

4,700 PERSONS KILLED, 15,000 INJURED

Earthquake Hits Pakistan

PATTAN, Pakistan (AP) — The earthquake that hit northern Pakistan during the weekend killed an estimated 4,700 persons and injured about 15,000 in nine villages, rescue officials said today. They said the final casualty toll could be even higher when reports arrive from isolated regions north of Pattan.

The villages were clustered about Pattan, nestled among the snow-capped Karakoram Mountains about 200 miles north of the Pakistani capital of Islamabad. The quake struck Saturday evening and tremors followed intermittently for the next 24 hours. First word of the disaster was brought out by runners. The quake almost destroyed this village of 10,000, leaving hardly one house intact. Senior army officers taking part in rescue operations estimated 500 inhabitants of Pattan were dead and 2,000 injured. Army rescue teams have been working around the clock since shortly after the quake struck, treating the injured, pulling bodies from the wreckage and mounting a helicopter-borne mercy airlift. Because of the widespread damage to houses many people have been sleeping in the open in temperatures that drop to near freezing at night. Nearly every family has reported losing one or more relatives in the disaster. Efforts to bring in more blankets and tents have been hampered because the Karakoram Highway, the country's main one which runs through the disaster-struck region, has been either severed or demolished along a 70-mile stretch. Quakes occurred Sunday northwest of Anchorage, Alaska; at Richmond, Calif., in the San Francisco Bay area, and in central Chile. There were no reports of casualties or serious damage. Officials described the nighttime Chilean earthquake as "very long and intense." Two moderate earthquakes hit near Anchorage, Alaska — the first about the same time as the Chilean tremor and the second about five hours later. Both registered 4.8 on the Richter scale. A quake struck the Richmond, Calif. area about 7 1/2 hours earlier than the Chilean tremor, registering 3.5 on the Richter scale.

Richter scale measurements of the Chilean and Pakistani earthquakes were not available. The Richter scale is a means of measuring a quake in which every number on the scale means a tenfold increase in magnitude. Thus a magnitude of 7.5 is 10 times greater than one of 6.5.

WATERGATE JURORS — Three women members of the Watergate cover-up trial jury leave a bus today as they arrive at U.S. District Court. The nine women and three men who comprise the jury have listened to weeks of arguments and testimony and are scheduled to begin the task of deciding the guilt or innocence of the five defendants in the case.

Fate Of Five Watergate Defendants Up To Jurors

WASHINGTON (AP) — The case of five former Nixon administration aides charged with conspiring to obstruct the investigation into the Watergate break-in went to the jury today. At 12:30 p.m. EST, the nine women and three men who will decide the guilt or innocence of the five defendants filed from the courtroom.

For nearly two hours before they received the case, U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica instructed the jurors on the legal issues involved and urged them to reach their verdict "fearlessly, calmly and dispassionately and without sympathy or bias for or against anybody."

Earlier, Sirica told the jurors "neither the pardon of former President Nixon nor any other cases or extraneous matters should have any effect on your deliberations or your verdict."

That was the only reference Sirica made in his instructions to Nixon who was driven from office by the Watergate scandal. The case went to the jury on the 62nd day of the trial and after they had heard testimony from more than 80 witnesses and had listened to 30 tapes including 28 of presidential conversations during the Nixon administration. Repeatedly Sirica explained that the cover-up would be a conspiracy to "influence, obstruct and impede and corruptly endeavor to influence, obstruct and impede, the due administration of justice in connection with the Watergate investigation and in connection with the trial of the original Watergate defendants...."

The defendants sat expressionless in the paneled courtroom where they have spent most of their days since the trial began Oct. 1. The five defendants are former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, ex-White House aides H. R. Haldeman and John D. Ehrlichman, former assistant Atty. Gen. Robert C. Mardian and Kenneth W. Parkinson, one-time lawyer for the Nixon re-election committee.

PERJURY All are charged with conspiring to obstruct the investigation of the original Watergate break-in. All but Mardian are charged with obstruction of justice. Mitchell, Haldeman and Ehrlichman also are charged with perjury.

Sirica informed the jury for the first time that he had dismissed two counts in the indictment which charged Ehrlichman and Haldeman with lying to FBI agents. The jurors listened without showing any expression.

After hearing Sirica's instructions, the nine women and three men, who heard eleven weeks of arguments and testimony, will begin deciding the guilt or innocence of the defendants.

LONG TRIAL The long trial was the climax of a scandal that forced Nixon to resign the presidency less than two years after he was reelected by one of the largest margins ever.

The grand jury that returned the cover-up indictment last March 1, also named Nixon, then still president, an indicted co-conspirator. In addition to telling the jurors not to be influenced by the Nixon pardon, Sirica said they should "not draw any inference against any party because a particular prospective witness may not have appeared." Sirica urged the jurors to decide the case "solely on the evidence presented here in court." The jury has heard testimony from more than 80 witnesses, about 30 of whom were called by the prosecutors. All five defendants testified.

MOST DRAMATIC But some of the most dramatic and damning words the jurors heard were from the White House tapes. The jury listened to 31 tapes, most of which covered conversations involving Nixon and his top aides.

During their deliberations the jurors will be able to listen again to any of the tapes they already have heard. The final week of the trial, interrupted by a two-day Christmas recess, was taken up by final arguments from prosecution and defense lawyers. The prosecution summation took about six hours. The five defense lawyers spent a total of more than 14 hours.

Now in the homeward-bound stretch of his work-and-ski vacation that began Dec. 22, Ford sandwiched about two hours of skiing between work sessions at his snow-covered ski chalet Sunday.

He has been on the slopes each day here except Friday when he held a day-long conference with energy policy advisers. The President is accompanied by a professional instructor on all his outings, which helps him to improve his form as well as cut into long holiday season lines for gondolas and chair lifts. Any skier with an instructor goes to the head of all lines.

Ford Reported Ready To Abandon Tax Bite

VAIL, Colo. (AP) — President Ford has been urged by some of his economic advisers to push for a tax cut to bolster the faltering economy.

Ford also was reported ready to abandon his proposed income tax surcharge, a measure he urged earlier this year when he declared inflation to be public enemy No. 1.

However, the deepening recession reportedly has led some White House economic advisers to push for a tax cut. That advice was said to have been given to Ford over the weekend when he met with his economic advisers.

TAX CUT? There was no indication whether Ford will propose a tax cut. Ford has sworn his advisers to secrecy, and press Secretary Ron Nessen has said that Ford will not announce any new programs until his State of the Union address sometime after the new Congress convenes on Jan. 14. But Nessen said Ford plans "fundamental changes" in the management of the nation's economy.

The President's reappraisal of the income tax surcharge was widely predicted when it became clear that the surcharge had very little support in Congress, even among lawmakers from Ford's own party. As Ford continues his working vacation here, he is factoring decisions on 122 bills passed by Congress. He must act by midnight tonight on a controversial measure to control strip mining.

VETO VOW Ford has promised to veto the bill on the grounds that it would discourage coal production and add to inflationary pressures.

Nessen has said Ford has but two options on strip mining: to sign a formal veto message or simply let the legislation die without his signature. In recent days, however, some businessmen who presumably would be adversely affected by the bill have urged Ford to change his mind and sign it lest the new Congress vote a tougher measure.

Terrorists Release Hostages, Cuba Bound

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — Eight terrorists today released hostages they held for 60 hours and flew off to Cuba with 10 sympathizers freed from Nicaraguan jails, officials said. The Roman Catholic archbishop of Managua went along to guarantee their safety. A National Guard officer at the airport said he believed but could not confirm that the Mexican and Spanish ambassadors and the papal nuncio in Managua also accompanied the terrorists to Cuba.

SIX POINTS The break came only a couple of hours after the broadcast of a guerrilla demand that six points be met before noon or the terrorists would begin shooting one hostage every 12 hours. The government had said it would not allow the hostages — at least 12 men — to be taken to Havana.

Archbishop Miguel Ovando y Bravo was the first man out of the house where the hostages were held, followed by a man in plain clothes. A guerrilla wearing a stocking mask and pointing a rifle followed. The group boarded a bus for the 15-mile drive to Managua's airport. They whipped through the airport to the end of the runway where a four-jet government-owned plane was waiting. Ten minutes later — at 12:20 p.m. EST — the jet took off with a flight plan for Havana.

NO DETAILS No details were available on whether the government met a $5-million ransom demand. A source close to the negotiations said the government agreed earlier to pay the ransom in small bills. But later the five men and three women guerrillas made additional demands for salary increases for many workers, year-end salary bonuses, an end "to all repression" in Nicaragua.

The terrorists, members of the Sandinista National Liberation Front, made the demands to a Roman Catholic archbishop acting as negotiator for the government. The demands were broadcast over national radio.

The government had no immediate public response. The terrorists said they would start shooting a hostage every 12 hours after the ultimatum expired at noon Tuesday.

Negotiations continued through the night as a jet plane, its flight plan to Cuba prepared and a crew standing by, waited at the Managua airport about 15 miles from town.

REAPPOINTMENT BLOCKED Federal Prosecutor Blames Sen. Bentsen

HOUSTON (AP) — Retiring U.S. Atty. Anthony Farris said today his reappointment to office was blocked by Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex., because Farris prosecuted some of Bentsen's friends.

"Of course, the senator is an honorable man and he will not discuss politics in this matter, but the truth is that his political bedfellows, the South Texas political bosses who first launched him into politics, wanted my head and got it," Farris said. "They wanted it because I started to dig through the dirt and corruption of the South Texas political bosses in 1970."

He said some of those he prosecuted from among Bentsen's political "bedfellows" included the sheriff of Star County, and longtime Duval County political boss George Parr.

A spokesman for Bentsen said the senator had said he would continue blocking Farris' reappointment until "serious questions" were answered.

Farris said he also wanted to prosecute some state officials in the Sharpstown scandals but was overruled by the U.S. Justice Department.

Farris said the decision not to prosecute was made

Sources said before the ultimatum that the only unresolved questions were how to turn over the money and the prisoners, and how the group would be taken to the airport.

SHOOTING THREAT A jetliner of Nicaragua's

by Justice Department officials in Washington. Farris made the statements in an interview that was released today upon his retirement after six years as U.S. attorney here. He has been criticized for his handling of the prosecution of the 1971 collapse of Frank W. Sharp's financial empire. Sharp, a Houston banker, pleaded guilty in two cases and got suspended sentences in return for his testimony.

Sharp testified at a state court trial in which former Texas House Speaker Gus Mutscher and two others were convicted on charges they gained from stock deals in return for passage of legislation Sharp wanted.

Farris said during the case he reported to Henry Peterson, the No. 2 official in the criminal division of the Justice Department.

"I don't know if you know the Washington attitude about prosecuting sitting state officials," Farris said. "But if you have a case against an ordinary citizen that is 90 per cent (sure to get a conviction), Washington would say, 'Fine, go ahead and prosecute.'"

"But against a state official they wanted a 200 per cent case," Farris said.

Area Counties Both Dip, Gain On Census Report

Howard County's population grew from 37,796 in 1970 to 39,200 in 1973 or 3.7 per cent, statistics released by the U.S. Census Bureau show.

Martin County, where Stanton is county seat, grew in population from 4,774 on April 1, 1970, to 5,100 on July 1, 1973. This represents a 6.2 per cent increase, second highest percentage for any county in the area.

In Scurry County, population boomed 13.4 per cent. The county, with Snyder the county seat, was populated by 15,760 at the start of the decade and by 17,900 three years later.

Borden County showed a 16 per cent drop in population from 888 to 700. Dawson lost 1.7 per cent from 16,604 to 16,300, according to the report.

In Glasscock County, population dipped from 1,155 to 1,100 or 7.3 per cent.

Mitchell County lost 6.1 per cent when population fell from 9,073 to 8,500. Sterling County gained 3 per cent, as the number rose from 1,056 to 1,100.

Botulism Poisoning

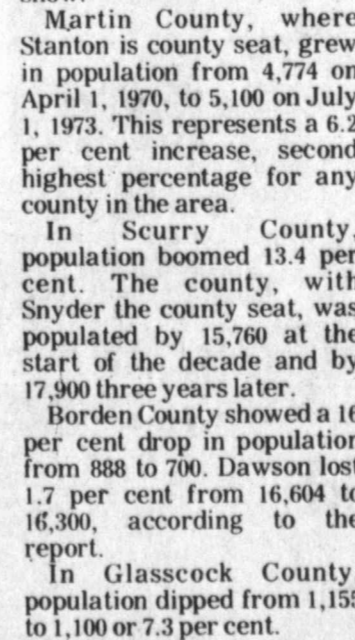

NEW YORK (AP) — A 27-year-old woman has died of apparent botulism poisoning contracted when she ate her late mother-in-law's home-preserved eggplant and mushroom antipasto.

Marie Mitrone died Sunday at Jacobi Hospital in the Bronx after four days on the critical list. She was one of 13 members of her family stricken on Christmas Day. The others recovered and had been released from the hospital.

The family had gathered after the Christmas Eve funeral of the younger woman's mother-in-law, also named Marie Mitrone, 59, and had eaten her antipasto on that night and again on Christmas Day.

Investigators found traces of the deadly botulism toxins in the homemade delicacy after family members were hospitalized for food poisoning.

A hospital spokesman said the cause of the younger woman's death was listed as "suspected botulism."

Joslyn.

COLBY WILL CLEAN HOUSE?

Three More Top CIA Officials To Resign

(AP WIREPHOTO)

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three more top officials in the CIA's counterintelligence division are stepping down in the midst of a reported policy dispute and allegations that the agency was involved in domestic spying.

Along with the resignation of counterintelligence chief James J. Angleton, the three departures leave vacant the top command of the division, which is known to have disagreed sharply with CIA Director William E. Colby over detente with the Soviet Union and Colby's public discussions of agency activities.

CIA TALK — Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., answers a question during his appearance on ABC's "Issues and Answers" program Sunday in Washington. Proxmire called for the creation of an independent special prosecutor's office to prosecute any illegal actions by CIA agents.

Meanwhile, it was learned that Angleton, named in published reports as the overseer of the alleged domestic spy operation, once served on an interagency panel that reported directly to the White House on the threat of domestic demonstrations and disturbances.

The so-called Intelligence Evaluation Committee was headed by Robert C. Maridian, former assistant attorney general and now a defendant in the Watergate cover-up trial.

Angleton and his staff were said by this source to believe that the agency was being destroyed by Colby's disclosures of agency activities, including CIA involvement in Chile and agency contacts with U.S. journalists abroad.

In addition to Angleton, 57, whose resignation was requested by Colby 10 days ago, Raymond Rocca, 57, No. 2 man in the counterintelligence division, Newton S. Miller, 48, chief of operations, and William J. Hood, 54, executive officer, are also leaving the agency at the end of this month.

A source who worked with all four officials said their decisions were influenced in part by added benefits available to government employees who retire before the end of the year.

Proxmire called for establishment of "an independent special prosecutor with subpoena powers who will prosecute every illegal action by CIA agents, past or present." He also said

Colby were the major factors in the retirements of Rocca and Miller.

Time magazine reported this week that Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and three congressmen were targets of CIA surveillance during the 1960's.

CRITICAL The source added that the counterintelligence staff objected in general to Colby's policy of increased public appearances, particularly his debate earlier this year with Daniel Ellsberg at a panel sponsored by the research group critical of the CIA.

Mills Intending To Give Up Booze

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wilbur Mills said today he intends to remain in Congress despite an illness that he described as acute alcoholism.

BY GRACE OF GOD
"I know that I am a well man as long as I do not drink, and, by the grace of God and with competent medical advice and the support of friends, I will remain well," Mills said. He added:
"In light of the above, it is my intention to continue in the Congress of the United States. My years of experience have given me some ability to make a contribution toward the solution of the problems of the times in which we live," the Arkansas Democrat said.

SOUL SEARCHING
Mills is in Bethesda Naval Hospital, which he entered after appearing on a Boston stage with Annabel Battistella, the strip-tease dancer in whose company he was found when police stopped his limousine at Washington's Tidal Basin earlier this year.

"I now realize, after several weeks of treatment by the doctors and soul-searching of my own, that I had developed a severe drinking problem, not as a daily drinker but as a periodic heavy drinker," Mills said.

Mills said that he had scarcely noticed in the last several years that his drinking habits had changed drastically.

He said he understands now that his pattern of drinking corresponds with alcoholism, which he called "a physical illness, as much as cancer and diabetes, and even more destructive in the sense that it affects far more people than the sufferer."

"I know now that I have been a sick man who did not understand the nature of the illness," Mills said. "I now have an understanding of the nature of this disease and I know how to live with it. The answer lies in total abstinence."

In what he said will be his last explanation of his conduct, Mills said his illness has caused him to suffer blackouts, "Periods during which I have had no knowledge of what I was doing."

"These were temporary in nature and happened only when I had ingested alcohol, but they do explain some of my recent activities," Mills said.

NO QUITTER
Mills said he will refuse to discuss the matter further with reporters and intends to dedicate himself to the work of Congress and of the House Ways and Means Committee

Speed Trap City Plans To Let Up

SELMA, Tex. (AP) — This suburb, which many motorists may wish they had avoided in the past, is seeking to improve its image.

Selma, which claims about 1,600 citizens now, is astride Interstate 35 just north of San Antonio and has been operating in the black thanks to a vigilant four-man police force.

Mayor F.W. Friesenhahn released figures here which showed Selma collected $104,000 in traffic fines during the fiscal year which ended in November, which was more than twice its expenses.

Friesenhahn said police will issue fewer tickets from now on. The city expects much of its future revenue to come from property taxes. Its residential development is supposed to increase rapidly.

Hope Says Benny Stingy To End

CULVER CITY, Calif. (AP) — Entertainment notables representing eras from vaudeville to television said farewell to Jack Benny, the humorist whom pal Bob Hope called "a national treasure."

Sunday's turnout was one of the largest and most emotional in recent years for a funeral of a show business personality. Hope's usual composure broke as he delivered a tribute, interspersed with references to old Benny punch lines.

Referring to Benny's standing joke about his alleged pennypinching nature, Hope said "he was stingy to the end; he gave us only 80 years and that wasn't enough."

Good friend George Burns, 78, also selected to give a eulogy, told the 350 persons in Hillside Memorial Park

Chapel in Culver City: "I don't know whether I'll be able to do this, but I told Mary I'd try."

Benny's widow, Mary Livingstone, attended the traditional Jewish funeral but remained in the family room at the side of the chapel. Benny's adopted daughter, Joan, and three granddaughters were with her.

The whole gang from Benny's old television and radio show was on hand: band leader Phil Harris, singer Dennis Day, announcer Don Wilson, violin teacher-train conductor Mel Blanc, valet Eddie "Rochester" Anderson.

Benny, who died of cancer of the pancreas late Thursday night, was compared by Hope to such performers as Al Jolson, Humphrey Bogart, Clark Gable, Will Rogers and Maurice Chevalier. "He had a rare magic, like Picasso and Gershwin."

Freezing Rain Icing Roadways In Panhandle

By The Associated Press

Freezing rain started icing roadways in parts of the Texas Panhandle and blinding fog and drizzle and light rain crippled travel nearly everywhere else in the state this morning.

Official observers foresaw little improvement except for thinning of the fog as light to heavy showers developed, particularly in East Texas and near the coast.

Patches of ice on streets, highways and bridges were expected to be worst along and north of a line from Amarillo into New Mexico. Light rain was moving through that section toward the northeast.

Visibility often dropped to zero, the National Weather Service reported, south of a line linking Texarkana, Dallas, Fort Worth, Abilene and Wink. Motorists were advised to travel with caution.

In addition to surface and air travel, marine operations also ran into trouble, along the coast.

Women Trying For Cop Force

SACRAMENTO, Calif. AP — The California Highway Patrol has disclosed that 176 women have started taking the grueling patrol tests which, if they pass, would make them eligible for CHP duty.

The group is part of a two-year experiment to determine if women can handle highway patrol work. They are not being given the same physical performance test used on men.

With the help of a University of California physical education specialist, new tests considered suitable for women were devised. Some of the CHP female candidates dropped out due to physical exhaustion.

DEATHS

Isabelle Dekle

Isabelle Elaine Dekle, 22, an LVN in the Big Spring Nursing Home, died suddenly Sunday while visiting relatives in San Antonio. She was dead on arrival at a San Antonio Hospital at 2 a.m.

Funeral services are pending at Nalley Pickle Funeral Home. Born Jan. 7, 1952 in Big Spring, she was a member of Baker's Chapel Methodist Church and the Heroines of Jericho.

Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leodis Dekle, Schertz; two sisters, Mary Dorine Dekle, Schertz, and Jerline (Baby Jewel) Miles, Big Spring; and her grandmother, Mrs. Mary McIntyre, Big Spring.

Bobby Tom

STANTON — Bobby Glen Tom, 44, Midland was found dead of natural causes at his residence Saturday.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday in St. Joseph Catholic Church in Stanton. Burial will be in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Rosary will be at 7 o'clock tonight at Gilbreath Funeral Home here.

Mr. Tom was born June 28, 1930, in Midland. He was manager of Mid-Dessa Inc. at Midland.

A veteran of the Korean War, he was married to Lois Marie Rhodes March 3, 1967, in Midland.

Survivors include his wife of Midland; two daughters, Mrs. Paula Fough and Mrs. Clara Barron, both of Midland; and his mother, Mrs. L. G. Tom of Stanton; and one grandchild.

J. Hernandez

Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. today at Sacred Heart Catholic Church for Johnny Hernandez, 45, city draftsman, who died suddenly at 5:40 a.m. Sunday.

Hernandez died of an apparent stroke. The Rev. James F. Delaney will officiate with burial in Mt. Olive Memorial Park with Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home in charge.

Born Nov. 11, 1929 in Big Spring, he lived here all of his life and served 25 years as a city draftsman under four city managers, including Harry Nagel, Larry Crow, Buster Steinheimer and Herbert Whitney.

Hernandez was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church and was active in the Holy Name Society. He was also a member of Selective Service Board 71 since 1968.

Survivors include his wife, Josephine, one son, John A. Hernandez, Big Spring; five daughters, Mrs. Joe Montez, Fort Worth, Olga Hernandez, Elsa Hernandez, and Cynthia Hernandez, all of Big Spring; and four grandchildren.

Other survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Hernandez, Big Spring; one brother, Gilbert Hernandez, Long Beach, Calif.; and one sister, Mrs. Josephine Lanspery, Big Spring.

Pallbearers include Jimmy Marin, John Rodriguez, Jose Portillo, Frank Aguilar, Tele Fierro, Celedonio Salazar, Jimmy Forsythe, Roy Crim, and Dick Nichols.

Jennie Shumake

Funeral services were to be at 2 p.m. today in the Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel for Mrs. Nancy Virginia (Aunt Jennie) Shumake, 95, who died late Friday.

The Rev. J. B. Sharp, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Mt. Olive Memorial Park. She came to Howard County in 1922 and had attended CIA in Denton.

Pallbearers include Dalton Carr, Ronnie Cox, Gary Turner, Jerry Foust, Tommy McCann and Jerry Currie.

J. C. Mayberry

STANTON — John Carroll Mayberry, 63, died Sunday morning at Martin County Hospital here after a lengthy illness.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the First United Methodist Church in Stanton. The Rev. Floyd Dunn pastor will officiate.

Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery under the direction of Gilbreath Funeral Home.

Mr. Mayberry was born March 6, 1911, in Gurdy, Okla. He was married to Dallas Bassett at Seminole, Okla., Feb. 2, 1933. He was a Midland resident at the time of his death.

Survivors include his wife of Midland; one daughter, Mrs. Carl E. Steight of Midland; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Mayberry of Stanton; two brothers, Fred Mayberry and Pat Mayberry, both of Stanton; two sisters, Mrs. H. Doshier of Stanton, and Mrs. Jack Campbell of Dallas; and five grandchildren.

J. L. Webb Sr.

James Louis Webb, 70, father of the late Lt. James L. Webb for whom Webb AFB is named, died 7:20 a.m. today in the Dimmitt hospital after a long illness.

Services will be 3 p.m. Tuesday at the First Methodist Church in Silverton, where he will be buried with Silverton Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

He was born in Charleston, Tex. July 27, 1904 and married Mary Lou Edwards June 13, 1953. He was a life member of the Masonic lodge and of the Keza Shrine Temple in Amarillo. For many years he operated the Webb Motor Co. in Big Spring, later moved to Silverton.

Surviving are his widow; one daughter, Mrs. W. L. Walker, Levelland; a stepdaughter, Mrs. C. B. Welch, Dimmitt; a sister Opal Webb, Cooper; a brother, Paul Webb, Tulsa; nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. His son died July 29, 1949.

$200 An Ounce Paid For Gold

LONDON (AP) — The price of gold rose to new records in Europe today and exceeded $200 an ounce in Paris on the eve of the expected American gold rush. The opening price was $198 an ounce in London and Zurich, up $2.50 and $4.50 from the closing prices

Airline Lawsuit

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas City Atty. Alex Bickley's plan to pursue a lawsuit seeking to force Southwest Airlines out of Love Field was expected to come under fire today from the City Council.

Several council members have said they do not believe Bickley should further involve the city in the suit without a complete explanation.

Last week, Bickley said he would seek a rehearing of the suit before the U.S. Supreme Court in a final effort to force the intrastate airline to move to the new Dallas-Fort Worth Airport.

Bickley told the council that it would cost only $800 to submit an application for a review.

He said the expenses would be covered by the D-FW airport board.

But council member Adlene Harrison said she has serious questions about the financial figures quoted by Bickley.

"I know we have a well-known Washington law firm on retainer for this suit and I know they do not come to us cheaply," she said.

"But more than that," she added, "I think Dallas has upheld its part of the agreement (to pursue the suit). We have gone all the way to the Supreme Court and they turned us down. What's left to be done?"

SURPRISE INFORMATION Ashland Oil Fined $15,000 For Gifts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ashland Oil Corp. was fined $25,000 today for unlawful corporate donations to political candidates and organizations in 1970 and 1972 — including one said to have been delivered to Robert L. Strauss, now the Democratic national chairman.

The Kentucky-based firm pleaded guilty to each of five misdemeanor counts in a surprise information brought by the Watergate special prosecutor's office. Chief U.S. District Judge George L. Hart imposed the maximum $5,000 fine on each count.

One count said an Ashland representative turned over $50,000 in cash to Strauss between June 1970 and February 1972 for use by the Democratic National Committee. Strauss was then treasurer of the party organization.

The other charges were based on unlawful contributions of $6,865 to campaign committees for Democratic Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey in 1970 and 1972, $100,000 to various committees for Senate and House candidates in early 1972, $2,500 to the re-election campaign of Republican Sen. John Tower of Texas in 1972, and $10,000 for the unsuccessful Senate race of Kentucky Republican Louie B. Nunn in that year.

An attorney for Ashland said the fine would be paid personally by the corporation's chairman, Orin E. Atkins, who in 1973 pleaded no-contest and was fined $1,000 individually on charges of making unlawful donations to the re-election campaign of former President Richard M. Nixon. Ashland was fined $5,000 at that time.

Police Capture Burglar Sets

Two separate sets of burglars were caught at the scene of the crimes over the weekend after city police received two anonymous tips that burglaries were in progress.

Two burglars were caught in the building at the Desert Lounge 8:07 p.m. Sunday by Sgt. Claude Morris, and Police officers John Burson, Tony Chavez and Y. E. Garcia.

Arrested were Jesse Chavarria, charged with burglary and bond set at $5,000 by Municipal Judge John R. Coffee, and a juvenile turned over to the city juvenile department. Both are in city jail.

At 12:24 a.m. Sunday, a woman caller tipped off officers that there was a burglary at the Kent Station on N. Lamesa.

Joe Luis Rivas and two juveniles were nabbed fleeing from the building. Rivas has also been charged with burglary with bond set at $5,000 by Justice of the Peace Walter Grice. Rivas is in city jail, as are the two juveniles, who have been turned over to City Juvenile officers.

Making the arrests were Police Officers E. W. Anglin, Don Stewart, Juan Palacios and Sgt. John Wolfe. Detective Arven Henry is conducting the investigations. At the Desert Lounge, entry was gained by removing an air conditioner from the wall, cigarette machines, and the juke box were pried open, and an amplifier damaged when it was dropped.

It was still undetermined as to what was missing at the Kent Service Station.

Police Chief Vance Chisum thanked the two citizens who called in, also expressed appreciation for the quick action of police officers on both burglaries.

Donovon Phipps Family Cited

LAMESA — The Donovan Phipps Family was named "Family of the Year" for 1974 in recognition of its continuous support and contributions to Dawson County.

The honor is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and the Lamesa Press-Reporter. Recipients in prior years include the families of John Montgomery, Norris Barron, Jerry Purkaples, Donnell Echols, Bob Kral and Stansell Clements.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Phipps are graduates of Dawson High School at Welch. The family includes four children and a new grandson.

Take Oaths Wednesday

Newly elected officials will take the oath of office in county commissioners courtroom at 10 a.m. New Year's Day.

Bill Tune will replace A. G. Mitchell as county judge; Ikie Rupard, Bill Bennett as county commissioner; Peggy Crittenden, M. Fern Cox, as district clerk; and Magaret Ray, Mrs. Pauline Petty, as county clerk.

All the incumbents except Mrs. Petty, who retired, failed in their bids for re-election.

Re-elected were Lulu Adams, justice of peace of precinct two; Commissioner Jack Buchanan; County Treasurer Frances Glenn; and District Judge Ralph W. Caton; Peace Justice Gus Ochotorena Jr., who was appointed to complete the unexpired term of the late Jess Slaughter, won without opposition.

And C. R. Crim, who was appointed county surveyor to finish the unexpired term of the late Ralph Baker, also was elected for a first time.

Silent Movie Cowboy Dies

TORRANCE, Calif. (AP) — Bob Custer, 76, silent movie cowboy whose real name was Raymond Glenn, died Friday. He made more than 100 feature films, including "Law of the Mounted," "The Last Roundup," "Riders of the Rio Grande" and "Code of the West."

Traffic Smashups Claim Six, Bullets Kill Five

By The Associated Press

Traffic smashups outraced by far all other causes of violent death in Texas during the weekend between holidays and the last weekend of 1974.

Twelve persons died violently, including six in traffic accidents, five in shootings and one in a fire.

Included in the tally were deaths occurring between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

Here is how some died:

Charles P. Weems, 46, of Lena, Miss., was shot to death Sunday aboard the S.S. Del Oro, docked in the Houston Ship Channel. Another man was arrested and charged with murder.

FLED FROM JAIL

Jean Aguilar, 48, was shot to death in a Baytown tavern. Police quoted witnesses as saying a man walked up to Aguilar and began shooting.

Clifford Coleman, 22, of Port Arthur, was shot to death, apparently by police, as he fled from the Port

Arthur jail while being booked on what a police official described as "a minor charge."

Joyce Arthur Lee, 45, was shot to death Saturday when he tried to force his way into a Houston apartment, police said. The resident of the apartment said Lee demanded entrance and was shot by the resident when he refused to leave and took a swing at him. Police filed no charge.

A car hitting a tree in Waco caused the death

Saturday of Paul Rountree, 10, a passenger in the vehicle.

HITS TREE

Steve Norman, 27, was killed early Saturday when his car overturned on the LBJ Freeway in Dallas.

Byron Dewberry, 5, burned to death while he slept early Saturday in a fire at his Dallas home. His mother and two other children in the family escaped the blaze.

A one-car crash four miles south of Fritch on Texas 131 killed John E. Boren, 17, of Amarillo early Saturday.

Clenest Crowell, 48, of Hemphill was killed Friday night when his car ran off a Sabine County road and hit a tree.

Rose Rotenberry, 68, was killed shortly after midnight Saturday when the vehicle in which she was riding left U.S. 87 just north of Amarillo and hit an overpass guard rail. She was thrown through the windshield.

DICE GAME

A gun battle at a Dallas tavern early Saturday resulted in the death of Lorenzo Fisher, 31, of Dallas. Police said the shootout between Fisher and another man erupted during an argument over a dice game.

Somervell County officers said Lewis W. Howard, 53, of Glen Rose was shot in the head and killed by a stranded motorist Friday night "for no apparent reason." Howard was found on a farm road near Glenn Rose and died in an ambulance en route to a hospital.

Irish Complain Least About Pain, Study Shows

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Jewish and Italian patients complain more about pain than Irish patients, says a University of Connecticut professor who has edited a new book on pain.

A person's race, religion, nationality, sex and income all make a difference in the way he or she handles pain, according to nationwide studies of patients at hospitals and clinics described in the book.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Mon., Dec. 30, 1974 3-B

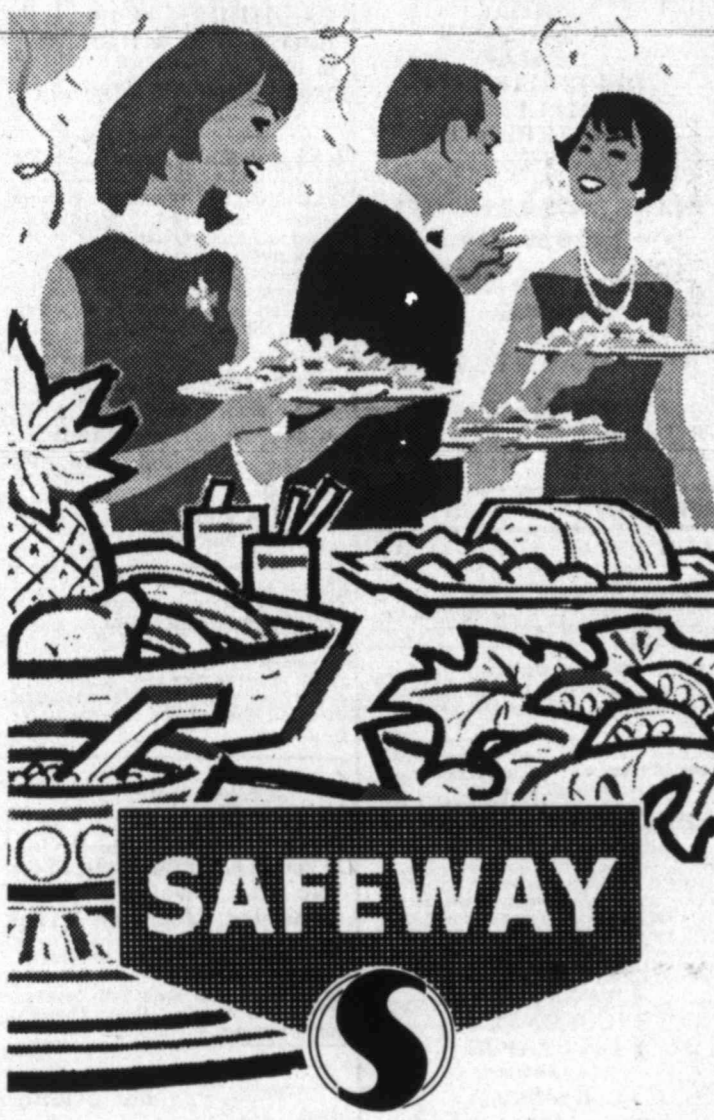

"Jewish patients are more worried about what does the pain mean for their future prognosis, such as will it be crippling or what will the doctor's bills be like," added Weisenberg, editor of "The Control of Pain."

Irish and "old Yankee" patients — Protestants of British descent — complained least about pain, studies in the book by psychological and medical specialists say.

"While the 'old Yankee' group was future oriented like the Jews, they believe, based on their ethnic backgrounds, that you don't make a fuss about pain. The Irish group tends to deny pain," Weisenberg said in an interview Sunday.

SECRETARY-GENERAL WALDHEIM SAYS: Chances Of Middle East War 'Very Real' Unless...

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim says the chances of a new Middle East war will be "very real" unless there is a breakthrough toward an Arab-Israeli political settlement by spring.

By that time, he explained in a year-end interview, the mandates of the peacekeeping forces run out and their renewal will require the consent of Israel, Egypt and Syria.

"I think the decision of the parties concerned would then depend on the kind of progress which has been made between now and that time," Waldheim said.

MANDATE

The mandate for the U.N. Emergency Force separating Egyptian and Israeli troops in the Sinai ends on April 24. That of the U.N. Disengagement Observer Force between Syrian and Israeli troops is up on May 31.

On other subjects, Waldheim said he:

—Disagrees with the contention of the United States that the Asian, African and Communist members of the U.N. General Assembly exercised a "tryanny of the majority" in the session that has just ended.

—Does not expect a cut-back in voluntary U.S. contributions to the world organization despite adverse congressional reaction to various Assembly votes.

RAW MATERIALS

—Believes the oil-price confrontation which has developed during the past year proves that cooperation is necessary between the producers of raw materials and the industrialized world.

Waldheim said on the basis of his recent visits to Syria, Israel and Egypt, he believes that all three countries want to negotiate a settlement. But they all emphasized that if a settlement is not reached soon, they are ready for war, he said.

The former Austrian foreign minister said Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger "and other governments" are continuing a step-by-step policy, seeking a peace settlement.

'OBSOLETE'

He said resumption of the Geneva peace talks — which the Soviet government is urging — depends on how the step-by-step negotiations go along. A key issue in the Geneva talks will be whether to let the Palestine Liberation Organization participate, Waldheim said. Israel strongly opposes P.L.O. participation.

Discussing the oil situation, Waldheim said the developing countries have shown they will no longer accept an "obsolete" economic order in which "one-third of humanity has everything and the other two-thirds are living in misery."

They must be given "reasonable prices for their raw materials," he went on, but "this should be done not through a confrontation but through a reasonable cooperation, taking into account also the justified interests of the industrialized world."

Straggler Speaks Out

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Teruo Nakamura, a Taiwanese who fought for the Japanese army in World War II and hid 30 years on an Indonesian island, said today he would like to return to Taiwan after staying a few days in Tokyo.

Nakamura, flown to Jakarta on Sunday and now resting in a hospital, said he could not recognize his wife and son from photographs shown to him "because they have changed and become old." His wife, now remarried, and his son live in Taiwan.

He told a news conference Sunday that while hiding on Morotai Island in the Moluccas he suppressed his longing for his wife and son by concentrating on gardening.

Nakamura, 57, surrendered to an Indonesian air force team on Morotai on Dec. 19. He had been spotted earlier this month by a villager who informed the authorities.

He told newsmen he survived by fishing, trapping wild pigs and turkeys, and by growing bananas, taro and tapioca.

DESEGREGATION APPEAL — Boston's Mayor Kevin White at Sunday news conference, where he said the city will finance appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court, the Federal Court order to desegregate schools. Meantime, three members of the Boston school committee are scheduled to appear in Federal court to face contempt of court charges, today, for refusing to approve a final desegregation plan.

Expected To Trade Oil For Sugar

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Venezuela and Cuba have agreed to resume diplomatic and trade relations, and diplomats say they are expected to start trading oil for sugar.

The two governments' ambassadors at the United Nations signed an agreement Sunday to resume formal ties between their countries "in accordance with the unbreakable friendship that unites both people and the mutual respect toward each other."

The Venezuelan government, which led the drive in the Organization of American States to impose economic sanctions on Fidel Castro's Communist government 11 years ago, was to make a detailed announcement today.

President Carlos Andrés Perez recently told newsmen Cuba would be a logical market for Venezuelan oil after the government completes nationalization of the industry, and he said Venezuela could purchase some Cuban sugar.

For several months, Perez has been studying the possibility of shipping Cuba 100,000 barrels of oil daily. Observers said the restoration of ties would make such a sale possible in the not too distant future.

Venezuela broke diplomatic ties with Cuba in 1961 and then in 1963 initiated the drive to isolate Cuba, charging that Castro was openly supporting leftist guerrilla efforts to topple the Caracas government.

Tourists Rush Into Florida

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — Many Northerners who were expected to save money by staying home this winter are surging into Florida.

Tourist officials say the rush to the South amounts to a last fling during economic hard times.

"A lot of people are either out of work or think they will be pretty soon, so they came down for some last-ditch enjoyment they hadn't really planned on," said Don Wickersham of the Fort Lauderdale Camelot Resort Motel.

Tourist officials had forecast a gloomy winter season but now say the surprise influx may cause a complete turnaround.

"It was pretty dull up until four days ago," said Arthur Feigles of the Miami Beach Resort Hotel Association. "Then the skies opened up."

"Tourists are all afraid of what's going to happen next year," said Broward County motel registrar Fay McGrath. "They want to come down now because they don't know when they might get another chance."

Landon Haynes, research director for the state Department of Tourism, said widespread layoffs in the automobile industry may have helped rather than hindered Florida tourism.

"The fellows who were laid off in Detroit are not hurting very badly so far, and I think they're taking this opportunity to come down," he said.

Record crowds forced Walt Disney World in central Florida to close its gates for four hours on Friday. Gold Coast hotel and motel rooms which were empty since last year's gas crisis suddenly overflowed with guests.

A survey of 23 hotels by the Miami Beach Tourist Development Authority found them 95 per cent full.

Hotel and motel owners say many travelers apparently are making last-minute decisions to come South and are not even bothering to make reservations. One motel operator said he turned 75 families away.

Face Sentencing For Contempt

BOSTON (AP) — Three Boston School Committee members facing possible fines or jail terms for refusing to implement further integration have failed to find a compromise to resolve contempt of court citations, lawyers for them said today.

SANCTIONS

The federal judge in the case said he would issue a written order later in the day outlining what sanctions would be imposed on the defiant committee members.

Chairman John J. Kerrigan, John J. McDonough and Paul Ellison were cited Friday for civil contempt by U.S. District Court Judge W. Arthur Garrity, however, gave the three the weekend to reconsider their decisions before he imposes penalties.

All three men were to appear this morning before Garrity.

The three officials said they would rather go to jail than back down on their disapproval of the Phase Two desegregation plan. That plan, scheduled to be implemented next fall, calls for the busing of some 35,000 students, compared to the 18,000 Boston pupils now being bused.

Meanwhile, lawyers for the city prepared to take their appeal of the federal court desegregation order to the U.S. Supreme Court.

NO HEROICS

Boston Mayor Kevin H. White announced at a news conference Sunday that the city would finance an appeal by the school committee.

The U.S. Appeals court recently upheld Judge Garrity's decision calling for integration of Boston schools.

Acknowledging that appeal decision, White said he realizes that "chances of a reversal are remote."

He said that if the Phase Two desegregation plan is to proceed without incident next fall "there must be no desperate heroics by public officials protesting at the last minute that the court order is neither final nor irrevocable."

An earlier appeal of the Massachusetts racial imbalance law to the state supreme court cost the city an estimated $200,000, White said, adding that money was a secondary matter and the "ultimate goal is to hold this city together."

That case was handled by James St. Clair, who later became counsel to then-President Richard M. Nixon.

RACIAL VIOLENCE

Integration of Boston schools has been accompanied by sporadic racial violence, especially in South Boston.

Garrity ordered the school committee to present a plan which it approved to the court by Dec. 16. A plan prepared by the school department staff was rejected by a 3-2 vote of the school committee but delivered to the court by school committee lawyers.

The Boston chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the plaintiffs in the case, asked at Friday's hearing that the dissenting committee members be fined $500 a day until they comply with the court order.

In Flames

BOSTON (AP) — Fire deaths were down and property damage up in 1974, according to the National Fire Protection Association.

The association said during the weekend that about 11,600 persons died in 1974 fires, down about 100 from 1973.

Property damage, however, grew faster than inflation to $3.7 billion, up 22 per cent over 1973's $3.02 billion.

A discotheque fire at Port Chester, N.Y., killed 24 on June 30, making it the deadliest fire.

A forest fire at Cloudfcroft, N.M., on April 9 destroyed property worth $32 million, including part of the town, making it the costliest fire.

Other costly fires included one following a railroad yard explosion at Decatur, Ill., July 19, causing damage of $24 million, and destruction of a jumbo jet worth $20 million here on April 20.

Damage to buildings and contents accounted for more than $3 billion of the total and damage to ships, motor vehicles, aircraft and forests accounted for the rest.

The association is a nonprofit clearing house for fire safety information.

Stock Buyer Told To Stop

James A. Green, Rotan, has been enjoined from violating financial, payment, and record keeping requirements of the Packers and Stockyards Act, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) said today.

Green is registered as a dealer, purchasing livestock in the west-central area of Texas. He consented to issuance of the order, and waived oral hearing. He neither admitted nor denied the charges contained in an administrative complaint by USDA.

Writer Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Julia McCarthy, 77, New York Daily News society writer who wrote under her own name or that of Nancy Randolph, died Sunday after a brief illness.
