PARIS (AP) — Three Arab terrorists flew to Iraq today in a French-supplied plane after an attempt to attack an Israeli jumbo jet, a gun battle with police and an overnight siege during which they held 10 persons hostage in a restroom at Orly Airport.

The Israeli plane was not damaged in the attack at Orly Airport and the hostages were released unharmed. But 21 persons, including one of the terrorists, were reported injured in the firefight that raged for 15 minutes Sunday afternoon in a crowded concourse of the airport terminal. Eight of the wounded were reported in serious condition.

Previous reports said there were two terrorists and from three to seven hostages. But witnesses at the airport said three terrorists and eight hostages came out of the restroom, the gunmen with stockings masking their faces and the hostages with bandages covering their eyes.

Two other hostages, a French woman and her 3½-year-old daughter, were freed earlier this morning when the terrorists began negotiating with the Egyptian ambassador to France, Naguib Kadry, as intermediary.

Peace Hopes Bouyed

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Moderate Protestants generated cautious hopes today for the restoration of the cease-fire in Northern Ireland following the start of negotiations between British officials and political representatives of the Irish Republican Army.

However, Protestant militants denounced the peace talks and vowed to "destroy" the IRA and its Roman Catholic supporters. "The process of salvaging the cease-fire has now begun, but much more groundwork has to be done," said the Rev. William Arlow of the Church of Ireland, who sat in as an observer at the first peace parley Sunday.

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. today joined the rebate parade and announced that it will return payments ranging from $200 to $500 to buyers of its subcompact and compact cars in the United States.

The rebates will be made directly to the customer, GM said. GM followed the footsteps of Chrysler and Ford and becomes the third of the Big Three automakers to announce a rebate program.

Two In Custody

LUBBOCK — Two Lamesa men, one 20 and the other 18, believed involved in the passing of a $20 counterfeit bill in Lamesa and the attempted passing of a $20 bogus bill here, have been arrested by Lubbock authorities.

El Al's flight 418 from Paris to Tel Aviv had just pulled away from the boarding area Sunday afternoon with 222 persons aboard. One of the terrorists emerged onto a terrace of the terminal building and prepared to fire — possibly with a bazooka — on the plane about 1,000 feet away.

Legislators Consider Employe Pay Raises

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Emergency pay raises for state employes was the debate topic today as Texas legislators began their second week of the 64th Legislature.

state employes for the remaining seven months of this business year. As approved by the Senate Finance Committee, Doggett's bill would give an average 14.2 per cent raise to those making $10,500 and under and a 10.5 per cent raise to those making more than that.

MISSOURI SCENE BY BENTON — This painting, "Spring on the Missouri," is one of the more famous ones created by Thomas Hart Benton. Benton, who was 85, died Sunday night in his Kansas City studio.

Renowned Artist Dies At 85

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Thomas Hart Benton, whose paintings bore a rugged flavor about America that won him world renown, is dead at 85.

Through the years, Benton's Americana pictured riverboats on the Mississippi, farmers scything hay, Jesse James staging a holdup, Ozark hill people and black sharecroppers.

He made no effort to conceal his lifelong love affair with his home state of Missouri. The rural flavor to which he was born and the early influences of urban centers was translated in the 1920s and 1930s into a school of art he developed with fellow Midwesterners John Steuart Curry of Kansas and Grant Wood of Iowa.

Among his widely known works are "Modern America," painted with Mexican muralist Clemente Orozco for the New School for Social Research in New York; "Boomtown," at the Rochester Museum and "Cotton Pickers," at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

He lived in New York for 23 years. Rita Piacenza, a student at the Chelsea Neighborhood Association, where he taught, became his wife in 1922. They had two children. Their daughter, Jessie P. Lyman, now lives in Los Angeles, their son, Thomas P. Benton, lives in Boston.

U.S. Oil Reserves: Formula For Trouble

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States may have four times as much oil as it already knows about, and the Interior Department wants to find out for sure through its offshore leasing program.

That is clearly a formula for trouble, which made its point last winter when the world's major oil exporting nations temporarily reduced their shipments and simultaneously raised their prices.

The United States must continue to pay the high price for foreign oil, under the constant threat of yet another embargo.

But even if those additional reserves are found, the nation could fill its own demand at present levels for no more than 20 years at best.

Ford also said he would end federal price controls on domestic crude oil. The White House estimated this would increase production about 500,000 barrels a day over the next three or four years by allowing higher prices for oil which now is unprofitable to produce.

Ms. Wardlaw contended she was discriminated against because of her sex when the school administration moved her from her job as a special education teacher in Lyndon H. Johnson High School. An unmarried male teacher who fathered a child would not have been treated the same way, she said.

Panel Abandons Plan For More SS Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — An official government advisory panel has called for a "substantial infusion" of general revenues instead of higher Social Security taxes to pay for increasingly expensive retirement benefits.

The panel, headed by W. Allen Wallis, chancellor of the University of Rochester, was appointed last year by the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

Cost Could Be A Favor

The high cost of sugar could be a blessing in disguise to consumers' health, if not to their pocketbooks. Nutritionally, we don't need sugar in our diets, says George Briggs, professor of nutrition at the University of California at Berkeley.

While sucrose accounts for 17 per cent of the total calories in the nation's food supply, these are "empty" calories that provide only energy since sugar itself contains no nutrients such as protein, fats, minerals or vitamins.

Moreover, too much sugar may be indirectly linked to cardiovascular diseases, obesity and malnutrition, and is directly related to tooth decay, says the professor.

Anyone who thinks that a sugarless day will keep the dentist away may be doomed to disappointment, however, judging by a report from another quarter.

William H. Bowen of the National Institute of Dental Research conducted extensive dietary experiments on monkeys, which are good models for dental research because they thrive on a human diet and harbor many of the same bacteria found in people.

His findings showed that bacteria deposits developed on teeth regardless of the absence of sucrose or simple sugars. In short, he says, substitutes for table sugar may be fine for weight control and prescribed sugarless diets, but they won't cut down on tooth decay.

Well, you pick your professor and you takes your chances.

Dependable Oldsters

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

One thing and another:

OVER THE PAST 40 years, I've become increasingly aware that the young and not infrequently foolish don't want the old around. Regrettably, the land developers, the hucksters, and the fast-buck gentry one finds running the fun spots feel much the same way.

Their attitude is not easy to understand. In almost any community, the greybeards are among the few assets to be found. They're not oozing up on horse. They're not jooling about the community on motorcycles with split mufflers in the mid-watches of the night.

THEY'RE NOT staking out the best part of the benches and the parks and sneering at you from over a beer can. They're not breaking into or vandalizing cars. They're usually the best, the most faithful and the most durable workers in any firm.

given subject and an impatience that keeps them looking for more lucrative opportunities even before they've begun to master what they're being paid to do.

THE SEASONED VOYAGERS get little but lip from the younger generation and nothing but lip service from their elected servants. We've gone too far when we allow the elderly that they show early foot in retreating from digs so that promoters can put in more golf courses, swimming pools and associated tourist traps.

The young might not feel a compulsion to dominate and relegate if they had not been sold on the idea that their chief asset is eternal and would not be exchanged for a little experience. And no one knows that more than the patriarchs and the matriarchs. After all, they've been there.

A NEIGHBOR OF mine says he has a cat so ugly he didn't have to have it spayed.

You're getting on in years if your back goes out more often than you do.

Have you heard about those two streakers who decided to stop dating? They felt they were seeing too much of each other.

IT'S NOT EASY to understand the attitude of industry, either. The captains in business plot to shun the oldsters and court the youngsters, who usually bring nothing with them but a piece of paper manufactured by some brain factory, an impudence that proves a thin veneer for their lack of knowledge on any

Reaction To Provocation

Ten-year-old Pete was shagging snowballs at passing automobiles when one of the cars came to a screeching halt. A large and irate man emerged, caught Pete by the arm, hustled him into the car, and drove him to the nearest police station.

BUT PETE'S parents decided that their son had some right too. Hauling the motorist into court, they demanded that he pay damages to Pete for treating him too harshly.

And the court rules that the motorist had indeed overreacted. The court said that while he may have been justified in taking the boy directly to his parents, carrying him off to the police station was uncalled for.

IT IS HUMAN nature, when a person is provoked, to retaliate. Generally speaking, the law has no objection.

But the retaliation must be in reasonable proportion to the original provocation. Otherwise, says the law, a minor incident may escalate swiftly into a major conflict.

FOR EXAMPLE:

A home owner, called a mocking name by his neighbor, retaliated by bashing the neighbor over the head with a shovel. For this, the home owner was later held liable in a courtroom.

In another case, a man responded to a push by knocking the pusher down and then — when he was lying helpless — kicking him in the face. Again, a court ruled that the man must pay for "the sheer vindictiveness which led him to take the law into his own hands."

ON THE OTHER hand, the victim of the original offense does not have to calculate his retaliation to a fine point. In judging his response, the law will make fair allowance for the tensions of the moment and a normal degree of error.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

The 94th Congress will have a definite new look when it convenes in January. With 92 new members, mostly liberal Democrats, Congress already has started some reform measures.

Most of the change in the way Congress will be conducting its business is because of the Democratic caucus. During its four days of meetings earlier this month, the caucus approved reforms that weakened the conservative-oriented seniority system and augmented the power of the Speaker of the House. This could curb the authority of committee chairmen and distribute the House's workload more evenly among the House membership as well as the majority party leadership.

This is not the first time that House Democrats have opted for reform. In 1912 they virtually stripped Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, R-Ill., of his power of appointing committee chairmen and members. This downfall of "Czar" Cannon was followed by the reign of "King Caucus," which was dominated by conservative southern Democrats. — SAN ANGELO TIMES.

Middle-Class TV

By JAY SHARBUTT
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — In case you avoided TV over the weekend, be advised of two things: No pro football was on (let us pray this becomes a trend) and "The Jeffersons" arrived Saturday night in their own CBS series.

The Jeffersons, first seen as Archie Bunker's neighbors on "All in the Family," are the latest black family in TV comedy this year; the others are in "That's My Mama," "Sanford and Son" and "Good Times."

They also are the season's first middle-class black family on TV, the clan headed by George Jefferson (excellently portrayed by Sherman Hemsley), a shrewd, feisty owner of several dry cleaning stores.

THE SCRIPT for the scheduled opening show dealt with the family's move to a Manhattan apartment building where middle-class folks live.

Virtually all the dealing concerned whether Jefferson's long-suffering wife (Isabel Sanford) should reluctantly accede to her husband's wishes and hire a maid to clean the apartment five days a week.

It started when Mrs. Jefferson, newly installed in the apartment, ran into a black friend who worked as a maid in several of the building's apartments. The friend thought Mrs. J. also was a maid there.

She was set straight, gently by Mrs. Jefferson, then more briskly by Jefferson after she exclaimed to him: "How can you afford to live in a place like this? You ain't tall enough to be no basketball player."

"SAY WHAT?" SAID HE. "Then you've got to be a numbers runner," she insisted.

Ho-ho.

Then came a lot of bickering blather, apparently to show that upward mobility for blacks causes embarrassment for some as they "arrive" in a predominantly white society conditioned to thinking of blacks mainly as maids, butlers, janitors and cooks.

The point was made, but in some pretty wretched dialogue, such as George Jefferson's observation to his wife when she worries about being called "Ma'am" by friends who may wind up working for her.

"Look, some people got to be the ma'am's and the rest are mammy's," he says.

The show also brought in a neighboring married couple — he was white, she was black — for some attempted chuckles, and heard from Jefferson's mother and Lionel, the Jeffersons' 22-year-old son.

But the only real laugh came at the end as a young black maid, after determining that the neighbor's wife and Mrs. Jefferson both live in the relatively plush building, asked: "Well, how come we overcame and nobody told me?"

It was a good finale for a talented cast saddled with a poor script. Maybe next Saturday's show will improve. I hope it does, for it has both potential and an excellent time slot, arriving right after "All in the Family."

More Than Buckley's Problem

Wm. F. Buckley, the columnist, has filed for a rehearing on the Supreme Court's decision that he must be a member of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists in order to appear on the air as a performer.

Lower courts said that he did not have to belong, although one decision contended he might be obliged to pay the equivalent of dues. The high court held otherwise, and drew a vigorous dissent from Justice

William Douglas. He raised this pertinent question: How can Congress pass any law which permits what the First Amendment denies, namely the abridgement of free speech.

It is to be hoped that his incisive opinion will remind the high court that it has a constitutional, not a technical question, to settle. Free speech can't be equated with required membership.

My Answer

Billy Graham

I have always been at a loss to understand the meaning of Mark 16:17, 18. A recent news magazine article added to my confusion by describing believers who actually handle snakes and drink poison. Common sense says these people are misguided, but how can we explain this to a world always looking for ways to mock the Bible as a myth? J. D. S.

The text you refer to reflects proof of the miraculous nature of Christianity — needed at the start to draw attention to important doctrine. Our Lord's words, however, do not mean that things like snake handling were to be in perpetuity, as continually recurring evidence of truth.

One commentator suggests that in order for faith to have root and increase, it needed to be nourished by miracles. So it was in the instance you mention, these special credentials included: power to exorcise demons, power to speak with tongues, immunity from harm by poison or serpent bite, and the ministry of supernatural healing. These authenticated by both the message and the messengers, but once this was done, such dramatic events were not needed.

An analogy here might be the use of a church bell, which is rung to bring people to the service. Once the service starts, it is no longer needed.

Reporting On Israel

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — A letter-writing campaign now underway to editors of newspapers that publish our column, accusing us of distorted reporting on the Arab-Israeli struggle, is based on a wholly false report that we acknowledge having an "anti-Israel bias." In fact no such bias exists.

BECAUSE THIS campaign is national in scope, the grave indictment of our objectivity in analyzing the most emotionally charged foreign policy issue faced by this country requires a direct response. So, for the first time in the 12 years of writing our column, we are departing from usual format to answer the charge.

The accusation stems from a criticism of our column contained in the Dec. 18 issue of Near East Report, a weekly publication of the American-Israeli Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC), the most effective propaganda arm of the American Jewish community. The non-profit publication is distributed to all members of Congress and 30,000 other influential Americans.

THE DEC. 18 ISSUE of Near East Report is based on an interview with us published in the journalism review, MORE, containing the misquotation that we acknowledged "the column's 'anti-Israel' viewpoint." In Near East Report, this comes out as our acknowledging "anti-Israel bias."

ALTHOUGH NEAR EAST REPORT never called to check the authenticity of the quote, the facts are different. Asked by MORE's interviewer, we related the following incident:

Israel Prime Minister Rabin regularly saw us during his tenure as ambassador to Washington and was criticized for it by American Jews who dislike what we have written. He told us, shortly before he returned to Israel in 1973, that when

"HI, FRIENDS.... JERRY FORD HERE, WITH SOME ENERGY-SAVING TIPS FOR THOSE COLD MONTHS AHEAD...."

People Long Aware

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — If you judge by the consumer attitude surveys, the American people knew long before the present crisis that the economy was deteriorating.

Their replies to questions showed not only an awareness of the dangers in the wage price spiral and the growing instability of currencies, but a general, poorly defined fear of the future.

These fears were expressed at the very height of prosperity, and so they have been interpreted by some to be the expression of guilt over the too easy accumulation of material goods, and the feeling that punishment would follow.

Nevertheless, many of us didn't appreciate the predicament we were in, didn't realize our fears were being acted out, didn't quite grasp that "it" was here.

The automotive companies knew of marketing forecasts made many months ago that the auto market was going to collapse, but they continued to produce, convinced that they, not events or buyers, made the market.

Their repeated price increases, while perhaps justified by their own rising costs, were hardly justified by the strength of the market. And eventually those costs increase all but snuffed out its life.

Even now, with many thousands thrown out of work and with inventories piled high, the price incentives offered by manufacturers cannot be classified as price cuts because they are temporary.

Further marketing studies suggest the problem will not pass. The mood of Americans is such that even lower prices won't induce some of them to buy. And, at any rate, many Americans already have bought their new cars; they bought in anticipation of higher prices.

If Detroit miscalculated the situation, so did Americans who went into debt rather than face the reality of declining buying power. Now some of these families have debts to repay and no real income with which to do it.

Rising bankruptcies — the fiscal year ending in June is likely to produce a record number — suggest that retailers, textile manufacturers, stock brokers and a wide list of others also miscalculated.

W.T. Grant Company announced it expects to lose $175 million for the fiscal year which ends Jan. 31. It will have to close some of its stores. Such news is shocking to most Americans. W.T. Grant is an institution, and don't institutions go on forever?

The names of other well known companies can be added to the list of financially pressed and endangered. Their big problem is that they find it difficult to read the future.

The administration does also. It was no secret in August that the country was slipping deeper into recession, but it was another thing to grasp its significance and act on it.

Instead, the administration chose to continue fighting inflation, which no responsible economist will deny was a good move, but it erred by ignoring the menacing growth of the recession.

Now, however, the alarming evidence is being assimilated — by individuals, corporations and government. A couple of months ago it was foreseen, but everyone hoped it would go away.

Age Of Spanking

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Doctor: At what age do you suggest a child be spanked? In other words, how old should a child be to understand the meaning of a scolding or a light slap on the bottom or hand? — J.B.

The age of four is usually considered the age at which a child understands the meaning of a scolding. But there is no particular age for spanking — if it has to be done at all. You might be surprised to know the number of children who are raised without the need for spanking.

On this question, there are no hard and fast guidelines. Much depends on the temperament of the parent and the child's response to discipline.

For a serious misdemeanor such as running into the street, playing with matches, or committing some act that is truly destructive or harmful to the child or to others, spanking may be in order. But it must follow immediately upon the offense to be meaningful. Don't wait till daddy comes home several hours later.

Spanking can lose its effect because of the manner in which it is administered, and in such cases can lead to resentment and more provocative behavior. When used as punishment, it is best done with a single slap on the butt or the hand and should be accompanied with a clear explanation of the punishment. A light slap is just as effective as a heavy one.

Don't argue. When a child understands that no means business, discipline other than spanking will work as well if not better. Denial of a toy, a privilege, even of the car in the case of an adolescent, carries weight.

No child should ever be boxed on the ears or hit in the face or head or yanked by the arms. These harsh acts can cause physical injury.

Hot tempered parents who develop a tendency to clout for misbehavior should take stock of themselves. Are they spanking because they are out of sorts rather than because the child is being truly obstreperous? As you may gather from these remarks, I do not condone spanking as a form of punishment. If I didn't know that parents would do it, no matter what is recommended, I would say flatly, "Don't spank."

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Can one have hardening of the arteries when cholesterol count and blood pressure readings are fine?

I have good readings in both, but I wonder why I get confused and can't remember facts or names. I am 58 and have pernicious anemia. At times I do have light chest pains, but I believe that is due to stress. — E.M.

We all have some degree of hardening of the arteries by the time we get to be 58, even though cholesterol level and blood pressure may be quite normal.

Anemia could be a factor in your confusion, particularly if your blood count is low. It also could be a factor in the chest discomfort.

I trust you are being treated for the anemia. After it has been diagnosed treatment (with vitamin B-12) is usually necessary for life. Have it looked into if you have not already done so.

Midland Eying Plan

MIDLAND — A plan is taking shape here to consolidate the campuses of Midland High School and Midland Lee High. It could reach fruition in 1976.
The Midland Board of Education voted 6 to 1 recently to instruct its school planners to study the matter. A report is expected within six months.
Trustees have been studying the thorny question of boundary changes, or possible consolidation, ever since it was noted that Midland's population shift had taken large numbers of students out of one district and put them in another.

The board's decision followed an hour discussion and several split votes.
The plan would, basically, create one high school with two campuses, according to one official. Sophomores would attend what is now Midland High School and juniors and seniors would be assigned to the Lee campus.
Trustees agreed that a name change would be part of the final plan.
Consolidation, if it is to take effect, would come in the fall of 1976. If consolidation is not feasible, trustees indicate they will attack the problem with an alternate plan.

Logistically, the alternate plan would move most of the Fannin Elementary attendance area and all of the Crockett Elementary attendance area into the MHS boundary, along with undeveloped areas north of the city.

Disaster Loans To Be Explained

Farmers and ranchers interested in the low-interest federal disaster loan should attend the monthly agricultural breakfast at 7 a.m. Tuesday.
Jerald Crump, Farmers Home Administration director for Howard and Glasscock Counties, will outline the program at the breakfast slated at Coker's Restaurant.

'Cats Catch Miners

The Hatfields and McCoy's start shooting at each other tonight. In other words, it's Alabama vs. Kentucky in college basketball.

"Well, it's a big game because it's the next one," says Alabama Coach C.W. Newton, dismissing the significance of the Southeastern Conference meeting.

Actually, it's bigger than Newton will concede. His players have to beat the Wildcats to hold onto their lead in the SEC and their prestige as the nation's seventh-ranked team. Kentucky, ranked No. 10, will try to disprove the Crimson Tide's alleged supremacy and knock them down a peg in the standings while improving their own position.

Alabama crushed Louisiana State 93-67 Saturday while Kentucky defeated Mississippi 85-82, adding some luster to Monday night's game at Kentucky. The victory gave the Crimson Tide a 5-0 record in SEC play and Kentucky improved to 4-1.

Elsewhere in college basketball Saturday, top-ranked Indiana buried Northwestern 82-56; No. 2 UCLA walked-off California 102-72; third-rated Louisville nipped Drake 55-53 in overtime; No. 4 North Carolina State defeated No. 14 North Carolina 88-85 in overtime; No. 5 Maryland turned back Navy 87-73; Stanford upset No. 6 Southern Cal 67-66; No. 8 Oregon nipped Washington 68-66; ninth-ranked Arizona State trimmed New Mexico 93-76; 11th-rated La Salle tripped Penn 67-65; No. 12 Marquette beat Notre Dame 71-68; No. 13 Arizona defeated Texas-El Paso 69-57; 15th-ranked Providence defeated Massachusetts 86-74; No. 16 Minnesota downed Michigan State 82-71; Lafayette upset No. 17 Rutgers 72-66; No. 18 Tennessee whipped Florida 59-56; No. 19 Michigan beat Iowa 75-70, and South Carolina, ranked No. 20, trampled Davidson 85-68.

ON ITS WAY — Johnny Miller and his caddy, Andy Martinez, are studies of concentration as they watch the ball roll towards the hole for a birdie on the 18th green of Sunday's play in the Dean Martin Open, which Miller won. His final score was 25 under a par of 263 and was worth $40,000.

Miller's Play Phenomenal

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — He's almost too good to be true.

He's tall, slender, blond and good-looking enough to serve as a male model.

He's polite, courteous and soft-spoken.

He's a non-drinker, a non-smoker, an elder of his church and possessed of a vocabulary in which "heck" and "damn" are the strongest expletives.

And, right now, Johnny Miller may be playing the ancient game of golf better than anyone has every played it before.

His recent accomplishments are the stuff of legends.

"I like setting records," Miller said Sunday after an astonishing, 11-under-par 61 gained him still another runaway victory, this time in the $200,000 Dean Martin-Tucson Open golf tournament.

Colts' Flip Heads

MIAMI (AP) — Steve Bartkowski, a big, strong-throwing quarterback out of the University of California, looms as the hottest commodity in the approaching National Football League draft, and the Baltimore Colts have first grabs.

"We don't feel we need a quarterback, but believe we could use Bartkowski for good trading purposes," said Joe Thomas, Baltimore's general manager, after winning the coin flip for the No. 1 pick over Tex Schramm of the Dallas Cowboys.

The New York Giants, with a 2-12 season record to match that of the Colts for worst in the NFL, would have been in the coin flip, but traded their No. 1 pick to Dallas for quarterback Craig Morton.

"I am in contact with four clubs which are interested in landing a quarterback like Bartkowski," Thomas said. "We are trying to rebuild, to get the Colts back into the playoff status they once enjoyed. We feel we should be able to land two front-line experienced players, at least, for this fine quarter-back."

Thomas said the situation was similar to that which existed a few years ago, when he was with the Miami Dolphins and had a chance to pick Mike Phipps, but actually wanted a top wide receiver. So he traded the choice to Cleveland, and received Paul Warfield in return.

"I hope to have a deal made before the draft," the Baltimore executive said. The draft is scheduled Jan. 28-29 in New York.

SWC ROUNDOUP Baylor Shoots Ahead Of Pack

By The Associated Press

Now that the Southwest Conference race is officially underway let's turn to gray-hatted veteran Texas A&M Coach Shelby Metcalf for his viewpoint on the stronger teams in the 1974-1975 basketball campaign.

"Texas Tech is playing very well, and Arkansas is hot right now," Metcalf said. "Texas is coming on. TCU has shown it can be tough. Rice, Baylor and SMU are all young, but getting better each week. The race is going to be a good one."

Baylor jumped to the head of the pack with a 74-73 victory over Rice Saturday in a regionally televised game. Games Tuesday night show Texas Tech at Arkansas, Baylor at TCU, Texas A&M at Rice and Texas at SMU.

Texas Tech, picked by most to win the SWC, has beaten the Razorbacks 11 consecutive times—a fact that new Coach Eddie Sutton has perhaps pointed out to his Razorback team.

Defending champion Texas has begun to show signs of life after a miserable 0-5 start and Coach Leon Block says "I just hope we can learn from the non-conference games as well as we did last year."

Metcalf said the Aggies, who had the best SWC non-conference mark at 8-4, "have as good a mental attitude as any team we've had here. They work hard and enjoy practice. We have three junior college players who have fit right in. They are very unselfish."

He added "We think we have everyone in their right slot. What we need now is to get off to a good start. We have to go to Houston and play a good game against Rice."

Baylor's one-point victory over Rice in a ragged contest showcased the talents of Rice Guard Charles Daniels and a great relief job by Senior James Weaver of Baylor.

"That's what records are for—to be broken.

"But it's getting to be a problem. When you set records you have to live up to them. I want to keep on improving, keep on progressing. How am I gonna top this? How can I keep on like this?"

Of course, he asked the same questions a week ago, when he won the Phoenix Open with a 260 total, the lowest 72-hole score in 20 years of tournament competition. He was 24 under par for that tournament.

But he found a way to top it. He went 25 under par in winning Tucson, composing an artistic, 11-under-par effort in the final round over the Tucson National Golf Club course, at 7,200 yards one of the longest layouts the touring pros play all year and a course that had been toughened and strengthened that season by the addition of water on three holes.

In completing an unprecedented second consecutive sweep of this Arizona tournaments, the two Arizona tournaments, this year the kickoff events on the pro tour, Miller has led or shared the lead in every round and has had scores of 67, 61, 68, 64, 66, 69, 67 and 61 for a season stroke average of 65.4.

NFC-AFC ALL-STARS Lanier To Don Suit For Last Pro Time

MIAMI (AP) — The answers to pro football's problems lie with "reasonable men sitting down and working out sensible settlements reasonably," one of the game's retiring stars suggests.

"We cannot continue to live in discord," added linebacker Willie Lanier of the Kansas City Chiefs who will be pulling on a jersey for the last time in tonight's Pro Bowl game at the Orange Bowl.

The game, matching all-star teams of the American and National Conferences, will have a 9 p.m. kickoff.

It will be televised nationally by ABC-TV.

Lanier, 29, a graduate of Morgan State and a defensive titan in the National Football League for eight years, will play with the favored AFC squad, which will feature the quarterbacking of Ken Stabler and Bob Griese, the running of such stars as O.J. Simpson and Larry Csonka and a defense led by Mean Joe Greene and L.C. Green of Pittsburgh's Super Bowl champions.

With Fran Tankerton of the Minnesota Vikings begging off because of a sore arm, the AFC squad will have two quarterbacks making their first appearances in the game — Jim Hart of St. Louis and Jim Harris of the Los Angeles Rams.

Lanier is quitting football to take an executive position with a tobacco company and will be stationed in the Washington, D.C. area.

"I don't leave with any regrets or recriminations," the 245-pound middle linebacker said. "It has been a great life. Pro football offers players tremendous opportunities in other fields."

Lanier said he hoped the game would never have to go through a bitter player strike such as the one which hit the game last summer.

"The key word is respect," he said. "If owners learn to respect the players as individuals and as business men and the players have the same respect for the owners, then there is no reason that all problems can't be worked out satisfactorily."

Walton Trying To Break Pact?

MILWAUKEE (AP) — If Bill Walton is trying to break his estimated $2 million contract with the Portland Trail Blazers, the celebrated rookie center isn't saying. In fact, Walton's new counsel, Black Panther Party attorney Charles Garry, is denying it.

Walton confirmed Sunday he had severed his relationship with longtime associate Sam Gilbert, who helped the 6-foot-11 former UCLA center negotiate his original National Basketball Association contract, in favor of Garry.

And Gilbert claimed it was because Walton didn't want to play with the Blazers. And he said the only reason Walton returned to the Blazers after suffering with a bone spur above his left ankle, was that he couldn't break the contract.

It was too cold in Portland, Gilbert said Walton had told him, and his feet hurt.

Walton had no faith in the team physician, Gilbert said he was told, and some of the players were getting down on him.

But asked whether the subject of breaking Walton's contract had ever come up, Garry said: "Absolutely not. The contract never came up in any of our discussions."

Garry said he didn't even really know why Walton had hired him. He said Walton told him "he wanted someone he could trust, would look after his own interests and be comfortable with."

"The only thing I've done is read his contract to understand it and familiarize myself with his work," said Garry.

Walton, a vegetarian and naturalist, said after Portland's 122-108 defeat at Milwaukee Sunday: "Garry is my lawyer. Also a friend of mine." It was Walton's third game following the 18-game absence.

Asked about Gilbert's contentions that he wants to be traded to another club, Walton said, "I deal in the world of reality. I don't know anything about it. I can only deal with what I know."

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi Baptist Hospital's intensive care nursery has received $2,000 from fines levied against players of the New York Giants' National Football League team. The gift was suggested by Jack Gregory, a Giant player whose son spent a year in the nursery after being born with defective lungs.

A spokesman said the Giant team voted to donate the money.

Gregory's son, Earl Jackson Gregory III, returns to the hospital for regular checkups. He celebrated his first birthday Aug. 5 by going to his grandparents' home at nearby Pelahatchie.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Jim Dickey, assistant head football coach at the University of Kansas, has been named an assistant at North Carolina.

TRAVEL TO WESTERN TEXAS Hawks Face Stern Test

SNYDER — Howard College coming through in flying colors in a game it had to win, 98-95 decision over Frank Phillips Thursday night, faces a stern test with Western leader Western Texas here tonight at 7:30.

The Westerners carry forth a 5-0 league mark, while the Hawks are one notch below, 4-1 and firmly entrenched in second.

Howard College is 14-5 overall and Western Texas, 17-1.

The loss suffered by the Westerners was to South Plains, two weeks ago, in non-league tournament competition. Western Texas redeemed itself by shelling South Plains in league play last week, 100-75.

Against Frank Phillips, 6-4 freshman Marvin Johnson helped lead the Hawks out of the wilderness against the spunky Plainsmen.

The 6-4 freshman hit 10 straight floor attempts the first half, hit 23 of his total 35 points in the last 10 minutes of the first half and hauled down 24 overall rebounds.

The Hawk contest against FPC came down to the eight, second final half wire before HC firmly put the game on ice. HC, ahead by one 96-95, stole the ball from the Plainsmen, raced down court with 6-9 freshman David Giles' jumper finding its target at the buzzer.

Harold Wilder, Hawk head coach, says his team will probably encounter the best overall WJAC shooter in Western's 6-5 Bob Miller. He's averaging at a rate of 25.1 points per game.

Miller transferred to Western Texas from West Texas State Canyon, Canyon. Against New Mexico Junior College last week in which the Westerners won, 68-60, Miller fired through 18 of 23 floor attempts.

Wilder says that the Westerners features a height advantage over the Hawks and are excellent on defense and rebounding.

Mike Mitchell, in his second year as Westerner director, has six lettermen back from last year's 21-10 club.

Lettermen are postmen 6-8 Norman Barnes and 6-5 Brian Minor, forwards 6-7 Eugene Harris, and 6-5 Kevin Jones, and guards, 6-3 Greg Hill, and 6-2 Ken Fowler.

Hill is the younger brother of Sammie Hill, former West Texas State cager, who played in the ABA.

Mitchell's starting five consists of Barnes, Minor, Harris, Fowler and Miller. Reserve power lies around Hill and 6-8 freshman James Smith, 6-5 freshman Bill Fenton, 6-5 forward Tyrone Clopton.

Johnson remains in fourth spot in Western scoring, averaging 23.9 points per game for 19 games. Larry Erves, 6-4 Hawk freshman, is sixth with 20.7 and 6-1 sophomore Johnny Harris, 16th, 14.8.

Harris was absent from the FPC scene as he twisted his right ankle in last Wednesday's drill.

Wilder still isn't sure if Harris will be ready for the Westerners. If Harris fails to start, Wilder plans to use

Alan Davis or Ernest Lawrence in his absence.

The other spots go to regulars 6-2 sophomore Alfred Gadden, Erves, Giles and Johnson.

'PROBABLE FAILURE' REPORTED One Of Biggest Banks In New York Is Sold

Associated Press Writer: Faced with probable failure and a lack of "public confidence," the Security National Bank of Long Island, 53rd largest in the nation, has been sold to another New York bank. Security National, of Hempstead, N.Y., said in a statement Sunday that its troubles resulted from a loss of investor confidence, which the bank said stemmed from the general economic decline and the failure of another Long Island bank, the Franklin National, last year.

McGovern: 'I Was Right From Start'

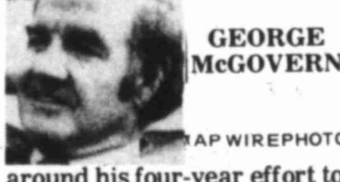

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than two years after his overwhelming defeat for the Presidency, Sen. George McGovern is more convinced than ever that he was "right from the start" about the nation's major problems. And with the United States in its worst economic slump in four decades, the South Dakota Democrat says, "I really believe that the ideas I stood for in 1972 have now arrived as far as the American people are concerned."

seriously impaired the bank's ability to obtain borrowings from its normal sources," Security National said. Banking sources said Security National had suffered losses in loans to builders on New York's Long Island, where the construction industry is depressed following a building boom during the 1960s. Franklin National's failure followed heavy foreign exchange losses. Franklin National at one time was the nation's 20th largest bank and its failure was the largest in the nation's history.

The Federal Reserve Board in Washington, which authorized the sale of Security National without stockholder approval, said the comptroller of the currency had found "external forces and public confidence have adversely affected the operations and condition of Security to the point that an emergency exists."

Comptroller of the Currency James E. Smith declared an emergency at Security National and asked immediate action "to prevent a probable failure of that bank."

Security National, with deposits of $1.3 billion and 80 offices on Long Island and 15 in New York City, was purchased by the Chemical Bank for $40 million. Chemical, one of the nation's 10 largest banks, will assume all assets and most liabilities of the smaller bank.

great burden off your shoulders," said McGovern, who won a third term by about 15,000 votes last November to climax a six-year stretch marked by two Senate races sandwiched around his four-year effort to win the presidency. "I don't think that we can beat Ford with somebody who is afraid to take a strong stand on central issues," he said. "I was both concerned and somewhat discouraged to see a number of Democrats trying to find the center of the road at Kansas City," he went on. "If that's what we're looking for, let's leave Ford in. He's a cautious prudent man."

Beyond that, he says the Democrats must as a party take an uncompromising stand on major economic and social issues in order to recapture the presidency in 1976.

That was the theme of his recent speech to the party's Kansas City miniconvention, where McGovern received a rousing reception, and of his comments in a relaxed, hour-long interview in his Senate office here last week. The senator said his relaxed mood these days stems from his decision against another attempt for the presidency. "Just making a decision not to run for anything gets a

Rules Against 'Freebies' Hit

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — A decision restricting the authority of the Madison Capital Times to bar its employees from accepting gifts from news sources "establishes a license to bribe newspaper personnel at all levels," the newspaper's publisher says.

Publisher Miles McMillin called the ruling Thursday by a National Labor Relations Board judge "incredible."

The judge, Nancy Sherman, said the newspaper must bargain with employees over the acceptance of free tickets, travel and other gifts from news sources.

Charles A. Perlik, president of The Newspaper Guild, which initiated the action, took issue with McMillin's reaction.

"Management's suggestion that the decision gives reporters the right to accept bribes is an outrageous defamation of our craft," he said.

The ruling, which applies only to The Capital Times, is subject to review by the five-member NLRB. The newspaper said it intends to appeal the ruling, either to the full NLRB or to a court.

The judge ruled the newspaper committed an unfair labor practice May 17 when it enacted a code of ethics for employees without first negotiating the matter with the guild's Local 64. She said the decision concerns only the newspaper's procedure for adopting the code, rather than its merits.

Ethics codes are not uncommon among news media, and the ruling could serve as a precedent in similar union-management disputes.

The Capital Times code prohibited employees from accepting free sports and theater tickets, free travel and other gifts. It required employees to report any activity which might be considered in conflict of interest.

The judge ordered the newspaper to rescind the code, negotiate with the guild about gifts and to reimburse employees for losses under the code.

Local 64 said in a statement the key issue was "the newsman's vital interest in shaping the rules which affect his credibility, his integrity and his effectiveness in the field."

will come Monday, Jan. 27, to campaign chairman Carol Reeves.

What began 25 years ago as a national campaign to lick polio has become a tradition, with many Big Spring residents volunteering year after year for the Mothers' March.

Key Club and Student Council members from the high school will be among walkers in this year's campaign.

Now that polio has been conquered, March of Dimes volunteers are marshalling their efforts against birth defects.

"Over 200,000 children are affected by birth defects annually, and each year more than 55,000 American infants do not live to see their first birthday," said Mrs. Reeves.

The 100 Mothers' March zone leaders were invited Saturday to a coffee at the Country Club. Those present viewed the MOD film, "A Way of Life" — theme of the 1975 campaign.

Three-year-old Jonathan Whitehead, Poster Child of the Caprock Chapter of the March of Dimes was on hand to greet the volunteers.

Born with spina bifida, Jonathan was chosen to represent all children in this area who suffer birth defects. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Whitehead of Lomax.

Already having undergone four corrective operations for spina bifida, Jonathan is scheduled for a fifth surgery this month.

West Texas has one of the highest infant mortality rates in the state, reported MOD board member Ann Lane to guests at the coffee.

An emergency-equipped mobile van for speeding newborns in critical condition from throughout West Texas to the Texas Tech medical center in Lubbock is one of the goals for which money raised in the Mothers' March will be used, according to Mrs. Lane.

She emphasized that the March of Dimes receives no United Fund receipts, and urges Big Spring residents to be generous when their neighborhood March of Dimes volunteer calls.

COLLEGE STATION - Some deserving individual who risked his or her life to save another will receive the 1975 Rural Heroism Award sponsored by the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council.

The council sponsors the award program to help promote safety in rural areas, according to Wayne Keese, agricultural engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service who serves as secretary of the council. All nominations must be submitted by Feb. 21 to the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, Box 489, Waco, Texas 76703.

Long Walk Odyssey

RIPLEY, W.Va. (AP) - Stephen Harper did a lot of walking in order to conform with the law. He ended up with 30 miles of hiking and two days in jail.

Harper's odyssey began New Year's Eve with a traffic ticket for driving a car with a defaced inspection sticker, according to Jackson County Sheriff Charles Coleman.

He was ordered to appear in Ripley Municipal Court and to keep his car off the road until he got a proper sticker.

On hearing day, Harper - who lives alone on a farm 15 miles outside town - had to walk.

He arrived six hours late, after court was closed. The 25-year-old Harper went to the county jail, explained why he was late and was taken before Municipal Court Judge O. G. Britton.

Britton fined Harper $20, but he had only a dime with him and accepted a two-day jail sentence instead of an offer to pay the fine later.

One Act Plays To Be Offered

Two one act plays for the price of one, plus a buffet dinner will be offered to the members of the Webb Officers' Open Mess and their guests Saturday, Feb. 1 when Neil Simon's "Plaza Suite" will be presented. The actors will be the Kaleidoscope Players who are members of the State Theater of New Mexico.

Each play has two central characters consisting of a husband and wife and the problems they face in marriage. These problems, however serious, become hilarious as each plot unfolds.

The Kaleidoscope Players are no strangers to Webb Air Force Base. They presented "I Do, I Do" and "Marriage Go Round" last year.

A buffet dinner begins at 7 p.m. and the play at 9 p.m. The club will accept table reservations beginning at 9 a.m. Jan. 20. Club members can phone in their reservations by calling 273-8381.

All seats will be reserved. Complete cost for the buffet and play will be $6.50 per person.

Youth Dies

MELROSE, N.M. (AP) - An Abilene, Tex. youth died early Saturday when his car went out of control and overturned three times on U.S. 60 eight miles west of here. Authorities said Ricky Allen Johnson was dead on arrival at a Clovis, N.M. hospital.

How Cosden Prevents Pollution Explained

Jack Y. Smith, director of industrial relations for Cosden Oil and Chemical Co., discussed ecology when he was speaker for the Woman's Forum Friday.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. E. B. Compton with Mrs. Pete Warren and Mrs. D. D. Dyer as hostesses.

Smith said many environmental control problems were on earth before people, and now, his company works with regulations by the government that sometime seem confusing.

At present, Cosden is in the process of building a runoff dam south of IS 20 that will hold polluted water until it settles, then the unpolluted water can run free. The heavy crude oil, sometimes washed by heavy rains over the refinery area, is detrimental to the land and dangerous to cattle.

Another pollutant at the refinery has been eliminated by taking carbon out of smoke at the plant. The smoke is still there but, it no longer is polluting the air.

The refinery has also reduced its energy use by 15 per cent during the past few years. It uses its own fuel for operation when the local gas company deems it necessary for the refinery to curtail use when a severe cold spell is expected.

Smith pointed out that steam at the refinery is sometime thought of as polluting but, actually, it is helpful because it increases humidity.

In relation to noise pollution, he noted that employees in certain areas of the refinery are checked for possible hearing loss at regular intervals. Ear plugs are provided for those whose work keeps them in areas where the noise factor is great.

Prints of an article by John J. McKetta "Has The World Gone To Hell?" were distributed. The article was written because the author felt too many speakers and writers are "nothing but purveyors of gloom" concerning the future of the world, blaming pollution, over-population, and results of technological advances.

A communication from Mrs. Johnnie Amos, director of Vocational Nursing at Howard College, said money donated by the Forum will aid in the purchase of visual aids and institutional materials.

Mrs. Paul Kionka, president, appointed Mrs. Omar Jones and Mrs. Cecil McDonald to serve on a committee with her to study possible aid to the Family Services Center. Mrs. W. N. Norred will be chairman of the nominating committee, serving with Mrs. Clyde Johnston and Mrs. Clyde Thomas.

The Feb. 21 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Arnold Marshall, 700 Highland.

MEDELLION - First Lady Betty Ford shows a medallion which was presented to her by members of the International Women's Year Commission after President Ford signed an executive order creating the commission. The medallion bears a likeness of a bird, the biological symbol for female, and the mathematical sign for equality.

La Gallinas Bridge Has Six Tables

Six full tables were in play when duplicate bridge was held Friday at Big Spring Country Club under the sponsorship of the La Gallinas group. The game is open to anyone, regardless of whether they are members of the club, and newcomers are invited to participate in the play every Friday, beginning at 10 a.m.

Winners were Mrs. Ollie Anderson and Mrs. L. B. Edwards, first; Mrs. Garner McAdams and Mrs. Hayes Stripling, Jr., second; Mrs. George McAlister and Mrs. Ed Corson, third; Mrs. Paul Meek and Mrs. Ken Perry, fourth; and Mrs. Paul Shaffer and Mrs. Jim Bill Little, fifth.

Workshop To Be Jan. 23

A general workshop will be held for the Busy Bee Hobby Club Jan. 23 according to an announcement made Thursday when the club met in the home of Mrs. Morris Robertson, 2806 Clanton.

The meeting will begin at 9:45 a.m. at 1005 Eleventh Place with Mrs. Laura Duke as hostess. Mrs. Roberta Ross is program chairman. Mrs. Thelma Smedley won the door prize.

Vitamin K In Vegetables

Vitamin K is essential for the body to maintain its blood clotting ability, says Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist. It's widely distributed in a variety of foods such as green and leafy vegetables, tomatoes, cauliflower, egg yolks, soybean oil and any kind of liver, she explained.

Loggers Don't Speak Language She Seeks

DEAR ABBY: I am an attractive female divorcee who recently retired after a long, distinguished career as a university English professor.

Now that I have a great deal of free time, I would like to find suitable male companionship.

Although I receive numerous offers (the loggers in this town are practically beating my door down), I don't know how to meet men who could appreciate my best qualities, such as the art of conversation.

There must be some other retired women in small towns with similar problems. Have you any suggestions?

IDLE BUT ANXIOUS IN IDAHO

DEAR ANXIOUS: Enroll in an adult education class and do a lot of listening. Conversation could be considered "dessert," and since man cannot live on dessert alone, are you prepared to provide some meat and potatoes?

DEAR ABBY: I just had to write to defend that woman who writes notes to her husband to remind him of things. I've been doing it for years.

First of all, that letter couldn't have been written by my husband because he doesn't believe in communication, and note-writing is a form of communication.

This wooden Indian I'm married to might send up smoke signals if he could find his lighter, but on the other hand, fires within the city limits of Dallas are frowned upon.

Anyway, I say three cheers for that note-writing wife. I sure wish my husband would write me a note once in a while. It would confirm the fact that he's still breathing.

IGNORED IN DALLAS

DEAR IGNORED: Your problem is far more serious than you realize. The ultimate in humiliation, women confide, is not in being belittled, berated, or even beaten. It's being ignored!

DEAR ABBY: This is to encourage the 52-year-old woman whose husband wants a divorce. Let him have it, then sharpen up some of your old skills and get out on your own.

I was 47 when my husband entered his second childhood. He wanted a divorce to marry a younger woman. I fought and wept and begged! I thought my life was over. I finally came to my senses and let him go. At age 48, I went to work as a secretary, married my boss two years later, and couldn't be happier.

A 52-year-old woman can do anything a younger woman can do except maybe have a baby. And what 52-year-old woman in her right mind would want that?

SITTING PRETTY

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Pot Luck Supper Held Thursday

A pot luck supper and business meeting was held Thursday evening by the Philathea Class of First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. B. M. Keese presided, and the Rev. C. A. Holcomb, assistant pastor, offered prayer. Mrs. Ruby Martin presented the devotional.

Twelve members whose birthdays fall in December and January were recognized and Mrs. Fred Eaker read a poem in their honor.

Mrs. Opal Keisling reported on visits to the sick and shut-ins, and Mrs. Paul Guy read a letter from the class protege, Laurie Kinard, (who lives at the Methodist Home in Waco) thanking the class for Christmas gifts.

Mrs. Guy and Mrs. C. Y. Clinkscales used pots of African violets to decorate the dining tables.
