

Ford, Solons Lock Horns Over Oil Import Tariffs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Blaming rising federal deficits, Treasury Secretary William E. Simon asked Congress today for a 22 per cent increase in the federal debt ceiling to $604 billion through June 30 of 1976.

The current limit on government borrowing is $495 billion. However, that is a temporary limit that expires on March 31, after which the limit would legally fall to $400 billion.

Simon told the House Ways and Means Committee that the government will exceed the temporary limit of $495 billion on Feb. 8.

PRESSING NEED
"Thus there is a pressing need for immediate action on the part of Congress," he said.
Simon appeared on Capitol Hill as President Ford and key Democratic congressmen were rushing into a fast-developing battle over new oil import tariffs the President plans to proclaim later in the day in his campaign for American energy independence.

Ford, directly challenging Congress, declared Wednesday night he would sign the proclamation for higher tariffs on imported oil beginning Feb. 1 in a bid to curb American oil consumption.

RAPID SLIDE
The tariff hike is a key part of the administration plan to curtail petroleum consumption by increasing prices. Opponents of the hike claim it will fuel inflation without cutting consumption.

Simon blamed the rapid downward slide of the economy for the worsening federal revenues picture.

He said the federal government will receive $6.7 billion less in the 1975 fiscal year from individual income taxes than it had earlier estimated, and $3.7 billion less in corporate income taxes.

"As a result, federal deficits are mounting rapidly and are causing the current squeeze on the debt ceiling," Simon said.

The Treasury secretary previously had said he is horrified by the proposed federal deficits of nearly $35 billion this year and $50 billion next year. But he told the committee they are necessary in the current recession.

He said the proposed debt limit will include the cost of the President's new economic proposals, but would not allow for any new spending programs by Congress.

The President told some 1,000 persons at a banquet of the business-sponsored Conference Board: "I'm going to sign the declaration tomorrow to force action by the Congress so the country will have action and not limitations in the months ahead."

Just hours earlier, Rep. Al Ullman, D-Ore., new chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, called a special hearing today for action on legislation to force a 90-day delay in Ford's tariff plan.

products, hiking tariffs by $1 per barrel Feb. 1, an additional $1 effective March 1 and another $1 on April 1, for a total $3 boost.

As his committee began hearings Wednesday on tax cut legislation, Ullman said Ford turned down his request for a delay on the tariff.

NIGHTMARE
Treasury Secretary William E. Simon, who testified before the Ways and Means Committee, later defended Ford's tariff decision.

The President "made the decision, which is a correct decision, not to move the route of more government, rationing and allocation, which would be an absolute nightmare for the American people," he told reporters.

'I'm Afraid Of Food Riots'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles Police Chief Ed Davis has launched a major crowd control training program among his officers because of concern over possible food riots in a depressed economy.

Cmdr. Frank Brittell says, "Frankly, I'm afraid of food riots... We've tried to analyze it, but it's a little different because the guy across the line from you that you're opposing is your neighbor, or your brother."

Brittell said in an interview Wednesday that more than 500 police supervisors have undergone extensive training on civil disturbances. The supervisors are in turn instructing line officers and more seminars for higher officers are planned, said Brittell, who is in charge of the program.

He stressed that the 7,200-member department is neither predicting nor expecting food riots. He said part of the reason for the training is that "it's been a long time since we've had any problems and we're trying to bring back our expertise."

"A lot of the officers on the streets now weren't here during the 1965 Watts riots; there's been a tremendous change in personnel and we're trying to update our material."

But Brittell said concern was a major factor in initiating the program.

"If the economy would go bad, as some people predict... they say you're going to have major problems... you're going to have food riots... I don't know if we're going to have them or not... but the potential because of the economy, the inflation and the recession is such that the department has got to be prepared."

Brittell said the training emphasizes the use of reason rather than force in dealing with situations.

Fugitive Captured Without Struggle

LONDON, Ont. (AP) — Donald Wayne Cline, a 22-year-old escaped convict who took four children hostage on Tuesday and fled Wednesday with $10,000 in ransom, was captured without a struggle early today in London's residential area.

WAYNE CLINE

northeast of London, where Cline fired two shots at a police cruiser and ordered it to stop following him.

"I'll shoot the kid!" he warned.

The police said they lifted their surveillance shortly after and lost track of the car, which was last seen heading back toward London. The next report was that Robert had been turned over to authorities by a man known only as Red.

"I knew Uncle Wayne wouldn't hurt us," said young Donald, who according to his mother is named for Cline.

The children's father said he had known Cline "since he was knee high to a grasshopper."

"We didn't think we were going to get hurt," said Kim. She said the youngsters went to bed Tuesday night after watching television but did not sleep.

"I wasn't scared, but my little brother was," she said.

Wants To Buy Alamo For Son

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Sheikh Masoud Al-Sharif Al Hamdan of Saudi Arabia wants to buy the Alamo, the state-owned shrine to Texas independence, and present it as a gift to his son.

"My son learned how to fly in San Antonio. He used to visit the Alamo and he loved it," the San Antonio News quoted the sheikh as writing a Houston lawyer. "Please contact the proper people and see if we can buy it. I want to present it as a gift to my son."

The lawyer said he would write the sheikh explaining the difficulty of his request.

Two Police Officers Indicted In Lamesa

LAMESA — Two police officers forced to resign in connection with the theft of midnight snacks from a local high school cafeteria were indicted here Wednesday for burglary.

The grand jury returned indictments against Patrolman Stephen Vestal and Dispatcher Bruce Dobson and also indicated other police officers apparently were involved in the burglaries. There was not enough evidence to support indictments against them, the grand jury decided, however.

The jury also criticized the running of the Police Department in the Dawson County city, saying "there are some officers of the police department that feel there is a lack of leadership in the department."

Youths' Check-Caper Stopped

Two youths, one 11 and the other 15, have been arrested by city juvenile officers in connection with two forged checks, according to Lt. Jim McCain.

The youths cashed the checks at local businesses. The checks were originally stolen. One of the youths allegedly paid a 9-year-old girl $2 to sign the check for him.

The girl has also been brought in to the juvenile office with juvenile officers talking to both the girl and her parents.

Captive Teen Girl Escapes

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — A 17-year-old girl held captive for nearly 30 hours by two men surprised by police during a department store holdup managed to escape from her captors early today, police said.

Police said the girl, Loucindy Sherman of South Bend, was unharmed.

Police Chief John Walsh told a news conference that police had been contacted by the girl's mother, who said she had been called by an unidentified man at 2:30 a.m. and told to meet the girl at a restaurant. The mother found the girl there and brought her to the police headquarters.

Walsh said the girl reported she had been able to flee out the rear door of a house in South Bend where she had been taken Wednesday. Walsh said she was now at the home of an unidentified relative and would not be available for questioning by police or newsmen for at least several hours.

Lawyers Set BSSH Tour

A group of lawyers representing the Dallas Legal Services lawyers and at least two lawyers from the state Attorney General's office will tour the Big Spring State Hospital beginning at 9 a.m. on Feb. 5, according to Hospital Superintendent Dr. Preston Harrison.

The Dallas Legal Service lawyers filed suit against the Terrell State Hospital on behalf of mental patients and then in September, expanded this suit to include all hospitals of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The lawyers will make a similar tour of all State Hospitals.

According to Dr. Harrison, the plaintiff's lawyers will be allowed to go anywhere on the campus, ask any questions and will be allowed to take pictures, as long as they are accompanied by the lawyers from the Attorney General's office.

The suit claims that the constitutional rights of mental patients are being violated by lack of proper treatment facilities and methods.

The suit also claims that the patients in the state hospitals are subject to "severely injurious, cruel and inhuman treatment," and that many patients "have actually regressed and deteriorated since their admission."

Dr. Harrison noted that in touring a San Antonio hospital, the Legal Services lawyers took pictures of such things as a bathroom where toilet tissue was strewn across the room and where a shower curtain was broken, making the conditions look terrible.

SNOW?

There is a 20 per cent chance of rain, sleet, or snow today, but it will clear up to partly cloudy by tonight and warmer temperatures are expected for Friday. Winds will be light and variable with the high today near 50, the low tonight near 30 and the high Friday in the low 60s.

Captive Teen Girl Can't Purge Files, FBI Director Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley says he cannot legally purge the agency's files of derogatory and unproven allegations against members of Congress.

In an interview Wednesday, Kelley said he has no plans either to suggest or to oppose legislative changes restricting the future collection of such material or allowing destruction of that already in the files.

"I can only say we abide by the law and will abide by any restrictive legislation," Kelley said. "I'm willing to do what's good for the country — that may sound trite but that's exactly the way I feel about it."

Kelley and other officials noted that the FBI, like all government agencies, cannot destroy official records without specific written approval from a House Judiciary subcommittee has scheduled hearings beginning Jan. 30 on the FBI practice of keeping information about members of Congress. The subcommittee may consider legislative changes.

Kelley acknowledged in the interview that some of the unproven allegations in the files deal with the personal lives of members of Congress.

He said he has not researched the voluminous files to determine how many senators and House members are mentioned.

The director noted that the files contain data on congressmen who have been the subjects of criminal investigations and on those who have been considered for other federal jobs.

The files also contain 22 years' worth of biographical and campaign material on congressmen which agents gathered from public sources in a program designed to acquaint FBI officials with new congressmen. L. Patrick Gray III stopped the program when he was acting director in 1972, but the law thwarted his efforts to destroy the material.

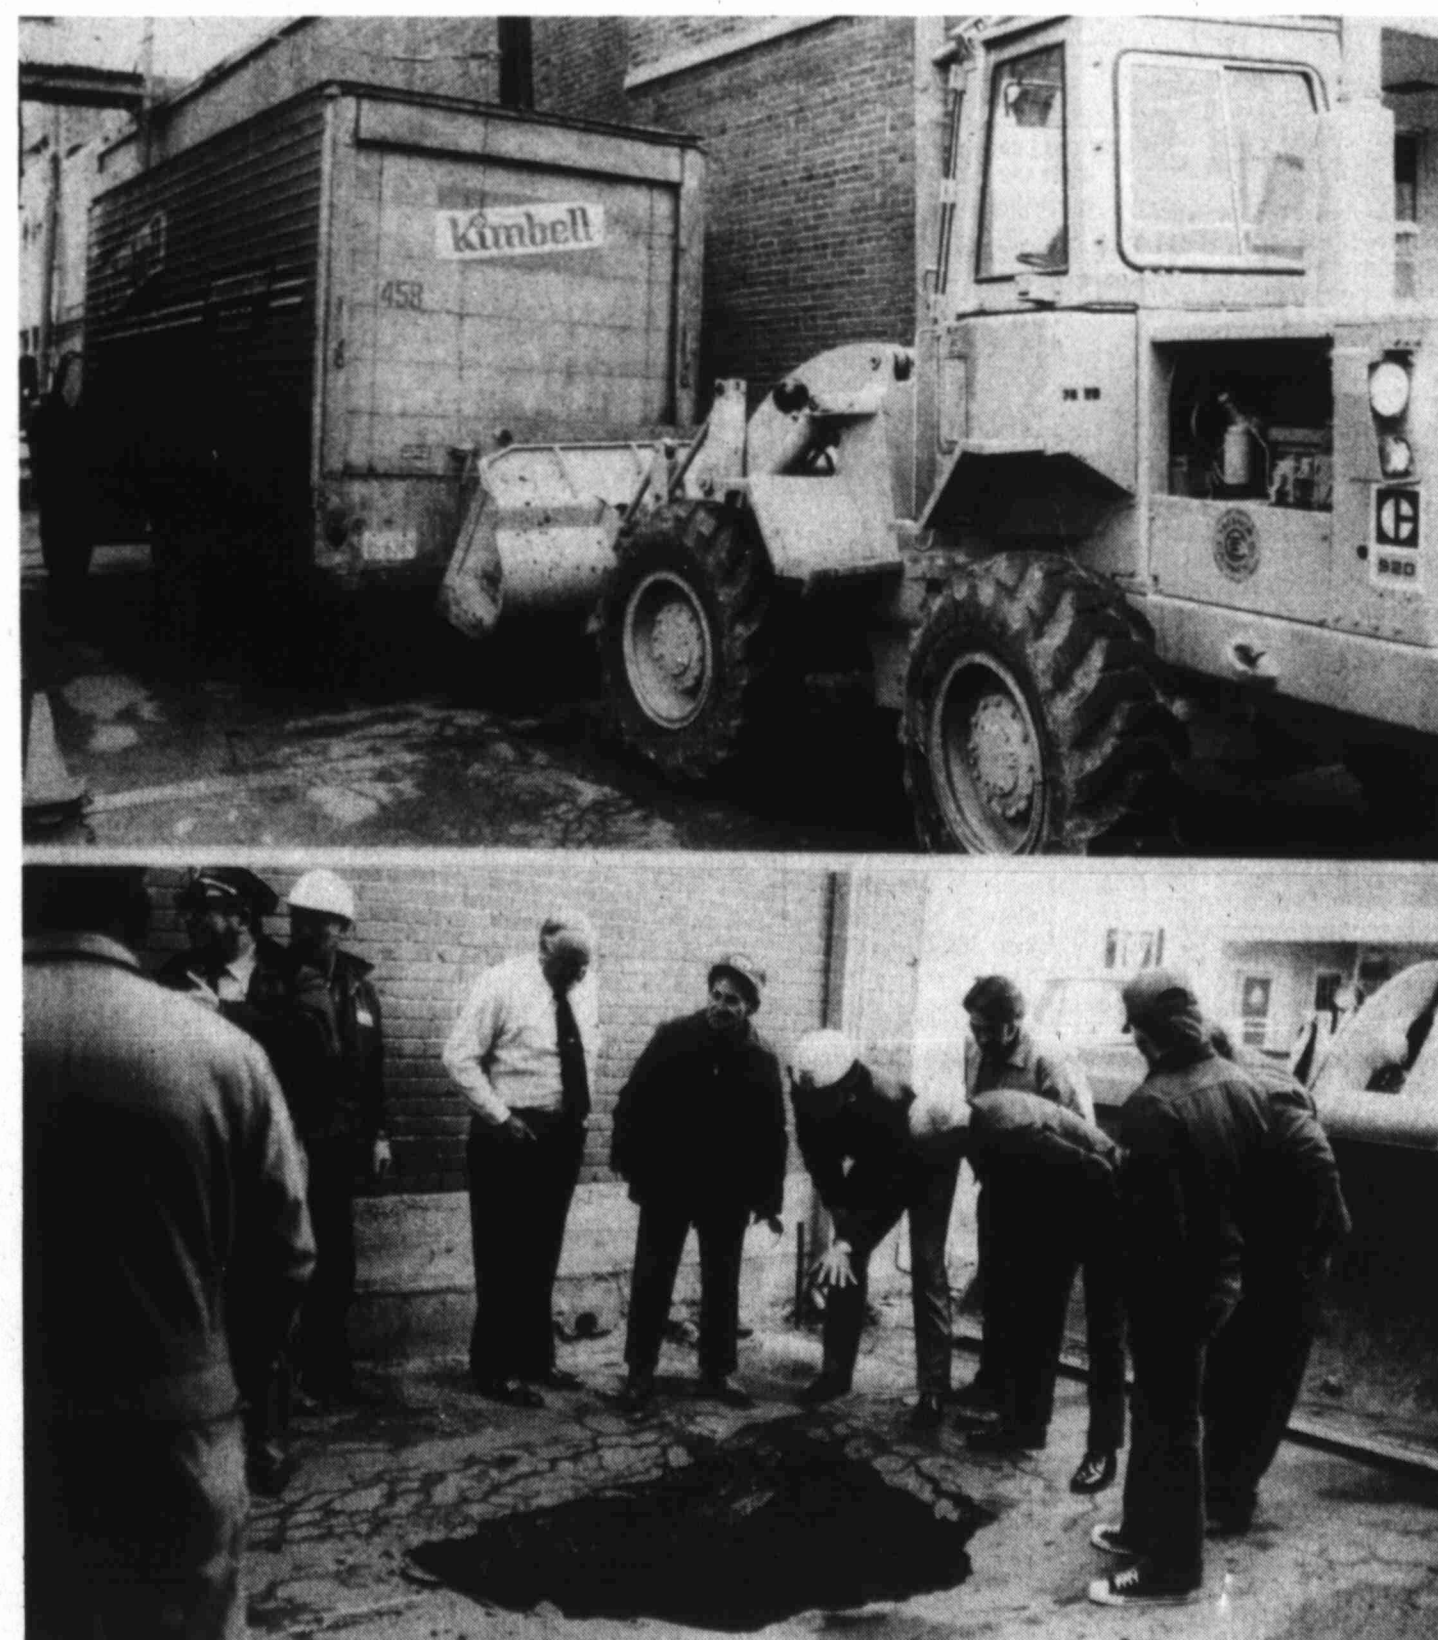

In addition, allegations often volunteered to the FBI by a host of tipsters usually are kept in a general correspondence file if they have no bearing on a criminal investigation.

CAVE DISCOVERED — A delivery truck got stuck in the pavement downtown this morning and was freed by a city front-end loader. When the truck was moved, bystanders looked into a hole 15 feet, four inches deep, Tommy Arista, street superintendent, said. In the center, Arista estimated the hole eight to ten feet in diameter. A concrete slab under the pavement had broken in the alley off Third Street between Runnels and Main Streets. Police Patrolman John Minnick said the hole is located near a water main which was repaired for a leak once. Arista thought the pit might have once been a cesspool or well. Driving the truck was Pablo Perez, Lubbock.

Lynn Officers Know Man They're Seeking

O'DONNELL — The man suspected of robbing the First National Bank of O'Donnell of an estimated $3,000 Tuesday is still at large but federal charges have been filed against him. Deen Davis, the cashier who handed over the money to the bandit, identified the man from a photograph and an arrest warrant was issued late Wednesday.

Sheriff's deputies say they think the man is still in the South Plains area.

Sheriff's deputies working under Lynn County Sheriff Norvell Redwine of Tahoka say they think the man is still in the South Plains area. A blue 1971 Chrysler Newport was reported checked out Tuesday to a 59-year-old man for a test run failed to return the car to Fenner Tubbs Co., of Lubbock. A vehicle fitting that description was seen in the O'Donnell area Tuesday.

Davis, only person to see the robber face-to-face, said he saw no gun but assumed the man had one stuffed into a coat pocket.

The man slid a note through the teller's window that read: "Give me the bills in the drawer." The bandit repeated aloud the instructions, then added "I have a man waiting at the door."

David described the man as having red hair, being of medium build, standing six feet and weighing 150 to 160 pounds. Davis also said the suspect had a reddish complexion.

County School Board Delays Salary Action

Consideration of salary changes Wednesday afternoon was delayed until budget time in August by the county school board.

Miss Billie Barron, assistant ex-officio county superintendent, estimated around 10 or 15 per cent of her time was taken by school duties, like researching school censuses to verify birthdates for citizens. She also serves as secretary to county commissioners court. County Judge Bill Tune is ex-officio county superintendent, a position for which the board approved a $1,000 bond.

$100 Million Navy Bonus?

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Lawyers say a federal court ruling on re-enlistment pay for Navy men could affect as many as 28,000 sailors and mean an ultimate payment of $100 million by the government.

U.S. District Court Judge Richard Kellam held Tuesday that 250 petty officers who extended their Navy enlistments for two years before last June 1 are due bonuses of between $4,000 and $6,000 despite congressional action that cut the bonus to $600.

Lawyers for the sailors, most of whom are attached to ships or bases in the Norfolk area, said the suit was not a class action on behalf of all Navy men with similar complaints, and thus will affect only the 250 plaintiffs. But, they said, if Kellam should extend his order, 28,000 men could receive the higher bonuses.

At the heart of the suit was the Navy's "variable enlistment bonus," which paid between $4,000 and $6,000 to personnel with "critical" skills who extended their enlistments.

Last June 1, however, Congress reduced the bonus to $600 for men who extended their enlistments for only two years, retaining the $4,000 to $6,000 bonus only for those who extended for four years.

The plaintiffs claimed they were induced to extend their enlistments under the original bonus program and said the government had no right to change the program after they had re-enlisted.

Enrollment Is Offered

Medicare offers a general enrollment period Jan. 1, 1975, through March 31, 1975, for Part B supplementary Medical Insurance to those eligible for Medicare not already having this coverage.

"Although everyone has a seven-month initial enrollment period, beginning three months before his 65th birthday or 25th month of entitlement to Social Security disability benefits, not everyone avails himself of that opportunity to enroll for Part B of Medicare," said Don Minyard, manager of the Social Security Office in Big Spring. "Eligible people not already enrolled can do so during a general enrollment period," he added. General enrollment periods occur during the first three months of each year. Those enrolling at that time are covered by the insurance beginning the following July.

Part B of Medicare covers physicians' services and the use of durable medical equipment primarily. Each enrollee pays an insurance premium of $6.70 monthly plus a 10 per cent penalty for each 12 months' delay in enrollment. Enrollment under Part A (Hospital Insurance) is not limited to a person becomes eligible.

Minyard suggested that anyone interested in Part B who is over 65 or has been receiving Social Security disability benefits for more than two years call his nearest Social Security office for assistance.

Funding Will Provide Director For Center

Funding has been made available to hire a director for the Senior Citizens Center on Howard College campus according to an announcement by Miss Sherry Mullin at this month's meeting of the Howard County Council on Aging. She said the position will be filled soon.

Miss Bessie Love, council chairman, presided as board members covered a full agenda. Bill Smith, coordinator of aging for the Permian Basin Regional Planning Office, was present to discuss use of funds which will be made available this year. A committee will set goals and priorities for the development of the center and additional activities during the year. Part of the money will be used to provide a referral service for seniors in the county. Also, Smith asked that the council take the responsibility of indexing local resources which will be made into a publication for local use.

Mrs. Harlan Huibregtse called for a program planning meeting Jan. 22 to investigate needs of senior citizens and try to provide educational and recreational programs to help solve these needs. Activities planned now include ceramic classes in February, oil painting in May and defensive driving in April. A course in basic clothing construction will begin Friday and continue through Feb. 28. Interested persons should call the extension office, 267-8469, to register.

Miss Love announced that an area conference on aging will be held Feb. 13 in Abilene, with several board members from here planning to attend. Dr. Wayne Bonner discussed the counseling program that is available to all senior citizens, reminding that he is available at the college to help with their problems.

In reviewing the past months' business, it was noted that several donations and memorial gifts were made to the center during the Christmas season. Mrs. H. L. Shirley reported that she and Mrs. Florence Howell had delivered a quilt (made at the center) to Dr. Marshall Cauley who won the quilt through donations. The blood pressure checks and income tax courses were well attended. Over 200 persons used the center during December, and the newsletter went into 365 homes.

A nominating committee, headed by Bill Dawes, will present a prospective slate at the next meeting. Committee members are Mrs. Bob Wren and Mrs. Shirley.

Dear Abby

She Planned Too Much On Premature Report

DEAR ABBY: About a year ago, my husband found out he had a malignant tumor. At first the doctor said he thought it was inoperable, so we both faced the fact that my husband was going to die. He was 36 and I was 30, and we had a four-year-old son.

However, the doctor later changed his mind and decided that he could operate. In the meantime I had already accepted the fact that since my husband was going to die, my son needed to have a father, and the sooner he came into our lives, the sooner I would get over my husband's death. To make a long story short, I met a man and fell in love with him.

My husband survived the surgery, and it looks like he is going to be all right. I have become very attached to this man and am still seeing him. I really love them both and don't know what to do. Help me.

ONE MAN TOO MANY
DEAR ONE: DYING: unexpectedly is not uncommon, but LIVING unexpectedly is. It's wise to prepare for the future, but you jumped the gun. If you believe in fairness to a man pulled back from the brink of death, you'll say goodbye to his premature replacement.

DEAR ABBY: After reading the letter from the grandmother who complained because the grandparents on the MOTHER'S side always seemed to be favored, I had to put in my two cent's worth.

I am the young mother of three very active children, and it's always MY mother who babysits. She works fulltime and has her own family to take care of, but when I ask her to babysit for a night, a day, or weekend, she acts like it's the best offer she's had all week.

On the other hand, my husband's mother has no job and no family at home. All she has to think of is herself, but she's never volunteered to babysit for me. Once she said, "If you ever need me in an emergency, I'll come," but, Abby, she knows that in an emergency I can call my own mother.

Twice in nine years I have asked my mother-in-law to sit for me. She did, but she made me feel like she was doing me the biggest favor in the world, so I quit asking her.

Thanks for letting me get this off my chest. Maybe my mother-in-law will read it and see herself.

BUGGED
DEAR BUGGED: Maybe. And maybe not. Not all grandmothers regard an offer to babysit as "the best offer they've had all week." Many have written to say that they raised their children and they wish their children would raise their own — but when asked to babysit, they hate to refuse.

Those grannies who genuinely enjoy sitting should do so, but those who don't should not be made to feel guilty.

Cowbelles Host Tea On Sunday

The home of Mrs. Harry Middleton, 2808 Coronado, was the scene Sunday of a Get Acquainted Tea for members of the Tejas Chapter, Texas Cowbelles, and their guests.

Miss Gail Griffin, daughter of a Cowbelle member, Mrs. T. L. Griffin, presided at the guest registry.

Mrs. Johnny Middleton, daughter-in-law of the hostess, served refreshments from a table covered with a white cut work cloth and appointed with crystal and silver. The buffet featured hors d'oeuvres made with beef.

Other Cowbelle members who assisted as hostesses were Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Aubrey Stokes, Mrs. Billy Huddleston, Mrs. Leland Wallace, Mrs. J. M. Sterling and Mrs. Bubs Gressett.

LGA Duplicate Game Tallies

Mrs. Elmo Wasson and Mrs. A. Swartz placed first in the north-south position during the duplicate bridge game held Wednesday afternoon at Big Spring Country Club. Others winners were Mrs. Pete Cook and Mrs. Paul Shaffer, second; and Mrs. Travis Reed and Mrs. J. H. Parks, third.

The east-west winners were Mrs. Elvis McCrary and Mrs. Hayes Stripling, first; Mrs. E. O. Ellington and Mrs. J. H. Fish, second; and Mrs. James Raoul and Mrs. Hayden Griffith, third.

Grand Master To Visit Here

Plans for entertaining the Grand Master of the State of Texas were made by Big Spring Rebekah Lodge 284 at a meeting Tuesday in the IOOF Hall.

H. K. McEntyre, Odessa, grand master, will visit here Feb. 28, and members of John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge 153 and Odd Fellow Lodges 117 and 372 have been invited for the occasion. A short business meeting will precede a salad supper at 7 p.m. in the lodge hall. Tentative plans were made for a chili supper at a later date.

Carlson Speaks On Astronomy

The comet, Kohoutek, and other beauties of the skies, were discussed by Gary Carlson, astronomy instructor at Big Spring High School, when he spoke Monday to Cactus Chapter, American Business Women's Association. The program included projected pictures of the comet, visible planets and eclipse of the sun, made by Carlson's students.

Carlson said Kohoutek was not as spectacular as had been anticipated by scientists and astronomers; the brilliance diminishing rapidly before it reached its peak. Although lay-people thought the comet "a flop," it was a success to scientists in that it changed ideas about new chemicals found in its formation which had not been discovered before.

The speaker explained that comets are formations outside the solar system made up of chemicals and dust, and their appearances to the earth come in cycles of many years apart. The collision of comets in their travels in the heavens is rare; about one in every 10,000 years.

Carlson invited public attendance at the monthly, night programs at the high school planetarium, where planets and stars are discussed in addition to viewing by telescope.

Ms. Peggy Ross of Stripling-Mancill Insurance Co. was the vocational speaker. She discussed types of insurance policies as well as her other duties.

Plans were made for the "Boss Night" banquet at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 21 at Howard College Cafeteria. The hospitality hour will begin at 7 p.m. Reservations must be made by Feb. 19.

Three scholarships have been given at Howard College, according to Mrs. Esther Trantham, scholarship chairman.

Mrs. Cheryl Walker, president, announced the regional meeting to be held in Amarillo, April 4-6 at the Villa Inn Motel.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Maude Cole, Mrs. Ida Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Forest.

Citizenship Is Emphasized

Mrs. F. D. Micallef, hostess for the Fairview Home Demonstration Tuesday, brought a program on citizenship, listing duties of good citizens. She also told how to become a citizen and pointed out that naturalized citizens most often are good ones. The Feb. 4 meeting will be with Mrs. L. Click, Snyder Highway.

Club Sees Art Of Macrame

Newcomer Handicraft Club members met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Pam Leggett, Barcelona Apts., where the hostess demonstrated the making of macrame plant hangers. Members were reminded of a covered dish luncheon which will be held Feb. 5 at the home of Mrs. Magdalena Cadena, 1611 E. 6th. The meeting will begin at 10 a.m.

To Meet With Commission

A committee was named to meet with the Howard County Bicentennial Commission when the Airport Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. J. C. Thames.

The committee is composed of Mrs. Frances Key,

Traces Religion In West Texas

The Rev. Gage Lloyd traced the history of religion in West Texas when he was guest speaker Monday afternoon for St. Mary's Guild, St. Mary's Episcopal Church. He was introduced by Mrs. Marvin Miller.

Rev. Lloyd said the first natural religious groups in this area were the Comanche and Shawnee Indians, followed later by Roman Catholics who received land grants from Mexico. The Catholics built the first church and convent in Stanton. The first Protestant church in Big Spring was the First Christian Church, founded in 1882. During the next 30 years, churches were established by Baptists, Lutherans, Methodists, Presbyterians and Episcopalians and other denominations.

Early-day ministers did not have an easy time, for life was hard on the prairie. Preachers labored long hours to make a living for their families, then covered a large territory on horseback in carrying out the duties of their ministry.

Mrs. Pete Rhymes, chairman, led prayer, and the devotional was by Miss Elsie Willis, who was named devotional chairman. Mrs. Hazel Jones was appointed telephone chairman.

Mrs. Florence Lennox and Mrs. Ione McAlister served refreshments to the members, Dr. Lloyd and another guest, Mrs. Wanda Owens.

$4 MILLION PLEA Funds For Retired Teachers Sought

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe urged the legislature today to appropriate $4 million at once for retired teachers and retired state employees' benefits.

The governor also asked the lawmakers in an emergency message to approve a constitutional amendment to raise the limit on the amount of money the state can spend on those retirement systems. "Inflation has decreased their purchasing power by an unbelievable degree," he said.

The $4 million would finance higher benefits on a temporary basis, pending final approval of the amendment by the voters. If the amendment is not approved, emergency benefits would end.

Speaker Bill Clayton hoped to resolve some coin-flip type choices in time to tell House members which committees they will serve on this session.

The most important assignments were the chairmen of the 28 House committees, seven more than in 1973.

In the Senate, Oscar Mauzy, D-Dallas, gave notice he would ask his colleagues to adopt a proposal to abolish the five-year scholastic census for public school districts.

The Texas Education Agency estimates that it costs $2 million to print the forms for local school districts to count their pupils every five years and the information is of no use to anyone. State aid, for example, is based on average daily attendance, not the census figures.

Even though no committees had been named Wednesday, Clayton obtained approval to post notice of the first House committee hearing—next Monday at 11 a. m. on a bill providing $93 million for state employee pay raises.

Gov. Briscoe asked legislators to pass the bill—which the Senate already has approved 31-0—in time to go on the Feb. 1 pay checks.

Briscoe spelled out his legislative proposals Wednesday, giving priority to school finance reform. He warned that he would veto any spending bill that would require taxes.

"It was the best speech by a governor since I've been in the legislature, and that's 10 years," said Rep. Fred Head, D-Troup.

Harry Hubbard, Texas AFL-CIO president, and Sherman Fricks, secretary-treasurer, issued a joint statement saying they were "particularly encouraged" because Briscoe and Hobby speeches this week "appear to have marked the crossing of a threshold of concern between human needs and corporate needs by the state's leadership... This is a significant shift."

The labor leaders differed with Briscoe's recommendation that the Texas Highway Department take over the Texas Mass Transportation Commission. "We need an independent, people-oriented mass transit agency," the statement said.

WOMEN'S GROUP PROPOSES

Eat 1 Meal Less Weekly To Fight World Hunger

DALLAS (AP) — A group of Baptist, Catholic, and Jewish women here have recommended eating one less meal a week, eating less beef, and cutting out their women's luncheons to help fight world hunger.

The women, members of Church Women United, the Dallas division of Catholic Women, the Baptist Women's Missionary Union, and the National Council of Jewish Women, met Wednesday for a seminar on world hunger and said they came away feeling just a little guilty about their standard of living.

"We did a little consciousness raising," said Margaret Estes, president elect of Church Women United. "We decided it would be a good idea to give up ladies' luncheons... You know, sort of as a sacrificial meal. And we probably don't need all those sweets with coffee, either."

The women decided they also might be able to do without one meal a week to cut down on food consumption. They zeroed in on beef consumption after hearing statistics on grain. According to information distributed by the Christian Life Commission (CLC), it would release enough grain to feed 100 million people.

The women also were told that tons of nutrients are being used on U.S. lawns, gardens, cemeteries, and golf courses. The women recommended a cutback on fertilizers.

"We're also going to simplify our meals," said Mrs. Estes. "We believe that if we can have some impact on the community as nourishers of our families and as members of women's groups, we will have accomplished something."

"You know, this is an easy thing to fight about."

Big Feedlot Asks Relief Under U.S. Bankruptcy Act

AMARILLO, Tex (AP) — Wheatheart Feeders Inc. of Perryton, Tex., has filed for relief under the National Bankruptcy Act, but the company says it will continue normal operations and "does not contemplate an interruption or liquidation" at this time.

Tune Signs Two Grants

County Judge Bill Tune Wednesday signed for two grants for emergency medical food.

Limited funds are provided on a 100 percent basis through the Texas Department of Community Affairs, Mrs. Janet Everheart of the Lamesa-Dawson Community Action Council said.

She told Tune, Mrs. Virginia Black, county auditor, and Mrs. Ruby Phillips, welfare director, about the Emergency Food and Medical Services (EFMS) program and Emergency Food and Medical Migrant program.

Through EFMS, Mrs. Everheart said only emergency food money is provided. Vouchers for groceries, food stamps or meals are provided families only once in Dawson County, she said. But Howard County could establish another policy.

The migrant program provides funds for migrants and seasonal farm workers. A portion of these funds may be used for medical items like vitamins if malnutrition is found.

Mrs. Everheart said, in Lamesa, food vouchers are issued only when the applicant is awaiting approval for food stamps.

Four Men Executed In Rural Grocery Store

BLUFFTON, Ga. (AP) — Four men were lined up behind the counter of a small rural grocery store here, then summarily executed with a high-powered rifle, authorities said.

The shootings took place Wednesday night in Manfieds grocery, in a remote rural area.

Authorities said a gunman or gunmen entered the store, lined up its four occupants behind the counter, and gunned them down.

Surplus In Budget Is Restricted To Bonds

According to a statement made by Eddie Aciri, mayor pro-tem, the listed surplus in the water and sewer fund in the city's audit which will be presented to the council, is "actually not a surplus but is water and sewer bonds."

Aciri is quoting John Wilson, auditor, Thomas Ferguson, city finance director and also a former member of the auditing firm, said today, "It is a surplus restricted to retirement of water and sewer revenue bonds."

Also included in the city audit report is an unaudited page reprinted here, with figures for other cities coming out of the 1973 Municipal Year book which shows a comparison with area cities in debt to tax ratio.

This is the case in all city budgets. The debt service fund balance sheet in the city audits shows that the city's $249,343 in cash in the bank and CDs of U.S. treasury bonds which show due dates of Aug. 15, 1977, February 15 and November 14, 1980 and February 15, 1982.

Dip Crisp Vegetables In Cheesy Fondue

Today's food processors make many convenience foods available to modern cooks. Yesterday's convenience food was cheese. It is often referred to as the first convenience food. Cheese is a bright star in the food galaxy.

Liederkrantz, a soft ripening cheese made from cow's milk, was created in America in 1892. Its success and popularity is due to its unusual flavor. Although it is best known as a dessert cheese, Liederkrantz can be cooked!

Home economists have melted Liederkrantz cheese in a chicken bouillon, wine-flavored, white sauce to make this creamy fondue. It is an uncommonly tasty party food with a flair, when surrounded by bowls of vegetables. Provide the guest with fondue forks for dunking mushroom slices, cherry tomatoes, broccoli pieces, cauliflower and cooked shrimp.

LIEDERKRANTZ FONDUE
 1/2 cup Danish flavor margarine
 1/2 cup flour
 2 cups milk
 1 cup Chablis wine
 1 cup boiling water
 1 tsp. chicken bouillon
 2 (4 oz. packages) Liederkrantz cheese

In medium-size saucepan, melt margarine. Stir in flour; cook over low heat until bubbly. Add milk, wine, water and chicken bouillon. Cook over low heat; stir constantly, until mixture begins to thicken. Grade Liederkrantz; stir into creamed mixture. Continue to cook; stir constantly, until cheese is completely melted. Serve in fondue pot; keep warm over candle, sterno or alcohol burner.

Suggested foods for dunking: raw sliced mushrooms, shrimp, raw broccoli, cauliflower flowerettes, and carrot sticks. Makes about four cups.

FORD'S ENERGY, TAX PROPOSALS 'Everybody Below $15,000 Will Just Be Better Off'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The typical family of four with $15,000 or less income would come out ahead if President Ford's controversial energy tax plan is approved and works like he says it will. Those earning more will lose some.

However, upper income taxpayers would get the largest individual shares of the President's proposed antirecession tax rebate for 1974 — a separate plan designed to stimulate the economy out of recession.

Gas Acquisition Plan Progresses

Pioneer Natural Gas Company today announced that the company's natural gas acquisition program is "progressing favorably."

K. B. (Tex) Watson, Pioneer president, explained that "gas acquisitions in 1973 were not up to expectations, but we are well pleased with 1974 results and 1975 has started well."

Watson also said that an estimated 233 billion cubic feet of new gas reserves were added in 1974, "and this is well in excess of gas sales for that period."

Much Effort Put Into Job At Webb

"I feel that if we're going to be here eight hours a day, we might as well make a pleasant atmosphere," says Tsgt. C. "Tony" Hernandez concerning the Equipment Management Office.

Hernandez, NCOIC of the operational support section of the 78th Supply Squadron at Webb Air Force Base, and his fellow workers, Amos Bennett and Bill Addy, have tastefully and artfully remodeled their offices and working environment, using their own resources and ingenuity.

"When I took over this section last July, I was told that I was the boss. Since then, I have been left alone, thanks to the branch chief, 1st Lt. Robert Kelly, and his assistant, SMSgt. Bert Adams, NCOIC of the Equipment Management Office.

"As a result, my personnel and I have managed not only to have a good section but also the opportunity to make it a show place."

Hospital Credit Union Names Its Directors

Members of the Big Spring State Hospital Federal Credit Union named new directors and committee members at the annual meeting Saturday evening.

Those beginning new terms on the board are Ray Francis, Justine Nichols, Jack Stovall, Carolyn Hanson, also Bud Graham, who fills a one-year term.

Named to the Credit committee were Ed Baskin, Lucille Harrison, also Ben Daugherty, who fills a one-year term. The supervisory committee will be named later.

Members participating in a bingo party and shared in prizes.

During the past year the credit union handled 755 loans for $51,299, up 225 loans and $116,858 from the previous year. Since its organization the credit union has processed 5,850 loans for $3,460,282.

Enrollment Up At UTPB

ODESSA — Enrollment at the University of Texas at the Permian Basin is up 16 per cent over the corresponding period in 1974.

Nearly 1,300 have signed up for graduate and undergraduate work for the spring term. Final count for the spring term last year was 1,086.

MORE MONEY

If both plans are approved, and if they work, everybody would end up with a little more money to spend in 1975 even with the higher energy bills.

Ford's energy plan includes higher energy prices and permanent tax reductions — totalling $16.5 billion for individuals — to pay for them. The separate antirecession plan would return $12 billion in tax rebates for 1974 to taxpayers.

If both plans are approved, a family of four with $10,000 income would receive an additional $453 in 1975, a family with $15,000 income would receive $425, and a family with $41,000 income would receive about $1,130.

Houston Court Clerk Says He Expects To Be Fired

HOUSTON (AP) — A former high police official who has been called twice as a witness in a federal grand jury probe of wiretapping said Wednesday he expects to be fired by Houston mayor Fred Hofmeier from his current position as chief municipal court clerk.

M.L. "Joe" Singleton, former head of the Houston police criminal intelligence division, has made two appearances lasting less than a total of six minutes before the federal grand jury.

The Houston Chronicle reported that he took the fifth amendment guarantee against self-incrimination in his first appearance.

Hofmeier, in a letter to U.S. Atty. Edward McDonough, asked if Singleton has cooperated with the grand jury. The mayor said in the letter Singleton could be fired if he refused to testify.

An assistant U.S. attorney said, however, that federal law forbids revealing any information on grand jury matters.

A number of police officers and officials of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. have testified before the grand jury. Two officers testified for more than two hours each on Tuesday. The testimony came after they were granted immunity from prosecution. The pair, Sgt. Henry Pressley of the criminal intelligence division (CID) and Sgt. Bobby Edwards, a former CID officer, had both invoked the fifth amendment in earlier appearances, according to their attorney.

The federal grand jury started a probe of illegal wiretapping in the Houston police department last year. Houston Police Chief Carroll H. Lynn said last month that "sophisticated wiretapping" had been conducted by some police officers with the help of officials of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Bell company officials have denied the charge.

In another action involving Bell, the Houston city council Tuesday appropriated $20,115 as the city's contribution to help finance a Texas Municipal League (TML) study of Bell's rate setting policies.

The four-month study is being underwritten by 31 Texas cities and will be conducted by the Texas Utility Advisory Council, an arm of the TML.

The study will concentrate on the expense reporting procedures of Bell and other telephone companies. The phone companies base their rate hikes on the ratio of their earnings to their capital investment and operating expenses.

SAVES TWO — Martin Kaufman, 17, saved two men from a burning car Wednesday, but was shocked when he discovered he had missed a third man, who was in the back seat. Kaufman was working at a filling station near a Detroit freeway when he heard an explosion. He rushed to see what had happened, and then pulled the men from the flames. The man he missed was killed.

HC Family Services Center Is Explained

How the new Howard County Family Services center can help individuals was explained Wednesday to the Downtown Lions at their meeting at the Settles.

The Rev. Steve Birdwell, who has been active in seeking such an agency, said that the center will open offices in mid-February in the Dora Roberts Health Building. People can make contact directly, or in some cases they may be referred by other agencies, pastors, etc.

"This is not just a marriage counselor," he said, "but is designed to help with any problems — parent-child relationships, or any other matters which are causing difficulties."

There will be a charge for the service, but fees range from nothing to a to-be-determined level based on financial ability.

The center results from a feeling that there needs to be a neutral agency at a neutral location so that it will be readily accessible to the public. Wilfrid Calnan, an experienced certified social worker, will be director, and he will try to help people with problems, or put them in touch with someone better qualified to handle their particular situation.

Based on experience and records of a number of agencies, it is estimated that as many as 3,852 individuals in the county may have problems sufficient to warrant use of the service, he said. Currently it is a joint operation with the United Way, Elks, Legion Auxiliary and others contributing funds, and the State Hospital funding the salary of the caseworker and clerk under its outreach service.

Like Home — A scarecrow in a Czech field failed totally in its function when sparrows turned the pocket of the scarecrow's old coat into a nest.

Knew His Art — A thief visited the studio of the east Slovak Kosice painter Alexander Eckerdt and stole three paintings. The thief, who dismantled the door to get in, was a discriminating lover of modern art and out of the many pictures in the studio took the three their author valued highest.

Planted Seed Liddy In Prison — Mrs. Hattie W. Caraway became the first woman elected to Congress from Arkansas on Nov. 9, 1932.

Appeal Goes To Brewster — Assistant U.S. attorney has made a federal case out of a $144 workman's compensation case appealed from the Texas Industrial Accident Board to Peace Justice Walter Greice.

U.S. District Judge Leo Brewster has taken under advisement the case of Texas Employers Insurance Association versus the United States through the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Brewster expects to make a ruling before the January court session ends.

Leslie Swiggart was injured in an oil field accident while employed by the Pool Co., Dallas, 1973.

The VA claims that since the accident was unrelated to military service, the government should be allowed to recover the cost of medical services from the firm's insurance carrier, Texas Employers' although Swiggart was not charged.

In July, 1974, the Industrial Accident Board awarded the VA $144. Texas Employers' turned to justice court. And, on the motion of William L. Johnson Jr., assistant U.S. attorney, the case was removed to federal court.

It is said the ruling may mean the difference of thousands of dollars for VA hospitals.

The insurance company claims the federal government cannot recover the funds according to U.S. law and the Texas Workman's Compensation Law.

Citing other laws and court decisions, the government argues it does have the right to be paid for medical services in connection with an on-the-job accident.

Bills To Lift Barriers Cutting Off SS Offered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Tower, R-Texas, introduced a series of bills Tuesday to remove barriers which block some persons from receiving social security benefits, along with another bill to reduce the pay given construction workers employed on federal projects.

One of the bills in the social security package would eliminate a requirement that a widower must be able to show that half his support had been derived from his wife's earnings in order to qualify for survivor's benefits on her social security record.

Another bill would permit a working wife to draw benefits based on combined income of husband and wife, rather than having to choose between her work record or her husband's.

A third measure would pay full old age benefits to insured citizens who are forced to retire at age 60 by federal laws, regulations or orders, while a fourth would pay disability benefits to any citizen who has amassed 10 years of coverage.

The construction bill, introduced with Sen. Paul Fannin, R-Ariz., would repeal the Davis-Bacon Act, a depression era statute designed to support the salaries of then underpaid construction workers.

The act requires contractors on federal construction projects to pay their construction workers the prevailing wage for construction projects in their area, as determined by the Labor Department.

The General Accounting Office, Congress' fiscal watchdog agency, has disclosed that these rates are significantly higher than the prevailing wages and thus increase the federal government's construction costs by 5 per cent to 15 per cent, Tower said.

"I can no longer countenance a law which forces an employer to pay a worker $7 an hour on a federally assisted project when that same worker is compensated at $5 an hour on similar construction projects which are privately financed," Tower said in a Senate speech.

Blood-Donor Project Set

As part of National Blood Month, the Highland Merchants Association will sponsor a blood-donor project Jan. 31 in Highland Mall. Hours will be 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Individuals who donate a unit of blood will be given protection for a six months period through the area Blood Services which supplies hospitals here. This means that if a donor or member of his family requests a transfusion during the next six months, there will be no charge for the blood. (This does not apply to hemophiliacs.)

Also, there will be a booth for typing of blood, and any individual may have his or her blood typed during the day without charge for services.

Wanda Lee, San Angelo, director of Blood Services, said there is an urgent need for around 800 units of blood per month in the West Texas areas served by her office.

Tax Payers Can Give To Fund

Taxpayers preparing their 1974 federal income tax returns can again take part in the 1974 Presidential Election Campaign Fund by checking a box on the front of their Form 1040 or 1040 A, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) said today.

More than 11 million of the approximately 81 million returns filed last year contained a campaign fund designation for 1973. Another 6 million of the returns had a retroactive designation for 1972.

The total amount designated on 1973 returns was about $26 million, McCleskey said. With approximately $4 million checked off in 1972, the campaign fund now totals about $30 million.

Under legislation enacted by Congress in 1971, every taxpayer with a tax liability of $1 or more may designate $1 of his or her tax ($2 on a joint return) each year to the 1976 campaign fund. All money thus earmarked goes into a general fund to be distributed among all eligible Presidential candidates.

Quick Justice Given In Trial

ODESSA — James William Myers, 20-year-old oilfield worker, Wednesday pleaded guilty to the Monday robbery of the Rowday Inn and was sentenced to 20 years in prison.

Myers was arrested shortly after the robbery of the motel about 10:30 p.m. Monday. A bystander at the motel saw a man leave the motel in an automobile after he robbed motel clerk Betty Tucker and motel manager Carl Inman of $135 at knife-point.

Using a license number and description of a car provided by the bystander, officers arrested Myers inside a lounge.

He entered the guilty plea in 161st District Court and was sentenced by Judge R. L. McKim.

'HOT L BALTIMORE' NG 'Barney Miller' Aorta Stood In Bed

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The opening segments of two new comedy series, "Barney Miller" and "Hot L Baltimore," are arriving on ABC-TV tonight and Friday night, respectively. They are so-so and awful, respectively.

"Miller," starring Hal Linden, concerns a New York plainclothes police captain, his family and his underlings at the 12th Precinct.

The series isn't a "Car 54, Where Are You?" but rather a "warm" sitcom with lots of heart. Heart is okay if you're opening a ventricle shop, but tonight's effort suggests aorta stood in bed.

IT DOES?
(If you read that line aloud it may make sense.)

Things get off to a promising start when Mrs. Miller (Barbara Barrie), while preparing breakfast for the family, hears an item from her all-news radio station's morning diet of disaster: "Arab terrorists today blew up an Italian jetliner and in retaliation three Italian terrorists have blown up a Japanese restaurant."

Alas, things start sagging when Mrs. M., bugged with the hazards of New York life, urges her hubby to move to Montana and become a chicken farmer — or at least take the day off.

"Liz," he sighs, "I've heard the radio. Shootings, bombings — it's my busy season."

When he arrives at work, he's promptly held at gunpoint by a young Puerto Rican junkie who has been arrested for mugging and filched the gun from the arresting officer when brought to the police station.

"Boy, do I hate to start a day like this," Miller groans, but in due course he talks the surrenderer amid quick and generally limp commentary from the captain's nervous colleagues.

BACY SHOW
With better writing and a far brisker pace, the series might click. But right now, its only real asset is actor Gregory Sierra, who plays a Puerto Rican cop with a comic skill the show would do well to emulate.

"Hot L Baltimore," based on the hit off-Broadway comedy about a seedy hotel's inhabitants, is a king-sized disappointment, despite the work Norman Lear put in as a codeveloper of this series.

It features a loveable multitude of wacko characters, among them two prostitutes, one Colombian, the other American, who spend their time rolling in and out of the lobby in search of a premise.

Friday night's premise concerns the Colombian hooker's impending marriage to a client, a "Hollywood producer" who sports a WIN button and proves to be seedier than the Burpee catalogue.

Let this be considered racy, ABC plans to start the show by warning viewers that "parental judgment and discretion are advised," thus making it television's first PG-rated comedy.

But after inspecting the series' first two shows at an advance screening, I'd give "Hot L Baltimore" an NG (for No Good) rating.

Murder Trial Jury Selection

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — Jury selection continued today in the murder trial of two Ft. Sill, Okla., soldiers charged with slaying a highway patrolman following a bank robbery last fall.

The patrolman, Hollie Tull, was gunned down after he stopped a car near Temple to question its occupants about a robbery at the Walburg, Tex., State Bank.

Arrested and charged later with Tull's death were Larry Joe Ross and Selwyn Gholson, both 20.

When court was recessed Wednesday, eight jurors had been picked.

The case was moved from Bell County to Odessa on a change of venue.
