Rocky Begins First Day As 41st Vice President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nelson A. Rockefeller began his first day as vice president by presiding over the Senate and then said he plans to be "as quiet and as helpful" as possible in working with President Ford.

Talking to reporters as he left the Capitol to return to New York with his wife, Rockefeller was asked about suggestions he might pose a problem for Ford.

NO PROBLEMS
"You can be assured right now," he said, "I'm not going to pose a problem for anybody."

"I want to be as quiet and as helpful and only do that which is appropriate and useful to the President and to the people of this country," he added.

Although aides had said earlier in the week Rockefeller would meet with Ford today to discuss his vice presidential assignments, they said today the meeting would take place Saturday afternoon at the White House. As for the four-month delay in his confirmation, which ended Thursday night with a House vote and his swearing in, Rockefeller said "I was very pleased."

WEALTHY MAN
He said the 287-128 House margin was "better than any vote I got" in winning four terms as governor of New York.

Rockefeller, one of America's most experienced public servants and wealthiest men, used his inaugural address Thursday night to praise the congressional review that scrutinized his career and delayed his confirmation for four months.

Just hours before being sworn in by Chief Justice Warren E. Burger in a televised ceremony in the Senate, Rockefeller was confirmed by the House, 287-128.

President Ford, members of Congress and the Cabinet, Rockefeller's family and a host of New York officials were on hand to witness the inaugural.

AMERICA'S ANSWER
Senate President Pro Tempore James D. Eastland, D-Miss., convened the ceremonies, and committee of senators conducted first Ford and then Rockefeller into the Senate chamber. It was the first time television cameras were allowed in the Senate.

After taking the oath, Rockefeller read from his own handwritten notes scrawled on a yellow legal pad and told the nation: "There is nothing wrong with America that Americans cannot right."

The new vice president said: "I pledge myself to the fullest limit of my capacity to work with you, Mr. President, and the Congress in the great task of building the strength of America to meet the grave new problems which we confront as a nation and as people."

He later told reporters that he was delighted with the margin of his approval by the House rather than disappointed that 128 members voted against his confirmation.

EXACT ROLE

Rockefeller's exact role in the federal government is up to the President, who has not defined it. Rockefeller is meeting with Ford today in the White House to discuss his responsibilities.

Most of the questions raised about his fitness concerned the immense Rockefeller family fortune, later reported to be slightly more than $1 billion, and the ways Rockefeller had used it.

For weeks he answered questions about more than $2 million in gifts and loans he has made to associates, most of them employed under him as officials in the New York state government.

Rockefeller said the payments were made to help friends in personal need.

But as the hearings continued he said he had come to understand why some might be concerned about possible conflict of interest. He pledged to make no similar gifts to U.S. officials if confirmed as vice president.

MY GALLANT WIFE

In his speech, Rockefeller praised Ford, Congress and "the vigorous coverage of the free American press, radio and television, by which the American people are so well informed."

He had words of thanks for "my gallant wife, Happy," who recently has had both breasts removed in cancer surgery.

He hailed what he called the thoroughness in which Congress exercised its responsibilities to investigate his past.

Rockefeller said that thoroughness "has been another dramatic evidence of the enduring vitality of the American Constitution."

Fire Insurance Rates Increased

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Insurance Board today raised insurance rates on homes and other buildings by a statewide average of 5.8 per cent, the first rate change since Jan. 1, 1973.

New rates take effect Jan. 20. Fire insurance rates were raised 3.8 per cent for homes and their contents but reduced 24.4 per cent for other kinds of buildings.

An average increase of 19.3 per cent was ordered in homeowners insurance, while rates for extended coverage went up an average of 10.4 per cent statewide. Extended coverage reimburses building owners for losses due to causes other than fire, such as explosions and hail.

The actual rates an owner will pay will vary according to the kind of structure and where it is located, with homeowners and extended coverage costing more along the Gulf Coast and in the northwestern corner of the state.

"Unpredictable and often violent Texas weather and inflation has contributed significantly to moderate overall rate increases for fire, extended coverage and homeowners insurance," said board chairman Joe Christi.

"Texas residents are also still suffering the ill effects of economic disasters from hurricanes and tornados of past seasons when they purchase this type coverage because the board adjusts rates on a 10-year basis."

The rate increase will add almost $25 million to insurance company revenues during 1975, the board estimated.

Christi said the new rates would raise the homeowners premium on a $25,000 frame home in Austin from $171 to $195 a year; on a similar structure in Houston from $212 to $234; and on a $25,000 brick veneer house in Lubbock from $224 to $230.

Homeowners rates in the Seacoast Territory—the first two tiers of counties back from the Gulf—will rise 24.4 per cent; in the sprawling Central Inland Territory 13.8 per cent; and in the North-Northwest Territory by 25 per cent.

Extended coverage rates will increase an average of 13.7 per cent in the Seacoast Territory; 8.8 per cent in the Central Inland Territory; and 8.6 per cent in the North-Northwest Territory.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Contracts to export about 6.2 million metric tons of grain have been canceled since the government took steps in October to curb large grain exports in the face of declining U.S. grain reserves. Other government figures show the world grain situation in mid-December is even tighter than it was when a similar inventory was published Nov. 18.

Steel's price hikes. The company also was to deliver a written justification that Ford demanded Tuesday. The President had called the price increases "disappointing."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 93rd Congress is ready to wind up its business with passage of a massive international trade bill as its final principal task. Acting Senate Majority Leader Robert C. Byrd said he was confident both House and Senate could finish their work today.

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The United States says it knows "conclusively" that the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong have information on what happened to 87 missing Americans, although this does not mean they are alive.

HAPPY VICE PRESIDENT — Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller throws a kiss after delivering a speech on the Senate floor Thursday night following his being sworn-in. Rockefeller's wife Happy sits in the gallery during the ceremony which made her husband the 41st vice president of the United States.

Two Youths Injured By Explosive Device

Two Sand Springs youths lost a portion of their fingers Wednesday afternoon when an explosive device they were building blew up as they held it with their left hands.

Bobby Addy, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Addy, is in good condition at Cowper Hospital with the three middle fingers blown off his left hand.

Mike Roever, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Roever, also of Sand Springs, lost the first joint of the index finger on the left hand. He was treated at Medical Center Hospital and dismissed.

The two youths were in a lot next to the Roever home around 5 p.m. Wednesday building the device with a piece of iron pipe and firecrackers.

They apparently stuffed the fire crackers into the pipe. Bobby Roever, 16-year-old brother of Mike, said they were holding the pipe with their left hands and striking it with a hammer when it was detonated.

Bobby Roever ran to the neighbors for help and "about then my Dad drove up," he recalled.

Police Chief Vance Chisum, upon hearing of the accident, reminded local citizens of the danger of fireworks, and added, "Tragic fireworks accidents often occur either around Christmas or the Fourth of July."

War Prisoners Get Tax Break

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate sent to President Ford Thursday night a bill to give tax benefits to war prisoners in Vietnam and members of their families.

The measure would exclude from taxes pay received by military personnel hospitalized by combat wounds after the fighting ended, forgive taxes on income of a member of the armed forces missing in action, and a give wives of servicemen an extension of time in filing returns, paying taxes, or seeking refunds.

Neighbors Helpful

Yes, James, there is a Santa Claus, or people who do the work for him and let the jolly old gent take the bows. James Jeffcoat returned to his farm home one mile south of West Knott after being treated last week for a heart attack. His cotton crop was ready to harvest and the doctor's orders were for no heavy activity.

Eight strippers were in Jeffcoat's two fields this morning as his friends and neighbors began to bring in the harvest off the 320 acres farmed by Jeffcoat.

The group included Larry Shaw, Jack Hopper, Chester Railsback, Joe MacGaskins, Jerry Roman and Bill Williams.

Sales Tax Collections Hit All-Time Record

An all-time record sales tax check for the year's quarter of July through September reached the City of Big Spring today with a total of $156,476.38, according to Robert Massengale, finance director.

This is a 21 per cent increase over the same quarter last year when the check totaled $128,761.04. It is even larger than the Christmas sales quarter last year.

The check reflects more than inflation. It also reflects increased sales in Big Spring. The April through June check was not a record, but was close, according to Massengale. It totaled $152,354.31.

Saturday Paper Planned For Late Yule Shoppers

Readers of The Herald will get an added bonus Saturday, when a morning paper will be published and delivered to subscribers.

The edition, only Saturday edition of the year published by The Herald, provides late Christmas shoppers with one of their last chances to scout for merchandise offered by Big Spring merchants.

The special paper, of course, will be printed at no extra charge to subscribers. The first Saturday pre-Christmas paper appeared last year and proved to be very popular with readers.

THEY WANTED CAR, HELICOPTER

Four Bandits Surrender 30 Captives After Siege

RICHFIELD, Minn. (AP) — Four gunmen whose escape from a supermarket robbery was cut short at the door by a policeman dashed back inside the store and took some 30 persons hostage. The bandits surrendered themselves and their unarmed captives today after a six-hour siege.

Police said the final 14 hostages were freed about 1:25 a.m. when the last two gunmen in the store gave themselves up following a telephone conference with Gov. Wendell Anderson.

ORDEAL

Another group of about 15 persons had been released an hour earlier when a third gunman surrendered. The fourth robber was captured before the men grabbed their hostages.

The hostages, ranging from small children to a woman in her mid-80s, emerged from their ordeal shaken but unharmed. Two of the gunmen suffered minor injuries, one a shotgun wound in the shoulder and the other lacerations from broken glass.

The gunmen were not identified, although there were indications that at least two of them were teen-agers.

GUNFIRE

The sequence of events began about 7:30 p.m. Thursday when four armed, masked men entered the Country Club Supermarket in this Minneapolis suburb, ordered customers and employees to lie on the floor and then rifled cash registers and a safe. As they were leaving the store with an undetermined amount of cash, a police officer in an unmarked car surprised them and a flurry of gunfire ensued.

The four men ran back inside but one of them was apprehended as he tried to run out a back door, said Richfield Police Capt. Donald Lundquist. Lundquist and another officer entered the store to negotiate with the men.

"They wanted a car and were going to take the hostages," said Lundquist. "They also wanted a helicopter."

HOLDING OUT

The police captain said the behavior of the hostages was "excellent. They caused no problems for us and they did what they were told. There was no hysteria."

Lundquist said there was no estimate on the amount of money the robbers had taken, but he said bills were found scattered all over the store.

He said the gunmen talked at least twice with the governor, the last time only minutes before the last two decided to give themselves up.

An aide to the governor, Thomas Kelin, said the governor assured the gunmen they would receive legal assistance.

About midway through the siege, one of the gunmen told The Associated Press in a telephone interview that he and his companions would not free the hostages until their own freedom was guaranteed.

"We're holding out now because there are too many cops around here. We've told the cops we'd start blowing people away if they didn't clear out of here," said a gunman who identified himself as "Brian" and said he was 16 years old.

Brian identified his companions inside the store as Darrell, 28, and Bill, 17.

INDIAN LOVERS

Police cordoned off the entire 10-store shopping center. More than 200 spectators watched from outside the ropes.

The gunman identified as Darrell claimed to be an Indian and told The AP the siege was designed "to pay back the white people for what they did to us in the younger days of America."

But Bill said the men "just came in for some money" and Brian added "We're all poor people, you know. We're just asking back what you people stole from us."

HOSTAGES RELEASED — Two unidentified hostages are led to safety, left by armed and flack-jacketed police, and right by plainclothes police after being held nearly five hours in a suburban Minneapolis supermarket by four gunmen who were attempting to rob the store. The gunmen released the estimated 30 hostages and gave themselves up to the police early today.

They should bring their warehouse receipt and classification cards for each bale to be put in the loan. The ASCS office in the Federal records while the line is under the loan.

Persons spot harvesting cotton or feed grain should have the remainder of the crop checked before any other use is made of the acres. All harvested cotton or feed grain acreage must be reported to the office before crop residue is destroyed.

The ASC official also urged that 1974 production records be brought in as soon as possible. If production is below normal, the producer may file for a low yield payment.

Those who applied for 1973 REAP and 1974 RECP practices must have the practices completed by Dec. 27, 1974 to qualify, she reminded. The ASC office will be closed Dec. 25 and Jan. 1.

AMARILLO — Pioneer Natural Gas Company has announced the public offering of $60 million 9 1/2 per cent debentures due Dec. 15, 1982, at 99.625 per cent to yield 9.57 per cent, plus accrued interest from Dec. 15.

K. B. "Tex" Watson, Pioneer president, said, "net proceeds from the sale of the debentures will be used to retire approximately $40 million of Pioneer's bank loans which were originally incurred for plant additions and working capital and to retire on July 1, 1975, the $20 million principal amount of its 9 1/2 per cent debentures due in 1975."

The debentures being offered for sale are not redeemable otherwise than through the annual sinking fund prior to December 15, 1979. Check For $100 Given VOCT Club By TESCO

COAHOMA — The Coahoma High School chapter of the Vocational Opportunity Clubs of Texas has been busy this Fall, staging its own massive city-wide cleanup campaign, installing playground equipment at the city park, rebuilding trailers for farmers, and building carpools on several homes.

During the cleanup, 26 truck loads of trash were removed from city streets and vacant lots.

Members took time away from their activities, however, Thursday afternoon as they received a $100 donation to their club from Texas Electric Service Company. Tom Locke, Big Spring TESCO manager and Pete Jenkins, of that firm's customer service, were on hand to present them the check to be used however they wish.

The money will probably be used to buy a new piece of equipment or more materials for their projects.

Officers on hand to take the check in addition to sponsor Doc Tindol, were John Dever, president; Kenneth Huckabee, vice president; George Herrera, secretary; Louis Flores, treasurer; Ricky Brown, reporter; Gerald Ayers, parliamentarian; and Ray Rinard, sgt.-at-arms.

SORRY FOR HER DEATH Korean Government Executes Killer

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The Korean government today hanged Moon Se-ung, the man who tried to assassinate President Chung Hee Park and killed the president's wife instead.

Moon, a 22-year-old Korean born and reared in Japan, was executed at a Seoul prison.

Justice Ministry officials gave this account of his death: "He was brought to the execution site at 7:05 a.m. and asked: 'Am I going to be hanged?'"

PRAYED — Told he would be, he began to cry and made a last statement. He said he had no intention of killing Mrs. Park, was sorry for her death and deserved to die. He also said he had been born in Korea, he would not have committed such a grave crime.

Then he pressed his hands together in the Buddhist fashion and prayed silently for three minutes.

Officials said Moon left a will in which he said he hoped his wife would lead a happy life. He also said he felt sorry for his parents, the officials added.

If It Weren't For 25th Okie Would Be President

WASHINGTON (AP) — If it weren't for the 25th Amendment, Carl Albert of Oklahoma would be president today and his successor as speaker of the House would be next in line.

It would be a Democratic administration, although probably a coalition Cabinet under the circumstances, and a complete reversal of the landslide Republican presidential victory of 1972.

NEW FORMULA — The line of succession would have made Albert the new president when Richard M. Nixon resigned last Aug. 6, since there would have been no vice president after Spiro T. Agnew resigned on Oct. 10, 1973.

The succession is president, vice president, House speaker, Senate president pro tempore (now Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss.) and then Cabinet officers, beginning with the secretary of state.

But the 25th Amendment, adopted in 1967, came just in time for a thorough workout, having produced two non-elected vice presidents in the past year.

Nelson A. Rockefeller became the nation's 41st vice president Thursday night under the new formula provided by the 25th Amendment, replacing Gerald R. Ford, who had become vice president the same way and went on to the White House.

WALK OUT — The Constitution's second newest amendment got its workout because of the first presidential resignation and the second vice presidential resignation in history.

The drive to provide the mechanism that made all this possible came after President John F. Kennedy was assassinated in 1963 and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson became president.

This left Johnson alone at the top with no vice president to back him up. This was not too unusual since the vice presidency had been vacant eight times before — about 20 per cent of the time since the office was created.

But Johnson's history of heart ailments and the security demands of the atomic age made it perilous not to have a vice president ready to step in and take over in an emergency.

Thus came the 25th Amendment, which became part of the constitution when Nevada became the 39th state to ratify on Feb. 10, 1967.

NO. 2 JOB — The 25th Amendment provides that when the vice presidency becomes vacant, the president can nominate a replacement who must be confirmed by Congress. This can be repeated as many times as the vacancy occurs.

Ford was made vice president after Agnew quit under the shadow of scandal. Ford became president when Nixon resigned under pressures of Watergate.

Rockefeller now succeeds Agnew and Ford in the No. 2 job.

While this arrangement keeps the offices in the hands of the Republican party which won them in 1972, it means the nation's two highest positions now are held by men not elected to them.

Rep. John H. Dent, D-Pa., has proposed repeal of the 25th Amendment because it "leaves the electorate of this nation open to the possibility of being governed by persons who have never been publicly elected by or responsible to a body of voters."

TO PAY DRIVERS $20 MONTH Beetleboards Latest Advertising Gimmick

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Don't be surprised if you see Volkswagens masquerading as billboard.

They're Beetleboards — the latest gimmick in outdoor advertising.

About 1,500 of the ubiquitous bugs are racing around with brightly colored advertising decals covering their bodies. And their drivers are getting paid for it.

The Beetleboard is the brainchild of Charles E. Bird, a Los Angeles advertising consultant who specializes in the youth market. He has formed Beetleboards of America to handle the program.

HERES HOW
Bird got the idea in 1971 while walking through a campus parking lot on the way to address a college class. He noticed VWs dominated the number of student cars parked around him.

He said a lack of interest in established media makes the youth market a difficult one for advertisers to reach, and that he was attracted to the fact that VWs are so widely driven and accepted by people in their teens and 20s.

He envisioned the messages of national advertisers adorning the bugs and being carried around cities wherever students traveled.

Here is how the Beetleboard plan works:

VW drivers are solicited through advertisements in college newspapers. They are given a nine-month contract and, if they accept, they are sent to a deal plant where the car is painted and the ad applied. Payment to the driver is $20 a month. For ads on 200 cars or more the company charges the advertisers $110 a month per car.

NEW MEDIA
The program is being expanded to mature drivers through ads in standard newspapers. These drivers are paid $25 a month.

"It's a new media," said Evelyn Johnson, director of market support for Beetleboards of America. "It's more eye-catching than billboards."

"Advertisers have the advantage of consumer contact with the driver, who passes out samples. It's fun. I drive one and meet all types of people."

Perhaps the most unusual ad is that of Irish Spring, a deodorant soap. It has a drawing of a bathtub on the side of the car and the driver looks like he is sitting in the tub.

"The student VW owners accepted must have good driving records, high scholastic marks and adequate insurance," Miss Johnson said.

When the contract runs out, the decals are removed

Texas Is Still Oil Hot Spot

Texas still is the nation's hot spot in a stepped up oil well drilling program.

Figures released by the International Association of Drilling Contractors from Hughes Tool Co. show Texas with 606 rotary rigs turning Dec. 16, up 167 or 38.04 per cent from a year ago. The national total was 1,659, up 232 over a year ago, or 16.26 per cent.

Logan Winner Of $50 Bond

DALLAS — Dr. David Logan, 2917 Macaulan, Big Spring, has been awarded a $50 savings bond in the American Heart Association's statewide Cyclethon competition.

Cyclethons were held throughout the state in October and November. All entrants who raised $100 or more were eligible for a drawing to determine the winners of 15 bonds.

Bobby Moffat, Dallas Tornados professional soccer star, conducted the drawing for the bonds, which were donated by Weight Watchers of West Texas, Inc. and Weight Watchers of Dallas, Inc.

Over $65,000 was raised in 35 Cyclethons. Proceeds are used in support of the American Heart Association's community service, education and research programs.

Other individual awards announced include first place, Mrs. C. E. Watson of Denison; second place, Brad Boyd of Wichita Falls; and third place, Gene A. Guinn, M.D. of Houston.

Boone A Boon

LITTLE ROCK AP — Boone County, Arkansas, got its name from a proposal which said: "It would be a 'boon' to create the county for the convenience of the people."

Refusing To Get Haircut Results In Hard Labor

BERLIN (AP) — A U.S. Army special court-martial today sentenced Pvt. Robert M. Nuchow, 19, of Leonia, N.J., to five months' confinement at hard labor for refusing to get a haircut. He was also fined $225 a month for five months and reduced to the lowest enlisted rank.

Nuchow's lawyer, Mark Schreiber, said he would appeal.

In testifying on his own behalf, Nuchow told a court panel of officers: "I am out to help the Army. I'm American. I'm a citizen and I am proud of it... I do my job. The only thing that's different with me is my hair... I do not think I should get any punishment."

But the prosecutor, Capt. Arthur Reynolds of El Paso, Tex., said Army discipline had to be maintained and that Nuchow had willfully disobeyed a lawful order to get a haircut Sept. 14.

The bidding:

Opening lead: King of ♠.

When playing trump contracts, a simple rule of thumb applies to most situations: "If you can count enough tricks for your contract, draw trumps. If you can't, delay pulling trumps until you have planned your campaign strategy". South, declarer at a four spade contract, neglected to follow this sage advice and brought about his own downfall.

After his partner opened the bidding with one no trump, North introduced the Stayman Convention to check for a possible major suit fit. When South responded in spades, North's hand revalued to 11 points, so he was full value for his jump to game.

Declarer won the opening lead with the ace, crossed to the jack of trumps and led a heart to his king and West's ace. West found the winning defense by returning a trump, and declarer began to realize the trouble he was in. He tried to rescue something from the shambles by playing on diamonds, but East won the third diamond, and cleared another round of trumps. Declarer could scramble eight tricks, for down two.

Had declarer counted his tricks before embarking on a specific line, he would have seen that he was three tricks short of his contract. The fact that he held all the high trumps should have alerted him to the possibility of using dummy's trumps for ruffing purposes. Add three ruffs to the seven tricks on top, and the total is up to the number needed to make the contract.

All declarer had to do was to use the entries to his hand to ruff clubs in dummy. After winning the ace of clubs, he ruffs a club, returns to his hand with a high diamond and ruffs another club. Then he crosses back with the remaining high diamond for a third club ruff. That guarantees ten tricks, and declarer can now afford to lead towards the king of hearts for an overtrick.

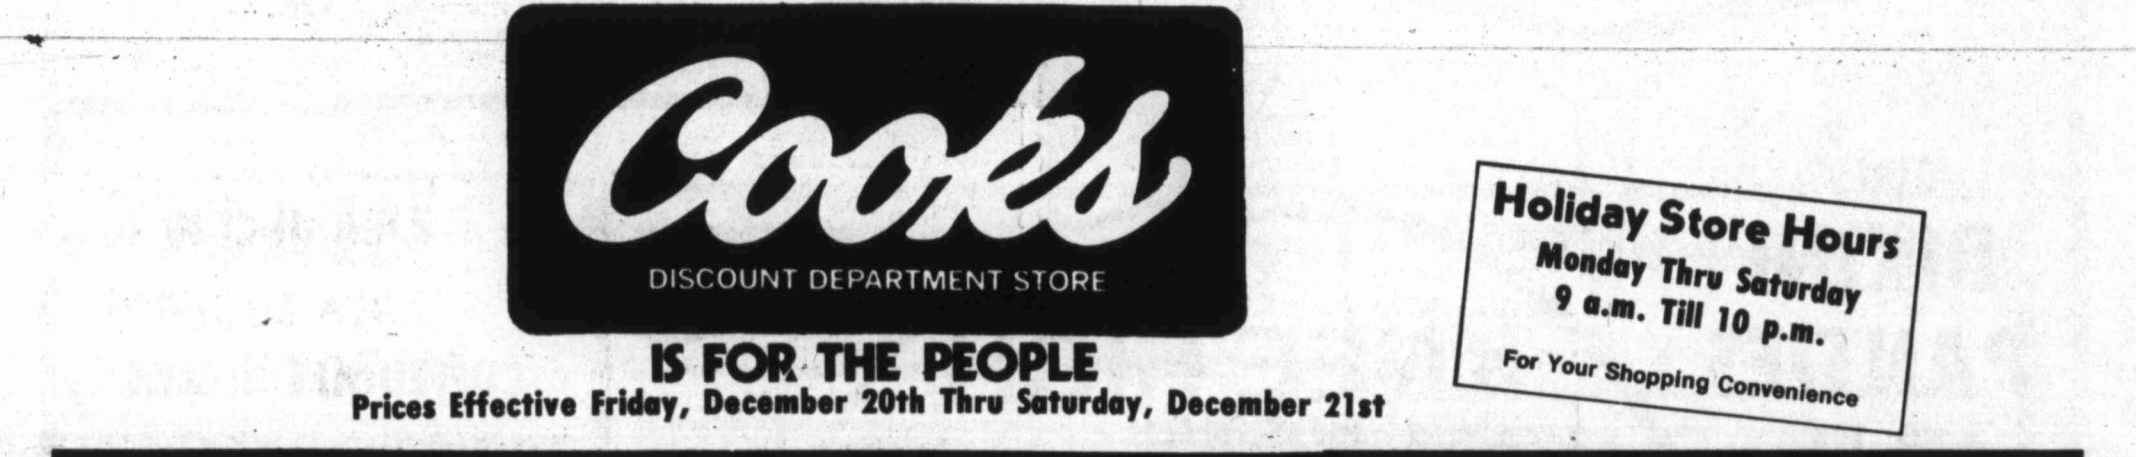

Note that declarer cannot afford to give the defenders the lead more than once before starting to ruff his losers. If he does and the defenders return a trump each time they gain the lead, declarer will not have enough trumps in dummy to ruff all three of his club losers.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams have reported that 23,022 of the 92,584 tickets for Sunday's playoff game against Washington were unsold at the television blackout deadline, 72 hours before the kickoff.

Dooley Singing Tangerine Blues

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Georgia Coach Vince Dooley is singing the blues about the Bulldogs' chances against undefeated Miami of Ohio in Saturday's Tangerine Bowl.

Dooley's woes center on the loss of All-America tackle Craig Hertwig and two defensive starters ruled academically ineligible for the post-season clash.

Crum says he's worried because the Redskins haven't played a game since Nov. 16.

"Five weeks is half a season," he noted with a frown. Hertwig, a 6-foot-8, 260-pound hole-maker in Georgia's powerful veer offense, and defensive tackle Dan Spivey and cornerback Steve Taylor were lost when they dropped some courses, putting their class load below the minimum number of hours required by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

"It was a serious blow," said Dooley. "Realistically, we would have had a hard time winning this game without the losses." This makes it even harder.

Crum countered Dooley's sad story by wringing his hands over the problems he said he's had in whipping the Redskins back into form after their layoff.

"Until we got down here," he said, "we had only two indoor practices and one outdoors since our final regular-season start because of exams."

"That means we've got to get our sharpness back and that's my biggest concern. I still don't know if we can bring it all back."

PADRES HIGH ON LIST 'Catfish' Hunting Season Continues

AHOSKIE, N.C. (AP) — Dutch Overton, who watched Catfish Hunter pitch for this town's American Legion team more than a decade ago, was talking about America's next millionaire.

"Jim was in the eighth grade," Overton said. "And during the school recess one day, he and some of his buddies were throwing a baseball around, just like they always did. Well, he was late getting back into class and his teacher went to the door to fetch him."

"Come on in and get some learning," she yelled. "You're never going to make any money playing baseball."

Hunter's eighth-grade schoolmarm might understand civics but she was dead wrong about economics. Her former pupil, Jim "Catfish" Hunter, appears on the verge of becoming the highest paid player in baseball history. And some of baseball's biggest executives are here or are on their way to this sleepy North Carolina hamlet to help him do it.

Catfish-hunting season swings into its second day with at least four teams scheduled to meet with Hunter and his lawyers, all of them itching to show Hunter why he'd look better in one of their uniforms.

Two teams met Thursday with baseball's celebrated free agent. The first cap in the ring was that of the New York Yankees, who were represented by Clyde Klutznick, their director of scouting.

Hunter and Klutznick are old friends, the scout having signed the pitcher to a $75,000 bonus contract with the Kansas City A's in 1964.

"They were preliminary kind of talks, really," said Hunter, who was liberated from his contract with the Oakland A's when an arbitration panel ruled Monday that A's owner Charles O. Finley had breached the pitcher's contract by failing to make a deferred $50,000 payment in the stipulated manner.

J. Carlton Cherry, one of the lawyers in the Ahoskie firm representing Hunter, agreed the first round of talks were primarily meant to feel out the other sides.

"We were just talking," said Cherry, who confirmed the lawyers also met Thursday with representative of the Boston Red Sox.

"We just want to have the opportunity to see what they'll do. We're listening now. We haven't decided what we want yet."

Boston was represented by General Manager Dick O'Connell; Haywood Sullivan, vice president for player personnel, and John L. Harrington, the club's treasurer. Cherry said four or five more teams were set to queue up in front of the two-story brick building that houses the law office of Cherry, Cherry and Flythe. But he said he couldn't remember which clubs were scheduled to make their pitches today.

One of those teams is the San Diego Padres, who sent a contingent of Vice President-General Manager Peter Bavasi, Manager John McNamara and Bill Posedel, who holds the title of executive coach, in the hopes of reeling in the Catfish.

A lad who bore a striking resemblance of Kim Winkle was out catching his breath of fresh non-smog West Texas air Wednesday afternoon, jogging west on the farm road north of the Bowlaroma.

I was steering my car in the direction of home and gave a quick toot on the horn. The youngster was too engrossed in moving on to let sideline noise bother him.

Kim, who won the prep Odessa's marathon race last Saturday, now confines himself in training for the state schoolboy one-mile event.

Kim along with another Steer district runner, Ricky McCormick, should be top candidates come the spring district four-lap track event. Ricky recently placed fifth in the UIL two-mile race held in Austin.

Norman Roberts, Coahoma football coach, eager to push Puit Choate for all-state honors, misplaced his original seasonal statistical sheet compiled on the Bulldog senior fullback.

Robert called and asked if I still had a copy he had forwarded on Choate. I replied, yes. My Red Man tobacco chewing sidekick wasted no time in picking it up so as to continue Choate's promotional campaign.

The Sands Booster Club has sent out a distress signal.

Under the direction of Don Floyd and Rex Zant, the club, several weeks back, started a project in hopes of buying a new Mustang stadium scoreboard.

SANDS HIGH New Scoreboard?

The project centers around the collection of junk iron, by donation. Lil Anderson, who is also assisting with the drive, reports the response has not been the greatest.

On farmer, from reports, has a trailer load full of scrap iron ready to donate. But from there on, interest drags.

Telephone numbers that may be dialed to have junk iron unloaded include 353-4442, 353-4575, 353-4848 and 353-4477.

San Jacinto College of the Lone Star State community of Pasadena, (13-0), moved into first place in the second weekly National Junior College Athletic Association Basketball Poll.

Hutchinson Community Junior College of Hutchinson, Kan., (9-0) took over second place, while Vincennes, (Ind.), fell to third following its 97-85 loss to Columbia State of Tennessee. Vincennes for the season stand at 8-1.

Western Texas of Snyder shot all up from No. 20 to No. 9. Western Texas collected its 12th win of the season Tuesday night in Snyder, drumbinb Cisco, 75-50. Cisco coach Dean Madison withdrew his team from the floor and headed for home with 7:41 left in the game.

Madison received three technical fouls and was told to leave the playing area by the officials.

The point of discussion centered on what Madison thought should have been a gold-tending call on Norman Barnes, Westerner post-man.

Coastal Carolina of Jacksonville, N.C., leads juco team offense with a 127.7 average per game. Cumberland College of Lebanon, Tenn., is eighth with a 98.7 average.

Howard College just failed to make the elite eight poll, trailing close behind with a 97.64 average per game.

Paul Webb is the leading juco individual scorer, averaging 34.2 points per game. Webb shows 239 total points based on 112 field goals and 15 free throws. He plays for Hiwassee College, Madisonville, Tenn.

Thomas Bledsoe, former ex-Howard College star, now wearing the purple colors of Texas Christian, ranks third among individual Frog scorers. The 6-6 center is averaging 12.6 points per game through five games.

Bledsoe's statistical sheet reads: field goals, 22 of 33; .667 percentage; free throws, 19 of 26, .731 percentage; and rebounds, 30, 6.9 average.

Lynn Royal is TCU's leading scorer, averaging 19.9 points per game. The 6-7 Royal is a two-year junior letterman.

Bledsoe was high man for the Frogs against Iowa State in Ames, Dec. 14. He netted 22 points. TCU's next game is with Florida in Ft. Worth Saturday night.

NFL TV log for the weekend: Saturday — Miami at Oakland, 3 p.m., NBC; Sunday — Buffalo at Pittsburgh, high noon, NBC.

Sandwiched in between these two games is the Saturday Tangerine Bowl game, Miami vs. Georgia 7 p.m., CBS.

Steers Tread West Tonight

PECOS — Big Spring, (4-11), treads 132 miles west tonight and a cage meeting with Pecos.

Two games are planned. A junior varsity test is set for 5:15, followed by the varsity clash at 8.

The Steers managed to check Pecos in their previous encounter played in Big Spring, Dec. 12. The Steers pulled out a one overtime decision, 57-54.

Following the Pecos match, the 5-4A school takes time off for the Christmas and New Year holidays.

The Steers pick up with Lamesa and Snyder respectively following the holiday break on the Steer court, Jan. 2 and 3.

Big Spring swings into district action at home Jan. 7. Abilene High is the named opponent.

MIAMI AT OAKLAND Raiders Feature Balanced Attack

The National Football League's version of Russian Roulette begins this weekend with the Miami Dolphins shooting for a third straight world championship and the Oakland Raiders hoping to gun them down.

The Dolphins, champions of the American Conference's Eastern Division, will play the West-winning Raiders Saturday in one of four NFL playoff games that will eventually determine the king of pro football.

These games are for winners only.

The winner of the Miami-Oakland game will play for the AFC championship against the survivor of Sunday's match between the Buffalo Bills and Pittsburgh Steelers. The Steelers made the playoffs by winning the AFC's Central Division title while the Bills qualified as the wild-card team with a 9-5 record behind Miami's lustrous 11-3.

The champion of the National Conference and eventual Super Bowl opponent of the AFC winner will be determined from among the St. Louis Cardinals, Minnesota Vikings, Washington Redskins and Los Angeles Rams.

But quarterback Bubba McGallion and fullback John Houseman, both sophomores, will be right in the center of the action Monday night when the Cougars meet North Carolina State in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl in the Astro-dome.

Kickoff is at 8 p.m. for the nationally televised classic.

Houseman, who came on to be Houston's leading ground gainer with 988 yards, a record for UH sophomores, filled a void early in the season when former No. 1 fullback Donnie McGrew was injured.

"I just happened to be the one to go in first and I happened to get a couple of good runs right off," Housman said.

At the time, Housman was running third team behind Clarence Shelmon but he moved up quickly.

"I told Coach (Bill) Yeoman if he wasn't going to red shirt me, I wanted to play," Housman said. "He assumed me that I'd play."

Yeoman kept his word. By the time McGrew recovered from his injury, Housman couldn't be caught.

Yeoman hopes the Cougars can catch the streaking Wolfpack, which was scheduled to arrive here today to begin final preparations for Monday night's game.

Teamed with Jeff Bramlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bramlett, Midland, Tony ranked third in doubles in the entire state in that age division. Jeff ranked 18th in singles.

Last summer Tony took lessons from George Richey, San Angelo, father of the famous sister-and-brother team of Cliff and Nancy Richey.

The Cardinals, champions of the NFC East, will play the Vikings, the Central Division title-winners on Saturday. The Rams, winners of the West, face Washington, the NFC's wild-card team, on Sunday.

Super Bowl IX will be held at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans on January 12.

The contest between Miami and Oakland is a rematch of last year's AFC championship game, won by the Dolphins enroute to their second straight Super Bowl title. The Dolphins are looking for an instant replay of Larry Csonka's game last time, when he bruised the Raiders with three touchdowns and 117 yards as Miami won 27-10.

After training in Tulsa, Okla., for three days, the Vikings flew home Thursday with Coach Bud Grant declaring: "We are ready."

The Vikings will have to be to face Cardinal quarterback Jim Ray Hart, who's having his best year.

Washington Coach George Allen hasn't decided yet on his quarterback.

HOUSTON (AP) — Half of the University of Houston's starting football backfield expected to be redshirts this season.

Webb's 78th Student Squadron (Sturon) ended the 78th Air Base Group's (ABGP) three year dominance of the 78th Flying Training Wing Commander's Trophy here by copping the award this year.

Sturon finished second in table tennis doubles, handball doubles, racquetball doubles and flag football. The squadron finished third in basketball, table tennis singles and doubles, tennis singles and doubles, racquetball singles and bowling.

Sturon was also fifth in chess, and ninth in fast-pitch softball.

ABGP won top honors in bowling, table tennis singles and doubles and flag football. The Hospital won chess and basketball.

ABGP had won the trophy the past three years.

The annual award is given to the squadron with the most participation and overall performance in the intramural sports.

State Grid Finals Set

A grind that began in September comes down to the final moment of truth Saturday for six Texas schoolboy football teams with Brazoswood, Newton and Aledo slim favorites in the Class 4A, 2A, and A championship finals, respectively.

Brazoswood 13-1 and Mesquite's miraculous Skeeters 11-0-3 tangle at the University of Texas' Memorial Stadium Saturday night to determine the prestigious Class 4A title that neither school has ever won.

Newton and Spearman collide Saturday night in Wichita Falls to determine the 2A kingpin while Aledo and Grapeland settle the Class A title Saturday afternoon in Temple.

Newton ripped LaGrange 17-7 and Spearman crushed Bowie 43-6 to earn their positions in the finals.

Aledo, ranked near the top of The Associated Press poll all year, blasted Jim Ned 22-0 and Grapeland nipped Falls City 23-21 in the semifinals.

Cuero clinched the Class 3A title with a victory over Gainesville while Big Sandy and Celina shared the Class B championship in a 0-0 tie last Saturday.

CRMWD Can Now Operate System

The Colorado River Municipal Water District now is legally qualified if it elects to operate its own weather modification project.

The Texas Water Development Board approved Tuesday a license to the CRMWD for weather modification. O. H. Ivie, general manager, is listed as project manager.

The permit carried a proviso that a qualified meteorologist be used for technical work, which fit into previous discussions by the district regarding the possibility of operating the program, said Ivie.

The board, at its meeting here Dec. 13, considered the possibility of taking over the direction of the project which it has sponsored for the past four years, using Atmospheric, Inc., of Fresno, Calif., as contractor. This contract expires at the end of this year, but the board has expressed an intent to continue the program in cooperation with the Texas Water Development Board, which is running a scientific analysis of results, and with the Bureau of Reclamation which has selected Big Spring as one of three sites for extensive weather modification research.

If the district elects, when the board meets here Jan. 10, to undertake operation of the project on its own, this will involve obtaining an airplane radar unit, a pilot and a meteorologist.

Illegal Wiretapping Knowledge Is Murky

HOUSTON (AP)—Houston attorney Carrol Weaver said Thursday his client, a former high-placed police official, has no firsthand knowledge of illegal wiretapping within the Houston Police Department. The Associated Press, however, has possession of material in which M. L. Singleton, former head of the department's intelligence division, is quoted as saying he knew of massive wiretapping within the police department. "Mr. Singleton said he has no firsthand knowledge of any criminal wrongdoing in the Houston Police Department by himself or by anybody else," Weaver said. "He did say 'all I know is rumor and gossip' and I take that to say he had no firsthand knowledge," Weaver said. In the material the Associated Press has acquired, Singleton tells of wiretapping which he said he knew to be conducted by Houston police officers. When asked about the material, Singleton said: "You must have seen a transcript of the conversations I had with (Houston Police Chief Carol M.) Lynn." When pressed about comments regarding firsthand knowledge of wiretapping, Singleton said: "You'll have to talk to my attorney."

450 Employees Of TIA To Receive Pay Cuts

HOUSTON (AP)—Strike-bound Texas International Airlines announced Thursday a pay cut of from 31 to 7.5 per cent for the 450 employees still working. A company spokesman, asked if that applied to management personnel, said: "From the president on down—everybody still on the payroll. Of course he (the president) will be taking the largest cut." At the same time, the company announced it was restoring certain fringe benefits for the 2,000 persons on strike, retroactive to Dec. 1, the day most of the employees struck. In letters sent strikers and workers Thursday, the company said it had two options to aid in cash conservation during the strike. One was the furlough of union personnel who crossed picket lines plus some management employees. But that option was untenable, said Texas International President Francisco A. Lorenzo. "The other available option was to cut salaries, thus avoiding layoff unless the strike continues well into the first quarter of 1975," Lorenzo said. The airlines serves 23 cities in Texas, as well as eight other states and four Mexican cities. Of the total of 50 airports it serves, 23 receive no other airline service.

The company told the strikers that the group medical, dental, life and accident insurance programs are reinstated effective Dec. 1. It said the workers can pay their share of these services by payroll deductions when the strike is over. In addition, the airline said it is working with all of its suppliers and lessors to reduce expenses during the strike.

Charley Johnson Day

Saturday has been declared fittingly as "Charley Johnson Day," a time, as Mayor Wade Choate suggested, when old friends, and new, can pay their respects and appreciation to Charley Johnson, a distinguished Big Springer.

Charley, a product of Big Spring schools and the son of a native couple, achieved national fame, first as quarterback of the St. Louis Cardinals in their great days, and now the brilliant and steady hand that made Denver one of the leading contenders in the NFL. Every once in a while (especially another great Texan, Don Meredith) commentators get around to reciting "Charley Johnson of Big Spring, Texas."

But Charley Johnson has done a lot more than merely throw a football with remarkable accuracy. He has earned two graduate degrees, including a Ph. D., in science as a chemical engineer major. He has been active in encouraging youth and other humanitarian groups. And he has been a gentleman with it, so much so that any publicity which has accrued to him and his hometown has been good, wholesome, positive publicity.

It's good to have people like Charley and his wife, the former Barbara Shields of Big Spring, back home.

Lingering Influence

The death of Walter Lippmann leaves the American community as well as the journalistic fraternity the poorer. It was something of a tribute that heads of a few foreign states were inclined to regard Mr. Lippmann's foreign policy views more official than those of the government. This bit of exaggeration, however, does indicate the weight his opinion had upon the thinking of leaders elsewhere as in our own land. Extremists on both ends of the spectrum hurled bricks at him and at times accused him of views that were virtually traitorous.

Mr. Lippmann was more of a middle roader, even though there were periods in his life when he was more liberal and more conservative. That he was not rooted irrevocably to any fixed position is a testimony to his creative and flexible philosophical and logical mental processes. New facts, to him, could mean new conclusions. But whatever his conclusions were, they represented deep thinking, like one brick upon another, and never hip-shot reflexes. His influence will linger along after his life.

Quite A Letdown

Around The Rim

Troy Bryant

WHEN THE VENERABLE Howard Cosell announced that a major announcement was upcoming Wednesday from the ABC network at the Monday Night Football broadcast Saturday night, he promised that it would set the whole world of sports on its ears.

So, naturally, I began searching my mind for the one event having to do with ABC that would certainly be noteworthy, and I kept coming up with the same thing, Joe Namath, perhaps the best passing quarterback in the NFL in many years and certainly the only NFL player to wear panty hose on national television, was going to sign a contract with ABC to work next year's Monday Night Football games in exchange for many $$$$. But instead, what does the sensation turn out to be? Nothing but Billy Jean King signing on to work for a few tennis matches and other sports for the network.

Even Jimmy the Greek, in his weekly newsletter, said odds were 5 to 1 that Namath would sign on to do the Monday Night games next year, and perhaps the NFC-AFC All Star game in January.

Cosell, why don't you retire back to your field, covering boxing?

WITH THE MAJORITY of the NFL season over, I think I can safely say that the quality of the TV broadcasts have declined markedly.

Cosell, Al DeRogatis, Curt Gowdy and a few others have become so evidently partisan to one team or another, that you either hate them for building up a team or for blabbing while you're trying to watch the game.

Frank Gifford, Frank Gieber, Pat

Summerall, Don Meredith, and a few others are the good old guys. They may also be partisan, but at least they are partisan for the right teams.

Until this football season, I was a fan of Cosell's but as the season waxed on, I began to dislike his obvious preference for any AFC team over a NFC team and his weekly verbal sacrifices to his golden calf, the Miami Dolphins, who can't win.

But Saturday night, after he continuously berated the Cowboys, I decided that the only time I could watch a football game he was broadcasting, is when the Cowboys are playing.

At least last year Meredith tended to balance out Cosell's one track mind and this year Alex Karras saves the show to a certain extent, but there is no excuse for Howard Cosell.

BEING ONLY the third best football picker in the Herald office, you won't want to go out and bet on my choices for the Super Bowl, unless you feel the same way.

My head says that Minnesota and Oakland will make it to the Super Bowl and that Oakland will win it, but my heart would like to see Buffalo and St. Louis in the title game, and I want O. J. to go all the way.

If Washington or Miami makes it to the bowl, I hope they are humiliated, and the other teams, I don't care about.

So take heed, if you are fixing the playoffs, make it Buffalo and St. Louis in the Super Bowl, with the Bills taking all the marbles.

My Answer

Billy Graham

Recently in your column, regarding the matter of the presence of evil in the world, you stated, "God never intended it that way." I'd like to know how you reconcile that view with God's own statement, "I will do all my pleasure." (Isaiah 46:10) L. H.

Let's get a definition of the word "pleasure." Used in the vocabulary of man, it's simply the thing that he likes. With God, as the text indicates, it is associated with the word "counsel." It speaks of the infinite wisdom and goodness that God has planned for nations and individuals who trust Him. Nothing changes that.

God's supreme pleasure is found in redeeming. Says Psalms 147:11, "The Lord takes pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in His mercy."

Because of man's free will, it is obvious by the very definition of things, that man can deny the will of God, and frustrate His benevolent plans.

When that happens, I think it's correct to say as I did that "God never intended it that way." Don't try to make any controversy between these two ideas — because there isn't any.

God has chosen to self-limit Himself in certain areas, depending on the cooperation of man. Where such cooperation is not forthcoming, there is temporary loss — although the ultimate pleasure of God in redeeming a believing people will be consummated at the end.

'LET'S JUST SAY HE'S STILL OPEN-MINDED ON ALL FUEL POLICY OPTIONS.'

Lippmann Unique

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — It is difficult to write about a friend who for so many years has been both a mentor and a model. Walter Lippmann held a unique place not only in Journalism but in American life for more than 60 years. He left a record that will be an unrivaled monument to his stature.

HIS WAS THE VOICE of calm clear reason in an age torn by turbulence and dissension with few parallels in human history. Not for him the hysteria of despair. Nor was he concerned in the thousands of columns he wrote after he left his post as editor, with the death of the New York World, with the "inside," scoop. He spoke from his own judgment of men and events.

This does not mean that he led a cloistered life. On the contrary both in Europe and America he traveled widely and talked with leaders of every political variety.

WHAT IS EXTRAORDINARY looking back is the long reach of his influence. He brought out his first book, "A Preface to Politics," shortly after he left Harvard in 1910. "Public Opinion," published in 1927 still in print, Macmillan is a classic as valid today as when it first came out. It is an appraisal of the strengths and weaknesses of the press under the burden of investigation and disclosure of authority.

A REQUIREMENT that the men who drafted the First Amendment to the Constitution could hardly have foreseen, it can mean often offending the unthinking majority. This was therefore a threat to a free and independent press as we are seeing in the aftermath of Watergate.

His clear vision was never more evident than in his view of America's vastly augmented power after World War II. As he repeatedly wrote that power should be exercised by sea and by air. This was to be the American role in seeking to maintain order in a chaotic world where the Pax Britannica of a century or more had dissolved.

Stern opposition to the massive involvement in a land war in Vietnam was inevitable. His was a courageous and consistent voice raised against that catastrophe with all its tragic consequences. An irony was the courtship that Lyndon Johnson paid him during the Lippmann's last months in Washington. Visiting him in the study of his house on Woodley Road ostensibly to seek the advice of the sage, the President jawboned him on the righteousness of the war.

WITH HIS STEADY gaze looking beyond the aberrations of the moment he held from the outset that a detente with the Soviet Union must come if a third world war and nuclear holocaust were to be averted.

Labels, liberal, conservative, did not fit him. His unorthodox views often offended the passionate proponents in one camp or another. His preference for Richard Nixon over Hubert Humphrey in 1968 was one example. Lippmann had come to feel that New Dealism, the whole structure of welfare and Social Security, had gone beyond reasonable expectation that it might be sustained with the framework of the American system and it was time for a pause.

ON HIS 85th birthday in September he was asked if he thought Nixon was the worst President he had ever had. "No," he replied, "the most embarrassing."

A memory I cherish as a friend of those years when he and his late wife, Helen, assembled a wonderfully varied company out of government, diplomacy, the press, for dinners, receptions and just relaxed evenings. Never stuffy, they had warmth, good humor and wit. The Lippmann parties were a phenomenon of a civilized age that seems long gone.

A book he had been working on, tentatively to be called "The Ungovernability of Man," was never finished. In his last months his view of the current scene was hardly optimistic. Yet he never indulged in the stygian gloom. We will be drawing on the wisdom he has left us for a long time to come.

Hefty Tax Rise

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Here's a true-false test that could undermine some of your favorite assumptions. —During the past six years the fastest-rising expense for those living a "comfortable" standard of living was for food.

False. The answer is taxes. The federal government regularly issues its estimates of how much money is required to live on low, intermediate and comfortable budgets, or standards of living.

In 1967 it estimated that $13,100 was needed for a four-member family — mother, father, girl of 8 and boy 13 — or $5,100 less than in 1974.

A breakdown of this $5,100, made by the Conference Board, a private research organization, shows that 28.2 per cent goes for taxes, 27.8 per cent for food, 20.3 per cent for housing, 7.8 per cent for clothing and personal care, and 15.9 per cent for other needs.

An explanation is needed: This hefty tax rise, says the board, isn't primarily due to higher tax rates but because the additional income needed to meet higher prices has pushed families into higher tax brackets.

—The course of the stock market in January foretells its course for the rest of the year. It seems to be so. Based on whether the Standard & Poor's composite index is up or down in January, the market for the entire year has followed suit in 21 of the past 25 years.

Nixon, 'Bebe' Lose Road Tiff

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon, his friend C.G. "Bebe" Rebozo and their neighbors have lost their bid to have a road bordering what used to be the Key Biscayne presidential compound closed to the public.

A petition signed by Rebozo, Nixon and other neighbors — including industrialist Robert Abplanalp — had sought to make Bay Lane private. The lane is due to lose its federal security soon.

But the Dade County Commission voted Tuesday to keep the street open.

After the meeting, Rebozo was told his Key Biscayne Bank had been robbed of an undetermined amount of cash. Police said no arrests had been made.

That is the observation of Yale Hirsch, publisher of the Stock Trader's Almanac. —The Arabs can take over almost any American Company.

Moreover, it seems to be the Arab style, for the time being at least, to invest for the short term, although several real estate purchases have been made.

The stock market itself is likely to be a deterrent. If word "circulates" that the Arabs are interested in a company it is conceivable the prices will shoot through the roof.

Finally, the attempted takeover of a large U.S. corporation could be self-defeating. Many companies have contracts with the Department of Defense, which cannot transact business with a company controlled from abroad.

If this situation actually developed — that is, that the Defense Department withdrew all its business — the price of the Arab-owned stock most likely would plummet. And that prospect is unattractive to any investor.

There is some likelihood also that the government would act to prevent such a purchase, perhaps on the grounds of national security, of a large, basic industry.

...A Pound Of Chocolate

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Settle an argument! My husband says if you eat one pound of chocolate candy on top of your average daily intake of food, you won't gain more than one pound. Can this be true? — E.C.

Sure, Why not? You can't gain weight from what you don't eat.

And, of course, we have to assume that the "average daily intake of food" that you mention is an amount that just equals your daily food needs — that without eating all that candy, your weight would remain constant. But let's not lose sight of the fact that an extra pound of chocolate candy will add substantially to your weight — although not a whole pound of body weight.

Let's assume that the candy is all carbohydrate — that is, all sugar or starchy material. That will vary somewhat depending on the kind of candy, but it's close enough for our purposes now.

A pound is roughly 450 grams. Carbohydrate represents about 4 calories per gram, so the pound of candy works out to 450 times 4, or about 1,800 calories.

A pound of additional body weight represents about 3,500 calories — so if, in addition to your actual food needs, you ate a pound of candy besides, you'd add about half a pound of body weight.

Don't lose sight of the importance of that half-pound of body weight. It may not sound like much. Actually it is a lot. Because an added half pound of body weight isn't going to disappear. It's going to stay, once you've added it.

Supposing somebody gorged a pound of candy a day on top of a normal diet. In a year of doing that, he would have gained something like 180 pounds! So think twice before you get in the habit of reaching for the candy box.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is it safe to sleep in the basement where the hot water heater and furnace are all in one room? My 20-year-old son sleeps about 20 feet from them. I am not concerned about the hot or cold there, just whether the gas heater and boiler give off dangerous fumes that could hurt him. They are connected into the chimney. — Mrs. J.G.

Being in a basement isn't unhealthy, per se. But whether it is properly ventilated can be vital.

Both the heater and furnace must, of course, be connected into the chimney. Technically this is "venting." Both of those heating units produce carbon monoxide — they can't help it. The monoxide fumes must be carried away through the chimney. Allowed to accumulate, the monoxide is deadly. So check your pipes. However, properly vented, basement heating units are safe.

Dr. Thosteson's booklet, "Lost Secrets of Reducing," tells you how — naturally and without gimmicks — to the level best suited to your individual needs. For a copy write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Your December 6 editorial, "That Nimble-Fingered Clerk," raised several issues in connection with a General Accounting Office report on the national bulk mail system, and suggested to us that you had not an opportunity to actually read the General Accounting Office report itself. For if you had, you would have found that it generally supported the Postal Service decision to invest $950-million in a national network of highly mechanized and efficient bulk mail processing plants.

The report generally verified our estimated construction costs, which are staying within budgets established several years ago.

The report also generally agreed with our estimates of cost savings, due to improved efficiencies promised by the new system.

The report did question the advisability of sending parcels that were slated for local delivery through far-away regional plants. What the General Accounting Office did not fully appreciate perhaps, is that the bulk mail system will have sufficient flexibility so that field managers can hold out local parcels for more expeditious service. About seven per cent of total parcel volume would fall into this category.

The General Accounting Office did express concern with the Service's estimate of a $500-million annual benefit from the network by 1984, consisting of both cost savings and additional business, but conceded the estimate could turn out to be accurate.

The Postal Service has never suggested that the bulk mail network was a "no-risk" venture. But the risk of inaction and continued neglect of business mailers far outweighs in our view those involved with this rational, comprehensive and sensible investment in the Postal Service's and the nation's future mail network.

Sincerely, BERNARD J. ROSWIG

POTENTIAL SHOCK HAZARD — Jane Wheeler of the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission shows a set of Christmas lights in Washington of the type the commission says could present severe hazard of electric shock and fire. The commission says the lights are potentially hazardous because of exposed metal contacts in the female end of the light cords and loose or exposed bare wires in some sockets.

Study Finds State Employees In Dire Need Of Pay Raise

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — State employees—some of whom are so needy they receive food stamps—desperately need a pay raise and a continuing method to keep them ahead of inflation, a special commission says.

The Public Employees Study Commission issued its report Thursday to Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who appointed the group at the request of the 1973 legislature.

INFLATION

Salaries and wages should be raised to offset inflation and match those paid by private business and industry, the commission said.

It added that procedures should be established "to maintain comparable salary levels and make cost of living adjustments during the interim between legislative sessions."

"The overwhelming concern of the public sector employee continues to be inadequate pay. Testimony indicated that Texas ranks 38th among the states in average pay for state employees. Furthermore, because of relatively inflexible budgetary procedures at both the state and local levels, public sector employees suffer disproportionately from present runaway inflation," the report said.

compiled a detailed report that deserves, and I am sure will receive, most thorough study from all elected officials," said Briscoe, who received the first copy of the report.

The 18-member study commission recommended that the legislature pass a public employer-employee relations act that would authorize employees "to organize and be recognized and to elect representatives for the purposes of consulting in good faith over wages, hour of work or conditions of work."

Strikes by public employees would continue to be prohibited.

terminate an employe for just cause."

State employes should receive their actual expenses, up to $50 a day, plus mileage when traveling, the report said. They now get 12 cents a mile car allowance plus $18 a day for expenses when traveling inside Texas and $35 when they go outside the state.

Fringe benefits for state employes compare unfavorably with the private sector, the report said.

It recommended uniform group life and health insurance for all employes, with premiums paid entirely by the state, longer vacations and "substantially increased" retirement benefits.

Necklaces Are Recovered

Five turquoise necklaces valued at $1,500, stolen from a store at 500 Gregg Wednesday, were found in a ditch, beside the road 70 yards from where three youths were apprehended by law officials near Vealmoor.

City Police Detective Arven Henry said the youths may have panicked and threw the necklaces out of the car window not too far from where they were stopped by Sheriff A. N. Standard and two Snyder Highway Patrolmen.

They were caught by the sheriff only a few hours after the theft was reported.

Matthew Clarence Lyle, 18, Snyder, pleaded guilty in 118th District Court today and accepted full responsibility for the theft. District Attorney Robert H. Moore III said.

A 19-year-old and juvenile questioned in connection with the incident will not be prosecuted, Moore said.

Lyle was given 10 years of probation.

STRIKES PROHIBITED

It quoted a state university personnel director as saying that his office often helps employes complete applications for food stamps.

"The commission has procedures which require that an individual cannot be considered for a presidential pardon until at least three years after serving his sentence."

'Jimmy The Greek' Gains Full Pardon

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Jimmy the Greek" Snyder has been granted a full and unconditional pardon by President Ford for a conviction 11 years ago of gambling violations.

The pardon took effect Wednesday and was made public by the Justice Department Thursday.

The Las Vegas odds-maker received one of 47 pardons Ford issued Wednesday, continuing the presidential custom of Christmas season pardons.

Snyder, whose real name is James G. Synodinos, was sentenced to five years probation and fined $10,000 after being convicted for interstate transportation of bets and wagering information, conspiracy and violating the Federal Communications Act.

The pardon followed normal Justice Department procedures which require that an individual cannot be considered for a presidential pardon until at least three years after serving his sentence.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL PRESIDENT Disputing Slush Fund Wiretop Allegations

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. President Zane Barnes steadfastly maintains that any political contributions made by Bell executives are of their own choosing and "strictly a personal matter."

But Barnes did admit at a news conference Thursday executives could have given money to Bell's public affairs people without knowing at the time to whose campaign the money was going.

Barnes flew in Thursday from St. Louis to defend his company against allegations of a corporate political slush fund, illegal wiretapping and illegal rate making in Texas.

NOT GOOD ENOUGH

Shortly after Barnes spoke to the civic club, depositions were being taken in another part of the city in a $29.2 million lawsuit brought against Bell by James Ashley, a fired Bell executive, and the family of T.O. Gravitt, a Bell executive in Dallas who took his life in October.

And in yet another development, State Sen. Ron Clower, D-Garland, said in Dallas he would introduce legislation to establish a state utilities commission because Texas telephone service "is not good enough" and its costs should be "dramatically cheaper."

Barnes told members of the San Antonio Kiwanis Club "widespread attempts have been and are being made to bring into dispute a number of our operations in Texas that have passed the test of time for effectiveness and fairness to the public."

Clower said his bill would call for a three-member elected panel with authority over telephone, electric, natural gas and private water industries.

The proposal, he said, is an outgrowth of a report from a Senate subcommittee which dealt with utilities in the state, principally Southwestern Bell.

Clower, who chairs the subcommittee, said his proposed legislation would alter Bell's way of determining its consumer rate base and would provide for rate rollbacks whenever telephone service drops below a certain standard established by the utilities commission.

Texas is the only state in the country without a statewide utilities regulation body.

Barnes said his company, the largest in the Bell system, is not opposed to regulation but added, "I believe the people of Texas have fared very well under city regulation."

"We certainly feel we can work and live with any fair regulatory body," Barnes said Bell's position will depend on any specific legislative proposals.

PERSONAL MONEY

When asked about reports of a Bell corporate slush fund, Barnes said, "I underscore and emphasize that is personal money and not company money and there is no coercion associated with that."

Ashley has said when he reached a certain management level, he was told a part of his salary was given to him "in trust" and was to go to political campaigns.

When Barnes told reporters executives could have contributed in the blind to political races through the public affairs persons, he was asked if this could not be called a slush fund.

"You may call it that, but I call it a personal contribution," he said.

CONSUMER LOBBY

Randall Wood, head of the self-styled consumer lobby Common Cause, said of the situation Barnes outlined: "If that did happen after June 14, 1973, when the campaign finance law in Texas became effective, the people involved and specifically the persons who collected the money would have violated the campaign finance law because at the time they collected that money they became a political committee under that act and were required to file a campaign fund manager with the secretary of state and reported fully where the money came from and to whom it was given in separate reports from the candidates' report."

As to Bell's rate making in Texas, Barnes said, "You may have heard reports of a so-called secret memorandum by a Southwestern Bell rate expert in St. Louis. Boiled down to simple terms, this memorandum says just what I said: original costs requires a higher rate of return than fair value."

Barnes was referring to Texas law, unlike laws of other states, which allows utilities to ask for a certain level of profit based on the fair value of investment with inflation as a factor.

FAIR VALUE

Barnes conceded under questioning the same memorandum said certain unique Bell practices in Texas in figuring fair value and operating expenses would be hard to defend in court.

Clower said his bill would call for a three-member elected panel with authority over telephone, electric, natural gas and private water industries.

The proposal, he said, is an outgrowth of a report from a Senate subcommittee which dealt with utilities in the state, principally Southwestern Bell.

Clower, who chairs the subcommittee, said his proposed legislation would alter Bell's way of determining its consumer rate base and would provide for rate rollbacks whenever telephone service drops below a certain standard established by the utilities commission.

Texas is the only state in the country without a statewide utilities regulation body.

Barnes said his company, the largest in the Bell system, is not opposed to regulation but added, "I believe the people of Texas have fared very well under city regulation."

"We certainly feel we can work and live with any fair regulatory body," Barnes said Bell's position will depend on any specific legislative proposals.

RELIGION IN NEWS

Presbyterians, Methodists, Episcopalians Set Programs

By MARJ CARPENTER
Among the many churches holding special programs this weekend and on Christmas Eve are the First Presbyterian, St. Mary's Episcopal and the First United Methodist.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIANS will hold their traditional Christmas Eve candlelight caroling at the church at 7 p.m. Dec. 24th. They will also hold a special program Sunday night, Dec. 22.

The many different cultures around the world have been influenced by Christianity involving all manners of traditions to celebrate the Christmas Season, one of the most joyous times of the year. One of the most beautiful of these traditions is Las Posadas — a dramatization of the journey of Mary and Joseph from their home in Nazareth to Bethlehem. "Posadas" is a Spanish word signifying an Inn or shelter.

The procession of Las Posadas recalls the difficulty Mary and Joseph experienced in trying to find a shelter along their journey. In keeping with the belief that their journey took 9 days, the Posadas is traditionally carried out each night from December 16 to Christmas Eve. The modern Las Posadas became a part of the religious life of Mexico in 1578 when a missionary introduced the ceremony to his parishioners at Acolman. He developed the ceremony as a means of counteracting the influence of pagan rituals conducted by the Aztec Indians. They stop at various doors along the route asking for shelter only to be turned away from each Inn. In areas where the Las Posadas is observed the greatest honor is to be the

to the pilgrims on that final night. The choir and the congregation will meet on the lawn of the church at 8th. away from each Inn. In December 22. The choir will lead the procession around the block stopping at three places and the "fourth home" will be the Sanctuary. All of the congregation is invited to join in, but those who feel they cannot go with the procession are invited to enter the Sanctuary at 7 p.m. Mrs. John Birdwell will be playing a medley of Christmas Carols during this time.

IN HIS HANDS — This theme was used by the high school Bible Class this year as they changed the traditional Nativity Scene atop the gymnasium roof to show the infant Christ child in the hands of God on the First Christmas. The scene is lit up at night at the gym on 4th Place.

Forsan Methodists Start In 1908

The Forsan Methodist Church had a rather devious pre-natal experience. First, about 1908, a church was organized at Concho School in Glasscock County. Among the charter members were Mrs. Dora Roberts and her sister, Mrs. Otis Chalk, and Mr. Chalk. Several years later the church moved to the Fairview School. It was on the Sterling City Circuit.

In 1926, after the discovery of oil on the Chalk ranch the boom town of Otis Chalk sprang up, and the church moved there. Mr. and Mrs. Chalk donated the building. In 1950, after the oil boom was over and the town of Chalk dwindled, the church moved to Forsan, and R. O. Bowman was the first pastor at Forsan.

The only living charter member of the old Concho Church in 1960 was Mrs. Mamie Gandy. Other pastors have been: Claude Nixon, Allen Forbis, James Futch T. H. Taylor and L. Bryant Taylor. In 1960, the church had 60 members and a trust fund of $15,000.00 which had been left it by Mrs. Dora Roberts. At that time it had 60 members.

The Forsan Church consolidated with the First United Methodist Church in Big Spring in 1973.

Baptists Set Yule Telecast

DALLAS — The story of Texas Baptist child care ministries will be told in a series of special telecasts across Texas during the Christmas season.

The telecast — "Where There Is Love" — will be shown in Big Spring on KWAB Channel 4, at 1:00 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 22.

"Where There Is Love" is a special documentary, showing Texas Baptists ministering to 2,650 children. Photography was by Gary Pickle, formerly of Big Spring.

Bible Translations Now Especially Easy To Read

The traditional Christmas story has been told in a new way by the American Bible Society. This new translation is especially easy to read, and will make it possible for millions of adult Americans and countless children with limited reading skill to read the story for themselves for the first time.

A series of "new reader" translations have been under development by the Bible Society for 25 years. They are the product of the "Good News for New Readers" program, a campaign to bring the Bible to half the world's people for whom it has been a closed book. They are new or marginal readers who find traditional translations far too difficult for them to read.

In these Scripture Selections, unfamiliar and complex words have been changed to simpler ones, or several words used in explanation. Phrases giving historical information incidental to the story have been omitted.

Making these translations easy to read involves more than word changes. Each line of print corresponds to a single thought. Lines are indented to show where those thoughts belong in relation to the story as a whole and to the preceding sentence. Ample white space and attractive color illustrations are used to maintain interest and readability.

Literacy experts have commended the Bible Society's new Scripture Selections as being the first to be both readable and interesting to new readers, because neither accuracy nor drama has been sacrificed for understanding.

The American Bible Society plans to translate its Scripture Literacy Selections into 200 languages for the new readers of the world. The United Nations estimates that there will be at least two billion new readers coming to the world of print between now and the year 2000.

To finance the translation and publication of these Scripture Selections, the Bible Society has a fund-raising goal of $63,000,000 by 1985. So far, translations have been started in more than 100 languages and several million Scripture Literacy Selections have been distributed through churches, missions, governments and private organizations in many countries.

Beta Sigma Phi Sets Convention In Austin

Mrs. Janelle Britton was hostess for the Wednesday meeting of Xi Pi Epsilon chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, when a program and holiday party were held.

A letter from the City Council of Beta Sigma Phi in Austin was read inviting the chapter to attend the convention there June 13-15.

Mrs. Roe Fulham presented a program on writing in which she told of the effects of writing on the individual, how to outline for a composition and its structure. She said a writer should look for outstanding points and use details to back up the ideas.

"A creative writer writes what he knows most about and uses his own style," she said. She also explained what procedure one follows in preparing a composition for printing.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a red and green linen cloth and centered with a Santa Claus figure based in cedar and Christmas ornaments.

Secret Sisters were revealed in the gift exchange.

An invitation to an open house Dec. 24 at 2 p.m. was extended by Mrs. Mackie Hays who lives in Sand Springs.

Donations Will Aid Research

Success of a recent bake sale enabled the Alpha Beta Omicron chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, to make a sizeable donation to the Center for Behavioral Studies at North Texas State University.

The announcement of the donation was made Tuesday at the chapter meeting in the home of Mrs. Jeanne Gafford. Mrs. Darlene Boehmer was winner of the $50 grocery check.

Secret Sister gifts were exchanged during the social hour when hor d'oeuvres were served.

A pledge meeting for Mrs. Genie Carroll was held, and a gift bought for the chapter's nursing home resident.

The Jan. 7 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Jo Ogle, 1400 Birdwell.

Dear Abby

She's Planning Finery For Mother's Funeral

DEAR ABBY: My mother is in very poor health and I would appreciate it if you would advise me as to the proper attire for funeral services.

I look terrible in black, but I could buy either a dark gray or navy blue suit.

Also, what is acceptable for my son, who is 17? He has a new green plaid blazer which he could wear with a white shirt and black tie. Or do you think a solid color jacket would be more appropriate?

My two daughters are 12 and 14. Must they wear something dark, too? Also, should I carry gloves? If so, do you think white would be too conspicuous? Also, may I wear a small pin or pearls? Or is jewelry out of place at a funeral? Thank you.

NAMESLESS IN N.M.: DEAR NAMELESS: You and your children should wear whatever you would normally wear to church. Don't buy anything especially for your mother's funeral. She may live.

DEAR ABBY: Your recent exchange on how to say no to sex reminds me of an old story that might bear repeating:

"What's the difference between a lady and a diplomat?"

When a diplomat says "yes" he means maybe.

When a diplomat says "Maybe" he means no.

When a diplomat says "no" he's no diplomat.

When a lady says "no" she means maybe.

When a lady says "maybe" she means yes.

When a lady says "yes" she's no lady.

WALTER E. BLAKELY: BELOIT, WISC.

DEAR WALTER: Thanks for a dandy day-brightener. "Old" is right. But it's still good.

DEAR ABBY: A friend and I lunch together about once a week and we've been taking turns picking up the check.

I noticed that when it's my turn to treat, this friend orders three martinis and a full course meal. But when it's HER turn to treat, she orders only one martini, and then says she's not very hungry and all she wants is a sandwich, so naturally I'm not about to order a more expensive lunch than she orders.

It's beginning to irk me. She's not hurting at the bank if you know what I mean. How should I handle it?

FED UP

DEAR FED: Go Dutch.

DEAR ABBY: I just had to write about the letter from "Missing My Grandchildren."

After my husband and I were divorced, I used to take my children over to my in-law's house a couple of times a month. They seemed happy to see me and the kids, but sometimes I felt like I was imposing. After about six months, I decided not to drop in, but to wait for an invitation.

I'm still waiting, and it's been two years. We live in the same part of town and I have a phone. I think if they really wanted to see their grandchildren, they would call once in a while and ask about them, or ask me to bring them over, or maybe come to visit us.

Gardeners Make Gifts For Pupils

Oasis Garden Club Members hosted a party and program Monday afternoon at Moss Elementary School for students in the individualized program.

The women worked with 23 children and entertained them with Disney cartoon movies, after which cookies and punch were served by Mrs. Clarie Conger, Mrs. Henry Schaedel and Mrs. Marie Aagesen.

As the children left, each was given a miniature macramé hanging basket containing rooted and potted kalanchoe. The baskets were made by a member of the club.

The next session with the children will be at 2 p.m., Jan. 16 when Mrs. Paschal Odum, Mrs. Schaedel and Mrs. Ruby Simpson will instruct them in making pine cone bird feeders.

Christmas Festivities Held At Nursing Inn

Residents of the Big Spring Nursing Inn celebrated Christmas with a party Tuesday evening sponsored by the Disabled American Veterans, all service organizations and a number of individuals.

Scorch Hint

Ever burn rice? You can make the scorch taste disappear quickly if you take a piece of fresh white bread and place it on top of the rice. Put the cover on the pot and within a few minutes the scorch taste will completely disappear.

Can Re-Use

You can re-use a cinnamon stick just as you would a vanilla bean. Remove the cinnamon stick from the mixture in which it was heated, rinse in water and allow to dry. Wrap it tightly in plastic wrap and it will be ready for another round of service.

Kitchen Tip

Rubber kitchen gloves will never become midewed or stuck together if you remove the wet gloves, turn the cuffs, and place each glove over an empty frozen orange juice can, out of which you have cut the top and bottom.

Gifts of toiletries, fruit and candy were given to each resident of the two buildings.

Mrs. Ollie Branson and Mrs. Jack Spivey were in charge of the refreshments in the upper building. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Sidney Doggett, Mrs. Carlis O'Neal, Mrs. Bob Bowen and Mrs. Dwight McCann.

The tables were covered with a satin cloth overlaid with net trimmed in sequined poinsettias and Christmas trees.

In the lower building Mrs. Juan Munoz and Mrs. Gus Ochotorena served a decorated Christmas cake and punch.

The program, directed by Mrs. Jo Ann Lopez and Ms. Janie Tovar, was presented by the residents' choir. Prayer was led by Arnold Tonn, and songs were sung by Ms. Ann Parrott and Ms. Monalou Tonn. Piano selections were performed by Mrs. Cora Hardesty, Mrs. Odessa Stinson and Mrs. Helen Terrell. The program was concluded with all the residents, their families and friends singing "Auld Lang Syne."

C. B. O'Neal presented the home with an American flag. Those collecting donations and gifts for the party were Ollie Branson, chairman; Don McCray, co-chairman; Jack Spivey, George Kunkle and Y. J. Luna. Assisting with the party were C. B. O'Neal, Jessie Phares, Dwight McCann, J. H. Taylor and E. B. Meeker.

Area 4H Club Serves Dinner

A Mexican supper was prepared and served by the Lees-Drumright 4-H Club members when they met Wednesday in the Community Center.

Prior to the supper, the girls held their Christmas party, exchanged gifts and sang carols.

The leader, Mrs. F. T. Carstensen, was assisted by Tonya Carstenson and the junior leaders, Dianna Black and Connie Carstensen.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Folks:

Once in a while we all run across something that will crack us up — send us out into orbit.

Well, if ol' Betsy didn't lead me to a friend who gave me about the greatest idea that I ever heard of months ago.

It's a new way to save money! That's the stuff that used to buy us something right?

So many of us go camping, or have fireplaces and burn wood to start that lovely fire. But now that wood logs are the price of gold inlays, we often hesitate to throw another $$$ (that IS a log) on the fire. What is going to take the place of that log and save those $$$?

The very newspaper that you are reading right now!

And let me tell you how it involves ecology, too!

A gentleman out in the mountains where I have a little ol' cabin has to burn a fireplace for heat, etc.

Dadgum-a-mile if I didn't go into a trance about him telling me how he got his logs for nothing, folks. He has a few friends who had this great idea.

After they read their paper, they roll it up. Then they take any metal can with the bottom and top cut out of it (think about a tuna fish or sliced pineapple can), and jam ("push thru" says Webster!) the paper through the can! This makes a metal band around the middle of the papers.

When he picks them up from his friends each week, he leaves them outside near his garage and they get wet. That is the secret of it all. If it rains, so much the better. During dry spells when he is watering the yard he sprinkles 'em.

Meatballs For Soup

COLLEGE STATION — Hot soup is made to order for crisp, cool fall days and can also be packed with nutrients, one foods and nutrition specialist said this week.

She's Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist with the Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Give hot soups a warm welcome on cool, fall days. They can perk up sagging appetites and help lighten the load on the food budget," she said.

She suggested trying meatball soup. Season ground beef with salt and pepper and other favorite seasonings. Shape the meat into marble-sized balls and bring to a boil in water. Add sliced carrots and celery with a little chopped parsley from your herb garden. Cook slowly for two hours and serve hot — sprinkled with cheese.

"The soup includes some of all the basic food groups except the bread and cereal group. So serve it with piping hot corn bread to round out the meal with a southern touch," the specialist advised.

She noted that one way to cut back on the cost of the ground beef for this soup is to mix the meat with textured vegetable protein.

Now let's go back to the can.

After the papers are dried thoroughly, he puts can, paper and all in his fireplace. They make wonderful logs and last nearly as long as oak! And you don't have to part with your gold inlays.

Isn't that terrific? As each fire goes out, he takes his fireplace tongs and just lifts out the cans.

The crux of it all is that the woman of the house gets rid of her cans and those newspapers at the same time. Saves on those expensive garbage bags too. Look at the space those newspapers and cans take up. I have already analyzed it.

I did learn after testing that if you would sprinkle a little detergent (commonly used for laundry) mixed with some water on the papers that you got a "back" log that will last for hours. Why I don't know. Can somebody tell me?

So if you know somebody with a can and some newspapers, why don't you ask 'em to save 'em for you? Sure saves the $$$ of burning logs.

love forevermore,

Heloise
P.S. They sure are great to take on picnics for campfires but, most of all, those of us who need that fireplace for heat like I do a few days a year sure save money more ways than one.

Dear Heloise:
Nylon net! I made a Christmas tablecloth of white net, decorated it with red reindeer, poinsettias with green leaves, red candles with yellow flames, all made of felt and glued on. I put a two-inch red ribbon border around the bottom.

I had a yard of net left over that fitted my mirror over the sofa. I pinned it at the corners at the top with safety pins to make it fit. Used a clear plastic, red clothespin at the center. This forms a drape.

Now I have a place to pin my Christmas cards to show. After Christmas I'll just fold it up, cards and all, and put away for next year.

Betty Crumpton

Dear Heloise:
When making pie crust, add a few drops of food coloring to the water you mix it with, and you have a tinted pie crust.

It's pretty for the holidays.
L.M.D.

Dear Heloise:
At Christmas the children always want to open a present on Christmas Eve.

Crime Of Love Plea Entered

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Robert C. Waters faces the possibility of 15 years in prison for what the Oakland County prosecutor calls "a crime of love."

Waters admits he helped his 65-year-old wife commit suicide. He pleaded no contest to manslaughter charges, and Circuit Court Judge William J. Beers accepted the plea as a guilty plea Thursday.

Waters, former village president of Clarkston and a former high school principal, entered his plea just after the Nov. 13 death of his wife, Kathleen. He will be sentenced Jan. 10.

In a statement to police, Waters, also 65, related how at his wife's request he started the engine of his car in the family garage, escorted her to the auto and left her inside the closed garage. She died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

"I said, 'Kathleen, are you sure this is what you want to do,' and she said, 'Yes,' and 'You leave me.' And I kissed her. She said, 'I love you, Bob.' I said, 'I love you, dear....'"

Waters said his wife of 40 years had contemplated suicide for a long time. He said she had a history of mental illness and had been treated for two slight strokes, high blood pressure, severe depression and arthritis.

He said she became despondent after being bedridden in 1973.

Auxiliary Will Help

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, at their meeting Thursday evening, voted to assist the Legion in sponsoring a New Year's dance. They also voted to buy a year's subscription to the Herald as a gift to the VA Hospital.

Three couples reported on attending a coon supper in Slaton recently where Department commander, James W. Wyatt, Houston was present. Making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Olive Branson, Mr. and Mrs. Don McCray, and Mr. and Mrs. Troy Melton.

Melton, who is the post adjutant, and Mrs. Melton attended a homecoming affair in Fort Worth for Mrs. Wanda Patton, state auxiliary president. This was attended by Joe L. Matthews, Fort Worth, former national commander.

On behalf of the post, Melton presented a podium to the auxiliary. Christmas presents were distributed, and Jan. 2 was announced as next meeting date.

RICHER BY $100 — Ambrocio Sanchez, left, 1506 Robin St. last week, won the $100 in Eisenhower silver dollars given away weekly by downtown merchants. Shown presenting Sanchez with the money is Donnie Ward at Ward's Boot Shop, where Sanchez entered the contest. Sanchez is an employee of Webb AFB. The Christmas season's final drawing will be Saturday.

Passports To Parks Available

The 1975 Golden Eagle Passport and lifetime Golden Age Passport will be available beginning Jan. 1, 1975 at most National Park Service-administered areas in Texas and most park areas across the nation.

The Golden Eagle Passport is good for the calendar year and costs $10. It admits the purchaser and all persons traveling with him in a single, private, non-commercial vehicle to designated entrance fee areas. Where entry is by any means other than private, non-commercial vehicle, the Passport will admit the permittee and accompanying spouse, children and parents. (A private non-commercial vehicle is any passenger car, station wagon, pickup, camper truck, motorcycle or other motor vehicle used for private recreation purposes.)

The Golden Eagle does not cover recreation use fees, such as camping fees or special recreation permit fees; it is valid for entrance fees only and is not transferable.

Persons who do not buy a Golden Eagle Passport may pay single-visit entrance fees. One entrance fee will be charged, regardless of the number of days visitors stay within a given area. On the day the entrance fee is paid, visitors may leave and re-enter the area without payment of an additional entry fee.

Parent Advisory Board officers were elected at the December 16, general meeting.

Refreshments were served with the help of four Girl Scouts from Troop 43. These girls were led by Mrs. Tom Stephenson. The girls are Suzette Young, Mary Bair, Denise Bradley, and Michelle Willett.

The election of officers was the first order of business. Elected were Robert Anderson, president; Teddy Molina Jr., vice president; Mrs. Richard (Beatrice) Jones, secretary. After the election, the officers elected took over the meeting. The main discussion of this meeting was the need for more parent volunteers and parent involvement in the various Federal programs.

It was agreed that the board would meet once a month. Any parent who would like to bring any suggestion of any type concerning the Head Start Program is welcome to attend the meetings or to contact the school or any of the officers.

Head Start also had its Christmas Program Thursday at 7:30 p.m. with the visit by Saint Nick. The children entertained the parents by singing Christmas Carols. Later Saint Nick gave all the children candy.

Mick Willett Chairman Of Hoop Shoot Contest

Max Moore, exalted ruler of Big Spring Lodge No. 1386, B.P.O. Elks has announced the appointment of Mike Willett as chairman of the annual Elks National "Hoop Shoot" Free Throw contest here.

Willett suggests Big Spring girls and boys who want to enter start practicing.

Rules are available at local schools. On Jan. 11, registration will start at 1 p.m. in the Big Spring High School gym. Competition will begin about 1:30 p.m.

There are three age brackets each for boys and girls: 8-9, 10-11 and 12-13 years old. The boys compete only against boys, and the girls only against girls. The youngest age bracket will shoot from four feet in front of the foul line.

In each age group, the top winner will match his or her skill with other winners in district competition. Then comes the state contest and regional trials.

Regional winners will compete for the national championship during the NAIA Invitational basketball tournament in Kansas City, Mo.

Cotton Trial

DALLAS (AP) — A hearing for two Vernon cotton dealers charged in an $8 million fraud and conspiracy case is to get underway today in U.S. District Court.

The trial of Robert E. Huntley and Gipson E. Hemphill was recessed Nov. 5 in Wichita Falls and moved to Dallas by U.S. District Court Judge Robert M. Hill.

Huntley and Hemphill are each charged in an 18-count indictment with conspiracy, interstate transportation of stolen property and forged securities, and making false statements to obtain loans from banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Each man could be assessed $175,000 in fines and 167 years in jail if convicted. In a surprise move Nov. 5, the two defendants waived their right to a jury trial and submitted their case to Judge Hill.

Death Sentence

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Walter Bell Jr., 21, of Port Arthur was handed the death sentence Thursday by a jury which found him guilty of the strangulation of Irene Chisum, 59.

Mrs. Chisum and her husband, Ferd, 61, appliance store owners, were killed during a robbery at their Port Arthur home last July.

Police said Mrs. Chisum was strangled and her husband was stabbed and strangled. Both bodies were dumped in a bathtub.

Houston defense attorney Jesse Fuenches said he will ask for another trial.

CRIMINAL PENALTIES DROPPED Marijuana Survey

WASHINGTON (AP) — A majority of Oregonians approve of their state law that reduces the penalty for possessing small amounts of marijuana to that of a parking ticket, a Drug Abuse Council survey shows.

The survey, commissioned by the independent, Washington-based council, was taken a year after Oregon became the first state to reduce penalties for possession of up to one ounce of marijuana from a criminal to a civil offense. Convictions under that law carry a maximum fine of $100 but no criminal record or jail term.

LITTLE CHANGE

The survey also indicated there was no significant increase in marijuana use after the criminal penalties were dropped.

The survey showed that although 52 per cent of the persons interviewed showed no change in how much they smoke, 40 per cent of those currently using marijuana reported a decrease in usage.

Of those who stopped using marijuana or never used it, 23 per cent cited a possible health danger as a reason while 4 per cent mentioned the possibility of legal prosecution.

Two years ago, the federal government's National Commission on Marijuana and Drug Abuse estimated that 26 million Americans have tried marijuana and that 8 million used it regularly. Oregon became the only state to adopt the commission's recommendation to reduce criminal penalties for possession of an ounce or less.

Robert Carr, a program officer for the Drug Abuse Council, said the possibility of reducing penalties for marijuana possession is being studied by other states, including Minnesota, Vermont, Massachusetts and the state of Washington.

"The importance of the survey is that many people on all levels have predicted that reducing the penalties will increase the usage of marijuana," Carr said. "But legal deterrents everywhere have been ineffective in reducing the amount people smoke."

The council said the survey consisted of 802 personal interviews with adults 18 years or older, "representing a balanced sample of the state's population."

Okay Car Pool Funds

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Highway Commission approved a car pool demonstration project Tuesday for Houston, costing an estimated $240,000.

Similar to projects in other Texas cities, the program will use computer matching techniques to help in forming car pools.

The program will be operated in cooperation with the City of Houston.

In other actions, the commission:

—Approved construction of a road in the Sea Rim State Park in Jefferson County, giving access to a wilderness area, campsites, interpretive displays and canoeing areas on the marsh side of the new park. Estimated cost is $130,000, plus another $70,000 to widen Texas 87 at the entrance to the park.
