted to escape," said attorney Sheldon Yavitz. "He didn't want to die. Where would he go with chains on?"

Knowles, arrested Nov. 17 in rural Georgia, had been charged in Georgia with killing a Florida state trooper and a Delaware businessman, a Milledgeville, Ga. man and his teen-aged daughter; a Lima, Ohio, accountant in that state; and women in Jacksonville Beach and Atlantic Beach, Fla.

In addition, Connecticut authorities said Wednesday they had been preparing to charge Knowles with the Oct. 15 strangulation deaths of Mrs. Karen Wine of Marlborough and her 16-year-old daughter, Dawn.

Authorities had been investigating possible links between Knowles and several other slayings, and Rubin said last month that ultimately Knowles would be recognized as "the most heinous murderer in history."

Another of Knowles' attorneys, Charles Marchman of Macon, said he has been en route to meet with Knowles when he heard of his client's death. Marchman examined Knowles' body and told reporters that he had been shot three times — once in the chest, once in the temple and once beneath an arm.

Marchman said that in the course of previous conversations Knowles claimed to have killed some 35 persons during cross-country travels since his parole last May from a Florida prison where he had been serving time for breaking and entering and escape.

Knowles' two Miami lawyers rejected the official explanation and headed for Atlanta today to discuss the

Bell Public Relations

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Zane Barnes of St. Louis, president of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., is scheduled to address an audience of top businessmen here today in a continuing public relations counter-attack.

Barnes' appearance coincides with the beginning of testimony in depositions of top-ranking Bell executives in a $29.2 million libel and defamation suit filed against the company.

Full page advertisements, signed by Ross Spencer, a Bell vice president, ran Tuesday in the Houston newspapers. The cost nearly $7,000 total, were entitled "The Other Side of the Story."

The president of the San Antonio Kiwanis Club sent out printed invitations for Barnes' appearance. The Kiwanis president, Charles Kenworthy, is a paid executive of the local chamber of commerce.

Bell arranged for Barnes' speech and press conference to be beamed via closed circuit television to eight area headquarters in its six-state boundaries.

Allegations against Bell—all denied by the company—have included illegal wiretapping, corporate-political entanglements through company slush funds and unfair rate-making procedures in Texas, the nation's only state without state-level phone regulation.

The charges have made headlines across the state, and some cities have held up pending telephone company rate increases until the matter is cleared up.

EARN'S DEGREE — Terry Hansen, son of Dr. and Mrs. Halvard Hansen of 621 Tulane, will receive his master's degree in Computer Science at East Texas State University in Commerce Friday. Terry is now employed as senior computer analyst by the Commerce school. His parents will attend graduation rites. Terry graduated from the local high school in 1966.

Webb Lands $27,000 Job

HOUSTON (AP) — David F. Webb, 29, a lawyer with one of the city's biggest firms, was confirmed Wednesday as director of the City of Houston's public service department.

Webb, with the firm of Fullbright and Jaworski, will replace Thomas B. Tyson who will return March 14. He goes to work Jan. 2 at a salary of $27,000 a year while Tyson will remain as a utilities adviser until his retirement.

The department regulates utility companies within the city.

Will Listen TO UTPB President's Testimony

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — University of Texas system Chancellor Charles LeMaistre planned today to listen to transcripts of testimony before the Texas House Appropriations Committee involving the University of Texas of the Permian Basin (UTPB).

LeMaistre said Wednesday night he will listen specifically to testimony before the committee by UTPB President B.H. Amstead in March 1973. The testimony concerns the use of state funds for a golf course and a duck pond at the Odessa campus.

LeMaistre flew back to Austin late Wednesday after a 10-hour closed-door hearing during which 10 witnesses were called to testify, including Amstead.

Amstead last week admitted $50,029 in state funds were used in building the golf course and $3,480 for the duck pond.

LeMaistre's hearing also heard from other UTPB administrators and officials, and from retired Marine Corps Brig. Gen. H.W. "Hak" Hise, former director of development at UTPB.

Hise, whose contract with the university expires Dec. 31, was transferred to a project involving the study of grapes after he disclosed information that the campus projects had used state funds.

LeMaistre was instructed by UT regents to investigate the matter after Rep. John Hoerstenbach, D-Odessa, called for Amstead's suspension pending a review of his testimony before the Appropriations Committee.

LeMaistre said Wednesday night he hoped he could present his committee's report to the regents Chairman A.G. McNeese today, but added that it may take longer to prepare the report.

LeMaistre said there were still questions he hoped to get answered today.

Cool Front Developing

By The Associated Press
One cool front finished its southward sweep across Texas during the night and forecasters looked for another to start pursuing it today.

Early morning temperatures were a bit chilly across the northwest two-thirds of the state and about normal elsewhere.

Skies were generally clear to partly cloudy except for a thickening overcast above the coastal plains.

Official observers expected the latest front to develop late in the day in a trough of low pressure spanning the Texas Panhandle and push down into Central Texas by Friday morning.

Readings near dawn ranged from 16 degrees at Marfa in the West Texas mountains up to 54 at Brownsville in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

DESPITE RUSSIANS Trade Bill OK Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite a last-minute statement of Soviet opposition, Congress has moved closer to passing a trade bill that bars U.S. trade concessions until Communist nations drop their barriers to free emigration.

complete action on the bill today or Friday and send it to President Ford.

The Kremlin's opposition to the bill, relayed Wednesday by the official Soviet news agency Tass, reached Washington as congressional conferees held a day-long session that ended in agreement on a bill to be sent to both chambers.

REJECTED

The Tass statement that Moscow "flatly rejected as unacceptable" the trade bill's emigration provision had absolutely no effect on the congressional conferees, Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., chief Senate sponsor of the bill, told reporters.

"We are passing a law to provide we can trade with the Soviet Union under specified conditions," Long said. "If they want to trade with us, they'll do it under those conditions."

Other senators who have worked closely with the White House on the emigration provision passed off the Soviet statement as a face-saving device intended for consumption in Russia and the nonaligned nations.

EMIGRATION

In fact, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger had anticipated the Soviets would deny having any emigration agreement with the United States.

Kissinger said the reason is that the Soviets repeatedly have stated they consider the emigration issue a domestic one and "not subject to international negotiation."

Underlying Kissinger's statement was the feeling expressed on Capitol Hill that the Soviet Union could not afford to have the world think it was reforming its domestic policies on the demand of the U.S. Congress.

But several senators say the Soviets were willing in the end to make an informal commitment — which they could deny publicly — in order to gain access to U.S. goods, technology and long-term, low-cost credit. Neither Kissinger nor Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., chief sponsor of the emigration provision, expressed surprise at the Soviet announcement.

CONCESSIONS

As part of an arrangement worked out with Jackson, Kissinger previously wrote members of Congress that Soviet officials had given assurances "no unreasonable or unlawful impediments will be placed in the way of persons desiring to make application for emigration."

The bill provides for an 18-month period during which the Soviet Union would show its good intentions by allowing free emigration and, in turn, receive U.S. trade concessions.

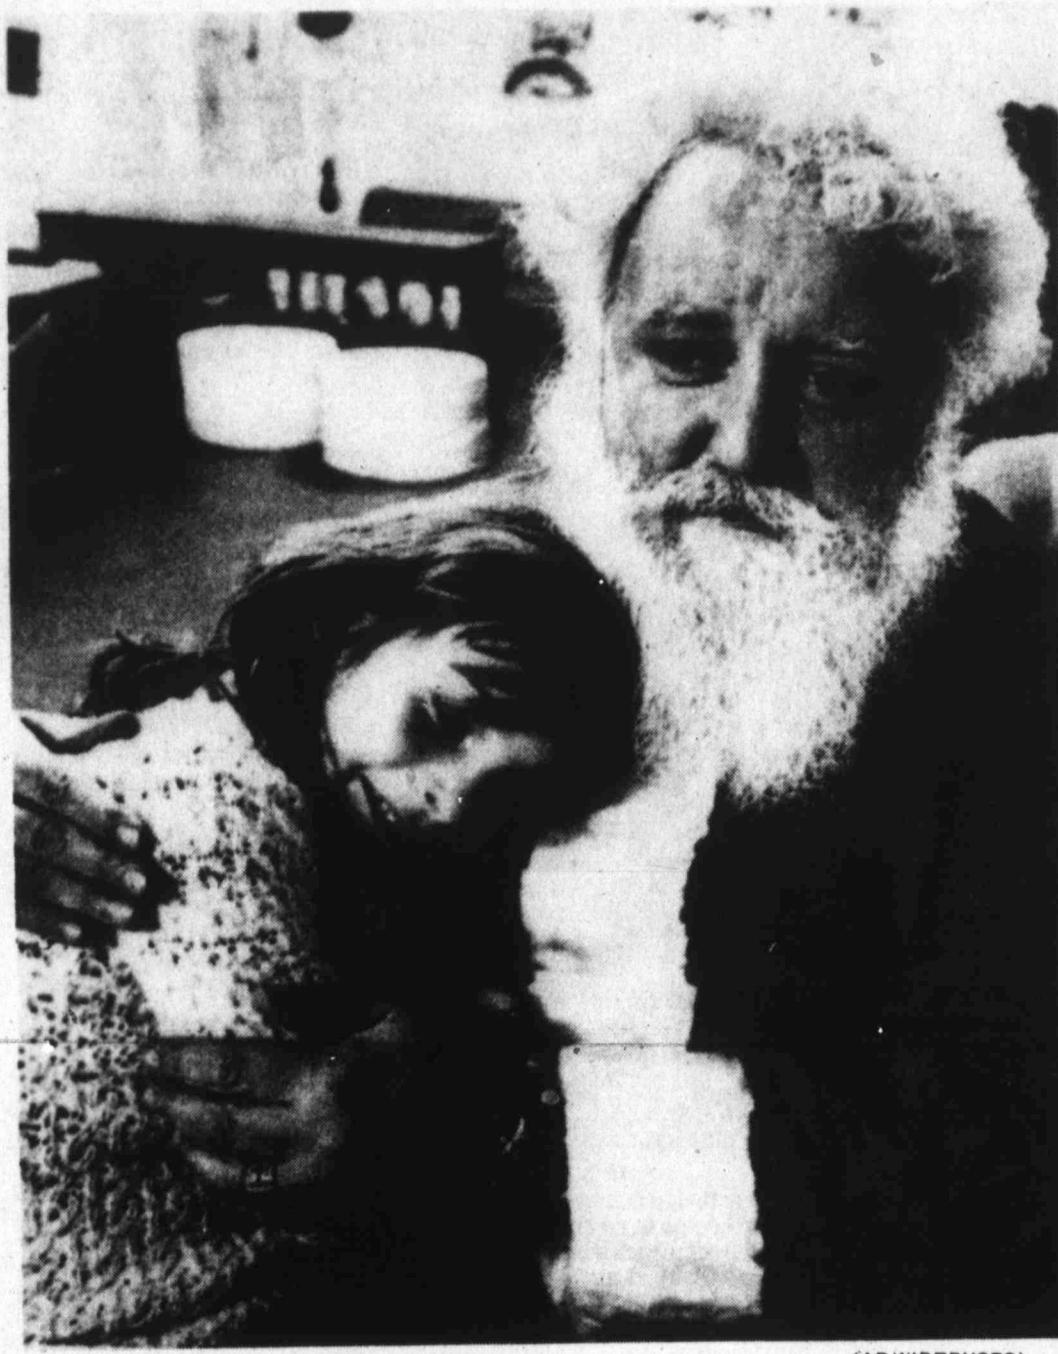

Jackson said he has an ironclad promise from President Ford that if Ford thinks the Soviets are not living up to the informal arrangement, he will cancel the trade concessions.

The emigration amendment is only one part of the voluminous trade bill, which would give the president authority for the first time in 7½ years to negotiate international trade agreements.

More Power To Probe Insurance Sales Asked

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Atty. Gen. John Hill wants the legislature to give him greater authority to investigate deceptive practices in the sale of insurance such as those recently reported in South Texas.

Hill's request put him in conflict—but apparently a friendly one—with State Insurance Board Chairman Joe Christie.

They testified Wednesday before the House Life and Health Insurance Subcommittee, which is probing reports that old people in the Cuero area had been victimized by insurance salesmen working from a "goose list."

'GOOD LIST'

Hill said there probably were situations "that I would describe as insurance company management encouraging the use of a 'goose list.'"

He complained because the deceptive trade practices law passed by the 1973 legislature specifically denied to the attorney general power to file suits without a request from the insurance board.

The board has asked to sue several companies for selling insurance without a license recently, including one allegedly involved in the South Texas fraud scheme.

"I think to this instant we probably could have filed earlier," Hill said. He added that his office had received 258 insurance complaints this year and sent them on to the insurance board.

"I believe we would have an increased ability to get at the fringe element of the insurance industry," Hill said.

FAIRER

Christie said he "actively and fervently" worked last year to retain for the insurance board the power to investigate insurance fraud. He said he believes the agency that licenses and industry should have the sole power to investigate it.

Both officials agreed that one key to reducing fraudulent sale of health insurance policies would be simplification of language.

Christie said he hoped the legislature would give the insurance board the power to "substitute language that we feel would be clearer and fairer."

He said the board would ask the legislature in 1975 to pass minimum standards for health insurance policies.

In addition, he said, the legislature should empower his agency to go into the inner workings and accounts of noninsurance firms "when we have determined there is a strong possibility of insurance-related matters going on there."

Under present law, the board must obtain a letter or visitation from the attorney general, which Christie

Lone Passenger Aboard For Inaugural Flight

The fact that there has been no published schedule set for the El Paso Air Transport service from Big Spring to the Dallas Ft. Worth Metroplex, people are using the service.

Only one passenger flew to Dallas and back on the first day of service Tuesday, but for Friday, four passengers have been booked aboard the six passenger plane.

Two and possibly three are booked for the Saturday flight and two have already signed on for the Sunday flight.

Despite the fact that some passengers are using the airlines, the real indication of local acceptance will come after the schedules are set and published.

The El Paso Air Transport service replaced Texas International Air Service from Big Spring which has been terminated.

New Layoffs By GM Listed

DETROIT (AP) — Cutbacks in America's largest industry will send more than a quarter of General Motors' 370,000-man hourly workforce to the industrial sidelines on open-ended layoffs next month.

Drastic cutbacks at GM and reports of similar moves at the other recession-plagued car companies are boosting auto industry layoffs toward historic proportions.

GM announced new indefinite layoffs for 6,300 blue-collar workers Wednesday. The firm also said indefinite layoffs will total 91,000 by the end of January, an increase of 16,000 over previously released figures.

GM said it will limit first-quarter 1975 output to the depressed levels of a year ago when the gasoline shortage cut the legs from under expected sales levels.

Sources said Ford Motor Co. would trim first-quarter output by 40 to 50 per cent from a year ago — although Ford issued official denials — and Chrysler Corp. was expected to announce it would keep three plants closed another month.

By January an estimated 240,000 auto workers, 34 per cent of the industry's 690,000 person hourly workforce, could be idled as a result of this winter's 30 per cent drop in auto sales. Some 141,000 of the furloughs would be open-ended.

Layoffs affecting 217,000 blue collar workers are already in effect.

Auto workers who have accumulated more than a year's seniority qualify for unemployment benefits which come to almost 95 per cent of take home pay for a period of up to one year.

However, GM's special unemployment fund is being rapidly depleted, and union officials said about 1,000 persons are being dropped from fund rolls every week.

United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock predicted Wednesday that up to one million workers in the auto and related industries would be jobless during the first quarter of 1975, UAW aides said.

'I'M BEGINNING TO FEEL LIKE A MOLE MUST FEEL'

Safest Spot In Texas During Tornado Season

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — When Kyle O. Thompson Jr. goes to his office, he steps past a 13-ton steel door and walks down two flights of stairs to an office area beneath two feet of concrete and six feet of earth. "I'm beginning to feel like a mole must feel," said Thompson, recently named director of the Defense Civil Preparedness Agency's (DCPA) Region Five at the Federal Regional Center two miles east of here. "During the tornado season, however, I know I'm going to be in the safest spot in Texas," he said. The center, located next door to a lingerie plant, can also be one of the busiest and most important spots in the country. Nestled above and below ground on a wind-swept knoll, the center, completed in 1969 at a cost of approximately $2.7 million, is primarily responsible for federal government operations in a five-state area in times of national emergency. DCPA normal operations include support of disaster programs in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma. The center also coordinates the communications network that would be utilized by the local, state and federal governments during emergencies. "If we can get the people prepared for almost any type of man-made or natural disaster, then I think we would be in good shape in the event of a nuclear attack," said Thompson. "I think the world situation is different today from what it was in 1962 at the time of the Cuban missile crisis, but all of us here live with the possibility of a nuclear attack," said Thompson. Beneath the center's one-story glass and concrete structure, is a two-story underground compound built to withstand the effects of a nearby nuclear blast. The 50,000 square feet of underground space has facilities which can house up to 500 persons and feed them three meals a day for at least 30 days. In times of emergency the facility can supply its own water and electricity from pumps and generators mounted on massive steel springs designed to absorb the shock of a nuclear explosion. Admission to the center in case of nuclear war is highly restricted and not even families of employees will be allowed in. Dana Cessna, public information officer for Region Five, said representatives of 22 federal agencies will operate out of the center in a national emergency. The center's extensive communications system is operated by the U.S. Army Communications Command headed here by Benjamin K. Rush. Rush said "It's been my life to be sure that if we ever had a nuclear attack, we could still have communications." "We're not here to fight the battle," Rush said. "Our duty is to make sure we have communications restored after an attack." Rush said local disasters give everyone involved experience in handling emergency situations and makes them more aware of the problems that could arise on a larger scale. The Army's sophisticated communications equipment is also used to alert local governments.

Dear Abby

Yellow Teeth Make A Heavy Heart For One

DEAR ABBY: I am a happily married, 28-year-old woman with a problem I've never seen in your column. All my life I've been unhappy with my teeth. They are strong and healthy, but very yellow. I can't tell you how much I want lovely white teeth. Abby! I've tried everything I've seen advertised, but nothing has worked for me. Last evening I sat next to a dentist at a dinner party, and I mentioned that I would love to have my teeth capped for vanity's sake. He laughed and said, "Forget it. No ethical dentist would destroy healthy teeth for cosmetic reasons." Abby, why not? They're MY teeth, and if I want them capped for cosmetic reasons, why wouldn't an ethical dentist do it? After all, plastic surgeons "destroy" healthy noses every day to reshape them to make people happier with their appearance. What's the difference?

HATES TO SMILE

DEAR HATES: Your dinner partner should have told you that some dentists are reluctant to tinker with Nature's original work, because it increases the possibilities of problems. However, my dental experts do not agree that "no ethical dentist would perform cosmetic dentistry on healthy teeth that are unsightly." When skillfully done, such dentistry does not "destroy" teeth. Many ethical dentists practice cosmetic dentistry to the delight of grateful patients who have learned to smile again.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter, Jane, is 25, attractive and holds a responsible position. She is also quite naive and unsophisticated. For the last two years Jane has been seeing a young man who could easily get married if he wanted to. He has Jane eating out of his hand, but this relationship seems to be going nowhere. Jane refuses to date anyone else, but this young man openly dates others, which hurts Jane deeply. Every time we attempt to discuss this one-sided relationship with Jane, it results in an emotional outburst and she tells us to please stay out of her affairs. What can we do? My husband would like to tell this young man to either fish or cut bait, but I don't think we should interfere. What do you think?

JANE'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I think you're right. Any pressure on father's part would send the young man running for the hills. Let Jane handle it, and don't compound her problem by attempting to discuss it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO DISCOURAGED IN ALBANY N.Y.: Don't ever be ashamed of having failed. It's evidence that you tried — which is the first step toward every success.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 68700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

AAUW Adds To Education Fund

A significant contribution to the Fellowships Fund will be made by local American Association of University Women from proceeds of the first AAUW International Luncheon.

Safety Hints For Holidays

A natural Christmas tree can add a special holiday touch to your home, but says the Texas Safety Association, it can also add a special hazard. The safety group recently outlined precautions for choosing and decorating a natural tree. Select a fresh tree and keep it in water. Cutting off about an inch of trunk diagonally will help the tree absorb water more readily. Place the tree as far as possible from any source of heat, such as a fireplace or radiator, which might dry it out or even ignite it. Check light strings, which should bear the Underwriters' Laboratories label when new, to be sure there are no loose sockets or broken wires. Then connect them to an easy-to-reach outlet so they can be unplugged whenever the room is unoccupied for any length of time.

The fund raising affair, held recently, featured a menu that combined a variety of international dishes from Greece, Spain, and Orient, Germany, Mexico and Italy.

The luncheon was highlighted by the displayed of several paintings by Texas artist, Martha Hughes. Ms. Hughes has won numerous honors for her paintings and has shown her work in many shows. She received a BA degree in fine arts from the University of Texas in 1973. The AAUW study groups and general meetings will resume in January.

Degree Rite Performed By Lodge

The Degree of Rebekah was bestowed on Mrs. Ellen Coots and Ms. Rebecca L. Simerly at the Tuesday meeting of John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge 284. Visits to the sick were made to 32, according to a report, and Mrs. Russell Loftis reported on the state hospital party where the lodge served more than 100 patients.

Mrs. Gladys Sudberry welcomed new members and gave her farewell address. She presented gifts to her four special officers who were Mrs. Hazel Lamar, team captain; Mrs. Loftis, lodge mother; Mrs. Odelle LaLond, funeral marshal; and Mrs. Pauline Patty, reporter. Russell Loftis received a gift as the lodge sweetheart.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Sudberry who was assisted by Mrs. Mable Morrison and Mrs. Everett Hood.

Delegation To Grand Lodge

Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. Dwite Gilliland were elected as delegate and alternate to Grand Lodge at the Tuesday meeting of Big Spring Rebekah 284.

Jack McNew presided in the absence of the noble grand and announced the lodge Christmas tree party will be Thursday night. The members were asked to bring a wrapped gift and a salad for the dinner that will begin at 7 p.m.

The Odd Fellows will man a Rest Stop on IS 20 between here and Stanton beginning at 11 a.m. Sunday and will continue it Monday and Tuesday.

Senior Center Slates Activities In January

Howard College presented a program of Christmas music at the monthly luncheon held Wednesday at the Senior Citizens' Center located on the college campus. Seventy persons were present for the luncheon and table games in the afternoon.

During the event, "Santa Claus" presented sacks of fruit and candy to everyone. It was announced that Dr. Marshall Cauley, 524 Scoot Drive, was winner of a quilt made by a senior citizens' group. Proceeds from the fund-raising event will be used to purchase supplies for the center. According to Miss Sherry Mullin, county extension agent, approximately 100 persons have used the center so far this month; many using the facility to play games, read or participate in special activities. Ninety-five attended the last two clinics on diabetes and, last month, 49 took advantage of the blood pressure check. Twenty-five persons were honored on their birthday, and over 40 took part in the Talent Fair. At the fair, participants took in about $1,700 and received orders amounting to an additional $400. Next year's fair scheduled to be held Nov. 2. In January, Monday will continue to be the day of interested persons to pie and quilt; on Jan. 7 and Jan. 14 from 10 a.m. to noon, course will be taught; income tax preparation; monthly luncheon will be Jan. 15; beginner sewing classes will start at 2 p.m. Jan. 21; a blood pressure check is slated Jan. 28; and the birthday party is Jan. 2. The center is open every day from 1 to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Gift Shower Honor For Bride-Elect

Miss Marsha McMillan, bride-elect of Mickel Irons, was honored at a paper shower Saturday in the home of Mrs. James L. Johnson, 706 Birdwell Lane, with cohostesses being Mrs. Jeanie Knocke, Mrs. Linda Cathey and Mrs. Cliffa Slate.

Miss McMillan's mother was unable to attend, and she received guests with her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Jack Irons. They were presented novelty corsages made of pretzels tied with calico.

Mrs. Dick Irons attended from San Angelo. Refreshments were served from a table covered with a gold linen cloth and featuring copper appointments. The centerpiece, a bread basket filled with dried flowers, was presented to the honoree.

Serving Pitcher Makes Unusual Gift For Dad

As Christmas draws nearer, it becomes more and more difficult to choose exactly the right gift for that special man in your life — especially when that man is dad.

The right gift could be something that's pretty and practical, bright and shiny and keeps giving pleasure for years. But for someone as important as dad, the right gift should have all of these qualities and maybe a little more. One gift that fits this description is a beverage server set for his desk. Equally useful for office or home, the shiny chromium plated pitcher that will conserve energy by keeping beverages piping hot or icy cold without the aid of electricity. That's because these pitchers are vacuum bottles that have kept beverages hot and cold since 1907.

Candlelight Evening For Gardeners

An "evening in candlelight" was enjoyed by members of the After Five Garden Club Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Adele Smith, when she was hostess to a buffet dinner and Christmas party.

As is her holiday custom, Mrs. Smith used only candlelight to illuminate the house. She continued the motif on dining tables centered with candles based in greenery and laid with cutwork cloths.

The buffet was centered with a large brandy snifter filled with greenery and accented by large lollypops and candy canes.

Mrs. Ed Shive played piano accompaniment for the group to sing carols.

Guests were Mr. J. O. Carlile, Mrs. Libby Asbury and Mrs. Joyce Tynes.

A LOVELIER YOU Holiday Activities Call For Pacing

By MARY SUE MILLER

Few of us would care to escape from the activities of the holiday season. But a great many of us could wish for a less frantic pace. Keeping up too often drains away our energy, looks and enjoyment.

Of course there are antidotes against straining. Even the post office has one: Shop early, mail early! Do you take the advice? It may be meant to help the mailman, but it could help you just as much.

To cross the finish line feeling and looking fresh, you actually cannot be too foresighted in laying your plans and executing them with all possible dispatch. It helps to make a day-by-day schedule of what you must accomplish in the next weeks. But beware, do not set more tasks for any day than you can comfortably perform. That way lies frustration of the most fatiguing kind.

Each day, aim to complete the most important duties scheduled. Let the trifles wait. And do concentrate on the job at hand. Fidgeting about tasks ahead cuts down your efficiency and stamina.

If you should ever reach the exhaustion point during daytime rounds, give up. Take a break and relax. Instead of trying to finish a stint of work at night, go to bed and arise earlier next morning. Mountains of work seem like molehills after a good sleep.

If your schedule is upset by an unexpected demand on your time, take it in stride. You can afford to. By your foresightedness you have banked many hours — enough to devote some of them to lovelifying yourself.

Mu Zeta Fills Two Offices

Two offices were filled Monday at the meeting of Mu Zeta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at the home of Mrs. Michelle Teetze.

Elected to the office of vice president was Mrs. Darlene Boehmer, and Mrs. Teetze was elected corresponding secretary.

Members assisted with a party at the state hospital Tuesday and also prepared a basket for a local family. Four sixth grade students from Marcy Elementary School assisted in delivering the food and gifts.

Mrs. Teetze presented a program, "Music Without Words." She illustrated with recorded music, showing the effect on the listeners that the depth and finer tones good music can bring.

Credit Women Have Buffet

Mrs. W. D. Draper was hostess for the Credit Women's Club recently at a Christmas buffet dinner in her home, 2400 Cindy.

The members and a guest, Mrs. Bob Bradbury, were seated at foursome tables that were centered with holiday arrangements.

Mrs. C. W. Mahoney read an improvised version of "It's Getting To Be A Lot Like Christmas." Afterwards, there was a gift exchange.

The next meeting will be a noon luncheon at the Settles Hotel Jan. 2.

Paintings Are Exchanged

The Big Spring Art Association held a Christmas party Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Robert Barnes, 4211 Hamilton, with Mrs. Mignon Siverling as cohostess. Twenty members and guests attended the buffet dinner, after which miniature paintings were exchanged. The next regular meeting will be Jan. 21, 1975.

Whenever we wrap the gifts, we number the gift and keep a list of who it is for. This causes great excitement among young and old alike.

Then Christmas eve, someone calls out the number and we can tell to whom it goes. Try it and watch the expressions on their faces. (Of course, be sure to hide the list of names because someone is always sneaky!)

Aren't we all? (Curious that is, and a bit sneaky, too. I imagine at this time of the year.) But the suspense is a great part of the fun, I think. You're great.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:
I have three children and you can guess what Christmas morning looks like. Well, not any more. I take the stockings with all the goodies and put one on the foot of each child's bed. Imagine sleeping a half hour longer while the children play in their beds! But the best is yet to come.

The first thing they find on top of their stocking is a big paper bag with a note from Santa himself. The notes say to use the bag for all the wrappings, and a note of praise is added.

It seems children love to listen to Santa... at least they do in my house. Now anyone can walk into my home (and I have lots of company) and it doesn't look as if the roof fell in. Best of all, I can sit and relax and enjoy myself as much as everyone else.

What Mommy or Daddy wants to miss those precious moments cleaning up? Love your column. Santa's helper

Here is an idea for anyone living in an apartment with limited space for storage. I bought an inexpensive shelving unit, a metal one with three shelves, and set it in my 5-year-old son's closet. I gave him an old set of canisters that I covered with adhesive-backed vinyl paper.

He keeps his cowboys and Indians, small cars, crayons and other such items in the canisters on the shelf along with the "delicate" toys that can't go in the toy box.

Being a busy housewife I found that I was neglecting to cut the weekly coupons out of the daily paper.

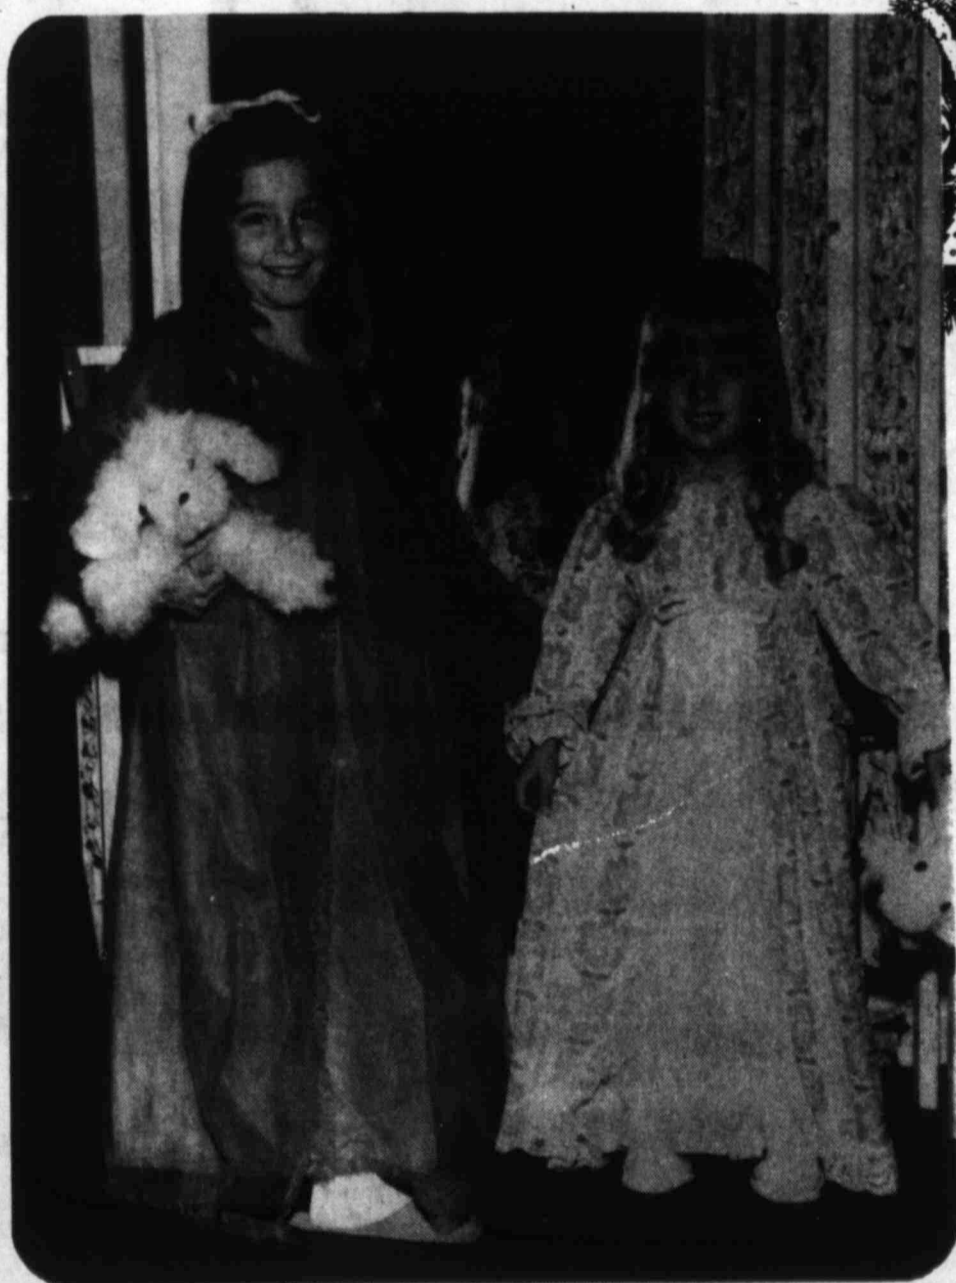

One day when my 7-year-old daughter was bored, and wanted something different to do, I suggest that she cut the coupons out of the paper for me. She just loved it!

I find it not only is helping me out, but she is also getting practice using the scissors and, most important of all, she is learning to save and look for bargains at an early age.

Dope Raids In Brazos County Triggering Fuss

BRYAN, Tex. (AP) — A dispute developed Wednesday between the Brazos County district attorney and state narcotics officers over arrest warrants issued for 17 persons.

Narcotics agents of the Department of Public Safety began rounding up persons named in arrest warrants Tuesday night but Dist. Atty. W. T. McDonald Jr., said Wednesday he may not prosecute the cases because the officers did not wait for grand jury indictments.

The roundup of persons named in the 22 warrants covered Brazos, Waller and Grimes counties.

KNOWN USERS

Officers said the arrests followed a two-month investigation into sale of LSD, marijuana, heroin and an animal tranquilizer than acts as a stimulant when taken by persons. The warrants were issued by Justice of the Peace Mike Calliham.

McDonald said Wednesday his office may not prosecute "any drug cases filed yesterday in Judge Mike Calliham's court and jeopardize a citizen's constitutional rights."

McDonald said state narcotics agents contacted him two weeks ago and asked for a special session of the grand jury to get sealed indictments against known narcotics users and dealers.

McDonald said the Brazos County grand jury never meets in December because of the holidays. He said a special meeting of the jury "would cause a great deal of speculation which is not conducive to the successful execution of warrants on sealed indictments."

CRUCIAL

Moreover, he said, undercover narcotics agents purchased drugs which he said were never verified by chemical laboratory tests as being illegal drugs. "It is crucial in charging a person with narcotics offense that the narcotic be identified since the narcotic dealers do not always deliver what they say they are delivering," he said.

The agents said lab tests on the drugs were not available at the time of the arrests. McDonald said later the cases will be presented to the grand jury next month at which time he will consider the cases on an individual basis.

Kenneth Decker, agent in charge of the state police's narcotics division, said his men secured the warrants because the agency must stay within time limits established by appellate courts. He said the courts have ruled that narcotics cases must be filed within three months of the alleged offenses. "Time was at hand to terminate the cases. If we wait any longer than three months, in the eyes of the court, it gets to be a dragnet and appears we are sweeping the street," Decker said.

Decker would not comment on McDonald's objections. "I think it can be cleared up," he said.

Huntsville Five Pretrial Dated

HOUSTON (AP) — Five men charged with capital murder for allegedly smuggling into prison weapons used in the Aug. 3 Huntsville shootout will have a pretrial hearing here March 24.

The hearing date was set in a conference today between lawyers and Houston District Court Judge Wallace Moore.

The five men, Lawrence Hall, 46; Fred Perales, 40; and brothers Benito G. Alonzo, 39; Adolfo Alonzo, 35; and Pedro Alonzo, 40, are charged with smuggling into the Huntsville prison pistols used by inmates in a shootout that left four persons dead.

The shootout followed a seige masterminded by prison inmate Fred Gomez Carrasco, 34. He and two others, Rudolfo Dominguez

New Marshal
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has confirmed the appointment of Marshall F. Rousseau as U.S. marshal for southern Texas. In a voice vote Wednesday, Marshall's appointment was one of several confirmed without debate or dissent.

Policemen Bargaining

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Policemen here became the first in a major Texas city to win collective bargaining rights in a special election Tuesday.

The proposal carried by a 6 to 1 margin in light voting. President Jerry Clancy of the San Antonio Police Association voiced surprise at the overwhelming victory.

State law permitting voters to grant such rights to policemen and firemen prohibits strikes.

"We will not affiliate with a union, and this association will represent the policemen," Clancy said.

The outcome of the election permits police representatives to bargain with city management on wages and working conditions.

In a similar election last July, San Antonio firemen won the privilege of collective bargaining.

Such rights for policemen do not become effective until October 1975.

Volunteers, Patients Stay Busy At Hospital

Volunteers and patients alike are enjoying a busy Christmas season at the Big Spring Veterans Hospital, according to Mrs. Dene Sheppard, Chief of Volunteer Services.

The volunteers, from all over the Permian Basin and South Plains areas, have treated the patients with everything from decorated trees and wards to gifts, Christmas parties and coffee each morning.

Future activities include a Christmas party next Monday with refreshments and gifts, sponsored by the Big Spring Girl Scouts, from Kentwood, Moss, Washington, and Boydston Elementary Schools.

The month started off with perhaps the largest activity, the Gift Shop, where patients can select Christmas gifts for each member of their family at no charge. The Gift Shop was sponsored by the Big Spring American Legion Aux., with assistance from other auxiliaries in Odessa, Brownfield, Lubbock, Midland, Slaton, Plainview, Crane and Snyder and from the South Plains Navy Mothers, Lubbock.

Other activities include a Christmas Party on Dec. 3, sponsored by the Navy Mothers, Lubbock and continued with regular bingo parties given during the month by American Legion Auxiliaries from Lubbock, Snyder, Midland and Odessa, VFW chapters from Abilene and Odessa, DAV chapter from Lubbock, BPO Eagles from Odessa and BPO Elks from Midland.

Another Christmas party, held Dec. 17, was sponsored by the VFW chapters from District 7, South Plains, while the Norman Read Assembly No. 299, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, Midland, sponsored a party of refreshments and entertainment on Dec. 14.

Gifts for a gift distribution held Dec. 16, were donated by several Big Spring organizations including the American Legion Auxiliary, Red Cross, WWI Auxiliary, DAV Auxiliary, Elks, VFW and Auxiliary, American Gold Star Mothers, NCO Wives Club, and Salvation Army.

Wards were decorated by the American Legion Aux., Lubbock, Big Spring Garden Club, African Violet Club, and Planters Garden Club while trees were decorated by the American Legion Aux., Lubbock, Gold Star

Mothers, National Assn. of Letter Carriers Aux. and World War I Veterans Aux., Big Spring.

Morning coffee was served throughout the month by several churches and organizations including VFW Auxiliaries from Big Spring, Snyder, Midland and Ft. Stockton, BPO Does, St. Paul Lutheran Church, Wesley Methodist Church, Prairie View Baptist Church, Webb AFB Family Services, First Christian Church, CWF, WWI Aux., Baptist Temple, WMU, Laura B. Hart, OES, Gold Star Mothers, Westside Baptist Women, NCO Wives Club, Webb, Eastern Star Post No. 67, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Officers Wives Club, Webb, 14th and Main Church of Christ, St. Thomas Catholic Church, DAV Aux., and Alpha Kappa Omicron Sorority.

Will Raise Gas Prices?

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill awaiting President Ford's signature would raise gasoline and heating oil prices over the next decade by $1 billion or $60 billion, depending on whose assumptions you accept.

The problem is that neither side's assumptions can be proved or rejected.

The bill, which would require that 30 per cent of imported oil be carried on American ships, was passed by the Senate on Monday amid reports that Ford would sign it despite his stated concern about its effect on foreign relations, national security and inflation.

Senate aides say the White House was told the President would have to accept the oil bill to obtain passage of a trade bill now in final conference between the House and Senate.

A Day Away From The Kids??

East Fourth Street Baptist Church, at 401 E. 4th Street., Big Spring, will be open for parents who wish to leave their children (ages 3-12 yrs.) while finishing up on the Christmas shopping, etc., on Friday, Saturday, and Monday, December 20, 21, and 23. Hours will be from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. (No lunch provided, but light refreshments will be served.)

Plenty of activities will be provided to help the children learn the real meaning of Christmas. It is requested that children be brought promptly at 9:00 a.m. and not picked up until 12:00 noon, to allow them complete participation in the planned activities.

So — Parents, come by and leave the children, and have a good day of shopping!

'TOOT, TOOT, TOOTSIE, GOODBYE' Nostalgia Craze Victim

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — There was a time when people got all tense and excited about such oddies as "Twelfth Street Rag" and "Toot, Toot, Tootsie, Goodbye." Today, Jim Lee plays them to relax. Or if his mood is a little different he'll crank—yes, crank—up the old phonograph and play an original Caruso record. Lee has been bitten by the current nostalgia craze, but his is of a specific variety—the musical kind. He has rebuilt and restored a 1920 player piano, a 1917 Victrola, a 1925 radio and an 1898 Edison phonograph.

GLORY HORN

His love for these musical machines reached new heights recently when he finished rebuilding the player piano and now in the afternoons he can hardly wait to sit down and play some of the original piano rolls. His family—wife, Sandra, and daughters, Sarah and Rebecca—have come, too, to love the rinky-tink sound of ragtime, so Lee's hobby has become a family affair.

The three months it took to rebuild the piano—tearing it down to the bare mechanism, putting in new tubing and redoing the pneumatics—have been worth it, say the Lees.

Because they live in an apartment, Lee had to do all of his work inside—on a closet door laid out along the bedroom wall.

"I've stumbled over tools and piano parts for months and Jim broke his toe when he tripped over the piano's mechanism," laughed Sandra.

IN THE BOOK

He bought the piano for $175. He added another $25 for parts and fabric and now its worth hasn't been estimated but must be considerable.

He learned the mechanics of rebuilding the piano from a book.

"It took hours just to polish the solid brass tracker bar on which the piano rolls turn," said Lee.

He eventually will refinish the wood although it is in good condition. The Lees want to strip the finish down to the original solid oak and birdseye maple.

Lee says the reason so few player pianos are available is that when the mechanism became ruined, people just threw it away and played the piano manually.

"Some of the old pianos now have been electrified because they're easier to play," said Lee. "You just set it going and the rolls turn. I think electrifying spoils them and I prefer them in their original state."

CRANKING

The 1917 Victrola uses 78 speed records—by hand cranking, of course, and was the cat's meow in the early 1900s. Many an afternoon was spent with this amazing invention turning out the hit songs of the day—everything from the golden voice of Enrico Caruso to the lilting tunes of the Folies of 1919.

Welfare Abuse

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—State Welfare Commissioner Raymond Vowell said Wednesday that $272,269 in welfare benefits have been obtained illegally in Texas over a six-month period.

Vowell said, however, that he did not believe that welfare fraud was organized or widespread.

The commissioner held a joint news conference with Dist. Atty. Bob Smith to report results of a recently begun statewide crackdown on alleged welfare abuse.

Smith said 19 welfare fraud charges were filed here this week and four more are expected.

Nearly $10,000 Is Collected

The Salvation Army's Christmas Cheer fund collections neared the $10,000 mark here as $9,831.54 has been collected in the campaign through Tuesday. Wednesday collections had not been added to the collection.

More than half the money came into the fund when one regular donor sent a check for $5,000, according to Capt. L. Z. Sullivan. The majority of the remainder of the sum was collected through the letter campaign, with some coming in from bell-ringers on the streets, and some coming in through the newspaper campaign.

The fund has passed its goal of $8,000, but Capt. Sullivan pointed out that if the donor that donated the $5,000 had not been generous, the fund would still be far short of the goal.

Glenn Campbell Cuts Tour Short

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Glenn Campbell has cut short a tour of New Zealand and returned to Los Angeles to recuperate from severe laryngitis.

A spokesman for Campbell said it was the first time the entertainer had ever been forced to cancel a performance. He left New Zealand with five shows left on the schedule, Nick Sevano, Campbell's personal manager, said Monday. At one point, Campbell's voice deteriorated to a croak and he performed mostly guitar selections.

Bell Choir Entertains Downtown Lions Here

Downtown Lions had their Christmas with a Christmas flavor Wednesday at the Settles. The United Methodist bell choir, directed by Mrs. Susan Dawes, presented a program of Christmas carols, including "Adeste Fideles," in which they had the members join with song. Hand bells, explained Mrs. Dawes, grew out of the old English tower bells, sometime run in sequences of eight. From this grew the art of pure tone small bells with flats and sharps as well as straight notes. The impresario P. T. Barnum booked one of the outstanding cathedral teams in the late 1890's but thought members would be more colorful in Swiss costumes. Hence the misnoer, "Swiss bell ringers."

The Methodist bell choir took part in a state festival last year and hopes to participate in the nationals at Logan, Utah, next summer.

Others in the group were Margie Hill, Jean Cantrell, Linda Faulkner, Gail Bedsoe, Ann Patterson, Anna Ward, Jobeth Corwin, Patty Parham, Kay Kaiser, and Charles Parham, substiting for an absent member. Archie Adkins was in charge of the program. President Aubrey Bryans commended Harold Raines and Wes Deats for heading two key Christmas committees — Salvation Army bell ringing and State Hospital party — for the club.

Downtown Lions will not meet again until Jan. 8 since Christmas and New Year's Day fall on the traditional Wednesday.

Plan To Raise Price Of Food Stamps Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ford administration's plan to raise the price of food stamps to cut government costs by $650 million is coming under attack from Republican and Democratic congressmen. The higher prices, proposed Dec. 6 by President Ford, were described by the administration as part of the effort to fight inflation.

SIGN PETITION Sixty-two members of Congress, including eight Republicans, have signed a petition asking that the increases be abandoned. Rep. W.R. Poage, D-Tex., chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, indicated last week that his committee would review the proposed regulations.

The food stamp program, administered by the Agriculture Department, provides government financial support for the purchase of food.

LOW INCOME Under current regulations, food stamp recipients pay between 16 per cent and 30 per cent of their monthly income to buy the coupons, which can be used in lieu of cash to purchase food at most supermarkets. Under the proposed regulations, all recipients with $30 or more net monthly income will have to purchase the stamps at the maximum rate of 30 per cent starting March 1.

An individual making $209 a month pays $36 for food stamps worth $46 in a store. If the rate is increased to 30 per cent of monthly income, the stamps would cost $62, but still could purchase only $46 worth of groceries and would thus not be worth buying. With the stamps costing 30 per cent of an individual's income, anyone earning more than $153.33 would pay more than $46 for $46 in coupons.

INDIFFERENCE

Rep. Donald M. Fraser, D-Minn., said Wednesday that half of the elderly poor persons now buying stamps would not find them worth while after the price is increased.

He said the increase would affect 95 per cent of the food stamp recipients.

Rep. Edward I. Koch, D-N.Y., in a statement in the Congressional Record earlier this week, said the increase in foodstamp prices "shows a callous indifference to the poor people of this nation."

Udall Urges Immediate Slash In Oil Imports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Secretary of the State Stewart Udall has urged an immediate cut in oil imports and a fuel rationing program as part of an energy conservation program.

He said the country has been deceived too long by the belief that there are alternatives waiting to be discovered to oil and natural gas as "cheap fuel" for an abundant society.

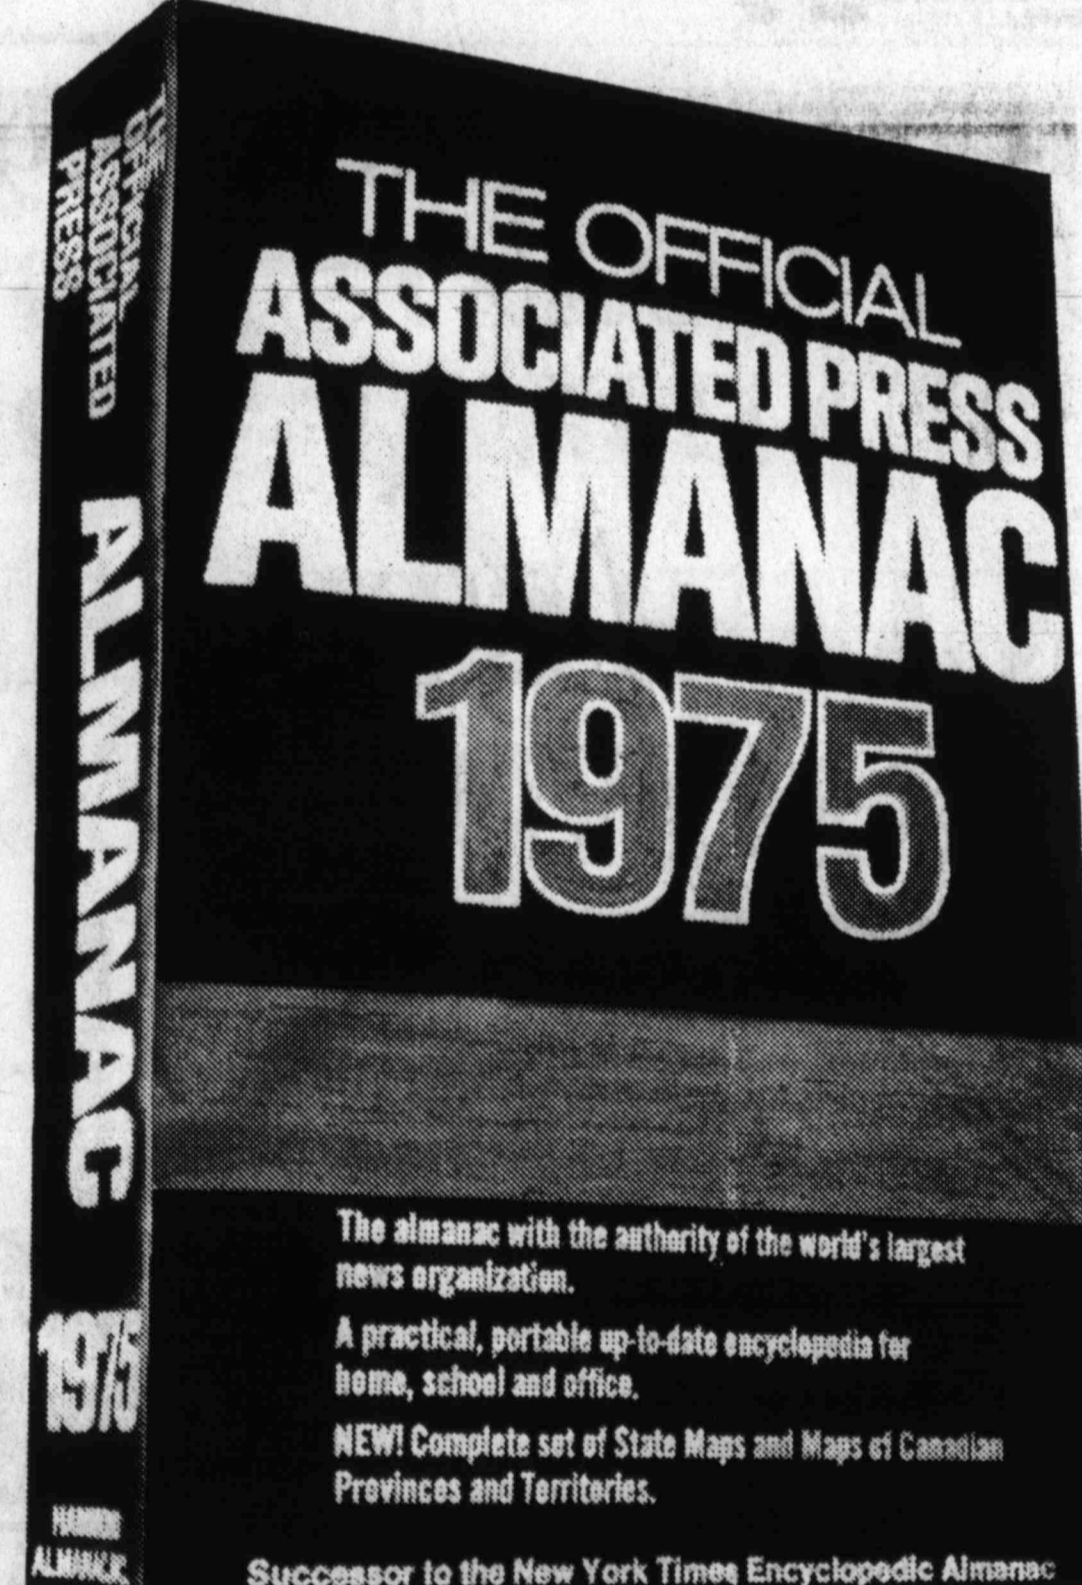

The opposite is true, Udall told the Washington Press Club Wednesday.

threat of a renewed Middle East conflict and the still-rising price of Middle Eastern oil should make emergency measures of conservation an obvious priority of the Ford administration.

Instead, Udall said, the whole last year since the oil embargo shock has been wasted on meaningless volunteer efforts at curtailment, while national policy drifted.

Udall said he now realizes he was taken in by the oil industry's optimism when he was secretary of the interior.

Panthers Pick Up Big Win

AP Sports Writer

The Marquette Warriors have been hard to swallow for an awfully long time, but the Pittsburgh Panthers gave them a taste of their own medicine Wednesday night.

The Panthers, looking more like Marquette than the Warriors themselves, gave their opponents a good dose of defense and then provided the knockout drops at the foul line.

The combination provided them with an upset 65-58 victory over the nation's seventh ranked basketball team.

"This is kind of like Christmas coming early," said Pittsburgh Coach Buzz Ridd after the upset. "It was a great win for us."

An infrequent loser, Marquette has won more than 88 per cent of its games in the last five years — the top record among independents. The defeat was only the Warriors' 18th loss in that time.

The Panthers used the frantic Marquette style to pull off the upset, a clutching defense that barely allowed the Warriors breathing room. That's been Marquette's trademark under Coach Al McGuire.

Jim Bolla gave unheralded Pitt its triumph with two crucial one-on-one conversions in the final two minutes. When Bolla fouled out with a minute to play, he was given a standing ovation.

"I was happy but I don't think it was for me," said the 6-foot-8 senior. "I think it was more for the team."

Rangers Plan TV Coverage

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Rangers, once baseball's biggest laugh, have reached such a point in respectability that one of their American League game's will be nationally televised next season.

The Rangers, who finished 37 games behind Oakland two years ago but were just five games behind the World Champion A's in the AL West in 1973, will play the World Series kings April 12 on television. It will be the first nationally televised game for Texas originating from Arlington Stadium.

Texas will open the season April 8 against the Minnesota Twins. The schedule shows he Rangers with 74 night games in 1975.

Success Story

No Cuts Allowed In 'Cat Program

DALLAS (AP) — High school football coaches, unlike their college counterparts, generally don't have to rely on recruiting to build a dynasty on the field.

But nestled in the heart of the East Texas Bible belt Big Sandy High School Coach Jim Norman knows participation is one of the keys to victory when there are only 81 males in the student body.

"We offer a football program at Big Sandy that the kids enjoy," said Norman. "If they want to play, we'll give them a uniform and they won't get out."

"We try to have a little fun out there."

But it's been said that you have the most fun when you win, so the Big Sandy Wildcats have had a ball the last four years.

In 1971, the last season in which Class B schools did not have a statewide playoff, BSHS compiled a 12-0 record and a regional title.

The Wildcats followed in 1972 with an 11-1 mark in which they lost in the quarterfinal playoffs. Last year, Big Sandy went 14-0 with a state title and in 1974 Norman took his team to 13 consecutive victories before it tied Celina 0-0 Saturday for a state co-championship and 50-1-1 mark in the last four years.

The 1974 team included 26 players and Norman also fielded a B team with another 25. What about the other 30 red-blooded East Texans attending Big Sandy?

"Well, 24 of them also are students at the Garner Ted Armstrong Bible Institute and they can't play ball because of religious beliefs," said Norman. "So that just leaves six in the entire school who don't play football."

This would seem to leave the Big Sandy band with a scarcity of male members. But Norman has that figured out, too.

"In 1971, we had just 51 males in the school and 38 played football. Two of those played in the band in the first half, marched at halftime, and then suited up to play some in the last half."

Defense is a key to the Big Sandy success although the Wildcats scored 50 points or more seven times this year and averaged nearly 45 per game, Norman said.

Over the last four seasons, the Wildcats have allowed

Henrich was declared a free agent after Judge Knessaw Mountain Landis, the baseball commissioner, decided the Cleveland Indians had impeded his progress in the minors.

Lady Calls Plays

HOUSTON (AP) — If Barbara O'Brien decides to settle down and raise a family, she'll have a distinct advantage over most mothers when her young football player comes home from the big game.

"Son, you should have thrown to your halfback coming out of the backfield on that last play," she might counsel him.

Or, perhaps, "Son, you're not stepping up into the pocket line I showed you. And for goodness sake, remember to look off those defenses."

Miss O'Brien, you see, is a professional quarterback, playing for the Dallas Bluebonnets in the Women's National Football League.

She's also one of 24 women athletes from various sports who will compete for $83,000 in prizes in the Astrodome Friday and Saturday in the Women's Superstars competition. Twelve finalists will be selected here to compete in the championship finals at Rotunda, Fla. in January.

"I'd say our competition is about on par with high school football," said Miss O'Brien, who took up the sport two years ago to get exercise. "We're a little slower though."

Miss O'Brien said seven teams currently are in the league, which plays to play a regular schedule next year.

"We play by NFL rules except we have 12 1/2 minute quarters," she said.

"People always say 'what? a woman quarterback,' but I've watched football all my life and I never realized how complicated it really is. I guess that's why I'm playing quarterback. I really wanted to study it and make everything work right."

"We run from the pro-set and the I-formation. We started out two years ago with the wishbone but switched. It's pretty sophisticated. We have our flea-flickers too and we run about 500 plays."

Miss O'Brien said the Bluebonnets are coached by two men, Mike Anderson and Bob Daily. The Bluebonnets have performed in Texas Stadium and played the Los Angeles team, considered the best in the league, four times, winning twice.

Asked if anything unusual ever happened at games, she said "Not really. You get a lot of cute remarks from writers but we're just doing something that we enjoy."

"Nothing out of the ordinary happens, except occasionally the coaches come into the dressing room at the wrong time."

Playoff Path Favors Raiders And Vikings

NEW YORK (AP) — The countdown for Super Bowl IX begins for real Saturday and all roads lead to New Orleans.

Meanwhile, the paths lead to Oakland and Minnesota this Saturday and Pittsburgh and Los Angeles on Sunday.

Then the stops should be at Oakland and Minnesota.

But don't count on it, because the old Pro Pigs Pickers is still picking up the pieces from a disastrous regular season, in which the count was 120-61-1 for .663. The final week's showing was nine correct calls and four incorrect.

So all aboard for Oakland and Minnesota:

That's not to say the Dolphins don't have plenty. They do. Just ask the teams they beat this year.

Most of all, however, the Raiders have George Blanda. So, let's say ... RAIDERS 27, DOLPHINS 21.

ST. LOUIS (10-4) at MINNESOTA (10-4): They kept saying, back on Nov. 11, that the Viking-Cardinal clash could be a prelude to the first round of the National Conference playoffs. And sure enough, it was.

The Vikings, behind Fran

Tarkenton, won that game 28-24. And it wasn't as close as the score indicated ... VIKINGS 27, CARDINALS 17.

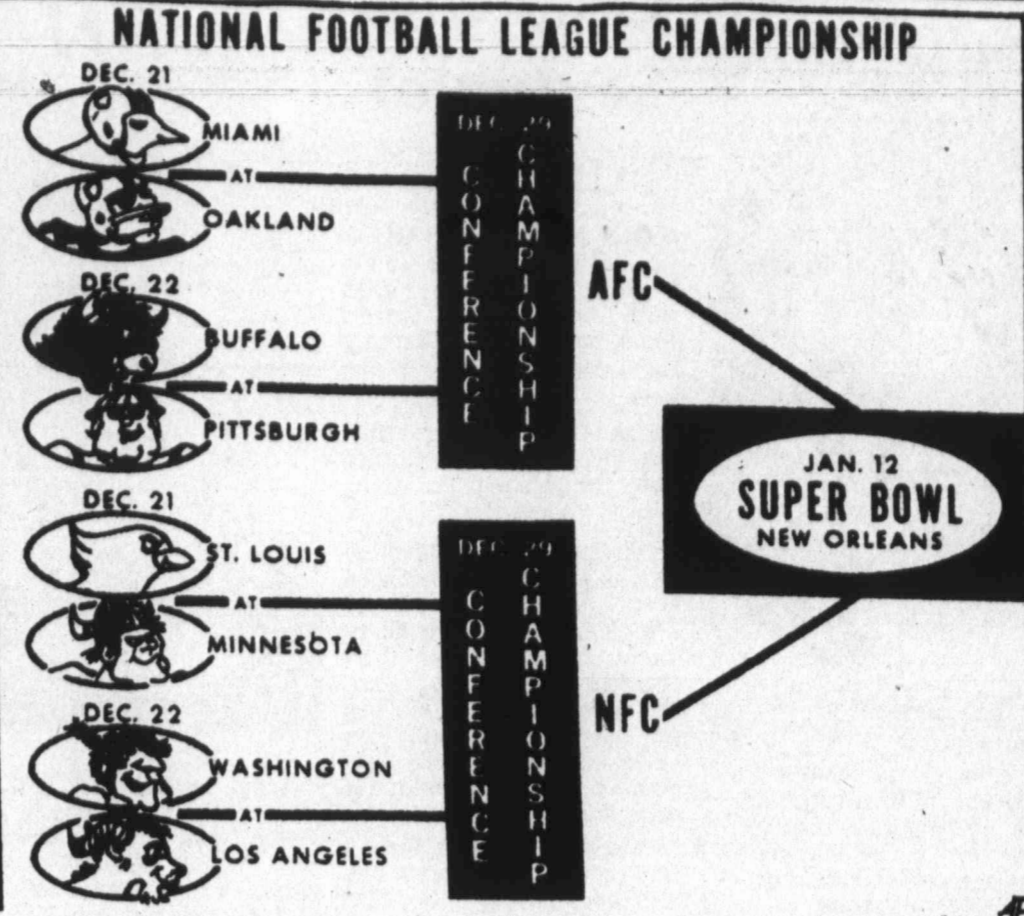

BUFFALO (9-5) at PITTSBURGH (10-4): The Bills have come a long way, but not quite far enough to get past the Pittsburgh defense, which has Mean Joe Greene among other things. Buffalo may be able to match the Steeler running game, however, but that won't be enough.

And did you know that Steeler quarterback Terry

Bradshaw and Buffalo quarterback Joe Ferguson both come from the same hometown, and both played for the same high school? It's Shreveport, La., and the school was Woodlawn. Anyway ... STEELERS 31, BILLS 20.

WASHINGTON (10-4) at LOS ANGELES (10-4): Two weeks ago the Redskins beat the Rams 23-17 in Los Angeles. It was a "must" game then for Washington, but didn't mean anything to Los Angeles, which already had its division title wrapped up.

This time it's for keeps. And the final score should be ... RAMS 24, REDSKINS 21.

Buffalo Players Honored

The District 3-B All-District football team has been announced by L. R. Dunn, Loraine superintendent, district chairman.

Brad Stevens, Junior, Forsan, was named to the first team, offense. Stevens along with another Buffalo, Landon Soles, senior, landed on the first team, defense.

Six Buffaloes received honorable mention.

14 GAME REPORT

Johnson, Top Hawk Scorer

Marvin Johnson is the leading Howard College shooter through 14 games. The 6-4 freshman forward shows an average of 22.79 points per game.

Johnson's 14 game output reveals 319 total points. He has hit 138 of 247 field goal attempts and tossed in 43 of 56 charity line tries.

Under the boards, Johnson shows 198 rebounds. He is credited with 31 assists.

Johnson and Larry Erves, 6-4 freshman forward share individual scoring honors, both leading the Hawk pack in six games each. Erves trails Johnson in individual scoring, averaging 21.08 points per contest.

Howard College boasts over all 11 wins 3 losses. In the Western Conference, the Hawks share first place with Western Texas, Snyder. Both teams are 3-0.

On the Hawk court, Howard College is undefeated in six games played. HC has won 5 and lost 3 on the road.

Howard College is currently on its Christmas and New Year break. The Hawks resume action Jan. 6, hosting the three-day ABC Olympic Classic.

Charley Spotted

NEW YORK (AP) — Otis Armstrong of Denver, Ken Anderson of Cincinnati and Lydell Mitchell of Baltimore captured the major titles in the final individual statistics released today by the National Football League.

Armstrong, the second-year man from Purdue who rushed for just 90 yards as a rookie, piled up 1,407 on the ground in 1974 to succeed Buffalo's O.J. Simpson as the NFL's rushing king.

The 5-foot-10, 196-pound Armstrong got his chance when the Broncos' Floyd Little was slowed by preseason injuries. And he made the most of the opportunity, averaging 5.3 yards on 263 carries and bursting in for nine touchdowns.

Rookie Don Woods of the San Diego Chargers took the No. 2 spot with 1,162 yards, the most ever gained by a rookie, surpassing the 1,105 yard gained by Green Bay's John Brockington in 1971.

Simpson, nagged by minor injuries, finished third this year with 1,125 yards. Lawrence McCutcheon of the Los Angeles Rams was fourth overall and first in the National Conference with 1,109 yards. Pittsburgh's Franco Harris was the only other runner to crack the 1,000-yard barrier, finishing with 1,006.

Anderson, who sat out the final game of the season due to a back injury, completed 213 of 328 pass attempts for a 64.9 percentage, good for 2,667 yards and 18 touchdowns with 10 interceptions.

Ken Stabler of the Oakland Raiders, who led the league with 26 touchdowns, finished second in the overall passing ratings, followed by Sonny Jurgensen of Washington, James Harris of Los Angeles and Charley Johnson of Denver.

WE'VE GOT L'EGGS — The legs of jumping jacks on the Big Spring High School and Andrews basketball teams support bodies scrambling furiously for the ball in a recent game here. Andrews came down with the ball and eventually won a 64-62 thriller.

GRAMBLING FIRST Howard Makes Big Jump

NEW YORK (AP) — For years, athletes from black colleges have been prominent in pro basketball arenas and on pro football fields. Now, the colleges themselves are reaping some of the rewards.

Forced to play each other, black schools have traveled the back roads, playing in gymnasiums and stadiums where only 1,000 to 3,000 people were on hand.

Then came the Grambling Tigers, a small Louisiana school that has produced more professional football players than any other, with the exception of Notre Dame. And now comes Howard University of Washington, D.C.

Howard is one of four predominantly-black schools competing this season as a major school in basketball. The others — all members of the Mideastern Atlantic Conference — are Delaware State, North Carolina State and Maryland-Eastern Shore, a participant last year in the National Invitation Tournament.

Next month Howard travels to Chapel Hill, N.C.,

HOW MUCH MORE OPPORTUNITY? — Two black college basketball players who got more playing time during the National Football League season are James Harris of the Los Angeles Rams, left, and Joe Gilliam of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Players, coaches and observers interviewed by The Associated Press agree that black quarterbacks have more opportunity than in the past, but there are many views on how much more.

Sports In Brief

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Rangers, once baseball's biggest laugh, have reached such a point in respectability that one of their American League games will be nationally televised next season.

The Rangers, who finished 37 games behind Oakland two years ago but were just five games behind the A's in the AL West in 1973, will play the world champions April 12 on television. It will be the first nationally televised game for Texas originating from Arlington Stadium.

Texas will open the season April 8 against the Minnesota Twins. The schedule shows the Rangers with 74 night games in 1975.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Defensive linebacker coach George Kelly will remain on Notre Dame's football staff, and new head coach Dan Devine says he expects to retain others from retiring Ara Parseghian's 11 man staff.

Devine said on Wednesday he was still in the process of interviewing Parseghian's assistants.

Kelly, a 1953 Notre Dame graduate, returned as an assistant to Parseghian in 1969 after eight seasons as an assistant to Bob Devaney at Nebraska.

21 Have Lures Out For A's 'Catfish'

OAKLAND (AP) — Twenty-one major league baseball teams have their lures out for Jim "Catfish" Hunter. Twenty want to sign him and one wants to keep him.

And the teams trying to reel in the Catfish got the green light Wednesday from Alameda County, Calif., Superior Court ... at least until Jan. 3.

While one team after another was burning up the telephone lines to Hunter's lawyer in Ahsokie, N.C., Judge Spurgeon Avakian refused to grant Charles O. Finley a temporary restraining order that would have prevented the clubs from making Hunter offers he might not be able to refuse.

However, Avakian set Jan. 3 for a hearing of the case on its merits.

In refusing to grant the temporary restraining order, Avakian said: "I don't think realistically any club will sign him with the court action still pending. I also think Hunter would want to wait to get the most he probably could out of any contract. I don't see enough basis to challenge the arbitration in the meantime."

On Monday, a three-man arbitration panel decided that Finley had failed to live up to a contract agreement with Hunter and ruled the star pitcher of the world champion Oakland A's a free agent. Hunter took his case to arbitration after the World Series, claiming Finley had failed to place $50,000 in a special deferred fund.

Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn has ruled that no team can sign Hunter until midnight Sunday. However, 12 teams contacted Hunter's lawyers within three hours after the legal bidding war for his pitching services started at 9 a.m., EST, Wednesday. They were the New York Yankees, New York Mets, Kansas City Royals, Philadelphia Phillies, Montreal Royals, Atlanta Braves, Cleveland Indians, California Angels, Cincinnati Reds, Detroit Tigers, Pittsburgh Pirates and Boston Red Sox.

"We are making appointments to discuss the contract starting Thursday," said Joe Flythe, a partner in the law firm of Cherry, Cherry, Flythe and Evans.

Eight more clubs got into the act Wednesday afternoon but it was not disclosed which ones. However, two of the four teams which haven't been heard from — all teams have until Saturday to enter the race — are the A's and the Baltimore Orioles, American League East Division champs.

The Orioles have a club policy against multiple-year contracts and Hunter's lawyers told General Manager Frank Cashen one of the prime considerations being sought by the pitcher is a multi-year contract.

Mesquite In Finals

A crowd estimated near 25,000 was expected Saturday night to watch Brazoswood and Mesquite joust in Austin's Memorial Stadium for the first Class 4A Texas Schoolboy football title in either school's history.

It's the 15th game for both teams in a long, hard season that began on hot practice fields in August. Brazoswood is 13-1 and Mesquite, an unheralded outfit which bumped off No. 1 ranked Wichita Falls Rider, is 11-0-3.

Other championship games this Saturday show Aledo and Grapeland meeting in the Class A showdown in a day game at Temple while Newton and Spearman collided Saturday night in Wichita Falls to settle the Class 2A title.

Brazoswood, Aledo, and Newton were rated slight favorites in a topsy turvy season of upsets.

In action last weekend, Cuero successfully defended its Class 3A crown with a victory over Gainesville while No. 1 rated Big Sandy had to settle for a co-championship with gritty Celina following a 0-0 tie in the Class B finale.

Jim Hart Selected

NEW YORK (AP) — Twelve National Football Conference players, including St. Louis quarterback Jim Hart and Dallas receiver Drew Pearson, will be making their first appearance in this season's Pro Bowl.

Hart and Pearson, both having glittering seasons, were among those named Wednesday to the NFC's all-star team that will meet the AFC in Miami's Orange Bowl next January 20.

Red Raider Reception Scheduled

LUBBOCK — A pre-Peach Bowl Football Game reception for all Texas Tech ex-student supporters, and other Red Raider fans will be held from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 28, in the Hyatt Regency Atlanta.

The Hyatt Regency Atlanta at 265 Peachtree Street N. E. has been designated the Texas Tech Headquarters for the Peach Bowl weekend, according to wayne James, executive Director of the Texas Tech Ex-Students Association.

He said hotel reservations may be made by contacting the hotel directly and that fans should be sure to tell the reservations office they are Texas Tech ex-students or supporters of the team.

Fans are invited to order Peach Bowl tickets from the Texas Tech Athletic Office, P. O. Box 4199, Lubbock, 79409.

Tickets are $7.50 each plus 50 cents per order for handling and postage. Orders should be received at the Athletic Ticket Office no later than Dec. 19.

Texas Tech plays Vanderbilt in the Peach Bowl.

Only One Sextuplet Survives

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — "I sure hope she pulls through," Charlotte Lange said, holding tiny Jolene Rene, her first-born and only surviving sextuplet.

The father, Alvin, 31, watched as his wife cuddled the three-month premature baby during a hospital visit.

Doctors at Valley Medical Center said that being born first may have saved her life. Her younger brothers Jason and Brian died Monday of hyaline membrane disease which starves the lungs of oxygen. The other Lange sextuplets succumbed earlier to post-natal complications.

"We're not certain. But we do know that her lungs are several hundred per cent better than any of the other sextuplets," said Dr. James Harrod. "We think her being born first and having early ruptured membranes may have contributed to more maturity of the lungs."

Harrod told a news conference Jolene Rene, who weighs slightly more than two pounds, still spends some time in a respirator because she suffers from apnea, a condition in premature babies which they sometimes forget to breathe.

Nurses said the infant girl's condition was stable. They said she was being fed donated mother's milk through a tube placed in her stomach. Harrod said it was unlikely she would gain much weight in the next two weeks.

"She will be using the nutrients she receives just to hold her own," he said. "Gradually, she will be able to accommodate more and more feedings and hopefully, we'll have no complications in feeding."

Mrs. Lange, 26, gave birth to the sextuplets Dec. 8 after taking the fertility drug Pergonal. She said she also took the drug prior to giving birth to quadruplets in 1973, all of whom died.

The San Jose housewife said doctors told her it was the only way she could conceive. She said she would consider taking it again, if necessary, in order to bear children.

Lenient Treatment Given Youth Blasted

HOUSTON (AP) — Parents in a neighborhood where two young brothers were murdered have protested what they called lenient treatment given the youth accused in the case.

The victims were Ronald Elliot, 12, and his brother Kenneth, 11. Ronald was killed in November 1973 and Kenneth was slain last May.

A neighbor, Lawrence A. Stempel Jr., 16, made a statement in the case but his statement was taken by officers without a lawyer present.

A prosecutor said the statement could not be used in court, and Stempel was committed as a juvenile to the Mountainview State School. He is scheduled to be released on his 18th birthday.

"There is no justice if he is turned loose," said Mrs. Betty Elliot, the victims' mother, at a meeting Tuesday night.

Martin Elliot, father of the slain boys, said, "I would do anything to keep him off the streets. Something needs to be done. 'It's too late for my sons. It's other persons I'm worried about."

Sheriff's deputies made no arrests after Ronald, his head almost severed from his body, was found slain.

When the boy's brother was found mutilated and slain six months later, Sheriff Jack Heard canceled all leaves until the case was solved.

Are you fond of fondue? If your heart melts at the taste, but your mind wails at the thought, cheer up, you don't have to spend a lot of bread on fancy equipment and cooking classes to have a fondue party. Fondue can easily be prepared in any heavy pan on the range. Set the pan over a candle warmer when serving.

GOLDEN CHEESE FONDUE
1 lb. Cheddar cheese, shredded
1 tbsps. flour
1 1/2 oz. scotch, Bourbon, or blended whiskey
1 small bottle (7 ounces) club soda
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1/4 tsp. dry mustard
1 tsp. butter
1 egg, lightly beaten
Fresh or Italian bread, cut in chunks, each with crust.

Toss shredded cheese with flour. Combine scotch, Bourbon, or blended whiskey, club soda, seasonings and butter in a fondue pot or saucepan and bring to a simmer. Add cheese a handful at a time, stirring constantly, and allowing it to melt before adding more. Cook, stirring until cheese has melted and mixture thickened. Add a little of the hot cheese mixture to the beaten egg and then stir back into pan. Stir smooth. Serve with crusty chunks of bread for dipping. Makes 4 servings.

Beef Good Christmas Gift

COLLEGE STATION — Looking for a good buy on a practical Christmas gift? The consider beef as a top choice, says a meats specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Excellent buys are abundant in the 'light' beef section of today's markets," points out Dr. Frank Orts. "This beef might be merchandised as calf, light beef, budget beef or baby beef, just to mention a few of the more common names in use today." Orts suggests buying beef either by the piece in the market or by the side or quarter from many different sources such as meat markets, locker plants or any plant selling beef. "Many grocers and supermarkets are promoting the giving of Texas agricultural products for Christmas gifts, and beef offers an excellent choice," believes Orts.

whipped topping, thawed (x) Or use 1 teaspoon vanilla and 1 teaspoon lemon juice.
Place ladyfingers on bottom and around sides of a 9x5-inch loaf pan. Combine gelatin and sugar in saucepan. Stir in milk and water.
Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil. Pour a small amount of hot mixture into egg yolks, stirring quickly to blend. Return to saucepan, and cook ans stir 1 minute. Chill until slightly thickened. Blend in brandy and whipped topping; pour into lined pan. Chill until firm — at least 2 hours. Invert onto serving dish. If desired, top with sweetened fruit, flavored with kirsch. Makes about 3 1/2 cups or 6 servings.

Broiler, Egg Supplies Off, Feed Prices Up

AUSTIN — Suppliers of broilers and eggs have fallen this year as Texas poultry producers culled laying and broiler flocks in the face of rising feed prices. Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported that egg production during the first ten months of this year was nine per cent below levels of a year earlier. "Total egg production for Jan.-Oct. is 159 million dozen, as compared with 174 million dozen during the same period last year," White said.

likely to decline as usual during the spring. However, White added that the decline will be less than the 1974 drop. Broiler meat output is down slightly from 1973, and farmers have been hatching fewer chicks and setting fewer eggs for early 1975 marketings. High feed prices combined with large breed supplies, which could limit most price increases, are expected to curtail broiler flock expansion next year. One bright spot for most consumers is the increased supply of turkey for the 1974 holiday season. Texas turkey producers have hatched nine per cent more heavy breed pullets over last year, but heavy breeds placed in incubators are less than year-earlier levels. According to White, the supply of turkey in Texas cold storage is more than 434 million pounds. "This is a 60 per cent increase over 1973 stocks and represents an ample supply for consumers this winter," White reported.

In-Between Suggestions

COLLEGE STATION — as the holiday pace "slows" a bit, the hostess with imagination and "leftover energy" can make the week between holidays a special one — with some different ideas.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, offers these suggestions for "between-holidays" eating.

CHIPPED PARMESAN SWEETS
2-3 (2 lb. medium sweet potatoes
1 cup grated Parmesan Cheese
Salt
Cook potatoes in jackets 30-45 minutes, or until tender. Peel and cut in 1/4-inch thick slices. Deep fry in 375 degrees fat until lightly browned. Drain, shake on Parmesan cheese and sprinkle with salt. Serve immediately. Makes 4-6 servings.

Or, to prepare ahead, deep-fry potato slices partially or until just golden. Drain on absorbent paper. Just before serving, re-fry chips about 1 minute, or enough to brown and process as above.

GREEN RICE
3/4 cup thinly sliced onions
3 tbsps. salad oil
1 cup uncooked rice
1/2 cup minced bell pepper
1/4 cup minced parsley
2 cups of chicken stock
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper

Cook onions in salad oil until soft, but not brown. Add remaining ingredients, put into a 2-quart baking pan with cover or use foil. Bake at 350 degrees in gas oven for about 30 minutes. Toss lightly with fork before serving. Serves 6.

EPP'S CONFETTI RELISH
1 No. 2 can sauerkraut
1 can bean sprouts
1 can French-cut green beans
1 cup chopped bell pepper
1 1/4 cups chopped onion
1 7-oz. can whole pimientos, chopped
1 cup grated carrots
Drain everything — marinate for 24 hours in following:
1 cup vinegar
1 cup sugar
1 cup oil
Keeps indefinitely!

LEFTOVER TURKEY
Cream the cut-up turkey, add a bright touch of pimiento. Mix up biscuit batter using 2 cups biscuit mix and adding a cup of whole kernel corn. In no time: creamed turkey on hot corn waffles.

BOILED SHRIMP
1 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 1/2 oz. can shrimp, shredded
2 tps. cream

1-3rd cup sour cream
2 tps. grated onion
Melt cheese in a saucepan over very low heat. Add cream and Worcestershire sauce and mix well. Remove from heat and add shrimp, sour cream, and grated onion. Spread on toasted bread cut in squares, diamonds, or rectangles and brown under the broiler. Serve at once topped with small pieces of pimiento if desired. Makes enough for about 2 dozen small sandwiches.

HOT EGGNOG
While eggnog is readily available, take advantage of its tasty goodness and serve it as a snack with crackers or butter cookies... or for company with thinly sliced fruit cake.
To make 6 servings: combine 1 1/2 cups dairy eggnog, 1/2 cup milk, 1 stick cinnamon and 1/2 teaspoon of cloves in a saucepan. Heat just to the boiling point. Pour into cups and top with sweetened whipped cream and freshly ground nutmeg.

EGGNOG TOAST
A toast to the hostess who serves "Eggnog French Toast." She dips baker's raisin bread slices in dairy eggnog and skillet fires them in hot shortening. What a treat for a holiday brunch!

POPCORN BALLS
Mix 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup white corn syrup, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine and 3 squares chocolate (grated). Cook to hard ball stage (254 degrees F.). Pour over 4 quarts of freshly popped corn and mix quickly. Butter hands and shape into balls. Wrap each ball in different colors of cellophane.
Arrange balls in basket or tray for a neighborly treat.

PEPPERED NUTS
Sauté one pound pecan nut meats in a little butter. Add 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, a dash of Tabasco, salt, and white pepper. Toast in oven at 300 degrees F. for about 20 minutes. Serve hot.

STAND-UP COOKIES
Cut half of one batch of sugar cookie dough into fancy shapes — trees, Santas, snowmen; cut remainder in plain circles. Bake; frost shapes and decorate; Put a spoonful of frosting in center of round cookie; let harden slightly and stand decorated cookies upright.

GELATIN COMBINATION
..... with snowy topping

No Sugar Used In This Two-Toned Delicacy

Holiday Crown dessert is a delicious greeting in itself that contrasts frosty green gelatin with shimmering red gelatin in fruity flavors. Easy to make and impressive. Strawberry gelatin crowns a blend of prepared whipped topping and lime gelatin when unmolded. Garnish with a wreath of whole cranberries and mint leaves or holly leaves.

1 cup cold water (x) Or use any other red flavor.

Dissolve strawberry gelatin in 2 cups boiling water. Add 1 1/2 cups cold water. Pour into an 8-cup mold. Chill until set, but not firm. Meanwhile, dissolve lime flavor gelatin and sugar in 2 cups boiling water. Add 1 cup cold water. Chill until slightly thickened. Prepare whipped topping mix as directed on package; blend into the lime gelatin. Spoon into mold. Chill overnight or until firm. Unmold. Garnish with fresh mint or holly leaves and whole cranberries around base, if desired. Makes about 8 cups or 12 servings.

Moist Cookies With Mincemeat

Using little sugar, these cookies are moist and spicy and zesty with the addition of a little brandy.

HOLIDAY CROWN
2 packages (3 oz. each) or 1 package (6 oz.) strawberry flavor gelatin (x)
2 cups boiling water
1 1/2 cups cold water
2 packages (3 oz. each) or 1 package (6 oz.) lime flavor gelatin
1/2 cup sugar
2 cups boiling water
1 envelope whipped topping mix

Store Almond-Choco Crunch

Mix 1/2 cup each white and brown sugar with 1-3rd cup slivered almonds and 1 unbeaten egg white. Spread thin on greased and floured cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees 20 minutes. Cool, then crush on cookie sheet with rolling pin. Scrape off and combine with 3 or 4 tablespoons chopped or grated sweet chocolate. Store in covered jar. Serve atop ice cream, canned peaches or pears.

SOUTHERN ACCENTS, MEDICAL CARE WOES

Russian Families Adjusting To Life In U.S.

By ROBERT H. REID
Associated Press Writer
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Alexander Ehrenberg, formerly an electrical engineer in the Baltic seaport of Riga, speaks enthusiastically about his new home — except "for those Southern accents."

members, the families talked about their new lives. "First time we arrived, we had no car and it was a problem," said Ehrenberg. "In Europe they have a good system of transportation. But now we have a car and it is no problem."

Ehrenberg's wife Ingrid, a former English teacher, helped translate the state drivers' manual into Russian so the others could obtain licenses. Ingrid, who is teaching English to the new arrivals, said costly American medicine and the system of life and health insurance was still puzzling to most of them. "Don't forget about the quality of medicine in the United States and Russia," her husband added. "In Russia there are a lot of good doctors. But the quality of medicine is better here, especially the dentists."

Some came to this country because of family ties and others wanted no part of the sterner life in Israel. "All my life I had not the opportunity to do as I pleased," Ehrenberg said. "Now I am free. Now it is only my concern where I stay."

For people used to viewing authorities with fear and suspicion, the role of American law officers was not easy to accept. Through an interpreter, one woman said she was astonished when a policeman drove her home from work after she had missed a bus. LIFE JACKET

Susan Bruck of the local Women's B'nai B'rith said new arrivals sometimes cringed at the appearance of authority. "We took one family out on our boat the first day that they were here," she said. "The Coast Guard stopped us for a life jacket check. It was like a claw in their backs; you could see them shake. We had told them about the police but we forgot to tell them about the Coast Guard."

The settlement experience has taught local Jewish leaders many lessons about bringing in immigrants. "We have toned down the program because I want to be sure before we bring in these people," said Irwin Pepper, president of the B'nai B'rith chapter. "My first concern is that each and every family has what it needs. Before I bring in another family, I want to be sure they have a job; a job he can handle and that he is at least independent and self-reliant. If we take his independence away, then it's a very bad situation."

JOB MARKET
Pepper said the limited job market in Charlotte made it difficult to find jobs for white collar workers and professionals. The heads of the families who left for New York were engineers who arrived in Charlotte when the construction industry was beginning its decline, he said. "These families that are coming out have no concept of what America is like," Mrs. Bruck said. "They miss the big cities and all the people. They don't understand that here, people go into their apartments and stay to themselves."

The Ehrenbergs and the Ostrovskys are among eight Russian Jewish families who have settled in Charlotte since August as part of a resettlement program sponsored by the Hebrew International Aid Society. NEW LANGUAGE
The adjustment to life in America has involved not only adapting to a new language and culture, but learning to live in a city much smaller than Moscow, Odessa and Riga, the cities they left. It has also meant accepting a lifestyle where medical care is not free, where public transportation is virtually nonexistent and where a ride in a police car does not always end at the police station. Three of the eight families have left for New York and Los Angeles where job opportunities were better. Except for Ostrovsky, who has been in the United States six weeks, the other men and some of the women have obtained jobs comparable to those they held in the Soviet Union.

NO CAR
The families were sponsored by the B'nai B'rith of Charlotte and the Women's B'nai B'rith. At a recent meeting with B'nai B'rith

$10,000 TSTA Pay Hike Goal

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas State Teachers' Association's executive committee voted 23-16 against a recommended average teachers' pay raise to an $8,200 minimum salary, indicating it wanted more. At a minimum, the salary request will be upgraded to $10,000," Robert Franzetti of the Austin Association of Teachers said after the Monday meeting.

The executive committee first voted to recommend that the TSTA legislative committee reconsider its teacher pay schedule request earlier this year of the $8,200 starting salary. The current minimum starting pay is $6,600. The executive committee then defeated 22-19 a motion to instruct the legislative committee to set its request at a starting pay of $12,000. The legislative committee is expected to meet in late December to consider the executive committee's action.

The $12,000 salary request is part of "the Lackland plan" a schedule proposed by the Lackland Independent School District and strongly backed by San Antonio teachers. The Texas Federation of Teachers, an affiliate of the Texas AFL-CIO, with strong membership in San Antonio, Houston and Dallas, is asking a $10,000 starting teachers salary as part of its legislative program.

DAUGHTER DIES — Christina Busch, 8, youngest daughter of August A. Busch Jr. died Tuesday of injuries received in a traffic accident Dec. 6. Christina, whose father is chairman of the board of Anheuser-Busch Inc. and owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, was injured when a truck went out of control and crashed into a van carrying two Busch children home from school. Andrew Busch, 11, was injured.

To buy or not to buy is the question potential gold buyers ask. Americans are able to own gold. The soaring price of metal over the past few years has led many to believe — wrongly — that they couldn't lose buying gold. Since 1968, when first allowed from its $35-a-ounce price has quadrupled. It

Opening lead: Jack of ♠.

The great unsolved mysteries of the ages, such as the Indian rope trick and the disappearance of the vessel Marie Celeste, are quite unremarkable compared with the incredible way Trump Coup Tommy can make his opponents' trump tricks vanish into thin air.

Once again, Tommy's bidding was partly responsible for his side getting too high. Since he was vulnerable, and his king of spades was unguarded, Tommy might have thought twice about opening the bidding. West took advantage of the vulnerability to preempt, and North could hardly be blamed for thinking that slam would be an easy proposition. Hence he cue-bid the enemy suit, and after Tommy confirmed a respectable suit, he continued to six hearts.

West led the jack of diamonds, and when dummy appeared it seemed to the spectators that Trump Coup had, at last, met his Waterloo. Even to him it was painfully obvious that the ace king of trumps were conspicuous by their absence.

With a face as bold as brass, Tommy hopped up with dummy's ace of diamonds, entered his hand with the king of spades and crossed back to dummy with the ace of clubs. Then he led the ace of spades.

By the unseemly haste with which he tried to cash the ace of spades, it seemed that Tommy was trying to get rid of a diamond loser from his hand. Admittedly, it was unusual to think that West had led away from the king of diamonds, but there did not seem to be any other reasonable explanation for declarer's play. From East's point of view, Tommy could have held a hand such as ♦ K ♥ K Q 10 x x x x ♠ x x ♦ K Q 10.

To prevent Tommy getting rid of his diamond "loser", East ruffed the ace of spades with the five of trumps. Tommy overruffed, returned a trump and great was the fall thereon—the ace and king of trumps crashed on the same trick, and Tommy had made his slam.

PUZZLING FEET—Trying to solve the mystery of the hand and foot markings at the Victoria & Albert Museum is nine-year-old Nigel Gainsborough of Dulwich, London. The display is part of an 'exhibition' for children called Bodybox, at which visitors will be encouraged to touch exhibits and bring alive the display through participation. The main theme of the exhibition, is the human form seen through the eyes of the sculptor.

in a search of the car, they said. Duffy and Von Werne said Barnes, who already was facing trial in a murder case, offered them $50,000 to let him and his friends go free and subsequently upped the amount to $132,000.

The officers said they feigned interest and took Barnes and the two men to a police station to discuss the offer with their superiors.

There, police said, Sgt. John Mulligan pretended interest and Barnes said he would give up all the cash if he and one man could walk away free while the third took the rap for a weapons possession charge.

The three men were then arrested on bribery and gun charges. Asst. Dist. Atty. Helen Johnson said Barnes was "a millionaire many times over." She said he owns 90 per cent of two housing developments in Pontiac, Mich., and in Cleveland and "has unlimited funds."

Police said Barnes was once a street junkie who sold heroin and has several convictions for pushing dope.

No. 1 Black Dope Dealer Charged With Bribery

NEW YORK (AP) — A man described as the No. 1 black narcotics dealer in the nation was held today on charges that he offered two policemen a $132,000 bribe after being picked up on a traffic check. The officers arrested him.

Bronx Dist. Atty. Mario Merola said LeRoy "Nicky"

Barnes offered the bribe to Patrolmen Daniel Duffy and Paul von Werne, who stopped his car after hearing an alarm for three black males wanted in a holdup.

Barnes and two other men got out of the car and a .38-caliber pistol fell to the street, police said. Another gun and the cash was found
